225A.1 Definition. All persons charged with a public offense, who are suffering from a mental disorder and are not a proper subject for the schools for the feeble-minded or for commitment as an insane person, having criminal propensities toward the commission of sex offenses, and who may be considered dangerous to others, are hereby declared to be "criminal sexual psychopaths". [56GA, ch 121, §1]

225A.2 Petition for commitment. When any person is charged with a public offense and it shall appear to the county attorney of the county wherein such person is so charged that such person is a criminal sexual psychopath, or when any reputable person having knowledge that an individual who is charged with a public offense is a criminal sexual psychopath as defined in this chapter, or that any such individual has committed an act or acts which indicated that he may be a criminal sexual psychopath, and so informs the county attorney of the county where the act or acts charged were committed, and the county attorney is satisfied that the allegations have merit, are based on actual knowledge of the informant, and are capable of proof, he shall prepare a petition verified upon his information and belief, in sufficient detail so that the person complained against will be reasonably informed of the charges against him, which petition shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county wherein such persons stand charged with a public offense. [56GA, ch 121, §2]

225A.3 Bail ordered. Upon filing of such petition, the court in which the public offense is charged may order that the bail furnished be released and that additional bail be ordered. [56GA, ch 121, §3]

225A.4 Notice of hearing. After the petition charging criminal sexual psychopathy has been filed and docketed, notice in writing, including a copy of the petition shall be served on said named defendant in the manner prescribed for serving an original notice setting forth that a hearing thereon will be held by the court on a date and at a time specified in said notice, said date of hearing to be not less than five days later than the date of the service of said notice upon him. At said hearing the court shall determine whether he shall be medically examined, if so, by whom such examination shall be conducted, and the time and place thereof. [56GA, ch 121, §4]

225A.5 Counsel—evidence—appeal. The person charged shall have counsel at every stage of the proceedings and shall have the right to present evidence in his behalf and shall have full rights of appeal, and if the named defendant has not employed counsel, the court shall appoint a competent attorney to represent him and a reasonable attorney fee shall be charged as part of the costs in the proceedings. [56GA, ch 121, §5]

225A.6 Compensation of physicians. Upon application the court shall allow reasonable compensation to the examining physicians and shall order such allowances to be taxed as costs in the proceedings. [56GA, ch 121, §6]

225A.7 Report of examination. In the event a medical examination is ordered, the court shall continue the hearing until such time as the examination can be completed. 225A.8 Dismissal or trial ordered. After the filing of the report of the medical examination, if sufficient proof be not made to the court of the criminal propensities to the commission of sex offenses of the person charged with criminal sexual psychopathy, or if the report of the examining physician or physicians does not establish the fact of a mental disorder to which such propensities are attributable in the person examined, the court shall dismiss the petition. If sufficient proof be made to the court of the criminal propensities to the commission of sex offenses of the person so charged, and if the report of the examining physicians does establish the fact of a mental disorder to which such propensities are attributable in the person examined, the court shall order that a final hearing pursuant to the order of continuance be held on the petition setting the time and place of such hearing. [56GA, ch 121, §8]

225A.9 Trial. The action shall be tried as a special proceeding and the defendant shall be entitled to a jury trial. The judge may, at the request of the person charged in the petition, provide for the final determination of the issue of criminal sexual psychopathy by the court without jury. The court may order the public excluded from such proceedings. [56GA, ch 121,§9]

225A.10 Evidence admissible. At the final hearing, the examining physicians appointed or designated by the court may testify as to their examination or examinations of the person charged and the results thereof, but their report or reports filed in court as herein provided shall not be admissible in evidence against the person charged. Evidence of past acts of sexual deviation by the person charged shall be admissible at the hearing. [56GA, ch 121,§10]

225A.11 Commitment. If the person is found to be a criminal sexual psychopath the court may commit him to a state hospital for the insane, where he shall be detained and treated until released in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or may order such person to be tried upon the criminal charges against him, as the interests of substantial justice may require. The hospital staff shall make periodic examinations of any such person committed, with the view of determining the progress of treatment, and shall report to the court not less than once a year. [56GA, ch 121, §11]

225A.12 Application for release. At any time after commitment, an application in writing setting forth facts showing that such criminal psychopath has improved to the extent that his release will not be incompatible with the welfare of society may be filed with the committing court. Whereupon the court shall issue an order which will return the person to the jurisdiction of said court for a hearing. This hearing shall in all respects be like the original hearing to determine the mental condition of the defendant. Following such hearing, the court shall issue an order which shall cause the defendant either to be (1) placed on probation for a minimum of three (3) years, or (2) returned to the hospital, provided that upon the expiration of said probationary period the said person may be discharged. [56GA, ch 121,§12]

225A.13 Effect of finding. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as changing in meaning any portion of the criminal code, nor shall a finding of criminal sexual psychopathy, under the provisions of this chapter, constitute a defense in any criminal action. [56GA, ch 121,§13]

229.1 Form of information—temporary observation. Applications for admission to the hospitals for the insane shall be by sworn information which shall allege and show:

1. That the person in whose behalf the application is made is believed to be insane, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital.
2. That such person has been found in the county.
3. The place of residence of such person or where it is believed to be, or that such residence is not known.

Provided, however, that application for admission may be made on behalf of a person by his attending physician and another physician experienced in the treatment of mental diseases, for a temporary admission for observation, examination, diagnosis and treatment, which admission shall not be for a period of more than thirty days and only after the written consent of said person. The application shall be made to the superintendent of the state hospital in the district in which the county of his residence is located. Said application shall not be accepted by the superintendent if by doing so it will result in an over-crowded condition or if adequate facilities are not available. At the expiration of the admission period, the superintendent shall make a certified report of the findings as to the mental illness of said applicant, one copy of which shall be sent to the attending physician filing the application and, if said report finds that said person is insane and in need of treatment, a copy shall be sent to the commission of insanity of the county in which the applicant is a resident.

If the certification of the patient's condition to his attending physician by the hospital superintendent states that a further period of observation and treatment is indicated without commitment of the person as insane, the attending physician may authorize a further period of such observation and treatment as recommended. During such extended period of observation, if the patient is not discharged a recommendation for commitment as insane may be filed with the commission. If the commission does not issue a commitment as insane after recommendation by the superintendent within five days following receipt of such recommendation, the superintendent may, upon authority of the board of control, discharge such patient from the hospital, and the hospital and board of control, after discharge of such patient, shall be absolved of further responsibility in connection with the case until such time as the same person may be committed.

The cost of hospitalization of persons committed temporarily under the provisions of this section shall be paid for in the same way as persons committed otherwise as insane. [R60,§1480; C73,§1399; C97,§2264; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3544; C46, 50, 54,§229.1]

Referred to in §225.36

229.2 Hearing—custody. On the filing of such information, the commission, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause therefor, may require the alleged insane person to be brought before it and, to this end, may issue its warrant to any peace officer of the county. The commission may provide for the custody of such person until its investigation is concluded. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3545; C46, 50, 54,§229.2]

229.3 Subpoenas and oaths. The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas. Each member of the commission shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses. In case a witness fails to appear or refuses to testify, the commission shall, in writing, report such refusal to the district court or to a judge thereof, and said court or judge shall proceed as though such refusal occurred in a legal proceeding before said court or judge. [C73,§1398; C97,§2263; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3546; C46, 50, 54,§229.3]

Contempts, ch 665

229.4 Hearings. Hearings shall be had in the presence of such person unless the commission finds that such course would probably be injurious to such person or attended with no advantage. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3547; C46, 50, 54,§229.4]

229.5 Appearance—right to counsel. Appearance on behalf of such alleged insane person may be made by any citizen of the county, or by any relative, either in person or by counsel.

If at said hearing such person appears without counsel or appearance is made in his behalf without counsel, the commission, before proceeding further, shall inform such person or persons appearing for him of his right to legal counsel, then if no counsel is employed, the district court shall assign him counsel. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county. [C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3548; C46, 50, 54, §229.5]

229.6 Examining physician. The commission shall, in all cases, appoint, either from, or outside, its own membership, some regular practicing physician of the county to make a personal examination of the person in question for the purpose of determining his mental and physical condition. Said physician shall certify to the commission whether said person is sane or insane. [C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3549; C46, 50, 54,§229.6] which the county is situated and in connection with such finding and order shall determine and enter of record the county which is the legal settlement of such person. If such settlement is unknown the record shall show such fact.

No person shall be ordered committed or delivered to a state hospital until the commission has first communicated with the superintendent of said hospital, and has been advised that adequate facilities are available. A person ordered to screening center for observation and treatment shall have the same right to appeal from the order as from the order of commitment finding him insane as provided in sections 229.17 to 229.19, inclusive. [R60,§1479; C73,§1401; C97,§2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3552; C46, 50, 54,§229.9]

[R60, §§1458, 1459, 1479; C73, §§1401, 1412; C97, §§2266, 2279; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3554, 3556; C46, §§229.11, 229.13; C50, 54, §229.11]

Warrant of commitment, §229.10

229.20 Beneficiaries of veterans bureau.

1. Whenever, in any proceeding under the laws of this state for the commitment of a person alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise in need of confinement in a hospital or other institution for his proper care, it is determined after such adjudication of the status of such person as may be required by law that commitment to a hospital for mental disease or other institution is necessary for safekeeping or treatment and it appears that such person is eligible for care or treatment by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States government, the court, upon receipt of a certificate from the veterans administration or such other agency showing that facilities are available and that such person is eligible for care or treatment therein, may commit such person to said veterans administration or other agency. The person whose commitment is sought shall be personally served with notice of the pending commitment proceeding in the manner as provided by the law of this state; and nothing in this section shall affect his right to appear and be heard in the proceedings. Upon commitment, such person, when admitted to any facility operated by any such agency within or without this state shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other agency. The chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration or institution operated by any other agency of the United States to which the person is so committed shall with respect to such person be vested with the same powers as superintendents of state hospitals for mental diseases within this state with respect to retention of custody, transfer, parole or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the committing or other appropriate court of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of the person so committed, and to determine the necessity for continuance of his restraint, and all commitments pursuant to this section are so conditioned.

2. The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or of the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration, or other agency of the United States government for care or treatment shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order; and the courts of the committing state, or of the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so committed for the purpose of inquiring into the mental condition of such person, and of determining the necessity for continuance of his restraint; as is provided in subsection 1 of this section with respect to persons committed by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States to retain custody, or transfer, parole or discharge the committed person.

3. Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any hospital for the insane or other institution for the care or treatment of persons similarly afflicted and that such person is eligible for care or treatment, the superintendent of the institution may cause the transfer of such person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing such person shall enter an order for such transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

4. Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment. [C27, 31, 35, §3562-b1; C39, §3562.1; C46, 50, 54, §229.20]

229.21 Transfer from state hospital. A veteran of any war committed to any state hospital may, with the approval of the board of control, be transferred to and placed in the custody of any hospital maintained for war veterans within the state of Iowa on being notified by the authorities of such veterans hospital that the veteran is acceptable for hospitalization, provided no charge for his care and support is made against the state of Iowa or the county from which committed. [C39, §3562.2; C46, 50, 54, §229.21]

229.22 Commitment continues. The transfer of a veteran from one hospital to another shall in no way invalidate the original commitment and such commitment together with all such laws and rules of the board of control pertaining to parole or discharge shall remain in full force and effect as the original commitment. [C39, §3562.3; C46, 50, 54, §229.22]

229.23 Blanks. The board of control shall furnish the commissions of insanity of the counties with such forms for blanks for warrants, certificates, and other papers as will enable them with regularity and facility to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and also with copies of the regulations of the hospital, when printed. [C73, §1431; C97, §2295; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3563; C46, 50, 54, §229.23]

229.24 Temporary custody in certain cases. If any person found to be insane cannot at once be admitted to the hospital, or, in case of appeal from the finding of the commission, if such person cannot with safety be allowed to go at liberty, the commission of insanity shall require that such person shall be suitably provided for either in the county home or otherwise until such admission can be had, or until the occasion therefor no longer exists. [R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3564; C46, 50, 54, §229.24]

In such case the commission shall in writing appoint some suitable person special custodian who shall have authority and shall in all suitable ways restrain, protect, and care for such patient, in such manner as to best secure his safety and comfort, and to best protect the persons and property of others. [C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3565; C46, 50, 54, §229.25]

Referred to in §229.26

229.26 Care by county. If care and custody of the patient is not provided as authorized in section 229.25 the commission shall require that he be restrained and cared for by the board of supervisors, at the expense of the county, at the county home or some other suitable place, and the commission of insanity shall issue its mandate to the board of supervisors, which shall forthwith comply therewith. [R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3566; C46, 50, 54, §229.26]

229.27 Custody outside state hospitals. The commission of insanity may grant applications, made in substantially the form provided in this title, for the restraint, protection and care, within the county and outside the state hospitals, of alleged insane persons, either as public or private patients, but all patients so cared for shall be reported to the board of control. [R60, §1437; C73, §1404; C97, §2272; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3567; C46, 50, 54, §229.27]

229.28 Neglected insane. On information laid before the commission of insanity of any county that an insane person in the county is suffering for want of proper care, it shall forthwith inquire into the matter, and, if it finds that such information is true, it shall make all needful provisions for the care of such person as provided in other cases. [R60, §1467; C73, §1405; C97, §2273; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3568; C46, 50, 54, §229.28]

229.29 Transfers from county and private asylums. Insane persons who have been under care, either as public or private patients, outside of the hospital, by authority of the commission of insanity may, on application, be transferred to the state hospital, whenever they can be admitted thereto. Such admission may be had without another inquest, at any time within six months after the inquest already had, unless the commission shall think further inquest advisable. [C73, §1406; C97, §2274; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3569; C46, 50, 54, §229.29]

229.30 Discharge from custody. When it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the commission of insanity that cause no longer exists for the care within the county of any person as an insane patient, it shall, with the approval of the board of control, order his immediate discharge, and shall find if such person is sane or insane at the time of such discharge, which finding shall be entered of record by the clerk of the commission of insanity. [C73, §1409; C97, §2277; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3570; C46, 50, 54, §229.30]

229.31 Commission of inquiry. A sworn complaint, alleging that a named person is not insane and is unjustly deprived of his liberty in any hospital in the state, may be filed by any person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such named person is so confined, or of the county in which such named person has a legal settlement, and thereupon a judge of said court shall appoint a commission of not more than three persons to inquire into the truth of said allegations. One of said commissioners shall be a physician and if additional commissioners are appointed, one of such commissioners shall be a lawyer. [C73, §1442; C97, §2304; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3571; C46, 50, 54, §229.31]

Referred to in §229.36

229.32 Duty of commission. Said commission shall at once proceed to the place where said person is confined and make a thorough and discreet examination for the purpose of determining the truth of said allegations and shall promptly report its findings to said judge in writing. 230.7 Removal of nonresidents. If at any time the board of control discovers that an insane patient in a state hospital was, at the time of commitment, a nonresident of this state, it may cause said patient to be conveyed to his place of residence if his condition permits of such transfer and other reasons do not render such transfer inadvisable. [C73, §1419; C97,§2283; S13,§§2283, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3587; C46, 50, 54,§230.7]

In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in insanity and paid by said county. The court may require such parent to enter into a bond, with or without surety, and in a reasonable sum, conditioned for the proper care, support, and supervision of such child. If it finds that the parent is able to support such child in any reasonable degree, it may require such parent to pay a reasonable amount of money into court at such times as it may provide, which sum shall be applied to the care of said child. 232.26 Action on bond. In case of the breach of a bond given as required in section 232.25, the amount thereof shall be deemed liquidated damages, which, when collected, shall, under the orders of the court, be applied to the care of said child. 1. If the child is neglected or dependent and is not delinquent, it shall be committed either to The Iowa Annie Wittenmyer home or to the Iowa juvenile home; provided, however, that any child not mentally normal, or who is incorrigible or who has any vicious habits, or whose presence in the home would be inimical to the moral or physical welfare of the children therein, shall not be committed to said homes.

2. If the child is over the age of ten years and, in the opinion of the court or judge is seriously delinquent or so disposed, it shall be committed to the state training school for boys or for girls, as the case may be; but married women, prostitutes, and girls who are pregnant shall not be committed to the training school. 232.28 Interpretative clause. It is the intent of section 232.27 to so classify commitments that the merely neglected and dependent child will not be associated with the delinquent, and that delinquent children will be so segregated that the least delinquent will not suffer by association with those of greater delinquency. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3647; C46, 50, 54, §232.28]

1. "State department" means the state department of social welfare provided for in section 234.2.

2. "State board" means the state board of social welfare provided for in section 234.3.

3. "County board" means the county board of social welfare provided for in section 234.9.

4. A "dependent child" means a needy child under the age of sixteen years, or under the age of eighteen years found to be regularly attending school, who has been deprived of parental support and care by reason of death, continued absence from home, or physical or mental incapacity or unfitness of either parent, and who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle or aunt, in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their home.

5. "Assistance" means money payments to, or in behalf of, a needy, dependent child or children.

6. "Recipient" is the person to whom the assistance grant is made. [C39, §§3661.002, 3661.016; C46, 50, 54, §239.1; 57GA, ch 116, §§1, 2]

Referred to in §§239.2, 239.5

239.2 Eligibility for aid to dependent children. Assistance shall be granted under this chapter to any needy dependent child who:

1. Is living in a suitable family home maintained by one or more of the persons referred to in subsection 4 of section 239.1.

2. Has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the application for such assistance; or was born within the state within one year immediately preceding the application, if the mother has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the birth of said child, without regard to the residence of the person or persons with whom said child is living.

3. Is not in a public institution and because of a physical or mental condition, in need of continued care therein. [C46, 50, 54, §239.2]

239.3 Application for assistance. Application for assistance under this chapter shall be made to the county board of the county in which the dependent child resides or will reside in the event assistance is granted. The application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the state board. Such application shall be made by an adult person with whom the dependent child resides or will reside, and shall contain such information as may be required by said application form. One application may be made for several children of the same family if they reside or will reside with the same person. [C46, 50, 54, §239.3]

239.4 Investigation of application. Whenever a county board receives a notification of the dependency of a child or an application for assistance, an investigation and record of the circumstances shall promptly be made in order to ascertain the dependency of the child and the facts supporting the application.

The investigations shall include visits to the home of the child and of the person with whom the child will live during the time assistance is granted.

In cases involving physical or mental incapacity or unfitness of either parent, the county board of social welfare may require as a condition for granting assistance hereunder that such incapacity or unfitness be de-terminated by a board of doctors which shall be selected by the county board of social welfare. [C46, 50, 54, §239.4; 56GA, ch 6, §3]

239.5 Granting of assistance and amount of assistance—co-operation of parent. Upon the completion of an investigation the county board shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and determine the amount of such assistance. The county board shall, within thirty days, notify the person with whom the child is living or will be living, of the decision made. The county board may require, as a condition of granting assistance, that a legal guardianship be established over any recipient, or any child or children and in such cases the assistance payments shall be made to such guardian, when appointed, but a guardian of a child or children only shall not be allowed to receive any assistance payments for any dependent child or children unless such guardian shall bear a relationship to the child or children embraced by subsection 4, section 239.1. In addition to the assistance granted as provided under this chapter, an amount not to exceed ten dollars per case per month may be allowed for guardian's fees when authorized by appropriate court order. The dependent child for whom the grant is made shall be originally charged to the county in which such child resides when application is made.

The county board shall, on the basis of actual need, fix the amount of assistance necessary for any dependent child, subject to the approval of the state department, with due regard to the necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case, taking into consideration any other income or resources of any child claiming assistance under this chapter and any private resources found to be available to such child. Such assistance when granted shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health; provided, however, that no family shall receive a grant hereunder in excess of one hundred seventy-five dollars per month. Assistance, when granted, shall be paid monthly to an adult person within the specified degrees of relationship and with whom the child is living, from the fund for aid to dependent children established by this chapter, upon the order of the state department.

No payment for aid to dependent children shall be made unless and until the county board of social welfare, with the advice of the county attorney shall certify that the parent receiving the aid for the children is cooperating in legal actions and other efforts to obtain support money for said children from the persons legally responsible for said support. [C46, 50, 54, §239.5; 56 GA, ch 6, §4]

See Collins v. Board, 248 Iowa —.

239.6 Periodic reconsideration, changes, and termination of grants. Any or all assistance grants made under this chapter shall be subject to reconsideration at any time the county board deems necessary and shall be reinvestigated and reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required. After any such further investigation, the county board shall make further report to the state department. Upon such report, assistance may be continued, renewed, suspended, changed in amount, or entirely withdrawn, as the findings of such reports warrant. [C46, 50, 54, §239.6]

239.7 Appeal. If an application is not acted upon by the county board or the state department within a reasonable time after such application is made, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended, or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such appeal, give appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled or modified, after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision. The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C46, 50, 54, §239.7]

239.8 Removal from county. When any child for whose benefit a grant of assistance has been made removes or is removed from the county giving assistance, it shall be the duty of the recipient to immediately notify the county board of the county giving assistance of the fact of such removal and of the city or town (or the nearest city or town) and of the county to which the child has removed. If the removal is into another county in the state, the county which has been giving assistance shall continue the assistance for a period of six months after the date of removal, but if the removal is out of the state assistance shall immediately cease. Thereafter any assistance can be granted only in the manner provided for herein as to obtaining assistance, and can be only in and from the county in which the child is then living. [C46, 50, 54, §239.8]

239.9 Funeral expenses. Upon the death of any child for whose benefit assistance payments are being made or have been authorized, a reasonable funeral expense for the burial of such child may be paid by the state department, provided such expenses do not exceed one hundred fifty dollars, and the estate of the deceased or any life insurance or payments by any death or funeral benefit association or society paid by reason of the death of such child to the child's estate or to any person legally liable for his support, are insufficient to defray such funeral expenses. The person to whom such funeral expenses are paid as above provided is hereby prohibited from soliciting, accepting, or contracting to receive any further compensation for services rendered or articles furnished in connection with such funeral except on written approval of the county board of the county to which the assistance is chargeable and subject to such rules and regulations as the state board shall prescribe. [C46, 50, 54, §239.9]

239.10 Records—report of recipients. All applications, investigation reports and case records shall be privileged communications and held confidential, subject to use and inspection only by persons authorized by law in connection with their official duties relating to financial audits and the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

Provided, however, that the county board of social welfare shall prepare and file in its office on or before the thirtieth day of each January, April, July and October a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients receiving assistance under this chapter, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding quarter. Each report so filed shall be securely fixed in a record book to be used only for such reports made under this chapter and chapters 241 and 249. The record book shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a public record, open to public inspection at all times during the regular office hours of the respective county boards of social welfare. Each person who desires to examine said records, other than in pursuance of official duties as hereinbefore provided, shall sign a written request to examine the same, which shall contain an agreement on the part of the signer that he will not utilize any information gained therefrom for commercial or political purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person, body, association, firm, corporation or any other agency to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists, names or other information obtained from the reports above provided for, for commercial or political purposes, and a violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, 50, 54, §239.10]

239.11 County appropriations. The county board of supervisors in each county in this state shall appropriate annually, and pay in the manner hereinafter specified from the county poor fund, such sum as shall result in the payment by such county of that portion of all assistance and benefits payable with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county under this chapter, which shall equal one-half of all such assistance and benefits chargeable to the county exclusive of such receipts and contributions to such fund other than state or county funds, as may from time to time be legally received from any source and credited to the state department and shall include in the tax levy for such county the sum or sums so appropriated for that purpose. The sums necessary as above provided shall be originally determined upon the basis of an annual budget prepared by the county board and approved by the state department. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for which it was appropriated, such additional sum shall be appropriated by the board of supervisors from the county poor fund as shall be sufficient to meet the obligation of the county to pay its share as heretofore provided of all assistance and benefits with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county. The appropriation provided in this section shall not exceed statutory tax limitations now or hereafter provided, except that in counties having a population of sixty thousand, or more, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-fourth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter; and in counties having a population of over thirty-five thousand and less than sixty thousand, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-eighth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

The share of any county for assistance and benefits payable to dependent Indian children living on an Indian reservation in said county shall be paid by the state, from the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, 50, 54, §239.11]

239.12 Fund for aid to dependent children—reimbursement to state. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "Fund for Aid to Dependent Children" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of administrative expenses, assistance and benefits under this chapter, all moneys received at any time for such purposes, and all funds paid by counties to the state department as provided by this chapter. All assistance and benefits under this chapter, and the administrative expenses incident thereto, except compensation and expenses paid to the county board members, shall be paid from said fund. The state department shall report to the county board quarterly the total amount of assistance and benefits paid during the preceding quarter to recipients chargeable to the county. The county board shall promptly report the same to the county board of supervisors which shall then order paid from the county poor fund a sum representing the county's share thereof determined in the manner heretofore provided, which payment shall be credited to the fund for aid to dependent children.

Any unexpended balance of the fund appropriated or allocated by the state which remains in the fund for aid to dependent children at the end of each biennium shall not revert to the general fund of the state, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [C46, 50, 54, §239.12]

239.13 Assistance not assignable. Assistance granted under this chapter shall not be transferable or assignable at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under this chapter shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law. [C46, 50, 54, §239.13]

239.14 Fraudulent acts. Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation, or any fraudulent device, any assistance under this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, 50, 54, §239.14]

239.15 Grant accepted without condition. No contribution or grant shall be received or accepted if any condition is attached as to its use or administration other than that it be used for assistance to dependent children as provided in this chapter.

If any contribution or grant has been accepted, and thereafter the same is discontinued or rejected, the county tax levy for the purpose of this chapter shall not be increased more than one-half mill and the state appropriation shall not be increased more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars in any one fiscal year by reason of such discontinuance or rejection of any such contribution or grant. [C46, 50, 54, §239.15]

239.16 Merit rating for employees. The selection of all persons as employees of the state board in the administration of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of section 234.8. [C46, 50, 54, §239.16]

239.17 Recovery of assistance obtained by fraudulent act. Whosoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation or any fraudulent device, any assistance as defined in this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be personally liable for the amount of assistance thus obtained. Such amount may be recovered from the offender or his estate in an action brought or by claim filed in the name of the state, and upon recovery the state shall pay the county a portion thereof equal to the amount paid by the county with respect to such assistance and return the balance of such recovery to the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, 50, 54, §239.17]

239.18 State control exclusive. Questions of policy and control respecting administration of this chapter shall vest and remain in the state agency of the state of Iowa for the purposes of administering all provisions of this chapter. In order to provide a uniform state-wide program for aid to dependent children, the state board shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to make the provisions of this chapter uniform in all of the counties of this state. “Applicant” means a person who has applied for assistance under this chapter.

“Recipient” means a person who has received assistance under this chapter.

“Assistance” means money payments to, or in behalf of, a needy blind person.

A “blind person” within the meaning of this chapter shall be one who has no vision, or whose vision with corrective glasses is so defective as to prevent the performance of ordinary activities for which eyesight is essential. [C39,§3684.01; C46, 50, 54,§241.1; 57GA, ch 116,§3]

241.2 Eligibility for assistance to the needy blind. Assistance shall be granted under the provisions of this chapter to any blind person who:

1. Is eighteen years of age or over.
2. Is a citizen of the United States, or has made application for citizenship.
3. Has resided in the state of Iowa for at least five years during the nine years immediately preceding the date of the application for assistance under the provisions of this chapter, and has resided therein one year immediately preceding the application for assistance. If, however, such person has become blind while a resident of the state or is blind and a resident of the state at the time of the passage of this chapter, he is eligible even though he has not resided for five years within the state.

The state board shall notify the county board of its decision, and the county board shall promptly notify the applicant thereof. 241.12 Periodic reconsideration—changes in amount of assistance. All assistance grants made under this chapter shall be reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required by the rules of the state board. After such further investigation as the county board may deem necessary or the state board may require, the county board shall make further report to the state board and the amount of assistance may be changed or assistance may be entirely withdrawn if the state board finds that the recipient's circumstances have altered sufficiently to warrant such action. [C39, §3684.12; C46, 50, 54, §241.12]

The person to whom such funeral expense is paid as above provided is hereby prohibited from soliciting, accepting or contracting to receive any further compensation for services rendered in connection with such burial except on written approval of the county board and subject to such rules and regulations as the state board shall prescribe. [C39, §3684.17; C46, 50, 54, §241.17]

The amount so paid shall be allowed as a claim against his estate in favor of the state, and upon recovery the state shall repay to the county its proportionate share of the amount paid for such assistance and funeral expenses. An action may be brought in the name of the state to recover the same at any time within five years after the death of the person receiving aid as above provided. It shall be unlawful for any person, body, association, firm, corporation, or any other agency to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists, names or other information obtained from the reports above provided for, for commercial or political purposes, and a violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. during the nine years immediately preceding the date of application, one of said five years having been continuous and immediately preceding such date. Furthermore, absence from the state in the service of the state or the United States shall not be deemed to have interrupted such continuous residence, if domicile has not been acquired outside the state.

5. Is not at the date of making claim or receiving assistance, an inmate of any prison, jail, insane asylum, or any other public reform or correctional institution.

249.8 Income considered. The income of the applicant shall be his income for the twelve months preceding the date on which his application is made; provided that, if the applicant shows to the state department's satisfaction a decrease of income, the amount of such decrease may be deducted from the income of the preceding twelve months in determining the amount of assistance to be allowed. However, in calculating the income of the claimant, occasional gifts, or earnings through personal labor, not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars in the aforesaid twelve-month period may be disregarded. [C35,§5296-f11; C39,§3828.010; C46, 50, 54,§249.8]

At the discretion of the state department, however, where such immediate sale, for cash, of such securities or investments necessitates an undue financial sacrifice, the applicant, when in immediate need of assistance, shall assign such securities and investments to the state to be held in trust by the state board to reimburse the old-age assistance revolving fund for the amount paid from the old-age assistance fund and the old-age assistance revolving fund in assistance or other benefits in behalf of said applicant.

No person shall be allowed assistance if the claimant has deprived himself, directly or indirectly, of any property for the purpose of qualifying for old-age assistance, or if the claimant or the husband or wife conveys or encumbers any real estate or other property owned by them or by either of them for the purpose of preventing the state from reimbursing itself for assistance granted or to be granted hereunder.

A sworn statement by both the vendor and vendee of the reasons and/or considerations of any transfer of real and/or personal property within the five years immediately preceding the date of application for old-age assistance may be required by the board or state department to be made in such manner and on such forms as the state board may direct; provided, however, that no sworn statement need be made for any transfer prior to January 1, 1934, unless the state department so directs. Provided, however, that no person shall be denied assistance because of the fact that the claimant has made prior arrangements for funeral expenses in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars. 249.10 Applicants. An applicant for assistance shall deliver his claim, in writing, to the board of the county in which he resides, in the manner and form prescribed by the state board.

All statements in the application shall be sworn to or affirmed by the applicant setting forth that all facts are true in every material point. [C35,§5296-f17; C39,§3828.013; C46, 50, 54, §249.10]

249.11 Procedure with application. When an application is made for old-age assistance, the county board shall promptly send it to the state department. Within sixty days, the county board shall make an investigation of the applicant's claim through an investigator, and make, in addition, such direct investigation as it deems advisable. After hearing the applicant, if he so requests, if it approves the claim, the county board shall make a recommendation of the amount of assistance to be allowed; or, if it disapprove, make a recommendation that no assistance be allowed. Within ninety days from the date of the application, the county board shall send its recommendation and the reason for such recommendation to the state department with such supporting papers as the state board may require, unless for reasons beyond the county board's control which reasons shall be reported.

