However, if hay, straw or stover moved on any implement of husbandry and the total width of load of the implement of husbandry exceeds eight feet in width, the implement of husbandry shall not be subject to the permit requirements of chapter 321E. If hay, straw or stover is moved on any other vehicle subject to registration, such moves shall be subject to the permit requirements for transporting loads exceeding eight feet in width as required under chapter 321E. [C24, §5067, 5104; C27, §5067, 5105-a32; C31, 35, §5067, 5105-a32, 5105-c18; C39, §5035.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.454]

Any damage to highways, highway or railroad structures or underpasses caused by the height of any vehicle provided for by this section shall be borne by the operator or owner of such vehicle. [C31, 35, §5067-d2; C39, §5035.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.456] time by a public utility when required for emergency repair of public service facilities or properties, but in respect to such night transportation every such vehicle and the load thereon shall be equipped with a sufficient number of clearance lamps on both sides and marker lamps upon the extreme ends of any projecting load to mark clearly the dimensions of such load, at which time, a member of the state highway patrol shall be notified prior to the operation of such vehicle, shall be as follows:

1. No single truck, unladen or with load, shall have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of forty feet.

2. No single bus, unladen or with load, shall have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of forty feet.

3. Except for combinations of vehicles, provisions for which are otherwise made in this chapter, no combination of a truck tractor and a semitrailer coupled together unladen or with load, shall have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of sixty feet.

4. However, a mobile home not in excess of forty-eight feet in length may be drawn by any motor vehicle, except a motor truck, provided, however, that the mobile home and its towing unit shall not be in excess of an overall length of sixty feet. For the purposes of this subsection, a light delivery truck, panel delivery truck or "pickup" shall not be construed to be a motor truck. Further providing that a portable livestock loading chute not in excess of a length of thirteen feet including its hitch or tongue may be drawn by any vehicle or combination of vehicles, provided that such vehicle or combination of vehicles drawing such loading chute is not in excess of the legal length provided for such vehicles or combinations.

5. Combinations of vehicles coupled together which are used exclusively for the transportation of passenger vehicles, light delivery trucks, panel delivery trucks, pickup trucks, recreational vehicle chassis, and boats shall not exceed sixty-five feet in overall length.

6. No combination of three vehicles coupled together one of which is a motor vehicle, unladen or with load, shall have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers in excess of sixty feet.

7. A motor vehicle or combination of vehicles may be operated upon the highways of this state, irrespective of the length and weight limitations imposed by the laws of this state, if the motor vehicle or combination of vehicles is operated within the corporate limits of a city abutting a border of this state and such operations have been approved by ordinance of the city council and if the length and weight of the motor vehicle or combination of vehicles is in conformity with the laws relating to length and weight of the abutting state on July 1, 1974. If a city council has authorized such operation upon highways within the corporate limits, then the limit of travel for such motor vehicles or combination of vehicles within the state is extended to the commercial zones as described by federal regulations concerning interstate commerce, 49 code of federal regulations, paragraphs 1048.10, 1048.38, and 1048.101 as they exist on July 1, 1974.

8. A semitrailer shall not have a distance between the kingpin and the center of the rearmost axle of a semitrailer in excess of forty feet, except a semitrailer used principally for hauling livestock, a semitrailer used exclusively for the purposes of hauling self-propelled industrial and construction equipment, or a semitrailer used exclusively for the purposes described in subsection 5 of this section. A semitrailer which is a 1980 or older model having a distance between the kingpin and center of the rearmost axle of more than forty feet may be operated on the highways of this state if a special overlength permit is obtained from the department for the vehicle. The special overlength permit shall be valid until such time as the semitrailer is inoperable. [C31, 35, §5067-d4; C39, §5035.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.457; 82 Acts, ch 1056, §2, 3]

321.458 Loading beyond front. The load upon any vehicle operated alone, or the load upon the front vehicle of a combination of vehicles, shall not extend more than three feet beyond the front wheels of such vehicle or the front bumper of such vehicle if it is equipped with such a bumper. [C39, §5035.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.458]

Referred to in §321E 1, 805 8

321.459 Dual axle requirement. Axles of a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer which are less than forty inches apart center to center shall be considered as a single axle for the purpose of determining permissible gross weight under section 321.463. [C31, 35, §5067-d3; C39, §5035.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.459]

Referred to in §321E 1, 805 8

321.460 Spilling loads on highways. A vehicle shall not be driven or moved on any highway by any person unless such vehicle is so constructed or loaded or the load securely covered as to prevent any of its load from dropping, sifting, leaking, or otherwise escaping or its load covering from dropping from the vehicle, except that sand may be dropped for the purpose of securing traction, or water or other substance may be sprinkled on a roadway in cleaning or maintaining such roadway. The provisions of this section shall not apply to vehicles loaded with hay or stover or the products listed in section 321.466, subsections 6 and 7. [C39, §5035.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.460]

321.461 Trailers and towed vehicles. When one vehicle is towing another the drawbar or other connection shall not exceed fifteen feet from one vehicle to the other except the connection between any two vehicles transporting poles, pipe, machinery, or other objects of structural nature which cannot readily be dismembered. [C39, §5035.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.461]

321.462 Drawbars and safety chains. When one vehicle is towing or pulling another vehicle the drawbar or other connection shall be of sufficient strength to pull all weight towed thereby and shall be fastened to the frame of the towing vehicle in such manner as to prevent sideway, and in addition to such principal connection there shall be a safety chain which shall be so fastened as to be capable of holding the towed vehicle should the principal connection for any reason fail.

The connection between a truck tractor and a semi-trailer with a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more shall be of a type approved by the director, and the commissioner is hereby given authority to approve or disapprove such types of connection submitted to him. [C39, §5035.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.462]

321.463 Maximum gross weight. An axle may be divided into two or more parts, except that all parts in the same vertical transverse plane shall be considered as one axle.

The gross weight on any one axle of a vehicle, or of a combination of vehicles, operated on the highways of this state, shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds on an axle equipped with pneumatic tires, and shall not exceed fourteen thousand pounds on an axle equipped with solid rubber tires. The gross weight on any tandem axle of a vehicle, or any combination of vehicles, shall not exceed thirty-four thousand pounds on an axle equipped with pneumatic tires.

A group of two or more consecutive axles of any vehicle or combination of vehicles, shall not carry a load in pounds in excess of the overall gross weight determined by application of the following formula: $W \text{ equals } 500 (LN/N-1 + 12N + 36)$. W equals the overall gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles to the nearest five hundred pounds, L equals the distance in feet, rounded to the nearest whole foot, between the extreme of any group of two or more consecutive axles, and N equals the number of axles in the group under consideration. The following are exceptions to application of the formula:

1. Two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of thirty-four thousand pounds each providing the overall distance between the first and last axles of the consecutive sets of tandem axles is thirty-six feet or more.

2. On highways not part of the interstate system, a vehicle or combination of vehicles having:

a. Four axles where the extreme axles are eighteen feet apart may carry a gross load of fifty-three thousand pounds.

b. Five axles where the extreme axles are thirty-two feet apart may carry a gross load of sixty-seven thousand five hundred pounds.

c. Six or more axles where the extreme axles are forty-one feet apart may carry a gross load of seventy-eight thousand pounds.

For every foot of distance between extreme axles less than the above axle spacings, the overall gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be determined by deducting one thousand pounds from the gross loads specified in paragraphs "a", "b" and "c". All measurements between extreme axles shall be rounded to the nearest whole foot.

The maximum gross weight shall not exceed eighty thousand pounds.

The weight on any one axle, including a tandem axle, of a vehicle which is transporting livestock on highways not part of the interstate system may exceed the legal maximum weight given in this chapter providing that the gross weight on any particular group of axles on such vehicle does not exceed the gross weight allowable under this chapter for such groups of axles.

A person who operates a vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section, and an owner, or any other person, employing or otherwise directing the operator of a vehicle, who requires or knowingly permits the operation of a vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined according to the following schedule:

AXLE, TANDEM AXLE, AND GROUP OF AXLES WEIGHT VIOLATIONS
Pounds Overloaded	Amount of Fine
Up to and including 1,000 pounds	$10 plus one-half cent per pound
Over 1,000 pounds to and including 2,000 pounds	$15 plus one-half cent per pound
Over 2,000 pounds to and including 3,000 pounds	$80 plus three cents per pound
Over 3,000 pounds to and including 4,000 pounds	$100 plus four cents per pound
Over 4,000 pounds to and including 5,000 pounds	$150 plus five cents per pound
Over 5,000 pounds to and including 6,000 pounds	$200 plus seven cents per pound
Over 6,000 pounds	$200 plus ten cents per pound

Fines for gross weight violations for vehicles or combinations of vehicles shall be assessed at one-half of the fine rate schedule for axle, tandem axle, and groups of axles weight violations.

The amount of the fine to be assessed shall be computed on the difference between the actual weight and the maximum legal weight specified in this section by applying the appropriate rate in the preceding schedule for the total amount of overload.

The schedule of fines may be assessed in addition to any other penalties provided for in this chapter.

Overloads on axles and tandem axles and overloads on groups of axles or on an entire vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be considered as separate violations of the provisions of this section.

A person who issues or executes, or causes to be issued or executed, a bill of lading, manifest, or shipping document of any kind which states a false weight of the cargo set forth on such bill, manifest, or document, which is less than the actual weight of the cargo, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5065; C39, §5035.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.463; 81 Acts, ch 110, §1, ch 111]

Referred to in §312 2, 321 1, 321 452, 321 459, 321 473, 321E 1, 321E 7, 321E 8, 321E 9, 321E 16, 321E.17, 321E 29, 805 8

321.464 Investigation as to safety. The director upon registering any vehicle under the laws of this state which vehicle is designed and used primarily for the transportation of property or for the transportation of ten or more persons, may require such information and may make such investigation or test as necessary to enable him to determine whether such vehicle may safely be operated upon the highways in compliance with all the provisions of this chapter. He shall register every such vehicle for a permissible gross weight not exceeding the limitations set forth in this chapter. Every such vehicle shall meet the following requirements:

1. It shall be equipped with brakes as required in sections 321.430 and 321.431.

2. Every motor vehicle to be operated outside of business and residence districts shall have motive power adequate to propel at a reasonable speed such vehicle and any load thereon or to be drawn thereby. [C39, §5035.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.464]

Referred to in §321E.1

321.465 Weighing vehicles and removal of excess. Any peace officer having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to require the driver to stop and submit to a weighing of the same either by means of portable or stationary scales and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scales.

Whenever an officer upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of such vehicle to such limit as permitted under this chapter. All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of such vehicle at the risk of such owner or operator.

Any driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and otherwise comply with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in section 321.482.

Upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, if such load is a sealed load, the weight officer shall issue a certificate setting forth the weights as determined by him and the seal number or numbers, if requested by the operator. [C31, 35, §4921-d1; C39, §5035.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.465]

321.466 Increased loading capacity— reregistration.

1. An increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any vehicle by payment of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered.

2. With respect to a vehicle held by a dealer for sale or trade, an increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any such vehicle on or after April 10 of each year upon change of ownership by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

3. On or after July 1 of each year, the owner of a motor truck, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or trailer may, if his operation thereof has not resulted in a conviction under this section or an action then pending against him for violation of the same, increase the gross load of any such vehicle to a higher gross weight classification by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

4. Upon conversion of a truck to a truck tractor or a truck tractor to a truck, an increased gross weight registration of the proper type may be obtained for any such vehicle by payment, except as provided in section 321.106, of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the annual fee for the gross weight at which the vehicle is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year from the date of such conversion.

5. The registered gross weight of any vehicle or combination of vehicles may also be increased by installing and using a properly registered auxiliary axle or axles, and the combined registered gross weight of such vehicle and auxiliary axle or axles shall determine the total registered gross weight thereof. No auxiliary axle may be used to convert a single axle to a tandem axle unless equipped with a device to equalize the load carried by the single axle and the said auxiliary axle when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, and the load transmitted to the highway by either the single axle or the auxiliary axle shall not exceed that permitted for any single axle, nor shall the load transmitted to the highway when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, exceed that permitted for any tandem axle.

6. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor truck, trailer, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or combination thereof, or any such vehicle equipped with a transferable auxiliary axle or axles, on the public highways with a gross weight exceeding that for which it is registered by more than five percent of the gross weight for which it is registered, provided, however, that any vehicle or vehicle combination referred to herein, while carrying a load of raw farm products, soil fertilizers, including ground limestone, raw dairy products or livestock, live poultry, eggs, may be operated with a gross weight of twenty-five percent in excess of the gross weight for which it is registered.

7. For the purposes of this section cracked or ground soy beans, sargo, corn, wheat, rye, oats or other grain shall be deemed to be raw farm products, provided that such products are being directly delivered to a farm, from the place where the whole grain had been delivered from a farm for the purpose of cracking or grinding and immediate delivery to the farm to which such cracked or ground products are being delivered.

8. The truck operator shall have in his possession a receipt showing place of processing on his return trip. [C24, 27, §4921; C31, 35, §4921-c1, -c2; C39, §5035.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.466; 81 Acts, ch 110, §2]

321.471 Local authorities may restrict. Local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction may by ordinance or resolution prohibit the operation of vehicles upon any such highway or impose restrictions as to the weight of vehicles to be operated upon any such highway, except farm tractors as defined in section 321.1, subsection 7, for a total period of not to exceed ninety days in any one calendar year, whenever any said highway by reason of deterioration, rain, snow, or other climatic conditions will be seriously damaged or destroyed unless the use of vehicles thereon is prohibited or the permissible weights thereof reduced.

Any person who violates the provisions of such ordinance or resolution shall, upon conviction or a plea of guilty, be subject to a fine determined by dividing the difference between the actual weight and the maximum weight established by the ordinance or resolution by one hundred, and multiplying the quotient by two dollars. Local authorities may issue special permits, during periods such restrictions are in effect, to permit limited operation of vehicles upon specified routes with loads in excess of any restrictions imposed under this section, but not in excess of load restrictions imposed by any other provision of this chapter, and such authorities shall issue such permits upon a showing that there is a need to move to market farm produce of the type subject to rapid spoilage or loss of value or to move to any farm feeds or fuel for home heating purposes. [C24, 27, §4996; C31, 35, §4686-c1, 4996; C39, §5035.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.471]

321.472 Signs posted. The local authority enacting any such ordinance or resolution shall erect or cause to be erected and maintained signs designating the provisions of the ordinance or resolution at each end of that portion of any highway affected thereby, and the ordinance or resolution shall not be effective unless and until such signs are erected and maintained. [C31, 35, §4686-c1; C39, §5035.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321.472]

Referred to in §321.236(8), 331.362

321.473 Limiting trucks—rubbish vehicles. Local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction may also, by ordinance or resolution, prohibit the operation of trucks or other commercial vehicles, or may impose limitations as to the weight thereof, on designated highways, which prohibitions and limitations shall be designated by appropriate signs placed on such highways.

The department may issue annual special permits for the operation of compacted rubbish vehicles and vehicles which transport compacted rubbish from a rubbish collection point to a landfill area exceeding the weight limitation of section 321.463, but not exceeding a rear axle gross weight for two axle vehicles of twenty-two thousand pounds for the period commencing July 1, 1978 and ending June 30, 1983 and twenty thousand pounds commencing July 1, 1983 and thereafter, and for tandem axle vehicles or transferable auxiliary axle vehicles not exceeding a gross weight on the rear axles of thirty-six thousand pounds. Annual special permits for the operation on secondary roads shall be approved by the county engineer. Annual special permits for a particular vehicle shall not be issued by the department unless prior approval is given by the county engineer of the county in which the vehicle will be operated. Annual special permits for operation on primary roads shall be approved by the state department of transportation. Compacted rubbish vehicles and vehicles which transport compacted rubbish from a rubbish collection point to a landfill area operated pursuant to an annual special permit shall be operated only over routes designated by the local authority. Annual special permits for a particular vehicle shall not be issued by the department unless approved by the local authority responsible for the roads over which the vehicle will be operated. Annual special permits approved by the issuing authority shall be issued upon payment of an annual fee, in addition to other registration fees imposed, of one hundred dollars to be paid to the department for all nongovernmental vehicles.

Any person who violates the provisions of the ordinance or resolution shall, upon conviction or a plea of guilty, be subject to a fine determined by dividing the difference between the actual weight and the maximum weight established by the ordinance or resolution by one hundred, and multiplying the quotient by two dollars.

The director shall upon request consent to the immediate cancellation of any bond or certificate of insurance, or the director shall direct and the state treasurer shall return to the person entitled thereto any money or securities deposited pursuant to this chapter as proof of financial responsibility, or the director shall waive the requirement of filing proof, in any of the following events:

a At any time after two years from the date such proof was required when, during the two-year period preceding the request, the director has not received record of a conviction or a forfeiture of bail which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished; or b In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed or the permanent incapacity of such person to operate a motor vehicle; or c In the event the person who has given proof surrenders his license and registration to the director;

2. Provided, however, that the director shall not consent to the cancellation of any bond or the return of any money or securities in the event any action for damages upon a liability covered by such proof is then pending or any judgment upon any such liability is then unsatisfied, or in the event the person who has filed such bond or deposited such money or securities has within one year immediately preceding such request been involved as an operator or owner in any motor vehicle accident resulting in injury or damage to the person or property of others. An affidavit of the applicant as to the nonexistence of such facts, or that he has been released from all of his liability, or has been finally adjudicated not to be liable, for such injury or damage, shall be sufficient evidence thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary in the records of the director.

3. Whenever any person whose proof has been canceled or returned under paragraph "c" of subsection 1 of this section applies for a license or registration within a period of two years from the date proof was originally required, any such application shall be refused unless the applicant shall re-establish such proof for the remainder of the two-year period. 321B.1 Declaration of policy. The general assembly declares that this chapter is necessary to aid the enforcement of laws prohibiting operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, a narcotic, hypnotic, or other drug or any combination of such substances, or while having a certain amount of alcohol in the blood [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B 1, 82 Acts, ch 1167, §14]

321B.2 Definitions. As used in this chapter the words “peace officer” mean

- 1 Members of the highway patrol
- 2 Police officers under civil service as provided in chapter 400
- 3 Sheriffs
- 4 Regular deputy sheriffs who have had formal police training
- 5 Any other law enforcement officer who has satisfactorily completed an approved course relating to motor vehicle operators under the influence of alcoholic beverages at the Iowa law enforcement academy or a law enforcement training program approved by the department of public safety

As used in this chapter and sections 29B 106, 321 209, 321 281, 321 494 and 690 2 the words “alcoholic beverage” include alcohol, wine, spirits, beer, or any other beverage which contains ethyl alcohol and is fit for human consumption

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, “director” means the director of transportation or his designee, and “department” means the state department of transportation

As used in this chapter, “arrest” includes but is not limited to taking into custody pursuant to section 232 19 [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B 2, 82 Acts, ch 1070, §2]

321B.3 Preliminary screening test. When a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a motor vehicle operator may be violating or has violated section 321 281, or the operator has been involved in a motor vehicle collision resulting in injury or death, the peace officer may request the operator to provide a sample of the operator’s breath for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for that purpose. The results of this preliminary screening test may be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made and whether to request a chemical test authorized in this chapter, but shall not be used in any court action except to prove that a chemical test was properly requested of a person pursuant to this chapter [82 Acts, ch 1167, §12]

321B.4 Implied consent to test.

1. Any person who operates a motor vehicle in this state upon a public highway under circumstances which give reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, is deemed to have given consent to the withdrawal of specimens of the person's blood, breath, saliva, or urine, and to a chemical test or tests of the specimens for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of the blood, subject to this section. The withdrawal of the body substances and the test or tests shall be administered at the written request of a peace officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, and if any of the following conditions exist:

a. A peace officer has lawfully placed the person under arrest for violation of section 321.281.

b. The person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in personal injury or death.

c. The person has refused to take a preliminary breath screening test provided by this chapter.

d. The preliminary breath screening test was administered and it recorded ten hundredths or more of one percent by weight of alcohol in the blood.

2. The peace officer shall determine which of the four substances, breath, blood, saliva, or urine, shall be tested. Refusal to submit to a chemical test of urine, saliva or breath is deemed a refusal to submit, and section 321B.13 applies. A refusal to submit to a chemical test of blood is not deemed a refusal to submit, but in that case, the peace officer shall then determine which one of the other three substances shall be tested and shall offer the test. If the peace officer fails to provide a test within two hours after the preliminary screening test is administered or refused or the arrest is made, whichever occurs first, a test is not required, and there shall be no revocation under section 321B.13. 321B.11 Dead or unconscious persons. Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering the person incapable of consent or refusal is deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by section 321B.4, and the test may be given; provided that a licensed physician shall certify in advance of such test that such person is dead, unconscious or otherwise in a condition rendering that person incapable of consent or refusal. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B.5; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §18]

321B.12 Statement of officer. A peace officer shall advise any person who is requested to take any chemical test that a refusal to submit to such test will result in revocation of the person's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle. A peace officer shall advise a person prior to the submission to a chemical test that if the results indicate ten hundredths or more of one percent by weight of alcohol in the blood the department will revoke the person's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle. The peace officer shall advise the person of the periods of revocation applying for both reasons for revocation. The requirements of this section do not apply in the case of any person referred to in section 321B.11. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B.6; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §19]

321B.13 Refusal to submit. If a person refuses to submit to the chemical testing, a test shall not be given, but the department, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the peace officer that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, that specified conditions existed for chemical testing pursuant to section 321B.4, and that the person had refused to submit to the chemical testing, shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privilege for a period of one hundred eighty days if the person has no previous revocation under section 321.209, subsection 2, section 321.281, or this chapter; one year if the person has one previous revocation under those provisions; and five hundred forty days if the person has two or more previous revocations under those provisions; or if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period a license or permit would be revoked, subject to review as provided in this chapter. The effective date of revocation shall be twenty days after the department has mailed notice of revocation to the person by certified mail or, on behalf of the department, a peace officer offering or directing the administration of a chemical test may serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person who refuses to permit chemical testing. If the peace officer serves that immediate notice, the peace officer shall take the Iowa license or permit of the driver, if any, and issue a temporary license effective for only twenty days. The peace officer shall immediately send the person's license to the department along with an affidavit indicating the person's refusal to submit to chemical testing. 321B.14 Tests pursuant to warrants.

1. Refusal to consent to a test under section 321B.4 does not prohibit the withdrawal of a specimen for chemical testing pursuant to a search warrant issued in the investigation of a suspected violation of section 707.5 where the following grounds exist:

a A traffic accident has resulted in a death or personal injury reasonably likely to cause death, and b There are reasonable grounds to believe that one or more of the persons whose driving may have been the proximate cause of the accident was violating section 321.281 at the time of the accident.

2. Search warrants may be issued under this section in full compliance with chapter 808 or they may be issued under subsection 3.

3. Notwithstanding section 808.3, the issuance of a search warrant under this section may be based upon sworn oral testimony communicated by telephone if the magistrate who is asked to issue the warrant is satisfied that the circumstances make it reasonable to dispense with a written affidavit. The following shall then apply:

a. When a caller applies for the issuance of a warrant under this section and the magistrate becomes aware of the purpose of the call, the magistrate shall place under oath the person applying for the warrant.

b. The person applying for the warrant shall prepare a duplicate warrant and read the duplicate warrant, verbatim, to the magistrate who shall enter, verbatim, what is read to the magistrate on a form that will be considered the original warrant. The magistrate may direct that the warrant be modified.

c. The oral application testimony shall set forth facts and information tending to establish the existence of the grounds for the warrant and shall describe with a reasonable degree of specificity the person or persons whose driving is believed to have been the proximate cause of the accident and from whom a specimen is to be withdrawn and the location where the withdrawal of the specimen or specimens is to take place.

d. If a voice recording device is available, the magistrate may record by means of that device all of the call after the magistrate becomes aware of the purpose of the call. Otherwise, the magistrate shall cause a stenographic or longhand memorandum to be made of the oral testimony of the person applying for the warrant.

e. If the magistrate is satisfied from the oral testimony that the grounds for the warrant exist or that there is probable cause to believe that they exist, the magistrate shall order the issuance of the warrant by directing the person applying for the warrant to sign the magistrate's name on the duplicate warrant. The magistrate shall immediately sign the original warrant and enter on its face the exact time when the issuance was ordered.

f. The person who executes the warrant shall enter the time of execution on the face of the duplicate warrant.

g. The magistrate shall cause any record of the call made by means of a voice recording device to be transcribed, shall certify the accuracy of the transcript, and shall file the transcript and the original record with the clerk. If a stenographic or longhand memorandum was made of the oral testimony of the person who applied for the warrant, the magistrate shall file a signed copy with the clerk.

h. The clerk of court shall maintain the original and duplicate warrants along with the record of the telephone call and any transcript or memorandum made of the call in a confidential file until a charge, if any, is filed.

4. Search warrants issued under this section shall authorize and direct peace officers to secure the withdrawal of blood specimens by medical personnel under section 321B.15. Reasonable care shall be exercised to ensure the health and safety of the persons from whom specimens are withdrawn in execution of the warrants. If a person from whom a specimen is to be withdrawn objects to the withdrawal of blood, the person is capable of giving a specimen of breath, and a direct breath testing instrument is readily available, the warrant may be executed by the withdrawal of a specimen of breath for chemical testing.

5. The act of any person knowingly resisting or obstructing the withdrawal of a specimen pursuant to a search warrant issued under this section constitutes a contempt punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. Also, if the withdrawal of a specimen is so resisted or obstructed, sections 321B.13 and 321B.29 apply.

6. Nonsubstantive variances between the contents of the original and duplicate warrants shall not cause a warrant issued under subsection 3 of this section to be considered invalid.

7. Specimens obtained pursuant to warrants issued under this section are not subject to disposition under section 808.9 or chapter 809.

8. Subsections 1 to 7 of this section do not apply where a test may be administered under section 321B.11.

9. Medical personnel who use reasonable care and accepted medical practices in withdrawing blood specimens are immune from liability for their actions in complying with requests made of them pursuant to search warrants or pursuant to section 321B.15. [82 Acts, ch 1167, §16]

Section 321B 14, Code 1981, transferred to §321B 39

321B.15 Taking sample for test. Only a licensed physician, physician's assistant as defined in section 148C.1, subsection 6, medical technologist or registered nurse, acting at the request of a peace officer may withdraw body substances for the purpose of determining the alcoholic or drug content of the person's blood. However, any peace officer, using devices and methods approved by the commissioner of public safety, may take a specimen of a person's breath or urine for the purpose of determining the alcoholic or drug content of the person's blood. Only new, originally factory wrapped, disposable syringes and needles, kept under strictly sanitary and sterile conditions shall be used for drawing blood. The person may have an independent chemical test or tests administered in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer. The failure or inability of the person to obtain an independent chemical test or tests does not preclude the admission in evidence of the results of the test or tests taken at the direction of the peace officer. Upon the request of the person who is tested, the results of the test or tests taken at the direction of the peace officer shall be made available to the person. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B.4; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §17]

Section 321B.15, Code 1981, transferred to §321B 38

321B.16 Test result revocation. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281 and that the person submitted to chemical testing and the test results indicate ten hundredths or more of one percent by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, the department shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege for a period of one hundred twenty days if the person has no revocation within the previous six years under section 321.209, subsection 2, section 321.281 or this chapter, two hundred forty days if the person has one previous revocation under those provisions, and one year if the person has two or more revocations under those provisions arising from separate occurrences.

The effective date of the revocation shall be twenty days after the department has mailed notice of revocation to the person by certified mail or, on behalf of the department, a peace officer offering a chemical test or directing the administration of a chemical test may serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person when the person's test results indicate ten hundredths or more of one percent by weight of alcohol in the blood.

If the peace officer serves that immediate notice, the peace officer shall take the Iowa license or permit of the driver, if any, and issue a temporary license valid only for twenty days. The peace officer shall immediately send the person's driver's license to the department along with an affidavit stating that the test results indicate ten hundredths of one percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood.

The department may, on application, issue a temporary restricted license to a person whose license has been revoked under this section when the person's regular employment includes the operation of a motor vehicle or who cannot perform his or her regular occupation without the use of a motor vehicle, or when the person's use of a motor vehicle is necessary to attend evaluation, treatment or educational services for alcohol or drug dependency, but the person shall not operate a vehicle for pleasure while holding a restricted license. However, this paragraph does not apply to a person whose license is suspended or revoked for another reason. [82 Acts, ch 1167, §13]

321B.17 to 321B.25 Reserved.

Upon the written request of a person whose privilege to drive has been revoked or denied, or has been issued a twenty-day license pursuant to section 321B.13 or section 321B.16, the department shall grant the person an opportunity to be heard within twenty days after the receipt of the request, but the request must be made within ten days of the effective date of revocation or denial of driving privileges or the issuance of a temporary permit. The hearing shall be before the department in the county where the alleged events occurred, unless the director and the person agree that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing may be recorded and its scope shall cover the issues of whether a peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, whether the person refused to submit to the test or tests, the test results if a person consented to a test and whether the person should be issued a temporary restricted license. The department shall order that the revocation or denial be either rescinded or sustained. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B.8; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §21]

321B.27 Judicial review. Judicial review of an action of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, a petition for judicial review may be filed in the district court in the county wherein the alleged events occurred for which the licensee was arrested or in the county in which the administrative hearing was held. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321B.9; 82 Acts, ch 1167, §22]

321B.28 Evidence in any action. Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, evidence of the amount of alcohol or drugs in the person's blood at the time of the act alleged as shown by a chemical analysis of the person's blood, breath, saliva or urine is admissible. CHAPTER 321C

INTERSTATE DRIVERS LICENSE COMPACTS

321C.1 Authority to compact.

321C.2 Enforcement.

321C.1 Authority to compact. The director of transportation may, subject to the approval of the state transportation commission, enter into drivers license compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states agree:

ARTICLE I—FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

a. The party states find that:

1. The safety of their streets and highways is materially affected by the degree of compliance with state laws and local ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles.

2. Violation of such a law or ordinance is evidence that the violator engages in conduct which is likely to endanger the safety of persons and property.

3. The continuance in force of a license to drive is predicated upon compliance with laws and ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles, in whichever jurisdiction the vehicle is operated.

b. It is the policy of each of the party states to:

1. Promote compliance with the laws, ordinances, and administrative rules and regulations relating to the operation of motor vehicles by their operators in each of the jurisdictions where such operators drive motor vehicles.

2. Make the reciprocal recognition of licenses to drive and eligibility therefor more just and equitable by considering the overall compliance with motor vehicle laws, ordinances and administrative rules and regulations as a condition precedent to the continuance or issuance of any license by reason of which the licensee is authorized or permitted to operate a motor vehicle in any of the party states.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a. "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b. "Home state" means the state which has issued and has the power to suspend or revoke the use of the license or permit to operate a motor vehicle.

c. "Conviction" means a conviction of any offense related to the use or operation of a motor vehicle which is prohibited by state law, municipal ordinance or administrative rule or regulation, or a forfeiture of bail, bond or other security deposited to secure appearance by a person charged with having committed any such offense, and which conviction or forfeiture is required to be reported to the licensing authority.

ARTICLE III—REPORTS OF CONVICTION

The licensing authority of a party state shall report each conviction of a person from another party state occurring within its jurisdiction to the licensing authority of the home state of the licensee. Such report shall clearly identify the person convicted; describe the violation specifying the section of the statute, code or ordinance violated; identify the court in which action was taken; indicate whether a plea of guilty or not guilty was entered, or the conviction was a result of the forfeiture of bail, bond or other security; and shall include any special findings made in connection therewith.

Referred to in Art IV

ARTICLE IV—EFFECT OF CONVICTION

a. The licensing authority in the home state, for the purposes of suspension, revocation or limitation of the license to operate a motor vehicle, shall give the same effect to the conduct reported, pursuant to Article III of this compact, as it would if such conduct had occurred in the home state, in the case of convictions for:

1. Manslaughter or negligent homicide resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle;

2. Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug, or under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders the driver incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle;

3. Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;

4. Failure to stop and render aid in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another.

b. As to other convictions, reported pursuant to Article III, the licensing authority in the home state shall give such effect to the conduct as is provided by the laws of the home state.

c. If the laws of a party state do not provide for offenses or violations denominated or described in precisely the words employed in subdivision "a" of this article, such party state shall construe the denominations and descriptions appearing in subdivision "a" hereof as being applicable to and identifying those offenses or violations of a substantially similar nature, and the laws of such party state shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to ensure that full force and effect is given to this article.

ARTICLE V—APPLICATIONS FOR NEW LICENSES

Upon application for a license to drive, the licensing authority in a party state shall ascertain whether the applicant has ever held, or is the holder of a license to drive issued by any other party state. The licensing authority in the state where application is made shall not issue a license to drive to the applicant if:

1. The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been suspended by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such suspension period has not terminated

2 The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been revoked by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such revocation has not terminated, except that after the expiration of one year from the date the license was revoked, such person may make application for a new license if permitted by law. The licensing authority may refuse to issue a license to any such applicant if, after investigation, the licensing authority determines that it will not be safe to grant to such person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways.

3 The applicant is the holder of a license to drive issued by another party state and currently in force unless the applicant surrenders such license.

ARTICLE VI—APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS

Except as expressly required by provisions of this compact, nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect the right of any party state to apply any of its other laws relating to licenses to drive to any person or circumstance, nor to invalidate or prevent any driver license agreement or other cooperative arrangement between a party state and a nonparty state.

ARTICLE VII COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR AND INTERCHANGE OF INFORMATION

a The head of the licensing authority of each party state shall be the administrator of this compact for his state. The administrators, acting jointly, shall have the power to formulate all necessary and proper procedures for the exchange of information under this compact.

b The administrator of each party state shall furnish to the administrator of each other party state any information or documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the administration of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a This compact shall enter into force and become effective as to any state when it has enacted the same into law.

b Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until six months after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect the validity or applicability by the licensing authorities of states remaining party to the compact of any report of conviction occurring prior to the withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321C 1]

321C.2 Enforcement. The agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions and municipalities shall enforce this compact and do all things appropriate to effect its purpose and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321C 2]

CHAPTER 321D

VEHICLE EQUIPMENT COMPACTS

321D 1 Authority to compact

321D 2 Enforcement

321D.1 Authority to compact. The director of transportation may, subject to the approval of the state transportation commission, enter into vehicle equipment safety compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form:

The contracting states agree

a The party states find that

1 Accidents and deaths on their streets and highways present a very serious human and economic problem with a major deleterious effect on the public welfare.

2 There is a vital need for the development of greater interjurisdictional cooperation to achieve the necessary uniformity in the laws, rules, regulations and codes relating to vehicle equipment, and to accomplish this by such means as will minimize the time between the development of demonstrably and scientifically sound safety features and their incorporation into vehicles.

b The purposes of this compact are to

1 Promote uniformity in regulation of and standards for equipment

2 Secure uniformity of law and administrative practice in vehicular regulation and related safety standards to permit incorporation of desirable equipment changes in vehicles in the interest of greater traffic safety

3 To provide means for the encouragement and utilization of research which will facilitate the achievement of the foregoing purposes, with due regard for the findings set forth in subdivision "a" of this article

c It is the intent of this compact to emphasize performance requirements and not to determine the specific detail of engineering in the manufacture of vehicles or equipment except to the extent necessary for the meeting of such performance requirements

As used in this compact

a "Vehicle" means every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks

b "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico

c "Equipment" means any part of a vehicle or any accessory for use thereon which affects the safety of operation of such vehicle or the safety of the occupants

ARTICLE III—THE COMMISSION

a There is hereby created an agency of the party states to be known as the "Vehicle Equipment Safety Commission" hereinafter called the commission. The commission shall be composed of one commissioner from each party state who shall be appointed, serve and be subject to removal in accordance with the laws of the state which he represents. If authorized by the laws of his party state, a commissioner may provide for the discharge of his duties and the performance of his functions on the commission, either for the duration of his membership or for any lesser period of time, by an alternate. No such alternate shall be entitled to serve unless notification of his identity and appointment shall have been given to the commission in such form as the commission may require. Each commissioner, and each alternate, when serving in the place and stead of a commissioner, shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the commission for expenses actually incurred in attending commission meetings or while engaged in the business of the commission.

b The commissioners shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners, or their alternates, are present

c The commission shall have a seal

d The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission may appoint an executive director and fix his duties and compensation. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and together with the treasurer shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director also shall serve as secretary. If there be no executive director, the commission shall elect a secretary in addition to the other officers provided by this subdivision.

e Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director with the approval of the commission, or the commission if there be no executive director, shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the commission's functions, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel.

f The commission may establish and maintain independently or in conjunction with any one or more of the party states, a suitable retirement system for its full-time employees. Employees of the commission shall be eligible for social security coverage in respect of old-age and survivor's insurance provided that the commission takes such steps as may be necessary pursuant to the laws of the United States, to participate in such program of insurance as a governmental agency or unit. The commission may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate.

g The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party state, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party states or their subdivisions.

h The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same.

i The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

j The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states. The bylaws shall provide for appropriate notice to the commissioners of all commission meetings and hearings and the business to be transacted at such meetings or hearings. Such notice shall also be given to such agencies or officers of each party state as the laws of such party state may provide.

k The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year, and embodying such recommendations as may have been issued by the commission. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV—RESEARCH AND TESTING

The commission shall have power to a Collect, correlate, analyze and evaluate information resulting or derivable from research and testing activities in equipment and related fields

b Recommend and encourage the undertaking of research and testing in any aspect of equipment or related matters when, in its judgment, appropriate or sufficient research or testing has not been undertaken c Contract for such equipment research and testing as one or more governmental agencies may agree to have contracted for by the commission, provided that such governmental agency or agencies shall make available the funds necessary for such research and testing

d Recommend to the party states changes in law or policy with emphasis on uniformity of laws and administrative rules, regulations or codes which would promote effective governmental action or co-ordination in the prevention of equipment related highway accidents or the mitigation of equipment-related highway safety problems

a In the interest of vehicular and public safety, the commission may study the need for or desirability of the establishment of or changes in performance requirements or restrictions for any item of equipment. As a result of such study, the commission may publish a report relating to any item or items of equipment, and the issuance of such a report shall be a condition precedent to any proceedings or other action provided or authorized by this article. No less than sixty days after the publication of a report containing the results of such study, the commission upon due notice shall hold a hearing or hearings at such place or places as it may determine.

b Following the hearing or hearings provided for in subdivision "a" of this article, and with due regard for standards recommended by appropriate professional and technical associations and agencies, the commission may issue rules, regulations or codes embodying performance requirements or restrictions for any item or items of equipment covered in the report, which in the opinion of the commission will be fair and equitable and effectuate the purposes of this compact.

c Each party state obligates itself to give due consideration to any and all rules, regulations and codes issued by the commission and hereby declares its policy and intent to be the promotion of uniformity in the laws of the several party states relating to equipment.

d The commission shall send prompt notice of its action in issuing any rule, regulation or code pursuant to this article to the appropriate motor vehicle agency of each party state and such notice shall contain the complete text of the rule, regulation or code.

e If the constitution of a party state requires, or if its statutes provide, the approval of the legislature by appropriate resolution or act may be made a condition precedent to the taking effect in such party state of any rule, regulation or code. In such event, the commissioner of such party state shall submit any commission rule, regulation or code to the legislature as promptly as may be in lieu of administrative acceptance or rejection thereof by the party state.

f Except as otherwise specifically provided in or pursuant to subdivisions "e" and "g" of this article, the appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state shall in accordance with its constitution or procedural laws adopt the rule, regulation or code within six months of the sending of the notice, and, upon such adoption, the rule, regulation or code shall have the force and effect of law therein.

g The appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state may decline to adopt a rule, regulation or code issued by the commission pursuant to this article if such agency specifically finds, after public hearing on due notice, that a variation from the commission's rule, regulation or code is necessary to the public safety, and incorporates in such finding the reasons upon which it is based. Any such finding shall be subject to review by such procedure for review of administrative determinations as may be applicable pursuant to the laws of the party state. Upon request, the commission shall be furnished with a copy of the transcript of any hearings held pursuant to this subdivision.

ARTICLE VI—FINANCE

a The commission shall submit to the executive head or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

b Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: One-third in equal shares, and the remainder in proportion to the number of motor vehicles registered in each party state. In determining the number of such registrations, the commission may employ such source or sources of information as in its judgment present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the source or sources used in obtaining information concerning vehicular registrations.

c The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under Article III "h" of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under Article III "h" hereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

d The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its rules. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

e. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

f. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII—CONFLICT OF INTEREST

a. The commission shall adopt rules and regulations with respect to conflict of interest for the commissioners of the party states, and their alternates, if any, and for the staff of the commission and contractors with the commission to the end that no member or employee or contractor shall have a pecuniary or other incompatible interest in the manufacture, sale or distribution of motor vehicles or vehicular equipment or in any facility or enterprise employed by the commission or on its behalf for testing, conduct of investigations or research. In addition to any penalty for violation of such rules and regulations as may be applicable under the laws of the violator's jurisdiction of residence, employment or business, any violation of a commission rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this article shall require the immediate discharge of any violating employee and the immediate vacating of membership, or relinquishing of status as a member on the commission by any commissioner or alternate. In the case of a contractor, any violation of any such rule or regulation shall make any contract of the violator with the commission subject to cancellation by the commission.

b Nothing contained in this article shall be deemed to prevent a contractor for the commission from using any facilities subject to his control in the performance of the contract even though such facilities are not devoted solely to work of or done on behalf of the commission; nor to prevent such a contractor from receiving remuneration or profit from the use of such facilities.

ARTICLE VIII—ADVISORY AND TECHNICAL COMMITTEES

The commission may establish such advisory and technical committees as it may deem necessary, membership on which may include private citizens and public officials, and may co-operate with and use the services of any such committees and the organizations which the members represent in furthering any of its activities.

ARTICLE IX—ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any six or more states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof.

b Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321D.1]

321D.2 Enforcement. The agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions and municipalities shall enforce this compact and do all things appropriate to effect its purpose and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321D.2]

The director of transportation may adopt rules not inconsistent herewith regulating the use of snowmobiles on streets and highways. Cities may designate streets under the jurisdiction of cities within their respective corporate limits which may be used for snowmobiling.

In the promulgation of such rules, consideration shall be given to the need to protect the environment and the public health, safety and welfare, to protect private property, public parks and other public lands, to protect wildlife and the habitat thereof, and to promote uniformity of rules relating to the use, operation and equipment of snowmobiles. Such rules shall be in conformance with chapter 17A [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321G 2]

321G.3 Registration required. Every snowmobile used on public streets, highways, land or ice of this state shall be currently registered and numbered. No person shall operate, maintain, or give permission for the operation or maintenance of any such snowmobile on such land or ice unless the snowmobile is numbered in accordance with this chapter, or in accordance with applicable federal laws, or in accordance with an approved numbering system of another state, and unless the identifying number set forth in the registration is displayed on each side of the forward half of such snowmobile.

A registration number shall be assigned, without payment of fee, to snowmobiles owned by the state of Iowa or its political subdivisions upon application therefor, and the assigned registration number shall be displayed on the snowmobile as required under section 321G 5 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321G 3]

The owner of each snowmobile required to be numbered shall register it every two years with the county recorder of the county in which the owner resides or, if the owner is a nonresident, he shall register it in the county in which such snowmobile is principally used. The commission shall have supervisory responsibility over the registration of all snowmobiles and shall provide each county recorder with registration forms and certificates and shall allocate identification numbers to each county.

The owner of the snowmobile shall file an application for registration with the appropriate county recorder on forms provided by the commission. The application shall be completed and signed by the owner of the snowmobile and shall be accompanied by a fee of twelve dollars and a writing fee. Proof of payment of Iowa sales or use tax must accompany all applications for registration. Upon receipt of the application in approved form accompanied by the required fees, the county recorder shall enter the same upon the records and shall issue to the applicant a pocket size registration certificate. The certificate shall be executed in triplicate, one copy to be delivered to the owner, one copy to the commission, and one copy to be retained on file by the county recorder. The registration certificate shall bear the number awarded to the snowmobile and the name and address of the owner. The registration certificate shall be carried either in the snowmobile or on the person of the operator of the machine when in use. The operator of a snowmobile shall exhibit the registration certificate to a peace officer upon request or to the owner or operator of another snowmobile or the owner of personal or real property when the snowmobile is involved in a collision or accident of any nature with another snowmobile or the property of another person.

If a snowmobile is placed in storage, the owner shall return the current registration certificate to the county recorder with an affidavit stating that the snowmobile is placed in storage and the effective date of storage. The county recorder shall notify the commission of each snowmobile placed in storage. When the owner of a stored snowmobile desires to renew the registration, the owner shall make application to the county recorder and pay the registration and writing fees without penalty. A refund of the registration fee shall not be allowed for a stored snowmobile [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321G 4, 81 Acts, ch 113, §3]

After the first day of September each even numbered year, any unregistered snowmobile and renewals of registration may be so registered for the subsequent biennium beginning January 1. Any snowmobile registered between January 1 and September 1 of even-numbered years shall be registered for a fee of six dollars for the remainder of the registration period.

After the first day of September in even numbered years an unregistered snowmobile may be registered for the remainder of the current registration period and for the subsequent registration period in one transaction. The fee shall be three dollars for the remainder of the current period, in addition to the registration fee of twelve dollars for the subsequent biennium beginning January 1, and a writing fee. Registration certificates and numbers may be renewed upon application of the owner in the same manner as provided in securing the original registration. The snowmobile registration fee is in lieu of personal property tax for each year of the registration.

If the application for registration for the subsequent biennium is not made before January 1 of each odd-numbered year, the applicant shall be charged a penalty of two dollars for each six months' delinquency, or any portion of six months.

