

635.8 Closing by sworn statement.

1. Unless an interested person petitions for administration of the estate on a basis other than for a small estate within four months after letters of administration for a small estate are issued, if those letters of administration are not terminated under the provisions of section 635.7, any property of the estate shall then be free of debts and charges, unless a claim has been filed as provided in section 635.13. The executor or administrator is personally liable for the payment of debts and charges against the estate to the extent the assets of the estate would be subject to the payment of those debts and charges under estate administration other than a small estate.

2. The executor or administrator shall file with the court a closing statement within six months from the date of issuance of the letters of appointment, and the closing statement shall be verified or affirmed under penalty of perjury, stating all of the following:

a. To the best knowledge of the person, the gross value of the estate subject to the jurisdiction of this state does not exceed the amount permitted the small estate under the applicable provision of section 635.1.

b. The estate has been fully administered, dispersed, and distributed to persons entitled to the estate and a description of the disbursement and distribution of the estate including an accurate description of all the real estate of which the decedent died seized, stating the nature and extent of the interest in the real estate and its disposition.

c. A copy of the closing statement has been sent to all distributees of the estate and to all known creditors and a full account in writing of the administration of the estate has been furnished to the distributees whose interests are affected.

3. If no actions or proceedings involving the estate are pending in the court sixty days after the closing statement is filed, the estate shall close and the clerk shall discharge the administrator or executor.

4. The closing statement shall include a statement as to the amount of fees paid for services rendered by the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney in administration of the estate. The fees for the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney shall not be in excess of the fees permitted by section 633.197.

5. A closing statement filed under this section has the same effect as final settlement of the estate under chapter 633.