Upon receipt of the application and supporting papers, the state department may make such additional investigation as it deems necessary. Should the state department disagree with the county board in the latter's recommendation regarding eligibility it shall neither approve nor disapprove said application without a further review to clarify the points of disagreement between the county board and state department. In any event, the state department shall make its decision within sixty days of the receipt of the supporting papers, properly prepared and executed, and either approve and fix an amount of assistance or reject the claim of the applicant; and shall give written notice to the applicant as to the action taken.

If an application is not acted upon by the county board within ninety days after the filing of the application, or is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board in the manner and form prescribed by the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such an appeal, give the applicant or recipient reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives. Following such hearing the state board shall take its final action and notify the applicant in writing.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled, after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon the state department or upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision.

The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C35, §5296-f18; C39,§3828.014; C46, 50, 54,§249.11]

249.12 Witnesses. For the purpose of any such investigation, the state board and the county board shall have the power to compel, by subpoena, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers. All witnesses shall be examined on oath, and any member of the state board or of the county board may administer said oath. The costs incurred in connection with any such hearing or examination shall be paid by the state board or county board, whichever issues the subpoenas; and the witnesses shall be entitled to claim a two-dollar fee and mileage expense at a rate of five cents per mile, except that responsible relatives as defined in sections 252.2, 252.5 and 600.6 shall not be entitled to claim witness fees and mileage expense. [C35, §5296-f19; C39,§3828.015; C46, 50, 54,§249.12]

249.13 Assistance certificate. The state department shall issue to each applicant to whom assistance is allowed a certificate stating the amount of each installment, which may be monthly or quarterly, as the state department may decide; and, on written order of the state department, the state comptroller shall issue his warrant, or warrant check to be forwarded by the state department, to such recipient in payment of each installment. The amount of assistance granted under this chapter shall be subject to review at any time by the state department and the amount received by the recipient may be increased, decreased, or discontinued. [C35,§5296-f20; C39, §3828.016; C46, 50, 54,§249.13]

249.14 Fingerprint indorsement. Whenever the payee of an old-age assistance warrant is unable to indorse said warrant in writing as his name appears on the face of said warrant, the indorsement shall be made by the payee's fingerprint, which act shall be witnessed by at least two persons who shall sign as witnesses, also giving their address. [C39,§3828.017; C46, 50, 54,§249.14]

249.15 Renewal of certificate. The general provisions as to the eligibility of applicants for assistance shall apply to recipients whose certificates are subject to review for the issuance of renewal certificates of assistance, with the following exceptions as to residence:

Provided, that he does not establish a domicile outside this state, a person may, while receiving assistance and with the approval of the state department, retain his rights under the provisions of this chapter and section, even though he takes up residence outside the state in the household of a relative or friend for reasons of the infirmities of age, health or economic necessity. [C35,§5296-f21; C39, §3828.018; C46, 50, 54,§249.15]

249.16 Assistance certificate improperly obtained. If at any time the state department has reason to believe that an assistance certificate has been improperly obtained, it shall cause special inquiry to be made by the board, and may suspend payment of any installment pending the inquiry. It shall also notify the board of such suspension and it shall also promptly notify the recipient in writing of such suspension stating in such notice the reason for such suspension and such recipient shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided by section 249.11, to show cause why such suspension should not be made permanent. If on inquiry it appears that the certificate was improperly obtained, it shall be canceled by the state department, but if it appears that the certificate was properly obtained, the suspended installments shall be payable in due course. [C35, §5296-f30; C39, §3828.019; C46, 50, 54, §249.16]

249.17 When assistance commences. The assistance, if allowed, shall commence on the date named in the certificate, which shall be the day fixed by the state board for payments to recipients in the county from which the applicant applied and within the calendar month following that on which the application is approved by the state department. [C35, §5296-f22; C39, §3828.020; C46, 50, 54, §249.17]

249.18 Funeral expenses. On the death of any person to whom a certificate of old-age assistance has been issued, such reasonable funeral expenses shall be paid from the old-age assistance fund to such person as the county board directs, in an amount of not to exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars; provided:

1. That the total expense of such funeral does not exceed three hundred fifty dollars.
2. That the decedent does not leave an estate which may be probated, subject to the provisions of section 249.19, with sufficient proceeds to allow a funeral claim of at least three hundred fifty dollars, as provided by section 635.65.
3. That any payment which is due the decedent's estate, spouse, children, father, mother, brother, or sister by reason of the liability of any life insurance or death or funeral benefit company, association or society to be made in the event of the death of such decedent who was a recipient of old-age assistance may be deducted from the state department's liability of one hundred seventy-five dollars.
4. That in the event the total funeral expenses exceed the department's liability of one hundred seventy-five dollars, as provided under 1, 2, and 3 above, the additional expenses shall accrue only when there is an extraordinary expense or when the family or next best friend of the decedent specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault. Provided that said additional expense shall not be paid by the state. However, if the county board directs that a burial lot, grave opening, or clothing be furnished for the decedent, the expense thereof shall be paid by the state in a total amount not to exceed fifty dollars, to such person or persons as the county board directs, and such expense shall be allowed in addition to the one hundred seventy-five dollar limit provided in this section, provided further, however, that in such cases no extraordinary expense shall be permitted nor will the family or next best friend of the decedent be permitted to specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault.

Any funeral expenses thus paid by the state department shall become a part of the claim and lien for assistance paid the individual recipient of old-age assistance and shall be collectible under the provisions of sections 249.19 and 249.20.

When no claim is filed, or, whenever a claim is filed and disallowed, for the payment of funeral expenses, as provided for by this chapter and section, and the person furnishing such services and merchandise, in connection with the funeral of a deceased recipient of old-age assistance, files a claim against the decedent's estate, as provided for by chapter 635, such claim shall not be allowed in an amount exceeding three hundred fifty dollars.

Where a person has been receiving old-age assistance under the provisions of this chapter and while receiving such assistance is committed or admitted to any tax supported institution for any cause and is not receiving old-age assistance at the time of his death, he shall, notwithstanding such facts, be qualified to receive his burial expense as provided in this section. [C35, §5296-f25; C39, §3828.021; C46, 50, 54, §249.18; 56GA, ch 126, §1; 57GA, ch 121, §§1, 2]

Referred to in §§249.23, 635.65

249.19 Deduction from estate. On the death of a person receiving or who has received assistance under this chapter or of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom were so assisted, the total amount paid as assistance, shall be allowed as a lien against the real estate in the estate of the decedent and as a claim of the second class against the personal estate of such decedent, in the event the estate is admitted to probate. Neither the homestead nor the proceeds therefrom of such decedent or his survivor, shall be exempt from the payment of said lien or claim, any act or statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The filing of its claim against the estate shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the state board, in behalf of the state, to maintain an action by equitable proceedings to foreclose upon its lien against a homestead left by the deceased as well as any other real estate situated within the state of Iowa, and belonging to the estate of the deceased. The proceeds of such claim or lien shall be paid into the old-age assistance revolving fund. In case of the death of either husband or wife, either or both of whom have been receiving or have received assistance under this chapter, the homestead shall not be sold until the surviving spouse shall die or cease to occupy the homestead as such. Furthermore, no such claim shall be enforced against any real estate of the recipient, or the real estate of a person who has been a recipient, while it is occupied by the recipient's surviving spouse, if the latter, at the time of marriage to the recipient, was not more than fifteen years younger than the recipient, and does not marry again. [C35, §5296-f15; C39, §3828.022; C46, 50, 54, §249.19]

Referred to in §§249.18, 249.20, 249.21, 515.102

249.20 Transfer of property to the state. In any event, the assistance furnished under this chapter shall be and constitute a lien on any real estate owned either by the husband or wife for assistance and funeral benefit furnished to either of such persons. Whenever an order is made for such assistance to any person, a copy of such order shall be indexed and recorded in the manner provided for the indexing of real-estate mortgages in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the recipient lives and in which the real estate belonging to the recipient or the spouse of such recipient is situated, and such recording and indexing shall constitute notice of such lien. The county recorder shall not charge a fee for such recording and indexing or for releasing said lien.

Assistance furnished under this chapter shall not constitute a lien on any real estate owned by the Indian tribes residing in this state. This is the sole exception to the provisions of this and section 249.19.

Any action to enforce an old-age assistance lien shall be by equitable proceedings.

The statute of limitations shall not begin to run against any lien or cause of action, belonging to the state under the provisions of this section or chapter, until the death of the recipient, former recipient, or the surviving spouse, if any.

The state board shall release liens created or existing under this chapter when the amount thereof is fully paid, or when an estate, of which real estate affected by this chapter is a part, has been probated and the proceeds allowable through such probate have been applied on such liens. The board may also, in its discretion, at any time, order the release of any lien in full, or the release of any specific parcel of land from the lien, upon such compromise, settlement, substitution of other security, or other consideration as the board shall determine to be fair and adequate under the peculiar circumstances affecting the property subject to the lien or its ownership. Such release shall be executed and acknowledged by the secretary of the state board of social welfare; and such release when recorded shall be conclusive in favor of any third person dealing with or concerning the land thus released in reliance on such record.

If the state board deems it necessary to protect the interest of the state, it may require, as a condition to the grant of assistance, the absolute conveyance or assignment of all, or any part, of the property of an applicant for assistance to the state board; upon the taking of such deed or assignment the state department shall pay any delinquent taxes against said property and said deed shall reserve to the grantor and his spouse a life estate in said property and an option to the grantor and his heirs to purchase said property by repayment of the total amount paid for the benefit of the recipient. Said option insofar as the heirs are concerned shall be for six months from the date of the death of the grantor or the grantor's surviving spouse, if any.

Title to any real estate may be taken in the name of the state board of social welfare.

Such property shall be managed by the state department which shall credit the net income to the account of the person or persons entitled thereto. The state board shall have power to sell, lease, assign or convey such property or defend and prosecute all suits concerning it, and to pay all just claims against it, and to do all other things necessary for the protection, preservation and management of the property.

Upon the death of the recipient, or person who has received assistance, and the surviving spouse of such person, which spouse meets the requirements set out in section 249.19, and the expiration of the option to the heirs, the property shall be disposed of at public auction after notice by publication in some newspaper in the county where located, once each week for two consecutive weeks, before the day of sale and so much of the proceeds as is necessary for the repayment of the amount of assistance and other benefits paid to the grantor and/or his spouse and repayment of amount expended for the preservation of the property shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund. The balance, if any, shall be paid through the old-age assistance revolving fund to the heirs.

The state board and state department shall be entitled to an assignment of the certificate of tax sale of said property upon tender to the holder or to the county auditor of the amount to which the holder of the tax sale certificate would be entitled in case of redemption.

The attorney general, at the request of the state board, shall take the necessary proceedings, and represent and advise the state board in respect to any matters arising under this section. [C35, §5296-f16; C39, §3828.023; C46, 50, 54, §249.20; 56GA, ch 127, §§1-3]

Attorney general, §13.6

249.21 Executor responsible. Any transfer of any property or interest therein made by an applicant or recipient of old-age assistance to any person without adequate consideration therefor or with intent to deprive the state of its interest therein shall be void.

All administrators, executors, referees and trustees of estates subject to liens provided for by this chapter shall when such lien as provided in sections 249.19 and 249.20, is filed or a claim is filed in the estate or against said estate or established by other legal proceedings as provided by law, pay said lien or claim when so ordered by the court. [C35, §5296-g1; C39, §3828.024; C46, 50, 54, §249.21]

249.22 Compromise by state. The state board and state department, when considering a compromise settlement of the state's interest in any property or the estate of a recipient and/or the recipient's spouse, may recognize such equitable interest as may be established by another person or legal entity. [C39, §3828.025; C46, 50, 54, §249.22]

249.23 Assignment of insurance. Any person, who has been granted a certificate of old-age assistance and is receiving payments of assistance from the old-age pension fund, may petition the state board to accept an assignment of any assignable death benefits, loan value, or cash surrender value, of any life insurance policy, death or funeral benefit of any association, society or organization, requiring further payment of premiums or assessments which such person believes he is unable to pay. The state board may accept such assignment if it deems such action advisable and in the best interests of such person and the state. Upon the payment of such death benefit, the state department shall first deduct the amount of the funeral expenses, incurred under the provisions of section 249.18, the amount of the premiums or assessments paid by the state department to keep the insurance or benefit in force, and the amount of assistance paid to such person, all of which shall accrue to the old-age assistance revolving fund, and pay the balance received, if any, to such person as was the beneficiary last specified upon the policy.

Any recipient of old-age assistance may assign any such insurance policy or benefit certificate for the purpose stated in this section, and when such assignment has been received by the company, association, society, or other organization, issuing same, the state board and state department shall have a vested interest therein for the purpose and to the extent as is contemplated in this section, and the contract so made between such insured person and the state board and state department, shall be valid, and binding upon such insured person, company, association, society or other organization, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

When proceeds are received from any insurance policy or benefit certificate which was not assigned to the state board and which states the beneficiary to be the administrator, or legal representatives or estate of the insured, such proceeds shall be subject to the claim against said estate for any old-age assistance payments to or on behalf of such insured person or for any funeral claims paid and said claim shall be prior to the claim of the heirs thereto. [C35, §5296-g2; C39, §3828.026; C46, 50, 54, §249.23]

249.24 Board notified of increase of property or income. If at any time during the currency or continuance of an old-age assistance certificate the recipient, or the wife or husband of the recipient, becomes possessed of any property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter in respect of the amount of assistance granted, it shall be the duty of the recipient immediately to notify the board of the receipt and possession of any such property or income. The board shall inform the state department of such change and make its recommendation for further action by the state department. The state department thereupon shall cancel the certificate or lower the amount of assistance for the remaining period of the certificate and notify the recipient of the reason for such change. Any excess assistance paid shall be returned to the state, and recoverable as a debt due the state. [C35, §5296-f23; C39, §3828.027; C46, 50, 54, §249.24]

Referred to in §249.35

249.25 Recovery from responsible relatives. If at any time under this chapter the state board and state department or county board finds that any person, municipality, association, society or corporation, as specified under subsection 7 of section 249.6, is or was at the time any assistance was paid reasonably able to contribute to the necessary care and support of any recipient without undue hardship, during the continuance of any certificate of assistance, and such person, municipality, association, society or corporation fails or has failed or refused to do so, then, after notice to such person, municipality, association, society, or corporation, there shall exist a cause of action against such person, municipality, association, society or corporation for the recovery by the state board and state department, for the state, of double such amount of assistance furnished as was or is in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter. [C39, §3828.028; C46, 50, 54, §249.25]

249.26 When child's liability begins. The state board or the court in determining the responsibility of a child for funeral expenses or the support of a claimant or recipient, shall deem liability to begin when said child is receiving a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which he would make an income tax payment to this state. [C39, §3828.029; C46, 50, 54, §249.26]

249.27 County attorney's duties—equity action. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each and every county, upon application of the state board of social welfare, to institute and conduct the prosecution of any suit for the support of an applicant for or recipient of assistance by any person or legal entity legally or contractually liable therefor, and any action brought for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, within the county.

In the event that a child or other responsible relative neglects or refuses to contribute to the support of a claimant or recipient, an action in equity may be commenced in the district court of the county in which a responsible relative resides and there may be joined as defendants in said action any or all other responsible relatives. The court may decree the amount of contribution, if any, to be made by each child or other responsible relative with due regard to their separate incomes, financial ability and obligations. [C39, §3828.030; C46, 50, 54, §249.27]

249.28 Cancellation when county evades responsibility. The state board may cancel the certificate of any recipient who is found by the state board to be acting in agreement with the authorities of any county charged with the duty of providing for the support of the poor if it shall appear to the state board that such agreement is with the intent to shift or would have the effect of shifting the responsibility of any such county or to evade the provisions of sections 249.29 and 249.34. [C39, §3828.031; C46, 50, 54, §249.28]

249.29 Recipient not to receive other assistance. No person receiving assistance under this chapter shall at the same time receive any other assistance from the state, or from any political subdivision thereof, except for fuel, dental, nursing, osteopathic, chiropractic, medical and surgical assistance, and hospitalization.

This section shall not be construed to exclude the spouse, minor children or other dependents of the recipient of old-age assistance, or the members of the same family or household as said recipient from receiving relief, assistance or pensions handled or paid through the state or any of its political subdivisions. In administering old-age assistance or relief, the officials of this state and its political subdivisions shall assume old-age assistance payments to be made for the sole benefit of the aged person to whom the certificate of assistance has been issued. [C35, §5296-f27; C39, §3828.032; C46, 50, 54, §249.29]

Referred to in §249.28

249.30 No assistance during imprisonment. If any person receiving assistance is convicted of any crime or offense and punished by imprisonment for one month or longer, the board shall direct that payments shall not be made during the period of imprisonment. [C35, §5296-f33; C39, §3828.033; C46, 50, 54, §249.30]

249.31 Resident in institution. Any recipient who is a resident in any charitable, benevolent, or fraternal institution, not tax-supported, may expend a part of the assistance paid him under the provisions of this chapter toward defraying the actual expenses of his residence in such institution, provided, that the state board has approved and that it and its agents are permitted freely to visit and inspect such institution and, provided, the charge shall not be so much as to deprive said recipient and inmate of such cash as he needs for necessities and incidentals not furnished by said institution. [C35, §5296-f26; C39, §3828.034; C46, 50, 54, §249.31]

249.32 Incapacity of applicant or recipient. If the person applying for or receiving assistance, on the testimony of reputable witnesses, is thought to be incapable of taking care of himself or his money, the board shall complete the investigation, as provided elsewhere in this chapter, and send such application, investigation, and supporting papers to the state department. When notified by the state department of the conditional approval of said application or the renewal or continuance of a certificate, contingent upon the appointment of a legal guardian, the board shall direct the county attorney to petition the court for such appointment and shall forward the court record to the state department as notice of the person to whom assistance payments shall be made.

The application of a person who has been adjudged an incompetent shall be honored only when made by a legally appointed guardian as provided for under the provisions of section 670.2. Upon subsequent investigations all affidavits shall be affirmed by said legal guardian and the person or persons supplying the required information in behalf of said incompetent person.

All guardianship proceedings in the case of an applicant or recipient shall be carried out without fee or other expense including all court costs when, in the opinion of the court, the aged person is unable to assume said expense. At the discretion of the court, such a guardian may serve without bond. [C35, §5296-f28; C39, §3828.035; C46, 50, 54, §249.32]

249.33 Unlawful to charge for cashing warrant. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to charge a fee, service charge or exchange for the cashing of a warrant issued on the old-age assistance fund, or to discount or pay less than the face value of any warrant drawn on the old-age assistance fund when cashing the same or accepting it in the payment of the purchase price of goods or merchandise, services, rent, taxes, or indebtedness. [C35, §5296-g4; C39, §3828.036; C46, 50, 54, §249.33]

249.34 Assistance to be inalienable. All rights to old-age assistance shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, execution or otherwise, and, in the case of bankruptcy, the assistance shall not pass to or through any trustees or other persons acting on behalf of creditors. [C35, §5296-f29; C39, §3828.037; C46, 50, 54, §249.34]

Referred to in §249.28

249.35 Recovery of excess assistance. When it is found that any person who is receiving or has received old-age assistance has failed to notify the board, as provided in section 249.24, that he is or was possessed of property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter, then his certificate shall be canceled and double the amount of assistance paid, in excess of that to which the recipient was entitled, may be recovered from him, while living, as a debt due the state; upon his death as a preferred claim against his estate. The amount so received shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund of the state. [C35,§5296-f24; C39,§3828.038; C46, 50, 54,§249.35]

249.36 Assistance fund created. There is hereby created a fund to be known as the old-age assistance fund to be administered by the state board and state department, the proceeds of which shall be used to pay the expenditures incurred under this chapter. To provide money for said fund, there is hereby levied on all persons residing in this state and who are citizens of the United States and of twenty-one years of age and upwards, except inmates of state and county institutions, an annual tax of two dollars, to and including December 31, 1936. From the list certified to the county treasurer under the provisions of section 5296-f35 [Code 1935], it shall be the duty of such county treasurer to place the names of all persons subject to said tax on a tax list as specified by the auditor of state, and the said annual tax levied by the provisions of this section and chapter shall be collected in 1935, and 1936, by the county treasurer as of January 1, with a delinquency date of July 1, after which latter date a penalty of one percent for each month or fractional month of delinquency, and the county treasurer shall make remittance thereof to the treasurer of state who shall credit same to the old-age assistance fund. In any subsequent year to that in which any tax is due and payable, the county treasurer shall charge any unpaid tax and/or penalty against the property owned by the person by whom said tax is payable; or said county treasurer, when such delinquent person is not the owner of real estate, shall cause to be served a notice, which shall be served in the same manner as an original notice, upon the delinquent taxpayer's spouse or employer, if either, of the amount of the tax and penalties due and costs of collection and said spouse or employer shall pay the same, and thereupon the employer may subsequently withhold the amount thus paid in tax, penalty and cost of collection from any wages or salary then or in the future due said employee but costs of collection shall not be chargeable unless the tax and penalties are collected.

Any person, firm, association or corporation, including municipal corporations, having in their employ continuously for a period of thirty days or more any resident of this state and who is a citizen of the United States, and to whom this chapter applies and who has not paid the tax provided for in this section, shall deduct said tax from the earnings of such employee and deliver to such employee a receipt for said collection and remit same to the treasurer of state, together with a report showing the amount and name of the person from whom collected; and the treasurer of state shall credit said tax as other taxes provided for in this section and chapter, and report to the county treasurer of the county from which such remittance was received, giving the name of the employee and the amount of such tax collected; and when said report has been received by the county treasurer, he shall credit such person on his books with said payment. Any employer failing to collect and so report said tax shall be liable therefor. As a condition for obtaining assistance under this chapter and from this fund, satisfactory proof shall be furnished to the board or state department that the applicant has paid all taxes due to said fund.

The officer of each department, division, or bureau of the state government, including state educational institutions, whose duty it is to make out a payroll and to certify the same, shall be liable, personally and under his bond, for the failure of any state employee, under his jurisdiction, to pay the per capita tax levied under the provisions of this section. Such officer is hereby authorized to act in the same manner in withholding the tax from the salary or wages of a state employee as is granted a private employer and a municipal employer under the provisions of this section and chapter.

The penalties accruing under the provisions of this section shall accompany the tax and be credited to the old-age assistance fund.

All taxes collected under the provisions of this section and chapter shall be deposited to the credit of the old-age assistance fund, and shall be kept separate from the general fund of the state. On receipt of written order from the state department, the state comptroller shall draw warrants, or warrant checks against the old-age assistance fund for any and all old-age assistance payments and other expenditures provided for in this chapter. 252.1 "Poor person" defined. The words "poor" and "poor person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean those who have no property, exempt or otherwise, and are unable, because of physical or mental disabilities, to earn a living by labor; but this section shall not be construed to forbid aid to needy persons who have some means, when the board shall be of opinion that the same will be conducive to their welfare and the best interests of the public. [C97,§2252; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5297; C39,§3828.073; C46, 50, 54,§252.1]

252.2 Parents and children liable. The father, mother, and children of any poor person, who is unable to maintain himself or herself by labor, shall jointly or severally relieve or maintain such person in such manner as, upon application to the township trustees of the township where such person has a residence or may be, they may direct. [C51,§787; R60,§1355; C73,§1330; C97,§2216; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5298; C39,§3828.074; C46, 50, 54,§252.2]

Referred to in §§241.17, 249.12

252.3 Putative father. The word "father" in this chapter includes the putative father of an illegitimate child, and the question of parentage may be tried in any proceeding to recover for or compel the support of such a child, and like proceedings may be prosecuted against the mother independently of or jointly with the alleged father. [C51,§788; R60,§1356; C73, §1332; C97,§2250; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5299; C39, §3828.075; C46, 50, 54,§252.3]

Obligation of parent, ch 675

252.4 Who deemed trustee. The word "trustees" in this chapter shall be construed to include and mean any person or officer of any county or city charged with the oversight of the poor. [C51,§789; R60,§1357; C73,§1333; C97,§2251; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5300; C39,§3828.076; C46, 50, 54,§252.4]

252.5 Remote relatives. In the absence or inability of nearer relatives, the same liability shall extend to grandparents, if of ability without personal labor, and to the male grandchildren who are of ability by personal labor or otherwise. [C51,§787; R60,§1355; C73,§1331; C97,§2217; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5301; C39,§3828.077; C46, 50, 54,§252.5]

Referred to in §§241.17, 249.12

252.6 Enforcement of liability. Upon the failure of such relatives so to relieve or maintain a poor person who has made application for relief, the township trustees, county social welfare board, or state division of old-age assistance may apply to the district court of the county where such poor person resides or may be, for an order to compel the same. [C51, §789; R60,§1357; C73,§1333; C97,§2218; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5302; C39,§3828.078; C46, 50, 54,§252.6]

252.7 Notice—hearing. At least ten days notice in writing of the application shall be given to the parties sought to be charged, service thereof to be made as of an original notice, in which proceedings the county shall be plaintiff and the parties served defendants. No order shall be made affecting a person not served, but, as to such, notice may be given at any stage of the proceedings. The court may proceed in a summary manner to hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties, and order any one or more of the relatives who shall be able, to relieve or maintain him or her, charging them as far as practicable in the order above named, and for that purpose may bring in new parties when necessary. [C51,§§790-792; R60,§§1358-1360; C73,§§1334-1336; C97,§2219; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5303; C39,§3828.079; C46, 50, 54, §252.7]

Manner of service, R.C.P. 56(a)

252.8 Scope of order. The order may be for the entire or partial support of the applicant, may be for the payment of money or the taking of the applicant to a relative's house, or may assign him or her for a certain time to one and for another period to another, as may be just and right, taking into view the means of the several relatives liable, but no such assignment shall be made to one who is willing to pay the amount necessary for support. If the order be for relief in any other form than money, it shall state the extent and value thereof per week, and the time such relief shall continue; or the order may make the time of continuance indefinite, and it may be varied from time to time by a new order, as circumstances may require, upon application to the court by the trustees, the poor person, or the relative affected, ten days notice thereof being given to the party or parties concerned. [C51, §§793-795; R60,§§1361-1363; C73,§§1337-1339;

252.9 Judgment—appeal. When money is ordered to be paid, it shall be paid to such person as the court may direct. If support be not rendered as ordered, the court upon such fact being shown by the affidavit of one or more of the proper trustees, may render judgment and order execution for the amount due, rating any support ordered in kind at the valuation previously made. An appeal may be taken from the judgment rendered to the supreme court. Support for later periods under the same order may be, as it becomes due, applied for and obtained in the same manner. [C51,§§796-798; R60,§§1364-1366; C73,§§1340-1342; C97,§2219; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5305; C39,§3828.081; C46, 50, 54, §252.9]

252.10 Abandonment—order as to property. When father or mother abandons any child, husband his wife, or wife her husband, leaving them a public charge or likely to become such, the trustees of the township, upon application to them, may make complaint to the district court or judge thereof in the county in which such abandoned person resides, or in which any property of such father, mother, husband, or wife is situated, for an order to seize such property, and, upon proof of the necessary facts, the court or judge shall issue an order, directed to the sheriff of the county, to take and hold possession of said property, subject to the further orders of the court, which order shall be executed by taking possession of chattel property wherever found, and shall entitle the officer serving the same to collect and hold the rents accruing upon real property. [C51,§§799, 800; R60,§§1367, 1368; C73, §§1343, 1344; C97,§2220; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5306; C39,§3828.082; C46, 50, 54,§252.10]

252.11 Preservation and release of lien. Statement of the issuance of the order and a description of any real estate sought to be affected thereby, shall be entered in the encumbrance book, and from the date thereof shall be superior in right to any conveyance or lien created by the owner thereafter, and return shall be made of said order to the proper court, where the order of seizure, upon investigation, may be discharged or continued; if continued, the entire matter shall be subject to the control of the court, and it shall from time to time make such orders as to the disposition of the personal property seized, and the application of it or the proceeds thereof, as it may deem proper, and of the disposition of the rents and profits of the real estate. Should the party against whom the order issued thereafter resume his or her support of the person abandoned, or give bond with sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that such person shall not become chargeable to the county, the order shall be by the clerk discharged and the property remaining restored. 252.12 Trial by jury. In all cases the party sought to be charged with the support of another may demand a jury trial upon the question of his obligation and ability to render such support, the alleged abandonment, and the liability of the person abandoned to become a public charge; such trial to be had upon demand, which may be made at the time of the hearing of the application for the order, or at such other time as may be directed by the court, upon notice to the defendant. [C51,§805; R60,§1373; C73,§1349; C97,§2221; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5308; C39,§3828.084; C46, 50, 54,§252.12]

252.13 Recovery by county. Any county having expended any money for the relief or support of a poor person, under the provisions of this chapter, may recover the same from any of his kindred mentioned herein, from such poor person should he become able, or from his estate; from relatives by action brought within two years from the payment of such expenses, from such poor person by action brought within two years after becoming able, and from such person's estate by filing the claim as provided by law. [C51,§806; R60,§1374; C73,§1350; C97,§2222; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5309; C39, §3828.085; C46, 50, 54,§252.13]

Referred to in §252.14
Claims against estate, §6 15 53 et seq.

252.14 Homestead—when liable. When expenditures have been made for and on behalf of a poor person and his family, as contemplated by section 252.13, the homestead of such poor person is liable for such expenditures when such poor person dies without leaving a surviving husband or wife, or minor children. [C31, 35,§5309-c1; C39,§3828.086; C46, 50, 54, §252.14]

252.15 Recovery by relative. A more distant relation, who may have been compelled to aid a poor person, may recover from any one or more of the nearer relatives, and one so compelled to aid may recover contribution from others in the same degree, and a recovery may be had against the poor person or his estate, if, after such aid or support has been given, the person aided or supported becomes able to repay the same; but proceedings to recover therefor must be brought within two years from the time a cause of action accrues. [C51,§807; R60,§1375; C73,§1351; C97,§2223; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5310; C39,§3828.087; C46, 50, 54,§252.15]

252.16 Settlement—how acquired. A legal settlement in this state may be acquired as follows:

1. Any person continuously residing in any one county of this state for a period of two years without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter acquires a settlement in that county, but if such person has been warned to depart as provided in this chapter, then such settlement can only be acquired after such person has resided in any one county without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter for a continuous period of two years from and after such time as such person shall have filed with the board of supervisors of such county an affidavit stating that such person is no longer a pauper and intends to acquire a settlement in that county.

2. Any person having acquired a settlement in any county of this state shall not acquire a settlement in any other county until such person shall have continuously resided in said county for a period of two years without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter.

3. Any such person who is an inmate of or is supported by any institution whether organized for pecuniary profit or not or any institution supported by charitable or public funds in any county in this state or any person who is being supported by public funds shall not acquire a settlement in said county unless such person before becoming an inmate thereof or being supported thereby has a settlement in said county.

