The amount thereof shall be fixed, and the bond approved, by the official board or officer empowered to let the contract, in an amount not less than seventy-five percent of the contract price, and sufficient to comply with all requirements of said contract and to insure the fulfillment of every condition, expressly or impliedly embraced in said bond; except that in contracts where no part of the contract price is paid until after the completion of the public improvement the amount of said bond may be fixed at not less than twenty-five percent of the contract price. The principal and sureties on this bond hereby agree to pay to all persons, firms, or corporations having contracts directly with the principal or with subcontractors, all just claims due them for labor performed or materials furnished, in the performance of the contract on account of which this bond is given, when the same are not satisfied out of the portion of the contract price which the public corporation is required to retain until completion of the public improvement, but the principal and sureties shall not be liable to said persons, firms, or corporations unless the claims of said claimants against said portion of the contract price shall have been established as provided by law.

2. Every surety on this bond shall be deemed and held, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent without notice:

a. To any extension of time to the contractor in which to perform the contract.

b. To any change in the plans, specifications, or contract, when such change does not involve an increase of more than twenty percent of the total contract price, and shall then be released only as to such excess increase.

c. That no provision of this bond or of any other contract shall be valid which limits to less than one year from the time of the acceptance of the work the right to sue on this bond for defects in workmanship or material not discovered or known to the obligee at the time such work was accepted. [S13,§1527-s18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10304; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.6]

1. At any time before the expiration of thirty days immediately following the completion and final acceptance of the improvement.

2. At any time after said thirty-day period, if the public corporation has not paid the full

573.12 Retention from payments on contracts. Payments made under contracts for the construction of public improvements, unless provided otherwise by law, shall be made on the basis of monthly estimates of labor performed and material delivered. In making said payments, there shall be retained ten percent of each said monthly estimate by the public corporation; provided, however, that if the contract is for more than fifty thousand dollars, and if the public corporation at any time after fifty percent of the improvement has been completed finds that satisfactory progress is being made, the public corporation may authorize any of such remaining payments to be made in full. [S13,§1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10310; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.12]

573.13 Inviolability and disposition of fund. No public corporation shall be permitted to plead noncompliance with section 573.12, and the retained percentage of the contract price, which in no case shall be less than five percent shall constitute a fund for the payment of claims for materials furnished and labor performed on said improvement, and shall be held and disposed of by the public corporation as hereinafter provided. [S13,§1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10311; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.13]

573.14 Retention of unpaid funds. Said fund shall be retained by the public corporation for a period of thirty days after the completion and final acceptance of the improvement. No part of the unpaid fund due the contractor shall be retained as provided in this chapter on claims for material furnished, other than materials ordered by the general contractor or his authorized agent, unless such claims are supported by a certified statement that the general contractor had been notified within thirty days after the materials are furnished or by itemized invoices rendered to contractor during the progress of the work, of the amount, kind, and value of the material furnished for use upon the said public improvement, and no part of such unpaid fund due the contractor shall be retained as provided in this chapter because of the commencement of any action by the contractor against the state department of transportation under authority granted in section 613.11. [C31, 35,§10312-d1; C39,§10312.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.15; 65GA, ch 1180,§59]

Provided that upon written demand of the contractor served on the person or persons filing said claims requiring him to commence action in court to enforce his claim in the manner as prescribed for original notices, such action shall be commenced within thirty days thereafter, otherwise such retained and unpaid funds due the contractor shall be released; and it is further provided that, after such action is commenced, upon the general contractor filing with the public corporation or person withholding such funds, a surety bond in double the amount of the claim in controversy, conditioned to pay any final judgment rendered for such claims so filed, said public corporation or person shall pay to the contractor the amount of such funds so withheld. [C97,§3103; S13, §1989-a58; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10313; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.16]

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10314; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.17]

573.18 Adjudication—payment of claims. The court shall adjudicate all claims. Payments from said retained percentage, if still in the hands of the public corporation, shall be made in the following order:

1. Costs of the action.
2. Claims for labor.
3. Claims for materials.
4. Claims of the public corporation [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10315; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.18]

Referred to in §573.19

When the retained percentage aforesaid is insufficient to pay all claims for labor or materials, the court shall, in making distribution under section 573.18, order the claims in each class paid in the order of filing the same. [C97,§3102; S13, §1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10316; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.19]

573.20 Converting property into money. When it appears that the unpaid portion of the contract price for the public improvement, or a part thereof, is represented in whole or in part, by property other than money, or if a deposit has been made in lieu of a surety, the court shall have jurisdiction thereover, and may cause the same to be sold, under such procedure as it may deem just and proper, and disburse the proceeds as in other cases. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10317; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.20]

573.22 Unpaid claimants — judgment on bond. If, after the said retained percentage has been applied to the payment of duly filed and established claims, there remain any such claims unpaid in whole or in part, judgment shall be entered for the amount thereof against the principal and sureties on the bond. In case the said percentage has been paid over as herein provided, judgment shall be entered against the principal and sureties on all such claims. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10319; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.22]

573.23 Abandonment of public work—effect. When a contractor abandons the work on a public improvement or is legally excluded therefrom, the improvement shall be deemed completed for the purpose of filing claims as herein provided, from the date of the official cancellation of the contract. The only fund available for the payment of the claims of persons for labor performed or material furnished shall be the amount then due the contractor, if any, and if said amount be insufficient to satisfy said claims, the claimants shall have a right of action on the bond given for the performance of the contract. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10320; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§573.23]

595.1 Contract. Marriage is a civil contract, requiring the consent of the parties capable of entering into other contracts, except as herein otherwise declared. [C51,§1463; R60, §2515; C73,§2185; C97,§3139; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10427; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§595.1]

595.2 Age. A marriage between a male of eighteen and a female of sixteen years of age is valid; but if either party has not attained the age thus fixed, the marriage will be a nullity or not, at the option of such party, made known at any time before he or she is six months older than the age thus fixed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the district court may, when application is made by parties, one or both of whom are under the age thus fixed and the female of whom is pregnant or, having given birth to, is still in custody of a child, grant an order authorizing issuance of a marriage license by the clerk of the district court to said applicants and the marriage under such license shall be valid. The records of the court which pertain to such condition of pregnancy shall be sealed and available only to the contracting parties or to any interested party securing an order of court. [C51,§1464; R60,§2516; C73,§2186; C97, §3140; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10428; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§595.2]

595.3 License. Previous to the solemnization of any marriage, a license for that purpose must be obtained from the clerk of the district court. Such license must not be granted in any case:

1. Where either party is under the age necessary to render the marriage valid.
2. Where either party is under eighteen years of age, unless a certificate of the consent of the parents is filed. If one of the parents is dead such certificate may be executed by the survivor. If either parent is incompetent or his presence is unknown, the judge of the district court having jurisdiction in the county may, after hearing, upon proper cause shown, execute such certificate. If both parents are dead the guardian of a minor may execute the certificate but if the minor has no guardian then the judge of the district court having jurisdiction in the county may, after hearing, upon proper cause shown, execute the certificate. If the parents are divorced, the parent having legal custody may execute the certificate.

3. Where either party is disqualified from making any civil contract.

4. Where the parties are within the degrees of consanguinity or affinity in which marriages are prohibited by law.

5. Where either party is mentally ill or retarded, a mental retardate, or under guardianship as an incompetent. [C51,§§1465–1467; R60, §§2517, 2518; C73,§§2187–2189; C97,§§3141, 3142; S13,§3141; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§10429, 10431; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§595.3, 595.5; C62, 66, 71, 73,§595.3; 65GA, ch 140,§48]

595.4 Age and qualification—verified application—waiting period—exception. Previous to the issuance of any license to marry, the parties desiring such license shall sign and file a verified application with the clerk of the court which application either may be mailed to the parties at their request or may be signed by them at the office of the clerk of the district court in the county in which the license is to be issued. Such application shall set forth at least one affidavit of some competent and disinterested person stating such facts as to age and qualification of the parties as the clerk may deem necessary to determine the competency of the parties to contract a marriage. Upon the filing of the application for a license to marry, the clerk of the district court shall file the application in a record kept for that purpose.

After expiration of three days from the date of filing the application by the parties, the clerk shall issue the license if he is satisfied as to the competency of the parties to contract a marriage. If the license has not been issued within one year from the date of the application, the application shall be void and of no effect.

A license to marry may be issued prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for such license in cases of emergency or extraordinary circumstances. An order authorizing the issuance of such license may be granted by a judge of the district court under conditions of emergency or extraordinary circumstances upon application of the parties therefor filed with the clerk of court. No such order may be granted unless the parties have filed an application for a marriage license in a county within the judicial district. An application for such order shall be made on forms furnished by the clerk at the same time the application for the license to marry is made. If after examining the application for the marriage license the clerk is satisfied as to the competency of the parties to contract a marriage, he shall refer the parties to a judge of the district court for action on the application for an order authorizing the issuance of a marriage license prior to expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license. The judge shall, if satisfied as to the existence of an emergency or extraordinary circumstances, grant an order authorizing the issuance of a license to marry prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license to marry. The clerk shall issue a license to marry upon presentation by the parties of the order authorizing such license to be issued. A fee of five dollars shall be paid to the clerk at the time the application for the order is made, which fee shall be in addition to the fee prescribed by law for the issuance of a marriage license. [C51,§1468; R60,§2520; C73,§2190; C97,§3142; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10430; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§595.4]

If either applicant for a license is a minor, a certificate in writing of the parents or guardian, as the case may be, of consent, as provided in section 595.3, must be filed in the office of the clerk, and be acknowledged by them or proven to be genuine, and a memorandum thereof entered in the license book. The false making of such certificate shall be punishable as forgery. [C51, §1469; R60,§2521; C73,§2191; C97,§3143; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10434; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §595.8]

3. "Minor child" means any person under legal age. [C71, 73,§598.1]

[C51, §1481; R60,§2533; C73,§2221; C97,§3172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10470; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,§598.3; C71, 73,§598.6]

However, the court may in its discretion close the hearing. Hearings held for the purpose of determining child custody may be limited in attendance by the court. [C73,§2222; C97,§3173; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,§598.5; C71, 73, §598.8]

598.9 Residence—failure of proof. If the averments as to residence are not fully proved, the hearing shall proceed no further, and the action be dismissed by the court. [C73,§2222; C97,§3173; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,§598.6; C71, 73,§598.9]

598.11 Temporary orders. The court may order either party to pay the clerk a sum of money for the separate support and maintenance of the other party and the children and to enable such party to prosecute or defend the action.

The court may make such an order when a claim for temporary support is made by the petitioner in the petition, or upon application of either party, after service of the original notice and when no application is made in the petition; however, no such order shall be entered until at least five days' notice of hearing, and opportunity to be heard, is given the other party. Appearance by an attorney or the respondent for such hearing shall be deemed a special appearance for the purpose of such hearing only and not a general appearance. [C73,§2226; C97,§3177; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10478; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§598.11]

Referred to in §598.22

598.12 Attorney for minor child. The court may appoint an attorney to represent the interests of the minor child or children of the parties. Such attorney shall be empowered to make independent investigations and to cause witnesses to appear and testify before the court on matters pertinent to the interests of the children. The court shall enter an order in favor of such attorney for fees and disbursements, which amount shall be charged against the party responsible for court costs unless the court determines that the party responsible for costs is indigent in which event the fees shall be borne by the county. [C71, 73, §598.12]

Referred to in §598.16

598.13 Financial statements filed. All applications for temporary or permanent support of a party or minor children shall be accompanied by the financial statement of the applicant. The respondent shall file a financial statement whenever the respondent desires to resist any application for support by the petitioner, or when the court so orders.

Financial statements shall be set forth by affidavit and shall be contained in two divisions. Division one shall contain the affiant's income from salary, wages or other source, personal expenses, and necessary payments on debts, and also the best estimates of such income, personal expenses, and necessary payments on debts of the other party, as well as all family living expenses. Such financial information shall be calculated on either a weekly or monthly basis, and shall not contain debts to be paid subsequent to the anticipated pendency of the action. Division two shall contain all other joint or separate assets and liabilities of the parties, including ownership of realty and tangible or intangible personalty and all debts to be paid subsequent to the anticipated pendency of the action. [C71, 73, §598.13]

598.14 How temporary order made — changes. In making temporary orders, the court shall take into consideration the age and sex of the applicant, the physical and pecuniary condition of the parties, and such other matters as are pertinent, which may be shown by affidavits, as the court may direct; however, the hearing on the application shall be limited to matters set forth in such application, the affidavits of the parties, and the required statements of income. The court shall not hear any other matter relating to the petition, respondent's answer, or any pleadings connected therewith.

After notice and hearing subsequent changes in temporary orders may be made by the court on application of either party demonstrating a substantial change in the circumstances occurring subsequent to the issuance of such order. If the order is not so modified it shall continue in force and effect until the action is dismissed or a decree is entered dissolving the marriage. [C73,§2228; C97,§3179; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10480; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598.13; C71, 73,§598.14]

598.15 Attachment. The petition may be presented to the court for the allowance of an order of attachment, which, by endorsement thereon, may direct such attachment and fix the amount for which it may issue, and the amount of the bond, if any, that shall be given. Any property taken by virtue thereof shall be held to satisfy the judgment or decree of the court, but may be discharged or released as in other cases. [C73,§2227; C97,§3178; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10479; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,§598.12; C71, 73,§598.15]

598.16 Conciliation. A majority of the judges in any judicial district, with the cooperation of any county board of social welfare in such district, may establish a domestic relations division of the district court of the county where such board is located. Said division shall offer counseling and related services to persons before such court.

The court shall require such parties to undergo conciliation for a period of at least ninety days from the issuance of an order setting forth the conciliation procedure and the conciliator. Such conciliation procedures may include, but shall not be limited to, referrals to the domestic relations division of the court, if established, public or private marriage counselors, family service agencies, community mental health centers, physicians and clergymen. Conciliation may be waived by the court upon a showing of good cause; provided, however, that it shall not be waived if either party or the attorney appointed pursuant to section 598.12 objects.

The costs of any such conciliation procedures shall be paid by the parties; however, if the court determines that such parties will be unable to pay the costs without prejudicing their financial ability to provide themselves and any minor children with economic necessities, such costs may be paid from the court expense fund. [C71, 73, §598.16]

598.17 Dissolution of marriage — evidence. A decree dissolving the marriage may be entered when the court is satisfied from the evidence presented that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved.

The court shall, based upon competent and relevant evidence, in such decree provide for the division of the assets of the parties and reasonable support or maintenance of any dependent children or either spouse.

No marriage dissolution granted due to the mental illness of one of the spouses shall relieve the other spouse of any obligation imposed by law as a result of the marriage for the support of the mentally ill spouse, and the court may make an order for such support. [C71, 73, §598.17]

598.18 Recrimination not a bar to dissolution of marriage. If, upon the trial of an action for dissolution of marriage, both of the parties are found to have committed an act or acts which would support or justify a decree of dissolution of marriage, such dissolution may be decreed, and the acts of one party shall not negate the acts of the other, nor serve to bar the dissolution decree in any way. [C71, 73, §598.18]

598.19 Waiting period before decree. No decree dissolving a marriage shall be granted in any proceeding before ninety days shall have elapsed from the day the original notice is served, or from the last day of publication of notice, or from the date that waiver or acceptance of original notice is filed or until after conciliation is completed, whichever period shall be longer. However, the court may in its discretion, on written motion supported by affidavit setting forth grounds of emergency or necessity and facts which satisfy the court that immediate action is warranted or required to protect the substantive rights or interests of any party or person who might be affected by the decree, hold a hearing and grant a decree dissolving the marriage prior to the expiration of the applicable period, provided that requirements of notice have been complied with. In such case the grounds of emergency or necessity and the facts with respect thereto shall be recited in the decree unless otherwise ordered by the court. [C58, 62, 66, §598.25; C71, 73, §598.19]

598.20 Forfeiture of marital rights. When a dissolution of marriage is decreed the parties shall forfeit all rights acquired by marriage which are not specifically preserved in the decree. This provision shall not obviate any of the provisions of section 598.21. [C51, §1486; C73, §2230; C97, §3181; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598.16; C71, 73, §598.20]

598.21 Alimony — custody of children — changes. When a dissolution of marriage is decreed, the court may make such order in relation to the children, property, parties, and the maintenance of the parties as shall be justified.

Subsequent changes may be made by the court in these respects when circumstances render them expedient. [C51, §1485; R60, §2537; C73, §2229; C97, §3180; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10481; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598.14; C71, 73, §598.21]

Referred to in §§598.20, 598.22

598.22 Support payments—clerk of court—defaults. All orders or judgments providing for temporary or permanent support payments shall direct the payment of such sums to the clerk of the court for the use of the person for whom the same have been awarded. An order or judgment entered by the court for temporary or permanent support shall be filed with the court clerk. Such orders shall have the same force and effect as judgments when entered in the judgment docket and lien index and shall be a record open to the public. The clerk shall disburse the payments received pursuant to such orders or judgments. All moneys received or disbursed under this section shall be entered in a record book kept by the clerk, which shall be open to inspection by the parties to the action and their attorneys.

If the sums ordered to be paid are not paid to the clerk at the time provided in said order or judgment, the clerk shall certify a default to the court which may, on its own motion, proceed as provided in section 598.23.

Prompt payment of sums required to be paid under sections 598.11 and 598.21 shall be the essence of such orders or judgments and the court may act pursuant to section 598.23 regardless of whether the amounts in default are paid prior to the contempt hearing. [C71, 73, §598.22]

Referred to in §598.34

598.23 Contempt proceedings — alternative to jail sentence. If any party against whom any temporary order or final decree has been entered shall willfully disobey the same, or secrete his property, he may be cited and punished by the court for contempt and be committed to the county jail for a period of time not to exceed thirty days for each offense.

The court may, as an alternative to punishment for contempt, make an order directing the defaulting party to assign a sufficient amount in salary or wages due, or to become due in the future, from an employer or successor employers, to the clerk of the court where the order or judgment was granted for the purpose of paying the sums in default as well as those to be made in the future. The assignment order shall not be binding upon the employer, but the court shall send a copy of the order, signed by the employee, to the employer and request his co-operation in deducting support payments. For each payment deducted in compliance with such request, the employer shall receive one dollar to cover the expense created by the deduction, which amount shall be deducted from the money due the employee. Compliance by an employer with the court's request shall operate as a discharge of his liability to the employee as to the affected portion of the employee's wages.

Any employer who dismisses an employee due to the entry of an assignment order commits a public offense and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10482; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598.15; C71, 73, §598.23]

Referred to in §598.22

598.24 Contempt proceedings initiated by interested party — costs taxable to party in default. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the party entitled to support payments, or an interested party from initiating contempt proceedings on his own motion. If the defaulting party is found to be in contempt, the costs of such proceedings, including attorney's fees for the party initiating the proceedings in an amount deemed reasonable by the court, shall be taxed against such party. [C71, 73, §598.24]

Referred to in §598.24

598.25 Termination of jurisdiction of court granting marriage dissolution decree. Whenever a proceeding is initiated in a court for adoption involving the children of parents or guardians whose marriage has been dissolved, or for modification of a judgment of alimony, child support, or custody granted in an action for dissolution of marriage, the following requirements must be met if such proceedings are initiated in a court other than the court which granted the dissolution decree.

1. The party initiating such proceedings must present to the court the names and addresses of the parties to the dissolution decree if known, as well as the name and place of the court which granted the dissolution decree.

2. The court in which the proceedings are initiated shall, if possible, cause notice of such proceedings to be served upon the parties to the original action.

Such court, or either of the parties to the dissolution decree, may request that a copy of the transcript of the proceedings of the court which granted the dissolution decree be made available for consideration in the new proceedings. [C71, 73, §598.25]

598.26 Record — impounding — violation indictable. The record and evidence in all cases where a marriage dissolution is sought shall be closed to all but the court and its officers, and access thereto shall be refused until a decree of dissolution has been entered. If the action is dismissed judgment for costs shall be entered in the judgment docket and lien index. The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for dissolution of marriage actions. No officer or other person shall permit a copy of any of the testimony, or pleading, or the substance thereof, to be made available to any person other than a party or attorney to the action. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit publication of the original notice as provided by the rules of civil procedure. The board of social welfare shall have the right to secure support payments in default through proceedings provided for in chapter 252A or section 598.24.

600.1 Who may adopt—petition. Any person of lawful age may petition the district court of the county in which he or the child resides for permission to adopt any child not his own, but no person other than the parent of a child may assume the permanent care and custody of a child under fourteen years of age except in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or chapter 238. If the petitioner be married, the spouse shall join in the petition unless such spouse is a natural parent of the child. An adult may be adopted, and only such provisions of this chapter shall apply thereto as the court may order.

