188.3 Trespass on lawfully fenced land. Any animal trespassing upon land, fenced as provided by law, may be distrained by the owner of such land, and held for all damages done thereon by it, unless it escaped from adjoining land in consequence of the neglect of such landowner to maintain his part of a lawful partition fence. [C51,§§913, 914; R60,§§1548, 1549; C73,§§1448, 1449; C97,§2313; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§2981; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§188.3]

188.4 Neglect to maintain partition fence. The owner of the land from which such animal escaped shall also be liable for such damages if it escaped therefrom in consequence of his neglect to maintain his part of a lawful partition fence, or if the trespassing animal was not lawfully upon his land, and he had knowledge thereof. 192.10 Purity. No wholesaler or retailer of milk or cream, except the producer, shall offer or expose for sale any milk or cream unless the same is produced from cows known to be free from tuberculosis, as evidenced by a certificate issued within one year by a licensed veterinarian, and unless the same shall have been pasteurized according to the established regulations of the department of agriculture.

No milk dealer, as defined in this chapter, shall sell or offer for sale at retail, in any city or town any milk or cream unless same has been fully pasteurized as defined in this chapter, except that Grade "A" raw milk need not be pasteurized.

1. Raw milk. Grade "A" raw milk, to be bottled or sold as such is milk coming from healthy cows; which cows have been subjected to an annual test for both tuberculosis and brucellosis by an accredited veterinarian and found negative; that has been kept at the proper temperature and has been handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption; the bacteria count of which does not exceed fifty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days and produced under the following conditions:

a. Milking barn or milking parlor shall be of a type that can be readily cleaned and be kept clean.

b. Cows' flanks and udders shall be clipped. Udders and teats shall be washed and disinfected before milking is begun.

c. A milk house, or milk room, shall be used and it shall be equipped to care for all milking equipment, the straining and cooling of all milk.

d. All milking equipment and containers shall be effectively cleaned, treated with a bactericidal solution and be stored where protected from contamination.

e. Bottling and capping shall be done only by mechanical equipment. Bottle lips shall be covered.

f. All milk must be effectively cooled.

g. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

Milk that is to be used for pasteurized grade "A" shall meet the production requirements as set forth for grade "A" raw milk excepting the bacteria plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, does not exceed two hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than five and one-half hours, or the resazurin reduction time of which to P seven-fourths is not less than two and three-fourths hours.

Provided, further that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourths hours or a resazurin reduction time to P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours.

Excepting further that cows furnishing milk which subsequently will be pasteurized for grade "A" pasteurized milk shall be exempted from the annual test for brucellosis but shall by January 1, 1955 be from herds certified by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa department of agriculture as following one of the three following plans of control:

Plan A. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. Slaughter all reactors, with indemnity payments as provided by state and federal regulations. Official calfhood vaccination to be optional with the herd owner.

Plan B. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. All reactors are to be identified and quarantined on farm provided that the owner may at his option retain such cattle for breeding purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department. If a calfhood official vaccinate reacts, the animal may be quarantined on the farm and retested within sixty days at the owner's expense. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months.

Plan C. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months. The herd must be composed entirely of official vaccinates.

Nothing contained herein relating to said plans of control shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation, providing for control of brucellosis by procedures other than the foregoing three plans of control so long as said ordinance or regulation shall embody plans and procedures approved by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa department of agriculture.

2. Pasteurized milk—grade "A". Grade "A" pasteurized milk is grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization which has been pasteurized, cooled, and placed in the final container in a milk plant approved by the secretary of agriculture which in all cases shows efficient pasteurization as evidenced by satisfactory phosphatase tests, and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds thirty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count or a coliform count exceeding ten per milliliter, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

Provided, that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourth hours or a resazurin reduction time of P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours and processed in plants complying with the following:

a. Processing room must be separated from rooms used for other purposes.

b. The plant must be kept in a sanitary condition.

c. All equipment must be of a recognized standard type; have adequate drip protection.

d. All milk must be carried between equipment in sanitary lines. Drip and overflow milk must be discarded.

e. All equipment must be disassembled daily and thoroughly cleaned and after reassembling must be subjected to bactericidal treatment before use by approved methods, unless other methods are approved by the department.

f. Toilets must be conveniently located and meet sanitary standards.

g. Hand-washing facilities of approved type, having hot water, soap and individual towels must be provided convenient to the processing room.

h. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

3. Pasteurized milk—grade not declared. Milk coming from healthy cows, that has been kept at the proper temperature and handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption. The bacteria standard plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, must not exceed five hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than three and one-half hours or a resazurin reduction time to seven-fourths of less than two hours; which shows efficient pasteurization; and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds seventy-five thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

The secretary of agriculture shall make needed regulations to promulgate production, processing and distribution standards for grade "A" pasteurized, pasteurized (grade not declared) and grade "A" raw milk which shall conform to United States Public Health Service Recommended Milk Ordinance and Code, 1953 Edition. Nothing contained in this chapter shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation providing inspections or imposing requirements higher than the minimum requirements provided in this chapter, provided, however, that no such municipal ordinance or regulation shall impose standards in conflict with those imposed by said United States Public Health Service Recommended Milk Ordinance and Code, 1953 Edition.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean compulsory grading of milk; such grades shall apply only to pasteurized and raw milk on which the grade is declared on the label. The state department of health shall annually survey and certify all milk labeled grade "A" pasteurized, and grade "A" raw, and, in the event a survey shows that the requirements for the production, processing and distribution of such grades are not being complied with, the fact thereof shall be certified by the state department of health to the secretary of agriculture, who shall withdraw the grade declared on the label. 192A.2 Division of dairy trade practices.

The secretary of agriculture is hereby entrusted with the administration and enforcement of this chapter. There is hereby created in the department of agriculture a division to be known as the "Division of Dairy Trade Practices". The head of the division shall be the "Chief of the Division of Dairy Trade Practices". All powers of the secretary under this chapter may be exercised by and through the chief of the division of dairy trade practices. The secretary shall employ such professional and other personnel as, in his judgment, shall be necessary to the proper performance of his duties hereunder. [61GA, ch 192,§2]

192A.3 Unlawful discrimination. It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in business within the state of Iowa, either directly or indirectly, to discriminate in price between different purchasers of dairy products of like grade and quality where the effect of such discrimination may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either the grantor or receiver. Nothing herein shall prevent:

1. Differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which dairy products are sold or delivered to purchasers or differentials otherwise permitted in this chapter.

2. Persons engaged in selling dairy products from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions are not in restraint of trade.

3. Price changes from time to time in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of dairy products such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in dairy products.

4. Price differentials made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§3]

192A.4 Unlawful price differentials. It shall be unlawful for any person to discriminate in price by selling or offering to sell any dairy product to any purchaser in the state of Iowa at prices lower than those exacted by such persons elsewhere in the state for the purpose or with the effect of injuring competition or tending to create a monopoly; provided however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent price differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of sale or transportation resulting from differing methods or quantities in which such dairy products are sold or transported to such purchasers; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent sales made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§4]

192A.5 Minimum price agreements unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any processor, distributor, or retailer to engage in the following practice:

To enter into any agreement or contract with any other person for the establishment or maintenance of minimum prices of dairy products in restraint of trade and for the purpose of eliminating free and open competition in the sale of dairy products. [61GA, ch 192,§5]

192A.6 Discounts or rebates. No processor or distributor shall give or extend discounts or rebates, directly or indirectly, to retailers or other processors or distributors on dairy products or give or extend to such purchasers any services connected with the delivery, handling, or stocking of such products except as provided in this chapter. A processor or distributor may provide services to a particular processor, distributor, or retailer or may sell dairy products at a price necessary to meet a bona fide offer by a competitor. The service or discount shall not be given until the processor or distributor first files with the department a written record of the date and terms of the competitive offer, the name of the processor, distributor, or retailer to whom the offer was made, and the name of the competitor who made the offer. Any such record filed with the department shall be used only for determining or verifying proof of violations of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§6]

192A.7 Price list to be filed. All distributors offering dairy products for sale within the state shall file with the department on a form provided by said department a complete price list showing the invoice price of such distributor of all items of dairy products sold or offered for sale by them. Distributors who offer dairy products for sale both at their respective places of business and deliver to retailer or retail outlets, shall include on such price lists filed with the department the different prices established for dairy products offered for sale at their respective places of business and for dairy products delivered to the retailer or retail outlet. Distributors who offer dairy products for sale to consumers on home delivery routes shall include on such price lists filed with the department, the different prices established for dairy products offered for sale to such consumers. Within thirty days after July 4, 1965, every distributor shall file with the department its initial price schedules and schedules of discounts and rebates and thereafter, every distributor shall charge its prices in accordance with its schedule on file with the department until such price schedule is changed as hereinafter provided. Before any distributor may make any change in its price schedule and prices charged, it shall give notice by certified mail to the department setting forth its new schedule of prices or new schedule of discounts and rebates prior to the effective date of any change in such schedule on file with the department (except that where prices are changed in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, notice to the department of the new schedule of prices shall be given within two business days after such change). The initial filing of schedules or any new schedules shall be filed with the department either in person or by certified mail. Price lists filed with the department shall be used only for determining and proving violations of this chapter. Failure or refusal to file current price lists with the department shall be a violation of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§7]

192A.8 Gift of signs to retailer prohibited. No processor or distributor shall furnish, give, lend, sell, or rent any advertising signs of a permanent nature except signs advertising the processor's or distributor's own products. 192A.9 Payments for rent prohibited. No processor or distributor shall make payments of money, credit, gifts, or loans to retailers as rental for the storage or display of dairy products on the premises where offered for sale by the retailer. [61GA, ch 192,§9]

192A.10 Loans to retailers prohibited—exception. No processor or distributor shall make or underwrite loans to a retailer or become bound in any manner for the financial obligation of any retailer except that a processor or distributor may lend money to a retailer for the purchase of equipment for the storage, transportation, and display of dairy products. Such loans may be made to the retailer provided the loan is for not more than ninety percent of the purchase price with at least six percent annual interest on the principal amount and on the unconditional written promise of the retailer that the loan shall be paid within a period not to exceed thirty-six months. [61GA, ch 192,§10]

192A.11 Equipment restrictions. No processor or distributor shall furnish, sell, give, lend, or rent any equipment to a retailer except:

1. Processors and distributors, under a bill of sale or conditional sales contract describing the property sold and specifying the price and terms of sale, may sell equipment for the storage, transportation, and display of dairy products to the retailer. The selling price of such equipment shall be not less than the cost to the wholesaler less ten percent per year depreciation plus transportation and installation costs plus at least six percent, but in no event shall the price be less than ten dollars per unit. If the processor or distributor makes the sale under a security agreement or conditional sales contract, the terms of sale shall be no more favorable to the retailer than those provided in this section.

2. Processors and distributors may provide without restriction coin-vending machines from which the product vended is intended by such processor or distributor to be consumed on the premises.

3. Processors and distributors may furnish equipment for the storage, transportation, or display of dairy products for one period of not longer than ten consecutive days a year to any one retailer for use at a fair, exhibition, exposition, or other promotional event for agricultural, industrial, charitable, educational, religious, or recreational purposes. [61GA, ch 192,§11]

192A.12 Repair of other equipment limited. No processor or distributor shall maintain or make repairs of any equipment owned by a retailer except equipment used exclusively for dairy products. On such maintenance or repairs, the processor or distributor shall make charges for the service and parts at the same prices as are charged by third persons rendering such service in the community where the retailer is located. In no event shall the charges be less than the cost to the processor or distributor plus a reasonable margin of profit. [61GA, ch 192,§12]

Referred to in §192A.29

192A.13 Gifts to retailers prohibited. No processor or distributor shall give, offer to give, furnish, finance, or otherwise make available any free goods to any person, directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale of dairy products or to any other person doing business with such person, or give, offer to give, furnish, finance, or otherwise make available any payments, gifts, or grants of anything of value to any retailer. Nothing in this section shall prevent transactions with retailers of any of the following:

1. The furnishing of point of sale advertising material made of paper, cardboard, or other material not of a permanent nature for the use in the promotion of the products of such processor or distributor which remain inside retailer locations.

2. The furnishing of hostesses or demonstrators at any retailer's location to promote the products of the processor or distributor.

3. The advertising by a processor or distributor of products through any advertising media the processor or distributor selects which does not involve allowances, payments, or the furnishing of other property to persons purchasing such products in a manner prohibited by this section.

4. Advertising allowances which do no more than reimburse a retailer for costs in advertising dairy products of the processor or distributor. [61GA, ch 192,§13]

192A.14 Processors or distributors may have own outlets. No processor or distributor shall be prohibited from operating a retail outlet for retail sales or prohibited from using in the retail outlet any equipment or advertising or miscellaneous matter owned by the processor or distributor provided the retail outlet is under direct control and management of the processor or distributor. [61GA, ch 192, §14]

192A.15 Gifts of products on premises. No processor or distributor shall be prohibited from giving away dairy products to be consumed on the sale premises. [61GA, ch 192,§15]

[61GA, ch 192,§16]

192A.17 Brokers acts limited. It shall be unlawful for a broker or any officer or agent of any brokerage firm to participate, directly or indirectly, in any practice prohibited by this chapter. It shall be unlawful for any processor, distributor, or retailer to engage or offer to engage, directly or indirectly, through a broker in any practice prohibited by this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§17]

192A.18 Grievances reported to department. Any person claiming to be injured by another person through the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter may file in writing a statement of such violation with the department. Upon receipt of the written statement, the department shall immediately cause an investigation to be made of the alleged violation. Whenever it shall appear that any person is violating or threatening to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or the regulations or orders of the secretary, then the department may call upon the county attorney of any county in which such violation occurred to bring suit against such person in the district court to restrain such person from continuing or from carrying out the acts or practices alleged. In such suit he may obtain such injunction prohibitory and mandatory including temporary restraining orders and temporary injunctions as the facts may warrant without being required to prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist and without being required to give bond. [61GA, ch 192,§18]

192A.19 Reports and answers to department. Whenever the department has reason to believe that any distributor or retailer or processor may be in possession of information relevant to an investigation by it of suspected violations of the provisions of this chapter, the secretary may require such person to file with him in such form as he may prescribe special reports or answers in writing to specific questions furnishing such information. Such reports and answers shall be made under oath or otherwise as the secretary may prescribe and shall be filed with him within such reasonable period as he may prescribe. Any person who fails without lawful cause to file such reports or answers in writing within the period prescribed or shall willfully make or cause to be made any false statement in any such report or answer in writing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. [61GA, ch 192,§19]

Referred to in §192A.21

192A.20 Order to appear—appeal. Whenever the secretary has reason to believe that any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations adopted thereunder, he may enter an order requiring such person to appear before him and show cause why an order should not be entered requiring such person to cease and desist from the violations charged. Such order shall set forth the alleged violations, fix the time and place of the hearing, and provide for notice thereof which shall be given not less than twenty days before the date of such hearing. After hearing by the secretary, or if the person charged with such violation fails to appear at the time of said hearing, if he finds such person to be in violation he shall enter an order requiring such person to cease and desist from the specific acts, practices, or omissions so found to be in violation and from related acts, practices or omissions. Any such order shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days after its entry if no appeal is taken therefrom.

Any person aggrieved by any order entered by the secretary or other action of the secretary may take an appeal therefrom to the district court as provided elsewhere herein for license denial, suspension or revocation.

Any person violating any order of the secretary under the first paragraph of this section after the same has become final or on the termination of any review proceedings shall be subject to a civil penalty to be levied by the district court in a proceeding instituted for that purpose in an amount of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars provided that in the case of continuing violations the minimum amount of such penalty shall be either five hundred dollars or twenty-five dollars for each day of violation, whichever is the larger. [61GA, ch 192,§20]

192A.21 Oaths and subpoenas. The department is authorized and empowered to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas for persons and pertinent operating records in making investigations provided in section 192A.19. If a person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued under this chapter, the department may apply to the district court to issue an order requiring the person to appear before the department to produce evidence or to give testimony concerning the matter under investigation. The application for the order shall be filed with the district court within the county in which the investigation is conducted or in which the person guilty of failure or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business or has his principal place of business. Any person willfully failing to obey an order of the court is guilty of contempt of court and shall be proceeded against as provided by law. [61GA, ch 192,§21]

192A.22 Intervention — punitive damages. Any person who is injured in business or property by reason of another person's violation of any provisions of this chapter may intervene in the suit for injunction instituted against the other person. The injured party may bring a separate action and recover three times the actual damages sustained as a result of the violation together with the costs of the suit or may sue to enjoin the violation of any provision of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§22]

192A.23 Suspension or revocation of license. Whenever the department has reason to believe that any processor or distributor required to obtain a license under section 192.1 has willfully violated any cease and desist order issued under the provisions of this chapter after the same has become final and continued in such violation after the expiration of a ten-day notice from the department of intention to commence proceedings for the denial, suspension or revocation of such license, and it appears to the department that a proceeding should be had to determine whether his license should be denied, suspended, or revoked, the department shall serve notice on such person in writing by certified mail of the charges and grounds upon which a license is sought to be denied, suspended, or revoked. The notice shall include the time and place, not less than ten days after the mailing of the notice, at which a hearing shall be held to determine whether to deny, suspend, or revoke the license. [61GA, ch 192,§23]

192A.24 Investigation and hearing. Any person whose license is sought to be denied, suspended, or revoked shall have full rights to counsel and to produce witnesses in his behalf at the hearing. After full investigation and hearing, the department may deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any person who is found to have willfully violated any provision of this chapter. When the department finds that a violation warrants the suspension of the license, no license shall be suspended for a period to exceed thirty days upon proof of a first violation or for a period to exceed six months upon proof of a second violation. Upon proof of a third and subsequent violations, the license shall be suspended for a period of one year where the department finds that such violation warrants a suspension. [61GA, ch 192,§24]

192A.25 Procedure. The department shall by certified mail or by personal service notify the person whose license has been denied, suspended, or revoked setting forth the reasons for the decision. The denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notification unless the person whose license has been denied, suspended, or revoked files within the thirty-day period a notice of appeal in the district court and serves a copy of the notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon, the department shall within thirty days certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision including the transcript of the hearings upon which the decision was based. [61GA, ch 192,§25]

Referred to in §192A.26

192A.26 Trial. The trial before the court shall be an equity action and legal evidence pertaining to the issue of whether the license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked may be submitted including new or additional evidence not submitted to the department. The court shall have the power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the department but in no instance shall the court suspend a license for a period exceeding the suspensions provided in section 192A.25. The clerk of court upon entry of judgment of suspension, denial, or revocation shall immediately forward to the department a certified copy thereof. Pending final decision of the appeal the status quo of the license shall be preserved. [61GA, ch 192,§26]

192A.27 Limitation of action. Any action arising under this chapter, whether in law or equity, shall be commenced within two years after the right of action first accrues or is forever barred. [61GA, ch 192,§27]

192A.28 Rules and regulations. The department is authorized and directed to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [61GA, ch 192,§28]

192A.29 Storage cabinets formerly installed. Storage cabinets prohibited under section

192A.12 supplied by processors and distributors to retailers prior to July 4, 1965 shall be removed from the retailer's premises or sold as provided in this chapter prior to June 30, 1966. [61GA, ch 192,§29]

192A.30 Permit fees. For the purpose of administering and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, each processor shall pay to the secretary permit fees in an amount, as from time to time set by the secretary, not to exceed five mills per hundredweight on milk processed into dairy products as defined in section 192A.1, and sold within the state of Iowa, except ice cream and its additive variants and nonmilk fat imitations which amount shall not be in excess of three mills per gallon thereof. Products upon which fees have been paid shall be exempt from further fees in successive transactions. 194.1 Citation of chapter. This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa grading law for milk used for manufacturing purposes." [C62,§194.1]

194.2 Enforcement. The secretary of agriculture shall enforce the provisions hereof, and to this end may adopt such rules and regulations as may appear necessary, but not inconsistent herewith. [C62,§194.2]

194.3 Definitions. For the purpose of this chapter:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture.
2. "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations.
3. "Milk processing plant" means an establishment to which milk of diverse producers is delivered where said products are manufactured into butter, cheese, dry milk or other dairy products for commercial purposes.
4. "Organoleptic examination or grading of milk" means examination by the senses of sight, smell and taste. [C62,§194.3]

194.4 Physical characteristics. All milk received at a creamery, cheese factory, or milk-processing plant shall be examined for physical characteristics, off-flavors and off-odors, including those associated with developed acidity. The condition of the raw milk shall be wholesome and characteristic of normal milk. The flavor and odor of the raw milk shall be fresh and sweet; however, slight feed flavors may be present.

Any raw milk that shows an abnormal condition including, but not limited to, curdled, ropy, clotted and bloody, or that contains extraneous matter or which shows significant bacterial deterioration is unlawful milk and shall be rejected to the producer, seller, or shipper and shall not be used in the processing or manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption. [C62,§194.4]

194.5 Frequency of tests. A test shall be made on the first purchase of milk from a new producer and at least once within each fifteen-day interval thereafter. One lot of milk from each producer shall be selected at random and tested for extraneous matter by an appropriate method. The secretary shall determine and promulgate the standards and methods of testing the milk for extraneous matter. The method and standards shall be no less strict than those recommended by the agricultural marketing service, U. S. department of agriculture. [C62,§194.5]

194.6 Bacterial test. At least once every fifteen days an estimate of bacterial quality shall be made of each producer's milk by the methylene blue test, resazurin test, the direct microscopic count, or any other recognized or approved test for that purpose, such as the standard plate count with standards equivalent to those of the direct microscopic count.

For the purpose of quality improvement and payment the following classification of the milk for bacterial estimate shall be applicable:

Class	Bacterial Estimate Classification	Direct (clump) count	Methylene blue test, mixed sample not decolorized in—	Resazurin test, no color change beyond color represented by—
Class 1	200,000 per Milliliter	5½ hours	P-7/4 in 2¼ hours

[C62,§194.6]

Referred to in §194.8

194.7 Acceptable milk. Milk acceptable from the standpoint of organoleptic examination, containing no excessive extraneous matter and complying with classes 1 and 2 for bacterial estimate shall be acceptable for use in the processing and manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption. [C62,§194.7]

194.8 Unacceptable milk. Milk acceptable from the standpoint of organoleptic examination, as specified in section 194.6, containing no excessive extraneous matter and classified in class 3 or in excess of ten million for bacterial estimate, may be used in the processing and manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption for a period of seven consecutive days.

After a week another quality test must be run on this producer's milk, and if the milk has not improved to class 2 or better, similar tests must be made at least one day per week for three successive weeks. If after the fourth weekly test the milk from the producer has not improved to class 2 or better, no plant shall accept milk from this producer for the manufacture of dairy products for human consumption until the secretary has authorized his reinstatement. Any further acceptance of milk from this producer shall be on the basis of testing the first shipment for extraneous matter and bacterial estimate to determine if the milk is class 2 or better. [C62,§194.8]

194.9 Unlawful milk. 194.11 Price differential. All purchasers and receivers of milk for the manufacture of dairy products for human consumption shall maintain a reasonable price differential between the grades of milk as defined by the bacterial estimate tests. This price differential shall not be less than five percent of the price for grade one milk. [C62,§194.11]

194.12 Milk grader. Every creamery, cheese factory and milk processing plant must employ at least one person who is duly licensed as a grader of milk. [C62,§194.12]

194.19 Vehicles used for transportation and licenses for persons. Every vehicle used for the collection of milk for manufacture of dairy products, and persons purchasing milk for manufacture of dairy products, shall first be licensed by the secretary of agriculture according to chapter 195. This shall not apply to individuals transporting their own dairy products.

By applying for said license, the applicant consents to abide by all laws set forth in this chapter and the rules and regulations which may be promulgated to implement these laws in the case of all milk obtained from Iowa producers for manufacture of dairy products.

The provisions of section 189.26 shall not apply to milk for manufacture of dairy products. [C62,§194.19]

b. Customer-formula feeds if the inspection fee is paid on the registered commercial feeds which they contain.

c. Commercial feeds distributed to manufacturers if the commercial feeds so distributed are used solely in feeds which are to be registered.

3. Fees so collected shall constitute a fund for the payment of only the costs of inspection, sampling, analysis and administrative expenses necessary for the enforcement of this chapter. The secretary shall prepare a detailed annual report by July 31 of each year of the moneys disbursed from this fund during the preceding year, and this report shall be distributed to all registrants immediately after compilation. When it is unanimously agreed by the governor, secretary of agriculture and the comptroller that there are sufficient funds to carry out the mandates of this chapter for at least twelve months, they may direct that any excess funds be returned to the general fund.

4. Every person, except as hereinafter provided, who distributes commercial feed in this state shall:

a. File, not later than the last day of January and July of each year, a semiannual statement setting forth the number of net tons of commercial feeds distributed in this state during the preceding six months of the calendar year, and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in subsection 1 of this section. When more than one person is involved in the distribution of a commercial feed, the person who first distributes the commercial feed in the state is responsible for reporting the tonnage and paying the inspection fee unless he is specifically exempted by subsection 1 of this section. If the tonnage report is not filed and the payment of inspection fees is not made within ten days after the due date, a penalty amounting to ten percent of the amount due shall be assessed against the licensee and the amount of fees due plus penalty shall constitute a debt and become the basis of a judgment against the licensee.

b. Keep such records as may be necessary to indicate accurately the tonnage of commercial feed distributed in this state, and the secretary shall have the right to examine such records to verify statements of tonnage.

Failure to make an accurate statement of tonnage or to pay the inspection fee or comply with the provisions herein shall constitute sufficient cause for the cancellation of all registrations on file for the distributor. [S13, §5077-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3118, 3119, 3120, 3121; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§198.8, 198.9, 198.10, 198.11, 198.12; 60GA, ch 137,§7]

Referred to in §198.4, subsection 3

198.8 Adulteration. No person shall distribute an adulterated feed. A commercial feed or customer-formula feed shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If any poisonous, deleterious or nonnutritive ingredient has been added in sufficient amount to render it injurious to health when fed in accordance with directions for use on the label.

