421.1 State board of tax review. There is hereby established within the department of revenue for administrative and budgetary purposes a state board of tax review for the state of Iowa. The state board of tax review, hereinafter called the state board, shall consist of three members.

The members of the state board shall be qualified electors of the state and shall hold no other elective or appointive public office.

Members of the state board shall serve for six-year staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19. A member who is appointed for a six-year term shall not be permitted a successive term.

Members shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Appointments to the board shall be bipartisan.

The members of the state board shall qualify by taking the regular oath of office as prescribed by law for state officers. A vacancy on the board shall be filled by appointment by the governor in the same manner as the original appointment.

The members of the state board shall be allowed a per diem of forty dollars and their necessary travel and expenses while engaged in their official duties. They shall organize the board and select one of their members as chairman.

The place of office of the state board shall be in the office of the tax department in the capitol of the state.

The state board shall hold at least six regular meetings each year, the first of which shall be on the second secular day of July. Special meetings of the state board may be called by the chairman on five days' notice given to each member. All meetings shall be held at the office of the tax department unless a different place within the state is designated by the state board or in the notice of the meeting.

It shall be the responsibility of the state board to exercise the following general powers and duties:

1. Determine and adopt such policies as are authorized by law and are necessary for the more efficient operation of any phase of tax review.

2. Perform such duties prescribed by law as it may find necessary for the improvement of the state system of taxation in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the tax laws.

3. Employ, pursuant to the Iowa merit system, adequate clerical help to keep such records as are necessary to set forth clearly all actions and proceedings of the state board.

4. Advise and counsel with the director of revenue concerning the tax laws and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto; and, upon their own motion or upon appeal by any affected taxpayer, review the record evidence and the decisions of, and any orders or directive issued by, the director of revenue for the assessment and collection of taxes by the department or an order to reassess or to raise assessments to any local assessor and shall expeditiously affirm, modify, reverse or remand the same. In order for any appeal to the board to be valid, written notice thereof must be given to the department within thirty days of the rendering of the decision, order or directive from which such appeal is taken. The director shall thereafter cause to be certified to the board the record, documents, reports, audits and all other information pertinent to the decision, order or directive from which such appeal is taken.

The affected taxpayer and the department shall be given at least fifteen days' written notice by the board of the date the appeal shall be heard and both parties may be present at such hearing if they desire. The board shall adopt and promulgate, pursuant to chapter 17A, rules for the conduct of appeals by the board. The record and all documents, reports, audits and all other information certified to the board by the director, and hearings held by the board pursuant to the appeal and the decision of the board thereon shall be open to the public notwithstanding the provisions of sections 422.72, subsection 1, and 422.20; except that the board upon the application of the affected taxpayer may order the record and all documents, reports, audits, and all other information certified to it by the director, or so much thereof as it deems necessary, held confidential, if the public disclosure of same would reveal trade secrets or any other confidential information that would give the affected taxpayer's competitor a competitive advantage. Any deliberation of the board in reaching a decision on any appeal shall be confidential.

5. Adopt a long-range program for the state system of tax reform based upon special studies, surveys, research, and recommendations submitted by or proposed under the direction of the director of revenue.

The state board shall constitute a continuing research commission as to tax matters in the state and cause to be prepared and submitted to each regular session of the general assembly a report containing such recommendations as to revisions, amendments, and new provisions of the law as the state board has decided should be submitted to the legislature for its consideration.

6. All of the provisions of section 422.70, shall also be applicable to the state board of tax review. [C51,§481, 482; R60,§742; C73,§834; C97,§1378; S13,§1378; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7140; C46, 50, 54, 58,§422.15; C62, 66,§441.46; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§421.1; 68GA, ch 1010,§63]

All such moneys collected shall be deposited at such times and in such depositories to permit the state of Iowa to deposit the funds in a manner consistent with the state's investment policies. All such moneys shall be promptly deposited, as directed, even though the individual amount remitted may not be correct. If any individual amount remitted is in excess of the amount required, the department or agency receiving the same shall refund the excess amount thereof. If the individual amount remitted is insufficient, the person, firm, or corporation concerned shall be immediately billed for the amount of the deficiency. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§421.6]

Provided, however, that no such expense shall be allowed the director, deputy directors, secretary or employees of the department while in the city of Des Moines or traveling between their homes and the city of Des Moines. 421.17 Powers and duties. In addition to the powers and duties transferred to the director of revenue, the director shall have and assume the following powers and duties:

1. To have and exercise general supervision over the administration of the assessment and tax laws of the state, over boards of supervisors and all other officers or boards of assessment and levy in the performance of their official duties, in all matters relating to assessments and taxation, to the end that all assessments of property and taxes levied thereon be made relatively just and uniform in substantial compliance with the law.

2. To supervise the activity of all assessors and boards of review in the state of Iowa; to co-operate with them in bringing about a uniform and legal assessment of property as prescribed by law.

The director may order the reassessment of all or part of the property in any taxing district in any year. Such reassessment shall be made by the local assessor according to law under the direction of the director and the cost thereof shall be paid in the same manner as the cost of making an original assessment.

The director shall determine the degree of uniformity of valuation as between the various taxing districts of the state and shall have the authority to employ competent personnel for the purpose of performing this duty.

For the purpose of bringing about uniformity and equalization of assessments throughout the state of Iowa, the director shall prescribe rules relating to the standards of value to be used by assessing authorities in the determination, assessment and equalization of actual value for assessment purposes of all property subject to taxation in the state, and such rules shall be adhered to and followed by all assessing authorities.

3. To prescribe and promulgate all forms of books and forms to be used in the listing and assessment of property, and on or before November 1 of each year shall furnish to the county auditor of each county such prescribed forms of assessment rolls and other forms to properly list and assess all property subject to taxation in each county. The department of revenue shall also from time to time prepare and furnish in like manner forms for any and all other blanks, memoranda or instructions which the director deems necessary or expedient for the use or guidance of any of the officers over which the director is authorized by law to exercise supervision.

4. To confer with, advise, and direct boards of supervisors, boards of review, and others obligated by law to make levies and assessments, as to their duties under the laws.

5. To direct proceedings, actions, and prosecutions to be instituted for the enforcement of the laws relating to the penalties, liabilities, and punishment of public officers, and officers or agents of corporations, and other persons or corporations, for failure or neglect to comply with the provisions of the statutes governing the return, assessment and taxation of property; to make or cause to be made complaints against members of boards of review, boards of supervisors or other assessing, reviewing, or taxing officers for official misconduct or neglect of duty. Provided, that employees of the department of revenue shall not during their regular hours of employment engage in the preparation of tax returns for individuals, except in connection with a regular audit thereof.

6. To require city, township, school districts, county, state, or other public officers to report information as to the assessment of property and collection of taxes and such other information as may be needful or desirable in the work of the department in such form and upon such blanks as the director may prescribe.

The director shall require all county recorders and city and county assessors to prepare a quarterly report in the manner and form to be prescribed by the director showing for each warranty deed or contract of sale of real estate, divided between rural and urban, during the last completed quarter the amount of revenue stamps, sale price or consideration, and the equalized value at which that property was assessed that year. This report with such further information as may be required by the director shall be submitted to the department within sixty days after the end of each quarter. The department shall prepare annual summaries of such records of the ratio of assessments to actual sales prices for all counties, and for cities having city assessors, and such information for the preceding year shall be available for public inspection by May 1.

7. To hold public hearings either at the seat of government or elsewhere in the state, and tax the costs thereof; to summon and compel witnesses to appear and give testimony, to administer oaths to said witnesses, and to compel said witnesses to produce for examination records, books, papers, and documents relating to any matter which the director shall have the authority to investigate or determine. Provided, however, that no bank or trust company or its officers or employees shall be required to divulge knowledge concerning the property of any person when such knowledge was obtained through information imparted as a part of a business transaction with or for such person and in the usual and ordinary course of business of said bank or trust company, and was necessary and proper to the discharge of the duty of said bank or trust company in relation to such business transaction. This proviso shall be additional to other provisions of the law relating to confidential and privileged communications.

8. To cause the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the state, or absent therefrom, to be taken either on written or oral interrogatories, and the clerk of the district court of any county shall upon the order of the director issue a commission for the taking of such depositions. The proceedings therefor shall be the same as the proceedings for the taking of depositions in the district court so far as applicable.

9. To investigate the work and methods of boards of review, boards of supervisors, or other public officers, in the assessment, equalization, and taxation of all kinds of property, and for that purpose the director or employees of the department may visit the counties or localities when deemed necessary so to do.

10. To require any board of review at any time after its adjournment to reconvene and to make such orders as the director shall determine are just and necessary; to direct and order any board of review to raise or lower the valuation of the property, real or personal, in any township, city, or taxing district, to order and direct any board of review to raise or lower the valuation of any class or classes of property in any township, city, or taxing district, and generally to make any order or direction to any board of review as to the valuation of any property, or any class of property, in any township, city, county, or taxing district, which in the judgment of the director may seem just and necessary, to the end that all property shall be valued and assessed in the manner and according to the real intent of the law. For the purpose of this paragraph the words "taxing district" include drainage districts and levee districts.

The director may correct errors or obvious injustices in the assessment of any individual property, but the director shall not reduce the valuation of any individual property except upon the recommendation of the local board of review and no order of the director affecting any valuation shall be retroactive as to any reduction or increase in taxes payable prior to January 1 of the year in which such order is issued, or prior to September 1 of the preceding year in cities under special charter which collect their own municipal levies. Judicial review of the actions of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The director may order made effective reassessments or revaluations in any taxing district for any taxing year or years and the director may in any year order uniform increases or decreases in valuation of all property or upon any class of property within any taxing district or any area within such taxing district, such orders to be effective in the year specified by the director. For the purpose of this paragraph the words "taxing district" include drainage districts and levee districts.

11. To carefully examine into all cases where evasion or violation of the law for assessment and taxation of property is alleged, complained of, or discovered, and to ascertain wherein existing laws are defective or are improperly or negligently administered, and cause to be instituted such proceedings as will remedy improper or negligent administration of the laws relating to the assessment or taxation of property.

12. To make a summary of the tax situation in the state, setting out the amount of moneys raised by both direct and indirect taxation; and also to formulate and recommend legislation for the better administration of the fiscal laws so as to secure just and equal taxation. To recommend such additions to and changes in the present system of taxation that in the director's judgment are for the best interest of the state and will eliminate the necessity of any levy for state purposes.

13. To transmit biennially to the governor and to each member and member-elect of the legislature, thirty days before the meeting of the legislature, the report of the director, covering the subject of assessment and taxation, the result of the investigation of the director, recommendations for improvement in the system of taxation in the state, together with such measures as may be formulated for the consideration of the legislature.

14. To publish in pamphlet form the revenue laws of the state and distribute them to the county auditors, assessors, and boards of review.

15. To procure in such manner as the director may determine any information pertaining to the discovery of property which is subject to taxation in this state, and which may be obtained from the records of another state, and may furnish to the board or proper officers of another state, any information pertaining to the discovery of property which is subject to taxation in such state as disclosed by the records in this state.

16. To call upon any state department or institution for technical advice and data which may be of value in connection with the work of assessment and taxation.

17. To certify to the state comptroller on January 1 of each year the aggregate of each state tax for each county for said year.

18. To prepare and issue a state appraisal manual which each county and city assessor shall use in assessing and valuing all classes of property in the state. The appraisal manual shall be continuously revised and the manual and revisions shall be issued to the county and city assessors in such form and manner as prescribed by the director.

19. To issue rules as are necessary, subject to the provisions of chapter 17A, to provide for the uniform application of the exemptions provided in section 427.1 in all assessor jurisdictions in the state.

20. To subpoena from property owners and taxpayers any and all records and documents necessary to assist the department in the determination of the fair market value of industrial real estate. The burden of showing reasonable cause to believe that the documents or records sought by the subpoena are necessary to assist the department under this subsection shall be upon the director.

The provisions of sections 17A.10 to 17A.18 relating to contested cases shall not apply to any matters involving the equalization of valuations of classes of property as authorized by this chapter and chapter 441. This exemption shall not apply to a hearing before the state board of tax review.

21. To establish and maintain a procedure to set off against a debtor's income tax refund or rebate any debt, which is assigned to the department of social services or which the child support recovery unit is attempting to collect on behalf of any individual not eligible as a public assistance recipient, which has accrued through written contract, subrogation, or court judgment and which is in the form of a liquidated sum due and owing for the care, support or maintenance of a child. The procedure shall meet the following conditions:

a. Before setoff all outstanding tax liabilities collectible by the department of revenue shall be satisfied except that no portion of a refund or rebate shall be credited against any tax liabilities which are not yet due.

b. Before setoff the child support recovery unit established pursuant to section 252B.2 shall obtain and forward to the department of revenue the full name and social security number of the debtor. The department of revenue shall co-operate in the exchange of relevant information with the child support recovery unit as provided in section 252B.9.

c. The child support recovery unit shall, at least annually, submit to the department of revenue for setoff the above-mentioned debts, which are at least fifty dollars, on a date or dates to be specified by the department of social services by rule.

d. Upon submission of a claim the department of revenue shall notify the child support recovery unit whether the debtor is entitled to a refund or rebate of at least fifty dollars and if so entitled shall notify the unit of the amount of the refund or rebate and of the debtor's address on the income tax return.

e. Upon notice of entitlement to a refund or rebate the child support recovery unit shall send written notification to the debtor, and a copy of the notice to the department of revenue, of the unit's assertion of its rights or the rights of an individual not eligible as a public assistance recipient to all or a portion of the debtor's refund or rebate and the entitlement to recover the debt through the setoff procedure, the basis of the assertion, the opportunity to request that a joint income tax refund or rebate be divided between spouses, the debtor's opportunity to give written notice of intent to contest the claim, and the fact that failure to contest the claim by written application for a hearing will result in a waiver of the opportunity to contest the claim, causing final setoff by default. The child support recovery unit shall upon application grant a hearing pursuant to chapter 17A. Any appeal taken from the decision of a hearing officer and any subsequent appeals shall be taken pursuant to chapter 17A.

f. Upon the timely request of a debtor or a debtor's spouse to the child support recovery unit and upon receipt of the full name and social security number of the debtor's spouse, the unit shall notify the department of revenue of the request to divide a joint income tax refund or rebate. The department of revenue shall upon receipt of the notice divide a joint income tax refund or rebate between the debtor and the debtor's spouse in proportion to each spouse's net income as determined under section 422.7.

g. The department of revenue shall, after notice has been sent to the debtor by the child support recovery unit, set off the above-mentioned debt against the debtor's income tax refund or rebate if both the debt and the refund or rebate are at least fifty dollars. However, if a debtor has made all current child support payments in accordance with a court order for the twelve months preceding the proposed setoff and has regularly made delinquent child support payments during those twelve months, the child support recovery unit shall notify the department of revenue not to setoff the debt against the debtor's income tax refund or rebate. The department shall refund any balance of the income tax refund or rebate to the debtor. The department of revenue shall periodically transfer the amount set off to the child support recovery unit. If the debtor gives written notice of intent to contest the claim the department of social services shall hold the refund or rebate until final disposition of the contested claim pursuant to chapter 17A or by court judgment. The child support recovery unit shall notify the debtor in writing upon completion of setoff. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §421.25]

421.30 Reassessment expense fund.

1. There is created in the office of the treasurer of state a "reassessment expense fund" for the purpose of providing loans to a city and county conference board for conducting reassessments of property. There is appropriated to the reassessment expense fund from the general fund of the state from any unappropriated funds in the general fund of the state such funds as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, section 421.17, subsection 20, and the last paragraph of section 441.19, subject to the approval of the state comptroller. Repayment of loans shall be credited to the fund.

2. There is created a reassessment expense fund committee composed of the director of revenue, the state comptroller, and the chairperson of the state board of tax review. The committee shall maintain and administer the reassessment expense fund created pursuant to subsection 1.

3. Within sixty days of the receipt of an order of the director to reassess all or part of the property in an assessing jurisdiction, the conference board and assessor of the assessing jurisdiction shall submit to the director a detailed proposal for complying with the order. The proposal shall contain specifications for the completion of the reassessment project, the financial condition of the assessing jurisdiction, and any other information deemed necessary by the director.

4. Each proposal submitted pursuant to subsection 3 shall be reviewed by the director to determine if the proposal will result in compliance with the reassessment order. The director shall approve or disapprove each proposal and shall notify the appropriate conference board and assessor of the decision. If the director determines the proposal will not result in compliance with the reassessment order, the notice shall contain the reasons for the director's determination and an explanation as to how the proposal shall be corrected in order to be approved by the director.

5. If the notice to the conference board and the assessor states that the director has determined that the proposal will result in compliance with the reassessment order, the conference board may, if it lacks the financial resources to comply in all respects with the reassessment order, file with the committee an application for a loan from the reassessment expense fund. The loan to the conference board may be for all or part of the funds required to comply with the reassessment order. The committee shall approve, amend and approve, or reject each application and notify the conference board and assessor of its decision. If the application is amended or rejected, the notice shall contain the committee's reasons for the amendment or rejection.

6. Upon the committee's approval of the advancement of funds from the reassessment expense fund, the committee shall certify to the appropriate conference board and assessor a schedule for disbursing the loan to the assessing jurisdiction's appraiser fund authorized by section 441.50. The schedule shall provide for the disbursement of funds over the period of the reassessment project, except that ten percent of the funds shall not be disbursed until the project is completed. The conference board shall at its next opportunity levy pursuant to section 441.50 sufficient funds for purposes of repaying the loan made from the reassessment expense fund. The amount levied shall be sufficient to repay the loan in semiannual installments during the course of the reappraisal project as specified by a repayment schedule established by the committee. The repayment schedule shall provide for repayment of the loan not later than one year following the completion of the reassessment. Semiannual repayments of the proceeds of the loan shall be made on or before December 1 and May 1 of each year.

7. Any reassessment of property ordered by the director, whether or not undertaken with funds provided in this section, shall be conducted by the assessor in accordance with the Iowa real property appraisal manual issued under authority of section 421.17, subsection 18, the assessment laws of this state, and any reassessment order issued by the director under authority of this chapter. The conference board may employ appraisers or other expert help to assist the assessor in completing the reassessment, except that no conference board receiving funds under this section shall enter into a contract for the reassessment of property until the board's proposal for completing the reassessment is approved. The director shall supervise the conduct of all reassessments of property and issue to the assessor or conference board such instructions, directives, or orders as are necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section and the assessment laws of this state.

8. The assessor of each assessing jurisdiction receiving funds under this section shall submit to the director, in the form and manner prescribed by the director, reports showing the progress of the reassessment. If the director determines that a reassessment undertaken with funds provided in this section is not being conducted in accordance with the proposal submitted pursuant to subsection 3, the director shall notify the appropriate conference board and assessor and the committee of the director's determination. The notice shall contain an explanation as to how the deficiencies in the reassessment may be corrected. If the deficiencies noted by the director are not corrected within sixty days of the date the assessor and conference board are notified of their existence, the committee shall suspend payments from the reassessment expense fund until the director notifies the committee that the deficiencies have been corrected.

9. Funds obtained under this section shall be used only to conduct reassessments of property as approved and conducted pursuant to this section. [C79,§421.30]

18.** a. "Annual inflation factor" means an index, expressed as a percentage, determined by the department each year to reflect the purchasing power of the dollar as a result of inflation during the preceding calendar year. For the 1981 calendar year, "annual inflation factor" means an index, expressed as a percentage, determined by the department by October 15 of the calendar year preceding the calendar year for which the factor is determined to reflect the purchasing power of the dollar as a result of inflation during the fiscal year ending in the calendar year preceding the calendar year for which the factor is determined. In determining the annual inflation factor, the department shall use the annual percent change, but not less than zero percent, in the implicit price deflator for the gross national product computed for the whole calendar year or for the second quarter of the calendar year, in the case of the annual inflation factor for the 1981 calendar year, by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States department of commerce and shall add two-fourths for the 1980 and 1981 calendar years of that percent change to one hundred percent. The annual inflation factor for the 1979 calendar year is one hundred two point three percent. The annual inflation factor shall not be less than one hundred percent.

b. "Cumulative inflation factor" means the product of the annual inflation factor for the 1978 calendar year and all annual inflation factors for subsequent calendar years as determined pursuant to this subsection. The cumulative inflation factor applies to all tax years beginning on or after January 1 of the calendar year for which the latest annual inflation factor has been determined. For calendar years beginning on or after January 1, 1982, the cumulative inflation factor shall be one hundred percent.

c. The annual inflation factor for the 1978 calendar year is one hundred percent.

d. Notwithstanding the computation of the annual inflation factor under paragraph "a" of this subsection, the annual inflation factor is one hundred percent for any calendar year in which the unobligated state general fund balance on June 30 as certified by the state comptroller by September 10 of the fiscal year beginning in that calendar year is less than sixty million dollars. However, for the 1981 calendar year, the annual inflation factor is one hundred percent for any calendar year if the unobligated state general fund balance on June 30 of the calendar year preceding the calendar year for which the factor is determined, as certified by the state comptroller by October 10, is less than sixty million dollars. [C35,§6943-f4; C39,§6943.036; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.4; 68GA, ch 92,§1, 4, ch 93,§1, ch 1129, §1, ch 1130,§1]

*Amendments retroactive to January 1, 1978 and January 1, 1979; See 68GA, ch 92, §4, ch 1130, §10

**Amendment retroactive to January 1, 1979 for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1979; 68GA, ch 93, §13

422.5 Tax imposed—applicable to federal employees. A tax is hereby imposed upon every resident of the state, and upon that part of the taxable income of any nonresident which is derived from any property, trust, or other source within this state, including any business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on within this state, which tax shall be levied, collected, and paid annually upon and with respect to his entire taxable income as herein defined at rates as follows:

1. On the first one thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, one-half of one percent.
2. On the second thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, one and one-fourth percent.
3. On the third thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, two and three-fourths percent.
4. On the fourth thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, three and one-half percent.

5. On the fifth, sixth, and seventh thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, five percent.

6. On the eighth and ninth thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, six percent.

7. On the tenth through the fifteenth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, seven percent.

8. On the sixteenth through the twentieth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, eight percent.

9. On the twenty-first through the twenty-fifth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, nine percent.

10. On the twenty-sixth through the thirtieth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, ten percent.

11. On the thirty-first through the fortieth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, eleven percent.

12. On the forty-first through the seventy-fifth thousand dollars of taxable income or any part thereof, twelve percent.

13. On all taxable income over seventy-five thousand dollars, thirteen percent.

*However, no tax shall be imposed on any resident or nonresident whose net income, as defined in section 422.7, is five thousand dollars or less; but in the event that the payment of tax under this division would reduce the net income to less than five thousand dollars, then the tax shall be reduced to that amount which would result in allowing the taxpayer to retain a net income of five thousand dollars. The preceding sentence does not apply to estates or trusts. For the purpose of this paragraph, the entire net income, including any part thereof not allocated to Iowa, shall be taken into account. If the combined net income of a husband and wife exceeds five thousand dollars, neither of them shall receive the benefit of this paragraph, and it is immaterial whether they file a joint return or separate returns. A person who is claimed as a dependent by another person as defined in section 422.12 shall not receive the benefit of this paragraph if the person claiming the dependent has net income exceeding five thousand dollars or the person claiming the dependent and the person's spouse have combined net income exceeding five thousand dollars.

A resident of Iowa who is on active duty in the armed forces of the United States, as defined in Title 10, United States Code, section 101, for more than six continuous months, shall not include any income received for such service performed on or after January 1, 1969, or prior to January 1, 1977, in computing the tax imposed by this section.

The tax herein levied shall be computed and collected as hereinafter provided.

The provisions of this division shall apply to all salaries received by federal officials or employees of the United States government as provided for herein.

*A person who is disabled, is sixty-two years of age or older or is the surviving spouse of an individual or survivor having an insurable interest in an individual who would have qualified for the exemption under this paragraph for this tax year and receives one or more annuities from the United States civil service retirement and disability trust fund, and whose net income, as defined in section 422.7, is sufficient to require that the tax be imposed upon it under this section, may determine final taxable income for purposes of imposition of the tax by excluding the amount of annuities received from the United States civil service retirement and disability trust fund, which are not already excluded in determining net income, as defined in section 422.7, up to a maximum each tax year of five thousand five hundred dollars for a person who files a separate state income tax return and eight thousand dollars total for a husband and wife who file a joint state income tax return. However, a surviving spouse who is not disabled or sixty-two years of age or older can only exclude the amount of annuities received as a result of the death of his or her spouse. The amount of the exemption shall be reduced by the amount of any social security benefits received. For the purpose of this section, the amount of annuities received from the United States civil service retirement and disability trust fund taxable under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be included in net income for purposes of determining eligibility under the five thousand dollar or less exclusion.

Upon determination of the latest cumulative inflation factor, the director of revenue shall multiply each dollar amount set forth in subsections 1 to 13 of this section and each dollar amount specified in this paragraph as the maximum amount of annuities received which may be excluded in determining final taxable income by this cumulative inflation factor, shall round off the resulting product to the nearest one dollar and incorporate the result into the income tax forms and instructions for each tax year. *Amendments retroactive to January 1, 1979 for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1979, 68GA, ch 93, §13

The taxes imposed under this Act [67GA, ch 120] shall be terminated upon either of two conditions

1 When universal compulsory military service is reinstated by the United States Congress, or

2 When a state of war is declared to exist by the United States Congress

422.6 Income from estates or trusts. The tax imposed by section 422.5 shall apply to and become a charge against estates and trusts with respect to their taxable income, and the rates shall be the same as those applicable to individuals. The fiduciary shall be responsible for making the return of income for the estate or trust for which he acts, whether such income be taxable to the estate or trust or to the beneficiaries thereon.

The beneficiary of a trust who receives an accumulation distribution shall be allowed credit without interest for the Iowa income taxes paid by the trust attributable to such accumulation distribution in a manner corresponding to the provisions for credit under the federal income tax relating to accumulation distributions as contained in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The trust shall not be entitled to a refund of taxes paid on the distributions. The trust shall maintain detailed records to verify the computation of the tax. [C35,§6943-f6; C39,§6943.038; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.6]

422.7 “Net income”—how computed. The term “net income” means the adjusted gross income as properly computed for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, with the following adjustments:

1. Subtract interest and dividends from federal securities.

2. Add interest and dividends from foreign securities and from securities of state and other political subdivisions exempt from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

3. Where the adjusted gross income includes capital gains or losses, or gains or losses from property other than capital assets, and such gains or losses have been determined by using a basis established prior to January 1, 1934, an adjustment may be made, under rules prescribed by the director, to reflect the difference resulting from the use of a basis of cost or January 1, 1934, fair market value, less depreciation allowed or allowable, whichever is higher. Provided that the basis shall be fair market value as of January 1, 1955, less depreciation allowed or allowable, in the case of property acquired prior to that date if use of a prior basis is declared to be invalid.

4. Subtract installment payments received by a beneficiary under an annuity which was purchased under an employee’s pension or retirement plan when the commuted value of said installments has been included as a part of the decedent employee’s estate for Iowa inheritance tax purposes.

5. Add the amount by which the basis of qualified depreciable property is required to be increased for depreciation purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1964 to the extent that such amount equals the net amount of the special deduction allowed on the basis of the amount by which the depreciable basis of such qualified property was required to be reduced for depreciation purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1962. The “net amount of the special deduction” shall be computed by taking the sum of the amounts by which the basis of qualified property was required to be decreased for depreciation purposes for the years 1962 and 1963 and subtracting from it the sum of the amounts by which the basis of such property was required to be increased, prior to 1964, for depreciation or disposition purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1962.

6. Individual taxpayers and married taxpayers who file a joint federal income tax return and who elect to file a joint return, separate returns or separate filing on a combined return for Iowa income tax purposes, may avail themselves of the sick-pay exclusion and shall compute the amount of sick-pay exclusion subject to the limitations for joint federal income tax return filers provided by section 105(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

7. Add to the taxable income of trusts, that portion of trust income excluded from federal taxable income under section 641(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

8. Married taxpayers who file a joint federal income tax return and who elect to file separate returns or separate filing on a combined return for Iowa income tax purposes, may avail themselves of the additional first-year depreciation and capital loss provisions of sections 179(a) and 1211(b) respectively of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and shall compute the amount of additional first-year depreciation and capital loss subject to the limitations for joint federal income tax return filers provided by sections 179(b) and 1211(b) respectively of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

9. Subtract the amount of the work incentive programs credit allowable for the taxable year under section 40 or the jobs tax credit allowable for the tax year under section 44B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent that the credit increased federal adjusted gross income.

Amendment retroactive to January 1, 1979, see 68GA, ch 1130, §10

10. Married taxpayers, who file a joint federal income tax return and who elect to file separate returns or separate filing on a combined return for state income tax purposes, shall include in net income any unemployment compensation benefits received subject to the limitations for joint federal income tax return filers provided in section 85 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Amendment retroactive to January 1, 1979, see 68GA, ch 1130, §10 [C35,§6943-f7; C39,§6943.039; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.7; 68GA, ch 1130,§2, 3]

422.8 Allocation of income earned in Iowa and other states. Under rules prescribed by the director, net income of individuals, estates and trusts shall be allocated as follows:

1. The amount of income tax paid to another state or foreign country by a resident taxpayer of this state on income derived from sources in another state or foreign country shall be allowed as a credit against the tax computed under the provisions of this chapter, except that the credit shall not exceed what the amount of the Iowa tax would have been on the same income which was taxed by the other state or foreign country. The limitation on this credit shall be computed according to the following formula: Income earned in another state or country and taxed by such other state or country shall be divided by the total income of the taxpayer resident in Iowa. Said quotient multiplied times the net Iowa tax as determined on the total income of the taxpayer as if entirely earned in Iowa shall be the maximum tax credit against the Iowa net tax.

2. In the case of nonresident taxpayers, if any net income is received from a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on partly within and partly without the state of Iowa, only the portion of said net income as is fairly and equitably attributable to that part of the business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on within the state of Iowa shall be allocated to Iowa and income from any property, trust, estate or other source within Iowa shall be allocated to Iowa, except that annuities, interest on bank deposits and interest-bearing obligations, and dividends shall be allocated to Iowa only to the extent to which they are derived from a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on within the state of Iowa. However, income received by an individual who is a resident of another state shall not be allocated to Iowa if the income is subject to an income tax imposed by the state where the individual resides, and if the state of residence allows a similar exclusion for income received in that state by residents of Iowa. The director shall designate the states which allow a similar exclusion for income received by residents of Iowa, and may enter into agreements with other states to provide that similar exclusions will be allowed, and to provide suitable withholding requirements in each state, in order to implement the exclusions.

3. Taxable income of resident and nonresident estates and trusts shall be allocated in the same manner as individuals. [C35,§6943-f8; C39,§6943.040, 6943.050; C46, 50, 54, 58,§422.8, 422.18; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.8]

Referred to in §422.9(3, 5), 422.12, 422.16[9, 11(e)]

422.9 Deductions from net income. In computing taxable income of individuals, there shall be deducted from net income the larger of the following amounts:

*1. An optional standard deduction of fifteen percent of the net income after deduction of federal income tax, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars for a married person who files separately, one thousand two hundred dollars for a single person or three thousand dollars for a husband and wife who file a joint return, a surviving spouse as defined in section 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or an unmarried head of household as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

2. The total of contributions, interest, taxes, medical expense, nonbusiness losses and miscellaneous expenses deductible for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, with the following adjustments:

a. Subtract the deduction for Iowa income taxes.

b. Add the amount of federal income taxes paid or accrued as the case may be, during the tax year, adjusted by any federal income tax refunds. Provided, however, that where married persons, who have filed a joint federal income tax return, file separately, such total shall be divided between them according to the portion thereof paid or accrued, as the case may be, by each.

c. Add the amount donated as a political contribution as defined in section 41(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not to exceed one hundred dollars or two hundred dollars in the case of a married couple filing a joint return.

d. Add the amount by which expenses paid or incurred in connection with the adoption of a child by the taxpayer exceed three percent of the net income of the taxpayer, or of the taxpayer and spouse in the case of a joint return. The expenses may include medical and hospital expenses of the natural mother which are incident to the child's birth and are paid by the taxpayer, welfare agency fees, legal fees, and all other fees and costs relating to the adoption of a child if the child is placed by a child-placing agency licensed under chapter 238 or by a person making an independent placement according to the provisions of chapter 600.

e. Add an additional deduction for mileage incurred by the taxpayer in voluntary work for a charitable organization consisting of the excess of the state employee mileage reimbursement over the amount deductible for federal income tax purposes. The deduction shall be proven by the keeping of a contemporaneous diary by the person throughout the period of the voluntary work in the tax year.

Paragraph "e", Code 1979, repealed by 68GA, ch 1130, §4

3. If after applying all of the adjustments provided for in section 422.7, the allocation provisions of section 422.8 and the deductions allowable in this section subject to the modifications provided in section 172(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the taxable income results in a net operating loss, the net operating loss shall be deducted as follows:

a. The Iowa net operating loss shall be carried back three taxable years or to the taxable year in which the individual first earned income in Iowa whichever year is the later.

b. The Iowa net operating loss remaining after being carried back as required in paragraph "a" of this subsection or if not required to be carried back shall be carried forward seven taxable years.

c. If the election under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is made, the Iowa net operating loss shall be carried forward seven taxable years.

Amendment retroactive to January 1, 1979, see 68GA, ch 1130, §10

d. No portion of a net operating loss which was incurred without the state by a nonresident of this state shall be deducted.

e. Estates and trusts subject to tax under section 422.6 shall be subject to the above net operating loss provisions.

4. Where married persons file separately, both must use the optional standard deduction if either elects to use it.

5. A taxpayer affected by section 422.8 shall, if the optional standard deduction is not used, be permitted to deduct only such portion of the total referred to in subsection 2 above as is fairly and equitably allocable to Iowa under the rules prescribed by the director. [C35,§6943-f9; C39,§6943.041; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.9; 68GA, ch 93,§5, ch 1130,§4, 5, ch 1132,§1]

422.10 and 422.11 Repealed by 56GA, ch 208, §9.

422.12 Deductions from computed tax. There shall be deducted from but not to exceed the tax, after the same shall have been computed as provided in this division, the following:

1. A personal exemption credit in the following amounts:

a. For a single individual, or a married person filing a separate return, fifteen dollars.

b. For a head of household, or a husband and wife filing a joint return, thirty dollars.

c. For each dependent, an additional ten dollars. As used in this section, the term "dependent" shall have the same meaning as provided by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

d. For a single individual, husband, wife or head of household, an additional exemption of fifteen dollars for each of said individuals who has attained the age of sixty-five years before the close of the tax year or on the first day following the end of the tax year.

e. For a single individual, husband, wife or head of household, an additional exemption of fifteen dollars for each of said individuals who is blind at the close of the tax year. For the purposes of this paragraph, an individual is blind only if the individual's central visual acuity does not exceed twenty-two hundredths in the better eye with correcting lenses, or if the individual's visual acuity is greater than twenty-two hundredths but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than twenty degrees.

f. For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1979 and for each of the next four succeeding tax years, the amount of the personal exemption credits provided in this subsection shall be increased in the amount of one dollar for each tax year, except that the personal exemption credit allowed under paragraph "b" of this subsection shall be increased in the amount of two dollars for each tax year. The personal exemption credits determined pursuant to this paragraph for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1983 shall continue for succeeding tax years.

2. A child and dependent care credit equal to five percent of the qualifying employment-related expenses and subject to the same limitations provided by section 44A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Married taxpayers electing to file separate returns or filing separately on a combined return must allocate the child and dependent care credit to each spouse in the proportion that his or her respective net income bears to the total combined net income. Taxpayers affected by the allocation provisions of section 422.8 shall be permitted a deduction for the credit only in such amount as is fairly and equitably allocable to Iowa under rules prescribed by the director.

3. For the purpose of this section, the determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the close of the individual's tax year unless the individual's spouse dies during the individual's tax year, in which case the determination shall be made as of the date of the spouse's death. An individual legally separated from his or her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered married. #### 422.16 Withholding of income tax at source.

1. Every withholding agent as defined herein and every employer as defined herein and further defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, with respect to income tax collected at source, making payment of wages as defined herein to either a resident employee or employees, or a nonresident employee or employees, working in Iowa, shall deduct and withhold from such wages an amount which will approximate the employee's annual tax liability on a calendar year basis, calculated on the basis of tables to be prepared by the department and schedules or percentage rates, based on such wages, to be prescribed by the department. Every employee or other person shall declare to such employer or withholding agent the number of his personal exemptions and dependency exemptions or credits to be used in applying such tables and schedules or percentage rates, provided that no more such personal or dependency exemptions or credits may be declared by such employee or other person than the number to which he is entitled. Such claiming of such exemptions or credits in excess of entitlement shall constitute a misdemeanor.

Referred to in §422 17

2. Every withholding agent required to deduct and withhold tax under subsections 1 and 12 of this section shall, for each quarterly period, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each calendar quarterly period make a return on forms prescribed by the director and pay over to the department, in the form of remittances made payable to "Treasurer, State of Iowa", the tax required to be withheld, or the tax actually withheld, whichever is greater, under the provisions of subsections 1 and 12 hereof; provided, however, every withholding agent who withholds more than fifty dollars in any one month shall deposit with the department said sum, made out on a deposit form for the month in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the director. The said deposit form being due on or before the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding the month of withholding, except that no deposit shall be required for the amount withheld in the third month of the quarter but the total amount of withholding for the quarter shall be computed and that amount by which the aforementioned deposit fails to equal the total quarterly liability shall be due upon the filing of the quarterly report which shall be due within the month next succeeding the end of the quarter. If the director in any case has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in subsections 1 and 12 hereof is in jeopardy, the director may require the employer or withholding agent to make such return and pay such tax at any time, in accordance with section 422.30. The director may authorize incorporated banks and trust companies which are depositories or financial agents of the United States, or of this state, to receive any tax imposed under this chapter, in such manner, at such times and under such conditions as the director may prescribe; and the director shall prescribe the manner, times, and conditions under which the receipt of such tax by such banks and trust companies is to be treated as payment of such tax to the department.

3. Every withholding agent employing not more than two persons who expects to employ either or both of such persons for the full calendar year may, with respect to such persons, pay with the withholding tax return due for the first calendar quarter of the year the full amount of income taxes required to be withheld from the wages of such persons for the full calendar year. The amount to be paid shall be computed as if the employee were employed for the full calendar year for the same wages and with the same pay periods as prevailed during the first quarter of the year with respect to such employee. No such lump sum payment of withheld income tax shall be made without the written consent of all employees involved. The withholding agent shall be entitled to recover from the employee any part of such lump sum payment that represents an advance to the employee. If a withholding agent pays a lump sum with the first quarterly return he shall be excused from filing further quarterly returns for the calendar year involved unless he hires other or additional employees.

4. Every withholding agent who fails to withhold or pay to the department any sums required by this chapter to be withheld and paid, shall be personally, individually, and corporately liable therefor to the state of Iowa, and any sum or sums withheld in accordance with the provisions of subsections 1 and 12 hereof, shall be deemed to be held in trust for the state of Iowa.

5. In the event a withholding agent fails to withhold and pay over to the department any amount required to be withheld under subsections 1 and 12 of this section, such amount may be assessed against such employer or withholding agent in the same manner as prescribed for the assessment of income tax under the provisions of divisions II and VI of this chapter.

6. Whenever the director determines that any employer or withholding agent has failed to withhold or pay over to the department sums required to be withheld under subsections 1 and 12 of this section the unpaid amount thereof shall be a lien as defined in section 422.26, shall attach to the property of said employer or withholding agent as therein provided, and in all other respects the procedure with respect to such lien shall apply as set forth in said section 422.26.

7. Every withholding agent required to deduct and withhold a tax under subsections 1 and 12 of this section shall furnish to such employee, nonresident, or other person in respect of the remuneration paid by such employer or withholding agent to such employee, nonresident, or other person during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, in the case of employees, if the employee's employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, within thirty days from the day on which the last payment of wages is made, if requested by such employee, but not later than January 31 of the following year, a written statement showing the following:

a. The name and address of such employer or withholding agent, and the identification number of such employer or withholding agent.

b. The name of the employee, nonresident, or other person and his federal social security account number, together with the last known address of such employee, nonresident, or other person to whom wages have been paid during such period.

c. The gross amount of wages, or other taxable income, paid to the employee, nonresident, or other person.

d. The total amount deducted and withheld as tax under the provisions of subsections 1 and 12 of this section.

e. The total amount of federal income tax withheld.

The statements required to be furnished by this subsection in respect of any wages or other taxable Iowa income shall be in such form or forms as the director may, by regulation, prescribe.

8. An employer or withholding agent shall be liable for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld or the amount actually deducted, whichever is greater, under subsections 1 and 12 of this section; and any amount deducted and withheld as tax under subsections 1 and 12 of this section during any calendar year upon the wages of any employee, nonresident, or other person shall be allowed as a credit to the employee, nonresident, or other person against the tax imposed by section 422.5, irrespective of whether or not such tax has been, or will be, paid over by the employer or withholding agent to the department as provided by this chapter.

9. The amount of any overpayment of the individual income tax liability of the employee taxpayer, nonresident, or other person which may result from the withholding and payment of withheld tax by the employer or withholding agent to the department under subsections 1 and 12 hereof, as compared to the individual income tax liability of the employee taxpayer, nonresident, or other person properly and correctly determined under the provisions of section

422.4, to and including section 422.25, may be credited against any income tax or installment thereof then due the state of Iowa and any balance of one dollar or more shall be refunded to the employee taxpayer, nonresident or other person with interest at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month or fraction of a month, such interest to begin to accrue thirty days after the date the return was due to be filed or was filed, whichever is the later date. Amounts less than one dollar shall be refunded to the taxpayer, nonresident, or other person only upon written application, in accordance with section 422.73, only if such application is filed within twelve months after the due date of the return. Refunds in the amount of one dollar or more provided for by this subsection shall be paid by the treasurer of state by means of warrants drawn by the comptroller at the direction of the director, or an authorized employee of the department, and the taxpayer's return of income shall constitute a claim for refund for this purpose, except in respect to amounts of less than one dollar. There is hereby appropriated, out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

10. a. Any employer or withholding agent required under the provisions of this chapter to furnish a statement required by this chapter who willfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement, or who willfully fails to furnish such statement shall, for each such failure, be subject to a civil penalty of one hundred dollars, such penalty to be in addition to any criminal penalty otherwise provided by the Code.

b. Any employer or withholding agent required under the provisions of this chapter to withhold taxes on wages or other taxable Iowa income subject to this chapter who fails to file a return for the withholding of tax with the department of revenue on or before the due date, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause, shall be subject to a penalty determined by adding to the amount required to be shown as tax due on the return five percent of the amount of the tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. If any person or withholding agent fails to remit the tax due with the filing of the return on or before the due date, or fails to pay any amount of any tax required to be shown on the return, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax due, if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. When penalties are applicable for failure to file a return and failure to pay the tax due or required on the return, the penalty provision for failure to file shall be in lieu of the penalty provision for failure to pay the tax due or required on the return. The taxpayer shall also pay interest on the tax or additional tax at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the return was required to be filed. The penalty and interest shall become a part of the tax due from the withholding agent.

c. If any withholding agent, being a domestic or foreign corporation, required under the provisions of this section to withhold on wages or other taxable Iowa income subject to this chapter, fails to withhold the amounts required to be withheld, make the required returns or remit to the department the amounts withheld, the director may, having exhausted all other means of enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, certify such fact or facts to the secretary of state, who shall thereupon cancel the articles of incorporation or certificate of authority (as the case may be) of such corporation, and the rights of such corporation to carry on business in the state of Iowa shall thereupon cease. The secretary of state shall immediately notify by registered mail such domestic or foreign corporation of the action taken by him. The provisions of section 422.40, subsection 3, shall be applicable.

d. The department shall upon request of any fiduciary furnish said fiduciary with a certificate of acquittance showing that no liability as a withholding agent exists with respect to the estate or trust for which said fiduciary acts, provided the department has determined that there is no such liability.

11. a. Every person or married couple filing a joint return shall make a declaration of estimated tax if his or their Iowa income tax attributable to income other than wages subject to withholding can reasonably be expected to amount to fifty dollars or more for the taxable year, except that, in the cases of farmers and fishermen, the exceptions provided in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 with respect to such declarations shall apply. The declaration provided for herein shall be filed on or before the last day of the fourth month of the taxpayer's tax year for which such declaration is filed, in such form as the director may require by regulations. The estimated tax shall be paid in quarterly installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of filing the declaration. The other installments shall be paid on or before June 30, September 30, and January 31. However, at the election of the person or married couple filing jointly, any installment of the estimated tax may be paid prior to the date prescribed for its payment. Whenever a person or married couple filing a joint return have reason to believe that his or their Iowa income tax may increase or decrease, either for purposes of meeting the requirement to file a declaration of estimated tax or for the purpose of increasing or decreasing such declaration, an amended estimate shall be filed by him or them to reflect such increase or decrease in estimated Iowa income tax.

b. In the case of persons or married couples filing jointly, the total balance of the tax payable after credits for taxes paid through withholding, as provided in subsection 1 of this section, or through declaration and payment of estimated tax, or a combination of such withholding and declaration of estimated tax payments, as provided herein, shall be due and payable on or before April 30, next following the close of the calendar year, or if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on or before the last day of the fourth month next following the close of such fiscal year.

c. The declaration provided for in this section may be filed or amended during the taxable year under regulations prescribed by the director.

d. If a taxpayer is unable to make his own declaration, the declaration may be made by a duly authorized agent, or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer.

e. Any amount of tax paid on a declaration of estimated tax shall be a credit against the amount of tax found payable on a final, completed return, as provided in subsection 9 hereof, relating to the credit for the tax withheld against the tax found payable on a return properly and correctly prepared under the provisions of section 422.5, to and including section 422.25, and any overpayment of one dollar or more shall be refunded to the taxpayer and such return shall constitute a claim for refund for this purpose. Amounts less than one dollar shall be refunded to the taxpayer only upon written application in accordance with section 422.74, but only if such application is filed within twelve months after the due date for the return. The method provided by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for determining what shall be applicable to the addition to tax for underpayment of the tax payable shall apply to persons required to file declarations and make payments of estimated tax under the provisions of this section except the amount to be added to the tax for underpayment of estimated tax shall be an amount determined at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month. This addition to tax specified for underpayment of the tax payable shall not be subject to waiver provisions relating to reasonable cause. Underpayment of estimated tax shall be determined in the same manner as provided under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the exceptions therein provided shall also apply.

f. In lieu of claiming a refund, the taxpayer may elect to have the overpayment shown on his final, completed return for the taxable year credited to his tax liability for the following taxable year.

12. In the case of nonresidents having income subject to taxation by Iowa, but not subject to withholding of such tax under subsection 1 hereof, withholding agents shall withhold from such income at the same rate as provided in subsection 1 hereof, and such withholding agents and such nonresidents shall be subject to the provisions of this section, according to the context, except that such withholding agents may be absolved of such requirement to withhold taxes from such nonresident's income upon receipt of a certificate from the department issued in accordance with the provisions of section 422.17, as hereby amended. In the case of nonresidents having income from a trade or business carried on by them in whole or in part within the state of Iowa, such nonresident shall be considered to be subject to the provisions of subsection 12 hereof unless such trade or business is of such nature that the business entity itself, as a withholding agent, is required to and does withhold Iowa income tax from the distributions made to such nonresident from such trade or business.

13. The director shall enter into an agreement with the secretary of the treasury of the United States with respect to withholding of income tax as provided by this chapter, pursuant to an Act of Congress, section 1207 of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, Public Law 94-455, amending title 5, section 5517 of the United States Code.

14. The director may, when necessary and advisable in order to secure the collection of the tax required to be deducted and withheld or the amount actually deducted, whichever is greater, require a non-resident employer or withholding agent to file with the director a bond, issued by a surety company authorized to conduct business in this state and approved by the insurance commissioner as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as the director may fix, to secure the payment of the tax and penalty due or which may become due. In lieu of the bond, securities shall be kept in the custody of the department and may be sold by the director at public or private sale, without notice to the depositor, if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax and penalty due. Upon any such sale, any surplus above the amounts due under this section shall be returned to the nonresident employer or withholding agent who deposited the securities. [C39,§6943.048; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.16; 68GA, ch 1113,§2]

422.17 Certificate issued by department to make payments without withholding. Any nonresident whose Iowa income is not subject to section 422.16, subsection 1, in whole or in part, and who elects to be governed by subsection 12 of said section to the extent that he makes such declaration and pays the entire amount of tax properly estimated thereunder on or before the last day of the fourth month of his tax year, for such year, may for each such year of each such election and such payment, be granted a certificate from the department authorizing each withholding agent, the income from whom the nonresident has included in his declaration of estimate and to the extent such income is included in such declaration of estimate, to make payments to such nonresident without withholding such tax from such payments. Withholding agents, whenever such payments exceed the amount estimated by such nonresident upon his declaration of estimate, as indicated upon such certificate, shall proceed to withhold tax in accordance with subsection 12 of section 422.16. [C39,§6943.049; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.17]

422.18 Repealed by 59GA, ch 228, §2.

422.19 Scope of nonresidents tax. The tax herein imposed upon certain income of nonresidents shall apply to all such income actually received by such nonresident regardless of when such income was earned. If the nonresident is reporting on the accrual basis it shall apply to all such income which first became available to the nonresident so that he might demand payment thereof regardless of when such income was earned. The duty to withhold herein imposed upon withholding agents shall apply only to amounts paid after June 30, 1937. [C39,§6943.051; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.19]

1. It shall be unlawful for any present or former officer or employee of the state to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever not provided by law to any person the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any income return, or to permit any income return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law; and it shall be unlawful for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law any income return, or any part thereof or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures appearing in any income return; and any person committing an offense against the foregoing provision shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. If the offender is an officer or employee of the state, such person shall also be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. Nothing herein shall prohibit turning over to duly authorized officers of the United States or tax officials of other states state information and income returns pursuant to agreement between the director and the secretary of the treasury of the United States or the secretary's delegate or pursuant to a reciprocal agreement with another state.

2. It shall be unlawful for any officer, employee, or agent, or former officer, employee, or agent of the state to disclose to any person, except as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, any federal tax return or return information as defined in section 6103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. It shall further be unlawful for any person to whom any federal tax return or return information, as defined in section 6103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, is disclosed in a manner unauthorized by subsection 1 of this section to thereafter print or publish in any manner not provided by law any such return or return information. Any person committing an offense against the foregoing provision shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.20; 68GA, ch 94,§1]

422.21 Form and time of return. Returns shall be in such form as the director may, from time to time, prescribe, and shall be filed with the department on or before the last day of the fourth month after the expiration of the tax year except that co-operative associations as defined in section 6072(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall file their returns on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year. In case of sickness, absence, or other disability, or whenever good cause exists, the director may allow further time for filing returns. The director shall cause to be prepared blank forms for said returns and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the state and to be furnished upon application, but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve the taxpayer from the obligations of making any return herein required. The department may as far as consistent with the provisions of the Code so draft income tax forms as to conform to the income tax forms of the internal revenue department of the United States government. Each return by a taxpayer upon whom a tax is imposed by section 422.5, subsection 7, shall show the county of the residence of the taxpayer.

The department shall make available to persons required to make personal income tax returns under the provisions of this chapter, and when such income is derived mainly from salaries and wages or from the operation of a business or profession, a form which shall take into consideration the normal deductions and credits allowable to any such taxpayer, and which will permit the computation of the tax payable without requiring the listing of specific deductions and credits. In arriving at schedules for payment of taxation under such forms the department shall as nearly as possible base such schedules upon a total of deductions and credits which will result in substantially the same payment as would have been made by such taxpayer were he to specifically list his allowable deductions and credits. In lieu of such return any taxpayer may elect to list permissible deductions and credits as provided by law. It is the intent and purpose of this provision to simplify the procedure of collection of personal income tax, and the director shall have the power in any case when deemed necessary or advisable to require any taxpayer, who has made a return in accordance with the schedule herein provided for, to make an additional return in which all deductions and credits are specifically listed. The department may revise the schedules adopted in connection with such simplified form whenever such revision is necessitated by changes in federal income tax laws, or to maintain the collection of substantially the same amounts from taxpayers as would be received were the specific listing of deductions and credits required.

The department shall provide space on the prescribed income tax form, wherein the taxpayer shall enter the name of the school district of his residence. Such place shall be indicated by prominent type. A nonresident taxpayer shall so indicate. If such information is not supplied on the tax return it shall be deemed an incompleting return.

The director shall determine for the 1979 and subsequent calendar years the annual and cumulative inflation factors for those calendar years to be applied to tax years beginning on or after January 1 of that calendar year. The director shall compute the new dollar amounts as specified therein to be adjusted in section 422.5 by the latest cumulative inflation factor and round off the result to the nearest one dollar. The annual and cumulative inflation factors determined by the director are not rules as defined in section 17A.2, subsection 7. [C35,§6943-f17; C39,§6943.053; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.21; 68GA, ch 93,§8, ch 1129,§3]

422.22 Supplementary returns. If the director shall be of the opinion that any taxpayer required under this division to file a return has failed to file such a return or to include in a return filed, either intentionally or through error, items of taxable income, the director may require from such taxpayer a return or supplementary return in such form as the director shall prescribe, of all the items of income which the taxpayer received during the year for which the return is made, whether or not taxable under the provisions of this division. If from a supplementary return, or otherwise, the director finds that any items of income, taxable under this division, have been omitted from the original return, the director may require the items so omitted to be added to the original return. Such supplementary return and the correction of the original return shall not relieve the taxpayer from any of the penalties to which he may be liable under any provisions of this division, whether or not the director required a return or a supplementary return under this section. [C35,§6943-f18; C39,§6943.054; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.22]

422.23 Return by administrator. The return by an individual, who, while living, was subject to income tax in the state during the tax year, and who has died before making the return, shall be made in his name and behalf by the administrator or executor of the estate and the tax shall be levied upon and collected from his estate. In the making of said return, the executor or administrator shall use the same method of computation, either cash or accrual, as was last used by the deceased taxpayer.

The judge of the district court in which the estate of the decedent is probated may, upon application being filed by the executor or administrator setting forth the income received by said estate, fix a time and place for hearing upon said application and prescribe the notice to be given to the director and may upon hearing determine whether or not the said estate is subject to income tax and, if the facts warrant such a finding, enter an order relieving said executor or administrator from making an income tax report and order that the said estate is not subject to the payment of income tax. Such order shall not become final until thirty days after the same has been filed with the clerk of the district court and a copy of the order entered by the judge shall be immediately mailed to the director by said executor or administrator by registered mail and a return filed showing the mailing of the same. [C35,§6943-f19; C39,§6943.055; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.23]

422.24 Installment payments—interest.

1. For all taxpayers the total tax due shall be paid in full at the time of filing the return.

2. When, at the request of the taxpayer, the time for filing the return is extended, interest at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, on the total tax due, from the time when the return was required to be filed to the time of payment, shall be added and paid. [C35,§6943-f20; C39,§6943.056; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.24]

Constitutionality, 61GA, ch 348, §7

422.25 Computation of tax, interest, and penalties—limitation.

1. Within three years after the return is filed or within three years after the return became due, including any extensions of time for filing, whichever time is the later, the department shall examine it and determine the correct amount of tax, and the amount so determined by the department shall be the tax; provided that if the taxpayer omits from income such an amount as will, under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, extend the statute of limitations for assessment of federal tax to six years under said Code, the period for examination and determination shall be six years. Notwithstanding the periods of limitation for examination and determination heretofore specified, the department shall have six months to make an examination and determination from the date of receipt by the department of written notice from the taxpayer of the final disposition of any matter which occurred after the expiration of the applicable period of limitation specified in this section between the taxpayer and the internal revenue service with respect to the particular tax year. In order to begin the running of the six-months' period, the notice shall be in writing in any form sufficient to inform the department of such final disposition with respect to such year, and a copy of the federal document showing the final disposition or final federal adjustments shall be attached to the notice. The period for examination and determination of correct amount of tax shall be unlimited in the case of a false or fraudulent return made with the intent to evade tax or in the case of a failure to file a return. In lieu of the period of limitation for any prior year for which an overpayment of tax or an elimination or reduction of an underpayment of tax due for that prior year results from the carryback to such prior year of a net operating loss or net capital loss, the period shall be the period of limitation for the taxable year of the net operating loss or net capital loss which results in such carryback. The burden of proof of additional tax owing under the six-year period, or unlimited period, shall be on the department. If the tax found due is greater than the amount paid, the department shall compute the amount due, together with interest and penalties as provided in subsection 2, and shall notify the taxpayer by certified mail of the total, which shall be a sum certain if paid on or before the last day of the month in which the notice is postmarked, or on or before the last day of the following month if the notice is postmarked after the twentieth day of any month. The notice shall also inform the taxpayer of the additional interest and penalty which will be added to the total due if not paid on or before the last day of the applicable month.

See 56GA, ch 210, §2 for barred claims

2. In addition to the tax or additional tax as determined by the department under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, the taxpayer shall pay interest on the tax or additional tax at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the return was required to be filed. In case of failure to file a return with the department on or before the due date (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on the return five percent of the amount of the tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. If any person fails to remit the tax due with the filing of the return on or before the due date, or fails to pay any amount of any tax required to be shown on the return, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the tax due, if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. In case of willful failure to file a return with intent to evade tax, or in case of willfully filing a false return with intent to evade tax, in lieu of the penalty above provided, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on the return fifty percent of the amount of the tax. When penalties are applicable for failure to file a return and failure to pay the tax due or required on the return, the penalty provision for failure to file shall be in lieu of the penalty provision for failure to pay the tax due or required on the return except in the case of willful failure to file a return and willfully filing of a false return with intent to evade tax.

3. If the amount of the tax as determined by the department is less than the amount paid, the excess shall be refunded with interest after thirty days from the date of payment or the date the return was due to be filed, whichever is the later at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month under the rules prescribed by the director. If an overpayment of tax results from a net operating loss or net capital loss which is carried back to a prior year, the overpayment, for purposes of computing interest on refunds, shall be considered as having been made at the close of the taxable year in which the net operating loss or net capital loss occurred or thirty days from the date of the actual payment of the tax, whichever is later. However, when the net operating loss or net capital loss carryback to a prior year eliminates or reduces an underpayment of tax due for an earlier year, the full amount of the underpayment of tax shall bear interest at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month from the due date of the tax for the earlier year to the last day of the taxable year in which the net operating loss or net capital loss occurred.

4. All payments received must be credited first, to the penalty and interest accrued, and then to the tax due.

5. Any person required to supply any information, to pay any tax, or to make, sign, or file any return or supplemental return, who willfully makes any false or fraudulent return, or willfully fails to pay such tax, supply such information, or make, sign, or file such return, at the time or times required by law, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

6. The certificate of the director to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied, as required under the provisions of this division shall be prima facie evidence thereof except as otherwise provided in this section.

7. The periods of limitation provided by this section may be extended by the taxpayer by signing a waiver agreement to be provided by the department. Such agreement shall stipulate the period of extension and the year or years to which such extension applies. It shall further provide that a claim for refund may be filed by the taxpayer at any time during the period of extension. In consideration of such agreement, interest due in excess of thirty-six months on either a tax deficiency or tax refund shall be waived.

8. Any person who willfully attempts in any manner to defeat or evade any tax imposed by this division or the payment thereof, shall upon conviction for each such offense be guilty of a class "D" felony.

9. The jurisdiction of any offense as defined in this section is in the county of the residence of the person so charged, unless such person be a nonresident of this state or his residence in this state is not established, in either of which events jurisdiction of such offense is in the county of the seat of government of the state of Iowa.

10. A prosecution for any offense defined in this section must be commenced within six years after the commission thereof, and not after. [C35,§6943-f21; C39,§6943.057; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.25; 68GA, ch 1113,§3, ch 1133,§1]

422.26 Lien of tax—collection—action authorized. Whenever any taxpayer liable to pay a tax and penalty imposed refuses or neglects to pay the same, the amount, including any interest, penalty, or addition to such tax, together with the costs that may accrue in addition thereto, shall be a lien in favor of the state upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to said taxpayer.

The lien aforesaid shall attach at the time the tax becomes due and payable and shall continue for ten years from the time the lien attaches unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. The lien may, within ten years from the date the lien attaches, be extended by filing for record a notice with the appropriate county official of any county and from the time of such filing, the lien shall be extended to the property in such county for ten years, unless sooner released or otherwise discharged, with no limit on the number of extensions. Liens having attached prior to January 1, 1969, will expire on January 1, 1979, unless extended by the director of the department of revenue. The director shall charge off any account whose lien is allowed to lapse and may charge off any account and release the corresponding lien before the lien has lapsed if the director determines under uniform rules prescribed by the director that the account is uncollectible or collection costs involved would not warrant collection of the amount due.

In order to preserve the aforesaid lien against subsequent mortgagees, purchasers or judgment creditors, for value and without notice of the lien, on any property situated in a county, the director shall file with the recorder of the county, in which said property is located, a notice of said lien.

The county recorder of each county shall prepare and keep in his office a book to be known as "index of income tax liens", so ruled as to show in appropriate columns the following data, under the names of taxpayers, arranged alphabetically:

1. The name of the taxpayer.
2. The name "State of Iowa" as claimant.
3. Time notice of lien was received.
4. Date of notice.
5. Amount of lien then due.
6. When satisfied.

The recorder shall endorse on each notice of lien the day, hour, and minute when received and preserve the same, and shall forthwith index said notice in said index book and shall forthwith record said lien in the manner provided for recording real estate mortgages, and the said lien shall be effective from the time of the indexing thereof.

The department shall pay a recording fee as provided in section 335.14, for the recording of such lien, or for the satisfaction thereof.

Upon the payment of a tax as to which the director has filed notice with a county recorder, the director shall forthwith file with said recorder a satisfaction of said tax and the recorder shall enter said satisfaction on the notice on file in his office and indicate said fact on the index aforesaid.

The department shall, substantially as provided in sections 445.6 and 445.7, proceed to collect all taxes and penalties as soon as practicable after the same become delinquent, except that no property of the taxpayer shall be exempt from the payment of said tax. In the event service has not been made on a distress warrant by the officer to whom addressed within five days from the date the distress warrant was received by him, the authorized revenue agents of the department are hereby empowered to serve and make return of such warrant to the clerk of the district court of the county named in the distress warrant, and all subsequent procedure shall be in compliance with chapter 626.

The attorney general shall, upon the request of the director, bring an action at law or in equity, as the facts may justify, without bond, to enforce payment of any taxes and penalties, and in such action he shall have the assistance of the county attorney of the county in which the action is pending.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the state shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the director or attorney general shall be construed to be an election on the part of the state or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy provided by law. 422.27 Final report of fiduciary—conditions.

1. No final account of an executor, administrator, or trustee shall be allowed by any court unless such account shows, and the judge of said court finds, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this division upon the executor, administrator, or trustee, which have become payable, have been paid, and that all taxes which may become due are secured by bond, deposit or otherwise. The certificate of the director and the receipt for the amount of the tax therein certified shall be conclusive as to the payment of the tax to the extent of said certificate.

2. For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by fiduciaries, the director may, on behalf of the state, agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such fiduciaries under the provisions of this division, and payment in accordance with such agreement shall be full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates. [C35,§6943-f23; C39, §6943.059; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.27]

422.28 Revision of tax. A taxpayer may appeal to the director for revision of the tax, interest or penalties assessed against him at any time within ninety days from the date of the notice of the assessment of tax, additional tax, interest or penalties. The director shall grant a hearing and if, upon the hearing, the director shall determine that the tax, interest or penalties are excessive or incorrect, the director shall revise them according to the law and the facts and adjust the computation of the tax, interest or penalties accordingly. The director shall notify the taxpayer by registered mail of the result of the hearing and shall refund to the taxpayer the amount, if any, paid in excess of the tax, interest or penalties found by the director to be due, with interest after sixty days from the date of payment by the taxpayer at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month or a fraction of a month. The director may, on his own motion at any time, abate any portion of tax, interest or penalties which he determines is excessive in amount, or erroneously or illegally assessed. The director shall prepare quarterly reports, which shall be included in the annual statistical reports required under section 422.75, summarizing each case in which an abatement of tax, interest or penalties was made under this section, but the report shall not disclose the identity of the taxpayer. If such payment is not made, a distress warrant may be issued or a lien filed against such taxpayer immediately.

2. The words "domestic corporation" mean any corporation organized under the laws of this state.

3. The words "foreign corporation" mean any corporation other than a domestic corporation.

4. "Internal Revenue Code of 1954" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended to and including January 1, 1980*.

5. The term "affiliated group" means a group of corporations as defined in section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

6. The term "unitary business" means a business carried on partly within and partly without a state where the portion of the business carried on within the state depends on or contributes to the business outside the state.

7. "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

8. "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

9. "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade of business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

10. "Taxable in another state". For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this division, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if:

a. In that state he or she is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax; or

b. That state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

11. "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

The words, terms, and phrases defined in division II, section 422.4, subsections 1, and 3 to 10, when used in this division, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in said section except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning. [C35, §6943-f28; C39, §6943.064; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §422.32; 68GA, ch 92, §2, ch 1130, §6]

*Amendments retroactive to January 1, 1978 and January 1, 1979; See 68GA, ch 92, §4, ch 1130 §10

422.33 Corporate tax imposed. A tax is hereby imposed upon each corporation organized under the laws of this state, and upon every foreign corporation doing business in this state, annually in an amount computed by applying the following rates of taxation to the net income received by the corporation during the income year:

On the first twenty-five thousand dollars of taxable income, or any part thereof, the rate of six percent.

On taxable income between twenty-five thousand dollars and one hundred thousand dollars or any part thereof, the rate of eight percent.

On taxable income of one hundred thousand dollars or more, the rate of ten percent.

1. If the trade or business of the corporation is carried on entirely within the state, or if the trade or business consists of the operation of a farm and the property is located entirely within the state, the tax shall be imposed on the entire net income, but if such trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without the state, or if the trade or business consists of the operation of a farm and the property is located partly within and partly without the state, the tax shall be imposed only on the portion of the net income reasonably attributable to the trade or business within the state, said net income attributable to the state to be determined as follows:

a. Nonbusiness interest, dividends, rents and royalties, less related expenses, shall be allocated within and without the state in the following manner:

(1) Nonbusiness interest, dividends, and royalties from patents and copyrights shall be allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(2) Nonbusiness rents and royalties received from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(3) Nonbusiness rents and royalties received from tangible personal property are allocable to this state to the extent that the property is utilized in this state; or in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property is utilized. The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown, or unascertainable by the taxpayer tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payor obtained possession.

b. Net nonbusiness income of the above class having been separately allocated and deducted as above provided, the remaining net business income of the taxpayer shall be allocated and apportioned as follows:

Business interest, dividends, rents, and royalties shall be reasonably apportioned within and without the state under rules adopted by the director pursuant to chapter 17A.

Where income is derived from business other than the manufacture or sale of tangible personal property, such income shall be specifically allocated or equitably apportioned within and without the state under rules of the director.

Where income is derived from the manufacture or sale of tangible personal property, the part thereof attributable to business within the state shall be in that proportion which the gross sales made within the state bear to the total gross sales.

The gross sales of the corporation within the state shall be taken to be the gross sales from goods delivered or shipped to a purchaser within the state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale, excluding deliveries for transportation out of the state.

For the purpose of this section, the word "sale" shall include exchange, and the word "manufacture" shall include the extraction and recovery of natural resources and all processes of fabricating and curing. The words "tangible personal property" shall be taken to mean corporeal personal property, such as machinery, tools, implements, goods, wares, and merchandise, and shall not be taken to mean money deposits in banks, shares of stock, bonds, notes, credits, or evidence of an interest in property and evidences of debt.

2. If any taxpayer believes that the method of allocation and apportionment hereinbefore prescribed, as administered by the director and applied to his business, has operated or will so operate as to subject him to taxation on a greater portion of his net income than is reasonably attributable to business or sources within the state, he shall be entitled to file with the director a statement of his objections and of such alternative method of allocation and apportionment as he believes to be proper under the circumstances with such detail and proof and within such time as the director may reasonably prescribe; and if the director shall conclude that the method of allocation and apportionment theretofore employed is in fact inapplicable and inequitable, the director shall redetermine the taxable income by such other method of allocation and apportionment as seems best calculated to assign to the state for taxation the portion of the income reasonably attributable to business and sources within the state, not exceeding, however, the amount which would be arrived at by application of the statutory rules for apportionment. [C35,§6943-f29; C39, §6943.065; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.33]

1. All state banks, as defined in section 524.103, and all national and private banks, credit unions, title insurance and trust companies, building and loan associations, production credit associations, insurance companies or insurance associations, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges, fraternal beneficiary associations, now or hereafter organized or incorporated by or under the laws of this state or lawfully operating in the state.

2. Cemetery corporations, organizations and associations and corporations organized for religious, charitable, scientific, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

3. Business leagues, chambers of commerce, labor unions and auxiliary organizations, or boards of trade not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

4. Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit, but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare.

5. Clubs, organizations, or associations organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or member.

6. Farmers associations and fruit growers associations, or like organizations organized and operated as sales agents for the purpose of marketing the products of members and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary selling expense, on the basis of the quantity of produce furnished by them. [C35,§6943-f30; C39,§6943.066; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.34; 68GA, ch 1012,§49]

Referred to in §422.37

422.35 Net income of corporation—how computed. The term “net income” means the taxable income before the net operating loss deduction, as properly computed for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, with the following adjustments:

1. Subtract interest and dividends from federal securities.

2. Add interest and dividends from foreign securities and from securities of state and other political subdivisions exempt from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

3. Where the net income includes capital gains or losses, or gains or losses from property other than capital assets, and such gains or losses have been determined by using a basis established prior to January 1, 1934, an adjustment may be made, under rules and regulations prescribed by the director, to reflect the difference resulting from the use of a basis of cost or January 1, 1934, fair market value, less depreciation allowed or allowable, whichever is higher. Provided that the basis shall be fair market value as of January 1, 1955, less depreciation allowed or allowable, in the case of property acquired prior to that date if use of a prior basis is declared to be invalid.

4. Subtract fifty percent of the federal income taxes paid or accrued, as the case may be, during the tax year, adjusted by any federal income tax refunds; and add the Iowa income tax deducted in computing said taxable income.

Effective date of tax increase, see 62GA, ch 348, §17

5. Add the amount by which the basis of qualified depreciable property is required to be increased for depreciation purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1964 to the extent that such amount equals the net amount of the special deduction allowed on the basis of the amount by which the depreciable basis of such qualified property was required to be reduced for depreciation purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1962. The “net amount of the special deduction” shall be computed by taking the sum of the amounts by which the basis of qualified property was required to be decreased for depreciation purposes for the years 1962 and 1963 and subtracting from it the sum of the amounts by which the basis of such property was required to be increased, prior to 1964, for depreciation or disposition purposes under the Internal Revenue Code Amendments Act of 1962.

6. Subtract the amount of the work incentive programs credit allowable for the tax year under section 40 or the jobs tax credit allowable for the tax year under section 44B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent that the credit increased federal taxable income.

7. If after applying all of the adjustments provided for in this section and the allocation and apportionment provisions of section 422.33, the Iowa taxable income results in a net operating loss, such net operating loss shall be deducted as follows:

a. The Iowa net operating loss shall be carried back three taxable years or to the taxable year in which the corporation first commenced doing business in this state, whichever is later.

b. The Iowa net operating loss remaining after being carried back as required in paragraph "a" of this subsection or if not required to be carried back shall be carried forward seven taxable years.

c. If the election under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is made, the Iowa net operating loss shall be carried forward seven taxable years.

d. No portion of a net operating loss which was sustained from that portion of the trade or business carried on outside the state of Iowa shall be deducted.

Provided, however, that a corporation affected by the allocation provisions of section 422.33 shall be permitted to deduct only such portion of the deductions for net operating loss and federal income taxes as is fairly and equitably allocable to Iowa, under rules prescribed by the director. [C35,§6943-f31; C39, §6943.067; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §422.35; 68GA, ch 1130, §7, 8]

Amendments to subsections 6 and 7 retroactive to January 1, 1979, see 68GA, ch 1130 §10

Subsection 6 retroactive to January 1, 1977 for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1977, 67GA, ch 1138, §6

Subsection 7 retroactive to January 1, 1978, 67GA, ch 1139, §6

422.36 Returns.

1. Every corporation shall make a return and the same shall be signed by the president or other duly authorized officer. Before a corporation shall be dissolved and its assets distributed it shall make a return for any settlement of the tax for any income earned in the income year up to its final date of dissolution.

2. When any corporation, liable to taxation under this division, conducts its business in such a manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit the members or stockholders thereof or any person interested in such business by selling its products or the goods or commodities in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, or where a corporation, a substantial portion of whose capital stock is owned either directly or indirectly by another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products, goods or commodities of the corporation so owning a substantial portion of its stock in such a manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said corporations, or where a corporation, owning directly or indirectly a substantial portion of the stock of another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products, goods, or commodities, of the corporation of which it so owns a substantial portion of the stock, in such a manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said corporations, the department may determine the amount of taxable income of either or any of such corporations for the calendar or fiscal year, having due regard to the reasonable profits which, but for such arrangement or understanding, might or could have been obtained, by the corporation or corporations liable to taxation under this division, from dealing in such products, goods, or commodities.