The petition for adoption shall be verified and filed in triplicate and shall state the name, age, race, residence and religious faith as nearly as may be of the petitioner or petitioners and of the child; the marital status of the petitioner or petitioners; the property rights of the child; the name to be given the child after adoption; if the child be an orphan the name and place of residence of its guardian, if any, and if none, of its next of kin; the name of any licensed child-placing agency as defined in chapter 238, to which such child has been permanently committed or released; the relationship of the child to the petitioner or petitioners; and the facts disclosing consent as required in this section and in section 600.3 and the information required pursuant to section 144.20 or a statement that such information is not available after diligent inquiry. The clerk of the court shall forthwith transmit two copies of said petition to the director of the division of child and family services of the department of social services, or the designated qualified person or agency as directed by the court except in cases of children under the jurisdiction and control of a director of a division of the department of social services, and excepting adult adoptions and cases where the investigation is waived by the court as authorized by this chapter. 600.2 Investigation—minimum residence. The state department of social services, or a qualified person or agency named by the court, after an order of the court, shall proceed to verify the allegations of the petition; to investigate the conditions and antecedents of the child for the purpose of ascertaining whether he is a proper subject for adoption; and to make appropriate inquiry to determine whether the proposed foster home is a suitable one for the child. The investigation shall be completed and a report with recommendations made to the court within sixty days from the date of the filing of the petition. No petition shall be granted until the investigation is completed. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the court from conducting any other investigation which it may deem necessary or proper. No petition shall be granted until the child shall have lived for twelve months in the proposed home. Such period of residence may be shortened by the court upon good cause shown when satisfied that the proposed home and the child are suited to each other. The state department of social services may, and upon order of the court shall, make a further investigation during the period of residence and a final report with recommendations to the court. The investigation and period of residence may be waived by the court where the petitioner or one of the petitioners is related to the child within the third degree of consanguinity or where the petitioner is married to a natural parent of the child. 600.3 Consent to adoption. No person may assign, relinquish, or otherwise transfer to another his rights or duties with respect to the permanent care or custody of a child under fourteen years of age except in accordance with this chapter. The consent of both parents shall be given to such adoption unless one is dead, or is considered hopelessly mentally ill, or is imprisoned for a felony, or is an inmate or keeper of a house of ill fame, or unless the parents are not married to each other, or unless the parent or parents have signed a release of the child in accordance with the statute on child placing. If the relationship between a parent and a child has been terminated as provided in chapter 232 or terminated under a law or court decision of another state, by final court order which is not then appealable, the consent of such parent shall not be necessary; and in lieu of the consent of such parent, consent to such adoption may be given by the person, department, agency, or institution to which guardianship of the child has been transferred or by the court terminating such parent-child relationship if the court has not transferred such guardianship. If not married to each other, the parent having the care and providing for the wants of the child may give consent. If the child is not in the custody of either parent, but is in the care of a duly appointed guardian, then the consent of such guardian shall be necessary. Where the child is a ward of the state in a state institution the consent of the director of a division of the department of social services in control of such institution shall be first obtained before said adoption shall be effective. If the child has been given by written release to a licensed child welfare agency in accordance with the statute on child placing, the consent of the agency to whom the release was made shall be necessary. When the child adopted is fourteen years of age or over, his consent shall also be necessary. The consent shall be in writing and verified and a copy shall be attached to the petition. The consent shall refer to and be applicable only to the specific adoption proposed by such petition. Minority of a parent shall not invalidate a consent. The court shall provide for such hearings in adoption proceedings as may be necessary and shall prescribe notice thereof. All hearings in adoption proceedings shall be private and conducted only in the presence of those persons designated by the court. Upon the time of filing said petition of adoption, such notice of pendency of adoption proceedings as the court shall prescribe shall be given to a divorced parent not having custody of the child. Upon the entering of such decree, the rights, duties, and relationships between the child and parent by adoption shall be the same that exist between parents and child by lawful birth and the right of inheritance from each other shall be the same as between parent and children born in lawful wedlock. [R60, §2603; C73, §2310; C97, §3253; S13, §3253; C24, §10500; C27, 31, 35, §10501-b6; C39, §10501.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §600.6]

If within five years after the adoption, a child develops mental retardedness, epilepsy, mental illness, or venereal infection, or an otherwise permanent and serious disability as a result of conditions existing prior to the adoption, and of which the adopting parent has no knowledge or notice, a petition setting forth such facts may be filed with the district court of the county where the adoptive parents are residing. If upon hearing the facts alleged are proved, the court may annul the adoption and refer the child to the juvenile court or take such other action as the case may require. In every such proceeding it shall be the duty of the county attorney to represent the interests of the child. [C27, 31, 35, §10501-b7; C39, §10501.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §600.7]

600.8 Records of adoption. The findings of the court in any petition for adoption shall be made a complete record and same shall be filed as are other records of the court, but in addition thereto, the clerk of court shall cause two copies thereof to be sent to the director of the division of child and family services of the department of social services and also to the appropriate director of the division of the department of social services in control of the institution from which such child was obtained if the child for adoption is a ward of the state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §600.10]

600.11 Financial assistance. The department of social services shall, within the limits of funds appropriated to the department of social services and any gifts or grants received by the department for this purpose, provide financial assistance to any person who adopts a physically or mentally handicapped, older, or otherwise hard-to-place child, if the adoptive parent has the capability of providing a suitable home for the child but the need for special services or the costs of maintenance are beyond the economic resources of the adoptive parent.

1. Financial assistance shall not be provided when the special services are available free of cost to the adoptive parent or are covered by an insurance policy of the adoptive parent.

2. "Special services" means any medical, dental, therapeutic, educational, or other similar service or appliance required by an adopted child by reason of a mental or physical handicap. [C73, §600.11]

If the department of social services is unable to determine that an insurance policy will cover the costs of special services, it shall proceed as if no policy existed, for the purpose of determining eligibility to receive assistance. The department shall, to the amount of financial assistance given, be subrogated to the rights of the adoptive parent in the insurance contract. [C73, §600.12]

601A.3 Commission appointed. The Iowa state civil rights commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. 4. To seek a temporary injunction against a respondent when it appears that a complainant may suffer irreparable injury as a result of an alleged violation of chapter 601A. A temporary injunction may only be issued ex parte, if the complaint filed with the commission alleges discrimination in housing. In all other cases a temporary injunction may be issued only after the respondent has been notified and afforded the opportunity to be heard.

5. To hold hearings upon any complaint made against a person, an employer, an employment agency, or a labor organization, or the employees or members thereof, to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance at such hearings, to administer oaths and take the testimony of any person under oath, and to compel such person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization, or employees or members thereof to produce for examination any books and papers relating to any matter involved in such complaint. The commission shall issue subpoenas for witnesses in the same manner and for the same purposes on behalf of the respondent upon his request. Such hearings may be held by the commission, by any commissioner, or by any hearing examiner appointed by the commission. If a witness either fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the commission, the commission may petition the district court having jurisdiction for issuance of a subpoena and the court shall in a proper case issue the subpoena. Refusal to obey such subpoena shall be subject to punishment for contempt.

6. To issue such publications and reports of investigations and research as in the judgment of the commission shall tend to promote good will among the various racial, religious, and ethnic groups of the state and which shall tend to minimize or eliminate discrimination in public accommodations, employment, apprenticeship and on-the-job training programs, vocational schools, or housing because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, ancestry or disability.

7. To prepare and transmit to the governor and to the general assembly from time to time, but not less often than once each year, reports describing its proceedings, investigations, hearings conducted and the outcome thereof, decisions rendered, and the other work performed by the commission.

2. A person authorized or licensed to do business in this state pursuant to chapter 524, 533, 534, 536, or 536A shall not refuse to loan or extend credit or impose terms or conditions more onerous than those regularly extended to persons of similar economic backgrounds because of age, color, creed, national origin, race, religion, marital status, sex or physical disability.

3. Refusal by a creditor to offer credit life or health and accident insurance based upon the age or physical disability of the consumer shall not violate the provisions of this section provided such denial is based solely upon bona fide underwriting considerations not prohibited by title XX.

601A.10 Aiding or abetting. It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for:

2. Any person to discriminate against another person in any of the rights protected against discrimination on the basis of age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability by this chapter because such person has lawfully opposed any practice forbidden under this chapter, obeys the provisions of this chapter, or has filed a complaint, testified, or assisted in any proceeding under this chapter. An employer, employment agency, or their employees, servants or agents may offer employment or advertise for employment to only the disabled, when other applicants have available to them other employment compatible with their ability which would not be available to the disabled because of their handicap. Any such employment or offer of employment shall not discriminate among the disabled on the basis of race, color, creed, sex or national origin. [C66, 71,§105A.8; C73,§601A.8]

601A.12 Sex or age provisions not applicable to retirement plans. The provisions of this chapter relating to discrimination because of sex or age shall not be construed to apply to any retirement plan or benefit system of any employer unless such plan or system is a mere subterfuge adopted for the purpose of evading the provisions of this chapter. [C71, §105A.15; C73,§601A.15]

601A.13 Promotion or transfer. After a handicapped individual is employed, the employer shall not be required under this chapter to promote or transfer such handicapped person to another job or occupation, unless, prior to such transfer, such handicapped person by training or experience is qualified for such job or occupation. Any collective bargaining agreement between an employer and labor organization shall contain this section as a part of such agreement. [C73,§601A.16]

601A.14 Complaint—hearing.

1. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a discriminatory or unfair practice may, by himself or his attorney, make, sign, and file with the commission a verified, written complaint in triplicate which shall state the name and address of the person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization alleged to have committed the discriminatory or unfair practice of which complained, shall set forth the particulars thereof, and shall contain such other information as may be required by the commission. The commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general may in like manner make, sign, and file such complaint.

In an action the plaintiff may recover, if he shows that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the complaint was made, the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney fees to be fixed by the court.

2. Any place of public accommodation, employer, labor organization, or other person who has any employees or members who refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the commission a verified written complaint in triplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action.

3. After the filing of a verified complaint, a true copy thereof shall be promptly served by registered mail to the person against whom the complaint is filed. Then a commissioner or a duly authorized member of the commission's staff shall make a prompt investigation thereof and if such investigating official shall determine that probable cause exists for crediting the allegations of the complaint, the investigating official shall promptly endeavor to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion.

4. The members of the commission and its staff shall not disclose the filing of a complaint, the information gathered during the investigation, or the endeavors to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, unless such disclosure is made in connection with the conduct of such investigation.

5. In case of failure to satisfactorily settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, or in advance thereof if in the opinion of the investigating official circumstances so warrant, the official may issue and cause to be served a written notice together with a copy of such complaint, as the same may have been amended, requiring the person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization named in such complaint, hereafter referred to as respondent, to answer the charges of such complaint in writing within ten days after the date of such notice or within such extended time as the investigating official may allow.

6. When the investigating official is satisfied that further endeavor to settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion shall be futile, the official shall report the same to the commission. If the commission determines that the circumstances warrant, it shall issue and cause to be served a written notice requiring the respondent to answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the commission, a commissioner, or such other person designated by the commission to conduct the hearing, hereafter referred to as hearing examiner, and at a time and place to be specified in such notice.

7. The case in support of such complaint shall be presented at the hearing by one of the commission's attorneys or agents. The investigating official shall not participate in the hearing except as a witness nor shall he participate in the deliberations of the commission in such case.

8. The respondent may file a written verified answer to the complaint, and may appear at the hearing in person, with or without counsel, and submit testimony. In the discretion of the hearing examiner, a complainant may be allowed to intervene and present testimony in person or by counsel.

9. When a respondent has failed to answer a complaint at a hearing as provided by this section the commission may enter his default. For good cause shown, the commission may set aside an entry of default within ten days after the date of such entry. If the respondent is in default, the commission may proceed to hear testimony adduced upon behalf of the complainant. After hearing such testimony, the commission may enter such order as in its opinion the evidence warrants.

10. The commission or the complainant shall have the power to reasonably and fairly amend any complaint and the respondent shall have like power to amend his answer.

11. The commission shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity but the right of cross-examination shall be preserved. Complainant shall bear the burden of proving the allegations in his complaint. The testimony taken at a hearing shall be under oath, reported, and, if ordered by the commission, transcribed.

12. If, upon taking into consideration all the evidence at a hearing, the commission shall find that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in, any discriminatory or unfair practice as defined in this chapter, the commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served upon such respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such discriminatory or unfair practice and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to, hiring, reinstatement, or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, the referring of applicants for employment by any respondent employment agency, the admittance or restoration to membership by any respondent labor organization, the admission to or continuation in enrollment in an apprenticeship program, on-the-job training program, the posting of notices, and the making of reports as to the manner of compliance, as in the judgment of the commission shall effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

13. If, upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission shall find that a respondent has not engaged in any such discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served an order on the complainant and the respondent dismissing the complaint.

14. The commission shall establish rules to govern, expedite, and effectuate the procedures established by this chapter and its own actions thereunder.

15. Any verified complaint filed under this chapter shall be so filed within one hundred twenty days after the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred. [C66, 71,§105A.9; C73,§601A.9; 65GA, ch 1254,§3]

Referred to in §601A.15(10)

601A.15 Judicial review—enforcement.

1. Judicial review of the actions of the commission may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petition for judicial review may be filed in the district court in which an enforcement proceeding under subsection 2 may be brought.

2. The commission may obtain an order of court for the enforcement of commission orders in a proceeding as provided in this section. Such an enforcement proceeding shall be brought in the district court of the district in the county in which the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice which is the subject of the commission's order was committed, or in which any respondent required in the order to cease or desist from a discriminatory or unfair practice or to take other affirmative action, resides, or transacts business.

3. Such an enforcement proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such court and the service of a copy thereof upon the respondent. Thereupon the commission shall file with the court a transcript of the record of the hearing before it. The court shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside the order of the commission, in whole or in part.

4. An objection that has not been urged before the commission shall not be considered by the court in an enforcement proceeding, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances.

5. Any party to the enforcement proceeding may move the court to remit the case to the commission in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereof, providing such party shall show reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence before the commission.

6. In the enforcement proceeding the court shall determine its order on the same basis as it would in a proceeding reviewing commission action under section 17A.19, subsection 8.

7. The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available to all parties for examination at all reasonable times, without cost, and for the purpose of judicial review of the commission's orders.

8. The commission may appear in court by its own attorney.

9. Petitions filed under this section shall be heard expeditiously and determined upon the transcript filed without requirement for printing.

10. If no proceeding to obtain judicial review is instituted within thirty days from the service of an order of the commission under section 601A.14, the commission may obtain an order of the court for the enforcement of such order upon showing that respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and resides or transacts business within the county in which the petition for enforcement is brought. [C66, 71,§105A.10; C73,§601A.10; 65GA, ch 1090,§199]

601A.16 Rule of construction. This chapter shall be construed broadly to effectuate its purposes. [C66, 71,§105A.11; C73,§601A.11]

601A.17 Local laws may implement this chapter. Nothing contained in any provision of this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the general assembly to occupy the field in which this chapter operates to the exclusion of local laws not inconsistent with this chapter that deal with the same subject matter. 611.11 Court may order change. If there is more than one party plaintiff or defendant, who fail to unite on the kind of proceedings to be adopted, the court, on its own motion, may direct such proceedings to be changed to the same extent as if the parties had united in asking it to be done. [C73,§2518; C97,§3436; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§10948; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§611.11]

611.12 Errors waived. 611.15 Judgments annulled in equity. Judgment obtained in an action by ordinary proceedings shall not be annulled or modified by any order in an action by equitable proceedings, except for a defense which has arisen or been discovered since the judgment was rendered. But such judgment does not prevent the recovery of any claim, though such claim might have been used by way of counterclaim in the action on which the judgment was recovered. 1. "Municipality" means city, county, township, school district, and any other unit of local government.

2. "Governing body" means the council of a city, county board of supervisors, board of township trustees, local school board, and other boards and commissions exercising quasi-legislative, quasi-executive, and quasi-judicial power over territory comprising a municipality.

3. "Tort" means every civil wrong which results in wrongful death or injury to person or injury to property or injury to personal or property rights and includes but is not restricted to actions based upon negligence; error or omission; nuisance; breach of duty, whether statutory or other duty or denial or impairment of any right under any constitutional provision, statute or rule of law.

4. "Officer" includes but is not limited to the members of the governing body. [C71, 73, §613A.1; 65GA, ch 1087,§32, ch 1263,§§1, 2]

Amendment effective July 1, 1975

613A.2 Liability imposed. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every municipality is subject to liability for its torts and those of its officers, employees, and agents acting within the scope of their employment or duties, whether arising out of a governmental or proprietary function.

A tort shall be deemed to be within the scope of employment or duties if the act or omission reasonably relates to the business or affairs of the municipality and the officer, employee, or agent acted in good faith and in a manner a reasonable person would have believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the municipality.

For the purposes of this chapter, employee includes a person who performs services for a municipality whether or not the person is compensated for the services, unless the services are performed only as an incident to the person's attendance at a municipality function. [C71, 73,§613A.2; 65GA, ch 1263,§3]

Referred to in §§613A.4, 613A.5, 613A.7, 613A.9, 613A.10

613A.3 Actual knowledge of defect as defense. In any action subject to the provisions of this chapter, an affirmative showing that the injured party had actual knowledge of the existence of the alleged obstruction, disrepair, defect, accumulation, or nuisance at the time of the occurrence of the injury, and a further showing that an alternate safe route was available and known to the injured party, shall constitute a defense to the action. [C71, 73, §613A.3; 64GA, ch 1088,§348]

Home Rule Amendment effective July 1, 1975

613A.4 Claims exempted. The liability imposed by section 613A.2 shall have no application to any claim enumerated in this section. As to any such claim, a municipality shall be liable only to the extent liability may be imposed by the express statute dealing with such claims and, in the absence of such express statute, the municipality shall be immune from liability.

1. Any claim by an employee of the municipality which is covered by the Iowa workmen's compensation law.

2. Any claim in connection with the assessment or collection of taxes.

3. Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee, exercising due care, in the execution of a statute, ordinance, or officially adopted resolution, rule, or regulation of a governing body.

4. Any claim against a municipality as to which the municipality is immune from liability by the provisions of any other statute or where the action based upon such claim has been barred or abated by operation of statute or rule of civil procedure.

The remedy against the municipality provided by section 613A.2 shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the officer, employee or agent whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, or his estate. [C71, 73,§613A.4; 65GA, ch 1263,§4]

Referred to in §613A.7

613A.5 Limitation of actions. Every person who claims damages from any municipality or any officer, employee or agent of a municipality for or on account of any wrongful death, loss or injury within the scope of section 613A.2 or section 613A.8 or under common law shall commence an action therefor within six months, unless said person shall cause to be presented to the governing body of the municipality within sixty days after the alleged wrongful death, loss or injury a written notice stating the time, place, and circumstances thereof and the amount of compensation or other relief demanded. Failure to state time or place or circumstances or the amount of compensation or other relief demanded shall not invalidate the notice; providing, the claimant shall furnish full information within fifteen days after demand by the municipality. No action therefor shall be maintained unless such notice has been given and unless the action is commenced within two years after such notice. The time for giving such notice shall include a reasonable length of time, not to exceed ninety days, during which the person injured is incapacitated by his injury from giving such notice. [C71, 73,§613A.5; 65GA, ch 1263,§5]

613A.6 Death—claim presented by another. When the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission, the notice may be presented by the personal representative, surviving spouse, or next of kin, or the consular officer of the foreign country of which the deceased was a citizen, within one year after the alleged injury resulting in such death; but if the person for whose death the claim is made has presented a notice that would have been sufficient had he lived, an action for wrongful death may be brought without additional notice. [C71, 73,§613A.6]

employees or agents and any reference to such insurance, or lack of same, shall be grounds for a mistrial. [C71, 73,§613A.7; 65GA, ch 1231,§165, ch 1263,§6]

Referred to in §§285.10, 332.37, 384.12

613A.8 Officers and employees defended. The governing body shall defend any of its officers, employees and agents, whether elected or appointed and, except in cases of malfeasance in office, willful and unauthorized injury to persons or property, or willful or wanton neglect of duty, shall save harmless and indemnify such officers, employees and agents against any tort claim or demand, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring within the scope of their employment or duties. Any independent or autonomous board or commission of a municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body shall similarly defend, save harmless and indemnify its officers, employees and agents against such tort claims or demands.

The duty to defend, save harmless, and indemnify shall apply whether or not the municipality is a party to the action and shall include but not be limited to cases arising under title 42 United States Code section 1983. [C71, 73,§613A.8; 65GA, ch 1088,§349; 65GA, ch 1263,§7]

Referred to in §§260.27, 613A.5, 613A.7, 613A.9, 613A.10
Home Law Amendment effective July 1, 1975

613A.9 Compromise and settlement. The governing body of any municipality may compromise, adjust and settle tort claims against the municipality, its officers, employees and agents, for damages under section 613A.2 or 613A.8 and may appropriate money for the payment of amounts agreed upon. [C71, 73,§613A.9]

613A.10 Tax to pay judgment or settlement. When a final judgment is entered against or a settlement is made by a municipality for a claim within the scope of section 613A.2 or 613A.8, payment shall be made and the same remedies shall apply in the case of nonpayment as in the case of other judgments against the municipality. If said judgment or settlement is unpaid at the time of the adoption of the annual budget, it shall budget an amount sufficient to pay the judgment or settlement together with interest accruing thereon to the expected date of payment. Such tax may be levied in excess of any limitation imposed by statute. [C71, 73,§613A.10; 65GA, ch 1231,§166]

613A.11 Claims not retrospective. This chapter shall have no application to any occurrence or injury claim or action arising prior to January 1, 1968. [C71, 73,§613A.11]

In all cases where any deed of trust or declaration of trust has been executed and the real estate affected thereby has been conveyed by the trustee or the surviving spouse or heirs of said trustee and such conveyance was duly recorded in the proper county prior to January 1, 1960, and the interest of the cestui que trust thereunder has not been by such cestui que trust conveyed, or established by proper proceedings in court, no action, suit or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained to foreclose the same, or to establish or recover the interest of the cestui que trust therein, or of the surviving spouse or heirs of the cestui que trust, unless such action, suit, or proceeding be commenced by filing petition and service of notice not later than March 1, 1971. In all cases where the holder of the legal or equitable title or estate to real estate situated within this state, prior to January 1, 1960, conveyed said real estate or any interest therein by deed, mortgage, or other instrument, and the spouse failed to join therein, such spouse or the heirs at law, personal representatives, devisees, grantees, or assignees of such spouse shall be barred from recovery unless suit is brought therefor within one year after July 1, 1970. But in case the right to such distributive share has not accrued by the death of the spouse making such instrument, then the one not joining is hereby authorized to file in the recorder's office of the county where the land is situated, a notice with affidavit, setting forth affiant's claim, together with the facts upon which such claim rests, and the residence of such claimants; and if such notice is not filed within two years from July 1, 1970, such claim shall be barred forever. Any action contemplated in this section may include land situated in different counties, by giving notice thereof as provided by section 617.13. Referred to in §§614.17, 614.20

614.20 Limitation on Act. Provided, however, that nothing contained in sections 614.17 to 614.19 shall be construed as limiting or extending the time within which actions by a spouse to recover dower or distributive share in real estate within this state may be brought or maintained under the provisions of section 614.15, or as limiting or extending the time within which actions may be brought or maintained to foreclose or enforce any real estate mortgage, bond for deed, trust deed, or contract for the sale or conveyance of real estate under the provisions of section 614.21, and provided further, that sections 614.17 to 614.19 should in no case revive or permit an action to be brought or maintained upon any claim or cause of action which is barred by any statute which is in force prior to July 1, 1970;

The date of maturity, when different than as appears by the record of the instrument, and the date of maturity of any extension of said indebtedness or part thereof, may be shown at any time prior to the expiration of the above periods of limitation by the holder of the debt or the owner or assignee of the instrument filing an extension agreement, duly acknowledged as the original instrument was required to be acknowledged, in the office of the recorder where the instrument is recorded, or by noting on the margin of the record of such instrument in the recorder's office an extension of the maturity of the instrument or of the debt secured, or any part thereof; each notation to be witnessed by the recorder and entered upon the index of mortgages in the name of the mortgagor and mortgagee.

