Every such employer shall exhibit, on demand of the insurance commissioner, evidence of his compliance with this section; and if such employer refuses, or neglects to comply with this section, he shall be liable in case of injury to any workman in his employ under the common law as modified by statute, and in the same manner and to the same extent as though such employer had legally exercised his right to reject the provisions relating to compensation for injury to employees. 87.2 Notice of failure to insure. Any employer who fails to insure his liability as required herein shall keep posted a sign of sufficient size and so placed as to be easily seen by his employees in the immediate vicinity where working, which sign shall read as follows:

“NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

You are hereby notified that the undersigned employer has failed to insure his liability to pay compensation as required by law, and that because of such failure he is liable to his employees in damages for personal injuries sustained by his employees in the same manner and to the same extent as though he had legally exercised his right to reject the provisions relating to compensation.

(Signed)

Any employer coming under the provisions of this and chapters 85 and 86 who fails to comply with this section or to post and keep the above notice in the manner and form herein required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.2]

Punishment, §687.7

87.3 Maximum commission for renewal. No insurer of any obligation under this chapter shall either by himself or through another, either directly or indirectly, charge or accept as a commission or compensation for placing or renewing any insurance under this chapter, more than fifteen percent of the premium charged. [S13,§2477-m46; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.3]

87.4 Mutual companies. For the purpose of complying with this chapter, groups of employers by themselves or in an association with any or all of their workmen, may form insurance associations as hereafter provided, subject to such reasonable conditions and restrictions as may be fixed by the insurance commissioner; and membership in such mutual insurance organization as approved, together with evidence of the payment of premiums due, shall be evidence of compliance with this chapter. [S13, §2477-m42; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1470; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.4]

87.5 Benefit insurance. Subject to the approval of the industrial commissioner, any employer or group of employers may enter into or continue an agreement with his or their workmen to provide a scheme of compensation, benefit, or insurance in lieu of compensation and insurance; but such scheme shall in no instance provide less than the benefits provided and secured, nor vary the period of compensation provided for disability or for death, or the provisions of law with respect to periodic payments, or the percentage that such payments shall bear to weekly wages, except that the sums required may be increased; and the approval of the industrial commissioner shall be granted, if the scheme provides for contribution by workmen, only when it confers benefits, in addition to those required by law, commensurate with such contributions. [S13, §2477-m43; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1471; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.5]

87.6 Certificate of approval. When such scheme or plan is approved by the industrial commissioner, he shall issue a certificate to that effect, whereupon it shall be legal for such employer, or group of employers, to contract with any or all of his or their workmen to substitute such scheme or plan for the provisions relating to compensation and insurance during a period of time fixed by said department. [S13,§2477-m44; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.6]

87.7 Termination of plan — appeal. Such scheme or plan may be terminated by the industrial commissioner on reasonable notice to the interested parties if it shall appear that the same is not fairly administered, or if its operation shall disclose latent defects threatening its solvency, or if for any substantial reason it fails to accomplish the purpose of this chapter; but from any such order of said industrial commissioner the parties affected, whether employer or workman, may, upon the giving of proper bond to protect the interests involved, appeal to the district court in the same time and manner as appeals from actions of the industrial commissioner, which appeal shall be tried as an equitable action. [S13,§2477-m45;

C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.7]

Appeal to district court, §86.26

87.8 Insolvency clause prohibited. No policy of insurance issued under this chapter shall contain any provision relieving the insurer from payment if the insured becomes insolvent or discharged in bankruptcy during the period that the policy is in operation, or the compensation, or any part of it, is unpaid. [S13, §2477-m48; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1474; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.8]

87.9 Policy clauses required. Every policy shall provide that the workman shall have a first lien upon any amount becoming due on account of such policy to the insured from the insurer, and that in case of the legal incapacity, inability, or disability of the insured to receive the amount due and pay it over to the insured workman, or his dependents, said insurer shall pay the same directly to such workman, his agent, or to a trustee for him or his dependents, to the extent of any obligation of the insured to said workman or his dependents. [S13, §2477-m48; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1475; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.9]

87.10 Other policy requirements. Every policy issued by an insurance corporation, association, or organization to insure the payment of compensation shall contain a clause providing that between any employer and the insurer, notice to and knowledge of the occurrence of injury or death on the part of the insured shall be notice and knowledge on the part of the insurer; and jurisdiction of the insured shall be jurisdiction of the insurer, and the insurer shall be bound by every agreement, adjudication, award or judgment rendered against the insured. [S13, §2477-m47; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1476; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.10]

87.11 Relief from insurance. When an employer coming under this chapter furnishes satisfactory proofs to the insurance commissioner of such employer's solvency and financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits as by law provided and to make such payments to the parties when entitled thereto, or when such employer deposits with such commissioner security satisfactory to him and the industrial commissioner as guaranty for the payment of such compensation, such employer shall be relieved of the provisions of this chapter requiring insurance; but such employer shall, from time to time, furnish such additional proof of solvency and financial ability to pay as may be required by such insurance commissioner or industrial commissioner. [S13, §2477-m49; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.11]

The law as the same appears in section 85.4 and other sections of chapters 85, 86, and 87, including the words "except as provided in this chapter" as the same appear in section 85.3 all insofar as it relates to the right to reject the terms, provisions and conditions of the compensation law, shall not apply to any employer or employee engaged in the operation of coal mines, or production of coal, under any system of removing coal for sale, but all provisions of the law in chapters 85, 86, and 87 relating to compensation for injuries sustained arising out of and in the course of such employment shall be exclusive, compulsory and obligatory upon the employer and employee in such employment. [C35, §1477-g2; C39, §1477.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.13]

87.14 Mines — insurance required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, corporation or partnership to engage in the business of operating a mine under any system of removing coal for sale, or any work in connection therewith, or incident thereto, without first obtaining insurance covering compensation payments or obtaining relief therefrom as provided in chapters 85, 86, and 87, as herein amended. Any violation of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction of such offense the offender shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. Each day such offense is committed shall be regarded as a separate, wrongful act and may be prosecuted in one proceeding, but in separate counts, at the election of the prosecuting attorney. [C35, §1477-g4; C39, §1477.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §87.15]

87.16 Bond in lieu of insurance. Any employer who has more than five persons engaged in hazardous employment, except the employments recited in section 85.1, and who has failed, omitted, and neglected to secure the payment of compensation by carrying insurance or is not relieved therefrom as by the statutes in such cases provided, shall furnish a bond approved by the industrial commissioner, as to form and security, conditioned to secure and pay workmen's compensation in accordance with the law; such bond shall be in such amount as may be fixed by the industrial commissioner having due regard for the number of employees and considering the industrial experience in such industry as a class. [C31, 35,§1477-c1; C39,§1477.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.16]

Upon the receipt of information by the industrial commissioner of any employer failing to comply with sections 87.16 to 87.18, inclusive, he shall at once notify such employer by certified mail; that unless such employer comply with the requirements of law, legal proceedings will be instituted to enforce such compliance.

Unless such employer comply with the provisions of the law within fifteen days after the giving of such notice, the industrial commissioner shall report such failure to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring an action in a court of equity to enjoin the further violation. Upon decree being entered for a temporary or permanent injunction, a violation shall be a contempt of court and punished as provided for contempt of court in other cases. reject the compensation provisions of said chapter, or when any such employer has not rejected the terms and provisions thereof by filing and posting notices as provided in chapter 85, but has failed to insure his or its liability in one of the ways provided in this chapter, unless relieved from carrying such insurance as provided in section 87.11, then any such employer's employee who has not rejected the provisions of chapters 85, 86, and 87, in case of personal injury in the course of, and arising out of such employment, shall have the right to elect to collect compensation as provided in chapters 85 and 86, or collect damages at common law as modified by said chapter 85. If such injured employee or one having the right to elect for him, fails to make an election within sixty days, then and in that event it shall be conclusively presumed that the employee elected to accept compensation according to the schedule of compensation as provided in chapter 85. 87.24 Trial by jury. When an injured employee has exercised his or her right to enforce a compensation claim, based upon the provisions of sections 87.21, 87.22, and 87.23, and an appeal, as provided in section 86.26, is taken to the district court from a decision or award as made by the industrial commissioner, the employer and/or the insurance carrier, on the hearing on such appeal in the district court, shall have the right of trial by jury upon the issues of fact tendered and allowable within the terms of chapters 85, 86, and 87, and made of record in arbitration proceedings and/or upon hearing before the industrial commissioner. But the right of a trial by jury shall only apply to compensation cases within the purview of sections 87.21, 87.22, and 87.23. [C35, §1481-e1; C39,§1481.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§87.24] evidence, when certified by the industrial commissioner or his deputy, as provided in section 86.27, shall be the only competent, relevant and material evidence in the case which shall be read from the record thus certified, subject to the rulings of the trial judge upon objections made in the commissioner's court and urged in the district court. But the law of procedure and evidence, as provided in section 86.18, shall apply and govern insofar as reasonably applicable. has not been made and filed with the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken, within five days before the case is assigned for hearing, it shall be conclusively presumed that the party entitled thereto has waived a jury trial, and in such case the hearing of the case and appeals to the supreme court of Iowa shall, in all respects, be governed by the rules of law and procedure applicable to workmen's compensation cases to which sections 87.21, 87.22, and 87.23 do not apply. Manufacturers, manufacturing corporations, proprietors, or corporations operating any mercantile establishment, mill, workshop, business house, or mine, other than those subject to inspection by the state mine inspector, shall keep a careful record of any accident occurring to an employee while at work for the employer, when such accident results in the death of the employee or in such bodily injury as will or probably may prevent him from returning to work within two days thereafter. The said record shall at all times be open to inspection by an inspector of the bureau of labor. [S13, §2477-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§88.11]

Referred to in §88.18

88.12 Report of accidents—evidence. Within forty-eight hours after the occurrence of an accident, the record of which is required to be kept, a written report thereof shall be forwarded to the commissioner of labor and said commissioner may require further and additional report to be furnished him should the first report be by him deemed insufficient. No statement contained in any such report shall be admissible in any action arising out of the accident therein reported. The labor commissioner shall adopt and all persons shall use standard methods and forms for the records and reports required by this section and the preceding section. Such methods and forms shall be subject to the approval of the employment safety commission. The recommendations of recognized safety organizations such as the American Standards Association shall be given due consideration in adopting such methods and forms. [S13,§2477-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1493; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§88.12; 61GA, ch 107,§18]

Referred to in §88.18

88.13 Penalties. Any person, corporation, firm, agent, or superintendent violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as follows:

For a violation of any one of the provisions of sections 88.11 and 88.12, by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. [C73,§4064; C97, §4999, 5025, 5026; S13,§§2477-1a, 4999-a1, a2; SS15,§4999-a5; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§88.13; 61GA, ch 107,§21]

88.14 Assumption of risks. In all cases where the property, works, machinery, or appliances of an employer are defective or out of repair, and where it is the duty of the employer from the character of the place, work, machinery, or appliances to furnish reasonably safe machinery, appliances, or place to work, the employee shall not be deemed to have assumed the risk, by continuing in the prosecution of the work, growing out of any defect as aforesaid, of which the employee may have had knowledge when the employer had knowledge of such defect, except when in the usual and ordinary course of his employment it is the duty of such employee to make the repairs, or remedy the defects. Nor shall the employee under such conditions be deemed to have waived the negligence, if any, unless the danger be imminent and to such extent that a reasonably prudent person would not have continued in the prosecution of the work; but this statute shall not be construed so as to include such risks as are incident to the employment; and no contract which restricts liability hereunder shall be legal or binding. [S13, §4999-a3; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §88.14]

This section (88.14) was placed in this chapter by the Code editor simply because the chapter seemed to afford a logical location for the section. Said section was no part of 40ExGA, SF 43, which now appears as sections 88.1 to 88.13, inclusive. The importance of this last statement will appear by reading the last sentence of section 88.6, which sentence was an amendment injected into section 88.6 by the 40ExGA Railroad employees, §479.125

88A.4 Appointment by governor. The governor, with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate, shall appoint the members of the commission without regard to political affiliation. Any organization of employers or employees, including but not limited to the Iowa federation of labor and the Iowa manufacturers association, may submit to the governor nominations for members of the commission, together with information on the employment safety experience of each nominee. The governor shall give due consideration to such nominations when appointing members of the commission, but shall not be bound by such nominations.

1. Adopt and amend rules as hereinafter provided.
2. Hold hearings with respect to employment safety, proposed rules, and proposed amendments.
3. Hear and decide appeals as hereinafter provided.
4. Administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and take the testimony of any person under oath, in connection with any hearing or appeal.

If any rule of the commission shall conflict with any applicable rule or regulation adopted by any other state agency, board, bureau, officer, or department, the rule or regulation requiring the higher standard shall prevail if such rule or regulation is applicable to employment safety and is authorized by law.

All rules shall be enforced as provided in this chapter. [61GA, ch 107,§11]

88A.12 Public hearing and notice. Before adopting or amending any rule pursuant to section 88A.11, the commission shall hold a public hearing on the subject matter of the proposed rule or amendment. Any interested person may appear and be heard at such hearing, in person or by agent or counsel.

The labor commissioner shall maintain a mailing list for hearings, and at least thirty days before the hearing the labor commissioner shall mail a notice of the hearing by ordinary mail to each person on the mailing list. Such notice shall include a copy of the proposed rule or amendment. When the labor commissioner receives a written request from any person to be placed on the mailing list for hearings, the labor commissioner shall add such person to the mailing list. At the end of each calendar year, the labor commissioner may remove any person from the mailing list if the labor commissioner has not received from such person during the last three months of such calendar year a written request to be placed on the mailing list for the following year. The commissioner shall also make a reasonable effort to give the news media of the state notice of each hearing.

Failure to comply with the notice requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any rule unless such failure shall have been willful.

The provisions of this section are in addition to the requirements of chapter 17A. [61GA, ch 107,§12]

88A.13 Copies of rules. The labor commissioner shall mail a copy of any rule to any person requesting it, within ten days after receipt of such request. The labor commissioner shall cause all rules to be published in a convenient form. [61GA, ch 107,§13]

88A.14 Enforcement and inspections. It shall be the duty of the labor commissioner to supervise the enforcement of the provisions of the employment safety laws and all rules. The labor commissioner and inspectors of the department of labor shall have the right and power to enter and inspect any place of employment at any reasonable time in order to determine compliance with, and aid in the enforcement of, the employment safety laws and the rules, but in doing so shall not unreasonably interfere with the operations, business, or work of any employer or employee. The provisions of section 91.10 shall be applicable to this chapter.

The labor commissioner may accept, without cost to the state, inspections performed by insurance company inspectors or other qualified inspectors when evidence of their qualifications satisfactory to the labor commissioner has been furnished. No inspection of any place of employment made by insurance company inspectors or other inspector shall be the basis for the imposition of civil liability upon the inspector or upon the insurance company or other person employing the inspector; but this provision refers only to liability arising out of the making of an inspection and shall not be construed to deny or limit the liability of any employer to his employees or the liability of any insurance carrier on its insurance policy. [61GA, ch 107,§14]

88A.15 Violations. When the labor commissioner or his inspector shall discover or have reason to believe that any provision of the employment safety laws or any rule is being violated, he shall cause to be served on the person or persons violating the same, in the manner provided in the rules of civil procedure, a written notice to comply with the same within a reasonable time to be fixed in the notice, which time shall be not less than seven days nor more than thirty days, except that such time may be extended by the labor commissioner for good cause shown. The notice shall specify the violation.

In fixing the time in such notice and any extension of time, the labor commissioner shall take into consideration the nature of the failure or defect constituting the violation, the probable danger thereof, and the probable length of time and amount of labor required to correct the violation.

If the violation continues after the expiration of the period of time fixed in the notice, including any such extension of time, the labor commissioner may give written notice of the violation to the county attorney of the county in which the violation takes place. The county attorney shall promptly institute appropriate actions or proceedings, civil or criminal, to enforce the applicable statute or rule. If the county attorney does not do so promptly, the attorney general shall do so upon written request of the labor commissioner. Neither the labor commissioner nor the commission shall be required to post or furnish any bond or security in connection with any such action or proceedings.

Any person violating any provision of the employment safety laws or any rule after service of such notice in writing and after expiration of the period of time fixed in such notice, including any such extension of time, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars. If such violation continues after such conviction, each day of such continuing violation shall be a new and separate offense.

Before proceeding under this section, the labor commissioner may first attempt to obtain voluntary compliance whenever in his judgment it is in the public interest to do so. [61GA, ch 107,§15]

Referred to in §88A.17

88A.16 Appeal. Any person aggrieved by any action of the labor commissioner or his inspector in giving a written notice to comply pursuant to the preceding section or any action of the labor commissioner with respect to any requested extension of time under the preceding section, may appeal to the commission by causing a written notice of appeal to be served on the labor commissioner in the manner provided in the rules of civil procedure, within ten days after the action of the labor commissioner appealed from. The notice of appeal shall state the action appealed from and the reasons for and grounds of the appeal. The labor commissioner shall promptly notify the chairman of the commission, who shall set a time and place for a hearing on the appeal and shall cause at least five days written notice thereof to be given to all interested parties. The commission shall affirm the action of the labor commissioner unless the commission shall find, by the affirmative vote of at least five members of the commission, that the action of the labor commissioner was not reasonable under the circumstances or was not authorized by the employment safety laws or rules. The commission shall immediately give written notice of its decision to all parties. The enforcement proceedings with respect to which the appeal is taken shall be suspended until the decision of the commission.

The appellant or the labor commissioner may obtain judicial review of the commission's decision by commencing an action in the district court in the county in which the alleged violation occurred, within thirty days after the commission's decision. The rules of civil procedure shall be applicable, and the district court shall hear and decide the matter de novo.

An appeal may be taken to the supreme court as in other cases. [61GA, ch 107,§16]

Referred to in §88A.17

88A.17 Imminently dangerous machinery or equipment. When the labor commissioner or his inspector shall discover or have reason to believe that any provision of the employment safety laws or any rule is being violated by a piece of machinery or equipment which is so defective as to cause imminent danger to life, health, or safety, this section shall apply rather than section 88A.15. The labor commissioner or his inspector shall cause to be served on the person or persons violating the same, in the manner provided in the rules of civil procedure, a written notice to comply with the same and to refrain from using such piece of machinery or equipment until such defect is corrected. The notice shall specify the defect and violation*. Pending the service of the written notice, the labor commissioner or his inspector may give oral notice to refrain from using such piece of machinery or equipment until such defect is corrected, but such oral notice shall not be effective for more than two hours.

If such piece of machinery or equipment violates any provision of the employment safety laws or any rule, any person using such piece of machinery or equipment in violation of such notice shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in section 88A.15. Such violation shall be prosecuted as provided in section 88A.15.

Any person aggrieved by any action of the labor commissioner or his inspector under this section may appeal to the commission as provided in section 88A.16, or may commence an action in the district court in the county in which the alleged violation occurred. The written notice under this section shall not be suspended during such proceedings unless an injunction is granted by the court. [61GA, ch 107,§17]

89.2 Inspection made—certificate.

1. It shall be the duty of the state boiler inspector, to inspect or cause to be inspected internally and externally, at least once every twelve months, except as otherwise provided in this section, in order to determine whether all such equipment is in a safe and satisfactory condition, and properly constructed and maintained for the purpose for which the same is used, all steam boilers, tanks, jacket kettles, generators, all steam boilers used for heating purposes carrying a pressure of not more than fifteen pounds per square inch gauge and located in places of public assembly, all hot water heating boilers carrying a pressure of not more than thirty pounds per square inch gauge located in places of public assembly and other appurtenances used in this state for generating or transmitting steam for power, or for using steam under pressure for heating or steaming purposes, in order to determine whether said equipment is in a safe and satisfactory condition, and properly constructed and maintained for the purpose for which the same is used.

2. The labor commissioner and the boiler inspectors shall have the right and power to enter any building or structure, public or private, for the purpose of inspecting any equipment covered by this chapter or gathering information with reference thereto.

4. The owner or user of any equipment covered in this chapter, or persons in charge of same, shall not allow or permit a greater pressure in any unit than is stated in the certificate of inspection issued by the inspector.

5. The boiler inspector is hereby empowered to inspect boilers and tanks for other than steam pressure, manufactured in Iowa, when requested by the manufacturer.

6. Each fired steam boiler of one hundred thousand pounds per hour or more capacity, used or proposed to be used within this state, which has internal continuous water treatment under the direct supervision of a graduate engineer or chemist, or one having equivalent experience in the treatment of boiler water where the said water treatment is for the purpose of controlling and limiting serious corrosion and other deteriorating factors, and with respect to which boiler the state boiler inspector has determined that the owner or user has complied with the record-keeping requirements hereafter prescribed, shall be inspected at least once every two years internally and externally while not under pressure, by the state boiler inspector or by one of the deputy inspectors as to its construction, installation, condition and operation. If at any time a hydrostatic test shall be deemed necessary to determine the safety of a boiler, the same shall be made, under the supervision of the inspector, by the owner or user thereof.

Not more than twenty-four months shall elapse between internal inspections, and external inspections while under pressure shall also be made at no greater intervals.

The owner or user of such boiler shall keep available for examination by the state boiler inspector or by any of the deputy inspectors accurate records showing the date and actual time such boiler is out of service and the reason or reasons therefor, and such chemical physical laboratory analyses of samples of the boiler water taken at regular intervals of not more than forty-eight hours of operation as will adequately show the condition of such water and any elements or characteristics thereof which are capable of producing corrosion or other deterioration of the boiler or its parts. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §89.2; 60GA, ch 92, §1, ch 93, §2; 61GA, ch 108, §1]

Unfired steam pressure vessels not exceeding the following limitations are not required to be reported to the bureau of labor:

1. A vessel not greater than five cubic feet in volume and not having a pressure greater than two hundred fifty pounds per square inch.

2. A vessel not greater than one and one-half cubic feet in volume with no limit on pressure.

Internal inspection shall not be required on unfired steam pressure vessels where they have been manufactured without inspection plate and where it would be necessary for them to be drilled in order to be inspected as required in section 89.2. The above-mentioned unfired pressure vessels must be reported to the bureau of labor and certified by the inspector that in his judgment they are safe and in satisfactory condition for the purpose for which they are used. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §89.3; 61GA, ch 108, §2]

89.4 Rules—records.

2. The state boiler inspector shall investigate and report to the commissioner the cause of any boiler explosion that may occur in the state, the loss of life, injuries sustained, and estimated loss of property, if any; and such other data as may be of benefit in preventing a recurrence of similar explosions.

2. The state boiler inspector shall notify the user of any equipment or appurtenance found to be unsafe or unfit for operation in writing, setting forth the nature and extent of such defects and condition. Said notice shall indicate whether or not said equipment shall be used without making repair or replacement of defective parts, or whether or how said equipment may be used in a limited capacity before repairs or replacements are made, and the state boiler inspector may permit the user a reasonable time to make such repairs or replacements. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §89.6; 61GA, ch 108, §4]

89.7 Fees for inspection. An inspection fee of each boiler or pressure unit inspected by the boiler inspector according to the terms of this chapter shall be paid by the owner or user as follows:

SHORT TITLE

96.1 Name. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Employment Security Law." [C39,§1551.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§96.1]

DECLARATION OF STATE PUBLIC POLICY

96.2 Guide for interpretation. As a guide to the interpretation and application of this chapter, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which now so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and his family. The achievement of social security requires protection against this greatest hazard of our economic life. This can be provided by encouraging employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good, and the general welfare of the citizens of this state require the enactment of this measure, under the police powers of the state, for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own. [C39, §1551.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §96.2]

BENEFITS

96.3 How paid and amounts.

1. Payment. Twenty-four months after the date when contributions first accrue under this chapter, benefits shall become payable from the fund; provided, that wages earned for services defined in section 96.19, subsection 7, paragraph "g" (3), irrespective of when performed, shall not be included for purposes of determining eligibility, under section 96.4 or full-time weekly wages, under subsection 4 of this section, for the purposes of any benefit year commencing on or after July 1, 1939, nor shall any benefits with respect to unemployment occurring on and after July 1, 1939, be payable under subsection 5 of this section on the basis of such wages. All benefits shall be paid through employment offices in accordance with such regulations as the commission may prescribe.

2. Total unemployment. Each eligible individual who is totally unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week benefits in an amount which shall be equal to his weekly benefit amount.

3. Partial unemployment. Each eligible individual who is partially unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such weekly benefits in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less the total amount of wages earned in such week reduced by six dollars.

4. Determination of benefits. An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be an amount equal to one twenty-second of his total wages in insured work paid during that quarter of his base period in which such total wages were highest, subject to the following limitation: The commission shall determine annually a maximum weekly benefit amount by computing fifty percent of the average weekly wage paid to employees in insured work which shall be effective the first day of the first full week in July. Such maximum weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of one dollar shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of one dollar.

Such computation shall be made by determining gross wages as paid for insured work by employers in each preceding twelve-month period ending on December 31 and dividing said gross wages by a figure resulting from fifty-two times the average of mid-month employment reported by employers for the same period.

5. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to any eligible individual during any benefit year shall not exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to his account during his base period, or twenty-six times his weekly benefit amount, whichever is the lesser. The commission shall maintain a separate account for each individual who earns wages in insured work. The commission shall compute wage credits for each individual by crediting his account with one-third of the wages for insured work paid him during his base period. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period wage credits in his account which have not been previously charged hereunder, in the same chronological order as the wages on which such wage credits are based were paid.

Referred to in §96.20, subsection 2

6. Part-time workers.

a. As used in this subsection the term "part-time worker" means an individual whose normal work is in an occupation in which his services are not required for the customary scheduled full-time hours prevailing in the establishment in which he is employed, or who, owing to personal circumstances, does not customarily work the customary scheduled full-time hours prevailing in the establishment in which he is employed.

b. The commission shall prescribe fair and reasonable general rules applicable to part-time workers, for determining their full-time weekly wage, and the total wages in employment by employers required to qualify such workers for benefits.

7. Canning industry workers. An individual employed by an employer engaged in the canning or freezing of fresh perishable fruits or vegetables and employed solely within the canning season or seasons, as determined by the commission, shall not be eligible to receive benefits based on such employment unless he earns wages of two hundred dollars or more for employment performed for one or more other employers during his base period. [C39, §1551.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §96.3; 61GA, ch 110, §§1, 2]

Referred to in §96.19, subsection 13; and §96.20, subsection 2

BENEFIT ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS

96.4 Required findings. An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the commission finds that:

1. He has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report at an employment office in accordance with such regulations as the commission may prescribe.

2. He has made a claim for benefits in accordance with the provisions of section 96.6, subsection 1.

3. He is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work.

4. Prior to any week, in any benefit year, for which he claims benefits he has been totally unemployed for a waiting period of one week (and for the purposes of this subsection, two weeks of partial unemployment shall be deemed to be equivalent to one week of total unemployment). Such weeks of total or partial unemployment or both need not be consecutive. The one-week waiting period shall be waived and become compensable after unemployment during which benefits are payable for five consecutive weeks. No week shall be counted as a week of total unemployment for the purposes of this subsection:

a. If benefits have been paid with respect thereto;

b. Unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto in all respects except for the requirements of subsections 2 and 5 of this section;

c. Unless it occurs after benefits first could become payable to any individual under this chapter.

5. He has been paid wages for insured work of not less than two hundred dollars in that calendar quarter in his base period in which his wages were the highest, and also he has been paid wages for insured work of not less than one hundred dollars in a calendar quarter in his base period other than the calendar quarter in which his wages were the highest; and provided further if he has drawn benefits in any benefit year, he must during or subsequent to that year, be paid wages in insured work totaling one hundred dollars as a condition to receive benefits in the next benefit year. [C39,§1551.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§96.4; 61GA, ch 111,§1]

Referred to in §§96.3, 96.19, subsection 13; and §96.20, subsection 2

DISQUALIFICATION FOR BENEFITS

96.5 Causes. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If he has left his work voluntarily without good cause attributable to his employer, if so found by the commission. But he shall not be disqualified if the commission finds that:

a. He left his employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting better employment, which he did accept, and that he remained continuously in said new employment for not less than six weeks;

b. He has been laid off from his regular employment and has sought temporary employment, and has notified his temporary employer that he expected to return to his regular job when it became available, and the temporary employer employed him under these conditions, and the worker did return to his regular employment with his regular employer as soon as it was available, provided, however, if such temporary employment proves to be unsuitable, (if so found by the commission), he shall forfeit only the credits he may have earned in said unsuitable employment.

c. He left his employment for the necessary and sole purpose of taking care of a member of his immediate family who was then injured or ill, and if after said member of his family sufficiently recovered, he immediately returned to and offered his services to his employer, provided, however, that during such period he did not accept any other employment.

d. He left his employment because of illness or injury upon the advice of a licensed and practicing physician, and upon knowledge of the necessity for such absence immediately notified his employer, or his employer consented to such absence, and after recovering from such illness or injury when recovery is certified by a licensed and practicing physician, he returned to his employer and offered his service and his regular work or comparable suitable work was not available, if so found by the commission, provided he is otherwise eligible.

e. He left his employment upon the advice of a licensed and practicing physician, for the sole purpose of taking a member of his family to a place having a different climate, during which time he shall be deemed unavailable for work, and notwithstanding during such absence he secures temporary employment, and returned to his regular employer and offered his services and his regular work or comparable work was not available, provided he is otherwise eligible.

f. He is the principal support of his family, or is a widow, widower, legally separated from his spouse, or a single person, and he left his employing unit for not to exceed ten working days, or such additional time as may be allowed by his employer, for compelling personal reasons (if so found by the commission), and prior to such leaving had informed his employer of such compelling personal reasons, and immediately after such compelling personal reasons ceased to exist he returned to his employer and offered his services and his regular or comparable work was not available, provided he is otherwise eligible; except that during the time he is away from his work because of the continuance of such compelling personal reasons, he shall not be eligible for benefits.

g. However, an individual who has left his employment without good cause attributable to his employer, except as provided in paragraphs "a" through "f" hereof, shall forfeit only those credits acquired by him during that period of employment that was quit.

h. "Principal support" shall mean exclusive of the earnings of any child of the wage earner.

Referred to in §96.22

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the commission shall find that he has been discharged for misconduct in connection with his employment, he shall forfeit four to nine weeks benefits.

3. Failure to accept work. If the commission finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the commission or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment, if any.

a. In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commission shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence, and any other factor which it finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this subsection.

b. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this chapter to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) If as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

4. Labor disputes. For any week with respect to which the commission finds that his total or partial unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which he is or was last employed, provided that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the commission that:

a. He is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and

b. He does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs, any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute.

Provided, that if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises.

Referred to in §96.6, subsection 2

5. Other compensation. For any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or is entitled to receive payment in the form of:

a. Wages in lieu of notice;

b. Compensation for temporary disability under the workmen's compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States;

c. Old-age benefits under title II of the Social Security Act (42 USC, chapter 7), as amended, or similar retirement payments under any Act of Congress; provided that the commission shall withhold payments under this chapter if it has reason to believe a claimant is entitled to benefits under title II of the Social Security Act of the United States or any similar payments under any other Act of Congress, until such time as the claimant files with the commission satisfactory evidence that he is not entitled to such benefits;

d. Benefits paid as retirement pay or as private pension.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraphs "a", "b", "c", or "d", of this subsection were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the commission shall recover any such excess amount of benefits paid by the commission for such period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid, provided further, however, that retirement pay or compensation for service-connected disabilities or pensions based on military service, by the beneficiary, with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, shall in no way disqualify any individual, otherwise qualified, from any of the benefits contemplated herein.

6. Benefits from other state. For any week with respect to which or a part of which he has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States, provided that if the appropriate agency of such other state or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply.

a. When an employer makes a payment or becomes obligated to make a payment to an individual for vacation pay, or for vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, such payment or amount shall be deemed "wages" as defined in subsection 13 of section

CLAIMS FOR BENEFITS

96.6 Filing—determination—appeal.

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commission may prescribe.

Referred to in §§96.4, subsection 2, 96.19, subsection 16

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the commission, and hereinafter referred to as a deputy, shall promptly examine the claim and, on the basis of the facts found by him, shall either determine whether or not such claim is valid, and if valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and the maximum duration thereof, or shall refer such claim or any question involved therein to an appeal tribunal or to the commission, which shall make its determinations with respect thereto in accordance with the procedure described in subsection 3 of this section, except that in any case in which the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of section 96.5 subsection 4, the deputy shall promptly transmit his full finding of fact with respect to that subsection to the commission, which, on the basis of the evidence submitted and such additional evidence as it may require, shall affirm, modify, or set aside such findings of fact and transmit to the deputy a decision upon the issues involved under that subsection. The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and any other interested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. Unless the claimant or other interested party, within five calendar days after the delivery of such notification, or within seven calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from such decision, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period prior to the final determination of the commission, shall be paid only after such determination; provided, that if an appeal tribunal affirms a decision of a deputy, or the commission affirms a decision of an appeal tribunal, allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but if such decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid.

3. Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. The parties shall be duly notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the commission, unless within ten days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated pursuant to subsection 5 of this section.

4. Appeal tribunals. To hear and decide disputed claims, the commission shall establish one or more impartial appeal tribunals consisting in each case of either a salaried examiner or a body consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a salaried examiner, who shall serve as chairman, one of whom shall be a representative of employers and the other of whom shall be a representative of employees; each of the latter two members shall serve at the pleasure of the commission and be paid a fee, as fixed by the commission per day of active service on such tribunal, plus necessary expenses. No person shall participate on behalf of the commission in any case in which he is an interested party. The commission may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of any member of an appeal tribunal. The chairman shall act alone in the absence or disqualification of any other member and his alternates. In no case shall the hearings proceed unless the chairman of the appeal tribunal is present.

5. Commission review. The commission may on its own motion affirm, modify, or set aside any decision of an appeal tribunal on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate further appeals before it. The commission shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of an appeal tribunal and by the deputy whose decision has been overruled or modified by an appeal tribunal. The commission may remove to itself or transfer to another appeal tribunal the proceedings on any claim pending before an appeal tribunal. Any proceeding so removed to the commission shall be heard in accordance with the requirements of subsection 3, by the full membership of the commission, or, in the absence or disqualification of the labor representative or the employer representative on the commission, by the public representative acting alone. The commission shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

6. Procedure. The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with rules prescribed by the commission for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not such rules conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

7. Witness fees. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees and necessary traveling expenses at a rate fixed by the commission, which fees shall be charged to the unemployment compensation administration fund of the commission.

8. Appeal to courts. Any decision of the commission in the absence of an appeal therefrom as herein provided shall become final ten days after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted his remedies before the commission as provided by this chapter. The commission shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial action involving any such decision, and may be represented in any such judicial action by any qualified attorney who is a regular salaried employee of the commission or who has been designated by the commission for that purpose, or at the commission's request, by the attorney general.

9. Court review. Within ten days after the decision of the commission has become final, any party aggrieved thereby may secure judicial review thereof by commencing an action in the district court of the county in which the claimant was last employed or resides, provided that if the claimant does not reside in the state of Iowa the action shall be brought in the district court of Polk county, Iowa, against the commission for the review of its decision, in which action any other party to the proceeding before the commission shall be made a defendant. In such action, a petition which need not be verified, but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served on a member of the commission or upon such person as the commission may designate and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there shall be left with the party so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants and the commission shall forthwith mail one such copy to each such defendant. The commission shall within sixty days after notice of appeal has been served on the commission certify and file with said district court all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with its findings of fact and decision therein, or so much thereof as may be agreed upon by the parties to such appeal. Such agreement as to the records, papers and documents to be certified shall be in writing, signed by the parties to the appeal, and shall be filed with the commission. A copy of such agreement shall be filed with the transcript of the records filed with the district court. With such transcript the commission shall file its answer. The transcript as certified and filed by the commission shall be the record on which the appeal shall be heard, and no additional evidence shall be heard. In the absence of fraud any finding of fact by the commission, after notice and hearing as herein provided, shall be binding upon the court on appeal, when supported by substantial and competent evidence. The commission may also, in its discretion, certify to such courts, questions of law involved in any decision by it. Such actions, and the questions so certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workmen's compensation law of this state.

10. Decision on appeal. Any order or decision of the commission may be modified, reversed, or set aside on one or more of the following grounds and on no other:

a. If the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.

b. If the order or decree was procured by fraud.

c. If the facts found by the commission do not support the order or decree.

d. If there is not sufficient competent evidence in the record to warrant the making of the order or decision.

11. Judgment or order remanding. When the district court, on appeal, reverses or sets aside an order or decision of the commission, it may remand the case to the commission for further proceedings in harmony with the holdings of the court, or it may enter the proper judgment, as the case may be. Such judgment or decree shall have the same force and effect as if action had been originally brought and tried in said court.

