INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT.

To the Governor and Members of the Thirty-eighth General Assembly:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter fifty, acts of the thirty-eighth general assembly, the code commission has prepared a compilation of the laws of the state of a general and public nature, and the same is herewith submitted.

Many changes in arrangement have been necessary in order to bring related matters together. These are shown by the topical index. Several new title and many new chapter headings have been introduced, in the belief that such separation will not only lessen the tendency to confusion by future amendments, but will also greatly facilitate consideration of the series of bills for amendment, revision and codification of certain of the laws which will be presented as a part of the report of the commission.

By use of the historical references following the sections the same matter can be found in the code, the supplements, and the laws of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth general assemblies. By use of the table of corresponding sections, found at the end of the compiled code, the matter in any given section of the code or supplements or the chapters of the acts of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth general assemblies may be found in the compiled code.

The commission obtained the advice of experts as to the index, and after careful consideration employed Mr. Jacob Van der Zee of the state university to prepare it. We believe the simplified and shortened index which he has produced will be satisfactory. This index, moreover, can be utilized in preparing the index of the permanent code.

The compilation has been indispensable in the preparation of the bills to be proposed by the commission, and will greatly facilitate the work of the general assembly in their consideration.

The preparation of the compilation, table of corresponding sections and index involved a great amount of labor, and has been done with painstaking care.

Respectfully,

J. H. TREWIN,
J. C. MABRY,
U. G. WHITNEY,
Code Commissioners.

Dated December 1, 1919.

 12 state; whether the laws of the state and the requirements of the 13 auditor of state have been complied with; also into the methods and 24 deputy, to the cash drawers and cash in the custody of such officer, 25 and they shall also have the right, during business hours, to examine 37 duly subpoenaed refuses to attend, or refuses to produce documents, 38 books and papers as required in subpoena, or shall attend and refuse 39 to make oath or affirmation, or being sworn or affirmed and shall 40 refuse to testify when called upon so to do, then the state auditor or 47 examination, and such oral examination may be taken in shorthand, 48 and transcribed, and the reasonable expense thereof shall be paid in 49 the same manner as the expenses of the examiner are paid. Wilful

52 triplicate, signed, and verified under oath by the officer making the 53 examination, one copy to be filed with the auditor of state, one copy 54 with the officer under investigation, and one copy with the auditor of 55 the county whose officer is under investigation. In the event that 56 such examination discloses any of the grounds of removal mentioned 57 in section six hundred forty-nine, a fourth copy shall be provided and 58 filed by the auditor of state in the office of the attorney general of 59 the state, and the attorney general shall thereupon take such action 60 as, in his judgment, the facts and circumstances warrant. It shall 61 be unlawful for any examiner to make any disclosure of the result of 62 any investigation, except as he shall make the same to the auditor of 63 state, county auditor or to any court, and a violation of this provision 64 shall be ground for removal.

9 action. As soon as examination for any such municipal corporation

 29 the primary election, the hours during which the polls will be open, 30 the offices for which candidates are to be nominated and that the 31 primary election will be held in the regular polling places in each pre-32 cinct. Such notice shall be published once each week for two con-33 secutive weeks before the primary election, in not to exceed two news-34 papers of general circulation in such county. One of such newspapers 35 shall represent the political party which cast the largest vote in such 36 county at the last preceding general election, and the other, if any, 37 that shall represent the political party which cast the next largest 38 vote in such county at such general election. The county auditor

 2 for the several offices, and for party committeemen, and blank 3 spaces for the delegates to the county convention shall be printed in 4 black ink on separate sheets of paper, uniform in color, quality, texture

 14 state composed of more than one county, shall be arranged and printed 15 upon the primary election ballots in the following manner, to wit: 16 The county auditor shall prepare a list of the election precincts of 17 his county, by arranging the various townships, towns and cities in 19 city, town or township in numerical order under the name of such 20 city, town or township. He shall then arrange the surnames of all 21 candidates for such offices alphabetically for the respective offices for 22 the first precinct in the list; thereafter, for each succeeding precinct, 23 the names appearing first for the respective offices in the last preceding 24 precinct shall be placed last, so that the names that were second

 26 for all offices to be filled by the voters of a territory smaller 27 than a county shall be arranged and printed alphabetically according 28 to the surnames for the respective offices.

SEC. 372. Sample ballots.

1 After the printing of the official ballots, the county auditor shall 2 change a sufficient number thereof to supply each voting precinct in 4 shall change the same by writing or stamping the words "sample 5 ballot" in red ink near the top of such ballots, and by signing his name 6 or stamping a facsimile thereof and his title of office immediately 7 thereunder. Such sample ballots shall not be voted, received or 8 counted in any primary election. The county auditor shall distribute 9 such sample ballots with the official ballots, and it shall be the duty 10 of the judges of election to see that such sample ballots are posted in 11 and about the polling places upon the day of the primary election and 12 before the opening of the polls.

SEC. 373. Judges and clerks—how selected—oath—expenses.

1 The judges and clerks of all primary elections under this chapter 2 shall be made up and selected and appointed in the same manner 3 as for the general election held in November, and they shall take the 4 same oath and the judges are hereby authorized to administer oaths as 5 hereinafter provided. Vacancies shall be filled as provided for the 6 judges and clerks of the general election. The expenses of the primary 7 election shall be audited by the board of supervisors of each

8 county and be paid the same as the expenses of the general election.
 9 The compensation of the judges and clerks of the primary election

SEC. 374. Supplies—poll books.

1 All necessary election supplies, including poll books as provided 2 by law, for the general election, together with a sufficient number of 3 official primary ballots of each party, shall be furnished for the pri-4 mary election board for each precinct by the county auditor, and such 5 poll books shall contain blank spaces for the names of the candidates 6 of the several parties for the different offices to be written in, and 7 blank spaces for entering by the clerks the names of the electors vot-8 ing at said primary election; and upon the pages provided for enter-9 ing the names of said voters there shall be ruled spaces for the list-10 ing of the names of said voters and for the designation of the party 11 ticket voted by said elector in manner and form substantially as fol-12 lows:

1	James Smith ----	X
2	Tom Jones	X
3	Dan Brown	X
4	George White	X

18 It shall be the duty of the clerks of the primary election when 19 entering the name of a voter to place in the poll books a cross, thus 20 (X), in the column designating the party ticket which was given to 21 said voter upon his application for a ticket.

SEC. 375. Australian ballot—polls open—ballots.

1 The Australian ballot system as now used in this state, except 2 as hereinafter provided, shall be used at said primary election in all 3 precincts. The voter shall in all cases mark the ballot in the square 4 before the name of each person for whom he desires to vote. In 5 cities where registration is required by law, the polls shall be open 6 from seven o'clock a. m. to eight o'clock p. m., and in all other pre-7 cincts from nine o'clock a. m. to eight o'clock p. m. The elector vot-8 ing at said primary election shall be allowed to vote for candidates 9 for nomination on the ticket of only one political party, and that shall 10 be the party with which he is registered as affiliated. The indorse-11 ment of the judges of election and the facsimile of the auditor's sig-12 nature shall appear upon the ballots as provided by law for the bal-13 lots used for the November election. The voter shall return the ballot, 14 folded, to one of the judges of election who shall deposit it in the ballot 15 box. If any primary elector write upon his ticket the name of any 16 person who is a candidate for the same office upon some other party 17 ticket than that upon which his name shall be so written, such ballot 18 shall be so counted for such person only as a candidate of the party 19 upon whose ballot his name is written, and shall in no case be counted 20 for such person as a candidate upon any other ticket. In case the 21 person is nominated upon more than one ticket, he shall forthwith 22 file with the proper officer a written declaration indicating the party

23 designation under which his name is to be printed on the official bal-24 lot for the general election following such primary election.

2 hundred eight any person shall be entitled to participate therein who 3 is a qualified elector in such precinct at the time of said primary elec-

5 the party ballot he desires, and one of the judges of the primary elec-6 tion board shall give him such primary ballot (unless challenged, and 7 if so challenged, then only in the event that the challenge is determined 8 in favor of the voter), and such person shall thereupon be allowed to 9 vote. The voter's selection shall constitute his declaration of party 10 affiliation, and it shall be the duty of the primary election board to 11 record his name and check his declaration of party affiliation on the 12 poll books used by the clerks of the primary election board, and said 13 list properly certified to by said primary election board shall be re-14 turned to the county auditor for preservation. Copies of the names 15 and party entries on such list, together with the changes of party 16 affiliation as hereinafter provided, arranged alphabetically by sur-17 names, shall be used at subsequent primaries for determining with 18 what party the voter has been enrolled, and no voter enrolled under 19 the provisions of this chapter shall be allowed to receive the ballot 20 of any political party except that with which he is enrolled, but he 21 may change his enrollment as hereinafter provided. The county au-22 ditor shall prepare for each voting precinct two of the above men-23 tioned lists duly certified by him, and taken from the poll books of the 24 last preceding primary election, which he shall deliver to the succeed-25 ing primary election boards at least one day prior to the day of the 26 primary election, and which lists, together with the poll books of the 27 primary election, shall be returned to the said auditor in good condi-28 tion within twenty-four hours after the primary election, to be pre-29 served by him.

[S., '13, § 1087-a7.]

SEC. 377. Change of affiliation—first voter—removal.

1 Any person who has thus declared his party affiliation shall 2 thereafter be listed on the poll books as a member of that political 3 party, and such person while a resident of the same voting precinct 4 need not declare his party affiliation at succeeding primary elections 5 unless he desires to change his party affiliation. Any elector, who, 6 having declared his party affiliation, desires to change the same, may, 7 not less than ten days prior to the date of any primary election, file 8 a written declaration with the county auditor stating his change of 9 party affiliation, and the auditor shall enter a record of such change 10 on the poll books of the last preceding primary election in the proper 11 column opposite the voter's name and on the voting list. Any elec-12 tor whose party affiliation has for any reason not been registered or 13 any elector who has changed his residence to another precinct, or a 14 first voter or citizen of this state casting his first vote in this state, 15 shall be entitled to vote at any subsequent primary election in the 16 same manner and upon the same terms as provided in section three 17 hundred seventy-six, and the clerks of the primary election shall 18 record his party affiliation and the county auditor shall add his name

19 to the alphabetical lists for use in subsequent primary elections as 20 provided for in section three hundred seventy-six.

SEC. 378. Challengers—affidavit.

1 Each political party shall be entitled to have two party challengers 2 present at each polling place, to be appointed by the respective party 3 committeemen. Any judge or clerk of the primary election or any 4 party challenger may challenge any voter upon the grounds mentioned 5 in section four hundred forty-three, and such challenge shall be de-6 termined as there provided. Any elector whose party affiliation has 7 been recorded as provided by this chapter and who desires to change 8 his party affiliation on the primary election day, shall be subject to 9 challenge. If the person challenged insists that he is entitled to vote 10 the ticket of the political party to which he has transferred his polit-11 ical affiliation and the challenge is not withdrawn, one of the judges 12 shall tender to him the following oath: "You do solemnly swear (or 13 affirm) that you have in good faith changed your party affiliation to 14 and desire to be a member of the party." And if he 15 take such oath he shall thereupon be given a ticket of such political 16 party and the clerks of the primary election shall change his enroll-17 ment of party affiliation accordingly.

SEC. 379. Ballots counted—returns.

1 Upon the closing of the polls the clerks and judges shall imme-
2 diately open the ballot box and proceed to take therefrom the ballots.
3 Said officers shall count the number of ballots cast for each party, at 4 the same time bunching the tickets cast for each party, in separate 5 piles. As soon as the clerks and judges shall have sorted the ballots 6 of each party, separately, they shall take the tally sheets provided in 7 the poll books and shall count all the ballots for each party separately 8 until the count is completed, and shall certify to the number of votes 9 cast for each candidate for each office upon the ticket of each party.
10 After all have been counted and certified to by the clerks and judges, 11 they shall seal the ballots cast by each of the parties in separate en-12 velopes, on the outside of which shall be printed or written the names 13 of that party's candidates for the different offices, and opposite each 14 candidate's name shall be placed the number of votes cast for such 15 candidate in said precinct, and then seal the envelopes containing the 16 votes of the different political parties, in one large envelope, on the 17 outside of which, or on a paper attached thereto, shall be printed or 18 written, in perpendicular columns, the names of the several political 19 parties with the names of the candidates for the different offices under 20 their respective party headings, and opposite each candidate's name 21 shall be placed the number of votes cast for such candidate in said 22 precinct, and at the bottom the total vote cast by each political party 23 in said precinct, and such envelopes shall be returned to the county 24 auditor, who shall carefully preserve the same in said condition and 25 deliver them to the county board of canvassers. But any elector of 26 the county shall have the right, before the day fixed for canvassing 27 the returns, to ascertain the vote cast for any candidate in any pre-28 cinct in the county, as shown on the outside of the large envelope.
29 Said judges of election shall deliver the returns so made, together 30 with the poll books, including tally sheets and certificates of the 31 judges and clerks written thereon, to the county auditor within 32 twenty-four hours after the primary election has closed; and if the 33 returns from any precinct be not so delivered within the said time, 34 the county auditor shall forthwith send a messenger for any such 35 missing returns, and said messenger shall be paid, as provided by 36 law, for the general election.

SEC. 380. Canvass by board of supervisors—certificates.

1 On the second Tuesday next following the primary election in 2 June, the board of supervisors shall meet, open, and canvass the re-3 turns from each voting precinct in the county, and make abstracts 4 thereof, stating in words written at length the number of ballots cast 5 in the county by each political party, separately, for each office, the 6 name of each person voted for and the number of votes given to each 7 person for each different office and shall sign and certify thereto and 8 file the same with the county auditor. Such canvass and certificate 9 shall be final as to all candidates for nomination to any elective county 10 office or office of a subdivision of a county; and the candidate or candi-11 dates of each political party for each office to be filled by the voters 12 of any subdivision of a county having received the highest number of 13 votes shall be duly and legally nominated as the candidate of his party 14 for such office; provided, however, that no candidate whose name is 15 not printed on the official primary ballot, who received less than five 16 per centum of the votes cast in such subdivision for governor on the 17 party ticket with which he affiliates, at the last general election, nor 18 less than five votes, shall be declared to have been nominated to any 19 such office; and the candidate or candidates of each political party 20 for each office to be filled by the voters of the county having received 21 the highest number of votes, and not less than thirty-five per centum 22 of all the votes cast by the party for such office, shall be duly and 23 legally nominated as the candidate of his party for such office; pro-24 vided, however, that no candidate whose name is not printed on the 25 official ballot who receives less than ten per centum of the whole num-26 ber of votes cast in the county for governor on the party ticket with 27 which he affiliates, at the last general election shall be declared to 28 have been nominated to any such office; and each candidate so nomi-
 29 nated shall be entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot 30 to be voted for at the general election without other certificate, and the 31 board shall prepare and certify a list of the candidates of each party 32 so nominated, separately, and deliver to the chairman of each party 33 central committee for the county a copy of the list of candidates nomi-34 nated by the party he represents; and shall also prepare, certify and 35 deliver to such chairman a list of the offices to be filled by the voters 36 of a county for which no candidate of his party was nominated, to-37 gether with the names of the candidate for each of such offices voted 38 for at the primary election and the number of votes received by each 39 of such candidates.

SEC. 381. Recount of ballots.

1 Any candidate whose name appears upon the official primary bal-2 lot of any voting precinct may require the board of supervisors of the 3 county in which such precinct is situated to recount the ballots cast 4 in any such precinct as to the office for which he was a candidate, at 5 the time fixed for canvassing the returns of the judges of election, 6 by filing with the county auditor not later than the day before such 7 meeting, a showing in writing, duly sworn to by such candidate, that 8 fraud was committed, or error or mistake made, in counting or return-9 ing the votes cast in any such precinct as to the office for which he was 10 a candidate. The showing must be specific and from it there must 11 appear reasonable ground to believe that a recount of the ballots 12 would produce a result as to his candidacy different from the returns 13 made by the judges. If such showing is made to the satisfaction of 14 the board, it shall thereupon recount the ballots cast in any such pre-15 cinct for the office for which the contestant was a candidate, and if 16 the result reached by the board on the recount of the ballots as to such 17 office be different from that returned by the judges of election it shall 18 be substituted therefor as the true and correct return and so regarded 19 in all subsequent proceedings. The action of the board shall be final 20 and no other contest of any kind shall be permitted. The term "can-21 didate" as used in this section shall include and apply to persons voted 22 for for delegates and party committeemen.

[S., '13, § 1087-a18.]

SEC. 382. Abstracts forwarded to secretary of state.

1 The county board of canvassers shall also make a separate ab-
 2 stract of the canvass as to the following offices and certify to the same 3 and forthwith forward it to the secretary of state, viz.:

4 United States senator,

5 Electors of the president and the vice president of the United 6 States,

7 All state offices,

8 Representative in congress,

9 Senators and representatives in the general assembly.

[S., '13, § 1087-a20.]

SEC. 383. County returns filed—published proceedings of canvassing board.

1 When the canvass is concluded, the board shall deliver the orig-
 2 inal returns to the auditor, who shall file the same and record each of 3 the abstracts above mentioned in the election book. The published 4 proceedings of the board of supervisors as a canvassing board shall 5 contain only a brief statement of the names of the candidates nom-6 inated by the electors of any county or subdivision thereof under the 7 title of the office for which they are nominated, and a statement of 8 the title of the county offices, if any, for which no nomination was 9 made by any political party participating in the primary election for 10 the failure of any one of its candidates for any office to receive thirty-11 five per centum of all the votes cast by the party for such office.

SEC. 384. Canvass by state board—certificates.

1 On the second Monday after the June primary election, the execu-
 2 tive council shall meet as a canvassing board, and open and canvass
 3 the abstract returns received from each county in the state. If re-4 turns are not received from all the counties, the secretary of state 5 shall immediately send a messenger after the abstract returns and 6 the board may adjourn from day to day until they are received. The 7 board shall make an abstract of its canvass, stating in words written 8 at length, the number of ballots cast by each political party, sep-9 arately, for each office designated in section three hundred eighty-two, 10 the names of all the persons voted for, and the number of votes re-11 ceived by each person for each office, and shall sign and certify 12 thereto. Such canvass and certificates shall be final as to all candi-13 dates named therein; and the candidate of each political party for 14 each office to be filled by vote of the people, including the office of sen-15 ator in the congress of the United States, having received the high-16 est number of votes in the state or district of the state, as the case 17 may be, provided he received not less than thirty-five per centum of all 18 the votes cast by the party for such office, shall be duly and legally nom-19 inated as the candidate of his party for such office; provided, how-20 ever, that no candidate whose name is not printed on the official bal-21 lot who receives less than ten per centum of the whole number of 22 votes cast in the state or district of the state, as the case may be, for 23 governor on the party ticket with which he affiliates, at the last gen-24 eral election shall be declared to have been nominated to any such 25 office, and each candidate so nominated shall be entitled to have his 26 name printed on the official ballot to be voted at the general election 27 without other certificate; and the board shall prepare and certify a 28 list of the candidates of each party so nominated, separately, and 29 deliver to the chairman of each party central committee for the state 30 a copy of the list of candidates nominated by the party he represents; 31 and shall also forthwith prepare a certificate as to each office, sep-32 arately, for which no candidate was nominated, by reason of the 33 failure of any candidate for any such office to receive thirty-five per 34 centum of all votes cast by such party for such office, together with 35 the names of the several candidates for each of such offices voted for 36 at the primary election and the number of votes received by each of 37 such candidates and send such certificate to the chairman of the 38 party central committee for the state, in case of offices to be filled by 39 the voters of the entire state, and to the chairman of the party central 40 committee for a district of the state, if known, in case of offices to be 41 filled by the voters of any such district of the state composed of more 42 than one county, and to the county auditor of each county in any 43 such district, and to the county auditor and the chairman of the party 44 central committee for the county, in case any such district is composed 45 of one county. The candidate of any party for the office of senator in 46 the congress of the United States having received the highest num-47 ber of votes of his party in the state, shall be the nominee of his party 48 for such office.

SEC. 385. State returns filed—nominations certified to county auditor.

1 When the canvass is concluded, the board shall deliver the orig-
2 inal abstract returns to the secretary of state, who shall file the same 3 in his office and record the abstracts of the canvass of the state board 4 and certificates attached thereto in the book kept by him known as 5 the election book; and not less than fifteen days before the general 6 election he shall certify to the auditor of each county, under separate 7 party headings, the name of each person nominated as shown by the 8 official canvass made by the executive council, or as certified to him by 9 the proper persons when any person has been nominated by a conven-

10 tion or party committee, his place of residence, the office to which he is 11 nominated, and the order in which the tickets of the several political 12 parties shall appear on the official ballot. Should a vacancy in the 13 nominations occur and be filled after such certificate has been for-14 warded, a like certificate shall at once be made and sent to the proper 15 officer, together with a statement showing the reason for its subse-16 quent issue.

SEC. 386. Tie vote—vacancies.

1 In case of a tie vote resulting in no nomination for any office, or 2 election of delegates or party committeeman, the tie shall forthwith 3 be determined by lot by the board of canvassers, or judges of elec-
 4 tion, as the case may be. Vacancies occurring in nominations made 5 in the primary election before the holding of the county, district or 6 state convention, shall be filled by the county convention if the office 7 in which the vacancy in nomination occurs is to be filled by the voters 8 of the county; by a district convention if the office in which the va-9 cancy in nomination occurs is to be filled by the voters of a district 10 composed of more than one county; by the state convention if the 11 office in which the vacancy occurs is to be filled by the voters of the 12 entire state. Vacancies in nominations in such offices occurring 13 after the holding of a county, district or state convention, or on fail-14 ure of any such convention to fill a vacancy in a nomination, as afore-15 said, then it shall be filled by the party committee for the county, 16 district or state, as the case may be. If a vacancy shall occur in any 17 such office too late for the filing of nomination papers for candidates 18 therefor in the primary election and before the holding of a county, 19 district or state convention, as the case may be, then the convention 20 having jurisdiction shall make nomination for such office; and if a 21 vacancy in any such office shall occur after the holding of a county, 22 district or state convention, then nomination for such office may be 23 made by the party committee for the county, district or state, as the 24 case may be. Vacancies in nominations for offices to be filled by the 25 voters of a territory smaller than a county shall be filled by the mem-26 bers of the party committee for the county from such subdivision.
 27 Nominations made as above provided, and as provided in section three 28 hundred eighty-eight, three hundred eighty-nine, and three hundred 29 ninety, shall be certified forthwith to the proper officer by the chair-30 man and secretary of the convention or committee, as the case may be, 31 and if received in time shall be printed upon the official ballots the 32 same as if the nomination had been made in the primary election.
 33 Such certificate of nomination shall state the name, place of resi-34 dence and postoffice address of the person nominated, the office to 35 which he is nominated and the name of the political party making the 36 nomination.

[S., '13, § 1087-a24.]

SEC. 387. United States senator—vacancy—nomination.

1 In case of death, withdrawal, or inability to act, for any cause,
 2 of a party's candidate for senator in the congress of the United States,
 3 as expressed in the regular June primary, such vacancy shall be filled 4 by the state convention of said party, held in accordance with the 5 provisions of section three hundred ninety; provided that if such 6 vacancy occurs after the holding of said convention and thirty days

7 prior to the holding of the regular November election, said delegates 8 to said convention shall be reconvened within ten days after such 9 vacancy has occurred, by the chairman of said party's state central 10 committee, and a party candidate shall be named in said convention 11 to fill such vacancy.

[S., '13, § 1087-a24a.]

SEC. 388. County convention—delegates—committeemen.

1 In each county there shall be held in each year in which a gen-
 2 eral election in November is to take place a county convention of each 3 political party. Said county convention shall be composed of dele-4 gates elected at the last preceding primary election, and shall be held 5 on the fourth Saturday following the primary election, convening at 6 eleven o'clock a. m. The number of delegates from each voting pre-7 cinct shall be determined by a ratio adopted by the respective party 8 county central committees, and shall be thus determined and a state-9 ment designating the number from each voting precinct in the county 10 filed in the office of the county auditor at least thirty days before the 11 primary election; if not so done, the auditor shall fix the number.
 12 The requisite number of names of candidates of his choice for dele-13 gates to the county convention to which each precinct is entitled shall 14 be written, or pasted with uniform white pasters, on the blank lines 15 upon the ballot by the voter while in the booth, or by some one 16 designated by a voter unable to write, after the ballots are received 17 and before they are deposited, and the requisite number of persons 18 from each precinct who receive the highest number of votes shall be 19 the delegates from the precinct to the county convention. The term of 20 office of such delegate shall begin on the day following the final canvass 21 of the votes by the board of supervisors, and shall continue for two 22 years and until their successors are elected. One member of the 23 county central committee for each political party from each precinct 24 shall be elected. His term of office shall begin on the day of the 25 county convention and immediately following the adjournment thereof 26 and shall continue for two years and until his successor is elected 27 and qualified, unless such committeeman shall be removed by the 28 county central committee for inattention to the duties of his position, 29 incompetency or failure to support the ticket nominated by the party 30 which elected him to such position. The county central committee 31 elected in the primary election shall organize on the day of the con-32 vention, immediately following the same. Vacancies in such commit-33 tee may be filled by majority vote of the committee. Returns shall 34 be made by the judges of election respecting delegates and members 35 of the county central committee in the same manner as for other 36 offices, except that the judges of election shall canvass the returns 37 as to delegates and members of the county central committee, and 38 certify the result to the auditor with the returns. The auditor shall, 39 immediately after the final count and canvass of the votes and returns 40 by the board of supervisors, notify the delegates and members of the 41 county central committee who have thus been elected, of their election, 42 and of the time and place of holding the county convention, and shall, 43 on the second Thursday following the primary election, deliver a 44 certified list thereof to the chairmen of the respective party central 45 committees for the county. When the delegates, or a majority thereof, 46 or when delegates representing a majority of the precincts, thus 47 elected, shall have assembled in the county convention at the time

48 herein prescribed and at the county seat, the convention shall be called 49 to order by the chairman of the county central committee, who shall 50 present the certified list of delegates and members of the county central 51 committee, and a list of the offices for which no nomination was made 52 at the primary election, by reason of the failure of any candidate for 53 any such office to receive thirty-five per centum of all votes cast by 54 such party therefor. If any precinct shall not be fully represented the 55 delegates present from such precinct shall cast the full vote thereof, 56 but there shall be no proxies. The said county convention shall make 57 nominations of candidates for the party for any office to be filled by 58 the voters of a county when no candidate for such office has been nomi-59 nated at the preceding primary election by reason of the failure of 60 any candidate for any such office to receive thirty-five per centum of 61 all votes cast by such party therefor, as shown by the canvass of the 62 returns provided for in section three hundred eighty, and shall select 63 delegates to the next ensuing state and district conventions of that 64 year upon such ratio of representation as may be determined by the 65 party organization for the state, district or districts of the state, as 66 the case may be, but no delegates shall be so selected to any of the dis-67 trict conventions referred to in section three hundred eighty-nine, un-68 less a call therefor has been issued as therein provided. The said 69 county convention shall also elect a member of the party central com-70 mittee for the senatorial and congressional districts composed of more 71 than one county. But in no case shall the county convention make a 72 nomination for an office for which no person was voted for in the pri-73 mary election of such party.

SEC. 389. District convention.

1 In any senatorial or congressional district composed of more than 2 one county, in any year in which a senator in the general assembly or a 3 representative in the congress of the United States is to be elected, a 4 senatorial or congressional convention may be held. Not less than ten 5 days and not more than sixty days before the day fixed for holding the 6 county convention a call for such senatorial and congressional conven-7 tion to be held shall be issued by the party central committee for any 8 such district and published in at least one newspaper of general circu-9 lation of each county composing any such district, and which call shall 10 state among other things the number of delegates each county of the 11 district shall be entitled to and the time and place of holding the con-12 vention. Any such call shall be signed by the chairman of the party 13 central committee for any such district, and be filed by him with the 14 county auditor not less than five days before the county convention, 15 and the county auditor shall attach a true copy thereof to the certified 16 list of delegates required to be delivered by him to the chairmen of the 17 respective party county central committees. In case no nomination 18 was made in the primary election for the office of senator in the gen-19 eral assembly in any district composed of more than one county, or for 20 the office of representative in congress of the United States, by reason 21 of the failure of any candidate for any office to receive thirty-five per 22 centum of all votes cast by his party therefor, as shown by the certifi-23 cate issued by the state board of canvassers provided for in this chap-24 ter, then in any such district the chairman of the party central com-25 mittee therefor shall forthwith issue such call for a convention in such 26 district and deliver the same to the county auditor of each county in 27 the district, and in such case said call need not be published. No such 28 district convention shall be held earlier than the first Thursday or 29 later than the fifth Thursday following the county convention. The 30 convention when organized shall make nominations of candidates for 31 the party for any such district office when no candidate for such office 32 has been nominated at the preceding primary election, by reason of 33 the failure of any candidate for any such office to receive thirty-five per 34 centum of all votes cast by such party therefor, as shown by the can-35 vass of the votes provided for in section three hundred eighty-four.

 36 The organization of and procedure in any such district convention shall 37 be the same as in the state convention. Such district conventions may 38 adopt party platforms and transact such other business as may prop-39 erly be brought before them. But in no case shall any such convention 40 of a party make a nomination for an office for which no person was 41 voted for in the primary election of such party.

[S., '13, § 1087-a26.]

SEC. 390. State convention—state central committee.

1 A state convention of each political party, composed of delegates 2 chosen in the manner herein provided, shall be held not earlier than 3 the first Wednesday and not later than the fifth Wednesday following 4 the county convention, in the year nineteen hundred eight, and bien-5 nially thereafter, convening at such time and place as may be deter-6 mined upon by the party organization. The convention shall be called 7 to order by the chairman of the state central committee, who shall 8 thereupon present a list of delegates, as certified by the various county 9 conventions, and effect a temporary organization. If any county shall 10 not be fully represented, the delegates present from such county shall 11 cast the full vote thereof, but there shall be no proxies. Such conven-12 tion when permanently organized shall formulate and adopt the state 13 platform of the party it represents, and shall make nominations of can-14 didates for the party for any state office to be filled by the voters of 15 the entire state, including the office of senator in the congress of the 16 United States, when no candidate for such office has been nominated 17 at the preceding primary election, by reason of the failure of any can-18 didate for any such office to receive thirty-five per centum of all votes 19 cast by such party therefor, as shown by the canvass of the returns 20 provided for in section three hundred eighty-four. It shall also elect 21 a state central committee consisting of not less than one member from 22 each congressional district and transact such other business as may 23 properly be brought before it. The state central committee elected at 24 said state convention may organize at pleasure for political work as is 25 usual and customary with such committees and shall continue to act 26 until succeeded by another committee duly elected. But in no case shall 27 the state convention of a party make a nomination for an office for 28 which no person was voted for in the primary election of such party.

SEC. 391. Primary elections in certain cities.

1 The provisions of this chapter shall, so far as applicable, govern 2 the nominations of candidates by political parties for all offices to be 3 filled by a direct vote of the people in cities of the first class and cities 4 acting under a special charter having a population of over fifteen thou-5 sand, except all such special charter cities and cities of the first class 6 as have by vote of the people adopted a plan of municipal government

7 which specifically provides for a nonpartisan primary election. The 8 duties devolving upon the county auditor, by the foregoing provisions

 12 which shall meet to perform said duties within two days next follow-13 ing the primary election. The date of the municipal primary election 14 shall be the last Monday in February of each year in which a municipal 15 election is held in said cities, and the percentage of voters signing peti-16 tions required for printing the name of a candidate upon the official 17 primary ballot shall be the same as is required of a candidate for a 18 county office and shall be based upon the vote cast for mayor by the 19 respective parties in the preceding city election. The names of candi-20 dates for ward aldermen, for city precinct committeemen and for dele-21 gates to the city convention, shall not be printed upon the official pri-22 mary ballot, but in each case a blank line or lines shall be provided 23 therefor. A plurality shall nominate the party candidate for alderman 24 and a plurality shall elect the precinct committeemen and delegates to 25 the city convention. The entire expense of conducting a primary elec-26 tion provided for in this section shall be audited by the city council and 27 paid by the city. This section shall not be held to repeal any law which 28 provides for the adoption of a plan of municipal government by vote 29 of the people and which embraces a nonpartisan primary election.

SEC. 401. Vacancies filled.

1 If a candidate declines a nomination, or dies before election day, 2 or should any certificate of nomination or nomination paper be held 3 insufficient or inoperative by the officer with whom it may be filed, 4 or in case any objection made to any certificate of nomination, nomi-5 nation paper, or to the eligibility of any candidate therein named, is 6 sustained by the board appointed to determine such questions as here-

 8 filled by the convention, caucus, meeting or primary, or other persons 9 making the original nominations, or in such a manner as such con-

SECTION 403. State judicial convention—judges supreme court.

1 A state judicial convention of each political party shall be held 2 not less than one, nor more than two weeks, after the regular state
 3 convention of such party. Such state judicial convention shall con-

 5 shall issue a call therefor in the same manner that the call for the 6 regular state convention is issued.

7 Delegates to the state judicial convention shall be elected at, and 8 certified by, the county conventions at the same time and in the same 9 manner as delegates to the regular state convention; provided, how-10 ever, that no person shall be elected to act as delegate to both con-11 ventions; and each county shall be entitled to the same number of 12 delegates at the state judicial convention as it is entitled to have at 13 the regular state convention.

14 The state judicial convention shall proceed to organize for the 15 transaction of business in the same manner as is provided by law 16 for the organization of the regular state convention, and upon organ-

 20 the same in the state judicial convention as is provided for the regular 21 state party convention. Judges of the supreme court shall be elected 22 at the general election in November in the same manner as the gov-

[38 G. A., ch. 63, § 2.]

SEC. 404. Central committee—district convention—judges district court.

1 In each judicial district there shall be a district central committee 2 composed of one member from each county of such district; provided,

3 however, that in districts composed wholly of one county there shall 4 be three members of such committee, and in districts composed of 5 two counties there shall be two members of such committee from the 6 county having the larger population. Such committeemen shall be 7 selected by the county convention in each county held in accordance 8 with the provisions of section three hundred eighty-eight. Until such 9 conventions are held, the chairman of the county central committee 10 of each political party shall act as committeeman from his county for 11 such judicial district, and in counties having more than one such com-12 mitteeman such additional committeeman shall be selected by the 13 county central committee in said county. Vacancies in any such dis-14 trict committee shall be filled by the county central committee of the 15 county where such vacancy occurs.

16 In each judicial district in which a judge, or judges, of the dis-17 trict court therein is to be elected, a judicial convention shall be held 18 by each political party participating in the primary election of that 19 year. Not less than ten days nor more than forty days before the 20 day fixed for holding the county convention, a call for such judicial 21 convention to be held shall be issued by the party central committee 22 for such district, and published in at least one newspaper of general 23 circulation in each county in the district which shall state, among 24 other things, the number of delegates each county in the district shall 25 be entitled to, and the time and place of holding the convention. Such 26 call shall be filed with the county auditor in each county in the district 27 not less than five days before the date of holding the county conven-28 tion as now fixed by law, and the county auditor shall attach a copy 29 thereof to the certified list of delegates required to be delivered by 30 him to the chairman of the county central committee of the respective 31 political parties.

32 Each county convention held in such judicial district shall select 33 such a number of delegates to the judicial convention as is specified 34 in the call for such judicial convention. Such district convention shall 35 not be held earlier than the first Thursday, nor later than the fifth 36 Thursday following the date of holding the county convention.

37 The convention may nominate as many candidates for the office 38 of judge of the district court in said district as there are judges in 39 said district to be elected at the general election to be held in the year
40 in which such convention is held. The organization and the pro-41 cedure in such judicial district convention shall be the same as in the 42 state convention. Such convention may transact such other business 43 as may properly be brought before it. Judges of the district court 44 shall be elected at the general election in the same manner as state 45 senators are elected.

[38 G. A., ch. 63, § 3.]

SEC. 405. Certification of nominations.

1 All nominations for the office of supreme and district judge shall 2 be certified to the secretary of state, as near as may be, in the same 3 manner that nominations for other state offices are now certified

6 as provided in this chapter, shall be certified by the secretary of state, 7 to the officer having charge of the printing of the ballots, and the 8 names of such candidates shall be printed on the ballot under the

SEC. 406. Judge superior court.

1 In any city in which a superior court has been or may hereafter
2 be established, the judge of said court shall be nominated and elected 3 in the same manner now provided by law for the nomination and

[38 G. A., ch. 63, § 7.]

CHAPTER 5.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

SECTION 409. Board of registers—village precincts.