MARKETABLE RECORD TITLE

614.29 Definitions. As used in this division:

1. "Marketable record title" means a title of record, as indicated in section 614.31, which operates to extinguish such interests and claims, existing prior to the effective date of the root of title, as are stated in section 614.33.

2. "Records" includes probate and other official public records, as well as records in the office of the county recorder.

3. "Recording", when applied to the official public records of a probate or other court, includes filing.

4. "Person dealing with the land" includes a purchaser of any estate or interest therein, a mortgagee, a levying or attaching creditor, a land contract vendee, or any other person, corporation, or entity seeking to acquire an estate or interest therein, or impose a lien thereon.

5. "Root of title" means that conveyance or other title transaction or other link in the chain of title of a person, purporting to create the interest claimed by such person, upon which he relies as a basis for the marketability of his title, and which was the most recent to be recorded or established as of a date forty years prior to the time when marketability is being determined. The effective date of the "root of title" is the date on which it is recorded.

6. "Title transaction" means any transaction affecting title to any interest in land, including title by will or descent, title by tax deed, or deed by trustee, referee, guardian, executor, administrator, master in chancery, sheriff, or any other form of deed or decree of any court, as well as warranty deed, quitclaim deed, mortgage, or transfer or conveyance of any kind. [C71, 73, §614.29]

Referred to in §302.28, 614.31

614.30 Construction liberal. This division shall be liberally construed to effect the legislative purpose of simplifying and facilitating land title transactions by allowing persons to rely on a record chain of title as described in section 614.31, subject only to such limitations as appear in section 614.32. [C71, 73, §614.30]

Referred to in §302.28

614.31 Forty-year chain of title. Any person who has an unbroken chain of title of record to any interest in land for forty years or more, shall be deemed to have a marketable record title to such interest as defined in section 614.29, subject only to the matters stated in section 614.32. A person shall be deemed to have such an unbroken chain of title when the official public records disclose a conveyance or other title transaction, of record not less than forty years at the time the marketability is to be determined, which said conveyance or other title transaction purports to create such interest, either in:

1. The person claiming such interest, or

2. Some other person from whom, by one or more conveyances or other title transactions of record, such purported interest has become vested in the person claiming such interest; with nothing appearing of record, in either case, purporting to divest such claimant of such purported interest. [C71, 73, §614.31]

Referred to in §§302.28, 614.29, 614.30

614.32 What interests and rights subject. Such marketable record title shall be subject to:

1. All interests and defects which are inherent in the muniments of which such chain of record title is formed; provided however, that a general reference in such muniments, or any of them, to easements, use restrictions or other interests created prior to the root of title shall not be sufficient to preserve them, unless specific identification be made therein of a recorded title transaction which creates such easement, use restriction, or other interest.

2. All interest preserved by the filing of proper notice or by possession by the same owner continuously for a period of forty years or more, in accordance with section 614.34.

3. The rights of any person arising from a period of adverse possession or user, which was in whole or in part subsequent to the effective date of the root of title.

4. Any interest arising out of a title transaction which has been recorded subsequent to the effective date of the root of title from which the unbroken chain of title of record is started; provided such recording shall not revive or give validity to any interest which has been extinguished prior to the time of the recording by the operation of section 614.33.

614.33 Free and clear of other interests not stated. Subject to the matters stated in section 614.32, such marketable record title shall be held by its owner and shall be taken by any person dealing with the land free and clear of all interests, claims or charges whatsoever, the existence of which depends upon any act, transaction, event or omission that occurred prior to the effective date of the root of title. All such interests, claims or charges, however denominated, whether legal or equitable, present or future, whether such interest, claims or charges are asserted by a person able to assert a claim on his own behalf or under a disability, whether such person is within or without the state, whether such person is natural or corporate, or is private or governmental, are hereby declared to be null and void. [C71, 73,§614.33]

614.34 Preserving interest during forty-year period.

1. Any person claiming an interest in land may preserve and keep effective such interest by filing for record during the forty-year period immediately following the effective date of the root of title of the person whose record title would otherwise be marketable, a notice in writing duly verified by oath or affirmation setting forth the nature of the claim. No disability or lack of knowledge of any kind on the part of anyone shall suspend the running of said forty-year period. Such notice may be filed for record by the claimant or by any other person acting on behalf of any claimant who is:

- a. Under a disability,
- b. Unable to assert a claim on his own behalf, or
- c. One of a class, but whose identity cannot be established or is uncertain at the time of filing such notice of claim for record.

2. If the same record owner of any possessory interest in land has been in possession of such land continuously for a period of forty years or more, during which period no title transaction with respect to such interest appears of record in his chain of title, and no notice has been filed by him or on his behalf as provided in subsection 1, and such possession continues to the time when marketability is being determined, such period of possession shall be deemed equivalent to the filing of the notice immediately preceding the termination of the forty-year period described in subsection 1. [C71, 73,§614.34]

Referred to in §§302.28, 614.32

614.35 Recording interest. To be effective and to be entitled to record the notice above referred to shall contain an accurate and full description of all land affected by such notice which description shall be set forth in particular terms and not by general inclusions; but if said claim is founded upon a recorded instrument, then the description in such notice may be the same as that contained in such recorded instrument. Such notice shall be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county or counties where the land described therein is situated. The recorder of each county shall accept all such notices presented to him which describe land located in the county in which he serves and shall enter and record full copies thereof in the same way that deeds and other instruments are recorded, and each recorder shall be entitled to charge the same fees for the recording thereof as are charged for recording deeds. In indexing such notices in his office each recorder shall enter such notices under the grantee indexes of deeds in the names of the claimants appearing in such notices. Such notices shall also be indexed under the description of the real estate involved in a book set apart for that purpose to be known as the "claimant's book." [C71, 73,§614.35]

Referred to in §302.28

[C71, 73,§614.36]

Referred to in §§302.28, 614.32

614.37 Limitation statutes not extended. Nothing contained in this division shall be construed to extend the period for the bringing of an action or for the doing of any other required act under any statutes of limitations, nor, except as herein specifically provided, to effect the operation of any statutes governing the effect of the recording or the failure to record any instrument affecting land. It is intended that nothing contained in this division be interpreted to revive or extend the period of filing a claim or bringing an action that may be limited or barred by any other statute. [C71, 73,§614.37]

617.3 Foreign corporations or nonresidents contracting or committing torts in Iowa. If the action is against any corporation or person owning or operating any railway or canal, steamboat or other rivercraft, or any telegraph, telephone, stage, coach, or carline, or against any express company, or against any foreign corporation, service may be made upon any general agent of such corporation, company, or person, wherever found, or upon any station, ticket, or other agent, or person transacting the business thereof or selling tickets therefor in the county where the action is brought; if there is no such agent in said county, then service may be had upon any such agent or person transacting said business in any other county.

If a foreign corporation makes a contract with a resident of Iowa to be performed in whole or in part by either party in Iowa, or if such foreign corporation commits a tort in whole or in part in Iowa against a resident of Iowa, such acts shall be deemed to be doing business in Iowa by such foreign corporation for the purpose of service of process or original notice on such foreign corporation under this section, and, if the corporation does not have a registered agent or agents in the state of Iowa, shall be deemed to constitute the appointment of the secretary of state of the state of Iowa to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process or original notice in actions or proceedings arising from or growing out of such contract or tort. If a nonresident person makes a contract with a resident of Iowa to be performed in whole or in part by either party in Iowa, or if such person commits a tort in whole or in part in Iowa against a resident of Iowa, such acts shall be deemed to be doing business in Iowa by such person for the purpose of service of process or original notice on such person under this section, and shall be deemed to constitute the appointment of the secretary of state of the state of Iowa to be the true and lawful attorney of such person upon whom may be served all lawful process or original notice in actions or proceedings arising from or growing out of such contract or tort. The term "nonresident person" shall include any person who was, at the time of the contract or tort, a resident of the state of Iowa but who removed from the state before the commencement of such action or proceedings and ceased to be a resident of Iowa or, a resident who has remained continuously absent from the state for at least a period of six months following commission of the tort. The making of the contract or the committing of the tort shall be deemed to be the agreement of such corporation or such person that any process or original notice so served shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally upon such defendant within the state of Iowa. The term "resident of Iowa" shall include any Iowa corporation, any foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to transact business in Iowa, any individual residing in Iowa, and any partnership or association one or more of whose members is a resident of Iowa.

Service of such process or original notice shall be made (1) by filing duplicate copies of said process or original notice with said secretary of state, together with a fee of five dollars, and (2) by mailing to the defendant and to each of them if more than one, by registered or certified mail, a notification of said filing with the secretary of state, the same to be so mailed within ten days after such filing with the secretary of state. Such notification shall be mailed to each such foreign corporation at the address of its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated and to each such nonresi-dent person at his address in the state of his residence. The defendant shall have sixty days from the date of such filing with the secretary of state within which to appear. Proof of service shall be made by filing in court the duplicate copy of the process or original notice with the secretary of state's certificate of filing, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or his attorney of compliance herewith.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes or original notices so served upon him, recording therein the time of service and his actions with reference thereto, and he shall promptly return one of said duplicate copies to the plaintiff or his attorney, with a certificate showing the time of filing thereof in his office.

For the purpose of determining whether an action has been commenced within the time allowed by statutes for limitation of actions, the filing of the original notice with the secretary of state shall be deemed a commencement of the action.

The original notice of suit filed with the secretary of state shall be in form and substance the same as provided in suits against residents of this state, except that that part of said notice pertaining to the return day shall be in substantially the following form, to wit:

622.28 Writing or record—when admissible—absence of record—effect. Any writing or record, whether in the form of an entry in a book, or otherwise, including electronic means and interpretations thereof, offered as memoranda or records of acts, conditions or events to prove the facts stated therein, shall be admissible as evidence if the judge finds that they were made in the regular course of a business at or about the time of the act, condition or event recorded, and that the sources of information from which made and the method and circumstances of their preparation were such as to indicate their trustworthiness, and if the judge finds that they are not excludable as evidence because of any rule of admissibility of evidence other than the hearsay rule.

Evidence of the absence of a memorandum or record from the memoranda or records of a business of an asserted act, event or condition, shall be admissible as evidence to prove the nonoccurrence of the act or event, or the nonexistence of the condition, if the judge finds that it was in the regular course of that business to make such memoranda of all such acts, events or conditions at the time thereof or within a reasonable time thereafter, and to preserve them.

The term business, as used in this section, includes business, profession, occupation, and calling of every kind. [C51,§2406; R60,§3999; C73,§3658; C97,§4623; S13,§4623; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§11281, 11282; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§622.28, 622.29; C62, 66, 71, 73,§622.28]

2. If any business, institution, member of a profession or calling, or any department or agency of government, in the regular course of business or activity has kept or recorded any memorandum, writing, entry print, representation or combination thereof, of any act, transaction, occurrence or event and in the regular course of business has caused any or all of the same to be recorded, copied or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original, the original may be destroyed in the regular course of business unless held in a custodial or fiduciary capacity or unless its preservation is required by law, except if the originals are records, reports or other papers of a county officer they shall not be destroyed until they have been preserved for ten years. Such reproduction, when satisfactorily identified, is as admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding whether the original is in existence or not and an enlargement or facsimile of such reproduction is likewise admissible in evidence if the original reproduction is in existence and available for inspection under direction of court. The introduction of a reproduced record, enlargement or facsimile, does not preclude admission of the original. [S13,§4623; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11283; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§622.30]

622.91 Signature and seal — presumption. The signature and seal of such officers as are authorized to take depositions or affidavits, having a seal, and the simple signature of such as have no seal, are presumptive evidence of the genuineness thereof, as well as of the official character of the officer, except as otherwise declared. [C51,§2476; R60,§4037; C73,§3696; C97,§4679; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11348; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§622.91]

Proof so made may be perpetuated and preserved for future use by filing the papers above mentioned in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county where the act is done. The original affidavit appended to the notice or paper, if there is one, and, if not, the affidavit by itself is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein, but does not preclude other modes of proof now held sufficient. [C51,§2430; R60,§4045; C73,§3700; C97,§4683; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11352; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§622.96]

When any exhibit, record, or document is referred to in such shorthand notes or transcript thereof, the identity of such exhibit, record, or document, as the one referred to by the witness, may be proven either by the reporter or any other person who heard the evidence of the witness given on the stand. [S13,§245-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11357; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§622.101]

622A.3 Costs—when taxed.

622A.4 Fee set by court.

622A.5 Oath.

622A.6 Qualifications and integrity.

622A.1 Definition. As used in this chapter, "legal proceeding" means any action before any court, or any legal action preparatory to appearing before any court, whether civil or criminal in nature; and any administrative proceeding before any state agency or governmental subdivision which is quasi-judicial in nature and which has direct legal implications to any person. [C71, 73, §622A.1]

622A.2 Who entitled to interpreter. Every person who cannot speak or understand the English language, or every person who because of hearing, speaking or other impairment has difficulty in communicating with other persons, and who is a party to any legal proceeding or a witness therein, shall be entitled to an interpreter to assist such person throughout the proceeding. [C71, 73, §622A.2]

622A.3 Costs—when taxed. An interpreter shall be appointed without expense to the person requiring assistance in the following cases:

1. If the person requiring assistance is a witness in the civil legal proceeding.
2. If the person requiring assistance is indigent and financially unable to secure an interpreter.

In civil cases, every court shall tax the cost of an interpreter the same as other court costs. In criminal cases, where the defendant is indigent, the interpreter shall be considered as a defendant's witness under chapter 781 for the purpose of receiving fees, except that subpoenas shall not be required. If the proceeding is before an administrative agency, that agency shall provide such interpreter but may require that a party to the proceeding pay the expense thereof. [C71, 73, §622A.3]

622A.4 Fee set by court. Every interpreter appointed by a court or administrative agency shall receive a fee to be set by the court or administrative agency. [C71, 73, §622A.4]

622A.5 Oath. Every interpreter in any legal proceeding shall take the same oath as any other witness. [C71, 73, §622A.5]

622A.6 Qualifications and integrity. Any court or administrative agency may inquire into the qualifications and integrity of any interpreter, and may disqualify any person from serving as an interpreter. [C71, 73, §622A.6]

The value of the property for which judgment was recovered shall be specified therein, if a delivery thereof cannot be had, and it shall in that respect be regarded as an execution against property. When such sum is paid to the secured party or deposited with the clerk, the attachment or execution creditor shall be subrogated to all the rights of such holder, and the proceeds of the sale of the collateral shall be first applied to the discharge of such indebtedness and the costs incurred under the writ of attachment or execution. [C97, §3982; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11685; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.37]

If the secured party thereof desires to be reinstated in his rights thereunder, he may repay the money received by him, with interest thereon at the rate borne by the secured debt for the time it has been held by him, and demand the return of the security agreement, whereupon his rights thereunder shall revert in him, and the attachment or execution creditor shall be entitled to the deposit made, or any part thereof remaining in the hands of the clerk, or any money returned to the clerk by the secured party. The secured party, before receiving the money tendered to him by the attaching or execution creditor or which was deposited with the clerk, shall state by a signed memorandum the amount due or to become due and deliver the same along with the security agreement, unless it has been filed as the financing statement, to the person paying the said amount or the clerk with whom the deposit is made, and the secured party shall only receive the amount so stated to be due, and the surplus, if any, shall be returned to the person making the deposit. [C97, §3984; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11687; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.39]

If under execution sale the collateral does not sell for enough to pay the secured debt, interest, and costs of sale, the judgment creditor shall be liable for all costs thus made, but if a greater sum is realized, the officer conducting the sale shall at once pay to the secured party the amount due thereunder, and apply the surplus on the execution. [C97,§3986; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11689; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.41]

For the purpose of enabling the attaching or execution creditor to determine the amount to be tendered or deposited to hold the levy under the writ of attachment or execution, the person entitled to receive payment of the secured debt shall deliver to any such person, upon written demand therefor, a statement in writing under oath, showing the nature and amount of the original debt, the date and the amount of each payment, if any, which has been made thereon, and an itemized statement of the amount then due and unpaid. 626.43 Contest as to validity or amount. If the right of the secured party to receive such or any sum is for any reason questioned by the levying creditor, he may, within ten days after levy, or after demand is made for a statement of the amount due as above provided, commence an action in equity or contest such right upon filing a bond in a penalty double the amount of such security interest, or double the value of the property levied upon, conditioned either for the payment of any sum found due on said security interest to the person entitled thereto, or for the value of the property levied upon, as the party ordering the levy may elect, with sureties to be approved by the clerk. 626.46 Various security agreements—priority. If there are two or more security agreements, the creditor may admit the validity of one or more, and make the required deposit as to such, and contest the other, and where there are two or more such security agreements, each of which is questioned, a failure to establish the invalidity of all shall not defeat the rights of the levying creditor, but in such case the decree shall determine the priority of liens, and direct the order of payment out of the proceeds of the property which shall be sold under special execution to be awarded in said cause. [C97,§3988; S13,§3988; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11694; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.46]

626.48 Failure to make statement—effect. A failure to make the statement, when required as above provided, shall have the effect to postpone the priority of the security interest and give the levy of the writ of attachment or execution priority over the claim of the holder thereof. [C97,§3989; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11696; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.48]

626.54 Indemnifying bond—sale and return. When the officer receives such notice he may forthwith give the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, notice that an indemnifying bond is required. Bond may thereupon be given by or for the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer, to the effect that the obligors will indemnify him against the damages which he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale of the property, and will pay to any claimant thereof the damages he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale, and will warrant to any purchaser of the property such estate or interest therein as is sold; and thereupon the officer shall proceed to subject the property to the execution, and shall return the indemnifying bond to the court from which the execution issued. 626.81 Sale postponed. When there are no bidders, or when the amount offered is grossly inadequate, or when from any cause the sale is prevented from taking place on the day fixed, or the parties so agree, the officer may postpone the sale for not more than three days without being required to give any further notice thereof, which postponement shall be publicly announced at the time the sale was to have been made, but not more than two such adjournments shall be made, except by agreement of the parties in writing and made a part of the return upon the execution. 626.82 Overplus. When the property sells for more than the amount required to be collected, the overplus must be paid to the debtor, unless the officer has another execution in his hands on which said overplus may be rightfully applied, or unless there are liens upon the property which ought to be paid therefrom, and the holders thereof make claim to such surplus and demand application thereon, in which case the officer shall pay the same into the hands of the clerk of the district court, and it shall be applied as ordered by the court. If no such plan is furnished, the officer may sell without any division. [R60,§3319; C73,§3088; C97,§4032; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11732; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.84]

626.87 Money—things in action. 626.92 Mutual judgments—setoff. Mutual judgments, executions on which are in the hands of the same officer, may be set off the one against the other, except the costs, but if the amount collected on the large judgment is sufficient to pay the costs of both, such costs shall be paid therefrom. [C51,§1923; R60,§3328; C73,§3097; C97,§4040; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11740; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.92]

626.93 Personal property and leasehold interests—appraisal. Personal property, and leasehold interests in real property having less than two years of an unexpired term, levied upon and advertised for sale on execution, must be appraised before sale by two disinterested householders of the neighborhood, one of whom shall be chosen by the execution debtor and the other by the plaintiff, or, in case of the absence of either party, or if either or both parties neglect or refuse to make choice, the officer making the levy shall choose one or both, as the case may be, who shall forthwith return to said officer a just appraisal, under oath, of said property if they can agree; if they cannot, they shall choose another disinterested householder, and with his assistance shall complete such appraisal, and the property shall not, upon the first offer, be sold for less than two-thirds of said valuation; but if offered at the same place and hour of the day as advertised upon three successive days, and no bid is received equal to two-thirds of the appraised value thereof, then it may be sold for one-half of said valuation. [C73,§3100; C97,§4041; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11741; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.93]