4. A married woman has the settlement of her husband, if he has one in this state; if not, or if she lives apart from or is abandoned by him, she may acquire a settlement as if she were unmarried. Any settlement which the wife had at the time of her marriage may at her election be resumed upon the death of her husband, or if she be divorced or abandoned by him, if both settlements were in this state.

5. Legitimate minor children take the settlement of their father, if there be one, if not, then that of the mother.

6. Illegitimate children take the settlement of their mother, or, if she has none, then that of their putative father.

7. Any person with settlement in this state who enlists in or is inducted into the military or naval service of the United States shall retain such settlement during the period of his military or naval service. Any person without settlement in this state who is serving in said military or naval service within the borders of this state shall not acquire a settlement during the period of such service.

8. The provisions of subsections 1, 2 and 3 of this section shall not apply to any blind person who is receiving assistance under the laws of this state. Any such person who has resided in any one county of this state for a period of six months shall have acquired legal settlement for support as provided in this chapter. [C51,§808; R60,§1376; C73,§1352; C97, §2224; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5311; C39,§3828.088; C46, 50, 54,§252.16; 57GA, ch 122,§1]

Referred to in §§252.20, 347.16

252.18 Foreign paupers.

1. Any person who is a county charge or likely to become such, coming from another state and not having acquired a settlement in any county of this state or any such person having acquired a settlement in any county of this state who removes to another county, may be removed from this state or from the county into which such person has moved, as the case may be, at the expense of the county wherein said person is found, upon the petition of said county to the district or superior court of that county.

2. The court or judge shall fix the time and place of hearing on said petition and prescribe the time and manner of service of the notice of such hearing.

3. If upon the hearing on said petition such person shall be ordered to remove from the state or county and fails to do so, he shall be deemed and declared in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly; or the judge may order the sheriff of the county seeking the removal to return such person to the state or county of his legal settlement. [C51,§811; R60,§1379; C73,§1354; C97,§2225; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5313; C39,§3828.090; C46, 50, 54,§252.18]

Such warning shall state that its purpose is to prevent eligibility to receive poor relief from the funds of the county, and in no way affects any other legal right of the person on whom the warning is served. After such warning, such persons cannot acquire a settlement except by the requisite residence of two years after the filing of the affidavit as provided in subsection 1 of section 252.16. [C51, §812; R60,§1380; C73,§1355; C97,§2226; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5315; C39,§3828.092; C46, 50, 54,§252.20]

252.21 Service of notice. Such warning shall be in writing, and may be served upon the order of the trustees of the township, or of the board of supervisors, by any person; and such person shall make a return of his doings thereon to the board of supervisors, which, if not made by a sworn officer, must be verified by affidavit.

In the event such person cannot be found within the county, any person attempting to make such service shall file with the board of supervisors an affidavit that diligent search has been made and that such persons cannot be found within the county and the same shall constitute sufficient service of warning as provided herein. If it is not, the poor person, if able, may be removed to the county of his settlement, or, at the request of the auditor or board of supervisors of the county of his settlement, he may be maintained where he then is at the expense of such county, and without affecting his legal settlement.

All laws relating to the support of the poor as provided by this chapter shall be applicable to care, treatment, and hospitalization provided by county public hospitals. [C51,§814, 816, 817; R60,§§1382, 1384, 1385; C73,§§1357, 1359, 1360; C97,§2228; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5317; C39, §3828.094; C46, 50, 54,§252.22]

252.23 Trial. If the alleged settlement is disputed, then, within thirty days after notice thereof as above provided, a copy of the notices sent and received shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county against which claim is made, and a cause docketed without other pleadings, and tried as an ordinary action, in which the county affording the relief shall be plaintiff, and the other defendant, and the burden of proof shall be upon the county granting the relief or making the removal. [C51,§§816, 817; R60,§§1384, 1385; C73,§§1359, 1360; C97,§2228; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5318; C39,§3828.095; C46, 50, 54,§252.23]

252.24 County of settlement liable. The county where the settlement is shall be liable to the county rendering relief for all reasonable charges and expenses incurred in the relief and care of a poor person, and for the charges of removal and expenses of support incurred.

When relief as herein provided is furnished by any governmental agency of the county, township or city, such relief shall be deemed to have been furnished by the county in which such agency is located and the agency furnishing such relief shall certify the correctness of the costs of such relief to the board of supervisors of said county and said county shall collect from the county of such person's settlement. The amounts herein collected by said county shall be paid to the agency furnishing such relief. This statute as herein amended

Said overseer shall receive as compensation an amount to be determined by the county board and may be paid either from the general or poor fund of the county. If application be made to the township trustees and they are satisfied that the applicant is in such a state of want as requires relief at the public expense, they may afford such temporary relief, subject to the approval of the board of supervisors, as the necessities of the person require and shall report the case forthwith to the board of supervisors, who may continue or deny relief, as they find cause. This section shall apply to all counties in the state, whether there are county homes established in the same or not. This and section 252.33 shall apply to acts of overseers of poor in cities as well as to township trustees. [C51,§820; R60,§1388; C73,§1365; C97, §2234; S13,§2234; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5329; C39, §3828.106; C46, 50, 54,§252.34]

252.37 Appeal to supervisors. If any poor person, on application to the trustees, be refused the required relief, he may apply to the board of supervisors, who, upon examination into the matter, may direct the trustees to afford relief, or it may direct specific relief. [C51,§823; R60,§1391; C73,§1368; C97,§2237; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5333; C39,§3828.109; C46, 50, 54,§252.37]

252.38 Contracts for support. The board of supervisors may make contracts with the lowest responsible bidder for furnishing any or all supplies required for the poor, for a term not exceeding one year, or it may enter into a contract with the lowest responsible bidder, through proposals opened and examined at a regular session of the board, for the support of any or all the poor of the county for one year at a time, and may make all requisite orders to that effect, and shall require all such contractors to give bonds in such sum as it believes sufficient to secure the faithful performance of the same. [C51,§825; R60,§1393; C73,§1369; C97,§2238; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5334; C39, §3828.110; C46, 50, 54,§252.38]

252.39 Medical and dental service. The board of supervisors may make contracts with any reputable and responsible person licensed to practice medicine or dentistry in this state to furnish medical or dental attendance or services required for the poor, for any term not exceeding one year, and shall require all such contractors to give bonds in a company authorized to do business in this state in such sum as it believes sufficient to secure the faithful performance of such contracts. done without notice to the person contracting for their support, and if upon due notice and inquiry the board find that the poor are not reasonably and properly supported and cared for, it may, at a regular or special session, set aside the contract, making proper allowances for the time it has been in force. [C51,§826; R60,§1394; C73,§1370; C97,§2239; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5335; C39,§3828.112; C46, 50, 54,§252.40]

[C46, 50, 54,§252.42]

252.43 Poor tax. The expense of supporting the poor shall be paid out of the county treasury in the same manner as other disbursements for county purposes; and in case the ordinary revenue of the county proves insufficient for the support of the poor, the board may levy a poor tax, not exceeding one and one-half mills on the dollar, to be entered on the tax list and collected as the ordinary county tax.

Should the one and one-half mill levy fail to provide adequate funds to take care of the poor, then the board of supervisors, with the approval of the state comptroller, shall levy an additional tax of not to exceed three mills, to be entered on the tax list and collected as the ordinary county tax. Before any such additional levy is made, a showing of the necessity for such additional levy shall be made to the state comptroller and no such additional levy shall be made unless it shall be approved in writing by the comptroller. 252A.3 Husband liable for support. For the purpose of this chapter:

1. A husband in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of his wife and any child or children under seventeen years of age and any other dependent residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, and, if possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, may be required to pay for their support a fair and reasonable sum according to his means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

2. A mother in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of her child or children under seventeen years of age residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever the father of such child or children is dead, or cannot be found, or is incapable of supporting such child or children, and, if she is possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, she may be required to pay for the support of such child or children a fair and reasonable sum according to her means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

3. The parents in one state are hereby declared to be severally liable for the support of a child seventeen years of age or older residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever such child is unable to maintain himself and is likely to become a public charge.

4. A child or children born of parents who, at any time prior or subsequent to the birth of such child, have entered into a civil or religious marriage ceremony, shall be deemed the legiti-mate child or children of both parents, regardless of the validity of such marriage.

7. Notwithstanding the fact that the respondent has obtained in any state or country a final decree of divorce or separation from his wife or a decree dissolving his marriage, the respondent shall be deemed legally liable for the support of any dependent child of such marriage.

8. Duties of support applicable under this chapter are those imposed or imposable under the laws of any state where the respondent was present during the period for which support is sought. The respondent is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown. [C50, 54,§252A.3; 56GA, ch 129,§1]

252A.4 Jurisdiction. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the state of last residence or domicile of the petitioner and the respondent and whether or not the respondent has ever been a resident of the initiating state or the dependent person has ever been a resident of the responding state.

2. The court of the responding state shall have the power to order the respondent to pay sums sufficient to provide necessary food, shelter, clothing, care, medical or hospital expenses, expenses of confinement, expenses of education of a child, funeral expenses and such other reasonable and proper expenses of the petitioner as justice requires, having due regard to the circumstances of the respective parties.

3. The courts of both the initiating state and the responding state shall have the power to order testimony to be taken in either or both of such states by deposition or written interrogatories, and to limit the nature of and the extent to which the right so to take testimony shall be exercised, provided that the respondent is given a full and fair opportunity to answer the allegations of the petitioner. [C50, 54,§252A.4]

252A.5 When proceeding may be maintained. A proceeding to compel support of a dependent may be maintained under this chapter in any of the following cases:

1. Where the petitioner and the respondent are residents of or domiciled or found in the same state.

2. Where the petitioner resides in one state and the respondent is a resident of or is domiciled or found in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

3. Where the respondent is not and never was a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and the petitioner resides or is domiciled in such state and the respondent is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

4. Where the respondent was or is a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and has departed or departs from such state leaving therein a dependent in need of and entitled to support under this chapter and is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

5. Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to a dependent, it has the same right through proceedings instituted by the petitioner's representative to invoke the provisions hereof as the dependent to whom the support was furnished, for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support; the petition in such case may be verified by any official having knowledge of such expenditures and consent of the dependent shall not be required in order to institute proceedings under this chapter. [C50, 54, §252A.5; 56GA, ch 129,§2]

252A.6 How commenced—trial.

1. A proceeding under this chapter shall be commenced by a petitioner, or a petitioner's representative, by filing a verified petition in the court in equity in the county of the state wherein he resides or is domiciled, showing the name, age, residence and circumstances of the petitioner, alleging that he is in need of and is entitled to support from the respondent, giving his name, age, residence and circumstances, and praying that the respondent be compelled to furnish such support. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the respondent including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the respondent, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his finger prints, or social security number.

2. If the respondent be a resident of or domiciled in such state and the court has or can acquire jurisdiction of the person of the respondent under existing laws in effect in such state, such laws shall govern and control the procedure to be followed in such proceeding.

3. If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of (a) the petition (b) its certificate and (c) this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

4. When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall docket the cause, notify the county attorney or other official acting as petitioner's representative, set a time and place for a hearing, and take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to serve notice and thus obtain jurisdiction over the respondent. If a court of the state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or his property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state.

5. It shall not be necessary for the petitioner or the petitioner's witnesses to appear personally at such hearing, but it shall be the duty of the petitioner's representative of the responding state to appear on behalf of and represent the petitioner at all stages of the proceeding.

6. If at such hearing the respondent controverts the petition and enters a verified denial of any of the material allegations thereof, the judge presiding at such hearing shall stay the proceedings and transmit to the judge of the court in the initiating state a transcript of the clerk's minutes showing the denials entered by the respondent.

7. Upon receipt by the judge of the court in the initiating state of such transcript, such court shall take such proof, including the testimony of the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses and such other evidence as the court may deem proper, and, after due deliberation, the court shall make its recommendation, based on all of such proof and evidence, and shall transmit to the court in the responding state an exemplified transcript of such proof and evidence and of its proceedings and recommendation in connection therewith.

8. Upon the receipt of such transcript, the court in the responding state shall resume its hearing in the proceeding and shall give the respondent a reasonable opportunity to appear and reply.

9. Upon the resumption of such hearing, the respondent shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories, and the petitioner shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the respondent and the respondent's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories.

10. If a respondent, duly summoned by a court in the responding state, willfully fails without good cause to appear as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for the punishment of a defendant or witness who willfully disobeys a summons or subpoena duly issued out of such court in any other action or proceeding cognizable by said court.

11. If, on the return day of the summons, the respondent appears at the time and place specified therein and fails to answer the petition or admits the allegations thereof, or, if, after a hearing has been duly held by the court in the responding state in accordance with the provisions of this section, such court has found and determined that the prayer of the petitioner, or any part thereof, is supported by the evidence adduced in the proceeding, and that the petitioner is in need of and entitled to support from the respondent, the court shall make and enter an order directing the respondent to furnish support to the petitioner and to pay therefor such sum as the court shall determine, having due regard to the parties' means and circumstances. An exemplified copy of such order shall be transmitted by the court to the court in the initiating state and such copy shall be filed with and made a part of the records of such court in such proceeding. The court shall place the respondent on probation on such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper or necessary to assure faithful compliance by the respondent with such order. The court shall also have power to require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or surety bond in such amount as the court may deem proper and just to assure the payment of the amount required to be paid by the respondent for the support of the petitioner.

12. The court making such order may require the respondent to make payment at specified intervals to the clerk of the district court, or to the dependent, or to any state or county agency, and to report personally to the sheriff or any other official, at such times as may be deemed necessary.

13. A respondent who shall willfully fail to comply with or violate the terms or conditions of the support order or of his probation shall be punished by the court in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for a contempt of such court or a violation of probation ordered by such court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by such court.

14. The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court: upon receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

15. Any order of support issued by a court of the state acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

16. The court of the initiating state shall receive and accept all payments made by the respondent to the probation department or bureau of the court of the responding state and transmitted by the latter on behalf of the respondent. Upon receipt of any such payment, and under such rules as the court of the initiating state may prescribe, the court, or its probation department or bureau, as the court may direct, shall deliver such payment to the dependent person entitled thereto, take a proper receipt and acquittance therefor, and keep a permanent record thereof. [C50, 54,§252A.6; 56GA, ch 129,§§3-10]

252A.7 Petitioner's representatives to appear. It shall be the duty of all petitioner's representatives of this state to appear in this state on behalf of and represent the petitioner in every proceeding pursuant to this chapter, at the time the petition is filed and at all stages of the proceeding thereafter, and to obtain and present such evidence or proof as may be required by the court in the initiating state or the responding state. [C50, 54,§252A.7]

252A.8 Additional remedies. This chapter shall be construed to furnish an additional or alternative civil remedy and shall in no way affect or impair any other remedy, civil or criminal, provided in any other statute and available to the petitioner in relation to the same subject matter. [C50, 54,§252A.8]

252A.9 Construction. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it. [C50, 54,§252A.9]
Constitutionality, 53GA, ch 103,§10

252A.10 Costs advanced. Actual costs incurred in this state incidental to any action brought under the provisions of this chapter shall be advanced by the initiating party or agency unless otherwise ordered by the court. Where the action is brought by an agency of the state or county there shall be no filing fee. [56GA, ch 129,§11]

252A.11 Custody of respondent. When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the respondent may flee the jurisdiction it may as an initiating state request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or, it may as a responding state, obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process. [56GA, ch 129,§12]

252A.12 Exchange lists of courts. The state department of social welfare is hereby designated as the state information agency under this chapter, and it shall be its duty to compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this chapter and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar act and to maintain a register of such lists received from other states. [56GA, ch 129,§13]

[SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4005; C39,§3828.132; C46, 50, 54, §255.1]

255.2 Duty of public officers and others. It shall be the duty of physicians, public health nurses, members of boards of supervisors and township trustees, overseers of the poor, sheriffs, policemen, and public school teachers, having knowledge of persons suffering from any such malady or deformity, to file or cause such complaint to be filed. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4006; C39,§3828.133; C46, 50, 54, §255.2]

255.3 "Patient" defined. The word "patient" as used in this chapter means the person against whom the complaint is filed. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§4007; C39,§3828.134; C46, 50, 54,§255.3]

255.4 Examination by physician. Upon the filing of such complaint, the clerk shall number and index the same and shall appoint a competent physician and surgeon, living in the vicinity of the patient, who shall personally examine the patient with respect to said pregnancy, malady, or deformity. The clerk may, after the expiration of five years from the filing of a complaint, destroy it and all papers or records in connection therewith. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4008; C39,§3828.135; C46, 50, 54,§255.4]

255.5 Report by physician. Such physician shall make a report in duplicate on blanks furnished as hereinafter provided, answering the questions contained therein and setting forth the information required thereby, giving such history of the case as will be likely to aid the medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of such patient, describing the pregnancy, deformity, or malady in detail, and stating whether or not in his opinion the same can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated, which report shall be filed in the office of the clerk within such time as the clerk may fix. [SS15,§254-b,-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39,§3828.136; C46, 50, 54,§255.5]

255.6 Investigation and report. When such complaint is filed, the clerk shall furnish the county attorney and board of supervisors with a copy thereof and said board shall, by the overseer of the poor or such other agent as it may select, make a thorough investigation of facts as to the legal residence of the patient, and the ability of the patient or others chargeable with his support to pay the expense of such treatment and care; and shall file a report of such investigation in the office of the clerk, at or before the time of hearing. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4010; C39,§3828.137; C46, 50, 54, §255.6]

255.7 Notice of hearing—duty of county attorney. When the physician's report has been filed, the clerk shall, with the consent of the court or judge, fix a time and place for hearing of the matter by the court, and the county attorney shall cause such patient and the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if under legal disability, to be served with such notice of the time and place of the hearing as the judge or clerk may prescribe. [SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4011; C39,§3828.138; C46, 50, 54, §255.7]

255.8 Hearing—order—emergency cases—cancellation of commitments. The county attorney and the overseer of the poor, or other agent of the board of supervisors of the county where the hearing is held, shall appear thereat. The complainant, the county attorney, the overseer of the poor or other agent of the board of supervisors, and the patient, or any person representing him, or her, may introduce evidence and be heard. If the court finds that said patient is a legal resident of Iowa and is pregnant or is suffering from a malady or deformity which can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither the patient nor any person legally chargeable with his or her support is able to pay the expenses thereof, then the clerk of court, except in obstetrical cases and cases of crippled children, shall immediately ascertain from the admitting physician at the university hospital whether such person can be received as a patient within a period of thirty days, and if the patient can be so received, the court shall then enter an order directing that said patient be sent to the university hospital for proper medical and surgical treatment and hospital care. If the court ascertain, excepting in obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases, that a person of the age or sex of the patient, or afflicted by the complaint, disease or deformity with which such person is affected cannot be received as a patient at the said university hospital within the period of thirty days, then he shall enter an order directing the board of supervisors of the county to provide adequate treatment at county expense for said patient at home or in a hospital. Obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases may be committed to the university hospital without regard to the limiting period of thirty days hereinbefore stated.

In any case of emergency the court without previous inquiry may at its discretion order the patient to be immediately taken to and accepted by the university hospital for the necessary care as provided in section 255.11, but if such a patient cannot be immediately accepted at the university hospital as ascertained by telephone if necessary, the court may enter an order as in certain cases above set forth directing the board of supervisors to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the said patient at home or in a hospital. [SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4012; C39,§3828.139; C46, 50, 54,§255.8]

ing the legal custody of said patient, if a minor or incompetent, without examination, report, notice, or hearing. [SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4014; C39,§3828.142; C46, 50, 54,§255.11]

[SS15,§254-j; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4015; C39,§3828.143; C46, 50, 54,§255.12]

255.13 Attendant — physician — compensation. If the physician appointed to examine the patient shall certify that an attendant to accompany the patient to the said hospital is necessary, and the university hospital attendant and ambulance service is not available, then the court or judge may appoint an attendant who shall receive not exceeding two dollars per day for the time thus necessarily employed and actual necessary traveling expenses by the most feasible route to said hospital whether by ambulance, train or automobile; but if such appointee is a relative of the patient or a member of his immediate family, or receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his services, no such per diem compensation shall be paid him. The physician appointed by the court to make the examination and report shall receive therefor three dollars for each examination and report so made and his actual necessary expenses incurred in making such examination, but if said physician receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his full-time services, then no such examination fee shall be paid. The actual, necessary expenses of transporting and caring for the patient shall be paid as hereinafter provided. [SS15,§254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4016; C39,§3828.144; C46, 50, 54,§255.13]

Referred to in §255.14

255.14 Expenses—how paid. An itemized, verified statement of all charges provided for in sections 255.8 and 255.13, in cases where the patient is admitted or accepted for treatment at the university hospital shall be filed with the superintendent of the university hospital, and upon his recommendation when approved by the judge under whose order the same were incurred, they shall be charged on the regular bill for the maintenance, transportation and treatment of the patient, and be audited and paid in the manner as hereinafter provided. [SS15,§254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4017; C39,§3828.145; C46, 50, 54,§255.14]

255.15 Duty of admitting physician at hospital. The authorities in control of the medical college shall designate some physician to pass upon the admission of such patient, and it shall be his duty to receive such patient into the hospital and to provide for him, if available, a cot, bed, or room in said hospital, and to assign him to the appropriate clinic and for treatment by the proper physician, unless, in his judgment, the presence of the patient in the hospital would be dangerous to other patients, or there is no reasonable probability that he may be benefited by the proposed treatment or hospital care. If the admitting physician shall deny admission to the patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his reasons therefor. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4018; C39,§3828.146; C46, 50, 54,§255.15]

Referred to in §255.18

255.16 County quotas. Subject to subsequent qualifications in this section, there shall be treated at the university hospital during each fiscal year a number of committed indigent patients from each county which shall bear the same relation to the total number of committed indigent patients admitted during the year as the population of such county shall bear to the total population of the state according to the last preceding official census. This standard shall apply to indigent patients, the expenses of whose commitment, transportation, care and treatment shall be borne by appropriated funds and shall not govern the admission of either obstetrical or orthopedic patients. If the number of patients admitted from any county shall exceed by more than ten percent the county quota as fixed and ascertained under the first sentence of this section, the charges and expenses of the care and treatment of such patients in excess of ten percent of the quota shall be paid from the funds of such county at actual cost; but if the number of excess patients from any county shall not exceed ten percent, all costs, expenses, and charges incurred in their behalf shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital. [C35,4018-f1; C39,§3828.147; C46, 50, 54,§255.16]

255.17 Report of physician in charge of clinic. If the physician or surgeon in charge of said clinic, or to whom such patient has been assigned for treatment, declines to treat such patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his examination of such patient, and state therein his reasons for declining such treatment. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4019; C39, §3828.148; C46, 50, 54,§255.17]

Referred to in §255.18

255.18 Reports. One duplicate of each of the reports named in sections 255.15 and 255.17 shall be preserved in the records of said hospital, and the other transmitted to the clerk of the court where said order committing the patient to said hospital was entered, and by the clerk filed and preserved among the records in the cause. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4020; C39,§3828.149; C46, 50, 54,§255.18]

255.19 Treatment of other patients. The university hospital authorities may at their discretion receive into the hospital for medical, obstetrical or surgical treatment or hospital care, patients not committed thereto under the provisions of this chapter; but the treatment or care of such patients shall not in any way interfere with the proper medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of committed patients.

All of the provisions of this chapter except as to commitment of patients shall apply to such patients. The university hospital authorities shall collect from the person or persons liable for the support of such patients reasonable charges for hospital care and service and deposit the same with the treasurer of the university for the use and benefit of the university hospital. Earnings of the hospital whether from private patients, cost patients, or indigents shall be administered so as to increase as much as possible, the service available for indigents. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §4021; C39, §3828.150; C46, 50, 54, §255.19]

255.20 Hospital treatment. When any patient has been admitted to the hospital for treatment, the physician or surgeon in charge of the case shall proceed with due care and diligence to perform such operation or bestow such treatment upon such patient as in his judgment shall be necessary and proper. Adequate nursing and hospital care shall be provided for said patient during such treatment. [SS15, §254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4022; C39, §3828.151; C46, 50, 54, §255.20]

255.21 Treatment outside hospital—attendant. If, in the judgment of the physician or surgeon to whom the patient has been assigned for treatment, continuous residence of the patient in the hospital is unnecessary, such patient may, by the hospital authorities, be sent to his home or other appropriate place, and be required to return to the hospital when and for such length of time as may be for his benefit. The hospital authorities may, if necessary, appoint an attendant to accompany such patient and discharged patients, and the compensation of such attendant shall be fixed by the state board of regents and charged by the hospital as part of the costs of transporting patients. The compensation paid to and the expenses of the attendant shall be audited and paid in the same manner as is provided by law for the compensation of an attendant appointed by the court. [SS15, §§254-h, -i; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4023; C39, §3828.152; C46, 50, 54, §255.21; 56GA, ch 131, §59]

255.22 Treatment authorized. No minor or incompetent person shall be treated for any malady or deformity except such as is reasonably well described in the order of court or the report of the examining physician, unless permission for such treatment is provided for in the order of court, or is granted by his parents or guardian; but the physician in charge may administer such treatment or perform such surgical operations as are usually required in cases of emergency. [SS15, §254-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4024; C39, §3828.153; C46, 50, 54, §255.22]

or care for such patient shall charge or receive any compensation therefor except the salary or compensation fixed by the state board of regents to be paid from the hospital funds. If the physician, surgeon, or nurse is not in the regular employ of the state board of regents, his or her compensation shall be paid by the county upon approval of the board of supervisors. [SS15, §254-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4025; C39, §3828.154; C46, 50, 54, §255.23; 56GA, ch 131, §20]

255.24 Record and report of expenses. The superintendent of said hospital shall keep a correct account of all medicine, care, and maintenance furnished to said patients, and shall make and file with the state comptroller an itemized, sworn statement of all expenses thereof incurred in said hospital. 257.2 Qualifications of members. The members of the state board shall be qualified electors of the state, shall hold no other elective or appointive public office, and in order to preserve the lay character of the board, no person, the major portion of whose time is engaged in professional education or who derives a major portion of his income from any business or activity connected with education, shall be eligible for membership on the state board. [C54,§257.2]

257.3 Terms—districts. The terms of members of the state board shall be for six years beginning on the second secular day in January following their election or appointment. No member who is either appointed or elected for a six year term will be permitted to succeed himself.

The state is hereby divided into state board of public instruction districts the boundaries of which shall be conterminous with the eight congressional districts as they exist on January 1, 1953, and there shall be one member of the board elected from each such district.

One member of the board shall be appointed by the governor from the electors of the state at large, subject to confirmation by two-thirds of the senate in executive session.

At the first meeting of the board in each even-numbered year the board shall elect a president and vice-president who shall serve for two years. [C54,§257.3]

257.4 Oath—vacancies. The members of the state board shall qualify by taking the regular oath of office as prescribed by law for state officers. A vacancy in the office of the member at large shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

Appointees to fill vacancies in the elected membership on the board shall hold office until the second secular day in January of the next even-numbered year, unless the vacancy occurred after May 31 in an odd-numbered year, not the last year of a regular term, in which event the appointee shall serve until two years from the second secular day of the next January. [C54,§257.4]

257.5 Election of members. The election of members of the state board shall be conducted in the following manner:

1. a. The number of delegates to be elected by each such board of a consolidated or independent district maintaining a four-year high school and having a city of five thousand or more population shall be as follows:

(1) In the event the population of the city in such school district as shown at the last federal census is twenty thousand or less one delegate shall be elected.

(2) In the event the population of the city in such school district is over twenty thousand one delegate shall be elected for each twenty thousand of population or major fraction thereof.

b. The number of delegates to be elected by each county board of education shall be determined as follows:

(1) When the population of any county is twenty-two thousand five hundred or less the county board shall elect one delegate unless there is no independent or consolidated school district within the county maintaining a four-year high school and containing a city having a population of at least five thousand in which event the county board shall elect two delegates.

(2) If the population of the county is in excess of twenty-two thousand five hundred the county board shall elect two delegates. In no case shall a county have less than two delegates. Said election shall be held on the second Monday in July of odd-numbered years when necessary to elect members to the state board for unexpired terms where vacancies have been filled by appointment or choose successors for members whose terms will expire in the following January. The names of those chosen as delegates and alternates shall be certified to the secretary of state by the county board of education and boards of education of said school districts within the district within ten days after the election.

2. He shall supply the chairman of each district convention with a list of delegates and alternates previously certified to him by each county board of education and boards of education of said school districts within the district and shall notify each delegate and alternate in writing of the time and place of the convention. This official list shall constitute the list of those eligible to participate in the district convention. At the designated time and place the county superintendent so appointed shall convene the meeting, cause a secretary to be elected, and the convention shall then proceed to the election of a person known to them to be interested in education as a member of the state board from that district by a majority vote of those present. A quorum shall constitute sixty percent of those eligible to attend. 280.17 Higher and graded schools. The board may establish graded and high schools and determine what branches shall be taught therein, but the course of study shall be subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction. Whenever the board in a school township establishes a high school, such high school can be discontinued only by an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast for and against such proposition at an election which may be called by the county superintendent of schools upon a petition for such election being presented signed by twenty-five percent of the electors in such township. [R60,§2037; C73, §1726; C97,§2776; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4267; C46, 50, 54,§280.17]

280.18 Junior colleges. The board, upon approval of the state superintendent of public instruction, and when duly authorized by the voters, shall have power to establish and maintain in each district one or more schools of higher order than an approved four-year high school course. Said schools of higher order shall be known as public junior colleges and may include courses of study covering one or two years of work in advance of that offered by an accredited four-year high school. The state superintendent of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, shall prepare and publish from time to time standards for junior colleges, provide adequate inspection for junior colleges, and recommend for accrediting such courses of study offered by junior colleges as may meet the standards determined.

Provided, however, that when a proposition to authorize the establishment of a junior college is submitted to the electors, such proposition shall not be deemed carried or adopted, anything in the statutes to the contrary notwithstanding, unless the vote in favor of such authorization is equal to at least sixty percent of the total vote cast for and against said proposition at said election.

No public junior college shall be established in any school district having a population of less than five thousand.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit any school district that now has a junior college from temporarily discontinuing the same and starting it again at some future time. [C27, 31, 35,§4267-b1; C39,§4267.1; C46, 50, 54,§280.18]

The state superintendent, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is authorized to organize the division and to employ the necessary qualified personnel to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, §281.1]

281.2 Definition. The term "handicapped children" shall be interpreted for the purpose of this chapter as either of the following:

1. Children under twenty-one years of age who are crippled or have defective sight or are hard of hearing or have an impediment in speech or heart disease or tuberculosis, or who by reason of physical defects cannot attend the regular public school classes with normal children.

2. Children under twenty-one years who are certified by a practicing physician to be emotionally maladjusted or intellectually incapable of profiting from ordinary instructional methods.

Provided, that the term "handicapped children" shall not include the blind, the deaf, and other physically and mentally handicapped children attending special schools or institutions provided by the state. [C46, 50, 54, §281.2; 56GA, ch 141, §1]

281.3 Powers and duties of state department. The division of special education, subject to the approval of the state board, shall have the following duties and powers:

2. To establish standards for teachers to be employed under the provisions of this chapter, to give examinations for teachers to qualify to teach handicapped children, and to issue certificates to teachers who qualify for such teaching.

