Claims accruing before or after the appointment of the conservator, and whether arising in contract or tort or otherwise, after being allowed or established as provided in sections 633.654 to 633.656, shall be paid by the conservator from the assets of the conservatorship. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.653]

633.654 Form and verification of claims—general requirements. No claim shall be allowed against the estate of a ward upon application of the claimant unless it shall be in writing, filed in duplicate with the clerk, stating the claimant's name and address, and describing the nature and the amount thereof, if ascertainable. It shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the claimant, or of someone for him, that the amount is justly due, or if not due, when it will or may become due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant, except as therein stated. The duplicate of said claim shall be mailed by the clerk to the conservator or his attorney of record; however, valid contract claims arising in the ordinary course of the conduct of the business or affairs of the ward by the conservator may be paid by the conservator without requiring affidavit or filing. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.654]

Referred to in §633.653, 633.664

If a claim is founded upon a written instrument, the original of such instrument, or a copy thereof, with all endorsements, must be attached to the claim. The original instrument must be exhibited to the conservator or to the court, upon demand, unless it has been lost or destroyed, in which case, its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim. 633.658 Compelling payment of claims. No claimant shall be entitled to compel payment until his claim has been duly filed and allowed. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.658]

633.660 Execution and levy prohibited. No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against, any property of the estate of a ward under any judgment against the ward or a conservator, but the provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to prevent the enforcement of a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property in an appropriate proceeding. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.660]

633.661 Claims of conservators. If the conservator is a creditor of the ward, he shall file his claim as other creditors, and the court shall appoint some competent person as temporary conservator to represent the ward at the hearing on the conservator's claim. The same procedure shall be followed in the case of coconservators where all such conservators are creditors of the ward; but if one of the coconservators is not a creditor of the ward, such disinterested conservator shall represent the ward at the hearing on any claim against the ward by a coconservator. [C51, §1369; R60, §2401; C73, §2417; C97, §3346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11968; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.64; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.661]

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.663]

633.664 Liens not affected by failure to file claim. Nothing in sections 633.654 and 633.658 shall affect or prevent an action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the ward. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.664]

633.665 Separate actions and claims. A separate action based on a debt or other liability of the ward may be commenced against the conservator as such in lieu of filing a claim in the conservatorship. Such an action shall be commenced by serving an original notice on the conservator and filing a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding in the conservatorship proceeding. Such an action shall also be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship. Such an action may be commenced only in a county where the venue would have been proper if there were no conservatorship and the action had been commenced against the ward. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.665]
 Referred to in §633.666

633.667 Payment of claims in insolvent conservatorships. When it appears that the assets in a conservatorship are insufficient to pay in full all the claims against such conservatorship, the conservator shall report such matter to the court, and the court shall, upon hearing, with notice to all persons who have filed claims in the conservatorship, make an order for the pro rata payment of claims giving claimants the same priority, if any, as they would have if the ward were not under conservatorship. [R60, §1455; C73, §2278; C97, §3227; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §670.18; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.667]

For good cause shown and under order of court, a conservator may make gifts on behalf of the ward out of the assets under a conservatorship to persons or religious, educational, scientific, charitable, or other nonprofit organizations to whom or to which such gifts were regularly made prior to the commencement of the conservatorship. The making of gifts out of such assets must not foreseeably impair the ability to provide adequately for the best interests of the ward. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.668]

PART 7

7. To make any required division or distribution in whole or in part in money, securities, or other property, and in undivided interests therein, and to continue to hold any remaining undivided interest in trust.

8. To receive additional property from any source. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.699]

See also §524 513

633.700 Intermediate report of trustees. Unless specifically relieved from so doing, by the instrument creating the trust, or by order of the court, the trustee shall make a written report, under oath, to the court, once each year, and oftener, if required by the court. Such report shall state:

1. The period covered by the report.

tion, or other disqualification of the trustee of any trust pending in court, the trustee shall make a final report to the court, showing for the period since the filing of the last report the facts required for an intermediate report, provided, however, that unless specifically required by the court to do so, he shall not in any event, be required to report such facts for any period of time as to which he has, under any of the provisions of section 633 700, been expressly relieved from reporting In any event, the final report of the trustee shall include the following

- 1 The name and last known address of each beneficiary
- 2 A statement as to those beneficiaries who are known to be minors or under any other legal disability

Referred to in §633 703

633.702 Notice of application for discharge. No final report of a trustee of a trust pending in court shall be approved, and no such trustee shall be discharged from further duty or responsibility upon final settlement, until notice of his application for discharge shall have been served upon all persons interested, in accordance with section 633 40, unless notice is waived An order prescribing notice may be made before or after the filing of the final report [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 702]

DIVISION XVI

DISCLAIMER OF SUCCESSION TO REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

633.704 Disclaimer.

1 Right of disclaimer A person, including a person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment, is not required to take as a distributee, as a beneficiary, as an annuitant, or as a transferee including as a transferee in joint tenancy, or otherwise, and a person, as a donee of a power, is not required to accept any right of appointment If the requirements of this section are met, a person may disclaim, in whole or in part, the transfer of a power, or the transfer, receipt of, or entitlement or succession to, any property, real or personal, or any interest in property, including but not limited to an interest in trust, and including but not limited to ownership, proceeds of, or other benefits to or under a life insurance policy or annuity contract, by delivering a written instrument of disclaimer within the time and in the manner provided in this section The instrument shall

- a Describe the property, interest, or right disclaimed
- b Declare the disclaimer and the extent of the disclaimer

c Be signed and acknowledged by the disclaimant

2 Time of disclaimer—filing—irrevocability

a Time of disclaimer The disclaimer instrument shall be received by the transferor of the property, interest, or right, the transferor's fiduciary, or the holder of the legal title to which the property, interest, or right relates, not later than the date which is nine months after the later of the date on which the transfer of the property, interest, or right is made, or the date on which the disclaimant attains eighteen years of age The nine-month period for making a disclaimer shall be determined with reference to each transfer With respect to a testamentary transfer, the transfer occurs upon the date of the decedent's death Any property, interest, or right may be disclaimed nine months after the date of the disclaimant's eighteenth birthday even though the disclaimant received benefits from the property, interest, or right without any action on the disclaimant's part before attaining eighteen years of age However, if a person entitled to disclaim does not have actual knowledge of the existence of the transfer, the disclaimer may be made not later than nine months after the person has actual knowledge of the existence of the transfer b Filing A copy of an instrument of disclaimer affecting real estate shall be filed in the office of the county recorder of the county where the real estate is located Failure to file with the county recorder within the time permitted for disclaimer does not invalidate the disclaimer A copy of an instrument of disclaimer, regardless of subject, may be filed with the clerk of court of the county in which proceedings for administration have been commenced, if applicable

c Irrevocability An instrument of disclaimer shall be unqualified and is irrevocable from and after the date of its receipt

a Passage of disclaimed interest or property Unless the transferor has otherwise provided, the property, interest, or right disclaimed, and any future interest which is to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the termination of the interest or right disclaimed, descends or shall be distributed as if the disclaimant has died prior to the date of the transfer, or if the disclaimant is one designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, then as if the disclaimant has predeceased the donee of the power unless the donee of the power has otherwise provided In every case, the disclaimer relates back for all purposes to the date of the transfer In the case of a disclaiming beneficiary under a will, other than a spouse, the property, interest, or right disclaimed passes to the heirs of the disclaimant unless from the terms of the transferor's will the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary, in which event the property, interest, or right disclaimed passes pursuant to the will In the case of a disclaimer under a will by a spouse the property, interest, or right disclaimed lapses unless from the terms of the transferor's will the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary

b Future interest A person who has a present and a future interest in property and who disclaims the present interest, in whole or in part, shall be deemed to have disclaimed the future interest to the same extent. However, if such person disclaims only the future interest, in whole or in part, that person shall retain the present interest, and the disclaimer shall only affect the future interest involved.

c. Death or disability of disclaimant. If a person eligible to disclaim dies within the time allowed for a disclaimer, the right to disclaim continues for the time allowed and the personal representative of the person eligible to disclaim has the same right to disclaim as the disclaimant and may disclaim on behalf of his or her decedent. If a person entitled to disclaim is disabled, the court may authorize or direct a conservator or guardian to exercise the right to disclaim on behalf of the person under disability if the court finds it is in the person's best interests.

4. Waiver and bar. An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of any property, interest, or right, or a contract therefor, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, or an acceptance of any property, interest, or right, by an heir, devisee, donee, transferee, joint owner, person succeeding to a disclaimed interest, annuitant, beneficiary under a life insurance policy, or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, or a sale of property by execution, made before the expiration of the period in which a person may disclaim as provided in this section, bars the right to disclaim that property, interest, or right. An election by a surviving spouse under sections 633.236 to 633.246 is not a waiver or bar of the right to disclaim. The right to disclaim exists irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when received, as provided in this section, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, is binding upon the disclaimant or person waiving and all parties claiming by, through, and under the disclaimant or person waiving. If a beneficiary who disclaims any property, interest, or right is also a fiduciary, actions taken by the person in the exercise of fiduciary powers to preserve or maintain the property, interest, or right shall not be treated as an acceptance of the property, interest, or right. A fiduciary, however, does not retain discretionary power to direct the enjoyment of the disclaimed property, interest, or right.

5. Exclusiveness of remedy. This section does not abridge the right of a person to assign, convey, release, or renounce any property, interest, or right arising under any other statute.

6. Effective date. This section applies only to transfers occurring on or after July 1, 1981. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.704; 81 Acts, ch 197, §1, 2]

See chapter 559, power of appointment

This section does not apply to any transfer occurring prior to July 1, 1981. A transfer occurring prior to that date shall be governed by the law as it existed prior to that date, 81 Acts, ch 197, §2

633.705 When power of attorney not affected by disability. Whenever a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal", or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal", or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding his disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable by him as provided in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal and his heirs, devisees and personal representatives as if the principal were alive, competent and not disabled. If a conservator thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the conservator rather than the principal, and the conservator shall have the power to revoke the power of attorney on behalf of the principal. [C77, 79, 81, §633.705]

Referred to in §633.706

633.706 Other powers of attorney not revoked until notice of death or disability.

1. The death, disability, or incompetence of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing other than a power as described by section 633.705, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability, or incompetence of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives.

2. An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent stating that he did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney, by death, disability or incompetence, is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when properly acknowledged is likewise recordable.

3. This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney. [C77, 79, 81, §633.706]

- 634.2 Statutory provisions as part of the trust.
- 634.3 Distribution to avoid tax liability.
- 634.4 Limitations.
- 634.5 Internal Revenue Code defined.
- 634.6 Statutory exception in trust.

634.1 Applicability. This chapter shall apply only to trusts which are private foundations as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, charitable trusts as described in section 4947(a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or split-interest trusts as described in section 4947(a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. With respect to any such trust created after December 31, 1969, this chapter shall apply from such trust's creation. With respect to any such trust created before January 1, 1970, this chapter shall apply only to such trust's federal taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.1]

634.2 Statutory provisions as part of the trust. The trust instrument of each trust to which this chapter applies shall be deemed to contain provisions prohibiting the trustee from:

1. Engaging in any act of self-dealing, as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;
2. Retaining any excess business holdings, as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;
3. Making any investments which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of the exempt purposes of the trust, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and
4. Making any taxable expenditures, as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

However, this section shall not apply either to those split-interest trusts or to amounts thereof which are not subject to the prohibitions applicable to private foundations by reason of the provisions of section 4947 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.2]

Referred to in §634.6

634.3 Distribution to avoid tax liability. The trust instrument of each trust to which this chapter applies, except split-interest trusts, shall be deemed to contain a provision requiring the trustee to distribute for the purposes specified in the trust instrument for each taxable year of the trust amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.3]

Referred to in §634.6

634.4 Limitations. Nothing in this chapter shall impair the rights and powers of the courts or the attorney general of this state with respect to any trust. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.4]

634.5 Internal Revenue Code defined. All references to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall mean the Code as amended to and including January 1, 1971. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.5]

634.6 Statutory exception in trust. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the power of a person who creates a trust after July 1, 1971, or the power of a person who has retained or has been granted the right to amend a trust created before July 1, 1971, to include a specific provision in the trust instrument or an amendment to the trust instrument as the case may be, which provides that some or all of the provisions of sections 634.2 and 634.3 shall have no application to such trust. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §634.6]

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §635.2; 81 Acts, ch 199, §2, 3]

Referred to in §635 7-635 9

635.3 Possession of estate. The letters of appointment of the executor or administrator of a small estate shall entitle the executor or administrator to possess-sion of any property of the estate. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §635.3; 81 Acts, ch 199, §4]

Referred to in §635.7

635.4 Turning over assets to executor or administrator. Any debtor, financial institution or other possessor of property shall deliver to the executor or administrator of a small estate all property of the estate in its possession unless the value of the property exceeds the amount permitted the small estate under the applicable provision of section 635.1. The possessor of property shall be exonerated from any liability for the delivery of property to the executor or administrator and shall not be responsible for its disposition after the delivery. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §635.4; 81 Acts, ch 199, §5]

635.8 Closing by sworn statement.

1. Unless an interested person petitions for administration of the estate on a basis other than for a small estate within one year after letters of administration for a small estate are issued, if those letters of administration are not terminated under the provisions of section 635.7, any property of the estate shall then be free of debts and charges. However, the executor or administrator of the small estate shall not be exonerated from debts and charges of the estate ex-

4. The closing statement shall include a statement as to the amount of fees paid for services rendered by the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney in administration of the estate. The fees for the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney shall not be in excess of the fees permitted by section 633.197.

635.9 Petition for administration on other basis. At any time within one year after letters of administration are issued for a small estate, any interested person may petition for appointment of an executor or administrator for administration of the estate other than as a small estate. In that event the clerk shall notify the person holding letters of appointment for administration of a small estate by ordinary mail not less than ten days before a hearing on the petition. The notice shall be directed to the executor or administrator of the small estate at the executor's or administrator's last known address as reflected in the petition filed under section 635.2 or the report and inventory filed under section 633.361, whichever is filed later. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §635.9; 81 Acts, ch 199, §10]

639.1 Method. The plaintiff in a civil action may cause the property of the defendant not exempt from execution to be attached at the commencement or during the progress of the proceeding, by pursuing the course hereinafter prescribed. [C51, §1846; R60, §3172; C73, §2949; C97, §3876; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.1]

639.2 Proceedings auxiliary. If it be subsequent to the commencement of the action, a separate petition or an amendment to the petition must be filed, and in all cases the proceedings relative to the attachment are to be deemed independent of the ordinary proceedings and only auxiliary thereto. [C51, §1847; R60, §3173; C73, §2950; C97, §3877; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.2]

639.3 Grounds. The petition or amendment to petition which asks an attachment, must in all cases be sworn to. It must state one or more of the following grounds:

1. That the defendant is a foreign corporation or acting as such.
2. That he is a nonresident of the state.
3. That he is about to remove his property out of the state without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts.

4. That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors.

5. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.

6. That he has absconded, so that the ordinary process cannot be served upon him.

7. That he is about to remove permanently out of the county, and has property therein not exempt from execution, and that he refuses to pay or secure the plaintiff.

8. That he is about to remove permanently out of the state, and refuses to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff.

9. That he is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the county with intent to defraud his creditors.

10. That he is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors.

11. That he has property or rights in action which he conceals.

12. That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51, §1848; R60, §3174; C73, §2951; C97, §3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.3]

Referred to in §204 407, 537 5110

639.5 Issued on Sunday. Where the petition states, in addition to the other facts required, that the plaintiff will lose his claim unless the attachment issues and is served on Sunday, it may be issued and served on that day. [C73, §2952; C97, §3879; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12082; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.5]

Analogous or related provisions, §605 18, 626 6, 643 3, 667 3, and R C P 57

639.6 On contract—amount due. If the plaintiff's demand is founded on contract, the petition must state that something is due, and, as nearly as practicable, the amount, which must be more than five dollars in order to authorize an attachment. [C51, §1849; R60, §3175; C73, §2953; C97, §3880; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12083; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.6]

639.7 Value of property attached. The amount thus sworn to is intended as a guide to the sheriff, who must, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifty percent greater in value than that amount. [C51, §1850; R60, §3176; C73, §2954; C97, §3881; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.7]

639.8 Allowance of value in other cases. If the demand is not founded on contract, the original petition must be presented to some judge of the supreme or district court, or the judge of the court from which the issuance of a writ of attachment is sought, who shall make an allowance thereon of the amount in value of the property that may be attached. [C51, §1851; R60, §3177; C73, §2955; C97, §3882; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §

639.9 For debts not due—grounds. The property of a debtor may be attached on debts not due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the petition, in addition to that fact, states one or more of the following grounds:

1. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.

2. That he is about to remove or has removed from the state, and refuses to secure the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which removal or contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted.

3. That the defendant has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors.

4. That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51, §1852; R60, §3178; C73, §2956; C97, §3883; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.9]

639.10 Appearance—judgment—perishable property. If, at the time of the service of the attachment, the claim upon which suit is brought is not due, the defendant need not appear in the action until the maturity of the demand, unless he elects to plead, in which event the cause shall stand for trial when it is reached in its regular order, and no final judgment shall be rendered therein before the maturity of the debt unless such election is made, but if perishable property is levied upon, it may be sold as in other attachment cases. [R60, §3179, 3180; C73, §2957, 2958; C97, §3884; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12087; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.10]

639.11 Bond. In all cases before it can be issued, the plaintiff must file with the clerk a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties to be approved by such clerk, in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought to be attached, and in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the wrongful suing out of the attachment. [C51, §1853; R60, §3181; C73, §2959; C97, §3885; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12088; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.11]

639.12 Bond for levy on real property only. In any case where only real property is sought to be attached, the plaintiff shall file such bond in a penalty to be fixed by the court or the clerk, and in such cases, the clerk shall issue a writ thereunder and shall direct therein that real property only shall be attached. [C31, 35, §12088-d1; C39, §12088.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.12]

639.13 Additional security. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, and if, on such motion, the court is satisfied that the surety on the plaintiff's bond has removed from the state, or is not sufficient, the attachment may be vacated and restitution directed of any property taken under it, unless, in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, security is given by the plaintiff. [R60, §3182; C73,

639.14 Action on bond. In an action on such bond, the plaintiff therein may recover, if he shows that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, and that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same was issued to be true, the actual damages sustained, and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court; and if it be shown such attachment was sued out maliciously, he may recover exemplary damages, nor need he wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond. [C51, §1854; R60, §3183; C73, §2961; C97, §3887; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12090; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.14]

639.15 Remedy for falsely suing out—counterclaim. The fact stated as a cause of attachment shall not be contested in the action by a mere defense. The defendant's remedy shall be on the bond, but he may in his discretion sue thereon by way of counterclaim, and in such case shall recover damages as in an original action on such bond. [R60, §3238; C73, §3017; C97, §3888; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12091; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.15]

Attachments may be issued from the district court to different counties, and several may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession and subsequently, until sufficient property has been attached; but only those executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court. 642.6 Garnishee required to appear. If the garnishee refuses to answer fully and unequivocally all the foregoing interrogatories, he shall be notified to appear and answer as above provided, and he may be so required in any event, if the plaintiff so notifies him. [C51, §1866; R60, §3202; C73, §2981; C97, §3940; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12163; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §642.6]

642.9 Failure to appear or answer—cause shown. If, duly summoned, and his fees tendered when demanded, he fails to appear and answer the interrogatories propounded to him without sufficient excuse, he shall be presumed to be indebted to the defendant to the full amount of the plaintiff's demand, but for a mere failure to appear no judgment shall be rendered against him until he has had an opportunity to show cause against the same. [C51, §1869, 1870; R60, §3205, 3206; C73, §2984, 2985; C97, §3943; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12166; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §642.9]

A garnishee may, at any time after answer, exonerate himself from further responsibility by paying over to the sheriff the amount owing by him to the defendant, and placing at the sheriff's disposal the property of the defendant, or so much of said debts and property as is equal to the value of the property to be attached. [C51, §1871; R60, §3207; C73, §2986; C97, §3944; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12167; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §642.10]

642.11 Answer controverted. When the garnishee has answered the interrogatories propounded to him, the plaintiff may controvert them by pleading thereto, and an issue may be joined, which shall be tried in the usual manner, upon which trial such answer of the garnishee shall be competent testimony. [C51, §1872; R60, §3208; C73, §2987; C97, §3945; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12168; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §642.11]

642.12 Notice of controverting pleadings. No judgment shall be rendered against a garnishee on a pleading which controverts his answer until notice of the filing of the controverting pleading and of the time and place of trial thereon is served on the garnishee for such time and in such manner as the court or judge shall order. A garnishee who has been so notified shall not be entitled to notice of the filing of amendments or of trial thereon. 642.13 Judgment against garnishee. If in any of the above methods it is made to appear that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant, or had any of his property in his hands, at the time of being served with the notice of garnishment, he will be liable to the plaintiff, in case judgment is finally recovered by him, to the full amount thereof, or to the amount of such indebtedness or property held by the garnishee, and the plaintiff may have a judgment against the garnishee for the amount of money due from the garnishee to the defendant in the main action, or for the delivery to the sheriff of any money or property in the garnishee's hands belonging to the defendant in the main action within a time to be fixed by the court, and for the value of the same, as fixed in said judgment, if not delivered within the time thus fixed, unless before such judgment is entered the garnishee has delivered to the sheriff such money or property. Property so delivered shall thereafter be treated as if levied upon under the writ of attachment in the usual manner.