2. If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom or any less valuable substance substituted therefor.

3. If its composition or quality falls below or differs from that which it is purported or is represented to possess by its labeling.

4. If it contains added hulls, screenings, straw, cobs, or other high fiber material unless the name of each such material is stated on the label.

5. If it contains viable weed seeds in amounts exceeding the limits which the secretary shall establish by rule or regulation. [S13, §5077-a13; C24, 27, 31, 35, §§3114-d2, 3126; C39, §3114.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§198.4, 198.13; 60GA, ch 137,§8]

3. If it is not labeled as required in section 198.6 and in regulations prescribed under this chapter.

4. If it purports to be or is represented as a feed ingredient, or if it purports to contain or is represented as containing a feed ingredient, unless such feed ingredient conforms to the definition of identity, if any, prescribed by regulation of the secretary. In the adoption of such regulations the secretary shall give due regard to commonly accepted definitions such as those issued by the association of American feed control officials.

5. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs, or devices in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under ordinary conditions of purchase and use. [60GA, ch 137,§9]

198.10 Sampling and analysis.

1. It shall be the duty of the secretary, who may act through his authorized agent, to sample, inspect, make analyses of, and test commercial feeds and customer-formula feeds distributed within this state at such time and place and to such an extent as he may deem necessary to determine whether such feeds are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The secretary, individually or through his agent, is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises including any vehicle of transport during regular business hours in order to have access to commercial feeds and customer-formula feeds and to records relating to their distribution.

2. The methods of sampling and analysis shall be those adopted by the secretary from sources such as the journal of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

3. The secretary, in determining for administrative purposes whether a commercial feed is deficient in any component, shall be guided solely by the official sample as defined in subsection 13 of section 198.3 and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsection 2 of this section.

4. When the inspection and analysis of an official sample indicates a commercial feed has been adulterated or misbranded, the results of analysis shall be forwarded by the secretary to the distributor and the purchaser. Upon request, and notwithstanding any other requirements of Title X of the Code, within thirty days after the distributor has been notified of the adulteration or misbranding, the secretary shall furnish to the distributor a portion of the sample concerned. [60GA, ch 137,§10]

198.11 Rules of department. The secretary is hereby charged with the enforcement of this chapter, and after due publicity and due public hearing, is empowered to promulgate and adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary in order to secure the efficient administration of this chapter. Publicity concerning the public hearing shall be reasonably calculated to give interested parties adequate notice and adequate opportunity to be heard. [60GA, ch 137,§11]

198.12 Withdrawal order.

1. When the secretary or his authorized agent has reasonable cause to believe any lot of commercial feed is being distributed in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any of the prescribed regulations under this chapter, he may issue and enforce a written or printed "withdrawal from distribution" order warning the distributor not to dispose of the lot of feed in any manner until written permission is given by the secretary or the court. The secretary shall release the lot of commercial feed so withdrawn when said provisions and regulations have been complied with by said distributor. If compliance is not obtained within thirty days, the secretary may begin, or upon request of the distributor shall begin, proceedings for condemnation.

2. Any lot of commercial feed not in compliance with said provisions and regulations shall be subject to seizure on complaint of the secretary to a court of competent jurisdiction in the area in which said commercial feed is located. In the event the court finds the said commercial feed to be in violation of this chapter and orders the condemnation of said commercial feed, it shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the quality of the commercial feed and the laws of the state; provided, that in no instance shall the disposition of said commercial feed be ordered by the court without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for release of said commercial feed or for permission to process or relabel said commercial feed to bring it into compliance with this chapter. [60GA, ch 137,§12]

198.13 Penalties.

1. Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder or who shall impede, obstruct, hinder, or otherwise prevent or attempt to prevent said secretary or his duly authorized agent in performance of his duty in connection with the provisions of this chapter, shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one hundred fifty dollars for the first violation, and not less than fifty dollars or more than three hundred dollars for a subsequent violation. In all prosecutions under this chapter involving the composition of a lot of commercial feed, a certified copy of the official analysis signed by the secretary shall be accepted as prima-facie evidence of the composition.

2. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or his representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of seizure proceedings as a result of minor violations of the chapter when he believes that the public interest will be best served by a suitable written notice of warning.

3. It shall be the duty of each county attorney to whom any violation is reported to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay. Before the secretary reports a violation for such prosecution, an opportunity shall be given the distributor to present his view to the secretary.

4. The secretary is hereby authorized to apply for and the court to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated under this chapter notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law, said injunction to be issued without bond.

5. Any person adversely affected by an act, order or ruling made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may within forty-five days thereafter bring action in the district court in and for Polk county for new trial of the issues bearing upon such act, order or ruling, and upon such trial the court may issue and enforce such orders, judgments or decrees as the court may deem proper, just and equitable. a. Primary noxious weed seeds are the seeds of perennial weeds such as those that not only reproduce by seed but also by underground roots or stems and which when established are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by ordinary good cultural practices. Primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

- (1) Quack grass—Agropyron repens
- (2) Canada thistle—Cirsium arvense
- (3) Perennial sow thistle—Sonchus arvensis

the denaturing, processing, or destruction be ordered without first having given the claimant of said seed an opportunity to apply to said court for the release of said seed. [C35,§3137-g3; C39,§3137.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§199.12]

No permit number shall be required of persons selling seeds, including seed corn, which has been packed and distributed by a seedsman holding and having in force a permit number as herein provided. No permit number shall be required of persons selling, offering or exposing for sale seed of their own production, provided that such seed is stored or delivered to purchaser only on or from the farm or premises where grown. The fee for each permit number shall be five dollars per annum, and all permit numbers shall expire on the first day of July following date of issue. After due notice given at least ten days prior to a date of hearing fixed by the secretary of agriculture, the department may revoke or refuse to renew any permit issued under the authority of this section, if intent to defraud is established. The failure to fulfill any contract to repurchase the seed crop produced from any agricultural seed, other than hybrid seed corn, if the same meets the requirements set forth in the contract and the standards specified in this chapter, shall be prima-facie evidence of intent to defraud the purchaser at the time of entering into the contract. purchase the seed crop produced therefrom at a price in excess of the current market price at time of delivery, unless the permit holder shall have on file with the department of agriculture a bond, in a penal sum of ten thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa, with sureties approved by the secretary of agriculture, for the use and benefit of any purchaser of seed holding such a contract who might have a cause of action of any nature arising from or out of such purchase or agreement, provided, however, that the aggregate liability of the surety to all such purchasers shall, in no event, exceed the sum of such bond; and provided, further, however, that any permit holder may, upon the filing of a notarized and detailed financial statement, request that such showing be accepted in lieu of the bond and ask to be exonerated from the filing of the bond herein required. If, after considering the financial statement and any other evidence submitted, the secretary of agriculture finds that the applicant permit holder is accountable for the performance of such contract obligations the notarized financial statement shall be filed in lieu of the bond and applicant shall be so advised by registered mail. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

4. If it is for use by man and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, codeine, heroin, marijuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substance, which derivative has been by the board after investigation, found to be, and by regulations under this chapter, designated as, habit forming, unless its label bears the name and quantity or proportion of such substance or derivative and in juxtaposition therewith the statement "Warning—May be habit forming."

5. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

8. If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health. No such regulation shall be established for any drug recognized in an official compendium until the board shall have informed the appropriate body charged with the revision of such compendium of the need for such packaging or labeling requirements and such body shall have failed within a reasonable time to prescribe such requirements.

9. (a) If it is a drug and its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading; or (b) if it is an imitation of another drug; or (c) if it is offered for sale under the name of another drug.

10. If it is dangerous to health when used in the dosage, or with the frequency or duration prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof.

11. If (a) it is a drug sold at retail and contains any quantity of aminopyrine, barbituric acid, pituitary, thyroid, or their derivatives, or (b) it is a drug or device sold at retail and its label bears a statement that it is to be dispensed or sold only by or on the prescription of a doctor, dentist or veterinarian; unless it is sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian who is licensed by law to administer such drug or device, and its label bears the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

12. A drug sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian (except a drug sold in the course of the conduct of a business of selling drugs pursuant to diagnosis by mail) shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if:

a. Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and

b. Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

13. If it is a drug for use by man and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, heroin, marijuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substances, or such substances as are dangerous and habit forming drugs which derivative or substances have been by the board after investigation found to be and by regulation under this chapter designated as dangerous and habit forming drugs, and the sale or dispensation (except on written prescriptions to be filled by pharmacists) of said drugs, derivatives, or substances is made by doctors or dentists incident to their practice, unless the doctor or dentist keeps a dated record of the name, and address of the patient, and amount and name of the drugs, substances or derivatives sold and dispensed each time, and the said sale or dispensation has not been delegated to any person, nurse or attendant. 206.4 Registration.

1. Every pesticide which is distributed, sold or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce between points within the state through any point outside this state shall be registered with the department of agriculture. The secretary shall register and permit the sale of any pesticide which has been duly registered without protest under the provisions of the federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, but products so registered shall be subject to the registration fees provided for herein, and to all other provisions of this chapter. All registration of products shall expire on the thirty-first day of October following date of issuance, unless such registration shall be renewed annually, in which event expiration date shall be extended for each year of renewal registration, or until otherwise terminated; provided that:

a. Products which have the same formula, and are manufactured by the same person, the labeling of which contains the same claims, and the labels of which bear a designation identifying the product as the same pesticide may be registered as a single pesticide; additional names and labels shall be added by supplement statements during the current period of registration. For the purpose of this chapter, fertilizers in mixed fertilizer-pesticide formulations shall be considered as inert ingredients.

b. Within the discretion of the secretary, or his authorized representative, a change in the labeling or formulae of a pesticide may be made within the current period of registration, without requiring a reregistration of the product, provided the name of the item is not changed.

2. The registrant shall file with the department a statement containing:

a. The name and address of the registrant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if other than the registrant.

b. The name of the pesticide.

c. An ingredient statement in which the accepted common name and percentage by weight of each active ingredient is listed as well as the percentage of inert ingredients in the pesticides.

d. A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the pesticide and a statement of all claims made and to be made for it including directions for use.

e. A full description of the tests made and results thereof upon which the claims are based, if requested by the secretary. In the case of renewal or reregistration, a statement may be required only with respect to information which is different from that furnished when the pesticide was registered or last reregistered.

3. The registrant, before selling or offering for sale any pesticide in this state, shall register each brand and grade of such pesticide with the secretary upon forms furnished by the secretary, and, for the purpose of defraying expenses connected with the enforcement of this chapter, shall pay to the secretary an annual registration fee of ten dollars for each and every brand and grade to be offered for sale in this state up to ten products. A fee of five dollars shall be paid for each product thereafter. The fees collected shall be deposited in the treasury to the credit of the pesticide fund to be used only for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. All moneys in said fund in excess of one hundred thousand dollars shall be placed in the general fund of the state at the end of each biennium.

4. The secretary, whenever he deems it necessary in the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of the complete formula of any pesticide. If it appears to the secretary that the composition of the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it and if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted comply with the requirements of this chapter, he shall register the article.

5. If it does not appear to the secretary that the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it or if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of this chapter, he shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the article, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with this chapter so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections before resubmitting the label. If, upon receipt of such notice, the registrant insists that such corrections are not necessary and requests in writing that the article be registered, the secretary shall register the article, under protest, and such registration shall be accompanied by a warning, in writing, to the registrant of the apparent failure of the article to comply with the provisions of this chapter. In order to protect the public, the secretary, on his own motion, may at any time cancel the registration of a pesticide and in lieu thereof issue a registration under protest in accordance with the foregoing procedure. In no event shall registration of an article, whether or not protested, be construed as a defense for the commission of any offense prohibited under section 206.3.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, registration is not required in the case of a pesticide shipped from one plant within this state to another plant within this state operated by the same person. [60GA, ch 139, §4]

Referred to in §§206.3, subsections 1(a), 1(d)(4), and 2(b), 206.9, subsection 3, 206.10, subsection 1(a)(2)

206.5 Applicators license.

1. All commercial applicators of pesticides shall be required to secure a license and be issued a permit and be assigned a permit number. The secretary shall require proof of competence and responsibility before issuing a license. Upon receipt of a properly executed application and payment of required fees, the secretary shall issue a license permitting a person to make commercial applications of pesticides and devices unless he has reason to believe such issuance would not be in the public interest. Every public officer or foreman who applies pesticides on public property or supervises such application by another shall also secure such license and be issued a permit in like manner but the payment of fee therefor shall be waived by the department.

2. All persons required to secure a license under this section shall initially pay a fee of ten dollars, and each year thereafter shall pay a fee of five dollars for renewal of this license and permit number. Fees collected shall be deposited in the treasury to the pesticide fund to be used for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. The expiration date shall be the thirty-first day of October of each year. In case the original license or permit number has been lost or destroyed, a duplicate license and permit number may be obtained upon payment of a fee of five dollars.

3. The secretary may revoke or suspend any license after conviction of the holder for violation of any provision of this chapter.

4. Aerial commercial applicators shall register with the Iowa aeronautics commission as well as with the Iowa department of agriculture.

5. Any nonresident commercial applicator securing a license and permit to operate in Iowa impliedly consents to the appointment of the secretary of agriculture as his agent for the service of original notice in any civil suit against him concerning the application of pesticides in Iowa. [60GA, ch 139,§5]

206.6 Secretary of agriculture—duties.

1. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing following due notice:

a. To declare as a pest any form of plant or animal life or virus which is injurious to plants, man, domestic animals, articles, or substances.

b. To determine whether pesticides are highly toxic to man.

c. To determine standards of coloring or discoloring for pesticides, and to subject pesticides to the requirements of section 206.3, subsection 1.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions and the requirements of this chapter and the rules and regulations made and notices given pursuant thereto, the secretary or his authorized agents, inspectors, or employees may enter into or upon any place during reasonable business hours in order to take periodic random samples for chemical examinations of pesticides and devices and to open any bundle, package or other container containing or believed to contain a pesticide in order to determine whether the pesticide or device complies with the requirements of this chapter. Methods of analysis shall be those currently used by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

4. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing following due notice, to adopt by regulation such regulations, applicable to and in conformity with the primary standards established by this chapter, and as have been or may be prescribed in the United States department of agriculture with respect to pesticides.

Referred to in §206.3, subsection 1(e)

206.7 Examination and orders. The examination of pesticides shall be made under the direction of the secretary, or his authorized representative, for the purpose of determining whether they comply with the requirements of this chapter. If it shall appear from such examination that a pesticide fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and the secretary, or his authorized representative, contemplates instituting criminal proceedings against any person, he shall cause notice to be given to such person. Any person so notified shall be given an opportunity to present his views, either orally or in writing, with regard to such contemplated proceedings and if thereafter in the opinion of the secretary, or his authorized representative, it shall appear that the provisions of the chapter have been violated by such person, then the secretary or his authorized representative may refer the facts to the county attorney for the county in which the violation shall have occurred with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or his representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of proceedings in minor violations of the chapter whenever he believes that the public interests will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing. [60GA, ch 139,§7]

206.8 Exception to penalties.

1. The penalties provided for violations of section 206.3, subsection 1 shall not apply to:

An article, the registration of which has been terminated, may not again be registered unless the article, its labeling, and other material required to be submitted appear to the secretary to comply with all the requirements of this chapter.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the section, in case any person, with intent to defraud, uses or reveals information relative to formulae of products acquired under authority of section 206.4, he shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. [60GA, ch 139,§9]

206.10 Confiscation.

208.2 Illuminating oil tested. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or use any illuminating oil in this state unless it has first been sampled for testing by the department as hereinafter provided, nor if the same, upon being tested by the department as hereinafter prescribed, emits a combustible vapor at a temperature of less than one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C73,§3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13,§2508; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3197, 3202; C46,§§208.7, 208.12; C50, 54, 58, 62,§208.2]

208.3 Sampling. Illuminating oil stored in any tank at or adjacent to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, from which same is withdrawn for sale or use in this state or for distribution to destinations in this state, shall be sampled for testing by the department whenever the stock in such tank is replenished. After replenishment of any such stock, no withdrawals shall be made therefrom for sale or use in this state or for shipment or delivery to points in this state, until a true sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed. Every person storing illuminating oil in such tanks shall notify the department of each consignment by which the stock in such tanks will be replenished. Illuminating oil imported into this state (other than that placed in storage at refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state) shall not be unloaded or emptied from its original container or sold or offered for sale or used in this state until a sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed; provided that if such illuminating oil has been previously sampled or tested by the department, the same may be unloaded, emptied, sold, offered for sale or used. Every person receiving or about to receive illuminating oil so imported into this state which has not been previously sampled or tested as hereinafter provided for shall notify the department of the receipt or anticipated receipt of each consignment thereof.

If such replenishment or receipt of illuminating oil occurs during the usual business hours of any regular business day notice thereof (unless previously given stating the approximate date of anticipated replenishment or receipt) shall be given to the department forthwith. If such replenishment or receipt occurs outside usual business hours, such notice shall be given during the first usual business hour thereafter. For the purposes of this chapter, usual business hours shall be between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on any regular business day except Saturday and between 8 a. m. and 12 noon on Saturday. Sundays and legal holidays shall not be considered regular business days.

If, after the stock of illuminating oil has been replenished in any tank at a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, such replenished stock has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the first withdrawal therefrom is made, the custodian of such oil shall take a true sample thereof, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. If illuminating oil brought into this state (other than that imported by boat, barge, or pipe line for storage at a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the same is ready for unloading in this state, the receiver thereof shall take a true sample therefrom, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. All such samples shall be immediately placed in a clean container and sealed. Suitable containers and seals shall be furnished by the department. The person taking such sample or custodian shall record upon or with the seal thereon the date and the identity of the conveyance or container, from which the sample was taken, and the kind of product sampled, together with such other information as the department may reasonably require for the proper identification of such sample and the making of a proper inspection certificate. Such sample thus taken shall be mailed or held for delivery to the department as the department shall prescribe. After such sample is taken, such illuminating oil may be withdrawn, unloaded, sold, offered for sale, or used, the same as if sampled by the department.

The department may, upon agreement with the operator of any refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal outside this state, provide an inspector or appoint an agent to sample or to make tests of illuminating oil at such refinery or terminal for shipment or delivery into this state in which case the procedures prescribed in this chapter may be performed thereat in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such refinery or terminal was within this state. [C97, §§2504-2506; S13, §§2504, 2505, 2510-3a; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3193, 3198, 3199, 3208, 3209; C46, §§208.3, 208.8, 208.9, 208.18, 208.19; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.3]

208.4 Method of testing. All tests provided for in this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the methods outlined by the American Society for Testing Materials—Method D-56 (A.S.T.M.) or with the Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester. If Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester is used, it shall be used in accordance with the following directions:

1. Remove the thermometer with its mountings from the oil cup.
2. Lift off the oil cup containing the flashing taper and fill open water bath with water to the mark upon the inside.
3. Take the wick holder from the oil cup, and fill this vessel with the oil to be tested, pouring in the oil at the place of the wick holder and noting the gauge mark at the thermometer hole, pouring very gradually as the surface approaches the gauge mark. The gauge mark consists of a small pendant shelf and the oil cup is properly filled when the upper surface of the oil just adheres to the lower surface of the gauge mark. Too much care cannot be taken at this point. Having ceased pouring, tip the cup so that the oil flows away from the gauge, then gradually restore it to the horizontal, and if the surface does not again adhere, add a little more oil.
4. Adjust the wick to the flashing taper to give a flame that does not exceed one-quarter of an inch in height and that exhibits as much blue at its base as yellow at its top.

5. Set the oil cup on top and into the water bath, return the flashing taper to its place, inverting the conical thimble around it, and return the thermometer to its place upon the cup. In doing this be sure that the casing of the latter is pushed down upon the cup as far as it will go.

6. Fill the lamp beneath half full of alcohol, light and place it beneath the water bath. Note the rate of increase in temperature as shown by the thermometer and adjust the wick to raise the temperature at the rate of two degrees per minute. When the temperature has reached eighty-five degrees, light the flashing taper and observe it closely. As soon as the oil under test has reached its "flashing point", the flame of this taper will be extinguished by the first "flash", and the point of attention is the temperature at the instant the flame of the taper is extinguished. This "flashing point" is the point of temperature at which the oil emits a combustible vapor.

The department shall determine which of the methods set out above shall be used in the inspection of kerosene, and shall by regulation prescribe the one method which shall be uniform in all kerosene inspections. [C97, §2504; S13, §2504; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3198; C46, §208.8; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.4]

208.5 Records of department. The department shall keep such records as may be necessary for the purposes of this chapter of all tests made by it of illuminating oil. Such records shall be open at all reasonable times to public inspection. The department shall furnish to the person for whom such tests are made a certificate of inspection covering each sample tested showing the date of such test, the identity of the conveyance or container from which the sample was taken, the kind of illuminating oil therein, the result of the test and inspection. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §§2505, 2506; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3199, 3215; C46, §§208.9, 208.25; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.5]

208.6 Gasoline receptacles. No person shall place gasoline or any other petroleum product for public use having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit into any can, cask, barrel or other similar receptacle having a capacity in excess of one pint unless the same is painted bright red and is plainly marked with the word "gasoline" or with the warning "flammable—keep fire away" in contrasting letters of a height equal to at least one-tenth of the smallest dimension of such container. Gasoline or other petroleum products having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit shall not be placed in bottles. The foregoing shall not apply to vehicle cargo or supply tanks nor to underground storage nor to storage tanks from which such liquids are withdrawn for manufacturing purposes or are loaded into vehicle cargo tanks, but all outlet faucets or valves from such excepted containers shall be painted bright red and suitably tagged to indicate the nature of the product to be withdrawn therefrom. No person shall place illuminating oil in any container which is painted red nor shall illuminating oil be loaded or withdrawn through any piping which is used or designated as aforesaid for products having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C97, §2505; S13, §§2510-1a, -2a, -j, -k; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3194-3196; C46, §§208.4-208.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.6; 61GA, ch 196, §1(1-4)]

208.7 Commingled products. If any illuminating oil is commingled with any other product the entire commingled products shall be deemed uninspected and untested, and it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or use any such commingled product for illuminating purposes within this state unless and until the same has been inspected and approved for sale or use by the department. [C73, §3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13, §2508; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3201-3203; C46, §§208.11-208.13; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.7]

208.8 Fees for inspection. Illuminating oil inspections provided for in this chapter shall be deemed to be made for, and fees therefor at the rate of one cent per barrel (fifty gallons) on all illuminating oil received shall be paid by, the person who first received such illuminating oil in this state.

For the purposes of computing such fees, illuminating oil shall be deemed to be received in this state as follows:

1. If placed in storage at or adjacent to a refinery or a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state the same shall be deemed to be received when withdrawn from such storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than for transfer to other refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state and not before. When so withdrawn, such oil shall be deemed to be received by the person who was the owner thereof just prior to withdrawal. Provided that if such oil so withdrawn is shipped or delivered to a person engaged in the storage and distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck, such oil when so withdrawn shall be deemed to be received by such distributor.

2. If imported into this state (other than to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) the same shall be deemed to be received by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after the same is unloaded in this state.

On or before the last day of each calendar month, every person receiving illuminating oil in this state shall file with the department a report in such form and containing such information as the department shall prescribe as to each receipt or the total receipts of illuminating oil by such person in this state during the preceding calendar month and at the same time shall remit to the department the inspection fees thereon. Providing, however, that only one-half of the inspection fees shall be remitted on illuminating oil received and thereafter shipped or sold in rail tank car or motor transport lots directly to the federal government or on illuminating oil received and thereafter exported from this state, and if remitted in full, one-half said fees shall be refunded or credit therefor shall be allowed on subsequent reports. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §2505; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3209, 3210, 3213, 3214; C46, §§208.19, 208.20, 208.23, 208.24; C50, 54, 58, 62, §208.8]

208A.12 Citation of chapter.

208A.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires: (1) "Antifreeze" shall include all substances and preparations intended for use as the cooling medium, or to be added to the cooling liquid, in the cooling system of internal combustion engines to prevent freezing of the cooling liquid or to lower its freezing point; and (2) "person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies and associations. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.1]

208A.2 What deemed adulterated. An antifreeze shall be deemed to be adulterated: (1) If it consists in whole or in part of any substance which will render it injurious to the cooling system of an internal combustion engine or will make the operation of the engine dangerous to the user; or (2) if its strength, quality, or purity falls below the standard of strength, quality, or purity under which it is sold. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.2]

208A.3 What deemed misbranded. An antifreeze shall be deemed to be misbranded: (1) If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular; or (2) if in package form it does not bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight or measure on the outside of the package. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.3]

208A.4 Inspection by department. Before any antifreeze shall be sold, exposed for sale, or held with intent to sell within this state, a sample thereof must be inspected by the department of agriculture. Upon application of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of antifreeze submitted, the department shall inspect the antifreeze submitted. If the antifreeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the department, and is not in violation of this chapter, the department shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such antifreeze in this state until the formula or labeling of the antifreeze is changed in any manner.

