8 court having charge of the probate proceedings in the county shall 9 appoint three trustees, residents of said county, who shall have charge

CHAPTER 1.

LANDLORD'S LIEN.

SECTION 6502. Landlord's lien.

1 A landlord shall have a lien for his rent upon all crops grown 2 upon the leased premises, and upon any other personal property of 3 the tenant which has been used or kept thereon during the term and 4 not exempt from execution, for the period of one year after a year's 5 rent, or the rent of a shorter period, falls due; but such lien shall not 6 in any case continue more than six months after the expiration of the 7 term. In the event that a stock of goods or merchandise, or a part 8 thereof, subject to a landlord's lien, shall be sold under judicial proc-9 ess, order of court, or by an assignee under a general assignment for 10 benefit of creditors, the lien of the landlord shall not be enforceable 11 against said stock or portion thereof, except for rent due for the term 12 already expired, and for rent to be paid for the use of demised prem-13 ises for a period not exceeding six months after date of sale, any agree-14 ment of the parties to the contrary notwithstanding.

[C., '51, § 1270; R., '60, § 2302; C., '73, § 2017; C., '97, § 2992.]

SEC. 6503. Attachment.

1 The lien may be effected by the commencement of an action, with-2 in the period above prescribed, for the rent alone, in which action the 3 landlord will be entitled to a writ of attachment, upon filing with the 4 clerk or justice a verified petition, stating that the action is commenced 5 to recover rent accrued within one year previous thereto upon prem-6 ises described in the petition; and the procedure thereunder shall be 7 the same, as nearly as may be, as in other cases of attachment, except 8 no bond shall be required. If a lien for rent is given in a written 9 lease or other instrument upon additional property, it may be enforced 10 in the same manner and in the same action.

[C., '51, § 1271; R., '60, § 2303; C., '73, § 2018; C., '97,

 4 ment; and the property claimed in such action may, under the writ 5 therefor, be taken from the officer who seized it, when he has no other 6 claim to hold it than that derived from the writ. The indorsement of 7 a levy on the property, made upon the process by the officer holding

8 it shall be a sufficient taking of the property to sustain an action 9 against the party who sued out the writ.

[R., '60, § 2770; C., '73, § 2575; C., '97, § 3490.]

SEC. 6505. Sale of crops held by landlord's lien.

1 If any tenant of farm lands shall, with intent to defraud, sell, 2 conceal, or in any manner dispose of any of the grain, or other annual 3 products thereof upon which there is a landlord's lien for unpaid rent, 4 without the written consent of the landlord, he shall be guilty of larceny 5 and punished accordingly.

[S., '13, § 4852-a.]

SEC. 6506. Action barred by payment of rent.

1 The payment of the rent for the lands upon which such grain
2 or other annual products were raised at or before the time the same 3 falls due, shall be a bar to any prosecution under the preceding section 4 and no prosecution shall be commenced until such rent be wholly due.

[S., '13, § 4852-b.]

CHAPTER 2.

5 grading any land or lot by virtue of any contract with the owner, his 6 agent, trustee, contractor or subcontractor, upon complying with the 7 provisions of this chapter, shall have for his labor done, or material, 8 machinery or fixtures furnished, a lien upon such building, erection 9 or improvement and upon the land belonging to such owner on which 10 the same is situated, or upon the land or lot so graded, to secure pay-

1 No person shall be entitled to a mechanic's lien who, at the time
 2 of making or executing a contract for furnishing material or perform-3 ing labor, or during the progress of the work, erection, building or 4 other improvement, shall take any collateral security on such contract.
 5 But after the completion of such work, and when the contractor or 6 other person shall have become entitled to claim or establish a lien, 7 the taking of such or other security shall not affect the right thereto, 8 unless such new security shall, by express agreement, be given and 9 received in lieu of such lien.

[C., '51, § 1009; R., '60, § 1845; C., '73, § 2129; C., '97, § 3088.]

SEC. 6511. Extent of lien—leasehold interest.

 6 the forfeiture of such lease for the nonpayment of rent, or for non-7 compliance with any of the other conditions therein, shall not forfeit 8 or impair such liens upon such improvements, but the same may be 9 sold to satisfy such liens, and be moved away by the purchaser within 10 thirty days after the sale thereof.

[R., '60, § 1854; C., '73, § 2140; C., '97, § 3090.]

SEC. 6512. Lien on work of internal improvement.

 6 equipment belonging to any such railroad, canal, viaduct or other 7 company; all of which, except the easement or right of way, shall con-

[C., '73, § 2132; C., '97, § 3091.]

SEC. 6513. Filing statement.

 9 must be filed by a principal contractor within ninety days, and by a 10 subcontractor within sixty days, from the date on which the last of 11 the material shall have been furnished or the last of the labor was 13 defeat the lien, except against purchasers or incumbrances in good 14 faith, without notice, whose rights accrued after the sixty or ninety 15 days, as the case may be, and before any claim for the lien was filed;

16 but where a lien is claimed upon a railway, the subcontractor shall 17 have sixty days from the last day of the month in which such labor 18 was done or material furnished within which to file his claim therefor.

[R., '60, § 1851; C., '73, § 2137; C., '97, § 3092; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 1.]

SEC. 6514. Subcontractor's lien—liability of owner to original contractor—discharge of lien.

1 No owner of any building or structure upon which a subcontractor's 2 mechanics' lien may be filed under the provisions of the preceding 3 section shall be liable to an action by the original contractor for compensation 4 for any building, structure or other improvement upon land until the 5 expiration of sixty days from the completion of said building, structure 6 or improvement, unless the original contractor shall furnish to the owner 7 of said building, structure or improvement receipts and waivers of claims 8 for mechanics' liens, signed by all persons who performed any labor or 9 furnished any material, machinery or fixtures for said building, structure 10 or improvement, provided there be such persons, or unless the original contractor 11 shall furnish to the owner a good and sufficient bond to be approved by 12 said owner, conditioned that said owner shall be held harmless from any 13 loss which he may sustain by reason of the filing of subcontractor's 14 mechanics' liens. Should the owner pay to the original contractor any part 15 of the contract price of such building, structure or improvement before the 16 lapse of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of subcontractor's 17 mechanics' liens, he will still be liable to said subcontractor for the full 18 value of any material, machinery or fixtures furnished, or labor performed 19 upon said building, structure or improvement, provided said subcontractor 20 file his mechanics' lien within the time provided by law for the filing 21 of subcontractor's mechanics' liens. The lien of a subcontractor may be 22 vacated and discharged at any time by the owner, principal contractor 23 or intermediate subcontractor filing with the clerk of the district court 24 of the county in which the property is located a sufficient bond in twice 25 the amount of the sum for which the claim for the lien is filed, with 26 surety or sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the district court 27 in which said lien is filed, conditioned for the payment of any sum for 28 which the claimant may obtain judgment upon the demand for which such 29 statement or account has been filed. Nothing in this section shall be 30 construed to require the owner to pay a greater amount or at an earlier 31 date than is provided in his contract with the principal contractor, unless 32 said owner pays a part or all of the contract price to the original contractor 33 before the expiration of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of 34 subcontractor's mechanics' lien.

[R., '60, § 1847; C., '73, § 2131; C., '97, § 3093; S., '13, § 3093; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 1.]

SEC. 6515. Subcontractor's claim after sixty days.

1 A subcontractor may, at any time after the expiration of said
 2 sixty days, file his claim for a lien with the clerk of the district court, 3 and give written notice thereof to the owner, or his agent or trustee, 4 which notice may be served by any person, and if the party to be served, 5 his agent, or trustee, is out of the county wherein the property

6 is situated, a return of that fact by the person charged with making 7 such service shall constitute sufficient service from and after the time 8 it was filed with the clerk, and from and after the service of such 9 notice his lien shall have the same force and effect, and be prosecuted 10 or vacated by bond, as if filed within the sixty days, but shall be en-11 forced against the property or upon the bond, if given by the owner, 12 only to the extent of the balance due from the owner to the contractor 13 at the time of the service of such notice upon him, his agent or trustee; 14 but if in such case the bond is given by the contractor, or person con-15 tracting with the subcontractor filing the claim for a lien, such bond 16 shall be enforced to the full extent of the amount found due the sub-17 contractor.

[C., '73, § 2133; C., '97, § 3094; S. S., '15, § 3094; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 1.]

SEC. 6516. Priority.

1 The liens provided for by this chapter shall take priority as 2 follows:

3 1. As between persons claiming mechanics' liens upon the same 4 property, according to the order of the filing of the statements and 5 accounts therefor.

6 2. They shall take priority of all garnishments of the owner for 7 the contract debts, whether made prior or subsequent to the commence-8 ment of the furnishing of the material or performance of the labor, 9 without regard to the date of filing the claim for such lien.

10 3. They shall be preferred to all other liens and incumbrances 11 which may attach to or upon such buildings, erections or other im-12 provements, and to the land upon which they are situated, made sub-13 sequently to the commencement of said buildings, erections or other 14 improvements, but the rights of purchasers, incumbrancers, and other 15 persons who acquire interests in good faith and for a valuable con-16 sideration, and without notice, after the expiration of the time for 17 filing claims for liens, shall be prior to the claims of all contractors 18 or subcontractors who have not, at the dates such rights and interests 19 were acquired, filed their claims for such liens.

20 4. The liens for the material or work aforesaid, including those 21 for additions, repairs and betterments, shall attach to the buildings, 22 erections or improvements for which they were furnished or done, in 23 preference to any prior lien, incumbrance or mortgage upon the land 24 upon which such erection, building or improvement belongs, or is 25 erected or put. If such material was furnished or labor performed 26 in the erection or construction of an original and independent building, 27 erection or other improvement commenced since the attaching or exe-28 cution of such prior lien, incumbrance or mortgage, the court may, 29 in its discretion, order and direct such building, erection or improve-30 ment to be sold separately under execution, and the purchaser may 31 remove the same in such reasonable time as the court may fix. But 32 if the court shall find that such building should not be sold separately, 33 it shall take an account of and ascertain the separate values of the 34 land, and the erection, building or other improvement, and order the 35 whole sold, and distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure to 36 the prior mortgage or other lien priority upon the land, and to the 37 mechanics' lien priority upon the building, erection or other improve-38 ment. If the material furnished or labor performed was for additions 39 to, repairs of, or betterments upon buildings, erections or other im-

40 improvements, the court shall take an accounting of the values before 41 such material was furnished or labor performed, and the enhanced 42 value caused by such additions, repairs or betterments, and, upon the 43 sale of the premises, distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure 44 to the prior mortgagee or lienholder priority upon the land and im-45 provements as they existed prior to the attaching of the mechanic's 46 lien, and to the mechanic's lienholder priority upon the enhanced value 47 caused by such additions, repairs or betterments. In case the prem-48 ises do not sell for more than sufficient to pay off the prior mortgage 49 or other lien, the proceeds shall be applied on the prior mortgage or 50 other liens.

[R., '60, §§ 1853, 1855; C., '73, §§ 2139, 2141; C., '97, § 3095.]

SEC. 6517. Filing of statements.

1 The clerk of the court shall indorse upon every account or state-2 ment filed in his office the date and hour of its filing, and make an 3 abstract thereof in a book kept for that purpose and properly indexed, 4 containing the date and hour of its filing, the name of the person filing 5 the same, the amount of the lien, the name of the person against whom 6 it is filed, and a description of the property to be charged therewith.

[R., '60, § 1852; C., '73, § 2138; C., '97, § 3100.]

SEC. 6518. Acknowledgment of satisfaction.

1 Whenever a lien has been claimed by filing a statement therefor
 2 in the clerk's office, and is afterwards paid, the claimant shall acknowl-3 edge satisfaction thereof upon the proper book in such office, or other-4 wise in writing, and, if he neglects to do so for thirty days after 5 demand in writing, he shall forfeit and pay twenty-five dollars to the 6 owner or contractor, and be liable to any person injured to the extent 7 of his injury.

[R., '60, §§ 1867-1869; C., '73, § 2145; C., '97, § 3101.]

SEC. 6519. Action to enforce lien.

1 Any person having filed a claim for a lien by virtue of this chapter 2 may at once bring an action to enforce the same, or upon any bond 3 given in lieu thereof, in the district or superior court of the county 4 wherein the property is situated.

[R., '60, § 1856; C., '73, § 2142; C., '97, § 3098.]

SEC. 6520. Place of bringing action.

1 An action to enforce a mechanic's lien shall be brought in the 2 county in which the property to be affected, or some part thereof, is 3 situated.

[C., '73, § 2578; C., '97, § 3493.]

SEC. 6521. Kind of action.

1 An action to enforce a mechanic's lien shall be by equitable pro-2 ceedings, and no other cause of action shall be joined therewith.

[C., '51, § 985; R., '60, § 4183; C., '73, § 2510; C., '97, § 3429.]

SEC. 6522. Limitation on action.

1 Actions to enforce a mechanic's lien may be brought within two 2 years from the expiration of the thirty or ninety days, as the case

3 may be, for filing the claim as provided in the law relative to me-4 chanics' liens and not afterwards.

[C., '51, § 984; R., '60, § 1865; C., '73, § 2529; C., '97, § 3447;
S., '13, § 3447; 37 G. A., ch. 63, § 1.]

SEC. 6523. Demand for bringing suit—assignment.

1 Upon the written demand of the owner, his agent or contractor, 2 served on the person claiming the lien, requiring him to commence 3 action to enforce such lien, such action shall be commenced within 4 thirty days thereafter, or the lien shall be forfeited, and all benefits
5 derived therefrom. Mechanics' liens are assignable, and shall follow 6 the assignment of the debt for which they are claimed.

[C., '73, § 2143; C., '97, § 3099.]

CHAPTER 3.

MINERS' LIEN.

SECTION 6524. Liens of miners.

1 Every laborer or miner who shall perform labor in opening, de-2 veloping or operating any coal mine shall have a lien upon all the 3 property of the person, firm or corporation owning or operating such 4 mine, and used in the construction or operation thereof, including real 5 estate and personal property, for the value of such labor, to the full 6 amount thereof, to be secured and enforced as mechanics' liens are.

[C., '97, § 3105.]

CHAPTER 4.

HOTEL AND INN KEEPER'S LIEN.