Whenever any person, after registering a snowmobile, moves from the address shown on the registration certificate, he shall, within ten days, notify the county recorder in writing of such fact.

Upon the transfer of ownership of a snowmobile, the owner shall complete the form on the back of a current registration certificate and shall deliver it to the purchaser or transferee at the time of delivering the snowmobile. The purchaser or transferee shall, within five days, file a new application form with the county recorder with a fee of one dollar and the writing fee, and a transfer of number shall be awarded in the same manner as provided in an original registration.

All registrations must be valid for the current registration period prior to the transfer of any registration, including assignment to a dealer.

Duplicate registrations may be issued upon application therefor and the payment of the same fees collected for the transfer of registrations. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §321G.6; 81 Acts, ch 113, §4, 5]

Before January 10 of each year, each recorder shall summarize the transactions of the registration fees and penalties collected during the previous year.

The commission shall remit the fees to the treasurer of state, who shall place the money in a special conservation fund. The money is appropriated to the commission for the snowmobile program of the state. The program shall include cost-sharing of snowmobile facilities and programs with political subdivisions in accordance with rules adopted by the commission. At least fifty percent of the special fund shall be available for the political subdivisions. Money from the special fund not utilized by the political subdivisions shall be utilized in the snowmobile program of the state. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §321G.7; 81 Acts, ch 113, §6]

On the roadway or shoulder when necessary to cross a bridge or culvert, or avoid an obstruction which makes it impossible to travel on the portion of the highway not intended for motor vehicles, if the snowmobile is brought to a complete stop before entering onto the roadway or shoulder and the driver yields the right of way to any approaching vehicle on the roadway.

5. This section shall not be construed to create a duty of care or ground of liability on behalf of the state, its political subdivisions, or the owners of property adjoining the right of way of a public highway and their agents and employees for injury to persons or property in the operation of snowmobiles in a ditch or on land contiguous to a highway or roadway under the control of the state or a political subdivision. The state, its political subdivisions and the owners of property adjoining the right of way of a public highway and their agents and employees shall, in no event, be liable for the operation of a snowmobile in violation of the provisions of this chapter. Effective July 1, 1977, no person who is born after July 1, 1965 shall operate a snowmobile in this state without obtaining a valid safety certificate issued by the commission and having such certificate in his possession, or unless he is accompanied on the same machine by a responsible person of at least eighteen years of age who is experienced in snowmobile operation and possesses a valid operator's or chauffeur's license, instruction permit, restricted license or temporary permit issued under chapter 321 or a safety certificate issued under this chapter.

2. Upon application and payment of a fee of three dollars, a qualified applicant shall be issued a safety certificate which is valid until the certificate is suspended or revoked for a violation of a provision of this chapter or a rule of the commission or the director of transportation. The application shall be made on forms issued by the commission and shall contain information as the commission may reasonably require.

3. Any person who is required to have a safety certificate under this chapter and who has completed a course of instruction established under section 321G.2, subsection 5, including the successful passage of an examination which includes a written test relating to such course of instruction, shall be considered qualified to apply for a safety certificate. The commission may waive the requirement of completing such course of instruction if such person successfully passes a written test based on such course of instruction.

4. The permit fees collected under this section shall be credited to the state conservation fund and shall be used for safety and educational programs.

5 A valid snowmobile safety certificate or license issued to a nonresident by a governmental authority of another state shall be considered a valid certificate or license in this state if the permit or license requirements of such governmental authority, excluding fees, are substantially the same as the requirements of this chapter as determined by the commission [C75, 77, 79, 81, §321G 24, 81 Acts, ch 113, §9]

321G.25 Inspection. The officer shall not inspect an area that is not essential to determine compliance with the requirements. If the officer determines that the snowmobile is not in compliance, the officer may issue a warning memorandum to the operator and forward a copy to the commission. The warning memorandum shall indicate the items found not in compliance and shall direct the owner or operator of the snowmobile to have the snowmobile in compliance and return a copy of the warning memorandum with the proof of compliance to the commission within fourteen days. If the proof of compliance is not provided within fourteen days, the owner or operator is in violation of this chapter [81 Acts, ch 113, §1]

321G.28 Rules and local ordinances.

1 The provisions of this chapter and other applicable laws of this state shall govern the operation, equipment, numbering, and all other matters relating to a snowmobile whenever the snowmobile is operated or maintained in this state. However, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the adoption of an ordinance or local law relating to the operation of or equipment of snowmobiles. The ordinances or local laws shall be operative only so long as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted by the commission.

2 A subdivision of this state, after public notice by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the subdivision, may make formal application to the commission for special rules concerning the operation of snowmobiles within the territorial limits of the subdivision and shall provide the commission with the reasons the special rules are necessary.

3 The commission, upon application by local authorities and in conformity with this chapter, may make special rules concerning the operation of snowmobiles within the territorial limits of a subdivision of this state [S81, §321G 28, 81 Acts, ch 113, §1]

322.6 Denial of license. The department may deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuse to issue a license to him as such, if, after reasonable notice and a hearing, the department determines that such applicant:

10. If it has been judicially determined that the licensee has intentionally violated any of the provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code, and the licensee continues to make consumer credit sales, consumer loans or consumer leases in violation of the Iowa consumer credit code.

It shall be sufficient cause for refusal or revocation of a license as a motor vehicle dealer in the case of a partnership or corporation if any member of the partnership or any officer or director of the corporation has committed any act or omission which would be cause for refusing or revoking a license to such person as an individual.

In considering whether or not a contract or agreement between a motor vehicle dealer and a manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles has been terminated by such manufacturer or distributor without just and reasonable cause therefor, the department shall take into consideration the circumstances existing at the time of such termination, including the amount of business transacted by the motor vehicle dealer pursuant to the contract or agreement and prior to such termination; the investment necessarily made and the obligation necessarily incurred by the motor vehicle dealer in the performance of his part of such contract; the permanency of such investment; the reasons for such termination by such manufacturer or distributor and the fact that it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of a motor vehicle dealer to be disrupted by termination of such contract without just and reasonable cause.

Whenever the department determines to deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuses to issue a license to him as such, the department shall enter a final order thereof with its findings relating thereto within thirty days from the date of the hearing thereon. [C39, §5039.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.6]

Each motor vehicle dealer licensee shall promptly file with the department from time to time during the period of the license, statements supplemental to the statements contained in his application for license whenever any change shall occur in his personnel or in his plan or method of doing business or in the location of his place or places of business, so that the statements made in the application do, after such change, properly disclose the licensee's status and method and plan of doing business. The supplemental statement shall be in the form prescribed by the department and shall disclose such information as would have been required by this chapter if such changes had occurred prior to the licensee making application for a license.

If the department finds that the changes set forth in the supplemental statement do not violate the provisions of this chapter and it grants to the licensee the privilege of doing business in the manner set forth therein, it shall upon surrender to it of the license of the motor vehicle dealer, issue to him a new license appropriate to the dealer's original application as modified by such supplemental statement. [C39, §5039.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.8]

The department is further authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any retail motor vehicle dealer if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such licensee has been convicted or has forfeited bail on three charges of:

The petitioner shall file with the clerk a bond for the use of the respondent, with sureties approved by such clerk and in an amount fixed by him, provided in no case shall the bond be less than fifty dollars, conditioned that the petitioner shall perform the orders of the court. [C39, §5039.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.10]

In any such action, the department may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena, requiring forthwith the appearance of any defendant, his agent and employees and the production of documents, books, and records as may appear necessary for the hearing of such petition to testify and give evidence concerning the acts or conduct or practices or things complained of in such application for injunction. In said action an order or judgment may be entered, awarding such preliminary or final injunctions as may be proper. [C39, §5039.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.11]

322.14 Penalties. Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter where a penalty is not specifically provided for shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

If a retail installment contract is subject to a provision of the Iowa consumer credit code which is enforced by a criminal penalty, such penalty shall be considered to be specifically provided for a violation of this chapter.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to violations under subsection 5 of section 322.3. [C39, §5039.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.14]

The buyer shall have the privilege of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of his own selection and of selecting an insurance company acceptable to the holder; but in such case the inclusion of the insurance premium in the retail installment contract shall be optional with the seller. shall expire, unless sooner revoked or suspended, on December 31 of the calendar year for which they are granted.

License fees for each calendar year, or part thereof, shall be as follows effective January 1, 1980:

1. For a motor vehicle manufacturer, thirty-five dollars.
2. For a new motor vehicle distributor or wholesaler, twenty dollars.
3. For a used motor vehicle distributor or wholesaler, ten dollars.

A license shall not be issued to a factory representative unless the person is employed by a licensed manufacturer. A license shall not be issued to a distributor representative unless the person is employed by a licensed distributor or wholesaler. Every factory representative or distributor representative shall carry a license when engaged in business, and display the license upon request. The license shall name the employer, and in case of a change of employer, the representative shall immediately mail the license to the department which shall endorse the change on the license without charge. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.29]

322.30 Display. The licenses of manufacturers, factory branches, distributors and distributor branches shall specify the location of the office or branch and must be conspicuously displayed at such location. In case such location be changed, the department shall endorse the change of location on the license without charge if it be within the same municipality. A change of location to another municipality shall require a new license. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.30]

322.31 Denial of license. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.31]

322.32 Construction of applicability to contracts. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a licensee hereunder from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with another licensee hereunder, nor shall the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.32]

322.33 Applicability of the Iowa consumer credit code.

3 "Franchisee" means a person who receives motor vehicles from the franchiser under a franchise and who offers and sells such motor vehicles to the general public a A commercial relationship of definite duration or continuing indefinite duration is involved

b The franchisee is granted the right to offer and sell motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by the franchiser

c The franchisee, as an independent business, constitutes a component of franchiser's distribution system

d The operation of franchisee's business is substantially associated with the franchiser's trade mark, service mark, trade name, advertising, or other commercial symbol designating the franchiser

e The operation of the franchisee's business is substantially reliant on franchiser for the continued supply of motor vehicles, parts, and accessories

5 "Motor vehicle" means "motor vehicles" as defined in chapter 321 which are subject to registration pursuant to the provisions thereof

6 "Community" means the franchisee's area of responsibility as stipulated in the franchise

322A.2 Discontinuing franchise. Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, no franchiser shall terminate or refuse to continue any franchise unless the franchiser has first established, in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter, that

1 The franchiser has good cause for termination or noncontinuance, and

2 Upon termination or noncontinuance, another franchise in the same line-make will become effective in the same community, without diminution of the motor vehicle service formerly provided, or that the community cannot be reasonably expected to support such a dealership, provided, however, a franchiser may terminate a franchise for a particular line-make if the franchiser discontinues that line make and a franchiser may terminate a franchise if the franchisee's license as a motor vehicle dealer is revoked pursuant to the provisions of chapter 322 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 2]

322A.3 New franchise. In the event that a franchiser is permitted to terminate or not continue a franchise, and is further permitted not to enter into a franchise for the line-make in the community, no franchise shall thereafter be entered into for the sale of motor vehicles of that line make in the community, unless the franchiser has first established, in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter, that there has been a change of circumstances so that the community at that time can be reasonably expected to support the dealership [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 3]

322A.4 Additional franchise. No franchiser shall enter into any franchise for the purpose of establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership in any community in which the same line make is then represented, unless the franchiser has first established in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter that there is good cause for such additional motor vehicle dealership under such franchise, and that it is in the public interest [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 4]

322A.5 Warranties. Every franchiser and franchisee shall fulfill the terms of any express or implied warranty concerning the sale of a motor vehicle to the public of the line make which is the subject of a contract or franchise agreement between the parties. If it is determined by the district court that either the franchiser or franchisee, or both, have violated an express or implied warranty, the court shall add to any award or relief granted an additional award for reasonable attorney fees and other necessary expenses for maintaining the litigation [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 5]

322A.6 Application filed with authority. In the event that a franchiser seeks to terminate or not continue any franchise, or seeks to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership of the same line-make, the franchiser shall file an application with the authority for permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or for permission to enter into a franchise for additional representation of the same line make in that community

An applicant seeking permission to enter into a franchise for additional representation of the same line-make in a community shall deposit with the authority at the time the application is filed, an amount of money to be determined by the authority to secure the payment of the costs and expenses of the hearing. The applicant shall pay the costs of the hearing [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 6, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.7 Authority to hold hearing. Upon receiving an application, the authority shall enter an order fixing a time, which shall be within ninety days of the date of such order, and place of hearing, and shall send by certified or registered mail, with return receipt requested, a copy of the order to the franchisee whose franchise the franchiser seeks to terminate or not continue. If the application requests permission to establish an additional motor vehicle dealership, a copy of the order shall be sent to all franchisees in the community who are then engaged in the business of offering to sell or selling the same line make. Copies of orders shall be addressed to the franchisee at the place where the business is conducted. The authority may also give notice of franchiser's application to any other parties whom the authority may deem interested persons, such notice to be in the form and substance and given in the manner the authority deems appropriate.

Any person who can show an interest in the application may become a party to the hearing, whether or not he receives notice; provided, however, a party not receiving notice shall be limited to participation at the hearing on the question of the public interest in the termination or continuation of the franchise or in the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.7; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.8 Continuation. If the authority finds it desirable it may upon request continue the date of hearing for a period of ninety days, and may upon application, but not ex parte, continue the date of hearing for an additional period of ninety days. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.8; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.9 Burden of proof. Upon hearing, the franchiser shall have the burden of proof to establish that under the provisions of this chapter he should be granted permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to require or authorize any investigation by the authority of any matter before the authority under this chapter. Upon hearing, the authority shall hear the evidence introduced by the parties and shall make its decision solely upon the record so made. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.9; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.10 Rules of evidence. The rules of civil procedure relating to discovery and inspection shall apply to hearings held under the provisions of this chapter, and the authority may issue orders to give effect to such rules.

In the event issues are raised which would involve violations of any state or federal antitrust or price-fixing law, all discovery and inspection proceedings which would be available under such issues in a state or federal court action shall be available to the parties to the hearing, and the authority may issue orders to give effect to such proceedings.

Evidence which would be admissible under the issues in a state or federal court action is admissible in a hearing held by the authority. The authority shall apportion all costs between the parties. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.10; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.11 Condition barring change in franchise. Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, the following shall not constitute good cause for the termination or noncontinuation of a franchise, or for entering into a franchise for the establishment of an additional dealership in a community for the same line-make:

1. The sole fact that franchiser desires further penetration of the market.
2. The change of ownership of the franchisee's dealership or the change of executive management of the franchisee's dealership, unless the franchiser, having the burden of proof, proves that such change of ownership or executive management will be substantially detrimental to the distribution of franchiser's motor vehicles in the community.

3. The fact that the franchisee refused to purchase or accept delivery of any motor vehicle or vehicles, parts, accessories or any other commodity or service not ordered by the franchisee. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.11]

Referred to in §322A.12, 322A.15

322A.12 Sale or transfer of ownership. Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of section 322A.11, in the event of the sale or transfer of ownership of the franchisee's dealership by sale or transfer of the business or by stock transfer or in the event of change in the executive management of the franchisee's dealership the franchiser shall give effect to such a change in the franchise unless the transfer of the franchisee's license under chapter 322 is denied or the new owner is unable to obtain a license under said chapter, as the case may be. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.12]

322A.14 License to dealer denied. In the event that a franchiser enters into or attempts to enter into a franchise, whether upon termination or refusal to continue another franchise or upon the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership in a community where the same line-make is then represented, without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, no license under chapter 322 shall be issued to that franchisee or proposed franchisee to engage in the business of selling motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by that franchiser. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.14]

322A.15 Authority's guidelines. In determining whether good cause has been established for terminating or not continuing a franchise, the authority shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to:

1. Amount of business transacted by the franchisee.
2. Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by the franchisee in the performance of his part of the franchise.
3. Permanency of the investment.
4. Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of the franchisee to be disrupted.
5. Whether the franchisee has adequate motor vehicle service facilities, equipment, parts and qualified service personnel to reasonably provide consumer care for the motor vehicles sold at retail by the franchisee and any other motor vehicles of the same line-make.

6 Whether the franchisee refuses to honor warranties of the franchiser to be performed by the franchisee, provided that the franchiser reimburses the franchisee for such warranty work performed by the franchisee

7 Except as provided in section 322A 11, failure by the franchisee to substantially comply with those requirements of the franchise which are determined by the authority to be reasonable and material

8 Except as provided in section 322A 11, bad faith by the franchisee in complying with those terms of the franchise which are determined by the authority to be reasonable and material [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 15, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.16 Authority's additional guidelines. In determining whether good cause has been established for entering into an additional franchise for the same line make, the authority shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to

1 Amount of business transacted by other franchisees of the same line make in that community

2 Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by other franchisees of the same line make, in that community, in the performance of their part of their franchises

3 Permanency of the investment

4 Effect on the retail motor vehicle business as a whole in that community

5 Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for an additional franchise to be established

6 Whether the franchisees of the same line make in that community are providing adequate consumer care for the motor vehicles of the line make which shall include the adequacy of motor vehicle service facilities, equipment, supply of parts and qualified service personnel [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 16, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.17 Judicial review. Judicial review of actions of the authority may be sought in the manner provided for in section 322 10 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 17, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

*Including persons served with notice under 65GA ch 1198 §4 see §17 of the Act

323.13 Waiver. Any provision of a dealer franchise or distributor franchise which is an attempted waiver of the benefits of this chapter shall be void and unenforceable [C75, 77, 79, 81, §323 13]

323.14 Death of franchisee—successor—penalty.

1 It is unlawful to include in any distributor franchise or dealer franchise agreement a term which provides for the termination of the franchise by the franchiser upon the death of the franchisee if the franchisee, prior to his or her death, designates a successor in interest in a form prescribed by and delivered to the franchiser. For the purposes of this section, "successor in interest" is restricted to either a surviving spouse or adult child of the franchisee who, at the time of the franchisee's death, is able to meet reasonable qualifications then being required of distributors or dealers by the franchiser.

2 The successor in interest designated as provided in subsection 1 shall have twenty-one days after the death of the franchisee to give written notice of an election to assume and operate the franchise. The notification shall contain such information regarding business experience and credit worthiness as is reasonably required by the franchiser. The successor in interest must offer to assume and commence operation of the franchise within ten days after the franchiser approves the assumption.

3 The franchise available to the successor-in-interest pursuant to this section shall be the same as that which existed in the name of the deceased franchisee at the time of the franchisee's death.

4 A franchisee may designate a primary and one alternate successor in interest. The alternate, if one is designated, has no rights under this section in the event of an exercise of rights by the primary successor-in-interest. If an alternate desires to assume and operate the franchise in the event the primary successor in interest fails to do so, the alternate must give notice of such election and otherwise comply with subsection 2.

5 Unless otherwise specifically provided in this section, actions to be performed by the franchiser or by the successor in interest under this section shall be performed within a reasonable time.

6 Following the death of a franchisee, and prior to the operation of the franchise by the successor in-interest as provided in this section, the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased franchisee may operate the franchise.

7 If the successor in interest assumes the franchise, the successor in interest shall account to the heirs or estate of the deceased franchisee for the value of personal property of the franchisee located at or related to the franchise.

8 If the successor in interest does not assume the franchise, the franchiser shall account to the heirs or the estate of the deceased franchisee for the value of branded products purchased directly from the franchiser.

9 A franchisee or successor-in-interest may commence a civil action to compel compliance by a franchiser with this section, or to obtain damages caused by a failure to comply with this section, or both, within two years after the date the franchiser fails to comply with the requirements of this section [81 Acts, ch 114, §1, 2]

This section applies to franchise agreements executed or renewed on or after July 1, 1981.

323A.1 Definitions. For purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Franchise" means a contract between a refiner and a distributor, a refiner and a retailer, a distributor and another distributor, or a distributor and a retailer under which a refiner or distributor authorizes a retailer or distributor to use, in connection with the sale, consignment, or distribution of motor fuel, a trademark which is owned or controlled by the refiner or by a refiner which supplies motor fuel to the distributor which authorizes the use "Franchise" includes any contract under which a retailer or distributor is permitted to occupy leased premises, which premises are to be used in connection with the sale, consignment, or distribution of motor fuel under a trademark which is owned or controlled by a refiner or a refiner which supplies motor fuel to the distributor and permits the occupancy of the leased premises

2 "Franchisor" means a refiner or distributor who authorizes or permits, under a franchise, a retailer or distributor to use a trademark in connection with the sale, consignment, or distribution of motor fuel

3 "Franchisee" means a retailer or distributor who is authorized or permitted, under a franchise, to use a trademark in connection with the sale, consignment, or distribution of motor fuel

4 "Motor fuel" means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use as a fuel in self propelled vehicles designed primarily for use on public streets, roads, and highways [C81, §323A 1]

323A.2 Purchase from other source.

1 The orderly flow of an adequate supply of motor fuel is declared to be essential to the economy and to the welfare of the people of this state Therefore, in the public interest and notwithstanding the terms, provisions, or conditions of any franchise, a franchisee unable to obtain motor fuel from the franchisor may purchase the fuel from another available source, subject to subsections 2 to 5 and provided the franchisee has done all of the following a At least forty-eight hours prior to entering into an agreement to purchase motor fuel from another source, the franchisee has requested delivery of motor fuel from the franchisor and the requested motor fuel has not been delivered and the franchisor has given the franchisee notice that the franchisor is unable to provide the requested motor fuel, or prior to entering into an agreement the franchisor has stated to the franchisee that the requested motor fuel will not be delivered The request to the franchisor for delivery shall be for a type of fuel normally provided by the franchisor to the franchisee and for a quantity of fuel not exceeding the average amount sold by the franchisor in one week, based upon average weekly sales in the three months preceding the request, except that this provision shall not restrict a franchisee from purchasing gasoline from a source other than the franchisor or limit the quantity to be purchased when the franchisor does not normally supply the franchisee with gasoline

b The franchisee has requested and has been denied delivery of motor fuel sold or distributed under the trademark named in the franchise from a person other than franchisor

c The franchisee has requested motor fuel from the set-aside program administered by the energy policy council under section 93 7, subsection 9, and allocation from the set aside program has been denied and the director of the energy policy council determines that the franchisee has demonstrated that a special hardship exists in the community served by the franchisee relating to the public health, safety and welfare, as specified under the rules of the energy policy council

2 The quantity of motor fuel requested or purchased from another source including those sources listed in subsection 1, paragraphs "b" and "c" shall not exceed the quantity requested from the franchisor

3 At the time a franchisee enters into an agreement to purchase motor fuel from a source other than the franchisor, the franchisee shall inform the franchisor by the quickest available means

4 If the franchisee sells motor fuel supplied from a source other than the franchisor, the franchisee shall prominently post a sign disclosing this fact to the public on each motor fuel pump used for dispensing the motor fuel The size of the sign shall not be less than eight inches by ten inches and the letters on the sign shall be at least three inches in height

5 A franchisee who sells motor fuel supplied from a source other than the franchisor shall also fully indemnify the franchisor against any claims asserted by a user on which the claimant prevails and in which the court determines that motor fuel not acquired from the franchisor was the proximate cause of the injury

Purchases of motor fuel in accordance with this section are not good cause for termination of a franchise [C81, §323A 2]

323A.3 Effective date. The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable only to franchise agreements entered into or renewed after July 1, 1980 [C81, §323A 3]

DIVISION I

MOTOR FUEL TAX

Referred to in §324.32, 324.54, 324.57, 324.65

324.1 Short title. This division, plus applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Motor Fuel Tax Law," and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division. [C35, §5093-f40; C39, §5093.39; C46, 50, 54, §324.66; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.1]

Similar provisions, §324.31, 324.50

324.2 Definitions. As employed in this division:

1. "Motor fuel" shall mean (a) all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasoline (including casinghead and absorption or natural gasoline) regardless of their classifications or uses; and (b) any liquid advertised, offered for sale, sold for use as, or commonly or commercially used as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles, which when subjected to distillation of gasoline, naphtha, kerosene and similar petroleum products (American Society of Testing Materials Designation D-86), show not less than ten per centum distilled (recovered) below three hundred forty-seven degrees Fahrenheit (one hundred seventy-five degrees Centigrade) and not less than ninety-five per centum distilled (recovered) below four hundred sixty-four degrees Fahrenheit (two hundred forty degrees Centigrade); provided, that the term "motor fuel" shall not include special fuel as defined in section 324.33, subsection 1, and shall not include liquefied gases which would not exist as liquids at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and a pressure of fourteen and seven-tenths pounds per square inch absolute, nor naphthas and solvents as hereinafter defined unless the liquefied gases or naphthas and solvents are used as a component in the manufacture, compounding, or blending of a liquid within (b) above, in which event the resulting product shall be deemed to be motor fuel.

2. "Distributor" shall mean and include any person who first receives motor fuel within this state (within the meaning of the word "received" as hereinafter defined), and any person now or hereafter engaged in the business of selling motor fuel to a dealer in this state for resale provided that a person may bring into this state not to exceed thirty gallons of motor fuel in the fuel supply tank, or any other container, directly connected to the motor of a motor vehicle without becoming a distributor.

3. "Licensee" shall mean and include any person holding an unanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue under this division or any prior motor fuel tax law.

4. "Dealer," "agent" and "consignee" shall mean and include any person (except distributors as herein defined) now or hereafter engaged in the business of selling motor fuel in this state.

5. "Motor fuel deemed received."

a. Motor fuel refined at a refinery in this state and placed in tanks thereat, and motor fuel transferred from a refinery or a marine or pipeline terminal in this state or from points outside this state to a refinery or a marine or pipeline terminal in this state and placed in tanks thereat, shall be deemed received, for the purposes of this division, at the time withdrawn from such refinery or terminal storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than refineries or marine or pipeline terminals and not before.

When withdrawn from refinery or terminal storage as aforesaid, the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the person who was the owner thereof immediately prior to withdrawal, unless (1) the motor fuel is withdrawn for shipment or delivery to a licensee, in which case the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the licensee to whom shipped or delivered or (2) the motor fuel is withdrawn for shipment or delivery to a non-licensee for the account of a licensee in which case the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the licensee for whose account the shipment or delivery to the non-licensee is made.

b. Motor fuel imported into this state, other than that placed in storage at refineries or terminals as set out in paragraph "a" above, shall be deemed received at the time unloaded in this state and by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after it is unloaded in this state, except that if motor fuel so imported is used in this state directly from the transportation equipment by which imported then the motor fuel shall be deemed received at the time it is brought into this state and by the person using the motor fuel within this state; provided, however, that if motor fuel shipped or brought into this state by a licensee is sold and delivered directly to a nonlicensee in this state, then the gallonage so delivered shall be deemed received by the licensee shipping or bringing the motor fuel into this state.

c. Motor fuel produced, compounded, or blended in this state other than at a refinery, marine or pipeline terminal, shall be deemed to be received at the time and by the person who is the owner thereof when the same is so produced, compounded or blended.

d. Motor fuel acquired in this state by any person, other than as set out in paragraphs "a", "b", or "c" above, shall, unless the person from whom the same is acquired has paid or incurred liability with respect thereto for the tax herein imposed, or unless the same be exempt under this division, be deemed to be received by the person so acquiring the same at the time so acquired.

Except as hereinbefore set forth, the word "received" shall be given its usual and customary meaning.

6. "Naphthas and solvents" shall mean and include those liquids which come within the distillation specifications for motor fuel set out under subsection 1, paragraph "b," but which are designed and sold for exclusive use other than as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles.

7. "Gasohol" means motor fuel containing at least ten percent alcohol distilled from agricultural products. [C27, 31, §5093-a2; C35, §5093-f2; C39, §5093.02; C46, 50, 54, §324.1; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.2]

Referred to in §324A 2, 422 45, 422 110
See §324.33, 324.57

324.3 Levy of excise tax—exemptions—credits. For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of thirteen cents per gallon beginning September 1, 1981 is imposed upon the use of all motor fuel used for any purpose except motor fuel containing at least ten percent alcohol distilled from agricultural products grown in the United States for the period beginning July 1, 1978 and ending June 30, 1986 and except as otherwise provided in this division. The tax shall be paid in the first instance by the distributor upon the invoiced gallonage of all motor fuel received by the distributor in this state, within the meaning of the word "received" as defined in this division, less the deductions authorized. Thereafter, except as otherwise provided, the per gallon amount of the tax shall be added to the selling price of every gallon of such motor fuel sold in this state and collected from the purchaser so that the ultimate consumer bears the burden of the tax; provided that tax shall not be imposed or collected under this division with respect to the following:

1. Motor fuel sold for export or exported from this state to any other state, territory, or foreign country.
2. Motor fuel sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof.
3. Motor fuel sold to any post exchange or other concessionaire on any federal reservation within this state; but the tax on motor fuel so sold, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall be collected by the post exchange or concessionaire, reported and paid the department of revenue.
4. Motor fuel used in the operation of an Iowa urban transit system. Any fuel sold to an Iowa urban transit system which is used for any purpose other than as specified in section 324.57, subsection 9, shall not be exempt from the tax.

Motor fuel shall be sold tax paid to the state of Iowa, any of its agencies, or to any political subdivision of the state, including motor fuel sold for the transportation of pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285.5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285. Tax on fuel which is used for public purposes is subject to refund, including tax paid on motor fuel sold for the transportation of school pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285.5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285. Claims for refunds will be filed with the department on a quarterly basis and the director shall not grant a refund of motor fuel or special fuel tax where a claim is not filed within one year from the date the tax was due. The claim shall contain the number of gallons purchased, the calculation of the amount of motor fuel and special fuel tax subject to refund and any other information required by the department necessary to process the refund.

For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of six cents per gallon for the period beginning September 1, 1981 and ending April 30, 1982, an excise tax of eight cents per gallon for the period beginning May 1, 1982 and ending June 30, 1983, an excise tax of ten cents per gallon for the period beginning July 1, 1983 and ending June 30, 1984, an excise tax of eleven cents per gallon for the period beginning July 1, 1984 and ending June 30, 1985, an excise tax of twelve cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1985 and ending June 30, 1986, is imposed upon the use of gasohol used for any purpose except as otherwise provided in this division. [C27, 31, §4755-b38, 5093-a1; C35, §5093-f3, -f4; C39, §5093.03, 5093.04; C46, 50, 54, §324.2, 324.3; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.3; 81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 2, §7-9; 82 Acts, ch 1170, §3, 4]

324.4 Distributor's license. It shall be unlawful for any person to receive motor fuel within this state or to otherwise act as a distributor unless he or she holds an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue. To procure a license a distributor shall file with the department of revenue an application signed under penalty for false certificate and in such form as the department of revenue may prescribe, setting forth:

1. The name under which the distributor will transact business in the state of Iowa.
2. The location, with street number address, of the principal office or place of business of the distributor within this state.
3. The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if the distributor is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers, if the distributor is a corporation or association.

A license shall not be issued if the applicant is a foreign corporation, unless it is at the time properly qualified under the laws of this state to do business therein.

If (a) any application for a license to transact business as a distributor in this state shall be filed by any person whose license shall have been canceled for cause at any time theretofore under the provisions of the chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, or (b) the department of revenue shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or (c) the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, the department of revenue, after a hearing of which the applicant shall have been given fifteen days' notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, shall have and is hereby given the right and authority to refuse to issue to the applicant a distributor's license.

Upon the filing of the application, a filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the department of revenue.

The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid and the other conditions and requirements of this section and division IV having been complied with, the department of revenue shall issue to the applicant a license to transact business as a distributor in this state. The license shall remain in full force and effect until canceled as provided in this chapter.

The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the distributor in this state.

The department of revenue shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensees. [C31, §5093-c2; C35, §5093-f5, -f6, -f7; C39, §5093.05-5093.07; C46, 50, 54, §324.5, 324.6, 324.8-324.10; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.4]

324.5 Permissive licensing of bulk storers as distributors. Any person other than a distributor as hereinabove defined having bulk storage in this state for rail tank car or four thousand gallon or more transport loads of motor fuel for use or for distribution in bulk by tank truck or tank car, or both, may, subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of section 324.4, also be licensed as a distributor and thereupon for all purposes of this division shall be deemed to be the distributor with respect to any motor fuel "received" by him while the license remains in effect. [C27, 31, §5093-a3, -a4; C39, §5093.04, 5093.05; C46, 50, 54, §324.4, 324.6; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.5]

324.6 Gasohol blenders license. Any person other than a distributor licensed under this division who blends motor fuel containing at least ten percent alcohol distilled from agricultural products shall obtain a blender's license. The license shall be obtained by following the procedure as set forth in section 324.4 and the license shall be subject to the same restrictions as contained therein. Each blender shall maintain records as required by section 324.10 as to motor fuel, alcohol and gasohol. [C81, §324.6]

324.8 Tax reports—computation and payment of tax—credits. For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed, each distributor shall, not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter, file with the department of revenue a monthly report, signed under penalty for false certificate, which shall include the following:

1. A statement of the number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received (within the meaning of the term "received" as defined in this division) by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month in such detail as is prescribed by the department of revenue and as may be necessary for the proper administration of this division.

2. A statement showing the deductions authorized in this division in such detail and with such supporting evidence as is prescribed by the department of revenue and as may be for proper administration of this division.

3. Such other information as the department of revenue may require for the enforcement of this chapter.

At the time of filing each monthly report, each distributor shall pay to the department of revenue the full amount of the motor fuel tax due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month computed as follows:

4. From the total number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel "received" by the distributor within the state during the next preceding calendar month shall be made the following deductions:

First, the gallonage of motor fuel received and thereafter sold within the exemptions provided for in section 324.3; and second, the number of gallons of motor fuel equal to two per centum of the first three hundred thousand gallons and one per centum of all gallonage in excess of three hundred thousand gallons of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month after deduction provided in this subsection, this percentage being a flat allowance to cover evaporation, shrinkage, and losses, and the distributor's expenses and losses in collection, accounting for, and paying over the motor fuel tax.

5. The number of invoiced gallons remaining after the deductions hereinabove set forth shall be multiplied by the per gallon motor fuel tax rate.

6. The sum of the number of invoiced gallons of gasohol which are received tax free by the distributor during the next preceding calendar month less the number of gallons of gasohol equal to two per centum of the first three hundred thousand gallons and one per centum of all gallonage in excess of three hundred thousand gallons of gasohol received or blended by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month after deduction provided in this subsection, this percentage being a flat allowance to cover evaporation, shrinkage and losses in collection, accounting for, and paying over the tax on gasohol, and the number of gallons of gasohol blended by the distributor during the next preceding calendar month shall be multiplied by the per gallon motor fuel tax rate applicable to gasohol.

7. The sum of the tax due under subsections 5 and 6 shall be the amount of motor fuel tax in dollars and cents due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month. Any outstanding credit memoranda issued by the department of revenue to the distributor may be applied against the amount due.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the tax liability on alcohol blended to produce gasohol, each licensed blender shall, not later than thirty-one days following the last day of each month, file with the department of revenue a monthly report, signed under penalty for false certificate, which shall include the following: The number of gallons of gasoline blended into gasohol, the number of gallons of alcohol blended into gasohol. The amount of alcohol blended shall be multiplied by the per gallon motor fuel tax rate applicable to gasohol. If in the normal conduct of a distributor's business the distributor's records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the department of revenue at the office outside Iowa, but such audit and examination outside Iowa shall be without expense to the state.

Each dealer handling motor fuel in this state shall maintain and keep for a period of two years records of all motor fuel purchased or otherwise acquired by the dealer, together with delivery tickets, invoices, and bills of lading, and such other pertinent records as the department of revenue shall require.

1. Any person operating as a common or contract carrier and any distributor who is also engaged in transportation within this state of motor fuel or special fuel for others, shall register with the state department of transportation as additional equipment is put to use, each vehicle used to transport motor fuel or special fuel in this state, except railroad, water-vessel or pipeline equipment. The registration shall be on forms furnished by and shall contain such information as may reasonably be required by the state department of transportation. A fee of five dollars shall be paid to the state department of transportation for original registration of each vehicle. The state department of transportation shall furnish to the registrant for each vehicle registered suitable identification which shall be permanently attached to the vehicle and shall be available for inspection at all times. When any registered vehicle's use for the transportation of motor fuel or special fuel for others is discontinued, the registrant shall notify the state department of transportation and shall either surrender to the state department of transportation or, subject to the approval of the state department of transportation, transfer the vehicle identification issued under this section to another vehicle. On or before the first day of July of each year, each carrier as aforsaid shall file with the state department of transportation a statement showing each registered vehicle then in use for transportation of motor fuel or special fuel for others. Failure to file the required statement by the specified date shall be cause for cancellation of a vehicle's registration. A registration so cancelled may be reinstated in the same manner as an original registration.

2. Each vehicle used by a carrier, distributor or any person in the transportation on the highways in this state of fuels for motor vehicles shall be identified by having shown thereon, in lettering at least six inches in height made with a stroke of not less than three-fourths inch in width and of a color contrasting to that of the background upon which the lettering is placed, the name and address of the person transporting the fuel. The identification shall be placed on both sides of the vehicle; provided, that, transportation equipment operated by a licensee shall be identified with his distributor's license number in which case the trade or produce name or insignia generally used in identifying the highway transportation equipment of the licensee and well known and recognized throughout the area in which the transportation equipment is operated, may be shown in lieu of the name and address of the licensee.

3. The state department of transportation shall have the power to refuse to register a vehicle owned or used by any person, either directly or indirectly, who has had a license revoked for cause which license was issued under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law. [C27, 31, §5093-b1; C35, §5093-f19, -f25; C39, §5093.19, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §324.12, 324.33, 324.36, 324.46; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.11]

1. There shall be carried on every vehicle, while in use in transportation service requiring that it be registered under the preceding section, a serially numbered manifest in form satisfactory to the department of revenue on which shall be entered the following information as to the cargo of motor fuel being moved in the vehicle: The date and place of loading, the place to be unloaded, the person for whom it is to be delivered, the nature and kind of product, and the amount thereof and such other information as is called for in the forms prescribed or approved by the department of revenue. The manifest covering each load transported upon consummation of the delivery shall be completed showing the date and place of actual delivery and the person to whom actually delivered and shall be kept as a permanent record for a period of three years, provided, however, that the record of the manifest of past cargoes need not be carried on the conveyance but must be preserved by the carrier for the inspection of the department of revenue. A carrier subject to this subsection may with the approval of the department of revenue when distributing for a licensee substitute the loading and delivery evidence required in subsection 2 of this section.

2. Every distributor or other person while transporting motor fuel from a refinery or marine or pipeline terminal in this state or from a point outside this state via the highways of this state in service other than that covered in subsection 1 of this section shall carry in the vehicle a loading invoice showing the true name and address of the seller or consignor, the date and place of loading and the kind and quantity of motor fuel loaded, together with invoices showing the kind and quantity of each delivery therefrom, and the name and address of each purchaser or consignee [C35, §5093 f19, C39, §5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §324 34, 324 35, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 12]

324.13 Evidence produced upon request. The operator of any vehicle transporting motor fuel as covered in the preceding section shall, at the request of any sheriff, deputy sheriff or other peace officer or person authorized by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection the manifest or loading and delivery invoices pertaining to the load and trip in question and shall permit the officer to inspect and measure the contents of the vehicle. If the vehicle operator fails to produce the covering evidence or if, when produced, it fails to contain the required information and if it appears that there is an attempt to evade payment of the motor fuel tax, then the officer or other person authorized to make the inquiry may take and impound the motor fuel together with the conveying vehicle until the tax on the motor fuel together with penalty, if an attempt to evade payment of the motor fuel is involved, amounting to one hundred percent of the tax have been paid. In case the tax and penalty found to be due are not paid within forty eight hours after the taking of the property, the department of revenue may proceed to sell the vehicle and its cargo in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property by the sheriff under execution [C35, §5093-f19, C39, §5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §324 35, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 13]

It shall be unlawful for any person to transport motor fuel in bulk upon the highways of this state in a conveyance the registration of which is required without the evidence of registration provided for and any person found guilty of the unlawful act shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor, and each cargo so transported shall be considered a separate offense. This penalty shall be in addition to penalties imposed under other provisions of this chapter. Persons transporting motor fuel in bulk upon the highways of this state in an amount of not to exceed four thousand gallons shall not be regarded as transporting in bulk [C35, §5093-f20, C39, §5093.20; C46, 50, 54, §324 38, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 14]

If any distributor or dealer is also engaged in the transportation of motor fuel for others, he shall make the same reports as required of common and contract carriers.

The report shall cover monthly periods and shall show as to each delivery

2 Every person operating storage facilities at a refinery or at a marine or pipeline terminal in this state shall monthly make an accounting to the department of revenue on forms prescribed by the department of revenue of all motor fuel withdrawn from the refinery storage and all motor fuel delivered into, withdrawn from and on hand in the terminal storage.

3 The reports required in this section shall be for information purposes only and the department of revenue may in its discretion waive the filing of any of these reports not necessary for proper administration of this division. The reports required in this section shall be certified under penalty for false certificate and filed with the department of revenue within the time allowed for filing of distributors' reports of motor fuel received [C27, 31, §5093-a6, -b1, C35, §5093-f25, f26, -f27, C39, §5093.25-5093.27; C46, 50, 54, §324 46-324 48, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 15]

2 A credit shall not be allowed which is in an amount less than ten dollars.

3 With respect to fuel which is lost or destroyed through accountable leakage or through fire, accident, lightning, flood, storm, act of war or public enemy or other like cause, the licensee shall provide the department of revenue in writing within thirty days of the loss or destruction, the following information:

a The amount of gallonage lost or destroyed.

b A notarized affidavit sworn to by the person having immediate custody of the fuel at the time of the loss or destruction setting forth in full the circumstances and amount of the loss or destruction and other such information with respect thereto as the department of revenue may require. [C27, 31, §5093-a8, C35, §5093 f29, C39, §5093.29; C46, 50, 54, §324 50, 324 56, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 16].

Any person other than a distributor, dealer or user licensed under this chapter who uses motor fuel or special fuel for the purpose of operating or propelling farm tractors, corn shellers, roller mills, truck mounted feed grinders, stationary gas engines, aircraft, for producing denatured alcohol within the state, for cleaning or dyeing or for any purpose other than in watercraft or for propelling motor vehicles operated or intended to be operated upon the public highways and who has paid the motor fuel or special fuel tax on the fuel either directly to the department of revenue or by having the tax added to the price of the fuel, and who has a refund permit, upon presentation to and approval by the department of revenue of a claim for refund, shall be reimbursed and repaid the amount of the tax which the claimant has paid on the gallonage so used, except that the amount of any refund payable under this division may be applied by the department of revenue against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant. Every claim is subject to the following conditions:

1 The claim shall be on a form prescribed by the department of revenue and be certified by the claimant under penalty for false certificate.

2 The claim shall have attached thereto the original invoice or other proof as prescribed by the department showing the purchase of the motor fuel or special fuel on which a refund is claimed.

3 An invoice shall not be acceptable in support of a claim for refund unless it is a separate serially numbered invoice covering no more than one purchase of motor fuel or special fuel, prepared by the seller on a form approved by the department of revenue which will prevent erasure or alteration, nor unless it is legibly written with no corrections or erasures and shows the date of sale, the name and address of the seller and of the purchaser, the kind of fuel, the gallonage in figures, the per gallon price of the motor fuel or special fuel, the total purchase price including the Iowa motor fuel or special fuel tax and that the total purchase price including tax has been paid, provided, that as to refund invoices made on a billing machine the department of revenue may waive any of the requirements of this subsection.

4 The claim shall state the gallonage of motor fuel or special fuel that was used or will be used by the claimant other than in watercraft or to propel motor vehicles, the manner in which the motor fuel or special fuel was used or will be used and the equipment in which it was used or will be used.

5 The claim shall also state whether or not the claimant used fuel for watercraft or to propel motor vehicles from the same tanks or receptacles in which the claimant kept the motor fuel on which the refund is claimed.

6 A refund will not be paid with respect to any motor fuel or special fuel taken out of this state in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

7 A refund shall not be paid with respect to motor fuel or special fuel purchased more than three calendar months prior to the date the claim was filed with the department of revenue.

8 A refund shall not be paid with respect to motor fuel or special fuel used in the performance of a contract which is paid out of state funds unless the contract for the work contains a certificate made under penalty for false certificate that the estimate, bid or price to be paid for the work includes no amount representing motor fuel or special fuel tax subject to refund.

9 If an original invoice is lost or destroyed the department of revenue may in its discretion accept a copy identified and certified by the seller as being a true copy of the original.

11 In order to verify the validity of a claim for refund the department of revenue shall have the right to require the claimant to furnish such additional proof of validity as the department of revenue may determine and to examine the books and records of the claimant. Failure of a claimant to furnish his or her books and records for examination shall constitute a waiver of all rights to refund related to the transaction in question.

12 Refunds shall be made of motor vehicle fuel taxes paid on motor fuel or special fuel placed in motor vehicles and used, other than on public highways, in the extraction and processing of natural deposits, without regard to whether such motor vehicles are registered under section 321.18. An applicant for a refund under this subsection must maintain adequate records for a period of three years beyond the filing of the claim. The department of revenue will pay the claim upon the presentation of proof which may reasonably be required.

14. In lieu of the refund provided in this section, a person may receive an income tax credit as provided in chapter 422, division IX, but only as to motor fuel or special fuel not used in motor vehicles or watercraft.