3. Where the director has reason to believe that any person or corporation so conducts his trade or business as either directly or indirectly to distort his true net income and the net income properly attributable to the state, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income, through price fixing, charges for services, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another unit in a group of taxpayers carrying on business under a substantially common control, the director may require such facts as are necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to the state, and shall determine the same, and in the determination thereof the director shall have regard to the fair profits which would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.

4. Foreign corporations shall file a copy of their federal income tax return for the current tax year with the return required by this section.

5. Where a corporation is not subject to income tax and the stockholders of such corporation are taxed on the corporation's income under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the same tax treatment shall apply to such corporation and such stockholders for Iowa income tax purposes. [C35, §6943-f32; C39, §6943.068; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §422.36]

Referred to in §422.31

422.37 Consolidated returns. Any affiliated group of corporations may, not later than the due date for filing its return for the taxable year, including any extensions thereof, under rules to be prescribed by the director, elect, and upon demand of the director shall be required, to make a consolidated return showing the consolidated net income of all such corporations and other information as the director may require, subject to the following:

1. The affiliated group filing under this section shall file a consolidated return for federal income tax purposes for the same taxable year.

2. All members of the affiliated group shall join in the filing of an Iowa consolidated return to the extent they are subject to the tax imposed by section 422.33 or have operations which constitute a part of the unitary business of one or more members which are subject to the Iowa tax.

3. Members of the affiliated group exempt from taxation by section 422.34 of the Code shall not be included in a consolidated return.

4. All members of the affiliated group shall use the statutory method of allocation and apportionment unless the director has granted permission to all members to use an alternative method of allocation and apportionment.

5. Each member of the affiliated group shall consent to the filing by specific written authorization at the time the consolidated return is filed, unless the director requires the filing of a consolidated return.

6. The filing of a consolidated return for any taxable year shall require the filing of consolidated returns for all subsequent taxable years so long as the filing taxpayers remain members of the affiliated group unless the director determines that the filing of separate returns will more clearly disclose the taxable incomes of each member of the affiliated group. This determination shall be made after specific request by the taxpayer for the filing of separate returns.

7. The computation of consolidated taxable income for the members of an affiliated group of corporations subject to tax shall be made in the same manner and under the same procedures, including all intercompany adjustments and eliminations, as are required for consolidating the incomes of affiliated corporations for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes in accordance with section 1502 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [C35,§6943-f33; C39, §6943.069; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.37]

422.40 Cancellation of authority—penalty—offenses.

1. If a corporation required by the provisions of this division to file any report or return or to pay any tax or fee, either as a corporation organized under the laws of this state, or as a foreign corporation doing business in this state for profit, or owning and using a part or all of its capital or plant in this state, fails or neglects to make any such report or return or to pay any such tax or fee for ninety days after the time prescribed in this division for making such report or return, or for paying such tax or fee, the director may certify such fact to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall thereupon cancel the articles of incorporation of any such corporation which is organized under the laws of this state by appropriate entry upon the margin of the record thereof, or cancel the certificate of authority of any such foreign corporation to do business in this state by proper entry. Thereupon all the powers, privileges, and franchises conferred upon such corporation by such articles of incorporation or by such certificate of authority shall cease and determine. The secretary of state shall immediately notify by registered mail such domestic or foreign corporation of the action taken by him.

2. Any person or persons who shall exercise or attempt to exercise any powers, privileges, or franchises under articles of incorporation or certificate of authority after the same are canceled, as provided in any section of this division, shall pay a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by an action to be brought by the director.

3. Any corporation whose articles of incorporation or certificate of authority to do business in this state have been canceled by the secretary of state, as provided in subsection 1, or similar provisions of prior revenue laws, upon the filing, within ten years after such cancellation, with the secretary of state, of a certificate from the department that it has complied with all the requirements of this division and paid all state taxes, fees, or penalties due from it, and upon the payment to the secretary of state of an additional penalty of fifty dollars, shall be entitled again to exercise its rights, privileges, and franchises in this state; and the secretary of state shall cancel the entry made by him under the provisions of subsection 1 or similar provisions of prior revenue laws, and shall issue his certificate entitling such corporation to exercise its rights, privileges and franchises.

Referred to in §422 16(10, c)

4. Any person, or any officer or employee of any corporation, or member or employee of any partnership, who, with intent to evade any requirement of this division or any lawful requirement of the director thereunder, shall fail to pay any tax or to make, sign, or verify any return or to supply any information required by or under the provisions of this division, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Any person, corporation, or any officer or employee of a corporation, or member or employee of any partnership, who, with intent to evade any of the requirements of this division, or any lawful requirements of the director thereunder, shall make, render, sign, or verify any false or fraudulent return or statement, or shall supply any false or fraudulent information, or who shall aid, abet, direct, cause, or who shall procure anyone so to do, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice. 422.42 Definitions. The following words, terms, and phrases, when used in this division, have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

1. "Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, municipal corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, or any other group or combination acting as a unit and the plural as well as the singular number.

Tangible personal property is sold for processing within the meaning of this subsection only when it is intended that such property shall by means of fabrication, compounding, manufacturing, or germination become an integral part of other tangible personal property intended to be sold ultimately at retail, or shall be consumed as fuel in creating heat, power, or steam for processing including grain drying or for generating electric current, or consumed in implements of husbandry engaged in agricultural production, or such property is a chemical, solvent, sorbent, or reagent, which is directly used and is consumed, dissipated, or depleted, in processing personal property which is intended to be sold ultimately at retail, and which may not become a component or integral part of the finished product. The distribution to the public of free newspapers or shoppers guides shall be deemed a retail sale for purposes of the processing exemption.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the sale of newsprint and ink delivered after April 1, 1970 to any person, firm or corporation to be incorporated in or used in the printing of any newspaper, free newspaper or shoppers guide for publication in this state shall be considered as a sale at retail and such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed to be the consumer of such newsprint and ink and subject to the payment of sales tax.

4. "Business" includes any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect.

5. "Retailer" includes every person engaged in the business of selling tangible goods, wares, merchandise or taxable services at retail, or the furnishing of gas, electricity, water, and communication service, and tickets or admissions to places of amusement and athletic events as provided in this division or operating amusement devices or other forms of commercial amusement from which revenues are derived; provided, however, that when in the opinion of the director it is necessary for the efficient administration of this division to regard any salesmen, representatives, truckers, peddlers, or canvassers, as agents of the dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers, or persons under whom they operate or from whom they obtain tangible personal property sold by them irrespective of whether or not they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of such dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers, or persons, the director may so regard them, and may regard such dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers, or persons as retailers for the purposes of this division.

6. "Gross receipts" means the total amount of the sales of retailers, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise; provided, however, a. That discounts for any purpose allowed and taken on sales shall not be included if excessive sales tax is not collected from the purchaser, nor shall the sale price of property returned by customers when the total sale price thereof is refunded either in cash or by credit.

422.47 Credit to relief agencies—exemption certificates for sales for purposes of resale or processing.

1. A relief agency may apply to the director for refund of the amount of tax imposed hereunder and paid upon sales to it of any goods, wares, merchandise, or services rendered, furnished, or performed, used for free distribution to the poor and needy.

2. Such refunds may be obtained only in the following amounts and manner and only under the following conditions:

a. On forms furnished by the department, and filed within such time as the director shall provide by regulation, the relief agency shall report to the department the total amount or amounts, valued in money, expended directly or indirectly for goods, wares, merchandise, or services rendered, furnished, or performed, used for free distribution to the poor and needy.

b. On these forms the relief agency shall separately list the persons making the sales to it or to its order, together with the dates of the sales, and the total amount so expended by the relief agency.

c. The relief agency must prove to the satisfaction of the director that the person making the sales has included the amount thereof in the computation of the gross receipts of such person and that such person has paid the tax levied by this division, based upon such computation of gross receipts.

3. If satisfied that the foregoing conditions and requirements have been complied with, the director shall refund the amount claimed by the relief agency.

4. The department shall issue exemption certificates in such form as the director may require to assist retailers in properly accounting for nontaxable sales of tangible personal property or services to buyers for purposes of resale or for processing.

The sales tax liability for all sales of tangible personal property and all sales of services shall be upon the seller unless the seller takes in good faith from the purchaser a valid exemption certificate stating under penalties for perjury that the purchase is for resale or for processing and is not a retail sale as defined in section 422.42, subsection 3. Where the tangible personal property or services are purchased tax free pursuant to a valid exemption certificate which is taken in good faith by the seller, and the tangible personal property or services are used or disposed of by the purchaser in a nonexempt manner, the purchaser shall be solely liable for the taxes and shall remit said taxes directly to the department and sections 422.50, 422.51, 422.52, 422.54, 422.55, 422.56, 422.57, 422.58, and 422.59 shall apply to such purchaser.

a. A valid exemption certificate is an exemption certificate as required and supplied by the department, which is complete and correct according to the requirements of the director.

b. A valid exemption certificate is taken in good faith by the seller when the seller has exercised that caution and diligence which honest persons of ordinary prudence would exercise in handling their own business affairs, and includes an honesty of intention and freedom from knowledge of circumstances which ought to put one upon inquiry as to the facts. In order for a seller to take a valid exemption certificate in good faith, he or she must exercise reasonable prudence to determine the facts supporting the valid exemption certificate, and if any facts upon such certificate would lead a reasonable person to further inquiry, then such inquiry must be made with an honest intent to discover the facts.

c. The certificate shall state that there is no penalty for perjury if the purchaser has completed the certificate in good faith based upon the facts known at the time of its completion. If the circumstances should change and the tangible personal property or services are used or disposed of by the purchaser in a nonexempt manner, the purchaser shall be liable solely for the taxes and shall remit said taxes directly to the department in accordance with this subsection. [C35,§6943-f42; C39,§6943.078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§422.47]

2. Agreements between competing retailers, or the adoption of appropriate rules and regulations by organizations or associations of retailers to provide uniform methods for adding such tax or the average equivalent thereof, and which do not involve price-fixing agreements otherwise unlawful, are expressly authorized and shall be held not in violation of chapter 553, or other antitrust laws of this state. The director shall co-operate with such retailers, organizations, or associations in formulating such agreements and rules. The director may adopt and promulgate rules and regulations for adding such tax, or the average equivalent thereof, by providing different methods applying uniformly to retailers within the same general classification for the purpose of enabling such retailers to add and collect, as far as practicable, the amount of such tax. [C35,§6943-f43; C39, §6943.079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §422.48]

422.49 Absorbing tax prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any retailer to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any consumer, directly or indirectly, that the tax or any part thereof imposed by this division will be assumed or absorbed by the retailer or that it will not be considered as an element in the price to the consumer, or if added, that it or any part thereof will be refunded. [C35, §6943-f44; C39, §6943.080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §422.49]

Such returns shall show information relating to gross receipts including goods, wares, and services converted to the use of such person, the amounts of gross receipts excluded and exempt from the tax, the receipts subject to tax, a calculation of tax due, and such other information for the period covered by the return as may be required. Persons required to file, or committed to file by reason of voluntary action or by order of the department of revenue, monthly deposits of taxes due under this division shall be entitled to take credit against the total quarterly amount of tax due such amount as shall have been deposited by such persons during such calendar quarter. The balance remaining due after such credit for monthly deposits shall be entered on the return; provided, however, that such person may be granted an extension of time not exceeding thirty days for filing such quarterly return, upon a proper showing of necessity therefor. If such extension be granted such person shall have paid by the twentieth day of the month following the close of such quarter ninety percent of the estimated tax due.

2. If necessary or advisable in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this division, the director may require returns and payment of the tax to be made for other than quarterly periods, the provisions of section 422.52 or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. Returns shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent, and must be duly certified by him to be correct.

4. If it is reasonably expected, as determined by rules prescribed by the director, that a retailer's annual tax liability will not exceed one hundred twenty dollars for a calendar year, the retailer may request and the director may grant permission, in lieu of the quarterly filing requirement of subsection 1 of this section and the remitting requirements of section 422.52, to file the return required under this section and remit the sales tax due on a calendar year basis. The return and tax are due and payable no later than January 31 following each calendar year in which the retailer carried on business. The tax levied hereunder shall be due and payable in quarterly installments on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly period provided, however, every retailer who collects more than five hundred dollars in retail sales taxes in any one month shall deposit with the department or in a depository bank designated by the director, said sum, made out on a deposit form for the month in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the director, said deposit form being due on or before the twentieth day of the month next succeeding the month of collection, except no deposit will be required for the third month of the calendar quarter and the total quarterly amount, less the amounts deposited for the first two months of the quarter, will be due with the quarterly report on the last day of the month next succeeding the month of collection. Provided further, however, every retailer who collects more than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars in retail sales tax in any one month shall deposit with the department or in a depository bank designated by the director, said sum, or an amount equal to not less than thirty percent of the tax collected and paid to the department during the last preceding quarter, made out on a deposit form for the month in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the director, said deposit form being due on or before the twentieth day of the month next succeeding the month of collection, except no deposit will be required for the third month of the calendar quarter and the total quarterly amount, less the

The form so prescribed by the director shall be referred to as "retailers monthly tax deposit". Deposit forms shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent, and must be duly certified by him to be correct. The director may authorize incorporated banks and trust companies which are depositories or financial agents of the United States, or of this state, to receive any tax imposed under this chapter, in such manner, at such times and under such conditions as the director may prescribe. 3. The director may, when necessary and advisable in order to secure the collection of the tax levied under this division, require any person subject to such tax to file with the director a bond, issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the insurance commissioner as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as the director may fix, to secure the payment of any tax or penalties due or which may become due from such person. In lieu of such bond, securities approved by the director, in such amount as the director may prescribe, may be deposited with the department, which securities shall be kept in the custody of the department and may be sold by the director at public or private sale, without notice to the depositor thereof, if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any tax or penalties due. Upon any such sale, the surplus, if any, above the amounts due under this division shall be returned to the person who deposited the securities.

4. The tax by this division imposed upon those sales of motor vehicle fuel which are subject to tax and refund under chapter 324 shall be collected by the state treasurer by way of deduction from refunds otherwise allowable under said chapter. 2. The salaries of all assistants, agents, and employees shall be fixed by the director in a budget to be submitted to the comptroller and approved by the legislature.

3. All such agents and employees shall be allowed such reasonable and necessary traveling and other expenses as may be incurred in the performance of their duties.

4. The director may require certain officers, agents, and employees to give bond for the faithful performance of the duties in such sum and with such sureties as the director may determine and the state shall pay, out of the proceeds of the taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter, the premiums on such bonds.

422.72 Information deemed confidential.

1. It is unlawful for the director, or any person having an administrative duty under this chapter, or any present or former officer or other employee of the state authorized by the director to examine returns, to divulge in any manner whatever, the business affairs, operations, or information obtained by an investigation under this chapter of records and equipment of any person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy of a return or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law. However, the director may authorize examination of such state returns and other state information which is confidential under this section, if a reciprocal arrangement exists, by tax officers of another state or the federal government. The director may, by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A, authorize examination of state information and returns by other officers or employees of this state to the extent required by their official duties and responsibilities. Disclosure of state information to tax officers of another state is limited to disclosures which have a tax administrative purpose and only to officers of those states which have laws that are as strict as the laws of this state protecting the confidentiality of returns and information. The director shall place upon the state tax form a notice to the taxpayer that state tax information may be disclosed to tax officials of another state or of the United States for tax administrative purposes. The department shall not authorize the examination of tax information by officers and employees of this state, another state, or of the United States if the officers or employees would otherwise be required to obtain a judicial order to examine the information if it were to be obtained from another source, and if the purpose of the examination is other than for tax administration. However, the director of revenue may provide sample individual income tax information to be used for statistical purposes to the legislative fiscal bureau. The information shall not include the name or mailing address of the taxpayer or the taxpayer's social security number. Any information contained in an individual income tax return which is provided by the director shall only be used as a part of a data base which contains similar information from a number of returns. The legislative fiscal bureau shall not have access to the income tax returns of individuals. Each request for individual income tax information shall contain a statement by the director of the legislative fiscal bureau that the individual income tax information received by the bureau shall be used solely for statistical purposes. This subsection does not prevent the department from authorizing the examination of state returns and state information under the provisions of section 252B.9. This subsection prevails over any general law of this state relating to public records.

2. Federal tax returns, copies of returns, and return information as defined in section 6103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which are required to be filed with the department for the enforcement of the income tax laws of this state, shall be deemed and held as confidential by the department and subject to the disclosure limitations in subsection 1 of this section.

3. Any person violating the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of this section shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. [C35,§6943-f59; C39,§6943.096; C46, 50,

422.73 Correction of errors.

1. If it shall appear that, as a result of mistake, an amount of tax, penalty, or interest has been paid which was not due under the provisions of division IV of this chapter or chapter 423, then such amount shall be credited against any tax due, or to become due, on the books of the department from the person who made the erroneous payment, or such amount shall be refunded to such person by the department. A claim for refund or credit that has not been filed with the department within five years after the tax payment upon which a refund or credit is claimed became due, or one year after such tax payment was made, whichever time is the later, shall not be allowed by the director.

2. If it shall appear that, as a result of mistake, an amount of tax, penalty, or interest has been paid which was not due under the provisions of divisions II, III or V of this chapter, then such amount shall be credited against any tax due, or to become due, under this chapter from the person who made the erroneous payment, or such amount shall be refunded to such person by the department. A claim for refund or credit that has not been filed with the department within three years after the return upon which a refund or credit claimed became due, or within one year after the payment of the tax upon which a refund or credit is claimed was made, whichever time is the later, shall not be allowed by the director; if, as a result of a carryback of a net operating loss or a net capital loss, the amount of tax in a prior period is reduced and an overpayment results, the claim for refund or credit of the overpayment shall be filed with the department within the three years after the return for the taxable year of the net operating loss or net capital loss became due. Notwithstanding the period of limitation specified, the taxpayer shall have six months from the day of final disposition of any income tax matter between the taxpayer and the internal revenue service with respect to the particular tax year or years to claim an income tax refund or credit, provided the taxpayer has notified the department of revenue in writing no later than six months after the expiration of the three-year limitations period of the existence of such income tax matter. #### DIVISION VII

ESTIMATED TAXES BY CORPORATIONS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Effective for tax years beginning on or after July 1, 1977, 67GA, ch 122, §16

422.85 Declaration and payment of estimated tax. Every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by sections 422.33 and 422.60 shall file a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year if the amount of tax payable, less credits, can reasonably be expected to be more than one thousand dollars for the taxable year. For purposes of this division, "estimated tax" means the amount which the taxpayer estimates to be the tax due and payable under divisions III or V of this chapter for the taxable year. If during the first quarter of the taxable year it is determined that the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year will exceed one thousand dollars, the declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before the last day of the fourth month of the taxable year. If after the last day of the third month and before the first day of the sixth month of the taxable year it is determined that the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year will exceed one thousand dollars, the declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before the last day of the sixth month of the taxable year. If after the last day of the fifth month and before the first day of the ninth month of the taxable year it is determined that the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year will exceed one thousand dollars, the declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before the last day of the ninth month of the taxable year. If after the last day of the eighth month and before the first day of the twelfth month of the taxable year it is determined that the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year will exceed one thousand dollars, the declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before the last day of the taxable year. [C79, §422.85]

422.86 Payment of estimated tax. A taxpayer required to file a declaration of estimated tax under section 422.85 shall pay the estimated tax in accordance with the following schedule:

1. If the declaration of estimated tax is filed on or before the last day of the fourth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration. The second and third installments shall be paid not later than the last day of the sixth and ninth months of the taxable year, and the final installment shall be paid on or before the last day of the taxable year.

2. If the declaration of estimated tax is timely filed after the last day of the fourth month but not later than the last day of the sixth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration. The second installment shall be paid on or before the last day of the ninth month of the taxable year and the third installment shall be paid on or before the last day of the taxable year.

3. If the declaration of estimated tax is timely filed after the last day of the sixth month and not after the last day of the ninth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration and the second installment shall be paid on or before the last day of the taxable year.

4. If the declaration of estimated tax is timely filed after the last day of the ninth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in full at the time of the filing of the declaration.

5. If the declaration of estimated tax is not filed as required under section 422.85, all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time shall be paid at the time the declaration of estimated tax is filed. The remaining installments of estimated tax, if any, shall be paid at the time and in the amounts in which they would have been payable if the declaration had been timely filed.

If an amendment to a declaration is filed, the remaining installments shall be ratably adjusted to reflect the increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason of such amendment. [C79, §422.86]

Referred to in §422.87

422.87 Transitional period. There shall be a transitional period to permit each taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by sections 422.33 and 422.60 to adjust to the requirements of making estimated tax payments.

1. For a taxable year beginning on or after July 1, 1977, and on or before June 30, 1978, only sixty percent of the estimated tax shall be required to be paid during the taxable year in accordance with the installment schedule in section 422.86. The remaining forty percent of the estimated tax shall be increased or decreased to reflect the actual tax due for the taxable year and shall be paid at the time of filing the final, completed return for the taxable year.

2. For a taxable year beginning on or after July 1, 1978, and on or before June 30, 1979, only eighty percent of the estimated tax shall be required to be paid during the taxable year in accordance with the installment schedule in section 422.86. The remaining twenty percent of the estimated tax shall be increased or decreased to reflect the actual tax due for the taxable year and shall be paid at the time of filing the final, completed return for the taxable year.

3. In the event the time for filing a tax return is extended for a taxable year listed in this section the remaining percentage of estimated tax due for that year shall be paid not later than the last day of the fourth month following the expiration of the taxable year. [C79, §422.87]

422.88 Failure to pay estimated tax.

1. If the taxpayer submits an underpayment of the estimated tax, the taxpayer shall be subject to an underpayment penalty at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

2. The amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of the amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax was equal to eighty percent of the tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the taxable year over any amount of installments paid on or before the date prescribed for payment.

3. If the taxpayer did not file a return during the taxable year, the amount of the underpayment shall be equal to eighty percent of the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year over any amount of installments paid on or before the date prescribed for payment.

4. The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to the last day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year or the date on which such portion is paid, whichever date first occurs.

5. A payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subsection 2 or 3 of this section for such installment date. [C79,§422.88]

Referred to in §422.89, 422.90

422.89 Exception to penalty. The penalty for underpayment of any installment of estimated tax imposed under section 422.88 shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax amount at least to one of the following:

1. The tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the taxpayer for the preceding taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of twelve months.

2. An amount equal to the tax computed at the rates applicable to the taxable year but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the return of the taxpayer for, and the law applicable to, the preceding taxable year.

3. An amount equal to eighty percent of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

a. For the first three months of the taxable year if an installment is required to be paid in the fourth month;

b. For the first three months or for the first five months of the taxable year if an installment is required to be paid in the sixth month;

c. For the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year if an installment is required to be paid in the ninth month; and

d. For the first nine months or for the first eleven months of the taxable year if an installment is required to be paid in the twelfth month of the taxable year.

The taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by multiplying the taxable income as determined under this subsection by twelve and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (three, five, six, eight, nine, or eleven months, as the case may be) referred to in this subsection. [C79,§422.89]

422.90 Penalty not subject to waiver. The penalty imposed under section 422.88 for underpayment of the estimated tax shall not be subject to the waiver provisions relating to reasonable cause. [C79,§422.90]

422.91 Credit for estimated tax. Any amount of tax paid on a declaration of estimated tax shall be a credit against the amount of tax due on a final, completed return, and any overpayment of five dollars or more shall be refunded to the taxpayer with interest after thirty days from the date of payment or the date the return was due to be filed, whichever is the later, at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month or fraction of a month and the return shall constitute a claim for refund for this purpose. Amounts less than five dollars shall be refunded to the taxpayer only upon written application in accordance with section 422.73, but only if the application is filed within twelve months after the due date for the return.

In lieu of claiming a refund, the taxpayer may elect to have the overpayment shown on its final, completed return for the taxable year credited to the tax liability for the following taxable year. [C79,§422.91; 68GA, ch 1133,§2]

422.92 Administration. A taxpayer having a taxable year of less than twelve months shall file a declaration of estimated tax under rules adopted by the director. The director shall adopt rules relating to the filing of amended declarations and payments of estimated tax by taxpayers having a taxable year of less than twelve months. The director shall also adopt rules to permit a taxpayer to amend a declaration of estimated tax. [C79,§422.92]

DIVISION VIII

ALLOCATION OF REVENUES

Sections 422.101 to 422.104 effective for tax years beginning on or after July 1, 1977, 67GA, ch 122, §16

422.100 Allocation to moneys and credits replacement fund in each county. There is created a permanent fund in the office of the treasurer of state to be known as the "moneys and credits replacement fund". The director shall determine the percentage which the aggregate taxable value for the year 1965 of the property described in and subject to taxation under section 429.2, Code 1966, owned or held by individuals, administrators, executors, guardians, conservators, trustees or an agent or nominee thereof, and the aggregate taxable value for the year 1965 of the property described in and subject to taxation under section 431.1, Code 1966, for the year 1965 but not subject to taxation under said section for the year 1966, in each county bears to the total aggregate taxable value of such property reported from all of the counties in the state and shall certify the percentage, for each county to the state comptroller prior to January 1, 1967. In July of each year, the state comptroller shall apply said percentage to the money which shall have accumulated in the moneys and credits tax replacement fund prior to such July and thereby determine the amount thereof due to each county. The state comptroller shall draw warrants on the moneys and credits tax replacement fund in such amounts payable to the county treasurer of each county and transmit them. The county treasurer shall apportion these amounts as follows: For the amounts received in January 1972, and all previously collected amounts, twenty percent to the county general fund, fifty percent to the school general fund, and the remaining thirty percent to cities and towns in the proportion that the taxable values for each city and town for 1965 of property subject to taxation in 1965 under sections 429.2, Code 1966, and 431.1, Code 1966, is to the total of such taxable values for all cities and towns within the county; for the amounts received in January 1973, and all subsequently collected amounts, forty percent to the county general fund, and the remaining sixty percent to cities and towns in the proportion that the taxable values for each city and town for the year 1965 under sections 429.2 and 431.1, Code 1966, is to the total of such taxable values for all the cities and towns within the county.

Not later than December 31, 1973, the county auditor may file a certified statement with the state comptroller demonstrating errors made in calculating the aggregate taxable value for the year of 1965. The comptroller, upon verifying that an error was made, shall recalculate the amount payable to counties for the previous seven years, based upon the amounts which were available in the moneys and credits tax replacement fund in January of each year, and shall notify each county of its total overpayment or underpayment for the seven-year period. If a county has received an overpayment, it shall refund the overpayment to the comptroller for deposit in the moneys and credits tax replacement fund. The refund of an overpayment shall be made not later than December 31, 1976. If a county has received an underpayment, the comptroller shall pay the amount of the underpayment to the county from the moneys and credits tax replacement fund, not later than January of 1977. The refund of an overpayment shall be made from the county general fund, and the amount received for an underpayment shall be deposited in the county general fund, but the board of supervisors shall distribute thirty percent of the overpayment to cities and towns in the county in proportion to the corrected taxable values for each city and town for 1965. [C66,§422.71; C71, 73, 75, 77,§422.78; C79,§422.100]

422.101 Special reserve fund created. The treasurer of state shall credit the first ten million dollars received after June 24, 1977 from the receipts resulting from the payments received upon the filing of declarations of estimated tax from corporations subject to the tax imposed under division III of this chapter to the general fund of the state. After crediting the first ten million dollars received to the general fund of the state, the treasurer of state shall credit the next twenty-five million dollars received after July 1, 1977 from the receipts resulting from the payments received upon the filing of declarations of estimated tax from corporations subject to the tax imposed under division III of this chapter to a special reserve fund, which is hereby created in the office of the treasurer of state. [C79,§422.101]

422.102 Duty of director of revenue. Upon receipt of estimated tax payments from corporations and as soon as practical after the close of each calendar quarter, the director shall certify to the treasurer of state the amount collected. [C79,§422.102]

422.103 Use of fund. Moneys credited to the special reserve fund shall be used to pay claims approved by the director of revenue for refunds of income tax paid by corporations which claims are based upon the income allocation formula provided in section 422.33. Moneys credited to the special reserve fund shall be exempt from the provisions of section 8.39. [C79,§422.103]

422.104 Transfer of funds. When the governor determines that the need for the special reserve fund no longer exists, he shall direct the transfer of the moneys in the special reserve fund to the general fund. [C79,§422.104]

FUEL TAX CREDIT

Applicable to purchases made on or after July 1, 1974

422.110 Income tax credit in lieu of refund. In lieu of the fuel tax refund provided in sections 324.17 to 324.19, each person or corporation subject to taxation under divisions II or III of this chapter, except those persons or corporations licensed under sections 324.4 or 324.36, may elect to receive an income tax credit for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1975. The person or corporation which elects to receive an income tax credit shall cancel its refund permit obtained under section 324.18 within thirty days after the first day of its tax year. For the purposes of this section the term "person" includes a person claiming a tax credit based upon the person's pro rata share of the earnings from a partnership or corporation which corporation or partnership as a business entity is not subject to a tax under divisions II or III of this chapter as a partnership or corporation. When the election to receive an income tax credit has been made, it remains effective for at least one tax year, and for subsequent tax years unless a change is requested and a new refund permit applied for within thirty days after the first day of the person's or corporation's tax year. The income tax credit shall be the amount of the Iowa fuel tax paid on fuel purchased by the person or corporation and used as follows:

1. Motor fuel as defined in section 324.2, subsection 1, used for the purpose of operating or propelling farm tractors, corn shellers, roller mills, truck-mounted feed grinders, stationary engines, aircraft, for cleaning or dyeing, or for any purpose other than in watercraft or in motor vehicles operated or intended to be operated upon the public highways.

2. Special fuel as defined in section 324.33, subsection 1, used for the purpose of operation of corn shellers, roller mills and feed grinders mounted on trucks.

3. Motor fuel placed in motor vehicles and used, other than on public highways, in the extraction and processing of natural deposits.

4. Motor fuel or special fuel used by a bona fide commercial fisherman, licensed and operating under an owner's certificate for commercial fishing gear issued pursuant to section 110.1.

However, no credit shall be given with respect to motor fuel taken out of the state in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, or motor fuel used in the performance of a contract which is paid out of state funds unless the contract for the work contains a certificate made under penalty for false certificate that the estimate, bid or price to be paid for the work includes no amount representing motor fuel tax subject to a credit. The right to a credit under this section is not assignable and the credit may be claimed only by the person or corporation that purchased the fuel. [C75, 77, §422.86; C79, §422.110; 68GA, ch 98, §1]

Amendment by 68GA, ch 98, effective January 1, 1980, for income tax credits claimed in tax returns filed subsequent to that date, 68GA, ch 98, §2

422.111 Fuel tax credit as income tax credit. The fuel tax credit may be applied against the income tax liability of the person or corporation as determined on the tax return filed for the year in which the fuel tax was paid. The fuel tax credit for tax paid on motor fuel used for the purpose of operating aircraft must be itemized separately. The department shall provide forms for claiming the fuel tax credit. If the fuel tax credit would result in an overpayment of income tax, the person or corporation may apply for a refund of the amount of overpayment or may have the overpayment credited to income tax due in subsequent years. Each person or corporation that claims a fuel tax credit shall maintain the original invoices showing the purchase of the fuel on which a credit is claimed. No invoice is acceptable in support of a claim for credit unless it is a separate serially numbered invoice covering no more than one purchase of motor fuel or special fuel, prepared by the seller on a form approved by the department, nor unless it is legibly written with no corrections or erasures and shows the date of sale, the name and address of the seller and of the purchaser, the kind of fuel, the gallonage in figures, the per gallon price of the fuel, the total purchase price including the Iowa fuel tax, and that the total purchase price has been paid. However, as to refund invoices made on a billing machine the department may waive these requirements. If an original invoice is lost or destroyed, the department may approve a credit supported by a copy identified and certified by the seller as being a true copy of the original. Each person or corporation that claims a fuel tax credit shall maintain complete records of purchases of motor fuel or special fuel on which Iowa fuel tax was paid, and for which a fuel tax credit is claimed.

In order to verify the validity of a claim for credit the department of revenue shall have the right to require the claimant to furnish such additional proof of validity as the department of revenue may determine and to examine the books and records of the claimant. Failure of the claimant to furnish his books and records for examination shall constitute a waiver of rights to claim a credit related to that taxpayer's year and the department may disallow the entire credit claimed by the taxpayer for that year.

If in verifying the validity of a claim for a refund of fuel taxes through an income tax credit under this section for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1975 and ending on or before December 31, 1976, the department discovers that all requirements of the law with respect to a refund of fuel taxes through an income tax credit have been complied with except for the provision of section 422.110 requiring cancellation of the refund permit, the department may allow the income tax credit. [C75, 77, §422.87; C79, §422.111]

422.112 Aircraft fuel tax transfer. The department shall certify quarterly to the treasurer of state the amount of credit that has been taken against income tax liability since the time of the last certification, for the Iowa fuel tax paid on motor fuel, special fuel and motor fuel used for the purpose of operating aircraft, and the treasurer of state shall transfer the amount of the total credit from the motor fuel tax fund, or in the case of aircraft motor fuel, from the separate fund established by section 324.82, to the general fund of the state. [C75, 77, §422.88; C79, §422.112]

imposed in increments of one or more full percentage points upon the gross receipts from the renting of any and all sleeping rooms, apartments, or sleeping quarters in any hotel, motel, inn, public lodging house, rooming house, or tourist court, or in any place where sleeping accommodations are furnished to transient guests for rent, whether with or without meals except the gross receipts from the renting of sleeping rooms in dormitories and in memorial unions at all universities and colleges located in the state of Iowa. The tax when imposed by a city shall apply only within the corporate boundaries of that city and when imposed by a county shall apply only outside incorporated areas within that county. "Renting" and "rent" include any kind of direct or indirect charge for such sleeping rooms, apartments, sleeping quarters, or the use thereof. However, such tax shall not apply to the gross receipts from the renting of a sleeping room, apartment, or sleeping quarters while rented by the same person for a period of more than thirty-one consecutive days.

A local hotel and motel tax shall be imposed on January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1, following the notification of the director of revenue. Once imposed, the tax shall remain in effect at the rate imposed for a minimum of one year. A local hotel and motel tax shall terminate only on March 31, June 30, September 30, or December 31. At least sixty days prior to the tax being effective or prior to a revision in the tax rate, or prior to the repeal of the tax, a city or county shall provide notice by certified mail of such action to the director of revenue.

A city or county shall impose a hotel and motel tax or increase the tax rate, only after an election at which a majority of those voting on the question favors imposition or increase. However, a hotel and motel tax shall not be repealed or reduced in rate if obligations are outstanding which are payable as provided in section 422A.2, unless funds sufficient to pay the principal, interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity have been properly set aside and pledged for such purpose. The election shall be held at the time of that city's or county's general election.

The director of revenue shall administer the provisions of a local hotel and motel tax as nearly as possible in conjunction with the administration of the state sales tax law. The director shall provide appropriate forms, or provide on the regular state tax forms, for reporting local hotel and motel tax liability. All moneys received or refunded one hundred eighty days after the date on which a city or county terminates its local hotel and motel tax shall be deposited in or withdrawn from the state general fund.

The director, in consultation with local officials, shall collect and account for a local hotel and motel tax and shall credit all revenues to a "local transient guest tax fund" established by section 422A.2.

No tax permit other than the state tax permit required under section 422.53 may be required by local authorities.

The tax herein levied shall be in addition to any state sales tax imposed under section 422.43. The provisions of sections 422.25, subsection 4, 422.30, 422.48 to 422.52, 422.54 to 422.58, 422.67, 422.68, 422.69, subsection 1, and 422.70 to 422.75, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall apply with respect to the taxes authorized under this chapter, in the same manner and with the same effect as if the hotel and motel taxes were retail sales taxes within the meaning of those statutes. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the director shall provide for only quarterly filing of returns as prescribed in section 422.51. Further, the director may require all persons as defined in section 422.42, who are engaged in the business of deriving gross receipts subject to tax under this chapter, to register with the department. #### 422A.2 Local transient guest tax fund.

1. There is created in the office of the treasurer of state a local transient guest tax fund which shall consist of all moneys credited to such fund under section 422A.1.

2. All moneys in the local transient guest tax fund shall be remitted at least quarterly by the treasurer of state, pursuant to rules of the director of revenue, to each city in the amount collected from businesses in that city and to each county in the amount collected from businesses in the unincorporated areas of the county.

3. Moneys received by the county or city from this fund shall be credited to the general fund of such county or city, subject to the provisions of subsection 4.

4. The revenue derived from any hotel and motel tax authorized by this chapter shall be used as follows:

a. Each county or city which levies the tax shall spend at least fifty percent of the revenues derived therefrom for the acquisition of sites for, or constructing, improving, enlarging, equipping, repairing, operating, or maintaining of recreation, convention, cultural, or entertainment facilities including but not limited to memorial buildings, halls and monuments, civic center convention buildings, auditoriums, coliseums, and parking areas or facilities located at those recreation, convention, cultural, or entertainment facilities or the payment of principal and interest, when due, on bonds or other evidence of indebtedness issued by the county or city for those recreation, convention, cultural, or entertainment facilities; or for the promotion and encouragement of tourist and convention business in the city or county and surrounding areas.

b. The remaining revenues may be spent by the city or county which levies the tax for any city or county operations authorized by law as a proper purpose for the expenditure within statutory limitations of city or county revenues derived from ad valorem taxes.

c. Any city or county which levies and collects the hotel and motel tax authorized by this chapter may pledge irrevocably an amount of the revenues derived therefrom for each of the years the bonds remain outstanding to the payment of bonds which the city or county may issue for one or more of the purposes set forth in paragraph "a" of this subsection. Any revenue pledged to the payment of such bonds may be credited to the spending requirement of paragraph "a" of this subsection.

d. The provisions of division III of chapter 384 relating to the issuance of essential corporate purpose bonds apply to the issuance by a city of bonds payable as provided in this section and the provisions of chapter 23 relating to the issuance of county bonds apply to the issuance of a county of bonds payable as provided in this section. The provisions of chapter 76 apply to the bonds payable as provided in this section except that the mandatory levy to be assessed pursuant to section 76.2 shall be at a rate to generate an amount which together with the receipts from the pledged portion of the hotel and motel tax is sufficient to pay the interest and principal on the bonds. All amounts collected as a result of the levy assessed pursuant to section 76.2 and paid out in the first instance for bond principal and interest shall be repaid to the city or county which levied the tax from the first available hotel and motel tax collections received in excess of the requirement for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds and when repaid shall be applied in reduction of property taxes.

The amount of bonds which may be issued under section 76.3 shall be the amount which could be retired from the actual collections of the hotel and motel tax for the last four calendar quarters, as certified by the director of revenue. The amount of tax revenues pledged jointly by other cities or counties may be considered for the purpose of determining the amount of bonds which may be issued. If the hotel and motel tax has been in effect for less than four calendar quarters, the tax collected within the shorter period may be adjusted to project the collections for the full year for the purpose of determining the amount of the bonds which may be issued.

e. A city or county, jointly with one or more other cities or counties as provided in chapter 28E, may pledge irrevocably any amount derived from the revenues of the hotel and motel tax to the support or payment of bonds issued for a project within the purposes set forth in paragraph "a" of this subsection and located within one or more of the participatory cities or counties or may apply the proceeds of its bonds to the support of any such project. Revenue so pledged or applied shall be credited to the spending requirement of paragraph "a" of this subsection.

f. Bonds shall not be issued payable as provided in this section unless the issuance of the bonds has been authorized by an election, or the bonds are issued prior to November 1, 1982 payable from a hotel and motel tax which was authorized at an election held prior to July 1, 1979 [C79, §422A.2, 68GA, ch 100, §2, 3].

Motor vehicles from other states, §423.25

423.8 Sales tax report—deduction. Motor vehicle or trailer dealers, in making their reports and returns to the department for the purpose of paying the retail sales tax imposed by division IV of chapter 422, shall be permitted to deduct all gross receipts from retail sales of vehicles subject to registration. Gross receipts from sales of vehicles subject to registration are hereby expressly exempted from the tax imposed by said division IV, but, if required by the director, such gross receipts shall be included in the returns made by motor vehicle or trailer dealers under said division IV, and proper deductions taken pursuant to this section. [C39, §6943.108; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §423.8]

Each such retailer shall list with the department the name and address of all his agents operating in this state, and the location of any and all his distribution or sales houses or offices or other places of business in this state.

Every person rendering, furnishing, or performing services enumerated in section 422.43, maintaining a place of business in this state shall be subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph. [C39, §6943.109; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §423.9]

423.10 Foreign retailers. The director may, upon application authorize the collection of the tax herein imposed by any retailer not maintaining a place of business within this state, who, to the satisfaction of the director furnishes adequate security to insure collection and payment of the tax. Such retailer shall be issued, without charge, a permit to collect such tax in such manner, and subject to such regulations and agreements as the director shall prescribe. When so authorized, it shall be the duty of such retailer to collect the tax upon all tangible personal property sold to his knowledge for use within this state, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as a retailer maintaining a place of business within this state. Such authority and permit may be canceled when, at any time, the director considers the security inadequate, or that such tax can more effectively be collected from the person using such property in this state.

The discretionary power granted therein is extended to apply in the case of persons rendering, furnishing or performing services enumerated in section 422.43. [C39,§6943.110; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.10]

The director shall have the power to adopt and promulgate rules for adding such tax, or the average equivalent thereof, by providing different methods applying uniformly to retailers within the same general classification for the purpose of enabling such retailers to add and collect, as far as practicable, the amount of such tax. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section within this state shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. [C39,§6943.111; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.11]

423.13 Payment to department. Each permit holder required or authorized, pursuant to section 423.9 or 423.10, to collect the tax herein imposed, shall be required to pay to the department the amount of such tax, on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly period. At such time, each such retailer shall file with the department a return for the preceding quarterly period in such form as may be prescribed by the director showing the sales price of any or all tangible personal property sold by the retailer during such preceding quarterly period, the use of which is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and such other information as the director may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance of the amount of such tax, for the period covered by the return. If necessary in order to insure payment to the state of the amount of such tax, the director may in any or all cases require returns and payments of such amount to be made for other than quarterly periods. The director may, upon request and a proper showing of the necessity therefor, grant an extension of time not to exceed thirty days for making any return and payment. Returns shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent, and must be certified by him to be correct. [C39, §6943.113; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.13]

423.15 Bond to secure payment. The director may, when necessary and advisable in order to secure the collection of the tax levied under this chapter, authorize any person subject to such tax, and any permit holder required or authorized to collect such tax pursuant to the provisions of sections 423.9 and 423.10, to file with the department a bond, issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the insurance commissioner as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as the director may fix, to secure the payment of any tax, amount, or penalties due or which may become due from such person. In lieu of such bond, securities approved by the director, in such amount as the director may prescribe, may be deposited with the department, which securities shall be kept in the custody of the department and may be sold by the director at public or private sale, without notice to the depositor thereof, if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax or penalties due. Upon any such sale, the surplus, if any, above the amounts due under this chapter shall be returned to the person who deposited the securities. [C39, §6943.115; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.15]

423.16 Determination by department. If any return required by this chapter is not filed, or if any return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, and the maker or person from whom it is due fails to file a corrected or sufficient return within twenty days after the same is required by notice from the department, the department shall have the same power to determine the amount due, as is vested in the department by sections 422.54, 422.55, and 422.57, subject to all of the provisions, and restrictions, and rights to seek judicial review provided in said sections. Where a return required by this chapter has been filed, the five-year period of limitation specified in section 422.54, subsection 1, shall apply to the making of a determination by the department of the amount of tax due hereunder and to the giving of notice to the taxpayer of such determination. [C39,§6943.116; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.16]

423.17 Lien of tax—penalties. All of the provisions of sections 422.56 and 422.57 shall apply in respect to the procedure, taxes, amounts required to be paid, or penalties imposed, as provided by this chapter. [C39,§6943.117; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.17]

423.18 Offenses—penalties—limitations.

1. If a person fails to file a return with the department on or before the due date, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on the return five percent of the amount of the tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. If a person or permit holder fails to permit at least ninety percent of the tax due with the filing of the return on or before the due date, or pays less than ninety percent of any tax required to be shown on the return, excepting the period between the completion of an examination of the books and records of a taxpayer and the giving of notice to the taxpayer that a tax or additional tax is due, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the tax due, if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause. In case of willful failure to file a return, willfully filing a false return, or willfully filing a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, in lieu of the penalty otherwise provided in this subsection, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on the return fifty percent of the amount of the tax. When penalties are applicable for failure to file a return and failure to pay at least ninety percent of the tax due or required on the return, the penalty provision for failure to file is in lieu of the penalty provision for failure to pay at last ninety percent of the tax due or required on the return. The taxpayer shall also pay interest on the tax or additional tax at the rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the return was required to be filed. The penalty and interest shall be paid to the department and disposed of in the same manner as other receipts under this chapter. Unpaid penalties and interest may be enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter.

2. A person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade a tax imposed by this chapter or the payment of ninety percent thereof, or a person who makes or causes to be made any false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax imposed by this chapter or the payment of ninety percent thereof is guilty of a fraudulent practice.

3. A person required to pay tax, or to make, sign or file a return, or supplemental return, who willfully makes a false or fraudulent return, or make, sign or file the return, at the time required by law, is guilty of a fraudulent practice.

4. For purposes of determining the place of trial, the situs of an offense specified in this section is in the county of the residence of the person charged with the offense, unless that person is a nonresident of this state or the residence of that person cannot be established, in which event the situs of the offense is in Polk county.

5. A prosecution for an offense specified in this section shall be commenced within six years after its commission. [C39,§6943.118–6943.120; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.18–423.120; 68GA, ch 97,§5, 7, ch 1113,§5]

423.21 Books—examination. Every retailer required or authorized to collect taxes imposed by this chapter and every person using in this state tangible personal property shall keep such records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers as the director shall require, in such form as the director shall require. The director or any duly authorized agent of the department may examine the books, papers, records, and equipment of any person either selling tangible personal property or liable for the tax imposed by this chapter, and investigate the character of the business of any such person in order to verify the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made by such person, ascertain and determine the amount due under the provisions of this chapter. Any such books, papers, and records shall be made available within this state for such examination upon reasonable notice when the director shall deem it advisable and shall so order. The preceding requirements shall likewise apply to users and persons rendering, furnishing, or performing service enumerated in section 422.43. [C39,§6943.121; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.21]

423.22 Revoking permits. Whenever any retailer maintaining a place of business in this state, or authorized to collect the tax herein imposed pursuant to section 423.10, fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter or any orders or rules prescribed and adopted under this chapter, the director may, upon notice and hearing as hereinafter provided, by order revoke the permit, if any, issued to such retailer under section 422.53, or if such retailer is a corporation authorized to do business in this state under chapter 494, may certify to the secretary of state a copy of an order finding that such retailer has failed to comply with certain specified provisions, orders or rules. The secretary of state shall, upon receipt of such certified copy, revoke the permit authorizing said corporation to do business in this state, and shall issue a new permit only when such corporation shall have obtained from the director an order finding that such corporation has complied with its obligations under this chapter. No order authorized in this section shall be made until the retailer is given an opportunity to be heard and to show cause why such order should not be made, and he shall be given ten days' notice of the time, place, and purpose of such hearing. The director may issue a new permit pursuant to section 422.53 after such revocation. The preceding provision shall apply to users and persons supplying services enumerated in section 422.43. 423.23 Statutes applicable. The director is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, and the director and employees of the department shall administer this chapter and the taxes imposed by this chapter in the same manner and subject to all of the provisions of, and all of the powers, duties, authority, and restrictions contained in section 422.30 and sections 422.67 to 422.75 or any amendments which may hereafter be made thereto, all of which sections are by this reference incorporated herein. 423.24 Deposit of revenue. All revenue arising under the operation of this chapter, derived from the use tax on motor vehicles, trailers, and motor vehicle accessories and equipment, as same may be collected as provided by section 423.7 shall be credited to the road use tax fund. All other revenue arising under the operation of this chapter shall be credited to the general fund of the state. [C39,§6943.124; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§423.24]

423.25 Taxation in another state. If any person who causes tangible personal property to be brought into this state has already paid a tax in another state in respect to the sale or use of such property, or an occupation tax in respect thereto, in an amount less than the tax imposed by this title, the provisions of this title shall apply, but at a rate measured by the difference only between the rate herein fixed and the rate by which the previous tax on the sale or use, or the occupation tax, was computed. If such tax imposed and paid in such other state is equal to or more than the tax imposed by this title, then no tax shall be due in this state on such personal property. PROPERTY TAX RELIEF FOR ELDERLY AND DISABLED

- 425.16 Additional tax credit.
- 425.17 Definitions.
- 425.18 Claim is personal.
- 425.19 Claim and credit or reimbursement.

425.1 Ratio and manner of distribution.

1. There is hereby appropriated annually from the general fund of the state to the department of revenue to be credited to the homestead credit fund, which fund is hereby created, an amount sufficient to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

The director of revenue shall requisition the state comptroller to issue his warrants on the homestead credit fund payable to the county treasurers of the several counties of the state under the provisions of this chapter.

2. The homestead credit fund shall be apportioned each year so as to give a credit against the tax on each eligible homestead in the state in an amount equal to the actual levy on the first four thousand eight hundred fifty dollars of actual value for each homestead.

3. The revenue distributable from the homestead credit fund, as provided for in subsection 1 hereof, shall be allocated every six months to the several counties of the state. Every six months the department of revenue shall certify and remit to the county treasurer of each county in the state the total amount of money which has been apportioned or is then apportionable to that county.

4. Annually the department of revenue shall estimate the credit not to exceed the actual levy on the first four thousand eight hundred fifty dollars of actual value of each eligible homestead, and shall certify to the county auditor of each county the credit and its amount in dollars. Each county auditor shall then enter the credit against the tax levied on each eligible homestead in each county payable during the ensuing year, designating on the tax lists the credit as being from the homestead credit fund, and credit shall then be given to the several taxing districts in which eligible homesteads are located in an amount equal to the credits allowed on the taxes of the homesteads. The amount of credits shall be apportioned by each county treasurer to the several taxing districts as provided by law, in the same manner as though the amount of the credit had been paid by the owners of the homesteads. However, the several taxing districts shall not draw the funds so credited until after the semiannual allocations have been received by the county treasurer, as provided in this chapter. Each county treasurer shall show on each tax receipt the amount of credit received from the homestead credit fund.

5. If the homestead tax credit computed under this section is less than sixty-two dollars and fifty cents, the amount of homestead tax credit on that eligible homestead shall be sixty-two dollars and fifty cents subject to the limitation imposed in this section.

6. The homestead tax credit allowed in this chapter shall not exceed the actual amount of taxes payable on the eligible homestead, exclusive of any special assessments levied against the homestead.

7. Where any special charter city levies and collects its own taxes, the amount of the homestead tax credit allowed on eligible homesteads within the city shall be computed as follows:

a. In an amount equal to the tax levy by the special charter city on the first four thousand eight hundred fifty dollars of actual value for each eligible homestead.

b. In an amount equal to the remainder of the consolidated levy as established by the county auditor on the first four thousand eight hundred fifty dollars of actual value for each eligible homestead.

The homestead tax credit computed under this subsection shall be applicable for each homestead tax credit claimed between January 1 and July 1 of the year in which the valuation being taxed by the city and county respectively was established.

8. In any special charter city which levies and collects its own taxes, the city clerk shall compute that amount of credit allowed on each eligible homestead within such city as provided in subsection 7. Not later than August 1 of each year, the city clerk shall certify the amount of the homestead tax credits claimed for eligible homesteads in the city to the department of revenue. The department shall reimburse the city in the same manner and at such time as is presently* provided for reimbursement of counties in this section. Amendments by 67GA retroactive to January 1, 1976

The provisions of 68GA, ch 1136, §1 are retroactive to January 1, 1979 for credits claimed on or after January 1, 1979 and approved under chapter 425 for a homestead tax credit on an eligible homestead and to this extent the provisions of 68GA, ch 1136, §1 are retroactive, 68GA, ch 1136, §20

425.2 Qualifying for credit. Any person applying for homestead tax credit shall each year on or before July 1 deliver to the assessor, on forms furnished by the assessor, a verified statement and designation of homestead as claimed. The assessor shall return said statement and designation on July 2 of each year to the county auditor with a recommendation for allowance or disallowance endorsed thereon. In case the owner of the homestead is in active service in the armed forces of this state or of the United States, or is sixty-five years of age or older, or is disabled, such statement and designation may be signed and delivered by any member of the owner's family. In all cases where the owner of the homestead is married, the spouse may sign and deliver the statement and designation. The commissioner of social services or the commissioner's designee may make application for the benefits of this chapter as the agent for and on behalf of persons receiving assistance under chapter 249.

Any person sixty-five years of age or older or any person who is disabled may request, in writing, from the appropriate assessor forms for filing for homestead tax credit. Any person sixty-five years of age or older or who is disabled may complete the form, which shall include a statement of homestead, and mail or return it to the appropriate assessor. The signature of the claimant on the statement shall be considered the claimant's acknowledgment that all statements and facts entered on the form are correct to the best of the claimant's knowledge.

Upon adoption of a resolution by the county board of supervisors, any person may request, in writing, from the appropriate assessor forms for the filing for homestead tax credit. The person may complete the form, which shall include a statement of homestead, and mail or return it to the appropriate assessor. The signature of the claimant on the statement of homestead shall be considered the claimant's acknowledgment that all statements and facts entered on the form are correct to the best of the claimant's knowledge. [C39,§6943.143; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.2]

See 67GA, ch 1145, §9 for effective dates of amendments

425.3 Verification by board. The county board of supervisors in each county shall forthwith examine all such claims, delivered to the assessors as herein provided, and shall either allow or disallow said claims, and in the event of disallowance notice thereof shall be sent by certified mail to claimant at his last known address. [C39,§6943.144; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.3]

425.4 Certification to treasurer. All claims which have been allowed by the board of supervisors shall be certified on or before August 1, in each year, by the county auditor to the county treasurer, which certificates shall list the total amount of dollars, listed by taxing district in the county, due for homestead tax credits claimed and allowed. The county treasurer shall forthwith certify to the department of revenue the total amount of dollars, listed by taxing district in the county, due for homestead tax credits claimed and allowed. [C39,§6943.145; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.4]

425.5 Correcting listing. If the assessor who last listed and valued a claimed eligible homestead did not, in the description and valuation thereof, comply with the provisions of section 428.7, he shall, if still in office, on the written request of such claimant and without expense to the claimant or to the county, correct his listing and valuations of such claimed homestead and contiguous real property originally listed and valued by him, and file such corrected listing and valuations with the county auditor, who forthwith shall certify the same to the county treasurer, and said county treasurer shall so correct his tax books; provided, that if the assessor who last listed and valued such property is not still in office, the assessor in office shall, on such written request and at the expense of the county, so correct such listing and valuations of said homestead and said contiguous real property. [C39,§6943.146; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.5]

425.6 Waiver by neglect. If any person fails to make claim for the credits provided for under this chapter as herein required, he shall be deemed to have waived the homestead credit for the year in which he failed to make claim. [C39,§6943.147; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.6]

425.7 Appeals permitted.

1. Any person whose claim is denied under the provisions of this chapter may appeal from the action of the board of supervisors to the district court of the county in which said claimed homestead is situated by giving written notice of such appeal to the county auditor of said county within twenty days from the date of mailing of notice of such action by the board of supervisors.

2. In the event any claim under this chapter is allowed, any owner of an eligible homestead may appeal from the action of the board of supervisors to the district court of the county in which said claimed homestead is situated, by giving written notice of such appeal to the county auditor of said county and such notice to the owner of said claimed homestead as a judge of the district court shall direct.

3. Should the director of revenue determine, upon investigation, that any claim for homestead credit has been allowed by any board of supervisors which is not justifiable under the law and not substantiated by proper facts, the director may, at any time within twenty-four months from July 1 of the year in which the claim is filed, set aside such allowance. Notice of such disallowance shall be given to the county auditor of the county in which such claim has been improperly granted and a written notice of such disallowance shall also be addressed to the claimant at his last known address. Such claimant, or the board of supervisors, may seek judicial review of the action of the director of revenue in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. In any case where a claim is so disallowed by the director of revenue and no petition for judicial review is filed with respect to such disallowance, any amounts of credits allowed and paid from the homestead credit fund shall become a lien upon the property on which said credit was originally granted, if still in the hands of the claimant, and not in the hands of a bona fide purchaser, and any amount so erroneously paid shall be collected by the county treasurer in the same manner as other taxes and such collections shall be returned to the department of revenue and credited to the homestead credit fund. The director of revenue shall also have the authority to institute legal proceedings against a homestead credit claimant for the collection of all payments made on such disallowed credits. [C39,§6943.148; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.7]

425.8 Forms—rules. The director of revenue shall prescribe the form for the making of verified statement and designation of homestead, and the form for the supporting affidavits required herein, and such other forms as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this chapter, and from time to time thereafter as necessary the department of revenue shall forward to the county auditors of the several counties in the state such prescribed sample forms, and the county auditors shall furnish blank forms prepared in accordance therewith with the assessment rolls, books, and supplies delivered to the assessors.

The director of revenue may prescribe rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, necessary to carry out and effectuate its purposes. [C39, §6943.149; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.8]

425.9 Credits in excess of tax—appeals—refunds.

If the amount of credit apportioned to any homestead under the provisions of this chapter in any year shall exceed the total tax, exclusive of any special assessments levied against said homestead, then such excess shall be remitted by the county treasurer to the department of revenue to be redeposited in the homestead credit fund and be reallocated the following year by the department as provided hereunder.

If any claim for credit made hereunder has been denied by the board of supervisors, and such action is subsequently reversed on appeal, the credit shall be allowed on the homestead involved in said appeal, and the director of revenue, the county auditor, and the county treasurer shall make such credit and change their books and records accordingly.

In the event the appealing taxpayer has paid one or both of the installments of the tax payable in the year or years in question on such homestead valuation, remittance shall be made to such taxpayer of the amount of such credit.

The amount of such credit shall be allocated and paid from the surplus redeposited in the homestead credit fund provided for in the first paragraph of this section. [C39,§6943.150; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.9]

Amendment by 67GA retroactive to January 1, 1976

425.10 Reversal of allowed claim. In the event any claim is allowed, and subsequently reversed on appeal, any credit made thereunder shall be void, and the amount of such credit shall be charged against the property in question, and the director of revenue, the county auditor, and the county treasurer are authorized and directed to correct their books and records accordingly. The amount of such erroneous credit, when collected, shall be returned by the county treasurer to the homestead credit fund to be reallocated the following year as provided herein. [C39,§6943.151; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§425.10]

When any person is inducted into active service under the Selective Training and Service Act of the United States or whose voluntary entry into active service results in a credit on the quota of persons required for service under the Selective Training and Service Act, or who, being a member of any component part of the military, naval, or air forces or nurse corps of this state or nation, is called or ordered into active service, such person shall be considered as occupying or living on the homestead during such service and, where equitable or legal title of the homestead is in the spouse of the person who is a member of or is inducted into the armed services of the United States, the spouse shall be considered as occupying or living on the homestead during such service.

When any person is confined in a nursing home, extended-care facility, or hospital, such person shall be considered as occupying or living on a homestead where such person is the owner of such homestead and such person maintains such homestead and does not lease, rent, or otherwise receive profits from other persons for the use thereof.

b. It may contain one or more contiguous lots or tracts of land with the buildings or other appurtenances thereon habitually, and in good faith, used as a part of the homestead.

c. It must not embrace more than one dwelling house, but where a homestead has more than one dwelling house situated thereon, the credit provided for in this chapter shall apply to the home and buildings used by the owner, but shall not apply to any other dwelling house and buildings appurtenant.

For the purpose of this chapter the word "owner" shall be construed to mean a bona fide owner and not one for the purpose only of availing himself or herself of the benefits of this chapter. In order to qualify for the homestead tax credit, evidence of ownership shall be on file in the office of the clerk of the district court or recorded in the office of the county recorder at the time the owner files with the assessor a verified statement of the homestead claimed by him or her as provided in section 425.2.

3. The words "assessed valuation" shall mean the taxable valuation of the homestead as fixed by the assessor, or by the board of review, under the provisions of section 441.21, without deducting therefrom the exemptions authorized in section 427.3.

The credit allowed shall be continued to the estate of the veteran who is deceased or the surviving spouse and any child, as defined in section 234.1 who are the beneficiaries of the veteran so long as the surviving spouse remains unmarried. This section is not applicable to the holder of title to any homestead whose annual income, together with that of his or her spouse, if any, for the last preceding twelve-month income tax accounting period exceeds ten thousand dollars. For the purpose of this section "income" means taxable income for federal income tax purposes plus income from securities of state and other political subdivisions exempt from federal income tax. Any veteran or a beneficiary of the veteran who elects to secure the credit provided in this section is not eligible for any other real property tax exemption provided by law for veterans of military service. If the veteran acquires a different homestead, the credit allowed under the provisions of this section may be claimed on a new homestead unless the veteran fails to meet the other requirements of this section. 425.16 Additional tax credit. In addition to the homestead tax credit allowed under section 425.1, subsections 1 to 4, persons who own or rent their homesteads and who meet the qualifications provided in this division are eligible for an extraordinary property tax credit or reimbursement. Referred to in §427.9

425.17 Definitions. As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Income" means the sum of Iowa net income as defined in section 422.7, plus all of the following to the extent not already included in Iowa net income: Capital gains, alimony, child support money, cash public assistance and relief, except property tax relief granted under this division, the gross amount of any pension or annuity, including but not limited to railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal social security Act, and all military retirement and veterans' disability pensions, interest received from the state or federal government or any of its instrumentalities, workers' compensation and the gross amount of disability income or "loss of time" insurance. "Income" does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources, or surplus foods or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency.

2. "Household" means a claimant, spouse, and any person related to the claimant or spouse by blood, marriage, or adoption and living with the claimant at any time during the base year. "Living with" refers to domicile and does not include a temporary visit.

3. "Household income" means all income of the claimant and the claimant's spouse in a household and actual monetary contributions received from any other household member during their respective twelve-month income tax accounting periods ending with or during the base year.

4. "Homestead" means the dwelling owned or rented and actually used as a home by the claimant during all or part of the base year, and so much of the land surrounding it including one or more contiguous lots or tracts of land, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home, and may consist of a part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built. It does not include personal property except that a mobile home may be a homestead. Any dwelling or a part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building which is exempt from taxation does not qualify as a homestead under this division. A homestead must be located in this state.

5. "Claimant" means a person filing a claim for credit or reimbursement under this division who has attained the age of sixty-five years on or before December 31 of the base year or who is a surviving spouse having attained the age of fifty-five years on or before December 31 of the base year, or who is totally disabled and was totally disabled on or before December 31 of the base year, and was domiciled in this state during the entire base year and is domiciled in this state at the time the claim is filed. "Claimant" includes a vendee in possession under a contract for deed and may include one or more joint tenants or tenants in common. In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes paid, the claimant shall have rented the property during any part of the base year. If a homestead is occupied by two or more persons, and more than one person is able to qualify as a claimant, the persons may determine among them who will be the claimant. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the director of revenue not later than October 31 of each year and the director's decision shall be final.

6. "Totally disabled" means the inability to engage in any substantial gainful employment by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or is reasonably expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months.

7. "Rent constituting property taxes paid" means twenty-five percent of the gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent during the base year by the claimant or the claimant's household solely for the right of occupancy of their homestead in the base year, and which rent constitutes the basis, in the succeeding year, of a claim for reimbursement under this division by the claimant.

8. "Gross rent" means rental paid at arm's length solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead or mobile home, including rent for space occupied by a mobile home not to exceed one acre, exclusive of charges for any utilities, services, furniture, furnishings, or personal property appliances furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. If the director of revenue determines that the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arm's length, and the director of revenue is satisfied that the gross rent charged was excessive, he shall adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount as determined by the director. If the landlord does not supply the charges for any utilities, services, furniture, furnishings, or personal property appliances furnished by him, or if the charges appear to be incorrect, the director of revenue may apply a percentage determined from samples of similar gross rents paid solely for the right of occupancy.

9. "Property taxes due" means property taxes including any special assessments, but exclusive of delinquent interest and charges for services, due on a claimant's homestead in this state, but includes only property taxes for which the claimant is liable and which will actually be paid by the claimant. However, if the claimant is a person whose property taxes have been suspended under sections 427.8 and 427.9, "property taxes due" means property taxes including any special assessments, but exclusive of delinquent interest and charges for services, due on a claimant's homestead in this state, but includes only property taxes for which the claimant is liable and which would have to be paid by the claimant if the payment of the taxes have not been suspended pursuant to sections 427.8 and 427.9. "Property taxes due" shall be computed with no deduction for any credit under this division or for any homestead credit allowed under section 425.1. Each claim shall be based upon the taxes due during the fiscal year next following the base year. If a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, and one or more persons are not a member of claimant's household, "property taxes due" is that part of property taxes due on the homestead which equals the ownership percentage of the claimant and his or her household. The county treasurer shall include with the tax receipt a statement that if the owner of the property is sixty-five years of age or over or is totally disabled, or is a surviving spouse of such person who is over fifty-five years of age, the person may be eligible for the credit allowed under this division. If a homestead is an integral part of a farm, the claimant may use the total property taxes due for the larger unit. If a homestead is an integral part of a multi-dwelling or multipurpose building the property taxes due for the purpose of this subsection shall be prorated to reflect the portion which the value of the property that the household occupies as its homestead is to the value of the entire structure. For purposes of this subsection, "unit" refers to that parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

10. "Special assessment" means special assessments made pursuant to sections 384.37 to 384.79. The amount of a special assessment which may be included in the amount of property taxes due for one year shall be an amount equal to one-tenth of the total amount of the special assessment levied against the homestead of the claimant, if the claimant elects to pay the total amount of the special assessment in one payment. If the claimant elects to pay the special assessment in ten annual installments as provided by law, the claimant may include as a portion of the property taxes due during the fiscal year next following the base year an amount equal to the special assessment, including interest, due during that same fiscal year.

11. "Base year" means the calendar year last ending before the claim is filed. [C75, 77, 79, §425.17; 68GA, ch 43, §3, ch 1137, §3, 4, ch 1012, §55]

Referred to in §135D.22, 427 9

425.18 Claim is personal. The right to file a claim under this division shall be personal to the claimant and shall not survive the claimant's death, but the right may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by his or her legal guardian, spouse or attorney. If a claimant dies after having filed a claim for reimbursement for rent constituting property taxes paid, the amount of the reimbursement may be paid to another member of the household as determined by the director. If the claimant was the only member of the household, the reimbursement may be paid to the claimant's executor or administrator, but if neither is appointed and qualified within one year from the date of the filing of the claim, the reimbursement shall escheat to the state. If a claimant dies after having filed a claim for credit for property taxes due, the amount of credit shall be paid as if the claimant had not died. [C75, 77, 79, §425.18; 68GA, ch 43, §4]

Amendment effective January 1, 1978, 67GA, ch 1146, §9

425.19 Claim and credit or reimbursement. Subject to the limitations provided in this division, a claimant may annually claim a credit for property taxes due during the fiscal year next following the base year or claim a reimbursement for rent constituting property taxes paid in the base year. The amount of the credit for property taxes due for a homestead shall be paid within one hundred eighty days after receipt of the claim by the director to the county treasurer who shall credit the money received against the amount of the property taxes due and payable on the homestead of the claimant and the amount of the reimbursement for rent constituting property taxes paid shall be paid to the claimant from the state general fund on December 31 of each year. [C75, 77, 79, §425.19; 68GA, ch 43, §5]

425.20 Filing date. A claim for reimbursement for rent constituting property taxes paid shall not be paid or allowed, unless the claim is actually filed with and in the possession of the department of revenue on or before October 31 of the year following the base year.

A claim for credit for property taxes due shall not be paid or allowed unless the claim is actually filed with the county treasurer between January 1 and July 1 immediately preceding the fiscal year during which the property taxes are due and contains an affidavit of the claimant's intent to occupy the homestead for six months or more during the fiscal year beginning in the calendar year in which the claim is filed. The county treasurer shall submit the claim to the director of revenue on or before August 1 of each year.

In case of sickness, absence, or other disability of the claimant or if, in the judgment of the director of revenue, good cause exists and the claimant requests an extension prior to November 1, or July 1 in the case of claim for credit for property taxes due, the director may extend the time for filing a claim for reimbursement or credit for a period not to exceed two months. [C75, 77, 79, §425.20; 68GA, ch 43, §6, ch 1137, §5]

Referred to in §427 9

425.21 Satisfaction of outstanding tax liabilities. The amount of any claim for credit or reimbursement payable under this division may be applied by the department of revenue against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant, or against a spouse who was a member of the claimant's household in the base year. [C75, 77, 79, §425.21; 68GA, ch 43, §7]

Referred to in §427 9

425.22 One claimant per household. Only one claimant per household per year shall be entitled to reimbursement under this division and only one claimant per household per fiscal year shall be entitled to a credit under this division. [C75, 77, 79, §425.22; 68GA, ch 43, §8]

Referred to in §427 9

425.23 Schedule for claims for credit or reimbursement. The amount of any claim for credit or reimbursement filed under this division shall be determined as provided in this section.

1. The tentative credit or reimbursement shall be the higher of the two amounts determined as follows:

a. The amount shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:*

If the household income is:	Percent of property taxes due or rent constituting property taxes paid allowed as a credit or reimbursement:
$ 0 - 3,999.99 .....	100%
4,000 - 4,999.99 .....	85
5,000 - 5,999.99 .....	60
6,000 - 6,999.99 .....	40
7,000 - 7,999.99 .....	30
8,000 - 8,999.99 .....	25
9,000 - 9,999.99 .....	20

b. If the claim is for property taxes due and the household income of the claimant is less than four thousand dollars, the alternative tentative credit shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars, but not to exceed the amount of property taxes due during the fiscal year next following the base year.

2. The actual credit for property taxes due shall be determined by subtracting from the tentative credit the amount of the homestead credit under section 425.1 which is allowed as a credit against property taxes due in the fiscal year next following the base year by the claimant or any person of the claimant's household. If the subtraction produces a negative amount, there shall be no credit but no refund shall be required. The actual reimbursement for rent constituting property taxes paid shall be equal to the tentative reimbursement.

3. a. Any person who is eligible to file a claim for credit for property taxes due and who has a household income of five thousand dollars or less and who has a special assessment levied against the homestead may file a claim with the county treasurer that the claimant had a household income of five thousand dollars or less and that a special assessment is presently levied against the homestead. The department shall provide to the respective county treasurers such forms as are necessary for the administration of this subsection. The claim shall be filed not later than September 30 of each year. Upon the filing of the claim, no penalty or interest for late payment shall accrue against the amount of the special assessment due and payable. The claim filed by the claimant shall constitute a claim for credit of an amount equal to the actual amount due and payable upon the special assessment payable during the fiscal year against the homestead of the claimant or an amount equal to the annual payment of the special assessment levied against the homestead of the claimant and payable in annual installments through the period of years provided by the governing body of the city, whichever is less. The department of revenue shall, upon the filing of the claim with the department by the county treasurer, pay that amount of the special assessment during the current fiscal year to the county treasurer. The county treasurer shall submit the claims to the director of revenue not later than October 15 of each year. The director of revenue shall certify to the state comptroller the amount of reimbursement due each county for special assessment credits allowed under this subsection. The amount of reimbursement due each county shall be paid by the state comptroller on November 15 of each year, drawn upon warrants payable to the respective county treasurer. There is appropriated annually from the general fund of the state to the department of revenue an amount sufficient to carry out the provisions of this subsection. The county treasurer shall credit any moneys received from the department against the amount of the special assessment due and payable on the homestead of the claimant.

b. For purposes of this subsection, a totally disabled person in computing household income shall deduct all medical and necessary care expenses paid during the twelve-month income tax accounting periods used in computing household income which are attributable to the person's total disability. "Medical and necessary care expenses" are those used in computing the federal income tax deduction under section 213 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as defined in section 422.4. The director shall not adjust any claim after three years from October 31 of the year in which the claim was filed. If the claim for reimbursement has been paid, the amount may be recovered by assessment in the same manner that income taxes are assessed under sections 422.26 and 422.30. If the claim for credit has been paid, the county treasurer shall repay the amount to the director and after notification to the claimant of the recalculation or denial of the claim, the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the tax owed in the same manner as other property taxes due and payable are collected. 426A.1	Military service tax credit fund.	426A.6	Setting aside allowance.
426A.2	Where credit given.	426A.7	Forms—rules.
426A.3	Computation by auditor.	426A.8	Excess remitted—appeals.
426A.4	Certification by director of revenue.	426A.9	Erroneous credits.
426A.5	Proportionate shares to districts.	426A.10	Balance in reserve.

