CHAPTER 7.

S. F. 317. AN ACT to repeal chapter 14 of the laws of the 28rd General Assembly as amended by chapter 9 and twelve of the laws of the 24th General Assembly, relating to paving, curbing and sewerage, in cities under special charters and all cities having a population of 5,000 or over and to enact a substitute therefor:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Ch. 14, 23 G. A.,
ch. 9, 24 G. A.,
repealed. That chapter 14 of the laws of the 23rd General assembly, as amended by chapter 9 and twelve of the laws of the 24th General Assembly be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Applicable to cities of 5,000
under special charter. SECTION 1. That all cities in this state organized and existing under special charter, and all cities having a population of 5,000 or over, shall have all the powers and be subject to the provisions of this act.

Contract for labor and material. SEC. 2. When the council of any such city shall direct the paving and curbing of any street, or streets, or the construction of any sewers, such council, or the board of public works, in case such board shall exist, shall make and enter into contracts for furnishing labor and materials, and for the curbing, and paving the surface with any material, composition, patented or otherwise, or sewerage, as the case may be, either for the entire work in one contract, or for parts thereof in separate and specified sections, as to them may seem best.

Sealed proposals and to lowest bidders. SEC. 3. All such contracts shall be made by the council, or the board of public works, when such board shall exist, and shall be made with the lowest bidder, or bidders, upon sealed proposals, after giving public notice thereof for not less than ten days in at least two newspapers of said city, which notice shall state as nearly as practicable the extent of the work, the kind of materials to be furnished, when the work shall be done, and at what time the proposals shall be acted upon.

Contractors to give bond. SEC. 4. Each contractor shall be required to give bond to the city, with sureties to be approved by the council, or by the board of public works, where such board shall exist, for the faithful performance of the contract, and the council or such board, shall have power to institute suit in the name of the city to enforce all such contracts.

Duty of city engineer. SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the city engineer to furnish the council, or board of public works, in case such board shall exist, with proper grades and lines, and see that the work is done in accordance with the ordinances and regulations of the city, with respect to grades and lines.

Payment of costs provided for by bonds. SEC. 6. For the purpose of providing for the payment of the costs and expenses of any such improvement, or improvements, the council, or board of public works, in case such a board shall exist, shall be authorized from time to time, as the work progresses, or is completed, to make requisitions upon the mayor of the city, for the issuance of bonds, or certificates, as hereinafter provided, in such denominations as shall be deemed best, in anticipation of the deferred payment of the taxes levied for such improvement. And it shall be the duty of the mayor to make and execute bonds, or certificates, accordingly to an amount not exceeding six-sevenths of the amount of the cost and expenses of any such improvement, to be actually assessed upon the property liable hereunder, for the payment of the same.

Said bonds shall bear the name of the street, alley, place or district improved, which shall be particularly described in the resolution authorizing such issue, and shall be signed by the mayor, and countersigned by the city clerk or city recorder, as the case may be, and sealed with the corporation seal of the city, and shall bear the same date, and be payable seven years after date, and be redeemable at any time, at the option of the city, and shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding 6% per annum, payable semi-annually. Said bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

Duty of city in the matter.

It shall be the duty of the city to comply with the requirement of this chapter, in the issuance of said bonds or certificates to assess and levy upon the property liable therefor the cost and expenses of such improvement, or improvements, and to collect the same, and apply the proceeds in the redemption of such bonds or certificates, and to no other purpose, and said bonds or certificates shall be payable only out of funds derived from such assessments, and bonds or certificates shall not be delivered on account of any improvement, to an amount in excess of the tax levied on property, the owners of which have signed the waiver provided in section 16 hereof. Said city shall not be obliged to appropriate money from any other funds to the payment of such bonds, or any part of the same, except as to the temporary advancement of interest thereon, as provided in section 14 hereof.

Bonds delivered to city clerk. Registered.

SEC. 7. When such bonds shall have been issued, and sealed with the corporation seal of the city, they shall be delivered to the city clerk, or city recorder, as the case may be, who shall register them in a book to be kept for that purpose, and countersigned, and then delivered to the committee or person authorized to negotiate the same, taking receipt therefor.

Duty of commissioners to negotiate sale of bonds.

SEC. 8. Said committee or person authorized to negotiate said bonds, shall negotiate the same in such manner as they, or he may deem best, and for such prices as may be obtainable for the same, not less than par, and shall pay all moneys received therefrom to the treasurer of the city, and report to the city clerk, or city recorder, as the case may be, the number of bonds sold, and the amount received therefor, and before delivering the same to the purchaser said bonds shall be countersigned by the person or committee authorized to negotiate the same.

SEC. 9. All moneys received by the city treasurer from the sale of said bonds, shall be kept by him in a separate fund, and paid out on requisition of the council, accompanied by certificate of the city engineer, or board of public works, that the work has been done, or material furnished to the amount of said requisition, and that it is required for the payment of the same, and all moneys received by said treasurer, shall be kept in the same manner, and subject to all the regulations regarding other money of the city, except he shall keep a separate account of the same, and all interest received upon the same shall be credited to such fund.

or company interested therein, and that any such person or company having any objection to the same, or to the tax proposed to be assessed thereby, shall file with the said city clerk, or city recorder, as the case may be, his or their objections in writing, at or before the next meeting of such council after the publication of such notice, that such council at such meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and after hearing and deciding upon any objection so filed, if any, and after making all necessary corrections in the assessment, as proposed by said plat, shall assess and levy as a special tax upon the property of each owner, liable to special assessments as aforesaid, its just and true proportion according to law, and according to said assessments proposed by said plat as corrected and approved of the amount to be specially assessed for any such improvement; said assessment shall be duly entered on the proper tax books of such city, and shall be payable at the office of the city collector of said city, or other officer authorized to collect city taxes in seven equal installments, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, from the date of assessment upon the unpaid portion thereof, the first of which with interest at six per cent per annum, shall be payable on and after the date of such assessment, as aforesaid and the others annually after the date of such assessment, with interest on the whole amount unpaid; and said assessment shall be collected like other special taxes, as may be provided by the ordinances of such city.

Provided, that when the whole, or any part of the cost of constructing any sewer, shall be required by ordinance of any city to be paid by the proceeds of a sewer tax, to be levied upon all the property of any sewer district, according to valuation, that said city shall have the power to levy the entire cost of such sewer, required to be paid by such sewer district, at once upon all the taxable real property within such district, and determine by ordinance or resolution the whole percentage of tax necessary to pay such cost, and the percentage to be paid in any one year, and when the same shall become delinquent, and such taxes shall be entered, and payable and collectible, as other special taxes in this chapter provided for; and said city shall have the right to issue bonds in anticipation of the payment of such taxes, in the same manner, and with the same effect, as herein provided for bonds issued for taxes levied upon specified abutting, or adjacent property.

SEC. 12. Said assessment with interest accruing thereon, shall be a lien upon the property abutting upon the street or streets, on which any said improvement is made, or upon such improvement, or the entire property on which such tax is levied, from the commencement of the work, and shall remain a lien until fully paid, and shall have precedence over all other liens except ordinary taxes, and shall not be divested by any judicial sale, provided that such lien shall

Any assessment against any railroad or street railway for the paving of any street shall be a first and paramount lien upon the entire track of said railroad, or street railway, in the limits of the city making such assessments.

