CHAPTER 93.

TO PROVIDE FOR EDUCATION OF J. W. HALLOCK.

AN ACT to Provide for the Education of J. W. Hallock at the Iowa State University at the Expense of the State. S. F. 27.

WHEREAS, On the 13th day of August, A. D. 1883, J. W. Hallock, of Audubon county, volunteered to assist the proper officers and a number of other citizens of the counties of Audubon and Shelby to patrol Elkhorn Grove, Shelby county, Iowa, and to aid in the arrest of the Clingan murderers, S. L. Crawford, and William Hardy; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, While the patrolling parties were searching in the thick brush, one of the murderers shot the aforesaid J. W. Hallock from ambush, the ball taking effect in the right breast, passing entirely through the lungs, and coming out near the spinal column; and

WHEREAS, The said Willis Hallock has not and probably never will fully recover from the effects of the aforesaid gunshot wound; therefore

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That there is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one thousand dollars, to be placed in the hands of Hon. T. J. Caldwell of Adel, Iowa, as trustee, who shall invest the same as in his judgment shall seem most feasible to carry out the intent of this act, and use any interest arising therefrom or any part of the principal sum, until exhausted, toward defraying the expense of the education of said J. W. Hallock at the Iowa state university, including board, clothing and necessary textbooks, provided, that nothing in this bill shall be construed to bind the state for the further education of said J. W. Hallock than that which said appropriation will provide.

$1,000 appropriated.