SECTION 6525. Hotel and inn keepers—liability—lien—satisfac-

1 Keepers of hotels, inns and eating houses and steamboat owners, 2 who shall provide and keep therein a good and sufficient vault or safe 3 for the deposit of money, jewels and other valuables, and shall provide 4 a safe and commodious place for the baggage, clothing and other prop-5 erty belonging to their guests and patrons, and keep posted up in a 6 conspicuous place in the office or other public room, and in the guests' 7 apartments therein, printed notices, stating that such places for safe 8 deposit are provided for the use and accommodation of the inmates 9 thereof, shall not be liable for the loss of any money, jewels, valuables, 10 baggage or other property not deposited with them, unless such loss 11 shall occur through the fault or negligence of such landlord or keeper, 12 or steamboat owner, his agent, servant or employee, but nothing herein 13 contained shall apply to such reasonable amount of money, nor to such 14 jewels, baggage, valuables or other property as is usual, fit and proper 15 for any such guests to have and retain in their apartments or about 16 their persons. Hotel, inn, rooming house or eating house keepers 17 shall have a lien upon, and may take and retain possession of, all bag-

18 gage and other property belonging to or under the control of their 19 guests or patrons, which may be in such hotel, inn, rooming house or 20 eating house, for the value of their accommodations and keep, and 21 for all money paid for or advanced to, and for such extras and other 22 things as shall be furnished such guest or patron, and such property 23 so retained shall not be exempt from attachment or execution to the 24 amount of the reasonable charges of such hotel, inn, rooming house 25 or eating house keeper, against such guest or patron, and the costs of 26 enforcing the lien thereon. The innkeeper or hotel keeper shall retain 27 such baggage and other property upon which he has a lien for a period 28 of ninety days, at the expiration of which time, if such lien is not 29 satisfied, he may sell such baggage and other property at public auc-

31 newspaper of general circulation in the county where the inn or hotel 32 is situated, and also by mailing a copy of such notice addressed to said 33 guest or boarder at the place of residence registered by him in the 34 register of such inn or hotel. After satisfying the lien and any costs 35 that may accrue, any residue remaining shall, on demand within six 36 months, be paid to such guest or boarder, and if not so demanded 37 within six months from date of such sale, such residue shall be depos-

2 stock for hire shall have a lien on all stock and property coming into 3 their hands, as such, for their charges and the expense of keeping, 4 when received from the owner or any other person, subject to all prior 5 liens of record. Any claimant of the property may release the lien 6 by tendering the party in possession a bond, in a penal sum of three 7 times the amount for which the lien is claimed, signed by two sureties, 8 residents of the county, who shall justify as is required in other cases, 9 and conditioned to pay any judgment the lienholder may obtain for 10 such charges. If such charges and expenses are not sooner paid, the 11 lienholder may sell said property at public auction, after giving to 12 the owner or claimant ten days' notice in writing of the time and 13 place of such sale, if found within the county, and also by posting writ-14 ten notices thereof in three public places in the township where said 15 stock was kept or let. And out of the proceeds of such sale he shall 16 pay all of said charges and expenses of keeping said stock, together 17 with the costs and expenses of said sale, and the balance, if any, shall 18 be paid to the owner or claimant of said property.

 2 and commission merchant, express company, carrier or bailee for hire 3 shall be subject to a lien for the lawful charges thereon for the trans-4 portation and storage thereof, or charges and services thereon or in 5 connection therewith; and if any such property shall remain in the 6 possession, unclaimed, of any of the persons named in this section for 7 three months, with the just charges thereon due and unpaid, such 8 person shall first give notice of the amount of the charges thereon to 9 the owner or consignee thereof, if his whereabouts is known, if not, 10 he shall go before the nearest justice of the peace and make an affi-11 davit, stating the time and place where such property was received, 12 the marks or brands by which the same is designated, if any, and, if 13 not, then such other description as may best answer the purpose of 14 indicating what the property is, and the probable value of the same, 15 and to whom consigned, also the charges paid thereon, accompanied 16 by the original receipt for such charges and by the bill of lading, also 17 any other charges due and unpaid, and whether the whereabouts of 18 the owner or consignee is known to the affiant, and whether such no-19 tice was first given to him as herein provided; which affidavit shall 20 be filed by the justice for the inspection of anyone interested therein, 21 and an entry made in the estray book of the substance of the affidavit, 22 and a statement when, where and by whom made.

[R., '60, §§ 1898, 1899; C., '73, §§ 2177, 2178; C., '97, § 3130.]

SEC. 6528. Sale—notice.

1 If the property remains unclaimed and the charges unpaid, the 4 notices in five of the most public places in the city or locality where 5 said property is held, giving such description as will indicate what is 6 to be sold; if the goods exceed the probable value of one hundred dol-7 lars, the length of notice shall be four weeks, and there shall be a 8 publication thereof, once each week, for the same length of time in 9 some newspaper of general circulation in the locality where the prop-10 erty is held, if there be one, and, if not, then in the next nearest news-11 paper published in that neighborhood, at the end of which period, if 12 the property is still unclaimed or charges unpaid, it may be sold by 13 him at public auction, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four 14 o'clock p. m., for the highest price the same will bring, which sale 15 may be continued from day to day, by public announcement to that 16 effect at the time of the adjournment, until all the property is sold; 17 and from the proceeds thereof all charges, costs and expenses of the 18 sale shall be paid, which sale shall be conducted after the manner of 19 sheriff's sales, and like costs taxed for like services.

[R., '60, §§ 1900-1902; C., '73, § 2179; C., '97, § 3131; S., '13,

1 Fruit, fresh fish, oysters, game and other perishable property
 2 thus held shall be retained twenty-four hours, and, if not claimed

3 within that time and charges paid, after the proper affidavit is made 4 as required by the second preceding section, may be sold either at 5 public or private sale, in the discretion of the party holding the same, 6 for the highest price that the same will bring, and the proceeds of the 7 sale disposed of as provided in the last preceding section. In either 8 case, if the owner or consignee of said unclaimed property resides in 9 the same city, town or locality in which the same is held, and is known 10 to the agent or party having the same in charge, then personal notice 11 shall be given to him in writing that the goods are held subject to his 12 order on payment of charges, and that, unless he pays the same and 13 removes the property, it will be sold as provided by law.

[R., '60, § 1903; C., '73, § 2180; C., '97, § 3132.]

SEC. 6530. Disposition of proceeds.

1 After the charges on the property and the costs of sale have been 2 taken out of the proceeds, the seller shall deposit the excess with the 3 county treasurer of the county where the goods were sold, subject to 4 the order of the owner, take a receipt therefor, and deposit the same 5 with the county auditor. At the same time he shall also file a verified 6 schedule of the property with the treasurer, giving the name of the 7 consignee or owner, if known, of each piece of property sold, the sum 8 realized from the sale of each separate package, describing the same, 9 together with a copy of the advertisement hereinbefore provided for, 10 and a full statement of the receipts of the sale, and the amount dis-

 4 the school fund; but any claimant therefor may at any time within 5 ten years appear before the board of supervisors and establish his 6 right to the same by competent legal evidence, in which case the orig-7 inal sum deposited shall be paid him out of the county treasury.

[R., '60, § 1905; C., '73, § 2182; C., '97 § 3134.]

CHAPTER 7.

SUBCONTRACTOR'S CLAIMS ON FUNDS DUE ON PUBLIC WORKS.

SECTION 6532. Public buildings or bridges — claim of subcontractor—priority rights.

1 Every mechanic, laborer or other person who, as subcontractor, 2 shall perform labor upon or furnish materials for the construction of 3 any public building, bridge or other improvement not belonging to 4 the state, shall have a claim against the public corporation construct-5 ing such building, bridge or improvement for the value of such serv-6 ices and material, not in excess of the contract price to be paid for 7 such building, bridge or improvement, nor shall such corporation be

8 required to pay any such claim before or in any different manner from 9 that provided in the principal contract. Such claim shall be made by 10 filing with the public officer through whom the payment is to be made 11 an itemized sworn statement of the demand, within sixty days after 12 the completion of said public building, bridge or other improvement, 13 and such claims shall have priority in the order in which they are filed.
[C., '97, § 3102; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 2.]

SEC. 6533. Adjudication of claims.

1 Any party in interest may cause an adjudication of the amount,
2 priority and mode and time of payment of such claim, by an equitable 3 action in the district court of the proper county. In such action the 4 court may assess a reasonable attorney's fee against the party failing, 5 in favor of such corporation.
[C., '97, § 3103.]

SEC. 6534. Release of claim.

1 The contractor may at any time release such claim by filing with 2 the treasurer of such corporation a bond for the benefit of such claim-3 ant, in sufficient penalty and with sureties to be approved by such 4 treasurer, conditioned for the payment of any sum which may be found 5 due such claimant. Such contractor may prevent the filing of such 6 claims by filing in like manner a bond conditioned for the payment 7 of persons who may be entitled to file such claims, and actions may be 8 brought on any such bond by any claimant within two years after his 9 cause of action accrues, and judgment shall be rendered on said bond 10 for the amount due such claimant. No provisions of any bond or 11 contract to the contrary shall affect any of the provisions of this and 12 the two preceding sections.

[C., '97, § 3104; 38 G. A., ch. 53, § 1.]

TITLE XXV.

LEGALIZING ACTS.

Note.—The date following the historical reference, which indicates the time of taking effect of an act by publication, has been computed on the theory that such acts take effect on the first day following the last publication. (Arnold vs. Board, 151 Iowa, 155.)

In those instances in which the historical reference shows that the source of the section consists of more than one legislative enactment, the date indicates the time when the last legislative act took effect.

 5 shown by the auditor's apportionment provided for in the preceding 6 section. Such lists shall be separately certified by the board of super-

5 The ballots, when placed in the respective boxes from which the draw-

 4 and all excuses shall be heard and determined by the court, but the 5 impaneling of the grand or petit juries may be postponed to a sub-

 7 fail to appear without sending a sufficient excuse, the court may issue 8 an order requiring him to appear and show cause why he should not

[37 G. A., ch. 267, § 8.]

SEC. 7024. Drawing of jurors.

1 At a day to be fixed by the clerk of the court, which shall be not 10 the required number of ballots, containing the names of the persons 11 selected to serve as petit jurors, and the persons whose names are so 12 drawn, shall constitute the petit jurors for the next ensuing term of 13 the court. If for any reason all of such jury commissioners are un-14 able to meet at the time fixed by the clerk, after notice by the clerk 15 to such commissioners of the time fixed by him for drawing the jury 16 panel, any two of such commissioners, in the presence of the county 17 auditor and clerk, may proceed and draw the jury at said time. The 18 box containing the names of the persons selected as petit jurors, shall, 19 at the time of the drawing, and before the name of any juror shall 20 have been drawn therefrom, be thoroughly shaken, and the seal on 21 the aperture broken by one of the commissioners. After the seal on 22 the box shall have been broken, one of the commissioners shall, with-

28 the commissioners shall, in like manner, continue to draw ballots from 29 the box until the names of the entire number of petit jurors required, 30 shall have been drawn, and their names duly entered upon the list by 31 the clerk of the court. After the required number of petit jurors shall 32 have been drawn in the manner provided, and their names entered

33 upon the list by the clerk, the box shall again be sealed by the commis-34 sion, and returned to the custody of the clerk.

2 of the petit jurors have been drawn, as herein provided, and their 3 names entered upon the list made by him, issue his precept to the 4 sheriff of the county, commanding him to summon the persons whose 5 names have been drawn, to appear at the courthouse at the time desig-

2 shall have been illegally drawn, selected, or summoned, it may set 3 aside the precept, under which they were summoned, and direct a suffi-4 cient number to be drawn and summoned, in the manner herein pro-5 vided. In such case, the jury commission shall meet at the office of 6 the clerk of the court, at such time as the court may direct, and in the 7 presence of the clerk and auditor, and in the manner herein speci-8 fied, draw the number of petit jurors required, under the order of the 2 excused, the requisite number, upon the order of court, shall be drawn 3 in the same manner as the original panel, and the commissioners shall 4 meet at the office of the clerk, at a time fixed by the court, and draw 5 the names of the number of petit jurors required by the court to fill 6 the panel. The persons whose names are so drawn shall forthwith

7 be summoned to appear and serve as jurors during the term of court 8 for which they are drawn, and shall have the right to present excuses, 9 as provided for the original panel.

[37 G. A., ch. 267, § 13.]

SEC. 7028. Additional jurors—discharge of panel—procedure.

1 The court, or judge thereof, either before or during any term of 2 court, may order as many additional jurors drawn for the term, or 3 for the trial of any particular case, as may be deemed necessary, and 4 may at any time, discharge the panel of jurors, or any part of it, and 5 order a new panel, or such number of jurors as may be deemed neces-6 sary to be drawn. The names of such jurors shall be drawn by the 7 commissioners in the manner herein provided, and the commission 8 shall, upon the order of the court, meet at the office of the clerk of the 9 court, for that purpose.

10 Whenever the commission shall be required to meet for the pur-11 pose of drawing jurors under the order of the court, the clerk of the 12 court shall at once notify each commissioner of such order, and the 13 time fixed for the meeting of the commission; and, if deemed neces-14 sary, the court may order the notice to be served by the sheriff of the 15 county, who shall be entitled to charge the same fees and mileage for 16 such service, as he is entitled to charge for the service of an original 17 notice, and such fees and mileage shall be paid by the county.

6 3. That there is another action pending between the same parties 7 for the same cause.

8 4. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiffs or defendants.

9 5. That the facts stated in the petition do not entitle the plaintiff 10 to the relief demanded.

11 6. That the petition, on the face thereof, shows that the cause of 12 action is barred by the statute of limitations; or fails to show it to be 13 in writing, where it should be so evidenced; or, if founded on an ac-14 count or writing as evidence of indebtedness, that neither such writing 15 or account or copy thereof is incorporated into or attached to the 16 pleading, or a sufficient reason stated for not doing so.

[R., '60, §§ 2876, 2920, 2961, 2963, 2964; C., '73, § 2648;

1 The defendant may demur to one or more of the several causes of 2 action alleged in the petition, and answer as to the residue. A demur-3 rer shall be considered as an admission of the allegations of the 4 pleading demurred to for the purposes of demurrer, and for such 5 purposes only; and when a demurrer shall be overruled and the party 6 demurring shall answer or reply, the ruling on the demurrer shall not 7 be considered as an adjudication of any question raised by the demur-8 rer; and in such case the sufficiency of the pleading thus attacked shall 9 be determined as if no demurrer had been filed. No pleading shall be 10 held sufficient on account of a failure to demur thereto.

[C., '51, § 1738; R., '60, § 2879; C., '73, § 2651; C., '97,

3 a demurrer being overruled, the party demurring may answer or 4 reply. Upon a decision of a demurrer, if the adverse party fail to 5 amend or plead over, the same consequences shall ensue as though a

1 When any of the matters enumerated as grounds of demurrer do 2 not appear on the face of the petition, the objection may be taken by 3 answer. If the facts stated by the petition do not entitle the plaintiff 4 to any relief whatever, advantage may be taken of it by motion in 5 arrest of judgment before judgment is entered.

[R., '60, § 2878; C., '73, § 2650; C., '97, § 3563.]

10 defendant, or all of the defendants if more than one, against the 11 plaintiff, or all of the plaintiffs if more than one, and which the 12 defendant or defendants might have brought when suit was com-

2 his comaker or principal, avail himself by way of counterclaim of a

 5 notified as in other cases, and defense thereto shall be made in the 6 time and manner prescribed in regard to the original petition, and with 7 the same right of obtaining provisional remedies applicable to the

[R., '60, § 2892; C., '73, § 2663; C., '97, § 3574.]

SEC. 7218. Demurrer to answer.

1 In an action in which a bond for costs has been given, the defend-2 ant may, at any time before trial, make a motion for additional 3 security, and if on such motion the court is satisfied that the surety 4 in the plaintiff's bond has removed from the state, or it is not sufficient 5 for the amount thereof, it may dismiss the action unless, in a reason-6 able time to be fixed by the court, sufficient security is given by 7 the plaintiff.

 3 wise declared.

[C., '51, § 2388; R., '60, § 3978; C., '73, § 3636; C., '97, § 4601.]

 2 may still be shown for the purpose of lessening its credibility.

[C., '51, § 2389; R., '60, § 3979; C., '73, § 3637; C., '97, § 4602.]

SEC. 7310. Interest.

