CHAPTER 218A

INTERSTATE MENTAL HEALTH COMPACT

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted.
218A.2 Administrator.
218A.3 Supplementary agreements.
218A.4 Payments.
218A.5 Consultation.
218A.6 Distribution of compact.

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted. The interstate compact on mental health is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that the proper and expeditious treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient can be facilitated by cooperative action, to the benefit of the patients, their families, and society as a whole. Further, the party states find that the necessity of and desirability for furnishing such care and treatment bears no primary relation to the residence or citizenship of the patient but that, on the contrary, the controlling factors of community safety and humanitarianism require that facilities and services be made available for all who are in need of them. Consequently, it is the purpose of this compact and of the party states to provide the necessary legal basis for the institutionalization or other appropriate care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient under a system that recognizes the paramount importance of patient welfare and to establish the responsibilities of the party states in terms of such welfare.

ARTICLE II

As used in this compact:

a. "Sending state" shall mean a party state from which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or from which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

b. "Receiving state" shall mean a party state to which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or to which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

c. "Institution" shall mean any hospital or other facility maintained by a party state or political subdivision thereof for the care and treatment of mental illness or mental deficiency.

d. "Patient" shall mean any person subject to or eligible as determined by the laws of the sending state, for institutionalization or other care, treatment, or supervision pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

e. "After-care" shall mean care, treatment and services provided a patient, as defined herein, on convalescent status or conditional release.

f. "Mental illness" shall mean mental disease to such extent that a person so afflicted requires care and treatment for his own welfare, or the welfare of others, or of the community.

g. "Mental deficiency" shall mean mental deficiency as defined by appropriate clinical authorities to such extent that a person so afflicted is incapable of managing himself and his affairs, but shall not include mental illness as defined herein.

h. "State" shall mean any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III

a. Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency, he shall be eligible for care and treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of his residence, settlement or citizenship qualifications.

b. The provisions of paragraph "a" of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, any patient may be transferred to an institution in another state whenever there are factors based upon clinical determinations indicating that the care and treatment of said patient would be facilitated or improved thereby. Any such institutionalization may be for the entire period of care and treatment or for any portion or portions thereof. The factors referred to in this paragraph shall include the patient's full record with due regard for the location of the patient's family, character of the illness and probable duration thereof, and such other factors as shall be considered appropriate.

c. No state shall be obliged to receive any patient pursuant to the provisions of paragraph "b" of this article unless the sending state has given advance notice of its intention to send the patient; furnished all available medical and other pertinent records concerning the patient; given the qualified medical or other appropriate clinical authorities of the receiving state an opportunity to examine the patient if said authorities so wish; and unless the receiving state shall agree to accept the patient.

d. In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients, an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that he would be taken if he were a local patient.

e. Pursuant to this compact, the determination as to the suitable place of institutionalization for a patient may be reviewed at any time and such further transfer of the patient may be made as seems likely to be in the best interest of the patient.

ARTICLE IV

a. Whenever, pursuant to the laws of the state in which a patient is physically present, it shall be determined that the patient should receive after-care or supervision, such care or supervision may be provided in a receiving state. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state shall have reason to believe that after-care in another state would be in the best interest of the patient and would not jeopardize the public safety, they shall request the appropriate authorities in the receiving state to investigate the desirability of affording the patient such after-care in said receiving state, and such investigation shall be made with all reasonable speed. The request for investigation shall be accompanied by complete information concerning the patient's intended place of residence and the identity of the person in whose charge it is proposed to place the patient, the complete medical history of the patient, and such other documents as may be pertinent.

b. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state and the appropriate authorities in the receiving state find that the best interest of the patient would be served thereby, and if the public safety would not be jeopardized thereby, the patient may receive after-care or supervision in the receiving state.

c. In supervising, treating, or caring for a patient on after-care pursuant to the terms of this article, a receiving state shall employ the same standards of visitation, examination, care, and treatment that it employs for similar local patients.

ARTICLE V

Whenever a dangerous or potentially dangerous patient escapes from an institution in any party state, that state shall promptly notify all appropriate authorities within and without the jurisdiction of the escape in a manner reasonably calculated to facilitate the speedy apprehension of the escapee. Immediately upon the apprehension and identification of any such dangerous or potentially dangerous patient, he shall be detained in the state where found pending disposition in accordance with law.

Referred to in article IX(a)

ARTICLE VI

The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the patient, shall be permitted to transport any patient being moved pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE VII

a. No person shall be deemed a patient of more than one institution at any given time. Completion of transfer of any patient to an institution in a receiving state shall have the effect of making the person a patient of the institution in the receiving state.

b. The sending state shall pay all costs of and incidental to the transportation of any patient pursuant to this compact, but any two or more party states may, by making a specific agreement for that purpose, arrange for a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

Referred to in article XIII(b)

c. No provision of this compact shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationships among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

d. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to any provision of this compact.

e. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to invalidate any reciprocal agreement between a party state and a nonparty state relating to institutionalization, care or treatment of the mentally ill or mentally deficient, or any statutory authority pursuant to which such agreements may be made.

a. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to abridge, diminish, or in any way impair the rights, duties, and responsibilities of any patient's guardian on his own behalf or in respect of any patient for whom he may serve, except that where the transfer of any patient to another jurisdiction makes advisable the appointment of a supplemental or substitute guardian, any court of competent jurisdiction in the receiving state may make such supplemental or substitute appointment and the court which appointed the previous guardian shall upon being duly advised of the new appointment, and upon the satisfactory completion of such accounting and other acts as such court may by law require, relieve the previous guardian of power and responsibility to whatever extent shall be appropriate in the circumstances; provided, however, that in the case of any patient having settlement in the sending state, the court of competent jurisdiction in the sending state shall have the sole discretion to relieve a guardian appointed by it or continue his power and responsibility, whichever it shall deem advisable. The court in the receiving state may, in its discretion, confirm or reappoint the person or persons previously serving as guardian in the sending state in lieu of making a supplemental or substitute appointment.

b. The term "guardian" as used in paragraph "a" of this article shall include any guardian, trustee, legal committee, conservator, or other person or agency however denominated who is charged by law with power to act for or responsibility for the person or property of a patient.

ARTICLE IX

a. No provision of this compact except article V shall apply to any person institutionalized while under sentence in a penal or correctional institution or while subject to trial on a criminal charge, or whose institutionalization is due to the commission of an offense for which, in the absence of mental illness or mental deficiency, said person would be subject to incarceration in a penal or correctional institution.

b. To every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no patient shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup, but such patient shall, with all expedition, be taken to a suitable institutional facility for mental illness or mental deficiency.

ARTICLE X

a. Each party state shall appoint a "compact administrator" who, on behalf of his state, shall act as general co-ordinator of activities under the compact in his state and who shall receive copies of all reports, correspondence, and other documents relating to any patient processed under the compact by his state either in the capacity of sending or receiving state. The compact administrator or his duly designated representative shall be the official with whom other party states shall deal in any matter relating to the compact or any patient processed thereunder.

b. The compact administrators of the respective party states shall have power to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XI

The duly constituted administrative authorities of any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements for the provision of any service or facility or for the maintenance of any institution on a joint or co-operative basis whenever the states concerned shall find that such agreements will improve services, facilities, or institutional care and treatment in the fields of mental illness or mental deficiency. No such supplementary agreement shall be construed so as to relieve any party state of any obligation which it otherwise would have under other provisions of this compact.

Referred to in article XIII(b), §218A.3

ARTICLE XII

This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states legally joining therein.

ARTICLE XIII

a. A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. Such withdrawal shall take effect one year after notice thereof has been communicated officially and in writing to the governors and compact administrators of all other party states. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not change the status of any patient who has been sent to said state or sent out of said state pursuant to the provisions of the compact.

b. Withdrawal from any agreement permitted by article VII "b" as to costs or from any supplementary agreement made pursuant to article XI shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §218A.1]

218A.2 Administrator. Pursuant to said compact, the director of the division of mental health of the department of social services shall be the compact administrator and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms of the compact. The compact administrator is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to co-operate with all departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of this state and its subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact of any supplementary agreement or agreements entered into by this state thereunder. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§218A.2]

218A.3 Supplementary agreements. The compact administrator is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to articles VII and XI of the compact. In the event that such supplementary agreements shall require or contemplate the use of any institution or facility of this state or require or contemplate the provisions of any service by this state, no such agreement shall have force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction said institution or facility is operated or whose department or agency will be charged with the rendering of such service. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§218A.3]

218A.4 Payments. The compact administrator, subject to the approval of the commissioner of the department of social services, may make or arrange for any payments necessary to discharge any financial obligations imposed upon this state by the compact or by any supplementary agreement entered into thereunder. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§218A.4]

218A.6 Distribution of compact. Duly authorized copies of this chapter shall, upon its approval be transmitted by the secretary of state to the governor of each state, the attorney general and the administrator of general services of the United States, and the council of state governments. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §218A.6]

218B.1 Citation. This chapter may be cited as the "Interstate Corrections Compact." [C75,§218B.1]

218B.2 Corrections compact. The interstate corrections compact is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with any other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE AND POLICY

The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of co-operation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of co-operation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "State" means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

3. "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

4. "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to or confined in a penal or correctional institution.

5. "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III—CONTRACTS

Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

1. Its duration.

2. Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.

3. Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom.

4. Delivery and retaking of inmates.

5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

ARTICLE IV—PROCEDURES AND RIGHTS

Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of article III.

Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

ARTICLE V—ACTS NOT REVIEWABLE IN RECEIVING STATE—EXTRADITION

Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

ARTICLE VI—FEDERAL AID

Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII—ENTRY INTO FORCE

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

ARTICLE VIII—WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE IX—OTHER ARRANGEMENTS UNAFFECTED

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of co-operative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C75,§218B.2]

218B.3 Duty of commissioner. The commissioner of social services is authorized and directed to do all things necessary or incidental to the carrying out of the compact in every particular and he may in his discretion delegate this authority to the director of the division of corrections. [C75,§218B.3]

219.13 Mentally ill and intemperate persons. No person shall be received or retained in the home who is mentally ill, is an inebriate, or is addicted to the use of drugs. When a member of the home is discharged therefrom, or voluntarily leaves the home, or is adjudged mentally ill after admittance, his or her residence shall be that of the county in which he or she was residing at the time of his or her admittance to the home. [C97,§2605; C24, 27, 31, 35,§3370; C39,§3384.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §219.13]

219.14 Contributing to own support. Every member of the home who receives a pension, compensation or gratuity from the United States government, or income from any source of more than twenty dollars per month, shall contribute to his or her own maintenance or support while a member of the home. The amount of the contribution and the method of collection shall be determined by the director, but the amount shall in no case exceed the actual cost of keeping and maintaining such a person in the home. The director may require any member of the home to render such assistance in the care of the home and its ground as his or her psychosocial and physical condition will permit, as a phase of that member's rehabilitation program. The director shall compensate each member who furnishes such assistance at rates established by the director in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of the United States fair labor standards Act (52 Stat 1068, 29 USC 214), as amended to January 1, 1976. [S13,§§2602-a, 2606-a; C24, 27, 31, 35,§3377; C39,§3384.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§219.14; 66GA, ch 1132,§8]

219.15 Payment to dependents. Each member of the home who receives a pension or compensation and who has a dependent spouse or child, as defined in section 234.1, shall deposit with the commandant forthwith on receipt of the member's pension or compensation check one-half of the amount thereof, which shall be sent at once to the spouse if the spouse is dependent upon employment or others for support, or, if there be no spouse, to the guardian of the child, as defined in section 234.1, if dependent upon others for support. The commandant, if satisfied that the spouse has deserted the member of the home, or is of bad character, or is not dependent upon others for support, may pay the money deposited as herein provided to the guardian of the dependent child, as defined in section 234.1. [S13,§2606-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§§3379, 3384; C39, §3384.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§219.15]

219.16 Conditional admittance. The director may, if there is room for all dependent applicants and members, admit and allow to remain in the home, persons who have sufficient means for their own support, but are otherwise eligible to become members of the home, on payment of the cost of their support, which cost and method of collection shall be fixed from time to time by the director. [S13,§2606-a; C24, 27, 31, 35,§3371; C39,§3384.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§219.16]

219.17 Remittance to treasurer. All sums paid to and received by the business manager or the commandant, under this chapter, for the support of members in the home, shall be paid monthly by him to the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state. The commandant shall administer and enforce all rules and regulations adopted by the director, including rules of discipline, and shall have power to dismiss any member from the home for infraction of such rules and regulations subject to the approval of the director. [C39,§3384.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§219.18]

219.19 Dual conviction — probation. Any person who, while a member of the home, is twice convicted of an offense against the statutes of the state, or twice found guilty by the commandant or a court martial of intoxication or other infraction of the rules of the home, shall be required to deposit all of his pension money with the commandant immediately upon receipt of his pension check or warrant. In lieu of trial by the commandant the member may demand a court martial. Such pension money shall be deposited by the commandant in a separate account for and in behalf of such pensioner and the commandant shall, under such rules as the director may provide, pay the same out with the consent of the pensioner in such manner and for such purposes as the director may approve. If, after a period of six months, the pensioner shall conduct himself in an orderly and sober manner, said deposit shall be returned to him. If the pensioner be discharged from the home the balance of such deposit shall be paid to said pensioner within thirty days after his discharge. [S13,§2606-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§§3378, 3380, 3381, 3382; C39,§3384.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§219.19]

220.2 Establishment of authority.

1. The Iowa housing finance authority is established, and constituted a public instrumentality and agency of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions, established to undertake programs which assist in attainment of adequate housing for low or moderate income families, elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, and the Iowa homesteading program. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a board of nine members appointed by the governor with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate. No more than five members shall belong to the same political party. Any individual or organization may submit the names of nominees for membership to the governor in writing within thirty days of the effective date of this section, but the governor is not bound to select the members from the nominees submitted. As far as possible the governor shall include within the membership persons determined by him to represent the following interests:

a. Community and housing development industries.
b. Housing finance industries.
c. Real estate sales industry.
d. Elderly families.
e. Minorities.
f. Lower income families.
g. Very low income families.
h. Handicapped and disabled families.
i. Average taxpayer.

2. Members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for a term of six years, except that, of the first appointments, three members shall be appointed for a term of two years, and three members shall be appointed for a term of four years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member of the authority may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing.

3. Six members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of at least five members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the authority. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority.

4. Members of the authority are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

5. Members of the authority and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

6. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairman or whenever two members so request.

7. Members shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director shall serve as secretary to the authority.

8. The net earnings of the authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations, or to implement the public purposes and programs herein authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority, including any such net earnings of the authority, shall vest in the state. The state reserves the right at any time to alter, amend, repeal, or otherwise change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the authority, including the power to terminate the authority, except that no law shall ever be passed impairing the obligation of any contract or contracts entered into by the authority to the extent that any such law would contravene article I, section 21 of the Constitution of the state of Iowa or article I, section 10 of the Constitution of the United States. [66GA, ch 138,§2, ch 1135,§1]

220.3 Legislative findings. The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious shortage of safe and sanitary residential housing available to low or moderate income families.

4. This shortage is conducive to disease, crime, environmental decline and poverty and impairs the economic value of large areas, which are characterized by depreciated values, impaired investments, and reduced capacity to pay taxes and are a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the state.

5. These conditions result in a loss in population and further deterioration, accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services elsewhere.

6. One major cause of this condition has been recurrent shortages of funds in private channels.

7. These shortages have contributed to reductions in construction of new residential units, and have made the sale and purchase of existing residential units a virtual impossibility in many parts of the state.

8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise have not in the past corrected these conditions.

9. A stable supply of adequate funds for residential financing is required to encourage new housing and the rehabilitation of existing housing in an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the problems described in this section.

10. It is necessary to create a state housing finance authority to encourage the investment of private capital and stimulate the construction and rehabilitation of adequate housing through the use of public financing.

11. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted. [66GA, ch 138, §3]

220.4 Guiding principles. In the performance of its duties and implementation of its powers, and in the selection of specific programs and projects to receive its assistance, the authority shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The authority shall not become an owner of real property, except on a temporary basis where necessary in order to implement its programs, protect its investments by means of foreclosure or other means, or to facilitate transfer of real property for the use of low or moderate income families.

2. The authority shall function in co-operation with local governmental units and local or regional housing agencies, and in fulfillment of local or regional housing plans, and to that end shall provide technical assistance to local governmental units and local or regional agencies in need of that assistance.

3. A local contributing effort shall be required of each project assisted by the authority. As used in this subsection, "project" includes one or more programs authorized under the provisions of this chapter. The local contribution may be provided by local governmental units or by local or regional agencies, public or private. Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, the percentage and type of local contribution shall be determined by the authority, and may include, but should not be limited to, cash match, land contribution, tax abatement, or ancillary facilities. The authority shall encourage ingenuity and creativity in local effort.

4. The authority shall encourage units of local government and local and regional housing agencies to use federal revenue-sharing funds for programs which increase or improve the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families.

5. The authority shall encourage co-operative housing efforts at the local level, both with respect to the co-operation of public bodies with private enterprise and civic groups, and with respect to the formation of regional or multi-city units engaged in housing.

6. Wherever practicable, the authority shall give preference to the following types of programs:

a. Those which treat housing problems in the context of the total needs of individuals and communities, recognizing that individuals may have other problems and needs closely related to their need for adequate housing, and that the development of isolated housing units without regard for neighborhood and community development tends to create undesirable consequences.

b. Those which promote home ownership by families of low or moderate income, recognizing the need for educational counseling programs in family financial management and home maintenance in order to achieve this goal.

c. Those which involve the rehabilitation and conservation of existing housing units, and the preservation of existing neighborhoods and communities.

7. The authority shall encourage the protection, restoration and rehabilitation of historic properties, and the preservation of other properties of special value for architectural or esthetic reasons. As used in this subsection, "historic properties" means landmarks, landmark sites, or districts which are significant in the history, architecture, archaeology or culture of this state, its communities, or the nation. [66GA, ch 138,§4]

220.5 General powers. The authority has all of the general powers needed to carry out its purposes and duties, and exercise its specific powers, including but not limited to the power to:

1. Issue its negotiable bonds and notes as provided in sections 220.26 to 220.30 in order to finance its programs.

2. Sue and be sued in its own name.

3. Have and alter a corporate seal.

4. Make and alter bylaws for its management consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

5. Make and execute agreements, contracts and other instruments, with any public or private entity. All political subdivisions, public housing agencies, other public agencies and state departments and agencies may enter into contracts and otherwise co-operate with the authority.

6. Acquire, hold, improve, mortgage, lease and dispose of real and personal property, including, but not limited to, the power to sell at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any such property, mortgage loan, or other obligation held by it.

7. Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its operations and property interests.

8. Fix and collect fees and charges for its services.

9. Subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, invest or deposit moneys of the authority in any manner determined by the authority, notwithstanding the provisions of chapters 452, 453 or 454.

10. Accept appropriations, gifts, grants, loans, or other aid from public or private entities. A record of all gifts or grants, stating the type, amount and donor, shall be clearly set out in the authority's annual report along with the record of other receipts.

11. Provide technical assistance and counseling related to the authority's purposes, to public and private entities.

12. In co-operation with other local, state or federal governmental agencies, conduct research studies, develop estimates of unmet housing needs, and gather and compile data useful to facilitate decision making.

13. Co-operate in development of, and initiate housing demonstration projects.

14. Contract with architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, housing construction and finance experts, and other advisors. However, the authority may enter into contracts or agreements for such services with local, state or federal governmental agencies.

15. Make, alter and repeal rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and subject to chapter 17A. [66GA, ch 138,§5]

220.6 Staff.

1. The governor, with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate, shall appoint an executive director of the authority, who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The executive director shall be selected primarily for administrative ability and knowledge in the field, without regard to political affiliation. The executive director shall not, directly or indirectly, exert influence to induce any other officers or employees of the state to adopt a political view, or to favor a political candidate for office.

2. The executive director shall advise the authority on matters relating to housing and housing finance, carry out all directives from the authority, and hire and supervise the authority's staff pursuant to its directions and under the provisions of chapter 19A.

3. The executive director, as secretary of the authority, shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of its minute book and seal. He shall have authority to cause to be made copies of all minutes and other records and documents of the authority and to give certificates under the seal of the authority to the effect that such copies are true copies and all persons dealing with the authority may rely upon such certificates. [66GA, ch 138,§6]

220.7 Annual report.

1. The authority shall submit to the governor and to the general assembly, not later than January fifteenth each year, a complete report setting forth:

a. Its operations and accomplishments.

b. Its receipts and expenditures during the fiscal year, in accordance with the classifications it establishes for its operating and capital accounts.

c. Its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year and the status of reserve, special and other funds.

d. A schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and issued during its fiscal year.

e. A statement of its proposed and projected activities.

f. Recommendations to the general assembly, as it deems necessary.

g. An analysis of current housing needs in the state.

2. The annual report shall identify performance goals of the authority, and clearly indicate the extent of progress during the reporting period, in attaining the goals. Where possible, results shall be expressed in terms of housing units. [66GA, ch 138,§7]

Referred to in §§403A.3(10), 524.905, 533.16, 534.21

220.8 Percentage requirement. The goal of the authority shall be to assure that fifty percent or more of the housing units provided directly or indirectly by the authority in each three-year period beginning July 1, 1975, but in no case less than thirty percent of such units, are units specially designed for and directed to elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, or very low income families. Failure to meet this goal does not invalidate any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority, but in case of noncompliance with this requirement, the authority shall make a special report to the governor and to the general assembly as to the reasons for noncompliance, and the authority shall not commit further funds for housing units which do not help meet this goal, until the goal is reached, other than to complete projects already started. [66GA, ch 138,§8]

220.9 Nondiscrimination and affirmative action.

1. Housing financed or otherwise assisted by the authority, directly or indirectly, shall be open to all persons regardless of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental impairment, or religion except that preference may be given to elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, lower income families or very low income families.

2. The authority shall promote marketing plans to make housing available to all persons without discrimination.

3. The authority shall require adoption and submission of an affirmative action program for employment by all contractors and subcontractors of housing financed or otherwise assisted by the authority.

4. The authority shall require all mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by it to agree that they will not designate certain areas as unsuitable for the making of mortgage loans because of the prevailing income, racial, ethnic or other characteristics of the inhabitants of the area. This subsection is intended to prohibit all mortgage lenders who participate in authority programs from engaging in the practice commonly known as "redlining".

5. The authority may require mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by the authority to take affirmative action to make mortgage loans in areas with a higher than average concentration of lower-income families or members of racial or ethnic minorities. [66GA, ch 138,§9]

220.10 Surplus moneys. All moneys declared by the authority to be surplus moneys which are not required to service bonds and notes issued by the authority, to pay administrative expenses of the authority, or to accumulate necessary operating or loss reserves, shall be used by the authority to provide grants, subsidies, and services to lower income families and very low income families through any of the programs authorized in this chapter. 2. A mortgage loan under this section may be made only when the authority determines that the housing sponsor is unable to obtain the necessary financing from other sources upon terms and conditions which the sponsor reasonably could be expected to fulfill.

3. The authority shall make and execute contracts with mortgage lenders for the servicing of mortgage loans made under this section. The authority may pay the reasonable value of services rendered pursuant to such contracts.

4. Mortgage loans shall contain terms and provisions including interest rates, and be in a form as established by rules of the authority. The authority shall require the housing sponsor to execute assurances and guarantees reasonably related to protecting the security of the mortgage loan, as the authority deems necessary.

5. In considering an application for a mortgage loan under this section, the authority shall determine that the housing will be adequate and provide for the special needs of families of low or moderate income, elderly families, or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, or will meet state standards for noninstitutional residential care facilities, and shall also give consideration to:

a. The comparative need for housing or noninstitutional residential care facilities in the area.

b. The ability of the applicant to operate, manage and maintain the proposed housing.

6. Each mortgage loan shall be subject to an agreement between the authority and the housing sponsor which will subject the housing sponsor to limitations established by the authority as to rentals and other charges, builders' and developers' profits and fees, and dispositions of interests in the property mortgaged, including provisions to prohibit assumption of a mortgage without permission of the mortgagee.

7. As a condition of a mortgage loan, the authority may, upon reasonable notice, during construction or rehabilitation of the housing and during its operation:

a. Enter upon and inspect the physical condition of the premises, examine books and records of the housing sponsor, and impose fees to cover the cost of the inspections and examinations.

c. Require whatever action is necessary to comply with applicable federal, state and local laws, and file and prosecute a complaint or seek injunctive relief for a violation of applicable federal, state or local laws.

8. A mortgage loan may be prepaid to maturity after a period of years as determined by rule of the authority, if the authority determines that the prepayment will not result in a material escalation of rents or fees charged to the occupants. [66GA, ch 138,§12]

1. A lease-purchase agreement shall include, but not be limited to the following terms:

a. The original lease-purchase agreement shall be for a term of one year, with option by lessee to renew on the same terms. The lease may be terminated by the lessee, upon sixty days' written notice. The lease may be terminated by the lessor at any time for material breach of the agreement by the lessee, by service on the lessee of a notice to quit in conformance with state law.

The lease may otherwise be terminated by the lessor upon sixty days' written notice for only the following causes:

(1) In the event of sale of the property due to insolvency of the lessor, in which case the lessee will be given first option to purchase the property before the sale is made.

(2) For purposes of removing the buildings, or materially altering or improving them, to conform with local housing or building codes.

b. The rent shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the lessee's income, but the lessee shall have the option to pay additional amounts.

c. The lessee shall be responsible for routine maintenance of the property, and for its performance shall be credited with an amount equal to the budgeted amount for monthly routine maintenance in the monthly housing cost. This credit may be applied by the lessee to the purchase price in the event he exercises his option to purchase the property.

d. The premises or a portion of them shall be used by the lessee as a dwelling and no part may be assigned or subleased without the lessor's written approval.

e. The agreement shall be terminated if the property suffers susbstantial destruction or a substantial portion of the property is taken by condemnation.

f. Major repairs and remodeling or reconstruction shall be undertaken by the lessee only upon written approval by the lessor, and the costs of major repairs and remodeling or reconstruction may be paid by the lessor, or the lessee may deduct the cost including reasonable costs for the lessee's labor from the rent payments, and receive full credit.

g. The original lease-purchase agreement shall state a monthly housing cost for the unit, equal to the sum of the following:

(1) The monthly debt service on the property.

(2) One-twelfth of the annual real property taxes.

(3) One-twelfth of the annual premium for fire and extended coverage, and casualty insurance.

(4) The current monthly amount budgeted for routine maintenance and nonroutine maintenance reserves.

(5) Other monthly costs specified in the agreement.

2. At the time the original lease-purchase agreement is entered into, the lessee and lessor shall also enter into an option to purchase agreement, which shall include but not be limited to the following terms:

a. The purchase price of the property shall be the unamortized balance of debt on the property plus the lessor's original down payment.

b. The option to purchase shall state the market value of the property and the lessor's purchase cost of the property, and shall state the amount, term and interest rate of any mortgage loan on the property.

c. The lessee shall have the right to exercise his option to purchase the property when all of the following conditions have been met:

(1) The lessee has maintained a level of rent payments equal to the monthly housing cost of the property for a period of one year.

(2) The lessee has complied with the terms of the lease during the leasing period.

(3) The lessee is able to meet the established purchase price through a combination of earned credits toward down payment, down payment grant, assumption of the lessor's mortgage, refinancing with a new mortgage, or contract of sale from the lessor.

d. The payments required under the mortgage or contract of sale shall be sufficient to pay taxes, insurance, and the stated minimum interest, and to amortize the stated market value of the property within a period of not to exceed fifty years from the date of the original lease-purchase agreement.

e. All rent paid by the lessee, less the amount necessary to pay taxes, insurance, and interest, shall be applied to and considered as a part of the down payment against the stated market value of the property.

f. The authority may establish other criteria reasonably related to determining that a lessee is capable of handling the responsibilities of home ownership before a transfer of title is made or a contract of sale is entered into.

3. To the extent funds are available, the authority may provide down payment grants to very low income families and lower income families who have established home ownership capability by making regular payments under a lease from their own resources for a period of not less than one year and by meeting other criteria reasonably related to determining that a lessee is capable of handling the responsibilities of home ownership, as the authority establishes by rule. In addition, the authority may provide funds to private, nonprofit organizations for the purpose of making down-payment grants to very low income families and lower income families who are participating in lease-purchase programs administered by the organization which meet standards similar to the standards specified in this section, and which are acceptable to the authority.

4. The authority may combine the lease-purchase program with other programs provided or assisted by the authority, in order to encourage eventual home ownership by very low-income families and lower income families who are able to establish home ownership capability by showing regularity of payment and property maintenance. [66GA, ch 138,§13]

1. The authority shall participate in the housing assistance payments program under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 1401 et seq., title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 201 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). The purpose of participation is to enable the authority to obtain, on behalf of the state of Iowa, set-asides of contract authorization reserved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for public housing agencies, to enter into annual contributions contracts, to otherwise expedite use of the program through the use of state housing finance funds, and to encourage new construction and substantial rehabilitation of housing suitable for assistance under the program. Assistance may be provided for existing housing units made available by owners for the program, as well as for newly constructed housing units. Maximum rents shall be established by the authority in conformity with federal law.

2. To establish maximum eligibility for set-asides the authority shall:

a. Develop and implement procedures which will to the fullest possible extent complement the allocation system of the United States department of housing and urban development.

b. Evaluate statewide and local housing needs and develop a program to provide housing in areas of most critical need, within its allocation of set-aside contract authority.

c. Comply with all documentation and application requirements of the federal law.

3. The authority shall co-operate to the fullest extent possible with local housing agencies for implementation of the housing assistance payments program. The agency may enter into agreements with local housing agencies, housing cooperatives, or other public or private entities for commitment of housing assistance upon completion of an approved proposal, and may subsequently execute with such entities housing assistance payments contracts.

5. The authority shall, when appropriate, take necessary steps to co-operate with the United States department of agriculture in implementation of sections 517 and 521 of the Housing Act of 1949, sections 1487 and 1490a, title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 514 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). 7. The authority may participate in other programs under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383), and in other federal programs designed to increase the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families and may recommend appropriate legislation to the general assembly where further legislation is needed to accomplish such participation. However, failure of the authority to participate in the federal programs set out in this section does not invalidate any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority. [66GA, ch 138,§15]

220.16 Rent supplements.

1. The authority may establish and administer through local public or private agencies an eighteen month demonstration program of rent supplements designed for very low income and lower income families, to provide for payment of a maximum of the difference between twenty-five percent of an eligible family's income and the fair market rental of a unit of housing, as established by the authority. Eligibility of a housing unit for participation in the demonstration rent supplement program is subject to approval by the authority based on compliance with the definition of adequate housing in this chapter, and agreement by the owner to comply with authority rules pertaining to equal housing opportunity, maintenance, occupancy, and other authority policies. The authority shall, by rule, establish criteria for participation in the demonstration project, based upon the provisions of this section and section 220.4, including but not limited to the selection of target groups, determined by geographical location or special needs, to receive the benefits of the program under the demonstration project. It shall then receive applications for participation in the demonstration project from agencies or organizations described in subsection 2, prepare a detailed plan for the total demonstration project including a statement of funding needs, and submit the plan to the general assembly with its budget request.

2. A governing body of a city or county, a public housing agency, or a private, nonprofit organization which provides or wishes to provide housing to lower income families, is eligible to apply for participation in the rent supplement program. Funds available for the rent supplement program, whether from appropriations or from other sources, shall be made available by the authority to cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations on a one-to-one matching basis with funds supplied by the cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations that participate. [66GA, ch 138,§16]

220.17 Emergency housing fund. The authority may establish a fund to be known as the "emergency housing fund" to be administered by the authority separate and distinct from other moneys or funds administered by the authority.

The emergency housing fund may be comprised of the proceeds of appropriations, grants and other contributions and the authority is authorized to accept contributions to the fund from any source.

The emergency housing fund may be used to make grants and temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, for the following purposes:

1. To defray the local contribution requirement for housing sponsors who apply for rent supplement assistance as provided in section 220.16 and who, in the judgment of the authority, would not be able to provide the local contribution without undue hardship.