If the department shall at a later date find that the product to be sold, exposed for sale or held with intent to sell has been materially altered or adulterated, a change has been made in the name, brand or trade-mark under which the antifreeze is sold, or it violates the provisions of this chapter, the department shall notify the applicant and the permit shall be canceled forthwith. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.4]

208A.5 Samples—analysis. The department of agriculture shall enforce the provisions of this chapter by inspections, chemical analysis, or any other appropriate methods. All samples for inspection or analysis shall be taken from stocks in the state or intended for sale in the state or the department through its agents may call upon the manufacturer or distributor applying for an inspection of an antifreeze to supply such samples thereof for analysis. The department, through its agents, shall have free access by legal means during business hours to all places of business, buildings, vehicles, cars and vessels used in the manufacture, transportation, sale or storage of any antifreeze, and it may open by legal means any box, carton, parcel, or package, containing or supposed to contain any antifreeze and may take therefrom samples for analysis. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.5]

208A.6 Rules and regulations. The department of agriculture shall have authority to promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to promptly and effectively enforce the provisions of this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.6]

208A.7 List of approved brands. The department of agriculture may furnish upon request a list of the brands and trade-marks of antifreeze inspected by the department during the calendar year which have been found to be in accord with this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.7]

208A.8 Advertising restricted. No advertising literature relating to any antifreeze sold or to be sold in this state shall contain any statement that the antifreeze advertised for sale has met the requirements of the department of agriculture until such antifreeze has been given the laboratory test and inspection of the department, and found to meet all the standard requirements and not to be in violation of this chapter. Then such statement may be contained in any advertising literature where such brand or trade-mark of antifreeze is being advertised for sale, and such statement may be used on all regular containers of such antifreeze. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.8]

208A.9 Prosecution. Whenever the department of agriculture shall discover any antifreeze is being sold or has been sold in violation of this chapter, the facts shall be furnished to the attorney general who shall institute proper proceedings. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.9]

208A.10 Fees remitted. All fees provided for in this chapter shall be collected by the secretary of the department of agriculture and remitted to the state treasury. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.10]

208A.11 Penalty. If any person, partnership, corporation, or association shall violate the provisions of this chapter, such person, partnership, corporation or association shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished according to the general provisions of title X and the department may after due hearing cancel registration. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.11]

208A.12 Citation of chapter. This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa Antifreeze Act." [C50, 54, 58, 62, §208A.12]

be lineal, superficial, or solid, shall be the standard yard secured in accordance with the provisions of section 210.1. It shall be divided into three equal parts called feet, and each foot into twelve equal parts called inches, and for the measure of cloth and other commodities commonly sold by the yard it may be divided into halves, quarters, eighths, and sixteenths. Such action shall be reported to the board or the director, who may modify, alter, or rescind the action if deemed necessary. The action shall be further reported to the board of supervisors of the patient's county of legal settlement. When a patient committed by a court is to be returned to a county, either by release from the hospital-school or for the purpose of convalescent leave, notice shall be sent to the clerk of the court which committed the patient, and to the board of supervisors of both the patient's county of legal settlement and the county to which the patient is to be released, thirty days prior to the time the patient leaves the hospital-school. Referred to in §§222.73, 222.76, 222.78

222.61 Legal settlement determined. When the board of supervisors of any county receives an application on behalf of any person for admission to any hospital-school or when any court issues an order committing any person to a hospital-school, the board of supervisors or the court shall determine and enter as a matter of record whether the legal settlement of the person is:

1. In the county in which the board of supervisors or court is located.
2. In some other county of the state.
3. In another state or in a foreign country.
4. Unknown. [61GA, ch 207,§62]

222.62 Settlement in another county. Whenever the board of supervisors or the court determines that the legal settlement of the person is other than in the county in which the board or court is located, the board or court shall, as soon as determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital-school of which the person is a patient. The superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of the patient, to the county so certified until said legal settlement shall be otherwise determined as provided by this chapter. [61GA, ch 207,§63]

222.63 Finding of settlement — objection. Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the board of supervisors or the court to the county auditor of the county of legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of his county whereupon it shall be conclusively presumed that the patient has a legal settlement in said county unless the county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the board of supervisors or the court giving such notice, dispute said legal settlement. [61GA, ch 207,§64]

222.64 Foreign state or unknown. If the legal settlement of the person is found by the board of supervisors or the court to be in a foreign state or country or is found to be unknown, the board of supervisors or the court shall immediately notify the board of control of such finding and shall furnish the board of control with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement. The care of said person shall be as arranged by the board of supervisors or by such order as the court may enter. Application for admission or order of commitment may be made pending investigation by the board of control. [61GA, ch 207, §65]

222.65 Investigation. The board of control shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of the person and proceed as follows:

1. If the board finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court as to legal settlement of the person is correct, the board of control shall cause the person either to be transferred to a hospital-school and there maintained at the expense of the state or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the board finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court is not correct, the board of control shall order the person transferred to a state hospital-school and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state. [61GA, ch 207, §66]

222.66 Transfers—expenses. The transfer to a hospital-school or to the place of legal settlement of a mentally retarded person who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made in accordance with such directions as shall be prescribed by the board of control and when practicable by employees of the state hospital-school. The actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the board of control from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. [61GA, ch 207,§67]

222.67 Change in finding of settlement. Where a person has been received into a hospital-school as a patient whose legal settlement is supposedly outside the state or is unknown and the board finds that the legal settlement of the patient was at the time of admission or commitment in a county of this state, the board shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of the patient to the county of such legal settlement. The costs and expenses shall be collected as provided by law in other cases. [61GA, ch 207,§68]

222.68 Costs paid in first instance. All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital-school when the person's legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state shall in the first instance be paid by the county from which the person was admitted or committed. The county of legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such expenses. Where any county fails to make such reimbursement within sixty days following submission of a properly itemized bill to the county of legal settlement, a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from submission of the bill may be added to the amount due. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3451; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§222.41; 61GA, ch 207,§69]

All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital-school when the person's legal settlement is outside this state or is unknown shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. Such payments shall be made on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county from which the expenses have been paid and approved by the board or the director. [61GA, ch 207,§70]

222.70 Dispute between counties. When a dispute arises between counties or between the board and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a hospital-school, the attorney general at the request of the board shall without advancement of fees cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists. The action shall be brought to determine such legal settlement, except that such action shall in no case be filed in a county in which the district court or a judge thereof originally made the disputed finding. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that the dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the county of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity. [61GA, ch 207, §71]

222.71 Finding by court. The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person at the time of admission or commitment was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so finds, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all necessary and legal expenses arising from said admission or commitment and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. [61GA, ch 207,§72]

222.72 Finding settlement outside state. If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person, at the time of admission or commitment was outside the state or was unknown an order shall be entered that the mentally retarded person shall be maintained in the hospital-school at the expense of the state. In such case, the state shall refund to any county all necessary and legal expenses for the cost of said admission or commitment paid by a county. A decision by the court shall be final. [61GA, ch 207,§73]

222.73 Superintendent to prepare expense schedule. Each superintendent of a state hospital-school shall certify to the state comptroller on a schedule approved by the comptroller any amount not previously certified by him due the state for the expenses of patients in the hospital-schools from the several counties responsible under section 222.60. The comptroller shall thereupon charge the amounts so certified to the proper counties. The amount certified by the superintendent to the comptroller to be charged against each county shall be the hospital-school's per-patient-per-day cost multiplied by the number of days each patient for which such county is liable to the state was carried on the rolls of the hospital-school as an inpatient, plus the amount due for the treatment of outpatients for which such county is liable to the state during the period for which expenses are being certified. The per-patient-per-day cost shall be determined by listing the number of days each inpatient was actually in the hospital-school during the period for which expenses are being certified and dividing the total of all such days into the portion of the hospital-school's appropriation expended during such period. The amount charged for the treatment of outpatients shall be at a rate to be established by the board on the basis of the actual cost of such treatment. [SS15,§2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.5; 61GA, ch 207,§74]

222.74 Duplicate to county. When certifying to the comptroller amounts to be charged against each county as provided in section 222.73, the superintendent shall send to the county auditor of each county against which he has so certified any amount, a duplicate of such certificate. The county auditor upon receipt of the duplicate certificate shall enter the same to the credit of the state in his ledger of state accounts, and shall immediately issue a notice to the county treasurer authorizing the treasurer to transfer the amount from the state institution fund to the general state revenue. The treasurer shall file such notice as his authority for making such transfer and shall include the amount so transferred in his next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which the amount belongs. [61GA, ch 207,§75]

222.75 Delinquent payments — penalty. Should any county fail to pay the bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from the superintendent, the state comptroller may charge the delinquent county a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. [61GA, ch 207,§76]

222.76 Paid from institution funds. All expenses required to be paid by counties under section 222.60 shall be paid from the state institution fund of the county. The cost of care of patients discharged or removed from the hospital-schools for placement within a county may be paid from the state institution fund or the county fund for mental health of the county of legal settlement. [C39,§3477.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.18; 61GA, ch 207,§77]

222.77 Patients on leave. The cost of support of patients placed on convalescent leave or removed as a habilitation measure from a hospital-school, except when living in the home of a person legally bound for the support of such patient, shall be paid from the state institution fund or the county mental health fund of the county of legal settlement. If the patient has no county of legal settlement, the cost shall be paid from the hospital-school support fund and charged on abstract in the same manner as other state inpatients until such time as the patient becomes self-supporting or qualifies for support under other existing statutes. [61GA, ch 207,§78]

Referred to in §222.78

222.78 Parents and others liable for support. The father and mother of any person admitted or committed to a hospital-school as either an inpatient or an outpatient, and any person, firm, or corporation bound by contract hereafter made for support of such person shall be and remain liable for the support of such person. Such person and those legally bound for the support of the person shall be liable to the county for all sums advanced by the county to the state under the provisions of sections 222.60 and 222.77. The liability of any person, other than the patient, who is legally bound for the support of any patient under twenty-one years of age in a hospital-school shall in no instance exceed the average minimum cost of the care of a normally intelligent, nonhandicapped minor of the same age and sex as such minor patient. The board shall establish the scale for this purpose but the scale shall not exceed the standards for personal allowances established by the state department of social welfare under the aid to dependent children program. Provided further that the father or mother of such person shall not be liable for the support of such person after such person attains the age of twenty-one years and that the father or mother shall incur liability only during any period when the father or mother either individually or jointly receive a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which they would be liable to make an income tax payment to this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost as established by the board for caring for such mentally retarded person. [C39,§3477.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§§223.16, 223.20; 61GA, ch 207,§79]

222.80 Liability to county. Any person admitted or committed to a county institution or home or admitted or committed at county expense to any private hospital, sanitorium, or other facility for treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support as a mentally retarded patient thereof shall be liable to the county for the reasonable cost of such support as provided in section 222.78. [61GA, ch 207,§81]

222.81 Claim against estate. The total amount of liability provided in section 222.78 shall be allowed as a claim of the sixth class against the estate of the person or against the estate of the father or mother of such person. [61GA, ch 207,§82]

222.82 Collection of claims. The board of supervisors of each county may direct the county attorney to proceed with the collection of said claims as a part of the duties of his office when the board of supervisors deems such action advisable. The board of supervisors may and is hereby empowered to compromise any and all liabilities to the county arising under this chapter when such compromise is deemed to be in the best interests of the county. Any collections and liens shall be limited in conformance to section 614.1 subsection 5. [C39,§3477.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.17; 61GA, ch 207,§83]

222.83 Nonresident patients. The estates of all nonresident patients who are provided treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support in or by any hospital-school and all persons legally bound for the support of such persons, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of such services in the hospital-schools. The certificate of the superintendent of the hospital-school in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of such services furnished such patient by the hospital-school. [61GA, ch 207,§84]

222.84 Patients' personal deposit fund. There is hereby established at each hospital-school a fund which shall be known as the "patients' personal deposit fund". [60GA, ch 145,§2; 61GA, ch 207,§85]

222.85 Deposit of moneys — exception to guardians. Any funds coming into the possession of the superintendent or any employee of a hospital-school belonging to any patient in that hospital-school shall be deposited in the name of the patient in the patients' personal deposit fund, except that if a guardian of the property has been appointed for the person, the guardian shall have the right to demand and receive such funds. Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires, and comforts for the patient. [60GA, ch 145,§2; 61GA, ch 207,§86]

222.86 Payment for care from fund. Whenever the amount in the account of any patient in the patients' personal deposit fund exceeds the sum of two hundred dollars, the business manager of the hospital-school may apply any amount of the excess to reimburse the county of legal settlement for liability incurred by such county for the payment of care, support, and maintenance of the patient when billed therefor by the county of legal settlement. Money earned by a patient for work performed in or for a hospital-school shall

All persons charged with a public offense, who are suffering from a mental disorder and are not a proper subject for the schools for the mentally retarded or for commitment as a mentally ill person, having criminal propensities toward the commission of sex offenses, and who may be considered dangerous to others, are hereby declared to be "criminal sexual psychopaths". [C58, 62, §225A.1]

225A.2 Petition for commitment. When any person is charged with a public offense and it shall appear to the county attorney of the county wherein such person is so charged that such person is a criminal sexual psychopath, or when any reputable person having knowledge that an individual who is charged with a public offense is a criminal sexual psychopath as defined in this chapter, or that any such individual has committed an act or acts which indicated that he may be a criminal sexual psychopath, and so informs the county attorney of the county where the act or acts charged were committed, and the county attorney is satisfied that the allegations have merit, are based on actual knowledge of the informant, and are capable of proof, he shall prepare a petition verified upon his information and belief, in sufficient detail so that the person complained against will be reasonably informed of the charges against him, which petition shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county wherein such persons stand charged with a public offense. [C58, 62, §225A.2]

225A.3 Bail ordered. Upon filing of such petition, the court in which the public offense is charged may order that the bail furnished be released and that additional bail be ordered. [C58, 62, §225A.3]

225A.4 Notice of hearing. After the petition charging criminal sexual psychopathy has been filed and docketed, notice in writing, including a copy of the petition shall be served on said named defendant in the manner prescribed for serving an original notice setting forth that a hearing thereon will be held by the court on a date and at a time specified in said notice, said date of hearing to be not less than five days later than the date of the service of said notice upon him. At said hearing the court shall determine whether he shall be medically examined, if so, by whom such examination shall be conducted, and the time and place thereof. [C58, 62, §225A.4]

225A.5 Counsel—evidence—appeal. The person charged shall have counsel at every stage of the proceedings and shall have the right to present evidence in his behalf and shall have full rights of appeal, and if the named defendant has not employed counsel, the court shall appoint a competent attorney to represent him and a reasonable attorney fee shall be charged as part of the costs in the proceedings. [C58, 62, §225A.5]

225A.6 Compensation of physicians. Upon application the court shall allow reasonable compensation to the examining physicians and shall order such allowances to be taxed as costs in the proceedings. [C58, 62, §225A.6]

225A.7 Report of examination. In the event a medical examination is ordered, the court shall continue the hearing until such time as the examination can be completed. 225A.8 Dismissal or trial ordered. After the filing of the report of the medical examination, if sufficient proof be not made to the court of the criminal propensities to the commission of sex offenses of the person charged with criminal sexual psychopathy, or if the report of the examining physician or physicians does not establish the fact of a mental disorder to which such propensities are attributable in the person examined, the court shall dismiss the petition. If sufficient proof be made to the court of the criminal propensities to the commission of sex offenses of the person so charged, and if the report of the examining physicians does establish the fact of a mental disorder to which such propensities are attributable in the person examined, the court shall order that a final hearing pursuant to the order of continuance be held on the petition setting the time and place of such hearing. [C58, 62, §225A.8]

225A.9 Trial. The action shall be tried as a special proceeding and the defendant shall be entitled to a jury trial. The judge may, at the request of the person charged in the petition, provide for the final determination of the issue of criminal sexual psychopathy by the court without jury. The court may order the public excluded from such proceedings. [C58, 62, §225A.9]

225A.10 Evidence admissible. At the final hearing, the examining physicians appointed or designated by the court may testify as to their examination or examinations of the person charged and the results thereof, but their report or reports filed in court as herein provided shall not be admissible in evidence against the person charged. Evidence of past acts of sexual deviation by the person charged shall be admissible at the hearing. [C58, 62, §225A.10]

225A.11 Commitment. If the person is found to be a criminal sexual psychopath the court may commit him to a state hospital for the mentally ill, where he shall be detained and treated until released in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or may order such person to be tried upon the criminal charges against him, as the interests of substantial justice may require. make periodic examinations of any such person committed, with the view of determining the progress of treatment, and shall report to the court not less than once a year. [C58, 62, §225A.11]

At any time after commitment, an application in writing may be filed with the committing court, setting forth facts showing that such criminal psychopath has, in the opinion of three qualified psychiatrists designated by the superintendent to examine said person, attained maximum hospital benefit and that in their opinion his release will not be incompatible with the welfare of society. Whereupon the court shall issue an order which will return the person to the jurisdiction of said court for a hearing. This hearing shall in all respects be like the original hearing to determine the mental condition of the defendant. Following such hearing, the court shall issue an order which shall cause the defendant either to be (1) placed on probation for a minimum of three years, or (2) returned to the hospital, provided that upon the expiration of said probationary period the said person may be discharged. [C58, 62, §225A.12]

225A.13 Effect of finding. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as changing in meaning any portion of the criminal code, nor shall a finding of criminal sexual psychopathy, under the provisions of this chapter, constitute a defense in any criminal action. [C58, 62, §225A.13]

The support and maintenance of any person committed to the state hospital under the provisions of this chapter shall be charged and paid in accordance with the law as now provided for in the case of patients of state hospitals for the mentally ill. 2. To the examining physician, when not a member of the commission, the same fees as a member and in addition mileage of five cents per mile each way.

3. To witnesses the same fees as witnesses in the district court.

4. Fees on appeal shall be the same as in ordinary actions. [C73, §§1410, 3825; C97, §2309; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3541; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §228.9]

228.11 Transportation expenses—return of patient on leave. When funds to pay the expenses of transporting a patient to a hospital are needed in advance, the commission shall estimate the probable expense, including the necessary assistance, and not including the compensation allowed the sheriff, and on such estimate, certified by the clerk, the auditor of the county shall issue a county warrant for the amount, as estimated, in favor of the sheriff or other person intrusted with the execution of such order of admission. The sheriff or other person executing such order shall accompany his return with a statement of the expenses incurred, and the excess or deficiency may be deducted from or added to his compensation, as the case may be. If funds are not so advanced, such expenses shall be certified and paid in the manner above prescribed on the return of the order. When the commission orders the return of a patient, compensation and expenses shall be in like manner allowed.

When the commission orders the return of a patient who is on leave from a mental health institute, such notification from the commission of hospitalization or superintendent of the mental health institute from which the patient is on leave to any peace officer of the state or to any private person shall be sufficient authority for such officer or person to take and return such patient to the respective mental health institute. Compensation and expenses incurred in executing an order to return a patient shall be allowed in the same manner as other transportation expenses. [C73, §§1410, 3825; C97, §2309; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3543; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §228.11; 60GA, ch 146, §1]

229.1 Form of information—temporary observation. Applications for admission to the hospitals for the mentally ill shall be by sworn information which shall allege and show:

1. That the person in whose behalf the application is made is believed to be mentally ill, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital.

2. That such person has been found in the county.

3. The place of residence of such person or where it is believed to be, or that such residence is not known.

Provided, however, that application for admission may be made on behalf of a person by his attending physician and another physician experienced in the treatment of mental diseases, for a temporary admission for observation, examination, diagnosis and treatment, which admission shall not be for a period of more than thirty days and only after the written consent of said person. The application shall be made to the superintendent of the state hospital in the district in which the county of his residence is located. Said application shall not be accepted by the superintendent if by doing so it will result in an over-crowded condition or if adequate facilities are not available. At the expiration of the admission period, the superintendent shall make a certified report of the findings as to the mental illness of said applicant, one copy of which shall be sent to the attending physician filing the application and, if said report finds that said person is mentally ill and in need of treatment, a copy shall be sent to the commission of hospitalization of the county in which the applicant is a resident.

If the certification of the patient's condition to his attending physician by the hospital superintendent states that a further period of observation and treatment is indicated without commitment of the person as mentally ill, the attending physician may authorize a further period of such observation and treatment as recommended. During such extended period of observation, if the patient is not discharged a recommendation for commitment as mentally ill may be filed with the commission. If the commission does not issue a commitment as mentally ill after recommendation by the superintendent within five days following receipt of such recommendation, the superintendent may, upon authority of the board of control, discharge such patient from the hospital, and the hospital and board of control, after discharge of such patient, shall be absolved of further responsibility in connection with the case until such time as the same person may be committed.

The cost of hospitalization of persons committed temporarily under the provisions of this section shall be paid for in the same way as persons committed otherwise as mentally ill. [R60,§1480; C73,§1399; C97,§2264; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3544; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.1]

Referred to in §225.36

229.2 Hearing—custody. On the filing of such information, the commission, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause therefor, may require the alleged mentally ill person to be brought before it and, to this end, may issue its order to any peace officer of the county. The commission may provide for the custody of such person until its investigation is concluded. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.2]

229.3 Subpoenas and oaths. The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas. Each member of the commission shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses. In case a witness fails to appear or refuses to testify, the commission shall, in writing, report such refusal to the district court or to a judge thereof, and said court or judge shall proceed as though such refusal occurred in a legal proceeding before said court or judge. [C73,§1398; C97,§2263; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3546; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.3]

Contempts, ch 665

229.4 Hearings. Hearings shall be had in the presence of such person unless the commission finds that such course would probably be injurious to such person or attended with no advantage. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3547; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.4]

229.5 Appearance — right to counsel. Appearance on behalf of such alleged mentally ill person may be made by any citizen of the county, or by any relative, either in person or by counsel.

If at said hearing such person appears without counsel or appearance is made in his behalf without counsel, the commission, before proceeding further, shall inform such person or persons appearing for him of his right to legal counsel, then if no counsel is employed, the district court shall assign him counsel. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county. [C73, §1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3548; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.5]

229.6 Examining physician. The commission shall, in all cases, appoint, either from, or outside, its own membership, some regular practicing physician of the county to make a personal examination of the person in question for the purpose of determining his mental and physical condition. Said physician shall certify to the commission whether said person is in good mental health or mentally ill. [C73, §1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3549; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.6]

229.9 Findings and order—screening center. If the commission finds from the evidence that said person is mentally ill and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the state hospital, it shall order first his observation and treatment at the screening center located at the hospital in the district nearest to the county in which the hearing is conducted and no order of commitment shall issue until the superintendent of the hospital at which said screening center is located shall find and recommend that such order should be issued and, in the event that such recommendation of commitment is made, the commission shall order his commitment to the hospital in the district in which the county is situated and in connection with such finding and order shall determine and enter of record the county which is the legal settlement of such person. If such settlement is unknown the record shall show such fact.

No person shall be ordered committed or delivered to a state hospital until the commission has first communicated with the superintendent of said hospital, and has been advised that adequate facilities are available. A person ordered to screening center for observation and treatment shall have the same right to appeal from the order as from the order of commitment finding him mentally ill as provided in sections 229.17 to 229.19, inclusive. 229.10 Order. Unless an appeal is taken, the commission shall issue its order of commitment and a duplicate thereof, stating such finding, with the settlement of the person, if found, and, if not found, its information, if any, in regard thereto, authorizing the superintendent of the hospital to receive and keep him as a patient therein. [C73,§1401; C97, §2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.10]

229.11 Service. Said order and duplicate, with the certificate and finding of the physician, shall be delivered to the person's attending physician or some one designated by said physician, who shall execute the same by conveying such person to the hospital, and delivering him, with such duplicate and physician's certificate and finding, to the superintendent, who shall, over his official signature, acknowledge such delivery on the original order, which said physician shall return to the clerk of the commission, with his costs and expenses indorsed thereon. [R60,§§1458, 1459, 1479; C73, §§1401, 1412; C97,§§2266, 2279; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3554, 3556; C46,§§229.11, 229.13; C50, 54, 58, 62, §229.11]

229.14 Assistants—females. The person's attending physician or some one designated by said physician, or any person appointed, may call to his aid such assistants as he may need to execute such order; but no female shall thus be taken to the hospital without the attendance of some other female or some relative. The superintendent, in his acknowledgment of delivery, must state whether there was any such person in attendance, and give the name or names, if any. [C73,§1401; C97,§2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3557; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.14]

[C97,§2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3559; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.16]

229.17 Appeal. Any person found to be mentally ill, or his next friend, may appeal from such finding to the district court by giving the clerk thereof, within thirty days after such finding has been made, notice in writing that an appeal is taken, which may be signed by the party, his agent, next friend, guardian, or attorney, and, when thus appealed, it shall stand for trial anew. Upon appeal it shall be the duty of the county attorney, without additional compensation, to prosecute the action on behalf of the informant. Such person shall have the right to have the appeal decided by a jury under the rules and statutes relating to jury trials in civil cases. [C97,§2267; S13,§2267; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3560; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.17]

If the appellant is in the custody of an institution under the jurisdiction of the director of mental health at the time of service of the notice of appeal, he shall be discharged from custody pending appeal unless the superintendent of the institution with the concurrence of at least two members of his medical staff finds that he cannot with safety be allowed to go at large, in which case the appellant shall remain in the custody of the institution or shall be otherwise suitably provided for in the manner hereinafter specified. [C97,§2268; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3561; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.18]

Warrant of commitment, §229.10

229.20 Beneficiaries of veterans bureau.

1. Whenever, in any proceeding under the laws of this state for the commitment of a person alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise in need of confinement in a hospital or other institution for his proper care, it is determined after such adjudication of the status of such person as may be required by law that commitment to a hospital for mental disease or other institution is necessary for safekeeping or treatment and it appears that such person is eligible for care or treatment by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States government, the court, upon receipt of a certificate from the veterans administration or such other agency showing that facilities are available and that such person is eligible for care or treatment therein, may commit such person to said veterans administration or other agency. The person whose commitment is sought shall be personally served with notice of the pending commitment proceeding in the manner as provided by the law of this state; and nothing in this section shall affect his right to appear and be heard in the proceedings. Upon commitment, such person, when admitted to any facility operated by any such agency within or without this state shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other agency. The chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration or institution operated by any other agency of the United States to which the person is so committed shall with respect to such person be vested with the same powers as superintendents of state hospitals for mental diseases within this state with respect to retention of custody, transfer, convalescent leave or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the committing or other appropriate court of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of the person so committed, and to determine the necessity for continuance of his restraint, and all commitments pursuant to this section are so conditioned.

