PREFACE

CERTIFICATION

We, Dennis C. Prouty, Director, Legislative Services Agency, Richard L. Johnson, Legal Services Division Director, Leslie E. W. Hickey, Iowa Code Editor, and Joanne R. Page, Deputy Iowa Code Editor, certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the Acts and Resolutions in this volume have been prepared from the original enrolled Acts and Resolutions on file in the office of the Secretary of State; are correct copies of those Acts and Resolutions; are published under the authority of the statutes of this state; and constitute the Acts and Resolutions of the 2007 Regular Session of the Eighty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa.

STATUTES AS EVIDENCE

Iowa Code section 622.59 is as follows:

622.59 Printed copies of statutes. Printed copies of the statute laws of this or any other of the United States, or of Congress, or of any foreign government, purporting or proved to have been published under the authority thereof, or proved to be commonly admitted as evidence of the existing laws in the courts of such state or government, shall be admitted in the courts of this state as presumptive evidence of such laws.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Temporary Code numbers. CODE NUMBERS ASSIGNED TO NEW SECTIONS AND SUBSECTIONS IN THE ACTS ARE TEMPORARY AND MAY BE CHANGED WHEN THE 2007 IOWA CODE SUPPLEMENT IS PUBLISHED. Changes will be shown in the Tables of Disposition of Acts in the 2007 Iowa Code Supplement.

Typographic style. The Acts and Resolutions in this volume are printed as they appear on file in the office of the Secretary of State. No editorial corrections have been made. Underlined type indicates new material added to existing statutes; strike-through type indicates deleted material. Italics within an Act indicate material that the Governor has item vetoed. Item vetoed text is also indicated by asterisks at the beginning and ending of the vetoed material. Superscript numbers indicate explanatory footnotes.

Effective and enactment dates. The Acts of the 2007 Regular Session took effect on July 1, 2007, unless otherwise provided. The date of enactment generally is the date an Act is approved by the Governor, which is shown at the end of each Act. See Iowa Code section 3.7.

State mandates. Iowa Code section 25B.5 requires that for each enacted bill or joint resolution containing a state mandate (defined in section 25B.3), an estimate of additional local revenue expenditures required by the mandate must be filed with the Secretary of State. Section 2B.10(6) states that a notation of the filing of the estimate must be included in the Iowa Acts with the text of the bill or resolution. A dagger is placed at the beginning of the enacting clause and a footnote is included for each enrolled Act or Resolution for which a mandate notation is required.

Resolutions. Concurrent resolutions and Senate and House resolutions are generally not included. See bound Senate and House Journals for adopted resolutions.

CHAPTER 39

PUBLIC FUNDS DEPOSITS AND INVESTMENTS — SUDAN

S.F. 361

AN ACT concerning investment of certain public funds in companies doing business in Sudan by the treasurer of state, public retirement systems in Iowa, and the state board of regents.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 12A.1 LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT.

The general assembly is deeply concerned over the human rights situation in Sudan which calls for stepped-up international efforts to end the crisis in Sudan's Darfur region, and concurs with United States policy which has officially declared that genocide is ongoing in the Sudan, and demands that the government of Sudan bring an end to these atrocities. Therefore, the general assembly intends that state funds and funds administered by the state, including public employee retirement funds, should not be invested in companies that provide power production-related services, mineral extraction activities, oil-related activities, or military equipment to the government of Sudan, or are complicit in the genocide in Darfur, given the ongoing genocide in that country, the previous atrocities perpetrated by the government of Sudan, and the abysmal human rights situation in that country.

Sec. 3. NEW SECTION. 12A.3 IDENTIFICATION OF COMPANIES — NOTICE.

By July 1, 2007, the public fund shall make its best efforts to identify all scrutinized companies in which the public fund has direct or indirect holdings or could possibly have such holdings in the future and shall create and make available to the public a scrutinized companies list for that public fund. The list shall further identify whether the company has inactive business operations or active business operations. The public fund shall review and update, if necessary, the scrutinized companies list and the determination of whether a company has inactive or active business operations on a quarterly basis thereafter.
- b. In making its best efforts to identify scrutinized companies and companies with inactive business operations or active business operations, the public fund may review and rely, in the best judgment of the public fund, on publicly available information regarding companies with business operations in Sudan, such as information provided by the Sudan divestment task force, and including other information that may be provided by nonprofit organizations, research firms, international organizations, and government entities. The public fund may also contact asset managers and institutional investors for the public fund to identify scrutinized companies based upon industry recognized lists of such companies that the public fund may have indirect holdings in.

- 2. a. For each company on the scrutinized companies list with only inactive business operations in which the public fund has direct or indirect holdings, the public fund shall send a written notice informing the company of the requirements of this chapter and encouraging it to continue to refrain from initiating active business operations in Sudan until it is able to avoid scrutinized business operations. The notice shall offer the company the opportunity to clarify its Sudan-related activities and shall encourage the company to either cease its scrutinized business operations or convert such operations to inactive business operations in order to avoid becoming subject to divestment and restrictions on investment in the company by the public fund. The public fund shall continue to provide such written notice on an annual basis if the company remains a scrutinized company with active business operations.

Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 12A.4 PROHIBITED INVESTMENTS — DIVESTMENT.