1 In cities having a population of six thousand or more, not includ-2 ing the inmates of any state institution, the council, on or before the 3 sixth Monday preceding each general election, shall appoint one suit-4 able person from each of the two political parties which cast the great-5 est number of votes at the last general election, from three names 6 presented by each chairman of the city central political committee 7 of such parties, to be registers in each election precinct in the city 8 for the registration of voters therein, who shall be electors of the 9 precinct in which they are to serve, of good clerical ability, speaking 10 the English language understandingly, temperate, of good habits and 11 reputation, who shall qualify by taking an oath or affirmation to the 12 effect that they will well and truly discharge all of the duties required

13 of them by law. They shall hold their office for two years and receive 14 compensation at the rate of three dollars for each day of eight hours 15 engaged in the discharge of their duties, to be paid by the county, 16 except in case of city elections, when they shall be paid by the city.
 17 If for any cause such registers, or any of them, shall not be appointed 18 at or before the time above mentioned, or, if appointed, shall be unable 19 for any cause to discharge the duties of such office, the mayor of such 20 city shall forthwith, on similar recommendation, make such appoint-21 ments and fill all vacancies. Should the mayor, upon the request of 22 five freehold electors, fail for a period of three days to perform the 23 duties aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay, at the action of any such 24 elector, the sum of one hundred dollars per day, for the equal benefit 25 of the city and plaintiff. The provisions of this title shall apply to 26 cities acting under special charters with like effect as though said 27 cities were acting under the general incorporation laws of the state; 28 provided, further, that all cities in which registration is required, 29 including cities under special charter, may, by resolution passed not 30 less than thirty days or more than sixty days preceding any general, 31 city or special election, consolidate the voting precincts of the city 32 into registration districts for the purpose of registration only, and 33 appoint registers for such registration districts; but such registers 34 must be residents and electors of the registration district in which 35 they are to serve.

[C., '73, § 599; C., '97, § 1076; S. S., '15, § 1076; 37 G. A., ch.

SEC. 410. Notice of registration.

1 The times and places of making registration of voters shall be 2 published by the mayor in the two leading political party papers pub-3 lished in such city, except no publication shall be required for a special 4 election. If there be but one such paper published in the city, publi-5 cation of notice therein shall be sufficient. The publication shall be 6 made for a period of three days prior to the opening of the registry 7 book, if the paper is a daily paper, and for one week, if a weekly 8 paper, and shall call the attention of the voters to the necessity of 9 complying with the laws with reference to registration, in order to 10 be entitled to vote at the ensuing election.

[C., '73, § 597; C., '97, § 1085.]

SEC. 411. Registration.

1 The registers shall meet on the second Thursday prior to any 2 general, city, or special election, at the usual voting place in the pre-

 4 sessions for two consecutive days, from eight o'clock in the forenoon 5 until nine o'clock in the afternoon, and, in presidential years, such 6 sessions shall be held for three days. Any person claiming to be a 7 voter, or that he will be on election day, including women entitled to 9 before them in the election precinct where he claims he is or will be 10 entitled to vote, and make and subscribe, under oath, a statement in 11 a registry book, to be provided by the clerk and furnished the regis-12 ters, at the equal expense of the city and county, and kept open for 13 public inspection and examination during the time fixed for the regis-14 tration, which statement shall be in the following form and contain 15 the following matter:

18 having first administered to him this form of oath: "You do sol-19 emnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such 20 questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, 21 name, place of birth, your qualifications as an elector, and your right 22 as such to register and vote under the laws of this state"; after which, 23 the registers, or either of them, shall propound questions to the appli-

26 where the vote is claimed; the last place of his residence before coming

34 the right to be registered, the registers shall fill out the above pre-35 scribed form of statement, which the applicant shall sign and swear 36 to, as above provided.

[C., '73, §§ 595-597; C., '97, § 1077; S., '13, § 1077; 38 G. A., ch. 353, § 4.]

SEC. 412. Statements—registry books—school elections.

1 The statements thus made shall be dated and consecutively num-2 bered, commencing with number one at each registration. At the 3 close of each day's registration, the registry book shall be ruled off 4 so as to prevent further entries, and, when not in use by the registers, 5 shall be kept in the custody of the clerk until disposed of as provided 6 by law. No person shall register at any other place or time than is 7 designated in this chapter, and no registration of voters for school 8 elections shall be required.

[C., '97, § 1078.]

SEC. 413. List of voters.

1 The registers shall, within three days after the registration made 2 in the second week preceding the election, prepare two alphabetical

3 lists, for their respective voting precincts, of the names of all persons 4 registered, their residences, their last preceding places of residence, 5 the dates of removal when removals occur within one year, nativity, 6 color, term of residence in precinct, county and state, whether natural-7 ized, date of papers, the naturalizing court, or place of naturalization 8 if court is not known, whether naturalized by act of congress, date 9 of application for registration; one of which lists they shall forthwith 10 conspicuously post or cause to be posted at the usual place of holding 11 elections in such precinct for inspection of the public, and retain the 12 other one in their possession.

SEC. 414. Correction of registry—lists delivered to judges.

1 On the Saturday before any election at which registration is 2 required, the registers shall meet at the place where registration was 3 last made, and hold a continuous session, from eight o'clock in the 4 forenoon until nine o'clock in the afternoon, at which they shall revise 5 and correct the registry book of voters, adding thereto, consecutively 6 numbering them, the names of all applying for registration who on 7 election day will be entitled to vote in that precinct, and by striking 8 therefrom the name of anyone not entitled to vote thereat. The reg-9 isters shall revise and correct the alphabetical list in their possession 10 to correspond therewith. When thus revised and corrected, it shall 11 be certified and copied by the registers, who shall deliver, or cause 12 to be delivered, such list and copy to the judges of the election of the 13 proper precinct, and which delivery shall be made on election day, 14 and before the opening of the polls. The copy thus delivered shall 15 be preserved by the judges, and returned with the vote from that 16 precinct, and the original to the clerk. At the opening of the polls 17 and before any ballot shall be received, the judges of the election 18 shall appoint one of their number, or one of the clerks, to check the 19 name of each voter whose name is on the alphabetical lists, to whom 20 a ballot is delivered.

SEC. 415. Appearance and hearing.

1 All proceedings of registers shall be public, and any person
 2 entitled to vote in a precinct shall have the right to be heard before 3 them in reference to corrections of or additions to the lists of such 4 precinct. No person shall be admitted to registry unless he appears 5 in person, except as in this chapter provided, and, if demanded, he 6 shall furnish to the registers such proofs of his right thereto as may 7 by law be required by judges of election of any person offering to 8 vote. If an elector is, by reason of sickness, unable to go to the place 9 of registry on any day the registers may be in session, the registers 10 shall, upon the filing before them, by a registered elector, of an affi-11 davit to that effect, visit such sick elector at his place of residence 12 on any day when not in session, and place his name on the registry 13 book and alphabetical list, if found entitled thereto; at which time 14 and place the registers may administer the oath hereinbefore pro-15 vided to be taken by applicants for registry.

[C., '97, § 1081.]

SEC. 416. Registration on election day.

1 The registers shall also be in session on the day for the holding 2 of each election, at some place convenient to, but not within one hun-3 dred feet of, the voting place, and during all the hours in which by 4 law the polls are required to be kept open, for the purpose only of 5 granting certificates of registration to persons who, being electors, 6 are not registered. Such registration shall be allowed and certificate 7 thereof granted only to a person who was absent from the city during 8 all the days fixed for registration of voters for that election, or to a 9 person who, being a foreigner, has received his final papers since the 10 last preceding day for the registration of voters for that election, or 11 to a person whose name was, on the preceding Saturday, and in the 12 absence of such person, stricken from registration, and who, on said 13 day of election, shall prove to the satisfaction of said registers that 14 he is a lawfully qualified elector of said voting precinct. These cer-15 tificates of registration shall contain all the data showing the quali-16 fications of the voter as shown by the registration, and, in addition, 17 the special matter showing the voter's right to such certificate under 18 this section, and, before delivery to the applicant, shall be indorsed 19 by the registers, to the effect that the person therein named is a quali-20 fied voter in that precinct, and that he is entitled to be registered as 21 such. The proper statement shall be signed and sworn to by the 22 voter before one of the registers, supported by the affidavit of a free-23 holder who is a registered voter in that precinct, who shall make oath 24 to the qualification of the applicant as a voter in that precinct; and 25 if the applicant be one whose name was stricken from registration, 26 such affidavit of said freeholder shall contain the facts showing the 27 right of said applicant to vote in that precinct. Registration in such 28 cases shall be made in the manner required for regular registration.
29 The certificate of registration shall be handed in to the judges of elec-30 tion when a ballot is delivered to him. The data therefrom, showing 31 the voter's name and his qualifications as a voter, shall be entered on 32 the alphabetical lists by the judges and clerks of the election, under 33 the appropriate headings, and the original certificate shall be returned 34 to the city clerk, who shall carefully preserve it in the same manner 35 and for the same time as the alphabetical list and poll book.

[C., '97, § 1082.]

SEC. 417. Striking off names.

1 The registers, prior to each election except presidential elections, 2 and after completing their registration, shall certify the names of all 3 persons by them registered to the registers of the ward or precinct 4 of the same city, which the registration shows such persons gave as 5 their last place of residence, and the names of such persons so certified 6 shall be stricken from the registry lists of the ward or precinct in 7 which they last resided, if found thereon.

[C., '97, § 1083.]

SEC. 418. New registry—how often.

1 A new registry of voters shall be taken in each year of a presi-
2 dential election. For all other state or municipal elections, general 3 or special, the registers shall prepare a new registry book in each 4 year, by copying from the poll book of the preceding general election 5 all the names found therein, adding thereto those of all persons regis-

6 tered and voting at any subsequent election, which new registry book 7 shall show all the facts of qualification of each voter as they appear 8 on the last preceding registry book, which, when thus made up, shall 9 be used at each election until a new registry book is prepared as 10 required by law. Every person thus registered shall be considered 11 as entitled to vote at any election at which said registry book may 12 be used, unless his name shall be dropped by the correction of regis-13 tration, as authorized by law.

SEC. 419. Duties of city clerk.

1 The city clerk shall carefully preserve all registry books and 2 alphabetical lists and other papers pertaining to the registration, until 3 destroyed as provided in the chapter on the canvass of votes. He 4 shall, on the application of the registers, deliver to them, prior to their 5 first meeting for each election, the registry book, alphabetical list and 6 poll book, which they require in order to properly prepare the neces-7 sary registry book for the next ensuing election; all of which shall 8 be returned to him when they have completed their work for such 9 election.

SEC. 420. Penalty.

1 If any register shall fail to perform any duty required of him 2 in this chapter, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars, to 3 be recovered by any person in any court having jurisdiction; and if 4 any register or judge of election shall wilfully neglect or disregard 5 any duty imposed, or shall make, or permit to be made, any registra-6 tion, statement or list, except at the time and place and in the manner 7 herein authorized and prescribed, or shall knowingly make, or permit 8 to be made, any false statement as aforesaid, or if any person shall 9 wilfully make, or authorize to be made, any statement required to be 10 made, false in any particular, or shall violate any of the provisions 11 of this chapter, every such register or judge of election, person or 12 persons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, fined 13 in a sum not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, or 14 be imprisoned in the county jail not less than twenty days, nor more 15 than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

[C., '97, § 1087.]

SEC. 423. Election precincts.

1 Each township, or, in case a township contains a city or a portion 2 thereof, such portion of the township as is outside the limits of the 3 city, and each ward of a city, shall, respectively, constitute an election 4 precinct. But the board of supervisors or the council, as the case 5 may be, shall have power to divide a township or part thereof, or a 6 ward, into two or more precincts, or to change or abolish the same; 7 or the board of supervisors and the council of any city of less than 8 thirty-five hundred inhabitants, not including the inmates of any state 9 institution, may combine any part of the township outside of such city 10 with any or all the wards thereof as one election precinct, or change 11 or abolish such precinct; or the council of such city may combine the 12 several wards into one or more precincts. No precinct shall contain 13 different townships or parts thereof, except where by reason of the 14 existence of a village or incorporated town on or near a township line, 15 the board of supervisors may, for the convenience of electors, create 16 a voting precinct in compact form, from said town or village, and 17 may include therein territory adjoining and adjacent to said village 18 or town, which is situated in two or more townships. The board of 19 supervisors in the order establishing such precinct shall define its 20 boundaries and may change same if in their judgment occasion arises.
21 In such cases, separate ballots and ballot boxes shall be provided for 22 voting for township officers only. Each incorporated town shall con-

2 the township, or originally within and set off as a separate township 3 from the township in which the city is in whole or in part situated, 4 may, for the convenience of the voters, be fixed at some room or rooms 5 in the courthouse or in some other building within the limits of the 3 recorded in the records of said board of supervisors or council, as 4 the case may be, and publish notice thereof in some newspaper of 5 general circulation, published in such county or city, once each week 6 for three consecutive weeks, the last to be made at least thirty days 7 before the next general election. The precincts thus established shall 11 judges. In township precincts, the clerk of the township shall be a 12 clerk of election of the precinct in which he resides, and the trustees 13 of the township shall be judges of election, except that, in townships 14 not divided into election precincts, if all the trustees be of the same 15 political party, the board of supervisors shall determine by lot which 16 two of the three trustees shall be judges of such precinct. The mem-17 bership of such election board shall be made up or completed by the 18 board of supervisors from the parties which cast the largest and next 19 largest number of votes in said precinct at the last general election, or 20 that one which is unrepresented; but, in city and town elections, the 21 powers given in this chapter and duties herein made incumbent upon 22 the board of supervisors shall be performed by the council. If, at the 23 opening of the polls in any precinct, there shall be a vacancy in the 24 office of clerk or judge of election, the same shall be filled by the mem-25 bers of the board present, and from the political party which is entitled 26 to such vacant office under the provisions of this chapter. The elec-

 6 blotters and pencils to enable the voter to prepare his ballot for voting, 7 screened from all observation as to the manner in which he does so.
 8 A guard rail shall be so constructed and placed that only such persons 9 as are inside such rail can approach within six feet of the ballot box,

17 feet high, and the door or curtain shall extend to within two feet of 18 the floor, and shall be closed while the voter is preparing his ballot.

 23 with the township, city or town clerk, as the case may be, for safe 24 keeping and for future use. The number of voting booths shall not be 25 less than one to every sixty voters or fraction thereof who voted at 26 the last preceding election in the precinct. In precincts outside of 27 cities and towns the election shall, if practicable, be held in the public

1 The board of supervisors shall provide for each precinct in the 2 county, for the purpose of elections, one box, with lock and key. When 4 territory outside the limits of such town, the township trustees shall 5 prepare a separate ballot box to receive the votes for township 6 assessor, which shall be on separate ballots, and only the ballots of 7 persons living outside of the limits of such town shall be placed in said 8 ballot box. The judges of election shall place each ballot in its proper 9 ballot box. The judges of election shall have the right to administer 10 an oath to any voter, and to examine him under oath as to the assessor

 4 name and residence of each person nominated, whether an original 5 nomination or to fill a vacancy, to be voted for at such election, and the 6 order in which the tickets shall appear on the ballot. Should a vacancy

7 in the nominations occur and be filled after this certificate has been 8 forwarded, a like certificate shall at once issue and be sent the proper

 2 precinct, except electors of president and vice president of the United 3 States, shall be printed on one ballot, all nominations of any political 4 party or group of petitioners being placed under the party name or 5 title of such party or group, as designated by them in their certificates 6 of nomination or petitions, or if none be designated, then under some 7 suitable title, and the ballot shall contain no other names; provided, 8 however, that the candidates for electors of president and vice 9 president of any political party or group of petitioners shall not be 10 placed on the ballot, but in the years in which they are elected the 11 names of candidates for president and vice president respectively of 12 such parties or group of petitioners shall be placed on the ballot simi-13 larly as the names of candidates for United States senators are placed 14 thereon under their respective party, petition or adopted titles for 15 each political party or group of petitioners nominating a set of candi-16 dates for electors, and upon the left-hand margin of each separate 17 column of the ballot, immediately opposite the names of said candi-18 dates for president and vice president, a single square shall be printed 19 in front of a bracket inclosing the names of the said candidates for 20 president and vice president, and the votes for which candidates shall 21 be counted and certified to by the election judges in the same manner 22 as the votes for other candidates.

23 At all general elections next preceding the expiration of the term 24 of office of United States senator in the congress of the United States 25 there shall be placed upon the official ballot in the proper place the 26 names of candidates for all parties or group of petitioners for the 27 office of United States senator that have been nominated by law and 29 election judges in the same manner as votes for other candidates.

 34 no candidate shall appear upon the ballot in more than one place for 35 the same office, whether nominated by convention, primary, caucus or 36 petition, except as hereinafter provided.

37 Where two or more conventions, primaries or caucuses, or any 38 two of them, may nominate the same candidate for any office, the 39 name of such candidate shall be printed under the name of the 40 party first filing nomination papers bearing such name, unless the 41 candidate himself shall, in writing duly verified, request the officer 42 with whom the nomination papers are filed to cause the name to 43 be printed upon some other ticket; provided that, in any judicial 44 district of the state in which the bar association, or a convention

45 of attorneys of the district nominates or recommends candidate 46 or candidates for the office of district judge, and such candidates 47 are also nominated or indorsed by any political party, in preparing 48 the ballots for the general election, the names of such candidate 49 or candidates shall be printed as candidate or candidates for each 50 party by whom they are nominated, whether by primary, conven-

79 When a constitutional amendment or other public measure is to 80 be voted upon by the electors, it shall be printed in full upon a separate 81 ballot, preceded by the words, "Shall the following amendment to the 82 constitution (or public measure) be adopted?" and upon the right-83 hand margin, opposite these words, two spaces shall be left, one for 84 votes favoring such amendment or public measure, and the other for 85 votes opposing the same. In one of these spaces the word "Yes" or 86 other word required by law shall be printed; in the other, the word 87 "No" or other word required, and to the right of each space a square 88 shall be printed to receive the voting cross, all of which shall be sub-89 stantially in the following form:

90 "Shall the following amendment to the constitution (or public 91 measure) be adopted?"

92 (Here insert in full the proposed constitutional amend-93 ment or public measure.)

Yes.	<input type="checkbox"/>
No.	<input type="checkbox"/>

94 The elector shall designate his vote by a cross mark, thus, X, 95 placed in the proper square. At the top of such ballots shall be printed 96 the following words, inclosed in brackets: [Notice to voters. For 97 an affirmative vote upon any question submitted upon this ballot make 98 a cross [x] mark in the square after the word "Yes." For a negative 99 vote make a similar mark in the square following the word "No."]

100 If more than one constitutional amendment or public measure is to 101 be voted upon, they shall be printed upon the same ballot, one below 102 the other, with one inch space between each constitutional amend-103 ment or public measure that is to be submitted. All of such ballots 104 for the same polling place shall be of the same size, similarly printed, 105 upon yellow colored paper. On the back of each such ballot shall 106 be printed appropriate words, showing that such ballot relates to a 107 constitutional or other question to be submitted to the electors, so 108 as to distinguish the said ballots from the official ballot for candi-109 dates for office, and a facsimile of the signature of the auditor or 110 other officer who has caused the ballot to be printed. Such ballots 111 shall be indorsed and given to each voter by the judges of election, 112 as provided in section four hundred forty-four, and shall be subject 113 to all other laws governing ballots for candidates, so far as the same 114 shall be applicable.

115 At any general election hereafter held for the election of presi-116 dential electors a separate ballot shall be provided for women, sub-

126 And said ballot may be voted by them in the manner provided 127 for the government of elections of said officers and shall be counted 128 the same as other ballots cast at such elections.

3 filed with the county auditor, or city or town clerk, shall, if the ballots 4 are not already printed, be placed on the ballots in place of the name 5 of the original nominee, or, if the ballots have been printed, new

7 not be practicable to have new ballots printed, the election officers 8 having charge of them shall place the name supplied for the vacancy 9 upon each ballot used before delivering it to the judges of election.
10 If said ballots have already been delivered to the judges of election, 11 said auditor or clerk shall immediately furnish the name of such sub-

 14 officers.

[C., '97, § 1112.]

SEC. 439. Polls open.

1 At all elections the polls shall be opened at eight o'clock in the 2 forenoon, except in cities where registration is required, when the 3 polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the forenoon, or in each case

 5 vent fraud, deceit and abuse in conducting the same."

[C., '51, § 249; R., '60, § 484; C., '73, § 609; C., '97, § 1094.]

SEC. 441. How administered.

1 Any one of the judges or clerks present may administer the oath 2 to the others, and it shall be entered in the poll books, subscribed by 3 the person taking it, and certified by the officer administering it.

1 The judges of election of their respective precincts shall have 2 charge of the ballots and furnish them to the voters. Any person 3 desiring to vote shall give his name, and, if required, his residence, to 4 such judges, one of whom shall thereupon announce the same in a loud
 5 and distinct tone of voice, clear and audible. In precincts where regis-6 tration is required, if such name is found on the register of voters by 7 the officer having charge thereof, he shall likewise repeat such name 8 in the same manner; if the name of the person desiring to vote is not 9 found on the register of voters, his ballot shall not be received until 10 he shall have complied with the law prescribing the manner and condi-11 tions of voting by unregistered voters.

[C., '97, § 1114.]

SEC. 443. Challenges.

 4 be duly qualified; and he shall not receive a ballot from a voter who 5 is challenged, until such voter shall have established his right to vote.
 6 When any person is so challenged, the judges shall explain to him the 7 qualifications of an elector, and may examine him under oath touching 8 his qualifications as a voter. In all precincts where registration is not 9 required, and in other precincts where the name of such voter is 10 entered upon the registration lists, if the person challenged insists 11 that he is qualified, and the challenge is not withdrawn, one of the 12 judges shall tender to him the following oath: "You do solemnly 13 swear that you are a citizen of the United States, that you are a resi-

SEC. 444. Method of voting.

1 Any voter entitled to receive a ballot under the provisions of this 2 chapter shall be allowed to enter the space inclosed by the guard rail.
 3 One of the judges shall give him one, and only one, ballot, on the back 4 of which such judge shall indorse his initials, in such manner that 5 they may be seen when the ballot is properly folded, and the voter's 6 name shall immediately be checked on the registry list. The name of 7 each person, when a ballot is delivered to him, shall be entered by each 8 of the clerks of election in the poll book kept by him, in the place

SEC. 445. Depositing ballot.

1 On receipt of the ballot, the voter shall, without leaving the 2 inclosed space, retire alone to one of the voting booths, and without 3 delay mark his ballot, and, before leaving the voting booth, shall fold 4 the same in such manner as to conceal the marks thereon, and deliver 5 the same to one of the judges of election, but the number of the voter 6 on the poll books or register lists shall not be indorsed on the back of 7 his ballot. One of the judges of election shall thereupon, in the pres-8 ence of the voter, deposit such ballot in the ballot box, but no ballot 9 without the official indorsement shall be allowed to be deposited 10 therein. The voter shall quit said inclosed space as soon as he has 11 voted. Any voter who, after receiving an official ballot, decides not 12 to vote, shall, before retiring from within the guard rail, surrender to 13 the election officers the official ballot which has been given him, and 14 such fact shall be noted on each of the poll lists. A refusal to sur-

 16 arrest and the penalties provided in this chapter. No voter shall vote 17 or offer to vote any ballot except such as he has received from the 18 judges of election in charge of the ballots. No person shall take or 20 No voter shall be allowed to occupy a voting booth already occupied 21 by another nor remain within said inclosed space more than ten min-22 utes, nor to occupy a voting booth more than five minutes, in case all 23 of said voting booths are in use and other voters waiting to occupy the 24 same, nor to again enter the inclosed space after having voted; nor 25 shall more than two voters in excess of the whole number of voting 26 booths provided be allowed at any one time in such inclosed space, 27 except by the authority of the election officers to keep order and

[C., '51, § 257; R., '60, § 492; C., '73, § 617; C., '97, § 1117.]

SEC. 446. Assistance to vote.

1 Any voter who may declare upon oath that he can not read the 2 English language, or that, by reason of any physical disability, he is 3 unable to mark his ballot, shall, upon request, be assisted in marking

4 the same by two of the election officers of different political parties, 5 to be selected from the judges and clerks of the precinct in which they 6 are to act, to be designated by the judges of election of each precinct 7 at the opening of the polls. Such officers shall mark the ballot as 8 directed by the voter, and shall thereafter give no information regard-9 ing the same. The clerks of election shall enter upon the poll lists, 10 after the name of any elector who received such assistance in marking 11 his ballot, a memorandum of the fact. Intoxication shall not be 12 regarded as a physical disability, and no intoxicated person shall be 13 entitled to assistance in marking his ballot.

[C., '97, § 1118.]

SEC. 447. Marking the ballot.

1 Upon retiring to the voting booth the voter shall mark his ballot.
 2 He may place a cross, if he desires, in the circle at the head of one 3 ticket on the ballot, and the voter may place a cross in the square oppo-4 site the name of any candidate for whom he desires to vote, whether 5 he has put a cross in the circle or not.

6 If the voter does not wish to vote for all the candidates of his 7 party to an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the 8 cross in the circle at the top of his ticket shall not apply to said office, 9 but the voter must mark crosses in the squares opposite the names of 10 the candidates for whom he intends to vote. The voter may also 11 insert in writing in the proper place the name of any person for whom 12 he desires to vote, making a cross opposite thereto. The writing of 13 such name without making a cross opposite thereto, or the making 14 of a cross in a square opposite a blank without writing a name therein, 15 shall not affect the validity of the vote.

[C., '97, § 1119; S., '13, § 1119; 38 G. A., ch. 86, § 7.]

SEC. 448. How counted.

1 When a circle is marked the ballot shall be counted for all the 2 candidates upon the ticket beneath said circle, except those offices 3 for which some candidate has been voted for by marking a square.
 4 A cross placed in a square shall be counted for the candidate before 5 whose name the square is so marked.

6 When a square in front of any candidate has been marked, a 7 mark in the circle shall not count for any candidate for that particular 8 office. When more candidates than the number to be elected to the 9 same office are voted for by marking the squares opposite their names

 6 and must permit voting in absolute secrecy. It must also be so con-

 8 office, except where the voter is lawfully entitled to vote for more than 9 one person for that office; and it must afford him an opportunity to 10 vote for any or all persons for that office as he is by law entitled to 12 same person twice. It may also be provided with one ballot in each 13 party column or row containing only the words "presidential elect-14 ors," preceded by the party name, and a vote for such ballot shall 15 operate as a vote for all the candidates of such party for presidential

1 The local authorities adopting a voting machine shall, as soon as 2 practicable thereafter, provide for each polling place one or more vot-3 ing machines in complete working order, and shall thereafter keep 4 them in repair, and shall have the custody thereof and of the furniture
 5 and equipment of the polling place when not in use at an election. If it 6 shall be impracticable to supply each and every election district with 7 a voting machine or voting machines at any election following such 8 adoption, as many may be supplied as it is practicable to procure, and 9 the same may be used in such election district or districts within the 10 county, city, or town as the officers adopting the same may direct.

SEC. 508. Ballots—form.

1 All ballots shall be printed in black ink on clear, white material, 2 of such size as will fit the ballot frame, and in as plain, clear type as the 3 space will reasonably permit. The party name for each political 6 parties or organizations shall be arranged as provided in section four

SEC. 512. Duties of election officers—-independent ballots.

1 The judges of election and clerks of each district shall meet at 2 the polling place therein, at least three-quarters of an hour before 3 the time set for the opening of the polls at each election, and shall 4 proceed to arrange within the guard rail the furniture, stationery
 5 and voting machines for the conduct of the election. The judges

 15 previously done, the machine shall be so arranged as to show that no 16 vote has been cast, and the same shall not be thereafter operated, ex-17 cept by electors in voting. Before the polls are open for election, 18 each judge shall carefully examine every machine and see that no 19 vote has been cast, and the same shall be subject to inspection of 20 the election officers. Ballots voted for any person, whose name does 21 not appear on the machine as a nominated candidate for office, are 22 herein referred to as independent ballots. When two or more per-23 sons are to be elected to the same office, and the machine requires that 24 all independent ballots voted for that office be deposited in a single 25 receptacle or device, an elector may vote in or by such receptacle or 26 device for one or more persons whose names do not appear upon the 27 machine with or without the names of one or more persons whose 28 names do so appear. With that exception, and except for presidential 29 electors, no independent ballot shall be voted for any person for any 30 office whose name appears on the machine as a nominated candidate 31 for that office; any independent ballot so voted shall not be counted.

32 An independent ballot must be cast in its appropriate place on the 33 machine, or it shall be void and not counted.

6 all other persons except as provided by this chapter in cases of voting 7 by assisted electors. No voter shall remain within the voting ma-

9 after the lapse of one minute, he shall be removed by the judges.

[S., '13, § 1137-a21.]

SEC. 515. Additional instructions.

1 In case any elector after entering the voting machine booth shall 2 ask for further instructions concerning the manner of voting, two 3 judges of opposite political parties shall give such instructions to him; 4 but no judge or other election officer or person assisting an elector 5 shall in any manner request, suggest, or seek to persuade or induce 6 any such elector to vote any particular ticket, or for any particular 7 candidate, or for or against any particular amendment, question, or 8 proposition. After receiving such instructions, such elector shall vote 9 as in the case of an unassisted voter.

1 After the total vote for each candidate has been ascertained, and 2 before leaving the room or voting place, the judges shall make and 3 sign written statements of election, as required by the election laws 4 now in force, except that such statements of the canvass need not con-5 tain any ballots except the independent ballots as herein provided.
[S., '13, § 1137-a26.]

SEC. 520. What statutes apply—separate ballots.

1 All of the provisions of the election law now in force and not 2 inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter shall apply with full 3 force to all counties, cities, and towns adopting the use of voting ma-4 chines. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting 5 the use of a separate ballot for constitutional amendments and other 6 public measures.

2 consisting of two practical miners and two mine operators, all hold-3 ing certificates of competency as mine foremen, and one mining engi-

2 the capitol on the first Monday in March of each even-numbered year 3 for the examination of applicants; notice of which examination shall 4 be published in at least one newspaper in each mining district not 5 less than fifteen days preceding the date of such examination; and 6 shall be furnished with the necessary stationery and other material 7 for the examination in the same manner as other state officers are 8 provided with supplies. The members shall receive as compensation 9 for their services the sum of five dollars per day for the time actually 13 member.

[C., '97, § 2480.]

SEC. 730. Examination—qualification of candidates.

1 The examination shall consist of oral and written questions in 2 theoretical and practical mining and mine engineering, on the nature 3 and properties of noxious and poisonous gases found in mines, and 4 on the different systems of working and ventilating coal mines. Dur-

SEC. 731. Inspection districts—powers and duties of inspectors—expenses and supplies.

1 The governor shall divide the state into three inspection districts, 2 and assign one inspector to each district, who shall devote his entire 5 discharge of his duties, including a complete set of standards, bal-6 ances and other means of adjustment in testing any and all apparatus 7 used in weighing, and shall examine, test and adjust, as often as 8 occasion demands, all scales, beams and other apparatus used in 9 weighing coal at the mines. He shall examine all the mines in his dis-10 trict as often as the time will permit, which examination shall be 11 made at least once in every six months of all mines having an aver-12 age output of fifty tons or more of coal per day, keep a record of the 13 inspections made, showing date, the condition in which the mine is 14 found, the extent and manner in which the laws relating to the gov-15 ernment of mines and their operation are observed and obeyed, the 16 progress made in improvements for the better security to health and 17 life, number of accidents happening and their character, the number

18 employed, and such other and further matters as may be of public 19 interest and connected with the mining industries of the state. He 20 shall have the right at all reasonable times, by night or by day, to 21 enter any mine in his district, or any district to which he may be 22 sent by the governor for the purpose of ascertaining its condition, and 23 the manner of its operation, by making personal examination and 24 inquiry in relation thereto, but not so as to unnecessarily obstruct or 25 impede the working of the mines; and to this end the mine owner or 26 person in charge shall furnish such mine inspector all assistance in 27 his power, and forthwith, upon the happening of any accident to any 28 miner in or about the mine by reason of the working thereof which 29 causes loss of life, shall report the same, by mail or otherwise, to the 30 mine inspector and the coroner of the county. Each inspector shall 31 have and maintain, at some suitable place in his district, to be ap-

 33 remain therein, unless otherwise engaged in the conduct of his official 34 duties. The costs and expenses of the office of the mine inspector 35 other than at the capitol, including rental, telephone, office supplies 36 and necessary fixtures, shall be paid for by the state, and the bills 37 audited and allowed by the state board of audit, who shall direct a war-38 rant to issue therefor. The bills for current expenses shall be pre-39 sented monthly and shall not exceed the sum of fifteen dollars per 40 month for each inspector, whose office is maintained at a place other 41 than at the capitol.

[C., '73, § 1567; C., '97, § 2482; S., '13, § 2482.]

SEC. 732. General office—report to governor—compensation.

1 The three inspectors shall maintain a general office in the capitol, 2 and keep therein all records, correspondence, documents, apparatus 3 or other property pertaining to their office; they shall meet in said 4 office biennially on or before August fifteenth preceding the regular 5 session of the general assembly, and make report to the governor of 6 their official doings, including therein all matters which by this chap-

 8 as to needed future legislation as in their opinion may be important.
 9 Each inspector shall receive for his services the sum of eighteen hun-10 dred dollars per annum and actual traveling expenses, not exceeding 11 seven hundred fifty dollars yearly, the traveling expenses to be paid 12 quarterly upon an itemized statement duly verified and audited by 13 the state auditor.

[C., '73, § 1569; C., '97, § 2483; S., '13, § 2483.]

SEC. 733. Removal of inspector—hearing—appeal.

1 Charges of gross neglect of duty or malfeasance in office against 2 any inspector may be made in writing, sworn to and filed with the 3 governor, and must be made by five miners, or one or more mine op-4 erators; they shall be accompanied with a bond in the sum of five hun-5 dred dollars, running to the state, executed by two or more freehold-6 ers, approved and accepted by the clerk of the district court of the 7 county of their residence, conditioned for the payment of all costs 8 and expenses arising from the investigation of the charges, and there-9 upon the governor shall convene the board of examiners at such time 10 and place as he may designate, giving the inspector and the person 11 whose name first appears in the charge ten days' notice thereof. The 12 board, at the time and place fixed, shall proceed to hear, try and de-

13 termine the matter, and for this purpose shall summon any material 14 witness desired, by either party, and may administer the proper oath 15 to all witnesses. Evidence may also be taken by deposition as in other 16 cases, and continuances of the hearing may be granted in the further-17 ance of justice and upon the application of either party. After the 18 evidence has been fully heard, the board shall report to the governor 19 the results of its investigation, and if the charges are sustained, the 20 inspector shall be forthwith removed by the governor, and in that 21 event the costs and expenses of the hearing shall be awarded against 22 the inspector or the bondsmen as the case may be, with the right, 23 however, upon the part of the aggrieved party to appeal from such 24 findings and order to the district court of any county in the inspec-25 tor's district against whom charges were made, by giving notice in 26 writing to the board, or any member thereof, served in the same man-27 ner as original notices are served, within ten days from the time of 28 filing the findings with the governor, or if the order of removal is 29 made within ten days therefrom. Upon such appeal all matters shall 30 be heard bearing upon the charges made, and the pleadings may be 31 amended within the discretion of the court in the furtherance of jus-32 tice. The appeal shall be tried as an equitable action and such order 33 made as the evidence supports and justice demands. Nothing herein 34 contained shall be construed to prevent the governor from proceed-35 ing under the law provided for the suspension or removal of state 36 officers for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office.

[C., '97, § 2484; S., '13, § 2484.]

SEC. 734. Uniform reports.

1 The board of inspectors shall prepare a standard form of reports 2 which shall be uniform for and throughout the state and which shall 3 be used in all cases where reports are required to be made to the dis-4 trict mine inspectors or the board of inspectors as the case may be.

SEC. 735. Maps of mines—surveys.

1 The owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of any mine shall 2 make or cause to be made an accurate map or plan of such mine drawn 3 to a scale not more than two hundred feet to the inch, on which shall 4 appear the name of the state, county and township in which the mine 5 is located, the designation of the mine, the name of the company or 6 owner, operator, lessee or person in charge, the certificate of the min-7 ing engineer or surveyor as to the accuracy and date of the survey, 8 the north point and the scale to which the drawing is made. Every 9 such map or plan shall correctly show the surface boundary lines of 10 the coal rights pertaining to each mine and all sections or quarter 11 section lines or corners within the same; the lines of town lots and 12 streets; the tracks and sidetracks of all railroads, the location of all 13 wagon roads, rivers, streams, ponds, reservations made of coal and 14 mineral. For the underground workings said maps shall show all 15 shafts, slopes, tunnels or other openings to the surface or to the work-16 ings of a contiguous mine; all excavations, entries, rooms and cross-17 cuts; the location of the escape ways, and of the fan or furnace or 18 other means of ventilation and the direction of air currents and the 19 location of permanent pumps, hauling engines, engine planes, aban-
20 doned works, fire walls and standing water. A separate and similar 21 map drawn to the same scale in all cases shall be made of each and

22 every seam of coal operated in any mine in this state. A separate 23 map shall also be made of the surface whenever the surface buildings, 24 lines or objects are so numerous as to obscure the details of the mine 25 workings if drawn upon the same sheet with them, and in such case 26 the surface map shall be drawn upon transparent cloth or paper so 27 that it can be laid upon the map of the underground workings and 28 thus truly indicate the local relation of lines and objects on the sur-29 face to the excavations of the mine, together with any other principal 30 workings of the mine. Each map shall also show by profile drawing 31 and measurement, the last one hundred fifty feet approaching the 32 boundary lines, showing the rise and dip of the seam. The original 33 or true copies of all such maps shall be kept at the office of the mine, 34 and true copies thereof shall also be furnished the state mine inspec-35 tor for the district in which said mine is located, within thirty days 36 after the completion of the same. The maps so delivered to the in-37 spector shall be the property of the state and shall remain in the cus-38 tody of the said inspector during his term of office, and be delivered 39 to his successor in office. They shall be kept at the office of the inspec-40 tor and be open to examination of all persons interested in the same; 41 but such examination shall only be made in the presence of the inspec-42 tor or his office assistant, and he shall not permit any copies of the 43 same to be made without the written consent of the operator or the 44 owner of the property, except as herein and otherwise provided. An 45 accurate extension of the last preceding survey of every mine in active 46 operation shall be made once in every twelve months prior to July 47 first of every year and the result of such survey with the date thereof, 48 shall be promptly and accurately entered upon the original map and 49 a true, correct and accurate copy of said extended map shall be for-50 warded to the inspector of mines in the district in which said mine 51 is located so as to show all changes in plan of new work in the mine, 52 and all extensions of the old workings to the most advanced face or 53 boundary of said workings which have been made since the last pre-54 ceding survey, and the parts of the mine abandoned or worked out 55 after the last preceding survey shall be clearly indicated and shown 56 by colorings, which copy must be delivered to the inspector of mines 57 within thirty days after the last survey is made. When any coal mine 58 is worked out or is about to be abandoned or indefinitely closed, the 59 owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of the same shall make or 60 cause to be made a completed and extended map of said mine and the 61 result of the same shall be duly extended on all maps of the mine and 62 copies thereof so as to show all excavations and the most advanced 63 workings of the mine, and their exact relation to the boundary or 64 section lines on the surface, and deliver to the inspector a copy of the 65 completed map. The state inspector of mines shall order a survey 66 to be made of the workings of any mine and the result to be extended 67 on the maps of the same and the copies thereof whenever in his judg-68 ment the safety of the workmen, the support of the surface, the con-69 servation of the property or the safety of an adjoining mine requires 70 it; and if not made by the owner, operator, lessee or person in charge 71 when ordered by the inspector it shall be made or caused to be made 72 by the inspector and paid for by the state and the amount collected 73 from the owner, operator, lessee or person in charge as other debts 74 are collected.