A claim for refund shall not be allowed which is in an amount of less than ten dollars. [C27, 31, §5093-a8; C35, §5093-f29, -f30, -f36; C39, §5093.29, 5093.30, 5093.36; C46, 50, 54, §324.50, 324.52-324.57, 324.64; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.17; 82 Acts, ch 1176, §1]

If any rebate, discount, commission, or other concession is granted by distributors or persons engaged in the sale of motor fuel for resale to dealers of such nature as will reduce the cost or price to any purchaser or dealer in such products, the conditions, quantity, and amount of such rebate, discount, commission or other concession shall be posted as a part of the posted price. All price placards shall be subject to the approval of the department of revenue. Any distributor or person failing to post or keep posted the placard required by this section, or who posts placards not approved by the department of revenue as provided in this section, or who sells any motor fuel for resale at a price which directly or indirectly, by any means or device, deviates from the posted price set forth on the price placard approved by the department of revenue, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit or restrict the distribution of earnings to the members of any distributor or person, nor to the distribution to consumers of road maps, publicity and other advertising media carrying the name of the distributor, person, or produce. Each day the required placard remains unposted or an unauthorized placard remains posted, or each deviation from the posted price, shall be considered a separate offense. 324.21 Gasohol refund—credit. Persons other than distributors licensed under this division who blend motor fuel and alcohol to produce gasohol may file for a refund for the difference between taxes paid on the motor fuel purchased to produce gasohol and the tax due on the gasohol blended. If, during any month, a person licensed as a distributor under this division uses tax paid motor fuel to blend gasohol and the refund otherwise due under this section is greater than the distributor's total tax liability for that month, the distributor will be entitled to a credit. The claim for credit shall be filed as part of the report required by section 324.8.

In order to obtain the refund established by this section, the person shall do all of the following:

1. Obtain a blender's permit as provided in section 324.18.
2. File a refund claim containing the information as required by the department of revenue and certified by the claimant under penalty for false certificate.
3. Retain invoices meeting the requirements of section 324.17, subsection 3, for the motor fuel purchased.

If a person files an incorrect refund claim, there shall be added a penalty of five percent to the amount by which the amount claimed and refunded exceeds the amount actually due. If a fraudulent refund claim is filed with intent to evade the tax, the penalty shall be fifty percent in lieu of five percent. The person shall also pay interest on the excess refunded at a rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the refund was issued to the date the excess refund is repaid to the state. See §324 2, 324 57

324.34 Tax imposed. For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state, there is levied and imposed an excise tax on the use (as defined herein) of special fuel in any motor vehicle. The rate of tax on special (diesel engine) fuel is thirteen and one-half cents per gallon beginning September 1, 1981 and fifteen and one-half cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1982. On all other special fuel the per gallon rate is the same as the motor fuel tax. The tax, with respect to all special fuel delivered by a special fuel dealer for use in this state as defined by section 324.33, shall attach at the time of the delivery and shall be collected by the dealer from the special fuel user and paid over to the department of revenue as provided in this chapter. The tax, with respect to special fuel acquired by a special fuel user in any manner other than by delivery by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or delivery into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank by a special fuel dealer or distributor, shall attach at the time of the use (as herein defined) of the fuel and shall be paid over to the department of revenue by the user as provided in this chapter.

All deliveries by distributors of special fuel to be used for highway use, except deliveries into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank, must be made into storage connected to a sealed meter pump as licensed in said section. Special fuel delivered to a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank of a special fuel user by a distributor shall be metered upon delivery and the special fuel tax shall be collected by the distributor and paid over to the department of revenue.

The department of revenue shall make reasonable rules governing the dispensing of special fuel by distributors, special fuel dealers and licensed special fuel users. The department shall require that all pumps located at special fuel dealer locations and licensed special fuel user locations through which fuel oil can be dispensed, be metered, inspected, tested for accuracy, sealed and licensed by the state department of agriculture, and that special fuel delivered into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle or into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank shall be dispensed only through tested metered pumps and may be sold without temperature correction or corrected to a temperature of sixty degrees. If the metered gallonage is to be temperature corrected, only a temperature compensated meter shall be used.

The deliberate heating of road taxable motor fuel or special fuel by dealers prior to consumer sale is a simple misdemeanor.

All gallonage for nonhighway use, dispensed through metered pumps as licensed above, on which special fuel tax is not collected, must be substantiated by nonhighway exemption certificates as provided by the department of revenue, signed by the purchaser, and retained by the dealer.

For the privilege of purchasing special fuel, dispensed through metered pumps as licensed above, on a basis exempt from the special fuel tax, the purchaser shall sign nonhighway exemption certificates for the gallonage claimed for nonhighway use.

The department of revenue will disallow all sales said to be for nonhighway use unless proof is established by the retention of said certificate. Certificates for nonhighway use sales must be retained by the dealer for a period of three years.

For natural gas used as a special fuel the rate of tax that is equivalent to the motor fuel tax shall be ten and one-half cents per hundred cubic feet adjusted to a base temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and a pressure of fourteen and seventy-three hundredths pounds per square inch absolute. The tax on natural gas shall attach at the time of delivery into equipment for compressing the gas for subsequent delivery into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle and shall be paid over to the department of revenue by the person operating the compressing equipment under the applicable provisions for users or dealers. Natural gas used as a special fuel shall be delivered into compressing equipment through sealed meters certified for accuracy by the department of agriculture.

A person shall not deliver any special fuel into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle registered in Iowa on or after March 15, 1983 unless there is a special fuel user identification sticker affixed in a prominent place on the vehicle adjacent to the place where the special fuel is delivered into the tank or unless the motor vehicle is registered under chapter 326.

Except for deliveries to a licensed special fuel dealer or licensed special fuel user or deliveries on which the special fuel tax is paid at the time of delivery it is unlawful to deliver liquefied petroleum gas into any tank which has a valve or other outlet capable of transferring the liquefied petroleum gas into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle unless the person making the delivery receives a written statement from the recipient of the fuel which states that the recipient knows that the use of liquefied petroleum gas for highway purposes is unlawful. 324.35 Exemptions. No tax is imposed under this division on special fuel used by the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, but the tax on special fuel used or delivered into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles by any post exchange or concessionaire on any federal reservation in this state, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall be collected by the post exchange or concessionaire and paid to the department of revenue.

Tax on special fuel sold to the state of Iowa, any of its agencies, or any political subdivisions of the state where such fuel is used for public purposes is subject to refund, including tax paid on special fuel sold for the transportation of school pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285.5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285. Claims shall be filed in accordance with the claims for motor fuel tax refunds provided by section 324.3.

No tax is imposed under this division on special fuel used in the operation of an Iowa urban transit system, except that any special fuel sold to an Iowa urban transit system which is used for any purpose other than as specified in section 324.57, subsection 9, shall not be exempt from the tax.

A tax shall not be imposed under this division and the provisions of sections 324.34, 324.36, and 324.38 shall not be applicable if special fuel is sold to the state, any of its agencies, or any political subdivision of the state when the special fuel is delivered into storage tanks, regardless of size, and all of the special fuel is used for public purposes. 4 Quarterly returns and tax payment by special fuel distributors For the purpose of determining the amount of the tax liability for special fuel tax, each special fuel distributor licensed under this chapter shall file with the department of revenue, not later than the last day of the month next following each calendar quarter, a quarterly tax return certified under penalties for false certificate The return shall show the total amount of special fuel sold during the quarter, the amount of special fuel sold for nonhigh-way use, the amount of fuel sold to licensed special fuel dealers and users, the amount of special fuel delivered into motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks, the amount of tax due, and such other pertinent information required by the department of revenue. The amount of tax due shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate tax rate per gallon by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered or placed by the special fuel distributor into the motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance in the amount of the tax due for the quarter.

5. Exemption for fueling by licensed dealers or distributors If the purchase of special fuel within this state by a person not required to be licensed under this division is purchased solely in one or more of the following manners, the person need not file a return:

DIVISION III

MOTOR FUEL AND SPECIAL FUEL USE TAX FOR INTERSTATE MOTOR VEHICLE OPERATIONS

Referred to in §324.57, 324.58, 324.65, 324.76

324.50 Short title. This division and applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Interstate Fuel Use Tax Law," and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division. [C35, §5093-f40; C39, §5093.39; C46, 50, 54, §324.66; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.50]

Similar provision, §324.1, 324.31

324.51 Purpose. The purpose of this division is to provide an additional method of collecting fuel taxes from interstate motor vehicle operators commensurate with their operations on Iowa highways; and to permit the state department of transportation to suspend this collection as to transportation entering Iowa from any other state where it appears that Iowa highway fuel tax revenue and interstate highway transportation moving out of Iowa will not be unduly prejudiced thereby. [C27, 31, §4755-b38, 5093-a1; C35, §5093-f3; C39, §5093.03; C46, 50, 54, §324.2; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.51]

324.52 Fuels imported in supply tanks of motor vehicles. No person shall bring into this state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle, or any other container, regardless of whether or not the supply tanks are connected to the motor of the vehicle, any motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicle in this state unless that person has paid or made arrangements in advance with the state department of transportation for payment of Iowa fuel taxes on the gallonage consumed in operating the vehicle in this state; except that this division shall not apply to a private passenger automobile.

Any person who is unable to display either of the permits provided in section 324.53 and brings into the state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle more than thirty gallons of motor fuel or special fuel in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph is guilty of a simple misdemeanor. [C35, §5093-f19; C39, §5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §324.34, 324.37; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.52]

324.53 Permit. The advance arrangements referred to in the preceding section shall include the procuring of a permanent interstate fuel permit or single trip interstate permit.

Persons choosing not to make advance arrangements with the state department of transportation by procuring a permit are not relieved of their responsibility to purchase motor fuel and special fuel commensurate with their use of the state's highway system. When there is reasonable cause to believe that there is evasion of the fuel tax on commercial motor vehicles, the state department of transportation may audit persons not holding a permit. Audits shall be conducted pursuant to section 324.55.

A permanent permit may be obtained upon application to the state department of transportation. A fee of five dollars shall be charged for each permit issued. The holder of a permanent permit shall have the privilege of bringing into this state in the fuel supply tanks of commercial motor vehicles any amount of motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicles and for that privilege shall pay Iowa motor fuel or special fuel taxes as provided in section 324.54. A single trip interstate permit as provided for in this section may be obtained from the state department of transportation. A fee of twelve dollars shall be charged for each individual single trip interstate permit issued. A single trip interstate permit shall be subject to the following provisions and limitations:

1. The permit shall be issued and be valid for seventy-two consecutive hours, except in emergencies, or until the time of leaving the state, whichever first occurs.

2. The permit shall cover only one commercial motor vehicle and is not transferable.

3. Single trip interstate fuel permits may be made available from sources other than indicated in this section at the discretion of the state department of transportation.

Each vehicle operated into or through Iowa in interstate operations using motor fuel or special fuel acquired in any other state shall carry in or on the vehicle a duplicate or evidence of the permit required in this section. A fee not to exceed fifty cents shall be charged for each duplicate or other evidence of permit issued. [C35, §5093-f19, -f20; C39, §5093.19, 5093.20; C46, 50, 54, §324.38; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.53]

Referred to in §324 52

324.54 Fuel tax computation—refund—reporting and payment. Fuel tax liability under this division shall be computed on the total number of gallons of each kind of motor fuel and special fuel consumed in the operation in Iowa by commercial motor vehicles subject to this division at the same rate for each kind of fuel as would be applicable if taxed under division I or division II of this chapter. A refund against the fuel tax liability so computed shall be allowed, on excess Iowa motor fuel purchased, in the amount of fuel tax paid at the prevailing rate per gallon set out under division I or division II of this chapter on motor fuel and special fuel consumed by commercial motor vehicles, the operation of which is subject to this division.

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, the holder of a permanent permit may make application to the state department of transportation for a refund, not later than the last day of the third month following the quarter in which the overpayment of Iowa fuel tax paid on excess purchases of motor fuel or special fuel was reported as provided in section 324.8, and which application is supported by such proof as the state department of transportation may require. The state department of transportation shall refund Iowa fuel tax paid on motor fuel or special fuel purchased in excess of the amount consumed by such commercial motor vehicles in their operation on the highways of this state.

Application for a refund of fuel tax under this division must be made for each quarter in which the excess payment was reported, and will not be allowed unless the amount of fuel tax paid on the fuel purchased in this state, in excess of that consumed for highway operation in this state in the quarter applied for, is in an amount exceeding ten dollars. An application for a refund of excess Iowa fuel tax paid under this division which is filed for any period or in any manner other than herein set out shall not be allowed.

To determine the amount of fuel taxes due under this division and to prevent the evasion thereof, the state department of transportation shall require a quarterly report on forms prescribed by the state department of transportation. It shall be filed not later than the last day of the month following the quarter reported, and each quarter thereafter. These reports shall be required of all persons who have been issued a permit under this division and shall cover actual operation and fuel consumption in Iowa on the basis of the permit holder's average consumption of fuel in Iowa, determined by the total miles traveled and the total fuel purchased and consumed for highway use by the permittee's commercial motor vehicles in the permittee's entire operation in all states to establish an overall miles per gallon ratio, which ratio shall be used to compute the gallons used for the miles traveled in Iowa. [C27, 31, §5093-b1; C35, §5093-f18, -f25; C39, §5093.18, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §324.32, 324.46; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.54; 81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 2, §14]

324.55 Records. Every person operating within the purview of this division shall make and keep for a period of three years such records as may reasonably be required by the state department of transportation for the administration of this division. If in the normal conduct of the business, the required records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the state department of transportation at the office outside Iowa.

The state department of transportation within a period of one year from the issuance of a permanent interstate fuel permit may audit the records of the permittee for the two years preceding the issuance of the permit. The state department of transportation shall collect all taxes due had the permittee been licensed for the two years prior to the issuance of the permit and shall refund any overpayment pursuant to section 324.54. When, as a result of an audit, fuel taxes unpaid and due the state of Iowa exceed five hundred dollars, such audit shall be at the expense of the person whose records are being audited. However, if an audit of records maintained under this section is made outside the state of Iowa in a state which requires payment of the costs for similar audits performed by officials or employees of the other state when made in Iowa, then all costs of audits performed outside of Iowa in such other state shall be at the expense of the person whose records are audited. 324.56 Interstate motor fuel tax—reciprocity agreements. The director of transportation may, subject to the approval of the transportation commission, enter into motor fuel tax agreements on behalf of this state with authorized representatives of other states. The director of transportation may enter into and the state department of transportation may become a member of a motor fuel tax agreement for the collection and refund of interstate motor fuel tax. The director of transportation may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the agreement for the collection and refund of interstate motor fuel tax.

The department may enter into an agreement for the collection and refund of interstate motor fuel tax which conflicts with sections 324.57, 324.58, 324.65, and 324.68 and the agreement shall govern carriers covered by the agreement. Copies of the agreement shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house. [82 Acts, ch 1071, §1] as applicable, upon which reports and applications shall be made and claims for refund presented under this chapter and may prescribe forms of record to be kept by motor fuel distributors, motor fuel dealers, motor fuel carriers, special fuel dealers, special fuel users, and interstate commercial motor vehicle operators.

Whenever in this chapter the department of revenue or the state department of transportation is authorized to prescribe the form of record to be kept, the appropriate state agency may in lieu thereof approve the form of record being kept, and shall approve the form of record where it furnishes in reasonably accessible form the information which is required and which substantially complies with the prescribed form. [C35, §5093-f21, -f36; C39, §5093.21, 5093.36; C46, 50, 54, §324.42, 324.64; C58, 62, 66, §324.59; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.60]

324.61 Timely filing of reports—extension. The reports and remittances required under this chapter shall be deemed filed within the required time if post-paid, properly addressed and postmarked on or before midnight of the day on which due and payable. If the final filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday the next secular or business day shall be the final filing date.

The department of revenue or the state department of transportation upon application may grant a reasonable extension of time for the filing of any required report or tax payment, or both. [C27, 31, §5093-a5, -b1; C35, §5093-f9, -f21, -f25; C39, §5093.09, 5093.21, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §324.13, 324.41, 324.46; C58, 62, 66, §324.60; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.61]

If any person within the purview of this section shall refuse access to pertinent records, books, papers, receipts, invoices, storage tanks or any other equipment, then the appropriate state agency shall certify the names and facts to any court of competent jurisdiction, and the said court shall enter such order in the premises as the enforcement of this chapter and justice shall require. [C27, 31, §5093-a6; C35, §5093-f26, -f29; C39, §5093.26, 5093.29; C46, 50, 54, §324.47, 324.52; C58, 62, 66, §324.61; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.62]

324.63 Information confidential. All information obtained by the department of revenue or the state department of transportation from the examining of reports or records required to be filed or kept under the provisions of this chapter shall be treated as confidential and shall not be divulged except to other state officers, a member or members of the general assembly or any duly appointed committee of either or both houses of the general assembly or to a representative of the state having some responsibility in connection with the collection of the taxes imposed or in proceedings brought under the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that the appropriate state agency shall make available for public information on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the tax is required to be paid the names of the distributors and as to each of them the total gallons received in the state and separately, the received gallons (1) exported or sold for export, (2) sold tax-free in the state to entities that are exempt from the tax and (3) sold tax-free in the state to entities required to report and account for the tax. The department of revenue shall also make available to the public information with respect to special fuel dealers and users and as to each of them the gallonage used and taxes paid. The department of revenue or the state department of transportation, upon request of officials entrusted with enforcement of the motor vehicle fuel tax laws of the federal government or any other state, may forward to such officials any pertinent information which the appropriate state agency may have relative to motor fuel and special fuel provided the officials of the other state furnish like information.

Any person violating the provisions of this section, and disclosing the contents of any records or reports required to be kept or made under the provisions of this chapter, except as otherwise provided, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. 324.64 Failure to file return—incorrect return. If a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient and the filer fails to file a corrected or sufficient return within twenty days after the same is required by notice from the appropriate state agency, the appropriate state agency shall determine the amount of tax due. The determination shall be made from all information that the appropriate state agency may be able to obtain and, if necessary, the agency may estimate the tax on the basis of external indices. The appropriate state agency shall give notice of the determination to the person liable for the tax. The determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed shall, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, apply to the director of the appropriate state agency for a hearing or unless the director reduces the assessment. At the hearing, evidence may be offered to support the determination or to prove that it is incorrect. After the hearing, the director shall give notice of the decision to the person liable for the tax. The findings of the appropriate state agency as to the amount of fuel taxes, penalties and interest due from any person shall be presumed to be the correct amount and in any litigation which may follow, the certificate of the agency shall be admitted in evidence, shall constitute a prima-facie case and shall impose upon the other party the burden of showing any error in the findings and the extent thereof or that the finding was contrary to law.

The director may, on his or her own motion at any time, abate any portion of tax, interest or penalties which are determined to be excessive in amount or erroneously or illegally assessed. [C35, §5093-f11, -f12; C39, §5093.11, 5093.12; C46, 50, 54, §324.19, 324.20, 324.21; C58, 62, 66, §324.63; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.64; 81 Acts, ch 131, §2]

324.65 Penalty for failure to promptly report or pay fuel taxes. If a licensee or other person fails to file a required report with the appropriate state agency on or before the due date, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax due on the return five percent of the amount of the tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. If a licensee or other person fails to remit at least ninety percent of the tax due with the filing of the return on or before the due date or pays less than ninety percent of any tax required to be shown on the return, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax due, if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction of a month during which the failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. The taxpayer shall also pay interest on the tax or additional tax at the rate in effect under section 421.7 counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the return was required to be filed.

The appropriate state agency shall not remit any part of a penalty for delinquent payment where the delinquency results from the fact that a check given in payment is not honored because of insufficient funds in the account upon which the check was drawn. However, if it appears as a result of an investigation or from a preponderance of the evidence adduced at a hearing that there has been a deliberate attempt on the part of a licensee or other person to evade payment of fuel taxes there shall be added to the assessment against the offending person and collected a penalty of fifty percent of the tax due. When penalties are applicable for failure to file a return and failure to pay the tax due or required on the return, the penalty provision for failure to file is in lieu of the penalty for failure to pay the tax due or required on the return, except in the case of a deliberate attempt on the part of the licensee or other person to evade payment of fuel taxes. Any report required of licensees or persons operating under divisions I, II and III, upon which no tax may be due, is subject to a penalty of ten dollars if the report is not timely filed with the appropriate state agency. 324.66 Statutes applicable to motor vehicle fuel tax. The appropriate state agency shall administer the taxes imposed by this chapter in the same manner and subject to all the provisions of section 422.25, subsection 4 and section 422.52, subsection 3.

All the provisions of section 422.26 shall apply in respect to the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs imposed by this chapter excepting that as applied to any tax imposed by this chapter, the lien therein provided shall be prior and paramount over all subsequent liens upon any personal property within this state, or right to such personal property, belonging to the taxpayer without the necessity of recording as therein provided. The requirements for recording shall, as applied to the tax imposed by this chapter, apply only to the liens upon real property. When requested to do so by any person from whom a taxpayer is seeking credit, or with whom the taxpayer is negotiating the sale of any personal property, or by any other person having a legitimate interest in such information, the director shall, upon being satisfied that such a situation exists, inform such person as to the amount of unpaid taxes due by such taxpayer under the provisions of this chapter. The giving of such information under such circumstances shall not be deemed a violation of section 324.63 as applied to this chapter. [C35, §5093-f13; C39, §5093.13; C46, 50, 54, §324.22-324.24; C58, 62, 66, §324.65; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.66]

Referred to in §331 702(57)

324.67 Limitation on collection proceedings. An action or other proceeding shall not be maintained to enforce collection of any amount of fuel tax, penalty, or interest over and above the amount shown to be due by reports filed by a licensee except upon an assessment by the department of revenue as authorized in this chapter. No assessment shall be made covering any period beyond three years prior to the date of assessment. [C58, 62, 66, §324.66; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.67]

324.68 Power of department of revenue or the state department of transportation to cancel licenses. If a licensee files a false report of the data or information required by this chapter, or fails, refuses, or neglects to file a report required by this chapter, or to pay the full amount of fuel tax as required by this chapter, then after ten days' written notice by registered mail directed to the last known address of the licensee setting a time and place at which the licensee may appear and show cause why the license should not be canceled, and if the licensee fails to appear or if upon the hearing it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the failure to correctly report or pay was with intent to evade the tax, the appropriate state agency may cancel the license and shall notify the licensee of the cancellation by registered mail to the licensee's last known address.

If a licensee abuses the privileges for which the license was issued, fails to produce records reasonably requested or fails to extend reasonable co-operation to the appropriate state agency, the licensee shall be advised in writing of a hearing scheduled to determine if the license shall be canceled. The appropriate state agency upon the presentation of a preponderance of evidence may cancel a license for cause.

The director of the appropriate state agency may reissue a license which has been canceled for cause. As a condition of reissuance of a license, in addition to requirements for issuing a new license, the director may require a waiting period not to exceed ninety days before a license can be reissued or a new license issued. The director shall adopt rules specifying those instances for which a waiting period will be required.

Upon receipt of written request from any licensee the appropriate state agency shall cancel the license of the licensee effective on the date of receipt of the request. If, upon investigation, the appropriate state agency finds that a licensee is no longer engaged in the activities for which a license was issued and has not been so engaged for a period of six months, the state agency shall cancel the license and give thirty days' notice of the cancellation mailed to the last known address of the licensee. The state agency shall have the power to issue subpoenas including subpoenas duces tecum and to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records and papers. In the event any person shall refuse to obey subpoena, or after appearing refuses to testify, the state agency shall certify the name of the person to the district court of the county where the hearing is being held and the court shall proceed with the witness in the same manner as if the refusal had occurred in open court. [C27, 31, §5093-a5; C35, §5093-f10, -f11, -f12; C39, §5093.10, 5093.11, 5093.12; C46, 50, 54, §324.18-324.21; C58, 62, 66, §324.68; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.69]

324.70 Discontinuance of licensed activity—liability for taxes and penalties. If a licensee ceases to engage in the state in activities for which the person's license was issued or discontinues, sells, or transfers the business in which the person has carried on that activity the licensee shall notify the department of revenue, which shall forward notice to the state department of transportation, in writing at least ten days prior to the time the cessation, discontinuance, sale or transfer takes effect. The notice shall give the date of proposed cessation or discontinuance, and, in the event of a proposed sale or transfer of the business, the date and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee. All fuel taxes, penalties and interest under this chapter not yet due and payable shall, together with any and all interest accruing or penalties imposed under this chapter shall become due and payable concurrently with the cessation, discontinuance, sale or transfer, and it shall be the duty of the licensee to make a report and pay all the fuel taxes, interest, and penalties within ten days. [C27, 31, §5093-a5; C35, §5093-f10; C39, §5093.10; C46, 50, 54, §324.18; C58, 62, 66, §324.69; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.70]

324.71 Refunds to persons other than distributors and special fuel dealers and users. Except as provided in section 324.54, any person other than a licensed distributor, licensed special fuel dealer or licensed special fuel user who has paid or has had charged to the person's account with a distributor, dealer or special fuel dealer fuel taxes imposed under this chapter with respect to motor fuel or special fuel in excess of one hundred gallons, which is subsequently lost or destroyed, while the person is the owner, through leakage, fire, explosion, lightning, flood, storm, or other casualty, except evaporation, shrinkage, or unknown causes, the person shall be entitled to a refund of the tax so paid or charged. To qualify for the refund, the person shall notify the department of revenue in writing of the loss or destruction and the gallonage lost or destroyed within ten days from the date of discovery of the loss or destruction. Within sixty days after filing the notice, the person shall file with the department of revenue an affidavit sworn to by the person having immediate custody of the motor fuel or special fuel at the time of the loss or destruction setting forth in full the circumstances and amount of the loss or destruction and such other information as the department of revenue may require. Any refund payable under this section may be applied by the department against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant. [C27, 31, §5093-a5; C35, §5093-f9; C39, §5093.09; C46, 50, 54, §324.14, 324.15; C58, 62, 66, §324.70; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.71]

324.72 Refund or credit for fuel taxes erroneously or illegally collected or paid. If any fuel taxes, penalties, or interest have been erroneously or illegally collected by the appropriate state agency from a licensee, the appropriate state agency may permit the licensee to take credit against a subsequent tax return for the amount of the erroneous or illegal overpayment, may apply the overpayment against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant, or shall certify the amount to the state comptroller, who shall draw a warrant for the certified amount on the treasurer of state payable to the licensee. The refund shall be paid to the licensee immediately.

A refund or credit shall not be made under this section unless a written claim setting forth the circumstances for which the refund or credit should be allowed is filed with the appropriate state agency within one year from the date of the payment of the taxes erroneously or illegally collected or paid.

However, if it is found during an examination by the appropriate state agency that a licensee paid, as a result of a mistake, an amount of tax, penalty, or interest which was not due, and the mistake is found within three years of the overpayment, the appropriate state agency shall credit the amount against any penalty, interest or taxes due, or to become due, or shall refund the amount to the person. [C27, 31, §5093-a5, -b1; C35, §5093-f9; C39, §5093.09; C46, 50, 54, §324.13, 324.15; C58, 62, 66, §324.71; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.72]

324.73 Embezzlement of fuel tax money—penalty. Every sale of motor fuel in this state and every sale of special fuel dispensed by the seller into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle shall, unless otherwise provided, be presumed to include as a part of the purchase price the fuel tax due the state of Iowa under the provisions of this chapter. Every person collecting fuel tax money as part of the selling price of motor fuel or special fuel, shall hold the tax money in trust for the state of Iowa unless the fuel tax on the fuel has been previously paid to the state of Iowa. Any person receiving fuel tax money in trust and failing to remit it to the department of revenue on or before time required shall be guilty of theft. 3. For any seller to issue or any purchaser to receive and retain any incorrect or false invoice or sales ticket in connection with the sale or purchase of motor fuel or special fuel.

4. For any claimant to alter any invoice or sales ticket, whether the invoice or sales ticket is to be used to support a claim for refund or income tax credit or not, provided, however, if claimant's refund permit shall have been revoked for cause as provided in section 324.19 such revocation shall be a bar to prosecution for violation of this subsection.

5. For any person to act as a motor fuel distributor, special fuel dealer or special fuel user without the required license.

6. For any person to use motor fuel or special fuel with respect to which he knowingly has not paid or had charged to his account with a distributor or dealer, or with respect to which does not within the time required in this chapter report and pay the applicable fuel tax.

7. For any special fuel dealer to dispense special fuel into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle without collecting the fuel tax.

8. For special fuel dealers or special fuel distributors to deliver special fuel on a tax paid basis into a tank with a capacity greater than one thousand fifty gallons.

9. Any delivery by a distributor of special fuel to a dealer or user for the purpose of evading the state tax on special fuels, into facilities other than those licensed above knowing that said fuel will be used as special fuel for highway use shall constitute a violation of this section. Any dealer or user for purposes of evading the state tax on special fuel, who allows a distributor to place special fuel for highway use in facilities other than those licensed above will also be deemed in violation of this section.

Any person found guilty of any of the foregoing illegal acts shall for the first offense be fined three hundred dollars, and for the second and subsequent offenses shall be fined five hundred dollars and all of his licenses held under the "Iowa Motor Fuel Tax Law" may, at the discretion of the court, be suspended for a period of up to six months. Employees of the department of revenue designated as enforcement employees shall have the power of peace officers in the performance of such duties.

Authority to enforce division III and sections 324.14 and 324.52, is given to the state department of transportation. Such payments shall be deposited by the treasurer of state in a fund, hereby created, within the state treasury which shall be known as the "motor fuel tax fund," the net proceeds of which fund, after deductions by lawful transfers and refunds, shall be known as the "motor vehicle fuel tax fund". The department of revenue and the state department of transportation shall certify monthly to the state comptroller amounts of refunds of tax approved during each month, and the state comptroller shall draw warrants in such amounts on the motor fuel tax fund and transmit them. There is hereby appropriated out of the money received under the provisions of this chapter and deposited in the motor fuel tax fund sufficient funds to pay such refunds as may be authorized in this chapter.

324.78 Other remedies available. The special remedies provided under the provisions of this chapter to enable the state to collect motor vehicle fuel excise tax shall not be construed as depriving the state of any other remedy it might have either at law or in equity independent of this chapter. The state shall have the right to maintain an action at law for the collection of said taxes required to be paid herein and in connection therewith shall be entitled to a writ of attachment without bond. [C35, §5093-f34; C39, §5093.34; C46, 50, 54, §324.62; C58, 62, 66, §324.77; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.78]

1. The department of revenue is hereby authorized to enter into and empowered to carry out the provisions of agreements with any duly authorized agent or department of the United States government for joint or co-operative action by the state and the United States government in the making of refunds of the federal tax on gasoline. Such agreements may provide that the department of revenue may receive applications for and make refunds of the federal tax on gasoline as an agent of the United States. In the event such an agreement is concluded, the director of revenue is hereby designated, appointed and empowered, through the motor vehicle fuel tax division of the department, to, as an agent of the United States government, accept applications for refunds of the federal tax on gasoline and to make such refunds from such moneys provided him in advance by the federal government.

2. 324.83 Study by legislative service bureau. The legislative service bureau shall conduct a study to determine the percentage of total motor fuel tax collected which is attributable to motor fuel used in watercraft. The percentage determined by the study shall be used by the legislature in determining the amount of motor fuel tax which shall be credited to the marine fuel tax fund. The legislative service bureau shall use the most appropriate method available in conducting the study. The state conservation commission and the department of revenue shall cooperate with the legislative service bureau in conducting the study. The study shall be reviewed, and the applicable percentage recomputed, at least once every four years * [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 83]

324.84 Transfer to marine fuel tax fund. Pursuant to section 324 83, there shall be transferred from the motor fuel tax fund to the marine fuel tax fund* a portion of moneys collected under this chapter which is attributable to motor fuel used in watercraft which portion shall be computed as follows

1 Determine monthly the total amount of motor fuel tax collected under this chapter and multiply such amount by nine tenths of one percent

2 Subtract from the figure computed pursuant to subsection 1 of this section three percent of such figure for administrative costs and further subtract from such figure the amounts refunded to commercial fishermen pursuant to subsection 14 of section 324 17. All moneys remaining after all claims for refund and the cost of administration have been made shall be transferred to the marine fuel tax fund [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 84]

324 85 Tax payment for stored motor fuel, gasohol, and special fuel—penalty

1 Persons having title to motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel in storage and held for sale on the effective date of an increase in the excise tax rate imposed on motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel under this chapter shall be subject to an inventory tax based upon the gallonage in storage as of the close of the business day next preceding the effective date of the increased excise tax rate of motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel which will be subject to the increased excise tax rate

2 Persons subject to the tax imposed under this section shall take an inventory to determine the gallonage in storage for purposes of determining the tax and shall report that gallonage on forms provided by the department of revenue and pay the tax due within thirty days of the prescribed inventory date. The department of revenue shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section

3 The amount of the inventory tax is equal to the inventory tax rate times the gallonage in storage as determined under subsection 1. The inventory tax rate is equal to the difference of the increased excise tax rate less the previous excise tax rate [C81, §324 85]

324.86 Method of determining gallonage. The exclusive method of determining gallonage of any purchases or sales of motor fuel and special fuel as defined in this chapter and distillate fuels shall be on a gross volume basis. A temperature adjusted or other method shall not be used, except as it applies to liquefied petroleum gas and the sale or exchange of petroleum products between petroleum refiners. All invoices, bills of lading, or other records of sale or purchase and all reports or records required to be made, kept, and maintained by a distributor or dealer shall be made, kept, and maintained on the gross volume basis. For purposes of this section, "distillate fuels" means any fuel oil, gas oil, topped crude oil, or other petroleum oils derived by refining or processing crude oil or unfinished oils which have a boiling range at atmospheric pressure which falls completely or in part between five hundred fifty and twelve hundred degrees Fahrenheit [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 2, §16]

RAILWAY VEHICLE FUEL TAX

This chapter is repealed July 1 2008 see 81 Acts 2d Ex ch 3 §31

324A 1 Purpose
324A 2 Definitions
324A 3 Tax imposed
324A 4 Railroad company license
324A 5 Railroad company reports, tax computation and tax payment

324A 6 Annual payment of certain tax liabilities
324A 7 Records retained
324A 8 Statutes applicable
324A 9 Deposit of revenues

324A.1 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to impose an excise tax upon the use within this state of fuel to power railway vehicles. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §22]

324A.2 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Fuel" means a combustible gas or liquid suitable for the generation of power for the propulsion of railway vehicles, except that it does not include motor fuel as defined in section 324.2.

2. "Department" means the department of revenue.

3. "Railway vehicle" means a vehicle designed and used primarily upon railways for self-propulsion or for propelling conveyances.

4. "Railroad company" means a person responsible for the operation of a railway vehicle within this state. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §23]

324A.3 Tax imposed. For the privilege of operating railway vehicles in this state, an excise tax is imposed at the rate of three cents per gallon beginning October 1, 1981 and is imposed at the rate of eight cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1982 upon the use of fuel for the propulsion of a railway vehicle within the state. The tax attaches at the time of use and shall be paid monthly to the department by the railroad company using the fuel. At such time the Iowa railway finance authority deems necessary, it may require that fuel dispensed in this state shall only be through meters which have been approved for accuracy by the Iowa railway finance authority and sealed by the authority. The authority may contract the responsibility for approving and sealing meters to the department of agriculture. Fuel dispensed through sealed meters shall be presumed taxable unless the railroad company proves otherwise. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §24; 82 Acts, ch 1260, §60]

Referred to in §324A 6

324A.4 Railroad company license. A railroad company responsible for paying the tax imposed by this chapter shall obtain a license from the department. To obtain a license a railroad company shall file an application with the department which shall include the following information:

1. The name of the railroad company.

2. The location of its principal office within the state, if any.

3. A list of each location where fuel will be dispensed on a regular basis.

4. Other information the director of revenue requires. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §25]

324A.5 Railroad company reports, tax computation and tax payment. For the purpose of determining a railroad company's tax liability, each railroad company required to obtain a license under this chapter shall file with the department a monthly report. The report shall be filed by the end of the month following the month of use. The report shall include the following information:

1. The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa.

2. The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed in railway vehicles used solely within the state during the reporting period.

3. The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa for nontaxable purposes.

4. The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed in railway vehicles used within and without the state.

5. The total gallons of fuel dispensed outside Iowa and placed into railway vehicles traveling within and without the state.

6. Other information the director of revenue requires.

The report shall be accompanied by a payment equal to the tax due. The taxable gallons of fuel shall be computed by adding the number of gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed into railway vehicles traveling solely within the state during the reporting period and the result of multiplying the total gallons of fuel used in railway vehicles traveling within and without Iowa by a fraction the numerator of which is miles traveled in Iowa by railway vehicles traveling within and without Iowa, and the denominator of which is the total miles traveled by the same railway vehicles. The tax shall be computed by multiplying the taxable gallons times the per gallon tax rate.

7. If a railroad company believes that the method of computing the tax by the prescribed mileage formula has operated or will so operate as to subject to taxation a greater portion of fuel than is reasonably attributable to use for the propulsion of a railway vehicle in this state, it shall be entitled to file with the department a statement of objections and of such alternative method of determining fuel use in this state as it believes to be proper under the circumstances. If the department concludes that the mileage formula, in fact, does not reasonably attribute fuel use to the state, it shall redetermine the tax per gallons of fuel by such methods as seems best calculated to assign to the state the portion of fuel reasonably used in this state. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §26]

324A.6 Annual payment of certain tax liabilities. Notwithstanding the requirement for monthly payment of the excise tax in sections 324A.3 and 324A.5, if it is reasonably expected, as determined by rules prescribed by the director, that a railroad company's annual tax liability will not exceed one thousand two hundred dollars for a calendar year, the railroad company may request and the director may grant permission, in lieu of the requirement for monthly payment of tax, that the tax shall be payable on a calendar year basis. The tax is due and payable no later than January 31 following each calendar year in which the railroad company carried on business. [82 Acts, ch 1260, §61]

324A.7 Records retained. Records reasonably required by the department shall be retained by the railroad company for three years. [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §27]

324A.9 Deposit of revenues. The net proceeds of the excise tax imposed on the use of fuel in railway vehicles and any penalties collected under this chapter shall be credited to the special railroad facility fund established in section 307B 23 [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §29]

325.2 Special powers of authority. The authority shall

1 Fix or approve the rates, fares, charges, classifications, and rules pertaining thereto, of each motor carrier

2 Regulate and supervise the accounts, schedules, and service of each motor carrier

3 Prescribe a uniform system and classification of accounts to be used, which among other things shall provide for the setting up of adequate depreciation charges, and after such accounting system shall have been promulgated, motor carriers shall use no other

4 Require the filing of annual and other reports

5 Supervise and regulate motor carriers in all other matters affecting the relationship between such carriers and the traveling and shipping public [C24, §5095, C27, 31, 35, §5105 a2, C39, §5100.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §325 2, 81 Acts, ch 22, §10, 22]

325.6 Certificate of convenience and necessity.

1 It is unlawful for any motor carrier, except a person operating a motor vehicle in a carpool or van pool, to transport over a regular route or between fixed termini any person or property, for compensation, from any point or place in the state to another point or place in the state irrespective of the route, highway or highways traversed, including the crossing of any state line of the state, or the ticket or bill of lading issued and used for such transportation, without first having obtained from the authority a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation. An Iowa urban transit system, as defined in section 324 57, subsection 9, may operate within the metropolitan area which it serves and between its service area and another city which is located not more than ten miles from its service area without obtaining a certificate of public convenience and necessity if the other city is not served by another carrier operating under a certificate of public convenience and necessity. A carrier of passengers shall not operate as a charter carrier in this state unless it possesses a certificate of convenience and necessity as a common carrier of passengers and operating in this state as such common carrier or possesses a certificate of convenience and necessity to engage in the business of a charter carrier.

2 The authority may allow the provision of temporary service for which there is an immediate and urgent need to a point or points requested by the application for a permanent certificate of public convenience and necessity upon investigation and a finding that the point or points do not have carrier service capable of meeting the need. The grant of temporary authority shall not become effective until the applicant has complied with the provisions of sections 325 26, 325 28 and 325 35 and the rules of the authority and unless suspended or revoked for good cause, shall be valid for such time as the authority shall specify but not more than an aggregate of one hundred eighty days. The grant of temporary authority shall create no presumption that the corresponding application will be granted.

3 A motor carrier providing primarily passenger service for elderly, handicapped and other transportation disadvantaged persons shall be exempt from certification requirements of this section if it satisfies each of the following requirements:

a The motor carrier is not a corporation organized for profit under the laws of Iowa or any other state or the motor carrier is a governmental organization.

b The motor carrier receives any operating funds from federal, state or local government sources.

c The motor carrier does not duplicate a transportation service provided by a motor carrier issued a certificate of convenience and necessity.

Each motor carrier exempt from the provisions of this subsection shall obtain a permit from the department, which shall be nontransferable. Such carriers shall comply with all safety, insurance and other rules of the department pertaining to a publicly funded transit system [C24, §5097, C27, 31, 35, §5105-a6, C39, §5100.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §325 6, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22, ch 108, §5]

325.7 When certificate to be issued. Before a certificate shall be issued, the authority shall, after a public hearing, make a finding that the service proposed to be rendered will promote the public convenience and necessity. If such finding be made, it shall be its duty to issue a certificate.

The authority may issue a certificate, without holding a public hearing, if the service proposed will promote the public convenience and necessity and the service would not be provided if the expense of a public hearing was placed upon the applicant.

If a certificate is to be issued without a public hearing, the authority shall publish notice of its action, at its own expense, in the same manner as provided in section 325.13. Written objections to the issuance of a certificate without holding a hearing may be filed within ten days of last publication of notice. 2. The principal office or place of business of applicant.
3. A complete description of the route over which the applicant proposes to operate.
4. A schedule setting forth in detail the service which the applicant proposes to furnish.
5. A complete description of the equipment which the applicant proposes to use in furnishing the service.

6. A financial statement from which the board can determine whether or not the applicant is able to engage in the undertaking proposed in the application. [C24, §5097; C27, 31, 35, §5105-a12; C39, §5100.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §325.12]

2. Any person, firm, corporation, city, or county whose rights or interests may be affected may file written objections with the authority.

3. A protest against the granting of the application shall state specifically the grounds upon which it is made and contain a concise statement of the interest of the person filing a protest in the proceeding.

4. A protest shall be filed with the authority not later than thirty days from the date of the publication of notice.

5. Upon receipt of any protests complying with subsection 3, the authority shall set the matter for hearing not less than ten days following the expiration of the time in which protests may be made and shall give notice to all persons who have filed protests of the time and place of the hearing. 326.1 Policy. It is the policy of this state to promote and encourage the fullest possible use of its highway system by authorizing the negotiation and execution of motor vehicle reciprocal or proportional registration agreements, arrangements and declarations with other jurisdictions with respect to vehicles registered in this and such other jurisdictions, thus contributing to the economic and social development and growth of this state [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326 1]

2 “Director” means the director of transportation or his designee

3 “Commercial vehicle” means any vehicle which is operated in interstate commerce or combined intra state and interstate commerce and used for the transportation of persons for hire, compensation or profit, or designed or used primarily for the transportation of property

4 “Jurisdiction” means any county, state, territory, federal district, foreign country, or political subdivision thereof

5 "Proportional registration" or "proration" means division and distribution of registration fees imposed on commercial vehicles between two or more jurisdictions in accordance with a formula based on miles traveled by such vehicles

6 "Base state" with respect to commercial vehicles subject to proportional registration means the state from which the vehicle is most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained, operated, or otherwise controlled, or also in the case of a fleet vehicle the state to which allocated for registration under statutory requirements

7 "Fleet" means one or more commercial vehicles

8 "Total fleet miles" means the mileage generated by any truck or truck tractor which was part of a prorate fleet during the fiscal year period of September 1 through August 31 preceding the year for which proportional registration is sought. Total fleet mileage to be reported for any truck or truck tractor which was deleted from or added to the prorate fleet during the fiscal year reporting period shall be only those miles generated by such truck or truck tractor while the vehicle was part of the prorated fleet during such fiscal year reporting period. "Total fleet miles" in relation to trailers or semitrailers which are part of a prorate fleet means the mileage generated by the power units of the fleet, provided, however, that if such trailers or semitrailers were towed during the fiscal year reporting period by the power units which collectively were proportionally registered by the same fleet owner during the fiscal year reporting period as part of two or more fleets, "total fleet miles" in relation to such trailers or semitrailers means the total mileage generated by the several power fleets during the fiscal year reporting period even though some of the power units did not actually travel a portion of their total miles in contracting states where the proportional registration of such trailers or semitrailers is sought

9 "In-state miles" means the mileage generated within this state by commercial vehicles in the fleet subject to proportional registration, except that, with respect to fleet vehicles based in Iowa, "in-state miles" shall also include all mileage traveled by such vehicles in states with whom Iowa has a proportional registration agreement but with whom the owner elects not to apportion registration fees and mileage traveled by such vehicles under reciprocity obtained by virtue of Iowa registration

10 "Preceding year" means a period of twelve consecutive months fixed by the department, which period shall be within the sixteen months immediately preceding the commencement of the registration year for which proportional registration is sought

11 "Trip" for purposes of section 326.23 means a A one-way movement from one point originating outside this state and destined to another point outside this state

b A round trip movement between two points within this state

c A round trip movement originating in this state or destined for a point within this state

12 "Broker" for purposes of section 326.23 means any person who, as principal or agent, sells or offers for sale any transportation, or negotiates for, or holds himself out for solicitation, advertisement, or otherwise as one who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts, or arranges for such transportation. The term "broker" shall not include motor carriers and employees or agents thereof

13 The words "vehicle," "motor vehicle," "motor truck," "truck tractor," "road tractor," "trailer," "semitrailer," "trailer coach," "combination" or "combination of vehicles," "gross weight," "person," "owner," "nonresident," "street" or "highway," and "auxiliary axle" shall have the meanings ascribed in section 321.1

14 "Compact miles" means the total miles a fleet operates in this state and in all states with whom Iowa has an apportionment registration agreement and with whom the fleet owner has or will register vehicles on an apportioned registration basis [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.2]

Referred to in §321.134 321F.8 326.7

326.3 and 326.4 Repealed by 65GA, ch 1180, §197

326.5 Authority to agree to reciprocity. The director may, subject to the approval of the transportation commission, enter into reciprocity agreements with the duly authorized representatives of any jurisdiction exempting nonresidents of this state using the highways of this state from the registration requirements of chapter 321 and payment of any fees to this state with such conditions, restrictions, and privileges or lack of same as the director deems advisable [S13, §1571 m16, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866, C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56, C62, 66, §326.2, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.5]

326.6 Proportional registration of fleets. The department may, pursuant to section 326.5, provide for proportional registration between this state and other jurisdictions of fleets of commercial vehicles owned by residents or nonresidents engaged in interstate commerce or simultaneously engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce

1 The owners of fleets of commercial vehicles subject to proportional registration under apportionment agreements negotiated by the department shall file a sworn statement with the department which shall contain the following information and such other information as the department may require a Total fleet miles for the preceding year

b In state miles for the preceding year

c A description and identification of each vehicle which is part of the fleet for which proportional registration is sought

2 The dollar amount of registration fees due this state for each fleet subject to proportional registration shall be computed as follows

a Divide total fleet miles during the preceding year into in-state miles during the preceding year to determine the percentage of total fleet mileage allocable to this state

b Determine the sum total amount necessary to register each and every vehicle in the fleet based on the annual registration fees prescribed in chapter 321

c Multiply the percentage obtained under paragraph "a" of this subsection by the sum total obtained under paragraph "b" of this subsection

d. The product so obtained under paragraph “c” of this subsection shall be the amount payable by the owner for proportional registration of the fleet for the registration year. Payment of registration fees shall be made in accordance with law.