3. To adopt plans for equitable reimbursement, in whole or in part, for costs of carrying out programs of special instruction, as provided for herein.

4. To adopt plans for the establishment and maintenance of day classes, schools, home instruction, and other methods of special education for handicapped children.

7. To provide for certification by competent medical and psychological authorities of the eligibility of handicapped children for admission to, or discharge from, special schools, classes or instruction.

8. To initiate the establishment of classes for handicapped children in hospitals and convalescent homes, in co-operation with the management thereof and local school districts or county boards of education.

9. To co-operate with school districts or county boards of education in arranging for any handicapped child to attend school in a district other than the one in which he resides when there is no available special school, class, or instruction in the districts in which he resides.

10. To co-operate with existing agencies such as the state department of social welfare, the state department of public health, the state school for the deaf, the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, the state tuberculosis sanatorium, the children's hospitals, or other agencies concerned with the welfare and health of handicapped children in the co-ordination of their educational activities for such children.

11. To investigate and study the needs, methods and costs of special education for handicapped children.

12. To make rules and regulations to carry out the foregoing powers and duties. [C46, 50, 54, §281.3; 56GA, ch 141, §2]

281.4 Powers of board of directors. The board of directors of any school district or any county board of education, with the approval of the state department of public instruction, may provide transportation and may establish and organize one or more suitable special classes, or provide for instruction in regular classes or in the home, and may provide special facilities and equipment for special classes and special schools or home instruction as a part of the local or county school system for such handicapped children as required for their effective education, a type of instruction different from that ordinarily given as classroom instruction. In the event that there are not enough children of any special type in any school district to warrant the establishment of a special class, such children may be instructed in any nearby school district in which such special classes have been established, by mutual agreement of the board of directors of the school district affected, and by payment of regular tuition, or the county board of education may establish such special classes in co-operation with local boards. The local board of directors of a school district or county board of education with approval by the state department of public instruction may prescribe the use of such other aids to special education as physical therapy, corrective gymnastics, rest periods, warm lunches, social counseling, and vocational counseling and training.

The board of directors of each school district or county board of education in each county providing for handicapped children shall employ qualified teachers certified by the authority provided by law as teachers for children requiring such special education. The maximum number of pupils per teacher shall be determined by the board of directors in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state department of public instruction. [C46, 50, 54, §281.4; 56GA, ch 141, §3]

281.5 Secretary's report. In order that the state board of public instruction may estimate the financial requirements for the program of state aid for education of handicapped children, it shall be the duty of the secretary of each school district in connection with the annual school census to file a report with the county superintendent each year in July on blanks prepared for that purpose by the state division of special education listing the names, sex, age, post-office address, and disability of every physically handicapped or mentally handicapped person of school age, together with the name and post-office address of his parent or guardian, and such other pertinent information which the division may require. Copies of these reports shall in turn be sent by the county superintendent to the division of special education on or before August 1.

The state department of public health shall from time to time as requested furnish to the state division of special education information obtained from birth certificates relative to the name, address, and disability of any case of congenital deformity or physical defect. The state crippled children's service shall from time to time as required furnish to the state division of special education the name, address, and disability of all children of their register. [C46, 50, 54, §281.5]

281.6 Parent's or guardian's duties. When the school district or county board of education has provided special education facilities as provided herein for any handicapped child, either by admission to a special class or by special instruction, it shall be the duty of the parent or guardian to enroll said child for instruction in such special classes or instruction as may be established, except in the event a doctor's certificate is filed with the secretary of the school district showing that it is inadvisable for the handicapped child to receive the special education provided; all the provisions and conditions of chapter 299 and amendments thereto shall be applicable to this section, and any violations shall be punishable as provided in said chapter. [C46, 50, 54, §281.6; 56GA, ch 141, §4]

281.7 Examinations of children. In order to render proper instruction to each handicapped child, the school districts shall certify handicapped children for special instruction in accordance with the requirements set up by the division of special education and shall provide examinations for children preliminary to making certification. The examinations necessary for the certification of handicapped children shall be conducted by a physician licensed to practice medicine by the state board of medical examiners, and whenever available, by a competent psychologist or other person qualified by training to make psychometric examinations. Final decision in case of disagreement or appeal shall be the responsibility of the director* of the state superintendent of public instruction, who may secure the advice of competent medical and educational authorities including the state department of health, the university hospitals, the state department of social welfare, the superintendent of the state school for the deaf, the superintendent of the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, and the superintendent of the state tuberculosis sanatorium. [C46, 50, 54, §281.7]

*According to enrolled Act

281.8 Exceptions to attendance. It shall not be incumbent upon the school districts or county boards of education to keep a handicapped child in regular instruction when the child cannot sufficiently profit from the work of the regular class room, nor to keep such handicapped child in the special class or instruction for handicapped children when it is determined that the child can no longer benefit therefrom, or needs more specialized instruction which is available in special state schools.

In the case of any person who, by reason of congenital factors, accident or prolonged illness, has not been able to finish the special education by his or her twenty-first birthday, the period of special education may be continued for not exceeding three years thereafter.

No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require or compel any person who is a member of a well-recognized church or religious denomination and whose religious convictions, in accordance with the tenets or principles of his or her church or religious denomination, are opposed to medical or surgical treatment for disease to take or follow a course of physical therapy, or submit to medical treatment, nor shall any parent or guardian who is a member of such church or religious denomination and who has such religious convictions be required to enroll a child in any course or instruction which utilizes medical or surgical treatment for disease. [C46, 50, 54, §281.8; 56 GA, ch 141, §5]

281.9 Reimbursement to districts or county boards. Any school district or county board of education which has maintained an approved program of special education for handicapped children during any school year shall be entitled to and receive reimbursement from the state for the excess cost of instruction of the children in said program of special education above the cost of instruction of pupils in the regular curriculum of the district or, in the event the program of special education is established by the county board of education, the average cost of the instruction of pupils in the participating districts, which shall be determined in the following manner. The cost of instruction of all pupils exclusive of those in special education shall be determined on a per pupil basis and the total cost of instruction of all pupils in special education shall be determined on a per pupil basis. The excess of cost per pupil in special education shall be the difference between the cost per pupil of all children exclusive of those in special education, and the cost per pupil in special education; the excess per pupil cost in special education multiplied by the yearly average unit of pupils in special education in the district or county program shall be the amount to which the district or county board shall be entitled and receive by way of reimbursement from the state. The cost per pupil, both as to pupils in special education and in the regular curriculum, shall be based on the following elements: General administration costs, instructional costs, health service, attendance officers, plant operation, plant maintenance, including equipment, transportation and insurance. [C46, 50, 54, §281.9; 56GA, ch 141, §6]

The division may require additional information and upon determining the amount to which the district or county board is entitled shall make its requisition on the state comptroller for warrant therefor. [C46, 50, 54, §281.10; 56GA, ch 141, §7]

On or before July 15, 1953, the board in each school corporation accepting tuition pupils shall cause its buildings to be appraised and an itemized statement of the results of the appraisal filed with the county superintendent. Such statement shall constitute the basis for the hereinabove provided depreciation charge. Tuition charges for regularly established junior high schools not extending below the seventh grade shall be computed in the same manner as prescribed above for high schools, using the costs applicable to junior high schools.

Any superintendent or board members responsible for such unlawful act shall each be personally liable to a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars. Action to recover such penalty or action to enjoin such unlawful act may be instituted by the board of any school district or by a taxpayer in any school district.

On or before February 15 and June 15 of each year the secretary of the creditor district shall deliver to the secretary of the debtor district an itemized statement of such tuition fees. [SS15, §2733-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4277; C46, 50, 54, §282.20; 56GA, ch 143, §1]

The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such account from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation, and he shall pay the same accordingly. [SS15,§2733-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4278; C46, 50, 54,§282.21]

Referred to in §275.26

282.22 Tuition in charitable institutions. When any child is cared for in any charitable institution in this state which does not maintain a school providing secular instruction, and which institution is organized and operating under the laws of Iowa, and the domicile of the child is in another school district than that wherein the institution is situated, then such child shall be entitled to attend school in the district where such institution is located. In such case the cost of the tuition and transportation, when required by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state as provided in section 282.23. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4283; C46, 50, 54,§282.22]

The tuition and transportation when required of such a child, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon the requisition of the superintendent of public

The superintendent of public instruction is hereby empowered to require such reports as are necessary properly to carry out the provisions of this section. [C39,§4283.01; C46, 50, 54, §282.23]

In such classification the school that falls within the eighty-fifth percentile of the monthly per pupil cost shall form the basis. Using this figure the elementary and high school tuition rates for the succeeding year shall be determined so that the rate for the high school student is one and seventy-five hundredths times the rate for the elementary student. The junior high school rate shall be one and fifty hundredths times the elementary rate.

The superintendent of public instruction shall, after July 1 but before September 1 of each year, notify every school in the state, affected by this section, what the computed maximum tuition rate shall be for the ensuing year.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the corporation or district in which the student resides from paying a tuition in excess of the maximum computed tuition rates, if the actual per pupil cost of the preceding year so warrants, but in no case may the receiving district or corporation demand more than the maximum rate. the grades in question attended a regular day school conducted by the particular public school corporation during the regular school year, excluding summer school.

2. "Average daily attendance" means the quotient arising from dividing aggregate at-

283.2 Duty of superintendent. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to keep such records and accounts, to cause such audits to be made, and to make such applications and reports to the United States commissioner of education, or other authorized federal officer, as shall be necessary to qualify this state to receive, and to continue to receive, such federal funds as may be allotted to this state under and by virtue of an act of the seventy-fifth congress of the United States, first session, now or hereafter enacted, entitled "A bill to promote the general welfare through the appropriation of funds to assist the states and territories in providing more effective programs of public education", and such other acts of congress, now or hereafter enacted, as may make federal funds available to this state for the purpose of providing more effective programs of general public education. For such purposes, the superintendent is hereby designated as the "chief educational authority" to represent this state. [C39,§4283.03; C46, 50, 54,§283.2]

The treasurer of state shall keep such accounts and records of the expenditure of such funds as may be prescribed by the United States commissioner of education, or other federal officer, pursuant to the law authorizing such distribution of federal funds. [C39,§4283.04; C46, 50, 54,§283.3]

Referred to in §283.5

283.4 Apportionment. The funds credited to such special fund shall be distributed each school year, in October and April, to the several public school corporations of the state in the proportion which the total number of teacher units for each such school corporation for the preceding school year bears to the total number of teacher units for the state for such school year. Such teacher units shall be determined for each public school corporation in the following manner:

1. Teacher units in grades one to eight inclusive, and kindergarten, shall be fixed as follows: (a) For each school in which only one teacher is employed, one teacher unit; and (b) if the total average daily attendance does not exceed forty in all schools in which more than one teacher is employed, two additional teacher units; or (c) if the total average daily attendance exceeds forty in all such schools, one additional teacher unit for the first fifteen and one additional teacher unit for each additional twenty-seven, or major fraction thereof, in average daily attendance; provided that the teacher units so determined for each school corporation shall not exceed the actual number of teachers employed in grades one to eight inclusive, and kindergarten.

2. Teacher units in grades nine to twelve inclusive shall be determined by allowing one and one-half teacher units for each high school unit, determined as follows: (a) If the total average daily attendance in grades nine to twelve in all schools is less than sixteen, one high school unit; or (b) if such total average daily attendance is more than fifteen and less than twenty-six, two high school units; or (c) if such total average daily attendance is more than twenty-five and less than forty-one, three high school units; or (d) if such total average daily attendance is more than forty, three high school units for the first forty and one additional high school unit for each additional twenty-two, or major fraction thereof, in average daily attendance; provided that the high school units so determined for each school corporation shall not exceed the actual number of teachers employed in teaching grades nine to twelve inclusive.

3. Both resident and nonresident pupils shall be included in determining the number of teacher units allowed to each school corporation. [C39,§4283.05; C46, 50, 54,§283.4]

283.5 Requisition on fund. The treasurer shall, upon request, certify to the superintendent at any time the amount in the special fund created in section 283.3. On the first day of October and the first day of April of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible, the superintendent shall determine the amount due each of the several school corporations in the state under the provisions of this chapter, and shall file with the state comptroller a requisition on which shall appear the amounts due each of such school corporations. [C39,§4283.06; C46, 50, 54,§283.5]

283.6 Warrants drawn. The state comptroller, upon receipt of such requisition from the superintendent of public instruction, shall draw a warrant or warrants on the treasurer of state, payable to the school corporations entitled thereto in accordance with said requisition, and shall deliver said warrant or warrants to the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make a record thereof and transmit the same to the secretary of each of said school corporations. [C39,§4283.07; C46, 50, 54,§283.6]

283.8 Refund on nonresident tuition. Each public school corporation in the state which, pursuant to statutory requirements, receives tuition from another public school corporation for nonresident pupils shall, within thirty days after receiving such warrant on the treasurer of state, refund to the public school corporation paying such tuition an amount for each such nonresident pupil determined as follows:

1. The amount so received from the treasurer of state for teacher units in grades one to eight inclusive, and kindergarten, shall be divided by the total average daily attendance in such grades for the school year for which such teacher units were fixed. The result so obtained shall constitute the amount of refund for each pupil in such grades for whom tuition was received for such school year.

2. The amount so received from the treasurer of state for teacher units in grades nine to twelve inclusive shall be divided by the total average daily attendance in such grades for the school year for which such teacher units were fixed. The result so obtained shall constitute the amount of refund for each pupil in such grades for whom tuition was received for such school year.

3. Provided that if tuition was paid for any such pupil for less than the full school year the amount of refund shall bear the same proportion to the amount so determined as the period for which tuition was paid bears to the full school year. [C39,§4283.09; C46, 50, 54, §283.8]

283.9 Rules and regulations. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, as are necessary and proper for the administration thereof. [C39,§4283.10; C46, 50, 54,§283.9]

CHAPTER 284

REIMBURSEMENT OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS FOR LOSS OF TAXES

Referred to in §274.46

284.1 Reimbursement—by whom computed.
284.2 Basis of computation—limitation.
284.3 Certification of amount.
284.4 Payment to district.

284.5 Secretary to file statement.
284.6 Auditor to deduct reimbursement.
284.7 Commission to prepare forms.

284.1 Reimbursement—by whom computed. When unplatted lands within the boundaries of a school district are owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by a county, or by a municipal corporation located wholly outside said school district, and such lands have been removed from taxation for school purposes, said school district shall be reimbursed, as hereinafter provided, in an amount which shall be computed by the county board of supervisors in the county in which such lands are located, which computation shall be made on or before the first day of September in the year in which said deductions are to be made. [C31,§4283-c9; C35,§4283-e1; C39,§4283.11; C46, 50, 54,§284.1]

Referred to in §§284.2, 284.3

284.2 Basis of computation—limitation. The computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made: (1) On the basis of the proportion that the assessable value of the total number of acres owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by the county, or by the municipal corporation, as the case may be, in such school district bears to the assessable value of the total number of acres in said school district. The average assessable value per acre of the lands so owned within the school district shall, for the purposes of the computation provided for in this chapter, not exceed the average assessable value per acre of the taxable lands in said district, or (2), if said land or any part thereof is being operated by a municipal corporation for veterans or public housing purposes, and said municipal corporation does not furnish school facilities for tenants' children of school age, then the municipal corporation shall be obligated to provide its proportionate share of the education and building costs of the school district in which said project is located and the computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made on the basis of the proportion the number of pupils attending said school district from said land bears to the total number of pupils attending said school district. The use of either computation provided for in this sec-

When the computed amount is based upon lands belonging to the state or to the government of the United States, as provided herein, it shall then become the duty of the secretary of the executive council of the state to certify the amount to the state comptroller, who shall draw his warrant to the secretary of said school district and the treasurer of state shall pay the same from any funds of the state not otherwise appropriated.

If the computed reimbursement to a school district on state or government-owned land within the district is not sufficient to cover the tuition such district is required to pay because of children of employees of the state or federal government who reside on such land and attend a public school outside the district in which such land is located, then the county board of supervisors shall add to the computed reimbursement to such district the difference between the computed reimbursement and the tuition such district is required by law to pay because of the children of such employees, and certify the total to the secretary of the executive council for payment by the state as provided by law. [C31, §§4283-c3, c12; C35, §4283-e4; C39, §4283.14; C46, 50, 54, §284.4]

It shall also be the duty of the secretary of such school district at the time of certifying the taxes to file with the county auditor a certified statement showing the names of employees of the state or federal government who live on state or government-owned land within the district whose children attend a public school outside the home district as provided by law, by whom employed, the capacity of their employment, the names of their children for whom tuition is to be paid, the name of the outside school district in which their children attend, the total period of attendance, and the amount of tuition the district is required to pay for each of such children. The board of directors in every school district shall provide transportation or the costs thereof for all resident pupils attending public school, kindergarten through twelfth grade, who reside more than one mile from the school designated by the board for attendance, except as hereinafter provided:

a. Elementary pupils residing in a district wherein is located a village, town or city under twenty thousand population wherein the designated school is located must live more than two miles from the school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.

b. Elementary pupils residing in a district wherein is located a city of twenty thousand or more in population must live more than two miles from the public school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.

c. Elementary pupils residing in a rural independent district, a rural township district, or a consolidated district not operating a central school, when the school in the district or subdistrict is in operation, must live more than two miles from the school in their own district or subdistrict to be entitled to transportation.

Boards at their discretion may provide transportation for resident elementary children attending public school who live less than the distance at which transportation is required.

d. High school pupils residing in a district containing a village, town, or city under twenty thousand population wherein a high school is located and outside the limits of the village, town, or city shall be entitled to transportation as provided in this section.

e. High school pupils residing in a district containing a city of twenty thousand population or over must live more than three miles from high school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation thereto.

Boards at their discretion may provide transportation for all high school pupils residing inside the corporate limits of any town, village, or city, and more than two miles from designated high school.

2. Any pupil may be required to meet a school bus on the approved route a distance of not to exceed three-fourths of a mile without reimbursement.

3. In any district where transportation by school bus is impracticable or where school bus service is not available, the board may require the parents or guardian to transport their children to the school designated for attendance. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation service for elementary pupils by the board of resident district for the distance one way from the pupil's residence to the school designated for attendance at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day irrespective of number of children transported. For high school pupils, the parent or guardian shall be reimbursed forty dollars per pupil per year for such service, provided however no family shall receive more than eighty dollars per year for transporting the members of the family who attend high school.

4. In all districts where unsatisfactory roads or other conditions make it advisable, the board at its discretion may require the parent or guardian to transport their children up to two miles to connect with a vehicle of transportation. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation by the board of resident district at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day, one way, per family for the distance from pupil's residence to the bus route.

5. Where transportation by school bus is impracticable or not available or other existing conditions warrant it, arrangements may be made for use of common carriers according to uniform standards established by the state superintendent of public instruction. The cost shall be the actual cost of service not to exceed forty dollars per pupil per year.

6. When the school designated for attendance of pupils is engaged in the transportation of pupils, the sending or designating school shall use these facilities and pay the pro rata cost of transportation except that a district sending pupils to another school may make other arrangements when it can be shown that such arrangements will be more efficient and economical than to use facilities of the receiving school, providing such arrangements are approved by the county board of education.

7. If a board closes either elementary or high school facilities and is approved by the county board of education to operate its own transportation equipment, the full cost of transportation shall be paid by the board for all pupils living beyond the statutory walking distance from the school designated for attendance.

8. Transportation service may be suspended upon any day or days, due to inclemency of the weather, conditions of roads, or the existence of other conditions, by the board of the school district operating the busses, when in their judgment it is deemed advisable and when the school or schools are closed to all children.

9. Distance to school or to a bus route shall in all cases be measured on the public highway only and over the most passable and safest route as determined by the county board of education, starting in the roadway opposite the private entrance to the residence of the pupil and ending in the roadway opposite the entrance to the school grounds or designated point on bus route.

10. The board in any district providing transportation for nonresident pupils shall collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the district of pupil's residence for all properly designated pupils so transported.

11. Boards in districts operating busses may transport nonresident pupils who attend public school, kindergarten through junior college, who are not entitled to free transportation provided they collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the parents.

12. The pro rata cost of transportation shall be based upon the actual cost for all the children transported in all school busses. It shall include one-seventh of the original net cost of the bus and such other items as shall be determined and approved by the superintendent of public instruction but no part of the capital outlay cost for school busses and transportation equipment for which the school district is reimbursed from state funds or that portion of the cost of the operation of any school bus used in transporting pupils to and from extra curricular activities shall be included in determining said pro rata cost. In any district where because of unusual conditions, the cost of transportation is in excess of the actual operating cost of the bus route used to furnish transportation to nonresident pupils, the board of the local district may charge a cost equal to the cost of other schools supplying such service to that area, upon receiving approval of the state director of school transportation. Capital outlay for school busses and transportation equipment shall be excluded from the capital outlay in determining tuition costs as provided in section 279.18, and section 282.20.

13. When a local board fails to pay transportation costs due to another school for transportation service rendered, the board of the creditor corporation shall file a sworn statement with the county board of education specifying the amount due. The county board of education shall check such claim and if the claim is valid shall certify to the county auditor. The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such claim from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation and the treasurer shall pay the same accordingly.

14. The state superintendent of public instruction may review all transportation arrangements to see that they meet all legal and established uniform standard requirements.

15. Every school district required by law to provide transportation shall be reimbursed by the state for transportation costs incurred in amount and manner as provided in this chapter. However, no state reimbursement shall be made to school districts to cover costs incurred in transporting pupils from home to a bus route, or any others not entitled to free transportation, but who are transported at the expense of the home district or the parents. [S13, §§2794-b, c, d, e; SS15, §§2794-a, g; C24, 27, 31, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186; C35, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186, 4233-e5; C39, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186, 4233.5; C46, §§276.26, 276.28, 276.29, 276.32, 276.34, 279.20, 285.1, 285.5; C50, 54, §285.1; 57GA, ch 128, §3]

285.2 Basis of reimbursement. Reimbursement shall be for the school year preceding that in which it is made on the basis of thirty dollars per pupil per annum in a district (1) transporting an average of one hundred twenty-five pupils per day, (2) its vehicles traveling one hundred sixty miles per pupil per year, and (3) having a road condition index of 1.40. To determine the amount of reimbursement to which any district shall be entitled and shall receive, adjustments from the foregoing standard shall be made and the amount determined in the following manner, to wit:

1. Adjustments for number of pupils transported:

a. An increase of two cents for each reduction of one in the average number of pupils transported below one hundred twenty-five, until thirty dollars and fifty cents is reached for each of one hundred pupils.

b. An increase of four cents for each reduction of one pupil in the average number of pupils transported below one hundred, until thirty dollars and fifty cents has increased to thirty-one dollars and fifty cents for each seventy-five pupils.

c. An increase of six cents for each reduction of one in the average number of pupils transported below seventy-five, until thirty-one dollars and fifty cents has increased to thirty-three dollars for each fifty pupils, or less.

d. A decrease of two cents for each addition of one in the average number of pupils transported above one hundred twenty-five, until thirty dollars is reached for each of one hundred seventy-five pupils.

e. A decrease of one cent for each addition of one in the average number of pupils transported above one hundred seventy-five, until twenty-nine dollars and fifty cents is reached for each of two hundred twenty-five or more pupils.

2. Adjustments for mileage:

a. An increase of the base of thirty dollars by three cents per year for each mile of vehicular travel in excess of one hundred sixty miles per pupil per year.

b. A decrease of the base of thirty dollars by three cents per year for each mile of vehicular travel less than one hundred sixty miles per pupil per year.

3. Adjustment for road conditions:

An increase or decrease, as the case may be, of the base rate of thirty dollars by the percentage by which the road condition index is greater or less than 1.40.

The road condition index for any district shall be obtained by (a) multiplying the miles of hard surfaced (including back top), gravel, and unsurfaced roads over which the school busses travel by 1.00, 1.39, and 1.55 respectively; (b) adding the amounts thus obtained, and (c) dividing by the total bus mileage.

The three computations provided for in subsections 1, 2 and 3, immediately preceding, shall be added together and divided by three and the amount so obtained shall be the amount to be paid to the district per pupil transported, by way of reimbursement. In school districts where transportation by school bus is not practicable or available, and approved special transportation arrangements are made, the distribution formula shall be waived and the reimbursement from the state for such costs shall be twenty-three dollars per pupil per school year, except that in no event shall any district be reimbursed in any amount in excess of the actual cost per pupil per year.

Reimbursement from the state for transportation costs incurred shall be paid to:

a. Districts for transportation provided to its own school for all pupils entitled to free transportation.

b. Districts for transportation provided to another school for all pupils entitled to free transportation.

c. Districts for transportation provided to pupils residing in one district and who are entitled to transportation but are transported to a school other than to the school which is operating the transportation equipment.

When the pupils from the sending district are transported by the receiving district the reimbursement will be made to the receiving district and shall constitute a credit to the sending district on the cost of transportation. The receiving district in billing the sending district shall bill only for the difference between the state reimbursement and the actual approved cost of transportation.

The appropriation for transportation shall be used to reimburse school districts for cost incurred in the amount and manner as are provided in this chapter. In the event the balance is insufficient to reimburse the district in full for the approved claims, the amount available shall be prorated to the several districts in ratio to amount earned. [C46, 50, 54, §285.2]

285.3 Report by secretary of district. The secretary of each district entitled to transportation aid shall, on or before the first day of July of each year, report to the state department of public instruction on blanks furnished by the latter, such information as it may require for determining the amount the district shall be reimbursed for transportation of pupils. The state department may require further supporting data and information, and from the said reports, data and information it shall determine and compute the amount to which each district is entitled to reimbursement, and shall certify same for payment to the state comptroller who shall draw warrants upon such certification and cause same to be delivered to the districts so entitled. [C46, 50, 54, §285.3]

285.4 Pupils sent to another district. On or before July 8, 1949, the board in districts not maintaining high school facilities shall by record action designate the school or schools for attendance of all high school pupils from their respective districts. In making designations, the local board shall give consideration to the wishes of the majority of the patrons, the adequacy of the facilities and curricular offerings and available bus service to avoid duplication of transportation facilities to different receiving schools.

When a board closes its elementary school facilities for lack of pupils or by action of the board, it shall, if there is a school bus service available in the area, designate for attendance the school operating the busses, provided the board of such school is willing to receive them and the facilities and curricular offerings are adequate. The board of the district where the pupils reside may with the approval of the county board of education, subject to legal limitations and established uniform standards, designate another rural school and provide their own transportation if the transportation costs will be less than to use the established bus service.

All designations must be submitted to the county board of education on or before July 15, for review and approval. The county board of education shall after due investigation alter or change designations to make them conform to legal requirements and established uniform standards for making designations and for locating and establishing bus routes. After designations are made, they will remain the same from year to year except that on or before July 15, of each year, the rural board or parents may petition the county board for a change of designation to another school. Appeals from the decision of the county board on designations may be made by either the parents or board to the state superintendent of public instruction as provided in section 285.12 and section 285.13. School busses which do not conform to the requirements of the department of public instruction may be issued a temporary certificate of operation provided that such school busses can be operated with safety, and provided further that no such certificate shall be issued for a period in excess of one year. All equipment can be required to be altered, or safety equipment added in order to make vehicles reasonably safe for operation. 2. Each bus route shall serve regularly only pupils whose homes are beyond the statutory walking distance to the nearest appropriate school. It is provided, however, that in areas of any county having a population of over one hundred and fifty thousand, where, in the opinion of the board, the volume of traffic is such that the pupils' safety depends upon transportation, regular transportation may be provided for pupils living less than the statutory walking distance from the designated school.
3. Each bus route shall serve only those pupils living in those areas where transportation by bus is the most economical method for providing adequate transportation facilities.
4. A route shall not be extended for the purpose of accommodating pupils whose homes are nearer another bus route.
5. Special contracts for transportation of pupils entitled to transportation shall be entered into only when it is more economical to make such special provision than to provide same by regular bus route, or when by reason of physical or mental handicap of the pupil such pupil cannot be transported with safety by bus.

7. The use of school busses shall be restricted to transporting pupils to and from school and to and from extra curricular activities sponsored by the school when such extra curricular activity is under the direction of a qualified member of the faculty and a part of the regular school program. School employees of districts operating busses may be transported to and from school and approved activities which they are required to attend as a result of their responsibilities. The affidavit of appeal shall include the reasons for the appeal and points at issue. The county superintendent of schools shall, within ten days of said notice, file with the state superintendent of public instruction all records and papers pertaining to the case, including action of the county board of education. The state superintendent of public instruction shall hear the appeal within fifteen days of the filing of the records in his office, notifying all parties and the county superintendent of schools of the time of hearing. The decision of the state superintendent of public instruction shall be subject to appeal to the district court. Any order of the district court shall be subject to appeal to the supreme court in accord with the statutes respecting appeals to that court. Pending final order made by the state superintendent of public instruction, or the district court, or the supreme court, as the case may be, upon any appeal prosecuted to such superintendent or to such courts, the order of the county board of education from which the appeal is taken shall be operative and be in full force and effect. The decision of the state superintendent of public instruction shall be subject to appeal to the courts as provided for in section 285.12. [C46, 50, 54,§285.13]

285.14 Nonstandard busses—penalties. Any person who operates or permits to be operated as a school bus to transport pupils, any vehicle which does not comply with the requirements provided by law or by the rules and regulations of the state department of public instruction, or for which there is not a valid temporary certificate for operation, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed thirty days. [C46, 50, 54,§285.14]

285.15 Forfeiture of reimbursement rights. The failure of any local district to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any other laws relating to the transportation of pupils, or any rules or regulations made by the state department of public instruction under this chapter or the final decisions of the county board of education, or the final decisions of the state department of public instruction shall cause such district to forfeit any rights to reimbursement for any transportation costs incurred during the period such failure to comply existed and the rights to collect transportation costs from school or parents while operating in such illegal manner. Any superintendent, board, or board member who knowingly operates or permits to be operated any school bus transporting public school pupils in violation of any school transportation law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 286.1 Right of districts to financial aid.

286.2 Definitions.

286.3 Aid to qualified districts.

286.4 Conditions and requirements—mandatory tax levy.

286.5 Basis of aid.

286.6 Determination of total aid.

286.7 Information furnished by school district.

286.1 Right of districts to financial aid. For the purpose of equalizing educational opportunity in the school districts throughout the state, the several school districts in the state shall be entitled to and receive financial aid from the state in the manner and amount as provided in this chapter. The aid provided for in this chapter is supplementary aid. Supplementary aid is that aid which is available to districts which qualify under the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, §286.1]

286.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter an elementary pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school who has not entered the ninth grade, and a high school pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school in any of the grades ninth to twelfth inclusive. [C46, 50, 54, §286.2]

286.3 Aid to qualified districts. Supplementary aid shall be paid by the state to those districts which qualify, as hereinafter provided. [C46, 50, 54, §286.3]

286.4 Conditions and requirements—mandatory tax levy. Supplementary aid shall be paid under the following conditions and requirements:

1. Supplementary aid shall be paid to a district only when the funds described in subsection 2 of this section are insufficient to meet an educational cost of one hundred twenty dollars per elementary child and one hundred seventy dollars per high school child in average daily attendance, and then only to the extent of this deficiency.