2. To defray temporary housing costs that result from displacement by natural or other disaster, if the disaster has been proclaimed by the governor.

3. To defray a portion of the expense required to develop and initiate housing which deals creatively with the housing problems of low or moderate income families, elderly families, and families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled. [66GA, ch 138,§17]

220.18 Housing assistance fund. The authority may establish a revolving fund to be known as the "housing assistance fund", to be administered by the authority as a trust fund separate and distinct from other moneys or funds administered by the authority.

The housing assistance fund may be comprised of the proceeds of appropriations, grants and other contributions, earnings accruing to the authority, surplus moneys transferred as provided in section 220.10, and of fund notes issued by the authority as provided in section 220.19, and the authority is authorized to accept contributions to the fund from any source.

The housing assistance fund may be used to make temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, for the following purposes:

1. To defray development costs for housing for low or moderate income families provided by housing sponsors. A "development cost" loan shall be repaid in full by the borrower concurrent with obtaining a construction loan, unless the authority extends the period for repayment, but the period for repayment shall not be extended beyond the date of obtaining a mortgage loan on the housing. As used in this section, "development costs" means the costs approved by the authority as appropriate expenditures which may be incurred by builders and developers prior to commitment and initial advance of the proceeds of a construction loan or a mortgage loan, including but not limited to:

a. Payments for options to purchase properties on the proposed housing site, deposits on contracts of purchase, or, with approval of the authority, payments for the purchasing of such properties.

b. Legal and organizational expenses including payment of attorney fees, project manager, clerical and other staff salaries, office rent and other incidental expenses.

c. Payment of fees for preliminary feasibility studies and advances for planning, engineering and architectural work.

d. Expenses for tenant surveys and market analysis.

e. Necessary application and other fees.

2. To make or participate in the making of mortgage loans for rehabilitation or preservation of existing dwellings for the use of low or moderate income families, elderly families or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled. A rehabilitation or preservation loan may be for the estimated cost of the rehabilitation work to be done, for the purpose of refinancing an existing mortgage loan, for the purpose of doing the rehabilitation work, or for the purpose of acquiring housing in which rehabilitation work is to be done. The rehabilitation or preservation loan shall not exceed, with all other existing indebtedness of the property, the estimated market value of the property as determined by the authority, after the rehabilitation or preservation is completed, and the term of a loan shall not exceed the estimated useful life of the property as determined by the authority, after rehabilitation or preservation. The proposed rehabilitation or preservation shall assure that the property will not contain any substantial violation of applicable housing codes. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be made only when the authority determines that the proposed mortgagor is unable to obtain the necessary financing from other sources upon terms and conditions which the proposed mortgagor reasonably could be expected to fulfill. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be provided only within an area of a city for which an authorized city agency submits a satisfactory affirmative neighborhood preservation program, or in other areas within or outside of cities where the authority determines that rehabilitation or preservation is economically sound and a program of neighborhood preservation is inappropriate. The following criteria, along with others reasonably related to the purposes of this chapter, which may be determined by the authority, shall be considered in determining whether an affirmative neighborhood preservation program is satisfactory:

a. The degree of blight, decay or deterioration of housing or the imminent threat of blight, decay or deterioration of housing within the area.

b. The degree to which financing for repairs, remodeling or rehabilitation of housing within the area is available.

c. The proportion of residential structures within the area which are owner-occupied.

d. The degree to which the financial resources of proposed occupants of the housing, including resources available to them under this chapter or other federal, state, and local laws and programs, provide reasonable assurances of the economic feasibility of the financing of rehabilitation or preservation.

e. The expressed commitment of the city to provide a concentrated effort to enforce the applicable housing codes within the area.

f. The expressed commitment of the city to provide capital improvements and other city services so as to stabilize, improve and restore the neighborhood. [66GA, ch 138,§18]

The authority may issue housing assistance fund notes, the principal and interest of which shall be payable solely from the housing assistance fund established under section 220.18. The fund notes of each issue shall be dated, shall mature at such times not exceeding ten years from their dates, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at prices and under terms and conditions as determined by the authority. The authority shall determine the form and manner of execution of the fund notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denominations and the places of payment of principal and interest, which may be any financial institution within or without the state or any agent, including the lender. If any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on fund notes or coupons shall cease to be that officer before the delivery of the notes or coupons, the signature or facsimile shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if the officer had remained in office until delivery. The fund notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the authority determines, and provision may be made for the registration of coupon fund notes as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the conversion into coupon fund notes of any fund notes registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of registered and coupon fund notes. Fund notes shall bear interest at rates as determined by the authority and may be sold in a manner, either at public or private sale, and for a price as the authority determines to be best to effectuate the purposes of the housing assistance fund. The proceeds of fund notes shall be used solely for the purposes for which issued and shall be disbursed in a manner and under restrictions as provided in this section and in the resolution of the authority providing for their issuance. The authority may provide for the replacement of fund notes which become mutilated or are destroyed or lost. [66GA, ch 138,§19]

220.20 Loans to mortgage lenders.

1. The authority may make, and contract to make, loans to mortgage lenders on terms and conditions as it determines which are reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment and to implementing the purposes of this chapter, and subject to this section, and all mortgage lenders are authorized to borrow from the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of each loan to a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender, within a reasonable period after receipt of the loan proceeds as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have entered into written commitments to make, and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have disbursed the loan proceeds in new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the loan. New mortgage loans shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rules which are reasonably related to implementing the purposes of this chapter.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender to which the authority has made a loan, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section, and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of a loan to a national banking association or a federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require, as a condition of a loan to a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority shall require that each mortgage lender receiving a loan pursuant to this section shall issue and deliver to the authority an evidence of its indebtedness to the authority which shall constitute a general obligation of the mortgage lender and shall bear a date, mature at a time, be subject to prepayment, and contain other provisions consistent with this section and reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment, as the authority determines.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, the interest rate and other terms of loans to mortgage lenders made from the proceeds of an issue of bonds or notes of the authority shall be at least sufficient to assure the payment of the bonds or notes and the interest on them as they become due.

7. The authority shall require that loans to mortgage lenders are additionally secured as to payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of and lien upon collateral security by special escrow funds or other forms of guarantee and in such amounts and forms as the authority shall by resolution determine to be necessary to assure the payment of the loans and the interest thereon as they become due. Collateral security shall consist of direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, the United States or one of its agencies, obligations satisfactory to the authority which are issued by other federal agencies, direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed by a state or a political subdivision of a state, or investment quality obligations approved by the authority.

8. The authority may require that collateral for loans be deposited with a bank, trust company or other financial institution acceptable to the authority located in this state and designated by the authority as custodian. In the absence of such a requirement, each mortgage lender shall enter into an agreement with the authority containing provisions as the authority deems necessary to adequately identify and maintain the collateral, service the collateral, and require the mortgage lender to hold the collateral as an agent for the authority and be accountable to the authority as the trustee of an express trust for the application and disposition of the collateral and the income from it. The authority may also establish additional requirements as it deems necessary with respect to the pledging, assigning, setting aside, or holding of collateral and the making of substitutions for it or additions to it and the disposition of income and receipts from it.

9. The authority may require as a condition of loans to mortgage lenders, any representations and warranties it determines are necessary to secure the loans and carry out the purposes of this section.

10. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with a provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section. [66GA, ch 138,§20]

1. The authority may purchase, and make advance commitments to purchase, mortgage loans from mortgage lenders at prices and upon terms and conditions as it determines subject to this section. However, the total purchase price for all mortgage loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the mortgage loans purchased. Mortgage lenders are authorized to sell mortgage loans to the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from mortgage lenders that the mortgage lenders, within a reasonable period after receipt of the purchase price as the authority prescribes by rule, shall enter into written commitments to loan and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall loan an amount equal to the entire purchase price of the mortgage loans, on new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families or certify that mortgage loans purchased are mortgage loans made to low or moderate income families. New mortgage loans to be made by mortgage lenders shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rule. The authority may make a commitment to purchase mortgage loans from mortgage lenders in advance of the time such loans are made by mortgage lenders. The authority shall require as a condition of such commitment that mortgage lenders certify in writing that all mortgage loans represented by the commitment will be made to low or moderate income families, and that other authority specifications will be complied with.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender from which the authority has purchased mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from any national banking association or federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require as a condition of the authority's purchase of mortgage loans from a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of a mortgage loan from a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender represent and warrant to the authority that:

a. The unpaid principal balance of the mortgage loan and the interest rate on it have been accurately stated to the authority.

b. The amount of the unpaid principal balance is justly due and owing.

c. The mortgage lender has no notice of the existence of any counterclaim, offset or defense asserted by the mortgagor or his successor in interest.

d. The mortgage loan is evidenced by a bond or promissory note and a mortgage which has been properly recorded with the appropriate public official.

e. The mortgage constitutes a valid first lien on the real property described to the authority subject only to real property taxes not yet due, installments of assessments not yet due, and easements and restrictions of record which do not adversely affect, to a material degree, the use or value of the real property or improvements on it.

f. 3. The maximum amount of bonds and notes issued by the authority which may be outstanding at any time shall be set by statute. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. However, a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to negotiate and fix the details of an issue of bonds or notes by an appropriate certificate of the authorized officer.

4. Bonds shall:

a. State the date and series of the issue, be consecutively numbered, and state on their face that they are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the assets of the authority and do not constitute an indebtedness of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limit.

Until the proceeds of bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes are applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding bonds or notes or the redemption of outstanding bonds or notes, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and be invested and reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The interest, income and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds or notes to be refunded by purchase, retirement or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

Notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. Notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds, and notes and the resolution authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection, which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. All moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn from it at any time in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, as provided in this section, except for the purpose of making, with respect to bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund, payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to the investment of it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund requirement for it.

3. The authority shall not at any time issue bonds, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the authority at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, an amount of money, as provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing the bonds with respect to which the fund is established, equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds of the authority secured in whole or in part by the fund.

In order further to assure maintenance of the bond reserve funds, the charman of the authority shall, on or before July first of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor his certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable bond reserve fund.

5. All amounts paid over to the authority by the state pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute and be accounted for as advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority theretofore or thereafter issued, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes or obligations of the authority, the bond reserve fund and operating expenses. 222.6 State districts. The state director shall divide the state into two districts in such manner that one of the hospital-schools shall be located within each of the districts. Such districts may from time to time be changed. After such districts have been established, the director shall notify all boards of supervisors, county auditors, and clerks of the district courts of the action. Thereafter, unless the state director otherwise orders, all admissions or commitments of mentally retarded persons from a district shall be to the 222.10 Duty of peace officer. When any mentally retarded person departs without proper authority from an institution in another state and is found in this state, any peace officer in any county in which such patient is found may take and detain the patient without warrant or order and shall report such detention to the state director. The state director shall provide for the return of the patient to the authorities in the state from which the unauthorized departure was made. Pending return, such patient may be detained temporarily at one of the institutions of this state governed by the state director or by the director of the division of child and family services of the department of social services. The provisions of this section relating to the state director shall also apply to the return of other nonresident mentally retarded persons having legal settlement outside the state of Iowa. [C58, 62,§222.55; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.10]

In the event of a sudden or mysterious death of a patient of a hospital-school or the special unit or any private institution for the mentally retarded, an investigation shall be held by the county medical examiner. The superintendent of a hospital-school or a special unit or chief administrative officer of any private institution may request an investigation of the death of any patient by the county medical examiner. Notice of the death of the patient, and the cause thereof, shall be sent to the county board of supervisors and to the judge of the court having had jurisdiction over a committed patient. The fact of death with the time, place, and alleged cause shall be entered upon the docket of the court. The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the admission of a patient to such institutions may request an investigation by the county medical examiner in the event of the death of the patient. The person or persons making the request shall be liable for the expense of such investigation and payment therefor may be required in advance. The expense of a county medical examiner's investigation when requested by the superintendent of a state hospital-school or a special unit shall be paid from support funds of that institution. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3447; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§222.37; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.12]

222.13 Voluntary admissions. The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for any person believed to be mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter may on behalf of such person request the county board of supervisors or their designated agent to apply to the superintendent of any state hospital-school for the voluntary admission of such person either as an inpatient or an outpatient of the hospital-school. After determining the legal settlement of such person as provided by this chapter, the board of supervisors shall, on forms prescribed by the state director, apply to the superintendent of the hospital-school in the district for the admission of such person to the hospital-school. An application for admission to a special unit of any person believed to be in need of any of the services provided by the special unit under section 222.88 may be made in the same manner, upon request of the parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the handicapped person. The superintendent shall accept the application providing a preadmission diagnostic evaluation confirms or establishes the need for admission, except that no application may be accepted if the institution does not have adequate facilities available or if the acceptance will result in an overcrowded condition.

If the hospital-school has no appropriate program for the treatment of such persons, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the placement of the persons in any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of social services, which offers appropriate services for such persons.

Upon applying for admission of a person to a hospital-school, or a special unit, the board of supervisors shall make a full investigation into the financial circumstances of that person and those liable for his or her support under section 222.78, to determine whether or not any of them are able to pay the expenses arising out of the admission of the person to a hospital-school or special treatment unit. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for him or her are presently unable to pay such expenses, they shall direct that the expenses be paid by the county. The board may review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally responsible for him or her are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges so incurred during the period beginning on the date of the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the board again changes its finding. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for him are able to pay the expenses, they shall direct that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78, and the county auditor shall be responsible for the collection thereof. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3464, 3477.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§222.54, 223.13; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.13; 66GA, ch 1104,§6]

If the institution is unable to receive a patient, the superintendent shall notify the county board of supervisors of the county from which the application in behalf of the prospective patient was made of the time when such person may be received. Until such time as the patient is able to be received by the institution, or when application has been made for admission to a public or private facility as provided in section 222.13 and the application is pending, the care of said person shall be provided as arranged by the county board of supervisors. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3433; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§222.23; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.14]

222.15 Discharge of voluntary patients. The parent, guardian, or any other person responsible for the voluntary admission of any person to a hospital-school or a special unit may, upon ten days' notice, obtain the discharge of such person by giving to the superintendent of the institution and the county board of supervisors of the county from which such person was admitted written notice of the desire for such discharge. [SS15,§2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, §222.15]

222.31 Guardianship or commitment. If in the opinion of the court, or of a commission as authorized in section 222.28, the person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter and the court determines that it will be conducive to the welfare of such person and of the community to place the person under guardianship, or to commit the person to some proper institution for treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support, the court shall by proper order:

1. Appoint a guardian of the person of such person, provided no such guardian has already been appointed.

2. Commit the person to any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of social services. If the person has not been examined by a commission as appointed in section 222.28, the court shall, prior to issuing an order of commitment, appoint such a commission to examine the person for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person. 3. Commit the person to the state hospital-school designated by the director to serve the county in which the hearing is being held, or to a special unit. The court shall prior to issuing an order of commitment request that a diagnostic evaluation of the person be made by the superintendent of the hospital-school or the special unit, or his qualified designee. The evaluation shall be conducted at such place as the superintendent may direct. The cost of the evaluation shall be defrayed by the county of legal settlement from its state institution fund unless otherwise ordered by the court. Such cost may be equal to but shall not exceed the actual cost of the evaluation. Persons referred by a court to a hospital-school or the special unit for diagnostic evaluation shall be considered as outpatients of such institution. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the superintendent of the institution shall recommend that such order be issued, and shall advise the court that adequate facilities for the care of such person are available.

4. The court shall examine the report of the county attorney filed pursuant to section 222.13, and if the report shows that neither the person nor those liable for his or her support under section 222.78 are presently able to pay the charges rising out of the person's care in the hospital-school, or special treatment unit, shall enter an order stating that finding and directing that the charges be paid by the person's county of residence. The court may, upon request of the board of supervisors, review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the court finds upon review that the person or those legally responsible for him or her are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges incurred during the period beginning on the date of the board's request for the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the court again changes its finding. When the court finds that the person, or those liable for his or her support, are able to pay the charges, the court shall enter an order directing that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78. 222.59 Superintendent may return patient.

1. The superintendent of a hospital-school or a special unit may, on application of the parent or guardian, return a patient to the parent or guardian. The superintendent in co-operation with other social agencies under the supervision of the Iowa department of social services may arrange for the patient to be placed at an appropriate health care facility licensed under chapter 135C or at some other appropriate facility, which may include a foster home or group home, either under an arrangement which involves full-time responsibility for the patient by such facility, or as part of an arrangement under which the patient is to participate in one or more educational, developmental or employment programs conducted by other responsible persons, agencies or facilities. Such return or placement may be made at any time, even though the patient was committed by a court, upon recommendation of the professional staff of the hospital-school or special unit that the patient is unlikely to benefit from further treatment, training, instruction, or care at the institution or is likely to improve his life status in an alternate facility.

2. In planning for the placement of a patient outside the hospital-school or special unit, it shall be the superintendent's responsibility to arrange for representation of the patient's interest by the patient's parent or legal guardian. If the patient has no living parent and no legal guardian other than the department or one of its officers or employees, the superintendent shall request some person who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and habilitation of the mentally retarded, and who is not an officer or employee of the department nor of any agency or facility which is a party to the arrangement for placement of the patient, to act as the patient's advocate. The superintendent may request some such person to serve as advocate for a patient who has no legal guardian if either or both of the patient's parents are living but are deemed unlikely to or have shown themselves unable to represent the patient's interest effectively due to physical or mental infirmity, residence outside the state at such a distance as to make their effective participation unfeasible, or lack of interest demonstrated by refusal to participate in planning for the patient's placement or by failure to respond within thirty days to a letter sent by restricted certified mail to the last known address of the parent or parents.

3. Each proposed placement shall be reported to the state director, who may approve, modify, alter, or rescind the action if deemed necessary. In so doing, the superintendent of the hospital-school or special unit involved shall certify in writing to the state director that there has been compliance with subsection 2 and that the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is or is not satisfied with the proposed placement, as the case may be. In the latter case, the state director shall afford the parent, guardian or advocate an opportunity to explain objections to the proposed placement and, if he decides to approve the proposed placement despite such objection, shall advise the parent, guardian or advocate of his right to appeal the decision pursuant to subsection 4.

4. If a proposed placement of a patient from a hospital-school or special unit which is not satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is approved by the state director; or a proposed placement which is satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is modified, altered or rescinded by the state director, the parent, guardian or advocate may appeal to the department of social services, within thirty days after notification to the parent, guardian or advocate of the proposed placement. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing, conducted by the commissioner or his designee who shall act as an impartial arbiter of fact and law. In such hearing the parent, guardian or advocate shall have the opportunity to confront witnesses, to have access to hospital records, to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to be represented by counsel. The standard for such fair hearing shall be to provide "that placement which inures to the best interest of the patient." Judicial review of actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed by him in support of his position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision. In the district court hearings, the parent, guardian or advocate has the right to be represented by counsel. The court shall, in all cases where the interests of the patient conflict with that of parent, guardian or advocate, appoint counsel as guardian ad litem for the patient. Notwithstanding the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, where a petition is filed for judicial review of a proposed placement, the proposed placement shall be stayed pending the outcome of said review proceeding.

5. Placement of a patient outside of a hospital-school or special unit under this section shall not relieve the Iowa department of social services of continuing responsibility for the welfare of the patient, except in cases of discharge under section 222.15 or 222.43. Unless such a discharge has occurred, the department shall provide for review of each placement arrangement made under this section at least once each year, or not more often than once each six months upon the written request of the patient's parent, guardian or advocate, with a view to ascertaining whether such arrangements continue to satisfactorily meet the patient's current needs.

6. The proposed return or placement of a patient outside a hospital-school or special unit shall be reported to the board of supervisors of the patient's county of legal settlement. The county board may not change a placement or program arranged and approved under this section if state funds are being made available to the county which the county may by law use to pay a portion of the cost of care of the patient so placed, however the board may at any time propose an alternative placement or program to the state director. No such alternative placement or program shall be carried out without the prior written approval of the state director, which shall be granted only after evaluation in the same manner as provided by this section for initial placements from a hospital-school or special unit.

7. When a patient committed by a court is to be returned to the parent or guardian, or placed out from a hospital-school or a special unit as otherwise provided in this section, notice shall be sent to the clerk of the court which committed the patient, and to the board of supervisors of both the patient's county of legal settlement and the county to which the patient is to be released, thirty days prior to the time the patient leaves the hospital-school or special unit. [C97,§2698; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3405, 3446; C46,§221.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§222.36, 223.19; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.59]

222.60 Costs paid by county or state. All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment or for the treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, support and transportation of patients in a state hospital-school for the mentally retarded, or in a special unit, or any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of social services, shall be paid by either:

1. The county in which such person has legal settlement as defined in section 252.16.

2. The state when such person has no legal settlement or when such settlement is unknown. [C39,§§3477.3, 3477.4, 3477.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§§223.14, 223.15, 223.18; C66, 71, 73, 75, §222.60]

Referred to in §§222.73, 222.76, 222.78

222.61 Legal settlement determined. When the board of supervisors of any county receives an application on behalf of any person for admission to a hospital-school or a special unit or when any court issues an order committing any person to a hospital-school or a special unit, the board of supervisors or the court shall determine and enter as a matter of record whether the legal settlement of the person is:

1. In the county in which the board of supervisors or court is located.

2. In some other county of the state.

3. In another state or in a foreign country.

4. Unknown. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.61]

222.62 Settlement in another county. Whenever the board of supervisors or the court determines that the legal settlement of the person is other than in the county in which the board or court is located, the board or court shall, as soon as determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital-school or the special unit where the person is a patient. The superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of the patient, to the county so certified until said legal settlement shall be otherwise determined as provided by this chapter. [C66, 71, 73, 75. §222.62]

222.63 Finding of settlement — objection. Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the board of supervisors or the court to the county auditor of the county of legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of his county whereupon it shall be conclusively presumed that the patient has a legal settlement in said county unless the county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the board of supervisors or the court giving such notice, dispute said legal settlement. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.63]

222.64 Foreign state or unknown. If the legal settlement of the person is found by the board of supervisors or the court to be in a foreign state or country or is found to be unknown, the board of supervisors or the court shall immediately notify the state director of such finding and shall furnish the state director with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement. The care of said person shall be as arranged by the board of supervisors or by such order as the court may enter. Application for admission or order of commitment may be made pending investigation by the state director. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §222.64]

222.65 Investigation. The state director shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of the person and proceed as follows:

1. If the state director finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court as to legal settlement of the person is correct, the state director shall cause the person either to be transferred to a hospital-school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the state or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the state director finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court is not correct, the state director shall order the person transferred to a state hospital-school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.65]

222.66 Transfers—expenses. The transfer to a hospital-school or a special unit or to the place of legal settlement of a mentally retarded person who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made in accordance with such directions as shall be prescribed by the state director and when practicable by employees of the state hospital-school or the special unit. The actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the state director from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §222.66]

222.67 Charge on finding of settlement. Where a person has been received into a hospital-school or a special unit as a patient whose legal settlement is supposedly outside the state or is unknown and the state director finds that the legal settlement of the patient was at the time of admission or commitment in a county of this state, the state director shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of the patient to the county of such legal settlement. The costs and expenses shall be collected as provided by law in other cases. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §222.67]

222.68 Costs paid in first instance. All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital-school or a special unit when the person's legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state shall in the first instance be paid by the county from which the person was admitted or committed. The county of legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such expenses. Where any county fails to make such reimbursement within sixty days following submission of a properly itemized bill to the county of legal settlement, a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from submission of the bill may be added to the amount due. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3451; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.41; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.68]

222.69 Payment by state. All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital-school or a special unit when the person's legal settlement is outside this state or is unknown shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. Such payments shall be made on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county from which the expenses have been paid and approved by the state director. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.69]

222.70 Dispute between counties. When a dispute arises between counties or between the state director and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a hospital-school or a special unit, the attorney general at the request of the state director shall without advancement of fees cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists. The action shall be brought to determine such legal settlement, except that such action shall in no case be filed in a county in which the district court or a judge thereof originally made the disputed finding. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that the dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the county of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.70]

222.71 Finding by court. The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person at the time of admission or commitment was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so finds, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all necessary and legal expenses arising from said admission or commitment and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.71]

222.72 Finding settlement outside state. If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person, at the time of admission or commitment was outside the state or was unknown an order shall be entered that the mentally retarded person shall be maintained in the hospital-school or the special unit at the expense of the state. In such case, the state shall refund to any county all necessary and legal expenses for the cost of said admission or commitment paid by a county. A decision by the court shall be final. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.72]

222.73 Superintendent to prepare expense schedule. The superintendent of each hospital-school and special unit shall certify to the state comptroller on a schedule approved by the comptroller any amount not previously certified by the superintendent due the state for the expenses of patients in each hospital-school and special unit from the several counties responsible under section 222.60. The comptroller shall thereupon charge the amounts so certified to the proper counties. The amount certified by the superintendent to the comptroller to be charged against each county shall be the per-patient-per-day cost of the hospital-school or special unit, as the case may be, multiplied by the number of days each patient for which such county is liable to the state was carried on the rolls of the hospital-school or special unit as an inpatient, plus the amount due for the treatment of outpatients for which such county is liable to the state during the period for which expenses are being certified. The per-patient-per-day cost shall be determined by listing the number of days each inpatient was actually in the hospital-school or special unit during the period for which expenses are being certified and dividing the total of all such days into one hundred percent of the portion of the appropriation for the hospital-school or special unit expended during such period, unless otherwise specified in the biennial appropriations for support of such institutions. The amount charged for the treatment of outpatients shall be at a rate to be established by the state director on the basis of the actual cost of such treatment.

After computing the charge to the county on behalf of each patient, the hospital-school shall reduce the charge by the amount of any money which has been received for that patient's care from any source other than state appropriated funds and has not previously been credited against charges made to the patient's county of legal settlement. [SS15, §2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.5; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.73; 66GA, ch 9,§6]

Referred to in §222.74

222.74 Duplicate to county. When certifying to the comptroller amounts to be charged against each county as provided in section 222.73, the superintendent shall send to the county auditor of each county against which he has so certified any amount, a duplicate of such certificate. The county auditor upon receipt of the duplicate certificate shall enter the same to the credit of the state in his ledger of state accounts, and shall immediately issue a notice to the county treasurer authorizing the treasurer to transfer the amount from the county mental health and institutions fund to the general state revenue. The treasurer shall file such notice as his authority for making such transfer and shall include the amount so transferred in his next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which the amount belongs. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.74]

222.75 Delinquent payments — penalty. Should any county fail to pay the bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from the superintendent, the state comptroller may charge the delinquent county a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.75]

If the patient has no county of legal settlement, the cost shall be paid from the support fund of the hospital-school or special unit and charged on abstract in the same manner as other state inpatients until such time as the patient becomes self-supporting or qualifies for support under other existing statutes. Such person and those legally bound for the support of the person shall be liable to the county for all sums advanced by the county to the state under the provisions of sections 222.60 and 222.77. The liability of any person, other than the patient, who is legally bound for the support of any patient under eighteen years of age in a hospital-school or a special unit shall in no instance exceed the average minimum cost of the care of a normally intelligent, nonhandicapped minor of the same age and sex as such minor patient. The state director shall establish the scale for this purpose but the scale shall not exceed the standards for personal allowances established by the state division under the aid to dependent children program. Provided further that the father or mother of such person shall not be liable for the support of such person after such person attains the age of eighteen years and that the father or mother shall incur liability only during any period when the father or mother either individually or jointly receive a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which they would be liable to make an income tax payment to this state.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost as established by the state director for caring for such mentally retarded person. [C39,§3477.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§§223.16, 223.20; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.78]

Any collections and liens shall be limited in conformance to section 614.1 subsection 4. [C39,§3477.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§223.17; C66, 71, 73, 75,§222.82; 66GA, ch 1104,§9]

Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires, and comforts for the patient.

Money paid to a hospital-school from any source other than state appropriated funds and intended to pay all or a portion of the cost of care of a patient, which cost would otherwise be paid from state or county funds or from the patient's own funds, shall not be deemed money belonging to the patient for the purposes of this section. 229.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Mental illness" means every type of mental disease or mental disorder, except that it does not refer to mental retardation as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5.

2. "Seriously mentally impaired" or "serious mental impairment" describes the condition of a person who is afflicted with mental illness and because of that illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to his or her hospitalization or treatment, and who:

a. Is likely to physically injure himself or herself or others if allowed to remain at liberty without treatment; or

b. Is likely to inflict serious emotional injury on members of his or her family or others who lack reasonable opportunity to avoid contact with the afflicted person if the afflicted person is allowed to remain at liberty without treatment.

3. "Serious emotional injury" is an injury which does not necessarily exhibit any physical characteristics, but which can be recognized and diagnosed by a licensed physician or other qualified mental health professional and which can be casually connected with the act or omission of a person who is, or is alleged to be, mentally ill.

4. "Respondent" means any person against whom an application has been filed under section 229.6, but who has not been finally ordered committed for full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital.

5. "Patient" means a person who has been hospitalized or ordered hospitalized to receive treatment pursuant to section 229.14.

6. "Licensed physician" means an individual licensed under the provisions of chapter 148 to practice medicine.

7. "Qualified mental health professional" means an individual experienced in the study and treatment of mental disorders in the capacity of:

a. A psychologist certified under chapter 154B; or

b. A registered nurse licensed under chapter 152; or

c. A social worker who holds a masters degree in social work awarded by an accredited college or university.

8. "Public hospital" means:

a. A state mental health institute established by chapter 226; or

b. The state psychiatric hospital established by chapter 225; or

c. Any other publicly supported hospital or instituiton, or part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill, except that this definition shall not be applicable to the Iowa security medical facility established by chapter 223.

9. "Private hospital" means any hospital or institution not directly supported by public funds, or a part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill.

10. "Hospital" means either a public hospital or a private hospital.

11. "Chief medical officer" means the medical director in charge of any public hospital, or any private hospital, or that individual's physician-designee. Nothing in this chapter shall negate the authority otherwise reposed by law in the respective superintendents of each of the state hospitals for the mentally ill, established by chapter 226, to make decisions regarding the appropriateness of admissions or discharges of patients of that hospital, however it is the intent of this chapter that if the superintendent is not a licensed physician he shall be guided in these decisions by the chief medical officer of that hospital.

12. "Clerk" means the clerk of the district court. [R60,§1468; C73,§1434; C97,§2298; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3580; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.40; 66GA, ch 139,§1, ch 1136§25]

229.2 Application for voluntary admission—authority to receive voluntary patients.

1. An application for admission to a public or private hospital for observation, diagnosis, care and treatment as a voluntary patient may be made by any person who is mentally ill or has symptoms of mental illness. In the case of a minor, the parent or guardian may make application for admission of the minor as a voluntary patient, however if the chief medical officer of the hospital to which application is made determines that the admission is appropriate but the minor objects to the admission, the parent or guardian must petition the juvenile court for approval of the admission before the minor is actually admitted. The juvenile court shall determine whether the admission is in the best interest of the minor and is consistent with his or her rights.