3. The department may negotiate apportionment agreements on either a vehicle or a dollar basis. In apportionment on a vehicle basis, a sufficient number of vehicles shall be registered to produce total fee payments not less than an amount obtained by applying the proportion of in-state fleet miles to total fleet miles to the fees which would otherwise be required for total fleet registration in this state. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.6]

326.7 Agreements on basis of compact miles. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, and as an alternative to the procedure set out in section 326.6, the department may enter into agreements providing for proportional registration between this state and other jurisdictions of fleets of commercial vehicles owned by residents or nonresidents engaged in interstate commerce or simultaneously engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce on the basis of compact miles.

The Iowa prorate percent will be computed by dividing the Iowa miles by the compact miles as defined in section 326.2. If the composite percentage paid by the Iowa resident to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registrations is less than one hundred percent, the department will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent. If the composite percent paid by the nonresident fleet operator to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registration fees on vehicles base plated in Iowa is less than one hundred percent, the department will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent on such Iowa base plated vehicles. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.2; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.7]

326.8 Estimating mileage. When in-state and total fleet or compact mileage cannot be computed for a particular fleet on the basis of actual operation during the preceding year, estimated mileage shall be accepted for the fleet’s first prorate application. Estimated mileage shall be based on the proposed operation of the fleet during the entire year for which proportional registration is sought. The applicant shall substantiate the estimate by submitting details of his proposed operation including, but not limited to, type of operation, its location, routes, and frequency of operation. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.8]

326.9 Individual vehicles not to be proportionally registered. The registrations of individual vehicles shall not be subject to proportional registration with this state. The same fleet, consisting of the same vehicles in each state, shall be proportionally registered in each state with which the fleet is prorated; and every one of the vehicles shall be included in the fleet in each state. Failure to comply with these requirements shall constitute grounds for cancellation of proration privileges. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.9]

326.10 Minimum fee. The minimum fee for each vehicle registered with this state under an apportionment agreement shall not be less than ten dollars for each truck or truck tractor and two dollars for each trailer. If the department enters into an apportionment agreement where minimum fees are not permitted, the provisions of this section shall not apply. In addition to proportional registration fees, the department shall collect the amounts of fees due as hereinafter provided for the issuance of plates, stickers or other identification of all vehicles subject to proportional registration. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.2; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.10]

326.11 Subsequently acquired vehicles. Vehicles acquired by a fleet owner after the commencement of the registration year and subsequently added to the fleet shall be prorated by applying the mileage percentage used in the original application for such fleet for such registration period to registration fees due under chapter 321 but in no case less than that required by section 326.10. A supplemental report shall be filed with the department not later than ten days after such addition to the fleet.

The director may issue temporary written authorization to carriers for vehicles acquired by a fleet owner and added to the fleet owner’s prorate fleet after the beginning of the registration year. The temporary authority shall permit the operation of a commercial vehicle until permanent identification is issued, except that the temporary authority shall expire after forty-five days. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.11; 81 Acts, ch 115, §1]

326.12 Vehicles deleted—registration transferred. Fleet owners who delete commercial vehicles displaying Iowa base plates from the fleet after the commencement of the registration year shall be allowed to transfer registration credit to a replacement vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this section. Iowa shall allow credit for non-Iowa based deleted vehicles only if the state designated by the fleet owner as the base state of the deleted vehicle permits transfer of registration credit to the replacement vehicle. The fleet owner shall notify the department not later than ten days after such deletion and replacement. Allowance of credit for deleted vehicles shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. No additional registration fee shall be assessed on a replacement vehicle upon which the registration fee would have been the same as that for the deleted vehicle. The fee for reissuance or registration credentials or for transfer of credentials shall be seven dollars.

2. No deletion shall be made nor credit allowed toward registration of a replacement vehicle unless the vehicle to be removed from service has been sold, junked, repossessed, foreclosed by mechanic’s lien, title transferred by operation of law, or cancellation or expiration of a lease arrangement. The deleted vehicle shall have been disposed of on or before the date the replacement vehicle was acquired or in the possession of the applicant.

3. If a leased vehicle is to be deleted from the fleet and unexpired registration fees applied to the replacement vehicle, the lessee shall certify to the department that any unexpired registration fees paid by the lessor to the lessee have been refunded to the lessor prior to the date of the supplemental application requesting credit for registration fees paid on the deleted vehicle. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.12]

326.13 Information under oath. The department shall require fleet owners to submit under oath any information deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Information furnished under this chapter shall be forwarded to the director of the department by each fleet owner no later than January 1 of the current registration year. [S13, §1517-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.3; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.13]

326.14 Plates and receipts. The department shall issue registration plates and receipts pursuant to apportionment agreements or arrangements authorized under this chapter. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.14]

326.15 Total composite over one hundred percent—refund. If the composite percentage apportioned by an owner on a fleet of vehicles based in Iowa to each of the states with which Iowa has an apportionment agreement is more than one hundred percent percentagewise, the fleet owner may file a claim with the department for a refund of registration fees paid in excess of one hundred percent percentagewise. The claim for such refund shall be filed on or after December 1 of the year for which refund is requested, and the fleet owner shall furnish satisfactory evidence of the alleged overpayment. The department shall prescribe and provide suitable forms requisite or deemed necessary to process such claims and insure that claims are paid to fleet owners who have complied with proportional registration requirements. The fleet owner may elect to apply any such refund to proportional registration fees payable the next registration year in lieu of any refund payable under this section. The state of Iowa shall not be liable for claims unless filed within four full years following the calendar year for which the application is made. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.15]

326.16 Delinquent fees. If the fees for such proportional registration are not paid to each contracting jurisdiction entitled thereto on the basis of the proportional registration application and supporting documents filed with the department by the fleet owner within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the department, the department shall redetermine fees due this state. If any additional fees due this state are not paid by the fleet owner within twenty days after the mailing to the owner of a notice by certified mail of the additional fees due, such owner's registration in this state shall be canceled. In addition, the fees due for registration in this state shall be a debt due to the state of Iowa. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.3; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.16]

Resident fleet owners shall be required to list Iowa as the base state for all commercial vehicles which qualify under the term "base state" as defined in this chapter, and Iowa base plates shall be displayed on all such commercial vehicles. Nonresident fleet owners subject to proportional registration shall display Iowa base plates if the commercial vehicle qualifies as an Iowa based vehicle as defined in this chapter. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.17]

326.18 Fully registered for interstate movement. When a nonresident fleet owner has registered vehicles on a prorated basis, the vehicles are fully registered insofar as interstate commerce is concerned. The privileges granted to a nonresident pursuant to this chapter permit the operation of a vehicle which is simultaneously engaged in interstate movements and intrastate commerce, provided that the owner has intrastate authority or rights granted by the transportation regulation authority. The authority may also enter into reciprocity agreements pursuant to section 326.5 to permit interstate and intrastate movement of vehicles registered on a prorate basis by a nonresident fleet owner, provided the owner has intrastate authority granted by the transportation regulation authority and the jurisdiction in which the nonresident is base plated grants the same privilege to an Iowa base plated vehicle. Each vehicle upon which an Iowa base plate is required to be displayed under this chapter is fully registered for both interstate commerce and intrastate commerce. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.2; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.18; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

Any owner complying with and granted proportional registration privileges shall preserve the records upon which applications are made for a period of four full years following the year for which the application was made. Upon request of the department, all fleet owners shall make all such records available to the department at the office of the director for audit as to accuracy of computation and payment. If the owner does not produce such records when so requested, the owner shall pay the costs of an audit by a duly appointed representative of the department at the home office of the owner. The department may enter into agreements with authorized agencies or other contracting states for joint audits of any such owner. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.4; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.19]

326.20 Benefits extended to leased vehicles. The department may, notwithstanding any provisions of the Code to the contrary, enter into reciprocity or proportional registration agreements which extend the benefits thereof to leased vehicles on the basis of the residence of the lessee. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.6; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.20]

326.21 Laws of other states—Iowa interests. In the absence of an agreement with another jurisdiction, the department may examine the laws and requirements of such jurisdiction and declare the extent and nature of exemptions, benefits, and privileges to be extended to vehicles or owners of vehicles properly registered or licensed in such other jurisdiction. The department shall consider the interests of the state of Iowa and the citizens thereof, the interests of the other jurisdictions and the citizens thereof, and the benefits which will accrue to the economy of the state of Iowa from the uninterrupted flow of commerce in declarations made under this section. Each declaration shall specify that the extent of exemptions, benefits, and privileges is subject to revision without notice upon adoption by the general assembly of legislation in conflict with the terms of any such declaration. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.21]

326.22 Operational laws of Iowa applicable. A nonresident registered vehicle is subject to all laws and rules governing the operation of such vehicle on the highways of this state. The registration number plates, stickers, or other identification assigned and furnished to any vehicle for the current registration year by the state in which the vehicle is registered shall be displayed on the vehicle substantially as provided in chapter 321 for vehicles registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. In addition, a fee set by the department to cover actual cost shall be charged for each plate, sticker, or other identification furnished for each vehicle registered in accordance with the provisions of this section or extended reciprocity in accordance with the provisions of this section. A charge shall not be made for the initial registration receipt or cab card issued for each vehicle registered pursuant to an apportionment registration agreement. A fee set by the department to cover actual costs shall be charged for issuance of duplicate plates, stickers or other identification required, duplicate registration receipts, and duplicate cab cards. 326.23 Trip permits.

1. The owner of a commercial vehicle which is properly registered and licensed in some other jurisdiction and is to be operated occasionally on highways in this state, may in lieu of payment of the annual registration fee for such vehicle obtain a trip permit authorizing operation of the vehicle on the highways of this state in interstate commerce for a period of not to exceed seventy-two hours. The fee for the trip permit shall be ten dollars.

2. The department may enter into agreements with owners and operators of truck stops to permit the owners and operators of truck stops to issue trip permits subject to any conditions imposed by the department. In addition to the trip permit fee, the owner or operator of a truck stop may charge an issuance fee of not more than one dollar. For the purposes of this section, "truck stop" means any place of business which sells fuel normally used by trucks and which is open twenty-four hours per day. 326.25 Applications—investigations. The department shall examine and determine the genuineness, regularity, and legality of every application lawfully made pursuant to this chapter, and may in all cases make investigations as may be deemed necessary or require additional information. The department shall reject any such application if not satisfied of the genuineness, regularity, or legality thereof of the truth of any statement contained therein, or for any other reason, when authorized by law. The department is hereby authorized to take possession of any indicia of proportional registration or reciprocity upon expiration, revocation, cancellation, or suspension thereof, or which is fictitious, or which has been unlawfully or erroneously issued.

The department may suspend or revoke the registration indicia of a vehicle registered on a prorated basis in any one of the following events:

1. When the department is satisfied that such registration indicia was issued upon fraudulent application. Bona fide errors shall be corrected within fifteen days after notification by the department.

326.27 Violations to negate agreements. Operation of a commercial vehicle or vehicles in violation of the requirements of this chapter, the motor vehicle registration laws of this state, or the terms of any agreement negotiated by the department pursuant to this chapter may, after due notice and hearing, be grounds for denial of reciprocal or proportional registration privileges on the vehicle or vehicles of an owner so operated. Any owner denied such reciprocal or proportional registration privileges shall be subject to payment of full annual Iowa registration fees on any such vehicle operated on Iowa highways. In addition to denial of reciprocal or proportional registration privileges, it shall be a simple misdemeanor, unless such act is declared under Iowa law to be a felony, for any person to operate under reciprocity or proportional registration in violation of any requirements of this chapter. 326.31 Filing incorrect information—effect. Whenever the director has reason to believe that a fleet owner has filed incorrect information with the department or the department of revenue, for the purpose of reducing the fleet owner's obligation for registration fees or fuel taxes, the director may cancel the apportioned registration privileges on all of the vehicles owned by such person Any person who has such privileges canceled shall be subject to the payment of the full annual registration fee for all vehicles operated on the highways of this state for a period of at least five years thereafter The director of revenue shall co-operate with the department in ascertaining the accuracy of all reports filed pertaining to registration fees and motor fuel taxes

Any person whose privileges are canceled may request an administrative hearing of said action before the transportation regulation board, and during the period pending the hearing the apportioned registration privileges shall be reinstated if the fleet owner posts security with the department in an amount sufficient to pay such full annual fees if an adverse decision is rendered at the hearing At such hearing the fleet owner shall have the burden of proof as to the accuracy of any report filed by the fleet owner with the department or the department of revenue Judicial review of any decision reached at the administrative hearing may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326 31]

A motor truck engaged in the transportation of property under a truck operator or contract carrier permit issued under the provisions of this chapter shall not be operated on the highways of this state unless there has been paid to the department for the administration of this chapter an annual fee of five dollars for each motor truck and ten dollars for each truck tractor or road tractor.

It is a simple misdemeanor for a truck operator or contract carrier to operate a motor truck for which the annual fee has not been paid and the department may revoke either the truck operator or contract carrier permit of any such violator or both. 327.10 Nonresidents—reciprocal waiver of fee. The department established by law shall be empowered to waive the fee provided for in section 327.9, provided said motor truck is owned by a nonresident of this state and is operated upon the highways thereof only in the conduct of business in interstate commerce and provided further that the owner of said motor truck has complied with the registration requirements of the state of his or its residence, and said department shall do all things necessary or required to negotiate and perfect reciprocal agreements between the various states and the state of Iowa, waiving the fee provided for in section 327.9 for the purpose of securing exemptions and privileges for citizens of this state operating motor vehicles in other states. [C39, §5105.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §327.10]

327.11 Payment of fee. It shall be the duty of the authority to collect all permit fees provided in this chapter, and failure to pay any such permit fee within thirty days after the time the same shall become due shall be cause for revocation of the permit of the truck operator in arrears. [C31, 35, §5105-c10; C39, §5105.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §327.11; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

No permit shall be issued until and after the applicant shall have filed with the authority an insurance policy, policies, surety bond or certificate of insurance in form to be approved by the authority issued by some insurance carrier or bonding company authorized to do business in this state. The minimum limits of liability of any policy, policies or surety bond shall, for each motor truck thereby covered, be as follows:

1. To cover the assured's legal liability as a truck operator or contract carrier for bodily injury or death resulting therefrom as a result of any one accident or other cause, one hundred thousand dollars for any recovery by one person, and subject to the limit for one person three hundred thousand dollars for more than one person. However, the minimum limits of liability for truck operators and contract carriers of hazardous materials subject to federal minimum limits of liability are those specified in 49 C.F.R. sec. 387.3 and sec. 387.9 as published in the federal register on June 11, 1981.

2. To cover the assured's legal liability as a truck operator or contract carrier for damage to or destruction of any property other than that of or in charge of the assured, as a result of any one accident or other cause, ten thousand dollars. Such insurance policy, policies or surety bond shall bind the obligors thereunder to make compensation for injuries to persons, excluding injury to or death of the applicant's employees while engaged in the course of their employment, and loss of or damage to property resulting from the operation of such motor truck and for which such truck operator would be legally liable. Such insurance policy, policies or surety bond shall also provide that any person, firm, association or corporation having a right of action against such truck operator for injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property, may bring action for recovery directly upon such insurance policy, policies or surety bond against such insurance carrier or bonding company when service cannot be obtained on the truck operator within this state. No other or additional policies or bond shall be required of any truck operator by any city or other agency in the state. Failure to keep such insurance in force at all times shall cause the permit of the truck operator to be revoked. [C31, 35, §5105-c14; C39, §5105.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §327.15; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22; 82 Acts, ch 1150, §4]

Except as otherwise provided, it is hereby declared unlawful for any liquid transport carrier to transport liquid products in bulk, for compensation from any point or place in the state of Iowa to another point or place in said state without first having obtained from the authority a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation.

The authority may allow the provision of temporary service for which there is an immediate and urgent need to point or points requested by the application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity upon consideration by the authority and a finding that the point or points do not have liquid bulk carrier service capable of meeting such need or that a carrier is not currently serving those points. Upon meeting the requirements of this chapter and the rules of the authority, such temporary authority, unless suspended or revoked for good cause, shall be valid for such time as the authority shall specify but not to exceed one hundred twenty days. Granting temporary authority shall not create a presumption that the corresponding application will subsequently be granted. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §327A.2; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

If the railroad corporation violates any requirement provided by the department, the railroad corporation shall be subject to a schedule “two” penalty for each day the repairs have not been made from the date the department set for repairs to be completed. The court may consider the willingness and ability of the railroad corporation to co-operate in removing the safety hazard. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 25A, the state shall not be held

If the court shall find that such rule, regulation, or order is reasonable and just, and that in refusing compliance therewith said railway company is neglecting and omitting the performance of any public duty or obligation, the court shall decree a mandatory and perpetual injunction, compelling obedience to and compliance with such rule, order, or regulation by said railroad company or person, its officers, agents, servants and employees, and may grant such other relief as may be deemed just and proper. All violations of such decree shall render the company, persons, officers, agents, servants and employees who are in any manner instrumental in such violation, guilty of contempt of court, and the court may punish such contempt by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for each offense. Such decree shall continue and remain in effect and be enforced until the rule, order, or regulation shall be modified or vacated by the department. The time for the taking effect of any rule, order, or regulation affecting public rights, made by the department, may, in its discretion, be extended; and said extension of time may be granted for the purpose of testing the legality thereof, upon application by any such aggrieved railroad, showing reasonable grounds therefor, and that said application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. [S13, §2119; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7886; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.27; C77, 79, 81, §327C.18]

If a common carrier fails in a judicial review proceeding to secure a vacation of the order objected to, it may apply to the court in which the review proceeding is finally adjudicated for an order remitting the penalty which has accrued during the review proceeding. Upon a satisfactory showing that the petition for judicial review was filed in good faith and not for the purpose of delay, and that there were reasonable grounds to believe that the order was unreasonable or unjust or that the power of the department or authority to make the same was doubtful, such court may remit the penalty that has accrued during the review proceeding. [S13, §2119; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7888; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.29; C77, 79, 81, §327C.20; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327C.22 Interstate freight rates. The department shall exercise constant diligence to ascertain the rates, charges, rules, and practices of common carriers operating in this state, in relation to the transportation of freight in interstate business. When it shall ascertain from any source or have reasonable grounds to believe that the rates charged on such interstate business or the rules or practices in relation thereto discriminate unjustly against any of the citizens, industries, interests, or localities of the state, or place any of them at an unreasonable disadvantage as compared with those of other states, or are in violation of the laws of the United States regulating commerce, or in conflict with the rulings, orders, or regulations of the interstate commerce commission, the department shall take the necessary steps to prevent the continuance of such rates, rules, or practices. [S13, §2120-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7890; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.31; C77, 79, 81, §327C.22]

327C.24 Choice of remedies. Any person claiming damages from a common carrier on account of any violation of the provisions of chapter 327D may either make complaint to the department, or may bring action on his own behalf for the recovery of such damages; but he shall not have the right to pursue both of said remedies at the same time. [C97, §2131; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7892; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.33; C77, 79, 81, §327C.24]

327C.25 Complaints. Any person, city or county may file with the department a petition setting forth any particular in which any common carrier has violated the law to which it is subject and the amount of damages sustained by reason thereof. The department shall furnish to the carrier against which complaint is filed, a copy thereof, and a reasonable time shall be fixed by the authority within which such carrier shall answer the petition or satisfy the demand therein made. If such carrier fails to satisfy the complaint within the time fixed or there appears to be reasonable grounds for investigating the matters set forth in said petition, the authority shall hear and determine the questions involved and make such orders as it shall find to be proper. When the authority has reason to believe that any carrier is violating any of the laws to which it is subject, it may institute an investigation and cause a hearing to be held before it in relation to such matters in all respects as fully as if a petition had been filed. [C97, §2134; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7893; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.34; C77, 79, 81, §327C.25; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327C.26 Investigation—report. When a hearing has been held before the authority after notice, it shall make a report in writing setting forth the findings of fact and its conclusions together with its recommendations or orders as to what reparation, if any, the offending carrier shall make to any party who has suffered damage. Such finding of fact shall thereafter in all legal proceedings be prima-facie evidence of every fact found. All reports of hearings and investigations made by the authority shall be entered of record and a copy furnished to the carrier against which the complaint was filed, to the party complaining, and to any other person having a direct interest in the matter. A reasonable fee not to exceed the actual duplication costs may be charged for the copies. [C97, §2135; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7894; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §474.35; C77, 79, 81, §327C.26; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327C.27 Orders—compliance. When the authority finds as the result of any investigation or hearing that a common carrier has violated or is violating any of the provisions of law to which it is subject, or that any complainant or other person has sustained damages by reason of such violation, the authority shall order such carrier to cease such violation at once and shall fix a time within which it shall pay the amount of damage which has been found due to any person as a result of such violation. collected, or received for the same kind of freight in less than a carload lot. [C97, §2124; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8046; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §479.11; C77, 79, 81, §327D.10]

Referred to in §327D 40

327D.13 Long and short haul—fair rate. No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall charge more for the transportation of persons or property to or from any point on its railroad than a fair and just rate or charge.

No such carrier shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance, over the same line or route in the same direction within this state, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge or receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul; provided that upon application to the authority such common carrier may, in special cases, after investigation, be authorized by the authority to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property; and the authority may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier may be relieved from the operation and requirement of this section; but in exercising the authority conferred upon it in this proviso, the authority shall not permit the establishment of any charge to or from the more distant point that is not reasonably compensatory for the service performed; and, if a circuitous rail line or route is, because of such circuitry, granted authority to meet the charges of a more direct line or route to or from competitive points and to maintain higher charges to or from intermediate points on its line, the authority shall not include intermediate points as to which the haul of the petitioning line or route is not longer than that of the direct line or route between the competitive points. [C97, §2126; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8049; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,

It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any contract, agreement, or combination with any other common carrier for the pooling of freight of different and competing railroads, or divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such railroads, or any portion thereof without the approval of the authority when determined to be in the public interest by the authority; and in case of an agreement for the pooling of freights without such approval, each day of its continuance shall be a separate offense. [C73, §1297-1299; C97, §2127; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8050; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §479.15; C77, 79, 81, §327D.14; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327D.15 Continuous shipments. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any combination, contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to prevent, by change of time schedules, carriage in different cars, or, by other means or device, the carriage of freights from being continuous from place of shipment to the place of destination in the state; and no break of bulk, stoppage, or interruption made by such common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freights from being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination, unless such break, stoppage, or interruption was made in good faith for some necessary purpose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this chapter. [C97, §2129; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8051; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §479.16; C77, 79, 81, §327D.15]

Every corporation constructing or operating a railway shall make and construct at all points where such railway crosses any public road good, sufficient, and safe crossings and erect at such points, at a sufficient elevation from such road as to admit a free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railway, and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for trains. Any railway company neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable for all damages sustained by reason of such refusal or neglect, and it shall only be necessary, in order to recover, for the injured party to prove such neglect or refusal. [R60, §1331; C73, §1288; C97, §2054; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8000; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.1; C77, 79, 81, §327G.2]

When any person owning land abutting on the right of way is maintaining a hog-tight fence on all sides thereof or any division of such land except along such right of way, the railway company owning such right of way shall, on written request of the landowner, make such right of way fence along such enclosed land hog-tight by the addition of barbed or woven wire or other equally efficient means. [S13, §2057; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8004; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.5; C77, 79, 81, §327G.5]

327G.6 Failure to fence. Any corporation operating a railway and failing to fence its right of way shall be liable to the owner of any stock killed or injured by reason of the want of such fence for the full amount of the damages sustained by the owner, unless it was occasioned by the willful act of such owner or his agent; and to recover the same it shall only be necessary for him to prove the loss of or injury to his property. [C73, §1289; C97, §2055; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8005; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.6; C77, 79, 81, §327G.6]

327G.10 Killing of stock—interpretative clause. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the corporation from liability arising from the killing or maiming of livestock on said track or right of way by its negligence or that of its employees, nor shall anything in this chapter interfere with the right of open or private crossings, or with the right of persons to such crossings, nor in any way limit or qualify the liability of any corporation or person owning or operating a railway that fails to fence the same against livestock running at large for any stock injured or killed by reason of the want of such fence. [C97, §2058; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.11; C77, 79, 81, §327G.10]

or operating such railway, on request of the owner of such land or farm, shall construct and maintain a safe and adequate farm crossing or roadway across such railway and right of way at such reasonable place as the owner of the land may designate. [R60, §1329; C73, §1268; C97, §2022; S13, §2022; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8011; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.12; C77, 79, 81, §327G.11]

If the railroad corporation refuses or neglects to comply within thirty days of such written request, the owner of the land may make written application to the department to hear and determine his rights in said respect. The authority, after notice to the railroad corporation, shall hear said application and all objections thereto, and make such order as shall be reasonable and just, and if it requires the railroad company to construct any crossing or roadway, fix the time for compliance with the order. The matter of costs shall be in the discretion of the authority. [S13, §2022; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8012; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.13; C77, 79, 81, §327G.12; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

[C97, §2072; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8018; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.19; C77, 79, 81, §327G.13]

327G.15 Railway and highway crossing at grade. Wherever a railway track crosses or shall hereafter cross a highway, street or alley, the railway corporation owning such track and the department, in the case of primary highways, the board of supervisors of the county in which such crossing is located, in the case of secondary roads, or the council of the city, in the case of streets and alleys located within a city, may agree upon the location, manner, vacation, physical structure, characteristics and maintenance of the crossing and flasher lights or gate arm signals at the crossing and allocation of costs thereof. The department shall become a party to the agreement if grade crossing safety funds are to be used. Up to seventy-five percent of the maintenance cost of flasher lights or gate arm signals at the crossing and an unlimited portion of the cost of installing flasher lights or gate arm signals at the crossing may be paid from the grade crossing safety fund.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, maintenance of flasher lights or gate signals installed or ordered to be installed before July 1, 1973, shall be assumed wholly by the railroad corporation.

Payments from the grade crossing safety fund shall be made by the treasurer of state upon certification by the department that the terms of the agreement have been followed.

The department shall promulgate rules according to chapter 17A for processing claims to the grade crossing safety funds.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the repair of the grade crossing surface. [R60, §1321, 1322; C73, §1262, 1263; C97, §2017, 2018; SS15, §2017; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8020, 8024, 8025; C46, §478.21, 478.25, 478.26; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.21; C77, 79, 81, §327G.15]

The authority shall promulgate rules subject to department approval for processing applications which are filed with the authority prior to a written disagreement. The authority may set a hearing date after the disagreement has been filed. [SS15, §2017; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8021; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.22; C77, 79, 81, §327G.16; 81 Acts, ch 22, §19]

The authority shall hear the evidence of each party to the controversy and shall make an order which may include, pursuant to the provisions of chapters 471 and 472 authority to condemn, resolving the controversy including what portion of the expense shall be paid by each party to such controversy. In determining what portion of the expense shall be paid by each party the authority may consider the ratio of the benefits accruing to the railroad or the governmental unit or both as it bears to the general public use and benefit and such benefits may in the case of construction be consistent with the standards adopted for similar purposes by the federal highway administration under the federal aid highway Act of 1973 as amended to July 1, 1976, [23 U.S.C. §101 et seq.]. [SS15, §2017; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8022; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.23; C77, 79, 81, §327G.17; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

If travel will be obstructed while any alterations or repairs are being made, the railroad company shall provide safe and convenient temporary ways for the public to avoid or pass such obstructions. [R60, §1321, 1324; C73, §1262, 1264; C97, §2017, 2019; SS15, §2017; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8026; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.27; C77, 79, 81, §327G.21]

327G.22 Railway crossings near Mississippi river. When in the construction of a railway it becomes necessary to cross another railway near the shore of the Mississippi river, each shall be so constructed and maintained at the point of crossing that the respective roadbeds thereof shall be above high-water mark in such river; but where the crossing occurs within the limits of any city, the council may establish the crossing grade. [C73, §1290; C97, §2059; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8027; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.28; C77, 79, 81, §327G.22]

Whenever in the judgment of the department it is necessary for the public safety, said department may require the establishment of an interlocking system or other safety device at any railroad crossing, junction or drawbridge. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8035; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §478.36; C77, 79, 81, §327G.28]

327G.29 Grade crossing surface repair fund. There is established a highway railroad grade crossing surface repair fund in the office of the treasurer of state. The department may credit to this fund:

1. Moneys appropriated to the department from the general fund of the state.
2. Moneys appropriated to the department from the road use tax fund or the primary road fund.
3. Available federal funds.
4. Moneys acquired by the department from any gift, grant, or contributions from any source.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 8.33 unencumbered funds remaining in the highway railroad grade crossing surface repair fund at the close of each fiscal year ending on June 30 shall revert to the road use tax fund. [C77, 79, 81, §327G.29]

327G.30 Adjustment of expense. If a grade crossing surface of a railroad track and a highway, street, or alley shall require repairs or maintenance, the costs for such maintenance may be paid equally by the owner of the track, the jurisdiction having primary authority over the highway, street, or alley, and the highway grade crossing surface repair fund.

If the railroad corporation and the jurisdiction having authority agree on the method of crossing maintenance and establish an agreement to each contribute one-third of the costs, a copy of the agreement shall be filed with the department which shall allocate an amount equal to one-third of the cost for the work if funds are available in the highway railroad grade crossing surface repair fund. The department shall make appropriate notification if the fund is exhausted in which case agreements shall not be made under the provisions of this section until additional funds are available. The fund shall be administered by the department.

Upon completion of the agreed repair work, a statement of costs shall be filed with the department by the railroad corporation in a form and manner prescribed by the department. The department, upon approval of the statement, shall pay to the railroad corporation an amount equal to one-third of the cost of the work from the highway railroad grade crossing surface repair fund. The owner of the track and the jurisdiction entering into the agreement shall each pay one-third of the cost. [C77, 79, 81, §327G.30]

327G.31 Disagreement resolved. If a railroad corporation and the jurisdiction having authority cannot reach agreement on grade crossing surface repair and maintenance, either party may appeal to the authority if prior to disagreement both parties have filed a statement with the department to the effect that they have entered into negotiations on grade crossing surface repair and maintenance of a particular crossing. The authority shall resolve the dispute in the manner provided in section 327G.16 and section 327G.17, except for the allocation of costs. [C77, 79, 81, §327G.31; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327G.32 Blocking highway crossing. A railroad corporation or its employees shall not operate any train in such a manner as to prevent vehicular use of any highway, street or alley for a period of time in excess of ten minutes except:

1. When necessary to comply with signals affecting the safety of the movement of trains.
2. When necessary to avoid striking any object or person on the track.

3. When the train is disabled.

4. When necessary to comply with governmental safety regulations including, but not limited to, speed ordinances and speed regulations.

Any officer or employee of a railroad corporation violating any provision of this section shall, upon conviction be subject to the penalty provided in section 327G.14. An employee shall not be guilty of such violation if his action was necessary to comply with the direct order or instructions of a railroad corporation or its supervisors. Such guilt shall then be with the railroad corporation.

This section notwithstanding, a political subdivision may pass a resolution or ordinance regulating the length of time a specific crossing may be blocked if the political subdivision demonstrates that a resolution or ordinance is necessary for public safety or convenience. If a resolution or ordinance is passed the political subdivision shall within thirty days of the effective date of the resolution or ordinance notify the authority and the railroad corporation using the crossing affected by the resolution or ordinance. The resolution or ordinance shall not become effective unless the authority and the railroad corporation are notified within thirty days. The resolution or ordinance shall become effective thirty days after notification unless a person files an objection to the resolution or ordinance with the authority. If an objection is filed the authority shall hold a hearing. The authority may disapprove the resolution or ordinance if public safety or convenience does not require a resolution or ordinance. The resolution approved by the political subdivision is prima-facie evidence that the resolution is adopted to preserve public safety or convenience.

The authority when considering rebuttal evidence shall weigh the benefits accruing to the political subdivision as it bears to the general public use compared to the burden placed on the railroad operation. Public safety or convenience may include, but shall not be limited to, high traffic density at a specific crossing of a main artery or interference with the flow of authorized emergency vehicles.

Political subdivisions shall notify the authority within sixty days of July 1, 1976, of each existing resolution or ordinance which does not conform with the provisions of this section. Political subdivisions not notifying the authority of an existing resolution or ordinance during the calendar year beginning January 1, 1976 shall have an additional sixty days after July 1, 1977 to notify the authority. Failure to do so shall render the resolution or ordinance void.

Such ordinances or resolutions may remain in effect until the authority has acted upon each ordinance or resolution under the procedures specified in this section. [C77, 79, 81, §327G.32; 81 Acts, ch 22, §20, 22]

Except as in section 327G.66, the total cost thereof as ascertained by said department shall be deposited with the railroad corporation before it shall be required to incur any expense. If an agreement cannot be reached, the question shall be referred to the authority which may after hearing issue an order. If such person, firm, corporation, or association so elects to build such spur track it shall only be required to deposit with such railroad company the estimated cost of the necessary right of way for such spur track as ascertained by the department, and the total amount stated in such written election. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8173; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §481.5; C77, 79, 81, §327G.66]

comply with any of the provisions of sections 327G.65 to 327G.67, the person, firm, corporation, or association primarily to be served thereby may file a complaint with the department setting forth the facts upon which such grievance is based. The said department after reasonable notice to the railroad company shall investigate and determine all matters in controversy and make such order as the facts in relation thereto will warrant. Any such order shall have the same force and effect as other orders made by said department in other proceedings within its jurisdiction and shall be enforced in the same manner. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8175; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §481.7; C77, 79, 81, §327G.68]

DIVISION III. REVERSION TO OWNERS UPON ABANDONMENT

Formerly Chapter 473

327G.76 Relocation of railway. Such part of a railway right of way as is wholly abandoned for railway purposes by the relocation of the line of railway, shall revert to the persons who, at the time of the abandonment, are owners of the tract from which such abandoned right of way was taken. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7861; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §473.1; C77, 79, 81, §327G.76]

327G.77 Reversion of railroad right of way.

1. If a railroad right of way acquired by condemnation is abandoned by order of the federal interstate commerce commission or the state transportation regulation authority, that right of way shall revert to owners of the adjacent properties at the time of the abandonment. If there are different owners on each side of the right of way, each owner shall take title to the center of the right of way. The provisions of section 614.24 requiring the filing of a verified claim shall not apply to the reversionary interest granted by this subsection.

2. If the state department of transportation finds that a railroad right of way is suitable for present or future rail use at least fifteen days before the effective date of an order of abandonment and the railroad right of way was acquired by condemnation, deed or conveyance and is subject to a reversionary interest, the reversion which would occur upon the abandonment of the right of way for railway purposes shall not occur until two years after the effective date of the order of abandonment by the federal interstate commerce commission or the state transportation regulation authority. During that two year period another railroad company or the state may succeed to the interest of the abandoning railroad company in the right of way if it is used for railway purposes. A railroad company or the state which succeeds to that interest shall hold that interest as long as it is used for railway purposes subject to the interests as when it was held by the abandoning railroad company. [C73, §1260; C97, §2015; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7862; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §473.2; C77, 79, 81, §327G.77; 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

327G.78 Sale of railroad property. Subject to sections 327G.77, 471.16, and 471.17, when a railroad corporation, its trustee, or successor in interest have interests in real property adjacent to a railroad right-of-way that are abandoned by order of the interstate commerce commission, reorganization court, bankruptcy court, or the authority or are otherwise abandoned as defined by section 471.15, or when a railroad corporation, trustee, or successor in interest seeks to sell its interests in that property under any other circumstance, the railroad corporation or trustee shall extend a written offer to sell at a fair market value price to the persons holding leases, licenses, or permits upon those properties, allowing sixty days from the time of receipt for a written response. If a disagreement arises between the parties concerning the price or other terms of the sale transaction, either or both parties may make written application to the authority to resolve the disagreement. The application shall be made within sixty days from the time an initial written response is served upon the railroad corporation, trustee, or successor in interest by the person wishing to purchase the property. The authority shall hear the controversy and make a final determination of the fair market value of the property and the other terms of the transaction which were in dispute within ninety days after the application is filed. All correspondence shall be by certified mail.

The decision of the authority shall be binding on the parties, except that a person who seeks to purchase such real property may withdraw the offer to purchase within thirty days of the authority's decision. If such a withdrawal is made, the railroad corporation, trustee, or successor in interest may sell or

327G.79 Valuing rail property. The authority's determination and order shall be just and equitable and in the case of the determination of the fair market value of the property, shall be based in part upon at least three independent appraisals prepared by certified appraisers. Each party shall select one appraiser and each appraisal shall be paid for by the party for whom the appraisal is prepared. The two appraisers shall select a third appraiser and the costs of this appraisal shall be divided equally between the parties. If the appraisers selected by the parties cannot agree on selection of a third appraiser, the authority shall appoint a third appraiser and the costs of this appraisal shall be divided equally between the parties.

The authority's determination and order shall be final for the purpose of administrative review to the district court as provided in chapter 17A. The district court's scope of review shall be confined to whether there is substantial evidence to support the authority's determination and order.

For purposes of this section and section 327G.78, "authority" means the transportation regulation authority. [82 Acts, ch 1207, §3]

These rules shall require that an airport applying for a certificate of registration or for a renewal shall comply with minimum standards of safety as promulgated by the department, adopt safe air traffic patterns, and demonstrate that such air traffic patterns are safely co-ordinated with those of all existing airports and approved airport sites in its vicinity before the certificates of registration or certificate of renewal may be issued. Certificates of registration or renewal may be issued subject to any conditions the department deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. The department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing as provided in chapter 17A, revoke any certificate of registration or renewal, or may refuse to issue a renewal, when it determines:

- a. That there has been an abandonment of the airport as such;
- b. That there has been a failure to comply with the conditions of the registration or renewal thereof; or

c. That because of change of physical or legal conditions or circumstances the airport has become either unsafe or unusable for the aeronautical purposes for which the registration or renewal was issued.

2. The department shall promulgate rules pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A governing the issuance by the department of certificates of airport site approval. These rules shall provide that any person or governmental subdivision desiring or planning to construct or establish an airport shall obtain a certificate of site approval prior to acquisition of the site or prior to the construction or establishment of the airport. The department shall charge a reasonable fee, based on the cost of a safety inspection of the site approval application, for the issuance of a certificate of site approval, and shall issue such a certificate if it finds:

- a. That the site is adequate for the proposed airport;
- b. That such proposed airport, if constructed or established, will conform to minimum standards of safety as promulgated by the department; and
- c. That safe air traffic patterns are established for the proposed airport which are safely co-ordinated with the traffic patterns of all existing airports and approved airport sites in its vicinity.

3. A certificate of site approval shall remain in effect until a certificate of registration has been issued to an airport located on the approved site as provided in subsection 1, unless the department, after notice and opportunity for hearing, revokes the certificate of site approval upon a finding that:

- a. There has been an abandonment of the site as an airport site;
- b. There has been a failure within two years to develop the site as an airport, or to comply with the conditions of the approval; or
- c. Because of change of physical or legal conditions or circumstances the site is no longer usable for the aeronautical purposes for which the approval was granted.

2. After said aircraft has been registered once the registration fee shall be seventy-five percent of the rate as fixed for the first registration; after two times fifty percent; and after three times twenty-five percent; provided, however, that no aircraft shall be registered for a registration fee of less than fifteen dollars.

3. Where there is no delinquency and the registration is made in August or succeeding months to and including May, the fee shall be computed on the basis of one-twelfth of the annual registration fee multiplied by the number of the unexpired months of the year and said amount shall be the fee collected. No fee shall be required for the month of June for a new aircraft, in good faith delivered in that month, providing said aircraft is registered at the time of purchase for the following year.

4. The registration fee for an aircraft operated in scheduled interstate airline operation, owned by an Iowa person and operated part-time within this state shall be a fee of thirty-five dollars. The application for registration shall be supported by such records as the department shall prescribe.

329.1 Definitions. The following words, terms, and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, have the meaning herein given, unless otherwise specifically defined, or unless another intention clearly appears, or the context otherwise requires:

1. "Airport" means any area of land or water designed and set aside for the landing and take-off of aircraft and utilized, or to be utilized, in the interest of the public for such purposes.

2. "Airport hazard" means any structure or tree or use of land which would exceed the federal obstruction standards as contained in 14 code of federal regulations sections 77.21, 77.23 and 77.25 as revised March 4, 1972, and which obstruct the air space required for the flight of aircraft and landing or take-off at an airport or is otherwise hazardous to such landing or taking off of aircraft.

3. "Airport hazard area" means any area of land or water upon which an airport hazard might be established if not prevented as provided by this chapter.

4. "Municipality" means any county or city of this state.

5. "Person" means any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

6. "Structure" means any object constructed or installed by man, including, but without limitation, buildings, towers, smokestacks, and overhead transmission lines, including the poles or other structures supporting the same.

7. "Tree" means any object of natural growth.

8. "Obstruction" means any tangible, inanimate physical object, natural or artificial, protruding above the surface of the ground.

9. "Department" means the state department of transportation.

10. The singular shall include the plural, and the plural the singular. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.1]

329.2 Airport hazards contrary to public interest. It is hereby found that an airport hazard endangers the lives and property of users of the airport and of occupants of land and other persons in its vicinity, and also, if of the obstruction type, in effect reduces the size of the area available for the landing, taking off and maneuvering of aircraft, thus tending to destroy or impair the utility of the airport and the public investment therein. Accordingly, it is hereby declared:

1. That the creation or establishment of an airport hazard is a public nuisance and an injury to the community served by the airport in question.

2. That it is necessary in the interest of the public health, safety, and general welfare that the creation or establishment of airport hazards be prevented.

3. That this should be accomplished, to the extent legally possible, by proper exercise of the police power.

4. That the prevention of the creation or establishment of airport hazards, and the elimination, removal, alteration, mitigation, or marking and lighting of existing airport hazards are public purposes for which municipalities may raise and expend public funds, as an incident to the operation of airports, to acquire land or property interests therein. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.2]

See §657 2(9)

329.3 Zoning regulations—powers granted. Every municipality having an airport hazard area within its territorial limits may adopt, administer, and enforce in the manner and upon the conditions prescribed by this chapter, zoning regulations for such airport hazard area, which regulations may divide such area into zones and, within such zones, specify the land uses permitted, and regulate and restrict, for the purpose of preventing airport hazards, the height to which structures and trees may be erected or permitted to grow. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.3]

Referred to in §329 4(2), 329.6

329.4 Extra-territorial airport hazard areas. When any airport hazard area appertaining to an airport owned or controlled by a municipality is located outside the territorial limits of said municipality:

1. Ordinances. The municipality owning or controlling the airport, and the municipality within which the airport hazard area is located, may by duly adopted ordinance adopt, administer, and enforce airport zoning regulations applicable to the airport hazard area.

2. Petition to district court. If the municipality within which is located such airport hazard area has failed or refused, within sixty days after demand has been made upon it by any municipality owning or controlling the airport, to adopt reasonably adequate airport zoning regulations under section 329.3, or to join in adopting joint airport zoning regulations as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, the municipality owning or controlling the airport may, upon a resolution of necessity therefor duly adopted by its governing body, petition the district court of the county in which such airport hazard area or any part thereof is located, in the name of the municipality owning or controlling the affected airport, praying that zoning regulations be established for the airport hazard area in question.

3. Petition—contents. Such petition shall allege all essential facts showing the necessity for bringing such action, the relief sought including proposed zoning regulations, and the necessity therefor.

4. Parties. The parties defendant in such action shall be the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and all persons having an apparent or contingent interest in the property located within such area, who may be joined in said action generally as a class.

5. Procedure. The action shall be triable in equity and in accordance with general rules of civil procedure, except that such action shall have precedence over any other business of the court except criminal cases, and the court shall set said petition for hearing not less than sixty days nor more than one hundred twenty days from the date it is filed with the clerk of said court.

6. Notice. The original notice in such action shall be served upon the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and in the same manner as original notice of any other action but not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial; and upon all other defendants by the publication of said notice in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation within the area described in the petition, or as near thereto as possible, which publication shall be in the same manner as provided for the publication of other original notices, provided, however, that the last publication thereof shall be not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial.