- 2. a. The public fund shall sell, redeem, divest, or withdraw all publicly traded securities of a company on the public fund's list of scrutinized companies with active business operations, so long as the company remains on that list, no sooner than ninety days, but no later than eighteen months, following the first written notice sent to the scrutinized company with active business operations as required by section 12A.3.
- b. This subsection shall not be construed to require the premature or otherwise imprudent sale, redemption, divestment, or withdrawal of an investment, but such sale, redemption, divestment, or withdrawal shall be completed as provided by this subsection.
 - 3. The requirements of this section shall not apply to the following:
- a. A company which the United States government affirmatively declares to be excluded from its present or any future federal sanctions regime relating to Sudan.
- b. Indirect holdings of a scrutinized company with active business operations. The public fund shall, however, submit letters to the managers of such investment funds containing companies with scrutinized active business operations requesting that they consider removing such companies from the fund or create a similar fund with indirect holdings devoid of such companies. If the manager creates a similar fund, the public fund is encouraged to replace all applicable investments with investments in the similar fund consistent with prudent investing standards.

Sec. 5. NEW SECTION. 12A.5 REPORTS.

- 1. SCRUTINIZED COMPANIES LIST. Each public fund shall, within thirty days after the scrutinized companies list is created or updated as required by section 12A.3, make the list available to the public.
- 2. ANNUAL REPORT. On October 1, 2008, and each October 1 thereafter, each public fund shall make available to the public, and file with the general assembly, an annual report covering the prior fiscal year that includes the following:

 - b. A summary of all written notices sent as required by section 12A.3 during the fiscal year.

 - 5. PRECLUSIVE EFFECT.
- a. DONOR GIFT OR AMENDMENT SUBSEQUENT ACTIONS BY OTHERS PROHIBIT-ED. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph "g", and subject to paragraph "f", in the absence of a contrary indication by the donor, a person other than the donor is prohibited from making, amending, or revoking an anatomical gift of a donor's body or part if the donor made an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under subsection 2 or an amendment to an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under subsection 3.
- b. DONOR REVOCATION NOT A REFUSAL. - e. GIFT OF PART NOT PROHIBITIVE OF GIFT OF ANOTHER PART. In the absence of a contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under subsection 1, an anatomical gift of a part is neither a refusal to donate another part nor a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of another part at a later time by the donor or another authorized person.
- f. GIFT FOR ONE PURPOSE NOT PROHIBITIVE OF ANOTHER PURPOSE. In the absence of a contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under subsection 1, an anatomical gift of a part for one or more of the purposes specified in subsection 1 is not a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of the part for any of the other purposes by the donor or any other person under subsection 2 or section 142C.4.
- g. UNEMANCIPATED MINOR GIFT PARENT REVOCATION. If a donor who is an unemancipated minor dies, a parent of the donor who is reasonably available may revoke or amend an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part.

- h. UNEMANCIPATED MINOR REFUSAL PARENT REVOCATION OR AMEND-MENT. If an unemancipated minor who signed a refusal dies, a parent of the minor who is reasonably available may revoke the minor's refusal.

- 2. a. If there is more than one member of a class listed in subsection 1, paragraph "a", "c", "d", "e", "f", "g", or "i", entitled to make an anatomical gift, an anatomical gift may be made by one member of the class unless that member or a person to whom the gift may pass under section 142C.5 knows of an objection by another member of the class. If an objection is known, the gift shall be made only by a majority of the members of the class who are reasonably available.
- b. A person shall not make an anatomical gift if, at the time of the death of the decedent, a person in a prior class under subsection 1 is reasonably available to make or to object to the making of an anatomical gift.
- 3. A person authorized to make an anatomical gift under subsection 1 may make an anatomical gift by a document of gift signed by the person making the gift or by the person's oral communication that is electronically recorded or is contemporaneously reduced to a record and signed by the recipient of the oral communication.
- 4. Subject to subsection 5, an anatomical gift by a person authorized under subsection 1 may be amended or revoked orally or in a record by any member of the prior class who is reasonably available. If more than one member of the prior class is reasonably available, the gift made by a person authorized under subsection 1 may be:

- b. Revoked only if a majority of the reasonably available members agree to the revoking of the gift or if they are equally divided as to whether to revoke the gift.
- 5. A revocation under subsection 4 is effective only if, before an incision has been made to remove a part from the donor's body or before invasive procedures have begun to prepare the recipient, the procurement organization, transplant hospital, or physician or technician knows of the revocation.
- Sec. 5. Section 142C.4A, Code 2007, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
- 142C.4A COOPERATION BETWEEN MEDICAL EXAMINER AND ORGAN PROCURE-MENT ORGANIZATION — FACILITATION OF ANATOMICAL GIFT FROM DECEDENT WHOSE BODY IS UNDER JURISDICTION OF MEDICAL EXAMINER.