626.94 Property unsold—optional procedure. Subject to the provisions of section 626.93, when property is unsold for want of bidders, the levy still holds good; and, if there be sufficient time, it may again be advertised, or the execution returned and one issued commanding the officer to sell the property, describing it, previously levied on, to which a clause may be added that, if such property does not produce a sum sufficient to satisfy such execution, the officer shall proceed to make an additional levy, on which he shall proceed as on other executions; or the plaintiff may, in writing filed with the clerk, abandon such levy, upon paying the costs thereof; in which case execution may issue with the same effect as if none had ever been issued. [C51,§1912; R60, §3317; C73,§3086; C97,§4042; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11742; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.94]

626.95 Deed or certificate. If the property sold is not subject to redemption, the sheriff must execute a deed therefor to the purchaser; but, if subject to redemption, a certificate, containing a description of the property and the amount of money paid by such purchaser, and stating that, unless redemption is made within one year thereafter, or such other time as may be specifically provided for particular actions according to law, he or his heirs or assigns will be entitled to a deed for the same. [C51, §1925; R60,§3331; C73,§3101; C97,§4044; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11743; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.95]

ing thereon and prescribe the notice therefor and the manner of service thereof on the parties to said action or their successors in interest, and on said hearing if the court finds that the sheriff's certificate of sale issued in said cause has been lost or destroyed, shall order the sheriff of said county to issue a duplicate certificate of sale as of the date of the original certificate which shall have the same force and effect as the original, and any deed executed thereunder shall have the same force and effect as if executed under the original certificate of sale. If the person entitled is dead, the deed shall be made to his heirs. [C51,§1946; R60,§3354; C73,§§348, 3124; C97,§4062; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11744; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.98]

626.99 Constructive notice—recording. The purchaser of real estate at a sale on execution need not place any evidence of his purchase upon record until sixty days after the expiration of the full time of redemption. [C51,§1947; R60,§3355; C73,§3125; C97,§4063; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11745; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.99]

626.100 Presumption. 626.103 Death of holder of judgment. The death of any or all of the joint owners of a judgment shall not prevent an execution being issued thereon, but on any such execution the clerk shall endorse the fact of the death of such of them as are dead, and if all are dead, the names of their personal representatives, if the judgment passed to the personal representatives, or the names of the heirs of such deceased person, if the judgment was for real property. 626.104 Officer's duty. In acting upon an execution, so endorsed, the sheriff shall proceed as if the surviving owners, or the personal representatives or heirs as above provided, were the only owners of the judgment upon which it was issued, and take bonds accordingly. [R60,§3483; C73,§3131; C97,§4068; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11750; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §626.104]

626.105 Affidavit required. Before making the endorsements as above provided, an affidavit shall be filed with the clerk by one of the owners of such judgment, or one of such personal representatives or heirs, or their attorney, of the death of such owners as are dead, and that the persons named as such are the personal representatives or heirs, and in the case of personal representatives they shall file with the clerk a certificate of their qualification, unless their appointment is by the court from which the execution issues, in which case the record of such appointment shall be sufficient evidence of the fact. [R60, §3484; C73,§3132; C97,§4069; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11751; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.105]

626.106 Execution quashed. Injunctions, ch 664

626.107 Death of part of defendants. The death of part of the joint debtors in a judgment shall not prevent execution being issued thereon, but, when issued, it shall operate alone on the survivors and their property. After the expiration of sixty days from the rendition of a final judgment not appealed, removed, or reversed, the clerk of the court may, and, upon demand of any party entitled to any part thereof, shall, issue a fee bill for all costs of such judgment, which shall have the same force and effect as an execution issued by such officer; and shall be served and executed in the same manner. [C73,§3842; C97,§1299; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11754; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§626.108]

[C73, §631.9; 65GA, ch 282, §67, ch 1085, §28]

631.10 Failure to appear—effect. Unless good cause to the contrary is shown, if the parties fail to appear at the time of hearing the claim shall be dismissed without prejudice by the court; if the plaintiff fails to appear but the defendant appears, the claim shall be dismissed with prejudice by the court with costs assessed to the plaintiff; and if the plaintiff appears but the defendant fails to appear, judgment may be rendered against the defendant by the court. The filing by the plaintiff of a verified account, or an instrument in writing for the payment of money with an affidavit the same is genuine, shall constitute an appearance by plaintiff for the purpose of this section. [C73,§631.10; 65GA, ch 282,§68]

631.11 Hearing.

1. Informality. The hearing shall be to the court, shall be simple and informal, and shall be conducted by the court itself, without regard to technicalities of procedure.

2. Evidence. The court shall swear the parties and their witnesses, and examine them in such a way as to bring out the truth. The parties may participate, either personally or by attorney. The court may continue the hearing from time to time and may amend new or amended pleadings, if justice requires.

3. Record. Upon the trial, the judicial magistrate shall make detailed minutes of the testimony of each witness and append the exhibits or copies thereof to the record. The proceedings upon trial shall not be reported by a certified court reporter, unless the party provides the reporter at such party's expense. The magistrate, in his discretion, may cause the proceedings upon trial to be reported electronically. If the proceedings are being electronically recorded both parties shall be notified in advance of that recording. If the proceedings have been reported electronically the recording shall be retained under the jurisdiction of the magistrate unless appealed, and upon appeal shall be transcribed only by a person designated by the court under the supervision of the magistrate.

4. Judgment. Judgment shall be rendered, based upon applicable law and upon a preponderance of the evidence.

5. Destruction of recordings. Unless an appeal is taken, an electronic recording of a proceeding in small claims shall be retained until the time for appeal has expired as specified in section 631.13. Thereafter, the magistrate may direct that the recording tape or other device be erased and used for subsequent recordings. If the proceeding is appealed, the recording may be erased following entry of judgment by the district judge hearing the appeal. [C73, §631.11; 65GA, ch 282,§69, ch 1085,§29]

631.12 Entry of judgment. The judgment shall be entered in a space on the original notice first filed, and the clerk shall immediately enter the judgment in the small claims docket and district court lien book, without recording. Such relief shall be granted as is appropriate. Upon entering judgment, the court may provide for installment payments to be made directly by the party obligated to the party entitled thereto; and in such event execution shall not issue as long as such payments are made but execution shall issue for the full unpaid balance of the judgment upon the filing of an affidavit of default. When entered on the small claims docket and district court lien book, a small claims judgment shall constitute a lien to the same extent as regular judgments entered on the district court judgment docket and lien book; but if a small claims judgment requires installment payments, it shall not be enforceable until an affidavit of default is filed. [C73, §631.12; 65GA, ch 282,§70, ch 1085,§30]

631.13 Appeals.

1. Notice. An appeal from a judgment in small claims may be taken by any party by giving oral notice to the court at the conclusion of the hearing, or by filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk within ten days after judgment is rendered. In either case, the appealing party shall pay to the clerk within that ten days the usual district court docket fee to perfect the appeal. No appeal shall be taken after ten days.

2. Stay of judgment. Execution of judgment shall be stayed upon the filing with the clerk of the district court an appeal bond with surety approved by the clerk, in the sum specified in the judgment.

3. Transcript. Within twenty days after an appeal is taken, unless extended by order of a district judge or by stipulation of the parties, any party may file with the clerk as part of the record a transcript of the official report, if any, or in the event the report was made electronically, a transcription of the recording. If a transcription of an electronic recording is filed, the record on appeal shall contain the tape or other medium on which the proceedings were preserved. A transcription of an electronic recording shall be provided any party upon request and upon payment by the party of the actual costs of transcription.

4. Procedure on appeal.

a. A district judge shall promptly hear the appeal upon the record thus filed without further evidence. The judge shall decide the appeal without regard to technicalities or defects which have not prejudiced the substantial rights of the parties, and may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment, or render judgment as the magistrate should have rendered.

If the record, in the opinion of the district judge, is inadequate for the purpose of rendering a judgment on appeal, the district judge may order that additional evidence be presented before him relative to one or more issues, and may enter any other order which may be necessary to protect the rights of the parties. The district judge shall take minutes of any additional evidence, but the hearing shall not be reported by a certified court reporter.

b. Upon entry of judgment the clerk may cause any recording tape or other device contained in the record to be erased for subsequent use. [C73,§631.13; 65GA, ch 1085,§31]

Referred to in §631.11

631.14 Representation in small claims actions. Actions constituting small claims may be brought or defended by an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity. In actions in which a person other than an individual is a party, that person may be represented by an officer or an employee. Any person, however, may be represented in small claims action by an attorney. [65GA, ch 1085, §32]

631.15 Standard forms. The supreme court shall prescribe standard forms of pleadings to be used in small claims actions. Standard forms promulgated by the supreme court shall be the exclusive forms used after December 31, 1975, but forms prepared in accordance with the law prior to July 1, 1974, may be used until December 31, 1975. [C73,§631.4; 65GA, ch 1085,§33]

Referred to in §§631.3, 631.7

631.16 Discretionary review by supreme court.

1. A civil action originally tried as a small claim shall not be appealed to the supreme court except by discretionary review as provided herein.

2. "Discretionary review" is the process by which the supreme court may exercise its discretion, in like manner as under the rules pertaining to interlocutory appeals and certiorari in civil cases, to review specified matters not subject to appeal as a matter of right. The supreme court may adopt additional rules to control access to discretionary review.

3. The party seeking review shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the appellee, but the title of the action shall not be changed from that in the court below.

4. A petition for review shall be filed in writing with the clerk of the district court within ten days after judgment.

5. When an application for discretionary review is filed, the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order was rendered shall:

a. Immediately prepare and mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the appellees and their attorneys of record, true copies of the application, together with the date of filing.

b. Immediately prepare and transmit to the clerk of the supreme court a transcript of all record entries relevant to the application, together with copies of all papers in the case on file with the court, and a transcript of the official report, if any, all duly certified under seal of the court.

Failure of the clerk of the district court to transmit all the papers as required by this subsection shall not prejudice the rights of the parties.

6. The record and case shall be presented to the supreme court as provided by its rules; and the provisions of law in civil procedure relating to the filing of decisions and opinions of the supreme court shall apply in such cases.

7. An application shall not be dismissed for an informality or defect in taking it if corrected as directed by the supreme court. The supreme court, after an examination of the entire record, may dispose of the case by affirmation, reversal or modification of the lower court judgment, and may order a new trial. It also may dismiss the application if both of the following are true:

a. The court determines that there has been no substantial miscarriage of justice.

b. The arguments do not present definite grounds for a hearing.

8. The decision of the supreme court with any opinion filed or judgment rendered must be recorded by its clerk. After the expiration of the period allowed for a rehearing, or as ordered by the court or provided by its rules, a certified copy of the decision and opinion shall be transmitted to the clerk of the trial court, and filed and entered of record in the district court.

9. The jurisdiction of the supreme court shall cease after the certified copy of the decision and opinion is transmitted to the clerk of the trial court. All proceedings for executing the judgment shall be had in the trial court or by its clerk. [C73,§602.71; 65GA, ch 1085,§34] other instrument creating or defining the fiduciary's duties and powers, but the terms "legal investment" or "authorized investment", or words of similar import, as used in any such instrument, shall be taken to mean any investment that is permitted by the provisions of subsection 1 hereof.

2. If a corporation or transfer agent makes a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a person who guaranteed the signature of the fiduciary is not liable on the guarantee to any person to whom the corporation or transfer agent by reason of sections 633.130 to 633.133 incurs no liability.

4. If heirs are not thus found under subsection 1, 2 or 3 of this section, the portion uninherited shall go to the spouse of the intestate; and if the spouse is dead, then to the heirs of the spouse, according to like rules. If such intestate has had more than one spouse who either died or survived in lawful wedlock, it shall be equally divided between the one who is living and the heirs of those who are dead, or between the heirs of all such heirs, taking per stirpes and not per capita.

2. A lawful adoption shall extinguish the right of inheritance on the part of the adopted person from and through his natural parents, except that the adopted person may also inherit from his natural parent or parents in an intestate estate under the following circumstances:

633.224 Advancements—in general. When the owner of property transfers it as an advancement to a person who would be an heir of such transferor were the latter to die at that time, and the transferor dies intestate, then the property thus advanced shall be counted toward the share of the transferee in the estate, (which for this purpose only shall be increased by the value of the advancement at the time the advancement was made). The transferee shall have no liability to the estate for such part, if any, of the advancement as may be in excess of his share in the estate as thus determined. [C51, §§1419, 1420; R60, §§2445, 2446; C73, §2459; C97, §3383; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12029; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §636.44; C66, 71, 73, §633.225]

Referred to in §633.210

633.226 Death of advancee before intestate. If an advancee under section 633.224 dies before the intestate, leaving an heir who takes from the intestate, the advancement shall be taken into account in the same manner as if it had been made directly to such heir. If such heir is entitled to a lesser share in the estate than the advancee would have been entitled to, had he survived the intestate, then the heir shall be charged with only such proportion of the advancement as the amount he would have inherited, had there been no advancement, bears to the amount which the advancee would have inherited, had there been no advancement. [C51, §§1419, 1420; R60, §§2445, 2446; C73, §2459; C97, §3383; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12029; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §636.44; C66, 71, 73, §633.226]

RIGHTS OF SURVIVING SPOUSE
PART 1
RIGHT TO TAKE AGAINST THE WILL

633.236 Right of surviving spouse to elect to take against will. When a married person dies testate as to any part of his estate, the surviving spouse shall have the right to elect to take against the will under the provisions of sections 633.237 to 633.246. [C51, §1407; R60, §2435; C73, §2452; C97, §3376; S13, §3376; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§12006, 12010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §636.21, 636.25; C66, 71, 73, §633.236]

Referred to in §§633.245, 633.246, 633.247, 633.264

633.237 Presumption that surviving spouse elects to take under will. Where a voluntary election to take or refuse to take under a will has not been filed by a surviving spouse within two months of the date of the second publication of notice of admission of the will to probate, and the surviving spouse is not the executor of such will, it shall be the duty of the executor to cause to be served a written notice upon the surviving spouse in the manner directed by the court, advising the surviving spouse that the will of such decedent has been admitted to probate, stating the name of the court where the will was admitted and the date when the will was admitted to probate, and notifying such spouse that unless within four months after service of such notice, he files an election in writing with the clerk of such court refusing to take under the provisions of such will, such surviving spouse shall take under the provisions of the will; provided that if the surviving spouse files his election to take under the will at any time the requirements of this section for serving notice are thereby waived; provided, further, that if within the before described period of four months an affidavit is filed setting forth that such surviving spouse is incapable to make such election, the court shall determine whether there shall be an election to take against the will in accordance with section 633.238; provided further, that the court on application may, prior to the expiration of such period of four months, for cause shown, enter an order extending the time for making such election. If such surviving spouse shall be an executor of the will and fails, within six months after the date of the second publication of notice of admission of the will to probate, to file with the clerk of the court an election to refuse to take under the provisions of the will of the deceased, it shall be conclusively presumed that such survivor consents to the provisions of the will and elects to take thereunder; provided, further, that the court on application may, prior to the expiration of such period of six months, on cause shown, enter an order extending the time for making such election. [C73,§2452; C97,§3376; S13,§3376; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§12007, 12010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§636.22, 636.25; C66, 71, 73,§633.237]

633.238 Share of surviving spouse who elects to take against will. If the surviving spouse elects to take against the will, the share of such surviving spouse will be:

2. All personal property that, at the time of death, was in the hands of the decedent as the head of a family, exempt from execution.

3. One-third of all other personal property of the decedent that is not necessary for the payment of debts and charges. [C51,§§1329, 1390, 1394, 1421; R60,§§2361, 2422, 2477, 2479; C73, §§2371, 2436, 2440; C97,§§3312, 3362, 3366; C24,

633.239 Share to embrace homestead. The share of the surviving spouse in such real estate shall be set off in such manner as to include the ordinary dwelling house given by law to the homestead, or so much thereof as will be equal to the share allotted to him by section 633.238 unless he prefers a different arrangement; but no such different arrangement shall be permitted unless there be sufficient property remaining to pay the claims and charges against the decedent's estate. Such election shall be made and entered of record as provided in section 633.245. In making such election, the surviving spouse shall have all the rights as to personal property provided in subsections 2 and 3 of section 633.238. In case of failure to make such election, the right to occupy the homestead shall be waived. [C97,§3377; S13,§3377; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§12012; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§636.27; C66, 71, 73,§633.240]

633.241 Time for election to occupy homestead. In case the surviving spouse does not make an election to occupy the homestead and file it with the clerk within six months from the date of the second publication of the notice to creditors, it shall be conclusively presumed that such surviving spouse waives the right to make such election. The court on application may, prior to the expiration of such period of six months, for cause shown, enter an order extending the time for making such election. [C97,§3377; S13,§3377; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§12013; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§636.28; C66, 71, 73,§633.241]

At the hearing, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed to represent such spouse, and the court shall enter such orders as it may deem to be for the best interests of such person. [S13, §§3376, 3377; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§12011, 12014; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §636.26, 636.29; C66, 71, 73, §633.244]

DIVISION VI WILLS

PART 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO WILLS

633.264 Disposal of property by will. Subject to the rights of the surviving spouse to elect to take against the will as provided by section 633.236, any person of full age and sound mind may dispose by will of all his property, except sufficient to pay the debts and charges against his estate. [C51, §§1277, 1407; R60, §§2309, 2435; C73, §§2322, 2452; C97, §§3270, 3376; S13, §3376; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11846, 12006; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§633.1, 636.21; C66, 71, 73, §633.264]

633.265 Procedure prescribed by will. When the interests of creditors will not thereby be prejudiced, a testator may prescribe the entire manner in which his estate shall be administered, and, also, the manner in which his affairs shall be conducted until his estate is finally settled. [C51, §1326; R60, §2358; C73, §2406;

C97, §3336; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11955; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.51; C66, 71, 73, §633.265]

See also §633.172

633.266 Limitation on disposal by will. If the total of the devises in the decedent's will to corporations organized under the chapter relating to corporations not for profit, to foreign corporations of a similar character, to unincorporated associations of a similar character, or to a trustee for the use and benefit of any such organization is in excess of one-fourth of the testator's estate valued as of the date of death after the payment of debts and charges, then the surviving spouse, any child, child of a deceased child or parent of the decedent shall have the right to make an election as follows:

1. The amount by which such devises described in this section exceeds such one-fourth of the testator's estate shall be first determined.

2. Each of such persons shall have the right to elect to receive the portion of such excess to which he would have been entitled had such excess been intestate property, provided, that in no event shall he receive in the aggregate under the will and as the result of such election, an amount greater than he would have received had the decedent died intestate.

3. Such election shall be made in writing by said person and filed with the clerk within six months after the second publication of the notice of appointment of the personal representative, unless the time is extended by order of court, or unless an affidavit is filed under the provisions of subsection 4 hereof.

4. In case an affidavit is filed within six months after the second publication of the notice of appointment of the personal representative that the said surviving spouse, child, child of a deceased child or parent is under legal disability or is otherwise incapable of making the election provided for in this section, the court shall fix a time and place of hearing on the matter and cause a notice thereof to be served upon said person in such manner and for such time as the court may determine. At the hearing, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed to represent such person, and the court shall enter such orders as it may deem to be for the best interests of such person.

5. Any portion of the excess determined under the provisions of this section which is not distributed under an election provided in this section, shall be distributed under the will of the decedent the same as if no election had been made under subsection 2 by anyone.

6. The right of election as provided for in this section is personal, is not transferable, and cannot be exercised for him subsequent to his death.

7. All elections hereunder shall be entered upon the records of the court, shall be binding, and shall not be subject to change except for such cause as would justify an equitable decree for the rescission of a deed.

