

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Jewell, Philo Milton Senator Jewell, Philo Milton - Represented Howard and Winneshiek Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 1 Jan 1848 Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio

2. Marriage (s) date place

Name Livingston 1875

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business

B. Civic responsibilities Mason; Knights of Pythias; Woodmen Lodges

C. Profession Physician

4. Church membership

5. Sessions served 32nd 33rd General Assemblies 1907, 1909 - House of Representatives

6. Public Offices 34th, 35th General Assemblies 1911, 1913 - Senate

A. Local Winneshiek County Coroner - 2 terms

B. State

C. National Appointed in 1897 as a member of the U. S. Board of Pensions examining surgeons for Winneshiek County

7. Death 8 Jan 1914 Decatur, Iowa; Lurial Phelps Cemetery, Decatur, Iowa

8. Children Holly L.; Effie L.; M. Dana; Myron R.; Gladys M.; Royal M.; Names Marguerite - all preceded their father in death except Effie L.; Gladys and M. Dana

9. Names of parents Holly and Margaret Jewell

10. Education Attended Mount Carroll Seminary, Carroll County, Illinois

11. Degrees University of Michigan - began studying medicine in 1870, graduating in 1873

12. Other applicable information Republican
- In 1856 he moved with his parents to Carroll County, Illinois where he spent his boyhood
- For several years he practiced medicine at Lyndon, Illinois and in 1880 he and his family moved to Winnebuck County, settling at Ossian
- In 1899 they moved to Decorah where he continued practicing medicine and in later years he associated with his son Dr. M. David Jewell.

haven't received any seeds beeches from our friend Giftlibert Haugen lately.

Progressive party will be a factor in the elections this It will gain control of or secure many seats in this year is hardly to be ted. The party is not yet two old. But a vigorous campaign year will put it into good con-for the presidential cam-of 1916.

Iowa state department of tuberculosis estimates that nearly 100,000 was spent last year in United States for the treatment prevention of tuberculosis. The y was well invested. The an-tuberculosis campaign is educatthe public in the improvement itary conditions generally.
only is tuberculosis decreased,
the general health is improved campaign.

US FOR STATE AUDITOR

O. Preus Announces Candida-for Republican Nomination for Auditor.

O. Preus, son of Rev. and K Preus of Decorah, has ced himself as a candidate Republican nomination for auditor of Minnesota. His nt is Rines, who was Ren leader in the last state ly.

Republican primary in Min-this year is to be largely een governor Eber-r ends on one side enemies on the other. Ebera candidate for renomination ncipal opponent is the pre-auditor, Iverson. If Ebcan be renominated and rein 1914, he will be in osition to become a canfor the United States in 1916 to succeed Moses

Preus' candidacy for the nomination is calculated to erhart. Preus' present po-state insurance commissioner he was appointed by Eb-pays several hundred dol-
a year than state auditor.
erhart should be re-elected and Preus should be elect-it is not unlikely that it Eberhart for senator and r governor in 1916.

Return Home.

nd Mrs. Jas. Noble, W. H.
nd Clifford Thompson, re-Wednesday to Bronson, Kan accompanied the remains Noble to this city for bury were the guests of their frs. R. J. Novotny, while ho Dreams Ahead.

uld we do in this world of t not for the dreams ahead na are mixed with the ming flowers,

tter h path we tread.

of was his golden goal,
ing far into the years,
he climbs with a hopeful

lternate smiles and tears.

am at up,
the storms of a ceaseless lips are pressed to the

SENATOR P. M. JEWELL

Senator Jewell Passes.

Senator Philo Milton Jewell passed away Thursday morning, Jan. 8, 1914, at 3:15, at his home on east Main street in this city. Mr. Jewell had been in poor health more than a year and had submitted to two operations at the hospital in Rochester. Following the latter one, which was unsuccessful, his life was despaired of and death ensued as a result.

Philo Milton Jewell was born at Mount Vernon, in Knox County, Ohio, Jan. 1, 1848. In 1856 he moved with his parents, Holly and Margaret Jewell, to Carroll county, Illinois. He spent his boyhood there on a farm and attended Mount Carroll Seminary. In 1870 he began the study of medicine in the university of Michigan and was graduated from that institution in 1873.

In 1875 he united in marriage with Miss Nama Livingston and to them were born seven children, Holly, L., Effie L., M. Dana, Mayme R., Gladys M., Royal M., Nama Marjorie. Of these only three survive, Misses Effie and Gladys and Dr. M. Dana Jewell, all of this city. The deceased is survived also by his widow.