2. The funds which shall be considered available to any district to meet the educational cost described in subsection 1 of this section, shall include: (a) The estimated proceeds of a standard local tax rate (exclusive of the rate for the schoolhouse fund) of fifteen mills for all districts with high schools and ten mills for elementary districts.

3. No school district shall receive financial aid under the provisions of this chapter for reimbursement for any year in which a school tax levy for the general fund of at least fifteen mills was not made in such district. [C46, 50, 54, §286.4; 56GA, ch 9, §1; 57GA, ch 134, §1]

Referred to in §286.5

286.5 Basis of aid. Supplementary aid shall be on the basis of per school census child and shall be computed and determined as follows:

1. Multiply one hundred twenty dollars by the combined number of nontuition elementary students in average daily attendance and average number of elementary students for which the district pays tuition to another district.

2. Multiply one hundred seventy dollars by the combined number of nontuition high school students in average daily attendance and average number of high school students for which the district pays tuition to another district.

3. Take the sum of the amounts found in subsections 1 and 2 of this section.

4. From this sum, subtract the receipts in the general fund, which are described in subsection 2 of section 286.4. [C46, 50, 54, §286.5; 57GA, ch 134, §2]

286.6 Determination of total aid. The amount of supplementary aid per census child to which the district is entitled, if any, shall be multiplied by the school census to obtain the total state aid to which the district is entitled. [C46, 50, 54, §286.6]

286.7 Information furnished by school district. The supplementary aid shall take the form of reimbursement to the school district for its educational program of the preceding year. At the close of each school year, but not later than June 30, the local district shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district. Forms for this purpose shall be supplied by the state department to each school district at the beginning of each school year. After the claim has been calculated and validated for accuracy, the department of public instruction shall immediately certify to the state comptroller the amount of reimbursement due to each school district, and in no event shall the process of certification, calculation and validation extend more than sixty days beyond the time when a given district has submitted its data for the preceding year. In event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total funds appropriated and available bears to the total amount certified for reimbursement. [C46, 50, 54, §286.7]

CHAPTER 286A

GENERAL AID TO SCHOOLS

- 286A.1 Right of districts to general aid—mandatory tax levy.
- 286A.2 Definitions.
- 286A.3 Basis of aid—standards for junior colleges.

- 286A.4 Determination.
- 286A.5 Information furnished by school district.
- 286A.6 Rules and regulations.
- 286A.7 Funds.

286A.1 Right of districts to general aid—mandatory tax levy. The several school districts in the state of Iowa shall be entitled to and receive financial aid from the state in the manner and amount as provided in this chapter.

No school district shall receive financial aid under the provisions of this chapter in the event a school tax levy for the general fund of at least fifteen mills was not made in such district for the preceding year. [C50, 54, §286A.1; 56GA, ch 11,§1; 57GA, ch 10,§1]

286A.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter an elementary pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school who has not entered the ninth grade, and a high school pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school in any of the grades ninth to twelfth inclusive. [C50, 54,§286A.2]

286A.3 Basis of aid—standards for junior colleges. General school aid distributed under this chapter shall be on the basis of seventeen cents per day per elementary pupil and twenty cents per day per high school pupil for every day that such pupils actually attend school, and one dollar per day for each junior college student carrying twelve or more semester hours of college work.

Approval standards for public junior colleges shall be established and approved by the state board of public instruction, and the state board of regents, acting jointly, with said standards to be issued and enforced by the state department of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction. Eligibility for receipt of state aid for public junior colleges shall be determined by the above two boards. Junior college aid will not be paid unless such standards are met. In the development of said standards, the association of public junior colleges shall serve in the advisory capacity to the afore-mentioned boards. [C50, 54,§286A.3; 57GA, ch 10,§§2, 4]

286A.4 Determination. The general school aid funds allocated to each district shall be determined as follows:

1. Multiply seventeen cents by the combined number of nontuition elementary students in average daily attendance and average number of elementary students for which the district pays tuition to another district. Multiply this product by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days.

2. Multiply twenty cents by the combined number of nontuition high school students in average daily attendance and average number of high school students for which the district pays tuition to another district. Multiply this product by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days.

3. Multiply one dollar by the average daily enrollment of junior college students carrying twelve or more semester hours of college work. Multiply this product by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days.

4. Take the sum of the amounts found in subsections 1, 2, and 3 of this section, this being the amount to which the district is entitled for general school aid under this chapter. [C50, 54,§286A.4; 57GA, ch 10,§3]

286A.5 Information furnished by school district. At the close of each school year, but not later than July 5, the local district shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district. Forms for this purpose shall be supplied by the state department to each school district not later than June 1. After all claims have been calculated and validated for accuracy, the department of public instruction shall certify the same to the state comptroller for payment as soon as possible. In event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total funds appropriated and available bears to the total amount certified for reimbursement. All funds received or to be received under the provisions of this chapter shall be taken into account and considered by each school district when estimating the amount required for the general fund. [C50, 54,§286A.5]

286A.6 Rules and regulations. The superintendent of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations and definitions of terms as are necessary and proper for the administration of this chapter. The necessary expenses incurred by the department of public instruction in the administration of this chapter may be paid from the appropriation therefor. When such conditions as unnatural weather hazards, bad roads, epidemics, and the like, occur to such an extent as to penalize any district, the superintendent of public instruction can adjust the formula by taking the average of several months attendance in lieu of the months affected by such epidemics or hazards. [C50, 54,§286A.6]

286A.7 Funds. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter for the distribution of general aid the funds of each school district, except schoolhouse funds, shall be designated as a general fund and a special courses fund.

All general aid moneys distributed to a public school district shall be placed in said school district in the said general fund of said district which fund shall be used only for the following purposes:

The cost of operating and maintaining the school and the cost of instruction and supervision occasioned by the teaching of the basic curriculum hereinafter described.

3. Any additional subjects which may be required to be taught by law.

The board of directors of each school district shall prepare a budget as required by law setting out the amount of money proposed to be expended from the general fund and from the special courses fund. The board shall include all state funds distributed to the district under the provisions of this chapter in the anticipated income to be received by the general fund, and the amount to be raised by taxation for general fund purposes shall be fixed after deducting the amount to be received from this chapter and any other funds received from the state of Iowa, from the budget requirements. The board shall include in its budget as a separate item any proposed expenditures from the special courses fund and the amount to be raised by taxation for such purposes shall be separate and distinct from the levy for general fund purposes.

No transfer of funds shall be made to the special courses fund from the general fund, any provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding. [C50, 54,§286A.7]

2. The proceeds of the sale of the five hundred thousand acres of land granted the state under the eighth section of an act of Congress passed September 4, 1841, entitled: "An act to appropriate the proceeds of all sales of public lands, and to grant pre-emption rights".

shall be payable to the treasurer of the county in which the lands or escheated estates are situated or found, and the county treasurer shall pay the proceeds to the state treasurer once each month. [R60,§1965; C73,§1840; C97, §2838; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4470; C46, 50, 54, §302.2]

1. All forfeitures which are authorized to be made for the benefit of the school fund.
2. The proceeds of all fines collected for violation of the penal laws, and for the nonperformance of military duty.
3. The proceeds of the sale of lost goods and estrays.

These several funds shall be payable to the county treasurer of the several counties in which they arise, accounted for to the board of supervisors, and apportioned by it among the several school townships and independent districts of the county as provided by law. [R60,§§1963, 1966; C73,§§1838, 1841; C97,§2839; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4471; C46, 50, 54,§302.3]

302.4 Division and appraisal. The board of supervisors may, at such time as it may fix, and as preliminary to a sale, authorize the trustees of any township, where the sixteenth section or land selected in lieu thereof has not been sold, to lay out the same into such tracts as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the school fund, conforming, as far as the interests of said fund will permit, to the legal subdivisions of the United States surveys, and appraise each tract at what they believe to be its true value, and certify to said board the divisions and appraisements made by them. Said division and appraisal shall be approved or disapproved by said board at its first meeting after such report, and in case it disapproves the same it may at once order another division and appraisal. If the board of supervisors approves, the county auditor shall make and keep a record of such division, appraisal, and approval; but no school lands of any kind shall be sold for less than the appraised value per acre, except as hereinafter provided; nor shall any member of the board of supervisors, county auditor, township trustee, or any person who was engaged in the division and appraisal of said land, be directly or indirectly interested in the purchase thereof; and any sale made, where such parties or any of them are so interested, shall be void. [R60,§§1970, 1971; C73,§§1845-1847; C97,§2840; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4472; C46, 50, 54, §302.4]

tor shall give at least forty days notice, by written or printed notices posted in five public places in the county, two of which shall be in the township in which the land to be sold is situated, and also publish a notice of said sale once each week for two weeks preceding the same in a newspaper published in the county, describing the land to be sold and the time and place of such sale. At such time and place, or at such other time and place as the sale may be adjourned to, he shall offer to the highest bidder, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and sell, either for cash or one-third cash and the balance on a credit not exceeding ten years, with interest on the same at the rate of not less than three and one-half percent per annum, to be paid at the office of the county treasurer of said county on the first day of January in each year, delinquent interest to bear the same rate as the principal. 302.6 Sale without appraisal. When the board of supervisors of any county has once offered for sale any school lands in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and they remain unsold, and it is unable to obtain therefor the appraised value thereof, and in the opinion of said board it is for the best interests of the school fund that the same be sold for a less price, it may instruct the auditor to transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of its proceedings in relation to the order of sale thereof and subsequent proceedings in relation thereto, including the action of the township trustees, and the price per acre at which the land had been appraised, which transcript the secretary of state shall submit to the executive council; and if it approves of a sale at a less sum it shall certify such approval to the auditor of the county from which said transcript came, which certificate shall be transcribed in the minute book of the board of supervisors, and thereupon said land may again be offered and sold to the highest bidder, after notice given as in case of sales in the first instance, without being again appraised. Any purchaser or his assigns may at any time pay the full amount for lands with accrued interest, and receive from the county auditor a certificate of purchase, which shall be at once transmitted to the secretary of state and will entitle the holder to a patent for the lands, to be issued by the secretary of state and the governor. All school lands sold in pursuance of law shall be subject to taxation from and after the execution and delivery of a contract of purchase. All sales made, where the full price is not paid, shall be subject to the law relative to the prevention or punishment of waste, and in all such cases the township trustees in each township are charged with the duty of preventing the commission of waste upon any school lands lying in their township, and, if attempted, they shall apply by petition for an injunction to stay the same, and if granted the writ shall issue without bond, and the court issuing it may make such order in the premises as shall be equitable and best calculated to prevent threatened injury, and may adjudge damages for any injury done, the costs to abide the event of the action, and the damages adjudged shall be paid to the county treasurer and the county treasurer shall forthwith pay the same to the state treasurer which shall become a part of the permanent school fund. 302.9 Cash or collateral security. When, in the judgment of the board of supervisors, any school lands are of such a character that a sale upon partial credit would be unsafe or incompatible with the interest of the school fund, and especially in the case of timbered lands, the board of supervisors may in its discretion exact the whole of the purchase money in advance; or if it sells such land upon a partial credit, as hereinbefore prescribed, it shall require good collateral security for the payment of the part upon which credit is given. The secondary road system is subdivided into farm-to-market roads and local secondary roads. [C54,§306.1; 57GA, ch 137,§§1-4]

See also §313.2

306.2 Definition of road systems. The following words and phrases when used in this chapter or in any chapter of the Code relating to highways shall respectively have the following meaning:

1. Primary roads. The term “primary roads” or “primary road system” shall include those main market roads and highway traffic arteries, outside of cities and towns, which have been designated as primary roads under section 313.2 or which may hereafter be so designated as the law may provide.

See Code 1924,§4689; also 37GA, ch 249,§2

2. Institutional roads. The term “institutional roads” shall include those highways, either inside or outside of cities and towns, upon or adjacent to land belonging to the state at any state institution.

3. Secondary roads. The term “secondary roads” or “secondary road system” shall include all public highways, outside of cities and towns, except primary roads and state park and institutional roads.

4. Farm-to-market roads. The term “farm-to-market roads” or “farm-to-market road system” shall include those main secondary roads which have been designated as farm-to-market roads under section 310.10 or which may hereafter be so designated as the law may provide.

5. Local secondary roads. The term “local secondary roads” or “local secondary road system” shall include all those secondary roads which are not now, or may not hereafter be, included in the farm-to-market road system.

6. State park roads. The term “state park roads” shall include all those highways and roads, either inside or outside of cities and towns, upon land belonging to the state at any state park. [C24, 27,§4636; C31, 35,§4644-c2; C39,§4644.02; C46, 50,§309.2; C54,§306.2; 57GA, ch 137,§§5-8]

306.3 Jurisdiction—control. Jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state are hereby vested in and imposed on (1) the state highway commission as to primary roads; (2) the county board of supervisors as to secondary roads within their respective counties; and (3) the board or commission in control of any state park or institution as to any state park or institutional road at such state park or state institution. Provided however, that as to any state park road which is an extension of either a primary or secondary highway which both enters and exits from the state park at separate points, the state highway commission in the case of a primary road, and the county board of supervisors in the case of secondary roads, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the state conservation commission over such roads, and the state highway commission in the case of a primary road and the board of supervisors in the case of a secondary road, may expend the moneys available for such roads in the same manner as they expend such funds on other roads over which they exercise jurisdiction and control. The parties exercising concurrent jurisdiction shall enter into agreements with each other as to the kind and type of construction or maintenance and the division of cost thereof, but in the absence of such agreement the jurisdiction and control of said road shall remain under the conservation commission. 306A.2 Definition of a controlled-access facility. For the purposes of this chapter, a controlled-access facility is defined as a highway or street especially designed for through traffic, and over, from or to which owners or occupants of abutting land or other persons have no right or easement or only a controlled right or easement of access, light, air, or view by reason of the fact that their property abuts upon such controlled-access facility or for any other reason. Such highways or streets may be freeways open to use by all customary forms of street and highway traffic or they may be parkways from which trucks, busses, and other commercial vehicles shall be excluded. [56GA, ch 148,§2]

Referred to in §306A.3

306A.3 Authority to establish controlled-access facilities. Cities, towns, and highway authorities having jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306, acting alone or in co-operation with each other or with any federal, state, or local agency or any other state having authority to participate in the construction and maintenance of highways, are hereby authorized to plan, designate, establish, regulate, vacate, alter, improve, maintain, and provide controlled-access facilities for public use wherever such authority or authorities are of the opinion that traffic conditions, present or future, will justify such special facilities; provided, that within cities and towns such authority shall be subject to such municipal consent as may be provided by law. Said cities, towns, and highway authorities, in addition to the specific powers granted in this chapter, shall also have and may exercise, relative to controlled-access facilities, any and all additional authority now or hereafter vested in them relative to highways or streets within their respective jurisdictions. Said cities, towns and highway authorities may regulate, restrict, or prohibit the use of such controlled-access facilities by the various classes of vehicles or traffic in a manner consistent with section 306A.2. [56GA, ch 148,§3]

306A.4 Design of controlled-access facility. Cities, towns, and highway authorities having jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306, are authorized to so design any controlled-access facility and to so regulate, restrict, or prohibit access as to best serve the traffic for which such facility is intended. In this connection such cities, towns, and highway authorities are authorized to divide and separate any controlled-access facility into separate roadways by the construction of raised curbs, central dividing sections, or other physical separations, or by designating such separate roadways by signs, markers, stripes, and other devices. No person shall have any right of ingress or egress to, from, or across controlled-access facilities to or from abutting lands, except at such designated points at which access may be permitted, upon such terms and conditions as may be specified from time to time. [56GA, ch 148,§4]

306A.5 Acquisition of property and property rights. For the purposes of this chapter, cities, towns, and highway authorities having jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306 may acquire private or public property rights for controlled-access facilities and service roads, including rights of access, air, view, and light, by gift, devise, purchase, or condemnation in the same manner as such units are now or hereafter may be authorized by law to acquire such property or property rights in connection with highways and streets within their respective jurisdictions. All property rights acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall be in fee simple. In connection with the acquisition of property or property rights for any controlled-access facility or portion thereof, or service road in connection therewith, the said cities, towns and highway authorities, in its discretion, acquire an entire lot, block, or tract of land, if, by so doing, the interests of the public will be best served, even though said entire lot, block, or tract is not immediately needed for the right of way proper. [56GA, ch 148,§5]

306A.6 New and existing facilities—grade-crossing eliminations. Cities, towns and highway authorities having jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306 may designate and establish an existing street or highway as included within a controlled-access facility. The state or any of its subdivisions shall have authority to provide for the elimination of intersections at grade of controlled-access facilities with existing state and county roads, and city or town or village streets, by grade separation or service road, or by closing off such roads and streets at the right of way boundary line of such controlled-access facility; and after the establishment of any controlled-access facility, no highway or street which is not part of said facility shall intersect the same at grade. No city, town, or village street, county or state highway, or other public way shall be opened into or connected with any such controlled-access facility without the consent and previous approval of the highway authority in the state, county, city, town or village having jurisdiction over such controlled-access facility. Such consent and approval shall be given only if the public interest shall be served thereby. [56GA, ch 148,§6]

306A.7 Authority of local units to consent. Cities, towns and highway authorities having jurisdiction and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306 are authorized to enter into agreements with each other, or with the federal government, respecting the financing, planning, establishment, improvement, maintenance, use, regulation, or vacation of controlled-access facilities or other

Such local service roads or streets shall be of appropriate design, and shall be separated from the controlled-access facility proper by means of all devices designated as necessary or desirable by the proper authority. The budget shall include an itemized statement of:

1. Estimated revenues to be raised by property taxation for secondary road purposes.
2. Estimated revenues to be received from the state road use tax fund.
3. Estimates of revenues from all other sources for secondary road purposes.
4. The proposed expenditures from each road fund during the next calendar year. The estimates of such proposed expenditures shall be itemized and classified in a manner which the state highway commission shall prescribe.
5. The actual expenditures for the last two prior years and the estimated expenditures for the current year. These shall be itemized and classified in the same manner as proposed expenditures.
6. The cash balance of each road fund at the end of the last prior year, an estimate of the cash balance at the end of the current year, and an estimate of the cash balance at the end of the next calendar year. [C31, 35,§§4633-c33, c34, c35; C39,§§4644.31-4644.33; C46, 50, 54, §§309.31-309.33; 57GA, ch 139,§1; ch 141,§1]

Such amendments shall be submitted to the state highway commission for approval with a statement of the reasons necessitating the amendment. The state highway commission shall approve or disapprove such amendments in the same manner as original budget estimates except that the highway commission shall act upon and return such amendments within fifteen days after their receipt by the commission. 2. In the event that a county secondary road budget or amended budget thereto is disapproved by the highway commission, the county may elect either to revise such budget or amended budget so as to receive approval or the county may elect to operate with such disapproved budget or amended budget. In the event the county secondary road budget is disapproved in whole or in part, within twenty days after receipt of the highway commission's report, the board of supervisors shall cause to be published in the official newspapers of the county, notice of a public hearing to be held within ten days of said publication, on the highway commission's recommendations, and at said hearing the board of supervisors shall amend or adopt their original budget. [57GA, ch 141,§4]

2. "Federal aid" or "federal aid secondary road fund" shall mean funds allotted to the state of Iowa by the federal government to aid in the construction of secondary roads and which funds must be matched with funds under the control of the state highway commission. [C39,§4686.01; C46, 50, 54,§310.1]

310.2 Supervisors agreement. The county board of supervisors of any county is empowered, on behalf of the county, to enter into any arrangement or agreement with or required by the duly constituted federal or state authorities in order to secure the full co-operation of the government of the United States and of the state of Iowa, and the benefit of all present and future federal or state allotments in aid of secondary road construction, reconstruction or improvement. [C39,§4686.02; C46, 50, 54,§310.2]

1. All federal aid secondary road funds received by the state.
2. All road use tax funds by law credited to the farm-to-market road fund.
3. All other funds which may, under the provisions of this chapter or any other law, be credited or appropriated for the use of the farm-to-market road fund. [C39,§4686.03; C46, 50, 54,§310.3]

310.8 Quarterly statement to county engineer. The state highway commission shall, quarterly, advise each county engineer of the condition of said county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund. Said statement shall show the balance in said county's allotment at the beginning of said period, the amount or amounts allotted to said county during said period, the amount disbursed from said county's allotment during said period, and the balance in said county's allotment at the end of said period. Said statement shall also show the estimated outstanding obligations against the said county's allotment at the date of said statement. [C39,§4686.08; C46, 50, 54,§310.8]

310.9 Projects approved by commission. Before approving any farm-to-market road project the state highway commission shall satisfy itself that the county engineer's office in that county is organized, equipped and financed to discharge satisfactorily the duties herein required. Before any county can receive any portion of the farm-to-market road fund allotted on an equalization basis, such county must have made every reasonable effort by the levy of local taxes and otherwise to provide funds for the improvement of its secondary road system. [C39,§4686.09; C46, 50, 54, §310.9]

Referred to in §310.10

310.10 System designated—additions. The farm-to-market road system shall embrace those main secondary roads (not including roads within cities and towns) which connect rural areas with each other and with the towns, cities, and primary roads, and which have heretofore been designated as farm-to-market roads under section 310.9, as amended, and section 310.10, Code 1946. Said road system may, with consent of the state highway commission, be changed and modified by the board of supervisors.

When all farm-to-market roads in any county have been built to established grade, bridged and surfaced in a manner suited to the traffic thereon, additional mileage may be added to the farm-to-market road system in said county. [C39,§4686.10; C46, 50, 54,§310.10]

Referred to in §306.2

310.11 Nonparticipating county — funds reserved. Any county having complied with the provisions of this chapter may by its board of supervisors submit to the state highway commission for its approval project statements for the construction, reconstruction, or improvement of farm-to-market roads. [C39, §4686.11; C46, 50, 54,§310.11]

work on said project shall be done in accordance with said approved plans, except insofar as the same may be modified to meet unforeseen or better understood conditions, and no such modification shall be deemed an invalidating matter. [C39,§4686.13; C46, 50, 54,§310.13]

310.14 Bids—highway commission or county supervisors. When the approved plans and specifications for any farm-to-market road project are filed with the state highway commission, it shall, if the estimated cost exceeds one thousand dollars, proceed to advertise for bids and make recommended award of contract. Said recommended award of contract shall be submitted to the board of supervisors of the county in which said project is located for its concurrence. Upon receiving the concurrence of the county board on said recommended contract award, the state highway commission shall take final action awarding said contract. Provided, that the state highway commission shall determine and advise the county board as to any approved farm-to-market road project which is to be financed without the use of federal funds. On such project the above procedure shall be reversed. The county board shall advertise for bids, and, subject to concurrence by the state highway commission, award contract for the construction work. [C39,§4686.14; C46, 50, 54,§310.14]

310.18 Partial payments during construction. Partial payments may be made on the work during the progress thereof, but no such partial payment shall be deemed final acceptance of the work nor a waiver of any defect therein. The approval of any claims by the board of supervisors or by the state highway commission may be evidenced by the signature of the chairman of said board or commission, or a majority of the members of the board or commission, on the individual claims or on the abstract of a number of claims with the individual claims attached to said abstract. [C39,§4686.18; C46, 50, 54,§310.18]

310.19 Supervision and inspection of work. The county engineer is charged with the duty of supervision, inspection and direction of the work of construction of farm-to-market road projects under this chapter. In such capacity, the county engineer shall be under the supervision of the commission. [C39,§4686.19; C46, 50, 54,§310.19]

310.20 Supervisors resolution to state treasurer. Any county may, in any year, by resolution of its board of supervisors, make available for improvement or construction of farm-to-market roads within the county any portion of its allotment of road use tax funds. Upon certification of such a resolution, the state treasurer shall place in the county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund the amount authorized by such resolution. However, the county board may request the state highway commission to acquire such right of way and in either event such right of way may be paid for out of the county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund.

Should the board of supervisors request the state highway commission to acquire the right of way on any farm-to-market road project, the said commission shall proceed to the acquisition of said right of way under the same laws and in the same manner as though said project were a primary road project. Any sum remaining unexpended at the end of the period during which it is available for expenditure, shall be reapportioned among all the counties as provided in section 312.5 for original allocations.

For the purposes of this section, any sums of the farm-to-market road fund allotted to any county shall be presumed to have been "expended" when a contract shall have been let by the state highway commission obligating said sums. [C39,§4686.27; C46, 50, 54,§310.27]

310.28 Engineering and other expense. Engineering, inspection and administration expense in connection with any farm-to-market road project may be paid from said county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund. Any such expense incurred by the state highway commission may in the first instance be advanced out of the primary road fund, said amounts later being reimbursed to said funds out of the farm-to-market road fund.

Provided, that no part of the salary or expense of the county engineer, any member of the county board of supervisors, any member of the state highway commission, the chief engineer, or any department head or district engineer of the commission shall be paid out of the farm-to-market road fund. [C39,§4686.28; C46, 50, 54,§310.28]

310.29 Maintenance by county. Any farm-to-market road constructed under the provisions of this chapter shall be maintained by the county in a manner satisfactory to the federal authorities and to the state highway commission. Should any county fail to so maintain any such road, the state highway commission shall give the board of supervisors notice of that fact. If within sixty days after receipt of such notice the said highway has not been placed in proper condition of maintenance the commission shall proceed immediately to have such highway placed in proper condition of maintenance and charge the cost thereof against said county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund. The amount so expended for maintenance work by the highway commission shall be reimbursed to said county's allotment of the farm-to-market road fund, from said county's secondary road maintenance fund, before any more farm-to-market road projects in said county are approved by the commission. 310.34 Secondary road research fund. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 310.4, the state highway commission is hereby authorized to set aside each year not to exceed one and one-half percent of the receipts in the farm-to-market road fund in a fund to be known as the secondary road research fund. [C50, 54,§310.34]

310.35 Use of fund. The secondary road research fund shall be used by the state highway commission solely for the purpose of financing engineering studies and research projects which have as their objective the more efficient use of funds and materials that are available for the construction and maintenance of secondary roads, including bridges and culverts located thereon. [C50, 54,§310.35]

Referred to in §310.36

311.2 Width of district. Any such secondary road assessment district shall be not more than one-half mile wide on each side of the road or roads to be improved by said district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4746; C46,§311.3; C50, 54,§311.2]

311.3 Amount of assessment. Special assessments in the aggregate amount of not less than twenty-five percent of the total estimated cost of surfacing any road included in a secondary road assessment district project shall be apportioned and levied on the lands included in said secondary road assessment district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4753; C46,§311.10; C50, 54,§311.3]

311.4 County line road. Whenever it is desired to surface a secondary road on a county line, as a secondary road assessment district project, the board of supervisors of any county concerned may establish an assessment district in its county, and levy and collect special assessments for the payment of that portion of the estimated cost of such project assessable against lands in that county. Each county shall pay its share of the cost of said project as provided in this chapter, in the same manner as though the project were located wholly within that county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 54,§311.4]

311.5 Project in city or town. Any road or street which is a continuation of a secondary road within any city or town and which the county board desires to improve by graveling, oiling, or other suitable surfacing, may by resolution of the county board and concurrence by the council of the city or town be improved as a secondary road assessment district project or part thereof as herein provided. The lands within such city or town abutting on or adjacent to such street or road may be included within such secondary road assessment district and assessed on account of such improvement upon the same basis and in the same manner as though such lands were located outside of a city or town. [C24,§4754; C27, 31, 35,§4745-a1; C39,§4745.1; C46,§311.2; C50, 54,§311.5]

311.6 Petition—information required. The petition for a secondary road assessment district proposing to establish such district shall intelligently describe the road or roads proposed to be improved, the nature of the proposed improvement, the percentage of the estimated cost of the surfacing of said road proposed to be assessed against the property in the said district and the lands proposed to be included in such district.

Such petition shall be signed by thirty-five percent of the owners of the lands within such proposed district, or by thirty-five percent of the owners of the land within such proposed district who reside within said county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 54, §311.6]

311.7 Improvement by private funds. When any owner or group of owners of not less than seventy-five percent of the lands adjacent to, or abutting upon any secondary road or roads shall, on or before July 1 of any year petition the board of supervisors of their county for the improving by graveling or other suitable surfacing, of said road or roads, and for the assessment of not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the cost of such improving, by graveling or other suitable surfacing, to the lands adjacent to, or abutting upon said road or roads, the board of supervisors shall, in the order in which such petitions were filed with it, include and give preference to said project or projects in the secondary road construction program of said county for the ensuing year. When a proper petition is filed, it shall retain its preference in succeeding years.

The board of supervisors shall proceed during the ensuing year with the construction and completion of said project under the same procedure as is prescribed generally for the improvement of secondary roads by assessment, and shall, as the law may provide, establish a special secondary road assessment district and assess against the lands included therein not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the engineer's estimated cost of the surfacing of the road or roads included in said project against all the lands adjacent to or abutting upon the said road or roads.

Provided, that should the owner or owners of all the lands included in any special secondary road assessment district under this section, subscribe and deposit with the county treasurer an amount not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the engineer's estimated cost of the surfacing of the road or roads included in said project, the board of supervisors shall not establish such special assessment district as herein provided, but shall accept the said donations in lieu of an assessment, and shall otherwise proceed to the improvement of said road or roads as herein provided.

Provided further, that the total expenditure of secondary road funds of the county in any year for or on account of special secondary road assessment district projects on local secondary roads under this section shall not exceed the total secondary road funds legally expendable for construction on local secondary roads in said county in said year, and the expenditure of secondary road funds of the county, in any township in any three-year period, for or on account of special secondary road assessment district projects on local secondary roads under this section, shall not exceed said township's pro rata share, on the area basis, of the total secondary road funds legally expendable for construction on local secondary roads in said county in said three-year period, unless there be a township or townships from which there are no petitions filed during the first two years of said three-year period.

If the engineer's estimated cost of the grading, bridges, culverts, and draining of the road proposed to be included in any special assessment district project under this section, exceeds an average of seven thousand dollars per mile, the board of supervisors of said county may appeal to the state highway commission as to whether the county shall proceed with the construction of said project. The state highway commission shall hold a hearing on said matter, at a time and place of which the petitioners and the county board shall be duly notified, and shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard. After such hearing the state highway commission shall determine whether the county shall proceed with said project, which determination shall be final.

Upon the completion of such road or roads, and the satisfaction of all claims in relation thereto, any balance then remaining of the funds provided by the sponsors shall be returned to them according to their respective interests, providing all guarantees made by such sponsors have been fulfilled.

