

CHAPTER 13

JUDGMENT FOR CRIMINAL RESTITUTION PAYMENTS

H.F. 9

AN ACT relating to the imposition of judgment, upon which execution will lie, against a criminal offender on probation who fails to comply with a court-ordered plan of restitution.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 910.4, unnumbered paragraph 1, Code 1989, is amended to read as follows:
When restitution is ordered by the sentencing court and the offender is placed on probation, restitution shall be a condition of probation. Failure of the offender to comply with the plan of restitution, plan of payment, or community service requirements when community service is ordered by the court as restitution, shall constitute a violation of probation and shall constitute contempt of court. The court may hold the offender in contempt, revoke probation, or may extend the period of probation in such circumstances, or upon notice of such noncompliance and hearing thereon, the court may enter a civil judgment against the offender for the outstanding balance of payments under the plan of restitution and such judgment shall be governed by the law relating to judgments, judgment liens, executions, and other process available to creditors for the collection of debts. However, if the period of probation is extended it shall not be for more than the maximum period of probation for the offense committed as provided in section 907.7.

Approved March 15, 1989

CHAPTER 14

MINIMUM WAGE LAW

H.F. 17

AN ACT relating to minimum wage requirements.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 91D.1 MINIMUM WAGE REQUIREMENTS — EXCEPTIONS.

1. a. The hourly wage stated in the federal minimum wage law, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 206, shall be increased to $3.85 on January 1 of 1990, $4.25 on January 1 of 1991, and $4.65 on January 1 of 1992.

b. Every employer, as defined in the federal Fair Labor Standards Act, shall pay to each of the employer's employees, as defined in the federal Fair Labor Standards Act, wages of not less than the current federal minimum wage, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 206, or the wage rate stated in paragraph "a", whichever is greater.

c. For purposes of determining whether an employee of a restaurant, hotel, motel, inn, or cabin, who customarily and regularly receives more than thirty dollars a month in tips is receiving the minimum hourly wage rate prescribed by this section, the amount paid the employee by the employer shall be deemed to be increased on account of the tips by an amount determined by the employer, not to exceed forty percent of the applicable minimum wage. An employee may file a written appeal with the labor commissioner if the amount of tips received by the employee is less than the amount determined by the employer under this subsection.

d. An employer is not required to pay an employee the applicable minimum wage provided in paragraph "a" until the employee has completed ninety calendar days of employment with