2. Upon receiving an application for admission as a voluntary patient, made pursuant to subsection 1:

a. The chief medical officer of a public hospital shall receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought, subject in cases other than medical emergencies to availability of suitable accommodations and to the provisions of sections 229.41 and 229.42.

b. The chief medical officer of a private hospital may receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought. [R60,§1480 C73, §1399; C97,§2264; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3544; C46, §229.1; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§§229.1, 229.41; 66GA, ch 139,§2]

229.3 Discharge of voluntary patients. Any voluntary patient who has recovered, or whose hospitalization the chief medical officer of the hospital determines is no longer advisable, shall be discharged. Any voluntary patient may be discharged if to do so would in the judgment of the chief medical officer contribute to the most effective use of the hospital in the care and treatment of that patient and of other mentally ill persons. [66GA, ch 139, §3]

Referred to in §222.55

229.4 Right to release on application. A voluntary patient who requests his or her release or whose release is requested, in writing, by his or her legal guardian, parent, spouse or adult next-of-kin shall be released from the hospital forthwith, except that:

1. If the patient was admitted on his or her own application and the request for release is made by some other person, release may be conditioned upon the agreement of the patient; and

2. If the patient is a minor who was admitted on the application of his or her parent or guardian pursuant to section 229.2, subsection 1, his or her release prior to becoming eighteen years of age may be conditioned upon the consent of the parent or guardian, or upon the approval of the juvenile court if the admission was approved by the juvenile court; and

3. If the chief medical officer of the hospital, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk of the district court for the county in which the hospital is located is open and which follows the submission of the written request for release of the patient, files with that clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the release may be postponed for the period of time the court determines is necessary to permit commencement of judicial procedure for involuntary hospitalization. That period of time may not exceed five days, exclusive of days on which the clerk's office is not open unless the period of time is extended by order of a district court judge for good cause shown. Until disposition of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the patient, if one is timely filed, the chief medical officer may detain the patient in the hospital and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve his or her life, or to appropriately control behavior by the patient which is likely to result in physical injury to himself or herself or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the patient without the patient's consent. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.41; 66GA, ch 139,§4]

229.5 Departure without notice. If a voluntary patient departs from the hospital without notice, and in the opinion of the chief medical officer the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the chief medical officer may file an application for involuntary hospitalization of the departed voluntary patient, and request that an order for immediate custody be entered by the court pursuant to section 229.11. [66GA, ch 139,§5]

Referred to in §222.55

229.6 Application for order of involuntary hospitalization. Proceedings for the involuntary hospitalization of an individual may be commenced by any interested person by filing a verified application with the clerk of the district court of the county where the respondent is presently located, or which is the respondent's place of residence. The clerk, or his or her designee, shall assist the applicant in completing the application. The application shall:

1. State the applicant's belief that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired.

2. State any other pertinent facts.

3. Be accompanied by:

a. A written statement of a licensed physician in support of the application; or

b. One or more supporting affidavits otherwise corroborating the application; or

c. Corroborative information obtained and reduced to writing by the clerk or his or her designee, but only when circumstances make it infeasible to comply with, or when the clerk considers it appropriate to supplement the information supplied pursuant to, either paragraph "a" or paragraph "b" of this subsection. [R60,§1480; C73,§1399; C97,§2264; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3544; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.1; 66GA, ch 139,§6]

229.7 Service of notice upon respondent. Upon the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the clerk shall docket the case and immediately notify a district court judge who shall review the application and accompanying documentation. If the application is adequate as to form, the judge may set a time and place for a hearing on the application, if feasible, and shall direct the clerk to send copies of the application and supporting documentation, together with a notice informing the respondent of the procedures required by this chapter, to the sheriff or his or her deputy for immediate service upon the respondent. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, service of the application, documentation and notice upon the respondent shall be made at the time he or she is taken into custody. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.2; 66GA, ch 139,§7]

229.8 Procedure after application is filed. As soon as practicable after the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the court shall:

1. Determine whether the respondent has an attorney who is able and willing to represent him or her in the hospitalization proceeding, and if not, whether the respondent is financially able to employ an attorney and capable of meaningfully assisting in selecting one. In accordance with those determinations, the court shall if necessary allow the respondent to select, or shall assign to him or her, an attorney. If the respondent is financially unable to pay an attorney, the attorney shall be compensated in substantially the manner provided by sections 775.5 and 775.6, except that if the county has a public defender the court may designate the public defender or an attorney on his or her staff to act as the respondent's attorney.

2. Cause copies of the application and supporting documentation to be sent to the county attorney or his or her attorney-designate for review.

3. Issue a written order which shall:

a. If not previously done, set a time and place for a hospitalization hearing, which shall be at the earliest practicable time; and

b. Order an examination of the respondent, prior to the hearing, by one or more licensed physicians who shall submit a written report on the examination to the court as required by section 229.10. [C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3548, 3549; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§§229.5, 229.6; 66GA, ch 139,§8]

229.9 Respondent's attorney informed. The court shall direct the clerk to furnish at once to the respondent's attorney copies of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the respondent and the supporting documentation, and of the court's order issued pursuant to section 229.8, subsection 3. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, the attorney shall also be advised of that fact. The respondent's attorney shall represent the respondent at all stages of the proceedings, and shall attend the hospitalization hearing. [66GA, ch 139,§9]

229.10 Physicians' examination—report.

1. An examination of the respondent shall be conducted by one or more licensed physicians, as required by the court's order, within a reasonable time. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, the examination shall be conducted within twenty-four hours. If the respondent so desires, he or she shall be entitled to a separate examination by a licensed physician of his or her own choice. The reasonable cost of such separate examination shall, if the respondent lacks sufficient funds to pay the cost, be paid from county funds upon order of the court.

Any licensed physician conducting an examination pursuant to this section may consult with or request the participation in the examination of any qualified mental health professional, and may include with or attach to the written report of the examination any findings or observations by any qualified mental health professional who has been so consulted or has so participated in the examination.

2. A written report of the examination by the court-designated physician or physicians shall be filed with the clerk prior to the hearing date. A written report of any examination by a physician chosen by the respondent may be similarly filed. The clerk shall immediately:

a. Cause the report or reports to be shown to the judge who issued the order; and

b. Cause the respondent's attorney to receive a copy of the report of the court-designated physician or physicians.

3. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the individual is not seriously mentally impaired, the court may without taking further action terminate the proceeding and dismiss the application on its own motion and without notice.

4. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired, the court shall schedule a hearing on the application as soon as possible. The hearing shall be held not more than forty-eight hours after the report is filed, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless an extension for good cause is requested by the respondent, or as soon thereafter as possible if the court considers that sufficient grounds exists for delaying the hearing. [66GA, ch 139,§10]

229.11 Judge may order immediate custody. If the applicant requests that the respondent be taken into immediate custody and the judge, upon reviewing the application and accompanying documentation, finds probable cause to believe that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and is likely to injure himself or herself or other persons if allowed to remain at liberty, the judge may enter a written order directing that the respondent be taken into immediate custody by the sheriff or his or her deputy and be detained until the hospitalization hearing, which shall be held no more than five days after the date of the order. The judge may order the respondent detained for that period of time, and no longer, in accordance with subsection 1 if possible, and if not then in accordance with subsection 2 or, only if neither of these alternatives are available, in accordance with subsection 3. Detention may be:

1. In the custody of a relative, friend or other suitable person who is willing to accept responsibility for supervision of the respondent, and the respondent may be placed under such reasonable restrictions as the judge may order including, but not limited to, restrictions on or a prohibition of any expenditure, encumbrance or disposition of the respondent's funds or property; or

2. In a suitable hospital the chief medical officer of which shall be informed of the reasons why immediate custody has been ordered and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the respondent's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the respondent which is likely to result in physical injury to himself or herself or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the respondent without the respondent's consent; or

3. In a public or private facility in the community which is suitably equipped and staffed for the purpose, provided that detention in a jail or other facility intended for confinement of those accused or convicted of crime may not be ordered except in cases of actual emergency when no other secure facility is accessible and then only for a period of not more than twenty-four hours and under close supervision. [66GA, ch 139,§11]

229.12 Hearing procedure. At the hospitalization hearing, evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be presented by the county attorney. During the hearing the applicant and the respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify and to present and cross-examine witnesses, and the court may receive the testimony of any other interested person. The respondent has the right to be present at the hearing. If the respondent exercises that right and has been medicated within twelve hours, or such longer period of time as the court may designate, prior to the beginning of the hearing or an adjourned session thereof, the judge shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication upon convening of the hearing. All persons not necessary for the conduct of the proceeding shall be excluded, except that the court may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the proceeding. The respondent's welfare shall be paramount and the hearing shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure, but consistent therewith the issue shall be tried as a civil matter. Such discovery as is permitted under the Iowa rules of civil procedure shall be available to the respondent. The court shall receive all relevant and material evidence which may be offered and need not be bound by the rules of evidence. There shall be a presumption in favor of the respondent, and the burden of evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be upon the applicant. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has not been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall deny the application and terminate the proceeding. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97, §2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3547; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.4; 66GA, ch 139,§12]

229.13 Hospitalization for evaluation. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall order the respondent placed in a hospital as expeditiously as possible for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment. The court shall furnish to the hospital at the time the respondent arrives there a written finding of fact setting forth the evidence on which the finding is based. The chief medical officer of the hospital shall report to the court no more than fifteen days after the individual is admitted to the hospital, making a recommendation for disposition of the matter. An extension of time may be granted for not to exceed seven days upon a showing of cause. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent's attorney, who may contest the need for an extension of time if one is requested. Extension of time shall be granted upon request unless the request is contested, in which case the court shall make such inquiry as it deems appropriate and may either order the respondent's release from the hospital or grant extension of time for psychiatric evaluation. [R60,§1479; C73,§1401; C97, §2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3552, 3553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§§229.9, 229.10; 66GA, ch 139,§13]

229.14 Chief medical officer's report. The chief medical officer's report to the court on the psychiatric evaluation of the respondent shall be made not later than the expiration of the time specified in section 229.13. At least two copies of the report shall be filed with the clerk, who shall dispose of them in the manner prescribed by section 229.10, subsection 2. The report shall state one of the four following alternative findings:

1. That the respondent does not, as of the date of the report, require further treatment for serious mental impairment. If the report so states, the court shall order the respondent's immediate release from involuntary hospitalization and terminate the proceedings.

2. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and is considered likely to benefit from treatment. If the report so states, the court may order the respondent's continued hospitalization for appropriate treatment.

3. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of treatment, but does not require full-time hospitalization. If the report so states it shall include the chief medical officer's recommendation for treatment of the respondent on an outpatient or other appropriate basis, and the court may enter an order directing the respondent to submit to the recommended treatment. The order shall provide that if the respondent fails or refuses to submit to treatment as directed by the court's order, he or she shall be taken into custody and treated as a patient requiring full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital until such time as the chief medical officer reports that the respondent does not require further treatment for serious mental impairment or has indicated he or she is willing to submit to treatment on another basis as ordered by the court.

4. The respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody and care, but is unlikely to benefit from further treatment in a hospital. If the report so states, the chief medical officer shall recommend an alternative placement for the respondent and the court may order the respondent's transfer to the recommended placement. If the court or the respondent's attorney consider the placement inappropriate, an alternative placement may be arranged upon consultation with the chief medical officer and approval of the court. Referred to in §§218.92, 222.7, 222.55, 225.15, 225.17, 225.27, 226.26, 226.31, 226.33, 227.11, 227.12, 229.1, 229.15, 229.16, 229.17, 229.19, 229.21, 229.26, 229.27, 229.28, 229.38

229.15 Periodic reports required.

1. Not more than thirty days after entry of an order for continued hospitalization of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 2, and thereafter at successive intervals of not more than sixty days continuing so long as involuntary hospitalization of the patient continues, the chief medical officer of the hospital shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall be submitted in the manner required by section 229.14, shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will be required to remain at the hospital. The chief medical officer may at any time report to the court a finding as stated in section 229.14, subsection 4, and the court shall act thereon as required by that section.

2. Not more than sixty days after the entry of a court order for treatment of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 3, and thereafter at successive intervals as ordered by the court but not to exceed ninety days so long as that court order remains in effect, the medical director of the facility treating the patient shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will require treatment by the facility. If at any time the patient without good cause fails or refuses to submit to treatment as ordered by the court, the medical director shall at once so notify the court, which shall order the patient hospitalized as provided by section 229.14, subsection 3, unless the court finds that the failure or refusal was with good cause and that the patient is willing to receive treatment as provided in the court's order, or in a revised order if the court sees fit to enter one. If the medical director at any time reports to the court that in his opinion the patient requires full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, the court may order the patient's involuntary hospitalization for appropriate treatment upon consultation with the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the patient is to be hospitalized.

3. When a patient has been placed in a facility other than a hospital pursuant to section 229.14, subsection 4, a report on the patient's condition and prognosis shall be made to the court which so placed the patient, at least once every six months. The report shall be submitted within fifteen days following the inspection, required by section 227.2, of the facility in which the patient has been placed.

4. When in the opinion of the chief medical officer the best interest of a patient would be served by a convalescent or limited leave or by transfer to a different hospital for continued full-time custody, care and treatment, the chief medical officer may authorize the leave or arrange and complete the transfer but shall promptly report the leave or transfer to the court. The patient's attorney or advocate may request a hearing on a transfer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to add to or restrict the authority otherwise provided by law for transfer of patients or residents among various state institutions administered by the department of social services.

5. Upon receipt of any report required or authorized by this section the court shall furnish a copy to the patient's attorney, or alternatively to the advocate appointed as required by section 229.19. The court shall examine the report and take the action thereon which it deems appropriate. Should the court fail to receive any report required by this section or section 229.14 at the time the report is due, the court shall investigate the reason for the failure to report and take whatever action may be necessary in the matter. [66GA, ch 139,§15]

229.16 Discharge and termination of proceeding. When in the opinion of the chief medical officer a patient who is hospitalized under subsection 2, or is receiving treatment under subsection 3, or is in full-time care and custody under subsection 4 of section 229.14 no longer requires treatment or care for serious mental impairment, the chief medical officer shall tentatively discharge the patient and immediately report that fact to the court which ordered the patient's hospitalization or care and custody. The court shall thereupon issue an order confirming the patient's discharge from the hospital or from care and custody, as the case may be, and shall terminate the proceedings pursuant to which the order was issued. Copies of the order shall be sent by certified mail to the hospital and the patient. [66GA, ch 139,§16]

Referred to in §§225.15, 225.17, 225.27, 226.18, 226.19, 229.17, 229.21, 229.26

229.17 Status of respondent during appeal. Where a respondent appeals to the supreme court from a finding that the contention the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained, and the respondent was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229.11 or has been hospitalized for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229.13 before the court is informed of intent to appeal its finding, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229.11 notwithstanding, or shall remain in the hospital subject to compliance by the hospital with sections 229.13 to 229.16, as the case may be, unless the supreme court orders otherwise. [66GA, ch 139,§17]

Referred to in §§229.21, 229.26

229.18 Status of respondent if hospitalization is delayed. When the court directs that a respondent who was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229.11 be placed in a hospital for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229.13, and no suitable hospital can immediately admit the respondent, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229.11 notwithstanding, until a suitable hospital can admit the respondent. The court shall take appropriate steps to expedite the admission of the respondent to a suitable hospital at the earliest feasible time. [R60, §1436; C73,§1403; C97,§2271; S13,§2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3564; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §229.24; 66GA, ch 139,§18]

Referred to in §§229.21, 229.26

229.19 Advocate appointed. The district court in each county shall appoint an individual who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and rehabilitation of the mentally ill, and who is not an officer or employee of the department of social services nor of any agency or facility providing care or treatment to the mentally ill, to act as advocate representing the interests of all patients involuntarily hospitalized by that court, in any matter relating to the patients' hospitalization or treatment under sections 229.14 or 229.15. The advocate's responsibility with respect to any patient shall begin at whatever time the attorney employed or appointed to represent that patient as respondent in hospitalization proceedings, conducted under sections 229.6 to 229.13, reports to the court that his or her services are no longer required and requests the court's approval to withdraw as counsel for that patient. The clerk shall furnish the advocate with a copy of the court's order approving the withdrawal. The advocate's duties shall include reviewing each report submitted pursuant to sections 229.14 and 229.15 concerning any patient whose interests, as a patient, the advocate is required to represent under this section, and if the advocate is not an attorney, advising the court at any time it appears that the services of an attorney are required to properly safeguard the patient's interests. The court shall from time to time prescribe reasonable compensation for the services of the advocate. Such compensation shall be based upon reports filed by the advocate at such times and in such forms as the court shall prescribe. The report shall briefly state what the advocate has done with respect to each patient and the amount of time spent. The advocate's compensation shall be paid on order of the court from the county mental health and institutions fund of the county in which the court is located. [66GA, ch 139,§19]

229.20 Respondents charged with or convicted of crime.

1. If the court orders a respondent placed in a hospital for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment at a time when the respondent has been convicted of a public offense, or when there is pending against the respondent an unresolved formal charge of a public offense, and the respondent's liberty has therefore been restricted in any manner, the finding of fact required by section 229.13 of this Act shall clearly so inform the chief medical officer of the hospital where the respondent is placed.

2. When a proceeding under section 229.6 and succeeding sections of this chapter arises under sections 783.5 or 789.8, and the respondent through his attorney waives the hearing otherwise required by section 229.12, the court may immediately order the respondent placed in a hospital for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment pursuant to section 229.13. In such cases, the court may in its discretion order or waive the physician's examination otherwise required under section 229.10. [R60,§1459; C73,§1412; C97,§2279; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3555; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.12; 66GA, ch 139,§20]

229.21 Judicial hospitalization referee.

1. As soon as practicable after the adoption of this Act the judges in each judicial district shall meet and shall determine, individually for each county in the district, whether it appears that one or more district judges will be sufficiently accessible in that county to make it feasible for them to perform at all times the duties prescribed by sections 229.7 to 229.20 and by chapter 224. If the judges find that accessibility of district court judges in any county is not sufficient for this purpose, the chief judge of the district shall appoint in that county a judicial hospitalization referee. The judges in any district may at any time review their determination, previously made under this subsection with respect to any county in the district, and pursuant to that review may authorize appointment of a judicial hospitalization referee, or abolish the office, in that county.

2. The judicial hospitalization referee shall be an attorney, licensed to practice law in this state, who shall be chosen with consideration to any training, experience, interest, or combination of those factors, which are pertinent to the duties of the office. The referee shall hold office at the pleasure of and receive compensation at a rate fixed by the chief judge of the district. If the referee expects to be absent from the county for any significant length of time, the referee shall inform the chief judge who may appoint a temporary substitute judicial hospitalization referee having the qualifications set forth in this subsection.

3. When an application for involuntary hospitalization is filed with the clerk of the district court in any county for which a judicial hospitalization referee has been appointed, and no district judge is accessible in the county, the clerk shall immediately notify the referee in the manner required by section 229.7. The referee shall thereupon discharge all of the duties imposed upon judges of the district court by sections 229.7 to 229.20 in the proceeding so initiated. Upon termination of the proceeding or issuance of an order under section 229.13, the referee shall transmit either to the chief judge, or another judge of the district court designated by the chief judge, a statement of the reasons for the referee's action and a copy of any order issued.

4. Any respondent with respect to whom the judicial hospitalization referee has found the contention that he or she is seriously mentally impaired sustained by clear and convincing evidence presented at a hearing held under section 229.12, may appeal from the referee's finding to a judge of the district court by giving the clerk notice in writing, within seven days after the referee's finding is made, that an appeal therefrom is taken. The appeal may be signed by the respondent or by the respondent's next friend, guardian or attorney. When so appealed, the matter shall stand for trial de novo. Upon appeal, the court shall schedule a hospitalization hearing before a district judge at the earliest practicable time.

5. If the appellant is in custody under the jurisdiction of the district court at the time of service of the notice of appeal, he or she shall be discharged from custody unless an order that the appellant be taken into immediate custody has previously been issued under section 229.11, in which case the appellant shall be detained as provided in that section until the hospitalization hearing before the district judge. If the appellant is in the custody of a hospital at the time of service of the notice of appeal, he or she shall be discharged from custody pending disposition of the appeal unless the chief medical officer, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk is open and which follows service of the notice of appeal, files with the clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the appellant is seriously mentally ill. In that case, the appellant shall remain in custody of the hospital until the hospitalization hearing before the district court.

6. The hospitalization hearing before the district judge shall be held, and the judge's finding shall be made and an appropriate order entered, as prescribed by sections 229.12 and 229.13. If the judge orders the appellant hospitalized for a complete psychiatric evaluation, jurisdiction of the matter shall revert to the judicial hospitalization referee. [C97,§§2267, 2268; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3560, 3561; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§§229.17, 229.18; 66GA, ch 139,§21]

229.22 Hospitalization — emergency procedure.

1. The procedure prescribed by this section shall not be used unless it appears that a person should be immediately detained due to serious mental impairment, but that person cannot be immediately detained by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 and 229.11 because there is no means of immediate access to the district court.

2. In the circumstances described in subsection 1, any peace officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is mentally ill, and because of that illness is likely to physically injure himself or herself or others if not immediately detained, may without a warrant take or cause that person to be taken to the nearest available facility as defined in section 229.11, subsections 2 and 3. Immediately upon taking the person into custody, the nearest available magistrate, as defined in section 748.1, shall be notified and shall immediately proceed to the facility. The magistrate shall in the manner prescribed by section 229.8, subsection 1 insure that the person has or is provided legal counsel at the earliest practicable time, and shall arrange for the counsel to be present, if practicable, before proceeding under this section. The peace officer who took the person into custody shall remain until the magistrate's arrival and shall describe the circumstances of the detention to the magistrate. If the magistrate finds that there is probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired, and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure himself or herself or others if not immediately detained, he or she shall enter a written order for the person to be detained in custody and, if the facility where the person is at that time is not an appropriate hospital, transported to an appropriate hospital. The magistrate's order shall state the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody and the grounds supporting the finding of probable cause to believe that he or she is seriously mentally impaired and likely to physically injure himself or herself or others if not immediately detained. A certified copy of the order shall be delivered to the chief medical officer of the hospital where the person is detained, at the earliest practicable time.

3. The chief medical officer of the hospital shall examine and may detain and care for the person taken into custody under the magistrate's order for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The hospital may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the person's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to himself or herself or others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the person without his or her consent. The person shall be discharged from the hospital and released from custody not later than the expiration of that period, unless an application for his or her involuntary hospitalization is sooner filed with the clerk pursuant to section 229.6. The detention of any person by the procedure and not in excess of the period of time prescribed by this section shall not render the peace officer, physician or hospital so detaining that person liable in a criminal or civil action for false arrest or false imprisonment if the peace officer, physician or hospital had reasonable grounds to believe the person so detained was mentally ill and likely to physically injure himself or herself or others if not immediately detained.

4. The cost of hospitalization at a public hospital of a person detained temporarily by the procedure prescribed in this section shall be paid in the same way as if the person had been admitted to the hospital by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 to 229.13. [66GA, ch 139,§22]

Referred to in §229.24

229.23 Rights and privileges of hospitalized persons. Every person who is hospitalized or detained under this chapter shall have the right to:

1. Prompt evaluation, emergency psychiatric services, and care and treatment as indicated by sound medical practice.

2. The right to refuse treatment by shock therapy or chemotherapy, unless the use of these treatment modalities is specifically consented to by the patient's next-of-kin or guardian.

3. In addition to protection of his constitutional rights, enjoyment of other legal, medical, religious, social, political, personal and working rights and privileges which he would enjoy if he were not so hospitalized or detained, so far as is possible consistent with effective treatment of that person and of the other patients of the hospital. If the patient's rights are restricted, the physician's direction to that effect shall be noted on the patient's record. The department of social services shall, in accordance with chapter 17A establish rules setting forth the specific rights and privileges to which persons so hospitalized or detained are entitled under this section, and the exceptions provided by section 17A.2, subsection 7, paragraphs "a" and "k", shall not be applicable to the rules so established. The patient or his or her next-of-kin or friend shall be advised of these rules and be provided a written copy upon the patient's admission to or arrival at the hospital. [66GA, ch 139,§23]

229.24 Records of involuntary hospitalization proceeding to be confidential.

1. All papers and records pertaining to any involuntary hospitalization or application for involuntary hospitalization of any person under this chapter, whether part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the department of social services, are subject to inspection only upon an order of the court for good cause shown. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a hospital from complying with the requirements of this chapter and of chapter 230 relative to financial responsibility for the cost of care and treatment provided a patient in that hospital, nor from properly billing any responsible relative or third-party payer for such care and treatment.

2. If authorized in writing by a person who has been the subject of any proceeding or report under sections 229.6 to 229.13 or section 229.22, or by the parent or guardian of that person, information regarding that person which is confidential under subsection 1 may be released to any designated person. [66GA, ch 139,§24]

229.25 Medical records to be confidential—exceptions. The records maintained by a hospital relating to the examination, custody, care and treatment of any person in that hospital pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential, except that the chief medical officer may release appropriate information when:

1. The information is requested by a licensed physician or attorney who provides the chief medical officer with a written wavier signed by the person about whom the information is sought; or

2. The information is sought by a court order; or

3. The information is requested for the purpose of research into the causes, incidence, nature and treatment of mental illness, however information shall not be provided under this subsection in a way that discloses patients' names or which otherwise discloses any patient's identity; or

4. The person who is hospitalized or that person's guardian, if the person is a minor or is not legally competent to do so, signs an informal consent to release information. Each signed consent shall designate specifically the person or agency to whom the information is to be sent, and the information may be sent only to that person or agency. [66GA, ch 139,§25]

229.26 Exclusive procedure for involuntary hospitalization. Sections 229.6 to 229.20 shall constitute the exclusive procedure for involuntary hospitalization of persons by reason of serious mental impairment in this state, except that nothing in this chapter shall negate the provisions of sections 245.12 and 246.16 relative to transfer of mentally ill prisoners to state hospitals for the mentally ill. [66GA, ch 139, §26]

229.27 Hospitalization not to equate with incompentency—procedure for finding incompetency due to mental illness.

1. Hospitalization of any person under this chapter, either voluntarily or involuntarily, shall not be deemed to constitute a finding of or to equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, or to cause the person so hospitalized to be deemed a lunatic, a person of unsound mind, or a person under legal disability for any purpose including but not limited to any circumstances to which sections 447.7, 472.15, 545.2, subsection 13, 545.11, subsection 7, 545.36, 567.7, 595.3, 597.6, 598.29, 614.8, 614.19, 614.22, 614.24, 614.27, 622.6, 633.244, 633.266, subsection 4, and 675.21 are applicable.

2. The applicant may, in initiating a petition for involuntary hospitalization of a person under section 229.6 or at any subsequent time prior to conclusion of the involuntary hospitalization proceeding, also petition the court for a finding that the person is incompetent by reason of mental illness. The test of competence for the purpose of this section shall be whether the person possesses sufficient mind to understand in a reasonable manner the nature and effect of the act in which he or she is engaged; the fact that a person is mentally ill and in need of treatment for that illness but because of the illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to his or her hospitalization or treatment does not necessarily mean that that person is incapable of transacting business on any subject.

3. A hearing limited to the question of the person's competence and conducted in substantially the manner prescribed in sections 633.552 to 633.556 shall be held when:

a. The court is petitioned or proposes upon its own motion to find incompetent by reason of mental illness a person whose involuntary hospitalization has been ordered under section 229.13 or 229.14, and who contends that he or she is not incompetent; or

b. A person previously found incompetent by reason of mental illness under subsection 2 petitions the court for a finding that he or she is no longer incompetent and, after notice to the applicant who initiated the petition for hospitalization of the person and to any other party as directed by the court, an objection is filed with the court. The court may order a hearing on its own motion before acting on a petition filed under this paragraph. A petition by a person for a finding that he or she is no longer incompetent may be filed at any time without regard to whether the person is at that time hospitalized for treatment of mental illness.

4. Upon petitioning the court for a finding that a respondent is incompetent by reason of mental illness, the applicant may also request the court to appoint a conservator for the respondent. The court may appoint a temporary conservator as provided by section 633.573, or may defer a decision on the appointment of a conservator until a report is received under section 229.13 if the respondent is hospitalized for evaluation pursuant to that section.

5. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude use of any other procedure authorized by law for declaring any person legally incompetent for reasons which may include mental illness, without regard to whether that person is or has been hospitalized for treatment of mental illness. [66GA, ch 139,§27]

Referred to in §§4.1, 48.30, 48.31, 229.27

229.28 Hospitalization in certain federal facilities. When a court finds that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained or proposes to order continued hospitalization of any person, or an alternative placement, under section 229.14, subsection 2 or 4, and the court is furnished evidence that the respondent or patient is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government and that the facility is willing to receive the respondent or patient, the court may so order. The respondent or patient, when so hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government within or outside of this state, shall be subject to the rules of the veterans administration or other agency, but shall not thereby lose any procedural rights afforded the respondent or patient by this chapter. The chief officer of the facility shall have, with respect to the person so hospitalized or placed, the same powers and duties as the chief medical officer of a hospital in this state would have in regard to submission of reports to the court, retention of custody, transfer, convalescent leave or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the court to maintain surveillance of the person's treatment and care, and at any time to inquire into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody. [C27, 31, 35,§3562-b1; C39, §3562.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.20; 66GA, ch 139,§28]

Referred to in §229.30

229.29 Transfer to certain federal facilities. Upon receipt of a certificate stating that any person involuntarily hospitalized under this chapter is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government which is willing to receive the person without charge to the state of Iowa or any county in the state, the chief medical officer may transfer the person to that facility. Upon so doing, the chief medical officer shall notify the court which ordered the person's hospitalization in the same manner as would be required in the case of a transfer under section 229.15, subsection 4, and the person transferred shall be entitled to the same rights as he or she would have under that subsection. No person shall be transferred under this section who is confined pursuant to conviction of a public offense or whose hospitalization was ordered upon contention of incompetence to stand trial by reason of mental illness, without prior approval of the court which ordered that person's hospitalization. [C27, 31, 35,§3562-b1; C39,§3562.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§229.20; 66GA, ch 139,§29]

A judgment or order of hospitalization or commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia, under which any person is hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, shall have the same force and effect with respect to that person while he or she is in this state as the judgment or order would have if the person were in the jurisdiction of the court which issued it. That court shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so hospitalized or placed for the purpose of inquiring into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody, as do courts in this state under section 229.28. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the state or district in which is situated the court which issued the judgment or order as regards authority of the chief officer of any facility, operated in this state by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, to retain custody, transfer, place on convalescent leave or discharge the person so hospitalized or committed. If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the mentally ill as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the state director finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of admission or commitment, in a county of this state, said state director shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases. [S13, §2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3589; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.9]

All legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, and admission or commitment of a person to a state hospital for the mentally ill under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall, in the first instance, be paid by the county of admission or commitment. The county of such legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such payments, with interest. [S13, §2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3590; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.10]

230.12 Action to determine legal settlement. When a dispute arises between different counties or between the state director and a county as to the legal settlement of a person admitted or committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill, the attorney general, at the request of the state director, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity. [C73,§1418; C97,§§2270, 2282; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3592; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.12]

230.13 Judgment when settlement found within state. The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of the admission or commitment, was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness, and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. [C73,§1418; C97,§2282; S13,§2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3593; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.13]

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of admission or commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said mentally ill person shall be maintained in the hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3594; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.14]

The county auditor, subject to the direction of the board of supervisors, shall enforce the obligation herein created as to all sums advanced by the county. The liability to the county incurred under this section on account of any mentally ill person shall be limited to one hundred percent of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute for one hundred twenty days of hospitalization, whether occurring subsequent to a single admission or accumulated as a consequence of two or more separate admissions, and thereafter to an amount not in excess of the average minimum cost of the maintenance of a physically and mentally healthy individual residing in his own home, which standard shall be established and may from time to time be revised by the department of social services. No lien imposed by section 230.25 shall exceed the amount of the liability which may be incurred under this section on account of any mentally ill person.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost of the care and treatment of any mentally ill person as established by the department of social services.

Persons who as of July 1, 1972, are hospitalized in any state mental health institute, or who on that date or any later date have been so hospitalized for a total of one hundred twenty days or more, shall be considered to have incurred liability for one hundred percent of the cost of their care and treatment for one hundred twenty days, and shall thereafter be entitled to reduced liability as provided by this section. There shall be no forgiveness of any liability existing on July 1, 1972, for the cost of care and treatment of mentally ill persons, except as provided in section 230.17 and no person who has paid any such costs prior to that date shall be entitled to any refund by reason of this section. [R60,§1488; C73,§1433; C97,§2297; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3596; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.16]

230.17 Board may compromise lien. The board of supervisors is hereby empowered to compromise any and all liabilities to the county, created by this chapter, when such compromise is deemed to be for the best interests of the county. [C73,§1433; C97,§2297; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3597; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.17]

The estates of all nonresident patients provided for and treated in state hospitals for the mentally ill in this state, and all persons legally bound for the support of such patients, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment of such patients while in such hospitals. The certificate of the superintendent of the state hospital in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient, shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment furnished such patient. [S13,§2297-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3599; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§230.19]

230.20 Statement of charges to counties. The superintendent of each state hospital for the mentally ill established by section 226.1, or his designee, shall on the tenth day of July, October, January and April of each year, compute the amounts which are due the state from each county for services rendered by the hospital to patients chargeable to those counties. Each hospital's charges for services rendered in a particular quarter shall be based on that hospital's expenditures during the immediately preceding quarter, and shall be computed as follows:

1. The expenditures of the hospital during the preceding calendar quarter shall be separately computed by program in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures. In so doing, the superintendent or his designee shall not include any of the following:

a. The costs of food, lodging and other maintenance provided to persons not patients of the hospital.

b. The costs of certain direct medical services, which shall be charged directly against the patient who received the services. The direct medical services to which this paragraph is applicable shall be specifically identified in rules adopted by the department of social services in accordance with chapter 17A, and may include but need not be limited to x-ray, laboratory and dental services.

c. The cost of outpatient and state placement services, which shall be charged directly against the patient who received the services at a rate to be established by the state director on the basis of the actual cost of the services.