12. Appeal. An appeal may be taken from any final order, judgment, or decree of the district court to the supreme court of Iowa, in the same manner, but not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as is provided in civil cases. It shall not be necessary in any judicial proceeding under this section, to enter exceptions to the rulings of the commission and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. Upon the final determination of such judicial proceeding, the commission shall enter an order in accordance with such determination. A petition for judicial review shall not act as a supersedeas or stay unless the commission shall so order. [C39,§1551.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§96.6]

b. Such contributions shall become due and be paid to the commission for the fund at such times and in such manner as the commission by regulation prescribes.

c. In the payment of any contribution the fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

d. Contributions required from an employer shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages paid to individuals in his employ.

2. Rate of contribution by employers. Each employer shall pay contributions equal to the following percentages of wages payable by him with respect to employment:

a. One and eight-tenths percent with respect to employment for the six months period beginning July 1, 1936, provided that if the total of such contributions at such one and eight-tenths percent rate equals less than nine-tenths of one percent of the annual payroll of any employer for the calendar year 1936, such employer shall pay, at such time as the commission shall prescribe, an additional lump sum contribution with respect to employment for such six months period beginning July 1, 1936, equal to the difference between nine-tenths of one percent of his annual payroll for the calendar year 1936 and the total of his contributions at such one and eight-tenths percent rate for such six months period beginning July 1, 1936, and provided further that in no event shall employers' contributions at such one and eight-tenths percent rate exceed nine-tenths of one percent of his annual payroll for the calendar year 1936;

3. Future rates based on benefit experience.

a. (1) The commission shall maintain a separate account for each employer and shall credit his account with all contributions which he has paid or which have been paid on his behalf.

(2) Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of such individual occurred. Provided, that in any case in which a claimant to whom such benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time he is receiving such benefits, and he is receiving the same employment from such employer that he received during his base period, then no charge of benefits paid to such claimant shall be made against the account of such employer.

(3) The amount of benefits so charged in any calendar quarter against the account of any employer shall not exceed the amount of such individual's wage credits based on employment with such employer during such quarter.

(4) The commission shall by general rule prescribe the manner in which benefits shall be charged against the accounts of several employers for whom an individual performed employment during the same calendar quarter.

(5) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant any employer or the individuals in his service prior claims or rights to the amounts paid by him into the fund either on his own behalf or on behalf of such individuals.

(6) As soon as practicable after the close of each calendar quarter, and in any event within forty days after the close of such quarter, the commission shall notify each employer of the amount that has been charged to his account for benefits paid during such quarter. This statement to the employer shall show the name of each claimant to whom such benefit payments were made, the claimant's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to such claimant. Any employer who has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to such claimants may within thirty days after the receipt of such statement appeal to the commission for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the claimant to receive such benefits. The commission may hear the case or may refer the same to an appeal tribunal for hearing. In either case both the employer and the claimant shall receive notice of the time and place of such hearing.

(7) Any employer may at any time make voluntary payments to his account in excess of the other requirements of this chapter, and all such payments shall be considered on any computation date as contributions required under the provisions of this chapter if they are paid by the employer not later than the next December 31 after such computation date.

b. In any case in which the enterprise or business for which contributions have been paid has been sold or otherwise transferred to a subsequent employing unit, or in any case in which one or more employing units have been reorganized or merged into a single employing unit and the successor employer continues to operate such enterprise, such successor employer shall assume the position of the predecessor employer or employers with respect to such predecessors' payrolls, contributions, accounts and contribution rates to the same extent as if there had been no change in the ownership or control of such enterprise or business.

In determining each employer's rate of contribution for the calendar year 1945, and for each year thereafter, such employer shall be given full credit for the payrolls, contributions, accounts and contribution rates of his predecessor employer or employers to the same extent as if there had been no change in the organization or the ownership of the business. Provided, that in any case in which such sale, transfer, merger or reorganization has taken place in any year after the predecessor employer's rate of contribution (hereafter called rate) has been determined for such year the employer's rate for the remainder of such year, shall, upon his application to the commission be determined in the following manner:

(1) If the successor employer has no rate or if he has a rate and it is the same rate as that of his predecessor employer or employers, their rates being the same rate, his rate shall be that of the predecessor employer or employers.

(2) If the rate or rates of the predecessor employers are not the same rate, and that of the successor employer if he has a rate is not the same rate as that of the predecessor employer then the rate of the successor employer shall be redetermined under the combined experience of the predecessor employer or employers and the successor employers.

Referred to in §96.8, subsection 4

c. Each employer's rate of contribution shall be two and seven-tenths percent except as otherwise provided in this chapter. No reduced rate of contribution shall be granted to such employer until there shall have been twelve consecutive calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date throughout which his account has been chargeable with benefit payments.

d. Each employer's rate for each calendar year after December 31, 1956, shall be determined on the basis of his record and the record of the predecessor owner of such enterprise, if any, up to the computation date for such year. If, on the computation date, the total of all contributions paid to an employer's account for all past periods to and including those for the quarter ending September 30 immediately preceding the computation date exceeds the total benefits charged to such account for all past periods to and including those for the quarter ending September 30 immediately preceding the computation date, such employer's contribution rate subject to the adjustment hereinafter provided, shall be fixed in accordance with the following table. f. Based upon the formula above provided in this section the commission shall fix the rate of contribution for each employer. The commission shall notify the employer of the rate so fixed. An employer may appeal to the commission for a revision of the rate of contribution so fixed within thirty days from the date of the notice to such employer. The commission after such hearing may set aside its former determination or modify it and may grant the employer a new rate of contribution. The commission shall notify the employer of this determination by certified mail. From this determination the employer may appeal to the district court for further hearing. The manner in which such appeal shall be taken and heard shall be in accordance with the provisions of subsections 5 and 6 of this section.

Referred to in §96.9, subsection 5

a. As soon as practicable and in any event within two years after an employer has filed reports, as required by the commission pursuant to subsection 7 of section 96.11, the commission shall examine such reports and determine the correct amount of contributions due, and the amount so determined by the commission shall be the contributions payable. If the contributions found due shall be greater than the amount theretofore paid, the excess, together with interest as provided in this chapter, shall be paid by the employer within thirty days after the commission shall have given notice thereof to the employer by certified mail.

b. If the commission discovers from the examination of the reports or otherwise that wages payable for employment, or any part thereof, have not been listed in the reports, or that no reports were filed when due, or that reports have been filed showing contributions due but no contributions in fact have been paid, it may at any time within five years after the time such reports were due, determine the correct amount of contributions payable, together with interest as provided in this chapter. The amount so determined shall be paid within thirty days after the commission shall have given notice thereof to the employer by certified mail.

c. The certificate of the commission to the effect that contributions have not been paid, that reports have not been filed, or that information has not been furnished, as required under the provisions of this chapter shall be prima-facie evidence thereof.

5. Revision of contributions. An employer may appeal to the commission for revision of the contributions and interest assessed against such employer at any time within thirty days from the date of the notice of the assessment of such contributions and interest. The commission shall grant a hearing thereon and if, upon such hearing, it shall determine that the amount of contributions payable with interest thereon is incorrect, it shall revise the same according to the law and the facts and adjust the computation of the contributions and interest accordingly. The commission shall notify the employer by certified mail of its findings.

a. An appeal may be taken by the employer to the district court of the county in which such employer resides, or in which such employer's principal place of business is located, or in the case of a nonresident not maintaining a place of business in this state either in any county in which the wages payable for employment were earned or paid or in Polk county, within sixty days after the date of the notice to such employer notifying such employer of his rate of contribution, or of the commission's determination as provided for in subsection 3 of this section or subsection 5 of this section.

b. The appeal shall be taken by the employer filing in the office of the clerk of the district court of such county his petition setting forth the errors complained of in the commission's ruling. The employer shall cause an original notice to be served upon the chairman of the commission in the same manner as provided for in ordinary actions in court. The commission shall within thirty days from the date on which said notice was served on the commission certify and file with the clerk of said court a copy of the records and proceedings upon which the rate of contributions or the assessment of contributions was established.

The plaintiff shall file with the clerk of said court a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties approved by the clerk, in penalty to be fixed and approved by the clerk of said court. In no case shall the bond be less than fifty dollars conditioned that the plaintiff shall perform the orders of the court.

c. The court shall hear the appeal in equity and determine anew all questions submitted to it on appeal from the determination of the commission. The court shall render its decree thereon and a certified copy of said decree shall be filed by the clerk of said court with the commission who shall then correct the assessment in accordance with said decree. An appeal may be taken by the employer or the commission to the supreme court of this state in the same manner that appeals are taken in suits in equity, irrespective of the amount involved.

7. Jeopardy assessments. If the commission believes that the assessment or collection of contributions payable will be jeopardized by delay, the commission may immediately make an assessment of the estimated amount of contributions due, together with all interest thereon as provided by this chapter, and demand payment thereof from the employer. If such payment is not made, a distress warrant may be issued or a lien filed against such employer immediately.

The commission shall be permitted to accept a bond from the employer to satisfy collection until the amount of contributions legally due shall be determined. Such bond to be in an amount deemed necessary, but not more than double the amount of the contributions involved, and with securities satisfactory to the commission. The state comptroller shall issue warrants upon the fund pursuant to the order of the commission and such warrants shall be paid from the fund by the treasurer. The treasurer shall maintain within the fund three separate accounts:

- a. A clearing account.
- b. An unemployment trust fund account.
- c. A benefit account. All moneys payable to the fund shall, upon receipt thereof by the commission, be forwarded to the treasurer who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to section 96.14 shall be paid by the treasurer from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the comptroller under the direction of the commission. After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the secretary of the treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the Social Security Act as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding. The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund for the payment of benefits. Except as herein otherwise provided moneys in the clearing and benefit account may be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commission, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund. The treasurer shall give a separate bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as custodian of the fund in an amount fixed by the governor and in form and manner prescribed by law. Premiums for said bond shall be paid from the administration fund.

Interest paid upon the trust fund deposited with the secretary of the treasury of the United States under the provisions of this subsection 2 of this section for any calendar year shall be allocated and credited to and become a part of each employer's reserve account, said allocation to be made in the following manner: For the calendar year 1950 and each calendar year thereafter, the commission shall add and credit to each employer's reserve account, the percentage of the total interest paid upon the aggregate of the reserve accounts of all of the employers in the state in said year that each such employer's individual reserve account bears to said aggregate reserve account. Said interest shall be credited and applied in the same manner as a voluntary contribution made by each such employer.

3. Withdrawals. Moneys shall be requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund solely for the payment of benefits and in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commission, except that money credited to this state's account pursuant to section 903 of the Social Security Act may, subject to the conditions prescribed in subsection 4 of this section, be used for the payment of expenses incurred for the administration of this chapter. The commission shall from time to time requisition from the unemployment trust fund such amounts, not exceeding the amounts standing to the account of this state therein, as the commission deems necessary for the payment of benefits for a reasonable future period. Upon receipt thereof the treasurer shall deposit such moneys in the benefit account, and shall disburse such moneys upon warrants drawn by the comptroller pursuant to the order of the commission for the payment of benefits solely from such benefit account. Expenditures of such moneys from the benefit account and refunds from the clearing account shall not be subject to any provisions of law requiring specific appropriations or other formal release by state officers of money in their custody. All warrants issued by the comptroller for the payment of benefits and refunds shall bear the signature of the comptroller. Any balance of moneys requisitioned from the unemployment trust fund which remains unclaimed or unpaid in the benefit account after the expiration of the period for which such sums were requisitioned shall either be deducted from estimates for, and may be utilized for the payment of, benefits during succeeding periods, or, in the discretion of the commission, shall be redeposited with the secretary of the treasury of the United States, to the credit of this state's account in the unemployment trust fund, as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

4. Money credited under section 903 of the Social Security Act.

a. Money credited to the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund by the secretary of the treasury of the United States pursuant to section 903 of the Social Security Act may not be requisitioned from this state's account or used except for the payment of benefits and for the payment of expenses incurred for the administration of this chapter. Such money may be requisitioned pursuant to subsection 3 of this section for the payment of benefits. Such money may also be requisitioned and used for the payment of expenses incurred for the administration of this chapter but only pursuant to a specific appropriation by the legislature and only if the expenses are incurred and the money is requisitioned after the enactment of an appropriation law which (1) specifies the purposes for which such money is appropriated and the amounts appropriated therefor, (2) limits the period within which such money may be obligated to a period ending not more than two years after the date of the enactment of the appropriation law, and (3) limits the amount which may be obligated during a twelve-month period beginning on July 1 and ending on the next June 30 to an amount which does not exceed the amount by which (i) the aggregate of the amounts credited to the account of this state pursuant to section 903 of the Social Security Act during the same twelve-month period and the four preceding twelve-month periods, exceeds (ii) the aggregate of the amounts obligated for administration and paid out for benefits and charged against the amounts credited to the account of this state during such five twelve-month periods.

b. Amounts credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund under section 903 of the Social Security Act which are obligated for administration or paid out for benefits shall be charged against equivalent amounts which were first credited and which are not already so charged; except that no amount obligated for administration during a twelve-month period specified herein may be charged against any amount credited during such a twelve-month period earlier than the fourth preceding such period.

c. Money requisitioned as provided herein for the payment of expenses of administration shall be deposited in the employment security administration fund, but, until expended, shall remain a part of the unemployment compensation fund. The treasurer of state shall maintain a separate record of the deposit, obligation, expenditure and return of funds so deposited. Any money so deposited which either will not be obligated within the period specified by the appropriation law or remains unobligated at the end of the period, and any money which has been obligated within the period but will not be expended, shall be returned promptly to the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund.

5. Administration expenses excluded. Any amount credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund under section 903 of the Social Security Act which has been appropriated for expenses of administration pursuant to subsection 4 of this section, whether or not withdrawn from such account, shall not be deemed assets of the unemployment compensation fund for the purpose of computing contribution rates under section 96.7, subsection 3, of this chapter.

6. Management of funds in the event of discontinuance of unemployment trust fund. The provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 3 to the extent that they relate to the unemployment trust fund shall be operative only so long as such unemployment trust fund continues to exist and so long as the secretary of the treasury of the United States continues to maintain for this state a separate book account of all funds deposited therein by this state for benefit purposes, together with this state's proportionate share of the earnings of such unemployment trust fund, from which no other state is permitted to make withdrawals. If and when such unemployment trust fund ceases to exist, or such separate book account is no longer maintained, all moneys, properties, or securities therein, belonging to the unemployment compensation fund of this state shall be transferred to the treasurer of the unemployment compensation fund, who shall hold, invest, transfer, sell, deposit, and release such moneys, properties, or securities in a manner approved by the commission, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter: Provided, that such moneys shall be invested in the following readily marketable classes of securities; such securities as are authorized by the laws of the state of Iowa for the investment of trust funds. The treasurer shall dispose of securities and other properties belonging to the unemployment compensation fund only under the direction of the commission.

7. Transfer to railroad account. Notwithstanding any requirements of the foregoing subsections of this section, the commission shall, prior to July 1, 1939, authorize and direct the secretary of the treasury of the United States to transfer from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the Social Security Act as amended, to the railroad unemployment insurance account, established and maintained pursuant to section 10 of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act*, an amount hereinafter referred to as the preliminary amount; and shall, prior to January 1, 1940, authorize and direct the secretary of the treasury of the United States to transfer from this state's account in said unemployment trust fund to said railroad unemployment insurance account an additional amount, hereinafter referred to as the liquidating amount. The social security board shall determine both such amounts after consultation with the commission and the railroad retirement board. The preliminary amount shall consist of that proportion of the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of June 30, 1939, as the total amount of contributions collected from "employers" as the term "employer" is defined in section 1 "a" of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, and credited to the unemployment compensation fund bears to all contributions theretofore collected under this chapter and credited to the unemployment compensation fund. The liquidating amount shall consist of the total amount of contributions collected from "employers" as the term "employer" is defined in section 1 "a" of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act pursuant to the provisions of this chapter during the period July 1, 1939 to December 31, 1939, inclusive.

8. Cancellation of warrants. The state comptroller, as of January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 of each year, shall stop payment on all warrants for the payment of benefits which have been outstanding and unredeemed by the state treasurer for six months or longer. Should the original warrants subsequently be presented for payment, warrants in lieu thereof shall be issued by the state comptroller at the discretion of and certification by the commission. Any vacancy occurring for any cause in the membership of this commission shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor subject to approval by a two-thirds vote of the members of the senate at the next regular session of the legislature. Each member of the commission shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services the sum of five thousand* dollars per year, payable monthly. In addition to the compensation hereinbefore prescribed, each member of the commission shall be entitled to receive the amount of his traveling and other necessary expenses actually incurred while engaged in the performance of his official duties. ADMINISTRATION

96.11 Powers, rules and personnel.

1. Duties and powers of commission. It shall be the duty of the commission to administer this chapter; and it shall have power and authority to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations, to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon compliance with chapter 17A. Not later than the fifteenth day of December of each year, the commission shall submit to the governor a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding fiscal year and shall make such recommendations for amendments to this chapter as the commission deems proper. Such report shall include a balance sheet of the moneys in the fund. Whenever the commission believes that a change in contribution or benefit rates will become necessary to protect the solvency of the fund, it shall promptly so inform the governor and the legislature, and make recommendations with respect thereto.

2. General and special rules. General and special rules may be adopted, amended, or rescinded by the commission only after public hearing or opportunity to be heard thereon, of which proper notice has been given. Special rules shall become effective ten days after notification to or mailing to the last known address of the individuals or concerns affected thereby. Regulations may be adopted, amended, or rescinded by the commission. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of all regulations in places readily accessible to individuals in his service, and shall make available to each such individual at the time he becomes unemployed a printed statement of such regulations relating to the filing of claims for benefits. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commission to each employer without cost to him.

Referred to in §96.19, subsection 7“g”(3)

3. Publication. The commission shall cause to be printed for distribution to the public the text of this chapter, the commission's regulations and general rules, its annual reports to the governor, and any other material the commission deems relevant and suitable and shall furnish the same to any person upon application therefor.

4. Personnel. Subject to other provisions of this chapter, the commission is authorized to appoint, fix the compensation, and prescribe the duties and powers of such officers, accountants, attorneys, experts, and other persons as may be necessary in the performance of its duties. The commission shall classify its positions and shall establish salary schedules and minimum personnel standards for the positions so classified. All positions shall be filled by persons selected and appointed on the basis of competency and fitness for the position to be filled. The commission shall not appoint or employ any person who is an officer or committee member of any political party organization or who holds or is a candidate for any elective public office. The commission shall establish and enforce fair and reasonable regulations for appointments, promotions and demotions based upon ratings of efficiency and fitness and for terminations for cause. The commission may delegate to any such person so appointed such power and authority as it deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this chapter, and may in its discretion bond any person handling moneys or signing checks hereunder.

5. Advisory councils. The commission may appoint a state advisory council and local advisory councils, composed in each case of an equal number of employer representatives and employee representatives who may fairly be regarded as representatives because of their vocation, employment, or affiliations, and of such members representing the general public as the commission may designate. Such councils shall aid the commission in formulating policies and discussing problems related to the administration of this chapter and in assuring impartiality and freedom from political influence in the solution of such problems. Such advisory councils shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any necessary expenses.

6. Employment stabilization. The commission with the advice and aid of such advisory councils as it may appoint, and through its appropriate divisions, shall take all appropriate steps to reduce and prevent unemployment; to encourage and assist in the adoption of practical methods of vocational training, retraining and vocational guidance; to investigate, recommend, advise, and assist in the establishment and operation, by municipalities, counties, school districts, and the state, of reserves for public works to be used in times of business depression and unemployment; to promote the re-employment of unemployed workers throughout the state in every other way that may be feasible; and to these ends to carry on and publish the results of investigations and research studies.

7. Records and reports. Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the commission may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the commission or its authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commission may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commission deems necessary for the effective administration of this chapter. Information thus obtained shall not be published or be open to public inspection (other than to public employees in the performance of their public duties) in any manner revealing the employing unit's identity, but any claimant at a hearing before an appeal tribunal or the commission shall be supplied with information from such records to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of his claim. Any employee or member of the commission who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisoned for not longer than ninety days, or both.

8. Oaths and witnesses. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter, the chairman of an appeal tribunal and any duly authorized representative or member of the commission shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of this chapter.

9. Subpoenas. In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commission, or appeal tribunal, or any member or duly authorized representative thereof, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commission, or an appeal tribunal, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation or in question; any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof. Any person who shall without just cause fail or refuse to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records, if it is in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment, for not longer than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day such violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate offense.

10. Protection against self-incrimination. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the commission, or an appeal tribunal, or in obedience to a subpoena in any cause or proceeding provided for in this chapter, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty of forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

11. State-federal co-operation. In the administration of this chapter, the commission shall co-operate to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this chapter, with the federal social security board, created by the Social Security Act, passed by Congress and approved August 14, 1935, as amended; shall make such reports, in such form and containing such information as the federal social security board may from time to time require, and shall comply with such provisions as the federal social security board may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and shall comply with the regulations prescribed by the federal social security board governing the expenditures of such sums as may be allotted and paid to this state under title III of the Social Security Act for the purpose of assisting in administration of this chapter. Upon request therefor the commission shall furnish to any agency of the United States charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, the name, address, ordinary occupation, and employment status of each recipient of benefits and such recipient's rights to further benefits under this chapter.

The commission may make its records relating to the administration of this chapter available to the railroad retirement board, and may furnish the railroad retirement board such copies thereof as the railroad retirement board deems necessary for its purposes. The commission may afford reasonable co-operation with every agency of the United States charged with the administration of any unemployment insurance law. The railroad retirement board or any other agency requiring such services and reports from the commission shall pay the commission such compensation therefor as the commission determines to be fair and reasonable.

12. Destruction of records. The commission may in its discretion destroy or dispose of such original reports or records as have been properly recorded or summarized in the permanent records of the commission and are deemed by the commission no longer necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. Wage records of the individual worker or transcripts therefrom may be destroyed or disposed of two years after the expiration of the period covered by such wage records or upon proof of the death of the worker. Such destruction or disposition shall be made only by order of the commission and such order shall be spread on the minutes of the commission. Any moneys received from the disposition of such records shall be deposited to the credit of the employment security administration fund. [C39, §1551.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §96.11; 60GA, ch 66, §20]

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

96.12 State employment service.

1. Duties of commission. The employment security commission shall establish and maintain free public employment offices in such number and in such places as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter and for the purpose of performing such duties as are within the purview of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for co-operation with the states in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes", approved June 6, 1933, as amended, and known as the Wagner-Peyser Act [48 Stat. L. 113; 29 USC§49]. All duties and powers conferred upon any other department, agency, or officer of this state relating to the establishment, maintenance, and operation of free employment offices shall be vested in the commission. The provisions of the said Act of Congress, as amended, are hereby accepted by this state, in conformity with section 4 of said Act, and this state will observe and comply with the requirements thereof. The commission is hereby designated and constituted the agency of this state for the purpose of said Wagner-Peyser Act. If this chapter shall become inoperative for the reason prescribed in section 96.21, the Iowa state employment division shall not be affected thereby, but such division shall, upon the happening of such contingency, be deemed to be a division of the bureau of labor of the state of Iowa, with the same force and effect as if this chapter had not been passed, and that all funds and property made available to the Iowa state employment service division under this chapter shall under such contingency become, and shall be declared to be, the funds and property of the Iowa state employment service of the bureau of labor of Iowa. The commission may cooperate with or enter into agreements with the railroad retirement board with respect to the establishment, maintenance, and use of employment service facilities. The railroad retirement board shall compensate the commission for such services or facilities in the amount determined by the commission to be fair and reasonable.

2. Financing. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining free public employment offices, the commission is authorized to enter into agreements with the railroad retirement board, or any other agency of the United States charged with the administration of an employment security law, with any political subdivision of this state, or with any private, nonprofit organization, and as a part of any such agreement the commission may accept moneys, services, or quarters as a contribution to the employment security administration fund. [C39, §1551.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §96.12]

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ADMINISTRATION FUND

96.13 Control and use.

1. Special fund. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund to be known as the "Employment Security Administration Fund". All moneys which are deposited or paid into this fund are hereby appropriated and made available to the commission. All moneys in this fund, except money received pursuant to subsection 4 of section 96.9 of this chapter, which are received from the federal government or any agency thereof or which are appropriated by the state for the purposes described in section 96.12 shall be expended solely for the purposes and in the amounts found necessary by the secretary of labor for the proper and efficient administration of this chapter. This fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by this state, and all moneys received from the United States, or any agency thereof, including the department of labor, the railroad retirement board, the United States employment service, established under the Wagner-Peyser Act, or from any other source for such purpose. Moneys received from the railroad retirement board, or any other agency, as compensation for services or facilities supplied to said board or agency shall be paid to the commission, and the commission shall allocate said moneys to the employment security administration fund. All moneys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed, in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for special funds in the state treasury. Any balances in this fund shall not lapse at any time, but shall be continuously available to the commission for expenditure consistent with this chapter. The state treasurer shall give a separate and additional bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the employment security administration fund in an amount and with such sureties as shall be fixed and approved by the governor. The premiums for such bond and the premiums for the bond given by the treasurer of the unemployment compensation fund under section 96.9, shall be paid from the moneys in the employment security administration fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all money requisitioned and deposited in this fund pursuant to paragraph "c" of subsection 4 of section 96.9 of this chapter shall remain part of the unemployment compensation fund and shall be used only in accordance with the conditions specified in said subsection 4 of section 96.9.

2. Replenishment of lost funds. If any moneys received after June 30, 1941, from the social security board under title III of the Social Security Act, or any unencumbered balances in the unemployment compensation administration fund as of that date, or any moneys granted after that date to this state pursuant to the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act, or any moneys made available by this state or its political subdivisions and matched by such moneys granted to this state pursuant to the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act, are found by the social security board, because of any action or contingency, to have been lost or been expended for purposes other than or in amounts in excess of, those found necessary by the social security board for the proper administration of this chapter, it is the policy of this state that such moneys shall be replaced by moneys appropriated for such purpose from the general funds of this state to the unemployment compensation administration fund for expenditure as provided in subsection 1 of this section. Upon receipt of notice of such a finding by the social security board, the commission shall promptly report the amount required for such replacement to the governor and the governor shall at the earliest opportunity, submit to the legislature a request for the appropriation of such amount. This subsection shall not be construed to relieve this state of its obligation with respect to funds received prior to July 1, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of title III of the Social Security Act. [C39,§1551.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§96.13]

COLLECTION OF CONTRIBUTIONS

96.14 Priority—refunds.

1. Interest. Any employer who shall fail to pay any contribution and at the time required by this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, shall pay to the commission in addition to such contribution, interest thereon at the rate of one percent per month and one-thirtieth of one percent for each day or fraction thereof computed from the date upon which said contribution should have been paid.

2. Penalties. Any employer who shall fail to file a report of wages paid to each of his employees for any period in the manner and within the time required by this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission or any extension of such time, shall pay to the commission a penalty in a sum equal to two percent of the contributions required to be paid by such employer for each month or part thereof, for failure to file such report, provided that the total of such penalties shall not exceed ten percent of the amount of such contributions. If the commission finds that any such report is insufficient, it shall notify the employer in writing to file a sufficient report. If such employer shall fail to file a sufficient report within thirty days after the mailing of such notice to him, he shall, in addition to any amount otherwise payable by him under the provisions of this chapter, pay to the commission, a penalty equal to two percent of the contributions for such period unpaid by him at the time of the mailing of each notice, for each month or part thereof of such failure to file a sufficient report, provided that the total penalties shall not exceed ten percent of the amount of such contribution.

If the commission finds that any employer has willfully failed to pay any contribution or part thereof when required by this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, with intent to defraud the commission, then such employer shall in addition to such contribution or part thereof, pay a contribution equal to fifty percent of the amount of such contribution or part thereof, as the case may be.

However, in the event an employer is not required to make a contribution, the penalties for failure to report shall be an amount equal to one percent of his taxable payroll. After September 30, 1961 no penalty or penalties shall be less than ten dollars.

The commission may cancel any interest or penalties if it is shown to the satisfaction of the commission that the failure to pay a required contribution or to file a required report was not the result of negligence, fraud, or intentional disregard of the law or the rules and regulations of the commission.

3. Lien of contributions—collection. Whenever any employer liable to pay contributions refuses or neglects to pay the same, the amount, including any interest, together with the costs that may accrue in addition thereto, shall be a lien in favor of the state upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to said employer.

The lien aforesaid shall attach at the time the contributions become due and payable and shall continue until the liability for such amount is satisfied.

In order to preserve the aforesaid lien against subsequent mortgagees, purchasers or judgment creditors, for value and without notice of the lien, on any property situated in a county, the commission shall file with the recorder of the county, in which said property is located, a notice of said lien.

The county recorder of each county shall prepare and keep in his office a book to be known as "index of unemployment contribution liens", so ruled as to show in appropriate columns the following data, under the names of employers, arranged alphabetically:

- a. The name of the employer.
- b. The name "State of Iowa" as claimant.
- c. Time notice of lien was received.
- d. Date of notice.
- e. Amount of lien then due.
- f. When satisfied.

The recorder shall indorse on each notice of lien the day, hour, and minute when received and shall forthwith index said notice in said index book and shall forthwith record said lien in the manner provided for recording real estate mortgages, and the said lien shall be effective from the time of the indexing thereof.

The commission shall pay a recording fee as provided in section 335.14, for the recording of such lien, or for the satisfaction thereof.

Upon the payment of contributions as to which the commission has filed notice with a county recorder, the commission shall forthwith file with said recorder a satisfaction of said contributions and the recorder shall enter said satisfaction on the notice on file in his office and indicate said fact on the index aforesaid.

The commission shall, substantially as provided in sections 445.6 and 445.7, proceed to collect all contributions as soon as practicable after the same become delinquent, except that no property of the employer shall be exempt from the payment of said contributions.

If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest thereon, the amount due may be collected by civil action in the name of the commission and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions or interest thereon from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this chapter and cases arising under the workmen's compensation law of this state.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the state shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the commission shall be construed to be an election on the part of the state or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy provided by law.

Notice of the filing of such application shall be given to the interested parties as the court may prescribe. The court upon such hearing shall have power to authorize the commission to compromise and settle its claim for such contribution and shall fix the amount to be received by the commission in full settlement of such claim and shall authorize the release of the commission's lien for such contribution.

Whenever any employing unit contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor for any work which is part of its usual trade, occupation, profession, or business, unless the employing unit as well as each such contractor or subcontractor is an employer by reason of subsection 6 or section 96.8, subsection 3, the employing unit shall for all the purposes of this chapter be deemed to employ each individual in the employ of each such contractor or subcontractor for each day during which such individual is engaged in performing such work; except that each such contractor or subcontractor who is an employer by reason of subsection 6 or section 96.8, subsection 3, shall alone be liable for the contributions measured by wages payable to individuals in his employ, and except that any employing unit who shall become liable for and pay contributions with respect to individuals in the employ of any such contractor or subcontractor who is not an employer by reason of subsection 6 or section 96.8, subsection 3, may recover the same from such contractor or subcontractor, except as any contractor or subcontractor who would in the absence of the foregoing provisions be liable to pay said contributions, accepts exclusive liability for said contributions under an agreement with such employer made pursuant to general rules of the commission. Should the social security board, acting under section 1603 of the federal internal revenue code, fail to certify the state of Iowa for any particular calendar year, then the payments required of such instrumentalities with respect to such year shall be refunded by the commission from the fund in the same manner and within the same period as is provided for in section 96.14, subsection 5, which section provides for the refunding of contributions erroneously collected.

(3) Service with respect to which unemployment compensation is payable under an unemployment compensation system established by an Act of Congress; provided, that the commission is hereby authorized and directed to enter into agreements with the proper agencies under such Act of Congress, which agreements shall become effective ten days after publication thereof in the manner provided in section 96.11, subsection 2 for general rules, to provide reciprocal treatment to individuals who have, after acquiring potential rights to benefits under this chapter, acquired rights to unemployment compensation under such Act of Congress, or who have, after acquiring potential rights to unemployment compensation

7. Re-examination of beneficiaries retired on account of disability. Once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the board of trustees may, and upon his application shall, require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained age fifty-five to undergo a medical examination at a place designated by the medical board. Such examination shall be made by the medical board or in special cases, by an additional physician or physicians designated by such board. Should any disability beneficiary who has not attained the age of fifty-five refuse to submit to such medical examination, his allowance may be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one year all rights in and to his pension may be revoked by the board of trustees.

a. Should any beneficiary for disability not incurred in line of duty, be engaged in a gainful occupation paying more than the difference between his retirement allowance and his average final compensation, then the amount of his pension shall be reduced to an amount which together with his annuity and the amount earned by him shall equal the amount of his average final compensation. Should his earning capacity be later changed, the amount of his pension may be further modified, provided, that the new pension shall not exceed the amount of the pension originally granted nor an amount which, when added to the amount earned by the beneficiary together with his annuity, equals the amount of his average final compensation. A beneficiary restored to active service at a salary less than the average final compensation upon the basis of which he was retired at age fifty-five or greater, shall not again become a member of the retirement system and shall have his retirement allowance suspended while in active service.

b. Should a disability beneficiary under age fifty-five be restored to active service at a compensation not less than his average final compensation, his retirement allowance shall cease, he shall again become a member and he shall contribute thereafter at the same rate he paid prior to disability, and any former service on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect and upon his subsequent retirement he shall be credited with all his service as a member, and also with the period of disability retirement, provided that during such period of disability he has not engaged in a gainful occupation from which his net earnings exceeded the difference between his disability retirement allowance and the amount he would have received for said period if his compensation at the time of disability had continued.

c. The commissioner of public safety may, subject to approval of the medical board, assign any former member of the division of highway safety and uniformed force or the division of criminal investigation and bureau of identification who is retired and drawing a pension for disability under the provisions of this chapter, to the performance of light duties in such division.

8. Ordinary death benefit. Upon the receipt of proper proofs of the death of a member in service, there shall be paid to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees:

a. His accumulated contributions and, if the member has had one or more years of membership service and no pension is payable under the provisions of subsection 9 of this section, in addition thereto—

b. An amount equal to fifty percent of the compensation earned by him during the year immediately preceding his death; or

If there be no such nomination of beneficiary, the benefits provided in paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection 8 shall be paid to his estate; or in lieu thereof, at the option of the following beneficiaries, respectively, even though nominated as such, there shall be paid a pension which, together with the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions, shall be equal to one-fourth of the average final compensation of such member, but in no instance less than fifty dollars per month;

c. To his widow to continue during her widowhood; or

d. If there be no widow, or if the widow dies or remarries before any child of such deceased member shall have attained the age of eighteen years, then to the guardian of his child or children under said age, divided in such manner as the board of trustees in its discretion shall determine, to continue as a joint and survivor pension until every such child dies or attains the age of eighteen; or

e. If there be no surviving widow or child under age eighteen, then to his dependent father and/or mother, as the board of trustees in its discretion shall determine, to continue until remarriage or death.

f. In addition to the benefits herein enumerated, there shall also be paid for each child of a member under the age of eighteen years the sum of twenty dollars per month.

9. Accidental death benefit. If, upon the receipt of evidence and proof that the death of a member was the natural and proximate result of an accident or exposure occurring at some definite time and place while the member was in the actual performance of duty, the board of trustees shall decide that death was so caused in the performance of duty there shall be paid, in lieu of the ordinary death benefit provided in subsection 8 of this section, to his estate or to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees:

a. His accumulated contributions; and in addition thereto—

b. A pension equal to one-half of the average final compensation of such member shall be paid to his widow, children or dependent parents as provided in paragraphs "c", "d", and "e" of subsection 8 of this section.

c. If there be no widow, children under the age of eighteen years or dependent parent surviving such deceased member, the death shall be treated as an ordinary death case and the benefit payable in accordance with the provisions of subsection 8, paragraph "b" of this section, in lieu of the pension provided in paragraph "b" of this subsection 9, shall be paid to his estate.

d. In addition to the benefits for the widow herein enumerated, there shall also be paid for each dependent child of a member under the age of eighteen years the sum of twenty dollars per month.

10. Return of accumulated contributions. Should a member cease to be a peace officer in the division of highway safety and uniformed force or the division of criminal investigation and bureau of identification in the department of public safety except by death or retirement, he shall be paid on demand the amount of his accumulated contributions standing to the credit of his individual account in the annuity savings fund.

11. Optional allowance. With the provision that no optional selection shall be effective in case a beneficiary dies within thirty days after retirement, in which event such a beneficiary shall be considered as an active member at the time of death, until the first payment on account of any benefit becomes normally due, any beneficiary may elect to receive his benefit in a retirement allowance payable throughout life, or he may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent at that time of his retirement allowance in a lesser retirement allowance payable throughout life with the provision that an amount in money not exceeding the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be immediately paid in cash to such member or some other benefit or benefits shall be paid either to the member or to such person or persons as he shall nominate, provided such cash payment or other benefit or benefits, together with the lesser retirement allowance, shall be certified by the state commissioner of insurance to be of equivalent actuarial value to his retirement allowance and shall be approved by the board of trustees; provided, that a cash payment to such member or beneficiary at the time of retirement of an amount not exceeding fifty percent of his accumulated contributions shall be made by the board of trustees upon said member's or beneficiary's election.