7. Decree and modification. Upon trial the court may enter decree establishing such zoning regulations as it shall find reasonable and necessary. The court having once taken jurisdiction of such matter shall retain continuing jurisdiction thereof for such subsequent modification as it may deem advisable, upon proper application of interested parties, and due showing made thereunder after such notice to possible adverse parties as the court shall prescribe.

8. Appeal. Any person or municipality adversely affected or aggrieved by any findings of the court may appeal therefrom as in other civil actions.

9. Enforcement. Following the entry of any final decree by the district court, and unless appeal has been taken therefrom, the zoning regulations established by such decree may be enforced, and violations thereof punished, as provided by section 329.14. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §329.4; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1050]

Referred to in §329.6

329.5 Prevention of airport hazards. Any municipality owning or controlling an airport may maintain actions in equity to restrain and abate as nuisances the creation or establishment of airport hazards appertaining to said airport, in violation of any zoning regulations adopted or established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter for any area whether within or without the territorial limits of said municipality. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.5]

See §657.2(9)

329.6 Zoning powers. If any municipality owning or controlling an airport adjacent to which there is an airport hazard area shall fail or refuse, within sixty days after demand made upon it by the department, to adopt reasonably adequate airport zoning regulations under section 329.3, or to proceed as provided in section 329.4, the department may petition the district court of the county in which such airport hazard area, or any part thereof, is located, in the name of the state, praying that zoning regulations be established for the airport hazard area in question, and the provisions of section 329.4, subsections 3 to 9, shall apply to such actions provided, however, that such municipality shall be joined as a party defendant in any such action.

The department may maintain actions in equity to restrain and abate as nuisances the creation or establishment of airport hazards appertaining to any airport within the state, in violation of any zoning regulations adopted or established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.6]

329.7 Relation to comprehensive zoning regulations. Any municipality which adopts zoning ordinances under chapter 414 or chapter 358A may incorporate therein airport hazard area zoning regulations and administer and enforce them as provided in this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §329.7; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1051]

329.8 Conflicting regulations. In the event of any conflict between any airport zoning regulations adopted or established under this chapter and any other regulations applicable to the same area, whether the conflict be with respect to the height of structures or trees, the use of land, or any other matter, the more stringent limitation or requirement shall govern and prevail. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.8]

329.9 Procedure for adopting zoning regulations—zoning commission. In adopting, amending, and repealing airport zoning regulations under this chapter the governing body of a city shall follow the procedure in sections 414.4 and 414.6 and the board of supervisors of a county shall follow the procedure in sections 358A.6 and 358A.8. The commission so appointed shall be known as the airport zoning commission. The airport zoning commission shall consist of two members from each municipality selected by the governing body and one additional member to act as chairperson and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. The terms of the members of the airport zoning commission shall be for six years excepting that when the board is first created, one of the members appointed by each municipality shall be appointed for a term of two years and one for a term of four years. Members may be removed for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose office becomes vacant in the same manner in which the member was selected. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §329.9; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1052]

329.10 Airport zoning requirements.

1. All airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall be reasonable and none shall impose any requirement or restriction which is not necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

2. No airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall require the removal, lowering, or other change or alteration of any structure or tree, or interfere with any use, not conforming to the regulations when adopted or amended, except that they may require the owner thereof to permit the municipality at its own expense to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard.

3. All such regulations shall provide that no pre-existing nonconforming structure, tree, or use, shall be replaced, rebuilt, altered, allowed to grow higher, or replanted, so as to constitute a greater airport hazard than it was when such airport zoning regulations or amendments thereto were adopted. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.10]

329.11 Variances. Any person desiring to erect or increase the height of any structure, or to permit the growth of any tree, or otherwise use his property in violation of airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter, may apply to the board of adjustment for a variance from the zoning regulations. Such variances shall be allowed where a literal application or enforcement of the regulations would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship and the relief granted would not be contrary to the public interest, but would do substantial justice and be in accordance with the spirit of the regulations and this chapter; provided, however, that any such variance may be allowed subject to any reasonable conditions that the board of adjustment may deem necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including the reservation of the right of the municipality, at its own expense, to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.11]

329.12 Board of adjustment—creation—powers—duties. The governing body of any municipality seeking to exercise powers under this chapter shall by ordinance provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, as provided in section 414.7 for a city, or as provided in section 358A.10 for a county. The board of adjustment has the same powers and duties, and its procedure and appeals are subject to the same provisions as established in sections 414.9 to 414.19 for a city, or sections 358A.12 to 358A.21 for a county.

The concurring vote of a majority of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any administrative official or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter or to effect any variance therefrom.

The board of adjustment shall consist of two members from each municipality, selected by the governing body thereof, and one additional member to act as chairman and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. Members shall be removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose office becomes vacant in the same manner in which said member was selected. The terms of the members of the board of adjustment shall be for five years, excepting that when the board shall first be created, one of the members appointed by each municipality shall be appointed for a term of two years and one for a term of four years. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §329.12; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1053]

329.13 Administration of airport zoning regulations. All airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall provide for the administration and enforcement of such regulations by an administrative agency (which may be an agency created by such regulations), or by any official, board, or other existing agency of the municipality adopting the regulations, or of one or both of the municipalities which participated therein, but in no case shall such administrative agency be or include any member of the board of adjustment. The duties of any administrative agency designated pursuant to this chapter shall not include any of the powers herein delegated to the board of adjustment. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.13]

329.14 Enforcement and remedies. Each violation of this chapter or of any regulations, order, or rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, shall constitute a simple misdemeanor and each day a violation continues to exist shall constitute a separate offense. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.14]
Referred to in §329.4(9)

329.15 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Airport Zoning Act." [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329.15]

2. The term “board” shall mean the governing body of an authority.

3. The term “municipality” shall mean any county or city of this state, and any political subdivision of any state whose borders are at any point conterminous with those of this state and whose laws shall permit the entry of and submission by such political subdivision to an authority created and operating pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

4. The term “member municipality” shall mean any municipality which shall join in the creation of an aviation authority as provided herein.

5. The term “state” shall mean the state of Iowa.

6. The term “state government” shall mean and include the state, the governor of the state, and any department thereof, or corporation, agency, or instrumentality heretofore or hereafter created, designated, or established by the state, exclusive of counties and cities.

7. The term “federal government” shall mean and include the United States of America, the president of the United States of America, and any department of, or corporation, agency, or instrumentality heretofore or hereafter created, designated, or established by the United States of America.

8. The term “aviation facilities” shall mean and include airports, buildings, structures, terminal buildings, or space hangars, lands, warehouses, or other aviation facilities of any kind or nature, or any other facilities of any kind or nature related to or connected with said airports and other aviation facilities which an authority is authorized by law to construct, acquire, own, lease, or operate, including but not limited to parking facilities, restaurants, and related facilities together with all fixtures, equipment, and property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, necessary, appurtenant, or incidental thereto.

9. The term “person” shall mean any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or similar representative thereof. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §330A.2]

330A.3 Creation. Two or more municipalities may under the provisions of this chapter enter into an agreement creating an authority in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter provided. Such authority so created shall be a joint public instrumentality and public body corporate to be known as “..... Airport Authority”, and which is hereby authorized to exercise its jurisdiction, powers, and duties as herein set forth. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §330A.3]

330A.4 Committee. Each authority shall have a committee whose duties shall consist of electing board members, as hereinafter provided, and advising the board on all matters with respect to the needs and operation of the authority. Committee membership shall be established in the following manner: Each member municipality shall appoint one person for each fifty thousand of its population or fraction thereof as shown in the last certified federal census to a committee which shall be known as the airport authority committee. In the computation of such population, a member county shall include only that portion thereof residing in the unincorporated areas of that county. Members of such a committee shall be appointed by the governing body of the member municipality they represent for a term of six years and may succeed themselves if reappointed. Each member of such committee shall qualify by taking an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. To be eligible for appointment as a member, each appointee must be a resident of the member municipality he represents and be willing to serve on the board if elected. However, no official or employee of any member municipality is eligible for such appointment. Within forty-five days after any vacancy occurs on such committee by death, resignation, change of residence or removal of any member, or from any other cause, the successor of such member shall be appointed in the same manner as his predecessor was appointed and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The committee shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall hold office for two years, and it shall also elect one of its members as secretary, who shall hold office for two years. Board membership shall be established in the following manner: Committee members shall elect in separate ballots from among their membership seven persons, provided, however, that the maximum number of municipalities is represented on said board. However, no official or employee of any member municipality is eligible for election to the board. The term of the two persons first so elected shall be for five years, of the next three persons so elected for three years, and of the next two persons so elected for one year. Thereafter, as those terms expire, the terms of successors shall be for five years. Each member of the board shall qualify by taking an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. Within forty-five days after any vacancy occurs on the board by death, resignation, change of residence or removal of any member, or from any other cause, the successor of such member shall be elected in the same manner as his predecessor was elected and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The board shall elect one of its members as chairman who shall hold office for two years, and it shall also elect one of its members as secretary, who shall hold office for two years, and it shall also elect one of its members as treasurer, who shall hold office for two years and who shall execute an adequate surety bond in a penal sum to be fixed from time to time by the authority, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the premium on which shall be paid by the authority. Board members and officers shall serve until a successor is duly elected and qualified. In no event shall a salary be paid to a board member, however, each board member shall be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties. 2. Any municipality wishing to withdraw from or to become a member of an existing authority shall signify its desire by resolution and shall publish said resolution at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation in such municipality giving notice of a hearing to be held on the question of withdrawing or joining and its intention to withdraw or join. Said resolution shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such withdrawing or joining municipality at least fourteen days prior to the date of hearing. A withdrawing municipality shall state in said resolution why it wishes to withdraw and how it intends to pay its portion of the outstanding obligation, if any. A joining municipality shall state in said resolution the information required in section 330A.6. A copy of said resolution shall be certified to the authority by the municipality at least fourteen days in advance of said hearing. After the hearing and if in the best interest of the municipality, the municipality shall enact an ordinance authorizing the withdrawing or joining. The authority shall by resolution express its consent to such withdrawal, or joining, if satisfactory provision has been made as aforesaid.

3. An application to withdraw or join shall be submitted to the authority and shall in all cases be executed by the proper officers of the withdrawing or incoming municipality under its municipal seal and accompanied by a certified copy of the authorizing ordinance, and shall be joined in by the proper officers of the governing body of the authority.

4. A municipality that joins initially or subsequently or withdraws shall file notice of such joining or withdrawal with the secretary of state and the county recorder in which such municipality is located. Upon its creation, the authority shall file with the secretary of state and with the county recorder where in each municipality or part thereof is located a copy of the agreement creating the authority. Any revenues from existing aviation facilities theretofore constructed or acquired pursuant to this chapter or existing laws, or existing aviation facilities constructed or acquired by an authority from any source may be pledged for any one or more or a combination of aviation facilities financed under this chapter, regardless of whether or not such existing aviation facilities are then being improved or financed by the proceeds of the bonds to be issued to finance the one or more or the combination of aviation facilities for which such revenues of such existing aviation facilities are to be pledged.

An authority shall have no power at any time or in any manner to pledge the taxing power of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, nor shall any of the obligations issued by an authority be deemed to be an obligation of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof secured by and payable from ad valorem taxes thereof, nor shall the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof be liable for the payment of principal of or interest on such obligations except from the special funds provided for in this chapter. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §330A.8]

1. The bonds issued by an authority pursuant to this chapter shall be authorized by resolution of the board thereof and shall be either term or serial bonds, shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A payable semiannually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or fully registered, shall carry such registration, exchangeability and interchangeability privileges, be payable in such medium of payment and at such place or places, within or without the state, be subject to such terms of redemption and be entitled to such priorities on the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of the authority as such resolution or any resolution subsequent thereto may provide. Pending the preparation of definitive bonds, interim certificates or temporary bonds may be issued to the purchaser or purchasers of such bonds, and may contain such terms and conditions as the authority may determine.

2. An authority shall have the power, at any time and from time to time after the issuance of bonds thereof shall have been authorized, to borrow money for the purposes for which such bonds are to be issued in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds and within the authorized maximum amount of such bond issue. Any such loan shall be paid within three years after the date of the initial loan. Bond anticipation notes shall be issued for all moneys so borrowed under the provisions of this section, and such notes may be renewed from time to time, but all such renewal notes shall mature within the time above limited for the payment of the initial loan. Such notes shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall be in such denomination or denominations, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate permitted by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, shall be in such form and shall be executed in such manner, all as such authority shall prescribe. ceeds; provided, however, that before the retirement of such notes by any means other than the issuance of bonds it shall amend or repeal the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, in anticipation of the proceeds of the sale of which such notes shall have been issued, so as to reduce the authorized amount of the bond issue by the amount of the notes so retired. Such amendatory or repealing resolution shall take effect upon its passage.

3. Any such resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds hereunder may contain provisions which shall be part of the contract with the holders of such bonds, as to:

a. The pledging of all or any part of the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of an authority derived by an authority from all or any of its aviation facilities.

b. The construction, improvement, operation, extensions, enlargement, maintenance, repair, or lease of such aviation facilities and the duties of an authority with reference thereto.

f. Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds.

g. The terms and provisions of any deed of trust, mortgage, or indenture securing the bonds or under which the same may be issued.

h. Any other or additional agreements with the holders of the bonds as are customary and proper and which in the judgment of an authority will make said bonds more marketable.

4. An authority may enter into any deeds of trust, mortgages, indentures, or other agreements, with any bank or trust company or any other lender within or without the state as security for such bonds, and may assign and pledge all or any of the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of an authority thereunder. Such deeds of trust, mortgages, indentures, or other agreements, may contain such provisions as may be customary in such instruments, or, as an authority may authorize, including, but without limitation, provisions as to:

a. The construction, improvement, operation, leasing, maintenance, and repair of the aviation facilities and duties of an authority with reference thereto.

b. The application of funds and the safeguarding and investment of funds on hand or on deposit.

c. The appointment of consulting engineers or architects and approval thereof by the holders of the bonds.

d. The rights and remedies of said trustee and the holders of the bonds.

3. The board may redesignate supervisor districts only once in two years. If the board redesignates districts, the redesignation must be completed and available to the public by December 15 of the year before the election to be applicable in that election year. DIVISION III

POWERS AND DUTIES OF A COUNTY

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES

331.301 General powers and limitations.

1. A county may, except as expressly limited by the Constitution, and if not inconsistent with the laws of the general assembly, exercise any power and perform any function it deems appropriate to protect and preserve the rights, privileges, and property of the county or of its residents, and to preserve and improve the peace, safety, health, welfare, comfort, and convenience of its residents. This grant of home rule powers does not include the power to enact private or civil law governing civil relationships, except as incident to an exercise of an independent county power.

2. A power of a county is vested in the board, and a duty of a county shall be performed by or under the direction of the board except as otherwise provided by law.

3. The enumeration of a specific power of a county, the repeal of a grant of power, or the failure to state a specific power does not limit or restrict the general grant of home rule power conferred by the Constitution and this section. A county may exercise its general powers subject only to limitations expressly imposed by a state law.

4. An exercise of a county power is not inconsistent with a state law unless it is irreconcilable with the state law.

5. A county shall substantially comply with a procedure established by a state law for exercising a county power unless a state law provides otherwise. If a procedure is not established by state law, a county may determine its own procedure for exercising the power.

6. A county shall not set standards and requirements which are lower or less stringent than those imposed by state law, but may set standards and requirements which are higher or more stringent than those imposed by state law, unless a state law provides otherwise.

7. A county shall not levy a tax unless specifically authorized by a state statute.

8. A county is a body corporate for civil and political purposes and shall have a seal as provided in section 331.552, subsection 4.

9. Supervisors and other county officers may administer oaths and take affirmations as provided in chapter 78. [C51, §93; R60, §221; C73, §279; C97, §394; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5128; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §332.1; S81, §331.301; 81 Acts, ch 117, §300]

331.302 County legislation.

1. The board shall exercise a power or perform a duty only by the passage of a motion, a resolution, an amendment, or an ordinance.

2. A county shall not provide a penalty in excess of a one hundred dollar fine or in excess of thirty days imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance.

3. The subject matter of an ordinance or amendment shall be generally described in its title.

4. An amendment to an ordinance or to a code of ordinances shall specifically repeal the ordinance or code, or the section or subsection to be amended, and shall set forth in full the ordinance, code, section or subsection as amended.

5. A proposed ordinance or amendment shall be considered and voted on for passage at two meetings of the board prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors.

However, if a summary of the proposed ordinance or amendment is published as provided in section 331.305 prior to its first consideration and copies are available at the time of publication at the office of the auditor, the ordinance or amendment shall be considered and voted on for passage at one meeting prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors.

6. Passage of an ordinance, amendment, or resolution requires an affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors. Each supervisor's vote on an ordinance, amendment, or resolution shall be recorded.

7. A resolution becomes effective upon passage and an ordinance or amendment becomes a law when published, unless a subsequent effective date is provided within the measure.

8. The auditor shall promptly record each measure, publish all ordinances and amendments as provided in section 331.305, authenticate all measures except motions with signature and certification as to time and manner of publication, if any, and maintain for public use copies of all effective ordinances and codes. The auditor's certification is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein.

9. At least once every five years, the board shall compile a code of ordinances containing all of the county ordinances in effect.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains only existing ordinances edited and compiled without change in substance, the board may adopt the code by ordinance.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains a proposed new ordinance or amendment, the board shall hold a public hearing on the proposed code before adoption. The auditor shall publish notice of the hearing as provided in section 331.305. Copies of the proposed code of ordinances shall be available at the auditor's office and the notice shall so state. Within thirty days after the hearing, the board may adopt the proposed code of ordinances which becomes law upon publication of the ordinance adopting it. If the board substantially amends the proposed code of ordinances after a hearing, notice and hearing shall be repeated.

Ordinances and amendments which become effective after adoption of a code of ordinances may be compiled as a supplement to the code, and upon adoption of the supplement by resolution, become part of the code of ordinances.

An adopted code of ordinances is presumptive evidence of the passage, publication, and content of the ordinances therein as of the date of the auditor's certification of the ordinance adopting the code or supplement.

10. The compensation paid to a newspaper for a publication required by this section shall not exceed three-fourths of the fee provided in section 618.11.

11. The board may adopt the provisions of a statewide or nationally recognized standard code or portions of any such code by an ordinance which identifies the code by subject matter, source, and date, and incorporates the provisions either by reference or by setting them forth in full. The code or portion shall be adopted only after notice and hearing in the manner provided in subsection 9.

12. Immediately after the effective date of a measure establishing a zoning district, building lines, or fire limits, the auditor shall certify the measure and a plat showing the district, lines, or limits, to the recorder. The recorder shall record the measure and plat in the miscellaneous record or other book provided for special records, and shall index the record.

13. A measure voted upon is not invalid because a supervisor has a conflict of interest, unless the vote of the supervisor was decisive to passage of the measure. If a majority or unanimous vote of the board is required by statute, the majority or vote shall be computed on the basis of the number of supervisors not disqualified by reason of conflict of interest. However, a majority of all supervisors is required for a quorum. For the purposes of this subsection, the statement of a supervisor that the supervisor declines to vote by reason of conflict of interest is conclusive and shall be entered of record.

14. A valid measure adopted by a county prior to July 1, 1981 remains valid unless the measure is irreconcilable with a state law.

26. a. For ambulance service, not to exceed twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars, if the county general fund levy authorized by section 331.421, subsection 17, is at the maximum amount permitted by that subsection, the board has exhausted its right of appeal under section 24.48, and the board finds by resolution that it is not feasible to support ambulance service from the general fund. However:

(1) If the board has budgeted an amount from the general fund to support ambulance service which is less than the amount that would be raised in the county by a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, and the board finds by resolution that it is not feasible to provide additional support for ambulance service from the general fund, the board may levy under this subsection an amount not more than the difference between the proceeds of a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in the county and the amount budgeted from the general fund to support ambulance service.

(2) If the county has established a county general hospital under chapter 347 and the board of trustees of that hospital has budgeted for support of ambulance service some part of the proceeds of a levy for operation and maintenance of the hospital, made under section 347.7, and the board of trustees finds by resolution that it is not feasible to provide additional support for ambulance service from the proceeds of that levy, the board of supervisors may levy under this subsection an amount not more than the difference between the proceeds of a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in the county and the amount budgeted to support ambulance service from the county general hospital operation and maintenance levy. A tax levied under this subparagraph is not applicable to a township in which ambulance service is being provided by the township trustees pursuant to section 359.42.

b. The board shall not make a levy under this subsection unless authorized to do so by a referendum held in the county concurrently with a general election. When so directed by the board, at least fifty-five days before the next general election, the county commissioner of elections shall submit to the voters of the county at that general election a question in substantially the following form:

"Shall the board of supervisors of county be authorized to levy a tax of not more than twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed value to support ambulance service, in the manner and subject to the restrictions provided in paragraph “a” of this subsection, each year for four years beginning next July 1?”

If the question receives the affirmative vote of a majority of all electors voting for and against it, the board may levy a tax as provided in paragraph “a” of this subsection in the county budget year beginning July 1 following the general election at which the referendum is held, and in each of the four succeeding county budget years.

c The support of the ambulance service authorized under this subsection shall be assessed on a proportionate basis by which each taxing unit shall bear its share in the proportion that its population is to the total population of all taxing units receiving the ambulance service within the county. The board shall estimate annually the amount necessary for the support of the ambulance service and shall transmit the estimate in dollars to the city councils within the county in which the ambulance service is provided. A city may be excluded from the ambulance service by resolution of the city council. The unincorporated area of the county, excluding any township which provides ambulance service as provided under section 359.42, is a separate taxing unit. Each city which receives ambulance service under this subsection is a separate taxing unit. The board and the council of each city receiving ambulance service under this subsection shall certify or make the necessary levies as provided in this paragraph for the support of the ambulance services, subject to the tax levy limitation and requirements of paragraph “a” or “b” of this subsection.

d As used in this subsection, ambulance service includes services provided by a rescue unit of a fire or public safety department.

27. For planning a sanitary disposal project as defined in section 455B.301, or for acquiring, constructing, operating, and maintaining sanitary land fills, not to exceed, in conjunction with levies for the debt service fund for the same purpose, six and three-fourths cents per thousand dollars on property outside of cities only.

28. For flood and erosion control, including acquisition of land or interests in land, repair, alteration, maintenance, and operation of works of improvement for flood and erosion control, not to exceed six and three-fourths cents per thousand dollars on agricultural land only.

29. For insurance to cover the liability of the county or its officers as provided in sections 613A.2 and 613A.8, the amount of premium costs, which may be levied in excess of any tax limitation imposed by statute.

30. For an improvement account established under section 331.424, subsection 4, an amount in accordance with that subsection.

31. For other purposes as provided by state law.

1. A county indemnification fund is created in the office of the treasurer of state, to be used to indemnify and pay on behalf of any county officer, township trustee, deputy, assistant, or employee of the county or the township, all sums that the person is legally obligated to pay because of an error or omission in the performance of official duties, except that the first five hundred dollars of each claim shall not be paid from this fund. All funds remaining in the county indemnification fund created under prior Codes as of July 1, 1981, are transferred to the county indemnification fund under this section.

2. The fund does not relieve an insurer issuing insurance under section 613A.7 from paying a loss incurred. An insurer shall not be subrogated to the assets of the fund regardless of provisions in a policy of insurance.

3. If the balance in the fund on September 30 is less than six hundred thousand dollars, the treasurer of state shall notify the board of each county to levy the amount authorized in section 331.421, subsection 7.

4. Not later than December 15 or June 15 of a year in which the tax is collected, the county auditor shall transmit the amount of the tax levied and collected, by warrant, to the treasurer of state who shall credit it to the county indemnification fund. The treasurer of state shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other public funds and shall credit interest received from that investment to the county indemnification fund.

5. A claim for an act or omission of a county officer, township trustee, deputy, assistant, or employee of the county or the township, which occurred after July 1, 1978, shall be processed in accordance with chapter 613A and paid from the fund, except that payment of a claim, except a final judgment, in excess of fifteen hundred dollars must have the unanimous approval of all members of the state appeal board, the attorney general, and the district court of Polk county.

6. If a final judgment is obtained against a county officer, township trustee, deputy, assistant, or employee of the county or the township, for an act or omission which occurred subsequent to July 1, 1978, which is payable from the county indemnification fund, the county attorney shall ascertain if an insurance policy exists indemnifying the person against the judgment or any part of it. If no insurance exists, or if the judgment exceeds the limits of insurance, the county attorney shall submit a claim to the state comptroller against the county indemnification fund on behalf of the plaintiff for the amount of the judgment exceeding the amount recoverable by reason of the insurance. The state comptroller shall promptly issue a warrant payable to the plaintiff for that amount, and the treasurer of state shall pay the warrant. Payment discharges the person from liability for that act or omission. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §332.36–332.41; S81, §331.427; 81 Acts, ch 117, §426]

331.428 Debt service fund.

1. A county shall establish a debt service fund and shall certify taxes to be levied for the debt service fund in the amount necessary, subject to specific levy limitations in this part, to pay:

a. Judgments against the county, except those authorized by state law to be paid from other funds.

b. Interest as it becomes due and the amount necessary to pay, or to create a sinking fund to pay, the principal at maturity of all general obligation bonds issued by the county.

2. Moneys pledged or available to service general obligation bonds, and received from sources other than property taxes, shall be deposited in the debt service fund.

3. A tax levied for the debt service fund is not invalid if it raises moneys in excess of those needed for a specific purpose. Only excess moneys remaining after retirement of all indebtedness payable from the fund may be transferred from the debt service fund to the fund most closely related to the project for which the indebtedness arose, or to the general fund, subject to the terms of the original bond issue.

4. When the amount in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the debt service fund, after setting aside the sum required to pay interest maturing before the next levy, is sufficient to redeem one or more bonds which by their terms are subject to redemption, the treasurer shall notify the owner of the bonds. If the bonds are not presented for payment or redemption within thirty days after the date of notice, the interest on the bonds shall cease, and the amount due shall be set aside for payment when presented. Redemptions shall be made in the order of the bond numbers. 1. Two or more counties may execute an agreement under chapter 28E to create a joint county indigent defense fund to be used to compensate attorneys appointed to represent indigents under section 331.778 when funds budgeted for that purpose are exhausted. In addition to other requirements of an agreement under chapter 28E, the agreement shall provide for the amount to be paid by each county based on its population to establish and maintain an appropriate balance in the joint fund, and for a method of repayment if a county withdraws more funds than it has contributed.

2. The amount to be paid by each county under the agreement may be paid from property taxes levied or from any other funds available to the county for that purpose. [82 Acts, ch 1224, §1]

331.442 General county purpose bonds.

1 A county which proposes to carry out any general county purpose within or without its boundaries, and to contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds to provide funds to pay all or any part of the costs of a project, shall do so in accordance with this part

2 Before the board may institute proceedings for the issuance of bonds for a general county purpose, it shall call a county special election to vote upon the question of issuing the bonds. At the election the proposition shall be submitted in the following form at a total cost not exceeding $ _____ and issue its general obligation bonds in an amount not exceeding $ _____ for that purpose?"

"Shall the county of _____ state of Iowa be authorized to

3 Notice of the election shall be given by publication as specified in section 331 305. At the election the ballot used for the submission of the proposition shall be in substantially the form for submitting special questions at general elections

4 The proposition of issuing bonds for a general county purpose is not carried or adopted unless the vote in favor of the proposition is equal to at least sixty percent of the total vote cast for and against the proposition at the election. If the proposition of issuing the general county purpose bonds is approved by the voters, the board may proceed with the issuance of the bonds

5 a Notwithstanding subsection 2, a board, in lieu of calling an election, may institute proceedings for the issuance of bonds for a general county purpose by causing a notice of the proposal to issue the bonds, including a statement of the amount and purpose of the bonds, and the right to petition for an election, to be published as provided in section 331 305 at least ten days prior to the meeting at which it is proposed to take action for the issuance of the bonds subject to the following limitations

(1) In counties having a population of twenty thousand or less, in an amount of not more than fifty thousand dollars

(2) In counties having a population of over twenty thousand and not over fifty thousand, in an amount of not more than one hundred thousand dollars

(3) In counties having a population of over fifty thousand, in an amount of not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars

b If at any time before the date fixed for taking action for the issuance of the bonds, a petition is filed with the auditor in the manner provided by section 331 306 asking that the question of issuing the bonds be submitted to the qualified electors of the county, the board shall either by resolution declare the proposal to issue the bonds to have been abandoned or shall direct the county commissioner of elections to call a special election upon the question of issuing the bonds. Notice of the election and its conduct shall be in the manner provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4

c If no petition is filed, or if a petition is filed and the proposition of issuing the bonds is approved at an election, the board may proceed with the authorization and issuance of the bonds [C31, 35, §5903 c5, C39, §5903.05; C46, 50, §330 7, C54, 58, §330 7, C62, 66, §111A 6, 330 7, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §111A 6, 313A 35, 330 7, 346A 3, S81, §331 442, 81 Acts, ch 117, §441, 82 Acts, ch 1104, §47]

1 A county which proposes to carry out an essential county purpose within or without its boundaries, and to contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds to provide funds to pay all or any part of the cost of a project shall do so in accordance with this part

2 Before the board may institute proceedings for the issuance of bonds for an essential county purpose, a notice of the proposed action, including a statement of the amount and purposes of the bonds, and the time and place of the meeting at which the board proposes to take action for the issuance of the bonds, shall be published as provided in section 331.305. At the meeting, the board shall receive oral or written objections from any resident or property owner of the county. After all objections have been received and considered, the board, at that meeting or a date to which it is adjourned, may take additional action for the issuance of the bonds or abandon the proposal to issue the bonds. Any resident or property owner of the county may appeal the decision of the board to take additional action to the district court of the county, within fifteen days after the additional action is taken, but the additional action of the board is final and conclusive unless the court finds that the board exceeded its authority. The provisions of this subsection with respect to notice, hearing, and appeal, are in lieu of any other law. [S81, §331.443; 81 Acts, ch 117, §442]

2. General obligation funding or refunding bonds issued for the purposes specified in section 331.441, subsection 2, paragraph “b”, subparagraph (7), may be exchanged for the evidences of the legal indebtedness being funded or refunded, or the funding or refunding bonds may be sold in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and the proceeds applied to the payment of the indebtedness. Funding or refunding bonds may bear interest at the same rate as, or at a higher or lower rate or rates of interest than the indebtedness being funded or refunded. 331.445 Categories for general obligation bonds.

The board may issue general obligation bonds pursuant to a resolution adopted at a regular or special meeting by a majority of the total number of supervisors. Each subparagraph of section 331.441, subsection 2, paragraphs “b” and “c”, describes a separate category. Separate categories of essential county purposes and of general county purposes may be incorporated in a single notice of intention to institute proceedings for the issuance of bonds, or separate categories may be incorporated in separate notices, and after an opportunity has been provided for filing objections, or after a favorable election has been held, if required, the board may include in a single resolution and sell as a single issue of bonds, any number or combination of essential county purposes or general county purposes. If an essential county purpose is combined with a general county purpose in a single notice of intention to institute proceedings to issue bonds, then the entire issue is subject to the election requirement in section 331.442. a The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year shall not exceed the maximum rate of tax, if any, provided by this division for the purpose for which the bonds were issued. If general obligation bonds are issued for different categories, as provided in section 331.445, the maximum rate of levies, if any, for each purpose shall apply separately to that portion of the bond issue for that category and the resolution authorizing the bond issue shall clearly set forth the annual debt service requirements with respect to each purpose in sufficient detail to indicate compliance with the rate of tax levy, if any.

b The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year may only exceed the statutory rate of levy limit, if any, by the amount that the qualified electors of the county have approved at a special election, which may be held at the same time as the general election and may be included in the proposition authorizing the issuance of bonds, if an election on the proposition is necessary, or may be submitted as a separate proposition at the same election or at a different election. Notice of the election shall be given as specified in section 331.305. If the proposition includes issuing bonds and increasing the levy limit, it shall be in substantially the following form:

general obligation bonds in an amount not exceeding $ _____ for that purpose, and be authorized to levy annually a tax not exceeding _____ dollars and _____ cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property within the county to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds?"

If the proposition includes only increasing the levy limit it shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall the county of _____, state of Iowa, be authorized to levy annually a tax not exceeding _____ dollars and _____ cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property within the county to pay principal and interest on the bonded indebtedness of the county for the purpose of _____?"

2. A statutory or voted tax levy limitation does not limit the source of payment of bonds and interest, but only restricts the amount of bonds which may be issued.

3. For the sole purpose of computing the amount of bonds which may be issued as the result of the application of a statutory or voted tax levy limitation, all interest on the bonds in excess of that accruing in the first twelve months may be excluded from the first annual levy of taxes, so that the need for including more than one year's interest on the first annual levy of taxes to pay the bonds and interest does not operate to further restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued, and in certifying the annual levies, the first annual levy of taxes shall be sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on the bonds becoming due prior to the next succeeding annual levy and the full amount of the annual levy shall be entered for collection as provided in chapter 76. 1. An action shall not be brought which questions the legality of general obligation bonds or the power of the county to issue the bonds or the effectiveness of any proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of the bonds from and after sixty days from the time the bonds are ordered issued by the county.

2. The enumeration in this part of specified powers and functions is not a limitation of the powers of counties, but this part and the procedures prescribed for exercising the powers and functions enumerated in this part control in the event of a conflict with any other law. 331.462 County enterprises—combined county enterprises.

1. A county which proposes to establish, own, acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, lease, sell, construct, reconstruct, extend, remodel, improve, repair, equip, maintain and operate within or without its corporate limits a county enterprise or combined county enterprise financed by revenue bonds shall do so in accordance with this part.

2. If a combined county enterprise is dissolved, each county enterprise which was a part of the combined county enterprise shall continue in existence as a separate county enterprise until it is abandoned by the board.

3. A combined county enterprise may be established, but if there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of any county enterprise involved, the obligations shall be assumed by the board subject to all terms established at the time of the original issue, or refunded through the issuance of revenue bonds of the combined county enterprise as a part of the procedure for the establishment of the combined county enterprise, or funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity shall be set aside and pledged for that purpose. Revenues earmarked for payment of the obligations shall be handled by the board in the same manner as they were handled for the county enterprise involved. A county enterprise shall not be abandoned and a combined county enterprise shall not be dissolved so long as there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise unless funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity have been set aside and pledged for that purpose. [S81, §331.462; 81 Acts, ch 117, §461]

331.463 Procedure for financing.

1. The board may carry out projects, borrow money, and issue revenue bonds and pledge orders to pay all or part of the cost of projects, the revenue bonds and pledge orders to be payable solely out of the net revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise involved in the project. The cost of a project includes the construction contracts, interest upon the revenue bonds and pledge orders during the period or estimated period of construction and for twelve months thereafter, or for twelve months after the acquisition date, reserve funds as the board deems advisable in connection with the project and the issuance of revenue bonds and pledge orders, and the costs of engineering, architectural, technical and legal services, preliminary reports, surveys, property valuations, estimates, plans, specifications, notices, acquisition of real and personal property, consequential damages or costs, easements, rights of way, supervision, inspection, testing, publications, printing and sale of bonds and provisions for contingencies. The board may sell revenue bonds or pledge orders at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and may deliver revenue bonds and pledge orders to the contractors, sellers, and other persons furnishing materials and services constituting a part of the cost of the project in payment therefor.

The board may deliver its revenue bonds to the federal government or any agency thereof which has loaned the county money for sanitary or solid waste projects, water projects, or other projects, for which the government has a loan program.

2. The board may issue revenue bonds to refund revenue bonds, pledge orders, and other obligations which are by their terms payable from the net revenues of the same county enterprise or combined county enterprise, or from a county enterprise comprising a part of the combined county enterprise, at lower, the same, or higher rates of interest. A county may sell refunding revenue bonds at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and apply the proceeds to the payment of the obligations being refunded, and may exchange refunding revenue bonds in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The principal amount of refunding revenue bonds may exceed the principal amount of the obligations being refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the obligations being refunded and to fund interest accrued and to accrue on the obligations being refunded.

3. The board may contract to pay not to exceed ninety-five percent of the engineer's estimated value of the acceptable work completed during the month to the contractor at the end of each month for work, material, or services. Payment may be made in warrants drawn on any fund from which payment for the work may be made. If such funds are depleted, anticipatory warrants may be issued bearing a rate of interest not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A even if a collection of taxes or special assessments or income from the sale of bonds which have been authorized and are applicable to the public improvement takes place after the fiscal year in which the warrants are issued. If the board arranges for the private sale of anticipatory warrants, they may be sold and the proceeds used to pay the contractor. The warrants may also be used to pay other persons furnishing services constituting a part of the cost of the public improvement. [S81, §331.463; 81 Acts, ch 117, §462; 82 Acts, ch 1104, §50]

1. The board may issue revenue bonds pursuant to a resolution adopted at a regular or special meeting by a majority of the total number of members of the board.

2. Before the board institutes proceedings for the issuance of revenue bonds, it shall fix a time and place of meeting at which it proposes to take action, and give notice by publication in the manner directed in section 331.305. The notice must include a statement of the time and place of the meeting, the maximum amount of the proposed revenue bonds, the purpose for which the revenue bonds will be issued, and the county enterprise or combined county enterprise whose net revenues will be used to pay the revenue bonds and interest thereon. At the meeting the board shall receive oral or written objections from any resident or property owner of the county. After all objections have been received and considered, the board, at the meeting or a date to which it is adjourned, may take additional action for the issuance of the bonds or abandon the proposal to issue bonds. Any resident or property owner of the county may appeal a decision of the board to take additional action to the district court of the county within fifteen days after the additional action is taken, but the additional action of the board is final and conclusive unless the court finds that the board exceeded its authority. The provisions of this subsection with respect to notice, hearing, and appeal are in lieu of those contained in any other law.

3. Revenue bonds may bear dates, bear interest at rates not exceeding those permitted by chapter 74A, mature in one or more installments, be in either coupon or registered form, carry registration and conversion privileges, be payable as to principal and interest at times and places, be subject to terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, and be in one or more denominations, all as provided by the resolution of the board authorizing their issuance. The resolution may also prescribe additional provisions, terms, conditions, and covenants which the board deems advisable, consistent with this part, including provisions for creating and maintaining reserve funds, the issuance of additional revenue bonds ranking on a parity with such revenue bonds and additional revenue bonds junior and subordinate to such revenue bonds, and that such revenue bonds shall rank on a parity with or be junior and subordinate to any revenue bonds which may be then outstanding. Revenue bonds are a contract between the county and holders and the resolution is a part of the contract.

4. Revenue bonds shall be executed by the chairperson of the board and the auditor. If coupons are attached to the revenue bonds, they shall be executed with the original or facsimile signature of the auditor. A revenue bond is valid and binding for all purposes if it bears the signatures of the officers in office on the date of the execution of the bonds notwithstanding that any or all persons whose signatures appear have ceased to be such officers prior to the delivery of the bonds. The issuance of revenue bonds shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer, and a certificate of the recording by the treasurer shall be printed on the back of each revenue bond.

5. Revenue bonds, pledge orders and warrants issued under this part are negotiable instruments.

6. The board may issue pledge orders pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of supervisors, at a regular or special meeting, ordering their issuance and delivery in payment for all or part of the cost of a project. Pledge orders may bear interest at rates not exceeding those permitted by chapter 74A.

7. The physical properties of a county enterprise or combined county enterprise shall not be pledged or mortgaged to secure the payment of revenue bonds or pledge orders or the interest thereon. [S81, §331.464; 81 Acts, ch 117, §463]

The board may establish, impose, adjust, and provide for the collection of rates to produce gross revenues at least sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise and, if revenue bonds or pledge orders are issued and outstanding under this part, shall establish, impose, adjust, and provide for the collection of rates to produce gross revenues at least sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise, and to leave a balance of net revenues sufficient at all times to pay the principal of and interest on the revenue bonds and pledge orders as they become due and to maintain a reasonable reserve for the payment of the principal and interest, and a sufficient portion of net revenues shall be pledged for that purpose. Rates shall be established by ordinance. Rates or charges for the services of a county enterprise defined in section 331.461, subsection 1, paragraph "b", if not paid as provided by ordinance, constitute a lien upon the premises served and may be certified to the auditor and collected in the same manner as taxes.

2. The board may:

a. By ordinance establish, impose, adjust and provide for the collection of charges for connection to a county enterprise or combined county enterprise.

b. Contract for the use of or services provided by a county enterprise or combined county enterprise with persons whose type or quantity of use or service is unusual.

c. Lease for a period not to exceed fifteen years all or part of a county enterprise or combined county enterprise, if the lease will not reduce the net revenues to be produced by the county enterprise or combined county enterprise.

d. Contract for a period not to exceed forty years with other governmental bodies for the use of or the services provided by the county enterprise or combined county enterprise on a wholesale basis.

e. Contract for a period not to exceed forty years with persons including but not limited to other governmental bodies for the purchase or sale of water. [S81, §331.465; 81 Acts, ch 117, §464]

The treasurer shall apply the gross revenues of each county enterprise or combined county enterprise only as ordered by the board and in strict compliance with the orders, including the provisions, terms, conditions and covenants of any and all resolutions of the board pursuant to which revenue bonds or pledge orders are issued and outstanding. [S81, §331.466; 81 Acts, ch 117, §465]

1. The pledge of any net revenues of a county enterprise or combined county enterprise is valid and effective as to all persons including but not limited to other governmental bodies when it becomes valid and effective between the county and the holders of the revenue bonds or pledge orders.

2. Revenue bonds and pledge orders are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the portion of the net revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise pledged to their payment and are not a debt of or charge against the county within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation provision.

3. The sole remedy for a breach or default of a term of a revenue bond or pledge order is a proceeding in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this part and of the terms of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or pledge orders, or to obtain the appointment of a receiver to take possession of and operate the county enterprise or combined county enterprise, and to perform the duties required by this part and the terms of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or pledge orders. 2. This part does not prohibit or prevent the board from using funds derived from the issuance of general obligation bonds, the levy of special assessments and the issuance of special assessment bonds, and any other source which may be properly used for such purpose, to pay a part of the cost of a project.

3. The county shall pay for the use of or the services provided by the county enterprise or combined county enterprise as any other customer, except that the county may pay for use or service at a reduced rate or receive free use or service so long as the county complies with the provisions, terms, conditions and covenants of all resolutions pursuant to which revenue bonds or pledge orders are issued and outstanding. 2. The enumeration in this part of specified powers and functions is not a limitation of the powers of counties, but this part and the procedures prescribed for exercising the powers and functions enumerated in this part control in the event of a conflict with any other law. Projects commenced prior to July 1, 1981 may be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds, pledge orders, and other temporary obligations under any such amended or repealed law or by the issuance of revenue bonds and pledge orders under this part. For purposes of this section, commencement of a project includes but is not limited to action taken by the board or an authorized officer to fix a date for either a hearing or an election in connection with any part of the project, and commencement of proceedings for the issuance of revenue bonds, pledge orders, and other temporary obligations includes, but is not limited to, action taken by the board to fix a date for either a hearing or a sale in connection with any part of such revenue bonds, pledge orders, or other temporary obligations or to order any part thereof to be issued [S81, §331 470, 81 Acts, ch 117, §469]

1 As used in this section, "commission" means a commission established under this section to manage a county enterprise or combined county enterprise. Upon receipt of a valid petition as defined in section 331 306 requesting that a proposal for establishment or discontinuance of a commission be submitted to the voters, or upon its own motion, the board shall submit the proposal at the next general election or at an election which includes a proposal to establish, acquire, lease, or dispose of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise.

4 If a proposal to establish a commission receives a favorable majority vote, the commission is established at the time provided in the proposal. The board shall appoint the commission members, as provided in the proposal and this section. 2. "Commissioner" means a member of the commission defined in subsection 1.
3. "County" means a single county or several counties combined for the purposes enumerated in section 341A.3. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.1]

341A.2 Civil service commission. Subject to the alternate plan enumerated in section 341A.3, there is created in each county a civil service commission composed of three members. One member shall be appointed by the county board of supervisors, one member shall be appointed by the presiding district court judge of each county, and one member shall be appointed by the county attorney of each county. Commission members shall be appointed within sixty days after August 15, 1973. Appointees to the commission shall be residents of the county for at least two years immediately preceding appointment, and shall be electors. Terms of office shall be six years, however, the initial members of the commission shall be appointed as follows:

The member appointed by the board of supervisors shall serve for a period of two years, the member appointed by the county attorney shall serve for a period of four years, and the member appointed by the district court judge shall serve for a period of six years.

Any member of the commission may be removed by the appointing authority for incompetence, dereliction of duty, malfeasance in office, or for other good cause, however, no member of the commission shall be removed until apprised in writing of the nature of the charges against him and a hearing on such charges has been held before the board of supervisors. In the event a vacancy occurs in the commission for any reason other than expiration of the term, an appointment to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be made in the same manner as the original appointment.

A majority vote of the membership of the commission shall be sufficient to transact the business of the commission. Not more than two commissioners shall be members of the same political party. Commissioners shall hold no elective or other appointive public office during their terms of appointment to the commission. Commissioners shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary expense and mileage incurred in the actual performance of their duties. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.2]

341A.3 Combined civil service system. Any combination of counties in this state may, by resolution of the boards of supervisors in each county, establish a combined civil service system to serve such counties. The specific terms of the agreement regarding the operation of the combined civil service system, including the appointment of qualified commissioners, and any other matters pertinent to the operation of such system shall be contained in the resolutions adopted by the respective boards of supervisors of the participating counties. Counties participating in a combined civil service system need not be contiguous.

