S. A. BARNES DIES APRIL 20 AT HIS HOME

Death Comes Unexpectedly To Long Time Resident Who Was Brother Of Former Eagle Publisher, And Political And Business Leader In This Community

Funeral services for Solon A Barnes, 77, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 in the First Congregational church with the Rev Dale D Brown officiating Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery

Mr. Barnes died some time during the night of April 8 at his home on West Broadway where he lived alone Coroner Robert Eaton of Clarion set April 9 as the date of death and "internal hemorrhage" as the cause of death

Mr Barnes had been retired from business life since 1928 but had been a daily visitor to the business district.

Friday he became ill and sought the advice of a physician. The doctor attempted to persuade him to go to the hospital but he refused and went to his home alone, stating he didn't want any help

Saturday when he failed to show up for his daily paper or to visit the recreation parlor where he usually stopped friends became suspicious and notified police. The police forced entrance to his home that evening and found his body near the bed as if he had just stepped out of bed

Mr Barnes was a prominent figure in Eagle Grove and Wright county during his younger years He was cashier of the Security Savings Bank for 20 years and was twice elected to the state legislature as a Republican

He also served briefly as a printer and as a brakeman on the C&NW RR He came to Eagle Grove in 1897 when his father bought this newspaper the Eagle Grove Eagle. Although not always active in civic affairs he was always intensely interested in Eagle Grove and Wright county He was also a loyal member and worker in the Republican party He read the Chicago Tribune daily for many many years

He was preceded in death by his parents with whom he lived until their death, his brother Ward who was editor and publisher of the Eagle, another brother Raymond two sisters Lois and Lydia nephews Clarence and Glen and a cousin nephew Harry

He is survived by a nephew Arthur M Barnes of Iowa City a niece Mrs Mary Barnes Baxter of Rochester N Y and several grand nieces and nephews

Here for the funeral from out of town were Arthur Barnes of Iowa City Mrs Wm P Baxter of Rochester N Y Mrs Clarence Barnes Mrs Dorothy Gordon, Butterfield, Minn and Mr and Mrs Glen Barnes of Newburg Wis

Not Available For Adults Yet

Physicians in the city have asked that adults other than pregnant women do not ask for vaccination now. There is a supply available for commercial use and it will be given to children in the incidence ages at parental request as fast as possible. These shots of course will not be free of charge as are the shots for the first and second graders.

Pregnant women can receive the shots from their physicians at their convenience and at their own expense.

The Salk polio vaccine has been found to be from 60% to 90% effective with the higher ratio of effectiveness in the more deadly and serious types of polio.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is financing the vaccine for the first and second grade pupils all over the nation.
