Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Carey, George W. Senator _____

Represented Polk County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 23 Nov 1852 Whitehall, New York

2. Marriage (s) date place

Emma E. Parker

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business State attorney for the Great Western Railroad

B. Civic responsibilities Elks Club; Masons; Shriners

C. Profession Attorney

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 27th, 28th General Assemblies 1898, 1900

6. Public Offices

A. Local Elected district judge serving 7 years

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 6 Dec 1912 Des Moines, Iowa; buried

8. Children Maude (Mrs. John C. Miley); Fred P.

9. Names of parents _____

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

Carr, George N.

10. Education His early education began in Sandwich, Illinois schools

11. Degrees Graduate of the Iowa State University law school, Iowa City, Iowa

12. Other applicable information Republican

- He moved with his parents to Sandwich, Illinois
- He came to northwestern Iowa in the early days from Illinois.
- He took up the study of law, graduated and entered law practice at Emmetsburg, Iowa.
- After 7 years he resigned the district judge position and moved to Des Moines around 1893 entering into a partnership with A.C. Parker. Later he was a member of the law firm of Carr, Hewitt, Parker and Haight until Jan. 1908 when he withdrew and established the firm of Carr, Carr and Evans.

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

Carr, George H.

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
Obituary -	The Des Moines Capital, Des Moines, Iowa, Fri. Dec. 6, 1918, p. 1, col. 2 and p. 10, col. 1

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

are buried each day between six and nine o'clock in the morning, no funerals being permitted later during the day.

Of a normal population of two millions, only a half million persons are left in Petrograd. The city looks deserted.

Half of all the flats are occupied by red guards and their families. Hotels, restaurants, cafes and offices are closed. The houses of the middle classes are deserted, their furniture has been stolen and the windows have been smashed.

Many widely known persons have been shot or have starved to death recently. Rumors of approaching entente intervention have increased bolshevistic hatred and resulted in frenzied persecution of the middle class elements.

There is great nervousness in the neutral legations. The Polish legation has been looted while the Swiss legation has been entered. The personnel of this legation has left Petrograd.

UNITED STATES AT SEA AS TO WILSON PLANS

By FRANK H. SIMONDS.
(Special to The Capital.)

It would be impossible to assert that in his address to congress President Wilson in any slightest degree increased the sum of the nation's knowledge of his plans and purposes in his European journey.

He has left congress and the country where they were before he spoke—with one inevitable consequence.

In the peace congress America will be represented by the president, but neither the president nor his associates can speak for America with any evidence, public or personal, that the country or congress agree with the views expressed.

Mr. Wilson is going to Versailles to express his own views as to peace terms. These views, in the broadest and vaguest possible terms, have been set forth in the various addresses of Mr. Wilson on and after January 8.

HASN'T CLEARED UP SITUATION.

But in no address has he made clear what he means exactly with respect of any controversial point. Our associates have rejected his statement of the "freedom of the seas." Our British friends have clearly demonstrated that in this matter, vital to them, they will necessarily consult their own interests, which are matters of life and death for them.

The British colonies have publicly affirmed their determination not to return to German colonies, conquered by their arms, after having served as bases for attack.

Mr. Wilson goes to Europe to champion the formation of a league of nations, but there has been no

FORMER JUDGE CARR DIES OF PNEUMONIA AT HOME IN CITY

Hon George H. Carr, of wide reputation as successful practitioner in law and state attorney for the Great Western railroad, died at 11:15 o'clock today at his home, 1439 Sixth avenue. He had been sick since

GEORGE H. CARR

Sunday. Although he had contracted pneumonia following an attack of influenza, it is thought that his death was due to the rupture of a blood vessel.

He was 66 years old, a native of Whitehall, New York, and was born November 23, 1852. The family later moved to Sandwish, Ill., where his earlier education began.

Judge Carr came to Northwestern Iowa in the early days from Illinois. He took up the study of law and graduated and entered the practice at Emmetsburg. In the course of time he was elected district judge, serving seven years, until he resigned and came to Des Moines, about twenty-five years ago, entering into partnership with Hon. A. C. Parker.