2. The total patient days of service provided during the preceding calendar quarter shall be identified and accumulated for each program for which expenditures are separately computed under subsection 1 of this section.

3. The total expenditure during the preceding calendar quarter computed for each program pursuant to subsection 1 shall be divided by the total patient days of service provided during the calendar quarter by that program, determined pursuant to subsection 2, to derive the average daily patient cost for each program.

4. Each county shall be charged an amount computed as follows:

a. The charges attributable to each inpatient chargeable to that county, calculated by multiplying the average daily patient cost for each program under which the patient was served by the number of days the patient was so served during the calendar quarter, and adding the cost of direct medical services received by the patient during the calendar quarter; and

b. The charges attributable to each outpatient chargeable to that county who was served by the hospital during the calendar quarter, calculated at the cost established under subsection 1, paragraph "c".

5. An individual statement shall be prepared for any patient on or before the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding the month in which that patient leaves the hospital, and a general statement shall be prepared at least quarterly for each county to which charges are made under this section. Except as otherwise required by sections 224A.2 and 224A.3, the general statement shall list the name of each patient chargeable to that county who was served by the hospital during the preceding month or calendar quarter and the amount due on account of each patient, and the county shall be billed for one hundred percent of the stated charge for each patient, unless otherwise specified in the current appropriation for support of the state hospitals. The statement prepared for each county shall be certified by the superintendent of the hospital to the state comptroller and a duplicate statement shall be mailed to the auditor of that county.

6. All or any reasonable portion of the charges incurred for services rendered to any patient, to the most recent date for which the charges have been computed, may be paid at any time by the patient or by any other person on the patient's behalf. Any payment so made shall be credited against the patient's account and, if the charges so paid have previously been billed to a county, reflected in the hospital's next general statement to that county. 1. Upon receipt from the county auditor of the list of names furnished pursuant to section 230.21, the board of supervisors shall make an investigation to determine the ability of each person whose name appears on the list, and also the ability of any person liable under section 230.15 for the support of that person, to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization. If the board finds that neither the hospitalized person nor any person legally liable for his or her support is able to pay those expenses, they shall direct the county auditor not to index the names of any of those persons as would otherwise be required by section 230.26. However the board may

If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally liable for his or her support are presently able to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization, that finding shall apply only to charges stated upon the certificate from which the list was drawn up and any subsequent charges similarly certified, unless and until the board again changes its finding.

If no response is received within a reasonable period of time, or if the response is unsatisfactory, the committee may as its ultimate sanction call this fact to the attention of the board of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, and in doing so shall indicate what corrective steps have been recommended to the center's board of directors. ARTICLE I—FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The co-operation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to:

1. Co-operative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole;

2. The return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded;

3. The return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and

4. Additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake co-operatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformative and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to co-operate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II—EXISTING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III—DEFINITIONS

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV—RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

a. That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding ninety days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

b. That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

c. That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V—RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABSCONDERS

Referred to in Art. XIV b, d

a. That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding ninety days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

b. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

ARTICLE VI—VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV "a" or of Article V "a", may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII
CO-OPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES
Referred to in Art. XIV

a. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

b. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

c. That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

d. That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

ARTICLE VIII—RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

a. That the provisions of Articles IV "b", V "b" and VII "d" of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

b. That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV "b", V "b" or VII "d" of this compact.

ARTICLE IX—DETENTION PRACTICES

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X—SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS
Referred to in Art. XIV

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the co-operative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall:

1. Provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished;

2. Provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody;

3. Provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile;

4. Provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state;

5. Provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state;

6. Provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and

7. Make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the co-operating states.

ARTICLE XI—ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII—COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII—EXECUTION OF COMPACT

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV—RENUNCIATION

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

Out-of-State Confinement Amendment

a. Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a sending state shall determine that confinement of a probationer or reconfinement of a parolee is necessary or desirable, said officials may direct that the confinement or reconfinement be in an appropriate institution for delinquent juveniles within the territory of the receiving state, such receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

b. Escapees and absconders who would otherwise be returned pursuant to Article V of the compact may be confined or reconfined in the receiving state pursuant to this amendment. In any such case the information and allegations required to be made and furnished in a requisition pursuant to such Article shall be made and furnished, but in place of the demand pursuant to Article V, the sending state shall request confinement or reconfinement in the receiving state. Whenever applicable, detention orders as provided in Article V may be employed pursuant to this paragraph preliminary to disposition of the escapee or absconder.

c. The confinement or reconfinement of a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder pursuant to this amendment shall require the concurrence of the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the receiving state.

d. As used in this amendment: (1) "Sending state" means sending state as that term is used in Article VII of the compact or the state from which a delinquent juvenile has escaped or absconded within the meaning of Article V of the compact; (2) "receiving state" means any state, other than the sending state, in which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be found, provided that said state is a party to this amendment.

e. Every state which adopts this amendment shall designate at least one of its institutions for delinquent juveniles as a "Compact Institution" and shall confine persons therein as provided in paragraph "a" hereof unless the sending and receiving state in question shall make specific contractural arrangements to the contrary. All states party to this amendment shall have access to "Compact Institutions" at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and for the purpose of visiting such of said state's delinquents as may be confined in the institution.

f. Persons confined in "Compact Institutions" pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed from said "Compact Institution" for transfer to an appropriate institution within the sending state, for return to probation or parole, for discharge or for any purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state.

g. All persons who may be confined in a "Compact Institution" pursuant to the provisions of this amendment shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner. The fact of confinement or reconfinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any person so confined or reconfined of any rights which said person would have had if confined or reconfined in an appropriate institution of the sending state; nor shall any agreement to submit to confinement or reconfinement pursuant to the terms of this amendment be construed as a waiver of any rights which the delinquent would have had if he had been confined or reconfined in any appropriate institution of the sending state except that the hearing or hearings, if any, to which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be entitled (prior to confinement or reconfinement) by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate judicial or administrative officers of the receiving state. In this event, said judicial and administrative officers shall act as agents of the sending state after consultation with appropriate officers of the sending state.

h. Any receiving state incurring costs or other expenses under this amendment shall be reimbursed in the amount of such costs or other expenses by the sending state unless the states concerned shall specifically otherwise agree. Any two or more states party to this amendment may enter into supplementary agreements determining a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

i. This amendment shall take initial effect when entered into by any two or more states party to the compact and shall be effective as to those states which have specifically enacted this amendment. Rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the terms of this amendment may be promulgated by the appropriate officers of those states which have enacted this amendment. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §231.14]

231.15 Confinement of delinquent juvenile. In addition to any institution in which the authorities of this state may otherwise confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile, such authorities may, pursuant to the out-of-state confinement amendment to the interstate compact on juveniles, confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile in a compact institution within another party state. 232.3 Information — investigation — petition. Whenever the court or any of its officers are informed by any competent person that a minor is within the purview of this chapter, an inquiry shall be made of the facts presented which bring the minor under this chapter to determine whether the interests of the public or of the minor require that further action be taken. After such an inquiry the judge, probation officer, or county attorney may authorize the filing of a petition with the clerk of the court by any informed person without payment of a filing fee. If the facts pleaded are admitted by the minor and consent is obtained from the parents, or guardian of the minor, the court may make whatever informal adjustment is practical without holding a formal hearing. Efforts to affect informal adjustment may be continued not longer than three months without review by the judge.

The petition and subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In the interest of ....., a child." The petition shall be verified and any statements may be made upon information and belief. The petition shall set forth plainly:

[C71, 73, 75,§232.71]

When such child pleads guilty or is found guilty of a public offense in another court that court may with the consent of the juvenile court refer the child back to juvenile court for further disposition. In any event the court before whom the plea was made or the conviction was had is expressly authorized to set aside such plea or conviction but only after the child has successfully completed a period of probation of not less than one year. However, in any fiscal year for which the general assembly appropriates state funds to pay for foster care for children placed by courts under the statutes cited in this section, the county shall become responsible for these costs only when the funds so appropriated to the department for that fiscal year have been exhausted. The rate of payment by the county or the state, as the

Any money which the child receives from the United States government or any private source shall be placed in the child's account, unless a guardian of the child's property has been appointed and demands the money, in which case it shall be paid to the guardian. The account shall be maintained by the department as trustee for the child in an interest-bearing account at a reputable bank or savings and loan association, except that if the child is residing at an institution administered by the department a limited amount of the child's funds may be maintained in a separate account, which need not be interest bearing, in the child's name at the institution. Any money held in an account in the child's name or in trust for the child under this section may be used, at the discretion of the department and subject to restrictions lawfully imposed by the United States government or other source from which the child receives the funds, for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires and comforts of the child. All of the money held for a child by the department under this section and not used in the child's behalf as authorized by law shall be promptly paid to the child or his parent or legal guardian upon termination of the commitment of the child to the commissioner or his designee, or upon transfer or cessation of legal custody of the child by the department. The rate of payment by the department for foster care shall be fixed by the department by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A. Payments may be made from any money legally available to the department for that purpose, including but not limited to funds appropriated by the general assembly, money available under section 234.37, and money received from the parent or legal guardian of a child to pay for that child's foster care.

The department shall certify to the comptroller each month the number of children served in foster care during the preceding month who are the children of veterans as defined by applicable laws of the United States or of this state, and the extent to which the cost of foster care for them was paid from funds appropriated to the department by the general assembly. The comptroller shall reimburse the department for the appropriated funds so expended, from any money in the general fund of the state not otherwise appropriated, and the reimbursement shall be placed in the department's foster care account. The department shall establish a schedule of charges to be made for care and services provided, on a graduated scale related to the income and resources of the person responsible for payment, by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A. The schedule of charges established and adopted under this section shall not be inconsistent with the limitations on legal liability established under sections 222.78 and 230.15, and by any other statute limiting legal liability which may be imposed on any person for the cost of care and services provided by the department of social services. CHILD ABUSE INFORMATION REGISTRY

235A.12 Legislative findings and purposes. The general assembly finds and declares that a central registry is required to provide a single source for the state-wide collection, maintenance and dissemination of child abuse information. Such a registry is imperative for increased effectiveness in dealing with the problem of child abuse. The general assembly also finds that vigorous protection of rights of individual privacy is an indispensable element of a fair and effective system of collecting, maintaining and disseminating child abuse information.

The purposes of this section and sections 235A.13 to 235A.24 are to facilitate the identification of victims or potential victims of child abuse by making available a single, state-wide source of child abuse data; to facilitate research on child abuse by making available a single, state-wide source of child abuse data; and to provide maximum safeguards against the unwarranted invasions of privacy which such a registry might otherwise entail. 238.33 Interstate compact on placement of children. The interstate compact on the placement of children is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE AND POLICY

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to co-operate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

a. Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

b. The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

c. The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis of which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

d. Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a. "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship or similar control.

b. "Sending agency" means a party state, officer or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state, or officer or employee thereof; a court of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency or other entity which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

c. "Receiving state" means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

d. "Placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family free or boarding home or in a child-caring agency or institution.

ARTICLE III—CONDITIONS FOR PLACEMENT
Referred to in §238.35

a. No sending state shall send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state any child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency shall comply with each and every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children therein.

b. Prior to sending, bringing or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption, the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

1. The name, date and place of birth of the child.

2. The identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian.

3. The name and address of the person, agency or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring or place the child.

4. A full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

c. Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph "b" of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency's state, and shall be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact.

d. The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child.

ARTICLE IV—PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL PLACEMENT

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place, or care for children.

ARTICLE V—RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

a. The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein.

Referred to in §238.36

b. When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency.

Referred to in §§238.37, 238.38

c. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state; nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in paragraph "a" hereof.

ARTICLE VI—INSTITUTIONAL CARE OF DELINQUENT CHILDREN
Referred to in §238.39

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to his being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that:

a. Equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction; and

b. Institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

ARTICLE VII—COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR
Referred to in §238.40

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general co-ordinator of activities under this compact in his jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party jurisdictions, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII—LIMITATIONS

This compact shall not apply to:

a. The sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state by his parent, relative, or his guardian and leaving the child with any such relative or nonagency guardian in the receiving state.

b. Any placement, sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state pursuant to any other interstate compact to which both the state from which the child is sent or brought and the receiving state are party, or to any other agreement between said states which has the force of law.

ARTICLE IX—ENACTMENT AND WITHDRAWAL

This compact shall be open to joinder by any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, with the consent of Congress, the government of Canada or any province thereof. It shall become effective with respect to any such jurisdiction when such jurisdiction has enacted the same into law. Withdrawal from this compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until two years after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the governor of each other party jurisdiction. Withdrawal of a party state shall not affect the rights, duties and obligations under this compact of any sending agency therein with respect to a placement made prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

ARTICLE X—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

a. Was in fact receiving assistance under this chapter; or

b. Would have received assistance under this chapter if application had been made therefor; or

c. Had within six months prior to the month in which the proceedings were initiated been living with a relative referred to in section 239.1, subsection 3, and would have received assistance under this chapter in and for the month in which the proceedings were begun if he had continued to live with that relative and application had been made therefor.

c. At any time during the thirty-day period prior to receipt of assistance under this chapter or at any time thereafter while assistance is payable under this chapter, has not been available for employment, has not actively sought employment, or has without good cause refused any bona fide offer of employment or training for employment. The following reasons for refusing employment or training are not good cause: unsuitable or unpleasant work or training, if the father is able to perform the work or training without unusual danger to his health; or the amount of wages or compensation, unless the wages for employment are below the federal minimum wage.

d. Has not registered for work with the state employment service established pursuant to section 96.12, or thereafter has failed to report at an employment office in accordance with regulations prescribed pursuant to section 96.4, subsection 1.

The division may prescribe requirements in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, for eligibility for assistance under this chapter to children whose fathers are partially or totally unemployed, which are necessary to secure financial participation of the federal government in payment of such assistance. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.2]

239.3 Application for assistance. Application for assistance under this chapter shall be made to the county board of the county in which the dependent child resides or will reside in the event assistance is granted. The application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the state director. Such application shall be made by an adult person or a person eighteen years of age or older with whom the dependent child resides or will reside, and shall contain such information as may be required by said application form. One application may be made for several children of the same family if they reside or will reside with the same person. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.3]

239.4 Investigation of application. Whenever a county board receives a notification of the dependency of a child or an application for assistance, an investigation and record of the circumstances shall promptly be made in order to ascertain the dependency of the child and the facts supporting the application.

The investigations shall include visits to the home of the child and of the person with whom the child will live during the time assistance is granted.

In cases involving physical or mental incapacity or unfitness of either parent, the county board of social welfare may require as a condition for granting assistance hereunder that such incapacity or unfitness be determined by a board of doctors which shall be selected by the county board of social welfare. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.4]

239.5 Granting of assistance and amount of assistance—co-operation of parent. Upon the completion of an investigation the county board shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and determine the amount of such assistance. The county board shall, within thirty days, notify the person with whom the child is living or will be living, of the decision made. The county board may require, as a condition of granting assistance, that a legal guardianship be established over any recipient, or any child or children and in such cases the assistance payments shall be made to such guardian, when appointed, but a guardian of a child or children only shall not be allowed to receive any assistance payments for any dependent child or children unless such guardian shall bear a relationship to the child or children embraced by subsection 3, section 239.1. In addition to the assistance granted as provided under this chapter, an amount not to exceed ten dollars per case per month may be allowed for guardian's fees when authorized by appropriate court order. The dependent child for whom the grant is made shall be originally charged to the county in which such child resides when application is made.

The county board, in accordance with rules and standards established by the state department of social services, shall fix the amount of assistance necessary for any dependent child. In determining the amount of assistance, the county board shall take into consideration the income and resources of any child or relative claiming assistance under this chapter. However, in fixing the amount of assistance for any child or family, the county board, in accordance with rules established by the state department of social services, may disregard a reasonable amount of the income of the child or the family, in order to encourage the family or any of its members to become self-supporting. The term "income" as used herein means income remaining after deduction of expenses reasonably attributable to the earning or securing of that income.

The county board, under the supervision of the state department of social services, shall establish services to help families and persons receiving assistance under this chapter to become self-supporting; shall participate in the work and training program established by chapter 249C; and shall co-operate with other public agencies and with private agencies to secure employment, education, and vocational training for members of such families. Assistance, when granted, shall be paid monthly to an adult person or a person eighteen years of age or older within the specified degrees of relationship and with whom the child is living, from the fund for aid to dependent children established by this chapter, upon the order of the state division, except that the county board may order the assistance payments made to another individual who is interested in or concerned with the welfare of the child or the person with whom the child is living when it has been demonstrated that the person with whom the child is living is unable to manage the assistance payments in the best interest of the child. Such protective payments shall not be made beyond one year and shall otherwise conform to the regulations established under the provisions of Title IV of the Social Security Act as amended by Public Law 90-248.

No payment for aid to dependent children shall be made unless and until the county board of social welfare, with the advice of the county attorney shall certify that the parent receiving the aid for the children is co-operating in legal actions and other efforts to obtain support money for said children from the persons legally responsible for said support.

The state comptroller shall, no later than January 1, 1977 and upon receipt of a written signed request from the person entitled to receive assistance established by this chapter, order that payments be made directly to a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union of his or her choice. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.5; 66GA, ch 1138,§1]

See Collins v. Board, 248 Iowa 369

239.6 Periodic reconsideration, changes, and termination of grants. Any or all assistance grants made under this chapter shall be subject to reconsideration at any time the county board deems necessary and shall be reinvestigated and reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required. After any such further investigation, the county board shall make further report to the state director. Upon such report, assistance may be continued, renewed, suspended, changed in amount, or entirely withdrawn, as the findings of such reports warrant. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.6]

239.7 Appeal—judicial review. If an application is not acted upon within a reasonable time, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended, or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the department of social services. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the commissioner or his designee. Judicial review of the result of such hearing may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Upon receipt of the notice of the filing of a petition for judicial review, the department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§239.7]

239.8 Removal from county. When any child for whose benefit a grant of assistance has been made removes or is removed from the county in which he resided at the time he was granted assistance, it shall be the duty of the recipient to immediately notify the county board of the county of the fact of such removal and of the city (or the nearest city) and of the county to which the child has removed. 247.40 Interstate probation and parole compact. Since the state of Iowa has been a signatory to the interstate probation and parole compact since 1937 by action of the governor pursuant to section 247.10, the general assembly deems it advisable to enter the full text of the compact into the Code for easy accessibility by the general public.

The interstate probation and parole compact is hereby placed in the Code as entered into by this state with other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

THE INTERSTATE PROBATION AND PAROLE COMPACT

Entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an Act entitled "An Act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for co-operative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

1. That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact, to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact, while on probation or parole, if:

a. Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there.

b. Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

2. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

3. That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state. Provided, however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

4. That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.

5. That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

6. That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

7. That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other state party hereto. 247A.2 Program. The department of social services shall establish a work release program under which inmates sentenced to an institution under the jurisdiction of the department may be granted the privilege of leaving actual confinement during necessary and reasonable hours for the purpose of working at gainful employment in this state. Under appropriate conditions the program may also include release for the purpose of seeking employment and attendance at an educational institution. In the case of inmates who have children in their homes under the age of eighteen years, the program may include child care and housekeeping in their homes. [C71, 73, 75,§247A.2]

The committee shall include as a specific term or condition in the work release plan of any inmate the place where the inmate is to be housed when not on the work assignment. The committee shall not place an inmate on work release for longer than six months in any twelve-month period. Inmates may be temporarily released to the supervision of a responsible person to participate in family and selected community, religious, educational, social, civic and recreational activities when it is determined that the participation will directly facilitate the release transition from institution to community. [C71, 73, 75,§247A.5]

247A.6 Willful escape. Any inmate released from actual confinement under a work release plan who willfully fails to return to the designated place for housing at the time specified in the plan shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction be subject to the penalty provided in section 745.1. 3. An amount the inmate may be legally obligated to pay for the support of his dependents, the amount of which shall be paid to the dependents through the local department of social services in the county or city in which the dependents reside.

4. Court costs.

Any balance remaining after deductions and payments shall be credited to the inmate's personal account at the institution and shall be paid to him upon release. Any inmate so employed shall be paid a fair and reasonable wage in accordance with the prevailing wage scale for such work and shall work at fair and reasonable hours per day and per week. Should any inmate suffer an injury arising out of or in the course of the inmate's employment under this chapter, the inmate's recovery shall be from the insurance carrier of the employer of the project and no proceedings for compensation shall be maintained against the insurance carrier of the state institution or the state, and it is understood that there is no employer-employee relationship between the inmate and the state institution. [C71, 73, 75,§247A.8]

249C.4 Co-operation. The program shall provide for maximum co-operation with and participation in federal programs having similar purposes, but the state work and training program shall continue whether or not federal programs and federal funds are available. [C71, 73, 75,§249C.4]

A person shall not be disqualified for public assistance if it is impossible to arrange suitable work or training for him. [C71, 73, 75,§249C.6]

249C.17 Chapter not to interfere with federal assistance. If it is finally determined that any provision of this chapter would cause the work and training program to be ineligible for federal financial assistance which the state would otherwise receive, such provision may be suspended or modified to the extent which is essential to obtain such assistance. Notwithstanding the fact that the respondent has obtained in any state or country a final decree of divorce or separation from his wife or her husband or a decree dissolving his or her marriage, the respondent shall be deemed legally liable for the support of any dependent child of such marriage.

8. Duties of support applicable under this chapter are those imposed or imposable under the laws of any state where the respondent was present during the period for which support is sought. The respondent is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown.

9. The natural parents of a child born out of wedlock shall be severally liable for the support of the child, but the liability of the natural father shall not be enforceable unless he has been adjudicated to be the child's father by a court of competent jurisdiction, or he has acknowledged paternity of the child in open court or by written statement. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§252A.3; 66GA, ch 1141,§5]

252A.4 Jurisdiction. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the state of last residence or domicile of the petitioner and the respondent and whether or not the respondent has ever been a resident of the initiating state or the dependent person has ever been a resident of the responding state.

2. The court of the responding state shall have the power to order the respondent to pay sums sufficient to provide necessary food, shelter, clothing, care, medical or hospital expenses, expenses of confinement, expenses of education of a child, funeral expenses and such other reasonable and proper expenses of the petitioner as justice requires, having due regard to the circumstances of the respective parties.

3. The courts of both the initiating state and the responding state shall have the power to order testimony to be taken in either or both of such states by deposition or written interrogatories, and to limit the nature of and the extent to which the right so to take testimony shall be exercised, provided that the respondent is given a full and fair opportunity to answer the allegations of the petitioner. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§252A.4]

252A.5 When proceeding may be maintained. A proceeding to compel support of a dependent may be maintained under this chapter in any of the following cases:

1. Where the petitioner and the respondent are residents of or domiciled or found in the same state.

2. Where the petitioner resides in one state and the respondent is a resident of or is domiciled or found in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

3. Where the respondent is not and never was a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and the petitioner resides or is domiciled in such state and the respondent is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

4. Where the respondent was or is a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and has departed or departs from such state leaving therein a dependent in need of and entitled to support under this chapter and is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

5. Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to a dependent, it has the same right through proceedings instituted by the petitioner's representative to invoke the provisions hereof as the dependent to whom the support was furnished, for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support; the petition in such case may be verified by any official having knowledge of such expenditures and consent of the dependent shall not be required in order to institute proceedings under this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§252A.5]

252A.6 How commenced—trial.

1. A proceeding under this chapter shall be commenced by a petitioner, or a petitioner's representative, by filing a verified petition in the court in equity in the county of the state wherein he or she resides or is domiciled, showing the name, age, residence and circumstances of the petitioner, alleging that he or she is in need of and is entitled to support from the respondent, giving the respondent's name, age, residence and circumstances, and praying that the respondent be compelled to furnish such support. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the respondent including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the respondent, a description of any distinguishing marks of his or her person, other names and aliases by which he or she has been or is known, the name of his or her employer, his or her fingerprints, or social security number.

2. If the respondent be a resident of or domiciled in such state and the court has or can acquire jurisdiction of the person of the respondent under existing laws in effect in such state, such laws shall govern and control the procedure to be followed in such proceeding.

3. If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his or her property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of (a) the petition (b) its certificate and (c) this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

4. When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall docket the cause, notify the county attorney or other official acting as petitioner's representative, set a time and place for a hearing, and take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to serve notice and thus obtain jurisdiction over the respondent. If a court of the state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his or her property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or his or her property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state.

However, if the court of the responding state is unable to obtain jurisdiction because the respondent resides in or is domiciled or found in another county of the responding state, the papers received from the court of the initiating state may be forwarded by the court of the responding state which received the papers to the court of the county in the responding state in which the respondent resides or is domiciled or found, and the court of the initiating state shall be notified of the transfer. The court of the county where the respondent resides or is domiciled or found shall acknowledge receipt of the papers to both the court of the initiating state and the court of the responding state which forwarded them, and shall take full jurisdiction of the proceedings with the same powers as if it had received the papers directly from the court of the initiating state.

5. It shall not be necessary for the petitioner or the petitioner's witnesses to appear personally at such hearing, but it shall be the duty of the petitioner's representative of the responding state to appear on behalf of and represent the petitioner at all stages of the proceeding.

6. If at such hearing the respondent controverts the petition and enters a verified denial of any of the material allegations thereof, the judge presiding at such hearing shall stay the proceedings and transmit to the judge of the court in the initiating state a transcript of the clerk's minutes showing the denials entered by the respondent.

7. Upon receipt by the judge of the court in the initiating state of such transcript, such court shall take such proof, including the testimony of the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses and such other evidence as the court may deem proper, and, after due deliberation, the court shall make its recommendation, based on all of such proof and evidence, and shall transmit to the court in the responding state an exemplified transcript of such proof and evidence and of its proceedings and recommendation in connection therewith.

8. Upon the receipt of such transcript, the court in the responding state shall resume its hearing in the proceeding and shall give the respondent a reasonable opportunity to appear and reply.

9. Upon the resumption of such hearing, the respondent shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories, and the petitioner shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the respondent and the respondent's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories.

10. If a respondent, duly summoned by a court in the responding state, willfully fails without good cause to appear as directed in the summons, he or she shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for the punishment of a defendant or witness who willfully disobeys a summons or subpoena duly issued out of such court in any other action or proceeding cognizable by said court.

11. If, on the return day of the summons, the respondent appears at the time and place specified therein and fails to answer the petition or admits the allegations thereof, or, if, after a hearing has been duly held by the court in the responding state in accordance with the provisions of this section, such court has found and determined that the prayer of the petitioner, or any part thereof, is supported by the evidence adduced in the proceeding, and that the petitioner is in need of and entitled to support from the respondent, the court shall make and enter an order directing the respondent to furnish support to the petitioner and to pay therefor such sum as the court shall determine, having due regard to the parties' means and circumstances. An exemplified copy of such order shall be transmitted by the court to the court in the initiating state and such copy shall be filed with and made a part of the records of such court in such proceeding. The court shall place the respondent on probation on such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper or necessary to assure faithful compliance by the respondent with such order. The court shall also have power to require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or surety bond in such amount as the court may deem proper and just to assure the payment of the amount required to be paid by the respondent for the support of the petitioner.

12. The court making such order may require the respondent to make payment at specified intervals to the clerk of the district court, or to the dependent, or to any state or county agency, and to report personally to the sheriff or any other official, at such times as may be deemed necessary.

13. A respondent who shall willfully fail to comply with or violate the terms or conditions of the support order or of his or her probation shall be punished by the court in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for a contempt of such court or a violation of probation ordered by such court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by such court.

14. The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court: Upon receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

15. Any order of support issued by a court of the state acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

16. The court of the initiating state shall receive and accept all payments made by the respondent to the probation department or bureau of the court of the responding state and transmitted by the latter on behalf of the respondent. Upon receipt of any such payment, and under such rules as the court of the initiating state may prescribe, the court, or its probation department or bureau, as the court may direct, shall deliver such payment to the dependent person entitled thereto, take a proper receipt and acquittance therefor, and keep a permanent record thereof. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§252A.7]

252A.8 Additional remedies. This chapter shall be construed to furnish an additional or alternative civil remedy and shall in no way affect or impair any other remedy, civil or criminal, provided in any other statute and available to the petitioner in relation to the same subject matter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§252A.8]

The department shall have the right to secure support payments in default through proceedings prescribed in this chapter. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4005; C39,§3828.132; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.1]

It shall be the duty of physicians, public health nurses, members of boards of supervisors and township trustees, overseers of the poor, sheriffs, policemen, and public school teachers, having knowledge of persons suffering from any such malady or deformity, to file or cause such complaint to be filed. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4006; C39,§3828.133; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.2]

Upon the filing of such complaint, the clerk shall number and index the same and shall appoint a competent physician and surgeon, living in the vicinity of the patient, who shall personally examine the patient with respect to said pregnancy, malady, or deformity. The clerk may, after the expiration of five years from the filing of a complaint, destroy it and all papers or records in connection therewith. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4008; C39,§3828.135; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.4]

255.5 Report by physician. Such physician shall make a report in duplicate on blanks furnished as hereinafter provided, answering the questions contained therein and setting forth the information required thereby, giving such history of the case as will be likely to aid the medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of such patient, describing the pregnancy, deformity, or malady in detail, and stating whether or not in his opinion the same can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated, which report shall be filed in the office of the clerk within such time as the clerk may fix. [SS15,§§254-b,-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39,§3828.136; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.5]

255.6 Investigation and report. When such complaint is filed, the clerk shall furnish the county attorney and board of supervisors with a copy thereof and said board shall, by the overseer of the poor or such other agent as it may select, make a thorough investigation of facts as to the legal residence of the patient, and the ability of the patient or others chargeable with his support to pay the expense of such treatment and care; and shall file a report of such investigation in the office of the clerk, at or before the time of hearing. [SS15,§254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4010; C39,§3828.137; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.6]

[SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4011; C39,§3828.138; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.7]

255.8 Hearing — order — emergency cases — cancellation of commitments. The county attorney and the overseer of the poor, or other agent of the board of supervisors of the county where the hearing is held, shall appear thereat. The complainant, the county attorney, the overseer of the poor or other agent of the board of supervisors, and the patient, or any person representing him, or her, may introduce evidence and be heard. If the court finds that said patient is a legal resident of Iowa and is pregnant or is suffering from a malady or deformity which can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither the patient nor any person legally chargeable with his or her support is able to pay the expenses thereof, then the clerk of court, except in obstetrical cases and cases of crippled children, shall immediately ascertain from the admitting physician at the university hospital whether such person can be received as a patient within a period of thirty days, and if the patient can be so received, the court, or in the event of no actual contest, the clerk of the court, shall then enter an order directing that said patient be sent to the university hospital for proper medical and surgical treatment and hospital care. If the court ascertain, excepting in obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases, that a person of the age or sex of the patient, or afflicted by the complaint, disease or deformity with which such person is affected cannot be received as a patient at the said university hospital within the period of thirty days, then he or the clerk shall enter an order directing the board of supervisors of the county to provide adequate treatment at county expense for said patient at home or in a hospital. Obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases may be committed to the university hospital without regard to the limiting period of thirty days hereinbefore stated.