426A.1 Military service tax credit fund. There is hereby appropriated from any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of eight hundred thousand dollars to establish a fund to be known as "the military service tax credit fund", in which fund shall also be included the amounts credited to the military service tax fund provided by section 123.53, subsection 7. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§426A.1]

426A.2 Where credit given. The military service tax credit fund shall be apportioned each year as hereinafter provided so as to replace all or a portion of the tax on property eligible for military service tax exemption in the state, were such property subject to taxation the amount of such credit to be equal to not more than six dollars and seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon the valuation of property subject to the tax which, but for military service tax exemption, would be payable upon such property in the taxing district to which such property is located. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.2]

426A.3 Computation by auditor. On or before August 1 of each year the county auditor shall certify to the county treasurer all claims for military service tax exemptions which have been allowed by the board of supervisors. Such certificate shall list the total amount of dollars, listed by taxing district in the county, due for military service tax credits claimed and allowed. The county treasurer shall forthwith certify to the department of revenue the amount of dollars, listed by taxing district in the county, due for military service tax credits claimed and allowed. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.3]

426A.4 Certification by director of revenue. Sums distributable from the military service tax credit fund shall be allocated every six months to the several counties of the state. On March 25 and September 25 annually the director of revenue shall certify to the comptroller the total credits claimed by each county. Upon receipt of the certification from the director of revenue, the comptroller shall draw warrants to the treasurer of each county payable from the military tax service credit fund in the amount claimed; provided that if the amount of money in said fund is insufficient to pay the credits claimed in full, then in that event they shall be paid on a pro rata basis. [C50, 54, §426A.2, 426A.4; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.4]

426A.5 Proportionate shares to districts. The amount of credits received under this chapter shall then be apportioned by each county treasurer to the several taxing districts. Each taxing district shall receive its proportionate share of the military service tax credit allowed on each and every tax exemption allowed in such taxing district, in the proportion that the levy made by such taxing district upon general property bears to the total levy upon all property subject to general property taxation by all taxing districts imposing a general property tax in such taxing district. [C50, §426A.2, 426A.4; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.5]

426A.6 Setting aside allowance. Should the director of revenue determine, upon investigation, that any claim for military service tax exemption has been allowed by any board of supervisors which is not justifiable under the law and not substantiated by proper facts, the director may, at any time within twenty-four months from July 1 of the year in which the claim is filed, set aside such allowance. Notice of such disallowance shall be given to the county auditor of the county in which such claim has been improperly granted and a written notice of such disallowance shall also be addressed to the claimant at his last known address. Such claimant, or the board of supervisors, may seek judicial review of the action of the director of revenue in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. In any case, where a claim is so disallowed by the director of revenue and no petition for judicial review is filed with respect to such disallowance, any amounts of credits allowed and paid from the military service tax credit fund shall become a lien upon the property on which said credit was originally granted, if still in the hands of the claimant, and not in the hands of a bona fide purchaser, and any amount so erroneously paid shall be collected by the county treasurer in the same manner as other taxes and such collections shall be returned to the department of revenue and credited to the military service tax credit fund. The director of revenue shall also have the authority to institute legal proceedings against a military service tax exemption claimant for the collection of all payments made on such disallowed exemptions. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.6]

426A.7 Forms—rules. The director of revenue shall prescribe the form for the making of a verified statement and designation of property eligible for military service tax exemption, and the form for the supporting affidavits required herein, and such other forms as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this chapter, and from time to time thereafter as necessary, the department of revenue shall forward to the county auditors of the several counties of the state, such prescribed sample forms. The director of revenue shall have the power and authority to prescribe rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, necessary to carry out and effectuate its purposes. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.7]

426A.8 Excess remitted—appeals. If the amount of credit apportioned to any property eligible to military service tax exemption under the provisions of this chapter in any year shall exceed the total tax, exclusive of any special assessments levied against such property eligible for military service tax exemption then such excess shall be remitted by the county treasurer to the department of revenue to be redeposited in the military service tax credit fund and reallocated the following year by the department as provided hereunder.

In the event any claim for exemption made hereunder has been denied by the board of supervisors, and such action is subsequently reversed on appeal, the same credit shall be allowed on the assessed valuation, not to exceed the amount of the military service tax exemption involved in said appeal, as was allowed on other military service tax exemption valuations for the year or years in question, and the director of revenue, the county auditor, and the county treasurer are hereby authorized and directed to make such credit and to change their books and records accordingly.

In the event the appealing taxpayer has paid one or both of the installments of the tax payable in the year or years in question on such military service tax exemption valuation, remittance shall be made to the county treasurer in the amount of such credit.

The amount of such credit shall be allocated and paid from the surplus redeposited in the military tax credit fund provided for in the first paragraph of this section. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.8]

426A.9 Erroneous credits. In the event any claim is allowed, and subsequently reversed on appeal, any credit made thereunder shall be void, and the amount of such credit shall be charged against the property in question, and the director of revenue, the county auditor and the county treasurer are authorized and directed to correct their books and records accordingly. The amount of such erroneous credit, when collected, shall be returned by the county treasurer to the military service tax credit fund to be reallocated the following year as provided herein. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.9]

426A.10 Balance in reserve. Any balance not required for the payment of military service tax credits in any one year from the funds appropriated shall remain in the military service tax credit fund as a reserve to be applied upon payment of future claims. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §426A.10]

The assessor, in arriving at the valuation of any property of such society or organization, shall take into consideration any uses of the property not for the appropriate objects of the organization and shall assess in the same manner as other property, all or any portion of the property involved which is leased, let or rented and is used regularly for commercial purposes for a profit to any party or individual. In any case where a portion of the property is used regularly for commercial purposes no exemption shall be allowed upon property so used and the exemption granted shall be in the proportion of the value of the property used solely for the appropriate objects of the organization, to the entire value of the property. No exemption shall be granted upon any property upon or in which persistent violations of the laws of the state of Iowa are permitted. Every claimant of an exemption shall, under oath, declare that no such violations will be knowingly permitted or have been permitted on or after January 1 of the year for which a tax exemption is requested. Claims for such exemption shall be verified under oath by the president or other responsible heads of the organization.

24. Delayed claims. In any case where no such claim for exemption has been made to the assessor prior to the time his books are completed, such claims may be filed with the local board of review or with the county auditor not later than July 1 of the year for which such exemption from taxation is claimed, and a proper assessment shall be made either by the board of review or by the county auditor, if said property is all or in part subject to taxation.

25. Mandatory denial. No exemption shall be granted upon any property which is the location of federally licensed devices not lawfully permitted to operate under the laws of the state.

26. Revoking exemption. Any taxpayer or any taxing district may make application to the director of revenue for revocation for any exemption, based upon alleged violations of the provisions of this chapter. The director of revenue may also on his own motion set aside any exemption which has been granted upon property for which exemption is claimed under this chapter. The director of revenue shall give notice by certified mail to the societies or organizations claiming an exemption upon property, exemption of which is questioned before or by the director of revenue, and any order made by the director of revenue revoking or modifying such exemption shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court having jurisdiction in the county in which such property is located, and must be filed within thirty days after any order revoking such exemption is made by the director of revenue.

27. Tax provisions for armed forces. If any person enters any branch of the armed service of the United States in time of national emergency, all personal property used in making his livelihood, in excess of three hundred dollars in value, of such person shall be assessed but no tax shall be due if such person upon return from service, or in event of his death if his executor, administrator or next of kin, executes an affidavit to the county assessor that such property was not used in any manner during his absence, the tax as assessed thereon shall be waived and no payment shall be required.

28. Goods stored by warehouseman. All personal property intended for ultimate sale or resale, with or without additional processing, manufacturing, fabricating, compounding or servicing, stored in a warehouse of any person, copartnership or corporation engaged in the business of storing goods for profit as defined in section 554.7201 et seq., provided such personal property is not offered for sale or sold by the owner at retail directly from the public warehouse.

29. Personal property. All personal property in transit.

30. Rural water sales. The real and personal property of a nonprofit corporation engaged in the distribution and sale of water to rural areas when devoted to public use and not held for pecuniary profit.

31. Assessed value of exempt property. Each county and city assessor shall determine the assessment value that would be assigned to the property if it were taxable and value all tax exempt property within his jurisdiction. The list of tax exempt property shall contain a legal description of the tax exempt property and the name of the owner of the tax exempt property, the market value of the tax exempt property, and the assessed value of the tax exempt property. The list of tax exempt property shall be filed with the director of revenue and the local board of review on or before April 16 of each year.

32. Pollution control. Pollution-control property as defined in this subsection shall be exempt from taxation for the periods and to the extent provided in this subsection, upon compliance with the provisions of this subsection.

This exemption shall apply to new installations of pollution-control property for a period of ten years beginning on January 1 after the construction or installation of the property is completed. This exemption shall apply for a period of ten years beginning on January 1, 1975, to existing pollution-control property if its construction or installation was completed after September 23, 1970. This exemption shall apply with respect to each of the ten annual assessments within the ten-year exemption period and the property taxes payable on the basis of each of such ten annual assessments. This exemption for existing pollution-control property shall begin with respect to the assessment as of January 1, 1975, and the taxes payable on the basis of this assessment during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1976.

This exemption shall be limited to the market value, as defined in section 441.21, of the pollution-control property. If the pollution-control property is assessed with other property as a unit, this exemption shall be limited to the net market value added by the pollution-control property, determined as of the assessment date.

Application for this exemption shall be filed with the assessing authority not later than the first of February of the year for which the exemption is requested, on forms provided by the department of revenue. The application shall describe and locate the specific pollution-control property to be exempted.

The first annual application for any specific pollution-control property shall be accompanied by a certificate of the executive director of the department of environmental quality certifying that the primary use of the pollution-control property is to control or abate pollution of any air or water of this state or to enhance the quality of any air or water of this state.

A taxpayer may seek judicial review of a determination of the executive director or, on appeal, of the environmental quality commission in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A.

The environmental quality commission of the department of environmental quality shall adopt rules relating to certification under this subsection and information to be submitted for evaluating pollution-control property for which a certificate is requested. The revenue department shall adopt any rules necessary to implement this subsection, including rules on identification and valuation of pollution-control property. All rules adopted shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

For the purposes of this subsection "pollution-control property" means personal property or improvements to real property, or any portion thereof, used primarily to control or abate pollution of any air or water of this state or used primarily to enhance the quality of any air or water of this state. In the event such property shall also serve other purposes or uses of productive benefit to the owner of the property, only such portion of the assessed valuation thereof as may reasonably be calculated to be necessary for and devoted to the control or abatement of pollution or to the enhancement of the quality of the air or water of this state shall be exempt from taxation under this subsection.

For the purposes of this subsection "pollution" means air pollution as defined in section 455B.10 or water pollution as defined in section 455B.30. Any person owning land which qualifies for a property tax exemption under this subsection shall apply to the county assessor each year before the first of July for the exemption. The application shall be made on forms prescribed by the department of revenue. The first application shall be accompanied by a copy of the water storage permit approved by the water commissioner of the Iowa natural resources council and a copy of the plan for the construction of the impoundment structure and the impoundment. The construction plan shall be used to determine the total acre-feet of the impoundment and the amount of land which is eligible for the property tax exemption status. The county assessor shall annually review each application for the property tax exemption under this subsection and submit it, with the recommendation of the soil conservation district commissioners, to the board of supervisors for approval or denial. Any applicant for a property tax exemption under this subsection may appeal the decision of the board of supervisors to the district court. As used in this subsection, "impoundment" means any reservoir or pond which has a storage capacity of at least eighteen acre-feet of water or sediment at the time of construction; "storage capacity" means the total area below the crest elevation of the principal spillway including the volume of any excavation in such area; and "impoundment structure" means any dam, earthfill or other structure used to create an impoundment.

427.16 Exemption provisions for personal property in transit.

1. Definition. When used in this chapter, the term "personal property in transit" means inanimate tangible personal property, goods, wares and merchandise:

a. Which is moving in interstate commerce through or over the state of Iowa, or

b. Which is consigned to a private warehouse within the state of Iowa from outside the state of Iowa for storage in transit to a final destination outside the state of Iowa, whether the out-of-state ultimate destination was specified when transportation begins or afterward.

3. Books and records.

a. All personal property claimed to be "personal property in transit" shall be designated as such upon the books and records of the warehouse where such personal property is located.

b. The books and records of the warehouse shall be of such nature as to show a description of the property, the quantity, value and source of each shipment received and a description of the property, the quantity, value and destination of all goods taken from the warehouse, with each such receipt or release of such goods dated and described. Such records shall be transmitted to the assessor or assessors of the taxing district or districts in which the warehouse is located for examination and verification and at such time show a recapitulation which must reveal that all shipments (or parts thereof) received are either on hand or disposed of by delivery or destruction and, if by destruction, by what means destroyed or partially destroyed, and if partially destroyed, then what disposition was effected. The annual date of such transmittal of such records shall be not later than February 1 of each year and shall cover the annual accounting period of the warehouse as established on its books and records for all purposes which period has concluded prior to January 1 of each year. Such other reports as may be required by assessors on a periodic basis may be transmitted in form of a written report or in form of copies of bills of lading countersigned by the consignee or his agent containing the factors first enumerated above, as mutually agreed upon by the assessor, or assessors, and operator of the warehouse.

All such claims shall be accompanied by a certification of the warehouse operator as to the status on its books of the property involved, and all such claims shall be allowed in accordance with the decision of the board or boards of review of such taxing district or districts in which the property is situated.

5. Actual value. Where the records of the warehouse indicate, or where an audit of such records indicates, as the case may be, that goods handled by or disposed of through such warehouse with a destination within the state of Iowa, the total market value of such goods with such destination shall be taken into account in determination of their actual value in accordance with sections 428.17 and 428.21, and such actual value shall be the basis for determining the assessed valuation of merchandise inventory of the warehouse for the year next following the year for which such total market value is computed.

6. Evasion of tax. If any owner, shipper, warehouse operator, or the agent or employee of any owner, shipper, or warehouse operator shall misrepresent, conceal or secrete any personal property as defined

7. Penalty. If any person willfully makes or causes to be made any statement to the officer charged with assessment or valuation of property for tax purposes in his or her taxing district containing a false statement of a material fact, be the person owner, shipper, storageman, or warehouseman, the person shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice. 1. The personal property tax levied on all livestock assessed for taxation as of January 1, 1973, shall not be collected in 1974, or any subsequent year, from the owners of the livestock or from those having liability for the payment of the tax.

2. A tax credit shall be allowed each taxing district in the state for each head of livestock that was assessed as of January 1, 1973. The tax credit shall commence and be effective for the tax year 1974 and each year thereafter based upon the livestock assessed as of January 1, 1973.

3. On or before January 15, 1974, the county auditor of each county shall prepare a statement listing for each taxing district in the county the assessed or taxable values of all livestock assessed for taxation as of January 1, 1973. The statement shall also show the tax rates of the various taxing districts and the total amount of taxes which in the absence of this section would have been levied upon livestock assessed as of January 1, 1973. The county auditor shall certify and forward copies of the statement to the director of revenue not later than January 15, 1974. The director of revenue shall compute the applicable tax credit and certify to the state comptroller the amount due to each taxing district, which amount shall be the dollar amount which would be payable if all livestock so assessed were taxed, based upon those assessed as of January 1, 1973.

4. The amounts due each taxing district shall be paid on warrants payable to the respective county treasurers in two equal payments by the state comptroller on March 15 and September 15 of each year with the first payment starting March 15, 1974. The county treasurer shall apportion the proceeds to the various taxing districts in the county.

5. In the event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the taxing districts is insufficient to pay in full the amounts due to each of the taxing districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the director of revenue according to the ratio that the total amount of funds to be paid to each taxing district bears to the total amount to be paid to all taxing districts in the state.

There is appropriated from the general fund of the state of Iowa to the state comptroller for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1974, the sum of four million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for each succeeding fiscal year the sum of eight million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this section. [C71, 73, §427.13(2); C75, 77, 79, §427.17]

427.18 Token tax liability accrues. If property which may be exempt from taxation is acquired after July 1 by a person or the state or any of its political subdivisions, the exemption shall not be allowed for that fiscal year and the person or the state or any of its political subdivisions shall pay the property taxes levied against the property for that fiscal year, and payable in the following fiscal year. However, the seller and the purchaser may designate, by written agreement, the party responsible for payment of the property taxes due. [68GA, ch 68, §6, ch 1141, §3]

Referred to in §445.28

427.19 Exemptions eligibility—prorating. All credits for and exemptions from property taxes for which an application is required shall be granted on the basis of eligibility in the fiscal year for which the application is filed. If the property which has received a credit or exemption becomes ineligible for the credit or exemption during the fiscal year for which it was granted, the property is subject to the taxes in a prorated amount for that part of the fiscal year for which the property was ineligible for the credit or exemption. [68GA, ch 68, §6, ch 1141, §3]

For the purposes of property taxation only, the following shall be assessed and taxed, unless otherwise qualified for exemption, as real property:

- a. Land and water rights.

- f. Property taxed under chapter 499B.
- g. Rights to space above the land.
- h. Property assessed by the department of revenue pursuant to sections 428.24 to 428.29, or chapters 433, 434 and 436 to 438.

(2) Computer output microfilming equipment.

c. Connected in a manner so that removal requires substantial modification or alteration of the property removed or the property from which it is removed.

3. Notwithstanding the definition of "attached" in subsection 2, property is not "attached" if it is a kind of property which would ordinarily be removed when the owner of the property moves to another location. In making this determination the assessing authority shall not take into account the intent of the particular owner.

4. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, property described in this section, if held solely for sale, lease or rent as part of a business regularly engaged in selling, leasing or renting such property, and if the property is not yet sold, leased, rented or used by any person, shall not be assessed and taxed as real property. This subsection does not apply to any land or building.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit an item of property to be assessed and taxed in this state more than once in any one year.

6. The assessing authority shall annually reassess property which is assessed and taxed as real property, but which would be regarded as personal property except for this section. Amendments retroactive to January 1, 1979; 68GA, ch 104, §4
*Repealed by 65GA, ch 1228, §2

427A.2 In addition to military exemption— personal property tax credit. Persons entitled to exemption from personal property tax under provisions of section 427.3, shall be granted such exemption, in addition to the credits provided by this chapter. There is hereby granted a credit of not to exceed ten thousand dollars against the assessed value of tangible personal property as defined in section 427A.1, owned by a person or business enterprise.

For the purposes of this section:

1. "Person" means an individual, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, trust, or estate.

2. "Business enterprise" means a person engaged in business. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §427A.2]

Referred to in §427A.9

427A.3 Property must be listed. The personal property tax credit authorized by this chapter shall not excuse the taxpayer from listing all personal property as required in chapter 428. The valuation of such personal property shall be determined as prescribed in chapter 441, so that the valuations of all personal property in a taxing district shall be known and shall be made a part of the tax list compiled by the county auditor under chapter 443. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §427A.3]

Referred to in §427A.9

427A.4 Limit of credit. No person or business enterprise in the state shall be allowed a credit on personal property tax in excess of ten thousand dollars assessed valuation. Any person or business enterprise who owns personal property subject to taxation in more than one county of the state shall designate in reporting such property to the assessor for the purpose of assessment as required in section 427A.1 in which counties of the state the property is located and may claim the entire credit in one county or a proportionate part thereof in each county where the property is situated, and in no case shall he claim more than the ten thousand dollars assessed value for all personal property assessed in all counties.

Each year, on or before July 1, the taxpayer shall deliver to the assessor an application for personal property tax credit and state by such affidavit or affidavits filed in each county where his personal property is situated, that he has not claimed a total personal property tax credit in all counties in excess of a total of ten thousand dollars assessed valuation.

It shall be the duty of the assessor to examine claims for such credit filed with him and recommend on each such claim the disallowance thereof where it appears that an owner of tangible personal property has attempted to divide the ownership thereof for purpose of obtaining additional credit beyond the amount of ten thousand dollars in a year.

If any person fails to make application for the credits provided for under this chapter as herein required, he shall be deemed to have waived the personal property tax credit for the year in which he failed to make claim.

Any person making a false affidavit for the purpose of obtaining the credit provided for in this section, or who knowingly receives such credit without being legally entitled thereto, or who makes claim for credit of more than ten thousand dollars in the state shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §427A.4]

Referred to in §427A.9

427A.5 Jointly owned property—division of credit. If personal property is owned separately by a husband and wife, they may divide the credit or one may take the entire credit, but in no case may a husband and wife receive a total credit of more than ten thousand dollars unless husband, wife or minor children own farm units separately. If personal property is owned by separate business enterprises and the business enterprises are controlled or owned by the same person, the separate business enterprises may divide the credit or one may take the entire credit, but in no case may separate business enterprises which are controlled or owned by the same person receive a total exemption of more than ten thousand dollars.

Business enterprises are controlled or owned by the same person if over fifty percent of their assets or shares of stock are controlled or owned by the same person, or if they are in fact controlled and managed by the same person, regardless of how actual title to the assets or shares of stock are held. The assessor shall deliver the sworn affidavits to the county auditor by August 1 of each year. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §427A.5]

Referred to in §427A.9

427A.6 Listing by auditor. On or before July 1 of each year, the auditor of each county shall prepare a statement listing for each taxing district in the county all personal property upon which taxes shall not be collected due to the tax credit granted in this chapter. The statement shall show the tax rates of the various taxing districts and the total amount of taxes which shall not be collected in each district because of the tax credit. The auditor shall certify and forward one copy each of the statement to the state comptroller and to the department of revenue on or before July 15 of such year. The department of revenue shall have the responsibility of auditing credits allowed in all counties in the state and the assessed values and assessment practices which affect the amounts of credits and such audit shall be completed within twenty-four months from July 1 of the year the claims were filed. A copy of the audit containing disallowed credits shall be sent to the county auditor, the county treasurer and state comptroller, and such individuals shall be directed to correct their books and records accordingly. The amount of such erroneous credit shall be charged to the county by the state comptroller. The director of revenue shall be authorized and directed to disallow any claim where the audit or investigation revealed that the claimant was not entitled to the credit claimed. Persons and business enterprises may appeal any disallowed personal property credit to the state board of tax review. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §427A.6]

427A.7 and 427A.8 Repealed by 65GA, ch 255, §4.

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PHASE OUT

427A.9 Additional personal property tax credit. Each taxpayer entitled to the personal property tax credit granted pursuant to sections 427A.1 to 427A.5 of this chapter is granted an additional personal property tax credit against the taxpayer's assessed value of personal property which would otherwise be taxable in the tax year.

The amount of the additional personal property tax credit shall be a fixed amount for each tax year. The amount of the additional personal property tax credit shall be increased for the extended tax year beginning January 1, 1974, and ending June 30, 1975, and shall be increased for each tax year immediately following a tax year in which the growth of state general fund revenues, adjusted for changes in rate or basis, exceeds five and one-half percent, except that the amount of the additional personal property tax credit for taxes payable in each year of the fiscal period beginning July 1, 1977 and ending June 30, 1979 shall not exceed the amount of the additional personal property tax credit allowed for taxes payable in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1976 and ending June 30, 1977 and the amount of the additional personal property tax credit for taxes payable in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980 and ending June 30, 1981 shall not exceed the amount of the additional personal property tax credit allowed for taxes payable in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979 and ending June 30, 1980. An increase in the additional personal property tax credit, once granted, shall continue for each succeeding tax year. For the purposes of this chapter the state comptroller may estimate the state percent of growth if necessary to avoid delay in the collection of taxes. After nine such increases have been made, all taxes on personal property shall be repealed as provided in the following section. The director of revenue and the state comptroller, jointly, shall determine the amount of the credit for each such tax year. Such amount shall be the maximum amount, rounded to the nearest ten dollars, which will permit complete funding of the replacement obligation under this division, including the replacement obligation for the tax credit granted pursuant to sections 427A.1 to 427A.5, out of the appropriation provided in this chapter.

As used in this division "additional personal property tax credit" means the additional personal property tax credit granted pursuant to this section.

As used in this division "tax year" means the year in which taxes are payable.

No application shall be required for the additional personal property tax credit. The assessor and county auditor shall take all necessary action to assure that each taxpayer receives the credit. [C75, 77, 79, §427A.9; 68GA, ch 1047, §3]

Referred to in §442.2

427A.10 Phase out of tax. Effective on July 1 after the tax year in which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit becomes effective, all taxes on personal property as defined in section 427A.1 are repealed, and personal property shall not thereafter be listed or assessed. This section shall prevail over all inconsistent statutes. [C75, 77, 79, §427A.10]

Referred to in §442.2

427A.11 Limit on assessment. For each annual assessment of personal property through the final assessment, the total assessed value of all personal property in each assessing jurisdiction shall not exceed the total actual value of all personal property in the assessing jurisdiction as of January 1, 1973, excluding livestock. The assessor shall determine the assessed value of all taxable personal property in accordance with chapter 441. If the total assessed value exceeds the limitation established by this section, the assessor shall reduce the assessed value of each taxpayer's personal property after the board of review adjourns and prior to certifying values to the county auditor, by the same percentage, so that the total assessed value of all personal property in the assessing jurisdiction shall be equal to the total actual value of all personal property in the assessing jurisdiction as of January 1, 1973, excluding livestock. The assessor shall inform taxpayers of any percentage that the value of personal property is reduced in the assessor jurisdiction by publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or county. This section shall prevail over all inconsistent statutes. [C75, 77, 79, §427A.11]

427A.12 Replacement fund.

1. A personal property tax replacement fund is established as a permanent fund in the office of the treasurer of state, for the purpose of reimbursing the taxing districts for their loss of revenue from personal property taxes due to the provisions of this chapter, determined as provided in this section.

2. On or before January 15, 1974, the county auditor of each county shall prepare a statement listing for each taxing district in the county:

a. The total assessed value of all personal property assessed for taxation as of January 1, 1973, excluding livestock but including other personal property eligible for tax credits granted by this chapter.

b. The millage rate of each taxing district levied in 1972 and payable in 1973.

c. The personal property tax replacement base for each taxing district, which shall be equal to the amount determined pursuant to paragraph "a" of this subsection multiplied by the millage rate specified in paragraph "b".

3. The county auditor shall certify and forward one copy each of the statement to the state comptroller and to the director of revenue not later than January 15, 1974. The director of revenue shall make any necessary corrections and certify to the state comptroller the amount of the personal property tax replacement base for each taxing district in the state, determined pursuant to subsection 2.

4. The personal property tax replacement base for each taxing district shall be permanent and shall not be adjusted, except that the state comptroller shall make any necessary corrections and shall make appropriate adjustments to reflect mergers, annexations and other changes in taxing districts or their boundaries.

5. For each state fiscal year ending with or before the year in which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit under this division becomes effective, each taxing district shall be reimbursed from the personal property tax replacement fund in an amount equal to its personal property tax replacement base multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the total assessed value of all personal property, excluding livestock, in the taxing district on which taxes are not payable during such fiscal year because of the various tax credits granted by this chapter, and the denominator of which is the total assessed value of all personal property in the taxing district, excluding livestock but including other personal property eligible for tax credits granted by this chapter. For the half year beginning January 1, 1974, and ending June 30, 1974, the amount of reimbursement shall be half the amount determined pursuant to this subsection. The county auditor shall certify and forward to the state comptroller and the director of revenue, at the times and in the form directed by the director of revenue, any information needed for the purposes of this subsection. The director of revenue shall make any necessary corrections and certify the appropriate information to the state comptroller.

6. For each state fiscal year beginning after the year in which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit under this division becomes effective, each taxing district shall be reimbursed from the personal property tax replacement fund in an amount equal to its personal property tax replacement base.

7. The amount due each taxing district shall be paid in the form of warrants payable to the respective county treasurers by the state comptroller in two equal payments on September 15 and March 15 of each fiscal year. The first payment shall be made on March 15, 1974. The county treasurer shall pay the proceeds to the various taxing districts in the county.

8. It is the intent of the general assembly that the amounts appropriated by this division shall be sufficient to pay in full the amounts due to all taxing districts. If, for any fiscal year the amount appropriated to the personal property tax replacement fund is insufficient to pay in full the amounts due to all taxing districts, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the same percentage, so that the aggregate payments to all taxing districts shall be equal to the amount appropriated for such payments. [C71, 73, §427A.7; C75, 77, 79, §427A.12]

427A.13 Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state of Iowa to the personal property tax replacement fund the following sums, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this chapter as amended by this division. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1974, there is appropriated the sum of thirty-one million nine hundred thousand dollars. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1974, and ending June 30, 1975, and each succeeding fiscal year, there is appropriated the sum of thirty-five million seven hundred thousand dollars. For each year of the fiscal period beginning July 1, 1977 and ending June 30, 1979 the total appropriation shall be thirty-eight million six hundred thousand dollars and for each fiscal year for which an increase in the additional personal property tax credit becomes effective as provided in this division, the appropriation under this section shall be increased by three million eight hundred thousand dollars, and such increased appropriation shall continue for each succeeding fiscal year. For the fiscal year for which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit becomes effective as provided in this division, and for each succeeding fiscal year, the total appropriation shall be sixty-eight million dollars per year. [C71, 73, §427A.8; C75, 77, 79, §427A.13]

427A.14 Computing debt limitations. For the purposes of computing all debt limitations for municipalities, political subdivisions, school districts and taxing districts with respect to any debt incurred or proposed to be incurred after July 1, 1973, the actual value of all personal property as defined in section 427A.1 shall not exceed its actual value as of January 1, 1973. ## CHAPTER 427B

INDUSTRIAL REAL ESTATE NEW CONSTRUCTION TAX EXEMPTION

427B.1 Actual value added exemption from tax—public hearing.

427B.2 Zoning under chapter 358A.

427B.3 Period of partial exemption.

427B.4 Application for exemption by property owner.

427B.5 Exemption may be repealed.

427B.6 Dual exemptions prohibited.

427B.1 Actual value added exemption from tax—public hearing. A city council, by ordinance, or a county board of supervisors as authorized by section 427B.2, by resolution, may provide for a partial exemption from property taxation of the actual value added to industrial real estate by the new construction of industrial real estate and the acquisition of or improvement to machinery and equipment assessed as real estate pursuant to section 427A.1, subsection 1, paragraph "e". New construction means new buildings and structures and includes new buildings and structures which are constructed as additions to existing buildings and structures. New construction does not include reconstruction of an existing building or structure which does not constitute complete replacement of an existing building or structure or refitting of an existing building or structure, unless the reconstruction of an existing building or structure is required due to economic obsolescence and the reconstruction is necessary to implement recognized industry standards for the manufacturing and processing of specific products and the reconstruction is required for the owner of the building or structure to continue to competitively manufacture or process those products which determination shall receive prior approval from the city council of the city or the board of supervisors of a county upon the recommendation of the Iowa development commission. The exemption shall also apply to new machinery and equipment assessed as real estate pursuant to section 427A.1, subsection 1, paragraph "e", unless the machinery or equipment is part of the normal replacement or operating process to maintain or expand the existing operational status.

The ordinance or resolution may be enacted not less than thirty days after holding a public hearing in accordance with section 358A.6 in the case of a county, or section 362.3 in the case of a city. The ordinance or resolution shall designate the length of time the partial exemption shall be available and may provide for an exemption schedule in lieu of that provided in section 427B.3. However, an alternative exemption schedule adopted shall not provide for a larger tax exemption in a particular year than is provided for that year in the schedule contained in section 427B.3. [68GA, ch 103,§1]

Referred to in §427B 2, 427B 3, 427B 4, 427B 5

427B.2 Zoning under chapter 358A.

1. The board of supervisors of a county which has appointed a county zoning commission and provided for county zoning under the provisions of chapter 358A may, by resolution, provide for a partial exemption from property taxation of the actual value added to industrial real estate as provided under section 427B.1.

2. The board of supervisors of a county which has not appointed a zoning commission may, by resolution, provide for a partial exemption from property taxation of the actual value added to industrial real estate as provided under section 427B.1 in the following areas:

a. Outside the incorporated limits of a city to which a city has extended its zoning ordinance pursuant to section 414.23 which complies with the city's zoning ordinance.

b. Outside the incorporated limits of a city which has adopted a zoning ordinance but which has not extended the ordinance to the area permitted under section 414.23 if the property would be within the area to which a city may extend a zoning ordinance pursuant to section 414.23.

c. Outside the incorporated limits of a city which has not adopted a zoning ordinance but which would be within the area to which a city may extend a zoning ordinance pursuant to section 414.23.

3. The board of supervisors of a county which has not appointed a zoning commission may, by resolution, provide for a partial exemption from property taxation of the actual value added to industrial real estate as provided under section 427B.1 in an area where the partial exemption could not otherwise be granted under this chapter where the actual value added is to industrial real estate existing on July 1, 1979.

To grant an exemption under the provisions of this section, the county board of supervisors shall comply with all of the requirements imposed by this chapter upon the city council of a city. [68GA, ch 103,§2]

Referred to in §427B 1

427B.3 Period of partial exemption. The actual value added to industrial real estate for the reasons specified in section 427B.1 is eligible to receive a partial exemption from taxation for a period of five years. "Actual value added" as used in this chapter means the actual value added as of the first year for which the exemption is received, except that actual value added by improvements to machinery and equipment means the actual value as determined by the assessor as of January 1 of each year for which the exemption is received. The amount of actual value added which is eligible to be exempt from taxation shall be as follows:

- a. For the first year, seventy-five percent.
- b. For the second year, sixty percent.
- c. For the third year, forty-five percent.
- d. For the fourth year, thirty percent.
- e. For the fifth year, fifteen percent.

This schedule shall be followed unless an alternative schedule is adopted by the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county in accordance with section 427B.1.

However, the granting of the exemption under this section for new construction constituting complete replacement of an existing building or structure shall not result in the assessed value of the industrial real estate being reduced below the assessed value of the industrial real estate before the start of the new construction added. [68GA, ch 103,§3]

427B.4 Application for exemption by property owner. An application shall be filed for each project resulting in actual value added for which an exemption is claimed. The application for exemption shall be filed by the owner of the property with the local assessor by February 1 of the assessment year in which the value added is first assessed for taxation. Applications for exemption shall be made on forms prescribed by the director of revenue and shall contain information pertaining to the nature of the improvement, its cost, and other information deemed necessary by the director of revenue.

A person may submit a proposal to the city council of the city or the board of supervisors of a county to receive prior approval for eligibility for a tax exemption on new construction. The city council, by ordinance, or the board of supervisors, by resolution, may give its prior approval of a tax exemption for new construction if the new construction is in conformance with the zoning plans for the city or county. The prior approval shall also be subject to the hearing requirements of section 427B.1. Such prior approval shall not entitle the owner to exemption from taxation until the new construction has been completed and found to be qualified real estate. However, if the tax exemption for new construction is not approved, the person may submit an amended proposal to the city council or board of supervisors to approve or reject. [68GA, ch 103,§4]

427B.5 Exemption may be repealed. When in the opinion of the city council or the county board of supervisors continuation of the exemption granted by this chapter ceases to be of benefit to the city or county, the city council or the county board of supervisors may repeal the ordinance authorized by section 427B.1, but all existing exemptions shall continue until their expiration. [68GA, ch 103,§5]

428.2 Listing property of another. Any person required to list property belonging to another shall list it in the same county in which he would be required to list it if it were his own, except as herein otherwise directed; but he shall list it separately from his own, giving the assessor the name of the person or estate to which it belongs. [C51,§461; R60,§716; C73,§805; C97,§1316; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6957; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §428.2] or in any other manner using or holding the same for pecuniary profit, for himself or the owner, shall be required to list the same at the real value, and such agent shall be personally liable for the tax on the same; and if he refuse to render the list or to swear to the same, the amount of such money, property, notes, or credits may be listed and valued according to the best knowledge and judgment of the assessor. [R60,§725; C73,§817; C97,§1320; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6958; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §428.3]

428.4 Personal property—real estate—buildings. Property shall be assessed for taxation each year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed in 1980 and every two years thereafter in the name of the owner of the personal property on the first day of January and the assessment made shall be the value of the personal property as of January 1 of the year of the assessment. Real estate shall be listed and assessed in 1981 and every two years thereafter. The assessment of real estate shall be the value of the real estate as of January 1 of the year of the assessment. The year 1981 and each odd-numbered year thereafter shall be a reassessment year. In any year, after the year in which an assessment has been made of all the real estate or personal property in any assessing jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the assessor to value and assess or revalue and reassess, as the case may require, any real estate and personal property that the assessor finds was incorrectly valued or assessed, or was not listed, valued and assessed, in the assessment year immediately preceding, also any real estate or personal property the assessor finds has changed in value subsequent to January 1 of the preceding real estate or personal property assessment year. However, a percentage increase on a class of property shall not be made in a year not subject to an equalization order unless ordered by the department of revenue. The assessor shall determine the actual value and compute the taxable value thereof as of January 1 of the year of the revaluation and reassessment. The assessment shall be completed as specified in section 441.28, but no reduction or increase in actual value shall be made for prior years. If an assessor makes a change in the valuation of the real estate as provided for herein, the provisions of sections 441.23, 441.37, 441.38 and 441.39 shall apply.

The assessor shall notify the director of revenue, in the manner and form to be prescribed by the director, as to the class or classes of real estate reviewed, revalued, and reassessed and shall report such details as to the effects or results of the revaluation and reassessment as may be deemed necessary by the director. This notification shall be contained in a report to be attached to the abstract of assessment for the year in which the new valuations become effective.

Any buildings erected, improvements made, or buildings removed in a year after the assessment of the class of real estate to which they belong shall be valued, listed and assessed and reported by the assessor to the county auditor after approval of the valuations by the local board of review, and said auditor shall thereupon enter the taxable value of such building or taxable improvement on the tax list as a part of real estate to be taxed. If such buildings are erected by any person other than the owner of the land, they shall be listed and assessed to the owner of the buildings or improvements as real estate. However, descriptions may be combined for assessment purposes to allow the assessor to value the property as a unit. This section shall apply to known owners and unknown owners, alike. [C97,§1353; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6962; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§428.7]

428.10 Ice and coal dealers. Each ice or coal dealer shall be assessed upon the average amount of capital used by him in conducting his business. In estimating the amount of capital so used, there shall be taken into consideration the increase and decrease of the value of ice and coal held in store, and upon the value of his warehouses or ice houses situated upon lands leased from railway companies or other persons, and upon the value, if any, of such leasehold interest.

Such assessment shall be listed as personal property. In determining the average amount of capital invested the assessor shall take into consideration the entire year's business prior to January 1, next preceding the assessment period. [C97,§1315; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§6965; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§428.10]

2. Tax imposed. An annual excise tax is hereby levied on such handling of grain in the amount hereinafter provided. All grain so handled shall be exempt from all taxation as property under the laws of this state. The amount of such excise tax shall be a sum equal to one-fourth mill per bushel upon all grain as herein defined so handled.

3. Statement filing form. Every person engaged in handling grain shall, on the first day of January of each year and not later than sixty days thereafter, make and file with the assessor a statement of the number of bushels of grain handled by him in that district during the year immediately preceding, or the part thereof, during which he was engaged in handling grain; and on demand the assessor shall have the right to inspect all such person's records thereof. A form for making such statement shall be included in the blanks prescribed by the director of revenue. If such statement is not furnished as herein required, section 441.24, shall be applicable.

4. Assessment. The assessor of each such district, from the statement required or from such other information as he may acquire, shall ascertain the number of bushels of grain handled by each person handling grain in his district during the preceding year, or part thereof, and shall assess the amount herein provided to such person under the provisions of this section.

5. Computation of tax. The rate imposed by subsection 2 shall be applied to the number of bushels of grain so handled, and the computed amount thereof shall constitute the tax to be assessed.

6. Payment of tax. Such specific tax, when determined as aforesaid, shall be entered in the same manner as general personal property taxes on the tax list of the taxing district, and the proceeds of the collection of such tax shall be distributed to the same taxing units and in the same proportion as the general personal property tax on the tax list of said taxing district. All provisions of the law relating to the assessment and collection of personal property taxes and the powers and duties of the county treasurer, county auditor and all other officers with respect to the assessment, collection and enforcement of personal property taxes shall apply to the assessment, collection and enforcement of the tax imposed by this section. 428A.1 Amount of tax on transfers. There is imposed on each deed, instrument, or writing by which any lands, tenements, or other realty in this state shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed, a tax determined in the following manner: When there is no consideration or when the deed instrument or writing is executed and tendered for recording as an instrument corrective of title, and so states, there shall be no tax. When there is consideration and the actual market value of the real property transferred is in excess of five hundred dollars, the tax shall be fifty-five cents for each five hundred dollars or fractional part of five hundred dollars in excess of five hundred dollars. The term "consideration" as used in this chapter, means the full amount of the actual sale price of the real property involved, paid or to be paid, including the amount of an incumbrance or lien on the property, whether assumed or not by the grantee. It shall be presumed that the sale price so stated shall include the value of all personal property transferred as part of the sale unless the dollar value of said personal property is stated on the instrument of conveyance. When the dollar value of the personal property included in the sale is so stated, it shall be deducted from the consideration shown on the instrument for the purpose of determining the tax.

At the time each deed, instrument, or writing by which any real property in this state shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed is presented for recording to the county recorder, a declaration of value signed by at least one of the sellers or one of the buyers or their agents shall be submitted to the county recorder. A declaration of value shall not be required for those instruments described in section 428A.2, subsections 2 to 13, or where any transfer is the result of acquisition of lands, whether by contract or condemnation, for public purposes through an exercise of the power of eminent domain.

The declaration of value shall state the full consideration paid for the real property transferred. If agricultural land, as defined in section 172C.1, is purchased by a corporation, limited partnership, trust, alien or nonresident alien, the declaration of value shall include the name and address of the buyer, the name and address of the seller, a legal description of the agricultural land, and identify the buyer as a corporation, limited partnership, trust, alien, or nonresident alien. The county recorder shall not record the declaration of value, but shall enter on the declaration of value such information as the director of revenue may require for the production of the sales/assessment ratio study and transmit all declarations of value to the city or county assessor in whose jurisdiction the property is located. The city or county assessor shall enter on the declaration of value such information as the director of revenue may require for the production of the sales/assessment ratio study and transmit all declarations of value to the director of revenue, at such times as directed by the director of revenue. The director of revenue shall, upon receipt of the information required to be filed under the provisions of this chapter* by the city or county assessor, send to the office of the secretary of state that part of the declaration of value which identifies a corporation, limited partnership, trust, alien, or nonresident alien as a purchaser of agricultural land as defined in section 172C.1. The county recorder shall retain a copy of the declaration of value for the recorder's records, which shall be available for public inspection. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §428A.1; 68GA, ch 1143, §1]

However, if the deed, instrument, or writing, is subject to an exception provided for in section 428A.2, the county recorder shall not refuse to record the document if there is filed with or endorsed on it a statement signed by either the grantor or grantee or his authorized agent, that the instrument or writing is excepted from the tax under section 428A.2. The validity of the effectiveness of an instrument as between the parties thereto, and as to any person who would otherwise be bound thereby, shall not be affected by the failure to comply herewith; nor if an instrument is accepted for recording or filing contrary to the provision hereof, shall the failure to comply herewith destroy or impair the record thereof as notice.

The county recorder shall refuse to record any deed, instrument, or writing by which any real property in this state shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed, except those transfers exempt from tax under section 428A.2, subsections 2 to 13, until the declaration of value has been submitted to the county recorder. A declaration of value shall not be required with a deed given in fulfillment of a recorded real estate contract provided the deed has a notation that it is given in fulfillment of a contract. In assessing said railway and its equipments, the director of revenue shall take into consideration the gross earnings per mile for the year ending January 1, preceding, and any and all other matters necessary to enable the director to make a just and equitable assessment of said railway property. If a part of any railway is without this state, then, in estimating the value of its rolling stock and movable property, the director shall take into consideration the proportion which the business of that part of the railway lying within the state bears to the business of the railway without this state.

Trackless trolleys, buses, cars and vehicles used for the transportation of passengers owned and operated by any urban transit company as a part of an urban transit system shall not be included in the determination of the value of an urban transit system for taxation purposes. Such valuation shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals, and shall be added to the assessed valuation of the corporation, fixed under the preceding sections. Referred to in §436.5

Contempts, ch 665

436.7 Actual value—how ascertained. The director of revenue shall first ascertain the actual value of the entire property owned by said company, from said statements or otherwise, for that purpose taking the aggregate market value of all shares of capital stock, in case said shares have a market value, and, in case they have none, taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of said company, in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued; provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of said company shall be encumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, the director shall ascertain the actual value of such property by adding to the market value or the aggregate shares of stock or to the value of the capital, in case there shall be no such shares, the aggregate amount of the market or cash value of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the actual value of the property of such company. The director shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual value of the property within the state, next ascertain from such statements or otherwise the actual value of the property, both real and personal, owned by the company; and which is used exclusively outside the general business of the company, and also the actual value of that part of its property, if any, without the state which cannot lawfully be considered in determining the mileage value of its route; and the aggregate of such values shall be deducted from the entire actual value of the property as above ascertained. The director shall next ascertain and deduct the actual value of the sea or ocean routes of any such company, and in ascertaining the same may take into consideration the earnings, both gross and net per mile, of such sea or ocean routes, as compared with the earnings, gross and net, of the land routes of such company, or may ascertain their value in any other practicable manner, and may require that the reports heretofore provided for shall show such earnings. Thereupon the director shall ascertain the actual value of the property of such company within the state, and for that purpose may take into consideration the proportional value of the company's property without and within the state, and shall take as a basis of valuation of the company's property in this state the proportion of the whole aggregate value of the property of said company, as above ascertained, after making the deductions above provided for which the length of the routes within the state bears to the whole length of the routes of such company other than sea or ocean routes, and such amount so ascertained shall be considered and taken to be the entire actual value of the property of such company within the state. From the entire actual value of the property within the state so ascertained, there shall be deducted by the director the actual value of all the real estate, buildings, machinery, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business within the state that are subject to local taxation within the counties, townships, and other assessment districts as herein-

before described in section 436.3, subsection 6. [S13,§1346-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7083; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§436.7]

436.8 Actual value per mile—taxable value. The director of revenue shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the state, by dividing the total value as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the state, by the number of miles within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the actual value per mile of the property of such company within the state. The assessed or taxable value shall be determined by taking that percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as is provided by section 441.21, and such valuation and assessment shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals. [S13,§1346-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§436.8]

436.9 Assessment in each county—how certified. The director of revenue shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed to said company in each county of the state through, across, into, or over which the route of said company extends, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of said counties, as reported in said statements, or as otherwise ascertained, and the result thereof, with the mileage and the rate of assessment per mile, shall be by the director certified to the auditors respectively of the several counties through, into, over, and across which the routes of said company extend. [S13,§1346-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7085; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§436.9]

436.10 Entry of certificate. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such certificate is received by the county auditor, it shall cause the same to be entered in its minute book, and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the routes and the assessed value of each in each city, township, or other taxing district in its county, through or into which said routes extend, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes, and the taxes on said property, when collected by the county treasurer, shall be disposed of as other taxes. [S13,§1346-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§436.10]

Referred to in §420.207

436.11 Levy of tax—rates. The county auditor shall immediately thereafter transmit a copy of said order to the councils of cities, and to the trustees of each township in the county, and shall also add to the value so apportioned the assessed value of the real estate, buildings, machinery, fixtures, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business situated in any township or taxing district as returned by the assessor thereof, and extend the taxes thereon upon the tax list as in other cases. All such property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purposes as the property of individuals within such counties, townships, or taxing districts. The property so included in said assessment shall not be otherwise taxed. [S13,§1346-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7087; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§436.11]

441.7 Special examination. If the conference board fails to appoint an assessor from the list of individuals on the register, the conference board shall request permission from the director of revenue to hold a special examination in the particular city or county in which the vacancy has occurred. Permission may be granted by the director of revenue after consideration of factors such as the availability of candidates in that particular city or county. The director of revenue shall conduct no more than one special examination for each vacancy in an assessing jurisdiction. The examination shall be conducted by the director of revenue as provided in section 441.5, except as otherwise provided in this section. The examining board shall give notice of holding the examination for assessor by posting a written notice in a conspicuous place in the county courthouse in the case of county assessors or in the city hall in the case of city assessors, stating that at a specified date, an examination for the position of assessor will be held at a specified place. Similar notice shall be given at the same time by one publication of the notice in three newspapers of general circulation in the case of a county assessor, or in case there are not three such newspapers in a county, then in newspapers which are available, or in one newspaper of general circulation in the city in the case of city assessor. The conference board of the city or county in which a special examination is held shall reimburse the department of revenue for all expenses incurred in the administration of the examination, to be paid for by the respective city or county assessment expense fund. Following the administration of this special examination, the director of revenue shall certify to the examining board a new list of candidates eligible to be appointed as assessor and the examining board and conference board shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of section 441.6. 441.8 Term—filling vacancy. The term of office of an assessor appointed under this chapter shall be for six years. Appointments for each succeeding term shall be made in the same manner as the original appointment except that not less than ninety days before the expiration of the term of the assessor the conference board shall hold a meeting to determine whether or not it desires to reappoint the incumbent assessor to a new term.

Effective January 1, 1980, the conference board shall have the power to reappoint the incumbent assessor only if the incumbent assessor has satisfactorily completed the continuing education program provided for in this section.

The commission established by this section shall develop and administer a program of continuing education which shall emphasize assessment and appraisal procedures, and the assessment laws of this state, and which shall include the subject matter specified in section 441.5.

There is created a commission consisting of the director of revenue, two Iowa assessors appointed by the executive board of the Iowa state association of assessors, and one member appointed by the state board of tax review, and three lay persons appointed by the governor to four-year terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19 subject to confirmation by the senate. A majority of the members of the board constitutes a quorum. The lay persons appointed to the commission who are not public employees shall be paid a forty dollar per diem and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurring while on official commission business. All compensation and reimbursements shall be paid by the department of revenue from the appropriation made to it for the fiscal year in which the claim for per diem or expenses is made.

The commission shall establish or designate the courses to be offered as part of the continuing education program, the content of said courses, and the number of hours of classroom instruction for each course. At least once each year the commission shall meet to evaluate the continuing education program and make necessary changes in the program.

Upon the successful completion of each course contained in the program of continuing education, as demonstrated by attendance at sessions of the course and attaining a grade of at least seventy percent on an examination administered at the conclusion of the course, the assessor shall receive credit equal to the number of hours of classroom instruction contained in said course. An assessor shall not be allowed to obtain credit for a course for which the assessor has previously received credit during his or her current term of office except for those courses designated by the commission. The examinations shall be confidential to the commission and persons designated by the commission to have access to said examinations.

Upon receiving credit equal to two hundred forty hours of classroom instruction during the assessor's current term of office, the commission shall certify to the assessor's conference board that said assessor is eligible to be reappointed to his or her present position. For assessors whose present terms of office expire before six years from January 1, 1979, or who are appointed to complete an unexpired term, the number of credits required to be certified as eligible for reappointment shall be prorated according to the amount of time remaining in the present term of said assessor.

Within each six-year period following January 1, 1980 or the appointment of a deputy assessor appointed after January 1, 1979, said deputy assessor shall comply with the provisions of this section except that upon the successful completion of one hundred fifty hours of classroom instruction said deputy assessor shall be certified by the commission as being eligible to remain in his or her present position. In the event a deputy assessor fails to comply with the provisions of this section, said deputy assessor shall be removed from his or her present position.

Each conference board shall include in the budget for the operation of the assessor's office funds sufficient to enable the assessor and any deputy assessor to obtain certification as provided in this section. The conference board shall also allow the assessor and any deputy assessor sufficient time off from his or her regular duties to obtain certification. The commission shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement and administer the provisions of this section.

If the incumbent assessor is not reappointed as above provided, then not less than sixty days before the expiration of the term of said assessor, a new assessor shall be selected as provided in section 441.6.

In the event of the removal, resignation, death, or removal from the county of the said assessor, the conference board shall proceed to fill the vacancy by appointing an assessor to serve the unexpired term in the manner provided in section 441.6. Until the vacancy is filled, the chief deputy shall act as assessor, and in the event there be no deputy, in the case of counties the auditor shall act as assessor and in the case of cities having an assessor the city clerk shall act as assessor. Appointments shall be made only from the list of eligible candidates provided by the director of revenue. The list of eligible candidates shall contain only the names of those persons who achieve a score of seventy percent or greater on the examination administered by the director of revenue. Examinations for the position of deputy assessor shall be conducted in the same manner as examinations for the position of city or county assessor. The applicable provisions of section 441.5 regarding the register of names shall also apply to the list of eligible candidates established under the provisions of this section.

The assessor may peremptorily suspend or discharge any deputy assessor under his direction upon written charges for neglect of duty, disobedience of orders, misconduct, or failure to properly perform his duties. Within five days after delivery of written charges to the employee, he may appeal by written notice to the secretary or chairman of the examining board. The board shall grant him a hearing within fifteen days, and a decision by a majority of the examining board is final. The assessor shall designate one of the deputies as chief deputy, and the assessor shall assign to each deputy the duties, responsibilities, and authority as is proper for the efficient conduct of his office. [C50, 54, 58, §441.6; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §441.15]

Not later than January 1 of each year the assessor, the examining board, and the board of review, shall each prepare a proposed budget of all expenses for the ensuing fiscal year. The assessor shall include in his proposed budget the probable expenses for defending assessment appeals. Said budgets shall be combined by the assessor and copies thereof forthwith filed by him in triplicate with the chairman of the conference board.

Such combined budgets shall contain an itemized list of the proposed salaries of the assessor and each deputy, the amount required for field personnel and other personnel, their number and their compensation; the estimated amount needed for expenses, printing, mileage and other expenses necessary to operate the assessor's office, the estimated expenses of the examining board and the salaries and expenses of the local board of review.

Each fiscal year the chairman of the conference board shall, by written notice, call a meeting to consider such proposed budget and shall fix and adopt a consolidated budget for the ensuing year not later than January 15.

At such meeting the conference board shall authorize:

4. The estimated expense of assessment appeals. All such expense items shall be included in the budget adopted for the ensuing year.

All tax levies and expenditures provided for herein shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 24 and the conference board is hereby declared to be the certifying board.

Any tax for the maintenance of the office of assessor and other assessment procedure shall be levied only upon the property in the area assessed by said assessor and such tax levy shall not exceed forty and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in assessing areas where the valuation upon which the tax is levied does not exceed ninety-two million, six hundred thousand dollars; thirty-three and three-fourths cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in assessing areas where the valuation upon which the tax is levied exceeds ninety-two million, six hundred thousand dollars and does not exceed one hundred eleven million, one hundred twenty thousand dollars; twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in assessing areas where the valuation upon which the tax is levied exceeds one hundred eleven million, one hundred twenty thousand dollars. The county treasurer shall credit the sums received from such levy to a separate fund to be known as the "assessment expense fund" and from which fund all expenses incurred under this chapter shall be paid. In the case of a county where there is more than one assessor the treasurer shall maintain separate assessment expense funds for each assessor.

The county auditor shall keep a complete record of said funds and shall issue warrants thereon only on requisition of the assessor.

The assessor shall not issue requisitions so as to increase the total expenditures budgeted for the operation of the assessor's office. However, for purposes of promoting operational efficiency, the assessor shall have authority to transfer funds budgeted for specific items for the operation of the assessor's office from one unexpended balance to another; such transfer shall not be made so as to increase the total amount budgeted for the operation of the office of assessor, and no funds shall be used to increase the salary of the assessor or the salaries of permanent deputy assessors. He shall issue requisitions for the examining board and for the board of review on order of the chairman of each board and for costs and expenses incident to assessment appeals, only on order of the city legal department, in the case of cities and of the county attorney in the case of counties.

441.17 Duties of assessor. The assessor shall:

1. Devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in any occupation or business interfering or inconsistent with such duties.

2. Cause to be assessed, in accordance with section 441.21, all the property, personal and real, in his county or city as the case may be, except such as is exempt from taxation, or the assessment of which is otherwise provided for by law.

3. Have access to all public records of the county and, so far as practicable, make or cause to be made a careful examination of all such records and files in order to obtain all available information which may contribute to the accurate listing at its taxable value, and to the proper persons, of all property subject to assessment by him.

4. Co-operate with the director of revenue as may be necessary or required, and he shall obey and execute all orders, directions, and instructions of the director of revenue, insofar as the same may be required by law.

5. Have power to apply to the district court of the county for an order to examine witnesses and requiring the production of books and records of any person, firm, association or corporation within the county, whenever he has reason to believe that such person, firm, association or corporation has not listed his or its property as provided by law. The proceeding for the examination of witnesses and examination of the books and records of any such taxpayer, to determine the existence of taxable property, shall be instituted and conducted in the manner provided for the discovery of property under the provisions of chapter 630. The court shall make an appropriate finding as to the existence of taxable property not listed. All taxable property discovered thereby shall thereupon be assessed by the assessor in the manner provided by law.

In all cases where the court finds that the taxpayer has not listed its or his property, as provided by law, and in all hearings where the court decides a matter against the taxpayer, the costs shall be paid by the taxpayer, otherwise they shall be paid out of the assessment expense fund. The fees and mileage to be paid witnesses shall be the same as prescribed by law in proceedings in the district courts of this state in civil cases. Where the costs are taxed to the taxpayer they shall be added to the taxes assessed against said taxpayer and his property and shall be collected in the same manner as are other taxes.

6. Make up all assessor's books and records as prescribed by the director of revenue, turn the completed assessor's books and records required for the preparation of the tax list over to the county auditor each year when the board of review has concluded its hearings and the county auditor shall proceed with the preparation of the current year tax list and the assessor shall co-operate with the auditor in the preparation of the tax lists.

7. Submit on or before May 1 of each year completed assessment rolls to the board of review.

8. Lay before the board of review such information as he may possess which will aid said board in performing its duties in adjusting the assessments to the valuations required by law.

9. Furnish to the director of revenue any information which he may have relative to the ownership of any property that may be assessable within this state, but not assessable or subject to being listed for taxation by him.

10. Measure the exterior length and exterior width of all mobile homes except those for which said measurements are contained in the manufacturer's and importer's certificate of origin, and report said information to the county treasurer. Check all mobile homes and travel trailers for violations of registration and for inaccuracy or measurements as necessary or upon written request of the county treasurer and report such findings immediately to the county treasurer. If a mobile home has been converted to real estate the registration certificate, registration plates, and title shall be collected and returned to the county treasurer for cancellation. If the registration fees and any taxes due for prior years have not been paid, the assessor shall collect the unpaid registration fees and taxes due as a condition of conversion. It shall be the further duty of the assessor to make sufficiently frequent inspections and checks within his entire jurisdiction of all mobile homes and mobile home parks and travel trailers and make all the required and needed reports to carry out the intents and purposes of this section. [C51,§474, 475; R60,§735, 736; C73,§824, 825; C97,§1355, 1359, 1366; S13,§1355, 1366; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7108, 7114, 7122, 7123; C46,§441.3, 441.9, 441.17, 441.18; C50, 54, 58,§405A.8, 441.4, 441.9, 441.12; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.17]

441.18 Listing and valuation. Each assessor shall, with the assistance of each person assessed, or who may be required by law to list property belonging to another, enter upon the assessment rolls the several items of property required to be entered for assessment. He shall personally affix values to all property assessed by him. [C51,§473; R60,§733; C73,§822; C97,§1352; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7106; C46,§405.19, 441.1; C50, 54, 58,§405.19, 405A.6, 405A.7, 441.10; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.18]

441.19 Owner to assist—provisions for assessment. The assessor shall list every person in his or her county or city as the case may be and assess all the property therein, personal and real, except such as is heretofore exempted or otherwise assessed. Any person who shall refuse to assist in making out a list of his or her property, or of any property which the person is by law required to assist in listing, or who shall refuse to make either of the oaths or affirmations or combinations thereof required by section 441.20, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

1. Supplemental and optional to the procedure for the assessment of property by the assessor as provided in this chapter, the assessor is hereby authorized to require from all persons required to list their property for taxation as provided by sections 428.1, 428.2 and 428.3, a supplemental return to be prescribed by the director of revenue upon which such person shall list his property. Such supplemental return shall be in substantially the same form as now prescribed by law for the assessment rolls used in the listing of property by the assessors, and the director of revenue may prescribe separate supplemental forms for the listing of personal property, both tangible and intangible. It shall be the duty of every person required to list property for taxation to make a complete listing of such property upon such supplemental forms and to return the same to the assessor as promptly as possible. Such return shall be verified over the signature of the person making the return and the provisions of section 441.25 shall apply to any person making such return. The assessor shall make such supplemental return forms available as soon as practicable after the first day of January of each year. The assessor shall make such supplemental return forms available to the taxpayer by mail, or at a designated place within the taxing district.

2. Upon receipt of such supplemental return from any person the assessor shall prepare a roll assessing such person as hereinafter provided. In the preparation of such assessment roll the assessor shall be guided not only by the information contained in such supplemental roll, but by any other information he may have or which may be obtained by him as prescribed by the law relating to the assessment of property. The assessor shall not be bound by any values as listed in such supplemental return, and he may include in the assessment roll any property omitted from the supplemental return which in the knowledge and belief of the assessor should be listed as required by law by the person making the supplemental return. Upon completion of such roll he shall deliver to the person submitting such supplemental return a copy of the assessment roll, either personally or by mail.

3. Any taxpayer aggrieved by the action of the assessor in the preparation of an assessment roll upon which a supplemental return has been made shall have the same rights and privileges of appeal as provided by law in connection with the assessment rolls prepared in entirety by the assessor, but no assessment rolls prepared by the assessor after receiving a supplemental return shall be deemed insufficient or invalid because of the fact that such assessment roll does not bear the signature of the person assessed, and the signature of the person listing property upon the supplemental return shall be deemed a signature on the roll as prepared by the assessor.

4. The supplemental returns herein provided for shall be preserved in the same manner as assessment rolls, but shall be confidential to the assessor, board of review, or director of revenue, and shall not be open to public inspection, but any final assessment roll as made out by the assessor shall be a public record, provided that such supplemental return shall be available to counsel of either the person making the return or of the public, in case any appeal is taken to the board of review or to the court.

5. In the event of failure of any person required to list property to make a supplemental return, as required herein, on or before the fifteenth day of February of any year when such listing is required, the assessor shall proceed in the listing and assessment of his property as provided by this chapter, and no person subject to taxation shall be relieved of his obligation to list his property through failure to make a supplemental return as herein provided, and any roll prepared by the assessor after receiving a supplemental return or when prepared in accordance with other provisions of this chapter, shall be a valid assessment.

6. The provisions of this chapter relating to assessment rolls shall be applicable to the preparation of rolls upon which a supplemental return has been received, insofar as they are not in conflict with the provision of this section.

On or before February 15 of each year, each owner of industrial real estate shall submit to the local assessor a report listing by year of acquisition and by acquisition cost the owner's machinery as described in section 427A.1, subsection 1, paragraph "e", and specifying any machinery added or removed during the preceding assessment year. A report containing an itemized list of machinery by year of acquisition and by acquisition cost shall be required only when deemed necessary by the assessor. The reports shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the director of revenue or on forms submitted by the taxpayer and approved by the assessor which forms shall contain the same information as is required to be reported on forms prescribed by the director. If a person shall knowingly enter false information on the report, the person shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Also, if a person refuses to file the report provided for in this paragraph, the assessor shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of section 441.24. [C51,§477; R60,§734; C73,§823; C97,§1354; S13,§1354; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7107; C46,§441.2; C50, 54, 58, §441.11; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.19]

441.20 Oath. The assessor shall administer the oath or affirmation printed on the assessment rolls hereinafter prescribed, or combination thereof, to each person assessed, and require the person taking such oath to subscribe the same, and, in case anyone refuses so to do, he shall note the fact in the column of remarks opposite such person's name. [C51,§474, 475; R60,§735; C73,§824; C97,§1355; S13,§1355; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7108; C46,§441.3; C50, 54, 58, §441.12; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.20]

441.21 Actual, assessed and taxable value.

1. a. All real and tangible personal property subject to taxation shall be valued at its actual value which shall be entered opposite each item, and, except as otherwise provided herein for agricultural and residential property, shall be assessed at one hundred percent of such actual value, and such value so assessed shall be taken and considered as the assessed value and taxable value of such property upon which the levy shall be made.

b. The actual value of all property subject to assessment and taxation shall be the fair and reasonable market value of such property except as otherwise provided in this section. "Market value" is defined as the fair and reasonable exchange in the year in which the property is listed and valued between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell and each being familiar with all the facts relating to the particular property. Sale prices of the property or comparable property in normal transactions reflecting market value, and the probable availability or unavailability of persons interested in purchasing the property, shall be taken into consideration in arriving at its market value. In arriving at market value, sale prices of property in abnormal transactions not reflecting market value shall not be taken into account, or shall be adjusted to eliminate the effect of factors which distort market value, including but not limited to sales to immediate family of the seller, foreclosure or other forced sales, contract sales, discounted purchase transactions or purchase of adjoining land or other land to be operated as a unit.

c. In assessing and determining the actual value of special purpose industrial real and tangible personal property having an actual value of five million dollars or more, the assessor shall equalize the values of such property with the actual values of other comparable special purpose industrial property in other counties of the state. Such special purpose industrial property includes, but is not limited to chemical plants. If a variation of ten percent or more exists between the actual values of comparable industrial property having an actual value of five million dollars or more located in separate counties, the assessors of such counties shall consult with each other and with the department of revenue to determine if adequate reasons exist for such variation. If no such reasons exist, the assessors shall make adjustments in such actual values to provide for a variation of ten percent or less. For the purposes of this paragraph, special purpose industrial property includes structures which are designed and erected for operation of a unique and special use, are not rentable in existing condition and are incapable of conversion to ordinary commercial or industrial use except at a substantial cost.

d. Actual value of property in one assessing jurisdiction shall be equalized as compared with actual value of property in an adjoining assessing jurisdiction. If a variation of five percent or more exists between the actual values of similar, closely adjacent property in adjoining assessing jurisdictions in Iowa, the assessors thereof shall determine whether adequate reasons exist for such variation. If no such reasons exist, the assessors shall make adjustments in such actual values to reduce the variation to five percent or less.

e. The actual value of agricultural property shall be determined on the basis of productivity and net earning capacity of the property determined on the basis of its use for agricultural purposes capitalized at a rate of seven percent and applied uniformly among counties and among classes of property.

f. In counties or townships in which field work on a modern soil survey has been completed since January 1, 1949, the assessor and the department of revenue shall place emphasis upon the results of such survey in determining the productive and earning capacity of such agricultural property.

g. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the actual value of any property shall not exceed its fair and reasonable market value, except agricultural property which shall be valued exclusively as provided in paragraph "e" of this subsection.

2. The market value of an inventory or goods in bulk shall be their market value as such inventory or goods in bulk, not their retail or unit price. Such market value shall be fair and reasonable based on market value of similar classes of property.

In the event market value of the property being assessed cannot be readily established in the foregoing manner, then the assessor may determine the value of the property using the other uniform and recognized appraisal methods including its productive and earning capacity, if any, industrial conditions, its cost, physical and functional depreciation and obsolescence and replacement cost, and all other factors which would assist in determining the fair and reasonable market value of the property but the actual value shall not be determined by use of only one such factor. The following shall not be taken into consideration: Special value or use value of the property to its present owner, and the good will or value of a business which uses the property as distinguished from the value of the property as property. Upon adoption of uniform rules by the revenue department or succeeding authority covering assessments and valuations of such properties, said valuation on such properties shall be determined in accordance therewith for assessment purposes to assure uniformity, but such rules shall not be inconsistent with or change the foregoing means of determining the actual, market, taxable and assessed values.

3. "Actual value", "taxable value", or "assessed value" as used in other sections of the Code in relation to assessment of property for taxation shall mean the valuations as determined by this section; however, other provisions of the Code providing special methods or formulas for assessing or valuing specified property shall remain in effect, but this section shall be applicable to the extent consistent with such provisions. The assessor and department of revenue shall disclose at the written request of the taxpayer all information in any formula or method used to determine the actual value of his property.

The burden of proof shall be upon any complainant attacking such valuation as excessive, inadequate, inequitable or capricious; however, in protest or appeal proceedings when the complainant offers competent evidence by at least two disinterested witnesses that the market value of the property is less than the market value determined by the assessor, the burden of proof thereafter shall be upon the officials or persons seeking to uphold such valuation to be assessed.

4. For valuations established as of January 1, 1978, agricultural and residential property shall be assessed at a percentage of the actual value of each class of property. The percentage shall be determined for each class of property by the director of revenue for the state in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1978, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend shall be the total equalized value of such property in the state in 1975, adjusted for additions or deletions to said value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment submitted in 1976 and 1977, plus six percent of the 1975 equalized value of such property or the amount of value added by the revaluation of existing properties in 1976, 1977 and 1978 whichever is less. The divisor shall be the total value of such property in the state as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of as-assessment submitted in 1977, plus the amount of value added in 1978 by the revaluation of existing properties.

5. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, the percentage of actual value at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend for each class of property shall be the dividend as determined for each class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1978, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1978, plus six percent of the amount so determined. However, if the difference between the dividend so determined for either class of property and the dividend for that class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1978, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1978, is less than six percent, the 1979 dividend for the other class of property shall be the dividend as determined for that class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1978, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1978, plus a percentage of the amount so determined which is equal to the percentage by which the dividend as determined for the other class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1978, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1978, is increased in arriving at the 1979 dividend for the other class of property. The divisor for each class of property shall be the total actual value of all such property in the state in the preceding year, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment submitted for 1978, plus the amount of value added to said total actual value by the revaluation of existing properties in 1979 as equalized by the director of revenue pursuant to section 441.49. The director shall utilize information reported on abstracts of assessment submitted pursuant to section 441.45 in determining such percentage. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, and each year thereafter, the percentage of actual value as equalized by the director of revenue as provided in section 441.49 at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein including the limitation of increases in agricultural and residential assessed values to the percentage increase of the other class of property if the other class increases less than the allowable limit adjusted to include the applicable and current values as equalized by the director of revenue, except that any references to six percent in this subsection shall be four percent.

6. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, commercial property and industrial property, excluding properties referred to in section 427A.1, subsection 6, shall be assessed as a percentage of the actual value of each class of property. The percentage shall be determined for each class of property by the director of revenue for the state in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend for each class of property shall be the total actual valuation for each class of property established for 1978, plus six percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for each class of property shall be the valuation for each class of property established for 1978, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1978, plus the amount of value added to the total actual value by the revaluation of existing properties in 1979 as equalized by the director of revenue pursuant to section 441.49. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be considered as one class of property and shall be assessed as a percentage of its actual value. The percentage shall be determined by the director of revenue in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend shall be the total actual valuation established for 1978 by the department of revenue, plus ten percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be the valuation established for 1978, plus the amount of value added to the total actual value by the revaluation of the property by the department of revenue as of January 1, 1979. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, commercial property and industrial property, excluding properties referred to in section 427A.1, subsection 6, shall be assessed at a percentage of the actual value of each class of property. The percentage shall be determined for each class of property by the director of revenue for the state in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend for each class of property shall be the dividend as determined for each class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1979, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessors on the abstracts of assessment for 1979, plus four percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for each class of property shall be the total actual value of all such property in 1979, as equalized by the director of revenue pursuant to section 441.49, plus the amount of value added to the total actual value by the revaluation of existing properties in 1980. The director shall utilize information reported on the abstracts of assessment submitted pursuant to section 441.45 in determining such percentage. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be assessed at a percentage of its actual value. The percentage shall be determined by the director of revenue in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend shall be the total actual valuation established for 1979 by the department of revenue, plus eight percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be the valuation established for 1979, plus the amount of value added to the total actual value by the revaluation of the property by the department of revenue as of January 1, 1980. For valuations established as of January 1, 1981, and each year thereafter, the percentage of actual value as equalized by the director of revenue as provided in section 441.49 at which commercial property and industrial property, excluding properties referred to in section 427A.1, subsection 6, shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein, except that any references to six percent in this subsection shall be four percent. For valuations established as of January 1, 1981, and each year thereafter, the percentage of actual value at which property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein, except that any references to ten percent in this subsection shall be eight percent. Beginning with valuations established as of January 1, 1979, and each year thereafter, property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapter 434 shall also be assessed at a percentage of its actual value which percentage shall be equal to the percentage determined by the director of revenue for commercial property, industrial property, or property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438, whichever is lowest.

7. Beginning with valuations established as of January 1, 1978, the assessors shall report the aggregate taxable values and the number of dwellings located on agricultural land and the aggregate taxable value of all other structures on agricultural land. Beginning with valuations established as of January 1, 1981, the agricultural dwellings located on agricultural land shall be valued at their market value as defined in this section and agricultural dwellings shall be valued as rural residential property and shall be assessed at the same percentage of actual value as is all other residential property.

8. For valuations established as of January 1, 1978, upon which taxes will be levied for the fiscal year beginning in the 1978 calendar year by any special charter city that levies and collects its own taxes, agricultural and residential property shall be assessed at a percentage of the actual value of each class of property. For residential property, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend shall be the total value of residential property in the special charter city as of January 1, 1977, adjusted for additions and deletions to said value excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as determined by the city assessor in completing reassessment of such property as of January 1, 1978, plus six percent of the 1977 value of such property or the amount of value added by the revaluation of existing properties in 1978, whichever is less. The divisor shall be the total value of such property in the special charter city as determined by the assessor as of January 1, 1977, plus the amount of value added in 1978 by the revaluation of existing property.