642.15 Pleading by defendant—discharge of garnishee. The defendant in the main action may, by a suitable pleading filed in the garnishment proceedings, set up facts showing that the debt or the property with which it is sought to charge the garnishee is exempt from execution, or for any other reason is not liable for plaintiff's claim, and if issue thereon be joined by the plaintiff, it shall be tried with the issues as to the garnishee's liability. If such debt or property, or any part thereof, is found to be thus exempt or not liable, the garnishee shall be discharged as to that part which is exempt or not liable. [C97, §3948; S13, §3948; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12171; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §642.15]

2. Where the lessee holds over after the termination of his lease.
3. Where the lessee holds contrary to the terms of his lease.

When one or more owners of land, the corners and boundaries of which are lost, destroyed, or in dispute, desire to have the same established, they may bring an action in the district court of the county where such lost, destroyed, or disputed corners or boundaries, or part thereof, are situated, against the owners of the other tracts which will be affected by the determination or establishment thereof, to have such corners or boundaries ascertained and permanently established. [C97, §4228; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12293; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.1]

650.2 County as party. If any public road is likely to be affected thereby, the proper county shall be made defendant. [C97, §4228; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12294; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.2]

Notice of such action shall be given as in other cases, and if the defendants or any of them are nonresidents of the state, or unknown, they may be served by publication as is provided by law. [C97, §4229; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12295; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.3]

650.5 Petition. The only necessary pleading therein shall be the petition of plaintiff describing the land involved, and, so far as may be, the interest of the respective parties, and asking that certain corners and boundaries therein described, as accurately as may be, shall be established. [C97, §4230; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12297; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.5]

650.6 Specific issues—acquiescence. Either the plaintiff or defendant may, by proper plea, put in issue the fact that certain alleged boundaries or corners are the true ones, or that such have been recognized and acquiesced in by the parties or their grantors for a period of ten consecutive years, which issue may be tried before commission is appointed, in the discretion of the court. [C97, §4230; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12298; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.6]

650.7 Commission. The court in which said action is brought shall appoint a commission of one or more disinterested surveyors, who shall, at a date and place fixed by the court in the order of appointment, proceed to locate the lost, destroyed, or disputed corners and boundaries. [C97, §4231; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12299; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.7]

650.8 Oath—assistants. The commissioners so appointed shall subscribe and file with the clerk, within ten days from the date of their appointment, an oath for the faithful and impartial discharge of their duties, and shall have the power to appoint necessary assistants. [C97, §4232; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12300; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.8]

At the time and in the manner specified in the order of court, the commission shall proceed to locate said boundaries and corners, and for that purpose may take the testimony of witnesses as to where the true boundaries and corners are located. [C97, §4233; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12301; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.9]

650.10 Finding as to acquiescence. If that issue is presented, the commission shall also take testimony as to whether the boundaries and corners alleged to have been recognized and acquiesced in for ten years or more have in fact been recognized and acquiesced in, and, if it finds affirmatively on such issue, shall incorporate the same into the report to the court. [C97, §4233; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12302; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.10]

650.11 Adjournments—report. The proceedings may be adjourned by the commission from time to time as may be necessary, but the survey and location of the corners and boundaries must be completed and the report thereof filed with the clerk of the court within sixty days after its appointment, unless there are good and sufficient reasons for delay. [C97, §4234;

C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12303; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.11]

650.12 Exceptions—hearing in court. Within twenty days after such report is filed, any party interested may file exceptions thereto and the court shall hear and determine them, hearing evidence in addition to that reported by the commission, if necessary, and may approve or modify such report, or again refer the matter to the same or another commission for further report. [C97, §4235; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12304; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.12]

[C97, §4237; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12307; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.15]

650.16 Costs. The costs in the proceeding shall be taxed as the court shall think just, and shall be a lien on the land or interest therein owned by the party or parties against whom they are taxed, so far as such land is involved in the proceeding. [C97, §4238; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12308; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.16]

Any lost or disputed corner or boundary may be determined by written agreement of all parties thereby affected, signed and acknowledged by each as required for conveyances of real estate, clearly designating the same, and accompanied by a plat thereof, which shall be recorded as an instrument affecting real estate, and shall be binding upon their heirs, successors, and assigns. [C97, §4239; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12309; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §650.17]

such balance must be paid by the officer to the defendant, or to the owner of the property levied upon; and if said proceeds are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the officer must collect the residue thereof. If such retraction be so published or broadcast, he may still recover such actual, special, and exemplary damages, unless the defendant shall show that the libelous publication or

661.1 Definition. The action of mandamus is one brought to obtain an order commanding an inferior tribunal, board, corporation, or person to do or not to do an act, the performance or omission of which the law enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station. [R60, §3761; C73, §3373; C97, §4341; S13, §4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12440; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.1]

661.2 Discretion—exercise of. Where discretion is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only compel it to act, but cannot control such discretion. [C51, §2180; R60, §3763; C73, §3373; C97, §4341; S13, §4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12441; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.2]

661.3 Nature of action. All such actions shall be tried as equitable actions. [S13, §4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12442; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.3]

661.4 Order issued. The order may be issued by the district court to any inferior tribunal, or to any corporation, officer, or person; and by the supreme court or the court of appeals to any inferior court, if necessary, and in any other case where it is found necessary for either of those courts to exercise its legitimate power. [C51, §2179, 2181; R60, §3761, 3764; C73, §3374; C97, §4342; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12443; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.4]

661.5 Auxiliary remedy. The plaintiff in any action, except those brought for the recovery of specific real or personal property, may also, as an auxiliary relief, have an order of mandamus to compel the performance of a duty established in such action. [R60, §3767; C73, §3375; C97, §4343; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12444; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.5]

661.6 “Enforceable duty” defined. If such duty, the performance of which is sought to be compelled, is not one resulting from an office, trust, or station, it must be one for the breach of which a legal right to damages is already complete at the commencement of the action, and must also be a duty of which a court of equity would enforce the performance. [R60, §3767; C73, §3375; C97, §4343; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12445; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.6]

661.7 Other plain, speedy and adequate remedy. An order of mandamus shall not be issued in any case where there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law, save as herein provided. [C51, §2182; R60, §3765; C73, §3376; C97, §4344; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12446; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.7]

661.8 When order granted. The order of mandamus is granted on the petition of any private party aggrieved, without the concurrence of the prosecutor for the state, or on the petition of the state by the county attorney, when the public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought. [R60, §3761; C73, §3377; C97, §4345; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12447; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.8]

661.9 Petition. The plaintiff in such action shall state his claim, and shall also state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall also set forth that the plaintiff, if a private individual, is personally interested therein, and that he sustains and may sustain damage by the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has been demanded by him, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty. [R60, §3762; C73, §3378; C97, §4346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.9]

661.10 Other pleadings. The pleadings and other proceedings in any action in which a mandamus is claimed shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and costs shall be recoverable by either party, as in an ordinary action for the recovery of damages. [R60, §3766; C73, §3379; C97, §4347; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12449; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.10]

661.11 Repealed by 62GA, ch 400, §197.

661.12 Injunction may issue—joinder. When the action is brought by a private person, it may be joined with a cause of action for such an injunction as may be obtained by ordinary proceedings, or with the causes of actions specified in this chapter, but no other joinder and no counterclaim shall be allowed. [R60, §4181; C73, §3380; C97, §4348; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12450; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.12]

661.13 Peremptory order. When the plaintiff recovers judgment, the court may include therein a peremptory order of mandamus directed to the defendant, commanding him forthwith to perform the duty to be enforced, together with a money judgment for damages and costs, upon which an ordinary execution may issue. [R60, §3768; C73, §3381; C97, §4349; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12451; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661.13]

661.14 Form of order—return. The order commanding the performance of the duty shall be directed to the party and shall be returnable forthwith. 2. The cause or pretense of such restraint, according to the best information of the applicant; and if by virtue of any legal process, a copy thereof must be annexed, or a satisfactory reason given for its absence.

3. That the restraint is illegal, and wherein.

4. That the legality of the restraint has not already been adjudged upon a prior proceeding of the same character, to the best knowledge and belief of the applicant.

5. Whether application for the writ has been before made to and refused by any court or judge, and if so, a copy of the petition in that case must be attached, with the reasons for the refusal, or satisfactory reasons given for the failure to do so. [C51, §2213; R60, §3801; C73, §3449; C97, §4417; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663.1]

663.4 Application—to whom made. Application for the writ must be made to the court or judge most convenient in point of distance to the applicant, and the more remote court or judge, if applied to therefor, may refuse the same unless a sufficient reason be stated in the petition for not making the application to the more convenient court or a judge thereof. 663A.1 Statutes not applicable to convicted persons. The provisions of sections 663.1 through 663.44, inclusive, shall not apply to persons convicted of, or sentenced for, a public offense. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.1]

663A.2 Situations where law applicable. Any person who has been convicted of, or sentenced for, a public offense and who claims that:

1. The conviction or sentence was in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws of this state;
2. The court was without jurisdiction to impose sentence;
3. The sentence exceeds the maximum authorized by law;
4. There exists evidence of material facts, not previously presented and heard, that requires vacation of the conviction or sentence in the interest of justice;
5. The person's sentence has expired, or probation, parole, or conditional release has been unlawfully revoked, or the person is otherwise unlawfully held in custody or other restraint;
6. The person's reduction of sentence pursuant to section 246.39 or section 246.43 has been unlawfully forfeited; or
7. The conviction or sentence is otherwise subject to collateral attack upon any ground of alleged error formerly available under any common law, statutory or other writ, motion, petition, proceeding, or remedy; may institute, without paying a filing fee, a proceeding under this chapter to secure relief.

This remedy is not a substitute for nor does it affect any remedy, incident to the proceedings in the trial court, or of direct review of the sentence or conviction. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it comprehends and takes the place of all other common law, statutory, or other remedies formerly available for challenging the validity of the conviction or sentence. It shall be used exclusively in place of them. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.2; 81 Acts, ch 198, §1, 2]

Referred to in §663A.5, 663A.7

663A.3 How to commence proceeding. A proceeding is commenced by filing an application verified by the applicant with the clerk of the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. An application may be filed at any time. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant and the authenticity of all documents and exhibits included in or attached to the application must be sworn to affirmatively as true and correct. The supreme court may prescribe the form of the application and verification. The clerk shall docket the application upon its receipt and promptly bring it to the attention of the court and deliver a copy to the county attorney and the attorney general. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.3]

Referred to in §331.702(118), 663A.4; R.Cr.P. Form 11

663A.4 Facts to be presented. The application shall identify the proceedings in which the applicant was convicted, give the date of the entry of the judgment of conviction or sentence complained of, specifically set forth the grounds upon which the application is based, and clearly state the relief desired. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant shall be set forth separately from other allegations of facts and shall be verified as provided in section 663A.3. Affidavits, records, or other evidence supporting its allegations shall be attached to the application or the application shall recite why they are not attached. The application shall identify all previous proceedings, together with the grounds therein asserted, taken by the applicant to secure relief from his conviction or sentence. Argument, citations, and discussion of authorities are unnecessary. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.4]

663A.5 Payment of costs. If the applicant is unable to pay court costs and expenses of representation, including stenographic, printing, and legal services, these costs and expenses shall be made available to the applicant in the preparation of the application, in the trial court, and on review.

If an applicant confined in a state institution seeks relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, and the court finds in favor of the applicant, or the postconviction proceedings fail and costs and expenses referred to in unnumbered paragraph 1 cannot be collected from the applicant, these costs and expenses initially shall be paid by the county in which the state institution is located. The facts of payment and the proceedings on which it is based, with a statement of the amount of costs and expenses incurred, with approval in writing by the presiding judge appended to the statement or endorsed on it, shall be certified by the clerk of the district court under seal to the state executive council. The executive council shall review the proceedings and authorize reimbursement for the costs and expenses or for that part which the executive council finds justified, and shall notify the state comptroller to draw a warrant to the county treasurer on the state general fund for the amount authorized. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.5; 82 Acts, ch 1108, §1]

663A.6 Determination of relief. Within thirty days after the docketing of the application, or within any further time the court may fix, the state shall respond by answer or by motion which may be supported by affidavits. At any time prior to entry of judgment the court may grant leave to withdraw the application. The court may make appropriate orders for amendment of the application or any pleading or motion, for pleading over, for filing further pleadings or motions, or for extending the time of the filing of any pleading. In considering the application the court shall take account of substance regardless of defects of form. If the application is not accompanied by the record of the proceedings challenged therein, the respondent shall file with its answer the record or portions thereof that are material to the questions raised in the application.

When a court is satisfied, on the basis of the application, the answer or motion, and the record, that the applicant is not entitled to postconviction relief and no purpose would be served by any further proceedings, it may indicate to the parties its intention to dismiss the application and its reasons for dismissal. The applicant shall be given an opportunity to reply to the proposed dismissal. In light of the reply, or on default thereof, the court may order the application dismissed or grant leave to file an amended application or direct that the proceedings otherwise continue. Disposition on the pleadings and record is not proper if a material issue of fact exists.

The court may grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of the application, when it appears from the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions and agreements of fact, together with any affidavits submitted, that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.6]

663A.7 Court to hear application. The application shall be heard in, and before any judge of the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. However, if the applicant is seeking relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, the application shall be heard in, and before any judge of the court of the county in which the applicant is being confined. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved. All rules and statutes applicable in civil proceedings including pre-trial and discovery procedures are available to the parties. The court may receive proof of affidavits, depositions, oral testimony, or other evidence, and may order the applicant brought before it for the hearing. If the court finds in favor of the applicant, it shall enter an appropriate order with respect to the conviction or sentence in the former proceedings, and any supplementary orders as to arraignment, retrial, custody, bail, discharge, correction of sentence, or other matters that may be necessary and proper. The court shall make specific findings of fact, and state expressly its conclusions of law, relating to each issue presented. This order is a final judgment. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.7; 81 Acts, ch 198, §3]

663A.8 Grounds must be all-inclusive. All grounds for relief available to an applicant under this chapter must be raised in his original, supplemental or amended application. Any ground finally adjudicated or not raised, or knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waived in the proceeding that resulted in the conviction or sentence, or in any other proceeding the applicant has taken to secure relief, may not be the basis for a subsequent application, unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which for sufficient reason was not asserted or was inadequately raised in the original, supplemental, or amended application. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.8]

663A.9 Appeal. A final judgment entered under this chapter may be reviewed by the supreme court of this state on appeal, brought either by the applicant or by the state within sixty days from the entry of the judgment. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.9]

Referred to in R App P 32

663A.10 Rule of construction. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.10]

663A.11 Citation. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Postconviction Procedure Act. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.11]

665.7 Notice to show cause. Before punishing for contempt, unless the offender is already in the presence of the court, he must be served personally with a rule to show cause against the punishment, and a reasonable time given him therefor; or he may be brought before the court forthwith, or on a given day, by warrant, if necessary. In either case he may, at his option, make a written explanation of his conduct under oath, which must be filed and preserved. [C51, §1603; R60, §2693; C73, §3496; C97, §4465; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12546; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §665.7]

[C51, §1604; R60, §2694; C73, §3497; C97, §4466; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12547; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §665.8]

665.9 Personal knowledge of court—record required. If the court or judge acts upon personal knowledge in the premises, a statement of the facts upon which the order is founded must be entered on the records of the court, or be filed and preserved when the court keeps no record, and shall be a part of the record. 665.11 Revision by certiorari. No appeal lies from an order to punish for a contempt, but the proceedings may, in proper cases, be taken to a higher court for revision by certiorari. [C51, §1606; R60, §2696; C73, §3499; C97, §4468; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12550; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §665.11]

665.12 Indictment not barred. The punishment for a contempt constitutes no bar to an indictment, but if the offender is indicted and convicted for the same offense, the court, in passing sentence, must take into consideration the punishment before inflicted. Conditions of bond, §64.2

666.2 Prior judgment no bar. A judgment in favor of a party for one delinquency does not preclude the same or another party from an action on the same security for another delinquency, except that sureties can be made liable in the aggregate only to the extent of their undertaking. [C51, §2147; R60, §3728; C73, §3369; C97, §4337; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §666.2]

666.5 Collusion. A judgment for a penalty or forfeiture, rendered by collusion, does not prevent another action for the same subject matter. [C51, §2150; R60, §3731; C73, §3372; C97, §4340; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12556; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §666.5]

Such report must be full, true, and complete with reference to the matters therein contained, and of all things required by this section to be reported, and be under oath, and any officer failing to make such report shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. [C27, 31, 35, §12667-a52; C39, §12667.35; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §675.35]

If such judgment shall thereafter be vacated that fact shall be reported by the clerk in the same manner. [C27, 31, 35, §12667-a53; C39, §12667.36; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §675.36]

A person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to an order or judgment entered in a paternity action under this chapter, who is also a recipient of public assistance, is deemed to have assigned the person's rights to the support payments, to the extent of public assistance received by the person, to the department of social services. The department shall immediately notify the clerk of court by mail when a person entitled to support payments has been determined to be eligible for public assistance. Upon notification by the department that a person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to this chapter is receiving public assistance, the clerk of court shall make a notation of the automatic assignment in the judgment docket and lien index. The notation constitutes constructive notice of the assignment. The clerk of court shall forward support payments received pursuant to section 675.25, to which the department is entitled, to the department, which may secure support payments in default through proceedings prescribed in chapter 252A or section 675.37. The clerk shall furnish the department with copies of all orders or decrees awarding support to parties having custody of minor children when the parties are receiving public assistance. If a judgment of paternity is entered, the father may petition for rights of visitation or custody in an equity proceeding separate from any action to establish paternity. [C81, §675.40]

675.41 Blood tests. In any proceeding to establish paternity in law or in equity the court may on its own motion, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, mother, and alleged father to submit to blood tests. If a blood test is required, the court shall direct that inherited characteristics, including but not limited to blood types, be determined by appropriate testing procedures, and shall appoint an expert qualified as an examiner of genetic markers to analyze and interpret the results and to report to the court. Blood test results which show a statistical probability of paternity are admissible and shall be weighed along with other evidence of the alleged father’s paternity. If the results of blood tests or the expert’s analysis of inherited characteristics is disputed, the court, upon reasonable request of a party, shall order that an additional test be made by the same laboratory or an independent laboratory at the expense of the party requesting additional testing. Verified documentation of the chain of custody of the blood specimens is competent evidence to establish the chain of custody. A verified expert’s report shall be admitted at trial unless a challenge to the testing procedures or the results of blood analysis has been made before trial. All costs shall be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court. [C81, §675.41]

If such person, having had the same notice as if he were defendant in an action that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time and place of making it, refuses to accept it, and afterwards commences an action upon such cause, and does not recover more than the amount so offered to be confessed, he shall pay all the costs of the action. [R60, §3403; C73, §2898; C97, §3817; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12673; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.2]

677.5 Nonacceptance—costs. If the plaintiff, being present, refuses to accept judgment for such sum in full of his demands in the action, or, having had three days' notice that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time of making it, fails to attend, and on the trial does not recover more than was offered to be confessed, he shall pay the costs of the defendant incurred after the offer. [R60, §3404; C73, §2899; C97, §3818; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12676; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.5]

[R60, §3404; C73, §2899; C97, §3818; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12677; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.6]

The defendant in an action for the recovery of money only may, at any time after service of notice and before the trial, serve upon the plaintiff or his attorney an offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum with costs. amount of recovery shall be assessed at a specified sum. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12682; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.11]

677.12 Acceptance—effect. If the plaintiff accepts the offer, and gives notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney within five days after it was served, or within three days if served in term time, and the defendant fails in his defense, the judgment shall be for the amount so agreed upon. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12683; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.12]

677.13 Nonacceptance—effect. If the plaintiff does not accept the offer, he shall prove the amount to be recovered as if the offer had not been made, and the offer shall not be given in evidence or mentioned on the trial, and if the amount recovered by the plaintiff does not exceed the sum mentioned in the offer, the defendant shall recover his costs incurred in the defense. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12684; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §677.13]

679A.1 Validity of arbitration agreement.

1. A written agreement to submit to arbitration an existing controversy is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable unless grounds exist at law or in equity for the revocation of the written agreement.

2. A provision in a written contract to submit to arbitration a future controversy arising between the parties is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable unless grounds exist at law or in equity for the revocation of the contract. This subsection shall not apply to any of the following:

- a. A contract of adhesion.
- b. A contract between employers and employees.
- c. Unless otherwise provided in a separate writing executed by all parties to the contract, any claim sounding in tort whether or not involving a breach of contract. [C51, §2098, 2101; R60, §3675, 3678; C73, §3416, 3418; C97, §4385, 4387; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12695, 12697; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.1, 679.3; 81 Acts, ch 202, §1]

Referred to in §679A 2

679A.2 Proceedings to compel or stay arbitration.

1. On application of a party showing an agreement described in section 679A.1 and the opposing party's refusal to arbitrate, the district court shall order the parties to proceed with arbitration. However, if the opposing party denies the existence of a valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate, the district court shall proceed to the determination of the issue and shall order arbitration if a valid and enforceable agreement is found to exist. If no such agreement exists, the court shall deny the application.

2. On application, the district court may stay an arbitration proceeding commenced or threatened on a showing that there is no valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate. The issue, when in substantial and bona fide dispute, shall be tried and the stay ordered if a valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate does not exist. If an agreement is found to exist, the court shall order the parties to proceed to arbitration.