8. In the event that there is more than one devise affected by the election provided for in this section, any reduction shall be made ratably in the absence of express testamentary intent to the contrary. [C51,§1277; R60,§§1198, 2309; C73,§§1101, 2322; C97,§3270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11818; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§633.3; C66, 71, 73,§633.266]

633.267 Children born or adopted after execution of will. When a testator fails to provide in his will for any of his children born to or adopted by him after the making of his last will, such child, whether born before or after the testator's death, shall receive a share in the estate of the testator equal in value to that which he would have received if the testator had died intestate, unless it appears from the will that such omission was intentional. [C51, §§1281, 1285; R60,§§2316, 2317; C73,§§2331, 2335; C97,§3279; S13,§3279; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11858; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§633.13; C66, 71, 73,§633.267]

Referred to in §633.477

633.268 Presumption attending devise to spouse. Where the testator's spouse is named as a devisee in a will, it shall be presumed, unless the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary, and except as provided in section 633.272, that such devise is in lieu of the intestate share and homestead rights of the surviving spouse. [C97,§3270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11847; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§633.2; C66, 71, 73,§633.268]

633.269 After acquired property. Any property acquired by the testator after the making of his will shall pass thereby, and in like manner as if title thereto were vested in him at the time of making the will, unless the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary. [C51, §1278; R60,§2310; C73,§2323; C97,§3271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11849; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§633.4; C66, 71, 73,§633.269]

633.270 Contractual or mutual wills. No will shall be construed to be contractual or mutual, unless in such will the testator shall expressly state his intent that such will shall be so construed. [C66, 71, 73,§633.270]

633.271 Effect of divorce or dissolution. If after making a will the testator is divorced or the marriage is dissolved, all provisions in the will in favor of the testator's spouse are thereby revoked. In the event the testator and spouse remarry each other, the provisions of the will revoked by the divorce or dissolution of marriage shall be reinstated unless otherwise revoked by the testator. [C66, 71, 73, §633.271]

633.272 Partial intestacy. If part but not all of the estate of a decedent is validly disposed of by will, the part not disposed of by will shall be distributed as provided herein for intestate estates. If the testator left a surviving spouse, and the spouse does not elect to take against the will, such spouse shall receive, in addition to the property given to him by the will, one-third of the intestate property, and that one-third shall be subject to the payment of its proportionate share of debts and charges against the estate. [C66, 71, 73,§633.272]

Referred to in §633.268

633.273 Antilapse statute. If a devisee die before the testator, his heirs shall inherit the property devised to him, unless from the terms of the will, the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary. [C51,§1287; R60,§2319; C73,§2337; C97,§3281; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11861; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§633.16; C66, 71, 73,§633.273]

Referred to in §633.274

633.274 Exception to antilapse statute. The devise to a spouse of the testator, where the spouse does not survive the testator, shall lapse notwithstanding the provisions of section 633.273, unless from the terms of the will, the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary. [C66, 71, 73,§633.274]

633.275 Testamentary additions to trusts. A devise or bequest, the validity of which is determinable by the law of this state, may be made by a will to the trustee of a trust established, or to be established, by the testator, or by the testator and some other person or persons, or by some other person or persons, (including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved some or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts) if the trust is identified in the testator's will, and if its terms are set forth in a written instrument (other than a will) executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will, or in the valid last will of a person who has predeceased the testator (regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust). The devise or bequest shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or after the death of the testator. Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed: (1) shall not be deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator, but shall become a part of the trust to which it is given; and, (2) shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the instrument or will setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before the death of the testator (regardless of whether any such amendment was made before or after the execution of the testator's will), and, if the testator's will so provides, including any amendments to the trust made after the death of the testator. A revocation or termination of the trust before the death of the testator shall cause the devise or bequest to lapse. [C66, 71, 73,§633.275]

Referred to in §§633.276, 633.277

Adopted from uniform testamentary additions to trust Act

633.276 Effect on prior wills. Section 633.275 shall not invalidate any devise or bequest made by a will executed prior to January 1, 1961. [C66, 71, 73,§633.276]

633.277 Uniformity of interpretation. Section 633.275 shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which have adopted a similar provision. [C66, 71, 73, §633.277]

633.278 Devise of encumbered property. When any property subject to a mortgage, other lien or security interest, is specifically devised, the devisee shall take such property so devised subject to such mortgage, other lien or security interest, unless the will provides expressly or by necessary implication that such mortgage, other lien or security interest be otherwise paid. If there is a testamentary direction to discharge such mortgage, other lien or security interest, the rules of abatement specified in section 633.436 shall be applied. [C66, 71, 73, §633.278; 65GA, ch 1265, §5]

EXECUTION AND REVOCATION

633.279 Formal execution. All wills and codicils, except as provided in section 633.283, to be valid, must be in writing, signed by the testator, or by some person in his presence and by his express direction writing his name thereto, and declared by the testator to be his will, and witnessed, at his request, by two competent persons who signed as witnesses in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other; provided, however, that the validity of the execution of any will or instrument which was executed prior to January 1, 1964, shall be determined by the law in effect immediately prior to said date. [C51, §1281; R60, §2313; C73, §2326; C97, §3274; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11852; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.7; C66, 71, 73, §633.279]

633.281 Interest of witnesses. No will is invalidated because attested by an interested witness; but any interested witness shall, unless the will is also attested by two competent and disinterested witnesses, forfeit so much of the provisions therein made for him as in the aggregate exceeds in value, as of the date of the decedent's death, that which he would have received had the testator died intestate. No attesting witness is interested unless he is devised or bequeathed some portion of the testator's estate. [C51, §§1282, 1283; R60, §§2314, 2315; C73, §§2327, 2328; C97, §3275; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11854; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.9; C66, 71, 73, §633.281]

633.282 Defect cured by codicil. If a codicil to a defectively executed will is duly executed, and such will is clearly identified in said codicil, the will and the codicil shall be considered as one instrument and the execution of both shall be deemed sufficient. [C97, §3274; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11853; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.8; C66, 71, 73, §633.282]

633.283 Will executed in foreign state or country. A will executed outside this state, in the mode prescribed by the law, either of the place where executed or of the testator's domicile, shall be deemed to be legally executed, and shall be of the same force and effect as if executed in the mode prescribed by the laws of this state, provided said will is in writing and subscribed by the testator. [C97, §3309; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11893; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.49; C66, 71, 73, §633.283]

Referred to in §633.279

633.284 Revocation—cancellation—revival. A will can be revoked in whole or in part only by being canceled or destroyed by the act or direction of the testator, with the intention of revoking it, or by the execution of a subsequent will. When done by cancellation, the revocation must be witnessed in the same manner as the making of a new will. No will, nor any part thereof, which shall be in any manner revoked, or which shall be or become invalid, can be revived otherwise than by a re-execution thereof, or by the execution of another will or codicil in which the revoked or invalid will, or part thereof, is incorporated by reference. [C51, §§1288, 1289; R60, §§2320, 2321; C73, §§2329, 2330; C97, §3276; S13, §3276; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11855; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.10; C66, 71, 73, §633.284]

PART 3

633.285 Custodian—filing—penalty. After being informed of the death of the testator, the person having custody of his will shall deliver it to the court having jurisdiction of his estate. Every person who willfully refuses or fails to deliver a will after being ordered by the court to do so shall be guilty of contempt of court. He shall also be liable to any person aggrieved for the damages which may be sustained by such refusal or failure. [C51, §§1291, 1292; R60, §§2323, 2324; C73, §§2338, 2339; C97, §3282; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11862; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §633.17; C66, 71, 73, §633.285]

633.384 Equitable conversion and power of sale. A testamentary direction to sell real property, and the exercise of a testamentary power of sale of real property, shall constitute an equitable conversion of real estate into personal property, but shall not affect distribution of the estate under the provisions of the will. [C51, §1297; R60, §2329; C73, §2353; C97, §§3295, 3296; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11879-11882; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§633.35-633.38; C66, 71, 73, §633.384]

1. When realty treated as personalty. Real property acquired by the personal representative by the completion of foreclosure proceedings, or by the forfeiture of real estate contracts, after the death of the decedent shall be deemed to be personal property for the purpose of administration and distribution of the estate.

2. When personalty treated as realty. In all cases of sale of real property by a personal representative under order of court, the surplus of the proceeds of such sale remaining after the payment of debts and charges shall be deemed to be real property and disposed of in the same proportions as the real property would have been if it had not been sold. [C66, 71, 73, §633.385]

633.386 Sale, mortgage, pledge, lease or exchange of property—purposes.

1. Any real or personal property belonging to the decedent, except exempt personal property and the homestead, may be sold, mortgaged, pledged, leased or exchanged by the personal representative for any of the following purposes:

a. The payment of debts and charges against the estate;

b. The distribution of the estate or any part thereof;

c. Any other purpose in the best interests of the estate.

2. Exempt personal property under such provisions as the court may direct, if not set off to the surviving spouse, may be sold, mortgaged, pledged, leased, or exchanged, provided that the surviving spouse consents thereto.

3. The homestead, under such provisions as the court may direct, if not set off to the surviving spouse and if the surviving spouse has not elected to occupy the homestead, may be sold, mortgaged, pledged, leased or exchanged.

4. The proceeds from the sale of any exempt personal property or from the sale of the homestead shall be held by the personal representative subject to the rights of the surviving spouse or issue, unless such surviving spouse or issue has expressly waived his rights to such proceeds. [C51, §§1341-1343; R60, §§2373-2375; C73, §§2386-2388; C97, §§3322, 3323; C24, 27, 31, §§11932, 11933; C35, §§11932, 11933, 11951-g2; C39, §§11932, 11933, 11951.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.21-635.23, 635.42; C66, 71, 73, §633.386]

633.387 Sale of personal property without order of court. Personal property of a perishable nature and personal property for which there is a regularly established market may be sold by the personal representative without order of court. [C51, §1341; R60, §2373; C73, §2388; C97, §3322; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11932; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.21; C66, 71, 73, §633.387]

633.388 Petition to sell, mortgage, exchange, pledge or lease property. A petition to sell, mortgage, exchange, pledge or lease any real or personal property shall set forth the reasons for the application and describe the property involved. It may apply for different authority as to separate parts of the property; or it may apply in the alternative for authority to sell, mortgage, exchange, pledge or lease. Whenever it is for the best interests of the estate, real and personal property of the estate may be sold, mortgaged, exchanged, pledged or leased as a unit. [C51, §§1342, 1343; R60, §§2374, 2375; C73, §§2387, 2388; C97, §3323; C24, 27, §11933; C35, §§11933, 11951-g4; C39, §§11933, 11951.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.23, 635.44; C66, 71, 73, §633.388]

Referred to in §§633.391, 633.400

633.389 Notice and hearing on sale, mortgage, exchange, pledge or lease of property. Upon the filing of the petition, unless notice is waived in writing, notice of hearing in accordance with section 633.40, shall be served on all persons interested in such property, provided, however, that as to personal property and as to the lease of real property not specifically devised, for a period of not to exceed one year, the court may, in its discretion, hear the petition without notice. In those instances where notice is required, the notice shall state briefly the nature of the application. At the hearing and upon satisfactory proof, the court may order the sale, mortgage, exchange, pledge or lease of the property described, or any part thereof, at such price and upon such terms and conditions as the court may authorize. For the purposes of this section, the term "all persons interested" shall include only distributees in the estate and persons who have requested notice as provided by this Code. [C51, §§1342-1344; R60, §§2374-2376; C73, §§2387-2389; C97, §§3323, 3324; C24, §§11933, 11934, 11935; C27, 31, §§11933, 11935; C35, §§11933, 11935, 11951-g5; C39, §§11933, 11935, 11951.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.23-635.25, 635.43; C66, 71, 73, §633.389; 65GA, ch 1265, §6]

633.390 Sale subject to mortgage. When a claim is secured by a mortgage on property, the court may, with the consent of the mortgagee, order the sale of the property subject to the mortgage, and such consent shall release the estate should a deficiency later appear. [C66, 71, 73, §633.390]

633.391 Quieting adverse claims. A petition to determine questions of conflicting and controverted title, or to remove clouds from any title or interest of property involved, may be combined with the petition provided in section 633.388. [C66, 71, 73, §633.391]

633.392 Terms of sale. In all sales of property, the court may authorize credit to be given by the personal representative on such terms as the court may prescribe. Credit for more than twelve months shall be extended only after hearing pursuant to notice to interested parties. [C51, §§1347, 1348, 1350; R60, §§2379, 2380, 2382; C73, §§2392, 2393, 2395; C97, §3326; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11938; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.27; C66, 71, 73, §633.392]

633.393 Purchase by holder of lien. At any sale of real or personal property upon which there is a mortgage, pledge or other lien, the holder of such lien may become the purchaser, and may apply the amount of his lien on the purchase price in the following manner. If no claim thereon has been filed or allowed, the court, at the hearing on the report of sale and for confirmation of the sale, may examine into the validity and enforceability of the lien or charge and the amount due thereunder and secured thereby, and may authorize the personal representative to accept the receipt of such purchaser for the amount due thereunder and secured thereby as payment pro tanto. If such mortgage, pledge or other lien is a valid claim against the estate and has been allowed, the receipt of the purchaser for the amount due him from the proceeds of the sale is a payment pro tanto. If the amount for which the property is purchased, whether or not a claim for it has been filed or allowed, is insufficient to defray the expenses and discharge his mortgage, pledge or other lien, the purchaser must pay an amount sufficient to pay the balance of such expenses. Nothing permitted under the terms of this section shall be deemed to be an allowance of a claim based upon such mortgage, pledge or other lien. [C66, 71, 73, §633.393]

633.394 Order to sell, mortgage, pledge, exchange or lease to be refused if bond given.

1. Bond to prevent sale. Any person interested in the estate may prevent a sale, mortgage, pledge, exchange or lease of the whole or any part of the real estate or personal property for any purpose, by giving bond to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned that he will pay such demands against the estate as the court shall require, not to exceed the value of the property thus kept from sale, mortgage, pledge, exchange, or lease, as soon as called upon by the court for that purpose.

2. Breach of bond—procedure. If the conditions of such bond are broken, the property will be liable for the debts, unless it has passed into the hands of innocent purchasers, and the executor or administrator may take possession thereof and sell it under the direction of the court, or he may prosecute the bond, or pursue both remedies at the same time, if the court so directs.

3. Effect of bond. If the conditions of the bond are complied with, the property shall pass by devise, bequest, distribution, or descent in the same manner as though there had been no debts against the estate. [C51, §§1351-1353; R60, §§2383-2385; C73, §§2396-2398; C97, §§3328, 3329; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11941-11943; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.30-635.32; C66, 71, 73, §633.394]

633.395 Validity of proceedings. No proceedings for sale, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange or conveyance by a personal representative of property belonging to the estate shall be subject to collateral attack on account of any irregularity in the proceedings which is not such as to deprive the court of jurisdiction. [C66, 71, 73, §633.395]

633.396 Order for sale, mortgage, pledge, exchange or lease of real property. The order shall describe the property to be sold, mortgaged, pledged, exchanged or leased, and may designate the sequence in which the several parcels shall be sold, mortgaged, pledged, exchanged or leased. An order for sale may direct whether the property shall be sold at private sale or public auction, and, if the latter, the place or places of sale. The order of sale may prescribe the terms, conditions and manner of sale. The court may, in its discretion, provide for appraisal for its guidance as to value of the property, and determine whether or not additional bond shall be deposited by the personal representative. If real property is to be mortgaged, it may fix the maximum amount of principal, the earliest and latest dates of maturity, and the purposes for which the proceeds shall be used. An order for sale, mortgage, pledge, exchange or lease shall remain in force until terminated by the court. [C51, §§1315-1350; R60, §§2377-2382; C73, §§2390-2395; C97, §§3325-3327; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11937-11940; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.26-635.29; C66, 71, 73, §633.396]

633.397 Sale at public auction. In all sales of property at public auction, the personal representative shall give such notice, in such form and manner, and to such persons or parties, as the court may prescribe. If no provision for notice is made by the court, the notice shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where sale is to be held, the last publication to be not less than one day nor more than seven days before the day of sale. If the property to be sold is located in more than one county, the sale may be held and notice given in any one or more of said counties. Unless otherwise provided by order of the court, the notice shall state the time and place of the sale and describe the property to be sold. Proof of service of the notice required shall be filed before confirmation of the sale. [C51, §§1347, 1348, 1350; R60, §§2379, 2380, 2382; C73, §§2392, 2393, 2395; C97, §§3326; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11938; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.27; C66, 71, 73, §633.397]

633.398 Adjournment of sale at public auction. The personal representative may adjourn any sale from time to time when, in his discretion, it is deemed for the best interests of the estate to do so, but no adjournment shall be to a time more than three months from the date first fixed for the sale. Every adjournment shall be announced publicly at the time and place at which adjournment is made. [C51, §§1347, 1348, 1350; R60, §§2379, 2380, 2382; C73, §§2392, 2393, 2395; C97, §§3326; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11938; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.27; C66, 71, 73, §633.398]

633.399 Report for approval. After making any such sale, mortgage, exchange or lease of real property, the personal representative shall make a verified report thereof to the court. The court shall examine said report, and if satisfied that the sale, mortgage, exchange, or lease has been at a price and upon terms advantageous to the estate, and, in all respects, made in conformity with law, and that it ought to be confirmed, shall confirm the same and order the personal representative to deliver a deed, mortgage, lease or other proper instruments to the persons entitled thereto; provided, however, that in the event said real property has been sold at private sale without an appraisal for inheritance tax purposes or for purpose of such sale, or, if it has been so appraised and has been sold at private sale for less than the appraised value thereof, then, upon the filing of such report, the court may enter an order fixing a time and place for hearing thereon and prescribe a notice of such hearing to be served upon all interested persons, any one of whom, prior to the time fixed for such hearing, may file written objections to the entry of an order approving said sale. If not satisfied that the sale, mortgage, exchange, or lease has been made in conformity with law and that it is to the best interests of the estate, the court may reject the sale, mortgage, exchange, or lease, and enter such orders as the court may deem advisable. [C51, §§1354, 1355; R60, §§2386, 2387; C73, §§2399, 2400; C97, §§3330, 3331; C24, 27, 31, §§11944-11947; C35, §§11944-11947, 11951-g6, g7; C39, §§11944-11947, 11951.6, 11951.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.33-635.36, 635.46, 635.47; C66, 71, 73, §633.399]

Referred to in §633.400

633.400 Joining report with petition. The report of any private sale, mortgage, exchange, or lease of real property, as provided in section 633.399, may be joined with the petition provided in section 633.388. [C66, 71, 73, §633.400]

633.401 Record in foreign county. When real property so conveyed or encumbered is located in a county other than that in which such proceedings are had, a complete transcript of the record of all proceedings relating thereto shall be filed by the personal representative in the office of the clerk in such county. [C97, §3331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11949; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.38; C66, 71, 73, §633.401]

633.410 Limitation on filing claims against decedent's estate. All claims against a decedent's estate, other than charges, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, founded on contract or otherwise, shall be forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, and the distributees of the estate, unless filed with the clerk within six months after the date of the second publication of the notice to creditors; provided, however, that the personal representative may waive such limitation on filing; and this provision shall not bar claimants entitled to equitable relief due to peculiar circumstances. [C51, §1373; R60, §2405; C73, §2421; C97, §§3349; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11972; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.68; C66, 71, 73, §633.410]

633.411 Pleading statute of limitations. It shall be within the discretion of the personal representative to determine whether or not the applicable statute of limitations shall be pleaded to bar a claim which he believes to be just, provided, however, that this section shall not apply where the personal representative was appointed upon the application of a creditor. [C66, 71, 73, §633.411]

633.412 When claim not affected by statute of limitation. No claim shall be barred by the statutes of limitation which was not barred at the time of the decedent's death, if the claim shall have been filed against the decedent's estate within six months from the date of the decedent's death. [C51,§1373; R60,§2405; C73, §2421; C97,§3349; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11972; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§635.68; C16, 71, 73,§633.412]

633.413 Claims barred when no administration commenced. All claims barrable under the provisions of section 633.410 shall, in any event, be barred if administration of the estate, whether testate or intestate, original or ancillary is not commenced within five years after the death of the decedent. [C51,§§1325, 1356; R60,§§2357, 2388; C73,§§2367, 2401; C97,§§3305, 3332; S13,§3305; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§11891, 11951; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§§633.47, 635.40; C66, 71, 73, §633.413]

Referred to in §633.414

633.414 Liens not affected by failure to file claim. Nothing in sections 633.410, 633.412 and 633.413 shall affect or prevent any action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property of the estate. [C66, 71, 73,§633.414]

633.415 Commencement or continuance of separate action. Any action pending against the decedent at the time of his death that survives, shall also be considered a claim filed against the estate if notice of substitution is served upon the personal representative as defendant within the time provided for filing claims in section 633.410; however, this provision shall not bar parties entitled to equitable relief due to peculiar circumstances. A copy of the proof of service of notice of such proceedings shall be filed in the probate proceedings but shall not be jurisdictional.

A separate action based on a debt or other liability of the decedent may be commenced against a personal representative of the decedent in lieu of filing a claim in the estate. Such an action shall be commenced by serving an original notice on the personal representative within the time provided for filing claims in section 633.410 and such action shall also be considered a claim filed against the estate. Such action may be commenced only in a county wherein the venue would have been proper had the decedent survived and the action been commenced against him. A copy of the proof of service of notice shall be filed in the probate proceedings but shall not be jurisdictional.

A judgment or decree in favor of the plaintiff in any such action shall constitute an adjudication against the estate.

In all cases where by the death of the party to be charged, the bringing of the action against his estate shall have been delayed beyond the period provided by the statute of limitations, the action may be brought if the original notice is served on the personal representative as defendant, and proof of service of notice of such proceeding is filed in the probate proceedings within the time provided for filing claims in section 633.410. [C51,§1373; R60, §2405; C73,§2421; C97,§3349; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11972; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§635.68; C66, 71, 73, §633.415]

Referred to in §633.416, 633.417

633.416 Compulsory counterclaims — Rules of Civil Procedure. In an action commenced by or against the fiduciary under the provisions of section 633.415, or in any action pending by or against the decedent that survives under the provisions of section 633.415, the Rules of Civil Procedure as to compulsory counterclaims shall apply in such action. [C66, 71, 73, §633.416]

See R.C.P. 29 et seq.