Any road or roads so improved by graveling or other suitable surfacing under the provisions of this section shall be maintained by the county from the secondary road fund. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§4747, 4753; C46, §§311.4, 311.10; C50, 54, §311.7; 57GA, ch 139, §7; ch 141, §5]

311.9 Publicly owned real estate. In making said apportionment, real estate owned by the state, county or any city or town, shall be treated as other real estate, but no other publicly owned real estate shall be included. In apportioning benefits to real estate owned by a town, city, the county or the state, no consideration shall be given to the buildings thereon. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a1; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 54, §311.9]

311.10 Estimate and apportionment — presumption. Said estimated cost shall carry the presumption, in the absence of a contrary showing, that the same correctly represents the probable cost of said project as nearly as can be determined in advance of the actual doing and completion of the work. Said apportionment shall carry the presumption, in the absence of a contrary showing, that the same is fair, just, equitable, and in proportion to the benefits and not in excess thereof. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a1; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 54, §311.10]

9. That all objections to the establishment of said district, to the said apportionment report, or to the proceedings relating thereto must be specifically made in writing and filed with the county auditor on or before noon of the day set for such hearing, and
10. That a failure to make and file such objections will be deemed a conclusive waiver of all such objections. [C24, §§4707, 4750, 4751; C27, 31, 35, §§4750, 4751, 4753-a1; C39, §§4750, 4751, 4753.01; C46, §§311.7, 311.8, 311.11; C50, 54, §311.11]

311.13 Errors in notice or apportionment report. Any omission or error in said apportionment report or notice with respect to any tract or parcel of real estate or the description thereof, or the name of the owner, or the amount of the assessment apportioned thereto, shall work no loss of jurisdiction on the part of the board over such proceeding. Such omission or error shall only affect the particular tract of real estate or person in question. If, before or after the board has entered its final order in the establishment of the said district or in the apportionment proceedings, such omission or error is discovered, the board shall fix a time for a hearing as to such party or real estate and shall cause service of notice to be made upon them, either by publication as in this chapter provided, or by personal service in the time and manner required for service of original notices in the district court. After such hearing the board shall proceed as to such person or land as though such omission or error had not occurred. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a1; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 54, §311.13]

Only interested parties shall have the right to appear in such proceedings. All persons so appearing shall state for whom they appear. The clerk of the board shall make definite entry accordingly in the minutes of the board. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a1; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 54, §311.14]

311.15 Hearing—adjournment—order. Hearings on the proposed establishment of said district may be adjourned from time to time without loss of jurisdiction by the board. On final hearing the board shall proceed to a determination of said matters. It may reject, approve, or modify and approve said proposal. The board may exclude lands from the district or may add lands thereto or otherwise modify the proposal.

Should the proposal be approved in whole or in part, the board shall establish such district. The order of the board establishing such district shall state the road or roads to be improved, the type of improvement, and the lands included in said district. Said order shall be final. No lands shall thereafter be added to or excluded from said district. [C24,§4709; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a2; C39,§4753.02; C46,§311.12; C50, 54, §311.15]

311.16 Final hearing—assessment levied. On final hearing the board shall hear and determine all objections filed. The board may increase, diminish, annul, or affirm the apportionment made in said report, or any part thereof, as may appear to the board to be just and equitable.

On the final determination the board shall levy such assessments and all installments thereof upon the real estate within said district as finally established. The entire amount of said assessment shall be then due and payable, and bear interest at six percent per annum commencing twenty days from the date of said levy, and shall be collected at the next succeeding March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes. [C24,§4710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39, §4753.03; C46,§311.13; C50, 54,§311.16]

311.17 Assessments over ten dollars—waiver. If any owner other than the state or a county, city or town, of any tracts of land on which the assessment is more than ten dollars, shall, within twenty days from the date of said assessment, agree in writing filed in the office of the county auditor, that in consideration of his having the right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection of illegality or irregularity as to said assessment upon his said real estate, and will pay the same with six percent interest thereon, then and in that case said assessment shall be payable in ten equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on the date of such agreement. The other installments with interest on the whole amount unpaid shall be paid annually thereafter at the same time and in the same manner as the March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes.

An owner of land who has availed himself of said ten-year option may at any time discharge his assessment by paying the balance then due on all unpaid installments, with interest on the entire amount of the unpaid installments for thirty days in advance. [C24, §4710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.03; C46, §311.13; C50, 54,§311.17]

311.18 Assessment delinquent — penalties. All such taxes shall become delinquent on the first day of March next after their maturity, shall bear the same interest, the same penalties, and be attended with the same rights and remedies for collection, as ordinary taxes. [C24, §4710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.03; C46, §311.13; C50, 54,§311.18]

311.19 Assessment ten dollars or less. Assessments of ten dollars or less against any tract of land, and assessments against lands owned by the state, county, city or town, shall be due and payable from the date of levy by the board of supervisors, or in the case of any appeal, from the date of final confirmation of the levy by the court.

In case of assessments on lands owned by the county, the same shall be paid from the county general fund. In case of assessments on lands owned by the state, the same shall be paid out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. In case of assessments on lands owned by a city or town, the same shall be paid from the city or town street fund. [C24,§4710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39, §4753.03; C46,§311.13; C50, 54,§311.19]

311.20 Variation between estimated and actual cost. Any variation between the engineer's estimated cost and the actual cost of a secondary road assessment district project shall in no way affect the validity of the assessment. It is the intent of this chapter that the assessment shall be based on the estimated cost and not on the actual cost. [C24,§4711; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a4; C39,§4753.04; C46,§311.14; C50, 54, §311.20]

311.21 Procedures. The preparation and approval of plans and specifications, the advertising for bids, the award and approval of contract, the supervision and inspection of construction work, and the approval and payment of claims on any secondary road assessment district project, shall be conducted in the manner provided in the laws for secondary road construction work generally. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§4749, 4752; C46,§§311.6, 311.9; C50, 54, §311.21]

311.22 Road graded and drained. Any such secondary road shall be built to permanent grade and drained in a manner approved by the county engineer before being surfaced, as provided in this chapter. [C27, 31, 35, 39,§4746; C46,§311.3; C50, 54,§311.22]

311.23 Payment of construction costs. The total cost of any secondary road assessment district project shall in the first instance be paid out of the secondary road fund of said county. Any assessments which are paid in cash and in anticipation of which assessments no certificates have been issued, shall be transferred to the secondary road fund.

If no special assessment certificates are issued and sold on account of any particular secondary road assessment district, the special assessments on lands included in that district, and the interest on such assessments when collected, shall be transferred to the secondary road fund of said county. If certificates are issued and sold in anticipation of the special assessments levied on any such district as herein provided, the proceeds of such certificates shall be credited to the secondary road fund of said county. In that event, the special assessments in anticipation of which certificates have been issued, and the interest on such assessments shall, when collected, be used to retire such certificates. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4752; C46,§311.9; C50, 54,§311.23]

311.24 Appeal from assessment. Any owner of land in a secondary road assessment district may appeal to the district court from the order of the board of supervisors in levying the assessment against his real estate, by filing with the county auditor within fifteen days of the date of such levy, a bond conditioned to pay all costs in case the appeal is not sustained, and a written notice of appeal wherein he shall, with particularity, point out the specific objection which he desires to lodge against such levy. The appearance term shall be the trial term. Said appeal shall have precedence over all other business of the term except criminal matters. The appeal shall be heard as in equity. The court may raise or lower the assessment in question and make an equitable assessment in the judgment of the court. The clerk of the district court shall, upon the entry of the final order of the court, certify such final order to the county auditor. The board of supervisors shall at once so adjust the assessments as to comply with the final order of the court. [C24,§4713; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a5; C39, §4753.05; C46,§311.15; C50, 54,§311.24]

311.25 Appeal docketed. When an appeal is taken, the county auditor shall at once make a transcript of the notice of appeal and appeal bond and transmit the same to the district court. The appellant shall, on or before the first day of the first term of the court, after taking said appeal, docket said appeal and file a petition setting forth the order or decision of the board of supervisors appealed from, and his specific objections thereto. A failure to comply with either of these requirements shall be deemed a conclusive waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same. Appellee need not file answer, but may do so. [C24,§4714; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a6; C39, §4753.06; C46,§311.16; C50, 54,§311.25]

311.26 Assessments certified to county treasurer. When the board of supervisors has entered its final order as to the amounts of all special assessments on a given improvement, the county auditor shall at once certify a list of such assessments and a list of real estate upon which each assessment has been levied, with the specific designation of the district embracing such real estate, to the county treasurer, who shall enter each assessment on the tax books and continue such entry until such assessment is paid.

Each special assessment and all installments thereof shall be a lien upon the real estate upon which it is levied from the date of such certificate by the county auditor to the same extent and in the same manner as taxes levied for state and county purposes. Changes in the amount of any special assessment by reason of any ruling of the district court on appeals shall be likewise certified and the county treasurer shall make the proper correction on his books. [C24,§4715; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a7; C39, §4753.07; C46,§311.17; C50, 54,§311.26]

311.27 Each district separate unit. Each assessment district shall be considered a unit and all funds received by the county treasurer for or on behalf of such unit shall be carried as a distinct and separate account and under the same specific name as that used by the board in establishing such unit. [C24,§4716; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a8; C39,§4753.08; C46,§311.18; C50, 54,§311.27]

311.28 Certificates anticipating assessments. In order to render immediately available that amount of the estimated cost of an improvement which has been specially assessed, the board may issue road certificates in the name of the county in an aggregate amount not exceeding the then unpaid amount of the special assessment levied in said district. Each issue of certificates shall be under, and in accordance with, a duly adopted resolution of the board and which shall recite (1) the name or designation of the road district on account of which the certificates are issued; (2) that a stated amount (naming the amount) has been specially assessed against the lands within said district; (3) that a stated amount of said aggregate special assessment has not yet been paid (naming the unpaid amount); (4) that it is necessary to render such unpaid amount immediately available; (5) the number of road certificates authorized and the specific amount of each certificate; (6) the specific numbering or designation of such certificates; (7) the rate of interest which each certificate shall bear from date, to wit, not to exceed six percent per annum; (8) the fact that said certificates are payable solely from the proceeds of the special assessments which have been levied on the lands within said districts; (9) that each certificate shall be payable on or before the first day of January of the first year following the maturity of the last installment of such special assessments, and that interest thereon shall be paid annually; (10) the authorization to the chairman of the board, and to the county auditor, respectively, to sign and countersign each of said certificates. [C24,§4717; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a9; C39,§4753.09; C46,§311.19; C50, 54,§311.28]

311.29 Sale of certificates. Upon the signing of each of said certificates by the chairman of the board, said certificates shall be delivered to the county auditor, who shall countersign the same, charge the county treasurer with the amount thereof, and deliver the same to the latter officer, who shall be responsible therefor on his bond. The treasurer may apply said certificates in payment of any warrants duly authorized and issued for surfacing the roads within said district, or he may sell the same for the best attainable price and for not less than par, plus accrued interest, and credit the proceeds to the secondary road fund. Such certificates shall be retired in the order of the consecutive numbering thereof. [C24, §4717; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a9; C39,§4753.09; C46, §311.19; C50, 54,§311.29]

311.30 Certificates registered — payment. The county treasurer shall, in connection with the road account for said district, enter the name and post-office address of all persons to whom any of said certificates are issued, with a particular designation of the certificates delivered to each person. Any subsequent holder may present his certificate to the county treasurer and cause his name and post-office address to be entered in lieu of that of such former holder. Whenever the fund for such particular district has money to pay the first retirable certificate or certificates, the county treasurer shall, by mail, as shown by his records, promptly notify the holder of such certificate of such fact and that from and after ten days after the mailing of such letter all interest on such certificates will cease. [C24, §4717; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a9; C39, §4753.09; C46, §311.19; C50, 54, §311.30]

311.31 Previous assessments not invalidated. The passage of this chapter, the provisions hereof, and the repeal of sections hereby repealed, shall not in manner affect or invalidate any secondary road district assessments levied before this chapter became effective, or any certificate in anticipation of such assessments issued before or after this chapter becomes effective.

Said assessments and taxes shall be collected and applied to the purpose for which they were levied. Certificates in anticipation of such assessments may be issued. The proceeds of such certificates shall be applied to the purpose intended, and such certificates issued before or after this chapter becomes effective shall be paid in conformance with the provisions of this chapter. improvement or maintenance. The good faith of the state is hereby pledged to cause to be made available each year, sufficient funds to equal the total of any sums now or hereafter apportioned to the state for road purposes by the United States government for such year, and to maintain the roads constructed with said funds. [C24, §4688; C27, 31, 35, §4755-b1; C39, §4755.01; C46, 50, 54, §313.1]

313.2 "Road systems" defined — roadside parks. The highways of the state are, for the purposes of this chapter divided into two systems, to wit: the primary road system and the secondary road system. The primary road system shall embrace those main market roads (not including roads within cities and towns) which connect all county seat towns and cities and main market centers, and which have already been designated as primary roads under chapter 241, Code of 1924; provided, that the said designation of roads shall be, with the consent of the federal authorities, subject to revision by the state highway commission. Any portion of said primary system so eliminated by any changes shall revert to and become a part of the secondary road system provided however that the state highway commission shall first allocate sufficient funds to put the road in good repair or assume responsibility for all necessary repairs. The state highway commission may, for the purpose of affording access to cities, towns or state parks, or for the purpose of shortening the direct line of travel on important routes or to effect connections with interstate roads at the state line, add such road or roads to the primary road system, but no other increase shall be made in the mileage of the primary roads until the present primary road mileage has been completed as this chapter provides.

The state highway commission shall have the authority to utilize any land acquired incidental to the acquisition of land for highway right of way, and to also accept by gift, lands not exceeding two acres in area, for roadside parks and parking areas, provided, however, that the upkeep and maintenance of said roadside parks and parking areas shall involve only minor maintenance expense. The commission shall also have authority to accept by gift, equipment or other installations incidental to the use of said parks and parking areas. Said parks and parking areas shall be a part of the primary road system and the commission may at its discretion sell or otherwise dispose of said lands. [C24,§4689; C27, 31, 35,§4755-b2; C39, §4755.02; C46, 50, 54,§313.2; 56GA, ch 150,§1]

Said statements shall be on standard forms prepared by the state highway commission and shall be filed with said board or commission previous to the letting at which such bidder expects to bid. The board or commission may, in advance of the letting, notify the bidder as to the amount and the nature of the work for which he is deemed qualified to bid.

In the award of contracts for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair or maintenance of any highway, the board or commission having charge of awarding such

The board or commission may reject any or all bids, or may let by private contract or build by day labor, at a cost not in excess of the lowest bid received. Upon the completion of any contract or project on either the farm-to-market or secondary road system, the county engineer shall file with the county auditor a statement showing the total cost thereof with certificate that said work has been done in accordance with the plans and specifications. The letting of a contract in violation of the foregoing provisions shall invalidate the contract and such violation shall be a complete defense to any action to recover any consideration due or earned under the contract at the time of its termination. [S13,§1527-s15; C24,§§4685, 4700; C27, 31, 35,§§4685, 4755-b10; C39,§§4685, 4686.14, 4755.10; C46,§§309.92, 310.14, 313.10; C50,§308A.11; C54, §314.2]

Claims payable from the farm-to-market road fund shall be approved by both the board of supervisors and the state highway commission. Upon approval by the highway commission of vouchers which are payable from the farm-to-market road fund, or from the primary road fund, as the case may be, such vouchers shall be forwarded to the state comptroller, who shall draw warrants therefor, and said warrants shall be paid by the treasurer of the state from the farm-to-market road fund or from the primary road fund, as the case may be.

If the engineer makes such certificate or a member of the board or commission approves such claim when said work has not been done in accordance with the plans and specifications, and said work be not promptly made good without additional cost, he shall be liable on his bond for the amount of such claim. [SS15, §1527-s10; C24,§§4653, 4702; C27, 31, 35,§§4653, 4755-b15; C39,§§4653, 4686.17, 4755.15; C46, §§309.59, 310.17, 313.15; C50,§308A.12; C54,§314.3]

Provided, that this authority shall not apply to the extensions of secondary roads located in cities over twenty-five hundred population, where the houses or business houses average less than two hundred feet apart.

The phrase "subject to the approval of the council" as it appears in this section, shall be construed as authorizing the council to consider said proposed improvement only in its relationship to municipal improvements such as sewers, water lines establishing grades, change of established street grades, sidewalks and other public improvements. The locations of such road extensions shall be determined by the board or commission in control of such road or road system. [C31, 35,§4644-c47; C39, §§4644.45, 4686.21; C46,§§309.45, 310.21; C50, §308A.14; C54,§314.5]

Nor shall they destroy or injure reasonable ingress or egress to any property, or turn the natural drainage of the surface water to the injury of adjoining owners. It shall be their duty to use strict diligence in draining the surface water from the public road in its natural channel. To this end they may enter upon the adjoining lands for the purpose of removing from such natural channel obstructions that impede the flow of such water. [C24, 27,§4791; C31, 35, §4644-c46; C39,§4644.44; C46,§309.44; C50, §308A.16; C54,§314.7]

See §§318.1, 318.2

314.8 Government markers preserved. Whenever it may become necessary in grading the highways to make a cut which will disturb, or fill which will cover up, a government or other established corner or land monument, it shall be the duty of the engineer to establish permanent witness corners or monuments, and make a record of the same, which shall show the distance and direction the witness corner is from the corner disturbed or covered up. When said construction work is completed the engineer shall permanently re-establish said corner or monument. A failure to perform said duties shall subject the engineer to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars to be collected on his bond. Any damage caused by such entry, survey, borings and excavations shall be determined by agreement or in the manner provided for the award of damages in condemnation of land for highway purposes. No such prospecting shall be done within twenty rods

No discrimination shall be made in the use of such bridge as between such utilities. Joint use of telephone, telegraph, electric transmission or pipe lines may not be required. ### FLIGHT STRIPS

315.1 Definition.

315.2 Construction and maintenance by commission.

315.3 Federal government to pay cost.

315.4 State to advance funds.

315.5 Condemnation of right of way and gravel pits.

315.1 Definition. The term "flight strip" as used in this chapter is construed and defined to mean a field or area of various width and length, but usually about five hundred feet wide and about one mile long, and containing one runway for the landing and take-off of aircraft. The runway itself is usually about one hundred fifty feet wide and about one mile long. The excess width of the field or area over and above the width of the runway itself is used for parking motor vehicles, grounded planes, and for other necessary ground facilities. [C46, 50, 54,§315.1]

315.2 Construction and maintenance by commission. In order to facilitate the war effort, the state highway commission, upon request of the commissioner of public roads of the United States, is hereby authorized to co-operate with the public roads administration of the United States in the location, construction, and maintenance of flight strips in this state. To that end the state highway commission may make surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates, acquire right of way for, and construct and maintain such flight strips.

The state highway commission may enter into contracts in any manner approved by the commissioner of public roads for the construction and maintenance of any such flight strips, or may perform such construction and maintenance work by force account, and may comply with the rules, regulations, and instructions of the commissioner of public roads in the construction and maintenance of such flight strips. [C46, 50, 54,§315.2]

315.3 Federal government to pay cost. The entire cost of the right of way, surveys, preliminary engineering costs, construction, and maintenance of such flight strips shall be paid by the federal government or some agency other than the state of Iowa. None of the cost of the right of way, construction, or maintenance of any such flight strips shall be paid by the state of Iowa. [C46, 50, 54,§315.3]

315.4 State to advance funds. In order to avoid delays, payment for right of way and for work on flight strips constructed or maintained by the state highway commission in co-operation with the United States public roads administration, may be advanced from the primary road fund. When payment for such right of way or work on such flight strips is received by the state of Iowa from the federal government, the funds so received shall be credited to the primary road fund. [C46, 50, 54,§315.4]

315.5 Condemnation of right of way and gravel pits. The state highway commission shall have authority to purchase or to institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary right of way for flight strips and for the condemnation of land, including a sufficient roadway to such land by the most reasonable route, for the purpose of obtaining gravel or other suitable material with which to construct, improve, or maintain such flight strips.

All the provisions of the law relating to the condemnation of land for public state purposes shall apply to the provisions hereof. [C46, 50, 54,§315.5]

To the total of all such sums expended, they shall add an amount equal to twenty-five percent thereof to compensate for the cost of supervision and administration and assess the resulting sum against said tract of real estate by a special tax, which shall be certified to the county auditor and county treasurer by the clerk of the board of supervisors, and shall be placed upon the tax books, and collected, together with interest and penalty after due, in the same manner as other unpaid taxes. Such tax shall be due on March 1 after such assessment, and shall be delinquent after March 31. When collected, said funds shall be paid into the fund from which said costs were originally paid.

2. Before making any such assessment, the board of supervisors shall prepare a plat or schedule showing the several lots, tracts of land or parcels of ground to be assessed which shall be in accord with the assessor's records and the amount proposed to be assessed against each of the same for destroying or controlling weeds during the calendar year.

3. Such board shall thereupon fix a time for the hearing on such proposed assessments, which time shall not be later than December 15 of the year, and at least twenty days prior to the time thus fixed for such hearing shall give notice thereof to all concerned that such plat or schedule is on file, and that the amounts as shown therein will be assessed against the several lots, tracts of land or parcels of ground described in said plat or schedule at the time fixed for such hearing, unless objection is made thereto. 2. That the vehicle is mechanically unfit or unsafe to be operated or moved upon the highways, providing such condition is revealed by a member of this department, or any peace officer.

3. That the treasurer has reasonable ground to believe that the vehicle is a stolen or embezzled vehicle or that the granting of registration and issuance of a certificate of title would constitute a fraud against the rightful owner.

4. That the registration of the vehicle stands suspended or revoked for any reason as provided in the motor vehicle laws of this state.

5. That the required fee has not been paid except as provided in section 321.48.

6. That the required sales tax has not been paid.

8. If application for a transfer of registration and issuance of a certificate of title for a used vehicle registered in this state is not accompanied by a certificate of title duly assigned.

321.50 Lien provisions. The provisions of chapter 556 shall never be construed to apply to or permit or require the deposit, filing or other record whatsoever, of a chattel mortgage, conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage, trust receipt, conditional sales contract, or similar instrument, or any copy of the same covering a vehicle subject to registration under the laws of this state, except trailers subject to a registration fee of ten dollars or less. Provided, the inclusion of a motor vehicle in a chattel mortgage describing other property as security shall not deprive said chattel mortgage of eligibility for filing or recording in the office of the county recorder. Any mortgage, conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage, trust receipt, conditional sales contract or similar instrument covering such vehicle, if such instrument is accompanied by delivery of such manufacturer's or importer's certificate and followed by actual and continued possession of the same by the holder of said instrument or, in the case of the certificate of title, if a notation of same has been made by the county treasurer on the face thereof, shall be valid as against the creditors of the mortgagor, whether armed with process or not, and subsequent purchasers, mortgagees and other lienholders or claimants, but otherwise shall not be valid against them. The county treasurer shall note upon the certificate of title all liens shown in the application for such certificate of title, upon the payment of a fee of one dollar for each lien appearing on such application. All liens, mortgages and encumbrances, noted on a certificate of title, shall take priority according to the order of time in which the same are noted thereon by the county treasurer. Exposure for sale of any such vehicle by the owner thereof, with the knowledge and consent of the holder of any lien, mortgage or encumbrance thereon, shall not render the same void or ineffective as against subsequent purchasers or the creditors of such owner or holder of subsequent liens, mortgages or encumbrances upon such motor vehicle or trailer. The holder of a chattel mortgage, trust receipt, conditional sales contract, or similar instrument, upon presentation of such instrument or certified true copy thereof, to the treasurer of the county where such certificate of title was issued, together with the certificate of title and a fee of one dollar, may have a notation of such lien made on the face of such certificate of title. The county treasurer shall enter said notation and the date thereof over the signature of such officer or deputy and the seal of office, and he shall also note such lien and the date thereof on the duplicate of same on file, and on that day shall notify the department on forms provided by the department, which shall note such liens on the duplicate title in its file. The county treasurer shall also indicate by appropriate notation on such instrument itself or certified true copy thereof, the fact that such lien has been noted on the certificate of title. The county treasurer upon receipt of a lien duly executed in the manner prescribed by law governing such lien instruments, together with the fee prescribed for notation of lien, shall mail a notification to the first lienholder at the address of such first lienholder as indicated by records of the county treasurer, to deliver to the county treasurer, within fifteen days from the date of notice, the certificate of title to permit notation of such junior lien. After such notation of lien, the county treasurer shall deliver the certificate of title to the first lienholder. The holder of a certificate of title who refuses to deliver a certificate of title to the county treasurer for the purpose of showing the junior lien on such certificate of title within fifteen days from the date when notified to do so by the county treasurer, shall be liable for damages to such junior lienholder for the amount of damages such junior lienholder suffered by reason of the holder of the certificate of title refusing to permit the showing of such lien on the said certificate of title. When a lien is discharged, the holder thereof shall execute a notarized release within twenty days after payment is received, such release to contain the certificate of title number, the amount of the lien and the date of the notation thereof. The holder shall also note a cancellation of same on the face of the certificate of title over his, her or its signature, and deliver the release and certificate of title to the county treasurer where title was issued who shall note the cancellation of said lien on the face of the certificate of title and on the duplicate of same on file in his office, and on the same day shall notify the department, which shall note such release on the duplicate title in its file. The county treasurer shall then deliver the certificate of title to the then first lienholder, or, if there is no such person, to the owner, or as otherwise directed by the owner. Said cancellation of lien shall be noted on the certificate of title by the county treasurer without charge. The provisions of chapter 556 shall continue to apply to the deposit, filing, refiling or other record whatsoever of a chattel mortgage, conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage, trust receipt, conditional sales contract, or other similar instrument, or any copy of same, made prior to October 1, 1953, and covering a motor vehicle, semitrailer or trailer. The certificate of title surrendered by the owner shall have noted thereon the purpose of cancellation and the name of the purchaser if sold for junk and such notation shall be duly signed by the owner. The department shall notify the title issuing county, if other than the county where title was surrendered, authorizing the treasurer to cancel and destroy all records pertaining to the particular vehicle. The department is not authorized to make a refund of license fees on a dismantled, destroyed or junked vehicle unless and until the certificate of title thereto has been surrendered.

2. When a vehicle is sold outside the state for purposes other than for junk the owner, dealer or otherwise, thereof, shall detach the registration plates and registration card and shall indicate on the reverse side of such registration card the name and address of the foreign purchaser or transferee over his signature. The department shall make a notation on the records of the out-of-state sale, and, after a reasonable period, may destroy the files to that particular vehicle except the motor file. The department is not authorized to make a refund of license fees on a vehicle sold out of state unless and until it receives the registration card completed as herein provided. 3. The board may require fleet owners to submit under oath such information as the board deems necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this section and the board's determination of the number of vehicles in fleets subject to this section to be registered in this state shall be final.

4. Any nonresident motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer shall be subject to all laws, rules and regulations governing the operation of

Vehicular traffic facing the signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection at the time such signal is exhibited.

Pedestrians facing the signal may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

2. Yellow alone or "Caution" when shown following the green or "Go" signal.

Vehicular traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, but if such stop cannot be made in safety a vehicle may be driven cautiously through the intersection.

Pedestrians facing such signal are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway, and any pedestrian then starting to cross shall yield the right of way to all vehicles.

3. Red alone or "Stop".

Vehicular traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an intersection or at such other point as may be indicated by a clearly visible line and shall remain standing until green or "Go" is shown alone.

No pedestrian facing such signal shall enter the roadway unless he can do so safely and without interfering with any vehicular traffic.

4. Red with green arrow.

Vehicular traffic facing such signal may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow but shall not interfere with other traffic or endanger pedestrians lawfully within a crosswalk.

No pedestrian facing such signal shall enter the roadway unless he can do so safely and without interfering with any vehicular traffic.

The motorman of any streetcar shall obey all the above signals as applicable to vehicles. [C39,§5019.06; C46, 50, 54,§321.257]

321.258 Flashing signals. Whenever flashing red or yellow signals are used they shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

1. Flashing red (Stop signal). When a red lens is illuminated by rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an intersection or at a limit line when marked and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

2. Flashing yellow (Caution signal). When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such signal only with caution. [C39,§5019.07; C46, 50, 54,§321.258]

This shall not be deemed to prohibit the erection upon private property adjacent to highways of signs giving useful directional information of a type that cannot be mistaken for official signs.

Every such prohibited sign, signal, or marking is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the authority having jurisdiction over the highway is hereby empowered to remove the same or cause it to be removed without notice. [C39,§5019.08; C46, 50, 54,§321.259]

On all other main highways the city or town shall furnish and erect suitable signs giving similar information to traffic on such highways. [S13, §1571-m20; C24, §5030; C27, 31, 35, §5030-b2; C39, §5023.05; C46, 50, 54, §321.289]

321.290 Special restrictions. Whenever the state highway commission shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any speed limit hereinbefore set forth is greater than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of a highway, said commission shall determine and declare a reasonable and safe speed limit thereat which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at such intersection or other place or part of the highway. [C39, §5023.06; C46, 50, 54, §321.290]

[C39,§5023.09; C46, 50, 54,§321.293]

321.294 Minimum speed regulation. No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law. Peace officers are hereby authorized to enforce this provision by directions to drivers, and in the event of apparent willful disobedience to this provision and refusal to comply with direction of an officer in accordance herewith the continued slow operation by a driver shall be a misdemeanor, and be punished as provided in section 321.482. [C31, 35,§5021-c1; C39,§5023.10; C46, 50, 54,§321.294]

See also §321.382

321.295 Limitation on elevated structures. No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure, when such structure is sign-posted as provided in this section.

The state highway commission upon request from any local authority shall, or upon its own initiative may, conduct an investigation of any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway, and if it shall thereupon find that such structure cannot with safety to itself withstand vehicles traveling at the speed otherwise permissible under this chapter, the commission shall determine and declare the maximum speed of vehicles which such structure can withstand, and shall cause or permit suitable signs stating such maximum speed to be erected and maintained at a distance of two hundred feet before each end of such structure.

Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of said determination of the maximum speed by said commission and the existence of said signs shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure. [C39, §5023.11; C46, 50, 54,§321.295]

321.296 Emergency vehicles — speed. The speed limitations set forth in this chapter shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles when responding to emergency calls and the drivers thereof sound audible signal by bell, siren, or exhaust whistle. The driver of a vehicle overtaking another vehicle proceeding in the same direction shall pass to the left thereof at a safe distance and shall not again drive to the right side of the roadway until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle.

Except when overtaking and passing on the right is permitted, the driver of an overtaken vehicle shall give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle on audible signal and shall not increase the speed of his vehicle until completely passed by the overtaking vehicle. [S13,§§1569, 1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5021, 5022; C39,§5024.03; C46, 50, 54,§321.299]

The driver of a vehicle may overtake and, allowing sufficient clearance, pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction either

upon the left or upon the right on a roadway with unobstructed pavement of sufficient width for four or more lines of moving traffic when such movement can be made in safety. No person shall drive off the pavement or upon the shoulder of the roadway in overtaking or passing on the right. [C39,§5024.06; C46, 50, 54,§321.302]

321.303 Limitations on overtaking on the left. No vehicle shall be driven to the left side of the center of the roadway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the safe operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction or any vehicle overtaken. In every event the overtaking vehicle must return to the right-hand side of the roadway before coming within one hundred feet of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction. [C39, §5024.07; C46, 50, 54,§321.303]

A vehicle shall be driven as nearly as practical entirely within a single lane and shall not be moved from such lane until the driver has first ascertained that such movement can be made with safety.