For several years Dr. Jewell followed his profession at Lyndon, Ill. In 1880 he and family moved to Winneshiek county, taking up their residence at Ossian. In 1899, they moved to Decorah and here he has practiced ever since, in later years having associated with him his son, Dr. M. D. Jewell

In 1897 Dr Jewell was appointed member of the United States board of pension examining surgeons for Winneshiek county. Two years later he was elected coroner of this county, which position he filled two terms. In 1906 he was elected state representative and in 1908 he was re-elected. In 1910 he was chosen state senator for the Winneshiek-Howard senatorial district and yet had a year of his term to serve.

The deceased was a Mason, and a member of the Knights of Pythias and Woodmen lodges.

The funeral was held Saturday, Jan. 10, at 10 o'clock, from the residence of Mrs. W. H. Willett officiating. Burial was made in the Phelps cemetery. Among those in attendance from away were the senate

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Democrats Enter Campaign With Confidence. Business Outlook Excellent.

[By J. K. Dougherty.]

Washington, D. C. January 10. Special Correspondence.—Senator Cummins' Grant Club speech has been read closely in Washington as it was thought it would sound an issue on which the Republicans could base their campaign this year, but it proved a disappointment. It offered nothing constructive. There was a great deal of explanation of why the Senator's plan for a special convention this year was voted down by the national committee, a note of regret that his former progressive followers had placed a candidate in the field against him, and a great deal of criticism of the Democratic party's legislative record.

National Committeeman Wade and State Chairman Reed have made it plain that they will welcome any Republican plan of campaign based on opposition to the record of President Wilson and the Democratic Congress. They believe that the Democratic party can well go before the country on the achievements of the first year of the Democratic administration, when for the first time the demands of the people for tariff reduction were complied with, and when banking and currency reforms demanded for a generation were enacted into law.

Some of the more far-seeing Republican editors already are protesting against continuing the effort to base a campaign on criticism of the Democrats, or by harping on the calamity issue. The Sioux City Journal editorially enters such a protest. The Journal says there is no excuse for predicting commercial depression. The new currency and financial system, it says, is admitted even by unfriendly critics to be a great improvement over the one that is to be abandoned. The influence of the currency law it already sees at work exerting a tremendous influence for commercial uplift. The Journal says:

"In view of all these circumstances, Republicans who are inclined to cry calamity and criticize the administration should rest their voices and try to think up some legitimate

The Wilson trust policy has been found to be constructive. Already the Union Pacific merger has been broken up. The Bell Telephone company has divorced itself from the Western Union Telegraph company and has paved the way for telephone competition by opening its toll lines to independent telephone companies. Negotiations are in progress which will break up the New Haven railroad's control of New England railroad, trolley and steamship transportation. Interlocking directorates are being broken up as the result of the administration's firm stand. More progress already has been made in the solution of the trust problem in the last year than during the years while the trust evil has been growing. The final permanent solution of the trust problem is an achievement Democrats believe President Wilson's administration will have to its credit.

A Healthy Growing Bank.
The directors of the Decorah State Bank held their annual meeting January 6th and elected the following officers—for the ensuing year:—

- President, R. A. Engbertson.
  - Cashier, E. E. Berg.
  - Ass't. Cashiers, A. R. Johnson and E. R. Haines.
  - Bookkeeper, Ruby R. Engbretson.
- This bank has had a very notable healthy, steady growth since its organization about seven years ago. The past year was the most prosperous of its existence. A seven per cent. dividend was declared and besides money out of the year's profits was set aside to anticipate various coming expenses, such as taxes, etc.

The footings are somewhat over $280,000, which gives evidence of the soundness and popularity of the management.

IOWA PROGRESSIVES ORGANIZE

New Party Will Put Up Full State and County Tickets. $2,000 Raised.

The conference of the Progressive party in Des Moines Jan. 8th and 9th put at rest all doubts as to what the new party will do in Iowa this year. It will nominate a candidate for United States senator, a complete state ticket, and a full ticket in every county. That was the program announced and some $2,000 was pledged to keep organizers in the field perfecting the arrangements for a half campaign from Allamakee county to Fremont.

Bainbridge Colby, the chief speaker, said "The Republican party is as dead as Caesar. . . . There is but one honorable and logical course for the honorable men of the Republican party and that is the open and courageous identification of themselves with the party that best expresses their ideals."