633.417 Separate action in lieu of proceeding on claims. The provisions of sections 633.438 to 633.448 are not applicable to actions continued or commenced under section 633.415. [C66, 71, 73,§633.417]

633.418 Form and verification of claims—general requirements. No claim shall be allowed against an estate on application of the claimant unless it shall be in writing, filed in duplicate with the clerk, stating the claimant's name and address, describing the nature and the amount thereof, if ascertainable, and accompanied by the affidavit of the claimant, or someone for him, that the amount is justly due, or if not yet due, when it will or may become due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant, except as therein stated. If the claim is contingent, the nature of the contingency shall also be stated. The duplicate of said claim shall be mailed by the clerk to the personal representative or his attorney of record. [C51, §1359; R60,§2391; C73,§2408; C97,§3338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§11957, 11958; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.53, 635.54; C66, 71, 73,§633.418]

633.419 Requirements when claim founded on written instrument. If a claim is founded on a written instrument, the original or a copy thereof with all endorsements must be attached to the claim. The original instrument must be exhibited to the personal representative or court, upon demand, unless it is lost or destroyed, in which case its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim. [C51,§1359; R60, §2391; C73,§2408; C97,§3338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11957; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§635.53; C66, 71, 73, §633.419]

633.420 How claim entitled. All claims filed against the estate shall be entitled in the name of the claimant against the personal representative as such, naming the estate, and in all further proceedings thereon that title shall be preserved. [C73,§2409; C97,§3339; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§11960; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§635.56; C66, 71, 73,§633.420]

633.421 Unsecured claims not yet due. Upon proof of an unsecured claim which will become due at some future time, the same may be paid if the claimant will consent to such discount as the court thinks reasonable; otherwise, the court shall direct the investment of an amount which will provide for the payment of the claim when it becomes due. [C51, §§1364, 1377; R60, §§2396, 2409; C73, §§2413, 2425; C97, §§3342, 3352; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11964, 11975; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.60, 635.70; C66, 71, 73, §633.421]

633.422 Secured claims not yet due. When a creditor holds any security for a claim not yet due, he may file his claim as a claim not yet due with the right of withdrawing the claim if the compromise offer is not satisfactory, and, after such withdrawal, rely entirely on his security, or he may elect to rely entirely on his security without the necessity of filing a claim. [C51, §§1364, 1377; R60, §§2396, 2409; C73, §§2413, 2425; C97, §§3342, 3352; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11964, 11975; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.60, 635.70; C66, 71, 73, §633.422]

633.423 Procedure for secured claims. When a creditor holds any security for his claim, the security shall be described in the claim. If the claim is secured by a mortgage, pledge or other lien which has been recorded, it shall be sufficient to describe the lien by date, and refer to the volume, page and place of recording. The claim shall be allowed in the amount remaining unpaid at the time of its allowance, and the judgment allowing it shall describe the security. Payment of the claim shall be upon the basis of the full amount thereof if the creditor shall surrender his security; otherwise payment shall be upon the basis of one of the following:

1. If the creditor shall exhaust his security before receiving payment, then upon the full amount of the claim allowed, less the amount realized upon exhausting the security; or
2. If the creditor shall not have exhausted, or shall not have the right to exhaust, his security, then upon the full amount of the claim allowed, less the value of the security determined by agreement, or as the court may direct. [C66, 71, 73, §633.423]

633.424 Contingent claims. Contingent claims which cannot be allowed as absolute debts shall, nevertheless, be filed in the court and proved. If allowed as a contingent claim, the order of allowance shall state the nature of the contingency. If such claim shall become absolute before distribution of the estate, it shall be paid in the same manner as absolute claims of the same class. In all other cases, the court may provide for the payment of contingent claims in any one of the following methods:

1. The creditor and personal representative may determine, by agreement, arbitration or compromise, the value thereof, according to its probable present worth, and upon approval thereof by the court, it may be allowed and paid in the same manner as an absolute claim, or

2. The court may order the personal representative to make distribution of the estate but to retain in his hands sufficient funds to pay the claim if and when the same becomes absolute; but, for this purpose, the estate shall not be kept open longer than two years after distribution of the remainder of the estate; and if such claim has not become absolute within that time, distribution shall be made to the distributees of the funds so retained, after paying any costs and expenses accruing during such period, and such distributees shall be liable to the creditor to the extent of the estate received by them, if such contingent claim thereafter becomes absolute. When distribution is so made to distributees, the court may require such distributees to give bond for the satisfaction of their liability to the contingent creditor, or

3. The court may order distribution of the estate as though such contingent claim did not exist, but the distributees shall be liable to the creditor to the extent of the estate received by them, if the contingent claim thereafter becomes absolute; and the court may require such distributees to give bond for the performance of their liability to the contingent creditor, or

4. Such other method as the court may order. [C51, §1365; R60, §2397; C73, §2414; C97, §3343; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11965; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.61; C66, 71, 73, §633.424]

CLASSIFICATION, ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS AND CHARGES

633.425 Classification of debts and charges.

In any estate in which the assets are, or appear to be, insufficient to pay in full all debts and charges of the estate, the personal representative shall classify such debts and charges as follows:

1. Court costs.
2. Other costs of administration.
3. Reasonable funeral and burial expenses.
4. All debts and taxes having preference under the laws of the United States.
5. Reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending him at his last illness.
6. All taxes having preferences under the laws of this state.
7. All debts owing to employees for labor performed during the ninety days next preceding the death of the decedent.
8. All other claims allowed. [C51, §§1370-1372, 1374, 1376, 1378, 1379; R60, §§2402-2404, 2406, 2408, 2410, 2411; C73, §§2418-2420, 2422, 2424, 2426, 2427; C97, §§3347, 3348, 3350, 3353; S13, §3348; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11969-11971, 11973, 11976; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.65-635.67, 635.69, 635.71; C66, 71, 73, §633.425]

Referred to in §633.474

633.426 Order of payment of debts and charges. Payment of debts and charges of the estate shall be made in the order provided in the preceding section, without preference of any claim over another of the same class. If the assets of the estate are insufficient to pay in full all of the claims of a class, then such claims shall be paid on a pro rata basis, without preference between claims then due and those of the same class not due. [C51, §§1378, 1379; R60, §§2410, 2411; C73, §§2426, 2427; C97, §3353; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11976; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.71; C66, 71, 73, §633.426]

633.427 Payment of contingent claims by distributees — contribution. If a contingent claim shall have been filed and allowed against an estate and all the assets of the estate shall have been distributed, and the claim shall thereafter become absolute, the creditor shall have the right to recover thereon against those distributees whose distributive shares have been increased by reason of the fact that the amount of said claim as finally determined was not paid prior to final distribution, provided an action therefor shall be commenced within six months after the claim becomes absolute. Such distributees shall be jointly and severally liable, but no distributee shall be liable for an amount exceeding the amount of the estate or fund so distributed to him. If more than one distributee is liable to the creditor, the creditor shall make parties to the action all such distributees who can be reached by process. By its judgment, the court shall determine the amount of the liability of each of the distributees as between themselves, but if any be insolvent or unable to pay his proportion, or beyond the reach of process, the others, to the extent of their respective liabilities, shall nevertheless be liable to the creditor for the whole amount of his debt. If any person liable for the debt fails to pay his just proportion to the creditors, he shall be liable to indemnify all who, by reason of such failure on his part, have paid more than their just proportion of the debt, the indemnity to be recovered in the same action or in separate actions. [C66, 71, 73, §633.427]

633.428 Allowance by personal representative. Where a claim has been filed and is admitted in writing by the personal representative, it shall stand allowed in the absence of fraud or collusion. [C73, §2410; C97, §3340; S13, §3340; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11961; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.57; C66, 71, 73, §633.428]

633.429 Compelling payment of claims. No claimant shall be entitled to compel payment unless his claim has been duly filed and allowed. [C66, 71, 73, §633.429]

633.430 Execution and levies prohibited. No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against, any property of the estate under any judgment against a decedent or a personal representative, but the provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent the enforcement of mortgages. [C51, §1368;

R60, §2400; C73, §2416; C97, §3345; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11967; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.63; C66, 71, 73, §633.430]

633.431 Claims of personal representative. If the personal representative is a creditor of the decedent, he shall file his claim as other creditors, and the court shall appoint some competent person as temporary administrator to represent the estate in the matter of allowing or disallowing such claim. The same procedure shall be followed in the case of corepresentatives where all such representatives are creditors of the estate; but if one of the corepresentatives is not a creditor of the estate, such disinterested representative shall represent the estate in the matter of allowing or disallowing such claim against the estate by a corepresentative. [C51, §1369; R60, §2401; C73, §2417; C97, §3346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11968; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.64; C66, 71, 73, §633.431]

633.432 Allowance or disallowance of claim of personal representative. The temporary administrator shall, after investigation, file a report with the court recommending the allowance or disallowance of such claim. Unless the court allows the claim, it shall then be disposed of as a contested claim in accordance with the provisions of sections 633.439 to 633.448. [C66, 71, 73, §633.432]

633.433 Payment of debts and charges before expiration of six months' period. As soon as the personal representative is possessed of sufficient means over and above the other costs of administration, he shall pay any allowance made by the court for the surviving spouse and children of the decedent, and may pay the expenses of funeral, and burial and last illness. Prior to the expiration of six months after the date of the second publication of notice to creditors, the personal representative shall pay such other debts and charges against the estate as the court shall order, and the court may require bond or other security to be given by the creditor to refund such part of such payment as may be necessary to make payment in accordance with the provisions of this Code. All payments made by the personal representative without order of court shall be at his own peril. [C51, §§1370, 1371, 1374, 1376, 1378, 1379; R60, §§2402, 2403, 2406, 2408, 2410, 2411; C73, §§2418, 2419, 2422, 2424, 2426, 2427; C97, §§3347, 3350, 3353; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11969, 11973, 11976; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.65, 635.69, 635.71; C66, 71, 73, §633.433]

633.434 Payment of debts and charges after expiration of six months' period. Upon the expiration of six months after the date of the second publication of notice to creditors, the personal representative shall proceed to pay the debts and charges against the estate in accordance with the provisions of this Code. If it appears at any time that the estate is or may be insolvent, that there are insufficient funds on hand, or that there is other good and sufficient cause, the personal representative may report that fact to the court and apply for any order that he deems necessary in connection therewith. [C51, §§1370, 1371, 1374, 1376, 1378, 1379; R60, §§2402, 2403, 2406, 2408, 2410, 2411; C73, §§2418, 2419, 2422, 2424, 2426, 2427; C97, §§3347, 3350, 3353; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11969, 11973, 11976; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.65, 635.69, 635.71; C66, 71, 73, §633.434]

633.435 Debts and charges not filed. The personal representative may pay any valid debts and charges against the estate even though no claim for such debts and charges has been filed, but all such payments made by the personal representative shall be at his own peril. [C66, 71, 73, §633.435]

633.436 General order for abatement. Except as provided in section 633.211, shares of the distributees shall abate, for the payment of debts and charges, federal and state estate taxes, legacies, the shares of children born or adopted after the making of a will, or the share of the surviving spouse who elects to take against the will, without any preference or priority as between real and personal property, in the following order:

1. Property not disposed of by the will;
2. Property devised to the residuary devisee, except property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will;
3. Property disposed of by the will, but not specifically devised and not devised to the residuary devisee, except property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will;
4. Property specifically devised, except property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will;
5. Property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will.

A general devise charged on any specific property or fund shall, for purposes of abatement, be deemed property specifically devised to the extent of the value of the property on which it is charged. Upon the failure or insufficiency of the property on which it is charged, it shall be deemed property not specifically devised to the extent of such failure or insufficiency. [C51, §§1284, 1285; R60, §§2316, 2317; C73, §§2334, 2335; C97, §3279; S13, §§3279, 3279-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11858, 11859; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§633.13, 633.14; C66, 71, 73, §633.436]

Referred to in §§633.278, 633.437

633.437 Contrary provision as to abatement. If the provisions of the will, the testamentary plan, or the express or the implied purpose of the devise would be defeated by the order of abatement stated in section 633.436, the shares of distributees shall abate in such other manner as may be found necessary to give effect to the intention of the testator. [C66, 71, 73 §633.437]

633.440 Contents of notice of disallowance. Such petition shall set out the extraordinary services rendered by the conservator. Compensation as conservator and a fee as attorney shall not be allowed to the same person. 4. No money paid as a gratuity to a ward may be made the subject of a gift to third parties, except that the court may, on petition, authorize the application of said moneys to the assistance of a close relative after a finding that the veteran, if competent, would assist the relative to the extent of the order. If a claim is founded upon a written instrument, the original of such instrument, or a copy thereof, with all endorsements, must be attached to the claim. The original instrument must be exhibited to the conservator or to the court, upon demand, unless it has been lost or destroyed, in which case, its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim. [C51, §1359; R60, §2391; C73, §2408; C97, §3338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11957, 11958; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.53, 635.54; C66, 71, 73, §633.655]

[C73, §2409; C97, §3339; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11960; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.56; C66, 71, 73, §633.656]

Referred to in §633.653

633.657 Filing of claim required. The filing of a claim in the conservatorship tolls the statute of limitations applicable to such claim. [C66, 71, 73, §633.657]

633.658 Compelling payment of claims. No claimant shall be entitled to compel payment until his claim has been duly filed and allowed. [C66, 71, 73, §633.658]

Referred to in §633.664

633.659 Allowance by conservator. When a claim has been filed and has been admitted in writing by the conservator, it shall stand allowed, in the absence of fraud or collusion. [C66, 71, 73, §633.659]

633.660 Execution and levy prohibited. No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against, any property of the estate of a ward under any judgment against the ward or a conservator, but the provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to prevent the enforcement of a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property in an appropriate proceeding. [C66, 71, 73, §633.660]

633.661 Claims of conservators. If the conservator is a creditor of the ward, he shall file his claim as other creditors, and the court shall appoint some competent person as temporary conservator to represent the ward at the hearing on the conservator's claim. The same procedure shall be followed in the case of coconservators where all such conservators are creditors of the ward; but if one of the coconservators is not a creditor of the ward, such disinterested conservator shall represent the ward at the hearing on any claim against the ward by a coconservator. [C51, §1369; R60, §2401; C73, §2417; C97, §3346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11968; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.64; C66, 71, 73, §633.661]

633.662 Claims not filed. The conservator may pay any valid claim against the estate of the ward even though such claim has not been filed, but all such payments made by the conservator shall be at his own peril. [C66, 71, 73, §633.662]

633.663 Waiver of statute of limitations by conservator. It shall be within the discretion of the conservator to determine whether or not the applicable statute of limitation shall be invoked to bar a claim which he believes to be just, and his decision as to the invoking of such statute shall be final. [C66, 71, 73, §633.663]

633.664 Liens not affected by failure to file claim. Nothing in sections 633.654 and 633.658 shall affect or prevent an action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the ward. [C66, 71, 73, §633.664]

633.665 Separate actions and claims. Any action pending against the ward at the time the conservator is appointed shall also be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship if notice of substitution is served on the conservator as defendant, and a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding is filed in the conservatorship proceeding.

A separate action based on a debt or other liability of the ward may be commenced against the conservator as such in lieu of filing a claim in the conservatorship. Such an action shall be commenced by serving an original notice on the conservator and filing a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding in the conservatorship proceeding. Such an action shall also be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship. Such an action may be commenced only in a county where the venue would have been proper if there were no conservatorship and the action had been commenced against the ward. [C66, 71, 73, §633.665]

Referred to in §633.666

633.666 Denial and contest of claims. The provisions of sections 633.438 through 633.448 shall be applicable to the denial and contest of claims against conservatorships, but shall not be applicable to actions continued or commenced under section 633.665. [C66, 71, 73, §633.666]

633.667 Payment of claims in insolvent conservatorships. When it appears that the assets in a conservatorship are insufficient to pay in full all the claims against such conservatorship, the conservator shall report such matter to the court, and the court shall, upon hearing, with notice to all persons who have filed claims in the conservatorship, make an order for the pro rata payment of claims giving claimants the same priority, if any, as they would have if the ward were not under conservatorship. [R60, §1455; C73, §2278; C97, §3227; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §670.18; C66, 71, 73, §633.667]

For good cause shown and under order of court, a conservator may make gifts on behalf of the ward out of the assets under a conservatorship to persons or religious, educational, scientific, charitable, or other nonprofit organizations to whom or to which such gifts were regularly made prior to the commencement of the conservatorship. The making of gifts out of such assets must not foreseeably impair the ability to provide adequately for the best interests of the ward. [C66, 71, 73, §633.668]

PART 7
GUARDIAN'S REPORT

633.669 Guardian's report. Immediately after the appointment of the guardian, he shall make a report to the court advising the court as to the physical condition and whereabouts of the ward. 3. Within thirty days following the date of his removal.

4. Within sixty days following the date of the termination of the conservatorship under the provisions of section 633.675, unless that time is extended by the court.

PART 10
TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIPS
AND CONSERVATORSHIPS

633.675 Cause for termination. A guardianship shall cease, and a conservatorship shall terminate, upon the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

1. If the ward is a minor, when he reaches full age.

2. The death of the ward.

3. A determination by the court that the ward is competent and capable of managing his property and affairs, and that the continuance of the guardianship or conservatorship would not be in his best interests.

4. Upon determination by the court that the conservatorship or guardianship is no longer necessary for any other reason. [S13, §3228-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12641; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§671.10, 672.21; C66, 71, 73, §633.675]

633.677 Accounting to ward—notice of hearing. Upon the termination of a conservatorship, the conservator shall pay the costs of administration, and render a full and complete accounting to the ward or his personal representative and to the court. Notice of hearing on the final report of a conservator shall be served on the ward or his personal representative, in accordance with section 633.40, unless such notice is waived. An order prescribing notice may be made before or after the filing of the final report. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §672.21; C66, 71, 73, §633.677; 65GA, ch 1265, §8]

633.679 Petition to terminate. At any time, not less than six months after the appointment of a guardian or conservator, the person under guardianship or conservatorship may apply to the court by petition, alleging that he is no longer a proper subject thereof, and asking that the guardianship or conservatorship be terminated. [C97, §3222; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12623; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §670.11; C66, 71, 73, §633.679]

633.681 Assets of minor ward exhausted. Whenever the assets of a minor ward's conservatorship are exhausted or consist of personal property only of an aggregate value not in excess of one thousand dollars, the court, upon application or upon its own motion, may terminate the conservatorship and direct the conservator to deliver such property to the parent or other person having the custody of the minor ward, for the use of such ward, after payment of allowed claims and expenses of administration. Such delivery shall have the same force and effect as if delivery had been made to the ward after he attains his majority. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §668.33; C66, 71, 73, §633.681]

DIVISION XV
TRUSTS

633.699 Powers of trustees. Unless it is otherwise provided by the will creating a testamentary trust, the instrument creating an express trust, or by an order or decree duly entered by a court of competent jurisdiction, a trustee shall have all the general powers of a fiduciary, including, but not limited to, the following powers:

1. To collect, receive and receipt for any principal or income, belonging to the trust estate, and to enforce, sue upon, defend against, prosecute, abandon, adjust, compromise, arbitrate or settle, any claim by or against the trust.

3. To vote in person, or to execute proxies to vote, corporate shares belonging to the trust at all regular and special meetings of shareholders.

4. To borrow money for the benefit of the trust estate, and to secure loans by pledge or mortgage of trust property, upon good cause shown and subject to the approval and direction of the court.

5. To execute leases for a customary period for the type of real estate involved, not to extend beyond the termination date of the trust without the specific approval and direction of the court, provided that in any event, leases may be made for as long as one year.

6. To make payments to, or for the benefit of, any beneficiary in any of the following ways:

a. Directly to the beneficiary;

b. Directly for the maintenance, welfare, and education of the beneficiary;

c. To the guardian or conservator of the beneficiary; or

d. To anyone who at the time shall have the custody and care of the person of the beneficiary. A trustee shall not be obliged to see to the application of the funds so paid, but the receipt of the person to whom the funds were paid shall constitute a full acquittance of the trustee.

7. To make any required division or distribution in whole or in part in money, securities, or other property, and in undivided interests therein, and to continue to hold any remaining undivided interest in trust.

8. To receive additional property from any source. [C66, 71, 73, §633.699]

633.700 Intermediate report of trustees. Unless specifically relieved from so doing, by the instrument creating the trust, or by order of the court, the trustee shall make a written report, under oath, to the court, once each year, and oftener, if required by the court. Such report shall state:

1. The period covered by the report.
2. All changes in beneficiaries since the last previous report.
3. Any changes in investments since the last previous report, including a list of all assets, and recommendations of the trustee for the retention or disposition of any property held by the trustee.
4. A detailed accounting for all cash receipts and disbursements, and for all property of the trust, unless such accounting shall be waived in writing by all beneficiaries. [C66, 71, 73, §633.700]

633.701 Final report of trustee. Upon the partial or total termination of a trust, or upon the transfer of the trusteeship due to resignation, removal, dissolution, or other disqualification of the trustee of any trust pending in court, the trustee shall make a final report to the court, showing for the period since the filing of the last report the facts required for an intermediate report; provided, however, that unless specifically required by the court to do so, he shall not in any event, be required to report such facts for any period of time as to which he has, under any of the provisions of section 633.700, been expressly relieved from reporting. In any event, the final report of the trustee shall include the following:

1. The name and last known address of each beneficiary.
2. A statement as to those beneficiaries who are known to be minors or under any other legal disability.
3. Distributions made or to be made to each beneficiary at the time of such termination. [C66, 71, 73, §633.701]

Referred to in §633.703

633.702 Notice of application for discharge. No final report of a trustee of a trust pending in court shall be approved, and no such trustee shall be discharged from further duty or responsibility upon final settlement, until notice of his application for discharge shall have been served upon all persons interested, in accordance with section 633.10, unless notice is waived. An order prescribing notice may be made before or after the filing of the final report. [C66, 71, 73, §633.702; 65GA, ch 1265, §9]

633.703 Discharge. Upon final settlement of a trust, an order shall be entered discharging the trustee from further duties and responsibilities. The order approving the final report shall constitute a waiver of the omission from the final report of any of the recitals required in section 633.701. [C66, 71, 73, §633.703]

DIVISION XVI
DISCLAIMER OF SUCCESSION TO
REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

633.704 Right to disclaim succession.

1. Right of distributee. No person, including a person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment, shall be required to take as a distributee, or otherwise, under the laws of Iowa, and any person may disclaim in whole or in part, the succession to any property, real or personal, or interest therein by filing a written instrument within the time and at the place hereinafter provided. The instrument shall.