Lien in case of railways of entire road in city limits.

SEC. 13. The owner of any property against which an assessment shall have been made for the cost of any such improvement, shall have the right to pay the same in full, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum, from the time said assessment was made, or after having paid one or more of seven installments, and interest, he may at any time pay in full the balance of his assessments remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum, from the time when the preceding payment became due, and such payment in full shall satisfy and discharge the lien upon said property, and any owner of such property who shall divide the same so that the feet front on any such improvement are divided into separate lots or parcels, may discharge the lien in like manner upon any one or more of such lots or parcels by payment of the amount unpaid thereon, calculated by the ratio of feet front, or square feet in area of such lot or lots, or parcel, or parcels to the feet front, or area of the whole lot. If any assessment shall have been made against any railroad or street railway for the paving of any street, the owner of said railroad or street railway shall have the same rights as are hereinbefore provided to pay in installments, or to pay in full, the assessment against said railroad or street railway; but no part of the line of said railroad or street railway shall be released from the lien for any portion of any unpaid assessment which may have been made against it for paving any street, as aforesaid.

SEC. 18. Any mistake in the description of the property, or in the name of the owner shall not vitiate the lien.

Improvement not authorized unless petitioned for.

SEC. 19. The council of any such city shall not have the right to authorize any improvement under this act unless the owners of a majority of the feet front, or square feet in area of the property abutting upon, or adjacent to the street, or streets to be improved, or any such improvement shall petition therefor, or unless the same shall be voted for by three-fourths of the members of the council.

Part of street may be improved.

SEC. 20. Any part of any street, or streets may be improved under this act, as well as an entire street, or streets, and the cost of the whole, or any part of the improvement included in any resolution or contract, or contracts, may be levied at one time and under one plat and notice, when such action will allow the just and true proportion of the entire cost to be assessed uniformly to each front foot, or square foot in area, of the lots or lands abutting on, or adjacent to such improvement.

SEC. 21. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, so far as applicable to such cities. Provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting or preventing such cities from making special assessments to pay for the construction of sewers upon adjacent property, according to area, or from paying for such construction by any method of assessment, or any combination of methods now provided by law. Conflicting acts repealed.

And provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting or preventing such cities, the councils of which have heretofore ordered and directed any street or streets to be paved and curbed, and have advertised and proceeded pursuant to such order and the laws of Iowa, from possessing all the powers of this act, and such city or cities which have so proceeded, and the councils thereof are hereby empowered to continue such paving and curbing under the provisions of this act. Does not conflict with work already under contract.

SEC. 22. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall be in force and effect, from and after its publication in the Iowa State Register, and Des Moines Leader, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa. Such cities may continue such improvements.

Approved April 28, 1894. Publication clause.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Iowa State Register, May 8, and in the Des Moines Leader, May 10, 1894.

CHAPTER 8.

AN ACT to amend section two of chapter 38, of the laws of 1882, and H. F. 116, authorizing cities of the second class having not less than five thousand inhabitants, as shown by the last legally authorized census, to levy a special tax for the creation of a general paving fund to pay the cost of paving street and alley intersections. H. F. 116.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all cities of the second class having a population of not less than five thousand inhabitants, as shown by the last legally authorized census, are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a special tax, not exceeding five mills on the dollar, on the assessed valuation of all the property in such city for the purpose of creating the general paving fund contemplated and referred to in section two of chapter 38 of the laws of 1882, and said section two is hereby so amended and shall be so read and construed. CHAPTER 9.

H. F. 602. AN ACT to enable cities of the first and second class to issue bonds payable out of special assessments for street improvements.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa as follows:

City council has power to issue improvement bonds.

SECTION 1. The city council of any city of the first or second class shall have power to issue bonds payable only out of special assessments that have been levied to pay the cost of street improvements, in an aggregate amount which with the interest thereon shall not exceed the amount of the said special assessment.

Bonds may run eight years.

The said bonds shall be payable at times not exceeding eight years from their date, shall carry interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, and shall be under the seal of the city and signed by the mayor and the auditor or city clerk of the city and shall express on their face that they are issued under the provisions of this act and that they are payable only out of the special assessments levied for the purpose of paying for street improvements in certain streets, mentioning the names of the said streets.

Payable only out of special assessments.

Sale of bonds.

SEC. 2. The said bonds may be sold at public or private sale at not less than par value or may be exchanged for bonds of the city that may have been previously issued to pay the cost of the said street improvements.

Proceeds of bond sale.

The proceeds of the said bonds shall be used only to pay the cost of the said street improvements or to pay such bonds previously issued.

Sinking fund

SEC. 3. Whenever bonds shall be issued under the provisions of this act to pay such bonds previously issued all the special assessment and taxes and sinking funds applicable to the payment of such bonds previously issued, shall be applicable in the same manner and to the same extent to the payment of the bonds issued hereunder, and all the powers and duties to levy and collect special assessments and taxes and to create liens upon property and to establish sinking funds in respect of the bonds previously issued or in respect of the said street improvements, shall continue until all of the bonds so issued hereunder shall be paid.

Bonds previously issued.

Special assessments applied only to payment of bonds.

SEC. 4. Whenever any city council shall issue bonds under the provisions of this act, such city shall collect the special assessments out of which the said bonds are payable and hold the same separate and apart in trust for the payment of the said bonds, but such bonds shall not make the city liable in any way except for the proper application of the said assessments.

Bonds negotiable.

All such bonds shall be negotiable in all respects to the same extent as securities negotiable by the law merchant, and notwithstanding the liability for the payment thereof is limited to the special assessments as aforesaid.

SEC. 5. This act is deemed of immediate importance and shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Iowa State Register and Des Moines Leader, papers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Publication clause.

Approved April 24, 1894.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Iowa State Register May 5, and in the Des Moines Leader May 3, 1894.

CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT to amend Chapter one, Title four, Code of 1873, relating to county, township, town and city government.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That section 281 of said chapter is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof.

Sec. 281 Code repealed.

Whenever the citizens of any county desire a re-location of their county seat, they may petition their Board of Supervisors respecting the same at the regular June session in any even numbered year.

Substitute. Relocation of county seat.

SEC. 2. That section 282 of said chapter is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof.

Sec. 282 Code repealed.

Such petition shall designate the place at which the petitioners desire to have the county seat re-located, and shall be signed by none but legal voters of said county, said petition shall contain in addition to the names of the petitioners, the section, township, and range on which, or town or ward, if in a city, in which the petitioners reside, their ages, and time of residence in the county. Said petition shall be accompanied by affidavits of one or more residents of said county, stating that the signers thereof were at the time of signing legal voters of said county, and also stating the number of signers to the petition at the time of making the affidavit.

Substitute. Petition for relocation of county seat.

Affidavits to accompany petition.

SEC. 3. That section 283 of said chapter is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Sec. 283 Code repealed.

Remonstrances, signed by the legal voters of the county only, giving their ages, places of residence and time of residence in the county, as provided for petitioners in section 2 of this act, and verified in like manner, may also be presented to the board. If the same persons petition and remonstrate, they shall be counted only on the remonstrance, and if a greater number of legal voters as in this act provided, remonstrate against the re-location than petition for it, no election shall be ordered.