3. If an issue referable to arbitration under the alleged agreement is involved in an action or proceeding pending in a district court, the application shall be made to that court. Otherwise, the application may be made in a district court as provided in section 679A.16.

4. An action or proceeding involving an issue subject to arbitration shall be stayed if an order for arbitration or an application for an order to arbitrate has been made under this section or, if the issue is severable, the stay may be made with respect to the part of the issue which is subject to arbitration only. When the application is made in such an action or proceeding, the order for arbitration shall include the stay.

5. An order for arbitration shall not be refused on the ground that the claim in issue lacks merit or because any fault or grounds for the claim sought to be arbitrated have not been shown. [C51, §2102; R60, §3679; C73, §3419; C97, §4388; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12698; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.4; 81 Acts, ch 202, §2]

Referred to in §679A 12, 679A 17

679A.3 Appointment of arbitrators by district court. If the arbitration agreement provides a method of appointment of arbitrators, this method shall be followed. In the absence of a method of appointing, or if the agreed method fails or for any reason cannot be followed, or when an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable to act and a successor has not been appointed, the district court on application of a party shall appoint one or more arbitrators. An arbitrator appointed by the district court has the same powers as an arbitrator specifically named in the agreement. [C97, §4395; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12712; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.18; 81 Acts, ch 202, §3]

Referred to in §679A 12

679A.4 Majority action by arbitrators. The powers of the arbitrators may be exercised by a majority unless otherwise provided by the agreement or by this chapter. [81 Acts, ch 202, §4]

679A.5 Hearing. Unless otherwise provided by the agreement:

1. The arbitrators shall determine a time and place for the hearing and cause notification to the parties to be served personally or by registered mail not less than five days before the hearing. Appearance at the hearing waives the notice. The arbitrators may adjourn the hearing as necessary and, on request of a party and for good cause, or upon their own motion may postpone the hearing to a time not later than the date fixed by the agreement for making the award. The arbitrators may hear and determine the controversy upon the evidence produced even if a party duly notified fails to appear.

2. The parties are entitled to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.

3. The hearing shall be conducted by all the arbitrators. If, during the course of the hearing, an arbitrator for any reason ceases to act, the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators may continue with the hearing and determination of the controversy. [C51, §2105; R60, §3682; C73, §3422; C97, §4391; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12701; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.7; 81 Acts, ch 202, §5]

Referred to in §679A.12

679A.6 Representation by attorney. A party has the right to be represented by an attorney at any proceeding or hearing under this chapter. A waiver of this right before the proceeding or hearing is ineffective. [81 Acts, ch 202, §6]

679A.7 Witnesses, subpoenas, depositions.

1. The arbitrators may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of books, records, documents, and other evidence, and may administer oaths. Subpoenas shall be served, and upon application to the district court by a party or the arbitrators, enforced in the manner provided by law for the service and enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

2. On application of a party and for use as evidence, the arbitrators may permit a deposition to be taken, in the manner and upon the terms designated by the arbitrators, of a witness who cannot be subpoenaed or is unable to attend the hearing.

3. All provisions of the law compelling a person under subpoena to testify are applicable.

4. Unless otherwise agreed, fees for attendance as a witness shall be the same as for a witness in the district court. [C51, §2103; R60, §3680; C73, §3420; C97, §4389; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12699; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.5; 81 Acts, ch 202, §7]

679A.8 Award.

1. The award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrators joining in the award. The arbitrators shall deliver a copy to each party personally, by registered mail, or as provided in the agreement.

2. A party waives the objection that an award was not made within the proper time unless the party notifies the arbitrators of the party's objection before the award is received.

3. Unless otherwise agreed, an award shall be made within thirty days after the arbitration hearing. [C51, §2106–2108; R60, §3683–3685; C73, §3423–3425; C97, §4392–4394; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12702–12704; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.8–679.10; 81 Acts, ch 202, §8]

679A.9 Change of award by arbitrators. On application of a party or, if an application to the district court is pending under sections 679A.11 to 679A.13, on submission to the arbitrators by the district court under the conditions the district court orders, the arbitrators may modify or correct the award upon the grounds stated in section 679A.13, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" and "c", or for the purpose of clarifying the award. The application shall be made within twenty days after delivery of the award to the applicant. Written notice of the application shall be given to the opposing party, stating that the opposing party must serve any objections to the application within ten days from the notice. The modified or corrected award is subject to sections 679A.11 to 679A.13. a. The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other illegal means.

b. There was evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral, corruption in any of the arbitrators, or misconduct prejudicing the rights of a party.

c. The arbitrators exceeded their powers.

d. The arbitrators refused to postpone the hearing upon sufficient cause being shown for the postponement, refused to hear evidence material to the controversy, or conducted the hearing contrary to the provisions of section 679A.5, in a manner which prejudiced substantially the rights of a party.

e. There was no arbitration agreement, the issue was not adversely determined in proceedings under section 679A.2, and the party did not participate in the arbitration hearing without raising the objection.

f. Substantial evidence on the record as a whole does not support the award. The court shall not vacate an award on this ground if a party urging the vacation has not caused the arbitration proceedings to be reported, if the parties have agreed that a vacation shall not be made on this ground, or if the arbitration has been conducted under the auspices of the American arbitration association.

2. The fact that the relief awarded could not or would not be granted by a court of law or equity is not ground for vacating or refusing to confirm the award.

3 An application under this section shall be made within ninety days after delivery of a copy of the award to the applicant. However, if the application to vacate an award is predicated upon corruption, fraud, or other illegal means, it shall be made within ninety days after those grounds are known or should have been known.

4 In vacating the award on grounds other than stated in subsection 1, paragraph "e", the district court may order a rehearing before new arbitrators chosen as provided in the agreement, or in the absence of a method in the agreement, by the district court in accordance with section 679A.3, or if the award is vacated on grounds set forth in subsection 1, paragraph "c" or "d" of this section, the district court may order a rehearing before the arbitrators who made the award or their successors appointed in accordance with section 679A.3. a There is an evident miscalculation of figures or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property referred to in the award.

b The arbitrators have awarded upon a matter not submitted to them and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the issues submitted.

c The award is imperfect in a matter of form, not affecting the merits of the controversy.

2 If the application is granted, the district court shall modify and correct the award to effect its intent and shall confirm the award as modified and corrected [81 Acts, ch 202, §13].

Unless the parties have agreed otherwise, notice of an initial application for an order shall be served in the manner provided by the Iowa rules of civil procedure for the service of original notice in an action [81 Acts, ch 202, §15].

See Const. Art. V, §4

2. Any civil or criminal action or special proceeding filed with the supreme court for appeal or review, may be transferred by the supreme court to the court of appeals by issuing an order of transfer. The jurisdiction of the supreme court in such a matter shall cease upon the filing of that order by the clerk of the supreme court. Any matter which has been transferred to the court of appeals pursuant to order of the supreme court shall not thereafter be subject to the jurisdiction of the supreme court, except as provided in subsection 4.

3. The supreme court shall promulgate rules for the transfer of matters to the court of appeals. Those rules may provide for the selective transfer of individual cases and may provide for the transfer of cases according to subject matter or other general criteria. Rules relating to the transfer of cases shall be subject to the provisions of section 684.19. A rule shall not provide for the transfer of a matter other than by an order of transfer as provided in subsection 2.

4. Any party to an appeal decided by the court of appeals may, as a matter of right, file an application with the supreme court for further review. An application for further review shall not be granted by the supreme court unless the application was filed within twenty days following the filing of the decision of the court of appeals. The court of appeals may extend the time for filing of an application if the court of appeals determines that a failure to timely file an application was due to the failure of the clerk of the court of appeals to notify the prospective applicant of the filing of the decision. If an application for further review is not acted upon by the supreme court within thirty days after the application was filed, the application shall be deemed denied, the supreme court shall lose jurisdiction, and the decision of the court of appeals shall be conclusive.

5. The supreme court shall promulgate rules of appellate procedure which shall govern further review by the supreme court of decisions of the court of appeals. Such rules shall contain, but need not be limited to, a specification of the grounds upon which further review may, in the discretion of the supreme court, be granted. 701.1 Short title. Chapters 701 to 728 shall be known and may be cited as “Iowa Criminal Code.” [C79, 81, §701.1]

701.2 Public offense. A public offense is that which is prohibited by statute and is punishable by fine or imprisonment. [C51, §2816–2818; R60, §4428–4430; C73, §4103–4105; C97, §5092–5094; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12889–12891; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.1, 687.2, 687.4; C79, 81, §701.2]

701.3 Presumption of innocence. Every person is presumed innocent until proved guilty. No person shall be convicted of any offense unless his or her guilt thereof is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. [C51, §2819; R60, §4431, 4807; C73, §4106, 4428; C97, §5095, 5376; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12892, 13917; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.5, 785.3; C79, 81, §701.3]
See R Cr P 21(9)

701.4 Insanity. No person shall be convicted of any crime if at the time such crime is committed the person suffers from such a diseased or deranged condition of the mind so as to render the person incapable of knowing the nature and quality of the act he or she is committing or incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong in relation to that act. Insanity need not exist for any specific length of time before or after the commission of the alleged criminal act. [C79, 81, §701.4]

701.5 Intoxicants or drugs. The fact that a person is under the influence of intoxicants or drugs neither excuses the person’s act nor aggravates his or her guilt, but may be shown where it is relevant in proving the person’s specific intent or recklessness at the time of the person’s alleged criminal act or in proving any element of the public offense with which the person is charged. [C79, 81, §701.5]

701.6 Ignorance or mistake. All persons are presumed to know the law. Evidence of an accused person’s ignorance or mistake as to a matter of either fact or law shall be admissible in any case where it shall tend to prove the existence or nonexistence of some element of the crime with which the person is charged. [C79, 81, §701.6]

701.7 Felony defined and classified. A public offense is a felony of a particular class when the statute defining the crime declares it to be a felony. Felonies are class “A” felonies, class “B” felonies, class “C” felonies, and class “D” felonies. Where the statute defining the offense declares it to be a felony but does not state what class of felony it is or provide for a specific penalty, that felony shall be a class “D” felony. [C51, §2817; R60, §4429; C73, §4104; C97, §5093; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12890; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.2; C79, 81, §701.7]

701.8 Misdemeanor defined and classified. All public offenses which are not felonies are misdemeanors. Misdemeanors are aggravated misdemeanors, serious misdemeanors, or simple misdemeanors. Where an act is declared to be a public offense, crime or misdemeanor, but no other designation is given, such act shall be a simple misdemeanor. [C51, §2675, 2818; R60, §4302, 4430; C73, §3966, 4105; C97, §4905, 5094; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12891, 12893; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.4, 687.6; C79, 81, §701.8]
See also §903 1

701.9 Merger of lesser included offenses. No person shall be convicted of a public offense which is necessarily included in another public offense of which the person is convicted. If the jury returns a verdict of guilty of more than one offense and such verdict conflicts with this section, the court shall enter judgment of guilty of the greater of the offenses only. [C79, 81, §701.9]
See R Cr P 6(1), 21(3)

701.10 Civil remedies preserved. The fact that one may be subjected to a criminal prosecution in no way limits the right which anyone may have to a civil remedy. [C79, 81, §701.10] punished as principals. The guilt of a person who aids and abets the commission of a crime must be determined upon the facts which show the part he or she had in it, and does not depend upon the degree of another person's guilt [C51, §2928, R60, §4668, C73, §4314, C97, §5299, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12895; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §688 1, C79, 81, §703 1]

When two or more persons, acting in concert, knowingly participate in a public offense, each is responsible for the acts of the other done in furtherance of the commission of the offense or escape therefrom, and his or her guilt will be the same as that of the person so acting, unless the act was one which the person could not reasonably expect to be done in the furtherance of the commission of the offense [C79, 81, §703 2]

703.3 Accessory after the fact. Any person having knowledge that a public offense has been committed and that a certain person committed it, and who does not stand in the relation of husband or wife to the person who committed the offense, who harbors, aids or conceals the person who committed the offense, with the intent to prevent the apprehension of the person who committed the offense, commits an aggravated misdemeanor if the public offense committed was a felony, or commits a simple misdemeanor if the public offense was a misdemeanor [C51, §2929, R60, §4669, C73, §4315, C97, §5300, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12896; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §688 2, C79, 81, §703 3, 81 Acts, ch 204, §1]

703.4 Responsibility of employers. An employer or an employer's agent, officer, director, or employee who supervises or directs the work of other employees, is guilty of the same public offense committed by an employee acting under the employer's control, supervision, or direction in any of the following cases

1 The person has directed the employee to commit a public offense

2 The person knowingly permits an employee to commit a public offense, under circumstances in which the employer expects to benefit from the illegal activity of the employee

3 The person assigns the employee some duty or duties which the person knows cannot be accomplished, or are not likely to be accomplished, unless the employee commits a public offense, provided that the offense committed by the employee is one which the employer can reasonably anticipate will follow from this assignment [C79, 81, §703 4]

703.5 Liability of corporations, partnerships and voluntary associations. A public or private corporation, partnership, or other voluntary association shall have the same level of culpability as an individual committing the crime when any of the following is true

"High managerial agent" means an officer of the corporation, partner, or other agent in a position of comparable authority with respect to the formulation of policy or the supervision in a managerial capacity of subordinate employees [C79, 81, §703 5]

- 704 9 Death
- 704 10 Compulsion
- 704 11 Police activity
- 704 12 Use of force in making an arrest

704.1 Reasonable force. "Reasonable force" is that force and no more which a reasonable person, in like circumstances, would judge to be necessary to prevent an injury or loss and can include deadly force if it is reasonable to believe that such force is necessary to avoid injury or risk to one's life or safety or the life or safety of another, or it is reasonable to believe that such force is necessary to resist a like force or threat. Reasonable force, including deadly force, may be used even if an alternative course of action is available if the alternative entails a risk to life or safety, or the life or safety of a third party, or requires one to abandon or retreat from one's dwelling or place of business or employment [C51, §2773, R60, §4442, C73, §4112,

C97, §5102; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12921; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §691.1; C79, 81, §704.1; 81 Acts, ch 204, §2]

704.2 Deadly force. The term “deadly force” means any of the following:

1. Force used for the purpose of causing serious injury.
2. Force which the actor knows or reasonably should know will create a strong probability that serious injury will result.
3. The discharge of a firearm in the direction of some person with the knowledge of his or her presence there, even though no intent to inflict serious physical injury can be shown.
4. The discharge of a firearm at a vehicle in which a person is known to be. [C79, 81, §704.2]

704.3 Defense of self or another. A person is justified in the use of reasonable force when he or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary to defend himself or herself or another from any imminent use of unlawful force. [C51, §2773–2775; R60, §4442–4444; C73, §4112–4114; C97, §5102–5104; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12921–12923; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §691.1, 691.2(1), 691.3; C79, 81, §704.3]

704.4 Defense of property. A person is justified in the use of reasonable force to prevent or terminate criminal interference with his or her possession or other right in property. Nothing in this section authorizes the use of any spring gun or trap which is left unattended and unsupervised and which is placed for the purpose of preventing or terminating criminal interference with the possession of or other right in property. [C51, §2774; R60, §4443; C73, §4113; C97, §5103; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12922; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §691.2(2); C79, 81, §704.4]

704.5 Aiding another in the defense of property. A person is justified in the use of reasonable force to aid another in the lawful defense of his or her rights in property or in any public property. [C51, §2775; R60, §4444; C73, §4114; C97, §5104; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12923; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §691.3; C79, 81, §704.5]

704.6 When defense not available. The defense of justification is not available to the following:

1. One who is participating in a forcible felony, or riot, or a duel.
2. One who initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself, with the intent to use such force as an excuse to inflict injury on the assailant.
3. One who initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself by his or her unlawful acts, unless:
 - a. Such force is grossly disproportionate to the provocation, and is so great that the person reasonably believes that he or she is in imminent danger of death or serious injury or
 - b. The person withdraws from physical contact with the other and indicates clearly to the other that the person desires to terminate the conflict but the other continues or resumes the use of force. [C79, 81, §704.6]

704.7 Resisting forcible felony. A person who knows that a forcible felony is being perpetrated is justified in using, against the perpetrator, reasonable force to prevent the completion of that felony. [C79, 81, §704.7]

704.8 Escape from place of confinement. A correctional officer or peace officer is justified in using reasonable force, including deadly force, which is necessary to prevent the escape of any person from any jail, penal institution, correctional facility, or similar place of confinement, or place of trial or other judicial proceeding, or to prevent the escape from custody of any person who is being transported from any such place of confinement, trial or judicial proceeding to any other such place, except that deadly force may not be used to prevent the escape of one who the correctional officer or peace officer knows or should know is confined on a charge or conviction of any class of misdemeanor. [C79, 81, §704.8]

See §246.32

704.9 Death. A physician or a person acting on the direct orders of a physician who ceases to provide medical attention to a person who is dead, as death is defined in section 702.8, shall not be criminally liable for such cessation of medical attention. [C79, 81, §704.9]

704.10 Compulsion. No act, other than an act by which one intentionally or recklessly causes physical injury to another, is a public offense if the person so acting is compelled to do so by another’s threat or menace of serious injury, provided that the person reasonably believes that such injury is imminent and can be averted only by his or her doing such act. [C79, 81, §704.10]

704.11 Police activity. A peace officer or person acting as an agent of or directed by any police agency who participates in the commission of a crime by another person solely for the purpose of gathering evidence leading to the prosecution of such other person shall not be guilty of that crime or of the crime of solicitation as set forth in section 705.1, provided that all of the following are true:

1. He or she is not an instigator of the criminal activity.
2. He or she does not intentionally injure a non-participant in the crime.
3. He or she acts with the consent of superiors, or the necessity of immediate action precludes obtaining such consent.
4. His or her actions are reasonable under the circumstances.

This section is not intended to preclude the use of undercover or surveillance persons by law enforcement agencies in appropriate circumstances and manner. It is intended to discourage such activity to tempt, urge or persuade the commission of offenses by persons not already disposed to commit offenses of that kind. [C79, 81, §704.11]

704.12 Use of force in making an arrest. A peace officer or other person making an arrest or securing an arrested person may use such force as is permitted by sections 804.8, 804.10, 804.13 and 804.15. [C51, §2844;

R60, §4553; C73, §4205; C97, §5200; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §755.8; C79, 81, §704.12]

705.1 Solicitation.

705.2 Renunciation.

705.1 Solicitation. Any person who commands, entreats, or otherwise attempts to persuade another to commit a particular felony or aggravated misdemeanor, with the intent that such act be done and under circumstances which corroborates that intent by clear and convincing evidence, solicits such other to commit that felony or aggravated misdemeanor. One who solicits another to commit a felony of any class commits a class "D" felony. One who solicits another to commit an aggravated misdemeanor commits an aggravated misdemeanor. [C79, 81, §705.1]

Referred to in §704.11

705.2 Renunciation. It is a defense to a prosecution for solicitation that the defendant, after soliciting another person to commit a felony or aggravated misdemeanor, persuaded the person not to do so or otherwise prevented the commission of the offense, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of the defendant's criminal intent. A renunciation is not "voluntary and complete" if it is motivated in whole or in part by (a) the person's belief that circumstances exist which increase the possibility of detection or apprehension of the defendant or another or which make more difficult the consummation of the offense or (b) the person's decision to postpone the offense until another time or to substitute another victim or another but similar objective. [C79, 81, §705.2]

CHAPTER 706

707.4 Voluntary manslaughter. A person commits voluntary manslaughter when that person causes the death of another person, under circumstances which would otherwise be murder, if he or she acts solely as the result of sudden, violent, and irresistible passion resulting from serious provocation sufficient to excite such passion in a person and there is not an interval between the provocation and the killing in which a person of ordinary reason and temperament would regain his or her control and suppress the impulse to kill.

Voluntary manslaughter is an included offense under an indictment for murder in the first or second degree.

Voluntary manslaughter is a class "C" felony. [C51, §2576; R60, §4199; C73, §3856; C97, §4751; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12919; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §690.10; C79, 81, §707.4]

Any person who attempts to intentionally terminate a human pregnancy after the end of the second trimester of the pregnancy where death of the fetus does not result commits attempted feticide. Attempted feticide is a class “D” felony.

This section shall not apply to the termination of a human pregnancy performed by a physician licensed in this state to practice medicine or surgery when in the best clinical judgment of the physician the termination is performed to preserve the life or health of the pregnant person or of the fetus and every reasonable medical effort not inconsistent with preserving the life of the pregnant person is made to preserve the life of a viable fetus.

Definition of “viability”, §702 20

707.11 Attempt to commit murder. A person commits a class “B” felony when, with the intent to cause the death of another person and not under circumstances which would justify the person’s actions, the person does any act by which the person expects to set in motion a force or chain of events which will cause or result in the death of the other person.

It is not a defense to an indictment for attempt to commit murder that the acts proved could not have caused the death of any person, provided that the actor intended to cause the death of some person by so acting, and the actor’s expectations were not unreasonable in the light of the facts known to the actor. [C51, §2591, 2596; R60, §4214, 4219; C73, §3872, 3877; C97, §4768, 4773, 4797; S13, §4768; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12915, 12918, 12962; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §690.6, 690.9, 697.2; C79, 81, §707.11; 82 Acts, ch 1239, §2]

714.1 Theft defined. A person commits theft when the person does any of the following:

1. Takes possession or control of the property of another, or property in the possession of another, with the intent to deprive the other thereof.