[C., '97, § 2485; S., '13, § 2485.]

SEC. 736. Failure to furnish map—penalty.

1 When the owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of any 2 mine neglects and refuses for a period of three months to furnish to 3 said inspector the map or plan of such mine or a copy thereof or of 4 the extension thereof as provided for by the preceding section, such 5 owner, operator, lessee, or person shall be deemed guilty of a misde-6 meanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined one hundred dol-7 lars and shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine is 8 paid, and in addition thereto the inspector shall make or cause to be 9 made an accurate map or plan of such mine or extension as the case 10 may be, at the expense of the owner, operator, lessee or person in 11 charge thereof; the cost to be paid by the state and recovered by law 12 from the said owner, operator, lessee or person in charge in the same 13 manner as other debts by suit; and it shall be the duty of the county 14 attorney of the county in which such mine is located, at the request 15 of the inspector, to bring such action in the name and for the benefit 16 of the state.

SEC. 737. Right of adjoining landowner—expenses of examination—double damages.

1 Upon affidavit of an adjoining landowner in the vicinity of any 2 mine, or his agents, filed with the inspector of the district stating that 3 it is necessary for the protection of his property to know how near 4 his land the excavations in the mine extend, the inspector shall make 5 an examination or employ a surveyor therefor if necessary, to deter-6 mine the length and direction of entries and other works toward the 7 land of the applicant and the extent of excavation of same on all of 8 his land, if any, and make report to the inspector to whom the appli-9 cation may have been made; the inspector may in such case permit 10 examination of such map or copies thereof as may be in the possession 11 of the inspector for the purpose of and to aid and assist in deter-
 12 ming the location of the workings as herein contemplated. The neces-13 sary expenses incurred and compensation of five dollars per day to 14 the inspector in favor of the state and ten dollars per day to the sur-15 veyor shall be paid by the applicant except when it shall be shown 16 that said applicant's property has been undermined, in which case 17 the expense shall be paid by the mine owner, operator, lessee or per-18 son in charge; and in any case where any owner, operator, lessee or 19 person operating a mine, who without permission takes coal from 20 adjoining land he shall be liable for double damages therefor and for 21 all expense caused thereby. If it be found necessary to survey the 22 premises to discover the facts as contemplated by this section the 23 owner or person filing the affidavit shall first give a bond or other 24 security to the inspector in favor of the state in the sum of one hun-25 dred dollars conditioned to pay all costs and expenses incurred 26 thereby.

[S., '13, § 2485-b.]

SEC. 738. Escape ways and air shafts.

1 The owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of any mine
 2 hereafter constructed and operated by shaft, or one having a slope 3 or drift opening in which five or more persons are employed, shall 4 construct and maintain at least two distinct openings for each seam

5 of coal worked, which in mines operated by shaft shall be separated 6 by natural strata of not less than three hundred feet in breadth, and 7 in mines operated by slope or drift not less than two hundred feet 8 in breadth, through which ingress and egress at all times shall be 9 unobstructed to the employees and persons having occasion to use 10 the same as escape ways or place of exit from the mine.

[C., '97, § 2486; S., '13, § 2486.]

SEC. 739. Stairways in escape shafts.

1 All escape shafts hereafter constructed not provided with hoist-
2 ing appliances as hereinafter provided shall have stairs at an angle 3 of not more than sixty degrees in ascent, nor less than two and one-4 half feet in width with proper, safe and substantial landings at con-5 venient and easy distances, and equipped with good and substantial 6 hand rails or banisters. If a shaft be used for an escape shaft and 7 air shaft, that part of the shaft used as an escape way shall be divided 8 and partitioned closely with good and substantial material from the 9 part used as an air shaft, all of which shall be kept in safe condition 10 as by this chapter provided.

SEC. 740. Hoisting appliances for use of workmen.

1 All escape shafts not provided with stairs shall be provided with 2 suitable appliances for hoisting underground workmen at all times 3 ready for use both day and night, while the workmen are at labor, 4 which hoisting apparatus shall be separate and apart from the hoist-
5 ing shaft, and the equipment shall include a depth indicator, brake 6 on the drum, steel or iron cable, safety catches on cages, and covers 7 on cages to securely protect any person while on the cage.

[S., '13, § 2486-b.]

SEC. 741. Underground connection with contiguous mine.

1 Where two or more mines are connected underground the several 2 owners by joint agreement may use the hoisting shaft, slope or drift
3 of the one as an escape for the other, and the road or traveling ways 4 to the boundary on either side shall be kept clear of every obstruc-5 tion to travel by the respective operators, and the intervening doors, 6 if any, shall remain unlocked and ready at all times for immediate 7 use, and when such communication has once been established between 8 contiguous mines it shall be unlawful for the owner, operator, or per-9 son in charge of either mine to close the same without the consent 10 both of the contiguous operators and of the state inspector of mines 11 of the district, but when either operator desires to abandon mining 12 operations, the expense and duty of maintaining such communication 13 shall devolve upon the party continuing operation.

[S., '13, § 2486-c.]

SEC. 742. Location of shafts—approval of inspector—appeal.

1 No escape shaft or other place of exit or any air shaft or opening 2 for ventilation not including hoisting shafts shall be located or con-3 structed without first giving notice to the state mine inspector and 4 obtaining his approval thereof in writing, who shall retain a copy and 5 file in his office and preserve with other records of that mine. The 6 state mine inspector of the district in which any mine is located shall 7 have the right at any time to order any additional air and escape way, 8 shaft or openings therefor or other place of exit as may be deemed 9 necessary for the purpose of furnishing additional ventilation or rea-10 sonably necessary means of escape and such additional air and escape 11 ways shall only be used in cases of emergency; but if the owner, op-12 erator, lessee or person in charge of the mine feels aggrieved with 13 the order as made by the mine inspector of the district in which the 14 mine is located he shall have the right to appeal from the decision 15 or the order of the mine inspector in such case to the district court, 16 where the action shall be tried as an equitable action, and shall have 17 precedence over any and all other cases, and the first term of such 18 court held after the taking of such appeal shall be the appearance 19 term; but in any case the state mine inspector may elect by giving 20 four days' notice to the party taking the appeal, to bring said cause 21 on for hearing before any judge of the judicial district in which such 22 mine is located, who shall make such order as the case demands; it 23 shall be unlawful to construct a furnace shaft in connection with an 24 escape shaft or other means of exit for the employees of a mine, and 25 all furnace shafts hereafter constructed shall be separate and apart 26 from the escape way or means of exit.

SEC. 743. Ventilation—obstructions prohibited.

1 The escape way shall be ventilated and kept free from vitiated 2 air, accumulation of ice and obstructions of every kind; nor shall 3 steam or heated air be discharged therein during the daytime unless 4 an attendant be kept in charge thereof and the equipment so arranged 5 that the steam or warm air may be readily turned off at any time 6 when required and a conspicuous signboard placed in plain view indi-7 cating the point where the steam or warm air may be turned off as 8 by this chapter contemplated; and all surface or other water which 9 flows therein shall be conducted by rings or otherwise to receptacles 10 for the same so as to keep the stairway reasonably free from falling 11 water.

[S., '13, § 2486-e.]

SEC. 744. Traveling ways—sign boards—inspection—appeal.

1 In any mine affected by this chapter and every seam of coal or 2 other mineral worked therein, there shall be constructed, kept and 3 maintained safe and accessible traveling ways to and from any and 4 all escape ways or place of exit, which shall be maintained free from 5 falls of roof, standing water and other obstructions and made at least 6 five feet high and seven feet wide. At all points where the passage 7 or traveling ways to the escapement shaft or place of exit intersect 8 other roadways or entries, conspicuous signboards shall be placed 9 thereat indicating the way to such place of exit. All traveling ways 10 shall be inspected by the mine foreman or his assistant at least once 11 each week, and written report of their condition made and filed in 12 the office at the mine which shall be open for examination to all the 13 employees of the mine and such other persons entitled thereto at all 14 reasonable times; except that in any case, when in the judgment of 15 the mine inspector of the district where the mine is located it is 16 deemed impracticable by reason of the conditions or strata to make 17 the traveling way herein referred to five feet in height, then and in 18 that case the traveling way may be made and maintained less than 19 five feet in height and seven feet in width, but in no case shall the 20 traveling way be less than three feet in height or six feet in width.

 21 But if any dispute or difference should arise as to the findings or or-22 ders of the mine inspector, in the premises, between such inspector 23 and employer operating the mine, or between such inspector and at 24 least five operatives working in the mine, then and in that case the 25 inspector shall furnish, on demand, to the aggrieved party or parties 26 a copy of the findings or orders complained of and he shall also file 27 the originals thereof in the office of the board of state mine inspec-28 tors and the aggrieved party or parties may have the right to appeal 29 from said findings and orders to the district court of any county in 30 which said mine is located on the same terms and conditions, so far 31 as applicable, as those provided for the trial and appeal under sec-32 tion seven hundred thirty-three. When appeal is taken as herein 33 provided the case shall be docketed and precedence given over all 34 other cases excepting criminal cases where the party is in jail, and 35 the inspector may bring the case on for hearing before any judge of 36 the judicial district where the mine is located by giving five days' 37 notice in writing to the opposite party, and if the evidence fails to 38 show that the order was not a reasonable one as made by the inspector 39 the findings and order of the inspector shall stand as made by him.

[S., '13, § 2486-f.]

SEC. 745. Precaution against fire—location of buildings.

1 It shall be unlawful to erect, keep or maintain any inflammable 2 structure or buildings or other material in the space intervening be-3 tween the main or hoisting shafts, slopes or drifts, and the escape-4 ment shaft or other place of exit or any powder magazine in such 5 location or manner as to jeopardize the free and safe exit of the 6 employees from the mine by said escapement shaft or other place of 7 exit in case of fire or other casualty to the main shaft, slope or drift 8 buildings.

[S., '13, § 2486-g.]

SEC. 746. Boiler and engine rooms.

1 All boiler and engine rooms erected or constructed on the sur-
 2 face at any mine shall be constructed of fireproof material, and in no 3 case shall the boiler room be placed within sixty feet of the hoisting 4 shaft, slope or drift.

[S., '13, § 2486-h.]

SEC. 747. Shaft lights.

1 In all cases, after twilight, or when by reason of steam or other 2 causes obscuring the plain view of the top and openings of any shaft, 3 there shall be maintained a good and substantial light, but in no case 4 shall an open light or torch be used.

[S., '13, § 2486-i.]

SEC. 748. Traveling way around hoisting shafts.

1 At the bottom of each hoisting shaft there shall be constructed 2 a safe and convenient traveling way around the shaft for employees 3 and animals, and it shall be unlawful for any person to pass across 4 the shaft bottom in any other manner than by the traveling way herein 5 contemplated; except such employees as may be necessary to perform

6 the work at the bottom of the shaft or those engaged in making re-7 pairs.

[S., '13, § 2486-j.]

SEC. 749. Places of refuge in haulage roads—signals—trip car lights.

1 On all single-track haulage roads wherever hauling is done by ma-2 chinery or other mechanical device, and on all gravity or inclined 3 planes in mines where it is impractical to construct a separate trav-4 eling way and which persons employed in the mines must use while 5 performing their work or travel on foot to and from their work, 6 places of refuge must be cut in the side wall not less than three feet 7 in depth and four feet wide and five feet high, and not more than 8 twenty yards apart unless there be a clear space of not less than two 9 and one-half feet between the car when on the track and the rib or 10 side of the entry of the haulage way; but in no case shall such haul-11 age way be used as a traveling way unless it shall first be determined 12 by the inspector that it is impracticable to construct, keep or main-13 tain a separate traveling way, and in all such cases, unless otherwise 14 determined by the inspector to be impracticable, there shall be kept 15 and maintained a separate traveling way for the employees which 16 shall at all times be maintained in good and safe condition and free 17 from falls of roof and other obstructions. On every such haulage 18 road which is more than one hundred feet in length a code of signals 19 shall be established between the hauling engineer and all points on 20 the road, except where hauling is done by motor; and a conspicuous 21 light shall be carried on the front of every trip or train of trip cars 22 moved by machinery.

[S., '13, § 2486-k.]

SEC. 750. Entries used by draft animals.

1 All entries hereafter constructed in which the hauling is done 2 by draft animals, and wherein the employees perform their work or 3 use as a means of ingress and egress to and from their working 4 places, shall be maintained substantially eight feet in width from one 5 rib or side of the entry or haulage way to the opposite side, which 6 shall be kept free from timbers or other refuse and as reasonably 7 even on the surface of each side of the track as may be reasonably 8 practicable; but this section shall not apply to such haulage ways in 9 longwall work when the inspector of the district where the mine is 10 located shall determine that it is impracticable to maintain the width 11 of the entry or haulage way as herein provided.

SEC. 751. Ventilation—measurements of air.

1 The owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of any mine,
2 whether operated by shaft, slope or drift, shall provide and maintain 3 an amount of ventilation of not less than one hundred cubic feet of 4 air per minute for each person employed in the mine, nor less than 5 five hundred cubic feet of air per minute for each mule, horse or other 6 animal used therein, which shall be so circulated throughout the mine 7 so as to dilute, render harmless and expel all noxious and poisonous 8 gases in all working parts of the same; but in no case shall the air 9 current be a greater distance than sixty feet from the working face

10 except when making crosscuts in entries for an air course, then in 11 that case the distance shall not be greater than seventy feet; but in a 12 special case requiring it, the state mine inspector may, in writing, 13 grant permission to go beyond the limit herein mentioned. When 14 the air current is carried to the working face of the room in double 15 room mining, such air current shall be treated as that contemplated 16 in this section. The measurements of the air currents as herein con-17 templated shall be taken at the bottom of the intake and near the 18 mouth of each split thereof, and also near the working face of the 19 entries; the person in charge of the mine shall be furnished with an 20 anemometer by the owner or lessee of the mine, who shall take the 21 measurements of the air as herein contemplated at least once each 22 week and make a record thereof showing the time and place and 23 when and where measurements were taken, copy thereof shall be re-24 tained at the office of the mine where operated, and report sent each 25 month to the state mine inspector of the district in which said mine 26 is operated.

[C., '97, § 2488; S., '13, § 2488.]

SEC. 752. Air currents to be split.

1 In every mine the air current shall be split and so conducted that 2 not more than eighty employees at any time shall be employed on or 3 in each split except in case of emergency. But the inspector of the 4 district where the mine is located may in writing grant permission 5 for a greater number not to exceed fifty when the required number 6 of cubic feet of air per minute is properly circulated therein.

SEC. 753. Contrivances for supplying air current.

1 Artificial means of exhaust steam, fans, furnaces or other con-
2 trivances of sufficient capacity shall be kept in operation to supply 3 the air current, but if a furnace is used it shall be so constructed by 4 lining the upcast for a distance for not less than fifty feet or for such 5 greater distance as special cases may be required and determined by 6 the state mine inspector, with indestructible material so that fire 7 can not be communicated to any part of the works.

[S., '13, § 2488-b.]

SEC. 754. Doors in haulage ways—duty of employees.

1 On all haulage ways where doors are maintained to direct the 2 air current, it shall be the duty of the driver or other employees, pass-3 ing through the same, to see that the same are properly closed.

[S., '13, § 2488-c.]

SEC. 755. Breaks-through in entries.

1 All breaks-through in entries except the last one shall be securely 2 closed and all stoppings in breaks-through except the one next to the 3 last in the entries shall be made with some substantial material so as 4 to securely and completely close the same, and thereby prevent the 5 air from passing through or in any part thereof, which shall be sub-6 ject to the state mine inspector's approval, who is hereby authorized 7 and empowered to require any change to be made in the material or 8 construction for the purpose of and to reasonably comply with the 9 provisions of law and for the purposes intended. The stoppings in 10 the next to the last break-through in entries may be constructed tem-11 porarily of some suitable material until one additional break-through 12 has been made, when the temporary stopping shall be replaced with 13 material as by this section contemplated.

SEC. 756. Breaks-through in rooms.

1 All breaks-through in the rooms, except the last one, shall be 2 closed and securely fastened so as to prevent the air from passing 3 through the same, which stoppings shall be of suitable material and 4 subject to the approval of the state mine inspector of the district in 5 which the mine is operated. The mouth or openings of all abandoned 6 rooms shall be securely closed in the manner as provided for perma-7 nent stoppings in entries and all abandoned works shall be closed in 8 like manner. All breaks-through in entries must be of an area of 9 not less than twenty-five feet and in rooms not less than twenty feet 10 for the purpose of and to accommodate the air current as herein con-11 templated.

SEC. 757. Unhealthful conditions—changes ordered—suspension of work—violation—penalty.

1 When the state mine inspector finds the air insufficient or the 2 employees working in unsafe or under improper health conditions, 3 he shall at once give notice to the mine owner or his agent or person 4 in charge, and upon failure to make the necessary changes within 5 such reasonable time as said mine inspector may fix, he shall then 6 and there order the employees, except such as may be necessary to 7 correct the defect and make the repairs, to cease work and remain 8 out of the mine until the defects are corrected and the mine put in 9 proper condition, and any person, employer or employee, failing to 10 comply with the order of the state mine inspector relating thereto, 11 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof 12 shall be fined not less than five dollars and not more than one hundred 13 dollars.

4 other adequate means of communication and keep the same in com-5 plete order from the bottom or interior to the top or exterior, and in 6 all cases where mechanical means are used in any shaft, slope or drift, 7 to hoist or lower employees, the owner, lessee, operator or person in 8 charge of such mine shall keep and maintain a suitable, sober and 9 competent person at the top and bottom in charge of the signals dur-

3 brake on the drum, so adjusted that it may be operated by the engineer 4 without leaving his post at the levers. Flanges shall be so attached 5 or arranged to the sides of the drum of any engine used, with a clear-6 ance of not less than four inches when the whole rope is wound on 7 the drum. The ends of the hoisting cables shall be well secured on 8 the drum and at least two and one-half laps of the same shall remain 9 on the drum when the cage is at rest at the lowest caging place in 10 the shaft. An index dial or indicator shall be so arranged to show 11 at all times the true position of the cages in the shaft, which shall be 12 so attached to the machinery as to furnish constant information and 13 guidance to the engineer; and all cages used in any shaft shall be 14 equipped with good safety catches and must be suspended between 15 good substantial guides, the cages so constructed overhead with boiler 16 iron that falling objects can not strike persons being hoisted therein, 17 and at all landings and openings at the top of all shafts there shall 18 be maintained an approved safety gate constructed in such manner 19 as to at all times close the opening or entrance to the shaft when the 20 cage is not at rest at that point, and proper or adequate springs at 21 the top of each slope and a trail or dog attached to each train used 22 therein, and not more than ten persons shall be allowed to descend 23 or ascend in any cage at one time or such less number as may be fixed 24 by the state mine inspector; but no person at any time shall be allowed 25 to ride in the shaft or any cage with a car, tools or other material or 26 when such car, tools or material is on the opposite cage, except when 27 absolutely necessary in the performance of work in the making of 28 repair; and no person shall ride upon a loaded trip while in any part 7 engine or machinery is not in use in hoisting or lowering employees 8 or hoisting coal or mineral; and no person shall be permitted to talk 9 to the engineer while in the performance of his duty in hoisting or 10 lowering employees, coal or mineral. There shall be placed in plain

11 view of the engineer while at his post of duty at some conspicuous 12 point, a code of signals as by this chapter provided, and which shall 13 be in like manner placed at the top and bottom of each shaft, slope 14 or drift; and it shall be the duty of the engineer at least once each 15 day to carefully inspect all of the machinery and apparatus under 16 his charge and carefully note all of its parts, and if any defects appear 17 which will endanger the life or limb of any employee in the use thereof 18 he shall cease operating the machinery until the defects are corrected.

 2 is used in the operation of the plant, the following code of signals 3 shall be used between the engineer and other employees for the pur-4 pose of operation:

- 5 1. One ring or whistle shall signify to hoist coal or empty cage;
 6 and also to stop when the cage is in motion.
- 7 2. Two rings or whistles shall signify to lower cage.
- 8 3. Three rings or whistles shall signify that employees are com-

 23 with written consent of the state mine inspector, add to this code of 24 signals in his discretion when deemed necessary for the efficiency of 25 the mine or the safety of the employees, but any addition thereto shall 26 be posted as by this act provided for the information of the engineer 27 and employees.

4 case shall such stable be located without first having given notice to 5 the state mine inspector, who shall determine the suitability of the 6 place proposed for the location of the stable in any mine in this state,

2 exhaust is properly cared for, or supplies of gasoline therefor, shall be 3 located in or near the air current which supplies the employees of any 4 mine with air, but in all cases shall be placed upon the return and 5 located at least twenty feet from any and all traveling ways, but in no 6 case shall any gasoline engine or place for supply of gasoline therefor 7 be located without first having the approval in writing of the state

9 said engine or supplies. The supply of gasoline required for the opera-10 tion of said engine shall be kept at the place selected, and shall not 11 exceed twelve gallons at any one time, except that in case of emer-12 gency such engine may be temporarily placed where needed and the 13 inspector of the district where the mine is located immediately notified 14 thereof, who shall at once proceed to the mine and determine as to 15 the safety of the employees of the mine while the engine is so oper-16 ated at the place required, and if in his judgment the operation thereof 17 can be continued with reasonable safety to the employees of the mine

18 at the place required, the owner, lessee or person in charge of the mine

2 person receiving a certificate under the law pertaining to mines and 3 mining within this state shall have wilfully disobeyed the orders of 4 the mine inspector or has been convicted of a misdemeanor as by this 5 chapter provided, his certificate shall be revoked, if the evidence war-6 rants upon complaint being filed with the board of examiners who shall 7 proceed to hear the case at such time and place as it may determine,

4 employee employed in a mine shall securely prop and timber the roof 5 of his working place therein and shall obey any order or orders given 6 by the superintendent or mine foreman relating to the width of the 7 working place and to the security of the mine in the part thereof 8 where he is at work. Each miner or other person shall avoid waste of 9 props, caps, timbers and other material and when he has props, caps, 10 timbers or other material not suitable for his purpose he shall place 11 the same at some convenient point near the track, and where the same 12 may be readily seen, and inform the mine foreman or other person in 13 charge, of their being unsuitable for the purpose intended. When 14 drawslate or other like material is over the coal he shall see to it 15 that proper timbers are placed thereunder for his safety before work-16 ing under the same, and it shall be unlawful and a violation of this 17 chapter for any person working in a mine at any time to leave any 18 of the doors open that direct the air current after he has passed 19 through the same, but shall closely observe after passing through 20 such doors that the same are properly closed.

[S., '13, § 2489-16a.]

1 It shall be unlawful for any miner or other person to charge a drill 2 hole with powder or other explosive until the shot examiner shall have 3 first examined the same, and the shot examiner shall forbid the 4 charging of any drill hole with powder or other explosive if in his 5 judgment he believes it would be unsafe to the employees to discharge 6 the shot as herein contemplated; and in any case where the shot

7 examiner forbids the charging of any drill hole as by this section pro-8 vided, he shall immediately make a cross with chalk markings at the 9 mouth of the hole when condemned and make an entry thereof in a 10 book retained by him for that purpose, stating the name of the person 11 working in such place, the number of drill holes in such place which 12 he forbids being charged with powder or other explosives and the date 13 thereof, which record shall be retained and kept intact for at least one 14 week; and it shall be unlawful for any shot firer or any other person 15 to discharge any shot or blast until it has first been examined; nor 16 shall any person fire a shot or blast which has been condemned by the 17 shot examiner as by this section provided, and in any case when the 18 mine foreman shall have forbidden the charging of any drill hole or 19 the firing of any shot, no person shall be permitted to charge such hole 20 or fire such shot, and if the shot examiner forbids the charging of a 21 hole or the firing of a shot, the mine foreman shall not cause the hole

1 It shall be unlawful for any person to discharge, or attempt to dis-
2 charge, any of the duties of mine foreman, pit boss, or hoisting 3 engineer at any coal mine, employing five or more persons therein, 4 unless he shall hold a certificate of competency for such position as 5 provided in this chapter. But in case of the discharge, resignation, or 6 disability of any person lawfully performing such duties the owner, 7 agent, operator, or managing officer of said mine shall have thirty 8 days within which to secure the services of a certificated person to 9 take the place of the one so discharged, resigned, or disabled; and 10 during such time a competent and capable person, whether certificated 11 as provided in this chapter or not, may be temporarily employed to 12 perform such services.

 9 restrain the working of the mine with more persons at the same time 10 than are necessary to make the improvements needed, save as may be 11 required to prevent waste, until such appliances have been supplied, 12 and in case an injury happens to those engaged in work because of 13 such failure, the same shall be held culpable negligence.

1 The owner or person in charge of any gypsum mine operated by 2 shaft or one having a slope or drift opening in which five or more men 3 are employed shall construct and maintain at least two distinct open-4 ings, which in shaft mines hereafter constructed shall be separated by 5 not less than three hundred feet and in slope or drift mines by not 6 less than two hundred feet in breadth through which, in every shaft

7 or slope mine, ingress and egress at all times shall be unobstructed and 8 free from water. All escape shafts hereafter constructed shall have 9 stairs at an angle of not more than sixty degrees in descent, with a 10 stairway not less than two feet in width, kept in safe condition, with 11 proper landings at easy and convenient distances apart and adequate 12 means of escape from mines now in operation. He shall provide all air 13 shafts with fans for ventilating purposes, and no combustible material 14 shall be allowed to be or remain between any escape shaft and hoisting 15 shaft, nor shall any building hereafter erected be located within two 16 hundred feet of an escape shaft without written permission from the 17 state inspector. Where two or more mines are connected underground 18 the several owners may, by agreement, use the hoisting shaft or slope

 6 be so circulated throughout the mines as to dilute, render harmless 7 and expel all noxious and poisonous gases in all working parts of the 8 same. But in no case shall the air current be a greater distance than 9 sixty feet from the working face, except when making crosscuts in 10 entries for air courses; then, in that case, the distance shall not be 11 greater than seventy feet; but the state mine inspector may, in writ-12 ing, grant permission to go beyond the limit herein mentioned, when 13 the conditions are such in a special case as to require it. When the 14 mine inspector shall find the air insufficient, or men working under 15 unsafe conditions, he shall at once give notice to the mine owner or his 16 agent or person in charge, and, upon the failure to make the necessary 17 changes within a reasonable time, to be fixed by him, he may order

 5 the top or exterior, also a sufficient safety catch and proper cover 6 overhead on all cages, and an adequate brake to all drums or other 11 but experienced, competent and sober engineers, who shall have the 12 same qualifications as are required of hoisting engineers at coal mines, 13 and who shall not allow anyone but those designated for that purpose 14 to handle or in any way interfere with it or any part of the machinery, 15 nor shall more than ten persons be allowed to descend or ascend in any

16 cage at one time, or such less number as may be fixed by the state mine 17 inspector, nor anyone but the conductor on a loaded car or cage. He 18 shall at all times keep a sufficient supply of timber to be used as props, 19 convenient and ready for use, and shall send such props down when

3 specified, or such owner or agent neglect for twenty days after notice 4 given in writing by the state mine inspector of such failure to remedy 5 the same, such inspector may apply to the district court or any judge 6 thereof in an action brought in the name of the state for a writ of 7 injunction to restrain the working of the mine with more persons at 8 the same time than are necessary to make the improvements needed, 9 save as may be required to prevent waste, until such appliances have 10 been provided, and in case an injury happens to those engaged in the 11 work because of such failure, the same shall be held culpable negli-12 gence on the part of the operator of the mine.

[S., '13, § 2496-j.]

SEC. 803. Duties and powers state mine inspector.

1 It is hereby made the duty of the state mine inspector to enforce 2 the provisions of this chapter. He shall have the right to enter any 3 gypsum mine under the provisions of this chapter, at any time, but 4 shall not unnecessarily interfere with the working of any mine, nor 6 such mine.

[S., '13, § 2496-k.]

SEC. 804. Fatal accidents—reports.

1 Every person in charge of a mine under the provisions of this 2 chapter shall, within twenty-four hours after a fatal accident happens 3 to any employee in or around the mine, report the same to the coroner 4 of the county in which the mine is operated and to the state mine 5 inspector.

SEC. 805. Maps—surveys—abandoned mines.

1 The owner, operator, lessee or person in charge of any gypsum 2 mine shall make or cause to be made an accurate map or plan of such 3 mine, drawn to a scale not more than two hundred feet to the inch, 4 on which shall appear the name of the state, county and township in 5 which the mine is located, the designation of the mine, the name of the 6 company or owner, operator, lessee or person in charge, the certificate 7 of the mining engineer or surveyor as to the accuracy and date of the 8 survey, the north point and the scale to which the drawing is made.
9 Every such map or plan shall correctly show the surface boundary 10 lines of the rights pertaining to each mine and all sections or quarter 11 section lines or corners within the same; the lines of town lots or 12 streets; the tracks or sidetracks of all railroads, the location of all 13 wagon roads, rivers, streams, ponds, reservations made of gypsum and 14 mineral. For the underground workings said map shall show all 15 shafts, slopes, tunnels or other opening to the surface or to the work-16 ings of a continuous mine; all excavations, entries, rooms and cross-17 cuts; the location of the escape ways, and of the fan or furnace or 18 other means of ventilation and the direction of air currents and the 19 location of permanent pumps, hauling engines, engine planes, aban-

20 doned works, fire walls and standing water. A separate and similar 21 map drawn to the same scale in all cases shall be made of each and 22 every seam of gypsum operated in any mine in the state. A separate 23 map shall also be made of the surface whenever the surface buildings,
24 lines or objects are so numerous as to obscure the details of the mine 25 workings if drawn upon the same sheet with them and in such case the 26 surface map shall be drawn upon transparent cloth or paper so it can 27 be laid upon the map of the underground workings and thus truly indi-28 cate the local relation of lines and objects on the surface to the excava-29 tion of the mine, together with any other principal workings of the 30 mines. Each map shall also show, by profile drawing and measure-31 ment, the last one hundred fifty feet approaching the boundary lines, 32 showing the rise and dip of the seam. The original or true copies of 33 all such maps shall be kept at the office of the mine and true copies 34 thereof shall also be furnished the state mine inspector for the district 35 in which said mine is located within thirty days after the completion 36 of the same. The maps so delivered to the inspector shall be the 37 property of the state and shall remain in the custody of the said 38 inspector during his term of office and be delivered to his successor in 39 office. They shall be kept at the office of the inspector and be open to 40 examination to all persons interested in the same. But such examina-41 tion shall only be made in the presence of the inspector or his office 42 assistant, and he shall not permit any copies of the same to be made 43 without the written consent of the operator or the owner of the prop-
44 erty, except as herein and otherwise provided. An accurate extension 45 of the last preceding survey of every mine in active operation shall be 46 made once in every twelve months prior to July first of every year and 47 the result of such survey with the date thereof shall be promptly and 48 accurately entered upon the original map and a true, correct and accu-49 rate copy of said extended map shall be forwarded to the inspector of 50 mines in the district in which said mine is located so as to show all 51 changes in plan of new work in the mine, and all extension of the old 52 workings to the most advanced face or boundary of said workings 53 which have been made since the last preceding survey, and the parts 54 of the mine abandoned or worked out after the last preceding survey 55 shall be clearly indicated and shown by colorings, which copy must be 56 delivered to the inspector of mines within thirty days after the last 57 survey is made. When any gypsum mine is worked out or is about to 58 be abandoned or indefinitely closed, the owner, operator, lessee or 59 person in charge of the same shall make or cause to be made a com-60 plete extended map of said mine and the result of the same shall be 61 duly extended on all maps of the mine and copies thereof so as to show 62 all excavations and the most advanced workings of the mine and their 63 exact relation to the boundary of section lines on the surface, and 64 deliver to the inspector a copy of the completed map. The state 65 inspector of mines shall order a survey to be made of the workings of 66 any mine and the result to be extended on the maps of the same and 67 the copies thereof whenever in his judgment the safety of the work-68 men, the support of the surface, the conservation of the property or 69 the safety of the adjoining mine requires it; and if not made by the 70 owner, operator, lessee or person in charge when ordered by the 71 inspector it shall be made or caused to be made by the inspector and 72 paid for by the state and the amount collected from the owner, oper-

CHAPTER 3.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

Part I.

SECTION 807. Employers—employees—exceptions.

1 a Presumption—employees excepted. Except as by this chapter
 2 otherwise provided, it shall be conclusively presumed that every em-3 ployer as defined by this chapter has elected to provide, secure and 4 pay compensation according to the terms, conditions, and provisions 5 of this chapter for any and all personal injuries sustained by an 6 employee arising out of and in the course of the employment; and in 7 such cases the employer shall be relieved from other liability for 8 recovery of damages or other compensation for such personal injury, 9 unless by the terms of this chapter otherwise provided; but this chap-10 ter shall not apply to any household or domestic servant, farm or other 11 laborer engaged in agricultural pursuits, nor persons whose employ-12 ment is of a casual nature. The provisions of this chapter shall not 13 apply as between a municipal corporation, city or town and any per-14 son or persons receiving any benefits under, or who may be entitled 15 to, benefits from any "firemen's pension fund" or "policemen's pen-16 sion fund" of any municipal corporation, city or town.

17 b Compulsory. Where the state, county, municipal corporation, 18 school district, cities under special charter or commission form of 19 government is the employer, the terms, conditions and provisions of 20 this chapter for the payment of compensation and amount thereof for 21 such injury sustained by an employee of such employer shall be exclu-22 sive, compulsory and obligatory upon both employer and employee.

23 c Rejection of terms—reasons for. An employer having the 24 right under the provisions of this chapter to elect to reject the terms, 25 conditions and provisions thereof and who in such case exercises the 26 right in the manner and form by this chapter provided, such employer 27 shall not escape liability for personal injury sustained by an employee 28 of such employer when the injury sustained arises out of and in the 29 usual course of the employment because:

30 1. The employee assumed the risks inherent in or incidental to 31 or arising out of his or her employment, or the risks arising from the 32 failure of the employer to provide and maintain a reasonably safe 33 place to work, or the risks arising from the failure of the employer 34 to furnish reasonably safe tools or appliances, or because the employer 35 exercised reasonable care in selecting reasonably competent employees 36 in the business.

37 2. That the injury was caused by the negligence of the coem-38 ployee.

39 3. That the employee was negligent unless and except it shall 40 appear that such negligence was wilful and with intent to cause the 41 injury; or the result of intoxication on the part of the injured party.

42 4. Negligence presumed—burden of proof—notices of election to 43 reject—presumption on failure to give notice. In actions by an em-44 ployee against an employer for personal injury sustained arising out 45 of and in the course of the employment where the employer has elected 46 to reject the provisions of this chapter, it shall be presumed that the 47 injury to the employee was the direct result and growing out of the 48 negligence of the employer; and that such negligence was the prox-49 imate cause of the injury; and in such cases the burden of proof shall 50 rest upon the employer to rebut the presumption of negligence.

51 Every such employer shall be conclusively presumed to have 52 elected to provide, secure and pay compensation to employees for in-53 juries sustained arising out of and in the course of the employment 54 according to the provisions of this chapter, unless and until notice in 55 writing of an election to the contrary shall have been given to the 56 employees by posting the same in some conspicuous place at the place 57 where the business is carried on, and also by filing notice with the 58 Iowa industrial commissioner with return thereon by affidavit show-59 ing the date that notice was posted as by this chapter provided. But 60 any employer beginning business after the taking effect of this chap-61 ter and giving notice at once of his desire not to come under the pro-62 visions of this chapter, shall not be considered as under its provisions; 63 but such employer shall not be relieved of the payment of compensa-64 tion as by this chapter provided until thirty days after the filing of 65 such notice with the Iowa industrial commissioner, which notice shall 66 be substantially in the following form:

67 EMPLOYERS' NOTICE TO REJECT.

68 To the employees of the undersigned, and the Iowa industrial com-69 missioner:

70 You and each of you are hereby notified that the undersigned 71 rejects the terms, conditions and provisions to provide, secure and 72 pay compensation to employees of the undersigned for injuries re-73 ceived as provided in chapter three, title five, and elects to pay 74 damages for personal injuries received by such employee under 75 the common law and statutes of this state modified by subdivisions

76 one, two, three and four of section eight hundred seven of said chap-77 ter.

