b. The proportions so computed for a person at age forty shall be applied to a member who attains a greater age before he becomes a member. The board of trustees shall certify to the state comptroller and the state comptroller shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member on each and every payroll for each and every pay period, the proportion of the compensation of each member so computed.

c. The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt for his full salary or compensation, and payment of salary or compensation less said deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for services rendered during the period covered by the payment except as to benefits provided by this chapter. The state comptroller shall certify to the board of trustees on each and every pay roll, or in such other manner as the board of trustees shall prescribe, the amount deducted from each member's salary, and such amounts shall be paid into the respective annuity savings fund and shall be credited together with regular interest thereon to the individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.

d. All taxes or contributions heretofore paid into the old-age and survivors' insurance trust fund by a member of the system, together with all taxes or contributions heretofore paid by the member's employers into said fund because of such member's employment in public service, are hereby transferred therefrom and shall be paid into the annuity savings fund and shall be credited to the individual account of such member therein. The state treasurer shall ascertain the amount heretofore paid by such member and employers as aforesaid and transfer the amount so paid to the annuity savings fund created by this chapter.

e. The accumulated contributions of a member withdrawn by him or paid to his estate or designated beneficiary in the event of his death shall be paid from the annuity savings fund. Upon the retirement of a member his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the annuity reserve fund.

2. Annuity reserve fund. The annuity reserve fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all annuities and all benefits in lieu of annuities payable as provided in this chapter. Should a beneficiary retired on account of disability be restored to active service and again become a member of the system, his annuity reserve shall be transferred from the annuity reserve fund to the annuity savings fund and credited to his individual account therein.

3. Pension accumulation fund. The pension accumulation fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all pensions and other benefits payable from contributions made by the state and from which shall be paid the lump-sum death benefits for all members payable from the said contributions. Contributions to and payments from the pension accumulation fund shall be as follows:

a. On account of each member there shall be paid annually into the pension accumulation fund by the state of Iowa an amount equal to a certain percentage of the earnable compensation of the member to be known as the "normal contribution". The rate percent of such contribution shall be fixed on the basis of the liabilities of the retirement system as shown by actuarial valuations. Until the first valuation the normal contribution shall be eight percent.

b. On the basis of regular interest and of such mortality and other tables as shall be adopted by the board of trustees, the state commissioner of insurance shall make each valuation required by this chapter and shall immediately after making such valuation, determine the uniform and constant percentage of the earnable compensation of the average new entrant, which, if contributed throughout his entire period of active service, would be sufficient to provide for the payment of any death benefit or pension payable on this account. The rate percent so determined shall be known as the "normal contribution rate".

The normal contribution rate shall be the rate percent of the earnable compensation of all members obtained by deducting from the total liabilities of the fund the amount of the funds in hand to the credit of the fund and dividing the remainder by one percent of the present value of the prospective future compensation of all members as computed on the basis of mortality and service tables adopted by the board of trustees and regular interest. The normal rate of contribution shall be determined by the state commissioner of insurance after each valuation.

c. The total amount payable in each year to the pension accumulation fund shall not be less than the rate percent known as the normal contribution rate of the total compensation earnable by all members during the year, provided, however, that the aggregate payment by the state shall be sufficient when combined with the amount in the fund to provide the pensions and other benefits payable out of the fund during the then current year.

d. All lump-sum death benefits on account of death in active service payable from contributions of the state shall be paid from the pension accumulation fund.

e. Upon the retirement or death of a member an amount equal to the pension reserve on any pension payable to him or on account of his death shall be transferred from the pension accumulation fund to the pension reserve fund.

4. Pension reserve fund. The pension reserve fund shall be the fund in which shall be held the reserves on all pensions granted to members or to their beneficiaries and from which such pensions and benefits in lieu thereof shall be paid. Should a beneficiary retired on account of disability be restored to active service and again become a member of the system, his pension reserve shall be transferred from the pension reserve fund to the pension accumulation fund. Should the pension of a disability beneficiary be reduced as a result of an increase in his amount earned, the amount of the annual reduction in his pension shall be paid annually into the pension accumulation fund during the period of such reduction.

5. Expense fund. The expense fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all money provided by the state of Iowa to pay the administration expenses of the system and from which shall be paid all the expenses necessary in connection with the administration and operation of the system. Biennially the board of trustees shall estimate the amount of money necessary to be paid into the expense fund during the ensuing biennium to provide for the expense of operation of the system. [C50, §97A.8; 56GA, ch 84, §1]

Referred to in §§97A.1, 97A.5, 97A.7, 97A.9

97A.9 Military service exceptions. Any member who voluntarily or by induction enters the military service and who is serving in any branch of the armed forces of the United States, shall have the period of such military service included as part of his period of service in the department and shall not be required to continue the contributions required of him under section 97A.8 during such period of military service, provided that he shall within six months after he has been granted an honorable discharge from such military service return and resume his duties in the department, and provided further, that such member shall be declared physically capable of resuming such duties upon examination by the medical board. [C50, 54, §97A.9]

Referred to in §97A.10

97A.10 Creation of fund to pay contributions of absent members. The state shall create a fund for the purpose of paying the contributions to this system of those members who voluntarily or by induction enter the military service or who are serving in the armed forces. Such fund shall be used for the purpose of paying the contributions which are required of the members under section 97A.9, for a period during which such member is serving in the armed forces and not later than six months after his honorable discharge. Should any member fail to return to service with his division within six months after his honorable discharge from the military service, the amount credited to his account in this fund by the state shall revert back to the state and such member or his representative shall not be entitled to claim any interest in the contribution so made by the state. [C50, 54, §97A.10]

97A.11 Contributions by the state. On or before the first day of November in each year, the board of trustees shall certify to the state comptroller the amounts which will become due and payable during the year next following to the pension accumulation fund and the expense fund. The amounts so certified shall be paid by the state comptroller out of the funds appropriated for the Iowa department of public safety, to the treasurer of state, the same to be credited to the system for the ensuing year. [C50, 54, §97A.11]

97A.12 Exemption from taxation and execution. The right of any person to a pension, annuity, or retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, the pension, annuity, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit or death benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this chapter, and the moneys in the various funds created under this chapter, are hereby exempt from any tax of the state and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as in this chapter specifically provided. [C50, 54, §97A.12]

97A.13 Protection against fraud. Any person who shall knowingly make any false statement, or shall falsify or permit to be falsified any record or records of the system in any attempt to defraud the system as a result of such act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable therefor under the laws of this state. Should any change or error in records result in any member or beneficiary receiving from the system more or less than he would have been entitled to receive had the records been correct, the board of trustees shall correct such error, and, as far as practicable, shall adjust the payments in such a manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which such member or beneficiary was correctly entitled, shall be paid. [C50, §54,§97A.13]

97B.1 System created. A public employees' retirement system is hereby created and established to become effective as of July 4, 1953 and to be known as the "Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System" hereinafter called the "system". [C46, 50,§97.1; C54,§97B.1]

97B.2 Purpose of chapter. The purpose of this chapter is to promote economy and efficiency in the public service by providing an orderly means whereby employees who become superannuated may, without hardship or prejudice, be replaced by more capable employees, and to that end providing a retirement system which will provide for the payment of annuities to public employees, thereby enabling the employees to care for themselves in retirement, and which by its provisions will improve public employment within the state, reduce excessive personnel turnover and offer suitable attraction to high-grade men and women to enter public service in the state. [C46, 50,§97.2; C54,§97B.2]

97B.3 Administration. The Iowa employment security commission, hereinafter called the "commission", shall be vested with authority to administer the Iowa public employees' retirement system. [C46, 50,§97.3; C54, §97B.3]

to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations, to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon complying with chapter 17A. Not later than the fifteenth day of December of each year, the commission shall submit to the governor a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding fiscal year and shall make such recommendations for amendments to this chapter as the commission deems proper. Such report shall include a balance sheet of the moneys in the Iowa public employees' retirement fund. [C46, 50, §§97.4, 97.23; C54, §97B.4]

See chapter 17A for rules and regulations
See §§96.4-96.11

97B.5 Officers and employees. Subject to other provisions of this chapter, the commission is authorized to appoint, fix the compensation, and prescribe the duties and powers of such officers, accountants, attorneys, experts, actuaries, and other persons as may be necessary in the performance of its duties. The commission shall classify its positions and shall establish salary schedules and minimum personnel standards for the positions so classified. All positions shall be filled by persons selected and appointed on the basis of competency and fitness for the position to be filled. The commission shall not appoint or employ any person who is an officer or committee member of any political party organization or who holds or is a candidate for any elective public office. The commission shall establish and enforce fair and reasonable regulations based upon ratings of efficiency and fitness and for terminations for cause. The commission may delegate to any such person so appointed such power and authority as it deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this chapter, and may in its discretion bond any person handling moneys or signing checks hereunder. The commission is authorized to enter into arrangements with the federal bureau of employment security whereby services performed by the commission and its employees both under this chapter and under the Iowa employment security chapter shall be equitably apportioned between the funds provided for the administration of said chapters. That money spent for rentals, supplies and equipment used by both agencies shall be equitably apportioned and charged against said funds. [C46, 50, §97.38; C54, §97B.5]

97B.6 Old records. The commission may in its discretion destroy or dispose of such original reports or records as have been properly recorded or summarized in the permanent records of the commission and are deemed by the commission no longer necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. Such destruction or disposition shall be made only by order of the commission and such order shall be spread on the minutes of the commission. Any moneys received from the disposition of such records shall be deposited to the credit of the public employees' retirement fund. [C46, 50, §§97.25, 97.26; C54, §97B.6]

97B.7 Fund created.

1. There is hereby created as a special fund, separate and apart from all other public moneys or funds of this state, the "Iowa Public Employees' Retirement Fund", hereafter called the "retirement fund". This fund shall consist of all moneys collected under this chapter, together with all interest, dividends and rents thereon, and shall also include all securities or investment income and other assets acquired by and through the use of the moneys belonging to this fund and any other moneys that have been paid into this fund.

2. The treasurer of the state of Iowa is hereby made the custodian and trustee of this fund and shall administer the same in accordance with the directions of the commission. It shall be the duty of the trustee:

a. To hold said trust funds.

b. Invest such portion of said trust funds as in the judgment of the commission are not needed for current payment of benefits under this chapter in interest-bearing securities issued by the United States, or interest-bearing bonds issued by the state of Iowa, or bonds issued by counties, school districts and/or general obligations or limited levy bonds issued by municipal corporations in this state as authorized by law, or other investments authorized by insurance companies in this state.

c. Disburse such trust funds upon warrants drawn by the comptroller pursuant to the order of the commission.

3. All moneys which are paid or deposited into this fund are hereby appropriated and made available to the commission to be used only for the purposes herein provided:

a. To be used by the commission for the payment of retirement claims for benefits under this chapter, or such other purposes as may be authorized by the general assembly.

b. To be used by the commission to pay refunds provided for in this chapter. [C46, 50, §§97.5, 97.7; C54, §97B.7]

97B.8 Advisory investment board. A board shall be established to be known as the "Advisory Investment Board of the Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System", hereinafter called the "board", whose duties shall be to advise and confer with the commission in matters relating to the investment of the trust funds of the Iowa public employees' retirement system. The powers of the board shall be purely advisory and the commission shall not be bound in the making of any investment by the recommendations of the board. The board shall consist of five members. Three of the members shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be an executive of a domestic life insurance company, one an executive of a state or national bank operating within the state of Iowa, and the third shall be an executive of a major industrial corporation located within the state of Iowa. The chairman of the social security committee of the house of representatives of the general assembly and the chairman of the social security committee of the senate of the general assembly shall be ex officio members of the board. Members appointed by the governor shall be paid their actual expenses incurred in performance of their duties and shall receive in addition thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars for each day of service not exceeding forty days per year. Ex officio members shall receive their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The appointive terms of the members appointed by the governor shall be for a period of six years dating from July 1 of the year in which they are appointed, but the governor shall designate, in the case of the original appointees, one who shall serve for a period of two years, a second who shall serve for a period of four years, and a third who shall serve for a period of six years. In the event of vacancy, through resignation or any other cause, in the membership of the board, the governor shall have the power of appointment. Appointees to this board shall be subject to confirmation by a two-thirds vote of the senate, but in the event of interim appointments, such confirmation shall be necessary at the next session of the senate. [C46, 50,§97.5; C54,§97B.8]

97B.9 Taxes—payment and interest. Taxes unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the commission, shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per centum per month from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by the commission, provided that the commission may prescribe fair and reasonable regulations pursuant to which such interest shall not accrue with respect to taxes required. Interest collected pursuant to this section shall be paid into the Iowa public employees' retirement fund.

1. If within thirty days after due notice the employer defaults in payment of taxes or interest thereon, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the commission, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect taxes or interest thereon shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions.

2. The employer shall pay its tax or contribution from funds available and is directed to pay same from tax money or from any other income of the political subdivision.

3. Every political subdivision is hereby authorized and directed to levy a tax sufficient to meet its obligations under the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50,§§97.6, 97.8, 97.9, 97.12; C54,§97B.9]

97B.10 Refunds. In any case in which the commission finds the employer has paid taxes thereon which have been erroneously paid, and has filed application for an adjustment thereof, the commission shall make such adjustment, compromise or settlement and make such refund of such payments as it finds just and equitable in the premises. Refunds so made shall be charged to the fund to which the erroneous collections have been credited and shall be paid to the claimant without interest. Any claim for such refund shall be made within three years of date of payment and not thereafter. For lack of time and cause, adjustments, compromises or refunds may be made by the commission on its own initiative. [C46, 50,§97.7; C54,§97B.10]

97B.11 Tax on employer and employee. In addition to all other taxes, there is hereby levied upon each employer, as defined in section 97B.41, and also upon each employee, as defined in section 97B.41, a tax equal to three and one-half percent of the wages paid by the employer to the employee for any service performed after June 30, 1953, while such employee is a member of the system. [C46, 50, §§97.8, 97.12; C54,§97B.11]

Tax limited to first $4,000 wages, §97B.41

97B.12 Statement to employee. The employer shall furnish to all employees a written statement in a form prescribed by the commission suitable for retention by the employee, showing the wages paid to the employee after July 1, 1953. Each statement shall cover a calendar year, or one, two or three quarters, whether or not within the same calendar year, and shall show the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within such period, and the amount of tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such wages. Each statement shall be furnished to the employee not later than thirty days following the period covered by the statement, except that if the employee leaves the employ of the employer, this final statement shall be furnished within thirty days after the last payment of wages is made to the employee. The employer may, at its option, furnish such a statement to any employee at the time of each payment of wages to the employee during any calendar quarter, in lieu of a statement covering each quarter, and, in such case, the statement may show the date of payment of wages in lieu of the period covered by the statement. [C46, 50, §97.11; C54,§97B.12]

97B.13 No income tax deduction. For the purposes of the state income tax, the tax imposed by this chapter shall not be allowed as a deduction to the taxpayer in computing his net income for any year in which such tax is deducted from his wages. [C46, 50,§97.10; C54, §97B.13]

ployee by the employer shall be matched by the employer making the deduction and forwarded to the commission for recording and deposited with the treasurer of state to the credit of the Iowa public employees' retirement fund. Such taxes as deducted by the employer shall be paid in such manner, at such times and under such conditions, either by copies of payrolls or other methods necessary or helpful in securing proper identification of the taxpayer, as may be prescribed by the commission. [C46, 50,§97.12; C54,§97B.14]

97B.15 Rules and regulations. The commission shall have full power and authority to make rules and regulations and to establish procedures, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, which are necessary or appropriate to carry out such provisions and shall adopt reasonable and proper rules and regulations to regulate and provide for the nature and extent of the proofs and evidence and the method of taking and furnishing the same in order to establish the right to benefits hereunder. [C46, 50,§97.23; C54,§97B.15]

97B.16 Hearings. The commission is directed to make findings of fact, and decisions as to the rights of any individual applying for a payment under this chapter. Whenever requested by any such individual or by any other person who makes a showing in writing that his or her rights may be prejudiced by any decision the commission has rendered, it shall give such applicant and such other individual reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing with respect to such decision, and, if a hearing is held, shall, on the basis of evidence adduced at the hearing, affirm, modify, or reverse its findings of fact and such decision. The commission is further authorized, on its own motion, to hold such hearings and to conduct such investigations and other proceedings as it may deem necessary or proper for the administration of this chapter. In the course of any hearing, investigation, or other proceedings, it may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Evidence may be received at any hearing before the commission even though inadmissible under rules of evidence applicable to court procedure. [C46, 50,§97.24; C54,§97B.16]

97B.17 Records maintained. The commission shall establish and maintain records of the amount of wages paid to each individual subject to coverage under this chapter and shall maintain a record of the contribution of each individual, and also of the contribution made by each employer in behalf of said individuals and such records shall be the basis for the compilation of the retirement benefits provided under this chapter. Such records shall be evidence for the purpose of proceedings before the commission or any court of the amounts of such wages and the periods in which they were paid, and the absence of an entry as to an individual's wages in such records for any period shall be evidence that no wages were paid such individual in such period. [C46, 50,§§97.25-97.27; C54,§97B.17]

97B.18 Statement of accumulated credit. After the expiration of each calendar year and prior to July 1 of the succeeding year, the commission shall furnish each covered individual with a statement of his accumulated credits under this chapter up to the end of such calendar year. The commission shall mail such statement to each employer not later than June 30 of the succeeding calendar year. The employer shall distribute such statements to its employees, and the records of the commission as shown by said statement as to the wages of such individual for such year and the periods of payment shall be conclusive for the purpose of this chapter, except as hereinafter provided. [C46, 50,§§97.11, 97.25; C54, §97B.18]

Referred to in §97B.19

97B.19 Revision for error. If, prior to the expiration of six months following the delivery of such statement, it is brought to the attention of the commission that any entry of such wages in such records is erroneous, or that any item of such wages has been omitted from the records, the commission may correct such entry or include such omitted item in its records, as the case may be. Written notice of any revision of any such entry which is adverse to the interest of any individual shall be given to such individual in any case where such individual has previously been notified by the commission of the amount of wages and of the period of payments shown by such entry. Upon request in writing made prior to the expiration of six months immediately following the giving of the statement provided for in section 97B.18, the commission shall afford any individual, or after his death shall afford his beneficiary or any other person so entitled in the judgment of the commission, reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing with respect to any entry or alleged omission of wages of such individual in such record, or any revision of any such entry. If a hearing is held, the commission shall make findings of fact and a decision based upon the evidence adduced at such hearing and shall revise its records accordingly. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commission under this section or section 97B.20 may appeal to the district court in the manner as provided in section 97B.29. The deputy shall promptly notify the applicant and any other interested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. Unless the applicant or other interested party, within thirty calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from such decision, to the appeal referee as provided in section 97B.26, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accord therewith. [C46, 50, §§97.33, 97.39, 97.41; C54, §97B.25]

At said hearing all of the evidence taken and the proceedings had shall be taken and fully reported by a certified shorthand reporter. Said reporter shall promptly transcribe said evidence and proceedings and certify to same. The said transcript shall then be made available for use by the commission and by the courts at subsequent appeals, if any. The parties shall be duly notified of such referee's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the commission unless, within thirty days after the date of notification or mailing of such deci-

In such action a petition, which need not be verified but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served on a member of the commission or upon such person as the commission may designate, and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there shall be left with the parties so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants, and the commission shall forthwith mail one such copy to each such defendant. When service is completed such petition shall be filed by appellant with the clerk of the district court who shall docket said cause in the same manner as provided for other civil actions. The commission shall, within sixty days after the notice of appeal has been served on the commission, certify and file with said district court all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with the findings of fact and decision of the commission therein. With such transcript the commission shall file its answer. The transcript, as certified and filed by the commission, shall be the record upon which the appeal shall be heard, and no additional evidence shall be heard. In the absence of fraud, any findings of fact by the commission after notice and hearing, as herein provided, shall be binding on the court on appeal when supported by substantial and competent evidence. The commission may also, in its discretion, certify to such courts, questions of law involving any decision by it. Such actions, and the questions so certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workmen's compensation law and the employment security law of this state. 97B.32 Appeal to supreme court. An appeal may be taken from any final order, judgment, or decree of the district court to the supreme court of Iowa, in the same manner, but not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as is provided in civil cases. It shall not be necessary in any judicial proceeding under this section, to enter exceptions to the rulings of the commission and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. Upon the final determination of such judicial proceeding the commission shall enter an order in accordance with such determination. A petition for judicial review shall not act as a

An attorney in good standing who is admitted to practice be-tirement allowance otherwise payable to him. The member shall make such an election by written request to the commission and such an election will be subject to the approval of the commission.

