Rationing Board Will Not Be Open To Public Before 1:00 P. M. Daily

Due to the large amount of work that is being done by the Rationing office in Onawa, it will be necessary for the office to be closed to the general public until 1:00 p. m. each day beginning July 1st.

You are urged to mail your renewal applications for fuel oil "A" ration books and ODT certificates into the office and not bring them in in person. It is impossible to issue you your ration when you bring it in and by mailing it in you save yourself a trip. When your applications have been acted upon by the board your ration will be mailed to you.

M. E. RAWLINGS, SON OF ED RAWLINGS OF ONAWA BECOMES DIST. OPA DIRECTOR JULY 1

Woodbury County's Former County Attorney Will Succeed Harry J. Gleason With the Office in Sioux City.

Maurice E. Rawlings, OPA Legal Advisor for the Sioux City district office, will become director of that office July 1st, Regional OPA Administrator Raymond S. McKeough of Chicago Announced Saturday.

This is interesting news to Onaawa and Monona County folks as Mr. Rawlings is a product of this county, having been born in Onawa and is the son of one of the good citizens, Ed Rawlings former state representative.

The new OPA director will succeed Harry J. Gleason, who served as OPA director several months before resigning to become Sioux City's postmaster. Mr. Gleason will become Postmaster on July 1st.

Mr. Rawlings was Woodbury County Attorney for several years before joining the OPA legal staff last fall. A native of Onawa he went to Sioux City in 1930 where he practiced law In July 1938 he was appointed head of a committee of the Iowa Bar Association to study parole system reforms and juvenile delinquency. Iu December of that year he was elected president of the Iowa County Atttorney's Association.

Mr. Rawlings is a graduate of the University of South Dakota, where he obtained his law degree He also studied at the University of Iowa for two years. He is married and the father of five children.

Henry M. Bard, 64, Died at Onawa Hospital June 23, 1943

Henry Manford Bard was born June 19, 1899 near Castana and passed away June 23, 1943 at the Onawa hospital at the age of 64 years and 4 days. He was the youngest of four children to Henry and Ovanda Winegar Bard, pioneer citizens of Monona county.

Manford attended school at Grant Center and during his younger days he spent twenty years on homestead land in Kidder county, N. D.

He was an active member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Rodney.

Manford was always consider-

HENRY EDGINGTON FORMER REPRESENTATIVE IS DEAD

WELL KNOWN AND LOVED CITIZEN OF MAPLETON DIED SUNDAY AFTER A TWO WEEKS ILLNESS

He was a Former Representative of Monona County at Capitol and Also Held the Office of Supervisor for Many Years.

The Democrat editor was sorrowed on Monday to learn of the death of Henry Edgington, of Mapleton. Mr. Edgington passed away at his home after a short illness of only two weeks. He had attained the age of 89 years.

It hardly seems possible that our good friend of the east side had reached the age of 89 years, because it only seems such a short time ago that he was active in county political circles. Mr. Edgington was honored by the citizens of this county at two different times. First he served the county as one of its supervisors along with J. R. Murphy if we are not mistaken. And a good supervisor he was. Then his political aims became a little higher and entered the election for the office of State Representative. In this he was also successful, and represented this county a term or two in the legislature.

Henry Edgington

After retiring from political offices, Mr. Edgington went back to his farm where he has devoted his time since, and he was recognized as one of the most prominent cattle feeders of the county.

A native Crawford county, Illinois man, Mr. Edgington came to Iowa when he was only 18 years old. At one time he owned more than 1,000 acres of land and was widely known in Western, Iowa as a cattle feeder.

He served Monona County in the thirty seventh, eighth and ninth State Legislature, and it was during that time that the above picture was taken of Mr. Edgington. He also served the county as supervisor for three terms.

He was a Mason and also a member of the Methodist church at Mapleton.

Mr. Edgington is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mable Renfro, and two sons, Harlan and John all of Mapleton.

Fnuneral services were conducted from the First Methodist church at Mapleton on last Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

Congregational Church Extends a Call To Pastor

The Congregational Church extended a call to Rev. Mr. Roberts, of New Cambria, Mo., at a meeting held on Sunday at that church. Rev. Roberts was here and delivered the morning sermon. It is not known as yet whether Rev. Roberts will accept the call or not. He has been preaching for 25 years and is a man about forty-five, is married and has one son, who is now a medical student in one of the eastern colleges. Rev. Roberts came highly recommended to the local church.