78 Signed.....

81 The undersigned being first duly sworn deposes and says that a 82 true, correct and verbatim copy of the foregoing notice was on the 89 Notary Public.

90 The employer shall keep such notice posted in some conspicuous 91 place which shall apply to the employees subsequently employed by 92 the employer with the same force and effect and to the same extent 93 and in like manner as employees in the employ at the time the notice 94 was given.

95 Where the employer and employee have not given notice of an 96 election to reject the terms of this chapter, every contract of hire 97 express or implied, shall be construed as an implied agreement be-98 tween them and a part of the contract on the part of the employer to 99 provide, secure and pay, and on the part of the employee to accept 100 compensation in the manner as by this chapter provided for all per-101 sonal injuries sustained arising out of and in the course of the em-102 ployment.

SEC. 808. Wilful injury—intoxication.

1 No compensation under this chapter shall be allowed for an in-2 jury caused:

3 By the employee's wilful intention to injure himself or to wil-
4 fully injure another; nor shall compensation be paid to an injured 5 employee if injury is sustained where intoxication of the employee 6 was the proximate cause of the injury.

[S., '13, § 2477-m1.]

SEC. 809. Rights of employee—notice to reject.

1 a Exclusive of other rights—presumption—notice. The rights 2 and remedies provided in this chapter for an employee on account of 3 injury shall be exclusive of all other rights and remedies of such em-4 ployee, his personal or legal representatives, dependents or next of 5 kin, at common law or otherwise, on account of such injury; and all 6 employees affected by this chapter shall be conclusively presumed to 7 have elected to take compensation in accordance with the terms, con-8 ditions and provisions hereof until notice in writing shall have been 9 served upon his employer, and also on the Iowa industrial commis-10 sioner, with return thereon by affidavit showing the date upon which 11 notice was served upon the employer.

12 b Rejection—procedure—oath—form—undue influence. In the 13 event such employee elects to reject the terms, conditions and pro-14 visions of this chapter, the rights and remedies thereof shall not apply 15 where an employee brings an action or takes proceedings to recover 16 damages or compensation for injuries received growing out of and in 17 the course of his employment, except as otherwise provided by this 18 chapter; and in such actions where the employee has rejected the terms 19 hereof the employer shall have the right to plead and rely upon any and 20 all defenses, including those at common law, and the rules and defenses 21 of contributory negligence, assumption of risk and fellow servant shall 22 apply and be available to the employer as by statute authorized unless 23 otherwise provided in this chapter. But if an employee sustains an 24 injury as the result of the employer's failure to furnish or failure to 25 exercise reasonable care to keep or maintain any safety device re-26 quired by statute or rule, or violation of any of the statutory pro-27 visions or rules and regulations now or hereafter in force relating 28 to safety of employees, the doctrine of assumed risk in such case 29 growing out of the negligence of the employer shall not apply or be 30 available as defensive matter to such offending party. The notice 31 required to be given by an employee shall be substantially in the fol-32 lowing form:

EMPLOYEES' NOTICE TO REJECT.

33 To and the Iowa industrial commissioner:

34 (Name of employer.)

35 You and each of you are hereby notified that the undersigned
 36 hereby elects to reject the terms, conditions and provisions of chapter 37 three, title five, of the code, for the payment of compensation as pro-38 vided thereby, and elects to rely upon the common law as modified by 39 section eight hundred nine of said chapter for the right to recover for 40 personal injury which I may receive, if any, growing out of and arising 41 from the employment while in line of duty for my employer above 42 named.

43 Dated this day of, 19.....

44 Signed.....

45 State of Iowa, }
 46 County. }ss:

47 The undersigned being first duly sworn deposes and says that the 48 written notice was on the day of, 19....., 49 served on the within named employer of the undersigned by delivering 50 to a true, correct and verbatim copy thereof.

51 (Name of person serving.)

52 Subscribed and sworn (or affirmed) to before me by the said 53 this day of, 19.....

54 Notary Public.

55 In any case where an employee or one who is an applicant for 56 employment elects to reject the terms, conditions and provisions of 57 this chapter, he shall, in addition to the notice required by subdivision 58 b of this section, state in an affidavit to be filed with said notice who, 59 if any person, requested, suggested, or demands of such person to 60 exercise the right to reject the provisions of this chapter. And if 61 request, suggestion, or demand has been made of such employee by 62 any person, such employee shall give and state the name of the person 63 who made the request, suggestion, or demand, and all of the circum-
 64 stances relating thereto, the date and place when and where made, 65 and persons present, and if it be found that the employer of such 66 employee, or an employer to whom an applicant for employment, or 67 any person a member of the firm, association, corporation, or agent 68 or official of such employer, made a request, suggestion or demand of 72 such employee or applicant for employment to reject the terms, con-73 ditions and provisions of this chapter, such request, suggestion or 74 demand, if made under such conditions, shall be conclusively presumed 75 to have been sufficient to have unduly influenced such employee or an 76 applicant for employment to exercise the right to reject the terms of 77 this chapter, and the rejection made under such circumstances shall 78 be conclusively presumed to have been procured through fraud and 79 thereby fraudulently procured, and such rejection shall be null and 80 void and of no effect.

81 No person interested in the business of such employer, financially 82 or otherwise, shall be permitted to administer the oath to the affidavit 83 required in case an employee or applicant for employment elects to 84 exercise the right to reject the provisions of this chapter. And the 85 person administering such oath in making such affidavit, shall care-86 fully read the notice and affidavit to such person making such rejec-87 tion, and shall explain that the purpose of the notice is to bar such 88 person from recovering compensation in accordance with the schedule 89 and terms of this chapter in the event that he sustains an injury in 90 the course of such employment; all of which shall be shown by cer-91 tificate of the person administering the oath herein contemplated.
 92 The Iowa industrial commissioner, or any person acting for such com-93 missioner, shall refuse to file the notice and affidavit, unless such no-94 tice, affidavit and certificate fully, and in detail, comply with the 95 requirements hereof. And if such rejection, affidavit and certificate 96 is found insufficient for any cause, it shall be returned by mail or 97 otherwise to the person who executed the instrument.

[S., '13, § 2477-m2.]

SEC. 810. Tenure of election.

1 a Until provisions complied with. When the employer or em-2 ployee has given notice in compliance with this chapter electing to 3 reject the terms thereof such election shall continue and be in force 4 until such employer or employee shall thereafter elect to come under 5 the provisions of this chapter as is provided in subdivision b of this 6 section.

7 b Notice—how filed. When an employer or employee rejects the 8 terms, conditions or provisions of this chapter, such party may at any 9 time thereafter elect to waive the same by giving notice in writing 10 in the same manner required of the party in electing to reject the 11 provisions of this chapter, which shall become effective when filed 12 with the Iowa industrial commissioner.

[S., '13, § 2477-m3.]

SEC. 811. Liability of employer after election to reject.

1 Where the employer and employee elect to reject the terms, con-
 2 ditions and provisions of this chapter, the liability of the employer 3 shall be the same as though the employee had not rejected the terms, 4 conditions and provisions thereof.

[S., '13, § 2477-m4.]

SEC. 812. Subsequent election to reject—security for compensation.

1 An employer having come under this chapter, who thereafter
 2 elects to reject the terms, conditions and provisions thereof, shall not

3 be relieved from the payment of compensation to such employee who 4 sustains an injury in the course of the employment before the election 5 to reject becomes effective; and in such cases the employer shall be 6 required to secure the payment of any compensation due or that may 7 become due to such workman, subject to the approval of the Iowa 8 industrial commissioner.

[S., '13, § 2477-m5.]

SEC. 813. Liability of other than employer.

1 Where an employee coming under the provisions of this chapter 2 receives an injury for which compensation is payable under this chap-3 ter and which injury was caused under circumstances creating a legal 4 liability in some person other than the employer, to pay damages in 5 respect thereof:

6 a Proceedings against both parties. The employee or beneficiary 7 may take proceedings both against that person to recover damages 8 and against the employer for compensation, but the amount of the 9 compensation to which he is entitled under this chapter shall be re-10 duced by the amount of damages recovered.

11 b Indemnity—subrogation. If the employee or beneficiary in 12 such case recovers compensation under this chapter, the employer by 13 whom the compensation was paid or the party who has been called 14 upon to pay the compensation, shall be entitled to indemnity from the 15 person so liable to pay damages as aforesaid, and shall be subrogated 16 to the rights of the employee to recover therefor.

[S., '13, § 2477-m6.]

SEC. 814. Contract to relieve not operative.

1 No contract, rule, regulation or device whatsoever shall operate
2 to relieve the employer, in whole or in part, from any liability created 3 by this chapter except as herein provided.

[S., '13, § 2477-m7.]

SEC. 815. Notice of injury—form—failure to give.

1 Unless the employer or representative of such employer shall have 2 actual knowledge of the occurrence of an injury, or unless the em-3 ployee or some one on his behalf, or some of the dependents or some 4 one on their behalf, shall give notice thereof to the employer within 5 fifteen days of the occurrence of the injury, then no compensation shall 6 be paid until and from the date such notice is given or knowledge 7 obtained; but if notice is given or the knowledge obtained within 8 thirty days from the occurrence of the injury, no want, failure or 9 inaccuracy of a notice shall be a bar to obtaining compensation, unless 10 the employer shall show that he was prejudiced by such want, defect 11 or inaccuracy, and then only to the extent of such prejudice; but if 12 the employee or beneficiary shall show that his failure to give prior 13 notice was due to mistake, inadvertence, ignorance of fact or law, or 14 inability, or to the fraud, misrepresentation or deceit of another or 15 to any other reasonable cause or excuse, then compensation may be 16 allowed, unless and then to the extent only that the employer shall 17 show that he was prejudiced by failure to receive such notice; but, 18 unless knowledge is obtained or notice given within ninety days after 19 the occurrence of the injury, no compensation shall be allowed. No 20 form of notice shall be required, but may substantially conform to

If any employee has not given notice to reject the terms, conditions and provisions of this chapter, or has given such notice and waived the same as by this chapter provided, and the employer has not rejected the terms, conditions and provisions of this chapter or has given such notice and waived the same and the employee receives a personal injury arising out of and in the course of the employment, compensation shall be paid as herein provided.

a The compensation provided for in this chapter shall be paid in accordance with the schedule unless otherwise provided.

b At the time of the injury and thereafter during the disability, but not exceeding four weeks of incapacity, the employer, if so requested by the employee, or anyone for him, or if so ordered by the court or Iowa industrial commissioner, shall furnish reasonable surgical, medical and hospital services, and supplies therefor, not exceeding one hundred dollars; provided, however, that in exceptional cases, an application may be made in writing to the Iowa industrial commissioner for additional surgical, medical and hospital services, and supplies therefor, in which case a copy of such application shall be mailed to the employer or his insurer. If such application is approved by the commissioner, then the employer shall furnish such additional services and supplies for such period and in such amount as the Iowa industrial commissioner shall order, but in no event to exceed one hundred dollars.

c Where the injury causes death the compensation under this chapter shall be as follows:

The employer shall, in addition to any other compensation, pay the reasonable expense of the employee's last sickness and burial not to exceed one hundred dollars. If the employee leaves no dependents this shall be the only compensation.

d If death results from the injury, the employer shall pay the dependents of the employee wholly dependent upon his earnings for 32 support at the time of the injury, a weekly payment equal to sixty per 33 cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than fifteen dollars 34 nor less than six dollars per week for a period of three hundred weeks.

35 e If the employee leaves dependents only partially dependent 36 upon his earnings for support at the time of the injury, the weekly 37 compensation to be paid as aforesaid shall be equal to the same pro-38 portion of the weekly payments for the benefit of persons wholly 39 dependent as the amount contributed by the employee to such partial 40 dependents bears to the annual earnings of the deceased at the time
41 of the injury. When weekly payments have been made to an injured 42 employee before his death, the compensation to dependents shall begin 43 from the date of the last of such payments, but shall not continue 44 more than three hundred weeks from the date of the injury.

45 f Where injury causes death to an employee, a minor, whose earn-46 ings were received by the parent, the compensation to be paid the 47 parent shall be two-thirds of the amount provided for payment in 48 subdivision d of this section.

49 g No compensation shall be paid for an injury which does not 50 incapacitate the employee for a period of at least two weeks from 51 earning full wages; but this provision shall not apply to those in-52 juries resulting in disability partial in character and permanent in 53 quality and compensated according to the schedule found in paragraph 54 j of this section. Should such incapacity extend beyond a period of 55 two weeks, compensation shall begin on the fifteenth day after the 56 injury; but if the period of incapacity extends beyond the thirty-fifth 57 day following the date of injury, then the compensation for the fifth 58 week of incapacity shall be increased by adding thereto an amount 59 equal to two-thirds of the weekly compensation; if the period of inca-60 pacity extends beyond the forty-second day following the date of in-61 jury, then the compensation for the sixth week of incapacity shall 62 be increased by adding thereto an amount equal to two-thirds of the 63 weekly compensation; if the period of incapacity extends beyond the 64 forty-ninth day following the date of injury, then the compensation 65 for the seventh week of incapacity shall be increased by adding thereto 66 an amount equal to two-thirds of the weekly compensation; if the 67 period of incapacity extends beyond the forty-ninth day following the 68 date of injury, then the compensation thereafter shall be only the 69 weekly compensation provided for in this chapter.

70 h For injury producing temporary disability, sixty per cent of 71 the average weekly wages received at the time of injury, subject to 72 a maximum compensation of fifteen dollars and a minimum of six 73 dollars per week; but if at the time of injury the employee receives 74 wages less than six dollars per week, then he shall receive the full 75 amount of wages per week. This compensation shall be paid during 76 the period of such disability, not, however, beyond three hundred 77 weeks.

78 i For disability total in character and permanent in quality, sixty 79 per cent of the average weekly wages received at the time of the injury, 80 subject to a maximum compensation of fifteen dollars per week, and 81 a minimum of six dollars per week; but if at the time of injury, the 82 employee receives wages less than six dollars per week, then he shall 83 receive the full amount of wages per week. This compensation shall 84 be paid during the period of such disability, not, however, beyond four 85 hundred weeks.

- 86 j For disability partial in character and permanent in quality, 87 the compensation shall be as follows:
 88 For all cases included in the following schedule, compensation
 89 shall be paid as follows, to wit:
 90 1. For the loss of a thumb, sixty per cent of daily wages during 91 forty weeks.
 92 2. For the loss of a first finger, commonly called the index finger, 93 sixty per cent of daily wages during thirty weeks.
 94 3. For the loss of a second finger, sixty per cent of daily wages 95 during twenty-five weeks.
 96 4. For the loss of a third finger, sixty per cent of daily wages 97 during twenty weeks.
 98 5. For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly called the little 99 finger, sixty per cent of daily wages for fifteen weeks.
 100 6. The loss of the first phalange of the thumb or of any finger 101 shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of such thumb 102 or finger and compensation shall be one-half of the amounts above 103 specified.
 104 7. The loss of more than one phalange shall be considered as 105 the loss of the entire finger or thumb; but in no case shall the amount 106 received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in 107 this schedule for the loss of a hand.
 108 8. For the loss of a great toe, sixty per cent of daily wages dur-109 ing twenty-five weeks.
 110 9. For the loss of one of the toes other than the great toe, sixty 111 per cent of daily wages during fifteen weeks.
 112 10. The loss of the first phalange of any toe, shall be considered 113 to be equal to the loss of one-half of such toe and the compensation 114 shall be one-half of the amount above specified.
 115 11. The loss of more than one phalange shall be considered as 116 the loss of the entire toe.
 117 12. For the loss of a hand, sixty per cent of daily wages dur-
 118 ing one hundred fifty weeks.
 119 13. The loss of two-thirds of that part of an arm between the 120 shoulder joint and the elbow joint shall constitute the loss of an 121 arm, and the compensation therefor shall be sixty per cent of the 122 average weekly wages during two hundred twenty-five weeks.
 123 14. For the loss of a foot, sixty per cent of daily wages during 124 one hundred twenty-five weeks. ✓
 125 15. The loss of two-thirds of that part of a leg between the hip 126 joint and the knee joint shall constitute the loss of a leg, and the 127 compensation therefor shall be sixty per cent of the average weekly 128 wages during two hundred weeks.
 129 16. For the loss of an eye, sixty per cent of daily wages during 130 one hundred weeks.
 131 17. For the loss of a second or last eye, the other eye having 132 been lost prior to the injury resulting in the loss of the second eye, 133 sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during two hundred 134 weeks.
 135 18. For the loss of hearing in one ear, sixty per cent of daily 136 wages during fifty weeks, and for the loss of hearing in both ears, 137 sixty per cent of the daily wages during one hundred fifty weeks.
 138 19. The loss of both arms, or both hands, or both feet, or both 139 legs, or both eyes, or of any two thereof, caused by a single accident, 140 shall constitute total and permanent disability, to be compensated
 141 according to the provisions of paragraph i of this section.

142 20. In all other cases in this, clause j, the compensation shall 143 bear such relation to the amount stated in the above schedule as the 144 disability bears to those produced by the injuries named in the sched-145 ular. Should the employee and employer be unable to agree upon the 146 amount of compensation to be paid in cases not specifically covered 147 by the schedule, the amount of compensation shall be settled accord-148 ing to provisions of this chapter as in other cases of disagreement.

149 21. The amounts specified in this, paragraph j, and subdivisions 150 thereof, shall be subject to the same limitations as to maximum and 151 minimum weekly payments as are stated in paragraph h of this sec-152 tion.

[S., '13, § 2477-m9; 37 G. A., ch. 270, §§ 1-7; 38 G. A., ch. 220, §§ 1-6.]

SEC. 817. Death—payment of unpaid balance.

1 Where an employee is entitled to compensation under this chap-
 2 ter for an injury received and death ensues from any cause not re-3 sulting from the injury for which he was entitled to the compensation, 4 payments of the unpaid balance for such injury shall cease and all 5 liability therefor shall terminate.

[S., '13, § 2477-m10.]

SEC. 818. Examination of injured employee—suspension of compensation.

1 After an injury, the employee, if so requested by his employer, 2 shall submit himself for examination at some reasonable time and 3 place within the state and as often as may be reasonably requested, to 4 a physician or physicians authorized to practice under the laws of this 5 state, without cost to the employee; but if the employee requests, he 6 shall, at his own cost, be entitled to have a physician or physicians of 7 his own selection present to participate in such examination. The 8 refusal of the employee to submit to such examination shall deprive 9 him of the right to compensation during the continuance of such 10 refusal. When a right to compensation is thus suspended no com-11 pensation shall be payable in respect to the period of suspension.

SEC. 819. Contributions from employees—no reduction of employer's responsibility.

1 The compensation herein provided shall be the measure of the 2 responsibility which the employer has assumed for injuries or death 3 that may occur to employees in his employment subject to the pro-4 visions of this chapter, and it shall not be in anywise reduced by con-5 tribution from employees.

[S., '13, § 2477-m12.]

SEC. 820. Trustees for minors and those physically and mentally incapacitated—reports.

1 When an injured minor, employee or a minor dependent, or one
 2 physically or mentally incapacitated from earning, is entitled to com-3 pensation under this chapter, payment shall be made to a trustee 4 appointed by the judge of the district court for each county in the 5 respective judicial districts, and the money coming into the hands of 6 said trustee shall be expended for the use and benefit of the person

7 entitled thereto under the direction and orders of the judge during 8 term time or in vacation. The trustee shall make annual reports to 9 the court of all money or property received and expended for each 10 person, and for services rendered as trustee shall be paid such com-11 pensation by the county as the court may direct by written order 12 directed to the auditor of the county, who shall issue a warrant there-13 for upon the treasurer of the county in which the appointment is 14 made. If the judge making the appointment deems it advisable, a 15 trustee may be appointed to serve for more than one county in the 16 district and the expenses shall be paid ratably by each county accord-17 ing to the amount of work performed in each county. The trustee 18 shall qualify and give bond in such amount as the judge may direct, 19 which may be increased or diminished from time to time as the court 20 may deem best.

21 In case a deceased employee for whose injury or death compen-22 sation is payable leaves surviving him an alien dependent or depend-23 ents residing outside the United States, the consul general, consul, vice 24 consul or consular agent of the nation of which the said dependent or 25 dependents are citizens shall be regarded as the exclusive representa-26 tive of such dependent or dependents. Such consular officer, or his 27 duly appointed representative residing in the state of Iowa, shall have 28 the exclusive right in behalf of such nonresident dependent or depend-29 ents to present, prosecute, litigate, adjust and settle all claims for 30 compensation provided by this chapter, and to receive for distribution 31 to such dependent or dependents all compensation arising hereunder.

32 Such consular officer, or his duly appointed representative, shall 33 file with the industrial commissioner a copy of his exequatur or evi-34 dence of his authority, and the industrial commissioner shall notify 35 such consular officer or his said representative of the death of all 36 employees leaving alien dependent or dependents residing in the coun-37 try of said consular officer so far as same shall come to his knowledge, 38 but nothing herein shall abridge the right of any relative of such 39 decedent who may reside in the state of Iowa to take out administra-40 tion upon the estate of such decedent, and as such receive the funds 41 due said estate; and before said consular agent or his representative 42 shall have the right to receive funds due the estate of said decedent 43 he shall regularly take out administration in the county where said 44 decedent last resided, and give bond as administrator for the protec-45 tion of such funds as provided by law.

[S., '13, § 2477-m13; 37 G. A., ch. 270, § 8; 37 G. A., ch. 336,

SEC. 821. Commutation of future payments—discretion of court.

1 In any case where the period of compensation can be determined 2 definitely either party may, upon due notice to the other, apply to any 3 judge of the district court for the county in which the accident 4 occurred for an order commuting future payments to a lump sum; but 5 no judge of the district court shall consider any such application until 6 there is indorsed thereon by the Iowa industrial commissioner his 7 approval of such commutation, and no order shall be issued by such 8 judge contrary to the indorsement of said industrial commissioner.
9 And such judge may make such an order when it shall be shown to his 10 satisfaction that the payment of a lump sum in lieu of future monthly 11 or weekly payments, as the case may be, will be for the best interest 12 of the person or persons receiving or dependent upon said compensa-

13 tion, or that the continuance of periodical payments will, as compared 14 with lump sum payments, entail undue expense or undue hardship 15 upon the employer liable therefor. Where the commutation is ordered, 16 the court shall fix the lump sum to be paid at an amount which will 17 equal the total sum of the probable future payments capitalized at 18 their present value and upon the basis of interest, calculated at five 19 per cent per annum. Upon the payment of such amount the employer 20 shall be discharged from all further liability on account of such injury 21 or death, for which said compensation was being paid, and be entitled 22 to a duly executed release, upon filing which the liability of such 23 employer under any agreement, award, finding or judgment shall be 24 discharged of record.

[S., '13, § 2477-m14; 37 G. A., ch. 270, § 9.]

SEC. 822. Schedule of computation.

1 The basis for computing compensation provided for in this chap-
2 ter shall be as follows:

3 a The compensation shall be computed on the basis of the annual 4 earnings which the injured person received as salary, wages or earn-5 ings in the employment of the same employer during the year next 6 preceding the injury.

7 b Employment by the same employer shall be taken to mean em-
8 ployment by the same employer in the grade in which the employee 9 was employed at the time of the accident, uninterrupted by absence 10 from work due to illness or any other unavoidable cause.

11 c The annual earnings, if not otherwise determinable, shall be 12 regarded as three hundred times the average daily earnings in such 13 computation.

14 d If the injured person has not been engaged in the employment 15 for a full year immediately preceding the accident, the compensation 16 shall be computed according to the annual earnings which persons of 17 the same class in the same or in neighboring employments of the same 18 kind have earned during such period. And if this basis of computa-19 tion is impossible, or should appear to be unreasonable, three hundred 20 times the amount which the injured person earned on an average of 21 those days when he was working during the year next preceding the 22 accident, shall be used as a basis for the computation.

23 e In case of injured employees who earn either no wages or less 24 than three hundred times the usual daily wage or earnings of the 25 adult day laborer in the same line of industry of that locality, the 26 yearly wage shall be reckoned as three hundred times the average daily 27 local wages of the average wage earner in that particular kind or 28 class of work; or if information of that class is not obtainable, then 29 of the class or kindred or similarity in the same general employment 30 in the same neighborhood.

31 f As to employees employed in a business or enterprise which 32 customarily shuts down and ceases operation during a season of each 33 year, the number of working days which it is the custom of such busi-34 ness or enterprise to operate each year shall be used instead of three 35 hundred as a basis for computing the annual earnings; provided the 36 minimum number of days which shall be used as a basis for the year's 37 work shall not be less than two hundred.

38 g Earnings, for the purpose of this section, shall be based on the 39 earnings for the number of hours commonly regarded as a day's work 40 for that employment, and shall exclude overtime earnings. The earn-

41 ings shall not include any sum which the employer has been accus-42 tomed to pay the employee to cover any special expense entailed on 43 him by the nature of the employment.

44 h In computing the compensation to be paid to any employee who, 45 before the accident for which he claims compensation, was disabled 46 and drawing compensation under the terms of this act, the compen-47 sation for each subsequent injury shall be apportioned according to 48 the proportion of incapacity and disability caused by the respective 49 injuries which he may have suffered.

[S., '13, § 2477-m15; 38 G. A., ch. 220, § 7.]

SEC. 823. Terms defined.

1 In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

2 a "Employer" includes and applies to any person, firm, associa-
 3 tion or corporation, and includes state, counties, municipal corpora-4 tions, cities under special charter and under commission form of 5 government and shall include school districts and the legal repre-
 6 sentatives of a deceased employer. Whenever necessary to give effect 7 to section eight hundred thirteen, it includes a principal or interme-8 diate contractor.

9 b "Workman" is used synonymously with "employee," and means 10 any person who has entered into the employment of, or works under 11 contract of service, express or implied, or apprenticeship for an em-12 ployer, except a person whose employment is purely casual or not for 13 the purpose of the employer's trade or business or those engaged in 14 clerical work only, but clerical work shall not include one who may 15 be subjected to the hazards of the business, or one holding an official 16 position or standing in a representative capacity of the employer, or 17 an official elected or appointed by the state, county, school district, 18 municipal corporation, cities under special charter and commission 19 form of government; provided that one who sustains the relation of 20 contractor with any person, firm, association, corporation or the state, 21 county, school district, municipal corporation, cities under special 22 charter or commission form of government, shall not be considered 23 an employee thereof.

24 The term "workman" shall include the singular and plural of 25 both sexes. Any reference to a workman who has been injured shall, 26 where the workman is dead, include a reference to his dependents as 27 herein defined, legal representatives or where the workman is a minor 28 or incompetent to his guardian or next friend.

29 c The following shall be conclusively presumed to be wholly de-30 pendent upon a deceased employee:

31 1. The surviving spouse, unless it be shown that the survivor 32 wilfully deserted deceased without fault upon the part of the deceased; 33 and if it be shown that the survivor deserted deceased without fault 34 upon the part of deceased, the survivor shall not be regarded as a 35 dependent in any degree. No surviving spouse shall be entitled to 36 the benefits of this chapter unless she shall have been married to the 37 deceased at the time of the injury, and should the deceased employee 38 leave no dependent children, and should the surviving spouse remarry, 39 then all compensation payable to her shall terminate on the date of 40 such remarriage.

41 2. A child or children under sixteen years of age (and over said 42 age if physically or mentally incapacitated from earning) whether 43 actually dependent for support or not upon the parent at the time of 44 his or her death.

45 3. A parent of a minor entitled to the earnings of the employee 46 at the time when the injury occurred, subject to provisions of subdivi-47 sion f, section eight hundred sixteen.

48 4. If the deceased employee leaves dependent surviving spouse, 49 the full compensation shall be paid to such spouse; but if the depend-50 ent surviving spouse dies before payment is made in full, the balance 51 remaining shall be paid to the person or persons wholly dependent, if 52 any, share and share alike. If there be no person or persons wholly 53 dependent, then payment shall be made to partial dependents.

54 5. In all other cases, questions of dependency in whole or in part 55 shall be determined in accordance with the fact as the fact may be at 56 the time of the injury; and in such other cases if there is more than 57 one person wholly dependent, the death benefit shall be equally divided 58 among them, and persons partially dependent, if any, shall receive 59 no part thereof. If there is no one wholly dependent and more than 60 one person partially dependent, the death benefit shall be divided 61 among them according to the relative extent of their dependency; but 62 when a lump sum is paid as contemplated by this chapter, the court 63 or commissioner, in making distribution thereof, shall take into con-64 sideration the contingent rights of partial beneficiaries or the rights 65 of those who may become such after a wholly dependent child or chil-66 dren become sixteen years of age.

67 6. Stepparents shall be regarded in this chapter as parents.

68 7. Adopted child or children or stepchild or children shall be re-69 garded in this chapter the same as if issue of the body.

71 injury.

73 of such employment" shall include injuries to employees whose serv-74 ices are being performed on, in or about the premises which are occu-75 pied, used or controlled by the employer, and also injuries to those 76 who are engaged elsewhere in places where their employer's business 77 requires their presence and subjects them to dangers incident to the 78 business.

79 f The words "injury" and "personal injury" shall not include 80 injury caused by the wilful act of a third person directed against an 81 employee for reasons personal to such employee or because of his em-82 ployment.

83 g They shall not include a disease except as it shall result from 84 the injury.

86 context shows otherwise, shall be taken to mean the district court.

5 the wages of any employee any amount for the purpose of paying any 6 such premium shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a 7 fine not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each 8 offense, in the discretion of the court.

4 record or the Iowa industrial commissioner, which approval may be 5 made in term time or vacation.

[S., '13, § 2477-m20.]

SEC. 827. Applicable to intrastate and interstate commerce.

1 The provisions of this chapter shall apply to employers and em-2 ployees as defined in this chapter engaged in intrastate commerce and 3 also those engaged in interstate or foreign commerce for whom a rule 4 or method of compensation has been or may be established by the 5 congress of the United States, only to the extent that their mutual 6 connection with intrastate work or foreign commerce shall be clearly 7 separable and distinguishable from interstate or foreign commerce; 8 provided that any such employer and workman of such employer
9 working only in this state may, subject to the approval of the Iowa 10 industrial commissioner, and so far as not forbidden by any act of 11 congress or permitted, voluntarily by written agreement, accept and 12 become bound by the provisions of this chapter in like manner and 14 vided for other employers and employees.

[S., '13, § 2477-m21.]

SEC. 828. Payment to employees of state.

[S., '13, § 2477-m23.]

SEC. 833. Powers—rules—witnesses—reports.

1 The commissioner may make rules and regulations not inconsis-

3 The employer shall furnish upon request of an injured employee 4 or dependent or any legal representative acting for such person, a 5 statement of the earnings, wages, or salary and other matters relating 6 to such earnings, wages, or salary during the year or part of the year 7 that such employee was in the employment of such employer for the 8 year preceding the injury; but not more than one report shall be re-9 quired for each on account of any one injury.

10 Process and procedure under this chapter shall be as summary 11 as reasonably may be.

12 While sitting as an arbitration committee, or when conducting 13 a hearing upon review, or in the making of any investigation or 14 inquiry, neither the commissioner nor the arbitration committee shall 15 be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence, or by tech-16 nical or formal rules of procedure, but may hold such arbitrations or 17 conduct such hearings and make such investigations and inquiries in 18 the manner best suited to ascertain the substantial rights of the 19 parties.

20 The commissioner shall have the power to subpoena witnesses,

 22 to a proceeding or investigation as relate to questions in dispute or 23 under investigation. The fees for attending as a witness before the 24 industrial commissioner shall be one dollar and fifty cents per diem; 25 for attending before an arbitration committee, one dollar per diem;

37 manner subject to the same rules governing the admission of evidence 40 be filed in the district court of the county wherein the case for arbi-41 tration shall be heard.

42 The commissioner shall make biennial reports to the governor, 43 who shall transmit the same to the general assembly, in which, among 44 other things, the commissioner shall recommend such changes in the 45 law covered by this chapter as he may deem necessary.

§ 15; 37 G. A., ch. 409, § 1.]

SEC. 834. Compensation agreements—approval.

1 If the employer and the employee reach an agreement in regard 2 to the compensation under this chapter, a memorandum thereof shall 3 be filed with the Iowa industrial commissioner by the employer or 4 employee, and unless the commissioner shall, within twenty days, 5 notify the employer and employee of his disapproval of the agreement 6 by registered letter sent to their addresses as given on the memoran-7 dum filed, the agreement shall stand as approved and be enforceable 8 for all purposes under the provisions of this chapter. In case the 9 injured employee is a minor, either he or the trustee provided for in 10 section eight hundred twenty may execute the memorandum of agree-11 ment provided for herein, and may give a valid and binding release 12 for the compensation paid on his account under the terms of this chap-13 ter. Such agreement shall be approved by said commissioner only 14 when the terms conform to the provisions of this chapter.

[S., '13, § 2477-m25; 37 G. A., ch. 270, § 16.]

SEC. 835. Committee of arbitration.

1 If the employer and the injured employee or representatives or 2 dependents fail to reach an agreement in regard to compensation under 3 this chapter, either party may notify the industrial commissioner, who 4 shall thereupon call for the formation of a committee of arbitration.
5 The arbitration committee shall consist of three persons, one of whom 6 shall be the industrial commissioner, who shall act as chairman. The 7 other two shall be named, respectively, by the two parties. If a va-8 cancy occurs it shall be filled by the party whose representative is 9 unable to act.

[S., '13, § 2477-m26.]

SEC. 836. Oath of arbitrators.

1 The arbitrators appointed by the parties shall be sworn by the 2 chairman to take the following oath:

3 "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will 4 faithfully perform my duties as arbitrator and will not be influenced 5 in my decision by any feeling of friendship or partiality toward either 6 party.

(Signed) "....."

[S., '13, § 2477-m27.]

SEC. 837. Appointment of arbitrators.

1 It shall be the duty of the industrial commissioner, upon notifi-
2 cation that the parties have failed to reach an agreement, to request 3 both parties to appoint their respective representatives on the com-4 mittee of arbitration. The commissioner shall act as chairman, and, 5 if either party does not appoint its member on this committee within 6 seven days after notification as above provided, or after a vacancy 7 has occurred, the commissioner shall fill the vacancy and notify the 8 parties to that effect.

[S., '13, § 2477-m28.]

4 the state. If the injury occurred outside this state the hearings of 5 the committee shall be held in the county seat of this state which is 6 nearest to the place where the injury occurred unless the interested 7 parties and the Iowa industrial commissioner mutually agree by writ-8 ten stipulation that the same may be held at some other place. The 9 decision of the committee, together with the statement of evidence 10 submitted before it, its findings of fact, rulings of law and any other 11 matters pertinent to questions arising before it shall be filed with the 12 industrial commissioner. Unless a claim for review is filed by either 13 party within five days from the date of filing the decision with said 14 commissioner, such decision shall be enforceable under the provisions 15 of this chapter.

[S., '13, § 2477-m29; 38 G. A., ch. 220, § 8.]

SEC. 839. Examination by physician—fee—evidence.

1 The industrial commissioner may appoint a duly qualified impar-
2 tial physician to examine the injured employee and make report. The 3 fee for this service shall be five dollars, to be paid by the industrial 4 commissioner, together with traveling expenses, but the commissioner 5 may allow additional reasonable amounts in extraordinary cases. Any 6 physician so examining any injured employee shall not be prohibited 7 from testifying before the Iowa industrial commissioner or any other 8 person, commission or court, as to the results of his examination or 9 the condition of the injured employee.

[S., '13, § 2477-m30.]

 6 due the employee. And all other costs incurred in the hearing before 7 the board of arbitration shall be taxed to the losing party, or an equit-

 2 hear the parties and may hear evidence in regard to any or all matters 3 pertinent thereto and may revise the decision of the committee in 4 whole or in part, or may refer the matter back to the committee for 5 further findings of fact, and shall file its decision with the records 6 of the proceedings and notify the parties thereof. No party shall as 7 a matter of right be entitled to a second hearing upon any question 8 of fact.

[S., '13, § 2477-m32.]

SEC. 842. Decrees by district court—award of arbitrators—review—appeal.

1 Any party in interest may present a certified copy of an order
 2 or decision of the commissioner, or an award of an arbitration com-
 3 mittee from which no claim for review has been filed within the time 4 allowed therefor, or a memorandum of agreement approved by the 5 commissioner, and all papers in connection therewith, to the district 6 court of the county in which the injury occurred, whereupon said 7 court shall render a decree in accordance therewith and notify the 8 parties. Such decree, in the absence of an appeal from the decision 9 of the industrial commissioner, shall have the same effect and in all 10 proceedings in relation thereto shall thereafter be the same as though 11 rendered in a suit duly heard and determined by said court. Upon 12 the presentation to the court of a certified copy of a decision of the 13 industrial commissioner, ending, diminishing or increasing a weekly 14 payment under the provisions of this chapter, the court shall revoke 15 or modify the decree to conform to such decision.