Remonstrances must give age, residence, etc.

When no election ordered.

SEC. 4. That Section 285, of said chapter, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof.

Sec. 285 Code repealed.

Upon the presentation of such petition and remonstrance, if no objections are filed to either, the board shall proceed to determine whether the petition has been signed by one-half of all the legal voters in the county as shown by the last

Substitute. Papers considered by the board.

Names appearing on both papers.	census, either State or Federal, after deducting therefrom all names appearing on the remonstrance which also appears on the petition, and also to determine whether more legal voters have signed the petition than have signed the remonstrance. If the notice prescribed in Section 284 shall have been given and the board shall find that one-half of all the legal voters, after making said deduction have signed said petition, and that said one-half exceeds the number that have signed the remonstrance, the board shall order that at the next general election a vote shall be taken between said place and the existing county seat, and shall require a constable of each township in the county to post notices of such order in three public places in such township at least fifty days before said election, and shall also publish a notice of such election in some newspaper, if there be one published in the county, for four consecutive weeks, the last publication to be at least twenty days before said election: Provided, further, That if objections are made either as to petition or remonstrance, the board shall inquire into and hear additional evidence, with reference to the fact as to whether the names appearing on either petition or remonstrance were the names of legal voters at the time they were placed on the petition or remonstrance, and whether the signatures are genuine;
Notice given.
Election ordered.
Notices of election posted.
Newspaper publication.
Objections to petition or remonstrance.
Not applicable to pending cases.	Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply in any respect to cases or contests now pending. Approved April 24, 1894.

CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT to protect persons and property from danger at grade crossings of one railroad over another, or over swing or draw bridges, and at junction points, by providing for safety devices thereat. H. F. 307.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That when, and in case two or more railroads crossing each other at a common grade, or any railroad crossing a stream by swing or draw bridge, shall equip such crossing or bridge with an interlocking switch system, or other suitable safety device, rendering it safe for engines or trains to pass over such crossings or bridge without stopping, and if such interlocking switch system, or other safety devices, shall be approved by the Railroad Commissioners, then and in that case, it is hereby made lawful for the engines and trains of such railroad or railroads to pass over such crossings or bridge without stopping, any law or the provisions of any law now in force to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such other provisions of law contrary thereto are hereby declared not to be applicable in such case.

SEC. 2. That in case where the tracks of two or more railroads cross each other at a common grade in this state, any company owning any one of such tracks, whose managers may desire to unite with others in protecting such crossing with interlocking or other safety device and shall be unable to agree with such others on the matter, may file in the district court, sitting in equity, of the county in which such crossing is located, a petition stating the facts of the situation and asking said court to order such crossing to be protected by interlocking or other safety device. Said petition shall be accompanied by a plan showing the location of all tracks and switches, and upon the filing thereof notice shall be given to each company or person owning or operating any track involved in such crossing. And the said court, or a judge thereof, if said petition shall be filed in vacation, shall thereupon cause a view of the site of such crossing to be had by a commissioner to be appointed by the court or judge for such purpose, and shall as soon as practicable appoint a time and place for the hearing of such cause as a suit in equity. It shall be the duty of the court in which any such cause shall be pending to require the issues to be made up at the first term of the court to which such cause is brought, which shall be the trial term, and to give the same precedence over other civil business.

At the time and place named for hearing, unless the hearing is for good cause continued, such court shall proceed to try the question of whether or not the crossing shall be protected by interlocking or other safety device, and shall give all companies and parties interested an opportunity to submit evidence and be fully heard; and after such hearing said court shall enter a decree granting or denying such petition, and in case the same is granted, such decree shall prescribe an interlocking or other safety device for such crossing, and all other matters which may be deemed proper to the efficient protection of such crossing, and in such decree the court shall designate the proportion of the cost of the construction of such plant and of the expense of maintaining and operating the same, which each of the companies or persons concerned shall pay, and shall also fix the time within which the erection of such appliance shall be begun.

SEC. 3. In case, however, one railroad company shall hereafter seek to cross with its track or tracks the track or tracks of another railroad, and a crossing other than at grade shall be impracticable, so as to make necessary a crossing at a common level, the railroad company seeking to cross at grade shall, upon the application of the company owning or operating the existing road, be compelled to interlock such crossing to the satisfaction of such court, sitting in equity, in the county, in which such proposed crossing shall be located, and pay the cost of such appliance; and in the event of the railroad companies interested, failing to agree upon the division of expense of maintaining and operating said interlocking switch, said court shall apportion the amount to be paid by each; provided, this section shall not apply to crossings over sidetracks only; and provided further, that in any cause arising under this section the same provision as to making up of issues and precedence over other civil business as is made in section 2 hereof, shall apply.

Failure to agree as to division of expenses.

SEC. 4. If, in any case contemplated in the preceding sections, the crossings shall be of two railroads only, then and in such case, the court shall not apportion to either thereof, less than one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the cost as provided by section 2 or section 3, as the case may be, and if more than two roads shall in any case be involved, the court shall not apportion to any one thereof, less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of an equal share of such cost.

Where more than two roads are interested.

SEC. 5. Any decree made pursuant to sections 2 and 3 hereof, shall be subject to changes or modifications at any subsequent term, on due cause therefor being shown to the court.

Decree subject to change.

SEC. 6. Whenever interlocking or other safety devices are constructed and maintained in compliance with sections 2 or 3 of this act, then and in that case it shall be lawful for the engines and trains of such railroad or railroads to pass over said crossings without stopping, any law now in force to the contrary notwithstanding, and all such other provisions of law contrary thereto are hereby declared not to be applicable in such cases.

Where law has been complied with in regard to crossings engines need not stop.

Approved March 19, 1894.

CHAPTER 26.

AN ACT authorizing railway corporations to mortgage their property for certain purposes: S. F. 148.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, as follows:

SEC. 1. That any railway corporation organized under the laws of this state is hereby authorized to mortgage its property and franchises, in whole or in part, to secure bonds issued by it to refund or pay its indebtedness, or to improve or develop its property, or for the purpose of effecting the object of its incorporation, such bonds to be issued in such amounts, to run for such length of time, to be payable within or without this state, and to bear such rate of interest, (not to exceed the legal rate in this state at the time of issue), as the company issuing the same shall determine.

Approved March 2, 1894.

CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to tax the traffic in intoxicating liquors and to regulate and control the same. H. F. 537.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. There shall be assessed against every person, partnership or corporation, other than registered pharmacists holding permits, engaged in selling or keeping with intent to sell, any intoxicating liquors, and upon any real property and the owner thereof, within or whereon intoxicating liquors are sold, or kept with intent to sell in this State, a tax of six hundred dollars per annum. All such taxes shall be a perpetual lien upon all property both personal and real, used in or connected with the business. Pharmacists with permits exempt. Tax $600.00. Tax a perpetual lien on real and personal.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the assessor of each town, ship, incorporated town or city, in the months of December, March, June and September of each year, to return to the Duties of assessors.