12. Pensions offset by compensation benefits. Any amounts which may be paid or payable by the state under the provisions of any workmen's compensation or similar law to a member or to the dependents of a member on account of any disability or death, shall be offset against and payable in lieu of any benefits payable out of funds provided by the state under the provisions of this chapter on account of the same disability or death. In case the present value of the total commuted benefits under said workmen's compensation or similar law is less than the pension reserve on the benefits otherwise payable from funds provided by the state under this chapter, then the present value of the commuted payments shall be deducted from the pension reserve and such benefits as may be provided by the pension reserve so reduced shall be payable under the provisions of this chapter.

13. Pension to widow and children of deceased pensioned member. In the event of the death of any member receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of subsections 2, 4 and/or 6 of this section there shall be paid a pension:

a. To his widow to continue during her widowhood, equal to one-half the amount received by such deceased beneficiary, but in no instance less than fifty dollars per month, and in addition thereto the sum of twenty dollars per month for each child under eighteen years of age; or

b. In the event of the death of the wife either prior or subsequent to the death of the member, to the guardian of each surviving child under eighteen years of age, in the sum of twenty dollars per month for the support of such child.

14. Appeals from action of the board of trustees. An appeal may be taken from any action of the board of trustees acting under the provisions of this section by any member of the system to the district court of Polk county within thirty days after he receives written notice of the trustees' action. The board of trustees shall be represented by the attorney general. The appeal shall be taken by written notice to the chairman of the board of trustees and served as an original notice. When said notice is so served, it shall with the return thereon, be filed in the office of the clerk of the said district court and docketed as other cases, with the member as plaintiff and the board of trustees as defendant. The court shall hear the appeal in equity and determine anew all questions submitted to it on appeal from the determination of the board of trustees. An appeal may be taken by the member or by the board of trustees to the supreme court of this state in the same manner appeals are taken in suits in equity irrespective of the amount involved.

15. Pensions payable under this section shall be adjusted as follows:

a. As of the first of July of each year, the monthly pensions authorized in this section payable to each retired member and to each beneficiary, except children, of a deceased member shall be recomputed. The formula authorized in this section which was used to compute the retired member's or beneficiary's pension at the time of retirement or death including all amendments to the formula which may be adopted subsequent to the member's retirement or death, shall be used in the recomputation, except the pension compensation shall be used in lieu of the average final compensation which the retired or deceased member was receiving at the time of retirement or death. The adjusted monthly pension shall be the amount payable at the member's retirement or death adjusted by forty-five percent of the difference between the recomputed pension and the amount payable at the member's retirement or death. At no time shall the monthly pension or payment to the beneficiary be less than the amount which was paid at the time of the member's retirement or death.

b. As of the first of July of each year, the monthly pension payable to each surviving child in accordance with subsections 8, 9, and 13 of this section shall be adjusted to equal six percent of the monthly salary payable on such July 1 to an active member having the rank of senior patrolman of the Iowa highway safety patrol. If the monthly pension so computed is less than the amounts provided in subsections 8, 9, and 13 of this section, the amounts provided for in said subsection shall be payable.

c. All monthly pensions adjusted as provided in this subsection shall be payable beginning on July 1 of the year in which the adjustment is made and shall continue in effect until the next following July 1 at which time the monthly pensions shall again be recomputed and all monthly pensions adjusted in accordance with the recomputations.

d. The adjustment of pensions required by this subsection shall recognize the retired or deceased member's position on the salary scale within his rank at the time of his retirement or death. In the event that the rank or position held by the retired or deceased member at the time of retirement or death is subsequently abolished, adjustments in the pensions of the member or of the member's spouse or children shall be computed by the board of trustees as though such rank or position had not been abolished and salary increases had been granted to such rank or position on the same basis as increases granted to other ranks and positions in the department. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.6; 61GA, ch 112, §2]

97A.7 Management of funds.

1. The board of trustees shall be the trustees of the several funds created by this chapter as provided in section 97A.8 and shall have full power to invest and reinvest such funds subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and restrictions imposed by subsection 2 of this section, and subject to like terms, conditions, limitations, and restrictions said trustees shall have full power to hold, purchase, sell, assign, transfer, or dispose of any of the securities and investments in which any of the funds created herein shall have been invested, as well as of the proceeds of said investments and any moneys belonging to said funds.

2. The investments of the several funds created by this chapter are hereby limited to interest-bearing bonds issued by the United States, by the state of Iowa, and those issued by counties, school districts, and/or general obligation or limited levy bonds issued by municipal corporations in this state as authorized by law.

3. The board of trustees annually shall allow regular interest on the mean amount for the preceding year in each of the funds with the exception of the expense fund. The amount so allowed shall be due and payable to said funds and shall be annually credited thereto by the board of trustees from interest and other earnings on the moneys and other assets of the system. Any additional amount required to meet the interest on the funds of the system shall be paid by the state of Iowa and any excess of earnings over such amount required shall be deductible from the amounts to be contributed by the state of Iowa.

4. The treasurer of the state shall be the custodian of the several funds. All payments from said funds shall be made by him only upon vouchers signed by two persons designated by the board of trustees. A duly attested copy of the resolution of the board of trustees designating such persons and bearing on its face specimen signatures of such persons shall be filed with the treasurer of state as his authority for making payments on such vouchers. No voucher shall be drawn unless it shall previously have been allowed by resolution of the board of trustees.

5. No trustee and no employee of the board of trustees shall have any direct interest in the gains or profits of any investment made by the board of trustees. No trustee shall receive any pay or emolument for his services except as secretary. No trustee or employee of the board of trustees shall directly or indirectly for himself or as agent in any manner use the assets of the system except to make such current and necessary payments as are authorized by the board of trustees, nor shall any trustee or employee of the board become an indorser or surety or become in any manner an obligor for moneys loaned by or borrowed from the board of trustees. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.7]

97A.8 Method of financing. All the assets of the system created and established by this chapter shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one of five funds, namely, the annuity savings fund, the annuity reserve fund, the pension accumulation fund, the pension reserve fund, and the expense fund.

1. Annuity savings fund.

a. The annuity savings fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated contributions from the compensation of the members to provide for their annuities. The rates of contributions payable by members according to their ages when becoming members shall be as follows:

Age when becoming a member	Rate of contribution
20	4.91%
21	4.97%
22	5.04%
23	5.11%
24	5.18%
25	5.26%
26	5.33%
27	5.41%
28	5.48%
29	5.56%
30	5.64%
31	5.72%
32	5.80%
33	5.88%
34	5.97%
35	6.05%
36	6.14%
37	6.22%
38	6.31%
39	6.40%

b. The proportions so computed for a person at age forty shall be applied to a member who attains a greater age before he becomes a member. The board of trustees shall certify to the state comptroller and the state comptroller shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member on each and every payroll for each and every pay period, the proportion of the compensation of each member so computed.

c. The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt for his full salary or compensation, and payment of salary or compensation less said deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for services rendered during the period covered by the payment except as to benefits provided by this chapter. The state comptroller shall certify to the board of trustees on each and every payroll, or in such other manner as the board of trustees shall prescribe, the amount deducted from each member's salary, and such amounts shall be paid into the respective annuity savings fund and shall be credited together with regular interest thereon to the individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.

d. All taxes or contributions heretofore paid into the old-age and survivors' insurance trust fund by a member of the system, together with all taxes or contributions heretofore paid by the member's employers into said fund because of such member's employment in public service, are hereby transferred therefrom and shall be paid into the annuity savings fund and shall be credited to the individual account of such member therein. The state treasurer shall ascertain the amount heretofore paid by such member and employers as aforesaid and transfer the amount so paid to the annuity savings fund created by this chapter.

e. The accumulated contributions of a member withdrawn by him or paid to his estate or designated beneficiary in the event of his death shall be paid from the annuity savings fund. Upon the retirement of a member his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the annuity reserve fund.

2. Annuity reserve fund. The annuity reserve fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all annuities and all benefits in lieu of annuities payable as provided in this chapter. Should a beneficiary retired on account of disability be restored to active service and again become a member of the system, his annuity reserve shall be transferred from the annuity reserve fund to the annuity savings fund and credited to his individual account therein.

3. Pension accumulation fund. The pension accumulation fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all pensions and other benefits payable from contributions made by the state and from which shall be paid the lump-sum death benefits for all members payable from the said contributions. Contributions to and payments from the pension accumulation fund shall be as follows:

a. On account of each member there shall be paid annually into the pension accumulation fund by the state of Iowa an amount equal to a certain percentage of the earnable compensation of the member to be known as the "normal contribution". The rate percent of such contribution shall be fixed on the basis of the liabilities of the retirement system as shown by actuarial valuations. Until the first valuation the normal contribution shall be eight percent.

b. On the basis of regular interest and of such mortality and other tables as shall be adopted by the board of trustees, the state commissioner of insurance shall make each valuation required by this chapter and shall immediately after making such valuation, determine the uniform and constant percentage of the earnable compensation of the average new entrant, which, if contributed throughout his entire period of active service, would be sufficient to provide for the payment of any death benefit or pension payable on this account. The rate percent so determined shall be known as the "normal contribution rate". The normal contribution rate shall be the rate percent of the earnable compensation of all members obtained by deducting from the total liabilities of the fund the amount of the funds in hand to the credit of the fund and dividing the remainder by one percent of the present value of the prospective future compensation of all members as computed on the basis of mortality and service tables adopted by the board of trustees and regular interest. The normal rate of contribution shall be determined by the state commissioner of insurance after each valuation.

c. The total amount payable in each year to the pension accumulation fund shall not be less than the rate percent known as the normal contribution rate of the total compensation earnable by all members during the year, provided, however, that the aggregate payment by the state shall be sufficient when combined with the amount in the fund to provide the pensions and other benefits payable out of the fund during the then current year.

d. All lump-sum death benefits on account of death in active service payable from contributions of the state shall be paid from the pension accumulation fund.

e. Upon the retirement or death of a member an amount equal to the pension reserve on any pension payable to him or on account of his death shall be transferred from the pension accumulation fund to the pension reserve fund.

4. Pension reserve fund. The pension reserve fund shall be the fund in which shall be held the reserves on all pensions granted to members or to their beneficiaries and from which such pensions and benefits in lieu thereof shall be paid. Should a beneficiary retired on account of disability be restored to active service and again become a member of the system, his pension reserve shall be transferred from the pension reserve fund to the pension accumulation fund. Should the pension of a disability beneficiary be reduced as a result of an increase in his amount earned, the amount of the annual reduction in his pension shall be paid annually into the pension accumulation fund during the period of such reduction.

5. Expense fund. The expense fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all money provided by the state of Iowa to pay the administration expenses of the system and from which shall be paid all the expenses necessary in connection with the administration and operation of the system. Biennially the board of trustees shall estimate the amount of money necessary to be paid into the expense fund during the ensuing biennium to provide for the expense of operation of the system. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.8; 61GA, ch 112, §3]

Referred to in §§97A.1, 97A.5, subsection 11, 97A.7, subsection 1, 97A.9

97A.9 Military service exceptions. Any member who is absent from duty as a peace officer while serving in the armed services of the United States or its allies and is discharged or separated therefrom under honorable conditions shall have any such period or periods of absence while serving in such armed services on other than a voluntary basis and one such period of absence, not in excess of four years, while serving in such armed forces on a voluntary basis included as part of his period of service in the department. Such member shall not be required to continue the contributions required of him under section 97A.8, during such period of military service, provided that he shall, within six months after he has been discharged or separated under honorable conditions from such military service return and resume his duties in the department, and provided further, that such member shall be declared physically capable of resuming such duties upon examination by the medical board. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.9]

Referred to in §97A.10

97A.10 Creation of fund to pay contributions of absent members. The state shall create a fund for the purpose of paying the contributions to this system of those members who voluntarily or by induction enter the military service or who are serving in the armed forces. Such fund shall be used for the purpose of paying the contributions which are required of the members, but which under the provisions of section 97A.9 are waived during periods of military service as defined by section 97A.9 and six months thereafter following discharge or separation under honorable conditions. Should any member fail to return to service with his division within six months after his honorable discharge from the military service, the amount credited to his account in this fund by the state shall revert back to the state and such member or his representative shall not be entitled to claim any interest in the contribution so made by the state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.10]

97A.11 Contributions by the state. On or before the first day of November in each year, the board of trustees shall certify to the state comptroller the amounts which will become due and payable during the year next following to the pension accumulation fund and the expense fund. The amounts so certified shall be paid by the state comptroller out of the funds appropriated for the Iowa department of public safety, to the treasurer of state, the same to be credited to the system for the ensuing year. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.11]

97A.12 Exemption from taxation and execution. The right of any person to a pension, annuity, or retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, the pension, annuity, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit or death benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this chapter, and the moneys in the various funds created under this chapter, are hereby exempt from any tax of the state and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as in this chapter specifically provided. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §97A.12]

97A.13 Protection against fraud. Any person who shall knowingly make any false statement, or shall falsify or permit to be falsified any record or records of the system in any attempt to defraud the system as a result of such act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable therefor under the laws of this state. Should any change or error in records result in any member or beneficiary receiving from the system more or less than he would have been entitled to receive had the records been correct, the board of trustees shall correct such error, and, as far as practicable, shall adjust the payments in such a manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which such member or beneficiary was correctly entitled, shall be paid. 97B.1 System created. A public employees' retirement system is hereby created and established to become effective as of July 4, 1953 and to be known as the "Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System" hereinafter called the "system". [C46, 50,§97.1; C54, 58, 62,§97B.1]

97B.2 Purpose of chapter. The purpose of this chapter is to promote economy and efficiency in the public service by providing an orderly means whereby employees who become superannuated may, without hardship or prejudice, be replaced by more capable employees, and to that end providing a retirement system which will provide for the payment of annuities to public employees, thereby enabling the employees to care for themselves in retirement, and which by its provisions will improve public employment within the state, reduce excessive personnel turnover and offer suitable attraction to high-grade men and women to enter public service in the state. [C46, 50,§97.2; C54, 58, 62,§97B.2]

97B.3 Administration. The Iowa employment security commission, hereinafter called the "commission", shall be vested with authority to administer the Iowa public employees' retirement system. [C46, 50,§97.3; C54, 58, 62,§97B.3]

97B.4 Powers and duties. It shall be the duty of the commission to administer this chapter; and it shall have power and authority to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations, to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon complying with chapter 17A. Not later than the fifteenth day of December of each year, the commission shall submit to the governor a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding fiscal year and shall make such recommendations for amendments to this chapter as the commission deems proper. Such report shall include a balance sheet of the moneys in the Iowa public employees' retirement fund. [C46, 50,§97.4, 97.23; C54, 58, 62,§97B.4]

See chapter 17A for rules and regulations
See §§96.4-96.11

97B.5 Officers and employees. Subject to other provisions of this chapter, the commission is authorized to appoint, fix the compensation, and prescribe the duties and powers of such officers, accountants, attorneys, experts, actuaries, and other persons as may be necessary in the performance of its duties. The commission shall classify its positions and shall establish salary schedules and minimum personnel standards for the positions so classified. All positions shall be filled by persons selected and appointed on the basis of competency and fitness for the position to be filled. The commission shall not appoint or employ any person who is an officer or committee member of any political party organization or who holds or is a candidate for any elective public office. The commission shall establish and enforce fair and reasonable regulations based upon ratings of efficiency and fitness and for terminations for cause. The commission may delegate to any such person so appointed such power and authority as it deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this chapter, and may in its discretion bond any person handling moneys or signing checks hereunder. The commission is authorized to enter into arrangements with the federal bureau of employment security whereby services performed by the commission and its employees both under this chapter and under the Iowa employment security chapter shall be equitably apportioned between the funds provided for the administration of said chapters. That money spent for rentals, supplies and equipment used by both agencies shall be equitably apportioned and charged against said funds. [C46, 50,§97.38; C54, 58, 62, §97B.5]

97B.6 Old records. The commission may in its discretion destroy or dispose of such original reports or records as have been properly recorded or summarized in the permanent records of the commission and are deemed by the commission no longer necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. Such destruction or disposition shall be made only by order of the commission and such order shall be spread on the minutes of the commission. Any moneys received from the disposition of such records shall be deposited to the credit of the public employees' retirement fund. [C46, 50, §97.25, 97.26; C54, 58, 62,§97B.6]

97B.7 Fund created—trustee's duties.

1. There is hereby created as a special fund, separate and apart from all other public moneys or funds of this state, the "Iowa Public Employees' Retirement Fund", hereafter called the "retirement fund". This fund shall consist of all moneys collected under this chapter, together with all interest, dividends and rents thereon, and shall also include all securities or investment income and other assets acquired by and through the use of the moneys belonging to this fund and any other moneys that have been paid into this fund.

2. The treasurer of the state of Iowa is hereby made the custodian and trustee of this fund and shall administer the same in accordance with the directions of the commission. It shall be the duty of the trustee:

a. To hold said trust funds.

b. Invest such portion of said trust funds as in the judgment of the commission are not needed for current payment of benefits under this chapter in interest-bearing securities issued by the United States, or interest-bearing bonds issued by the state of Iowa, or bonds issued by counties, school districts and/or general obligations or limited levy bonds issued by municipal corporations in this state as authorized by law, or other investments authorized by insurance companies in this state. In the event of loss on the redemption or sale of securities, where invested as prescribed by law, neither the treasurer nor the commission shall be personally liable, but such loss shall be charged against the retirement fund and there is hereby appropriated from such fund an amount as may be so required.

c. Disburse such trust funds upon warrants drawn by the comptroller pursuant to the order of the commission.

d. To sell any securities or other property in the trust fund and reinvest the proceeds in accordance with the direction of the commission when such action may be deemed advisable by the commission for the protection of the trust fund or the preservation of the value of the investment. Such sale of securities or other property of the trust fund shall only be made after advice from the advisory board in the manner and to the extent provided in this chapter in regard to the purchase of investments.

e. To subscribe, in accordance with the direction of the commission, for the purchase of securities for future delivery in anticipation of future income. Such securities shall be paid for by such anticipated income or from funds from the sale of securities or other property held by the fund.

f. To pay for securities directed to be purchased by the commission on the receipt of the purchasing bank's paid statement or paid confirmation of purchase.

3. All moneys which are paid or deposited into this fund are hereby appropriated and made available to the commission to be used only for the purposes herein provided:

a. To be used by the commission for the payment of retirement claims for benefits under this chapter, or such other purposes as may be authorized by the general assembly.

b. To be used by the commission to pay refunds provided for in this chapter. [C46, 50, §97.5, 97.7; C54, 58, 62,§97B.7; 60GA, ch 95,§1]

97B.8 Advisory investment board. A board shall be established to be known as the "Advisory Investment Board of the Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System", hereinafter called the "board", whose duties shall be to advise and confer with the commission in matters relating to the investment of the trust funds of the Iowa public employees' retirement system. The powers of the board shall be purely advisory and the commission shall not be bound in the making of any investment by the recommendations of the board. The board shall consist of five members. Three of the members shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be an executive of a domestic life insurance company, one an executive of a state or national bank operating within the state of Iowa, and the third shall be an executive of a major industrial corporation located within the state of Iowa. The president of the senate shall appoint one member from the membership of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint one member from the membership of the house. The two members appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives shall be ex officio members of the board. Members appointed by the governor shall be paid their actual expenses incurred in performance of their duties and shall receive in addition thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars for each day of service not exceeding forty days per year. Ex officio members shall receive their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The appointive terms of the members appointed by the governor shall be for a period of six years dating from July 1 of the year in which they are appointed, but the governor shall designate, in the case of the original appointees, one who shall serve for a period of two years, a second who shall serve for a period of four years, and a third who shall serve for a period of six years. In the event of vacancy, through resignation or any other cause, in the membership of the board, the governor shall have the power of appointment. Appointees to this board shall be subject to confirmation by a two-thirds vote of the senate, but in the event of interim appointments, such confirmation shall be necessary at the next session of the senate. [C46, 50, §97.5; C54, 58, 62, §97B.8; 61GA, ch 113, §1]

97B.9 Taxes—payment and interest. Taxes unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the commission, shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per centum per month from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by the commission, provided that the commission may prescribe fair and reasonable regulations pursuant to which such interest shall not accrue with respect to taxes required. Interest collected pursuant to this section shall be paid into the Iowa public employees' retirement fund.

1. If within thirty days after due notice the employer defaults in payment of taxes or interest thereon, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the commission, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect taxes or interest thereon shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions.

2. The employer shall pay its tax or contribution from funds available and is directed to pay same from tax money or from any other income of the political subdivision; provided however, the tax shall be paid from the same fund as the employee salary.

3. Every political subdivision is hereby authorized and directed to levy a tax sufficient to meet its obligations under the provisions of this chapter if any tax is needed. [C46, 50, §§97.6, 97.8, 97.9, 97.12; C54, 58, 62, §97B.9; 60GA, ch 96, §10]

97B.10 Refunds. In any case in which the commission finds the employer has paid taxes thereon which have been erroneously paid, and has filed application for an adjustment thereof, the commission shall make such adjustment, compromise or settlement and make such refund of such payments as it finds just and equitable in the premises. Refunds so made shall be charged to the fund to which the erroneous collections have been credited and shall be paid to the claimant without interest. Any claim for such refund shall be made within three years of date of payment and not thereafter. For lack of time and cause, adjustments, compromises or refunds may be made by the commission on its own initiative. [C46, 50, §97.7; C54, 58, 62, §97B.10]

97B.11 Tax on employer and employee. In addition to all other taxes, there is hereby levied upon each employer, as defined in section 97B.41, and also upon each employee, as defined in section 97B.41, a tax equal to three and one-half percent of the wages paid by the employer to the employee for any service performed after June 30, 1953, while such employee is a member of the system. [C46, 50, §§97.8, 97.12; C54, 58, 62, §97B.11]

Referred to in §97B.69, subsection 2

97B.12 Statement to employee. The employer shall furnish to all employees a written statement in a form prescribed by the commission suitable for retention by the employee, showing the wages paid to the employee after July 1, 1953. Each statement shall cover a calendar year, or one, two or three quarters, whether or not within the same calendar year, and shall show the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within such period, and the amount of tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such wages. Each statement shall be furnished to the employee not later than thirty days following the period covered by the statement, except that if the employee leaves the employ of the employer, this final statement shall be furnished within thirty days after the last payment of wages is made to the employee. The employer may, at its option, furnish such a statement to any employee at the time of each payment of wages to the employee during any calendar quarter, in lieu of a statement covering each quarter, and, in such case, the statement may show the date of payment of wages in lieu of the period covered by the statement. [C46, 50, §97.11; C54, 58, 62, §97B.12]

97B.13 No income tax deduction. For the purposes of the state income tax, the tax imposed by this chapter shall not be allowed as a deduction to the taxpayer in computing his net income for any year in which such tax is deducted from his wages. [C46, 50, §97.10; C54, 58, 62, §97B.13]

97B.14 Taxes matched by employer. The taxes deducted from the wages of the employee by the employer shall be matched by the employer making the deduction and forwarded to the commission for recording and deposited with the treasurer of state to the credit of the Iowa public employees' retirement fund. Such taxes as deducted by the employer shall be paid in such manner, at such times and under such conditions, either by copies of payrolls or other methods necessary or helpful in securing proper identification of the taxpayer, as may be prescribed by the commission. [C46, 50, §97.12; C54, 58, 62, §97B.14]

97B.15 Rules and regulations. The commission shall have full power and authority to make rules and regulations and to establish procedures, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, which are necessary or appropriate to carry out such provisions and shall adopt reasonable and proper rules and regulations to regulate and provide for the nature and extent of the proofs and evidence and the method of taking and furnishing the same in order to establish the right to benefits hereunder. [C46, 50, §97.23; C54, 58, 62, §97B.15]

97B.16 Hearings. The commission is directed to make findings of fact, and decisions as to the rights of any individual applying for a payment under this chapter. Whenever requested by any such individual or by any other person who makes a showing in writing that his or her rights may be prejudiced by any decision the commission has rendered, it shall give such applicant and such other individual reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing with respect to such decision, and, if a hearing is held, shall, on the basis of evidence adduced at the hearing, affirm, modify, or reverse its findings of fact and such decision. The commission is further authorized, on its own motion, to hold such hearings and to conduct such investigations and other proceedings as it may deem necessary or proper for the administration of this chapter. In the course of any hearing, investigation, or other proceedings, it may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Evidence may be received at any hearing before the commission even though inadmissible under rules of evidence applicable to court procedure. [C46, 50, §97.24; C54, 58, 62, §97B.16]

97B.17 Records maintained. The commission shall establish and maintain records of the amount of wages paid to each individual subject to coverage under this chapter and shall maintain a record of the contribution of each individual, and also of the contribution made by each employer in behalf of said individuals and such records shall be the basis for the compilation of the retirement benefits provided under this chapter. Such records shall be evidence for the purpose of proceedings before the commission or any court of the amounts of such wages and the periods in which they were paid, and the absence of an entry as to an individual's wages in such records for any period shall be evidence that no wages were paid such individual in such period. [C46, 50, §§97.25-97.27; C54, 58, 62, §97B.17]

97B.18 Statement of accumulated credit. After the expiration of each calendar year and prior to July 1 of the succeeding year, the commission shall furnish each covered individual with a statement of his accumulated credits under this chapter up to the end of such calendar year. The commission shall mail such statement to each employer not later than June 30 of the succeeding calendar year. The employer shall distribute such statements to its employees, and the records of the commission as shown by said statement as to the wages of such individual for such year and the periods of payment shall be conclusive for the purpose of this chapter, except as herein-after provided. [C46, 50, §§97.11, 97.25; C54, 58, 62, §97B.18]

Referred to in §§97B.19, 97B.70, subsection 1(a)

97B.19 Revision for error. If, prior to the expiration of six months following the delivery of such statement, it is brought to the attention of the commission that any entry of such wages in such records is erroneous, or that any item of such wages has been omitted from the records, the commission may correct such entry or include such omitted item in its records, as the case may be. Written notice of any revision of any such entry which is adverse to the interest of any individual shall be given to such individual in any case where such individual has previously been notified by the commission of the amount of wages and of the period of payments shown by such entry. Upon request in writing made prior to the expiration of six months immediately following the giving of the statement provided for in section 97B.18, the commission shall afford any individual, or after his death shall afford his beneficiary or any other person so entitled in the judgment of the commission, reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing with respect to any entry or alleged omission of wages of such individual in such record, or any revision of any such entry. If a hearing is held, the commission shall make findings of fact and a decision based upon the evidence adduced at such hearing and shall revise its records accordingly. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commission under this section or section 97B.20 may appeal to the district court in the manner as provided in section 97B.29. [C46, 50, §§97.22, 97.26, 97.28; C54, 58, 62, §97B.19]

Referred to in §§97B.20, 97B.21

97B.20 Appeal—hearing. After the expiration of six months, as provided for in section 97B.19, and no appeal has been taken, the commission shall revise any entry or include in its records any omitted item of wages to conform its records with tax or wage reports or portions of tax reports. Notice shall be given of such conditions and to such individuals as is provided for revisions under section 97B.19. Upon request, notice and opportunity for hearing with respect to any such entry, omission or revision shall be afforded under such conditions and to such individuals as is provided for in section 97B.19, but no evidence shall be introduced at any such hearing except with respect to conformity of such records with such tax reports. [C46, 50, §§97.22, 97.26; C54, 58, 62, §97B.20]

[C46, 50, §§97.22, 97.27, 97.29; C54, 58, 62, §97B.21]

97B.22 Witnesses and evidence. For the purpose of any hearing, investigation, or other proceeding authorized or directed under this chapter, or relative to any other matter within its jurisdiction hereunder, the commission and/or appeal referee shall have the power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence that relates to any matter under investigation or in question before the commission. Such attendance of witnesses and production of evidence at the designated place of such hearing, investigation, or other proceedings may be required from any political subdivision in the state. Subpoenas of the commission shall be served by anyone authorized by it (1) by delivering a copy thereof to the individual named therein, or (2) by certified mail addressed to such individual at his last dwelling place or principal place of business. A verified return by the individual so serving the subpoena setting forth the manner of service, or, in the case of service by certified mail, the return post-office receipt therefor signed by the individual so served, shall be proof of service. Witnesses so subpoenaed shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the state of Iowa. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter, the chairman or an appeal referee and any duly authorized representative or member of the commission shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the administration of this chapter. [C46, 50, §§97.30, 97.32; C54, 58, 62, §97B.22]

97B.23 Penalty for contumacy. In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena duly served upon any person, any district court of the state of Iowa for the district in which said person charged with contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commission, shall have jurisdiction to issue an order requiring such person to appear and give testimony, or to appear and produce evidence, or both. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as contempt thereof. [C46, 50, §§97.31, 97.32; C54, 58, 62, §97B.23]

Contempts, chapter 665

97B.24 Production of books and papers. No person so subpoenaed or ordered shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, records, correspondence, documents, or other evidence on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, except that such person so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. [C46, 50, §97.32; C54, 58, 62, §97B.24]

97B.25 Applications for benefits. A representative designated by the commission and hereinafter referred to as a deputy, shall promptly examine applications for retirement benefits and on the basis of facts found by him shall either determine whether or not such claim is valid and if valid, the month with respect to which benefits shall commence, the monthly benefit amount payable, and the maximum duration thereof. The deputy shall promptly notify the applicant and any other interested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. Unless the applicant or other interested party, within thirty calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from such decision, to the appeal referee as provided in section 97B.26, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accord therewith. [C46, 50, §§97.33, 97.39, 97.41; C54, 58, 62, §97B.25]

97B.26 Referee. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal referee to be designated by the commission for this purpose, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. At said hearing all of the evidence taken and the proceedings had shall be taken and fully reported by a certified shorthand reporter. Said reporter shall promptly transcribe said evidence and proceedings and certify to same. The said transcript shall then be made available for use by the commission and by the courts at subsequent appeals, if any. The parties shall be duly notified of such referee's decision, together with his reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the commission unless, within thirty days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated pursuant to section 97B.27. [C46, 50, §§97.24, 97.33; C54, 58, 62, §97B.26]

Referred to in §97B.25

97B.27 Review of decision. Anyone aggrieved by the decision of the appeal referee may, at any time before such appeal referee's decision becomes final, petition the commission for review of such appeal referee's decision. The commission shall review the record made before the appeal referee, but no additional evidence shall be heard. On the basis of such record the commission shall either affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the appeal referee and shall determine the rights of the appellant on the basis of such record. It shall promptly notify the appellant and any other interested party by written decision. [C46, 50, §97.33; C54, 58, 62, §97B.27]

Referred to in §97B.26

97B.28 Conclusiveness of finding. Any decision of the commission in the absence of an appeal therefrom, as herein provided, shall become final thirty days after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted his remedies before the commission, as provided by this chapter. The commission shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial action involving any such decision and may be represented in any such judicial action by any qualified attorney who is a regular salaried employee of the commission or who has been designated by the commission for that purpose or, at the commission's request, by the attorney general. [C46, 50, §97.34; C54, 58, 62, §97B.28]

Referred to in §97B.33

97B.29 Judicial review. At any time prior to such commission decision becoming final, any party aggrieved thereby may secure judicial review thereof by commencing an action in the district court of the county in which the claimant was last employed or resides, provided that if the claimant does not reside in the state of Iowa the action shall be brought in the district court of Polk county, Iowa, against the commission for the review of this decision, in which action any other parties to the proceeding before the commission shall be made a defendant. In such action a petition, which need not be verified but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served on a member of the commission or upon such person as the commission may designate, and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there shall be left with the parties so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants, and the commission shall forthwith mail one such copy to each such defendant. When service is completed such petition shall be filed by appellant with the clerk of the district court who shall docket said cause in the same manner as provided for other civil actions. The commission shall, within sixty days after the notice of appeal has been served on the commission, certify and file with said district court all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with the findings of fact and decision of the commission therein. With such transcript the commission shall file its answer. The transcript, as certified and filed by the commission, shall be the record upon which the appeal shall be heard, and no additional evidence shall be heard. In the absence of fraud, any findings of fact by the commission after notice and hearing, as herein provided, shall be binding on the court on appeal when supported by substantial and competent evidence. The commission may also, in its discretion, certify to such courts, questions of law involving any decision by it. Such actions and the questions so certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workmen's compensation law and the employment security law of this state. [C46, 50, §97.33; C54, 58, 62, §97B.29]

Referred to in §§97B.19, 97B.21

97B.30 Powers of court. Any order or decision of the commission may be modified, reversed, or set aside on one or more of the following grounds and no other:

1. If the commission acted without or in excess of its power.
2. If the order or decree was procured by fraud.
3. If the facts found by the commission do not support the order or decree.
4. If there is not sufficient competent evidence in the record to warrant the making of the order or decision. [C46, 50, §97.34; C54, 58, 62, §97B.30]

97B.31 Judgment or decree. When the district court, on appeal, reverses or sets aside an order or decision of the commission, it may remand the case to the commission for further proceedings in harmony with the holdings of the court, or it may enter the proper judgment, as the case may be. Such judgment or decree shall have the same force and effect as if action had been originally brought and tried in said court. [C46, 50,§97.33; C54, 58, 62,§97B.31]

97B.32 Appeal to supreme court. An appeal may be taken from any final order, judgment, or decree of the district court to the supreme court of Iowa, in the same manner, but not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as is provided in civil cases. It shall not be necessary in any judicial proceeding under this section, to enter exceptions to the rulings of the commission and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. Upon the final determination of such judicial proceeding the commission shall enter an order in accordance with such determination. A petition for judicial review shall not act as a supersedeas or stay unless the commission shall so order. [C46, 50,§97.33; C54, 58, 62, §97B.32]

97B.33 Certification to comptroller. Upon final decision of the commission, or upon final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, that any person is entitled to any payment or payments under this chapter, the commission shall certify to the state comptroller the name and address of the person so entitled to receive such payment or payments, the amount of such payment or payments, and the time at which such payment or payments should be made, and the commission, through the state comptroller, shall make payment in accordance with the certification of the commission provided, that where a review of the commission decision is or may be sought under section 97B.28, certification of payment may be withheld pending such review. The state comptroller shall not be held personally liable for any payment or payments made in accordance with a certification by the commission. [C46, 50,§97.35; C54, 58, 62,§97B.33]

97B.34 Payment to incompetents. When it appears to the commission that the interest of an applicant entitled to a payment would be served thereby, certification of payment may be made, regardless of the legal competency or incompetency of the individual entitled thereto, either for direct payment to such applicant, or for his use and benefit to a relative or some other person. [C46, 50,§97.36; C54, 58, 62,§97B.34]

Referred to in §97B.35

97B.35 Finality of such payments. Any payment made after June 30, 1953, under the conditions set forth in section 97B.34, shall be a complete settlement and satisfaction of any claim, right, or interest in and to such payment. [C46, 50,§97.37; C54, 58, 62,§97B.35]

97B.36 Representatives of commission. The commission is authorized to delegate to any member, officer, or employee of the commission designated by it any of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter and is authorized to be represented by its own attorneys in any court in any case or proceeding arising under the provisions of said chapter. [C46, 50, §97.38; C54, 58, 62,§97B.36]

97B.37 Recognition of agents. The commission may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recognition of agents or other persons, other than attorneys as hereinafter provided, representing claimants before the commission, and may require of such agents or other persons, before being recognized as representatives of claimants, that they shall show that they are of good character and in good repute, possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render such claimants valuable service, and otherwise competent to advise and assist such claimants in the presentation of their cases. An attorney in good standing who is admitted to practice before the district or supreme court of the state, shall be entitled to represent claimants before the commission upon filing with the commission a certificate of his right to so practice from the presiding judge or clerk of any such court. [C46, 50,§97.38; C54, 58, 62,§97B.37]

97B.38 Fees for services. The commission may, by rule and regulation, prescribe the maximum fees which may be charged for services performed in connection with any claim before the commission under this chapter, and any agreement in violation of such rules and regulations shall be void. Any person who shall, with intent to defraud, in any manner willfully and knowingly deceive, mislead, or threaten any claimant or prospective claimant or beneficiary under this chapter by word, circular, letter or advertisement, or who shall knowingly charge or collect directly or indirectly any fee in excess of the maximum fee, or make any agreement directly or indirectly to charge or collect any fee in excess of the maximum fee, prescribed by the commission, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall for each offense be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. The right of any person to any future payment under this chapter shall not be transferable or assignable, at law or in equity, and none of the moneys paid or payable or rights existing under this chapter shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law. These moneys shall also be exempt from taxation, either as income or as personal property. [C46, 50,§97.43; C54, 58, 62, §97B.39]

97B.40 Fraud. Whoever, for the purpose of causing an increase in any payment authorized to be made under this chapter, or for the purpose of causing any payment to be made where no payment is authorized under this chapter, shall willfully make or cause to be made any false statement or representation as to the amount of any wages paid or received for the period during which earned or unpaid, knowing it to be false or whoever makes or causes to be made any false statement of a material fact knowing it to be false in any application for any payment under this chapter, or whoever willfully makes or causes to be made any false statement, representation, affidavit, or document in connection with such an application knowing them to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. [C46, 50, §97.44; C54, 58, 62, §97B.40]

1. A member may elect to receive a decreased retirement allowance during his lifetime and have such decreased retirement allowance (or a designated fraction thereof) continued after his death to another person, called a contingent annuitant, during the lifetime of the contingent annuitant. In case of such an election, no death benefits, as might otherwise be provided by this chapter, will be payable upon the death of either the member or the contingent annuitant after the member's retirement.