Appointment of commissioners in combined counties shall be by joint meeting of the boards of supervisors, district court judges, and county attorneys, respectively. Each group meeting jointly shall appoint one commissioner whose term shall be six years, except that initial terms shall be as provided in section 341A.2. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.3]

341A.4 Statutory authority. If a county or combination of counties has a civil service commission, this commission shall serve as the commission established by this chapter and shall have all the powers and duties provided by this chapter.

If more than one civil service commission exists, the one from the county with the largest population shall serve as the commission under this chapter. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.4]

341A.5 Organization The commission shall hold an organizational meeting immediately after its establishment and shall elect one of its members as chairman. The commission shall hold regular meetings at least once every three months, and may hold such additional meetings as may be required in the fulfillment of its responsibilities. All commission meetings shall be public meetings.

The commission shall appoint a personnel director who shall act as its secretary and such other personnel as may be necessary. The personnel director shall keep and preserve all records of the commission, including reports submitted to it and examinations held under its direction, advise the commission in all matters pertaining to the civil service system, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. The commission may add the personnel director's duties to a presently employed county employee. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.5]

341A.6 Powers and duties. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

1 To adopt, and amend as necessary, rules pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, which shall specify the manner in which examinations are to be held and appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions, and discharges are to be made. The rules may make such other provisions regarding personnel administration and practices as are necessary or desirable in carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The commission rules, and their amendments, shall be printed and made available without cost to the public.

2 To administer practical tests designed to determine the ability of persons examined to perform the duties of the position for which they are seeking appointment. Such tests shall be designed and prepared by the director of the Iowa law enforcement academy, shall be administered by each commission in a uniform manner prescribed by the director, and shall be consistent with standards established pursuant to chapter 80B governing standards for employment of Iowa law enforcement officers. Notice of such tests shall be posted in the office of the sheriff and the office of the board of supervisors not less than thirty days prior to giving such tests.

3 To conduct and prepare annual investigations and reports concerning the effectiveness of, and compliance with, the provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted by the commission, and pursuant thereto, to inspect all departments, offices, and positions of employment affected by this chapter. In making such investigations a commissioner or the personnel director may administer oaths, issue subpoenas and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, and accounts pertaining to such investigation, and may also cause the deposition of witnesses to be taken as in civil actions in the district court.

4 To conduct informal hearings concerning matters contemplated by this chapter. The validity of any such hearing shall not be affected by the manner in which it is conducted, however, a majority of the commissioners shall affirm all orders, rules, and decisions made pursuant to such hearings.

5 To hear and determine appeals or complaints respecting the allocation of positions of employment, rejection of those persons certified to the sheriff for appointment and such other matters as may be referred to the commission.

6 To arrange, compile, and administer competitive tests to determine the relative qualifications of persons seeking employment in any class of position and as a result thereof establish eligible lists for the various classes of positions, and provide that persons discharged because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and for like causes, head the list in the order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be re-employed. Notice of competitive tests to be given shall be published at least two weeks prior to holding the tests in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which a vacancy exists.

7 To certify to the county sheriff when a vacant position is to be filled, on written request, a list of the names of the persons passing the examination.

8 To keep such records as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

9 To classify deputy sheriffs and subdivide them into groups according to rank and grade which shall be based upon the duties and responsibilities of the deputy sheriffs.

10 To purchase all necessary supplies, enter into contracts, and do all things necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

11 To keep records of the service of each employee in the classified service. These records shall contain facts and statements on all matters relating to the character and quality of the work done and the attitude of the individual to his work. All such service records and employee records shall be subject only to the inspection of the commission. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.6]

A deputy sheriff serving with permanent rank under this chapter may be designated chief deputy sheriff or second deputy sheriff and retain such rank during the period of service as chief deputy sheriff or second deputy sheriff and shall, upon termination of the duties as chief deputy sheriff or second deputy sheriff, revert to the permanent rank. Whenever possible, vacancies shall be filled by promotion. Promotion shall be made from among deputy sheriffs qualified by competitive examination, training and experience to fill the vacancies and whose length of service entitles them to consideration. The commission shall for the purpose of certifying to the sheriff the list of deputy sheriffs eligible for promotion, rate the qualified deputy sheriffs on the basis of their service record, experience in the work, seniority, and military service ratings. Seniority shall be controlling only when other factors are equal. The names of not more than the ten highest on the list of ratings shall be certified. The certified eligible list for promotion shall hold preference for promotion until the beginning of a new examination, but in no case shall such preference continue longer than two years following the date of certification, after which said list shall be canceled and no promotion to such grade shall be made until a new list has been certified eligible for promotion. The sheriff shall appoint one of the ten certified persons. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.8]

All persons holding a position on August 15, 1973, which is deemed classified by section 341A.7 are eligible for a permanent appointment under civil service to the offices or positions currently held if they qualify for appointment pursuant to section 341A.8, and every such person shall be inducted permanently into civil service in the office or position of employment which he then holds. The commission shall designate a permanent rank for those persons as chief deputy on August 15, 1973, and such persons shall be inducted permanently into civil service in that rank. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.9]

341A.10 Citizenship. An applicant for any position under civil service shall be a citizen of the United States who can read and write the English language, and shall meet the minimum requirements of the Iowa law enforcement academy for a law enforcement officer. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.10]

1. Incompetency, inefficiency, or inattention to or dereliction of duty.
2. Dishonesty, intemperance, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public or a fellow employee, or any other act of omission or commission tending to injure the public, or any other willful failure to properly conduct himself, or any willful violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules to be adopted hereunder.

341A.12 Discipline—hearing. No person in the classified civil service who has been permanently appointed or inducted into civil service under provisions of this chapter shall be removed, suspended, or demoted except for cause, and only upon written accusation of the county sheriff, which shall be served upon the accused, and a duplicate filed with the commission. Any person so removed, suspended, or reduced in rank or grade may, within ten days after presentation to him of the order of removal, suspension or reduction, appeal to the commission from such order. The commission shall, within two weeks from the filing of such appeal, hold a hearing thereon, and fully hear and determine the matter, and either affirm, modify, or revoke such order. The appellant shall be entitled to appeal personally, produce evidence, and to have counsel. The finding and decision of the commission shall be certified to the sheriff, and shall be enforced and followed by him, but under no condition shall the employee who has appealed to the commission be permanently removed, suspended, or reduced in rank until such finding and decision of the commission is certified to the sheriff pursuant to the rules of civil procedure.

If the order of removal, suspension, or demotion is concurred in by a majority of the commission, the accused may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county where he resides. Such appeal shall be taken by serving upon the commission within thirty days after the entry of its order, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof, and demanding that a certified transcript of the record and of all papers on file in the office of the commission affecting or relating to its order, be filed by the commission with the court. The commission shall, within ten days after the filing of the notice make, certify, and file such transcript with the court. The court shall proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary manner. Such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal, suspension, or demotion made by the commission was made in good faith and for cause, and no appeal shall be taken except upon such grounds. The decision of the district court may be appealed to the supreme court. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.12]

341A.13 Vacant positions filled. Whenever a position in the classified service is to be filled, the sheriff shall notify the commission of that fact, and the commission shall certify the names and addresses of the ten candidates standing highest on the eligibility list for the class or grade for the position to be filled. The sheriff shall appoint one of the ten persons so certified, and the appointment shall be deemed permanent. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.13]

The certificate shall state that the persons named therein have been appointed or employed in compliance with the terms of this chapter and the rules of the commission, and that the payroll, estimate, or account is, insofar as known to the commission, a true and accurate statement. The commission shall refuse to certify the pay of any public officer or employee whom it finds to be illegally or improperly appointed, and may further refuse to certify the pay of any public officer or employee who, willfully or through culpable negligence, violates or fails to comply with this chapter or with the rules of the commission. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.14]

341A.15 Leave of absence. Leave of absence, without pay, may be granted by any county sheriff to any person under civil service, however, the sheriff shall give notice of leave to the commission. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.15]

The commission shall be represented in such suits by the county attorney. In the case of the combined counties, any one or more of the county attorneys of such combined counties may be selected by the commission to represent it. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §341A.16]

On or before July 31 of every year, the board of supervisors shall appropriate, by resolution, such amounts as are deemed necessary for each of the different county officers and departments during the ensuing fiscal year, and shall specify from which of the different county funds created by law the appropriated sums shall be derived. The appropriations to each separate county office or department shall be itemized in the same manner that the accounts are itemized on the records of the county auditor. The total amount appropriated from any county fund shall not exceed the anticipated receipts of that fund. [C31, 35, §5260-c4; C39, §5260.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §344.4]

344.6 Supplemental appropriation. If it shall have been determined during the course of any year that the actual receipts to any of the different county funds will be larger than were anticipated in the original resolution of appropriation, the board of supervisors may make a supplementary appropriation by resolution at any regular meeting, appropriating the sums in excess of the estimated receipts from any county fund augmented by larger revenues than were anticipated, to any county office or offices supported by said fund or funds. No such supplementary appropriation shall be made to any such county office or offices unless it shall be shown that a specific need therefor exists. Such supplementary appropriation shall clearly state the amount collected into such augmented county fund in excess of the amount estimated in the general resolution of appropriation. [C31, 35, §5260-c8; C39, §5260.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §344.8]

344.9 Transfers from other departments. In the event it shall be found necessary for any office or department to spend an amount in excess of the total of its original appropriations, the board of supervisors at a regular or special meeting may by resolution authorize a transfer of a portion of the appropriation balance of one office or department or contingent account to the account of another office or department, provided that the funds transferred are derived from the same tax fund and that the transfer does not violate existing statutes. [C31, 35, §5260-c9; C39, §5260.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §344.9]

1. Any joint building acquired, owned, erected, constructed, controlled, or occupied in accordance with the authorization contained in this section is declared to be acquired, owned, erected, constructed, controlled, or occupied for a public purpose and as a matter of public need.

2. Any county may join with its county seat to incorporate an "Authority" for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, demolishing, improving, enlarging, equipping, furnishing, repairing, maintaining, and operating a public building, and to acquire and prepare the necessary site, including demolition of any structures, for the joint use of the county and city or any school district which is within or is a part of the county or city.

3. The incorporation of an authority shall be accomplished by the adoption of articles of incorporation by the governing body of each incorporating unit. For adoption, the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each governing body is required. The articles of incorporation shall be executed for and on behalf of each incorporating unit by the following officers:

a. For the county, by the chairman of the board of supervisors.

b. For the city, by its mayor and city clerk.

4. 5. The authority shall be directed and governed by a board of commissioners of three members, one to be elected by the board of supervisors of the county from the area outside of the county seat, one to be elected by the council of the city from the area inside the city, and one to be elected by the joint action of the board of supervisors of the county and the council of the city, and if the governing bodies are unable to agree upon a choice for the third member within sixty days of the election of the first member, then the third member shall be appointed by the governor. Of the first appointees, the member appointed by the board of supervisors shall be for a term of two years, the member appointed by the city council shall be for a term of four years, and the member appointed by the joint action of the board and council shall be for a term of six years. The board of commissioners shall designate one of their number as chairman, one as secretary, and one as treasurer, and shall adopt bylaws and rules of procedure and provide therein for regular meetings and for the proper safekeeping of its records. No commissioner shall receive any compensation in connection with his services as commissioner. Each commissioner, however, shall be entitled to reimbursement for any necessary expenditures in connection with the performance of his duties.

6. The articles of incorporation shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder and filed with the secretary of state, and shall be published once in a newspaper designated in the articles of incorporation and having a general circulation within the county, and upon such recording and publication, the authority shall be deemed to come into existence.

7. Amendments may be made to the articles of incorporation if adopted by the governing body of each incorporating unit; provided that no amendment shall impair the obligation of any bond or other contract. Each amendment shall be adopted, executed, recorded and published in the same manner as specified for the original articles of incorporation.

In addition, it shall have and exercise the following public and essential governmental powers and functions and all other powers incidental or necessary to carry out and effectuate its express powers:

a. To select, locate, and designate an area lying wholly within the territorial limits of the county seat of the county in which the authority is incorporated as the site to be acquired for the construction, alteration, enlargement, or improvement of a building. The site selected is subject to approval by a majority of the members of each governing body of the incorporating units.

b. To acquire in the corporate name of the authority the fee simple title to the real property located within the area by purchase, gift, devise, or by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or to take possession of real estate by lease.

h To lease all or any part of a building to the incorporating units for a period of time not to exceed fifty years, upon rental terms agreed upon between the authority and the incorporating units. The rentals specified shall be subject to increase by agreement of the incorporating units and the authority if necessary in order to provide funds to meet obligations.

i To procure insurance of any and all kinds in connection with the building. The bidding procedures provided in section 23 18 shall be utilized in the procurement of insurance.

j To accept donations, contributions, capital grants, or gifts from individuals, associations, municipal and private corporations, and the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, and to enter into agreements in connection therewith.

l The provisions of chapter 23 applicable to other municipalities are applicable to an authority.

10 After the incorporation of an authority, and before the sale of any issue of revenue bonds, except refunding bonds, the authority shall submit in a single countywide election to the qualified voters of the city and county, at a general, primary, or special election called for that purpose, the question of whether an authority shall issue and sell revenue bonds, stating the amount, for any of the purposes for which it is incorporated. An affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposition is required to authorize the issuance and sale of revenue bonds. A notice of the election shall be published once each week for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in the county. The notice shall name the time when the question shall be submitted, and a copy of the question to be submitted shall be posted at each polling place during the day of election. The authority shall call this election with the concurrence of both incorporating units, and it shall establish the voting precincts and polling places, and appoint the election judges, and in so doing such election procedures shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapters 49 and 50.

11 When the board of commissioners decides to issue bonds subject to the election requirement, it shall adopt a resolution describing the area to be acquired, the nature of the existing improvements, the disposition to be made of the improvements, and a general description of any new buildings to be constructed.

12 The resolution shall set out the limit of the cost of the project, including the cost of acquiring and preparing the site, determine the period of usefulness and fix the amount of revenue bonds to be issued, the date or dates of maturity, the dates on which interest is payable, the sinking fund provisions, and all other details in connection with the bonds. The board shall determine and fix the rate of interest of any revenue bonds issued, in a resolution adopted by the board prior to the issuance. The resolution, trust agreement, or other contract entered into with the bondholders may contain covenants and restrictions concerning the issuance of additional revenue bonds as necessary or advisable for the assurance of the payment of the bonds authorized.

13 Bonds shall be issued in the name of the authority and are declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the laws of this state.

14 Bonds issued under this section may be issued as serial or term bonds, shall be of such denomination or denominations and form, including interest coupons to be attached, shall be payable at such place or places and bear such date as the board of commissioners fix by the resolution authorizing the bonds, shall mature within a period not to exceed fifty years, and may be redeemable prior to maturity with or without premium, at the option of the board of commissioners, upon terms and conditions the board shall fix by the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds. The board of commissioners may provide for the registration of bonds in the name of the owner as to the principal alone or as to both principal and interest upon terms and conditions the board determines. All bonds issued by an authority shall be sold at a price so that the interest cost to the commission of the proceeds of the bonds shall not exceed that permitted by chapter 74A, payable semiannually, computed to maturity, and shall be sold in the manner and at the time the board of commissioners determines.

15 Bonds issued by an authority, and the interest thereon, shall be payable solely from the revenues derived from the operation, management, or use of the buildings acquired or to be acquired by the authority, which revenues shall include payments received under any leases or other contracts for the use of the buildings. Bonds shall recite that the principal and interest thereon are payable only from the revenues pledged, and shall state on their face that they are not an indebtedness of the authority or a claim against the property of the authority.

16 Bonds shall be executed in the name of the commission by the chairman of the board of commissioners or by another officer of the commission as the board, by resolution, may direct, and be attested by the secretary, or by another officer of the commission as the board, by resolution, may direct, and shall be sealed with the commission's corporate seal. In case any officer whose signature appears on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before delivery of the bonds, his signature shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if the officer had remained in office until delivery.

17 In its discretion, the authority may issue refunding bonds to refund its bonds prior to their maturity, refund its outstanding matured bonds, refund matured coupons evidencing interest upon its outstanding bonds, refund interest at the coupon rate that has accrued upon its outstanding matured bonds, and refund its bonds which by their terms are subject to call or redemption before maturity. All bonds redeemed or purchased shall be canceled.

18. To secure the payment of revenue bonds and for the purpose of setting forth the covenants and undertakings of the authority in connection with the issuance of revenue bonds and the issuance of any additional revenue bonds payable from such revenue income to be derived from the operation, management, or use of the buildings acquired or to be acquired by the authority, the authority may execute and deliver a trust agreement except that no lien upon any physical property of the authority shall be created.

19. The resolution shall provide for the creation of a sinking fund account into which shall be payable from the revenues of the project, from month to month as such revenues are collected, the sums in excess of the cost of maintenance and operation of the project and the cost of administration of the authority, sufficient to comply with the covenants of the bond resolution and sufficient to pay the accruing interest and retire the bonds at maturity. The board of commissioners, in a resolution, may provide for other accounts as necessary for the sale of the bonds. Moneys in the accounts shall be applied in the manner provided by the resolution, the trust agreement, or other contract with the bondholders.

20. No such bonds shall constitute a debt of the authority or of any public body within the meaning of any statutory or constitutional limitation as to debt.

21. From and after the issuance of bonds the board of commissioners shall establish and fix rates, rentals, fees, and charges for the use of any and all buildings or space owned and operated by the authority, sufficient at all times to pay maintenance and operation costs and to pay the accruing interest and retire the bonds at maturity and to make all payments to all accounts created by any bond resolution and to comply with all covenants of any bond resolution.

22. When an incorporating unit enters into a lease with the authority, the governing body of the incorporating unit shall provide by ordinance or resolution for the levy and collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the annual rent payable under the lease as and when it becomes due and payable. The tax shall be levied and collected in like manner with the other taxes of the incorporating unit and shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized to be levied by that incorporating unit. This tax shall not be included within and shall be in addition to any statutory limitation of rate or amount for that incorporating unit. The fund realized from the tax levy shall be set aside for the payment of the annual rent and shall not be disbursed for any other purpose until the annual rental has been paid in full.

23. All leases, contracts, deeds of conveyance, bonds, or other instruments in writing on behalf of the authority, shall be executed in the name of the authority by the chairman and secretary of the authority, or by other officers as the board of commissioners, by resolution, directs, and the seal of the authority shall be affixed.

24. All property owned by any authority shall be exempt from taxation by the state or any taxing unit of the state. However, any interest derived from bonds issued by the authority shall be subject to taxation.

25. When all bonds issued by an authority have been retired, the authority may convey the title to the property owned by the authority to the incorporating units in accordance with the provisions therefor contained in the articles of incorporation, or, if none, in accordance with any agreement adopted by the respective governing bodies of the incorporating units, and the authority. The proposition of whether a conveyance shall be made shall be submitted to the legal voters of the city and county, utilizing the election procedures provided for bond issues, and an affirmative vote equal to at least a majority of the total votes cast on the proposition shall be required to authorize the conveyance. If the proposition does not carry, the authority shall continue to operate, maintain, and manage the building under a lease arrangement with the incorporating units. be vested in a board of hospital trustees consisting of five members appointed by the board of supervisors from among the resident citizens of the county with reference to their fitness for office, and not more than two of the trustees shall be residents of the same township.

The trustees shall hold office until the next succeeding election, at which time their successors shall be elected, two for a term of two years, two for a term of four years and one for a term of six years, and thereafter their successors shall be elected for regular terms of six years each. Vacancies in the board of trustees may be filled in the same manner as original appointments, to hold office until the vacancies are filled pursuant to section 69.12. The trustees, within ten days after their appointment or election, shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office, but no bond shall be required of them. The trustees shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred by them with the approval of the board of trustees in the performance of their duties. The board first appointed shall organize promptly following its appointment, and shall serve until successors are elected and qualified; thereafter no later than December 1 of each year the board shall reorganize by the appointment of a chairperson, secretary, and treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall each file with the chairperson of the board a surety bond in the amount the board of trustees requires, with sureties to be approved by the board of trustees, for the use and benefit of the county hospital. The secretary of the board of trustees shall file with the board on or before the tenth day of each month, a complete statement of all receipts and disbursements from all funds during the preceding month, and also the balance remaining on hand in all funds at the close of the period covered by the statement. Before the third Monday of each month, the county treasurer shall give notice to the chairperson of the board of trustees of the amount of revenue collected for each fund of the hospital to the first day of that month, and the chairperson shall draw a draft therefor countersigned by the secretary, upon the county treasurer, who shall pay the taxes to the treasurer of the hospital upon receipt of the draft.

The board of hospital trustees may employ, fix the compensation of, and remove at pleasure professional, technical, and other employees as it deems necessary for the operation and maintenance of the hospital, and disbursement of funds for operation and maintenance shall be made upon order and approval of the board of hospital trustees. If in any year, after payment of the accruing interest on and principal due of revenue bonds issued under chapter 331, division IV, part 4, and payable from the revenues derived from the operation of the county hospital, there is a balance of such revenues insufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the hospital, the board of hospital trustees shall certify that fact as soon as ascertained to the board of supervisors of the county, and the board of supervisors shall make the amount of the deficiency for paying the expenses of operation and maintenance of the hospital available from other county funds or shall levy a tax not to exceed one dollar and eight cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year on all the taxable property in the county in an amount sufficient for that purpose. However, general county funds or the proceeds of taxes shall not be used or applied to the payment of the interest on or principal of revenue bonds issued under chapter 331, division IV, part 4, but general county funds or proceeds of taxes may only be used and applied to pay expenses of operation and maintenance of the hospital which cannot be paid from available revenue derived from its operation. In counties in which three newspapers are to be selected, the three showing the largest number of such subscribers shall be selected except when such three newspapers are all published in the same city, in which case the two newspapers in such city having the largest lists of such subscribers and the newspaper having the next largest list of such subscribers and published outside such city, shall be selected as such official newspapers. [C97, §441; SS15, §441; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5402; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §349.6]

No newspaper shall be selected as an official newspaper when it is made to appear that the verified list deposited by the applicant contains the names of persons who are not bona fide subscribers within the county and that such names were knowingly and willfully entered on such list by the applicant, or at his instance, with intent to deceive the board. [SS15, §441; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5404; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §349.9]

351A.1 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "Institution" shall mean any school or college of medicine, veterinary medicine, pharmacy, dentistry, and osteopathy, or hospital, diagnostic or research laboratories, or other educational or scientific establishment situated in this state properly concerned with the investigation of, or instruction concerning the structure or function of living organisms, the cause, prevention, control or cure of diseases or abnormal conditions of human beings or animals.

351A.2 Application to department of health. An institution may apply annually to the state department of health for authority to obtain animals from a pound. If the state department of health shall find that such institution, by reason of its ethical standards, its personnel, its facilities and the use it proposes to make of dogs is a fit and proper institution to be authorized to obtain dogs from a pound, and that the public interest would be served by such authority, then the state department of health shall authorize

351A.3 Dogs held for redemption by owner. An institution so authorized by the state department of health may request dogs from a pound. The pound shall tender to such institution all dogs in its custody seized or held by authority of the state, municipality or other political subdivision, except that no dog shall be so tendered unless it has been held for redemption by its owner or sale for a period of not less than three nor more than fifteen days and no dog lawfully licensed at the time of its seizure shall be so tendered unless its owner shall so consent in writing. No dogs, except those actually sick or injured or those lawfully licensed at the time of seizure, shall be destroyed by a pound while a request to that pound of an authorized institution is unfulfilled unless first tendered to such institution and refused by it. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §351A.3]

351A.4 Fee. An institution obtaining dogs from a pound shall pay to the municipality or other political subdivision under whose authority each dog is held or was seized a reasonable fee not to exceed five dollars for each dog so obtained, and shall provide for the transportation of the dogs so obtained from the pound. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §351A.4]

351A.5 Care and treatment. Animals used in any institution authorized by this chapter shall receive every consideration for their bodily comfort; they shall be kindly treated, properly fed and their surroundings kept in a sanitary condition. All major operative procedures may be done under local infiltration anesthesia. If the nature of the study is such that the animal may survive, acceptable techniques shall be followed throughout the operation. If the study does not require survival, the animal shall be killed in a humane manner at the conclusion of the observations. The post-operative care of experimental animals shall be such as to minimize discomfort during convalescence. All conditions shall be maintained for the animal's comfort in accordance with the best practices followed in human medicine and surgery. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §351A.5]

of this chapter. Any pound failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall become immediately ineligible for any public moneys notwithstanding the provisions of any contract, and it shall be unlawful for any public body to pay any public moneys to a pound after receipt by it of a notice of such noncompliance or refusal from any institution authorized by the state department of health to obtain dogs until such time as such institution shall have withdrawn its notice or the state department of health shall have notified such public body that such notice was without foundation. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §351A.6]

A county surveyor appointed by the board of supervisors shall be a registered land surveyor holding a certificate issued under chapter 114, shall make surveys of land within the county upon request, and shall transcribe the field notes and plats into a well-bound book, at the expense of the person requesting the survey, which book shall be kept in the auditor's office. The surveys of the county surveyor are presumptively correct. [C51, §203, 204; R60, §413, 414; C73, §369, 370; C97, §534; SS15, §422; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5482; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §355.1; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1066]

355.2 Field notes of original survey. Previous to making any survey, he shall procure a copy of the field notes of the original survey of the same land, if there be any in his office or in that of the auditor, and his survey shall be made in accordance therewith. [C51, §205; R60, §415; C73, §371; C97, §535; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.2]

355.3 Corners. He is required to establish the corners by taking bearing trees, and noting particularly their course and distance, but if there be no trees within reasonable distance, the corners are to be marked by stones or other permanent monuments placed firmly in the earth. [C51, §206; R60, §416; C73, §372; C97, §536; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5484; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.3]

355.4 Rules to be followed. In the resurvey and subdivision of land by county surveyors, their deputies or registered land surveyors, the rules prescribed by the Acts of Congress, and the instructions of the secretary of the interior, copies of which shall be furnished by the county, shall be followed. Likewise, in preparing the plat of the resurvey or subdivision of land, the provisions of section 409.31, subsections 2, 6, 9, 10, 11, and 12 shall be followed. When the survey has been completed, the surveyor shall attach a statement that the plat was prepared by the surveyor or under the surveyor's personal supervision. The statement shall be dated and signed by the surveyor. It shall bear the surveyor's Iowa registration number or seal and shall show the date of the survey and the location of the resurveyed or subdivided land within the quarter section as described in the record of the original survey of the same land. [C73, §373; C97, §537; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5485; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.4; 82 Acts, ch 1158, §1]

355.5 Record furnished—presumptive evidence. The county surveyor shall, when requested, furnish the person for whom the survey is made with a copy of the field notes and plat of the survey, and such copy, certified by him, and also a copy from the record, certified by the county auditor with the seal, shall be presumptive evidence of the survey and of the facts herein required to be set forth, and which are stated accordingly, between those persons who join in requesting it.

Such field notes and plat of survey shall not, however, be presumptive evidence in any action in court as opposed to the field notes and plat of survey made by any other competent surveyor at the instance of any party not joining in the request for the survey by the county surveyor. [C51, §207; R60, §417; C73, §374; C97, §538; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5486; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.5]

355.7 Record. The plat and record shall show distinctly of what piece of land it is a survey, at whose personal request it was made, the surveyor, and the date of the survey. When land is resurveyed or subdivided, the surveyor shall record the plat no later than thirty days after completion of the resurvey or subdivision. The cost of recordation shall be paid to the county recorder by the surveyor upon presentation of the plat for recordation. The surveyor may charge the person requesting the resurvey or subdivision the costs of recordation. However, preparation and recordation of the plat shall not be required unless the survey was made for either of the following purposes:

1. To correct boundaries and descriptions of surveyed land.
2. To subdivide the land.

As used in this section, "subdivide" means dividing of land into two or more parcels. [C51, §209; R60, §419; C73, §376; C97, §540; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5488; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.7; 82 Acts, ch 1158, §2]

355.10 Right to enter upon land. Any person employed in the execution of any survey authorized by the Congress of the United States may enter upon lands within this state for the purpose of exploring, triangulating, leveling, surveying, and of doing any work which may be necessary to carry out the objects of then existing laws relative to surveys, and may establish permanent station marks, and erect the necessary signals and temporary observatories, doing no unnecessary injury thereby. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5491; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §355.10]

When completed by the department, the standards shall be promulgated as rules pursuant to chapter 17A.

The sole remedy for violation of a rule adopted pursuant to this section is by a proceeding for compliance initiated by request to the department of social services. A violation of a rule does not permit any civil action to recover damages against the state of Iowa, its departments, agents, or employees or any county, its agents or employees. The department of social services may order the governing body of a political subdivision to either correct any violations found in the inspection of a jail within a designated period, or may prohibit the confinement of prisoners in the jail. If the governing body fails to comply with the order within the period designated, the department of social services may schedule a hearing on the alleged violation. The department may subpoena witnesses, documents, and other information deemed necessary to determine the validity of the alleged violation. The department shall upon written request from the governing body of the political subdivision grant representatives of the political subdivision the right to appear before the department at the hearing. Such representatives shall have the right to counsel and may produce witnesses and present statements, documents, and other information with respect to the alleged violation for consideration at the hearing.

The department after the hearing shall affirm, revoke, or modify the original order. If the order is upheld, the department may include a schedule for correction of the violation or violations and designate the date before each violation shall be corrected.

If the political subdivision does not comply with the order within the designated period, the department may petition the attorney general to institute proceedings to enjoin the political subdivision from confining prisoners in the jail and require the transfer of prisoners to a jail declared by the director to be suitable for confinement. The county or municipality from which prisoners are transferred shall be liable for the cost of transfer and expenditures incurred in the confinement of prisoners in the jail to which transferred. Following inspection of any county jail, a report of the same shall be filed with the director of the division of corrections of the department of social services, a copy with the sheriff, the county board of supervisors, and one copy with the county attorney, which shall be presented at the next session of the grand jury of that county. Extra penalties may be provided for intentional damage of county jail property. Such rules and regulations shall be approved by a district judge from the district in which the county jail is located. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §356.44]

356.45 Expense at regional detention facility. Each county from which a person sentenced to the county jail is transferred to serve all or any part of such sentence in the regional detention facility* shall reimburse the department of social services for the full cost of maintenance of such person in the facility. The average daily cost of maintenance of an individual in the facility shall be computed, and the respective counties shall be advised of the amounts due the department of social services under this section and shall remit such amounts, at the times and in the manner provided by law for the support of patients of state mental health institutes. Such amounts shall be deemed a charge the county is required to pay under section 356.15. The amounts so received by the department of social services from the respective coun-

The order shall be read to the detained, committed, or transferred person in open court. The committing court or a district judge may order any person who has been detained, committed, or transferred to such a facility to be transferred to the county jail if, upon hearing, the court determines the person has been refractory or disorderly, has willfully destroyed or injured any property in the facility, or has violated any of the terms and conditions of the order of detention, commitment, or transfer or the provisions of this chapter or the rules of the facility where the person was detained or committed. Any violations of the order of detention, commitment, or transfer shall further be punished as contempt of court pursuant to chapter 665. The provisions of section 719.4 are applicable to any person detained, committed, or transferred to a facility established and maintained pursuant to this chapter. The county or city to which the cause originally belonged is liable for the expense of the original detention, commitment, or transfer and the subsequent expenses of maintaining the person in the facility. The county's expense shall be levied and paid out of the fund pursuant to section 331.426, subsection 9. [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §356A.3; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1067]

1. The need of a public water supply.
2. The approximate district to be served.
3. The approximate number of families in the district.
4. The proposed source of supply.
5. The type of service desired, whether domestic only or for fire protection and other uses.

The board of supervisors may, at its option, require a bond of the petitioners as provided in section 455.10.

A benefited water district located wholly within the corporate limits of a city is not subject to the provisions of this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5523; C39, § 5526.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.1]

357.2 Territory included. The benefited water district may include part or all of any incorporated city or cities, together with or without surrounding territory including cemeteries and all publicly owned land. Said publicly owned property shall pay and bear its proportionate share of the cost and expense of said water system upon the same basis as privately owned property. [C39, §5526.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.2]

357.3 Scope of assessment. The special assessment hereinafter provided for may be used to cover the costs of installing all the necessary elements of a water system, for both production and distribution. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5522; C39, §5526.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.3]

357.4 Public hearing. When the board of supervisors receives a petition for the establishment of a benefited water district, a public hearing shall be held within twenty days of the presentation of the petition. Notice of such hearing shall be given by posting bills in three public places within the district, or by publication in two successive issues of any paper of general circulation within the district. The last publication or posting shall be not less than one week before the proposed hearing. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5523; C39, § 5526.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.4]

357.5 Decision at hearing. On the day fixed for such hearing, the board of supervisors shall by resolution establish the benefited water district or disallow the petition. For adequate reasons the board of supervisors may defer action on such petition for not to exceed ten days after the day first set for a hearing. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5523; C39, §5526.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.5]

357.6 Examination by engineer. When the board of supervisors shall have established the benefited water district, they shall appoint a competent disinterested civil engineer and instruct him to examine the proposed improvement, make preliminary designs in sufficient detail to make an accurate estimate of the cost of the proposed water system. He shall also report as to the suitability of the proposed source of water supply. [C39, §5526.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.6]

357.7 Water source without district. When in any proposed benefited water district, it is anticipated that the source of supply will be without the district, and not under its control, the board of supervisors shall instruct the engineer who is appointed to make the preliminary design and dummy assessment, to also obtain from the corporation or municipality which controls the proposed source of supply, a statement in writing, outlining the terms upon which water will be furnished to the district, or to the individuals within the district and on what terms in either case.

This preliminary proposal from the governing body of the source of supply shall be binding, and shall be in the nature of an option to purchase water by the district, or the individual within the same, if and when the proposed benefited water district shall have completed its construction, and is ready to use water. This proposal shall accompany and be a part of the engineer's preliminary report to the board of supervisors. [C39, §5526.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.7]

357.8 Plat. The said engineer shall prepare a preliminary plat showing the proper design in general outline, the size and location of the water mains, the general location of hydrants, if such are included in said petition, valves and other appurtenances, and shall show the lots and parcels of land within the proposed district as they appear on the county auditor's plat books, together with the names of the owners and the amount which it is estimated that such lot or parcel will be assessed. [C39, §5526.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.8]

357.9 Compensation of engineer. The compensation of such engineer on the preliminary investigation shall be determined by the board of supervisors and may be by percentage or per diem. [C39, §5526.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.9]

357.10 Filing of report and plat. The engineer's report, together with the dummy plat showing the tentative design and assessment, shall be filed with the county auditor within thirty days of such engineer's appointment, unless for adequate reasons it is impossible for him to do so, in which case the board of supervisors may extend the time therefor. [C39, § 5526.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.10]

357.11 Hearing on report. On receipt of the engineer's report, the board of supervisors shall give notice in the same manner as before, of a hearing on the engineer's tentative design and dummy plat. On the day set, or within ten days thereafter, the board of supervisors shall approve or disapprove the engineer's plan and proposed assessment. If it shall appear advisable, the board of supervisors may make changes in the design and assessment, as they appear on the dummy plat. [C39, §5526.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.11]

357.12 Election. When the preliminary design and assessment have been approved by the board of supervisors, a date not more than thirty days after such approval shall be set for an election within the district to determine whether or not the proposed improvement shall be constructed and to choose candidates for the offices of trustee within the district. Notice of the election, including the time and place of holding the same, shall be given in the same manner as for the public hearing heretofore provided for. The vote shall be by ballot which shall state clearly the proposition to be voted upon, and any qualified elector residing within the district at the time of the election shall be entitled to vote. It shall not be mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct elections held pursuant to this chapter, but they shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 49 where not in conflict with this chapter. Judges will be appointed to serve without pay, by the board of supervisors from among the qualified electors of the district who will have charge of the election. The proposition shall be deemed to have carried if a majority of those voting thereon vote in favor of the same. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5524; C39, §5526.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.12]

357.13 Trustees—terms. At the election provided for in section 357.12, the names of the trustees shall be written by the voter on blank ballots without formal nomination and the board of supervisors shall appoint three from among the five receiving the highest number of votes as trustees for the district, one to serve for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, which trustees and their successors shall give bond in the amount the board of supervisors may require, the premium of which shall be paid by the district said trustees represent. Vacancies may thereafter be filled by election, or by appointment by the board of supervisors, at the option of the remaining trustees. The term of succeeding trustees shall be for three years. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5524; C39, §5526.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.13]

357.14 Bids for construction. If the result of said election be in favor of said improvement, the board of supervisors shall instruct the engineer to complete the plans and specifications, ready for receiving bids for construction of the project, which he shall do within thirty days of receiving notice to do so, unless for adequate reason the board shall extend the time.

When the completed plans and specifications are on file with the county auditor, the board of supervisors shall advertise for bids and shall cause notice to be given by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein the improvement is to be constructed, setting forth the location and nature of the improvement and the date and place where bids will be received by the board. The last published notice to bidders shall be at least seven days before the time set for receiving bids. Bidders will be required to submit certified checks for five percent of the amount of the bid. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5524; C39, §5526.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.14]

357.15 Inadequate assessment. When bids have been received, if it is apparent that the final assessment will need to be increased more than ten percent over the preliminary assessment, the board of supervisors shall, at its option, reject bids and readvertise for bids as provided herein, or reject bids and revise the dummy assessment. If the dummy assessment is revised, another election shall be held within the district in the same manner and with the same notices as the first, except that the candidates for trustees shall not be voted for. [C39, §5526.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.15]

357.16 Second election. If the majority of the votes cast at said second election be in favor of said improvement, the board of supervisors shall again advertise for bids in the same manner as before. If the bids at the second letting will not necessitate raising the second preliminary assessment more than ten percent, the board may let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5524; C39, §5526.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.16]

357.17 Bond of contractor. The successful bidder, when awarded a contract, shall be required to give an approved surety bond for one hundred percent of the contract price, guaranteeing completion of the work in accordance with the plans and specifications, and for maintenance, including backfilling, for one year after the final acceptance of the work.

If the contractor shall fail to complete the work as provided in his contract, or shall abandon the same, or fail to proceed in a reasonable manner toward its final completion, the board may proceed against the contractor and bondsman as provided in sections 455.114 and 455.115. [C39, §5526.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.17]

357.18 Acceptance of work. When in the opinion of the engineer in charge, the construction in any benefited water district has been completed in accordance with the plans, specifications, and contract, he shall certify this fact to the board of supervisors, and recommend the acceptance of the work by the said board. The board of supervisors shall proceed in accordance with sections 455.111 and 455.112. [C39, §5526.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.18]

357.19 Completing assessment. After the final acceptance of the work by the board of supervisors, the engineer shall complete the final assessment, which shall be made on all the property within the district, whether abutting or not, for an amount approximately ten percent greater than the total cost of the project. The assessment shall not exceed benefits conferred and shall take into consideration the location and value of the property assessed. Where a pipe in excess of six inches in diameter is used, the assessment against the abutting property shall be limited to the cost of a six-inch pipe, and the difference between the cost of the pipe used and a six-inch pipe shall be paid by a uniform assessment against all benefited property within the water district. The final assessment on any lot or parcel of land shall not exceed the final preliminary assessment by more than ten percent, and shall in no case exceed twenty-five percent of the actual value of the property. The board of supervisors may alter an assessment to increase or decrease it within the limits outlined above, and must approve by resolution the final assessment as made. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5522; C39, §5526.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.19]

357.20 Due date—bonds. Assessments of less than ten dollars will come due at the first taxpaying date after the approval of the final assessment, and assessments of ten dollars or more may be paid in ten annual installments with interest on the unpaid balance at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A. The board of supervisors shall issue bonds against the completed assessment in an amount equal to the total cost of the project, so that the amount of the assessment will be approximately ten percent greater than the amount of the bonds. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5522; C39, §5526.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.20]

Referred to in §357.35

357.21 Substance of bonds. Each of such bonds shall be numbered, and have printed upon its face that it is a benefited water district bond, stating the county and the number of the district for which it is issued, and the date of maturity; that it is in pursuance of a resolution of the board of supervisors, and that it is to be paid for only from special assessment theretofore levied and taxes levied as hereinafter provided for that purpose within the said district for which the bond is issued. The provisions of sections 455.83 and 455.86 shall govern the issuance of these bonds except that the contractor will not be paid anything on the work until its completion and final acceptance. [C39, §5526.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.21]

Referred to in §357.35

357.22 Lien of assessments—tax. When the assessment has been completed and the bonds sold and the schedule of assessment shall be turned over to the county auditor, the installments due thereon shall be collected in the same manner as ordinary taxes and shall constitute a lien on the property against which they are made. If the treasurer does not receive sufficient funds to enable him to pay the interest and retire the bonds as they become due, he shall levy an annual tax of eighty-one cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of all taxable property within the district to pay such deficiency, and the county treasurer shall apply the proceeds of such levy to the payment of the bonds and the interest on the same so long as the bonds are in arrears on either interest or principal. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5525; C39, §5526.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.22]

Referred to in §331.559, 357.35

357.23 Surplus. The board of supervisors shall be required to levy the annual tax of eighty-one cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property so long as the bonds are in arrears. [C39, §5526.23; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.23]

Referred to in §357.35

357.24 Fee of engineer. The fee for engineering services shall be fixed by the board of supervisors and he may be paid either a percentage or a per diem, from proceeds of the bond sale or by cash from the contractor, if the contractor takes bonds in settlement for his work under his contract. [C39, §5526.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.24]

357.25 Management by trustees. After the final acceptance of the work by the board of supervisors, the management of the utility shall automatically go to the three trustees previously appointed by the board of supervisors. The trustees of a benefited water district located in a county with a population of two hundred fifty thousand or less shall have power to levy an annual tax not to exceed thirteen and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of all taxable property in the district, for the maintenance of the system. However, the trustees of a benefited water district located in a county with a population of more than two hundred fifty thousand may levy an annual tax on the taxable value of all taxable property in the district in an amount as may be necessary for the maintenance of the system, with the approval of the board of supervisors. This levy shall be optional with the trustees. The trustees may purchase material and employ labor to properly maintain and operate the utility. The trustees shall be allowed necessary expenses in the discharge of their duties, but shall not receive any salary. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5526; C39, §5526.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §357.25; 81 Acts, ch 123, §1]

357.26 Duties of trustees. It is anticipated that this law will usually be utilized to finance a distribution system where the source of supply is without the district, and not under its control, and that individuals within the district will pay water rent to a municipality or corporation without the district. It is intended that the trustees may so operate the utility as will best serve the users, and they are expressly authorized to buy and sell water, to fix the rates to consumers and make all contracts reasonable or necessary to accomplish the purpose of this chapter and to carry on all the operations incident to maintaining and operating said utility and to the procuring and furnishing of water to the consumers therein. If the development of a source of supply is within the means of the district, the trustees may install wells, tanks, meters and any other equipment properly pertaining to operate it. [C39, §5526.26; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.26]

Referred to in §357.35

357.27 Public property in district. Whenever property of the state of Iowa, or any political subdivision thereof, shall be included either wholly or in part within such water district and shall own facilities which may be used as a part of such water system, the executive council, board of supervisors or city council, as the case may be, may permit such use of said facilities for such consideration and on such terms as may be agreed upon with the board of trustees. [C39, §5526.27; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.27]

357.28 Private mains—additional assessments. Any person or persons within any water district, who may, after the initial installation of the improvement in any such district, desire to construct additional mains, and who have been assessed on the original assessment, may with the consent of the trustees, connect such lateral mains as they desire with the original system to serve property within the district which has been assessed, provided that the entire cost thereof shall be borne by the parties so interested.

The trustees shall have power to make additional assessments on unimproved lots or parcels of land within the district when said unimproved lots or parcels are improved and ready to receive the full benefits of the district. This additional assessment shall be determined and fixed by the trustees and shall not exceed the average assessment for improved property in said districts less the original assessment on said unimproved lots or parcels. Said assessments shall be paid to the county treasurer before service pipes are laid into said improvement. The assessment shall be put in the benefited water district fund of the district of which said lots or parcels are a part and shall be used by the county treasurer for the retirement of bonds and interest. When the bonds are all retired, the trustees shall be authorized to use said fund for maintenance purposes, changing size of mains, eliminating dead ends, or extending mains for the benefit of the district. [C39, §5526.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.28]

357.29 Subdistricts. If the cost of the desired extensions will be as much as five thousand dollars, the interested parties may petition the board of supervisors to organize a subdistrict, and in such case the board shall proceed in the same manner as for a new district, and may take in territory not originally assessed.