- 1. A medical examiner shall cooperate with procurement organizations to maximize the opportunity to recover organs for the purpose of transplantation when the recovery of organs does not interfere with a death investigation.
- 2. If a medical examiner receives notice from a procurement organization that an organ might be or was made available with respect to a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner and a postmortem examination will be performed, unless the medical examiner denies recovery in accordance with this section, the medical examiner or designee shall conduct a postmortem examination of the body or the organ in a manner and within a period compatible with its preservation for the purposes of the gift. Every reasonable effort shall be made to accomplish the mutual goals of organ donation and a thorough death investigation.
- 3. An organ shall not be removed from the body of a decedent under the jurisdiction of a medical examiner for transplantation unless the organ is the subject of an anatomical gift. This subsection does not preclude a medical examiner from performing a medicolegal investigation pursuant to subsection 5 upon the body or organs of a decedent under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner.
- 4. Upon request of an organ procurement organization, a medical examiner shall release to the organ procurement organization the name and contact information of a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner. If the decedent's organs are medically suitable for transplantation, the pathologist or medical examiner shall release to the organ procurement organization the postmortem examination results, limited to cause and manner of death and any evidence of infection or other disease process, which might preclude safe transplantation of recovered organs. The organ procurement organization may make a subsequent disclosure of the postmortem examination results only if relevant to transplantation.
- 5. The medical examiner may conduct a medicolegal examination by reviewing all medical records, laboratory test results, X rays, other diagnostic results, and other information that any person possesses about a donor or prospective donor whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner, which the medical examiner determines may be relevant to the investigation.
- 6. A person who has any information requested by a medical examiner pursuant to subsection 5 shall provide that information as expeditiously as possible to allow the medical examiner to conduct the medicolegal investigation within a period compatible with the preservation of organs for the purpose of transplantation.
- 7. If an anatomical gift has been or might be made of an organ of a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner and a postmortem examination is not required, or the medical examiner determines that a postmortem examination is required but that the recovery of the organ that is the subject of an anatomical gift will not interfere with the examination, the medical examiner and organ procurement organization shall cooperate in the timely removal of the organ from the decedent for the purpose of transplantation.
- 8. a. If an anatomical gift of an organ from a decedent under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner has been or might be made, but the pathologist or medical examiner initially believes that the recovery of the organ could interfere with the postmortem investigation into the decedent's cause or manner of death, the pathologist or medical examiner shall consult with the organ procurement organization or physician or technician designated by the organ procurement organization about the proposed recovery.
- b. Ancillary clinical tests such as a magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), a computed tomography (CT) scan, or skeletal survey may be required by the pathologist prior to determination of suitability of organ procurement. These tests shall be performed and interpreted by the appropriate physician at the pathologist's request, and reported in a timely fashion. All expenses for such tests shall be the responsibility of the organ procurement organization regardless of outcome.
- c. After consultation pursuant to paragraph "a" and any preliminary investigation pursuant to paragraph "b", the pathologist or medical examiner may allow recovery, depending on the nature of the case and the availability of a pathologist to view the body prior to recovery.

- 9. If the manner of death may be homicide or has the potential for litigation, the organ recovery shall be approved by the forensic pathologist, and the forensic pathologist may examine the body prior to organ recovery and document by diagrams and photographs all visible injuries.
- 10. a. If the medical examiner or designee allows recovery of an organ under subsection 7, 8, or 9, the organ procurement organization, upon request, shall cause the physician or technician who removes the organ to provide the medical examiner with a record describing the condition of the organ, a biopsy, a photograph, and any other information and observations that would assist in the postmortem examination.
- b. Arrangements for the examination of bodies of such decedents shall be coordinated between the organ procurement organization and the state medical examiner.
- c. If applicable, and whenever possible, the forensic pathologist who examined the decedent's body prior to recovery of the organ shall perform the autopsy. If the forensic pathologist is unable to accommodate examination of the body due to scheduling or staffing, the request for organ donation may be denied.
- 11. If a medical examiner or designee is required to be present at a removal procedure under subsection 9, upon request, the organ procurement organization requesting the recovery of the organ shall reimburse the medical examiner or designee for the additional costs incurred in complying with subsection 9.
- 12. A physician or technician who removes an organ at the direction of the organ procurement organization may be called to testify about findings from the surgical recovery of organs at no cost to taxpayers if the decedent is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner.
- 13. a. The medical examiner or pathologist with jurisdiction over the body of a decedent has discretion to grant or deny permission for organ or tissue recovery.
- b. If the recovery of organs or tissues may hinder the determination of cause or manner of death or if evidence may be destroyed by the recovery, permission may be denied.
- c. The medical examiner or a pathologist performing state autopsies shall work closely with procurement organizations in an effort to balance the needs of the public and the decedent's next of kin.
- Sec. 6. Section 142C.5, Code 2007, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

1. a. Not later than April 1 of each year ending in one, the legislative services agency shall deliver to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives identical bills embodying a plan of legislative and congressional districting prepared in accordance with section 42.4. It is the intent of this chapter that the general assembly shall bring the bill to a vote in either the senate or the house of representatives expeditiously, but not less than seven three days after the report of the commission required by section 42.6 is received and made available to the members of the general assembly, under a procedure or rule permitting no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature. It is further the intent of this chapter that if the bill is approved by the first house in which it is considered, it shall expeditiously be brought to a vote in the second house under a similar procedure or rule. If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the legislative services agency under this subsection fails to be approved by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the house of representatives, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house, as the case may be, shall at once, but in no event later than seven days after the date the bill failed to be approved, transmit to the legislative services agency information which the senate or house may direct by resolution regarding reasons why the plan was not approved.

