

231C.9 Public disclosure of findings.

Upon completion of a monitoring evaluation or complaint investigation of an assisted living program by the department of inspections and appeals pursuant to this chapter, including the conclusion of all administrative appeals processes, the department of inspections and appeals' final findings with respect to compliance by the assisted living program with requirements for certification shall be made available to the public in a readily available form and place. Other information relating to an assisted living program that is obtained by the department of inspections and appeals which does not constitute the department of inspections and appeals' final findings from a monitoring evaluation or complaint investigation of the assisted living program shall be made available to the department of elder affairs upon request in order to facilitate policy decisions, but shall not be made available to the public except in proceedings involving the denial, suspension, or revocation of a certificate under this chapter.
