

commissioner and his deputies, factory inspectors, assistants and other persons authorized by him in writing, state mine inspectors, and county attorneys, mayors, chiefs of police and police officers, acting under their written directions, city and town marshals, sheriffs and their deputies within the territories where they exercise their official functions, and any person having authority therefor in writing from the judge of a court of record within the territory over which such judge has jurisdiction, shall have authority to visit any of the places enumerated in section 1 of this act, and make an inspection thereof to ascertain if any of the provisions of this act are violated or any person unlawfully employed thereat, and such persons shall not be interfered with or prevented from asking questions of any person found at the place being inspected by them with reference to the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to investigate all complaints made to him of the violation of this act, and to attend and prosecute at the trial of all cases for its violation upon any information that may be filed within his county.

SEC. 7. Acts in conflict repealed. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 10, A. D. 1906.

CHAPTER 104.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

H. F. 274.

AN ACT to repeal sections twenty-five hundred (2500), twenty-five hundred and one (2501), and twenty-five hundred and two (2502) of the code relating to geological surveys and the duties of the state geologist, and to enact a substitute therefor.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repealed. That sections twenty-five hundred (2500), twenty-five hundred and one (2501) and twenty-five hundred and two (2502) of the code be and the same are hereby repealed and there is hereby enacted as a substitute therefor the following:

SEC. 2. Detailed reports—co-operation with other surveys. He shall make detailed maps and reports of counties and districts as fast as the work is completed, which shall embrace such geological, mineralogical, topographical and scientific details as are necessary to make complete records thereof, and, when the information obtained warrants it, the results of any special investigation made by him may be brought together in a report for publication, accompanied by proper illustrations and diagrams. He shall co-operate with the United States geological survey and with adjoining state surveys in the making of topographic maps and the study of geologic problems of the state when in the opinion of the geological board such co-operation will result in profit to the state. He shall, before the first day of January of each year, make to the geological board a full report of the work in the preceding year, together with such minor reports and papers as may be considered desirable for publication.

SEC. 3. Annual report—bulletins. The annual report, together with bulletins of educational and scientific value, and special bulletins containing information necessary for the immediate use of the people at large, shall be published by the state under the direction of the board, and disposed of as other published reports of state officers when no special provision is made, but the copies remaining in the control of the board after such distribution, after retaining a sufficient number to supply probable future demands, shall be sold to persons making application therefor at the cost price of publication, the money thus accruing to be turned into the treasury of the state.

SEC. 4. Expenses. The members of the board shall be allowed actual expenses incurred in attending to the duties assigned to them by this chapter. Postage, stationery and office expenses of the state geologist shall be paid by the state, as are the expenses of the other state officers but all other expenses of the survey shall be audited and allowed by the board; and the entire expenses provided for under this chapter, aside from the above exception relating to office supplies and expenses, and that of the publication and distribution of reports and bulletins, shall not exceed the sum of eight thousand dollars per annum, which amount is hereby appropriated annually, to be paid out on warrants of the state auditor on the presentation of bills duly audited and allowed as provided in this section.

Approved April 10, A. D. 1906.