Any member who does not withdraw his accumulated contributions upon termination of employment may at any time request the return of his accumulated contributions, but if he receives such return of contributions he shall be deemed to have waived all claims for any other benefits from the fund.

6. Any member who terminates employment before he is entitled to the benefits of subsection 2 of this section and who does not claim and receive a refund of his accumulated contributions within five years of his date of termination shall, in event he makes claim for such refund more than five years after his date of termination, be required to submit proof satisfactory to the commission of his entitlement to such refund, but in no case shall interest be allowed upon his accumulated contributions for any period he is not an employee. The commission shall be under no obligation to maintain the accumulated contribution accounts of such former members for more than five years after their dates of termination. The amounts released by cancellation of the accumulated contribution accounts of such former members shall be made a part of the retirement dividends to be allocated to members in accordance with section 97B.70.

In the event he returns to public employment at any time within five years after this termination of employment, he shall be entitled to resume membership in the system with the same credits for prior service and accumulated contributions that he had earned when his original employment was terminated. No interest shall be credited on his accumulated contributions nor on his employer's accumulated contributions during the period from the time of his termination of employment to his resumption of employment.

Any member who has resumed employment under the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible for any second period of absence from membership as a result of termination of service until he shall have been employed for a period of five years or more from the date of resumption of employment. The unfunded accrued liability at any particular time shall be the excess, if any, of the present value of retirement allowances due to prior service, over the sum of (1) the net total accumulated accrued liability contributions (after adjustment for retirement allowance payments due to prior service) and (2) any assets transferred to the retirement fund in accordance with section 97B.56, with interest on such sum at the rates of interest earned each year on the retirement fund. 97B.68 Employees under federal civil service—mandatory termination.

1. From and after July 4, 1959, any person who is a member of the federal civil service retirement program shall not be eligible for membership in the Iowa public employees' retirement system, and the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to such employee. Any employee whose membership in the federal civil service retirement program is subsequently terminated shall immediately notify his employer and the Iowa employment security commission of such fact, and the employee shall become subject to the provisions of this chapter on the date the notification is received by the commission.

Any employee as defined in this chapter who is a member of the federal civil service retirement program on July 4, 1959, shall notify his employer and the Iowa employment security commission of such fact. The employee's membership in the Iowa public employees' retirement system shall automatically terminate on July 4, 1959.

2. Upon termination of membership in the Iowa public employees' retirement system under the provisions of this section, the employee shall be paid from the Iowa public employees' retirement fund within six months of the termination a lump sum cash amount equal to the sum of:

a. Such member's accumulated contributions as defined in subsection 13 of section 97B.41, computed as of July 4, 1959, plus

b. The total amount contributed to the Iowa old-age and survivors' insurance fund prior to July 1, 1953, by such member which was transferred to the retirement fund as of July 1, 1953, and would have been refundable to him had he not elected to receive prior service credit in accordance with section 97B.43, with interest on such amount at two percent per annum compounded annually from July 1, 1953, to July 4, 1959. [C62,§97B.68]

97B.69 Judges in judicial retirement system—mandatory termination.

1. Every person who is a member of the judicial retirement system on July 4, 1959, or who thereafter becomes a member shall have his membership terminated in the Iowa public employees' retirement system.

2. The tax on wages of each employee and his employer, as required by section 97B.11, shall cease on the effective date of such employee's membership in the judicial retirement system, or July 4, 1959, whichever is earlier.

3. Each member whose membership is terminated in the Iowa public employees' retirement system shall be paid from the Iowa public employees' retirement fund within the six-month period immediately following the date of termination of his membership a lump sum cash amount equal to the sum of such member's accumulated contributions as defined in subsection 13 of section 97B.41, computed as of the date his membership in the system is terminated; plus the total amount contributed to the Iowa old-age and survivors' insurance fund prior to July 1, 1953, by such member which was transferred to the Iowa public employees' retirement fund as of July 1, 1953, and would have been refundable to him had he not elected to receive prior service credit in accordance with section 97B.43, with interest on such amount at two percent per annum compounded annually from July 1, 1953, to the date his membership in the system was terminated.

4. Any employee whose membership in the judicial retirement fund is subsequently terminated shall be entitled to resume membership in the Iowa public employees' retirement system. [C62,§97B.69]

97B.70 Dividends to members. The commission shall declare certain dividends to members of the system. The method of determining the amount of such dividends and the methods of crediting or paying such dividends to members shall be as follows:

1. Dividends to active and vested members.

a. Interest dividends. Within sixty days after the end of each calendar year, the advisory investment board shall determine the average annual net rate of interest earned on the retirement fund for the calendar year just ended. The amount of interest dividend for each active and vested member for such calendar year shall be equal to the product of (1) the excess annual rate of interest for such year, times (2) such member's accumulated contributions as of January 1 of such year. The excess annual rate of interest for such year shall be determined by the commission upon recommendation of the advisory investment board, but in no event shall such rate exceed the excess, if any of (3) the average annual net rate of interest earned on the retirement fund for such year, over (4) the annual rate of interest credited to each member's accumulated contributions under subsection 13 of section 97B.41 plus .0025. The average annual net rate of interest and the excess annual rate of interest shall each be calculated, in decimal form, to the nearest ten thousandths—i.e. four decimal places.

The amount of interest dividend for each active and vested member, determined as provided in this paragraph "a", shall be credited to and made a part of such member's accumulated contributions as of December 31 of the year for which such dividend is computed. In the annual statements of accumulated credit as required by section 97B.18 such dividend may either be shown separately and labeled "interest dividend" or it may be included with the regular interest credited to the member in accordance with subsection 13 of 97B.41.

Interest dividends shall also be credited to employers' contributions at the same rate as provided in this paragraph "a" for members' contributions.

Referred to in §97B.53, subsection 3

b. Retirement dividends to active members.

The contributions, and interest thereon, made by employers on behalf of active members who terminate employment and receive a refund of their contributions after December 31, 1962 shall be credited as retirement dividends each year to active members who remain in employment, after first deducting from such contributions the annual accrued liability contribution computed in accordance with section 97B.54 for such year and the administration expenses of the system allocated to the active members' future service account. Such retirement dividends shall be used to provide retirement allowances computed in accordance with section 97B.49, subsection 4. Retirement dividends, including interest and interest dividends credited thereto, credited to active members who terminate employment and receive a refund of their accumulated contributions prior to retirement under this chapter shall be canceled upon such receipt of refund and shall be reapportioned to the active members who remain in employment. The amount of retirement dividend to be credited each year to each active member shall be determined as follows:

As of December 31, 1963, and as of each December 31 thereafter, the commission shall cause to be determined

(1) The total amount of contributions, and interest thereon, made by employers on behalf of active members who receive a refund of their contributions during the year ending on such December 31; plus the total amount of retirement dividend credits canceled during the year ending on such December 31 with respect to members who receive a refund of their contributions during the year ending on such December 31; minus the annual accrued liability contribution payable on the next June 30, computed in accordance with section 97B.54; also minus the administration expenses of the system allocated to the active members' future service account.

(2) The total amount of contributions from all active members received by the system during the year ending on such December 31.

The amount of retirement dividend to be credited to each active member on each December 31 shall equal the ratio of subparagraph "1" over subparagraph "2" of this paragraph "b" as of such December 31, multiplied by each such active member's contributions received by the system during the year ending on such December 31.

Retirement dividends shall be credited with interest and interest dividends each year at the same rates and in the same manner as provided for with respect to the members' accumulated contributions.

The commission shall cause the retirement dividends, as computed in accordance with this paragraph "b", to be credited to each active member not later than the June 30 next following the December 31 as of which the retirement dividends are computed.

Referred to in §97B.53, subsection 3

2. Retirement dividends to retired members and beneficiaries. As of July 1, 1964, and as of July 1 at the end of each five-year period thereafter, the actuary shall calculate, on the basis of the results of the actuarial valuation made as of such July 1, the ratio of (a) the portion of the retirement fund designated on the retirement fund records as "Future Service—Retired Members", to (b) the present value of all future service retirement allowances then being paid to retired members and beneficiaries in accordance with subsections 1 and 4 of section 97B.49, or the equivalent thereof in accordance with section 97B.50 or section 97B.51. Such portion of the retirement fund as of any July 1 shall be calculated as the accumulation from July 1, 1953 to such July 1 of (c) all accumulated contributions of members and employers and all retirement dividends that have been applied to provide retirement allowances under subsections 1 and 4 of section 97B.49 from July 1, 1953 to such July 1, minus (d) all future service retirement allowance payments made from July 1, 1953 to such July 1, minus (e) refunds of excess, if any, of retired member's accumulated contributions, excluding prior service contributions, over his future service retirement allowance payments, minus (f) all administrative expenses allocated to retired members' future service retirement allowances from July 1, 1953 to such July 1, plus (g) all investment income that is allocated to the balance of items "c" minus "d" minus "e" minus "f" from time to time during the period from July 1, 1953 to such July 1.

The ratio computed in accordance with the first paragraph of this subsection shall be rounded, in decimal form, to the nearest one thousandth—i.e. three decimal places. The fraction by which such ratio exceeds 1.010 shall be known as the dividend rate percent for retired members' future service retirement allowances, such rate to be effective for the five-year period beginning on the January 1 next following the July 1 as of which such dividend rate percent is computed.

The commission shall declare dividends be paid with respect to retired members' future service retirement allowances. Such dividends shall be in the form of an addition to the retired member's or beneficiary's regular periodic retirement allowance. The amount of such dividend to be so added shall be equal to the product of (h) dividend rate percent for retired members' future service retirement allowances or such portion thereof as the commission may declare, times (i) the retired member's or beneficiary's regular periodic future service retirement allowance. Such dividend shall be paid at the same time as the retired member's or beneficiary's regular periodic retirement allowance beginning on the January 1 as of which such dividend rate percent is effective and ending on the December 31 five years thereafter or on the date the retired member's or beneficiary's regular periodic retirement allowance ceases, if earlier. Dividend payments shall be identified as such to the retired members and beneficiaries.

At such time as the prior service portion of the retirement fund becomes at least equal in value to the present value of all prior service retirement allowances, with respect to both active and retired members, as reflected in the actuarial valuation as of a July 1, dividend payments may then be declared with respect to such prior service retirement allowances. The procedure for determining any such dividend payments shall be similar to, and may be combined with, the procedure set forth in this subsection for determination of dividend payments with respect to future service retirement allowances.

Referred to in §97B.53, subsection 3

3. Retirement dividends up to January 1, 1963. The contributions, and interest thereon, made by employers on behalf of active members who terminated employment and received a refund of their contributions during the years from July 4, 1953 to December 31, 1962 and the excess investment earnings on the retirement fund during those years, excluding the amount of such contributions previously allocated to the funding of prior service benefits and payment of administration expenses of the system and excluding excess investment earnings previously allocated to the prior service account, shall be allocated as retirement dividends among all members who are (a) in active employment on January 1, 1963, or (b) retired and receiving a retirement allowance under section 97B.49, subsection 1 on January 1, 1963. Excess investment earnings means the investment earnings each year in excess of two percent interest on the retirement fund for such year.

The allocation shall be made separately for each year from 1953 through 1962 as follows:

(c) The contributions, and interest thereon, made by employers on behalf of active members who terminated employment and received a refund of their contributions during the calendar year 1953 and the excess investment earnings on the retirement fund for calendar year 1953, excluding the prior service account, shall be allocated among the members who were in active employment in 1953 and who are in the group of members defined in items "a" and "b" of the first paragraph of this subsection. Such allocation shall be made in direct proportion to the members' accumulated contribution accounts on January 1, 1963, for active members, or on the date of retirement for retired members.

(d) Allocations for each of the calendar years 1954 through 1962, inclusive, shall be made by the same procedure as provided in paragraph "c" for the year 1953. The amount to be allocated each year shall exclude the amount, if any, that was allocated to the funding of prior service benefits and administration expenses for each such year.

(e) The sum of the allocations made to each member pursuant to paragraphs "c" and "d" shall be credited to each such member as a retirement dividend to be applied to provide him with additional retirement allowance in accordance with section 97B.49, subsection 4.

(f) Retirement dividends so credited to active members who terminate employment and receive a refund of their accumulated contributions prior to retirement under this chapter shall be canceled upon such receipt of refund and shall be reapportioned to the active members who remain in employment. [60GA, ch 96,§7; 61GA, ch 116,§5]

Referred to in §97B.53, subsection 6

97B.71 Refund of excess tax. A claim may be filed by any employee for repayment of any taxes withheld over the first forty-eight hundred dollars in earnings in any one year, by one or more employers. The commission shall if a claim is allowed to the employee, also mail a refund check for the taxes paid by the employer for the employee on which the employee is allowed a refund. The commission shall have power and authority to require the filing of a proper application by the employee before the claim shall be allowed. Any claim for such refund shall be made within three years of date of payment and not thereafter. For lack of time and cause, adjustments, compromises or refunds may be made by the commission on its own initiative. [60GA, ch 96, §12]

97C.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the federal

Insurance Contribution Act, would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that Act.

2. The term "employment" means any service performed by an employee in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, for such employer, except (1) service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this chapter would constitute "employment" as defined in the Social Security Act; or (2) service which under the Social Security Act may not be included in an agreement between the state and the federal security administrator entered into under this chapter.

3. The term "employee" includes elective and appointive officials of the state or any political subdivision thereof, except members of the general assembly, elective officials in positions, the compensation for which is on a fee basis, elective officials of school districts, elective officials of townships, and elective officials of other political subdivisions who are in part-time positions; provided that no member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an elective official in a part-time position, but every member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an employee within the purview of this chapter and shall be eligible to receive all of the benefits provided by this chapter to which he may be entitled as an employee.

4. The term "employer" means the state of Iowa and all of its political subdivisions which employ persons eligible to coverage under an agreement entered into by this state and the federal security administrator under the provisions of the Social Security Act, Title II, of the Congress of the United States as amended.

7. The term "Social Security Act" means the Act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, Chapter 531, 49 Stat. 620, officially cited as the "Social Security Act," Title II, (including regulations and requirements issued pursuant thereto) as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended.

[C46, 50, §97.45; C54, 58, 62, §97C.2]

Referred to in §§97C.3, 97C.10

97C.3 Federal-state agreement. The state agency, with the approval of the governor and the attorney general, is hereby authorized to enter on behalf of the state into an agreement with the federal security administrator, consistent with the terms and provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of extending the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system to employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof with respect to services specified in such agreement which constitute "employment" as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter. Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and other appropriate provisions as the state agency and federal security administrator shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the Social Security Act, Title II, as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

1. Benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of Title II of said Social Security Act.

2. The state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the Social Security Act, Title II, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter), equal to the sum of taxes which would be imposed by sections 1400 and 1410 of the federal Insurance Contributions Act, if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that Act.

3. Such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement performed after a date specified therein, but in no event may it be effective with respect to any such services performed prior to the first day of the calendar year in which such agreement is entered into or in which the modification of the agreement making it applicable to such services is entered into, provided that in the case of an agreement or modification made after the effective date of this chapter [May 3, 1953] and prior to January 1, 1954, such agreement or modification of the agreement shall be made effective with respect to any such services performed on or after January 1, 1951.

4. All services which constitute employment as defined in section 97C.2, and are performed in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision, by employees of the state, or of any political subdivision, shall be covered by the agreement. [C46, 50, §97.45; C54, 58, 62, §97C.3]

Referred to in §§97C.4, 97C.5, 97C.13, 97C.14, 97C.15, 97C.17

97C.4 Other states—joint agreements. Any instrumentality jointly created by this state and any other state or states is hereby authorized, upon the granting of like authority by such other state or states, (1) to enter into an agreement with the federal security administrator whereby the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system shall be extended to employees of such instrumentality, (2) to require its employees to pay (and for that purpose to deduct from their wages) contributions equal to the amounts which they would be required to pay under section 97C.5 if they were covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 97C.3, and (3) to make payments to the secretary of the treasury in accordance with such agreement, including payments from its own funds, and otherwise to comply with such agreements. Such agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of section 97C.3 and other provisions of this chapter. [C54, 58, 62, §97C.4]

97C.5 Tax on employees. Every employee whose services are covered by an agreement entered into under section 97C.3 shall be required to pay for the period of such coverage into the contribution fund established by section 97C.12, a tax which is hereby imposed with respect to wages received during the calendar year of 1953, equal to such per centum of the wages received by the employee as imposed by Social Security Act, Title II, as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended. Such payment shall be considered a condition of employment as a public employee. Taxes deducted from the wages of the employee by the employer and taxes imposed upon the employer shall be forwarded to the state agency for recording and shall be deposited with the treasurer of state to the credit of the contribution fund established by section 97C.12 of this chapter. 97C.6 Collection of tax. The tax imposed by sections 97C.5 and 97C.14 shall be collected by each employer from the employee by deducting the amount of the tax from wages as and when paid, but failure to make such deduction shall not relieve the employee from liability for such taxes. [C46, 50,§§97.7, 97.9, 97.45; C54, 58, 62,§97C.6]

97C.8 Statement to employees. The employer shall furnish to all employees a written statement in a form prescribed by the state agency suitable for retention by the employees, showing the wages paid to the employee after January 1, 1953. Each statement shall cover a calendar year, or one, two or three quarters, whether or not within the same calendar year, and shall show the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within such period, and the amount of tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such wages. Each statement shall be furnished to the employee not later than thirty days following the period covered by the statement, except that, if the employee leaves the employ of the employer, this final statement shall be furnished within thirty days after the last payment of wages is made to the employee. The employer may, at its option, furnish such a statement to any employee at the time of each payment of wages to the employee during any calendar quarter, in lieu of a statement covering such quarter, and, in such case, the statement may show the date of payment of wages in lieu of the period covered by the statement. [C46, 50,§97.11; C54, 58, 62,§97C.8]

97C.9 Adjustments or refund. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 97C.5 is paid or deducted with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [C54, 58, 62,§97C.9]

97C.10 Tax on employer. In addition to all other taxes there is hereby imposed upon each employer as defined in section 97C.2 subsection 4 of this chapter, a tax equal to such per centum of the wages paid by the employer to each employee as imposed by the Social Security Act, Title II, as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended. The employer shall pay its tax or contribution from funds available and is directed to pay same from tax money or from any other income available. The political subdivision is hereby authorized and directed to levy in addition to all other taxes a property tax sufficient to meet its obligations under the provisions of this chapter, if such tax levy is necessary because other funds are not available. [C46, 50,§97.12; C54, 58, 62,§97C.10]

Referred to in §97C.12

97C.11 Payment — adjustment or refund. Such taxes as deducted by the employer from the earnings of employees or upon the employers shall be paid in such manner, at such times and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state agency. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed upon the employer is paid or deducted, proper adjustments or refund, if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [C46, 50,§97.7; C54, 58, 62,§97C.11]

Referred to in §97C.12

97C.12 Contribution fund. There is hereby established in the office of the treasurer of state a special fund to be known as the contribution fund. Such fund shall consist of, and there shall be deposited in such fund: (1) all taxes, interest, and penalties collected under sections 97C.5, 97C.10, and 97C.11; (2) all moneys appropriated thereto under this chapter; (3) any property or securities and earnings thereof acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund; (4) interest earned upon any moneys in the fund, and (5) all sums recovered upon the bond of the custodian or otherwise for losses sustained by the fund and all other moneys received for the fund from any other source. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state agency is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all moneys and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. All moneys in this fund shall be mingled and undivided. [C54, 58, 62,§97C.12]

Referred to in §§97C.5, 97C.14

97C.13 Fund kept separate. The contribution fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or moneys of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this chapter. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for, payment of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under section 97C.3, or the payment of refunds provided for in this chapter. [C54, 58, 62,§97C.13]

97C.14 Elected officials — retroactive payments. Any elective official of the state of Iowa, or any of its political subdivisions, who becomes subject to federal social security coverage under the provisions of the agreement referred to in section 97C.3 shall, not later than October 1, 1953, pay into the contribution fund established by section 97C.12 a tax sufficient to pay in his behalf an amount equal to three percent of his compensation received as a public official for each year or portion thereof that he has served as a public elective official since January 1, 1951, not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars for any year of service. The employment security commission will pay any such amount contributed to provide for retroactive federal social security coverage for the individual in question in the same manner as other payments are made for retroactive coverage of public employees. Provided that no member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an elective official in a part-time position, but every member of a county board of supervisors shall be deemed to be an employee within the purview of this chapter and shall be eligible to receive all of the benefits provided by this chapter to which he may be entitled as an employee. Class D. On tubes, one and one-half cents for each fifty tubes or fractional part thereof.

2. The said tax shall be paid only once by the person making the "first sale" in this state, and shall become due and payable as soon as such cigarettes are subject to a first sale in Iowa, it being intended to impose the tax as soon as such cigarettes are received by any person in Iowa for the purpose of making a "first sale" of same. No person, however, shall be required to pay a tax on cigarettes brought into this state on or about his person in quantities of forty cigarettes or less, when such cigarettes have had the individual packages or seals thereof broken and when such cigarettes are actually used by said person and not sold or offered for sale.

3. 4. The tax imposed shall be in lieu of any other occupation or excise tax on cigarettes imposed by any political subdivision of the state. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1570; C39, §1556.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.6; 60GA, ch 5, §6; 61GA, ch 117, §§1, 2]

The state printing board shall be and is hereby required to design and have printed or manufactured, cigarette tax stamps of such size, denomination, and type and in such quantities as may be determined by the commission. The stamps shall be so manufactured as to render them easy to be securely attached to each individual package of cigarettes or cigarette papers. Such stamps shall be in the possession of and under the control of the comptroller.

Upon requisition of the commission, the comptroller shall deliver to it the stamps designated in such requisition, and shall charge the commission with the stamps so delivered, and shall keep an accurate record of all stamps coming into and leaving his possession.

There is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this section. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1574; C39, §1556.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.7]

98.8 Sale and exchange of stamps.

1. Stamps shall be sold by and purchased from the commission only. The commission shall sell stamps to the holder of a state or manufacturer's permit which has not been revoked and to no other person. Stamps shall be sold to such permit holders at a discount of not to exceed five percent from the face value. Stamps shall be sold in unbroken sheets of one hundred stamps only.

2. Orders for cigarette tax stamps shall be sent direct to the commission, and it shall be the duty of the commission to invoice the stamps ordered to the purchaser upon a form of invoice to be prescribed by the commission.

3. Stamps in unbroken sheets of one hundred stamps may be exchanged, with the commission, for stamps of a different denomination. The commission shall be authorized to make refunds on unused stamps to the person who purchased said stamps at a price equal to the amount paid for such stamps when proof satisfactory to said commission is furnished that any stamps upon which a refund is requested were properly purchased from said commission and paid for by the person requesting such refund. In making such refund, the commission shall prepare a voucher showing the amount of refund due and to whom payable and the comptroller shall then issue a warrant upon order of the commission to pay such refund out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The commission may promulgate rules and regulations providing for refunds of the face value of stamps affixed to any cigarettes which have become unfit for use and consumption, unsalable, or for any other legitimate loss which may occur, upon proof of such loss. Refund shall be made by issuing new stamps of an aggregate value of the tax paid on the cigarettes adjudged to be unfit for use, consumption, unsalable, or any other loss suffered.

4. The commission shall have the power and authority in the enforcement of this chapter to recall any stamps which have been sold by it and which have not been used, and it shall be the duty of said commission, upon receipt of such recalled stamps, to issue stamps of other serial numbers therefor. The purchaser of any stamps shall be required to surrender any unused stamps for exchange upon demand of the said commission.

5. The commission shall keep a record of all stamps sold by it or under its direction, of all stamps exchanged by it, and of all refunds made by it. [C24, §§1574, 1575; C27, 31, 35, §§1574, 1574-a1, 1575; C39, §1556.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.8]

98.9 Change of design. The design of the stamps used may be changed as often as the commission may deem necessary for the best enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §1556.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.9]

98.10 Affixing of stamps by distributors. Except as provided in section 98.17, every distributor in this state shall cause to be affixed upon every individual package of cigarettes received by him, upon which no sufficient tax stamp is already affixed, a stamp or stamps of an amount equal to the tax due thereon. Such stamps shall be affixed within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, from the hour the cigarettes were received, and shall be affixed before such distributor sells, offers for sale, consumes, or otherwise distributes or transports the same. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than a distributing agent or distributor, bonded pursuant to section 98.14, or common carrier to receive or accept delivery of any cigarettes without stamps affixed to evidence the payment of the tax, or without having in his possession the requisite amount or number of stamps necessary to stamp such cigarettes, and the possession of any unstamped cigarettes, without the possession of the requisite amount or number of stamps, shall be prima-facie evidence of the violation of this provision. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1571; C39, §1556.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.10]

98.11 Cancellation of stamps. No stamps affixed to a package of cigarettes shall be canceled by any letter, numeral, or other mark of identification or otherwise mutilated in any manner that will prevent or hinder the commission in making an examination as to the genuineness of said stamp; provided, however, that the commission may direct and require such cancellation of the tax stamps affixed to packages of cigarettes or cigarette papers which, in its judgment, is necessary and essential to carry out properly the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §1556.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.11]

98.12 Use of stamping machines. The commission, with the consent of the executive council, may purchase and supply suitable machines or devices to the holders of a state or manufacturer's permit, or authorize the leasing by the permit holder of such machines or the metering device or both, and provide under proper regulation and direction for the impression of a distinctive imprint, indicium or character upon individual packages of cigarettes, cigarette papers and tubes as evidence of the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, in lieu of the purchase and affixation of stamps as provided herein.

In the event the commission and executive council decide to purchase such machines they shall be paid for upon order of the commission out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The machines or devices shall be so constructed as to record or meter the number of impressions or indicia made and shall at all times be open for inspection by the commission.

All of the provisions of this chapter relating to the collection of the tax by means of the sale and affixation of stamps shall apply in the use of the stamping machines or devices, including the right of refund as provided herein. [C39, §1556.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §98.12]

98.13 Distributor's, wholesaler's, and retailer's permits.

1. Permits required. Every distributor, wholesaler, cigarette vendor, and retailer in this state, now engaged or who desires to become engaged in the sale or use of cigarettes, upon which a tax is required to be paid, shall obtain a state and/or retail cigarette permit as a distributor, wholesaler, cigarette vendor, or retailer, as the case may be.

2. Issuance. The commission shall issue state permits to distributors, wholesalers, cigarette vendors, and retailers subject to the conditions hereinafter provided. Cities and towns may issue retail permits to dealers within their respective limits. County boards of supervisors may issue retail permits to dealers in their respective counties, outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns. Upon issuance of a retail permit by a city or town council or board of supervisors, such council or board shall forthwith certify to the commission the action so taken.

3. Fees—expiration. All permits provided for in this chapter shall expire on June 30 of each year. No permit shall be granted or issued until the applicant shall have paid for the period ending June 30 next, to the state tax commission or the city, town or county granting such permit, the fees provided for in this chapter. The annual state permit fee for a distributor, cigarette vendor, and wholesaler shall be one hundred dollars when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September, provided that whenever a state permit holder shall operate more than one place of business, a duplicate state permit shall be issued for each additional place of business on payment of five dollars for each such duplicate state permit, but refunds as provided in this chapter shall not apply to any duplicate permit issued.

The fee for retail permits to be issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September:

a. In towns and other places outside any city or town, fifty dollars.

b. In cities of less than fifteen thousand population, seventy-five dollars.

c. In cities of fifteen thousand or more population, one hundred dollars.

If any permit is granted during the months of October, November, or December, the said fee shall be three-fourths of the above maximum schedule; if granted during the months of January, February, or March, one-half of said maximum schedule, and if granted during the months of April, May, or June, one-fourth of the said maximum schedule.

4. Refunds.

a. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid the full annual fee may be surrendered during the first nine months of said year to the officer issuing it, and the state tax commission, or the city, town, or county granting the permit shall make refunds to the said holder as follows:

Three-fourths of the annual fee if the surrender is made during July, August, or September.

One-half of the annual fee if the surrender is made during October, November, or December.

One-fourth of the annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

b. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid three-fourths of a full annual fee may be so surrendered during the first six months of the period covered by said payment and the said state tax commission, city, town, or county shall make refunds to the holder as follows:

A sum equal to one-half of an annual fee if the surrender is made during October, November, or December.

A sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

c. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid one-half of a full annual fee may be so surrendered during the first three months of the period covered by said payment, and the said state tax commission, city, town or county, shall refund to the holder a sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee.

5. Application—bond. Said permits shall be issued only upon applications accompanied by the fee indicated above, and by an adequate bond as provided in section 98.14, and upon forms furnished by the commission upon written request. The failure to furnish such forms shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless absolute refusal is shown. Said forms shall set forth:

a. The manner under which such distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, transacts or intends to transact such business as distributor, wholesaler, or retailer.

b. The principal office, residence, and place of business in Iowa, for which the permit is to apply.

c. If the applicant is not an individual, the principal officers or members thereof, not to exceed three, and their addresses.

d. Such other information as the commission shall by rules and regulations prescribe.

6. No sales without permit. No distributor, wholesaler, cigarette vendor, or retailer shall sell any cigarettes until such application has been filed and the fee prescribed paid for a permit and until such permit is obtained and only while such permit is unrevoked and unexpired.

7. Number of permits—trucks. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, excepting that no permit need be obtained for a delivery or sales truck of a distributor or wholesaler holding a permit, provided that the commission may by regulation require that said truck bear the distributor's or wholesaler's name, and that the permit number of the place of business for and from which it operates be conspicuously displayed on the outside of the body of the truck, immediately under the name.

8. Group business. Any person who operates both as a distributor and wholesaler in the same place of business shall only be required to obtain a state permit for the particular place of business where such operation of said business is conducted. A separate retail permit, however, shall be required if any distributor or wholesaler sells cigarettes at both retail and wholesale.

9. Permit—form and contents. Each permit issued shall describe clearly the place of business for which it is issued, shall be nonassignable, consecutively numbered, designating the kind of permit, and shall authorize the sale of cigarettes in this state subject to the limitations and restrictions herein contained. The retail permits shall be upon forms furnished by the commission.

10. Permit displayed. The permit shall, at all times, be publicly displayed by the distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, at his place of business, so as to be easily seen by the public and the persons authorized to inspect the same. The proprietor or keeper of any building or place wherein cigarettes shall be kept for sale, or with intent to sell, shall upon request of the commission or any peace officer exhibit his permit to so keep and sell. His refusal or failure to so exhibit such permit shall be prima-facie evidence that such cigarettes are kept for sale or with intent to sell in violation of the provisions of this chapter. The commission may also require each permit holder to keep and retain in his possession evidence on prescribed forms of all transactions involving the purchase and sale of cigarettes or the purchase and use of stamps as herein provided. All of such evidence shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of each transaction, for the inspection at all times by the commission.

2. Where a state permit holder sells cigarettes at retail, he shall be required to issue an invoice to his retail department for cigarettes to be sold at retail and such cigarette invoices shall be kept separate and apart.

3. The commission may by regulation require every holder of a manufacturer's or state permit to make and deliver to the commission on or before the tenth day of each month a report or reports for the preceding calendar month, upon a form or forms prescribed by the commission, and may require that such reports shall be properly sworn to and executed by the permit holder or his duly authorized representative.

4. Every permit holder shall, when requested by the commission, make such additional reports as the commission deems necessary and proper and shall at the request of the commission furnish full and complete information pertaining to any transaction of the permit holder involving the purchase or sale or use of cigarettes or purchase of cigarette stamps.

5. Every person engaged in the business of selling cigarettes in interstate commerce only, who has, by furnishing the bond required in section 98.14, been permitted to set aside or store cigarettes in this state for the conduct of such interstate business without the stamps affixed thereto, shall be required to keep such records and make such reports to the commission as are required by it.

6. If any distributor or other person fails or refuses to pay any tax, penalties, or cost of audit hereinafter provided, and it becomes necessary to bring suit or to intervene in any manner for the establishment or collection of said claims, in any judicial proceedings, any report filed in the office of the commission by such distributor or other person, or his representative, or a copy thereof, certified to by the commission, showing the number of cigarettes sold by such distributor or his representative, upon which such tax, penalty or cost of audit has not been paid, or any audit made by the commission or its representative from the books or records of said distributor or other person when signed and sworn to by such representative as being made from the records of said distributor or person from or to whom such distributor or other person has bought, received, or delivered cigarettes, whether from a transportation company or otherwise, such report or audit shall be admissible in evidence

The failure to furnish shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said form shall set forth the name under which such distributing agent transacts or intends to transact such business as a distributing agent, the principal office and place of business in Iowa to which the permit is to apply, and if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof and their addresses. The commission may require any other information it may desire in said application. No distributing agent shall engage in such business until such application has been filed and fee in the sum of one hundred dollars paid for the permit and until the permit has been obtained. Such permit shall expire on June 30 following the date of issuance. All of the provisions of the last two paragraphs of section 98.14, relative to bonds, are incorporated herein and by this reference made applicable to distributing agents. Upon failure to furnish adequate bond as required, the permit shall be revoked without hearing. Upon receipt of the application and bond and the permit fee herein provided for, the commission may issue to every distributing agent for the place of business designated a nonassignable consecutively numbered permit, authorizing the storing, and distribution of unstamped cigarettes within this state when such distribution is made upon interstate orders only. A distributing agent may also transport unstamped cigarettes in his own conveyances to the state boundary for distribution outside the state, and any nonresident customer of such distributor may purchase and convey unstamped cigarettes to the state line for distribution outside the state. Such nonresident purchaser shall be required to have in his possession an invoice evidencing the purchase of such unstamped cigarettes, which must be exhibited upon request to any peace officer or agent charged with the enforcement of this chapter.

3. Cigarettes set aside for interstate business must be kept separate from intrastate stock and those not so kept shall be considered as intrastate stock and subject to the same requirements as cigarettes possessed for the purpose of a "first sale".

Such attendance and production may be required at the statehouse at Des Moines, or at any place convenient for such investigation. In case any person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena so issued, the commission may procure an order from the district court in the county where such person resides, or where such person is found, requiring such person to appear for examination and/or to produce such books, papers, and records as are required in the subpoena. If such person violates any other provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder, the commission may revoke the permit issued to said person, after giving such permit holder an opportunity to be heard upon five days written notice stating the reason for such contemplated revocation and the time and place at which he may appear and be heard. The said hearing shall be held in the county of the permit holder's place of business, or in a county in or through which it transacts business. Such notice shall be given by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail to the permit holder's place of business as the same appears on his application for a permit. If, upon such hearing, the commission shall find that such violation has occurred, it may revoke the permit or permits.

No cigarettes shall be sold in such cars without having affixed thereto stamps evidencing the payment of the tax as provided in this chapter.

2. As a condition precedent to the issuing of a retailer's permit for railway car, the applicant shall file with the commission a bond in favor of the state for the benefit of all parties interested in the amount of five hundred dollars conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, fines and penalties and costs in this chapter provided.

99A.2 Intentional possession. The intentional possession or willful keeping of a gambling device upon any licensed premises is cause for the revocation of any license upon the premises where the gambling device is found. Possession by an employee of the licensee on the premises of the licensee shall give rise to the presumption of intentional possession by the licensee.

All licenses of any licensed business shall be revoked if the intentional possession or willful keeping of any such gambling device upon the licensed premises is established, notwithstanding that it may not be made to appear that such devices have actually been used or operated for the purpose of gambling. [C54, 58, 62,§99A.2]

99A.3 Proceedings to revoke. The proceedings for revocation shall be had before the issuing authority, which shall have power to

The order to show cause shall be served upon the licensee as an original notice, or by certified mail, not less than eight days before the date fixed for the hearing thereof. A copy of the order shall forthwith be mailed to the owner of the premises, as shown by the records in the office of the county recorder at his last known post-office address. A copy of the order shall at the same time be mailed to any other issuing authority, of which the authority issuing the order to show cause has knowledge, by which other licenses to that licensee may have been issued, and any such other authority may participate in the revocation proceedings after notifying the licensee and the officer or authority holding the hearing of its intention so to do on or before the date of hearing, and after the hearing take such action as it could have taken had it instituted the revocation proceedings in the first instance. [C54, 58, 62, §99A.5]

99A.6 Licenses revoked—appeal. If, upon the hearing of the order to show cause, the issuing authority finds that the licensee intentionally possessed or willfully kept upon his licensed premises any gambling device, then the license or licenses under which the licensed business is operated, or used in the operation of such business on the licensed premises, shall be revoked.

