

281—120.702(34CFR303) State use of targets and reporting.

120.702(1) General. The state must use the targets established in the state's performance plan under rule 281—120.701(34CFR303) and the priority areas described in subrule 120.700(4) to analyze the performance of each EIS program in implementing Part C of the Act.

120.702(2) Public reporting and privacy.

a. Public report. The state must:

(1) Report annually to the public on the performance of each EIS program located in the state on the targets in the state's performance plan as soon as practicable but no later than 120 days following the state's submission of its annual performance report to the Secretary under paragraph 120.702(2) "b"; and

(2) Make the state's performance plan under subrule 120.701(1), annual performance reports under this subrule, and the state's annual reports on the performance of each EIS program under this subrule available through public means, including by posting on the department's website, distribution to the media, and distribution to EIS programs.

(3) If the state, in satisfying this subrule, collects data through state monitoring or sampling, the state must include in its public report on EIS programs under this subrule the most recently available performance data on each EIS program and the date the data were collected.

b. State performance report. The state must report annually to the Secretary on the performance of the state under the state's performance plan.

c. Privacy. The state must not report to the public or the Secretary any information on performance that would result in the disclosure of personally identifiable information about individual children, or where the available data are insufficient to yield statistically reliable information.