1. A member may elect to receive a decreased retirement allowance during his lifetime and have such decreased retirement allowance (or a designated fraction thereof) continued after his death to another person, called a contingent annuitant, during the lifetime of the contingent annuitant. In case of such an election, no death benefits, as might otherwise be provided by this chapter, will be payable upon the death of either the member or the contingent annuitant after the member's retirement.

2. The election by a member or the contingent annuitant of the option stated under subsection 1 of this section shall be null and void if the member dies prior to retirement.

3. A member who had elected to take the option stated in subsection 1 of this section may, at any time prior to his retirement, revoke such an election by written notice to the commission. [C54,§97B.51]

Referred to in §§97B.52, 97B.53

97B.52 Payment to beneficiary.

1. If a member dies prior to the date his first retirement allowance is payable under the retirement system, the accumulated contributions by the member at date of death will be payable to his beneficiary.

2. If a member dies after the date his first retirement allowance is payable under the retirement system, the excess, if any, of the accumulated contributions by the member as of said date, over the total monthly retirement allowances received by him under the retirement system will be paid to his beneficiary unless the retirement allowance is then being paid in accordance with subsection 1 of section 97B.51.

3. Other than as provided above in subsections 1 and 2 of this section, or section 97B.51, all rights to any benefits under the retirement system will cease upon the death of a member. [C46, 50,§§97.14-97.18, 97.39; C54,§97B.52]

97B.53 Termination of employment. All rights to all benefits under the retirement system will cease upon a member's termination of employment with the employer prior to his retirement, other than by death, except as provided hereafter:

1. Upon the termination of employment with the employer prior to retirement other than by death of a member, the accumulated contributions by the member at the date of such termination will be paid to such member, except as may be provided in subsection 2 and subsection 5 of this section.

2. If the employment with the employer of a member is terminated prior to his retirement, other than by death, but after he has either (a) attained the age of forty-eight and completed at least eight years of service, or (b)

has attained the age of fifty-five, he shall receive a monthly retirement allowance commencing on the first day of the month next following or coinciding with the date he attains the age of sixty-five, if he is then alive, or, if the member so elects in accordance with section 97B.47, commencing on the first day of any month coinciding with or next following the date he attains the age of fifty-five and prior to the date he attains the age of sixty-five, and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter during his lifetime, provided the member does not receive prior to the date his retirement allowance is to commence, a refund of his accumulated contributions under any of the provisions of this chapter. The amount of each such monthly retirement allowance shall be determined as provided in either section 97B.49 or in section 97B.50, whichever is applicable, but if such monthly benefit is less than eight and thirty-three hundredths dollars per month, it shall be paid semiannually as provided in section 97B.50.

3. A member who is entitled to the benefits of subsection 2 of this section shall have the right, prior to the commencement of his retirement allowance, to receive a refund of his accumulated contributions, and in the event of the death of the member prior to the commencement of his retirement allowance and prior to the receipt of any such refund the benefits of subsection 1 of section 97B.51 shall be paid.

4. No member shall be entitled to any refund based upon any credit for prior service as determined under the provisions of section 97B.43 or for any portion of any contribution made by an employer unless otherwise provided by this chapter.

5. Any member whose employment is terminated after he has accumulated five or more years of employment, either under the provisions of this chapter or as a result of prior service credits, may elect to leave his accumulated contributions in the retirement fund. A member shall not be considered as having terminated his employment if he accepts other employment in the state of Iowa under which he is eligible to membership in the Iowa public employees' retirement system, within three months after he has left public employment. In the event he returns to public employment at any time within five years after this termination of employment he shall be entitled to resume membership in the system with the same credits for prior service and accumulated contributions that he had earned when his original employment was terminated. No interest shall be credited on his accumulated contributions nor on his employer's accumulated contributions during the period from the time of his termination of employment to his resumption of employment. Any member who has resumed employment under the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible for any second period of absence from membership as a result of termination of service until he shall have been employed for a period of five years or more from the date of resumption of employment. Unless a member terminating employment elects at the time or prior to the time his employment is terminated, his accumulated contributions shall be returned to him. In any case, where a member elects not to receive his accumulated contributions and does not resume public service within five years from the date of termination of employment, his accumulated contributions shall be refunded to him, at the end of the five years immediately following his termination of employment, or in the event of his prior death, to his beneficiary or his estate, but in no case shall interest be allowed upon his accumulated contributions for any period he is not an employee.

Any member who elects not to withdraw his accumulated contributions upon termination of employment may at any time request the return of his accumulated contributions, but if he receives such return of contributions he shall be deemed to have waived all claims for any other benefits from the fund. [C46, 50, §§97.6, 97.13, 97.45; C54,§97B.53]

97B.54 Accrued liability contribution. The accrued liability contribution shall be that annual amount required to provide for the liquidation, prior to July 1, 1998, of the liability for retirement allowances payable under this chapter arising from the prior service of members credited under this chapter. The unfunded accrued liability at any particular time shall be the excess, if any, of the present value of retirement allowances due to prior service, over the sum of (1) the net total accumulated accrued liability contributions (after adjustment for retirement allowance payments due to prior service) and (2) any assets transferred to the retirement fund in accordance with section 97B.56, with interest on such sum at the rates of interest earned each year on the retirement fund. Accrued liability contributions shall be determined on actuarial bases adopted by the commission. Such contributions shall be determined by the commission after each valuation of the assets and liabilities of the system, and shall continue in force until a new valuation is made. At least sixty days prior to each regular session of the general assembly, the commission shall certify to the state comptroller and the governor the amount of the accrued liability contributions payable hereunder, and the amount so ascertained shall be included in the governor's budget message and appropriation bills submitted to the general assembly. 97B.56 Abolished system—liquidation fund. The assets of the old-age and survivors' liquidation fund, established by sections 97.50 to 97.53, inclusive, and any future payments or assets payable to the old-age and survivors' liquidation fund, are hereby transferred to the retirement fund and all payments hereafter due in accordance with the provisions of said sections shall be paid from the retirement fund, and the liability for such payments shall be considered as allowances arising from prior service as provided in section 97B.54. [C54, §97B.56]

Referred to in §97B.54
See §§97.50–97.53

97B.57 Distribution of information. The commission shall prepare and distribute to the employees, at the expense of the state and in such a manner as it shall deem appropriate, information concerning the retirement system. [C54,§97B.57]

97B.58 Information furnished by employer. To enable the commission to perform its functions, the employer shall upon the request of the commission supply full and timely information to the commission of all matters relating to the pay of all members, date of birth, their retirement, death or other cause for termination of employment, and such other pertinent facts as the commission may require. [C46, 50,§§97.23–97.25; C54,§97B.58]

97B.60 Actuarial investigation. At least once in each two-year period, the commission shall cause an actuarial investigation to be made of all experience under the retirement system. Pursuant to such an investigation, the commission shall, from time to time, determine upon an actuarial basis the condition of the system and shall report to the general assembly its findings and recommendations. The commission shall adopt from time to time mortality tables and all other necessary factors for use in all actuarial calculations required in connection with the retirement system. [C54,§97B.60]

97B.61 Annual valuation of assets. The commission shall cause an annual valuation to be made of the assets and liabilities of the retirement system and shall prepare an annual statement of the amounts to be contributed by the employer under this chapter, and shall publish annually such valuation of the assets and liabilities and the statement of receipts and disbursements of the retirement system. [C54,§97B.61]

97B.62 Accepting employment deemed consent. Every employee accepting employment or continuing in employment shall as long as he continues to be a member and has not become a member of another retirement system in the state which is maintained in whole or in part by public contributions or payments be deemed to consent and agree to any deductions from his compensation required by this chapter and to all other provisions thereof. [C46, 50, §§97.2, 97.9; C54, §97B.62]

97B.63 Members of other systems. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to exclude from coverage, under the provisions of this chapter, any public employee who is not on or as of July 4, 1953, a member of another retirement system supported by public funds. All such employees and their employers shall be required to make contributions as specified as to other public employees and employers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the re-establishment of a retirement system supported by public funds which had been in operation prior to July 4, 1953 and was subsequently liquidated. [C46, 50, §§97.6, 97.45; C54, §97B.63]

97B.65 Revision rights reserved. The right is reserved to the general assembly to alter, amend, or repeal any provision of this chapter or any application thereof to any person, provided, however, that to the extent of the funds in the retirement system the amount of benefits which at the time of any such alteration, amendment, or repeal shall have accrued to any member of the system shall not be repudiated, provided further however, that the amount of benefits accrued on account of prior service shall be adjusted to the extent of any unfunded accrued liability then outstanding. [C54, §97C.1]

97C.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the federal Insurance Contribution Act, would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that Act.

2. The term "employment" means any service performed by an employee in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, for such employer, except (1) service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this chapter would constitute "employment" as defined in the Social Security Act; or (2) service which under the Social Security Act may not be included in an agreement between the state and the federal security administrator entered into under this chapter.

3. The term "employee" includes elective and appointive officials of the state or any political subdivision thereof, except members of the general assembly, elective officials in positions, the compensation for which is on a fee basis, elective officials of school districts, elective officials of townships, and elective officials of other political subdivisions who are in part-time positions; provided that no member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an elective official in a part-time position, but every member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an employee within the purview of this chapter and shall be eligible to receive all of the benefits provided by this chapter to which he may be entitled as an employee.

4. The term "employer" means the state of Iowa and all of its political subdivisions which employ persons eligible to coverage under an agreement entered into by this state and the federal security administrator under the provisions of the Social Security Act, Title II, of the Congress of the United States as amended.

5. The term "state agency" means the Iowa employment security commission.

6. The term "political subdivision" includes an instrumentality (a) of the state of Iowa, (b) of one or more of its political subdivisions or (c) of the state and one or more of its political subdivisions, but only if such instrumentality is a juristic entity which is legally separate and distinct from the state or subdivision and only if its employees are not by virtue of their relation to such juristic entity employees of the state or subdivisions.

7. The term "Social Security Act" means the Act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, Chapter 531, 49 Stat. 620, officially cited as the "Social Security Act," Title II, (including regulations and requirements issued pursuant thereto) as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended.

8. The term "Federal Insurance Contributions Act" means subchapter "A" of chapter 9 of the federal internal revenue code as such code has been and may from time to time be amended.

9. The term "Federal Security Administrator" means the administrator of the federal security agency (or his successor in function), and includes any individual to whom the federal security administrator has delegated any of his functions under the Social Security Act, Title II, with respect to coverage under such Act of employees of states and their political subdivisions. [C46, 50,§97.45; C54,§97C.2; 56GA, ch 86,§1]

Referred to in §§97C.3, 97C.10

97C.3 Federal-state agreement. The state agency, with the approval of the governor and the attorney general, is hereby authorized to enter on behalf of the state into an agreement with the federal security administrator, consistent with the terms and provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of extending the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system to employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof with respect to services specified in such agreement which constitute "employment" as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter. Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and other appropriate provisions as the state agency and federal security administrator shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the Social Security Act, Title II, as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

1. Benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of Title II of said Social Security Act.

2. The state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the Social Security Act, Title II, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter), equal to the sum of taxes which would be imposed by sections 1400 and 1410 of the federal Insurance Contributions Act, if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that Act.

3. Such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement performed after a date specified therein, but in no event may it be effective with respect to any such services performed prior to the first day of the calendar year in which such agreement is entered into or in which the modification of the agreement making it applicable to such services is entered into, provided that in the case of an agreement or modification made after the effective date of this chapter [May 3, 1953] and prior to January 1, 1954, such agreement or modification of the agreement shall be made effective with respect to any such services performed on or after January 1, 1951.

4. All services which constitute employment as defined in section 97C.2, and are performed in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision, by employees of the state, or of any political subdivision, shall be covered by the agreement. [C46, 50,§97.45; C54,§97C.3]

97C.4 Other states—joint agreements. Any instrumentality jointly created by this state and any other state or states is hereby authorized, upon the granting of like authority by such other state or states, (1) to enter into an agreement with the federal security administrator whereby the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system shall be extended to employees of such instrumentality, (2) to require its employees to pay (and for that purpose to deduct from their wages) contributions equal to the amounts which they would be required to pay under section 97C.5 if they were covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 97C.3, and (3) to make payments to the secretary of the treasury in accordance with such agreement, including payments from its own funds, and otherwise to comply with such agreements. Such agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of section 97C.3 and other provisions of this chapter. [C54,§97C.4]

97C.5 Tax on employees. Every employee whose services are covered by an agreement entered into under section 97C.3 shall be required to pay for the period of such coverage into the contribution fund established by section 97C.12, a tax which is hereby imposed with respect to wages received during the calendar year of 1953, equal to one and one-half per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1957 to 1959, both inclusive, not to exceed two and one-fourth per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive, not to exceed two and three-fourths per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, not to exceed three and one-fourth per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1970 to 1974, both inclusive, not to exceed three and three-fourths per centum of such wages; and with respect to wages received after December 31, 1974, not to exceed four and one-half per centum of such wages. Such payment shall be considered a condition of employment as a public employee. Taxes deducted from the wages of the employee by the employer and taxes imposed upon the employer shall be forwarded to the state agency for recording and shall be deposited with the treasurer of state to the credit of the contribution fund established by section 97C.12 of this chapter. Tax limited to first $4,200 wages by Social Security Act

97C.6 Collection of tax. The tax imposed by sections 97C.5 and 97C.14 shall be collected by each employer from the employee by deducting the amount of the tax from wages as and when paid, but failure to make such deduction shall not relieve the employee from liability for such taxes. [C46, 50,§§97.7, 97.9, 97.45; C54,§97C.6]

97C.7 Income tax deduction. For the purpose of the state income tax, the tax imposed by this chapter shall be allowed as a deduction to the taxpayer in computing his net income for the year in which such tax is deducted from his wages. [C54,§97C.7]

97C.8 Statement to employees. The employer shall furnish to all employees a written statement in a form prescribed by the state agency suitable for retention by the employees, showing the wages paid to the employee after January 1, 1953. Each statement shall cover a calendar year, or one, two or three quarters, whether or not within the same calendar year, and shall show the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within such period, and the amount of tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such wages. Each statement shall be furnished to the employee not later than thirty days following the period covered by the statement, except that, if the employee leaves the employ of the employer, this final statement shall be furnished within thirty days after the last payment of wages is made to the employee. The employer may, at its option, furnish such a statement to any employee at the time of each payment of wages to the employee during any calendar quarter, in lieu of a statement covering such quarter, and, in such case, the statement may show the date of payment of wages in lieu of the period covered by the statement. [C46, 50,§97.11; C54,§97C.8]

97C.9 Adjustments or refund. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 97C.5 is paid or deducted with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [C54,§97C.9]

necessary because other funds are not available. [C46, 50,§97.12; C54,§97C.10; 57GA, ch 74,§2]

Referred to in §97C.12

97C.11 Payment—adjustment or refund.

Such taxes as deducted by the employer from the earnings of employees or upon the employers shall be paid in such manner, at such times and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state agency. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed upon the employer is paid or deducted, proper adjustments or refund, if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [C46, 50,§97.7; C54,§97C.11]

Such fund shall consist of, and there shall be deposited in such fund: (1) all taxes, interest, and penalties collected under sections 97C.5, 97C.10, and 97C.11; (2) all moneys appropriated thereto under this chapter; (3) any property or securities and earnings thereof acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund; (4) interest earned upon any moneys in the fund, and (5) all sums recovered upon the bond of the custodian or otherwise for losses sustained by the fund and all other moneys received for the fund from any other source. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state agency is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all moneys and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. All moneys in this fund shall be mingled and undivided. [C54,§97C.12]

Referred to in §§97C.5, 97C.14

97C.13 Fund kept separate.

The contribution fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or moneys of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this chapter. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for, payment of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under section 97C.3, or the payment of refunds provided for in this chapter. [C54,§97C.13]

97C.14 Elected officials—retroactive payments. Any elective official of the state of Iowa, or any of its political subdivisions, who becomes subject to federal social security coverage under the provisions of the agreement referred to in section 97C.3 shall, not later than October 1, 1953, pay into the contribution fund established by section 97C.12 a tax sufficient to pay in his behalf an amount equal to three percent of his compensation received as a public official for each year or portion thereof that he has served as a public elective official since January 1, 1951, not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars for any year of service. The employment security commission shall collect the tax hereby imposed and the proceeds from such tax shall be used for the purpose of obtaining retroactive federal social security coverage for elective officials, for the period beginning January 1, 1951, in the same manner as is provided in the case of other public employees by the provisions in subsection 2 of section 97.51 in order to obtain retroactive federal social security coverage during this period of time, such contribution to be collected and guaranteed by the employer. The employment security commission will pay any such amount contributed to provide for retroactive federal social security coverage for the individual in question in the same manner as other payments are made for retroactive coverage of public employees. Provided that no member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an elective official in a part-time position, but every member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an employee within the purview of this chapter and shall be eligible to receive all of the benefits provided by this chapter to which he may be entitled as an employee. [C46, 50,§§97.7, 97.45; C54,§97C.14; 56GA, ch 86,§2]

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated annually from the general fund of the state of Iowa to the contribution fund, in addition to the taxes collected and paid into the contribution fund, such additional sums as are found to be necessary in order to make payments to the secretary of the treasury of the United States which the state is obliged to make pursuant to any agreement entered into under section 97C.3. [C54,§97C.17]

97C.18 Rules and regulations.