2. Misappropriates property which the person has in trust, or property of another which the person has in his or her possession or control, whether such possession or control is lawful or unlawful, by using or disposing of it in a manner which is inconsistent with or a denial of the trust or of the owner's rights in such property, or conceals found property, or appropriates such property to his or her own use, when the owner of such property is known to him or her. Failure by a bailee or lessee of personal property to return the property within seventy-two hours after a time specified in a written agreement of lease or bailment shall be evidence of misappropriation.

3. Obtains the labor or services of another, or a transfer of possession, control, or ownership of the property of another, or the beneficial use of property of another, by deception. Where compensation for goods and services is ordinarily paid immediately upon the obtaining of such goods or the rendering of such services, the refusal to pay or leaving the premises without payment or offer to pay or without having obtained from the owner or operator the right to pay subsequent to leaving the premises gives rise to an inference that the goods or services were obtained by deception.

4. Exercises control over stolen property, knowing such property to have been stolen, or having reasonable cause to believe that such property has been stolen, unless the person's purpose is to promptly restore it to the owner or to deliver it to an appropriate public officer. The fact that the person is found in possession of property which has been stolen from two or more persons on separate occasions, or that the person is a dealer or other person familiar with the value of such property and has acquired it for a consideration which is far below its reasonable value, shall be evidence from which the court or jury may infer that the person knew or believed that the property had been stolen.

5. Takes, destroys, conceals or disposes of property in which someone else has a security interest, with intent to defraud the secured party.

6. Makes, utters, draws, delivers, or gives any check, share draft, draft, or written order on any bank, credit union, person or corporation, and obtains property or service in exchange therefor, if the person knows that such check, share draft, draft or written order will not be paid when presented.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because of insufficient funds, and the maker has not paid the holder of the instrument the amount due thereon within ten days of the maker's receipt of notice from the holder that payment has been refused by the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such facts that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation. Notice of refusal of payment shall be by certified mail, or by personal service in the manner prescribed for serving original notices.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because the maker has no account with the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such fact that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation.

7. Any act that is declared to be theft by any provision of the Code. [C51, §2612, 2615-2618, 2620, 2621; R60, §806, 807, 4236, 4237, 4240-4243, 4245, 4246, 4251; C73, §3895, 3902, 3905-3911, 3915; C97, §4831, 4837-4842, 4844, 4845, 4850, 4852, 5076; S13, §4850, 4852-c, -d, -e; C24, §13005, 13010, 13014-13016, 13018, 13027, 13030, 13031, 13035-13037, 13042, 13046-13048, 13052; C27, 31, 35, §13005, 13010, 13014-13016, 13018, 13027, 13030, 13031, 13034-a1-13037, 13042, 13046-13048, 13052; C39, §13005, 13010, 13014-13016, 13018, 13027, 13030, 13031, 13034.1-13037, 13042, 13046-13048, 13052; C46, 50, 54, 58, §709.1, 709.6-709.9, 709.11, 710.1, 710.4, 710.5, 710.9-710.12, 712.1, 713.2-713.4, 713.7; C62, 66, §709.1, 709.6-709.9, 709.11, 709.20, 710.1, 710.4, 710.5, 710.9-710.12, 712.1, 713.2-713.4, 713.7; C71, 73, 75, 77, §709.1, 709.6-709.9, 709.11, 709.20, 709.25, 710.1, 710.4, 710.5, 710.9-710.12, 710.14, 712.1, 713.2-713.4, 713.7; C79, 81, §714.1]

715.1 Financial instrument defined. A financial instrument is any of the following:

1. A check, bill note, draft, bond receipt, or any writing which ostensibly evidences an obligation of, or surrender of right or claim by, the person who has purportedly executed it or authorized its execution. 3. Any letter, credit card, charge plate, or other device which is designed to identify the person tendering such device as one to whom credit may be extended, or as one to whom goods or services may be furnished and charged to the account of another.

4. Any endorsement, acceptance, acknowledgment, codicil, or any writing of any kind upon or ancillary to any financial instrument which does or purports to affect such instrument or the rights or obligations evidenced thereby. [C51, §2626, 2637; R60, §4253, 4264; C73, §3917, 3928; C97, §4853, 4864; S13, §4853; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13139, 13147; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §718.1, 718.9; C79, 81, §715.1]

715.2 Use of financial instrument defined. One uses a financial instrument when he or she does any of the following:

1. Makes or executes such instrument or an endorsement thereon, or alters such instrument so as to materially change its nature or the right or obligation which it purports to represent.

2. Tenders or offers such instrument to another in the course of a financial or commercial transaction, with the representation, either express or by implication, that the instrument is what it purports to be and that he or she is a person who is shown on its face to be one who may rightfully so use such instrument.

3. Possesses such instrument, knowing it to be false or knowing that he or she has no right to use or possess it. [C51, §2630; R60, §4257; C73, §3921, 3925; C97, §4857, 4871; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13143, 13157; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §718.5, 718.19; C79, 81, §715.2]

715.3 Intent and knowledge. The term "intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value" includes the intent to deliver a financial instrument to another, knowing that the other person intends to use the instrument to obtain fraudulently something of value.

One acts with knowledge of facts when the person has information which would put a reasonable person on inquiry as to such facts, but acts without making a reasonable inquiry. [C79, 81, §715.3]

715.4 Proof of intent. The intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value shall not be proved by the mere possession of a falsified financial instrument or a financial instrument which the possessor has no right to use. [C79, 81, §715.4]

715.5 Person defined. The term "person" as used in this chapter means a natural person, a fiduciary, a state, a private or public corporation or de facto corporation of any kind, or an officer or agent thereof, and includes fictitious persons or corporations. [C79, 81, §715.5]

715.6 False use of a financial instrument. The use of a financial instrument with the intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value by one who knows that the instrument is not what it purports to be, or who knows that he or she is not the person nor the authorized agent of the person who, as shown on the instrument, has the right to so use the instrument, shall constitute the false use of a financial instrument. False use of a financial instrument is a class "C" felony. [C51, §2627, 2629, 2631, 2634-2636, 2641; R60, §4254, 4256, 4258, 4261-4263, 4268; C73, §3918, 3920, 3922, 3925-3927, 3932; C97, §4854, 4856, 4858, 4861-4863, 4868, 5069; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13057, 13140, 13142, 13144, 13146, 13153-13155; C46, §713.12, 718.2, 718.4, 718.6, 718.8, 718.15-718.17; C50, 54, 58, 62, §713.12, 713.35, 718.2, 718.4, 718.6, 718.8, 718.15-718.17; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §713.12, 713.35, 713.39, 718.2, 718.4, 718.6, 718.8, 718.15-718.17; C79, 81, §715.6]

715.7 Filing multiple counts in one information, indictment, or complaint. A single information, indictment, or complaint charging false use of a financial instrument may allege more than one such violation against a person. The multiple charges shall be set out in separate counts, and the accused person shall be acquitted or convicted upon each count by a separate verdict. A convicted person shall be sentenced upon each verdict of guilty. The court may consider separate verdicts of guilty returned at the same time as one offense for the purpose of sentencing. A permit so issued, other than to a peace officer, shall authorize the person to whom it is issued to go armed anywhere in the state, only while engaged in such employment, and while going to and from the place of such employment. Certificates of completion, on a form prescribed and published by the commissioner of public safety, shall be issued to each person who successfully completes the program. No person shall be issued either a professional or nonprofessional permit unless he or she has received a certificate of completion or is a certified peace officer. No peace officer or correctional officer, except a certified peace officer, shall go armed with a pistol or revolver unless he or she has received a certificate of completion, provided that this requirement shall not apply to persons who are employed in this state as peace officers on January 1, 1978 until July 1, 1978, or to peace officers of other jurisdictions exercising their legal duties within this state. 804.1 Arrest by warrant—complaint and citation defined. A criminal proceeding may be commenced by the filing of a complaint before a magistrate. When such complaint is made, charging the commission of some designated public offense in which such magistrate has jurisdiction, and it appears from the complaint or from affidavits filed with it that there is probable cause to believe an offense has been committed and a designated person has committed it, the magistrate shall, except as otherwise provided, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person.

Whenever the complaint charges a simple misdemeanor, the magistrate may issue a citation instead of a warrant of arrest. The citation shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the citation at a time and place stated therein.

The citation may be served in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action.

If the person named in the citation is actually served as provided herein and willfully fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the citation, the person shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor and the magistrate may issue a warrant of arrest for the offense originally charged.

If after issuing a citation the magistrate becomes satisfied that the person to whom such citation has been directed will not appear, the magistrate may at once issue a warrant of arrest without waiting for the date mentioned in the citation. 1. The person has used or threatened to use deadly force in committing a felony or

2. The peace officer reasonably believes the person would use deadly force against any person unless immediately apprehended.

A peace officer making an arrest pursuant to an invalid warrant is justified in the use of any force which the peace officer would be justified in using if the warrant were valid, unless the peace officer knows that the warrant is invalid. A private person who is summoned or directed by a peace officer to assist in making an arrest may use whatever force the peace officer could use under the circumstances, provided that, if the arrest is unlawful, the private person assisting the officer shall be justified as if the arrest were a lawful arrest, unless the person knows that the arrest is unlawful. At the time of the arrest, the law enforcement officer shall inform the person of:

805.6 Uniform citation and complaint.

1. a. The commissioner of public safety and the state conservation director, acting jointly, shall adopt a uniform, combined citation and complaint which shall be used for charging all traffic violations in Iowa under state law or local regulation or ordinance, and which shall be used for charging all other violations which are designated by section 805.8 to be scheduled violations. This subsection shall not be deemed to prevent the charging of any of those violations by information, by private complaint filed under the provisions of chapter 804, or by a simple notice of fine where permitted by section 321.236, subsection 1.

Each uniform citation and complaint shall be serially numbered and shall be in quintuplicate, and the officer shall deliver the original and a copy to the court where the defendant is to appear, two copies to the defendant, and a copy to the law enforcement agency of the officer. The court shall forward the copy of the uniform citation and complaint in accordance with section 321.207 when applicable. The uniform citation and complaint shall contain spaces for the parties names; the address of the alleged offender; the registration number of the offender's vehicle; the information required by section 805.2; a promise to appear as provided in section 805.3 and a place where the cited person may sign the promise to appear; a list of the scheduled fines prescribed by section 805.8, either separately or by group, and a statement that the court costs in scheduled offense cases, whether or not a court appearance is required or is demanded, shall be six dollars; a brief explanation of sections 805.9 and 805.10, a space where the defendant may sign an admission of the violation when permitted by section 805.9; and the uniform citation and complaint shall require that the defendant appear before a court at a specified time and place. The uniform citation and complaint also may contain a space for the imprint of a credit card, and may contain any other information which the commissioner of public safety and the state conservation director may determine.

b. The uniform citation and complaint shall contain the following statement with a space immediately below it for the signature of the person being charged: "I hereby give my unsecured appearance bond in the amount of dollars and enter my written appearance. I agree that if I fail to appear in person or by counsel to defend against the offense charged in this citation the court is authorized to enter a conviction and render judgment against me for the amount of my appearance bond in satisfaction of the penalty plus court costs."

c. Unless the officer issuing the citation arrests the alleged offender, or permits admission or requires submission of bail as provided in section 805.9, subsection 3, the officer shall enter in the blank contained in the statement required by paragraph "b" one of the following amounts and shall require the person to sign the written appearance:

(1) If the offense is one to which a scheduled fine is applicable, an amount equal to one and one-half times the scheduled fine plus five dollars costs; or

(2) If the violation charged involved or resulted in an accident or injury to property and the total damages are less than two hundred fifty dollars, the amount of fifty dollars and five dollars costs. If the violation is for any offense for which a court appearance is mandatory, the amount of one hundred dollars plus five dollars costs.

d. The written appearance defined in paragraph "b" shall not be used for any offense other than a simple misdemeanor.

2. In addition to those violations which are required by subsection 1 to be charged upon a uniform citation and complaint, a violation of chapter 321 which is punishable as a simple, serious, or aggravated misdemeanor may be charged upon a uniform citation and complaint, whether or not the alleged offender is arrested by the officer making the charge.

5. The commissioner of public safety and the state conservation director, acting jointly, shall design and publish a compendium of scheduled violations and scheduled fines, containing other information which they deem appropriate, and shall distribute copies to all courts and law enforcement officers and agencies of the state upon request. The cost of the publication shall be paid out of the budget of the department of public safety and out of the budget of the state conservation commission, each budget being liable for half of those costs. Copies shall be made available to individuals upon request, and a charge may be collected which does not exceed the cost of printing.

6. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to invalidate forms of uniform citation and complaint in existence prior to January 1, 1978. Existing forms may be used until supplies are exhausted. [C73, 75, 77, §753.13; C79, 81, §805.6]

810.1 Definition. As used in this chapter, the term “nontestimonial identification” includes, but is not limited to, identification by fingerprints, palm prints, footprints, measurements, hair strands, handwriting samples, voice samples, photographs, blood and saliva samples, ultraviolet or black-light examinations, paraffin tests, and lineups. [C79, 81, §810.1]

810.2 Nontestimonial identification order at request of defendant. A person arrested for or charged with an offense may request a district court judge to order a nontestimonial identification procedure. If it appears that the results of specific nontestimonial identification procedures will be of material aid in determining whether the defendant committed the offense, the judge shall order such identification procedures involving the defendant under such terms and conditions as the judge shall prescribe. [C79, 81, §810.2]

810.3 Authority to issue order. A nontestimonial identification order authorized by this chapter may be issued only by a district court or district associate court judge upon written application of a prosecuting attorney in the investigation of a felony offense. [81 Acts, ch 206, §2]

810.4 Time of application. Applications for a nontestimonial identification order under this chapter may be made prior to the arrest of a suspect. The procedural provisions of this chapter shall not limit the conduct of lineups or other nontestimonial procedures after arrest. [81 Acts, ch 206, §3]

810.5 Contents of application. The application shall:

1. Describe the felony offense that is being investigated;
2. Name or describe with particularity the person to be detained for the desired nontestimonial identification procedure;
3. State the time when and place where the applicant requests that the nontestimonial identification procedure be conducted; and

4. Be supported by one or more affidavits setting forth the facts and circumstances showing that the basis for issuance of an order under this chapter exist. If an affidavit is based in whole or in part on hearsay, the affiant shall set forth particular facts bearing on the informant’s reliability and shall disclose, as far as is practicable, the means by which the information was obtained. [81 Acts, ch 206, §4]

810.6 Basis for order. An order authorized by this chapter shall be issued only if the court finds that the application and the affidavit or affidavits in support of the application establish each of the following:

1. That there is probable cause to believe that a felony described in the application has been committed.
2. That there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the person named or described in the application committed the felony and it is reasonable in view of the seriousness of the offense to subject that person to the requested nontestimonial identification procedures.
3. That the results of the requested nontestimonial identification procedures will be of material aid in determining whether the person named or described in the application committed the felony.
4. That such evidence cannot practicably be obtained from other sources. [81 Acts, ch 206, §5]

810.7 Issuance of order. Upon a showing that the required grounds exist, the court shall issue an order directing the person named or described in the application to appear at a designated time and place for nontestimonial identification procedures. The order shall be maintained by the clerk of the district court along with the application and the affidavits in support of the application in a confidential file until a charge is filed, at which time the order, application, and affidavits in support of the application shall become public records unless the court upon an in camera hearing orders that they be kept confidential. [81 Acts, ch 206, §6; 82 Acts, ch 1138, §1]

810.8 Contents of order. The order shall be directed to the person named or described in the application and shall inform the person of all of the following:

1. That the presence of the person is required for the purpose of conducting or permitting nontestimonial identification procedures in order to aid in the investigation of the felony specified therein.
2. The time and place of the required appearance.
3. The nontestimonial identification procedures to be conducted, the methods to be used, and the approximate length of time the procedures will require.
4. The grounds to suspect that the person named in the affidavit committed the felony specified therein.
5. That the person will be under no legal obligation to submit to any interrogation or to make any statement during the period of the person's appearance except for that required for voice identification.
6. That the person may request the judge to make a reasonable modification of the order with respect to time and place of appearance, including a request to have any nontestimonial identification procedure other than a lineup conducted at the person's place of residence.
7. That if the person fails to appear, he or she may be held in contempt of court.
8. That the right to counsel shall apply during nontestimonial identification procedures, including the right of indigent persons to appointed counsel.
9. That the person may request that the court modify or vacate the order as provided in this chapter. [81 Acts, ch 206, §7]

810.9 Modification of order. At the request of the person named or described in the application, the issuing court may modify a nontestimonial identification order with respect to time, place or manner of conducting the identification procedures if it appears reasonable under the circumstances to do so. [81 Acts, ch 206, §8]

810.10 Vacation of order. On motion of the person named or described in the application, the issuing court shall vacate the nontestimonial identification order if the court finds that the order was improperly issued or that there are no longer sufficient grounds for issuance of the order. [81 Acts, ch 206, §9]

810.11 Service of order. The order issued pursuant to this chapter shall be served by a law enforcement officer by delivery of a copy of the order to the person named or described in the order. [81 Acts, ch 206, §10]

810.12 Time of service.

1. The nontestimonial identification order shall be served upon the person named or described in the order within five days after its issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 midnight, and shall be served not later than twelve hours prior to the time of the person's required participation.

2. If the issuing court finds reasonable cause to believe that the person named or described in the application may either flee or alter or destroy the nontestimonial evidence sought, the court may direct a law enforcement officer to bring the person before the court. Upon presentation of the person, the court shall read the nontestimonial identification order to the person and afford a reasonable opportunity for the person to consult with a lawyer and to seek modification or vacation of the order. The court may then direct the person to participate immediately in the designated nontestimonial identification procedures. After the procedures have been completed, the person shall be released or charged with a felony. [81 Acts, ch 206, §11]

810.13 Implementation of order. Nontestimonial identification procedures may be conducted by any law enforcement officer or other person designated by the judge. The judge may require medical supervision for any test ordered pursuant to this chapter when the judge deems such supervision necessary. A person who appears under an order of appearance issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be detained longer than is reasonably necessary to conduct the specified nontestimonial identification procedures unless he or she is arrested for a felony. [81 Acts, ch 206, §12]

810.14 Failure to comply. Any person who, without adequate excuse, fails to comply with a nontestimonial identification order served upon the person pursuant to this chapter may be held in contempt of the court which issued the order. [81 Acts, ch 206, §13]

810.15 Return. Within ten days after the nontestimonial identification procedure, the order shall be returned to the issuing court. The court, the prosecuting attorney, and the person who was the subject of the order, shall be furnished with a written report of the results of any tests or comparisons utilizing the evidence obtained in the authorized procedures. This report shall be disclosed promptly after it becomes available unless the court directs that disclosure be delayed. [81 Acts, ch 206, §14]

810.16 Disposition of evidence. If at the time of the return probable cause does not exist to believe that the person committed the felony specified in the application, the court shall order that the products of the nontestimonial identification procedures and all copies thereof, be promptly destroyed. Upon motion of the prosecuting attorney, the court may authorize further retention of the nontestimonial evidence so obtained for such time as reasonably necessary to facilitate a continuing investigation or prosecution. [81 Acts, ch 206, §15]

1. A defendant awaiting judgment of conviction and sentencing following either a plea or verdict of guilty of a class "A" felony, murder, felonious assault, sexual abuse in the second degree, sexual abuse in the third degree in violation of section 709.4, subsections 1 and 3, kidnapping, robbery in the first degree, arson in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree.

811.2 Release of defendants—conditions of bail bond.

1. Conditions for release of defendant. All bailable defendants shall be ordered released from custody pending judgment on their personal recognizance, or upon the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the magistrate unless the magistrate determines in the exercise of his or her discretion, that such a release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. When such determination is made, the magistrate shall, either in lieu of or in addition to the above methods of release, impose the first of the following conditions of release which will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for trial or, if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

a. Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise the defendant.

b. Place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release.

c. Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit with the clerk of court in cash or other qualified security of a sum not to exceed ten percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned to the defendant upon the performance of the appearances as required in section 811.6.

d. Require the execution of a bail bond with sufficient surety, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof, provided that, except as provided in section 811.1, bail initially given shall remain valid until final disposition of the offense. If the amount of bail is deemed insufficient by the court before whom the offense is pending, the court may order an increase thereof and the defendant must provide the additional undertaking, written or cash, to secure his or her release.

e. Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required, including a condition requiring that the defendant return to custody after specified hours.

2. Determination of conditions. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure appearance, the magistrate shall, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of his or her residence in the community, the defendant's record of convictions, and the defendant's record of appearance at court proceedings or of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings.

3. Statement to all defendants. When a defendant appears before a magistrate pursuant to R.Cr.P. 2 or 3, the defendant shall be informed of the defendant's right to have said conditions of release reviewed. If the defendant indicates he or she desires such a review and is indigent and unable to retain legal counsel, the magistrate shall appoint an attorney to represent the defendant for the purpose of such review. Unless the conditions of release are amended and the defendant is thereupon released, the magistrate shall set forth in writing the reasons for requiring conditions imposed. A defendant who is ordered released by a magistrate other than a district court judge or district associate judge on a condition which required that the defendant return to custody after specified hours, shall, upon application, be entitled to review by the magistrate who imposed the condition in the same manner as a defendant who remains in full-time custody. In the event that the magistrate who imposed conditions of release is not available, any other magistrate in the judicial district may review such conditions.

4. Statement of conditions when defendant is released. A magistrate authorizing the release of a defendant under this section shall issue a written order containing a statement of the conditions imposed if any, shall inform the defendant of the penalties applicable to violation of the conditions of his or her release and shall advise the defendant that a warrant for the defendant's arrest will be issued immediately upon such violation.

