Map plans for CROP campaign

Monday night a meeting was held at the extension office in the courthouse to map plans for the coming CROP drive. The local CROP campaign is conducted entirely by volunteer workers to provide food for needy people in other countries. This year's goal for Crawford county is one carload of corn. Farmers make contributions of either cash or corn.

The kickoff meeting for township workers will be held Monday, Nov. 16. CROP Sunday has been set for Nov. 22. The CROP canvass will be held Nov. 23-24.

Area captains are Bob Bish, Westside; Claus Sievers, Kiron; August Nehls, Denison; Lewis Vennick, Manning, and John K. Weiss, Dow City. Other CROP officers are: Maclyn LaRue and Jim Mander, Denison, promotion directors; Rev. John Middents, Jr., secretary; Rev. Willard Peterson, publicity chairman; Harold Justice, Manilla, chairman; T. C. Aarestad, Denison, treasurer; and Earl Riggleman, commodity chairman.

Contributions to CROP provide supplies that are distributed to people in over 30 countries on the basis of need, without question of race, creed or politics, under the supervision of Church World Service representative and the churches of those countries. CROP's pri-

Nebraskan hired as new airport manager

A 45-year-old Nebraskan Wednesday was named manager of the Denison Municipal Airport.

He is Richard Whited, a 20-year veteran of airport work, who signed a three-year contract with the Airport Commission.

Whited comes here from the Sky Ranch Airport, a private strip located five miles northwest of Omaha. He had been there since 1960. Prior to that he managed the South Omaha Airport for eight years. Whited became a licensed mechanic in 1942 and began flying in 1946.

He is a widower and has one married daughter.

Whited, who will assume his new duties about Dec. 1, succeeds Everett Phillips.

Set funeral service for William Dreessen

Funeral services are set for 2 p. m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church for 74-year-old William J. "Bill" Dreessen, chairman of the Crawford County Board of Supervisors, who was fatally stricken Tuesday morning in a downtown Denison cafe.

Mr. Dreessen was concluding his third term as a supervisor. He had planned to retire at the end of this term.

Mr. Dreessen was widely known in Iowa political circles, having been a member of the Iowa legislature for three regular terms and two special sessions. He was a former county assessor.

Mr. Dreessen was born in Crawford County Aug. 19, 1889, the son of Herman and Margaret Dreessen. He was educated in rural schools and lived in the county nearly all his life, farming about four miles east and a half mile north of Boyer.

He is survived by his wife, Wilhelmina, 1122 Fifth Avenue North, Denison; three sons, Marvin and Leonard of Vail and Alfred of Wall Lake; three daughters, Mrs. Glenn Hollander of Des Moines, Mrs. Ralph Alter of Coffeyville, Kans., and Mrs. Lowell Miller of Cedar Rapids; 10 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Burial will be in Crawford Heights Memory Gardens. Huebner Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.
