

CHAPTER 261

UNEXPENDED MONEYS IN FISH AND GAME PROTECTION FUND

S.F. 150

AN ACT relating to the department of natural resources, by providing for the use of unexpended moneys in the fish and game protection fund, and providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. USE OF MONEYS REMAINING IN THE STATE FISH AND GAME PROTECTION FUND.

Moneys remaining in the state fish and game protection fund, created in section 107.17, during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1990, which are not specifically appropriated by the general assembly, are appropriated and may be used by the department of natural resources for capital projects and contingencies arising during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1990. A contingency shall not include any purpose or project which was presented to the general assembly by way of a bill or a proposed bill and which failed to be enacted into law. For the purpose of this section, necessary additional operating moneys for the department of natural resources may be construed as a contingency. Before any of the moneys authorized to be expended by this section are allocated for contingencies, the executive council must determine that a contingency exists and that the contingency was not existent while the general assembly was in session and that the proposed allocation is in the best interest of the state. If a contingency arises or could reasonably be foreseen during the time the general assembly is in session, expenditures for the contingency must be authorized by the general assembly.

Sec. 2. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.

Approved March 11, 1991