Speaking of senators Cummins and Borah, and governor Hadley, he said that they as men of intelligence know that the Progressive party will prevail eventually. "But," he said, "as men inoculated with the virus of office-holding and by ambitions that can be gratified only by election to office, the eventual triumph of a party is not enough. They want its immediate success expressed in terms of personal promotion."

What the plan of campaign is locally we do not know. N. H. Adams

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Taken from the Decorah Journal and Press of Wednesday, January 23, 1884.

Ed Curtin will help to "do something" in the new Citizens Savings Bank. Good for Ed.

Otto Solberg has opened a skating rink in the hall over store.

The K. P. lodge members will go down to Postville tomorrow to install the officers of a lodge recently organized.

The Decorah Manufacturing Company are just now filling an order for Joel Dayton for his improved feed steamer.

Another Day has been added this month, in the shape of a two pound daughter, which was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Day on Monday.

New Adams and his big business are bound to stick in Decorah. Just now he is anchored to the large eastern addition of building to the street, lest a sprig of freshet take him unawares and wip it off to parts unknown.

New York Clipper—"Miss Annie Rainford and Carl Hegner, Neff's Chicago Comedy Company were married at Mankato, Ka., 122." The happy groom is an Decorah boy. He will be remembered as the leading piccolo player in our prize drum corps. He left here about a year ago as a member of Edwin Stuart's dramatic company.

Prof. Larzon of Luther College is at La Crosse this week, in attendance at the Norwegian Lutheran Synod, which is in session.

Luther to Meet Old Rivals.

On Monday evening, Jan. 12, Luther meets St. Olaf in basket ball. This should be a great treat to all lovers of sports and moreover will be the only opportunity to see these two foes meet this year, school closes too early for baseball. The St. Olaf quilt comes fully terminated to win and wipe out the inglorious defeat of last year, which they did not get a field basket. They have four veterans from last year's squad and with plenty of material to pick from they should be a foe worthy of our steel. They have a strong team from Minnesota, and although defeated held the "Varsity" to a close score. They were highly praised by the Minnesota Daily, as well as by the city papers.

Luther is just as fully determined to win as the visitors, and are working hard. With the return of Loftness the team will be strengthened considerably, especially St. Olaf who fear him more than the whole remainder of the team. Luther is in good condition and by Monday evening will be prepared for anything.

As this is the biggest game of the season a large crowd is expected and a greater seating capacity is arranged for, so there will be seats for every one. Next Monday evening, Jan. 19 at the College Gymnasium. A great game is guaranteed. Admission 35c.

How to Get What You Want.

L. E. Katterfeld of Chicago will lecture on the above subject at the Baptist church Saturday evening, Jan. 17, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Katterfeld is a forceful speaker and his arguments carry conviction.

senate in 1916 to succeed Moses Clapp. Preus' candidacy for the auditor nomination is calculated to help Eberhart. Preus' present position, state insurance commissioner to which he was appointed by Eberhart, pays several hundred dollars more a year than state auditor. If Eberhart should be re-elected Preus and Preus should be elected auditor, it is not unlikely that it will be Eberhart for senator and Preus for governor in 1916.

Return Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble, W. H. Noble and Clifford Thompson, returned Wednesday to Bronson, Kan. having accompanied the remains of Roy Noble to this city for burial. They were the guests of their sister, Mrs. R. J. Novotny, while here.

The Dreams Ahead.

What would we do in this world of ours,
Were it not for the dreams ahead
For thorns are mixed with the blooming flowers,
No matter which path we tread.
And each of us has his golden goal,
Stretching far into the years,
And ever he climbs with a hopeful soul,
With alternate smiles and tears.
That dream ahead is what holds him up,
Thro' the storms of a ceaseless fight,
When his lips are pressed to the worm-wood's cup,
And clouds shut out the light.
To some it's a dream of high estate,
To some it's a dream of wealth,
To some it's a dream of a truce
with Fate,
A constant search for health.
To some it's a dream of home and wife,
To some it's a crown above,
The dreams ahead are what make each life,
The dreams—and faith—and Loye

Sheehan Opera Co.

Madame LeBrun, who sings the prima donna roles in the Sheehan Opera Co. which comes to the Appleton theatre tonight and Joseph F. Sheehan, were both members of Henry W. Savage's Company 12 years ago. Since then the Madame has spent eight years in Europe and her return has brought back to America the most talented prima donna this country has produced in recent years. Mr. Sheehan has consistently stuck to English opera and ideals and is recognized as the greatest of all American tenors.