Upon a roadway which is divided into three lanes a vehicle shall not be driven in the center lane except when overtaking and passing another vehicle where the roadway is clearly visible and such center lane is clear of traffic within a safe distance, or in preparation for a left turn or where such center lane is at the time allocated exclusively to traffic moving in the direction the vehicle is proceeding and is signposted to give notice of such allocation.

Official signs may be erected directing slow-moving traffic to use a designated lane or allocating specified lanes to traffic moving in the same direction and drivers of vehicles shall obey the directions of every such sign. [C39, §5024.10; C46, 50, 54,§321.306]

Nothing in this section shall prohibit any utility or company operating a pipe line into or through this state from moving on such highways a two-axle truck with a four-wheel trailer attached upon which trailer is mounted a portable pumping unit necessary for emergency use during repairs to such pipe line, provided that the gross weight of such trailer and the pumping equipment mounted thereon shall not exceed fifteen thousand pounds and that the combined length, height or weight of such truck and trailer combination does not exceed the length, height or weight limits prescribed by law for combinations of motor vehicles. Any such trailer when so moved shall be subject to registration in this state or entitled to reciprocal operating privileges upon the same conditions as are applicable to motor vehicles generally, and when subject to registration in this state the fee therefor shall be the same as prescribed by law for a trailer upon which well drilling equipment is mounted.

A left turn from a one-way street into a two-way street shall be made by passing to the right of the center line of the street being entered upon leaving the intersection.

Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause markers, buttons, or signs to be placed within or adjacent to intersections and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when markers, buttons, or signs are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such markers, buttons, or signs. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5033; C39, §5025.01; C46, 50, 54, §321.311]

After the thirty-first day of December, 1953, it shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale or operate on the highways of the state of Iowa any vehicle subject to registration under the provisions of this chapter which has never been registered in this or any other state prior to January 1, 1954, unless such vehicle is equipped with a directional signal device of a type approved by the department and is in compliance with the provisions of subsection 2 of this section. Motorcycles, motor scooters, bicycles with motor attached and semitrailers and trailers less than forty inches in width are exempt from the provisions of this section.

4. When a vehicle is equipped with a directional signal device, such device shall at all times be maintained in good working condition. No directional signal device shall project a glaring or dazzling light. All directional signal devices shall be self-illuminated when in use while other lamps on the vehicle are lighted.

5. Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is disabled or for other reason may present a vehicular traffic hazard requiring unusual care in approaching, overtaking or passing during the hours of darkness, the operator of such vehicles may display on such vehicle or combination of vehicles four directional signals of a type complying with the provisions of this section relating to directional signal devices in simultaneous operation. The lowermost distribution of light, or composite beam, specified in subsection 2 of section 321.409 shall be deemed to avoid glare at all times, regardless of road contour and loading.

Whenever the driver of a vehicle follows another vehicle within two hundred feet to the rear, except when engaged in the act of overtaking and passing, such driver shall use a distribution of light permissible under this chapter other than the uppermost distribution of light specified in subsection 1 of section 321.409. The head lamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high-intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five feet ahead project higher than a level of five inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes, and in no case higher than forty-two inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five feet ahead.

The intensity shall be sufficient to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least two hundred feet. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§5049; C39, §5034.26; C46, 50, 54,§321.417] placed with devices that do comply with the requirements of this chapter. The commissioner may at the time of the retest purchase in the open market and submit to the testing agency one or more sets of such approved devices, and if such device upon such retest fails to meet the requirements of this chapter, the commissioner may refuse to renew the certificate of approval of such device. Every motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle, including two separate means of applying the brakes, each of which means shall be effective to apply the brakes to at least two wheels. If these two separate means of applying the brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part of the operating mechanism shall not leave the motor vehicle without brakes on at least two wheels.

2. Every motorcycle, and bicycle with motor attached, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with at least one brake, which may be operated by hand or foot.

3. Every trailer or semitrailer of a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more, and every trailer coach intended for use for human habitation, shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle, and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab, and said brakes shall, after January 1, 1939, be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes shall be automatically applied. Every semitrailer of a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more shall be equipped with a separate, auxiliary means of applying the brakes on the semitrailer from the cab of the towing vehicle.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every new motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer hereafter sold in this state and operated upon the highways shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every such vehicle with the following exceptions:

a. Any motorcycle.

b. Any trailer or semitrailer of less than three thousand pounds gross weight need not be equipped with brakes.

c. Trucks and truck tractors having three or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that such vehicles equipped with two or more front axles shall be equipped with brakes on at least one of such axles; provided that the service brakes of such vehicle comply with the performance requirements of section 321.431.

d. Only such brakes on the vehicle or vehicles being towed in a driveway-towaway operation need be operative as may be necessary to insure compliance by the combination of vehicles with the performance requirements of section 321.431. The term "driveaway-towaway" operation as used in this subsection means any operation in which any motor vehicle or motor vehicles, new or used, constitute the commodity being transported, when one set or more of wheels of any such motor vehicle or motor vehicles are on the roadway during the course of transportation, whether or not any such motor vehicle furnishes the motive power. a. To stop such vehicle or vehicles having a gross weight of less than five thousand pounds within a distance of thirty feet.

b. To stop such vehicle or vehicles having a gross weight in excess of five thousand pounds within a distance of forty-five feet.

2. Under the above conditions the hand brake shall be adequate to hold such vehicle or vehicles stationary on any grade upon which operated.

3. Under the above conditions the service brakes upon a motor vehicle equipped with two-wheel brakes only, and when permitted hereunder, shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of forty-five feet and the hand brake adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of fifty-five feet.

4. All braking distances specified in this section shall apply to all vehicles mentioned, whether such vehicles are not loaded or are loaded to the maximum capacity permitted under this chapter.

5. All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle. [S13,§1571-m17; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5039; C39, §5034.40; C46, 50, 54,§321.431]

Eight percent of the gross weight on any particular group of axles.

Eight percent on the total gross weight of a vehicle or combination of vehicles.

The weight on any one axle of a vehicle which is transporting livestock may exceed the legal maximum weight given in this chapter providing that the gross weight on any particular group of axles on such vehicle does not exceed the gross weight allowable under this chapter for such group of axles.

Any person who operates any vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section, and any owner, or any other person, employing or otherwise directing the operator of any vehicle who requires or knowingly permits the operation of any vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction or a plea of guilty be punished in accordance with the following schedule:

No fine shall be assessed if the overload does not exceed the tolerance specified in this section. If the overload does exceed the tolerance specified in this section, the amount of the fine to be assessed shall be computed on the difference between the actual weight and the maximum legal weight specified in this section without allowance of any tolerance.

Overloads on axles and tandem axles and overloads on groups of axles or on an entire vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be considered as separate violations of the provisions of this section.

The penalties herein provided shall not be construed to be in lieu of any other penalties provided for violations of other provisions of this chapter.

321.464 Investigation as to safety. The commissioner upon registering any vehicle under the laws of this state which vehicle is designed and used primarily for the transportation of property or for the transportation of ten or more persons, may require such information and may make such investigation or test as necessary to enable him to determine whether such vehicle may safely be operated upon the highways in compliance with all the provisions of this chapter. He shall register every such vehicle for a permissible gross weight not exceeding the limitations set forth in this chapter. Every such vehicle shall meet the following requirements:

1. It shall be equipped with brakes as required in sections 321.430 and 321.431.

2. Every motor vehicle to be operated outside of business and residence districts shall have motive power adequate to propel at a reasonable speed such vehicle and any load thereon or to be drawn thereby. [C39, §5035.13; C46, 50, 54, §321.464]

321.465 Weighing vehicles and removal of excess. Any peace officer having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to require the driver to stop and submit to a weighing of the same either by means of portable or stationary scales and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scales.

Whenever an officer upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of such vehicle to such limit as permitted under this chapter. All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of such vehicle at the risk of such owner or operator.

Any driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and otherwise comply with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in section 321.482.

321.466 Increased loading capacity—reregistration. An increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any vehicle by payment of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered.

With respect to a vehicle held by a dealer for sale or trade, an increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any such vehicle on or after April 10 of each year upon change of ownership by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

On or after July 1 of each year, the owner of a motor truck, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or trailer may, if his operation thereof has not resulted in a conviction under this section or an action then pending against him for violation of the same, increase the gross load of any such vehicle to a higher gross weight classification by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

Upon conversion of a truck to a truck tractor or a truck tractor to a truck, an increased gross weight registration of the proper type may be obtained for any such vehicle by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the annual fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year from the date of such conversion.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor truck, trailer, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or combination thereof, on the public highways with a gross weight exceeding that for which it is registered by more than five percent of the gross weight for which it is registered, provided, however, that any vehicle or vehicle combination referred to herein, while carrying a load of raw farm products, soil fertilizers, including ground limestone, raw dairy products or livestock, live poultry, eggs, may be operated with a gross weight of twenty-five percent in excess of the gross weight for which it is registered. A "motor vehicle liability policy" as said term is used in this chapter shall mean an owner's or an operator's policy of liability insurance, certified as provided in section 321A.19 or section 321A.20 as proof of financial responsibility, and issued, except as otherwise provided in section 321A.20, by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state, to or for the benefit of the person named therein as insured.

2. Such owner's policy of liability insurance:

a. Shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is thereby to be granted; and

b. Shall insure the person named therein and any other person, as insured, using any such motor vehicle or motor vehicles with the express or implied permission of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of such motor vehicle or motor vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such motor vehicle, as follows: Ten thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, twenty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and five thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

3. Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon him by law for damages arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

4. Such motor vehicle liability policy shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or be indorsed that insurance is provided thereunder in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

5. Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workmen's compensation law nor any liability on account of bodily injury to or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance, or repair of any such motor vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of, or transported by the insured.

6. Every motor vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions which need not be contained therein:

The liability of the insurance carrier with respect to the insurance required by this chapter shall become absolute whenever injury or damage covered by said motor vehicle liability policy occurs; said policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage; no statement made by the insured or on his behalf and no violation of said policy shall defeat or void said policy.

b. The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

c. The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in paragraph b of subsection 2 of this section.

d. The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or indorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of the chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

7. Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy and such excess or additional coverage shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

8. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

9. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

10. The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carriers which policies together meet such requirements.

11. Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy. [C50, 54,§321A.21; 57GA, ch 162,§4]

2. This chapter shall not be held to apply to or affect policies insuring solely the insured named in the policy against liability resulting from the maintenance or use by persons in the insured's employ or on his behalf of motor vehicles not owned by the insured. [C50, 54, §321A.23]

Such bond shall be filed with the commissioner and shall not be cancelable except after ten days written notice to the commissioner. Such bond shall constitute a lien in favor of the state upon the real estate so scheduled of any surety, which lien shall exist in favor of any holder of a final judgment against the person who has filed such bond, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury to or death of any person, or for damage because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle after such bond was filed, upon the filing of notice to that effect by the commissioner in the office of the proper clerk of court of the county where such real estate shall be located. Any individual surety so scheduling real estate security shall furnish satisfactory evidence of title thereto and the nature and extent of all encumbrances thereon and the value of the surety's interest therein, in such manner as the judge or clerk of the court of record approving the bond may require. The notice filed by the commissioner shall, in addition to any other matters by him deemed to be pertinent, contain a legal description of the real estate so scheduled, the name of the holder of the record title, the amount for which it stands as security, and the name of the person in whose behalf proof is so being made. Upon the filing of such notice the clerk of the court of such county shall retain the same as part of the records of such court and enter upon the encumbrance book the date and hour of filing, the name of the surety, the name of the record titleholder, the description of the real estate, and the further notation that a lien is charged on such real estate pursuant to the notice filed hereunder. From and after the entry of the foregoing upon the encumbrance book all persons whomsoever shall be charged with notice thereof.

2. If such a judgment, rendered against the principal on such bond shall not be satisfied within sixty days after it has become final, the judgment creditor may, for his own use and benefit and at his sole expense, bring an action or actions in the name of the state against the company or persons executing such bond, including an action or proceeding to foreclose any lien that may exist upon the real estate of a person who has executed such bond. An action to foreclose any lien upon real estate scheduled by any surety under the provisions of this chapter shall be by equitable proceeding in the same manner as is provided for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages. Referred to in §§321A.13, 321A.14, 321A.18

The state treasurer shall not accept any such deposit and issue a certificate therefor and the commissioner shall not accept such certificate unless accompanied by evidence that there are no unsatisfied judgments of any character against the depositor in the county where the depositor resides.

2. Such deposit shall be held by the state treasurer to satisfy, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, any execution on a judgment issued against such person making the deposit, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury to or death of any person, or for damages because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle after such deposit was made. Whenever any person required to give proof of financial responsibility hereunder is or later becomes an operator in the employ of any owner, or is or later becomes a member of the immediate family or household of the owner, the commissioner shall accept proof given by such owner in lieu of proof by such other person to permit such other person to operate a motor vehicle for which the owner has given proof as herein provided or has qualified as a self-insurer under section 321A.34. The commissioner shall designate the restrictions imposed by this section on the face of such person's license. [C50, 54, §321A.26]

321A.28 Other proof may be required. Whenever any proof of financial responsibility filed under the provisions of this chapter no longer fulfills the purposes for which required, the commissioner shall for the purpose of this chapter, require other proof as required by this chapter and shall suspend the license and registration or the nonresident's operating privilege pending the filing of such other proof. [C50, 54,§321A.28]

a. At any time after three years from the date such proof was required when, during the three-year period preceding the request, the commissioner has not received record of a conviction or a forfeiture of bail which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished; or

b. In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed or the permanent incapacity of such person to operate a motor vehicle; or

c. In the event the person who has given proof surrenders his license and registration to the commissioner;

2. Provided, however, that the commissioner shall not consent to the cancellation of any bond or the return of any money or securities in the event any action for damages upon a liability covered by such proof is then pending or any judgment upon any such liability is then unsatisfied, or in the event the person who has filed such bond or deposited such money or securities has within one year immediately preceding such request been involved as an operator or owner in any motor vehicle accident resulting in injury or damage to the person or property of others. An affidavit of the applicant as to the nonexistence of such facts, or that he has been released from all of his liability, or has been finally adjudicated not to be liable, for such injury or damage, shall be sufficient evidence thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary in the records of the commissioner.

3. Whenever any person whose proof has been canceled or returned under paragraph c of subsection 1 of this section applies for a license or registration within a period of three years from the date proof was originally required, any such application shall be refused unless the applicant shall re-establish such proof for the remainder of such three-year period. 2. No person, other than a licensed dealer in new motor vehicles, shall engage in this state in the business of selling at retail used motor vehicles or represent or advertise that he is engaged or intends to engage in such business in this state unless and until the department has licensed such person as a used motor vehicle dealer in the state and has issued to the person a license in writing as in this chapter provided.

3. Nothing contained in subsections 1 and 2 hereof shall be construed as requiring the separate licensing of persons employed as salesmen of motor vehicles by a licensee hereunder, but the department is hereby authorized and empowered to make, publish, and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as it may deem necessary for the proper identification of persons so employed as salesmen by any such licensee.

4. No person, who is engaged in the business of selling at retail motor vehicles, shall enter into any contract, agreement, or understanding, express or implied, with any manufacturer or distributor of any such motor vehicles that he will sell, assign, or transfer any retail installment contracts arising from the retail installment sale of such motor vehicles or any one or more thereof only to a designated person or class of persons. Any such condition, agreement, or understanding between any manufacturer or distributor and a motor vehicle dealer in this state is hereby declared to be against the public policy of this state and to be unlawful and void.

5. No manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or any agent of such manufacturer or distributor, shall terminate or threaten to terminate, or fail to renew any contract, agreement, or understanding for the sale of new motor vehicles to any motor vehicle dealer in this state without just, reasonable and lawful cause therefor or because such motor vehicle dealer failed to sell, assign, or transfer any retail installment contract arising from the retail sale of such motor vehicles or any one or more of them to a person or a class of persons designated by such manufacturer or distributor. Provided, however, that the provisions of this subsection relating to "failure to renew" shall not apply to any contract, agreement, or understanding, which is for a term of five or more years.

6. No person, who is engaged in the business of selling at retail motor vehicles, shall make and enter into a retail installment contract unless such contract meets the following requirements:

a. Every retail installment contract shall be in writing, shall be signed by both the buyer and the seller and shall be completed as to all essential provisions prior to the signing of the contract by the buyer except that, if delivery of the motor vehicle is not made at the time of the execution of the contract, the identifying numbers or marks of the motor vehicle or similar information and the due date of the first installment may be inserted in the contract after its execution.

b. The printed portion of the contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in at least eight point type. The contract shall contain, directly above the buyer's signature, and in a size equal to at least ten point bold type:

(1) The following notice: "Notice to the Buyer: Do not sign this contract before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces. You are entitled to an exact copy of the contract you sign."

(2) An acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the contract.

c. The retail installment contract shall contain the following items:

(2) The amount of the buyer's down payment, whether made in money or goods, or partly in money and partly in goods;

(3) The difference between items one and two;

(4) The amount, if any, separately included for insurance and other benefits specifying the types of coverage and benefits;

(6) Principal balance, which is the sum of item three, item four and item five;

(7) The amount of the finance charge;

(8) The balance, which is the sum of items six and seven, owed by the buyer to the seller and the number of installments required and the amount and date of each payment necessary finally to pay such balance; provided, however, the amount and date of each payment need not be separately listed if the payments are specified in terms of a series of payments of specified amounts, payable at specified intervals of time from an initial date.

The above items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth, and additional items may be included to explain the calculations involved in determining the stated time price to be paid by the buyer.

d. The amount, if any, included for insurance, which may be purchased by the holder of the retail installment contract, shall not exceed the applicable premiums chargeable in accordance with the rates filed with the commissioner of insurance.

e. The retail installment contract shall provide that any buyer may pay in full at any time before maturity the debt of such contract and in so paying such debt shall receive for such anticipation of payments a refund credit in an amount which shall represent at least as great a proportion of the finance charge after first deducting from such finance charge an acquisition cost of twenty-five dollars, as the sum of the periodic time balances after the month in which prepayment is made, bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments in the original contract; provided, however, that if the amount of the credit is less than one dollar no refund need be made.

7. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require that a place of business as defined in this chapter shall be maintained by a person selling motor vehicles at retail solely for the purpose of disposing of motor vehicles acquired or repossessed by such person in exercise of powers or rights granted by lien or title-retention instruments or contracts given as security for loans or purchase money obligations.

8. No manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or agent of such manufacturer or distributor shall coerce or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to accept delivery of any motor vehicle or vehicles, parts, or accessories thereof, or any other commodity or commodities which shall not have been ordered by such dealer. [C39,§5039.03; C46, 50, 54,§322.3; 57GA, ch 163,§§2-5]

Referred to in §§322.6, 322.14, 322.19, 322.21, 322.22

322.4 Application for license. Each person before engaging in this state in the business of selling at retail motor vehicles or representing or advertising that he is engaged or intends to engage in such business in this state shall file in the office of the department an application for license as a motor vehicle dealer in the state in such form as the department may prescribe, duly verified by oath, which application shall include the following:

1. The name of the applicant and his principal place of business wherever situated.

a. If the applicant is an individual—the name or style under which he intends to engage in such business.

2. The make or makes of new motor vehicles, if any, which the applicant will offer for sale to retail in this state.

3. The location of each place of business within this state to be used by the applicant for the conduct of his business.

4. If the applicant is a party to any contract or agreement or understanding with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or is about to become a party to such a contract, agreement, or understanding, the applicant shall state the name of each such manufacturer and distributor and the make or makes of new motor vehicles, if any, which are the subject matter of each such contract.

5. A statement of the previous history, record, and association of the applicant and if the applicant is a copartnership, of each partner thereof and if the applicant is a corporation, of each officer and director thereof, which statement shall be sufficient to establish to the department the reputation in business of the applicant.

6. A description of the general plan and method of doing business in this state, which the applicant will follow if the license applied for in such application is granted.

7. A financial statement of the applicant showing his true financial condition as of a date not more than six months prior to the date of such application.

8. Such other information touching the business of the applicant as the department may require.

For the purpose of investigating the matters contained in such application the department may withhold the granting of a license for a period not exceeding thirty days. [C29,§5039.04; C46, 50, 54,§322.4]

322.5 License fee. The license fee for a motor vehicle dealer for each calendar year or part thereof shall be the sum of twenty dollars for the licensee's principal place of business in each city or town and an additional five dollars for each used-car lot which is in the city or town wherein said place of business is located and which is not adjacent to such place, to be paid to the department at the time a license is applied for. In case the application is denied, the department shall refund the amount of such fee to the applicant. [C39, §5039.05; C46, 50, 54, §322.5; 57GA, ch 163, §6]

322.6 Denial of license. The department shall deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuse to issue a license to him as such, if, after reasonable notice and a hearing, the department determines that such applicant:

1. Has made a material false statement in his application for the license; or
2. Has not complied with the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated by the department thereunder except as otherwise provided; or
3. Is of bad business repute; or
4. Has been guilty of a fraudulent act in connection with selling, bartering, or otherwise dealing in motor vehicles; or
5. Is about to engage in any practice in connection with the sale, barter, or otherwise dealing in motor vehicles, which is fraudulent or in violation of the law; or
6. Has entered into contract or agreement or is about to enter into a contract or agreement with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles which is contrary to any provision of this chapter; or
7. Has a contract or agreement with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or is about to enter into a contract or agreement with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles, who without just, reasonable, and lawful cause therefor, has terminated within ninety days from the date of application a contract or agreement with a motor vehicle dealer in any county of the state in which the applicant proposes to engage in business;
8. Does not have a place of business within the meaning of this chapter unless applicant is a person referred to in subsection 7 of section 322.3;
9. Has violated any of the provisions of sections 321.77, 321.78, 321.80, 321.81, 321.92, 321.97, 321.98, 321.99, 321.100, 539.4 and 713.24.

It shall be sufficient cause for refusal or revocation of a license as a motor vehicle dealer in the case of a partnership or corporation if any member of the partnership or any officer or director of the corporation has committed any act or omission which would be cause for refusing or revoking a license to such person as an individual.

In considering whether or not a contract or agreement between a motor vehicle dealer and a manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles has been terminated by such manufacturer or distributor without just and reasonable cause therefor, the department shall take into consideration the circumstances existing at the time of such termination, including the amount of business transacted by the motor vehicle dealer pursuant to the contract or agreement and prior to such termination; the investment necessarily made and the obligation necessarily incurred by the motor vehicle dealer in the performance of his part of such contract; the permanency of such investment; the reasons for such termination by such manufacturer or distributor and the fact that it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of a motor vehicle dealer to be disrupted by termination of such contract without just and reasonable cause.

Whenever the department determines to deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuses to issue a license to him as such, the department shall enter a final order thereof with its findings relating thereto within thirty days from the date of the hearing thereon. [C39, §5039.06; C46, 50, 54, §322.6; 57GA, ch 163, §7]

322.7 License of motor vehicle dealer.

1. If the department grants the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer, it shall evidence the granting thereof by a final order and shall issue to the person a license in such form as may be prescribed by the department, which license shall include the following:

- a. The name of the person licensed.
- b. If the applicant is an individual or a partnership—the name or style under which the licensee will engage in such business and if a copartnership, the name and address of each partner.
- c. The principal place of business of the licensee and location therein of each place wherein the licensee is licensed to carry on such business.
- d. The make or makes of new motor vehicles which the licensee is licensed to sell.

2. The instrument evidencing the license or a certified copy thereof provided by the department shall be kept posted conspicuously in the principal office of the licensee and in each place of business maintained and operated by the applicant pursuant to the license in this state.

3. The license of a motor vehicle dealer shall expire and terminate, unless sooner revoked or suspended, at the end of the calendar year in which it is granted.

4. The license provided for in this chapter shall be renewed annually in the same manner and on payment of the same fee as in the case

322.8 Supplemental statements. Each licensee shall promptly file with the department from time to time during the period of the license, statements supplemental to the statements contained in his application for license whenever any change shall occur in his personnel or in his plan or method of doing business or in the location of his place or places of business, so that the statements made in the application do, after such change, properly disclose the licensee's status and method and plan of doing business. The supplemental statement shall be in the form prescribed by the department and shall disclose such information as would have been required by this chapter if such changes had occurred prior to the licensee making application for a license.

If the department finds that the changes set forth in the supplemental statement do not violate the provisions of this chapter and it grants to the licensee the privilege of doing business in the manner set forth therein, it shall upon surrender to it of the license of the motor vehicle dealer, issue to him a new license appropriate to the dealer's original application as modified by such supplemental statement. [C39,§5039.08; C46, 50, 54,§322.8]

322.9 Revocation of license. The department is hereby authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any licensee if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such licensee has been guilty of any act which would have been a ground for the denial of a license under section 322.6.

The department is further authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any licensee if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such licensee has been convicted or has forfeited bail on three charges of:

1. Failing upon the sale or transfer of a vehicle to deliver to the purchaser or transferee of the vehicle sold or transferred, a manufacturer's or importer's certificate, or a certificate of title duly assigned, as provided in chapter 321.

2. Failing upon the purchasing or otherwise acquiring of a vehicle to obtain a manufacturer's or importer's certificate, or a certificate of title duly assigned as provided in chapter 321.

4. Failing to mail or deliver to the treasurer of the county of such licensee's residence two copies of the signed purchase receipt within forty-eight hours after purchase or acquisition of a vehicle registered in this state as provided in section 321.48. [C39,§5039.09; C46,§322.9; C50, 54,§§322.9, 322.16; 56GA, ch 169,§§1, 2]

for whose account the shipment or delivery to the nonlicensee is made.

b. Motor fuel imported into this state, other than that placed in storage at refineries or terminals as set out in paragraph (a) above, shall be deemed received at the time unloaded in this state and by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after it is unloaded in this state, except that if motor fuel so imported is used in this state directly from the transportation equipment by which imported then the motor fuel shall be deemed received at the time it is brought into this state and by the person using the motor fuel within this state; provided, however, that if motor fuel shipped or brought into this state by a licensee is sold and delivered directly to a nonlicensee in this state, then the gallonage so delivered shall be deemed received by the licensee shipping or bringing the motor fuel into this state.

c. Motor fuel produced, compounded, or blended in this state other than at a refinery, marine or pipe-line terminal, shall be deemed to be received at the time and by the person who is the owner thereof when the same is so produced, compounded or blended.

d. Motor fuel acquired in this state by any person, other than as set out in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above, shall, unless the person from whom the same is acquired has paid or incurred liability with respect thereto for the tax herein imposed, or unless the same be exempt under this division, be deemed to be received by the person so acquiring the same at the time so acquired.

Except as hereinbefore set forth, the word "received" shall be given its usual and customary meaning.

6. "Naphthas and solvents" shall mean and include those liquids which come within the distillations specifications for motor fuel set out under (b) of subsection 1 of this section, but which are designed and sold for exclusive use other than as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles. [C27, 31, §5093-a2; C35, §5093-f2; C39, §5093.02; C46, 50, 54, §324.1; 57GA, ch 164]

See §§324.33, 324.57

324.3 Levy of excise tax—exemptions—credits. For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of four cents a gallon is hereby imposed upon the use of all motor fuel used for any purpose except as otherwise provided in this division. The tax shall be paid in the first instance by the distributor upon the invoiced gallonage of all motor fuel received by him in this state, within the meaning of the word "received" as defined in this division, less the deductions hereinafter authorized. Thereafter, except as otherwise provided, the per gallon amount of such tax shall be added to the selling price of each and every gallon of such motor fuel sold in this state and collected from the purchaser to the end that the ultimate consumer shall bear the burden of such tax; provided, however, that no tax shall be imposed or collected under this division with respect to the following:

1. Motor fuel sold for export or exported from this state to any other state, territory, or foreign country.

2. Motor fuel sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

3. Motor fuel sold to any post exchange or other concessionaire on any federal reservation within this state; but the tax on motor fuel so sold, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall be collected by the post exchange or concessionaire, reported and paid the treasurer.

4. Motor fuel sold to the state of Iowa or any of its agencies, but this exemption shall not apply to political subdivisions of this state. 324.4 Distributor's license. It shall be unlawful for any person to receive motor fuel within this state or to otherwise act as a distributor unless he holds an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the treasurer. To procure a license a distributor shall file with the treasurer an application signed under penalty for false certificate and in such form as the treasurer may prescribe, setting forth:

1. The name under which the distributor will transact business in the state of Iowa.

2. The location, with street number address, of the principal office or place of business of the distributor within this state.

3. The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if the distributor is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers, if the distributor is a corporation or association.

Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, every distributor shall file with the treasurer a bond of the character and in the amount provided for in this division. No license shall be issued unless application is accompanied by the bond, nor, if the applicant is a foreign corporation, unless it is at the time properly qualified under the laws of this state to do business therein.

If (a) any application for a license to transact business as a distributor in this state shall be filed by any person whose license shall have been canceled for cause at any time theretofore under the provisions of the chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, or (b) the treasurer shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or (c) the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, the treasurer, after a hearing of which the applicant shall have been given fifteen days notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, shall have and is hereby given the right and authority to refuse to issue to the applicant a distributor's license.

Upon the filing of the application, a filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the treasurer.

The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid, the bond having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the treasurer shall issue to the applicant a license to transact business as a distributor in this state. The license shall remain in full force and effect until canceled as provided in this chapter.

The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the distributor in this state.

The treasurer shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensees. [C31, §5093-c2; C35, §§5093-f5, -f6, -f7; C39, §§5093.05-5093.07; C46, 50, 54, §§324.5, 324.6, 324.8-324.10; 57GA, ch 164]

Referred to in §324.5

324.5 Permissive licensing of bulk storers as distributors. Any person other than a distributor as hereinabove defined having bulk storage in this state for rail tank car or four thousand gallon or more transport loads of motor fuel for use or for distribution in bulk by tank truck or tank car, or both, may, subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of section 324.4, also be licensed as a distributor and thereupon for all purposes of this division shall be deemed to be the distributor with respect to any motor fuel "received" by him while the license remains in effect. [C27, 31, §§5093-a3, -a4; C39, §§5093.04, 5093.05; C46, 50, 54, §§324.4, 324.6-324.8; 57GA, ch 164]

324.6 Continuance of existing distributor license. Motor fuel distributor licenses issued under any prior* motor fuel tax law and in good standing as of the effective date of this division shall be continued in effect until canceled as hereinafter provided. [57GA, ch 164]

*July 4, 1957

324.7 Security required of licensed distributor.

1. Every distributor shall file with the treasurer a bond:

a. In an amount to be determined by the treasurer not less than two thousand dollars nor more than fifty thousand dollars on a form to be approved by the treasurer.

b. With a surety company approved by the treasurer as surety thereon.

c. Upon which the distributor shall be the principal obligor and the state of Iowa shall be the obligee.

d. Conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the distributor to the treasurer of any and all motor fuel excise taxes which are now or which hereafter may be levied or imposed by the state of Iowa, together with any and all penalties and interest thereon, or either, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of this division.

2. The treasurer shall contract annually with the lowest responsible bidder licensed to do business in Iowa for surety bonds to be filed by distributors. The premiums on the surety bonds contracted for by the treasurer shall be paid from the funds appropriated by section 324.76.

