CHAPTER 17.

LEVY OF SPECIAL TAXES FOR STATE INSTITUTIONS.

S. F. 550.

AN ACT providing for the levy of special taxes upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the state for the erection and improvement of buildings, for appurtenances and connections for the Iowa soldiers' home, Iowa soldiers' orphans' home, school for the deaf, institution for feeble-minded children, state sanitorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, state industrial schools, state hospitals, penitentiary, reformatory, state colony for epileptics, Iowa industrial reformatory for females and district custodial farm, and for the purchase of land and to develop and maintain industries, and repealing acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act. [Additional to section one hundred seventy-b (170-b) of the supplement to the code, 1907, relating to the state tax levy.]

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Buildings and appurtenances—funds held by state treasurer. That for the purpose of providing for the erection and improvement of buildings, for appurtenances and connections, for the Iowa soldiers' home, Iowa soldiers' orphans' home, school for the deaf, institution for feeble-minded children, state sanitorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, state industrial schools, state hospitals, penitentiary, reformatory, Iowa industrial reformatory for females, district custodial farm, and state colony for epileptics, for the purchase of land for one or more of said institutions, including a new location for the Iowa industrial reformatory for females, and for establishing and maintaining industries in any or all of said institutions, there shall be levied annually for five (5) years a special tax of one-half mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the state and the proceeds thereof shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the institutions specified. Said levy shall first be made in the year 1913, and annually thereafter. The money realized from such levies shall be held by the treasurer of state for the institutions and purposes herein stated and shall be drawn from the state treasury on vouchers and abstracts executed and approved as provided by the law as it appears in sections twenty-seven hundred twenty-seven-a41, twenty-seven hundred twenty-seven-a42 and twenty-seven hundred twenty-seven-a43 of the supplement to the code, 1907, so far as applicable, and when not applicable upon vouchers and abstracts approved by the board of control of state institutions.

SEC. 2. Funds—how expended—procedure in case of fire. No part of the levies herein provided for shall be expended for new buildings the probable cost of which shall exceed five thousand dollars, without first submitting to the general assembly for its approval plans and specifications prepared by an architect, together with estimates of the cost of such buildings, provided, that if the board of control of state institutions deem it advisable to make any deviation from or addition to the plans, specifications and estimated cost so submitted to the general assembly, the board shall first secure the approval thereof by a majority vote of the executive council but the executive council shall not approve any deviation from such plans and specifications during any session of the general assembly nor which will probably cost more than twenty-five thousand dollars as to any one building. The executive council may, however, during the interim between sessions of the general assembly on application of said board, approve plans, specifications and expenditures for buildings the necessity for which is created by fire or other casualty.

SEC. 3. Acts in conflict repealed. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. In effect. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved April 18 A. D. 1913.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital April 25, 1913.

W. S. ALLEN,
Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 18.

DAILY ACCOUNTING TO STATE TREASURER OF ALL FEES.

H. F. 407.

AN ACT repealing section one hundred and seventy-d (170-d) of the supplement to the code, 1907, and to enact a substitute in lieu thereof requiring all boards, commissions, departments, and officers of state to turn into the state treasury all fees collected.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repeal—fees. That section one hundred and seventy-d (170-d) of the supplement to the code, 1907, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

“That all officers of state, elective or appointive, all boards, commissions and departments, except the department of agriculture, shall turn into the state treasury or bank or depository to the credit of the state treasury, as designated by the state treasurer, not later than the third day succeeding the