16 No order or award of an arbitration committee is appealable 17 direct to the courts, but if any party in interest is aggrieved thereby, 18 he may within five days from the date thereof apply to the industrial 19 commissioner for a review of the same by such industrial commis-20 sioner in the manner as hereinbefore provided. If any such party is 21 aggrieved by reason of an order or decree of the Iowa industrial com-22 missioner, such party may appeal therefrom to the district court of 23 Iowa, only in the manner and upon the grounds following:

24 Within thirty days from the date of such order or decree of the 25 industrial commissioner, the party aggrieved may file an application 26 in writing with the Iowa industrial commissioner asking for an appeal 27 from such order or decree, stating generally the grounds upon which 28 such appeal is sought. In the event such application is filed as here-29 inbefore provided, the industrial commissioner shall, within thirty 30 days from the filing of same, cause certified copies of all documents 31 and papers then on file in his office in the matter, and a transcript of 32 all testimony taken therein, to be transmitted with his findings and 33 order or decree to the clerk of the district court of Iowa in and for 34 that county wherein the injury occurred. The application for such 35 appeal may thereupon be brought on for hearing before said district 36 court upon such record by either party on ten days' written notice upon 37 the other; subject, however, to the provisions of law for a change of 38 the place of trial or the calling of another judge. The findings of 39 fact made by the industrial commissioner within his powers shall, in 40 the absence of fraud, be conclusive, but upon such hearing the court 41 may confirm or set aside such order or decree of the industrial com-42 missioner, if he finds:

- 43 1. That the industrial commissioner acted without or in excess 44 of his powers; or
- 45 2. That the order or decree was procured by fraud; or
- 46 3. That the facts found by the industrial commissioner do not 47 support the order or decree.
- 48 4. That there is not sufficient competent evidence in the record 49 to warrant the industrial commissioner in making the order or decree 50 complained of.

51 No order or decree of the industrial commissioner shall be set 52 aside by the court upon other than the grounds just stated.

53 Upon the setting aside of any such order or decree, the court may 54 recommit the controversy to the industrial commissioner for further 55 hearing or proceedings, or it may enter the proper judgment upon 56 the findings, as the nature of the case may demand. Such decree 57 shall have the same effect and in all proceedings in relation thereto 58 shall thereafter be the same as though rendered in a suit duly heard 59 and determined by said court. An abstract of the judgment entered 60 by the trial court upon the appeal from any order or decree shall 61 be made by the clerk thereof upon the docket entry of any judgment 62 which may hereinbefore have been rendered upon it. Such order or 63 decree and transcript of such abstract may thereupon be obtained for 64 like entry upon the dockets of the courts of other counties within the 65 state.

66 Any party in interest who is aggrieved by a judgment entered 67 by the district court upon the appeal of an order or decree may appeal 68 therefrom within the time and in the manner provided for in appeal 69 from the orders, judgments and decrees of the district court of Iowa; 70 but all such appeals shall be placed on the calendar of the supreme 71 court and brought to a hearing in the same manner as criminal causes 72 on such calendar.

73 No fee shall be charged by the clerk of any district court for the 74 performance of any official service required by this section, except for 75 the docketing of judgments and for certified copies or transcripts 76 thereof. In proceedings on appeal from an order or decree, costs as 77 between the parties shall be allowed or not, in the discretion of the 78 court.

[S., '13, § 2477-m33; 37 G. A., ch. 270, § 17.]

SEC. 843. Notice—review of payments—place of hearing—duty of court.

- 1 1. Any payment required to be made under this chapter, which 2 has not been commuted, may be reviewed by the industrial commis-3 sioner at the request of the employer or of the employee, and if on 4 such review the commissioner finds the condition of the employee 5 warrants such action, he may end, diminish or increase the compen-6 sation, subject to the maximum or minimum amounts provided for in 7 this chapter. All hearings upon review by the Iowa industrial com-8 missioner under the provisions of this section, or under section eight 9 hundred forty-one, shall be held at Des Moines, Iowa, unless the inter-10 ested parties and the Iowa industrial commissioner mutually agree by 11 written stipulation that the same may be held at some other place.

12 Upon the presentation to the court of a certified copy of a de-13 cision of the industrial commissioner ending, diminishing or increas-14 ing a weekly payment under the provisions of this chapter, the court 15 shall revoke or modify any judgment or decree then on record in his 16 court to conform to such decision.

17 2. Any notice to be given by the commissioner or court provided 18 for in this act shall be in writing, but service thereof shall be sufficient 19 if registered and deposited in the mail, addressed to the last known 20 address of the parties.

SEC. 844. Fees subject to approval.

1 Fees of attorneys and physicians for services under this chapter 2 shall be subject to the approval of the industrial commissioner unless 3 otherwise provided in this chapter.

[S., '13, § 2477-m35.]

SEC. 845. Reports by employers—records—inspection.

1 Every employer shall hereafter keep a record of all injuries, fatal 2 or otherwise, sustained by his employees in the course of their employ-3 ment and resulting in incapacity for a longer period than one day.
 4 Within forty-eight hours, not counting Sundays and legal holidays, 5 after the employer has knowledge of the occurrence of an accident 6 resulting in personal injury causing incapacity for a longer period 7 than one day, a report shall be made in writing by the employer to 8 the industrial commissioner on blanks to be procured from the com-9 missioner for that purpose.

10 Upon the termination of the disability of the injured employee, 11 or if such disability extends beyond a period of sixty days, at the 12 expiration of such period, the employer shall make a supplemental 13 report on blanks to be procured from the commissioner for that pur-14 pose. The said reports shall contain the name and nature of the busi-15 ness of the employer, the location of the establishment, the name, age, 16 sex and occupation of the injured employee, and shall state the date 17 and hour of the accident, the nature and cause of the injury, and such 18 other information as may be required by the commissioner. Any em-19 ployer who refuses or neglects to make the report required by this 20 section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars for 21 each offense.

22 All books, records and pay rolls of the employers, coming under 23 this chapter showing or reflecting in any way upon the amount of 24 wage expenditure of such employers, shall always be open for inspec-25 tion by the industrial commissioner, or any of his representatives pre-26 senting a certificate of authority from said commissioner for the pur-27 pose of ascertaining the correctness of the wage expenditure; the 28 number of men employed and such other information as may be neces-29 sary for the uses and purposes of the commissioner in his administra-
 30 tion of the law. But information obtained within the contemplation 31 of this chapter shall be used for no other purpose than the informa-32 tion of the commissioner or insurance association with reference to 33 the duties imposed upon such commissioner. A refusal on the part of 34 the employer to submit his books, records or pay rolls for the inspec-35 tion of the commissioner, or his authorized representatives presenting 36 written authority from the commissioner, shall subject the employer 37 to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each such offense, to be col-38 lected by civil action in the name of the state, and paid into the state 39 treasury.

SEC. 846. Political activity and campaign contributions prohibited—penalty.

1 It shall be unlawful for the commissioner, during his term of 2 office, to serve upon any committee of any political party or espouse 3 the election or appointment of any person for any political office or

 2 appointment of another as commissioner shall be reduced to writing 3 signed by the person presenting the same, which shall be filed by the 4 governor in his office and open at all reasonable times for public inspec-

 6 sioner for the appointment of another within the power of the commis-7 sioner to appoint, shall be reduced to writing, signed by the person 8 presenting the same and filed by the commissioner and open for public 9 inspection at all reasonable times and hours. If any person recom-
 10 mending the appointment of another within the contemplation of this 11 chapter refuse to reduce the same to writing, it shall be the duty of 12 the person to whom the recommendation is made, to make a brief 13 memorandum thereof, stating the name of the person recommended 14 and the name of the person who made the same, which shall be filed 15 as by this chapter in other cases provided. It shall be unlawful for 16 the commissioner to be financially interested in any business enter-

[S., '13, § 2477-m43.]

SEC. 853. Certificate of approval.

1 Whenever such scheme or plan is approved by the Iowa indus-

2 commissioner on reasonable notice to the interested parties if it shall 3 appear that the same is not fairly administered, or if its operation 4 shall disclose latent defects threatening its solvency, or if for any 5 substantial reason it fails to accomplish the purpose of this chapter; 6 but from any such order of said Iowa industrial commissioner the 7 parties affected, whether employer or workman, may, upon the giving

 5 due and unpaid. Every policy shall provide that the workman shall 6 have a first lien upon any amount becoming due on account of such 7 policy to the insured from the insurer, and that in case of the legal 8 incapacity, inability or disability of the insured to receive the amount 9 due and pay it over to the insured workman, or his dependents, said 10 insurer shall pay the same directly to such workman, his agent, or 8 sixteen years of age employed in or for such establishments or in such 9 occupations, one on file in the office and one conspicuously posted near 10 the principal entrance of the place or establishment in which such 11 children are employed. On termination of the employment of a child

64 by him to the local school authorities. The work permit shall in no 65 case be issued to the applicant or its parent, guardian or custodian, 66 but shall in every case be forwarded to the prospective employer of 67 such applicant. Every such work permit shall give the name, sex, the 4 the state, to whom all reports shall be made. All differences arising 5 in the inspection of oils shall be referred to the chief oil inspector and 6 his decision of the question shall be final.

7 The chief inspector shall make such recommendations to the state 8 board of health as may be deemed necessary to improve the inspection 9 service. He shall devote his time and services wholly to the inspec-10 tion of oil and the duties of his office.

11 Inspectors may appoint such deputies, helpers and branders as 12 may be necessary in the proper discharge of their official duties, but 13 such appointments before becoming effective must be submitted to 14 and approved and confirmed and their compensation fixed by the 15 executive council as in their judgment may be necessary, equitable and 16 just. Each inspector shall be a resident of the state and not directly 17 or indirectly interested in the manufacture or sale of products of 18 petroleum. He shall give bond to the state in the penal sum of five 19 thousand dollars. The chief oil inspector's bond shall be ten thousand 20 dollars, all conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, 21 with sureties who shall, in addition to the usual justification, make 22 oath entered on the bond that they are not directly or indirectly inter-23 ested in the manufacture or sale of products of petroleum for illu-24 minating purposes, which bond shall be approved by the governor and 25 filed with the secretary of state.

[C., '97, § 2503; S. S., '15, § 2503.]

1 The state board of health shall make rules and regulations for the 2 inspection of petroleum products, for the government of inspectors, 3 and prescribe the instruments and apparatus to be used. Such rules 4 and regulations shall be approved by the governor, and, when so ap-5 proved, shall be binding upon all inspectors.

[C., '97, § 2504; S., '13, § 2504.]

SEC. 901. Inspection—rejection—branding—fees—reduction—gasoline—how marked—rebate—penalties—supplies.

1 Each inspector shall be furnished, at reasonable expense to the 2 state, with the necessary supplies, instruments and apparatus for 3 testing, and shall promptly make inspections and tests and brand all 4 illuminating oils kept for use or sale and for such purposes may enter 5 upon the premises of any person.

6 He shall reject all oils for illuminating purposes which will emit 7 a combustible vapor at a temperature of one hundred degrees standard 8 Fahrenheit thermometer closed test, not less than one-half pint of oil 9 to be used in the flash test. If upon test and examination the oil shall 10 meet the requirements, he shall brand over his official signature and 11 date on the barrel or package holding the same, "Approved. Flash 12 Test—Degrees," inserting in the blank the number. Should it

13 fail to meet the requirements, it shall be branded under his official 14 signature and date, "Rejected for illuminating purposes."

15 All inspections shall be made within the state, and paid for by the 16 person for whom the inspection is made at the rate of seven cents per 17 barrel, fifty-five gallons for this purpose constituting a barrel; which 18 charge shall be a lien upon the oil inspected and be collected by the in-19 spector, reported and paid to the chief oil inspector of the state on or 20 before the fifteenth day of each month, and on the first day of July of 21 each year the chief inspector shall ascertain the total receipts from oil 22 inspection and all the expenses thereof during the twelve months pre-23 ceding, and, if in any such year, the revenue realized from oil inspec-24 tion exceeds the total expenses of inspection by the sum of four 25 thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the chief inspector to reduce 26 the fees for inspection during the ensuing year to such sum per barrel 27 as will in the judgment of the chief inspector yield a revenue equal to 28 the expenses during the preceding year plus the sum of four thousand 29 dollars; and if in any year such reduced charge of inspection proves 30 insufficient to meet the total expenses of the department for said year, 31 the chief inspector shall be authorized and is hereby directed to in-32 crease said inspection fees in an amount sufficient to pay the entire 33 expenses of the department not exceeding, however, the sum of seven 34 cents per barrel.

35 No gasoline shall be sold, given away or delivered to any person in 36 the state until the package, cask, barrel or vessel containing the same 37 has been painted bright red, and plainly marked "gasoline" in such 38 manner as the board of health may prescribe.

39 There shall be no refund or rebate of charges made or paid for 40 inspection except upon a duly verified certificate of the owner that the 41 goods, for which the rebate is asked, have been disposed of outside 42 of the state, said certificate to be in such form as shall be prescribed 43 by the chief oil inspector of state and shall be delivered to the inspector 44 and attached to his monthly report. The amount of such rebate per 45 barrel allowed during any fiscal year shall be determined by the chief 46 oil inspector of state during the month of July of each year and shall 47 equal approximately the net proceeds per barrel from the inspection 48 service of the state during the preceding fiscal year, the same to be 49 seven cents per barrel.

50 Any person, firm, corporation or agent violating any of the provi-51 sions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and 52 punished accordingly. All necessary supplies, tables, instruments and 53 apparatus, as contemplated in this chapter, shall be purchased by the 54 executive council and shall be furnished to the inspectors as needed 55 by them upon requisition therefor made to the chief oil inspector of 56 state, approved by him and forwarded to the executive council.

57 Every person who receives products of petroleum for use or sale 58 which have not been inspected as provided in this chapter shall, within 59 five days after the receipt thereof, notify the inspector of that inspec-60 tion district that the same is in his possession, and to neglect to do so 61 shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

13 issue his warrant therefor upon the treasurer of state for the amount 14 so approved and due the several inspectors, and no item of expense 15 shall be allowed and paid not shown in such report.

16 It shall be the duty of all persons, firms or corporations, officers or 17 agents thereof, within the state receiving any of the products of 18 petroleum, subject to inspection, to file with the chief oil inspector of 19 state, on or before the tenth day of each month a certificate, duly 20 verified in such form as shall be approved by the chief oil inspector of 21 state, to cover the month preceding the one in which said report is 22 made.

24 tanks the tank number of each product inspected for such person, firm, 25 corporation, officers or agents thereof, the amount of fees paid for 26 such inspection, to whom paid, and that the amounts so stated are all 4 manner as other state officers.

5 For the purpose of enabling the chief inspector and the other 6 officials charged with the enforcement of this chapter to enforce the 1 Notice of an application for a permit must be published, once 2 each week, for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper regularly pub-

4 in the township, town or city where the applicant proposes to conduct 5 the business, or, if none be regularly published therein, then in one of 14 it, at least ten days before the first day of the term, naming it, when

1 Upon the return day of the notice, the court having, from an 2 inspection of the record, ascertained that due and timely service
3 thereof has been made, shall, if no remonstrance has been or is offered 4 to be filed, unless for cause postponed to some other day in the term, 5 proceed to hear and try the application. Any remonstrance against 6 or objection to the granting of the permit must be in writing and filed 7 in the clerk's office by noon of the first day of the term, unless further 8 time be given, and shall be so filed before the date fixed for the trial.
9 Such remonstrance or objections may be made by any citizen of the 10 county wherein the application is made, specifically stating the reasons 11 therefor, and the court shall fix a day in the term for the trial, and all 12 applications shall be tried at the first term after completed service has 13 been made of the required notice, if the business of the court shall 14 allow. No permit shall be granted unless the court shall find from 15 competent evidence that all the averments in the petition are true, that 16 the reasonable convenience and necessities of the people, considering 17 the population and all the surroundings, make the granting of the per-18 mit proper, and that the applicant is possessed of the character and 19 qualifications required, worthy of the trust to be reposed in him, and 20 likely to discharge the same with fidelity. The county attorney shall 21 appear in such cases, and any number of persons, not less than five, 22 filing any remonstrance or objection, may also appear by counsel and 23 resist the application. If more than one permit is applied for in the 24 same locality, the applications shall be heard at the same time, unless 25 for cause shown it be otherwise ordered. If for any reason the appli-26 cation can not be tried in term time, the same may be heard by the 27 judge in vacation, at a time to be fixed by the court and made of record, 28 and in all applications for permits the court may grant or refuse any 7 or recovered against him for a violation of such laws during the time 8 for which the permit is granted, and the principal and sureties in said 9 bond shall be liable thereon, jointly and severally, for all civil damages 10 and costs that may be recovered against the principal in any action 11 brought by a wife, child, parent, guardian, employer or other person 12 under the provisions of this chapter. The bond, after being approved 13 and recorded by the clerk, shall be deposited with the county auditor, 14 and suit may be brought thereon at any time by the county attorney, 15 or by any person for whose benefit the same is given. The clear pro-

 17 bond shall go to the school fund of the county. If at any time the 18 sureties on the bond shall file with the court or clerk a written request 19 for release, or become insolvent, or be deemed insufficient by the court 20 granting the permit, or its clerk, such court or clerk shall require a 21 new bond to be executed within a reasonable time to be fixed. If the 22 permit holder fails or neglects to furnish a new bond within the time 23 so fixed, the permit shall from that date become null and void.

 15 therein, and the true signature to every request received and granted; 16 and such returns shall show all the intoxicating liquors sold or deliv-

[C., '97, § 2391.]

 4 The permit so issued shall specify the building, give the street and 5 number or location in which intoxicating liquors may be sold by virtue 6 of the same, and the length of time the same shall be in force, unless 7 sooner revoked; provided that upon the expiration of the lease or 9 other good and sufficient cause shown, consent in writing of the bondsmen 10 having been obtained therefor, or a new bond given, the district 11 court of the county which granted said permit, or a judge of said 12 court, may change the place specified in said permit to some other

 2 part of the record and files in his office all petitions and other papers 3 except bonds pertaining to the granting or revocation of permits, and 4 keep suitable books in which bonds and permits shall be recorded.
 5 The books shall be furnished by the county like other public records.
 6 Whether said permit be granted or refused, the applicant shall pay 7 the costs incurred in the case, and, when granted, he shall make pay-8 ment before any permit issue, except the court may tax the cost of 9 any witnesses summoned by private persons resisting said application,

1 When a nuisance is kept, maintained or exists, as defined in 2 this chapter, any citizen of the county may maintain an action in 10 presented, that the nuisance complained of exists. Three days' notice 11 in writing shall be given the defendant of the hearing of the applica-12 tion, and, if then continued at his instance, the writ as prayed shall 13 be granted as a matter of course. When an injunction has been

[R., '60, § 1564; C., '73, § 1543; C., '97, § 2405; S. S., '15, § 2405.]

SEC. 967. How brought and tried—evidence—attorney's fee—investigation by county attorney—report.

1 Actions to enjoin nuisances may be brought in the name of the 2 state by the county attorney, who shall prosecute the same to judg-3 ment, or any citizen of the proper county may institute and maintain 4 such a proceeding in his name. The action when brought shall be 5 triable at the first term of court after due and timely service of notice 6 of the commencement thereof has been given; and in such action evi-7 dence of the general reputation of the place described in the petition 8 shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of such 9 nuisance. If the plaintiff is successful in the action, an attorney's fee 10 of twenty-five dollars shall be taxed as costs in his favor.

11 Such action, when brought by a citizen, shall not be dismissed 12 upon the motion of either the plaintiff or defendant until the county 13 attorney shall have been notified in writing of the filing of such mo-14 tion, and until such county attorney shall have made a personal inves-15 tigation of the place of business sought to be enjoined, and of all 16 matters set forth in said motion for dismissal, and shall have filed, in 17 writing, a report of his findings in said cause, and his recommendation 18 in reference to the disposition of the same. If any such action shall 19 remain upon the docket for two terms of court, without trial, it shall 20 be the duty of the judge of such court to order the plaintiff and his 21 attorney or attorneys of record, to appear in open court for examina-22 tion as to the reasons why such cause has not been brought on for 23 trial; and it shall be the duty of the county attorney to conduct such 24 examination, if the judge shall so order. Whenever the court shall 25 have reason to believe that any action commenced under this section 26 has not been brought or prosecuted in good faith said court shall 27 direct the grand jury to investigate all the facts and circumstances 28 connected with the bringing and prosecution of the same.

[C., '97, § 2406; S., '13, § 2406.]

SEC. 968. Violation of injunction.

1 In case of the violation of any injunction granted under the pro-
2 visions of this chapter, the court, or in vacation a judge thereof, may 3 summarily try and punish the offender. The proceedings shall be com-4 menced by filing with the clerk of the court an information under oath, 5 setting out the alleged facts constituting such violation, upon which 6 the court or judge shall cause a warrant to issue, under which the 7 defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavits, or 8 either party may demand the production and oral examination of the 9 witnesses. A party found guilty of contempt under the provisions of 10 this section shall for the first offense be punished by a fine of not less 11 than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by impris-
12 onment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six 13 months, or by both fine and imprisonment. A party who, having once 14 been found guilty of contempt for violating the provisions of any such 15 injunction, shall for each such subsequent violation be punished by a 16 fine of not less than five hundred dollars or more than one thousand 17 dollars or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary or state reformatory 18 at hard labor for not more than one year.

[C., '97, § 2407; S. S., '15, § 2407.]

SEC. 969. Abatement.

1 If the existence of the nuisance be established in a civil or crim-2 inal action, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the 3 judgment in the case; which order shall direct the destruction of the 4 liquor, the removal from the building or place of all fixtures, furniture, 5 vessels or movable property used in any way in conducting the unlaw-6 ful business and sale thereof, in the manner provided for the sale of 7 chattels under execution, and the effectual closing of the building, 8 erection or place against its use for any purpose prohibited in this 9 chapter, and so keeping it for a period of one year, unless sooner re-10 leased. If anyone shall break or use a building or place so directed to 11 be closed, he shall be punished as for contempt as provided in the pre-12 ceding section. For removing and selling the movable property, the 13 officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he 14 would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for 15 closing the premises and keeping them closed, a reasonable sum shall 16 be allowed by the court.

[C., '51, § 935; R., '60, § 1559; C., '73, §§ 1523, 1543; C., '97, § 2408.]

SEC. 970. Proceeds—how applied.

1 The proceeds of the sale of the personal property, as provided in 2 the preceding section, shall be applied, first, in payment of the costs of 3 the action and abatement; secondly, to the satisfaction of any fine and 4 costs adjudged against the proprietor of the premises and keeper of 5 said nuisance, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the defendant.

[C., '97, § 2409.]

SEC. 971. Abatement by owner.

1 If the owner appears and pays all costs of the proceeding, and 2 files a bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk in the full value 3 of the property, to be ascertained by the court, or, in vacation, by the 4 clerk, auditor and treasurer of the county, conditioned that he will 5 immediately abate said nuisance and prevent the same from being es-6 tablished or kept therein within a period of one year thereafter, the 7 court, or, in vacation, the judge, may, if satisfied of his good faith, 8 order the premises closed under the order of abatement to be deliv-9 ered to said owner, and said order of abatement canceled so far as the 10 same may relate to said property; and if the proceeding be an action in 11 equity, and said bond be given and costs therein paid before judgment 12 and order of abatement, the action shall be thereby abated as to said 13 building only. The release of the property under the provisions of 14 this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty or 15 liability to which it may be subject by law.

[C., '97, § 2410; S., '13, § 2410.]

SEC. 972. Second offense.

1 Any person who shall have been convicted of keeping a nuisance
2 under this chapter, or who shall have been enjoined as herein pro-3 vided, and shall again directly or indirectly engage in keeping a ni-4 sance or selling intoxicating liquors in violation of this chapter, in any 5 county in this state, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by 6 imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more 7 than one year. But no equitable proceeding, order or judgment shall 8 be construed as a conviction under the provisions of this section.

[C., '97, § 2411.]

SEC. 973. Prepayment of fees not required—costs taxed to plaintiff.

1 In an action brought by a citizen to enjoin a nuisance, as defined 2 in this chapter, no officer or witness shall be entitled to receive in ad-3 vance fees for service or attendance. If the prosecution fails, or the 4 costs can not be collected of the defendant, they shall be paid in the 5 same manner as in criminal causes. If, however, the court shall find 6 that the case was commenced without probable cause, or was mali-7 ciously brought, it may tax the costs to the plaintiff.

[C., '97, § 2412.]

SEC. 974. Search warrant—seizure.

1 If any credible resident of this state, or any special agent of the 2 state, or any assistant authorized by him, shall, before a justice of 3 the peace, or any judge of the district court of said county, or any 4 judge of the superior court of any city within said county make writ-

5 ten information, supported by his oath or affirmation, that he has 6 reason to believe, and does believe, that any intoxicating liquor, de-7 scribed as particularly as may be in said information, is in said county, 8 in any place described as particularly as may be in said information, 9 owned or kept by any person named or described in said information 10 as particularly as may be, and is intended by him to be sold, or had 11 been purchased or procured as the result of solicitation, or has been 12 transported in violation of the provisions of this chapter, said justice 13 or judge shall, upon finding probable cause for such information, issue 14 his warrant of search, directed to any peace officer in the county, de-15 scribing as particularly as may be the liquor and the place described 16 in said information, and the person named or described in said infor-17 mation as the owner or keeper of said liquor, and commanding the 18 said officer to search thoroughly said place, and to seize the said liquor, 19 with the vessels containing it, and to keep the same securely until final 20 action be had thereon; whereupon the said peace officer to whom such 21 warrant shall be delivered shall forthwith obey and execute, as effec-22 tually as possible, the commands of said warrant, and make return of 23 his doings to said justice, or judge and shall securely keep all liquors 24 so seized by him and the vessels containing them until final action be 25 had thereon. If the place to be searched be a dwelling house in which 26 any family resides, and in which no tavern, eating house, grocery or 27 other place of public resort is kept, such warrant shall not be issued 28 unless said complainant shall, on oath or affirmation, declare before 29 said justice or judge that he has reason to believe and does believe 30 that within one month next before the making of said information 31 intoxicating liquor has been, in violation of this chapter, sold in said 32 house, or in some dependency thereof, by the person accused in said 33 information, or by his consent or permission; nor unless, from the 34 facts and circumstances disclosed by such complaint, the said justice 35 or judge shall be of the opinion that said complainant has adequate 36 reason for such belief. In all such prosecutions, the action shall be 37 in the name of the state.

[R., '60, § 1565; C., '73, § 1544; C., '97, § 2413; S. S., '15,
 § 2413; 37 G. A., ch. 322, § 1.]

SEC. 975. Information for search warrant—defects.

1 The information and search warrant in such case shall describe, 2 with reasonable particularity, the place to be searched, as well as the 3 liquors to be seized. When any liquors shall have been seized by 4 virtue of any such warrant, the same shall not be discharged or re-5 turned to any person claiming the same by reason of any alleged in-6 sufficiency of description in the warrant of the liquor or place, but the 7 claimant shall only have a right to be heard on the merits of the case.

[C., '73, § 1545; C., '97, § 2414.]

SEC. 976. Notice—trial—judgment—appeal.

1 In the event of a seizure under said warrant, the officer shall 2 forthwith make a return of his acts thereunder, and within forty-3 eight hours thereafter the justice or judge who issued the warrant 4 shall cause to be left at the place where said liquor was seized, if said 5 place be a dwelling house, store or shop, posted in some conspicuous 6 place on or about said buildings, and also to be left with or at the last 7 known and usual place of residence of the person named or described

8 in said information as the owner or keeper of said liquor, if he be a 9 resident of this state, a notice, summoning such person, and all others 10 whom it may concern, to appear before said justice or judge within 11 the county at a place and time named in said notice, which time shall 12 not be less than five nor more than fifteen days after the posting 13 and leaving of said notices, and show cause, if any they have, why 14 said liquor, together with the vessels in which the same is contained, 15 should not be forfeited; and said notice shall, with reasonable cer-16 tainty, describe said liquor and vessels, and shall state where, when 17 and why the same were seized. + At the time and place prescribed in 18 said notice, the person named in said information, or any other person 19 claiming an interest in said liquor and vessels, or any part thereof, 20 may appear and show cause why the same should not be forfeited.
21 If any person shall so appear, he shall become a party defendant in 22 said case, and said justice or judge shall make a record thereof.
23 Whether any person shall so appear or not, said justice or judge shall, 24 at the prescribed time, proceed to the trial of said case, and said 25 complainants or either of them may, and upon their default the officer 26 having such liquor in custody shall, appear before said justice or 27 judge and prosecute said information, and show cause why such 28 liquor should be adjudged forfeited. The proceeding in the trial of 29 such case may be the same, substantially, as in cases of misdemeanor 30 triable before justices of the peace, and if any person shall appear 31 and be made a party defendant as herein provided, and shall make 32 written plea that said liquor, or a part thereof claimed by him, was 33 not owned or kept with intent to be sold in violation of this chapter, 34 and was not purchased or procured as the result of solicitation, 35 nor illegally transported, such party defendant may, at his option, 36 demand a jury to try the issue, and if, upon the evidence presented, 37 the said justice or judge or jury, as the case may be, shall, by ver-38 dict, find that said liquor was, when seized, owned or kept by any 39 person, whether said party defendant or not, for the purpose of 40 being sold in violation of this chapter or was purchased or pro-41 cured as the result of solicitation or has been unlawfully transported, 42 the said justice or judge shall render judgment that said liquor, or 43 said part thereof, with the vessels in which it is contained, is for-44 feited. If no person be made defendant in manner aforesaid, or if 45 judgment be in favor of all the defendants who appear and are made 46 such, then the costs of the proceeding shall be paid as in ordinary 47 criminal prosecutions where the prosecution fails. If the judgment 48 shall be against only one party defendant appearing as aforesaid, he 49 shall be adjudged to pay all the costs of proceedings in the seizure 50 and detention of the liquor claimed by him, and trial, up to the time 51 of judgment. But if such judgment shall be against more than one 52 party defendant claiming distinct interests in said liquor, then the 53 costs of said proceedings and trial shall be, according to the discre-54 tion of said justice or judge, equitably apportioned among said de-55 fendants, and execution shall be issued on said judgments against said 56 defendants for the amount of the costs so adjudged against them. Any 57 person appearing and becoming party defendant as aforesaid may in 58 cases arising before a justice of the peace appeal from said judgment 59 of forfeiture, as to the whole or any part of said liquor and vessels 60 claimed by him and so adjudged forfeited, to the district court, as in 61 ordinary cases of misdemeanor. In any such proceeding where the 62 judgment is against the state, it shall have the same right of appeal

63 to the district court, except that no bond shall be required, and if an 64 appeal be taken by the state, the same shall operate as a stay of pro-65 ceedings and the liquors seized under the warrant shall not be returned 66 to any claimant thereof until, upon the final determination of said ap-67 peal, he is found entitled thereto.

[R., '60, § 1566; C., '73, § 1546; C., '97, § 2415; S. S., '15,
§ 2415; 37 G. A., ch. 322, § 2.]

SEC. 977. Destruction of liquor and vessels.

1 When it shall be finally decided by any other than the district
2 court that liquor seized as aforesaid is forfeited, the court rendering 3 final judgment of forfeiture shall forthwith file in the office of the 4 clerk of the district court in the county a certified transcript of such 5 judgment and the officer having said liquor in custody shall forthwith 6 deliver the same to the sheriff, taking itemized receipts therefor and 7 shall file one of said receipts with the clerk of the district court and 8 the other with the court rendering said judgment. The clerk of the 9 district court shall file the transcript as soon as received and enter a 10 memorandum thereof and the date of filing in the judgment docket 11 and from such entry it shall be treated in all respects and in its en-12 forcement as a judgment in the district court. When it shall be 13 finally decided that any liquor so seized is not liable to forfeiture, the 14 court by whom such final decision shall be rendered shall issue a writ-15 ten order to the officer having the same in custody, or to some other 16 peace officer, to restore said liquor, with the vessels containing the 17 same, to the place where it was seized, as nearly as may be, or to the 18 person entitled to receive it, which order the officer shall obey, and 19 make return thereon to the court of his acts thereunder, and the costs 20 of the proceeding in such case attending the restoration, as also the 21 costs attending the destruction of such liquor in case of forfeiture, 22 shall be taxed and paid in the same manner as is provided in case of 23 ordinary criminal prosecutions where the prosecution fails. When a 24 transcript has been filed or a judgment has been entered in the district 25 court decreeing a forfeiture of any intoxicating liquors the court, or 26 a judge thereof in vacation, may direct the disposition of such liquor 27 and the vessels containing the same by ordering the destruction 28 thereof, or by ordering any portion thereof consisting of alcohol, 29 brandies, wine or whisky delivered for medicinal or scientific pur-30 poses to any state or reputable hospital in the county or adjoining 31 counties, and shall order any balance remaining, and the vessels con-32 taining the same, turned over to the state board of control to be dis-33 pensed to any state institution or reputable hospital in the state of 34 Iowa to be used for medicinal or scientific purposes. The state board 35 of control shall issue to the court under whose order the said liquor 36 was delivered to it a receipt stating the kind and quantity of liquor 37 delivered to it and shall keep a strict account of all liquors received 38 and dispensed and shall make a full and complete report of all such 39 transactions each year to the governor of the state.

40 It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to call to the 41 attention of the court on the first day of each term all judgments for 42 the forfeiture of intoxicating liquor and for the disposition of which 43 no order has been theretofore made and the court shall thereupon 44 enter an order for the disposition of such liquors. Upon the entry of 45 any order for the disposition of any intoxicating liquors which have 46 been adjudged forfeited, the clerk shall forthwith transmit a certified

47 copy thereof to the sheriff for execution and the sheriff shall imme-48 diately take possession of such liquors, and the vessels containing 49 the same, and make disposition thereof in accordance with such order, 50 and make return of his doings to the court. When any such liquor is 51 ordered delivered or shipped the sheriff shall securely attach to the 52 box or package containing the same a certified copy of the order of 53 the court and thereupon any railway company, express company or 54 other common carrier may receive, transport, and deliver such liquor 55 to the consignee. The cost of packing and transportation shall be paid 56 by the consignee receiving such liquor. The sheriff shall take receipts 57 for any liquor disposed of under the provisions of this section show-58 ing in detail the kind and quantity of liquor delivered, the character 59 of the vessels containing the same, the date and manner of delivery 60 and, if delivery is made by common carrier, the name of such carrier.
 61 Such receipt shall be attached by the sheriff to and filed with the 62 return of his doings as herein provided for.

63 Any statute of this state providing for the destruction of intoxi-
 64 cating liquors shall be construed so that the disposition of such liquors 65 under the provisions of this section shall constitute a destruction 66 thereof within the meaning of such statute.

[R., '60, § 1567; C., '73, § 1547; C., '97, § 2416; 38 G. A., ch. 266, § 1.]

SEC. 978. Liability for care of intoxicated person.

1 Any person who shall by the manufacture, sale or giving away
 2 of intoxicating liquors, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, 3 cause the intoxication of any other person, shall be liable for and 4 compelled to pay a reasonable compensation to any person who may 5 take charge of and provide for such intoxicated person, and one dollar 6 per day in addition thereto for every day such intoxicated person 7 shall be kept, in consequence of such intoxication, which sums may be 8 recovered in a civil action before any court having jurisdiction thereof.

[C., '73, § 1556; C., '97, § 2417.]

SEC. 979. Civil action for damages by wife, parent, child, etc.

1 Every wife, child, parent, guardian, employer or other person who 2 shall be injured in person or property or means of support by any in-3 toxicated person, or in consequence of the intoxication, habitual or 4 otherwise, of any person, shall have a right of action in his or her own 5 name against any person who shall, by selling or giving to another 6 contrary to the provisions of this chapter any intoxicating liquors, 7 cause the intoxication of such person, for all damages actually sus-8 tained, as well as exemplary damages; and a married woman shall 9 have the same right to bring suits, prosecute, and control the same 10 and the amount recovered, as if a single woman; and all damages re-11 covered by a minor under this section shall be paid either to such 12 minor or his parent, guardian or next friend, as the court shall direct, 13 and all suits for damages under this section shall be by civil action 14 in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

[C., '73, § 1557; C., '97, § 2418.]

SEC. 980. Transportation to one not holding permit.

1 If any express or railway company, or any common carrier, or 2 person, or any one as the agent or employee thereof, shall transport

3 or convey to any person within this state any intoxicating liquors, 4 without first having been furnished with a certificate from the clerk 5 of the court issuing the permit, showing that the consignee is a permit 6 holder and authorized to sell liquors in the county to which the ship-7 ment is made, such company, common carrier, person, agent or em-8 ployee thereof, shall, upon conviction, be fined in the sum of one hun-9 dred dollars for each offense and pay the costs of prosecution, includ-
 10 ing a reasonable attorney's fee to be taxed by the court. The offense 11 herein created shall be held committed and complete and to have been 12 committed in any county in the state in which the liquors are received 13 for transportation, through which they are transported, or in which 14 they are delivered. The defendant in a prosecution under this section 15 may show by a preponderance of the evidence as a defense that the 16 character, circumstances and contents of the shipment were not known

 2 ber in each year, the county auditor shall certify to the county treas-3 urer a complete list of the names of persons returned to him by the 4 assessors, or entered on the sworn statements made to him by citi-
 5 zens as aforesaid, together with a description in each case of the real 6 property wherein or whereon the business is carried on or the place 7 maintained, and the name of the occupant or tenant, and the owner 8 or agent of such property, and the county auditor shall keep in his 9 office in books to be provided for that purpose an account to be known 10 as the mulct tax account, in which memoranda of all moneys which 11 may come into his hands and those of the county treasurer, from the 12 mulct tax, shall be entered; and the county treasurer shall keep a 13 like account and record of all mulct tax coming into his hands. Set-14 tlement of such accounts shall be made with the board of supervisors 15 at the January and June sessions of the board, which settlement shall 16 be published with the proceedings of the board.