The state agency shall make and publish such rules and

In making such refund, the commission shall prepare a voucher showing the amount of refund due and to whom payable and the comptroller shall then issue a warrant upon order of the commission to pay such refund out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The commission may promulgate rules and regulations providing for refunds of the face value of stamps affixed to any cigarettes which have become unfit for use and consumption, unsalable, or for any other legitimate loss which may occur, upon proof of such loss. Refund shall be made by issuing new stamps of an aggregate value of the tax paid on the cigarettes adjudged to be unfit for use, consumption, unsalable, or any other loss suffered.

98.9 Change of design. The design of the stamps used may be changed as often as the commission may deem necessary for the best enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §1556.04; C46, 50, 54, §98.9]

Such stamps shall be affixed within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, from the hour the cigarettes were received, and shall be affixed before such distributor sells, offers for sale, consumes, or otherwise distributes or transports the same. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than a distributing agent or distributor, bonded pursuant to section 98.14. or common carrier to receive or accept delivery of any cigarettes without stamps affixed to evidence the payment of the tax, or without having in his possession the requisite amount or number of stamps necessary to stamp such cigarettes, and the possession of any unstamped cigarettes, without the possession of the requisite amount or number of stamps, shall be prima-facie evidence of the violation of this provision. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1571; C39, §1556.05; C46, 50, 54, §98.10]

98.11 Cancellation of stamps. No stamps affixed to a package of cigarettes shall be canceled by any letter, numeral, or other mark of identification or otherwise mutilated in any manner that will prevent or hinder the commission in making an examination as to the genuineness of said stamp; provided, however, that the commission may direct and require such cancellation of the tax stamps affixed to packages of cigarettes or cigarette papers which, in its judgment, is necessary and essential to carry out properly the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §1556.06; C46, 50, 54, §98.11]

98.12 Use of stamping machines. The commission, with the consent of the executive council, may purchase and supply suitable machines or devices to the holders of a state or manufacturer's permit, or authorize the leasing by the permit holder of such machines or the metering device or both, and provide under proper regulation and direction for the impression of a distinctive imprint, indicium or character upon individual packages of cigarettes, cigarette papers and tubes as evidence of the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, in lieu of the purchase and affixation of stamps as provided herein.

In the event the commission and executive council decide to purchase such machines they shall be paid for upon order of the commission out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The machines or devices shall be so constructed as to record or meter the number of impressions or indicia made and shall at all times be open for inspection by the commission.

All of the provisions of this chapter relating to the collection of the tax by means of the sale and affixation of stamps shall apply in the use of the stamping machines or devices, including the right of refund as provided herein. [C39, §1556.07; C46, 50, 54, §98.12]

98.13 Distributor's, wholesaler's, and retailer's permits.

No permit shall be granted or issued until the applicant shall have paid for the period ending June 30 next, to the state tax commission or the city, town or county granting such permit, the fees provided for in this chapter. The annual state permit fee for a distributor and wholesaler shall be one hundred dollars when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September, provided that whenever a state permit holder shall operate more than one place of business, a duplicate state permit shall be issued for each additional place of business on payment of five dollars for each such duplicate state permit, but refunds as provided in this chapter shall not apply to any duplicate permit issued.

The fee for retail permits to be issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September:

a. In towns and other places outside any city or town, fifty dollars.

b. In cities of less than fifteen thousand population, seventy-five dollars.

c. In cities of fifteen thousand or more population, one hundred dollars.

If any permit is granted during the months of October, November, or December, the said fee shall be three-fourths of the above maximum schedule; if granted during the months of January, February, or March, one-half of said maximum schedule, and if granted during the months of April, May, or June, one-fourth of the said maximum schedule.

4. Refunds.

a. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid the full annual fee may be surrendered during the first nine months of said year to the officer issuing it, and the state tax commission, or the city, town, or county granting the permit shall make refunds to the said holder as follows:

Three-fourths of the annual fee if the surrender is made during July, August, or September.

One-half of the annual fee if the surrender is made during October, November, or December.

One-fourth of the annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

A sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

c. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid one-half of a full annual fee may be so surrendered during the first three months of the period covered by said payment, and the said state tax commission, city, town or county, shall refund to the holder a sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee.

5. Application—bond. Said permits shall be issued only upon applications accompanied by the fee indicated above, and by an adequate bond as provided in section 98.14, and upon forms furnished by the commission upon written request. The failure to furnish such forms shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless absolute refusal is shown. Said forms shall set forth:

a. The manner under which such distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, transacts or intends to transact such business as distributor, wholesaler, or retailer.

b. The principal office, residence, and place of business in Iowa, for which the permit is to apply.

c. If the applicant is not an individual, the principal officers or members thereof, not to exceed three, and their addresses.

d. Such other information as the commission shall by rules and regulations prescribe.

6. No sales without permit. No distributor, wholesaler, or retailer shall sell any cigarettes until such application has been filed and the fee prescribed paid for a permit and until such permit is obtained and only while such permit is unrevoked and unexpired.

7. Number of permits—trucks. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, excepting that no permit need be obtained for a delivery or sales truck of a distributor or wholesaler holding a permit, provided that the commission may by regulation require that said truck bear the distributor's or wholesaler's name, and that the permit number of the place of business for and from which it operates be conspicuously displayed on the outside of the body of the truck, immediately under the name.

8. Group business. Any person who operates both as a distributor and wholesaler in the same place of business shall only be required to obtain a state permit for the particular place of business where such operation of said business is conducted. A separate retail permit, however, shall be required if any distributor or wholesaler sells cigarettes at both retail and wholesale.

9. Permit—form and contents. Each permit issued shall describe clearly the place of business for which it is issued, shall be nonassignable, consecutively numbered, designating the kind of permit, and shall authorize the sale of cigarettes in this state subject to the limitations and restrictions herein contained. The retail permits shall be upon forms furnished by the commission.

10. Permit displayed. The permit shall, at all times, be publicly displayed by the distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, at his place of business, so as to be easily seen by the public and the persons authorized to inspect the same. The proprietor or keeper of any building or place wherein cigarettes shall be kept for sale, or with intent to sell, shall upon request of the commission or any peace officer exhibit his permit to so keep and sell. His refusal or failure to so exhibit such permit shall be prima-facie evidence that such cigarettes are kept for sale or with intent to sell in violation of the provisions of this chapter. [S13,§5007-a; C24, 27,§§1557, 1558, 1560, 1563, 1564, 1584; C31, 35,§§1557, 1558, 1560, 1563, 1563-d1, 1564, 1584; C39,§1556.08; C46, 50, 54,§98.13]

Said bonds shall be on forms prescribed by the commission and in the following amounts:

a. Retail permit, not less than five hundred dollars.

b. State permit, not less than five hundred dollars.

c. Manufacturer's permit, not less than five thousand dollars.

2. No distributor or person shall engage in interstate business unless he files a bond, with good and sufficient surety in an amount of not less than one thousand dollars. The amount of the bond required of such distributor or other person shall be fixed by the commission, subject to the minimum limitation herein provided. Said bond shall be approved by the commission and payable to the state in Des Moines, Polk county, and conditioned upon the payment of taxes, damages, fines, penalties, and costs adjudged against the permit holder for violation of any of the requirements of this chapter affecting said distributor or other person, on a form prescribed by the commission.

3. An additional bond or a new bond may be required by the commission at any time an existing bond becomes insufficient or the surety thereon becomes unsatisfactory, which additional bond, or new bond, shall be supplied within ten days after demand. On failure to supply a new bond or additional bond within ten days after demand, the commission shall have the power and the authority to cancel any existing bond made and secured by and for said distributor or other person. In the event said bond is canceled, said distributor or other person shall within forty-eight hours after receiving cigarettes or forty-eight hours after said cancellation, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, cause any cigarettes in his possession to have the requisite amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax as herein provided. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§§1561, 1562; C39, §1556.09; C46, 50, 54,§98.14]

98.15 Records and reports of permit holders.

1. The commission is authorized to prescribe such forms as may be necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter and is authorized to require such uniform books and records to be used and kept by each permit holder as it deems necessary. The commission may also require each permit holder to keep and retain in his possession evidence on prescribed forms of all transactions involving the purchase and sale of cigarettes or the purchase and use of stamps as herein provided. All of such evidence shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of each transaction, for the inspection at all times by the commission.

2. Where a state permit holder sells cigarettes at retail, he shall be required to issue an invoice to his retail department for cigarettes to be sold at retail and such cigarette invoices shall be kept separate and apart.

3. The commission may by regulation require every holder of a manufacturer's or state permit to make and deliver to the commission on or before the tenth day of each month a report or reports for the preceding calendar month, upon a form or forms prescribed by the commission, and may require that such reports shall be properly sworn to and executed by the permit holder or his duly authorized representative.

4. Every permit holder shall, when requested by the commission, make such additional reports as the commission deems necessary and proper and shall at the request of the commission furnish full and complete information pertaining to any transaction of the permit holder involving the purchase or sale or use of cigarettes or purchase of cigarette stamps.

5. Every person engaged in the business of selling cigarettes in interstate commerce only, who has, by furnishing the bond required in section 98.14, been permitted to set aside or store cigarettes in this state for the conduct of such interstate business without the stamps affixed thereto, shall be required to keep such records and make such reports to the commission as are required by it.

6. If any distributor or other person fails or refuses to pay any tax, penalties, or cost of audit hereinafter provided, and it becomes necessary to bring suit or to intervene in any manner for the establishment or collection of said claims, in any judicial proceedings, any report filed in the office of the commission by such distributor or other person, or his representative, or a copy thereof, certified to by the commission, showing the number of cigarettes sold by such distributor or his representative, upon which such tax, penalty or cost of audit has not been paid, or any audit made by the commission or its representative from the books or records of said distributor or other person when signed and sworn to by such representative as being made from the records of said distributor or persons from or to whom such distributor or other person has bought, received, or delivered cigarettes, whether from a transportation company or otherwise, such report or audit shall be admissible in evidence in such proceedings and shall be prima-facie evidence of the contents thereof; provided, however, that the incorrectness of said report or audit may be shown. [C27, 31, 35, §§1570-b1, -b2; C39,§1556.10; C46, 50, 54,§98.15]

98.16 Manufacturer's permit. The commission may, at its discretion, and upon application of any manufacturer, issue without charge to such manufacturer a manufacturer's permit. Such application shall contain such information as the commission shall prescribe. The holder of such manufacturer's permit shall be authorized to purchase stamps from the commission, and to affix such stamps to individual packages of cigarettes outside of this state, prior to their shipment into the state. [C39,§1556.11; C46, 50, 54,§98.16]

98.17 Distributing agent's permit.

1. Every distributing agent in the state, now engaged, or who desires to become engaged, in the business of storing unstamped cigarettes which are received in interstate commerce for distribution or delivery only upon order received from without the state or to be sold outside the state, shall file with the commission, an application for a distributing agent's permit, on a form prescribed by the commission, to be furnished upon written request. The failure to furnish shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said form shall set forth the name under which such distributing agent transacts or intends to transact such business as a distributing agent, the principal office and place of business in Iowa to which the permit is to apply, and if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof and their addresses. The commission may require any other information it may desire in said application. No distributing agent shall engage in such business until such application has been filed and fee in the sum of one hundred dollars paid for the permit and until the permit has been obtained. Such permit shall expire on June 30 following the date of issuance. All of the provisions of the last two paragraphs of section 98.14, relative to bonds, are incorporated herein and by this reference made applicable to distributing agents. Upon failure to furnish adequate bond as required, the permit shall be revoked without hearing. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributing agent.

2. Upon receipt of the application and bond and the permit fee herein provided for, the commission may issue to every distributing agent for the place of business designated a nonassignable consecutively numbered permit, authorizing the storing, and distribution of unstamped cigarettes within this state when such distribution is made upon interstate orders only. A distributing agent may also transport unstamped cigarettes in his own conveyances to the state boundary for distribution outside the state, and any nonresident customer of such distributor may purchase and convey unstamped cigarettes to the state line for distribution outside the state. Such nonresident purchaser shall be required to have in his possession an invoice evidencing the purchase of such unstamped cigarettes, which must be exhibited upon request to any peace officer or agent charged with the enforcement of this chapter.

3. Cigarettes set aside for interstate business must be kept separate from intrastate stock and those not so kept shall be considered as intrastate stock and subject to the same requirements as cigarettes possessed for the purpose of a "first sale".

4. It shall be unlawful for any distributing agent to sell at retail cigarettes, cigarette papers or tubes from automobiles, trucks, or any similar conveyances. [C39,§1556.12; C46, 50, 54, §98.17]

Referred to in §98.10

98.18 Forms for records and reports. The commission shall furnish, without charge, to holders of the various permits, such forms in sufficient quantities as will enable such permit holders to make the reports required to be made under this chapter. The permit holders shall furnish at their own expense such books, records, and invoices, as are required to be used and kept, but such books, records, and invoices shall be in exact conformity to the forms prescribed for that purpose by the commission, and shall be kept and used in the manner prescribed by the commission; provided that the commission may, in its discretion, by express order in certain cases, authorize permit holders to keep their records in a manner and upon forms other than those so prescribed. Such authorization may be revoked at any time. [C39,§1556.13; C46, 50, 54,§98.18]

98.19 Examination of records and premises.

1. For the purpose of enabling the commission to determine the tax liability of permit holders or any other person dealing in cigarettes or to determine whether a tax liability has been incurred, it shall have the right to inspect any premises where cigarettes are manufactured, produced, made, stored, transported, sold, or offered for sale or exchange, and to examine all of the records required to be kept or any other records that may be kept incident to the conduct of the cigarette business of said permit holder or any other person dealing in cigarettes.

2. The said authorized officers shall also have the right as an incident to determining the said tax liability, or whether a tax liability has been incurred, to examine all stocks of cigarettes and cigarette stamps and for the foregoing purpose said authorized officers shall also have the right to remain upon said premises for such length of time as may be necessary to fully determine said tax liability, or whether a tax liability has been incurred.

3. It shall be unlawful for any of the foregoing permit holders to fail to produce upon demand of the commission any records required herein to be kept or to hinder or prevent in any manner the inspection of said records or the examination of said premises. [C39,§1556.14; C46, 50, 54,§98.19]

98.20 Subpoena for witnesses and papers.

For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and of detecting violations thereof, the commission shall have the power to administer oaths and to require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all relevant books, papers, and records. Such attendance and production may be required at the statehouse at Des Moines, or at any place convenient for such investigation. In case any person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena so issued, the commission may procure an order from the district court in the county where such person resides, or where such person is found, requiring such person to appear for examination and/or to produce such books, papers, and records as are required in the subpoena. Failure to obey such order shall be punished by such court as contempt thereof. [C39,§1556.15; C46, 50, 54,§98.20]

98.21 Cigarettes retailer may not sell. Unless a retail permit holder shall also hold a state permit, it shall be unlawful for a retailer to sell or have in his possession cigarettes upon which the stamp tax has not been affixed. [C39,§1556.16; C46, 50, 54,§98.21]

98.22 Revocation of permit.

1. If any person holding a permit issued by the commission under the provisions of this chapter, including a retailer permit for railway car, has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder, the commission may revoke the permit issued to said person, after giving such permit holder an opportunity to be heard upon five days written notice stating the reason for such contemplated revocation and the time and place at which he may appear and be heard. The said hearing shall be held in the county of the permit holder's place of business, or in a county in or through which it transacts business. Such notice shall be given by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail to the permit holder's place of business as the same appears on his application for a permit. If, upon such hearing, the commission shall find that such violation has occurred, it may revoke the permit or permits.

2. If any retailer has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, the board of supervisors or the city or town council which issued the permit may revoke his permit or permits upon the same hearing and notice as is prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

3. If a permit is revoked no new permit shall be issued to the permit holder for any place of business, or to any other person for the place of business at which such violation occurred, until one year has expired from the date of revocation, unless good cause to the contrary is shown to the issuing authority. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§1559; C39,§1556.17; C46, 50, 54,§98.22; 57GA, ch 267,§18]

Such permit shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale, and sell, cigarettes at retail on any dining car, sleeping car, or passenger car operated by such applicant in, through, or across the state of Iowa, subject to all of the restrictions imposed upon retailers under this chapter. The application for such permit shall be in such form and contain such information as may be required by the commission. Each such permit shall be good throughout the state. Only one such permit shall be required for all cars operated in this state by such applicant, but a duplicate of such permit issued as herein provided shall be posted in each car in which such cigarettes are sold and no further permit shall be required or tax levied for the privilege of selling cigarettes in such cars. No cigarettes shall be sold in such cars without having affixed thereto stamps evidencing the payment of the tax as provided in this chapter.

2. As a condition precedent to the issuing of a retailer's permit for railway car, the applicant shall file with the commission a bond in favor of the state for the benefit of all parties interested in the amount of five hundred dollars conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, fines and penalties and costs in this chapter provided.

3. The annual fee for a retailer's permit for railway cars shall be twenty-five dollars and two dollars for each duplicate thereof, which fee shall be paid to the commission. The commission shall issue duplicates of such permits from time to time as applied for by such companies.

4. The provisions of subsections 1 and 3 of section 98.22 shall apply to the revocation of such permit and the issuance of a new one. [C39,§1556.18; C46, 50, 54,§98.23]

98.24 Carrier to permit access to records. Every common carrier in this state having custody of books or records showing the transportation of cigarettes both interstate and intrastate shall give and allow the commission free access to such books and records. [C39, §1556.19; C46, 50, 54,§98.24]

98.25 Administration.

1. The commission shall administer the provisions of this chapter, and it is hereby made the duty of the commission to collect, supervise, and enforce the collection of all taxes and penalties that may be due under the provisions of this chapter.

2. Said commission also shall have the power and authority to make and publish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, necessary and advisable for its detailed administration, to enforce the provisions thereof, and to collect the taxes and fees herein imposed. The commission may promulgate rules and regulations hereunder providing for the refund on stamps which by reason of damage become unfit for sale or use.