1 No person offered as a witness in any action or proceedings in 2 any court, or before any officer acting judicially, shall be excluded by 3 reason of his interest in the event of the action or proceeding, or

 2 in the event thereof, nor any person from, through or under whom any 3 such party or interested person derives any interest or title by assign-4 ment or otherwise, and no husband or wife of any said party or 5 person, shall be examined as a witness in regard to any personal 6 transaction or communication between such witness and a person at 7 the commencement of such examination deceased, insane or lunatic, 8 against the executor, administrator, heir at law, next of kin, assignee, 9 legatee, devisee or survivor of such deceased person, or the assignee 10 or guardian of such insane person or lunatic. But this prohibition 11 shall not extend to any transaction or communication as to which any 12 such executor, administrator, heir at law, next of kin, assignee, leg-13 atee, devisee, survivor or guardian shall be examined on his own 14 behalf, or as to which the testimony of such deceased or insane person 15 or lunatic shall be given in evidence.

[R., '60, § 3982; C., '73, § 3639; C., '97, § 4604.]

SEC. 7312. Depositions taken conditionally.

1 Any person may have his own deposition, or that of any other 2 person, read in evidence in all cases where his evidence would be 3 incompetent by the provisions of the preceding section, by causing it 4 to be taken, either before or after action is brought, during the lifetime 5 or sanity of the person against whose executor, heir or other repre-6 sentative the same is to be used, if such deposition shall have been 7 taken and filed ten days prior to the death or insanity of such person.
 8 If after action is brought, such deposition may be taken in the usual 9 manner; if before, then the same may be taken de bene esse, as pro-

 2 against the other, except in a criminal prosecution for a crime com-3 mitted one against the other, or in a civil action or proceeding one 4 against the other, or in a civil action by one against a third party for 5 alienating the affections of the other; or in any civil action brought 6 by a judgment creditor against either the husband or the wife, to set 7 aside a conveyance of property from one to the other on the ground 8 of want of consideration or fraud, and to subject the same to the 9 payment of his judgment; but in all civil and criminal cases they may 10 be witnesses for each other.

[C., '51, § 2391; R., '60, § 3983; C., '73, § 3641; C., '97,
 § 4606; S., '13, § 4606.]

SEC. 7314. Communications between husband and wife.

1 Neither husband nor wife can be examined in any case as to any 2 communication made by the one to the other while married, nor shall 3 they, after the marriage relation ceases, be permitted to reveal in 4 testimony any such communication made while the marriage subsisted.

 3 information by reason of his employment, minister of the gospel or 4 priest of any denomination shall be allowed, in giving testimony, to 5 disclose any confidential communication properly intrusted to him in 6 his professional capacity, and necessary and proper to enable him to 7 discharge the functions of his office according to the usual course of 8 practice or discipline. Such prohibition shall not apply to cases where 9 the party in whose favor the same is made waives the rights conferred.

[C., '51, §§ 2393, 2394; R., '60, §§ 3985, 3986; C., '73, § 3643;

1 But when the matter sought to be elicited would tend to render 2 him criminally liable, or to expose him to public ignominy, he is not 3 compelled to answer, except as provided in the next section. But in 4 prosecutions against gaming, betting, lotteries, dealing in options, 5 creating, entering into or becoming a member of, or a party to any 6 pool, trust, agreement, contract, combination, confederation or under-7 standing with any other corporation, partnership, association or in-8 dividual to regulate or fix the price of any article of merchandise or 9 commodity or to fix or limit the amount or quantity of any article, 10 commodity or merchandise to be manufactured, mined, produced or 11 sold in this state, and keeping gambling houses, or rooms for illegal 12 use or disposal of intoxicating liquors, no witness shall be excused 13 from giving testimony upon the ground that his testimony would tend 14 to render him criminally liable or expose him to public ignominy; but 15 any matter so elicited shall not be used against him, and said witness 16 shall not be prosecuted for any crime connected with or growing out 17 of the act on which the prosecution is based in the cause in which his 18 evidence is used for the state, under the provisions of this section.

2 purpose of testing his credibility.

[R., '60, § 3991; C., '73, § 3649; C., '97, § 4614.]

SEC. 7322. Whole of a writing or conversation.

1 When part of an act, declaration, conversation or writing is given 2 in evidence by one party, the whole on the same subject may be in-3 quired into by the other; thus, when a letter is read, all other letters 4 on the same subject between the same parties may be given. And 5 when a detached act, declaration, conversation or writing is given in 6 evidence, any other act, declaration, conversation or writing which 7 is necessary to make it fully understood, or to explain the same, may 8 also be given in evidence.

- 1 When the terms of an agreement have been intended in a different

 [C., '51, § 2401; R., '60, § 3994; C., '73, § 3652; C., '97, § 4617.]

SEC. 7325. Historical and scientific works.

 [C., '51, § 2407; R., '60, § 4000; C., '73, § 3656; C., '97, § 4621.]

SEC. 7329. Entries by deceased person.

- 1 The entries and other writings of a person deceased, who was in 2 a position to know the facts therein stated, made at or near the time 3 of the transaction, are presumptive evidence of such facts, when the 4 entry was made against the interest of the person so making it, or 5 when made in a professional capacity or in the ordinary course of 6 professional conduct, or when made in the performance of a duty 7 specially enjoined by law.
 [C., '51, § 2405; R., '60, § 3998; C., '73, § 3657; C., '97,

SEC. 7330. Books of account—when admissible—photographic copy as part of deposition.

1 Books of account containing charges by one party against the 2 other, made in the ordinary course of business, are receivable in evi-3 dence only under the following circumstances, subject to all just 4 exceptions as to their credibility:

5 1. They must show a continuous dealing with persons generally, 6 or several items of charge at different times against the other party 7 in the same book or set of books.

8 2. It must be shown by the party's oath, or otherwise, that they 9 are his books of original entries.

10 3. It must be shown in like manner that the charges were made 11 at or near the time of the transactions therein entered, unless satis-12 factory reasons appear for not making such proof.

13 4. The charges must also be verified by the party or clerk who 14 made the entries, to the effect that they believe them just and true, 15 or a sufficient reason must be given why such verification is not made.
16 Any loose leaf or card or other form of entry which may be in use in 17 the ordinary course of business by the party seeking to prove an 18 account against another, and shall have been properly identified as 19 being the original entry of such account shall be admitted as competent 20 evidence for the purpose of proving such account by deposition or in 21 open court, and it shall be competent for any person whose duties in 22 the ordinary course of such business require a personal knowledge of 23 the records of such business, to verify such account or make deposition 24 or testify in open court with regard to any matters pertaining to such 25 records.

26 5. In all cases where depositions are taken by either method pro-27 vided by law, outside of the county in which the case is for trial where 28 books of account are competent evidence in the case, the party desir-29 ing to offer the entries of said books as evidence may cause the same 30 to be photographed by or under the direction of the officer taking the 31 deposition and such photographic copy when certified by such officer 32 with his seal attached shall be attached to the deposition, and if the 33 record shows affirmatively the preliminary proof required by sub-

SEC. 7331. Notarial certificate of protest.

1 The usual protest of a notary public, without proof of his signa-
2 ture or notarial seal, is prima facie evidence of what it recites con-3 cerning the dishonor, and notice thereof, of a bill of exchange or 4 promissory note, and a copy from his record, properly certified by 5 him, shall receive such faith and credit as it is entitled to by the law 6 and custom of merchants.

[C., '51, §§ 82, 2414; R., '60, §§ 199, 4011; C., '73, § 3668;

1 Except when otherwise specially provided, no evidence of the 2 following enumerated contracts is competent, unless it be in writing 3 and signed by the party charged or by his authorized agent:

- 4 1. Those in relation to the sale of personal property, when no part 5 of the property is delivered and no part of the price is paid.
6 2. Those made in consideration of marriage.
7 3. Those wherein one person promises to answer for the debt, 8 default or miscarriage of another, including promises by executors to 9 pay the debt of the decedent from their own estate.
10 4. Those for the creation or transfer of any interest in lands, 11 except leases for a term not exceeding one year.
12 5. Those that are not to be performed within one year from the 13 making thereof.

SEC. 7333. Exceptions.

- 1 The provisions of the first subdivision of the preceding section 2 do not apply when the article of personal property sold is not at the 3 time of the contract owned by the vendor and ready for delivery, but 4 labor, skill or money is necessarily to be expended in producing or 5 procuring the same; nor do those of the fourth subdivision apply 6 where the purchase money, or any portion thereof, has been received 7 by the vendor, or when the vendee, with the actual or implied consent 8 of the vendor, has taken and held possession thereof under and by 9 virtue of the contract, or when there is any other circumstance which, 10 by the law heretofore in force, would have taken the case out of the 11 statute of frauds.

[C., '51, § 2411; R., '60, § 4008; C., '73, § 3665; C., '97, § 4626.]

SEC. 7334. When contract not denied in the pleadings.

- 1 The above regulations, relating merely to the proof of contracts,

SEC. 7337. Record or certified copy.

- 1 When the recording of any instrument in the office of any public 2 officer is authorized by law, the record of such instrument, or a duly

3 authenticated copy thereof, is competent evidence whenever, by the 4 party's own oath or otherwise, the original is shown to be lost, or not 5 belonging to the party wishing to use the same, nor within his control.
 6 In such case, it is no objection to the record that no official seal is 7 appended to the recorded acknowledgment thereof, if, when the ac-8 knowledgment purports to have been taken by an officer having an 9 official seal, there is a statement in the certificate of acknowledgment 10 that the same is made under his hand and seal of office, and the record 11 shows, by a scroll or otherwise, that there was such a seal, which will 12 be presumptive evidence that it was attached to the original certificate.

CHAPTER 11.
CHANGE OF VENUE.SECTION 7432. Grounds for.

1 A change of the place of trial in any civil action may be had in 2 any of the following cases:

3 1. County a party. Where the county in which the action is 4 pending is a party thereto, if the motion is made by the party ad-5 versely interested, and the issue be triable by jury.

6 2. Judge a party or interested. Where the judge is a party, or 7 is directly interested in the action, or is connected by blood or affinity 8 with any person so interested nearer than the fourth degree.

9 3. Prejudice or local influence. Where either party files an affi-10 davit, verified by himself and three disinterested persons not related 11 to the party making the motion nearer than the fourth degree, nor 12 standing in the relation of servant, agent or employee of such party, 13 stating that the inhabitants of the county or the judge is so prejudiced 14 against him, or that the adverse party or his attorney has such an 15 undue influence over the inhabitants of the county, that he can not 16 obtain a fair trial; and when either party files such an affidavit the 17 other party shall have a reasonable time in which to prepare and file 18 counter affidavits, and the court or judge, in its discretion, may cause 19 the affiants upon either side to be brought into court for examination 20 upon the matters contained in their affidavits, and, when fully ad-21 vised, shall allow or refuse the change according to the very right and 22 merits of the matter.

23 4. Agreement. By the written agreement of the parties.

24 5. Jury not obtainable. If the issue is one triable by a jury, and 25 it is made apparent to the court or judge that a jury can not be ob-26 tained in the county where the action is pending, then, upon the appli-27 cation of either party, a change of place of trial shall be granted to 28 the nearest county in which a jury can be obtained.

29 6. Fraud in the inception of written contract. In an action 30 brought on a written contract in the county where the contract by its 31 express terms is to be performed, in which a defendant to said action, 32 residing in a different county in the state, has filed a sworn answer 33 alleging fraud in the inception of the contract constituting a complete 34 defense thereto, such defendant, upon application and the filing of a 35 sufficient bond, may have such action transferred to the district court 36 of the county of his residence. If upon the trial of the action judg-37 ment is rendered against the defendant, it shall include the reasonable 38 expenses incurred by the plaintiff and his attorney, on account of 39 change of place of trial, as part of the costs. The bond above referred 40 to shall be with sureties to be approved by the clerk, in an amount to 41 be fixed by the court or judge in vacation for the payment of all costs 42 which may accrue in the action in the court in which it is brought, 43 or in any other to which it may be carried, either to the plaintiff or 44 to the officers of the court.

45 Not more than two such changes to either party shall be allowed 46 for any of the causes enumerated in this section; nor shall a change 47 be allowed in case of appeal from a justice of the peace; nor, when 48 the issues can only be tried to the court, for any objection to the in-49 habitants of the county, or for the objection that the adverse party 50 or his attorney has such an undue influence over the inhabitants 51 thereof that he can not obtain a fair trial. After a change of place 52 of trial has been taken and a trial had, and the jury discharged or a 53 new trial granted, a subsequent change may be taken for any of the 54 causes mentioned in this section.

[C., '51, § 1706; R., '60, § 2803; C., '73, § 2590; C., '97,
 § 3505; S., '13, § 3505.]

SEC. 7433. Change of venue on objections of judge—where—interchange of judges.

1 When a change of venue is granted on the ground of objection 2 made to the judge, he may, in his discretion, if there be a judge or 3 judges of the same district against whom there is no objection, assign 4 the cause to one of such judges for trial. If there be no other judge 5 of his district against whom there is no objection, then he may, in his 6 discretion, send the cause for trial to the nearest and most convenient 7 county of another district, or to a county of another district agreed 8 upon by the parties, for trial before a judge of such district; or he 9 may procure another judge of another district to interchange with 10 him for the trial of such cause.

CHAPTER 12.

TRIAL AND JUDGMENT.

SECTION 7442. Issues.

1 Issues arise in the pleadings where a fact or conclusion of law is 2 maintained by one party and controverted by the other. They are 3 of two kinds:

- 4 1. Of law.
- 5 2. Of fact.

[R., '60, § 2993; C., '73, § 2737; C., '97, § 3647.]

SEC. 7443. Of fact and of law.

1 An issue of fact arises:
2 1. Upon a material allegation of fact in the petition denied by the 3 answer.
4 2. Upon material allegations of new matter in the answer, either 5 denied by a reply or by operation of law.
6 3. Upon allegations of new matter in the reply, which shall be 7 considered as controverted by the opposite party without further 8 pleading.

9 Any other issue is one of law.

[R., '60, §§ 2994, 2995; C., '73, § 2738; C., '97, § 3648.]

SEC. 7444. Trial defined.

- 1 Issues of law must be tried first. A trial is a judicial examina-
 2 tion of the issues in an action, whether they be issues of law or of fact.
 [C., '51, § 1770; R., '60, §§ 2996, 2997; C., '73, § 2739; C., '97, § 3649.]

SEC. 7445. How issues tried.

- 1 Issues of fact in an ordinary action must be tried by jury, unless 2 the same is waived. All other issues shall be tried by the court, unless 3 a reference thereof is made.

 2 evidence taken in open court, except that depositions may be used as 3 provided by law; and, upon appeal, no evidence shall go to the su-
 4 preme court except such as may be necessary to explain any exception 5 taken in the cause, and such court shall hear and try the case only on 6 the legal errors so presented.
 [R., '60, § 2999; C., '73, § 2741; C., '97, § 3651.]

SEC. 7447. In equitable actions—certificate of evidence—trial anew on appeal.

- 1 In equitable actions wherein issues of fact are joined, all the 2 evidence offered in the trial shall be taken down in writing, or the 3 court may order the evidence, or any part thereof, to be taken in the 4 form of depositions, or either party may, at pleasure, take his testi-
 5 mony, or any part thereof, by deposition. All the evidence so taken 6 shall be certified by the judge at any time within six months after the 7 entry of a final decree, and the evidence and certificate be made a 8 part of the record, and go on appeal to the supreme court, which shall 9 try the cause anew. But this section shall be so construed as to 10 include the evidence taken in shorthand, when the reporter's notes of 11 such evidence have been certified to by the judge and reporter within 12 the time herein provided.
 [R., '60, § 2999; C., '73, § 2742; C., '97, § 3652; S., '13, § 3652.]