For agricultural property, the percentage shall be determined by the director of revenue and shall be based upon all available information. The percentage shall be an estimate of the percentage of actual value at which all agricultural property in the state will be assessed for 1978 as provided by Acts of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly, 1977 Session, chapter 43, section 20. The director of revenue shall certify the percentage determined pursuant to this paragraph to the governing body of the special charter city on or before May 31, 1978. The appropriate officials of the special charter city shall proceed to determine the assessed values of agricultural property by applying such percentages to the current actual value of such property, as reported by the assessor, and the assessed values so determined shall be the taxable values of such properties upon which the levy shall be made by the special charter city.

9. For valuations established as of January 1, 1979, against which taxes will be levied for the fiscal year beginning in the 1979 calendar year by any special charter city that levies and collects its own taxes, the percentage of actual value at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend for each class of property shall be the valuation for each class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1978, and upon which any special charter city levied its taxes in 1978, adjusted by the product obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for that year by the amount of any additions or deletions to actual value, excluding those resulting from the revaluation of existing properties, as reported by the assessor on the abstract of assessment for 1978, plus six percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for each class of property shall be the total actual value of all such property in the city in the preceding year, as reported by the assessor on the abstract of assessment submitted for 1978, plus the amount of value added to said total actual value by the revaluation of existing properties in 1979. However, if the estimated statewide growth in assessed valuation is less than six percent for either class of property for 1979, the director shall estimate the percentages by which the statewide valuation of residential and agricultural property will increase in 1979. The lower percentage shall be used in lieu of six percent for both classes of property in calculating the percentages at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed. The percentage at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed will be certified by the director on or before May 31, 1979 to the appropriate city official in special charter cities that levy and collect their own taxes. The percentage so certified shall be applicable only to those valuations against which the special charter city levies its own tax. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, and each year thereafter for any special charter city that levies and collects its own taxes, the percentage of actual value as equalized by the director of revenue as provided in section 441.49 at which agricultural and residential property shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein adjusted to include the applicable and current values as equalized by the director of revenue, except that any references to six percent in this subsection shall be four percent. The assessor shall provide valuation information to the director of revenue sufficient for the computation of the assessment percentage by May 15 of each year on forms prescribed by the director of revenue.

10. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, against which taxes will be levied for the fiscal year beginning in the 1980 calendar year by any special charter city that levies and collects its own taxes, the percentage of actual value at which commercial and industrial property, excluding properties referred to in section 427A.1, subsection 6, shall be assessed, shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend for each class of property shall be the valuation for each class of property for valuations established as of January 1, 1979, and upon which any special charter city levied its taxes in 1979, plus four percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for each class of property shall be the total actual value of all such property for 1979, as equalized by the director of revenue pursuant to section 441.49, plus the amount of value added to said total actual value by the revaluation of existing properties in 1980. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be considered as one class of property and shall be assessed at a percentage of its actual value. The percentage shall be determined by the director of revenue in accordance with the provisions of this section. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, the percentage shall be the quotient of the dividend and divisor as defined in this section. The dividend shall be the total actual valuation established for 1979 by the department of revenue, plus eight percent of the amount so determined. The divisor for property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be the valuation established for 1979, plus the amount of value added to the total actual value by the revaluation of the property by the department of revenue as of January 1, 1980. For valuations established as of January 1, 1980, and each year thereafter, property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapter 434 shall also be assessed at a percentage of its actual value which shall be equal to the percentage determined by the director of revenue for commercial property, industrial property, or property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438, whichever is lowest. The percentage at which commercial property, industrial property and property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 434, 436, 437, and 438 shall be assessed will be certified by the director on or before May 31, 1980 to the appropriate city official in special charter cities that levy and collect their own taxes. The percentage so certified shall be applicable only to those valuations against which the special charter city levies its own tax. For valuations established as of January 1, 1981, and each year thereafter for any special charter city that levies and collects its own taxes, the percentage of actual value as equalized by the director of revenue as provided in section 441.49 at which commercial property and industrial property, excluding property referred to in section 427A.1, subsection 6, shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein adjusted to include the applicable and current values as equalized by the director of revenue, except that any references to six percent in this subsection shall be four percent. The assessor shall provide valuation information to the director of revenue sufficient for the computation of the assessment percentage by May 15 of each year on forms prescribed by the director of revenue. For valuations established as of January 1, 1981, and each year thereafter, in a special charter city which levies and collects its own taxes, the percentage of actual value at which property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 436, 437, and 438 shall be assessed shall be calculated in accordance with the methods provided herein, except that any references to ten percent in this subsection shall be eight percent.

11. The provisions of this subsection and subsections 7 and 8 relating to the determination of valuations of agricultural and residential property in a special charter city shall apply only to the determination of valuations of agricultural and residential property against which the corporate levy of the special charter city shall be applied.

It is the intent of the general assembly that any special charter city which does not conform with regard to the assessment and tax collection schedule to the assessment and tax collection schedule followed by all other political subdivisions of the state shall take such action as is necessary to reform its assessment and tax collection schedule to the assessment and tax collection schedule followed by the other political subdivisions of the state by not later than for assessments beginning January 1, 1980.

12. For the purpose of computing the debt limitations for municipalities, political subdivisions and school districts, the term "actual value" means the "actual value" as determined by subsections 1 to 3 of this section without application of any percentage reduction and entered opposite each item, and as listed on the tax list as provided in section 443.2 as "actual value".

Whenever any board of review or other tribunal changes the assessed value of property, all applicable records of assessment shall be adjusted to reflect such change in both assessed value and actual value of such property.

13. a. Any normal and necessary repairs to any building, not amounting to structural replacements or modification, shall not increase the taxable value of such building. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply only to repairs of five hundred dollars or less per building per year.

b. Notwithstanding paragraph "a" of this subsection, any construction or installation of a solar energy system or gas production systems using waste or manure to produce gas completed on property classified as agricultural, residential, commercial, or industrial property shall not increase the actual, assessed and taxable values of such property for assessment years beginning on January 1, 1979 and ending on or before December 31, 1985.

c. As used in this subsection "solar energy system" means a system of equipment capable of collecting and converting incident solar radiation or wind energy into heat, mechanical or electrical energy and transforming these forms of energy by a separate apparatus to storage or to point of use.

14. Not later than November 1, 1979 and November 1 of each subsequent year, the director shall certify to the county auditor of each county the percentages of actual value at which residential property, agricultural property, commercial property, industrial property, and property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 434, 436, 437, and 438 in each assessing jurisdiction in the county shall be assessed for taxation. The county auditor shall proceed to determine the assessed values of agricultural property, residential property, commercial property, industrial property, and property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 434, 436, 437, and 438 by applying such percentages to the current actual value of such property, as reported to the county auditor by the assessor, and the assessed values so determined shall be the taxable values of such properties upon which the levy shall be made.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 14, as amended by 68GA, ch 1136, §8, the director of revenue shall certify to the county auditor of each county the percentages of actual value at which commercial property, industrial property and property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 434, 436, 437, and 438 in each assessing jurisdiction in the county shall be assessed for taxation not later than fifteen days following February 24, 1980. The county auditor shall immediately proceed to apply the percentages certified by the director of revenue in the manner provided under subsection 14, 68GA, ch 1136, §18

15. The percentage of actual value computed by the director for agricultural property, residential property, commercial property, industrial property and property valued by the department of revenue pursuant to chapters 428, 433, 434, 436, 437, and 438 and used to determine assessed values of those classes of property does not constitute a rule as defined in section 17A.2, subsection 7. Such assessment rolls shall be in such form as will permit entering thereon, separately, the names of all persons, partnerships, corporations, or associations assessed; shall contain a form of oath or affirmation to be administered to each person assessed, and shall also contain a notice in substantially the following form:

"If you are not satisfied that the foregoing assessment is correct, you may file a protest against such assessment with the board of review on or after April 16, to and including May 5, of the year of the assessment, such protest to be confined to the grounds specified in section 441.37. When this ground is relied upon as the basis of a protest the legal description and assessments of a representative number of comparable properties, as described by the aggrieved taxpayer shall be listed on the protest, otherwise said protest shall not be considered on this ground.

2. That his property is assessed for more than the value authorized by law, stating the specific amount which the protesting party believes his property to be overassessed, and the amount which he considers to be its actual value and the amount he considers a fair assessment.

assessment of each class of property in the several assessing jurisdictions by adding to or deducting from the valuation of each class of property such percentage in each case as may be necessary to bring the same to its taxable value as fixed in this chapter and chapters 427 to 443*. The director shall adjust to actual value the valuation of any class of property as set out in the abstract of assessment when the valuation is at least five percent above or below actual value as determined by the director. For purposes of such value adjustments and before such equalization the director shall adopt, in the manner prescribed by chapter 17A, such rules as may be necessary to determine the level of assessment for each class of property in each county. The rules shall cover: (1) The proposed use of the assessment-sales ratio study set out in section 421.17, subsection 6; (2) the proposed use of any statewide income capitalization studies; (3) the proposed use of other methods that would assist the director in arriving at the accurate level of assessment of each class of property in each assessing jurisdiction. [C51,§481, 482; R60,§742; C73,§834; C97,§1379; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7141; C46, 50, 54, 58,§442.16; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.47]

441.48 Notice of adjustment. Before the director of revenue shall adjust the valuation of any class of property any such percentage, the director shall serve ten days' notice by mail, on the county auditor of the county whose valuation is proposed to be adjusted and the director shall hold an adjourned meeting after such ten days' notice, at which time the county or assessing jurisdiction may appear by its city council or board of supervisors, city or county attorney, and other assessing jurisdiction, city or county officials, and make written or oral protest against such proposed adjustment, which protest shall consist simply of a statement of the error, or errors, complained of with such facts as may lead to their correction, and at such adjourned meeting final action may be taken in reference thereto. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7142; C46, 50, 54, 58,§405.23, 442.17; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§441.48; 68GA, ch 25,§15]

441.49 Adjustment by auditor. The director shall keep a record of the review and adjustment proceedings and finish the proceedings on or before October 1 unless for good cause the proceedings cannot be completed by that date. The director shall notify each county auditor by mail of the final action taken at the proceedings and specify any adjustments in the valuations of any class of property to be made effective for the jurisdiction.

However, an assessing jurisdiction may request the director to permit the use of an alternative method of applying the equalization order to the property values in the assessing jurisdiction, provided that the final valuation shall be equivalent to the director's equalization order. The assessing jurisdiction shall notify the county auditor of the request for the use of an alternative method of applying the equalization order and the director's disposition of the request. The request to use an alternative method of applying the equalization order, including procedures for notifyng affected property owners and appealing valuation adjustments, shall be made within ten days from the date the county auditor receives the equalization order and the valuation adjustments, and appeal procedures shall be completed by November 30 of the year of the equalization order. Compliance with the provisions of section 441.21 is sufficient grounds for the director to permit the use of an alternative method of applying the equalization order.

On or before October 15 the county auditor shall cause to be published in official newspapers of general circulation the final equalization order. Failure to publish the equalization order has no effect upon the validity of the orders.

The county auditor shall add to or deduct from the valuation of each class of property in the county the required percentage, rejecting all fractions of fifty cents or less in the result, and counting all fractions over fifty cents as one dollar. For any special charter city that levies and collects its own tax based on current year assessed values, the equalization percentage shall be applied to the following year's values, and shall be considered the equalized values for that year for purposes of this chapter.

The local board of review shall reconvene in special session from October 15 to November 15 for the purpose of hearing the protests of affected property owners or taxpayers within the jurisdiction of the board whose valuation of property if adjusted pursuant to the equalization order issued by the director of revenue will result in a greater value than permitted under section 441.21. The board of review shall accept protests only during the first ten days following the date the local board of review reconvenes. The board of review shall limit its review to only the timely filed protests. The board of review may adjust all or a part of the percentage increase ordered by the director of revenue by adjusting the actual value of the property under protest to one hundred percent of actual value. Any adjustment so determined by the board of review shall not exceed the percentage increase provided for in the director's equalization order. The determination of the board of review on filed protests is final, subject to review by the director of revenue for the purpose of determining whether the board's actions substantially altered the equalization order. In making the review, the director has all the powers provided in chapter 421, and in exercising the powers the director is not subject to chapter 17A. Not later than ten days following the adjournment of the board, the board of review shall submit to the director of revenue, on forms prescribed by the director, a report of all actions taken by the board of review during this session.

Not later than ten days after the date the final equalization order is issued, the city or county officials of the affected county or assessing jurisdiction may appeal the final equalization order to the state board of tax review. The appeal shall not delay the implementation of the equalization orders.

Tentative and final equalization orders issued by the director of revenue are not rules as defined in section 17A.2, subsection 7. [C51,§483; R60,§743; C73,§836; C97,§1382; S13,§1382; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,

441.50 Appraisers employed. The conference board shall have power to employ appraisers or other technical or expert help to assist in the valuation of property, the cost thereof to be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the assessor's office. The conference board may certify for levy annually an amount not to exceed forty and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property for the purpose of establishing a special appraiser's fund, to be used only for such purposes. From time to time the conference board may direct the transfer of any unexpended balance in the special appraiser's fund to the assessment expense fund. 441.65 Platting for assessment and taxation by auditor. Whenever a lot or subdivision of land is owned by two or more persons in severalty, and the description of one or more of the different parts or parcels thereof cannot, in the judgment of the county auditor or the assessor, be made sufficiently certain and accurate for the purposes of assessment and taxation without noting the metes and bounds of the same, or whenever the proprietor of any subdivision of land has sold or conveyed any part thereof, or invested the public with any rights therein, and has failed to file for record a plat as provided in chapter 409, the county auditor by certified mail shall notify all of the owners, and demand compliance. If the owners fail to execute and file the plat within sixty days after the issuance of such notice to execute and file said plat for record, the auditor shall cause a plat to be made as the auditor deems appropriate in accordance with the provisions of chapter 409. The auditor may contract for the services of a registered land surveyor as necessary to comply with this section. Every conveyance of land in this state shall be deemed to be a warranty that the description therein contained is sufficiently definite and accurate to enable the auditor to enter the same on the plat book required to be kept; and when there is presented for entry on the transfer book any conveyance in which the description is not sufficiently definite and accurate, the auditor shall note such fact on the deed, with that of the entry for transfer, and shall notify the person presenting it that the land therein is not sufficiently described, and that it must be platted within sixty days thereafter. If the grantor in the conveyance shall neglect for sixty days thereafter to file for record a plat thereof, then the auditor shall proceed as is provided in this section, and cause the plat to be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 409 and recorded in the office of the auditor, and the office of the county recorder, and in the office of the assessor. 441.66 Execution and filing—effect. The plat shall be signed and acknowledged by the auditor, who shall certify that it was executed by the auditor by reason of the failure of the owners named to do so, and the auditor shall file it for record in the office of the auditor and in the office of the assessor and in the office of the county recorder, and when so filed it shall have the same effect as if executed, acknowledged, and recorded by the owners. 441.67 Costs and expenses. A correct statement of the costs and expenses of the plat, survey and record, verified by oath, shall be presented by the auditor to the board of supervisors, which shall allow the same. [C77, 79,§441.67]

441.68 Collection or assessment of costs. The auditor shall at the same time assess the amount pro rata by area upon the several subdivisions of the tract, lot or parcel so subdivided, and it shall be collected in the same manner as general taxes, and shall go to the general county fund. 441.70 Determination by board. At its next session the board of supervisors shall determine the matter and direct that a plat be executed and filed or that the auditor accept a plat for filing, and shall specify the time within which the action shall be taken. A plat recorded pursuant to this chapter is for assessment and taxation purposes only and shall not constitute a dedication or impose any liability upon the state or any of its political subdivisions. 442.1 State school foundation program. This chapter establishes a state school foundation program. For each school year, each school district in the state is entitled to receive state school foundation aid, which shall be an amount per pupil equal to the difference between the amount per pupil of foundation property tax in the district, and the state foundation base or the district cost per pupil, whichever is less. However, if the amount so determined for any district is less than two hundred dollars per pupil, the district is entitled to receive not less than two hundred dollars per pupil. However, if the receipt of two hundred dollars by a school district plus the money raised by the foundation property tax exceeds the maximum allowed district cost for the budget year, the district shall be entitled to receive in state foundation aid an amount equal to the difference between the money raised by the foundation property tax for the budget year and the district cost for the budget year. In making computations and payments under this chapter, except in the case of computations relating to funding of special education support services, media services and educational services provided through the area education agencies, the state comptroller shall round amounts to the nearest whole dollar. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.1]

442.2 Foundation property tax—livestock credit.

1. Each school district shall cause to be levied each year, for the school general fund, a foundation property tax of five dollars and forty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation on all taxable property in the district. For the purpose of this chapter, a school district is defined as a school corporation organized under chapter 274.

2. The amount paid to each school district for the tax credit for livestock under section 427.17 shall be regarded as property tax. The portion of the payment which is foundation property tax shall be determined by applying the foundation property tax rate to the taxable value of livestock assessed for taxation in the district as of January 1, 1973, determined pursuant to section 427.17, and adjusted to actual value as provided in Acts of the Sixty-fifth General Assembly, chapter 1231, section 174*. A school district is hereby authorized to levy a tax on all of the taxable property within the district in an amount equal to the difference between the amount due to a school district from the personal property tax replacement fund for the preceding year and the amount actually received during the preceding fiscal year from the personal property tax replacement fund.

3. The amount paid to each school district from the personal property tax replacement fund established by sections 427A.9 to 427A.14 shall be regarded as property tax. For budget years beginning after the year in which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit becomes effective as provided in said sections, the portion of the payment which is foundation property tax shall be determined by applying the foundation property tax rate to the total actual value of all personal property assessed for taxation in the district as of January 1, 1973, excluding livestock, but including other personal property eligible for tax credits granted by sections 427A.9 to 427A.14. For budget years to and including the year in which the ninth increase in the additional personal property tax credit becomes effective as provided in said sections, the portion of the payment which is foundation property tax shall be determined by the state comptroller pursuant to uniform methods established by him. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.2; 68GA, ch 1015, §57, ch 1076, §9]

See also §442.27(10)

*See note under ch 441, Code 1975

442.3 State foundation base. The state foundation base for the school year beginning July 1, 1972, is seventy percent of the state cost per pupil. For each succeeding school year the state foundation base shall be increased by the amount of one percent of the state cost per pupil, up to a maximum of eighty percent of the state cost per pupil. However, for the school year beginning July 1, 1980, the state foundation base shall be the same as the state foundation base for the school year beginning July 1, 1979. The district foundation base is the larger of the state foundation base or the amount per pupil which the district will receive from foundation property tax and state school foundation aid. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.3; 68GA, ch 1076, §10]

442.4 Enrollment.

1. Basic enrollment for the budget year beginning July 1, 1979 and each subsequent budget year is determined by adding the resident pupils who were enrolled on the second Friday of September in the base year in public elementary and secondary schools of the district and in public elementary and secondary schools in another district or state for which tuition is paid by the district. For the school year beginning July 1, 1975, and each succeeding school year, pupils enrolled in prekindergarten programs other than special education programs are not included in basic enrollment.

Resident pupils of high school age for which the district pays tuition to attend an Iowa area school are included in basic enrollment on a full-time equivalent basis as of the second Friday of September in the base year for the budget year beginning July 1, 1979 and each subsequent budget year.

Shared-time and part-time pupils of school age, irrespective of the districts in which the pupils reside, are included in basic enrollment as of the second Friday of September in the base year for the budget year beginning July 1, 1979 and each subsequent budget year, in the proportion that the time for which they are enrolled or receive instruction for the school year is to the time that full-time pupils carrying a normal course schedule, at the same grade level, in the same school district, for the same school year, are enrolled and receive instruction. Tuition charges to the parent or guardian of a shared-time or part-time out-of-district pupil shall be reduced by the amount of any increased state aid occasioned by the counting of the pupil.

Pupils attending a university laboratory school are not counted in any district's basic enrollment, but the laboratory school shall report them directly to the department of public instruction.

A school district shall certify its basic enrollment to the department of public instruction by September 25 of each year, and the department shall promptly forward the information to the state comptroller. For purposes of determining whether a district is entitled to an advance for increasing enrollment a determination of actual enrollment shall be made on the second Friday of September in the budget year by counting the pupils in the same manner and to the same extent that they are counted in determining basic enrollment, but substituting the count in the budget year for the count in the base year. In addition, a school district shall determine its additional enrollment because of special education defined in section 442.38, on December 1 of each year and if the district is entitled to an advance for special education, it shall certify its additional enrollment because of special education to the department of public instruction by December 15 of each year, and the department shall promptly forward the information to the state comptroller.

2. An adjusted enrollment for each district shall be computed as follows:

a. For the school year beginning July 1, 1980, and each subsequent school year, the adjusted enrollment for a school district is equal to the larger of the following:

- (1) The basic enrollment for the base year.
- (2) The basic enrollment for the budget year.

If a school district uses subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for its adjusted enrollment and the district's actual enrollment for the budget year is larger than the adjusted enrollment computed under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the district may be eligible to receive an advance for increasing enrollment under section 442.28.

b. For the school year beginning July 1, 1979, if a district has a decrease from the basic enrollment in the base year to the basic enrollment in the budget year the state comptroller shall compute an amount to be added to the basic enrollment for the budget year. The amount to be added is equal to one hundred percent of the basic enrollment decrease to the extent that it does not exceed two and one-half percent of the base year's basic enrollment, and fifty percent of the remaining basic enrollment decrease. If the school district's basic enrollment in the base year is equal to or less than the basic enrollment for budget year the adjusted enrollment shall equal the basic enrollment for the budget year.

3. For the school year beginning July 1, 1980, and each subsequent school year, budget enrollment means the sum of the following:

a. Twenty-five percent of the basic enrollment for the school year beginning July 1, 1979.

b. Seventy-five percent of the adjusted enrollment computed under subsection 2, paragraph "a," of this section.

c. Adjustments made by the state comptroller under subsection 4 of this section.

4. For the school years beginning July 1, 1980 and July 1, 1981 only, if an amount equal to the district cost per pupil for the budget year minus the amount included in the district cost per pupil for the budget year to compensate for the cost of special education support services for a school district times the budget enrollment of the school district for the budget year is less than one hundred four percent for the budget school year beginning July 1, 1980, and one hundred three percent for the budget school year beginning July 1, 1981, times an amount equal to the district cost per pupil for the base year minus the amount included in the district cost per pupil for the base year to compensate for the cost of special education support services for a school district times the adjusted enrollment of the school district for the base year beginning July 1, 1979 or times the budget enrollment of the school district for the base year beginning July 1, 1980, the state comptroller shall increase the budget enrollment for the school district for the budget year to a number which will provide that one hundred four percent amount for the budget school year beginning July 1, 1980, and that one hundred three percent amount for the budget school year beginning July 1, 1981.

5. For the school year beginning July 1, 1980, and each subsequent school year, weighted enrollment is the budget enrollment as modified by application of the special education weighting plan in section 281.9

and the supplementary weighting plan in this chapter.

Commencing with the school year beginning July 1, 1981 and each school year thereafter, the weighted enrollment shall be determined on the basis of a count of a district's additional enrollment because of special education, as defined in section 442.38, on December 1 of the base year. #### 442.5 Miscellaneous income—expenditures.

1. As used in this chapter:

a. "Miscellaneous income" means all receipts deposited to the general fund of a school district which are not obtained from state aid provided under section 442.1 or from property tax authorized under section 442.2 or 442.9. Miscellaneous income includes property tax levied under the provisions of section 613A.7, to fund the costs of tort liability insurance for the school district.

b. "Expenditures" means the total amounts paid out of the general fund of a school district, exclusive of amounts paid for the following purposes, for which special levies are authorized:

(1) A contract for the use of a library under section 298.7.

(2) A judgment under sections 298.15 to 298.17.

(3) Tort liability under chapter 613A.

2. The authorized expenditures during a school year may not exceed the lesser of the budget for that year certified under section 24.17 plus any allowable amendments permitted in this section, or the authorized budget, which is the sum of the district cost for that year plus the actual miscellaneous income received for that year plus the actual unspent balance from the preceding year. If actual miscellaneous income for a school year exceeds the anticipated miscellaneous income in the certified budget for that year, or if an unspent balance has not been previously certified, a school district may amend its certified budget. #### 442.6 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. "District cost" and "district cost per pupil" mean the amounts computed as provided in section 442.9.

2. "Base year" means the school year ending during the calendar year in which a budget is certified.

3. "Budget year" means the school year beginning during the calendar year in which a budget is certified. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.6]

442.7 State percent of growth—allowable growth.

1. For school years subsequent to the school year beginning July 1, 1978, a state percent of growth for the budget year shall be computed by the state comptroller prior to September 15 in the base year and forwarded to the superintendent of public instruction. The state percent of growth shall be an average of the following four percentages of growth except as otherwise provided in paragraph "c" of this subsection:

a. The difference in the receipts of state general fund revenues computed or estimated as follows:

(1) The percentage of change between the revenues received during the second year preceding the base year and the revenues received during the year preceding the base year.

(2) The percentage of change between the revenues received during the year preceding the base year and the revenues received during the base year.

b. The difference in the gross national product implicit price deflator published by the bureau of economic analysis, United States department of commerce, computed or estimated as a percentage of change for the following:

(1) From the value for the quarter ending December 31 eighteen months prior to the beginning of the base year to the value for the quarter ending December 31 six months prior to the beginning of the base year.

(2) From the value for the quarter ending December 31 six months prior to the beginning of the base year to the value for the quarter ending December 31 six months prior to the beginning of the budget year.

The computation of the percentage change in the gross national product implicit price deflator shall be based, to the extent possible, on the latest available values for these deflators published by the bureau of economic analysis.

c. If the average of the percentages computed or estimated under paragraph "b" of this subsection exceeds the average of the percentages computed or estimated under paragraph "a" of this subsection, the state percent of growth shall be the average of the two percentages of growth computed or estimated under paragraph "a" of this subsection.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section, for the school year beginning July 1, 1980 only, the state percent of growth is the average of the two percentages of growth computed under subsection 1, paragraph "b," of this section.

3. If the state percent of growth so computed is negative, that percentage shall not be used and the state percent of growth shall be zero.

4. Each year prior to September 15 the state comptroller shall recompute the state percent of growth for the previous year using adjusted estimates and the actual figures available. The difference between the recomputed state percent of growth for the base year and the original computation shall be added to or subtracted from the state percent of growth for the budget year, as applicable. However, for the budget school year beginning July 1, 1980 only, the state comptroller shall recompute the state percent of growth for the previous year using adjusted estimates and the actual figures available based only upon the consumer price index.

With regard to values of gross national product implicit price deflators, the recomputation of the state percent of growth for the previous year shall be made only with respect to the value of the deflator for the quarter which occurred subsequent to the calculation of the state percent of growth for the previous year. If subsection 1, paragraph "c," of this section is used in the calculation of the state percent of growth for the previous year, the calculation made in subsection 1, paragraph "b," of this subsection shall not be used in the recomputation of the state percent of growth for the previous year.

For the school year beginning July 1, 1981, the recomputation of the state percent of growth for the year beginning July 1, 1980 computed prior to September 15, 1980 and added to or subtracted from the state percent of growth for the school year beginning July 1, 1981 shall also include a percent equal to the difference between the estimate made of the percentage of growth in the receipts of state general fund revenue by the state comptroller prior to September 15, 1978 in computing the state percent of growth for the school year beginning July 1, 1979 and the actual figures of the percentage of growth in the receipts of state general fund revenue.

5. The basic allowable growth per pupil for the budget year shall be computed by multiplying the state cost per pupil for the base year times the state percent of growth for the budget year.

6. The allowable growth per pupil for each school district is the basic allowable growth per pupil, for the budget year modified as follows:

a. If the state cost per pupil for the budget year exceeds the district cost per pupil for the budget year, the basic allowable growth per pupil for the budget year is modified to equal one hundred ten percent of the product of the state cost per pupil for the base year times the state percent of growth for the budget year. However, the basic allowable growth per pupil for the budget year under this paragraph shall not exceed the difference between the state cost per pupil for the budget year and the district cost per pupil for the budget year. For purposes of this paragraph the state cost per pupil and the district cost per pupil shall not include special education support service costs, and the district cost per pupil for the budget year shall not include that portion of the district cost per pupil created by additions or subtractions to the allowable growth per pupil for the budget year and for prior school years beginning with the school year commencing July 1, 1977, as provided under paragraph "b" of this subsection.

b. By the school budget review committee under section 442.13.

c. For the school year beginning July 1, 1975 only, by adding to the basic allowable growth per pupil for the budget year an amount to compensate for the costs of special education support services provided through the area education agency. The total amount for each area shall be based upon the program plans submitted by the special education director of the area education agency as required by section 273.5, which shall be modified as necessary and approved by the department of public instruction according to the criteria and limitations of section 273.5 and chapter 281. The amount of additional allowable growth per pupil for the budget year for each district in an area shall be determined by dividing the total amount for the area so determined by the weighted enrollment of the area for the budget year.

d. For the school year beginning July 1, 1976 and ending with the school year beginning July 1, 1980, by adding to the basic allowable growth an amount to compensate for the additional costs of special education support services provided through the area education agency. For the school years beginning July 1, 1978 and July 1, 1979 only, the total amount for each area shall be equal to the total amount approved for special education support services for the base year times one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth. In addition to the amount provided in this paragraph to each area for the school years beginning July 1, 1978 and July 1, 1979 to compensate for the additional costs of special education support services, each area may be granted by the state board an additional amount to serve children newly identified as requiring the services pursuant to plans submitted by the special education director of the area education agency as required by section 273.5. The total of additional amounts granted throughout the state by the state board for the school year beginning July 1, 1978 shall not exceed the total amount approved for special education support services for the school year beginning July 1, 1977 times four and eighty-seven hundredths percent, and for the school year beginning July 1, 1979 shall not exceed the total amount approved for special education support services for the school year beginning July 1, 1978 times three percent. For the school year beginning July 1, 1980 the total amount for the state for special education support services shall not exceed the total amount approved for special education support services for the base year times one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth, and the total amount for each area shall be determined by the state board of public instruction pursuant to plans submitted by the special education director of the area education agency as required by section 273.5, which shall be modified as necessary and approved by the state board of public instruction according to the criteria and limitations of section 273.5 and chapter 281 and within the total amount for the state provided in this paragraph. The amount of additional allowable growth per pupil for the budget year for each district in an area shall be determined by dividing the total amount for the area so determined by the weighted enrollment of the area for the budget year.

e. For the school years prior to the school year beginning July 1, 1981, for the additional allowable growth computed under paragraphs "c" and "d" of this subsection, the state board of public instruction, in co-operation with the appropriate personnel of the area education agency, shall determine the amounts for each area education agency, as required and the state comptroller shall calculate the amounts of additional allowable growth for each district necessary to fund the total special education support services costs as increased for the budget year under paragraph "d" of this subsection, and shall calculate the amounts due from each district to its area education agency by multiplying the additional allowable growth per pupil necessary to fund the total special education support services costs as increased for the budget year under paragraph "d" of this subsection by the weighted enrollment in the district for the budget year. The state comptroller shall deduct the amounts so calculated for each school district from the state aid due to the district pursuant to this chapter and shall pay the amounts to the area education agencies on a quarterly basis during each school year. The state comptroller shall notify each school district of the amount of state aid deducted for this purpose and the balance of state aid will be paid to the district. If a district does not qualify for state aid under this chapter in an amount sufficient to cover its amount due to the area education agency as calculated by the state comptroller, the school district shall pay the deficiency to the area education agency from other moneys received by the district, on a quarterly basis during each school year.

f. By the state comptroller under section 442.35.

7. Allowable growth. For the school year beginning July 1, 1981, the state comptroller shall add to the allowable growth of affected school districts, an amount equal to the difference between the amount per pupil in weighted enrollment for the approved budget for the school year beginning July 1, 1980 for special education support services in that area education agency and the amount per pupil in weighted enrollment for the amount certified to generate funds for the school year beginning July 1, 1980 for special education support services in the area education agency and shall adjust the state cost per pupil accordingly. 442.8 State cost per pupil. As used in this chapter, "state cost per pupil" for the school year beginning July 1, 1975, and subsequent school years means state cost per pupil in weighted enrollment. The state cost per pupil for the school year beginning July 1, 1972, is nine hundred three dollars. The state cost per pupil for the school year beginning on July 1, 1973, and for each succeeding school year is the base year's state cost per pupil plus the allowable growth for the budget year. If the state percent of growth is zero, the state cost per pupil shall be the same as the base year's state cost per pupil.

However, for the budget years beginning July 1, 1980, July 1, 1982, and July 1, 1983, the state cost per pupil shall equal the base year's state cost per pupil plus the allowable growth for the budget year plus an adjustment to the state cost per pupil. For the budget years beginning July 1, 1980, July 1, 1982, and July 1, 1983, the adjustment to the state cost per pupil is twenty dollars per pupil, seven dollars per pupil, and eight dollars per pupil, respectively.

Commencing with the school year beginning July 1, 1976, and ending with the school year beginning July 1, 1979, the allowable growth added to the state cost per pupil as otherwise computed under section 442.7 shall be the basic allowable growth increased by an amount equal to the average of the amounts of allowable growth added for each school district in the state for additional special education support services needed for that year to serve newly identified children who require the services, under sections 273.9, subsection 3 and 442.7, subsection 5, paragraph "d". The state comptroller shall compute the applicable amount of allowable growth to be added to the state cost per pupil for each school year. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.8; 68GA, ch 106, §11, ch 1076, §20, 21]

442.9 District cost per pupil—district cost—additional school district property tax levy.

1. The state comptroller shall determine the additional school district property tax levy for each school district, which is in addition to the foundation property tax levy, as follows:

a. As used in this chapter, "district cost per pupil" for the school year beginning July 1, 1975, and subsequent school years means district cost per pupil in weighted enrollment. The district cost per pupil for the budget year is equal to the district cost per pupil for the base year plus the allowable growth. However, district cost per pupil does not include additional allowable growth added for programs for gifted and talented children under this chapter and does not include additional allowable growth established by the school budget review committee for a single school year only.

b. The district cost for the budget year is equal to the district cost per pupil for the budget year multiplied by the weighted enrollment, plus the additional district cost allocated to the district under section 442.27 to fund media services and educational services provided through the area education agency. A school district may not increase its district cost for the budget year except to the extent that an excess tax levy is authorized by the school budget review committee as provided in section 442.13.

c. The amount to be raised by the additional school district property tax levy is equal to the district cost for the budget year, less the product of the state or district foundation base and the weighted enrollment.

2. No later than May 1 of each year, the state comptroller shall notify the county auditor of each county the amount, in dollars and cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, of the additional property tax levy in each school district in the county. Each county auditor shall spread the additional property tax levy for each school district over all taxable property in the district. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.9; 68GA, ch 1076, §22]

442.12 School budget review committee. A school budget review committee is established, consisting of the superintendent of public instruction, the state comptroller, and three members appointed by the governor to represent the public and to serve three-year staggered terms. The committee shall meet and hold hearings each year and shall continue in session until it has reviewed budgets of school districts, as provided in section 442.13. It may call in school board members and employees as necessary for the hearings. Legislators shall be notified of hearings concerning school districts in their constituencies.

The committee shall adopt its own rules of procedure. The superintendent of public instruction shall serve as chairman, and the state comptroller shall serve as secretary. The committee members representing the public are entitled to receive a per diem equal to the per diem of members of the board of public instruction, and their necessary travel and other expenses while engaged in their official duties. Expense payments shall be made from appropriations to the department of public instruction. [C71, §442.21; C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.12]

442.13 Duties of the committee.

1. The school budget review committee may recommend the revision of any rules, regulations, directives, or forms relating to school district budgeting and accounting, confer with local school boards or their representatives and make recommendations relating to any budgeting or accounting matters, and may direct the superintendent of public instruction or the state comptroller to make studies and investigations of school costs in any school district.

2. The committee shall report to each session of the general assembly, which report shall include any recommended changes in laws relating to school districts, and shall specify the number of hearings held annually, the reasons for the committee's recommendations, and other information as the committee deems advisable.

3. The committee shall review the proposed budget and certified budget of each school district, and may make recommendations. The committee may make decisions affecting budgets to the extent provided in this chapter. The costs and computations referred to in this section relate to the budget year unless otherwise expressly stated.

4. Subject to the minimum for the school years beginning July 1, 1974, and July 1, 1975, as provided in section 442.7, the committee may establish a modified allowable growth by reducing the allowable growth:

a. If the district cost per pupil exceeds the state cost per pupil.

b. If in the committee's judgment the district cost is unreasonably high in relation to the comparative cost factors of similar districts, even if the district cost per pupil does not exceed the state cost per pupil.

5. If a district has unusual circumstances, creating an unusual need for additional funds, including but not limited to the following circumstances, the committee may grant supplemental aid to the district from any funds appropriated to the department of public instruction for the use of the school budget review committee for this purpose, and such aid shall be miscellaneous income and shall not be included in district cost; or may establish a modified allowable growth for the district by increasing its allowable growth; or both:

a. Any unusual increase or decrease in enrollment.

b. Unusual natural disasters.

c. Unusual transportation problems and for which the per pupil transportation costs are substantially higher than the state average per pupil transportation costs due to sparsity of the population, topographical factors, and other obstacles which hinder the efficient transportation of pupils.

d. Unusual initial staffing problems.

e. The closing of a nonpublic school, wholly or in part.

f. Substantial reduction in miscellaneous income due to circumstances beyond the control of the district.

g. Unusual necessity for additional funds to permit continuance of a course or program which provides substantial benefit to pupils.

h. Unusual need for a new course or program which will provide substantial benefit to pupils, if the district establishes such need and the amount of necessary increased cost.

i. Unusual need for additional funds for special education or compensatory education programs.

j. Year-round or substantially year-round attendance programs which apply toward graduation requirements, including but not limited to trimester or four-quarter programs. Enrollment in such programs shall be adjusted to reflect equivalency to normal school year attendance.

k. Severe hardship due to the exclusion of miscellaneous income from computations under this chapter. For the school year beginning July 1, 1973, the committee shall increase the district's allowable growth to the extent necessary to prevent such hardship.

l. Transportation equipment needs which become necessary because of the furnishing of transportation to nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285.

m. Enrollment decrease caused by the availability of transportation to nonpublic school pupils in a district.

n. Costs of special education programs and services for children requiring special education who are living in a state-supported institution, charitable institution, or licensed boarding home which does not maintain a school and the child has not been counted in the weighted enrollment under section 281.9.

o. Any unique problems of districts to include minority problems, vandalism, civil disobedience and other costs incurred by school districts.

p. Unusual needs for additional funds for special education instruction in excess of the special education instruction funds generated under the provisions of section 281.9, for districts that do not carry over a positive balance of special education instruction funds which were not encumbered during the year of receipt.

6. If a nonpublic school closes wholly or in part, the committee may authorize an increase in the district general fund tax levy, but only to the extent necessary to cover the cost of absorbing the former nonpublic school pupils into the public school system. The school board shall establish the amount of necessary increased cost to the satisfaction of the school budget review committee before an increase in tax levy is authorized.

7. The committee may authorize a district to spend a reasonable and specified amount from its unexpended cash balance for the purpose or purposes of furnishing, equipping, and contributing to the construction of a new building or structure for which the voters of the district have approved a bond issue as provided by law or a tax as provided in chapter 278 and for major building repairs as defined in section 297.5. No other expenditure, including but not limited to expenditures for salaries or recurring costs, shall be authorized under this subsection. Expenditures authorized under this subsection shall not be included in allowable growth or district cost, and the portion of the unexpended cash balance which is authorized to be spent shall be regarded as if it were miscellaneous income. Any part of such amount which is not actually spent for the authorized purpose shall revert to its former status as part of the unexpended cash balance.

8. The committee may approve or modify the initial base year district cost of any district which changes accounting procedures.

9. When the committee makes a decision under subsections 3 to 8, it shall make all necessary changes in the district cost, budget, and tax levy. It shall give written notice of its decision, including all such changes, to the school board through the state comptroller.

10. All decisions by the committee under this chapter shall be made in accordance with reasonable and uniform policies which shall be consistent with this chapter. All such policies of general application shall be stated in rules adopted in accordance with chapter 17A. The committee shall take into account the intent of this chapter to equalize educational opportunity, to provide a good education for all the children of Iowa, to provide property tax relief, to decrease the percentage of school costs paid from property taxes, and to provide reasonable control of school costs. The committee shall also take into account the amount of funds available.

11. Failure by any school district to provide information or appear before the committee as requested for the accomplishment of review or hearing shall constitute justification for the committee to instruct the state comptroller to withhold any state aid to that district until the committee's inquiries are satisfied completely.

12. The committee shall review the recommendations of the superintendent of public instruction relating to the special education weighting plan, and shall establish a weighting plan for each school year after the school year commencing July 1, 1975, and report the plan to the superintendent of public instruction.

13. The committee may recommend that two or more school districts jointly employ and share the services of any school personnel, or acquire and share the use of classrooms, laboratories, equipment, and facilities as specified in section 280.14.

14. The committee shall review the budget of each school district which has a positive balance of funds raised for weighted enrollment in excess of the district cost per pupil received for special education instruction programs which were not validly encumbered during the school year in which the funds were received. The committee may reduce the property tax levy of the school district for the budget year by the amount of the carry-over special education instruction funds which were property tax during the year of receipt in the school year prior to the base year. If the committee reduces the property tax to be levied, it shall reduce the state aid to be received by the school district for the budget year by the state aid portion of the special education instruction funds carried over from the school year prior to the base year. The committee shall notify the comptroller of the combined property tax and state aid adjustments to be made under this subsection. #### 442.14 Additional enrichment amount.

1. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1980, and each succeeding school year, if a school board wishes to spend more than the amount permitted under sections 442.1 to 442.13, and the school board has not attempted by resolution to raise an additional enrichment amount for that budget year, the school board may raise an additional enrichment amount not to exceed ten percent of the state cost per pupil multiplied by the budget enrollment in the district, as provided in this section.

2. The board shall determine the additional enrichment amount per pupil needed, within the limits of this section, and shall direct the county commissioner of elections to submit the question of whether to raise that amount under the provisions of this section and section 442.15, to the qualified electors of the school district at a regular school election held during September of the base year. If a majority of those voting favors raising the enrichment amount, the board may include the approved amount in its certified budget.

3. The additional enrichment amount needed shall be raised within the limits provided in this section by a combination of an enrichment property tax and a school district income surtax imposed in the proportion of a property tax of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of taxable property in the district for each five percent of income surtax.

4. The additional enrichment amount for a district is limited to the amount which may be raised by a combination tax in the prescribed proportion which does not exceed a property tax of one dollar and eight cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation and an income surtax of twenty percent.

5. Any additional enrichment amount of a school district, not exceeding five percent of the state cost per pupil, which was approved at a referendum prior to July 1, 1978, shall remain in effect for the period for which it was approved. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.14; 68GA, ch 106, §12]

442.15 Computation of enrichment amount. If a majority of those voting in an election approves raising the additional enrichment amount under section 442.14 and this section, the board shall certify to the state comptroller that the required procedures have been carried out, and the state comptroller shall establish the amount of additional enrichment property tax to be levied and the amount of school district income surtax to be imposed for each school year for which the additional enrichment amount is authorized. The state comptroller shall determine these amounts based upon the most recent figures available for the district's valuation of taxable property, individual state income tax paid, and budget enrollment in the district, and shall certify to the district's county auditor the amount of enrichment property tax, and to the director of revenue the amount of school district income surtax to be imposed.

The school district income surtax shall be imposed on the state individual income tax for the calendar year during which the school's budget year begins, or for a taxpayer's fiscal year ending during the second half of that calendar year or the first half of the succeeding calendar year, and shall be imposed on all individuals residing in the school district on the last day of the applicable tax year. As used in this section, "state individual income tax" means the tax computed under section 422.5, less the deductions allowed in section 422.12.

An additional enrichment amount authorized under section 442.14 or a lesser amount than the amount so authorized may be continued as provided in this section for a period of five school years. If the amount authorized is less than the maximum of ten percent of the state cost per pupil and the board wishes to increase the amount, it shall re-establish its authority to do so in the manner provided in section 442.14. If the board wishes to continue any additional enrichment amount beyond the five-year period, it shall re-establish its authority to do so in the manner provided in section 442.14 within the twelve-month period prior to termination of the five-year period. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.15; 68GA, ch 106, §13, ch 1089, §2]

442.16 Statutes applicable. The director of revenue shall administer any school district income surtax imposed under this chapter, and all the provisions of sections 422.20, 422.22 to 422.31, 422.68, and 422.72 to 422.75, shall apply in respect to administration of the school district income surtax. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.16]

442.17 Form and time of return. The school district income surtax shall be made a part of the Iowa individual income tax return subject to the conditions and restrictions set forth in section 422.21. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.17]

442.18 Deposit of school district income surtax. The director of revenue shall deposit all moneys received as school district income surtax to the credit of each district from which the moneys are received, in a "school district income surtax fund" which is established in the office of the treasurer of state.

Effective July 1, 1980, the director of revenue shall deposit all school district income surtax moneys received on or before November 1 of the year following the close of the school budget year for which the surtax is imposed to the credit of each district from which the moneys are received in the school district income surtax fund. All school district surtax moneys received or refunded after November 1 of the year following the close of the school budget year for which the surtax is imposed shall be deposited in or withdrawn from the general fund of the state and shall be considered part of the cost of administering the school district surtax.

The department of revenue shall, not later than January 15, 1980, submit a report to the general assembly specifying the amount of school district income surtax moneys credited to the school district income surtax fund after November 1, 1978 and November 1, 1979 which were attributed to individual income tax returns filed and received in 1978 and 1979 respectively after the date on which such returns shall have been filed. The report shall also specify the amount of school district income surtax moneys received or refunded as a result of an audit or from the filing of amended returns. The report shall specify the names of each school district which has imposed a school district income surtax and the amount of additional income surtax moneys received from late filed returns and received or refunded from audited and amended returns and the administrative costs incurred by the department in processing these returns and the issuance of warrants to the respective school districts which have received additional surtax moneys from late filed returns and audited and amended returns. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.18]

Amendment effective July 1, 1980 for all state individual income tax returns filed on or after July 1, 1980, 67GA, ch 1152, §8

442.19 School district income surtax certification. On or before October 20 each year, the director of revenue shall make an accounting of the school district income surtax collected under this chapter applicable to tax returns for the last preceding calendar year, or for fiscal year taxpayers, on the last day of their tax year ending during that calendar year and after the date of the election approving the surtax, from taxpayers in each school district in the state which has imposed a surtax, and shall certify to the state comptroller and the state department of public instruction the amount of total school district income surtax credited from the taxpayers of each school district. Additional returns in process, if any, at the time of certification shall be completed and the additional amount of school district income surtax reported to the state comptroller for distribution back to the school district with the first installment of the following school year. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §442.19]

442.20 School district income surtax distribution. The state comptroller shall draw warrants in payment of the amount of surtax payable to each of the school districts in two installments to be paid on approximately the first day of December and the first day of February, and shall cause the warrants to be delivered to the respective school districts. the district pursuant to this chapter and shall pay the amounts to the respective area education agencies on a quarterly basis during each school year. The state comptroller shall notify each school district of the amount of state aid deducted for this purpose and the balance of state aid shall be paid to the district. Amendment effective July 1, 1981, 68GA, ch 1075, §8

442.27 Funding media and other services. Media services and educational services provided through the area education agencies shall be funded, to the extent provided, by an addition to the district cost of each school district, determined as follows:

1. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1975, the total amount funded in each area for media services shall be the greater of an amount equal to the costs for media services in the area in the base year times the sum of one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth, or an amount equal to five dollars times the enrollment served in the area in the budget year. The costs for media services in the area in the base year beginning July 1, 1974, shall be a proportionate part of the budgeted expenditures by county school systems and joint county systems formerly serving pupils in the area based upon the enrollment served in that area in the base year by each county school system and joint county system compared to the total enrollment served by that county system or joint county system.

2. For the school year beginning July 1, 1978 and each succeeding budget year, the total amount funded for each area for media services excluding the cost for media resource material shall be the total amount funded in the area for media service in the base year times the sum of one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth plus the costs for media resource material for the budget year.

Each year subsequent to the school year beginning July 1, 1980, the total amount to be funded for media services, including the costs for media resource material which shall only be used for the purchase or replacement of material required in section 273.6, subsection 1, paragraphs "a", "b" and "c", shall be equal to the budget in the base year in the area times the sum of one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth.

3. a. However, for the budget year beginning July 1, 1978, each area in which the amount funded for media services per pupil without inclusion of the costs for media resource material is less than the maximum media service cost per pupil for the enrollment served during the budget year, that area shall receive additional funding for equalization purposes as provided in this paragraph. Each such area shall be funded, in addition to the amount funded under the provisions of subsection 2, an amount equal to one-third of the difference between the product of the maximum media service cost per pupil times the enrollment served in the budget year in the area and that amount the area is eligible to receive for media services other than for media resource material under subsection 2. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1979, each area in which the amount funded for media services, other than for media resource material, is less than the maximum media service cost per pupil for the enrollment served in the area in the budget year, in addition to the amount funded for media services other than media resource material under the provision of subsection 2, shall be funded at an amount equal to one-half of the difference between the product of the maximum media service cost per pupil times the enrollment served in the budget year in the area and that amount the district is eligible to receive under subsection 2 for media services other than for media resource material. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1980, each area shall be funded at that amount generated by multiplying the maximum media service cost per pupil times the enrollment served in the area for the budget year.

For the purposes of this section "maximum media service cost per pupil" means, for the school year beginning July 1, 1978, one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth times eight dollars without inclusion of the cost for media resource material. For each succeeding school year prior to the school year beginning July 1, 1981, the "maximum media service cost per pupil" without inclusion of the cost of media resource material shall be equal to the one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth for the budget year times the maximum media service cost per pupil for the base year.

b. In addition to the funding provided for media services under subsections 1 and 2 and paragraph "a" of this subsection, for the school year beginning July 1, 1978, an amount shall be funded to be added to media service funds for each area for purchase and replacement of media resource material required in section 273.6, subsection 1, paragraphs "a," "b" and "c". The amount shall be equal to three dollars times the enrollment served in the area in the budget year. For each succeeding school year subsequent to the school year beginning July 1, 1978, and prior to the school year beginning July 1, 1981, the amount to fund media resource material, which shall only be used for the purchase and replacement of material required in section 273.6, subsection 1, paragraphs "a," "b" and "c," shall be equal to the total amount funded in the area for media resource material in the base year times the sum of one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth.

4. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1975, the total amount funded in each area for educational services shall be an amount equal to ten dollars times the enrollment served in the area in the budget year.

5. For each succeeding budget year, the total amount funded in each area for educational services shall be the total amount funded in the area for educational services in the base year times the sum of one hundred percent plus the state percent of growth.

6. Of the total amounts funded in each area each year for media services and educational services, a portion shall be allocated to each district in the area. The portion to be allocated to each district in an area shall be the same percentage of the total amount that the enrollment served in the budget year in the district is of the enrollment served in the budget year in the area.

7. The portion allocated to each district in an area each budget year for media services and educational services shall be added to the district cost of that district for the budget year as provided in section 442.9.

8. The state board of public instruction and the state comptroller shall determine the total amounts funded in each area for media services and educational services each year, and the amounts to be allocated to each district. The state comptroller shall deduct the amounts so calculated for each school district from the state aid due to the district pursuant to this chapter and shall pay the amounts to the districts' area education agencies on a quarterly basis during each school year. The state comptroller shall notify each school district the amount of state aid deducted for this purpose and the balance which will be paid to the district. If a district does not qualify for state aid under this chapter in an amount sufficient to cover the amount due to its area education agency as calculated by the state comptroller, the school district shall pay the deficiency to its area education agency from other moneys received by the district, on a quarterly basis during each school year.

9. "Enrollment served" means the basic enrollment plus the number of nonpublic school pupils served with media services or educational services, as applicable, except that if a nonpublic school pupil receives services through an area other than the area of the pupil's residence, the pupil shall be deemed to be served by the area of the pupil's residence, which shall by contractual arrangement reimburse the area through which the pupil actually receives services. For the budget year beginning July 1, 1975, the total number of nonpublic pupils served by each area education agency and the number of nonpublic school pupils residing within each school district in the area to be served by the area education agency for media and educational services shall be submitted by the department of public instruction as approved by the state board to the state comptroller within one week after this Act* is duly published. For school years subsequent to the school year beginning July 1, 1979, each school district shall include in the second Friday in September enrollment report the number of nonpublic school pupils within each school district for media and educational services served by the area.

10. For the school year beginning July 1, 1978, and for each subsequent school year, if an area education agency does not serve nonpublic school pupils in a manner comparable to services provided public school pupils for media and educational services, as determined by the state board of public instruction, the state board shall instruct the state comptroller to reduce the funds for media services and educational services one time by an amount to compensate for such reduced services. The media services budget shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of the cost per pupil in basic enrollment for media services in the budget year times the difference between the enrollment served and the basic enrollment recorded for the area for the budget year beginning July 1, 1975. The educational services budget shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of the cost per pupil in basic enrollment for educational services in the budget year times the difference between the enrollment served and the basic enrollment recorded for the budget year beginning July 1, 1975.

The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to media and educational services which cannot be diverted for religious purposes.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an area education agency shall distribute to nonpublic schools media materials purchased wholly or partially with federal funds in a manner comparable to the distribution of such media materials to public schools as determined by the state board of public instruction. 442.28 Advance for increasing enrollment. If a district's actual enrollment for the budget year, determined under section 442.4, is higher than its budget enrollment for the budget year, the district is entitled to an advance from the state of an amount equal to its district cost per pupil less the amount per pupil for special education support services, computed as a part of district cost under the provisions of section 442.7 for the budget year multiplied by the difference between the actual enrollment for the budget year and the budget enrollment for the budget year. The advance shall be miscellaneous income.

If a district receives an advance under this section for a budget year, the state comptroller shall determine the amount of the advance which would have been met by local property tax revenues if the actual enrollment for the budget year had been used in determining district cost for that budget year, shall reduce the district's total state school aids available under this chapter for the next following budget year by the amount so determined, and shall increase the district's tax levy computed under section 442.9, for the next following budget year by the amount necessary to compensate for the reduction in state aid, so that the local property tax for the next following year will be increased only by the amount which it would have been increased in the budget year if the actual enrollment could have been used to establish the levy.

There is appropriated each year from the general fund of the state the amount required to pay advances authorized under this section, which shall be paid to school districts in the same manner as other state aids are paid under section 442.26. [C77, 79, §442.28; 68GA, ch 106, §16]

442.29 Reimbursement restrictions for prior years. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 281.9 and 281.11 as those sections are in effect prior to July 1, 1975, reimbursement shall not be made to local school districts for the special education costs for the school year beginning July 1, 1974, incurred for programs provided for the school year beginning July 1, 1971, or prior years, but reimbursement shall be made to local school districts for new and expanded programs for the school year beginning July 1, 1974, beyond those programs provided for the school year beginning July 1, 1971, and reimbursement applied for by county boards of education and joint county boards of education under those sections shall be made. [C77, 79, §442.29]

442.30 Temporary increase in per pupil cost.

1. For the school year beginning July 1, 1979, the state cost per pupil shall be increased to an amount which would otherwise have resulted for the school year beginning July 1, 1979, if the surplus balances for area education agency support services and for area education inherited funds had not been offset against the total support budgets for the school year beginning July 1, 1978. This adjustment is to compensate for the reductions made to state cost based upon the temporary offset of support budgets by certain area education agency fund balances.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 1095 as enacted by the Sixty-seventh General Assembly, 1978 Session, as it pertains to the amount of the reduction to the support service costs to be allocated among the school districts, the amount of the special education support services cost to be reduced for area education agency XIII is equal to ninety-nine thousand eight hundred ninety-nine dollars rather than a reduction of one hundred twenty-one thousand one hundred twenty dollars.

3. To meet the special problems that result from budget reductions due to declining enrollments prior to the modifications in the adjustments for declining enrollments to take effect commencing with the school year beginning July 1, 1979, there is appropriated from the general fund of the state for the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1978 and ending June 30, 1980, to the school budget review committee the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as necessary to be used to minimize the impact of the factor listed in subsection 4. The school budget review committee may also establish a modified allowable growth for the school district by increasing the allowable growth for the school district to provide additional funds to assist the school district with hardships which result from the impact on the school district's budget resulting from declining enrollment.

4. To assess whether a district has hardships resulting from reduced funds because of declining enrollment, the school budget review committee shall consider whether the school district will be forced to terminate an existing educational program because of insufficient funds and thus diminish the overall quality of the school program for the budget year from that provided in the base year. 442.31 Gifted and talented children. For the school year beginning July 1, 1981 and succeeding school years, boards of school districts, individually or jointly with the boards of other school districts, may provide for gifted and talented children programs and annually submit program plans and budget costs, including requests for additional allowable growth for funding the programs, to the department of public instruction and to the applicable gifted and talented children advisory council, if an advisory council has been established, as provided in this chapter. A district shall not identify more than three percent of its budget enrollment for the budget year as gifted and talented.

The department shall employ a consultant for gifted and talented children programs.

The department of public instruction shall promulgate rules under chapter 17A relating to the administration of sections 442.31 to 442.35 and 442.40 to 442.42. The rules shall prescribe the format of program plans submitted under section 442.32 and shall require that programs fulfill specified objectives. 442.32 Program plans. The program plans submitted by school districts shall include all of the following:

1. Program goals, objectives, and activities to meet the needs of gifted and talented children.
2. Student identification criteria and procedures.
3. Staff in-service education design.
4. Staff utilization plans.
5. Evaluation criteria and procedures and performance measures.
6. Program budget.
7. Qualifications required of personnel administering the program.
8. Other factors the department requires.

Referred to in §442.31

442.33 Defined. "Gifted and talented children" are those identified as possessing outstanding abilities who are capable of high performance. Gifted and talented children are children who require appropriate instruction and educational services commensurate with their abilities and needs beyond those provided by the regular school program.

Gifted and talented children include those children with demonstrated achievement or potential ability, or both, in any of the following areas or in combination:

1. General intellectual ability.
2. Creative thinking.
3. Leadership ability.
4. Visual and performing arts ability.
5. Specific ability aptitude. [C79,§442.33; 68GA, ch 1076,§26]

442.34 Submission of program plans. The board of directors of a school district shall submit applications for approval for gifted and talented children programs to the department not later than November 1 preceding the fiscal year during which the program will be offered. The board shall also submit a copy of the program plans to the gifted and talented children advisory council, if an advisory council has been established. The department shall review the program plans and shall prior to January 15 either grant approval for the program or return the request for approval with comments of the department included. Any unapproved request for a program may be re-submitted with modifications to the department not later than February 1. Not later than February 15 the department shall notify the state comptroller and the school budget review committee of the names of the school districts for which gifted and talented children programs have been approved and the approved budget of each program listed separately for each school district having an approved program.

442.35 Funding. The budget of an approved gifted and talented children program for a school district, after subtracting funds received from other sources for that purpose, shall be funded annually on a basis of one-fourth or more from the district cost of the school district and up to three-fourths by an increase in allowable growth as defined in section 442.7. Annually, the state comptroller shall establish a modified allowable growth for each such district equal to the difference between the approved budget for the gifted and talented children program for that district and the sum of the amount funded from the district cost of the school district plus funds received from other sources. [C79,§442.35; 68GA, ch 13,§22, ch 1076,§28, ch 1145,§3]

Referred to in §442.7, 442.31

442.36 Co-operation by area education agencies. The area education agencies in which the school districts having approved gifted and talented children programs are located shall co-operate with the school district in the identification and placement of gifted and talented children and may assist school districts in the establishment of such programs. [C79,§442.36]

442.37 Special education balances reduced.

1. The purpose of this section is to reduce the school district balances for special education instruction programs which were not expended for special education instruction.

2. For the purposes of this section, "unencumbered special education instruction funds" means those funds received by a school district for special education instruction programs for the school years beginning July 1, 1975, July 1, 1976, and July 1, 1977, for special education instruction which were not encumbered prior to January 1, 1978, or which were not an approved expenditure by the department of public instruction based upon applications for approval received by the department prior to January 1, 1978. The unencumbered special education instruction funds shall be those funds received for special education instruction programs based on funds raised for weighted enrollment in excess of the district cost per pupil times the adjusted enrollment in the year of receipt.

3. The state comptroller shall reduce the total state aid to be received by a school district in the school year beginning July 1, 1978, by sixty-five percent of the unencumbered special education instruction funds of the district. The amount shall be certified to the state comptroller by the department of public instruction upon request by the state comptroller.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 442.9, for the school year beginning July 1, 1978, the state comptroller shall reduce for each school district the amount of property tax to be levied for the school year by an amount equal to thirty-five percent of the unencumbered special education instruction funds.

5. Notwithstanding subsections 3 and 4, a school district receiving the minimum state aid under the provisions of section 442.1, shall have the state aid to be received for the budget year beginning July 1, 1978, reduced by the portion of unencumbered special education instruction funds that two hundred dollars per pupil is of the school district's district cost per pupil for the school year beginning July 1, 1977. The property tax to be levied for the school district shall be reduced by the unencumbered special education instruction funds remaining after reduction for the state aid portion of such funds as provided in this subsection. [C79,§442.37]

442.38 Advance for special education. If a school district's additional enrollment because of special education determined by the district on December 1 in the budget year is greater than its additional enrollment because of special education determined by the district on December 1 in the base year, the school district is entitled to an advance from the state of an amount equal to its district cost per pupil for the budget year less the amount per pupil for special education support services, computed as a part of district cost under section 442.7 for the budget year multiplied by the district's increase in additional enrollment because of special education. The advance shall be miscellaneous income.

For the purpose of this section, a school district's additional enrollment because of special education is determined by multiplying the weighting for each category of child under section 281.9 times the number of children in each category totaled for all categories minus the actual enrollment.

tional enrollment because of special education in the budget year had been used for that budget year in determining district cost, shall reduce the district's total state school aids available under this chapter for the next following budget year by the amount so determined, and shall increase the district's tax levy computed under section 442.9, for the next following budget year by the amount necessary to compensate for the reduction in state aid, so that the local property tax for the next following year will be increased only by the amount which it would have been increased in the budget year if the additional enrollment because of special education in the budget year could have been used to establish the levy.

There is appropriated each year from the general fund of the state the amount required to pay advances authorized under this section, which shall be paid to school districts in the same manner as other state aids are paid under section 442.26. [68GA, ch 106, §17, ch 1078, §4]

Amendment effective July 1, 1981, 68GA, ch 1075, §8

442.39 Supplementary weighting plan. In order to provide additional funds for school districts which send their resident pupils to another school district for classes, which jointly employ and share the services of teachers under section 280.15, or which use the services of a teacher employed by another school district, a supplementary weighting plan for determining enrollment is adopted as follows:

1. Pupils in a regular curriculum attending all their classes in the district in which they reside and taught by teachers employed by that district, are assigned a weighting of one.

2. Pupils attending classes in another school district, attending classes taught by a teacher who is employed jointly under section 280.15, or attending classes taught by a teacher who is employed by another school district, are assigned a weighting of one plus one-tenth times the percent of the pupil's school day during which the pupil attends classes in another district, attends classes taught by a teacher who is jointly employed under section 280.15, or attends classes taught by a teacher who is employed by another school district.

3. A pupil eligible for the weighting plan provided in section 281.9 is not eligible for the weighting plan provided in this section. [68GA, ch 106, §18]

442.40 Advisory council. At the written request of one or more boards of school districts, in an area education agency, the area education agency board shall establish one or more gifted and talented children advisory councils and shall appoint members for four-year staggered terms. The terms of office of advisory council members shall commence on July 1 of each year. An advisory council shall consist of seven members including teachers, parents, school administrators, and other persons interested in education in the area. Except as otherwise provided in this section, members shall be eligible electors residing in the merged area. Members shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses and mileage incurred in the performance of their duties from funds available to the area education agency.

If an area education agency has a weighted enrollment of more than thirty-five thousand, the board may appoint additional advisory councils for each thirty-five thousand weighted enrollment or fraction of thirty-five thousand. If more than one advisory council is appointed by the board, the board shall divide the merged area along school district boundary lines for jurisdiction of the advisory councils, and membership of these advisory councils shall be appointed from the designated portion of the merged area. [68GA, ch 1076, §29]

Referred to in §442.31

442.41 Duties of advisory council. The gifted and talented children advisory council shall:

1. Elect a chairperson and vice chairperson from the membership of the advisory council.

2. Meet as often as deemed necessary by the advisory council.

3. Advise and assist a local board of directors in the establishment of gifted and talented children programs, when requested by the local board.

4. Review program plans and proposed budgets for a gifted and talented children program, in consultation with a gifted and talented children consultant employed by the area education agency, when requested by a local board.

5. When requested by a local board, evaluate the results of a gifted and talented children program and file a written report together with recommendations for improvement or change with the board of directors of the applicable school district, the area education agency and the department of public instruction. The evaluation shall be conducted by three or more members of the advisory council. [68GA, ch 1076, §29]

Referred to in §442.31

442.42 Special education additional funds. For the school year beginning July 1, 1981, an area education agency which requires additional money to provide special education support services to children requiring special education in the area may apply to the school budget review committee for additional funds. The school budget review committee shall review the requests submitted by area education agencies and may allocate additional funds to area education agencies on the basis of need from any funds appropriated to the department of public instruction for the use of the school budget review committee. 443.2 Tax list. Before the first day of July in each year, the county auditor shall transcribe the assessments of the several townships or cities into a book or record, to be known as the tax list, properly ruled and headed, with separate columns, in which shall be entered the names of the taxpayers, descriptions of lands, number of acres and value, numbers of city lots and value, value of personal property and each description of tax, with a column for polls and one for payments, and shall complete the same by entering the amount due on each installment, separately, and carrying out the total of both installments. district all of the tax to be derived from the moneys and credits and other moneyed capital taxed at a flat rate as provided in section 429.2* and for years commencing with the year 1966 from the moneys and credits tax replacement fund and shall then apply such rate to the adjusted taxable value of the property in the district, necessary to raise the amount required after the deductions herein provided have been made.

444.11 County orphan fund. The board of supervisors may levy a tax, not exceeding three and three-eighths cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year, on all the taxable property in its county, at the same time other taxes are levied, and to be collected in the same manner, to aid in and for the maintenance and education of destitute orphans. The fund thus raised shall be called the "county orphan fund", and shall be expended in such sums and manner as the exigencies of each case may demand. If there be such children who are without guardian, or, having one, are neglected, they shall be cared for through some suitable person to be appointed by the board. [C73,§1638-1641; C97,§2687; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7173; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§444.11]

444.12 County mental health and institutions fund. The board of supervisors of each county shall establish a county mental health and institutions fund, from which shall be paid:

1. All charges which the county is obligated by statute to pay for:

a. Care and treatment of patients by any state mental health institute.

b. Care and treatment of patients by either of the state hospital-schools or by any other facility established under chapter 222.

c. Care and treatment of patients by the psychopathic hospital at Iowa City.

d. Care and treatment of persons at the alcoholic treatment center at Oakdale or any facilities as provided in chapter 125, provided, however, that any admission to a facility shall be reported to the county board of supervisors within five days by the center or facility offering such treatment.

e. Care of children admitted or committed to the Iowa juvenile home at Toledo.

f. Clothing, transportation, and medical or other services provided persons attending the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, the Iowa school for the deaf, or the state hospital-school for severely handicapped children at Iowa City, for which the county becomes obligated to pay pursuant to sections 263.12, 269.2, and 270.4 through 270.7.

2. Any portion which the board of supervisors may deem advisable of the cost of psychiatric examination and treatment of persons in need thereof or of professional evaluation, treatment, training, habilitation, and care of persons who are mentally retarded, autistic children or persons who are afflicted by any other developmental disability, at any suitable public or private facility providing inpatient or outpatient care in such county. As used in this subsection:

a. "Developmental disability" has the meaning assigned that term by title 42, section 2691, subsection 1, United States Code, as amended to January 1, 1974.

b. "Autistic children" means persons, regardless of age, with severe communication and behavior disorders that became manifest during the early stages of childhood development and that are characterized by a severely disabling inability to understand, communicate, learn and participate in social relationships. "Autistic children" includes but is not limited to those persons afflicted by infantile autism, profound aphasia and childhood psychosis.

The board of supervisors may require any public or private facility as a condition of payment from county funds to furnish the board with a statement of the income, assets, and township or municipality and the county of legal residence of each person receiving services under this section, provided, however, the facility shall not disclose to anyone without the permission of the person receiving services for which commitment is not required such person's name or street or route address.

3. The cost of care and treatment of persons placed in the county hospital, county care facility, a health care facility as defined in section 135C.1, subsection 8, or any other public or private facility:

a. In lieu of admission or commitment to a state mental health institute, hospital-school, or other facility established pursuant to chapter 222.

b. Upon discharge, removal, or transfer from a state mental health institute or state hospital-school or other institution established pursuant to chapter 222.

4. Any contribution which the board of supervisors may make to the establishment and initial operation of a community mental health center in the manner and subject to the limitations provided by law.

The board of supervisors shall, at the time of levying other taxes, estimate the amount necessary to meet the foregoing expenses which it is anticipated that the county will incur in the coming year, and levy a tax sufficient to raise the amount needed. The proceeds of the tax shall be credited to the county mental health and institutions fund, and used only for the purposes prescribed by this section. Should any county fail to levy a tax sufficient to meet the expenses which the county is required to pay, or which the board of supervisors chooses to pay, from the county mental health and institutions fund pursuant to this section, the deficiency shall be met by transfer of funds from the county general fund to the county mental health and institutions fund.

5. Foster care and related services provided to any child who is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, if provided upon the order of the court.

Nothing in this section or any other statute shall be construed to prohibit parents or other persons from voluntarily reimbursing the county or state for the reasonable cost of caring for an individual while he was a patient or inmate in the county hospital, county home, mental health institute, hospital-school, training school, or home for children. #### 444.13 Optional ambulance service levy—referendum.

1. When so authorized pursuant to subsection 2, the board of supervisors may levy a tax of not more than twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the taxable property in the county to support ambulance service provided for the county under section 332.3, subsection 23, or under section 347.14, subsection 13, if the county general fund levy authorized by section 444.9, subsection 2 is at the maximum amount permitted by that subsection, the board has exhausted its right of appeal under section 24.48, and the board finds by resolution that it is not feasible to support ambulance service from the general fund. However:

a. If the board of supervisors has budgeted an amount from the general fund to support ambulance service which is less than the amount that would be raised in the county by a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, and the board finds by resolution that it is not feasible to provide additional support for ambulance service from the general fund, the board may levy under this section an amount not more than the difference between the proceeds of a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in the county and the amount budgeted from the general fund to support ambulance service.

b. If the county has established a county general hospital under chapter 347, and the board of trustees of that hospital has budgeted for support of ambulance service some part of the proceeds of a levy for operation and maintenance of the hospital, made under section 347.27, subsection 4, and the board of trustees finds by resolution that it is not feasible to provide additional support for ambulance service from the proceeds of that levy, the board of supervisors may levy under this section an amount not more than the difference between the proceeds of a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in the county and the amount budgeted to support ambulance service from the county general hospital operation and maintenance levy. No tax levied under this paragraph shall be applicable to a township in which ambulance service is being provided by the township trustees pursuant to section 359.42.

2. A board of supervisors shall not make a levy under this section unless authorized to do so by a referendum held in the county concurrently with a general election. When so directed by the board of supervisors, at least fifty-five days before the next succeeding general election, the county commissioner of elections shall submit to the voters of the county at that general election, as provided by sections 49.43 to 49.45, a question in substantially the following form:

“Shall the board of supervisors of . . . . . county be authorized to levy a tax of not more than twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value to support ambulance service, in the manner and subject to the restrictions provided in subsection 1 of this section, each year for four years beginning next July 1?”

If the question receives the affirmative vote of a majority of all electors voting for and against it, the board of supervisors may levy a tax as provided in subsection 1 of this section in the county budget year beginning July 1 following the general election at which the referendum is held, and in each of the next four succeeding county budget years.

3. The support of the ambulance service authorized under this section shall be assessed on a proportionate basis by which each taxing unit shall bear its share in proportion that its population is to the total population of all taxing units receiving the ambulance service within the county. The board of supervisors shall estimate annually the amount necessary for the support of the ambulance service and shall transmit the estimate in dollars to the city councils within the county in which the ambulance service is provided. A city may be excluded from the ambulance service by resolution of the city council. The unincorporated area of the county, excluding any township which provides ambulance service as provided under section 359.42, is a separate taxing unit. Each city which receives ambulance service under this section is a separate taxing unit. The board of supervisors and the council of each city receiving ambulance service under this section shall certify or make the necessary levies as provided in this subsection for the support of the ambulance services, subject to the tax levy limitation and requirements of subsection 1 or 2 of this section.

Such receipt shall be in full of the first or second half or all of such person's taxes for that year, but the treasurer shall receive the full amount of any county, state, or school tax whenever the same is tendered, and give a separate receipt therefor. 1. The treasurer shall, after April 1, and before June 30, of each year, enter in a book or other record to be kept in his office as a part of the records thereof, to be known as the delinquent personal tax list, all delinquent personal taxes and delinquent poll taxes of any preceding year which do not appear thereon; if the tax list maintained by said treasurer is such that all delinquent personal taxes and delinquent taxes of any preceding year are at all times therein recorded, then he shall not be required to keep in his office, as a part of the records thereof, a separate delinquent personal tax list.