A licensee whose license has been revoked or any owner of licensed premises aggrieved by an order of an issuing authority, may within fifteen days after the date of the order of the issuing authority file an application for writ of certiorari in the district court in and for the county where the business of the licensee is located.

Unless the licensee has filed an application for writ of certiorari in the district court, revocation shall date from the sixteenth day following the date of the order of the issuing authority. In the event the licensee has filed an application for writ of certiorari in the district court revocation shall date from the thirty-first day following entry of the order of the district court, if action by the district court is adverse to the licensee.

If the licensee appeals to the supreme court of Iowa, or applies for writ of certiorari to such court, revocation shall not be effective pending determination by the supreme court of Iowa, provided the licensee shall post bond with the clerk of the district court in an amount fixed by the clerk of the court in the district wherein the business is licensed, conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against him on the appeal, or the hearing on a writ, if the action of the district court is affirmed. Revocation shall date from the day following final disposition of such court.

No new license or licenses shall be granted the licensee, nor for the same business if it is established that the owner had actual knowledge of the existence of the gambling devices resulting in the license revocation, upon the same premises, for the period of one year following the date of revocation. [C54, 58, 62, §99A.6]

Referred to in §§99A.7, 99A.9

For purpose of this chapter: "Flammable liquid" means a liquid having a flash point below two hundred degrees fahrenheit and a Reid vapor pressure not exceeding forty psi absolute. [C58, 62,§101.3] facilities in service prior to the effective date of the regulations and not in strict conformity therewith may be continued in service unless the nonconformity is such as to constitute a distinct hazard to life or adjoining property; and for guidance in enforcement may delineate these types of nonconformity that should be considered distinctly hazardous, those that should not be considered distinctly hazardous and those the need for elimination of which should be evaluated in the light of local factors. As to any regulation the need for compliance with which is conditioned on local factors, the regulations shall provide, as a condition precedent to evaluation or issuance of a compliance order, for reasonable notice to the proprietor of the facility affected of intention to evaluate the need and of the time and place at which he may appear and offer evidence thereon. [C35,§1655-g3; C39,§1655.3; C46, 50, 54, §101.3; C58, 62,§101.4] authorized by other law to regulate the use of land by comprehensive zoning or to control the construction of buildings and structures under building codes or restricted fire district regulations. Provided, further, that the size, weight and cargo carried by vehicles used in the transportation or delivery of flammable liquids or liquefied petroleum gas shall be governed by the uniform provisions of the motor vehicle and highway traffic laws of this state and local ordinances therein authorized. 102.1 Exemptions of members. Any person while an active member of any fire engine, hook and ladder, hose, or any other company for the extinguishment of fire, or the protection of property at fires, under the control of the corporate authorities of any city or town, shall be exempt from the performance of military duty and labor on the roads on account of poll tax, and from serving as a juror. Any person who has been an active member of such company in any city or town as aforesaid, and has faithfully discharged his duties as such for the term of ten years, shall thereafter be exempt from military duty in time of peace, from serving as a juror, and from labor on the roads. [R60,§1763; C73,§1560; C97,§2462; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1656; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§102.1]

Any person who has thus served in any company for the term of ten years shall receive from the foreman of the company of which he shall have been a member a certificate to that effect, and on its presentation to the clerk he shall file the same in his office and give his certificate, under the corporate seal, to such person, setting forth the name of the company of which such person was a member and the duration of such membership, which certificate shall be received in all courts as evidence that the person legally holding the same is entitled to such exemption. [R60,§1764; C73,§1561; C97,§2463; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1657; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§102.2]

102.3 Certificate of exemption. To entitle a person to exemption from labor on the roads before the expiration of the term of ten years, he shall, on or before the first day of April of each year, file with the clerk of the city or town a certificate, signed by the foreman of the company of which he is a member, that the holder thereof is an active member of said fire company, and thereupon the clerk shall enter said exemption upon the street tax list for that year. | 103.8 Doors to open outward. | 103.17 Violations. |
| 103.9 Number and size of exits. | |

103.1 Fire escapes. Every church, school, hotel, theater, amphitheater, asylum, hospital, nursing home, college or university building, lodge hall, club room, public meeting place, and all other structures in which persons congregate from time to time, whether publicly or privately owned, shall have at least two means of exit from each story. All such buildings shall be equipped with such protection from fire, and means of escape therefrom, as in this chapter provided.

After the thirty-first day of December, 1957, every such new or remodeled building, except private one- or two-family dwellings and farm buildings, shall have at least two means of exit from each story and shall be equipped with such protection from fire, and means of escape therefrom, as in this chapter provided. [SS15,§4999-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1660; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.1]

Referred to in §103.3

103.2 Terms defined. The word "building" as used in this chapter shall include all structures or inclosures of each of the classes mentioned or referred to herein. The word "story" shall include a basement story when such basement story is on the average five feet or more above the ground. The word "exit" shall mean a doorway or doorways or windows, or such doorways together with connecting hallways or stairways, either interior or exterior, or fire escapes, by means of which occupants may proceed safely from a room or space to a street or to a space which provides safe access to a street. Two or more separate exit ways may use the same corridor or hallway. [SS15,§4999-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1661; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §103.2]

103.3 Fire escapes required. In addition to the requirements of section 103.1, every building coming under the provisions of this chapter shall have at least the number of exits of the kind prescribed by law and as determined by the following formula:

Number of exits shall equal C times P.

P equals the average maximum number of persons on the story with the highest number above the first story.

C is a coefficient and is fixed, and shall be taken for the various classes of buildings as follows:

1. Buildings having wooden or combustible walls, C equals .020.
2. Buildings having brick or combustible walls with combustible interior, C equals .014.
3. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow-burning construction, C equals .012.
4. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, C equals .007.
5. Buildings of wooden or combustible walls equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .014.
6. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .008.
7. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow-burning construction equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .006.
8. Fireproof buildings equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .003.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to permit less than two exits from each story of every building except private one- or two-family dwellings and farm buildings. When the result of said formula is two or less than two, the number of exits shall be two. The number of additional exits required shall include any fraction as a unit, except when such fraction shall be thirty-three hundredths or less, in which case the fraction may be dropped if permitted by the inspector. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1662; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.3]

103.4 Location of fire escapes and exits. The following regulations as to location of fire escapes and exits are hereby established:

1. The second exit required by law shall be placed as far as possible from the existing inside stairway or passage to the lower floors of the building, taking into account the hazard and the path or route of access to the escape from such stairway.

2. The distance to the nearest fire escape from any inside stairway or passage to the lower floor shall not exceed two hundred feet by way of the path or route of access to such fire escape from such stairway or passage.

3. Additional fire escapes to those otherwise provided by law shall be provided wherever it is necessary to pass within twenty feet of any stairway or elevator shaft from any portion of the building more than twenty feet from such stairway or shaft to reach the fire escape required by the provisions of law and where there are peculiar, unusual, or extreme hazards, additional fire escapes may be required by those authorized by law to regulate and fix the number and requirements of fire escapes.

4. When the inspector shall deem it necessary on account of the height of any building or on account of the number of persons ordinarily occupying said building, either permanently or temporarily in the course of business, such building shall be equipped with a sufficient number of fire escapes to permit the exit of all occupants within the following periods of time:

a. Buildings with wooden or combustible walls, two minutes.

b. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior, three minutes.

c. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow-burning interior construction, four minutes.

d. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, fifteen minutes; or a less period of time if hazard of merchantable contents of such building may so require.

In estimating the period of time required the rate of descent on the fire escapes shall not be taken in excess of one and five-tenths feet of vertical distance, or height, per second, when said fire escapes are fully loaded, which rate of descent shall be estimated to permit the exit of not to exceed one person per second; but the time of complete exit as herein provided may be increased where efficient sprinkler systems are installed, such increase of time to be determined by the character and efficiency of the sprinkling system unless peculiar or unusual hazards exist. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1663; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.4]

103.5 How constructed. All fire escapes shall be constructed as described in the following classifications:

Class A. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of those more safe and efficient than outside ladders and stairways and which shall have been approved as such by the state fire marshal, and may include inside stairways and means of escape in fireproof buildings when approved by said fire marshal.

Class B. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of a suitable outside stairway of not less than twenty-two inches clear width of steel or wrought iron constructed with platform and with stationary stairway carried down to within six and one-half feet of the ground, or with a drop or counterbalanced stairway from the second story platform or balcony to the ground.

Class C. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of at least one ladder, not less than eighteen inches in width, of steel or wrought iron construction, of sufficient size and strength for safety, attached to the outside walls of the building and provided with platforms of steel or wrought iron inclosed by suitable railings and of such dimensions and in such proximity to the windows of each story above the first as to render access to the ladder from each story easy and safe, the said ladder to extend to within six and one-half feet of the ground or to be provided with a drop ladder hung at the second story in such a manner that it can be easily lowered for use. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1664; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.5]

103.6 Construction and arrangement.

1. All of the above classes of fire escapes shall be of suitable material, construction, arrangement, and location to make the same safe and efficient and no fire escape of a higher class shall be less safe and efficient than one of a lower class and the provisions of each lower class with respect to platform, access to windows and openings, and sufficiency of strength shall apply to the upper class except where allowed to be modified by those having authority.

2. All fire escapes reaching the top floor shall have suitable extensions reaching from the upper platform to safe landing on the roof of the building; but the state fire marshal may waive this provision when on examination he finds that such ladder would be an element of danger.

3. All fire escapes of any of the foregoing classes shall have such windows or openings leading to the platform or balconies of the same as shall be necessary to make the same safe and efficient, and all routes or paths of access to said fire escapes shall be safe and sufficient, with all doors of rooms leading to fire escapes one-half glass and equipped with mortise latches or equivalent so that the same may be easily and quickly opened by breaking the glass and turning the latches from the inside of the doors, all so as to render access to the fire escape from each floor above the first easy and safe. No window or door leading to the platform of a fire escape shall be fastened against exit.

4. The attachment of all fire escapes shall be made in a thorough and substantial manner and sufficient to carry the full load that may be placed on said fire escapes when the same are crowded, with a factor of safety of not less than four.

5. Suitable signs indicating the location of fire escapes shall be posted at all entrances to elevators, stairways, landings, and in all rooms.

6. In all buildings which are used for lodging or sleeping purposes, and in opera houses, theaters, and public assembly halls, and other buildings occupied or used at night where, in the judgment of the state fire marshal, this provision should apply, red lights shall be maintained at night or when the buildings are darkened, to indicate the place or opening through which access to the fire escape is obtained. Red lights shall not be used for lighting purposes in such buildings at locations where they may be mistaken for an exit light. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1665; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.6]

103.7 Class of escapes—stairways.

1. Hotels, lodging houses, tenements, apartment buildings, schools, retail or department stores, seminaries, college buildings, office buildings, hospitals, asylums, opera houses, theaters, assembly halls, and factories required by law to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A" or class "B". All other buildings and structures required to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A", "B", or "C", or with a combination of such classes.

2. Class "C" shall not be used on any building over three stories in height in which more than five persons are at any one time allowed upon any one of the floors above said third story nor where any of the persons allowed upon any floor above the third story are females or minors; but the state fire marshal may under peculiar conditions and where the hazards are not great:

a. Permit fire escapes of class "C" to be used on buildings of more than three stories, but when ladder fire escapes are permitted on buildings more than three stories in height the ladders thereof must offset at the platforms and must not continue in the same line for more than one story.

b. Permit fire escapes of class "C" or other approved means of escape to be used on an ordinary dwelling of not more than three stories in height and temporarily used in part for lodging purposes when not more than five persons, none of whom are under sixteen years of age, occupy the third floor.

3. Where stairways not less than forty-four inches in clear width are provided they shall be taken as the equivalent of two or more single stairways in proportion to their width, provided the means of escape and efficiency and safety of said escapes are not thereby diminished. [SS15,§4999-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1666; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.7]

103.8 Doors to open outward. The entrance and exit doors of all hotels, churches, lodge halls, courthouses, assembly halls, theaters, opera houses, colleges, public schoolhouses, and other structures where the hazard is deemed sufficient by the inspector, and the entrance doors to all class and assembly rooms in public school buildings, shall open outward and shall not be fastened against exit or so the same cannot be easily opened from within. [SS15,§4999-a9a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1667; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.8]

103.9 Number and size of exits. Inspectors shall, subject to the final decision of the state fire marshal, have power to determine the number and size of exits from all theaters, opera houses, and assembly halls, and from other buildings having one or more balconies, the location of such exits with reference to fire escapes, and shall require that no exit shall be fastened so as to prevent free passage from the building. [SS15,§4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1668; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.9]

103.10 Supervision of fire escapes. The state fire marshal, except when otherwise specially provided by law, shall have general charge and supervision of the inspection and regulation of fire escapes and means of escape and of the enforcement of the law relating thereto, and for this purpose the inspectors named herein, and others upon whom there is imposed by law or ordinance any duty with reference to fire escapes, shall be subject to his direction and to the rules and regulations adopted by such state fire marshal. [SS15, §4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1669; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.10]

Fire escapes, §§100.11, 170.38, 413.36

103.11 Standard specifications. The said state fire marshal shall adopt standard uniform specifications for the various classes of fire escapes provided by law and shall furnish such specifications to all persons who are by law made inspectors of fire escapes and means of escape from fire, and such persons shall keep the same on file in their respective offices. [SS15,§4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1670; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.11]

103.12 Rules and regulations. The state fire marshal shall make all necessary rules and regulations to carry out the purpose of this law and have the same printed in pamphlet form for distribution; and he shall have the power to approve any and all plans relating to fire escapes of the various classes, and it shall be his duty to see that the same conform to the law, and to make rulings and orders relative thereto, and where any dispute or disagreement arises with respect to the plans and specifications for any fire escape or means of escape from fire, the state fire marshal shall have the power and authority to determine and pass upon the same and make orders relative thereto. [SS15,§4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1671; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.12]

The building inspector or other officer performing like duties in cities having such officer, and if there be no such officer, then the chief of the fire department, and if there be no chief of a paid fire department, the mayor of such city or town, or if the building is not within the corporate limits of any city or town, then the chairman of the board of supervisors, shall inspect all fire escapes within their respective jurisdictions, except buildings otherwise required by law to be inspected. [SS15,§4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1672; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§103.13]

if he be a resident of the county in which the buildings are situated, or if he be a non-resident of such county, then upon his agent or lessee, that the buildings are not provided with fire escapes in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or that the fire escapes or means of escape from fire are defective, unsafe, or dangerous, notifying such owner of such lack of fire escapes, condition of the building, defective, dangerous, or unsafe means of escape from fire or any matter relating thereto, and notifying him to comply with the law and requirements of the state fire marshal within sixty days after the service of such notice; but the time of such notice may be extended by the state fire marshal if necessary. - 104A.1 Intent of chapter.
- 104A.2 Applicability.
- 104A.3 Requirements.

- 104A.4 Ramps.
- 104A.5 Buildings in process of construction.
- 104A.6 Conforming standards.

104A.2 Applicability. The standards and specifications set forth in this chapter shall apply to all buildings and facilities, temporary and permanent, used by the public which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state funds or the funds of any political subdivision of the state from and after July 4, 1965. [61GA, ch 139,§2]

Referred to in §§104A.3, 104A.6

104A.3 Requirements. Whenever any building or facility as described in section 104A.2 is constructed, provision shall be made in the construction that:

1. The site on which the facility is constructed shall be graded so that the ground shall attain a level with at least one normal entrance which shall make the facility accessible to individuals with handicaps.

2. At least one public walk to the primary entrance at grade level as described in subsection 1 of this section shall be accessible for individuals with physical handicaps. Such walk shall be at least forty-eight inches wide, shall have a gradient not greater than five percent, shall be of a continuing common surface, and shall not be interrupted by steps or abrupt changes in level.

3. The primary entrance or entrances at grade level to each facility shall be usable by individuals in wheel chairs and other physically handicapped persons. Such entrance or entrances shall be on a level that shall make the elevators, if any, accessible from that level.

4. Doors at the primary entrance or entrances at grade level shall have a clear opening of no less than thirty-two inches when open and shall be operable by a single effort. The floor on the inside and outside of each doorway shall be level for a distance of five feet from the door in the direction the door swings and shall extend one foot beyond each side of the door. Sharp inclines and abrupt changes in level shall be avoided at doorsills. Thresholds shall be flush with the floor to such an extent as is practicable.

5. Floors shall, wherever practicable, have a nonslip surface. Floors on the same story shall be of a common level throughout or be connected by a ramp.

6. Elevators, when provided in planning, shall be accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped at all levels normally used by the general public. Elevators shall have control buttons with identifying features for the benefit of the blind and shall allow for wheel chair traffic. [C62,§19.32; 61GA, ch 139,§3]

Referred to in §104A.6

104A.4 Ramps. Any ramp where gradients are necessary at any entrance to a building or facility shall be constructed so that such ramp shall:

1. Have a slope not greater than one foot rise in twelve feet or eight point thirty-three percent or four degrees fifty minutes.

2. Have smooth handrails on at least one side and preferably two sides, thirty-two inches in height measured from the surface of the ramp, extending one foot beyond the top and bottom of the ramp.

105A.7 Unfair employment practices.

1. It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any:

b. Labor organization or the employees, agents, or members thereof to refuse to admit to membership any applicant, to expel any member, or to otherwise discriminate against any applicant for membership or any member in the privileges, rights, or benefits of such membership because of the race, creed, color, national origin, or religion of such applicant or member.

c. Employer, employment agency, labor organization, or the employees, agents, or members thereof to directly or indirectly advertise or in any other manner indicate or publicize that individuals of any particular race, creed, color, national origin, or religion are unwelcome, objectionable, not acceptable, or not solicited for employment or membership.

[61GA, ch 121,§8]

Referred to in §105A.2, subsection 7

105A.9 Complaint—hearing.

1. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a discriminatory or unfair practice may, by himself or his attorney, make, sign, and file with the commission a verified, written complaint in triplicate which shall state the name and address of the person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization alleged to have committed the discriminatory or unfair practice of which complained, shall set forth the particulars thereof, and shall contain such other information as may be required by the commission. The commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general may in like manner make, sign, and file such complaint.

2. Any place of public accommodation, employer, labor organization, or other person who has any employees or members who refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the commission a verified written complaint in triplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action.

3. After the filing of a verified complaint, a true copy thereof shall be served by registered mail to the person against whom the complaint is filed. Then a commissioner or a duly authorized member of the commission's staff shall make a prompt investigation thereof and if such investigating official shall determine that probable cause exists for crediting the allegations of the complaint, the investigating official shall immediately endeavor to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion.

4. The members of the commission and its staff shall not disclose the filing of a complaint, the information gathered during the investigation, or the endeavors to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, unless such disclosure is made in connection with the conduct of such investigation.

5. In case of failure to satisfactorily settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, or in advance thereof if in the opinion of the investigating official circumstances so warrant, the official may issue and cause to be served a written notice together with a copy of such complaint, as the same may have been amended, requiring the person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization named in such complaint, hereafter referred to as respondent, to answer the charges of such complaint in writing within ten days after the date of such notice or within such extended time as the investigating official may allow.

6. When the investigating official is satisfied that further endeavor to settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion shall be futile, the official shall report the same to the commission. If the commission determines that the circumstances warrant, it shall issue and cause to be served a written notice requiring the respondent to answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the commission, a commissioner, or such other person designated by the commission to conduct the hearing, hereafter referred to as hearing examiner, and at a time and place to be specified in such notice.

7. The case in support of such complaint shall be presented at the hearing by one of the commission's attorneys or agents. The investigating official shall not participate in the hearing except as a witness nor shall he participate in the deliberations of the commission in such case.

8. The respondent may file a written verified answer to the complaint, and may appear at the hearing in person, with or without counsel, and submit testimony. In the discretion of the hearing examiner, a complainant may be allowed to intervene and present testimony in person or by counsel.

9. When a respondent has failed to answer a complaint at a hearing as provided by this section the commission may enter his default. For good cause shown, the commission may set aside an entry of default within ten days after the date of such entry. If the respondent is in default, the commission may proceed to hear testimony adduced upon behalf of the complainant. After hearing such testimony, the commission may enter such order as in its opinion the evidence warrants.

10. The commission or the complainant shall have the power to reasonably and fairly amend any complaint and the respondent shall have like power to amend his answer.

11. The commission shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity but the right of cross-examination shall be preserved. Complainant shall bear the burden of proving the allegations in his complaint. The testimony taken at a hearing shall be under oath, reported, and, if ordered by the commission, transcribed.

12. If, upon taking into consideration all the evidence at a hearing, the commission shall find that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in, any discriminatory or unfair practice as defined in this chapter, the commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served upon such respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such discriminatory or unfair practice and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to, hiring, reinstatement, or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, the referring of applicants for employment by any respondent employment agency, the admittance or restoration to membership by any respondent labor organization, the admission to or continuation in enrollment in an apprenticeship program, on-the-job training program, the posting of notices, and the making of reports as to the manner of compliance, as in the judgment of the commission shall effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

13. If, upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission shall find that a respondent has not engaged in any such discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served an order on the complainant and the respondent dismissing the complaint.

14. The commission shall establish rules to govern, expedite, and effectuate the procedures established by this chapter and its own actions thereunder.

15. Any complaint filed under this chapter shall be so filed within ninety days after the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred. [61GA, ch 121,§9]

Referred to in §105A.10, subsection 12

105A.10 Judicial review.

1. Any complainant or respondent claiming to be aggrieved by a final order of the commission, including a refusal to issue an order, may obtain judicial review thereof, and the commission may obtain an order of court for the enforcement of commission orders in a proceeding as provided in this section.

2. Such proceeding shall be brought in the district court of the district in the county in which the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice which is the subject of the commission's order was committed, or in which any respondent required in the order to cease or desist from a discriminatory or unfair practice or to take other affirmative action, resides, or transacts business.

3. Such proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such court and the service of a copy thereof upon the commission and upon respondent or complainant. Thereupon the commission shall file with the court a transcript of the record of the hearing before it. The court shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and the questions determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside the order of the commission, in whole or in part.

4. An objection that has not been urged before the commission shall not be considered by the court, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances.

5. Any party may move the court to remit the case to the commission in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereof, providing such party shall show reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence before the commission.

6. The hearing on appeal shall be tried in equity and shall be de novo. The court may receive additional testimony and may affirm, modify, or reverse the order of the commission.

7. The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and order shall be final subject to review by the supreme court as provided by law.

8. The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available to all parties for examination at all reasonable times, without cost, and for the purpose of judicial review of the commission's orders.

9. The commission may appear in court by its own attorney.

10. Unless otherwise directed by the commission or court, commencement of review proceedings under this section shall operate as a stay of any order.

11. Petitions filed under this section shall be heard expeditiously and determined upon the transcript filed without requirement for printing.

12. If no proceeding to obtain judicial review is instituted by a complainant or respondent within thirty days from the service of an order of the commission under section 105A.9, the commission may obtain an order of the court for the enforcement of such order upon showing that respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and resides or transacts business within the county in which the petition for enforcement is brought. [61GA, ch 121,§10]

105A.11 Rule of construction. This chapter shall be construed broadly to effectuate its purposes. [61GA, ch 121,§11]

105A.12 Local laws may implement this chapter. Nothing contained in any provision of this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the general assembly to occupy the field in which this chapter operates to the exclusion of local laws not inconsistent with this chapter that deal with the same subject matter. 106.4 Operation of unnumbered motorboats prohibited. Every undocumented motorboat on the waters of this state under the jurisdiction of the state conservation commission and waters specifically delegated to local authorities shall be numbered. No person shall operate, maintain or give permission for the operation or maintenance of any such vessel on such waters unless the vessel is numbered in accordance with this chapter or in accordance with applicable federal laws or in accordance with a federally approved numbering system of another state and unless the certificate of number awarded to such vessel is in full force and effect and the identifying number set forth in the certificate of number is displayed on each side of the bow of such vessel. [C97, §2512; S13, §2512; C24, 27, 31, §1692; C35, §§1703-e2, 1703-e7; C39, §§1703.02, 1703.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, §§106.2, 106.7; C62, §106.4]

106.5 Registration and identification number.

1. The owner of each motorboat requiring numbering by this state shall be registered every two years with the commission. The owner of such motorboat shall file an application for registration with the commission on forms approved by it. The application shall be signed by the owner of the motorboat and shall be accompanied by a fee of four dollars. Upon receipt of the application in approved form, the commission shall enter the same upon the records of its office and shall issue to the applicant a pocket size registration certificate. The registration certificate shall bear thereon the number awarded to such motorboat, the passenger capacity of such vessel and the name and address of the owner. The registration certificate shall be carried either in the motorboat or on the person of the operator of such vessel when in use.

The owner shall cause the identification number to be painted on or attached to each side of the bow of the motorboat in such size and manner as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission and shall be maintained in a legible condition at all times.

No number, other than the number awarded to a vessel under the provisions of this chapter or granted reciprocity pursuant to this chapter, shall be painted, attached or otherwise displayed on either side of the bow of such vessel.

The owner of each vessel must display and maintain, in a legible manner and in a prominent spot on the exterior of such vessel, other than the bow, the passenger capacity of the vessel which must conform with the passenger capacity designated on the registration certificate.

2. The commission may issue a certificate to dealers and manufacturers which may be used on different vessels at different times, when such vessels are used as demonstrators or experimental craft. The word "manufacturer" or "dealer" shall be plainly marked on each such certificate. The manufacturer or dealer shall have the number so awarded printed upon or attached to a removable sign or signs to be temporarily but firmly mounted upon or attached to the vessel being demonstrated or tested and the display must meet the requirements of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission.

3. The owner of any vessel already covered by a number in full force and effect, which has been awarded to it pursuant to then operating federal law, shall not be required to register such vessel under the provisions of this chapter for one year from the date of approval of such numbering system by the United States coast guard unless such number expires prior to that time.

4. Upon transfer of ownership of any motorboat, the owner shall within five days surrender the registration certificate to the commission and report the name and address of the purchaser and the date of transfer. Within five days the purchaser shall file a new application form with the commission with a fee of one dollar and a transfer of number shall be awarded in the same manner as provided for in an original registration.

5. All fees collected for the registration of vessels shall be forwarded by the commission to the treasurer of the state, who shall place such money in a conservation fund. The money so collected shall be appropriated by the legislature to the commission solely for the administration and enforcement of navigation laws and water safety.

6. When an agency of the United States government shall have in force an over-all system of identification numbering for motorboats, the numbering system prescribed by the commission pursuant to this chapter, shall be in conformity therewith.

7. Every registration certificate and number issued hereunder shall expire at midnight July 3, 1963 and every two years thereafter unless sooner terminated or discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. On or after the first day of March in odd-numbered years any unregistered vessels and renewals of registrations may be so registered for the subsequent biennium beginning July 4. On or after the first day of March in even-numbered years any unregistered vessels may be registered for the remainder of the current biennium and such registration shall be at the rate of two dollars. All registrations shall expire as hereinabove stated. Registration certificates and numbers may be renewed upon application of the owner in the same manner as provided for in securing the original registration.

8. Whenever any person, after registering a vessel, moves from the address shown on the registration certificate, he shall, within ten days, notify the commission in writing of his old and new address.

Whenever the name of any person, who has registered a vessel, is thereafter changed by marriage or otherwise, he shall, within ten days, notify the commission of such former and new name.

If a registration certificate is lost, mutilated or becomes illegible, the owner shall immediately make application for and obtain a duplicate registration certificate by furnishing information satisfactory to the commission.

A fee of one dollar shall be paid to the commission for a duplicate registration certificate.

If a vessel, registered under the provisions of this chapter, is destroyed or abandoned, such destruction or abandonment shall be reported to the commission and the registration certificate shall be forwarded to the office of the commission within ten days after such destruction or abandonment.

9. All records of the commission, made or kept pursuant to this chapter, shall be public records. [C97,§2512; S13,§2512; C24, 27, 31, §1694; C35,§§1703-e3, 1703-e7; C39,§§1703.03, 1703.07, 1703.08; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§106.3, 106.7, 106.8; C62,§106.5; 60GA, ch 98, §1]

4. A vessel which has a valid marine document issued by the bureau of customs of the United States government or any federal agency successor thereto.

5. A ship's lifeboat.

6. A type of vessel which has been exempted from registration by the commission after said commission has found that the registration or numbering of such vessel will not materially aid in their identification and such vessel would be exempt from numbering if it were subject to federal law. [C39,§§1703.16, 1703.22; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§106.16, 106.22; C62, §106.6]

1. The operator of a vessel involved in a collision, accident or other casualty shall, so far as possible without serious danger to his own vessel, crew or passengers, render to other persons affected by the collision, accident or casualty, such assistance as may be practicable and necessary to save them from or minimize any danger caused by the collision, accident or other casualty. He shall also give his name, address and identification of his vessel in writing to any person injured and to the owner of any property damaged in the collision, accident or other casualty.

2. Whenever any vessel numbered under this chapter is involved in a collision, accident or casualty which results in loss of life, injury requiring medical attention, or property damage in excess of one hundred dollars, the operator of such vessel shall file with the commission a report of the occurrence, in writing, and containing such information as the commission may, by regulation, require. Said report shall be submitted within forty-eight hours in death cases and within five days in other cases. [C39,§§1703.21, 1703.23; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§106.21, 106.23; C62,§106.7]

b. Every motorboat of classes III and IV shall carry the following lights:

(1) A bright white light in the fore part of the vessel as near the bow as practicable, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel; namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side.

The said side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens of sufficient height so set as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

c. Vessels of classes I and II, when propelled by sail alone, shall carry the combined lantern, but not the white light aft prescribed by this section. Vessels of classes III and IV when so propelled, shall carry the colored side lights, suitably screened, but not the white lights required by this section.

11. The commission is hereby authorized to make rules and regulations modifying the equipment requirements contained in this section to the extent necessary for the safety of operators and passengers.

12. The commission is hereby authorized to establish such pilot rules as may be necessary for the safe operation of vessels on the waters of this state under the jurisdiction of the commission.

The provisions of this chapter and other applicable laws of this state shall govern the operation, equipment, numbering and all other matters relating thereto of any vessel whenever such vessel is operated or maintained on the waters of this state under the jurisdiction of the commission, but nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the adoption of any ordinance or local law relating to the operation of equipment of vessels. Such ordinances or local law shall be operative only so long as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted by the commission.

2. Any subdivision of this state may, but only after public notice thereof by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in such subdivision, make formal application to the commission for special rules and regulations concerning the operation of vessels on any waters within its territorial limits and shall set forth therein the reasons which make such special rules or regulations necessary or appropriate.

Annual report to governor, §17.4

106.20 Boat inspection. Any person having, upon any waters of this state under the jurisdiction of the commission, any vessel, either for hire or offered for hire, must have such vessel and all its appurtenances annually inspected.

Every such owner shall file in the office of the commission, an application for inspection of such vessels on a blank furnished by the commission for that purpose.

Boat inspectors, conservation officers and water safety patrolmen shall have the power and authority to determine whether such vessel is safe for the transportation of passengers or cargo and upon what waters it may be used. They may determine and designate the number of passengers or cargo, including crew, that may be carried and determine whether the machinery, equipment and all appurtenances are such as to make said vessels seaworthy, where used, and such other matters as are pertinent.

After such vessels have been inspected as provided herein, a current inspection seal or tag shall be issued by the commission and shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place upon or in such vessel. Any inspection seal or tag shall be in effect only for the calendar year for which the inspection seal or tag is issued.

Private vessels may also be inspected to determine their seaworthiness at any time by representatives of the commission. [C97, §§2512, 2513; S13,§§2512, 2513; C24, 27, 31,§§1692, 1694; C35,§§1703-e2, 1703-e3, 1703-e5; C39, §§1703.02, 1703.03, 1703.05; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§106.2, 106.3, 106.5; C62,§106.20]

Such fee shall be computed at the rate of fifty cents per person capacity, except rowboats, but shall be not less than one dollar and shall not exceed the maximum of twenty dollars. The fee for inspecting rowboats shall be one dollar per boat.

The annual fee for pilot's license is one dollar.

The annual fee for engineer's license is two dollars.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all vessels which are rented to the public for hire, including vessels furnished with leased cottages. If such vessels are found to be in satisfactory condition, the boat inspector shall attach thereto a small plate or inspection seal, indicating the date of inspection and the passenger-carrying capacity. The owner of such vessel shall not offer it for hire or allow it to be so used until such inspection has been made and the vessel found to be in satisfactory condition.

There shall be no fee charged for the inspection of private vessels not used for hire.

The boat inspector or conservation officer shall collect all inspection fees and forward them to the commission.

All fees collected shall be forwarded by the commission to the treasurer of the state, who shall place such money in a conservation fund. The money so collected shall be appropriated by the legislature to the commission solely for the administration and enforcement of navigation laws and water safety. [C97,§2512; S13, §2512; C24, 27, 31,§1694; C35,§§1703-e4, 1703-e7; C39,§§1703.04, 1703.08; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§106.4, 106.8; C62,§106.21]

A pilot's license is required for any person who has charge of the steering or directing of the vessel's course or who does the steering or directs the vessel's course. An engineer's license is required for all operators who have charge of or operate the equipment by which the boat is propelled. If one person acts in a dual or alternate capacity, he shall first obtain both an engineer's and pilot's license.

Any person desiring a pilot's or engineer's license shall file an application with the commission upon forms prepared and furnished by the commission. Such license may be issued by the commission only upon recommendation of a boat inspector, water safety patrolman or conservation officer duly authorized by the commission. Before the boat inspector, water safety patrolman or conservation officer recommends such a license, he shall investigate the competency of the applicant, his acquaintance with and experience in boat work, his habits as to sobriety, his mental and physical qualifications for the work, his acquaintance with the waters for which application to operate upon is made, his familiarity with the laws and regulations pertaining to the vessel operation and all other pertinent matters. Such license shall not be issued to anyone under eighteen years of age.

Engineer's and pilot's licenses shall be in effect only for the calendar year in which such license is issued. [C97,§2512; S13,§2512; C24, 27, 31,§1694; C35,§1703-e3; C39,§1703.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, §106.3; C62,§106.22]

106.23 Suspension or revocation.

1. The boat inspector, water safety patrolman or conservation officer may, for cause, temporarily suspend the registration certificate of any vessel and the license of a pilot or engineer, that has been issued under this chapter, and the commission, after a due hearing on the matter at its next session, shall make final determination in the matter.

2. The commission shall forthwith revoke the registration certificate of any vessel and the pilot's or engineer's license of the operator of such vessel upon receiving a record of such owner or operator's conviction of any of the following offenses, when such conviction has become final:

a. Manslaughter resulting from the operation of a vessel.

Upon receipt of such license, the licensee shall promptly post such licensed areas at intervals of not more than five hundred feet with signs to be prescribed by the commission. The boundaries of such licensed game breeding and shooting preserve areas shall also be clearly defined by natural or artificial boundaries or by signs. [C58, 62, §110A.2]

110A.3 What birds released. The licensee of any licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area may take, or authorize to be taken within the season hereinafter fixed and designated, and in such numbers as herein provided:

Pen-reared game birds, as defined in section 109.41, released on licensed area may be taken during the shooting season provided in this chapter but not to exceed eighty percent of the total number of the species of said game birds released. Pen-reared waterfowl, two generations removed from the wild and chukar partridge may be released at any time of year for shooting purposes and one hundred percent may be harvested by shooting. The word waterfowl shall be defined as those birds constituting the Anatidae as listed in section 109.41. All birds so released shall be at least twelve weeks of age before liberation date. A minimum of one hundred pen-reared birds of each species to be shot shall be released during the open season. Experimental releases of less than one hundred birds of each species shall require a special permit from the conservation commission. [C58, 62, §110A.3]

110A.4 Manner of release—records. For the purpose of this chapter, game birds shall be released upon licensed game breeding and shooting preserve areas in a manner satisfactory to the commission. The licensee shall keep a register which shall clearly show the number and kind of game birds released and propagated each year, the date of release, and also the number and kind of game birds taken, the date when taken and the disposition made of such game birds, and shall make such reports under oath as to game birds released, propagated and taken, at such times and in such manner as may be required by the commission. The commission shall keep an adequate record of the number of birds released and propagated on each licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area in each year and of the birds taken. [C58, 62, §110A.4]

110A.5 Tags and other markings. The commission shall prepare special tags suitable for use upon legs of game birds, which tags shall be of a type not removable without breaking and mutilating the tag, such tags, to be used to designate birds taken upon a licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area. Upon application and payment of a fee of five cents for each such tag, the commission shall furnish licensees with such tags; provided that the commission shall not in any year furnish any licensee a number of tags in excess of the number of game birds which may lawfully be taken from such licensed area as hereinbefore provided. One of such tags shall be securely affixed to one of the legs of each game bird taken before removing same from such licensed area, and such tag shall remain upon the leg of such game bird until such bird is finally prepared for consumption.