SEC. 7448. Abstracts in equity causes.

- 1 In equitable causes, where the evidence is taken in the form of 2 depositions, the court may require to be submitted with the arguments 3 an abstract of the pleadings and evidence, substantially as required by 4 the rules of the supreme court for abstracts in appeals in equitable 5 causes, except that the same need not be printed.

- 1 In all trials of fact by the court, other than those contemplated in 2 the second preceding section, the court shall, if either party requests 3 it, give its decision in writing, stating separately the facts found and 4 the legal conclusion founded thereon; and the whole decision shall be

5 a part of the record, and the finding shall have the effect of a spe-6 cial verdict.

[C., '51, § 1793; R., '60, § 3088; C., '73, § 2743; C., '97,

§ 3655.]

SEC. 7451. In equitable actions.

3 others, or of any issue in an action; and such separate trials may be 4 had at the same or different terms of the court, as circumstances may 5 require.

[C., '51, § 1768; R., '60, §§ 3024, 3025; C., '73, § 2746; C.,

1 In any case once continued, where an answer is on file, either 2 party desiring to bring such cause on for trial at any term shall, at 3 least ten days before such term, file with the clerk a notice of trial, 4 and no such cause shall stand for trial unless a trial notice be so filed, 5 except by consent of parties. But after the commencement of the 6 term, the court may in its discretion, by order entered of record, per-7 mit notices of trial to be entered in the same manner, ten days prior 8 to such date as the court may name in such order. Such order may be 9 general, and not entered of record in each particular case. The clerk, 10 in preparing the court calendars, shall note thereon, opposite the title 11 of each cause noticed for trial, the words, "for trial," which words 12 shall also appear on the printed calendar. This rule shall not apply to 13 appearance or criminal cases, nor to proceedings in probate.

[C., '97, § 3658.]

SEC. 7454. Assignments of trial causes—hearing of motions and demurrers.

1 On the first day of the term, or as soon thereafter as practicable, 2 the court may make an assignment of the trial causes, which assign-3 ment shall fix the day of the term on which each cause will be tried, 4 and parties will be required to conform to this order of trial. Further 5 assignments may be made by the court as often as necessary. The 6 court may also designate particular times for the hearing of motions 7 and demurrers.

[C., '97, § 3659.]

SEC. 7455. Docketing appeals from justices—other appeals.

1 In appeals from justices' courts or other inferior tribunals in civil 2 causes, the appellant shall cause the case to be docketed by noon of the 3 second day of the term to which the same is returnable, and, in case of 4 his failure to do so, the appellee may procure the case to be docketed, 5 and thereupon will be entitled to have the judgment below affirmed, or 6 to have the case set down for trial upon its merits, as he may elect, and 7 the provisions of this code as to appeals from justices' courts shall be 8 applicable, so far as may be, to other appeals contemplated in this 9 section.

[C., '97, § 3660.]

SEC. 7456. Calendar.

1 The clerk shall keep a calendar distinguishing, first, criminal 2 causes, and next, civil causes, and arranging each in the order of their 3 commencement, and, if the court so order, shall, under the direction 4 of the court or judge, apportion the same to as many days as is be-

3 rule, it may be allowed for any cause which satisfies the court that 4 substantial justice will thereby be more nearly obtained.

[C., '51, § 1765; R., '60, § 3009; C., '73, § 2749; C., '97, § 3663.]

6 either case facts showing reasonable grounds of belief that his

8 2. Efforts constituting due diligence which have been used to 9 obtain such witness, or his testimony.
 10 3. What particular facts, as distinguished from legal conclusions,

1 If the application is insufficient, it shall be overruled; if sufficient, 2 the cause shall be continued, unless the adverse party will admit that

 4 which event the cause shall not be continued, but the party may read 5 as evidence of such witness the facts held by the court to be properly 6 stated.

[C., '51, § 1767; R., '60, §§ 3012, 3013; C., '73, § 2751; C., '97,

 2 then certain that it will have to be made before the trial, and as soon 3 thereafter as it becomes certain that it will need to be made, and shall 4 not be allowed to be made when the cause is called for trial, except 5 for matters which could not by reasonable diligence have been before 6 that time discovered. If made after the second day of the term, the 7 affidavit must state facts constituting an excuse for the delay in mak-
 8 ing it. If time is taken when the case is called to make such motion,

1 The referee shall sign any true bill of exceptions taken to any 2 ruling by him made in the case upon the demand of either party, who 3 shall have the same rights to obtain such bill as exists in the court, 4 which bill shall be returned with the report, but no bill of exceptions 5 is necessary to preserve or make of record any matter taken or noted 6 down by the official shorthand reporter of the court, or one appointed 7 by it or the referee, or agreed upon by the parties, and whose report 8 is certified by such reporter and referee to be a full and true report 9 of all the proceedings had, which shall be filed with the referee's 10 report, and the whole be a part of the record. Such reporter shall be 11 governed by the law relating to official shorthand reporters.

[R., '60, § 3097; C., '73, § 2823; C., '97, § 3742.]

SEC. 7539. Selection of referees.

1 In all cases of reference, the parties, except when a minor is a 2 party, may agree upon a suitable person or persons, not exceeding 3 three, and the reference shall be ordered accordingly; and if the 4 parties do not agree, the court shall appoint one or more referees, not

 2 and examine the case, and make a just and true report therein, 3 according to the best of his understanding. The affidavit shall be 4 returned with the report, filed by the clerk, and be a part of the record.

[R., '60, § 3100; C., '73, § 2826; C., '97, § 3745.]

SEC. 7542. Procedure.

1 The order shall not be made until the case is at issue as to the 2 parties whose rights are to be examined on the reference. The order

3 may direct when the referee shall proceed to a hearing and when he 4 shall make his report, but, in the absence of such direction, he shall 5 do so on the morning of the tenth day after the day on which the 6 order of reference was made, and shall file his report as soon as done.
7 The parties shall take notice of the time thus fixed or determined and

3 shall be under the control of the court, who may on the motion of 4 either party make proper orders with a view to his proceeding with 5 all due dispatch, and the court or judge may, on motion, extend the

SEC. 7545. Exceptions—how taken.

1 An exception is an objection, taken to a decision of the court, or 2 person acting as the court, on a matter of law. The party excepting 3 to the decision must do so at the time it is made, unless it is upon a 4 motion or demurrer, in which case it may be taken within three days.
5 It may be embodied in a bill of exceptions to be filed within thirty 6 days after the final determination of the case, or within a reasonable 7 time thereafter, to be fixed by the court, not to exceed ninety days 8 therefrom. In equitable actions, triable de novo on appeal, no bill of 9 exceptions shall be necessary, nor in other actions in which all the 10 proceedings are, under the direction of the court, taken in writing or 11 shorthand by the regular court reporter, or another appointed by the 12 court or judge for the purpose, and embodied in a report by such 13 reporter, certified by him and the court or judge, in the manner pro-14 vided in this chapter for making and certifying such report. This 15 section shall not be so construed as to prevent any party embodying 16 in a bill of exceptions all or any part of the proceedings in any action 17 in which he may elect to preserve his exceptions in that form. And 18 whenever the judge or referee trying a cause is unable by reason of 19 death, removal, resignation or any cause to sign a bill of exceptions, 20 or certify the shorthand reporter's record, the same shall be done by 21 his successor, and the time for such signing or certification shall be 22 extended thirty days after the appointment, or election and qualifica-23 tion of such successor.

[C., '51, § 1805; R., '60, § 3106; C., '73, § 2831; C., '97, § 3749.]

SEC. 7546. Form—grounds.

1 No stated form of exception is required. If the exception is to 2 the admission or exclusion of evidence, oral or written, the ground 3 of the objection must be stated, and no other shall be regarded.

[R., '60, § 3107; C., '73, § 2832; C., '97, § 3750.]

SEC. 7547. Exception noted.

1 When the decision objected to is entered on the record, and the 2 grounds of the exception appear in the entry, or when any error 3 appears of record, the exception may be taken by the party causing 4 to be noted at the end of the decision, or in connection therewith, that 5 he excepts.

[R., '60, § 3108; C., '73, § 2833; C., '97, § 3751.]

SEC. 7548. Writings identified—skeleton bill.

1 A bill of exceptions, when presented for signature, need not 2 include therein, spread out at length, any writing filed in court, but 3 may incorporate the same by any unmistakable reference thereto; and 4 the clerk, in making a transcript of the bill of exceptions, shall write 5 therein at length all of such writing included therein by reference.

[R., '60, § 3109; C., '73, § 2834; C., '97, § 3752.]

SEC. 7549. Signing.

1 When the decision is not entered on the record, or the grounds
2 of objection do not sufficiently appear therein, the party excepting 3 must reduce his exception to writing and present it to the judge for 4 his signature, which, if it fairly presents the facts, he shall sign; if he 5 refuses, the party may procure the signature of two bystanders attest-6 ing that the exception is correctly stated, and that the judge has 7 refused to sign the same, which bill of exceptions shall then be filed 8 with the clerk and become a part of the record. The truth of such 9 exceptions may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not 10 exceeding five on each side, which shall become a part of the record.
11 All affidavits impugning the exception must be filed within three days 12 from the time of filing the bill, and all affidavits sustaining the same 13 within two days thereafter.

C., '97, § 3753.]

SEC. 7550. Must be on material point.

1 No exception shall be regarded in the supreme court unless the 2 ruling has been on a material point, and the effect thereof prejudicial 3 to the rights of the party excepting.

[R., '60, § 3111; C., '73, § 2836; C., '97, § 3754.]

SEC. 7551. New trial—grounds for.

1 A new trial is a reexamination in the same court of an issue of 2 fact, or some part or portions thereof, after verdict by a jury, report
3 of a referee, or a decision by the court. The former report, verdict 4 or decision, or some part or portion thereof, shall be vacated and a 5 new trial granted, on the application of the party aggrieved, for the 6 following causes affecting materially the substantial rights of such 7 party:

- 8 1. Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, referee or 9 prevailing party; or any order of the court or referee, or abuse of 10 discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial.
 11 2. Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party.
 12 3. Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have 13 guarded against.
 14 4. Excessive damages appearing to have been given under the 15 influence of passion or prejudice.
 16 5. Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether 17 too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract or for the 18 injury or detention of property.
 19 6. That the verdict, report or decision is not sustained by suffi-20 cient evidence, or is contrary to law.
 21 7. Newly discovered evidence, material for the party applying, 22 which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and 23 produced at the trial.
 24 8. Error of law occurring at the trial, excepted to by the party 25 making the application.
 26 9. That the pleadings of the prevailing party do not state facts 27 sufficient to constitute a cause of action or defense, as the case may 28 be, specifying wherein they are defective.

[R., '60, § 3112; C., '73, § 2837; C., '97, § 3755.]

SEC. 7552. Application—affidavits.

- 1 The application must be made within five days after the verdict, 2 report or decision is rendered, unless for good cause the court extends 3 the time, except for the cause of newly discovered evidence; must be 4 by motion upon written grounds, and, if for the causes enumerated 5 in subdivisions two, three and seven of the preceding section, may be 6 sustained and controverted by affidavits.

[C., '51, §§ 1808-1810; R., '60, §§ 3114, 3115; C., '73, § 2838;

SEC. 7553. Judgment notwithstanding verdict.

- 1 Either party may file a motion for judgment in his favor, not-2 withstanding the fact that a verdict has been returned against him, 3 if the pleadings of the party in whose favor the verdict has been 4 returned omit to aver some material fact or facts necessary to con-5 stitute a complete cause of action or defense, the motion clearly point-6 ing out the omission.

[R., '60, §§ 3119, 3138; C., '73, §§ 2842, 2859; C., '97, § 3757.]

SEC. 7554. Arrest of judgment.

- 1 Either party may file a motion in arrest of judgment, where the 2 pleadings of the prevailing party wholly fail to state a cause of action 3 or a complete defense, and a verdict has been returned in his favor.

[R., '60, § 2878; C., '73, § 2650; C., '97, § 3758.]

SEC. 7555. Filing of motion.

- 1 The filing of either a motion for a new trial, for judgment not-2 withstanding the verdict, or in arrest of judgment, shall not be a 3 waiver of the right to file either or both of the others, but any such 4 motion shall be filed within the time fixed for the filing of motions for 5 new trials.

[C., '97, § 3759.]

SEC. 7556. Amendment to cure defect.

1 Upon any motion for a new trial, for judgment notwithstanding 2 the verdict, or in arrest of judgment, the party whose pleading it is 3 alleged is defective may, if the court considers it necessary, file an 4 amendment setting up the omitted facts, which, if true, would remedy 5 the alleged defects, and such amendment shall be filed before the hear-6 ing of the motion, and shall suspend the same. If the facts thus stated 7 would not, if proven, defeat the object of the motion, it shall be sus-8 tained. If such new averments would, if proven, defeat its object and 9 are not admitted, they must be denied, or confessed and avoided, by 10 the opposite party within such time as the court shall direct, unless 11 the same are denied by legal operation, and in such case the law of 12 pleading and procedure shall apply, except that the amendment and 13 response need not be verified.

SEC. 7557. Issues tried—judgment.

1 If the facts thus pleaded are admitted, the party pleading the 2 same shall be entitled to such judgment as he would have been entitled 3 to if such facts had been stated in the original pleading and admitted 4 as proven on the trial, but, if controverted, there shall be a trial of 5 the issues raised by the new pleadings, and judgment shall be rendered 6 on the original verdict or finding, as modified or supplemented by the 7 verdict or finding on the new issues.

[R., '60, § 3120; C., '73, § 2843; C., '97, § 3761.]

SEC. 7558. Costs of new trial.

1 The cost of all new trials shall either abide the event of the action 2 or be paid by the party to whom such new trial is granted, according 3 to the order of the court, to be made at the time of granting such new 4 trial.

[R., '60, § 3117; C., '73, § 2840; C., '97, § 3762.]

SEC. 7559. Conditions.

1 The court may determine not to grant a new trial unless certain 2 terms or conditions named by it shall be agreed to by the opposite 3 party, and, in the event of his agreement, the terms or conditions 4 named shall be entered on the record, and no new trial shall be granted 5 if he refuses to agree thereto.

[R., '60, § 3118; C., '73, § 2841; C., '97, § 3763.]

5 2. By the court, when the plaintiff fails to appear when the case 6 is called for trial.

7 3. By the court, for want of necessary parties, when not made 8 according to the requirements of the court.

9 4. By the court, on the application of some of the defendants, 10 when there are others whom the plaintiff fails to prosecute with dili-11 gence.

12 5. By the court, for disobedience by the party of an order con-

4 of either as an entirety; or, when a claim consists of several parts or 5 items, such judgment may be for either of them on any specific part

SEC. 7662. Levies upon mortgaged personal property—payment or deposit.

1 Mortgaged personal property not exempt from execution may 2 be taken on attachment or execution issued against the mortgagor, 3 if the officer, or the attachment or execution creditor, within ten days 4 after such levy, shall pay to the holder of the mortgage the amount 5 of the mortgaged debt and interest accrued, or deposit the same with 6 the clerk of the district court of the county from which the attach-7 ment or execution issued, for the use of the holder of the mortgage, 8 or secure the same as in this chapter provided.