3. In the event that liability upon the bond thus filed by a distributor shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the treasurer any surety on the bond theretofore given shall have become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, then the treasurer may require the distributor to file a new bond meeting the requirements in subsection 1. If the new bond is not filed within ten days after demand therefor, the treasurer shall forthwith cancel the license of the distributor. If a new bond shall be furnished by the distributor as above provided, the treasurer shall release in writing the surety under the old bond from any liability accruing after the effective date of the new bond.

4. In the event that upon hearing, of which the distributor shall be given five days notice in writing, the treasurer shall decide that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of Iowa of the amount of the tax and any penalties and interest for which the distributor is or may at any time become liable, then the distributor shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the treasurer, file a new bond meeting the requirements in subsection 1 and in such amount, not to exceed in total fifty thousand dollars, as is determined by the treasurer to be necessary to secure at all times the required reports and payments. If the new bond is not filed within ten days after demand therefor, the treasurer shall forthwith cancel the license of the distributor.

5. Any surety on bond furnished by distributor shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the state of Iowa accruing on the bond after the expiration of sixty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the treasurer written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that the request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of the sixty-day period. The treasurer shall promptly on receipt of notice of the request notify the distributor who furnished the bond, and unless the distributor shall on or before expiration of the sixty-day period file with the treasurer a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the treasurer in the amount and form hereinbefore in this section provided, the treasurer shall forthwith cancel the license of said distributor.

6. In lieu of a surety bond in excess of the minimum amount the treasurer may accept a financial statement of the distributor showing ability to make any and all payments that may be due from the distributor under this division. [C31,§5093-c2; C35,§§5093-f7,-f10,-f11; C39,§§5093.07, 5093.10, 5093.11; C46, 50, 54, §§324.10, 324.18, 324.19; 57GA, ch 164]

Referred to in §324.36

324.8 Tax reports—computation and payment of tax—credits. For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed, each distributor shall, not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter, file with the treasurer a monthly report, signed under penalty for false certificate, which shall include the following:

1. A statement of the number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received (within the meaning of the term "received" as defined in this division) by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month in such detail as is prescribed by the treasurer and as may be necessary for the proper administration of this division.

2. A statement showing the deductions authorized in this division in such detail and with such supporting evidence as is prescribed by the treasurer and as may be for proper administration of this division.

3. Such other information as the treasurer may require for the enforcement of this chapter.

At the time of filing each monthly report, each distributor shall pay to the treasurer the full amount of the motor fuel tax due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month computed as follows:

4. From the total number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel "received" by the distributor within the state during the next preceding calendar month shall be made the following deductions:

First, the gallonage of motor fuel received and thereafter sold within the exemptions provided for in section 324.3; and second, the number of gallons of motor fuel equal to three per centum of the net number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month, this percentage being a flat allowance to cover evaporation, shrinkage, and losses, other than those provided for in section 324.3, and the distributor's expenses and losses in collection, accounting for, and paying over the motor fuel tax.

5. The number of invoiced gallons remaining after the deductions hereinabove set forth shall be multiplied by the per gallon motor fuel tax rate and resulting figure shall be the amount of motor fuel tax in dollars and cents due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month. Any outstanding credit memoranda issued by the treasurer to the distributor may be applied against the amount due. [C27, 31, §§5093-a5, b1; C35, §5093-f9; C39, §5093.09; C46, 50, 54, §§324.13-324.15, 324.17, 324.29; 57GA, ch 164]

324.9 Report from persons not licensed as distributors. Every person other than a licensed distributor, who shall purchase, bring into this state or otherwise acquire within this state motor fuel, not otherwise exempted, with respect to which such person has knowingly not paid or incurred liability to pay either to a licensee or to a dealer the motor fuel tax shall be subject with respect to the motor fuel to all the provisions of this division that apply to distributors on motor fuel received by them in this state and shall make the same reports and tax payments thereon and be subject to the same penalties for delinquent or nonreporting or delinquent or nonpayment as apply to distributors. [C31, §5093-c2; C35, §5093-f6; C39, §5093.06; C46, 50, 54, §§324.8, 324.9; 57GA, ch 164]

324.10 Required distributor and dealer records. Each motor fuel distributor shall maintain and keep for a period of three years, such records of all transactions by which he receives, uses, sells, delivers or otherwise disposes of motor fuel within this state, together with invoices, bills of lading and other pertinent records and papers as may reasonably be required by the treasurer for the administration of this division.

If in the normal conduct of a distributor's business his records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the treasurer at the office outside Iowa, but such audit and examination outside Iowa shall be without expense to the state.

Each dealer handling motor fuel in this state shall maintain and keep for a period of two years records of all motor fuel purchased or otherwise acquired by him, together with delivery tickets, invoices, and bills of lading, and such other pertinent records as the treasurer shall require.

The treasurer, after an audit and examination of the records of a distributor or dealer may authorize their disposal, the authorization to be in writing after request by the distributor or dealer. [C27, 31, §§5093-a4, a5; C35, §§5093-f5, -f8; C39, §§5093.05, 5093.08; C46, 50, 54, §§324.7, 324.11; 57GA, ch 164]

324.11 Registration of carrier transportation equipment and identification of all highway transportation equipment.

1. Any person operating as a common or contract carrier and any distributor who is also engaged in transportation within this state of motor fuel for others, shall register with the treasurer on or before the first day of the third calendar month which begins after the effective date of this division and currently thereafter as additional equipment is put to use, each vehicle used in aforesaid transportation in this state, except railroad, water-vessel or pipe-line equipment. The registration shall be on forms furnished by and shall contain such information as may reasonably be required by the treasurer. A fee of one dollar shall be paid to the treasurer for original registration of each vehicle. The treasurer shall furnish to the registrant for each vehicle registered suitable identification which shall be permanently attached to the vehicle and shall be available for inspection at all times. Currently as any vehicle is retired or its use for the transportation of motor fuel for others is discontinued, the registrant shall notify the treasurer or at the direction of the treasurer shall either surrender to the treasurer or destroy the vehicle identification issued under this section. Annually on or before the first day of July of each year, each carrier as aforesaid shall file with the treasurer a statement showing each vehicle then in use for transportation of motor fuel for others and thereupon the treasurer shall issue to the registrant at a fee of twenty-five cents a renewal identification for each vehicle for the ensuing year.

2. Each vehicle used by a carrier, distributor or any person in the transportation on the highways in this state of fuels for motor vehicles shall be identified by having shown thereon, in lettering at least six inches in height made with a stroke of not less than three-fourths inch in width and of a color contrasting to that of the background upon which the lettering is placed, the name and address of the person transporting the fuel. The identification shall be placed on both sides of the vehicle; provided, that, transportation equipment operated by a licensee shall be identified with his distributor's license number in which case the trade or produce name or insignia generally used in identifying the highway transportation equipment of the licensee and well known and recognized throughout the area in which the transportation equipment is operated, may be shown in lieu of the name and address of the licensee.

3. The treasurer shall have the power to refuse to register a vehicle owned or used by any person, either directly or indirectly, who has had a license revoked for cause which license was issued under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law. [C27, 31, §5093-b1; C35, §§5093-f19, -f25; C39, §§5093.19, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §§324.12, 324.33, 324.36, 324.46; 57GA, ch 164]

324.12 Loading and delivery evidence on transportation equipment.

1. There shall be carried on every vehicle, while in use in transportation service requiring that it be registered under the preceding section, a serially numbered manifest in form satisfactory to the treasurer on which shall be entered the following information as to the cargo of motor fuel being moved in the vehicle: The date and place of loading, the place to be unloaded, the person for whom it is to be delivered, the nature and kind of product, and the amount thereof and such other information as is called for in the forms prescribed or approved by the treasurer. The manifest covering each load transported upon consummation of the delivery shall be completed showing the date and place of actual delivery and the person to whom actually delivered and shall be kept as a permanent record for a period of three years, provided, however, that the record of the manifest of past cargoes need not be carried on the conveyance but must be preserved by the carrier for the inspection of the treasurer or his representatives. A carrier subject to this subsection may with the approval of the treasurer when distributing for a licensee substitute the loading and delivery evidence required in subsection 2 of this section.

2. Every distributor or other person while transporting motor fuel from a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state or from a point outside this state via the highways of this state in service other than that covered in subsection 1 of this section shall carry in the vehicle a loading invoice showing the true name and address of the seller or consignor, the date and place of loading and the kind and quantity of motor fuel loaded, together with invoices showing the kind and quantity of each delivery therefrom, and the name and address of each purchaser or consignee. [C35,§5093-f19; C39,§5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §§324.33-324.35, 324.37; 57GA, ch 164]

324.13 Evidence produced upon request. The operator of any vehicle transporting motor fuel as covered in the preceding section shall, at the request of any sheriff, deputy sheriff or other peace officer or person authorized by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection the manifest or loading and delivery invoices pertaining to the load and trip in question and shall permit the officer to inspect and measure the contents of the vehicle. If the vehicle operator fails to produce the covering evidence or if, when produced, it fails to contain the required information and if it appears that there is an attempt to evade payment of the motor fuel tax, then the officer or other person authorized to make the inquiry may take and impound the motor fuel together with the conveying vehicle until the tax on the motor fuel together with penalty, if an attempt to evade payment of the motor fuel is involved, amounting to one hundred percent of the tax have been paid. In case the tax and penalty found to be due are not paid within forty-eight hours after the taking of the property, the treasurer may proceed to sell the vehicle and its cargo in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property by the sheriff under execution. [C35,§5093-f19; C39,§5093.19; C46, 50, 54,§324.35; 57GA, ch 164]

324.14 Penalty for operating unregistered transport. It shall be unlawful for any person to transport motor fuel in bulk upon the highways of this state in a conveyance the registration of which is required without the evidence of registration provided for and any person found guilty of the unlawful act shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, and each cargo so transported shall be considered a separate offense. This penalty shall be in addition to penalties imposed under other provisions of this chapter. Persons transporting motor fuel in bulk upon the highways of this state in an amount of not to exceed four thousand gallons shall not be regarded as transporting in bulk. [C35,§5093-f20; C39,§5093.20; C46, 50, 54,§324.38; 57GA, ch 164]

324.15 Transportation reports—refinery and pipe-line and marine terminal reports.

1. Every railroad and common or contract motor carrier transporting motor fuel either in interstate or intrastate commerce within this state and every person transporting motor fuel by whatever manner from a point outside this state to any point in this state shall, subject to penalties for false certificate, report to the treasurer on forms prescribed by the treasurer all deliveries of motor fuel to points within this state other than refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals. If any distributor or dealer is also engaged in the transportation of motor fuel for others, he shall make the same reports as required of common and contract carriers.

The reports shall cover monthly periods and shall show as to each delivery:

a. The name and address of the person to whom actually and in fact made.

b. The name and address of the originally named consignee, if delivered to any other than the originally named consignee.

c. The point of origin, the point of delivery, and the date of delivery.

d. The number and initials of each tank car and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by rail.

e. The name of the boat, barge, or vessel, and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by water.

f. The registration number of each tank truck and the number of gallons contained therein, if transported by motor truck.

g. The manner, if delivered by other means, in which the delivery is made.

h. Such additional information relative to shipments of motor fuel as the treasurer may require.

If any person required under this section to file transportation reports is a licensee under this division and if the information required in his transportation report is contained in any other report rendered by him under this division no separate transportation report of that information shall be required.

2. Every person operating storage facilities at a refinery or at a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state shall monthly make an accounting to the treasurer on forms prescribed by the treasurer of all motor fuel withdrawn from the refinery storage and all motor fuel delivered into, withdrawn from and on hand in the terminal storage.

3. The reports required in this section shall be for information purposes only and the treasurer may in his discretion waive the filing of any of these reports not necessary for proper administration of this division. The reports required in this section shall be certified under penalty for false certificate and filed with the treasurer within the time allowed for filing of distributors' reports of motor fuel received. [C27, 31, §§5093-a6, -b1; C35, §§5093-f25, -f26, -f27; C39, §§5093.25-5093.27; C46, 50, 54, §§324.46-324.48; 57GA, ch 164]

324.16 Credit to licensee—nonmotor vehicle use — casualty losses — nontaxable products — refunds. A licensee having received motor fuel which thereafter (1) he uses for any purpose other than as fuel for propelling motor vehicles or (2) while owned by him is lost or destroyed through accountable leakage or through fire, accident, lightning, flood, storm, act of war or public enemy or other like cause, shall upon application to the treasurer supported by proof as the treasurer may reasonably require, be entitled to a memorandum of credit which he may apply against subsequent liability under this chapter, or, if an applicant having paid the tax on the gallonage covered in the application is no longer engaged in activity for which his license was issued, the treasurer shall refund the appropriate amount to the applicant. [C27, 31, §5093-a8; C35, §5093-f29; C39, §5093.29; C46, 50, 54, §§324.50, 324.56; 57GA, ch 164; ch 166, §§1, 5, 6]

Every claim filed subsequent to July 4, 1957 shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The claim shall be on a form prescribed by the treasurer and be certified by the claimant under penalty for false certificate.

2. The claim shall have attached thereto the original invoice or invoices showing the purchase of the motor fuel on which a refund is claimed.

3. No invoice shall be acceptable in support of a claim for refund unless it is a separate serially numbered invoice covering no more than one purchase of motor fuel, prepared by the seller on a form approved by the treasurer with double faced carbon paper under the original; nor unless it is legibly written with no corrections or erasures and shows the date of sale, the name and address of the seller and of the purchaser, the kind of motor fuel, the gallonage in words and figures, the per gallon price of the motor fuel, the per gallon rate of any tax added to the product price, the total purchase price including the Iowa motor fuel tax and that the total purchase price including tax has been paid; provided, that as to refund invoices made on a billing machine the treasurer may waive any of the requirements of this subsection.

4. The claim shall state the gallonage of motor fuel that was used or will be used by the claimant other than in motor vehicles, the manner in which the motor fuel was used or will be used and the equipment in which it was used or will be used.

5. The claim shall also state whether or not the claimant used fuel for motor vehicles from the same tanks or receptacles in which the claimant kept the motor fuel on which the refund is claimed.

6. No refund will be paid with respect to any motor fuel taken out of this state in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

7. No refund shall be paid with respect to motor fuel purchased more than three calendar months prior to the date the claim was filed with the treasurer.

8. No refund shall be paid with respect to motor fuel used in the performance of a contract which is paid out of state funds unless the contract for the work contains a certificate made under penalty for false certificate that the estimate, bid or price to be paid for the work includes no amount representing motor fuel tax subject to refund.

9. If an original invoice is lost or destroyed the treasurer may in his discretion approve a refund supported by a copy identified and certified by the seller as being a true copy of the original.

10. The right of a person to a refund under this section shall not be assignable. Claim shall be made by and the amount of the refund when determined by the treasurer shall be paid to the person who purchased the motor fuel as shown in the supporting invoice.

11. In order to verify the validity of a claim for refund the treasurer shall have the right to require the claimant to furnish such additional proof of validity as the treasurer may determine and by himself or his representative to examine the books and records of the claimant. Failure of a claimant to furnish his books and records for examination shall constitute a waiver of all rights to refund related to the transaction in question. [C27, 31, §5093-a8; C35, §§5093-f29, -f30, -f36; C39, §§5093.29, 5093.30, 5093.36; C46, 50, 54, §§324.50, 324.52-324.57, 324.64; 57GA, ch 164; ch 166, §§1, 2, 5, 6]

Each permit shall bear a separate number and each claim for refund shall bear the number of the permit under which it is made. The treasurer shall keep a permanent record of all permits issued and a cumulative record of the amount of refund claimed and paid under each. A fee of one dollar shall be collected by the treasurer from each person to whom a refund permit is issued. A refund permit shall continue in effect until revoked as hereinafter provided or until the claimant shall have moved from the county with which his refund permit is identified. [C27, 31, §5093-a8; C35, §§5093-f29, -f30; C39, §§5093.29, 5093.30; C46, 50, 54, §§324.52, 324.57; 57GA, ch 164; ch 166, §2]

Referred to in §324.19

324.19 Revocation of refund permit. Any refund permit issued under this chapter may be revoked by the treasurer for any of the following violations, but only after the holder of the permit has been given reasonable notice of the intention to revoke the permit and reasonable opportunity to be heard:

1. Using in support of a refund claim a false or altered invoice.
2. Making a false statement in a claim for refund or in response to an investigation by the treasurer of a claim for refund.
3. Refusal to submit his books and records for examination by the treasurer or his authorized representative.

A person whose refund permit is revoked for cause (except nonuse) may not obtain another refund permit for a period of one year after the revocation. A refund permit under which no refund is claimed for a period of one year from date of issuance or a refund permit whose holder has moved from the county wherein he resided at the time of application for said permit shall be revoked by the treasurer subject to reinstatement or issuance of a new permit upon application as provided in section 324.18. 324.20 Posting price and discounts. Every distributor and other person selling motor fuel in this state for resale to dealers in this state, shall keep posted in a conspicuous place most accessible to the public at their place or places of business, including bulk plants, a placard showing in legible words and figures the same height and size, the price per gallon of each grade of motor fuel offered for sale, the amount of state excise tax per gallon thereon, the federal excise tax per gallon thereon, and the total thereof. If any rebate, discount, commission, or other concession is granted by distributors or persons engaged in the sale of motor fuel for resale to dealers of such nature as will reduce the cost or price to any purchaser or dealer in such products, the conditions, quantity, and amount of such rebate, discount, commission or other concession shall be posted as a part of the posted price. All price placards shall be subject to the approval of the treasurer. Any distributor or person failing to post or keep posted the placard required by this section, or who posts placards not approved by the treasurer as provided in this section, or who sells any motor fuel for resale at a price which directly or indirectly, by any means or device, deviates from the posted price set forth on the price placard approved by the treasurer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit or restrict the distribution of earnings to the members of any distributor or person, nor to the distribution to consumers of road maps, publicity and other advertising media carrying the name of the distributor, person, or produce. Each day the required placard remains unposted or an unauthorized placard remains posted, or each deviation from the posted price, shall be considered a separate offense. In the event of a second conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this section, the state treasurer may revoke the license of such distributor or person so convicted. Exemptions under Division I, §324.3
See §324.80, for refund of federal tax

324.36 Special fuel dealers' and special fuel users' licenses.

1. Required. It shall be unlawful for any person to act as a special fuel dealer in this state unless he holds an uncanceled special fuel dealer's license issued to him by the treasurer. Except for special fuel which is delivered by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle in this state, the use (as herein defined) of special fuel in this state by any person shall be unlawful unless he holds an uncanceled special fuel user's license issued to him by the treasurer.

2. Application. Application for a special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license shall be made to the treasurer. A special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license, whichever is applicable, shall be required for each separate place of business or location where special fuels are regularly delivered or placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle. Provided, that, if a special fuel dealer also operates one or more bulk plants from which the distribution of special fuel is primarily by tank vehicle, he need not obtain a separate license for any of these plants not provided with fixed equipment designed for fueling vehicles.

3. Form of application. The application shall be filed upon a form prepared and furnished by the treasurer and shall contain such information as the treasurer deems necessary.

4. Bond. No special fuel dealer's license or special fuel user's license shall be issued to any person or continued in force unless he has on file with the treasurer a surety bond in such form and amount as the treasurer may require, but not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars, to secure his compliance with this division, and the payment of any and all taxes, interest and penalties due and to become due hereunder. The provisions of subsections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of section 324.7 with respect to distributors' bonds, except the amount of bond, shall apply to bonds furnished by licensees under this division. A special fuel dealer or special fuel user who is also a licensed distributor under division I of this chapter may have his obligation under this section and under section 324.7 covered by one bond.

5. Issuance. Upon receipt of the application and bond in proper form, the treasurer shall issue to the applicant a license to act as a special fuel dealer or a special fuel user; provided, however, the treasurer may refuse to issue a special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license to any person: (a) who formerly held either type of license and which has been revoked for cause; or (b) who is a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license has been revoked for cause; or (c) upon other sufficient cause being shown. Before refusal, the treasurer shall grant the applicant a hearing and give him at least fifteen days' written notice of the time and place thereof.

6. Expiration of license. Each special fuel dealer's license and special fuel user's license shall be valid until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

7. Assignment forbidden. No special fuel dealer's license or special fuel user's license shall be transferable. [C24,§3259; C27, 31, §5093-a5; C35,§§5093-f8,-f21; C39,§§5093.08, 5093.21; C46, 50, 54,§§324.11, 324.28, 324.39, 324.40; 57GA, ch 164]

324.37 Special fuel dealers' and special fuel users' records. For each location where special fuel is delivered or placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, the special fuel dealer or user making the delivery shall prepare and maintain for a period of three years such records as the treasurer may reasonably require with respect to all these deliveries, and with respect to inventories, receipts, purchases, and sales or other dispositions of special fuel. [C27, 31,§5093-a8; C35,§5093-f14; C39,§5093.14; C46, 50, 54,§§324.25-324.29; 57GA, ch 164]

324.38 Monthly returns and tax payments.

1. Returns. For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for special fuel tax each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file with the treasurer not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter a monthly tax return certified under penalties for false certificate. The return shall show, with reference to each location at which special fuel is delivered or placed by the dealer or user into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle during the next preceding calendar month, such information as the treasurer may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this division; provided, however, that if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, the monthly return to the treasurer covering the location need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made.

2. Computation. The amount of tax due shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate tax rate per gallon by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered or placed by the special fuel dealer or user into supply tanks of motor vehicles.

3. Payments. The return shall be accompanied by remittance in the amount of the tax due for the month in which the special fuel was placed in the fuel tanks of motor vehicles.

4. Reporting exemption for authorized tax-paid purchases. Any special fuel dealer or user licensed under this division may upon application in writing to the treasurer be authorized, subject to regulations prescribed by the treasurer, to purchase on a tax-paid basis from any supplier licensed as a distributor under division I of this chapter all special fuel acquired by the dealer or user for subsequent delivery into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. Every supplier so licensed who sells or delivers special fuel on a tax-paid basis to special fuel users or special fuel dealers authorized as aforesaid shall make a return of these tax-paid sales to the treasurer accompanied by payment of the special fuel tax on the tax-paid gallonage so sold or delivered. The return and payment shall be made at the same time as the supplier's motor fuel tax return or special fuel tax return for the month in which the covered sales or deliveries were made. A special fuel dealer or user shall be exempt from making any return or tax payment to the treasurer on special fuel which, under authority from the treasurer, he acquires on a tax-paid basis from a supplier licensed as aforesaid.

5. Exemption for fueling by licensed dealers. No return need be made by any special fuel user, not licensed as a special fuel dealer, whose entire use of special fuels in this state is limited solely to special fuels delivered into the fuel supply tank of the user's motor vehicles by special fuel dealers.

6. Presumption. For purposes of this section there shall be a prima-facie presumption that all special fuel received by a special dealer or special fuel user into storage and dispensing equipment designed to fuel motor vehicles is to be delivered by the special fuel dealer or special fuel user into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. [C27, 31,§§5093-a5,-b1; C35, §5093-f9,-f11; C39,§§5093.09, 5093.11; C46, 50, 54, §§324.13-324.17, 324.20; 57GA, ch 164]

DIVISION III

MOTOR FUEL AND SPECIAL FUEL USE TAX FOR INTERSTATE MOTOR VEHICLE OPERATIONS

324.50 Short title. This division and applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Interstate Fuel Use Tax Law," and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division. [C35,§5093-f40; C39, §5093.39; C46, 50, 54,§324.66; 57GA, ch 164]

Similar provision, §§324.1, 324.81

324.51 Purpose. The purpose of this division is to provide an additional method of collecting fuel taxes from interstate motor vehicle operators commensurate with their operations on Iowa highways; and to permit the treasurer to suspend this collection as to transportation entering Iowa from any other state where it appears that Iowa highway fuel tax revenue and interstate highway transportation moving out of Iowa will not be unduly prejudiced thereby. [C27, 31, §§4755-b38, 5093-a1; C35, §§5093-f3; C39, §§5093.03; C46, 50, 54, §§324.2; 57GA, ch 164]

324.52 Fuels imported in supply tanks of motor vehicles. No person shall bring into this state in the fuel supply tanks of a motor vehicle, or any other container, regardless of whether or not the supply tanks are connected to the motor of the vehicle, any motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicle in this state unless he has paid or made arrangements in advance with the treasurer for payment of Iowa fuel taxes on the gallonage consumed in operating the vehicle in this state; except that this division shall not apply to a private passenger automobile.

Any person who brings into the state in the fuel supply tanks of a motor vehicle more than twenty gallons of motor fuel or special fuel in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days. [C35, §§5093-f19; C39, §§5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §§324.34, 324.37; 57GA, ch 164]

324.53 Permit—bond. The advance arrangements referred to in the preceding section shall include the procuring of a permit and may in the discretion of the treasurer include the posting of a suitable indemnity bond in a sum to be fixed by the treasurer to assure the required reporting, tax payments and the keeping of required records.

Permit may be obtained upon application to the treasurer. The treasurer shall charge a fee of one dollar for each permit issued. The holder of a permit under this division shall have the privilege of bringing into this state in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles any amount of motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicles and for that privilege shall pay Iowa motor fuel or special fuel taxes as provided in section 324.54.

Each vehicle operated into or through Iowa in interstate operations using motor fuel or special fuel acquired in any other state shall carry in or on each vehicle a duplicate or evidence of the permit required in this section. A fee not to exceed twenty-five cents shall be charged by the treasurer for each duplicate or other evidence of permit issued by him. [C35, §§5093-f19, -f20; C39, §§5093.19, 5093.20; C46, 50, 54, §§324.34, 324.38; 57GA, ch 164]

324.54 Fuel tax computation, reporting and payment. Fuel tax liability under this division shall be computed on the total number of gallons of each kind of motor fuel and special fuel consumed in the operation in Iowa of motor vehicles subject to this division at the same rate for each kind of fuel as would be applicable thereto if taxed under divisions I or II of this chapter. Credit against the tax liability so computed shall be allowed in the amount of fuel taxes paid under divisions I or II of this chapter on motor fuel and special fuel used in motor vehicles the operation of which is subject to this division, but no amount so paid on fuel in excess of that consumed in this state shall be refunded.

To determine the amount of fuel taxes due under this division and to prevent the evasion thereof, the treasurer may require reports on forms prescribed by the treasurer and fuel tax payments in the same manner and at the same time as required in this chapter for reporting and payment by distributors. These reports and tax payments may be required covering actual operation and fuel consumption in Iowa for vehicles the operation of which is subject to this division or on a basis of their average consumption of fuel in Iowa determined by taking that proportion of the total gallons consumed everywhere in these vehicles that their mileage in Iowa is to their total mileage everywhere. [C27, 31, §5093-b1; C35, §§5093-f18, -f25; C39, §§5093.18, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §§324.32, 324.46; 57GA, ch 164]

324.55 Records. Every person operating within the purview of this division shall make and keep for a period of three years such records as may reasonably be required by the treasurer for the administration of this division. If in the normal conduct of the business, the required records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the treasurer at the office outside Iowa, but such audit and examination shall be without expense to the state of Iowa. [C27, 31, §5093-a8; C35, §§5093-f14, -f21; C39, §§5093.14, 5093.21; C46, 50, 54, §§324.27, 324.28, 324.40, 324.41; 57GA, ch 164]

324.56 Not applicable to distributors. The provisions of this division shall not apply to distributors licensed under division I of this chapter. Distributors so licensed shall report and pay the tax on motor fuel and special fuel consumed in propelling vehicles on the public highways of this state as provided for respectively in divisions I and II. [57GA, ch 164]

scribe forms of record to be kept by motor fuel distributors, motor fuel dealers, motor fuel carriers, special fuel dealers, special fuel users, and interstate motor vehicle operators.

Whenever in this chapter the treasurer is authorized to prescribe the form of record to be kept, he may in lieu thereof approve the form of record being kept, and shall approve the form of record where it furnishes in reasonably accessible form the information which the treasurer requires, and substantially complies with the prescribed form. [C35,§§5093-f21,-f23; C39,§§5093.21, 5093.23; C46, 50, 54,§§324.42, 324.44; 57GA, ch 164]

If any person within the purview of this section shall refuse access to pertinent records, books, papers, receipts, invoices, storage tanks or any other equipment, then the said treasurer shall certify the names and facts to any court of competent jurisdiction, and the said court shall enter such order in the premises as the enforcement of this act and justice shall require. [C27, 31,§5093-a6; C35,§§5093-f27, 5093-f29; C39,§§5093.27, 5093.29; C46, 50, 54,§§324.48, 324.52; 57GA, ch 164]

324.62 Information confidential. All information obtained by the treasurer or his representatives, agents or employees from the examining of reports or records required to be filed or kept under the provisions of this chapter shall be treated as confidential and shall not be divulged except to a member or members of the general assembly or any duly appointed committee of either or both houses thereof or to a representative of the state having some responsibility in connection with the collection of the taxes imposed or in proceedings brought under the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that the treasurer shall make available for public information on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the tax is required to be paid the names of the distributors and as to each of them the total gallons received in the state and separately, the received gallons (1) exported or sold for export, (2) sold tax-free in the state to entities that are exempt from the tax, and (3) sold tax-free in the state to entities required to report and account for the tax thereon. The treasurer shall also make available to the public information with respect to special fuel dealers and users and as to each of them the gallonage used and taxes paid. The treasurer, upon request of officials entrusted with enforcement of the motor vehicle fuel tax laws of the federal government or any other state, may forward to such officials any pertinent information which he may have relative to motor fuel and special fuel provided the officials of the other state furnish to the treasurer like information.

Any person violating the provisions of this section, and disclosing the contents of any records or reports required to be kept or made under the provisions of this chapter, except as hereinabove provided, shall upon conviction be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or be confined in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [C27, 31,§5093-a6; C35,§5093-f27; C39,§5093.27; C46, 50, 54, §324.48; 57GA, ch 164]

324.63 Treasurer may estimate taxable gallonage. If any person fails to make and file a report required of him or files an incorrect report, the treasurer shall after investigation determine the gallonage with respect to which the person incurred liability for fuel taxes under this chapter in any month or months and fix the amount of taxes thereon. If the treasurer should at any time receive complaints or reports from any source that a licensee or other person is suspected of evading fuel taxes imposed by this chapter or has failed to report all the gallonage the reporting of which is required under this chapter, or is suspected of acting as a distributor or special fuel dealer or user without a license or of withholding payment of fuel taxes, the treasurer, upon five days notice to the person complained against of the nature of the complaint or report and of the time and place of a hearing thereon, may proceed to hold the hearing and determine the amount of fuel taxes, if any, due from that person. The treasurer may adjourn the hearing from time to time until the completion thereof. He may use any information available in determining the amount, if any, of fuel taxes for which the person is liable. Upon determining the amount thereof he shall add the penalties and interest provided for in section 324.65 and make an assessment for the amount of the unpaid taxes, penalties and interest, shall furnish a copy thereof to the person against whom the assessment is made and his surety and shall certify the same for collection or other appropriate action by the proper public official. The findings of the treasurer as to the amount of fuel taxes due from any person shall be presumed to be the correct amount and in any litigation which may follow, the certificate of the treasurer shall be admitted in evidence, shall constitute a prima-facie case, shall impose upon the other party the burden of showing any error in the treasurer's finding and the extent thereof or that the finding was contrary to law.