2. The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or of the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration, or other agency of the United States government for care or treatment shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order; and the courts of the committing state, or of the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so committed for the purpose of inquiring into the mental condition of such person, and of determining the necessity for continuance of his restraint; as is provided in subsection 1 of this section with respect to persons committed by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States to retain custody, or transfer, place on convalescent leave or discharge the committed person.

3. Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any hospital for the mentally ill or other institution for the care or treatment of persons similarly afflicted and that such person is eligible for care or treatment, the superintendent of the institution may cause the transfer of such person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of mental illness, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing such person shall enter an order for such transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

4. Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment. [C27, 31, 35, §3562-b1; C39, §3562.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.20]

229.21 Transfer from state hospital. A veteran of any war committed to any state hospital may, with the approval of the board of control, be transferred to and placed in the custody of any hospital maintained for war veterans within the state of Iowa on being notified by the authorities of such veterans hospital that the veteran is acceptable for hospitalization, provided no charge for his care and support is made against the state of Iowa or the county from which committed. [C39, §3562.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.21]

229.22 Commitment continues. The transfer of a veteran from one hospital to another shall in no way invalidate the original commitment and such commitment together with all such laws and rules of the board of control pertaining to convalescent leave or discharge shall remain in full force and effect as the original commitment. [C39, §3562.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.22]

229.23 Blanks. The board of control shall furnish the commissions of insanity of the counties with such forms for blanks for orders, certificates, and other papers as will enable them with regularity and facility to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and also with copies of the regulations of the hospital, when printed. [C73, §1431; C97, §2295; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3563; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.23]

229.24 Temporary custody in certain cases. If any person found to be mentally ill cannot at once be admitted to the hospital, or, in case of appeal from the finding of the commission, if such person cannot with safety be allowed to go at liberty, the commission of hospitalization shall require that such person shall be suitably provided for either in the county home or otherwise until such admission can be had, or until the occasion therefor no longer exists. [R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3564; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.24]

229.25 Care by relatives or friends. Such patients may be cared for as private patients when relatives or friends will obligate themselves to provide such care without public charge. In such case the commission shall in writing appoint some suitable person special custodian who shall have authority and shall in all suitable ways restrain, protect, and care for such patient, in such manner as to best secure his safety and comfort, and to best protect the persons and property of others. [C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3565; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.25]

Referred to in §229.26

229.26 Care by county. If care and custody of the patient is not provided as authorized in section 229.25 the commission shall require that he be restrained and cared for by the board of supervisors, at the expense of the county, at the county home or some other suitable place, and the commission of hospitalization shall issue its mandate to the board of supervisors, which shall forthwith comply therewith. [R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3566; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.26]

229.27 Custody outside state hospitals. The commission of hospitalization may grant applications, made in substantially the form provided in this title, for the restraint, protection and care, within the county and outside the state hospitals, of alleged mentally ill persons, either as public or private patients, but all patients so cared for shall be reported to the board of control. [R60,§1437; C73,§1404; C97, §2272; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3567; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§229.27]

229.28 Neglected mentally ill persons. On information laid before the commission of hospitalization of any county that a mentally ill person in the county is suffering for want of proper care, it shall forthwith inquire into the matter, and, if it finds that such information is true, it shall make all needful provisions for the care of such person as provided in other cases. [R60,§1467; C73,§1405; C97,§2273; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3568; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §229.28]

229.29 Transfers from county and private hospitals. Mentally ill persons who have been under care, either as public or private patients, outside of the hospital, by authority of the commission of hospitalization may, on application, be transferred to the state hospital, whenever they can be admitted thereto. Such admission may be had without another inquest, at any time within six months after the inquest already had, unless the commission shall think further inquest advisable. of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of his county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the commission of hospitalization giving said notice, dispute such legal settlement. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3584; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§230.4]

[C73,§1419; C97,§2283; S13,§§2283, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3587; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §230.7; 60GA, ch 147,§6]

When a dispute arises between different counties or between the board of control and a county as to the legal settlement of a person admitted or committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill, the attorney general, at the request of the board of control, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness, and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of admission or commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said mentally ill person shall be maintained in the hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3594; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§230.14; 60GA, ch 147,§11]

231.14 Interstate juvenile compacts. The state of Iowa through its courts and agencies is hereby authorized to enter into interstate compacts on juveniles in behalf of this state with any other contracting state which legally joins therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I—FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The co-operation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to

1. co-operative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole;

2. the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded;

3. the return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and

4. additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake co-operatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to co-operate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II—EXISTING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III—DEFINITIONS

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV—RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

a. That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding ninety days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this com-compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

Referred to in Art. VI

b. That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, VIII b

c. That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V—RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABSCONDERS

Referred to in Art. XIV b, XIV d

a. That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding ninety days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

Referred to in Art. VI

b. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, VIII b

ARTICLE VI—VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV "a" or of Article V "a", may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII

CO-OPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES

Referred to in Art. XIV d

a. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

b. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

c. That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

d. That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, VIII b

ARTICLE VIII—RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

a. That the provisions of Articles IV "b", V "b" and VII "d" of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

b. That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV "b", V "b" or VII "d" of this compact.

ARTICLE IX—DETENTION PRACTICES

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X—SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall

1. provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished;
2. provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody;
3. provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile;
4. provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state;
5. provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state;
6. provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and
7. make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the co-operating states.

ARTICLE XI—ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII—COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII—EXECUTION OF COMPACT

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV—RENUNCIATION

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

Out-of-State Confinement Amendment

a. Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a sending state shall determine that confinement of a probationer or reconfinement of a parolee is necessary or desirable, said officials may direct that the confinement or reconfinement be in an appropriate institution for delinquent juveniles within the territory of the receiving state, such receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

b. Escapees and absconders who would otherwise be returned pursuant to Article V of the compact may be confined or reconfinement in the receiving state pursuant to this amendment. In any such case the information and allegations required to be made and furnished in a requisition pursuant to such Article shall be made and furnished, but in place of the demand pursuant to Article V, the sending state shall request confinement or reconfinement in the receiving state. Whenever applicable, detention orders as provided in Article V may be employed pursuant to this paragraph preliminary to disposition of the escapee or absconder.

c. The confinement or reconfinement of a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder pursuant to this amendment shall require the concurrence of the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the receiving state.

d. As used in this amendment: (1) "sending state" means sending state as that term is used in Article VII of the compact or the state from which a delinquent juvenile has escaped or absconded within the meaning of Article V of the compact; (2) "receiving state" means any state, other than the sending state, in which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be found, provided that said state is a party to this amendment.

e. Every state which adopts this amendment shall designate at least one of its institutions for delinquent juveniles as a "Compact Institution" and shall confine persons therein as provided in paragraph "a" hereof unless the sending and receiving state in question shall make specific contractual arrangements to the contrary. All states party to this amendment shall have access to "Compact Institutions" at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and for the purpose of visiting such of said state's delinquents as may be confined in the institution.

f. Persons confined in "Compact Institutions" pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed from said "Compact Institution" for transfer to an appropriate institution within the sending state, for return to probation or parole, for discharge or for any purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state.

g. All persons who may be confined in a "Compact Institution" pursuant to the provisions of this amendment shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner. The fact of confinement or reconfinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any person so confined or reconfined of any rights which said person would have had if confined or reconfined in an appropriate institution of the sending state; nor shall any agreement to submit to confinement or reconfinement pursuant to the terms of this amendment be construed as a waiver of any rights which the delinquent would have had if he had been confined or reconfined in any appropriate institution of the sending state except that the hearing or hearings, if any, to which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be entitled (prior to confinement or reconfinement) by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate judicial or administrative officers of the receiving state. In this event, said judicial and administrative officers shall act as agents of the sending state after consultation with appropriate officers of the sending state.

h. Any receiving state incurring costs or other expenses under this amendment shall be reimbursed in the amount of such costs or other expenses by the sending state unless the states concerned shall specifically otherwise agree. Any two or more states party to this amendment may enter into supplementary agreements determining a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

i. This amendment shall take initial effect when entered into by any two or more states party to the compact and shall be effective as to those states which have specifically enacted this amendment. Rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the terms of this amendment may be promulgated by the appropriate officers of those states which have enacted this amendment. [C62,§231.14; 61GA, ch 214,§1]

231.15 Confinement of delinquent juvenile. In addition to any institution in which the authorities of this state may otherwise confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile, such authorities may, pursuant to the out-of-state confinement amendment to the interstate compact on juveniles, confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile in a compact institution within another party state. [61GA, ch 214,§2]

232.3 Information—investigation—petition.

Whenever the court is informed that a child is in a state of neglect, dependency, or delinquency, the court shall make a preliminary investigation of the facts to determine whether the interests of the public or of the minor require that he or she be brought under the jurisdiction of the court. After the completion of the investigation, and if the court believes, in its discretion, that the child may be neglected, dependent, or delinquent the court shall direct the county attorney or probation officer to file a petition with the clerk of court. If the facts pleaded are admitted by the minor and consent is obtained from the parents, or guardian of the minor, the court may make whatever informed adjustment is practical without holding a formal hearing. Efforts to affect informal adjustment may be continued not longer than three months without review by the judge.

The petition and subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In the interest of, a child." The petition shall be verified and any statements may be made upon information and belief. The petition shall set forth plainly:

take the child into custody immediately. [SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.14; 61GA, ch 215, §8]

Referred to in §232.45

232.10 Contempt. If any person personally served with a summons or subpoena fails without reasonable cause to appear or to bring the child, the person may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person or both. When it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual or that the welfare of the child will require that the child be brought forthwith into the custody of the court, the court may issue a warrant for the child. [SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3627, 3628; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.11, 232.12; 61GA, ch 215, §11]

When it appears during the course of any trial, hearing, or proceeding that some action or remedy other than or in addition to those indicated by the application or pleadings appears appropriate, the court may, provided all necessary parties consent, proceed to hear and determine the additional or other issues as though originally properly sought and pleaded. [61GA, ch 215, §13]

232.13 Examination of child. The court may order that a child for whom a petition has been filed shall be examined by a physician, surgeon, psychiatrist, or psychologist and may order treatment by them of a child who has been adjudicated by the court. The court may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility for such examination or treatment. [61GA, ch 215, §14]

232.14 Report of social investigation. No decree other than discharge shall be entered until a written report of a social investigation by an officer of the court has been presented to and considered by the judge. Where the allegations of the petition are denied by the child or his parents, guardian, or custodian by written denial filed not later than two days excluding Sundays and holidays after service of summons as required in section 232.4 or at the time the parties appear voluntarily, the investigation shall not be made until after the allegations have been established at a hearing. 4. By a peace officer or probation or parole officer when it is reasonably believed that the child has violated the terms of his probation, parole, or other official supervision.

The taking of a child into custody under the provisions of this section shall not be considered an arrest. [SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.14; 61GA, ch 215, §16]

The parents, guardian, or custodian of the child shall be notified of the place of detention as soon as possible. 2. "State board" means the state board of social welfare provided for in section 234.3.

3. "County board" means the county board of social welfare provided for in section 234.9.

4. A "dependent child" means a needy child under the age of sixteen years, or under the age of twenty years and a student regularly attending a high school in pursuance of a course of study leading to a high school diploma or its equivalent, or regularly attending a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment, who has been deprived of parental support and care by reason of death, continued absence from home, or physical or mental incapacity or unfitness of either parent, and who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle or aunt, in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their home or has been placed in a licensed foster home or with a public or nonprofit child-care agency by the state or county department of social welfare in lieu of living with any relative designated in this subsection.

Referred to in §§239.2, subsection 1, 239.5

5. "Assistance" means money payments to, or in behalf of, a needy, dependent child or children.

6. "Recipient" is the person to whom the assistance grant is made. [C39, §§3661.002, 3661.016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.1; 61GA, ch 218, §1, ch 219, §1]

Referred to in §§239.2, subsection 1, 239.5

239.2 Eligibility for aid to dependent children. Assistance shall be granted under this chapter to any needy dependent child who:

1. Is living in a suitable family home maintained by one or more of the persons referred to in subsection 4 of section 239.1 or has been placed in a foster home or with a public nonprofit agency referred to in such subsection if the placement resulted from judicial proceedings initiated in or for a month such child was receiving aid to dependent children's assistance and provided the plan of care includes services designated to improve the conditions of the home from which he was removed.

2. Has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the application for such assistance; or was born within the state within one year immediately preceding the application, if the mother has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the birth of said child, without regard to the residence of the person or persons with whom said child is living.

3. Is not in a public institution and because of a physical or mental condition, in need of continued care therein. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.2; 61GA, ch 218,§2]

239.3 Application for assistance. Application for assistance under this chapter shall be made to the county board of the county in which the dependent child resides or will reside in the event assistance is granted. The application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the state board. Such application shall be made by an adult person with whom the dependent child resides or will reside, and shall contain such information as may be required by said application form. One application may be made for several children of the same family if they reside or will reside with the same person. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.3]

239.4 Investigation of application. Whenever a county board receives a notification of the dependency of a child or an application for assistance, an investigation and record of the circumstances shall promptly be made in order to ascertain the dependency of the child and the facts supporting the application.

The investigations shall include visits to the home of the child and of the person with whom the child will live during the time assistance is granted.

In cases involving physical or mental incapacity or unfitness of either parent, the county board of social welfare may require as a condition for granting assistance hereunder that such incapacity or unfitness be determined by a board of doctors which shall be selected by the county board of social welfare. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§239.4]

239.5 Granting of assistance and amount of assistance—co-operation of parent. Upon the completion of an investigation the county board shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and determine the amount of such assistance. The county board shall, within thirty days, notify the person with whom the child is living or will be living, of the decision made. The county board may require, as a condition of granting assistance, that a legal guardianship be established over any recipient, or any child or children and in such cases the assistance payments shall be made to such guardian, when appointed, but a guardian of a child or children only shall not be allowed to receive any assistance payments for any dependent child or children unless such guardian shall bear a relationship to the child or children embraced by subsection 4, section 239.1. In addition to the assistance granted as provided under this chapter, an amount not to exceed ten dollars per case per month may be allowed for guardian's fees when authorized by appropriate court order. The dependent child for whom the grant is made shall be originally charged to the county in which such child resides when application is made.

The county board shall, on the basis of actual need, fix the amount of assistance necessary for any dependent child, subject to the approval of the state department, with due regard to the necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case, taking into consideration any other income or resources of any child claiming assistance under this chapter and any private resources found to be available to such child. Such assistance when granted shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health; provided, however, that no family shall receive a grant hereunder in excess of one hundred seventy-five dollars per month. Assistance, when granted, shall be paid monthly to an adult person within the specified degrees of relationship and with whom the child is living, from the fund for aid to dependent children established by this chapter, upon the order of the state department.

No payment for aid to dependent children shall be made unless and until the county board of social welfare, with the advice of the county attorney shall certify that the parent receiving the aid for the children is cooperating in legal actions and other efforts to obtain support money for said children from the persons legally responsible for said support. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§239.5]

See Collins v. Board, 248 Iowa 369

239.6 Periodic reconsideration, changes, and termination of grants. Any or all assistance grants made under this chapter shall be subject to reconsideration at any time the county board deems necessary and shall be reinvestigated and reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required. After any such further investigation, the county board shall make further report to the state department. Upon such report, assistance may be continued, renewed, suspended, changed in amount, or entirely withdrawn, as the findings of such reports warrant. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§239.6]

239.7 Appeal. If an application is not acted upon by the county board or the state department within a reasonable time after such application is made, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended, or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such appeal, give appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled or modified, after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision. The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.7]

239.8 Removal from county. When any child for whose benefit a grant of assistance has been made removes or is removed from the county giving assistance, it shall be the duty of the recipient to immediately notify the county board of the county giving assistance of the fact of such removal and of the city or town (or the nearest city or town) and of the county to which the child has removed. If the removal is into another county in the state, the county which has been giving assistance shall continue the assistance for a period of six months after the date of removal, but if the removal is out of the state, assistance shall immediately cease. Thereafter any assistance can be granted only in the manner provided for herein as to obtaining assistance, and can be only in and from the county in which the child is then living. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.8]

239.9 Funeral expenses. Upon the death of any child for whose benefit assistance payments are being made or have been authorized, a reasonable funeral expense for the burial of such child may be paid by the state department, provided such expenses do not exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars, and the estate of the deceased or any life insurance or payments by any death or funeral benefit association or society paid by reason of the death of such child to the child's estate or to any person legally liable for his support, are insufficient to defray such funeral expenses. The person to whom such funeral expenses are paid as above provided is hereby prohibited from soliciting, accepting, or contracting to receive any further compensation for services rendered or articles furnished in connection with such funeral except on written approval of the county board of the county to which the assistance is chargeable and subject to such rules and regulations as the state board shall prescribe. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.9]

239.10 Records—report of recipients. All applications, investigation reports and case records shall be privileged communications and held confidential, subject to use and inspection only by persons authorized by law in connection with their official duties relating to financial audits and the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

Provided, however, that the county board of social welfare shall prepare and file in its office on or before the thirtieth day of each January, April, July and October a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients receiving assistance under this chapter, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding quarter. Each report so filed shall be securely fixed in a record book to be used only for such reports made under this chapter and chapters 241 and 249. The record book shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a public record, open to public inspection at all times during the regular office hours of the respective county boards of social welfare. Each person who desires to examine said records, other than in pursuance of official duties as hereinbefore provided, shall sign a written request to examine the same, which shall contain an agreement on the part of the signer that he will not utilize any information gained therefrom for commercial or political purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person, body, association, firm, corporation or any other agency to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists, names or other information obtained from the reports above provided for, for commercial or political purposes, and a violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.10]

239.11 County appropriations. The county board of supervisors in each county in this state shall appropriate annually, and pay in the manner hereinafter specified from the county poor fund, such sum as shall result in the payment by such county of that portion of all assistance and benefits payable with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county under this chapter, which shall equal one-half of all such assistance and benefits chargeable to the county exclusive of such receipts and contributions to such fund other than state or county funds, as may from time to time be legally received from any source and credited to the state department and shall include in the tax levy for such county the sum or sums so appropriated for that purpose. The sums necessary as above provided shall be originally determined upon the basis of an annual budget prepared by the county board and approved by the state department. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for which it was appropriated, such additional sum shall be appropriated by the board of supervisors from the county poor fund as shall be sufficient to meet the obligation of the county to pay its share as heretofore provided of all assistance and benefits with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county. The appropriation provided in this section shall not exceed statutory tax limitations now or hereafter provided, except that in counties having a population of sixty thousand, or more, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-fourth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter; and in counties having a population of over thirty-five thousand and less than sixty thousand, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-eighth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

The share of any county for assistance and benefits payable to dependent Indian children living on an Indian reservation in said county shall be paid by the state, from the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.11]

239.12 Fund for aid to dependent children—reimbursement to state. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "Fund for Aid to Dependent Children" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of administrative expenses, assistance and benefits under this chapter, all moneys received at any time for such purposes, and all funds paid by counties to the state department as provided by this chapter. All assistance and benefits under this chapter, and the administrative expenses incident thereto, except compensation and expenses paid to the county board members, shall be paid from said fund. The state department shall report to the county board quarterly the total amount of assistance and benefits paid during the preceding quarter to recipients chargeable to the county. The county board shall promptly report the same to the county board of supervisors which shall then order paid from the county poor fund a sum representing the county's share thereof determined in the manner heretofore provided, which payment shall be credited to the fund for aid to dependent children.

Any unexpended balance of the fund appropriated or allocated by the state which remains in the fund for aid to dependent children at the end of each biennium shall not revert to the general fund of the state, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.12]

ferable or assignable at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under this chapter shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.13]

239.14 Fraudulent acts. Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation, or any fraudulent device, any assistance under this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.14]

239.15 Grant accepted without condition. No contribution or grant shall be received or accepted if any condition is attached as to its use or administration other than that it be used for assistance to dependent children as provided in this chapter.

If any contribution or grant has been accepted, and thereafter the same is discontinued or rejected, the county tax levy for the purpose of this chapter shall not be increased more than one-half mill and the state appropriation shall not be increased more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars in any one fiscal year by reason of such discontinuance or rejection of any such contribution or grant. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.15]

239.16 Merit rating for employees. The selection of all persons as employees of the state board in the administration of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of section 234.8. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.16]

239.17 Recovery of assistance obtained by fraudulent act. Whosoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation or any fraudulent device, any assistance as defined in this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be personally liable for the amount of assistance thus obtained. Such amount may be recovered from the offender or his estate in an action brought or by claim filed in the name of the state, and upon recovery the state shall pay the county a portion thereof equal to the amount paid by the county with respect to such assistance and return the balance of such recovery to the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §239.17]

239.18 State control exclusive. Questions of policy and control respecting administration of this chapter shall vest and remain in the state agency of the state of Iowa for the purposes of administering all provisions of this chapter. In order to provide a uniform statewide program for aid to dependent children, the state board shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to make the provisions of this chapter uniform in all of the counties of this state. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§239.18]

241.6 Application for assistance. Application for assistance under this chapter shall be filed with the county board of the county in which the applicant resides. The application shall be in writing upon the form prescribed by the state board. Such application shall contain a statement of the amount of property, both personal and real, in which the applicant has an interest and of all sources and amounts of income which he may have, either in existence or expectancy, at the time of the filing of the application, and such other information as may be required by the state board. [SS15, §2722-n; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5382; C39,§3684.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.6]

241.7 Investigation of applications. Whenever the county board receives an application for assistance under this chapter, an investigation and record shall promptly be made of the circumstances of the applicant in order to ascertain the facts supporting the application and in order to obtain such other information as may be required by the rules of the state board. Referred to in §241.14

241.9 Granting of assistance. Upon the completion of such investigation the county board shall make findings of fact as to the eligibility of the applicant for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and shall recommend in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state board the amount of assistance which should be granted. This report, together with a copy of the report of the ophthalmologist, shall be forwarded to the state board. The state board may make such further investigation as it may deem desirable and, upon the basis of such reports and investigation, shall determine whether the applicant is eligible for assistance under the terms of this chapter, and, if eligible, the amount of such assistance and the date on which such assistance shall begin. The state board shall notify the county board of its decision, and the county board shall promptly notify the applicant thereof. Such assistance shall be paid monthly to the applicant upon the order of the state board, from the fund for the aid of the blind established by this chapter. [SS15, §2722-p; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5384; C39,§3684.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.9]

241.10 Assistance not assignable. Assistance granted under this chapter shall not be transferable or assignable at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under this chapter shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law. [C39,§3684.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.10]

241.11 Appeal to the state board—appeal to court. If an application is not acted upon by the county board within a reasonable time after the filing of the application, or is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board in the manner of form prescribed by the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such an appeal, give the applicant or recipient reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives. Following such hearing the state board shall take its final action and notify the appellant in writing.