Describe reality.	auditor of each county a list of places with name of occupant or tenant, and owner or agent, where intoxicating liquors are sold, or kept for sale as herein contemplated, with a description of the real property wherein or whereon such traffic is conducted.
Three citizens may file infor- mation.	SEC. 3. Should the assessor for any reason fail to perform his duty as specified in this act, then and in that case, any three citizens of the county can by verified statement on information and belief addressed to the county auditor, procure the listing of names and places as above provided with the same force and effect as if done by the assessor.
Board to rebate tax.	SEC. 4. At the meeting of the board of supervisors next following the listing as aforesaid, application may be made to rebate the tax by petition duly verified and regularly filed

Chairman of board of super- visors to swear and examine witnesses.	The board may also issue subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses and shall have the same power to compel the attendance of the same by attachment as is conferred upon the district court, and shall report those failing to obey the summons or refusing to testify, to the next term of court in and for said county, for punishment for contempt. The fees for witnesses shall be the same as in the district court.
Board to issue subpoenas.	SEC. 5. On the application to rebate the tax, the owner of the property may file verified petitions therefor, and be heard in support of the same, and evidence of the general reputation of the place may be introduced, and if upon the hearing of the case, it shall be shown that the petitioner, his agent or tenant has paid a retail liquor dealer's internal revenue tax to the United States, covering the time and premises as set forth in the listing of said real estate, it shall be prima facie evidence that the tax was properly levied.
Amount of witness fees.	If upon said hearing it be found by a majority vote of the board of supervisors that the tax was properly levied, it shall stand and continue to be a lien against the property. Either the petitioner or the county attorney may appeal to the district court, and if the petitioner appeals he shall be required to give bond for the costs which have accrued, or may accrue, in the further progress of the case.
Petition for rebate of tax.	Notice of the appeal shall be served, upon the appellee or his attorney, within ten days after the decision by the board of supervisors; whereupon the auditor shall file a full and complete transcript of the record of the proceedings in said cause, together with the original papers, in the office of the clerk of the district court in and for said county. In case the finding of the board of supervisors shall be against levying the tax, and the county attorney shall fail to take an appeal to the district court within ten days from such finding as above provided, any three citizens of the county may take such appeal within ten days thereafter by giving a good and sufficient bond for costs, in case the finding of the district court shall be in favor of the defendant; and the same proceeding shall be had as if the appeal had been taken by the county attorney. The auditor shall charge and tax as fees for the transcript and writing up of the record ten cents per hundred words.

Three citizens may appeal.

Bond for costs.

Auditor to transcript, 10c. per 100 words.

SEC. 6. On the appeal the trial shall be conducted as an equitable cause and the first term shall be the trial term. Should it appear either on the trial before the board of supervisors, or in the district court, that there have been sales of intoxicating liquors made in or upon the premises listed for taxation, the tax shall be confirmed against the person, corporation, or partnership conducting the business, and, if it appears that the wrong name or an alias has been used, then the record and assessment list may be amended and the true name inserted and if it shall appear at such trial, that the owner or his agent had, or by the use of reasonable care and diligence, might have known of the sales of intoxicating liquors as aforesaid, the tax shall be confirmed against the property, and the clerk of the district court shall certify such fact to the county auditor with the amount of costs made in the trial of the case.

First term trial term.

Wrong name.

County clerk to certify to auditor.

SEC. 7. Should it be found in the trial before the board of supervisors, or on appeal, that sales of intoxicating liquors in or upon the premises described, had not continued for more than six months in the year for which the taxes were assessed, then the total tax for the year, exclusive of costs, may be reduced pro rata.

Tax pro rated.

SEC. 8. There shall be furnished to the assessor, when he enters upon the duties of each year, a book to be known as the "Assessment book for liquor dealers." In this shall be returned the list of places where intoxicating liquors are sold, with names of occupants, tenants and owners, and also the name of the agent, if there is an agent, of the property.

Assessor's book.

These taxes shall not be submitted to any board of equalization for any purpose.

Not equalized.

SEC. 9. At the regular meeting of the board of supervisors in September, they shall levy an annual tax of six hundred dollars, payable semi-annually at the time and place as hereinafter provided, against each person carrying on or conducting a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and also against the real property, and the owner thereof, in which or upon which said place is located. Provided, that if application is made to cancel the tax as hereinbefore provided, and the trial of the cause should be delayed for any reason, then the levy, if any be made, shall be made at the next regular Tax at September session.

Tax payable semi-annually. Seller and owner of realty liable.

Board to examine liquor tax book each regular meeting. meeting of the board. At all regular meetings, the board of supervisors shall examine the assessment book of liquor dealers, and levy taxes against such persons as shall have become liable thereto under the terms of this act, who have not already been taxed as herein provided for the same year, but only a pro rata amount of the tax for the remainder of the year, dependent upon the time of assessment.

Auditor certify tax to county treasurer. SEC. 10. The county auditor shall, upon the levy made as aforesaid, certify the same forthwith to the county treasurer with names of persons and property and amount of tax, and a statement of the costs that have accrued either before the board of supervisors or in the district court, and said certificate and list shall be full authority for the treasurer to enter the same upon the tax books of the county and proceed to collect the same.

Treasurer to collect.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of every person against whom or against whose property taxes as provided in this act have been assessed, to attend at the treasurer's office and pay the same in semi-annual installments, on or before the first day of April and Oct. of each year. In case of failure so to pay such installments, a penalty of twenty per cent shall be added, together with one per cent per month thereafter until paid.

Tax in semi-annual installments. 20 per cent penalty, 1 per cent per month. Date of tax sales.

SEC. 12. On the first Monday in June and the first Monday in December of each year, the county treasurer shall offer at public sale at his office, all lands, town lots or other real property on which taxes for the sale of intoxicating liquors have become a lien, as provided in this act.

General law of collection applies.

SEC. 13. All the provisions of law now or hereafter in force for the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes shall apply to and govern the taxes provided for by this act, except as herein otherwise provided.

Tax half to county; half to city.

SEC. 14. The revenue derived from the tax provided for in this act (six hundred dollars per annum) for each place where intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be paid into the county treasury, one-half to go into the general county fund, and the remainder to be paid over to the municipality in which the business taxed is conducted.

County attorney's duty.

SEC. 15. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each county to see that the provisions of this act are enforced, and it shall be the duty of the district court or any judge thereof, to suspend or remove from office any such county attorney who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties enjoined upon him by this act, such suspension or removal may be made upon application of any citizen residing in the county, but no such suspension or removal shall take place except upon due notice to said officer and upon trial in court, and the provisions of this section shall apply to assessors, county treasurers and members of boards of supervisors whose duty it is to enforce any of the provisions of this act.

Judge to suspend county attorney.

Other officers suspended.

SEC. 16. Nothing in this act contained, shall be in any way construed to mean that the business of the sale of intoxicating liquors is in any way legalized, nor is the same to be construed in any manner or form as a license, nor shall the assessment or payment or any tax for the sale of liquors as aforesaid, protect the wrong doer from any penalty now provided by law, except that on conditions hereinafter provided certain penalties may be suspended.

Sec. 17. In any city of five thousand or more inhabitants, the tax hereinbefore specified may be paid quarterly in advance on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, and after a written statement of consent signed by a majority of the voters residing in said city who voted at the last general election, shall have been filed with the county auditor, such payment shall upon the following conditions, be a bar to proceedings under the statute prohibiting such business.

