It's the 4-Door Riviera

the stunning new hit of America's Hardtops

WHEN Buick introduced America's first hardtop—the Riviera—folks went for it in a big way, and fast.

They liked the Convertible look of this 2-door beauty—long, low and rakish. They liked the added security of the steel roof overhead. And they certainly liked the absence of center posts in the side window areas—which gave a completely unbroken view left and right.

People liked it all so well that, over the past six years, they made the Riviera the biggest-selling hardtop in the world, bar none. And it still is.

Now Buick has come up with another great advance in hardtops—the 4-Door Riviera—and it's a sensational hit.

It has every 2-Door Rivier doors for rea and a whole for them.
