J. W. Frizzell Rites To Be Held Today

Died at Grinnell Hospital Monday After Long Illness

Last rites for J. W. Frizzell, 81, life-long resident of the Brooklyn community will be held in the Brooklyn Presbyterian church this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 with the Rev. M. A. Robeson, pastor of the church in charge. He will be assisted by the Rev. E. W. F. Holler. Miss Thursia Manatt will be at the organ and play a number of hymns.

Mr. Frizzell died at a Grinnell hospital Monday morning. He had been in ill health for some time.

Interment will be in the Brooklyn I. O. O. F. cemetery. Members of the local I. O. O. F. lodge will attend the service in a body and conduct their burial ritual at the grave. Pallbearers will be: Frank Talbott, Earl Holley, Will Holley, Harry Bickford, Harley Burch, Roy Read.

The son of Thomas and Margaret Frizzell, John Wilford Frizzell was born Jan. 10, 1865, at Brooklyn. His death occurred at a Grinnell hospital April 22, 1946.

He was married to June Sleggel Feb. 17, 1892 and the couple made its home on a farm west of Brooklyn until moving to Brooklyn in 1915. Except for short intervals he had since made his home here.

Surviving are a son, Wayne Frizzell of Brooklyn; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Ritter of Grinnell and Mrs. Charles Reading of Kansas City, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. G. W. Murrison and Mrs. J. W. Silcott of Brooklyn; and six grandchildren, Fern Frizzell of Brooklyn, Carma Frizzell Householder of Montgomery, Alabama, Dennis and Richard Ritter of Grinnell, and Jane and Thomas Charles Reading of Kansas City.

His wife died in 1935 and a son, Thomas Lee, also preceded him in death.

Mr. Frizzell had been active for many years in the affairs of the community and had served on the town council and as Poweshiek county supervisor. He also represented Poweshiek Co. in the lower house of the state legislature for three terms. He maintained an active interest in the Democratic party.

Mr. Frizzell was also active in Iowa fraternal circles. He was a member of the Brooklyn I. O. O. F. lodge and four years ago received the order's 50-year pin. In the state organization he was a past department commander of the Canton and past grand patriarch of the Encampment. He had also been a representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

He was a member of the Rebekahs, the Grinnell Elks Lodge and the local Presbyterian church.

Cub Scout Display Set

Plane Handicraft Will Be Shown

Scheduled for next Monday evening is a meeting of the Cub Pack scouts in the old gymnasium at eight o'clock. Feature of the evening will be a display of airplanes which the boys have made in handicraft work and the assembling of two airports.

Included on the program will be induction ceremonies for Brownlie Graham and Billy Billick. Graduating from the Cub Pack will be Ivan Walker and Billy Gilbreaith. Merit badges will be awarded to the scouts and an airplane story told by boys along with a report from each one on "Good Will."

Den mothers who will attend the meeting and also assist in the program are Mrs. Fern Graham and Mrs. T. R. McGeorge. Kenneth Coburn, cub master, said the public is invited and in conclusion the master stated, "A cub is fair and a cub is square—why don't you plan to be there."

Soybean Contest Renewed Here

Soybean growers in Poweshiek County may compete for $500 in cash prizes to be awarded in the 1946 Iowa 5-acre Soybean Yield Contest, L. D. Brown County Extension Director, announced this week.

The state soybean yield contest was started in 1941. In 1945 it was suspended because of war conditions. Sponsor of the state contest and 12 district contests is the Iowa Corn and Small Grain Growers Association. This group, in addition to offering $500 in cash, will present the state winner with the John Sand trophy, a master soybean growers medal to each district winner and a certificate to the winner of each local contest. Cash awards include $50 to the state winner; $15 to the district winner; and additional prizes for other district place winners.

Entry blanks and copies of the rules and regulations for both the county and state contests may be obtained at the county extension office.