1st. The person appearing to pay the tax shall file with the county auditor, a certified copy of a resolution regularly adopted by the city council, consenting to such sales and a written statement of consent from all the resident freeholders owning property within fifty feet of the premises where said business is carried on. But in no case shall said business be conducted within three hundred feet of any church or school house.

2nd. He shall file with the county auditor to be approved by the clerk of the district court, a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful observance of all the provisions of this act, and for the payment of any and all damages that may result from the sale of intoxicating liquors upon the premises occupied by the obligor. Said bond shall be signed by himself as principal and by two sureties who shall qualify each in double the amount of the bond, and neither of whom shall be surety on any other like bond.

3rd. Said selling or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors shall be carried on in a single room having but one entrance or exit and that opening upon a public business street. The bar where liquors are furnished, shall be in plain view from the street, unobstructed by screens, blinds, painted windows, or any other device. There shall be no chairs, benches, nor any other furniture in front of the bar, and only such behind the bar as is necessary for the attendants. A list of names of all persons employed about the place shall be filed with the county auditor and no persons shall be permitted behind the bar except those whose names are listed with the county auditor.

4th. The place shall be conducted in a quiet orderly manner.

5th. There shall be no gambling or gaming with cards, dice, billiards or any other device, nor any music, dancing or other form of amusement or entertainment, either in the room where said business is carried on or in any adjoining room or

CHAPTER 70.

AN ACT to amend chapter 10, title 3 of the Code of 1873 relating to selecting and drawing jurors. H. F. 283.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. All qualified electors of the State of good moral character, sound judgment, and in full possession of the senses of hearing and seeing, and who can speak, write and read the English language, are competent jurors in their respective counties. Qualification of competent jurors.

SEC. 2. That the assessor in each township once in three years at the time of returning assessment roll shall return to the county auditor, and also to the township clerk, a list of all such qualified electors in the township between 21 and 65 Assessor to return every three years a list of qualified electors.

years of age not exempt from jury service, and said lists shall be filed and kept in the offices of said auditor and clerk.

County auditor, clerk of court and recorder may fix time for hearing claims for exemption from jury service.

SEC. 3. The county auditor, clerk of the district court and county recorder shall within five days after all the jury lists are filed, fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from such filing, when any person claiming exemption under the law from serving as a juror may appear before said auditor, clerk and recorder, and show by affidavit filed with the auditor the cause for such claim, and the said auditor, clerk and recorder shall determine whether under the law the person making such claim is exempt from service as a juror, but they shall have no power to excuse any person who under the law is not exempt or disqualified from serving, the time and place for which meeting shall be published in at least three newspapers in the county, if so many are published, at least fifteen days before such meeting, and also one copy of such notice shall, ten days before such meeting, be filed with each township clerk. If the auditor, clerk and recorder determine that under the law any person whose name is on the list is entitled to exemption his name shall be stricken from the list.

Publication in three newspapers.

Names may be stricken off list.

False affidavit in matter of exemption.

Names of disqualified stricken off list.

Names deposited in a ballot box.

Talesman box.

Both grand and petit jurors drawn.

Jurors drawn summoned to appear. Penalty.

Uniformity of ballot.

SEC. 4. Any person who makes any false affidavit or false claim to such exemption knowingly, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 3967 of the Code of 1873. The said officers shall within ten days from the day fixed in said notice strike from the list the names of all persons held to be exempt or disqualified, and shall then prepare a complete list and separate ballots containing the names and residence of all persons whose names remain on the list and deposit the ballots in a box prepared and kept for that purpose, and seal the same up and deposit said box with the clerk of the district court, except the names of each alternate juror on the list from cities and towns where the courts are held shall be deposited in a box to be known as talesman box and not in the first box, and sealed up and kept as provided for the first box.

SEC. 5. Both grand and petit jurors shall be drawn by the officers mentioned in section 4 as hereinafter provided from the first box, notice of which shall be published five days prior in at least three newspapers in the county, if so many are published, and the ballots so drawn and of the jurors who appear and serve for any term shall not be again returned to the first box, but deposited in a third box. The jurors so drawn shall be summoned to appear as provided by section 242 of the code of 1873, and any juror so summoned who shall fail to appear without sufficient excuse therefor shall pay a fine of $25 to be imposed by the court.

SEC. 6. The ballots when placed in the box from which the drawing is to be made shall be uniform in size and paper, and be so folded as to conceal the names on the ballots, and the box shall be arranged with only an aperture therein to insert the hand, and at the time of the drawing the box shall be thoroughly shaken in the presence of the officers attending the drawing and the seal on the aperture broken in their presence, and one of said officers shall then without looking at the ballots draw one from the box and pass it to one of the other officers attending the drawing, who shall open it and the name thereon shall be read aloud by him and taken down, then another ballot shall be drawn and opened in the same manner, and so on in the same manner until the whole number of jurors required shall be drawn, when the box shall again be sealed up and returned to the clerk of the district court.

Ballot well shaken.

Manner of drawing names.

Box again sealed.

SEC. 7. If upon the trial of any case or proceeding before a jury there shall not be sufficient jurymen remaining in the regular panel after challenges have been exhausted, the clerk shall in the presence of the court draw a sufficient number of names from the talesman box to complete the panel. The persons whose names are so drawn from the talesman box shall be immediately summoned by the sheriff to appear forthwith, and the panel shall be completed from the persons so summoned. The court may require such number to be drawn and summoned as deemed necessary to complete the panel, and the ballots of jurors so drawn and who serve shall be placed in a safe receptacle from time to time until all ballots are drawn therefrom, when such ballots shall be returned to the talesman box to be drawn in like manner as before, all other ballots drawn when jurors do not appear or do not serve, except when permanent disability or exemption is shown shall be returned to the receptive boxes from which drawn.

When regular panel is exhausted, clerk may draw from talesman box.

Ballots returned to box.

SEC. 8. If at the time of drawing the regular jurors for any term there shall not be sufficient number of ballots in the first box to draw the number required by law, or the order of the court or judge, then the names shall be drawn from the third box. The court or judge thereof, either before or during the term, may order as many additional jurors drawn for the term, or for the trial of any particular case as may be deemed necessary, which drawing shall be in the same manner as for the original and regular panel, except no notice thereof need be published.

Where number of ballots in first box is insufficient.

SEC. 9. Any officer whose duty it is to perform any of the services before or hereafter mentioned who shall intentionally fail to perform them as required by law, or who shall act corruptly in the discharge of such duties, or any of them, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months nor more than one year, and shall forfeit his office, and the court in which such conviction is had shall enter also judgment of removal and declaring the office vacant.

Failure of officers to perform duties required by law.

Penalty.

Forfeiture of office.

SEC. 10. At least twenty days prior to the first day of each and every term at which a grand or petit jury is required to be selected, the county auditor, clerk of the district court and county recorder shall meet at the court house and proceed

Officers to meet and draw jury.

