

notice under this order on the holder of the bond.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That where any organized county has heretofore funded her outstanding warrants in the manner provided in this Act, or in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the same is hereby declared to be valid, and as binding on the parties thereto, as though made in pursuance of positive law. Legalize the funding of Warrants.

SEC. 14. If any organized county in this State has issued bonds in exchange for her outstanding warrants, and the same have not been issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the holders of said bonds may return the same, and the proper officers may issue new bonds in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the same shall be binding on all parties thereto, the same as though the holder thereof had exchanged county warrants therefor. New bonds to issue.

SEC. 15. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to legalize the issuing of any bonds for railroad or other purposes for which county bonds are authorized to be issued, nor shall any Board of Supervisors or any Treasurer be allowed to issue bonds under the provisions of this Act for outstanding county warrants that were obtained by fraud, or the validity of which is in dispute, nor shall the Treasurer or any officer sell such bonds for cash, but the same shall only be used for the purpose of funding outstanding county warrants issued by the county for ordinary county purposes, and in good faith. Construction of this Act.

SEC. 16. The Board in issuing said bonds, shall make provisions in the order for the said bonds to become due in a ratio to be fixed by the Board, so that a certain per centum of the whole amount shall come due in two years after their issuance, and a certain per centum each year thereafter, until the whole are paid. Provisions for maturity of bonds.

Approved April 7th, 1862.