Sec. 3. Section 42.3, subsection 2, Code 2007, is amended to read as follows:

2. If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the legislative services agency under subsection 1 fails to be approved by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the house of representatives, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house, as the case may be, shall at once transmit to the legislative services agency information which the senate or house may direct regarding reasons why the plan was not approved. The enacted, the legislative services agency shall prepare a bill embodying a second plan of legislative and congressional districting. The bill shall be prepared in accordance with section 42.4, and taking into account, insofar as it is possible to do so within the requirements of section 42.4, with the reasons cited by the senate or house of representatives by resolution, or the governor by veto message, for its the failure to approve the plan insofar as it is possible to do so within the requirements of section 42.4. If a second plan is required under this subsection, the bill embodying it shall be delivered to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives not later than May 1 of the year ending in one, or twenty-one thirty-five days after the date of the vote by which the senate or the house of representatives fails to approve the bill submitted under subsection 1, whichever date is later or the date the governor vetoes or fails to approve the bill. It is the intent of this chapter that, if If it is necessary to submit a bill under this subsection, the bill shall be brought to a vote not less than seven days after the bill is printed submitted and made available to the members of the general assembly, in the same manner as prescribed for the bill required under subsection 1 under a procedure or rule permitting no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature. It is further the intent of this chapter that if the bill is approved by the first house in which it is considered, it shall expeditiously be brought to a vote in the second house under a similar procedure or rule. If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the legislative services agency under this subsection fails to be approved by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the house of representatives, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house, as the case may be, shall transmit to the legislative services agency information which the senate or house may direct by resolution regarding reasons why the plan was not approved in the same manner as described in subsection 1.

- Sec. 4. Section 42.3, subsection 3, Code 2007, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the legislative services agency under subsection 2 fails to be approved by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the house of representatives enacted, the same procedure as prescribed by subsection 2 shall be followed. If a third plan is required under this subsection, the bill embodying it shall be delivered to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives not later than June 1 of the year ending in one, or twenty-one thirty-five days after the date of the vote by which the senate or the house of representatives fails to approve the bill submitted under subsection 2, whichever date is later. It is the intent of this chapter that, if or the date the governor vetoes or fails to approve the bill. The legislative services agency shall submit a bill under this subsection sufficiently in advance of September 1 of the year ending in one to permit the general assembly to consider the plan prior to that date. If it is necessary to submit a bill under this subsection, the bill shall be brought to a vote within the same time period after its delivery to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives as is prescribed for the bill submitted under subsection 2, but shall be subject to amendment in the same manner as other bills.
 - Sec. 5. Section 42.3, subsection 4, Code 2007, is amended by striking the subsection.
 - Sec. 6. Section 42.4, subsection 4, Code 2007, is amended to read as follows:
- 4. It is preferable that districts Districts shall be reasonably compact in form, but to the extent consistent with the standards established by subsections 1, 2, and 3 take precedence over compactness where a conflict arises between compactness and these standards. In general, reasonably compact districts are those which are square, rectangular, or hexagonal in shape, and not irregularly shaped, to the extent permitted by natural or political boundaries. When If it is necessary to compare the relative compactness of two or more districts, or of two or more alternative districting plans, the tests prescribed by paragraphs "a" and "b" and "c" of this subsection shall be used. Should the results of these two tests be contradictory, the standard referred to in paragraph "b" of this subsection shall be given greater weight than the standard referred to in paragraph "c" of this subsection.
 - a. As used in this subsection:
- (1) "Population data unit" means a civil township, election precinct, census enumeration district, census city block group, or other unit of territory having clearly identified geographic boundaries and for which a total population figure is included in or can be derived directly from certified federal census data.
- (2) The "geographic unit center" of a population data unit is that point approximately equidistant from the northern and southern extremities, and also approximately equidistant from the eastern and western extremities, of a population data unit. This point shall be determined by visual observation of a map of the population data unit, unless it is otherwise determined within the context of an appropriate coordinate system developed by the federal government or another qualified and objective source and obtained for use in this state with prior approval of the legislative council.
- (3) The "x" co-ordinate of a point in this state refers to the relative location of that point along the east-west axis of the state. Unless otherwise measured within the context of an appropriate co-ordinate system obtained for use as permitted by subparagraph 2 of this paragraph, the "x" co-ordinate shall be measured along a line drawn due east from a due north and south line running through the point which is the northwestern extremity of the state of Iowa, to the point to be located.
- (4) The "y" co-ordinate of a point in this state refers to the relative location of that point along the north-south axis of the state. Unless otherwise measured within the context of an appropriate co-ordinate system obtained for use as permitted by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the "y" co-ordinate shall be measured along a line drawn due south from the northern boundary of the state or the eastward extension of that boundary, to the point to be located.
 - b. a. LENGTH-WIDTH COMPACTNESS. The compactness of a district is greatest when the length of the district and the width of the district are equal. The measure of a district's compactness is the absolute value of the difference between the length and the width of the district.

