CHAPTER 103.

EMPLOYMENT OF CHILD LABOR.

S. F. 74.

AN ACT to regulate the employment of child labor and to provide for the enforcement thereof. (Additional to chapter eight (8) title twelve (XII) of the code.)

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Child labor in factories, mills, etc—age limitation. No person under fourteen years of age shall be employed with or without wages or compensation in any mine, manufacturing establishment, factory, mill, shop, laundry, slaughter house or packing house, or in any store or mercantile establishment where more than eight persons are employed, or in the operation of any freight or passenger elevator.

SEC. 2. Where life and health are endangered—age limitation. No person under sixteen years of years of age shall be employed at any work or occupation by which, by reason of its nature or the place of employment, the health of such person may be injured, or his morals depraved, or at any work in which the handling or use of gun powder, dynamite or other like explosive is required, and no female under sixteen years of age shall be employed in any capacity where the duties of such employment compel her to remain constantly standing.

SEC. 3. Hours of labor—noon intermission. No person under sixteen years of age shall be employed at any of the places or in any of the occupations recited in section 1 hereof before the hour of six o'clock in the morning or after the hour of nine o'clock in the evening, and if such person is employed exceeding five hours of each day, a noon intermission of not less than thirty minutes shall be given between the hours of eleven and one o'clock, and such person shall not be employed more than ten hours in any one day, exclusive of the noon intermission, but the provisions of this section shall not apply to persons employed in husking sheds or other places connected with canning factories where vegetables or grain are prepared for canning and in which no machinery is operated.

SEC. 4. List posted. Every person, firm or corporation having in its employ, at any of the places or in any of the occupations recited in section 1 of this act, any persons under sixteen years of age, shall cause to be posted at some conspicuous location at the place of such employment, and where same shall be accessible to inspection at all times during business hours, a list of the names of such persons, giving after each name, the date of the birth of such person and the date when employed.

SEC. 5. False statements—other violations—penalty. Any parent, guardian or other person, who having under his control any person under sixteen years of age causes or permits said person to work or be employed in violation of the provisions of this act, or any person making, certifying to, or causing to be made or certified to, any statement, certificate or other paper for the purpose of procuring the employment of any person in violation of the provisions of this act, or who makes, files, executes or delivers any such statement certificate or other paper containing any false statement for the purpose of procuring the employment of any person in violation of this act, or for the purpose of concealing the violation of this act in such employment, and every person, firm or corporation, or the agent, manager, superintendent, or officer of any person, firm or corporation, whether for himself or such person, firm or corporation, either by himself or acting through any agent, foreman, superintendent or manager, who knowingly employs any person or permits any person to be employed in violation of the provisions of this act, or who shall refuse to allow any authorized officer or person to inspect any place of business under the provisions of this act, if demand is made therefor at any time during business hours or who shall willfully obstruct such officer or person while making such inspection, or who shall fail to keep posted the lists containing the names of persons employed under sixteen years of age and other information as required by this act, or who shall knowingly insert any false statement in such list, or who violates any other provision of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon being found guilty thereof, shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed thirty days.

SEC. 6. Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to enforce the provisions of this act, and such commissioner and his deputies, factory inspectors, assistants and other persons authorized by him in writing, state mine inspectors, and county attorneys, mayors, chiefs of police and police officers, acting under their written directions, city and town marshals, sheriffs and their deputies within the territories where they exercise their official functions, and any person having authority therefor in writing from the judge of a court of record within the territory over which such judge has jurisdiction, shall have authority to visit any of the places enumerated in section 1 of this act, and make an inspection thereof to ascertain if any of the provisions of this act are violated or any person unlawfully employed thereat, and such persons shall not be interfered with or prevented from asking questions of any person found at the place being inspected by them with reference to the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to investigate all complaints made to him of the violation of this act, and to attend and prosecute at the trial of all cases for its violation upon any information that may be filed within his county.

SEC. 7. Acts in conflict repealed. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 10, A. D. 1906.

CHAPTER 104.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

H. F. 274.

AN ACT to repeal sections twenty-five hundred (2500), twenty-five hundred and one (2501), and twenty-five hundred and two (2502) of the code relating to geological surveys and the duties of the state geologist, and to enact a substitute therefor.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repealed. That sections twenty-five hundred (2500), twenty-five hundred and one (2501) and twenty-five hundred and two (2502) of the code be and the same are hereby repealed and there is hereby enacted as a substitute therefor the following:

SEC. 2. Detailed reports—co-operation with other surveys. He shall make detailed maps and reports of counties and districts as fast as the work is completed, which shall embrace such geological, mineralogical, topographical and scientific details as are necessary to make complete records thereof, and, when the information obtained warrants it, the results of any special investigation made by him may be brought together in a report for publication, accompanied by proper illustrations and diagrams. He shall co-operate with the United States geological survey and with adjoining state surveys in the making of topographic maps and the study of geologic problems of the state when in the opinion of the geological board such co-operation will result in profit to the state. He shall, before the first day of January of each year, make to the geological board a full report of the work in the preceding year, together with such minor reports and papers as may be considered desirable for publication.

SEC. 3. Annual report—bulletins. The annual report, together with bulletins of educational and scientific value, and special bulletins containing information necessary for the immediate use of the people at large, shall be published by the state under the direction of the board, and disposed of as other published reports of state officers when no special provision is made, but the copies remaining in the control of the board after such distribution, after retaining a sufficient number to supply probable future demands, shall be sold to persons making application therefor at the cost price of publication, the money thus accruing to be turned into the treasury of the state.