In any case of emergency the court or the clerk without previous inquiry may at its discretion order the patient to be immediately taken to and accepted by the university hospital for the necessary care as provided in section 255.11, but if such a patient cannot be immediately accepted at the university hospital as ascertained by telephone if necessary, the court or the clerk may enter an order as in certain cases above set forth directing the board of supervisors to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the said patient at home or in a hospital. [SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4012; C39,§3828.139; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.8]

Referred to in §§255.9, 255.14

255.9 Treatment for infant. Whenever a woman who is pregnant is committed to the hospital under the provisions of section 255.8, the said commitment shall authorize the hospital to provide proper medical or surgical treatment and hospital care for the infant. [C31, 35,§4012-d1; C39,§3828.140; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.9]

255.10 Religious belief — denial of order. The court in its discretion may refuse to make such order in any case where the court finds the patient or his parent, parents, or guardian are members of a religious denomination whose tenets preclude dependence on the practice of medicine or surgery and desire in good faith to rely upon the practice of their religion for relief from disease or disorder. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§4013; C39,§3828.141; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.10]

255.11 Order in case of emergency. In cases of great emergency, when the court or judge is satisfied that delay would be seriously injurious to the patient, he may make such order with the consent of the patient, if adult, or of the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if a minor or incompetent, without examination, report, notice, or hearing. [SS15,§254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4014; C39,§3828.142; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.11]

Referred to in §255.8

255.12 Certified copy of order. The clerk shall prepare a certified copy of said order, which, together with a copy of the physician's report, shall be delivered to the admitting physician of said hospital at or before the time of the reception of the patient into the hospital. [SS15,§254-j; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4015; C39,§3828.143; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.12]

255.13 Attendant — physician — compensation. If the physician appointed to examine the patient shall certify that an attendant to accompany the patient to the said hospital is necessary, and the university hospital attendant and ambulance service is not available, then the court or judge or clerk of the court may appoint an attendant who shall receive not exceeding two dollars per day for the time thus necessarily employed and actual necessary traveling expenses by the most feasible route to said hospital whether by ambulance, train or automobile; but if such appointee is a relative of the patient or a member of his immediate family, or receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his services, no such per diem compensation shall be paid him. The physician appointed by the court or clerk to make the examination and report shall receive therefor three dollars for each examination and report so made and his actual necessary expenses incurred in making such examination, but if said physician receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his full-time services, then no such examination fee shall be paid. The actual, necessary expenses of transporting and caring for the patient shall be paid as hereinafter provided. [SS15,§254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4016; C39,§3828.144; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.13]

255.14 Expenses—how paid. An itemized, verified statement of all charges provided for in sections 255.8 and 255.13, in cases where the patient is admitted or accepted for treatment at the university hospital shall be filed with the superintendent of the university hospital, and upon his recommendation when approved by the judge or clerk of the court under whose order the same were incurred, they shall be charged on the regular bill for the maintenance, transportation and treatment of the patient, and be audited and paid in the manner as hereinafter provided. [SS15,§254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4017; C39,§3828.145; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.14]

255.15 Duty of admitting physician at hospital. The authorities in control of the medical college shall designate some physician to pass upon the admission of such patient, and it shall be his duty to receive such patient into the hospital and to provide for him, if available, a cot, bed, or room in said hospital, and to assign him to the appropriate clinic and for treatment by the proper physician, unless, in his judgment, the presence of the patient in the hospital would be dangerous to other patients, or there is no reasonable probability that he may be benefited by the proposed treatment or hospital care. If the admitting physician shall deny admission to the patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his reasons therefor. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4018; C39,§3828.146; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.15]

Referred to in §255.18

255.16 County quotas. Subject to subsequent qualifications in this section, there shall be treated at the university hospital during each fiscal year a number of committed indigent patients from each county which shall bear the same relation to the total number of committed indigent patients admitted during the year as the population of such county shall bear to the total population of the state according to the last preceding official census. This standard shall apply to indigent patients, the expenses of whose commitment, transportation, care and treatment shall be borne by appropriated funds and shall not govern the admission of either obstetrical or orthopedic patients. If the number of patients admitted from any county shall exceed by more than ten percent the county quota as fixed and ascertained under the first sentence of this section, the charges and expenses of the care and treatment of such patients in excess of ten percent of the quota shall be paid from the funds of such county at actual cost; but if the number of excess patients from any county shall not exceed ten percent, all costs, expenses, and charges incurred in their behalf shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital. [C35,§4018-f1; C39, §3828.147; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.16]

255.17 Report of physician in charge of clinic. If the physician or surgeon in charge of said clinic, or to whom such patient has been assigned for treatment, declines to treat such patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his examination of such patient, and state therein his reasons for declining such treatment. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4019; C39, §3828.148; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.17]
Referred to in §255.18

255.18 Reports. One duplicate of each of the reports named in sections 255.15 and 255.17 shall be preserved in the records of said hospital, and the other transmitted to the clerk of the court where said order committing the patient to said hospital was entered, and by the clerk filed and preserved among the records in the cause. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4020; C39,§3828.149; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.18]

255.19 Treatment of other patients—use of earnings for new facilities. The university hospital authorities may at their discretion receive into the hospital for medical, obstetrical or surgical treatment or hospital care, patients not committed thereto under the provisions of this chapter; but the treatment or care of such patients shall not in any way interfere with the proper medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of committed patients. The university hospital ambulances and ambulance personnel may be used for the transportation of such patients at a reasonable charge if specialized equipment is required and is not otherwise available and if such use does not interfere with the ambulance transportation of patients committed to the hospital.

All of the provisions of this chapter except as to commitment of patients shall apply to such patients. The university hospital authorities shall collect from the person or persons liable for the support of such patients reasonable charges for hospital care and service and deposit the same with the treasurer of the university for the use and benefit of the university hospital. Earnings of the hospital whether from private patients, cost patients, or indigents shall be administered so as to increase as much as possible, the service available for indigents, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair, and remodeling of medical buildings and facilities and additions thereto and the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance the cost thereof as authorized by the provisions of chapter 263A. The physicians and surgeons on the hospital staff who care for patients provided for in this section may charge for their medical services under such rules, regulations and plan therefor as approved by the state board of regents. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§4021; C39, §3828.150; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.19]

255.20 Hospital treatment. When any patient has been admitted to the hospital for treatment, the physician or surgeon in charge of the case shall proceed with due care and diligence to perform such operation or bestow such treatment upon such patient as in his judgment shall be necessary and proper. Adequate nursing and hospital care shall be provided for said patient during such treatment. [SS15,§254-d; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4022; C39,§3828.151; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.20]

255.21 Treatment outside hospital—attendant. If, in the judgment of the physician or surgeon to whom the patient has been assigned for treatment, continuous residence of the patient in the hospital is unnecessary, such patient may, by the hospital authorities, be sent to his home or other appropriate place, and be required to return to the hospital when and for such length of time as may be for his benefit. The hospital authorities may, if necessary, appoint an attendant to accompany such patient and discharged patients, and the compensation of such attendant shall be fixed by the state board of regents and charged by the hospital as part of the costs of transporting patients. The compensation paid to and the expenses of the attendant shall be audited and paid in the same manner as is provided by law for the compensation of an attendant appointed by the court. [SS15,§§254-h,-i; C24, 27,

31, 35,§4023; C39,§3828.152; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.21]

255.22 Treatment authorized. No minor or incompetent person shall be treated for any malady or deformity except such as is reasonably well described in the order of court or the report of the examining physician, unless permission for such treatment is provided for in the order of court, or is granted by his parents or guardian; but the physician in charge may administer such treatment or perform such surgical operations as are usually required in cases of emergency. [SS15,§254-l; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4024; C39,§3828.153; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.22]

255.23 Treatment gratuitous—exception. No physician, surgeon, or nurse who shall treat or care for such patient shall charge or receive any compensation therefor except the salary or compensation fixed by the state board of regents to be paid from the hospital funds. If the physician, surgeon, or nurse is not in the regular employ of the state board of regents, his or her compensation shall be paid by the county upon approval of the board of supervisors. [SS15,§254-e; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4025; C39, §3828.154; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.23]

255.24 Record and report of expenses. The superintendent of said hospital shall keep a correct account of all medicine, care, and maintenance furnished to said patients, and shall make and file with the state comptroller an itemized, sworn statement of all expenses thereof incurred in said hospital. But he shall render separate bills showing the actual cost of all appliances, instruments, X-ray and other special services used in connection with such treatment, commitments, and transportation to and from the said university hospital, including the expenses of attendants and escorts.

All purchases of materials, appliances, instruments and supplies by said university hospital, in cases where more than one hundred dollars is to be expended, and where the prices of the commodity or commodities to be purchased are subject to competition, shall be upon open competitive quotations, and all contracts therefor shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 72. [SS15,§254-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4026; C39,§3828.155; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§255.24]

255.25 Audit of accounts of hospital. To arrive at a proper basis for the payment of said bills for treatment, care, and maintenance, the state board of regents shall cause to be made annually an audit of the accounts of the university hospital, and determine the average cost per day for the care and maintenance of each patient therein, exclusive of the salaries of the members of the faculty of said university college of medicine, and said bills shall be allowed at such average cost. All accounts shall be so adjusted and paid as to reimburse the funds of the hospital used for the purposes of this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35,§4027; C39, §3828.156; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §255.25]

255.26 Expenses—how paid—action to reimburse county. Warrants issued under section 255.25 shall be promptly drawn on the treasurer of state and forwarded by the state comptroller to the treasurer of the state university, and the same shall be by him placed to the credit of the funds which are set aside for the support of said hospital. The superintendent of the said university hospital shall certify to the auditor of state on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, the amount as herein provided not previously certified by him due the state from the several counties having patients chargeable thereto, and the auditor of state shall thereupon charge the same to the county so owing. A duplicate certificate shall also be mailed to the auditor of each county having patients chargeable thereto.

The county auditor, upon receipt of such certificate, shall thereupon enter the same to the credit of the state in his ledger of state accounts, and at once issue a notice to his county treasurer authorizing him to transfer the amount from the poor or county fund to the general state revenue, which notice shall be filed by the treasurer as his authority for making such transfer; and he shall include the amount so transferred in his next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, to accrue to the credit of the university hospital fund.

The state auditor shall certify the total cost of commitment, transportation and caring for each indigent patient under the terms of this statute to the county auditor of such patient's legal residence, and such certificate shall be preserved by the county auditor and shall be a debt due from the patient or the persons legally responsible for his or her care, maintenance or support; and whenever in the judgment of the board of supervisors the same or any part thereof shall be collectible, the said board may in its own name collect the same and is hereby authorized to institute suits for such purpose; and after deducting the county's share of such cost shall cause the balance to be paid into the state treasury to reimburse the university hospital fund.

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from superintendent, the state comptroller shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state. [SS15,§254-g; C24, 27, 31, 35,§4028; C39,§3828.157; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75. §255.26]

The medical faculty of the state university hospital shall from time to time prepare blanks containing such questions and requiring such information as may, in its judgment, be necessary and proper to be obtained by the physician who examines such patient under order of court. Such blanks shall be printed by the state, and a sufficient supply thereof shall be furnished by the state board of printing to the clerk of each juvenile court in the state. The cost of printing said blanks shall be audited, allowed, and paid in the same manner as other bills for public printing. The exemption may be renewed. Such exemptions shall be granted only if the state board deems that the request made is an essential part of a planned innovative curriculum project which the state board determines will adequately meet the educational needs and interests of the pupils and be broadly consistent with the intent of the educational program as defined in subsection 6.

The request for exemption shall include all of the following:

10. As a basis for inclusion on the list of approved schools, the state department of public instruction shall evaluate the school educational program in the several school systems of the state for the purposes of school improvement and approval, and each public and nonpublic school system shall make such reports as the superintendent of public instruction deems necessary to show compliance with the curriculum programs and other requirements prescribed in the Code. The state department, in consultation with the board of directors and administration of the school district, shall conduct an immediate evaluation of the educational program of each school district which the department determines has failed to comply with the curriculum programs and other requirements prescribed in the Code.

The state superintendent shall make recommendations and suggestions in writing to each school and school district which is subject to this section when the department of public instruction determines, after due investigation, that deficiencies exist in any school or school district.

The state board of public instruction shall adopt approval standards and rules to implement, interpret and make effective the provisions of this section. In adopting the same, the board shall take into account recognized educational standards. Standards and rules shall be of general application without specific regard to school population.

Such standards and rules shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A. In addition, such standards and rules shall be reported by the state board to the general assembly within twenty days after the commencement of a regular legislative session. No school or school district shall be removed from the approved list for failure to comply with such standards or rules, until at least one hundred twenty days have elapsed following the reporting of such standards and rules to the general assembly as provided in this section.

11. The state board of public instruction shall remove for cause, after due investigation and notice, any school or school district from the approved list which fails to comply with such approval standards and rules in the manner prescribed in this subsection. The state board shall allow a reasonable period of time after notification of noncompliance, not to exceed the following school year, for compliance with such approval standards and rules. If the school or school district is making a good faith effort and substantial progress toward full compliance and if the failure to comply is due to factors beyond the control of the board of directors or governing body of such school or school district additional time may be granted. In allowing such time for compliance, the board shall follow consistent policies, taking into account the circumstances of each case. The reasonable period of time for compliance shall not exceed the one-year notice requirement of subsection 12.

During the period of time allowed for compliance, the superintendent of public instruction and the president of the state board shall confer with the affected school board and with the school boards of contiguous school districts to assist the affected school board in determining how best to offer the students of that district an approved educational program.

12. The department of public instruction shall give any school or school district which is to be removed from the approved list at least one-year notice. Such notice shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the school district or the corresponding official of a private school, and shall specify the reasons for removal. Such notice shall also be sent by ordinary mail to each member of the board of directors or governing body of the school or school district, and to the news media which serve the area where the school or school district is located; but any good faith error or failure to comply with this sentence shall not affect the validity of any action by the state board. If, during said year, the school or school district remedies the reasons for removal and satisfies the state board that it will thereafter comply with the laws, approval standards and rules, the state board shall continue such school or school district on the approved list and shall give the school or school district notice of such action by registered or certified mail. At any time during said year, the board of directors or governing body of the school or school district may request a public hearing before the state board of public instruction, by mailing a written request to the state superintendent by registered or certified mail. The president of the state board shall promptly set a time and place for the public hearing, which shall be either in Des Moines or in the affected area. At least thirty days' notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the school district or the corresponding official of a private school. At least ten days before the hearing, notice of the time and place of the hearing and the reasons for removal shall also be published by the state department in a newspaper of general circulation in the area where the school or school district is located. At the hearing the school or school district may be represented by counsel and may present evidence. The state board may provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported. If requested by the school or school district at least ten days before the hearing, the state board shall provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported at the expense of such school or school district, using any reasonable method specified by such school or school district. Within ten days after the hearing, the state board shall render its written decision, signed by a majority of its members, and shall affirm, modify or vacate the action or proposed action to remove the school or school district from the approved list.

After notification of removal from the approved list, the board of directors shall seek to merge the territory of the school district with one or more contiguous school districts pursuant to the provisions of chapter 275. If on the date specified for removal from the approved list, the district, or any portion of the district, has not been merged with one or more contiguous school districts, the portion that has not been merged shall be merged with one or more contiguous school districts by the state board, and the provisions of sections 275.25 to 275.38 shall apply. Until the merger is completed, the school district shall pay tuition for its resident students to an approved school district under the provisions of section 279.18.

13. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section and as an exception to their requirements, a private high school or private combined junior-senior high school operated for the express purpose of teaching a program designed to qualify its graduates for matriculation at accredited four-year or equivalent liberal arts, scientific or technological colleges or universities shall be placed on a special approved list of college preparatory schools, which list shall signify approval of the school for such express purpose only, provided that:

a. Such school complies with minimum standards established by provisions of the Code other than this section, and administrative rules thereunder, applicable to:

(1) Courses comprising such limited program.

(2) Health requirements for personnel.

(3) Plant facilities.

(4) Other environmental factors affecting such programs.

b. Any school claiming to be a private college preparatory school which fails in any year to comply with the requirement of paragraph "b" of this subsection shall be placed on the special approved list of college preparatory schools probationally if such school complies with the requirements of paragraph "a" of this subsection, but such probational approval shall not continue for more than four successive years. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4257; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§280.8; C66, 71, 73,§§257.25, 280.8; C75,§257.25; 66GA, ch 79,§§2, 3, ch 153,§1]

Courses made available to students in this manner shall be considered as compliance by the private schools in which such students are enrolled with any standards or laws requiring such private schools to offer or teach such courses.

2. The provisions of this section shall not deprive the respective boards of public school districts of any of their legal powers, statutory or otherwise, and in accepting such specially enrolled students, each of said boards shall prescribe the terms of such special enrollment, including but not limited to scheduling of such courses and the length of class periods. In addition, the board of the affected public school district shall be given notice by the state board of its decision to permit such special enrollment not later than six months prior to the opening of the affected public school district's school year, except that the board of the public school district may, in its discretion, waive such notice requirement. It is the intent of the general assembly that revenue bonds issued for academic and administrative buildings and facilities and utilities services shall supplement and not supplant legislative appropriations for the same or similar purposes. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.1]

262A.2 Definitions. The following words or terms, as used in this chapter, shall have the respective meanings as stated:

1. "Board" shall mean the state board of regents.

2. "Institution" or "institutions" shall mean the state University of Iowa, the Iowa State University of science and technology, the University of Northern Iowa, and any other institution of higher learning under the jurisdiction of the state board of regents which offers a college program of four years or more, including any such institution the creation of which is hereafter authorized by the general assembly or which is placed under the jurisdiction of said board.

3. "Buildings and facilities" shall mean those academic buildings and other facilities used primarily for instructional and research purposes, including libraries, and such other administrative and service buildings and facilities as are deemed necessary by the board to provide supporting services to the instructional and research programs and activities of the institutions, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, administrative offices, facilities for business services, student services and extension and continuing education services, off-street parking areas and structures incidental to other buildings and facilities which are not primarily for parking purposes, garages, and storage and warehouse facilities, or any combination thereof. This phrase shall also include works and facilities deemed necessary by the board for furnishing utilities services to any buildings or structures operated by the institutions, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, water, electric, gas, communications, sewer and heating facilities, together with all necessary structures, buildings, tunnels, lines, reservoirs, mains, filters, pipes, sewers, boilers, generators, fixtures, wires, poles, equipment, treatment facilities and all other appurtenances in connection therewith, or any combination of the foregoing.

5. "Student fees and charges" shall mean all tuitions, fees and charges for general or special purposes levied against and collected from students attending the institutions except rates, fees, rentals or charges imposed and collected under the provisions of (a) sections 262.35 through 262.42, (b) sections 262.44 through 262.53, and (c) sections 262.55 through 262.66.

6. "Institutional income" shall mean income received by an institution from sources other than (a) student fees and charges, (b) rates, fees, rentals or charges imposed and collected under the provisions of (1) sections 262.35 through 262.42, (2) sections 262.44 through 262.53, and (3) sections 262.55 through 262.66, (c) state appropriations, and (d) "hospital

262A.3 Ten-year program and two-year bond proposal submitted each year. The board shall prepare and submit to the general assembly for approval or rejection a proposed ten-year building program for each institution, including an estimate of the maximum amount of bonds which the board expects to issue under the provisions of this chapter during each year of the ensuing biennium. Such program and estimate shall be submitted no later than seven days after the passage of this chapter by the general assembly and thereafter no later than seven days after the convening of each regular annual session of the general assembly. The building program shall contain a list of the buildings and facilities which the board deems necessary to further the educational objectives of the institutions. This list shall be revised annually, but no project shall be eliminated from the list when bonds have previously been issued by the board to pay the cost thereof. Each such list shall contain an estimate of the cost of each of the buildings and facilities referred to therein. If the general assembly rejects or fails to approve any proposed ten-year building program, such action or inaction shall not affect the status or legality of any project previously or subsequently authorized by the general assembly as provided in section 262A.4. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.3]

262A.4 Authorization of general assembly and governor. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the state board of regents after authorization by a constitutional majority of each house of the general assembly and approval by the governor may undertake and carry out any project as defined in this chapter at the institutions now or hereafter under the jurisdiction of the board. The state board of regents is authorized to operate, control, maintain, and manage buildings and facilities and additions to such buildings and facilities at each of said institutions. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair or remodeling of any buildings, additions, or facilities shall be let in accordance with the provisions of section 262.34. The title to all real estate acquired under the provisions of this chapter and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state of Iowa. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.4]

262A.5 Borrowing money and issuing bonds. The board is authorized to borrow money under the provisions of this chapter, and the board may issue and sell negotiable bonds to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution and may refund and refinance bonds issued for any project or for refunding purposes at the same rate or at a higher or lower rate or rates of interest. Bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be sold by said board at public sale on the basis of sealed proposals received pursuant to a notice specifying the time and place of sale and the amount of bonds to be sold which shall be published at least once not less than seven days prior to the date of sale in a newspaper published in the state of Iowa and having a general circulation in said state. The provisions of chapter 75 shall not apply to bonds issued under authority contained in this chapter, but such bonds shall be sold upon terms of not less than par plus accrued interest. Bonds issued to refund other bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter may either be sold in the manner hereinbefore specified and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the obligations being refunded, or the refunding bonds may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. Any issue or series of refunding bonds may be exchanged in part or sold in parts in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of any of the outstanding bonds or other obligations to be refinanced thereby and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds may exceed the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or about to become due.

All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the particular institution. All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have all the qualities of a negotiable investment security under the laws of this state. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.5]

262A.6 Form and condition of bonds. Such bonds may bear such date or dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semi-annually, may mature at such time or times, may be in such form and denominations, may carry such registration privileges, may be payable at such place or places, may be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, if so stated on the face thereof, and may contain such terms and covenants, including the establishment of reserves, all as may be provided by the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds. In addition to the estimated cost of construction, including site costs, the cost of the project may include interest upon the bonds during construction and for six months after the estimated completion date, the compensation of a fiscal agent or adviser, engineering, architectural, administrative and legal expenses and provision for contingencies. Such bonds shall be executed by the president of the state board of regents and attested by the executive secretary, secretary or other official thereof performing the duties of secretary, and the coupons thereto attached shall be executed with the original or facsimile signatures of said president, executive secretary, secretary or other official; provided, however, that the facsimile signature of either of such officers executing such bonds may be imprinted on the face of the bonds in lieu of the manual signature of such officer, but at least one of the signatures appearing on the face of each bond shall be a manual signature. Any bonds bearing the signatures of officers in office on the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding for all purposes, notwithstanding that before delivery thereof any or all such persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be such officers. Each such bond shall state upon its face the name of the institution on behalf of which it is issued, that it is payable solely and only from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by such institution as hereinbefore provided, and that it does not constitute a debt of or charge against the state of Iowa within the meaning or application of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. The issuance of such bonds shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the same are issued, and a certificate by such treasurer to this effect shall be printed on the back of each such bond. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.6]

262A.7 Resolution of board and covenants undertaken. Upon the determination by the state board of regents to undertake and carry out any project or to refund outstanding bonds, said board shall adopt a resolution describing generally the contemplated project and setting forth the estimated cost thereof, or describing the obligations to be refunded, fixing the amount of bonds to be issued, the maturity or maturities, the interest rate or rates and all details in respect thereof. Such resolution shall contain such covenants as may be determined by the board as to the issuance of additional bonds that may thereafter be issued payable from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the particular institution, the amendment or modification of the resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds, the manner, terms, and conditions and the amount or percentage of assenting bonds necessary to effectuate such amendment or modification, and such other covenants as may be deemed necessary or desirable. In the discretion of the board any bonds issued under the terms of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the boundaries of the state of Iowa, but no such trust indenture shall convey or mortgage the buildings and facilities or any part thereof. The provisions of this chapter and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate student fees and charges and the application of the proceeds thereof, together with institutional income, shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.7]

262A.8 Student fees to pay bonds. Whenever bonds are issued by the state board of regents, it shall be the duty of said board to establish, impose, and collect student fees and charges at the institution on behalf of which such bonds are issued, and to adjust such student fees and charges from time to time, in order always to provide amounts which, together with the institutional income, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same become due and to maintain a reserve therefor, and said board is authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by such institution for this purpose. Student fees and charges and institutional income received by one institution shall not be used to discharge bonds issued for or on account of another institution. All bonds issued under the terms of this chapter shall be exempt from taxation by the state of Iowa and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the state income tax. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.8]

262A.9 Bond fund account. A certified copy of each resolution providing for the issuance of bonds under this chapter shall be filed with the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the bonds are issued and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to keep and maintain separate accounts for each issue of bonds in accordance with the covenants and directions set out in the resolution providing for the issuance thereof. A sufficient portion of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by each institution shall be held in trust by the treasurer thereof, separate and apart from all other funds, to be used solely and only for the purposes specified in this chapter and as may be required and provided for by the proceedings of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each institution to disburse funds from the proper account for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds in accordance with the directions and covenants of the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.9]

262A.10 Bonds not state obligation. Under no circumstances shall any bonds issued under the terms of this chapter be or become or be construed to constitute a debt of or a charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, appropriations, or other funds of the state of Iowa may be pledged for or used to pay such bonds or the interest thereon but any such bonds shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the institutions of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents as provided in this chapter, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this chapter and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds are issued. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.10]

262A.11 Bonds as security for investments. All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business, all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds issued pursuant to this chapter; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section may be construed as relieving any persons from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities for purchase or investment. [C71, 73, 75, §262A.11]

262A.12 Application for gifts, loans or grants. The state board of regents is authorized to apply for and accept federal or nonfederal gifts, loans, or grants of funds and to use the same to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution under the terms of this chapter or to use the same, together with student fees and charges and institutional income, for the payment of debt service on bonds issued and to be issued by the board pursuant to authority contained in this chapter, in such manner as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, which grants of funds or other aid shall be considered to constitute and may be commingled with student fees and charges and institutional income and may, together with such student fees and charges and institutional income, be pledged by the board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the bond resolution to the payment of debt service on bonds issued by the board under the authority contained in this chapter. [C71, 73, 75,§262A.12]

262A.13 Alternative and independent method. This chapter shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for carrying out any project at any institution of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents, for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds in connection therewith and for refunding bonds pertinent thereto, without reference to any other statute, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law, and no publication of any notice, whether under section 23.12 or otherwise, and no other or further proceedings in respect to the issuance or sale or exchange of bonds under this chapter shall be required except such as are prescribed by this chapter, any provisions of other statutes of the state to the contrary notwithstanding. The board is authorized to borrow money and to issue and sell negotiable bonds or notes to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at the institution and to refund and refinance bonds or notes issued for any project or for refunding purposes at the same rate or at a lower rate. Such bonds or notes shall be sold by the board at public sale on the basis of sealed proposals received pursuant to a notice specifying the time and place of sale and the amount of bonds to be sold which shall be published at least once not less than seven days prior to the date of sale in a newspaper published in the state of Iowa and having a general circulation in the state. All bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of the hospital income of the institution. All bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the laws of this state. [C71, 73, 75,§263A.3]

In the discretion of the board, any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the boundaries of the state of Iowa, but no such trust indenture shall convey or mortgage the buildings and facilities or any part thereof. The provisions of this chapter and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate rates, fees, and charges for services rendered by the hospitals, medical clinics, and medical laboratories of the institution and the application of the proceeds thereof, together with other hospital income, shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds or notes. All bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter shall be exempt from taxation by the state of Iowa and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the state income tax. [C71, 73, 75,§263A.6]

263A.7 Accounts of all funds separate. A certified copy of each resolution providing for the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter shall be filed with the treasurer of the institution and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to keep and maintain separate accounts for each issue of bonds or notes in accordance with the covenants and directions set out in the resolution providing for the issuance thereof. A sufficient portion of the hospital income received by the institution shall be held in trust by the treasurer thereof, separate and apart from all other funds, to be used solely and only for the purposes specified in this chapter and as may be required and provided for by the proceedings of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of the institution to disburse funds from the proper account for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes in accordance with the directions and covenants of the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof. [C71, 73, 75,§263A.7]

263A.8 No obligation of the state on bonds or notes. Under no circumstances shall any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter be or become or be construed to constitute a debt of or a charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, or other funds of the state of Iowa appropriated to the institution may be pledged for or used to pay such bonds or notes or the interest thereon but any such bonds or notes shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the hospital income received by the institution as hereinbefore provided, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or notes or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this chapter and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds or notes are issued. [C71, 73, 75,§263A.8]

263A.10 Gifts, loans or grants accepted. The state board of regents is authorized to apply for and accept federal or nonfederal gifts, loans, or grants of funds and to use the same to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at the institution under the terms of this chapter or to pay any bonds or notes and interest thereon issued for any of the purposes specified in this chapter. [C71, 73, 75,§263A.10]

263A.11 Provisions independent of any other statute. This chapter shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for carrying out any project related to the medical school and any project related to the hospital at the institution, for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds or notes in connection therewith, and for refunding bonds or notes pertinent thereto, without reference to any other statute, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law, and no publication of any notice, whether under section 23.12 or otherwise, and no other or further proceedings in respect to the issuance or sale or exchange of bonds or notes under this chapter shall be required except such as are prescribed by this chapter, any provisions of other statutes of the state to the contrary notwithstanding. 272B.2 Education commission of the states.
272B.3 Filing bylaws.

272B.1 Compact for education. The compact for education is hereby entered into and enacted into law with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE AND POLICY

1. It is the purpose of this compact to:

a. Establish and maintain close co-operation and understanding among executive, legislative, professional educational and lay leadership on a nationwide basis at the state and local levels.

b. Provide a forum for the discussion, development, crystallization and recommendation of public policy alternatives in the field of education.

c. Provide a clearing house of information on matters relating to educational problems and how they are being met in different places throughout the nation, so that the executive and legislative branches of state government and of local communities may have ready access to the experience and record of the entire country, and so that both lay and professional groups in the field of education may have additional avenues for the sharing of experience and the interchange of ideas in the formation of public policy in education.

d. Facilitate the improvement of state and local educational systems so that all of them will be able to meet adequate and desirable goals in a society which requires continuous qualitative and quantitative advance in educational opportunities, methods and facilities.

2. It is the policy of this compact to encourage and promote local and state initiative in the development, maintenance, improvement and administration of educational systems and institutions in a manner which will accord with the needs and advantages of diversity among localities and states.

3. The party states recognize that each of them has an interest in the quality and quantity of education furnished in each of the other states, as well as in the excellence of its own educational systems and institutions, because of the highly mobile character of individuals within the nation, and because the products and services contributing to the health, welfare and economic advancement of each state are supplied in significant part by persons educated in other states.

ARTICLE II—STATE DEFINED

As used in this compact, "state" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III—THE COMMISSION

1. The education commission of the states, hereinafter called "the commission", is hereby established. The commission shall consist of seven members representing each party state.*

One of such members shall be the governor; two shall be members of the state legislature selected by its respective houses and serving in such manner as the legislature may determine; and four shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. If the laws of a state prevent legislators from serving on the commission, six members shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. In addition to any other principles or requirements which a state may establish for the appointment and service of its members of the commission, the guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the commission from each party state shall be that the members representing such state shall, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the state government, higher education, the state education system, local education, lay and professional, public and nonpublic educational leadership. Of those appointees, one shall be the head of a state agency or institution, designated by the governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the commission representing the party states, there may be not to exceed ten nonvoting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations or professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

2. The members of the commission shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners are present. The commission shall meet at least once a year. In its bylaws, and subject to such directions and limitations as may be contained therein, the commission may delegate the exercise of any of its powers to the steering committee or the executive director, except for the power to approve budgets or requests for appropriations, the power to make policy recommendations pursuant to article IV and adoption of the annual report pursuant to article III, paragraph 10.

3. The commission shall have a seal.

4. The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, who shall be a governor, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall provide for the appointment of an executive director. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and together with the treasurer and such other personnel as the commission may deem appropriate shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director shall be secretary.

5. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director subject to the approval of the steering committee shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel. The commission in its bylaws shall provide for the personnel policies and programs of the commission.

6. The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party jurisdiction, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party jurisdictions or their subdivisions.

7. The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency, or from any person, firm, association, foundation, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission pursuant to this paragraph or services borrowed pursuant to paragraph 6 of this article shall be reported in the annual report of the commission. Such report shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, grant, or services borrowed, and the identity of the donor or lender.