- (1) In measuring the length and the width of a district by means of electronic data processing, the difference between the "x" co-ordinates of the easternmost and the westernmost geographic unit centers included in the district shall be compared to the difference between the "y" co-ordinates of the northernmost and southernmost geographic unit centers included in the district.
- (2) To determine the length and width of a district by manual measurement, In general, the length-width compactness of a district is calculated by measuring the distance from the northernmost point or portion of the boundary of a district to the southernmost point or portion of the boundary of the same district and the distance from the westernmost point or portion of the boundary of the district to the easternmost point or portion of the boundary of the same district shall each be measured. If the northernmost or southernmost portion of the boundary, or each of these points, is a part of the boundary running due east and west, the line used to make the measurement required by this paragraph shall either be drawn due north and south or as nearly so as the configuration of the district permits. If the easternmost or westernmost portion of the boundary, or each of these points, is a part of the boundary running due north and south, a similar procedure shall be followed. The lines to be measured for the purpose of this paragraph shall each be drawn as required by this paragraph, even if some part of either or both lines lies outside the boundaries of the district which is being tested for compactness.
- (3) The absolute values computed for individual districts under this paragraph may be cumulated for all districts in a plan in order to compare the overall compactness of two or more alternative districting plans for the state, or for a portion of the state. However, it is not valid to cumulate or compare absolute values computed under subparagraph (1) with those computed under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.
- e. b. PERIMETER COMPACTNESS. The compactness of a district is greatest when the ratio of the dispersion of population about the population center of the district to the dispersion of population about the geographic center of the district is one to one, the nature of this ratio being such that it is always greater than zero and can never be greater than one to one.
- (1) The population dispersion about the population center of a district, and about the geographic center of a district, is computed as the sum of the products of the population of each population data unit included in the district multiplied by the square of the distance from that geographic unit center to the population center or the geographic center of the district, as the case may be. The geographic center of the district is defined by averaging the locations of all geographic unit centers which are included in the district. The population center of the district is defined by computing the population-weighted average of the "x" co-ordinates and "y" co-ordinates of each geographic unit center assigned to the district, it being assumed for the purpose of this calculation that each population data unit possesses uniform density of population.
- (2) The ratios computed for individual districts under this paragraph may be averaged for all districts in a plan in order to compare the overall compactness of two or more alternative districting plans for the state, or for a portion of the state distance needed to traverse the perimeter boundary of a district is as short as possible. The total perimeter distance computed for individual districts under this paragraph may be cumulated for all districts in a plan in order to compare the overall compactness of two or more alternative districting plans for the state, or for a portion of the state.
 - Sec. 7. Section 42.4, subsection 8, Code 2007, is amended to read as follows:
- 8. Each bill embodying a plan drawn under this section shall include provisions for election of senators to the general assemblies which take office in the years ending in three and five, which shall be in conformity with Article III, section 6, of the Constitution of the State of Iowa. With respect to any plan drawn for consideration in the a year 2001 ending in one, those provisions shall be substantially as follows:
 - a. Each odd-numbered senatorial district in the plan which is not a holdover senatorial district shall elect a senator in 2002 the year ending in two for a four-year term commencing in January 2003 of the year ending in three. If an incumbent senator who was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 2001 of the year ending in one, or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term, is residing in an odd-numbered a senatorial district in the plan which is not a holdover senatorial district on the first Wednesday in February 1, 2002 of the year ending in two, that senator's term of office shall be terminated on January 1, 2003 of the year ending in three.

- b. Each even-numbered holdover senatorial district in the plan shall elect a senator in 2004 the year ending in four for a four-year term commencing in January 2005 of the year ending in five.
- (1) If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing in an even-numbered a holdover senatorial district in the plan on the first Wednesday in February 1, 2002 of the year ending in two, and that senator meets all of the following requirements, the senator shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth General Assembly general assembly commencing in January of the year ending in three:
- (a) The senator was elected to a four-year term which commenced in January 2001 of the year ending in one or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term.
- (b) The senatorial district in the plan which includes the place of residence of the state senator on the date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same as the even-numbered holdover senatorial district in which the senator resides on the first Wednesday in February 1, 2002 of the year ending in two, or is contiguous to such even-numbered holdover senatorial district and the senator's declared residence as of February 1, 2002, was within the district from which the senator was last elected. Areas which meet only at the points of adjoining corners are not contiguous.

The secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by all senators to declare their residences as of February 1, 2002. The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than five p.m. on February 1, 2002.

