CHAPTER 283.

LIBEL.

S. F. 139.

AN ACT prescribing the damages that may be recovered for publication of libelous matter in newspapers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Damages recoverable for libel—retraction, etc.
 1 In any action for damages for the publication of a libel in a newspaper,
 2 if the defendant can show that such libelous matter was published
 3 through mis-information or mistake, the plaintiff shall recover no more 4 than actual damages, unless a retraction be demanded and refused as 5 hereinafter provided. Plaintiff shall serve upon the publisher at the 6 principal place of publication a notice specifying the statements claimed
 7 to be libelous, and requesting that the same be withdrawn. And if a 8 retraction or correction thereof be not published in as conspicuous a 9 place and type in said newspaper as were the statements complained of,
 10 in a regular issue thereof published within two weeks after such serv-
 11 ice, plaintiff may allege such notice, demand and failure to retract
 12 in his complaint and may recover both actual, special and exemplary
 13 damages if his cause of action be maintained. And, if such retraction 14 be so published, he may still recover such actual, special and exemplary 15 damages, unless the defendant shall show that the libelous publication 16 was made in good faith, without malice and under a mistake as to the 17 facts. If the plaintiff was a candidate for office at the time of the 18 libelous publication, no retraction shall be available unless published 19 in a conspicuous place on the editorial page, nor if the libel was pub-
 20 lished within two weeks next before the election: Provided, that this 21 act shall not apply to any libel imputing unchastity to a woman.