8. The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

9. The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

10. The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV—POWERS

In addition to authority conferred on the commission by other provisions of the compact, the commission shall have authority to:

1. Collect, correlate, analyze and interpret information and data concerning educational needs and resources.

2. Encourage and foster research in all aspects of education, but with special reference to the desirable scope of instruction, organization, administration, and instructional methods and standards employed or suitable for employment in public educational systems.

3. Develop proposals for adequate financing of education as a whole and at each of its many levels.

4. Conduct or participate in research of the types referred to in this article in any instance where the commission finds that such research is necessary for the advancement of the purposes and policies of this compact, utilizing fully the resources of national associations, regional compact organizations for higher education, and other agencies and institutions, both public and private.

5. Formulate suggested policies and plans for the improvement of public education as a whole, or for any segment thereof, and make recommendations with respect thereto available to the appropriate governmental units, agencies and public officials.

6. Do such other things as may be necessary or incidental to the administration of any of its authority or functions pursuant to this compact.

CO-OPERATION WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

1. If the laws of the United States specifically so provide, or if administrative provision is made therefor within the federal government, the United States may be represented on the commission by not to exceed ten representatives. Any such representative or representatives of the United States shall be appointed and serve in such manner as may be provided by or pursuant to federal law, and may be drawn from any one or more branches of the federal government, but no such representative shall have a vote on the commission.

2. The commission may provide information and make recommendations to any executive or legislative agency or officer of the federal government concerning the common educational policies of the states, and may advise with any such agencies or officers concerning any matter of mutual interest.

ARTICLE VI—COMMITTEES

1. To assist in the expeditious conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall elect a steering committee of thirty-two members which, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall be constituted and function as provided in the bylaws of the commission. One-fourth of the voting membership of the steering committee shall consist of governors, one-fourth shall consist of legislators, and the remainder shall consist of other members of the commission. A federal representative on the commission may serve with the steering committee, but without vote. The voting members of the steering committee shall serve for terms of two years, except that members elected to the first steering committee of the commission shall be elected as follows:

Sixteen for one year and sixteen for two years. The chairman, vice chairman, and treasurer of the commission shall be members of the steering committee and, anything in this paragraph to the contrary notwithstanding, shall serve during their continuance in these offices. Vacancies in the steering committee shall not affect its authority to act, but the commission at its next regular ensuing meeting following the occurrence of any vacancy shall fill it for the unexpired term. No person shall serve more than two terms as a member of the steering committee; provided that service for a partial term of one year or less shall not be counted toward the two-term limitation.

2. The commission may establish advisory and technical committees composed of state, local, and federal officials, and private persons to advise it with respect to any one or more of its functions. Any advisory or technical committee may, on request of the states concerned, be established to consider any matter of special concern to two or more of the party states.

3. The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

ARTICLE VII—FINANCE

1. The commission shall advise the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state of its budget and estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states.

2. The total amount of appropriation requests under any budget shall be apportioned among the party states. In making such apportionment, the commission shall devise and employ a formula which takes equitable account of the populations and per capita income levels of the party states.

3. The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party states. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it pursuant to article III, paragraph 7, of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring an obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it pursuant to article III, paragraph 7 thereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

4. The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established by its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant, and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

5. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

6. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VIII—ELIGIBLE PARTIES —ENTRY INTO AND WITHDRAWAL

1. This compact shall have as eligible parties all states, territories, and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In respect of any such jurisdiction not having a governor, the term "governor", as used in this compact, shall mean the closest equivalent official of such jurisdiction.

2. Any state or other eligible jurisdiction may enter into this compact and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same: Provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least ten eligible party jurisdictions shall be required.

3. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

Obsolete provisions omitted, see 65GA, ch 194,§1; Art. VIII, C

ARTICLE IX—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. Such petition shall be signed by voters in each existing school district affected or portion thereof equal in number to at least twenty percent of the number of eligible voters or four hundred voters, whichever is the smaller number. School districts affected or portion thereof shall be defined to mean that area to be included in the plan of the proposed new school district.

2. Such petition shall also state the number of directors which may be either five or seven and the method of election of the school directors of the proposed district. The method of election of the directors shall be one of the following optional plans:

a. Election at large from the entire district by the electors of the entire district.

c. Election of not more than one-half of the total number of school directors at large from the entire district and the remaining directors from and as residents of designated single-member director districts into which the entire school district shall be divided on the basis of population. In such case, all directors shall be elected by the electors of the entire school district. Changes in the boundaries of director districts shall not be made during a period commencing sixty days prior to the date of the annual school election.

d. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical subdistricts on the basis of population, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one director who shall be a resident of such director district and who shall be elected by the voters of said director district. Place of voting in such director districts shall be designated by the commissioner of elections. Changes in the boundaries of director districts shall not be made during a period commencing sixty days prior to the date of the annual school election.

3. If the petition proposes the division of the school district into director districts, the boundaries of such proposed director districts shall be described in the petition.

4. The area education agency board in reviewing such petition as provided in sections 275.15 and 275.16 shall review the proposed method of election of school directors and shall have the duty and authority to change or amend such plan in any manner, including the changing of boundaries of director districts if proposed, or to specify a different method of electing school directors on the basis of area, school population, or assessed valuation as may be required by law, justice, equity, and the interest of the people. Provided, however, in cases involving two districts only, where the population of the new district does not exceed the population of the more populous of said districts by more than twenty-five percent, the incumbent board members of said more populous district shall continue to hold office as the directors of the new district for the remainder of their elective terms. Section 49.8, subsection 4 shall not be construed to permit a director to remain on the board of any school district after the effective date of a boundary change which places the director's residence outside the boundaries of the district. If the proposed district or boundary change embraces territory in more than one area education agency such expenses shall be certified to and, if necessary, apportioned among the several districts by the joint agency board. If in only one agency the certification shall be made by the agency administrator.

The respective boards to which such expenses are certified shall audit and order the same paid from the general fund. In the event of failure of any board to so audit and pay the expenses certified to it, the area education agency administrator shall certify the expenses to the county auditor in the same manner as is provided for tuition claims in section 282.21 and the funds shall be transferred by the county treasurer from the debtor district to the agency board for payment of said expenses. 2. Direct the sale, lease, or other disposition of any schoolhouse or site or other property belonging to the corporation, and the application to be made of the proceeds thereof, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the sale, lease, exchange, gift or grant and acceptance of any interest in real or other property by the board of directors without an election to the extent authorized in section 297.22.

3. Determine upon additional branches that shall be taught.

4. Instruct the board that school buildings may or may not be used for meetings of public interest.

5. Direct the transfer of any surplus in the schoolhouse fund to the general fund.

6. Authorize the board to obtain, at the expense of the corporation, roads for proper access to its schoolhouses.

7. Vote a schoolhouse tax, not exceeding sixty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year, for the purchase of grounds, construction of schoolhouses or buildings, the payment of debts contracted for the erection or construction of schoolhouses or buildings, not including interest on bonds, for procuring or acquisition of libraries, for opening roads to schoolhouses or buildings, for the purchase of buildings or equipment for buildings or schoolhouses, for the purpose of repairing, remodeling, reconstructing, improving or expanding the schoolhouses or buildings for the school district, for the purpose of landscaping, paving, or improving the schoolhouse or building grounds, or for the rental of facilities pursuant to chapter 28E. Interest earned from investments of these funds may be used for the purposes voted. The power to levy said tax, when voted, shall continue for such period of time as may be authorized by the voters and shall not be affected by any change in the boundaries of the school district, in whatever manner effected, except in case the school district is reorganized pursuant to sections 275.12 to 275.22. Authorized levies for the period of time presently approved shall not be affected as a result of a failure of a proposition proposed to expand the purposes for which the funds may be expended. As used in this subsection, "repair" means to restore the existing structure or thing to its original condition, as near as may be, after decay, waste, injury, or partial destruction, but does not include maintenance or customary repainting; and "reconstruction" means to rebuild or to restore again as an entity the thing which was lost or destroyed.

10. Change the name of the school district, without affecting its corporate existence, rights, or obligations, and subject to the requirements of section 274.6.

The board may, with approval of sixty percent of the voters, voting in a regular or special election in the school district, make extended time contracts not to exceed twenty years in duration for rental of buildings to supplement existing schoolhouse facilities; and where it is deemed advisable for buildings to be constructed or placed on real estate owned by the school district, such contracts may include lease-purchase option agreements, such amounts to be paid out of the schoolhouse fund.

Before entering into a rental or lease-purchase option contract, authorized by the electors, the board shall first adopt plans and specifications for a building or buildings which it considers suitable for the intended use and also adopt a form of rental or lease-purchase option contract. The board shall then invite bids thereon, by advertisement published once each week for two consecutive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county in which the building or buildings are to be located, and the rental or lease-purchase option contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, but the board may reject any and all bids and advertise for new bids.

The voters at the regular or special election shall have power to vote a schoolhouse tax not exceeding one dollar and thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year providing for lease-purchase option of school buildings. Employees of a school corporation maintaining a high school who have the custody of funds belonging to the corporation or funds derived from extracurricular activities and other sources in the conduct of their duties, shall be required to furnish suitable bond indemnifying the corporation or any activity group connected with the school against loss, and employees who have the custody of property belonging to the corporation or any activity group connected with the school may be required to furnish such bond. The board may approve a policy for educational leave for certificated school employees and for reimbursement for tuition paid by certificated school employees for courses approved by the board. For the purpose of this section "educational leave" means a leave granted to an employee for the purpose of study including study in areas outside of a teacher's area of specialization, travel, or other reasons deemed by the board to be of value to the school system. [C73,§§1723, 1757; C97,§2778; SS15,§2778; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4228; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§279.12; 66GA, ch 1150,§1]

279.13 Contracts with teachers—automatic continuation.

1. Contracts with teachers, which for the purpose of this section means all certificated employees of a school district and nurses employed by the board, excluding superintendents, assistant superintendents, principals, and assistant principals, shall be in writing and shall state the number of contract days, the annual compensation to be paid, and any other matters as may be mutually agreed upon. The contract may include employment for a term not exceeding the ensuing school year, except as otherwise authorized.

The contract is invalid if the teacher is under contract with another board of directors to teach during the same time period until a release from the other contract is achieved. The contract shall be signed by the president of the board when tendered, and after it is signed by the teacher, the contract shall be filed with the secretary of the board before the teacher enters into performance under the contract.

2. The contract shall remain in force and effect for the period stated in the contract and shall be automatically continued for equivalent periods except as modified or terminated by mutual agreement of the board of directors and the teacher or as terminated in accordance with the provisions specified in this chapter. A contract shall not be offered by the employing board to a teacher under its jurisdiction prior to March 15 of any year. A teacher who has not accepted a contract for the ensuing school year tendered by the employing board may resign effective at the end of the current school year by filing a written resignation with the secretary of the board. The resignation must be filed not later than the last day of the current school year or the date specified by the employing board for return of the contract, whichever date occurs first. However, a teacher shall not be required to return a contract to the board or to resign less than twenty-one days after the contract has been offered. [R60,§2055; C73, §1757; C97,§2778; SS15,§2778; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4229; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §279.13; 66GA, ch 1151,§1]

If an exclusive bargaining representative has been certified, the board shall negotiate in good faith with respect to evaluation procedures pursuant to chapter 20. [66GA, ch 1151,§1]

279.15 Notice of termination — request for hearing.

1. The superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall notify the teacher not later than March 15 that the superintendent will recommend in writing to the board at a regular or special meeting of the board held not later than March 31 that the teacher's continuing contract be terminated effective at the end of the current school year.

2. Such notification shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered to the teacher, or mailed by certified mail. The notification shall be complete when received by the teacher. The notification and the recommendation to terminate shall contain a short and plain statement of the reasons, which shall be for just cause, why the recommendation is being made. The notification shall be given at or before the time the recommendation is given to the board.

As a part of the termination proceedings, the teacher's complete personnel file of employment by that board shall be available to the teacher, which file shall contain a record of all periodic evaluations between the teacher and appropriate supervisors.

Within five days of the receipt of the written notice that the superintendent is recommending termination of the contract, the teacher may request, in writing to the secretary of the board, a private hearing with the board. The private hearing shall not be subject to chapter 28A and shall be held no sooner than ten days and no later than twenty days following the receipt of the request unless the parties otherwise agree. The secretary of the board shall notify the teacher in writing of the date, time, and location of the private hearing, and at least five days before the hearing shall also furnish to the teacher any documentation which may be presented to the board at the private hearing and a list of persons who may address the board in support of the superintendent's recommendation at the private hearing. At least three days before the hearing, the teacher shall provide any documentation he or she expects to present at the private hearing, along with the names of any persons who may address the board on behalf of the teacher. This exchange of information shall be at the time specified unless otherwise agreed. [R60,§2055; C73,§1757; C97,§2778; SS15, §2778; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4229; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§279.13; 66GA, ch 1115,§1]

279.16 Private hearing — decision — record. The participants at the private hearing shall be at least a majority of the members of the board, their legal representatives, if any, the superintendent, the superintendent's designated representatives, if any, the teacher's immediate supervisor, the teacher, the teacher's representatives, if any, and the witnesses for the parties. The evidence at the private hearing shall be limited to the specific reasons stated in the superintendent's notice of recommendation of termination. No participant in the hearing shall be liable for any damages to any person if any statement at the hearing is determined to be erroneous as long as the statement was made in good faith. The superintendent shall present evidence and argument on all issues involved and the teacher may cross-examine, respond and present evidence and argument in his or her behalf relevant to all issues involved. Evidence may be by stipulation of the parties and informal settlement may be made by stipulation, consent, or default or by any other method agreed upon by the parties in writing. The board shall employ a certified shorthand reporter to keep a record of the private hearing. The proceedings or any part thereof shall be transcribed at the request of either party with the expense of transcription charged to the requesting party.

The presiding officer of the board may administer oaths in the same manner and with like effect and under the same penalties as in the case of magistrates exercising criminal or civil jurisdiction. The board shall cause subpoenas to be issued for such witnesses and the production of such books and papers as either the board or the teacher may designate. The subpoenas shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board.

In case a witness is duly subpoenaed and refuses to attend, or in case a witness appears and refuses to testify or to produce required books or papers, the board shall, in writing, report such refusal to the district court of the county in which the administrative office of the school district is located, and the court shall proceed with the person or witness as though the refusal had occurred in a proceeding legally pending before the court.

The board shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of procedure, but it shall hold the hearing in such manner as is best suited to ascertain and conserve the substantial rights of the parties. Process and procedure under this section shall be as summary as reasonably may be.

At the conclusion of the private hearing, the superintendent and the teacher may file written briefs and arguments with the board within three days or such other time as may be agreed upon.

If the teacher fails to timely request a private hearing or does not appear at the private hearing, the board may proceed and make a determination upon the superintendent's recommendation, which determination in that case shall be not later than April 10, or not later than five days after the scheduled date for the private hearing, whichever is applicable. The board shall convene in open session and by roll call vote determine the termination or continuance of the teacher's contract.

Within five days after the private hearing, the board shall, in executive session, meet to make a final decision upon the recommendation and the evidence as herein provided. The board shall also consider any written brief and arguments submitted by the superintendent and the teacher.

The record for a private hearing shall include:

1. All pleadings, motions and intermediate rulings.

2. All evidence received or considered and all other submissions.

3. A statement of all matters officially noticed.

4. All questions and offers of proof, objections and rulings thereon.

5. All findings and exceptions.

6. Any decision, opinion, or conclusion by the board.

7. Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence in the record and on matters officially noticed in the record.

The decision of the board shall be in writing and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts and supporting the findings. Each conclusion of law shall be supported by cited authority or by reasoned opinion.

When the board has reached a decision, opinion, or conclusion, it shall convene in open meeting and by roll call vote determine the continuance or discontinuance of the teacher's contract. The record of the private conference and findings of fact and exceptions shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 68A. The secretary of the board shall immediately mail notice of the board's action to the teacher. [66GA, ch 1151,§1]

279.17 Appeal by teacher to adjudicator. If the teacher is no longer a probationary teacher, the teacher may, within ten days, appeal the determination of the board to an adjudicator by filing a notice of appeal with the secretary of the board. The notice of appeal shall contain a concise statement of the action which is the subject of the appeal, the particular board action appealed from, the grounds on which relief is sought and the relief sought.

Within five days following receipt by the secretary of the notice of appeal, the board or the board's legal representative, if any, and the teacher or the teacher's representative, if any, may select an adjudicator who resides within the boundaries of the merged area in which the school district is located. If an adjudicator cannot be mutually agreed upon within the five-day period, the secretary shall notify the chairperson of the public employment relations board by transmitting the notice of appeal, and the chairperson of the public employment relations board shall within five days provide a list of five adjudicators to the parties. Within three days from receipt of the list of adjudicators, the parties shall select an adjudicator by alternately removing a name from the list until only one name remains. The person whose name remains shall be the adjudicator. The parties shall determine by lot which party shall remove the first name from the list submitted by the chairperson of the public employment relations board. The secretary of the board shall inform the chairperson of the public employee relations board of the name of the adjudicator selected.

If the teacher does not timely request an appeal to an adjudicator the decision, opinion, or conclusion of the board shall become final and binding.

Within thirty days after filing the notice of appeal, or within further time allowed by the adjudicator, the board shall transmit to the adjudicator the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the private hearing which may be the subject of the petition. By stipulation of the parties to review the proceedings, the record of the case may be shortened. The adjudicator may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the shortened record.

The record certified and filed by the board shall be the record upon which the appeal shall be heard and no additional evidence shall be heard by the adjudicator. In such appeal to the adjudicator, especially when considering the credibility of witnesses, the adjudicator shall give weight to the fact findings of the board; but shall not be bound by them.

Before the date set for hearing a petition for review of board action, which shall be within ten days after receipt of the record unless otherwise agreed or unless the adjudicator orders additional evidence be taken before the board, application may be made to the adjudicator for leave to present evidence in addition to that found in the record of the case. If it is shown to the adjudicator that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in the private hearing before the board, the adjudicator may order that the additional evidence be taken before the board upon conditions determined by the adjudicator. The board may modify its findings and decision in the case by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, or decisions, with the adjudicator and mail copies of the new findings or decisions to the teacher.

The adjudicator may affirm board action or remand to the board for further proceedings. The adjudicator shall reverse, modify, or grant any appropriate relief from the board action if substantial rights of the teacher have been prejudiced because the board action is:

1. In violation of a board rule or policy or contract; or

2. Unsupported by a preponderance of the competent evidence in the record made before the board when that record is viewed as a whole; or

3. Unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious or characterized by an abuse of discretion or a clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

The adjudicator shall, within fifteen days after the hearing, make a decision and shall give a copy of the decision to the teacher and the secretary of the board. The decision of the adjudicator shall become the final and binding decision of the board unless either party within ten days notifies the secretary of the board that the decision is rejected. The board may reject the decision by majority vote, by roll call, in open meeting and entered into the minutes of the meeting. The board shall immediately notify the teacher of its decision by certified mail. The teacher may reject the adjudicator's decision by notifying the board's secretary in writing within ten days of the filing of such decision.

All costs of the adjudicator shall be shared equally by the teacher and the board. [66GA, ch 1151,§1]

Referred to in §279.27

279.18 Appeal by either party to court. If either party rejects the adjudicator's decision, the rejecting party shall, within thirty days of the initial filing of such decision, appeal to the district court of the county in which the administrative office of the school district is located. The notice of appeal shall be immediately mailed by certified mail to the other party. The contract shall be automatically continued in force and effect for one year beyond the end of its term, except as modified or terminated by mutual agreement of the board of directors and the administrator, or until terminated as hereinafter provided.

An administrator may file his or her written resignation with the secretary of the board on or before May 1 of each year or the date specified by the board for return of the contract, whichever date occurs first.

Administrators employed in a school district for less than two consecutive years are probationary administrators. However, a board may waive the probationary period for any administrator who has previously served a probationary period in another school district and the board may extend the probationary period for an additional year with the consent of the administrator. If a board determines that it should terminate a probationary administrator's contract, the board shall notify the administrator not later than March 31 that the contract will not be renewed beyond the current year. The notice shall be in writing by letter, personally delivered, or mailed by certified mail. The notification shall be complete when received by the administrator. Within ten days after receiving the notice, the administrator may request a private conference with the board to discuss the reasons for termination. The board's decision to terminate a probationary administrator's contract shall be final unless the termination was based upon an alleged violation of a constitutionally guaranteed right of the administrator.

The board may, by majority vote of the membership of the board, cause the contract of an administrator to be terminated. If the board determines that it should consider the termination of a nonprobationary administrator's contract, the following procedure shall apply:

On or before March 31, the administrator shall be notified in writing by a letter personally delivered or mailed by certified mail that the board has voted to consider termination of the contract. The notification shall be complete when received by the administrator.

The notice shall state the specific reasons to be used by the board for considering termination which for all administrators except superintendents shall be for just cause.

Within five days after receipt of the written notice that the board has voted to consider termination of the contract, the administrator may request in writing to the secretary of the board that the notification be forwarded to the professional teaching practices commission along with a request that the professional teaching practices commission submit a list of five qualified hearing officers to the parties. Within three days from receipt of the list the parties shall select a hearing officer by alternatively removing a name from the list until only one name remains. The person whose name remains shall be the hearing officer. The parties shall determine by lot which party shall remove the first name from the list. The hearing shall be held no sooner than ten days and not later than thirty days following the administrator's request unless the parties otherwise agree. If the administrator does not request a hearing, the board, not later than April 15, may determine the continuance or discontinuance of the contract. Board action shall be by majority roll call vote entered on the minutes of the meeting. Notice of board action shall be personally delivered or mailed to the administrator.

The hearing officer selected shall notify the secretary of the board and the administrator in writing concerning the date, time, and location of the hearing. The board may be represented by a legal representative, if any, and the administrator shall appear and may be represented by counsel or by representative, if any. A transcript or recording shall be made of the proceedings at the hearing. No school board member or administrator shall be liable for any damage to any administrator or board member if any statement made at the hearing is determined to be erroneous as long as the statement was made in good faith.

The hearing officer shall, within ten days following the date of the hearing, make a proposed decision as to whether or not the administrator should be dismissed, and shall give a copy of the proposed decision to the administrator and the school board. Findings of fact shall be prepared by the hearing officer. The proposed decision of the hearing officer shall become the final decision of the board unless within ten days after the filing of the decision the administrator files a written notice of appeal with the board, or the board on its own motion determines to review the decision.

If the administrator appeals to the board, or if the board determines on its own motion to review the proposed decision of the hearing officer, a private hearing shall be held before the board within five days after the petition for review, or motion for review, has been made or at such other time as the parties may agree. The private hearing shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 28A. The board may hear the case de novo upon the record as submitted before the hearing officer. In cases where there is an appeal from a proposed decision or where a proposed decision is reviewed on motion of the board, an opportunity shall be afforded to each party to file exceptions, present briefs and present oral arguments to the board which is to render the final decision. The secretary of the board shall give the administrator written notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing. The board shall meet within five days after the hearing to determine the question of continuance or discontinuance of the contract. The board shall make findings of fact which shall be based solely on the evidence in the record and on matters officially noticed in the record.

The decision of the board shall be in writing and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts and supporting the findings. Each conclusion of law shall be supported by cited authority or by reasoned opinion.

When the board has reached a decision, opinion, or conclusion, it shall convene in open meeting and by roll call vote determine the continuance or discontinuance of the administrator's contract. The record of the private conference and findings of fact and exceptions shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 68A. The secretary of the board shall immediately personally deliver or mail notice of the board's action to the administrator.

The administrator may within thirty days after notification by the board of discontinuance of the contract appeal to the district court of the county in which the administrative office of the school district is located.

The court may affirm the board action. The court shall reverse, modify, or grant any other appropriate relief from the board action, equitable or legal, and including declaratory relief, if substantial rights of the administrator have been prejudiced because the board action is:

The expenditure of funds collected from students for activities shall be determined by the student government unit with administrative and board approval. Any increases in student fees for activities shall be determined by the student government unit with adminstrative and board approval. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §280A.18]

Referred to in §§280A.34, 280A.38

280A.19 Acquisition of sites and buildings. Boards of directors of merged areas may acquire sites and erect and equip buildings for use by area vocational schools or area community colleges and may contract indebtedness and issue bonds to raise funds for such purposes. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.19]

Referred to in §§280A.20, 280A.21, 280A.34

280A.20 Payment of bonds. Taxes for the payment of bonds issued under section 280A.19 shall be levied in accordance with chapter 76. The bonds shall be payable from a fund created from the proceeds of such taxes in not more than twenty years and bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven percent per annum, and shall be of such form as the board issuing the bonds shall by resolution provide. Any indebtedness incurred shall not be considered an indebtedness incurred for general and ordinary purposes. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.20]

See 63GA, ch 87,§60

280A.21 Election to incur indebtedness. No indebtedness shall be incurred under section 280A.19 until authorized by an election. A proposition to incur indebtedness and issue bonds for area vocational school or area community college purposes shall be deemed carried in a merged area if approved by a sixty percent majority of all voters voting on the proposition in the area. [C66, 71, 73, 75, §280A.21]

280A.22 Additional tax. In addition to the tax authorized under section 280A.17, the voters in any merged area may at the annual school election vote a tax not exceeding twenty and one-fourth cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year for a period not to exceed five years for the purchase of grounds, construction of buildings, payment of debts contracted for the construction of buildings, purchase of buildings and equipment for buildings, and the acquisition of libraries, and for the purpose of maintaining, remodeling, improving, or expanding the area vocational school or area community college of the merged area which tax shall be collected by the county treasurers and remitted to the treasurer of the merged area as other taxes are collected and remitted, and the proceeds of said tax shall be deposited in a separate and distinct fund to be known as the voted tax fund, to be paid out upon warrants drawn by the president and secretary of the board of directors of the merged area district for the payment of costs incurred in providing the school facilities for which the tax was voted.

In order to make immediately available to the merged area the proceeds of the voted tax hereinbefore authorized to be levied, the board of directors of any such merged area is hereby authorized, without the necessity for any further election, to borrow money and enter into loan agreements in anticipation of the collection of such tax, and such board shall, by resolution, provide for the levy of an annual tax, within the limits of the special voted tax hereinbefore authorized, sufficient to pay the amount of any such loan and the interest thereon to maturity as the same becomes due. A certified copy of this resolution shall be filed with the county auditors of the counties in which such merged area is located, and the filing thereof shall make it a duty of such auditors to enter annually this levy for collection until funds are realized to repay the loan and interest thereon in full. Said loan must mature within the number of years for which the tax has been voted and shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding seven percent per annum. Any loan agreement entered into pursuant to authority herein contained shall be in such form as the board of directors shall by resolution provide and the loan shall be payable as to both principal and interest from the proceeds of the annual levy of the voted tax hereinbefore authorized, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to pay the loan and interest thereon. In furtherance of the foregoing the board of directors of such merged area may, with or without notice, negotiate and enter into a loan agreement or agreements with any bank, investment banker, trust company, insurance company or group thereof, whereunder the borrowing of the necessary funds may be assured and consummated. The proceeds of such loan shall be deposited in a special fund, to be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the merged area, and shall be paid out upon warrants drawn by the president and secretary of the board of directors to pay the cost of acquiring the school facilities for which the tax was voted.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the authority of the board of directors to levy the full amount of the voted tax, but if and to whatever extent said tax is levied in any year in excess of the amount of principal and interest falling due in such year under any loan agreement, the first available proceeds thereof, to an amount sufficient to meet maturing installments of principal and interest under the loan agreement, shall be paid into the sinking fund for such loan before any of such taxes are otherwise made available to the merged area for other school purposes, and the amount required to be annually set aside to pay the principal of and interest on the money borrowed under such loan agreement shall constitute a first charge upon all of the proceeds of such annual special voted tax, which tax shall be pledged to pay said loan and the interest thereon.

This law shall be construed as supplemental and in addition to existing statutory authority and as providing an independent method of financing the cost of acquiring school facilities for which a tax has been voted under this section and for the borrowing of money and execution of loan agreements in connection therewith and shall not be construed as subject to the provisions of any other law. The fact that a merged area may have previously borrowed money and entered into loan agreements under authority herein contained shall not prevent such merged area from borrowing additional money and entering into further loan agreements provided that the aggregate of the amount payable under all of such loan agreements does not exceed the proceeds of the voted tax. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by the board of directors or by any official of any merged area for the exercise of any of the powers granted by this section are hereby legalized and validated in all respects. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.22]

1. Determine the curriculum to be offered in such school or college subject to approval of the state board. If an existing private educational or vocational institution within the merged area has facilities and curriculum of adequate size and quality which would duplicate the functions of the area school, the board of directors shall discuss with the institution the possibility of entering into contracts to have the existing institution offer facilities and curriculum to students of the merged area. The board of directors shall consider any proposals submitted by the private institution for providing such facilities and curriculum. The board of directors may enter into such contracts. In approving curriculum, the state board shall ascertain that all courses and programs submitted for approval are needed and that the curriculum being offered by an area school does not duplicate programs provided by existing public or private facilities in the area. In determining whether duplication would actually exist, the state board shall consider the needs of the area and consider whether the proposed programs are competitive as to size, quality, tuition, purposes, and area coverage with existing public and private educational or vocational institutions within the merged area.

2. Change boundaries of director districts in merged areas after each decennial census; or after any change in boundaries of the merged area, to compensate for changes in population if such population changes have taken place, or at any time for the purpose of causing the boundaries of director districts to coincide, where feasible, with the boundary lines of election precincts established pursuant to sections 49.3 to 49.6. However, the director districts shall in all cases be of approximately equal population within each merged area.

3. Have authority to determine tuition rates for instruction. Tuition for residents of Iowa shall not exceed the lowest tuition rate per semester, or the equivalent, charged by an institution of higher education under the state board of regents for a full-time resident student. However, if a local school district pays tuition for a resident pupil of high school age, the limitation on tuition for residents of Iowa shall not apply, the amount of tuition shall be determined by the board of directors of the area school with the consent of the local school board, and the pupil shall not be included in the full-time equivalent enrollment of the area school for the purpose of computing general aid to the area school. Tuition for nonresidents of Iowa shall be not less than one hundred fifty percent and not more than two hundred percent of the tuition established for residents of Iowa. Tuition for resident or nonresident students may be set at a higher figure with the approval of the state board. A lower tuition for nonresidents may be permitted under a reciprocal tuition agreement between a merged area and an educational institution in another state, if the agreement is approved by the state board.

4. Have the powers and duties with respect to such schools and colleges, not otherwise provided in this chapter, which are prescribed for boards of directors of local school districts by chapter 279 except that the board of directors is not required to prohibit the use of tobacco and the use or possession of alcoholic liquor or beer by any student under the provisions of section 279.9.

5. Have the power to enter into contracts and take other necessary action to insure a sufficient curriculum and efficient operation and management of the school or college and maintain and protect the physical plant, equipment, and other property of the school or college.

6. Establish policy and make rules, not inconsistent with law and administrative rules, regulations, and policies of the state board, for its own government and that of the administrative, teaching, and other personnel, and the students of the school or college, and aid in the enforcement of such laws, rules, and regulations.

7. Have authority to sell any article resulting from any vocational program or course offered at an area vocational school or area community college. Governmental agencies and governmental subdivisions of the state within the merged areas shall be given preference in the purchase of such articles. All revenue received from the sale of any article shall be credited to the funds of the board of the merged area.

8. With the consent of the inventor, and in the discretion of the board, secure letters patent or copyright on inventions of students, instructors, and officials of any vocational school or community college of the merged area, or take assignment of such letters patent or copyright and make all necessary expenditures in regard thereto. Letters patent or copyright on inventions when so secured shall be the property of the board of the merged area and the royalties and earnings thereon shall be credited to the funds of the board.

9. Set the salary of the area superintendent. In setting the salary, the board shall consider the salaries of administrators of educational institutions in the merged area and the enrollment of the area school.

