

hereby amended by striking out the word "four" as the same appears in the second line of said subdivision, and substituting in lieu thereof the word "five", so that the said sub-division will read as follows:

"Seventh. The seventh district shall consist of the counties of Muscatine, Scott, Clinton, and Jackson and have five judges."

Sec. 2. Vacancy—how filled—term. The vacancy in the said office of district judge in the seventh judicial district, created by this act, shall be filled by appointment by the governor; the person so appointed shall hold his office until the general election in 1912, or until his successor is elected and qualified. At the general election in 1912, there shall be chosen a district judge to fill the unexpired portion of the vacancy hereby created.

Sec. 3. Five judges to be elected in 1914. At the general election in 1914 five district judges shall be elected in the seventh judicial district of Iowa, whose terms of office shall begin on the day now provided by law.

Sec. 4. In effect. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

. Approved March 11, A. D. 1911.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Des Moines Capital March 13, 1911, and in the Register and Leader March 14, 1911.

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 6.

NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

S. F. 14.

AN ACT to amend section two hundred twenty-seven (227) of the supplement to the code, 1907, relating to the division of the state into judicial districts, and increasing the number of district judges in the ninth district.

Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Ninth district—number of judges. The ninth sub-division of section two hundred twenty-seven (227) supplement to the code, 1907, is hereby amended by striking out the word "four" as the same appears in the first line of said sub-division, and substituting in lieu thereof the word "five" so that the said sub-division will read as follows:

"Ninth. The county of Polk shall constitute the ninth district, and shall have five judges."

Sec. 2. Vacancy—how filled—term. The vacancy, in the said office of district judge in the ninth judicial district, created by this act, shall be filled by appointment by the governor; the person so appointed shall hold his office until the general election in 1912, or until his successor is elected and qualified. At the general election in 1912 there shall be chosen a district judge to fill the unexpired portion of the vacancy hereby created.

Sec. 3. Five judges to be elected in 1914. At the general election in 1914 five district judges shall be elected in the ninth judicial district of Iowa, whose terms of office shall begin on the first day of January after their election.

Sec. 4. In effect. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader, and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved March 22, A. D. 1911.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Des Moines Capital March 23, 1911, and in the Register and Leader March 24, 1911.

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.