All waterfowl released for shooting purposes shall be punched through the outer web of the bird's right foot at not more than four weeks of age, so as to provide for permanent identification. [C58, 62, §110A.5]

110A.6 Seasons—hunting license. No person shall take any game bird upon a game breeding and shooting preserve area, by shooting in any manner, except between September 1, and March 31, of each year, both dates inclusive.

Waterfowl may not be shot over any water area wherein pen-reared birds might serve as live decoys for wild waterfowl.

Every person taking game birds upon such licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area shall secure a hunting license so to do in accordance with the provisions of the game laws of Iowa, with the exception that a non-resident may secure a hunting license restricted to shooting preserve areas for a license fee of five dollars per year. [C58, 62, §110A.6]

110A.7 Special wardens. The commission may designate any operator of a licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area or any of his or its agents or employees as a special representative of the commission with power to enforce the game laws and to prevent trespassing upon such property and to hunt and trap rodents and other mammals or birds which are destroying or likely to destroy the game birds raised or liberated on such area. Such special representative shall be subject to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commission and shall serve without compensation from the commission. [C58, 62, §110A.7]

110A.8 License refusal. The commission may either refuse to issue or refuse to renew or may suspend or may revoke any game-breeding and shooting preserve area license if the commission finds that such licensed area or the operator thereof is not complying or does not comply with the provisions of this chapter, or that such property, or area is operated in violation of other provisions of this chapter, or in an unlawful or illegal manner. [C58, 62, §110A.8]

110A.9 Violations — penalty. Any licensee or any other person, who willfully and intentionally transfers or permits the transfer of the tags issued to the operator of one licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area to the operator of another licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area, or to any other person, or who affixes such tags to game birds not taken from a licensed game breeding and shooting preserve area or to game birds taken from any area other than the area for which such tags were issued, is guilty of a misdemeanor. [C58, 62, §110A.9]

On the filing of said petition the state conservation commission shall fix a date for hearing thereon and shall cause notice thereof to be published in some newspaper of general circulation in each county in which said proposed water recreational area will be established, said notice to be published for two consecutive weeks. [60GA, ch 106,§9]

111.68 Final order—condition. It may grant such permit in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as may be determined by it to be just and proper and in the public interest, provided that before any permit shall be granted to any such municipality or corporation the commission shall, after public hearing as provided hereby, deter-

The municipality or corporation shall grant to the state of Iowa a perpetual easement for such public access and use, and such easement shall not be impaired or destroyed in whole or in part by nonuse. Before a permit is granted as provided in section 111.70, the state conservation commission and the municipality or corporation shall agree on the location and description of such water frontage and land to be permanently subject to and available for free public access and use, and such location and description shall be stated in the permit. However, in lieu of the foregoing procedure, the state conservation commission and the municipality or corporation may agree that the state conservation commission may select such water frontage and land after the permit is granted, and the permit shall so state. At any time the state conservation commission, with the written consent of the municipality or corporation, may designate any additional land within the water recreational area to be permanently subject to and available for free public access and use; and the municipality or corporation shall grant to the state of Iowa a perpetual easement for such public access and use, which easement shall not be impaired or destroyed in whole or in part by nonuse. 111.74 Extension of permit. Any municipality or corporation owning a permit granted hereby desiring to acquire an extension of said permit may petition the commission in the same manner provided for the granting of such permit and the same proceeding shall be had as on an original application. [60GA, ch 106,§16]

111.75 Condemnation of land. Whenever a permit has been granted as provided in section 111.70 and the state conservation commission finds that the municipality or corporation owning such permit cannot acquire at a reasonable cost any necessary land or interest therein, the state conservation commission, with the approval of the executive council, may condemn such land or interest therein as provided in chapter 472. However, such condemnation shall be limited to land and interests therein which will be permanently subject to and available for free public access and use, as provided in section 111.71, or which will be required for a dam or other facilities necessary for the water recreational area. All costs of such condemnation, including all costs occasioned by appeal as set out in section 472.33, and including the award and compensation for such land or interest therein, shall be paid by such municipality or corporation. The state conservation commission may permit such municipality or corporation to use such land or interest therein for the purposes of this division, upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as the state conservation commission shall determine to be just and proper and for free public access and use. Title to such land or interest therein shall remain in the state of Iowa. [60GA, ch 106,§17; 61GA, ch 133,§1]

Anything in chapter 455 to the contrary, county boards of supervisors and trustees having control of any levee or drainage district established thereunder, including joint levee or drainage districts, may enter into contracts and agreements with municipalities or corporations authorized to establish water recreational areas under the provisions of this division. Such contracts or agreements shall be in writing and may be made prior to or after the establishment of a water recreational area. If made prior to the establishment of a water recreational area they may be made conditional upon the final establishment of such area and if conditional upon such final establishment may be entered into prior to the hearing provided for in section 111.63.

Such contracts or agreements may embrace any of the following subjects:

7. For the granting of easements or licenses by one party to the other.
8. For the payment of money by one contracting party to the other in consideration of acts or performance of the other party required by such contract or agreement.

When any expenditure of levee or drainage district funds is proposed by the authority contained in this section and where the estimated expenditure will exceed fifty percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein as defined by section 455.135, the same procedure respecting notice and hearing shall be followed as is provided in said section 455.135, for repair proposals where the estimated cost of the repair exceeds fifty percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein. [60GA, ch 106,§18]

111.77 Prohibited near borders of state. In order to reduce the possibility of affecting conservation measures to flood control projects which may be in progress in other states, water recreational areas shall not be established hereunder within seventy miles of the border of any other state. [60GA, ch 106,§19]

111.78 Method not exclusive. This division shall not be the exclusive method for establishing a water recreational area. [60GA, ch 106,§20]

111A.2 Petition—board membership. Upon petition of two hundred voters in any county to the board of supervisors thereof, said board shall submit to the people of the county at the next primary or general election the question whether a county conservation board shall be created as provided for in this chapter. If at said election the majority of votes polled for the creation of a county conservation board, the board of supervisors shall within sixty days after said election, create a county conservation board to consist of five bona fide residents of such county. The members first appointed shall hold office for the term of one, two, three, four and five years respectively, as indicated and fixed by the county board of supervisors. Thereafter, succeeding members shall be appointed for a term of five years, except that vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. When any member of the board, during the term of office, shall cease to be a bona fide resident of the county, he or she shall thereby be disqualified as a member of said board and his or her office shall thereupon be declared vacant. Members of the board shall be selected and appointed on the basis of their demonstrated interest in conservation matters, and shall serve without compensation, but may be paid their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. Members of the county conservation board may be removed for cause by the body making such appointment, but every such re-

The county conservation board shall have power to adopt bylaws, to adopt and use a common seal, and to enter into contracts. The county board of supervisors shall provide suitable offices for the meetings of the county conservation board and for the safekeeping of its records. Such records shall be subject to public inspection at all reasonable hours and under such regulations as the county conservation board may prescribe. Said board shall annually make a full and complete report to the county board of supervisors of its transactions and operations for the preceding year. Such report shall contain a full statement of its receipts, disbursements, and the program of work for the period covered, and may include such recommendations as may be deemed advisable. A copy of this report shall be filed with the state conservation commission. [C58, 62, §111A.3]

2. To acquire in the name of the county by gift, purchase, lease, agreement or otherwise, in fee or with conditions, suitable real estate within or without the territorial limits of the county areas of land and water for public parks, preserves, parkways, playgrounds, recreation centers, forests, wildlife and other conservation purposes and for participation in watershed, drainage and flood control programs for the purpose of increasing the recreational resources of the county. The state conservation commission, the county board of supervisors, or the governing body of any city, town or village may, upon request of the county conservation board, designate, set apart and transfer to the county conservation board for use as parks, preserves, parkways, playgrounds, recreation centers, play fields, tennis courts, skating rinks, swimming pools, gymnasiums, rooms for arts and crafts, camps and meeting places, community forests, wildlife areas and other recreational purposes, any land and buildings owned or controlled by the state conservation commission or such county or municipality and not devoted or dedicated to any other inconsistent public use. In acquiring or accepting land, due consideration shall be given to its scenic, historic, archaeological, recreational or other special features, and no land shall be acquired or accepted which in the opinion of the board and the state conservation commission is of low value from the standpoint of its proposed use.

3. The county conservation board shall file with and obtain approval of the state conservation commission on all proposals for acquisition of land, and all general development plans and programs for the improvement and maintenance thereof before any such program is executed.

4. To plan, develop, preserve, administer and maintain all such areas, places and facilities, and construct, reconstruct, alter and renew buildings and other structures, and equip and maintain the same.

5. To accept in the name of the county gifts, bequests, contributions and appropriations of money and other personal property for conservation purposes.

6. To employ and fix the compensation of an executive officer who shall be responsible to the county conservation board for the carrying out of its policies. The said executive officer shall have the power, subject to the approval of said board, to employ and fix the compensation of such assistants and employees as may be deemed necessary for carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, but not in excess of those paid state conservation officers and employees for like services.

7. To charge and collect reasonable fees for the use of such facilities, privileges and conveniences as may be provided and for admission to amateur athletic contests, demonstrations and exhibits and other noncommercial events.

8. To let out and rent privileges in or upon any property under its control upon such terms and conditions as are deemed by it to be in the public interest.

9. To participate in watershed projects of soil conservation districts and the federal government and in projects of drainage districts organized under the provisions of chapters 455, 457, 461, 466 and 467C for the purpose of increasing the recreational resources of the county.

Any agreement for such participation by or with a board of supervisors or trustees con-

111A.5 Rules and regulations—officers. The county conservation board may make, alter, amend or repeal rules and regulations for the protection, regulation and control of all parks, preserves, parkways, playgrounds, recreation centers, and other property under its control. No rules and regulations adopted shall be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the laws of the state of Iowa. Such rules and regulations shall not take effect until ten days after their adoption by said board and after their publication once a week for two weeks in at least one paper circulating in the county and after a copy thereof has been posted near each gate or principal entrance to the public ground to which they apply. The board may designate the executive officer and such employees as he may designate as police officers who shall have all the powers conferred by law on police officers, peace officers, or sheriffs in the enforcement of the laws of the state of Iowa and the apprehension of violators thereof. [C58, 62,§111A.5]

111A.6 Funds — tax levy — gifts — anticipatory bonds. Upon the adoption of any county of the provisions of this chapter, the county board of supervisors of such county may by resolution appropriate an amount of money from the general fund of the county for the payment of expenses incurred by the county conservation board in carrying out its powers and duties, and it may levy or cause to be levied an annual tax, in addition to all other taxes, of not more than one mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of all real and personal property subject to taxation within such county, upon proper certification by said county conservation board made pursuant to and in compliance with all of the provisions of chapter 24, which tax shall be collected by the county treasurer as other taxes are collected, and shall be paid into a separate and distinct fund to be known as the county conservation fund, to be paid out upon the warrants drawn by the county auditor upon requisition of the county conservation board for the payment of expenses incurred in carrying out the powers and duties of said conservation board. The county conservation board shall have no power or authority to contract any debt or obligation in any year in excess of the moneys in the hands of the county treasurer immediately available for such purposes. Any single expenditure of, or contract to expend, a sum of five thousand dollars shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 23. Gifts, contributions and bequests of money and all rent, licenses, fees and charges and other revenue or money received or collected by the board shall be deposited in the county conservation fund to be used for the purchase of land, property and equipment and the payment of expenses incurred in carrying out the activities of the board, except that moneys given, bequeathed, or contributed upon specified trusts shall be held and applied in accordance with the trust specified.

In order to make immediately available to the county conservation board the proceeds of the annual tax hereinbefore authorized to be levied for recreation and conservation purposes, bonds of any county may be issued in anticipation of the collection of such tax in the manner hereinafter provided. Upon the filing of a petition by the conservation board with the county board of supervisors asking that bonds be issued in a specified amount for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring land and developing the same for public park, parkway, preserve, playground, or other recreation or conservation purposes within the county, then the board of supervisors may call a special election to be held in the county to vote on the proposition of issuing such bonds. Notice of such election shall be published once each week for at least four consecutive weeks in one of the official county newspapers, and the election shall be held on a day not less than five nor more than twenty days after the last publication of such notice. Voting machines may be used for the purpose of voting on said proposition or, in the discretion of the board of supervisors, the proposition may be submitted to the voters on paper ballots. The proposition shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

“Shall County, Iowa, issue its bonds in the amount of $ for the purpose of?”

The expenses incurred in connection with the conduct of such election shall be paid by the conservation board from the county conservation fund. If the vote in favor of issuing the bonds is equal to at least sixty percent of the total votes cast for and against the proposition, the board of supervisors shall issue the bonds in the amount voted, and shall provide for the levy of an annual tax, within the limits of the special tax hereinbefore authorized, sufficient to pay said bonds and the interest thereon as the same respectively become due. Said bonds shall mature in not more than twenty years, shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding five percent per annum, shall be in such form as the board of supervisors shall by resolution provide, and shall be payable as to both principal and interest from the proceeds of the annual levy of the one mill tax hereinbefore authorized to be levied for recreation and conservation purposes, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon, and prior to the authorization and issuance of such bonds the board of supervisors may, with or without notice, negotiate and enter into an agreement or agreements with any bank, investment banker, trust company or insurance company or group thereof whereunder the marketing of such bonds may be assured and consummated. The proceeds of such bonds shall be deposited in a special fund, to be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the county, and shall be paid out upon warrants drawn by the county auditor upon requisition of the conservation board to pay the cost of acquiring land and developing the same for recreation and conservation purposes as specified in the election proposition.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the authority of the board of supervisors to levy the full one-mill recreation and conservation tax, but if and to whatever extent said tax is levied in any year in excess of the amount of the principal and interest falling due in such year on said bonds, the first available proceeds thereof, to an amount sufficient to meet maturing installments of principal and interest on such bonds, shall be paid into the sinking fund for such bonds before any of such taxes are deposited in the county conservation fund or are otherwise made available to the county conservation board, and the amount required to be annually set aside to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds shall constitute a first charge upon all of the proceeds of such annual special tax, which tax shall be pledged to pay said bonds and the interest thereon.

This law shall be construed as supplemental and in addition to existing statutory authority and as providing an independent method of financing the cost of acquiring land and developing the same for public park, parkway, preserve, playground, or other recreation or conservation purposes, and for the issuance and sale of bonds in connection therewith, and shall not be construed as subject to the provisions of any other law. The aggregate amount of bonds issued and outstanding at any time hereunder shall not exceed one million dollars in any single county. The fact that a county may have bonds previously issued and outstanding under authority of this law shall not prevent such county from issuing additional bonds hereunder, provided that the aggregate amount of such bonds does not exceed the maximum hereinbefore established. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any county conservation board or board of supervisors for the exercise of any of the powers herein granted are hereby legalized and validated in all respects. The state conservation commission, county engineer, county agricultural agent, and other county officials shall render such assistance as shall not interfere with their regular employment. The board of supervisors is authorized to make available to the use of the county conservation board, county-owned equipment and operators and any county-owned materials or real estate it deems advisable and may be reimbursed to the credit of the proper fund from county conservation funds for actual expense of operation, supplies, and materials or for the reasonable value for the use of real estate. [C58, 62,§111A.7; 60GA, ch 109,§1]

The governing body of any school district may grant the use of any buildings, grounds, or equipment of the district to any county conservation board for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter whenever such use of the school buildings, grounds or equipment for such purposes will not interfere with the use of the buildings, grounds, and equipment for any purpose of the public school system. [C58, 62,§111A.8]

111B.9 Articles of dedication. The public administrative agency or private owner shall complete articles of dedication on forms approved by the board. When the articles of dedication have been approved by the governor the board shall record them with the county recorder for the county or counties in which the area is located.

The articles of dedication may contain restrictions on development, sale, transfer, method of management, public access, and commercial or other use, and may contain such other provisions as may be necessary to further the purposes of this chapter. They may define the respective jurisdictions of the owner or operating agency and the board. They may provide procedures to be applied in case of violation of the dedication. They may recognize reversionary rights. They may vary in provisions from one preserve to another in accordance with differences in relative conditions. [61GA, ch 135,§9]

111B.10 When dedicated as a preserve. An area shall become a preserve when it has been approved by the board for dedication as a preserve, whether in public or private ownership, formally dedicated as a preserve within the system by a public administrative agency or private owner and designated by the governor as a preserve. [61GA, ch 135,§10]

111B.11 Area held in trust. An area designated as a preserve within the system is hereby declared put to its highest, best, and most important use for public benefit. It shall be held in trust and shall not be alienated except to another public use upon a finding by the board of imperative and unavoidable public necessity and with the approval of the state conservation commission and the governor. The board's interest or interests in any area designated as a preserve shall not be taken under the condemnation statutes of this state without such a finding of imperative and unavoidable public necessity by the board, and with the consent of the state conservation commission and the governor.

The board, with the approval of the governor, may enter into amendments to any articles of dedication upon its finding that such amendment will not permit an impairment, disturbance, or development of the area inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter.

Before the board shall make a finding of imperative and unavoidable public necessity, or shall enter into any amendment to articles of dedication, it shall provide notice of such proposal and opportunity for any person to be heard. Such notice shall be published at least once in a newspaper with a general circulation in the county or counties wherein the area directly affected is situated, and mailed within ten days of such published notice to all persons who have requested notice of all such proposed actions. Each notice shall set forth the substance of the proposed action and describe, with or without legal description, the area affected, and shall set forth a place and time not less than sixty days thence for all persons desiring to be heard to have reasonable opportunity to be heard prior to the finding of the board. All departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the state, including counties, municipalities, public corporations, boards, commissions, and universities shall be urged to dedicate as nature preserves within the system under the procedures outlined in this chapter, suitable areas or portions of areas within their jurisdiction. [61GA, ch 135,§12]

111B.13 Other purposes not affected. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as interfering with the purposes stated in the establishment of or pertaining to any state or local park, preserve, wildlife refuge, or other area or the proper management and development thereof except that any agency administering any area designated as a nature preserve under the system shall be responsible for preserving the natural character of the area in accordance with the articles of dedication.

Designation of an area as a preserve within the system shall not void or replace any protected status under law which the area would have were it not so designated. [61GA, ch 135, §13]

112.6 Filing appraisalment.
112.7 Damages determined.
112.8 Appeal—bond.
112.9 Final determination and costs.
112.10 Tentative plan.

112.1 Resolution of necessity. Whenever, in the opinion of the state conservation commission, it is necessary and desirable for it to erect a dam or spillway across a stream or at the outlet of a lake, or to alter or reconstruct an existing dam or spillway, so as to increase or decrease its permanent height, or to permanently affect the water level above the structure, it shall proceed with said project by first adopting a resolution of necessity to be placed upon its records, in which it shall describe in a general way the work contemplated. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e1; C39,§1828.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§112.1]

112.2 Expert plan. The commission, upon receipt of a report and plan prepared by a competent civil engineer, showing the work contemplated, the effect on the water level, and probable cost and such other facts and recommendations as may be deemed material, may approve said plan which shall be considered a tentative plan only, for the project. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e2; C39,§1828.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§112.2]

112.3 Hearing—damages. After said approval the commission, if it wishes to proceed further with the project, shall, with the consent of the Iowa natural resources council, fix a date of hearing not less than two weeks from date of approval of the plan. Notice of the day, hour and place of hearing, relative to proposed work, shall be provided by publication at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the project is located, or in the county or counties where the water elevations are affected, under the tentative plan approved. The last of such publication or publications shall not be less than five days prior to the day set for hearing. Any claim by any persons whomsoever, for damages which may be caused by said project shall be filed with the commission at or prior to the time of the hearing provided herein. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e3; C39,§1828.26; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§112.3]

112.4 Adoption of plan. If, at the time of the hearing, the commission shall find that the improvement would be conducive to the public convenience, welfare, benefit or utility, and the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may adopt the tentative plan as final or may modify the plan, provided said modification will not, to any greater extent than the tentative plan, materially and adversely affect the interests of littoral or riparian owners. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e4; C39,§1828.27; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §112.4]

112.5 Appraisal of damages. If, at the time of the hearing, the claims for damages shall have been filed, further proceedings shall be continued to an adjourned, regular, or special session, the date and place of which shall be fixed at the time of adjournment and of which all interested parties shall take notice, and the commission shall have the damages appraised by three appraisers to be appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court. One of these appraisers shall be a registered civil engineer resident of the state and two shall be freeholders of the state, who shall not be interested in nor related to any person affected by the proposed project. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e5; C39,§1828.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §112.5]

112.6 Filing appraisalment. The appraisers appointed to determine the damages caused by the proposed project shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled and shall, at least three days before the date fixed by the commission to hear and determine the same, file with the secretary of the commission reports in writing showing the amount of damages sustained by each claimant. Should good cause for delay exist, the commission may postpone the time of final action on the project. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e6; C39, §1828.29; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§112.6]

112.7 Damages determined. At the time fixed for hearing and after receipt of the report of the appraisers, the commission shall examine said report, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant and may affirm, increase or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. After such action, the commission may thereupon adopt a final plan for the project, and proceed with its construction, or it may dismiss the entire proceedings. [C24, 27, 31,§1826; C35,§1828-e7; C39,§1828.30; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§112.7]

112.8 Appeal—bond. Appeals from orders or actions of the commission fixing the amount of compensation awarded or damages sustained by any claimant shall be treated as ordinary proceedings. All other appeals shall be triable in equity. The court may, in its discretion, order the consolidation for trial of two or more of such equitable cases. All appeals shall be taken within twenty days after date of final action or order of the commission from which such appeal is taken, by filing with the secretary of the commission a notice of appeal designating the court to which the appeal is taken, the order or action appealed from and stating that the appeal will come on for hearing at the next succeeding term of the court and designating such term. This notice shall be accompanied by an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk of the district court conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against the appellant. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e8; C39, §1828.31; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §112.8]

45GA, ch 35, §8, editorially divided

112.9 Final determination and costs. The amount of damages or compensation found by the court shall be entered of record. Unless the result on the appeal is more favorable to the appellant than the action of the commission, all costs of the appeal shall be taxed to the appellant, but if more favorable, the cost shall be taxed to the appellees. All damages assessed and all costs occasioned under this chapter shall be paid from the funds of the commission. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e9; C39, §1828.32; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §112.9]

112.10 Tentative plan. If, at the time of hearing on the tentative plan, no objectors appear and no claim for damages or compensation shall have been filed, or if proper waivers giving consent to the construction of the proposed improvement have been obtained from all parties affected then the commission may adopt the tentative plan as final and proceed with the work proposed. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e10; C39, §1828.33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §112.10]

The term "board" as used in this chapter shall mean the Iowa board of examiners in watchmaking. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.2]

120.3 Board of watchmaking examiners.

1. There is hereby created a board to be known as the board of examiners in watchmaking whose duties it shall be to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such board shall consist of five members, only three of whom shall belong to the same political party, to be appointed by the governor. All persons so appointed shall be residents of this state and actually engaged in watchmaking as defined in this chapter, for at least five years immediately preceding the time of their appointment. Within thirty days after the effective date of this chapter, the governor shall appoint the board as provided herein. Each member of said board shall hold office for three years and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, except that in the first appointment, one member shall be appointed for one year, two for two years, two for three years and the term of office in such case shall be designated by the governor at the time of the appointment. Members of the board, before entering upon their duties, shall respectively take and file an official oath.

2. The board shall choose, annually, one of its members as chairman and one as secretary who shall severally have power to administer oaths and take affidavits, certifying thereto under the seal of the board. The board shall meet at least once every six months or whenever a majority of the board shall call a meeting at Des Moines, at the place to be designated by the chairman. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. The secretary shall give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. The secretary shall keep a full record of the proceedings of the board which shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times. The members of the board shall be compensated as follows: Each member of the board shall be paid a per diem of ten dollars during sessions of the board, not to exceed, however, two days time at any meeting; also, they shall be paid their actual traveling expenses in attending the meeting; the secretary in addition to such per diem and expenses may be paid annually a salary to be fixed by the board, but such salary shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars. The per diem allowed each member of the board shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars in any year.

3. The board shall have power to adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this chapter. The secretary shall collect the fees and shall pay the same quarterly to the treasurer of the state.

4. The board may appoint such clerks and assistants as it may deem necessary for the execution of its functions and fix their salaries.

5. The board shall on the thirtieth day of June of each year report its proceedings to the state comptroller including an account of moneys received and disbursed. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.3]

120.4 Seal. The board shall adopt a seal which shall be used to authenticate all of its proceedings and records and licenses to be issued which seal shall be under the control of the secretary. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.4]

120.5 Fees and expenses. All examination, license and renewal fees received from such persons licensed to practice watchmaking shall be paid to and collected by the secretary of the board, who shall remit to the treasurer of the state quarterly all fees collected, and at the same time render to the state comptroller an itemized and verified report showing the source from which said fees were obtained. All such fees collected and remitted shall be placed in a special fund by the treasurer of state and the state comptroller to be known as the "watchmakers' fund", to be used by the board to administer and enforce the laws relating to the practice of watchmaking, to elevate the standards of schools of watchmaking, and to promote the educational and professional standards of watchmakers and watchmaking in this state, and no part of such expense shall be paid out of the general fund of the state. Any remainder in said fund at the end of each fiscal year, after all expense in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, have been paid, or a sum sufficient for payment thereof set apart, shall be paid into the general fund of the state. Said fund shall be subject at all times to the warrant of the state comptroller, drawn upon written requisition of the chairman of the board and attested by the secretary, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, but in no event shall the total expenses therefor exceed the total fees collected and deposited to the credit of said fund. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.5]

120.6 Application. Applicants for certificates shall be examined at a time and place fixed by the board. Applications for examination shall be filed with the board at least ten days before the time set for the examination and shall be accompanied by an examination fee of ten dollars. The applicant shall be of good moral character and shall furnish an affidavit in support of the same from at least two reputable citizens in the community in which he lives; shall be at least nineteen years of age and shall have at least three years previous experience at the bench under the supervision of a watchmaker, holding a certificate under the provisions of this chapter, or said applicant shall have had at least one year schooling in a recognized watchmaker's school, together with one year experience at the bench under the provisions of this chapter or at least two years schooling in a recognized watchmaker's school. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.6]

120.7 Examination. An applicant to be entitled to a certificate otherwise provided in this chapter shall pass an examination before the board, which examination shall be confined to such knowledge, practical ability, and skill as is essential in the proper repairing of watches, clocks, and time-recording instruments, and shall include an examination of theoretical knowledge of watch construction and repair, and also a practical demonstration of the applicant's skill in the manipulation of watchmaker's tools. The board shall make rules and regulations for conducting examinations, and shall define the standards of workmanship and skill. In case of failure at any examination, the applicant shall have the privilege of taking another examination at any other examination period upon the payment of a fee of five dollars and the board shall conduct such examinations at least twice in each year. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §120.7]

120.8 Certificates of registration.

1. If the applicant successfully passes the examination, the secretary of the board shall register such fact and shall issue to him a certificate of registration.

2. A watchmaker who is not a resident of the state, may, in the discretion of the board, be issued a certificate without the examination upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars and upon filing a written application with the board, together with evidence of five years practice as a watchmaker in some other state immediately previous to the time of the application by furnishing such evidence in connection with his skill as a watchmaker as the board may require. The board, upon presentation by an applicant of a license or certificate to practice watchmaking issued to the applicant upon examination by the duly constituted authority of another state which by its laws licenses or regulates watchmakers, and which by its laws would grant a certificate of license under similar circumstances and conditions, may in its discretion, issue a certificate of registration to said applicant without examination, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars.

3. Persons actually engaged in watchmaking within this state prior to the effective date of this chapter shall be exempt from taking the examination herein provided, upon making application for a certificate of registration within six months after said date, accompanied by an application fee of five dollars and the affidavit of the applicant setting forth the fact of his having actually engaged in watchmaking, together with the affidavits of two freeholders in this state setting forth that they know that the applicant has been so engaged in watchmaking and if the board shall be satisfied that such applicant is entitled thereto, it shall cause its secretary to so register such applicant and issue to such person a certificate of registration on a form to be designed by the board.

4. Every certificate of registration shall expire on the thirtieth day of June following the date of issuance of such certificate, and shall be renewed annually upon application by the holder thereof, without examination. Application for such renewal shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by a renewal fee of five dollars, at least thirty days prior to the expiration of such certificate. Every renewal shall be displayed in connection with the original certificate. Every year or not later than May 1, the board shall notify each certificate holder by mail of the expiration of his certificate. Any watchmaker who allows his certificate to lapse by failing to renew the same as hereinbefore provided, may obtain reinstatement thereof without examination, in the discretion of the board, if he applies therefor within three years following the expiration date of his certificate and pays the renewal fees then due. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §120.8]

120.9 Apprentice watchmakers. Any person sixteen years of age or over, of good moral character, apprenticed to a registered watchmaker, may pursue the trade of watchmaking upon obtaining from the board a certificate of registration as an apprenticed watchmaker, which certificate shall be conspicuously displayed at all times in the place of employment of such apprentice. No apprentice certificate shall be renewed unless the application therefor shall be accompanied by a sworn statement of the employer or employers as to the length of time the applicant has been actually employed under his certificate in the pursuit of the watchmaking trade. Apprentice watchmakers shall pay a fee of one dollar for the certificate which shall expire on June 30 of each year and shall pay a renewal fee of one dollar annually. Any applicant for a certificate of registration as a watchmaker who fails to pass the examination provided for herein may in the discretion of the board be issued a certificate as an apprentice watchmaker. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §120.9]

120.10 Revocation. The board may revoke a certificate of registration obtained through error of the board or fraud of the applicant, or if the holder is grossly incompetent, guilty of immoral or unethical conduct, or obtained or sought anything of value by fraudulent representation in the practice of watchmaking. The holder of such certificate shall be given thirty days notice in writing enumerating the charges and fixing a date for the hearing thereon. Such notice shall be given to the certificate holder by certified mail addressed to him at his last known address as shown by the secretary. At the hearing he shall have the opportunity to defend himself against the charges and to introduce evidence tending to disprove the charges. If the board should refuse any such application and refuse to renew any such license, the applicant may within thirty days after the order of the board and not afterward appeal therefrom by a writ of certiorari to the district court where upon such appeal the hearing shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license should be renewed may be submitted, including new evidence not submitted to the board. Upon the expiration of one year, and after satisfactory proof that the cause of revocation no longer exists, a person whose certificate has been revoked may be issued a certificate of registration at the discretion of the board, upon payment of the fee herein provided. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.10]

120.11 Duplicates. A duplicate of any certificate provided by this chapter shall be issued upon filing with the secretary a sworn statement that the original certificate has been lost or destroyed, and upon payment of one dollar for the issuance of the same. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.11]

120.12 Conflicting statutes. No provisions of law in conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall have any effect thereon or upon the rights of any person licensed hereunder. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.12]

120.13 Penalty. Anyone not having a certificate of registration who shall hold himself out as a watchmaker or as one qualified to do watchmaking or anyone who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§120.13]

123.26 Transportation permitted. It shall be lawful to transport, carry, or convey liquors as defined by this chapter from the place of purchase by the commission to any state warehouse, store, special distributor or depot established by the commission for the purposes of this chapter or from one such place to another and when so permitted by this chapter the regulations made thereunder and in accordance therewith, it shall be lawful for any common carrier, or other person to transport, carry, or convey liquor sold by a vendor or a special distributor from a state warehouse, store or depot to any place to which the same may be lawfully delivered under this chapter and the regulations established by the commission; provided, however, that no common carrier or other person shall break, open, allow to be broken or opened any container or package containing alcoholic liquor or to use or drink or allow to be used or drunk any liquor therefrom while in the process of being transported or conveyed; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall affect the right of any permit or liquor control license holder to purchase, possess, or transport alcoholic liquors as defined by this chapter and subject to the provisions of this chapter and the regulations made thereunder. [C35, §1921-f26; C39, §1921.026; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §123.26; 60GA, ch 114, §8]

Unlawful transportation, §§125.18, 125.19

123.27 Permits and liquor-by-the-drink licenses.

1. Special permits shall be issued as herein provided.

2. Upon application being made, in the form and manner prescribed by the commission, to the commission, or to any agent authorized by the commission to issue permits accompanied by payment of the prescribed fee, and upon the commission or such authorized agent being satisfied that the applicant has complied with the rules and regulations established by the commission for the issuance of such a permit for the purchase, possession and/or transportation of alcoholic liquors under this chapter, the commission or such authorized agent shall issue to the applicant a permit of the class applied for as follows, however, no individual permit shall be required for the purchase of alcoholic liquor for consumption on premises covered by a liquor control license:

- a. A "special permit" in form as prescribed by the commission and subject to its issuance and/or use to such rules and regulations as the commission may adopt, may be issued as provided in this section, notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, as follows:

- (1) To a physician, pharmacist, dentist, or veterinarian, which will entitle the holder to purchase liquor from the state liquor stores or special distributors for use medicinally and in compounding prescriptions and to sell the same for use medicinally in the compounded prescription only upon the prescription of a licensed physician or surgeon, and to purchase liquor from the state liquor stores or special distributors for use in manufacturing or compounding lotions, compounds, and other like commodities not susceptible for beverage purpose, and to sell the same for public use.

- (2) To a soldiers home, sanitarium, hospital, college, or home for the aged which will entitle the holder to purchase liquor from the state liquor stores or special distributors for use for medicinal, laboratory and scientific purposes only.

Referred to in §123.28

- b. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this chapter, patent and proprietary medicines, tinctures, food products, extracts, toilet articles and perfumes, and other like commodities, none of which are susceptible of use as a beverage, but which require as one of their ingredients alcohol or vinous liquors, may be manufactured and sold within this state, provided a special permit so to do is first obtained, as in this subsection provided.

Any person, firm, or corporation desiring such permit shall file with the liquor commission the affidavit of such person, member of the firm, secretary or other managing officer of the corporation, as the case may be, stating therein the following facts:

- (1) The name, place of business, and post-office address of the person, firm, or corporation desiring such permit.
- (2) The business in which said person, firm, or corporation is engaged and the articles manufactured by them which require in their manufacture the use of alcohol or vinous liquors.

(3) That neither the applicant, nor any member of the firm, nor officer of the corporation has been convicted of any violation of the laws of this state with reference to the sale of intoxicating liquors within three years last past prior to the date of said affidavit.

If the liquor commission is satisfied that the facts stated in said affidavit are true and that the applicant is a person fit and proper to be entrusted with the permit applied for, the same shall be issued upon the filing by the applicant of a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, with approved sureties, conditioned that the applicant will faithfully observe the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission.

Such special permit when so issued shall entitle the holder thereof to import into the state, or purchase from licensed distillers within the state or from the commission, alcohol or vinous liquors for use in manufacture, in accordance with the terms of said permit, and to sell the product of such manufacture, regardless of any of the other provisions of this chapter with respect to purchase and sale of alcohol or vinous liquors.

It shall be the duty of every manufacturer holding such special permit under the provisions of this subsection whenever such manufacturer shall purchase any alcoholic liquor from any person, firm or corporation, other than the liquor commission, immediately upon receipt thereof to file with the liquor commission a report of the receipt of such liquor in accordance with the rules and regulations as they may be established by the liquor commission.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the legitimate sale of patent and proprietary medicines, tinctures, food products, extracts, toilet articles and perfumes, and other like commodities, none of which are generally classified or used as a beverage but which require as one of their ingredients alcoholic or vinous liquors, through the ordinary retail or wholesale channels.

4. Upon posting bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars with surety and conditions prescribed by the commission, which bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of all taxes payable to the state under the provisions of this chapter and compliance with all provisions of this title, liquor control licenses may be issued to any person who (or whose officers and stockholders, in the case of a club or corporation, or whose partners, in the case of a partnership) is of good moral character, is the holder of a retail beer permit as defined in chapter 124, has not been convicted of a felony, does not possess a federal gambling stamp, is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Iowa for the past two years or licensed to do business in the case of a corporation in the state of Iowa for the last two years, is not chargeable directly or indirectly with the administration or enforcement of the alcoholic beverages laws of the state of Iowa, and is, in the judgment of the commission, of such financial standing and good reputation as will satisfy the commission that the licensee will comply with the law and the regulations of the commission. However, if his conviction of a felony occurred more than five years before the date of the application for a license, and if the applicant's rights of citizenship have been restored by the governor, the commission may issue a license notwithstanding such conviction. As a further condition for issuance of a liquor control license, the licensee must give consent for members of the fire, police and health departments and the building inspector of cities and towns; the county sheriff, deputy sheriff and state agents, and county health officer to enter upon the premises without a warrant to inspect for violations of the provisions of this chapter as amended, the provisions of title VI of the Code, or the provisions of ordinances and regulations that cities and towns and boards of supervisors may adopt.