The board of supervisors shall have power at any time to alter the boundaries of any district prior to the time of posting or publishing notice of the election within the district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5522; C39, §5526.29; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.29]

357.30 Additional territory. When the district is under the control of trustees, they are empowered to deal with parties without the district who desire to be taken into the district or to obtain water from the district and determine the amount to be assessed against said district to be taken in or connected with. The trustees shall have power in such cases to make agreements for the district, and may, with the consent of the board of supervisors, alter the district boundaries to take in additional territory. No lot or parcel of land shall be put out of a district without the consent of the owner, after it has paid any assessment to the district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5522; C39, §5526.30; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.30]

357.31 Right of way. The board of supervisors shall have power to condemn, in the same manner as provided for the condemnation of land, right of way through private property, sufficient for the construction and maintenance of water mains. The cost of such right of way shall constitute a part of the expense of the improvement and shall be covered by the special assessment. [C39, §5526.31; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.31]

357.32 Record book. The board of supervisors shall provide a record book which shall be in the custody of the auditor, in which shall be kept a full and complete record of the proceedings relative to water districts, so arranged and indexed, as to enable any proceedings relative to any district to be readily examined. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5524; C39, §5526.32; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.32]

Referred to in §331.508

357.33 Appeal procedure. Any person aggrieved, may appeal from any final action of the board of supervisors in relation to any matter involving his rights, to the district court of the county in which the district is located. The procedure in such appeals shall be governed by the provisions of sections 455.94 to 455.109 provided that whenever in the above sections the words "drainage district" occur, the words "benefited water district" shall be substituted. [C39, §5526.33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.33]

357.34 Conveyance of district to city. Where a city is situated wholly or partly within a benefited water district or the source of supply for such benefited water district is a municipal water system, the board of supervisors having jurisdiction of said benefited water district, at the request of the trustees of said benefited water district, may, by proper resolution, convey unto said city any and all rights which said board of supervisors may have in and to said benefited water district. Said conveyance, however, shall not become effective until all existing obligations against said district have been completely and fully discharged and such conveyance accepted and confirmed by a resolution of the council of said city or of the board of waterworks trustees of said city if there be one, specially passed for such purpose.

Upon acceptance, the district, including the plant and distribution system, as well as all funds and credits shall become the property of said city and be operated and used by it to the same extent as if acquired under such provisions of law under which said city is then operating its waterworks. Also, the offices of the trustees as provided in this chapter shall be abolished upon acceptance by the city and their duties as such shall immediately cease. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357.34]

357.35 Merging existing districts. When the source of supply for a benefited district is obtained wholly or partly through another benefited district or if districts are supplied with their water from a common source, the board of supervisors having jurisdiction of those benefited districts, shall, upon ten days' written notice to the trustees, hold a hearing relative to the establishment of a single benefited water district with a boundary encompassing all the area within the subject districts. If the board finds the residents and property owners in the proposed district would be benefited, it may establish the single district by resolution. In the case of districts with outstanding warrants in excess of the anticipated revenues and cash balance within the district fund, an assessment shall be drawn up by the auditor for an amount approximately fifty-five percent of the total indebtedness of the district and the board of supervisors must approve by resolution the final assessment as made and cause bonds to be issued at approximately ten percent greater than the total indebtedness of the district in accordance with sections 357.20 and 357.21 except that the bonds shall be paid, approximately equally, from user charges and the assessment. In the case of districts with bonded indebtedness, a subarea of the new single district with a boundary identical to each indebted district shall be designated and taxed in accordance with sections 357.22 and 357.23. When all bonds have been retired, the subarea shall cease to exist. In the case of districts with a surplus cash balance, all funds and credits shall become the property of the single district and used by it to the same extent as if acquired under the provisions of section 357.26. Upon establishment of the single district by the board of supervisors, a resolution shall be passed either appointing three trustees or designating the board of supervisors as the trustees for the single district. The operation of the single district constitutes a county enterprise under section 331.461, subsection 1. [82 Acts, ch 1219, §1]

357A.2 Petition—bond. A petition may at any time be filed with the auditor requesting the supervisors to incorporate and organize a district encompassing an area, not then included in any other district, in any county or any two or more adjacent counties for the purpose of providing an adequate supply of water for domestic purposes to residents of the area who are not served by the water mains of any city water system and who cannot feasibly obtain adequate supplies of water from wells on their own premises.

The order shall be published in the same newspaper which published the notice of hearing. 2. All or any part of an incorporated city may be included in the boundaries of any existing water district or water district being newly organized, provided the governing body of such city by resolution or ordinance gives, or has given, its consent.

3. Boards of any two or more districts may by concurrent action and by approval of the supervisors merge their districts into one. In case of merger the members of the boards of the merged districts may serve out the terms for which they were elected. The resulting district shall take over all the assets and legal liabilities of the water districts joining in the merger. Obligations of any district secured by the revenue of the systems operated by the district shall continue to be retired, or a sinking fund for such purpose created from revenue from the system operated over the same area by the resulting district in accordance with the laws under which the obligations were issued, until all obligations of the old district have been retired. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357A.14]

357A.15 Taxing prohibited. No district shall have any power to levy any taxes. Neither the facilities constructed or otherwise acquired by any district, including but not limited to ponds, reservoirs, pipe lines, wells, check dams, and pumping installations, the revenues obtained by the district from the sale of water, nor the revenue bonds or interest therefrom issued by any district shall be taxable in any manner by the state of Iowa or any of its political subdivisions. The petition shall:

1. Describe by section, or fraction thereof, and by township and range, the lands which it is proposed to detach from the district.

2. It appears from all information available to the supervisors that each allegation included in the petition is factual.

If the supervisors' finding on each of the foregoing points is positive, it shall declare the lands described in the petition detached from the district, or declare the district dissolved, as the case may be. The supervisors shall notify the secretary of the district of its action, and the secretary shall amend the records of the district to show that the land described in the petition has been detached from the district, or shall within thirty days deliver to the auditor all records, maps, plans, and files of the district dissolved, as the case may be. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §357A.18]

A nonprofit corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of Iowa for the specific purpose of operating a rural water system may petition the supervisors for incorporation of a district, in the manner provided by section 357A.2. The signatures of the corporation's officers on the petition shall suffice in lieu of signatures of owners of fifty percent of the land in the proposed district, provided the corporation presents evidence satisfactory to the supervisors that a sufficient number of members of the proposed district will subscribe to benefit units to make its operation feasible. The procedure for hearing and determination of disposition of the petition shall be as provided by this chapter. In any district incorporated upon the petition of a nonprofit corporation, the officers and board of directors of the corporation shall be the officers and board of the district. The applicable laws of the state and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation shall control the initial size and initial term of office of such officers and board, in lieu of sections 357A.7, 357A.9, and 357A.10. 2. The lots and parcels of land within the proposed district as they appear on the county auditor's plat books with the names of the owners.
3. The assessed valuation of said lots and parcels.

The compensation of such engineer on the preliminary investigation shall be determined by the board of supervisors. The vote shall be by ballot which shall state clearly the proposition to be voted upon, and any qualified elector residing within the district at the time of the election shall be entitled to vote. It shall not be mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct elections held pursuant to this chapter, but they shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 49 where not in conflict with this chapter. Judges shall be appointed to serve without pay by the board of supervisors from among the qualified electors of the district who will have charge of the election. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize or empower such board of trustees to operate a system of waterworks for the purpose of furnishing water to the inhabitants of the district, or to construct, maintain, or operate local municipal sewerage facilities, or to deprive municipalities within the district of their powers to construct and operate sewers for local purposes within their limits.

The board of trustees of such sanitary district may, however, upon petition of the council or governing body of any incorporated city within the sanitary district, contract with such city to undertake the operation of local municipal sewage facilities as part of the functioning of the sanitary district and make an agreement with such municipality for the levying of additional sewer or sewage disposal taxes, which taxes shall be levied by the municipality as now provided by law. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.16]

358.17 Power to acquire and dispose of property. Any sanitary district organized under this chapter may acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, any and all real and personal property, rights of way and privileges, either within or without its corporate limits, required for its corporate purposes. Condemnation proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner, as near as may be, as provided for condemnation by counties under the laws of Iowa. Said sanitary districts shall have power to sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of any of the properties belonging to them when no longer required for their purposes. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.17]

358.18 Taxes—power to levy—tax sales. The board of trustees of any sanitary district organized under this chapter shall have the power by ordinance to levy annually for the purpose of paying the administrative costs of such district, or for the payment of deficiencies in special assessments, or for both, a tax upon property within the territorial limits of such sanitary district not exceeding fifty-four cents per thousand dollars of the adjusted taxable valuation of the property within such district for the preceding fiscal year.

All taxes thus levied by the board shall be certified by the clerk on or before March 1 to the county auditor of each county wherein any of the property included within the territorial limits of said sanitary district is located, and shall by said auditor or auditors be placed upon the tax list for the current fiscal year; and the county treasurer, or treasurers, of more than one county, shall collect all taxes so levied in the same manner as other taxes, and when delinquent they shall draw the same interest and penalties. All taxes so levied and collected shall be paid over by the officer collecting the same to the treasurer of the sanitary district.

Sales for delinquent taxes owing to such sanitary district shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as such sales are made for other taxes, and all provisions of the law of this state relating to the sale of property for delinquent taxes shall be applicable, so far as may be, to such sales. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.18]

358.19 Records and disbursements. The clerk of each sanitary district shall keep a record of all the proceedings and actions of the trustees. The treasurer shall receive, collect, and disburse all moneys belonging to the district, and no claim shall be paid or disbursement made until it has been duly audited by the board of trustees. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.19]

358.20 Rentals and charges. Any sanitary district may by ordinance establish just and equitable rates or charges or rentals for the utilities and services furnished by it to be paid to such district by every person, firm or corporation whose premises are served by a connection to such utilities and services directly or indirectly. Such rates, charges, or rentals, as near as may be in the judgment of the board of trustees of the district, shall be equitable and in proportion to the services rendered and the cost thereof, and taking into consideration in the case of each such premises the quantity of sewage produced thereby and its concentration, strength, and pollution qualities. The board of trustees may change such rates, charges, or rentals from time to time as it may deem advisable, and by ordinance may provide for the collection thereof. The board is authorized to contract with any municipality within the district, whereby such municipality may collect or assist in collecting any of such rates, charges, or rentals, whether in conjunction with water rentals or otherwise, and any such municipality is hereby empowered to undertake such collection and render such service. Such rates, charges, or rentals, if not paid when due, shall constitute a lien upon the property served by a connection as aforesaid and shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes.

In no case shall such rates, rentals, or charges, or the funds accruing from the collection thereof, be used to meet that part of the cost of any construction within the district which has been financed by special assessment against benefited properties.

Sewer rentals, charges, or rates may supplant or replace, in whole or in part, any monetary levy of taxes which may be, or have been, authorized by the board of trustees for any of the following purposes:

1. To meet interest and principal payments on bonds legally authorized for the financing of sanitary utilities in any manner.

2. To pay costs of the construction, maintenance, or repair of such sanitary facilities or utilities, including payments to be made under any contract between municipalities for either the joint use of sewerage or sewage facilities, or for the use by one municipality of all or a part of the sewerage or sewer system of another municipality.

When a sewer rental ordinance has been passed and put into effect, prior ordinances or resolutions providing for monetary levy of taxes against real and personal property for such purposes, or the portion thereof replaced, may be repealed. [C31, 35, §6066-d7; C39, §6066.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §358.20, 393.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §358.20]

358.21 Debt limit—borrowing—bonds—purposes.

Any sanitary district organized hereunder may borrow money for its corporate purposes, but shall not become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount in the aggregate exceeding five percent on the value of the taxable property within such district, to be ascertained by the last state and county tax lists previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. Indebtedness within this constitutional limit shall not include the indebtedness of any other municipal corporation located wholly or partly within the boundaries of such sanitary district.

Subject only to this debt limitation, any such sanitary district organized hereunder shall have and it is hereby vested with all of the same powers to issue bonds, including both general obligation and revenue bonds, which cities now or may hereafter have under the laws of this state. In the application of such laws to this chapter, the words used in any such laws referring to municipal corporations or to cities shall be held to include sanitary districts organized under this chapter, the words "council" or "city council" shall be held to include the board of trustees of a sanitary district; the words "mayor" and "clerk" shall be held to include the president and clerk of any such board of trustees or sanitary district; and like construction shall be given to any other words in such laws where required to permit the exercise of such powers by sanitary districts.

Any and all bonds issued hereunder shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees and attested by the clerk, with the seal of the district, if any, affixed, and interest coupons attached thereto shall be attested by the signature of the clerk.

The proceeds of any bond issue made under the provisions of this section shall be used only for the purpose of acquiring, locating, laying out, establishing and construction of drainage facilities, conduits, treatment plants, pumping plants, works, ditches, channels and outlets of such capacity and character as may be required for the treatment, carrying off and disposal of the sewage and industrial wastes and other drainage incidental thereto of such district, or to repair, change, enlarge and add to such facilities as may be necessary or proper to meet the requirements present and future for the purposes aforesaid. Proceeds from such bond issue may also be used for the payment of special assessment deficiencies. Said bonds shall be payable in not more than forty annual installments and with interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, and shall be made payable at such place and be of such form as the board of trustees shall by resolution designate. Any sanitary district issuing bonds as authorized in this section is hereby granted authority to pledge the future avails of a tax levy to the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds after the same come due, and the power to impose and certify said levy is hereby granted to the trustees of sanitary districts organized under the provisions of this chapter. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.21]

358.22 Special assessments. The board of trustees of any sanitary district may provide for payment of all or any portion of the costs and expenses of constructing, reconstructing, or extending any drains, sewers, or laterals, and other necessary adjuncts thereto, including pumping stations, by assessing all, or any portion thereof, on abutting and adjacent property according to the benefits derived thereby, and for this purpose said board may define adjacent property as all that included within a designated benefited district or districts to be fixed by the board, which may be all of the property located within the sanitary district or any lesser portion thereof. It shall constitute no objection to any special assessment that the improvement for which the same is levied is outside the limits of such sanitary district, but no special assessment shall be made upon property situated outside of such sanitary district. Special assessments shall be in proportion to the special benefits conferred upon the property thereby, and not in excess of such benefits, and the same shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the actual value of the property at the time of levy, and the last preceding assessment roll shall be taken as prima-facie evidence of such value.

Such assessments may be made to extend over a period of ten years, payable in as nearly equal annual installments as practicable, and certificates or bonds may be issued in anticipation thereof. Proceedings for improvements to be made and paid for, in whole or in part, by special assessments, as herein authorized shall be initiated by resolution of necessity, and said resolution and the plat, schedule, hearings, notices, objections, orders, assessments, levies, contracts, bonds, certification of assessments, liens, payment, tax sales, and appeals, and the issuance and sale of certificates, and bonds, shall correspond, as near as may be, to the provisions therefor relating to special assessment bonds of a city, which provisions shall govern such proceedings, to the extent applicable, except as modified hereby. A majority vote of the board of trustees shall be requisite and sufficient for any action required by the board under the provisions of this section. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358.22]

358.24 Contracts outside of district. A sanitary district may enter into contracts with persons or firms outside its limits for the processing of sewage but the rate for processing shall not be less than that charged the inhabitants of the district.

A district entering into a contract may lay sewer lines in highways outside the district upon first obtaining the permission of the state department of transportation in the case of primary roads and the board of supervisors in case of secondary roads, on written application designating the particular highway and part thereof, the use of which is desired.

A sanitary district adjoining a border of the state and owning and operating a sewage disposal plant, may contract with the governing body of any legal entity in an adjacent area in another state, to process the sewage from the area. The contract shall be subject to approval of the state department of health. [C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §393.10, 393.11, 393.13; C75, 77, 79, 81, §358.24]

The board of supervisors of the county in which the sanitary district or a major portion of it is located shall have jurisdiction of the proceedings on the petition, and the decision of a majority of the members of the board shall be necessary for approval of the petition for conveyance and discontinuance. Orders of the board made under this section shall be spread upon the records of the proceedings of the board of supervisors, and shall be filed with the county recorder but need not be published under section 349.16. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §358.26; S81, §358.32]

358.35 Conducting hearing. The board of supervisors to whom the petition is addressed shall preside at the hearing and shall continue the same in session with adjournments from day to day, if necessary, and until completed, without being required to give further notice. At the hearing, all persons interested in the matter of the conveyance and discontinuance of the sanitary district may appear and shall be heard, for and against the conveyance and discontinuance, and the board shall examine into the matter and the equitable distribution of the assets, and equitable distribution and assumption of the liabilities which have accrued during the time the sanitary district has been in existence. The board shall receive evidence on the question from the parties interested, and, after hearing and reviewing the statements, evidence, and suggestions made and offered at the hearing, if it finds that the sanitary district lies wholly or partially within the corporate limits of a city or that the depository of the district is a municipal sanitary sewage system, that the public health, comfort, convenience or welfare will be promoted by the conveyance and discontinuance of the sanitary district and the assumption of the duties, responsibilities and functions of the sanitary district by the city, and that the city has agreed to assume the duties, responsibilities and functions of the sanitary district, shall enter an order specifying the matter and specifying the equitable distribution of the assets, and the equitable distribution and assumption of the liabilities and responsibilities of the sanitary district and setting an effective date of the conveyance and discontinuance. When a sanitary district has been discontinued by order of the board of supervisors, as provided in this division, the order of the board of supervisors shall be filed in the office of the recorder in the county or counties in which the sanitary district is located. The agreement of the city in which the sanitary district is located and which has agreed to assume the duties, responsibilities and functions of the sanitary district shall also be filed along with, and as part of the order of the board of supervisors conveying and discontinuing the district. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §358.30; S81, §358.36]

358.38 Indebtedness assumed. The indebtedness of the sanitary district shall be assumed and paid by the city, and may be paid by a tax to be levied exclusively upon the property within the jurisdiction of the sanitary district as it existed prior to the conveyance and discontinuance, or by the issuance of such bonds as cities may issue for purchasing and acquiring any sanitary sewer system or sewage disposal works and facilities or both. 358A.2 Farms exempt. Except to the extent required to implement section 358A.27, no ordinance adopted under this chapter applies to land, farm houses, farm barns, farm outbuildings or other buildings or structures which are primarily adapted, by reason of nature and area, for use for agricultural purposes, while so used. However, the ordinances may apply to any structure, building, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation in or on the flood plains of any river or stream. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §358A.2; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1070; 82 Acts, ch 1245, §16]

1982 amendments do not invalidate existing ordinances or require adoption of zoning ordinance, see 82 Acts, ch 1245, §20

358A.3 Powers. Subject to section 358A.2, the board of supervisors may by ordinance regulate and restrict the height, number of structures, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes, and may regulate, restrict, and prohibit the use for residential purposes of tents, trailers, and portable or potentially portable structures. However, such powers shall be exercised only with reference to land and structures located within the county but lying outside of the corporate limits of any city. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §358A.3; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1071]

358A.4 Areas and districts. For any and all of said purposes the board of supervisors may divide the county, or any area or areas within the county, into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this chapter; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures or land. All such regulations and restrictions shall be uniform for each class or kind of buildings throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358A.4]

358A.5 Objectives. The regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to preserve the availability of agricultural land; to consider the protection of soil from wind and water erosion; to encourage efficient urban development patterns; to lessen congestion in the street or highway; to secure safety from fire, flood, panic, and other dangers; to protect health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to promote the conservation of energy resources; to promote reasonable access to solar energy; and to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks and other public requirements. However, provisions of this section relating to the objectives of energy conservation and access to solar energy shall not be construed as voiding any zoning regulation existing on July 1, 1981, or to require zoning in a county that did not have zoning prior to July 1, 1981.

Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, as to the character of the area of the district and the peculiar suitability of such area for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout such county. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §358A.5; 81 Acts, ch 125, §1; 82 Acts, ch 1245, §17]

358A.7 Changes and amendments. Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may, from time to time, be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a protest against such change signed by the owners of twenty percent or more either of the area included in such proposed change, or of the area immediately adjacent thereto and within five hundred feet of the boundaries thereof, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of at least sixty percent of all of the members of the board of supervisors. The provisions of section 358A.6 relative to public hearings and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358A.7]

358A.8 Commission appointed. In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this chapter, the board of supervisors shall appoint a commission, a majority of whose members shall reside within the county but outside the corporate limits of any city, to be known as the county zoning commission, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts, and appropriate regulations and restrictions to be enforced therein. Such commission shall, with due diligence, prepare a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report; and the board of supervisors shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. After the adoption of such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries of districts, the zoning commission may, from time to time, recommend to the board of supervisors amendments, supplements, changes or modifications. The zoning commission, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may contract with professional consultants, regional planning commissions, the Iowa development commission, or the federal government, for local planning assistance. [C50, 54, 58, §358A.8; C62, 66, 71, 73, §358A.8, 373.21; C75, 77, 79, 81, §358A.8]

358A.10 Board of adjustment. The board of supervisors shall provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this chapter shall provide that the said board of adjustment may, in appropriate cases, and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinances or regulations in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with the general or specific rules therein contained, and provide that any property owner aggrieved by the action of the board of supervisors in the adoption of such regulations and restrictions may petition the said board of adjustment direct to modify regulations and restrictions as applied to such property owners. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §358A.10]

They may also be terminated by a majority of the voters represented by either of the contracting parties, voting on a proposition to terminate which shall be submitted by the governing body upon a written petition of qualified voters in a number not less than five percent of those who voted in the area for president of the United States or governor at the last general election.

The proceeds of such sale of jointly owned real estate including improvements located thereon shall be prorated between the township and the city on the basis of their respective contribution to the acquisition and maintenance of such property.

Sales at public auction contemplated herein shall be made only after the township trustees advertise for bids for such property. Such advertisement shall definitely describe said property and be published by at least one insertion each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper having general circulation in the township.

The township trustee shall not, prior to two weeks after the said second publication, nor later than six months after said second publication, accept any bid. 5. Contracts in which a city officer or employee has an interest solely by reason of employment, or a stock interest of the kind described in subsection 9, or both, if the contracts are made by competitive bid, publicly invited and opened, and if the remuneration of employment will not be directly affected as a result of the contract and the duties of employment do not directly involve the procurement or preparation of any part of the contract. The competitive bid requirement of this subsection shall not be required for any contract for professional services not customarily awarded by competitive bid.

10. A contract made by competitive bid, publicly invited and opened, in which a member of a city board of trustees, commission, or administrative agency has an interest if he is not authorized by law to participate in the awarding of the contract. 364.1 Scope. A city may, except as expressly limited by the Constitution, and if not inconsistent with the laws of the general assembly, exercise any power and perform any function it deems appropriate to protect and preserve the rights, privileges, and property of the city or of its residents, and to preserve and improve the peace, safety, health, welfare, comfort, and convenience of its residents. This grant of home rule powers does not include the power to enact private or civil law governing civil relationships, except as incident to an exercise of an independent city power. [C51, §664; R60, §1047, 1056, 1057, 1071–1073, 1095; C73, §454–456, 482, 524; C97, §680, 695, 947; C13, §695; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5714, 5738, 6720; C46, 50, §366.1, 368.2, 420.31; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.1, 368.2, 420.31; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.1]

364.2 Vesting of power—franchises.

1. A power of a city is vested in the city council except as otherwise provided by a state law.

2. The enumeration of a specific power of a city does not limit or restrict the general grant of home rule power conferred by the Constitution. A city may exercise its general powers subject only to limitations expressly imposed by a state or city law.

3. An exercise of a city power is not inconsistent with a state law unless it is irreconcilable with the state law.

4. a. A city may grant to any person a franchise to erect, maintain, and operate plants and systems for electric light and power, heating, telephone, telegraph, cable television, district telegraph and alarm, motor bus, trolley bus, street railway or other public transit, waterworks, or gasworks, within the city for a term of not more than twenty-five years. The franchise may be granted, amended, extended, or renewed only by an ordinance, but no exclusive franchise shall be granted, amended, extended, or renewed.

b. No such ordinance shall become effective unless approved at an election. The proposal may be submitted by the council on its own motion to the voters at any city election. Upon receipt of a valid petition as defined in section 362.4 requesting that a proposal be submitted to the voters, the council shall submit the proposal at the next regular city election or at a special election called for that purpose prior to the next regular city election. If a majority of those voting approves the proposal the city may proceed as proposed.

c. Notice of the election shall be given by publication as prescribed in section 49.53 in a newspaper of general circulation in the city.

d. The person asking for the granting, amending, extension, or renewal of a franchise shall pay the costs incurred in holding the election, including the costs of the notice. A franchise shall not be finally effective until an acceptance in writing has been filed with the council and payment of the costs has been made.

e. The franchise ordinance may regulate the conditions required and the manner of use of the streets and public grounds of the city, and it may, for the purpose of providing electrical, gas, heating, or water service, confer the power to appropriate and condemn private property upon the person franchised. [C51, §664; R60, §1047, 1056, 1057, 1090, 1094, 1095; C73, §454–456, 471, 473, 474, 517, 523, 524; C97, §695, 720–722, 775, 776; S13, §695, 720–722, 776; C24, 27, 31, 35,

Referred to in §56 29

364.3 Limitation of powers. The following are limitations upon the powers of a city:

1. A city council shall exercise a power only by the passage of a motion, a resolution, an amendment, or an ordinance.

2. A city may not provide a penalty in excess of a one hundred dollar fine or in excess of thirty days imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance. An amount equal to ten percent of all fines collected by municipal corporations shall be remitted quarterly to the county treasurer of the county in which the municipal corporation is located for deposit in the county general fund. However, one hundred percent of all fines collected by a city pursuant to section 321.236, subsection 1, shall be retained by the city.

3. A city may not set standards and requirements which are lower or less stringent than those imposed by state law, but may set standards and requirements which are higher or more stringent than those imposed by state law, unless a state law provides otherwise.

4. A city may not levy a tax unless specifically authorized by a state law. [R60, §1071–1073, 1095; C73, §482, 524; C97, §668, 680, 947; S13, §668; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5663, 5714, 6720; C46, 50, §363.36, 366.1, 420.31; C54, 58, 62, §366.1, 368A.1(10), 420.31; C66, 71, 73, §366.1, 368.2, 368A.1(10), 420.31; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.3]

3. Enact and enforce ordinances relating to city property and city-extended services outside the city. [SS15, §741-d, 741-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5773; C46, §368.41, 368.42; C50, §368.42, 368.56; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §368.18; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.4]

364.5 Joint action—league of municipalities. A city or a board established to administer a city utility, in the exercise of any of its powers, may act jointly with any public or private agency as provided in chapter 28E.

The financial condition and the transactions of the league of Iowa municipalities shall be audited in the same manner as cities as provided in section 11.18.

It is unlawful for the league of Iowa municipalities to provide any form of aid to a political party or to the campaign of a candidate for political or public office. Any person violating or being an accessory to a violation of this section is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

A city may enter into an agreement with the federal government acting through any of its authorized agencies, and may carry out provisions of the agreement as necessary to meet federal requirements to obtain the funds or co-operation of the federal government or its agencies for the planning, construction, rehabilitation, or extension of a public improvement. [S13, §694-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5684; C46, 50, §363.62; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.43; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.5]

364.6 Procedure. A city shall substantially comply with a procedure established by a state law for exercising a city power. If a procedure is not established by state law, a city may determine its own procedure for exercising the power. [C66, 71, 73, §368.2; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.6]

364.7 Disposal of property. A city may not dispose of an interest in real property by sale, lease for a term of more than three years, or gift, except in accordance with the following procedure:

1. The council shall set forth its proposal in a resolution and shall publish notice as provided in section 362.3, of the resolution and of a date, time and place of a public hearing on the proposal.

2. After the public hearing, the council may make a final determination on the proposal by resolution.

3. A city may not dispose of real property by gift except to a governmental body for a public purpose. However, a city may dispose of real property for use in an Iowa homesteading program under section 220.14 for a nominal consideration, including but not limited to property in an urban renewal area. [C73, §470; C97, §883, 1001; S13, §1056-a47; C24, 27, §6205, 6206, 6580, 6602, 6738, 6739; C31, 35, §6205, 6206, 6580, 6602, 6679-c1, 6738, 6739; C39, §8205, 6206, 6580, 6602, 6679.1, 6738, 6739; C46, 50, §390.6, 403.11, 403.12, 416.108, 416.131, 419.66, 420.49, 420.50; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §368.35, 368.39, 390.6; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.7]

Referred to in §306.42

364.8 Overpasses or underpasses. A city may by ordinance require a railway company operating railway tracks on or across a city street to construct or reconstruct, and maintain, an overpass or underpass to permit the street to pass over or under the tracks, and may establish specifications for the construction or reconstruction of such an overpass or underpass, subject to the following:

1. The requirement may not be enforced until the Iowa state department of transportation approves the specifications for a construction or reconstruction, after examination and a determination that the overpass or underpass is necessary for public safety and convenience.

2. The council shall hold a hearing on the matter and shall give not less than twenty days' notice of the hearing to the railway companies involved, served in the same manner as an original notice.

3. A city may not require overpasses or underpasses of the same railway company to be constructed closer than on every fourth parallel street, nor require a company to construct or contribute to the construction of more than one overpass or underpass each year, nor require the construction of approaches longer than a total of eight hundred feet for a single overpass or underpass.

4. A city which requires construction or reconstruction of an overpass or underpass shall provide for appraisal and assessment of resulting damage to private property, and shall pay the damages assessed, all as provided in chapter 472.

5. A city shall pay one half of all required maintenance costs, and may allocate costs between railway companies whose tracks are to be crossed by an overpass or underpass.

6. A city may enforce a requirement made as provided in this section by an action in mandamus, to be conducted and enforced as provided in section 327C.16 for actions brought by the state department of transportation. If the city prevails in the mandamus action, in addition to other remedies it may cause the required construction, reconstruction, or maintenance work to be done, and have judgment for the cost of the work against the companies. [C97, §770-774; S13, §771, 773, 774; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5910-5913, 5916-5920, 5923-5925; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §387.1-387.4, 387.7-387.11, 387.14-387.16; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.8]

364.9 Flood control—railway tracks. A city may require a railway company to provide necessary structures, temporary and permanent, to carry its tracks during and after construction of a diverted channel for flood control purposes, subject to the following:

1. The city shall give notice to the railway company, served in the same manner as an original notice, stating:

a. The nature of the flood control project.

b. The place where the diverted channel will cross the company's right of way.

c. The specifications for construction of the diverted channel across the company's right of way.

d. Details of the city's requirement for the company to provide the necessary structures where the diverted channel crosses the right of way, including a designated period of time for construction, and a requirement that the construction be in a manner which does not interfere with the construction of the diverted channel or the free flow of water.

2. If the company does not comply with the requirement, the city may provide the necessary structures, and the railway is liable for the cost of the construction, in addition to its liability for assessment for special benefits as other property is assessed. The cost of the construction may be collected by the city from the company by court action. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6093-6095; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §395.15-395.17; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.9]

364.11 Street construction by railways. All railway companies shall construct and repair all street improvements between the rails of their tracks, and one foot outside, at their own expense, unless by ordinance the railway is required to improve other portions of the street, and in that case the railway shall construct and repair the improvement of that part of the street specified by the ordinance, and the improvement or repair must be of the material and character ordered by the city, and must be done at the time the remainder of the improvement is constructed or repaired.

When an improvement is made, the company shall lay rail as required by the council, and shall then keep up to grade that part of the improvement they are required to construct or maintain.

If a railway fails or refuses to comply with the order of the council to construct or repair an improvement, the work may be done by the city and the expense shall then be assessed upon the property of the railway company, for collection in the same manner as a property tax. A tax assessed under this section shall also be a debt due from the railway, and may be collected in an action at law in the same manner as other debts. [R60, §1068; C73, §478; C97, §834, 840; C13, §791-i; SS15, §840-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6052-6055; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §391.79-391.82; C75, 77, 79, 81, §364.11]

364.12 Responsibility for public places.

1. As used in this section, "property owner" means the contract purchaser if there is one of record, otherwise the record holder of legal title.

2. A city is responsible for the care, supervision, and control of public grounds, streets, sidewalks, alleys, bridges, culverts, overpasses, underpasses, grade crossing separations and approaches, except those lawfully required to be maintained by a railway company, and the city shall keep all public ways, squares, and commons open, in repair, and free from nuisance, with the following exceptions:

a. Public ways and grounds may be temporarily closed by resolution. Following notice as provided in section 362.3, such public ways and grounds may be vacated by ordinance.

b. The abutting property owner is responsible for the prompt removal of snow, ice, and accumulations from the sidewalks.

c. The abutting property owner may be required by ordinance to maintain all property outside the lot and property lines and inside the curb lines upon the public streets, except that the property owner shall not be required to remove diseased trees or dead wood on the publicly owned property or right of way.

d. A city may serve notice on the abutting property owner, by certified mail to the property owner as shown by the records of the county auditor, requiring him to repair, replace, or reconstruct sidewalks.

e. If the abutting property owner does not perform an action required under this subsection within a reasonable time, a city may perform the required action and assess the costs against the abutting property for collection in the same manner as a property tax.

3. A city may:

a. Require the abatement of a nuisance, public or private, in any reasonable manner.

b. Require the removal of diseased trees or dead wood, except as stated in subsection 2, paragraph "c" of this section.

c. Require the removal, repair, or dismantling of a dangerous building or structure.

d. Require the numbering of buildings.

f. Require connection to public sewer systems from abutting property, and require installation of sanitary toilet facilities and removal of other toilet facilities on such property.

h. If the property owner does not perform an action required under this subsection within a reasonable time after notice, a city may perform the required action and assess the costs against the property for collection in the same manner as a property tax. Notice may be in the form of an ordinance or by certified mail to the property owner as shown by the records of the county auditor, and shall state the time within which action is required. However, in an emergency a city may perform any action which may be required under this section without prior notice, and assess the costs as provided in this subsection, after notice to the property owner and hearing.

The county commissioner of elections shall publish notice of the election as provided in section 49.53 and shall conduct the election in the same manner as other special city elections.

The costs of an incorporation election shall be borne by the initiating petitioners if the election fails, but if the proposition is approved the cost shall become a charge of the new city. [R60, §1032, 1037, 1043, 1044; C73, §422, 423, 425, 430-432, 447-450; C97, §600-605, 610-612, 615; S13, §600-602, 615; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5592-5594, 5596, 5598, 5599, 5605, 5606, 5612-5614; C46, 50, §362.5-362.7, 362.9, 362.11, 362.12, 362.19, 362.20, 362.26, 362.28, 362.29; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §362.5-362.7, 362.9, 362.11, 362.12, 362.19, 362.20, 362.26; C75, 77, 79, 81, §368.19]

368.20 Procedure after approval. After the county commissioner of elections has certified the results to the board, the board shall:

1. Serve and publish notice of the result as provided in section 362.3.
2. File with the secretary of state, the clerk of each city incorporated or involved in a boundary adjustment, and with the recorder of each county which contains a portion of any city or territory involved, copies of the proceedings including the original petition or plan and any amendments, the order of the board approving the petition or plan, proofs of service and publication of required notices, certification of the election result, and any other material deemed by the board to be of primary importance to the proceedings. Upon proper filing and expiration of time for appeal, or upon a subsequent date as provided in the proposal, the incorporation, discontinuance, or boundary adjustment is complete, except that if an appeal to any of the proceedings is pending, completion does not occur until the appeal is decided. The board shall also file with the state department of transportation a copy of the map and legal land description of each completed incorporation or corporate boundary adjustment completed under sections 368.11 to 368.22 or approved annexation within an urbanized area. [R60, §1044, 1053, 1054; C73, §432, 445, 446, 452; C97, §267, 603, 608, 612; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5596, 5603, 5606, 5618; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §362.9, 362.16, 362.20, 362.33; C75, 77, 79, 81, §368.20]

368.21 Supervision of procedures. When an incorporation, discontinuance, or boundary adjustment is complete, the board shall supervise procedures necessary to carry out the proposal. In the case of an incorporation, the county commissioner of elections shall conduct an election for mayor and council of the city, who shall serve until their successors take office following the next regular city election. In the case of a discontinuance, the board shall publish two notices as provided in section 368.15 that it will receive and adjudicate claims against the discontinued city for a period of six months from the date of last notice, and shall cause necessary taxes to be levied against the property within the discontinued city to pay claims allowed. All records of a discontinued city shall be deposited with the county auditor of the county designated by the board. Any remaining balances shall be deposited in the general fund of the county where the former city was located. In the case of boundary adjustments, the proper city officials shall carry out procedures necessary to implement the proposal. [R60, §1037, 1045; C73, §425, 433, 449, 451, 453; C97, §602, 603, 605-607, 613; S13, §602; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5594, 5597, 5600-5602, 5607; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §362.7, 362.10, 362.13-362.15, 362.21; C75, 77, 79, 81, §368.21]

368.22 Appeal. A city, or a resident or property owner in the territory or city involved may appeal a decision of the board or a committee, or the legality of an election, to the district court of a county which contains a portion of any city or territory involved.

Appeal must be filed within thirty days of the filing of a decision or the publication of notice of the result of an election.

Appeal of an approval of a petition or plan does not stay the election.

The judicial review provisions of this section and chapter 17A shall be the exclusive means by which a person or party who is aggrieved or adversely affected by agency action may seek judicial review of that agency action. The court's review on appeal of a decision is limited to questions relating to jurisdiction, regularity of proceedings, and whether the decision appealed from is arbitrary, unreasonable, or without substantial supporting evidence. The court may reverse and remand a decision of the board or a committee, with appropriate directions. The following portions of section 17A.19 are not applicable to this chapter:

1. The part of subsection 2 which relates to where proceedings for judicial review shall be instituted.
2. Subsection 5.
3. Subsection 8. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §368.22]

FORMS OF GOVERNMENT

372.1 Forms of cities. The forms of city government are:

1. Mayor-council, or mayor-council with appointed manager.
2. Commission.
3. Council-manager-at-large.
4. Council-manager-ward.
5. Home rule charter.
6. Special charter.

A city when first incorporated has the mayor-council form. A city retains its form of government until it adopts a different form as provided in this division.

Within thirty days of the date that this section becomes effective, a city shall adopt by ordinance a charter embodying its existing form of government, which must be one of the forms provided in this division, and shall file a copy of its charter with the secretary of state, and maintain copies available for public inspection. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.1, 363.30; C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.1]

Referred to in §372.12

372.2 Six-year limitation. A city may adopt a different form of government not oftener than once in a six-year period. A different form, other than a home rule charter or special charter, must be adopted as follows:

1. Eligible electors of the city, equal in number to at least twenty-five percent of the persons who voted at the last regular city election, may petition the mayor to adopt a different form of city government.
2. Within one week after receiving a valid petition, the mayor shall proclaim a special city election to be held within sixty days to determine whether the city shall change to a different form of government. The mayor shall notify the county commissioner of elections to publish notice of the election and conduct the election pursuant to the provisions of chapters 39 to 53. The county commissioner of elections shall certify the results of the election to the mayor.
3. If a majority of the persons voting at the special election approves the proposed form, it is adopted.
4. If a majority of the persons voting at the special election does not approve the proposed form, that form may not be resubmitted to the voters within the next four years.
5. If the proposed form is adopted:
 - a. The elective officers provided for in the adopted form are to be elected at the next regular city election held more than sixty days after the special election at which the form was adopted, and the adopted form becomes effective at the beginning of the new term following the regular city election.
 - b. The change of form does not alter any right or liability of the city in effect at the time of the special election at which the form was adopted.
 - c. All departments and agencies shall continue to operate until replaced.
 - d. All measures in effect remain effective until amended or repealed, unless they are irreconcilable with the adopted form.

e. Upon the effective date of the adopted form, the city shall adopt by ordinance a new charter embodying the adopted form, and shall file a copy of its charter with the secretary of state, and maintain copies available for public inspection. [C73, §434-439; C97, §631-635, 637; S13, §633, 1056-a17, -a18, -a19, -a20, -a39; SS15, §1056-b1, -b2, -b22, -b26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6478, 6482-6487, 6491, 6549, 6568, 6569, 6616, 6617, 6619, 6620, 6623, 6680-6682, 6687, 6689, 6690, 6936-6940, 6942; C46, 50, §416.3, 416.6, 416.7-416.11, 416.15, 416.73, 416.93, 416.94, 419.2, 419.3, 419.5, 419.6, 419.9, 419.67-419.69, 419.74, 419.76, 419.77, 420.289-420.293, 420.295; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.31-363.38, 363B.6, 363C.12, 420.289-420.293, 420.295; C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.2]

Referred to in §372.4, 372.5

372.3 Home rule charter. The filing of a petition for appointment of a home rule charter commission stays the special election on adoption of another form of government until the charter proposed by the commission is filed, and both forms must be published as provided in section 372.9, and submitted to the voters at the special election. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.3]

372.4 Mayor-council form. A city governed by the mayor-council form has a mayor and five council members elected at large, unless by ordinance a city so governed chooses to have a mayor elected at large and an odd number of council members but not less than five, including at least two council members elected at large and one council member elected by and from each ward. The council may, by ordinance, provide for a city manager and prescribe the manager's powers and duties, and as long as the council contains an odd number of council members, may change the number of wards, abolish wards, or increase the number of council members at large without changing the form.

However, a city governed, on the effective date of this section, by the mayor-council form composed of a mayor and a council consisting of two council members elected at large, and one council member from each of four wards, or a special charter city governed, on the effective date of this section, by the mayor-council form composed of a mayor and a council consisting of two council members elected at large and one council member elected from each of eight wards, may continue until the form of government is changed as provided in section 372.2 or section 372.9. While a city is thus operating with an even number of council members, the mayor may vote to break a tie vote on motions not involving ordinances, resolutions or appointments made by the council alone, and in a special charter city operating with ten council members under this section, the mayor may vote to break a tie vote on all measures.

The mayor shall appoint a council member as mayor pro tem, and shall appoint the marshal or chief of police except where an intergovernmental agreement makes other provisions for police protection. Other officers must be selected as directed by the council. The mayor is not a member of the council and may not vote as a member of the council. [R60, §1081, 1086, 1093, 1095, 1098, 1103, 1105, 1106; C73, §511, 515, 521, 524, 528, 532, 534, 535; C97, §645, 646, 652, 654, 655; S13, §645, 646, 652, 654, 655; SS15, §679-1a,

372.5 Commission form. A city governed by the commission form has five departments as follows:

1. Department of public affairs.
2. Department of accounts and finances.
3. Department of public safety.
4. Department of streets and public improvements.
5. Department of parks and public property.

A city governed by the commission form has a council composed of a mayor and four council members elected at large. The mayor administers the department of public affairs and each other council member is elected to administer one of the other four departments.

However, a city governed, on the effective date of this section, by the commission form and having a council composed of a mayor and two council members elected at large may continue with a council of three until the form of government is changed as provided in section 372.2 or section 372.9 or without changing the form, may submit to the voters the question of increasing the council to five members assigned to the five departments as set out in this section.

The mayor shall supervise the administration of all departments and report to the council all matters requiring its attention. The mayor is a member of the council and may vote on all matters before the council.

The council member elected to administer the department of accounts and finances is mayor pro tem.

The council may appoint a city treasurer or may, by ordinance, provide for election of that officer. [S13, §1056-a18, -a20, -a24, -a25, -a26, -a29; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6484, 6488, 6489, 6502, 6520, 6524, 6526, 6527, 6565, 6566; C46, 50, §416.8, 416.12-416.14, 416.26, 416.44, 416.48, 416.50, 416.51, 416.90, 416.91; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363B.1, 363B.2, 363B.4, 363B.5, 363B.7, 363B.8; C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.5]

372.6 Council-manager-at-large form. A city governed by the council-manager-at-large form has five council members elected at large for staggered four-year terms. At the first meeting of the new term following each city election, the council shall elect one of the council members to serve as mayor, and one to serve as mayor pro tem. The mayor is a member of the council and may vote on all matters before the council. As soon as possible after the beginning of the new term following each city election, the council shall appoint a manager.

The council may by ordinance provide that the city will be governed by council-manager-ward form. The ordinance must provide for the election of the mayor and council members required under council-manager-ward form at the next regular city election. [SS15, §1056-b1, -b7, -b12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6621, 6622, 6645, 6665; C46, 50, §419.7, 419.8, 419.31, 419.51; C54, 58, 62, 66, §363C.1, 363C.3; C71, 73, §363C.1, 363C.3, 363C.17; C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.6] composed of a mayor and two council members elected at large, and one council member elected from each of four wards. The mayor and other council members serve four-year staggered terms. The mayor is a member of the council and may vote on all matters before the council.

As soon as possible after the beginning of the new term following each city election, the council shall appoint a city manager, and a council member to serve as mayor pro tem. [C71, 73, §363E.1; C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.7]

1. The city manager is the chief administrative officer of the city.

2. The city manager shall:

a. Supervise enforcement and execution of the city laws.

b. Attend all meetings of the council.

l. Conduct the business affairs of the city and cause accurate records to be kept by modern and efficient accounting methods.

m. Make to the council not later than the tenth day of each month an itemized financial report in writing, showing the receipts and disbursements for the preceding month. Copies of financial reports must be available at the clerk's office for public distribution.

n. Appoint a treasurer subject to the approval of the council.

- o. Perform other duties at the council's direction.
- 3. The city manager may:

372.9 Home rule charter procedure. A city to be governed by the home rule charter form shall adopt a home rule charter in which its form of government is set forth. A city may adopt a home rule charter only by the following procedures:

- 1. A home rule charter may be proposed by:
 - a. The council, causing a charter to be prepared and filed and by resolution submitting it to the voters.
 - b. Eligible electors of the city equal in number to at least twenty-five percent of the persons who voted at the last regular city election petitioning the council to appoint a charter commission to prepare a proposed charter. The council shall, within thirty days of the filing of a valid petition, appoint a charter commission composed of not less than five nor more than fifteen members. The charter commission shall, within six months of its appointment, prepare and file with the council a proposed charter.
- 2. When a charter is filed, the council and mayor shall notify the county commissioner of elections to publish notice and conduct the election. The notice shall be published at least twice in the manner provided in section 362.3, except that the publications must occur within sixty days of the filing of the home rule charter, with a two-week interval between each publication. The council shall provide copies of a proposed charter for public distribution by the city clerk.
- 3. The proposed home rule charter must be submitted at a special city election on a date selected by the mayor after consulting regarding the date on which the election may most conveniently be held with the county commissioner of elections who will be responsible for conducting the election. However, the date of the election must be not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the last publication of the proposed home rule charter.

4. If a proposed home rule charter is rejected by the voters, it may not be resubmitted in substantially the same form to the voters within the next four years. If a proposed home rule charter is adopted by the voters, no other form of government may be submitted to the voters for six years.

