CHAPTER 203

BANKS. ESTABLISHMENT OF OFFICES

AN ACT to repeal section ninety-two hundred fifty-eight-b one (9258-b 1) of the code, 1927, and to enact a substitute therefor to prohibit branch banking, but to provide for the establishment of offices for the receipt of deposits, paying of checks and for other clerical duties other than at the principal place of business of a banking institution.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1 SECTION 1. That section ninety-two hundred fifty-eight-b one
2 (9258-b1) of the code, 1927, be repealed and the following enacted
3 in lieu thereof:
4 “9258-b1. No banking institution shall open or maintain any 5 branch bank. However, as may be authorized by and subject to the 6 jurisdiction of the banking department any banking institution may 7 establish an office for the sole and only purpose of receiving deposits
8 and paying checks and performing such other clerical and routine
9 duties not inconsistent with this act. No banking institution may 10 establish any office beyond those counties contiguous to the county 11 in which said banking institution is located nor in a city or town in 12 which there is already an established banking institution. No office 13 shall be continued at any place after a banking institution has actually 14 commenced business at that place. Nothing in this act shall prohibit 15 national banks the privileges of this section whenever they may be 16 so authorized by federal law.”