[C., '97, § 3979.]

SEC. 7663. Interest.

1 When the debt secured by the mortgage is not due as shown by 2 the mortgage, the officer, or the attachment or execution creditor, 3 must also pay or deposit with the clerk interest on the principal sum 4 at the rate specified in the mortgage for the term of sixty days 5 from the date of the deposit, unless the debt secured falls due in a 6 less time, in which case interest shall be deposited for such shorter 7 period.

[C., '97, § 3980.]

SEC. 7664. Failure to pay, deposit or give security.

1 If within ten days after such levy the attachment or execution
2 creditor does not pay the amount, make the deposit, or give the secu-3 rity required, the levy shall be discharged, and the property restored 4 to the possession of the person from whom it was taken and the 5 creditor shall be liable to the holder of the mortgage for any damages 6 sustained by reason of such levy.

[C., '97, § 3981.]

SEC. 7665. Creditor subrogated.

1 When such sum is paid to the holder of the mortgage or deposited 2 with the clerk, the attachment or execution creditor shall be subro-3 gated to all the rights of such holder, and the proceeds of the sale of 4 the mortgaged property shall be first applied to the discharge of such 5 indebtedness and the costs incurred under the writ of attachment or 6 execution.

[C., '97, § 3982.]

SEC. 7666. Holder reinstated.

1 If, for any reason, the levy upon the mortgaged property is dis-
2 charged or released without a sale thereof, the attachment or execu-
3 tion creditor who has paid or deposited the amount of the mortgage 4 debt shall have all the rights under such mortgage possessed by the 5 holder at the time of the levy. If the holder thereof desires to be 6 reinstated in his rights thereunder, he may repay the money received 7 by him, with interest thereon at the rate borne by the mortgage debt 8 for the time it has been held by him, and demand the return of the 9 mortgage, whereupon his rights thereunder shall revest in him, and 10 the attachment or execution creditor shall be entitled to the deposit 11 made, or any part thereof remaining in the hands of the clerk, or any 12 money returned to the clerk by the holder of the mortgage.

[C., '97, § 3983.]

SEC. 7667. Statement by holder of amount due.

1 The holder of the mortgage shall, before receiving the money
2 tendered to him by the attaching or execution creditor or deposited 3 with the clerk, state over his signature and under oath, on the back 4 of the mortgage, the amount due or to become due thereon, and de-

5 liver the same, together with the note or other evidence of indebted-6 ness secured by said mortgage, to the person paying the said amount 7 or the clerk with whom the deposit is made, and the holder of the 8 mortgage shall only receive the amount so stated to be due, and the 9 surplus, if any, shall be returned to the person making the deposit.

[C., '97, § 3984.]

SEC. 7668. Indemnifying bond released.

1 When the attaching or execution creditor thus pays or deposits
2 the amount of the claim under the mortgage, he shall not be required
3 to give an indemnifying bond on notice to the sheriff by the holder 4 of the mortgage of his right to the property thereunder, or if one has 5 been given, it shall be released.

[C., '97, § 3985.]

SEC. 7669. Costs—surplus.

1 If under execution sale the mortgaged property does not sell for 2 enough to pay the mortgage debt, interest and costs of sale, the 3 judgment creditor shall be liable for all costs thus made, but if a 4 greater sum is realized, the officer conducting the sale shall at once 5 pay to the mortgage holder the amount due thereunder, and apply the 6 surplus on the execution.

[C., '97, § 3986.]

SEC. 7670. Statement of indebtedness.

1 For the purpose of enabling the attaching or execution creditor
2 to determine the amount to be tendered or deposited to hold the levy 3 under the writ of attachment or execution, the person entitled to re-4 ceive payment of the mortgage debt shall deliver to any such person, 5 upon written demand therefor, a statement in writing under oath, 6 showing the nature and amount of the original debt, the date and the 7 amount of each payment, if any, which has been made thereon, and 8 an itemized statement of the amount then due and unpaid.

[C., '97, § 3987.]

SEC. 7671. Contest as to validity or amount.

1 If the right of the mortgagee to receive such or any sum is for 2 any reason questioned by the levying creditor, he may, within ten 3 days after levy, or after demand is made for a statement of the 4 amount due as above provided, commence an action in equity or con-5 test such right upon filing a bond in a penalty double the amount of 6 such mortgage, or double the value of the property levied upon, con-7 ditioned either for the payment of any sum found due on said mort-8 gage to the person entitled thereto, or for the value of the property 9 levied upon, as the party ordering the levy may elect, with sureties 10 to be approved by the clerk; and if such mortgagee is a nonresident 11 or his residence is unknown, service may be made by publication as in 12 other actions, but if such residence becomes known before final sub-13 mission, the court may order personal service to be made. If com-14 menced at law, the court may transfer the same to the equity side 15 as in other cases. The court may appoint a receiver, and shall deter-16 mine the amount due on the mortgage, the value of the property levied 17 upon, and all other questions properly presented, and may continue 18 and preserve or dismiss the lien of the levy, the costs to be taxed to 19 the losing party as in other cases. If there are two or more mort-20 gages, the creditor may admit the validity of one or more, and make 21 the required deposit as to such, and contest the other, and where there 22 are two or more such mortgages, each of which is questioned, a failure 23 to establish the invalidity of all shall not defeat the rights of the levy-24 ing creditor, but in such case the decree shall determine the priority of 25 liens, and direct the order of payment out of the proceeds of the prop-26 erty which shall be sold under special execution to be awarded in said 27 cause; but nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to 28 forbid or in any way affect the right of a creditor to contest in any 29 other way the validity of any mortgage.

[C., '97, § 3988; S., '13, § 3988.]

SEC. 7672. Failure to make statement.

1 A failure to make the statement, when required as above pro-2 vided, shall have the effect to postpone the lien of the mortgage and 3 give the levy of the writ of attachment or execution priority over 4 the claim of the holder thereof.

[C., '97, § 3989.]

SEC. 7673. Where mortgagee has been garnished.

1 If the mortgagee, before the levy of a writ of attachment or 2 execution, has been garnished at the suit of a creditor of the mort-3 gagee, a creditor desiring to seize the mortgaged property under a 4 writ of attachment or execution shall pay to the holder of the mort-5 gage, or deposit with the clerk, in addition to the mortgage debt, the 6 sum claimed under the garnishment, and the provisions of this chap-7 ter, so far as applicable, in all respects shall govern proceedings relat-8 ing thereto.

[C., '97, § 3990.]

SEC. 7674. Indemnifying bond—notice of claim to property.

1 An officer is bound to levy an execution on any personal property 2 in the possession of, or that he has reason to believe belongs to, the 3 defendant, or on which the plaintiff directs him to levy, unless he has 4 received notice in writing under oath from some other person, his 5 agent or attorney, that such property belongs to him; stating the 6 nature of his interests therein, how and from whom he acquired the 7 same, and consideration paid therefor; or from the defendant, that 8 the property is exempt from execution; but failure to give such notice 9 shall not deprive the party of any other remedy. Or, if after levy he 10 receives such notice, such officer may release the property unless a 11 bond is given as provided in the next section; but the officer shall be 12 protected from all liability by reason of such levy until he receives 13 such written notice.

[C., '51, § 1916; R., '60, § 3277; C., '73, § 3055; C., '97, § 3991.]

SEC. 7675. Conditions of bond—return.

1 When the officer receives such notice he may forthwith give the 2 plaintiff, his agent or attorney, notice that an indemnifying bond is 3 required. Bond may thereupon be given by or for the plaintiff, with 4 one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer, to the 5 effect that the obligors will indemnify him against the damages which

6 he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale of the property, 7 and will pay to any claimant thereof the damages he may sustain in 8 consequence of the seizure or sale, and will warrant to any purchaser 9 of the property such estate or interest therein as is sold; and there-10 upon the officer shall proceed to subject the property to the execution, 11 and shall return the indemnifying bond to the court from which the 12 execution issued.

[R., '60, § 3277; C., '73, § 3056; C., '97, § 3992.]

SEC. 7676. Failure to give bond.

1 If such bond is not given, the officer may refuse to levy, or if 2 he has done so, and the bond is not given in a reasonable time after 3 it is required by the officer, he may restore the property to the person 4 from whose possession it was taken, and the levy shall stand dis-5 charged.

[R., '60, § 3278; C., '73, § 3057; C., '97, § 3993.]

SEC. 7677. Application of proceeds.

1 Where property for the sale of which the officer is indemnified 2 sells for more than enough to satisfy the execution under which it was 3 taken, the surplus shall be paid into the court to which the indemni-4 fying bond is directed to be returned. The court may order such 5 disposition or payment of the money to be made, temporarily or abso-
 6 lutely, as may be proper in respect to the rights of the parties inter-7 ested.

[R., '60, § 3280; C., '73, § 3059; C., '97, § 3994.]

1 The provisions of the preceding sections, as to bonds, shall apply
 2 to proceedings upon executions issued by justices of the peace. Indem-3 nifying bonds shall be returned in such cases with the execution under 4 which they are taken.

[R., '60, § 3286; C., '73, § 3060; C., '97, § 3995.]

 4 execution, or against any officer, person or corporation, or the sureties 5 of any of them, for money received in a fiduciary capacity, or for the 6 breach of any official duty, there may be a stay of execution, if the 7 defendant therein shall, within ten days from the entry of judgment, 8 procure one or more sufficient freehold sureties to enter into a bond, 9 acknowledging themselves security for the defendant for the payment 10 of the judgment, interest and costs from the time of rendering judg-11 ment until paid, as follows:

- 12 1. If the sum for which judgment was rendered, inclusive of costs, 13 does not exceed one hundred dollars, three months.

[R., '60, § 3293; C., '73, § 3061; C., '97, § 3996.]

SEC. 7680. Affidavit of surety.

1 Officers approving stay bonds shall require the affidavit of the 2 signers thereof, unless waived in writing by the party in whose favor

3 the judgment is rendered, that they own property not exempt from 4 execution, and aside from incumbrance, to the value of twice the 5 amount of the judgment.

2 sons, any of whom is surety for any other in the contract on which 3 judgment is founded, there shall be no stay of execution allowed, if 4 the surety objects thereto at or before the time of rendering the 5 judgment, whereupon it shall be ordered by the court that there be no 6 stay, unless the surety for the stay of execution will undertake spe-7 cifically to pay the judgment in case the amount thereof can not be 8 levied of the principal defendant, and the judgment shall recite that 9 the liability of such stay is prior to that of the objecting surety.

[R., '60, § 3300; C., '73, § 3068; C., '97, § 4003.]

REDEMPTION.

SECTION 7738. When sale absolute.

1 When real property has been levied upon, if the estate is less

 3 absolute, but if of a larger amount, it is redeemable as hereinafter 4 prescribed.

[C., '51, § 1924; R., '60, §§ 3329, 3330; C., '73, §§ 3098, 3099;

 4 secured by the mortgage falls due, or by any creditor whose claim be-5 comes a lien prior to the expiration of the time allowed for such 6 redemption; but a mechanic's lien before judgment thereon is not of 7 such character as to entitle the holder to redeem. The owner of a 8 claim which has been allowed and established against the estate of 9 a decedent may redeem as in this chapter provided, by making applica-10 tion to the district court or any judge of the district where the real 11 estate to be redeemed is situated. Such application shall be heard

 13 shall be determined with due regard to rights of all persons interested.

 4 lien redeemed from bears on the amount of such bid or payment, from 5 the time thereof, but where a mortgagee whose claim is not yet due 6 is the person from whom the redemption is thus to be made, he shall 7 receive on such mortgage only the amount of the principal thereby

 4 added to the amount of his own lien, or the amount he has credited 5 thereon, if less than the whole, with interest at contract rate on the 6 certificate of sale from its date, and upon sums so paid by way of 7 redemption from date of payment, and upon the amount credited on 8 his own judgment from the time of said credit, in each case including 18 in the manner, and for the length of time as is required for the service 19 of original notices, proof of the publication and service of which in 20 manner and for the time ordered shall, at the expiration of said period 21 be filed with said petition, and thereupon if such absentee fails to 22 appear, the court shall hear the proof presented, and if satisfied of 9 the claims of all others interested upon like terms. With any money 10 thus obtained, the survivor may procure a homestead, which shall be 11 exempt from liability for all debts from which the former homestead

 16 made, shall be entered on the proper records thereof. The same notice 17 may be given by any other person interested in the estate of decedent, 18 and shall have the same force and effect as if given by the executor.
 19 In case such surviving spouse does not make such election within six

 5 homestead, which election shall be made and entered of record as 6 provided in the preceding section. In case of a failure to make such 7 election, the right to occupy the homestead in lieu of the distributive
 8 share shall be waived. But when such surviving spouse is mentally

1 The property of a debtor may be attached on debts not due, when 2 nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when 3 the petition, in addition to that fact, states one or more of the follow-4 ing grounds:

5 1. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with 6 intent to defraud his creditors.

7 2. That he is about to remove or has removed from the state, and 8 refuses to secure the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which 9 removal or contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at 10 the time the debt was contracted.

11 3. That the defendant has disposed of his property in whole or 12 in part with intent to defraud his creditors.

13 4. That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false 14 pretenses.

[C., '51, § 1852; R., '60, § 3178; C., '73, § 2956; C., '97, § 3883.]

1 If, at the time of the service of the attachment, the claim upon 2 which suit is brought is not due, the defendant need not appear in 3 the action until the maturity of the demand, unless he elects to plead, 4 in which event the cause shall stand for trial when it is reached in its 5 regular order, and no final judgment shall be rendered therein before 6 the maturity of the debt unless such election is made, but if perishable 7 property is levied upon, it may be sold as in other attachment cases.

 5 case in municipal court, less than two hundred fifty dollars in a court
 6 of record, or less than fifty dollars if in a justice court or a class B 7 case in municipal court, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all 8 damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the wrongful 9 suing out of the attachment.

[C., '51, § 1853; R., '60, § 3181; C., '73, § 2959; C., '97,

SEC. 7961. Additional security.

1 The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court 2 or judge for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, and if, on 3 such motion, the court or judge is satisfied that the surety on the 4 plaintiff's bond has removed from the state, or is not sufficient, the 5 attachment may be vacated and restitution directed of any property 6 taken under it, unless, in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court 7 or judge, security is given by the plaintiff.

[R., '60, § 3182; C., '73, § 2960; C., '97, § 3886.]

SEC. 7962. Action on bond.

1 In an action on such bond, the plaintiff therein may recover, if 2 he shows that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, and that there 3 was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same 4 was issued to be true, the actual damages sustained, and reasonable 5 attorney's fees to be fixed by the court; and if it be shown such attach-6 ment was sued out maliciously, he may recover exemplary damages, 7 nor need he wait until the principal suit is determined before suing 8 on the bond.

[C., '51, § 1854; R., '60, § 3183; C., '73, § 2961; C., '97, § 3887.]

1 The fact stated as a cause of attachment shall not be contested 2 in the action by a mere defense. The defendant's remedy shall be on 3 the bond, but he may in his discretion sue thereon by way of counter-4 claim, and in such case shall recover damages as in an original action 5 on such bond.

[R., '60, § 3238; C., '73, § 3017; C., '97, § 3888.]

§ 3894.]

SEC. 7970. Judgments—money—things in action.