- (2) Each even-numbered holdover senatorial district to which subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is not applicable shall elect a senator in 2002 the year ending in two for a two-year term commencing in January 2003 of the year ending in three. However, if more than one incumbent state senator is residing in an even-numbered a holdover senatorial district on the first Wednesday in February 1, 2002 of the year ending in two, and, on or before the first Wednesday in February 15, 2002 of the year ending in two, all but one of the incumbent senators resigns from office effective no later than January 1, 2003 of the year ending in three, the remaining incumbent senator shall represent the district in the senate for the Eightieth General Assembly general assembly commencing in January of the year ending in three. A copy of the resignation must be filed in the office of the secretary of state no later than five p.m. on the third Wednesday in February 15, 2002 of the year ending in two.
 - c. For purposes of this subsection:
- (1) "Holdover senatorial district" means a senatorial district in the plan which is numbered with an even or odd number in the same manner as senatorial districts, which were required to elect a senator in the year ending in zero, were numbered.
- (2) "Incumbent state senator" means a state senator who holds the office of state senator on the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two, and whose declared residence on that day is within the district from which the senator was last elected.
- d. The secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by all senators to declare their residences as of the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two. The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than five p.m. on the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two.
 - Sec. 8. Section 42.6, subsection 3, Code 2007, is amended by striking the subsection.
 - Sec. 9. Section 42.6, subsection 4, paragraph b, Code 2007, is amended to read as follows: b. Following the hearings, promptly prepare and submit to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house a report summarizing information and testimony received by the commission in the course of the hearings. The commission's report shall include any comments and conclusions which its members deem appropriate on the information and testimony received at the hearings, or otherwise presented to the commission. The report shall be submitted no later than fourteen days after the date the bill embodying an initial plan of congressional and legislative redistricting is delivered to the general assembly.

CHESTER J. CULVER, Governor

Dear President Kibbie:

I hereby transmit Senate File 277, an Act relating to the state's educational standards regarding teacher librarians and qualified guidance counselors, and to teacher and administrator quality, including the student achievement and teacher quality program and an administrator quality program, making appropriations, and providing an effective date.

I am unable to approve the designated portion of Section 49, subsection 3. The designated portion of this subsection requires that the state board of education shall adopt rules requiring implementation of the successful components of the pilots by school districts statewide upon completion of the career ladder planning and implementation pilots, subject to the sufficiency of funds. I am unable to approve this designated portion because I do not believe these pilot projects should automatically be mandated statewide.

The bill calls for 10 pilot projects, which I support. Eight of these projects are centered on implementing the last two parts of the career ladder system. We have already put the first two parts of this ladder into place and need to take a close look at whether implementing the rest of this system will result in improved student achievement and will help to recruit and retain the best and brightest teachers. The other two projects are to test pay-for-performance compensation methods. While I generally do not agree that pay-for-performance is the right method to improve our education system, I think it is important to test this out at the local level before we make a final decision.

While I support these pilot projects, I do not support that they be mandated statewide at the end of them. The goal of the projects is to allow us to better assess whether these methods are the right ones for this state to improve education for our students. Another goal of the projects is to allow us to assess whether these methods will attract more people to the teaching profession and make sure they want to work in Iowa. We cannot make that determination now, prior to beginning the projects, and it would be irresponsible to mandate that as a part of this bill. I look forward to working with the Legislature and other education partners throughout the state to take a close look at the models developed in these projects and make a determination about statewide implementation upon their completion.

For the above reasons, I respectfully disapprove this item in accordance with Article III, Section 16 of the Constitution of the State of Iowa. All other items in Senate File 277 are hereby approved as of this date.

Sincerely, CHESTER J. CULVER, Governor

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 12F.1 DEFINITIONS.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- 1. "Authorizing document" means the resolution of the issuer, indenture of trust, or other instrument setting forth the terms and conditions of obligations issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- 2. "Enabling legislation" means legislation enabling the issuance by an issuer of obligations in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- 3. "Issuer" means the state, a department or public or quasi-public agency or instrumentality of the state, or an authority of the state authorized to issue obligations and enabled to issue the obligations in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- 4. "Obligations" means notes, bonds, including refunding bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness of an issuer.

Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 12F.2 PROVISIONS APPLICABLE.

An issuer may issue obligations in accordance with the provisions of this chapter if enabling legislation enacted on or after the effective date of this Act provides that the obligations shall or may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. This chapter establishes the terms, conditions, and procedures applicable to the issuance of obligations by an issuer enabled to issue obligations under this chapter.

Sec. 3. NEW SECTION. 12F.3 LIMITED OBLIGATIONS.

Obligations issued under this chapter are payable solely out of the moneys, assets, or revenues pledged to the payment of the obligations pursuant to the enabling legislation and any bond reserve funds established in accordance with this chapter, all of which may be deposited with trustees or depositories in accordance with the authorizing documents and pledged by the issuer to the payment thereof. Obligations issued under this chapter shall contain a statement that the obligations are issued pursuant to this chapter; are payable solely from the moneys, assets, and revenues pledged for their payment and any bond reserve funds established; and that such obligations do not constitute an indebtedness of the state. The issuer shall not pledge the credit or taxing power of this state or any political subdivision of this state or make obligations issued pursuant to this chapter payable out of any moneys except those pledged in the enabling legislation and any bond reserve funds established by the issuer.

Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 12F.4 GENERAL POWERS.

1. An issuer may issue obligations under this chapter and do all things necessary with respect to the issuance of the obligations. An issuer shall have all of the powers necessary to issue and secure obligations and carry out the purposes for which the obligations are to be issued, including the power to secure credit enhancement or support and to enter into agreements providing interest rate protection, as deemed appropriate by the issuer. The issuer may issue obligations in principal amounts consistent with the enabling legislation and which the issuer determines are necessary to provide sufficient funds for the purposes for which the obligations are issued, and to provide for the payment of capitalized interest on the obligations, the establishment of reserves to secure the obligations, the payment of the costs of issuance of the obligations, the payment of other expenditures of the issuer incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out the issue, and the payment of all other expenditures necessary or convenient to the purposes for which the obligations are issued.