5. Amendment of release conditions. A magistrate ordering the release of the defendant on any conditions specified in this section may at any time amend his or her order to impose additional or different conditions of release, provided that, if the imposition of different or additional conditions results in the detention of the defendant as a result of the defendant's inability to meet such conditions, the provisions of subsection 3 of this section shall apply.

6. Appeal from conditions of release.

a. A defendant who is detained, or whose release on a condition requiring the defendant to return to custody after specified hours is continued, after review of the defendant's application pursuant to subsection 3 or 5 of this section, by a magistrate, other than a district judge or district associate judge having original jurisdiction of the offense with which the defendant is charged, may make application to a district judge or district associate judge having jurisdiction to amend the order. Said motion shall be promptly set for hearing and a record made thereof.

b. In any case in which a court denied a motion under paragraph "a" of this subsection to amend an order imposing conditions of release, or a defendant is detained after conditions of release have been imposed or amended upon such a motion, an appeal may be taken from the district court. The appeal shall be determined summarily, without briefs, on the record made. However, the defendant may elect to file briefs and may be heard in oral argument, in which case the prosecution shall have a right to respond as in an ordinary appeal from a criminal conviction. The appellate court may, on its own motion, order the parties to submit briefs and set the time in which such briefs shall be filed. Any order so appealed shall be affirmed if it is supported by the proceeding below. If the order is not so supported, the court may remand the case for a further hearing or may, with or without additional evidence, order the defendant released pursuant to subsection 1 of this section.

7. Failure to appear—penalty. Any person who, having been released pursuant to this section, willfully fails to appear before any court or magistrate as required shall, in addition to the forfeiture of any security given or pledged for the person's release, if he or she was released in connection with a charge which constitutes a felony, or while awaiting sentence or pending appeal after conviction of any public offense, be guilty of a class "D" felony. If the defendant was released before conviction or acquittal in connection with a charge which constitutes any public offense not a felony, the defendant shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. If the person was released for appearance as a material witness, the person shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the power of the court to punish for contempt. 811.3 Qualification and examination of surety.

1. Insurance companies doing business in this state under the provisions of section 515.48, subsection 2, may act as surety. Resident owners of property which is located within the state and which is worth the amount specified in the undertaking, may act as surety, and must in all cases justify by an affidavit taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths that such surety possesses such qualifications.

2. In taking bail each signer may justify severally in amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, if the whole justification be equivalent to one sufficient bail.

3. The court in which the action is pending, or the clerk thereof, or magistrate may require the personal appearance of sureties offered, and may thereupon further examine them upon oath concerning their sufficiency, and may also receive other evidence for or against the sufficiency of the bail. When such examination is closed, the official conducting such examination must make an order, either allowing or disallowing the bail, and forthwith cause the same, with the affidavits or justification and undertaking of bail, to be filed with the clerk of the court to which the papers on the preliminary examination are required to be sent. Attested copies of such undertakings may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the real estate is situated, in the same manner and with like effect as attested copies of civil judgments, and shall be immediately docketed and indexed in the same manner. 811.5 Bail on appeal. After conviction, upon appeal to the appellate court, the defendant must be admitted to bail, if it be from the judgment imposing a fine, upon the undertaking of bail that the defendant will, in all respects, abide the orders and the judgment of the appellate court upon appeal; if from a judgment of imprisonment, except as provided in section 811.1 upon the undertaking of bail that the defendant will surrender in execution of the judgment and direction of the appellate court, and in all respects abide the orders and judgment of the appellate court upon the appeal. Such bail may be taken, either by the court where the judgment was rendered, or the district court of the county in which the defendant is imprisoned, or by the appellate court, or a judge or clerk of any of such courts. Provided, that in lieu of bail, bailable defendants as described herein may be released in accordance with the provisions of section 811.2. 811.6 Forfeiture of bail.

1. A defendant released pursuant to this chapter shall appear at arraignment, trial, judgment, or such other proceedings where the defendant's appearance is required. If the defendant fails to appear at the time and place when his or her personal appearance is lawfully required, or to surrender himself or herself in execution of the judgment, the court must direct an entry of the failure to be made of record, and the undertaking of the defendant's bail, or the money deposited, is thereupon forfeited. As a part of the entry, except as provided in R.Cr.P. 53, the court shall direct the sheriff of the county to give ten days' notice in writing to the defendant and his or her sureties to appear and show cause, if any, why judgment should not be entered for the amount of bail. If such appearance is not made, judgment shall be entered by the court. If appearance is made, the court shall set the case down for immediate hearing as an ordinary action.

2. Where a forfeiture and judgment have been entered as provided in this section, and the amount of the judgment has been paid to the clerk, the clerk shall hold the same as funds of his or her office for a period of sixty days from the date of judgment.

3. The court may, upon application, set aside such judgment if, within sixty days from the date thereof, the defendant shall voluntarily surrender himself or herself to the sheriff of the county, or his or her sureties shall, at their own expense, deliver the defendant to the custody of the sheriff. Such judgment shall not be set aside, however, unless as a condition precedent thereto, the defendant and the defendant's sureties shall have paid all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith. [R60, §4990-4994; C73, §4596-4600; C97, §5515-5517, 5519; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13631, 13633, 13635, 13636; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §766.1-766.3, 766.5, 766.6; C79, 81, §811.6]

1. The magistrate may, by an order entered on the record, direct the defendant to be arrested and committed to jail until legally discharged, after the defendant has given bail or deposited money in lieu thereof, or otherwise is released pursuant to this chapter, when it satisfactorily appears to the court that the defendant has failed to appear as required, or the defendant has violated a condition of release, or when, after the filing of an indictment or information, the court finds the bail taken or money deposited is insufficient.

2. Such order for recommitment must recite generally the facts upon which it is founded, and must direct that the defendant be arrested and committed to the custody of the sheriff of the county in which such order is entered. The defendant may be arrested pursuant to such order, upon a certified copy thereof, in any county of the state.

3. If the order recite, as the ground on which it is made, the failure of the defendant to appear for judgment upon conviction, the defendant must be committed according to the requirements of the order; if made for any other cause and the offense is bailable, the court must cause a direction to be inserted in the order that the defendant be admitted to bail, in a sum to be stated in the order. [C51, §3243-3247; R60, §4995-4999; C73, §4601-4605; C97, §5520-5523; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13637-13640; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §767.1-767.4; C79, 81, §811.7]
Referred to in §331 653, 811 9

811.8 Surrender of defendant.

1. At any time before the forfeiture of the undertaking, the surety may surrender the defendant, or the defendant may surrender himself or herself, to the officer to whose custody the defendant was committed at the time of giving bail, and such officer shall detain the defendant as upon a commitment and must, upon such surrender and the receipt of a certified copy of the undertaking of bail, acknowledge the surrender by a certificate in writing.

2. Upon the filing of the undertaking and the certificate of the officer, or the certificate of the officer alone if money has been deposited instead of bail, the court or clerk shall immediately order return of the money deposited to the person who deposited the same, or order an exoneration of the surety.

3. For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the surety, at any time before finally charged and at any place within the state, may arrest the defendant, or, by a written authority endorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower any person of suitable age and discretion to do so. [C51, §3236-3238; R60, §4987-4989; C73, §4593-4595; C97, §5528-5530; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13641-13643; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §768.1-768.3; C79, 81, §811.8]

When a defendant fails to appear as required in such cases, the court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture of the bond or bail. The judgment shall be final upon entry and shall not be set aside. CHAPTER 812

CONFINEMENT OF MENTALLY ILL OR DANGEROUS PERSONS

Referred to in §801 1

- 812.1 When detention allowed.
812.2 Hearing.
812.3 Mental incompetency of accused.

- 812.4 Cessation of criminal prosecution.
812.5 Effect of restoration of mental capacity.

812.1 When detention allowed. When a person is awaiting sentence after conviction of a felony or following sentence of confinement is pursuing an appeal in such case, and the person would be otherwise eligible for release under chapter 811, but it appears by clear and convincing evidence that if released the person is likely to pose a danger to another person or to the property of others, such person may be detained under the authority of this chapter. [C79, 81, §812.1]

812.2 Hearing. The following procedures shall apply to detention hearings held pursuant to this chapter:

1. The prosecuting attorney may initiate a detention hearing by ex parte written motion. Upon such motion, the district court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person, if the person is not in custody.

2. The detention hearing shall be held immediately upon the person being brought before the district court for such hearing unless the person or the prosecuting attorney moves for a continuance. A continuance granted on motion of the person shall not exceed three calendar days. A continuance on motion of the prosecuting attorney shall be granted only upon good cause shown and shall not exceed three calendar days. The person may be detained pending the hearing.

3. The person shall be entitled to representation by counsel, including appointed counsel for indigent persons, and shall be entitled to the right of cross-examination and to present information, to testify, and to present witnesses in his or her own behalf.

4. Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this section need not conform to the formal rules of evidence.

5. Testimony of the person given during the hearing shall not be admissible on the issue of guilt in any other judicial proceeding, subject only to the following exceptions: Such testimony shall be admissible in proceedings under sections 811.2, subsection 7 and 811.8, and in perjury proceedings.

6. Unless the defendant otherwise requests in writing, the district court shall conduct the hearing as a private hearing, and any order entered shall remain confidential as to the public generally until the conclusion of the trial.

7. Appeals from orders of detention may be taken in the manner provided under section 811.2, subsection 6.

8. If the trial court issues an order of detention, it shall be accompanied by a written finding of fact and the reasons for the detention order.

9. For the purposes of such proceedings, the trial court is not divested of jurisdiction by the filing of a notice of appeal. [C79, 81, §812.2]

812.3 Mental incompetency of accused. If at any stage of a criminal proceeding it reasonably appears that the defendant is suffering from a mental disorder which prevents him or her from appreciating the charge, understanding the proceedings, or assisting effectively in the defense, further proceedings must be suspended and a hearing had upon that question. [C51, §3260, 3261; R60, §5015, 5016; C73, §4620, 4621; C97, §5540; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13905; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §783.1; C79, 81, §812.3]

Referred to in §812 4

812.4 Cessation of criminal prosecution. If, upon hearing conducted by the court, the accused is found to be incapacitated in the manner described in section 812.3, no further proceedings shall be taken under the complaint or indictment until the accused's capacity is restored, and, if his or her release will endanger the public peace or safety, the court must order him or her committed to the custody of the department of social services. [C51, §3262, 3263; R60, §5018, 5019; C73, §4623, 4624; C97, §5542; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13907; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §783.3; C79, 81, §812.4]

Referred to in §223 4

812.5 Effect of restoration of mental capacity. If the accused is committed to the department of social services, after the expiration of a period not to exceed six months, the court shall upon hearing review the confinement and determine whether there is a substantial probability the prisoner will regain capacity within a reasonable time. If not, the state shall be directed to institute civil commitment proceedings. When it thereafter appears that the accused can effectively assist in his or her defense, that department shall give notice to the sheriff and county attorney of the proper county of such fact, and the sheriff, without delay, must receive and hold the accused in custody until he or she is brought to trial or judgment, as the case may be, or is legally discharged, the expense for conveying and returning the accused, or any other, to be paid in the first instance by the county from which the accused is sent, but such county may recover the same from another county or municipal body bound to provide for or maintain the accused elsewhere, and the sheriff shall be allowed for his or her services the same fees as are allowed for conveying convicts to the penitentiary. [C51, §3264-3267; R60, §5020-5023; C73, §4625-4628; C97, §5543; C24, 27, 31,

2. "Discretionary review" is the process by which an appellate court may exercise its discretion, in like manner as under the rules pertaining to interlocutory appeals and certiorari in civil cases, to review specified matters not subject to appeal as a matter of right. The supreme court may adopt additional rules to control access to discretionary review. [R60, §4904, 4905; C73, §4520, 4521; C97, §5448; S13, §5448; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13994; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.1; C79, 81, §814.1]

814.20 Decisions on appeals or applications by defendant. An appeal or application taken by the defendant shall not be dismissed for an informality or defect in taking it if corrected as directed by the appellate court. The appellate court, after an examination of the entire record, may dispose of the case by affirmation, reversal or modification of the district court judgment. It may also dismiss the appeal or application if it determines that there has been no substantial miscarriage of justice, and no violation of the rights of the accused, and that the arguments do not present definite grounds for a hearing. The appellate court may also order a new trial, or reduce the punishment, but cannot increase it. [C51, §3097, 3098; R60, §4921, 4925; C73, §4534, 4538; C97, §5457, 5462; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14006, 14010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.14, 793.18; C79, 81, §814.20]

[C97, §5462; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14011; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.19; C79, 81, §814.21]

814.22 Reversal—effect. If a judgment against the defendant is reversed, such reversal shall be deemed an order for a new trial, unless the appellate court shall direct a different disposition. In reversing the case, the appellate court may direct that the defendant be discharged and the defendant's bail exonerated, or if money is deposited instead, that it be returned to the defendant. [C51, §3099; R60, §4927; C73, §4540; C97, §5464; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14013; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.21; C79, 81, §814.22]

814.24 Decision recorded and transmitted. The decision of the appellate court with any opinion filed or judgment rendered must be recorded by its clerk. After the expiration of the period allowed for a rehearing, or as ordered by the court or provided by its rules, a certified copy of the decision and opinion shall be transmitted to the clerk of the district court, filed and entered of record by the clerk. [C51, §3101, 3102; R60, §4929, 4930; C73, §4542, 4543; C97, §5466; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.24; C79, 81, §814.24]

814.25 Jurisdiction of appellate court ceases after judgment. The jurisdiction of the appellate court shall cease after the certified copy of the decision and opinion is transmitted to the clerk of the district court. All proceedings for executing the judgment shall be had in the district court or by its clerk. [C51, §3101, 3102; R60, §4929, 4930; C73, §4542, 4543; C97, §5466; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.24; C79, 81, §814.25]

He or she shall be authorized to execute the judgment of the court or take any legal measures required to bring the action to a conclusion. [R60, §4931; C73, §4544; C97, §5467; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14017; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.25; C79, 81, §814.26]

814.27 Time of confinement deducted. A defendant, confined during the pendency of an unsuccessful review or appeal, or convicted at a new trial ordered by the appellate court, shall have the period of his or her former confinement deducted from the period of confinement fixed on the last verdict of conviction by the district court. INTERSTATE EXTRADITION COMPACT

The contracting states solemnly agree that:
 [C79, 81, §818.1]

818.2 Findings. The states which are parties to this agreement find that existing* extradition procedures are cumbersome, costly and frequently result in unnecessary delay in the extradition of fugitives. They find further that the provisions of the United States Constitution and United States Code relating to extradition are meant to facilitate the return of fugitives; do not prescribe the exclusive means for return of fugitives; and do not prevent the states from establishing other procedures for this purpose. [C79, 81, §818.2]

*66GA, ch 1245(2), §1802 effective January 1, 1978

818.3 Definitions. As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "State" means any state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. "Demanding state" means the state in which a crime has been committed and where a charge has been filed against a fugitive whose return for trial is sought.

3. "Asylum state" means the state in which a person for whom the warrant was issued has been found or arrested and from which the person's return to the demanding state is sought.

4. "Fugitive" means any person who is charged with a crime in the demanding state, or any person who has been convicted of a crime in the demanding state and has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his or her bail, probation or parole, and is no longer within the demanding state, whether the person's leaving the demanding state was voluntary or involuntary. For purposes of this division the term "fugitive" further includes a person in the asylum state charged with committing a crime in the demanding state by the doing of an intentional act outside the demanding state which resulted in such crime, as set forth in section 818.15.

5. "Local prosecuting authority" means the chief prosecuting attorney or his or her designee, of the governmental unit of the demanding state which has jurisdiction over the crime committed by the fugitive. When the return to the demanding state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in the demanding state and the fugitive has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his or her bail, probation or parole, the term "local prosecuting authority" includes the chief prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, and in the case of escapes the warden of the institution or the sheriff of the county from which the escape was made, and in such cases these officials may make demand for return of the fugitive in accordance with the provisions of this compact.

6. "Chief law enforcement officer" means county sheriff, chief of police or other chief law enforcement officer in the local governmental unit wherein the fugitive is located, and when the fugitive is confined in a penitentiary or reformatory, it includes the warden or chief administrative officer of that institution. [C79, 81, §818.3]

818.4 Demand for return. The local prosecuting authority of the demanding state shall have the authority to issue a demand for the return of a fugitive. The demand shall be made to a chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state where the accused has been found. [C79, 81, §818.4]

818.5 Contents of demand. Demand for the extradition of a fugitive under this chapter shall be in writing or by other official communication setting forth the crime with which the fugitive is charged, or that the fugitive has escaped confinement or broken the terms of his or her bail, probation, or parole. Said demand shall allege that a crime was committed in the demanding state and that the person sought is a fugitive within the meaning of this compact. [C79, 81, §818.5]

Referred to in §818 13, 818 15

818.6 Arrest of fugitive. A chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state who receives the demand is authorized to cause the arrest of the fugitive in accordance with the laws of the asylum state. [C79, 81, §818.6]

818.7 Procedure after arrest. When an arrest has been made the fugitive shall be taken for an appearance before a judge of court of record who shall inform the fugitive of the demand made for his or her surrender and of the crime with which he or she is charged, or other reason for the demand as set forth in section 818.15. Said judge shall apprise the fugitive of the fugitive's legal rights and shall advise said fugitive of the fugitive's right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. [C79, 81, §818.7]

818.8 Confinement of fugitive. If, at the fugitive's appearance, it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged or has escaped confinement or broken the terms of his or her bail, probation, or parole and, except in cases arising under section 818.15, that the fugitive has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate before whom the fugitive is taken must, by warrant reciting the accusation, commit the fugitive to jail. Such commitment shall occur unless the accused give bail as provided in section 818.14 or is otherwise legally discharged. When the accused is confined pursuant to this section, said confinement shall be for the time specified in the warrant, but not exceeding fifteen days, as will enable the arrest of the fugitive to be made under a warrant issued by the authorities of the state having jurisdiction of the crime. If a writ of habeas corpus is applied for, the time established in this section shall be extended until such writ is disposed of. [C79, 81, §818.8]

818.9 Warrant for conveyance. The local prosecuting authority of the demanding state shall cause a warrant to be issued to an agent, commanding the agent to receive the fugitive when delivered to the agent and convey the fugitive to the proper officer of the local jurisdiction in the demanding state. [C79, 81, §818.9]

818.10 Surrender of fugitive. Said designated agent of the demanding state may at all times enter the asylum state for the purpose of making demand for the surrender of the fugitive. Upon demand and proof of authority, the fugitive shall be released and surrendered to the agent's custody subject to the provisions of sections 818.11 and 818.12 unless a petition for habeas corpus has been applied for and is pending before the court. All requirements to obtain extradition other than provided in this compact are hereby waived on the part of the state party hereto as to such fugitive. [C79, 81, §818.10]

818.11 Prosecution pending. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against the fugitive under the laws of the asylum state and is still pending, the prosecuting authority of the asylum state in its discretion may either surrender the fugitive on demand or hold the fugitive until he or she has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in the asylum state. [C79, 81, §818.11]

Referred to in §818 10

818.12 Extradition during imprisonment. When it is desired to have returned to the demanding state a person sentenced in the asylum state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned, the governor of the asylum state may agree with the governor of the demanding state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of his or her term or sentence upon condition that such person be returned to the asylum state as soon as the prosecution in the demanding state is terminated. [C79, 81, §818.12]

Referred to in §818 10

818.13 Review—habeas corpus hearing. The guilt or innocence of the fugitive as to the crime of which he or she is charged is not reviewable by any official of the asylum state or in any proceeding in the asylum state after the demand for extradition. When a habeas corpus hearing is held pursuant to section 818.5, the judge shall cause to be presented to the fugitive a certified copy of the indictment found or information from the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon; or a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state that the fugitive has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his or her bail, probation or parole. Notice of such habeas corpus hearing including the time and place thereof shall be given to the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state. [C79, 81, §818.13]

818.14 Bail. Unless the crime with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the demanding state, a judge or magistrate in the asylum state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as the judge or magistrate deems proper, conditioned for the prisoner's appearance before the judge or magistrate at a time specified in such bond, and for the prisoner's surrender. In the event of a violation of the conditions of said bond, forfeiture thereof and recovery thereon may be had as in the case of appearance bonds given by accused persons in criminal proceedings in the asylum state. [C79, 81, §818.14]

Referred to in §818 8

818.15 Interstate crimes. A chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state may surrender, on demand of the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state, any person in the asylum state charged in the demanding state in the manner provided in section 818.5 with committing an act in the asylum state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the demanding state. The provisions of this compact not otherwise inconsistent shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom. [C79, 81, §818.15]

Referred to in §818 3, 818 7, 818 8

818.16 Expenses and costs. The expenses incurred in extradition shall be assessed to the governmental unit of the demanding state seeking the return of the fugitive, but this provision shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal arrangements between a party state and its subdivisions as to the payment of costs or responsibilities therefor. These expenses shall include fees paid to the officers of the asylum state and all necessary and actual traveling expenses incurred in returning the prisoner. [C79, 81, §818.16]

818.17 Administrator's duties. Each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this compact. [C79, 81, §818.17]

Referred to in §818 18

818.18 Administrator of interstate extradition. The governor of this state shall appoint an administrator of interstate extradition to serve in such capacity for a period and under terms determined by the governor. Said administrator shall fulfill the duties set forth in section 818.17 and such other necessary duties as may be required for the administration of this compact. [C79, 81, §818.18]

818.19 Effective date—withdrawal. This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this compact may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated at the time such withdrawal takes effect. [C79, 81, §818.19]

818.20 Uniform criminal extradition Act unaffected. This compact provides an alternate procedure to the uniform criminal extradition Act, which remains in full force and effect; a state seeking return of a fugitive may proceed under this compact, or under the uniform criminal extradition Act. Where another state seeks return of a fugitive under this compact, the governor of this state may intervene at any time prior to surrender of the fugitive and require the proceedings to be stayed subject to investigation and appropriate orders relating to custody of the fugitive by the governor. [C79, 81, §818.20]

818.21 Construction—validity—constitutionality. This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C79, 81, §818.21]

818.22 Enforcement. All courts, departments, agencies, officers and employees of this state and its political subdivisions are hereby directed to enforce the interstate extradition compact and to co-operate with one another and with other party states in enforcing the compact and effectuating its purpose. [C79, 81, §818.22]

818.23 Copies of compact transmitted. Copies of this chapter shall, upon its approval, be transmitted to the governor of each state, the attorney general and the administrator of general services of the United States, and the council of state governments. [C79, 81, §818.23]

818.24 Short title. This compact may be cited as the interstate extradition compact. [C79, 81, §818.24]

1. The laws of such other state require or command persons residing or physically present within that state to attend and testify in this state.
2. A judge of a court of record in the other state certifies under the seal of such court that there is a criminal action pending in such court or that a grand jury investigation has commenced; that a person re-or in attending the proceedings as a witness. Such amounts shall, upon proper claim being made, be paid from the court expense fund of the county.