10. At the request of an employee through contractual agreement the board may arrange for the purchase of group or individual annuity contracts for any of its respective employees from any company the employee may choose that is authorized to do business in this state and through an Iowa-licensed insurance agent that the employee may select, for retirement or other purposes and may make payroll deductions in accordance with such arrangements for the purpose of paying the entire premium due and to become due under such contract. The deductions shall be made in the manner which will qualify the annuity premiums for the benefits afforded under section 403b of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments* thereto. The employee's rights under such annuity contract shall be nonforfeitable except for the failure to pay premiums. Whenever an existing tax-sheltered annuity contract is to be replaced by a new contract the agent or representative of the company shall submit a letter of intent to the company being replaced, to the insurance commissioner of the state of Iowa, and to his own company at least thirty days prior to any action by registered mail. This letter of intent shall contain the policy number and description of the contract being replaced and a description of the replacement contract. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.23; 66GA, ch 81,§137, ch 159,§1, ch 1146,§20]

280A.24 Area community college. The board of directors of a merged area initially organized for the establishment of, and which is operating, an area vocational school may with the approval of the state board expand the curriculum of the school to qualify as an area community college. The state board shall upon approval officially classify the school as an area community college.

The standard academic work load for an instructor in arts and science courses shall be fifteen credit hours per school term, and the maximum academic work load for any instructor shall be sixteen credit hours per school term, for classes taught during the normal school day. In addition thereto, any faculty member may teach a course or courses at times other than usual day-course hours, or on days other than the regular school week, involving total class instruction time equivalent to not more than a three-credit-hour course. The total work load for such instructors shall not exceed the equivalent of eighteen credit hours per school term. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.24]

280A.25 Power of state board. The state board shall:

1. Have authority to designate any vocational school or community college as an "area vocational education school" within the meaning of, and for the purpose of administering, the Act of Congress designated the "Vocational Education Act of 1963". No vocational school or community college shall be so designated by the board for the expenditure of funds under section 35c, subsection "a", paragraph 5, Title 20, U.S.C., which has not been designated and classified as an area vocational school or area community college by the state board.

2. Change boundaries of director districts in any merged area when the board of directors of the area fails to change boundaries as required under section 280A.23, subsection 2.

3. Change boundaries of merged areas to take into account mergers of local school districts and changes in boundaries of local school districts, when necessary to maintain the policy of this chapter that no local school district shall be a part of more than one merged area. The state board may also make other changes in boundaries of merged areas with the approval of the board of directors of each merged area affected by the change. At any time when the boundaries of a merged area are so changed, the state board may authorize the board of directors of the merged area to levy additional taxes upon the property within the merged area, or any part thereof, and distribute the same so that all parts of the merged area are paying their share toward the support of the school or college.

4. Administer, allocate, and disburse any federal or state funds made available to pay any portion of the cost of acquiring sites for and constructing, acquiring, or remodeling facilities for area vocational schools or area community colleges, and establish priorities for the use of such funds.

5. Administer, allocate, and disburse any federal or state funds available to pay any portion of the operating costs of area vocational schools or area community colleges.

6. Approve, in such manner as it may prescribe, sites and buildings to be acquired, erected, or remodeled for use by area vocational schools or area community colleges.

7. Have authority to adopt such administrative rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

8. Have the power to enter into contracts with local school boards within the area that have and maintain a technical or vocational high school and with private schools or colleges in the co-operative or merged areas to provide courses or programs of study in addition to or as a part of the curriculum made available in the community college or area vocational schools.

9. Make arrangements with boards of merged areas and local school districts to permit students attending high school to participate in vocational-technical programs and obtain credit for such participation for application toward the completion of a high school diploma. The granting of such credit shall be subject to the approval of the state board.

10. Prescribe a uniform system of accounting for area schools.

11. Review programs and make recommendations, and approve or disapprove requests of merged area schools to expand their programs. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.25; 66GA, ch 1146,§17]

280A.26 Former community or junior colleges. Any local school district which operated a community or junior college for any period between September 1, 1964, and July 4, 1965, may continue to operate such college. Existing public community or junior colleges may be converted into area vocational schools or area community colleges in the manner provided in this chapter. In addition, an existing public community or junior college may be converted into an area vocational school or area community college by agreement between the board of directors of the local school district operating the community or junior college and the board of directors of the merged area. Such agreement shall be effective only if approved by the state board of public instruction. Such agreement shall provide for reasonable compensation to such local school district.

Where the board of any local school district operating a community or junior college and the board of directors of the merged areas are not in agreement on the reasonable value of any public community or junior college which is to be converted, the matters of disagreement shall be decided by three disinterested arbitrators; one selected by the local board, one by the board of the merged area, and one by the two arbitrators so selected. The decision of the arbitrators shall be made in writing and a copy of the decision shall be filed with the secretary of the board of the merged area and the secretary of the local board. Any party to the proceedings may appeal therefrom to the district court by serving notice thereof within twenty days after the decision is filed. Such appeal shall be tried in equity and a decree entered determining the entire matter. The decree so entered shall be final. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.26]

280A.27 Area schools branch in department. There shall be an area schools branch within the state department of public instruction. The branch shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred by law upon the department with respect to area vocational schools and area and public community and junior colleges. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§280A.27]

280A.33 Joint action with board of regents.

1. Approval standards, except as hereinafter provided, for area and public community and junior colleges shall be initiated by the area schools branch of the department and submitted to the state board of public instruction and the state board of regents, through the state superintendent of public instruction, for joint consideration and adoption.

2. Approval standards for area vocational schools and for vocational programs and courses offered by area community colleges shall be initiated by the area schools branch and submitted to the state board of public instruction through the state superintendent of public instruction, for consideration and adoption. No such proposed approval standard shall be adopted by the state board until the standard has been submitted to the advisory committee created by chapter 258 and its recommendations thereon obtained.

3. For purposes of this section, "approval standards" shall include standards for administration, qualifications and assignment of personnel, curriculum, facilities and sites, requirements for awarding of diplomas and other evidence of educational achievement, guidance and counseling, instruction, instructional materials, maintenance, and library.

4. Approval standards shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A. In addition, approval standards shall be reported by the state board to the general assembly within twenty days after the commencement of a regular legislative session. No area community college or area vocational school shall be removed from the approved list for failure to comply with the approval standards until at least one hundred twenty days have elapsed following the reporting of such standards to the general assembly as provided in this section.

5. The department of public instruction shall supervise and evaluate the educational program in the several area community colleges and area vocational schools of the state for the purpose of the improvement and approval of such institutions.

6. The superintendent of public instruction shall make recommendations and suggestions in writing to each area community college and area vocational school if the department of public instruction determines, after due investigation, that deficiencies exist.

7. The state board shall maintain a list of approved area community colleges and area vocational schools, and it shall remove from the approved list for cause, after due investigation and notice, any area community college or area vocational school which fails to comply with the approval standards. An area community college or area vocational school which is removed from the approved list pursuant to this section shall be ineligible to receive state financial aid during the period of such removal. The state board shall allow a reasonable period of time, which shall be at least one year, for compliance with approval standards if an area community college or area vocational school is making a good faith effort and substantial progress toward full compliance or if failure to comply is due to factors beyond the control of the board of directors of the merged area operating the institution. In allowing time for compliance, the board shall follow consistent policies, taking into account the circumstances of each case. The reasonable period of time for compliance may be, but need not be, given prior to the one-year notice requirement that is provided in this section.

8. The department of public instruction shall give any area community college or area vocational school which is to be removed from the approved list at least one year's notice. The notice shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the area community college or area vocational school and shall specify the reasons for removal. The notice shall also be sent by ordinary mail to each member of the board of directors of the area community college or area vocational school, and to the news media which serve the merged area where the school is located; but any good faith error or failure to comply with this sentence shall not affect the validity of any action by the state board. If, during the year, the area community college or area vocational school remedies the reasons for removal and satisfies the state board that it will thereafter comply with the laws and approval standards the state board shall continue the area community college or area vocational school on the approved list and shall transmit to the area community college or area vocational school notice of the action by registered or certified mail.

9. At any time during the year after notice is given, the board of directors of the area community college or area vocational school may request a public hearing before the state board of public instruction, by mailing a written request to the superintendent of public instruction by registered or certified mail. The president of the state board shall promptly set a time and place for the public hearing, which shall be either in Des Moines or in the affected merged area. At least thirty days' notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given by registered or certified mail addressed to the superintendent of the area community college or area vocational school. At least ten days before the hearing, notice of the time and place of the hearing and the reasons for removal shall also be published by the state department in a newspaper of general circulation in the merged area where the area community college or area vocational school is located.

10. At the hearing the area community college or area vocational school may be represented by counsel and may present evidence. The state board may provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported. If requested by the area community college or area vocational school at least ten days before the hearing, the state board shall provide for the hearing to be recorded or reported at the expense of the area community college or area vocational school, using any reasonable method specified by the area community college or area vocational school. Within ten days after the hearing, the state board shall render its written decision, signed by a majority of its members, and shall affirm, modify or vacate the action or proposed action to remove the area community college or area vocational school from the approved list. [C66, 71, 73,§§257.25, 280A.33; C75,§280A.33; 66GA, ch 160,§1]

280A.34 Certain uses of funds prohibited. Funds obtained pursuant to section 280A.17; subsections 3, 4, and 5 of section 280A.18; section 280A.19; and section 280A.22 shall not be used for the construction or maintenance of athletic buildings or grounds. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.34]

280A.35 Limitation on land. A merged area may not purchase land which will increase the aggregate of land owned by such area, excluding land which has been or may be acquired by donation or gift, by more than three hundred twenty acres. Such limitation shall not apply to merged areas owning more than three hundred twenty acres, excluding land acquired by donation or gift, prior to January 1, 1969.

With the approval of the state board, the board of directors of any merged area at any time may sell any land in excess of one hundred sixty acres owned by the merged area, and no election shall be necessary in connection with such sale notwithstanding any other provisions of law. The proceeds of the sale may be used for any of the purposes stated in section 280A.22. This paragraph is in addition to any authority under other provisions of law. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.35]

280A.36 Faculty development. The administration of the college shall encourage the continued development of faculty potential by: (1) Regularly stimulating department chairmen or heads to meet their responsibilities in this regard; (2) lightening the teaching loads of first-year instructors whose course preparation and in-service training demand it; (3) stimulating curricular evaluation; and (4) encouraging the development of an atmosphere in which the faculty brings a wide range of ideas and experiences to the students, each other, and the community. [C71, 73, 75, §280A.36]

280A.37 Membership in association of school boards. Boards of directors of merged area schools may pay, out of funds available to them, reasonable annual dues to an Iowa association of school boards.

Membership in such an Iowa association of school boards shall be limited to those duly elected members of boards of directors of area schools. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.37]

280A.38 Lease agreements for space. The board of directors may, with the approval of the state board, enter into lease agreements, with or without purchase options, not to exceed twenty years in duration, for the leasing or rental of buildings for use basically as classrooms, laboratories, shops, libraries and study halls for vocational school or community college purposes, and pay for the same with funds acquired pursuant to section 280A.17, section 280A.18, and section 280A.22.

Such agreements may include the leasing of existing buildings on public or private property, buildings to be constructed upon real estate owned by the area school, or buildings to be placed upon real estate owned by the area school.

Before entering into a lease agreement with a purchase option for a building to be constructed, or placed, upon real estate owned by the area school, the board shall first adopt plans and specifications for the proposed building which it considers suitable for the intended use, and the board shall also adopt the proposed terms of the lease agreement and purchase option. Upon obtaining the approval of the state board, the board shall invite bids thereon, by advertisement published once each week for two consecutive weeks in the county where the building is to be located. Such lease agreement shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, or the board may reject all bids and readvertise for new bids. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.38]

280A.39 Combining merged areas—election. Any merged area may combine with any adjacent merged area after a favorable vote by the electors of each of the areas involved. If the boards of directors of two or more merged areas agree to a combination, the question shall be submitted to the electors of each area at a special election to be held on the same day in each area. The special election shall not be held within thirty days of any general election. Prior to the special election, the board of each merged area shall notify the county commissioner of elections of the county in which the greatest proportion of the merged area's taxable base is located who shall publish notice of the election according to section 49.53. The two respective county commissioners of elections shall conduct the election pursuant to the provisions of chapters 39 to 53. The votes cast in the election shall be canvassed by the county board of supervisors and the county commissioners of elections who conducted the election shall certify the results to the board of directors of each merged area.

If the vote is favorable in each merged area, the boards of each area shall proceed to transfer the assets, liabilities, and facilities of the areas to the combined merged area, and shall serve as the acting board of the combined merged area until a new board of directors is elected. The acting board shall submit to the state board a plan for redistricting the combined merged area, and upon receiving approval from the state board, shall provide for the election of a director from each new district at the next regular school election. The directors elected from each new district shall determine their terms by lot as provided in section 280A.12. Election of directors for the combined merged area shall follow the procedures established for election of directors of a merged area. A combined merged area shall be subject to all provisions of law and regulations governing merged areas. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.39; 66GA, ch 81,§138]

280A.40 Area vocational school attendance center. Any merged area shall provide an area vocational school attendance center within a county of the merged area which contains a city of fifty thousand population or more as determined by the 1970 federal decennial census unless an exemption to the requirement is granted by the state board.

This section notwithstanding, Merged Area I shall provide an area vocational school attendance center within Dubuque county. [C71, 73, 75,§280A.40; 66GA, ch 1152,§1]

281.1 Division of education created. There is created within the state department of public instruction a division of special education for the promotion, direction, and supervision of education for children requiring special education in the schools under the supervision and control of the department. The state superintendent, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is authorized to organize the division and to employ the necessary qualified personnel to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.1]

281.2 Definitions.

1. "Children requiring special education" means persons under twenty-one years of age, including children under five years of age, who are handicapped in obtaining an education because of physical, mental, emotional, communication or learning disabilities or who are chronically disruptive, as defined by the rules of the department of public instruction.

2. "Special education" means classroom, home, hospital, institutional, or other instruction designed to meet the needs of children requiring special education as defined in subsection 1; transportation and corrective and supporting services required to assist children requiring special education, as defined in subsection 1, in taking advantage of, or responding to, educational programs and opportunities, as defined by rules of the department of public instruction.

It is the policy of this state to provide and to require school districts to make provision, as an integral part of public education, for special education opportunities sufficient to meet the needs and maximize the capabilities of children requiring special education. This chapter is not to be construed as encouraging separate facilities or segregated programs designed to meet the needs of children requiring special education when such children can benefit from all or part of the education program as offered by the local school district. To the maximum extent possible, children requiring special education shall attend regular classes and shall be educated with children who do not require special education. Whenever possible, hindrances to learning and to the normal functioning of children requiring special education within the regular school environment shall be overcome by the provision of special aids and services rather than by separate programs for those in need of special education. Special classes, separate schooling or other removal of children requiring special education from the regular educational environment, shall occur only when, and to the extent that the nature or severity of the educational handicap is such that education in regular classes, even with the use of supplementary aids and services, cannot be accomplished satisfactorily. For those children who cannot adapt to the regular educational or home living conditions, and who are attending facilities under chapters 263, 269 and 270, upon the request of the board of directors of an area education agency, the department of social services shall provide residential or detention facilities and the area education agency shall provide special education programs and services. The area education agencies shall cooperate with the board of regents to provide the services required by this Act*.

Special aids and services shall be provided to children requiring special education who are less than five years of age if the aids and services will reasonably permit the child to enter the educational process or school environment when the child attains school age.

Every child requiring special education shall, if reasonably possible, receive a level of education commensurate with the level provided each child who does not require special education. The cost of providing such an education shall be paid as provided in section 273.9 and chapters 281 and 442. It shall be the primary responsibility of each school district to provide special education to children who reside in that district if the children requiring special education are properly identified, the educational program or service has been approved, the teacher or instructor has been certified, the number of children requiring special education needing that educational program or service is sufficient to make offering the program or service feasible, and the program or service cannot more economically and equably be obtained from the area education agency, another school district, another group of school districts, a qualified private agency, or in co-operation with one or more other districts.

Any funds received by the school district of the child's residence for the child's education, derived from funds received through chapters 442 and 281 and section 273.9 shall be paid by the school district of the child's residence to the appropriate education agency, private agency, or other school district providing special education for the child pursuant to contractual arrangements as provided in section 273.3, subsections 5 and 7. 10. To co-operate with existing agencies such as the state department of social welfare, the state department of public health, the state school for the deaf, the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, the state tuberculosis sanatorium, the children's hospitals, or other agencies concerned with the welfare and health of children requiring special education in the coordination of their educational activities for such children.

281.4 Powers of board of directors. The board of directors of any school district or area education agency, with the approval of the state department of public instruction, may provide special education programs and services as defined in this chapter. If services are provided by the area education agency, with the approval of the department of public instruction, the board of directors of the area education agency with the co-operation of the local school districts within its jurisdiction may:

1. Establish and operate special education programs and classes for the education of children requiring special education.

2. Acquire, maintain, and construct facilities in which to provide education, corrective services, and supportive services for children requiring special education.

3. Make arrangements with participating school districts for the provision of special education, corrective, and supportive services to the children requiring special education residing in the school districts.

4. Employ special education teachers and personnel required to furnish corrective or supportive services to children requiring special education services.

5. Provide transportation for children requiring special education services that are in need of transportation in connection with any programs, classes or services.

6. Receive, administer and expend funds appropriated for its use.

7. Receive, administer and expend the proceeds of any issue of school bonds or other bonds intended wholly or partly for its benefit.

8. Apply for, accept, and utilize grants, gifts or other assistance.

9. Participate in, and make its employees eligible to participate in, any retirement system, group insurance system, or other program of employee benefits, on the same terms as govern school districts and their employees.

10. Do such other things as are necessary and incidental to the execution of any of its powers.

The board of directors of the local district or the area education agency shall employ qualified teachers certified by the authority provided by law as teachers for children requiring such special education. The maximum number of pupils per teacher shall be determined by the board of directors of the local district or the area education agency board in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state department of public instruction.

The board of directors of the local district or the area education agency may establish and operate one or more special education centers to provide diagnostic, therapeutic, corrective, and other services, on a more comprehensive, expert, economic and efficient basis than can be reasonably provided by a single school district. Such services, if offered by the area education agency board, may be provided in the regular schools using personnel and equipment of the area education agency or, whenever it is impractical or inefficient to provide them on the premises of a regular school, the area education agency may provide services in its own facilities. To the maximum extent feasible, such centers shall be established at and in conjunction with, or in close proximity to one or more elementary and secondary schools. Local districts or the area education agencies may accept diagnostic and evaluation studies conducted by other individuals, hospitals, or centers, if determined to be competent. Children requiring special education services may be identified in any way that the department of public instruction determines to be reliable. Centers established pursuant to this section may contain classrooms and other educational facilities and equipment to supplement instruction and other services to handicapped children in the regular schools, and to provide separate instruction to children whose degree or type of educational handicap makes it impractical or inappropriate for them to participate in classes with normal children. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.4]

281.5 Secretary's report. The state department of public health shall from time to time as requested furnish to the state division of special education information obtained from birth certificates relative to the name, address, and disability of any case of congenital deformity or physical defect. The state crippled children's service shall from time to time as required furnish to the state division of special education the name, address, and disability of all children of their register. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.5]

281.6 Parent's or guardian's duties. When the school district or area education agency has provided special education services and programs as provided herein for any child requiring special education, either by admission to a special class or by supportive services, it shall be the duty of the parent or guardian to enroll said child for instruction in such special classes or supportive services as may be established, except in the event a doctor's certificate is filed with the secretary of the school district showing that it is inadvisable for medical reasons for the child requiring special education to receive the special education provided; all the provisions and conditions of chapter 299 and amendments thereto shall be applicable to this section, and any violations shall be punishable as provided in said chapter.

A child, or his parent or guardian, or the school district in which the child resides, may obtain a review of any action or omission of state or local authorities pursuant to the procedures established in chapter 290 on the ground that the child has been or is about to be:

1. Denied entry or continuance in a program of special education appropriate to his condition and needs.

2. Placed in a special education program which is inappropriate to his condition and needs.

3. Denied educational services because no suitable program of education or related services is maintained.

4. Provided with special education which is insufficient in quantity to satisfy the requirements of law.

5. Assigned to a program of special education when he is not handicapped. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.6]

281.7 Examinations of children. In order to render proper instruction to each child requiring special education, the school districts shall certify children requiring special education for special instruction in accordance with the requirements set up by the division of special education and shall provide examinations for children preliminary to making certification. The examinations necessary for the certification of children requiring special education shall be prescribed by the state division of special education. Final decision in case of disagreement or appeal shall be the responsibility of the state superintendent of public instruction, who may secure the advice of competent medical and educational authorities including the state department of health, the university hospitals, the state department of social welfare, the superintendent of the state school for the deaf, the superintendent of the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, and the superintendent of the state tuberculosis sanatorium. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.7]

281.8 Exceptions to attendance. It shall not be incumbent upon the school districts to keep a child requiring special education in regular instruction when the child cannot sufficiently profit from the work of the regular classroom, nor to keep such child requiring special education in the special class or instruction for children requiring special education when it is determined by the director of special education of an area education agency that the child can no longer benefit from the instruction or needs more specialized instruction available in special schools. However, the school district shall count the child requiring special education in the enrollment as provided in sections 273.9 and 281.9 and 442.4 and shall insure that appropriate educational provisions are made for the child requiring special education within the limits of funds available under the provisions of chapters 273, 281, and 442.

In the case of any person who, by reason of congenital factors, accident or prolonged illness, has not been able to finish the special education by his or her twenty-first birthday, the period of special education may be continued for not exceeding three years thereafter.

No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require or compel any person who is a member of a well-recognized church or religious denomination and whose religious convictions, in accordance with the tenets or principles of his or her church or religious denomination, are opposed to medical or surgical treatment for disease to take or follow a course of physical therapy, or submit to medical treatment, nor shall any parent or guardian who is a member of such church or religious denomination and who has such religious convictions be required to enroll a child in any course or instruction which utilizes medical or surgical treatment for disease. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§281.8; 66GA, ch 153,§5]

281.9 Weighting plan.

1. In order to provide funds for the excess costs of instruction of children requiring special education, above the costs of instruction of pupils in a regular curriculum, a special education weighting plan for determining enrollment in each school district is adopted as follows:

a. Pupils in a regular curriculum are assigned a weighting of one.

b. Children requiring special education who require special adaptations while assigned to a regular classroom for basic instructional purposes and handicapped pupils placed in a special education class who receive part of their instruction in regular classrooms are assigned a weighting of one and eight-tenths for the school year commencing July 1, 1975.

c. Children requiring special education who require full-time, self-contained special education placement with little integration into a regular classroom are assigned a weighting of two and two-tenths for the school year commencing July 1, 1975.

d. Children requiring special education who are severely handicapped or who have multiple handicaps, or who are chronically disruptive, are assigned to a weighting of four and four-tenths for the school year commencing July 1, 1975.

e. Shared-time and part-time pupils of school age who require special education shall be placed in the proper category and counted in the proportion that the time for which they are enrolled or receive instruction for the school year bears to the time that full-time pupils, carrying a normal course schedule, in the same school district, for the same school year are enrolled and receive instruction.

2. The weighting for each category of child multiplied by the number of children in each category in the enrollment of a school district, as identified and certified by the director of special education for the area, determines the weighted enrollment to be used in that district for purposes of computations required under the state school foundation plan in chapter 442.

3. The weight that a child is assigned under this section shall be dependent upon the required educational modifications necessary to meet the special education needs of the child. Enrollment for the purpose of this section, and all payments to be made pursuant thereto, includes all children for whom a special education program or course is to be provided pursuant to sections 273.1 to 273.9 and chapter 281, whether or not the children are actually enrolled upon the records of a school district.

4. On December 1, 1975, and no later than December 1 every two years thereafter, for the school year commencing the following July 1, the superintendent of public instruction shall report to the school budget review committee the average costs of providing instruction for children requiring special education in the categories of the weighting plan established under this section, and shall make recommendations to the school budget review committee for needed alterations to make the weighting plan suitable for subsequent school years. The school budget review committee shall establish the weighting plan for each school year after the school year commencing July 1, 1975, and shall report the plan to the superintendent of public instruction. The school budget review committee shall not alter the weighting assigned to pupils in a regular curriculum, but it may increase or decrease the weighting assigned to each category of children requiring special education by not more than two-tenths of the weighting assigned to pupils in a regular curriculum. The department of public instruction shall promulgate rules under chapter 17A, to implement the weighting plan for each year and to assist in identification and proper indexing of each child in the state who requires special education.

5. The division of special education shall audit the reports required in section 273.5 to determine that all children in the area who have been identified as requiring special education have received the appropriate special education instructional and support services, and to verify the proper identification of pupils in the area who will require special education instructional services during the school year in which the report is filed. The division shall certify to the state comptroller the correct total enrollment of each school district in the state, determined by applying the appropriate pupil weighting index to each child requiring special education, as certified by the directors of special education in each area.

6. The division may conduct an evaluation of the special education instructional program or special education support services being provided by an area education agency, school district, or private agency, pursuant to sections 273.1 to 273.9 and chapter 281, to determine if the program or service is adequate and proper to meet the needs of the child; if the child is benefiting from the program or service; if the costs are in proportion to the educational benefits being received; and if there are any improvements that can be made in the program or service. A written report of the evaluation shall be sent to the area education agency, school district, or private agency evaluated and to the president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives of the general assembly. 281.11 Program plans. Program plans submitted to the department of public instruction pursuant to section 273.5 for approval shall establish all of the following:

1. That there are sufficient children requiring special education within the area.

2. That the service or program will be provided by the most appropriate educational agency.

3. That the educational agency providing the service or program has employed qualified special educational personnel.

4. That the instruction is a natural and normal progression of a planned course of instruction.

5. That all revenue raised for support of special education instruction and services is expended for actual delivery of special education instruction or services.

6. Other factors as the department may require. [C73, 75,§281.11; 66GA, ch 79,§14]

However, the board shall provide special education programs and services under the provisions of chapters 273, 281, and 442 for all children requiring special education.

If payment is not made, the board of the creditor corporation shall file with the auditor of the county of the pupil's residence a statement certified by its president specifying the amount due for tuition, and the time for which the same is claimed. The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such account from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation, and he shall pay the same accordingly. [SS15,§2733-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4278; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§282.21]

Referred to in §275.26

282.22 Tuition in charitable institutions. When any child is cared for in any charitable institution in this state which does not maintain a school providing secular instruction, and which institution is organized and operating under the laws of Iowa, and the domicile of the child is in another school district than that wherein the institution is situated, then such child shall be entitled to attend school in the district where such institution is located. In such case the cost of the tuition and transportation, when required by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state as provided in section 282.23. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4283; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§282.22]

282.23 Tuition when in boarding home. When any child of school age who does not require special education has become a public charge and is being cared for in a children's boarding home licensed by the state, and the residence of such child at the time it became a public charge was in another school district than the one in which the boarding home is located, then the child shall be entitled to attend public school in the school district in which the boarding home is located, or if such district does not maintain a school offering instruction in the grade in which the child is properly classified, then the child may attend upon such instruction in any approved public school in the state that will receive it. The tuition and transportation when required of such a child, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon the requisition of the superintendent of public instruction. If such child was in the district at the time the regular biennial school census was taken, the semiannual apportionments shall be deducted from the tuition due the district under the provisions of this section. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby empowered to require such reports as are necessary properly to carry out the provisions of this section. [C39,§4283.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§282.23; 66GA, ch 153,§8]

282.24 Tuition fees established. There is established a maximum tuition fee to be charged for students, elementary or high school, residing within another school district or corporation. That fee shall be the state cost per pupil as computed in section 442.8 or the district cost per pupil of the receiving district as computed in section 442.9, subsection 1, paragraph "a", whichever is the lesser amount.

Any school corporation which owns facilities used as attendance centers for students shall maintain an itemized statement of the appraised value of all buildings owned by the school corporation. Beginning July 1, 1976, the appraisal shall be updated at least one time every five years.

The superintendent of public instruction shall, after July 1 but before September 1 of each year, notify every school in the state, affected by this section, what the computed maximum tuition rate shall be for the ensuing year.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the corporation or district in which the student resides from paying a tuition in excess of the maximum computed tuition rates, if the actual per pupil cost of the preceding year so warrants, but in no case may the receiving district or corporation demand more than the maximum rate. [C35,§4233-e3; C39,§4233.3; C46, §279.18; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§§279.18, 282.24; 66GA, ch 153,§9, ch 1153,§4]

282.25 Children in state institutions. When any child is cared for in any state supported institution in this state which does not maintain a school and the residence of the child is in another school district than that wherein the institution is situated, then such child shall be entitled to attend school in the district where such institution is located, provided, however, the board of the district has the authority to determine if such child can be benefited from such attendance. In such case, except if the child requires special education, the cost of tuition and transportation, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon requisition of the superintendent of public instruction. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§282.25; 66GA, ch 153,§10]

282.26 High school students attending advanced courses. The board of any junior college school district may, by mutual agreement with any college or university, permit any specially qualified high school student to attend advanced courses of academic instruction therein.

The state board of regents and the department of public instruction may by rule permit such students to attend any institution of higher learning under their jurisdiction. Credit earned in any such course at a junior college, college or university may be applied toward credit for high school graduation. No public school funds shall be expended for payment of tuition or other costs for such attendance at any college or university, unless such payment is expressly permitted or required by law.

The foregoing provisions shall also apply to junior colleges, colleges and universities in adjacent states when such institutions are located nearer to the homes or schools of the school district than the closest junior college, college or university within the state. [C66, 71, 73, 75,§282.26]

282.27 Payment for certain children. When a child requiring special education is living in a state-supported institution, charitable institution, or licensed boarding home as defined in this chapter which does not maintain a school and the residence of the child requiring special education is in a school district other than the school district in which the state-supported institution, charitable institution, or licensed boarding home is located, the child is eligible for special education programs and services provided for children requiring special education who are residents of the school district in which the institution or boarding home is located. The special education instructional costs shall be computed by means of weighted enrollment for that child under the provisions of chapters 273, 281, and 442 as if that child were a resident of the school district in which the institution or boarding home is located but the child shall be included in the enrollment count in the district of residence in the manner provided in sections 281.9 and 442.4. The costs as computed shall be paid by the district of residence. No child requiring special education shall be denied special education programs and services because of a dispute over determination of residence of that child. If the residence of the child cannot be determined, the district in which the institution or boarding home is located shall provide the special education programs and services appropriate for that child and shall compute the costs by means of the weighted enrollment and may apply to the school budget review committee for reimbursement until the dispute over residence of the child is resolved. However, if the special education instructional costs incurred on behalf of the child exceed the amount which would be allowed if the child were provided the programs and services in the district of residence, the treasurer of the school district of residence shall make payment at the maximum amount allowed in that district for a child requiring special education who is similarly handicapped. If the child requiring special education is not counted in the weighted enrollment of any district under section 281.9, and payment is not made by any district, the district in which the institution or boarding home is located may make application for reimbursement from the school budget review committee. For the purposes of this section, the term "district of residence of the child" means the residence of the parent or legal guardian, or the location of the district court if the district court is the legal guardian, of the child. [66GA, ch 153,§11]

283.1 Federal funds accepted.
283.2 Transferred to §18.15.

283.1 Federal funds accepted. The state board of public instruction is hereby designated as the "state educational authority" for the purpose of accepting and administering such funds as may be appropriated by Congress for educational purposes and all such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and disbursed through the office of state comptroller on vouchers audited as provided by law. When state matching funds are required as a condition to the acceptance of such federal funds, the state board of public instruction is authorized to make expenditures for matching only from funds provided by the legislature for such purpose; provided, however, that when federal funds may be matched with expenditures from funds appropriated for the general operation of the department of public instruction such may be done with the approval of the budget and financial control committee. [C39,§§4283.02–4283.08, 4283.10; C46, 50, 54, 58,§§283.1–283.7, 283.9; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§283.1]

283.2 Transferred to §18.15.

CHAPTER 284

INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON QUALIFICATION OF EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL

284.1 Interstate agreement.
284.2 Designated state official.
284.3 Contracts on file.

284.1 Interstate agreement. The interstate agreement on qualification of educational personnel is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE, FINDINGS, AND POLICY

1. The states party to this agreement, desiring by common action to improve their respective school systems by utilizing the teacher or other professional educational person wherever educated, declare that it is the policy of each of them, on the basis of co-operation with one another, to take advantage of the preparation and experience of such persons wherever gained, thereby serving the best interest of society, of education, and of the teaching profession. It is the purpose of this agreement to provide for the development and execution of such programs of co-operation as will facilitate the movement of teachers and other professional educational personnel among the states party to it, and to authorize specific interstate educational personnel contracts to achieve that end.