[C., '97, § 2437; S., '13, § 2437.]

SEC. 1009. Entry of tax—payments made to county treasurer.

1 The county treasurer shall thereupon enter upon a book known 2 as the mulct tax book a quarterly installment of the mulct tax, as due 3 and payable by the person carrying on such business or keeping such 4 place, and as a lien and charge upon and against the real property 5 wherein or whereon such business is carried on or such place main-6 tained, all payments of mulct tax shall be made to the county treasurer 7 upon a certificate from the county auditor showing the amount due.

[C., '97, § 2438; S., '13, § 2438.]

SEC. 1010. When delinquent—sales for—redemption—title in the county.

1 After the expiration of one month from the date when such tax
 2 becomes due and payable, if not paid, it shall be delinquent and col-3 lectible by the treasurer in the same method as that in which other 4 delinquent taxes are collectible, and all the provisions as to the col-
 5 lection of other delinquent taxes shall apply. Tax sales for such de-6 linquent taxes shall also be made on the first Monday in June of each 7 year, in the same manner and to the same effect as on the first Mon-
 8 day in December, and all the provisions of law as to tax sales in De-9 cember shall apply to such sales in June. When real estate offered 10 at tax sale under this section shall be passed for want of bid covering

11 amount of tax due thereon, it shall be advertised and sold by the treas-12 urer at next semiannual tax sale. The treasurer shall appoint, prior 13 to such sale, three appraisers who shall appraise the value of any and 14 all property to be offered at such sale, taking into account any su-15 perior, valid lien thereon, and file a separate appraisal for each 16 parcel; and the cost thereof shall be added to the penalty. If at the 17 sale an amount less than the tax and penalty and less than the ap-18 praisalment is offered, the property shall be sold to the county; at the 19 appraised value, if it is less than the tax and penalty; or at the tax 20 and penalty, if they are less than the appraised value. The provisions 21 of sections forty-six hundred eighty-eight to forty-six hundred ninety, 22 inclusive, shall apply to the redemption; but the supervisors may allow 23 redemption for any amount deemed advantageous to the county; and 24 in default thereof after notice to redeem as provided by section forty-25 six hundred ninety-three, the treasurer shall execute a deed to the 26 county, without fee, and such deed shall have, so far as applicable, all 27 the effect as provided by section forty-six hundred ninety-six as to 28 vesting in the county all the right, title, interest and estate of the 29 former owner in and to the land conveyed. On redemption or on final 30 sale of the property the proceeds shall be applied as provided by sec-31 tion ten hundred sixteen. While thus acquiring title the county, to 32 protect its interest, may bid in the property at ordinary tax sale and 33 acquire title under the same terms and conditions as other tax sale 34 purchasers.

[C., '97, § 2439; S., '13, § 2439.]

SEC. 1011. Collection by selling personal property.

1 At any time after the quarterly installment of such taxes becomes 2 delinquent, the treasurer may collect the same by seizing and selling 3 any personal property used in connection with the business or in 4 maintaining the place.

[C., '97, § 2440.]

SEC. 1012. Application for remission.

1 At the meeting of the board of supervisors next following the 2 listing as aforesaid, application may be made to remit the tax, by 3 petition duly verified and filed with the county auditor at least eight 4 days before the time set for the consideration of the case, and notice 5 for the same length of time must be served on the county attorney in 6 writing. The averments of the petition shall be deemed denied, and 7 witnesses may be examined, and the chairman of the board, or, in his 8 absence or inability to act, any member of the same may administer 9 an oath in the same form and of the same effect as to penalties for 10 testifying falsely as if administered in court.

[C., '97, § 2441.]

SEC. 1013. Hearing—evidence—appeal.

1 On the application to remit the tax, the owner of the property
 2 may be heard in support of the same, and evidence of the general repu-3 tation of the place shall be admissible, and if upon the hearing of the 4 case it shall be shown that the petitioner, his agent or tenant has paid 5 a retail liquor dealer's internal revenue tax to the United States, cov-6 ering any portion of the time and premises as set forth in the listing 7 of said real estate, it shall be prima facie evidence that the person and 8 property are subject to the tax. If upon said hearing it be found by 9 a majority vote of the board of supervisors that the tax is proper, it 10 shall stand, otherwise it shall be remitted, and the board shall enter 11 its order on its record. Either the petitioner or the county attorney 12 may appeal to the district court, and if the petitioner appeals he shall 13 be required to give bond for the costs which have accrued, or may 14 accrue in the further progress of the case. Notice of the appeal shall 15 be served upon the appellee or his attorney, and upon the county audi-16 tor, within ten days after the decision by the board of supervisors; 17 whereupon the auditor shall file a full and complete transcript of the 18 record of the proceedings in said cause, together with the original 19 papers, in the office of the clerk of the district court in said county.

20 In case the finding of the board of supervisors shall be against the 21 tax, and the county attorney shall fail to take an appeal to the dis-22 trict court within ten days from such finding as above provided, any 23 three citizens of the county may take such appeal within ten days 24 thereafter, upon giving a good and sufficient bond for costs, and the 25 same proceeding shall be had as if the appeal had been taken by the 26 county attorney. The auditor shall charge and tax as fees for the 27 transcript and writing up of the record ten cents per hundred words.

[C., '97, § 2442.]

SEC. 1014. Remission entered—costs.

1 If the tax is remitted by the board of supervisors, and no appeal 2 from such action is taken, or if on an appeal to the district court the 3 tax is ordered to be remitted, the auditor shall certify the fact to the 4 treasurer, who shall mark the tax on his books as remitted, and shall 5 not collect the same, and if an installment of tax has already been 6 paid, it shall be refunded by the board of supervisors. If any sale 7 of real property has been made for a tax which is afterwards remitted, 8 the title of the purchaser shall become void and the amount paid by 9 such purchaser shall be refunded by the county. If any application 10 for the remission of the tax is refused by the board of supervisors, 11 and no appeal therefrom is taken, or if on appeal to the district court 12 the tax is confirmed, the costs of the whole proceeding shall be certified 13 by the auditor to the treasurer, and by him added to the tax, and col-14 lected as the remainder of such tax.

[C., '97, § 2443.]

SEC. 1015. Trial on appeal—judgment against property.

1 On the appeal the trial shall be conducted as an equitable cause, 2 and the first term shall be the trial term. Should it appear, either on 3 the trial before the board of supervisors or in the district court, that 4 there have been sales of intoxicating liquors made in or upon the 5 premises listed for taxation, the tax shall be confirmed against the 6 person, corporation or partnership conducting the business, and if it 7 appears that the wrong name or an alias has been used, then the rec-8 ord and assessment list may be amended and the true name inserted; 9 and if it shall appear at such trial that the owner or his agent knew, 10 or by the use of reasonable care or diligence might have known, of the 11 sales of intoxicating liquors as aforesaid, the tax shall be confirmed 12 against the property by an order of record, and the clerk of the dis-13 trict court shall certify such fact to the county auditor, with the 14 amount of costs made in the trial of the case.

[C., '97, § 2444.]

SEC. 1016. Tax divided and apportioned.

1 The revenue derived from the tax provided for in this chapter 2 shall be paid into the county treasury, one-half to go into the general 3 county fund, and the remainder to be paid over to the municipality
4 in which the business taxed is conducted. If such business is con-
5 ducted outside the limits of a city or town then the tax now in hands 6 of county treasurers, or that shall hereafter be collected from such 7 business, shall be apportioned as follows: One-half to the general 8 county fund and the other one-half to the clerk of the township in 9 which such business is conducted. The clerk of the township shall 10 apportion the amount so received by him equally among the road 11 supervisors of the territory of the township outside of the city or 12 town, to be by said road supervisors expended for the improvement 13 of the roads of the districts. In counties where a tax on the traffic 14 in intoxicating liquors is paid into and belongs to the county treasury, 15 the board of supervisors may transfer the same or any part thereof 16 to the county road fund and expend the same upon the roads of the 17 county; and that portion of such revenue derived from such business 18 conducted inside the limits of a city, including cities under special 19 charter, or town, the board may expend all or any part thereof upon 20 the permanent improvement of streets within such city or town abut-21 ting upon agricultural or horticultural lands not subject to taxation 22 for general municipal purposes.

[C., '97, § 2445; S., '13, § 2445.]

SEC. 1017. Duty of county attorney.

1 It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each county to see 2 that the provisions of this chapter relating to the mulct tax are en-3 forced, and the district court or any judge thereof shall suspend or 4 remove from office any county attorney who shall wilfully refuse or 5 neglect to perform any such duty. Such suspension or removal may 6 be made upon application of any citizen residing in the county, but 7 shall not take place except upon due notice to said officer and trial in 8 court, and the provisions of this section shall apply to assessors, county 9 treasurers and members of boards of supervisors whose duty it is to 10 enforce them.

[C., '97, § 2446.]

SEC. 1018. Effect of payment.

1 Nothing contained in this chapter so far as it relates to the mulct
2 tax shall be in any way construed to mean that the business of the sale 3 of intoxicating liquors is in any way legalized, nor as a license, nor 4 shall the assessment or payment of any tax for the sale of liquors as 5 aforesaid protect the wrongdoer from any penalty now provided by 6 law.

[C., '97, § 2447.]

SEC. 1019. "Bootlegger" defined.

1 Any person who shall, by himself, or his employee, servant or 2 agent, for himself or any person, company or corporation, keep or 5 tent to sell or dispose of the same by gift or otherwise, or who shall 6 within this state, in any manner, directly or indirectly, solicit, take, or 9 guilty of a misdemeanor.

[S. S., '15, § 2461-a.]

SEC. 1020. Penalty.

1 Every such bootlegger may be restrained by injunction from do-2 ing or continuing to do any of the acts prohibited by law, and all the 3 proceedings for injunctions, temporary and permanent, and for fines 4 and costs for violation of same, as defined by law, shall be applicable 5 to such person, company or corporation, and the fact that an offender 6 has no known or permanent place of business or base of supplies, or 7 quits the business after the commencement of an action shall not pre-8 vent a temporary or permanent injunction, as the case may be, from 9 issuing.

[S., '13, § 2461-b.]

SEC. 1021. Drinking liquors on passenger cars — profane language—penalty.

1 Any person who shall drink intoxicating liquors as a beverage

[S., '13, § 2461-f.]

SEC. 1022. Powers of conductor.

5 have the further right to eject from his train at any station or from 6 his street car at any regular stop any person found in a state of intoxi-7 cation or drinking intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or using profane 8 or indecent language on any passenger car of his train or any street

4 of a misdemeanor.

[S. S., '15, § 2461-g1.]

SEC. 1024. Persistent violators—penalty.

1 Any person who, having once in any district court of this state 2 been duly convicted in a criminal action for violation of any of the 3 provisions of sections nine hundred fourteen to nine hundred forty-4 two inclusive and nine hundred sixty-two to one thousand twenty-five 5 inclusive, and who shall hereafter be indicted, tried and convicted 6 for a subsequent offense under the same law, shall be considered a 7 persistent violator of such law, and sentence for each such subsequent 8 violation of said law shall be imprisonment in the state penitentiary 9 or state reformatory for not more than one year.

[S. S., '15, § 2461-m.]

SEC. 1025. Evidence.

1 On the trial of any cause, under the provisions of the preceding 2 section, a duly authenticated copy of the former judgment in any 5 evidence upon the trial of said cause.

[S. S., '15, § 2461-n.]

SEC. 1026. Advertising sale of intoxicating liquors prohibited.

1 Any person who shall advertise for sale upon, or in, any street

10 through any of the above described methods, or in any other way or 11 manner display any such advertisement of the manufacture, sale, 12 keeping for sale, of any such liquors or liquids, or furnishing the name 13 of the person from whom, or the company or corporation from which, 14 or the place where, or the price at which, or the method by which any 15 such liquors or liquids may be purchased, obtained or procured; or 16 any person who shall publish or circulate, or cause to be published or 17 circulated any newspaper, magazine, periodical, circular, order blank, 18 price list, letter or other written or printed matter in which any ad-

[37 G. A., ch. 136, § 1.]

[37 G. A., ch. 136, § 2.]

CHAPTER 9.

HOUSES OF PROSTITUTION.

SECTION 1028. Houses of prostitution and equipment thereof de- clared a nuisance—injunction.

1 Whoever shall erect, establish, continue, maintain, use, own or 2 lease any building, erection or place used for the purpose of lewdness, 3 assignation or prostitution is guilty of a nuisance, and the building, 4 erection or place, or the ground itself, in or upon which such lewd-5 ness, assignation or prostitution is conducted, permitted or carried 6 on, continued or exists, and the furniture, fixtures, musical instru-7 ments, and movable property used in conducting or maintaining such 8 public nuisance, are also declared a nuisance and shall be enjoined and 9 abated as hereinafter provided.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h1.]

SEC. 1029. Injunction—procedure.

1 When a nuisance is kept, maintained or exists, as defined in this 2 chapter, the county attorney or any citizen of the county or any so-3 ciety, association or body, incorporated under the laws of this state, 4 may maintain an action in equity in the name of the state of Iowa, 5 upon the relation of such county attorney, citizen, or corporation to 6 perpetually enjoin said nuisance, the person or persons conducting or 7 maintaining the same from further conducting or maintaining the 8 same and the owner or agent of the building or ground upon which 9 said nuisance exists from further permitting such building or ground 10 or both to be so used. The defendants shall be served therein as in 11 other actions and in such action the court, or judge in vacation, shall 12 upon the presentation of a petition therefor alleging that the nuisance 13 complained of exists, allow a temporary writ of injunction without 14 bond, if the existence of such nuisance shall be made to appear to the 15 satisfaction of the court or judge by evidence in the form of affidavits, 16 depositions, oral testimony or otherwise as the complainant may elect, 17 unless the court or judge by previous order, shall have directed the 18 form and manner in which such evidence shall be presented. Where 19 a temporary injunction is prayed for, the court or judge in vacation, 20 on the application of plaintiff, may issue an ex parte restraining or-21 der, restraining the defendants and all other persons from removing 22 or in any manner interfering with the furniture, fixtures, musical 23 instruments and movable property used in conducting the alleged 24 nuisance, until the decision of the court or judge granting or refusing 25 such temporary injunction and until the further order of the court 26 thereon. The restraining order may be served by handing to and 27 leaving a copy of said order with any person in charge of said prop-

28 erty or residing in the premises or apartment wherein the same is 29 situated, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or 30 upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such prem-31 ises or apartment where such nuisance is alleged to be maintained, or 32 by both such delivery and posting. The officer serving such restrain-33 ing order shall forthwith make a return into court and inventory of the 34 personal property situated in and used in conducting or maintaining 35 such nuisance. Any violation of such restraining order shall be a con-36 tempt of court, and where such order is so posted, mutilation or re-37 moval thereof, while the same remains in force, shall be a contempt 38 of court, provided such posted order contains thereon or therein a 39 notice to that effect. Three days' notice in writing shall be given the 40 defendants of the hearing of the application for temporary injunction, 41 and if then continued at the instance of defendant, the temporary 42 writ, as prayed, shall be granted as a matter of course. Each def-43 endant so notified shall serve upon the complainant or his attorney 44 a verified answer on or before the date fixed in said notice for said 45 hearing, and such answer shall be filed with the clerk of the district 46 court of the county wherein such cause is triable, but the court may 47 allow additional time for so answering, providing such extension of 48 time shall not prevent the issuing of said temporary writ as prayed 49 for. The allegations of the answer shall be deemed to be traversed 50 without further pleading. When an injunction has been granted, it 51 shall be binding on the defendants throughout the judicial district in 52 which it was issued, and any violation of the provisions of the injunc-53 tion herein provided shall be a contempt as hereinafter provided.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h2.]

SEC. 1030. Action—when tried—reputation—dismissal—delay in trial.

1 The action when brought shall be noticed for and triable at the 2 first term of the court the same as other actions triable in the district 3 court of such county, and in such action evidence of the general repu-4 tation of the place shall be competent for the purpose of proving the 5 existence of said nuisance and shall be prima facie evidence of such 6 nuisance and of knowledge thereof and of acquiescence and participa-7 tion therein on the part of the owners, lessors, lessees, users and all 8 those in possession of or having charge of, as agent or otherwise, or 9 having any interest in any form of property used in conducting or 10 maintaining said nuisance. If the complaint is filed by a citizen or 11 a corporation, it shall not be dismissed except upon a sworn state-12 ment made by the complainant and his attorney, setting forth the 13 reasons why the action should be dismissed, and the dismissal ap-14 proved by the county attorney in writing or in open court. If the 15 court is of the opinion that the action ought not to be dismissed, he 16 may direct the county attorney to prosecute said action to judgment 17 at the expense of the county, and if the action is continued more than 18 one term of court, any citizen of the county or the county attorney 19 may be substituted for the complaining party and prosecute said ac-20 tion to judgment. If the action is brought by a citizen or a corpora-21 tion and the court finds there were no reasonable grounds or cause 22 for said action, the costs may be taxed to such citizen or corporation.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h3.]

SEC. 1031. Violation of injunction—procedure to establish—penalty.

1 In case of the violation of any injunction granted under the pro-2 visions of this chapter, or of a restraining order or the commission of 3 any contempt of court in proceedings under this chapter, the court, or 4 in vacation, a judge thereof, may summarily try and punish the offend-5 er. The proceedings shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the 6 court a complaint under oath, setting out and alleging facts constitut-7 ing such violation, upon which the court or judge shall cause a war-
 8 rant to issue, under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial 9 may be had upon affidavits or either party may demand the produc-10 tion and oral examination of the witnesses. A party found guilty of 11 contempt under the provisions of this chapter shall be punished by a 12 fine of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars 13 or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more 14 than six months or by both fine and imprisonment.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h4.]

SEC. 1032. Order of abatement—sale of property—building to be closed—contempt.

1 If the existence of the nuisance be admitted or established in an 2 action as provided in this chapter, or in a criminal proceeding in the 3 district court, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the 4 judgment in the case, which order shall direct the removal from the 5 building or place of all fixtures, furniture, musical instruments or 6 movable property used in conducting the nuisance, and shall direct 7 the sale of such in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under 8 execution, and shall direct the effectual closing of the building or place 9 against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period 10 of one year, unless sooner released as hereinafter provided.+ If any 11 person shall break and enter or use a building, erection or place so 12 directed to be closed, he shall be punished as for contempt as provided 13 in the preceding section. For removing and selling the movable prop-14 erty, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees 15 as he would for levying upon and selling like property, on execution, 16 and for closing the premises and keeping them closed, a reasonable 17 sum shall be allowed by the court.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h5.]

SEC. 1033. Duty of county attorney—proceeds of sale.

1 In case the existence of such nuisance is established in a criminal 2 proceeding in a court not having equitable jurisdiction, it shall be the 3 duty of the county attorney to proceed promptly under this chapter 4 to enforce the provisions and penalties thereof, and the finding of the 5 defendant guilty in such criminal proceedings, unless reversed or set 6 aside, shall be conclusive as against such defendant as to the exist-7 ence of the nuisance. All moneys collected under this chapter shall 8 be paid to the county treasurer. The proceeds of the sale of the per-9 sonal property as provided in the preceding section, shall be applied 10 in payment of the costs of the action and abatement or so much of 11 such proceeds as may be necessary, except as hereinafter provided.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h6.]

SEC. 1034. Release of property on filing bond.

1 If the owner of the premises in which said nuisance has been 2 maintained appears and pays all costs of the proceeding, and files a 3 bond with sureties to be approved by the court in the full value of 4 the property, to be ascertained by the court, or in vacation, by the 5 judge thereof, conditioned that he will immediately abate said nuisance 6 and prevent the same from being established or kept therein within a 7 period of one year thereafter, the court, or in vacation the judge, if 8 satisfied of his good faith, may order the premises closed or sought 9 to be closed under the order of abatement, to be delivered to said 10 owner, and said order of abatement canceled so far as the same may 11 relate to said real property. The release of the property under the 12 provisions of this section shall not release it from the injunction 13 herein provided against the property nor any of the defendants nor 14 from any judgment, lien, penalty or liability to which it may be sub-15 ject by law.

[S. S., '15, § 4944-h7.]

SEC. 1035. Assessment and distribution of tax.

1 When a permanent injunction issues against any person for main-2 taining a nuisance as herein defined, or against any owner or agent of 3 the building kept or used for the purpose prohibited by this chapter, 4 there shall be imposed upon said building and the ground upon which 7 hundred dollars. The imposing of said tax shall be made by the court 8 as a part of the proceeding, and the clerk of said court shall make 9 and certify a return of the imposition of said tax forthwith to the 10 county auditor, who shall enter the same as a tax upon the property

12 as and when other taxes are entered, and the same shall be and remain 13 a lien on the land upon which lien was imposed until fully paid; pro-14 vided that any such lien imposed while the tax books are in the hands 15 of the auditor shall be immediately entered therein. The payment of 16 said tax shall not relieve the persons or property from any other pen-17 alties provided by law. The provisions of the law relating to the 18 collection of taxes in this state, the delinquency thereof and sale of 19 property for taxes shall govern in the collection of the tax herein 20 prescribed in so far as the same are applicable, and the said tax col-

23 deficiency after the application thereto of the proceeds of the sale of 24 personal property as hereinbefore provided, and the remainder of said 25 tax together with the unexpended portion of the proceeds of the sale 26 of personal property shall be distributed in the same manner as fines 27 collected for the keeping of houses of ill fame, excepting that twenty 29 proceeds of the sale of said personal property as provided in this 30 chapter shall be paid by the treasurer to the attorney representing

 3 or agent of such building or ground whereon the same has been found 4 to exist, was not a party to such proceeding, nor appeared therein, 5 the said tax of three hundred dollars shall, nevertheless, be imposed 6 against the persons served or appearing and against the property as 7 in this chapter set forth. † The person in whose name the real estate 8 affected by the action stands on the books of the county auditor for 9 purposes of taxation shall be presumed to be the owner thereof, and 10 in case of unknown persons having or claiming any ownership, right, 11 title, or interest in property affected by the action, such may be made 12 parties to the action by designating them in the summons and com-13 plaint as "all other persons unknown claiming any ownership, right, 14 title, or interest in the property affected by the action" and service 15 thereon may be had by publishing such summons in the manner pre-16 scribed in section seventy-one hundred eighty-five. Any person hav-17 ing or claiming such ownership, right, title or interest, and any owner 18 or agent in behalf of himself and such owner may make, serve and 19 file his answer therein within twenty days after such service and 20 have trial of his rights in the premises by the court; and if said cause 21 has already proceeded to trial or to findings and judgment, the court 22 shall by order fix the time and place of such trial and shall modify, 23 add to or confirm such findings and judgment as the case may require.
 24 Other parties to said action shall not be affected thereby.

CHAPTER 12.

FIRE ESCAPES.

SECTION 1061. Protection against fire—means of escape—when basement counted as a story.

1 All buildings, structures or inclosures of three or more stories
2 and such other buildings of a less number of stories as are included 3 by law and which buildings are not equipped with fire escapes or 4 which buildings may hereafter be erected or the fire escapes of which 5 are renewed or in need of renewal, shall be equipped with such protection 6 against fire and means of escape as is by law provided. The 7 word "building" used in the law relating to fire escapes and protection 8 against fire and means of escape from buildings shall be held to 9 include all of the structures or inclosures embraced in this section or 10 referred to more specifically in the law relating to fire escapes, protection 11 against fire and means of escape from buildings. When a basement 12 is five feet or over above ground it shall be counted as a story.

[S. S., '15, § 4999-a6.]

SEC. 1062. Number of fire escapes required—where placed.

1 Every building, structure or inclosure of three or more stories
2 and every schoolhouse of two stories and not provided with two inside 3 stairways located approximately at each end of the hallway in 4 the second story and every structure having a stage, and every theater 5 or opera house of more than one story, or having balconies or galleries, 6 shall have the number of fire escapes of the kind prescribed by 7 law, which minimum number shall be based upon the following formula:
8

9 $\text{Number of fire escapes} = C \times P.$

10 P equals the average maximum number of persons on any story 11 above the first story having the largest number; such number to be 12 fixed and determined according to the purpose for which the building 13 is used.

14 C is a coefficient and is fixed and shall be taken for the various 15 classes of buildings as follows:

- 16 1. Buildings having wooden or combustible walls, C equals .020.
- 17 2. Buildings having brick or noncombustible walls with combustible 18 interior, C equals .014.
- 19 3. Buildings having brick or noncombustible walls and noncombustible 20 roof and slow burning construction, C equals .012.
- 21 4. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, C equals .007.
- 22 5. Buildings of wooden or combustible walls equipped with efficient 23 water sprinkler system, C equals .014.
- 24 6. Buildings having brick or noncombustible walls with com-

25 bustible interior equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C 26 equals .008.

27 7. Buildings having brick or noncombustible walls and noncom-
28 bustible roof and slow burning construction equipped with efficient
29 water sprinkler system, C equals .006.

30 8. Fireproof buildings equipped with efficient water sprinkler 31 system, C equals .003.

32 When the result of the said formula is one or any fraction thereof
33 the number of escapes shall be equal to one. The number of escapes 34 above one shall be a number sufficient to cover the number indicated 35 by the formula, including any fraction as unity, except when such 36 fraction shall be thirty-three hundredths or less, in which case the 37 fraction may be dropped if permitted by the inspector.

38 The first fire escape required by law shall be placed as far as 39 possible from the existing inside stairway or exits to the lower floors 40 of the building, taking into account the hazard and the path or route 41 of access to the escape from such stairway.

42 The distance from any inside stairway or exit to the lower floor 43 to the nearest fire escape shall not exceed two hundred feet by way of 44 the path or route of access to such fire escape from such stairway or 45 exit.

46 Additional fire escapes to those otherwise provided by law shall 47 be provided wherever it is necessary to pass within twenty feet of 48 any stairway or elevator shaft from any portion of the building more 49 than twenty feet from such stairway or shaft to reach the fire escape 50 required by the other provisions of law and where there are peculiar, 51 unusual or extreme hazards additional fire escapes may be required 52 by those authorized by law to regulate and fix the number and re-53 quirements of fire escapes.

54 But if by reason of the height of buildings or by reason of many 55 or all stories above the second story of such buildings having near the 56 average maximum of persons of any one floor above the first, such 57 buildings shall be equipped with a sufficient number of fire escapes to 58 permit the exit of such average maximum number of persons occupy-59 ing such buildings above the first story, permanently, or temporarily 60 in the course of business within the following periods of time:

61 Buildings with wooden or combustible walls, two minutes; build-62 ings having brick or noncombustible walls with combustible interior, 63 three minutes; buildings having brick or noncombustible walls and 64 noncombustible roof and slow burning interior construction, four 65 minutes; buildings of fireproof construction throughout, fifteen min-66 utes; or a less period of time if hazard of merchantable contents of 67 such building may so require; and in estimating the period of time 68 required the rate of descent on the fire escapes shall not be taken in 69 excess of one and five-tenths feet of vertical distance, or height per 70 second, when said fire escapes are fully loaded, which rate of descent 71 shall be estimated to permit the exit of not to exceed one person per 72 second; but the time of complete exit as herein provided may be in-73 creased where efficient sprinkler systems are installed, such increase

5 acts of those representing themselves to be his agents, or who is guilty 6 of fraudulent representations as to his skill and ability, or who is 7 guilty of gross unprofessional conduct, or for incompetency, or for 8 habitual intoxication or drug habit; or if the certificate has been 54 mark upon the manufactured product, or the receptacles containing 55 the same shall be furnished to those entitled to the use thereof by the 56 state dairy and food commissioner at actual cost.

57 The said executive committee is hereby directed and authorized to 58 secure a copyright under the laws of the United States for trademarks, 59 and copyrights for such trademark for butter, and the expenses 60 thereof shall be paid for from the funds appropriated for the use of 61 the state dairy and food department.

62 It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association

3 "food," as used herein, shall include all articles used for or entering 4 into the composition of food, drink, confectionery or condiment, by 5 man or domestic animals, whether simple, blended, mixed or com-
6 pound. The term "misbranded," as used herein, shall apply to all 7 articles of food, or articles which enter into the composition of food, 8 the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or 9 device regarding such article, or the ingredients or substances con-10 tained therein, which shall be false or misleading in any particular, 11 and to any food product which is falsely branded as to the state, ter-12 ritory or country in which it is manufactured or produced.
- 13 For the purpose of this chapter an article of food shall be deemed 14 to be "misbranded":
- 15 1. If it be offered for sale under the specific name of another 16 article.
 - 17 2. If it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the pur-

Labels required by this chapter shall be distinctly printed in the English language in legible type no smaller than eight-point heavy gothic caps. Such label shall be placed upon the outside of the package and shall contain the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer or dealer. The term "blend" as used herein shall be construed to mean a mixture of like substances. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring or compelling proprietors or manufacturers of proprietary foods which contain no unwholesome ingredients to disclose their trade formulas, except in so far as the provisions of this chapter may require to secure freedom from adulteration or misbranding.

5. If any person shall sell, offer or expose for sale any food in package form if the quantity of the contents be not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count; but reasonable variations shall be permitted, and tolerances and also exemptions as to small packages shall be established by rules and regulations made by the state dairy and food commissioner.

 11 a license, then the expense of the consultation shall be paid by the 12 state board of agriculture out of funds collected for registration fees, 13 or if three or any two of the experts declare the stallion or jack not

 8 tary of the state board of agriculture, who shall issue a certified copy 9 of said certificate of soundness without charge to said importer which 10 shall serve as a temporary permit to offer said stallion for public

1 Any stallion or jack having successfully passed veterinary exam-

 3 permanent state certificate of soundness. The last examination must 5 shall be a graduate or licensed veterinarian, and these two shall 6 appoint a third graduate or licensed veterinarian who shall act with 7 them, and if upon examination and proof furnished, all three or any 8 misrepresents such stallion by false pedigree no lien shall be obtained.

[S., '13, § 2341-s.]

 5 possession of said progeny and sell the same for nonpayment of 6 service fee by giving the owner of said progeny ten days' written 7 notice, which notice shall contain a copy of the affidavit and a full 8 description of the progeny to be sold, the time and hour when, and the 9 place at which the sale will take place, and posting for the same length

[C., '51, §§ 921, 923; R., '60, §§ 1556, 1558; C., '73, §§ 1480,

1 As used in this chapter, the term "owner," used with reference 2 to animals, means anyone entitled to the present possession thereof, 3 the one having care or charge of them, and the person holding the 4 legal title to them, and as to land, the person having title thereto, or 5 the lessee or occupant thereof; the term "stock" means cattle, horses, 6 mules and asses; the term "animals" means all animals which may be 7 distrained under this chapter; and "trespassing stock or animals" 8 means those unlawfully upon land, or running at large contrary to law 9 or police regulations.

[C., '97, § 2311.]

SEC. 1822. Male animals.

1 The owner of any stallion, jack, bull, boar or buck shall restrain 2 the same, and any person may take possession of any such animal 3 running at large in the county in which such person resides, or in 4 which he occupies or uses real estate, and give notice thereof to any 5 constable in the county where taken, who shall sell the animal so taken 6 at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, having given ten 7 days' notice of the time and place of sale, describing the property, by 8 posting the same in three public places in the township wherein such 9 animal was found at large. Out of the proceeds of sale he shall pay 10 all costs and any damage done by said animal, to be investigated and 11 determined by him, and pay the remainder into the county treasury 12 for the use of the county. If legal proof be made to the county 13 auditor by the owner of said animal of his right thereto at any time 14 within twelve months from the sale, he shall order the proper amount 15 to be paid to the owner out of any money in the treasury not other-16 wise appropriated. If the owner, or any person for him, shall, on or 17 before the day of sale, pay the costs thus far made, and all damages, 18 to be determined by the constable if the parties cannot agree, and 19 make satisfactory proof of his ownership, the constable shall release 20 the animal to him.

[C., '51, § 894; R., '60, § 1522; C., '73, § 1447; C., '97, § 2312.]

SEC. 1823. Distraint damage feasant—recovery.

1 Any animal trespassing upon land fenced as provided by law may 2 be distrained by the owner of such land, and held for all damages done 3 thereon by it, unless it escaped from adjoining land in consequence of 4 the neglect of such landowner to maintain his part of a lawful parti-
 5 tion fence. The owner of the land from which such animal escaped 6 shall also be liable for such damages if it escaped therefrom in conse-

7 quence of his neglect to maintain his part of a lawful partition fence, 8 or if the trespassing animal was not lawfully upon his land, and he 9 had knowledge thereof. If there be no lawful partition fence, and the 10 line thereof has not been assigned either by the fence viewers or by 11 agreement of the parties, any animal trespassing across such partition 12 line shall not be distrained, nor shall there be any liability therefor.

[C., '51, §§ 913, 914; R., '60, §§ 1548, 1549; C., '73, §§ 1448,
 1449; C., '97, § 2313.]

1 Swine, sheep and goats at all times, and, during the time and as 2 required by a police regulation adopted according to law, stock shall 3 be restrained from running at large. Animals thus prohibited from 4 running at large, when trespassing on land, or a road adjoining 5 thereto, may be distrained by the owner of such land, and held for 6 damages done by them, and for the costs provided in this chapter; but 7 stock shall not be considered as running at large so long as it is upon 8 unimproved lands and under the immediate care and efficient control 9 of the owner, or upon the public roads for travel or driving thereon
 10 under like care and control. But where a partition fence is required 11 by law to be erected or maintained, stock escaping across such parti-12 tion line shall be dealt with as provided in the preceding section.

[R., '60, § 287; C., '73, §§ 1446, 1448, 1452; C., '97, § 2314.]

SEC. 1825. Recovery of damages.

1 Instead of distraining trespassing stock or animals, the injured 2 person may recover all damages caused thereby in an action against 3 the owner thereof, and may join therein the owner of the land from 4 which it escaped, if he is liable therefor. If distrained stock or ani-5 mals escaped or are released without the consent of the distraining 6 party, he may recover his damages as above provided, with costs, 7 and the costs of distraint made prior to such escape or release.

[C., '51, § 913; R., '60, § 1548; C., '73, § 1448; C., '97, § 2315.]

SEC. 1826. Apportionment of damages.

1 If there is more than one owner of distrained stock or animals,
 2 each may pay his ratable share of the damages and costs, and release
 3 his animals. If the injured party elects to sue therefor, he may join 4 in one action all or any of such owners who have not paid their propo-5 tion of the damages and costs.

[C., '73, § 1452; C., '97, § 2316.]

SEC. 1827. Assessment of damages—sale.

1 Within twenty-four hours after an animal has been distrained, 2 Sunday not included, the person distraining, or his agent, shall notify 3 the owner of the animal thereof, and, if he fails to satisfy the damages 4 and costs, such person shall within twenty-four hours after such notice 5 to the owner, verbally or in writing, request the township trustees to 6 appear upon the premises to view and assess the damages. When two 7 or more trustees have met, one of them having previously informed 8 the owner of the animal of the time and place of meeting, they shall 9 assess the damages and costs. If the owner of the distrained animal 10 refuses or neglects for two days thereafter to pay the amount thus 11 assessed, one of said trustees shall put up in three conspicuous places

12 in the township notices, describing the property, and naming a time 13 and place of sale, which place shall be where the property is distrained, 14 and time not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, that 15 said property will be sold between the hours of one and three o'clock 16 in the afternoon. At the time and place of sale, one of said trustees 17 shall offer for sale and sell the property at public outcry to the high-18 est bidder for cash, but no sale shall be made after having realized a 19 sufficient sum with which to pay the damages and costs, any remain-20 ing animals unsold to be at once returned to the owner, and also the 21 surplus remaining, if any, out of any sold. If for any reason a trust-22 tee can not sit, the remaining trustees may appoint any disinterested 23 citizen having the qualifications of a juror to act in his place.

[C., '51, §§ 916, 918, 919; R., '60, §§ 1551, 1553, 1554; C., '73,
 § 1454; C., '97, § 2317.]

SEC. 1828. Assessment made—appeal.

1 The trustees shall make their assessment in writing, and file the 2 same with the township clerk, which shall be recorded by him. Any 3 person aggrieved by the action of the trustees may appeal to the 4 district court of the county. The appeal bond, conditioned to pay all 5 costs and damages, shall be filed with and the sureties approved by

1 Patients shall be sent to the state hospital and convicts shall be 2 sent to the penitentiary or reformatory located in the district embrac-

 4 transfer the inmate in any hospital, or the convict in any penitentiary 5 or reformatory, to another hospital or to the other penitentiary or 6 reformatory, at the expense of the state, and shall see that proper

7 record thereof is made at the hospitals and penitentiaries, and in the 8 office of the board.

[S., '13, § 2727-a26.]

SEC. 1864. Records—transfer—managing officer.

1 The board shall keep in its office, accessible only to the members, 2 secretary and proper clerks, except by the consent of the board, or 3 on the order of a judge or court of record, a record showing the resi-4 dence, sex, age, nativity, occupation, civil condition and date of en-5 trance or commitment of every person, patient, inmate, or convict in 6 the several institutions governed by the board, the date of discharge 7 of every such person from the institution, and whether such discharge 8 was final, and the condition of the person at the time he left the insti-9 tution. The record shall also indicate if a person is transferred from 10 one institution to another, and to what institution; and if dead, the 11 date and cause of death. This information shall be furnished to the 12 board by the several institutions, and such other obtainable facts as 13 the board may from time to time require. It is the duty of the man-14 aging officer of each institution, who shall be named by the board, 15 within ten days after the commitment or entrance of a person, patient, 16 inmate or convict to the institution, to cause a true copy of his entrance 17 record to be made and forwarded to the office of the board of control.
18 When a patient or inmate leaves, or is discharged, transferred, or dies 19 in any institution, the superintendent or person in charge shall, within 20 ten days thereafter, send such information to the office of the board, 21 all of which information shall be furnished on forms which the board 22 may prescribe.