3. The state tax commission is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant, whose sole duty it shall be to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter, including the collection of all taxes provided for herein. In such enforcement the state tax commission may call to its aid the attorney general, the special agents of the state, any county attorney or any peace officer. The commission is authorized to appoint such clerks and additional help as may be needed to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§1576; C39, §1556.20; C46, 50, 54,§98.25]

98.26 Liens and actions. All of the provisions for the lien of the tax, its collection, and all actions as provided in the sales tax act shall apply to the tax imposed by this chapter, except that where the sales tax and the cigarette tax may become conflicting liens, they shall be of equal priority. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1565; C39,§1556.21; C46, 50, 54,§98.26]

[C39,§1556.22; C46, 50, 54,§98.27]

98.28 Assessment of tax by commission. If after any audit, examination of records, or other investigation the commission finds that any person has sold cigarettes, without stamps affixed thereto as required by this chapter or that any person has failed to pay any tax herein imposed upon such person, the commission shall fix and determine the amount of tax due, and shall assess such tax against such person, together with a penalty, which is hereby imposed, equal to the amount of said tax. If any person fails to furnish evidence satisfactory to the commission showing purchases of sufficient stamps to stamp unstamped cigarettes purchased by him, the presumption shall be that such cigarettes were sold without the proper stamps affixed thereto. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§1568; C39,§1556.23; C46, 50, 54,§98.28]

Such person may appeal from such determination and assessment to the district court in the same manner and subject to the same procedure as is provided in section 422.29. [C39,§1556.24; C46, 50, 54,§98.29; 57GA, ch 267,§19]

98.30 Assessment of cost of audit. The commission may employ auditors or other persons to audit and examine the books and records of any permit holder or other person dealing in cigarettes to ascertain whether such permit holder or other person has paid the amount of the taxes required to be paid by him under the provisions of this chapter. If such taxes have not been paid, as required, the commission shall assess against such permit holder or other person, as additional penalty, the reasonable expenses and costs of such investigation and audit. [C39,§1556.25; C46, 50, 54, §98.30]

98.31 Civil penalty for certain violations. If a permit holder shall (a) fail to keep any of the records required to be kept by the provisions of this chapter, or (b) if a permit holder shall sell any cigarettes upon which a tax is required to be paid by this chapter without at the time having a valid permit, or (c) if any distributor, wholesaler, or distributing agent shall fail to make any reports to the commission required herein to be made, or (d) make a false or incomplete report to said commission, or (e) if any distributing agent shall store any unstamped cigarettes in the state or distribute or deliver any unstamped cigarettes within this state without at the time of said storage or delivery having a valid permit, or (f) if any person affected by this chapter shall fail or refuse to abide by the provisions hereof or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, or violate the same, he shall be civilly liable to the state as a penalty in the sum of fifty dollars for each offense. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense, and the same violation shall constitute a separate offense for each day it continues. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1572; C?9, §1556.26; C46, 50, 54, §98.31]

All such cigarettes, vehicles, and property so seized as aforesaid, remaining in the possession or custody of the commission, sheriff or other officer for forfeiture or other disposition as provided by law, shall be deemed to be in the custody of law and irrevocable.

2. The commission, when taking the seizure aforesaid, shall immediately make a written report thereof showing the name of the agent or representative making the seizure, the place and person where and from whom such property was seized and an inventory of same and appraisalment thereof at the reasonable value of the article seized, which report shall be prepared in duplicate, signed by the agent or representative so seizing, the original of which shall be given to the person from whom said property is taken, and a duplicate copy of which shall be filed in the office of the commission and shall be open to public inspection.

Upon the filing of said proceeding, the clerk of said court shall issue notice to the owner or person in possession of such property to appear before such court upon the date named therein, which shall not be less than two days from service of such notice, to show cause why the forfeiture aforesaid should not be declared, which notice shall be served by the sheriff of said county. In the event the defendant in said proceeding is a nonresident of the state or his residence is unknown, or in the event the name of such defendant is unknown, upon affidavit by the commission to this effect, notice shall be given as ordered by the court.

4. In the event final judgment is rendered in the forfeiture proceedings aforesaid, maintaining the seizure, and declaring and perfecting the forfeiture of said seized property, the court shall order and decree the sale thereof to the highest bidder, by the sheriff at public auction in the county of seizure after notice is given in the manner provided in the case of the sale of personal property under execution, and the proceeds of such sale, less expense of seizure and court costs, shall be paid into the state treasury.

5. In the event the cigarettes seized hereunder and sought to be sold upon forfeiture shall be unstamped, the officers selling the same shall be furnished by the commission, sufficient stamps which shall be affixed to the cigarettes prior to the sale thereof.* [C39, §1556.27; C46, 50, 54, §98.32]

*See §751.28

98.33 Seizure not to affect criminal prosecution. The seizure, forfeiture, and sale of cigarettes and other property under the terms and conditions hereinabove set out, shall not constitute any defense to the person owning or having control or possession of such property from criminal prosecution for any act or omission made or offense committed under this chapter or from liability to pay penalties provided by this chapter. [C39, §1556.28; C46, 50, 54, §98.33]

All permit fees provided for in this chapter and collected by cities and towns in the issuance of permits granted by such municipalities shall be paid to the treasurer of the city or town wherein the permit is effective and credited to the general fund of said city or town. Permit fees so collected by counties shall be paid to the county treasurer and credited to the general fund of such county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1569; C39, §1556.30; C46, 50, 54, §98.35]

99A.2 Intentional possession. The intentional possession or willful keeping of a gambling device upon any licensed premises is cause for the revocation of any license upon the premises where the gambling device is found. Possession by an employee of the licensee on the premises of the licensee shall give rise to the presumption of intentional possession by the licensee.

All licenses of any licensed business shall be revoked if the intentional possession or willful keeping of any such gambling device upon the licensed premises is established, notwithstanding that it may not be made to appear that such devices have actually been used or operated for the purpose of gambling. The order to show cause shall be served upon the licensee as an original notice, or by certified mail, not less than eight days before the date fixed for the hearing thereof. A copy of the order shall forthwith be mailed to the owner of the premises, as shown by the records in the office of the county recorder at his last known post-office address. [C54,§99A.5; 57GA, ch 267,§20]

99A.6 Licenses revoked—appeal. If, upon the hearing of the order to show cause, the issuing authority finds that the licensee intentionally possessed or willfully kept upon his licensed premises any gambling device, then the license or licenses under which the licensed business is operated, or used in the operation of such business on the licensed premises, shall be revoked.

A licensee whose license has been revoked or any owner of licensed premises aggrieved by an order of an issuing authority, may within fifteen days after the date of the order of the issuing authority file an application for writ of certiorari in the district court in and for the county where the business of the licensee is located.

Unless the licensee has filed an application for writ of certiorari in the district court, revocation shall date from the sixteenth day following the date of the order of the issuing authority. In the event the licensee has filed an application for writ of certiorari in the district court revocation shall date from the thirty-first day following entry of the order of the district court, if action by the district court is adverse to the licensee.

If the licensee appeals to the supreme court of Iowa, or applies for writ of certiorari to such court, revocation shall not be effective pending determination by the supreme court of Iowa, provided the licensee shall post bond with the clerk of the district court in an amount fixed by the clerk of the court in the district wherein the business is licensed, conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against him on the appeal, or the hearing on a writ, if the action of the district court is affirmed. Revocation shall date from the day following final disposition of such court.

No new license or licenses shall be granted the licensee, nor for the same business if it is established that the owner had actual knowledge of the existence of the gambling devices resulting in the license revocation, upon the same premises, for the period of one year following the date of revocation. [C54, §99A.6]

Referred to in §§99A.7, 99A.9

[57GA, ch 76,§1(2)]

101.4 Nonconforming use. The regulations shall make reasonable provision under which facilities in service prior to the effective date of the regulations and not in strict conformity therewith may be continued in service unless the nonconformity is such as to constitute a distinct hazard to life or adjoining property; and for guidance in enforcement may delineate these types of nonconformity that should be considered distinctly hazardous, those that should not be considered distinctly hazardous and those the need for elimination of which should be evaluated in the light of local factors. As to any regulation the need for compliance with which is conditioned on local factors, the regulations shall provide, as a condition precedent to evaluation or issuance of a compliance order, for reasonable notice to the proprietor of the facility affected of intention to evaluate the need and of the time and place at which he may appear and offer evidence thereon. [C35,§1655-g3; C39,§1655.3; C46, 50, 54, §101.3; 57GA, ch 76,§§1(3), 2]

Provided, further, that the size, weight and cargo carried by vehicles used in the transportation or delivery of flammable liquids or liquefied petroleum gas shall be governed by the uniform provisions of the motor vehicle and highway traffic laws of this state and local ordinances therein authorized. [57GA, ch 76,§1(5)]

101.7 Enforcement. Compliance with the regulations may be enforced by orders of the state fire marshal subject to review, appeal and enforcement as provided in chapter 100 for orders for elimination of fire-hazard conditions, except that the regulations may provide for compliance time, other than as specified in section 100.26 based upon the amount and character of work, availability of suitable equipment or materials and appropriate continued operation of any facility. 103.1 Fire escapes. Every church, school, hotel, theater, amphitheater, asylum, hospital, nursing home, college or university building, lodge hall, club room, public meeting place, and all other structures in which persons congregate from time to time, whether publicly or privately owned, shall have at least two means of exit from each story. All such buildings shall be equipped with such protection from fire, and means of escape therefrom, as in this chapter provided.

After the thirty-first day of December, 1957, every such new or remodeled building, except private one- or two-family dwellings and farm buildings, shall have at least two means of exit from each story and shall be equipped with such protection from fire, and means of escape therefrom, as in this chapter provided. [SS15,§4999-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1660; C46, 50, 54,§103.1; 57GA, ch 75,§8]

Referred to in §103.3

103.2 Terms defined. The word "building" as used in this chapter shall include all structures or inclosures of each of the classes mentioned or referred to herein. The word "story" shall include a basement story when such basement story is on the average five feet or more above the ground. The word "exit" shall mean a doorway or doorways or windows, or such doorways together with connecting hallways or stairways, either interior or exterior, or fire escapes, by means of which occupants may proceed safely from a room or space to a street or to a space which provides safe access to a street. Two or more separate exit ways may use the same corridor or hallway. [SS15,§4999-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1661; C46, 50, 54,§103.2; 57GA, ch 75,§9]

103.3 Fire escapes required. In addition to the requirements of section 103.1, every building coming under the provisions of this chapter shall have at least the number of exits of the kind prescribed by law and as determined by the following formula:

Number of exits shall equal C times P.

P equals the average maximum number of persons on the story with the highest number above the first story.

C is a coefficient and is fixed, and shall be taken for the various classes of buildings as follows:

1. Buildings having wooden or combustible walls, C equals .020.
2. Buildings having brick or combustible walls with combustible interior, C equals .014.
3. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning construction, C equals .012.
4. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, C equals .007.
5. Buildings of wooden or combustible walls equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .014.
6. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .008.
7. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning construction equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .006.
8. Fireproof buildings equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .003.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to permit less than two exits from each story of every building except private one- or two-family dwellings and farm buildings. When the result of said formula is two or less than two, the number of exits shall be two. The number of additional exits required shall include any fraction as a unit, except when such fraction shall be thirty-three hundredths or less, in which case the fraction may be dropped if permitted by the inspector. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1662; C46, 50, 54,§103.3; 57GA, ch 75,§10]

103.4 Location of fire escapes and exits. The following regulations as to location of fire escapes and exits are hereby established:

1. The second exit required by law shall be placed as far as possible from the existing inside stairway or passage to the lower floors of the building, taking into account the hazard and the path or route of access to the escape from such stairway.

2. The distance to the nearest fire escape from any inside stairway or passage to the lower floor shall not exceed two hundred feet by way of the path or route of access to such fire escape from such stairway or passage.

3. Additional fire escapes to those otherwise provided by law shall be provided wherever it is necessary to pass within twenty feet of any stairway or elevator shaft from any portion of the building more than twenty feet from such stairway or shaft to reach the fire escape required by the provisions of law and where there are peculiar, unusual, or extreme hazards, additional fire escapes may be required by those authorized by law to regulate and fix the number and requirements of fire escapes.

4. When the inspector shall deem it necessary on account of the height of any building or on account of the number of persons ordinarily occupying said building, either permanently or temporarily in the course of business, such building shall be equipped with a sufficient number of fire escapes to permit the exit of all occupants within the following periods of time:

a. Buildings with wooden or combustible walls, two minutes.

b. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior, three minutes.

c. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning interior construction, four minutes.

d. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, fifteen minutes; or a less period of time if hazard of merchantable contents of such building may so require.

In estimating the period of time required the rate of descent on the fire escapes shall not be taken in excess of one and five-tenths feet of vertical distance, or height, per second, when said fire escapes are fully loaded, which rate of descent shall be estimated to permit the exit of not to exceed one person per second; but the time of complete exit as herein provided may be increased where efficient sprinkler systems are installed, such increase of time to be determined by the character and efficiency of the sprinkling system unless peculiar or unusual hazards exist. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1663; C46, 50, 54,§103.4; 57GA, ch 75,§11]

103.5 How constructed. All fire escapes shall be constructed as described in the following classifications:

Class A. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of those more safe and efficient than outside ladders and stairways and which shall have been approved as such by the state fire marshal, and may include inside stairways and means of escape in fireproof buildings when approved by said fire marshal.

Class B. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of a suitable outside stairway of not less than twenty-two inches clear width of steel or wrought iron constructed with platform and with stationary stairway carried down to within six and one-half feet of the ground, or with a drop or counterbalanced stairway from the second story platform or balcony to the ground.

Class C. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of at least one ladder, not less than eighteen inches in width, of steel or wrought iron construction, of sufficient size and strength for safety, attached to the outside walls of the building and provided with platforms of steel or wrought iron inclosed by suitable railings and of such dimensions and in such proximity to the windows of each story above the first as to render access to the ladder from each story easy and safe, the said ladder to extend to within six and one-half feet of the ground or to be provided with a drop ladder hung at the second story in such a manner that it can be easily lowered for use. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1664; C46, 50, 54,§103.5]

103.6 Construction and arrangement.

1. All of the above classes of fire escapes shall be of suitable material, construction, arrangement, and location to make the same safe and efficient and no fire escape of a higher class shall be less safe and efficient than one of a lower class and the provisions of each lower class with respect to platform, access to windows and openings, and sufficiency of strength shall apply to the upper class except where allowed to be modified by those having authority.

2. All fire escapes reaching the top floor shall have suitable extensions reaching from the upper platform to safe landing on the roof of the building; but the state fire marshal may waive this provision when on examination he finds that such ladder would be an element of danger.

3. All fire escapes of any of the foregoing classes shall have such windows or openings leading to the platform or balconies of the same as shall be necessary to make the same safe and efficient, and all routes or paths of access to said fire escapes shall be safe and sufficient, with all doors of rooms leading to fire escapes one-half glass and equipped with mortise latches or equivalent so that the same may be easily and quickly opened by breaking the glass and turning the latches from the inside of the doors, all so as to render access to the fire escape from each floor above the first easy and safe. No window or door leading to the platform of a fire escape shall be fastened against exit.

4. The attachment of all fire escapes shall be made in a thorough and substantial manner and sufficient to carry the full load that may be placed on said fire escapes when the same are crowded, with a factor of safety of not less than four.

5. Suitable signs indicating the location of fire escapes shall be posted at all entrances to elevators, stairways, landings, and in all rooms.

6. In all buildings which are used for lodging or sleeping purposes, and in opera houses, theaters, and public assembly halls, and other buildings occupied or used at night where, in the judgment of the state fire marshal, this provision should apply, red lights shall be maintained at night or when the buildings are darkened, to indicate the place or opening through which access to the fire escape is obtained. Red lights shall not be used for lighting purposes in such buildings at locations where they may be mistaken for an exit light. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1665; C46, 50, 54,§103.6]

103.7 Class of escapes—stairways.

1. Hotels, lodging houses, tenements, apartment buildings, schools, retail or department stores, seminaries, college buildings, office buildings, hospitals, asylums, opera houses, theaters, assembly halls, and factories required by law to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A" or class "B". All other buildings and structures required to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A", "B", or "C", or with a combination of such classes.

2. Class "C" shall not be used on any building over three stories in height in which more than five persons are at any one time allowed upon any one of the floors above said third story nor where any of the persons allowed upon any floor above the third story are females or minors; but the state fire marshal may under peculiar conditions and where the hazards are not great:

a. Permit fire escapes of class "C" to be used on buildings of more than three stories, but when ladder fire escapes are permitted on buildings more than three stories in height the ladders thereof must offset at the platforms and must not continue in the same line for more than one story.

b. Permit fire escapes of class "C" or other approved means of escape to be used on an ordinary dwelling of not more than three stories in height and temporarily used in part for lodging purposes when not more than five persons, none of whom are under sixteen years of age, occupy the third floor.

3. Where stairways not less than forty-four inches in clear width are provided they shall be taken as the equivalent of two or more single stairways in proportion to their width, provided the means of escape and efficiency and safety of said escapes are not thereby diminished. [SS15,§4999-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1666; C46, 50, 54,§103.7]

103.8 Doors to open outward. The entrance and exit doors of all hotels, churches, lodge halls, courthouses, assembly halls, theaters, opera houses, colleges, public schoolhouses, and other structures where the hazard is deemed sufficient by the inspector, and the entrance doors to all class and assembly rooms in public school buildings, shall open outward and shall not be fastened against exit or so the same cannot be easily opened from within. [SS15,§4999-a9a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1667; C46, 50, 54,§103.8]

escape from fire or any matter relating thereto, and notifying him to comply with the law and requirements of the state fire marshal within sixty days after the service of such notice; but the time of such notice may be extended by the state fire marshal if necessary. He shall be required to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the sum of two thousand dollars.

The commission is herewith empowered and authorized to employ such number of qualified persons as it may deem advisable to serve as conservation officers.

with the duties of peace officers, in enforcing the provisions of this chapter. [C97, §2511; C24, 27, 31, §1691; C35, §1703-e1; C39, §1703.01; C46, 50, 54, §106.1]

Annual report to governor, §17.4

106.2 Boats—inspection and license. Any person having upon the inland waters of the state any boat, operated by machinery used for hire or offered for hire, must have his craft and all its appurtenances annually inspected and licensed before it is so used.

Every such owner shall file in the office of the secretary of the commission an application for inspection of boats and licensing thereof, on a blank to be furnished by the commission for that purpose.

The boat inspector shall have the power and authority to determine whether the boat is safe for the transportation of passengers and upon what waters it may be used, to determine and designate the number of passengers, including crew, that may be carried, to determine whether the machinery, equipment and all appurtenances are such as to make said boat seaworthy where used and equipped as provided herein, and such other matters as are pertinent.

After said boat has been inspected and licensed as provided herein, the license shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place upon or in said boat and shall be so maintained at all times by the owner of said boat.

Any license issued for the operation of a boat shall be in effect only for the calendar year in which such license is issued.

The owner of all boats used for hire is held responsible for the proper equipping and licensing thereof, as provided in this chapter. [C97,§2512; S13,§2512; C24, 27, 31,§1692; C35, §1703-e2; C39,§1703.02; C46, 50, 54,§106.2]

106.3 Engineer or pilot license. No motor boat shall be operated for hire by a pilot or engineer upon the inland waters of the state, without his first having obtained an annual engineer's and/or pilot's license hereby required for all operators, who have charge of the steering or directing of the boat's course, or who do steer or direct the boat's course. An engineer's license is required for all operators who have charge of or operate the equipment by which the boat is propelled. If one person acts in a dual or alternate capacity, he shall first obtain both an engineer's and pilot's license.

Any person desiring a pilot's or engineer's license shall file with the commission an application therefor upon forms prepared and furnished by the commission. Such license may be issued by the boat inspector or inspectors aforesaid. Before the boat inspector shall issue such license, he shall investigate the competency of the applicant, his acquaintance with and experience in boat work, his habits as to sobriety, his mental and physical qualifications for the work, his acquaintance with the waters for which application to operate upon is made, his familiarity with the laws and regulations pertaining to boat operation, and all other pertinent matters. Such license shall not be issued to any one under the age of eighteen years.