When A. B. Cummins was elected governor, Mr. Carr became one of the members of the law firm of Carr, Hewitt, Parker & Wright. He practiced in that relation until January, 1908, when he withdrew and established the firm of Carr, Carr and a stamped envelope to Mr. Good Fellow, care The Capital. He'll return you the names of as many deserving kids as you seek.

Continued on Page Ten. Col. One

Then it's up to you to make good on your pledge.

It's a wonderful scheme. For several years Mr. Good Fellow at The Capital has been putting over this great Christmas plan. And the Good Fellows of Des Moines have co-operated marvelously.

Let's do it again!

You'll find the coupon on page one of this issue.

Get busy quick!

COUNCIL ADOPTS "FLU" REGULATIONS; IN EFFECT TODAY

The board of health at a meeting late Thursday afteroon passed a resolution ordering the following "flu" restrictions which went into effect at 7 o'clock today and will continue for a minimum period of ten days.

All public places of amusement, including theaters and motion picture houses be hereby limited to not to exceed one-half of their seating capacity in alternate rows.

Dance halls, public and private dancing places, skating rinks, outdoor atheltic events, public schools and Sunday schools are closed for a minimum period ending not earlier than December 16 at 9 a. m.

All places publicly known as five and ten cent stores shall have stationed at all entrances and exits special officers who shall have full charge as to the number of people entering therein.

That all department store basements as well as other basements where merchandise is offered for sale shall be examined daily by city health inspectors and all such places where congestion is permitted or improper ventilation exists shall be closed for the same period.

Streetcars shall be restricted in their carrying capacity to eighty persons for the smaller type of cars and ninety persons for the larger type and there shall be proper ventilation and daily disinfection.

CLUB WOMEN APPEAR.

A number of representative club women today declared before the city council that the regulations passed Thursday are inadequate and demanded the following action:

1. Return to the "flu" lid put on Oct. 9.
2. Placard every home where "flu" is prevalent.
3. Recommend inoculation against pneumonia with Dr. Rosenau's vaccine, and furnish it free to those who ask it.

MRS. CLOYD SPEAKS.

Mrs. David E. Cloyd acted as spokesman of the party in the ab-

Continued on Page Ten. Col. Two

"FLU" FALLING OFF

JACK SWEENEY IMPROVED TODAY

take in tect the Harris
Emil S
solutely n
Harris' st
tion."
"I do n in further to furnish to give t service at the staten who arriv consult w
two attor garding t
the fight
M
The stu
"I have ing with many revl franchise.
Contl

KENO
A

KENOS osha, an citizens," by the One com 300 men
the demo
army, no or why papers to employm who wan ing the o not be to

Berli
A

COPE
5.—Alli will ten exercis cording meine says th dispatc interce newspa will be The
the par a "reg which s camp s

SENA
WAR

WASH
The war
the senat
the peac
was prse Chairma
measure, slightly 1919 and taxation, Monday strongly the 1920

HONOR

PARIS
Albert, Q
Leopold

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

ter day for the men.

It is hoped that various organizations, clubs and individuals who wish to do something for the men in the hospitals will make their donations thru the Red Cross. In this way every man will be remembered, and none will get more his share, while another is neglected.

If you have a pet scheme for remembering some of the soldiers, take it up with the Red Cross headquarters.

Former Judge Carr Dies of Pneumonia at Home in City

Continued from Page One

Evans. Don Evans, recently retired from the firm and Clifford Cox succeeded him, the firm becoming Carr, Carr & Cox.

During the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth general assemblies Judge Carr served as a member of the state legislature, being placed on a number of important committees.

Judge Carr was a republican of the progressive type and held membership in the Grant club, one of the leading political organizations of the state, also in the Des Moines club and the Prairie club. He belonged to the Elks club and was a prominent member of the Masonic lodge, having attained the Knight Templar degree and being a Noble of the Mystic Shrine.