Miss Virginia Anderson Will Teach in Ottumwa, Ia. School

Miss Virginia Anderson who resigned this spring as kindergarten remedial instructor at the Webster building has accepted a similar position in the kindergarten at Ottumwa, Iowa it was learned here this week.

Miss Anderson whose home is in Onawa, was a member of the Cherokee teaching staff for the past three years. At the time of her resignation this spring she was undecided as to whether she would teach this fall or enter another field of work.

The new position at Ottumwa is a considerable advancement for Miss Anderson, who was one of the most popular teachers here. She was active in outside activities and was a member of the board of Wa-Tan-Ye.

Miss Anderson is a graduate of Iowa State College at Cedar Falls.—Cherokee Courier.

Editor's note. Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mrs. Agnes Anderson of this city and the Democrat notes with great satisfaction the advancement being made by this fine young lady.

Navy Offering Girls a $2,700.00 Education at Some Leading Colleges

The Sioux City Navy Recruiters when in Onawa on their regular weekly visit Monday stated that many new schools and colleges had been added to the list of training schools for the girls who enlist in the WAVES. There has also been added three new aviation schools to the WAVE training program. This addition makes seven aviation schools in all that are now open to the girls.

Girls of Monona County who are interested in the WAVE program may complete their enlistment papers with the Navy Recruiters any Monday when they visit the Post Office in Onawa. Girls between the ages of 20 and 36 may also write the Sioux City Navy Recruiting Station which is located in the Post Office Building for full information

The Navy is offering the girls a $2700.00 education at any one of several of the leading colleges in the country and the chance to have a real part in winning this war. Girls should look into the program.

DISTRICT EAGLE MEETING HELD HERE SUNDAY

ATTY. M. RAWLINGS OF SIOUX CITY AND DISTRICT OPA HEAD ADDRESSES THE CONVENTION

Was Held in the Local Aerie— The Next District Convention Will be Held in [illegible], Ia., On July 18.

"Our government as a democracy not only gives on one hand but on the other makes certain specific demands on us" said Maurice E. Rawlings, newly appointed Sioux City district OPA director, to the northwest Iowa district convention of Eagles at Onawa Sunday.

Speaking to Sioux City, Spencer, Hawarden and south Omaha delegates attending the meeting which featured initiation of 31 new Onawa Eagles, Mr. Rawlings emphasized his topic. The Demands of a Democracy by defining the prerequisites of good citizenship as loyalty, patience and courage.

"We shall continue to have real issues before us and these are issues to which honest and intelligent men must adjust themselves without shock and internal discord," Mr. Rawlings said.

Present at the meeting were B. D. Hamilton, Nebraska state president of the Eagles, and Merle Cox, Sioux City, Iowa state president, Edward W. Malzahn, district organized presided.

The next district meeting will be held in Sioux City July 18, Mr. Cox said. Cy Nolan, Davanport attorney and state trustee of the Eagles lodge will be principal speaker.

Here Are Three Good Ways To Avoid a Fuel Shortage

Fuel shortage can be avoided, says the OWI report, only if— 1, large users of fuel oil, those using more than 10,000 gallons a year, convert their oil burners now; 2, both home and industrial users of bituminous coal burners order now; 3 householders place orders for insulation, weather stripping, storm windows, etc immediately.

Luther League at Soldier to Hold Program on the Fourth

The young people's Luther League of Soldier has planned a sort of Fourth of July celebration to be held at the south church, July 4th, The South church is about four miles south east of Soldier.

They urge you to save your tires and gas, by celebrating in your own community or county, as they have an enjoyable day planned for all. The program will be as follows;

11:00 a. m. Sunday morning services. Special music by the choir.

Noon: Cafeteria dinner. Choose what you want and pay for what you get.

Menu: Scalloped potatoes, variety of meats, fresh vegetables, garden salads, coffee, and pie.

2:30 Patriotic Program: Prelude; Invocation; National Anthem; Welcome, Gerald Norby; Solo, Nadine Berens; Male quartette selections; Pageant: "I'm an American"; Community Sing directed by Marjorie Norby
