

CHAPTER 1101
RECIPROCAL SHIPMENT OF WINES
H.F. 2315

AN ACT authorizing small quantities of wine to be shipped in and out of this state for consumption or use by persons twenty-one years of age or older.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 123.187 RECIPROCAL SHIPMENT OF WINES.

1. "Equal reciprocal shipping privilege" means allowing wineries located in this state to ship into another state, wine, not for resale, but for consumption or use by a person twenty-one years of age or older.

2. A winery licensed or permitted pursuant to laws regulating alcoholic beverages in a state which affords this state an equal reciprocal shipping privilege may ship into this state by private common carrier, to a person twenty-one years of age or older, not more than eighteen liters of wine per month, for consumption or use by the person. Such wine shall not be resold. Shipment of wine pursuant to this subsection is not subject to sales tax under section 422.43, use tax under section 423.2, or the wine gallonage tax under section 123.183, and does not require a refund value for beverage container control purposes under chapter 455C.

3. The holder of a class "A" or "B" wine permit in this state may ship out of this state by private common carrier, to a person twenty-one years of age or older, not more than eighteen liters of wine per month, for consumption or use by the person.

Approved April 16, 1996

CHAPTER 1102
PUBLIC ACCESS TO TRANSPORTATION RECORDS
H.F. 2462

AN ACT relating to public access to motor vehicle records and providing a conditional repeal and an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 321.11, Code 1995, is amended to read as follows:

321.11 RECORDS OF DEPARTMENT.

All records of the department, ~~other than those declared by law to be confidential for the use of the department~~ other than those made confidential or not permitted to be open in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq., adopted as of a specific date by rule of the department, shall be open to public inspection during office hours.

Personal information shall be disclosed to a requestor if the individual whose personal information is requested has not elected to prohibit disclosure of the information to the general public. The department shall give notice in a clear and conspicuous manner on forms for issuance or renewal of driver's licenses, titles, registrations, or nonoperator's identification cards that personal information collected by the department may be disclosed to any person. The department shall provide in a clear and conspicuous manner on these forms an opportunity for an individual to prohibit disclosure of personal information to the general public. As used in this paragraph, "personal information" means information