An applicant or recipient after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision. The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C39,§3684.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.11]

241.12 Periodic reconsideration—changes in amount of assistance. All assistance grants made under this chapter shall be reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required by the rules of the state board. After such further investigation as the county board may deem necessary or the state board may require, the county board shall make further report to the state board and the amount of assistance may be changed or assistance may be entirely withdrawn if the state board finds that the recipient's circumstances have altered sufficiently to warrant such action. [C39, §3684.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.12]

241.13 Re-examination as to eyesight. A recipient shall submit to a re-examination as to his eyesight when required to do so by the county board or state board. He shall also furnish any information required by the county board or the state board. [C39,§3684.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.13]

ination as provided in section 241.8, remedial services may be provided by the state board to any person who is in need of treatment either to prevent blindness or to restore his eyesight, whether or not he is a blind person as defined in this chapter, whether or not he is an applicant for or recipient of old-age assistance or blind assistance, or whether or not he is eighteen years of age or over, if he is otherwise qualified for assistance under this chapter, provided such person is unable to assume such expenses for remedial services. The remedial services may include necessary traveling and other expenses to receive treatment from a hospital or clinic designated by the state board. [C39,§3684.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.14]

241.15 Guardianship. When in the opinion of the county board the recipient of assistance under the provisions of this chapter is for any cause unable to use the assistance judiciously, the county board shall request the district court to appoint a guardian to administer such assistance for the benefit of the recipient. All guardianship proceedings in the case of an applicant or recipient shall be carried out without fee or other expense including all court costs when, in the opinion of the court, the blind person is unable to assume said expense. At the discretion of the court, such a guardian may give bond without sureties. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§5384; C39,§3684.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.15]

241.16 Recovery from recipient. If at any time during the continuance of assistance the recipient thereof becomes possessed of any property or income in excess of the amount stated in the application provided for in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the recipient immediately to notify the county board of the receipt or possession of such property or income and the county board shall, if in its judgment the circumstances so require, recommend to the state board the immediate suspension of assistance payments and, after investigation, shall recommend to the state board that such assistance be continued, modified, or canceled, as the circumstances may require. Any assistance paid after the recipient has come into possession of such property or income in excess of his need shall be recoverable by the state as a debt due, and upon recovery the state shall repay to the county that portion of the amount so recovered which is equal to the amount paid by the county for such assistance. [C39,§3684.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.16]

241.17 Funeral expenses. On the death of any person receiving aid under the provisions of this chapter, the reasonable funeral expenses for his burial may be paid by the state board; provided, such expenses do not exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars and the estate of the deceased or any life insurance or death or funeral benefit association or society payment, made by reason of the death of such person, payable to his estate or the spouse or any relative responsible under sections 252.2, 252.5, and 600.6, is insufficient to defray the same. The person to whom such funeral expense is paid as above provided is hereby prohibited from soliciting, accepting or contracting to receive any further compensation for services rendered in connection with such burial except on written approval of the county board and subject to such rules and regulations as the state board shall prescribe. [C39,§3684.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.17]

241.18 Reimbursement from estate. Whenever it appears, after the death of any person who has received aid under the provisions of this chapter, that his estate, after deducting the exemptions now allowed by law, has property over and above a sufficient amount to pay the expenses of his burial and last sickness, such property shall be charged with the amount paid under this chapter to such person during his lifetime, or for his burial. The amount so paid shall be allowed as a claim against his estate in favor of the state, and upon recovery the state shall repay to the county its proportionate share of the amount paid for such assistance and funeral expenses. An action may be brought in the name of the state to recover the same at any time within five years after the death of the person receiving aid as above provided. [C27, 31, 35,§5384-a1; C39,§3684.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.18]

241.19 Misdemeanor. Any person who shall obtain aid under this chapter by misrepresentation or failure with fraudulent intent, to bring forth all the facts required of an applicant for aid under the provisions of this chapter, or any person who shall knowingly make false statements concerning the applicant's eligibility for aid under the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable as such. [C39,§3684.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.19]

Punishment, §687.7

241.20 County appropriation. The county board of supervisors in each county in this state shall appropriate annually, and pay in the manner hereinafter specified from the county poor fund, such sum as will result in the payment by such county of that portion of all assistance and benefits payable with respect to blind persons chargeable to the county under this chapter, which shall equal one-half of all such assistance and benefits chargeable to the county exclusive of such receipts and contributions to such fund other than state or county funds as may from time to time be legally received from any source and credited to the state department and shall include in the tax levy for such county the sum or sums so appropriated for that purpose. The sums necessary as above provided shall be originally determined upon the basis of an annual budget prepared by the county board and approved by the state department. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for which it was appropriated, such additional sums shall be appropriated by the board of supervisors from the county poor funds as shall be sufficient to meet the obligations of the county to pay its share as heretofore provided of all assistance and benefits with respect to blind persons chargeable to the county. The tax levy provided for in this section shall not exceed statutory tax limitations now or hereafter provided. [C39,§3684.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §241.20; 60GA, ch 155,§1]

241.21 Fund for aid to the blind—reimbursement to state. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "Fund for Aid to the Blind" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of administrative expenses, assistance, and benefits under this chapter, all moneys received from the federal government for such purpose and all funds paid by the counties to the state board as provided by this section. All assistance and benefits under this chapter, and the administrative expenses incident thereto, so far as the same are payable by the state board, shall be paid from said fund. The state board shall report to the county board each month the total amount of assistance and benefits paid during the preceding month to recipients which is chargeable to the county. The county board shall promptly report the same to the county board of supervisors which shall then order paid from the county poor fund a sum representing the county's share thereof determined in the manner heretofore provided, which payment shall be credited to the fund for aid to the blind.

Any unexpended balance of the funds appropriated or allocated by the state which remains in the fund for aid to the blind at the end of each biennium shall not revert to the general fund of the state, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [C39,§3684.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.21; 60GA, ch 155,§2]

241.22 Removal to another county. When any recipient moves to another county he shall be entitled to continue to receive assistance which shall be chargeable to the county from which he has removed until such recipient has resided in another county in the state for a period of six consecutive months, at which time assistance shall be charged to the county in which he then resides. [C39,§3684.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.22]

241.23 Other dependents. This chapter shall not be so construed as to exclude the spouse, minor children or other dependents of a recipient under the provisions of this chapter from receiving other forms of relief, aid or assistance, paid through any agency of the state or any of its political subdivisions. [C39, §3684.23; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.23]

Constitutionality, 47GA, ch 144,§25

241.24 Short title. This chapter may be cited as "Aid to the Needy Blind Act of 1937." [C39,§3684.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§241.24]

241.25 Records—report of recipients. All applications, investigation reports and case records shall be privileged communications and held confidential, subject to use and inspection only by persons authorized by law in connection with their official duties relating to financial audits and the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

Provided, however, that the county board of social welfare shall prepare and file in its office on or before the thirtieth day of each January, April, July and October a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients receiving assistance under this chapter, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding quarter. Each report so filed shall be securely fixed in a record book to be used only for such reports made under this chapter and chapters 239 and 249. The record book shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a public record, open to public inspection at all times during the regular office hours of the respective county boards of social welfare. Each person who desires to examine said records, other than in pursuance of official duties as hereinbefore provided, shall sign a written request to examine the same, which shall contain an agreement on the part of the signer that he will not utilize any information gained therefrom for commercial or political purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person, body, association, firm, corporation, or any other agency to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists, names or other information obtained from the reports above provided for, for commercial or political purposes, and a violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. If an application is not acted upon promptly and assistance granted by the state department of social welfare, or is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended or canceled under any provision of this chapter, an applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board in the manner and on forms prescribed by the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such appeal, give the applicant or recipient reasonable notice of, and opportunity for, a fair hearing before the state board, or its duly authorized representative.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled or modified after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten-day notice of such appeal upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision. The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C62, §241A.8]

241A.9 Guardians. When, in the opinion of the county board, a recipient of or applicant for assistance under the provisions of this chapter is unable to use his assistance judiciously, the county board shall request the district court to appoint a guardian to administer such assistance for the benefit of the recipient. [C62,§241A.10]

241A.11 Funeral expense. On the death of any person who has been approved for assistance under this chapter, such reasonable funeral expenses shall be paid from the aid to the disabled fund, to such person as the county board directs, in an amount of not to exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars, provided:

1. That the total expense of such funeral does not exceed three hundred fifty dollars.

4. That in the event the total funeral expenses exceed the department's liability of one hundred seventy-five dollars, as provided under subsections 1, 2, and 3 above, the additional expenses shall accrue only when there is an extraordinary expense or when the family or next best friend of the decedent specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault. Provided that said additional expense shall not be paid by the state. However, if the county board directs that a burial lot, grave opening, or clothing be furnished for the decedent, the expense thereof shall be paid by the state in a total amount not to exceed fifty dollars, to such person or persons as the county board directs, and such expense shall be allowed in addition to the one hundred seventy-five dollars limit provided in this section, provided further, however, that in such cases no extraordinary expenses shall be permitted nor will the family or next best friend be permitted to specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault. The sums necessary, as above provided, shall be originally determined upon the basis of an annual budget prepared by the county board. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for which it was appropriated, such additional sum shall be appropriated by the board of supervisors from the county poor fund, as shall be sufficient to meet the obligation of the county to pay its share, as heretofore provided, of all assistance and benefits with respect to disabled persons chargeable to the county. The appropriation provided for in this section shall not exceed the statutory tax limitations now or hereinafter provided, except that in counties having a population of sixty thousand or more, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-fourth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter; and in counties having a population of over thirty-five thousand and less than sixty thousand, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-eighth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Funds appropriated under this section shall be used exclusively for the purpose stated above.

The share of any county for assistance and benefits payable to the dependent Indian who is disabled, and living on an Indian reservation in said county, shall be paid by the state from the fund for the disabled. [C62,§241A.13]

241A.14 Disabled aid fund. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "Fund for Aid to the Disabled" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of administration expenses, assistance and benefits under this chapter, all moneys received from the federal government for such purposes, and all funds paid by the counties to the state board as provided by this chapter. All assistance, benefits and administration expense shall be paid from said fund by the state board. The state department shall report to the county board each month the total amount of assistance and benefits paid during the preceding month with respect to recipients chargeable to the county. One member shall be a practicing attorney at law at the time of his appointment. Each member shall serve for six years from July 1 of the year of his appointment, except appointees to fill vacancies who shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term. The chairman of the board shall be the member whose term first expires. [S13,§5718-a14; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3782; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.1]

247.2 Appointment—vacancies. The governor shall, during each regular session of the general assembly and within sixty days after the convening thereof, appoint, with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate, a successor to that member of the board whose term will expire on July 1 following. Appointments may be made when the general assembly is not in session, to fill vacancies, but such appointments shall be subject to the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate when next in session. Vacancies occurring during a session of the general assembly shall be filled as regular appointments are made and before the end of said session, and for the unexpired portion of the regular term. [S13,§5718-a14; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3783; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.2; 61GA, ch 68,§11(1, 2)]

Each member of the board, the secretary, and all other employees shall, in addition to salary, be entitled to receive their necessary traveling expenses by the nearest traveled route while engaged in official business. [S13,§5718-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3784; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.3]

247.4 Trips to other states. No traveling expenses to other states shall be allowed unless the trip is authorized by the board by a written resolution which shall state the purpose and declare the necessity for the trip prior to the actual making thereof, but emergency trips may be made on written order of the chairman which shall be reported to the board at its next meeting. [S13,§5718-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3785; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.4]

247.5 Power to parole after commitment—detainers. The board of parole shall, except as to prisoners serving life terms, or under sentence of death, or infected with venereal disease in communicable stage, have power to parole persons convicted of crime and committed to either the penitentiary or the men's or women's reformatory; provided, however, after any person has served fifteen years of a life term, the board of parole shall review the case and interview personally all such persons and make such recommendations as they see fit to the governor, and shall make similar interviews in each such case at least every three years thereafter.

The parole may be to a place outside the state when the board of parole shall determine it to be to the best interest of the state and the prisoner, under such rules and regulations as the board of parole may impose.

Prisoners against whom detainers have been filed, may, after serving a portion of their sentence, be released by parole to the institution or authorities filing the detainer.

Any detainer filed against a prisoner must within six months be supported by a grand jury indictment or county attorney's information. In the event such indictment is returned or information is filed, the prisoner shall have the right to demand immediate trial at the next term of court where the charge is filed. The prosecuting agency shall pay all costs of transportation, necessary expenses incurred by the prisoner and such guards and other safety measures as the warden shall deem necessary for the prisoner to appear at his trial.

In the event a detainer is not supported within six months by a county attorney's information or grand jury indictment, or in the event the prosecuting agency refuses or fails to give the prisoner immediate trial, or refuses or fails to furnish transportation and pay all other necessary and related costs incident to the prisoner appearing at his trial, the detainer shall be held to be invalid and the parole board shall disregard such detainer in considering a prisoner for parole.

The board may also terminate or discharge a parole granted by it from the penitentiary or men's or women's reformatory or placed under its supervision by the district court at any time and at its sole discretion whenever it is satisfied that satisfactory evidence has been given that society will not suffer thereby. Said discharge shall relieve the parolee from further liability under his sentence. [S13,§5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3786; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §247.5]

Said board may render assistance to prisoners about to be paroled in procuring employment and the necessary expense incident thereto shall be paid as other expenses of the board are paid. [S13,§5718-a18,-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3789; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.8]

During such time as the United States is at war the board of parole may relinquish the legal custody of a paroled prisoner to a military or naval authority for the period of service by the prisoner in the armed forces of the United States. Said board shall have power to make any investigation which it may deem necessary in order to determine the facts relative to matters coming before it, but shall not receive, unsolicited by them, any petition or communication or argument in regard to application for parole, pardon, or discharge unless provided for in their adopted rules. Every public officer to whom inquiry may be addressed by the board of parole concerning any prisoner shall give said board all information possessed by or accessible to him which may throw light upon the question of the fitness of a prisoner to receive the benefits of parole. [S13,§§5718-a19,-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3793; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§247.13]

1. Co-operate with the federal social security board, created by title VII of the Social Security Act, Public Law No. 271, enacted by the 74th Congress of the United States and approved August 14, 1935 [42 U.S.C. 901], in such reasonable manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid for old-age assistance, includ-

3. Is a citizen of the United States or has been a continuous resident of the United States for at least twenty-five years.

4. Has a domicile in this state and has had such domicile continuously for at least nine years immediately preceding the date of application, but such domicile shall not be deemed continuous if interrupted by periods of absence totaling more than four years, except as otherwise provided elsewhere in this chapter; or has had at least five years residence in the state during the nine years immediately preceding the date of application, one of said five years having been continuous and immediately preceding such date. Furthermore, absence from the state in the service of the state or the United States shall not be deemed to have interrupted such continuous residence, if domicile has not been acquired outside the state.

5. Is not at the date of making claim or receiving assistance, an inmate of any prison, jail, mental hospital, or any other public reform or correctional institution.

6. Has not deserted his wife, if a husband, or, without just cause failed to support her and his children under the age of fifteen years, for a period of six months or more during the ten years preceding the date of application; has not deserted her husband, if a wife, or without just cause failed to support such of her children as were under the age of fifteen years, during the period set out above.

249.7 Amount of assistance. The amount of assistance shall be fixed with due regard to the condition of the individual, including all resources available to the applicant or recipient, household situation and community in each instance, together with the essential need due to the individual's mental and/or physical condition, subject to the rules, regulations, and standards adopted by the state board. [C35, §5296-f10; C39,§§3828.009; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.7]

[C35,§5296-f11; C39,§§3828.010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.8]

4. Cash, real property, or marketable securities of such value not to exceed four hundred fifty dollars for a single person or eight hundred dollars if married and not separated from the spouse. However, if an applicant is possessed with an excess of the foregoing and if at the discretion of the state department immediate sale, for cash, of such securities or investments necessitates an undue financial sacrifice, the applicant, when in immediate need of assistance, shall assign such securities and investments to the state to be held in trust by the state board to reimburse the old-age assistance revolving fund for the amount paid from the old-age assistance fund and the old-age assistance revolving fund in assistance or other benefits in behalf of said applicant.

5. Life insurance having a cash surrender value not in excess of five hundred dollars for a single person or one thousand dollars if married and not separated from the spouse; provided that the person enters into a written agreement with the state department that he will not surrender the life insurance for its cash value, assign the insurance contract or its proceeds, or change the beneficiary under the insurance contract unless he obtains the consent of the state department.

6. No person shall be allowed assistance if the claimant has transferred real property or interests in the property within five years prior to application without receiving adequate monetary consideration, or has assigned or transferred real or personal property in order to qualify for assistance, or if the claimant or the husband or wife conveys or encumbers any real estate or other property owned by either or both of them for the purpose of preventing the state from reimbursing itself for assistance granted or to be granted hereunder. [C35, §5296-f13; C39, §3828.012; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.9; 61GA, ch 224, §1]

249.10 Applicants. An applicant for assistance shall deliver his claim, in writing, to the board of the county in which he resides, in the manner and form prescribed by the state board.

249.11 Procedure with application. When an application is made for old-age assistance, the county board shall promptly send it to the state department. Within sixty days, the county board shall make an investigation of the applicant's claim through an investigator, and make, in addition, such direct investigation as it deems advisable. After hearing the applicant, if he so requests, if it approves the claim, the county board shall make a recommendation of the amount of assistance to be allowed; or, if it disapprove, make a recommendation that no assistance be allowed. Within ninety days from the date of the application, the county board shall send its recommendation and the reason for such recommendation to the state department with such supporting papers as the state board may require, unless for reasons beyond the county board's control which reasons shall be reported.

Upon receipt of the application and supporting papers, the state department may make such additional investigation as it deems necessary. Should the state department disagree with the county board in the latter's recommendation regarding eligibility it shall neither approve nor disapprove said application without a further review to clarify the points of disagreement between the county board and state department. In any event, the state department shall make its decision within sixty days of the receipt of the supporting papers, properly prepared and executed, and either approve and fix an amount of assistance or reject the claim of the applicant; and shall give written notice to the applicant as to the action taken.

If an application is not acted upon by the county board within ninety days after the filing of the application, or is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board in the manner and form prescribed by the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such an appeal, give the applicant or recipient reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives. Following such hearing the state board shall take its final action and notify the applicant in writing.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled, after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon the state department or upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision.

The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C35, §5296-f18; C39,§3828.014; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.11]

Referred to in §249.16
Service of original notice, R.C.P. 56(a)

249.12 Witnesses. For the purpose of any such investigation, the state board and the county board shall have the power to compel, by subpoena, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers. All witnesses shall be examined on oath, and any member of the state board or of the county board may administer said oath. The costs incurred in connection with any such hearing or examination shall be paid by the state board or county board, whichever issues the subpoenas; and the witnesses shall be entitled to claim a two-dollar fee and mileage expense at a rate of five cents per mile, except that responsible relatives as defined in sections 252.2, 252.5 and 600.6 shall not be entitled to claim witness fees and mileage expense. [C35, §5296-f19; C39,§3828.015; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.12]

249.13 Assistance certificate. The state department shall issue to each applicant to whom assistance is allowed a certificate stating the amount of each installment, which may be monthly or quarterly, as the state department may decide; and, on written order of the state department, the state comptroller shall issue his warrant, or warrant check to be forwarded by the state department, to such recipient in payment of each installment. The amount of assistance granted under this chapter shall be subject to review at any time by the state department and the amount received by the recipient may be increased, decreased, or discontinued. [C35,§5296-f20; C39, §3828.016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.13]

249.14 Fingerprint indorsement. Whenever the payee of an old-age assistance warrant is unable to indorse said warrant in writing as his name appears on the face of said warrant, the indorsement shall be made by the payee's fingerprint, which act shall be witnessed by at least two persons who shall sign as witnesses, also giving their address. [C39,§3828.017; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.14]

249.15 Renewal of certificate. The general provisions as to the eligibility of applicants for assistance shall apply to recipients whose certificates are subject to review for the issuance of renewal certificates of assistance, with the following exceptions as to residence:

Provided, that he does not establish a domicile outside this state, a person may, while receiving assistance and with the approval of the state department, retain his rights under the provisions of this chapter and section, even though he takes up residence outside the state in the household of a relative or friend for reasons of the infirmities of age, health or economic necessity. [C35,§5296-f21; C39,§3828.018; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.15]

249.16 Assistance certificate improperly obtained. If at any time the state department has reason to believe that an assistance certificate has been improperly obtained, it shall cause special inquiry to be made by the board, and may suspend payment of any installment pending the inquiry. It shall also notify the board of such suspension and it shall also promptly notify the recipient in writing of such suspension stating in such notice the reason for such suspension and such recipient shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided by section 249.11, to show cause why such suspension should not be made permanent. If on inquiry it appears that the certificate was improperly obtained, it shall be canceled by the state department, but if it appears that the certificate was properly obtained, the suspended installments shall be payable in due course. [C35, §5296-f30; C39,§3828.019; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.16]

249.17 When assistance commences. The assistance, if allowed, shall commence on the date named in the certificate, which shall be the day fixed by the state board for payments to recipients in the county from which the applicant applied and within the calendar month following that on which the application is approved by the state department. [C35,§5296-f22; C39,§3828.020; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.17]

249.18 Funeral expenses. On the death of any person to whom a certificate of old-age assistance has been issued, such reasonable funeral expenses shall be paid from the old-age assistance fund to such person as the county board directs, in an amount of not to exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars; provided:

1. That the total expense of such funeral does not exceed three hundred fifty dollars.

2. That the decedent does not leave an estate which may be probated, subject to the provisions of section 249.19, with sufficient proceeds to allow a funeral claim of at least three hundred fifty dollars.

3. That any payment which is due the decedent's estate, spouse, children, father, mother, brother, or sister by reason of the liability of any life insurance or death or funeral benefit company, association or society to be made in the event of the death of such decedent who was a recipient of old-age assistance may be deducted from the state department's liability of one hundred seventy-five dollars.

4. That in the event the total funeral expenses exceed the department's liability of one hundred seventy-five dollars, as provided under 1, 2, and 3 above, the additional expenses shall accrue only when there is an extraordinary expense or when the family or next best friend of the decedent specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault. Provided that said additional expense shall not be paid by the state. However, if the county board directs that a burial lot, grave opening, or clothing be furnished for the decedent, the expense thereof shall be paid by the state in a total amount not to exceed fifty dollars, to such person or persons as the county board directs, and such expense shall be allowed in addition to the one hundred seventy-five dollar limit provided in this section, provided further, however, that in such cases no extraordinary expense shall be permitted nor will the family or next best friend of the decedent be permitted to specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault.

Any funeral expenses thus paid by the state department shall become a part of the claim and lien for assistance paid the individual recipient of old-age assistance and shall be collectible under the provisions of sections 249.19 and 249.20.

When no claim is filed, or, whenever a claim is filed and disallowed, for the payment of funeral expenses, as provided for by this chapter and section, and the person furnishing such services and merchandise, in connection with the funeral of a deceased recipient of old-age assistance, files a claim against the decedent's estate, as provided for by chapter 635,* such claim shall not be allowed in an amount exceeding three hundred fifty dollars.

Where a person has been receiving old-age assistance under the provisions of this chapter and while receiving such assistance is committed or admitted to any tax supported institution for any cause and is not receiving old-age assistance at the time of his death, he shall, notwithstanding such facts, be qualified to receive his burial expense as provided in this section. [C35,§5296-f25; C39,§3828.021; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.18; 60GA, ch 326,§717]

*Repealed by 60 GA, ch 326, §704; see §633.410 et seq. Referred to in §249.23

249.19 Deduction from estate. On the death of a person receiving or who has received assistance under this chapter or of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom were so assisted, the total amount paid as assistance, shall be allowed as a lien against the real estate in the estate of the decedent and as a claim of the sixth class against the personal estate of such decedent, in the event the estate is admitted to probate. Neither the homestead nor the proceeds therefrom of such decedent or his survivor, shall be exempt from the payment of said lien or claim, any act or statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The filing of its claim against the estate shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the state board, in behalf of the state, to maintain an action by equitable proceedings to foreclose upon its lien against a homestead left by the deceased as well as any other real estate situated within the state of Iowa, and belonging to the estate of the deceased. The proceeds of such claim or lien shall be paid into the old-age assistance revolving fund. In case of the death of either husband or wife, either or both of whom have been receiving or have received assistance under this chapter, the homestead shall not be sold until the surviving spouse shall die or cease to occupy the homestead as such. Furthermore, no such claim shall be enforced against any real estate of the recipient, or the real estate of a person who has been a recipient, while it is occupied by the recipient's surviving spouse, if the latter, at the time of marriage to the recipient, was not more than fifteen years younger than the recipient, and does not marry again. [C35, §5296-f15; C39,§3828.022; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.19; 61GA, ch 432,§§70, 73]

249.20 Transfer of property to the state. In any event, the assistance furnished under this chapter shall be and constitute a lien on any real estate owned either by the husband or wife for assistance and funeral benefit furnished to either of such persons. Whenever an order is made for such assistance to any person, a copy of such order shall be indexed and recorded in the manner provided for the indexing of real estate mortgages in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the recipient lives and in which the real estate belonging to the recipient or the spouse of such recipient is situated, and such recording and indexing shall constitute notice of such lien. The county recorder shall not charge a fee for such recording and indexing or for releasing said lien.

Assistance furnished under this chapter shall not constitute a lien on any real estate owned by the Indian tribes residing in this state. This is the sole exception to the provisions of this and section 249.19.

Any action to enforce an old-age assistance lien shall be by equitable proceedings.

The statute of limitations shall not begin to run against any lien or cause of action, belonging to the state under the provisions of this section or chapter, until the death of the recipient, former recipient, or the surviving spouse, if any.

The state board shall release liens created or existing under this chapter when the amount thereof is fully paid, or when an estate, of which real estate affected by this chapter is a part, has been probated and the proceeds allowable through such probate have been applied on such liens. The board may also, in its discretion, at any time, order the release of any lien in full, or the release of any specific parcel of land from the lien, upon such compromise, settlement, substitution of other security, or other consideration as the board shall determine to be fair and adequate under the peculiar circumstances affecting the property subject to the lien or its ownership. Such release shall be executed and acknowledged by the secretary of the state board of social welfare; and such release when recorded shall be conclusive in favor of any third person dealing with or concerning the land thus released in reliance on such record.

If the state board deems it necessary to protect the interest of the state, it may require, as a condition to the grant of assistance, the absolute conveyance or assignment of all, or any part, of the property of an applicant for assistance to the state board; upon the taking of such deed or assignment the state department shall pay any delinquent taxes against said property and said deed shall reserve to the grantor and his spouse a life estate in said property and an option to the grantor and his heirs to purchase said property by repayment of the total amount paid for the benefit of the recipient. Said option insofar as the heirs are concerned shall be for six months from the date of the death of the grantor or the grantor's surviving spouse, if any.

Title to any real estate may be taken in the name of the state board of social welfare.

Such property shall be managed by the state department which shall credit the net income to the account of the person or persons entitled thereto. The state board shall have power to sell, lease, assign or convey such property or defend and prosecute all suits concerning it, and to pay all just claims against it, and to do all other things necessary for the protection, preservation and management of the property.

Upon the death of the recipient, or person who has received assistance, and the surviving spouse of such person, which spouse meets the requirements set out in section 249.19, and the expiration of the option to the heirs, the property shall be disposed of at public auction after notice by publication in some newspaper in the county where located, once each week for two consecutive weeks, before the day of sale and so much of the proceeds as is necessary for the repayment of the amount of assistance and other benefits paid to the grantor and/or his spouse and repayment of amount expended for the preservation of the property shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund. The balance, if any, shall be paid through the old-age assistance revolving fund to the heirs.

The state board and state department shall be entitled to an assignment of the certificate of tax sale of said property upon tender to the holder or to the county auditor of the amount to which the holder of the tax sale certificate would be entitled in case of redemption and shall be entitled to receive a tax deed. The state board and state department shall be entitled to receive a tax deed in derogation of the rights of the legal titleholder as to all certificates of tax sale acquired prior to July 4, 1959.

The attorney general, at the request of the state board, shall take the necessary proceedings, and represent and advise the state board in respect to any matters arising under this section. [C35, §5296-f16; C39, §3828.023; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.20; 60GA, ch 161, §1]

Referred to in §§249.18, 249.21, 515.102, subsection 4
Attorney general, §13.6
Conveyances or releases signed by secretary legalized, §589.26

249.21 Executor responsible. Any transfer of any property or interest therein made by an applicant or recipient of old-age assistance to any person without adequate consideration therefor or with intent to deprive the state of its interest therein shall be void.