[S., '13, § 2727-a22.]

SEC. 1865. Rules—additional duties.

1 The board of control is authorized to make its own rules for the 2 proper execution of its powers, and may require the performance of 3 additional duties by the officers of the several institutions, so as to 4 fully enforce the requirements, intents and purposes of this chapter, 5 and particularly so much thereof as relates to the making of the esti-6 mates and furnishing proper proofs of the expenditures or use of all 7 stocks of subsistence and supplies.

[S., '13, § 2727-a48.]

SEC. 1866. Triplicate estimates—purchase of supplies.

1 The superintendent, warden, or other chief executive officer, as 2 may be designated by the board of control, shall on or before the 3 fifteenth day of each month, cause to be prepared triplicate estimates 4 in minute detail, including estimated cost of each item, of all the ex-5 penditures required for the institution for the ensuing month. Such 6 estimate shall also include a statement of the source and amount of 7 all the revenues received by the said institution and accounted for to 8 the state treasurer on the first day of each month. Two of said tripli-9 cate estimates shall be sent to the office of the board, and the third 10 shall be kept by said superintendent, warden, or other chief executive 11 officer. The board may revise the estimates for supplies or other 12 expenditures, either as to quantity, quality or the estimated cost 13 thereof, and shall certify that it has carefully examined the same, and 14 that the articles contained in such estimate, as approved or revised 15 by it, are actually required for the use of said institution. When the 16 estimates have been so certified and revised, a copy of such revised 17 estimate, duly certified, shall be sent to the institution, and another 18 copy retained by the board. The certified copy sent to the institution 19 shall be sufficient authority to the management of the institution to 20 purchase the supplies enumerated in said estimate, at prices not to 21 exceed those therein named, and not otherwise. Said supplies shall 22 be so purchased as to permit at least thirty days' time to pay therefor, 23 and the steward, clerk, or other officer of the institution, designated 24 by the board, shall require itemized bills to be rendered by the persons 25 who furnish supplies, in duplicate, for all purchases, whether made 26 upon contract or otherwise, which shall be in the following form:

SEC. 1867. Contracts.

1 Contracts may be entered into under the direction of the board 2 of control by the proper officers of one or more of the institutions for 3 staples and other articles of supplies, as may be found feasible by 4 the board for the institutions to purchase in bulk for use or consump-5 tion for periods longer than thirty days. Such contracts shall not, 6 however, be made except in conformity with the provisions of this 7 chapter relating to estimates. If thought advisable, such contracts 8 may be executed by the representative of one institution, who may be 9 designated by the board to act for other institutions.

[S., '13, § 2727-a49.]

SEC. 1868. Purchase of supplies between institutions.

1 Without complying with the provisions of this chapter, requiring 2 estimates to be made, the board of control is empowered to direct the 3 purchase of materials, or any articles of supply, for any institution 4 subject to its management, from any other institution under its con-5 trol, which purchase shall be made at the reasonable market value of 6 the commodity so purchased, the value thereof to be ascertained and 7 fixed by the said board, and payments therefor shall be made as be-8 tween institutions in the manner provided by law for payments for 9 supplies.

[S., '13, § 2727-a47.]

SEC. 1869. Purchase of supplies—rules and regulations.

1 It shall be the duty of the board to make specific rules and regu-
2 lations respecting the manner in which supplies shall be purchased 3 and contracts made for the several institutions, so as to insure the 4 competition and publicity necessary to secure the economical manage-5 ment of each institution. Jobbers, or others desirous of selling sup-6 plies to an institution shall, by filing with the chief executive officer 7 of such institution, or with the secretary of the board, a memorandum 8 showing their address and business, be afforded an opportunity to 9 compete for the furnishing of the supplies under such limitations and 10 rules as the board may prescribe. In purchasing all supplies, local 11 dealers and Iowa producers shall have the preference, when such can 12 be given without loss to the state. When samples are furnished the 13 same shall be properly marked and preserved for six months after 14 purchase of such merchandise.

[S. S., '15, § 2727-a50.]

SEC. 1870. Uniform system of records and accounts.

1 It shall prescribe the form of records and the kind of accounts to 2 be made and kept by the institutions heretofore specified. In pro-3 viding for the books of accounts the said board shall establish as 4 uniform a system as possible, compelling similar institutions to keep 5 similar books in the financial operations of such institutions; and the 6 board shall institute and require the keeping of a perfected system 7 of accounts, and requisitions showing the purchase, storing and con-8 sumption of supplies for subsistence, construction or other purposes.
9 For the purpose of establishing said system of accounts, the board is 10 authorized to employ competent and expert help, and to inaugurate 11 in the institutions the most modern and complete method of accounts.
12 The board shall determine the kinds and quality of provisions and 13 supplies for the several institutions subject to its charge.

[S., '13, § 2727-a14.]

SEC. 1871. Blanks and forms.

1 The board of control shall formulate and furnish to each insti-
2 tution proper blanks and forms for all statements and accounts neces-3 sary to furnish the information required of such institution.

[S., '13, § 2727-a45.]

SEC. 1872. State architect—expenses—assistant draftsmen.

1 The board may employ an architect who shall be skilled in the 2 most improved method of sanitation, and competent to prepare plans,

3 specifications, estimates and details for the buildings, betterments, 4 and every item of equipment which may be necessary in any of the 5 institutions, whose duty shall be to perform the work usually done 6 by architects in preparing plans and specifications, and supervising 7 the work of construction on all the buildings, betterments and improve-8 ments done at institutions under the control of the board. Said archi-9 tect shall also perform such other labor as may be designated by the 10 board, and shall receive a compensation to be by the board fixed, which, 11 including expenses, shall in no event exceed three thousand dollars 12 per annum.

13 In cases of sufficient magnitude, the board may secure the advice 14 of a consulting architect, or may procure plans and specifications and 15 drawings from other architects, but the expense thereof shall not ex-16 ceed fifteen hundred dollars in any one year. The state architect 17 shall be entitled to receive in addition to the compensation for his 18 services fixed by the board, his necessary traveling expenses within 19 the state when engaged in official business, and the board may allow 20 him compensation for assistant draftsmen for services performed for 21 the state when, in the opinion of the board, such services are neces-22 sary; provided, however, that the total amount allowed for traveling 23 expenses and draftsmen shall not exceed two thousand dollars in any 24 biennial period.

[S., '13, § 2727-a23.]

SEC. 1873. Plans and specifications—limitation—penalty.

1 It shall prepare plans for all betterments, improvements or build-2 ings costing more than one thousand dollars for which it may recom-
 3 mend an appropriation. When an appropriation for any amount has 4 been made, there shall be no expenditure thereof until the board has 5 secured suitable plans and specifications prepared by a competent 6 architect, and accompanied by a detailed statement of the amount, 7 quality and description of all the material and labor required for the 8 completion of said structure; and no plan or plans shall be adopted, 9 and no betterments, improvements or buildings constructed, that con-10 template the expenditure of more money for completion than the 11 amount appropriated by the legislature therefor, unless exempted 12 from the provisions of this section by the act making such appro-13 priation.

14 In no event shall the board direct or permit an expenditure for 15 any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated by law, or contem-16 plated by the statute, and the members of the board, its officers and 17 agents, are subject to the provisions of sections forty, six hundred 18 eighty, six hundred eighty-one, seven hundred twenty-three, seven 19 hundred twenty-five, seven hundred twenty-six, eighty-nine hundred 20 sixty and eighty-nine hundred sixty-one, to the same extent as if said 21 named persons were particularly specified in said sections. The viola-22 tion of any of the provisions of either of the sections above named by 23 any of such named officers or persons, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, 24 and on conviction the offender shall be fined in any sum not less than 25 two hundred dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars, in the dis-26 cretion of the court, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding 27 one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

[S., '13, § 2727-a17.]

SEC. 1874. Letting of contracts—labor of inmates utilized.

1 Contracts for the erection, repairs or improvements of buildings,
2 grounds, or properties of the institutions under charge of this board, 3 and for which appropriations have been or may be made by the legis-4 lature, must be let for the whole or for any part of the work to be 5 performed, by the chief executive officer of the institution, subject, 6 however, to the same rules and regulations as herein provided for the 7 furnishing of estimates by said institution to, and the approval and 8 revision thereof by the board of control.

9 If the cost of the erection or betterment is not in excess of three 10 hundred dollars, the board may permit the management of the insti-11 tution to construct the same by day's labor, without contracting the 12 work. All plans or specifications for the said erections, repairs and 13 improvements, shall be prepared by the architect of the board, under 14 the board's direction. The board shall determine to what extent and 15 for what length of time, and by what means advertisements are to be 16 inserted in newspapers for proposals for the said erections, repairs 17 or improvements. All contracts shall be awarded by the management 18 of the institution to the lowest responsible bidder, subject to the pro-19 visions of this chapter, and the approval of the board, prior to the 20 execution of the contract. The management of the institution has 21 the right to reject any and all bids, and to readvertise, upon the ap-22 proval of the board. A preliminary deposit of money or certified 23 check upon a solvent bank in such amount as the board may prescribe 24 shall be required as an evidence of good faith, upon all proposals for 25 the construction of said buildings, repairs and improvements, which 26 deposit or certified check shall be held by the management of the insti-27 tution under the direction of the board. The provision of this sec-28 tion, which requires all work to be let by contract, shall not be 29 mandatory as to the labor on the construction work at the peniten-30 tiaries, but the board shall establish such rules, and enforce the pro-31 visions of this chapter so that the construction work at the peniten-32 tiaries shall be performed in a manner agreeable thereto, with the 33 strictest accountability exacted in the consumption of all supplies for 34 construction purposes, and in the expenditure of the public moneys.

35 On proper representations the board is authorized to so construct 36 the erections, betterments and improvements at other institutions that 37 the work of inmates may be utilized, if it is found to be advantageous 38 to the state, and a substantial saving made, but the attempt to use 39 such labor shall not permit a substantial departure from the require-40 ments of this section; and in no case shall any expenditure be made 41 except on estimates submitted to and approved by the board, as pro-42 vided herein. No payment shall be authorized for construction pur-43 poses until satisfactory proof has been furnished to the board of 44 control, by the proper officer or supervising architect, that the con-45 tract has been complied with by the parties; and all payments shall 46 be made in a manner similar to that in which the current expenses 47 of the several institutions are paid.

[S., '13, § 2727-a51.]

SEC. 1875. Books and accounts.

1 It shall keep at its office a proper and complete system of books
2 and accounts with each institution, which shall show every expenditure 3 authorized and made thereat and said books shall exhibit an account

4 of each extraordinary or special appropriation made by the legislature, 5 with every item of expenditure thereof.

[S., '13, § 2727-a13.]

1 The board of control is hereby authorized and empowered to estab-
2 lish such industries as it may deem advisable at the penitentiary, and 3 at the men's reformatory, and at or in connection with any of the 4 penal, reformatory or other institutions under its jurisdiction, and 5 the inmates may render service as herein limited and defined, at or 6 away from any of said institutions with the consent of said board of 7 control, but no service shall be rendered by any such inmate for any 8 person, firm or corporation at a less wage than is paid free labor for 9 a like service or its equivalent, and when so rendering service they 10 shall be held to be under the jurisdiction of the warden or superin-11 tendent of the institution to which they are committed, and any escape 12 shall be punished as provided in sections ninety hundred one to ninety 13 hundred four, inclusive, even though said inmate is at the time work-14 ing under the honor system.

[S. S., '15, § 5718-a11.]

SEC. 1877. Compensation to inmates—distribution.

1 When services are rendered by any inmate at any institution un-
2 der the supervision and jurisdiction of the board of control, the board 3 of control may, when practicable, allow such inmate compensation 4 which shall not exceed the amount paid to free labor for a like service 5 or its equivalent, less such amount that the state is put to for main-6 tenance as the board of control may deem equitable, and in addition 7 to deducting an amount to defray the cost of maintenance, the board 8 of control may also deduct an amount sufficient to pay all or a part of 9 the costs taxed to any inmate by reason of his commitment.

10 When the board of control deducts an amount from the earnings 11 of any inmate for the purpose of defraying the costs taxed to such in-12 mate by reason of his commitment, said board shall forward the 13 amount to the clerk of the district court, or proper official, and receive 14 his receipt therefor; provided further, that whenever money is earned 15 by an inmate under the provisions of this section, the board of control 16 may, when deemed advisable, pay all or any part of the same direct 17 to the husband or wife or any other member of the family of such 18 inmate dependent upon him or her for support, or deposit the same 19 to the account of such inmate until released, or allow said inmate a 20 certain per cent thereof for his personal benefit, and make all rules 21 and regulations in relation thereto, including the right to deposit funds 22 in any bank to the credit of such inmate and require such bank to pay 23 interest on any money so deposited by or for such inmate at rates not 24 to exceed the current rate of interest paid for similar deposits.

[S. S., '15, § 5718-a11a.]

SEC. 1878. Quarterly conferences.

1 A consultation and conference of the superintendents, wardens 2 and chief executive officers shall be held quarterly with the board at 3 its office in Des Moines, at a time to be designated by the board, at 4 which meeting all matters concerning the government and management 5 of the institutions shall be considered and discussed, and the chairman

6 of the board of control shall preside at such meetings, and full min-

5 stitutions, read papers at the quarterly conferences of the chief execu-6 tive officers of the state institutions under the management of said 7 board. The papers so read shall have especial application to the ob-8 jects and work of one or more of said institutions.

[S., '13, § 2727-a69.]

SEC. 1880. How and when payable.

1 The money hereby appropriated shall be payable on the first day 2 of July of each year and shall be paid from the state treasury as the

[S., '13, § 2727-a70.]

SEC. 1881. Officers—term—removal—qualifications.

1 It shall be the duty of the board to appoint a superintendent, 2 warden or other chief executive officer of each institution under the 3 control of the board. The tenure of office of said officers shall be four 4 years from the date of their appointment. The superintendent, war-5 den, or other chief executive officer of any of the institutions named, 6 may be removed by the board for misconduct, neglect of duty, incom-7 petency, or other proper cause showing his inability or refusal to prop-8 erly perform the duties of his office, but such removal shall be had only 9 after an opportunity is given such person to be heard before such 10 board upon preferred written charges, but the removal, when made, 11 shall be final. The officers of the several institutions shall have the 12 qualifications, and perform the duties now imposed and required of 13 them by the statute, except as the same are modified or abrogated in 14 this chapter. In case there is an alleged or seeming conflict between 15 the powers of the superintendents or other executive officers and the 16 board of control, the determination of such question by the board shall 17 be final.

7 of an institution in the selection of any employee or assistant. The 8 said chief executive officer may, at his pleasure, discharge any person

 2 governor, the annual or monthly salaries of all the officers and em-3 ployees in the several institutions, except such as are fixed by the gen-
 4 eral assembly. The board shall classify the officers and employees 5 into grades, and the salaries and wages to be paid in each grade shall 6 be uniform in similar institutions in the state. The schedule of wages
 7 so fixed shall become operative on July first of each year. The salaries 8 and wages shall be included in the monthly estimates as provided in 9 this chapter, and paid in the same manner as other expenses of the 10 several institutions.

11 Officers entitled to food supplies for their families shall receive 12 such allowances from the supplies furnished for the patients and in-13 mates of the institution. The word "family" shall be construed to mean 14 only the wife and minor children of an officer.

 3 tion under its control who may be charged with the custody or control 4 of any money or property belonging to the state, and who is not now 5 required by statute to give bond, to give an official bond, properly 6 conditioned, and signed by sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by 7 the board, which bond shall be approved by the board, and filed in 8 the office of secretary of state.

1 The stewards of the hospitals for the insane, the clerks of the 11 present monthly to the board of control an abstract of all expenditures, 12 together with the accounts and pay rolls for the preceding month, 13 and shall examine and register all goods delivered, according to their 14 amount and quality, and if found to correspond with the samples, and 15 in good order, and correct in charge, he shall certify the bills as herein 16 provided. He shall quarterly take an account of the subsistence sup-17 plies and stock in his possession and under his control, and transmit 18 a copy of such invoice, duly verified, to the board; and at the close of 19 the biennial period he shall make a consolidated report of all pur-20 chases, and all other transactions of his department, to the state 21 board. If it shall appear that there is any shortage in the stores of 22 the institution, the board shall appoint a committee from its number 23 to investigate the cause thereof, and if it shall appear that the said 24 shortage resulted from unavoidable loss, without the negligence of 25 such steward, clerk or other designated officer, then such officer shall 26 be credited therewith; otherwise, he shall be charged with the amount 27 thereof, and shall be required to pay the same into the state treasury 28 within sixty days after the determination of the loss. If default shall 9 in superintendent's department, ready-made clothing, dry goods, pro-

14 to the board.

[S., '13, § 2727-a32.]

SEC. 1888. Monthly statement—affidavit.

1 The steward, clerk or other officer who may be designated by 2 the board, shall prepare a monthly statement showing purchases and 3 expenditures of every kind for the preceding month, which shall be 4 signed by such officer, approved by the chief executive officer of the 5 institution, and filed with the board on a day certain to be fixed by 6 said board. Attached thereto shall be the affidavit of such steward, 7 clerk, or officer, as the case may be, stating that the goods and other 8 articles therein specified were purchased and received by him or un-9 der his direction at the institution, and were purchased at a fair cash 10 market price, on credit not exceeding thirty days, and that neither 11 he nor any person in his behalf had any pecuniary or other interest 12 in the purchases made, or received any pecuniary or other benefit 13 therefrom, directly or indirectly, by commission, percentage, deduc-14 tions, or in any other manner whatever, and that the articles con-15 tained in such bill conformed in all respects to the invoiced goods re-16 ceived and ordered by him, or the samples from which the goods were 17 purchased, both in quality and quantity. If any invoice or statement, 18 or part thereof, is found objectionable, the board shall indorse its 19 disapproval thereon, with its reason therefor, and return it to the 20 management of the institution, and when the matter complained of is 4 culosis.

[S., '13, § 2727-a75.]

SEC. 1930. Control.

1 The board of control of state institutions shall have the same
2 power and control over said institution as is now given it with ref-3 erence to the several institutions mentioned in chapter one, title nine, 4 and said chapter shall apply to and govern said sanatorium in every 5 respect in so far as it is not in conflict with the provisions of this 6 chapter.

[S., '13, § 2727-a77.]

SEC. 1931. Superintendent, officers and employees.

1 The officers and employees of said sanatorium shall consist of a 2 superintendent and such other officers and employees to be appointed 3 as the board of control of state institutions shall deem necessary for 4 the proper operation of said institution. Said superintendent shall 5 be a well-educated physician with an experience of at least five years 6 in actual practice of medicine. Said superintendent shall be appointed 7 by the board of control of state institutions for the term of four years 8 and shall receive such salary as the said board may fix, not exceeding 9 twenty-five hundred dollars per annum.

[S., '13, § 2727-a76; 38 G. A., ch. 171, § 1.]

SEC. 1932. Duties of superintendent.

1 In addition to the duties which may now be imposed by law, the 2 superintendent shall oversee and secure the individual treatment and 3 professional care of each and every patient residing in the sanatorium.
4 He shall prescribe rules subject to the approval of the board of con-5 trol and not inconsistent with the statutes for the application, exam-6 ination, reception and government of patients and their discharge, 7 and shall keep a full record of their condition and prospects. He shall 8 endeavor to stimulate the organization and assist in the establishment 9 of hospitals or dispensaries, in various counties or large centers of 4 thereupon furnish the necessary admission blanks. Such applicant 5 shall thereafter secure a thorough examination from his attending 6 physician, who shall for this purpose be a physician regularly licensed 7 to practice medicine in Iowa and who shall examine said applicant

8 fully with a view of ascertaining whether he is afflicted with pul-

10 blanks which are furnished for that purpose and shall mail the same 11 to the superintendent of the sanatorium.

12 If from this blank and other papers which said applicant shall 13 be required to furnish it shall appear that the applicant is a bona fide 14 resident of this state and in all other respects under the law entitled 15 to admission, he shall notify the applicant and shall receive the ap-

17 available he shall record the name in the order in which the applica-

19 ever there is room.

20 In case it shall appear from the application or from the report 21 of the physician that the applicant does not come within the provi-
22 sions of the law, or in case the superintendent shall be in possession 23 of reliable information which convinces him that the applicant is not 24 entitled to the benefits of this chapter, he shall notify the applicant 25 that he can not be admitted as a patient. If, however, the superin-26 tendent after receiving the report of the physician is in doubt as to 27 whether it is a case of pulmonary tuberculosis, he shall personally 28 examine the applicant in case he presents himself at the institution 29 for that purpose.

5 managing said department. Whenever there shall not be sufficient 6 room to accommodate all applicants qualified for admission preference 7 shall be given to those most in need of the care of the institution and 8 whose condition is most dangerous to the public. Patients may be 9 transferred from the department for incipient cases to the department

1 In case an applicant who has been authorized to be received as a 2 patient in the sanatorium is without means to pay for the transporta-3 tion and other necessary expenses to and from, including treatment 4 at the institution, and such fact is duly certified to by the board of 5 health of the city or incorporated town where the applicant resides, 6 or by the majority of the township trustees in case the applicant re-7 sides outside of a city or incorporated town, and the superintendent is 8 satisfied that such is the fact, then such expense shall be paid by the 9 state out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropri-10 ated after the same is certified by said superintendent and approved 11 by the board of control.

[S., '13, § 2727-a84.]

SEC. 1936. Per capita allowance.

1 The board of control of state institutions shall fix the per capita 2 allowance which may be charged by the said institution for the care, 3 treatment and maintenance of each patient therein, which shall not 4 exceed the sum of fifty dollars per capita per month, which shall be 5 certified by the superintendent to said board of control and paid out 6 as provided by the law as it appears in this chapter of the supplement 7 to the code, 1907; provided that if the aggregate per capita allowance 8 for the patients shall not equal the sum of four thousand dollars for 9 any month, the auditor of state and treasurer of state shall credit the 10 institution with that sum for that month.

[S., '13, § 2727-a85; 38 G. A., ch. 37, § 8.]

4 and by him be collected from the counties liable, at the times and in 5 the manner required for the certification and collection of money from 6 counties for the support of insane patients and patients in the sana-7 torium, and persons legally bound for their support shall be liable for 8 the maintenance of patients in the sanatorium. The provisions of 9 law for the collection by boards of supervisors of amounts paid by 4 board of control of state institutions for the collection and dissemina-

5 tion of information regarding tuberculosis. Said board of control 6 may arrange exhibits, employ lecturers, cooperate with other institu-7 tions or organizations or use any means necessary to give to the people 8 of the state a practical knowledge of tuberculosis. Said board of con-

10 advisable, stimulate the organization of, and assist in establishing 11 hospitals or dispensaries or make other provisions, in the various 12 counties or large centers of population, for the treatment of patients 13 in the advanced stages of tuberculosis.

2 ages of five and twenty-one years, who by reason of deficient intellect 3 is rendered unable to acquire an education in the common schools, is 4 entitled to receive the physical and mental training and care of this 5 institution at the expense of the state. The county superintendent in 6 each county shall, on the first day of October, report to the superin-7 tendent of the institution the name, age and postoffice address of 8 every person in his county of such age who, by reason of feeble 9 mental and physical condition, is deprived of a reasonable degree of 8 the county, and pay the same to the state treasurer. At the same time 9 the account is forwarded to the auditor, a duplicate shall be sent to 10 the state auditor, who shall credit the institution with the amount, 11 and at the same time charge it to the proper county. If it is made 12 to appear by the affidavits of three disinterested persons of such 13 county, not of kin to an inmate, his parents or guardian, that the same 14 ought not to be collected from them or either of them because of their

 10 of the place in which the inmate may be taken, the superintendent 11 shall send an employee of the institution or other person for him and 12 cause him to be returned to the institution unless for good reasons a 17 actual and necessary expenses incurred in the capture, restraint and 18 return to the hospital of the inmate shall be paid on itemized vouch-

 3 birth or from any early age, so pronounced that he is incapable of 4 managing himself and his affairs, or of being taught to do so, and 5 requires supervision, control and care for his own welfare, or for the 6 welfare of others, or for the welfare of the community, who is not 7 classifiable as an "insane person" within the meaning of the provi-
 8 sions of the chapters of this title relating to the insane.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 1.]

SEC. 1953. Petition to adjudicate feeble-mindedness.

1 When any person residing in this state shall be supposed to be 2 feeble minded, and by reason of such mental condition of feeble-3 mindedness and of social conditions, such as want of proper supervi-4 sion, control, care and support, or other causes, it is unsafe and dan-5 gerous to the welfare of the community for him to be at large without 6 supervision, control and care, any relative, guardian, or any reputable 7 citizen of the county in which the supposed feeble-minded person re-8 sides or is found, may, by leave of court first had and obtained, file

9 with the clerk of either the district court of the county or in the supe-10 rior or municipal court of the city in which such feeble-minded person 11 resides or is found, a petition in writing, setting forth that the person 12 therein named is feeble minded, the fact and circumstances of the 13 social conditions, such as want of proper supervision, control, care and 14 support, or other causes making it unsafe or dangerous to the welfare 15 of the community for such person to be at large without supervision, 16 control or care; also the name and residence, or that such name or res-17 idence is unknown to the petitioner, of some person, if any there be, 18 actually supervising, caring for or supporting such person, and of at 19 least one person if any there be, legally chargeable with such super-20 vision, care or support, and also the names and residences, or that 21 same are unknown, of the parents or guardians.

22 The petition shall also allege whether or not such person has 23 been examined by a qualified physician having personal knowledge of 24 the condition of such alleged feeble-minded person. There shall be 25 indorsed on such petition the names and residences of witnesses known 26 to petitioner by whom the truth of the allegations of the petition may 27 be proved, as well as the name and the residence of a qualified physi-28 cian, if any is known to the petitioner, having personal knowledge of 29 the case.

30 All persons named in such petition shall be made defendants by 34 provided. All persons whose names are stated in the petition to be 35 unknown to the petitioner shall be deemed and taken as defendants 36 by the name and designation of "all whom it may concern". The pe-37 tition shall be verified by affidavit, which shall be sufficient if it states 38 that it is based upon information and belief. Process shall be issued 39 against all persons made parties by the designation of "all whom it 40 may concern", by such description and notice given by publication as 41 required in this chapter, shall be sufficient to authorize the court to 42 hear and determine the suit as though the parties had been sued by 43 their proper names.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 2.]

SEC. 1954. Notice—pleadings—publication.

1 The notice shall require all defendants to personally appear at 2 the time and place stated therein, and to bring into court the alleged 3 feeble-minded person. No written answer shall be required to the 4 petition, but the cause shall stand for trial upon the petition on the 5 return day of the notice. The notice shall be made returnable at any 6 time within ten days after the date thereof, and may be served the 7 same as a notice in civil actions is served. No service of process shall 8 be necessary upon any of the defendants named, if they appear or are 9 brought before the court personally without service of notice.

10 Whenever it shall appear from the petition or from affidavit filed 11 in the cause that any named defendant, other than the alleged feeble-12 minded person, resides or has gone out of the state, or on due inquiry 13 can not be found, or is concealed within this state, or that his place of 14 residence is unknown, so that process can not be served upon him, and 15 whenever any person is made a defendant under the name and desig-16 nation of "all whom it may concern", the clerk of the court shall cause 17 publication to be made once in some newspaper of general circulation

18 published in his county, and if there be none published in his county, 19 then in a newspaper of general circulation published in the nearest 20 place to his county in this state, which publication shall be substan-21 tially as follows:

22 “(Give names of such defendants and) To all whom it may con-23 cern (if there be any defendant under such designation):

24 “TAKE NOTICE That on the.....day of.....A. D., 25, a petition was filed by..... in the 26court of.....to have a person named
27declared feeble minded and to have the court 28 provide for the care and the detention of such person.

29 “Now unless you appear within ten days after the date of this 30 notice and resist the granting of the prayer of such petition, the 31 petition will be taken for confessed and a decree entered.

32 “Dated.....
33 “Clerk.”

34 The clerk shall also within ten days after the publication of such 35 notice send a copy thereof by mail, addressed to such defendants 36 whose place of residence is stated in the petition and who can not be 37 served with notice. Notice given by such publication shall be as ef-38 fectual for every purpose as if such person or persons were duly 39 served with notice personally. The certificate of the clerk that he has 40 sent such notice pursuant to this section, shall be conclusive evidence 41 thereof. Every defendant who shall be duly notified shall be held 42 to appear and answer either in writing or orally in open court, on the 43 return day of the notice, and if the notice be served less than one day 44 prior to the return day thereof, then on the following day. Every 45 defendant who shall be notified by publication as herein provided, 46 shall be held to appear and answer, either in writing or orally, within 47 ten days after the date of the publication notice. The answer shall 48 have no greater weight as evidence than the petition.

49 In default of an answer at the time herein specified or at such 50 further time as by order of court may be granted to the defendant, 51 the petition may be taken as confessed against all defendants, except 52 the alleged feeble-minded persons.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 3.]

SEC. 1955. Custody pending hearing.

1 Upon the filing of the petition, or upon motion at any time there-
2 after, if it shall be made to appear to the court by evidence given 3 under oath that it is for the best interests of the alleged feeble-4 minded person and the community that such person be at once taken 5 into custody, or that the service of a notice will be ineffectual to secure 6 the presence of such person, a warrant may issue in the order of the 7 court, directing that such person be taken into custody and brought 8 before the court forthwith or at such time and place as the judge 9 may appoint, and pending the hearing of the petition, the court may 10 make any order for the detention of such feeble-minded person, or 11 the placing of such feeble-minded person under temporary guardian-12 ship of some suitable person, on such person entering into a recog-13 nizance for his appearance, as the court shall deem proper. But no 14 such alleged feeble-minded person shall, during the pendency of the 15 hearing of the petition, be detained in any place provided for the de-

16 tention of persons charged with or convicted of any criminal or quasi 17 criminal offense.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 4.]

SEC. 1956. Continuances—examination.

1 At any time after the filing of the petition and pending the final 2 disposition of the case, the court may continue the hearing from time 3 to time, and may order such alleged feeble-minded person to submit 4 to the examination of some qualified physician or psychologist, and 5 the court may also require by rule or order that the petitioner answer 6 under oath such interrogatories as may be propounded, in a form to 7 be prescribed by the board of control.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 5.]

SEC. 1957. Hearing—advisory report.

1 The hearing on the petition shall be by the court, and a commis-
2 sion to be appointed by the court, of two qualified physicians or one 3 qualified physician and one qualified psychologist, residents of the 4 county, to be selected by the judge on account of known competency 5 and integrity, and evidence shall be heard and proceedings had as in 6 any other civil proceedings.

7 Evidence shall also be heard and inquiry made into the social 8 conditions, such as want of proper supervision, control, care or support, 9 and other causes making it unsafe or dangerous to the welfare of 10 the community for such person to be at large, without supervision, 11 control or care. The commission shall also make a personal exam-12 ination touching the mental condition of the alleged feeble-bodied 13 person.

14 Upon the conclusion of a hearing, inquiry and examination, the 15 commission shall file with the clerk of the court a report in writing, 16 showing the result of their examination of the mental condition and 17 social conditions aforesaid setting forth their conclusions and recom-18 mendations, and shall also file with such report their sworn answers 19 to such interrogatories as may be propounded in a form to be pre-20 scribed by the board of control. Such answers may be based upon 21 their knowledge and belief.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 6.]

SEC. 1958. Report—rejection or confirmation.

1 The report shall have the same effect as the reports of masters 2 in chancery, and shall be subject to be set aside or overruled by the 3 court the same as reports of masters in chancery; provided, however, 4 that there shall be no need of making objections and taking excep-5 tions to same and the court shall have the power to dismiss the pro-6 ceedings, order a new hearing by the same or a new commission, or 7 make such findings of fact in lieu of the findings in such report as 8 may be justified by the evidence heard, and on the review of the court 9 of the findings and recommendations of the commission, the court 10 may hear such further evidence as it thinks fit.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 7.]

SEC. 1959. Order of commitment—guardianship.

1 If the court shall find such alleged feeble-minded person not to 2 be feeble minded as defined in this chapter, he shall order the peti-3 tion dismissed and the person discharged. If the court shall find such 4 alleged feeble-minded person to be feeble minded, and subject to be 5 dealt with under this chapter, having due regard to all the circum-

 6 stances appearing on the hearing, the guiding and controlling thought 7 of the court throughout the proceedings to be the welfare of the 8 feeble-minded person and the welfare of the community, it shall enter 9 a decree, appointing a suitable person to be the guardian of the per-10 son of such feeble-minded person, or directing that such feeble-11 minded person be sent to a private institution, qualified and licensed 12 under the laws of the state to receive such person whose managers 13 are willing to receive him, or may direct that he be placed in a pub-14 lic institution for the feeble minded and such decree so entered shall 15 stand and continue binding upon all persons whom it may concern 16 until rescinded or otherwise regularly superseded or set aside; pro-17 vided, however, that any guardian appointed under this chapter shall 18 be subordinate to any guardian previously or subsequently appointed 19 under section sixty-six hundred seventy.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 8.]

SEC. 1960. Power of guardian.

1 An order that the feeble-minded person be placed under guard-
 2 ianship shall confer on the person named in the order as guardian 3 such powers, subject to the regulations of the board of control, as 4 would have been exercisable if he had been the father of the feeble 5 minded, and the feeble-minded person had been under the age of 6 fourteen.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 9.]

SEC. 1961. Guardian—removal or discharge of.

1 Where an order has been made that a feeble-minded person be 2 placed under guardianship, the guardian may be removed by the 3 court that appointed him, on the application of the feeble-minded 4 person, or of any relative or friend of the feeble-minded person, or 5 of any reputable citizen, or of the board of control; and when the 6 guardian dies, resigns or is removed, the court may, on a like applica-7 tion, appoint a suitable person to act in his stead.

8 On application of the guardian, or of the feeble-minded person, 9 or of any relative or friend of the feeble-minded person, or of any 10 reputable citizen, or of the board of control, the court that appointed 11 the guardian, on being satisfied that the case is, or has become one 12 unsuitable for guardianship, may order that the feeble-minded per-13 son be discharged from guardianship and set free, or be sent to a 14 private institution qualified, and licensed under the laws of the state 15 to receive him, whose managers are willing to receive him or be sent 16 to a public institution for the feeble minded, as seems best to the 17 court, having regard to the circumstances appearing on the hearing.
 18 No order shall be made discharging or varying a prior order placing 19 the feeble-minded person under guardianship without giving one or 20 more of the relatives or a friend of the feeble-minded person, his 21 guardian or the board of control, notice and an opportunity to be 22 heard.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 10.]

SEC. 1962. Commitment.

1 Upon the entry of an order directing that a feeble-minded person 2 be sent to an institution for feeble-minded persons, the clerk of the 3 court shall send a copy of the order to the superintendent of the in-4 stitution to which such feeble-minded person is ordered to be sent, and 5 such superintendent shall receive such feeble-minded person as a 6 charge in such institution; provided that if on account of the crowded 7 condition of a public institution it is impossible to accommodate such 8 feeble-minded person, the superintendent will inform the court with 9 the promise that the court be notified at once when the next vacancy 10 occurs and that such feeble-minded person be then received as a 11 charge in such public institution.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 11.]

SEC. 1963. Expense of commitment—duplicate warrant.

1 For the conveyance of any feeble-minded person to any public 2 or private institution for the feeble minded, admission thereto having 3 been ordered by the court as herein provided, the clerk shall issue a 4 warrant and duplicate directed to the petitioner, or to some suitable 5 reputable person, as the judge may select, commanding him to take 6 such feeble-minded person and deliver him to the superintendent of 7 the institution. And if the judge thinks necessary he may direct 8 the clerk to authorize the employment of one or more assistants, but 9 no feeble-minded female shall be taken to the institution by any male 10 person not her husband, father, brother or son, without the attend-11 ance of some woman of good character and mature age chosen for the 12 purpose by the judge.

13 Upon receiving the feeble-minded person the superintendent of 14 the institution shall indorse upon the warrant his receipt, naming 15 the person or persons from whom the feeble-minded person is re-16 ceived, and one copy of the warrant so indorsed, shall be returned to 17 the clerk of the court to be filed with the other papers in this case, 18 and the other shall be left with the superintendent, and the person 19 delivering the feeble-minded person shall indorse thereon that he has 20 so delivered him, and said duplicate warrant shall be prima facie evi-21 dence of that fact set forth therein, and in said indorsement.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 12.]

SEC. 1964. Discharge—procedure.

1 No feeble-minded person admitted to an institution for the feeble 2 minded pursuant to an order of the court as herein provided, shall be 3 discharged therefrom, except as herein provided, except that nothing 4 herein contained shall abridge the right of petition for a writ of 5 habeas corpus.