- a. Describe the property or part thereof or interest therein disclaimed,
- b. Declare the disclaimer and the extent thereof and
- c. Be signed and acknowledged by the disclaimant.

2. Time and place of filing. The disclaimer instrument shall be filed within six months after the date of the second publication of the notice to creditors, or within six months after the death of the donee of the power, as the case may be, or if the taker of the property or interest is not then finally ascertained or his interest has not become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and in quantity, then not later than two months after the event when the taker has become finally ascertained and his interest has become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and in quantity. The instrument shall be filed with the clerk in the county where the administration proceedings are pending. A copy of the instrument shall also be mailed to the personal representative of the decedent, if any. The instrument shall be irrevocable upon filing.

3. Effective disclaimer. Unless the decedent or donee of the power has otherwise provided, the property or part thereof or interest therein disclaimed, and any future interest which is to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the termination of the interest disclaimed, shall descend or be distributed as if the disclaimant has predeceased the decedent, or if the disclaimant is one designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment, exercised by testamentary instrument, then as if the disclaimant has predeceased the donee of the power. In every case, the disclaimer shall relate back for all purposes to the date of the death of the decedent or the donee, as the case may be. A person who has a present and a future interest in property and disclaims his present interest in whole or in part, shall be deemed to have disclaimed his future interest to the same extent. In the event of death of the disclaimant within the time allowed for the filing of a disclaimer, the right to disclaim shall terminate. In the event of disability of a person entitled to disclaim, the court may authorize or direct a conservator or guardian to exercise the right to disclaim on behalf of the person under disability when it is in his interest that it be done.

4. Waiver and bar. Any assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge or transfer of property or any interest therein or any contract therefor, or any written waiver of the right to disclaim or any acceptance of property or interest therein by an heir, next of kin, devisee, legatee, donee, person succeeding to a disclaimed interest, beneficiary or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, and any sale of property by execution, made before the expiration of the period in which a person may disclaim as provided in this section, bars the right to disclaim the property. The right to disclaim granted by this section shall exist irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when filed and recorded as provided in this section or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, shall be binding upon the disclaimant or person waiving and all parties claiming by, through or under him. The right to disclaim shall follow the proceeds of a disposition of property by a fiduciary, and shall not affect the disposition. [C73, §633.704; 65GA, ch 1265, §10]

When the total value of the probate and nonprobate property of a decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not exceed ten thousand dollars, if the decedent dies intestate and is survived by a spouse or children or both, or if the decedent leaves a last will and testament and that will is admitted to probate but there is no present administration and the only beneficiaries are a spouse or children or both, then upon the petition of the spouse or a child of the decedent who is a resident of the state of Iowa, the clerk shall issue to the petitioner letters of appointment of executor or administrator for administration of a small estate.

2. When the total value of the probate and nonprobate property of a decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not exceed ten thousand dollars, if the decedent dies intestate without a surviving spouse or issue and with a surviving parent or parents, or if the decedent dies without a surviving spouse or issue and leaves a last will and testament and that will is admitted to probate but there is no present administration and the only beneficiaries are a surviving parent or parents, then upon the petition of a parent of the decedent who is a resident of the state of Iowa the clerk shall issue to the petitioner letters of appointment as executor or administrator for administration of a small estate. [65GA, ch 1266,§1]

Referred to in §§635.2, 635.7

635.2 Petition requirements. The petition for administration of a small estate must contain the following:

1. The name, domicile and date of death of the decedent.
2. The name and address of the surviving spouse, if any, the name and address of each child of the decedent, and the name and address of each parent of the decedent, if the parent is an heir or beneficiary of the decedent, unless none are beneficiaries under the will of the decedent.
3. Whether a will has been admitted without present administration.
4. A statement that the probate and nonprobate property of the decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not have an aggregate gross value of more than the amount permitted under the provisions of section 635.1.

5. A statement that petitioner agrees to be personally liable for the payment of debts and charges against the estate to the extent the assets of the estate would be subject to the payment of those debts and charges under estate administration other than for a small estate.

6. A statement that petitioner agrees to account to any personal representative for all assets of the estate coming into the possession of petitioner, if a personal representative is appointed for administration of the estate other than for a small estate. [65GA, ch 1266, §2]

Referred to in §§635.7-635.9

635.3 Possession of estate. The letters of appointment of the personal representative of a small estate shall entitle the personal representative to possession of any property of the estate. [65GA, ch 1266,§3]

Referred to in §635.7

635.4 Turning over assets to representative. Any debtor, financial institution, or other possessor of property shall deliver to the personal representative of a small estate all property of the estate in its possession unless the value of the property exceeds ten thousand dollars. The possessor of property shall be exonerated from any liability for the delivery of property to the personal representative and shall not be responsible for its disposition after the delivery. [65GA, ch 1266,§4]

635.5 Transfer of stock or securities. The letters of appointment are authority for the transfer of stock or other securities to the persons entitled by law to the stock or other securities as stated to the transfer agent by the personal representative for the small estate. The transfer agent shall be exonerated from all liability for making the transfer. [65GA, ch 1266,§5]

635.6 Property of perishable nature. The personal representative of a small estate may sell personal property of a perishable nature and personal property for which there is a regularly established market without order of court. The personal representative has no other power to sell property of the estate. [65GA, ch 1266,§6]

635.7 Report and inventory—showing greater gross value. The personal representative is required to file the report and inventory for which provision is made in section 633.361. Nothing in sections 635.1 to 635.3 shall exempt the personal representative from complying with the requirements of section 450.22 or the clerk from complying with the requirements of section 633.481. If the inventory and report shows assets subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance which exceed the total gross value of ten thousand dollars, the clerk shall terminate the letters issued under section 635.1 without prejudice to the rights of persons who delivered property as permitted under section 635.3. The personal representative shall then be required to petition for administration of the estate. [65GA, ch 1266,§7]

Referred to in §§635.8, 635.10

635.8 Failure to terminate—liability. Unless an interested person petitions for administration of the estate on a basis other than for a small estate within one year after letters of administration for a small estate are issued, if those letters of administration are not terminated under the provisions of section 635.7, any property of the estate shall then be free of debts and charges. However, the personal representative of the small estate shall not be exonerated from debts and charges of the estate and shall be subject to personal liability to the extent provided in section 635.2, subsection 5, for the period of time otherwise provided by law. [65GA, ch 1266,§8]

635.9 Petition for administration on other basis. At any time within one year after letters of administration are issued for a small estate, any interested person may petition for appointment of an executor or administrator for administration of the estate other than as a small estate. In that event the clerk shall notify the person holding letters of appointment for administration of a small estate by ordinary mail not less than ten days before a hearing on the petition. The notice shall be directed to the personal representative of the small estate at his last known address as reflected in the petition filed under section 635.2 or the report and inventory filed under section 633.361, whichever is filed later. [65GA, ch 1266, §9]

635.10 Effect of termination. If letters of administration of a small estate are terminated under section 635.7, the time period for estate proceedings under section 633.331 shall apply. [65GA, ch 1266,§10]

635.11 Statement in notice by clerk. If a petition for administration of a small estate is filed at the time a will is admitted to probate without administration, the clerk's notice under section 633.305 shall state that a small estate administration is contemplated. [65GA, ch 1266,§11]

639.1 Method. The plaintiff in a civil action may cause the property of the defendant not exempt from execution to be attached at the commencement or during the progress of the proceeding, by pursuing the course hereinafter prescribed. [C51,§1846; R60,§3172; C73,§2949; C97,§3876; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.1]

639.2 Proceedings auxiliary. If it be subsequent to the commencement of the action, a separate petition or an amendment to the petition must be filed, and in all cases the proceedings relative to the attachment are to be deemed independent of the ordinary proceedings and only auxiliary thereto. [C51,§1847; R60,§3173; C73,§2950; C97,§3877; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.2]

639.3 Grounds. The petition or amendment to petition which asks an attachment, must in all cases be sworn to. It must state one or more of the following grounds:

1. That the defendant is a foreign corporation or acting as such.
2. That he is a nonresident of the state.
3. That he is about to remove his property out of the state without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts.

4. That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors.

5. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.

6. That he has absconded, so that the ordinary process cannot be served upon him.

7. That he is about to remove permanently out of the county, and has property therein not exempt from execution, and that he refuses to pay or secure the plaintiff.

8. That he is about to remove permanently out of the state, and refuses to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff.

9. That he is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the county with intent to defraud his creditors.

10. That he is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors.

11. That he has property or rights in action which he conceals.

12. That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51,§1848; R60,§3174; C73,§2951; C97,§3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.3]

C97,§3878, editorially divided
Referred to in §204.407

639.4 Alternative statement of grounds. The causes for the attachment shall not be stated in the alternative. [R60,§3242; C73,§3021; C97, §3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12081; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.4]

639.5 Issued on Sunday. Where the petition states, in addition to the other facts required, that the plaintiff will lose his claim unless the attachment issues and is served on Sunday, it may be issued and served on that day. [C73, §2952; C97,§3879; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12082; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.5]

Analogous or related provisions, §§605.18, 626.6, 643.3, 667.3, and R.C.P. 57

639.6 On contract — amount due. If the plaintiff's demand is founded on contract, the petition must state that something is due, and, as nearly as practicable, the amount, which must be more than five dollars in order to authorize an attachment. [C51,§1849; R60,§3175; C73,§2953; C97,§3880; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12083; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.6]

639.7 Value of property attached. The amount thus sworn to is intended as a guide to the sheriff, who must, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifty percent greater in value than that amount. [C51,§1850; R60,§3176; C73,§2954; C97,§3881; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.7]

639.8 Allowance of value in other cases. If the demand is not founded on contract, the original petition must be presented to some judge of the supreme or district court, or the judge of the court from which the issuance of a writ of attachment is sought, who shall make an allowance thereon of the amount in value of the property that may be attached. [C51,§1851; R60,§3177; C73,§2955; C97,§3882; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12085; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.8]

639.9 For debts not due—grounds. The property of a debtor may be attached on debts not due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the petition, in addition to that fact, states one or more of the following grounds:

1. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.

2. That he is about to remove or has removed from the state, and refuses to secure the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which removal or contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted.

3. That the defendant has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors.

4. That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51,§1852; R60,§3178; C73,§2956; C97,§3883; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.9]

639.10 Appearance — judgment—perishable property. If, at the time of the service of the attachment, the claim upon which suit is brought is not due, the defendant need not appear in the action until the maturity of the demand, unless he elects to plead, in which event the cause shall stand for trial when it is reached in its regular order, and no final judgment shall be rendered therein before the maturity of the debt unless such election is made, but if perishable property is levied upon, it may be sold as in other attachment cases. [R60,§§3179, 3180; C73,§§2957, 2958; C97,§3884; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12087; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.10]

639.11 Bond. In all cases before it can be issued, the plaintiff must file with the clerk a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties to be approved by such clerk, in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought to be attached, and in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the wrongful suing out of the attachment. [C51,§1853; R60,§3181; C73,§2959; C97,§3885; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12088; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.11]

639.12 Bond for levy on real property only. In any case where only real property is sought to be attached, the plaintiff shall file such bond in a penalty to be fixed by the court or the clerk, and in such cases, the clerk shall issue a writ thereunder and shall direct therein that real property only shall be attached. [C31, 35, §12088-d1; C39,§12088.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.12]

639.13 Additional security. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, and if, on such motion, the court is satisfied that the surety on the plaintiff's bond has removed from the state, or is not sufficient, the attachment may be vacated and restitution directed of any property taken under it, unless, in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, security is given by the plaintiff. [R60,§3182; C73,§2960; C97,§3888; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12089; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.13]

639.14 Action on bond. In an action on such bond, the plaintiff therein may recover, if he shows that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, and that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same was issued to be true, the actual damages sustained, and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court; and if it be shown such attachment was sued out maliciously, he may recover exemplary damages, nor need he wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond. [C51,§1854; R60, §3183; C73,§2961; C97,§3887; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12090; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.14]

Referred to in §445.4

639.15 Remedy for falsely suing out—counterclaim. The fact stated as a cause of attachment shall not be contested in the action by a mere defense. The defendant's remedy shall be on the bond, but he may in his discretion sue thereon by way of counterclaim, and in such case shall recover damages as in an original action on such bond. [R60,§3238; C73, §3017; C97,§3888; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12091; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.15]

639.16 Writ to sheriff. The clerk shall issue a writ of attachment, directing the sheriff of the county therein named to attach the property of the defendant to the requisite amount therein stated. [C51,§1856; R60,§3185; C73,§2962; C97,§3889; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12092; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.16]

639.17 Several writs to different counties. Attachments may be issued from the district court to different counties, and several may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession and subsequently, until sufficient property has been attached; but only those executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court. [C51, §§1855, 1858; R60,§3184; C73,§2963; C97,§3890; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12093; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.17]

C97,§3890, editorially divided

639.18 Surplus levy. If more property is attached in the aggregate than the plaintiff is entitled to, the surplus must be abandoned, and the plaintiff pay all costs incurred in relation to such surplus. [C51,§1858; R60,§3184; C73,§2963; C97,§3890; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12094; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.18]

639.19 Property attached. The sheriff shall in all cases attach the amount of property directed, if sufficient, not exempt from execution, is found in his county, giving that in which the defendant has a legal and unquestionable title a preference over that in which his title is doubtful or only equitable. [C51, §1857; R60,§3186; C73,§2964; C97,§3891; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12095; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §639.19]

639.20 Several attachments. Where there are several attachments against the same defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they were received by the sheriff. [R60, §3187; C73,§2965; C97,§3892; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12096; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.20]

639.21 Following property. If, after an attachment has been placed in the hands of the sheriff, any property of the defendant is moved from the county, the sheriff may pursue and attach the same in an adjoining county within twenty-four hours after removal. [R60,§3188; C73,§2966; C97,§3893; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12097; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.21]

639.23 Judgments—money—things in action. Judgments, money, bank bills, and other things in action may be levied upon by the officer under an attachment in the same manner as levies are made under execution, except that notice of such levy shall be given as in levies by attachment, and after judgment such property shall be sold, appropriated, or transferred as provided for in the chapter on executions. [C51,§§1859, 1860; R60,§3194; C73,§2967; C97,§3895; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12099; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.23]

642.12 Notice of controverting pleadings. No judgment shall be rendered against a garnishee on a pleading which controverts his answer until notice of the filing of the controverting pleading and of the time and place of trial thereon is served on the garnishee for such time and in such manner as the court or judge shall order. A garnishee who has been so notified shall not be entitled to notice of the filing of amendments or of trial thereon. [C27, 31, 35,§12168 b1; C39,§12168.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§642.12]

If in any of the above methods it is made to appear that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant, or had any of his property in his hands, at the time of being served with the notice of garnishment, he will be liable to the plaintiff, in case judgment is finally recovered by him, to the full amount thereof, or to the amount of such indebtedness or property held by the garnishee, and the plaintiff may have a judgment against the garnishee for the amount of money due from the garnishee to the defendant in the main action, or for the delivery to the sheriff of any money or property in the garnishee's hands belonging to the defendant in the main action within a time to be fixed by the court, and for the value of the same, as fixed in said judgment, if not delivered within the time thus fixed, unless before such judgment is entered the garnishee has delivered to the sheriff such money or property. Property so delivered shall thereafter be treated as if levied upon under the writ of attachment in the usual manner. Referred to in §642.2

642.15 Pleading by defendant—discharge of garnishee. The defendant in the main action may, by a suitable pleading filed in the garnishment proceedings, set up facts showing that the debt or the property with which it is sought to charge the garnishee is exempt from execution, or for any other reason is not liable for plaintiff's claim, and if issue thereon be joined by the plaintiff, it shall be tried with the issues as to the garnishee's liability. If such debt or property, or any part thereof, is found to be thus exempt or not liable, the garnishee shall be discharged as to that part which is exempt or not liable. [C97,§3948; S13, §3948; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12171; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§642.15]

661.1 Definition. The action of mandamus is one brought to obtain an order commanding an inferior tribunal, board, corporation, or person to do or not to do an act, the performance or omission of which the law enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station. [R60,§3761; C73,§3373; C97,§4341; S13,§4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12440; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.1]

S13,§4341, editorially divided

661.2 Discretion—exercise of. Where discretion is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only compel it to act, but cannot control such discretion. [C51,§2180; R60,§3763; C73,§3373; C97,§4341; S13,§4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12441; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.2]

661.3 Nature of action. All such actions shall be tried as equitable actions. [S13,§4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12442; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.3]

661.4 Order issued. The order may be issued by the district court to any inferior tribunal, or to any corporation, officer, or person; and by the supreme court to any district court, if necessary, and in any other case where it is found necessary for that court to exercise its legitimate power. [C51,§§2179, 2181; R60,§§3761, 3764; C73,§3374; C97,§4342; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12443; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.4]

661.5 Auxiliary remedy. The plaintiff in any action, except those brought for the recovery of specific real or personal property, may also, as an auxiliary relief, have an order of mandamus to compel the performance of a duty established in such action. [R60,§3767; C73,§3375; C97,§4343; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12444; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.5]

C97,§4343, editorially divided

661.6 “Enforceable duty” defined. If such duty, the performance of which is sought to be compelled, is not one resulting from an office, trust, or station, it must be one for the breach of which a legal right to damages is already complete at the commencement of the action, and must also be a duty of which a court of equity would enforce the performance. [R60,§3767; C73,§3375; C97,§4343; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12445; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.6]

661.7 Other plain, speedy and adequate remedy. An order of mandamus shall not be issued in any case where there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law, save as herein provided. [C51,§2182; R60,§3765; C73,§3376; C97,§4344; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12446; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.7]

661.8 When order granted. The order of mandamus is granted on the petition of any private party aggrieved, without the concurrence of the prosecutor for the state, or on the petition of the state by the county attorney, when the public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought. [R60,§3761; C73,§3377; C97,§4345; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12447; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.8]

661.9 Petition. The plaintiff in such action shall state his claim, and shall also state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall also set forth that the plaintiff, if a private individual, is personally interested therein, and that he sustains and may sustain damage by the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has been demanded by him, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty. [R60,§3762; C73,§3378; C97,§4346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.9]

661.10 Other pleadings. The pleadings and other proceedings in any action in which a mandamus is claimed shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and costs shall be recoverable by either party, as in an ordinary action for the recovery of damages. [R60,§3766; C73,§3379; C97,§4347; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12449; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.10]

661.11 Repealed by 62GA, ch 400,§197.

661.12 Injunction may issue—joinder. When the action is brought by a private person, it may be joined with a cause of action for such an injunction as may be obtained by ordinary proceedings, or with the causes of actions specified in this chapter, but no other joinder and no counterclaim shall be allowed. [R60,§4181; C73,§3380; C97,§4348; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12450; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.12]

661.13 Peremptory order. When the plaintiff recovers judgment, the court may include therein a peremptory order of mandamus directed to the defendant, commanding him forthwith to perform the duty to be enforced, together with a money judgment for damages and costs, upon which an ordinary execution may issue. POSTCONVICTION PROCEDURE

- 663A.1 Statutes not applicable to convicted persons.
- 663A.2 Situations where law applicable.
- 663A.3 How to commence proceeding.
- 663A.4 Facts to be presented.
- 663A.5 Payment of costs.

- 663A.6 Determination of relief.
- 663A.7 Court to hear application.
- 663A.8 Grounds must be all-inclusive.
- 663A.9 Appeal.
- 663A.10 Rule of construction.
- 663A.11 Citation.

663A.1 Statutes not applicable to convicted persons. The provisions of sections 663.1 through 663.44, inclusive, shall not apply to persons convicted of, or sentenced for, a public offense. [C71, 73,§663A.1]

663A.2 Situations where law applicable. Any person who has been convicted of, or sentenced for, a public offense and who claims that:

1. The conviction or sentence was in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws of this state;
2. The court was without jurisdiction to impose sentence;
3. The sentence exceeds the maximum authorized by law;
4. There exists evidence of material facts, not previously presented and heard, that requires vacation of the conviction or sentence in the interest of justice;

5. His sentence has expired, his probation, parole, or conditional release has been unlawfully revoked, or he is otherwise unlawfully held in custody or other restraint; or

6. The conviction or sentence is otherwise subject to collateral attack upon any ground of alleged error formerly available under any common law, statutory or other writ, motion, petition, proceeding, or remedy; may institute, without paying a filing fee, a proceeding under this chapter to secure relief.

This remedy is not a substitute for nor does it affect any remedy, incident to the proceedings in the trial court, or of direct review of the sentence or conviction. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it comprehends and takes the place of all other common law, statutory, or other remedies formerly available for challenging the validity of the conviction or sentence. It shall be used exclusively in place of them. [C71, 73, §663A.2]

663A.3 How to commence proceeding. A proceeding is commenced by filing an application verified by the applicant with the clerk of the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. An application may be filed at any time. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant and the authenticity of all documents and exhibits included in or attached to the application must be sworn to affirmatively as true and correct. The supreme court may prescribe the form of the application and verification. The clerk shall docket the application upon its receipt and promptly bring it to the attention of the court and deliver a copy to the county attorney and the attorney general. [C71, 73, §663A.3]

Referred to in §663A.4

663A.4 Facts to be presented. The application shall identify the proceedings in which the applicant was convicted, give the date of the entry of the judgment of conviction or sentence complained of, specifically set forth the grounds upon which the application is based, and clearly state the relief desired. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant shall be set forth separately from other allegations of facts and shall be verified as provided in section 663A.3. Affidavits, records, or other evidence supporting its allegations shall be attached to the application or the application shall recite why they are not attached. The application shall identify all previous proceedings, together with the grounds therein asserted, taken by the applicant to secure relief from his conviction or sentence. Argument, citations, and discussion of authorities are unnecessary. [C71, 73, §663A.4]

663A.5 Payment of costs. If the applicant is unable to pay court costs and expenses of representation, including stenographic, printing, and legal services, these costs and expenses shall be made available to the applicant in the preparation of the application, in the trial court, and on review. [C71, 73, §663A.5]

663A.6 Determination of relief. Within thirty days after the docketing of the application, or within any further time the court may fix, the state shall respond by answer or by motion which may be supported by affidavits. At any time prior to entry of judgment the court may grant leave to withdraw the application. The court may make appropriate orders for amendment of the application or any pleading or motion, for pleading over, for filing further pleadings or motions, or for extending the time of the filing of any pleading. In considering the application the court shall take account of substance regardless of defects of form. If the application is not accompanied by the record of the proceedings challenged therein, the respondent shall file with its answer the record or portions thereof that are material to the questions raised in the application.

