

SEC. 2. Detention and inspection—quarantine. In lieu of an inspection certificate as required in the preceding section, cattle may be detained at suitable stock yards or other inclosure within this state nearest to the state line, on the railroad or highway over which they were shipped, driven or hauled, and there examined at the expense of the owner, or may be shipped or driven to their destination under quarantine, there to remain in quarantine until properly examined at the expense of the owner, and released by the state veterinary surgeon. Such expense shall be a lien upon the cattle.

SEC. 3. Penalty. Any person, firm, company, corporation or agent thereof, violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined for each offense not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both fine[d] and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court. Such person, firm, company, corporation or agent shall be liable for the full amount of damages that may result from the violation of this act. Action may be brought in any county in which said cattle are sold, offered for sale or delivered to a purchaser, or in which they may be detained in transit.

SEC. 4. Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the state veterinary surgeon to enforce the provisions of this act.

SEC. 5. In effect. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall be in effect after its publication in the Register and Leader, and the Des Moines Daily Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.
Approved April 9, A. D. 1906.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Daily Capital, April 14, 1906.

W. B. MARTIN,
Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 171.

MANIPULATION OF BABCOCK TEST FOR DETERMINING QUALITY OF MILK OR CREAM.

S. F. 168.

AN ACT prohibiting manipulation of the Babcock test or any other contrivance used for determining the quality of milk or cream and providing punishment therefor. [Additional to chapter thirteen (13) of title twenty-four (XXIV) relating to cheating by false pretenses, gross frauds and conspiracy.]

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Misreading or manipulation of milk or cream tests. It shall be unlawful for the owner, manager, agent or employe of a cheese factory, creamery or condensed milk factory to falsely manipulate or under-read or over-read the Babcock test or any other contrivance used for determining the quality of milk or cream, or to make any false determination of the said Babcock test or otherwise.

SEC. 2. Penalty. Whosoever shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Approved March 16, A. D. 1906