6 At any time after the admission of the feeble-minded person to 7 an institution for the feeble minded, pursuant to an order of court 8 as herein provided, the feeble-minded person or any of the relatives 9 or friends of the feeble-minded person or any reputable citizen or 10 the superintendent of the institution having the feeble-minded person 11 in charge, or the board of control, may petition the court that entered 12 the order of admission, to discharge the feeble-minded person, or to 13 vary the order of the court, sending the feeble-minded person to an 14 institution. If, on the hearing of the petition, the court is satisfied 15 that the welfare of the feeble-minded person or the welfare of others, 16 or the welfare of the community required his discharge, or a modi-17 fication of the order, the court may enter such order of discharge or 18 modification, as the court thinks proper.

19 Discharges and modifications of orders may be made for either 20 of the following causes: Because the person adjudged to be feeble 21 minded is not feeble minded; because he has so far improved as to be 22 capable of caring for himself; because the relatives or friends of the 23 feeble-minded person are able and willing to support, care for him 24 and request his discharge and in the judgment of the superintendent 25 of the institution having the person in charge, no evil consequences 26 are likely to follow such discharge; but the enumeration of grounds 27 of discharge or modification herein shall not exclude other grounds 28 of discharge or modification which the court, in its discretion, may 29 deem adequate, having due regard for the welfare of the person con-30 cerned, or the welfare of others, or the welfare of the community.

31 On any petition of discharge or variation, the court may discharge 32 the feeble-minded person from all supervision, control and care, or 33 may place him under guardianship, or may transfer him from a 34 public institution to a private institution, or from a private institu-35 tion to a public institution, as the court thinks fit under all the cir-36 cumstances appearing on the hearing of the petition.

37 The superintendent of the institution having the feeble-minded
 38 person in charge, must be notified of the time and place of hearing 39 on any petition for discharge or variation, as the court shall direct, 40 and no order of discharge or variation shall be entered without giv-41 ing such superintendent a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and 42 the court may notify such other persons, relatives and friends of the 43 feeble-minded person as the court may think proper of the time and 44 place of the hearing on any petition for discharge or variation of 45 prior order.

46 The denial of one petition for discharge or modification shall be 47 no bar to another on the same or different grounds within a reasonable 48 time thereafter, such reasonable time to be determined by the court 49 in its discretion, discouraging frequent, repeated, frivolous, or ill-50 founded petitions for discharge or modification of a prior order.

51 On reception of a feeble-minded person in an institution pursuant 52 to an order of court under this chapter, the superintendent of the in-53 stitution under regulations of the board of control shall cause the 54 and if upon such examination it is found the person is not feeble 55 feeble-minded person to be examined touching his mental condition, 56 minded, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to petition the 57 court for a discharge or modification of the order sending him to the 58 institution.

59 Any person sent to an institution pursuant to an order of court 60 under this chapter shall have the right to at least one hearing on a 61 petition for discharge or modification within one year after the date 62 of the order sending him to an institution.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 13.]

SEC. 1965. Access of patient to relatives.

1 Every person admitted to any institution for the feeble minded
 2 shall have all reasonable opportunity and facility for communication 3 with his friends, and be permitted to write and send letters, provid-4 ing they contain nothing of an immoral or personally offensive char-5 acter, and the letters written by any charge to any member of the 6 board of control, or to any state or county official, shall be forwarded 7 unopened. But no leave of absence shall be granted except for good 8 cause to be determined and approved by the board of control in each

9 case who shall take appropriate measures to secure for the feeble-10 minded person proper supervision, control and care during such leave 11 of absence, and no leave of absence shall be for a longer period than 12 two weeks in one calendar year.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 14.]

SEC. 1966. Inquest by coroner.

1 In the event of a sudden or mysterious death of a charge of any 2 public or private institution for the feeble minded, a coroner's inquest 3 shall be held as provided by law in other cases. Notice of the death 4 of such person, and the cause thereof, shall in all cases be sent to the 5 judge of the court having jurisdiction, over such person, and the fact 6 of the death, with the time, place and alleged cause shall be entered 7 upon the docket.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 15.]

SEC. 1967. Penalties.

1 Any person who shall knowingly contrive or who shall conspire
2 to have any person adjudged feeble minded under this chapter un-
3 lawfully and improperly, or any person who shall violate any provision 4 of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon 5 conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, 6 or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of 7 the court in which such conviction is had.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 16.]

SEC. 1968. Costs.

1 The costs of proceedings in feeble-mindedness shall be defrayed 2 from the county treasury, unless otherwise ordered by the court as 3 herein provided. When, on the hearing of the petition, the person 4 alleged to be feeble minded is found not to be feeble minded, the 5 court, in its discretion, may require that the costs shall be paid by the 6 person who filed the petition, and may render judgment against him 7 therefor, except that judgment for costs shall not be rendered against 8 the petitioner who filed the petition pursuant to the direction of a 9 court as provided in sections nineteen hundred sixty-nine and nine-10 teen hundred seventy.

11 The fees paid for attendance of witnesses and execution of legal 12 process, shall be the same as are allowed by law for similar service 13 in other cases. For service as commissioner, the sum of five dollars 14 per day and the actual and necessary traveling expenses shall be al-15 lowed, to each person so employed.

16 When the proceedings are instituted in a court of any county of 17 which the alleged feeble-minded person is not a resident, in case a 18 judgment for costs is not rendered against the petitioner as above pro-19 vided, the clerk of the district court of the county in which the said 20 feeble-minded person resides shall be furnished with a transcript of 21 the record and findings in the case, and thereupon the said county 22 shall be liable for the costs of the proceedings.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 17.]

SEC. 1969. Maintenance costs.

1 Where an order that a feeble-minded person be placed under 2 guardianship, or be sent to a private or public institution, is made 3 under this chapter, [the court] may at any time, on the application of 4 the petitioner or of the guardian, as the case may be, make an order 5 requiring the feeble-minded person, or any person liable or under-6 taking to maintain him, to contribute such sums towards the expenses 7 of his guardianship, or his maintenance in the institution and any 8 charges incidental thereto, including the costs of the proceedings in 9 feeble-mindedness, of his conveyance to the institution, and in the 10 event of his death at the institution his funeral expenses, as seems 11 reasonable, having regard to the ability of the feeble-minded person, 12 or of the person liable or undertaking to maintain him. Any such 13 order may be enforced against any property of the feeble-minded 14 person, or of the person liable or undertaking to maintain him, in the 15 same way as if it were a judgment or decree for temporary alimony 16 in a divorce case.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 18.]

SEC. 1970. Proceedings in juvenile courts.

1 When a child is brought before a juvenile court as a dependent 2 or a delinquent child, if it appears to the court, on the testimony of 3 a physician or psychologist, or other evidence, that such person or 4 child is feeble minded within the meaning of this chapter, the court 5 may adjourn the proceedings and direct some suitable officer of the 6 court or some other suitable reputable person to file a petition under 7 this chapter; and the court may order that pending the preparation, 8 filing and hearing of such petitions, the person or child be detained 9 in a place of safety or be placed under the guardianship of some suit-10 able person on that person entering into recognizance for his ap-11 pearance.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 19.]

SEC. 1971. Suspension of criminal proceedings.

1 On the conviction by a court of record of competent jurisdiction
2 of any person of any crime, misdemeanor, or any violation of any ordi-3 nance which is in whole, or in part, a violation of any statute of this 4 state; or on a child brought before the juvenile court for any delin-5 quency, being found liable to be sent to a reformatory school, a train-6 ing school or an industrial school, the court if satisfied on the testi-7 mony of a physician or a psychologist, or other evidence that the 8 person or child is feeble minded within the meaning of this chapter, 9 may suspend any sentence or suspend entering an order sending the 10 child to a reformatory training or industrial school and direct that a 11 petition be filed under this chapter. When the court directs a petition 12 to be filed it may order that pending the preparation, filing and hear-13 ing of the petition, the person or child be detained in a place of safety, 14 or be placed under the guardianship of any suitable person on that 15 person entering into a recognizance for his appearance. If upon the 16 hearing of said petition or upon any subsequent hearing under this 17 chapter the person is found not to be feeble minded the court shall 18 impose sentence.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 20.]

1 When the mental condition of a person under guardianship or in 2 an institution for feeble-minded persons, pursuant to an order of 3 court under this chapter, becomes or is found to be such that he

4 ought to be transferred to an institution for the insane, the superin-
5 tendent of the institution or the guardian of the person, or the board 6 of control, as the case may be, shall cause such steps to be taken as 7 may be necessary for his removal to an institution for the insane.
8 When the mental condition of a person in an institution for the 9 insane becomes or is found to be such that he ought to be transferred 10 to an institution for feeble-minded persons, or placed under guardian-11 ship under this chapter, the superintendent of the institution for the 12 insane, or the board of control, may cause such steps to be taken as 13 may be necessary for having an order that he be sent to an institu-14 tion entered by the court by original jurisdiction for feeble-minded 15 persons or placed under guardianship under this chapter.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 21.]

SEC. 1973. Clothing and money on discharge.

1 No person shall be discharged from a public institution for the 2 feeble minded without suitable clothing and a sum of money not ex-3 ceeding twenty dollars, sufficient to defray his expenses home, which 4 shall be charged to the county in which the person resides, and col-
5 lected as other debts due the institution are collected. But the court 6 ordering the discharge may dispense with this requirement if the 7 court, in its discretion, thinks it fit and proper under the circum-8 stances.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 22.]

SEC. 1974. Escape.

1 If any feeble-minded person shall escape from an institution for 2 the feeble minded, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the 4 officer of the peace in any county in which he may be found, to take 5 and detain him without a warrant and report the same at once to a 7 county from which he was admitted.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 23.]

SEC. 1975. Separate docket.

1 Each court having jurisdiction under this chapter shall keep a 2 separate docket of proceedings in feeble-mindedness upon which shall 3 be made such entries as will, together with the papers filed, preserve 4 a complete and perfect record of each case, the original petitions, 5 writs, and returns made thereto, and the reports of commissions shall 6 be filed with the clerk of the court.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 24.]

SEC. 1976. Record by board of control.

1 The board of control shall keep a record of all persons adjudged
2 to be feeble minded, and of the orders respecting them by the courts 3 throughout the state, copies of which orders shall be furnished by 4 the clerk of the court without the board's application or upon the 5 board's application.

[38 G. A., ch. 356, § 25.]

 12 to the hospital and colony for epileptics, to transfer insane epileptics 13 from the hospital and colony to other state institutions, and to re-

10 not exceeding twenty dollars, which shall be charged with the other ex-

5 to, such insane patients as may be kept in said institutions, which 6 rules and regulations shall not interfere with the medical treatment

COMMISSIONERS OF INSANITY.

SECTION 2054. County commissioners of insanity.

1 In each county there shall be a board of three commissioners of 2 insanity, and in counties having two places where district court is 3 held there shall be one such board of commissioners at each place, 4 consisting of the clerk of the district court, or his deputy, who shall 5 be clerk of the same, also one physician in actual practice and of 6 good professional standing in the community, and one lawyer in actual 7 practice and of good standing in his profession and in the community, 8 residing as convenient as may be to the county seat, to be appointed 9 by the judge of the district court. Such appointment may be made 10 during a session of the court, or in vacation; if made in vacation, it 11 shall be by written order, signed by the judge and recorded by the 12 clerk. The appointment shall be for two years, and so that the term 13 of one commissioner shall expire every year. The appointment of 14 successors may be made at any time within three months prior to the 15 expiration of the term of the incumbent. In the temporary absence 16 or inability to act of two commissioners, the commissioner present 17 may call to his aid temporarily a person possessed of the qualification 18 required for a member, who, after qualifying as in other cases, may 19 act in the same capacity. But if one of the absent members is a clerk, 20 his deputy shall act. The record in such cases must show the facts.
21 The members shall organize by choosing one of their number presi-22 dent, and hold their meetings at the office of the clerk, unless for good 23 reasons they shall fix on some other place, and shall also meet on notice 24 from the clerk or his deputy.

[C., '73, §§ 1395, 1396; C., '97, § 2261.]

SEC. 2055. Clerk.

1 The clerk of said board, or in his absence his deputy, shall sign 2 and issue all notices, appointments, warrants, subpoenas or other 3 process required to be given or issued by the board, affixing thereto 4 his seal as clerk of the court; shall file and preserve in his office all 5 papers connected with any inquest by the commissioners and properly 6 belonging to his office, with all notices, reports and other communi-7 cations; and shall keep separate books in which to minute the pro-8 ceedings of the board, and his entries therein shall be sufficiently full 9 to show, with the papers filed, a complete record of its findings, orders 10 and transactions. The notices, reports and communications herein 11 required to be given or made may be sent by mail, unless otherwise 12 expressed, and the facts and date of such sending and their reception 13 must be noted on the proper record.

[C., '73, § 1397; C., '97, § 2262.]

SEC. 2056. Jurisdiction and power.

1 The commissioners shall have cognizance of all applications for 2 admission to the hospital, or for the safe keeping otherwise of insane 3 persons within their respective counties, except in cases otherwise 4 specially provided for. For the purpose of discharging the duties 5 required of them, they shall have power to issue subpoenas and compel 6 obedience thereto, to administer oaths, and do any act of a court neces-7 sary and proper in the premises.

[C., '73, § 1398; C., '97, § 2263.]

SEC. 2057. Compensation and fees.

1 The commissioners of insanity shall be allowed at the rate of 2 three dollars per day, each, for all the time actually employed in the 3 duties of their office. They shall also be allowed their necessary and 4 actual expenses, not including charges for board. The clerk, in addi-5 tion to what he is entitled to as commissioner, shall be allowed one-6 half as much more for making the required record entries in all cases 7 of inquest and of meetings of the board for any purpose, and for the 8 filing of any papers required to be filed. He shall also be allowed 9 twenty-five cents for each notice or process given or issued under seal, 10 as herein required. The examining physician shall be entitled to the 11 same compensation as a commissioner, and to mileage at the rate of 12 five cents per mile each way; but if such examining physician be a 13 member of the board of commissioners, he shall be entitled to no other 14 fee than the pay as such commissioner. Witnesses shall be entitled 15 to the same fees as witnesses in the district court. Fees on appeal 16 shall be the same as in ordinary actions. The compensation and ex-17 penses provided for above, and the fees of the sheriff provided for in 18 such cases, shall be allowed and paid out of the county treasury in the 19 usual manner. Whenever the commissioners issue their warrant for 20 the admission of a person to the hospital, and funds to pay the expenses 21 thereof are needed in advance, they shall estimate the probable expense 22 of conveying such person to the hospital, including the necessary assist-23 ance, and not including the compensation allowed the sheriff, and on 24 such estimate, certified by the clerk, the auditor of the county shall 25 issue an order on the county treasury for the amount, as estimated, 26 in favor of the sheriff or other person intrusted with the execution 27 of such warrant; the sheriff or other person executing such warrant, 28 shall accompany his return with a statement of the expenses incurred, 29 and the excess or deficiency may be deducted from or added to his 30 compensation, as the case may be. If funds are not so advanced, such 31 expenses shall be certified and paid in the manner above prescribed 32 on the return of the warrant. When the commissioners order the 33 return of a patient, compensation and expenses shall be in like manner 34 allowed.

[C., '73, §§ 1410, 3825; C., '97, § 2309.]

CHAPTER 11.

COMMITMENT AND DISCHARGE OF INSANE.

SECTION 2058. Admission to hospital.

1 Applications for admission to the hospital must be made in the 2 form of an information, verified by affidavit, alleging that the person 3 in whose behalf the application is made is believed by the informant 4 to be insane, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital, 5 and that such person is found in the county, and shall also state the 6 place of residence of such person, or where it is believed to be, or that 7 the same is not known, according to the facts.

[R., '60, § 1480; C., '73, § 1399; C., '97, § 2264.]

SEC. 2059. Investigation—certificate of physician.

1 On the filing of such information, the commissioners may examine 2 the informant and other witnesses under oath, and, if satisfied that 3 there is reasonable cause therefor, at once investigate the grounds
 4 thereof, and may require that the person for whom such admission 5 is sought be brought before them, and that the examination be had 6 in his presence. They may issue their warrant therefor, and provide 7 for the custody of such person until their investigation shall be con-8 cluded, which warrant may be executed by the sheriff or any constable 9 of the county; or, if they shall be of the opinion from such preliminary 10 inquiries as they make that such course would probably be injurious 11 to such person, or attended with no advantage, they may dispense with 12 such presence. In their examination, they shall hear testimony for 13 and against such application, if any is offered. Any citizen of the 14 county, or relative of the person alleged to be insane, may appear and 15 resist the application, and the parties may appear by counsel, if they 16 elect. The commissioners, whether they dispense with the presence 17 before them of such person or not, shall appoint some regular prac-18 ticing physician of the county to visit him and make a personal exam-19 ination touching the truth of the information and his actual condition, 20 who shall forthwith report to them thereon. He may or may not 21 be of their number, and shall certify that he has made a careful, 22 personal examination as required, and that he finds the person in 23 question insane, if such is the fact, and if otherwise, not insane; and, 24 in connection with his examination, shall endeavor to obtain from the 25 relatives of the person, or from others who know the facts, correct 26 answers, so far as may be, to the interrogatories hereinafter required 27 to be propounded, which interrogatories and answers shall be attached 28 to his certificate.

[R., '60, § 1480; C., '73, § 1400; C., '97, § 2265.]

SEC. 2060. Application for admission to hospital.

1 In each case of application for admission to the hospital, correct
 2 answers to the following interrogatories, so far as they can be ob-3 tained, shall accompany the physician's certificate; and if, on further 4 examination after the answers are stated, any of them are found to 5 be erroneous, the commissioners shall cause them to be corrected:

- 6 1. What is the patient's name and age? Married or single? If
- 7 any children, how many? Age of youngest child?
- 8 2. Where was the patient born?
- 9 3. Where is his (or her) place of residence?

- 10 4. What has been the patient's occupation?
 11 5. Is this the first attack? If not, when did the others occur, 12 and what was their duration?
 13 6. When were the first symptoms of this attack manifested, and 14 in what way?
 15 7. Does the disease appear to be increasing, decreasing or sta-16 tionary?
 17 8. Is the disease variable, and are there rational intervals? If 18 so, do they occur at regular periods?
 19 9. On what subjects or in what way is derangement now mani-
 20 fested? State fully.
 21 10. Has the patient shown any disposition to injure others?
 22 11. Has suicide ever been attempted? If so, in what way? Is 23 the propensity now active?
 24 12. Is there a disposition to filthy habits, destruction of clothing, 25 breaking of glass, etc.?
 26 13. What relatives, including grandparents and cousins, have 27 been insane?
 28 14. Did the patient manifest any peculiarities of temper, habits, 29 disposition or pursuits before the accession of the disease?—any pre-30 dominant passion, religious impressions, etc.?
 31 15. Was the patient ever addicted to intemperance in any form?
 32 16. Has the patient been subject to any bodily disease; epilepsy, 33 suppressed eruptions, discharges of sores, or ever had any injury of 34 the head?
 35 17. Has restraint or confinement been employed? If so, what 36 kind, and how long?
 37 18. What is supposed to be the cause of the disease?
 38 19. What treatment has been pursued for the relief of the pa-
 39 tient? Mention particulars and effects.
 40 20. State any other matter supposed to have a bearing on the case.
 [R., '60, § 1490; C., '73, § 1407; C., '97, § 2275.]

SEC. 2061. Finding of commissioners—warrant—confinement.

1 On the return of the physician's certificate, the commissioners 2 shall, as soon as practicable, conclude their investigation and find 3 whether the person is insane; whether, if insane, a fit subject for 4 treatment in the hospital; whether the legal settlement of such person 5 is in their county, and, if not, where it is, if ascertained. If they 6 find such person is not insane, they shall order his immediate dis-7 charge, if in custody, but if insane, and a fit subject for custody and 8 treatment in the hospital, they shall order his commitment to the 9 hospital in the district in which the county is situated, and unless he 10 or some one in his behalf shall appeal therefrom, shall forthwith issue 11 their warrant and a duplicate thereof, stating such finding, with the 12 settlement of the person, if found, and, if not found, their informa-13 tion, if any, in regard thereto, authorizing the superintendent of the 14 hospital to receive and keep him as a patient therein. Said warrant 15 and duplicate, with the certificate and finding of the physician, shall 16 be delivered to the sheriff, who shall execute the same by conveying 17 such person to the hospital, and delivering him, with such duplicate 18 and physician's certificate and finding, to the superintendent, who 19 shall, over his official signature, acknowledge such delivery on the 20 original warrant, which the sheriff shall return to the clerk of the 21 commissioners, with his costs and expenses indorsed thereon. If the 22 sheriff and his deputy are both otherwise engaged, the commissioners 23 may appoint some other suitable person to execute the warrant, who 24 shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully to discharge his duty, and 25 shall be entitled to the same fees as the sheriff. The sheriff, or any 26 person appointed, may call to his aid such assistance as he may need 27 to execute such warrant; but no female shall thus be taken to the 28 hospital without the attendance of some other female or some relative.

 29 The superintendent, in his acknowledgment of delivery, must state 30 whether there was any such person in attendance, and give the name 31 or names, if any. But if any relative or immediate friend of the 32 patient, who is a suitable person, shall so request, he shall have the 33 privilege of executing such warrant, in preference to the sheriff or 34 any other person, without taking such oath, and for so doing shall be 35 entitled to his necessary expenses, but no fees. No person who shall 36 be found to be insane shall, during investigation or after such finding, 37 and pending commitment to the hospital, or when on the way there, 38 be confined in any jail, prison or place of solitary confinement, except 39 in cases of extreme violence, when it may be necessary for the safety 40 of such person or of the public; and if such person be so confined, 41 there shall, at all times during its continuance, be some suitable per-42 son or persons in attendance in charge of such person; but at no time 43 shall any female be placed in such confinement without at least one 44 female attendant remaining in charge of her.

[R., '60, § 1479; C., '73, § 1401; C., '97, § 2266.]

SEC. 2062. Appeal from finding.

1 Any person found to be insane in proceedings herein authorized 2 may appeal from such finding to the district court by giving the clerk 3 thereof, within ten days after such finding has been made, notice in 4 writing that an appeal is taken, which may be signed by the party, 5 his agent, guardian or attorney, and, when thus appealed, it shall stand 6 for trial anew. Upon appeal it shall be the duty of the county attor-
 7 ney to prosecute the action on behalf of the informant without addi-8 tional compensation.

[C., '97, § 2267; S., '13, § 2267.]

SEC. 2063. Custody pending appeal.

1 If an appeal shall be taken, the appellant, pending the appeal, 2 shall be discharged from custody, unless the commissioners find that 3 he can not with safety be allowed to go at large, in which case they 4 shall require him to be suitably provided for in the manner hereinafter 5 specified.

[C., '97, § 2268.]

SEC. 2064. Final order.

1 If upon the trial of the appeal such person is found sane, he shall 2 be immediately discharged, if in custody. If found insane, and a fit 3 subject for custody and treatment in the hospital, an order of commit-4 ment shall be entered, and the clerk shall issue a warrant therefor, 5 and the proceedings thereunder shall be as provided in cases before 6 the board.

[C., '97, § 2269.]

SEC. 2065. Blanks.

1 The board of control shall provide for furnishing the commis-2 sioners of the counties entitled to send patients to the hospital with 3 such blanks for warrants, certificates and other papers as will enable 4 them with regularity and facility to comply with the provisions of 5 this chapter, and also with copies of the regulations of the hospital, 6 when printed.

[C., '73, § 1431; C., '97, § 2295.]

SEC. 2066. Custody outside hospital.

1 If any person found to be insane and a fit subject for custody 2 and treatment in the hospital can not at once be admitted therein, or, 3 in case of appeal from the finding of the commissioners, if such person 4 can not with safety be allowed to go at liberty, the commissioners 5 shall require that such person shall be suitably provided for otherwise 6 until such admission can be had, or until the occasion therefor no
 7 longer exists. Such patients may be cared for as private patients 8 whose relations or friends will obligate themselves to take care of and 9 provide for them without public charge. In such case, the commis-10 sioners shall in writing appoint some suitable person special custodian, 11 who shall have authority to, and shall in all suitable ways, restrain, 12 protect and care for such patient in such manner as to best secure 13 his safety and comfort, and to best protect the persons and property 14 of others. In the case of public patients, the commissioners shall 15 require that they be in like manner restrained and protected and cared 16 for by the board of supervisors at the expense of the county, and they 17 may, accordingly, issue their warrant to such board, who shall forth-18 with comply with the same. If there is no county home for the recep-19 tion of such patients, or if no more suitable place can be found, they 20 may be confined in the jail of the county in charge of the sheriff; but 21 no female may be confined in such county home or jail unless at all 22 times under the personal care of a suitable female attendant, who 23 shall hold a key of the apartment in which said person is confined.

[R., '60, § 1436; C., '73, § 1403; C., '97, § 2271; S., '13, § 2271.]

SEC. 2067. Custody outside hospital.

1 On application to the commissioners in behalf of persons alleged 2 to be insane, whose admission to the hospital is not sought, made 3 substantially in the manner above prescribed, and asking that pro-4 vision be made for their care as insane, either public or private, within 5 the county, and on proof of their insanity and need of care, the com-6 missioners may provide for their restraint, protection and care, as in 7 case of other applications.

[R., '60, § 1437; C., '73, § 1404; C., '97, § 2272.]

SEC. 2068. Destitute insane.

1 On information laid before the commissioners of any county that 2 an insane person in the county is suffering for want of proper care, 3 they shall forthwith inquire into the matter, and, if they find that 4 such information is true, they shall make all needful provisions for 5 the care of such person as provided in other cases.

[R., '60, § 1467; C., '73, § 1405; C., '97, § 2273.]

SEC. 2069. Transfer to hospital.

1 Insane persons who have been under care, either as public or 2 private patients, outside of the hospital, by authority of the commis-3 sioners of any county may, on application, be transferred to the hos-4 pital, whenever they can be admitted thereto, on the warrant of such 5 commissioners. Such admission may be had without another inquest, 6 at any time within six months after the inquest already had, unless 7 the commissioners shall think further inquest advisable.

[C., '73, § 1406; C., '97, § 2274.]

SEC. 2070. Discharge from custody.

1 Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the commis-2 sioners of insanity of any county that cause no longer exists for the 3 care within the county of any person as an insane patient, they shall 4 order his immediate discharge, and shall find if such person is sane 5 or insane at the time of such discharge, which finding shall be entered 6 of record by the clerk of the commission.

[C., '73, § 1409; C., '97, § 2277.]

SEC. 2071. Insane prisoners—inquiry—confinement.

1 On a written application made by any citizen, stating under oath 2 that a person confined in any prison within the county, charged with 3 a crime but not convicted thereof nor on trial therefor, is insane, the 4 commissioners shall cause said prisoner to be brought before them, 5 and if they find that he is insane they shall direct his removal to and 6 detention in one of the hospitals for the insane, issuing their warrant 7 therefor, and stating therein that he is under criminal charges, and 8 the superintendent of the hospital designated in such warrant shall 9 receive and keep such prisoner as a patient. The warrant shall be 10 executed by the sheriff or his deputy by delivering the prisoner to 11 the superintendent in person. After an investigation such as con-12 templated in this section, the commissioners shall not entertain a like 13 application within six months on behalf of said person.

[R., '60, §§ 1458, 1459; C., '73, § 1412; C., '97, § 2279.]

SEC. 2072. Notice of recovery.

1 When any insane person shall be confined in either hospital under 2 the preceding section, the superintendent in whose charge he may be 3 shall, as soon as such person is restored to reason, issue his warrant 4 to the sheriff of the county from which such person is received, direct-5 ing him to return such person to the jail of said county, which shall 6 be done by said sheriff as soon as practicable, when the accused shall 7 be returned to the jail of the proper county to answer to the charge
 8 against him. The sheriff shall make his return of service in writing 9 thereon, and deliver such warrant and return to the clerk of the dis-10 trict court of his county, who shall forthwith make a copy of the war-11 rant and return, and mail the same to said superintendent, who shall 12 file and preserve it.

[R., '60, § 1460; C., '73, § 1413; C., '97, § 2280.]

SEC. 2073. Meaning of terms "insane" and "idiot."

1 The term "insane" as used in this chapter includes every species
 2 of insanity or mental derangement. The term "idiot" is restricted

3 to persons foolish from birth, supposed to be naturally without mind.
4 No idiot shall be admitted to a hospital.

[R., '60, §§ 1468, 1491; C., '73, § 1434; C., '97, § 2298.]

SEC. 2074. Commission of inquiry—appointment by court.

1 On a statement in writing, verified by affidavit, addressed to a 2 judge of the district court of the county in which the hospital is situ-3 ated, or of the county in which any person confined in a hospital has 4 his legal settlement, alleging that such person is not insane and is 5 unjustly deprived of his liberty, such judge shall appoint a commis-6 sion of not more than three persons, in his discretion, to inquire into 7 the merits of the case, one of whom shall be a physician, and if two 8 or more are appointed, another shall be a lawyer. Without first sum-9 moning the party to meet them, they shall proceed to the hospital 10 and have a personal interview with such person, so managed as to 11 prevent him, if possible, from suspecting its object; and they shall 12 make any inquiries and examinations they may deem necessary and 13 proper of the officials and records of the hospital, touching the merits 14 of the case. If they shall judge it prudent and advisable, they may 15 disclose to the party the object of their visit, and, either in his pres-16 ence or otherwise, make further investigation of the matter. They 17 shall forthwith report to the judge making the appointment the result 18 of their examination and inquiries, such report to be accompanied 19 by a statement of the case, made and signed by the superintendent.
20 If on such report and statement, and the hearing of testimony if any 21 is offered, the judge shall find a person not insane, he shall order his 22 discharge; if the contrary, he shall so state, and authorize his con-
23 tinued detention. The finding and order of the judge, with the report 24 and other papers, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court 25 over which such judge presides, who shall enter a memorandum 26 thereof on his record, and forthwith notify the superintendent of the 27 hospital of the finding and order of the judge, and the superintendent 28 shall carry out the order. The commissioners appointed as provided 29 in this section shall be entitled to their necessary expenses and a rea-30 sonable compensation, to be allowed by the judge, and paid by the 31 state out of any funds not otherwise appropriated, but the applicant 32 shall pay the same if the judge shall find that the application was 33 made without probable ground, and shall so order.

[C., '73, § 1442; C., '97, § 2304.]

SEC. 2075. How often.

1 The commission above provided for shall not be repeated oftener 2 than once in six months in regard to the same person; nor shall such 3 commission be appointed in the case of any patient within six months 4 of the time of his admission.

[C., '73, § 1443; C., '97, § 2305.]

SEC. 2076. Habeas corpus.

1 All persons confined as insane shall be entitled to the benefit of 2 the writ of habeas corpus, and the question of insanity shall be decided 3 at the hearing. If the judge shall decide that the person is insane, 4 such decision shall be no bar to the issuing of the writ a second time, 5 whenever it shall be alleged that such person has been restored to 6 reason.

[R., '60, § 1441; C., '73, § 1444; C., '97, § 2306.]

SEC. 2077. Punishment for cruelty or official misconduct.

1 If any person having the care of an insane person, and restrain-2 ing him, whether in a hospital or elsewhere, with or without authority, 3 shall treat him with unnecessary severity, harshness or cruelty, or in 4 any way abuse him, or if any officer required by the provisions of this 5 and the three preceding chapters to perform any act shall wilfully 6 refuse or neglect the same, or if any member of a board of super-7 visors or any county treasurer shall violate any provision of this chap-8 ter, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not to exceed five 9 hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed 10 three months, and pay the costs of prosecution, or be both fined and 11 imprisoned at the discretion of the court; and if any member of the 12 visiting committee, superintendent of the hospital, or other person in 13 charge of an insane person confined in the hospital, shall knowingly 14 and wilfully violate any provision of this and the three preceding 15 chapters, by failing and refusing to furnish material for writing, fail-16 ing or refusing to allow a party to write letters, to mail letters writ-17 ten, to receive and deliver letters written as provided herein to such 18 person so confined, or in any other way, he shall be imprisoned in the 19 penitentiary not to exceed three years, or pay a fine not to exceed one 20 thousand dollars, or be both fined and imprisoned.

[C., '73, §§ 1415, 1416, 1440, 1445; C., '97, § 2307.]

CHAPTER 12.SUPPORT OF INSANE.*SECTION 2078. Expenses—county of settlement liable.

1 When the superintendent of the hospital has been notified that 2 a patient sent to the hospital from one county has a legal settlement 3 in another county, he shall thereafter hold and treat such patient as 4 from the latter county; and such holding shall apply to expenses 5 already incurred in behalf of such patient and remaining unadjusted.

[C., '73, § 1417; C., '97, § 2281.]

SEC. 2079. Settlement in another county.

1 If the commissioners find that the person committed to the hos-
 2 pital has or probably has a legal settlement in some other county, 3 they shall, after the time allowed for an appeal, or, in case an appeal 4 is taken, after the same is finally disposed of, immediately notify the 5 auditor of such county of such finding and commitment, and the au-6 ditor so notified shall thereupon inquire and ascertain if possible 7 whether the person in question has a legal settlement in that county, 8 and shall immediately notify the superintendent of the hospital and 9 the commissioners of the county from which such person was com-10 mitted of the result of such inquiry. If the legal settlement of a per-11 son committed can not for a time be ascertained, and is afterwards 12 found, the notices required shall then be given. If in either of the 13 above cases the auditor of the county in which it is alleged that the 14 patient has a legal settlement shall find adversely to the decision of 15 the commissioners of the county from which the patient was com-16 mitted, and said commissioners are unwilling to accept his findings, 17 they shall, through the auditor of their county, forthwith apply to the 18 district court through proper legal proceedings for a determination 19 of the case. Any county whose officials shall fail either in cases now 20 in dispute or disputes which may hereafter arise to apply to the dis-21 trict court as herein provided, within six months from the date of 22 the receipt of notice from the auditor of the county in which it is 23 claimed the patient has a legal settlement shall be liable for the main-24 tenance of said patient.

25 If, upon hearing, the court shall find that the patient has no legal 26 settlement in either of the counties in dispute, the board of control

 2 to be insane a person who does not have a legal settlement within that 3 county, the necessary and legal costs and expenses of the arrest, care, 4 investigation and commitment of such person, including quarterly 5 support in a state hospital during the investigation, or time required

 8 of appeal, if an appeal be taken, and the person is found to be insane 9 on appeal, shall in the first instance be paid by the county in which 10 such person is so found to be insane. If, upon investigation, such 11 person is found to have a legal settlement in another county of this 12 state, such necessary and legal costs and expenses shall be audited 13 and paid by the supervisors of that county in the manner provided 14 for the payment of other claims. If such person be found to have 15 no legal settlement within this state such necessary and legal costs 16 and expenses shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not 17 otherwise appropriated, on vouchers executed by the auditor of the 18 county which has paid them, and approved by the board of control 19 of state institutions. Such vouchers shall contain an itemized state-20 ment of the costs and expenses and payment shall be made to the 21 treasurer of the county.

[S., '13, § 2308-a.]

SEC. 2081. Nonresident insane—support.

1 Patients in a hospital having no legal settlement in the state, or 2 whose legal settlement can not be ascertained, shall be supported at 3 the expense of the state. The board of control may authorize the 4 superintendent to remove any patient who has no legal settlement 5 within the state, the cost of such removal to be paid directly from the 6 state treasury, upon a sworn statement of the superintendent and 7 the approval of the board appended to each voucher.

[C., '73, § 1419; C., '97, § 2283; S., '13, § 2283.]

SEC. 2082. Nonresident insane—care and removal.

1 When the commissioners of insanity of any county shall find to 2 be insane a person who is a nonresident of this state, or whose resi-3 dence is found by the commissioners to be unknown, they shall at once 4 report the case to the board of control of state institutions and fur-5 nish it with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of the legal 6 settlement of the insane person. The board shall investigate the case 7 and if the legal settlement can not be ascertained the board shall cause 8 him to be taken to a state hospital for the insane as a charge of the 9 state, and if the legal settlement of the patient is found thereafter 10 to be in any county of this state the cost of maintaining him shall be 11 charged to that county and collected as provided by law in other cases.
12 If the board of control find that the insane person is a nonresident of 13 this state it may cause him to be conveyed to the place of his legal 14 settlement forthwith or to a state hospital for the insane, there to be 15 treated and cared for until released, at the cost of the state. When 16 the legal settlement of any nonresident patient received in a state 17 hospital is known or if then unknown is afterwards ascertained, he 18 may be transferred to the place of his legal settlement if his condition 19 permit such transfer, unless the cost thereof, or other reasons, shall, 20 in the opinion of the board of control, make the transfer inadvisable.
21 No patient to be maintained at the expense of the state shall be re-22 ceived in a state hospital without the formal order of the board of 23 control.

[S., '13, § 2727-a28a.]

7 sworn to by the claimants and approved by the board of control from 8 any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

[S., '13, § 2727-a28b.]

SEC. 2084. Resident insane—expense—liability.

1 The provisions herein made for the support of the insane at pub-

3 nor their relatives from liability for their support; and the auditors 4 of the several counties, subject to the direction of the board of super-5 visors, are authorized and empowered to collect from the property 6 of such patients, or from any person legally bound for their support, 7 any sums paid by the county in their behalf, as herein provided; and 8 the certificate from the superintendent, and the notice from the au-9 ditor of state, stating the sums charged in such cases, shall be pre-10 sumptive evidence of the correctness of the sums so stated. If the 11 board of supervisors in the case of any insane patient who has been 12 supported at the expense of the county shall deem it a hardship to 13 compel the relatives of such patient to bear the burden of his support, 14 or charge the estate therewith, they may relieve such relatives or