2. The treasurer shall cause to be compiled a list of all delinquent personal property taxes for the current assessment year, as shown by the delinquent personal property tax list. Such list shall show the amount of the taxes delinquent when the amount of the tax is more than five dollars and the amount of penalty, interest and costs thereon, the name of the owner, if known, or the person, if any, to whom it is taxed, and shall be published in some newspaper in the county once each week for two consecutive weeks, the last of which shall be not more than two weeks before the first Monday in June, and by immediately posting a copy of the first publication thereof at the door of the courthouse, if there be one, if not, at the door of the place where the last term of district court was held. The provisions of sections 446.10 and 446.11 shall prevail in connection with the publication of such notice. The treasurer shall obtain a copy of the notice as published, and a certificate of the publication thereof from the printer or publisher, and file it in the office of the auditor.

3. The treasurer shall, within ten days following the final publication of such notice, issue a distress warrant in the form as prescribed in section 445.7. The publication of delinquent personal property tax lists shall include a notice that, unless such delinquent personal property taxes are paid within ten days of the date of final publication of the notice, a distress warrant will be issued for the collection thereof.

4. The distress warrant so issued shall be collectible by any sheriff or constable or tax collector in the same manner as any other warrant for the distraint and sale of personal property. The amount to be collected shall include cost of publication of the notice, as herein provided, all interest and penalties upon such tax, and the fees of the collecting officer, as prescribed by law.

445.10 Former delinquent real estate taxes. The treasurer shall each year, upon receiving the tax list, enter upon the same in separate columns opposite each parcel of real estate on which the tax remains unpaid for any previous year, the amount of such unpaid tax, and unless such delinquent real estate tax is so brought forward and entered it shall cease to be a lien upon the real estate upon which the same was levied, and upon any other real estate of the owner. But to preserve such lien it shall only be necessary to enter such tax, as aforesaid, opposite any tract upon which it was a lien. Any sale for the whole or any part of such delinquent tax not so entered shall be invalid. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to require that in order to preserve the lien of such tax and make such tax sale valid, delinquent taxes must be brought forward upon the current tax list if said tax list is received by the county treasurer less than six months preceding the date of conducting the said tax sale as provided in section 446.25 or section 446.28 if the tax list received each year by the treasurer is such that all delinquent real estate and delinquent personal taxes of any preceding year are shown against each parcel of the real estate on which the tax remains unpaid for any year and the amount of such unpaid tax is shown, the treasurer shall not be required to make any further entry. 450.1 “Person” defined—authority of county attorney. In the construction of this chapter the word “person” shall include plural as well as singular, and artificial as well as natural persons. This chapter shall not be construed to confer upon a county attorney authority to represent the state in any case, and he shall represent the department of revenue only when especially authorized by it to do so. [S13,§1481-a45; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7305; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.1]

450.2 Estates taxable. The estates of all deceased persons in any property whether the decedents be inhabitants of this state or not, and whether such estates consist of real, personal, or mixed property, tangible or intangible, and any interest in, or income from, any such estate or property which estate or property is, at the death of the decedent owner within this state, or is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state, or thereafter is brought within this state and becomes subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state; or the property of any decedent, domiciled within this state at the time of the death of such decedent, even though the property of such decedent so domiciled was situated outside of the state, except real estate located outside of the state, passing in fee from the decedent owner, which shall pass in any manner herein described shall be subject to tax as herein provided. [C97,§1467; S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7306; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.2]

450.3 Property included. The tax hereby imposed shall be collected upon the net market value and shall go into the general fund of the state to be determined as herein provided, of any property passing:

1. By will or under the statutes of inheritance of this or any other state or country.
2. By deed, grant, sale, gift or transfer made in contemplation of the death of the grantor or donor, and any such transfer of property made by any person within three years prior to the death of the grantor or donor shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.
3. By deed, grant, sale, gift or transfer made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or donor. A transfer of property in respect of which the transferor reserves to himself a life income or interest shall be deemed to have been intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at death, provided, that if the transferor reserves to himself less than the entire income or interest, the transfer shall be deemed taxable thereunder only to the extent of a like proportion of the value of the property transferred.

4. Under power of appointment hereafter exercised whether the power was created before or after the taking effect of this chapter. Any transfer involving creation of a general power of appointment shall be treated as a transfer of a fee or equivalent interest in the property subject thereto to the donee of the power. Any transfer involving creation of any other power of appointment shall be treated as the transfer of a life estate or term of years in the property subject thereto to the donee of the power and as the transfer of the remainder interests therein to those who would take if the power is not exercised.

5. Property which is held in joint tenancy by the decedent and any other person or persons or any deposit in banks, or other institution in their joint names and payable to either or to the survivor, except such part as may be proven to have belonged to the survivor; or any interest of a decedent in property owned by a joint stock or other corporate body whereby the survivor or survivors become beneficially entitled to the decedent's interest upon the death of a shareholder. However, if such property is so held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as the only co-owners, one half of such property is not subject to taxation under the provisions of this chapter, but if the surviving spouse proves that he or she contributed to acquisition of such property an amount, in money or other property, greater than one half of the cost of the property held in joint tenancy, the portion of such property which is not subject to taxation under the provisions of this chapter shall be the proportion which the actual contribution by the surviving spouse is of the total contribution to acquisition of such property. The tax imposed upon the passing of property under the provisions of this subsection shall apply to property held under all such contracts or agreements whether made before or after the taking effect of this chapter.

6. When the decedent shall have disposed of his estate in any manner to take effect at his death with a request secret or otherwise that the beneficiary give, pay to, or share the property or any interest therein received from the decedent, with other person or persons, or to so dispose of beneficial interests conferred by the decedent upon the beneficiaries as that the property so passing would be taxable under the provisions of this chapter if passing directly by will or deed from the decedent owner to those to receive the gift from the beneficiary, compliance with such request shall constitute a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter, at the highest rate possible in like cases of transfers by will or deed. [C97,§1467; S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7307; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.3]

450.4 Exemptions. The tax imposed by this chapter shall not be collected:

1. When the entire estate of the decedent does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars after deducting the debts, as defined in this chapter.

2. When the property passes in any manner to societies, institutions or associations incorporated or organized under the laws of this state for charitable, educational, or religious purposes, and which are not operated for pecuniary profit, or to cemetery associations, including humane societies or to resident trustees for such uses within this state, or to organizations composed wholly of veterans of any war of the United States of America; provided, however, that this exemption shall also include property passing to any society, institution or association incorporated or organized under the laws of any other state for charitable, educational or religious purposes, and which are not operated for pecuniary profit or to trustees for such uses in such other state if under the laws of such state no tax would be imposed upon the passing of property to such institutions, societies or associations incorporated or organized under the laws of this state or to trustees for such uses in this state or to any organization composed wholly of veterans of any war of the United States of America.

3. When the property passes to public libraries or public art galleries within this state, open to the use of the public and not operated for gain, or to hospitals within this state, or to trustees for such uses within this state, or to municipal corporations for purely public purposes.

4. Bequests for the care and maintenance of the cemetery or burial lot of the decedent or his family, and bequests not to exceed five hundred dollars in any estate of a decedent for the performance of a religious service or services by some person regularly ordained, authorized, or licensed by some religious society to perform such service, which service or services are to be performed for or in behalf of the testator or some person named in his last will.

5. On the value of that portion of installment payments which will be includable as net income as defined in section 422.7 as received by a beneficiary under an annuity which was purchased under an employee's pension or retirement plan. [S13,§1481-a1; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7308; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.4]

450.5 Liability for tax. Any person becoming beneficially entitled to any property or interest therein by any method of transfer as herein specified, and all administrators, executors, referees, and trustees of estates or transfers taxable under the provisions of this chapter, shall be respectively liable for all such taxes to be paid by them respectively. [C97,§1467; S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7309; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.5]

Referred to in §450.94

450.6 Accrual of tax—maturity—extension of time. The tax hereby imposed shall be for the use of the state, shall accrue at the death of the decedent owner, and shall be paid to the department of revenue within twelve months after the death of the decedent owner except when otherwise provided in this chapter. When in the opinion of the director of revenue additional time should be granted for payment to avoid hardship, the director may extend the period to a date not exceeding ten years from the date of death of the decedent. In the case of any such extension the tax shall bear six percent interest from the expiration of twelve months from the date of the decedent's death. [S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7310; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.6]

Interest on delinquent taxes, §450.63

450.7 Lien of tax.

1. The tax is a charge against and a lien upon the estate subject to tax under this chapter, and all property of the estate or owned by the decedent from the death of the decedent until paid, subject to the following limitations:

a. Inheritance taxes owing with respect to a passing of property of a deceased person whose estate has not been administered in this state are no longer a lien against the property twenty years from the date of death of the decedent owner, except to the extent taxes are attributable to remainder or deferred interests which have not been finally vested in possession for at least ten years.

b. Inheritance taxes owing with respect to a passing of property of a deceased person whose estate has been administered in this state are no longer a lien against the property ten years from the date of death of the decedent owner, except to the extent taxes are attributable to remainder or deferred interests and are deferred in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

2. Notice of the lien is not required to be recorded. The rights of the state under the lien have priority over all subsequent mortgages, purchases, or judgment creditors; and a conveyance after the decedent's death of the property subject to a lien does not discharge the property except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The department of revenue may release the lien by filing in the office of the clerk of the court in the county where the property is located, the decedent owner died, or the estate is pending or was administered, one of the following:

a. A receipt in full payment of the tax.

b. A certificate of nonliability for the tax as to all property reported in the estate.

c. A release or waiver of the lien as to all or any part of the property reported in the estate, which shall release the lien as to the property designated in the release or waiver.

3. The sale, exchange, mortgage, or pledge of property by the personal representative pursuant to a testamentary direction or power, pursuant to section

633.387, or under order of court, divests the property from the lien of the tax. The proceeds from such a sale, exchange, mortgage, or pledge shall be held by the personal representative subject to the same priorities for the payment of the tax as existed with respect to the property before the transaction, and the personal representative is personally liable for payment of the tax to the extent of the proceeds. Whenever there is a change in the status, type, or nature of the assets reported in the preliminary inventory, the change shall be reported on or before the filing of the final report when required by the department of revenue. [C97,§1467; S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7311; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.7]

Referred to in §450.88

450.8 Transfers in contemplation of death. If the decedent makes transfer of, or creates a trust with respect to, any property in contemplation of his death, or intended to take effect after his death (except in the case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth), and if the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, the transferee or trustee shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of his death, shall be subject to a lien for the payment of such tax. [C97,§1467; S13,§1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7312; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.8]

450.9 Individual exemptions. In computing the tax on the net estate passing to the surviving spouse, heirs or beneficiaries of the deceased the following credits or exemptions shall be allowed:

1. Surviving spouse, eighty thousand dollars.
2. Each son and daughter, including legally adopted sons and daughters, or illegitimate sons and daughters entitled to inherit under the law of this state, thirty thousand dollars.
3. Father or mother, ten thousand dollars.
4. Any other lineal descendant of the deceased, ten thousand dollars. [C31, 35,§7312-d1; C39,§7312.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.9]

450.10 Rate of tax. The property or any interest therein or income therefrom, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall be taxed as herein provided:

1. When such property, interest, or income passes to the wife or the husband of the deceased, grantor, donor, or vendor, or to the father or mother, or to any child or lineal descendant of such decedent, grantor, donor or vendor, including a legally adopted child or illegitimate child entitled to inherit under the laws of this state, the tax imposed shall be on the individual share so passing in excess of the exemptions herein allowed and shall be as follows:

Ten percent on any amount up to fifty thousand dollars.

Twelve percent on any amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars and up to one hundred thousand dollars.

Fifteen percent on all sums in excess of one hundred thousand dollars.

4. When the property or any interest therein or income therefrom, taxable under the provisions of this chapter, passes in any manner to societies, institutions or associations incorporated or organized under the laws of any other state, territory, province or country than this state, for charitable, educational or religious purposes, or to cemetery associations, including humane societies not organized under the laws of this state, or to resident trustees for uses without this state, the rate of tax imposed shall be as follows:

Ten percent on the entire amount so passing.

6. When the property or any interest therein, or income therefrom, taxable under the provisions of this chapter passes to any person included under subsection 1 or 2 hereof, there shall be credited to the tax imposed on the individual share so passing an amount equal to the tax imposed in this state on the decedent on any property, real, personal or mixed, or the proportionate share thereof on property passing to the person taxed hereunder, which can be identified as having been received by the decedent as a share in the estate of any person who died within two years prior to the death of the decedent, or which can be identified as having been acquired by the decedent in exchange for property so received. The credit shall not be applicable to taxes on property of the decedent which was not acquired from the prior estate. 450.12 Deduction of debts. There shall be deducted from the gross value of the estate as fixed by the inheritance tax appraisers appointed under the provisions of this chapter, or as fixed by the court, the debts defined as follows:

1. From the estate of such decedent who at the time of his death was domiciled within this state, there shall be deducted the debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, the local and state taxes due from the estate and payable during the fiscal year beginning July 1 in which the decedent's death occurs, and federal taxes owing by the decedent or paid from the estate on Iowa property, a reasonable sum for funeral expenses, temporary allowances as provided in sections 633.374 to 633.377, and as granted by the probate court or judge thereof, court costs, the costs of appraisal made for the purpose of assessing the inheritance tax, the fee of executors, administrators, or trustees as allowed by order of court, the amount paid by the executor or administrator for a bond, the attorney fee in a reasonable amount to be approved by the court for the probate proceedings in said estate the costs of the sale of real estate or personal property in the estate, including the real estate agent's commission, and expenses for abstracting, documentary stamps, and title correction expenses, and no other sum; provided, however, that the debt of such decedent owing for or secured by property outside of this state, shall not be deducted before estimating the tax, except when the property for which the debt is owing or by which it is secured is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, or when the foreign debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or for which it was contracted, when the excess may be deducted, provided that satisfactory proof of the value of the foreign property and the amount of such debt is furnished to the director of revenue.

In all other cases the costs are to be paid as ordered by the court. When a decision adverse to the state has been rendered, with an order that the state pay the costs, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which such action was pending to certify the amount of such costs to the director of revenue, who shall, if said costs be correctly certified and the case has been finally terminated and the tax if any due has been paid, present the claim to the state comptroller to audit and, said claim being allowed by said comptroller, the comptroller is directed to issue a warrant on the treasurer of state in payment of such costs. [S13,§1481-a35; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7388; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.84]

However, all the contents shall be reported in writing to the department of revenue, and thereafter may be delivered to the executor, administrator, or legal representative. It is lawful for and the duty of the director of revenue personally, or by any person by him duly authorized, to examine the securities or assets at the time of any proposed delivery or transfer. Failure to give written notice of the contents of the safety deposit box or other security enclosure to the department of revenue at the time of or prior to the delivery of the securities or assets to the executor, administrator, or legal representative or transferee, joint owner, or beneficiary shall render the safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons liable for the payment of the tax upon the securities or assets as provided in this chapter. [S13,§1481-a36; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7389; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.86]

450.87 Transfer of corporation stock. If a foreign executor, administrator, or trustee shall assign or transfer any corporate stock or obligations in this state standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, liable to such tax, the tax shall be paid to the department of revenue on or before the transfer thereof; otherwise the corporation permitting its stock to be so transferred shall be liable to pay such tax, interest, and costs, and it is the duty of the director of revenue to enforce the payment thereof. [S13,§1481-a37; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7390; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.87]

450.88 Corporations to report transfers. Every Iowa corporation organized for pecuniary profit shall, on July 1 of each year, by its proper officers under oath, make a full and correct report to the director of revenue of all transfers of its stocks made during the preceding year by any person who appears on the books of such corporation as the owner of such stock, when such transfer is made to take effect at or after the death of the owner or transferor, and all transfers which are made by an administrator, executor, trustee, referee, or any person other than the owner or person in whose name the stocks appeared of record on the books of such corporation, prior to the transfer thereof. Such report shall show the name of the owner of such stocks and his place of residence, the name of the person at whose request the stock was transferred, his place of residence and the authority by virtue of which he acted in making such transfer, the name of the person to whom the transfer was made, and the residence of such person, together with such other information as the officers reporting may have relating to estates of persons deceased who may have been owners of stock in such corporation. If it appears that any such stock so transferred is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter, and the tax has not been paid, the director of revenue shall notify the corporation in writing of its liability for the payment thereof, and shall bring suit against such corporation as in other cases herein provided unless payment of the tax is made within sixty days from the date of such notice.

The provisions of this section shall not apply if the lien has been released under the provisions of section 450.7 or the director has issued a consent to transfer. [S13,§1481-a38; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7391; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.88]

450.89 Foreign estates—deduction of debts. Whenever any property belongs to a foreign estate, which estate in whole or in part passes to persons not exempt herein from such tax, the said tax shall be assessed upon the market value of said property remaining after the payment of such debts and expenses as are chargeable to the property under the laws of this state. In the event that the executor, administrator, or trustee of such foreign estate files with the clerk of the court having ancillary jurisdiction, and with the director of revenue, duly certified statements exhibiting the true market value of the entire estate of the decedent owner, and the indebtedness for which the said estate has been adjudged liable, which statements shall be duly attested by the judge of the court having original jurisdiction, the beneficiaries of said estate shall then be entitled to have deducted such proportion of the said indebtedness of the decedent from the value of the property as the value of the property within this state bears to the value of the entire estate. [S13,§1481-a39; C24,

450.90 Property in this state belonging to foreign estate. Whenever any property, real or personal, within this state belongs to a foreign estate and said foreign estate passes in part exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter and in part subject to said tax and there is no specific devise of the property within this state to exempt persons or if it is within the authority or discretion of the foreign executor, administrator, or trustee administering the estate to dispose of the property not specifically devised to exempt persons in the payment of debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, or in the satisfaction of legacies, devises, or trusts given to direct or collateral legatees or devisees or in payment of the distributive shares of any direct and collateral heirs, then the property within the jurisdiction of this state belonging to such foreign estate shall be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and the tax due thereon shall be assessed as provided in section 450.89 relating to the deduction of the proportionate share of indebtedness; provided, however, that if the value of the property so situated exceeds the total amount of the estate passing to other persons than those exempt hereby from the tax imposed by this chapter, such excess shall not be subject to said tax. [S13, §1481-a40; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7393; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §450.90]

450.91 Foreign estates—reciprocity—personal property. The tax imposed by this chapter in respect to personal property of nonresidents (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state) shall not be payable (1) if the decedent at the time of his death was a resident of a state or territory of the United States which at the time of his death did not impose a transfer tax or death tax of any character in respect to personal property of residents of this state (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs in such state or territory), or (2) if the laws of the state or territory of residence of the decedent at the time of his death contained a reciprocal provision under which nonresidents were exempted from transfer taxes or death taxes of every character in respect to personal property (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs therein) provided the state or territory of residence of such nonresidents allowed a similar exemption to residents of the state or territory of residence of such decedent.

In no case shall the provisions of this section apply to the intangible personal property of nonresident decedents unless such intangible personal property shall have been subjected to a tax or submitted for purposes of taxation in the state of the decedent's residence.

This section shall apply only to estates of decedents dying subsequent to July 4, 1929.

For the purpose of this section the District of Columbia and possessions of the United States shall be considered territories of the United States. [C31, 35, §7393-c1; C39, §7393.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §450.91]

450.92 Compromise settlement. Whenever an estate charged or sought to be charged with the inheritance tax is of such a nature, or is so disposed, that the liability of the estate is doubtful, or the value thereof cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained under the provisions of law, the director of revenue may, with the written approval of the attorney general, which approval shall set forth the reasons therefor, compromise with the beneficiaries or representatives of such estates, and compound the tax thereon; but said settlement must be approved by the district court or judge of the proper court, and after such approval the payment of the amount of the taxes so agreed upon shall discharge the lien against the property of the estate. [S13, §1481-a41; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7394; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §450.92]

450.93 Unknown heirs. Whenever the heirs or persons entitled to any estate or any interest therein are unknown or their place of residence cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained, a tax of five percent shall be paid to the department of revenue upon all such estates or interests, subject to refund as provided herein in other cases; provided, however, that if it be afterwards determined that any estate or interest passes to aliens, there shall be paid within sixty days after such determination and before delivery of such estate or property, an amount equal to the difference between five percent, the amount paid, and the amount which such person should pay under the provisions of this chapter. [S13, §1481-a42; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7395; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §450.93]

1. "Taxpayer" as used in this section means a person liable for the payment of tax as stated in section 450.5.

2. The taxpayer shall file a final inheritance tax return on forms to be prescribed by the director of revenue. When a final inheritance tax return is filed, the department shall examine it and determine the correct amount of tax. If the amount paid is less than the correct amount due, the department shall notify the taxpayer of the total amount due together with any penalty and interest thereon, which shall be a sum certain if paid on or before the last day of the month in which the notice is postmarked, or on or before the last day of the following month if the notice is postmarked after the twentieth day of a month and before the first day of the following month.

3. If the amount paid is greater than the correct tax, penalty and interest due, the department shall refund the excess, with interest after sixty days from the date of payment at six percent per annum, under the provisions of rules prescribed by the director. However, the director shall not allow a claim for refund or credit that has not been filed with the department within five years after the tax payment upon which a refund or credit is claimed became due, or one year after the tax payment was made, whichever time is the later. A determination by the department of the amount of tax, penalty and interest due, or the amount of refund for excess tax paid, shall be final unless the person aggrieved by the determination appeals to the director for a revision of the determination within ninety days from the postmark date of the notice of determination of tax, penalty and interest due or refund owing. The director shall grant a hearing, and upon the hearing the director shall determine the correct tax, penalty and interest or refund due, and notify the appellant of the decision by certified mail. The decision of the director shall be final unless the appellant seeks judicial review of the director's decision under section 450.59 within sixty days after the postmark date of the notice of the director's decision.

4. Payments received must be credited first to the penalty and interest accrued and then to the tax due. [S13,§1481-a43; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7396; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.94; 68GA, ch 1113,§8]

450.96 Contingent estates. Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited. When an estate, devise, or legacy can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting. When a devise, bequest, or transfer is one in part contingent, and in part vested so that the beneficiary will come into possession and enjoyment of a portion of his inheritance on or before the happening of the event upon which the possible defeating contingency is based, a tax shall be imposed and collected upon such bequest or transfer as upon a vested interest, at the highest rate possible under the terms of this chapter if no such contingency existed; provided that in the event such contingency reduces the value of the estate or interest so taxed, and the amount of tax so paid is in excess of the tax for which such bequest or transfer is liable upon the removal of such contingency, such excess shall be refunded as is provided in sections 450.94 and 450.95 in other cases. [S13,§1481-a44; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7397; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.96]

450.97 Joint owners of bank accounts—duty to notify department of revenue. No person, bank, credit union, or savings and loan association shall permit the withdrawal of funds from a joint account by a surviving joint owner without first notifying the department of revenue of the balance in such account at the date of decedent's death and the name and address of the surviving joint owner. Such notification may be accomplished by mailing the required information to the department of revenue and withdrawal or payment of such funds may be made immediately thereafter as long as such mailing is accomplished by ordinary mail no later than the date of withdrawal or earlier if knowledge of the decedent's death is known by the depository. A person, bank, credit union, or savings and loan association shall only be liable for any inheritance tax due by the surviving joint owner for willful failure to report to the department of revenue as herein provided. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§450.97]

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE MORTALITY TABLE

The two factors across the page equal one hundred percent. Multiply the corpus of the estate by the first factor to obtain value of the life estate.

Use the second factor to obtain the remainder interest if the tax is to be paid at the time of probate, or to determine if there would be any tax due.

All figures are based on the 1958 CSO Mortality Table with interest at four percent.

This table to be used for estates of decedents where death occurs on or after July 4, 1965.

450A.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Generation skipping transfer" means the generation skipping transfer as defined in section 2611 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

2. "Internal Revenue Code of 1954" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as defined in section 422.4.

3. "Deemed transferor" means the deemed transferor as defined in section 2612 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

4. "Director" means the director of the department of revenue.

5. "Generation skipping trust" means a generation skipping trust as defined in section 2611 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

6. "Generation skipping trust equivalent" means a generation skipping trust equivalent as defined in section 2611 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

7. "Distributee" means a person receiving property in a generation skipping transfer.

8. "Department" means the department of revenue. [C79,§450A.1]

450A.2 Imposition of tax. A tax is hereby imposed on the transfer of any property, included in a generation skipping transfer occurring at the same time as, or after, the death of the deemed transferor, equal to the amount of the maximum federal credit allowable under section 2602(c)5C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, for that portion of state estate, inheritance, legacy or succession tax paid in respect of any property included in the generation skipping transfer.

Where the deemed transferor is a resident of Iowa and all property included in a generation skipping transfer has a situs in Iowa, or is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of Iowa, an amount equal to the total credit as allowed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be paid to the state of Iowa. Where the deemed transferor is a nonresident or where property included in a generation skipping transfer has a situs outside the state of Iowa and not subject to the jurisdiction of Iowa courts, the tax shall be prorated on the basis that the value of Iowa property included in the generation skipping transfer bears to the total value of property included in the generation skipping transfer. [C79,§450A.2]

450A.3 Value of property. The value of property, included in a generation skipping transfer, shall be the same as determined for federal generation skipping transfer tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [C79,§450A.3]

450A.4 Payment of the tax. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid within twelve months after the death of the deemed transferor if the transfer occurs at that time, or if later, the day which is twelve months after the day on which such generation skipping transfer occurred. For purposes of this chapter, any property transferred during the three year period ending on the date of the deemed transferor's death and which is included in a generation skipping transfer under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be considered as transferred on the deemed transferor's death. [C79,§450A.4]

450A.5 Liability for the tax. The distributee of the property shall be personally liable for the tax to the extent of the fair market value, determined as of the time of the distribution, of the property received in the distribution. If the tax is attributable to a taxable termination, as defined in section 2613 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the trustee shall be personally liable for the tax to the extent of the property subject to tax under the trustee's control. [C79,§450A.5]

450A.6 Lien of the tax. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be a lien on the property subject to the tax for a period of ten years from the time the generation skipping transfer occurs. Full payment of the tax due and interest, if any, shall release the lien and discharge the distributee and trustee of personal liability. Unless the lien has been perfected by recording, a transfer by the distributee or the trustee to a bona fide purchaser for value shall divest the property of the lien. If the lien is perfected by recording, the rights of the state under the lien have priority over all subsequent mortgages, purchases or judgment creditors. The department may release the lien prior to the payment of the tax due if adequate security for payment of the tax is given. [C79,§450A.6]

450A.7 Disposal of tax. The proceeds of the tax shall be credited to the general fund of the state. [C79,§450A.7]

450A.8 Returns. It shall be the duty of the persons liable for the payment of the tax to file a return with the department, in such form as the director may prescribe, containing sufficient information to enable the department to determine the maximum federal credit allowable for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter. A copy of the federal return filed for the purpose of paying the generation skipping transfer tax shall be submitted to the department at the time the Iowa return is filed. Copies of all amended or supplemental returns shall be submitted to the department at the time such returns are filed with the internal revenue service. [C79,§450A.8]

450A.9 Delinquent returns. If the tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time prescribed by law, the tax shall be deemed delinquent and shall draw interest at the rate of eight percent per annum thereafter until paid. [C79,§450A.9]

450A.10 Director to enforce collection. It shall be the duty of the director to enforce collection of the tax imposed by this chapter and shall with all the rights of a party in interest, represent the state in any proceedings to collect the tax. The director shall have the power to bring suit against any person liable for the payment of the tax, interest and costs and may foreclose the lien of the tax in the same manner as is now prescribed for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages and upon judgment may cause execution to be issued to sell so much of the property necessary to satisfy the tax, interest and costs due. [C79,§450A.10]

If an amended or supplemental return is filed with the internal revenue service which results in a change in the amount of tax owing under this chapter, the persons liable for the payment of the tax shall submit an amended return, on forms prescribed by the director, indicating the amount of the tax then owing as a result of such change.

If any federal generation skipping transfer tax has been paid before the enactment of this chapter, the persons liable for the payment of the tax under this chapter shall file an amended federal return claiming the maximum federal credit allowable and file the Iowa returns specified in section 450A.8 within six months after the enactment of this chapter or within the time limit provided in section 450A.4 whichever is the later. [C79,§450A.11]

450A.12 Applicable statutes. All of the provisions of chapter 450 with respect to the payment and collection of the tax imposed under that chapter, including penalty and interest upon delinquent taxes, are applicable to the provisions of this chapter, except as they are in conflict with this chapter. The director shall adopt and promulgate rules necessary for the enforcement of this chapter. [C79,§450A.12; 68GA, ch 1113,§9]

450A.13 Retroactive. The provisions of this chapter are retroactive to April 30, 1976, for any generation skipping transfer made after April 30, 1976, except for those generation skipping transfers excepted

under section 2006(c) of the federal Tax Reform Act of 1976 and to this extent the provisions of this chapter are retroactive. [C79,§450A.13]

450A.14 Limitation. The tax imposed under section 450A.2 shall not be construed to impose a federal and state generation skipping tax obligation greater than the tax payable had this chapter not been enacted. [C79,§450A.14]

455.19 Procedure on report—classification. Upon the filing of the report of the engineer recommending the establishment of the levee or drainage district, the board shall at its first regular, adjourned, or special meeting examine and consider the same, and, if the plan is not approved the board may employ said engineer or another disinterested engineer to report another plan or make additional examination and surveys and file an additional report covering such matters as the board may direct. Additional surveys and reports must be made in accordance with the provisions of sections 455.17 and 455.18. At any time prior to the final adoption of the plans they may be amended, and as finally adopted by the board shall be conclusive unless the action of the board in finally adopting them shall be appealed from as hereinafter provided.

If the petition or other landowners requested a classification of the district prior to establishment, the board shall order a classification as provided by sections 455.45 to 455.51 after they have approved the report of the engineer as a tentative plan. Referred to in §455 19

455.28 Establishment—further investigation. If the board shall find that such petition complies with the requirements of law in form and substance, and that such improvement would be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, or utility, and that the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may locate and establish the said district in accordance with the recommendation of the engineer and the report and plans on file; or it may refuse to establish the proposed district if it deem best, or it may direct the engineer or another one employed for that purpose to make further examinations, surveys, plats, profiles, and reports for the modification of said plans, or for new plans in accordance with sections 455.17 and 455.18, and continue further hearing to a fixed date. All parties over whom the board then has jurisdiction shall take notice of such further hearing; but any new parties rendered necessary by any modification or change of plans shall be served with notice as for the original establishment of a district. 455.30 Appraisers. If the board shall find that such improvement will materially benefit said lands, will be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, or utility, and that the law has been complied with as to form and substance of the petition, the service of notice, and the survey and report of the engineer, and that said improvement should be made, then if any claims for damages shall have been filed, further proceedings shall be continued to an adjourned, regular, or special session, the date of which shall be fixed at the time of adjournment, and of which all interested parties shall take notice, and the auditor shall appoint three appraisers to assess damages, one of whom shall be an engineer, and two freeholders of the county who shall not be interested in nor related to any person interested in the proposed improvement, and the said appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath to examine the said premises, ascertain and impartially assess all damages according to their best judgment, skill, and ability. 455.31 Assessment—report—adjournment—other appraisers. The appraisers appointed to assess damages shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled, and shall place a separate valuation upon the acreage of each owner taken for right of way for open ditches or for settling basins, as shown by plat of engineer, and shall, at least five days before the date fixed by the board to hear and determine the same, file with the county auditor reports in writing, showing the amount of damage sustained by each claimant. Should the report not be filed in time, or should any good cause for delay exist, the board may postpone the time of final action on the subject, and, if necessary, the auditor may appoint other appraisers. [S13, §1989-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7450; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.31]

455.32 Award by board. At the time fixed for hearing and after the filing of the report of the appraisers, the board shall examine said report, and may hear evidence thereon, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation, and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. 455.33 Dismissal or establishment. The board shall at said meeting, or at an adjourned session thereof, consider the costs of construction of said improvement as shown by the reports of the engineer and the amount of damages and compensation awarded to all claimants, and if, in its opinion, such costs of construction and amount of damages awarded create a greater burden than should justly be borne by the lands benefited by the improvement, it shall then dismiss the petition and assess the costs and expenses to the petitioners and their bondsmen, but if it finds that such cost and expense is not a greater burden than should be justly borne by the land benefited by the improvement, it shall finally and permanently locate and establish said district and improvement. [S13, §1989-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7452; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.33]

455.34 Dismissal on remonstrance. If, at or before the time set for final hearing as to the establishment of a proposed levee, drainage, or improvement district, except subdrainage district, there shall have been filed with the county auditor, or auditors, in case the district extends into more than one county, a remonstrance signed by a majority of the landowners in the district, and these remonstrants must in the aggregate own seventy percent or more of the lands to be assessed for benefits or taxed for said improvements, remonstrating against the establishment of said levee, drainage, or improvement district, setting forth the reasons therefor, the board or boards as the case may be, shall assess to the petitioners and their bondsmen or apportion the costs among them as the board or boards may deem just or as said parties may agree upon. When all such costs have been paid, the board or boards of supervisors shall dismiss said proceedings and cause to be filed with the county auditor all surveys, plats, reports, and records in relation to the proposed district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7453; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.34]

455.35 Dissolution. When for a period of two years from and after the date of the establishment of a drainage district, or when an appeal is taken or litigation brought against said district within two years from the date such appeal or litigation is finally determined, no contract shall have been let or work done or drainage certificates or bonds issued for the construction of the improvements in such district, a petition may be filed in the office of the auditor, addressed to the board of supervisors, signed by a majority of the persons owning land in such district and who, in the aggregate, own sixty percent or more of all the land embraced in said district, setting forth the above facts and reciting that provision has been made by the petitioners for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred on account of such district. The board shall examine such petition at its next meeting after the filing thereof, and if found to comply with the above requirements, shall dissolve and vacate said district by resolution entered upon its records, to become effective upon the payment of all the costs and expenses incurred in relation to said district. In case of such vacation and dissolution and upon payment of all costs as herein provided, the auditor shall note the same on the drainage record, showing the date when such dissolution became effective. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7454; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.35]

455.36 Permanent survey, plat and profile. When the improvement has been finally located and established, the board may if necessary appoint the said engineer or a new one to make a permanent survey of said improvement as so located, showing the levels and elevations of each forty-acre tract of land and file a report of the same with the county auditor together with a plat and profile thereof. [S13, §1989-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7455; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.36]

455.37 Paying or securing damages. The amount of damages or compensation finally determined in favor of any claimant shall be paid in the first instance by the parties benefited by the said improvement, or secured by bond in the amount of such damages and compensation with sureties approved by the auditor. 455.38 Division of improvement. After the damages as finally fixed, shall have been paid or secured, the board may divide said improvement into suitable sections, having regard to the kind of work to be done, numbering the same consecutively from outlets to the beginning, and prescribing the time within which the improvement shall be completed. A settling basin, if provided for, may be embraced in a section by itself. [S13, §1989-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7457; C46,

455.39 Supervising engineer—bond. Upon the payment or securing of damages, the board shall appoint a competent engineer to have charge of the work of construction thereof, who shall be required before entering upon the work to give a bond to the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district, to be approved by the auditor in such sum as the board may fix, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. [S13, §1989-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7458; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.39]

455.40 Advertisement for bids. The board shall cause notice to be given by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein such improvement is located, and such additional advertisement and publication elsewhere as it may direct, of the time and place of letting the work of construction of said improvement, specifying the approximate amount of work to be done in each numbered section of the district, the time fixed for the commencement, and the time of the completion thereof, that bids will be received on the entire work and in sections or divisions thereof, and that each bidder will be required to deposit with his bid cash or certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order, at his office, in an amount equal to ten percent of his bid, in no case to exceed ten thousand dollars. When the estimated cost of the improvement exceeds fifteen thousand dollars, the board may make additional publication for two consecutive weeks in some contractors journal of general circulation, giving only the type of proposed construction or repairs, estimated amount, date of letting, amount of bidder's bond, and the name and address of the county auditor. All notices shall fix the date to which bids will be received and upon which said work will be let. Except, however, when the estimated cost of the improvement is less than twenty-five hundred dollars, the board may let the contract for such construction without taking bids therefor and without publishing any notice as above provided. [C73, §1212; C97, §1944; S13, §1944; SS15, §1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7459; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.40]

tor, accompanied with a deposit of cash or a certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order at his office in a sum equal to ten percent of the amount of the bid, but in any event not to exceed ten thousand dollars. However, if the maximum limit on bid deposits would cause a denial of funds or services from the federal government which would otherwise be available, or if the maximum limit would otherwise be inconsistent with the requirements of federal law, the maximum limit may be suspended to the extent necessary to prevent denial of federal funds or services or to eliminate the inconsistency with federal requirements. The checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them, but the checks of successful bidders shall be held as a guarantee that they will enter into contract in accordance with their bids. [SS15, §1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7461; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.42]

455.43 Performance bond—return of check. Each successful bidder shall be required to execute a bond with sureties approved by the auditor in favor of the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district and all persons entitled to liens for labor or material in an amount not less than seventy-five percent of the contract price of the work to be done, conditioned for the timely, efficient, and complete performance of his contract, and the payment, as they become due, of all just claims for labor performed and material used in carrying out said contract. When such contract is executed and bond approved by the board, the certified check deposited with the bid shall be returned to the bidder. [SS15, §1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7462; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.43]

Such contract shall specify the particular work to be done or materials to be furnished, the time when it shall begin and when it shall be completed, the amount to be paid and the times of payment, with such other terms and conditions as to details necessary to a clear understanding of the terms thereof. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7463; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.44]

455.45 Commissioners to classify and assess. When a levee or drainage district shall have been located and finally established or, unless otherwise provided by law, when the required proceedings have been taken to enlarge, deepen, widen, change, or extend any of the ditches, laterals, settling basins, or drains of such district, or the required proceedings have been had to annex additional lands to such district, or a plan of the United States government for original construction of the improvements in such district has been heretofore or hereafter adopted by such district under the provisions of sections 455.202 to 455.217, the board shall appoint three commissioners to assess benefits and classify the lands affected by such improvement. One of such commissioners shall be a competent civil engineer and two of them shall be resident freeholders of the county in which the district is located, but not living within, nor interested in any lands included in said district, nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby. The commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath of their qualifications and to perform the duties of classification of said lands, fix the percentages of benefits and apportion and assess the costs and expenses of constructing the said improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said commissioners or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the board shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7464; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.45]

455.46 Duties—time for performance—scale of benefits. At the time of appointing said commissioners, the board shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district, or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the auditor. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentage of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto. They shall also make an equitable apportionment of the costs, expenses, fees, and damages computed on the basis of the percentages fixed. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7465; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.46]

455.47 Rules of classification. In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor's office.

In estimating the benefits as to the lands not traversed by said improvement, they shall not consider what benefits such land shall receive after some other improvements shall have been constructed, but only the benefits which will be received by reason of the construction of the improvement in question as it affords an outlet to the drainage of such lands, or brings an outlet nearer to said lands or relieves the same from overflow and relieves and protects the same from damage by erosion. [S13,§1989-a13; SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.47]

455.48 Assessment for lateral ditches—reclassification of benefited lands.

1. In fixing the percentages and assessments of benefits and apportionment of costs of construction to lands benefited by lateral ditches and drains as a part of the entire improvement to be made in a drainage district, the commissioners shall ascertain and fix the percentage of benefits and apportionment of costs to the lands benefited by such lateral ditches on the same basis and in the same manner as if said lateral was, with its sublaterals, being constructed as a subdistrict as provided in this chapter, reporting separately:

a. The percentage of benefits and amount accruing to each forty-acre tract or less on account of the construction of the main ditch, drain, or watercourse including pumping plant, if any.

b. The percentage of benefits and amount accruing to each forty-acre tract or less on account of the construction of such lateral improvement.

2. When there has been a repair or improvement to a lateral ditch or drain as provided in section 455-135 and the lands benefited by the lateral have not been classified as provided in this section, then the board may order a classification of said lands and the commission shall ascertain and fix the percentage of benefits and apportionment of costs to the lands benefited by such lateral ditches or drains on the same basis and in the same manner as if said lateral was with its sublaterals being constructed as a subdistrict as provided in this chapter. Whenever this procedure is followed for the classification of any lateral ditch or drain in a given district, the board shall simultaneously follow the same procedure for the main drains and all other lateral ditches or drains in the district which have not been classified as prescribed in this section. [S13,§1989-a23; SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.48]

Such assessment when finally fixed by the board shall constitute a debt due from the railroad company to the district, and unless paid it may be collected by ordinary proceedings for the district in the name of the county in any court having jurisdiction. All other proceedings in relation to railroads, except as otherwise provided, shall be the same as provided for individual property owners within the levee or drainage district. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.49] or other public land, and the board of supervisors shall assess the same against such highway and land.

Such assessments against primary highways and other state-owned lands under the jurisdiction of the state department of transportation shall be paid by the state department from the primary road fund on due certification of the amount by the county treasurer to said department, and against all secondary roads and other county owned lands under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors, from the secondary road construction fund or from the secondary road maintenance fund, or from both of said funds.

When any state-owned lands under the jurisdiction of the state conservation commission are situated within a levee or drainage district, the commissioners to assess benefits shall ascertain and return in their report the amount of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses to such lands and the board of supervisors shall assess the same against such lands.

Such assessments against lands used by the fish and game division of the state conservation commission shall be paid by the state conservation commission from the state fish and game protection fund on due certification of the amount by the county treasurer to said commission, and against lands used by the division of lands and waters from the state conservation funds. 455.52 Notice of hearing. The board shall fix a time for a hearing upon the report of the commissioners, and the auditor shall cause notice to be served upon each person whose name appears as owner, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming him, of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the auditor at or before the time set for such hearing. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.52]

Referred to in §455 19

455.54 Evidence—conclusive presumption. At such hearing, the board may hear evidence both for and against the approval of said report or any portion thereof, but it shall not be competent to show that any of the lands in said district assessed for benefits or against which an apportionment of costs and expenses has been made will not be benefited by such improvement in some degree. Any interested party may be heard in argument by himself or counsel. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7474; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.54]

Similar provision, §455 102

455.55 Notice of increased assessment. The board shall cause notice to be served upon the owner of any tract of land or easement against which it is proposed to increase the assessment, requiring him to appear at a fixed date and show cause why such assessment should not be so increased. Such notice shall be served for the time and in the manner prescribed in section 455.21 or section 455.22, as the case may be, except that personal service in the same manner as an original notice may be made in lieu of the other methods. Service of notice, R C P 56(a) et seq

455.56 Classification as basis for future assessments. A classification of land for drainage, erosion or flood control purposes, when finally adopted, shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said district unless revised by the board in the manner provided for reclassification, except that where land included in said classification has been destroyed, in whole or in part, by the erosion of a river, or where additional right of way has been subsequently taken for drainage purposes, said land which has been so eroded and carried away by the action of a river or which has been taken for additional right of way, may be removed by said board from said district as classified, without any reclassification, and no assessment shall thereafter be made on the land so removed. Any deficiency in assessment existing as the result of said action of the board shall be spread by it over the balance of lands remaining in said district in the same ratio as was fixed in the classification of the lands, payable at the next taxpaying period.

Except districts established by mutual agreement in accordance with section 455.152 in the event any forty-acre tract or less, or any lot, tract, or parcel, as set forth in the existing classification or reclassification of any drainage district now or hereafter established, is divided into two or more tracts, whether such division is by sale or condemnation or platted as a subdivision, the classification of the original tract shall be apportioned to the resulting parcels, regardless of use, except for land taken for additional drainage right of way. The classification of the original tract may be apportioned between the resulting parcels by agreement between the parties to such division. The parties shall file with the county auditor a written agreement setting forth the original description and the description of the tracts as subdivided and the percentage of the original classification apportioned to each. This agreement shall bear the signature of all of the parties to such subdivision. The agreement contemplated herein may be contained in the deed or other instrument effecting the division of the land, which agreement shall be binding upon the grantee or grantees by their acceptance of such instrument and their signatures shall not be necessary. The auditor shall enter this agreement in the drainage record and amend the current classification of the district in accordance with such agreement.

In the event the parties to such subdivision cannot agree as to the apportionment of the percentage classification, the board of supervisors shall, upon application of either party, appoint a commission having the qualifications of commissioners, in accordance with section 455.45. The commissioners shall inspect the lands involved and apportion the existing classification of the original tract equitably and fairly to each of the several tracts as subdivided and shall make a full, accurate and detailed report thereof and file the same with the county auditor within the time set by the board. The report of the commissioners shall set forth the names of the owners thereof, the description of each of the tracts and the percentage of the original classification that each such tract shall bear (1) for main ditches and settling basins, (2) for laterals, (3) for levees and pumping station. Thereafter all the proceedings in relation thereto as to notice of hearing and fixing of percentage benefits shall be as in this chapter provided in relation to original classification and assessments, and at such hearing, the board may affirm, increase or diminish the percentage of benefits so as to make them just and equitable, and cause the record of the existing classification, percentage of benefits or assessments, or both, to be modified accordingly. In the event the parties neither agree as to the apportionment of classification nor make application for the appointment of commissioners, then the auditor of the county in which the land is situated shall make such apportionment upon an equitable basis and enter the same of record as herein provided. No tract of land included within the boundary of any drainage district shall be exempt from drainage assessments or reassessments, except as herein provided. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24,

455.57 Levy—interest. When the board has finally determined the matter of assessments of benefits and apportionment, it shall levy such assessments as fixed by it upon the lands within such district, but any assessment on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. All assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at not to exceed seven percent per annum from that date, payable annually, except as hereinafter provided as to cash payments thereof within a specified time. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.57]

455.58 Lien of tax. Such taxes shall be a lien upon all premises against which they are assessed as fully as taxes levied for state and county purposes. [S13,§1989-a45; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7478; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.58]

455.59 Levy for deficiency. If the first assessment made by the board for the original cost or for repairs of any improvement is insufficient, the board shall make an additional assessment and levy in the same ratio as the first for either purpose, payable at the next taxpaying period after such indebtedness is incurred subject, however, to the provisions of section 455.64. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [S13,§1989-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7479; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.59]

455.61 Funds—disbursement—interest. Such taxes when collected shall be kept in a separate fund known as the county drainage or levee fund and shall be paid out only for purposes properly connected with and growing out of the county drainage and levee districts on order of the board. The auditor shall continue to keep a record of each of the drainage and levee district's funds so as to accurately reflect the financial condition of each such district account. The treasurer, on order of the board of supervisors, shall invest such funds not immediately needed for current operating expenses in United States government bonds, in time certificates of deposit, in savings accounts in such banks as the board shall approve, in the interest bearing obligations of the drainage and levee districts of the county, or as provided by chapter 453. Interest collected by the treasurer on the funds so invested shall be deposited in the county drainage or levee fund, and on July 1 of each year the auditor shall apportion and credit such interest to each drainage or levee district account in the proportion which the average credit balance of each district bears to the average balance of the county drainage or levee fund. The averages to be ascertained shall be the averages of the balances existing on the first of each month during the fiscal year immediately preceding. Interest and penalties collected on drainage or levee district taxes shall be credited to the district for which the taxes are being collected. This section shall not be construed so as to permit expenditures in behalf of any district in excess of its share of the county drainage or levee fund. The provisions of this section shall not apply to drainage and levee districts under trustee management unless the trustees consent thereto, and in the absence of such consent, section 462.29 shall apply. [S13,§1989-a13; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7481; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.61]

Collection of taxes, ch 445

455.63 Payment before bonds or certificates issued. All assessments for benefits, as corrected and approved by the board, shall be levied at one time against the property benefited, and when levied and certified by the board, shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer. Each person or corporation shall have the right, within twenty days after the levy of assessments, to pay his or its assessment in full without interest, and before any warrants against assessments, improvement certificate or drainage bond is issued therefor, and any certificate at any time after issue, with accrued interest. [S13,§1989-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.63]

455.64 Installment payments—waiver. If the owner of any land against which a levy exceeding one hundred dollars has been made and certified shall, within thirty days from the date of such levy, agree in writing endorsed upon any improvement certificate referred to in section 455.77, or in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having a right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection as to the legality of his assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against his property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one-third of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement; one-third within twenty days after the engineer in charge shall certify to the auditor that the improvement is one-half completed; and the remaining one-third within twenty days after the improvement has been completed and accepted by the board. All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than twenty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the board and interest at the rate fixed by the board, not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A. One such installment shall be payable at the September semiannual taxpaying date in each year; provided, however, that the county treasurer shall, at the September semiannual taxpaying date, require only the payment of a sufficient portion of the assessments to meet the interest and the amount maturing on bonds or certificates prior to the regular time for the payment of the second installment of taxes and the balance shall be collected with such second installment and without penalty.

The provisions of this section and of sections 455.65 to 455.68 may within the discretion of the board, also be made applicable to repairs and improvements made under the provisions of section 455.135. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7486; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.65]

Such notice shall be given by certified mail sent to such owners, respectively, at the addresses filed with the auditor at the time of making such agreement of waiver. assessments have been paid, the board may refund to the owner of each tract of land, not more than fifty percent of his proportionate part of such surplus. When all construction work has been completed and all cost paid, and all assessments have been paid in full, the board may refund, to the owner of each tract of land, his proportionate part of any surplus funds except such portion of the surplus as the board considers should be retained for a sinking fund to pay future maintenance and repair costs. Upon the filing of such report, the board shall have jurisdiction to adopt said modified or amended plan of improvement or may further modify or amend and adopt the same by following the procedure provided in sections 455.202, 455.206 to 455.210 so far as same are applicable, except that awards for damages shall not be canceled where there has been no change made in the improvement which would increase or decrease the damages awarded. However, modifications and changes may be made in the plan on which hearing was held without further notice or hearing, provided the same do not increase or decrease the estimated cost to the district by more than twenty-five percent. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.69]

455.71 Presumption—jurisdiction. Such connecting ditch or drain which he shall cause to be constructed shall be presumed conducive to the public health, welfare, convenience, and utility the same as if it had been so constructed as a part of the original improvement of said district. When such subdistrict has been established and constructed it shall become and be a part of the improvement of such drainage district as a whole and be under the control and supervision of the board to the same extent and in every way as if it had been a part of the original improvement of such district. [S13, §1989-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7491; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.71]

455.72 Reclassification. When, after a drainage or levee district has been established, except districts established by mutual agreement in accordance with section 455.152, and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, there has been a material change as to lands occupied by highway or railroad right of way or in the character of the lands benefited by the improvement, or when a repair, improvement, or extension has become necessary, the board may consider whether the existing assessments are equitable as a basis for payment of the expense of maintaining the district and of making the repair, improvement or extension. If they find the same to be inequitable in any particular, they shall by resolution express such finding, appoint three commissioners possessing the qualifications prescribed in section 455.45 and order a reclassification as follows:

1. If they find the assessments to be generally inequitable they shall order a reclassification of all property subject to assessment, such as lands, highways, and railroads in said district.

2. If the inequity ascertained by the board is limited to the proportion paid by highways or railroads, a general reclassification of all lands shall not be necessary but the commissioners may evaluate and determine the fair proportion to be paid by such highways or railroads or both as provided in sections 455.49 and 455.50.

3. Any benefits of a character for which levee or drainage districts may be established and which are attributable to or enhanced by the improvement or by the repair, improvement, or extension thereof, shall be a proper subject of consideration in a reclassification notwithstanding the district may have been originally established for a limited purpose.

4. If after a district has been reclassified, the board in its judgment concludes there were errors in the reclassification or there is an inequitable assessment of benefits, the board may on its own motion, after notice to the landowners involved as provided in sections 455.20 to 455.24 and by resolution, order the district or any portion of the district to again be reclassified as prescribed in this section and in section 455.74.

Such reclassification when finally adopted shall remain the basis for all future assessments unless revised as provided in this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.72]

455.74 Procedure governing reclassification. The proceedings for such reclassification shall in all particulars be governed by the same rules as for original classification. The commissioners shall fix the percentage of actual benefits and make an equitable apportionment of the costs and expenses of such repairs, improvements or extensions and file a report thereof with the auditor in the same form and manner as for original classification. Thereafter, all the proceedings in relation thereto as to notice, hearing, and fixing of percentage of benefits and amount of assessments shall be as in this chapter provided in relation to original classification and assessments, and at such hearing the board may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage and assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses so as to make them just and equitable, and cause the record of the original classification, percentage of benefits, and assessments to be modified accordingly. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.74]

Such certificate is transferable by endorsement, and will entitle the holder to the new warrant, made payable to his order, and bearing the original number, preceded by the words, "Issued as unpaid balance due on warrant number . . . . . ." [S13,§1989-a13; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.75]

The warrants may be sold by the board for cash in an amount not less than the face value thereof, together with accrued interest, if any.

The board may provide by resolution for the issuance of improvement certificates payable to bearer or to the contractors, naming them, who have constructed the said improvement or completed any part thereof, in payment or part payment of such work.

455.81 Drainage bonds. When a drainage district has been established or the making of any subsequent repair or improvement determined upon, if the board of supervisors shall find that the cost of such improvement will create assessments against the land included therein greater than should be levied in a single year upon the lands benefited by such improvement, then, instead of issuing improvement certificates, as provided in sections 455.77 to 455.80 the board may fix the amount that shall be levied and collected each year until such cost and expenses are paid, and may issue drainage bonds of the county covering all assessments exclusive of assessments of one hundred dollars and less.

Before such bonds shall be issued, the governing body of the district shall cause an action for declaratory judgment to be brought in the district court of the county in which the bonds are to be issued, asking that their legality be confirmed. 455.108 Setting aside establishment—procedure. After the court on appeal has entered a decree revising or modifying the action of the board, the board shall fix a new date for hearing, and proceed in all particulars in the manner provided for the original establishment of the district, avoiding the errors and irregularities for which the original establishment was set aside, and after a valid establishment thereof, proceed in all particulars as provided by law in relation to the original establishment of such districts. [S13,§1989-a14; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7529; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.108]

455.109 Reassessment to cure illegality. Whenever any special assessment upon any lands within any drainage district shall have been adjudged to be void for any jurisdictional defect or for any illegality or uncertainty as to the terms of any contract and the improvement shall have been wholly completed, the board or boards of supervisors shall have power to remedy such illegality or uncertainty as to the terms of any such contract with the consent of the person with whom such contract shall have been entered into and make certain the terms of such contract and shall then cause a reassessment of such land to be made on an equitable basis with the other land in the district by taking the steps required by law in the making of an original assessment and relieving the tax in accordance with such assessment, and such tax shall have the same force and effect as though the board or boards of supervisors had jurisdiction in the first instance and no illegality or uncertainty existed in the contract. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7530; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.109; 68GA, ch 1015,§59]

455.110 Monthly estimate—payment. The supervising engineer shall, on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, furnish the contractor and file with the auditor estimates for work done during the preceding calendar month under the contract on each section, and the auditor shall at once draw warrants in favor of such contractor on the drainage funds of the district or give him an order directing the county treasurer to deliver to him or them improvement certificates, or drainage bonds as the case may be, for ninety percent of the estimate on work done. Such monthly estimates shall remain on file in the office of the auditor as a part of the permanent records of the district to which they relate. Drainage warrants, bonds or improvement certificates when so issued shall be in such amounts as the auditor determines, not however, in amounts in excess of one thousand dollars.

All of the provisions of this section shall, when applicable, apply to repair work and improvement work in the same force and effect as to original construction. [C97,§1944; S13,§1944, 1989-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7531; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.110]

455.111 Completion of work—report—notice. When the work to be done under any contract is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer in charge of construction, he shall so report and certify to the board, which shall fix a day to consider said report and shall give notice of the time and purpose of such meeting by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in said county and the date fixed for considering said report shall be not less than five days after the date of such publication. [S13,§1989-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7532; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.111]

Referred to in §357 18

455.112 Objections. Any party interested in the said district or the improvement thereof may file objections to said report and submit any evidence tending to show said report should not be accepted. Any interested party having a claim for damages arising out of the construction of the improvement or repair shall file said claim with the board at or before the time fixed for hearing on the completion of the contract, which claim shall not include any claim for land taken for right of way or for severance of land. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7533; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.112]

455.113 Final settlement—claims for damages. If it finds the work under any contract has been completed and accepted, the board shall compute the balance due, and if there are no liens on file against such balance, it shall enter of record an order directing the auditor to draw a warrant in favor of said contractor upon the levee or drainage fund of said district or give him an order directing the county treasurer to deliver to him improvement certificates or drainage bonds, as the case may be, for such balance found to be due, but such warrants, improvement certificates or bonds shall not be delivered to the contractor until the expiration of thirty days after the acceptance of the work.

If any claims for damages have been filed as provided in section 455.112, the board shall review said claims and determine said claims. If the determination by the board on any claim for damages results in a finding by the board that the damages resulting to the claimant were due to the negligence of the contractor, then the board shall provide for payment of said claim out of the remaining funds owing to the contractor. If the determination by the board results in a finding that the damages resulting to the claimant were not due to the negligence of the contractor but resulted from unavoidable necessity in the performance of the contract, then the board shall allow for payment of said claim in the amount fixed by the board out of the funds in said drainage district. [C73,§1212; C97,§1944; S13,§1944, 1989-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7534; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.113]

Filing of claims, §573 10

455.114 Abandonment of work. In case any contractor abandons or fails to proceed diligently and properly with the work before completion, or in case he fails to complete the same in the time and according to the terms of the contract, the board shall make written demand on him and his surety to proceed with the work within ten days. Service of said demand may be personal, or by certified mail addressed to the contractor and the surety, respectively, at their places of residence or business, as shown by the records in the auditor's office. [S13,§1944, 1989-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7535; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.114]

Referred to in §357 17

455.115 New contract—suit on bond. Unless the contractor or the surety on his bond shall appear and in good faith proceed to comply with the demand, and resume work under the contract within the time fixed, the board shall proceed to let contracts for the unfinished work in the same manner as original contracts, and apply all funds not paid to the original contractor toward the completion of the work, and if not sufficient for such purpose, may cause suit to be brought upon the bond of the defaulting contractor for the benefit of the district, and the amount of recovery thereon shall be credited to the district. [C73,§1212; C97,§1944; S13,§1944, 1989-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7536; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.115]

455.116 Construction on or along highway. When a levee or drainage district shall have been established by the board and it shall become necessary or desirable that the levee, ditch, drain, or improvement shall be located and constructed within the limits of any public highway, it shall be so built as not materially to interfere with the public travel thereon. [S13,§1989-a20; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7537; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.116]

455.117 Establishment of highways. The board shall have power to establish public highways along and upon any levee or embankment along any such ditch or drain, but when so established the same shall be worked and maintained as other highways and so as not to obstruct or impair the levee, ditch, or drain. [S13,§1989-a20; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7538; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.117]

455.118 Bridges. When such levee, ditch, drain, or change of any natural watercourse crosses a public highway, necessitating moving or building or rebuilding any secondary road bridge upon, or ditch or drain crossing such road, the board of supervisors shall move, build, or rebuild the same, paying the costs and expenses thereof, including construction, maintenance, repair and improvement costs, from the secondary road fund.

If the bridge or crossing be upon or across a primary or interstate road, the work aforesaid shall be done by the state department of transportation and paid for out of the primary road fund. [S13,§1989-a19; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7539; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.118]

455.119 Construction across railroad. Whenever the board of supervisors shall have established any levee, or drainage district, or change of any natural watercourse and the levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse as surveyed and located crosses the right of way of any railroad company, the county auditor shall immediately cause to be served upon such railroad company, in the manner provided for the service of original notices, a notice in writing stating the nature of the improvement to be constructed, the place where it will cross the right of way of such company, and the full requirements for its complete construction across such right of way as shown by the plans, specifications, plat, and profile of the engineer appointed by the board, and directing such company to construct such improvement according to said plans and specifications at the place designated, across its right of way, and to build and construct or rebuild and reconstruct the necessary culvert or bridge where any ditch, drain, or watercourse crosses its right of way, so as not to obstruct, impede, or interfere with the free flow of the water therein, within thirty days from the time of the service of such notice upon it. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7540; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.119]

455.120 Duty to construct. Upon receiving the notice provided in section 455.119, such railroad company shall construct the improvement across its right of way according to the plans and specifications prepared by the engineer for said district, and build or rebuild the necessary culvert or bridge and complete the same within the time specified. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7541; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.120]

455.121 Bridges at natural waterway—costs. The cost of building, rebuilding, constructing, reconstructing, changing, or repairing, as the case may be, any culvert or bridge, when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be borne by such railroad company without reimbursement therefor. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7542; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.121]

455.122 Construction when company refuses. If the railroad company shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with said notice, the board shall cause the same to be done under the supervision of the engineer in charge of the improvement, and such railroad company shall be liable for the cost thereof to be collected by the county for said district in any court having jurisdiction. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7543; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.122]

455.123 Cost of construction across railway. The cost of constructing the improvement across the right of way of such company, not including the cost of building or rebuilding and constructing or reconstructing any necessary culvert or bridge, when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraiser to appraise damages. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7544; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.123]

455.124 Passing drainage equipment across railway. It shall be the duty of any steam or electric railway company to furnish the contractor unrestricted passage across its right of way, telegraph, telephone, and signal lines for his machines and equipment, whenever recommended by the engineer and approved by the board of supervisors, and the cost thereof shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraisers thereof; provided that if such company shall fail to do so within thirty days after written notice from the auditor, the engineer shall cause the same to be done under his direction and the company shall be liable for the cost thereof to be collected by the county in any court having jurisdiction. Provided, further, that the railway company shall have the right to designate the day and hours thereof within said period of thirty days above mentioned when such crossing shall be made. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.124]

455.125 Passage across other public utilities. The owner or operator of a public utility, whether operated publicly or privately other than steam and electric railways shall afford the contractor of any drainage project under this chapter unrestricted passage for his machines and equipment across the right of way lines or other equipment of such utility whenever recommended by the engineer and approved by the board of supervisors. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7546; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.125]

455.126 Failure to comply. If the owner or operator of the utility fails to afford such passage within fifteen days after written notice from the drainage engineer so to do, the contractor, under the supervision of the engineer, may proceed to do the necessary work to afford such passage and to place said utility in the same condition as before said passage; but the owner or operator shall have the right to designate the hours of the day when such crossing or passage shall be made. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7547; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.126]

455.127 Expenses attending passage. The work necessary to afford such passage shall be deemed to be covered by and included in the contract with the district under which the contractor is operating, and if the work is done by the owner or operator of such utility the reasonable expense thereof shall be paid out of the drainage funds of the district and charged to the account of the contractor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7548; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.127]

455.128 Annexation of additional lands. After the establishment of a levee or drainage district, if the board becomes convinced that additional lands contiguous to the district, and without regard to county boundaries, are benefited by the improvement or that the same are then receiving benefit or will be benefited by a repair or improvement to said district as contemplated in section 455.135, it may adopt, with or without a petition from owners of the proposed annexed lands, a resolution of necessity for the annexation of such additional land and appoint an engineer with the qualifications provided in this chapter to examine such additional lands, to make a survey and plat thereof showing their relation, elevation, and condition of drainage with reference to such established district, and to make and file with the auditor a report as in this chapter provided for the original establishment of such district, said report to specify the character of the benefits received.

In the event the additional lands are a part of an existing drainage district, as an alternative procedure to that established by the foregoing provisions of this section, the lands may be annexed in either of the following methods:

1. A petition, proposing that the lands be included in a contiguous drainage district and signed by at least twenty percent of the landowners of those lands to be annexed, shall be filed with the governing board of each affected district.

The board of the district in which the lands are presently included may, at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, adopt a resolution approving and consenting to the annexation; or

2. Whenever the owners of all of the land proposed to be annexed file a petition with the governing boards of the affected districts, the consent of the board in which the lands are then located shall not be required to consent to the annexation, and the board of the annexing district may proceed as provided in this section.

3. If either method of annexation provided for in subsections 1 and 2 of this section is completed, the board of the district to which the lands are to be annexed may adopt a resolution of necessity for the annexation of the additional lands, as provided in this section. [S13,§1989-a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7549; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.128]

Referred to in §455.130

455.129 Proceedings on report. If such report recommends the annexation of such lands or any portion thereof, the board shall consider such report, plats, and profiles and if satisfied that any of such lands are materially benefited by the district and that such annexation is feasible, expedient, and for the public good, it shall proceed in all respects as to notice, hearing, appointment of appraisers to fix damages and as to hearing thereon; and (if such annexation is finally made), as to classification and assessment of benefits to the annexed lands only, to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. Those parties having an interest in the lands proposed to be annexed shall have the right to receive notice, to make objections, to file claims for damages, to have hearing, to take appeals and to do all other things to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. [S13,§1989-a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7550; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.129]

455.130 Levy on annexed lands. After such annexation is made the board shall levy upon the annexed lands an assessment sufficient to equal the assessments for benefit originally paid by the lands of equal classification if the finding by the board as provided by section 455.128 was that said lands should have been included in the district when originally established, plus their proportionate share of the costs of any enlargement or extension of drains required to serve the annexed lands. If the finding of the board as provided in section 455.128 was based on the fact that additional lands are now benefited by virtue of the repair or improvement made to said district and were not benefited by the district as originally established, then the board shall levy upon said annexed lands an assessment sufficient to pay their proportionate share of the costs of said repair or improvement which was the basis for the lands being annexed. [S13,§1989-a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7551; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.130]

455.131 Use of former and abandoned surveys. In cases where proceedings have been taken for the establishment of a levee or drainage district and an engineer has been appointed who has made a survey, return, and plat thereof and for any reason the improvement has been abandoned and the proceedings dismissed, and afterward proceedings are instituted for the establishment of a levee or drainage district which will benefit any territory surveyed in said former proceedings, the engineer shall use so much of the return, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in the former proceedings as may be applicable. He shall specify in his reports the parts thereof so used, and in case the cost of said returns, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in said former proceedings has been paid by the former petitioners or their bondsmen, then a reasonable amount shall be allowed said petitioners or bondsmen for the use of the same. [S13,§1989-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7552; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.131]

455.132 Unsuccessful procedure — re-establishment. When proceedings have been instituted for the establishment of a drainage district or for any change or repair thereof, or the change of a natural watercourse, and the establishment thereof has failed for any reason either before or after the improvement is completed, the board shall have power to re-establish such district or improvement and any new improvement in connection therewith as recommended by the report of the engineer. As to all lands benefited by such re-establishment, repair, or improvement, the board shall proceed in the same manner as in the establishment of an original district, using as a basis for assessment the entire cost of the proceedings, improvement, and maintenance from the beginning; but in awarding damages and in the assessment of benefits account shall be taken of the amount of damages and taxes, if any, theretofore paid by those benefited, and credit therefor given accordingly. All other proceedings shall be the same as for the original establishment of the district, making of improvements, and assessment of benefits. [S13,§1989-a17, -a50; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.132]

455.133 New district including old district. If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall be insufficient to properly drain all of the lands tributary thereto, the board upon petition as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall have power to establish a new district covering and including such old district or improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed only against the lands included therein. [S13,§1989-a25; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7554; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.133]

455.134 Credit for old improvement. When such district as contemplated in section 455.133 and the new improvement therein shall include the whole or any part of the former improvement, the commissioners, for classification of lands for assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses of such new improvement, shall take into consideration the value of such old improvement in the construction of the new one and allow proper credit therefor to the parties owning the old improvement as their interests may appear. In all other respects the same proceedings shall obtain as are provided for the original establishment of levee and drainage districts. [S13,§1989-a25; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7555; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.134]

455.135 Repair.

1. When any levee or drainage district shall have been established and the improvement constructed, the same shall be at all times under the supervision of the board of supervisors except as otherwise provided for control and management by a board of trustees and it shall be the duty of the board to keep the same in repair as provided herein. The board at any time on its own motion, without notice, may order done whatever is necessary to restore or maintain a drainage or levee improvement in its original efficiency or capacity, and for that purpose may remove silt and debris, repair any damaged structures, remove weeds and other vegetable growth, and whatever else may be needed to restore or maintain such efficiency or capacity. In the event permanent restoration of a damaged structure is not feasible at the time, the board may order such temporary construction as it deems necessary to the continued functioning of the improvement. If in maintaining and repairing tile lines the board finds from the engineer's report it is more economical to construct a new line than to repair the existing line, such new line may be considered to be a repair. If the estimated cost of any repair exceeds seventy-five percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, the board shall set a date for a hearing on the matter of making such repairs, and shall give notice as provided in sections 455.20 to 455.24. At such hearing the board shall hear objections to the feasibility of such repairs, and following the hearing the board shall order made such repairs as it deems desirable and feasible. Any interested party shall have the right of appeal from such orders in the manner provided in this chapter. The right of remonstrance shall not apply to repairs as defined in this section.

2. In the case of minor repairs, or in the eradication of brush and weeds along the open ditches, not in excess of one thousand dollars where the board finds that the same will result in a saving to the district it may cause the same to be done by secondary road equipment, or weed fund equipment, and labor of the county and then reimburse the secondary road fund or the weed fund from the fund of the drainage district thus benefited.

3. When the board deems it necessary it may repair or reconstruct the outlet of any private tile line which empties into a drainage ditch of any district and assess the costs in each case against the land served by the private tile line.

4. When the board determines that improvements, which differ from the repairs referred to in the preceding paragraphs, are necessary or desirable, it shall appoint an engineer to make such surveys as seem appropriate to determine the nature and extent of such improvements, and to file a report showing what improvements are recommended and their estimated costs, which report may be amended before final action. If the estimated cost of the improvements does not exceed twenty-five percent of the original cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, the board may order the work done without notice. The board shall not divide proposed improvements into separate programs in order to avoid the twenty-five percent limitation herein fixed for making improvements without notice. If the board deems it desirable to make improvements where the estimated cost exceeds twenty-five percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, it shall set a date for a hearing on the matter of constructing such improvements and also on the matter of whether there shall be a reclassification of benefits for the cost of such improvements, and shall give notice as provided in sections 455.20 to 455.24. At such hearing the board shall hear objections to the feasibility of such improvements and such arguments for or against a reclassification as may be presented by or for any taxpayer of the district. Following the hearing the board shall order made such improvements as it deems desirable and feasible, and shall also determine whether there should be a reclassification of benefits for the cost of such improvement. If it is determined that such reclassification of benefits should be made the board shall proceed as provided in section 455.45.

In the event that the estimated cost of the improvements as contemplated in this section should exceed the original cost of the district plus the cost of subsequent improvements in the district, a majority of the landowners, owning in the aggregate more than seventy percent of the total land in said district, may file a written remonstrance against said improvement, at or before the time fixed for hearing on said improvement, with the county auditor, or auditors in case the district extends into more than one county. If such remonstrance is filed, the board shall discontinue and dismiss all further proceedings on said improvement and charge the costs incurred to date for said proposed improvement to the district. Any interested party shall have the right of appeal from such orders in the manner provided in this chapter. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not affect the procedures of section 455.142 covering the common outlet.

5. Where under the laws in force prior to 1904, drainage ditches and levees were established and constructed without fixing at the time of establishment a definite boundary line for the body of land to be assessed for the cost thereof, the body of land which was last assessed to pay for the repair thereof shall also be considered as the established district for the purpose of this section.

6. The governing body of the district may, by contract or conveyance, acquire, within or without the district, the necessary lands or easements for making repairs or improvements under this section, including easements for borrow and easements for meander, and in addition thereto, the same may be obtained in the manner provided in the original establishment of the district, or by exercise of the power of eminent domain as provided for in chapter 472. If additional right of way is required for any repair or improvement under this section, the same may be acquired in the same manner as provided for the acquisition of right of way in the original establishment of a district, except that where notice and hearing are not otherwise required under this section notice as provided in this chapter to owners, lienholder of record, and occupants of the land from which right of way is to be acquired shall suffice.

7. In existing districts where the stream has by erosion appropriated lands beyond its original right of way and it is more economical and feasible to acquire an easement for such erosion and meander than to undertake containment of the stream in its existing right of way, the board may, in the discharge of the duties enjoined upon it by this section, effect such acquisition as to the whole or part of the course. Right of way so taken shall be classed an improvement for the purpose of procedure under this section.

8. If the drainage records on file in the auditor's office for a particular district do not define specifically the land taken for right of way for drainage purposes, the board may at any time upon its own motion employ a land surveyor to make a survey and report of said district and to actually define the right of way taken for drainage purposes. After the land surveyor has filed his survey and report with the board, the board shall fix a date for hearing on said report and shall serve notice of said hearing upon all landowners and lienholders of record and occupants of the lands traversed by said right of way in the manner and for the time required for service of original notices in the district court. [S13,§1989-a21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7556, 7558-7561; C46,§455.135, 455.137-455.140; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.135]

455.136 Payment. The costs of the repair or improvements provided for in section 455.135 shall be paid for out of the funds of the levee or drainage district. If the funds on hand are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the board within two years shall levy an assessment sufficient to pay the outstanding indebtedness and leave the balance which the board determines is desirable as a sinking fund to pay maintenance and repair expenses. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars.