1 Judgments, money, bank bills and other things in action may be 2 levied upon by the officer under an attachment in the same manner as

[R., '60, § 3243; C., '73, § 3022; C., '97, § 3899.]

4 such notice, or that the defendant is not found within the county, 5 shall be shown by the officer's return. A like notice shall be given to 6 the party in possession of the property attached. If the party required 7 to be notified is not found at his usual place of business or residence, 8 such notice may be served upon a member of his family over fourteen

[C., '51, §§ 1859, 1860; R., '60, § 3194; C., '73, § 2967; C., '97, § 3900.]

SEC. 7976. Examination of defendant.

1 Whenever it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or by the 2 return of the attachment, that no property is known to the plaintiff 3 or the officer on which the attachment can be executed, or not enough 4 to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, and it being shown to the judge of any 5 court by affidavit that the defendant has property within the state 6 not exempt, the defendant may be required by such judge to attend 7 before him, or before the court in which the action is pending, or a

1 In executing an attachment against a person who owns property
2 jointly or in common with another, or who is a member of a partner-3 ship, the officer may take possession of such property so owned jointly, 4 in common, or in partnership, sufficiently to enable him to inventory 5 and appraise the same, and for that purpose shall call to his assistance 6 three disinterested persons; which inventory and appraisal shall 7 be returned by the officer with the attachment, and such return shall 8 state who claims to own such property. The plaintiff shall, from the 9 time such property is taken possession of by the officer, have a lien on 10 the interest of the defendant therein, and may, either before or after 11 he obtains judgment in the action in which the attachment issued, 12 commence action by equitable proceedings to ascertain the nature and 13 extent of such interest and to enforce the lien; and, if deemed neces-

3 the officer having the attachment, or after the return thereof by the 4 clerk, to the effect that he will perform the judgment of the court, 5 the attachment shall be discharged, and restitution made of property 6 taken or proceeds thereof. The execution of such bond shall be deemed 7 an appearance of such defendant to the action.

[R., '60, §§ 3191, 3192; C., '73, § 2994; C., '97, § 3907.]

SEC. 7983. Judgment on bond

1 The defendant, or any person in whose possession any attached 2 property is found, or any person making affidavit that he has an 3 interest in it, may, at any time before judgment, discharge the prop-4 erty attached, or any part thereof, by giving bond with security, to be 5 approved by the sheriff, or after the return of the writ by the clerk, 6 in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought to be re-7 leased, but if that sum would exceed double the amount of the claim 8 for which an attachment is sued out, then in such sum as equals double 9 the amount of such claim, conditioned that such property or its ap-10 praised value shall be delivered to the sheriff, to satisfy any judgment 11 which may be obtained against the defendant in that suit, within

[C., '51, § 1876; R., '60, § 3219; C., '73, § 2996; C., '97,

1 To determine the value of property in cases where a bond is to 2 be given, unless the parties agree otherwise, the sheriff shall summon 3 two disinterested persons having the qualification of jurors, who, after 4 having been sworn by him to make the appraisement faithfully and 5 impartially, shall proceed to the discharge of their duty. If such 6 persons disagree as to the value of the property, the sheriff shall de-7 cide between them.

§ 3911.]

SEC. 7987. Perishable property—when to be sold.

1 When the sheriff thinks the property attached in danger of 2 serious and immediate waste and decay, or when the keeping of the 3 same will necessarily be attended with such expense as greatly to 4 depreciate the amount of proceeds to be realized therefrom, or when 5 the plaintiff makes affidavit to that effect, the sheriff may summon 6 three persons having the qualifications of jurors to examine the same.
7 The sheriff shall give the defendant, if within the county, three days' 8 notice of such hearing, and he may appear before such jury and have 9 a personal hearing. If they are of the opinion that the property 10 requires soon to be disposed of, they shall specify in writing a day 11 beyond which they do not deem it prudent that it should be kept in 12 the hands of the sheriff. If such day occurs before the trial day, he 13 shall thereupon give the same notice as for sale of goods on execution, 14 and for the same length of time, unless the condition of the property 15 renders a more immediate sale necessary. The sale shall be made 16 accordingly. If the defendant gives his written consent, such sale 17 may be made without such finding.

5 oath, or by affidavits or the proofs in the cause, that the plaintiff has 6 a just claim, and that the property has been or is about to be sold, 7 concealed or removed from the state, or where plaintiff states on oath 8 that he has reasonable cause to believe, and does believe, that unless 9 prevented by the court the property will be sold, concealed or removed, 10 an attachment may be granted against the property.

[R., '60, § 3225; C., '73, § 3000; C., '97, § 3913.]

3 to issue against the property or debts of the defendant not exempt 4 from execution, upon the filing of an affidavit by the county attorney 5 of the proper county, or of the attorney general, that he verily be-6 lieves that a specific amount therein stated is justly due, and the 7 defendant therein has refused to pay or secure the same, and unless 8 an attachment is issued against the property of the defendant there 9 is danger that the amount due will be lost to the state.

[C., '73, § 3006; C., '97, § 3919.]

SEC. 7995. No bond required.

1 The attachment so issued shall be levied as in other cases of 5 made. When garnishees are summoned, their names and the time 6 each was summoned must be stated, with a copy of each notice of 7 garnishment served attached as a part of his return. Where real 8 property is attached, the sheriff shall describe it with certainty to 9 identify it, and, where he can do so, by a reference to the book and 10 page where the deed under which the defendant holds is recorded.

 11 He shall return with the writ all bonds taken under it, any notice 12 of claim to such property by another than the defendant, any indem-13 nifying bond given by the plaintiff in consequence of such notice, and 14 all money and bank bills levied upon or paid to him thereunder. Such 15 return must be made immediately after he has attached sufficient 16 property, or all that he can find; or, at latest, on the first day of the 17 first term on which the defendant is notified to appear.

[R., '60, § 3224; C., '73, § 3010; C., '97, § 3923.]

SEC. 7999. Judgment—satisfied from proceeds.

1 If judgment is rendered for the plaintiff in any case in which 2 an attachment has been issued, the court shall apply, in satisfaction 3 thereof, any money seized by or paid to the sheriff under such attach-

 5 the sales of perishable property, and if the same is not sufficient to 6 satisfy the plaintiff's claim, the court shall order the issuance of a 7 special execution for the sale of any other attached property which

4 oath to the court, disputing the validity of the attachment, or stating 5 a claim to the property or money, or to an interest in or lien on it, 6 under any other attachment or otherwise, and setting forth the facts 7 upon which the claim is founded; and the petitioner's claim shall be 8 in a summary manner investigated. The court may hear the proof 9 or order a reference, or may impanel a jury to inquire into the facts.
10 If it is found that the petitioner has a title to, a lien on or any interest 11 in such property, the court shall make such order as may be necessary 12 to protect his rights. The costs of such proceedings shall be paid by 4 addition to that reported by the commission, if necessary, and may 5 approve or modify such report, or again refer the matter to the same 6 or another commission for further report.

 7 shall be permanently established.

SEC. 8118. Appeal.

10 lien on the personal property at the time the bond was filed by the 11 judgment of any court having jurisdiction; said bond to be signed by 12 one or more sureties and to be approved by the clerk of the said 13 district court. When such a bond is filed and written notice of such 14 filing given the person, firm, partnership, or corporation claiming a 15 lien, as aforesaid, the lien, if any, shall be discharged from the per-16 sonal property and shall be merged in the bond upon which there 17 shall be a right of action to the extent of the lien on the personal 18 property at the time the bond was filed; and if the person, firm, part-19 nership or corporation claiming a lien has the possession of said per-20 sonal property, such possession shall be surrendered to the owner of 21 the property. If the person, firm, partnership, or corporation claiming 22 the lien fails, neglects, or refuses to surrender said personal property 23 after the bond has been filed and notice served as aforesaid, the owner 24 of said personal property may bring an action for the possession of 25 the specific personal property or pursue any other remedy provided 26 by law to enforce that right. An action upon such bond shall be 27 brought in the county where the principal on the bond resides; but 28 where the aforesaid principal is a nonresident of the state, the action 29 shall be brought in the county where the bond is filed.

 4 if any, or to the judgment for damages or cost for which a separate 5 execution may issue, order that such nuisance be abated or removed

1 The action of mandamus is one brought to obtain an order com-2 manding an inferior tribunal, board, corporation or person to do or 3 not to do an act, the performance or omission of which the law enjoins
 4 as a duty resulting from an office, trust or station. Where discretion 5 is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only 6 compel it to act, but can not control such discretion. All such actions 7 shall be tried as equitable actions.

[C., '51, § 2180; R., '60, §§ 3761, 3763; C., '73, § 3373; C., '97, § 4341; S., '13, § 4341.]

SEC. 8232. Order issued.

1 The order may be issued by the district or superior court to any 2 inferior tribunal, or to any corporation, officer or person; and by the

1 The plaintiff in any action, except those brought for the recovery
2 of specific real or personal property, may also, as an auxiliary relief, 3 have an order of mandamus to compel the performance of a duty 4 established in such action. But if such duty, the performance of 5 which is sought to be compelled, is not one resulting from an office, 6 trust or station, it must be one for the breach of which a legal right 7 to damages is already complete at the commencement of the action, 8 and must also be a duty of which a court of equity would enforce the 9 performance.

[R., '60, § 3767; C., '73, § 3375; C., '97, § 4343.]

SEC. 8234. Other remedy.

1 An order of mandamus shall not be issued in any case where

4 public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party 5 or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought.

[R., '60, § 3761; C., '73, § 3377; C., '97, § 4345.]

1 The plaintiff in such action shall state his claim, and shall also 2 state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall

5 the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has 6 been demanded by him, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an 7 order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty.

[R., '60, § 3762; C., '73, § 3378; C., '97, § 4346.]

SEC. 8237. Other pleadings.

1 The pleadings and other proceedings in any action in which a 2 mandamus is claimed shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and costs 3 shall be recoverable by either party, as in an ordinary action for the 2 therein a peremptory order of mandamus directed to the defendant, 3 commanding him forthwith to perform the duty to be enforced, to-4 gether with a money judgment for damages and costs, upon which 5 an ordinary execution may issue.

[R., '60, § 3768; C., '73, § 3381; C., '97, § 4349.]

SEC. 8240. Return.

1 The order shall simply command the performance of the duty,
2 shall be directed to the party, and may be issued in term or vacation, 3 returnable forthwith, and no return except that of compliance shall 4 be allowed; but time to return it may, upon sufficient grounds, be 5 allowed by the court or judge, either with or without terms.

[R., '60, § 3769; C., '73, § 3382; C., '97, § 4350.]

SEC. 8241. Performance by another—costs.

1 The court may, upon application of the plaintiff, besides or in-2 stead of proceeding against the defendant by attachment, direct that 3 the act required to be done may be done by the plaintiff or some other 4 person appointed by the court, at the expense of the defendant, and, 5 upon the act being done, the amount of such expense may be ascer-6 tained by the court, or by a referee appointed by the court or judge,

SEC. 8242. Temporary orders.

1 During the pendency of the action, the court, or judge in vaca-

1 When the state is a party, it may appeal without security.

[R., '60, § 3772; C., '73, § 3385; C., '97, § 4353.]

1 The petition therefor must state facts constituting a case wherein

 9 affect the subject matter thereof, it can only be granted by the court 10 or judge thereof in which such action is pending. Nor shall it be 11 granted by any judge mentioned in the second subdivision hereof, 12 unless it satisfactorily appears by affidavit that the court or judge 13 thereof in which the action is brought can not, for want of time, sick-14 ness, or other disability, hear the same, or that the residence of the 15 judge is inconvenient, or that it is for some sufficient reason imprac-16 ticable to make the application to him. Nor shall it be granted by any 17 judge mentioned in the third subdivision hereof, unless it be made

4 the first publication provided for in the preceding section, unless the 5 court extends such time for all or some of such claimants, which it may 6 do in its discretion where peculiar circumstances seem to justify such 7 extension, but in no case shall such time be extended beyond nine 8 months.

[C., '97, § 3075.]

SEC. 8412. List of creditors.

1 At the expiration of three months from the time of first publish-2 ing notice, the assignee shall report and file with the clerk of the court 3 a true and full list, under oath, of all such creditors of the assignor as 4 shall have claimed to be such, with a statement of their claims, an affi-5 davit of publication of notice, and a list of the creditors, with their 6 places of residence, to whom notice has been sent by mail, and the date 7 of mailing the same.

[R., '60, § 1831; C., '73, § 2120; C., '97, § 3076.]

SEC. 8413. Claims contested.

1 Any person interested may appear within three months after such 2 report is filed and contest the claim or demand of any creditor by 3 written exceptions thereto filed with the clerk, who shall forthwith 4 cause notice thereof to be given to the creditor, which shall be served 5 as in case of an original notice and returnable at the next term, at 6 which term the court shall proceed to hear the proofs and allegations 7 of the parties in the case, and render such judgment thereon as shall 8 be just, or it may allow a trial by jury.

compensation.

1 If the claim of any creditor is for personal services rendered the 2 assignor within ninety days next preceding the execution of the assign-3 ment, it shall be paid in full. Subject to the provisions contained in 4 this and the preceding section, if no exception be made to the claim of 5 any creditor, or if the same has been adjudicated, the court shall order 6 the assignee to make, from time to time, fair and equal dividends

7 among the creditors of the assets in his hands in proportion to their 8 claims, and as soon as may be to render a final account of said trust 9 to said court, which may allow such compensation to said assignee in 10 the final settlement as may be considered just and right. If, upon 11 making the final dividend to the creditors, the assignee shall be unable, 12 after reasonable efforts, to ascertain the place of residence of any cred-13 itor, or any person who is authorized to receive the dividend due him, 14 he shall report the same to the court, with evidence showing diligent 15 attempts to find such creditor or person authorized to receive the 16 dividend, whereupon the court may, in its discretion, order the dis-17 tribution of the unclaimed dividend among the other creditors.

[R., '60, § 1833; C., '73, § 2122; C., '97, § 3079.]

 5 of the duties required by this chapter; and he shall dispose of all per-6 sonal property and divide the proceeds of the same among creditors 7 as they may be entitled thereto within six months from the date of the 8 assignment, and shall dispose of real estate within one year from such 9 date, and make full settlement by that time, unless the court or judge, 10 for good reason shown, shall extend the time within which such dispo-11 sition or settlement shall be made.

[R., '60, §§ 1834, 1842; C., '73, § 2123; C., '97, § 3080.]

SEC. 8417. Assignment not void—citation to debtor.

1 No assignment shall be declared fraudulent or void for want of 2 any list or inventory, as provided in this chapter. The court or judge 3 may, upon application of the assignee or any creditor, compel the ap-4 pearance in person of the debtor before such court or judge forthwith, 5 or at the next term, to answer under oath such matters as may be 6 inquired of him, and such debtor may be fully examined under oath as 7 to the amount and situation of his estate, and the names of the cred-8 itors and amounts due to each, with their places of residence, and may 9 be compelled to deliver to the assignee any property or estate embraced 10 in the assignment.

[R., '60, § 1835; C., '73, § 2124; C., '97, § 3081.]

1 The assignee shall, from time to time, file with the clerk of the 2 court an inventory and valuation of any additional property which may 3 come into his hands under said assignment after the filing of the first 4 inventory, and the clerk may thereupon require him to give additional 5 security.

[R., '60, § 1836; C., '73, § 2125; C., '97, § 3082.]