5. No liquor control license shall be issued for premises which do not conform to all laws, ordinances and resolutions, health and fire regulations applicable thereto. Nor shall any licensee have or maintain any interior access to residential or sleeping quarters, unless permission is specifically granted by the Iowa liquor control commission in the form of a living quarters permit.

6. Liquor control licenses issued under this chapter shall be of the following classes:

a. Class "A". A class "A" liquor control license may be issued to a club and shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase spirits and wine from the commission only, and to sell alcoholic beverages so purchased to bona fide members and their guests by the individual drink for consumption on the premises only.

b. Class "B". A class "B" liquor control license may be issued to a hotel or motel as herein defined and shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase spirits and wine from the commission only, and to sell alcoholic beverages so purchased to patrons by the individual drink for consumption on the premises only. Each such license shall be effective throughout the premises described in the application therefor, but a duplicate of such license shall be posted in each room wherein such beverages are dispensed.

c. Class "C". A class "C" liquor control license may be issued to a commercial establishment but must be issued in the name of the individual or individuals who actually own the entire business and shall authorize the holder or holders thereof to purchase spirits and wine from the commission only, and to sell alcoholic beverages so purchased to patrons by the individual drink for consumption on the premises only.

d. Class "D". A class "D" liquor control license may be issued to a railway corporation, to an air common carrier, and to passenger-carrying boats or ships for hire with a capacity of twenty-five persons or more operating in inland or boundary waters, and shall authorize the holder thereof to sell or furnish alcoholic beverages to passengers for consumption only on trains, watercraft as described herein, or aircraft, respectively. Each such license shall be good throughout the state as a state license. Only one such license shall be required for all trains or aircraft operated in the state by the licensee, but a duplicate of such license issued shall be posted in each railroad car or aircraft in which such beverages are sold. Such licensee shall keep a record of all alcoholic beverages sold or furnished in the state of Iowa, and on or before the last day of each month shall render a report to the commission showing the quantities of the various kinds of alcoholic beverages so sold or furnished during the preceding month, which report shall be accompanied by payment of appropriate taxes owing.

7. An application for a class "A", class "B", or class "C" liquor control license, accompanied by the required fee and bond, shall be filed with the appropriate city or town council if the premises proposed to be licensed are located within the corporate limits of a city or town, or with the board of supervisors if the premises proposed to be licensed are located outside the corporate limits of a city or town. Application for a class "D" liquor control license, accompanied by the required fee and bond, shall be filed with the commission, which shall proceed in the same manner as in the case of an application approved by local authorities.

a. Action by local authorities. If the city or town council, or county board of supervisors, as the case may be, approves the issuance of a license, it shall endorse its approval on the application and forward same along with the fee and bond to the commission; or if it disapproves issuance of a license, it shall endorse its disapproval on the application and forward same along with the fee and bond to the commission. Upon the initial issuance of or denial of liquor control licenses, the fact that local authorities determine that no liquor control licenses shall be issued under this chapter as amended shall not be held to be arbitrary, capricious or without reasonable cause.

Before the issuance, renewal, or denial of liquor control licenses by local authorities, the board or council may conduct a referendum on the question of whether liquor control licenses shall be approved for the city, town, or county in question. Said referendum shall be conducted in the same manner that special elections are conducted. The purpose of such referendum shall be solely to assist the board or council members in determining public sentiment toward liquor-by-the-drink sales, and shall not be binding on the council or board members in determining whether or not to approve the issuance or renewal of liquor control licenses.

b. Action by the commission. Upon receipt of an application having been disapproved, the commission shall disapprove the application and so notify the applicant by registered mail. Upon receipt of an application having been approved, the commission shall make such investigation as it deems necessary and it may require the applicant to appear before it and be examined under oath regarding any matters pertinent to the application, in which case a record shall be made of all testimony or evidence and the same shall become a part of the application. If the application is approved, an appropriate liquor control license shall be issued. If the application is disapproved, the applicant and the appropriate city or town council, or county board of supervisors, shall be so notified in writing, and the fee and bond shall be returned to the applicant.

c. Appeal to commission. Any applicant for a liquor control license may appeal to the commission from its disapproval of an application for a license; or, in lieu of such appeal, the commission may afford the applicant a hearing through issuance of a notice to the applicant of contemplated disapproval of a license. If, upon such appeal or hearing, the commission shall determine that the city or town council, or county board of supervisors, acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or without reasonable cause in disapproving the application, or that (where the city or town council, or county board of supervisors approved the application) the commission's own disapproval or contemplated disapproval should be reversed, it may issue a license.

d. Appeal to courts. Any applicant who feels aggrieved by a decision of the commission or issuing authority disapproving, suspending, or revoking issuance of a license may, provided he has exercised his rights of appeal to the commission as hereinabove provided, appeal from said decision within ten days to the district court of the county wherein the premises covered by the applications are situated.

Where the commission on an appeal by an applicant finds that a city or town council or county board of supervisors acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or without reasonable cause in disapproving an application and the commission issues a license, the council or board may appeal from such decision of the commission within ten days to the district court of the county wherein the premises covered by the application are situated.

e. Local option. If a petition shall be signed by the electors of any county in such number as shall equal twenty-five percent of the votes cast in such county for governor at the last general election, which shall request that the question of licensing the sale of alcoholic beverages (exceeding four percent by weight) by the drink be submitted to the electors thereof at a special election to be called for that purpose, as hereinafter provided, and shall be filed with the board of supervisors, the board shall cause such election to be held and shall cause to be published once each week for four weeks in succession in the official newspapers in such county a notice of such special election to be held not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the last publication. The notice shall state the proposition to be submitted to the electors at such special election. Each sheet of the petition shall contain not more than thirty names of electors with their personal signatures, addresses, and the date of signing. If residing within a city or town where the electors are required to be registered, the signature shall be the same as it appears upon the registration records. At the top of each sheet shall be stated the proposition to be submitted. No signature on such petition shall be valid unless appended to the petition within the last ninety days prior to the date of filing the petition. At the bottom of each sheet of such petition shall be the affidavit of the person who circulated same, stating that the signatures on the petition were made in his presence, that he has reasonable cause to believe that they are qualified electors of the particular county, and that they are the persons they represent themselves to be. Whoever signs any such petition, knowing that he is not a qualified elector in the county where such petition is made, or who aids or abets any other person in doing any of the acts mentioned, or whoever bribes, gives or pays any money or thing of value to any person directly or indirectly, to induce him to sign such petition, shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not exceeding three hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Upon the ballot the proposition shall be stated as follows:

"Shall the retail sale of alcoholic beverages (exceeding four percent by weight) by the drink be prohibited in (here insert the name of the county)?"

- YES
 NO

The provisions of the statutes of this state relating to election of officers, voting places, election apparatus and blanks, preparation and form of ballots, information to voters, delivery of ballots, calling of elections, conduct of elections, manner of voting, counting of votes, records and certificates of election, and recount of votes, so far as applicable, shall apply to voting on the proposition under the provisions of this section. If a majority of the ballots cast are "YES", the board shall not issue any new licenses. However, if at the time of such election there are liquor control licenses in effect in the county, they shall not be revoked except for cause for a period of three years. No new election shall be held for a period of four years. This election shall not be held within thirty days of any general election. Except for filing of the petition and the conduct of elections, whenever the word "board" appears in this paragraph it shall include the county board of supervisors and city and town councils.

8. Verified applications for the original issuance or the renewal of liquor control licenses shall be filed at such time and in such number of copies as the commission shall by regulations prescribe, on forms prescribed by the commission, and shall set forth under oath the following information:

- a. The name and address of the applicant.
- b. The precise location of the premises for which a license is sought.
- c. The names and addresses of all persons (in the case of a corporation, the officers, directors, and persons owning or controlling ten percent or more of the capital stock thereof) having a financial interest, by way of loan, ownership, or otherwise, in the business or the profits thereof.
- d. When required by the commission, a sketch or drawing of the premises proposed to be licensed and in such form and containing such information as the commission may require.

e. A statement whether any person specified in "c" above has ever been convicted of any offense against the laws of the United States, or any state or territory thereof, or any political subdivision of any such state or territory.

A statement whether the applicant or any person specified in paragraph "c" of subsection 8 possesses a federal gambling stamp.

f. Such other information as the commission shall require.

9. There shall be no limit upon the number of liquor control licenses which may be issued by a city or town council or board of supervisors, except that not more than one class "C" liquor control license may be issued to each qualified applicant.

10. All liquor control licenses issued as provided for herein, unless sooner revoked, shall expire on the anniversary date of each year. Provided, however, the commission is authorized to issue six-month or eight-month seasonal licenses for a proportionate part of the license fee hereinafter specified. No refund shall be made for seasonal licenses. No seasonal license shall be renewed except after a period of two months.

11. Every permit holder licensed under this chapter shall fill out in duplicate, on forms furnished by the commission, the amount and kinds of liquors purchased, and shall retain one copy in his establishment for a period of two years, and the manager of the state liquor store at which the purchase was made shall monthly forward the other copy to the commission.

12. It shall be unlawful for any law-enforcement officer or other official to accept or solicit donations, gratuities, political advertising, gifts or other favors, directly or indirectly, from any licensee hereunder. Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or shall be subject to a jail term of not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

13. It shall be unlawful for any individual who is seeking public office to accept or solicit donations, gratuities, political advertising, gifts, or other favors directly or indirectly from any licensee hereunder. For the purpose of this subsection a person is considered to be seeking public office from the date of filing nomination papers or announcing his intention to run for office whichever occurs first to the date that the individual who is elected officially takes office. Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in subsection 12 of this section. [C35,§1921-f27; C39,§1921.027; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§123.27; 60GA, ch 114,§§9, 10, ch 115,§§2, 3, 10, ch 116,§4; 61GA, ch 143,§1, ch 144,§1, ch 145,§1 (1, 2), ch 146,§1]

123.28 Fees. For a "special permit" under paragraph "a" of subsection 2 of section 123.27 the fee shall be three dollars per year.

There shall be paid annually to the commission for a liquor control license the following fees:

1. Class "A" liquor control licenses, the sum of five hundred dollars, except that for class "A" licenses in towns of less than two thousand population, and for clubs of less than two hundred fifty members, the license fee shall be three hundred dollars; provided, however, that the fee shall be one hundred dollars for any club which is a post, branch, or chapter of a veterans organization chartered by the Congress of the United States, if such club does not sell or permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises more than one day in any week, and if the application for a license states that such club does not and will not sell or permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises more than one day in any week;

2. Class "B" liquor control licenses, the sum as follows:

a. Hotels or motels located within the corporate limits of cities of ten thousand population and over, one thousand dollars;

b. Hotels and motels located within the corporate limits of cities of over three thousand and less than ten thousand population, seven hundred and fifty dollars;

c. Hotels and motels located within the corporate limits of cities or towns of three thousand population and less, five hundred dollars;

d. Hotels and motels located outside the corporate limits of any city or town, one thousand dollars.

3. Class "C" liquor control licenses, the sum as follows:

a. Commercial establishments located within the corporate limits of cities of ten thousand population and over, one thousand dollars;

b. Commercial establishments located within the corporate limits of cities or towns of over fifteen hundred and less than ten thousand population, seven hundred fifty dollars;

c. Commercial establishments located within the corporate limits of towns of fifteen hundred population or less, five hundred dollars;

d. Commercial establishments located outside the corporate limits of any city or town, one thousand dollars.

4. Class "D" liquor control licenses, the sum of two hundred fifty dollars.

The commission shall credit all fees to the liquor control Act fund and shall remit to the respective city or town council, or county board of supervisors, as the case may be, a sum equal to fifty percent of the fees collected for each class "A", class "B", or class "C" license covering premises located within their respective jurisdiction. [C35,§1921-f28; C39, §1921.028; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§123.28; 60GA, ch 114,§11, ch 115,§§4, 5, ch 116,§6]

123.29 Nature of permit or license. A permit or liquor control license shall be a purely personal privilege and shall expire on the anniversary date following date of issuance and shall be revocable for cause. It shall not constitute property nor shall it be subject to attachment and execution nor shall it be alienable nor assignable and in any case it shall cease upon the death of the permittee or licensee. Every permit shall be issued in the name of the applicant and no person holding a permit shall allow any other person to use the permit.

Any liquor control licensee or his executor, administrator or any person duly appointed by the court to take charge of and administer the property or assets of such permittee for the benefit of his creditors, may voluntarily surrender any permit, issued under this chapter, to the issuing authority and when so surrendered the issuing authority shall refund to the person so surrendering the permit a proportionate amount of the permit fee paid for such permit as follows: if surrendered during the first three months of the period for which said permit was issued the refund shall be three-fourths of the amount of the permit fee; if surrendered more than three months but not more than six months after issuance the refund shall be one-half of the amount of the permit fee; if surrendered more than six months but not more than nine months after issuance the refund shall be one-fourth of the amount of the permit fee. No refund shall be made, however, for any permit surrendered more than nine months after issuance. No refund shall be made to any permit holder, upon the surrender of his permit, if there is at the time of said surrender a complaint filed with the board or council charging him with a violation of the provisions of this chapter. If upon hearing on any such complaint, so filed, his permit be not revoked, then said permit holder shall be eligible, upon surrender of his license, to receive a refund as herein provided. But in event his license is revoked upon such hearing then he shall not be eligible for the refund of any portion of his permit fee.

The issuing authority may in its discretion authorize a licensee to remove the license from one location to another within the same incorporated city or town, or within a county outside the corporate limits of a city or town, provided that the premises to which the transfer is to be made would have been eligible for a license in the first instance and such transfer will not result in any violation of any provision of law. [C35,§1921-f29; C39,§1921.029; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§123.29; 60GA, ch 114,§12, ch 115,§6]

123.32 Suspension or cancellation of license. Any liquor control license issued under this chapter may, after notice in writing to the license holder and reasonable opportunity for hearing, be suspended or canceled by the issuing authority or the commission for any of the following causes:

a. Misrepresentation of any material fact in the application for such license, or

b. Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter as amended or regulations of the commission, or

c. Any change in the ownership or interest in the business operated under a class "A", class "B", or class "C" license, which change was not previously reported to the commission and approved by it, or

d. An event which would have resulted in disqualification from receiving such license when originally issued, or

e. Any sale, hypothecation, or transfer of such license.

f. Any liquor control licensee whose license is revoked or canceled for cause shall not thereafter be permitted to hold a liquor control license in the state of Iowa. The spouse and business associates of a person whose license has been canceled or revoked for cause shall not be issued a liquor control license, and no liquor control license shall be issued which covers any business in which such person has a financial interest. In the event a license is revoked for cause the premises covered by a revoked license shall not be relicensed for one year. [C35,§1921-f32; C39,§1921.032; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§123.32; 60GA, ch 114,§13, ch 116,§5; 61GA, ch 147,§1]

123.36 Manufacturer's license. Upon application in the prescribed form and accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars, the commission may in accordance with this chapter, and in accordance with the regulations, made thereunder, grant a license, good for a period of one year after date of issuance to a manufacturer which shall allow the manufacture, storage and wholesale disposition and sale of alcoholic liquors and wines to the commission and to customers outside of the state. [C35, §1921-f36; C39,§1921.036; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §123.36]

Upon application in the prescribed form and accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars and subject to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, the commission shall grant a license good for a period of one year after date of issuance, to a wholesaler, which shall allow the wholesaler to purchase alcoholic liquor from distillers either within or without the state for the purpose of selling to the commission and customers of such wholesaler engaged in the sale of alcoholic liquor and wines at retail outside of the state. [C35,§1921-f37; C39,§1921.037; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§123.37]

123.38 Conditions — bond. As a condition precedent to the approval and granting of any license to the manufacturer or wholesaler applying therefor, there shall be filed with the commission a statement under oath that the applicant is a bona fide manufacturer or wholesaler of alcoholic liquors, and that the said applicant will faithfully observe and comply with all rules and regulations of the commission then existing, or thereafter made, and that he will in all respects comply with the provisions of this chapter; together with a bond of five thousand dollars for a manufacturer and one thousand dollars for a wholesaler with a surety to be approved by the commission; said bond to be in favor of the state of Iowa for the benefit of the state in case of any violation of this chapter. 123.40 Interest in liquor business. No member or employee of the commission, directly or indirectly, individually, or as a member of a partnership or as a shareholder in a corporation shall have any interest whatsoever in dealing in or in the manufacture of alcoholic liquor nor receive any kind of profit whatsoever nor have any interest whatsoever in the purchases or sale by the persons authorized to purchase and sell alcoholic liquor except that no such provisions shall prevent any such commissioner or employee from purchasing and keeping in his possession for the personal use of himself, or his family, or his guests any liquors which may be lawfully purchased.

No person engaged in the business of manufacturing, bottling, or wholesaling any alcoholic beverages nor any jobber nor any agent of such person shall directly or indirectly supply, furnish, give or pay for any furnishings, fixtures or equipment used in the storage, handling, serving, or dispensing of any alcoholic beverages or food within the place of business of another licensee authorized under the provisions of this chapter to sell at retail; nor shall he directly or indirectly extend any credit for any alcoholic beverages or pay for any such license, nor directly or indirectly be interested in the ownership, conduct or operation of the business of another licensee authorized under the provisions of this chapter to sell at retail. Any licensee who shall permit or assent or be a party in any way to any such violation or infringement of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a violation of the provisions of this chapter. If the state permit board finds from investigation that a review of the action of any city or town council, and boards of supervisors, should be had, or that such governing bodies have failed to take action, the state permit board shall thereupon fix a date for the hearing thereof and shall notify the permit holder of such hearing by certified mail of the date fixed for hearing and the date set for the hearing shall not be less than seven days from the mailing of the notice. Such notice shall be mailed to the permittee at the post-office address where his place of business is conducted under his permit. Testimony may be taken by deposition as in civil cases and any person may be compelled to appear and testify as in civil actions in the courts of this state. Any person who shall neglect and refuse to attend and testify or answer any lawful question or produce documentary evidence if it is in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena or lawful requirement by such board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof by a permit to all applicants to whom a permit has been issued by a city or town council or by a board of supervisors, which shall expire at the same time as the permit issued by said council or board, and shall forthwith certify to such council or board as to the issuance of each permit.

Each applicant applying for a class "B" or "C" permit, shall, in addition to procuring a permit from a city or town council, or board of supervisors, as provided in this chapter, also make application through such city or town council or board of supervisors for a state permit from the state permit board. Such applicant shall deposit with said application a fee of three dollars which shall be forwarded to the state permit board, together with the certification to the state board of the issuance of such class "B" or "C" permit. Such fees collected shall be placed in a special fund by the state tax commission to be used by the state permit board for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

The said board or council shall, upon receipt of any such complaint, forthwith fix a date for hearing thereon and shall immediately thereafter cause a written notice of the date, time, and place of said hearing, together with a copy of the complaint filed, to be served by any peace officer upon the permit holder complained against, and upon the surety, or the agent or representative of such surety, on his bond. Said date of hearing shall not be sooner than five nor later than fifteen days after the filing of said complaint. Said hearing may be adjourned or continued at the discretion of the board or council for good cause shown and the specific reasons therefor entered of record in the records of the board or council, but except for extraordinary or unusual circumstances, specifically stated in writing and placed in the minutes of such board or council, no more than two continuances of not to exceed five days each shall be granted. At said hearing the person or persons filing the complaint may be represented by counsel and the permit holder may be represented by counsel. The board or council, as the case may be, shall make full inquiry into the charges made in the complaint, being authorized to administer oaths and take testimony thereon, and if it appears that the permit holder has violated any provision of this chapter for which mandatory revocation or suspension is provided, the board or council shall immediately revoke or suspend said license, and the bond of the permit holder provided for in section 124.9, shall be forfeited if the permit is revoked and its principal or penal sum shall become immediately due and payable to such city, town, or county, as the case may be. In the event the decision of the board or council provides for a revocation of the permit, same shall stand revoked immediately and shall not be reinstated unless the district court or judge shall reverse the decision of the board or council. When notice of appeal has been served and filed, the board or council, as the case may be, shall immediately certify all the original papers to the clerk of the district court together with a certified copy of the order appealed from. The appeal shall be heard and determined by the district court without jury, or by a judge thereof in vacation within ten days thereafter and the hearing thereof shall be given precedence over other matters pending in said court. The board or council and the permit holder may be represented by counsel at such hearing. The said district court, or judge thereof in vacation, shall have full jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter de novo, and the decision of the court or judge shall be final and not subject to appeal to the supreme court except on the question of violation of the constitutional rights of either party. other health facilities, including public, non-profit and proprietary hospitals and other health facilities, to survey the need for construction of hospitals and other health facilities, and, on the basis of such inventory and survey, to develop a program for the construction of such public and other nonprofit hospitals and other health facilities, as will, in conjunction with existing facilities, afford the necessary physical facilities for furnishing adequate hospital and other health facility, and similar services to all the people of the state. In making the inventory and survey and developing a construction program with respect to diagnostic or treatment centers the commissioner shall, in the first instance, advise and consult with a subcommittee of the council, which subcommittee shall consist of the five individual doctors and the individual dentist then serving as members of the council. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135A.6]

135A.7 Construction program. The construction program shall provide in accordance with regulations prescribed under the federal Act, for adequate hospital and other health facilities for the people residing in this state and insofar as possible shall provide for their distribution throughout the state in such manner as to make all types of hospital and other health facility service reasonably accessible to all persons in the state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135A.7]

135A.8 Application for federal funds for survey and planning—expenditure. The commissioner is authorized to make application to the surgeon general for federal funds to assist in carrying out the survey and planning activities herein provided. Such funds shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall be available to the commissioner for expenditure for carrying out the purposes of this chapter, in accordance with the provisions of Title VI of the public health service Act, any amendments thereto, and the statutes of the state of Iowa. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135A.8]

135A.9 State plan. The commissioner shall, with the advice of the council, prepare and submit to the surgeon general a state plan which shall include the hospital and other health facilities construction program developed under this chapter and which shall provide for the establishment, administration and operation of hospital and other health facilities construction activities in accordance with the requirements of the federal Act and regulations thereunder. The commissioner shall, prior to the submission of such plan to the surgeon general, give adequate publicity to a general description to all the provisions proposed to be included therein, and hold a public hearing at which all persons or organizations with a legitimate interest in such plan may be given an opportunity to express their views. After approval of the plan by the surgeon general, the commissioner shall make the plan or a copy thereof available upon request to all interested persons or organizations. The commissioner shall from time to time review the hospital and other health facilities construction program and submit to the surgeon general any modifications thereof which he may find necessary and may submit to the surgeon general such modifications of the state plan, not inconsistent with the requirements of the federal Act, as he may deem advisable. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§135A.9]

135A.11 Priority of projects. The state plan shall set forth the relative need for the several projects included in the construction program determined in accordance with regulations prescribed pursuant to the federal Act, and provide for the construction, insofar as financial resources are available therefor and also for maintenance and operations in the order of such relative need. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§135A.11]

135A.12 Construction projects—applications. Applications for hospital and other health facilities construction projects for which federal funds are requested shall be submitted to the commissioner and may be submitted by the state or any political subdivision thereof or by any public or nonprofit agency authorized to construct and operate a hospital or a health facility, provided that no application for a diagnostic or treatment center shall be approved unless the applicant is (1) the state, a political subdivision, or a public agency, or (2) a corporation or association which owns and operates a nonprofit hospital. Each application for a construction project shall conform to federal and state requirements. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§135A.12]

135A.13 Consideration and forwarding of applications. The commissioner shall afford to every applicant for a construction project an opportunity for a fair hearing. If the commissioner, after affording reasonable opportunity for development and presentation of applications in the order of relative need, finds that a project application complies with the requirements of this chapter and is otherwise in conformity with the state plan, he shall approve such application and shall recommend and forward it to the surgeon general. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§135A.13]

135A.14 Inspection of projects. From time to time the commissioner shall cause to be inspected each construction project approved by the surgeon general, and, if the inspection so warrants, the commissioner shall certify to the surgeon general that work has been performed upon the project, or purchases have been made, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, and that payment of an installment of federal funds is due to the applicant. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§135A.14]

"Hospital" means a place which is devoted primarily to the maintenance and operation of facilities for the diagnosis, treatment or care over a period exceeding twenty-four hours of two or more nonrelated individuals suffering from illness, injury, or deformity, or a place which is devoted primarily to the rendering over a period exceeding twenty-four hours of obstetrical or other medical or nursing care for two or more nonrelated individuals, or any institution, place, building or agency in which any accommodation is primarily maintained, furnished or offered for the care over a period exceeding twenty-four hours of two or more nonrelated aged or infirm persons requiring or receiving chronic or convalescent care; and shall include sanatoriums or other related institutions within the meaning of this chapter. Provided, however, nothing in this chapter shall apply to hotels or other similar places that furnish only food and lodging, or either, to their guests. "Hospital" shall include, in any event, any facilities wholly or partially constructed or to be constructed with federal financial assistance, pursuant to Public Law 725, 79th Congress, approved August 13, 1946.*

2. "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association; and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee or other similar representative thereof.

135B.2 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment and enforcement of basic standards (1) for the care and treatment of individuals in hospitals and (2) for the construction, maintenance and operation of such hospitals, which, in the light of existing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate treatment of such individuals in hospitals, in the interest of the health, welfare and safety of the public. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.2]

135B.3 Licensure. No person or governmental unit, acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish, conduct or maintain a hospital in this state without a license. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.3]

See §135B.18

135B.4 Application for license. Licenses shall be obtained from the state department of health. Applications shall be upon such forms and shall contain such information as the said department may reasonably require, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with such reasonable standards, rules and regulations as may be lawfully prescribed hereunder. Each application for license shall be accompanied by the license fee, which shall be refunded to the applicant if the license is denied and which shall be paid over into the state treasury credited to the general fund if the license is issued. In case of death of any person holding such license or the sale of any hospital licensed hereunder within the first year of the tenure of such license the department shall certify to the state comptroller a claim on behalf of the licensee for refund of a proportionate share of the license fee. Said refund shall be based on one-twelfth the amount thereof multiplied by the remaining months in the year. The comptroller shall thereupon draw a warrant against the general fund payable to the order of the licensee. Hospitals having fifty beds or less shall pay an initial license fee of fifteen dollars; hospitals of more than fifty beds and not more than one hundred beds shall pay an initial license fee of twenty-five dollars; all other hospitals shall pay an initial license fee of fifty dollars. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.4]

135B.5 Issuance and renewal of license.

Upon receipt of an application for license and the license fee, the state department of health shall issue a license if the applicant and hospital facilities comply with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of the said department. Each such license, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall be renewable annually upon payment of ten dollars and upon filing by the licensee, and approval by the department, of an annual report upon such uniform dates and containing such information in such form as the state department of health, with the advice of the hospital licensing board, shall prescribe by regulation. Licenses issued hereunder shall be either general or restricted in form. In those instances where an applicant for hospital license was licensed as a hospital on December 31, 1960, or had an application for hospital license pending on April 1, 1961, and the facilities of such applicant are suitable or adequate for only certain types of hospital care or treatment, the specific types of care or treatment for which such hospital is properly equipped shall be set forth on the face of the license and the lawful operation of the hospital shall be thereby restricted to the types of care and treatment so specified. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the state department of health. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises as prescribed by regulation of the said department.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not in any way affect, change, deny or nullify any rights set forth in, or arising from the provisions of this chapter and particularly section 135B.7, arising before or after December 31, 1960. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.5]

135B.6 Denial or revocation of license—hearings and review. The state department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend or revoke a license in any case where it finds that there has been a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules, regulations or minimum standards promulgated under this chapter.

Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be effected by mailing to the applicant or licensee by certified mail, or by personal service of, a notice setting forth the particular reasons for such action. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notice, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period shall give written notice to the department requesting a hearing, in which case the notice shall be deemed to be suspended. If a hearing has been requested, the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing before the department. At any time at or prior to hearing, the department may rescind the notice of denial, suspension or revocation upon being satisfied that the reasons for the denial, suspension or revocation have been or will be removed. On the basis of any such hearing, or upon default of the applicant or licensee the determination involved in the notice may be affirmed, modified, or set aside, by the department. A copy of such decision, setting forth the finding of facts and the particular reasons for the decision shall be sent by certified mail, or served personally upon, the applicant or licensee. The decision shall become final thirty days after it is so mailed or served, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, appeals the decision to the court, pursuant to section 135B.14.

The procedure governing hearings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with rules promulgated by said department with the advice of the hospital licensing board. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings, and all testimony shall be reported but need not be transcribed unless the decision is appealed pursuant to section 135B.14. A copy or copies of the transcript may be obtained by an interested party on payment of the cost of preparing such copy or copies. Witnesses may be subpoenaed by either party and shall be allowed fees at a rate prescribed by the aforesaid rules. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.6]

135B.7 Rules, regulations, and enforcement. The state department of health with the advice of the hospital licensing board, shall adopt, amend, promulgate and enforce such rules, regulations and standards with respect to the different types of hospitals to be licensed hereunder as may be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of the chapter. Rules, regulations and standards may be adopted imposing requirements in excess of those provided in chapter 413, but no rule, regulation or standard shall be adopted imposing requirements less than those provided by said chapter. No rules, regulations or standards shall be adopted or enforced which would have the effect of denying a license to a hospital or other institution required to be licensed hereunder, solely by reason of the school or system of practice employed or permitted to be employed by physicians therein; provided that such school or system of practice is recognized by the laws of this state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.7]

Referred to in §§135B.5, 135B.17

Any hospital which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or regulations or minimum standards under this chapter shall be given a reasonable time, not to exceed one year from the date of such promulgation, within which to comply with such rules and regulations and minimum standards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.8]

135B.9 Inspections and consultations. The state department of health shall make or cause to be made such inspections as it may deem necessary. The state department of health shall, with the advice of the hospital licensing board, prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant for license desiring to make specified types of alteration or addition to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the state department of health for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.9]

135B.10 Hospital licensing board. The five individuals appointed by the governor to the hospital advisory council as individuals of recognized ability in the field of hospital administration, shall function as and be the hospital licensing board. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.10]

135B.11 Functions of hospital licensing board. The hospital licensing board shall have the following responsibilities and duties:

1. To consult and advise with the department of health in matters of policy affecting administration of this chapter, and in the development of rules, regulations and standards provided for hereunder.

2. To review and approve such rules, regulations and standards authorized hereunder prior to their promulgation by the department of health as specified herein.

The members of the board shall receive no compensation or expenses for their services as members thereof. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.11]

135B.12 Information confidential. Information received by the state department of health through filed reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter, shall not be disclosed publicly in such manner as to identify individuals or hospitals, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure or the denial, suspension or revocation of a license. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.12]

135B.13 Annual report of department. The state department of health shall prepare and publish an annual report of its activities and operations under this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.13]

135B.14 Judicial review. Any applicant or licensee who is dissatisfied with the decision of the commissioner of public health as a result of the hearing provided herein may, within thirty days after the mailing or serving of notice of the decision as provided in said section, file a notice of appeal in the district court of the county in which the hospital is located or to be located, and serve a copy of said notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon the department shall within thirty days certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision, including the transcript of the hearings on which the decision is based. The trial before the court shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license shall be denied, suspended or revoked, as the case may be, may be submitted including new or additional evidence not submitted to the commissioner, and the court shall have power to affirm, modify or reverse the decision of the commissioner. Pending final disposition of the matter the status quo of the applicant or licensee shall be preserved. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.14]

Referred to in §135B.6

135B.15 Penalties. Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any hospital without a license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars, and each day of continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.15]

135B.16 Injunction. Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the department may, in the manner provided by law, maintain an action in the name of the state for injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, management or operation of a hospital without a license. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §135B.16]

135B.21 Functions of hospital. The ownership and maintenance of the laboratory and X-ray facilities and the operation of same under this division are proper functions of a hospital. [C58, 62, §135B.21]

135B.22 Character of services. Pathology and radiology services performed in hospitals are the product of the joint contribution of hospitals, doctors and technicians but these services constitute medical services which must be performed by or under the direction and supervision of a doctor, and no hospital shall have the right, directly or indirectly, to direct, control or interfere with the professional medical acts and duties of the doctor in charge of the pathology or radiology facilities or of the technicians under his supervision. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of third parties as a result of negligence in the operation or maintenance of the aforesaid pathology and radiology facilities. [C58, 62, §135B.22]

135B.23 Agreement with doctor. Each hospital shall arrange for such services and for the direction and supervision of its pathology or radiology department by entering into either an oral or written agreement with a doctor who is a member of or acceptable to the hospital medical staff. Such doctor may or may not be a specialist. The department may be supervised and directed by a qualified member of the staff and specific services may be referred to a specialist, or the specialist may also direct and supervise the department as may be desired. The said hospital bill shall also contain a statement substantially in the following form:

“The pathology and radiology charges are for medical services rendered by or under the direction of the doctor listed above and are collected by the hospital on behalf of the doctor, from which charges an agreed sum will be retained by the hospital in accordance with an existing agreement to which retention you consented at the time of your admission to the hospital.” [C58, 62,§135B.28]

135B.29 Fees. All fees to be charged by the doctors for pathology and radiology services shall be mutually agreed upon by the hospital and the doctor. In the event dispute shall arise between the parties the matter shall be submitted to the joint conference committee for final determination. [C58, 62, §135B.29]

135B.30 Radiology and pathology fees. Fees for radiology and pathology services must be paid for as medical and not hospital services. In all cases where payment is to be made by a corporation organized pursuant to chapter 514, payment for radiology and pathology services shall be made by a medical service corporation and not by a hospital service corporation. [C58, 62,§135B.30]

An institution licensed as a nursing home shall provide an organized continuing twenty-four hour program of nursing care commensurate with the needs of the patients and under the immediate direction of a licensed physician, licensed registered nurse or licensed practical nurse licensed by the state of Iowa, whose combined training and supervised experience is such as to assure adequate and competent nursing direction. Medical and nursing care shall be under the direction of either a "house physician" or individually selected physicians, but surgery or obstetrical care shall not be provided within the home. Persons in active or acute stages of alcoholism, drug addiction, mental illness or communicable disease may not be admitted to any licensed nursing home. [C58, 62, §135C.3]

135C.4 Custodial homes. Persons who may not be admitted to nursing homes and persons in need of nursing care shall not be admitted to any licensed custodial home. [C50, 54, §135C.9; C58, 62, §135C.4]

Persons not admitted to nursing homes, see §135C.3

135C.5 Rest homes, etc. Infirmaries operated in connection with custodial homes or with rest homes, homes for the aged, or boarding homes, may be licensed as nursing homes. No nursing home or custodial home shall be established or operated in any building in which other businesses are housed or other activities are carried on, the existence of which is determined by the department or the fire marshal to be detrimental to the proper care of the residents of the home. [C58, 62, §135C.5]

135C.6 License required. After July 4, 1957, no person or governmental unit acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish or operate a nursing home or custodial home in this state without a license for such home. [C50, 54, §135C.2; C58, 62, §135C.6]

135C.7 Application—fees. Licenses shall be obtained from the state department of health. Applications shall be upon such forms and shall require such information as the said department may reasonably require, which may include affirmative evidence of compliance with such other statutes and local ordinances as may be applicable. Each application for license shall be accompanied by the license fee, which shall be refunded to the applicant if the license is denied, which fee shall be paid over into the state treasury and credited to the general fund if the license is issued. There shall be an annual license fee based upon the bed capacity of the home. Nursing homes having ten beds or less shall pay an annual fee of ten dollars, nursing homes having more than ten beds and not more than twenty-five beds shall pay an annual fee of twenty dollars, nursing homes having more than twenty-five beds and not more than seventy-five beds shall pay an annual fee of thirty dollars, nursing homes having more than seventy-five beds and not more than one hundred fifty beds shall pay an annual fee of forty dollars, and all other nursing homes shall pay an annual license fee of fifty dollars. [C50, 54, §§135C.3, 135C.4; C58, 62, §135C.7]

135C.8 Scope of license. Licenses for nursing homes or custodial homes shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the state department of health. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises as prescribed by regulation of the department. Such licenses, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire one year after the date of issuance and shall be renewed annually upon an application by the licensee. Applications for such renewal shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee, at least thirty days prior to the expiration of such license. [C50, 54, §135C.5; C58, 62, §135C.8]

135C.9 Inspection before issuance. Upon receipt of the license fee and the application for license as a nursing home or custodial home the department shall:

1. If the application is for a nursing home, cause an inspection to be made of the premises by the personnel of the department of health.

2. If the application is for a custodial home, forward the application to the county board of social welfare of the county in which the premises are located. The county board shall make, or cause to be made, an inspection of the premises. After making such inspection the county board shall return the application to the board of health together with its findings from said inspection as to whether the proposed custodial home meets the standards for such homes as prescribed in the published regulations of the state department of health.