- Sheriff to serve notice on persons drawn. to draw the jury as provided in this act, and the clerk of the district court shall immediately issue his precept to the sheriff of the county commanding him to serve the persons so drawn, and when from any cause the persons so summoned fail to appear, or the court shall determine that either the grand or the petit jurors have been illegally drawn, selected or summoned the court may set aside the precept under which they were summoned and direct a sufficient number drawn and summoned in the manner provided by this act, except no notice of such drawing need be published, and the drawing may be done forthwith and the jurors required to appear immediately, or at such time as the court may fix.
- Court may set aside the precept and order a new drawing. SEC. 11. The county auditor shall prior to the assessment for the year 1896, and for every third year thereafter, send with the assessment books to the township assessors, printed instructions in regard to their duties with reference to the jury lists. And if such lists are not returned as herein provided the auditor or judge of the district court may order the same made, or completed if defective and returned, and when so returned they shall have the same force and effect as if returned and filed at the proper time.
- Printed instructions to be sent township assessor. SEC. 12. Any of the acts required to be performed by any officer under this act may be performed by his deputy duly appointed.

Sec. 11. That the said board of commissioners shall appoint a secretary from their number, who shall keep a record of the proceedings of said board and an account of all expenditures.

Commissioners may appoint a secretary.

Sec. 12. When said building or any of them shall be completed and ready for use the commissioners shall notify the governor of the State thereof, and he shall at once take steps to organize the same by the appointment of five trustees, who shall hold their office until the next session of the legislature and whose qualifications as the duties shall be the same as now provided by law for the trustees of other hospitals in the State of Iowa and the laws of the State governing the other hospitals; and the admission of patients thereto, as far as applicable, shall apply to and govern the hospital herein provided for.

Commissioners to notify the governor when building is completed. Appointment of five trustees.

Rules governing other hospitals to be adopted.

Sec. 13. That after the taking effect of this act and prior to adjournment of this general assembly, that the house and senate shall meet in joint convention in the hall of the house of representatives, and said joint convention shall determine by vote the location in northwestern Iowa for the hospital for the insane, and balloting shall continue until a majority of all votes cast are cast for one locality; provided, a majority decision is reached by the tenth ballot; otherwise the place receiving the lowest number, or places receiving the lowest, and an equal number of votes upon the eleventh ballot shall be dropped on the next succeeding ballot, provided, if two or more of the places having the lowest number, have an equal number of votes, then the joint convention shall vote to decide which shall be dropped and not more than one place shall be dropped until another ballot is taken, and this same provision shall obtain in the succeeding ballots, and balloting shall

AN ACT for the relief of the grantees of Antonie Klein, and for the purpose of having a patent issued in his name for a certain tract of land. H. F. P.

WHEREAS, On the 18th day of October, 1849, one Gerrit Klein, filed his application No. 1052, for the purchase from the state of Iowa, of the east half of the northeast fractional quarter of section one (1) in township seventy-six (76) north, Application No. 1052 for purchase of land.

and of range nineteen (19) west of the 5th P. M., in Marion county, Iowa; and, Patent issued to Gerrit Klein.

WHEREAS, The said Gerrit Klein paid in full for said tract of land and in due course of time there was issued by the state of Iowa, letters patent for said tract to the said Gerrit Klein; all of which does now fully appear from the records of the land department in the office of the secretary of state; and,

Application of Antoine Klein for patent.

WHEREAS, On the 16th day of March, A. D. 1852, one Antonie Klein made his application for the purchase from the state of Iowa of the southwest quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of section one (1) in township seventy-six (76) north, and of range nineteen (19) west of the 5th P. M., and in filing his application No. 2814 therefor, therefor, there was inserted in said application by mistake and oversight the southeast quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of said section, township and range instead of the tract last above described, and which tract so inserted in said application is a part of the identical tract purchased and paid for by the said Gerrit Klein, and patented to him; and,

Same tract named in application through error.

A. Klein has paid in full for his land.

WHEREAS, The said Antonie Klein has paid in full for the said southwest quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of said section, township and range, and he, the said Antonie Klein, took possession of said last described tract under and by virtue of the said purchase, and he and his grantees have had such possession thereof ever since; and,

Patent issued erroneously describing the former tract.

WHEREAS, Shortly after the said purchase by the said Antonie Klein of the last described tract, a patent was issued to him by the state erroneously describing the southeast quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of said section, township and range, the same which was included as the patent formerly issued to the said Gerrit Klein, no patent having been issued by the state to any for the said southwest quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of said section, township and range, all of which will more fully appear from the land records in the office of the secretary of state; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Title made good to A. Klein.

SECTION 1. That the title to the southwest quarter of the northeast fractional quarter of section one (1) in township seventy-six (76) north and of range nineteen (19) west of the 5th P. M., in Marion county, Iowa, a part of the Des Moines river land grant, do hereby pass from the state of Iowa to the said Antonie Klein, and that the same vest in him pursuant to his former purchase.

Governor and secretary directed to issue patent.

SEC. 2. And the governor of the state, and the secretary of state are hereby authorized and directed to issue to the said Antonie Klein a patent for the tract described in section one of this act, in the usual form, and deliver the same to be recorded in Marion county.

Approved March 23rd, 1894.

H. F. 652.

AN ACT making appropriation for the purchase of a site for an additional hospital for the insane of the state, and the commencement of the construction of the same.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the sum of twelve thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of purchasing a site for an additional hospital for the insane, for the purpose of carrying out the intent of an act to make further provision for the care of insane persons, passed at the Twenty-fifth General Assembly entitled, "An act to make further provisions for the care of the insane."

SEC. 2. In case said amount of twelve thousand dollars is insufficient to purchase the quantity of land for such site, deemed desirable by the commissioners appointed in pursuance of said act entitled "An act to make further provisions for the care of the insane," passed at this Twenty-fifth General Assembly, said commissioners may select real estate contiguous thereto and obtain a privilege of subsequent purchase or refusal upon a forfeiture of a sum not exceeding three per centum of the aggregate amount of such contemplated optional contract.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifty thousand dollars for the year 1896, and fifty thousand dollars annually thereafter to be expended for the erection of such additional hospital for the insane of this state until the sum of two hundred and twelve thousand dollars is expended.

SEC. 4. The superintendents of the three existing hospitals for the insane in Iowa, are hereby constituted ex officio members of the board of commissioners to purchase land, adopt plans, and erect a hospital for the insane in northwestern Iowa, and are endowed with the same authority and powers, as the members of the commission appointed by the governor; the said ex-officio members of the board shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses while serving as such, but shall receive no salary or per diem in addition to that paid them for services as superintendents of the hospitals for the insane.

CHAPTER 137.

AN ACT to make an appropriation for the Iowa State Agricultural Society; for the encouragement of Agriculture, Horticulture, Manufactures and other industries of the State of Iowa. H F. 199.

WHEREAS; The State of Iowa is owner in fee simple of the two hundred and sixty-six (266) acres of land now used by the Iowa State Agricultural Society, on which said society has expended $88,000. in buildings and other improvements. That said property only cost the state $50,000 and is now worth $250,000.; and,

Loss through storm and financial stringency.

WHEREAS; The Iowa State Agricultural Society suffered a serious loss in the destruction of the amphitheater and other buildings upon the fair grounds, belonging to the state of Iowa, by wind storm, and on account of the financial stringency and the great attraction of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, during the year 1893, and is now in debt to the amount of $25,000. and it will be impossible for the said agricultural society to borrow money on the grounds, as they belong to the state, and cannot hold a fair in 1894 without aid; and,

Cannot borrow money.

Benefit of the fair to the state.