All administrators, executors, referees and trustees of estates subject to liens provided for by this chapter shall when such lien as provided in sections 249.19 and 249.20, is filed or a claim is filed in the estate or against said estate or established by other legal proceedings as provided by law, pay said lien or claim when so ordered by the court. [C35, §5296-g1; C39, §3828.024; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.21]

249.22 Compromise by state. The state board and state department, when considering a compromise settlement of the state's interest in any property or the estate of a recipient and/or the recipient's spouse, may recognize such equitable interest as may be established by another person or legal entity. [C39, §3828.025; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.22]

249.23 Assignment of insurance. Any person, who has been granted a certificate of old-age assistance and is receiving payments of assistance from the old-age pension fund, may petition the state board to accept an assignment of any assignable death benefits, loan value, or cash surrender value, of any life insurance policy, death or funeral benefit of any association, society or organization, requiring further payment of premiums or assessments which such person believes he is unable to pay. The state board may accept such assignment if it deems such action advisable and in the best interests of such person and the state. Upon the payment of such death benefit, the state department shall first deduct the amount of the funeral expenses, incurred under the provisions of section 249.18, the amount of the premiums or assessments paid by the state department to keep the insurance or benefit in force, and the amount of assistance paid to such person, all of which shall accrue to the old-age assistance revolving fund, and pay the balance received, if any, to such person as was the beneficiary last specified upon the policy.

Any recipient of old-age assistance may assign any such insurance policy or benefit certificate for the purpose stated in this section, and when such assignment has been received by the company, association, society, or other organization, issuing same, the state board and state department shall have a vested interest therein for the purpose and to the extent as is contemplated in this section, and the contract so made between such insured person and the state board and state department, shall be valid, and binding upon such insured person, company, association, society or other organization, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

When proceeds are received from any insurance policy or benefit certificate which was not assigned to the state board and which states the beneficiary to be the administrator, or legal representatives or estate of the insured, such proceeds shall be subject to the claim against said estate for any old-age assistance payments to or on behalf of such insured person or for any funeral claims paid and said claim shall be prior to the claim of the heirs thereto. [C35,§5296-g2; C39,§3828.026; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.23]

249.24 Board notified of increase of property or income. If at any time during the currency or continuance of an old-age assistance certificate the recipient, or the wife or husband of the recipient, becomes possessed of any property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter in respect of the amount of assistance granted, it shall be the duty of the recipient immediately to notify the board of the receipt and possession of any such property or income. The board shall inform the state department of such change and make its recommendation for further action by the state department. The state department thereupon shall cancel the certificate or lower the amount of assistance for the remaining period of the certificate and notify the recipient of the reason for such change. Any excess assistance paid shall be returned to the state, and recoverable as a debt due the state. [C35,§5296-f23; C39,§3828.027; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.24]

Referred to in §249.35

249.25 Recovery from responsible relatives. If at any time under this chapter the state board and state department or county board finds that any person, municipality, association, society or corporation, as specified under subsection 7 of section 249.6, is or was at the time any assistance was paid reasonably able to contribute to the necessary care and support of any recipient without undue hardship, during the continuance of any certificate of assistance, and such person, municipality, association, society or corporation fails or has failed or refused to do so, then, after notice to such person, municipality, association, society, or corporation, there shall exist a cause of action against such person, municipality, association, society or corporation for the recovery by the state board and state department, for the state, of double such amount of assistance furnished as was or is in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter. [C39,§3828.028; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.25]

249.26 When child's liability begins. The state board or the court in determining the responsibility of a child for funeral expenses or the support of a claimant or recipient, shall deem liability to begin when said child is receiving a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which he would make an income tax payment to this state. [C39,§3828.029; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.26]

249.27 County attorney's duties—equity action. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each and every county, upon application of the state board of social welfare, to institute and conduct the prosecution of any suit for the support of an applicant for or recipient of assistance by any person or legal entity legally or contractually liable therefor, and any action brought for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, within the county.

In the event that a child or other responsible relative neglects or refuses to contribute to the support of a claimant or recipient, an action in equity may be commenced in the district court of the county in which a responsible relative resides and there may be joined as defendants in said action any or all other responsible relatives. The court may decree the amount of contribution, if any, to be made by each child or other responsible relative with due regard to their separate incomes, financial ability and obligations. [C39, §3828.030; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.27]

249.28 Cancellation when county evades responsibility. The state board may cancel the certificate of any recipient who is found by the state board to be acting in agreement with the authorities of any county charged with the duty of providing for the support of the poor if it shall appear to the state board that such agreement is with the intent to shift or would have the effect of shifting the responsibility of any such county or to evade the provisions of sections 249.29 and 249.34. [C39,§3828.031; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.28]

249.29 Recipient not to receive other assistance. No person receiving assistance under this chapter shall at the same time receive any other assistance from the state, or from any political subdivision thereof, except for fuel, dental, nursing, osteopathic, chiropractic, medical and surgical assistance, and hospitalization.

This section shall not be construed to exclude the spouse, minor children or other dependents of the recipient of old-age assistance, or the members of the same family or household as said recipient from receiving relief, assistance or pensions handled or paid through the state or any of its political subdivisions. In administering old-age assistance or relief, the officials of this state and its political subdivisions shall assume old-age assistance payments to be made for the sole benefit of the aged person to whom the certificate of assistance has been issued. [C35, §5296-f27; C39,§3828.032; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.29]

Referred to in §249.28

249.30 No assistance during imprisonment. If any person receiving assistance is convicted of any crime or offense and punished by imprisonment for one month or longer, the board shall direct that payments shall not be made during the period of imprisonment. [C35, §5296-f33; C39,§3828.033; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.30] a result of a diagnosis of tuberculosis or psychosis is not eligible to receive assistance. [C35,§5296-f26; C39,§3828.034; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.31]

249.32 Incapacity of applicant or recipient.

If the person applying for or receiving assistance, on the testimony of reputable witnesses, is thought to be incapable of taking care of himself or his money, the board shall complete the investigation, as provided elsewhere in this chapter, and send such application, investigation, and supporting papers to the state department. When notified by the state department of the conditional approval of said application or the renewal or continuance of a certificate, contingent upon the appointment of a legal guardian, the board shall direct the county attorney to petition the court for such appointment and shall forward the court record to the state department as notice of the person to whom assistance payments shall be made.

The application of a person who has been adjudged an incompetent shall be honored only when made by a legally appointed guardian as provided for under the provisions of section 670.2.* Upon subsequent investigations all affidavits shall be affirmed by said legal guardian and the person or persons supplying the required information in behalf of said incompetent person.

All guardianship proceedings in the case of an applicant or recipient shall be carried out without fee or other expense including all court costs when, in the opinion of the court, the aged person is unable to assume said expense. At the discretion of the court, such a guardian may serve without bond. [C35, §5296-f28; C39,§3828.035; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.32]

*Repealed by 60GA, ch 326,§704; see §633.552 et seq.

249.33 Unlawful to charge for cashing warrant. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to charge a fee, service charge or exchange for the cashing of a warrant issued on the old-age assistance fund, or to discount or pay less than the face value of any warrant drawn on the old-age assistance fund when cashing the same or accepting it in the payment of the purchase price of goods or merchandise, services, rent, taxes, or indebtedness. [C35,§5296-g4; C39,§3828.036; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.33]

249.34 Assistance to be inalienable. All rights to old-age assistance shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, execution or otherwise, and, in the case of bankruptcy, the assistance shall not pass to or through any trustees or other persons acting on behalf of creditors. [C35,§5296-f29; C39,§3828.037; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.34]

Referred to in §249.28

249.35 Recovery of excess assistance. When it is found that any person who is receiving or has received old-age assistance has failed to notify the board, as provided in section

249.24, that he is or was possessed of property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter, then his certificate shall be canceled and double the amount of assistance paid, in excess of that to which the recipient was entitled, may be recovered from him, while living, as a debt due the state; upon his death as a preferred claim against his estate. The amount so received shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund of the state. [C35,§5296-f24; C39,§3828.038; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.35]

249.37 and 249.38 Repealed by 58GA, ch 179, §§2, 3.

249.39 Revolving fund created. There is hereby created a fund, to be known as the "Old-age Assistance Revolving Fund," to be used for the purpose of protecting the interests of the recipients of old-age assistance and such interests of the state and the old-age assistance fund as arise under the provisions of this chapter.

To establish the old-age assistance revolving fund, there is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The state comptroller shall set aside from the appropriation, herein made, the amount necessary to be used by the state board and state department. Upon orders by the state board or state department the comptroller shall draw warrants from this fund, if he so approve, for the purposes herein described.

All moneys received or recovered by the state board and state department, from whatever source, except those specifically appropriated to the old-age assistance fund, shall be credited to the old-age assistance revolving fund, which together with the appropriation made hereunder, shall constitute said fund. At the end of each quarter of each fiscal year if the old-age assistance revolving fund shall have a cash balance in excess of two hundred thousand dollars, the state comptroller shall transfer such excess to the old-age assistance fund and shall notify the state board of such transfer. The amounts thus transferred shall supplement other allocations to the old-age assistance fund and shall be separate from the general fund of the state. On receipt of written order from the state department, the state comptroller shall draw warrants, or warrant checks against the old-age assistance fund for any and all old-age assistance payments and other expenditures provided for in this chapter. [C35,§5296-g7; C39,§3828.042; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.39]

249.40 Authority to accept gifts. The state board and state department are authorized to accept in behalf of the state any gifts, deeds, or bequests of money or property the proceeds of which shall accrue to the benefit of the old-age assistance revolving fund. In the making of such gifts or contributions the donor shall attach no conditions, whatsoever. The management and disposition of any property so received will be in the state department but such management and disposition shall be subject to the approval of the state board. [C35, §5296-g6; C39,§3828.043; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.40]

249.41 Cancellation of warrants. The state comptroller, as of January, April, July and October 1 of each year, shall stop payment on and issue duplicates of all old-age assistance warrants or checks which have been outstanding and unredeemed by the state treasurer for six months or longer. No bond of indemnity shall be required for the issuance of such duplicate warrants which shall be canceled immediately by the state comptroller. Should the original warrants subsequently be presented for payment, warrants in lieu thereof shall be issued by the state comptroller at the discretion of and certification by the state department. [C39,§3828.044; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §249.41]

249.44 Records—report of recipients. All applications, investigation reports and case records shall be privileged communications and held confidential, subject to use and inspection only by persons authorized by law in connection with their official duties relating to financial audits and the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

Provided, however, that the county board of social welfare shall prepare and file in its office on or before the thirtieth day of each January, April, July and October a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients receiving assistance under this chapter, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding quarter. Each report so filed shall be securely fixed in a record book to be used only for such reports made under this chapter and chapters 239 and 241. The record book shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a public record, open to public inspection at all times during the regular office hours of the respective county boards of social welfare. Each person who desires to examine said records, other than in pursuance of official duties as hereinbefore provided, shall sign a written request to examine the same, which shall contain an agreement on the part of the signer that he will not utilize any information gained therefrom for commercial or political purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person, body, association, firm, corporation or any other agency to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists, names or other information obtained from the reports above provided for, for commercial or political purposes, and a violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C35,§5296-f39; C39,§3828.048; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§249.45]

249A.2 Definitions. The terms "state board" and "county board" are used in this chapter as they are defined in section 234.1, and as used in this chapter.

"Recipient" means a person who receives assistance under this chapter.

"Assistance" means money payments to, or for medical care and services on behalf of, a recipient.

"Residence" shall mean the place where a person lives for other than a temporary purpose. [C62,§249A.2]

249A.3 Who eligible. Assistance may be granted under the provisions of this chapter to any person who:

1. Is sixty-five years of age or over.
2. Is a resident of the state of Iowa including those residents who are temporarily absent from the state.
3. Is not an inmate of a public institution (except as a patient in a medical institution) or who is not a patient in an institution for tuberculosis or mental diseases.
4. Is not a recipient of old-age assistance.
5. Is in need of medical care and services available under this chapter, such need having been determined by an attending licensed practitioner of the healing arts acting within the scope of his license.
6. Has not sufficient income or other resources, of his own or available to him, to provide himself with such needed medical care and services. However, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any one applicant until after he has paid, or obligated himself to pay, the sum of fifty dollars for medical assistance during the twelve-month period prior to the date of his application.

7. Has no spouse, child, other person, agency or political subdivision of state or federal government, association, society or corporation legally or contractually responsible under the law of this state and found by the county board able to provide him with such needed medical care and services.

For the purpose of determining whether a child is responsible to provide such medical care and services, such child shall not in any event be deemed responsible therefor if such child is not receiving a net income sufficient to require him to make an income tax payment to the state. [C62,§249A.3]

249A.4 Income considered. The amount of assistance shall be fixed with due regard to income and resources of the recipient or available to him in conformance to the rules, regulations and standards of the state board.

No assistance shall be granted to:

1. Any unmarried applicant whose income, after deduction of medical expenses incurred by the applicant, exceeds one thousand five hundred dollars annually, or to any married applicant and spouse living together whose combined income, after deduction of medical expenses incurred by the applicant and his spouse, exceeds two thousand two hundred dollars. Income shall not include the shelter value of a residence occupied by the applicant nor the value of gifts or services contributed in kind to the applicant.

2. Any unmarried applicant whose resources exceed two thousand dollars, or any married applicant and spouse living together whose combined resources exceed three thousand dollars. The value of resources shall be the current market value minus any encumbrances against such resource or resources. In determining the foregoing, the following resources shall be excluded: Real property occupied as a residence, household goods and furnishings, an automobile, personal effects and tools necessary for the pursuit of a trade, occupation or profession, and the cash surrender value of life insurance. [C62,§249A.4]

249A.5 Duties of state board. The state board shall:

1. Be the responsible authority for the effective and impartial administration of this chapter. To this end the state board shall formulate and establish such rules and regulations, outline such policies and prescribe such procedures as may be necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The state board may contract with other state agencies or private organizations whereby such agency or organization may handle the processing of and the payment of claims for services rendered under the provisions of this chapter and under such rules and regulations as shall be promulgated by said board.

2. Adopt by appropriate rules and regulations the definition of medical assistance for the aged by specifying the items for which assistance may be granted, provided, however, that such definition may not include any item or service which is not listed and provided for in Title I, Section 6 (b) of the Social Security Act as amended [42 U.S.C.,§302].

3. Adopt appropriate rules and regulations governing the payment of medical assistance for the aged rendered to any applicant prior to the date his application is filed.

4. Co-operate with any agency of the federal government in any manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid and assistance for medical assistance for the aged in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, including the making of such reports in such form and containing such information as any agency of the federal government may formulate and find necessary to insure qualification and verification of such reports.

252.1 "Poor person" defined. The words "poor" and "poor person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean those who have no property, exempt or otherwise, and are unable, because of physical or mental disabilities, to earn a living by labor; but this section shall not be construed to forbid aid to needy persons who have some means, when the board shall be of opinion that the same will be conducive to their welfare and the best interests of the public. [C97,§2252; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5297; C39,§3828.073; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.1]

252.2 Parents and children liable. The father, mother, and children of any poor person, who is unable to maintain himself or herself by labor, shall jointly or severally relieve or maintain such person in such manner as, upon application to the township trustees of the township where such person has a residence or may be, they may direct. [C51,§787; R60,§1355; C73,§1330; C97,§2216; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5298; C39,§3828.074; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.2]

Referred to in §§241.17, 249.12

252.3 Putative father. The word "father" in this chapter includes the putative father of an illegitimate child, and the question of parentage may be tried in any proceeding to recover for or compel the support of such a child, and like proceedings may be prosecuted against the mother independently of or jointly with the alleged father. [C51,§788; R60,§1356; C73, §1332; C97,§2250; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5299; C39, §3828.075; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.3]

Obligation of parent, ch 675

252.4 Who deemed trustee. The word "trustees" in this chapter shall be construed to include and mean any person or officer of any county or city charged with the oversight of the poor. [C51,§789; R60,§1357; C73,§1333; C97,§2251; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5300; C39,§3828.076; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.4]

252.5 Remote relatives. In the absence or inability of nearer relatives, the same liability shall extend to grandparents, if of ability without personal labor, and to the male grandchildren who are of ability by personal labor or otherwise. [C51,§787; R60,§1355; C73,§1331; C97,§2217; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5301; C39,§3828.077; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.5]

Referred to in §§241.17, 249.12

252.6 Enforcement of liability. Upon the failure of such relatives so to relieve or maintain a poor person who has made application for relief, the township trustees, county social welfare board, or state division of old-age assistance may apply to the district court of the county where such poor person resides or may be, for an order to compel the same. [C51, §789; R60,§1357; C73,§1333; C97,§2218; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5302; C39,§3828.078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.6]

252.7 Notice—hearing. At least ten days notice in writing of the application shall be given to the parties sought to be charged, service thereof to be made as of an original notice, in which proceedings the county shall be plaintiff and the parties served defendants. No order shall be made affecting a person not served, but, as to such, notice may be given at any stage of the proceedings. The court may proceed in a summary manner to hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties, and order any one or more of the relatives who shall be able, to relieve or maintain him or her, charging them as far as practicable in the order above named, and for that purpose may bring in new parties when necessary. [C51,§§790-792; R60,§§1358-1360; C73,§§1334-1336; C97,§2219; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5303; C39,§3828.079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.7]

Manner of service, R.C.P. 56 (a)

252.8 Scope of order. The order may be for the entire or partial support of the applicant, may be for the payment of money or the taking of the applicant to a relative's house, or may assign him or her for a certain time to one and for another period to another, as may be just and right, taking into view the means of the several relatives liable, but no such assignment shall be made to one who is willing to pay the amount necessary for support. If the order be for relief in any other form than money, it shall state the extent and value thereof per week, and the time such relief shall continue; or the order may make the time of continuance indefinite, and it may be varied from time to time by a new order, as circumstances may require, upon application to the court by the trustees, the poor person, or the relative affected, ten days notice thereof being given to the party or parties concerned. [C51, §§793-795; R60, §§1361-1363; C73, §§1337-1339; C97, §2219; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5304; C39, §3828.080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.8]

252.9 Judgment—appeal. When money is ordered to be paid, it shall be paid to such person as the court may direct. If support be not rendered as ordered, the court upon such fact being shown by the affidavit of one or more of the proper trustees, may render judgment and order execution for the amount due, rating any support ordered in kind at the valuation previously made. An appeal may be taken from the judgment rendered to the supreme court. Support for later periods under the same order may be, as it becomes due, applied for and obtained in the same manner. [C51, §§796-798; R60, §§1364-1366; C73, §§1340-1342; C97, §2219; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5305; C39, §3828.081; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.9]

252.10 Abandonment—order as to property. When father or mother abandons any child, husband his wife, or wife her husband, leaving them a public charge or likely to become such, the trustees of the township, upon application to them, may make complaint to the district court or judge thereof in the county in which such abandoned person resides, or in which any property of such father, mother, husband, or wife is situated, for an order to seize such property, and, upon proof of the necessary facts, the court or judge shall issue an order, directed to the sheriff of the county, to take and hold possession of said property, subject to the further orders of the court, which order shall be executed by taking possession of chattel property wherever found, and shall entitle the officer serving the same to collect and hold the rents accruing upon real property. [C51, §§799, 800; R60, §§1367, 1368; C73, §§1343, 1344; C97, §2220; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5306; C39, §3828.082; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.10]

252.11 Preservation and release of lien. Statement of the issuance of the order and a description of any real estate sought to be affected thereby, shall be entered in the encumbrance book, and from the date thereof shall be superior in right to any conveyance or lien created by the owner thereafter, and return shall be made of said order to the proper court, where the order of seizure, upon investigation, may be discharged or continued; if continued, the entire matter shall be subject to the control of the court, and it shall from time to time make such orders as to the disposition of the personal property seized, and the application of it or the proceeds thereof, as it may deem proper, and of the disposition of the rents and profits of the real estate. Should the party against whom the order issued thereafter resume his or her support of the person abandoned, or give bond with sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that such person shall not become chargeable to the county, the order shall be by the clerk discharged and the property remaining restored. [C51, §§801-804; R60, §§1369-1372; C73, §§1345-1348; C97, §2220; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5307; C39, §3828.083; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.11]

252.12 Trial by jury. In all cases the party sought to be charged with the support of another may demand a jury trial upon the question of his obligation and ability to render such support, the alleged abandonment, and the liability of the person abandoned to become a public charge; such trial to be had upon demand, which may be made at the time of the hearing of the application for the order, or at such other time as may be directed by the court, upon notice to the defendant. [C51, §805; R60, §1373; C73, §1349; C97, §2221; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5308; C39, §3828.084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.12]

[C51, §806; R60, §1374; C73, §1350; C97, §2222; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5309; C39, §3828.085; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §252.13]

A more distant relation, who may have been compelled to aid a poor person, may recover from any one or more of the nearer relatives, and one so compelled to aid may recover contribution from others in the same degree, and a recovery may be had against the poor person or his estate, if, after such aid or support has been given, the person aided or supported becomes able to repay the same; but proceedings to recover therefor must be brought within two years from the time a cause of action accrues. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§252.42]

252.43 Poor tax. The expense of supporting the poor shall be paid out of the county treasury in the same manner as other disbursements for county purposes; and in case the ordinary revenue of the county proves insufficient for the support of the poor, the board may levy a poor tax, not exceeding one and one-half mills on the dollar, to be entered on the tax list and collected as the ordinary county tax.

Should the one and one-half mill levy fail to provide adequate funds to take care of the poor, then the board of supervisors, with the approval of the state comptroller, shall levy an additional tax of not to exceed three mills, to be entered on the tax list and collected as the ordinary county tax. Before any such additional levy is made, a showing of the necessity for such additional levy shall be made to the state comptroller and no such additional levy shall be made unless it shall be approved in writing by the comptroller.

8. "Summons" shall mean and include a subpoena, warrant, citation, order or other notice, by whatever name known, provided for by the laws of the state or states wherein the petitioner and the respondent reside as the means for requiring the appearance and attendance in court of the respondent in a proceeding instituted pursuant to this chapter.

10. "Responding state" shall mean the state wherein the respondent resides or is domiciled or found. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§252A.2]

253A.3 Husband liable for support. For the purpose of this chapter:

1. A husband in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of his wife and any child or children under seventeen years of age and any other dependent residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, and, if possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, may be required to pay for their support a fair and reasonable sum according to his means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

2. A mother in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of her child or children under seventeen years of age residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever the father of such child or children is dead, or cannot be found, or is incapable of supporting such child or children, and, if she is possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, she may be required to pay for the support of such child or children a fair and reasonable sum according to her means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

3. The parents in one state are hereby declared to be severally liable for the support of a child seventeen years of age or older residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever such child is unable to maintain himself and is likely to become a public charge.

4. A child or children born of parents who, at any time prior or subsequent to the birth of such child, have entered into a civil or religious marriage ceremony, shall be deemed the legitimate child or children of both parents, regardless of the validity of such marriage.

5. A child or children born of parents who held or hold themselves out as husband and wife by virtue of a common law marriage recognized as valid by the laws of the initiating state and of the responding state shall be deemed the legitimate child or children of both parents.

6. A woman who was or is held out as his wife by a man by virtue of a common law marriage recognized as valid by the laws of the initiating state and of the responding state shall be deemed the legitimate wife of such man.

7. Notwithstanding the fact that the respondent has obtained in any state or country a final decree of divorce or separation from his wife or a decree dissolving his marriage, the respondent shall be deemed legally liable for the support of any dependent child of such marriage.

8. Duties of support applicable under this chapter are those imposed or imposable under the laws of any state where the respondent was present during the period for which support is sought. The respondent is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.3]

252A.4 Jurisdiction. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the state of last residence or domicile of the petitioner and the respondent and whether or not the respondent has ever been a resident of the initiating state or the dependent person has ever been a resident of the responding state.

2. The court of the responding state shall have the power to order the respondent to pay sums sufficient to provide necessary food, shelter, clothing, care, medical or hospital expenses, expenses of confinement, expenses of education of a child, funeral expenses and such other reasonable and proper expenses of the petitioner as justice requires, having due regard to the circumstances of the respective parties.

3. The courts of both the initiating state and the responding state shall have the power to order testimony to be taken in either or both of such states by deposition or written interrogatories, and to limit the nature of and the extent to which the right so to take testimony shall be exercised, provided that the respondent is given a full and fair opportunity to answer the allegations of the petitioner. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.4]

252A.5 When proceeding may be maintained. A proceeding to compel support of a dependent may be maintained under this chapter in any of the following cases:

1. Where the petitioner and the respondent are residents of or domiciled or found in the same state.

2. Where the petitioner resides in one state and the respondent is a resident of or is domiciled or found in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

3. Where the respondent is not and never was a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and the petitioner resides or is domiciled in such state and the respondent is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

4. Where the respondent was or is a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and has departed or departs from such state leaving therein a dependent in need of and entitled to support under this chapter and is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

5. Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to a dependent, it has the same right through proceedings instituted by the petitioner's representative to invoke the provisions hereof as the dependent to whom the support was furnished, for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support; the petition in such case may be verified by any official having knowledge of such expenditures and consent of the dependent shall not be required in order to institute proceedings under this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.5]

252A.6 How commenced—trial.

1. A proceeding under this chapter shall be commenced by a petitioner, or a petitioner's representative, by filing a verified petition in the court in equity in the county of the state wherein he resides or is domiciled, showing the name, age, residence and circumstances of the petitioner, alleging that he is in need of and is entitled to support from the respondent, giving his name, age, residence and circumstances, and praying that the respondent be compelled to furnish such support. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the respondent including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the respondent, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his fingerprints, or social security number.