Any license issued for operating as a pilot or as an engineer shall be in effect only for the calendar year in which such license is issued. [C97,§2512; S13,§2512; C24, 27, 31,§1694; C35,§1703-e3; C39,§1703.03; C46, 50, 54,§106.3]

106.4 Fees. The annual fee for the inspection and licensing of boats operated for hire shall be based upon the passenger-carrying capacity, including crew, for which said boat is licensed to operate.

Such fee shall be computed at the rate of fifty cents per person capacity, but shall not exceed the maximum of twenty dollars.

The fee for inspecting and licensing each sailboat operated for hire shall be not less than one dollar.

The annual fee for pilot's license is one dollar.

The annual fee for an engineer's license is two dollars.

The provisions for this section shall not apply to rowboats propelled by outboard motors, except that all rowboats whether with or without outboard motors, which are rented to the public for hire, and including boats furnished with leased cottages, shall be subject to annual inspection by the boat inspector. For such inspection, a fee of twenty-five cents per boat shall be charged. If such boat or boats are found to be in satisfactory condition, the boat inspector shall attach thereto a small metal plate—said plate giving the date of inspection and the passenger-carrying capacity. The responsibility for requesting such inspection with sufficient notice is upon the owner of the boat or boats, and no such rowboat or boats offered or used for hire shall be so used until such inspection has been made and the craft or crafts found to be in satisfactory condition.

The boat inspector shall collect all license fees, and these shall be turned over to the general treasury and be available for the use of the commission. [C97,§2512; S13,§2512; C24, 27, 31,§1694; C35,§1703-e4; C39,§1703.04; C46, 50, 54,§106.4]

106.5 Suspension or revocation. The boat inspector or inspectors may for cause temporarily suspend or revoke the license of any boat, pilot, or engineer that has been issued under this chapter, and the commission, after a due hearing in the matter at its next session, shall make final determination in the matter. Any license issued upon an application, or a statement which is untrue as to any material facts, shall be void from date of issue. Any license which is revoked or found void shall forthwith be returned to the commission. [C97, §2513; S13,§2513; C24, 27, 31,§1695; C35,§1703-e5; C39,§1703.05; C46, 50, 54,§106.5]

106.6 Penalty. If any owner, agent or master of any boat, plying the inland waters of the state, shall hire or offer to hire, such boat for the carrying of a person or persons thereon, without first obtaining annually, before operating such boat in service, a license as in this chapter required, or if such owner, agent or master, having obtained such license, shall permit or receive for carriage on such boat a greater number of persons than authorized therein, or if any person shall act as pilot or engineer on any boat mentioned for which inspection and license are herein required, without first obtaining a license therefor, or if having such license he continues to follow such avocation after the same has been revoked or has expired, he shall be fined in the sum of not to exceed one thousand dollars or imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed one year or punished by both fine and impris-

No fee shall be required for such registration. The registry number shall be plainly marked, upon both sides of the bow, in block figures not less than four inches in height. Such number shall be in color contrasting with the color of the boat. [C35,§1703-e7; C39,§1703.08; C46, 50, 54, §106.8]

Such application shall be made under oath of the applicant or under oath of one of its principal officers if the applicant is an association, club or corporation. The application shall be accompanied by a license fee of fifty dollars. Upon receipt of such application, the state conservation commission shall inspect the proposed licensed area described in such application and the premises and facilities where game birds are to be propagated, raised or liberated and the cover for game birds in such area and the ability of the applicant to operate a property of this character. If the commission finds that the area contains not less than three hundred twenty acres and not more than twelve hundred and eighty acres, is contiguous, there is no other licensed area in the township and that the licensing of the proposed area will not exceed the three percent county limitation, and has the proper requirements for the operation of such a property; that the game birds propagated or released thereon are not likely to be a menace to other game; that the proposed area will not interfere with the normal activities of migratory birds; that the operation of such property will not work a fraud upon persons who may be permitted to hunt thereon; and that the issuing of the license will otherwise be in the public interest; the commission shall approve such application and issue a game breeding and shooting preserve area license for the operation of such property on the tract described in such application with the rights and subject to the limitations in this chapter prescribed. Pen-reared waterfowl, two generations removed from the wild and chukar partridge may be released at any time of year for shooting purposes and one hundred percent may be harvested by shooting. The word waterfowl shall be defined as those birds constituting the Anatidae as listed in section 109.41. All birds so released shall be at least twelve weeks of age before liberation date. 110A.4 Manner of release—records. For the purpose of this chapter, game birds shall be released upon licensed game breeding and shooting preserve areas in a manner satisfactory to the commission. Upon application and payment of a fee of five cents for each such tag, the commission shall furnish licensees with such tags; provided that the commission shall not in any year furnish any licensee a number of tags in excess of the number of game birds which may lawfully be taken from such licensed area as hereinbefore provided. One of such tags shall be securely affixed to one of the legs of each game bird taken before removing same from such licensed area, and such tag shall remain upon the leg of such game bird until such bird is finally prepared for consumption.

All waterfowl released for shooting purposes shall be punched through the outer web of the bird's right foot at not more than four weeks of age, so as to provide for permanent identification. [57GA, ch 82,§5]

110A.6 Seasons—hunting license. No person shall take any game bird upon a game breeding and shooting preserve area, by shooting in any manner, except between September 1, and March 1, of each year, both dates inclusive.

Every person taking game birds upon such licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area shall secure a hunting license so to do in accordance with the provisions of the game laws of Iowa, with the exception that a non-resident may secure a hunting license restricted to shooting preserve areas for a license fee of five dollars per year. Such special representative shall be subject to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commission and shall serve without compensation from the commission. [57GA, ch 82,§7]

[56GA, ch 12, §4]

111A.2 Petition—board membership. Upon petition of two hundred voters in any county to the board of supervisors thereof, said board shall submit to the people of the county at the next primary or general election the question whether a county conservation board shall be created as provided for in this chapter. The members first appointed shall hold office for the term of one, two, three, four and five years respectively, as indicated and fixed by the county board of supervisors. Thereafter, succeeding members shall be appointed for a term of five years, except that vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. When any member of the board, during the term of office, shall cease to be a bona fide resident of the county, he or she shall thereby be disqualified as a member of said board and his or her office shall thereupon be declared vacant. Members of the board shall be selected and appointed on the basis of their demonstrated interest in conservation matters, and shall serve without compensation, but may be paid their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. Such records shall be subject to public inspection at all reasonable hours and under such regulations as the county conservation board may prescribe. Said board shall annually make a full and complete report to the county board of supervisors of its transactions and operations for the preceding year. Such report shall contain a full statement of its receipts, disbursements, and the program of work for the period covered, and may include such recommendations as may be deemed advisable. A copy of this report shall be filed with the state conservation commission. [56GA, ch 12, §6]

To acquire in the name of the county by gift, purchase, lease, agreement or otherwise, in fee or with conditions, suitable real estate within or without the territorial limits of the county areas of land and water for public parks, preserves, parkways, playgrounds, recreation centers, forests, wildlife and other conservation purposes. The state conservation commission, the county board of supervisors, or the governing body of any city, town or village may, upon request of the county conservation board, designate, set apart and transfer to the county conservation board for use as parks, preserves, parkways, playgrounds, recreation centers, play fields, tennis courts, skating rinks, swimming pools, gymnasiums, rooms for arts and crafts, camps and meeting places, community forests, wildlife areas and other recreational purposes, any land and buildings owned or controlled by the state conservation commission or such county or municipality and not devoted or dedicated to any other inconsistent public use. In acquiring or accepting land, due consideration shall be given to its scenic, historic, archaeological, recreational or other special features, and no land shall be acquired or accepted which in the opinion of the board and the state conservation commission is of low value from the standpoint of its proposed use.

3. The county conservation board shall file with and obtain approval of the state conservation commission on all proposals for acquisition of land, and all general development plans and programs for the improvement and maintenance thereof before any such program is executed.

4. To plan, develop, preserve, administer and maintain all such areas, places and facilities, and construct, reconstruct, alter and renew buildings and other structures, and equip and maintain the same.

The county conservation board shall have no power or authority to contract any debt or obligation in any year in excess of the moneys in the hands of the county treasurer immediately available for such purposes. Gifts, contributions and bequests of money and all rent, licenses, fees and charges and other revenue or money received or collected by the board shall be deposited in the county conservation fund to be used for the purchase of land, property and equipment and the payment of expenses incurred in carrying out the activities of the board, except that moneys given, bequeathed, or contributed upon specified trusts shall be held and applied in accordance with the trust specified. 112.1 Resolution of necessity. Whenever, in the opinion of the state conservation commission, it is necessary and desirable for it to erect a dam or spillway across a stream or at the outlet of a lake, or to alter or reconstruct an existing dam or spillway, so as to increase or decrease its permanent height, or to permanently affect the water level above the structure, it shall proceed with said project by first adopting a resolution of necessity to be placed upon its records, in which it shall describe in a general way the work contemplated. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e1; C39,§1828.24; C46, 50, 54,§112.1]

112.2 Expert plan. The commission, upon receipt of a report and plan prepared by a competent civil engineer, showing the work contemplated, the effect on the water level, and probable cost and such other facts and recommendations as may be deemed material, may approve said plan which shall be considered a tentative plan only, for the project. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e2; C39,§1828.25; C46, 50, 54, §112.2]

112.3 Hearing—damages. After said approval the commission, if it wishes to proceed further with the project, shall, with the consent of the Iowa natural resources council, fix a date of hearing not less than two weeks from date of approval of the plan. Notice of the day, hour and place of hearing, relative to proposed work, shall be provided by publication at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the project is located, or in the county or counties where the water elevations are affected, under the tenta-

112.4 Adoption of plan. If, at the time of the hearing, the commission shall find that the improvement would be conducive to the public convenience, welfare, benefit or utility, and the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may adopt the tentative plan as final or may modify the plan, provided said modification will not, to any greater extent than the tentative plan, materially and adversely affect the interests of littoral or riparian owners. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e4; C39,§1828.27; C46, 50, 54,§112.4]

112.6 Filing appraisal. The appraisers appointed to determine the damages caused by the proposed project shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled and shall, at least three days before the date fixed by the commission to hear and determine the same, file with the secretary of the commission reports in writing showing the amount of damages sustained by each claimant. Should good cause for delay exist, the commission may postpone the time of final action on the project. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e6; C39, §1828.29; C46, 50, 54,§112.6]

112.7 Damages determined. At the time fixed for hearing and after receipt of the report of the appraisers, the commission shall examine said report, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant and may affirm, increase or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. After such action, the commission may thereupon adopt a final plan for the project, and proceed with its construction, or it may dismiss the entire proceedings. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e7; C39,§1828.30; C46, 50, 54,§112.7]

45GA, ch 35,§8, editorially divided

112.9 Final determination and costs. The amount of damages or compensation found by the court shall be entered of record. Unless the result on the appeal is more favorable to the appellant than the action of the commission, all costs of the appeal shall be taxed to the appellant, but if more favorable, the cost shall be taxed to the appellees. All damages assessed and all costs occasioned under this chapter shall be paid from the funds of the commission. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e9; C39,§1828.32; C46, 50, 54,§112.9]

The term "land surveyor" as used in this chapter shall mean a person who engages in the practice of land surveying as hereinafter defined.

The practice of "land surveying" within the meaning and intent of this chapter includes surveying of areas for their correct determination and description and for conveyancing, or for the establishment or re-establishment of land boundaries and the platting of lands and subdivisions thereof. In considering the qualifications of applicants, responsible charge of engineering teaching may be construed as responsible charge of engineering work. The satisfactory completion of each year of an approved course in engineering in an approved school or college, without graduation, shall be considered as equivalent to a year of practical experience. Graduation in a course other than engineering from a college or university of recognized standing shall be considered as equivalent to two years of practical experience; provided, however, that no applicant shall receive credit for more than four years of practical experience because of educational qualifications.

Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this chapter to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration though he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application.

114.17 Certificate. To any applicant who shall have passed the examination as a professional engineer and who shall have paid an additional fee of ten dollars, the board shall issue a certificate of registration as a professional engineer signed by the chairman and secretary of the board under the seal of such board, which certificate shall authorize the applicant to practice professional engineering as defined in this chapter. Such certificate shall not carry with it the right to practice land surveying, unless specifically so stated in said certificate, which permission shall be granted by the board without additional fee in cases where the applicant duly qualifies as a land surveyor as prescribed by the rules of said board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1869; C46, 50, 54,§114.17]

Renewal may be effected at any time during the month of December by the payment of a fee of two dollars. The failure on the part of any registrant to renew his certificate annually in the month of December as required above shall not deprive such a person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate after the month of December shall be increased two dollars per year for each year or fraction of a year that payment of renewal is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed ten dollars. For the duration of any war in which the United States is engaged the board may, in its discretion, defer the collection of renewal fees without penalty, which have or may become due from registered professional engineers who are employed in the war effort, and residing outside the state, or who are members of the armed forces of the United States, and may renew the engineering certificates of said registered professional engineers. All such fees collected and remitted shall be placed in a special fund by the treasurer of state and the state comptroller to be known as the "watchmakers' fund", to be used by the board to administer and enforce the laws relating to the practice of watchmaking, to elevate the standards of schools of watchmaking, and to promote the educational and professional standards of watchmakers and watchmaking in this state, and no part of such expense shall be paid out of the general fund of the state. Any remainder in said fund at the end of each fiscal year, after all expense in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, have been paid, or a sum sufficient for payment thereof set apart, shall be paid into the general fund of the state. Said fund shall be subject at all times to the warrant of the state comptroller, drawn upon written requisition of the chairman of the board and attested by the secretary, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, but in no event shall the total expenses therefor exceed the total fees collected and deposited to the credit of said fund. [C46, 50, 54, §120.5]

The board shall make rules and regulations for conducting examinations, and shall define the standards of workmanship and skill. In case of failure at any examination, the applicant shall have the privilege of taking another examination at any other examination period upon the payment of a fee of five dollars and the board shall conduct such examinations at least twice in each year. [C46, 50, 54, §120.7]

120.8 Certificates of registration.

1. If the applicant successfully passes the examination, the secretary of the board shall register such fact and shall issue to him a certificate of registration.

2. A watchmaker who is not a resident of the state, may, in the discretion of the board, be issued a certificate without the examination upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars and upon filing a written application with the board, together with evidence of five years practice as a watchmaker in some other state immediately previous to the time of the application by furnishing such evidence in connection with his skill as a watchmaker as the board may require. The board, upon presentation by an applicant of a license or certificate to practice watchmaking issued to the applicant upon examination by the duly constituted authority of another state which by its laws licenses or regulates watchmakers, and which by its laws would grant a certificate of license under similar circumstances and conditions, may in its discretion, issue a certificate of registration to said applicant without examination, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars.

3. Persons actually engaged in watchmaking within this state prior to the effective date of this chapter shall be exempt from taking the examination herein provided, upon making application for a certificate of registration within six months after said date, accompanied by an application fee of five dollars and the affidavit of the applicant setting forth the fact of his having actually engaged in watchmaking, together with the affidavits of two freeholders in this state setting forth that they know that the applicant has been so engaged in watchmaking and if the board shall be satisfied that such applicant is entitled thereto, it shall cause its secretary to so register such applicant and issue to such person a certificate of registration on a form to be designed by the board.

4. Every certificate of registration shall expire on the thirtieth day of June following the date of issuance of such certificate, and shall be renewed annually upon application by the holder thereof, without examination. Application for such renewal shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by a renewal fee of five dollars, at least thirty days prior to the expiration of such certificate. Every renewal shall be displayed in connection with the original certificate. Every year or not later than May 1, the board shall notify each certificate holder by mail of the expiration of his certificate. Any watchmaker who allows his certificate to lapse by failing to renew the same as hereinbefore provided, may obtain reinstatement thereof without examination, in the discretion of the board, if he applies therefor within three years following the expiration date of his certificate and pays the renewal fees then due. [C46, 50, 54, §120.8]

No apprentice certificate shall be renewed unless the application therefor shall be accompanied by a sworn statement of the employer or employers as to the length of time the applicant has been actually employed under his certificate in the pursuit of the watchmaking trade. Apprentice watchmakers shall pay a fee of one dollar for the certificate which shall expire on June 30 of each year and shall pay a renewal fee of one dollar annually. Any applicant for a certificate of registration as a watchmaker who fails to pass the examination provided for herein may in the discretion of the board be issued a certificate as an apprentice watchmaker. [C46, 50, 54, §120.9]

120.10 Revocation. The board may revoke a certificate of registration obtained through error of the board or fraud of the applicant, or if the holder is grossly incompetent, guilty of immoral or unethical conduct, or obtained or sought anything of value by fraudulent representation in the practice of watchmaking.

The holder of such certificate shall be given thirty days notice in writing enumerating the charges and fixing a date for the hearing thereon. Such notice shall be given to the certificate holder by certified mail addressed to him at his last known address as shown by the secretary. At the hearing he shall have the opportunity to defend himself against the charges and to introduce evidence tending to disprove the charges. If the board should refuse any such application and refuse to renew any such license, the applicant may within thirty days after the order of the board and not afterward appeal therefrom by a writ of certiorari to the district court where upon such appeal the hearing shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license should be renewed may be submitted, including new evidence not submitted to the board. Upon the expiration of one year, and after satisfactory proof that the cause of revocation no longer exists, a person whose certificate has been revoked may be issued a certificate of registration at the discretion of the board, upon payment of the fee herein provided. 122.2 Fees.

122.3 Revocation of permit.

122.4 Exceptions.

Any such organized institution or charitable association having a permit under the provisions of this chapter shall file an annual report with the secretary of state during the month of December of each year, which report shall contain the following information:

A class "A" permit shall allow the holder thereof to manufacture and/or sell at wholesale, beer as defined in this chapter; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prohibit the holder of a class "A" permit from manufacturing beer of a higher alcoholic content for shipment outside this state. A class "B" permit shall allow the holder thereof to sell at retail beer for consumption on or off the premises. A class "C" permit shall allow the holder thereof to sell at retail beer for consumption off the premises.

In order to promote uniform compliance with the provisions of this chapter there is hereby created a state permit board to be composed of the chairman of the state tax commission, the secretary of state, and the auditor of state, which board shall issue state permits and shall have the power to revoke the same upon hearing as provided in this chapter and to review actions of the city or town councils, and boards of supervisors, in refusing to revoke permits, as hereinafter provided. The permit board shall serve without additional compensation. The permit board shall meet on the first Monday in each month for a regular meeting, and upon call at any time. permit board that there is reasonable ground to believe that such permit holder has been guilty of violation of the provisions of this chapter, and upon such hearing the permit board shall make a finding, after hearing the facts with reference to the grounds for the revocation of such permit, and by a majority vote shall determine whether or not such permit shall be revoked and make an order accordingly, and said finding shall be final.

