CHAPTER 12.

ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

S. F. 342.

AN ACT to amend section four hundred and ten (410), and to repeal section four hundred and eleven (411) of the code, and to enact a substitute therefor, relating to the election and terms of office of county supervisors.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Elected biennially. That section four hundred and ten (410) of the code, be and the same is hereby amended, by striking out the word "annually" in the twenty-seventh line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof, the word "biennially".

SEC. 2. Repealed—election—term of office. That section four hundred and eleven (411) of the code, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"At the general election in the year 1906 there shall be elected for a term of two years, members of the county board of supervisors to succeed those whose terms were extended one year by the biennial election amendment. At the general election in the year 1906, and biennially thereafter, there shall be elected members of the board of supervisors for a term of three years to succeed those whose terms will expire on the first Monday in January following said election; there shall also be elected members for a term of three years to succeed those whose terms will expire on the first Monday in January one year later than the aforesaid date. It shall be specified on the ballot when each shall begin his term of office. No member shall be elected who is a resident of the same township with either of the members holding over (but a member-elect may be a resident of the same township as the member he is elected to succeed), except that, in counties having five or seven supervisors, and having therein a township embracing an entire city of thirty-five thousand inhabitants or over, he may be a resident of the same township; and in no case shall there be more than two supervisors from such township."

Approved April 10, A. D. 1906.