WHEREAS, The Iowa state fairs have been an inestimable benefit to the various industries of the state, and especially to our agricultural interests; and its influence has largely contributed to the great development of our state in its improvement of stock and farm products, and the general prosperity of the commonwealth; and, believing that the best interests of the people will be conserved by the continuance of the state fairs, and that it would be a public calamity if they were discontinued; therefore;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

LEGALIZING ACTS.

CHAPTER 165.

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of Thomas White, a notary public H. F. 635. of Mahaska county, Iowa.

WHEREAS, Thomas White, a notary public of Mahaska county, Iowa, did under a misapprehension of his powers, take acknowledgments of written instruments and perform other official acts outside of Mahaska county and within the counties of Monroe and Wapello within the two years last past; therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all of the official acts of said Thomas White by him performed as a notary public outside of the county of Mahaska be and the same are hereby legalized and made valid the same as though such acts had been performed within Mahaska county, Iowa.

Approved April 10, 1894.

CHAPTER 166.

AN ACT to legalize official acts of J. C. Myers as mayor of the incorporated town of Fairbank, Iowa. S. F. 287.

WHEREAS, J. C. Myers was between April 29th, 1892, and January 21st, 1893, acting as mayor of the incorporated town of Fairbank, in Buchanan county, Iowa, and as such mayor held a mayor's court in-said incorporated town, and heard and determined various causes for violation of ordinances of said incorporated town, and,

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the legality of such acts, now therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all acts of the said J. C. Myers as mayor of the incorporated town of Fairbank, Iowa, done and performed between April 29th, 1892, and January 21st, 1893, be legalized and declared valid both in law and in equity.

Approved March 23rd, 1894.

CHAPTER 167.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of Zion's Church of the Evangelical Association in Charles City, Floyd county, Iowa and its board of trustees. S. F. 392.

WHEREAS, The members of Zion's Church of the Evangelical Association of North America, at Charles City, Iowa, on the 28th day of May A. D. 1888, signed and acknowledged articles of incorporation as a corporation other than for pecuniary profit, under the laws of the state of Iowa, which articles of incorporation were afterward on the 30th, day of June, A. D. 1888 duly filed for record in the recorder's office in Floyd county, Iowa, and recorded in book "B" miscellaneous records, on pages 203 and 204, and borrowed.

WHEREAS, The said Zion's Church by its board of trustees afterward on the 2nd, day of August A. D. 1890 made a mortgage to S. F. Farnham on lots No. 5 and 6, in block No. 12, in the original town plat of St. Charles, to secure the payment of $2,100 borrowed money to pay for said lots, and the erection of a church building thereon, which mortgage was afterwards, on the same day duly filed for record in the recorder's office in said Floyd county, and recorded in book "E" of town lot mortgages on pages 100, and 101 and,

Mortgage given.

Articles
imperfect.

WHEREAS, It was afterward ascertained that omissions had occurred in the drawing of the articles of incorporation adopted on the 28th, day of May A. D. 1888, and that the same contained no section or article providing for amending the same, and that said articles in several respects did not express the intention and purposes of the incorporators, and,

New articles adopted.

WHEREAS, The trustees and members of said Zion's Church on the 13th, day of October A. D. 1890, after due notice, adopted signed and acknowledged amended articles of incorporation without a dissenting vote which was duly filed for record in the recorder's office in said Floyd county, on the 14th, day of October A. D. 1890, and recorded in book "B" of miscellaneous records on page 323 and,

Doubts as to the regularity.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the regularity and validity of the said acts, and proceedings of said corporation and its trustees, so far as they relate to the making of the said mortgage, and the adoption of said amended articles of incorporation, in the absence of a provision in the original articles authorizing their amendment;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Acts legalized.

SECTION 1. That the acts of Zion's Church of the Evangelical Association of North America, in Charles City, Floyd county, Iowa, and of its board of trustees, and members, in the making of the said mortgage to S. F. Farnham, and in the adoption of said amended articles of incorporation, be and the same are hereby legalized and made valid, and said mortgage and amended articles of incorporation are declared to be as legal and valid as if all laws relating to the making and adopting of the same had been strictly complied with.

H. F. 113.

AN ACT to legalize the incorporation of the Associated Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Congregations in Worth Co., Iowa, and in the southern part of Freeborn county, Minn.

Incorporation of Lutheran congregations.

WHEREAS, The Associated Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Congregations of Worth Co., Iowa, and the southern part of Freeborn Co., Minn., was incorporated on the 13th day of December, 1876; and,

WHEREAS, The said articles of incorporation were executed before a justice of the peace, in and for Worth county, Ia., who had no experience pertaining to the execution of such articles; and,

Inexperienced justice of the peace.

WHEREAS, The said justice of the peace did erroneously cause the original incorporators to execute the said articles of incorporation by causing them to sign their names in the caption thereof, which had been left in blank for the insertion of the names of the incorporators by the party before whom the instrument was to be executed, instead of causing said incorporators to sign their respective names at the terminal thereof; and,

Error regarding signatures.

WHEREAS, Doubts exist as to whether such incorporation is legal, the original articles being erroneously signed as herein before stated; therefore,

Doubts as to legality.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the original articles of incorporation of the Associated Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Worth county, Iowa, and in the southern part of Freeborn county, Minnesota, are hereby declared to be legal, both in law and in equity, the same as though all forms and usages of the law had been fully complied with at the time of the supposed execution of said articles.

Articles
legalized.

Approved March 23, 1894.

CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT to legalize certain conveyances made to the Congregational Society of Iowa City and acts done by it before its incorporation. H. F. 643.

WHEREAS, The Congregational Society of Iowa City was organized on the 20th day of July, 1866, but through some oversight on the part of its officers and members was not incorporated until March 29th, 1894, and,

Not incorporated at organization.

WHEREAS, Between the dates of such organization and incorporation certain conveyances were made to said Congregational Society, to-wit: On May 27, 1867 by James B. Berryhill and wife, and on September 11th, 1867 by Marha Reno, of portions of Lot Three (3), Block Seventy-nine (79), and on March 31, 1891, by Mary A. Ham, widow, and William A. Ham and others, heirs of Daniel Ham, deceased, of Lot One (1) Block Seventy-nine (79), both being in the original plat of Iowa City, Iowa, said conveyance being made by said grantors and accepted by said Society in the belief that it was duly incorporated and authorized to take and hold real property; and certain acts and contracts were made and done by it in such belief, and,

Conveyance made while not incorporated.

WHEREAS, The two lots above described still belong to said

Property still held. Society and are occupied by it for church and parsonage purposes, therefore:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Conveyances legalized.

SECTION 1. That the conveyances described in the preamble of this act be and the same are hereby legalized, and declared as legal and binding and of the same effect as though said society had been duly incorporated at the time such conveyances were made; and that the title to such property is hereby vested and confirmed in said corporation, and that all acts and contracts of the said Society shall be and remain binding on said corporation and of the same effect as though done, made and executed by it.

Publication clause.

SEC. 2. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Des Moines News, a newspaper published at Des Moines, Iowa, and in the Citizen, a newspaper published at Iowa City, Iowa, such publication being without expense to the State.

CHAPTER 170.

S. F. 310. AN ACT to legalize the assessment and collection of taxes under the provisions of chapter one of the acts of the Twenty-fourth General Assembly.