2. If the respondent be a resident of or domiciled in such state and the court has or can acquire jurisdiction of the person of the respondent under existing laws in effect in such state, such laws shall govern and control the procedure to be followed in such proceeding.

3. If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of (a) the petition (b) its certificate and (c) this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

4. When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall docket the cause, notify the county attorney or other official acting as petitioner's representative, set a time and place for a hearing, and take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to serve notice and thus obtain jurisdiction over the respondent. If a court of the state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or his property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state.

5. It shall not be necessary for the petitioner or the petitioner's witnesses to appear personally at such hearing, but it shall be the duty of the petitioner's representative of the responding state to appear on behalf of and represent the petitioner at all stages of the proceeding.

6. If at such hearing the respondent controverts the petition and enters a verified denial of any of the material allegations thereof, the judge presiding at such hearing shall stay the proceedings and transmit to the judge of the court in the initiating state a transcript of the clerk's minutes showing the denials entered by the respondent.

7. Upon receipt by the judge of the court in the initiating state of such transcript, such court shall take such proof, including the testimony of the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses and such other evidence as the court may deem proper, and, after due deliberation, the court shall make its recommendation, based on all of such proof and evidence, and shall transmit to the court in the responding state an exemplified transcript of such proof and evidence and of its proceedings and recommendation in connection therewith.

8. Upon the receipt of such transcript, the court in the responding state shall resume its hearing in the proceeding and shall give the respondent a reasonable opportunity to appear and reply.

9. Upon the resumption of such hearing, the respondent shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories, and the petitioner shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the respondent and the respondent's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories.

10. If a respondent, duly summoned by a court in the responding state, willfully fails without good cause to appear as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for the punishment of a defendant or witness who willfully disobeys a summons or subpoena duly issued out of such court in any other action or proceeding cognizable by said court.

11. If, on the return day of the summons, the respondent appears at the time and place specified therein and fails to answer the petition or admits the allegations thereof, or, if, after a hearing has been duly held by the court in the responding state in accordance with the provisions of this section, such court has found and determined that the prayer of the petitioner, or any part thereof, is supported by the evidence adduced in the proceeding, and that the petitioner is in need of and entitled to support from the respondent, the court shall make and enter an order directing the respondent to furnish support to the petitioner and to pay therefor such sum as the court shall determine, having due regard to the parties' means and circumstances. An exemplified copy of such order shall be transmitted by the court to the court in the initiating state and such copy shall be filed with and made a part of the records of such court in such proceeding. The court shall place the respondent on probation on such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper or necessary to assure faithful compliance by the respondent with such order. The court shall also have power to require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or surety bond in such amount as the court may deem proper and just to assure the payment of the amount required to be paid by the respondent for the support of the petitioner.

12. The court making such order may require the respondent to make payment at specified intervals to the clerk of the district court, or to the dependent, or to any state or county agency, and to report personally to the sheriff or any other official, at such times as may be deemed necessary.

13. A respondent who shall willfully fail to comply with or violate the terms or conditions of the support order or of his probation shall be punished by the court in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for a contempt of such court or a violation of probation ordered by such court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by such court.

14. The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court: Upon receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

15. Any order of support issued by a court of the state acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

16. The court of the initiating state shall receive and accept all payments made by the respondent to the probation department or bureau of the court of the responding state and transmitted by the latter on behalf of the respondent. Upon receipt of any such payment, and under such rules as the court of the initiating state may prescribe, the court, or its probation department or bureau, as the court may direct, shall deliver such payment to the dependent person entitled thereto, take a proper receipt and acquittance therefor, and keep a permanent record thereof. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.6]

252A.7 Petitioner's representatives to appear. It shall be the duty of all petitioner's representatives of this state to appear in this state on behalf of and represent the petitioner in every proceeding pursuant to this chapter, at the time the petition is filed and at all stages of the proceeding thereafter, and to obtain and present such evidence or proof as may be required by the court in the initiating state or the responding state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.7]

252A.8 Additional remedies. This chapter shall be construed to furnish an additional or alternative civil remedy and shall in no way affect or impair any other remedy, civil or criminal, provided in any other statute and available to the petitioner in relation to the same subject matter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.8]

252A.9 Construction. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §252A.9]

Constitutionality, 58GA, ch 108, §10

252A.10 Costs advanced. Actual costs incurred in this state incidental to any action brought under the provisions of this chapter shall be advanced by the initiating party or agency unless otherwise ordered by the court. Where the action is brought by an agency of the state or county there shall be no filing fee. [C58, 62, §252A.10]

252A.11 Custody of respondent. When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the respondent may flee the jurisdiction it may as an initiating state request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or, it may as a responding state, obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process. [C58, 62, §252A.11]

252A.12 Exchange lists of courts. The state department of social welfare is hereby designated as the state information agency under this chapter, and it shall be its duty to compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this chapter and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar Act and to maintain a register of such lists received from other states. legal resident of Iowa residing in the county where the complaint is filed is pregnant or is suffering from some malady or deformity that can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither such person nor persons legally chargeable with his support are able to pay therefor. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4005; C39,§3828.132; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.1]

It shall be the duty of physicians, public health nurses, members of boards of supervisors and township trustees, overseers of the poor, sheriffs, policemen, and public school teachers, having knowledge of persons suffering from any such malady or deformity, to file or cause such complaint to be filed. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4006; C39,§3828.133; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.2]

255.4 Examination by physician. Upon the filing of such complaint, the clerk shall number and index the same and shall appoint a competent physician and surgeon, living in the vicinity of the patient, who shall personally examine the patient with respect to said pregnancy, malady, or deformity. The clerk may, after the expiration of five years from the filing of a complaint, destroy it and all papers or records in connection therewith. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4008; C39,§3828.135; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.4]

255.5 Report by physician. Such physician shall make a report in duplicate on blanks furnished as hereinafter provided, answering the questions contained therein and setting forth the information required thereby, giving such history of the case as will be likely to aid the medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of such patient, describing the pregnancy, deformity, or malady in detail, and stating whether or not in his opinion the same can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated, which report shall be filed in the office of the clerk within such time as the clerk may fix. [SS15,§§254-b,-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39,§3828.136; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.5]

255.6 Investigation and report. When such complaint is filed, the clerk shall furnish the county attorney and board of supervisors with a copy thereof and said board shall, by the overseer of the poor or such other agent as it may select, make a thorough investigation of facts as to the legal residence of the patient, and the ability of the patient or others chargeable with his support to pay the expense of such treatment and care; and shall file a report of such investigation in the office of the clerk, at or before the time of hearing. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4010; C39,§3828.137; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.6]

255.7 Notice of hearing—duty of county attorney. When the physician's report has been filed, the clerk shall, with the consent of the court or judge, fix a time and place for hearing of the matter by the court, and the county attorney shall cause such patient and the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if under legal disability, to be served with such notice of the time and place of the hearing as the judge or clerk may prescribe. [SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4011; C39,§3828.138; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.7]

255.8 Hearing—order—emergency cases—cancellation of commitments. The county attorney and the overseer of the poor, or other agent of the board of supervisors of the county where the hearing is held, shall appear thereat. The complainant, the county attorney, the overseer of the poor or other agent of the board of supervisors, and the patient, or any person representing him, or her, may introduce evidence and be heard. If the court finds that said patient is a legal resident of Iowa and is pregnant or is suffering from a malady or deformity which can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither the patient nor any person legally chargeable with his or her support is able to pay the expenses thereof, then the clerk of court, except in obstetrical cases and cases of crippled children, shall immediately ascertain from the admitting physician at the university hospital whether such person can be received as a patient within a period of thirty days, and if the patient can be so received, the court shall then enter an order directing that said patient be sent to the university hospital for proper medical and surgical treatment and hospital care. If the court ascertain, excepting in obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases, that a person of the age or sex of the patient, or afflicted by the complaint, disease or deformity with which such person is affected cannot be received as a patient at the said university hospital within the period of thirty days, then he shall enter an order directing the board of supervisors of the county to provide adequate treatment at county expense for said patient at home or in a hospital. Obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases may be committed to the university hospital without regard to the limiting period of thirty days hereinbefore stated.

In any case of emergency the court without previous inquiry may at its discretion order the patient to be immediately taken to and accepted by the university hospital for the necessary care as provided in section 255.11, but if such a patient cannot be immediately accepted at the university hospital as ascertained by telephone if necessary, the court may enter an order as in certain cases above set forth directing the board of supervisors to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the said patient at home or in a hospital. [SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4012; C39,§3828.139; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.8]

Referred to in §§255.9, 255.14

255.9 Treatment for infant. Whenever a woman who is pregnant is committed to the hospital under the provisions of section 255.8, the said commitment shall authorize the hospital to provide proper medical or surgical treatment and hospital care for the infant. [C31, 35, §4012-d1; C39, §3828.140; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.9]

255.10 Religious belief—denial of order. The court in its discretion may refuse to make such order in any case where the court finds the patient or his parent, parents, or guardian are members of a religious denomination whose tenets preclude dependence on the practice of medicine or surgery and desire in good faith to rely upon the practice of their religion for relief from disease or disorder. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §4013; C39, §3828.141; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.10]

255.11 Order in case of emergency. In cases of great emergency, when the court or judge is satisfied that delay would be seriously injurious to the patient, he may make such order with the consent of the patient, if adult, or of the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if a minor or incompetent, without examination, report, notice, or hearing. [SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4014; C39, §3828.142; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.11]

Referred to in §255.8

255.12 Certified copy of order. The clerk shall prepare a certified copy of said order, which, together with a copy of the physician's report, shall be delivered to the admitting physician of said hospital at or before the time of the reception of the patient into the hospital. [SS15, §254-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4015; C39, §3828.143; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.12]

255.13 Attendant—physician—compensation. If the physician appointed to examine the patient shall certify that an attendant to accompany the patient to the said hospital is necessary, and the university hospital attendant and ambulance service is not available, then the court or judge may appoint an attendant who shall receive not exceeding two dollars per day for the time thus necessarily employed and actual necessary traveling expenses by the most feasible route to said hospital whether by ambulance, train or automobile; but if such appointee is a relative of the patient or a member of his immediate family, or receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his services, no such per diem compensation shall be paid him. The physician appointed by the court to make the examination and report shall receive therefor three dollars for each examination and report so made and his actual necessary expenses incurred in making such examination, but if said physician receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his full-time services, then no such examination fee shall be paid. The actual, necessary expenses of transporting and caring for the patient shall be paid as hereinafter provided. [SS15, §254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4016; C39, §3828.144; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.13]

Referred to in §255.14

255.14 Expenses—how paid. An itemized, verified statement of all charges provided for in sections 255.8 and 255.13, in cases where the patient is admitted or accepted for treatment at the university hospital shall be filed with the superintendent of the university hospital, and upon his recommendation when approved by the judge under whose order the same were incurred, they shall be charged on the regular bill for the maintenance, transportation and treatment of the patient, and be audited and paid in the manner as hereinafter provided. [SS15, §254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4017; C39, §3828.145; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.14]

255.15 Duty of admitting physician at hospital. The authorities in control of the medical college shall designate some physician to pass upon the admission of such patient, and it shall be his duty to receive such patient into the hospital and to provide for him, if available, a cot, bed, or room in said hospital, and to assign him to the appropriate clinic and for treatment by the proper physician, unless, in his judgment, the presence of the patient in the hospital would be dangerous to other patients, or there is no reasonable probability that he may be benefited by the proposed treatment or hospital care. If the admitting physician shall deny admission to the patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his reasons therefor. [SS15, §254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4018; C39, §3828.146; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.15]

Referred to in §255.18

255.16 County quotas. Subject to subsequent qualifications in this section, there shall be treated at the university hospital during each fiscal year a number of committed indigent patients from each county which shall bear the same relation to the total number of committed indigent patients admitted during the year as the population of such county shall bear to the total population of the state according to the last preceding official census. This standard shall apply to indigent patients, the expenses of whose commitment, transportation, care and treatment shall be borne by appropriated funds and shall not govern the admission of either obstetrical or orthopedic patients. If the number of patients admitted from any county shall exceed by more than ten percent the county quota as fixed and ascertained under the first sentence of this section, the charges and expenses of the care and treatment of such patients in excess of ten percent of the quota shall be paid from the funds of such county at actual cost; but if the number of excess patients from any county shall not exceed ten percent, all costs, expenses, and charges incurred in their behalf shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital. [C35, §4018-f1; C39, §3828.147; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §255.16]

Referred to in §271.17, subsection 1

255.17 Report of physician in charge of clinic. If the physician or surgeon in charge of said clinic, or to whom such patient has been assigned for treatment, declines to treat such patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his examination of such patient, and state therein his reasons for declining such treatment. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4019; C39, §3828.148; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§255.17]

For the purposes of this subsection "organization" means any corporation, association, or Public junior or community colleges shall provide adequate courses of study.

The state board of public instruction shall adopt approval standards, regulations, and rules to implement, interpret, and make effective the provisions of this section. In adopting the same, the board shall take into account recognized educational standards. Standards, regulations and rules shall be adopted without specific regard to school population.

Such standards, regulations, and rules shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A. In addition, such standards, rules, and regulations shall be reported by the state board to the general assembly within twenty days after the commencement of a regular legislative session, and the general assembly may enact changes therein. 11. The state board of public instruction shall remove for cause, after due investigation and notice, any such school, college, or school district failing to comply with such approval standards, rules, and regulations from the approved list; which removal shall, during the period of noncompliance, permit parents of children eligible for school attendance to request the county board of education to designate their children to an approved school with the district of residence responsible for the tuition and transportation costs. The county board of education is hereby authorized to make such designation. Procedure, insofar as applicable, shall be that provided in chapter 285. In the event a parent of such child so designated is dissatisfied with said designation, appeal may be made to the state superintendent of public instruction as provided in section 285.12. A school, college, or school district which is removed from the approved list in accordance with this section shall be ineligible to receive state financial aid during the period of noncompliance. In lieu of removal, the state board may allow a reasonable period of time for compliance with such approval standards, rules, and regulations, if such school, college, or school district is making a good faith effort and substantial progress toward full compliance and if the failure to comply is due to factors beyond the control of the board of directors or governing body of such school, college, or school district. In allowing such time for compliance, the board shall follow consistent policies, taking into account the circumstances of each case.

12. The department of public instruction shall give any school, college, or school district which is to be removed from the approved list at least one year notice. Such notice shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the school district or the corresponding official of a private school, and shall specify the reasons for removal. Such notice shall also be sent by ordinary mail to each member of the board of directors or governing body of the school, college, or school district, and to the news media which serve the area where the school, college, or school district is located; but any good faith error or failure to comply with this sentence shall not affect the validity of any action by the state board. If, during said year, the school, college, or school district remedies the reasons for removal and satisfies the state board that it will thereafter comply with the laws, approval standards, rules, and regulations, the state board shall continue such school, college, or school district on the approved list and shall give the school, college, or school district notice of such action by registered or certified mail. At any time during said year, the board of directors or governing body of the school, college, or school district may request a public hearing before the state board of public instruction, by mailing a written request to the state superintendent by registered or certified mail. The president of the state board shall promptly set a time and place for the public hearing, which shall be either in Des Moines or in the affected area. At least thirty days notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the school district or the corresponding official of a private school. Notice of the time and place of the hearing and the reasons for removal shall also be published by the state department in a newspaper of general circulation in the area where the school, college, or school district is located, at least ten days before the hearing. At the hearing the school, college, or school district may be represented by counsel and may present evidence. The state board may provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported. If requested by the school, college, or school district at least ten days before the hearing, the state board shall provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported at the expense of such school, college, or school district, using any reasonable method specified by such school, college, or school district. Within ten days after the hearing, the state board shall render its written decision, signed by a majority of its members, and shall affirm, modify, or vacate the action or proposed action to remove the school, college, or school district from the approved list. [61GA, ch 226,§2]

257.26 Sharing instructors and services. The state board, when necessary to realize the purposes of this chapter, shall approve:

1. The sharing of the services of a single instructor by two or more schools in two or more school districts;

2. The enrollment in public schools for specified courses of students who also are enrolled in private schools, when the courses in which they seek enrollment are not available to them in their private schools, provided such students have satisfactorily completed prerequisite courses, if any, in schools maintaining standards equivalent to the approval standards for public schools, or have otherwise shown equivalent competence through testing.

The provisions of this section shall not deprive the respective boards of public school districts of any of their legal powers, statutory or otherwise, and in accepting such specially enrolled students, each of said boards shall prescribe the terms of such special enrollment, including but not limited to scheduling of such courses and the length of class periods. In addition, the board of the affected public school district shall be given notice by the state board of its decision to permit such special enrollment not later than six months prior to the opening of the affected public school district's school year, except that the board of the public school district may, in its discretion, waive such notice requirement. [61GA, ch 226,§4]

257.27 Rules and regulations. The state board shall establish rules and regulations for recording the number of high school students who drop out or quit each high school before graduation for reasons other than health or transfer to another high school and shall, as provided in this chapter, remove from the approved list any school district in which more than ten percent of the students so drop out or quit over a five-year period. [61GA, ch 226,§5]

257.28 Nonresident pupils. The boards of directors of two or more school districts may by agreement provide for attendance of pupils residing in one district in the schools of another district for the purpose of taking courses not offered in the district of their residence. Courses made available to students in this manner shall be considered as complying with any standards or laws requiring the offering of such courses. The boards of directors of districts entering into such agreements may provide for sharing the costs and expenses of such courses. [61GA, ch 226,§6]

All bonds or notes issued under the provision of this division shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of (1) the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls, dormitories, dining or other incidental facilities and additions, including necessary real and personal property, acquired or improved in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds or notes, regardless of the manner of such acquisition or improvement, and (2) the net rents, profits and income not pledged for other purposes derived from the operation of any other residence halls or dormitories, including dining or other incidental facilities and additions, at the particular institution. The provisions of this division and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate rates, fees or rentals and the application of the proceeds thereof shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds or notes. [60GA, ch 166,§5]

262.60 Rates, fees and rentals — pledge. Whenever bonds or notes are issued by the state board of regents, it shall be the duty of said board to establish, impose and collect rates, fees or rentals for the use of and services provided by the residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities therefor, at the institution on behalf of which such bonds or notes are issued, and to adjust such rates, fees or rentals from time to time, in order to always provide net amounts sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds or notes as the same become due and to maintain a reserve therefor, and said board is authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other facilities therefor, at such institution for this purpose. If any area of the state is not a part of such a district by April 1, 1966, or is not included in a reorganization petition filed in accordance with section 275.12 on or before April 1, 1966, the area shall be attached by the county board of education to a district, or districts maintaining twelve grades, such attachment to become effective July 1, 1966, and provided such attachment has the approval of the state board of public instruction. Any such district or part thereof attached by the county board of education, with the approval of the state board of public instruction, shall have the right to appeal this attachment to a court of record in the county in which said district or part thereof is located within twenty days after the date of the approval by the state board of public instruction.

Any area included in a reorganization petition filed on or before April 1, 1966, and not becoming a part of a district maintaining twelve grades because of the subsequent failure of the proposal to carry or by reason of judicial appeal proceedings, shall be attached to a district, or districts maintaining twelve grades by the county board of education. Such attachment shall become effective July 1, 1966, or if impossible by said date because of later vote or appeal proceedings, on such date as fixed by the state board of public instruction. The authority of the county board of education to make such attachments shall extend beyond July 1, 1966, when necessary by reason of later vote or appeal proceedings.

It is further declared to be the policy of the state that no existing district or part thereof shall be included in such twelve-grade district prior to April 1, 1966 without the electors of such existing district or part thereof having an opportunity to vote the proposition to include such existing district or part thereof in said twelve-grade district. Provided, however, that any school district which has been reduced to less than four government sections as a result of reorganization may be annexed to a twelve-grade district by the board of education of the county in which located without the approval of the electors and areas in excess of four sections where no persons reside thereon and the land is owned by persons residing within the district to which such land is to be attached may be so attached. Provided, however, that the state superintendent of public instruction shall have authority to grant permission to a county board to approve the formation or enlargement of a school district containing a lower school population than above provided on the written request of such county board of education if such request is accompanied by evidence tending to show that sparsity of population, natural barriers or other good reason makes it impracticable to meet said school population requirement. Upon the written request of the county boards of education in adopting reorganization plans which conform to the state-wide plan of education and to state laws, the state superintendent of public instruction, subject to the

Pending completion of the final plans provided for in sections 275.1 to 275.4 hereof, the county board of education shall prepare and approve tentative plans for reorganization of school districts within the county after consultation with the boards of the various districts in the county and the state department of public instruction. Within ten days after the county board has approved their tentative plan they shall file such plan with the state department of public instruction. Any proposal for merger, consolidation or boundary change shall first be submitted to the county board of education for approval before being submitted at an election. The county board of education shall adopt and file a tentative county plan with the state department of public instruction no later than sixty days after a proposal for merger or consolidation has been presented to them for their approval under this section. Such proposals may provide for reducing an existing school district to less than four government sections and where such proposal is put into effect by election by the method hereinafter provided the county board shall by resolution attach or subdivide and attach the remaining portion or portions of said district to another school district or districts. In the case of controversy over the planning of joint districts, the matter shall be submitted to the state board* of public instruction and its decision may be appealed to a court of record in one of the counties involved, by an aggrieved party to the controversy, within thirty days after the decision of the state board* of public instruction. An aggrieved party is hereby defined as the board of directors of a school district whose directors are elected at large, or, if said board is elected from director districts, then that membership of the board of directors whose districts are included in the proposed reorganized area, or a county board of education.

For purposes of this chapter the planning of joint districts is defined to include all of the following acts:

2. Adoption of such plan at a joint session of the several county boards of education in whose counties such territory is situated.

3. Filing said plan with the state department of public instruction.

For purposes of subsection 1 hereof, joint planning shall be evidenced by filing the following items with the state department of public instruction:

Subject to the approval of the county board of education contiguous territory located in two or more school districts may be united into a single district in the manner provided in sections 275.12 to 275.23 hereof. [SS15,§2794-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4166; C46, 50, §276.13; C54, 58, 62,§275.11]

1. A petition describing the boundaries, or accurately describing the area included therein by legal descriptions, of the proposed district, which boundaries or area described shall conform to county plan or the petition shall request change of the county plan, shall be filed with the superintendent of schools of the county in which the greatest number of electors reside. Such petition shall be signed by voters in each existing school district affected or portion thereof equal in number to at least twenty percent of the number of eligible voters or four hundred voters, whichever is the smaller number. School districts affected or portion thereof shall be defined to mean that area to be included in the plan of the proposed new school district.

2. Such petition shall also state the number of directors which may be either five or seven and the method of election of the school directors of the proposed district. The method of election of the directors shall be one of the following optional plans:

a. Election at large from the entire district by the electors of the entire district.

b. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical subdistricts, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one director who shall be a resident of such director district but who shall be elected by the vote of the electors of the entire school district. The school district shall be divided into the same number of director districts as the number of school directors the district is authorized by law. The boundaries of such director districts and the area and population included within each district shall be such as justice, equity, and the interests of the people may require. Insofar as may be practicable, the boundaries of such districts shall follow established political or natural geographical divisions.

c. Election of not more than one-half of the total number of school directors at large from the entire district and the remaining directors from and as residents of designated director districts into which the entire school district shall be divided. In such case, all directors shall be elected by the electors of the entire school district.

d. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical subdistricts, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one director who shall be a resident of such director district and who shall be elected by the voters of said director district. Place of voting in such director districts shall be designated by the county board.

3. If the petition proposes the division of the school district into director districts, the boundaries of such proposed director districts shall be described in the petition.

4. The county board or boards of education in reviewing such petition as provided in sections 275.15 and 275.16 shall review the proposed method of election of school directors and shall have the duty and authority to change or amend such plan in any manner, including the changing of boundaries of director districts if proposed, or to specify a different method of electing school directors on the basis of area, school population, or assessed valuation as may be required by law, justice, equity, and the interest of the people. In such action the county board or boards shall follow the same procedure as is required by sections 275.15 and 275.16 for other action on the petition by the county board or boards. The county superintendent shall at once publish this order in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published and file any amendments to the county plan in the same manner as hereinabove provided for the original or tentative county plan. Within twenty days after the publication thereof the decision rendered by the county board of education may be appealed to a court of record in the county involved by any school district affected. The joint boards acting as a single board shall determine whether the petition conforms to county plans or, if the petition requests a change in county plans, whether such change should be made, and shall have the authority to change the plans of any or all the county boards affected by the petition, and it shall determine and fix boundaries for the proposed corporation as provided in section 275.15 or dismiss the petition. However, if such joint boards cast a tie vote and are unable to agree to an order fixing the boundaries for the proposed school district or to an order to dismiss the petition, the time during which such actions must be taken under the provisions of section 275.15 shall be extended from five days to fifteen days after the conclusion of the hearing under the provisions of section 275.15, and such joint board shall reconvene not less than ten and not more than fifteen days after the conclusion of such hearing. At such hearing the joint board shall reconsider their action and if a tie vote shall again be cast it shall be deemed an order granting the petition and changing the plans of any and all of the county boards affected by the petition and fixing the boundaries for the proposed school corporation. The county superintendent shall at once publish the decision in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published.

