This final edition of the Bill Index and History includes all the material in the previous editions issued for the convenience of members during the legislative session, and is intended to be a complete record of every bill and joint resolution, with dates when action was taken and reference to journal page numbers and so far as possible to the chapter numbers in the session laws yet to be published.

At the time of adjournment there was left on the desk of the governor for his consideration 180 bills and joint resolutions, which may be held not longer than 30 days.

The last week of the session the Senate acted favorably on 62 Senate bills and 75 House bills, either by direct passage or concurrence in amendments, and voted adversely on 16 others. In the same time the House acted favorably on 52 House Bills and 104 Senate bills, and adversely on 23 others.

Of the bills passed 103 were legalizing acts or for land patents or other special purposes, or of a general legalizing nature.