Taxes collected under ch. 1, 24 G. A.

WHEREAS, After the passage of chapter one (1) of the acts of the Twenty-fourth General Assembly taxes have been assessed and collected in the city of Des Moines, and under and in accordance with the provisions of section three (3) of said chapter, and,

Bonds could not issue while city was indebted 5 per cent of assessed valuation.

WHEREAS, It having been decided by the supreme court that the park commissioners in said city of Des Moines might not issue bonds for park purposes as provided for by said chapter while said city of Des Moines was indebted in an amount equal to five per cent of the assessed valuation of property within the corporate limits of said city, and said city being now indebted up to said limit, and,

Doubts as to legality of collections for 1892-3.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the legality of the taxes assessed and levied and to be collected for the years 1892 and 1893, by the board of park commissioners of the city of Des Moines, and as to the right of the county treasurer to collect such taxes and as to the right of said commissioners in said city to receive and use the same for general park purposes other than for the payment of interest on bonds issued by them, therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the acts of the board of park commissioners of the city of Des Moines in certifying to the county auditor of Polk county, Iowa, a tax of one mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property of said city for the year 1892 and the like acts of the board for the year 1893, and the acts of the county auditor of said county in placing such taxes on the tax books of said county, and the collection of such taxes by the county treasurer of said county, and all acts of any such officers relating thereto, are hereby legalized and made valid in every respect to the same extent as though no provision had been made in said chapter one (1) for the issuance of bonds or the setting apart of a per cent of such taxes for the payment of principal or interest thereon.

SEC. 2. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect from and after its publication in the Iowa State Register and the Des Moines Leader, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa, both publications to be without expense to the state.

Approved March 23, 1894.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Iowa State Register March 29, and the Des Moines Leader March 27, 1894.

CHAPTER 190.

S. F. 398.

AN ACT to legalize the organization of the Independent District of Valley Junction, Polk county, Iowa.

Vally Junction school district
organized.

WHEREAS, Certain territory in the District township of Walnut, Polk County, Iowa, was in the month of April, 1893 organized into an Independent School District to be known as the Independent District of Valley Junction, and is composed of the following territory: All of sections eleven (11) and twelve (12), the south half of section one (1), the south one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section two (2), the south one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the southeast one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section three (3), the east one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section ten (10); all of the east one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section fifteen (15) that lies north of the Raccoon River; all of sections thirteen (13) fourteen (14) that lies north of the Raccoon River; all in township seventy-eight (78) north, range twenty-five (25) west of the 5th P. M., Iowa, having within its limits the town of Valley Junction, Iowa.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the legality of said organization for the reason that the petition for an Independent District was not signed by ten (10) legal voters, residing on the town plat of Valley Junction, although there were twenty-seven (27) names of legal electors who resided in the proposed district, and, Doubts as to legality of organization.

WHEREAS, In the month of June, 1893, another petition, signed by more than ten (10) legal voters, residing in the town of Valley Junction, asking for an Independent School District was presented to the Board of Directors of Walnut Township, who acted on said petition by setting off territory as above described, and ordering notices posted for an election, giving ten days notice, as required by law. At said election it was decided to organize an independent district by unanimous vote. Second petition.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen concerning the legality of said independent district for the reason that the notices for the election of a separate organization did not contain a proper description of said territory. And for the reason that the Board of Directors of the district township of Walnut failed to keep a proper record of its proceedings, in setting off said territory, and calling an election therein and conducting said election as by law required, although said town of Valley Junction contained at the time and now contains more than two hundred inhabitants within its limits, therefore Doubts concerning legality. Reason. No record of proceedings.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the organization of the Independent School District of Valley Junction, Polk County, Iowa, the election of Directors and the official acts of said directors, be, and the same are hereby legalized and made valid the same as though said district was organized in strict conformity with all the requirements of law. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Iowa State Register, a newspaper published at Des Moines, Iowa, and the Valley Junction Express, a newspaper published at Valley Junction, Iowa, without expense to the State. Publication clause.

Approved April 10th, 1894.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Iowa State Register April 26 and in the Valley Junction Express April 20, 1894.

W. M. McFARLAND, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 191.

S. F. 117. AN ACT to legalize the levy of taxes for 1893 in Carroll county, Iowa.

Certain tax levied in Carroll county.

WHEREAS, The board of supervisors of Carroll county, at their regular session in September, 1893, did, together with other taxes levied, levy a tax of one mill on the dollar on the taxable property in Sheridan, Kniest, Arcadia, Grant, Roselle, Eden and Union townships, and one-half mill on the taxable property in Wheatland township, for a county road fund; but no tax for a county road fund was levied on the taxable property in Jasper, Carroll, Glidden, Richland, Pleasant Valley, Washington, Warren and Newton townships, all being in said Carroll county, Iowa.

Doubts as to legality.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the legality of said levy therefore

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Tax levy
legalized.

SECTION 1. That the taxes assessed or levied by the board of supervisors of Carroll county of this state, for 1893, be legalized and that the actions of the board of supervisors of said Carroll county, in making said levy be of as binding force as though they had been acting in strict conformity with law.

Publication clause.

SEC. 2. This act being deemed of immediate importance the same shall be in force and effect from and after its publication in the Iowa State Register and Coon Rapids Enterprise, without expense to the state.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 1.

WHEREAS, The congress of the United States is now considering a tariff measure which, in event of its passage, would seriously cripple the industries of this great country in general, and Iowa in particular, bring our laboring people into direct competition with the pauper laborers of the old world, deprive the products of our farms of a home market, and leave our whole country, with all its diversified industries, more or less subject to the selfish will of foreign capitalists, thereby threatening the welfare of American citizenship, independence and equal rights; therefore be it

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That our senators and representatives in congress be urgently requested to use all possible and reasonable means within their power to prevent the passage of the Wilson tariff bill. Be it further

Resolved, That the secretary of state be directed to send a copy of these resolutions to each of our senators and representatives in congress.

Approved Feb. 21st, 1894.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 3.

Memorial and Joint Resolution relative to the construction of a canal from the Mississippi river to the Illinois river at Hennepin, in the State of Illinois.

MEMORIAL AND JOINT RESOLUTION

Relative to the improvement of the Missouri river near Council Bluffs, Iowa.

WHEREAS, The Missouri river is seriously cutting into the banks of the State of Iowa opposite the city of Florence, Nebraska, and

WHEREAS, By reason of said erosion, the stone work put in by the government to protect the northwest boundary of the city of Council Bluffs, Iowa, has already been damaged, and is in great danger of being totally destroyed unless the river in that vicinity shall be fully protected, and

WHEREAS, The business interests and the population centered in the vicinity of Council Bluffs, Iowa, demand that the river at that point shall be confined to a fixed and permanent channel;

Therefore be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

That our senators and representatives in Congress, be and are hereby earnestly requested to use all honorable means to secure an amendment to the bill appropriating money for the improvement of the Missouri river, which shall require that a sufficient amount shall be expended on said river in the vicinity of Council Bluffs, Iowa, to protect and render permanent the channel of said river.

Resolved further, That the secretary of state be and he is hereby instructed to forthwith transmit a copy hereof to each senator and representative from Iowa.

Approved February 28th, 1894.