If the state permit board finds from investigation that a review of the action of any city or town council, and boards of supervisors, should be had, or that such governing bodies have failed to take action, the state permit board shall thereupon fix a date for the hearing thereof and shall notify the permit holder of such hearing by certified mail of the date fixed for hearing and the date set for the hearing shall not be less than seven days from the mailing of the notice. Such notice shall be mailed to the permittee at the post-office address where his place of business is conducted under his permit. Testimony may be taken by deposition as in civil cases and any person may be compelled to appear and testify as in civil actions in the courts of this state. Any person who shall neglect and refuse to attend and testify or answer any lawful question or produce documentary evidence if it is in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena or lawful requirement by such board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of section 687.7

or town council, or the boards of supervisors, as the case may be, or where the state permit board from its investigation asks that a hearing be had on the revocation of a permit, and in the event the city or town council, including boards of supervisors, neglects or refuses to have such hearing, the matter may be presented to the state permit board upon such verified petition in writing, signed by at least ten taxpayers of the jurisdiction for which the permit was granted, or the state permit board may upon its own motion conduct such hearing, and the same procedure as in this section provided shall apply with reference to notice of hearing witnesses, testimony and contempt proceedings for failure to appear, and the board shall make a finding in such cases, which finding shall be binding on the permit holder and also on the city or town councils, or boards of supervisors, as the case may be. 135.18 Investigation upon petition or on initiative by department. The department may, upon its own initiative, study, investigate, or survey any stream, watercourse, lake, or other body of water within the state and bordering on the state, and may determine ways and means of eliminating pollution, and may determine methods, so far as practicable, and necessary in the light of the use to which the water is being, or may be, put, of controlling the extent of such pollution of said waters. The department shall make such investigations upon the written petition of:

1. The council of any city or town.
2. The local board of health.
3. The trustees of any township.
4. Twenty-five residents of the state.
5. Any state agency or agencies.

For the purposes of this chapter, pollution means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical or biological properties, of such waters of the state, or such discharge of such liquid, gaseous or solid substances into such waters of the state as will create a nuisance or render such waters harmful or detrimental or injurious to public health, safety or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish or other aquatic life. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2198; C46, 50, 54, §135.18; 56GA, ch 95, §1]

Such hearing shall be public and shall be conducted, so far as possible, in the same manner as a court hearing, and every alleged offender shall have the right to appear by counsel, present testimony, and examine witnesses. 2. After such hearing the department may, if it believes the alleged offender is guilty of the charges, enter an order directing such person to desist in the practice found to be the cause of such pollution or corruption, taking into account the use to which the water is being, or may be, put, or it may order a change in the method of passing waste materials into the water so that the same will be rendered innocuous and harmless.

3. No order shall be issued under the provisions of subsection 2 of this section without the written approval of a majority of the members of the Iowa natural resources council.

4. If any such change is ordered, unless such practice is rendering such water dangerous to the public health, a reasonable time shall be granted to the offender in which to put in use the method ordered.

5. The department shall keep a complete record of such proceeding, including all the evidence taken, and such record shall be open to public inspection. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2199-2203; C46, §135.19-135.24; C50, 54, §135.20]

Such appeal shall be perfected by serving a written notice on the commissioner of public health within thirty days of the entry of such order. The hearing on appeal shall be tried as a suit in equity and shall be de novo. The court may receive additional testimony and may affirm, modify, or reverse any such order. The setting aside of any such order of the department by the court upon any such appeal shall not prevent or preclude said department from again instituting proceedings against the same person, firm, corporation or municipality when in its opinion the public health is endangered. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2204; C46, §135.25; C50, 54, §135.21]

1. Failure to obey any order issued under the provisions of section 135.20 made by the department with reference to matters pertaining to the pollution of waters shall constitute prima-facie evidence of contempt. In such event the department may certify to the district court of the county in which such disobedience shall occur, the fact of such failure. The district court shall then proceed to hear and determine the matter and, if the order be found to be reasonable and lawful, to punish for contempt to the same extent as though such failure were in connection with an order made by the district court which is made punishable by contempt.

2. Any person, firm, or corporation, or any officer or agent thereof, found guilty of contempt under this section shall be fined in a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars. The penalties provided in this section shall be considered as additional to any penalty which may be imposed under the law relative to nuisances or any other statute relating to the pollution of streams or other bodies of water, and a conviction under this section shall not be a bar to prosecution under any other penal statute. 2. Plans and specifications for any waste disposal system covered by subsection 1 of this section shall be submitted to the department before a written permit may be issued, and the construction of any such waste disposal system shall be in accordance with said plans and specifications as approved by the department. tals and other health facilities, as will, in conjunction with existing facilities, afford the necessary physical facilities for furnishing adequate hospital and other health facility, and similar services to all the people of the state. In making the inventory and survey and developing a construction program with respect to diagnostic or treatment centers the commissioner shall, in the first instance, advise and consult with a subcommittee of the council, which subcommittee shall consist of the five individual doctors and the individual dentist then serving as members of the council. [C50, 54, §135A.6; 56GA, ch 96, §9]

The commissioner shall, prior to the submission of such plan to the surgeon general, give adequate publicity to a general description to all the provisions proposed to be included therein, and hold a public hearing at which all persons or organizations with a legitimate interest in such plan may be given an opportunity to express their views. After approval of the plan by the surgeon general, the commissioner shall make the plan or a copy thereof available upon request to all interested persons or organizations. The commissioner shall from time to time review the hospital and other health facilities construction program and submit to the surgeon general any modifications thereof which he may find necessary and may submit to the surgeon general such modifications of the state opportunity for a fair hearing. If the commissioner, after affording reasonable opportunity for development and presentation of applications in the order of relative need, finds that a project application complies with the requirements of this chapter and is otherwise in conformity with the state plan, he shall approve such application and shall recommend and forward it to the surgeon general. [C50, 54, §135A.13]

135A.14 Inspection of projects. From time to time the commissioner shall cause to be inspected each construction project approved by the surgeon general, and, if the inspection so warrants, the commissioner shall certify to the surgeon general that work has been performed upon the project, or purchases have been made, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, and that payment of an installment of federal funds is due to the applicant. *60 Stat. L.

135B.2 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment and enforcement of basic standards

(1) for the care and treatment of individuals in hospitals and (2) for the construction, maintenance and operation of such hospitals, which, in the light of existing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate treatment of such individuals in hospitals, in the interest of the health, welfare and safety of the public. [C50, 54, §135B.2]

135B.3 Licensure. No person or governmental unit, acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish, conduct or maintain a hospital in this state without a license. [C50, 54, §135B.3]

Effective January 2, 1948
See §135B.18

135B.4 Application for license. Licenses shall be obtained from the state department of health. Applications shall be upon such forms and shall contain such information as the said department may reasonably require, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with such reasonable standards, rules and regulations as may be lawfully prescribed hereunder. Each application for license shall be accompanied by the license fee, which shall be refunded to the applicant if the license is denied and which shall be paid over into the state treasury credited to the general fund if the license is issued. In case of death of any person holding such license or the sale of any hospital licensed hereunder within the first year of the tenure of such license the department shall certify to the state comptroller a claim on behalf of the licensee for refund of a proportionate share of the license fee. Said refund shall be based on one-twelfth the amount thereof multiplied by the remaining months in the year. The comptroller shall thereupon draw a warrant against the general fund payable to the order of the licensee. Hospitals having fifty beds or less shall pay an initial license fee of fifteen dollars; hospitals of more than fifty beds and not more than one hundred beds shall pay an initial license fee of twenty-five dollars; all other hospitals shall pay an initial license fee of fifty dollars. [C50, 54,§135B.4]

135B.5 Issuance and renewal of license. Upon receipt of an application for license and the license fee, the state department of health shall issue a license if the applicant and hospital facilities comply with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of the said department. Each such license, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall be renewable annually upon payment of ten dollars and upon filing by the licensee, and approval by the department, of an annual report upon such uniform dates and containing such information in such form as the state department of health, with the advice of the hospital licensing board, shall prescribe by regulation. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the state department of health. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises as prescribed by regulation of the said department. [C50, 54,§135B.5]

135B.6 Denial or revocation of license — hearings and review. The state department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend or revoke a license in any case where it finds that there has been a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules, regulations or minimum standards promulgated under this chapter.

Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be effected by mailing to the applicant or licensee by certified mail, or by personal service of, a notice setting forth the particular reasons for such action. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notice, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period shall give written notice to the department requesting a hearing, in which case the notice shall be deemed to be suspended. If a hearing has been requested, the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing before the department. At any time at or prior to hearing, the department may rescind the notice of denial, suspension or revocation upon being satisfied that the reasons for the denial, suspension or revocation have been or will be removed. On the basis of any such hearing, or upon default of the applicant or licensee the determination involved in the notice may be affirmed, modified, or set aside, by the department. A copy of such decision, setting forth the finding of facts and the particular reasons for the decision shall be sent by certified mail, or served personally upon, the applicant or licensee. The decision shall become final thirty days after it is so mailed or served, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, appeals the decision to the court, pursuant to section 135B.14.

The procedure governing hearings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with rules promulgated by said department with the advice of the hospital licensing board. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings, and all testimony shall be reported but need not be transcribed unless the decision is appealed pursuant to section 135B.14. A copy or copies of the transcript may be obtained by an interested party on payment of the cost of preparing such copy or copies. Witnesses may be subpoenaed by either party and shall be allowed fees at a rate prescribed by the aforesaid rules. [C50, 54, §135B.6; 57GA, ch 267,§27]

135B.7 Rules, regulations, and enforcement. The state department of health with the advice of the hospital licensing board, shall adopt, amend, promulgate and enforce such rules, regulations and standards with respect to the different types of hospitals to be licensed hereunder as may be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of the chapter. Rules, regulations and standards may be adopted imposing requirements in excess of those provided in chapter 413, but no rule, regulation or standard shall be adopted imposing requirements less than those provided by said chapter. No rules, regulations or standards shall be adopted or enforced which would have the effect of denying a license to a hospital or other institution required to be licensed hereunder, solely by reason of the school or system of practice employed or permitted to be employed by physicians therein; provided that such school or system of practice is recognized by the laws of this state. [C50, 54,§135B.7]

Referred to in §135B.17

135B.8 Effective date of regulations. Any hospital which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or regulations or minimum standards under this chapter shall be given a reasonable time, not to exceed one year from the date of such promulgation, within which to comply with such rules and regulations and minimum standards. [C50, 54,§135B.8]

135B.9 Inspections and consultations. The state department of health shall make or cause to be made such inspections as it may deem necessary. The state department of health shall, with the advice of the hospital licensing board, prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant for license desiring to make specified types of alteration or addition to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the state department of health for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [C50, 54,§135B.9]

135B.10 Hospital licensing board. The five individuals appointed by the governor to the hospital advisory council as individuals of recognized ability in the field of hospital administration, shall function as and be the hospital licensing board. [C50, 54,§135B.10]

135B.11 Functions of hospital licensing board. The hospital licensing board shall have the following responsibilities and duties:

1. To consult and advise with the department of health in matters of policy affecting administration of this chapter, and in the development of rules, regulations and standards provided for hereunder.

2. To review and approve such rules, regulations and standards authorized hereunder prior to their promulgation by the department of health as specified herein.

The members of the board shall receive no compensation or expenses for their services as members thereof. [C50, 54,§135B.11]

135B.12 Information confidential. Information received by the state department of health through filed reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter, shall not be disclosed publicly in such manner as to identify individuals or hospitals, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure or the denial, suspension or revocation of a license. [C50, 54,§135B.12]

135B.13 Annual report of department. The state department of health shall prepare and publish an annual report of its activities and operations under this chapter. [C50, 54, §135B.13]

135B.14 Judicial review. Any applicant or licensee who is dissatisfied with the decision of the commissioner of public health as a result of the hearing provided herein may, within thirty days after the mailing or serving of notice of the decision as provided in said section, file a notice of appeal in the district court of the county in which the hospital is located or to be located, and serve a copy of said notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon the department shall within thirty days certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision, including the transcript of the hearings on which the decision is based. The trial before the court shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license shall be denied, suspended or revoked, as the case may be, may be submitted including new or additional evidence not submitted to the commissioner, and the court shall have power to affirm, modify or reverse the decision of the commissioner. Pending final disposition of the matter the status quo of the applicant or licensee shall be preserved. [C50, 54,§135B.14]

Referred to in §135B.6

135B.15 Penalties. Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any hospital without a license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars, and each day of continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. [C50, 54,§135B.15]

135B.16 Injunction. Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the department may, in the manner provided by law, maintain an action in the name of the state for injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, management or operation of a hospital without a license. [C50, 54,§135B.16]

135B.27 Admission agreement. The hospital admission agreement signed by the patient or his legal representative shall contain the following statement:

"Pathology and radiology services are medical services performed or supervised by doctors, and the personnel and facilities are or may be furnished by the hospital for said services. Charges for such services are or may be collected, however, by the hospital on behalf of said doctors pursuant to an agreement between said doctors and the hospital, and from said charges I consent that an agreed sum will be retained by the hospital in accordance with an existing agreement between the doctor and the hospital." [57GA, ch 92,§9]

135B.28 Hospital bill. The hospital bill shall properly include the charges for pathology and radiology services as long as the name of the doctor is stated and it fairly appears that the charge is for medical services. The said hospital bill shall also contain a statement substantially in the following form:

"The pathology and radiology charges are for medical services rendered by or under the direction of the doctor listed above and are collected by the hospital on behalf of the doctor, from which charges an agreed sum will be retained by the hospital in accordance with an existing agreement to which retention you consented at the time of your admission to the hospital. [57GA, ch 92,§10]

135B.29 Fees. All fees to be charged by the doctors for pathology and radiology services shall be mutually agreed upon by the hospital and the doctor. In the event dispute shall arise between the parties the matter shall be submitted to the joint conference committee for final determination. [57GA, ch 92,§11]

135B.30 Radiology and pathology fees. Fees for radiology and pathology services must be paid for as medical and not hospital services. In all cases where payment is to be made by a corporation organized pursuant to chapter 514, payment for radiology and pathology services shall be made by a medical service corporation and not by a hospital service corporation. [57GA, ch 92,§12]

135B.31 Exceptions. Nothing in this division is intended or should affect in any way that obligation of public hospitals under chapter 347 or chapter 380, as well as the state hospital at Iowa City, to provide medical treatment for indigent persons or tuberculous patients as provided in chapters 254 and 255, wherein medical treatment is provided by hospitals of that category to patients of certain entitlement, nor to the operation by the state of mental or other hospitals authorized by law. Nothing herein shall in any way affect or limit the practice of dentistry or the practice of oral surgery by a dentist. [57GA, ch 92,§13]

135B.32 Construction. Nothing herein shall deprive any hospital of its tax exempt or non-profit status. [57GA, ch 92,§14]

135C.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. "Nursing home" means any institution, place, building or agency which is devoted primarily to the maintenance and operation of facilities for the housing, for a period exceeding twenty-four hours, and for providing skilled nursing care and related medical services for, two or more nonrelated individuals who are not acutely ill and not in need of hospital care, but who, by reason of age, illness, disease, injury, convalescence or physical or mental infirmity need such care. Nursing home does not include hospitals or custodial homes.

2. "Custodial home" means any institution, place, building or agency which is devoted primarily to the maintenance and operation of facilities for the housing, for a period exceeding twenty-four hours, and for care in excess of food, shelter, laundry or services incident thereto for, two or more nonrelated individuals who are not in need of nursing care or related medical services but who, by reason of age, illness, disease, injury, convalescence or physical or mental infirmity are unable to care for themselves. Custodial home does not mean hospitals or nursing homes.

3. "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association or joint stock association; and includes trustee, receiver, assignee or other similar representative thereof.

4. "Governmental unit" means the state, or any county, municipality, or other political subdivision or any department, division, board or other agency of any of the foregoing. [C50, 54,§135C.1; 57GA, ch 93,§1]

135C.2 Purpose. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to promote and encourage adequate and safe care and housing for aged, infirm and convalescent persons by both public and private agencies by providing for the adoption and enforcement of rules, regulations and standards:

- For the care and treatment of individuals in nursing homes and custodial homes, and
- For the location, construction, maintenance and sanitary operation of such nursing homes and custodial homes which will promote safe and adequate care of individuals in such homes so as to further the health, welfare and safety of such individuals.

2. Rules, regulations and standards prescribed, promulgated and enforced under this chapter shall not be arbitrary, unreasonable or confiscatory and the department or agency prescribing, promulgating or enforcing such rules, regulations or standards shall have the burden of proof to establish that such rules, regulations or standards meet such requirements and are consistent with the economic problems and conditions involved in the care and housing of persons in nursing homes and custodial homes. [C50, 54,§135C.5; 57GA, ch 93,§2]

135C.3 Nature of care. An institution licensed as a nursing home shall provide an organized continuing twenty-four hour program of nursing care commensurate with the needs of the patients and under the immediate direction of a licensed physician, licensed registered nurse or licensed practical nurse licensed by the state of Iowa, whose combined training and supervised experience is such as to assure adequate and competent nursing direction. Medical and nursing care shall be under the direction of either a "house physician" or individually selected physicians, but surgery or obstetrical care shall not be provided within the home. Persons in active or acute stages of alcoholism, drug addiction, mental illness or communicable disease may not be admitted to any licensed nursing home. [57GA, ch 93,§3]

135C.4 Custodial homes. An institution licensed as a custodial home shall provide an organized continuous twenty-four hour program of care commensurate with the needs of the residents of the home and under the immediate direction of a person whose combined training and supervised experience is such as to ensure adequate and competent care. Persons who may not be admitted to nursing homes and persons in need of nursing care shall not be admitted to any licensed custodial home. [C50, 54,§135C.9; 57GA, ch 93,§4]

Persons not admitted to nursing homes, see §135C.3

135C.5 Rest homes, etc. Infirmaries operated in connection with custodial homes or with rest homes, homes for the aged, or boarding homes, may be licensed as nursing homes. No nursing home or custodial home shall be established or operated in any building in which other businesses are housed or other activities are carried on, the existence of which is determined by the department or the fire marshal to be detrimental to the proper care of the residents of the home. [57GA, ch 93,§5]

135C.6 License required. After July 4, 1957, no person or governmental unit acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish or operate a nursing home or custodial home in this state without a license for such home. [C50, 54, §135C.2; 57GA, ch 93,§6]

135C.7 Application—fees. Licenses shall be obtained from the state department of health. Applications shall be upon such forms and shall require such information as the said department may reasonably require, which may include affirmative evidence of compliance with such other statutes and local ordinances as may be applicable. Each application for license shall be accompanied by the license fee, which shall be refunded to the applicant if the license is denied, which fee shall be paid over into the state treasury and credited to the general fund if the license is issued. There shall be an annual license fee based upon the bed capacity of the home. Nursing homes having ten beds or less shall pay an annual fee of ten dollars, nursing homes having more than ten beds and not more than twenty-five beds shall pay an annual fee of twenty dollars, nursing homes having more than twenty-five beds and not more than seventy-five beds shall pay an annual fee of thirty dollars, nursing homes having more than seventy-five beds and not more than one hundred fifty beds shall pay an annual fee of forty dollars, and all other nursing homes shall pay an annual license fee of fifty dollars. Custodial homes having ten beds or less shall pay an annual fee of five dollars, custodial homes having more than ten beds and not more than twenty-five beds shall pay an annual fee of ten dollars, custodial homes having more than twenty-five beds and not more than seventy-five beds shall pay an annual fee of fifteen dollars, custodial homes having more than seventy-five beds and not more than one hundred fifty beds shall pay an annual fee of twenty dollars, and all other custodial homes shall pay an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars. [C50, 54,§§135C.3, 135C.4; 57GA, ch 93,§7]

135C.8 Scope of license. Licenses for nursing homes or custodial homes shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the state department of health. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises as prescribed by regulation of the department. Such licenses, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire one year after the date of issuance and shall be renewed annually upon an application by the licensee. Applications for such renewal shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee, at least thirty days prior to the expiration of such license. [C50, 54,§135C.5; 57GA, ch 93,§8]

135C.9 Inspection before issuance. Upon receipt of the license fee and the application for license as a nursing home or custodial home the department shall:

1. If the application is for a nursing home, cause an inspection to be made of the premises by the personnel of the department of health.