If such witness fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed by such order the witness shall forfeit his or her right to receive mileage and per diem, and shall be guilty of contempt of court for which he or she may be punished accordingly. [S13, §5499-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13896; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §781.17; C79, 81, §819.3]

820.2 Arrest of fugitives. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all Acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state. [C51, §3283; R60, §4522; C73, §4175; C97, §5172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13502; C46, §759.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.2; C79, 81, §820.2]

820.3 Demand in writing. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under section 820.6, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand. [R60, §4521; C73, §4174; C97, §5171; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13501; C46, §759.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.3; C79, 81, §820.3]

820.4 Investigation by attorney general. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.4; C79, 81, §820.4]

The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in section 820.23 with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.5; C79, 81, §820.5]

The governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in section 820.3 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this chapter not otherwise inconsistent, shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.6; C79, 81, §820.6]

The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance. [C51, §3283; R60, §4522; C73, §4175; C97, §5172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13502; C46, §759.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.7; C79, 81, §820.7]

Referred to in §820.25

Referred to in §820.25

820.9 Authority of peace officer. Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.9; C79, 81, §820.9]

820.10 Testing legality of arrest. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.10; C79, 81, §820.10]

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.11; C79, 81, §820.11]

820.12 Confinement in jail. The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13512; C46, §759.16; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.12; C79, 81, §820.12]

state and, except in cases under section 820.6, with having fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under section 820.6, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant. [C51, §3284; R60, §4523; C73, §4176; C97, §5173; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13503; C46, §759.7; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.13; C79, 81, §820.13]

The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.14; C79, 81, §820.14]

820.15 Holding to await requisition. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and, except in cases arising under section 820.6, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such a time not exceeding thirty days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.15; C79, 81, §820.15]

820.16 Bail—exceptions. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or magistrate in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state. [C51, §3288; R60, §4527; C73, §4180; C97, §5177; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13507; C46, §759.11; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.17; C79, 81, §820.17]

820.19 Criminal prosecution pending. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending the governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.19; C79, 81, §820.19]

820.20 Guilt or innocence of person held. The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759.20; C79, 81, §820.20]

821.1 Agreement with other states. The agreement on detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that

ARTICLE I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainees based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainees, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of co-operative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such co-operative procedures.

ARTICLE II

As used in this agreement:

a. "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b. "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to Article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article IV hereof.

c. "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to Article III or Article IV hereof.

ARTICLE III

Referred to in Articles II, V and VI

a. Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within one hundred eighty days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint: Provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

b. The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

c. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

d. Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainees have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

e. Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph "d" hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

f. Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall void the request.

ARTICLE IV

Referred to in Articles II, V and VI

a. The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V "a" hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated: Provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request. And provided further that there shall be a period of thirty days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

b Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

c In respect of any proceeding made possible by this Article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

d Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

e If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V "e" hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

ARTICLE V
Referred to in Article IV (a e)

a In response to a request made under Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

b The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

c If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

d The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

e At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

f During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

g For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

h From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship.

among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

ARTICLE VI

a. In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

b. No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

ARTICLE VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

ARTICLE IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.1; C79, 81, §821.1]

821.2 Court defined. The phrase "appropriate court" as used in the agreement on detainers shall, with reference to the courts of this state, mean any court with criminal jurisdiction in the matter involved. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.2; C79, 81, §821.2]

821.3 Co-operation. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.3; C79, 81, §821.3]

821.4 Habitual criminals. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.4; C79, 81, §821.4]

821.5 Escape in another state. Escape from custody while in another state, pursuant to this agreement on detainers shall constitute an offense against the laws of this state to the same extent and degree as an escape from the institution in which the prisoner was confined immediately prior to having been sent to another state pursuant to the provisions of the agreement on detainers and shall be punishable in the same manner as an escape from said institution. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.5; C79, 81, §821.5]

821.6 Transfer of custody. It shall be lawful and mandatory upon the warden or other official in charge of a penal or correctional institution in this state to give over the person of any inmate thereof whenever so required by the operation of the agreement on detainers. The court may consider information from other sources. The court shall order a presentence investigation when the offense is a class "B," class "C," or class "D" felony. of the director of the division of adult corrections for the rest of the defendant's life. Nothing in the Iowa corrections code pertaining to deferred judgment, deferred sentence, suspended sentence or reconsideration of sentence shall apply to a class "A" felony, and

902.4 Reconsideration of felon's sentence. For a period of ninety days from the date when a person convicted of a felony, other than a class "A" felony or a felony for which a minimum sentence of confinement is imposed, begins to serve a sentence of confinement, the court, on its own motion or on the recommendation of the commissioner of social services, may order the person to be returned to the court, at which time the court may review its previous action and reaffirm it or substitute for it any sentence permitted by law. The court's final order in any such proceeding shall be delivered to the defendant personally or by certified mail. 902.6 Release. A person who has been committed to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections shall remain in such custody until released by the order of the board of parole, in accordance with the law governing paroles, or by order of the judge after reconsideration of a felon's sentence pursuant to section 902.4 or until the maximum term of the person's confinement, as fixed by law, has been completed. [S13, §5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3786; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.5; C79, 81, §902.6]

The members of the project advisory committee for each such project shall be initially appointed by the director from among the general public. No member of the project advisory committee shall hold public office or public employment during membership on such committee. The terms of the initial members of the project advisory committee shall be staggered to permit the terms of just over half of the members to expire in two years and those of the remaining members to expire in one year. 905.2 District departments established. There shall be established in each judicial district in this state a public agency to be known as the “... judicial district department of correctional services.” Each district department shall furnish or contract for those services necessary to provide a community-based correctional program which meets the needs of that judicial district. The district department shall be under the direction of a board of directors, selected as provided in section 905.3, and shall be administered by a director employed by the board. [C79, 81, §905.2]

Referred to in §905.1
Probation, see §907.1

905.3 Board of directors—executive committee—expenses reimbursed.

1. The board of directors of each district department shall be composed as follows:

a. One member shall be chosen from and by the board of supervisors of each county in the judicial district and shall be so designated annually by the respective boards of supervisors at the organizational meetings held under section 331.211.

b. One member shall be chosen from each of the project advisory committees within the judicial district, which person shall be designated annually, no later than January 15 by and from the project advisory committee.

c. A number of members equal to the number of authorized board members from project advisory committees shall be appointed by the judges of the judicial district no later than January 15 of each year.

Within thirty days after the members of the district board have been so designated for the year, the district board shall organize by election of a chairperson, a vice chairperson and members of the executive committee as required by subsection 2. The district board shall meet at least quarterly during the calendar year but may meet more frequently upon the call of the chairperson or upon a call signed by a majority, determined by weighted vote computed as in subsection 4 hereinafter, of the members of the board.

2. Each district board shall have an executive committee consisting of the chairperson and vice chairperson and at least one but no more than five other members of the district board. Either the chairperson or the vice chairperson shall be a supervisor, and the remaining representation on the executive committee shall be divided as equally as possible among supervisor members, project advisory committee members, and judicially appointed members. The executive committee may exercise all of the powers and discharge all of the duties of the district board, as prescribed by this chapter, except those specifically withheld from the executive committee by action of the district board.

3. The members of the district board and of the executive committee shall be reimbursed from funds of the district department for travel and other expenses necessarily incurred in attending meetings of those bodies, or while otherwise engaged on business of the district department.

4. Each member of the district board shall have one vote on the board. However, upon the request of any supervisory member, the vote on any matter before the board shall be taken by weighted vote. In each such case, the vote of the supervisor representative of the least populous county in the judicial district shall have a weight of one unit, and the vote of each of the other supervisor members shall have a weight which bears the same proportion to one unit as the population of the county that supervisor member represents bears to the population of the least populous county in the district. In the event of weighted vote, the vote of each member appointed from a project advisory committee and each judicially appointed member shall have a weight of one unit. [C79, 81, S81, §905.3; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1243]

1. Adopt bylaws and rules for the conduct of its own business and for the government of the district department's community-based correctional program.

2. Employ a director having the qualifications required by section 905.6 to head the district department's community-based correctional program and, within a range established by the state department of social services, fix the compensation of and have control over the director and the district department's staff. For purposes of collective bargaining under chapter 20, employees of the district board who are not exempt from chapter 20 shall be employees of the state, and the employees of all of the district boards shall be included within one collective bargaining unit.

3. Designate one of the counties in the judicial district to serve as the district department's administrative agent to provide, in that capacity, all accounting, personnel, facilities management and supportive services needed by the district department, on terms mutually agreeable in regard to advancement of funds to the county for the added expense it incurs as a result of being so designated. However, the district board may designate the district department itself as the district department's administrative agent, if the district board determines that it would be more efficient and less costly than designating a county as the administrative agent.

4. File with the board of supervisors of each county in the district and with the state department of social services, within thirty days after the close of each fiscal year, a report covering the district board's proceedings and a statement of receipts and expenditures during the preceding fiscal year.

5. Arrange for, by contract or on such alternative basis as may be mutually acceptable, and equip suitable quarters at one or more sites in the district as may be necessary for the district department's community-based correctional program, provided that the board shall to the greatest extent feasible utilize existing facilities and shall keep capital expenditures for acquisition, renovation and repair of facilities to a minimum.

6. Have authority to accept property by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise and to sell or exchange any property so accepted and apply the proceeds thereof, or the property received in exchange therefor, to the purposes enumerated in subsection 5.

7. Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the district department's community-based correctional program from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies and other lawful sources.

8. Accept and expend state and federal funds available directly to the district department for all or any part of the cost of its community-based correctional program.

9. Arrange, by contract or on such alternative basis as may be mutually acceptable, and with approval of the director of the division of adult corrections of the department of social services or that director's designee for utilization of existing local treatment and service resources, including but not limited to employment, job training, general, special or remedial education; psychiatric and marriage counseling; and alcohol and drug abuse treatment and counseling. It is the intent of this chapter that a district board shall approve the development and maintenance of such resources by its own staff only if the resources to be so developed and maintained are otherwise unavailable to the district department within reasonable proximity to the community where these services are needed in connection with the community-based correctional program. [C79, 81, §905.4; 81 Acts, ch 207, §2]

Referred to in §905 5, 905 6

The state department shall incorporate the budgets of each of the district departments into its own budget request, to be processed as prescribed by the uniform budget, accounting and administrative procedures established by the state comptroller. Funds appropriated pursuant to the budget requests of the respective district departments shall be allocated on a quarterly basis, and the state comptroller shall authorize advancement of the funds so allocated to each district department's administrative agent, or to the district department itself if the district department acts as administrative agent, at the beginning of each fiscal quarter.

2. For all administrative purposes, all employees of each district department shall be considered employees of the district department.

3. A county designated as the administrative agent shall perform only those administrative functions assigned to it by the district board and shall not perform any activity unless directed to do so by the district board. [C79, 81, §905.5; 81 Acts, ch 207, §3]

905.6 Duties of director. The director employed by the district board under section 905.4, subsection 2, shall be qualified in the administration of correctional programs. The director shall:

5. Act as secretary to the district board, prepare its agenda and record its proceedings.

6. Develop and submit to the district board a plan for the establishment, implementation and operation of a community-based correctional program in that judicial district, which program conforms to the guidelines drawn up by the state department of social services under this chapter.

2. Locate community-based correctional program services in or near municipalities providing a substantial number of treatment and service resources.

3. Follow practices and procedures which maximize the availability of federal funding for the district department's community-based correctional program.

4. Provide for gathering and evaluating performance data relative to the district department's community-based correctional program.

5. Maintain personnel and fiscal records on a uniform basis.

6. Provide a program to assist the court in placing defendants who as a condition of probation are sentenced to perform unpaid community service. [C75, 77, §217.26, 217.28, 217.29; C79, 81, §905.7; 82 Acts, ch 1069, §2]

The state department of social services shall provide for the allocation among judicial districts in the state of any state funds appropriated for the establishment, operation, support and evaluation of community-based correctional programs and services. However, no state funds shall be allocated under this section to any judicial district unless the state department has reviewed and approved that district department's community-based correctional program for compliance with the requirements of this chapter and the guidelines adopted under section 905.7. [C75, 77, §217.27; C79, 81, §905.8]

Upon completion of a review of a district community-based correctional program, made under section 905.8, the state department of social services shall submit its findings to the district board in writing. If the state department concludes that the district department's community-based correctional program fails to meet any of the requirements of this chapter and of the guidelines adopted under section 905.7, it shall also request in writing a response to this finding from the district board. If no response is received within sixty days after the date of that request, or if the response is unsatisfactory, the state department may call a public hearing on the matter. If after the hearing, the state department is not satisfied that the district's community-based correctional program will expeditiously be brought into compliance with the requirements of this chapter and of the guidelines adopted under section 905.7, it may assume responsibility for administration of the district's community-based correctional program on an interim basis. [C79, 81, §905.9]

905.10 Post-institutional programs and services. Persons participating in post-institutional services shall remain under the jurisdiction of the state department of social services' division of corrections. 906.1 Definition of parole. Parole is the release of a person who has been committed to the custody of the commissioner of social services by reason of the person's commission of a public offense prior to the expiration of the person's term, subject to supervision by the department of social services and on conditions imposed by the department. [C79, 81, §906.1]

906.2 Parole officers and probation officers. Parole officers and probation officers, while performing their duties as such, are peace officers and have all the powers and authority of peace officers. Parole officers and probation officers shall investigate all persons referred to them for investigation by the chief parole officer or by any court to which they may be assigned or by the director of a judicial district department of correctional services. They shall furnish to each person released under their supervision a written statement of conditions. They shall keep informed of each person's conduct and condition and shall use all suitable methods to aid and encourage the person to bring about improvement in his or her conduct or condition. Parole officers and probation officers shall keep records of their work, shall make reports as required by the court, and shall perform other such duties as may be assigned to them by the chief parole officer or the court or the director of a judicial district department of correctional services. They shall co-ordinate their work with that of other social welfare agencies which offer services of a corrective nature operating in the area to which they are assigned. [S13, §5447-a, 5718-a19, -a26; C24, 27, §3793, 3804; C31, 35, §3793, 3803-c1, 3804; C39, §3793, 3803.1, 3804; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.13, 247.24, 247.25; C79, 81, §906.2]

Referred to in §801 4(7) "d"

906.3 Authority of parole board. The board of parole shall promulgate regulations regarding a system of paroles from correctional institutions, and shall direct, control, and supervise the administration of such system of paroles. The board shall determine which of those persons who have been committed to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections, by reason of their conviction of a public offense, shall be released on parole. The grant or denial of parole shall not be deemed a contested case as defined in section 17A.2. [S13, §5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3786, 3787; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.5, 247.6; C79, 81, §906.3]

Parole board, ch 904

906.4 Standards for release on parole. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency. The board shall release on parole any person whom it has the power to so release, when in its opinion there is reasonable probability that such person can be released without detriment to the community or to himself or herself. A person's release is not a detriment to the community or the person when he or she is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen, as the board shall determine. [C79, 81, §906.4]

906.5 Record reviewed—eligibility of prior forcible felon for parole—rules. Within one year after the commitment of any person other than a class "A" felon to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections, a member of the board shall interview the person. Thereafter, at regular intervals, not to exceed one year, the board shall interview the person and consider his or her prospects for parole. At such time, the board shall consider all pertinent information regarding this person, including the circumstances of the person's offense, any presentence report which may be available, the previous social history and criminal record of such person, the person's conduct, employment and attitude in prison, and the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made.

If the person who is under consideration for parole is serving a sentence for conviction of a felony and has a criminal record of one or more prior convictions for a forcible felony or a crime of a similar gravity in this or any other state, parole shall be denied unless the defendant has served at least one-half of the maximum term of his or her sentence.

Every person while on parole shall be under the supervision of the department of social services, which shall prescribe regulations for governing persons on parole. The board may adopt other rules not inconsistent with the above as it may deem proper or necessary for the performance of its functions. [S13, §5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3787, 3790; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.6, 247.9; C79, 81, §906.5]

See 81 Acts, ch 11, §3, as amended by 82 Acts, ch 1260, §2, for special provisions relating to paroles and reductions of sentences necessitated by emergency conditions caused by prison overcrowding

906.6 Co-operation of correction personnel. It shall be the duty of all persons employed in any correctional institution to grant to the members of the board of parole, or its properly accredited representatives, access at all reasonable times to any person over whom the board has jurisdiction, to provide for the board or such representatives facilities for communicating with and observing such person, and to furnish to the board such reports as the board shall require concerning the conduct and character of any person in their custody and any other facts deemed by the board pertinent in determining whether the person shall be released on parole. [S13, §5718-a19, -a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3793; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.13; C79, 81, §906.6]

906.7 Information from other sources—written statements. The board shall not be required to hear oral statements or arguments either by attorneys or other persons. All persons presenting information or arguments to the board shall put their statements in writing, and shall submit therewith an affidavit stating whether any fee has been paid or is to be paid for their services in the case, and by whom such fee is paid or to be paid. [C79, 81, §906.7]

906.8 Subpoena powers. The board shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such records, books, papers and documents as it may deem necessary for investigation of the case of any person before it. Subpoenas so issued may be served by any peace officer, in the same manner as similar processes in the district court. Any person who testifies falsely or fails to appear when subpoenaed, or fails or refuses to produce such material pursuant to the subpoena, shall be subject to the same orders and penalties to which a person before a court is subject. Any district court in this state, upon application of the board, may compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of such material, and the giving of testimony before the board, by an attachment for contempt or otherwise in the same manner as production of evidence may be compelled before such district court. [C79, 81, §906.8]

906.9 Clothing, transportation, and money. When an inmate is discharged, paroled, or placed on work release, the warden or superintendent shall furnish the inmate, at state expense, appropriate clothing and transportation to the place in this state indicated in the inmate's discharge, parole, or work release plan. When an inmate is discharged, paroled, or placed on work release, the warden or superintendent shall provide the inmate, at state expense, money in accordance with the following schedule:

1. Upon discharge or parole, one hundred dollars.
2. Upon being placed on work release, fifty dollars.
3. Upon going from an educational work release to parole or discharge, fifty dollars.

Those inmates receiving payment under subsection 2 or 3 of this section shall not be eligible for payment under subsection 1 of this section unless they are returned to the institution. The warden or superintendent shall maintain an account of all funds expended pursuant to this section. [C51, §3150; R60, §5163; C73, §4779; C97, §5684; S13, §5718-a22; SS15, §2713-n14; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3737, 3779, 3796; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §245.14, 246.44, 247.16; C77, §245.14, 246.44; C79, 81, §906.9]

906.10 Parole relief fund. There is hereby established, from any unappropriated funds in the state treasury, a fund of twelve hundred fifty dollars which shall be known as the parole relief fund. The treasurer of the state shall continue to maintain said fund in said amount. Said fund may be used for the relief of paroled prisoners who are in distress because of illness, loss of employment, or conditions creating personal need. In no instance shall the total amount advanced to a prisoner exceed one hundred dollars. The prisoner, at the time of receiving an advancement, shall execute and deliver to his or her parole officer his or her written obligation to repay the same during the period of the prisoner's parole. When so paid, the amount shall be deposited with the treasurer of the state and credited to the fund from which drawn. Such fund shall be drawn on vouchers executed by the director of the bureau of adult corrections in favor of said needy person. Each voucher shall show that the advancement was ordered by the chief parole officer. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3797-3799; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.17-247.19; C79, 81, §906.10]

906.11 Assignment to parole officer. A person released on parole shall be assigned to a parole officer by the chief parole officer. Both the person and his or her parole officer shall be furnished in writing with the conditions of his or her parole including a copy of the plan of restitution and the restitution plan of payment, if any, and the regulations which the person will be required to observe. The parole officer shall explain these conditions and regulations to the person, and supervise, assist, and counsel the person during the term of his or her parole. [C79, 81, §906.11; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §11]

Amendment applies to persons sentenced after July 1, 1982, 82 Acts, ch 1162, §11, 14

See also ch 910

906.12 Parole outside state authorized. The parole may be to a place outside the state when the board of parole shall determine it to be to the best interest of the state and the prisoner, under such rules as the board of parole may impose. [S13, §5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3786; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.5; C79, 81, §906.12]

906.13 Reciprocal agreements with other states. The governor of the state of Iowa is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into compacts and agreements with other states, through their duly constituted authorities, in reference to reciprocal supervision of persons on parole or probation and for the reciprocal return of such persons to the contracting states for violation of the terms of their parole or probation. [C39, §3790.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.10; C79, 81, §906.13]

906.14 Detainers. Prisoners against whom detainers have been filed, may, after serving a portion of their sentence, be released by parole to the institution or authorities filing the detainer.