If the board deems that the costs of the repairs or improvements will create assessments against the lands in the district greater than should be borne in one year, it may levy the same at one time and provide for the payment of said costs and assessments in the manner provided in sections 455.64 to 455.68; provided that assessments may be collected in less than ten installments as the board may determine. [S13,§1989-a21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7557; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.136]

455.137 Impounding areas and erosion control devices. Levee and drainage districts are empowered to construct impounding areas and other flood and erosion control devices to protect lands of the district and drainage structures and may provide ways for access to improvements for the operation or protection thereof, where the cost is not excessive in consideration of the value to the district. Necessary lands or easements may be acquired within or without the district by purchase, lease or agreement, or by exercise of the right of eminent domain and may be procured and construction undertaken either independently or in co-operation with other districts, individuals, or any federal or state agency or political subdivision. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.137]

455.138 Revenues used for operation, maintenance and construction. Levee and drainage districts may realize income from incidental uses of their improvements and rights of way which are not injurious to same or incompatible with the purposes of the district. Revenues derived therefrom may be expended for operating, maintenance or construction costs of the district as its governing body may elect. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.138]

455.139 City may discharge treated sewage. Any board, as defined in section 455.4, may by contract permit any city to discharge adequately treated sewage into drainage ditches. The contract shall fix the rental, make provision for termination, and shall provide that no nuisance shall be created. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§393.12; C75, 77, 79,§455.139]

455.141 Reclassification required. When an assessment for improvements as provided in section 455.135, exceeds twenty-five percent of the original assessment and the original or subsequent assessment or report of the benefit commission as confirmed did not designate separately the amount each tract should pay for the main ditch and tile lateral drains then the board shall order a reclassification in accordance with the principles and rules set forth in section 455.48. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7562; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.141]

455.142 Improvement of common outlet—notice of hearing. When two or more drainage districts outlet into the same ditch, drain, or natural watercourse and the board determines that it is necessary to clean out, deepen, enlarge, extend, or straighten said ditch, drain, or natural watercourse in order to expeditiously carry off the combined waters of such districts, the board may proceed as provided in section 455.135. After said board has decided that such work should be done, it shall fix a date for hearing on its decision, and it shall give two weeks' notice thereof by certified mail to the auditor of the county wherein the land to be assessed for such work is located, and said county auditor shall thereupon immediately notify by certified mail the board or boards of trustees of the districts having supervision thereof, as to said hearing on said contemplated work. In those instances where two or more districts involved are under the supervision of the same board, or joint board if the district is intercounty, the notice shall be given to all landowners affected as prescribed for in sections 455.20 to 455.24. Each district shall be assessed for the cost of such work in proportion to the benefits derived. Common outlet for the purpose of this section shall mean an outlet where two adjacent districts have an outlet common to both of said districts and which districts are also contiguous, one to the other. [S13,§1989-a24; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7563; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.142]

455.143 Commissioners to apportion benefits—interest prohibited. For the purpose of ascertaining the proportionate benefits, the board shall appoint commissioners having the qualifications of benefit commissioners, one of whom shall be an engineer. Such commissioners appointed shall not be residents of any of the districts affected, nor shall any member thereof have any interest in land in any districts affected by the contemplated work. Such commission shall determine the percentage of benefits and the sum total to be assessed to each district for the improvement.

In the event that one of the districts to be assessed under this statute shall have any improvement such as a settling basin which reduces the quality and quantity of flow or sediment, such commission may give consideration to the existence of such an improvement when they determine the percentage of benefits and the sum total to be assessed to each district for the improvement. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7564; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.143]

455.144 Time of report—notice of hearing. When said commissioners are appointed, the board shall, by proper order, fix the time when the commissioners shall report their findings, but a report filed within thirty days of the time so fixed shall be deemed a compliance with said order. On the filing of said report, the board shall fix a time for hearing thereon, and it shall give notice thereof to the auditor of the county in which the land to be assessed for such work is located by certified mail; said county auditor shall thereupon immediately notify by certified mail the board of supervisors, and board or boards of trustees of the districts having supervision thereof, as to said hearing on said commissioner's report. In those instances where two or more districts are under the supervision of the same board, or joint board if the district is intercounty, the notice shall be given to all landowners affected as prescribed in sections 455.20 to 455.24. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7565; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.144]

Referred to in §455.145

455.145 Report and review—appeal. The commissioners shall file with the board a detailed report of their findings. Said board shall review said report and may, by proper order, increase or decrease the amount which shall be charged to each district. After the final order of the board herein has been made, said board shall notify the county auditor, in the time and manner as provided in sections 455.143 and 455.144, of said order, and said county auditor shall notify by certified mail the board of supervisors, and said board or boards of trustees, of said final order. Said board of supervisors and said board or boards of trustees, if aggrieved by said final order, may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county in which any of the improvement proposed or done is located.

Any such appeal shall be taken, perfected and conducted in the time and manner provided in sections 455.92, 455.94 to 455.98, for appeals contemplated by said sections. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7566; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.145]

improvement in said district, the board shall proceed to levy said amount against all lands, highways, and railway rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with the original classification and apportionment. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7567; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.146]

455.147 Levy under reclassification. If the amount finally charged against a district exceeds twenty-five percent of the original cost of the improvement, the board shall order a reclassification as provided for the original classification of a district and upon the final adoption of the new classification and apportionment shall proceed to levy said amount upon all lands, highways, and railway rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with said new classification and apportionment. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7568; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.147]

455.148 Removal of obstructions. The board shall cause to be removed from the ditches, drains, and laterals of any district any obstructions which interfere with the flow of the water, including trees, hedges, or shrubbery and the roots thereof, and may cause any tile drain so obstructed to be relaid in concrete or any other adequate protection, such work to be paid for from the drainage funds of the district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7569; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.148]

455.149 Trees and hedges. When it becomes necessary to destroy any trees or hedges outside the right of way of any ditch, lateral, or drain in order to prevent obstruction by the roots thereof, if the board and the owners of such trees or hedges cannot agree upon the damage for the destruction thereof, the board may proceed to acquire the right to destroy and remove such trees or hedges by the same proceedings provided for acquiring right of way for said drainage improvement in the first instance. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7570; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.149]

diction to establish subdrainage districts of lands included within a district extending into two or more counties when the lands to compose such subdistricts lie wholly within such county, and to make improvements therein, repair and maintain the same, fix and levy assessments for the payment thereof, and the provisions of this section shall apply to all such drainage subdistricts, the lands of which lie wholly within one county. The proceedings for all such purposes shall be the same as for the establishment, construction, and maintenance of an original levee or drainage district the lands of which lie wholly within one county, so far as applicable, except that one or more persons may petition for a subdistrict as provided in section 455.70. [S13,§1989-a37; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7572; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.151]

455.152 District by mutual agreement—presumption. The owners of lands may provide by mutual agreement in writing duly signed, acknowledged, and filed with the auditor for combined drainage of their lands by the location and establishment of a drainage district for such purposes and the construction of drains, ditches, settling basins, and watercourses upon and through their said lands. Such drainage district shall be presumed to be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility. [S13,§1989-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7573; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.152]

455.154 Board to establish. When such agreement is filed with the auditor he shall record it in the drainage record. The board shall at a regular, special, or adjourned session thereafter locate and establish a drainage district and locate the ditches, drains, settling basins, and watercourses thereof as provided in said agreement, and enter of record an order accordingly. The board thereafter shall carry out the object, purpose, and intent of such agreement and cause to be completed and constructed the said improvement and shall retain jurisdiction of the same as fully as in districts established in any other manner. The board shall have similar authority relative to the construction and maintenance of silt basins upstream from the district boundary. In case the board and the owners of the land required for such outlet or silt basin cannot agree upon the price to be paid as compensation for the land taken or used, the board is hereby empowered to exercise the right of eminent domain in order to procure such necessary right of way. [S13,§1989-a55; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7577; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.156]

455.157 Outlet in another state. When a district is, or has been established in this state and no practicable outlet therefor can be obtained except through lands in an adjoining state, the board of supervisors of the county where said district is situated shall, as drainage commissioners, have power to purchase a right of way and to construct a ditch for such outlet in an adjoining state or to contribute to the construction of such a ditch, in an adjoining state and to pay for the same out of the funds of such district. Provided, however, that no drainage district or districts shall be charged or assessed any of the cost for land or work done unless previously agreed to by the board of supervisors or trustees of all of the drainage districts which will be assessed. [S13,§1989-a39; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7578; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.157]

Said governing body shall also have the power to repair any ditch, drain or watercourse, or any levee or bank of any settling basin damaged by any person or persons in violation of the resolution of said governing body, after three days' notice to such person or persons to make such repair, in the event that there is a failure to do so, and the expense thereof shall be assessed to such person or persons and shall be certified and collected as other taxes. 455.162 Actions—settlement—counsel. Levee or drainage districts through their governing bodies are authorized to maintain actions in law or equity for the purposes of preventing or recovering damages that may accrue to such districts on account of the impairment of their functions, or the increase in the cost of maintenance or operation of such districts, or on account of damages to property owned by such districts, resulting from the construction or operation of locks, dams and pools in the Mississippi or Missouri rivers; they may make settlements and adjustments of such damages and written contracts with relation thereto, and receive any appropriations that may be made by the Congress of the United States for the increased cost to drainage or levee districts and may agree to the construction and maintenance of present equipment and of new or remedial works, improvements and equipment as a part of such damages, or as a means of lessening the damages which will be suffered by the said districts. Said districts are further authorized to employ legal and engineering counsel for such purposes and to pay for the same out of the award of damages or out of the maintenance funds of the district.

If a lump sum settlement is made between the United States and the district to provide an annual payment of income therefrom, the county treasurer of the county in which the greater portion of the district is situated shall be custodian of such principal fund. The governing body of the district shall apply to the district court for authority to invest said fund as provided by section 682.23, in addition to the investments therein approved the court may authorize investment of said fund in interest-bearing bonds or warrants of said district. For the purpose of gaining such use the landowner may smooth said waste banks, but in doing so he must preserve the berms of such open ditch without depositing any additional dirt upon them. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.163]

If it extends into other counties, the boards of the respective counties are authorized to pay from the general fund thereof, such proportion of said expenses as the work done or expenses created in each county bears to the whole amount of work done or expenses created. Said amounts shall be ascertained and reported by the engineer in charge of the work and be approved by the respective boards which shall, as soon as paid, charge the amount to said district in favor of the general fund of the counties, as their interest may appear, as soon as the said district is established. The expense of such help shall be paid by the districts in proportion to the amount of work done therefor. [S13,§1989-a42;

Such attorneys shall be allowed reasonable compensation for their services, also necessary traveling expenses while engaged in such business. Attorneys rendering such services shall file with the auditor an itemized, verified account of all claims therefor, and statement of expenses, and the same shall be audited and allowed by the board in the amount found to be due. The board of trustees may also lease or sell and convey such other property of the district, both real and personal, as is no longer needed for the purposes for which the district was established, and any such leases, sales and conveyances prior to July 1, 1970, are hereby legalized and declared to be valid and binding.

This amendment in 1978 shall not be construed to affect any litigation involving the lease, sale or conveyance of property by the board of supervisors or board of trustees, as the case may be, of a drainage or levee district, which litigation is pending on July 1, 1978. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7590; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.171]

If the parties cannot agree upon such value, either of them may bring an action against the other in the district court of the county where the land is situated, and the court shall determine the matter. The proceeding shall be triable in equity. [C31, 35, §7590-c2; C39, §7590.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.173]

Should there

not be a sufficient amount in the fund of said district, or subdistrict, to pay said warrant then the board of supervisors, or the trustees of the district, as the case may be, are authorized to borrow a sum of money sufficient for that purpose on a warrant for that amount on the fund of the district, or subdistrict, which warrant shall bear interest from date at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A and shall have preference in payment over all other unpaid warrants on said fund, and the county treasurer shall so enter the same on the list of warrants in his office and call the same for payment as soon as there is sufficient money in said fund. [C31, 35, §7590-c4; C39, §7590.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.175; 68GA, ch 1025, §68]

Any funds realized from the lease or sale of said land shall be first applied in extinguishing the lien of the holder of the certificate herein provided for and the balance shall be paid to the said drainage bond fund of said district. [C35, §7590-g1; C39, §7590.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.178]

For any claim for services and expenses of inspection, the engineer shall file with the auditor an itemized and verified account of such service and expense to be allowed by the board in such amount as it shall find due and paid out of the drainage funds of the district. If the district extends into two or more counties, such action shall be had jointly by the several boards, and the expenses equitably apportioned among the lands in the different counties. [C35,§7598-e5; C39,§7598.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§455.194]

455.197 Land classification and assessment in district.

1. a. When a levee district shall have been located and finally established; or

b. When the required proceedings have been taken to enlarge, extend, strengthen, raise, relocate, reconstruct, or improve any existing levee; or

c. When the required proceedings have been held to annex additional lands to said levee district or to exclude or eliminate lands from said levee district; or

d. When a plan of the United States government for the construction of any levee, or a portion of a levee, in said levee district, or for the enlarging, extending, strengthening, raising, relocating, reconstructing, or improving any existing levee, or a portion thereof, in accordance with any such plan in said levee district, has been heretofore or hereafter adopted by such levee district under the provisions of sections 455.202 to 455.217; or

e. When the board shall, as authorized by section 455.72, determine that the assessments of benefits of said levee district against the lands in said levee district are generally inequitable the board may by resolution, or if a petition is filed by more than one-third of the owners, including corporations, of land within said levee district and who in the aggregate own more than one-third of the value of the land and land improvements in said levee district as the value thereof is then shown by the general tax records of the county or counties in which such land and land improvements are located, requesting the board to do so, the board shall order the lands in said levee district and the improvements on the land in said levee district classified or reclassified in accordance with the assessed taxable value of said land and land improvements as the same are then shown and as the same may be thereafter shown by the assessment roll of the county or counties in which said land and land improvements are located.

The assessed taxable value of any land, including land improvements exempt from general taxation but subject to assessment for levee purposes, shall be determined by the county assessor who shall make such determination in accordance with the rules of assessment applicable to adjacent lands and without any additional compensation therefor.

Referred to in subsection 2

2. If the board orders classification or reclassification of lands as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, the board shall fix a time and place for a hearing to be held upon the action of the board in ordering such classification or reclassification, which hearing shall be held at the county seat of the county having the largest acreage in said levee district. The board shall cause notice of the time and place of such hearing to be served by the county auditor or auditors upon each person whose name appears as owner of lands or land improvements within the levee district in the transfer books of the auditor's office in the county or counties in which said levee district is located, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land or land improvements located in said levee district, without naming him. Such notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a levee district, and such notice shall state:

a. The aggregate estimated costs and expenses which the board proposes to assess under such classification or reclassification;

b. The total aggregate assessed taxable value of all lands and land improvements in said levee district;

c. That the said classification or reclassification of benefits will be based on the assessed taxable value of all lands and improvements to lands located in said levee district;

d. That each tract of land and each land improvement in said levee district will be assessed for its pro rata share of said costs and expenses based upon the ratio that the assessed value of each tract of land and the assessed value of each land improvement bears to the total assessed taxable value of all lands and all land improvements in said district; and

e. That all objections to said method of classification or reclassification shall be in writing and filed with the auditor of the county in which said land or land improvements are located before the time set for said hearing or with the board of trustees of said district at or before the time set for such hearing.

The notice need not show the amount of such costs and expenses to be apportioned to each such owner or to any particular tract of land or land improvement within such levee district.

3. If at or before the time set for said hearing as to such classification or reclassification, there shall have been filed with the county auditor, or auditors in case the district extends into more than one county, or with said board, a remonstrance or remonstrances or objections to such method of classification or reclassification signed by owners of land and land improvements in the levee district aggregating sixty percent of the total assessed value of the lands plus land improvements in said district as shown by the taxing records in said county or counties in which said district is located, the board shall abandon the alternative method of classification or reclassification herein authorized. The board may then proceed to classify the lands in said levee district as authorized under sections 455.45 to 455.51 or may proceed to reclassify the same as authorized under section 455.72 unless said remonstrances and objections filed as above provided are filed by a majority of the land-owners in the levee district and these remonstrants and objectors in the aggregate own seventy percent or more of the acreage of lands in the levee district and, in writing, object to any reclassification of any kind, then the board shall not reclassify the lands within the district under the provision of this section nor shall the same be reclassified under the provisions of section 455.72.

4. At the time fixed or at any adjourned hearing if the remonstrances and objections filed at or before the hearing are not signed by sufficient number of owners, or the owners signing such remonstrances and objections do not meet the requirements hereinabove provided, then the board shall fully consider all objections and remonstrances and shall make a determination as to whether or not the costs and expenses shall be assessed:

a. By the alternative method hereinabove set forth; or

b. As provided by sections 455.45 to 455.51; or

c. That the land should be reclassified as provided in section 455.72; or

d. On the basis of a then existing classification of lands.

5. If the board shall determine that the cost and expenses shall be assessed on the basis of assessed taxable value as hereinabove provided, then such basis shall be used for all future assessments made for the purposes of said levee district except if said assessed taxable value of lands and land improvements in said levee district may be changed or revised by the county assessor in the county or counties in which the same are located for general tax purposes, then any such revision made in the assessed taxable value by any such county assessor shall automatically constitute a revision of the classification of such land or land improvements for future assessments made by the board for the purpose of said levee district.

6. In lieu of the hearing provided for in the preceding subsections, the board may, and if the petition of owners provided for in the preceding subsections so asks, the board shall call for an election for the purpose of determining the question of classification on the basis of assessed value of lands and land improvements. The question may be submitted at a regular election of the district or at a special election called for that purpose. It shall not be mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct the elections, however provisions of sections 49.43 through 49.47 and of chapter 462, insofar as the same are applicable, shall govern all such elections, and the question to be submitted shall be set forth in the notice of election. If sixty percent of the votes cast be in favor of the proposed change in assessment, it shall become effective for all future assessments as heretofore provided in this section. If the question should fail, no new election on the subject may be called for a period of one year.

7. When a levee district has been established and constructed, as an alternative to the other methods prescribed by law, upon reclassification, the levee district may adopt a method of classification and assessment uniform as to all land in the district, including railroad land, public highways and other public land and land exempt from general taxation, based on the total amount to be assessed divided by the total acres within the district. This method of classification and assessment may be adopted either by hearing or by election and shall become effective as heretofore provided in this section.

8. When a drainage district or drainage and levee district has been established and constructed, and after the lands therein have been classified in accordance with the provisions of sections 455.46, 455.47, and 455.48 or reclassified in accordance with section 455.72, the district may adopt methods of assessment for maintenance, repair, and operation of said district uniform as to all land in the district in the same manner and by the same procedures as prescribed in subsections 1 through 7 of this section. Provided, however, that only those lands drained by respective mains and laterals shall be assessed for maintenance, repair, and operation of said mains and laterals, and provided further that this alternate method of assessment shall not be applied to making improvements in the drainage system.

9. Following the adoption of any alternative method of classification or assessment as provided in this section, the same shall continue in effect until such time as the method is changed pursuant to this section or to section 455.72.

10. All proceedings taken prior to July 1, 1968, purporting to establish or re-establish a drainage or levee district or districts, or to enlarge or change the boundaries of any drainage or levee district, and any assessments not heretofore declared invalid by any court, are hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed.

The foregoing shall not be construed to affect any litigation that may be pending at the time this section becomes effective involving the establishment, re-establishment, enlargement, or change in boundaries or any assessments of drainage or levee districts. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.197]

455.198 Warrants not paid for want of funds. Chapter 74 shall be applicable to all warrants which are legally drawn on levee and drainage district funds and are not paid for want of funds. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.198; 68GA, ch 1025, §69]

455.199 Easements through a drainage district. As used in this section, "person" shall mean any individual or group of individuals, corporation, firm, company, or association, except a railroad company.

1. When any person proposes to construct a pipeline, electric transmission line, communication line, underground service line, or other similar installations on, over, across, or beneath the right of way of any drainage or levee district, such person shall, before beginning construction, obtain from the drainage or levee district an easement to cross the district's right of way. The governing body of the district shall require such person to agree to comply with subsection 3 of this section and may, as a condition of granting such easement, attach thereto such additional conditions as they deem necessary. When the necessary easement has been obtained, such person shall construct the installation at his own expense and shall pay all costs of any reconstruction, relocation, modification, or reinstallation of the drainage or levee district's facility which may be necessary as a result of construction of the installation for which the easement was granted.

2. After construction of the installation has been completed in accordance with all conditions under which the easement is granted, the drainage or levee district shall maintain its facility at its own expense, and the person who constructed the installation, or his successors in interest, shall maintain the installation at his own expense. If the drainage or levee district subsequently undertakes any maintenance, improvement, or reconstruction of its facility which requires the modification, relocation, or reconstruction of the installation, the expense of such modification, relocation, or reconstruction shall be borne by the person who constructed the installation or his successors in interest.

3. When the construction of a public highway, or any installation for which an easement has been obtained under subsection 1 of this section, on, over, across, or beneath the right of way of any drainage or levee district disturbs or requires replacement of any portion of a tile drain less than twenty inches in diameter, and a portion of such drain will remain wholly or partially exposed after the construction project has been completed, the portion which is to remain exposed and not less than three feet of such drain immediately on either side of the portion which is to remain exposed, shall be replaced either with steel pipe of not less than sixteen gauge or polyvinyl chloride pipe conforming to current industry standards regarding diameter and wall thickness. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.199]

455.200 Agreements with outside owners or other districts. Levee and drainage districts are empowered to enter into agreements with the owners of lands lying outside of said districts, or with other levee and drainage districts or municipalities, to provide levee protection or drainage for such lands on such terms as the board may agree and subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The facilities of the district furnishing the service shall not be overburdened.
2. There shall be no additional cost to the district furnishing the service.
3. The agreement shall be in writing, be made a part of the drainage records and shall include the following:
  - a. The description of the lands to be served;
  - b. The location of tile lines constructed or to be constructed;
  - c. The consideration to be paid to the district furnishing the service and the classification of the lands to be served; and
  - d. Such other provisions as the board deems necessary. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.200]

455.201 Public improvements which divide a district—procedure. If it should develop that any type of public improvement, other than the forces of nature, has caused such a change in the district as to effectively sever and cut off some of the land in the district from other lands in the district and from the improvements in the district in such a way as to deprive the land of any further benefits from the improvement, or in some manner to divide the benefits that may be derived from two separated portions of the improvement, then the board of supervisors or the board of trustees in charge may upon notice to interested parties and hearing as provided by this chapter for the original establishment of a district make an order to remove lands so deprived of benefits from the district without any reclassification, or may subdivide the district into two separate entities if the public improvement splits the district into two separate units, each of which may still derive some separate benefits from the separated portions of the district.

If the public improvement is such as to leave two separate portions of the improvement that are still operable and of benefit to the land on each side of the division made by the public improvement, then the board may divide the district into two separate units so that each may perform further work on the improvements in their respective parts, but neither shall be charged for work completed on the opposite side of the new improvement that divides them and may only be charged for the work done in that portion of the district remaining on their side of the division.

The same authority provided in this section shall vest in the board of supervisors or the board of trustees in the event a drainage district in any manner relinquishes its control over any portion of its improvements or its obligation to maintain same to another district and lands may be removed from the district or the district may be divided as provided in this section.

The board may further in dividing the district award to each of the separated portions of the district the improvement remaining in each portion, determine the value of the improvement so remaining on each side and secondly determine the contributions of the lands in the separated portions to the improvements and the upkeep of the earlier district, and if the contribution is proportionate neither side shall owe the other portion of the district any money, but if contribution is disproportionate, the board shall determine an equitable adjustment and the amount of payment required for one portion to pay to the other to buy the existing improvement.

If land is eliminated from any further benefits, there need not be any reclassification and the board may remove the same from the district in the same manner as if the land has been destroyed in whole by the erosion of a river and spread any deficiency in assessment among the remaining lands as provided by section 455.56.

FEDERAL FLOOD CONTROL CO-OPERATION

455.202 Plan of improvement.

1. Whenever the government of the United States acting through its proper agencies or instrumentalities will undertake the original construction of improvements or the repair or alteration of existing improvements which will accomplish the purposes for which the district was established or aid in the accomplishment thereof and shall cause to be filed in the office of the auditor of the county in which said district is located a plan of such improvement or for the repair or alteration of existing improvements, the board shall have jurisdiction, power and authority, upon the notice, hearing and determination hereinafter provided, to adopt such plan of improvement or of repair or alteration of existing improvements and to provide necessary right of way therefor; and to pay such portion of all costs and damages incident to the adoption of such plan, the construction thereunder and the maintenance and operation of the works as will not be discharged by the federal government under legislation existing at the time of adoption; also to enter into such agreements with the United States government as may be necessary to meet federal requirements including the taking over, repair and maintenance of the works and to perform under such agreements.

2. If the cost to the district of the repair or alteration of existing improvements contemplated by this section does not exceed twenty-five percent of the sum of the original cost to the district and the cost of subsequent improvements, including all federal contributions, the board may proceed under the provisions of section 455.135, without notice and hearing, and without appraisal as contemplated by section 455.211, but the remaining provisions of section 455.202 through section 455.217 that are not in conflict with section 455.135 shall remain applicable.

If the federal program divides a project into separate phases, each phase shall be considered a separate program as described in section 455.135, subsection 4, and shall in no event be construed as an unauthorized division into separate programs to avoid the twenty-five percent limitation prescribed for making improvements under said section 455.135, subsection 4, without notice and hearing. 5. Such rights of way or portions thereof previously established or acquired as will be rendered unnecessary by adoption of the federal plan and any unpaid damages awarded therefor.

6. Such other damages previously awarded as will be affected by adoption of the federal plan.

Such order shall have the effect of:

1. Altering the boundaries of the district to conform to the changes effected by the plan adopted.
2. Canceling all existing awards for damages for property not appropriated for right of way or construction and rendered unnecessary by the plan so adopted.
3. Canceling all awards previously made for damages other than for right of way or construction but reinstating the claims for such damages which said claims may be amended by the claimants within ten days thereafter.
4. Canceling all unpaid assessments for benefits on lands excluded from the district by adoption of the plan. The assessments so canceled shall become part of the costs of the improvement.
5. Establishing as benefited thereby the lands added to the district by adoption of the plan and rendering same subject to classification and assessment.

Whenever a plan has been adopted as contemplated by this section, modification and changes can be made therein without further notice or hearing, provided the same do not increase or decrease the estimated cost of the plan to the district by more than twenty-five percent. The appraisers shall view the premises and fix and determine the damages to which each claimant is entitled, including claimants whose awards for damages were canceled by the order of adoption, and shall place a separate valuation upon the acreage of each owner taken for right of way or other purposes necessitated by adoption of the plan and shall file a report thereof in writing in the office of the auditor at least five days before the date fixed by the board for hearing thereon. Should the report not be filed on time or should good cause for delay exist the board may postpone the time for final action on the subject and, if necessary, may appoint other appraisers. The board may issue anticipatory warrants bearing interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A. The warrants may be numbered and state a maturity date. STATE LANDS

455.218 Occupancy and use permitted—assessments paid. Any levee or drainage district organized, or in the process of being organized, under the laws of this state may occupy and use for any lawful levee or drainage purpose land owned by the state of Iowa, upon first obtaining permission to do so from the state or state agency controlling the same.

In the case of lands lying within the beds of meandered streams and border streams the permission shall be obtained from the state conservation commission, or its successor. In the case of lands that are under the control of no office or agency of the state, then the permission shall be obtained from the executive council.

Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld and shall be in the form of an easement executed by the governor or in the case of an agency, by the chairman or presiding officer thereof, and when once granted shall be perpetual, except that if no use is made of the same for a period of five years such permission shall immediately thereafter expire.

All uses and occupancies as contemplated by this section existing on July 4, 1961, are hereby legalized.

The state of Iowa, its agencies and subdivisions shall be financially responsible for drainage and special assessments against land which they own, or hold title to, within existing drainage districts. [C62, 66, §455.217; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.218]

BOARD OF COUNTY DRAINAGE ADMINISTRATORS

455.219 Administrators appointed. The county board of supervisors of any county of this state in which one or more drainage districts are established may by resolution establish a board of county drainage administrators. All of the powers, duties, and responsibilities now or hereafter conferred on county boards of supervisors in this chapter and chapters 456 to 467 shall thereupon be transferred to and thereafter exercised by the board of county drainage administrators. A drainage or levee district may be established pursuant to chapter 462. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.219]

455.220 Administrator areas. When establishing a board of county drainage administrators, the board of supervisors shall divide the county, along township lines, into three drainage administrator areas of approximately equal territory. The board of county drainage administrators shall consist of one resident freeholder appointed by the county board of supervisors from each area, and at least two of the administrators shall be agricultural landowners. The members first appointed shall hold office for terms of one, two, and three years respectively, as indicated and fixed by the county board of supervisors. Thereafter, succeeding members shall be appointed for a term of three years, except that vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Any member of the board of county drainage administrators who shall cease to have any of the qualifications prescribed by this section shall thereupon be disqualified as a member of the board and his office shall be deemed vacant. Members of the board of county drainage administrators may be removed by the county board of supervisors for cause, but every such removal shall be by written order which shall be filed with the county auditor. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.220]

455.222 How paid. The compensation and expenses of the county board of drainage administrators, for each day or portion thereof necessarily expended in the transaction of the business of a drainage or levee district, shall be paid out of the funds of the district served. The administrators shall file with the auditor or auditors, as the case may be, itemized, verified statements of their time devoted to the business of the district and the expenses incurred. If the administrators transact business of more than one district on a given day, they shall prorate their claims for compensation proportionately among the districts served on that day, but in no case shall a member of the board of county drainage administrators claim or receive a sum in excess of seventeen dollars and fifty cents, plus actual and necessary expenses, for a single day. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455.222]

455.223 Conservancy districts. The governing board of every drainage or levee district organized under the laws of this state shall take notice of the district plan, and shall conform to the duly promulgated rules, of the conservancy district or districts in which the drainage or levee district is located; provided that this section shall not be construed to grant any authority not otherwise granted by law to the governing boards of drainage or levee districts. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §455.223]

board deems proper to pay any part of the cost of improvements authorized in this chapter. The board may issue general obligation bonds to pay any part of the cost of improvements authorized in this chapter. The bonds shall be issued according to the provisions of chapter 384 division III, relating to general obligation bonds for essential corporate purposes. [C77, 79, §455.225]

455A.17 Functions and duties. The council shall establish and enforce a comprehensive state-wide plan for the control, utilization and protection of the water resources of the state, which plan shall include all uses and developments of water resources and shall provide for the optimum control, protection, development, allocation and utilization thereof. All uses and developments of water resources regulated under provisions of this chapter must be found to be compatible with the state comprehensive plan prior to the granting of a permit by the water commissioner or an approval order by the council. In making and formulating such state comprehensive plan for the further control, development, protection, allocation, and utilization of the water resources of the state, the council shall make surveys and investigations of the water resources of the state and shall give consideration to the needs of agriculture, industry, health, fish and wildlife, recreation, pollution and allied matters as they relate to flood control and water resources. Before implementation of the statewide plan, the council shall submit the plan to the general assembly which shall approve or disapprove the plan pursuant to a concurrent resolution. Approval of the plan shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each house of the general assembly.

The council shall be the official representative of the state of Iowa on all comprehensive water resources planning groups for which state participation is provided. The council shall co-ordinate state planning with local and national planning and, in safeguarding the interests of the state and its people, shall undertake the resolution of any conflicts that may arise between the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the federal government and the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the state, its agencies, and its people. Nothing in this section assigning the overall responsibility for comprehensive planning of water resources to the council shall be construed as limiting or supplanting the functions, duties and responsibilities of the several state or local agencies or institutions with regard to planning of water associated projects within the particular area of responsibility of such state or local agency or institution.

The council shall enter into negotiations and agreements with the federal government relative to the operation of, or the release of water from, any project that has been authorized or constructed by the federal government when the council shall deem such negotiations and agreements to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa relative to its water resources.

The council, on behalf of the state, shall enter into negotiations with the federal government relative to the inclusion of conservation storage features for water supply in any project that has been authorized by the federal government when the council shall deem such negotiations to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa and the state comprehensive plan for water resources; provided, however, that any agreements reached pursuant to such negotiations shall not bind the state until enacted into law by the legislature.

Water users who will benefit from the development by the federal government of conservation storage for water supply shall be encouraged to assume the responsibility for repaying to the federal government any reimbursable costs incurred in such development and such users who will accept benefits from such developments financed in whole or in part by the state shall assume by contract the responsibility of repaying to the state their reasonable share of the state's obligations in accordance with such basis as will assure payment within the life of the development. No appropriations, diversion, or use shall be made by any person of any of the waters of the state that have been stored or released from storage either under the authority of the state or pursuant to an agreement between the state and the federal government until such time as he shall have assumed by contract his repayment responsibility; provided, however, that the application of this provision shall in no way infringe upon any vested property interests.

In its contracts with water users for the payment of state obligations incurred in the development of conservation storage for water supply, the council shall include (1) such terms as it shall find reasonable and necessary for the protection of the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of the state, (2) such terms as it shall find reasonable and necessary for the achievement of the purposes of this chapter and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, and, (3) such terms as shall make clear that the state of Iowa shall not be responsible to any person in the event the waters involved are insufficient for performance. The council may designate and describe any such contract, and describe the relationships to which it relates, as a sale of storage capacity, a sale of water release services, a contract for the storage or sale of water, or any similar terms suggestive of the creation of a property interest. The term of such contracts shall be commensurate with the investment and use concerned but in no event shall the council enter into any such contract for a term in excess of the maximum period provided for water use permits.

The council shall procure and obtain flood control works and water resources projects from and through or by co-operation with the United States, or any agency of the United States, by co-operation with and action of the cities and other subdivisions of the state, under the laws of the state relating to flood control and use of water resources, and by co-operation with the action of landowners in areas affected thereby when the council shall deem such projects to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa and the state comprehensive plan for water resources. lating to the water resources of the state, the council may co-operate with other states or any agency thereof or with the United States or any agency of the United States, or with any person as defined in this chapter.

Upon application by any person for permission to divert, pump, or otherwise take waters from any watercourse, underground basin or watercourse, drainage ditch or settling basin within the state of Iowa for any purpose other than a nonregulated use, the council shall cause to be made an investigation of the effect of such use upon the natural flow of such watercourse, the effect of any such use upon the owners of any land which might be affected by such use, and the effect of any such use upon the state comprehensive plan for water resources, and shall hold a hearing thereon. Upon application by any person for approval of the construction or maintenance of any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation to be erected, used, or maintained in or on the flood plains of any river or stream, the council shall cause an investigation to be made of the effect thereof on the efficiency and capacity of the floodway and on the state comprehensive plan for water resources. In determining the effect of any such proposal the council shall consider fully its effect on flooding or flood control both to any proposed works and to adjacent lands and property, on the wise use and protection of water resources, on the quality of water, on fish, wildlife and recreational facilities or uses, and on all other public rights and requirements. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.18]

The council may determine by rule special limitations and observation and monitoring requirements for each special permit.

Application and payment of the fee for special permits shall be in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1, and subsection 5, respectively. Upon receipt of the application and fee, the commissioner shall cause notice of the application to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the permit is sought. 455A.20 Hearing—appeal. If the water commissioner at the first hearing or the council at the hearing on appeal shall determine after due investigation that such diversion, storage or withdrawal will not be detrimental to the public interests, including drainage and levee districts, or to the interests of property owners with prior or superior rights who might be affected, the water commissioner following the first hearing, or the council following the hearing on appeal shall grant a permit for such diversion, storage or withdrawal. Judicial review of such action is available in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act and section 455A.37. Permits may be granted for any period of time but not to exceed ten years except for the storage of water which may be granted for the life of the structure unless withdrawn for good cause. All existing storage permits are hereby extended for the life of the structure unless withdrawn for good cause. Permits may be granted which provide for less diversion, storage, or withdrawal of waters than set forth in the application. Permits may be extended by the water commissioner for a period of not more than ninety days during the pendency of an application for renewal. Any permit granted shall remain as an appurtenance of the land described therein through the date specified in such permit and any extension thereof or such earlier date as the permit or any extension thereof is revoked or canceled under the provisions of section 455A.28.

If written objection is filed not more than thirty days after the date of the notice by any person shown to have an interest, a hearing shall be held thereon with notice thereof to be sent not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior thereto by ordinary mail to such objector, to any person who appeared at the next previous proceeding on the permit, and to any person who has filed written request for notification of any hearings affecting a designated area.

If a change in the terms of a permit is requested which involves a change in the designated beneficial purposes for which the diversion is sought, a change in the place of such diversion, or an increase in the quantity, time, or rate of diversion, storage or withdrawal of waters, the applicant therefor shall pay a fee as required by section 455A.19, subsection 5, and a hearing shall be held thereon with notice thereof as required by section 455A.19, subsection 3.

Until the council adopts a statewide water plan, all new water permits issued for irrigation purposes, except special permits, shall not exceed one year and all renewals thereof shall also be limited to one year. The preceding limitation shall not apply to the renewal or extension of any valid water permit granted prior to May 6, 1977. If it is determined, through monitoring of the permitted withdrawal, that it will endanger the present or future availability of groundwater said permits may be modified or canceled under the provisions of section 455A.28.

When permits are modified or canceled, priority for permits shall be given to applicants or permit holders who utilize such water for agriculture research. Nothing in this paragraph shall give priority to such applicants or permit holders in preference to those classes granted priority under section 455A.21. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.20]

Referred to in §455A 21, 455A 25, 455A 26, 455A 27, 455A 40

455A.21 Priority of permits. In the consideration of applications for permits, priority will be given to persons in the order applications are received. However, persons who have made diversion or withdrawal of water for a beneficial use prior to May 16, 1957, will be accorded priority according to the actual date of said diversion or withdrawal. The water commissioner or the council on appeal shall exercise their judgment on the duration and frequency of withdrawal and the quantity of water for which a permit may be granted. The use of water for ordinary household purposes, for poultry, livestock and domestic animals shall have priority over other uses. Any person with an existing irrigation system in use prior to May 16, 1957, shall be issued a permit to continue, unless by the use thereof some other riparian user is damaged. In the consideration of applications for permits by regulated users, the declared policies and principles of beneficial use, as set forth in this chapter, shall be the standard for the determination of the disposition of the applications for said permits. Nothing in this chapter shall impair the vested right of any person. Prior orders of the council shall not be invalidated by the provisions of sections 455A.19 to 455A.32. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.21]

455A.22 Permits for beneficial use. The water commissioner and the council shall have the authority to issue a permit for beneficial use of water in a watercourse provided the established average minimum flow is preserved. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.22]

455A.23 Pollution control protected. No use of water shall be authorized that will impair the effect of pollution control laws of this state. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.23]

Referred to in §455A 21, 455A 25, 455A 26, 455A 27, 455A 40

455A.24 Navigability preserved. No permit shall be issued or continued that will impair the navigability of any navigable watercourse. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.24]

Referred to in §455A 21, 455A 25, 455A 26, 455A 27, 455A 40

455A.25 When permit required. For the purpose of administering sections 455A.19 to 455A.32, a permit as herein provided shall be required for the following:

1. Any municipal corporation or person supplying a municipal corporation which increases its water use in excess of one hundred thousand gallons, or three percent, whichever is the greater, per day more than its highest per day beneficial use prior to May 16, 1957. Such corporation or person shall make reasonable provision for the storage of water at such time or times when the daily use of such water by such corporation or person is less than the amount specified herein.

2. Except for a nonregulated use, any person using in excess of five thousand gallons of water per day, diverted, stored, or withdrawn from any source of supply except a municipal water system or any other source specifically exempted under the provisions of sections 455A.19 to 455A.32.

3. Any person who diverts water or any material from the surface directly into any underground watercourse or basin. However, any diversion of water or material from the surface directly into any underground watercourse or basin existing upon May 16, 1957, shall not require a permit if the diversion does not create waste or pollution. No permit shall be issued under this subsection until the approval of the executive director of the department of environmental quality has been obtained.

4. Industrial users of water having their own water supply, within the territorial boundaries of municipal corporations, shall be regulated when such water use exceeds three percent more than the highest per day beneficial use prior to May 16, 1957. 455A.27 Rights preserved. Nothing in sections 455A.19 to 455A.32 shall operate to deprive any person of the right to use diffused waters, or to drain land by use of tile, open ditch or surface drainage, or to construct an impoundment on said person's property or across a stream that originates on said person's property so long as provision is made for safe construction and for continued established average minimum flow, if and when such flow is required to protect the rights of water users below. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.27]

Referred to in §455A 21, 455A 25, 455A 26, 455A 40

455A.28 Modification or cancellation of permits. Every permit issued hereunder shall be irrevocable for the term therefor, and for any extension of such term except as follows:

1. A permit may be modified or canceled by the water commissioner, with the consent of the permittee.

2. Subject to appeal in the manner provided by section 455A.19, subsection 8, a permit may be modified or canceled by the water commissioner in case of any breach of the terms or conditions thereof or in case of any violation of the law pertaining thereto by the permittee, his agents or servants, in case of non-use as provided hereinafter, or in case the water commissioner finds such modification or cancellation necessary to protect the public health or safety or to protect the public interests in lands or waters, or to prevent substantial injury to persons or property in any manner, upon at least thirty days' written notice mailed to the permittee at his last known address, stating the grounds of the proposed modification or cancellation and giving the permittee an opportunity to be heard thereon.

3. By written order to the permittee, the water commissioner may forthwith suspend operations under a permit if he finds it necessary in an emergency to protect the public health or safety or to protect the public interests in lands or waters against imminent danger of substantial injury in any manner or to any extent not expressly authorized by the permit, or to protect persons or property against such danger, may require the permittee to take any measures necessary to prevent or remedy such injury; provided, that no such order shall be in effect for more than thirty days from the date thereof, without giving the permittee at least ten days' written notice of such order and an opportunity to be heard thereon. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.28]

455A.29 Termination of permit. The right of the permittee and his successors to the use of water shall terminate when he ceases for three consecutive years to use it for the specific beneficial purpose authorized in his permit and the permittee has been notified by the water commissioner that unless written application as set forth as follows, that the permit will cease; provided, however, that upon his written application prior to the expiration of said three-year period for extension of said permit, the council may grant such extension without loss of priority. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.29]

455A.30 Disposal of permit. A permittee may sell, transfer, or assign his permit by conveying, leasing, or otherwise transferring the ownership of the land described in the permit, but such permit shall not constitute ownership or absolute rights of use of such waters, but such waters shall remain subject to the principle of beneficial use and the orders of the council. granted, as hereinbefore provided, shall have and exercise the power of eminent domain. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.31]

455A.32 Unauthorized depleting uses. In the event that any person shall file a complaint with the council that any other person is making a depleting use of water not expressly exempted as a nonregulated use under the provisions of this chapter and without a permit to do so, the council shall cause an investigation to be made and if the facts stated in the complaint are verified the council shall order the discontinuance of the use. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.32]

455A.33 Unlawful acts—powers of council.

1. Unlawful structures. It shall be unlawful to suffer or permit any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation to be erected, used, or maintained in or on any floodway or flood plains, which will adversely affect the efficiency of or unduly restrict the capacity of the floodway, adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation, or utilization of the water resources of the state, or adversely affect or interfere with the state comprehensive plan for water resources, or an approved local water resources plan, and the same are declared to be and to constitute public nuisances, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to dams constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469.

2. Actions. The council shall have the power to commence, maintain and prosecute any appropriate action to enjoin or abate a nuisance, including any of the foregoing nuisances and any other nuisance which adversely affects flood control.

3. Application for permit. In the event any person desires to erect or make, or to suffer or permit, a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation, other than a dam, constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469, to be erected, made, used or maintained in or on any floodway or flood plains, such person shall file a verified written application with the director, setting forth the material facts. The director shall provide the council with copies of the application and an opportunity for the council to call up the application for its determination. The director, or the council, after an investigation or a public hearing if there is an objection to the proposed project shall determine the fact and approve or deny the application imposing such conditions and terms as the director or council may prescribe. A determination of the director may be appealed to the council by any aggrieved party.

4. Injunction. The council shall have the authority to maintain an action in equity to enjoin any such person from erecting or making or suffering or permitting to be made any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation other than a dam constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469, for which a permit has not been granted. The council is also authorized to abate as a public nuisance any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation erected or made without a permit required by this chapter within one year of cessation of construction.

The costs of the abatement shall be borne by the violator.

5. Removal. The council shall have the power to remove or eliminate any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation in any floodway which adversely affects the efficiency of or unduly restricts the capacity of the floodway, by an action in condemnation, and in assessing the damages in such proceeding, the appraisers and the court shall take into consideration whether the structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation is lawfully in or on the floodway.

6. Performance bond. The council may require, as a condition of an approval order or permit granted pursuant to this chapter or chapter 469, the furnishing of a performance bond with good and sufficient surety, conditioned upon the full compliance with the provisions of such order or permit and the rules of the council. In determining the need for and amount of bond, the council shall give consideration to the hazard posed by the construction and maintenance of the approved works and the protection of the health, safety and welfare of the people of the state. This subsection shall not apply to orders or permits granted to a governmental entity.

7. Prohibition against tillage. When approving a request to straighten a stream, the director or council may establish as a condition of approval a permanent prohibition against tillage of land owned by the person receiving the approval and lying within some minimum distance from the stream sufficient in the judgment of the director or council to hold soil erosion to reasonable limits. The director shall record the prohibition in the office of the county recorder of the appropriate county and the prohibition shall attach to the land. A person who violates a prohibition against tillage shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Each day upon which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation.

8. Thresholds established by rule. The council shall by rule establish thresholds for dimensions and effects, and any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation having smaller dimensions and effects than those established by the council shall be lawful and not subject to regulation under this section. The thresholds shall be such that only those structures, dams, obstructions, deposits, or excavations posing a significant threat to the well-being of the public and the environment shall be subject to regulation. [C50, 54, §455A.19; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.33]

455A.35 Council—established flood plains—encroachment limits. The council may establish and enforce regulations for the orderly development and wise use of the flood plains of any river or stream within the state and alter, change, or revoke and terminate the same. The council shall determine the characteristics of floods which reasonably may be expected to occur and may by order establish encroachment limits, protection methods and minimum protection levels appropriate to the flooding characteristics of the stream and to reasonable use of the flood plains. The order shall fix the length of flood plains to be regulated at any practical distance; shall fix the width of the zone between the encroachment limits so as to include portions of the flood plains adjoining the channel, which with the channel, are required to carry and discharge the flood waters or flood flow of such river or stream; and shall fix the design discharge and water surface elevations for which protection shall be provided for projects outside the encroachment limits but within the limits of inundation. Plans for the protection of projects proposed for areas subject to inundation shall be reviewed as plans for flood control works within the purview of section 455A.36. No order establishing encroachment limits and flood plain regulations shall be issued until due notice of the proposed establishment thereof shall have been given and public hearings held and opportunity given for the presentation of all protests against the establishment thereof. In establishing any such limits or regulations, the council shall avoid to the greatest possible degree the evacuation of persons residing in the area of any floodway, the removal of any residential structures occupied by such persons in the area of any floodway, and the removal of any structures erected or made prior to July 4, 1965, which are located on the flood plains of any river or stream but not within the area of any floodway.

The council may co-operate with and assist local units of government in the establishment of encroachment limits, flood plain regulations and zoning ordinances relating to flood plain areas within their jurisdiction. Encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, or flood plain zoning ordinances proposed by local units of government shall be submitted to the council for review and approval prior to adoption by such local units of government. Changes or variations from an approved regulation or ordinance as it relates to flood plain use shall be approved by the council prior to adoption. Individual applications, plans and specifications and individual council approval orders shall not be required for works on the flood plains constructed in conformity with encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, or zoning ordinances adopted by the local units of government and approved by the council. [C50, 54, §455A.21; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.35]

Referred to in §455A.40

455A.36 Flood control works co-ordinated. All works of any nature for flood control in the state, which are hereafter established and constructed, shall be co-ordinated in design, construction and operation, according to sound and accepted engineering practice so as to effect the best flood control obtainable throughout the state. No person shall construct or install any works of any nature for flood control unless and until the proposed works and the plans and specifications therefor are approved by the council. The interested persons shall file a verified written application with the council therefor, and the council after an investigation or hearing shall consider all the pertinent facts relating to the proposed works which will affect flood control and water resources in the state and shall determine whether the proposed works in the plans and specifications will be in aid of and acceptable as part of, or will adversely affect and interfere with flood control in the state, adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation or utilization of the water resources of the state, or adversely affect or interfere with the state comprehensive plan for water resources or an approved local water resources plan, and shall enter an order approving or disapproving the application, plans and specifications. In the event of disapproval, the order shall set forth the objectionable features so that the proposed works and the plans and specifications therefor may be corrected or adjusted to obtain the approval of the council.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all drainage districts, soil conservation districts, projects undertaken by the state conservation commission, all public agencies including counties, cities and all political subdivisions of the state and to all privately undertaken projects relating to or affecting flood control. [C50, 54, §455A.22; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.36]

Referred to in §455A 35, 455A 40

455A.37 Judicial review. Judicial review of action of the council may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the provisions of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of Polk county or of any county in which the property affected is located. If the council, the district court, or the supreme court shall determine that the order of the council be stayed, the petitioner shall file an appropriate bond approved by the court. [C50, 54, §455A.23; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.37]

455A.38 Executive prerogatives. The council shall have no executive prerogatives outside of its own duties and functions as set out by this chapter and shall not disturb the work, functions or authority of any of the several state or local agencies and institutions, provided the powers conferred upon the council by this chapter shall not be exercised by any other of the agencies or institutions. [C50, 54, §455A.24; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §455A.38]

455A.39 Penalties. Whoever is convicted of erecting, causing or continuing a common or public nuisance, as provided in this chapter, or whoever diverts or withdraws water in violation of the provisions of this chapter, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor and each day that such violation continues after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. 455A.40 Co-ordination with conservancy districts. The council and the boards of the several conservancy districts established by chapter 467D shall co-ordinate their efforts in carrying out the purposes of this chapter and chapter 467D. In addition to other powers and duties conferred by law upon the council, it shall:

1. Offer such advice and assistance as may be appropriate to the boards of the several conservancy districts in the state in discharging their powers and duties.

2. Review and make such recommendations as it deems necessary to bring the plan of each of the conservancy districts, and any subsequent changes therein, into conformity with the state-wide water resources plan established by the council pursuant to section 455A.17.

3. Inform the board of any conservancy district:

a. Of the receipt of each application for a permit to divert, store, or withdraw either surface or underground waters at any place within the district, filed with the council pursuant to section 455A.19 to section 455A.32.

b. Of the receipt of each application for approval of a proposed dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation in or on any floodway or flood plain in the district, filed with the council pursuant to section 455A.33.

DIVISION I ADMINISTRATION

455B.1 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Department" means the department of environmental quality.
2. "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of environmental quality or his designee.
3. "Commission" means the environmental quality commission. [C66,§455B.2(10); C71,§136B.2(6), 455B.2(10), 455C.1(2); C73, 75, 77,§455B.1, 455B.10(6), 455B.30(11), 455B.50(2), 455B.67(2), 455B.75(5), 455B.85(4), 455B.95(3); C79,§455B.1, 455B.10(6), 455B.30(11), 455B.50(2), 455B.67(2), 455B.75(5), 455B.85(4), 455B.95(3), 455B.110(7); 68GA, ch 111, §2(1), ch 1148,§1, 57]

455B.2 Department created. There is created a department of environmental quality. The chief administrative officer of the department shall be the executive director of environmental quality, who shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and serve at the governor's pleasure.

The executive director shall be selected on the basis of his administrative abilities. The salary of the executive director shall be initially established by the governor, but it shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per annum and, thereafter, it shall be determined by the general assembly. The appointment or removal of the executive director shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 19A. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.2; 68GA, ch 1010,§68]

Referred to in §467A.42
Confirmation, §2.32

455B.3 Executive director's duties. The executive director shall:

1. Recommend to the commission the adoption of rules that are necessary for the effective administration of the department.
2. Recommend to the commission the adoption of rules to implement the programs and services assigned to it.
3. Direct and administer the programs and services of the department in compliance with the rules adopted by the commission.
4. Perform other duties assigned by the commission.
5. Establish or reorganize, with the approval of the commission, the administrative structure of the department.
6. Contract, with the approval of the commission, with public agencies of this state to provide all laboratory, scientific field measurement and environmental quality evaluation services necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter. If the executive director finds that public agencies of this state cannot provide the laboratory, scientific field measurement and environmental evaluation services required by the department, he or she may contract, with the approval of the commission, with any other public or private persons or agencies for such services or for scientific or technical services required to carry out the programs and services assigned to the department.

7. Prepare, on or before the first of September of each even-numbered year, the departmental budget request for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium on the forms furnished, and including the information required, by the state comptroller.

8. Conduct investigations of complaints received directly or referred by the commission created in section 455B.4 or such other investigations deemed necessary. While conducting an investigation, the executive director may enter at any reasonable time in and upon any private or public property, except private dwellings, to investigate any actual or possible violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or standards adopted under this chapter. However, the owner or person in charge shall be notified.

a. If the owner or occupant of any property refuses admittance thereto, or if prior to such refusal the executive director demonstrates the necessity for a warrant, the executive director may make application under oath or affirmation to the district court of the county in which the property is located for the issuance of a search warrant.

b. In the application the executive director shall state that an inspection of the premises is mandated by the laws of this state or that a search of certain premises, areas, or things designated in the application may result in evidence tending to reveal the existence of violations of public health, safety, or welfare requirements imposed by statutes, rules or ordinances established by the state or a political subdivision thereof. The application shall describe the area, premises, or thing to be searched, give the date of the last inspection if known, give the date and time of the proposed inspection, declare the need for such inspection, recite that notice of desire to make an inspection has been given to affected persons and that admission was refused if that be the fact, and state that the inspection has no purpose other than to carry out the purpose of the statute, ordinance, or regulation pursuant to which inspection is to be made. If an item of property is sought by the executive director it shall be identified in the application.

c. If the court is satisfied from the examination of the applicant, and of other witnesses, if any, and of the allegations of the application of the existence of the grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, he may issue such search warrant.

d. In making inspections and searches pursuant to the authority of this division, the executive director must execute the warrant:

(1) Within ten days after its date.

(2) In a reasonable manner, and any property seized shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of chapters 808 and 809.

(3) Subject to any restrictions imposed by the statute, ordinance or regulation pursuant to which inspection is made.

9. Accept, receive and administer grants or other funds or gifts from public or private agencies, including the federal government, for the abatement, prevention, or control of pollution, or other environmental programs, subject to the approval of the commission.

10. Represent the state in all matters pertaining to plans, procedures, negotiations, and agreements for interstate compacts relating to the control of pollution or the protection or enhancement of the environment. Any agreement is subject to the approval of the commission.

The executive director may appoint, with the approval of the commission, the technical, professional, secretarial, and clerical staff necessary to accomplish the purposes of this chapter, subject to the provisions of chapter 19A.

The executive director may appoint a member of his staff to be acting director in his absence. Such acting executive director shall have the powers delegated to him by the executive director.

The executive director and other employees of the department shall receive, in addition to salary, their necessary traveling and related expenses when engaged in the performance of official business. [C66,§455B.14; C71,§136B.4, 136B.5, 455B.14; C73,§455B.3, 455B.12(12), 455B.13(3, 7), 455B.36, 455B.89(4); C75, 77, 79,§455B.3, 455B.12(12), 455B.13(6); 68GA, ch 1148,§2-6]

455B.4 Environmental quality commission.

1. There is created an environmental quality commission consisting of nine members, not more than five of whom shall be from the same political party. The members shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Each member of the commission must be an elector of the state, and have interest and knowledge of the subjects embraced in this chapter. The membership of the commission shall be as follows: Three members actively engaged in livestock and grain farming, a member actively engaged in the management of a manufacturing company, one member actively engaged in the business of finance or commerce, and four members who are electors of the state. The members of the commission shall be appointed to four-year terms of office commencing and ending as provided in section 69.19. Vacancies occurring during a term of office shall be filled by appointment for the balance of the unexpired term subject to confirmation by the senate. A commission member shall not be appointed to serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

2. The commission shall organize annually with the election of a chairperson and vice chairperson. The commission shall meet monthly and at the call of the chairperson or upon written request of a majority of the members of the commission. The executive director shall attend the meetings of the commission and act as secretary to the commission.

3. A majority of the voting members of the commission shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the voting members shall be required to determine any matter relating to its powers and duties.

4. The members of the commission who are not in the full-time employment of a public agency shall be paid a per diem of forty dollars while engaged in the performance of the duties of office. Members shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses while performing the duties of office. Per diem and expenses shall be paid from funds appropriated to the department.

5. The members of the commission shall represent the public interest and at least a majority of the commission membership shall not derive more than ten percent of their income from any person subject to permits or enforcement orders under this chapter. A potential conflict of interest by a commission member shall be immediately disclosed to the commission and the department. In the case of conflict of interest, the commission member involved shall immediately withdraw from consideration of the issuance of a permit or enforcement action by the commission and shall not express an opinion on the matter to any other commission member involved in the consideration of the issuance of the permit or enforcement action. A "conflict of interest" arises when a commission member receives directly or indirectly personal income from a person subject to permit or enforcement action pending before the commission.

6. The executive director shall notify the secretary of agriculture, the commissioner of public health, the chief administrative officer of the department of soil conservation, the director of the Iowa natural resources council, the director of the state conservation commission and the director of the state hygienic laboratory of the scheduled meetings of the commission. [C71,§136B.3, 206A.1, 455B.4; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.4, 455B.5(1), 455B.6; 68GA, ch 1010,§69, ch 1148,§7]

Confirmation, §2.32

455B.5 Powers and duties of the commission. The commission shall:

1. Establish policy for the implementation of programs under its jurisdiction. The commission shall appoint advisory committees to advise the commission and the executive director in carrying out their respective powers and duties.

2. Advise, consult, and co-operate with other agencies of the state, political subdivisions, and any other public or private agency to promote the orderly, efficient, and effective accomplishment of its responsibilities.

3. Adopt, modify, or repeal rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter and the rules deemed necessary for the effective administration of the department. The rules shall include departmental policy relating to the disclosure of information on a violation or alleged violation of the rules, standards, permits or orders issued by the department and keeping of confidential information obtained by the department in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. Rules adopted by the executive committee before January 1, 1981 shall remain effective until modified or rescinded by action of the commission.

4. Approve the departmental budget request prior to submission to the state comptroller. The commission may increase, decrease, or strike any proposed expenditure within the departmental budget request before granting approval.

5. Issue orders and directives necessary to insure integration and co-ordination of the programs administered by the department.

6. Make a concise annual report to the governor and the general assembly, which report shall contain information relating to the accomplishments and status of the programs administered by the department and include recommendations for legislative action which may be required to protect or enhance the environment or to modernize the operation of the department or any of the programs or services assigned to the department and recommendations for the transfer of powers and duties of the department as deemed advisable by the commission. The annual report shall conform to the provisions of section 17.3.

7. Approve all contracts and agreements between the department and other public or private persons or agencies.

8. Obtain an adequate public employees fidelity bond to cover those officers and employees of the department accountable for property or funds of this state.

9. Hold public hearings, except when the evidence to be received is confidential pursuant to this chapter or chapter 68A, necessary to carry out its powers and duties. The commission may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence pertinent to the hearings. A subpoena shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as provided in civil actions.

10. Upon request of at least four members of the commission before adopting or modifying a rule, the executive director shall prepare and publish with the notice required under section 17A.4, subsection 1, paragraph "a", a comprehensive estimate of the economic impact of the proposed rule or modification. [C71,§136B.4(7); C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.5, 455B.7, 455B.12(6); 68GA, ch 1148,§8]

455B.6 Appeal board. In lieu of an appeal being heard by the full membership of the commission, the chairperson of the commission may appoint an appeal board consisting of three or more members of the commission or a hearing officer to conduct a hearing on the appeal of an aggrieved person from the action or order of the executive director as provided in chapter 17A. [68GA, ch 1148,§9]

Section 455B.6, Code 1979, repealed by 68GA, ch 1148, §9; see §455B.4

455B.7 Repealed by 68GA, ch 1148, §83; see §455B.5.

455B.8 Warrants by comptroller. The state comptroller shall draw warrants on the treasurer of state for all disbursements authorized by the provisions of this chapter upon itemized and verified vouchers bearing the approval of the executive director. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.8]

455B.9 Office facilities. The department of general services shall provide the department with appropriate office facilities. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.9; 68GA, ch 1148,§10]

DIVISION II

AIR QUALITY

455B.10 Definitions. When used in this division II, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Air contaminant" means dust, fume, mist, smoke, other particulate matter, gas, vapor (except water vapor), odorous substance, radioactive substance, or any combination thereof.

2. "Air contaminant source" means any and all sources of emission of air contaminants whether privately or publicly owned or operated.

Air contaminant source includes, but is not limited to, all types of businesses, commercial and industrial plants, works, shops, and stores, heating and power plants and stations, buildings and other structures of all types including single and multiple family residences, office buildings, hotels, restaurants, schools, hospitals, churches and other institutional buildings, automobiles, trucks, tractors, buses, aircraft, and other motor vehicles, garages, vending and service locations and stations, railroad locomotives, ships, boats, and other water-borne craft, portable fuel-burning equipment, indoor and outdoor incinerators of all types, refuse dumps and piles, and all stack and other chimney outlets from any of the foregoing.

3. "Air pollution" means presence in the outdoor atmosphere of one or more air contaminants in sufficient quantities and of such characteristics and duration as is or may reasonably tend to be injurious to human, plant, or animal life, or to property, or which unreasonably interferes with the enjoyment of life and property.

4. "Atmosphere" means all space outside of buildings, stacks or exterior ducts.

5. "Emission" means a release of one or more air contaminants into the outside atmosphere.

6. "Person" means an individual, partnership, co-partnership, co-operative, firm, company, public or private corporation, political subdivision, agency of the state, trust, estate, joint stock company, an agency or department of the federal government or any other legal entity, or a legal representative, agent, officer, employee or assigns of such entities.

7. "Political subdivision" means any municipality, township, or county, or district, or authority, or any portion, or combination of two or more thereof.

8. "Major stationary source" means a stationary air contaminant source which directly emits, or has the potential to emit, one hundred tons or more of an air pollutant per year including a major source of fugitive emissions of a pollutant as determined by rule by the commission or the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency.

9. "Schedule and timetable of compliance" means a schedule of remedial measures including an enforceable sequence of actions or operations leading to compliance with an emission limitation, other limitation, prohibition, or standard. [C71,§136B.2; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.10; 68GA, ch 1148,§11, ch 1149,§1, 2]

Referred to in §427.1

455B.11 Executive agency. The department shall be the agency of the state to prevent, abate, or control air pollution. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.11]

455B.12 Duties. The commission shall:

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution in this state, recognizing varying requirements for different areas in the state. The plans may include emission limitations, schedules and timetables for compliance with the limitations, measures to prevent the significant deterioration of air quality and other measures as necessary to assure attainment and maintenance of ambient air quality standards.

2. Adopt, amend, or repeal rules pertaining to the evaluation, abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution. The rules may include those that are necessary to obtain approval of the state implementation plan under section 110 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended through January 1, 1979.

3. Adopt, amend, or repeal ambient air quality standards for the atmosphere of this state on the basis of providing air quality necessary to protect the public health and welfare.

4. Adopt, amend or repeal emission limitations or standards relating to the maximum quantities of air contaminants that may be emitted from any air contaminant source. The standards or limitations adopted under this section shall not exceed the standards or limitations promulgated by the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency or the requirements of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979. This does not prohibit the commission from adopting a standard for a source or class of sources for which the United States environmental protection agency has not promulgated a standard.

a. (1) The commission shall establish standards of performance unless in the judgment of the commission it is not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance. If it is not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance, the commission may adopt a design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard, or combination of those standards in order to establish reasonably available control technology or the lowest achievable emission rate in nonattainment areas, or in order to establish best available control technology in areas subject to prevention of significant deterioration review, or in order to adopt the emission limitations promulgated by the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency under section 111 or 112 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979.

(2) If a person establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that an alternative means of emission limitation will achieve a reduction in emissions of an air pollutant at least equivalent to the reduction in emissions of the air pollutant achieved under the design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard, the commission shall amend its rules to permit the use of the alternative by the source for purposes of compliance with this paragraph with respect to the pollutant.

(3) A design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard promulgated under this paragraph shall be promulgated in terms of a standard of performance when it becomes feasible to promulgate and enforce the standard in those terms.

(4) For the purpose of this paragraph, the phrase "not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance" refers to a situation in which the commission determines that the application of measurement methodology to a particular class of sources is not practicable due to technological or economic limitations.

b. If the maximum standards for the emission of sulphur dioxide from solid fuels have to be reduced in an area to meet ambient air quality standards, a contract for coal produced in Iowa and burned by a facility in that area that met the sulphur dioxide emission standards in effect at the time the contract went into effect shall be exempted from the decreased requirement until the expiration of the contract period or December 31, 1983, whichever first occurs, if there is any other reasonable means available to satisfy the ambient air quality standards. To qualify under this subsection, the contract must be recorded with the county recorder of the county where the burning facility is located within thirty days after the signing of the contract.

c. The degree of emission limitation required for control of an air contaminant under an emission standard shall not be affected by that part of the stack height of a source that exceeds good engineering practice, as defined in rules, or any other dispersion technique. This paragraph shall not apply to stack heights in existence before December 30, 1970, or dispersion techniques implemented before that date.

5. Classify air contaminant sources according to levels and types of emissions, and other characteristics which relate to air pollution. The commission may require, by rule, the owner or operator of any air contaminant source to establish and maintain such records, make such reports, install, use and maintain such monitoring equipment or methods, sample such emissions in accordance with such methods at such locations and intervals, and using such procedures as the commission shall prescribe, and provide such other information as the commission may reasonably require. Such classifications may be for application to the state as a whole, or to any designated area of the state, and shall be made with special reference to effects on health, economic and social factors, and physical effects on property.

6. a. Require, by rules, notice of the construction of any air contaminant source which may cause or contribute to air pollution, and the submission of plans and specifications to the department, or other information deemed necessary, for the installation of air contaminant sources and related control equipment. The rules shall allow the owner or operator of a major stationary source to elect to obtain a conditional permit in lieu of a construction permit. The rules relating to a conditional permit for an electric power generating facility subject to chapter 476A and other major stationary sources shall allow the submission of engineering descriptions, flow diagrams and schematics that quantitatively and qualitatively identify emission streams and alternative control equipment that will provide compliance with emission standards. Such rules shall not specify any particular method to be used to reduce undesirable levels of emissions, nor type, design, or method of installation of any equipment to be used to reduce such levels of emissions, nor the type, design, or method of installation or type of construction of any manufacturing processes or kinds of equipment, nor specify the kind or composition of fuels permitted to be sold, stored, or used unless authorized by subsection 4 of this section.

b. The commission may give technical advice pertaining to the construction or installation of the equipment or any other recommendation. [C71,§136B.4; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.12; 68GA, ch 1148,§12, ch 1149,§3-5]

455B.13 Executive director. The executive director shall:

1. Publish and administer the rules and standards established by the commission. The department shall furnish a copy of such rules or standards to any person upon request.

2. Provide technical, scientific, and other services required by the commission or for the effective administration of this division II.

3. Grant, modify, or deny permits for the construction of new or modified air contaminant sources and for related control equipment, and conditional permits for electric power generating facilities subject to chapter 476A and other major stationary sources, subject to the rules adopted by the commission. The department shall furnish necessary application forms for such permits.

a. No air contaminant source shall be installed, altered so that it significantly affects emissions, or placed in use unless a construction or conditional permit has been issued for the source.

b. The condition of expected performance shall be reasonably detailed in the construction or conditional permit.

c. All applications for permits other than conditional permits for electric generating facilities shall be subject to such notice and public participation as may be provided by rule by the commission. Upon denial or limitation of a permit other than a conditional permit for an electric generating facility, the applicant shall be notified of such denial and informed of the reason or reasons therefor, and such applicant shall be entitled to a hearing before the commission.

d. All applications for conditional permits for electric power generating facilities shall be subject to such notice and opportunity for public participation as may be consistent with chapter 476A or any agreement pursuant thereto under chapter 28E. The applicant or intervenor may appeal to the commission from the denial of a conditional permit or any of its conditions. For the purposes of chapter 476A, the issuance or denial of a conditional permit by the executive director or by the commission upon appeal shall be a determination that the electric power generating facility does or does not meet the permit and licensing requirements of the commission. The issuance of a conditional permit shall not relieve the applicant of the responsibility to submit final and detailed construction plans and drawings and an application for a construction permit for control equipment that will meet the emission limitations established in the conditional permit.

e. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of division II of this chapter, anaerobic lagoons, which are used in connection with animal feeding operations containing six hundred twenty-five thousand pounds or less live animal weight capacity of animal species other than beef cattle or containing one million six hundred thousand pounds or less live animal weight capacity of beef cattle, shall be located at least one thousand two hundred fifty feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the feeding operation or from a public use area other than a public road. Anaerobic lagoons, which are used in connection with animal feeding operations containing six hundred twenty-five thousand pounds or more live animal weight capacity of animal species other than beef cattle or containing one million six hundred thousand pounds or more live animal weight capacity of beef cattle, shall be located at least one thousand eight hundred seventy-five feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the feeding operation or from a public use area other than a public road. For the purpose of this paragraph the determination of live animal weight capacity shall be based on the average animal weight capacity during a production cycle and the maximum animal capacity of the animal feeding operation. These separation distances shall apply to the construction of new facilities and the expansion of existing facilities.

(2) A person may build or expand an anaerobic lagoon closer to a residence not owned by the owner of the feeding operation or to a public use area than is otherwise permitted by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, if the affected landowners enter into a written agreement with the anaerobic lagoon owner to waive the separation distances under such terms as the parties may negotiate. The written agreement shall become effective only upon recording in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the residence is located.

4. Determine by field studies and sampling the quality of atmosphere and the degree of air pollution in this state or any part thereof.

5. Conduct and encourage studies, investigations, and research relating to air pollution and its causes, effects, abatement, control, and prevention.

6. Provide technical assistance to political subdivisions of this state requesting such aid for the furtherance of air pollution control.

7. Collect and disseminate information, and conduct educational and training programs, relating to air pollution and its abatement, prevention, and control.

8. Consider complaints of conditions reported to, or considered likely to, constitute air pollution, and investigate such complaints upon receipt of the written petition of any state agency, the governing body of a political subdivision, a local board of health, or twenty-five affected residents of the state.

9. Issue orders consistent with rules to cause the abatement or control of air pollution. In making the orders, the executive director shall consider the facts and circumstances bearing upon the reasonableness of the emissions involved, including but not limited to, the character and degree of injury to, or interference with, the protection of health and the physical property of the public, the practicability of reducing or limiting the emissions from the air pollution source, and the suitability or unsuitability of the air pollution source to the area where it is located. An order may include advisory recommendations for the control of emissions from an air contaminant source and the reduction of the emission of air contaminants.

10. Encourage voluntary co-operation by persons or affected groups in restoring and preserving a reasonable quality of air within the state.

11. Encourage political subdivisions to handle air pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions.

12. Review and evaluate air pollution control programs conducted by political subdivisions of the state with respect to whether the programs are consistent with the provisions of division II of this chapter and rules adopted by the commission.

13. Hold public hearings, except when the evidence to be received is confidential pursuant to section 455B.16, necessary to accomplish the purposes of division II of this chapter. The executive director may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence pertinent to the hearings. A subpoena shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as in civil actions. [C71,§136B.4, 136B.5; C73, 75, 77, 79,§449B.12, 455B.13; 68GA, ch 112,§1, ch 1148,§13-15, ch 1149,§6]

455B.14 Limit on authority. Nothing contained in this division II shall be deemed to grant to the commission or the executive director any authority or jurisdiction with respect to air pollution existing solely within residences; or solely within commercial and industrial plants, works, or shops under the jurisdiction of chapters 88 and 91; or to affect the relations between employers and employees with respect to, or arising out of, any condition of air pollution. [C71,§136B.6; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.14]

455B.15 Assistance on demand. The commission and the executive director may request and receive assistance from any other agency, department, or educational institution of the state, or political subdivision thereof, when it is deemed necessary or beneficial by the commission or the executive director. The department may reimburse such agencies for special expense resulting from expenditures not normally a part of the operating expenses of any such agency. [C71,§136B.7; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.15]

erwise authorized in this division II concerning trade secrets, secret industrial processes, or other privileged communications, except emission data, shall not be disclosed or opened to public inspection, except as may be necessary in a proceeding concerning a violation of said division or of any rules promulgated thereunder, or as otherwise authorized or ordered by appropriate court action or proceedings. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the executive director from compiling or publishing analyses or summaries relating to the general condition of the atmosphere; provided that such analyses or summaries do not reveal any information otherwise confidential under this section. [C71,§136B.8; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.16]

Referred to in §455B 13, 455B 17

455B.17 Resolution of violations—appeal.

1. When the executive director has evidence that a violation of any provision of division II of this chapter, or rule, standard or permit established or issued under division II has occurred, the executive director shall notify the alleged violator and, by informal negotiation, attempt to resolve the problem. If the negotiations fail to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time, the executive director shall issue an order directing the violator to prevent, abate or control the emissions or air pollution involved. The order shall prescribe the date by which the violation shall cease and may prescribe timetables for necessary action to prevent, abate or control the emissions of air pollution. The order may be appealed to the commission.