Dorcas Elects Officers.

The Dorcas Society of the United Lutheran church have elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—
Pres., Theodora Nesheim.
Vice Pres. Clara Blagwedt.
Treas., Ruby Holton.
Secretary, Lottie Alstad.
Auditing Committee: Lili Riise and Stella Olson.

city of Des Moines was graduated from that institution in 1873.
In 1875 he united in marriage with Miss Nama Livingston and to them were born seven children, Holly, L., Effie L., M. Dana, Mayme R. Gladys M., Royal M., Nama Marjorie. Of these only three survive, Misses Effie and Gladys and Dr. M. Dana Jewell, all of this city. The deceased is survived also by his widow.
For several years Dr. Jewell followed his profession at Lyndon, Ill. In 1880 he and family moved to Winneshiek county, taking up their residence at Ossian. In 1899, they moved to Decorah and here he has practiced ever since, in later years having associated with him his son, Dr. M. D. Jewell
In 1897 Dr Jewell was appointed member of the United States board of pension examining surgeons for Winneshiek county. Two years later he was elected coroner of this county, which position he filled two terms. In 1906 he was elected state representative and in 1908 he was re-elected. In 1910 he was chosen state senator for the Winneshiek-Howard senatorial district and yet had a year of his term to serve.
The deceased was a Mason, and a member of the Knights of Pythias and Woodmen lodges.
The funeral was held Saturday, Jan. 10th at the home, Rev. Mahlen Willett officiating. Burial was made in the Phelps cemetery. Among those in attendance from away were the senate committee, senators Quigley, and Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Livingston of Corydon, Ia., Mrs. Custer and Mrs. Talcott sisters, from Chariton Ia., Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Livingston of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Latho of Ridgeway, Drs. Hennessy and Horton of Calmar, and the deceased's three brothers, Drs. H. E. Jewell of Coon Rapids, Ia., and T. M. Jewell of La Crosse, Wis., and Mr. H. Earl Jewell of Magnolia, Ill..

Senator Jewell was a man of decided convictions, of notable firmness, and unquestioned honesty. He practiced medicine with an honorable uprightness most worthy of emulation. In politics he was a Republican and, as in all his other relations with his fellowmen was outspoken and candid. At Des Moines he had an enviable reputation for conscientious, high minded effort to serve his constituents and the state of Iowa to the best of his ability. The Journal always opposed senator Jewell in politics, still the writer has always been moved by his candor and his straightforward, honorable, methods to hold him in the highest esteem as a gentleman.
The community in general feels a deep loss and a genuine sympathy for the bereaved widow and children, upon whom the loss falls most heavily.

Fire Meeting Tonight.

The Decorah fire department will hold a meeting in the city hall tonight at eight o'clock. All good firemen are expected to attend.

aggressive followers had placed a candidate in the field against him, and a great deal of criticism of the Democratic party's legislative record.
National Committeeman Wade and State Chairman Reed have made it plain that they will welcome any Republican plan of campaign based on opposition to the record of President Wilson and the Democratic Congress. They believe that the Democratic party can well go before the country on the achievements of the first year of the Democratic administration, when for the first time the demands of the people for tariff reduction were complied with, and when banking and currency reforms demanded for a generation were enacted into law.
Some of the more far-seeing Republican editors already are protesting against continuing the effort to base a campaign on criticism of the Democrats, or by harping on the calamity issue. The Sioux City Journal editorially enters such a protest. The Journal says there is no excuse for predicting commercial depression. The new currency and financial system, it says, is admitted even by unfriendly critics to be a great improvement over the one that is to be abandoned. The influence of the currency law it already sees at work exerting a tremendous influence for commercial uplift. The Journal says:

"In view of all these circumstances Republicans who are inclined to cry calamity and criticize the administration should rest their voices and try to think up some legitimate issue on which to base partisan argument during the coming congressional campaign. There is nothing more ludicrous than a calamity howler in times that are good and growing better."
The Chamber of Commerce of the United States strikes an optimistic note in a review of the business conditions at the close of 1913. The country's mercantile business, it said, was in good volume. The foreign trade was never better. Where the complete breakdown of the nation's foreign trade was predicted by the partisan press following the enactment of the new tariff law, the first year of its operation the Chamber of Commerce said, showed the year's exports breaking all records. The imports, on the other hand, were less than those of 1912. Another view of the business situation was given by L. E. Stevens, president of the Century Savings bank of Des Moines, president of the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce, and ranking high enough in financial circles to be prominently mentioned for membership on the new federal reserve board. Mr. Stevens looks for the dawn of an unequalled era of prosperity to come with the opening of the new year. "I think the sentiment created by the final adoption of the tariff and currency bills will be responsible for greatly improved business conditions in 1914," he said.
Another feature which has added to the restoration of business confidence is the good result attending the firm stand taken by the administration on the trust question.