Any detainer filed against a prisoner must within six months be supported by a grand jury indictment or county attorney's information. In the event such indictment is returned or information is filed, the prisoner shall have the right to demand immediate trial at the next term of court where the charge is filed. The prosecuting agency shall pay all costs of transportation, necessary expenses incurred by the prisoner and such guards and other safety measures as the warden shall deem necessary for the prisoner to appear at his or her trial.

In the event a detainer is not supported within six months by a county attorney's information or grand jury indictment, or in the event the prosecuting agency refuses or fails to give the prisoner immediate trial, or refuses or fails to furnish transportation and pay all other necessary and related costs incident to the prisoner appearing at his or her trial, the detainer shall be held to be invalid and the parole board shall disregard such detainer in considering a prisoner for parole. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.5; C79, 81, §906.14]

906.15 Discharge from parole. Unless sooner discharged, a person released on parole shall be discharged when his or her term of parole equals the period of imprisonment specified in the person's sentence, less all time served in confinement. Discharge from parole may be granted prior to such time, when an early discharge is appropriate. The board shall periodically review all paroles, and when it shall determine that any person on parole is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen without further supervision, it shall discharge the person from parole. In either event, discharge from parole shall terminate the person's sentence. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.5; C79, 81, §906.15]

906.16 Parole time counted. The time when a prisoner is on parole from the institution shall be held to apply upon the sentence against the parolee even if the parole is subsequently revoked, except that the time when the parolee is in violation of the terms of the parole agreement shall not apply upon the sentence.

The time when a prisoner is absent from the institution by reason of an escape shall not apply upon the sentence against the prisoner. [S13, §5718-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3792; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.12; C79, 81, §906.16]

906.17 Alleged parole violators—reimbursement to counties for temporary confinement. The division of adult corrections shall reimburse a county for the temporary confinement of alleged parole violators. The amount to be reimbursed shall be determined by multiplying the number of days so confined by the average daily cost of confining a person in the county facility as negotiated by the department. Payment shall be made upon submission of a voucher executed by the sheriff and approved by the director of the division of adult corrections. The money shall be deposited in the county general fund to be credited to the jail account. [C79, 81, §906.17]

907.1 Definition of probation. Probation is the procedure under which a defendant, against whom a judgment of conviction of a public offense may be entered, is released by the court subject to supervision by a resident of this state or by the judicial district department of correctional services.* [C79, 81, §907.1]

*See §905 2

907.2 Probation service. Pursuant to designation by the court, probation services shall be provided by the judicial district department of correctional services. Probation officers shall perform the duties assigned to them by law and by the director of the judicial district department of correctional services.* [C79, 81, §907.2]

*See §905.2
Probation officers, §906.2

907.3 Deferred judgment, deferred sentence or suspended sentence. Pursuant to section 901.5, the trial court may, upon a plea of guilty, a verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction may be rendered, exercise any of the options contained in subsections 1 and 2 of this section. However, this section shall not apply to a forcible felony.

1. With the consent of the defendant, the court may defer judgment and place the defendant on probation upon such conditions as it may require, or defer sentence and assign the defendant to the judicial district department of correctional services. Upon a showing that such person is not co-operating with the program or is not responding to it, the court may withdraw the person from the program and impose any sentence authorized by law. Before taking such action, the court shall give the person an opportunity to be heard on any matter relevant to the proposed action. Upon fulfillment of the conditions of probation, the defendant shall be discharged without entry of judgment. Upon violation of the conditions of probation, the court may proceed as provided in chapter 908.

However, this subsection shall not apply if any of the following is true:

a. The offense is a violation of section 709.8 and the child is twelve years of age or under.

b. The defendant previously has been convicted of a felony. "Felony" means a conviction in a court of this or any other state or of the United States, of an offense classified as a felony by the law under which he or she was convicted at the time of the defendant's conviction.

c. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief, two or more times anywhere in the United States.

d. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief in a felony prosecution anywhere in the United States within the preceding five years, measured from the date of granting of deferment of judgment to the date of commission of the offense.

e. The defendant committed an assault as defined in section 708.1, against a peace officer in the performance of the peace officer's duty.

f. The defendant is a corporation.

g. The offense is a violation of section 321.281 and, within the previous six years, the person has been convicted of a violation of that section or the person's driver's license has been revoked pursuant to that section or chapter 321B.

2. By record entry at the time of or after sentencing, the court may suspend the sentence and place the defendant on probation upon such terms and conditions as it may require including commitment to an alternate jail facility or a community correctional residential treatment facility for a specific number of days to be followed by a term of probation as specified in section 907.7. A person so committed who has probation revoked shall be given credit for such time served. [S13, §5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §247.20; C75, 77, §789A.1; C79, 81, §907.3; 81 Acts, ch 206, §17; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §28]

907.4 Deferred judgment docket. Any deferment of judgment under section 907.3 shall be reported promptly by the clerk of the district court to the supreme court administrator who shall maintain a permanent record thereof including the name of the defendant, the district court docket number, the nature of the offense, and the date of the deferment. Before granting deferment in any case, the court shall request of the supreme court administrator a search of the deferred judgment docket and shall consider any prior record of a deferment of judgment against the defendant. The permanent record provided for in this section shall constitute a confidential record exempted from public access under section 68A.7 and shall be available only to justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, district judges, district associate judges, and judicial magistrates requesting information pursuant to this section or the designee of such justice, judge, or magistrate. [C75, 77, §789A.1; C79, 81, §907.4]

Referred to in §331.702(138), 907.9

907.5 Standards for release on probation—written reasons. Before deferring judgment, deferring sentence, or suspending sentence, the court first shall determine which option, if available, will provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant and protection of the community from further offenses by the defendant and others. In making this determination the court shall consider the age of the defendant; the defendant's prior record of convictions and prior record of deferments of judgment if any; the defendant's employment circumstances; the defendant's family circumstances; the nature of the offense committed; and such other factors as are appropriate. The court shall file a specific written statement of its reasons for and the facts supporting its decision to defer judgment, to defer sentence, or to suspend sentence, and its decision on the length of probation. [C75, 77, §789A.1(2); C79, 81, §907.5]

907.6 Conditions of probation. The court, in ordering probation, may impose any reasonable rules and conditions which will promote rehabilitation of the defendant and protection of the community, including but not limited to adherence to regulations generally applicable to persons released on parole and including requiring unpaid community service as allowed pursuant to section 907.13. [C79, 81, §907.6; 82 Acts, ch 1069, §3]

907.7 Length of probation. The length of the probation shall be for such term as the court may fix but not to exceed five years if the offense is a felony or not to exceed two years if the offense is a misdemeanor.

The length of the probation shall not be less than one year if the offense is a misdemeanor and shall not be less than two years if the offense is a felony. However, the court may subsequently reduce the length of the probation if the court determines that the purposes of probation have been fulfilled. The purposes of probation are to provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant and to protect the community from further offenses by the defendant and others.

In determining the length of the probation, the court shall determine what period is most likely to provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant, to allow enough time to determine whether or not rehabilitation has been successful, and to protect the community from further offenses by the defendant and others. [C66, 71, 73, §247.20; C75, 77, §789A.2; C79, 81, §907.7]

Referred to in §907.3, 910.4

907.8 Supervision during probationary period. A person released on probation shall be assigned to a probation officer. Both the person and his or her probation officer shall be furnished with the conditions of the person's probation including a copy of the plan of restitution and the restitution plan of payment, if any, and the regulations which the person will be required to observe, in writing. The probation officer shall explain these conditions and regulations to the person and shall supervise, assist, and counsel the person during the term of his or her probation.

When probation is granted, the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision:

1. Of any suitable resident of this state; or
2. Of the judicial district department of correctional services.*

Jurisdiction of these persons shall remain with the sentencing court.

In each case wherein the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision of the judicial district department of correctional services, the clerk of the district court shall at once furnish the director of the judicial district department of correctional services with certified copies of the indictment or information, the minutes of testimony attached thereto, the judgment entry if judgment is not deferred, and the original mittimus. The county attorney shall at once advise the director, by letter, that the defendant has been placed under the supervision of the judicial district department of correctional services and give him or her a detailed statement of the facts and circumstances surrounding the crime committed and the record and history of the defendant as may be known to the county attorney. If the defendant is confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order the defendant held until arrangements are made by the judicial district department of correctional services for the defendant's employment and he or she has signed the necessary probation papers. If the defendant is not confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order the defendant to remain in the county wherein the defendant has been convicted and sentenced and report to the sheriff as to his or her whereabouts. [S13, §5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3801; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §247.21; C75, 77, §789A.7; C79, 81, §907.8; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §12]

Amendment applies to persons sentenced after July 1, 1982, 82 Acts, ch 1162, §12, 14
See §905.2

907.9 Discharge from probation. At any time that the court determines that the purposes of probation have been fulfilled, the court may order the discharge of any person from probation. At the expiration of the period of probation, in cases where the court fixes the term of probation, the court shall order the discharge of such person from probation, and the court shall forward to the governor a recommendation for or against restoration of citizenship rights to such person. A person who has been discharged from probation shall no longer be held to answer for his or her offense. Upon discharge from probation, if judgment has been deferred under section 907.3, the court's criminal record with reference to the deferred judgment shall be expunged. The record maintained by the supreme court administrator as required by section 907.4 shall not be expunged. The court's record shall not be expunged in any other circumstances. [S13, §5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §247.20; C75, 77, §789A.6; C79, 81, §907.9]

907.10 Release on probation after completing program. When the court has determined that any person ordered to participate in a locally administered correctional program, pursuant to section 907.3, subsection 1, has successfully completed such program, the court shall order such person to be released on probation. [C79, 81, §907.10]

907.11 Maximum period of confinement. In no case shall the total time served in confinement and in any locally administered correctional program exceed the maximum period of confinement authorized for the public offense of which the defendant stands convicted. [C79, 81, §907.11]

907.12 Repealed, effective for persons sentenced after July 1, 1982, by 82 Acts, ch 1162, §13; see ch 910.

907.13 Community service sentencing.

1. The court may establish as a condition of probation that the defendant perform unpaid community service for a time not to exceed the maximum period of confinement for the offense of which the defendant is convicted. If this condition is established, the defendant in co-operation with the probation officer assigned to the defendant and in co-operation with the judicial district department of correctional services, shall promptly prepare a plan to implement the community service condition. The plan shall include but shall not be limited to the suggested placement of the defendant and the suggested number of hours of services to be required.

2. The defendant's plan of community service, the comments of the defendant's probation officer, and the comments of the representative of the judicial district department of correctional services responsible for the unpaid community service program, shall be submitted promptly to the court. The court shall promptly enter an order approving the plan or modifying it. Compliance with the plan of community service as approved or modified by the court shall be a condition of the defendant's probation. The court thereafter may modify the plan at any time upon the defendant's request, upon the request of the judicial district department of correctional services, or upon the court's own motion.

3. At any time during the probation period the defendant may request and the court shall grant a hearing on any matter related to the plan of community service.

4. Failure of the defendant to comply with subsection 1 or to comply with the plan of community service as approved or modified by the court shall constitute a violation of the conditions of probation. Without limitation, the court may modify the plan of community service or modify the required hours of service, but not beyond the maximum hours of service specified in subsection 1. - 908.2 Initial appearance.

- 908.3 Place of probable cause hearing.
- 908.4 Probable cause hearing.
- 908.5 Waiver of probable cause hearing.
- 908.6 Disposition by liaison officer.

- 908.7 Action by parole board.
- 908.8 Proceeding without arrest or probable cause.
- 908.9 Disposition of violator.
- 908.10 Conviction of other offense as violation.
- 908.11 Violation of probation.

908.1 Arrest of alleged parole violator. A parole officer having probable cause to believe that any person released on parole has violated the conditions of his or her parole may arrest such person, or the parole officer may make a complaint before a magistrate, charging such violation, and if it appears from such complaint, or from affidavits filed with it, that there is probable cause to believe that such person has violated the terms of his or her parole, the magistrate shall issue a warrant for the arrest of such person. [C79, 81, §908.1]

908.2 Initial appearance. An officer making an arrest of an alleged parole violator shall take the arrested person before a magistrate without unnecessary delay for an initial appearance. At that time the alleged parole violator shall be furnished with a written notice of the claimed violation, shall be advised of his or her right to appointed counsel under rule 26 of the rules of criminal procedure, and shall be given notice that a hearing will take place and that its purpose is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that he or she has committed a parole violation.

The magistrate may order the alleged parole violator confined in the county jail or may order the alleged parole violator released on bail under such terms and conditions as the magistrate may require. Admittance to bail is discretionary with the magistrate and is not a matter of right. [C79, 81, §908.2]

Referred to in §908 6

908.3 Place of probable cause hearing. The probable cause hearing shall be held in the same county as the alleged parole violator had his or her initial appearance. [C79, 81, §908.3]

908.4 Probable cause hearing. At the probable cause hearing, a liaison officer appointed pursuant to section 904.5 and who is an attorney shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the alleged parole violator has violated parole. The alleged parole violator shall be informed of the inculpatory evidence. The alleged parole violator shall be given an opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and other evidence. The alleged parole violator shall have the right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, except where the liaison officer finds that a witness would be subjected to risk or harm if the witness' identity were disclosed. [C79, 81, §908.4]

908.5 Waiver of probable cause hearing. The alleged parole violator may waive the probable cause hearing, in which event the liaison officer shall proceed as upon a finding of probable cause. Before accepting a waiver of hearing, the liaison officer shall inform the alleged violator of the charge, of the alleged violator's right to a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that parole has been violated, and that if the hearing is waived, the alleged violator will be committed to the custody of the department of social services without further proceedings, to await the determination of the parole board. The liaison officer shall make a verbatim record of the proceedings in which the hearing is waived. [C79, 81, §908.5]

908.6 Disposition by liaison officer. If it appears from the evidence that there is no probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall order the arrested person to be released from custody and continued on parole. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall commit the arrested person to the custody of the department of social services, and the procedure prescribed in section 901.7 shall apply to such commitment; or the liaison officer may recommend that the arrested person be admitted to bail as provided in section 908.2. The liaison officer shall make a summary of the testimony and other evidence considered and a statement of the facts relied on as a basis for the finding of probable cause or no probable cause, and shall without delay forward them together with all documents relating to the matter to the executive secretary of the parole board. If the alleged parole violator has waived the probable cause hearing, the verbatim record of that proceeding shall be forwarded in lieu of the summary of evidence and statement of facts. [C79, 81, §908.6]

908.7 Action by parole board. Upon a finding of probable cause to believe that a parole violation has occurred, the board of parole shall proceed without unreasonable delay to hear the charge of parole violation. Upon receipt of the record prepared and forwarded by the liaison officer, the board shall fix a time and place for such hearing and shall notify in writing the alleged violator, the alleged violator's attorney of record, if any, and the department of social services of such hearing and the claimed violation of parole. The alleged violator shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the board under such rules as the board shall adopt. The inquiry shall be limited to the following two matters: 1. Did the alleged parole violation actually occur? 2. If the violation did occur, should the violator's parole be revoked? If the board determines that the parole should be revoked, it shall make an order revoking the parole. The board shall furnish the violator with a written statement of the facts relied upon to establish a violation and the reasons for revoking parole. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3807; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.28; C79, 81, §908.7]

908.8 Proceeding without arrest or probable cause. The board of parole may receive from a parole officer a charge or complaint of parole violation against any parolee and may proceed to a hearing on such charge in any case where the alleged violator has not been arrested or has been arrested and discharged by the liaison officer on a finding of no probable cause. The presence of the alleged violator at such hearing shall be secured by summons. A statement of the charge against the alleged violator shall accompany the summons, and the parole officer shall give the alleged violator such assistance as is needed to get to the place of the hearing. Travel expenses, if any, shall be paid by the board. If the alleged violator fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the summons, such failure shall be considered a violation of the parole, and the board may proceed to revoke parole. If the parole is revoked, the board shall issue a warrant for the person's arrest and return to the custody of the department of social services. Upon his or her return to custody, the board shall, upon request, give the person an opportunity to present any matters in defense or mitigation of the conduct. [C79, 81, §908.8]

908.9 Disposition of violator. If the parole of any parole violator is revoked, the violator shall remain in the custody of the department of social services under the terms of the parolee's original commitment. If the parole of any parole violator is not revoked, the board shall order his or her release subject to the terms of his or her parole with any modifications that the board shall determine proper. [C79, 81, §908.9]

908.10 Conviction of other offense as violation. When the alleged violation consists of a conviction of a public offense in this or any other state, such conviction shall be proved by a certified copy of the judgment of conviction, together with evidence that the alleged violator is the person against whom the judgment was rendered. Neither the liaison officer, court, nor board of parole shall retry the facts underlying such conviction. [C79, 81, §908.10]

908.11 Violation of probation. A probation officer or the judicial district department of correctional services having probable cause to believe that any person released on probation has violated the conditions of probation shall proceed by arrest or summons as in the case of a parole violation. The functions of the liaison officer and the board of parole shall be performed by the judge or magistrate who placed the alleged violator on probation if that judge or magistrate is available, otherwise by another judge or magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to try the original offense. Where the probation officer proceeds by arrest, any magistrate may receive the complaint, issue an arrest warrant, or conduct the initial appearance and probable cause hearing where it is not convenient for the judge who placed the alleged violator on probation to do so. The initial appearance, probable cause hearing, and probation revocation hearing, or any of them, may at the discretion of the court be merged into a single hearing when it appears that the alleged violator will not be prejudiced thereby. If the violation is established, the court may continue the probation with or without an alteration of the conditions of probation, or may revoke the probation and require the defendant to serve the sentence imposed or any lesser sentence, and, if imposition of sentence was deferred, may impose any sentence which might originally have been imposed. [S13, §5447-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3805, 3806; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §247.26, 247.27; C79, 81, §908.11]

 909.3 Payment in installments or on a fixed date.
 909.4 Treble damage liability for corporations, partnerships and associations.
- 909.5 Nonpayment of fines—contempt.
 909.6 Fine as judgment.

909.1 Fine without imprisonment. Upon a verdict or plea of guilty of any public offense for which a fine is authorized, the court may impose a fine instead of any other sentence where it appears that the fine will be adequate to deter the defendant and to discourage others from similar criminal activity. [C79, 81, §909.1]

909.2 Fine in addition to imprisonment. The court may impose a fine in addition to confinement, where such is authorized. [C79, 81, §909.2]

909.3 Payment in installments or on a fixed date. The court may, in its discretion, order a fine to be paid in installments, or may fix a date in the future for the payment of the fine, whenever it appears that the defendant cannot make immediate payment, or should not be made to do so. [C51, §3071, 3349; R60, §4881, 5084; C73, §4509, 4689; C97, §5440, 5604; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13588, 13964; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §762.32, 789.17; C79, 81, §909.3]

909.4 Treble damage liability for corporations, partnerships and associations. Whenever a corporation, partnership or other association, not subject to imprisonment is found guilty of any public offense, the court may impose a fine within the limits authorized by law. In addition to such fine, if the offense be a felony or aggravated misdemeanor, the corporation, partnership or association shall be liable as follows:

1. Any person who has suffered loss because of the public offense may recover from the corporation, partnership or association in an action at law damages equal to three times the amount of such loss.

2. If the corporation, partnership or association has received pecuniary benefit from the commission of the offense, the attorney general may recover from such corporation, partnership or association in an action at law for the use of the state damages equal to three times the amount of such benefit, provided, that any amount which is recovered under subsection 1 of this section shall be subtracted from the damages recovered by the state. [C79, 81, §909.4]

Liability of corporations, partnerships and voluntary associations, §703.5

909.5 Nonpayment of fines—contempt. Any person who is able to pay a fine, or an installment of a fine, and who refuses to do so, or who fails to make a good faith effort to pay his or her fine, or any installment thereof, shall be held in contempt of court. [C51, §3071, 3349; R60, §4881, 5084; C73, §4509, 4689; C97, §5440, 5604; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13588, 13964; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §762.32, 789.17; C79, 81, §909.5]

909.6 Fine as judgment. Whenever a court has imposed a fine on any defendant, the judgment in such case shall state the amount of the fine, and shall have the force and effect of a judgment against the defendant for the amount of the fine. The law relating to judgment liens, executions, and other process available to creditors for the collection of debts shall be applicable to such judgments; provided, that no law exempting the personal property of the defendant from any lien or legal process shall be applicable to such judgments. [R60, §4902, 5003; C73, §4518, 4609; C97, §5446, 5531; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13969, 13976; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §790.1, 791.6; C79, 81, §909.6]

910.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Victim” means any person who has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the offender’s criminal activities. However, for purposes of this chapter, an insurer is not a victim and does not have a right of subrogation.