2. After the hearing on appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or rescind the order of the executive director.

3. The executive director shall keep a complete record of the hearings and proceeding and the record shall be open to public inspection, subject to section 455B.16. Upon request, a copy of the transcript shall be furnished to the violator or alleged violator at his or her expense.

4. An appeal to the commission under this section shall be conducted as a contested case under chapter 17A. [C71,§136B.9; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.17; 68GA, ch 1148,§16]

Referred to in §455B 29

455B.18 Emergency orders. If the executive director has evidence that any person is causing air pollution and that such pollution creates an emergency requiring immediate action to protect the public health and safety, or property, the executive director may, without notice, issue an emergency order requiring such person to reduce or discontinue immediately the emission of air contaminants. A copy of the emergency order shall be served by personal service. An emergency order issued by the executive director may be appealed to the commission. After hearing on appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or rescind the order of the executive director. [C71,§136B.9(5); C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.18; 68GA, ch 1148,§17]

Referred to in §455B 24

455B.19 Judicial review. Judicial review of actions of the commission or of the executive director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed. [C71,§136B.10; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.19]

455B.20 Legal action. If action to prevent, control, or abate air pollution is not taken in accordance with the rules established, or orders issued by the department, or if the executive director has evidence that an emergency exists by reason of air pollution which requires immediate action to protect the public health or property, the attorney general, at the request of the executive director, shall commence legal action, in the name of the state, for an injunction to prevent any further or continued violation of such rule or order. [C71,§136B.11; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.20; 68GA, ch 1148,§18]

455B.21 Burden of proof. In all proceedings with respect to any alleged violation of the provisions of this division II or any rule established by the commission, the burden of proof shall be upon the department except in an action for an injunction as provided in section 455B.20. [C71,§136B.12; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.21; 68GA, ch 1148,§19]

455B.22 Variance. Any person who owns or operates any plant, building, structure, process, or equipment may apply for a variance from the rules or standards adopted by the commission by filing an application with the department. The application shall be accompanied by such information and data required by the commission.

1. The executive director shall promptly investigate the application and approve or disapprove the application. The executive director may grant a variance if the executive director finds that:

a. The emissions occurring or proposed to occur do not endanger or tend to endanger human health or safety or property; and

b. Compliance with the rules or standards from which the variance is sought will produce serious hardship without equal or greater benefits to the public.

2. The applicant may request a review hearing before the commission if the application is denied.

3. In determining under what conditions and to what extent a variance may be granted, the executive director shall give due recognition to the progress which the applicant has made toward eliminating or preventing air pollution. In such a case, the executive director shall consider the reasonableness of the request, conditioned upon such applicant effecting a partial abatement of the particular air pollution within a reasonable period of time, or the executive director may prescribe other requirements with which such applicant shall comply.

4. The executive director may grant a variance for a specified period of time, not exceeding one year, and the executive director may further specify that the applicant make periodic reports specifying the progress that has been made toward compliance with any rule for which the variance was granted. A variance may be extended from year to year by affirmative action of the executive director.

5. The executive director shall maintain a record of each variance granted specifying the reasons for its issuance or extension. [C71,§136B.13; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.22; 68GA, ch 1148,§20]

455B.23 Local control program.

1. Any political subdivision may conduct an air pollution control program within the boundaries of its jurisdiction, or may jointly conduct an air pollution control program with other political subdivisions of this state or of other states, except that every joint program shall be established and administered as provided in chapter 28E. In conducting such programs, political subdivisions may adopt and enforce rules or standards to secure and maintain adequate air quality within their respective jurisdictions.

2. If the board of supervisors in any county establishes an air pollution control program and has obtained a certificate of acceptance, the agency implementing the program may regulate air pollution within the county including any incorporated areas therein until such incorporated areas obtain a certificate of acceptance as a joint or separate agency. [C71,§136B.14; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.23]

455B.24 Acceptance of local program. When an air pollution control program conducted by a political subdivision, or a combination thereof, is deemed upon review as provided in section 455B.13, to be consistent with the provisions of this division II or the rules established thereunder, the executive director shall accept such program in lieu of state administration and regulation of air pollution within the political subdivisions involved. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the executive director to take emergency action under the provisions of sections 455B.18 and 455B.20 or to administer a part of the local program that has been suspended.

1. In evaluating an air pollution control program, consideration shall be given to whether such program provides for the following:

a. Ordinances, rules and standards establishing requirements consistent with, or more strict than, those imposed by this division II or rules and standards adopted by the commission.

b. Enforcement of such requirements by appropriate administrative and judicial process.

c. Administrative organization, staff, financial and other resources necessary to administer an efficient and effective program.

d. Location of emission monitoring devices in areas of the political subdivision in compliance with uniform state standards adopted by the commission. The commission shall adopt uniform state standards for the location of emission monitoring devices specifying such intervals and such procedures to provide a reasonably consistent measurement of emissions from air contaminant sources regardless of the political subdivision of the state in which the sources may be located.

2. Upon acceptance of a local air pollution control program, the executive director shall issue a certificate of acceptance to the appropriate local agency.

a. Any political subdivision desiring a certificate of acceptance shall apply to the department on forms prescribed by the executive director.

b. The executive director shall promptly investigate the application and approve or disapprove the application. The executive director may conduct a public hearing before action is taken to approve or disapprove. If the executive director disapproves issuing a certificate, the political subdivision may appeal the action to the commission. At the hearing on appeal, the commission shall decide whether the local program is substantially consistent with the provisions of this division II, or rules adopted thereunder, and whether the local program is being enforced. The burden of proof shall be upon the political subdivision.

c. If the executive director determines at any time that a local air pollution program is being conducted in a manner inconsistent with the substantive provisions of this division II or the rules adopted thereunder, the executive director shall notify the political subdivision, citing the deviations from the acceptable standards and the corrective measures to be completed within a reasonable amount of time. If the corrective measures are not implemented as prescribed, the executive director shall suspend in whole or in part the certificate of acceptance of such political subdivision and shall administer the regulatory provisions of said division in whole or in part within the political subdivision until the appropriate standards are met. Upon receipt of evidence that necessary corrective action has been taken, the executive director shall reinstate the suspended certificate of acceptance, and the political subdivision shall resume the administration of the local air pollution control program within its jurisdiction. In cases where the certificate of acceptance is suspended, the political subdivision may appeal the suspension to the commission.

d. Nothing in this division II shall be construed to supersede the jurisdiction of any local air pollution control program in operation on the first of January, 1973, except that any such program shall meet all requirements of said division. [C71,§136B.15; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.24; 68GA, ch 1148,§21]

455B.25 Civil action for compliance. If any order, permit or rule of the commission is being violated, the attorney general shall, at the request of the commission or the executive director, institute a civil action in any district court for injunctive relief to prevent any further violation of the order, permit or rule, or for the assessment of a civil penalty as determined by the court, not to exceed five thousand dollars per day for each day such violation continues, or both such injunctive relief and civil penalty. [C71,§136B.16; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.25; 68GA, ch 1149,§7]

455B.26 Failure—procedure.

1. If the executive director fails to take action within sixty days after an application for a variance is made, or if the commission fails to enter a final order or determination within sixty days after the final argument in hearing on appeal, the person seeking the action may treat the failure to act as a grant of the requested variance, or of a finding favorable to the respondent in hearing on appeal, as the case may be.

2. If the executive director fails to take action within one hundred twenty days after a completed application for a construction permit is made, or if the commission fails to enter a final order or determination within sixty days after the final argument in a hearing on appeal of the permit, the person seeking the action may treat the failure to act as a grant of the requested permit, or of a finding favorable to the respondent in a hearing on appeal, as the case may be.

3. The section shall not apply to an application for a conditional permit for an electrical power generating facility subject to chapter 476A. [C71,§136B.17; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.26; 68GA, ch 1149,§8]

455B.27 Fees. The owner or operator of a major stationary source shall pay to the department a fee, as determined from the fee schedule adopted by the commission under this section, for the issuance of a permit required under this division. The fees collected shall be remitted to the treasurer of state who shall deposit the money in the general fund of the state. A local air pollution control program shall establish and collect the fees for major stationary sources within its jurisdiction. The commission may adopt, amend or repeal rules establishing a fee schedule for construction and conditional permits for major stationary sources. The fee shall be sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of reviewing and acting upon an application for a permit and, if the owner or operator receives a permit for the source, the reasonable costs of implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions of the permit excluding court costs or other costs associated with an enforcement action. [C71,§136B.18; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.27; 68GA, ch 1149,§10]

455B.28 Repealed by 68GA, ch 1148, §83.

455B.29 Energy or economic emergency.

1. Upon application by the owner or operator of a fuel-burning stationary source, and after notice and opportunity for public hearing, the commission may petition the president, under section 110, subsection "f," paragraph 1 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, for a determination that a national or regional energy emergency exists. If the president determines an emergency exists, the commission may suspend any requirement of this division or a rule or permit issued under this division. A temporary emergency suspension under this subsection shall be issued only if there exists in the vicinity of the source a temporary emergency involving high levels of unemployment or loss of necessary energy supplies for residential buildings and if the unemployment or loss can be totally or partially alleviated by the suspension. Only one suspension may be issued for a source on the basis of the same set of circumstances or on the basis of the same emergency. A suspension shall remain in effect for a maximum of four months. The commission may include in a suspension a provision directing the executive director to delay for a period identical to the period of the suspension a compliance schedule or increment of progress to which the source is subject under section 455B.17, if the source is unable to comply with the schedule or increment solely because of the conditions on the basis of which the suspension was issued.

2. If a plan revision has been submitted to the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency under section 110 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, and if the commission determines that the revision meets the requirements of that section and the revision is necessary to prevent the closing of an air contaminant source for one year or more and to prevent substantial increases in unemployment which would result from the closing, and if the administrator has not approved or disapproved within the required four-month period, the commission may issue a temporary emergency suspension of the part of the applicable implementation plan which is proposed to be revised with respect to the source. The determination under this subsection shall not be made with respect to a source which would close without regard to whether or not the proposed plan revision is approved. A temporary emergency suspension issued under this subsection shall remain in effect for a maximum of four months. A temporary emergency suspension under this subsection may include a provision directing the executive director to delay for a period identical to the period of the suspension a compliance schedule or increment of progress to which the source is subject under section 119 of the federal Clean Air Act as in effect prior to August 7, 1977, or section 113, subsection "d" of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, upon a finding that the source is unable to comply with the schedule or increment solely because of the conditions on the basis of which a suspension was issued under this subsection. [68GA, ch 1149,§9]

Section 455B 29, Code 1979, converted to note

Prior rules Any rule adopted or order or variance issued under chapter 136B of prior Codes by the Iowa air pollution control commission or by the state department of health or under division II of this chapter by the air quality commission before January 1, 1981, shall remain effective until modified or rescinded by action of the commission unless the rule is inconsistent or contrary to this division II See 68GA, ch 1148, §22

"Sewer system" means pipelines or conduits, pumping stations, force mains, vehicles, vessels, conveyances, injection wells, and all other constructions, devices and appliances appurtenant thereto used for conducting sewage or industrial waste or other wastes to a point of ultimate disposal or disposal to any water of the state. To the extent that they are not subject to section 402 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act as amended, ditches, pipes, and drains that serve only to collect, channel, direct, and convey nonpoint runoff from precipitation are not considered as sewer systems for the purposes of this Act. [66GA, ch 1204]

6. "Treatment works" means any plant, disposal field, lagoon, holding or flow-regulating basin, pumping station, or other works installed for the purpose of treating, stabilizing or disposing of sewage, industrial waste or other wastes.

12. "Point source" means any discernible, confined, and discrete conveyance, including but not limited to any pipe, ditch, channel, tunnel, conduit, well, discrete fissure, container, rolling stock, concentrated animal feeding operation, or vessel or other floating craft, from which pollutants are or may be discharged.

13. "Pollutant" means sewage, industrial waste or other waste.

14. "New source" means any building, structure, facility or installation, from which there is or may be the discharge of a pollutant, the construction of which is commenced after the publication of proposed federal rules prescribing a standard of performance which will be applicable to such source, if such standard is promulgated.

19. "Public water supply system" means a system for the provision to the public of piped water for human consumption, if such system has at least fifteen service connections or regularly serves at least twenty-five individuals. Such term includes any source of water and any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facilities under control of the operator of such system and used primarily in connection with such system, and any collection or pretreatment storage facilities not under such control which are used primarily in connection with such system.

20. "Maximum contaminant level" means the maximum permissible level of any physical, chemical, biological or radiological substance in water which is delivered to any user of a public water supply system. [C66, 71, §455B.2; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.30; 68GA, ch 1148, §23]

*"truck" in enrolled Act

455B.31 Administrative agency. The department shall be the agency of the state to prevent, abate, or control water pollution and to conduct the public water supply program. [C66, 71, §455B.3; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.31]

455B.32 Duties. The commission shall:

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the prevention, control and abatement of water pollution.

2. Establish, modify, or repeal water quality standards, pretreatment standards and effluent standards. The effluent standards may provide for maintaining the existing quality of the water of the state where the quality thereof exceeds the requirements of the water quality standards.

3. If the federal environmental protection agency has promulgated an effluent standard or pretreatment standard pursuant to section 301, 306 or 307 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act, a pretreatment or effluent standard adopted pursuant to this section shall not be more stringent than the federal effluent or pretreatment standard for such source. This section may not preclude the establishment of a more restrictive effluent limitation in the permit for a particular point source if the more restrictive effluent limitation is necessary to meet water quality standards, the establishment of an effluent standard for a source or class of sources for which the federal environmental protection agency has not promulgated standards pursuant to section 301, 306 or 307 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act. Except as required by federal law or regulation, the commission shall not adopt an effluent standard more stringent with respect to any pollutant than is necessary to reduce the concentration of that pollutant in the effluent to the level due to natural causes, including the mineral and chemical characteristics of the land, existing in the water of the state to which the effluent is discharged. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part of this division, any new source, the construction of which was commenced after October 18, 1972, and which was constructed as to meet all applicable standards of performance for the new source or any more stringent effluent limitation required to meet water quality standards, shall not be subject to any more stringent effluent limitations during a ten-year period beginning on the date of completion of construction or during the period of depreciation or amortization of the pollution control equipment for the facility for the purposes of section 167 and 169 or both sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, whichever period ends first.

Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of disposal systems and public water supply systems and specifying the conditions under which the executive director shall issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the operation, installation, construction, addition to or modification of any disposal system or public water supply system, or for the discharge of any pollutant or for the disposal of water wastes resulting from poultry and livestock operations. The rules specifying the conditions under which the executive director shall issue permits for the construction of an electric power generating facility subject to chapter 476A shall provide for issuing a conditional permit upon the submission of engineering descriptions, flow diagrams and schematics that qualitatively and quantitatively identify effluent streams and alternative disposal systems that will provide compliance with effluent standards or limitations.

No rules shall be adopted which regulate the hiring or firing of operators of disposal systems or public water supply systems except rules which regulate the certification of operators as to their technical competency.

A publicly owned treatment works whose discharge meets the final effluent limitations which were contained in its discharge permit on the date that construction of the publicly owned treatment works was approved by the department shall not be required to meet more stringent effluent limitations for a period of ten years from the date the construction was completed and accepted but not longer than twelve years from the date that construction was approved by the department.

4. Establish, modify or repeal rules governing the labeling of detergents which contain phosphorus. Any rules shall be formulated to provide potential purchasers with accurate information concerning the percent of phosphorus in the formula and the weight in grams of phosphorus per recommended use level.

5. Co-operate with other state or interstate water pollution control agencies in establishing standards, objectives, or criteria for the quality of interstate waters originating or flowing through this state.

6. Adopt by rule a fee schedule for applications for permits required under part 1 of this division. The fee schedule shall be based on the reasonable cost of reviewing, issuing and enforcing such permits. The fee schedule may be amended periodically by rule of the commission.

7. Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to drinking water standards for public water supply systems. Such standards shall specify maximum contaminant levels or treatment techniques necessary to protect the public health and welfare. The drinking water standards must assure compliance with federal drinking water standards adopted pursuant to the federal Safe Drinking Water Act.

8. Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to inspection, monitoring, record keeping and reporting requirements for the owner or operator of any public water supply or any disposal system or of any source which is an industrial user of a publicly or privately owned disposal system.

9. Adopt a statewide plan for the provision of safe drinking water under emergency circumstances. All public agencies, as defined in chapter 28E, shall co-operate in the development and implementation of the plan. The plan shall detail the manner in which the various state and local agencies shall participate in the response to an emergency. The department may enter into any agreement, subject to approval of the commission, with any state agency or unit of local government or with the federal government which may be necessary to establish the role of such agencies in regard to the plan. This plan shall be coordinated with disaster emergency plans.

10. Formulate and adopt specific and detailed statewide standards pursuant to chapter 17A for review of plans and specifications and the construction of sewer systems and water supply distribution systems and extensions to such systems not later than October 1, 1977. The standards shall be based on criteria contained in the "Recommended Standards for Sewage Works" and "Recommended Standards for Water Works" (Ten States Standards) as adopted by the Great Lakes-Upper Mississippi River board of state sanitary engineers, design manuals published by the department, applicable federal guidelines and standards, standard textbooks, current technical literature and applicable safety standards. The material standards for polyvinyl chloride pipe shall not exceed the specifications for polyvinyl chloride pipe in designations D-1784-69, D-2241-73, D-2564-76, D-2672-76, D-3036-73 and D-3139-73 of the American society of testing and material. The rules adopted which directly pertain to the construction of sewer systems and water supply distribution systems and the review of plans and specifications for such construction shall be known respectively as the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems and shall be applicable in each governmental subdivision of the state. Exceptions shall be made to the standards so formulated only upon special request to and receipt of permission from the department. The department shall publish the standards and make copies of such standards available to governmental subdivisions and to the public. [C97, §2565; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2220; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §136.3(2, c); C66, 71, §136.3(2, c), 455B.9; C73, 75, §455B.32, 455B.65; C77, 79, §455B.32; 68GA, ch 12, §16, ch 1148, §24, 25]

Referred to in §455B.45

455B.33 Executive director's duties. The executive director shall:

1. Conduct investigations of alleged water pollution or of alleged violations of this part of this division or any rule adopted or any permit issued pursuant thereto upon written request of any state agency, political subdivision, local board of health, twenty-five residents of the state, as directed by the commission, or as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this part of this division.

2. Conduct periodic surveys and inspection of the construction, operation, self-monitoring, record keeping and reporting of all public water supply systems and all disposal systems except as provided in section 455B.45.

3. Take any action or actions allowed by law which, in the executive director's judgment, are necessary to enforce or secure compliance with the provisions of this part of this division or of any rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant thereto.

4. Approve or disapprove the plans and specifications for the construction of disposal systems or water supply distribution systems except for those sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions which are reviewed by a city or county public works department as set forth in section 455B.45. The director shall issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the operation, installation, construction, addition to or modification of any disposal system or water supply distribution system except for sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions which are reviewed by a city or county public works department as set forth in section 455B.45. The director shall also issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the discharge of any pollutant. Such permits shall contain such conditions and schedules of compliance as are necessary to meet the requirements of this part of this division and the federal Water Pollution Control Act amendments of 1972. A permit shall not be issued to operate or discharge from any disposal system unless the conditions of the permit assure that any discharge from the disposal system meets or will meet all applicable state and federal water quality standards and effluent standards and the issuance of the permit is not otherwise prohibited by the federal Water Pollution Control Act amendments of 1972. All applications for discharge permits shall be subject to public notice and opportunity for public participation including public hearing as the commission may by rule require. The executive director shall promptly notify the applicant in writing of his action and, if the permit is denied, state the reasons for denial. The applicant may appeal to the commission from the denial of a permit or from any condition in any permit if he or she files notice of appeal with the executive director within thirty days of the notice of denial or issuance of the permit. The executive director shall notify the applicant within thirty days of the time and place of the hearing.

Copies of all forms or other paper instruments required to be filed during on-site inspections or investigations shall be given to the owner or operator of the disposal system or public water supply system being investigated or inspected before the inspector or investigator leaves the site. Any other report, statement, or instrument shall not be filed with the department unless a copy is sent by ordinary mail to the owner or operator of the disposal system or public water supply system within ten working days of the filing. If an inspection or investigation is done in cooperation with another state department, the department involved and the areas inspected shall be stated.

The executive director shall also issue or deny conditional permits for the construction of disposal systems for electric power generating facilities subject to chapter 476A. All applications for conditional permits shall be subject to such notice and opportunity for public participation as may be required by the commission and as may be consistent with chapter 476A and any agreement pursuant thereto under chapter 28E. The applicant or an intervenor may appeal to the commission from the denial of a conditional permit or any of its conditions. For the purposes of chapter 476A, the issuance or denial of a conditional permit by the executive director or the commission upon appeal shall be a determination that the electric power generating facility does or does not meet the permit and licensing requirements of the commission. The issuance of a conditional permit shall not relieve the applicant of the responsibility to submit final and detailed construction plans and drawing and an application for a construction permit for a disposal system that will meet the effluent limitations in the conditional permit.

5. Conduct random inspections of work done by city and county public works departments to ensure such public works departments are complying with this Act [66GA, ch 1204]. If a city or county public works department is not complying with section 455B.45 in reviewing plans and specifications or in granting permits or both, the department shall perform these functions in that jurisdiction until the city or county public works department is able to perform them. Performance of these functions in a jurisdiction by a local public works department shall not be suspended or revoked until after notice and opportunity for hearing as provided in chapter 17A.

The department shall give technical assistance to city and county public works departments upon request of such local public works departments. [C97,§2565; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§2191; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §135.11(7); C66, 71,§135.11(7), 455B.9-455B.11, 455B.15, 455B.17; C73, 75,§455B.33, 455B.37, 455B.66; C77, 79,§455B.33]

455B.34 Violations. If there is conclusive evidence that any person has violated or is violating any provision of this part of this division, or of any rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant thereto; then:

1. The executive director may issue an order directing the person to desist in the practice which constitutes the violation or to take such corrective action as may be necessary to ensure that the violation will cease. The person to whom such order is issued may cause to be commenced a contested case within the meaning of the Iowa administrative procedure Act by filing with the executive director within thirty days a notice of appeal to the commission. On appeal the commission may affirm, modify or vacate the order of the executive director; or

2. If it is determined by the executive director that an emergency exists respecting any matter affecting or likely to affect the public health, the executive director may issue any order necessary to terminate the emergency without notice and without hearing. Any such order shall be binding and effective immediately and until such order is modified or vacated at a hearing before the commission or by a court; or

3. The executive director, with the approval of the commission, may request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings pursuant to section 455B.49. [C66, 71,§455B.12, 455B.15, 455B.17; C73, 75,§455B.34, 455B.37; C77, 79,§455B.34; 68GA, ch 1148,§26]

455B.35 Criteria considered. In establishing, modifying, or repealing water quality standards the commission shall base its decision upon data gathered from sources within the state regarding the following:

1. The protection of the public health;

2. The size, depth, surface area covered, volume, direction and rate of flow, stream gradient, and temperature of the affected water of the state;

3. The character and uses of the land area bordering the affected water of the state;

4. The uses which have been made, are being made, or may be made of the affected water of the state for public, private, or domestic water supplies, irrigation; livestock watering; propagation of wildlife, fish, and other aquatic life; bathing, swimming, boating, or other recreational activity; transportation; and disposal of sewage and wastes;

5. The extent of contamination resulting from natural causes including the mineral and chemical characteristics;

6. The extent to which floatable or settleable solids may be permitted;

7. The extent to which suspended solids, colloids, or a combination of solids with other suspended substances may be permitted;

8. The extent to which bacteria and other biological organisms may be permitted;

9. The amount of dissolved oxygen that is to be present and the extent of the oxygen demanding substances which may be permitted;

10. The extent to which toxic substances, chemicals or deleterious conditions may be permitted.

11. The economic costs and benefits. The goal shall be a reasonable balance between total costs to the people and to the economy, and the resultant benefits to the people of Iowa. [C66, 71,§455B.13; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.35]

455B.36 Declaration of policy.

1. The general assembly finds and declares that because the federal Water Pollution Control Act amendments of 1972, Public Law 92-500, provide for a permit system to regulate the discharge of pollutants into the waters of the United States and provide that permits may be issued by states which are authorized to implement the provisions of that Act, it is in the interest of the people of Iowa to enact the provisions of this Act [66GA, ch 1204] in order to authorize the state to implement the provisions of the federal Water Pollution Control Act amendments of 1972 and Acts amendatory or supplementary thereto, and federal regulations and guidelines issued pursuant to that Act.

2. The general assembly further finds and declares that because the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, Public Law 93-523, provides for the implementation of said Act by states which have adequate authority to do so, it is in the interest of the people of Iowa to implement the provisions of the federal Safe Drinking Water Act and federal regulations and guidelines issued pursuant thereto. [C77, 79,§455B.36]

455B.37 and 455B.38 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1204, §23.

455B.39 Judicial review. Except as provided in section 455B.49, subsection 6, judicial review of any order or other action of the commission or of the executive director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed or such final order was entered. [C66, 71,§455B.18; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.39]

Referred to in §455B.49

455B.40 Trade secrets protected. Upon a satisfactory showing by any person to the executive director that public disclosure of any record, report, permit, permit application or other document or information or part thereof would divulge methods or processes entitled to protection as a trade secret, any such record, report, permit, permit application or other document or part thereof other than effluent data and analytical results of monitoring or public water supply systems, shall be accorded confidential treatment. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter

68A, a person in connection with duties or employment by the department shall not make public any information accorded confidential status, however any such record or other information accorded confidential status may be disclosed or transmitted to other officers, employees or authorized representatives of this state or the United States concerned with carrying out this part of this division or when relevant in any proceeding under this Act [66GA, ch 1204]. [C66, 71,§455B.17; C73, 75,§455B.37; C77, 79,§455B.40]

455B.41 Stay order. The granting of a stay may be conditioned upon the furnishing by the appellant of such reasonable security as the court may direct. A stay may be vacated on application of the department or any other party after hearing by the court. [C66, 71,§455B.20; C73, 75, 77, 79,§455B.41]

455B.42 Variances and exemptions. The executive director may, after public notice and hearing, grant exemptions from a maximum contaminant level or treatment technique, or both. The executive director may also grant a variance from drinking water standards for public water supply systems when the characteristics of the raw water sources, which are available to a system, cannot meet the requirements with respect to maximum contaminant level of the standards despite application of the best treatment techniques which are generally available and if the executive director determines that the variance will not result in an unreasonable risk to the public health. A schedule of compliance may be prescribed by the executive director, at the time the variance or exemption is granted. The executive director shall also require the interim measures to minimize the contaminant levels of systems subject to the variance or exemption as may reasonably be implemented. The executive director may also issue variances from other rules of the commission if necessary and appropriate. The denial of a variance or exemption may be appealed to the commission. [C77, 79,§455B.42; 68GA, ch 1148,§27]

455B.43 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1204, §23.

455B.44 Failure constitutes contempt. Failure to obey any order issued by the department with reference to a violation of this part of this division or any rule promulgated or permit issued pursuant thereto shall constitute prima-facie evidence of contempt. In such event the department may certify to the district court of the county in which such alleged disobedience occurred the fact of such failure. The district court after notice, as prescribed by the court, to the parties in interest shall then proceed to hear the matter and if it finds that the order was lawful and reasonable it shall order the party to comply with the order. If the person fails to comply with the court order, that person shall be guilty of contempt and shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars for each day that he or she fails to comply with the court order. The penalties provided in this section shall be considered as additional to any penalty which may be imposed under the law relative to nuisances or any other statute relating to the pollution of any waters of the state or related to public water supply systems and a conviction under this section shall not be a bar to prosecution under any other penal statute. [C66, 71, §455B.24; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.44]

455B.45 Written permits required. It shall be unlawful to carry on any of the following activities without first securing a written permit from the executive director, or from a city or county public works department if such local public works department reviews the activity under this section, as required by the commission:

1. The construction, installation or modification of any disposal system or water supply distribution system or part thereof or any extension or addition thereto except those sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions that are subject to review and approval by a city or county public works department pursuant to this section.

2. The construction or use of any new point source for the discharge of any pollutant into any water of the state.

3. The operation of any waste disposal system or water supply distribution system or any part of or extension or addition to such system. This provision shall not apply to any pretreatment system the effluent of which is to be discharged directly to another disposal system for final treatment and disposal.

Upon adoption of standards by the commission pursuant to section 455B.32, subsections 8 to 11, plans and specifications for sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions covered by this section shall be submitted to the city or county public works department for approval if the local public works department employs a qualified, registered engineer who reviews the plans and specifications using the specific state standards known as the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems that have been formulated and adopted by the commission pursuant to section 455B.32, subsections 8 to 11. The reviewing engineer shall be a full-time employee of the governmental subdivision and the qualifications of that engineer shall be submitted to the executive director or his designee for approval prior to issuing written permits. The local agency shall issue a written permit to construct if:

a. The submitted plans and specifications are in substantial compliance with departmental rules and the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems.

b. The extensions primarily serve residential consumers and will not result in an increase greater than five percent of the capacity of the treatment works or serve more than two hundred fifty dwelling units or, in the case of an extension to a water supply distribution system, such extension will have a capacity of less than five percent of such system or will serve fewer than two hundred fifty dwelling units; and

c. The proposed sewer extension will not exceed the capacity of any treatment works which received a state or federal monetary grant after 1972; and

d. The proposed water supply distribution system extension will not exceed the production capacity of any water supply distribution system constructed after 1972.

After issuing a permit, the city or county public works department shall notify the director of such issuance by forwarding a copy of the permit to the director. In addition, the local agency shall submit quarterly reports to the director including such information as capacity of local treatment plants and production capacity of water supply distribution systems as well as other necessary information requested by the director for the purpose of implementing this chapter.

Plans and specifications for all other waste disposal systems and water supply distribution systems, including sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions not reviewed by a city or county public works department under this section, shall be submitted to the department before a written permit may be issued. The construction of any such waste disposal system or water supply distribution system shall be in accordance with standards formulated and adopted by the commission pursuant to section 455B.32, subsections 8 to 11, or otherwise approved by the department. If it is necessary or desirable to make material changes in such plans or specifications, revised plans or specifications together with reasons for the proposed changes must be submitted to the department for a supplemental written permit.

Prior to the adoption of statewide standards, the department may delegate the authority to review plans and specifications to those governmental subdivisions if in addition to compliance with subsection 3 that governmental subdivision agrees to comply with all state and federal regulations and submits a plan for the review of plans and specifications including a complete set of local standard specifications for such improvements.

The director may suspend or revoke delegation of review and permit authority after notice and hearing as set forth in chapter 17A if the director determines that a city or county public works department has approved extensions which do not comply with design criteria, which exceed the capacity of waste treatment plants or the production capacity of water supply distribution systems or which otherwise violate state or federal requirements.

The department shall exempt any public water system from any requirement respecting a maximum contaminant level or any treatment technique requirement of an applicable national drinking water regulation insofar as these regulations apply to contaminants which the commission determines are harmless or beneficial to the health of consumers, when the owner of a public water supply system determines that funds are not reasonably available to provide for controlling amounts of those contaminants which are harmless or beneficial to the health of consumers. [C66, 71, §455B.25; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.45]

455B.46 Disposal system plans. The department may also require the owner of a disposal system, discharging pollutants into any water of the state, or of a public water supply system to file with it complete plans of the whole or any part of such system and any other information and records concerning the installation and operation of such system. [C66, 71, §455B.26; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.46]

455B.47 Data from departments. The commission and the executive director may request and receive from any department, division, board, bureau, commission, public body, or agency of the state, or of any political subdivision thereof, or from any organization, incorporated or unincorporated, which has for its object the control or use of any of the water resources of the state, such assistance and data as will enable the commission or the executive director to properly carry out their activities and effectuate the purposes of this part 1 of division III. The department shall reimburse such agencies for special expense resulting from expenditures not normally a part of the operating expenses of any such agency. [C66, 71, §455B.27; C73, 75, 77, 79, §455B.47]

455B.49 Penalties—burden of proof.

1. Any person who violates any provision of part 1 of division III of this chapter or any permit, rule, standard, or order issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each day of such violation. The civil penalty shall be an alternative to any criminal penalty provided under part 1 of division III of this chapter.

2. Any person who willfully or negligently discharges any pollutants in violation of section 455B.45 or 455B.48 or in violation of any condition or limitation included in any permit issued under section 455B.45 or in violation of any water quality standard or effluent standard or, with respect to the introduction of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works, violates a pretreatment standard or toxic effluent standard, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each day of violation. If the conviction is for a violation committed by a person after the person's first conviction under this section, the punishment shall be a fine not to exceed twenty thousand dollars for each day of violation.

3. Any person who knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan or other document filed or required to be maintained under part 1 of division III of this chapter, or who falsifies, tampers with or knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method required to be maintained under part 1 of division III of this chapter or by any permit, rule, regulation, or order issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

4. The attorney general shall, at the request of the executive director with approval of the commission, institute any legal proceedings, including an action for an injunction or a temporary injunction, necessary to enforce the penalty provisions of part 1 of division III of this chapter or to obtain compliance with the provisions of part 1 of division III of this chapter or any rules promulgated or any provision of any permit issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter. In any such action, any previous findings of fact of the executive director or the commission after notice and hearing shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence in the record when the record is viewed as a whole.

5. In all proceedings with respect to any alleged violation of the provisions of this part 1 of division III or any rule established by the commission or the department, the burden of proof shall be upon the commission or the department except in an action for contempt as provided in section 455B.44.

6. If the attorney general has instituted legal proceedings in accordance with this section, all related issues which could otherwise be raised by the alleged violator in a proceeding for judicial review under section 455B.39 shall be raised in the legal proceedings instituted in accordance with this section. [C66, 71, §455B.23, 455B.25; C73, §455B.43, 455B.45, 455B.49; C75, §455B.43, 455B.49; C77, 79, §455B.49; 68GA, ch 1148, §28]

Permits shall be issued for existing disposal sites which have not met all the provisions of said part and rules issued pursuant thereto, if a comprehensive plan for compliance within the time limitations required by said part is developed by a city, county or private agency and is approved by the executive director. Every city or county of this state and every private agency involved in the final disposal of solid waste shall qualify for a permit by the first of July 1975 or be subject to such legal actions authorized by section 455B.82.

Each sanitary disposal project shall be inspected annually by the department or a local board of health. The permits issued pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any other licenses, permits or variances authorized or required by law, including, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 358A. The executive director may issue temporary permits for dumping or disposal of solid waste at disposal sites for which an application for a permit to operate a sanitary disposal project has been made and which have not met all of the requirements of part 1 of this division and the rules adopted by the commission if a compliance schedule has been submitted by the applicant specifying how and when the applicant will meet the requirements for an operational sanitary disposal project and the executive director determines the public interest will be best served by granting such temporary permit.

2. The attorney general shall, at the request of the executive director, take appropriate action against the owner or operator of any vehicle, storage or manufacturing facility, vessel, or other source of a hazardous substance to recover funds expended by the department for the elimination of a hazardous condition. All such moneys collected shall be credited to the general fund of the state. [C79,§455B.120]

HAZARDOUS WASTE MANAGEMENT

455B.130 Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Disposal” means the discharge, deposit, injection, dumping, spilling, leaking or placing of a hazardous waste into or on land or water so that the hazardous waste or a constituent of the hazardous waste may enter the environment or be emitted into the air or discharged into any waters, including ground waters.

2. a. “Hazardous waste” means a waste or combination of wastes that, because of its quantity, concentration, biological degradation, leaching from precipitation, or physical, chemical, or infectious characteristics, has either of the following effects:

(1) Causes, or significantly contributes to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible, illness.

(2) Poses a substantial danger to human health or the environment. “Hazardous waste” may include but is not limited to wastes that are toxic, corrosive or flammable or irritants, strong sensitizers or explosives.

b. “Hazardous waste” does not include:

(1) Agricultural wastes, including manures and crop residues that are returned to the soil as fertilizers or soil conditioners.

(2) Sewage sludge from publicly owned treatment works.

(3) Source, special nuclear, or by-product material as defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended to January 1, 1979.

3. “Manifest” means the form used for identifying the quantity, composition, and the origin, routing, and destination of hazardous waste during its transportation from the point of generation to the point of disposal, treatment or storage.

4. “Storage” means the containment of a hazardous waste, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years, in a manner that does not constitute disposal of the hazardous waste.

5. “Treatment” means a method, technique, or process, including neutralization, designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste so as to neutralize the waste or to render the waste nonhazardous, safer for transport, amenable for recovery, amenable for storage, or to reduce the waste in volume. Treatment includes any activity or processing designed to change the physical form or chemical composition of hazardous waste to render the waste nonhazardous. [68GA, ch 111,§2, ch 1148,§57]

455B.131 Duties of the commission. The commission shall:

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the state for the management of hazardous waste. In the development of plans and programs, the commission shall recognize the need for assuring that suitable facilities and sites for treatment and disposal are available for hazardous wastes generated in Iowa. As part of the hazardous waste management plan, the commission shall conduct a study of hazardous waste management in Iowa and shall report its findings to the general assembly not later than eighteen months after July 1, 1979. The study shall include the following:

a. A description of current sources of hazardous waste within the state, including the types and quantities of hazardous wastes.

b. A description of current hazardous waste transportation, storage, treatment and disposal practices and costs within the state.

c. A description of practices and methods that would reduce at the source the amount of hazardous waste generated and an estimate of the cost of these practices.

d. Identification and evaluation of alternatives to land disposal of hazardous wastes.

e. Identification of the general geologic and other criteria for a site for land disposal of hazardous wastes and the areas in Iowa that might meet the general criteria if alternatives to land disposal are not feasible.

f. The proper role and activities of the state in addition to those established in sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 and the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act in facilitating safe and efficient disposal of hazardous waste, including but not limited to a determination of the most appropriate procedures for receiving public comments and approving permits for siting hazardous waste disposal facilities.

g. The estimated private and public capital and annual operating costs of implementing the hazardous waste management plan recommended by the commission.

2. Adopt rules establishing criteria for identifying the characteristics of hazardous wastes and listing hazardous wastes that are subject to sections 455B.130 to 455B.140. The commission shall consider toxicity, persistence and degradability in nature, potential for accumulation in tissue, and related factors including flammability, corrosiveness, and other hazardous characteristics.

3. Adopt rules, applicable to generators or transporters of or owners or operators of facilities for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste listed by the commission under subsection 2 of this section, as necessary to protect human health and the environment. The rules shall include establishment of a manifest system.

4. Adopt rules establishing standards and procedures for the certification of supervisory personnel and operators at hazardous waste treatment, storage or disposal facilities required to have a permit under section 455B.134. [68GA, ch 111,§3]

1. Issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for persons owning or operating a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste listed by the commission under section 455B.131, subsection 2. Permits shall be issued for such period as the commission may by rule prescribe.

2. Administer examinations to determine the competence of operators and supervisory personnel at facilities for the treatment, storage or disposal of hazardous waste that are required to have a permit under section 455B.134. The executive director shall issue, revoke, suspend, or deny certificates of competency for persons as supervisory or operating personnel at facilities for the treatment, storage or disposal of hazardous waste.

3. Inspect and investigate hazardous waste generators and transporters and treatment, storage and disposal facilities as may be necessary to determine compliance with sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 and rules adopted and permits and orders issued pursuant to sections 455B.130 to 455B.140. The executive director shall periodically survey or inspect the construction, operation and monitoring, reporting and record-keeping systems of hazardous waste generators and transporters and treatment, storage and disposal facilities. 455B.133 Hazardous waste notification.

1. A person who on the effective date of a rule adopted under section 455B.131, subsection 2 listing a hazardous waste as subject to sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 is generating or transporting the listed hazardous waste or owns or is operating a treatment, storage or disposal facility handling the listed hazardous waste shall file with the executive director a notification stating the waste handled by the person and the location and a general description of the activity involving the waste. The notice shall be given within ninety days after the effective date of the rule listing the waste.

2. Except as provided in subsection 1 of this section, a person shall not commence to transport or generate a hazardous waste listed by rule under section 455B.131, subsection 2 without first notifying the executive director of the proposed activity. The notice shall state the waste to be handled, and the location and a general description of the activity involving the listed waste.

3. After two years from July 1, 1979, a person who produces or disposes of not more than two hundred twenty pounds of hazardous waste in any one month period or any retailer other than a retailer of waste oil shall be exempt from the notification requirements of sections 455B.130 to 455B.140. 455B.134 Permit required.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 4, a person shall not operate a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste listed under section 455B.131, subsection 2 unless the owner or operator has obtained a permit for the facility from the executive director.

The owner or operator of a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste listed under section 455B.131, subsection 2 existing on the effective date of the rule listing the waste shall obtain a permit for the facility within six months of the effective date of the rule. A person owning or operating a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste that existed on the effective tive date of the rule listing the waste and that is required to have a permit under sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 is considered to have a permit until such time as final administrative determination is made if the person meets the following conditions:

a. The person has given notice as required by section 455B.133.

b. The person has applied for a permit.

c. The executive director has determined that the failure to issue the permit is not the result of the failure of the applicant to furnish information reasonably required or requested to process the application.

3. The commission may by rule specify the information required to be submitted with the application for a permit and the conditions under which the executive director shall issue, deny, revoke, suspend or modify permits. However, a permit shall not be issued for a treatment, storage or disposal facility unless the applicant presents evidence of financial responsibility and continuity of operation consistent with the degree and duration of risks associated with the treatment, storage or disposal of the hazardous waste as determined by the commission.

4. A permit is not required for the storage of a hazardous waste listed under section 455B.131, subsection 2 when the only purpose of the storage is to accumulate for a period of up to ninety days sufficient quantities of the waste for transportation, treatment or disposal unless a permit for the storage is required under federal law.

5. A permit issued pursuant to this section shall be in addition to other licenses, permits or variances authorized or required by law, including, but not limited to, the requirements of chapter 358A.

6. If the executive director denies a permit, the executive director shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the denial. The applicant may appeal to the commission from the denial of a permit or from a condition of a permit if the applicant files a notice of appeal with the executive director within thirty days of receipt of the denial or issuance of the permit. The inspection shall be completed within a reasonable period of time.

2. If the officer or employee obtains a sample, prior to leaving the premises, the officer or employee shall give the owner, operator, or agent in charge a receipt describing the sample obtained and if requested a portion of each sample equal in volume or weight to the portion retained. If the sample is analyzed, a copy of the results of the analysis shall be furnished promptly to the owner, operator, or agent in charge.

3. Documents or information obtained from a person under this section shall be available to the public except as provided in this subsection. Upon a showing satisfactory to the executive director by a person that documents or information, or a particular part of the documents or information to which the executive director has access under this section if made public would divulge commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential or a trade secret, the executive director shall consider the documents or information or the particular portion of the documents or information confidential. However the document or information may be disclosed to officers, employees or authorized representatives of the United States charged with implementing the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, to employees of the state of Iowa or of other states when the document or information is relevant to the discharge of their official duties, and when relevant in any proceeding under the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act or this part 5. #### 455B.137 Enforcement.

1. If the executive director has conclusive evidence that a person has violated or is violating a provision of sections 455B.130 to 455B.140, or of a rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant to sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 and if subsection 4 of this section does not apply:

a. The executive director may issue an order directing the person to desist in the practice that constitutes the violation or to take corrective action as necessary to ensure that the violation will cease. Before issuing the order the executive director shall notify the person of the violation and that if compliance is not achieved within thirty days following the receipt of the notice the order may be issued. The person to whom the order is issued may commence a contested case within the meaning of chapter 17A by filing with the executive director within thirty days of receipt of the order a notice of appeal to the commission. On appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or vacate the order of the executive director.

b. If it is determined by the executive director that an emergency exists, the executive director may issue without notice or hearing an order necessary to terminate the emergency. The order shall be binding and effective immediately and until the order is modified or vacated at a hearing before the commission or by a court. "Emergency" as used in this subsection means a situation where the handling, storage, treatment, transportation or disposal of a hazardous waste is presenting an imminent and substantial threat to human health or the environment.

c. When the executive director determines that a disposal site contains hazardous waste in an amount and under conditions that cause an imminent threat to human health and that the person responsible for the site will not properly and promptly remove the waste or eliminate the threat, the executive director may take action as necessary to remove the waste or permanently alleviate or eliminate the threat to human health. The costs of removing the waste or alleviating or eliminating the threat shall be recovered from the person responsible for the disposal site.

d. The executive director with the approval of the commission, may request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings pursuant to subsection 2 of this section.

2. The attorney general shall, at the request of the executive director pursuant to paragraph "d" of subsection 1 of this section, institute legal proceedings, including an action for an injunction, necessary to enforce the penalty provisions of sections 455B.130 to 455B.140 or to obtain compliance with said sections or a rule promulgated or a condition of a permit or order issued under said sections.

3. In a case arising from the violation of an order issued under subsection 1, paragraph "a" of this section, the burden of proof shall be on the state to show that the time specified in the order within which the individual must take corrective action is reasonable.

4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 455B.130 to 455B.140, when hazardous waste was placed in a disposal site in whole or in large measure in accordance with the law existing at the time of placement, and the presence of such waste in the site is subsequently found to be in conflict with laws or rules adopted at a later date and to constitute a serious and imminent threat to human health which must be reduced or eliminated, the executive director shall request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings to determine how the threat may best be reduced or eliminated and how the cost of reducing or eliminating the threat shall be allocated to or among the past and present owners and operators of the site, and other parties including the state and its political subdivisions deemed by the court to bear some responsibility for the threat or to benefit from the removal or elimination of the threat. Upon a finding by a court that a serious and imminent threat to human health exists the court may act and may stay that part of the reduction or elimination of the threat allocated to the state or governmental subdivision until such time as public funds have been appropriated to cover those allocated costs.

The court shall base an allocation of costs upon the following criteria:

a. The extent to which parties complied with the law and attempted to comply with the law.

b. The extent to which parties profited by acting contrary to the law.

c. The extent to which parties exercised good judgment and discharged their responsibilities to society in accordance with the perceptions of the time.

d. The ability of parties to pay for corrective measures.

e. The extent to which parties would benefit from the elimination of the threat to human health.

f. The broad implications for society of an allocation of costs.

g. The damages to other persons associated with the hazard created by the disposal site.

h. Other criteria as the court deems pertinent.

1. Applies or disposes of the chemicals in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions, and

2. Triple rinses each chemical container after it has been emptied and uses the rinsing as makeup water in a tankmix and applies the mix to cropland at an application rate that does not exceed the manufactur-

In addition to other rights of judicial review authorized by this section, a person who has complied with an order issued by the executive director or commission may within six months of compliance with the order seek relief in the district court on the grounds that the requirements imposed by the order are excessive, that the benefits to society are not commensurate with the costs of complying with the order and that society can be protected in a less costly manner. The commission may recommend to the executive council the purchase or condemnation of land to be leased for the operation of a treatment or disposal facility. The executive council may purchase or may condemn the land subject to chapter 471. Consideration for a contract for purchase of land shall not be in excess of funds appropriated by the general assembly for that purpose. 456.1 Jurisdiction to dissolve districts and abandon or transfer improvements. Drainage or levee districts may be dissolved and abandoned or assimilated by the procedures prescribed by this chapter.

1. When any drainage or levee district is free from indebtedness and it shall appear that the necessity therefor no longer exists or that the expense of the continued maintenance of the ditch or levee is in excess of the benefits to be derived therefrom, the board of supervisors or board of trustees, as the case may be, shall have power and jurisdiction, upon petition of a majority of the landowners, who, in the aggregate, own sixty percent of all land in such district, to abandon the same and dissolve and discontinue such districts in the manner prescribed by sections 456.2 to 456.6. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the board from eliminating land from a drainage district as permitted under section 455.201.

2. When one drainage or levee district, either intracounty or intercounty, includes within its territory all of the territory of one or more other drainage or levee districts, and it appears that one assessment and one governing body would be to the benefit of the owners and occupants of the land within the mutual jurisdiction of the overlying and the contained districts, the board of supervisors or board of trustees may effect the dissolution of a contained district and the transfer of jurisdiction and control over that contained district's improvements to the overlying district, in the manner prescribed by sections 456.11 to 456.16. [C35,§7598-g1; C39,§7598.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.1; 68GA, ch 114,§1]

Referred to in §456.6, 456.11

456.2 Notice of hearing. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall enter an order fixing the date for hearing thereon not less than forty days from the date of the filing thereof and shall enter an order directing the county auditor, if such district is under the control of the board of supervisors, or the clerk of the board, if under the control of a board of trustees, to immediately cause notice of hearing thereon to be served on the owners of lands in such district as may then be provided by law in proceedings for the establishment of a drainage or levee district. [C35,§7598-g2; C39,§7598.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.2]

456.3 Hearing on petition. At the time set for hearing on said petition the board shall hear and determine the sufficiency of the petition as to form and substance (which petition may be amended at any time before final action thereon), and all objections filed against the abandonment and dissolution of such district. If it shall find that such district is free from indebtedness and that the necessity for the continued maintenance thereof no longer exists or that the expense of the continued maintenance of such district is not commensurate with the benefits derived therefrom, it shall enter an order abandoning and dissolving such district, which order shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which such district is situated and noted on the drainage record. [C35,§7598-g3; C39,§7598.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.3]

Referred to in §456 1

456.4 Appeal. Appeal may be taken from the order of the board to the district court of the county in which such district or a part thereof is situated, in the same time and manner as appeal may be taken from an order of the board of supervisors establishing a district. [C35,§7598-g4; C39,§7598.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.4]

Appeals, §455 92 et seq

456.5 Expense—refund. In case there are sufficient funds on hand in such district, or there are unpaid assessments outstanding or other property belonging to such district in an amount sufficient to pay such expense, the expense of abandonment and dissolution shall be paid out of such funds or out of funds realized by the sale of such property. Where such district is free of indebtedness but there are not sufficient funds on hand or unpaid assessments outstanding or other assets to pay such expense the board shall assess such expense against the property in the district in the same proportions as the last preceding assessments of benefits. Any excess remaining to the credit of such district after sale of its assets and after payment of such expenses shall be prorated back to the property owners in the district in the proportions according to class and benefits as last assessed. If the petition is denied, the costs of said proceedings shall be paid by the petitioning owners. [C35,§7598-g5; C39,§7598.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.5]

Referred to in §456 1, 456 6

456.6 Abandonment of rights of way. If a dissolution is effected pursuant to section 456.1, subsection 1, and sections 456.2 to 456.5, the rights of way of the district for all purposes of the district shall be deemed abandoned. [C35,§7598-g6; C39,§7598.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§456.6; 68GA, ch 114,§2]

Referred to in §456 1

456.7 to 456.10 Reserved.

456.11 Initiating dissolution of contained district. To initiate the dissolution of a contained district under the circumstances described in section 456.1, subsection 2:

1. The board of supervisors or board of trustees of the district proposed to be dissolved shall enter an order for the proposed dissolution of that district and the surrender of its improvements and rights of way to the overlying district.

2. The board of supervisors or board of trustees of the overlying district shall enter an order approving the proposed acceptance of those improvements and rights of way. [68GA, ch 114,§4]

Referred to in §456 1, 456 12, 456 15, 456 16

456.12 Procedure for notice of hearing.

1. The board of the overlying district shall enter an order fixing a place and a time, not less than forty days after the date of the later of the two orders required by section 456.11, for a hearing on the proposals described in the two orders.

2. The auditor, or auditors if the overlying district includes land lying in two or more counties, shall cause notice of the proposals and of the hearing to be given immediately upon the entry of an order under subsection 1. The notice must:

a. Include the texts of the orders entered pursuant to section 456.11, the date, time and place of the hearing, and a statement that all objections to the proposals embodied in the orders must be made in writing and filed in the office of the auditor at or before the time set for the hearing.

b. Be directed to all of the following:

(1) The owner of each tract of land or lot within the overlying district, as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, including railway companies having right of way in the district.

(2) All lienholders or encumbrancers of land within the overlying district, without naming them.

(3) All actual occupants of land in the overlying district, without naming individuals.

(4) All other persons whom it may concern.

3. Except as otherwise required by section 455.22, the notice required by this section shall be served by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the overlying district's land is situated. The publication shall be made not less than twenty days prior to the day set for the hearing. Proof of service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher. [68GA, ch 114,§5]

Referred to in §456 1, 456 13, 456 15, 456 16

456.13 Procedure at hearing. The hearing shall be convened at the time and place fixed in accordance with section 456.12, subsection 1, and the procedure at the hearing shall be as prescribed by this section.

1. The board of the contained district shall first hear all objections filed against the dissolution of the district and the surrender of its improvements to the overlying district. If, at the conclusion of that portion of the hearing, that board finds that the contained district is free of debt, that the economic benefits of the continued maintenance of that district would not be commensurate with its cost, and that it would be advantageous to dissolve and discontinue the contained district and surrender its improvements and rights of way to the overlying district, it shall enter an order dissolving the contained district and directing the surrender of its improvements and rights of way, conditioned on acceptance by the overlying district.

2. Immediately thereafter, the board of the overlying district shall hear all objections filed against the acceptance of the contained district's improvements and their maintenance. If it finds that the improvements are conducive to the drainage of surface waters from agricultural lands and all other lands in the overlying district or the protection of the lands from overflow, it shall enter an order accepting the improvements and rights of way of the contained district.

3. Orders issued pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which the affected districts are situated and noted on the drainage record.

4. If at or before the time set for the hearing there have been filed with the county auditor or auditors, if either the contained or overlying district extends into more than one county, or with the board of either district, one or more remonstrances or objections to the dissolution of the contained district, or to the acceptance of that district's improvements and rights of way by the overlying district, signed by owners of land and land improvements in either district aggregating sixty percent of the total assessed value of the land in that district as shown by the taxing records in the county or counties in which that district is located, the board to which the remonstrances or objections have been made shall abandon its proposed action. [68GA, ch 114,§6]

Referred to in §456 1, 456 14, 456 15, 456 16

456.14 Election in lieu of hearings. In lieu of the hearings provided for in section 456.13, the board of either district may call an election for the purpose of determining the dissolution of the contained district or the acceptance of that district's improvements and rights of way by the overlying district. The questions may be submitted at a regular election of the district or at a special election called for that purpose. It is not mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct the elections, however the provisions of sections 49.43 to 49.47, and of chapter 462, as they are applicable, shall govern the elections, and the question to be submitted shall be set forth in the notice of election.

1. If sixty percent or more of the votes cast are in favor of the proposed dissolution of the contained district involved, the board of that district shall enter an order dissolving the contained district and directing the surrender of its improvements and rights of way, conditioned on acceptance by the overlying district.

2. If sixty percent or more of the votes cast in the overlying district are in favor of the proposed acceptance by that district of the contained district's improvements and rights of way, the board of the overlying district shall enter an order accepting the improvements and rights of way of the contained district.

3. Orders issued pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which the affected districts are situated and noted on the drainage record. [68GA, ch 114,§7]

Referred to in §456 1, 456 15, 456 16

456.15 Effect of dissolution, surrender and acceptance. When a contained district dissolves and surrenders its improvements and rights of way to the jurisdiction and control of an overlying district, and the overlying district accepts those improvements and rights of way, in accordance with sections 456.11 to 456.14:

1. It is presumed that the classification of the lands which were included in the dissolved district, as previously determined by the commissioners in the classification of those lands as a part of the overlying district, remains equitable and no reclassification of the overlying district or any part of it is necessary.

2. The improvements surrendered and accepted are at all times under the supervision of the board of the overlying district, and it is the duty of that board to keep the improvements in repair as provided in section 455.135 as fully and competely as though the improvements were a part of the original construction or improvements in the overlying district.

3. It is presumed that:

a. The improvements surrendered and accepted are an integral part of the overlying district's improvements, and are a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare.

b. No value is taken into consideration for the existing improvements nor is credit given to the parties owning them, and they shall not be considered an asset of the district that is dissolved.

4. The original cost and the subsequent cost of improvements in the district that has been dissolved are added to and become a part of the original cost and the subsequent cost of improvements in the overlying district. [68GA, ch 114,§8]

456.16 Costs borne by overlying district. The overlying district shall pay all costs of the proceedings held pursuant to sections 456.11 to 456.14. [68GA, ch 114,§9]

The lands benefited by such pumping station shall be determined by the board on said petition and report of the engineer, and such other evidence as it may hear. No additional land shall be taken into any such drainage district after the improvements therein have been substantially completed, unless one-third of the owners of the land proposed to be annexed have petitioned therefor or consented in writing thereto. [S13,§1989-a49; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7652; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.2]

461.3 Additional pumping station. After the establishment of a drainage district, including a pumping plant, and before the completion of the improvement therein, the board or boards may, if deemed necessary to fully accomplish the purposes of said improvement, by resolution authorize the establishment and maintenance of such additional pumping station or stations as the engineer may recommend, and if a petition is filed by one-third of the owners of land within such district asking the establishment of such pumping plant or plants, the board or boards must direct the engineer to investigate the advisability of the establishment thereof and upon the report of said engineer the board or boards shall determine whether such additional pumping plant or plants shall be established. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7653; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.3]

461.4 Transfer of pumps. If the board or boards determine that additional pumping plant or plants shall be established and maintained, a pump or pumps may be removed from any pumping station already established and may be installed in any such additional plant, if such removal can be made without injuring the efficient operation of the plant from which removed. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7654; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.4]

461.5 Costs.

1. The cost of the establishment of such additional pumping plant or plants shall be paid in the same manner and upon the same basis as is provided for the cost of the original improvement.

2. The board of supervisors or the board of trustees, as the case may be, where the district has been established and the original improvement constructed, may proceed with the further improvement of the original project in the manner provided in section 455.135, provided, however, that the cost of such further improvement does not exceed twenty-five percent of the sum of the original cost to the district and the cost of subsequent improvements, including all federal contributions.

For the purpose of this section the word “improvement” shall include the construction, reconstruction, enlargement and relocation of levees and acquisition of rights of way therefor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7655; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.5]

461.6 Dividing districts. When a drainage district has been created and more than one pumping plant is established therein, the board or boards of supervisors may, and upon petition of one-third of the owners of land within said district shall, appoint an engineer to investigate the advisability of dividing said district into two or more districts so as to include at least one pumping plant in each of such districts. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7656; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.6]

461.7 Notice—publication. If the engineer recommends such division the board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing upon the question of such division and shall publish notice directed to all whom it may concern of the time and place of such hearing, for the time and in the manner as is required for the publication of notice of the establishment of said district, except that said notice need not name the owners and lienholders. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7657; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.7]

461.8 Hearing—jurisdiction of divided districts. At the time fixed, the board shall determine the advisability of such division and shall make such order with reference thereto as shall be deemed proper, having consideration for the interests of all concerned. If such division is made, the board or boards having jurisdiction of the original district shall retain jurisdiction of the new districts created by such division for the purpose of collecting assessments therefore made and making such additional assessments as are necessary to pay the obligations theretofore contracted. For all other purposes, each division shall be under the jurisdiction of the board or boards of supervisors which would have had jurisdiction thereof if originally established as an independent district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7658; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§461.8]

461.9 Division in other cases. After a levee or drainage district operating a pumping plant shall have been established and the improvement constructed and accepted, if it shall become apparent that the lands can be more effectually drained, managed, or controlled by a division thereof, then the said board or boards, or trustees, may, and if the district is divided by a stream, they shall, divide the district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7659; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §461.9]

461.10 Assessments not affected—maintenance tax. Each district after the division shall be conducted as though established originally as a district. Nothing herein shall affect the legality or collection of any assessments levied before the division; but the maintenance tax, if any, shall be divided in proportion to the amount paid in by each district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7660; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §461.10]

The election for said new trustees shall be called by the old board of trustees in each district within ten days after said division is made and shall be conducted as provided for the election of trustees. 461.12 Settling basin—condemnation. If, before a district operating a pumping plant is completed and accepted, it appears that portions of the lands within said district are wet or nonproductive by reason of the floods or overflow waters from one or more streams running into, through, or along said district and that said district or some other district of which such district shall have formed a part, shall have provided a settling basin to care for the said floods and overflow waters of said stream or watercourse, but no channel to said settling basin has been provided, said board or boards are hereby empowered to lease, buy, or condemn the necessary lands within or without the district for such channel. Proceedings to condemn shall be as provided for the exercise of the right of eminent domain. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7662; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §461.12] such district as shown by the assessments levied against the lands therein whether evidenced by certificates, warrants, bonds, or judgments by refunding all such indebtedness and issuing coupon bonds therefor when such indebtedness amounts to one thousand dollars or upwards, but for no other purpose. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7663; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §461.13]

462.1 Trustees authorized. In the manner provided in this chapter, any drainage or levee district in which the original construction has been completed and paid for by bond issue or otherwise, may be placed under the control and management of a board of three trustees to be elected by the persons owning land in the district that has been assessed for benefits. [SS15, §1989-a52a, -a61; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7674; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.1]

462.2 Petition. A petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor signed by a majority of the persons including corporations owning land within the district assessed for benefits. [S13, §1989-a52b; SS15, §1989-a52a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7675; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.2]

462.3 Election. The board, at the next regular, adjourned, or special session shall canvass the petition and if signed by the requisite number of landowners, it shall order an election to be held at some convenient place in the district not less than forty nor more than sixty days from the date of such order, for the election of three trustees of such district. It shall appoint from the freeholders of the district who reside in the county or counties, three judges and two clerks of election. It shall not be mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct elections held pursuant to this chapter, but they shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 49 where not in conflict with this chapter. [S13, §1989-a52b; SS15, §1989-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7676; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.3]

462.4 Intercounty district. If the district extends into two or more counties, a duplicate of the petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor of each county. The boards of supervisors shall, within thirty days after the filing of such petition, meet in joint session and canvass the same, and if found to be signed by a majority of the owners of land in the district assessed for benefits, they shall by joint action order such election and appoint judges and clerks of election as provided in section 462.3. [S13, §1989-a52b; SS15, §1989-a62, -a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7677; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.4]

After such division is made there shall be elected one trustee for each of said election districts, but at such election all the qualified voters for the entire district shall be entitled to vote for each trustee. The division here provided for shall be for the purposes only of a proper distribution of trustees in the district and shall not otherwise affect said district or its management and control. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7678; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.5]

462.7 Eligibility of trustees. Each trustee shall be a citizen of the United States not less than eighteen years of age, the bona fide owner of agricultural land in the election district for which he or she is elected, and a resident of the county in which that district is located or of a county which is contiguous to or corners on that county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7680; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.7; 68GA, ch 1152, §1]

462.8 Notice of election. The board, or, if in more than one county, the boards acting jointly, shall cause notice of said election to be given, setting forth the time and place of holding the same and the hours when the polls will open and close. Such notice shall be published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper in which the official proceedings of the board are published in the county, or if the district extends into more than one county, then in such newspaper of each county. The last of such publications shall not be less than ten days before the date of said election. [S13, §1989-a52b; SS15, §1989-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7681; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §462.8]

462.9 Assessment to determine right to vote. Before any election is held, the election board shall obtain from the county auditor or auditors a certified copy of so much of the record of the establishment of such district as will show the lands embraced therein, the assessment and classification of each tract, and the name of the person against whom the same was assessed for benefits, and the present record owner, and such certified record shall be kept by the trustees after they are elected, for use in subsequent elections. They shall, preceding each subsequent election, procure from the county auditor or auditors additional certificates showing changes of title of land assessed for benefits and the names of the new owners. 462.12 Votes determined by assessment.

1. When a petition asking for the right to vote in proportion to assessment of benefits at all elections for any purpose thereafter to be held within said district, signed by a majority of the landowners owning land within said district assessed for benefits, is filed with the board of trustees, then, in all elections of trustees thereafter held within said district, any person whose land is assessed for benefits without regard to age, sex, or condition shall be entitled to one vote for each ten dollars or fraction thereof of the original assessment under the current classification against the land actually owned by him in said district at the time of the election, but in order to have such ballot counted for more than one vote the voter shall write his name upon the ballot. The vote of any landowner of the district may be cast by absent voters ballot as provided in chapter 53 except that the form of the applications for ballots, the voters' affidavits on the envelopes, and the endorsement of the carrier envelope for preserving the ballot shall be substantially in the form provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4, below. Application blanks, envelopes and ballots shall be provided by and submitted to the office of the county auditor in which the election is held. The landowners shall take notice of and pay such assessments without other or further notice than such as is provided for in this chapter. The funds realized from such assessments shall constitute the drainage fund, as contemplated in this chapter, and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn against that fund by the

CHAPTER 467

INTERSTATE DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

Referred to in §455 22, 455 215, 455 216, 455 219, 467C 6

- 467.1 Co-operation—procedure.
- 467.2 Agreement as to costs.
- 467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement.

- 467.4 Separate contracts.
- 467.5 Conditions precedent.
- 467.6 Assessments, bonds and costs—limitation.

467.1 Co-operation—procedure. When proceedings for the drainage of lands bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost of constructing the improvement in this state, including all damage, has been ascertained, and the engineer in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that the establishment and construction of such improvement ought to be jointly done with like proceedings for the drainage of lands in the same drainage area in such an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are pending in such state for the drainage of such lands, the said authorities of this state may enter an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to a fixed date, of which all parties shall take notice. [SS15,§1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7752; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467.1]

467.2 Agreement as to costs. The board shall have power, when the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an agreement as to the separate amounts which the property owners of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the board or boards having jurisdiction in this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed therewith as though such amount to be paid by the portion of the district in this state had been originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state. [SS15,§1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7753; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467.2]

467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement. When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently, no contract shall be let by the authorities in this state, unless the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon by the authorities of both states.

467.4 Separate contracts. The contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state; but the aggregate amount of the contract or contracts for the construction of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of the benefits assessed in this state including damages and other expenses. [SS15,§1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7755; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467.4]

467.5 Conditions precedent. No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be finally established in both states, and after the final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings has been finally terminated by actual trial or agreements, or the expiration of all right of appeal. [SS15,§1989-a78; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7756; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467.5]

467.6 Assessments, bonds and costs—limitation. All proceedings except as provided in this chapter in relation to the establishment, construction, and management of interstate drainage districts shall be as provided for the establishment and construction of districts wholly within this state as provided in chapter 455. All such proceedings shall relate only to the lands of such district which are located wholly within this state. Boards having jurisdiction in this state may make just and equitable agreements with like authorities in such adjoining state for the joint management, repair, and maintenance of the entire improvement, after the establishment and completed construction thereof. [SS15,§1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7757; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467.6]

The signed petitions shall be filed with the county commissioner of elections not later than five o'clock p.m. on the fifty-fifth day prior to the general election. The votes for the office of district commissioner shall be canvassed in the same manner as the votes for county officers, and the returns shall be certified to the commissioners of the district. A plurality shall be sufficient to elect commissioners, and no primary election for the office shall be held. If the canvass shows that the two candidates receiving the highest and the second highest number of votes for the office of district commissioner are both residents of the same township, the board shall certify as elected the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes for the office who is not a resident of the same township as the candidate receiving the highest number of votes.

4. This subsection shall apply during the period of transition from the former method of electing district commissioners to that prescribed by 66GA, ch 229, which is the period from July 1, 1975 until December 31, 1982, and the subsection shall not appear in any edition of the Code published after July 1, 1982.

a. Each commissioner elected to office for a term of six years which commenced after January 1, 1975, or who is serving a term which, except for 66GA, ch 229, would have expired after July 1, 1975 but not later than December 31, 1976 shall hold office until noon on the first day of January, 1977 that is not a Sunday or holiday, and a successor shall be elected at the general election in 1976. However, if a commissioner elected for a term of six years which commenced after January 1, 1975 certifies in writing to the state soil conservation committee that he is willing and anticipates being able to serve until noon on the first day of January, 1983 that is not a Sunday or holiday, his term shall be extended to that date and a successor shall be elected at the general election in 1982.

b. Each commissioner serving a term which, except for 66GA, ch 229, would have expired after January 1, 1977 but not later than December 31, 1978 shall hold office until noon on the first day of January, 1979 that is not a Sunday or holiday, and a successor shall be elected at the general election in 1978.

c. Each commissioner serving a term which, except for 66GA, ch 229, would have expired after January 1, 1979 but not later than December 31, 1980 shall hold office until noon on the first day of January, 1981 that is not a Sunday or holiday, and a successor shall be elected at the general election in 1980. [C39,§2603.06; C46,§160.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.5]

467A.6 Appointment, qualifications and tenure of commissioners. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall convene on the first day of January that is not a Sunday or holiday in each odd-numbered year. Those commissioners whose term of office begins on that day shall take the oath of office prescribed by section 63.10. The commissioners shall then organize by election of a chairman and a vice chairman.

The commissioners of the respective districts shall submit to the department such statements, estimates, budgets, and other information at such times and in such manner as the department may require.

A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services but he may be paid expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of his duties, if funds are available for that purpose.

The commissioners may call upon the attorney general of the state for such legal services as they may require. The commissioners may delegate to their chairman, to one or more commissioners or to one or more agents, or employees, such powers and duties as they may deem proper. The commissioners shall furnish to the department of soil conservation, upon request, copies of such ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, contracts, forms, and other documents as they shall adopt or employ, and such other information concerning their activities as it may require in the performance of its duties under this chapter.

The commissioners shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for all employees and officers who shall be entrusted with funds or property; shall provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all proceedings and of all resolutions, regulations, and orders issued or adopted; and shall provide for a biennial audit of the accounts of receipts and disbursements.

The commissioners may invite the legislative body of any municipality or county located near the territory comprised within the district to designate a representative to advise and consult with the commissioners of the district on all questions of program and policy which may affect the property, water supply, or other interests of such municipality or county. [C39,§2603.08; C46,§160.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.6]

467A.7 Powers of districts and commissioners. A soil conservation district organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have the following powers, in addition to others granted in other sections of this chapter:

1. To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating to the character of soil erosion and erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages, and the preventive and control measures needed, to publish the results of such surveys, investigations or research, and to disseminate information concerning such preventive and control measures; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of research activities, no district shall initiate any research program except in co-operation with the Iowa agricultural experiment station located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a co-operative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural experiment station and such district.

2. To conduct demonstrational projects within the district on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and co-operation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands, in order to demonstrate by example the means, methods, and measures by which soil and soil resources may be conserved, and soil erosion in the form of soil blowing and soil washing may be prevented and controlled; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of agricultural extension activities, no district shall initiate any demonstrational projects, except in co-operation with the Iowa agricultural extension service whose offices are located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a co-operative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural extension service and such district.

3. To carry out preventive and control measures within the district, including, but not limited to, crop rotations, engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, changes in use of land, and the measures listed in section 467A.2, on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and co-operation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district, upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands. Any approval or permits from the council required under other provisions of law shall be obtained by the district prior to initiation of any construction activity.

4. To co-operate, or enter into agreements with, and within the limits of appropriations duly made available to it by law, to furnish financial or other aid to any agency, governmental or otherwise, or any owner or occupier of lands within the district, in the carrying on of erosion-control and watershed protection and flood prevention operations within the district, subject to such conditions as the commissioners may deem necessary to advance the purposes of this chapter.

5. To obtain options upon and to acquire, by purchase, exchange, lease, gift, grant, bequest, devise or otherwise, any property, real or personal, or rights or interests therein; to maintain, administer, and improve any properties acquired, to receive income from such properties and to expend such income in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter; and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its property or interests therein in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

6. To make available on such terms as it shall prescribe, to landowners or occupiers within the district, agricultural and engineering machinery and equipment, fertilizer, lime, and such other material or equipment as will assist such landowners or occupiers to carry on operations upon their lands for the conservation of soil resources and for the prevention and control of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages.

7. To construct, improve, and maintain such structures as may be necessary or convenient for the performance of any of the operations authorized in this chapter. Any approval or permits from the council required under other provisions of law shall be obtained by the district prior to initiation of any construction activity.

8. To develop comprehensive plans for the conservation of soil resources and for the control and prevention of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages within the district, which plans shall specify in such detail as may be possible, the acts, procedures, performances, and avoidances which are necessary or desirable for the effectuation of such plans, including the specification of engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, cropping programs, tillage practices, and changes in use of land; and to publish such plans and information and bring them to the attention of owners and occupiers of lands within the district.

9. To sue and be sued in the name of the district; to have a seal, which seal shall be judicially noticed; to have perpetual succession unless terminated as hereinafter provided; to make and execute contracts and other instruments, necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers; to make, and from time to time amend and repeal, rules not inconsistent with this chapter, to carry into effect its purposes and powers.

10. To accept donations, gifts, and contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise, from the United States or any of its agencies, or from this state or any of its agencies, and to use or expend such moneys, services, materials, or other contributions in carrying on its operations.

11. As a condition to the extending of any benefits under this chapter to, or the performance of work upon, any lands not owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, the commissioners may require contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise to any operations conferring such benefits, and may require landowners or occupiers to enter into and perform such agreements or covenants as to the permanent use of such lands as will tend to prevent or control erosion thereon.

12. No provisions with respect to the acquisition, operation, or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to a district organized hereunder unless the legislature shall specifically so state.

13. After the formation of any district under the provisions of this chapter, all participation hereunder shall be purely voluntary, except as specifically stated herein.

14. Subject to the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to change the name of such soil conservation district.

