

LAWS
OF THE
Thirty-Fifth General Assembly
OF THE
STATE OF IOWA

PASSED AT THE REGULAR SESSION THEREOF, AT DES MOINES, THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE, BEGUN ON THE THIRTEENTH DAY OF JANUARY, AND ENDED ON THE NINETEENTH DAY OF APRIL,
A. D. 1913. IN THE SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR OF THE STATE.

CHAPTER 1.

COMPILATION AND PUBLICATION OF SUPPLEMENT TO THE CODE, 1913.

S. F. 38.

AN ACT to provide for the compilation of the laws of the thirty third, thirty fourth and thirty fifth general assemblies and the laws as they appear in the supplement to the code, 1907; to annotate same and the code and rules of the supreme court, to and including May term, 1913, of the supreme court, and to publish the said compilation and annotations as a "Supplement to the Code, 1913," and to provide for the appointing of a supervising committee, the election of an editor of such supplement to the code and to establish a salary for such editor, and making an appropriation therefor, and repealing section twenty four (24) of chapter twenty (20) of the acts of the twenty sixth general assembly, extra session, as same appears on page five (5) of the prefix to the code.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Code supplement supervising committee—vacancies—expenses. That within five (5) days after this act becomes a law, the lieutenant-governor and the present speaker of the house shall each appoint from the senate and the house, respectively, three members as a joint committee to be known as the code supplement supervising committee." Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner. The committee shall be allowed expenses as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. General supervision. Said committee shall have general supervision of the work of compiling the acts of a general and permanent nature of the thirty third, thirty fourth and thirty fifth general assemblies and the laws as they appear in the supplement to the code, 1907, annotating the same and the code and the rules of the supreme court, and indexing and publishing such compilations as hereinafter provided. The committee shall elect some competent and suitable person as editor, whose duties shall be as hereinafter defined. In case of neglect or inability to act on the part of the editor, said committee may discharge him and elect another in his stead.

Sec. 3. Editor—duties—compensation—copyright. The editor shall prepare the compilation of the supplement to be published under this act and the index and the annotations and have the copy ready for the printer by October 1st, 1913. He shall also have general supervision of the work under the direction of the committee. His compensation shall be twenty five hundred dollars ($2,500.00). The secretary of state shall deliver to the editor the enrolled bills for use in proof reading, which shall be by the enrolled bills. The compilation shall be known and designated as "Supplement to the Code, 1913." The editor shall copyright the said supplement, its indices, numbers, chapters, sections, annotations and its entire arrangement and publication and assign such copyright to the state of Iowa.

SEC. 4. What laws to be compiled—how arranged—annotations. Said committee shall cause to be prepared a compilation of the laws of a general and permanent nature of the thirty third, thirty fourth and thirty fifth general assemblies and the laws as they appear in the supplement to the code, 1907, as authorized by the code and the thirty second general assembly, arranged in sections, chapters, and titles, and numbered so as to conform with the code; also annotations thereof and of the code and rules of the supreme court to and including the decisions handed down at the May term, 1913, of said court. Said annotations shall be arranged in appropriate sections or section numbers and rules as the case may be.

SEC. 5. Section numbers. Sections of the code and laws of the subsequent general assemblies, which have been amended, shall be given in said compilation as amended. Where additional sections have been added to any section, chapter or title the same shall be appropriately placed and numbered thus: "Section 51-a, 51-b, 51-c," as the case may be. If there be neither amendment nor annotations to a section of the code, the number thereof may be omitted in such compilation.

SEC. 6. Index. The committee shall also cause to be prepared a complete index to said supplement including such revision and reprinting of the index to the code as it may deem necessary.

SEC. 7. Additional help—purchase of annotations or index. Said committee for the purpose of accomplishing such work may employ such competent annotators, editorial assistants, stenographers and clerks as may be necessary to complete the work within the time herein required. The said committee may purchase such compilations, annotations or index, or any part thereof, as may be deemed necessary for the best interests of the state.

SEC. 8. Code supplement—how printed and bound. The committee shall cause the said supplement of the code to be well made of first class material, printed in clear, legible type face, sewed and bound in legal buckram and in accordance with the best workmanship and methods of publishing law books. In size, type, catch words, numbering, paper, binding and other materials, the same shall conform as near as may be to the statutes of the state.

SEC. 9. Distribution and sale. The said supplement shall be distributed to persons, sold and accounted for, except as to price, in the manner provided in sections sixteen to twenty, inclusive, of an act of the twenty sixth general assembly, extra session, entitled "An Act to Provide for the annotation, indexing, publication, distribution and sale of the Code and statutes hereafter enacted, the appointing of a supervising committee and the election of an editor, and prescribing their duties," which took effect May 5th, 1897, as amended by chapter one of the acts of the thirty first general assembly and chapter one of the acts of the thirty third general assembly. The distribution to the members of the general assembly shall commence with the thirty fifth general assembly.

SEC. 10. Official publication—price per volume. The supplement to the code by this act provided to be published and distributed shall be the official edition and authoritative publication of the existing laws of the state, and no other publication of the laws of the state except the session laws and the code shall be used in the courts or referred to by title, chapter or section in the reports of the same. Said supplement shall be received in evidence in all courts and tribunals of the state as the official publication of such laws of the state. Neither said supplement nor any part thereof shall be published except in the manner now provided by law for the publication of the code and parts thereof. Said supplement shall be sold for four dollars ($4.00) per volume.

SEC. 11. Number of copies. An edition of twelve thousand (12,000) copies of the code supplement shall be printed, nine thousand (9,000) of which shall be bound for immediate use and ready for distribution as soon as possible after the printing and binding of the same has been completed; the remaining three thousand (3,000) shall be folded, gathered and stored away in the paper storage room to be bound upon the orders of the executive council.

SEC. 12. Traveling expenses—supplies. The members of the committee shall be allowed two cents a mile for distance actually traveled, also expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, and may draw their requisitions for all necessary codes, session laws, printing postage and supplies.

SEC. 13. Bills for expenses—approved—how paid. All bills for expenses of the committee and editor and expenditures in connection with said work shall be verified. The same shall be approved by the committee and the executive council, and the auditor shall draw his warrants therefor on the state treasurer and the same shall be paid out of the treasury.

SEC. 14. Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of the treasury from funds not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay the cost and expenses of preparing, publishing and distributing said supplement of the code.

SEC. 15. Tri-ennial compilation of statutes. The thirty-eighth general assembly and each third general assembly thereafter shall provide for the compilation, annotation and publication of the statutes of a general or permanent nature enacted since the adoption of the code and for the selection, as provided in this act, of some competent and suitable person to compile, annotate and superintend such publication.

SEC. 16. Repeal. Section twenty four (24) of chapter twenty (20) of the acts of the twenty sixth general assembly, extra session, as the same appears on page five of the prefix to the code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 17. In effect. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved April 9 A. D. 1913.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader April 14, 1913, and in the Des Moines Capital April 12, 1913.

W. S. ALLEN,
Secretary of State.