2. “Pecuniary damages” means all damages to the extent not paid by an insurer, which a victim could recover against the offender in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event, except punitive damages and damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and loss of consortium. Without limitation, “pecuniary damages” includes damages for wrongful death.

3. “Criminal activities” means any crime for which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered and any other crime committed after July 1, 1982 which is admitted or not contested by the offender, whether or not prosecuted. However, “criminal activities” does not include simple misdemeanors under chapter 321.

4. “Restitution” means payment of pecuniary damages to a victim in an amount and in the manner provided by the offender’s plan of restitution. Restitution shall also include the payment of court costs, court-appointed attorney’s fees or the expense of a public defender, and the performance of a public service by an offender in an amount set by the court when no victim has suffered pecuniary damages and the offender cannot reasonably pay all or part of the court costs, court-appointed attorney’s fees or the expense of a public defender. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §2]

910.2 Restitution ordered by sentencing court. In all criminal cases except simple misdemeanors under chapter 321, in which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered, the sentencing court shall order that restitution be made by each offender to the victims of his or her criminal activities and, to the extent that the offender is reasonably able to do so, to the county where conviction was rendered for court costs, court-appointed attorney’s fees or the expense of a public defender when applicable. However, victims shall be paid in full before restitution payments are paid to the county for court costs, court-appointed attorney’s fees or for the expense of a public defender. When no victim has suffered pecuniary damages and the offender is not reasonably able to pay all or a part of the court costs, court-appointed attorney’s fees or the expense of a public defender, the court may require the offender to perform a needed public service for any governmental agency or for a private, nonprofit agency which provides a service to the youth, elderly or poor of the community. When community service is ordered, the court shall set a specific number of hours of service to be performed by the offender. The judicial district department of correctional services shall provide for the assignment of the offender to a public agency or private nonprofit agency to perform the required service. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §3]

910.3 Determination of amount of restitution. The court shall require the county attorney to promptly prepare a statement of pecuniary damages to victims of the defendant and shall require the clerk of court to prepare a statement of court-appointed attorney’s fees, the expense of a public defender and court costs which shall be promptly provided to the presentence investigator. These statements shall become a part of the presentence report. If a defendant believes no person suffered pecuniary damages, the defendant shall so state. If the defendant has any mental or physical impairment which would limit or prohibit the performance of a public service, the defendant shall so state. The court may order a mental or physical examination, or both, of the defendant to determine a proper course of action. At the time of sentencing, the court shall set out the amount of restitution including the amount of public service to be performed as restitution and the persons to whom restitution must be paid. This shall be known as the plan of restitution. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §4]

910.4 Condition of probation—payment plan. When restitution is ordered by the sentencing court and the offender is placed on probation, restitution shall be a condition of probation. Failure of the offender to comply with the plan of restitution, plan of payment, or community service requirements when community service is ordered by the court as restitution, shall constitute a violation of probation and shall constitute contempt of court. The court may hold the offender in contempt, revoke probation, or may extend the period of probation in such circumstances. However, if the period of probation is extended it shall not be for more than the maximum period of probation for the offense committed as provided in section 907.7.

If an offender's probation is revoked, his or her assigned probation officer shall forward to the director of the division of adult corrections, information concerning the offender's restitution plan, restitution plan of payment, the restitution payment balance, and any other pertinent information concerning or affecting restitution by the offender.

When the offender is committed by the court to be supervised by a judicial district department of correctional services, is committed to a county jail, or to an alternate facility, the judicial district department of correctional services shall prepare a restitution plan of payment taking into consideration the offender's income, physical and mental health, age, education, employment and family circumstances. The judicial district department of correctional services shall review the plan of restitution ordered by the court, and shall submit a restitution plan of payment to the sentencing court. When community service is ordered by the court as restitution, the restitution plan of payment shall set out a plan to meet the requirement for the community service. The court may approve or modify the plan of restitution and restitution plan of payment. When there is a significant change in the offender's income or circumstances, the judicial district department of correctional services which has supervision of the plan of payment shall submit a modified restitution plan of payment to the court. When there is a transfer of supervision from one agent, agency, or judicial district department of correctional services to another, the sending agent, agency or judicial district department shall forward to the receiving agent, agency, or judicial district department, all necessary information regarding the balance owed against the original amount of restitution ordered and the balance of public service required. When the offender's circumstances and income have significantly changed, the receiving agent, agency, or judicial district department shall submit a new plan of payment to the sentencing court for approval or modification based on the considerations enumerated in this section. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §5]

Referred to in §910.6

910.5 Condition of work release or parole.

1. When an offender is committed to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections pursuant to a sentence of confinement, the sentencing court shall forward to the director, a copy of the offender's restitution plan, present restitution payment plan if any, and other pertinent information concerning or affecting restitution by the offender. However, if the offender is committed to the custody of the director after revocation of probation, this information shall be forwarded by the offender's probation officer.

An offender committed to a penal or correctional facility of the state, shall make restitution while placed in that facility. Upon commitment to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections, the director or the director's designee shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or modify any existing plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. The director or the director's designee may modify the plan of payment at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances.

2. If an offender is to be placed on work release from an institution under the control of the director of the division of adult corrections, restitution shall be a condition of work release. The chief of the bureau of community correctional services of the division of adult corrections, shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. The bureau chief may modify the plan of payment at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment, including the community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of work release and the work release privilege may be revoked.

3. If an offender is to be placed on work release from a facility under control of a county sheriff, restitution shall be a condition of work release. The judicial district department of correctional services shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including the community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of work release. The judicial district department of correctional services may modify the plan of restitution at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances.

4. If an offender is to be placed on parole, restitution shall be a condition of parole. The parole office to which the offender will be assigned shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including a community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of parole. The parole officer may modify the plan of payment any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances. A restitution plan of payment or modified plan of payment, prepared by a parole officer, must meet the approval of the chief of the bureau of community correctional services of the division of adult corrections.

5. The director of the division of adult corrections shall promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A concerning the policies and procedures to be used in preparing and implementing restitution plans of payment for offenders who are committed to an institution under the control of the director of the division of adult corrections, for offenders who are to be released on work release from institutions under the control of the director of the division of adult corrections, for offenders who are placed on probation, and for offenders who are released on parole. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §6]

910.6 Payment plan—copy to victims. Each agent, agency, or judicial district department of correctional services preparing a restitution plan of payment or modified restitution plan of payment shall forward, when it is approved by the court if approval is required under section 910.4, or when the plan is completed if court approval under section 910.4 is not required, a copy to the clerk of court in the county in which the offender was sentenced. The clerk of court shall forward a copy of the plan of payment or modified plan of payment to the victim or victims. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §7]

910.7 Petition for hearing. At any time during the period of probation, parole or incarceration, the offender or the agent, agency or judicial district department of correctional services who prepared the offender's restitution plan, may petition the court and the court shall grant a hearing on any matter related to the plan of restitution or restitution plan of payment. The court at any time prior to the expiration of the offender's sentence, may modify the plan of restitution or the restitution plan of payment, or both, and may extend the period of time for the completion of restitution. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §8]

910.8 Civil liability. This chapter and proceedings under this chapter shall not limit or impair the rights of victims to sue and recover damages from the offender in a civil action. However, any restitution payment by the offender to a victim shall be set off against any judgment in favor of the victim in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event. [C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §9]

910.9 Collection of payments—payment by clerk of court. An offender making restitution pursuant to a restitution plan of payment shall make the payment monthly to the clerk of court of the county from which the offender was sentenced, unless the restitution plan of payment provides otherwise.

The clerk of court shall maintain a record of all receipts and disbursements of restitution payments and shall disburse all moneys received to the victims designated in the plan of restitution. If there is more than one victim, disbursements to the victims shall be on the basis of the victim's percentage of the total owed by the offender to all victims.

Court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees, and expenses for public defenders, shall not be withheld by the clerk of court until all victims have been paid in full. Payments to victims shall be made by the clerk of court at least quarterly. Payments by a clerk of court shall be made no later than the last business day of the quarter, but may be made more often at the discretion of the clerk of court. The clerk of court receiving final payment from an offender, shall notify all victims that full restitution has been made, and a copy of the notice shall be sent to the sentencing court. Each agent, agency, or judicial district department of correctional services supervising an offender who is required to perform community service as full or partial restitution shall keep records to assure compliance with the portions of the plan of restitution and restitution plan of payment relating to community service and, when the offender has complied fully with the community service requirement, notify the sentencing court. [82 Acts, ch 1162, §10]

910.10 to 910.14 Reserved.

910.15 Distribution of moneys received as a result of the commission of crime.

1. Every person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal entity contracting with any person or the representative or assignee of any person, initially convicted of a crime in this state, shall pay over to the attorney general any money or other compensation received from the reenactment of the crime, by way of a movie, book, magazine article, radio or television presentation, live entertainment of any kind, or from the expression of the person's thoughts, feelings, opinions, or emotions regarding the crime, which money or other compensation would otherwise, by terms of the contract, be owing to the person so convicted or the person's representatives. The attorney general shall deposit the money or other compensation in an escrow account for the benefit of and payable to any victim or representative of the victim, who recovers a money judgment against the person or the person's representatives. Notwithstanding section 614.1, a victim or the victim's representative who has a cause of action for a crime for which an escrow account or receivership is established pursuant to this section, may bring the action against the escrow account or against the property in receivership within five years of the date the escrow account is established.

When the nature of the compensation to the person initially convicted of the crime is such that it cannot be placed in an escrow account, the attorney general shall assume the powers of a receiver under chapter 680 in taking charge of the property for benefit of and payable to any victim or representative of the victim. In those instances, the date the attorney general assumed the power of a receiver, shall be considered the date an escrow account was established for purposes of this section.

2. Once an escrow account or receivership is established, the attorney general shall make reasonable efforts to notify victims and representatives of victims of the escrow account or receivership and their possible rights under this section. The reasonable efforts shall include but are not limited to mailing the notification to known victims or representatives of known victims. The cost of notification shall be paid from the escrow account or from the sale of property held in receivership.

3. Upon disposition of charges favorable to any person accused of committing a crime, or upon a showing by the person that five years have elapsed from the date of establishment of the escrow account and further that no actions are pending against the person, the attorney general shall immediately pay over any money in the escrow account to the person.

4. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, the attorney general shall make payments from the escrow account or property held in receivership to the person accused of the crime upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction after a showing by the person that the money or other property shall be used for the exclusive purpose of retaining legal representation at any stage of the criminal proceedings against the person, including the appeals process.

5. An action taken by a person convicted of a crime, whether by way of execution of a power of attorney, creation of corporate entities, or otherwise, to defeat the purpose of this section is null and void as against the public policy of this state. [82 Acts, ch 1155, §1]

CHAPTER 911

SURCHARGE ADDED TO CRIMINAL PENALTIES

911.1 Criminal penalty surcharge established.

911.2 Ten percent surcharge.

911.3 Disposition of surcharge.

911.1 Criminal penalty surcharge established. A criminal penalty surcharge shall be levied against certain law violators as provided in section 911.2. 5. “Dependent” means a person wholly or partially dependent upon a victim for care or support and includes a child of the victim born after the victim’s death.

However, if the crime cannot reasonably be reported within that time period, the crime shall have been reported within twenty-four hours of the time a report can reasonably be made. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §8, 17]

1. A reparation shall be reduced by the amount of any payment received, or to be received, as a result of the injury or death:

 - b. From an insurance payment or program, including but not limited to workers' compensation or unemployment compensation.
 - c. From public funds.
 - d. As an emergency award under section 912.11.
2. A reparation shall not be made when the bodily injury or death for which a benefit is sought was caused by any of the following:
 - a. Consent, provocation, or incitement by the victim.
 - b. An act committed by a person living in the same household with the victim, unless a criminal conviction for the act is obtained.
 - c. 3. A person is disqualified from receiving a reparation if the victim has not cooperated with an appropriate law enforcement agency in the investigation or prosecution of the crime relating to the claim, or has not cooperated with the department in the administration of the crime victim reparation program. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §11, 17]

Referred to in §912.12

912.8 Reparation when money insufficient. Notwithstanding this chapter a victim otherwise qualified for a reparation under the crime victim reparation program, is not entitled to the reparation when there is insufficient money from the appropriation for the program to pay the reparation. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §12, 17]

912.9 Erroneous or fraudulent payment—penalty.

1. If a payment or overpayment of a reparation is made because of clerical error, mistaken identity, innocent misrepresentation by or on behalf of the recipient, or other circumstances of a similar nature, not induced by fraud by or on behalf of the recipient, the recipient is liable for repayment of the reparation. The commissioner may waive, decrease, or adjust the amount of the repayment of the reparation. However, if the commissioner does not notify the recipient of the erroneous payment or overpayment within one year of the date the reparation was made, the recipient is not liable for the repayment of the reparation.
2. If a payment or overpayment has been induced by fraud by or on behalf of a recipient, the recipient is liable for repayment of the reparation. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §13, 17]

912.10 Release of information. A person in possession or control of investigative or other information pertaining to an alleged crime or a victim filing for a reparation shall allow the inspection and reproduction of the information by the commissioner upon the request of the commissioner, to be used only in the administration and enforcement of the crime victim reparation program. Information and records which are confidential under section 68A.7 and information or records received from the confidential information or records remain confidential under this section.

A person does not incur legal liability by reason of releasing information to the commissioner as required under this section. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §14, 17]

912.11 Emergency payment reparation. If the commissioner determines that reparation may be made and that undue hardship may result to the person if partial immediate payment is not made, the commissioner may order an emergency reparation to be made to the person, not to exceed five hundred dollars. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §15, 17]

Referred to in §912.7

912.12 Right of action against perpetrator—subrogation. A right of legal action by the victim against a person who has committed a crime is not lost as a consequence of a person receiving reparation under the crime victim reparation program. If a person receiving reparation under the program seeks indemnification which would reduce the reparation under section 912.7, subsection 1, the commissioner is subrogated to the recovery to the extent of payments by the commissioner to or on behalf of the person. The commissioner has a right of legal action against a person who has committed a crime resulting in payment of reparation by the department to the extent of the reparation payment. However, legal action by the commissioner does not affect the right of a person to seek further relief in other legal actions. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §16, 17]

912.13 Sunset clause. This chapter is repealed effective July 1, 1984. [82 Acts, ch 1258, §17]

MORTALITY TABLES

The American Experience Table of Mortality was published in the Code of 1939. As stated in the heading to said table it is "no part of any statute and is set out as a convenience only to meet numerous requests therefor."

From information obtained from the Commissioner of Insurance and numerous experts on insurance law, the Code Editor is advised that the American Experience Table of Mortality is outmoded. Longevity has increased and greater scientific study has been made of the subject of mortality tables since that table was prepared. The results have been that new and more modern tables have been made which are known as the 1941 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, the 1958 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and the 1980 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table. The tables have been prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and have been adopted by statute or by the approval of the Insurance Commissioners in practically all of the states including Iowa.

The Code Editor is authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance to say that they are approved by him and used and accepted by him in his official work. The 1958 C.S.O. and the 1980 C.S.O. Tables are included herein as a matter of convenience to those who may have use for such tables. (January 1983)

See sections 508.36 and 508.37 of the Code for reference to other Mortality Tables under the "Standard Valuation and Nonforfeiture Law." Also, see the State Revenue Department's table at the end of chapter 450 of the Code adopted pursuant to the Inheritance Tax Law.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 29B.36 82 Acts, chapter 1042, section 19 referred to "section 21 of this Act" (29B 38) It appears the reference should be to section 23 (29B 40) and it has been codified that way
- 29B.37 82 Acts, chapter 1042, section 20 contained references to "U S C 47" and "10 U S.C. 47," which have been codified as "10 U S C ch 47"
- 29C.20 A "sunset" provision in 80 Acts, chapter 1019, section 4, repealed the 1980 amendments to subsections 1 and 2 It appears that the intent of the general assembly in enacting the repeal was to cause the subsections to revert to their form before the 1980 amendments Therefore subsections 1 and 2 are printed in that form However the "sunset" provisions, taken literally would also repeal the 1980 repeal of former subsection 3 enacted in 79 Acts, chapter 3, sections 15 and 16 Because the rule of statutory construction is that the repeal of a repeal does not revive the text originally repealed former subsection 3 is not printed here See subsection 1 of section 4 1
- 84.12 Amendment by 82 Acts, chapter 1199, section 47, omitted the word "to" without strike-through type
- 93A.4 Amendment to this section by 82 Acts, chapter 1199, section 92 to change name of department was subsequently superseded by 82 Acts, chapter 1245, which repealed and rewrote all of chapter 93A
- 122B.1 Section 122B 1 was enacted as an addition to chapter 122, but was placed instead as a new chapter 122B to avoid possible conflicts with other provisions of chapter 122
- 214A.2 82 Acts, chapter 1131, section 1 and 82 Acts chapter 1170 section 1 both amended section 214A 2, the former striking and rewriting the section and the latter adding a new paragraph The text of the amendments does not appear to conflict, and the chapter 1170 text was codified as subsection 3
- 220.51 Apparently these references are incorrect The language in this subsection was also enacted in 82 Acts chapter 1173, section 5, except that the cross reference was to section 220 28, subsection 4, see section 220 65, subsection 4 Corrective legislation is pending
- 280A.12 Amendments in 82 Acts, chapter 1039, section 1 and chapter 1086, section 1 were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 291.2 Amendments in 82 Acts, chapter 1012, section 2 and chapter 1086, section 2 were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 321.1 82 Acts, chapter 1122, section 1 did not indicate that the amendment to subsection 43 was limited to unnumbered paragraph 1 However the text of the Act did not attempt to amend or eliminate unnumbered paragraph 2 and it appears that the intent was not to do either so unnumbered paragraph 2 remains
- 321.191 Amendments in 82 Acts chapter 1160, section 1 and chapter 1167, section 1 were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 321 453 This section was amended by 82 Acts chapter 1154 section 3, and 82 Acts, chapter 1254, section 3 One amendment specifically struck, for a substantive purpose, a word which was amended in the other for a nonsubstantive purpose, so the specific substantive amendment was retained There was no other apparent conflict in the two amendments
- Ch 321B Sections 321B 3 to 321B 14 were renumbered as recommended by the office of the Attorney General. See Tables of Corresponding Sections of Code 1981 to Code 1983.
- 331.702(66) Although omitted from 81 Acts, chapter 117, section 701, the word "section" was added preceding the section number, "453 1"

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 419.1 Amendments to subsection 2 in 82 Acts, chapter 1001, section 1; chapter 1049, section 1, and chapter 1132, section 1 were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 422.7 81 Acts, chapter 132 sections 4 and 5 added two new subsections to section 422.7, one retroactive to January 1 1981 and the other effective January 1, 1982 Both new subsections were repealed by 82 Acts, chapter 1023, section 25, retroactive to January 1, 1982 for tax years beginning on or after that date 82 Acts, chapter 1023 sections 4 to 8 enacted new subsections which were codified as subsections 12 to 16.
- 422.16 Amendments to subsection 10 paragraph "b" in 82 Acts, chapter 1022, section 2, and chapter 1180 section 2 were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 455B.183 The word "public" was shown in 82 Acts, chapter 1199, section 11, but was not underlined It appears that the intent was to add the word so it has been added here.
- 455B.304 82 Acts, chapter 1112, sections 1 and 2 were combined to form a single paragraph
- 467D.16 82 Acts, chapter 1083 section 2 and chapter 1199, section 78 both amended the first paragraph The amendments do not appear to conflict, so they were consolidated
- 467D.17 82 Acts, chapter 1083 section 3 amended section 467D 17 by striking and rewriting it. It was also amended by 82 Acts, chapter 1199, section 79, to substitute the words "department of water, air and waste management" for the word "council", effective July 1, 1983. A corrective amendment will be required to carry out the intent of that amendment
- 511.8(18) Although 82 Acts, chapter 1095, section 4 stated "Section 511 8, subsection 18, Code 81, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following ", it is apparent that only subsection 18 was intended to be stricken.
- 515.35 82 Acts, chapter 1051, section 1 referred to "Securities and Exchange Act of 1934". This reference was corrected by deleting the word "and".
- 523A.4 82 Acts, chapter 1249, section 2 repealed this section and inserted in lieu thereof a new section Because the new section contained different subject matter, it was codified as section 523A 5
- 524.905 Subsections 1 and 2 were enacted in 82 Acts, chapter 1253, section 2 Subsection 3 was enacted as a new section in 81 Acts, chapter 174, section 1, but because of the related subject matter it is codified as subsection 3 of this section.
- 533.16 Subsection 4 was enacted in 82 Acts, chapter 1253 section 5 Subsection 5 was enacted as a new section in 81 Acts, chapter 174, section 2 but because of the related subject matter it is codified as subsection 5 of this section
- 534.80 Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 5 were enacted in 82 Acts, chapter 1253, section 24 Subsection 4 was enacted as a new section in 81 Acts, chapter 174, section 3, but because of the related subject matter it is codified as subsection 4 of this section.
- 633.480 Amendments in 82 Acts, chapter 1054, section 2, and chapter 1118, section 1, were consolidated since it appears there is no substantive conflict
- 805.8 Amendment in 82 Acts, chapter 1062, section 33, to strike the second sentence of subsection 2, paragraph "b", effective December 1, 1983 will be published in the Code 1983 Supplement
- 809.1 82 Acts, chapter 1115, section 3 and chapter 1147, section 14 both amended subsection 4 The amendments do not appear to conflict so they were consolidated.