New Party Will Put Up Full State and County Tickets. $2,000 Raised.

The conference of the Progressive party in Des Moines Jan. 8th and 9th put at rest all doubts as to what the new party will do in Iowa this year. It will nominate a candidate for United States senator, a complete state ticket, and a full ticket in every county. That was the program announced and some $2,000 was pledged to keep organizers in the field perfecting the arrangements for a half campaign from Allamakee county to Fremont.

Bainbridge Colby, the chief speaker, said "The Republican party is as dead as Caesar. There is but one honorable and logical course for the honorable men of the Republican party and that is the open and courageous identification of themselves with the party that best expresses their ideals."

Speaking of senators Cummins and Foran, and governor Hadley, he said that they as men of intelligence know that the Progressive party will prevail eventually. "But," he said, "as men inoculated with the virus of office-holding and by ambitions that can be gratified only by election to office, the eventual triumph of a party is not enough. They want its immediate success expressed in terms of personal promotion."

What the plan of campaign is locally we do not know. N. H. Adams a Progressive county chairman for Winneshiek county, and Dr. A. J. Swezey of Decorah is district committeeman. Other Progressives prominent in the activities of the new party in 1912 reside in Decorah, and no doubt definite and substantial plans for a vigorous campaign soon will be made.

W. R. O. Installation.

Following the serving of supper Col. Hughes W. R. O. No. 58 held installation services, Mrs. Lizzie C. Baker, P. J. V. Pres. being installing officer. The following named ladies were installed into their respective stations:

- Pres., Della G. Miller
- S. V. Pres., Phoebe Lincoln.
- J. V. Pres., Lena Bollinger.
- Secretary, Jessie McKay.
- Treasurer, Jennie Trezinski.
- Chaplain, Anna Cadwell.
- Conductor, Theo. Engbretson.
- Guard, Mary E. Linn.
- Ast. Cond., Mary Hillman.
- Ast. Guard, Minnie Abbey.
- Press Corrs., Margaret Draper.
- Patriotic Ins., Leticia Christian.
- Musician, Ada Hard.
- 1st Color Bearer, Julia Barth.
- 2d Color Bearer, Selma Gilbertson.
- 3d Color Bearer, Anna Lee.
- 4th Color Bearer, Belle Hovey.
- Delegate, Margaret E. Draper.
- Alternate, Edith Hausworth.

For Sale.

40 breeding ewes, all young and good quality. 1 black mare, in foal 10 years old. 1 black mare, 4 years old. 1 gelding, 4 years old.
P. J. Carolan 2-3.

these two foes meet school closes too ear The St. Olaf quint terminated to win an inglorious defeat of they did not get a They have four vet years squad and will material to pick fro be a foe worthy of o have already played Minnesota, and alth held the "Varsity" t They were highly p Minnesota Daily, as city papers.

Luther is just as f to win as the visitors ing hard. With the ness the team will b considerably, especia why fear him more t remainder of the te in good condition a evening will be pre tiling.

As this is the bl the season a large c ed and a greater s is arranged for, so s seats for every one. evening, Jan. 19 at Gymnasium. A great anted. Admission 3

How to Get What

L. E. Katterfeld c lecture on the above Baptist church Sat Jan. 17 at 8 o'clock. Mr. Katterfeld is a er and his argument tion. The local Soc whose auspices this h assure us that this i one of the best ever Decorah.
Come and hear church, Saturday eve

Recipes by Journal

[The Journal] will week a recipe written readers. Ladies are send in any recipe highly, whether they not. Names and ad be signed to every re "There is no high that which tends tow prement of human —Henry V

Burnt Sugar

1 cup white sugar
½ cup water
Boil until burnt bl slowly ¼ cup boiling cook until it is like m

Cake Par

1½ cups sugar
½ cup butter
Yolks of two eggs
1 cup sweet milk
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon burnt s
Beat 5 minutes, ad the two eggs beaten
Filling

2 cups sugar
½ cup sweet cream
Butter size of an e
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoons burnt s
Mrs. Johd Lun
Bx. 12