15. To take notice of the conservancy district plan, and conform to the duly promulgated rules of the conservancy district or conservancy districts in which the soil conservation district is located; provided that this subsection shall not be construed to grant any authority not otherwise granted by law to the commissioners of soil conservation districts.

16. The commissioners shall, as a condition for the receipt of any state cost-sharing funds for permanent soil conservation practices, require the owner of the land on which the practices are to be established to covenant and file, in the office of the soil conservation district of the county in which the land is located, an agreement identifying the particular lands upon which the practices for which state cost-sharing funds are to be received will be established and providing that if the project is removed, altered, or modified so as to lessen its effectiveness without the consent of the commissioners, obtained in advance and based on guidelines drawn up by the state soil conservation committee, for a period of twenty years after the date of receiving payment, the owner of the land on which the practices have been so removed, altered or modified shall refund to the department of soil conservation the state cost-sharing funds used for the project, or for the portion of the project which has been removed, altered or modified so as to lessen its effectiveness. Such refunds shall be computed on a pro rata basis in accordance with guidelines drawn up by the state soil conservation committee in accordance with the age and anticipated remaining useful life of the project, and shall be reallocated to the district from which they were refunded to be used for conservation cost sharing. The commissioners shall assist the state soil conservation committee in the enforcement of this subsection. The agreement to refund shall not create a lien on the land, but shall be a charge personally against the owner of the land at the time of removal, alteration or modification which gives rise to the need for a refund. Each soil conservation district which has entered into agreements under this subsection shall file in the office of the county recorder a statement that there are in effect in that county certain agreements covenanted under this subsection which place upon owners of agricultural land the obligation to maintain permanent soil conservation practices established with public cost-sharing money, and that failure to do so may result in an obligation to refund a portion of the public cost-sharing money used to establish the practices. A seller of agricultural land with respect to which an agreement covenanted under this subsection is in effect, and who is not currently in violation of that agreement, shall upon request to the commissioners be furnished with a written statement that, as of the date of the statement, the seller has incurred no obligation to refund to the department of soil conservation the state cost-sharing funds obtained pursuant to the agreement.

17. To enter into special funding agreements which, notwithstanding subsection 4, provide for cost sharing up to sixty percent of the cost of a project including five or more contiguous farm units which have at least five hundred or more acres of farmland and which constitute at least seventy-five percent of the agricultural land lying within a watershed or sub-watershed, where the owners jointly agree to a watershed conservation plan in conjunction with their respective farm unit soil conservation plans.

18. To encourage local school districts to provide instruction in the importance of and in some of the basic methods of soil conservation, as a part of the course work relating to conservation of natural resources and environmental awareness required pursuant to section 257.25, subsections 3 and 4, and to offer technical assistance to schools in developing such instructional programs.

19. To make incentive payments to encourage summer construction of permanent soil and water conservation practices, provided that the commissioners of a soil conservation district shall not use state cost-sharing funds to pay such incentives in any fiscal year when requests which seek cost sharing for eligible permanent soil and water conservation practices, but which do not seek incentive payments under this subsection, are sufficient to use all of the state cost-sharing funds made available to the district for that year. Incentive payments made under this subsection may, notwithstanding subsection 4, provide for cost sharing up to sixty percent of the cost of establishing any permanent soil and water conservation practice where the establishment of that practice involves a construction project which begins after June 1 but before August 15 of any calendar year. Incentive payments under this subsection may also include, or may be limited to a pro rata amount, in accordance with rules of the department, to compensate for production loss on the area disturbed for construction of practices. [C39,§2603.09; C46,§160.7; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.7; 68GA, ch 1153,§3, 4]

467A.9 State agencies to co-operate. Agencies of this state which shall have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any state-owned lands, and of any county, or other governmental subdivision of the state, which shall have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any county-owned or other publicly owned lands, lying within the boundaries of any district organized hereunder, may co-operate to the fullest extent with the commissioners of such districts in the effectuation of programs and operations undertaken by the commissioners under the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §2603.11; C46,§160.9; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.9]

467A.10 Discontinuance of districts. At any time after five years after the organization of a district under the provisions of this chapter, any twenty-five owners of land lying within the boundaries of such district, but in no case less than twenty percent of the owners of land lying within such district, may file a petition with the state soil conservation committee praying that the operations of the district be terminated and the existence of the district discontinued. The committee may conduct such public meetings and public hearings upon such petition as may be necessary to assist in the consideration thereof. Within sixty days after such a petition has been received by the committee, the department shall give due notice of the holding of a referendum, and shall supervise such referendum, and issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct thereof, the question to be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For terminating the existence of the . . . . . (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)" and "Against terminating the existence of the . . . . . (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)" shall be printed, with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose discontinuance of such district. All owners of lands lying within the boundaries of the district shall be eligible to vote in such referendum. Only such landowners shall be eligible to vote. No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relating thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted.

When sixty-five percent of the landowners vote to terminate the existence of such district, the state soil conservation committee shall advise the commissioners to terminate the affairs of the district. The commissioners shall dispose of all property belonging to the district at public auction and shall pay over the proceeds of such sale to be covered into the state treasury. The commissioners shall thereupon file an application, duly verified, with the secretary of state for the discontinuance of such district, and shall transmit with such application the certificate of the state soil conservation committee setting forth the determination of the committee that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible. The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of and the proceeds paid over as in this section provided, and shall set forth a full accounting of such properties and proceeds of the sale. The secretary of state shall issue to the commissioners a certificate of dissolution and shall record such certificate in an appropriate book of record in his office.

Upon issuance of a certificate of dissolution under the provisions of this section, all ordinances and regulations theretofore adopted and in force within such districts shall be of no further force and effect. All contracts theretofore entered into, to which the district or commissioners are parties, shall remain in force and effect for the period provided in such contracts. The state soil conservation committee shall be substituted for the district or commissioners as party to such contracts. The committee shall be entitled to all benefits and subject to all liabilities under such contracts and shall have the same right and liability to perform, to require performance, and sue and be sued thereon, and to modify or terminate such contracts by mutual consent or otherwise, as the commissioners of the district would have had.

The state soil conservation committee shall not entertain petitions for the discontinuance of any district nor conduct referenda upon such petitions nor make determinations pursuant to such petitions in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, more often than once in five years. [C39,§2603.12; C46,§160.10; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.10]

Referred to in §467A.5

467A.11 Report to governor. The committee shall submit to the governor, no later than January 1 next preceding each biennial legislative session, a report which shall state the following: The number and acreage of districts in existence or in process of organization, together with an estimate of the number and probable acreage of the districts which may be organized during the ensuing biennial fiscal period; a statement of the balances of funds, if any, available to the committee as to the sums needed for its administrative and other expenses, and for allocation among the several districts during the ensuing biennial fiscal period. [C46,§160.11; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.11]

467A.12 Statement to comptroller. On or before September 1 next preceding each biennial legislative session, the state soil conservation committee shall submit to the state comptroller, on official estimate blanks furnished for such purposes, statements and estimates of the expenditure requirements for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium, and a statement of the balance of funds, if any, available to the committee, and the estimates of the committee as to the sums needed for the administrative and other expenses of the committee and department. [C46,§160.12; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.12]

SUBDISTRICTS

467A.13 Purpose of subdistricts. Subdistricts of a soil conservation district may be formed as hereinafter provided for the purposes of co-operating with conservancy districts and of carrying out watershed protection and flood prevention programs within the subdistrict but may not be formed solely for the purpose of establishing or taking over the operation of an existing drainage district. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.13; 68GA, ch 1154,§17]

467A.14 Petition to form. When the landowners in a proposed subdistrict desire that a subdistrict be organized, they shall file a petition with the commissioners of the soil conservation district. The area must be contiguous and in the same watershed but in no event shall it include any area located within the boundaries of an incorporated city. The petition shall set forth an intelligible description by congressional subdivision, or otherwise, of the land suggested for inclusion in the subdistrict and shall state whether the special annual tax or special benefit assessments will be used, or whether the use of both is contemplated. The petition shall contain a brief statement giving the reasons for organization, requesting that the proposed area be organized as a subdistrict and must be signed by sixty-five percent of the landowners in the proposed subdistrict. Land already in one subdistrict cannot be included in another. The soil conservation district commissioners shall review such petition and if found adequate shall arrange for a hearing thereon. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79,§467A.14]

467A.15 Notice and hearing. Within thirty days after such petition has been filed with the soil district commissioners, they shall fix a date, hour, and place for a hearing thereon and direct the secretary to cause notice to be given to the owners of each tract of land, or lot, within the proposed subdistrict as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, and to each lienholder, or encumbrancer, of any such lands as shown by the county records, and to all other persons whom it may concern, and without naming individuals all actual occupants of land in the proposed subdistrict, of the pendency and prayer of said petition and that all objections to establishment of said subdistrict for any reason must be made in writing and filed with the secretary of the soil conservation district at, or before, the time set for hearing. The soil conservation district commissioners shall consider and determine whether the operation of the subdistrict within the defined boundaries as proposed is desirable, practicable, feasible, and of necessity in the interest of health, safety, and public welfare. All interested parties shall have a right to attend such hearing and to be heard. The soil district commissioners may for good cause adjourn the hearing to a day certain which shall be announced at the time of adjournment and made a matter of record. If the soil district commissioners determine that the petition meets the requirements set forth herein and in section 467A.5, they shall declare that the subdistrict is duly organized and shall record such action in their official minutes together with an appropriate official name, or designation for the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.15]

467A.16 Publication of notice. The notice of hearing on the formation of a subdistrict shall be by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county (or district) the last of which shall be not less than ten days prior to the day set for the hearing on the petition. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher, and be on file with [the] secretary of the district at the time the hearing begins. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.16]

467A.17 Subdistrict in more than one district. If the proposed subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the petition may be presented to the commissioners of any one of such districts, and the commissioners of all such districts shall act jointly as a board of commissioners with respect to all matters concerning such subdistrict, including its formation. They shall organize as a single board for such purposes and shall designate its chairman, vice chairman, and secretary-treasurer to serve for terms of one year. Such a subdistrict shall be formed in the same manner and shall have the same powers and duties as a subdistrict formed in one soil conservation district. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.17]

467A.18 Authentication. Following the entry in the official minutes of the soil district commissioners of the creation of the subdistrict, the commissioners shall certify this fact on a separate form, authentic copies of which shall be recorded with the county recorder of each county in which any portion of the subdistrict lies, and with the department of soil conservation. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.18]

467A.19 Governing body. The commissioners of a soil conservation district in which the subdistrict is formed shall be the governing body of the subdistrict. When a subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the combined board of commissioners shall be the governing body. The governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint three trustees living within the subdistrict to assist with the administration of the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.19]

tion measures and proper farm plans from owners of not less than fifty percent of the lands situated in the subdistrict, a subdistrict shall have the authority to impose a special annual tax, the proceeds of which shall be used for the repayment of actual and necessary expenses incurred to organize the subdistrict, to acquire land or rights or interests therein by purchase or condemnation, repair, alteration, maintenance and operation of the present and future works of improvement within its boundaries.

On or before January 10 of each year its governing body shall make an estimate of the amount it deems necessary to be raised by such special tax for the ensuing year and transmit said estimate in dollars to the board of supervisors of the county in which the subdistrict lies.

If portions of the subdistrict are in more than one county, then the governing body, as hereinbefore designated in such event, after arriving at the estimate in dollars deemed necessary for the entire subdistrict shall ratably apportion such amount between the counties and transmit and certify the prorated portion to the respective boards of supervisors of each of the counties.

The board or boards of supervisors shall upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district make the necessary levy on the assessed valuation of all real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county to raise said amounts, but in no event to exceed one dollar and eight cents per thousand dollars of assessed value.

The special tax so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes with like penalty for delinquency, with the proceeds therefrom to be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairman and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.20]

467A.21 Condemnation by subdistrict. A subdistrict of a soil conservation district may condemn land or rights or interests therein to carry out the authorized purposes of the subdistrict. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.21]

467A.22 General powers applicable—warrants or bonds. A subdistrict organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have all of the powers of a soil conservation district in addition to other powers granted to the subdistrict in other sections of this chapter.

The governing body of the subdistrict, upon determination that benefits from works of improvement as set forth in the watershed work plan to be installed will exceed costs thereof, and that funds needed for purposes of the subdistrict require levy of a special benefit assessment as provided in section 467A.23, in lieu of the special annual tax as provided in section 467A.20, shall record its decision to use said taxing authority and shall have authority, upon majority vote of said governing body and with the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to issue warrants or bonds payable in not more than forty semiannual installments in connection therewith, and to pledge and assign the proceeds of the special benefit assessment and other revenues of the subdistrict as security therefor. Such warrants and bonds of indebtedness shall be general obligations of the subdistrict, exempt from all taxes, state and local, and in no event shall such warrants and bonds constitute an indebtedness of the soil conservation district or the state of Iowa. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.22]

ALTERNATE METHOD OF TAXATION FOR WATER-SHED PROTECTION AND FLOOD PREVENTION

467A.23 Agreement by fifty percent of landowners. After obtaining agreements to carry out recommended soil conservation measures and proper farm plans from owners of not less than fifty percent of the lands situated in the subdistrict, the governing body of the subdistrict shall have the authority to establish a special tax for the purpose of organization, construction, repair, alteration, enlargement, extension and operation of present and future works of improvement within the boundaries of said subdistrict. The governing body shall appoint three appraisers to assess benefits and classify the land affected by such improvements. One of such appraisers shall be a competent registered professional engineer and two of them shall be resident landowners of the county or counties in which the subdistrict is located but not living within nor owning or operating any lands included in said subdistrict.

The appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath of their qualifications and to perform the duties of classification of said lands, fix the percentages, benefits and apportion and assess the costs and expenses of construction of the said improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said appraisers or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.23]

467A.24 Assessment for improvements. At the time of appointing said appraisers, the governing body shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district, or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the governing body. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentage of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto.

The amount of benefit appraised to each forty acres of land within the subdistrict shall be determined by the improvements within said subdistrict based upon the work plan as agreed upon by the subdistrict. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.24; 68GA, ch 1154, §18]

467A.25 Report of appraisers. In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor's office. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.25]

467A.26 Hearing. The governing body shall fix a time for a hearing within sixty days upon receiving the report of the appraisers, and the governing body shall cause notice to be served upon each person not less than ten days before said hearing whose name appears as owner, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming him of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a subdistrict, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the governing body at or before the time set for such hearing. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.27]

that the appeal will come on for hearing thirty days following perfection of the appeal with allowances of additional time for good cause shown. This notice shall be accompanied by an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by the auditor conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against the appellant and to abide the orders of the court. He shall pay to the clerk the filing fee as provided by law in other cases. A failure to pay the filing fee or to file such petition shall be deemed a waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.31]

467A.32 Assessment certified. When the board or boards of supervisors shall receive a certification from the governing body of the district to make the necessary assessment on the real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county, this shall be construed as final action by the governing body. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.32]

Referred to in §467A 41

467A.33 Assessments transmitted. The governing body upon receiving the reports from three appointed appraisers and after holding the hearings shall transmit and certify the amounts of assessments to the respective boards of supervisors which upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district, make the necessary levy of such assessments as fixed by the governing body upon the land within such subdistrict and all assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A from that date payable annually except as hereafter provided as to cash payments therefor within a specified time. The assessment so levied shall be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers, identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairman and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict.

At no time will an assessment be made where the benefits accrued to the subdistrict do not exceed the cost of the improvements within the said subdistrict. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.33; 68GA, ch 1025, §75]

Each person or corporation shall have the right within twenty days after the levy of assessments to pay his or its assessment in full without interest.

If any levy of assessments is not sufficient to meet the cost and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, additional assessments may be made on the same classification as the previous ones. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.34]

467A.35 Installments. If the owner of any premises against which a levy exceeding twenty dollars has been made and certified shall, within thirty days from the date of such levy, agree in writing in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having a right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection as to the legality of his assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against his property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one half of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement and the remaining one half shall become due and payable one year from the date of filing such agreement. All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at a rate fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict, but not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than forty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict and interest at the rate fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict, not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A. The first installment of each assessment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date after the date of filing such agreement, unless the agreement is filed with the county auditor less than thirty days prior to such October semiannual tax paying date, in that event, the first installment shall become due and payable at the next succeeding October semiannual tax paying date. The second and each subsequent installment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date each year thereafter. All such installments shall be collected with interest accrued on the unpaid balance to the October semiannual tax paying date and as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.35; 68GA, ch 1025, §76]

Referred to in §467A 41

467A.36 Option by appellant. When an owner takes an appeal from the assessment against any of his land, the option to pay in installments whatever assessment is finally established against such land in said appeal shall continue, if within twenty days after the final determination of said appeal he shall file in the office of the auditor his written election to pay in installments, and within said period pay such installments as would have matured prior to that time if no appeal had been taken, together with all accrued interest on said assessment to the last preceding interest-paying date. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.36]

Referred to in §467A 41

467A.37 Status of classification. A classification of land for watershed purposes, when finally adopted, shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said subdistrict, except as provided in section 467A.38. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.37]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.38 New classification. After a subdistrict has been established and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, if the governing body shall find that the original assessments are not equitable as a basis for the expenses of any enlargement or extension thereof which may have become necessary, they shall order a new classification of all lands in said subdistrict by resolution, and appoint three appraisers, which shall meet the same requirements as set forth in section 467A.23.

Upon the completion of the reclassification, those affected by such reclassification shall have the right to appeal as hereinabove set forth. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.38]

Referred to in §467A.37, 467A.41

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.40 Compensation of appraisers. Persons appointed to appraise and make classifications of lands shall receive such compensation as the governing body may fix and in addition thereto, the necessary expenses of transportation of said persons while engaged in their work; such compensation and expenses shall be construed as part of the cost of the subdistrict which shall be included when considering classifications of lands within a subdistrict. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.40]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.41 Election of taxing methods. Subdistricts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall designate in the petition which of the taxing methods will be used or may stipulate that both methods are contemplated for use. Should the governing body of the subdistrict find it desirable to change from a special annual tax to special benefit assessments it may elect to do so and shall institute proceedings described in sections 467A.23 through 467A.40 and may divert any moneys already collected under section 467A.20, for the purposes authorized in this chapter. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.41]

467A.42 Soil and water conservation practices. In addition to the definitions established by section 467A.3, as used in sections 467A.43 to 467A.53 and sections 467A.61 to 467A.66, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Soil loss limit” means the maximum amount of soil loss due to erosion by water or wind, expressed in terms of tons per acre per year, which the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts shall determine is acceptable in order to meet the objectives expressed in section 467D.1.

2. “Soil and water conservation practices” means any of the practices designated in or pursuant to this subsection which serve to prevent erosion of soil by wind or water, in excess of applicable soil loss limits, from land used for agricultural or horticultural purposes only.

a. “Permanent soil and water conservation practices” means planting of perennial grasses, legumes, shrubs, or trees, the establishment of grassed waterways, and the construction of terraces, or other permanent soil and water practices approved by the state soil conservation committee.

b. “Temporary soil and water conservation practices” means planting of annual or biennial crops, use of strip-cropping, contour planting, minimum or mulch tillage, and any other cultural practices approved by the state soil conservation committee.

3. “Erosion control practices” means:

a. The construction or installation, and maintenance, of such structures or devices as are necessary to carry to a suitable outlet from the site of any building housing four or more residential units, any commercial or industrial development or any publicly or privately owned recreational or service facility of any kind, not served by a central storm sewer system, any water which:

(1) Would otherwise cause erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limit; and

(2) Does not carry nor constitute sewage, industrial waste, or other waste as defined by section 455B.2.

b. The employment of temporary devices or structures, temporary seeding, fibre mats, plastic, straw, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limits from the site of, or land directly affected by, the construction of any public or private street, road or highway, any residential, commercial, or industrial building or development, or any publicly or privately owned recreational or service facility of any kind, at all times prior to completion of such construction.

c. The establishment and maintenance of vegetation upon the right of way of any completed portion of any public street, road, or highway, or the construction or installation thereon of structures or devices, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion from the right of way in excess of the applicable soil loss limits.

4. “Agricultural land” has the meaning assigned that term by section 172C.1.

5. “Farm unit” means a single contiguous tract of agricultural land, or two or more adjacent tracts of agricultural land, located within a single soil conservation district, upon which farming operations are being conducted by a person who owns or is purchasing or renting all of such land, or by his or her tenant or tenants. If a landowner has multiple farm tenants, the land on which farming operations are being conducted by each tenant shall constitute a separate farm unit. This definition does not prohibit land which is within a single soil conservation district and is owned or being purchased by the same person, or is being rented by the same tenant, from being treated as two or more farm units if the commissioners of the soil conservation district deem it preferable to do so.

6. "Conservation folder" means compiled information concerning the topography, soil composition, natural or artificial drainage characteristics and other pertinent factors concerning a particular farm unit, which are necessary to the preparation of a sound and equitable conservation agreement for that farm unit. The specific items to be contained in a conservation folder shall be prescribed by administrative rules of the department of soil conservation. The department shall provide by rule that an updated farm plan prepared for a particular farm unit within ten years prior to the effective date of this subsection shall be considered an adequate replacement for the conservation folder for that farm unit.

7. "Farm unit soil conservation plan" means a plan jointly developed by the owner and, if appropriate, the operator of a farm unit and the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which that farm unit is located, based on the conservation folder for that farm unit and identifying those permanent soil and water conservation practices and temporary soil and water conservation practices the use of which may be expected to prevent soil loss by erosion from that farm unit in excess of the applicable soil loss limit or limits. The plan shall if practicable identify alternative practices by which this objective may be attained.

8. "Conservation agreement" means a commitment by the owner or operator of a farm unit to implement a farm unit soil conservation plan or, with the approval of the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which the farm unit is located, a portion of a farm unit soil conservation plan. The commitment shall be conditioned on the furnishing by the soil conservation district of such technical or planning assistance in the establishment of, and cost sharing or other financial assistance for establishment and maintenance of the soil and water conservation practices necessary to implement the plan, or a portion of the plan. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.42; 68GA, ch 1153, §5, 6]

Referred to in §467A.44

467A.43 Duty of property owners. To conserve the fertility, general usefulness, and value of the soil and soil resources of this state, and to prevent the injurious effects of soil erosion, it is hereby made the duty of the owners of real property in this state to establish and maintain soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, as required by the regulations of the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts. As used in this section, "owners of real property in this state" includes each state government agency, each political subdivision of the state and each agency of such a political subdivision which has under its control publicly owned land, including but not limited to agricultural land, forests, parks, the grounds of state educational, penal and human service institutions, public highways, roads and streets, and other public rights of way. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.43; 68GA, ch 1153, §7]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.48

467A.44 Rules by commissioners—scope. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall, with approval of and within time limits set by administrative order of the state soil conservation committee, adopt such reasonable regulations as are deemed necessary to establish a soil loss limit or limits for the district and provide for the implementation of the limit or limits, and may subsequently amend or repeal their regulations as they deem necessary. The state soil conservation committee shall review the soil loss limit regulations adopted by the soil conservation districts at least once every five years, and shall recommend any changes in the regulations of any soil conservation district which the state committee deems necessary to assure that the district's soil loss limits are reasonable and attainable. The commissioners may:

1. Classify land in the district on the basis of topography, soil characteristics, current use, and other factors affecting propensity to soil erosion.

2. Establish different soil loss limits for different classes of land in the district if in their judgment and that of the state soil conservation committee a lower soil loss limit should be applied to some land than can reasonably be applied to other land in the district, it being the intent of the general assembly that no land in the state be assigned a soil loss limit that cannot reasonably be applied to such land.

3. Require the owners of real property in the district to employ either soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, and:

a. May not specify the particular practices to be employed so long as such owners voluntarily comply with the applicable soil loss limits established for the district.

b. May specify two or more approved soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, one of which shall be employed by the landowner to bring erosion from land under his control within the applicable soil loss limit of the district when an administrative order is issued to the landowner.

c. In no case may the commissioners require:

(1) The employment of erosion control practices as defined in section 467A.42, subsection 3, on land used in good faith for agricultural or horticultural purposes only.

(2) The employment of soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices on that portion of any public street, road or highway completed or under construction within the corporate limits of any city, which is or will become the traveled or surfaced portion of such street, road, or highway.

(3) That any owner or operator of agricultural land refrain from fall plowing of land on which he intends to raise a crop during the next succeeding growing season, however on those lands which are prone to excessive wind erosion the commissioners may require that reasonable temporary measures be taken to minimize the likelihood of wind erosion so long as such measures do not unduly increase the cost of operation of the farm on which the land is located. However, fall plowing of soil which is commonly known as gumbo shall always be permitted. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.44; 68GA, ch 1153, §8]

467A.45 Submission of rules to committee—hearing. Regulations which the commissioners propose to adopt, amend, or repeal shall be submitted to the state soil conservation committee, in such form as the committee shall prescribe, for its approval. The committee may approve the regulations as submitted, or with such amendments as it deems necessary. The commissioners shall thereafter publish notice of hearing on the proposed regulations, as approved, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, setting a date and time not less than ten nor more than thirty days after such publication when a hearing on the proposed regulations will be held at a specified place. The notice shall include the full text of the proposed regulations or shall state that the proposed regulations are on file and available for review at the office of the affected soil conservation district. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.45]

Referred to in §467A 42, 467A 48

467A.46 Conduct of hearing. At the hearing, the commissioners or their designees shall explain, in reasonable detail, the reasons why adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulations is deemed necessary or advisable. Any landowner, or any occupant of land who would be affected by the regulations, shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard for or against the proposed regulations. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioners shall announce and enter of record their decision whether to adopt or modify the proposed regulations. Any modification must be approved by the state soil conservation committee, which may at its discretion order the commissioners to republish the regulations and hold another hearing in the manner prescribed by this chapter. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.46]

Referred to in §467A 42, 467A 48

467A.47 Inspection of land on complaint. The commissioners of any soil conservation district shall inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the district, upon receipt of a written and signed complaint, from an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment, that soil erosion is occurring thereon in excess of the limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations. If they find that sediment damages are occurring to property owned or occupied by the person filing the complaint and that such excess soil erosion is so occurring on the land inspected, they shall issue an administrative order to the landowner or landowners of record, and to the occupant of the land if known to the commissioners, describing said land and stating as nearly as possible the extent to which soil erosion thereon exceeds the limits established by the district's regulations. The order shall be delivered either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom it is directed, and shall:

1. In the case of erosion occurring on the site of any construction project or similar undertaking involving the removal of all or a major portion of the vegetation or other natural or man-made cover, exposing bare soil directly to water or wind, state a time not more than five days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when work necessary to establish or maintain erosion control practices must be commenced, and a time not more than thirty days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed.

2. In all other cases, state a time not more than six months after service or mailing of the notice of the order, by which work needed to establish or maintain the necessary soil and water conservation practices or erosion control measures must be commenced, and a time not more than one year after the service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed, unless the requirements of the order are superseded by the provisions of section 467A.48. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.47]

Referred to in §467A 42, 467A 48, 467A 49, 467A 52, 467A 61, 467A 64, 467A 66

467A.48 Application for public cost-sharing funds. No owner or occupant of land in this state shall be required to establish any new permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practice unless public or other cost-sharing funds have been specifically approved for such land and actually made available to the owner or occupant in an amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of the cost of any permanent soil and water conservation practice, or an amount set by the state soil conservation committee for any temporary soil and water conservation practice, except as otherwise provided by law with respect to land classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. The state soil conservation committee shall review these requirements once each year, and may authorize soil conservation district commissioners to make the mandatory establishment of any specified soil and water conservation practice in any particular case conditional on a higher proportion of public cost sharing than is required by this section. When the commissioners have been so authorized, they shall, in determining the amount of cost-sharing for establishment of a specified soil and water conservation practice to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, consider the extent to which the practice will contribute benefits to the public in relation to the benefits that will accrue to the individual owner or occupant of the land on which the practice is to be established. Evidence that an application for public or other cost-sharing funds, from a source or sources having authority to pay a portion of the cost of work needed to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, has been submitted to the proper officer or agency shall constitute commencement of such work within the meaning of sections 467A.43 to 467A.53. Upon receiving evidence of the submission of such application, the commissioners shall forward to the officer or agency to which the application was made a written request to receive notification of the disposition of such application. When notified of the approval of such application, the commissioners shall issue to the same parties who received the original administrative order, or their successors in interest, a supplementary order, to be delivered in the same manner as provided by sections 467A.43 to 467A.53 for delivery of original administrative orders. The supplementary order shall state a time, not more than six months after approval of the application for public cost-sharing funds, by which the work needed to comply with the original administrative order shall actually be commenced, and a time thereafter when such work is to be satisfactorily completed. If feasible, that time shall be within one year after the date of the supplementary order, but the owner of land on which a soil and water conservation practice is being established under this section shall not be required to incur a cost therefor in any one calendar year which exceeds ten dollars per acre for each acre of land belonging to that owner and located in the county containing the land on which the required practice is being established or in counties contiguous thereto. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.48; 68GA, ch 115, §1, ch 1153, §9]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.47, 467A.49, 467A.61, 467D.23

467A.49 Petition for court order. The commissioners shall petition the district court for a court order requiring immediate compliance with an administrative order previously issued by the commissioners as provided in section 467A.47, if:

1. The work necessary to comply with the administrative order is not commenced on or before the date specified in such order, or in any supplementary order subsequently issued as provided in section 467A.48, unless in the judgment of the commissioners the failure to commence or complete the work as required by the administrative order is due to factors beyond the control of the person or persons to whom such order is directed and the person or persons can be relied upon to commence and complete the necessary work at the earliest possible time.

2. Such work is not being performed with due diligence, or is not satisfactorily completed by the date specified in the administrative order, or when completed does not reduce soil erosion from such land below the limits established by the soil conservation district's regulations.

3. The person or persons to whom the administrative order is directed advise the commissioners that they do not intend to commence or complete such work. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.49]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.48, 467A.50

467A.50 Burden—court order. In any action brought under section 467A.49, the burden of proof shall be upon the commissioners to show that soil erosion is in fact occurring in excess of the applicable soil loss limits and that the defendant has not established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices in compliance with the soil conservation district's regulations. With respect to construction, repair, or maintenance of any public street, road, or highway, evidence that soil erosion control standards equivalent to or in excess of those currently imposed by the United States government on the project or like projects involving use of federal funds shall create a presumption of compliance with the applicable soil loss limit. Upon receiving satisfactory proof, the court shall issue an order directing the landowner or landowners to comply with the administrative order previously issued by the commissioners. The court may modify such administrative order if deemed necessary. Notice of the court order shall be given either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom the order is directed, who may within thirty days from the date of the court order appeal to the supreme court. Any person who fails to comply with a court order issued pursuant to this section within the time specified in such order, unless the order has been stayed pending an appeal, shall be deemed in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.50]

467A.51 Entering on land. The commissioners and their authorized agents or employees may enter upon any private or public property, except private dwellings, at any reasonable time to classify land by soil sampling or other appropriate methods or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring on the property in violation of the district's regulations.

1. If the owner or occupant of any property refuses admittance, or if prior to such refusal the commissioners demonstrate the need for a warrant, the commissioners may make an application under oath or affirmation to the district court of the county in which the property is located for the issuance of a search warrant.

2. In the application the commissioners shall state that entry on the premises is mandated by the laws of this state or that entry is needed to conduct soil sampling necessary to classify soil in the district as specified in section 467A.44, subsection 1, or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring on the property in violation of the district's regulations. The application shall describe the area or premises, give the date of the last known investigation or sampling, give the date and time of the proposed inspection, declare the need for such inspection, recite that notice of desire to make an inspection has been given to affected persons and that admission was refused if that be the fact, and state that the inspection has no purpose other than to carry out the purpose of the statute, ordinance or regulation pursuant to which the inspection is to be made.

3. The court may issue a search warrant, after examination of the applicant and any witnesses, if the court is satisfied that there is probable cause to believe the existence of the allegations in the application.

4. In soil sampling and making investigations pursuant to a warrant, the commissioners must execute the warrant in a reasonable manner within the time period specified in the warrant. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.51]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.48

467A.52 Information on siltation by district board. When the board of any conservancy district informs the commissioners of a soil conservation district that the conservancy district is unable to proceed with construction of a planned internal improvement, because it has been found that the internal improvement would not be adequately protected against siltation due entirely or partially to failure to establish or maintain soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices within the soil conservation district, the commissioners of the soil conservation district shall determine as far as possible the particular lands where soil erosion which prevents the conservancy district from constructing the internal improvement is occurring and proceed in the same manner as when a complaint is received under section 467A.47. If after six months, the commissioners of the soil conservation district fail or refuse to control the soil erosion which prevents the conservancy district from constructing the internal improvement, the conservancy district directors may petition the district court of the county in which such soil conservation district is located for a court order directing the commissioners to proceed at once to control such erosion. The court shall afford the commissioners or their representative an opportunity to appear and show cause why such order should not be issued. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.52]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.48

467A.53 Co-operation with other agencies. Soil conservation districts are hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the federal government or any agency thereof, as provided by state law, or with the state of Iowa or any agency thereof, any other soil conservation district or conservancy district, or other political subdivision of this state, for co-operation in preventing, controlling, or attempting to prevent or control, soil erosion. Soil conservation districts may accept, as provided by state law, any money disbursed for soil erosion control purposes by the federal government or any agency thereof, and expend such money for the purposes for which it was received. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467A.53]

Referred to in §467A.42, 467A.48

467A.54 to 467A.60 Reserved.

467A.61 Discretionary inspection by commissioners—actions upon certain findings.

1. In addition to the authority granted by section 467A.47, the commissioners of any soil conservation district may inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the district on which they have reasonable grounds to believe that soil erosion is occurring in excess of the limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations. If the commissioners find from an inspection conducted under authority of either section 467A.47 or this section that soil erosion is occurring on that land in excess of the applicable soil loss limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations, they shall send notice of that finding to the landowner or landowners of record, and to the occupant of the land if known to the commissioners. The notice shall describe the land affected and shall state as nearly as possible the extent to which soil erosion from that land exceeds the applicable soil loss limits.

a. If the commissioners find that the excessive erosion described in the notice is not causing sediment damage to property owned or occupied by any person other than the owner or occupant of the land on which the excessive soil erosion is occurring, and that the rate of the excessive erosion is less than twice the applicable soil loss limit, the notice required by this subsection shall include or be accompanied by information regarding financial or other assistance which the commissioners are able to make available to the owner or occupant of the land to aid in achieving compliance with the applicable soil loss limits.

b. If the commissioners find that the excessive soil erosion described in the notice is not causing sediment damage to property owned or occupied by any person other than the owner or occupant of the land on which it is occurring, but that the erosion is occurring at a rate equal to or greater than twice the applicable soil loss limit, the notice shall so state, shall include or be accompanied by the information required by paragraph "a" of this subsection, and shall be delivered by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom the notice is directed. A notice given under this paragraph shall also include or be accompanied by information explaining the provisions of subsection 2.

2. Beginning January 1, 1985, or five years after the completion of the conservation folder for a particular farm unit pursuant to this section, whichever date is later, the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which that farm unit is located may petition the district court for an appropriate order with respect to that farm unit if its owner or occupant has been sent a notice by the commissioners under subsection 1, paragraph "b" for three or more consecutive years. The commissioners' petition shall seek a court order which states a time not more than six months after the date of the order when the owner or occupant must commence, and a time when he or she must complete the steps necessary to comply with the order. The time allowed to complete the establishment of any temporary soil and water conservation practice employed to comply or advance toward compliance with the court's order shall be not more than one year after the date of that order, and the time allowed to complete the establishment of any permanent soil and water conservation practice employed to comply with the court's order shall be not more than five years after the date of that order. The provisions of section 467A.48 shall apply to a court order issued under this subsection. The steps required of the farm unit owner or operator by the court order shall be those which are necessary to do one of the following:

a. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with its farm unit soil conservation plan, if such a plan had been agreed upon prior to the time the commissioners petitioned for the order.

b. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with a plan developed for that farm unit by the commissioners, in accordance with guidelines established by the department of soil conservation, and presented to the court as a part of the commissioners' petition, if a farm unit soil conservation plan has not previously been agreed upon for that farm unit. A plan presented to the court by the commissioners under this paragraph shall specify as many alternative approved soil and water conservation practices as feasible, among which the owner or occupant of the farm unit may choose in taking the steps necessary to comply with the court's order.

c. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with a soil conservation plan developed by the owner or occupant of that farm unit as an alternative to the proposed soil conservation plan developed by the commissioners, if the owner or occupant so petitions the court and the court finds that the owner or occupant's plan will bring the farm unit into conformity with the applicable soil loss limits of the district. [68GA, ch 1153,§10]

467A.62 Duties of commissioners and of owners and occupants of agricultural land—restrictions on use of cost-sharing funds.

1. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall seek to implement or to assist in implementing the following requirements:

a. Each farm unit shall be furnished a conservation folder by the department of soil conservation, acting through the soil conservation district in which the farm unit is located, not later than January 1, 1985, or as soon thereafter as adequate funding is available to permit completion of a conservation folder for every farm unit in the state. The department shall provide by rule that an updated farm plan prepared for a particular farm unit within ten years prior to the effective date of this subsection shall be considered an adequate replacement for the conservation folder for that farm unit. Upon completion of the conservation folder for a particular farm unit, the district shall send the owner of that farm unit, and also the operator of the farm unit if known by the commissioners to be other than the owner, a letter offering that person or those persons a copy of the folder. The district shall keep a record of the date the folder is completed and the letter is sent. The folder shall be updated from time to time by the district as it deems necessary.

b. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall complete preparation of a farm unit soil conservation plan for each farm unit within the district, not later than January 1, 1985 or five years after completion of the conservation folder for that farm unit, whichever date is later, or as soon thereafter as adequate funding is available to permit compliance with this requirement. The commissioners shall make every reasonable effort to consult with the owner and, if appropriate, with the operator of that farm unit, and to prepare the plan in a form which is acceptable to that person or those persons. The plan shall be drawn up and completed without expense to the owner or operator of the farm unit, except that the owner or operator shall not be reimbursed for the value of his or her own time devoted to participation in the preparation of the plan. If the commissioners' plan is unacceptable to the owner or operator of the farm unit, that person or those persons may prepare an alternative farm unit soil conservation plan identifying permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practices which may be expected to achieve compliance with the soil loss limit or limits applicable to that farm unit, and submit that plan to the soil conservation district commissioners for their review.

c. Within one year after completion of a farm unit soil conservation plan for a particular farm unit which is acceptable both to the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which the farm unit is located and to the owner and, if appropriate, to the operator of that farm unit, the commissioners shall offer to enter into a soil conservation agreement with the owner, and also with the operator if appropriate, based on the mutually acceptable farm unit soil conservation plan.

2. State cost-sharing funds shall not be made available for use on a farm unit with respect to which no conservation agreement is in effect by January 1, 1986, or one year after the completion of the farm unit soil conservation plan for that farm unit by the soil conservation district, whichever date is later. The restriction imposed by this subsection shall not apply to any farm unit with respect to which an administrative order or a court order to comply with applicable soil loss limits has been issued as provided by this chapter. [68GA, ch 1153,§11]

467A.63 Right of purchaser of agricultural land to obtain information. A prospective purchaser of an interest in agricultural land located in this state is entitled to obtain from the seller, or from the office of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, a copy of the most recently updated conservation folder and of any farm unit soil conservation plan, developed pursuant to section 467A.62, subsection 1, paragraph "b", which are applicable to the agricultural land proposed to be purchased. A prospective purchaser of an interest in agricultural land located in this state shall be entitled to obtain additional copies of either or both of the documents referred to in this subsection from the office of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, promptly upon request, at a fee not to exceed the cost of reproducing them. Each person who identifies himself or herself to the commissioners or staff of a soil conservation district as a prospective purchaser of agricultural land in the district shall be given information, prepared in accordance with rules of the department of soil conservation, which clearly explains the provisions of section 467A.65. [68GA, ch 1153,§12]

Referred to in §467A.42

467A.64 Erosion control plans required for certain projects.

1. When a land disturbing activity is to occur as a part of a project for which a permit is required<sup>d</sup> by a political subdivision which has adopted a building code pursuant to chapter 103A or zoning ordinances pursuant to chapter 358A or 414, the required permit for the project causing the land disturbing activity shall not be issued unless there is on file with the permit issuing authority a soil erosion control plan which covers the proposed project and is approved by the soil conservation district commissioners.

2. For the purposes of this section, "land disturbing activity" means a land change such as the tilling, clearing, grading, excavating, transporting or filling of land which may result in soil erosion from water or wind and the movement of sediment and sediment related pollutants into the waters of the state or onto lands in the state but does not include the following:

a. Tilling, planting or harvesting of agricultural, horticultural or forest crops.

b. Preparation for single-family residences separately built unless in conjunction with multiple construction in subdivision development.

c. Minor activities such as home gardens, landscaping, repairs and maintenance work.

- d. Surface or deep mining.
  - e. Installation of public utility lines and connections, fence posts, sign posts, telephone poles, electric poles and other kinds of posts or poles.
  - f. Septic tanks and drainage fields unless they are to serve a building whose construction is a land disturbing activity.
  - g. Construction and repair of the tracks, right of way, bridges, communication facilities and other related structures of a railroad.
  - h. Emergency work to protect life or property.
  - i. Disturbed land areas of less than ten thousand square feet unless a political subdivision by ordinance establishes a smaller exception or establishes conditions for this exception.
  - j. The construction, relocation, alteration or maintenance of public roads.
3. If the permit issuing authority determines that a land disturbing activity is not being conducted in compliance with the soil erosion control plan, the permit issuing authority shall file a written and signed complaint with the soil conservation district commissioners. The complaint shall have the same effect and validity as a complaint filed by an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment pursuant to section 467A.47. The soil conservation district commissioners may issue an administrative order as provided in that section to the person conducting the land disturbing activity. [68GA, ch 1153,§13]

Referred to in §467A.42

1. It is the intent of this Act* that, effective January 1, 1981, each tract of agricultural land which has not been plowed or used for growing row crops at any time within fifteen years prior to that date, shall for purposes of this section be considered classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. If any tract of land so classified is thereafter plowed or used for growing row crops, the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the land is located shall not approve use of state cost-sharing funds for establishing permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practices on that tract of land in an amount greater than one-half the amount of cost-sharing funds which would be available for that land if it were not considered classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. The restriction imposed by this section shall apply even if an administrative order or court order has been issued requiring establishment of soil and water conservation practices on that land. The commissioners may waive the restriction imposed by this section if they determine in advance that the purpose of plowing or row cropping land classified as land under conservation cover is to revitalize permanent pasture and that the land will revert to permanent pasture within two years after it is plowed.

2. When receiving an application for state cost-sharing funds to pay a part of the cost of establishing a permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practice, the commissioners of the soil conservation district to which the application is submitted shall require the applicant to state in writing whether, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, the land on which the proposed practice will be established is land considered to be classified as agricultural land under conservation cover, as defined in subsection 1. An applicant who knowingly makes a false statement of material facts or who falsely denies knowledge of material facts in completing the written statement required by this subsection commits a simple misdemeanor and, in addition to the penalty prescribed therefor by law, shall be required to repay to the department of soil conservation any cost-sharing funds made available to the applicant in reliance on the false statement or false denial. 467A.66 Procedure when commissioner is complainant. A soil conservation district commissioner who is an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment has the same right as any other person in like circumstances to file a complaint under section 467A.47, however a commissioner who is the complainant shall not vote on the question whether, on the basis of the inspection made pursuant to the complaint, the commissioners shall issue an administrative order under section 467A.47. 467B.1 Authority of board. Whenever any county, soil conservation district, subdistrict of a soil con-

gage or participate in any project for flood or erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, in cooperation with the federal government, or any department or agency thereof, the counties in which said project shall be carried on shall have the jurisdiction, power, and authority through the board of supervisors to construct, operate and maintain said project on lands under the control or jurisdiction of the county whenever dedicated to county use, or to furnish financial and other assistance in connection with said projects. Such flood, soil erosion control, and watershed improvement projects shall be presumed to be for the protection of the tax base of the county, for the protection of public roads and lands, and for the protection of the public health, sanitation, safety, and general welfare. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.1]

467B.2 Federal aid. Any county may, in accordance with provisions of this chapter, accept federal funds for aid in any project for flood or soil erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, and may co-operate with the federal government or any department or agency thereof, soil conservation districts, subdistrict of a soil conservation district, conservancy district, political subdivision of the state, or other local agency, and the county may assume such proportion of the cost of the project as deemed appropriate, and may assume the maintenance cost of the same on lands under the control or jurisdiction of the county as will not be discharged by federal aid or grant. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.2]

See also §467B.12

467B.3 Co-operation. The counties and soil conservation districts, subdistricts of soil conservation districts concerned, and conservancy districts, shall advise and consult with each other, upon the request of any of them or any affected landowners, and shall be authorized to co-operate with each other or with other state subdivisions, or instrumentalities, and affected landowners, as well as with the federal government or any department or agency thereof, to construct, operate, and maintain suitable projects for flood or soil erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water on public roads or other public lands or other land granted county use. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.3]

467B.4 Structures or levees. When structures or levees necessary for flood or soil erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, are constructed on county roads, the cost in total or in part shall be considered a part of the cost of road construction. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.4]

467B.5 Maintenance cost. Where construction of projects has been completed by the soil conservation district, subdistricts of soil conservation districts, conservancy districts, political subdivisions of the state, or other local agencies, or the federal government, or any department or agency thereof on private lands under the easement granted to the county, only the cost of maintenance may be assumed by the county. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.5]

467B.6 Estimate. In the proceedings to establish such a project the government engineer shall set forth in his report separately from other items, the amount of the cost of construction on county property and on private lands, and his estimate of the cost of the maintenance of the same.

If the plan is approved by all co-operating agencies and the project established as a flood or erosion control project the board of supervisors shall make a written record of any such co-operative arrangement and may use such part of the funds of the county now authorized by law and by this chapter as may be necessary to pay the amount agreed upon toward the construction, maintenance and cost of such project. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.6]

467B.7 Projects on private land. Any flood or soil erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, projects built on private land with federal or other funds when dedicated to the county use, shall be maintained in the same manner as its own county-owned or controlled property. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.7]

467B.8 Conservation commissioners. In counties where soil conservation districts exist the commissioners in said county shall be responsible for the inspection of all flood and erosion control structures built on private land under easement to the county; shall furnish such technical assistance as they may have available in making estimates of needed repairs without cost to the county, and shall report any needed repair and the nature thereof to the county board of supervisors. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.8]

467B.9 Tax. The county board of supervisors may annually levy a tax not to exceed six and three-fourths cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of all agricultural lands in the county, the same to be used to acquire land or rights or interests therein by purchase or condemnation, and for repair, alteration, maintenance, and operation of the present and future works of improvement built on lands under the control or jurisdiction of the county, as provided for in this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.9]

467B.10 Assumption of obligations. This chapter contemplates that actual direction of the project, or projects, and the actual work done in connection therewith, will be assumed by the soil conservation district, subdistrict of a soil conservation district, conservancy district, or by the federal government and that the county or other state subdivisions or instrumentalities jointly will meet the obligation required for federal co-operation and may make proper commitment for the care and maintenance of the project after its completion for the general welfare of the public and residents of the respective counties. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.10]

467B.11 Highway law applicable. The counties in maintaining the structures or improvements made under such a project shall do so in a like manner and under like procedure as that used in the maintenance of its highways. Any co-operative agreements with other state subdivisions or instrumentalities shall conform with such an agreement as to the proportion of maintenance cost. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.11]

Constitutionality, 52GA, ch 102, §12

467B.12 Payments from federal government. Whenever there shall be payable by the federal government to counties or school districts of the state any sums of money because of the fact that such school districts or counties are entitled to a share of the receipts from the operation of the federal government of flood control projects within any county of the state, such payments shall be payable to the county treasurer of any county in which such payments become due. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.12]

See also §467B 2

467B.13 Allocation to secondary road funds. Upon receipt of any such payments or payment by the county treasurer twenty-five percent of such amount shall be credited to the secondary road funds of the counties which are principally affected by the construction of such federal flood control projects, and the board of supervisors shall determine which roads of the county are deemed to be principally affected and the amounts which shall be expended from these funds derived from the federal government on such roads. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.13]

467B.14 Allocation. Sixty-five percent of any such payments or payment received from the federal government shall be distributed to the general fund of the school districts of the county after the county auditor has determined the districts which are principally affected by the federal flood control project involved in an amount deemed to be the equitable share of each such district and the amount allocated to each school district shall be paid over to the treasurer of such school district.

The county auditor shall certify to the executive council of the state the amounts allocated to each school district in the previous year, on January 2 of the following year. The executive council of the state shall deduct this amount from any tax free land reimbursement claim filed that year under section 284.4*; except that in no case shall the deduction result in an amount less than the total of the tax free land reimbursement plus any benefits payable to the school district other than the amounts specified in this paragraph. The remaining ten percent of any such payment received by the county treasurer from the federal government, or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary by the board of supervisors, shall be allocated to the local fire departments of the unincorporated villages, townships and cities of the county which are principally affected by the federal flood control project involved, to be paid and prorated among them as determined by the board of supervisors. If the funds prorated to local fire departments in any county are less than ten percent of the total county share of such federal payments for any year, the amount which exceeds such prorations shall revert back to and be divided equally between the secondary road fund and the local school district fund. *Ch 284, Code 1973, repealed by 65GA, ch 258, §16

467B.15 Taxes canceled. The treasurer of any county wherein is situated any land acquired by the federal government for flood control projects is hereby authorized to cancel any taxes or tax assessments against any such land so acquired where the tax has been extended but has not become a lien thereon at the time of the acquisition thereof. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467B.15]

CHAPTER 467C

SOIL CONSERVATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICTS

Referred to in §111A 4(9), 455 22

- 467C.1 Presumption of benefit.
- 467C.2 Board of supervisors to establish districts—strip coal mining.
- 467C.3 Combination of functions.

- 467C.4 Old districts combined.
- 467C.5 Approval of commissioners.
- 467C.6 Chapters made applicable.

467C.1 Presumption of benefit. The conservation of the soil resources of the state of Iowa, the proper control of water resources of the state and the prevention of damage to property and lands through the control of floods, the drainage of surface waters or the protection of lands from overflow shall be presumed to be a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare and essential to the economic well-being of the state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467C.1]

467C.2 Board of supervisors to establish districts—strip coal mining. The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, subject to the provisions of this chapter, districts having for their purpose soil conservation and the control of flood waters and to cause to be constructed as hereinafter provided, such improvements and facilities as shall be deemed essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control. Such board shall also have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, in the same manner that the districts hereinabove referred to are established, districts having for their purpose soil conservation in mining areas within the county, and provide that anyone engaged in removing the surface soil over any bed or strata of coal in such district for the purpose of obtaining such coal shall replace the surface soil as nearly as practicable to its original position, and provide that, upon abandonment of such removal operation, all surface soil shall be so replaced. This section shall apply only to surface soil so removed after July 4, 1949, and then only if it is essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control within the purview of this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467C.2]

467C.4 Old districts combined. If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall desire to include in the activities of such district soil conservation or flood control projects, the board upon petition, as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall establish a new district covering and including such old district and improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed only against the

467C.5 Approval of commissioners. No district shall be established by any board of supervisors under this chapter unless the organization of such district is approved by the commissioners of any soil conservation district established under the provisions of chapter 467A and which is included all or in part within such district, nor shall any such district be established without the approval of the state conservation commission and the Iowa natural resources council. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §467C.5]

467C.6 Chapters made applicable. In the organization, operation and financing of districts established under this chapter, the provisions of chapters 455 and 456 to 467 shall apply.

Wherever any of the provisions of said chapters refer to the word "drainage", the word shall be deemed to include in its meaning soil erosion and flood control or any combination of drainage, flood control and soil erosion control. Referred to in §467A.3, 467A.4, 467D.2

467D.4 Governing body. The governing body of each conservancy district shall be one of the following:

1. The state soil conservation committee established by section 467A.4.

2. A board of not less than five nor more than nine members elected from conservancy district wards established under section 467D.5. Conservancy district board members so elected shall be reimbursed for travel and other actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties. The member of the state soil conservation committee appointed from that conservancy district is an ex officio nonvoting member of the district board of directors. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.4; 68GA, ch 1154, §1]

Referred to in §467A.3, 467D.2, 467D.5

1. The state soil conservation committee acting in its capacity as a conservancy district board may propose division of a conservancy district, currently being governed by the state soil conservation committee under subsection 1 of section 467D.4, into not less than five nor more than nine wards. Ward boundaries shall coincide with county boundaries, except that each ward shall lie entirely within the conservancy district of which it is a part. Each ward shall be composed of contiguous territory and shall be drawn with equality of population as an objective, insofar as that objective can reasonably be implemented while meeting the other requirements of this subsection.

2. The board of directors of a conservancy district which has been divided into wards under subsection 1 shall consist of one director from each ward so established, who shall be elected as provided by subsection 3. Each director shall serve a term of three years beginning on the first day of January, following that director's election, which is not a Sunday or a holiday. When a proposal for establishment of wards in a conservancy district has been approved by the state soil conservation committee, the members of the first elected board shall be chosen as provided by subsection 3 except that the election shall be held not more than one hundred eighty days after the date of approval of the proposal for establishment of wards. The first elected board of directors shall take office on a day specified by the state soil conservation committee, which shall be not more than thirty days after election of the directors is completed. Upon taking office, the first elected board shall divide itself by lot into three classes as nearly equal in size as possible. Thereafter, successors to members of the first class shall be elected in the first succeeding calendar year, successors to members of the second class shall be elected in the second succeeding calendar year, and successors to members of the third class shall be elected in the third succeeding calendar year after the year in which the first elected board takes office.

3. Each member of a conservancy district board of directors shall be elected at a ward convention attended by delegates chosen by and from among the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts located entirely or partially within that ward.

a. A convention shall be held for each ward not earlier than October 1 nor later than November 30 of each year in which a director is to be elected from that ward. Each ward convention shall be called and its location shall be determined by the board of directors of the conservancy district of which the ward is a part. The conventions shall be held within the boundaries of the respective wards, and may be held in conjunction with other meetings attended by soil conservation district commissioners where doing so will avoid or reduce expense for travel and for use of convention sites. Notice of the time, date and place of a ward convention shall be published by the conservancy district board of directors, at least thirty days prior to the convention date, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the ward. The cost of publication shall be paid by the conservancy district.

b. The commissioners of each separate soil conservation district located entirely or partially within a conservancy district ward shall jointly cast a single, weighted vote for director of the conservancy district from that ward. The weight of the vote cast by the commissioners of each soil conservation district shall be based upon the ratio that the population of the soil conservation district, or portion of the district, bears to that of the entire ward. The population of each soil conservation district, or portion of a district, shall be certified by the department of soil conservation.

c. A candidate for election to the conservancy district board from a ward may file a statement of candidacy with the secretary of the conservancy district board at least ten days before the date of that ward's convention. The statement of candidacy shall state the candidate's name and address and shall indicate the soil conservation district within which the candidate resides. The list of candidates in each ward where an election is to occur shall be sent by ordinary mail to the commissioners of each soil conservation district located entirely or partially within the ward, immediately after the last day for filing. The filing of a statement of candidacy shall not be a prerequisite for election as a conservancy district director. A delegate to a ward convention shall not be bound by the soil conservation district commissioners to pledge his or her vote to any candidate prior to the date of the convention.

4. Any eligible elector as defined in section 39.3 residing in a conservancy district ward is eligible to be elected to represent that ward on the board. A conservancy district board member need not be a soil conservation district commissioner, but the same individual may hold both offices concurrently. A person shall be elected to the board for no more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy is created when a member of the board removes his or her residence from the ward he or she was elected to represent. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the state soil conservation committee from a list of nominees submitted by the remaining members of the board, for the period until the next regular election under subsection 3. At that election, a board member shall be elected for the remaining balance of the unexpired term. [68GA, ch 1154,§2]

1. Exercise such supervision over the water resources of the conservancy district, including water in any basin, watercourse, or other body of water in the conservancy district, and have authority to promulgate and repeal, with approval of the department, and enforce such rules, except those rules relating to water resources under the authority of the council and the department of environmental quality, as necessary to achieve the objectives of this chapter as set forth in section 467D.1.

2. Have authority to employ, appoint, or retain attorneys, engineers, other professional and technical employees, and such other personnel as are deemed necessary, and approve bonds of conservancy district employees.

4. Encourage, foster, and promote establishment, enlargement, or consolidation of drainage, levee, soil conservation, flood control, and sanitation districts where desirable, provided that this subsection shall not be construed to vest the board with authority to directly establish, enlarge, or consolidate any such districts by any procedure not otherwise prescribed by law.

5. 6. Have authority to enter into binding agreements, with respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the conservancy district, with:

a. Any person, firm, corporation or association, the state of Iowa, or any of its political subdivisions.

7. Have authority to expend funds outside the state of Iowa, or in adjoining conservancy districts, pursuant to agreements made under subsection 6 of this section, where necessary in order to more effectively or efficiently achieve the objectives of this chapter, and to receive funds from other states for expenditure in Iowa, or from other conservancy districts for expenditure in the district receiving such funds.

8. Have authority to acquire by gift, lease, purchase, grant, or inheritance any property, real or personal, in fee or a lesser interest, needed to achieve the objectives of this chapter, and to sell and convey property owned but no longer needed by the conservancy district. The board shall also have authority to acquire by condemnation proceedings any real property, in fee or a lesser interest, needed to achieve the objectives of this chapter, but no condemnation proceedings shall be instituted by the board less than fifteen days after a letter has been sent by restricted certified mail to the owner or owners of the property sought, setting forth in detail the reasons why the property is needed and the board's best offer for the property.

9. Construct, operate, maintain, repair, enlarge, and make such internal improvements as are necessary to implement the conservancy district's overall plan.

10. Have authority to sue and be sued in the name of the conservancy district, and bring action to abate soil erosion nuisances in the manner prescribed by section 467D.23.

11. Maintain at its office a record of all the conservancy district's proceedings, rules and orders, and furnish copies thereof to the department and the council upon request.

12. Establish, administer and direct various advisory committees as authorized by this chapter. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.6; 68GA, ch 1148, §82, ch 1154, §3]

1. When officially conducting the business of a conservancy district, the committee shall formally convene as the board of that conservancy district and shall keep minutes as such. The chairperson of the committee shall be the chairperson of the board of each conservancy district that it administers.

2. The state soil conservation committee, serving in its capacity as the board of a conservancy district, shall appoint a secretary and a treasurer for the conservancy district, and may appoint the same individual as secretary for two or more conservancy districts, or as the treasurer for two or more conservancy districts. However, a person shall not simultaneously serve as both a board secretary and a board treasurer, either for the same conservancy district or for different conservancy districts. A person appointed by the committee as secretary or treasurer of one or more conservancy districts, who is not otherwise employed by the state or any of its political subdivisions, shall receive compensation as the committee determines. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.5, 467D.7-467D.9; 68GA, ch 1154, §4]

467D.8 Administration of conservancy districts by elected board.

1. The board of each conservancy district which is administered by an elected board shall hold an annual meeting in January and shall meet at least once each quarter. The chairperson of the board shall schedule a special meeting within five days on the request of any two board members. An action of the board requires the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the elected members.

2. At the first meeting after election of the initial board, at the annual meeting in the following calendar year, and at each succeeding annual meeting, the board shall organize by electing a chairperson and a vice chairperson. Upon completing its organization, the initial elected board of a conservancy district shall so notify the state soil conservation committee in writing. The committee shall transfer the powers, duties and records of the board of that conservancy district to the elected board within thirty days after receiving the notice.

The secretary and treasurer may be either full-time or part-time employees of the conservancy district, at the board's discretion. The secretary and the treasurer shall each qualify by filing with the board, within ten days after being appointed, a bond in an amount designated by the board, but not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of their respective duties. The reasonable cost of the secretary's and the treasurer's bonds may be paid from the funds of the conservancy district. [68GA, ch 1154,§5]

2. File and preserve copies of all rules promulgated and all orders adopted by the board, and of all correspondence and other papers transmitted to him pertaining to the business of the conservancy district.

3. Keep an accurate account of the conservancy district's funds with the treasurer, charge him with all warrants and drafts drawn in his favor, and credit him with all orders drawn on the conservancy district's funds.

4. Keep an accurate account of all expenses incurred by the conservancy district, and present all claims to the board for audit and payment.

5. Perform other duties as directed by the board. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.10; 68GA, ch 1154,§6]

467D.11 Verified claims. Conservancy district funds shall not be expended, other than for salaries and administrative expenses, except upon verified claims submitted to and approved by the board. Warrants drawn on conservancy district funds shall be signed by the board chairman and the secretary. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.11]

467D.12 Budget. In each even-numbered year the board shall prepare a budget for the biennium beginning July 1 of the succeeding calendar year, setting forth all proposed expenditures by the conservancy district during such biennium, and stating the amounts which it is anticipated will be available to the conservancy district during such biennium from sources other than state appropriations. The board shall submit its budget to the state soil conservation committee on or before August 1 of each even-numbered year. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.12]

467D.13 Review by state committee. The committee shall review the proposed biennial budget of each of the conservancy districts, and may revise any such budget. The committee shall prepare a consolidated list of the appropriations requested for administration, operation, and maintenance of each conservancy district for each year of the ensuing biennium, and of capital appropriations requested, if any, for each conservancy district, and shall forward the consolidated list to the state comptroller as a part of the committee's estimates of expenditure requirements submitted pursuant to section 8.23. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.13]

467D.14 Other funds accepted. In addition to funds appropriated to the conservancy district by the general assembly, the board shall be authorized to receive and expend:

1. Federal funds available to the conservancy district for such purposes as may be provided by federal laws, rules, and regulations, to the extent consistent with the laws of this state.

2. Donations and gifts, which may be accepted by the board and expended in accordance with the terms of the gift. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.14]

Referred to in §467D 15

467D.15 Budget law applicable. The conservancy districts shall be subject to chapter 8, but expenditure by a conservancy district of funds available to it as provided in section 467D.14, subsections 1 and 2, shall not be deemed a violation of section 8.38. [C73, 75, 77, 79,§467D.15]

467D.16 Plan—priorities—aid. The board shall prepare a plan for accomplishment of the objectives of this chapter within the conservancy district. For this purpose the board may request and shall obtain from any state agency or political subdivision information which the agency or subdivision may have already collected which is pertinent to preparation of the plan, and may conduct such hearings as it deems necessary. The plan shall establish an order of priorities for carrying out projects necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter, shall conform as nearly as practicable to the comprehensive state-wide water resources plan established by the council pursuant to section 455A.17 and shall reflect the following general policies:

1. First consideration shall be given to work needed at or near the source of the streams in the district, and on or along the tributaries thereto, to the greatest extent practicable.

2. Conservancy district funds shall not be expended for functions or improvements which are:

a. The responsibility of other political subdivisions and are within their abilities, reasonable consideration being given to their other duties and obligations.

b. Constructed or implemented, or planned for construction or implementation, on one or more tracts of privately owned land and primarily benefit those lands rather than other lands in the conservancy district. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.16]

467D.17 Plan presented to department and council. The board shall tentatively adopt the plan by resolution and shall present the plan to the department and the council for review. The council shall within ninety days review the plan as presented and make such recommendations as, in its discretion, it deems necessary to bring the conservancy district's plan into conformity with the comprehensive state-wide water resources plan established by the council pursuant to section 455A.17. The department shall review the plan as presented and, with such amendments as are necessary to bring the plan into conformity with the state-wide water resources plan, give final approval within one hundred twenty days. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.17]

467D.18 Working program. The plan and the order of priorities established thereby shall constitute the working program of the conservancy district. The plan shall be reviewed from time to time and shall be changed as deemed necessary as the result of experience gained in construction and maintenance of internal improvements by the conservancy district, and in operation of the conservancy district, or as the result of changed conditions. The board may initiate changes in the conservancy district plan on its own motion or at the direction of the department. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.18]

467D.19 Implementation. After final approval of the plan, the board shall begin to implement the plan as expeditiously as possible, within the limitations of available appropriations and other financial resources. When implementation of the plan involves construction or improvement of any internal improvement by the conservancy district, the board may order the preparation of detailed plans and specifications, and a refined cost estimate. Upon completion of such plans, specifications and cost estimate to their satisfaction, the board shall adopt the same, subject to the approval of the department, and shall let the contract or contracts therefor in accordance with section 467D.20. Any approval or permits from the council required under other provisions of law shall be obtained by the conservancy district prior to initiation of any construction activity. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.19]

467D.20 Bids on work. When the estimated total cost of construction, enlargement, alteration or repair of any internal improvement exceeds five thousand dollars, the conservancy district shall advertise for bids on the proposed improvement by two publications in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the conservancy district, the first of which shall be not less than fifteen days prior to the date set for receiving bids, and shall let the work to the lowest responsible bidder submitting a sealed proposal; provided that if, in the judgment of the board, the bids received are not acceptable, all bids may be rejected and new bids requested. All bids must be accompanied, in a separate envelope, by a deposit of money or certified check, in an amount to be named in the advertisement for bids, as security that the bidder will enter into a contract in accordance with the terms of his bid. The board shall fix the bid security in an amount equal to at least five percent, but not more than ten percent of the estimated total cost of the work. The checks or deposits of money of the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned as soon as the successful bidder is determined, and the check or deposit of money of the successful bidder shall be returned upon execution of the contract documents. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.20]

Referred to in §467D.19

467D.21 Protection against siltation. Any other provision of this chapter notwithstanding, no conservancy district shall let a contract for any internal improvement of any kind unless its engineer shall recommend, and the board shall find, that the proposed internal improvement would be adequately protected against siltation by soil and water conservation practices existing within the watershed of the internal improvement, or which would be developed as a part of the internal improvement, or that the nature of the internal improvement precludes the probability of damage due to siltation. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.21]

467D.22 Procedure after finding. When the conservancy district's plan calls for an internal improvement which cannot be undertaken due to a finding that the internal improvement would not be adequately protected against siltation, the board shall undertake to effect the development of the needed soil and water conservation practices in the watershed of the proposed internal improvement by:

1. Consultation and co-operation with, and appropriate assistance to, the commissioners of any soil conservation district in the state.
2. Securing the establishment of, or repair or maintenance within, a subdistrict of a soil conservation district, a soil conservation and flood control district, a drainage district, a levee district, a sanitary district, or other appropriate special district, in the manner prescribed by law. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.22]

467D.23 Erosion as nuisance—injunction. Soil erosion resulting in or contributing to damage by siltation to any internal improvement of a conservancy district, or resulting in or contributing to damage to property not owned by the owner or occupant of the land on which such erosion is occurring, is hereby declared to be a nuisance. The board of the conservancy district whose internal improvement is so damaged, the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which such erosion is occurring, or the owner or owners of any property so damaged, may bring action to enjoin and abate any such nuisance as provided by chapter 657. It shall be an adequate defense to such an action that any defendant, prior to the time the cause of action arose, had submitted application for public cost-sharing funds pursuant to section 467A.48, or had established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices approved by the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the erosion complained of occurred, or had taken other reasonable and prudent measures to prevent excessive soil erosion, and that the erosion complained of was an isolated occurrence caused by a single prolonged or unusually heavy rainfall, unusually rapid melting of accumulated snow, severe windstorm, or other similar event beyond the control of the defendant. The remedy for any soil erosion which constitutes a nuisance under this section shall be limited to requiring that the owner or occupant of the land on which the erosion is occurring take such measures as are necessary to comply with the regulations of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, and the fine and jail sentence provided by section 657.3 shall not apply in any action arising under this section. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.23]

Referred to in §467D.6(10), 467D.24

467D.24 Surveys—soundings—drillings. The board, the commissioners of a soil conservation district, or an engineer or any other authorized person employed by the board or commissioners, may after thirty days' written notice by restricted certified mail addressed to the owner and also to the occupant, enter upon private land for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, and examinations as deemed appropriate or necessary to determine the advisability or practicability of locating an internal improvement on said land or part thereof, or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring thereon which constitutes a nuisance under section 467D.23 or is in violation of the soil conservation district's regulations; provided, no soundings or drillings shall be made within twenty rods of the dwelling house or buildings on said land without the written consent of the owner. Such entry, after notice, shall not be deemed a trespass, and the board or commissioners may be aided by injunction to insure peaceful entry. The board shall pay actual damages caused by such entry, surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, or examinations. The amount of such damages, if any, shall be determined by agreement or in the manner provided for the award of damages in condemnation of land for conservancy district purposes. [C73, 75, 77, 79, §467D.24]

CHAPTER 470

LIFE CYCLE COST ANALYSIS OF PUBLIC FACILITIES

This chapter effective January 1, 1980, except that for a county, city, school district, school corporation, or combination thereof the chapter is effective January 1, 1982, 68GA, ch 116, §7

470.1 Definitions.

470.3 Elements of analysis.

470.5 Exceptions.

470.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Public agency” means a county, city, school district, school corporation or combination thereof or an executive board, commission, bureau, division, office or department of the state.

2. “Facility” means a building having twenty thousand square feet or more of usable floor space that is heated or cooled by a mechanical or electrical system.

3. “Initial cost” means the moneys required for the capital construction or renovation of a facility.

4. “Renovation” means a project where additions or alterations exceed fifty percent of the value of a facility and will affect an energy system.

5. “Economic life” means the projected or anticipated useful life of a facility as expressed by a term of years.

6. “Life cycle cost analysis” means an analytical technique that considers certain costs of owning, using and operating a facility over its economic life including but not limited to the following:

- a. Initial costs.
- b. System repair and replacement costs.
- c. Maintenance costs.
- d. Operating costs, including energy costs.
- e. Salvage value.

7. “Energy system” includes but is not limited to the following equipment or measures:

- a. Equipment used to heat or cool the facility.
- b. Equipment used to heat water in the facility.
- c. On-site equipment used to generate electricity for the major facility.
- d. On-site equipment that uses the sun, wind, oil, natural gas, coal or electricity as a power source.
- e. Energy conservation measures in the facility design and construction that decrease the energy requirements of the facility. [68GA, ch 116,§1]

470.2 Policy—analysis required. The general assembly declares that energy management is of primary importance in the design of publicly owned facilities. Commencing January 1, 1980, a public agency responsible for the construction or renovation of a facility shall, in a design begun after that date, include as a design criterion the requirement that a life cycle cost analysis be conducted for the facility. The objectives of the life cycle cost analysis are to optimize energy efficiency at an acceptable life cycle cost. The life cycle cost analysis shall meet the requirements of section 470.3. [68GA, ch 116,§2]

470.3 Elements of analysis.

- 1. A life cycle cost analysis shall include but is not limited to the following elements:
  - a. Specification of energy management objectives and health, safety and functional constraints. The facility design shall comply with applicable state or local building code requirements.
  - b. Identification of the energy needs of the facility and energy system alternatives to meet those needs.
  - c. Cost of the energy system alternatives identified in paragraph "b" of this subsection.
  - d. Determination of amounts and timing of cash flow.
  - e. Calculation of life cycle cost using an economic model such as but not limited to rate of return, annual equivalent cost or present equivalent cost.

f. Evaluation of design and system alternatives using a method such as, but not limited to design matrices, ranking tables or network analysis.

2. A public agency or a person preparing a life cycle cost analysis for a public agency shall consider the methods and analytical models in section 6 of the Manual of Procedures for authorized class "A" energy auditors as amended to March 31, 1979 by the engineering research institute at Iowa State University of science and technology in preparing a life cycle cost analysis. [68GA, ch 116,§3]

470.4 Analysis approved. The life cycle cost analysis shall be approved by the public agency before contracts for the construction or renovation are let. A public agency may accept a facility design and shall meet the requirements of this chapter if the design meets the operational requirements of the agency and provides the optimum life cycle cost. The public agency shall retain a copy of the life cycle cost analysis and a statement justifying a design decision both of which shall be available for public inspection at reasonable hours. [68GA, ch 116,§4]

470.5 Exceptions. This chapter does not apply to buildings currently* used by the division of adult corrections of the department of social services as maximum security detention facilities or to the renovation of property nominated to, or entered in the national register of historic places, designated by statute, or included in an established list of historic places compiled by the director of the division of historical preservation of the Iowa state historical department. [68GA, ch 116,§5]

*January 1, 1980

470.6 Restriction on use of public funds. Public funds shall not be used for the construction or renovation of a facility unless the design for the work is prepared in accordance with this chapter and the actual construction or renovation meets the requirements of the design. [68GA, ch 116,§6]

4. Cemetery associations. Upon any private cemetery or cemetery association which is incorporated under the laws of this state relating to corporations not for pecuniary profit, and having its cemetery located outside the limits of a city, for the purpose of acquiring necessary grounds for cemetery use or reasonable additions thereto. The right granted in this subsection shall not be exercised until the board of supervisors, of the county in which the land sought to be condemned is located, has, on written application and hearing, on such reasonable notice to all interested parties as it may fix, found that the land, describing it, sought to be condemned, is necessary for cemetery purposes. The association shall pay all costs attending such hearing.

5. Subdistricts of soil conservation districts. Upon a subdistrict of a soil conservation district for such land or rights or interests therein as are reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes of the subdistrict.

6. Cities. Upon all cities for public purposes which are reasonable and necessary as an incident to the powers and duties conferred upon cities.