2. The party states find that included in the large movement of population among all sections of the nation are many qualified educational personnel who move for family and other personal reasons but who are hindered in using their professional skill and experience in their new locations. Variations from state to state in requirements for qualifying educational personnel discourage such personnel from taking the steps necessary to qualify in other states. As a consequence, a significant number of professionally prepared and experienced educators is lost to our school systems. Facilitating the employment of qualified educational personnel, without reference to their states of origin, can increase the available educational resources. Participation in this agreement can increase the availability of educational manpower.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this agreement and contracts made pursuant to it, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Educational personnel" means persons who must meet requirements pursuant to state law as a condition of employment in educational programs.

2. "Designated state official" means the education official of a state selected by that state to negotiate and enter into, on behalf of his state, contracts pursuant to this agreement.

3. "Accept", or any variant thereof, means to recognize and give effect to one or more determinations of another state relating to the qualifications of educational personnel in lieu of making or requiring a like determination that would otherwise be required by or pursuant to the laws of a receiving state.

4. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

5. "Originating state" means a state (and the subdivision thereof, if any) whose determination that certain educational personnel are qualified to be employed for specific duties in schools is acceptable in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to article III of this agreement.

6. "Receiving state" means a state (and the subdivisions thereof) which accepts educational personnel in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to article III of this agreement.

ARTICLE III—INTERSTATE EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL CONTRACTS

1. The designated state official of a party state may make one or more contracts on behalf of his state with one or more other party states providing for the acceptance of educational personnel. Any such contract for the period of its duration shall be applicable to and binding on the states whose designated state officials enter into it, and the subdivisions of those states, with the same force and effect as if incorporated in this agreement. A designated state official may enter into a contract pursuant to this article only with states in which he finds that there are programs of education, certification standards or other acceptable qualifications that assure preparation or qualification of educational personnel on a basis sufficiently comparable, even though not identical to that prevailing in his own state.

2. Any such contract shall provide for:

a. Its duration.

b. The criteria to be applied by an originating state in qualifying educational personnel for acceptance by a receiving state.

c. Such waivers, substitutions, and conditional acceptances as shall aid the practical effectuation of the contract without sacrifice of basic educational standards.

d. Any other necessary matters.

3. No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall be for a term longer than five years but any such contract may be renewed for like or lesser periods.

4. Any contract dealing with acceptance of educational personnel on the basis of their having completed an educational program shall specify the earliest date or dates on which originating state approval of the program or programs involved can have occurred. No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall require acceptance by a receiving state of any persons qualified because of successful completion of a program prior to January 1, 1954.

5. The certification or other acceptance of a person who has been accepted pursuant to the terms of a contract shall not be revoked or otherwise impaired because the contract has expired or been terminated. However, any certificate or other qualifying document may be revoked or suspended on any ground which would be sufficient for revocation or suspension of a certificate or other qualifying document initially granted or approved in the receiving state.

6. A contract committee composed of the designated state officials of the contracting states or their representatives shall keep the contract under continuous review, study means of improving its administration, and report no less frequently than once a year to the heads of the appropriate education agencies of the contracting states.

ARTICLE IV—APPROVED AND ACCEPTED PROGRAMS

1. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to repeal or otherwise modify any law or regulation of a party state relating to the approval of programs of educational preparation having effect solely on the qualification of educational personnel within that state.

2. To the extent that contracts made pursuant to this agreement deal with the educational requirements for the proper qualification of educational personnel, acceptance of a program of educational preparation shall be in accordance with such procedures and requirements as may be provided in applicable contract.

ARTICLE V—INTERSTATE CO-OPERATION

The party states agree that:

1. They will, so far as practicable, prefer the making of multilateral contracts pursuant to article III of this agreement.

2. They will facilitate and strengthen co-operation in interstate certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification and for this purpose shall co-operate with agencies, organizations, and associations interested in certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification.

ARTICLE VI—AGREEMENT EVALUATION

The designated state officials of any party states may meet from time to time as a group to evaluate programs under the agreement, and to formulate recommendations for changes.

ARTICLE VII—OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prevent or inhibit other arrangements or practices of any party state or states to facilitate the interchange of educational personnel.

ARTICLE VIII—EFFECT AND WITHDRAWAL

1. This agreement shall become effective when enacted into law by two states. Thereafter it shall become effective as to any state upon its enactment of this agreement.

2. Any party state may withdraw from this agreement by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states.

3. No withdrawal shall relieve the withdrawing state of any obligation imposed upon it by a contract to which it is a party. The duration of contracts and the methods and conditions of withdrawal therefrom shall be those specified in their terms.

ARTICLE IX—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C75,§284.1]

284.2 Designated state official. The designated state official for this state, within the meaning of article II, paragraph 2, of the interstate agreement on qualification of educational personnel as set forth in section 284.1, shall be the superintendent of public instruction. He shall enter into contracts pursuant to article III of the agreement only with the approval of the specific text thereof by the state board of public instruction. [C75,§284.2]

284.3 Contracts on file. True copies of all contracts made on behalf of this state pursuant to the interstate agreement on qualification of educational personnel shall be kept on file in the department of public instruction and in the office of the secretary of state. The department of public instruction shall publish all such contracts in convenient form. [C75, §284.3]

STATE AID FOR TRANSPORTATION

Referred to in §§282.7, 442.13

285.1 When entitled to state aid.
285.2 Payment of claims for nonpublic school pupil transportation.
285.3 Repealed by 62GA, ch 356,§27.
285.4 Pupils sent to another district.
285.5 Contracts for transportation.
285.6 Staff in state department.
285.7 Repealed by 62GA, ch 356,§28.
285.8 Powers and duties of state department.
285.9 Powers and duties of area boards.
285.10 Powers and duties of local boards.
285.11 Bus routes—basis of operation.
285.12 Disputes—hearings and appeals.
285.13 Disagreements between boards.
285.14 Nonstandard buses—penalties.
285.15 Forfeiture of reimbursement rights.

285.1 When entitled to state aid.

1. The board of directors in every school district shall provide transportation, either directly or by reimbursement for transportation, for all resident pupils attending public school, kindergarten through twelfth grade, except that:

a. Elementary pupils shall be entitled to transportation only if they live more than two miles from the school designated for attendance.

b. High school pupils shall be entitled to transportation only if they live more than three miles from the school designated for attendance.

For the purposes of this subsection, high school means a school which commences with either grade nine or grade ten, as determined by the board of directors of the school district or by the governing authority of the nonpublic school in the case of nonpublic schools.

Boards in their discretion may provide transportation for some or all resident pupils attending public school or pupils who attend nonpublic schools who are not entitled to transportation. Boards in their discretion may collect from the parent or guardian of the pupil not more than the pro rata cost for such optional transportation, determined as provided in subsection 12.

To the extent that this section as amended requires transportation which was not required before August 15, 1973, the board of directors shall not be required to provide such transportation before July 1, 1978.

2. Any pupil may be required to meet a school bus on the approved route a distance of not to exceed three-fourths of a mile without reimbursement.

3. In any district where transportation by school bus is impracticable or where school bus service is not available, the board may require the parents or guardian to transport their children to the school designated for attendance. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation service for elementary pupils by the board of resident district for the distance one way from the pupil's residence to the school designated for attendance at the rate of fifty-six cents per mile per day irrespective of number of children transported. For high school pupils, the parent or guardian shall be reimbursed eighty dollars per pupil per year for such service, provided however no family shall receive more than one hundred sixty dollars per year for transporting the members of the family who attend high school. The provisions of this section shall apply to eligible nonpublic school pupils as well as to eligible public school pupils. However, reimbursement for nonpublic school pupils shall not exceed eighty dollars per pupil per year. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective for transportation of children commencing with the second semester of the school year beginning July 1, 1975.

4. In all districts where unsatisfactory roads or other conditions make it advisable, the board at its discretion may require the parent or guardian to transport their children up to two miles to connect with a vehicle of transportation. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation by the board of resident district at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day, one way, per family for the distance from pupil's residence to the bus route.

5. Where transportation by school bus is impracticable or not available or other existing conditions warrant it, arrangements may be made for use of common carriers according to uniform standards established by the superintendent of public instruction and at a cost based upon the actual cost of service and approved by the board.

6. When the school designated for attendance of pupils is engaged in the transportation of pupils, the sending or designating school shall use these facilities and pay the pro rata cost of transportation except that a district sending pupils to another school may make other arrangements when it can be shown that such arrangements will be more efficient and economical than to use facilities of the receiving school, providing such arrangements are approved by the board of the area education agency.

7. If a local board closes either elementary or high school facilities and is approved by the board of the area education agency to operate its own transportation equipment, the full cost of transportation shall be paid by the board for all pupils living beyond the statutory walking distance from the school designated for attendance.

8. Transportation service may be suspended upon any day or days, due to inclemency of the weather, conditions of roads, or the existence of other conditions, by the board of the school district operating the buses, when in their judgment it is deemed advisable and when the school or schools are closed to all children.

9. Distance to school or to a bus route shall in all cases be measured on the public highway only and over the most passable and safest route as determined by the area education agency board, starting in the roadway opposite the private entrance to the residence of the pupil and ending in the roadway opposite the entrance to the school grounds or designated point on bus route.

10. The board in any district providing transportation for nonresident pupils shall collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the district of pupil's residence for all properly designated pupils so transported.

11. Boards in districts operating buses may transport nonresident pupils who attend public school, kindergarten through junior college, who are not entitled to free transportation provided they collect the pro rata cost of transportation from the parents.

12. The pro rata cost of transportation shall be based upon the actual cost for all the children transported in all school buses. It shall include one-seventh of the original net cost of the bus and such other items as shall be determined and approved by the superintendent of public instruction but no part of the capital outlay cost for school buses and transportation equipment for which the school district is reimbursed from state funds or that portion of the cost of the operation of any school bus used in transporting pupils to and from extra-curricular activities shall be included in determining said pro rata cost. In any district where because of unusual conditions, the cost of transportation is in excess of the actual operating cost of the bus route used to furnish transportation to nonresident pupils, the board of the local district may charge a cost equal to the cost of other schools supplying such service to that area, upon receiving approval of the state director of school transporation.

13. When a local board fails to pay transportation costs due to another school for transportation service rendered, the board of the creditor corporation shall file a sworn statement with the area education agency board specifying the amount due. The agency board shall check such claim and if the claim is valid shall certify to the county auditor. The auditor shall transmit to the county treasurer an order directing him to transfer the amount of such claim from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation and the treasurer shall pay the same accordingly.

14. Resident pupils attending a nonpublic school located either within or without the school district of the pupil's residence shall be entitled to transportation on the same basis as provided for resident public school pupils.

under this section. The public school district providing transportation to a nonpublic school pupil shall determine the days on which bus service is provided, which shall be based upon the days for which bus service is provided to public school pupils, and the public school district shall determine bus schedules and routes. In the case of nonpublic school pupils the term "school designated for attendance" means the nonpublic school which is designated for attendance by the parents of the nonpublic school pupil.

15. If the nonpublic school designated for attendance is located within the public school district in which the pupil is a resident, the pupil shall be transported to the nonpublic school designated for attendance as provided in this section.

16. If the nonpublic school designated for attendance of a pupil is located outside the boundary line of the school district of the pupil's residence, the pupil may be transported by the district of residence to a public school or other location within the district of the pupil's residence. A public school district in which a nonpublic school is located may establish school bus collection locations within its district from which nonresident nonpublic school pupils may be transported to and from a nonpublic school located in the district. If a pupil receives such transportation, the district of the pupil's residence shall be relieved of any requirement to provide transportation. As an alternative to the provisions enumerated in this subsection, subject to the provisions of section 285.9, subsection 3, where practicable, and at the option of the public school district in which a nonpublic school pupil resides, the school district may transport a nonpublic school pupil to a nonpublic school located outside the boundary lines of the public school district if the nonpublic school is located in a school district contiguous to the school district which is transporting the nonpublic school pupils, or may contract with the contiguous public school district in which a nonpublic school is located for the contiguous school district to transport the nonpublic school pupils to the nonpublic school of attendance within the boundary lines of the contiguous school district.

17. The public school district may meet the requirements of subsections 14 to 16 by any of the following:

The difference between the amount of the claim of a school district and the amount of payment received from the department of public instruction shall be paid by the parent or guardian of the nonpublic school pupil transported.

286A.2 Repealed by 62GA, ch 356,§22.

286A.3 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1056,§45.

286A.4 Determination. The general school aid funds allocated to each district shall be determined as follows:

Multiply one dollar and thirty cents by the number of students for which the district pays tuition for such students to attend an area vocational technical high school or program which has been established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the vocational technical school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For any district which has an area vocational technical high school or program established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258, multiply one dollar and fifty cents by the number of full-time day students who have graduated from high school or who are beyond twenty-one years of age and are tuition students. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. A school district, in computing the tuition to charge such a student, shall deduct the amount of general aid received for such student from the regular tuition for such student. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§286A.4]

286A.5 Information furnished by school district. At the close of each school year, but not later than July 5, the local district or merged area school shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district for elementary and secondary school. For any day student who has been enrolled on a less than a full school-day basis, the reimbursement shall be calculated proportionately to the portion for which he is enrolled as shall be determined by the state department of public instruction. For school districts operating a junior college or community college, the aid to the district for such college shall be separately appropriated, calculated, prorated when necessary, and paid as hereinafter provided in sections 286A.8 to 286A.10. Forms for reporting information to calculate aid for elementary and secondary school purposes shall be supplied by the state department of public instruction to each school district not later than June 1. On or before August 1, the state department of public instruction shall furnish to the state comptroller estimates of the amount reimbursable for the year to each school district for general aid for elementary and secondary school purposes and upon said estimates the state comptroller shall, on or about August 1, make payment of the first half of the annual amount appropriated for such general aid. After all such claims have been calculated for the year and validated for accuracy, the state department of public instruction shall certify the same to the state comptroller prior to February 1. On or about February 1, the state comptroller shall make payment to the school districts, of the balance of the amount appropriated for such general aid, which, when taken with the first half payment, conforms to the amount of full year reimbursement due each school district as then validated and certified by the state department of public instruction. In the event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts for such purposes is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts or merged areas, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total respective funds appropriated and available for such aid bears to the respective total amounts certified for reimbursement. All funds received or to be received under the provisions of this chapter shall be taken into account and considered by each school district or merged area when estimating the amount required for the general fund. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§286A.5]

286A.6 Rules. The superintendent of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and definitions of terms as are necessary and proper for the administration of this chapter. The necessary expenses incurred by the department of public instruction in the administration of this chapter may be paid from the appropriation therefor. When such conditions as unnatural weather hazards, bad roads, epidemics, and the like, occur to such an extent as to penalize any district, the superintendent of public instruction can adjust the formula by taking the average of several months' attendance in lieu of the months affected by such epidemics or hazards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§286A.6]

286A.8 General aid to junior or community colleges. School districts operating a junior or community college shall be entitled to general school aid therefor as follows: Multiply one dollar by the average daily enrollment of the students who are residents of such school district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of resident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply two dollars and twenty-five cents by the average daily enrollment of students who are nonresidents of the district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of nonresident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply the sum of these products by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For the purposes of this section, "work" means subjects or courses; for which credit may be earned and applied toward fulfillment of the requirements for a certificate, diploma, or degree; and which are approved by the state department of public instruction for state aid. [C71, 73, 75,§286A.8]

Referred to in §§286A.5, 286A.10

286A.9 Merged area schools general aid. Merged areas operating area schools shall be entitled to general school aid. Each merged area shall be entitled to two dollars and twenty-five cents per day for the full-time equivalent enrollment of students who are residents of the state. The total amount of state aid allocated to each area shall be computed by the following formula:

State aid = Full-time equivalent enrollment × 180 days × $2.25.

Any course or program, the direct operational costs of which are entirely paid by federal, state, or other governmental agencies or private subsidy, or both, shall not be eligible for reimbursement.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "Full-time equivalent enrollment" means the quotient of the total number of reimbursable hours carried by residents of the state attending a single area school, divided by five hundred forty, which represents fifteen reimbursable hours per week for a period of thirty-six weeks.

298.18 Bond tax — election — leasing buildings. The board of each school corporation shall, when estimating and certifying the amount of money required for general purposes, estimate and certify to the board of supervisors of the proper county for the schoolhouse fund the amount required to pay interest due or that may become due for the fiscal year beginning July 1, thereafter, upon lawful bonded indebtedness, and in addition thereto such amount as the board may deem necessary to apply on the principal.

The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year shall not exceed two dollars and seventy cents per thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the school corporation except as hereinafter provided.

For the sole purpose of computing the amount of bonds which may be issued as a result of the application of any limitation referred to in this section, all interest on the bonds in excess of that accruing in the first twelve months may be excluded from the first annual levy of taxes, so that the need for including more than one year's interest in the first annual levy of taxes to pay the bonds and interest shall not operate to further restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued, and in certifying the annual levies to the county auditor or auditors such first annual levy of taxes shall be sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on said bonds becoming due prior to the next succeeding annual levy and the full amount of such first annual levy shall be entered for collection by said auditor or auditors, as provided in chapter 76.

The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year may exceed two dollars and seventy cents per thousand dollars of assessed value by the amount approved by the voters of the school corporation, but not exceeding four dollars and five cents per thousand of the assessed value of the taxable property within any school corporation, provided that the qualified voters of such school corporation have first approved such increased amount at a special election, which may be held at the same time as the regular school election. The proposition submitted to the voters at such special election shall be in substantially the following form:

the County of ....., State of Iowa, be authorized to levy annually a tax exceeding two dollars and seventy cents per thousand dollars, but not exceeding .....dollars and .....cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property within said school corporation to pay the principal of and interest on bonded indebtedness of said school corporation, it being understood that the approval of this proposition shall not limit the source of payment of the bonds and interest but shall only operate to restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued?"

Notice of the election shall be given by the county commissioner of elections according to section 49.53. The election shall be held on a date not less than four nor more than twenty days after the last publication of the notice. At such election the ballot used for the submission of said proposition shall be in substantially the form for submitting special questions at general elections. The county commissioner of elections shall conduct the election pursuant to the provisions of chapters 39 to 53 and certify the results to the board of directors. Such proposition shall not be deemed carried or adopted unless the vote in favor of such proposition is equal to at least sixty percent of the total vote cast for and against said proposition at said election. Whenever such a proposition has been approved by the voters of a school corporation as hereinbefore provided, no further approval of the voters of such school corporation shall be required as a result of any subsequent change in the boundaries of such school corporation.

The voted tax levy referred to herein shall not limit the source of payment of bonds and interest but shall only restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued.

The ability of a school corporation to exceed two dollars and seventy cents per thousand dollars of assessed value to service principal and interest payments on bonded indebtedness is limited and conferred only to those school corporations engaged in the administration of elementary and secondary education.

Provided further that if a school corporation leases a building or property, which has been used as a junior college by such corporation, to a merged area school corporation operating or proposing to operate an area community college, the annual amounts certified as herein provided by such leasing school corporation for payment of interest and principal due on lawful bonded indebtedness incurred by such leasing school corporation for purchasing, building, furnishing, reconstructing, repairing, improving or remodeling the building leased or acquiring or adding to the site of such property leased, to the extent of the respective annual rent the school corporation will receive under such lease, shall not be considered as a part of the total amount estimated and certified for the purposes of determining if such amount exceeds any limitation contained in this section. 302.6 Sale without appraisement. When the board of supervisors of any county has once offered for sale any school lands in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and they remain unsold, and it is unable to obtain therefor the appraised value thereof, and in the opinion of said board it is for the best interests of the school fund that the same be sold for a less price, it may instruct the auditor to transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of its proceedings in relation to the order of sale thereof and subsequent proceedings in relation thereto, including the action of the township trustees, and the price per acre at which the land had been appraised, which transcript the secretary of state shall submit to the executive council; and if it approves of a sale at a less sum it shall certify such approval to the auditor of the county from which said transcript came, which certificate shall be transcribed in the minute book of the board of supervisors, and thereupon said land may again be offered and sold to the highest bidder, after notice given as in case of sales in the first instance, without being again appraised. When lands are sold upon a partial credit, the contract therefor shall be at once reduced to writing, signed by the proper parties, recorded in the county where the land is situated, and immediately thereafter filed in the office of the county auditor. Any purchaser or his assigns may at any time pay the full amount for lands with accrued interest, and receive from the county auditor a certificate of purchase, which shall be at once transmitted to the secretary of state and will entitle the holder to a patent for the lands, to be issued by the secretary of state and the governor. All school lands sold in pursuance of law shall be subject to taxation from and after the execution and delivery of a contract of purchase. All sales made, where the full price is not paid, shall be subject to the law relative to the prevention or punishment of waste, and in all such cases the township trustees in each township are charged with the duty of preventing the commission of waste upon any school lands lying in their township, and, if attempted, they shall apply by petition for an injunction to stay the same, and if granted the writ shall issue without bond, and the court issuing it may make such order in the premises as shall be equitable and best calculated to prevent threatened injury, and may adjudge damages for any injury done, the costs to abide the event of the action, and the damages adjudged shall be paid to the county treasurer and the county treasurer shall forthwith pay the same to the state treasurer which shall become a part of the permanent school fund. [C73,§1850; C97, §2844; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4476; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§302.8]

302.9 Cash or collateral security. When, in the judgment of the board of supervisors, any school lands are of such a character that a sale upon partial credit would be unsafe or incompatible with the interest of the school fund, and especially in the case of timbered lands, the board of supervisors may in its discretion exact the whole of the purchase money in advance; or if it sells such land upon a partial credit, as hereinbefore prescribed, it shall require good collateral security for the payment of the part upon which credit is given. The contracting states agree that:

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE

Because the desire for the services provided by public libraries transcends governmental boundaries and can be provided most effectively by giving such services to communities of people regardless of jurisdictional lines, it is the policy of the states who are parties to this compact to co-operate and share their responsibilities in providing joint and co-operative library services in areas where the distribution of population makes the provision of library service on an interstate basis the most effective way to provide adequate and efficient services.

ARTICLE II—PROCEDURE
Referred to in Art. VII

The appropriate state library officials and agencies having comparable powers with those of the Iowa library commission of the party states or any of their political subdivisions may, on behalf of said states or political subdivisions, enter into agreements for the co-operative or joint conduct of library services when they shall find that the executions of agreements to that end as provided herein will facilitate library services.

ARTICLE III—CONTENT
Referred to in Art. VII

Any such agreement for the co-operative or joint establishment, operation or use of library services, facilities, personnel, equipment, materials or other items not excluded because of failure to enumerate shall, as among the parties of the agreement:

1. Detail the specific nature of the services, facilities, properties or personnel to which it is applicable;

2. Provide for the allocation of costs and other financial responsibilities;

3. Specify the respective rights, duties, obligations and liabilities;

4. Stipulate the terms and conditions for duration, renewal, termination, abrogation, disposal of joint or common property, if any, and all other matters which may be appropriate to the proper effectuation and performance of said agreement.

ARTICLE IV—CONFLICT OF LAWS

Nothing in this compact or in any agreement entered into hereunder shall alter, or otherwise impair any obligation imposed on any public library by otherwise applicable laws, or be constituted to supersede.

ARTICLE V—ADMINISTRATOR

Each state shall designate a compact administrator with whom copies of all agreements to which his state or any subdivision thereof is party shall be filed. The administrator shall have such powers as may be conferred upon him by the laws of his state and may consult and co-operate with the compact administrators of other party states and take such steps as may effectuate the purposes of this compact.

ARTICLE VI—EFFECTIVE DATE

This compact shall become operative when entered in by two or more entities having the powers enumerated herein.

ARTICLE VII—RENUNCIATION

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each party state until six months after any such state has given notice of repeal by the legislature. Such withdrawal shall not be construed to relieve any party to an agreement authorized by Articles II and III of the compact from the obligation of that agreement prior to the end of its stipulated period of duration.

ARTICLE VIII—SEVERABILITY—CONSTRUCTION

The provisions of this compact shall be severable. It is intended that the provisions of this compact be reasonably and liberally construed. [C66, 71, 73,§303.24; C75,§303A.8; 66GA, ch 67,§30]

305.12 Maps—surveys. The operator of any underground mine shall comply with the following provisions relative to maps and surveys:

1. Scale. Each mine map shall be drawn to a scale of not more than two hundred feet to the inch.

2. General specifications. Each map shall show the name of the state, county, and township in which the mine is located, the designation of the mine, the name of the company or operator, the certificate of the mining engineer or surveyor as to the accuracy and date of the survey, the north point, and the scale to which the map is drawn.

3. Boundaries and surface lines. Every map shall correctly show the surface boundary lines of the mineral rights pertaining to each mine and all section or quarter section lines or corners within the same, the lines of town lots and streets, the tracks and sidetracks of all railroads, the location of all wagon roads, rivers, streams, and ponds, and reservations made of the mineral.

4. Underground conditions. For the underground workings, the map shall show all shafts, slopes, tunnels, or other openings to the surface or to the workings of a contiguous mine; all excavations, entries, rooms, and crosscuts; the location of the escape ways, and of the fan or furnace or other means of ventilation and the direction of air currents, and the location of permanent pumps, hauling engines, engine planes, abandoned works, fire walls, and standing water.

5. Separate maps. A separate and similar map drawn to the same scale in all cases shall be made of each layer of minerals mined in any mine in this state. A separate map shall also be made of the surface whenever the surface buildings, lines, or objects are so numerous as to obscure the details of the mine workings if drawn upon the same sheet with them, and in such case the surface map shall be drawn upon transparent cloth or paper so that it can be laid upon the map of the underground workings and thus truly indicate the local relation of lines and objects on the surface to the excavations of the mine and any other principal workings of the mine.

6. Rise and dip of minerals. Each map of underground workings shall also show by profile drawing and measurement, the last one hundred fifty feet approaching the boundary lines, showing the rise and dip of the minerals.

7. Copies. The original or true copies of the maps shall be kept at the office of the mine, and true copies thereof shall also be furnished the state geologist within thirty days after the completion of the same.

8. Extensions. An accurate extension of the last preceding survey of every mine in active operation shall be made once in every twelve months prior to July 1 of every year and the result of such survey, with the date thereof, shall be promptly and accurately entered upon the original map, and a true, correct, and accurate copy of the extended map shall be forwarded to the state geologist so as to show all changes in plan of new work in the mine, and all extensions of the old workings to the most advanced face or boundary of the workings which have been made since the last preceding survey, and the parts of the mine abandoned or worked out after the last preceding survey shall be clearly indicated and shown by colorings, which copy must be delivered to the state geologist within thirty days after the last survey is made.

9. Abandoned mine. When any underground mine is worked out or is about to be abandoned or indefinitely closed, the operator of the same shall make or cause to be made a completed and extended map of the mine and the result of the same shall be duly extended on all maps of the mine and copies thereof so as to show all excavations and the most advanced workings of the mine, and their exact relation to the boundary or section lines on the surface, and deliver to the state geologist a copy of the completed map.

10. Copies furnished. The state geologist shall provide the department of soil conservation a copy of each map and map extension received by him under this section. [C97, §2485; S13,§§2485, 2496-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§1245, 1351–1355, 1357, 1358; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§§82.28, 83.14–83.18, 83.20, 83.21; C75, §305.12]

305.13 Failure to furnish map. When the operator of any mine neglects or refuses for a period of ninety days to furnish to the state geologist the map or plan, or a copy thereof, of such mine or any extension thereof, as provided in this chapter, the state geologist shall cause to be made an accurate map or plan of such mine or extension as the case may be, at the expense of the operator. The cost shall be paid by the state and recovered from such operator. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of the county in which such mine is located, at the request of the state geologist, to bring action in the name of the state for such recovery. [S13,§§2485-a, 2496-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§1246, 1359; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§§82.29, 83.22; C75,§305.13]

305.14 Maps property of state — custody — copies. The maps so delivered to the state geologist shall be the property of the state and shall remain in the custody of the state geologist. They shall be kept at the office of the geological survey and be open to examination by all persons interested in the maps; but such examination shall only be made in the presence of the state geologist or a designee, and the state geologist shall not permit any copies of the maps to be made without the written consent of the operator or the owner of the property, except as provided in section 305.12 or if the mine has been abandoned for at least five years. [C97,§2485; S13,§§2485, 2496-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§1247, 1356; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§§82.30, 83.19; C75,§305.14; 66GA, ch 1161, §1]

In the maintenance, relocation, establishment, or improvement of any road, including the extension of such road within cities, the agency having jurisdiction and control of such road shall have authority to purchase or to institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary right of way therefor. Such agency shall likewise have power to purchase or institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of land necessary for highway drainage, or land containing gravel or other suitable material for the improvement or maintenance of highways, together with the necessary road access or right of access thereto.

2. Whenever the agency condemns or purchases property access rights or alters by lengthening any existing driveway to a road from abutting property, except during the time required for construction and maintenance of the road or highway, the agency shall:

a. Compensate the owner for any diminution in the market value of the property by the denial or alteration by lengthening the driveway; however, in computing such diminution in value no consideration shall be given to the additional maintenance expense for maintaining the additional length of driveway, but in lieu thereof, both in condemnation proceedings or negotiated purchases, the agency shall pay to the owner the sum of five dollars for every lineal foot of additional length of driveway located on said owner's property. This payment shall represent just compensation to said property owner for the additional driveway maintenance caused by reason of the highway or road project.

b. If in the opinion of the agency it would be more economical to purchase the entire tract of the property owner than to provide and pay the maintenance expense required under the provisions of this section, proceed with the acquisition of the entire tract of land; or

c. If mutually agreeable, move buildings from an existing location to a location requiring an equal or lesser length of driveway and provide an adequate driveway to a public road.

3. None of the foregoing requirements shall prohibit the property owner and the agency from entering into a mutually acceptable agreement for the replacement, relocation, construction, or maintenance of any alternate driveway on the owner's property.

4. Compensation for any property rights taken in the establishment of any alternative temporary or permanent access shall be paid as in any other purchase or condemnation of property. Proceedings for the condemnation of land for any highway shall be under the provisions of chapter 471 and chapter 472. Such plans shall be clearly designated as "completed", "partially completed" or "proposed" with a statement of the portion completed and the expected date of full completion. When title to any tract of land has been or may be acquired for the construction or improvement of any highway, and when in the judgment of the agency in control of the highway, the tract will not be used in connection with or for the improvement, maintenance, or use of the highway, the agency in control of the highway may sell the tract for cash. If the tract of land is held or used in connection with any primary road, or state park or institutional road, the sale shall be subject to approval of the executive council of the state.

Said notice shall give an opportunity to the present owner of adjacent property to be heard and make offers for the tract, parcel or piece of land to be sold, and if such offer is equal to or exceeds in amount any other offer received, it shall be given preference by the board in control of said land. Neglect or failure for any reason, to comply with the provisions of said notice, shall in no way prevent the giving of a clear title to the purchaser of said tract, parcel or piece of land. [C35,§4755-f2; C39,§4755.45; C46, 50,§313.54; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.17; C71, 73, 75,§306.23]

Cities and highway authorities having jurisdicton and control over the highways of the state, as provided by chapter 306, acting alone or in co-operation with each other or with any federal, state, or local agency or any other state having authority to participate in the construction and maintenance of highways, are hereby authorized to plan, designate, establish, regulate, vacate, alter, improve, maintain, and provide controlled-access facilities for public use wherever such authority or authorities are of the opinion that traffic conditions, present or future, will justify such special facilities; provided, that within cities such authority shall be subject to such municipal consent as may be provided by law. Said cities and highway authorities, in addition to the specific powers granted in this chapter, shall also have and may exercise, relative to controlled-access facilities, any and all additional authority now or hereafter vested in them relative to highways or streets within their respective jurisdictions. No access rights to any highway shall be acquired by any authority having jurisdiction and control over the highways of this state by adverse possession or prescriptive right. No action heretofore or hereafter taken by any such authority shall form the basis for any claim of adverse possession of, or prescriptive right to any access rights by any such authority. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75,§306A.5]