When a court is satisfied, on the basis of the application, the answer or motion, and the record, that the applicant is not entitled to postconviction relief and no purpose would be served by any further proceedings, it may indicate to the parties its intention to dismiss the application and its reasons for dismissal. The applicant shall be given an opportunity to reply to the proposed dismissal. In light of the reply, or on default thereof, the court may order the application dismissed or grant leave to file an amended application or direct that the proceedings otherwise continue. Disposition on the pleadings and record is not proper if a material issue of fact exists.

The court may grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of the application, when it appears from the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions and agreements of fact, together with any affidavits submitted, that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. [C71, 73, §663A.6]

663A.7 Court to hear application. The application shall be heard in, and before any judge of, the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved. All rules and statutes applicable in civil proceedings including pretrial and discovery procedures are available to the parties. The court may receive proof of affidavits, depositions, oral testimony, or other evidence, and may order the applicant brought before it for the hearing. If the court finds in favor of the applicant, it shall enter an appropriate order with respect to the conviction or sentence in the former proceedings, and any supplementary orders as to arraignment, retrial, custody, bail, discharge, correction of sentence, or other matters that may be necessary and proper. The court shall make specific findings of fact, and state expressly its conclusions of law, relating to each issue presented. This order is a final judgment. [C71, 73, §663A.7]

663A.8 Grounds must be all-inclusive. All grounds for relief available to an applicant under this chapter must be raised in his original, supplemental or amended application. Any ground finally adjudicated or not raised, or knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waived in the proceeding that resulted in the conviction or sentence, or in any other proceeding the applicant has taken to secure relief, may not be the basis for a subsequent application, unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which for sufficient reason was not asserted or was inadequately raised in the original, supplemental, or amended application. [C71, 73,§663A.8]

663A.9 Appeal. A final judgment entered under this chapter may be reviewed by the supreme court of this state on appeal, brought either by the applicant or by the state within sixty days from the entry of the judgment. [C71, 73,§663A.9]

663A.10 Rule of construction. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [C71, 73,§663A.10]

663A.11 Citation. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Postconviction Procedure Act. [C71, 73,§663A.11]

[C51, §2145; R60, §3727; C73, §3368; C97, §4336; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12552; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §666.1]

Conditions of bond, §64.2

666.2 Prior judgment no bar. A judgment in favor of a party for one delinquency does not preclude the same or another party from an action on the same security for another delinquency, except that sureties can be made liable in the aggregate only to the extent of their undertaking. [C51, §2147; R60, §3728; C73, §3369; C97, §4337; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §666.2]

666.5 Collusion. A judgment for a penalty or forfeiture, rendered by collusion, does not prevent another action for the same subject matter. [C51, §2150; R60, §3731; C73, §3372; C97, §4340; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12556; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §666.5]

Such report must be full, true, and complete with reference to the matters therein contained, and of all things required by this section to be reported, and be under oath, and any officer failing to make such report shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [C73, §3974; C97, §1302; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12557; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §666.6]

713B.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Door-to-door sale" means a sale, lease, or rental of consumer goods or services with a purchase price of twenty-five dollars or more, whether under single or multiple contracts, in which the seller or his representative personally solicits the sale, including those in response to or following an invitation by the buyer, and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of the seller. Door-to-door sale does not include a transaction:

a. Made pursuant to prior negotiations in the course of a visit by the buyer to a retail business establishment having a fixed permanent location where the goods are exhibited or the services are offered for sale on a continuing basis.

b. In which the consumer is accorded the right of rescission by the provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, title 15 United States Code section 1635, or rules issued pursuant to this chapter.

c. In which the buyer has initiated the contact and the goods or services are needed to meet a bona fide immediate personal emergency of the buyer, and the buyer furnishes the seller with a separate dated and signed personal statement in the buyer's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the sale within three business days.

d. Conducted and consummated entirely by mail or telephone; and without any other contact between the buyer and the seller or its representative prior to delivery of the goods or performance of the services.

e. In which the buyer has initiated the contact and specifically requested the seller to visit his home for the purpose of repairing or performing maintenance upon the buyer's personal property. If in the course of such a visit, the seller sells the buyer the right to receive additional services or goods other than replacement parts necessarily used in performing the maintenance or in making the repairs, the sale of those additional goods or services would not fall within this exclusion.

f. Pertaining to the sale or rental of real property, to the sale of insurance and prepaid health service plans, or to the sale of securities or commodities by a broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission.

2. "Consumer goods or services" means goods or services purchased, leased, or rented primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, including courses of instruction or training regardless of the purpose for which they are taken.

6. "Business day" means any calendar day except Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday, including holidays observed on Mondays. [65GA, ch 291,§1]

713B.2 Contract. Every seller shall furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to a door-to-door sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller, and in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points, a statement in substantially the following form:

“You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.” [65GA, ch 291,§2]

713B.3 Cancellation. Every seller shall furnish each buyer, at the time he signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned “Notice of Cancellation”, which shall be attached to the contract or receipt and easily detachable, and which shall contain in ten point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language as that used in the contract:

753.1 State criminal jurisdiction.

1. A person is subject to prosecution in this state for an offense which he commits within or outside this state, by his own conduct or that of another for which he is legally accountable, if:

a. The offense is committed either wholly or partly within this state.

b. Conduct of the person outside the state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense within this state.

c. Conduct of the person outside the state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense within this state.

d. Conduct of the person within this state constitutes an attempt, solicitation or conspiracy to commit an offense in another jurisdiction, which conduct is punishable under the laws of both this state and such other jurisdiction.

2. An offense may be committed partly within this state if conduct which is an element of the offense, or a result which constitutes an element of the offense, occurs within this state. If the body of a homicide victim is found within the state, the death is presumed to have occurred within the state.

3. An offense which is based on an omission to perform a duty imposed upon a person by the law of this state is committed within the state, regardless of the location of the person at the time of the omission. [C51,§2803; R60, §4500; C73,§4155; C97,§5153; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§753.1]

753.2 Place of trial—general. Criminal actions shall be tried in the county in which the crime is committed, except as otherwise provided by law. 753.3 Place of trial—special provisions. The following special provisions apply:

1. If conduct or results which constitute elements of an offense occur in two or more counties, prosecution of the offense may be had in any of such counties. In such cases, where a dominant number of elements occur in one county, that county shall have the primary right to proceed with prosecution of the offender.

2. If an offense commenced outside the state is consummated within this state, trial of the offense shall be held in the county or counties in which the offense is consummated or the interest protected by the involved penal statute is impaired.

3. If an offense is committed in or upon any conveyance in transit, and it cannot readily be determined in which county the offense was committed, trial of the offense may be held in any county through or over which the conveyance passed in the course of its journey.

4. If an offense is committed on the boundary of two or more counties, and it cannot readily be determined within which county the commission took place, trial of the offense may be held in any of the counties concerned.

5. If the offense is a traffic offense, section 753.20 shall be applicable. [C51,§§2804, 2806-2808; R60,§§4505, 4507-4509; C73,§§4157, 4159-4161; C97,§§5155, 5157-5159; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13450, 13451-13453; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §§753.3-753.6; C73,§753.3]

POLICE CITATIONS

753.5 Conditions. Whenever it would be lawful for a peace officer to arrest a person without a warrant, he may issue a citation instead of making the arrest and taking the person before a magistrate. [C73,§753.5]

753.6 Form. The citation shall include the name and address of the person, the nature of the offense, the time and place at which the person is to appear in court, and the penalty for nonappearance. [C73,§753.6]

753.7 Procedure. Before he is released, the cited person shall sign the citation as a written promise to appear in court at the time and place specified. A copy of the citation shall be given to the person. [C73,§753.7]

753.8 Complaint. The law enforcement officer issuing the citation shall cause to be filed a complaint in the court in which the cited person is required to appear, as soon as practicable, charging the crime stated in said notice. [C73,§753.8]

753.9 Failure to appear. Except for citations for traffic violations, any person who willfully fails to appear in court as specified by the citation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Failure to appear in response to a citation for a traffic violation shall be governed by section 321.487.

In a case where a defendant fails to make a required court appearance, the court shall issue an arrest warrant for the offense of failure to appear, and shall forward the warrant and the original citation to the clerk. The clerk shall enter a transfer to the issuing agency on the docket, and shall return the warrant with the original citation attached to the law enforcement agency which issued the original citation for enforcement of the warrant. Upon arrest of the defendant, the warrant and the original citation shall be returned to the court, and the offenses shall be heard and disposed of simultaneously. [C73, §753.9; 65GA, ch 282, §76, ch 1085, §35]

TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

753.13 Uniform citation and complaint. The commissioner of public safety shall adopt a uniform, combined traffic citation and complaint, which shall be used for charging all traffic violations in Iowa under state law or municipal ordinance, unless the defendant is charged by information or section 321.236, subsection 1, is applicable. Each citation and complaint shall be serially numbered and shall be in quadruplicate, and the officer shall deliver the original and a copy to the court where the defendant is to appear, a copy to the defendant, and a copy to the law enforcement agency of the officer. The citation and complaint shall contain, among other things, spaces for the parties' names and for the information required by section 321.485, subsection 2; a place where the defendant may sign the promise to appear referred to in section 321.486; a list of the minimum fines prescribed by section 753.15, either separately or by groups; a brief explanation of sections 753.16 and 753.17; and a space where the defendant may sign an admission of the violation when such section 753.16 is applicable. Every citation and complaint shall require the defendant to appear before a court at a specified time and place. Notwithstanding section 321.485, subsection 2, the officer may arrest the defendant although a citation and complaint is used to charge the violation, if authorized by section 755.4.

Supplies of the uniform traffic citation and complaint for municipal corporations and county agencies shall be paid for out of the court expense fund of the county. Supplies of the uniform traffic citation and complaint for all other agencies shall be paid for out of the budget of the agency concerned.

The uniform citation and complaint shall contain a place for the verification of the officer issuing the citation. The complaint may be verified before the chief officer of the law enforcement agency or his designee, and the chief officer of each law enforcement agency of the state is authorized to designate specific individuals to administer oaths and certify verifications. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to invalidate forms of uniform citation and complaint in existence prior to July 1, 1974, and existing forms may be used until supplies are exhausted. [C73, §753.13; 65GA, ch 282, §77, ch 1085, §36]

Such boxes shall be used solely for the deposit of fines and costs received upon written admissions of scheduled violations respecting weight and other nonmoving scheduled violations applicable to commercial carriers. The collection boxes shall remain locked at all times and shall be opened only by the clerk of the district court or his designee. Violations of the schedule of weight violations shall be chargeable, where the fine charged does not exceed one hundred dollars, only by uniform citation and complaint. Violations of the schedule of weight violations, where the fine charged exceeds one hundred dollars: (1) Shall, when the violation is admitted and section 753.16 applies, be chargeable upon uniform citation and complaint, indictment, or county attorney's information, (2) but otherwise, shall be chargeable only upon indictment or county attorney's information. 1. In cases of scheduled violations, the defendant, before the time specified in the citation and complaint for appearance before the court, may sign the admission of violation on the citation and complaint and deliver or mail the citation and complaint, together with the minimum fine for the violation, plus five dollars costs, to a traffic violations office in the county. The office shall, if the offense is a moving violation, forward a copy of the citation and complaint and admission to the commissioner of public safety as required by section 321.207. Thereupon the defendant shall not be required to appear before the court. The admission shall constitute a conviction.

2. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation by information may obtain two copies of the information from the court and, before the time he is required to appear before the court, deliver or mail such copies, together with his admission, fine, and five dollars costs, to the traffic violations office in the county. The procedure, fine, and costs shall be the same as when the charge is by citation and complaint, with the admission and the number of the defendant's operator's or chauffeur's license placed upon the information.

3. When section 753.15 and this section are applicable but the officer does not deem it advisable to release the defendant and no court in the county is in session:

a. If the defendant wishes to admit the violation, the officer may release the defendant upon observing him mail the citation and complaint, admission, and minimum fine, together with five dollars costs, to a traffic violations office in the county, in an envelope furnished by the officer. The officer may allow the defendant to mail a check in the proper amount in lieu of cash. If the check is not paid by the drawee for any reason, the defendant may be held in contempt of court. The officer shall advise the defendant of the penalty for non-payment of the check.

b. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" of this subsection, the officer may release the defendant upon observing him mail to a court in the county the citation and complaint and one and one-half times the minimum fine together with five dollars costs, or in lieu of one and one-half times the fine and the costs, a guaranteed arrest bond certificate as provided in section 321.1, subsection 71, as bail together with the following statement signed by the defendant:

c. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" or "b", or in any event when section 755.4 is applicable, the officer may arrest and confine the defendant if authorized by the latter section, and proceed with him according to chapter 757 or 758.

4. Any defendant who admits a scheduled violation may nevertheless appear before court. The procedure, costs, and fine, without suspension of the fine, after the hearing shall be the same as in the traffic violations office.

5. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation who does not fully comply with subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section before the time required to appear before the court must, at that time, appear before the court. If such defendant admits the violation, the procedure and fine, without suspension, after the hearing shall be the same before the court as before the traffic violations office with five dollars court costs, without prejudice, when applicable, to proceedings under section 321.487. In such cases, the defendant shall appear before the court and regular procedure shall apply. If an information is used the officer shall endorse thereon, "Court appearance required.” If a citation and complaint is used, the officer shall strike out the space in which the defendant may admit the violation before a traffic violations office and shall endorse thereon “Court appearance required”. A defendant shall appear before the court for any nonscheduled violation either in person or by attorney. [C73,§753.17; 65GA, ch 282,§82]

754.3 Filing—issuing warrant. When a preliminary information is made before a magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, charging the commission of some designated public offense triable on indictment in the county in which such magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, has local jurisdiction, by some person named therein, he may issue a warrant for the arrest of such person.

Whenever the preliminary information or complaint charges a misdemeanor the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, may in his discretion issue a citation instead of a warrant of arrest. The citation shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the citation at a time and place stated therein.

The citation may be served in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action.

If the person named in the citation is actually served as provided herein and fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the citation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in section 753.9. Upon such failure to appear, the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, shall issue a warrant of arrest for the offense originally charged. Failure to appear in response to a citation for a traffic violation shall be governed by section 321.487.

Except for citations for traffic violations, if after issuing a citation the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, becomes satisfied that the person to whom such citation has been directed will not appear, he may at once issue a warrant of arrest without waiting for the date mentioned in the citation. A warrant or citation issued by a clerk or deputy shall be returnable before a magistrate for the county, or in his absence, before the nearest magistrate, whether the warrant is for a felony as under section 757.2 or for a misdemeanor. If a citation or warrant is issued by the clerk, the preliminary information shall be transmitted to the magistrate before whom the defendant is to appear. 757.6 Failure to give bail. If bail be not forthwith given by the defendant as above provided, the magistrate or clerk must redeliver to the officer the warrant, and the officer must take the defendant before the magistrate who issued it at the place mentioned in the command thereof, or, if he be absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the warrant was issued. [C51,§2834; R60,§4542; C73,§4194; C97,§5190; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13485; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§757.6]

757.7 Proceedings after arrest. In all cases the defendant, when arrested, must be taken before the magistrate or clerk without unnecessary delay, and the officer must at the same time deliver to the magistrate or clerk the warrant, with his return thereon endorsed and subscribed by him with his official title. [C51,§2835; R60,§4543; C73,§4195; C97,§5191; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13486; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§757.7]

757.8 Hearing before another magistrate. If the defendant be taken before a magistrate in the county in which the warrant was issued, other than the magistrate who issued it as hereinbefore provided, the affidavits on which the warrant was issued must be sent to such magistrate, or if they cannot be procured, the informant and his witnesses must be subpoenaed to make new affidavits. [C51,§2836; R60,§4544; C73,§4196; C97,§5192; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13487; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§757.8]

758.3 Transfer for convenience.
758.4 Proceedings—same as under warrant.
758.5 Offense triable in another county—transfer.

758.7 Proceedings in case of transfer.
758.8 Proper magistrate to conduct hearing—bail.
758.9 Officers return.

758.1 Disposition of prisoner. When an arrest is made without a warrant, the person arrested shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest available magistrate, and the grounds on which the arrest was made shall be stated to the magistrate by affidavit, subscribed and sworn to by the person making the statement, in the same manner as upon a preliminary information, as nearly as may be. [R60,§4566; C73,§4218; C97,§5208; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13488; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.1]

Referred to in §755.17

758.2 Hearing before magistrate. If the magistrate believes from the statements in the affidavit that the offense charged is triable in the county in which the arrest was made, and there is sufficient ground for a trial or preliminary examination, as the case may require, and it will not be inconvenient for the witnesses on the part of the state that it should be had before him, he shall proceed as if the person arrested had been brought before him on arrest under a warrant, and, if the case be one within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against him. [R60,§4567; C73,§4219; C97,§5209; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13489; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.2]

758.3 Transfer for convenience. If the magistrate finds that it will be more convenient for the witnesses on the part of the state that such trial or examination should be had before some other magistrate, he shall, by a written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be by him taken before the other magistrate, together with the order of commitment and affidavits, unless the person arrested give bail, when authorized, for his appearance, as in case of arrest under a warrant. [R60,§4568; C73,§4220; C97,§5209; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13490; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.3]

758.4 Proceedings—same as under warrant. Unless bail is given, the peace officer shall take the arrested person before the designated magistrate, and in any case shall deliver to him the affidavits and order of commitment, and when the person arrested is brought or appears before him, he shall proceed as on an arrest under a warrant, and, when necessary, shall order an information to be filed against the person arrested. [R60,§4568; C73,§4220; C97,§5210; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13491; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.4]

758.5 Offense triable in another county—transfer. If the magistrate believes from the statements in the affidavit that the offense charged is triable in a county different from that in which the arrest is made, and there is sufficient ground for a trial or preliminary examination, he shall, by a written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be by him taken before a magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, and if the offense be a misdemeanor triable on indictment, shall fix in the order the amount of bail which the person arrested may give for his appearance at the district court of the county (naming it) in which the offense is indictable to answer to an indictment. If the offense charged be a bailable crime, the arrested person may give bail, conditioned as above provided, before a clerk of the district court. [R60,§4569; C73,§4221; C97,§5211; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.5]

Referred to in §§758.6, 758.8

758.6 Bail—commitment—discharge. If bail be given before a magistrate, as provided in section 758.5, it may be either before the magistrate making the order, or the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable before whom he is taken under the order, or a magistrate of any county through which he passes in going from the county in which the arrest was made to that in which the offense is triable, or, in any bailable case, before the clerk of the district court of either of said counties; and, when given, the magistrate or clerk taking the same shall make, on the order of commitment, an order for the discharge of the person arrested from custody, who shall forthwith be discharged, and shall transmit by mail, or otherwise, to the clerk of the district court of the county at which the person arrested is bound to appear as soon as convenient and within twenty days after taking the bail, the affidavits, the order of commitment, and discharge, together with the undertaking of bail, and he shall file the same in his office. [R60,§4570; C73,§4222; C97,§5212; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13493; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.6]

Referred to in §758.8

758.7 Proceedings in case of transfer. If bail be not given as above provided, or if the offense charged is a felony not bailable, or a misdemeanor triable on information, the magistrate must deliver the affidavits and order of commitment to a peace officer, who shall proceed with the person arrested as directed by the order or provided by law; and the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, when the person arrested is brought before him, shall proceed as on an arrest under a warrant, and if the case be within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against the person arrested. [R60,§4571; C73,§4223; C97,§5213; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.7]

Referred to in §758.8

758.8 Proper magistrate to conduct hearing—bail. In the cases contemplated in sections 758.5 to 758.7, inclusive, the officer having the person arrested in custody, under the order, shall take him before the proper magistrate, in the county in which the offense is triable, which is most convenient for the witnesses on the part of the state; unless, in case of a misdemeanor triable on indictment as hereinbefore provided, the person arrested desires to give bail, in which case he shall take him before the most convenient magistrate in the county in which the offense with which he is charged is triable, or any county through which he passes in going from the county in which the arrest was made to the county in which the offense is triable, or before the clerk of the district court of either of said counties, for the purpose of giving bail. [R60, §4572; C73,§4224; C97,§5214; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.8]

758.9 Officers return. In all cases, the peace officer, when he takes a person committed to him under an order as provided in this chapter before a magistrate or clerk of the district court, either for the purpose of giving bail, if bail be taken, or for trial or preliminary examination, must make his return on such order, and sign such return with his name of office, and deliver the same to the magistrate or clerk. [R60,§4573; C73,§4225; C97,§5215; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13496; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§758.9]
