LORENZO D. TETER, Knoxville.—Representative from Marion county. Served in the house of representatives during the thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-second extra, forty-fifth, forty-fifth extra and forty-sixth sessions. Engaged in general practice of the law, and owns and operates farm lands near Knoxville. A republican.

LORENZO D. TETER, Knoxville.—Representative from Marion county, was born on a farm in said county and educated in rural schools, Iowa Business College, Des Moines, Rochester Business University, Rochester, New York, Des Moines (Baptist) College, Drake University law school, law department State University of Iowa, and Harvard University law school. Engaged in general practice of the law at Knoxville, and owns and operates farm lands in said county. Served in the house of representatives during the thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-second extra and forty-fifth sessions. He was one of a committee who drafted the original primary election law; also one of a committee whose investigation and report resulted in placing the educational institutions under the state board of education. Author of the original law requiring candidates for public office to file a detailed and sworn statement of campaign expenses. Former city attorney of Knoxville. Married Clelia Grace Andrews. Member Masonic lodge. A republican.

LORENZO D. TETER,

Representative from Marion county, was born of American parentage on a farm in this county March 9, 1870. His grandfather, a native of Ohio, was one of the pioneers of Iowa, having originally settled in Van Buren county, but later removed to Marion county, where the family has since resided. His education was acquired in the common schools, the Des Moines Baptist College, the Rochester (N. Y.) Business College and the law department of the State University of Iowa, being a member of the law class of 1900. Since that time he has been engaged in the practice of law at Knoxville. Prior to entering the law department of the State University he spent a number of years as a teacher in normal and business colleges. He was first elected to the Legislature in 1903, re-elected in 1906. Served during the Thirtieth, Thirty-first and Thirty-second General Assemblies. A Republican in politics.