- 2. The proceeds of obligations issued by the issuer and not required for immediate disbursement may be deposited with a trustee or depository or the treasurer of state as provided in the authorizing documents. Proceeds shall be invested or reinvested as directed by the treasurer of state and specified in the authorizing documents without regard to any limitation otherwise provided by law.
 - 3. Obligations shall be issued as follows:
- a. In a form, issued in denominations, executed in a manner, and payable over terms and with rights of redemption, and subject to such other terms and conditions as prescribed in the authorizing documents.
- b. Sold at prices, at public or private sale, and in a manner, as prescribed by the issuer. Chapters 73A, 74, 74A, 75, and 76 do not apply to the sale, issuance, or retirement of the obligations if this chapter is utilized.
- c. Subject to the terms, conditions, and covenants providing for the payment of the principal, redemption premiums, if any, interest, and other terms, conditions, covenants, and protective provisions safeguarding payment, not inconsistent with this chapter and as determined by the authorizing documents.
- 4. Obligations issued under this chapter are investment securities and negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for purposes of the uniform commercial code, chapter 554. Obligations are securities in which public officers and bodies of this state; political subdivisions of this state; insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business; banks, trust companies, savings associations, savings and loan associations, and investment companies; administrators, guardians, executors, trustees, and other fiduciaries; and other persons authorized to invest in obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them.
- 5. Obligations must be authorized by a trust indenture, resolution, or other instrument of the issuer. A trust indenture, resolution, or other instrument authorizing the issuance of obligations may, however, delegate to an officer of a board or of a governing body of an issuer the power to negotiate and fix the details of an issue of obligations.
- 6. A resolution, trust agreement, or any other instrument by which a pledge is created shall not be required to be recorded or filed under the uniform commercial code, chapter 554, to be valid, binding, or effective.
- 7. Subject to the terms of the authorizing documents, the proceeds of obligations may be expended for administrative expenses.
- 8. An issuer may issue obligations for the purpose of refunding any obligations then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premiums thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the outstanding obligations. Until the proceeds of obligations issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding obligations are applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding obligations or the redemption of outstanding obligations, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and be invested and reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the authorizing documents, and any applicable escrow agreement. The interest, income, and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding obligations to be refunded by purchase, retirement, or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the issuer. All refunding obligations shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other obligations issued pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 5. NEW SECTION. 12F.5 RESERVE FUNDS.

- 1. An issuer may create and establish one or more special funds, to be known as bond reserve funds, to secure one or more issues of obligations. The issuer shall pay into each bond reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of that reserve fund, any proceeds of the sale of obligations to the extent provided in the authorizing documents, and any other moneys which may be available from any other sources and which the issuer determines to deposit in the reserve fund. All moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of obligations secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund or other payments with respect to the obligations, the purchase or redemption of the obligations, the payment of interest on the obligations, or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the obligations are redeemed prior to maturity.
- 2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn at any time in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, except for the purpose of making, with respect to obligations secured in whole or in part by the fund, payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums, and the sinking fund and other payments with respect to the obligations for which other moneys are not available, all in accordance with the authorizing documents. For the purposes of this chapter, "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, the amount of moneys, provided in the authorizing documents with respect to which the fund is established. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to its investment may be transferred to other funds or accounts as provided in the authorizing documents to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below its bond reserve fund requirement.
- 3. The issuer shall not at any time issue obligations, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the obligations, the amount in the bond reserve fund for the obligations will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the issuer at the time of issuance of the obligations deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the obligations issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund, will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund.
- 4. In order to assure maintenance of bond reserve funds, an issuer shall, on or before January 1 of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor the issuer's certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor shall submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the issuer pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited by the issuer in the applicable bond reserve fund.

Sec. 6. NEW SECTION. 12F.6 PLEDGE OF FUNDS.

- 1. Amounts authorized to be pledged as security for obligations shall be held in separate and distinct funds in the state treasury. Moneys in a fund shall not be subject to appropriation for any other purpose by the general assembly, but shall be used only for debt service on the obligations and other amounts as set forth in the authorizing documents. The treasurer of state shall act as custodian of the funds and disburse moneys contained in the funds as directed by the authorizing documents.
- 2. Moneys in any fund pledged as security for obligations are not subject to section 8.33. Notwithstanding section 12C.7, subsection 2, interest or earnings on moneys in the funds shall be credited to the applicable fund.

Sec. 7. NEW SECTION. 12F.7 RESOLUTION PROVISIONS.

Authorizing document provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the obligations to be issued, may contain the following:

- 1. Pledging or assigning the revenue of a project with respect to which the obligations are to be issued or the revenue of other property or facilities.
 - 2. Setting aside reserves or sinking funds, and their regulation, investment, and disposition.
 - 3. Limitations on the use of a project.
- 4. Limitations on the purpose to which or the investments in which the proceeds of sale of an issue of obligations then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging the proceeds to secure the payment of the obligations or an issue of the obligations.
- 5. Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations, the terms upon which additional obligations may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding obligations.
- 6. The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with the holder of an obligation may be amended or abrogated, the amount of obligations may be specified for which the holders must consent to amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which the consent may be given.
- 7. Defining the acts or omissions to act which constitute a default in the duties of the issuer to holders of obligations and providing the rights and remedies of the holders in the event of a default.
 - 8. Other matters relating to the obligations as may be provided by the issuer.