SEC. 8419. Claims not due—filed after three months.

1 Any creditor may claim debts to become due, as well as debts due,
 2 but on debts not due a reasonable rebate shall be made when the same 3 are not drawing interest, and all creditors who shall not file their 4 claims within three months from the publication of notice, as afore-

5 said, shall not participate in the dividends until after the payment in 6 full of all claims presented within said term, and allowed by the court, 7 unless the court has extended the time for filing such claims, except 8 as provided by this chapter.

[R., '60, § 1837; C., '73, § 2126; C., '97, § 3083.]

1 The assignee may dispose of and sell all the estate assigned, real 2 and personal, which the debtor had at the time of the assignment, may 3 sue for and recover in his name everything belonging or appertaining 4 to said estate, and generally do whatever the debtor might have done 5 in the premises; but no sale of real estate belonging to said trust shall 6 be made without notice, published as in case of sales of real estate on 7 execution, unless the court or judge shall otherwise order, and no 8 such sales shall be valid until approved by such court or judge.

[R., '60, § 1838; C., '73, § 2127; C., '97, § 3084.]

1 Upon a written application of two-thirds of the creditors in num-2 ber, and two-thirds in amount, the court shall remove the assignee and 3 appoint in his stead a person approved by the creditors in the same 4 number and amount, and the person so removed shall immediately 5 turn over to the clerk of the district court, or any person appointed by 6 the court, all moneys and property of the estate in his hands. If an 7 assignee shall reside out of the state, or become insane or otherwise 8 incapable of discharging the trust, the court may, upon ten days' 9 notice to him or his attorney, remove him and appoint another in his 10 stead.

[R., '60, § 1830; C., '73, § 2118; C., '97, § 3085.]

SEC. 8422. Death of assignee—failure to act—misconduct.

1 If an assignee dies before the closing of his trust, or in case any 2 assignee shall fail or neglect for the period of twenty days after the 3 making of any assignment to file an inventory and valuation, and give 4 bond as required by this chapter, the district court, or any judge 5 thereof, of the county where such assignment may be recorded, on the 6 application of any person interested, shall appoint some person to 7 execute the trust, who shall, on giving bond with sureties as required 8 of an assignee, have all of the powers of the assignee first appointed, 9 and be subject to all the duties hereby imposed. In case any bond or 10 surety is found to be insufficient, or, on complaint before the court or 11 judge, it shall be made to appear that any assignee is guilty of wast-12 ing or misapplying the trust estate, such court or judge may require 13 additional security, may remove the assignee and appoint another in 14 his place, and such person so appointed, on giving bond, shall execute 15 such duties, and may demand and sue for all estate in the hands of 16 the person removed, and recover the amount and value of all moneys 17 and property or estate wasted and misapplied, from such person and 18 his sureties.

[R., '60, § 1839; C., '73, § 2128; C., '97, § 3086.]

4 thereof.

[C., '97, § 3087.]

CHAPTER 31.

SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS OF TRUST FUNDS.

SECTION 8424. Security to be by bond.

1 Whenever security is required to be given by law or by order or 2 judgment of a court, and no particular mode is prescribed, it shall be 3 by bond.

[C., '51, § 2505; R., '60, § 4113; C., '73, § 246; C., '97, § 355.]

SEC. 8425. To whom payable.

1 Such security, when not otherwise directed, may, if for the benefit 2 of individuals, be given to the party intended to be secured thereby; if 3 in relation to the public matters concerning the inhabitants of one 4 county or part of a county, it may be made payable to the county; if 5 concerning the inhabitants of more than one county, it may be made 6 payable to the state, but a mere mistake in these respects will not 7 vitiate the security.

[C., '51, § 2506; R., '60, § 4114; C., '73, § 247; C., '97, § 356.]

SEC. 8426. Defects rectified.

1 No defective bond or other security or affidavit in any case shall 2 prejudice the party giving or making it, provided it be so rectified, 3 within a reasonable time after the defect is discovered, as not to cause 4 essential injury to the other party.

[C., '51, § 2511; R., '60, § 4119; C., '73, § 248; C., '97, § 357.]

SEC. 8427. Bonds to secure performance of public contracts in excess of one thousand dollars.

1 Whenever any public body, board, committee, officer or other 2 public representative now or hereafter empowered by law to enter into 3 a contract, for and on behalf of the public, for the purpose of con-
4 structing any public building, or for the purpose of making any public 5 improvement, or for the making of any additions thereto, or for the 6 finishing, furnishing or repairing of any such buildings or public work, 7 such body, board, committee, officer or other public representative, 8 whenever the contract price is in excess of one thousand dollars, shall 9 require as a condition precedent to the making of such contract that 10 the person, firm or corporation to whom the contract is awarded fur-11 nish and file a bond, as hereinafter provided, in a sum of not less than 12 the contract price, the amount to be determined by those representing 13 the public, signed by the contractor and a responsible surety company 14 authorized to do business in Iowa, which bond shall run to said body, 15 board, committee, or other public representative, for its use and bene-16 fit and for the use and benefit of all persons, firms and corporations 17 who shall perform any labor or furnish any material, including fuel, in 18 the carrying out of such public contract, and shall have as one of its 19 conditions, the following paragraph:

20 "Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such that if 21 the principal shall faithfully perform the contract on his part, and 22 satisfy all claims and demands, incurred for the same, and shall fully 23 indemnify and save harmless the owner from all cost and damage 24 which he may suffer by reason of failure so to do, and shall fully reim-25 burse and repay the owner all outlay and expense which the owner 26 may incur in making good any such default, and shall pay all persons 27 who have contracts directly with the principal for subcontractors for 28 labor or materials, then this obligation shall be null and void; other-29 wise it shall remain in full force and effect."

30 The foregoing condition shall at all times be additional to those 31 conditions and requirements now or hereafter required by statute to 32 be a part of such bonds. The provisions and requirements of this sec-33 tion and the three following sections shall not be modified or annulled 34 by contrary provisions in any such bond or contract.

[38 G. A., ch. 347, § 1.]

SEC. 8428. Executed in duplicate—copy filed in office of clerk of district court—suit thereon.

1 Such bond shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall 2 be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in 3 which such public work is to be performed; and any person for whose 4 benefit the bond is given, or his assigns, may bring an action on such 5 bond for the recovery of such indebtedness; provided that no such 6 action shall be brought on said bond after six months of the comple-
 7 tion of any public improvement or building, and provided that a veri-8 fied, itemized statement of the claim shall be filed with the city clerk, 9 county auditor or secretary of the school board, as the case may be, 10 within sixty days after the last item of material is furnished or labor 11 performed.

[38 G. A., ch. 347, § 2.]

SEC. 8429. Contract of no validity unless bond filed and clerk's indorsement thereon.

1 No public contract coming within the provisions of this chapter 2 shall be of any validity until the bond mentioned herein has been 3 executed and filed in the form and bearing the conditions as provided 4 by this chapter, and until there is indorsed on said contract the written 5 indorsement of the clerk of the district court of the county in which 6 such public work is to be performed that such a bond, properly exe-7 cuted, is now on file in his office.

[38 G. A., ch. 347, § 3.]

SEC. 8430. Three preceding sections construed as additional security.

1 The three preceding sections shall be construed as affording addi-2 tional security to that now provided such claimants under existing 3 statutes and not so as to affect existing mechanic's lien laws or other 4 statutes providing for the filing of similar claims, and so as not to 5 apply to bonds furnished under the requirements of chapter two, title 6 fifteen.

[38 G. A., ch. 347, § 4.]

SEC. 8431. Qualifications of sureties—attorneys not accepted.

1 The surety in every bond provided for or authorized by law must 2 be a resident of this state, and worth double the sum to be secured 3 beyond the amount of his debts, and have property liable to execution 4 in this state equal to the sum to be secured, except as otherwise pro-
 5 vided by law. Where there are two or more sureties in the same bond, 6 they must in the aggregate have the qualification prescribed in this 7 section. Attorneys at law shall not be accepted as sureties upon any 8 official bonds provided for in this section. Whenever the board of 9 supervisors of any county shall have knowledge that any attorney at 10 law is surety upon any official bond, above referred to, it shall require 11 said officer to forthwith file a new bond. But nothing herein shall 12 exempt such person from any liability upon the bond signed by him.

[R., '60, § 4126; C., '73, § 249; C., '97, § 358; S., '13, § 358.]

SEC. 8432. Affidavit of sureties—effect of—guarantee companies as sureties.

1 The officer whose duty it is to take a surety in any bond provided 2 for or authorized by law shall require the person offered as surety to 3 make affidavit of his qualification, which affidavit may be made before 4 such officer, or other officer authorized to administer oaths. The tak-5 ing of such an affidavit shall not exempt the officer from any liability 6 to which he might otherwise be subject for taking insufficient security.
 7 Any company engaged in the business of becoming surety upon bonds 8 shall file, with the clerk of any county in which it shall do business, a 9 certificate from the commissioner of insurance that it has complied 10 with the law and is authorized to do business in this state; and, should 11 said authority be withdrawn at any time, the commissioner of insur-
 12 ance shall at once notify the clerk of each district court to that effect.
 13 The clerk shall keep a book, properly indexed, in which shall be re-14 corded all such certificates and revocations.

[R., '60, § 4125; C., '73, § 250; C., '97, § 359.]

SEC. 8433. When guaranty company may be accepted as surety—premium—not applicable to criminal cases.

1 Whenever any person who now or hereafter may be required or 2 permitted to give a bond applies for the approval thereof, any officer 3 or body who is now or shall hereafter be required to approve the suf-4 ficiency of such bond shall accept and approve the same, whenever 5 its conditions are guaranteed by a company or corporation duly organ-6 ized or incorporated under the laws of this state, or authorized to do 7 business therein, and to guarantee the fidelity of persons holding posi-8 tions of public or private trust, or secure any bond above referred to, 9 and which company shall have the certificate of the commissioner of 10 insurance authorizing it to do business therein, as provided in chapter 11 seven, title eighteen, and the premium for any such guaranty or surety 12 company bond as defined in this section, may, by the approval of the 13 court, be paid out of the trust funds in the hands of the party of whom 14 the bond is required. The certificate of the commissioner of insurance, 15 to the effect that such company has complied with the requirements 16 of said chapter and title and is authorized to do business in this state, 17 shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the officer or body having the 18 approval of such bond to accept and approve the same, but no such 19 security shall be accepted on any bond for an amount in excess of ten

20 per cent of the paid-up cash capital of such company or corporation 21 unless the excess shall be reinsured in some other company or corpo-22 ration authorized to do business in the state and in no case to exceed 23 ten per cent of the capital of the reinsuring company and provided 24 that a certificate of such reinsurance shall be furnished to the insured, 25 but nothing herein contained shall apply to bonds in criminal cases.

[C., '97, § 360; S. S., '15, § 360.]

SEC. 8434. Release from liability—same as private persons.

1 Such company or corporation may be released from its liability 2 as such surety on any bond on the same terms and conditions, and in 3 the same manner, as is by law prescribed for the release of natural 4 persons as such sureties; it being the intent of this chapter to enable 5 companies created, incorporated or chartered for such purposes to 6 become surety on bonds required by law, subject to all the rights and 7 liabilities of natural persons.

[C., '97, § 361.]

SEC. 8435. Suit on bond of guarantee company—notice.

1 Whenever suit is required to be brought on any bond given by 2 such company, service shall be had upon any agent of such company 3 in this state, and if there is no agent in the state, then service may be 4 had by serving the commissioner of insurance fifteen days before the 5 term of court in which the suit is sought to be brought, and it shall be 6 the duty of the commissioner of insurance, upon service being made 7 upon him, to immediately mail a copy of such notice to such company 8 at their principal place of business, and any notice so served shall be 9 deemed to be good and sufficient service on any such company.

[C., '97, § 362.]

SEC. 8436. Estoppel—stockholders liable.

1 Any company which shall execute any bond as surety under the 2 provisions of this chapter shall be estopped, in any proceeding to en-3 force the liability which it shall have assumed to incur, to deny its 4 corporate power to execute such instrument or assume such liability; 5 and the private property of the stockholders shall be liable for the 6 debts of the corporation to the full amount of the capital stock held 7 by such stockholders.

[C., '97, § 363.]

SEC. 8437. Investments—in what to be made.

1 Where investments of funds are to be made, including those to 2 be made by executors, administrators; trustees and guardians, and no 3 mode of investment is pointed out by statute, they may be made in 4 the stocks or bonds of this state, or of those of the United States, or 5 in bond or mortgage upon real property of the clear, unincumbered 6 value of twice the investment or under order of court in bonds issued 7 by or under the direction of cities, towns, counties, school or drainage 8 districts of this state.

 S., '13, § 364.]

SEC. 8438. Security not to be changed without order.

1 When such investment is made by order of any court, the security 2 taken shall in no case be discharged, impaired or transferred without 3 an order of the court to that effect, entered on the minutes thereof.

[C., '51, § 2508; R., '60, § 4116; C., '73, § 252; C., '97, § 365.]

SEC. 8439. Duty of investor under order.

1 The clerk or other person appointed in such cases to make the 2 investment must receive all moneys as they become due thereon, and 3 apply or reinvest the same under the direction of the court, unless 4 the court appoints some other person to do such acts.

[C., '51, § 2509; R., '60, § 4117; C., '73, § 253; C., '97, § 366.]

SEC. 8440. Must account annually.

1 Once in each year, and oftener if required by the court, the person
 2 so appointed must, on oath, render to the court an account in writing 3 of all moneys so received by him, and of the application thereof.

[C., '51, § 2510; R., '60, § 4118; C., '73, § 254; C., '97, § 367.]

SEC. 8441. When court may order money or property deposited.

1 When it is admitted by the pleadings, or shown by the examina-2 tion of a party, that he has in his possession, or under his control, any 3 money or property capable of delivery, which is in any degree the 4 subject of litigation, and which is held by him as trustee for another 5 party, the court, or judge thereof, may order the same to be deposited 6 in the office of the clerk, or delivered to such party, with or without 7 security, subject to the further direction of the court; or may order 8 such money to be deposited in a bank, with the consent of the parties 9 in interest, to the credit of the court in which the action is pending, 10 and the same shall be paid out by such bank only upon the check of 11 the clerk, annexed to a certified copy of the order of the court directing 12 such payment.

[R., '60, § 3416; C., '73, § 255; C., '97, § 368.]

1 Whenever a court, or judge in the exercise of its or his authority, 2 has ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other property, and 3 the order is disobeyed, such court or judge, besides punishing the 4 disobedience, may make an order requiring the sheriff to take the 5 money or property, and deposit or deliver it in conformity with the 6 directions of the court or judge, and in such cases he has the same 7 power as when acting under an order for the delivery of personal 8 property.

[R., '60, §§ 3417, 3418; C., '73, §§ 256, 257; C., '97, § 369.]