2. If the application is for a custodial home, forward the application to the county board of social welfare of the county in which the premises are located. The county board shall make, or cause to be made, an inspection of the premises. After making such inspection the county board shall return the application to the board of health together with its findings from said inspection as to whether the proposed custodial home meets the standards for such homes as prescribed in the published regulations of the state department of health.

3. With regard to both nursing homes and custodial homes the department shall not issue a license until the premises have been inspected by the state fire marshal or his deputy for such purpose, the appointment of whom, including members of municipal fire departments, is hereby authorized, and the department has received a certificate signed by such marshal or his deputy that the premises comply with the fire-hazard and fire-safety rules, regulations and standards of the department as promulgated by the fire marshal. [C50, 54,§135C.6; 57GA, ch 93,§9]

135C.10 Denial, suspension or revocation. The state department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend, or revoke a license in any case where the department finds that there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules, regulations or minimum standards promulgated hereunder, or for any of the following reasons:

1. Cruelty or indifference to the welfare of nursing home or custodial home patients.

2. Appropriation or conversion of the property of a nursing home or custodial home patient without his written consent or the written consent of his legal guardian.

3. Evidence that the moral character of the applicant, manager or supervisor of the home is not reputable.

4. Permitting, aiding, or abetting the commission of any illegal act in the nursing home or custodial home.

5. Inability or failure to operate and conduct the nursing home or custodial home in accordance with the requirements of this Act and the minimum standards, rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

6. Obtaining or attempting to obtain a license by fraudulent means or misrepresentation.

7. Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of drugs by the applicant, manager or supervisor of the nursing home or custodial home.

8. Securing the devise or bequest of the property of a patient in a nursing home or custodial home by undue influence. [C50, 54, §135C.6; 57GA, ch 93,§10]

135C.11 Notice—hearings. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be effected by mailing to the applicant or licensee by certified mail or by personal service of a notice setting forth the particular reasons for such action. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notice, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, shall give written notice to the department requesting a hearing, in which case the notice shall be deemed to be suspended. If a hearing has been requested, the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing before the department. At any time at or prior to the hearing the department may rescind the notice of the denial, suspension or revocation upon being satisfied that the reasons for the denial, suspension or revocation have been or will be removed. On the basis of any such hearing, or upon default of the applicant or licensee, the determination involved in the notice may be affirmed, modified, or set aside by the department. A copy of such decision shall be sent by certified mail, or served personally upon the applicant or licensee. The decision shall become final thirty days after it is so mailed or served, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, appeals the decision to the court, pursuant to section 135C.13.

The procedure governing hearings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with the rules promulgated by said department. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings, and all testimony shall be reported but need not be transcribed unless the decision is appealed pursuant to section 135C.13. A copy or copies of the transcript may be obtained by an interested party upon payment of the cost of preparing such copy or copies. Witnesses may be subpoenaed by either party and shall be allowed fees at a rate prescribed by the aforesaid rules. [C50, 54, §135C.6; 57GA, ch 93, §11]

135C.12 Conditional operation. In any case where the department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend or revoke a license, the department shall have the authority to conditionally issue or continue a license dependent upon the performance by the licensee of such reasonable conditions within such reasonable period of time as may be set by the department so as to permit the licensee to commence or continue the operation of the nursing home or custodial home pending his full compliance with this chapter or any regulations issued hereunder. In such case, if the licensee does not make diligent efforts to comply with such conditions as prescribed, the department may, under the proceedings hereinbefore prescribed, suspend or revoke the license. [57GA, ch 93, §12]

135C.13 Appeal. Any applicant or licensee who is dissatisfied with the decision of the commissioner of public health as a result of the hearing procedure provided herein may appeal the decision within thirty days after the mailing or serving of notice of the decision by filing a notice of appeal in the district court of the county where the home or proposed home is located, and by serving a copy of said notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon the department shall within thirty days certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision, including the transcript of the hearings on which the decision is based. The trial before the court shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked, as the case may be, may be submitted including new or additional evidence not submitted to the commissioner, and the court shall have power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the commissioner. Pending final disposition of the matter the status quo of the applicant or licensee shall be preserved. [57GA, ch 93, §13]

Referred to in §135C.11

135C.14 Rules and regulations. The department of health shall adopt, amend, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations setting minimum standards for nursing homes and custodial homes. Such rules, regulations and standards shall be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter and shall relate to:

1. Location and construction of the home, including plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation, and other housing conditions, which shall ensure the health, safety and comfort of residents and protection from fire hazards. Such rules, regulations and standards regarding location and construction of the home may impose requirements in excess of those provided in chapter 413 but shall not impose require-

2. Number and qualifications of all personnel, including management and nursing personnel, having responsibility for any part of the care given to residents;

135C.15 Time to comply. Any nursing home or custodial home which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules and regulations or minimum standards under this chapter shall be given reasonable time from the date of such promulgation to comply with such rules, regulations and minimum standards. [57GA, ch 93,§15]

135C.16 Inspections. The state department of health shall make or cause to be made such further inspections as it may deem necessary. The state department of health shall prescribe by regulation that any licensee or applicant for license desiring to make specific types of alterations or additions to its facility or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration or additions or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the state department of health for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to the compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. An inspector of the department of health, county board of social welfare, or fire marshal, may enter any licensed nursing home or custodial home or purported nursing home or custodial home without a warrant. [57GA, ch 93,§16]

135C.17 Duties of other departments. It shall be the duty of the state department of social welfare, state fire marshal, and the officers and agents of other governmental units to assist the state department of health in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, insofar as the functions of these respective offices and departments are concerned with the health, welfare, and safety of any person or persons cared for in nursing homes or custodial homes. [57GA, ch 93,§17]

135C.18 Employees. The state department of health may employ such assistants and inspectors as may be necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter. [57GA, ch 93,§18]

135C.19 Confidential information. Information received by the state department of health through reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized in this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in such manner as to identify individuals or nursing homes or custodial homes, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure or the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license. [57GA, ch 93,§19]

135C.20 Information distributed. The state department of health shall prepare, publish and send to licensed nursing and custodial homes an annual report of its activities and operations under this chapter and such other bulletins containing fundamental health principles and data as may be deemed essential to assure proper operation of nursing homes and custodial homes. [57GA, ch 93,§20]

135C.21 Penalty. Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any nursing home or custodial home without a license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six months, or both. Each day of continuing violation after conviction or notice from the department by certified mail of a violation shall be considered a separate offense. Any such person establishing, conducting, managing or operating any nursing home or custodial home without a license may be by any court of competent jurisdiction temporarily or permanently restrained therefrom in any action brought by the state. 135D.1 Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this chapter:

1. "Mobile home" shall mean any vehicle used or so constructed as to permit its being used as a conveyance upon the public streets or highways and duly licensable as such, and shall include self-propelled or nonself-propelled vehicles, so designed, constructed, reconstructed or added to by means of an enclosed addition or room in such manner as will permit the occupancy thereof as a dwelling or sleeping place for one or more persons, having no permanent foundation and supported by wheels, jacks or similar supports.

2. "Mobile home park" shall mean any site, lot, field or tract of land upon which two or more occupied mobile homes are harbored, either free of charge or for revenue purposes, and shall include any building, structure, tent, vehicle or enclosure used or intended for use as part of the equipment of such mobile home park.

The term "mobile home park" shall not be construed to include mobile homes, buildings, tents or other structures temporarily maintained by any individual, educational institution, or company on their own premises and used exclusively to house their own labor or students. [C54,§135D.1]

135D.2 Annual license for park. No person, firm or corporation shall establish, maintain, conduct or operate a mobile home park within this state without first obtaining an annual license therefor from the state department of health. Such annual license shall be issued for the calendar year applied for and shall expire at midnight on December 31 of such year. Any mobile home park located in more than one municipality shall be dealt with as two separate mobile home parks. [C54, §135D.2]

135D.3 Application for annual license. The application for annual license to operate and maintain a mobile home park shall be made to the state department of health, at such office and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations of that department; provided that when such mobile home park is located within a municipality, the application shall be filed with the local board of health who shall forward the same to the state department of health. [C54,§135D.3]

135D.4 Form of application for annual license. The application for such annual license shall be in writing and upon such form as the state department of health may by regulation provide, and shall include the following information:

1. The full name and address of the applicant or applicants or names and addresses of the partners if the applicant is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the officers if the applicant is a corporation, and present or last occupation of the applicant at the time of the filing of the application.

2. A legal description of the site, lot, field or tract of land upon which it is proposed to operate and maintain a mobile home park.

3. The proposed and existing facilities on and about such site, lot, field or tract of land for the proposed construction or alteration and maintaining of a sanitary community building for toilets, urinals, sinks, wash basins, slop sinks and showers, drains, laundry facilities, source of water supply; sewage, garbage and waste disposal.

4. The proposed method of lighting the structures and site, lot, field or tract of land upon which said mobile home park is to be located.

5. Designate the calendar months of the year in which applicant will operate said mobile home park.

6. Plans and drawings for new construction, including buildings, wells, and sewage disposal systems, not in existence at the time of the application. [C54,§135D.4]

Referred to in §135D.5

135D.5 Primary and annual license fees. The application for the first annual primary license shall be submitted with all plans and specifications enumerated in section 135D.4, and payment of twenty-five dollars for each mobile home park with facilities for twenty or fewer mobile homes, or fifty dollars for each mobile home park with facilities for more than twenty mobile homes, and shall be accompanied by an approved permit from the municipality whereon the park is to be located, or a statement that the municipality does not require an approved permit. In the event a mobile park has facilities for three or less mobile homes, the annual license fee shall not exceed ten dollars.

Each year thereafter, the license fee shall be twenty-five dollars. All annual license fees collected by the department of health shall be deposited with the state treasurer.

When the application is received by the state department of health, it shall promptly cause the mobile home park and appurtenances thereto to be inspected. When such inspection and report has been made and the state department of health finds that all requirements of this chapter and such conditions of health and safety as the state department of health may require have been met by the applicant, the state department of health shall forthwith issue such annual primary license in the name of the state. [C54,§135D.5]

Referred to in §135D.9

135D.6 Sanitary and safety facilities reported. During the pendency of the application for such annual primary license, any change in the sanitary or safety facilities of the intended mobile home park shall be immediately reported in writing to the state department of health to the office to which the application was made. If no objection is made by the state department of health to such a change in such sanitary or safety facilities within sixty days of the date such change is reported, it shall be deemed to have the approval of the state department of health. [C54,§135D.6]

135D.7 Permit from department of health. When the application has been approved, the state department of health shall issue a permit to the applicant to construct or make alterations pertaining to water and sewage disposal upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances thereto according to the plans and specifications presented with the approved application.

No approval of plans and specifications and issuance of a permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances by the state department of health shall be construed as having been approved for other than sanitation.

Such a permit does not relieve the applicant from securing building permits in municipalities having a building code; or from complying with any other municipal ordinance or ordinances, applicable thereto, and not in conflict with this statute. [C54,§135D.7]

135D.8 Denial of permit or license. If the application for a permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances thereto, or a primary license to operate the same, is denied by the state department of health, it shall so state in writing, giving the reasons for denying the application. If the objection can be corrected, the applicant may amend his application and resubmit it for approval, and if denied the applicant may within thirty days thereafter appeal from the decision of the state board of health to the district court of the county in which said mobile home park is located, and the case shall be tried in equity. [C54,§135D.8]

135D.9 Monthly fees. In addition to the primary and annual license fee provided for in section 135D.5, each licensee is hereby required to pay for each occupied mobile home occupying space within such licensed mobile home park a monthly fee as follows: For trailers up to thirty feet in length, two dollars per month or major fraction thereof; for trailers from thirty to thirty-five feet in length, two and one-half dollars per month or major fraction thereof; and for trailers over thirty-five feet in length, three dollars per month or major fraction thereof which monthly fee shall be paid by the licensee on or before the tenth day of the month, following the month for which such additional fee is due, in the manner herein prescribed. In computing the length herein above described, the total length therein set out shall expressly include the trailer hitch or such other permanent extensions as may be attached to said trailer used or designed for use as a trailer hitch. Provided, however, that the licensee of a mobile home park shall not be required to collect or pay a monthly fee, as herein provided, for any space occupied by a mobile home accompanied by an automobile, if such mobile home and automobile bear license plates issued by any other state other than the state of Iowa, for an accumulated period not to exceed ninety days in any twelve-month period; provided, further, that all occupants of the said mobile home with accompanying automobile are tourists or vacationists. When one or more persons occupying a mobile home bearing a foreign license are employed within the state of Iowa, there shall be no exemption for monthly fees. In the event that an occupied mobile home is not harbored in a mobile home park the owner of said mobile home shall pay a monthly fee in the amount and in the manner as has heretofore been provided in this section. Each mobile home park licensee is hereby required to keep an accurate and complete record of the number of units of mobile homes harbored in his park and to report such information on or before the tenth day of each month to the county assessor and the records of every such licensee shall be open to inspection by the county assessor. [C54,§135D.9]

If a majority of the members of the board vote in favor of finding the licensee guilty of any act or offense specified in sections 147.55 or 147.56, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and its decision based thereon. Such findings of fact and decision shall be filed with the commissioner of public health who shall within ten days from such filing enter an order revoking, suspending or placing on probation the license as directed by the board in its decision. A copy of the commissioner's order shall immediately be sent by registered mail to the licensee's last known post office address accompanied by a copy of the board's findings of fact and decision.

If the department deems that a due regard for the public health warrants it, it may enter into a written agreement with the owner, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe, for the separation and quarantine of such diseased animals. Subject to such conditions, the diseased animals may continue to be used for breeding purposes. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2669; C46, 50, 54, §165.4]

192.10 Purity. No wholesaler or retailer of milk or cream, except the producer, shall offer or expose for sale any milk or cream unless the same is produced from cows known to be free from tuberculosis, as evidenced by a certificate issued within one year by a licensed veterinarian, and unless the same shall have been pasteurized according to the established regulations of the department of agriculture.

No milk dealer, as defined in this chapter, shall sell or offer for sale at retail, in any city or town any milk or cream unless same has been fully pasteurized as defined in this chapter, except that Grade "A" raw milk need not be pasteurized.

1. Raw milk. Grade "A" raw milk, to be bottled or sold as such is milk coming from healthy cows; which cows have been subjected to an annual test for both tuberculosis and brucellosis by an accredited veterinarian and found negative; that has been kept at the proper temperature and has been handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption; the bacteria count of which does not exceed fifty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days and produced under the following conditions:

a. Milking barn or milking parlor shall be of a type that can be readily cleaned and be kept clean.

b. Cow's flanks and udders shall be clipped. Udders and teats shall be washed and disinfected before milking is begun.

c. A milk house, or milk room, shall be used and it shall be equipped to care for all milking equipment, the straining and cooling of all milk.

d. All milking equipment and containers shall be effectively cleaned, treated with a bactericidal solution and be stored where protected from contamination.

e. Bottling and capping shall be done only by mechanical equipment. Bottle lips shall be covered.

f. All milk must be effectively cooled.

g. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

Milk that is to be used for pasteurized grade "A" shall meet the production requirements as set forth for grade "A" raw milk excepting the bacteria plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, does not exceed two hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than five and one-half hours, or the resazurin reduction time of which to P seven-fourths is not less than two and three-fourths hours.

Provided, further that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourths hours or a resazurin reduction time to P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours.

Excepting further that cows furnishing milk which subsequently will be pasteurized for grade "A" pasteurized milk shall be exempted from the annual test for brucellosis but shall by January 1, 1955 be from herds certified by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa department of agriculture as following one of the three following plans of control:

Plan A. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. Slaughter all reactors, with indemnity payments as provided by state and federal regulations. Official calfhood vaccination to be optional with the herd owner.

Plan B. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. All reactors are to be identified and quarantined on farm provided that the owner may at his option retain such cattle for breeding purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department. If a calfhood official vaccinate reacts, the animal may be quarantined on the farm and retested within sixty days at the owner's expense. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months.

Plan C. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months. The herd must be composed entirely of official vaccinates.

Nothing contained herein relating to said plans of control shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation, providing for control of brucellosis by procedures other than the foregoing three plans of control so long as said ordinance or regulation shall embody plans and procedures approved by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa department of agriculture.

2. Pasteurized milk—grade "A". Grade "A" pasteurized milk is grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization which has been pasteurized, cooled, and placed in the final container in a milk plant approved by the secretary of agriculture which in all cases shows efficient pasteurization as evidenced by satisfactory phosphatase tests, and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds thirty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count or a coliform count exceeding ten per milliliter, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

Provided, that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourth hours or a resazurin reduction time of P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours and processed in plants complying with the following:

a. Processing room must be separated from rooms used for other purposes.

b. The plant must be kept in a sanitary condition.

c. All equipment must be of a recognized standard type; have adequate drip protection.

d. All milk must be carried between equipment in sanitary lines. Drip and overflow milk must be discarded.

e. All equipment must be disassembled daily and thoroughly cleaned and after reassembling must be subjected to bactericidal treatment before use by approved methods, unless other methods are approved by the department.

f. Toilets must be conveniently located and meet sanitary standards.

g. Hand-washing facilities of approved type, having hot water, soap and individual towels must be provided convenient to the processing room.

h. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

3. Pasteurized milk—grade not declared. Milk coming from healthy cows, that has been kept at the proper temperature and handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption. The bacteria standard plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, must not exceed five hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than three and one-half hours or a resazurin reduction time to seven-fourths of less than two hours; which shows efficient pasteurization; and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds seventy-five thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

The secretary of agriculture shall make needed regulations to promulgate production, processing and distribution standards for grade "A" pasteurized, pasteurized (grade not declared) and grade "A" raw milk which shall conform to United States Public Health Service Recommended Milk Ordinance and Code, 1953 Edition. Nothing contained in this chapter shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation providing inspections or imposing requirements higher than the minimum requirements provided in this chapter, provided, however, that no such municipal ordinance or regulation shall impose standards in conflict with those imposed by said United States Public Health Service Recommended Milk Ordinance and Code, 1953 Edition.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean compulsory grading of milk; such grades shall apply only to pasteurized and raw milk on which the grade is declared on the label. The state department of health shall annually survey and certify all milk labeled grade "A" pasteurized, and grade "A" raw, and, in the event a survey shows that the requirements for the production, processing and distribution of such grades are not being complied with, the fact thereof shall be certified by the state department of health to the secretary of agriculture, who shall withdraw the grade declared on the label. a. Primary noxious weed seeds are the seeds of perennial weeds such as those that not only reproduce by seed but also by underground roots or stems and which when established are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by ordinary good cultural practices. Primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

8. "Inoculant for leguminous plants" shall mean any bacterial culture, or material containing bacteria, that is represented as causing the formation of nodules and aiding the growth of leguminous plants by the fixation of nitrogen.