3. With regard to both nursing homes and custodial homes the department shall not issue a license until the premises have been inspected by the state fire marshal or his deputy for such purpose, the appointment of whom, including members of municipal fire departments, is hereby authorized, and the department has received a certificate signed by such marshal or his deputy that the premises comply with the fire-hazard and fire-safety rules, regulations and standards of the department as promulgated by the fire marshal. [C50, 54, §135C.6; C58, 62, §135C.9]

135C.10 Denial, suspension or revocation. The state department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend, or revoke a license in any case where the department finds that there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules, regulations or minimum standards promulgated hereunder, or for any of the following reasons:

1. Cruelty or indifference to the welfare of nursing home or custodial home patients.

2. Appropriation or conversion of the property of a nursing home or custodial home patient without his written consent or the written consent of his legal guardian.

3. Evidence that the moral character of the applicant, manager or supervisor of the home is not reputable.

4. Permitting, aiding, or abetting the commission of any illegal act in the nursing home or custodial home.

5. Inability or failure to operate and conduct the nursing home or custodial home in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and the minimum standards, rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

6. Obtaining or attempting to obtain a license by fraudulent means or misrepresentation.

7. Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of drugs by the applicant, manager or supervisor of the nursing home or custodial home.

8. Securing the devise or bequest of the property of a patient in a nursing home or custodial home by undue influence. [C50, 54, §135C.6; C58, 62, §135C.10]

135C.11 Notice—hearings. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be effected by mailing to the applicant or licensee by certified mail or by personal service of a notice setting forth the particular reasons for such action. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notice, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, shall give written notice to the department requesting a hearing, in which case the notice shall be deemed to be suspended. If a hearing has been requested, the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing before the department. At any time at or prior to the hearing the department may rescind the notice of the denial, suspension or revocation upon being satisfied that the reasons for the denial, suspension or revocation have been or will be removed. On the basis of any such hearing, or upon default of the applicant or licensee, the determination involved in the notice may be affirmed, modified, or set aside by the department. A copy of such decision shall be sent by certified mail, or served personally upon the applicant or licensee. The decision shall become final thirty days after it is so mailed or served, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period, appeals the decision to the court, pursuant to section 135C.13.

The procedure governing hearings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with the rules promulgated by said department. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings, and all testimony shall be reported but need not be transcribed unless the decision is appealed pursuant to section 135C.13. A copy or copies of the transcript may be obtained by an interested party upon payment of the cost of preparing such copy or copies. Witnesses may be subpoenaed by either party and shall be allowed fees at a rate prescribed by the aforesaid rules. [C50, 54, §135C.6; C58, 62, §135C.11]

135C.12 Conditional operation. In any case where the department of health shall have the authority to deny, suspend or revoke a license, the department shall have the authority to conditionally issue or continue a license dependent upon the performance by the licensee of such reasonable conditions within such reasonable period of time as may be set by the department so as to permit the licensee to commence or continue the operation of the nursing home or custodial home pending his full compliance with this chapter or any regulations issued hereunder. In such case, if the licensee does not make diligent efforts to comply with such conditions as prescribed, the department may, under the proceedings hereinafore prescribed, suspend or revoke the license. [C58, 62, §135C.12]

135C.13 Appeal. Any applicant or licensee who is dissatisfied with the decision of the commissioner of public health as a result of the hearing procedure provided herein may appeal the decision within thirty days after the mailing or serving of notice of the decision by filing a notice of appeal in the district court of the county where the home or proposed home is located, and by serving a copy of said notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon the department shall within thirty days certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision, including the transcript of the hearings on which the decision is based. The trial before the court shall be de novo and all legal evidence pertaining to the matter of whether or not such license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked, as the case may be, may be submitted including new or additional evidence not submitted to the commissioner, and the court shall have power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the commissioner. Pending final disposition of the matter the status quo of the applicant or licensee shall be preserved. [C58, 62, §135C.13]

135C.14 Rules and regulations. The department of health shall adopt, amend, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations setting minimum standards for nursing homes and custodial homes. Such rules, regulations and standards shall be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter and shall relate to:

1. Location and construction of the home, including plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation, and other housing conditions, which shall ensure the health, safety and comfort of residents and protection from fire hazards. Such rules, regulations and standards regarding location and construction of the home may impose requirements in excess of those provided in chapter 413 but shall not impose requirements less than those provided by such chapter. The rules of the department relating to protection from fire hazards and fire safety shall be promulgated by the state fire marshal;

2. Number and qualifications of all personnel, including management and nursing personnel, having responsibility for any part of the care given to residents;

135C.15 Time to comply. Any nursing home or custodial home which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules and regulations or minimum standards under this chapter shall be given reasonable time from the date of such promulgation to comply with such rules, regulations and minimum standards. [C58, 62,§135C.15]

135C.16 Inspections. The state department of health shall make or cause to be made such further inspections as it may deem necessary. The state department of health shall prescribe by regulation that any licensee or applicant for license desiring to make specific types of alterations or additions to its facility or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration or additions or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the state department of health for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to the compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. An inspector of the department of health, county board of social welfare or fire marshal, may enter any licensed nursing home or custodial home or purported nursing home or custodial home without a warrant. [C58, 62,§135C.16]

135C.17 Duties of other departments. It shall be the duty of the state department of social welfare, state fire marshal, and the officers and agents of other governmental units to assist the state department of health in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, insofar as the functions of these respective offices and departments are concerned with the health, welfare, and safety of any person or persons cared for in nursing homes or custodial homes. [C58, 62,§135C.17]

135C.18 Employees. The state department of health may employ such assistants and inspectors as may be necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter. [C58, 62,§135C.18]

135C.19 Confidential information. Information received by the state department of health through reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized in this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in such manner as to identify individuals or nursing homes or custodial homes, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure or the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license. [C58, 62,§135C.19]

135C.20 Information distributed. The state department of health shall prepare, publish and send to licensed nursing and custodial homes an annual report of its activities and operations under this chapter and such other bulletins containing fundamental health principles and data as may be deemed essential to assure proper operation of nursing homes and custodial homes. [C58, 62,§135C.20]

135C.21 Penalty. Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any nursing home or custodial home without a license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six months, or both. Each day of continuing violation after conviction or notice from the department by certified mail of a violation shall be considered a separate offense. Any such person establishing, conducting, managing or operating any nursing home or custodial home without a license may be by any court of competent jurisdiction temporarily or permanently restrained therefrom in any action brought by the state. 135D.1 Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this chapter:

1. "Mobile home" means any vehicle without motive power used or so manufactured or constructed as to permit its being used as a conveyance upon the public streets and highways and so designed, constructed, or reconstructed as will permit the vehicle to be used as a place for human habitation by one or more persons; but shall also include any such vehicle with motive power not registered as a motor vehicle in Iowa.

2. "Mobile home park" shall mean any site, lot, field or tract of land upon which two or more occupied mobile homes are harbored, either free of charge or for revenue purposes, and shall include any building, structure, tent, vehicle or enclosure used or intended for use as part of the equipment of such mobile home park.

The term "mobile home park" shall not be construed to include mobile homes, buildings, tents or other structures temporarily maintained by any individual, educational institution, or company on their own premises and used exclusively to house their own labor or students. [C54, 58, 62§135D.1; 60GA, ch 118,§6]

135D.2 Annual license for park. No person, firm or corporation shall establish, maintain, conduct or operate a mobile home park within this state without first obtaining an annual license therefor from the state department of health. Such annual license shall be issued for the calendar year applied for and shall expire at midnight on December 31 of such year. Any mobile home park located in more than one municipality shall be dealt with as two separate mobile home parks. [C54, 58, 62,§135D.2]

135D.3 Application for annual license. The application for annual license to operate and maintain a mobile home park shall be made to the state department of health, at such office and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations of that department; provided that when such mobile home park is located within a municipality, the application shall be filed with the local board of health who shall forward the same to the state department of health. [C54, 58, 62,§135D.3]

135D.4 Form of application for annual license. The application for such annual license shall be in writing and upon such form as the state department of health may by regulation provide, and shall include the following information:

1. The full name and address of the applicant or applicants or names and addresses of the partners if the applicant is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the officers if the applicant is a corporation, and present or last occupation of the applicant at the time of the filing of the application.

2. A legal description of the site, lot, field or tract of land upon which it is proposed to operate and maintain a mobile home park.

3. The proposed and existing facilities on and about such site, lot, field or tract of land for the proposed construction or alteration and maintaining of a sanitary community building for toilets, urinals, sinks, wash basins, slop sinks and showers, drains, laundry facilities, source of water supply; sewage, garbage and waste disposal.

4. The proposed method of lighting the structures and site, lot, field or tract of land upon which said mobile home park is to be located.

5. Designate the calendar months of the year in which applicant will operate said mobile home park.

6. Plans and drawings for new construction, including buildings, wells, and sewage disposal systems, not in existence at the time of the application. [C54, 58, 62,§135D.4]

Referred to in §135D.5

135D.5 Primary and annual license fees. The application for the first annual primary license shall be submitted with all plans and specifications enumerated in section 135D.4, and payment of twenty-five dollars for each mobile home park with facilities for twenty or fewer mobile homes, or fifty dollars for each mobile home park with facilities for more than twenty mobile homes, and shall be accompanied by an approved permit from the municipality whereon the park is to be located, or a statement that the municipality does not require an approved permit. In the event a mobile park has facilities for three or less mobile homes, the annual license fee shall not exceed ten dollars.

Each year thereafter, the license fee shall be twenty-five dollars. All annual license fees collected by the department of health shall be deposited with the state treasurer.

When the application is received by the state department of health, it shall promptly cause the mobile home park and appurtenances thereto to be inspected. When such inspection and report has been made and the state department of health finds that all requirements of this chapter and such conditions of health and safety as the state department of health may require have been met by the applicant, the state department of health shall forthwith issue such annual primary license in the name of the state. [C54, 58, 62,§135D.5]

135D.6 Sanitary and safety facilities reported. During the pendency of the application for such annual primary license, any change in the sanitary or safety facilities of the intended mobile home park shall be immediately reported in writing to the state department of health to the office to which the application was made. If no objection is made by the state department of health to such a change in such sanitary or safety facilities within sixty days of the date such change is reported, it shall be deemed to have the approval of the state department of health. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.6]

135D.7 Permit from department of health—construction or remodeling. No person, firm or corporation shall construct, expand, remodel or make alterations to the sanitary facilities in a mobile home park within this state without first obtaining a permit therefor from the state department of health. The application for such permit shall be made to the state department of health in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations of said department; provided, that when such mobile home park is located within a municipality, the application and any information to accompany the same, shall be filed with the local board of health, which shall forward the same to the state department of health. When the application has been approved, the state department of health shall issue a permit to the applicant to construct or make alterations pertaining to water and sewage disposal upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances thereto according to the plans and specifications presented with the approved application.

No approval of plans and specifications and issuance of a permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances by the state department of health shall be construed as having been approved for other than sanitation.

Such a permit does not relieve the applicant from securing building permits in municipalities having a building code; or from complying with any other municipal ordinance or ordinances, applicable thereto, and not in conflict with this statute. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.7]

135D.8 Denial of permit or license. If the application for a permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances thereto, or a primary license to operate the same, is denied by the state department of health, it shall so state in writing, giving the reasons for denying the application. If the objection can be corrected, the applicant may amend his application and resubmit it for approval, and if denied the applicant may within thirty days thereafter appeal from the decision of the state board of health to the district court of the county in which said mobile home park is located, and the case shall be tried in equity. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.8]

135D.9 and 135D.10 Repealed by 60GA, ch 118.

135D.11 Distribution of copies of permit. When the state department of health has approved an application for permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park or the appurtenances thereto or a license to operate and maintain the same, it shall retain the original and keep a file thereof. One copy shall be returned to the applicant or his agent, one copy to the local board of health, if the mobile home park is located within the limits of a municipality. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.11]

135D.12 Forms furnished by department. The state department of health shall furnish all necessary forms to be executed in making application for all licenses under this chapter. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.12]

135D.13 Notice to municipal treasurer. It shall be the duty of the state department of health to notify, or cause to be notified, the treasurer of each municipality of the issuance of each mobile home park license issued within the jurisdiction of such municipality. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.13]

135D.14 Parks owned by public. Any mobile home park owned and operated by any municipality shall meet all provisions of this chapter. Any mobile home park owned or operated by any agency or department of this state shall meet all the requirements of this chapter except those set forth in section 135D.5. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.14; 61GA, ch 159, §1 (1, 2)]

135D.15 Seasonal operation. If any applicant for a mobile home park license desires to operate such mobile home park only during the months from May 1 to October 1, they should pay only one-half of the above-mentioned annual license fee, but should pay the full monthly fees hereinbefore required for each month of operation. If in the opinion of the state department of health the sanitary and facility requirements herein contained are too rigid for the mobile home park, it may in writing or by regulation modify such requirements as circumstances may permit and require. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.15]

135D.16 Rules and regulations. The department shall have full authority to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of this chapter, in addition hereto and not inconsistent herewith. All rules and regulations shall be filed and entered by the department in its office in an index, permanent book or record, with the effective date thereof suitably indicated, and such book or record shall be a public document. Whenever a new ruling or regulation is adopted by the department, a copy of the same shall be mailed by it to each licensee hereunder. All rules and regulations issued shall be in conformity with the provisions of chapter 17A. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.16]

135D.17 Revocation and suspension of license. Any license granted hereunder shall be subject to revocation or suspension by a court of proper authority and jurisdiction, and the state department of health shall first serve or cause to be served a written notice specifying a way or ways in which said licensee has failed to comply with the chapter, or any special rules or regulations promulgated by the state department of health pertaining thereto. Said notice shall direct the licensee to remove or abate such nuisance, unsanitary or objectionable condition specified in said notice within five days, or within such reasonable period of time or extended period of time as may be reasonably allowed by the complaining officer. If the licensee fails to comply with the terms and conditions of said notices, within the time specified or such extended period or a period of time, the complaining officer may require the county attorney of the county in which such violation occurred to start a civil action to remove or abate such nuisance, unsanitary, unhealthful, or objectionable condition as complained of in the court of proper authority and jurisdiction of the city or county in the name of the state of Iowa, and if found guilty a decision may be entered by the court to revoke or suspend such license. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.17]

135D.18 Penalty. Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.18]

135D.19 Construction of statute. The licenses and fees provided for in this chapter shall be in addition to any licenses and fees provided for in chapter 321. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.19]

135D.20 Powers delegated to local boards. The state department of health shall have the power to delegate to local boards of health the duties of inspection and regulation of mobile home parks located within the jurisdiction of such local board of health, where, in the opinion of the state department of health, such delegation can best effectuate the policies of this chapter. When said duties are so delegated, fifty percent of the annual license fee collected therefrom shall be turned over to the treasurer of the jurisdiction involved, and there is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state an amount sufficient to pay the proportionate fees allowable to the jurisdiction involved, as provided in this section. [C54, 58, 62, §135D.20]

135D.21 Repealed by 60GA, ch 118.

135D.22 Semiannual tax. The owner of each mobile home shall pay to the county treasurer a semiannual tax as herein provided. However, when the owner is any educational institution and the mobile home is used solely for student housing or when the owner is the state of Iowa or a subdivision thereof, the owner shall be exempt from the tax provided herein. The semiannual tax shall be computed as follows:

1. Multiply the number of square feet of floor space each mobile home contains when parked and in use by seven and one-half cents. In computing floor space the exterior measurements of the mobile home shall be used as shown on the certificate of registration and title, but not including any area occupied by any hitching device.

2. The amount thus computed shall be the semiannual tax for all mobile homes for the first five years after the year of manufacture.

3. For the sixth through ninth years after the year of manufacture the semiannual tax shall be ninety percent of the tax computed according to subsection 1 of this section.

4. For all mobile homes ten or more years after the year of manufacture the semiannual tax shall be eighty percent of the tax computed according to subsection 1 of this section.

5. The semiannual tax shall be figured to the nearest whole dollar. [60GA, ch 118, §1]

135D.23 Exemptions prorating tax. There shall be exempted from the semiannual tax the manufacturer's and dealer's inventory of mobile homes not in use as a place of human habitation. All travel trailers shall be exempt from this tax. Mobile homes and travel trailers in the inventory of manufacturers and dealers shall be exempt from personal property tax. Mobile homes coming into Iowa from out of state shall be liable for the tax computed pro rata to the nearest whole month, for the time such mobile home is actually situated in Iowa. [60GA, ch 118, §2]

135D.24 Collection of tax. The semiannual tax provided herein shall be due and payable to the county treasurer semiannually on or before January 1 and July 1 in each year; and shall be delinquent February 1 and August 1 in each year, after which a penalty of five percent shall be added each month until paid. The semiannual payment of taxes and license may be paid at one time if so desired. A mobile home parked and put to use at any time after January 1 or July 1 shall be immediately subject to the said taxes prorated for the remaining months or days of the tax period. Said tax shall be due and payable immediately, and delinquent thirty days after said parking and subject to the same penalties herein set out.

Each mobile home park licensee is hereby required to keep an accurate and complete record of the number of units of mobile homes harbored in his park, listing the owner's name, year and make of the unit and whether there is a current registration plate, and to report such information on or before the tenth day of January and July with supplemental monthly reports listing arrivals, departures, and unlicensed mobile homes to the county treasurer. The records of such licensee shall be open to inspection by a duly authorized representative of any law-enforcement agency. Any property owner, manager or tenant shall report to the assessor any and all mobile homes parked upon any property owned, managed, or rented by him.

The county treasurer shall report the name of any owner of a mobile home and the year, make, and serial number of each unit on which there is no current registration plate to the Iowa department of public safety. [C31, 35, §2437-c4; C39, §2437.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §145.4]

145.5 Examination and hearing. It shall be the duty of said board at the time and place named in the notice to the person reported upon, with such reasonable continuances from time to time and from place to place as the board may determine, to proceed to hear and consider the evidence offered and to examine into the innate traits, the mental and physical conditions, the personal records and family traits and history of the person reported upon and notified as in this chapter provided, insofar as the same can be ascertained. If the person reported upon is an inmate of any institution, the said board shall see to it that the inmate shall have opportunity and leave to attend the said examination and hearing in person, if desired by him or if requested by his guardian or person served with the notice as aforesaid. [C31, 35,§2437-c5; C39,§2437.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§145.5]

If in the judgment of a majority of said board procreation by such persons would produce a child or children having an inherited tendency to mental retardedness, syphilis, mental illness, epilepsy, criminality, or degeneracy, or who would probably become a social menace or ward of the state, and there is no probability that the condition of such person so investigated and examined will improve to such an extent as to avoid such consequences, then it shall be the duty of such board to make an order embodying its conclusions with reference to such person in said respects and specifying such a type of sterilization as may be deemed by said board best suited to the condition of said person and most likely to produce the beneficial results in the respects specified in this section, but nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to authorize castration nor removal of sound organs from the body. [SS15,§§2600-s2,-s3; C24, 27,§§3361, 3362; C31, 35,§2437-c9; C39,§2437.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§145.9]

[C31, 35,§2437-c12; C39,§2437.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§145.12]

145.13 Consent to operation. If any person whose condition has been examined and reported upon by said board, as hereinbefore provided, shall consent in writing to have the operation specified in the order of said board performed, such operation shall thereupon be performed upon said person by or under the direction of the superintendent of the institution in which he is confined, if such person be an inmate of any of the state institutions herein mentioned, or if he is not an inmate of any of said institutions, such operation shall be performed by or under the direction of the state board of eugenics. All such operations shall be performed with due regard for the physical condition of the person upon whom it is performed and in a safe and humane manner. [SS15,§2600-s2; C24, 27,§3361; C31, 35,

In case the person to be operated upon is mentally ill or retarded, the consent hereinbefore mentioned in section 145.13 shall be construed to mean the written consent of such person's legal guardian, or if such person has no legal guardian, then the written consent of such person's nearest known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, or if such person is mentally ill or retarded, and has neither legal guardian nor known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, then the written consent of the guardian appointed by the court for such person as provided in this chapter. 145.15 Absence of consent. If any such person shall not consent, within twenty days from the service of such order upon him, to the performance of such operation, said board of eugenics, through its secretary, or other officer having charge of its records and files, within fifteen days thereafter, or such further time as the court or judge thereof may allow, shall file a transcript of its proceedings and of its said findings, conclusions, and order with reference to said person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such person resides or may be found. The issue thereby raised shall be whether the findings and conclusions of said board shall be affirmed by the court, and shall be tried in the district court of such county, as a special proceeding, in the same manner as a civil action at law in which the state shall be the plaintiff and the person so summoned shall be the defendant. Each party shall have the same rights as to production of evidence and the case shall be tried in the same manner as any other civil action. In all such cases the county attorney of the county where such proceedings are tried shall appear and prosecute such action on behalf of the state. If the defendant has no attorney and he is unable to secure one, the court shall appoint an attorney from the membership of the bar of said county to conduct his defense, and appeal, if any be taken as hereinafter provided, and such attorney shall be compensated by the state, upon order of the court. If the defendant be represented by an attorney appointed by the court, and, in the opinion of the court, is financially unable to meet his part of the expense of an appeal, the defendant's actual and necessary expense of such appeal and prosecution thereof to final decree by the supreme court shall be paid by the state upon order of said district court, same to be paid out of the general funds of the state not otherwise appropriated. [C31, 35,§2437-c19; C39, §2437.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§145.19]

The state shall be liable under this chapter, except as hereinabove provided for, only for the actual traveling expenses of the members of the board incurred in the performance of their duties, and the actual and necessary expense incident to the investigations of said board either on original case or an appeal therefrom. eugenics competent to perform such operation; nor to interfere with the practice of any person whose religion treats or administers to the sick or suffering by purely spiritual means; provided that such practice, treatment or administration shall not in any way interfere with the operation of this chapter, and the carrying out of its purposes. Such license shall be valid for one year and may be annually renewed at the discretion of the medical examiners for a period not to exceed six additional years. The fee for this license shall be fifteen dollars, and if extended beyond one year, an annual renewal fee of three dollars per year shall be required. The medical examiners shall determine in each instance those eligible for this license, whether or not examinations shall be given, and the type of examinations. No requirements of the law pertaining to regular permanent licensure shall be mandatory for this resident licensure except as specifically designated by the medical examiners. The granting of a resident physician's license does not in any way indicate that the person so licensed is necessarily eligible for regular licensure, nor are the medical examiners in any way obligated to so license such individual. The medical examiners shall revoke said license at any time they shall determine either that the caliber of work done by a licensee or the type of supervision being given such licensee does not conform to reasonable standards established by the medical examiners. [C54, 58, 62, §148.5]

A written notice of the time and place of the hearing together with a statement of the charges shall be served upon the licensee at least ten days before said hearing in the manner required for the service of notice of the commencement of an ordinary action.

If the licensee has absented or removed himself from the state, the notice and statement of the charges shall be so served at least twenty days before the date of the hearing, wherever he may be found. If the whereabouts of the licensee is unknown, service may be had by publication as provided in the rules of civil procedure upon filing the affidavit required by said rules. In case the licensee fails to appear, either in person or by counsel at the time and place designated in said notice, the medical examiners shall proceed with the hearing as hereinafter provided.

Service of notice, R.C.P. 56 et seq.

3. The hearing shall be before a member or members designated by the board. The board shall designate one member to serve as presiding member. Such presiding member is hereby empowered to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and take or cause depositions to be taken in connection with the hearing. He shall issue subpoenas at the request and on behalf of the licensee.

4. A stenographic record of the proceedings shall be kept. The licensee shall have the opportunity to appear personally and by his attorney, with the right to produce evidence in his own behalf, to examine and cross-examine witnesses and to examine documentary evidence produced against him.

5. In case any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the presiding member or to answer any proper question put to him during the hearing, the presiding member may invoke the aid of any court of competent jurisdiction or judge thereof in requiring the attendance and testimony of such person and the production of papers. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

6. Unless the hearing is before the entire board, a transcript of the proceeding, together with exhibits presented, shall be considered by the entire board at the earliest practicable time. The licensee and his attorney shall have the opportunity to appear personally to present the licensee's position and arguments to the board. The board shall determine the charge or charges upon the merits on the basis of the evidence in the record before it.

7. If a majority of the members of the board vote in favor of finding the licensee guilty of any act or offense specified in section 147.55 or 147.56, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and its decision based thereon. Such findings of fact and decision shall be filed with the commissioner of public health who shall within ten days from such filing enter an order revoking, suspending or placing on probation the license as directed by the board in its decision. A copy of the commissioner's order shall immediately be sent by registered mail to the licensee's last known post-office address accompanied by a copy of the board's findings of fact and decision.

8. The licensee shall have the right to a judicial review of the board's decision and the order of the commissioner. Such review shall be initiated by application to the district court in and for Polk county, or to the district court of the county in which the licensee resides, by any method permissible under the laws of this state. Such application must be made within thirty days after the date of the commissioner's order. On any such review, the hearing shall be tried as a suit in equity and shall be de novo. Referred to in §150.1, subsection 2

148.9 Reinstatement. Any person whose license has been suspended, revoked or placed on probation may apply to the board of medical examiners for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof and issue a certificate of reinstatement to the commissioner of public health who shall thereupon issue a license as directed by the board. [C58, 62, §148.9]

Referred to in §150.1, subsection 2

148.10 Temporary certificate. The medical examiners may, in their discretion, issue a temporary certificate authorizing the licensee to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery whenever, in the opinion of the medical examiners, a need exists therefor and the person possesses the qualifications prescribed by the medical examiners for such license, which shall be substantially equivalent to those required for licensure under chapter 148 or chapter 150A, as the case may be. The medical examiners shall determine in each instance those eligible for this license, whether or not examinations shall be given, and the type of examinations. No requirements of the law pertaining to regular permanent licensure shall be mandatory for this temporary license except as specifically designated by the medical examiners. The granting of a temporary license does not in any way indicate that the person so licensed is necessarily eligible for regular licensure, nor are the medical examiners in any way obligated to so license such person.

The fee for such license shall be twenty-five dollars. The license shall be valid for a period not to exceed one year from the date of issuance thereof and shall not be renewable. The medical examiners may cancel a temporary certificate at any time, without a hearing, for reasons deemed sufficient to the medical examiners.

When the medical examiners cancel a temporary certificate they shall promptly notify the licensee by registered United States mail, at his last named address, as reflected by the files of the medical examiners, and the temporary certificate shall become terminated and of no further force and effect three days after the giving of said notice to the licensee. Before any person shall process any public or commercial garbage for swine, application for a license shall be made to the department setting forth the name and address of the applicant's proposed place of business, and the method used to process such garbage as outlined in section 163.27.

On receipt of such application, the secretary or his authorized agent shall at once inspect the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct such business. If the inspector finds that said building complies with the requirements of this chapter, and with the rules of the department, and that the applicant is a responsible and suitable person, he shall so certify in writing to the department.

On receipt of such certificate, the department shall issue a license to said applicant to conduct such business at the place specified until the first day of September following date of issue.

The license fee for each processing plant shall be fifty dollars, except that the first license fee may be prorated on a monthly basis as prescribed by the department. [C54, 58, 62, §163.28]

163.29 Penalty. Any person, firm, partnership, or corporation violating the provisions of this division shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars and not to exceed five hundred dollars. Each day the provisions of section 163.27, or any rule or regulation made pursuant thereto, is violated shall be a separate offense. [C54, 58, 62, §163.29]

163.30 Swine imported into state.

1. As used in this section, "pig dealer" means any person who engages in the business of buying for resale, selling or exchanging feeder swine as a principal or agent, or who holds himself out as so engaged, but does not include employees of a licensed pig dealer doing business in the name of such dealer, or the owner or operator of a farm who exchanges only swine which have been kept by him solely for feeding or breeding purposes and does not hold himself out as so engaged, or livestock auction markets.

2. To qualify as a pig dealer any person must secure a license from the department of agriculture. The fee for such license shall be five dollars per annum and all licenses shall expire on the first day of July following date of issue. Licenses shall be numbered and the dealer shall retain his number from year to year. To secure a license the applicant must file with the department of agriculture a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa with sureties approved by the secretary of agriculture for the use and benefit of anyone damaged by a violation of this section, except that the bond shall not be required for dealers who are bonded by the federal rules and regulations adopted under the federal Packers and Stockyards Act. Failure to adhere to this law shall be cause for revocation of license by the secretary of agriculture.

3. After May 3, 1961 all swine, other than registered swine for exhibition or breeding purposes, or swine for manufacture of biological products, or swine for immediate slaughter, imported into this state shall have affixed in either ear of each animal an ear tag, each ear tag having a number thereon and the name of the state of origin from which the swine are imported into this state. Provided, however, that in the case of swine officially vaccinated under supervision of salaried veterinarians from the United States Department of Agriculture and identified by an ear tag indicating the place of such official vaccination, such place shall be recognized as the origin of such animals. Such officially vaccinated swine shall be accompanied by a health certificate.

All swine imported from a terminal market shall be considered as having originated at that market.

All swine imported for breeding or feeding purposes must be accompanied by a health certificate issued by a qualified veterinarian and a copy of said certificate shall be promptly forwarded to the division of animal industry of the department of agriculture. Such health certificate shall show that the swine have been inspected within forty-eight hours prior to the time of importation, and that they are apparently free of symptoms of infections, contagious or communicable diseases and shall include a record of official vaccination, when applicable. Swine shall not be imported when treated with anti-hog-cholera serum or antibody concentrate alone.

4. All feeding and breeding swine having been officially vaccinated not less than twenty-one days nor more than one year with modified live virus vaccine, or not less than twenty-one days nor more than six months with killed virus vaccine prior to importation, moved to a livestock market for the purpose of resale, may be exchanged freely provided that such swine are inspected for contagious and infectious diseases by a qualified veterinarian prior to release from such market.

Results of such inspection and proof of official vaccination shall be reported on a certificate supplied by the department and such certificate forwarded immediately to the division of animal industry of the department of agriculture.

5. Swine may be imported into Iowa that have been officially vaccinated less than twenty-four hours by a licensed veterinarian with anti-hog-cholera serum or antibody concentrate and modified live virus vaccine, but must be quarantined twenty-one days at the point of destination, but in no case shall such swine be in transit from point of origin to point of destination more than forty-eight hours after vaccination.

6. Swine may be imported into this state subject to official vaccination upon arrival and held under quarantine twenty-one days from date of vaccination.

7. Unvaccinated swine imported to a state-federal approved market may be held up to seventy-two hours after importation, during which time such swine must be officially vaccinated and delivered immediately to the purchaser's premises. All swine held longer than the seventy-two hours period will be subject to twenty-one days quarantine on the market premises.

Proof of official vaccination and quarantine shall be forwarded immediately to the division of animal industry of the department of agriculture.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the intrastate movement of native Iowa swine. [C62,§163.30; 61GA, ch 172,§1]

[C62,§163A.6; 61GA, ch 173,§4]

3. "Quarantine" means the entire herd must be confined to the premise if any reactor is disclosed.
4. "Official test" for brucellosis includes all tests under the supervision of, or the authorization from, the department.
5. "Owner" includes any person, persons, firm copartnership, association or corporation owning or leasing livestock from another owner.
6. "Registered purebred" shall include cattle with a certificate from herdbooks where registered.

The officially vaccinated animal shall be identified by a vaccination tattoo mark, and ear tag or owners purebred identification. Such tattoo mark, ear tag or owners purebred identification shall be described in a certificate furnished by the attending veterinarian.

Within thirty days following such vaccination, the attending veterinarian shall supply the owner with a certificate of vaccination. The veterinarian shall retain a copy of same and forward a copy to the local office of the U.S. department of agriculture or a copy to the Iowa department of agriculture. The veterinarian certificate covering the official vaccination shall entitle the vaccinated animal to be consigned to sales and exhibited at shows within the state at any time until said animal is thirty months of age.

8. "Modified certified brucellosis area" means an area of less than one percent brucellosis infection, as determined by official test, in all breeding cattle over eight months of age, and official vaccinates over thirty months of age, and all infected cattle are restricted to not more than five percent of the herds in the area. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§164.1; 60GA, ch 131,§1] permit his cattle to be tested when so ordered by the department or a representative of the department. The owner shall confine and restrain his cattle in a suitable place so that a test can be applied. If he refuses to confine and restrain his cattle, after reasonable time the department may employ sufficient help to properly confine and restrain them and the expense of such help shall be paid by the owner. [60GA, ch 131,§2]

164.3 Dairy or breeding cattle vaccinated. All female cattle born after July 1, 1963, sold or otherwise disposed of, or moved to commingle with cattle of another owner for dairy or breeding purposes, after reaching the age of nine months must have been officially vaccinated for brucellosis according to the method approved by the United States department of agriculture. In a hardship case the department may issue a permit for the movement of female cattle not having met brucellosis vaccination requirements, subject to brucellosis test conducted at the owner's expense. At no time will indemnity be paid for animals condemned to slaughter when tested under hardship permit. This section does not apply to animals sold for movement direct to slaughter.

The expense of such compulsory vaccination shall be borne in the same manner as set forth in section 164.5.* [C54,§164.11; C58, 62, §164.28; 60GA, ch 131,§3; 61GA, ch 174,§1]

Whenever the owner of cattle shall request the department to make an inspection of his cattle for brucellosis, the department may designate a veterinarian to make an inspection and, if authorized by the department, conduct a plate or tube agglutination test by the method or methods adopted and approved by the department. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§164.3; 60GA, ch 131,§5]

If the owner shall agree to comply with and carry out the rules and regulations made by the department under section 164.4, the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the United States department of agriculture, or by the department, or county brucellosis eradication fund or any combination thereof. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §164.4; 60GA, ch 131,§6]

164.7 Certificate issued. Whenever an official test of any cattle is made by an accredited veterinarian authorized by the department, and such cattle are found to be free from brucellosis, a certificate, setting forth this fact, shall be issued by said veterinarian or the department, providing all rules and regulations under the plan adopted by the department for the control and eradication of brucellosis in cattle have been complied with. Official vaccinates shall not be considered reactors unless reacting in dilutions of one to two hundred or more. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§§164.5, 164.6; 60GA, ch 131,§7]

164.8 Test at auction premises. Cattle purchased at an auction market regardless of breed or classification may be tested for brucellosis on the auction market premises, in the new owner's name at owner's request. Public announcement shall be made prior to sale, stating health status of the herd, group or animal, and all quarantine restrictions shall be announced prior to sale. In hardship cases the department may upon investigation of the case alter any quarantine orders deemed necessary to alleviate the hardship and protect the industry and prospective purchasers. 164.20 Appraisal of value. Before being slaughtered, condemned cattle shall be appraised at their cash value for dairy and breeding purposes by the owner and a representative of the state department of agriculture, or a representative of the United States department of agriculture, or by the owner and both of such representatives. If these parties cannot agree as to the amount of the appraisal, there shall be appointed three competent and disinterested persons, one by the state department of agriculture, one by the owner, and one by the first two appointed, to appraise such animals, which appraisal shall be final. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §164.18; 60GA, ch 131, §20]

this chapter for not more than one-third of the difference between the appraised value of such animal and the net salvage value thereof, but in no case more than twelve dollars and fifty cents for a grade animal or not more than twenty-five dollars for a registered purebred animal, but in no case shall the department pay indemnity on cattle not receiving a like amount from the United States department of agriculture.

165.2 State as accredited area. The state of Iowa is hereby declared to be and is hereby established as an accredited area for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis from the dairy and breeding cattle of the state. It shall be the duty of the department of agriculture to eradicate bovine tuberculosis in all of the counties of the state in the manner provided by law as it appears in this chapter. Said department shall proceed with the examination, including the tuberculin test, of all such cattle as rapidly as practicable and as is consistent with efficient work, and as funds are available for paying the indemnities as provided by law.

It shall be the duty of each and every owner of dairy or breeding cattle in the state to conform to and abide by the rules laid down by the state and federal departments of agriculture and follow their instructions designed to suppress the disease, prevent its spread, and avoid reinfection of the herd. If these parties cannot agree as to the amount of the appraisal, there shall be appointed three competent and disinterested persons, one by the state department of agriculture, one by the owner, and the third by the first two appointed, to appraise such animals, which appraisal shall be final. Every appraisal shall be under oath or affirmation and the expense of the same shall be paid by the state, except as provided in this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§2668; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§165.3]

it may prescribe, for the separation and quarantine of such diseased animals. Subject to such conditions, the diseased animals may continue to be used for breeding purposes. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§2669; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§165.4]

The department shall establish rules for determining when a herd of cattle, tested and maintained under the provisions of this chapter, the laws of the United States, and the rules of the state and federal departments of agriculture, shall be considered as tuberculosis-free. When any herd meets such requirements the owner shall be entitled to a certificate from the department showing that the herd is a tuberculosis-free accredited herd. Such certificate shall be revoked whenever the herd no longer meets the necessary requirements for an accredited herd, but the herd may be reinstated as an accredited herd upon subsequent compliance with such requirements.