In case a controversy arises from such meeting, the county board or boards or any school district aggrieved may bring the controversy to the state department of public instruction, as provided in section 275.8, within twenty days from the publication of this order, and if said controversy is taken to the state department of public instruction, a ten-day notice in writing shall be given to all county boards and school districts affected or portions thereof. The state department shall have the authority to affirm the action of the joint boards, to vacate, to dismiss all proceedings or to make such modification of the action of the joint boards as in their judgment would serve the best interest of all the counties. If the proposition receives a majority of the votes cast in each of at least seventy-five percent of the said districts, and also a majority of the total number of votes cast in all of said districts, the proposition shall be deemed carried. Provided, however, that if two or more of the school districts affected have a resident average daily attendance in public schools of three hundred or more pupils who were enrolled in public schools in the preceding school year, the proposition must also receive a majority of the votes cast in each of said districts in order to be deemed carried, and in such districts the entire existing district shall vote. When any school district is enlarged, reorganized, or changes its boundary by the method hereinabove provided, the effective date of such change shall be July 1 following the election of the new board or, if no new board is elected, then on July 1 following the enlargement, reorganization or boundary change. [C54, 58, 62, §275.24]

275.25 Election of directors. If the proposition to establish a new corporation carries under the method hereinabove provided a special election shall be called by the county superintendent by giving notice by one publication in the same newspaper in which the former notices were published and he shall appoint judges who shall serve without pay. At such election, two directors shall be elected to serve until the next regular election, two until the second, and one until the third regular election thereafter, except in districts which include all or part of a city of fifteen thousand or more population and in districts in which the proposition to establish a new corporation provides for seven directors, three directors shall be elected to serve until the third regular election thereafter, all of whom to serve until such time as their successors are elected and qualified. Provided, however, that in all community school districts which include a city of fifteen thousand or more population and which became effective prior to July 4, 1955, and in all community school districts containing a city which has attained a population of fifteen thousand or more as shown by the most recent decennial federal census, the board of directors shall consist of seven members. Where it becomes necessary to increase the membership of any such board under the provisions hereof, two directors shall be added according to the procedure described in section 277.23. Provided, however, in cases involving two districts only, where the population of the new district does not exceed the population of the more populous of said districts by more than twenty-five percent, the incumbent board members of said more populous district shall continue to hold office as director of the new district for the remainder of their elective terms. Vacancies on any board caused by change in boundaries shall be filled in the manner provided in sections 279.6 and 279.7. stated period of time not to exceed three months.

When natural obstacles to transportation of pupils to another school in the same or in another corporation or other conditions make it clearly inadvisable that such elementary school be closed, the county superintendent may authorize the board in writing to contract with a teacher for such school for a stated period of time not to exceed three months.

Any contract with any teacher which is made in violation of the provisions of this section shall be null and void from its inception and no compensation shall be due or paid to any teacher who enters into a contract in violation of the provisions of this section.

282.20 Tuition fees—payment. The school corporation in which such student resides shall pay from the general fund to the secretary of the corporation in which he shall be permitted to enter a tuition fee sufficient to cover the average cost per high school child (including both resident and tuition students) in average daily attendance in the tuition-receiving district in the preceding year. Such tuition rates shall include expenditures from the general fund for general control, instruction, auxiliary agencies except transportation costs, co-ordinate activities, operation of plant, maintenance of plant, fixed charges including insurance on buildings and contents, capital, interest paid for debt service from the general fund, interest paid for debt service and retirement of bonds from the schoolhouse fund. No depreciation charge shall be made for the portion of the initial cost of buildings and equipment purchased with federal grants. On or before July 15, 1953, the board in each school corporation accepting tuition pupils shall cause its buildings to be appraised and an itemized statement of the results of the appraisal filed with the county superintendent. Such statement shall constitute the basis for the hereinabove provided depreciation charge. Such appraisal shall be made by a board comprised of the county or city assessor and one member appointed by the local school corporation and one member appointed by the county board of education.

Tuition charges for regularly established junior high schools not extending below the seventh grade shall be computed in the same manner as prescribed above for high schools, using the costs applicable to junior high schools.

The tuition rates and the computation thereof shall be filed with the county board of education not later than July 30 for its review and approval. Receiving districts cannot receive tuition until approval is granted by the county board of education. The right of appeal shall be as provided in section 285.13.

It shall be unlawful for any school district to rebate to any pupils or their parents, directly or indirectly, any portion of the tuition collected or to be collected or to authorize or permit such pupils to receive at the expense of the district, directly or indirectly, any special compensation, benefit, privilege, or other thing of value that is not and cannot legally be made available to all other pupils enrolled in its schools. Any superintendent or board members responsible for such unlawful act shall each be personally liable to a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars. Action to recover such penalty or action to enjoin such unlawful act may be instituted by the board of any school district or by a taxpayer in any school district.

On or before February 15 and June 15 of each year the secretary of the creditor district shall deliver to the secretary of the debtor district an itemized statement of such tuition fees. [SS15,§2733-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4277; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§282.20]

282.21 Collection of tuition fees. If payment is not made, the board of the creditor corporation shall file with the auditor of the county of the pupil's residence a statement certified by its president specifying the amount due for tuition, and the time for which the same is claimed. The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such account from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation, and he shall pay the same accordingly. [SS15,§2733-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4278; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§282.21]

In such case the cost of the tuition and transportation, when required by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state as provided in section 282.23. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4283; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§282.22]

282.23 Tuition when in boarding home. When any child of school age has become a public charge and is being cared for in a children's boarding home licensed by the state, and the domicile of such child at the time it became a public charge was in another school district than the one wherein such boarding home is located, then, such child shall be entitled to attend public school in the school district in which such boarding home is located, or if such district does not maintain a school offering instruction in the grade in which such child is properly classified, then such child may attend upon such instruction in any approved public school in the state that will receive it. The tuition and transportation when required of such a child, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon the requisition of the superintendent of public instruction. If such child was in the district at the time the regular biennial school census was taken, the semiannual apportionments shall be deducted from the tuition due the district under the provisions of this section. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby empowered to require such reports as are necessary properly to carry out the provisions of this section. [C39,§4283.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§282.23]

282.24 Tuition rates determined by superintendent. The superintendent of public instruction shall determine a maximum tuition rate to be charged for students, elementary or high school, residing within another school district or corporation. This maximum tuition rate shall be determined in the following manner: Classify all schools, elementary and secondary, located in school districts or corporations with populations of one thousand to fourteen thousand nine hundred ninety-nine, inclusive, according to monthly per pupil costs. In such classification the school that falls within the eighty-fifth percentile of the monthly per pupil cost shall form the basis. Using this figure the elementary and high school tuition rates for the succeeding year shall be determined so that the rate for the high school student is one and seventy-five hundredths times the rate for the elementary student. The junior high school rate shall be one and fifty hundredths times the elementary rate.

The superintendent of public instruction shall, after July 1 but before September 1 of each year, notify every school in the state, affected by this section, what the computed maximum tuition rate shall be for the ensuing year.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the corporation or district in which the student resides from paying a tuition in excess of the maximum computed tuition rates, if the actual per pupil cost of the preceding year so warrants, but in no case may the receiving district or corporation demand more than the maximum rate. [C50, 54, 58, 62,§282.24]

Referred to in §§279.18, 282.20

282.25 Children in state institutions. When any child is cared for in any state supported institution in this state which does not maintain a school and the domicile of the child is in another school district than that wherein the institution is situated, then such child shall be entitled to attend school in the district where such institution is located, provided, however, the board of the district has the authority to determine if such child can be benefited from such attendance. In such case the cost of tuition and transportation, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon requisition of the superintendent of public instruction. [61GA, ch 249,§1]

282.26 High school students attending advanced courses. The board of any junior college school district may, by mutual agreement with any college or university, permit any specially qualified high school student to attend advanced courses of academic instruction therein.

The state board of regents and the department of public instruction may by rule permit such students to attend any institution of higher learning under their jurisdiction. Credit earned in any such course at a junior college, college or university may be applied toward credit for high school graduation. No public school funds shall be expended for payment of tuition or other costs for such attendance at any college or university, unless such payment is expressly permitted or required by law.

The foregoing provisions shall also apply to junior colleges, colleges and universities in adjacent states when such institutions are located nearer to the homes or schools of the school district than the closest junior college, college or university within the state. [61GA, ch 250,§1]

CHAPTER 284

REIMBURSEMENT OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS FOR LOSS OF TAXES

Referred to in §274.46

284.1 Reimbursement—by whom computed.
284.2 Basis of computation—limitation.
284.3 Certification of amount.
284.4 Payment to district.

284.5 Secretary to file statement.
284.6 Auditor to deduct reimbursement.
284.7 Commission to prepare forms.

284.1 Reimbursement—by whom computed. When unplatted lands within the boundaries of a school district are owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by a county, or by a municipal corporation located wholly outside said school district, and such lands have been removed from taxation for school purposes, said school district shall be reimbursed, as hereinafter provided, in an amount which shall be computed by the county board of supervisors in the county in which such lands are located, which computation shall be made on or before the first day of September in the year in which said deductions are to be made. [C31, §4283-c9; C35, §4283-e1; C39, §4283.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §284.1]

Referred to in §§284.2, 284.3

284.2 Basis of computation—limitation. The computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made: (1) On the basis of the proportion that the assessable value of the total number of acres owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by the county, or by the municipal corporation, as the case may be, in such school district bears to the assessable value of the total number of acres in said school district. The average assessable value per acre of the lands so owned within the school district shall, for the purposes of the computation provided for in this chapter, not exceed the average assessable value per acre of the taxable lands in said district, or (2), if said land or any part thereof is being operated by a municipal corporation for veterans or public housing purposes, and said municipal corporation does not furnish school facilities for tenants' children of school age, then the municipal corporation shall be obligated to provide its proportionate share of the education and building costs of the school district in which said project is located and the computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made on the basis of the proportion the number of pupils attending said school district from said land bears to the total number of pupils attending said school district. The use of either computation provided for in this section shall be determined on the basis of whichever is the greater. [C31,§4283-c10; C35,§4283-e2; C39,§4283.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§284.2]

Referred to in §284.3

284.3 Certification of amount. When the county board of supervisors shall have computed the amount due a school district, as provided in sections 284.1 and 284.2, it shall forthwith certify the same to the county auditor of the proper county or to the secretary of the executive council, if the lands upon which computed belong to the government of the United States or to the state, or to the council of the proper municipal corporation, if they belong to a municipal corporation, except, that where the lands belong to a municipal corporation and the computation provided for in section 284.2, subsection 2 applies, it shall be the duty of the county board of supervisors to compute the amount due a school district, as provided in said section 284.2, subsections 1 and 2, and forthwith certify the computed amount to the council of the proper municipal corporation, and the amounts due shall be payable as follows, to wit: The municipal corporation shall pay the amount shown by the computation provided under section 284.2, subsection 1, and shall in addition pay the amount in excess thereof as computed under section 284.2, subsection 2, which certificate shall be filed with the secretary of the executive council not later than April 1 of each succeeding year. shall become the duty of the council of such municipal corporation or the county auditor of such county, as the case may be, to cause a warrant in said amount to be drawn on the general fund of such county or such municipal corporation and delivered to the secretary of said school district.

When the computed amount is based upon lands belonging to the state or to the government of the United States, as provided herein, it shall then become the duty of the secretary of the executive council of the state to certify the amount to the state comptroller, who shall draw his warrant to the secretary of said school district and the treasurer of state shall pay the same from any funds of the state not otherwise appropriated.

If the computed reimbursement to a school district on state or government-owned land within the district is not sufficient to cover the tuition such district is required to pay because of children of employees of the state or federal government who reside on such land and attend a public school outside the district in which such land is located, then the county board of supervisors shall add to the computed reimbursement to such district the difference between the computed reimbursement and the tuition such district is required by law to pay because of the children of such employees, and certify the total to the secretary of the executive council for payment by the state as provided by law.

The executive council of the state shall deduct from tax-free land reimbursement claims those amounts certified to them by county boards of education under section 467B.14. [C31,§§4283-c3,-c12; C35,§4283-e4; C39,§4283.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§284.4; 61GA, ch 377,§2]

a. Elementary pupils residing within the limits of a village, town, or city of less than twenty thousand population wherein the designated school is located, must live more than two miles from the school in their district designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.

b. Elementary pupils residing in a district wherein is located a city of twenty thousand or more in population must live more than two miles from the public school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.

c. Elementary pupils residing in a rural independent district, a rural township district, or a consolidated district not operating a central school, when the school in the district or subdistrict is in operation, must live more than two miles from the school in their own district or subdistrict to be entitled to transportation.

Boards at their discretion may provide transportation for resident elementary children attending public school who live less than the distance at which transportation is required.

d. High school pupils residing within the limits of a village, town, or city of less than twenty thousand population wherein the designated school is located are not entitled to transportation.

e. High school pupils residing in a district containing a city of twenty thousand population or over must live more than three miles from high school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation thereto.

Boards at their discretion may provide transportation for all high school pupils residing inside the corporate limits of any town, village, or city, and more than two miles from designated high school.

2. Any pupil may be required to meet a school bus on the approved route a distance of not to exceed three-fourths of a mile without reimbursement.

3. In any district where transportation by school bus is impracticable or where school bus service is not available, the board may require the parents or guardian to transport their children to the school designated for attendance. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation service for elementary pupils by the board of resident district for the distance one way from the pupil's residence to the school designated for attendance at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day irrespective of number of children transported. For high school pupils, the parent or guardian shall be reimbursed forty dollars per pupil per year for such service, provided however no family shall receive more than eighty dollars per year for transporting the members of the family who attend high school.

4. In all districts where unsatisfactory roads or other conditions make it advisable, the board at its discretion may require the parent or guardian to transport their children up to two miles to connect with a vehicle of transportation. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation by the board of resident district at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day, one way, per family for the distance from pupil's residence to the bus route.

5. Where transportation by school bus is impracticable or not available or other existing conditions warrant it, arrangements may be made for use of common carriers according to uniform standards established by the state superintendent of public instruction. The cost shall be the actual cost of service not to exceed forty dollars per pupil per year.

6. When the school designated for attendance of pupils is engaged in the transportation of pupils, the sending or designating school shall use these facilities and pay the pro rata cost of transportation except that a district sending pupils to another school may make other arrangements when it can be shown that such arrangements will be more efficient and economical than to use facilities of the receiving school, providing such arrangements are approved by the county board of education.

7. If a board closes either elementary or high school facilities and is approved by the county board of education to operate its own transportation equipment, the full cost of transportation shall be paid by the board for all pupils living beyond the statutory walking distance from the school designated for attendance.

8. Transportation service may be suspended upon any day or days, due to inclemency of the weather, conditions of roads, or the existence of other conditions, by the board of the school district operating the buses, when in their judgment it is deemed advisable and when the school or schools are closed to all children.

9. Distance to school or to a bus route shall in all cases be measured on the public highway only and over the most passable and safest route as determined by the county board of education, starting in the roadway opposite the private entrance to the residence of the pupil and ending in the roadway opposite the entrance to the school grounds or designated point on bus route.

10. The board in any district providing transportation for nonresident pupils shall collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the district of pupil's residence for all properly designated pupils so transported.

11. Boards in districts operating buses may transport nonresident pupils who attend public school, kindergarten through junior college, who are not entitled to free transportation provided they collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the parents.

12. The pro rata cost of transportation shall be based upon the actual cost for all the children transported in all school buses. It shall include one-seventh of the original net cost of the bus and such other items as shall be determined and approved by the superintendent of public instruction but no part of the capital outlay cost for school buses and transportation equipment for which the school district is reimbursed from state funds or that portion of the cost of the operation of any school bus used in transporting pupils to and from extra-curricular activities shall be included in determining said pro rata cost. In any district where because of unusual conditions, the cost of transportation is in excess of the actual operating cost of the bus route used to furnish transportation to nonresident pupils, the board of the local district may charge a cost equal to the cost of other schools supplying such service to that area, upon receiving approval of the state director of school transportation. Capital outlay for school buses and transportation equipment shall be excluded from the capital outlay in determining tuition costs as provided in section 279.18, and section 282.20.

13. When a local board fails to pay transportation costs due to another school for transportation service rendered, the board of the creditor corporation shall file a sworn statement with the county board of education specifying the amount due. The county board of education shall check such claim and if the claim is valid shall certify to the county auditor. The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such claim from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation and the treasurer shall pay the same accordingly.

14. The state superintendent of public instruction may review all transportation arrangements to see that they meet all legal and established uniform standard requirements.

15. Every school district required by law to provide transportation shall be reimbursed by the state for transportation costs incurred in amount and manner as provided in this chapter. However, no state reimbursement shall be made to school districts to cover costs incurred in transporting pupils from home to a bus route, or any others not entitled to free transportation, but who are transported at the expense of the home district or the parents. [S13, §§2794-b,-c,-d,-e; SS15, §§2794-a,-g; C24, 27, 31, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186; C35, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186, 4233-e5; C39, §§4179-4181, 4184, 4186, 4233.5; C46, §§276.26, 276.28, 276.29, 276.32, 276.34, 279.20, 285.1, 285.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, §285.1]

285.2 Basis of reimbursement. Reimbursement shall be for the school year preceding that in which it is made on the basis of thirty dollars per pupil per annum. In school districts where transportation by school bus is not practicable or available, and approved special transportation arrangements are made, the reimbursement from the state for such costs shall be twenty-three dollars per pupil per school year, except that in no event shall any district be reimbursed in any amount in excess of the actual cost per pupil per year.

Reimbursement from the state for transportation costs incurred shall be paid to:

a. Districts for transportation provided to its own school for all pupils entitled to free transportation.

b. Districts for transportation provided to another school for all pupils entitled to free transportation.

c. Districts for transportation provided to pupils residing in one district and who are entitled to transportation but are transported to a school other than to the school which is operating the transportation equipment.

When the pupils from the sending district are transported by the receiving district the reimbursement will be made to the receiving district and shall constitute a credit to the sending district on the cost of transportation. The receiving district in billing the sending district shall bill only for the difference between the state reimbursement and the actual approved cost of transportation.

The appropriation for transportation shall be used to reimburse school districts for cost incurred in the amount and manner as are provided in this chapter. In the event the balance is insufficient to reimburse the district in full for the approved claims, the amount available shall be prorated to the several districts in ratio to amount earned. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §285.2]

In making designations, the local board shall give consideration to the wishes of the majority of the patrons, the adequacy of the facilities and curricular offerings and available bus service to avoid duplication of transportation facilities to different receiving schools.

When a board closes its elementary school facilities for lack of pupils or by action of the board, it shall, if there is a school bus service available in the area, designate for attendance the school operating the buses, provided the board of such school is willing to receive them and the facilities and curricular offerings are adequate. The board of the district where the pupils reside may with the approval of the county board of education, subject to legal limitations and established uniform standards, designate another rural school and provide their own transportation if the transportation costs will be less than to use the established bus service.

All designations must be submitted to the county board of education on or before July 15, for review and approval. The county board of education shall after due investigation alter or change designations to make them conform to legal requirements and established uniform standards for making designations and for locating and establishing bus routes. After designations are made, they will remain the same from year to year except that on or before July 15, of each year, the rural board or parents may petition the county board for a change of designation to another school. Appeals from the decision of the county board on designations may be made by either the parents or board to the state superintendent of public instruction as provided in section 285.12 and section 285.13. 2. The funds which shall be considered available to any district to meet the educational cost described in subsection 1 of this section, shall include: (a) The estimated proceeds of a standard local tax rate (exclusive of the rate for the schoolhouse fund) of fifteen mills for all districts with high schools and ten mills for elementary districts.

3. Take the sum of the amounts found in subsections 1 and 2 of this section.

4. From this sum, subtract the receipts in the general fund, which are described in subsection 2 of section 286.4. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §286.5]

286.6 Determination of total aid. The amount of supplementary aid per census child to which the district is entitled, if any, shall be multiplied by the school census to obtain the total state aid to which the district is entitled. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §286.6]

286.7 Information furnished by school district. The supplementary aid shall take the form of reimbursement to the school district for its educational program of the preceding year. At the close of each school year, but not later than June 30, the local district shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district. Forms for this purpose shall be supplied by the state department to each school district at the beginning of each school year. After the claim has been calculated and validated for accuracy, the department of public instruction shall immediately certify to the state comptroller the amount of reimbursement due to each school district, and in no event shall the process of certification, calculation and validation extend more than sixty days beyond the time when a given district has submitted its data for the preceding year. In event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total funds appropriated and available bears to the total amount certified for reimbursement. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §286.7]

GENERAL AID TO SCHOOLS

Referred to in §265.6

286A.1 Right of districts to general aid—mandatory tax levy.
286A.2 Definitions.
286A.3 Basis of aid—standards for junior colleges.

286A.4 Determination.
286A.5 Information furnished by school district.
286A.6 Rules and regulations.
286A.7 Funds.

286A.1 Right of districts to general aid—mandatory tax levy. The several school districts in the state of Iowa shall be entitled to and receive financial aid from the state in the manner and amount as provided in this chapter.

No school district shall receive financial aid under the provisions of this chapter in the event a school tax levy for the general fund of at least fifteen mills was not made in such district for the preceding year. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.1]

286A.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter an elementary pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school who has not entered the ninth grade, and a high school pupil is a pupil of school age attending public school in any of the grades ninth to twelfth inclusive. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.2]

286A.3 Basis of aid—standards for junior colleges. General school aid shall be distributed under this chapter on the basis provided in section 286A.4.

Approval standards for public community and junior colleges shall be established and approved as prescribed in section 280A.33, with said standards to be issued and enforced by the state department of public instruction. Eligibility for receipt of state aid for public community and junior colleges shall be determined by the state board of public instruction and the state board of regents. No aid shall be paid to a public community or junior college unless such college meets approval standards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.3; 61GA, ch 247, §36]

286A.4 Determination. The general school aid funds allocated to each district shall be determined as follows:

1. Multiply seventeen cents by the combined number of nontuition elementary students in average daily attendance and average number of elementary students for which the district pays tuition to another district. Multiply this product by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days.

2. Multiply twenty cents by the combined number of nontuition high school students in average daily attendance and average number of high school students for which the district pays tuition to another district. Multiply this product by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days.

3. Multiply one dollar by the average daily enrollment of the students who are residents of the community or junior college district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of resident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply two dollars and twenty-five cents by the average daily enrollment of students who are nonresidents of the district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of nonresident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply the sum of these products by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For the purpose of this section "work" means subjects or courses for which credit is granted and which are approved by the state department of public instruction for state aid.

Multiply one dollar and thirty cents by the number of students for which the district pays tuition for such students to attend an area vocational technical high school or program which has been established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the vocational technical school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For any district which has an area vocational technical high school or program established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258, multiply one dollar and fifty cents by the number of full-time day students who have graduated from high school or who are beyond twenty-one years of age and are tuition students. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. A school district, in computing the tuition to charge such a student, shall deduct the amount of general aid received for such student from the regular tuition for such student.

Merged areas operating an area vocational school or area community college shall be entitled to general school aid. The general school aid funds allocated to each merged area operating an area vocational school or area community college shall be determined by multiplying two dollars and twenty-five cents by the average daily enrollment of students who are residents of the state and who are attending the vocational school or community college and are carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply this product by the actual number of days the school or college was officially in session. The aid computation shall be made separately for each area vocational school or area community college.

4. Take the sum of the amounts found in subsections 1, 2, and 3 of this section, this being the amount to which the district is entitled for general school aid under this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.4; 60GA, ch 173, §1; 61GA, ch 247, §§37, 38]

Referred to in §286A.3

286A.5 Information furnished by school district. At the close of each school year, but not later than July 5, the local district shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district. For any day student who has been enrolled on a less than a full school-day basis, the reimbursement shall be calculated proportionately to the portion for which he is enrolled as shall be determined by the state department of public instruction. Forms for this purpose shall be supplied by the state department to each school district not later than June 1. After all claims have been calculated and validated for accuracy, the department of public instruction shall certify the same to the state comptroller not later than September 1 for payment. The state comptroller shall pay one-half of the amount appropriated for general aid to schools on or about November 1 each year and one-half on or about May 1 of the succeeding year. In event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total funds appropriated and available bears to the total amount certified for reimbursement. All funds received or to be received under the provisions of this chapter shall be taken into account and considered by each school district when estimating the amount required for the general fund. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.5; 60GA, ch 174, §1; ch 175, §1]

286A.6 Rules and regulations. The superintendent of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations and definitions of terms as are necessary and proper for the administration of this chapter. The necessary expenses incurred by the department of public instruction in the administration of this chapter may be paid from the appropriation therefor. When such conditions as unnatural weather hazards, bad roads, epidemics, and the like, occur to such an extent as to penalize any district, the superintendent of public instruction can adjust the formula by taking the average of several months attendance in lieu of the months affected by such epidemics or hazards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.6]

286A.7 Funds. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter for the distribution of general school aid, the funds of each school district, except schoolhouse funds, shall be designated as a general fund.

All general aid moneys distributed to a public school district shall be placed in the general fund of said district which fund shall be used only for the cost of maintaining and operating the school and the cost of instruction and supervision occasioned by the teaching of the curriculum of said school and for the purposes set forth in chapters 97B and 97C and sections 294.8, 294.9, 294.10, 294.11, 294.12, 294.13, and 294.14.

The board of directors of each school district shall prepare a budget as required by law setting out the amount of money proposed to be expended from the general fund. The board shall include all state funds distributed to the district under the provisions of this chapter in the anticipated income to be received by the general fund, and the amount to be raised by taxation for general fund purposes shall be fixed after deducting the amount to be received pursuant to this chapter, any other funds received from the state of Iowa, and funds from any other source, from the budget requirements.

Not later than September 1 of each year the department of public instruction shall certify to the board of supervisors of each county the amount of general aid, supplementary aid, transportation aid, and any other state aid that will be received by each school district within the county. In the event any estimate of said aids in any school budget certified to the county auditor, as provided by section 24.17 is less than the amount of said aid certified to the county board of supervisors by the department of public instruction as provided by this section, the board of supervisors shall reduce the amount to be raised by taxation shown in the certified budget by an amount equal to the difference between the estimated aid in the budget and the amount of aid certified to the board of supervisors by the state department of public instruction before levying the taxes as provided by section 298.8. [C50, 54, 58, 62, §286A.7; 60GA, ch 174, §2; 61GA, ch 251, §1]
