2. A person who violates ~~subsection 1~~ this section is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. NEW SECTION. 204.14B Sale of consumable hemp product — failure to register — civil penalty.

1. A person engaged in the retail sale of a consumable hemp product in this state without being registered with the department of health and human services as required in section 204.7 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars. The department of health and human services shall impose, assess, and collect the civil penalty. Each day that a continuing violation occurs may be considered a separate offense.

2. All civil penalties collected under this section shall be deposited into the general fund of the state.

3. A person in violation of this section is not also subject to a civil penalty as provided in section 204.12.

Sec. 11. NEW SECTION. 204.14C Sale of consumable hemp product — failure to register — criminal penalty.

1. a. A person engaged in the retail sale of a consumable hemp product who is not registered with the department of health and human services as required in section 204.7 commits a serious misdemeanor.

b. A person engaged in the retail sale of an item advertised as a consumable hemp product that is not a consumable hemp product commits a serious misdemeanor.

2. This section shall be presumed not to be in conflict with or limit a prosecution for a violation of any other provision of law, including but not limited to chapter 124 or 21 U.S.C. ch. 13.

Sec. 12. NEW SECTION. 204.14D Persons under legal age — criminal offense.

1. A person shall not sell, give, or otherwise distribute a consumable hemp product to a person under twenty-one years of age.

2. A person who violates subsection 1 is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. NEW SECTION. 204.14E Persons under legal age — scheduled violation and community service.

1. A person under twenty-one years of age shall not consume, possess, purchase, or attempt to purchase a consumable hemp product.

2. A person who violates subsection 1 shall be subject to a scheduled violation in the form of a civil penalty pursuant to section 805.8C, subsection 3, paragraph "d".

3. In addition to the imposition of a civil penalty as provided in subsection 2, a person who violates subsection 1 shall be subject to a court appearance as provided in section 805.10. The court shall sentence the person to perform a specified number of hours of unpaid community service as deemed appropriate by the court subject to the following:

a. For a first violation, eight hours, unless waived by the court.

b. For a second offense, twelve hours.

c. For a third or subsequent offense, sixteen hours.

4. A person who violates this section is not subject to a civil penalty as provided in section 204.12.

5. A person does not violate subsection 1 by possessing a consumable hemp product if the person is employed by a registrant and the person is possessing the consumable hemp product as part of their employment.

Sec. 14. NEW SECTION. 204.14F Persons under legal age — exception — cooperation with department of public safety or local law enforcement agency.

1. a. A person who would otherwise act to commit an offense under section 204.14D is not guilty of that offense if the person acts under the direction or consent of the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency as part of an enforcement investigation.

b. A person who would otherwise act to commit a violation under section 204.14E is not subject to that offense if the person acts under the direction or consent of the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency as part of an enforcement investigation.

2. In enforcing this section, the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency shall take all measures necessary to ensure that a consumable hemp product is not introduced into the body of a person under the age of twenty-one.

3. Notwithstanding chapter 22, any personal information identifying the person committing an offense or violation as described in this section shall be confidential.

Sec. 15. NEW SECTION. 204.15A Hemp products — order of confiscation and disposal.

1. The department of health and human services may order the confiscation and disposal of a hemp product based on any of the following:

a. It is falsely advertised, sold, or distributed as a consumable hemp product.

b. It exceeds the maximum tetrahydrocannabinol concentration allowed under section 124.204, subsection 7, or this chapter.

c. It is a consumable hemp product manufactured, sold, or distributed by a person who is not registered with the department of health and human services as is required in section 204.7.

2. The department of health and human services shall act in consultation with the department of public safety. The department of health and human services may request assistance from the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency as necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. The department of health and human services, upon request, shall deliver any sample of the item to the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency.

3. A person required to be registered with the department of health and human services as provided in section 204.7 shall pay the department of health and human services all actual and reasonable costs of the destruction of the item. If that department assumes any amount of the costs, it may charge that amount to the person.

Sec. 16. Section 805.8C, subsection 3, Code 2024, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. d. (1) For violations of section 204.14E, the scheduled fine is as follows:

(a) If the violation is a first offense, the scheduled fine is seventy dollars.

(b) If the violation is a second offense, the scheduled fine is one hundred thirty-five dollars.

(c) If the violation is a third or subsequent offense, the scheduled fine is three hundred twenty-five dollars.

(2) The fine shall be imposed as a civil penalty.

(3) The crime services surcharge under section 911.1 shall not be added to the penalty, and the court costs pursuant to section 805.9, subsection 6, shall not be imposed.

(4) Notwithstanding section 805.12, any civil penalty paid under this subsection shall be retained by the city or county enforcing the violation.

Sec. 17. Section 805.10, subsection 1, Code 2024, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. e. When a violation charged involves the consumption, possession, purchase, or attempt to purchase of a consumable hemp product as provided in section 204.14E, for which there is a community service sentence.