Sec. 8. NEW SECTION. 12F.8 OBLIGATIONS SECURED BY TRUST AGREEMENT.

Obligations issued under this chapter may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and an incorporated trustee, which may be a trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in this state or another state. The trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of the obligations may pledge or assign the revenue to be received for payment of the obligations or the proceeds of any contract pledged. A pledge or assignment made by the issuer pursuant to this chapter is valid and binding from the time that the pledge or assignment is made, and the revenue pledged and thereafter received by the issuer is immediately subject to the lien of the pledge or assignment without physical delivery or any further act. The lien of the pledge or assignment is valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the issuer irrespective of whether the parties have notice of the lien. The trust agreement or resolution by which a pledge is created or an assignment made shall be filed in the records of the issuer. The trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of the obligations may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the holders of an obligation as are reasonable and proper, not in violation of law, or provided for in this chapter. A bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state or another state which acts as depository of proceeds of the obligations, revenue, or other moneys shall furnish the indemnifying obligations or pledge securities as and to the extent required by the issuer. The trust agreement or resolution may set forth the rights and remedies of the holders of an obligation and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by holders of an obligation. The trust agreement or resolution may contain other provisions the issuer deems reasonable and proper for the security of the obligation holders.

Sec. 9. NEW SECTION. 12F.9 STATE TAX.

Obligations issued under the provisions of this chapter are declared to be issued for a general public and governmental purpose and the obligations and interest on the obligations shall be exempt from state income and inheritance tax.

Sec. 10. NEW SECTION. 12F.10 AGREEMENT OF THE STATE.

The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of any obligations issued under this chapter, and with those parties who enter into contracts with an issuer pursuant to this chapter, that the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the issuer until the obligations, together with the interest on the obligations, are fully met and discharged and the contracts are fully performed on the part of the issuer, except that this chapter does not preclude a limitation or alteration if adequate provision is made by law for the protection of the rights of the holders of the obligations of the issuer or those entering into contracts with the issuer.

Sec. 11. NEW SECTION. 12F.11 PROVISIONS CONTROLLING.

The powers granted issuers under this chapter are in addition to the powers of each issuer contained elsewhere in the Code. Nothing in this chapter limits the powers of an issuer to issue obligations under any other applicable provisions of the Code or to otherwise carry out its responsibilities as otherwise set forth in the Code.

Sec. 12. NEW SECTION. 12F.12 CONSTRUCTION.

This chapter, being necessary for the welfare of this state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purpose.

The taxes imposed under this division, less the credits allowed under sections section 422.12 and 422.12B, shall be reduced by a franchise tax credit. A taxpayer who is a shareholder in a financial institution, as defined in section 581 of the Internal Revenue Code, which has in effect for the tax year an election under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, or is a member of a financial institution organized as a limited liability company under chapter 524 that is taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, shall compute the amount of the tax credit by recomputing the amount of tax under this division by reducing the taxable income of the taxpayer by the taxpayer's pro rata share of the items of income and expense of the financial institution and subtracting the credits allowed under sections section 422.12 and 422.12B. This recomputed tax shall be subtracted from the amount of tax computed under this division after the deduction for credits allowed under sections section 422.12 and 422.12B. The resulting amount, which shall not exceed the taxpayer's pro rata share of the franchise tax paid by the financial institution, is the amount of the franchise tax credit allowed.

The taxes imposed under this division, less the credits allowed under sections section 422.12 and 422.12B, shall be reduced by a new jobs tax credit. An industry which has entered into an agreement under chapter 260E and which has increased its base employment level by at least ten percent within the time set in the agreement or, in the case of an industry without a base employment level, adds new jobs within the time set in the agreement is entitled to this new jobs tax credit for the tax year selected by the industry. In determining if the industry has increased its base employment level by ten percent or added new jobs, only those new jobs directly resulting from the project covered by the agreement and those directly related to those new jobs shall be counted. The amount of this credit is equal to the product of six percent of the taxable wages upon which an employer is required to contribute to the state unemployment compensation fund, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 37, times the number of new jobs existing in the tax year that directly result from the project covered by the agreement or new jobs that directly result from those new jobs. The tax year chosen by the industry shall either begin or end during the period beginning with the date of the agreement and ending with the date by which the project is to be completed under the agreement. An individual may claim the new jobs tax credit allowed a partnership, subchapter S corporation, or estate or trust electing to have the income taxed directly to the individual. The amount claimed by the individual shall be based upon the pro rata share of the individual's earnings of the partnership, subchapter S corporation, or estate or trust. Any credit in excess of the tax liability for the tax year may be credited to the tax liability for the following ten tax years or until depleted, whichever is the earlier. For purposes of this section, "agreement", "industry", "new job", and "project" mean the same as defined in section 260E.2 and "base employment level" means the number of full-time jobs an industry employs at the plant site which is covered by an agreement under chapter 260E on the date of that agreement.