9. The term "labeling" includes all labels, and other written, printed, or graphic representations, in any form whatsoever, accompanying and pertaining to any seed whether in bulk or in containers, and includes invoices.

b. Lot number or other lot identification.

c. Origin, if known, of alfalfa, red clover. If the origin is unknown, that fact shall be stated.

d. Percentage by weight of all weed seeds.

culture a bond, in a penal sum of ten thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa, with sureties approved by the secretary of agriculture, for the use and benefit of any purchaser of seed holding such a contract who might have a cause of action of any nature arising from or out of such purchase or agreement, provided, however, that the aggregate liability of the surety to all such purchasers shall, in no event, exceed the sum of such bond; and provided, further, however, that any permit holder may, upon the filing of a notarized and detailed financial statement, request that such showing be accepted in lieu of the bond and ask to be exonerated from the filing of the bond herein required. If, after considering the financial statement and any other evidence submitted, the secretary of agriculture finds that the applicant permit holder is accountable for the performance of such contract obligations the notarized financial statement shall be filed in lieu of the bond and applicant shall be so advised by registered mail. 2. No person shall be subject to the penalties of subsection 1 of this section, for having violated provisions of this chapter if he establishes a guaranty or undertaking signed by, and containing the name and address of the person residing in the state of Iowa from whom he received in good faith the article, to the effect that such article is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, designating this chapter.

3. No publisher, radio-broadcast licensee, or agency or medium for the dissemination of an advertisement, except the manufacturer, packer, distributor, or seller of the article to which a false advertisement relates, shall be liable under this section by reason of the dissemination by him of such false advertisement, unless he has refused, on the request of the board

203A.6 Detained or embargoed articles.

1. Whenever a duly authorized agent of the board finds or has probable cause to believe, that any drug, device, or cosmetic is adulterated, or so misbranded as to be dangerous or fraudulent, within the meaning of this chapter, he shall affix to such article a tag or other appropriate marking, giving notice that such article is, or is suspected of being adulterated or misbranded and has been detained or embargoed, and warning all persons not to remove or dispose of such article by sale or otherwise until permission for removal or disposal is given by such agent or the court. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove or dispose of such detained or embargoed article by sale or otherwise without such permission.

2. When an article detained or embargoed under subsection 1 has been found by such agent to be adulterated or misbranded, he shall petition the judge of the municipal, or district court in whose jurisdiction the article is detained or embargoed for a libel for condemnation of such article. When such agent has found that an article so detained or embargoed is not adulterated or misbranded, he shall remove the tag or other marking.

The expense of such supervision shall be paid by the claimant. Such bond shall be returned to the claimant of the article on representation to the court by the board that the article is no longer in violation of this chapter, and that the expenses of such supervision have been paid. [C50, 54,§203A.6]

203A.7 Prosecution. It shall be the duty of each attorney general, or county attorney to whom the board reports any violation of this chapter, to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted in the proper courts without delay and to be prosecuted in the manner required by law. Before any violation of this chapter is reported to any such attorney for the insti-

[C50, 54,§203A.7]

203A.8 Minor violations. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the board to report for the institution of proceedings under this chapter, minor violations of this chapter, whenever the board believes that the public interest will be adequately served in the circumstances by a suitable written notice or warning. [C50, 54,§203A.8]

203A.9 What deemed adulterated. A drug or device shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. 2. If it purports to be or is represented as a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, and its strength differs from, or its quality or purity falls below, the standard set forth in such compendium. Such determination as to strength, quality, or purity shall be made in accordance with the tests or methods of assay set forth in such compendium, or in the absence of or inadequacy of such tests or methods of assay, those prescribed under authority of the federal Act. No drug defined in an official compendium shall be deemed to be adulterated under this paragraph because it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity thereof set forth in such compendium if its difference in strength, quality, or purity from such standard is plainly stated on its label. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States it will be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

3. If it is not subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this section and its strength differs from, or its purity or quality falls below, that which it purports or is represented to possess.

4. If it is a drug and any substance has been

(a) mixed or packed therewith so as to reduce its quality or strength; or (b) substituted wholly or in part therefor. [C50, 54,§203A.9]

203A.10 What deemed misbranded. A drug or device shall be deemed to be misbranded:

1. If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular.

2. If in package form unless it bears a label containing (a) the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor; and (b) an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count; provided, that under clause a of this subsection reasonable variations shall be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages shall be established, by regulations prescribed by the board.

3. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

4. If it is for use by man and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, codeine, heroin, marihuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphomethane, or any chemical derivative of such substance, which derivative has been by the board after investigation, found to be, and by regulations under this chapter, designated as, habit forming, unless its label bears the name and quantity or proportion of such substance or derivative and in juxtaposition therewith the statement "Warning—May be habit forming."

5. If it is a drug and is not designated solely by a name recognized in an official compendium unless its label bears (a) the common or usual name of the drug, if such there be; and (b) in case it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the common or usual name of each active ingredient, including the kind and quantity or proportion of any alcohol, and also including, whether active or not, the name and quantity or proportion of any bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilid, acetphenetidid, amidopyrine, antipyrine, atropine, hyoscyne, hyoscyamine, arsenic, digitalis and digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, thyroid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances, contained therein; provided, that to the extent that compliance with the requirements of clause a of this subsection is impracticable, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the board.

6. Unless its labeling bears (a) adequate directions for use; and (b) such adequate warnings against use in those pathological conditions or by children where its use may be dangerous to health, or against unsafe dosage or methods or duration of administration or application in such manner and form, as are necessary for the protection of users; provided that where any requirement of clause a of this subsection, applied to any drug or device, is not necessary for the protection of the public health, the board shall promulgate regulations exempting such drug from such requirements.

7. If it purports to be a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, unless it is packaged and labeled as prescribed therein; provided, that the method of packing may be modified with the consent of the board. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

8. If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health. No such regulation shall be established for any drug recognized in an official compendium until the board shall have informed the appropriate body charged with the revision of such compendium of the need for such packaging or labeling requirements and such body shall have failed within a reasonable time to prescribe such requirements.

9. (a) If it is a drug and its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading; or (b) if it is an imitation of another drug; or (c) if it is offered for sale under the name of another drug.

10. If it is dangerous to health when used in the dosage, or with the frequency or duration prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof.

11. If (a) it is a drug sold at retail and contains any quantity of aminopyrine, barbituric acid, pituitary, thyroid, or their derivatives, or (b) it is a drug or device sold at retail and its label bears a statement that it is to be dispensed or sold only by or on the prescription of a doctor, dentist or veterinarian; unless it is sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian who is licensed by law to administer such drug or device, and its label bears the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

12. A drug sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian (except a drug sold in the course of the conduct of a business of selling drugs pursuant to diagnosis by mail) shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if:

a. Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and

b. Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

13. If it is a drug for use by man and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, heroin, marihuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substances, or such substances as are dangerous and habit forming drugs which derivative or substances have been by the board after investigation found to be and by regulation under this chapter designated as dangerous and habit forming drugs, and the sale or dispensation (except on written prescriptions to be filled by pharmacists) of said drugs, derivatives, or substances is made by doctors or dentists incident to their practice, unless the doctor or dentist keeps a dated record of the name, and address of the patient, and amount and name of the drugs, substances or derivatives sold and dispensed each time, and the said sale or dispensation has not been delegated to any person, nurse or attendant. [C50, 54, §203A.10]

The application shall be accompanied by such samples of such drug and of the articles used as components thereof as the board may require, specimens of the labeling proposed to be used for such drug, and a fee of fifty dollars.

2. ## CHAPTER 208

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

General penalty, §189.19

208.1 Definitions.

208.2 Illuminating oil tested.

208.3 Sampling.

208.4 Method of testing.

208.5 Records of department.

208.6 Gasoline receptacles.

208.7 Commingled products.

208.8 Fees for inspection.

208.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. The term "illuminating oil" shall mean all products known or sold as kerosene and any petroleum product sold for use in atmospheric pressure wickfed illuminating apparatus.

2. The term "department" shall mean the department of agriculture of the state of Iowa and shall include the authorized agents of such department. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3191; C46, 50, 54, §208.1]

208.2 Illuminating oil tested. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or use any illuminating oil in this state unless it has first been sampled for testing by the department as hereinafter provided, nor if the same, upon being tested by the department as hereinafter prescribed, emits a combustible vapor at a temperature of less than one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C73, §3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13, §2508; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3197, 3202; C46, §§208.7, 208.12; C50, 54, §208.2]

208.3 Sampling. Illuminating oil stored in any tank at or adjacent to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, from which same is withdrawn for sale or use in this state or for distribution to destinations in this state, shall be sampled for testing by the department whenever the stock in such tank is replenished. After replenishment of any such stock, no withdrawals shall be made therefrom for sale or use in this state or for shipment or delivery to points in this state, until a true sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed. Every person storing illuminating oil in such tanks shall notify the department of each consignment by which the stock in such tanks will be replenished. Illuminating oil imported into this state (other than that placed in storage at refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state) shall not be unloaded or emptied from its original container or sold or offered for sale or used in this state until a sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed; provided that if such illuminating oil has been previously sampled or tested by the department, the same may be unloaded, emptied, sold, offered for sale or used. Every person receiving or about to receive illuminating oil so imported into this state which has not been previously sampled or tested as hereinafter provided for shall notify the department of the receipt or anticipated receipt of each consignment thereof.

If such replenishment or receipt of illuminating oil occurs during the usual business hours of any regular business day notice thereof (unless previously given stating the approximate date of anticipated replenishment or receipt) shall be given to the department forthwith. If such replenishment or receipt occurs outside usual business hours, such notice shall be given during the first usual business hour thereafter. For the purposes of this chapter, usual business hours shall be between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on any regular business day except Saturday and between 8 a. m. and 12 noon on Saturday. Sundays and legal holidays shall not be considered regular business days.

If, after the stock of illuminating oil has been replenished in any tank at a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, such replenished stock has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the first withdrawal therefrom is made, the custodian of such oil shall take a true sample thereof, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. If illuminating oil brought into this state (other than that imported by boat, barge, or pipe line for storage at a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the same is ready for unloading in this state, the receiver thereof shall take a true sample therefrom, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. All such samples shall be immediately placed in a clean container and sealed. Suitable containers and seals shall be furnished by the department. The person taking such sample or custodian shall record upon or with the seal thereon the date and the identity of the conveyance or container, from which the sample was taken, and the kind of product sampled, together with such other information as the department may reasonably require for the proper identification of such sample and the making of a proper inspection certificate. Such sample thus taken shall be mailed or held for delivery to the department as the department shall prescribe. After such sample is taken, such illuminating oil may be withdrawn, unloaded, sold, offered for sale, or used, the same as if sampled by the department.

The department may, upon agreement with the operator of any refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal outside this state, provide an inspector or appoint an agent to sample or to make tests of illuminating oil at such refinery or terminal for shipment or delivery into this state in which case the procedures prescribed in this chapter may be performed thereat in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such refinery or terminal was within this state. [C97, §§2504-2506; S13, §§2504, 2505, 2510-3a; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3193, 3198, 3199, 3208, 3209; C46, §§208.3, 208.8, 208.9, 208.18, 208.19; C50, 54, §208.3]

208.4 Method of testing. All tests provided for in this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the methods outlined by the American Society for Testing Materials—Method D-56 (A.S.T.M.) or with the Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester. If Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester is used, it shall be used in accordance with the following directions:

1. Remove the thermometer with its mountings from the oil cup.
2. Lift off the oil cup containing the flashing taper and fill open water bath with water to the mark upon the inside.
3. Take the wick holder from the oil cup, and fill this vessel with the oil to be tested, pouring in the oil at the place of the wick holder and noting the gauge mark at the thermometer hole, pouring very gradually as the surface approaches the gauge mark. The gauge mark consists of a small pendant shelf and the oil cup is properly filled when the upper surface of the oil just adheres to the lower surface of the gauge mark. Too much care cannot be taken at this point. Having ceased pouring, tip the cup so that the oil flows away from the gauge, then gradually restore it to the horizontal, and if the surface does not again adhere, add a little more oil.

4. Adjust the wick to the flashing taper to give a flame that does not exceed one-quarter of an inch in height and that exhibits as much blue at its base as yellow at its top.

5. Set the oil cup on top and into the water bath, return the flashing taper to its place, inverting the conical thimble around it, and return the thermometer to its place upon the cup. In doing this be sure that the casing of the latter is pushed down upon the cup as far as it will go.

6. Fill the lamp beneath half full of alcohol, light and place it beneath the water bath. Note the rate of increase in temperature as shown by the thermometer and adjust the wick to raise the temperature at the rate of two degrees per minute. When the temperature has reached eighty-five degrees, light the flashing taper and observe it closely. As soon as the oil under test has reached its "flashing point", the flame of this taper will be extinguished by the first "flash", and the point of attention is the temperature at the instant the flame of the taper is extinguished. This "flashing point" is the point of temperature at which the oil emits a combustible vapor.

The department shall determine which of the methods set out above shall be used in the inspection of kerosene, and shall by regulation prescribe the one method which shall be uniform in all kerosene inspections. [C97, §2504; S13, §2504; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3198; C46, §208.8; C50, 54, §208.4]

208.5 Records of department. The department shall keep such records as may be necessary for the purposes of this chapter of all tests made by it of illuminating oil. Such records shall be open at all reasonable times to public inspection. The department shall furnish to the person for whom such tests are made a certificate of inspection covering each sample tested showing the date of such test, the identity of the conveyance or container from which the sample was taken, the kind of illuminating oil therein, the result of the test and inspection. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §§2505, 2506; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3199, 3215; C46, §§208.9, 208.25; C50, 54, §208.5]

208.6 Gasoline receptacles. No person shall place gasoline or any other petroleum product having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit into any bottle, can, cask, barrel or other similar receptacle having a capacity in excess of one pint unless the same is painted bright red and is plainly marked with the word "gasoline" or with the warning "flammable—keep fire away" in red lettering of a height equal to at least one-tenth of the smallest dimension of such container. The foregoing shall not apply to vehicle cargo or supply tanks nor to underground storage nor to storage tanks from which such liquids are withdrawn for manufacturing purposes or are loaded into vehicle cargo tanks, but all outlet faucets or valves from such excepted containers shall be painted bright red and suitably tagged to indicate the nature of the product to be withdrawn therefrom. No person shall place illuminating oil in any container which is painted red nor shall illuminating oil be loaded or withdrawn through any piping which is used or designated as aforesaid for products having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C97,§2505; S13, §§2510-1a,-2a,-j,-k; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3194-3196; C46, §§208.4-208.6; C50, 54, §208.6]

208.7 Commingled products. If any illuminating oil is commingled with any other product the entire commingled products shall be deemed uninspected and untested, and it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or use any such commingled product for illuminating purposes within this state unless and until the same has been inspected and approved for sale or use by the department. [C73, §3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13, §2508; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3201-3203; C46, §§208.11-208.13; C50, 54, §208.7]

208.8 Fees for inspection. Illuminating oil inspections provided for in this chapter shall be deemed to be made for, and fees therefor at the rate of one cent per barrel (fifty gallons) on all illuminating oil received shall be paid by, the person who first received such illuminating oil in this state.

For the purposes of computing such fees, illuminating oil shall be deemed to be received in this state as follows:

1. If placed in storage at or adjacent to a refinery or a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state the same shall be deemed to be received when withdrawn from such storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than for transfer to other refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state and not before. When so withdrawn, such oil shall be deemed to be received by the person who was the owner thereof just prior to withdrawal. Provided that if such oil so withdrawn is shipped or delivered to a person engaged in the storage and distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck, such oil when so withdrawn shall be deemed to be received by such distributor.

2. If imported into this state (other than to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) the same shall be deemed to be received by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after the same is unloaded in this state.

On or before the last day of each calendar month, every person receiving illuminating oil in this state shall file with the department a report in such form and containing such information as the department shall prescribe as to each receipt or the total receipts of illuminating oil by such person in this state during the preceding calendar month and at the same time shall remit to the department the inspection fees thereon. Providing, however, that only one-half of the inspection fees shall be remitted on illuminating oil received and thereafter shipped or sold in rail tank car or motor transport lots directly to the federal government or on illuminating oil received and thereafter exported from this state, and if remitted in full, one-half said fees shall be refunded or credit therefor shall be allowed on subsequent reports. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §2505; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3209, 3210, 3213, 3214; C46, §§208.19, 208.20, 208.23, 208.24; C50, 54, §208.8] cooling liquid or to lower its freezing point; and (2) "person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies and associations. [C50, 54, §208A.1]

208A.2 What deemed adulterated. An anti-freeze shall be deemed to be adulterated: (1)

If it consists in whole or in part of any substance which will render it injurious to the cooling system of an internal combustion engine or will make the operation of the engine dangerous to the user; or (2) if its strength, quality, or purity falls below the standard of strength, quality, or purity under which it is sold. [C50, 54,§208A.2]

208A.3 What deemed misbranded. An antifreeze shall be deemed to be misbranded: (1) If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular; or (2) if in package form it does not bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight or measure on the outside of the package. [C50, 54,§208A.3]

208A.4 Inspection by department. Before any antifreeze shall be sold, exposed for sale, or held with intent to sell within this state, a sample thereof must be inspected by the department of agriculture. Upon application of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of antifreeze submitted, the department shall inspect the antifreeze submitted. If the antifreeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the department, and is not in violation of this chapter, the department shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such antifreeze in this state until the formula or labeling of the antifreeze is changed in any manner.

If the department shall at a later date find that the product to be sold, exposed for sale or held with intent to sell has been materially altered or adulterated, a change has been made in the name, brand or trade-mark under which the antifreeze is sold, or it violates the provisions of this chapter, the department shall notify the applicant and the permit shall be canceled forthwith. [C50, 54,§208A.4]

208A.5 Samples—analysis. The department of agriculture shall enforce the provisions of this chapter by inspections, chemical analysis, or any other appropriate methods. All samples for inspection or analysis shall be taken from stocks in the state or intended for sale in the state or the department through its agents may call upon the manufacturer or distributor applying for an inspection of an antifreeze to supply such samples thereof for analysis. The department, through its agents, shall have free access by legal means during business hours to all places of business, buildings, vehicles, cars and vessels used in the manufacture,