In 1876, a year before his completion of the law course at the Iowa State university, Judge Carr was married in Detroit, Michigan, to Miss Emma E. Parker, of New York. Their children are: Maude, the wife of John C. Miley, a resident of Chicago, and Fred P., who married Miss Agnes Cram, of Des Moines, and has been engaged with his father in the practice of law.

The death of Judge Carr will be sincerely mourned by thousands of friends, and he will be especially mourned by members of the Polk county bar; in fact will be mourned by members of the State Bar association. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity; was a man of the highest personal character, and his success at the bar testifies to his ability as a lawyer. Thru all of his years of life he was upright and true.

Propaganda of Germany Being Bared

Continued from Page One

phile journalist who has contributed leading articles to papers."

Another message, dated June 5, 1916, said:

"Hale tells me and Hearst confirms that the latter is rather hurt that on Wiegand's account the World gets all the important Berlin interviews. I recommend that under suitable circumstances Hale should, for obvious reasons, be given preference, as the Hearst organs have during the course of war always placed themselves outspokenly on our side."

LISTS PRO-GERMANS.

From the diary of Dr. Karl A. Bunz, a German agent brought to America by Dr. Dernburg, was produced a paper labeled "an important list of names" which, Mr. Bielaski

DR. CHARLES F. AKED.

Dr. Charles F. Aked, who will be in Des Moines Monday, December 9, to confer with prominent Iowa men and women in regard to the Armenian and Syrian relief campaign to be put on here January 12 to 19, will also appear at a big public mass meeting to be held Monday evening at Plymouth Congregational church.

Dr. Aked is a personal friend of Lloyd George and came to the United States as pastor of John D. Rockefeller's church. Later he was pastor of the First Congregational church in San Francisco, and during the period of the war has devoted his time to a study of the conditions in the famine swept countries of eastern Europe. He is recognized as one of the best authorities on the subject, and his eloquence as a speaker is known in Des Moines, as he lectured here several years ago.

Hexamer, Philadelphia; Charles Nagel, St. Louis; Oswald Garrison Villard, New York Evening Post; William Randolph Hearst, New York American; Bernard Ridder, New York Staats Zeitung; Edward A. Rumely, New York Evening Mail; Frederick A. Schrader, New York; Frank Harris, No. 3 Washington Square, New York; Robert I. Ford, Freeman's Journal, New York; Rev. Father Thirney, American Catholic Weekly, New York; Max A. Hein, New York; George S. Viereck, New York.

Beside this list Mr. Bielaski also presented a supplemental list of about thirty names of others to whom he said German propaganda matter was mailed, but who were not believed to be friendly to the cause. This last the committee decided to withhold from the record.

Mr. Bielaski produced letters Dr. Hale wrote to Dr. Albert, German propagandist, advising how notes written by Secretary Bryan during the Lusitania controversy should be answered.

Council Adopts "Flu" Regulations— In Effect Today

Continued from Page One

sence of Mrs. Homer Miller, chairman of the local women's division of the Council of Defense. Other members were Mrs. Bert McKee, Federated Women's clubs; Mrs. James Linnane, Catholic Women's league; Mrs. Paul Jones, Parent-Teachers council; Mrs. Frank Travers, City Federation; Mrs. W. E. Maulsby and Mrs. George Burberry, Girls' Volunteer aid; Mrs. Sam Weinstock, Federated Jewish charities; Mrs. W. W. Littell, Des Moines Women's club; Dr. Nelle Noble, Mrs. F. Rosenfield, Mrs. T. J. Needham.

The women told the council that there were 675 new cases of "flu" reported to the health department Thursday with thirteen deaths. They stated that there have been more deaths in the first five days of De-addition to w upward of $ floating indel of approxima

DID NOT

"I did not people of De
the company ficiently to contract and
The board of the company
just what is fares to mee
by the way,
the company
its stock. T its attorneys port, has in prevent us f
this situatio earn interest depreciation.

"I do not in further pe to furnish t
to give the c
vice at less t very anxious furnish satis possible, but able to earn ning expens
the creditors immediate a interests."

Read tod catalog.

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.