

3.3 Headnotes and historical references.

Proper headnotes may be placed at the beginning of a section of a bill or a Code section, and at the end of a Code section there may be placed a reference to the section number of the Code, or any Iowa Act from which the matter of the Code section was taken. However, except as provided in the uniform commercial code, section 554.1109, neither said headnotes nor said historical references shall be considered as a part of the law as enacted.