1 Whenever any administrator, guardian, trustee or referee shall 2 desire to make his final report, and shall then have in his possession or 3 under his control any funds, moneys or securities due, or to become 4 due, to any heir, legatee, devisee or other person, whose place of resi-5 dence is unknown to such administrator, guardian, trustee, or referee 6 or to whom payment of the amount due can not be made as shown by 7 the report on file, such funds, moneys or securities may upon order of 8 the court and after such notice as the court may prescribe, be depos-9 ited with the clerk of the district court of the county wherein such ap-10 pointment was made, and if he shall otherwise discharge all the duties 11 imposed upon him by such appointment, he may take the receipt of 12 the clerk of the district court for such funds, moneys or securities so 13 deposited, which receipt shall specifically set forth from whom said 14 funds, moneys or securities were derived, the amount thereof, and the 15 name of the person to whom due or to become due, if known. There-16 upon said administrator, guardian, trustee or referee may file such 17 receipt with his final report, and if it shall be made to appear to the 18 satisfaction of the court that he has in all other respects complied with 19 the law governing his appointment and duties, the court may approve 20 such final report and enter his discharge; but notice of such contem-

7 all such funds, moneys or securities which may be deposited with him, 8 and shall make complete verified statements thereof to the board of

 2 district court, in addition to causes for a new trial hereinbefore 3 authorized, may, after the term at which the same was rendered or 4 made, vacate or modify the same or grant a new trial:
- 5 1. For mistake, neglect or omission of the clerk, or irregularity in 6 obtaining the same.

1 Where a view of an original paper or exhibit in the action may 2 be important to a correct decision of the appeal, the court may order 3 the clerk of the court below to transmit the same, which he shall do 4 in the manner provided for the transmission of certifications of the 5 effect that he will pay to the appellee all costs and damages that shall 6 be adjudged against him on the appeal; and will satisfy and perform 7 the judgment or order appealed from in case it shall be affirmed, and 8 any judgment or order which the supreme court may render, or order

 12 the appellee is kept by reason of the appeal. If the bond is intended 13 to stay proceedings on only a part of the judgment or order, it shall 14 be varied so as to secure the part stayed alone. When thus filed and 15 approved, the clerk shall issue a written order requiring the appellee 16 and all others to stay all proceedings under such judgment or order, 17 or so much thereof as is superseded thereby, but no appeal or stay shall 18 vacate or affect such judgment or order.

[C., '51, § 1983; R., '60, §§ 3527, 3528; C., '73, § 3186; C., '97,

 4 district court or judge thereof, who shall fix the amount and conditions
 5 of the bond and approve the same. Pending the application, the judge 6 may, by a written order, recall and stay all proceedings under the order 7 or judgment appealed from until the decision of the application. The 8 bond thus approved shall be filed with the clerk, who shall issue a 9 written order to stay proceedings.

 3 either court, if in vacation, upon ten days' notice in writing to appel-4 lant, to discharge the bond on account of defect in substance or insuf-5 ficiency in security, which motion if well taken, shall be sustained, 6 unless appellant shall, within a day to be fixed in the order made and 7 filed therein, give a new and sufficient bond as required by said order.
 8 If the new bond is not given, proceedings shall be had in the lower 9 court as though no bond had been given, but a new and sufficient bond 10 may be given at any time with like effect and results as though given 11 in the first instance.

1 If the judgment or order is for the payment of money, the 2 penalty shall be in at least twice the amount of the judgment and

CHAPTER 21.

IMPANELING GRAND JURY.

SECTION 9299. Drawing grand jurors.

1 At the term of court at which grand jurors are required to appear, 2 the names of the twelve persons constituting the panel of the grand 3 jury shall, on the second day of each term of court, unless otherwise 4 ordered by the court or judge, be placed by the clerk in a box, and 5 after thoroughly mixing the same, he shall draw therefrom seven 6 names, and the persons so drawn shall constitute the grand jury for 7 that term. Should any of the persons so drawn be excused or fail to 8 attend on said second day of the court, the clerk shall draw other 9 names until the seven grand jurors are secured.

[C., '51, § 2881; R., '60, §§ 4608-4610; C., '73, §§ 4255-4257;
 C., '97, § 5240; S., '13, § 5240.]

SEC. 9300. Additional drawings.

1 If, for any reason, the number of grand jurors required is not 2 secured from the twelve persons so constituting such panel, the clerk 3 shall draw from the grand jury list, provided for by section seventy 4 hundred two, such number of names as the court may direct, and from 5 the persons whose names are so drawn the panel of the grand jury 6 for the term shall be filled, and the court shall issue a venire to secure 7 their attendance.

[C., '51, § 2881; R., '60, §§ 4608-4610; C., '73, §§ 4255-4257;
 C., '97, § 5240; S., '13, § 5240.]

SEC. 9301. Challenge to panel—motion.

1 A defendant held to answer for a public offense may, before the 2 grand jury is sworn, challenge the panel, only for the reason that it
 3 was not selected, drawn or summoned as prescribed by law. A 4 defendant indicted not having been held to answer, or having been 5 so held after the impaneling of the grand jury, may for the same 6 reasons object to the panel by motion, but the right to make such 7 motion is waived by entering a plea to an indictment.

[C., '51, §§ 2882, 2883, 2890; R., '60, §§ 4611, 4612, 4619;
 C., '73, §§ 4258, 4260, 4266; C., '97, § 5241.]

SEC. 9302. Joinder in challenges.

1 When several persons are held to answer for one and the same
 2 offense, no challenge to the panel can be made unless they all join 3 therein.

[C., '51, § 2890; R., '60, § 4619; C., '73, § 4266; C., '97, § 5242.]

SEC. 9303. Grounds of challenge.

1 A challenge to an individual grand juror may be made before 2 the grand jury is sworn as follows:

3 By the state or the defendant, because the grand juror does not 4 possess the qualifications required by law.

5 By the state only because:

6 1. He is related either by affinity or consanguinity nearer than in 7 the fifth degree, or stands in the relation of agent, clerk, servant or 8 employee, to any person held to answer for a public offense, whose 9 case may come before the grand jury.

10 2. He is bail for anyone held to answer for a public offense, whose 11 case may come before the grand jury.

12 3. He is defendant in a prosecution similar to any prosecution 13 to be examined by the grand jury.

14 4. He is, or within one year preceding has been, engaged or 15 interested in carrying on any business, calling or employment the 16 carrying on of which is a violation of law, and for which the juror 17 may be indicted by the grand jury.

18 By the defendant only because:

19 1. He is a prosecutor upon a charge against the defendant.

20 2. He has formed or expressed such an opinion as to the guilt or 21 innocence of the prisoner as would prevent him from rendering a 22 true verdict upon the evidence submitted on the trial.

[C., '51, §§ 2882, 2884, 2890; R., '60, §§ 4611, 4613, 4619;
 C., '73, §§ 4258, 4259, 4261, 4266; C., '97, § 5243.]

SEC. 9304. Decided by the court.

 2 decided by the court.

[C., '51, § 2886; R., '60, § 4615; C., '73, § 4262; C., '97, § 5244.]

SEC. 9305. Effect of allowing challenge to panel.

1 If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the grand jury is prohibited 2 from inquiring into the charge against the defendant by whom it was

3 interposed, and, if it does so and finds an indictment, the court must 4 set it aside.

[C., '51, § 2887; R., '60, § 4616; C., '73, § 4263; C., '97, § 5245.]

SEC. 9306. Dismissal of jurors—new panels.

1 If a challenge to an individual grand juror be allowed, he shall 2 not be present at or take any part in the consideration of the charge 3 against the defendant. If a challenge to the panel is allowed, or if 4 by reason of challenges to individual grand jurors being allowed, or if 5 if for any cause at any time, the grand jury is reduced to a less number 6 than seven, a new grand jury shall be impaneled to inquire into the 7 charge against the defendant in whose behalf the challenge to the 8 panel has been allowed, or the panel of the jury so reduced below the 9 number required by law shall be filled as the case may be. If a chal-
10 lenge is allowed to the panel the names of jurors required to impanel 11 a new jury shall be drawn from the grand jury list.

[C., '51, § 2888; R., '60, § 4617; C., '73, § 4264; C., '97,
§ 5246; S., '13, § 5246.]

SEC. 9307. Summoning additional jurors.

1 If such grand jury has been reduced to a less number than seven 2 by reason of challenges to individual jurors being allowed, or from 3 any other cause, the additional jurors required to fill the panel shall 4 be summoned, first, from such of the twelve jurors originally sum-5 moned which were not drawn on the grand jury as first impaneled, 6 or excused, and if they are exhausted, the additional number required 7 shall be drawn from the grand jury list and the court shall, when 8 necessary, issue a venire to secure the attendance of such additional 9 jurors. The persons so summoned shall serve only in the case, or 10 cases, in which, by reason of challenges, or other causes, the regular 11 panel is set aside or is insufficient in number to find an indictment.

[C., '97, § 5246; S., '13, § 5246.]

SEC. 9308. Effect of violation.

1 The grand jury must inform the court of any violation of the two 2 preceding sections, which offense shall be punished as a contempt.

[C., '51, § 2889; R., '60, § 4618; C., '73, § 4265; C., '97, § 5247.]

SEC. 9309. Foreman appointed.

1 From the persons impaneled as grand jurors the court must 2 appoint a foreman, or when the foreman already appointed is dis-
3 charged, excused, or from any cause becomes unable to act, before 4 the grand jury is finally discharged.

[C., '51, § 2891; R., '60, § 4620; C., '73, § 4267; C., '97, § 5248.]

2 grand jury: "You, as foreman of the grand jury, shall diligently 3 inquire and true presentment make of all public offenses against the 4 people of this state, triable on indictment within this county, of which

5 you have or can obtain legal evidence; you shall present no person 6 through malice, hatred or ill will, nor leave any unrepresented through 7 fear, favor or affection, or for any reward, or the promise or hope 8 thereof, but in all your presentments you shall present the truth, the 9 whole truth and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your 10 skill and understanding."

[C., '51, § 2892; R., '60, § 4621; C., '73, § 4268; C., '97, § 5249.]

SEC. 9311. Oath of members.

1 The following oath must thereupon be administered to the other
2 grand jurors: "The same oath which your foreman has now taken 3 before you on his part, you and each of you shall well and truly observe 4 on your part."

[C., '51, § 2893; R., '60, § 4622; C., '73, § 4269; C., '97,

5 shall specially give in his charge the provisions of the law regulating 6 the accounting by public officers for fines and fees collected by them, 7 and those providing for the suppression of intemperance.

[C., '51, § 2894; R., '60, § 4623; C., '73, § 4270; C., '97, § 5251.]

SEC. 9313. Clerk—oath—compensation.

1 The court may appoint as clerk of the grand jury, a competent 2 person who is not a member thereof. The following oath must be 3 administered to him: "You solemnly swear that you will faithfully 4 and impartially perform the duties of clerk of the grand jury, that 5 you will not reveal to anyone its proceedings or the testimony given 6 before it and will abstain from expressing any opinion upon any ques-7 tion before it, to or in the presence or hearing of the grand jury or 8 any member thereof." Such clerk shall strictly abstain from express-9 ing an opinion upon any question before the body, either to or in the 10 presence or hearing of it or any member thereof, and shall not be 11 present when any vote is being taken upon the finding of an indict-12 ment, and shall receive compensation at the rate of two dollars per 13 day for time actually and necessarily employed in the performance 14 of the duties prescribed in this chapter.

2 whose evidence it is found must be indorsed thereon before it is pre-3 sented in the court, and must be, with the minutes of the evidence of 4 such witnesses, presented to the court by the foreman in the presence 5 of the grand jury, and all of the same marked "filed" by the clerk, as 6 provided in the chapter relating to the duties of the grand jury, and 7 shall remain in his office as a record.

9 4. That the offense was committed prior to the time of the find-

SEC. 9389. Grounds of demurrer.

1 The defendant may demur to the indictment when it appears upon 2 its face, either:

3 1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of 6 diction of the offense charged; if sustained because the indictment 7 contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the indictment, the 8 judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged; if sus-9 tained on any other ground, the defendant must be discharged and his 10 bail exonerated, if bail has been given, unless the court is of opinion, 11 on good cause shown, that the objection can be remedied or avoided in 12 another indictment, in which case the court may order the cause to be 5 former conviction or acquittal. Issues of fact must be tried by a jury.

6 If a felony is charged, the defendant must be personally present at

SEC. 9401. Bars actions for lower degree or included offense.

1 When a defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an indict-2 ment for an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or

1 If, after retirement, one of the jury is taken sick so as to prevent 2 further deliberation, or any other accident or cause occurs to prevent 3 its being kept together, the court may discharge it; otherwise the jury 4 can not be discharged after the cause is submitted to it until it has 5 agreed upon its verdict and rendered it in open court, unless, by the 6 consent of both parties entered upon the record, or unless, at the ex-7 piration of such time as the court may deem proper, it satisfactorily 8 appears that there is no reasonable probability that it can agree.

 4 acquittal of the same offense, in which case it shall be "for the state" 5 or "for the defendant," and except in cases submitted to determine 6 the grade of the offense and, when authorized, fixing the punishment 7 therefor. It must also return with the general verdict answers to 8 special interrogatories submitted by the court upon its own motion, 9 or at the request of the defendant in prosecutions where the defense

1 When the jury has agreed upon its verdict, it must be conducted

1 If the jury persists in finding an informal verdict, from which, 2 however, it can be understood that the intention is to find for the 3 defendant upon the issue, it shall be entered in the terms in which it
4 is found, and the court must give judgment of acquittal. But no
5 judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly finds

2 which the papers on a preliminary examination are returned, at any 3 time before trial on an indictment for the offense, or the trial of an 4 appeal in the district court, and acknowledge in writing that he has 5 received satisfaction for the injury, the court may, in its discretion, on 6 payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be stayed upon 7 the prosecution, and the defendant to be discharged therefrom. But 8 in that case the reasons for the order must be set forth therein and 9 entered upon the minutes.

[R., '60, § 5107; C., '73, § 4709; C., '97, § 5623.]

SEC. 9583. Compromise bar to prosecution.

SECTION 9585. Dismissal when indictment not found.

1 When a person is held to answer for a public offense, if an indict-
2 ment be not found against him at the next regular term of the court

3 at which he is held to answer, the court must order the prosecution to 4 be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

[C., '51, § 3248; R., '60, § 5007; C., '73, § 4613; C., '97, § 5535.]

SEC. 9586. Dismissal for delay in trial.

1 If a defendant indicted for a public offense, whose trial has not 2 been postponed upon his application, be not brought to trial at the next 3 regular term of the court in which the indictment is triable after the 5 cause to the contrary be shown.

[C., '51, § 3249; R., '60, § 5008; C., '73, § 4614; C., '97, § 5536.]

SEC. 9587. Discharge on undertaking.

1 If the defendant be not indicted or tried as above provided, and 2 sufficient reason therefor is shown, the court may order the prose-3 cution continued from term to term, and discharge the defendant from 4 custody on his own undertaking, or on the undertaking of bail for 5 his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the same is 6 continued, but no continuance under this section shall be extended 7 beyond the following three terms of the court.

§ 5537.]

SEC. 9588. Discharge on dismissal.

1 If the court direct the prosecution to be dismissed, the defendant, 2 if in custody, must be discharged, or his bail, if any, exonerated, and 3 if money has been deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded 4 to him.

[R., '60, § 5010; C., '73, § 4616; C., '97, § 5538.]

2 attorney, in the furtherance of justice, may order the dismissal of 3 any pending criminal prosecution, the reasons therefor being stated 4 in the order and entered of record, and no such prosecution shall be 5 discontinued or abandoned in any other manner. Such a dismissal is 6 a bar to another prosecution for the same offense if it is a misde-7 meanor; but it is not a bar if the offense charged be a felony.

[C., '51, §§ 3251, 3252; R., '60, §§ 5011-5013; C., '73, §§ 4617-