5. If a petition for the appointment of a charter commission is filed at any time within two weeks after the second publication of a charter proposed by the council, the submission to the voters of a charter proposed by the council must be delayed, a charter commission appointed, and the council proposal and the charter proposed by the charter commission must be submitted to the voters at the same special election.

6. The ballot submitting a proposed charter or charters must also submit the existing form of government as an alternative.

7. If only two forms of government are being voted upon, the form of government which receives the highest number of votes is adopted.

If more than two forms are being voted upon and no form receives a majority of the votes cast in the special election, there must be a runoff election between the two proposed forms which receive the highest number of votes in the special election. The runoff election must be held within thirty days following the special election and must be conducted in the same manner as a special city election.

8. If a home rule charter is adopted:

- a. The elective officers provided for in the charter are to be elected at the next regular city election held more than sixty days after the special election at which the charter was adopted, and the adopted charter becomes effective at the beginning of the new term following the regular city election.
- b. The adoption of the charter does not alter any right or liability of the city in effect at the time of the special election at which the charter was adopted.
- c. All departments and agencies shall continue to operate until replaced.
- d. All measures in effect remain effective until amended or repealed, unless they are irreconcilable with the charter.
- e. Upon the effective date of the home rule charter, the city shall adopt by ordinance the home rule charter, and shall file a copy of its charter with the secretary of state, and maintain copies available for public inspection. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.9]

Referred to in §372.3, 372.4, 372.5

372.10 Contents of charter. A home rule charter must contain provisions for:

- 1. A council of an odd number of members, not less than five.
- 2. A mayor, who may be one of those council members.
- 3. Two-year or staggered four-year terms of office for the mayor and council members.
- 4. The powers and duties of the mayor and the council, consistent with the provisions of the city code. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.10]

372.11 Amendment to charter. A home rule charter may be amended by one of the following methods:

- 1. The council, by resolution, may submit a proposed amendment to the voters at a special city election, and the proposed amendment becomes effective if approved by a majority of those voting.

2. The council, by ordinance, may amend the charter. However, within thirty days of publication of the ordinance, if a petition valid under the provisions of section 362.4 is filed with the council, the council must submit the ordinance amendment to the voters at a special city election, and the amendment does not become effective until approved by a majority of those voting.

3. If a petition valid under the provisions of section 362.4 is filed with the council proposing an amendment to the charter, the council must submit the proposed amendment to the voters at a special city election, and the amendment becomes effective if approved by a majority of those voting. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.11]

372.12 Special charter form limitation. A city may not adopt the special charter form but a city governed by a special charter on the effective date of the city code is considered to have the special charter form although it may utilize elements of the mayor-council form in conjunction with the provisions of its special charter. In adopting and filing its charter as required in section 372.1, a special charter city shall include the provisions of its charter and any provisions of the mayor-council form which are followed by the city on the effective date of the city code.

A special charter city may utilize the provisions of chapter 420 in lieu of conflicting sections, until the city changes to one of the other forms of government as provided in this chapter. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §372.12]

DIVISION II

CITY OFFICERS

372.13 The council.

1. A majority of all council members is a quorum.
2. A vacancy in an elective city office during a term of office shall be filled, at the council's option, by one of the two following procedures:

a. By appointment by the remaining members of the council, except that if the remaining members do not constitute a quorum of the full membership, paragraph "b" shall be followed. The appointment shall be for the period until the next pending election as defined in section 69.12, and shall be made within forty days after the vacancy occurs. If the council chooses to proceed under this paragraph, it shall publish notice in the manner prescribed by section 362.3, stating that the council intends to fill the vacancy by appointment but that the electors of the city or ward, as the case may be, have the right to file a petition requiring that the vacancy be filled by a special election. The council may publish notice in advance if an elected official submits a resignation to take effect at a future date. The council may make an appointment to fill the vacancy after the notice is published or after the vacancy occurs, whichever is later. However, if within fourteen days after publication of the notice or within fourteen days after the appointment is made, whichever is later, there is filed with the city clerk a petition which requests a special election to fill the vacancy and which is signed by eligible electors who are, or would be if registered, entitled to vote to fill the office in question, equal in number to two percent of those who voted for candidates for the office at the last preceding regular election at which the office was on the ballot, but not less than ten persons, an appointment to fill the vacancy is temporary and the council shall call a special election to fill the vacancy permanently, under paragraph "b".

b. By a special election held to fill the office for the remaining balance of the unexpired term. If the council opts for a special election or a valid petition is filed under paragraph "a", the special election may be held concurrently with any pending election as provided by section 69.12 if by so doing the vacancy will be filled not more than ninety days after it occurs. Otherwise, a special election to fill the office shall be called at the earliest practicable date. If there are concurrent vacancies on the council and the remaining council members do not constitute a quorum of the full membership, a special election shall be called at the earliest practicable date. A special election held under this subsection is subject to neither a primary election nor runoff, even if such an election is required when the office in question is filled at a regular city election, and the candidate receiving a plurality of the vote is elected.

3. The council shall appoint a city clerk to maintain city records and perform other duties prescribed by state or city law.

4. Except as otherwise provided by state or city law, the council may appoint city officers and employees, and prescribe their powers, duties, compensation, and terms. The appointment of a city manager must be made on the basis of that individual's qualifications and not on the basis of political affiliation.

5. The council shall determine its own rules and maintain records of its proceedings. City records and documents, or accurate reproductions, shall be kept for at least five years, except that ordinances, resolutions, council proceedings, and records and documents relating to real property transactions or bond issues shall be maintained permanently.

6. Within fifteen days following a regular or special meeting of the council, the clerk shall cause the minutes of the proceedings of the council, including the total expenditure from each city fund, to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The publication shall include a list of all claims allowed and a summary of all receipts and shall show the gross amount of the claim. Matters discussed in closed session pursuant to section 28A.3 shall not be published until entered on the public minutes. However, in cities having more than one hundred fifty thousand population the council shall each month print in pamphlet form a detailed itemized statement of all receipts and disbursements of the city, and a summary of its proceedings during the preceding month, and furnish copies to the city library, the daily newspapers of the city, and to persons who apply at the office of the city clerk, and the pamphlet shall constitute publication as required. Failure by the clerk to make publication is a simple misdemeanor. The provisions of this subsection are applicable in cities in which a newspaper is published, or in cities of two hundred population or over, but in all other cities, posting the statement in three public places in the city which have been permanently designated by ordinance is sufficient compliance with this subsection.

7. By ordinance, the council may divide the city into wards based upon population, change the boundaries of wards, eliminate wards or create new wards.

8. By ordinance, the council shall prescribe the compensation of the mayor, council members, and other elected city officers, but a change in the compensation of the mayor shall not become effective during the term in which the change is adopted, and the council shall not adopt such an ordinance changing the compensation of the mayor or council members during the months of November and December immediately following a regular city election. A change in the compensation of council members shall become effective for all council members at the beginning of the term of the council members elected at the election next following the change in compensation. Except as provided in section 362.5, an elected city officer shall not receive any other compensation for any other city office or city employment during that officer's term of office, but may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred. However, if the mayor pro tem performs the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence or disability for a continuous period of fifteen days or more, the mayor pro tem may be paid for that period such compensation as determined by the council, based upon the mayor pro tem's performance of the mayor's duties and upon the compensation of the mayor.

9. A council member, during the term for which that member is elected, is not eligible for appointment to any city office if the office has been created or the compensation of the office has been increased during the term for which that member is elected. A person who resigns from an elective office is not eligible for appointment to the same office during the time for which that person was elected if during that time, the compensation of the office has been increased.

1. The mayor is the chief executive officer of the city and presiding officer of the council. Except for the supervisory duties which have been delegated by law to a city manager, the mayor shall supervise all city officers and departments.

2. The mayor may take command of the police and govern the city by proclamation, upon making a determination that a time of emergency or public danger exists. Within the city limits, the mayor has all the powers conferred upon the sheriff to suppress disorders.

3. The mayor pro tem is vice president of the council. When the mayor is absent or unable to act, the mayor pro tem shall perform the mayor's duties, except that the mayor pro tem may not appoint, employ, or discharge officers or employees without the approval of the council. Official actions of the mayor pro tem when the mayor is absent or unable to act are legal and binding to the same extent as if done by the mayor. 376.1 City election held. A city shall hold a regular city election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each odd-numbered year. A city shall hold regular, special, primary, or runoff city elections as provided by state law.

The mayor or council shall give notice of any special election to the county commissioner of elections. The county commissioner of elections shall publish notice of any city election and conduct the election pursuant to the provisions of chapters 39 to 53, except as otherwise specifically provided in chapters 362 to 392. The results of any election shall be canvassed by the county board of supervisors and certified by the county commissioner of elections to the mayor and the council of the city for which the election is held. [R60, §1130; C73, §501; C97, §642, 936; S13, §646, 1056-a20, -a21; SS15, §1056-b5, -b6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5627, 6488, 6494, 6507, 6514, 6643, 6644, 6737; C46, 50, §363.5, 416.12, 416.18, 416.31, 416.38, 419.29, 419.30; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.8, 363.20, 363.24, 363.26; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.1]

376.2 Terms. Terms of city officers begin and end at noon on the first day in January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday, following a regular city election.

Except as otherwise provided by state law or the city charter, terms for elective offices are two years. However, the term of an elective office may be changed to two or four years by petition and election. Upon receipt of a valid petition as defined in section 362.4, requesting that the term of an elective office be changed, the council shall submit the question at a special city election to be held within sixty days. If a majority of the persons voting at the special election approves the changed term, it becomes effective at the beginning of the term following the next regular city election. If a majority does not approve the changed term, the council shall not submit the same proposal to the voters within the next four years.

At the first regular city election after the terms of council members are changed to four years, terms shall be staggered as follows:

1. If an even number of council members are elected at large, the half of the elected council members who receive the highest number of votes are elected for four-year terms. The remainder are elected for two-year terms.

2. If an odd number of council members are elected at large, the majority of the elected council members who receive the highest number of votes are elected for four-year terms. The remainder are elected for two-year terms.

3. In case of a tie the mayor and clerk shall determine by lot which council members are elected for four-year terms.

4. If the council members are elected from wards, the council members elected from the odd-numbered wards are elected for four-year terms and the council members elected from even-numbered wards are elected for two-year terms. [R60, §1081, 1084, 1091, 1093, 1106; C73, §390, 511, 514, 518, 521, 535; C97, §646-649; S13, §646-649; SS15, §1056-b3; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5632, 6625, 6626; C46, 50, §363.10, 419.11, 419.12; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.9, 363.10, 363.28; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.2]

376.3 Nominations. Candidates for elective city offices must be nominated as provided in sections 376.4 to 376.9 unless by ordinance a city chooses the provisions of chapters 44 or 45. However, a city acting under a special charter in 1973 and having a population of over fifty thousand shall continue to hold partisan elections as provided in sections 43.112 to 43.118 and 420.126 to 420.137 unless the city by election as provided in section 43.112 chooses to conduct city elections under this chapter or chapter 44 or 45. The choice of one of these options by such a special charter city does not otherwise affect the validity of the city's charter. However, special charter cities which choose to exercise the option to conduct nonpartisan city elections may choose in the same manner the original decision was made, to resume holding city elections on a partisan basis. [S13, §1056-a21; SS15, §1056-b4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6492, 6496, 6634, 6638; C46, 50, §416.16, 416.20, 419.20, 419.24; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.11, 363.16; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.3; 82 Acts, ch 1097, §2]

376.4 Candidacy. An eligible elector of a city may become a candidate for an elective city office by filing with the city clerk a valid petition requesting that his or her name be placed on the ballot for that office. The petition must be filed not more than sixty-five days nor less than forty days before the date of the election, and must be signed by eligible electors equal in number to at least two percent of those who voted to fill the same office at the last regular city election, but not less than ten persons. Nomination petitions shall be filed not later than five o'clock p.m. on the last day for filing.

The petitioners for an individual seeking election from a ward must be residents of the ward at the time of signing the petition. An individual is not eligible for election from a ward unless he is a resident of the ward at the time he files the petition and at the time of election.

The petition must include the signature of the petitioners, a statement of their place of residence, and the date on which they signed the petition.

The petition must include the affidavit of at least one eligible elector other than the petitioners, stating the affiant's knowledge, information, and belief as to the residence of the petitioners. The candidate for whom the petition is filed may sign the affidavit only if he or she personally circulated the petition. If the affiant also signed the nomination petition, that signature shall not be counted toward the total required by this section.

The petition must include the affidavit of the individual for whom it is filed, stating his name, his residence, that he is a candidate and eligible for the office, and that if elected he will qualify for the office.

The city clerk shall accept the petition for filing if on its face it appears to have the requisite number of signatures and if it is timely filed.

The city clerk shall deliver all nomination petitions to the county commissioner of elections not later than five o'clock p.m. on the day following the last day on which nomination petitions can be filed. Any person on whose behalf nomination petitions have been filed under this section may withdraw as a candidate by filing a signed statement to that effect as prescribed in section 44.9. [S13, §1056-a21, -a40; SS15, §1056-b4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6478, 6495-6498, 6634-6638; C46, 50, §416.2, 416.19-416.22, 419.20-419.24; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.11-363.16; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.4]

376.5 Publication of ballot. Notice containing a copy of the ballot for each regular, special, primary, or runoff city election must be published by the county commissioner of elections as provided in section 362.3, except that notice of a regular, primary, or runoff election may be published not less than four days before the date of the election. The published ballot must contain the names of all candidates, and may not contain any party designations. The published ballot must contain any question to be submitted to the voters. [S13, §1056-a21; SS15, §1056-b4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6499, 6500, 6501, 6503, 6640; C46, 50, §416.23-416.25, 416.27, 419.26; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.19; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.5]

Referred to in §376.3

376.6 When primary must be held. An individual for whom a valid petition is filed becomes a candidate in the regular city election for the office for which he has filed, except that a primary election must be held for offices for which the number of individuals for whom valid petitions are filed is more than twice the number of positions to be filled. However:

1. The council may by ordinance choose to have a runoff election, as provided in section 376.9, in lieu of a primary election.

2. If the council has by ordinance chosen to have nominations made in the manner provided by chapter 44 or 45, neither a primary election nor a runoff election is required. [S13, §1056-a21; SS15, §1056-b4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6492, 6510, 6638; C46, 50, §416.16, 416.34, 419.24; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.16, 363.18; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.6]

376.7 Date of primary. If a primary election is necessary, it shall be held on the Tuesday three weeks before the date of the regular city election. The county board of supervisors shall publicly canvass the tally lists of the vote cast in the primary election, following the procedures prescribed in section 50.24, at a meeting to be held beginning at one o'clock in the afternoon on the second day following the primary election.

The names of those candidates who receive the highest number of votes for each office on the primary election ballot, to the extent of twice the number of unfilled positions, must be placed on the ballot for the regular city election as candidates for that office. [S13, §1056-a21; SS15, §1056-b5; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6493, 6507, 6643; C46, 50, §416.17, 416.31, 419.29; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.17, 363.24; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.7]

1. In a regular city election following a city primary, the candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast for each office on the ballot are elected, to the extent necessary to fill the positions open.

2. In a regular city election held for a city where the council has chosen a runoff election in lieu of a primary, candidates are elected as provided by subsection 1, except that no candidate is elected who fails to receive a majority of the votes cast for the office in question. In the case of at-large elections to a multimember body, a majority is one vote more than half the quotient found by dividing the total number of votes cast for all candidates for that body by the number of positions to be filled.

3. In a regular city election held for a city where the council has chosen to have nominations made in the manner provided by chapter 44 or 45, the candidates who receive the greatest number of votes for each office on the ballot are elected, to the extent necessary to fill the positions open. [S13, §1056-a21; SS15, §1056-b4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6492, 6638; C46,

376.9 Runoff election. A runoff election may be held only for positions unfilled because of failure of a sufficient number of candidates to receive a majority vote in the regular city election. When a council has chosen a runoff election in lieu of a primary, the county board of supervisors shall publicly canvass the tally lists of the vote cast in the regular city election, following the procedures prescribed in section 50.24, at a meeting to be held beginning at one o'clock in the afternoon on the second day following the regular city election. Candidates who do not receive a majority of the votes cast for an office, but who receive the highest number of votes cast for that office in the regular city election, to the extent of twice the number of unfilled positions, are candidates in the runoff election.

Runoff elections shall be held three weeks after the date of the regular city election and shall be conducted in the same manner as regular city elections.

Candidates in the runoff election who receive the highest number of votes cast for each office on the ballot are elected to the extent necessary to fill the positions open. [C71, 73, §363.16; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.9]

376.10 Contest. A nomination or election to a city office may be contested in the manner provided in chapter 62 for contesting elections to county offices, except that a statement of intent to contest must be filed with the city clerk within ten days after the nomination or election. The mayor is presiding officer of the court for the trial of a nomination or election contest, except that if the mayor's nomination or election is contested, the council shall elect one of its members other than the mayor to serve as presiding officer. [C97, §678, 679; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5629; C46, 50, §363.7; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §363.22; C75, 77, 79, 81, §376.10]

376.11 Candidates nominated by write-in vote. Any person nominated by a write-in vote in a city primary election, or in a regular city election in a city where the council has chosen a runoff election in lieu of a primary, shall execute an affidavit in substantially the form required by section 45.3 and file it with the county commissioner of elections or the city clerk not later than five o'clock p.m. of the day after the canvass of the primary or regular city election, as the case may be. If the person so nominated fails to complete and file the affidavit at the time required, the county commissioner of elections shall disregard the write-in votes cast for that person and proceed in accordance with the requirements of this chapter on the basis of the canvass of all other votes cast at the primary or regular city election. 380.1 Title of ordinance. The subject matter of an ordinance or amendment must be generally described in its title. [R60, §1122; C73, §489; C97, §681; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5715; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.2; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.1]

380.2 Amendment. An amendment to an ordinance or to a code of ordinances must specifically repeal the ordinance or code, or the section or subsection to be amended, and must set forth in full the ordinance, code, section or subsection as amended. [R60, §1122; C73, §489; C97, §681; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5715; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.2; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.2]

380.3 Two considerations before final passage—how waived. A proposed ordinance or amendment must be considered and voted on for passage at two council meetings prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than three-fourths of the council members.

However, if a summary of the proposed ordinance or amendment is published as provided in section 362.3, prior to its first consideration, and copies are available at the time of publication at the office of the city clerk, the ordinance or amendment must be considered and voted on for passage at one meeting prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than three-fourths of the council members. [R60, §1122; C73, §489; C97, §682; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5716; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.3; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.3]

380.4 Majority requirement—tie vote. Passage of an ordinance, amendment, or resolution requires an affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the council members, except when the mayor may vote to break a tie vote in a city with an even number of council members, as provided in section 372.4. A motion to spend public funds in excess of ten thousand dollars on any one project, or a motion to accept public improvements and facilities upon their completion, also requires an affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the council members. Each council member's vote on an ordinance, amendment, or resolution must be recorded. [R60, §1122, 1134, 1135; C73, §466, 489, 493, 494; C97, §683, 684, 793; S13, §683, 693; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5717; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.4; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.4]

380.5 Mayor. The mayor may sign, veto, or take no action on an ordinance, amendment, or resolution passed by the council. However, the mayor may not veto a measure if the mayor was entitled to vote on the measure at the time of passage. [C97, §685; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5718; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.5; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.5]

380.6 Effective date. Measures passed by the council, other than motions, become effective in one of the following ways:

1. If the mayor signs the measure, a resolution becomes effective immediately upon signing and an ordinance or amendment becomes a law when published, unless a subsequent effective date is provided within the measure.

2. If the mayor vetoes the measure, he shall explain his reasons for the veto in a message to the council at the time of the veto. Within thirty days after the mayor's veto, the council may pass the measure again by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the council members. If the mayor vetoes a measure and the council repasses the measure after the mayor's veto, a resolution becomes effective immediately upon repassage, and an ordinance or amendment becomes a law when published, unless a subsequent effective date is provided within the measure.

3. If the mayor takes no action on the measure, a resolution becomes effective fourteen days after the date of passage and an ordinance or amendment becomes a law when published, but not sooner than fourteen days after the date of passage, unless a subsequent effective date is provided within the measure. [R60, §1133; C73, §492; C97, §685-687; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5718, 5720, 5721, 5721-a1; C39, §5718, 5720, 5721, 5721.1; C46, 50, §366.5, 366.7-366.9; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.5, 366.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.6]

380.7 City clerk. The city clerk shall:

1. Promptly record each measure, with a statement, where applicable, indicating whether the mayor signed, vetoed, or took no action on the measure, and whether the measure was repassed after the mayor's veto.

2. Publish all ordinances and amendments in the manner provided in section 362.3.

3. Authenticate all measures except motions with his signature and certification as to time and manner of publication, if any. The clerk's certification is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein.

4. Maintain for public use copies of all effective ordinances and codes. [R60, §1133; C73, §492; C97, §686, 687; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5719-5721, 5721-a1; C39, §5719-5721, 5721.1; C46, 50, §366.6-366.9; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.6, 366.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.7]

380.8 Code of ordinances published. At least once every five years, a city shall compile a code of ordinances containing all of the city ordinances in effect, except grade ordinances, bond ordinances, zoning ordinances, and ordinances vacating streets and alleys.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains only existing ordinances edited and compiled without change in substance, the council may adopt the code by ordinance.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains a proposed new ordinance or amendment, the council shall hold a public hearing on the proposed code before adoption. The clerk shall publish notice of the hearing as provided in section 362.3. Copies of the proposed code of ordinances must be available at the city clerk's office and the notice must so state. Within thirty days after the hearing, the council may adopt the proposed code of ordinances which becomes law upon publication of the ordinance adopting it. If the council substantially amends the proposed code of ordinances after a hearing, notice and hearing must be repeated.

Ordinances and amendments which become effective after adoption of a code of ordinances may be compiled as supplements to the code, and upon adop-

An adopted code of ordinances is presumptive evidence of the passage, publication, and content of the ordinances therein as of the date of the clerk's certification of the ordinance adopting the code or supplement. [R60, §1133; C73, §492; C97, §686, 687; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5720, 5721, 5721-a1; C39, §5720, 5721, 5721.1; C46, 50, §366.7-366.9; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.8]

380.9 Fee for publication. The compensation paid to a newspaper for any publication required by this chapter may not exceed three-fourths of the fee provided in section 618.11. [S13, §687-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5723; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.11; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.9]

380.10 Adoption by reference. A city may adopt the provisions of any statewide or nationally recognized standard code or portions of any such code by an ordinance which identifies the code by subject matter, source and date, and incorporates the provisions by reference without setting them forth in full. Such code or portion must be adopted only after notice and hearing in the manner provided in section 380.8. [R60, §1133; C73, §492; C97, §686, 687; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5720, 5721, 5721-a1; C39, §5720, 5721, 5721.1; C46, 50, §366.7-366.9; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §366.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §380.10]

The county recorder shall record the measure and plat in the miscellaneous record or other book provided for special records, and shall index the record. The city shall pay the recording fee. Referred to in

384.1 Taxes certified. A city may certify taxes to be levied by the county on all taxable property within the city limits, for all city government purposes. However, the tax levied by a city on tracts of land and improvements thereon used and assessed for agricultural or horticultural purposes, may not exceed three dollars and three-eighths cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any year. Improvements and personal property located on such tracts of land and not used for agricultural or horticultural purposes and all residential dwellings shall be subject to the same rate of tax levied by the city on all other taxable property within the city. A city's tax levy for the general fund may not exceed eight dollars and ten cents per thousand dollars of taxable value in any tax year, except for the levies authorized in section 384.12. [C97, §616, 890; S13, §616; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6210; C46, 50, §404.4; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §404.1, 404.2, 404.15; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.1]

384.2 Fiscal year and tax year. Except as otherwise provided for special charter cities, a city's fiscal year shall be as provided in section 24.2, subsection 4. All city property taxes must be certified by a city to the county auditor on or before the fifteenth day of March of each year, unless otherwise provided by state law. However, municipal utilities, if not supported by taxation or the proceeds of outstanding indebtedness payable from taxes may, with the council's consent, choose to operate on a fiscal year which is the calendar year. The receipt by the utility of payments from other governmental funds for public fire protection, street lighting or other public use of the utility's services shall not be deemed support by taxation. After notice and hearing in the same manner as required for the city's regular budget under section 384.16, the utility budget must be approved by resolution of the council not later than twenty days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which the budget applies.

The county auditor shall place city taxes and assessments upon the tax list for the current year, and the county treasurer shall collect city taxes and assessments in the same manner as other taxes. Delinquent city taxes and assessments draw the same interest and penalties as other taxes. Sales for delinquent city taxes and assessments must be made in the manner provided in chapter 446. The county treasurer shall combine in one tax sale all taxes and assessments due from the same person and collectible by the county. [R60, §1123, 1126; C73, §495, 498; C97, §902; S13, §902, 1056-a7, 1056-a34; C24, §5678, 6227, 6228, 6570, 6571; C27, 31, 35, §5676-a1, 6227, 6228, 6570, 6871; C39, §5676.1, 6227, 6228, 6570, 6871; C46, 50, §363.51, 404.21, 404.22, 416.95, 420.212; C54, 58, §363.29, 404.3, 404.21; C62, 66, 71, 73, §363.29, 404.3, 404.22; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.2]

All moneys received for city government purposes from taxes and other sources must be credited to the general fund of the city, except that moneys received for the purposes of the debt service fund, the trust and agency funds, the capital improvements reserve fund, the emergency fund and other funds established by state law must be deposited as otherwise required or authorized by state law. All moneys received by a city from the federal government must be reported to the state comptroller who shall transmit a copy to the legislative fiscal bureau. [C50, §395.26; C54, 58, §395.26, 404.2, 404.23; C62, 66, 71, 73, §395.26, 404.2, 404.24; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.3]

1. Judgments against the city, except those authorized by state law to be paid from other funds.

2. Interest as it becomes due and the amount necessary to pay, or to create a sinking fund to pay, the principal at maturity of all general obligation bonds issued by the city.

If a final judgment is entered against a city with a population of five hundred or less for an amount in excess of eighty-eight thousand dollars over and above what is covered by liability insurance, such city may spread the budgeting and payment of that portion not covered by insurance over a period of time not to exceed ten years. Interest shall be paid by the city on the unpaid balance. This paragraph shall only apply to final judgments entered but not fully satisfied prior to March 25, 1976. [C97, §894; SS15, §879-s, 894; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6211, 6603; C46, 50, §404.5, 416.132; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §404.13; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.4]

384.5 Excess tax. A tax levied for the debt service fund is not invalid if it raises moneys in excess of those needed for a specific purpose. Only excess moneys remaining after retirement of all indebtedness payable from the fund may be transferred from the debt service fund to any other city fund, subject to the terms of the original bond issue, and as provided in rules promulgated by the city finance committee created in section 384.13. [C51, §123, 124; R60, §259, 260; C73, §318, 319; C97, §897; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6222; C46, 50, §404.16; C54, 58, §404.20; C62, 66, 71, 73, §404.21; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.5]

384.6 Trust and agency fund. A city may establish a trust and agency fund for the following purposes:

1. Accounting for pension and related employee benefit funds as provided by the city finance committee. A city may make contributions to a retirement system other than the Iowa public employees' retirement system for its city manager, or city administrator performing the duties of city manager, in an annual amount not to exceed the amount that would have been contributed by the employer under section 97B.11. If a police chief or fire chief has submitted a written request to the board of trustees to be exempt from chapter 411, authorized in section 411.3, subsection 1, a city shall make contributions for the chief, in an amount not to exceed the amount that would have been contributed by the city under section 411.8, subsection 1, paragraph "a", to the international city management association/retirement corporation. A city may certify taxes to be levied for a trust and agency fund in the amount necessary to meet its obligations.

2. The valuation of each lot as determined by the council.

3. The total amount proposed to be assessed to each lot, including the assessment for the default fund, if any.

c. The date, time, and place the council will hear property owners subject to the assessment and interested parties for or against the improvement, its cost, the assessment, or the boundaries of the district.

2. A resolution of necessity may include:

a. Any number of streets or sewer lines for improvement.

b. All improvements which are included in the preliminary resolution.

c A provision that unless a property owner files objections with the clerk at the time of hearing on the resolution of necessity, he is deemed to have waived all objections pertaining to the regularity of the proceeding and the legality of using the special assessment procedure.

3. a To replace curbing and gutters in cities with a population of less than ten thousand, the council may adopt a preliminary resolution as provided in subsection 1. The description of the curbing and gutters to be replaced shall be prepared under the council's supervision. The council may, by resolution, provide for the computation of the assessments on the basis of the original assessment or of the lineal footage of the curbing and gutters to be replaced. Public improvements initiated under this subsection shall in all other respects comply with this division.

b For purposes of this subsection, "replace" means to substitute new curb and gutter at the same location where old curb and gutter is located and being reconstructed due to deterioration or destruction. "Replace" does not include the reconstruction of curb and gutter to change the grade or reconstruction required because of a street widening project. 384.50 Notice of hearing. The clerk shall publish notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing once each week for two consecutive weeks in the manner provided by section 362.3, the first publication of which shall be not less than ten days before the date of the hearing. The notice must be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

The council will meet at o'clockm., on, 19...., at the, at which time the owners of property subject to assessment for the proposed improvement or any other person having an interest in the matter may appear and be heard for or against the making of the improvement, the boundaries of the district, the cost, the assessment against any lot, or the final adoption of a resolution of necessity. A property owner will be deemed to have waived all objections unless at the time of hearing he has filed objections with the clerk.

Clerk.

Not less than fifteen days before the hearing, the clerk shall send a copy of the notice by certified mail to each property owner whose property is subject to assessment for the improvement at the address as shown by the records of the county auditor. If a property is shown to be in the name of more than one owner at the same mailing address, a single notice may be mailed addressed to all owners at that address. Failure to receive a mailed notice is not a defense to the special assessment. 384.51 Adoption of resolution. The council shall meet as specified in the published notice, and after hearing all objections and endorsements from property owners and other persons having an interest in the matter, and after considering all filed, written objections, may adopt or amend and adopt the proposed resolution of necessity, or may defer action until a subsequent meeting. A resolution of necessity requires for passage the vote of three-fourths of all the members of the council, or, in cities having but three members of the council, the vote of two members, and where a remonstrance has been filed with the clerk, signed by the owners subject to seventy-five percent of the amount of the proposed assessments for the entire public improvement included in the resolution of necessity, a resolution of necessity requires a unanimous vote of the council. An amendment which extends the boundaries of a district, increases the amount to be assessed against a lot, or adds additional public improvements, is not effective until an amended plat, schedule, and estimate have been prepared and adopted, a notice published and mailed by certified mail to all affected property owners, and hearing held in the same manner as the original proceedings, or until all affected property owners agree in writing to the change. The adoption of a resolution of necessity is a legislative determination that the improvement is expedient and proper and that property assessed will be specially benefited thereby and this determination of the council is conclusive. Ownership of property to be assessed by any improvement shall not, except for fraud or bad faith, disqualify a council member from voting on any measure.

After adopting the resolution of necessity, the clerk shall certify to the county treasurer of each county in which the city is located, a copy of the resolution of necessity, the plat and the schedule of assessments. In counties in which taxes are collected in two or more places, the resolution of necessity, the plat and the schedule of assessments shall be certified to the office of county treasurer where the special assessments are collected. The county treasurer shall preserve the resolution, plat and schedule as a part of the records of the office until the city certifies the final assessment schedule as provided in section 384.60 or certifies that the public improvement has been abandoned. 384.52 Detailed plans and specifications. After adopting a resolution of necessity, the council may, by resolution, order the engineer to prepare and file with the clerk detailed plans and specifications, and order the engineer and city attorney, or any attorney designated by the council, to prepare and file with the clerk a notice to bidders and form of contract. [C97, §965; S13, §965; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6915; C46, §420.267; C50, §391A.12, 420.267; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §391A.15, 420.267; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.52]

Referred to in §425 17(10)

384.53 Procedures to let contract. Contract letting procedures shall be as provided in division VI of this chapter. The council may award any number of contracts for construction of any public improvement. [C97, §791, 812; S13, §840-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6001; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §391.28; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.53]

Referred to in §425 17(10)

384.54 Confirmation by decree. At any time after final adoption of the resolution of necessity, but before awarding the contract, the council may proceed as follows:

1. To direct the city attorney to file, in the district court of the county in which the property proposed to be assessed is located, a petition praying that the acts done by the council relative to the proposed public improvement be confirmed by decree.
2. The following must be filed with the petition in the office of the clerk of the court:
 - a. A copy of the resolution of necessity as adopted by the council.
 - b. A copy of the proposed schedule of assessments as adopted by the council under sections 384.48 and 384.51, which schedule shows the maximum amount that the council proposes to assess against any lot.
 - c. Preliminary plans and specifications, or, if available, detailed plans and specifications as prepared by the engineer.
 - d. A copy of the proposed contract if prepared.
3. Notice of the filing of the petition must be given in the same manner as is provided for service of original notice by publication by the rules of civil procedure, except as follows:
 - a. No affidavit of inability to obtain personal service within the state of Iowa is required.

b. The original notice must name as defendants those property owners who, on the date of filing the petition, have an interest in the real property to be assessed as a part of the public improvement, and the original notice must state that a plat and schedule is on file in the office of the clerk of the district court where the action is pending. No property owner is an indispensable party to the action. Publication of plat and schedule as part of the original notice is not required, nor shall reference in the original notice to specific descriptions of affected real property or the amounts of proposed assessments be necessary.

4. The petition must be given precedence over any other business of the court, except criminal cases. The court shall set the petition for hearing within thirty days from the date of final publication of notice. As a part of its order, the court may provide for a pretrial conference to be held not earlier than twenty days from the date of final publication of notice and require the appearance at the pretrial conference of all interested parties. Failure to appear at the pretrial conference may be grounds for dismissing any objection.

5. If no person having an interest in property proposed to be assessed has entered an appearance or filed an answer within the time set for hearing on the petition, the court shall confirm the assessment, and order the clerk of court to certify its decree to the city clerk.

6. If any person having an interest in property proposed to be assessed has entered an appearance or filed an answer to the petition, the court shall hear the cause as an action triable in equity.

7. Upon the hearing the court may correct any irregularities or inequalities in valuations or in the schedule of assessments, and shall consider any objections because of alleged illegal procedure or fraud.

8. The court shall render a decision upon the hearing as soon as practical after the final submission of the cause.

9. The clerk of the court shall certify to the city clerk the final action of the court, within three days from the date of the final decree upon the petition, showing assessments as confirmed in the schedule of assessments.

10. An appeal from the decree of the district court must be taken as in other equity cases.

11. A contract may or may not be let, in the discretion of the council, until appeals are finally determined, but the appeals need not delay the letting and execution of a contract for the work, if the council concludes the appeals were not taken in good faith.

12. An appeal does not, in the discretion of the council, delay the certification of an assessment or progress of an improvement, but upon decision of the appeal the assessment appealed from must be corrected and collected in the same manner as provided in section 384.74.

13. Corrections of assessments or valuations made by order of the district court are conclusive and not subject to review on appeal, or otherwise, except as provided in subsections 10 to 12 of this section. When court confirmation is obtained there is no right of appeal under the provisions of section 384.66.

14. If no contract is entered into within ninety days from the date of confirmation by the district court or within a further time allowed by the court on subsequent application, and if no appeal is pending, the court shall cancel the assessment, upon application of the city attorney.

15. The cost of all court proceedings are a legitimate item of expense in connection with a public improvement, and may be included within the final assessment against any property specially benefited in the assessment district.

Whenever on a hearing by the court, the amount of any assessment is reduced or canceled so that there is a deficiency in the total amount remaining assessed in the proceeding, the court may assess the deficiency to the city or distribute the deficiency upon the other property abutting upon or adjacent to the improvement or in the district assessed, in a manner the court finds to be just and equitable, not exceeding, however, the amount the property would be specially benefited by the improvement, and not exceeding twenty-five percent of the value of the lot as shown by the plat and schedule of assessments or as reduced by the court. 384.55 Notice of paving to water board. In cities having a water utility under the management of a board of trustees and in which water connections are not installed by the trustees at public expense, the council shall notify the board at the time of the adoption of a preliminary resolution, of any proposed street paving projects. The board shall report to the council the number of connections from water mains in streets to the curb lines of the proposed improvement necessary to serve private property dependent upon those particular mains for water supply, and the numbers of the lots to be served by the connections, and the names of the owners. Notice must be given to property owners, at the same time and in the same manner as the notice provided in section 384.50, to install the necessary connections within thirty days after hearing. For the purposes of the hearing, property owners who are notified to install water connections, but whose property is not within the proposed assessment district, may appear as interested parties. If upon hearing, the council determines to proceed with the improvement, and any property owner fails to make connections as required, the board of waterworks trustees shall cause them to be made and certify the cost to the council to be assessed against the property and collected in the same manner as provided in section 384.40 for other underground connections. 384.56 State lands.

1. Cities may assess the cost of a public improvement which extends through, abuts upon, or is adjacent to lands owned by the state, and the executive council shall pay the assessable portion of the cost of the improvement through or along the lands as provided. The executive council shall pay assessments as provided in section 307A.5.

2. When a state park or institutional road abutting on or adjacent to state lands on one side of the road is improved by paving, the state shall pay one-half the total assessed cost of the portion of the improvement abutting, or adjacent to state lands, lots, or portions thereof, but for any other type of improvement so constructed and located, the state shall pay, as provided in section 307A.5, the portion of the cost which would be assessable against state lands if they were privately owned.

3. When any portion of the cost of a public improvement is to be paid by the state under this section, the clerk shall send, at the time of publication of the notice required by section 384.50, a copy of the notice to the secretary of the executive council by restricted certified mail.

4. Cities in which state buildings are located shall permit sewers for such buildings to be constructed through or under the streets of the city, and connections to be made to the sewer system of the city under the same regulations as for sewer connections to private property.

5. Subsections 1 and 3 of this section do not apply to lands under the jurisdiction and control of the department of transportation. 384.57 Monthly payments. The city may contract to pay not to exceed ninety-five percent of the engineer's estimated value of the acceptable work completed during the month to the contractor at the end of each month. Payment may be made in warrants drawn on any funds from which payment for the work may be made. If such funds are depleted, anticipatory warrants may be issued bearing a rate of interest not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, which do not constitute a violation of section 384.10, even if the collection of taxes or special assessments or income from the sale of bonds applicable to the public improvement is after the end of the fiscal year in which the warrants are issued. If the city arranges for the private sale of anticipatory warrants, they may be sold and the proceeds used to pay the contractor. Anticipatory warrants may also be used to pay other persons furnishing services constituting a part of the cost of the public improvement. The provisions of this section and section 384.58 shall not apply if the city has entered into a contract with the federal government or accepted a federal grant which is governed by federal laws or rules that are contrary to this section and section 384.58. 384.58 Inspection of work.

1. The engineer for the city shall inspect all work done under this division, and within fifteen days of final completion of the public improvement, he shall file a certificate with the clerk stating:

a. That he has inspected the completed work.

b That the work has or has not been performed in compliance with the terms of the contract, and the particulars, if any, in which the work varies from the terms.

c The total cost of the completed work.

2. Within fifteen days after the filing of the engineer's certificate, the council shall by resolution accept or reject the work.

3. Upon accepting the work, or within ten days thereafter, the council shall ascertain the total cost and by resolution determine the proportion or amount of the cost to be assessed against private property within the assessment district. If the council has elected to award more than one contract for the work, the council may elect to proceed separately with the acceptance and levy of assessments for the work done under each contract.

4. Upon accepting the work, the council shall order payment of any amount due the contractor, to be made by warrants issued in the manner provided by section 384.57 or by other means. The city shall order payment of any amount due the contractor to be made in accordance with the terms of the contract. Failure to make payment within seventy days after the work under the contract has been completed and if the work has been accepted and all required materials, certifications, and other documentations required to be submitted by the contractor and specified by the contract have been furnished the awarding city by the contractor, shall cause interest to accrue on the amount unpaid to the benefit of the unpaid party. Interest shall not accrue on funds retained by a city to satisfy the provisions of section 573.14 regarding claims on file. Interest shall accrue during the period commencing the thirty-first day following the completion of work and satisfaction of the other requirements of this subsection and ending on the date of payment. The rate of interest shall be determined, by the period of time during which interest accrues, and shall be the same as the rate of interest that is in effect under section 453.6, as of the day interest begins to accrue, for a deposit of public funds for a comparable period of time. Nothing contained in this subsection shall abridge any of the rights set forth in section 573.16. 384.59 Assessment schedule. Within thirty days after the council adopts a resolution fixing the amount to be assessed against private property, the engineer shall file with the clerk an assessment schedule showing:

1. A description of each lot to be assessed.
2. The valuation of each lot as fixed by the council.
3. The amount to be assessed against each lot, which shall include the assessment for the default fund, if any, and the amount of deficiency, if any, which may be subsequently assessed against each lot under section 384.63. 384.60 Adoption of schedule. Within ten days after filing of the assessment schedule, the council shall meet, consider, and adopt or amend and adopt, by resolution, the final assessment schedule. The resolution must:

1. Confirm and levy assessments, including a conditional levy of the amount of deficiencies which may be subsequently assessed against each lot under section 384.63.

2. State the number of annual installments, not exceeding fifteen, into which assessments of fifty dollars or more are divided.

3. Provide for interest on all unpaid installments at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A.

4. State the time when assessments are payable.

5. Direct the clerk to certify the final schedule to the treasurer of the county or counties in which the assessed property is located, and to publish notice of the schedule once each week for two consecutive weeks in the manner provided in section 362.3, the first publication of which shall be not more than fifteen days from the date of filing of the final schedule. On or before the second publication of the notice, the clerk shall send by certified mail to each property owner whose property is subject to assessment for the improvement, as shown by the records in the office of the county auditor, a copy of the notice. The notice shall also include a statement in substance that assessments may be paid in full or in part without interest within thirty days after the date of certification, and thereafter all unpaid special assessments bear interest at the rate specified by the board, but not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, computed to the December 1 next following the due dates of the respective installments, and each installment will be delinquent on September 30 following its due date, and will draw additionally the same delinquent interest and the same penalties as ordinary taxes. The notice shall also state substantially that property owners may elect to pay any installment semiannually in advance. If a property is shown by the records to be in the name of more than one owner at the same mailing address, a single notice may be mailed to all owners at that address. Failure to receive a mailed notice is not a defense to the special assessment.

The county treasurer shall place on the tax list the amounts to be assessed against each lot within the assessment district, as certified. 384.61 Assessment of benefits. The total cost of a public improvement, except for paving that portion of a street lying between railroad tracks and one foot outside of the tracks, or which is to be otherwise paid, must be assessed against all lots within the assessment district in accordance with the special benefits conferred upon the property, and not in excess of such benefits.

If an owner of property subject to special assessment divides the property into two or more lots, and if the plan of division is approved by the council, he may discharge the lien upon any of the lots by payment of the amount unpaid, calculated as determined by the council. 384.62 Limit. A special assessment against a lot for a public improvement may not be in excess of the amount of the assessment, including the conditional deficiency assessment, as shown in the schedule confirmed by the court, or if court confirmation is not utilized, then on the original plat and schedule adopted by the council, and an assessment may not exceed twenty-five percent of the value of the lot as shown by the plat and schedule approved by the council or as reduced by the court.

Special assessments for the construction or repair of underground connections for private property for gas, water, sewers, or electricity may be assessed to each lot for the actual cost of each connection for that lot, and the twenty-five percent limitation does not apply. Such connections shall not be installed to service railway right of way without written agreement with the railway company owning or leasing the right of way.

A special assessment for a public improvement against a tract of land used and assessed as agricultural property shall not become payable upon the filing of a request by the owner for deferment until that land is not used and assessed as agricultural property. At the time of the change in the use of the property, the special assessment shall become payable in the same manner as the special assessment would have become payable had it not been deferred by this section. This section shall not apply to a tract of land of less than one-quarter acre surrounding any dwelling or non-farm structure on that tract nor shall it apply to a special assessment levied before July 3, 1978. This section shall not apply if the public improvement is a sewer, water, gas or electrical line to which the owner of the land makes a connection.

Payment of installments of special assessments for a public improvement against property used and assessed as agricultural property shall be deferred as follows:

1. The property owner who seeks deferment of an assessment shall file a written request for deferment with the city clerk at the time of the hearing on the resolution of necessity for the public improvement or within ten days following the date of the hearing and the request shall identify those lots subject to proposed assessments for which the property owner is seeking deferment which are used and assessed as agricultural property. The request may be withdrawn by the property owner at any time before or after the adoption of the resolution of necessity.

2. The city shall indicate those lots for which a deferment has been requested on the special assessment schedule.

3. After the assessments for the public improvement have been levied and the special assessment schedule has been filed with the county treasurer, the county treasurer shall indicate on the tax rolls those assessments subject to deferment under this section.

4. An owner of property subject to an assessment that may be deferred may file a statement at any time up to six months before the assessment installment is due stating that a written request for deferment of such assessments is filed with the city clerk and that the entire lot subject to such assessment has continued to be and is still used and assessed as agricultural property. The collection of that installment and any other unpaid portion of the assessment shall be deferred until the next July 1 and subsequent installments may thereafter be deferred in the same manner for successive years in which a statement is filed. 384.63 Insufficiency—certification to county treasurer—deficiency assessment. If the special assessment which may be levied against a lot is insufficient to pay its proportion of the cost of the improvement, or if no special assessment may be levied against a lot, the deficiency shall be paid from the city fund or funds designated by the council.

The council shall, by resolution, provide that the deficiencies for the lots specially benefited by a public improvement shall be certified to the county treasurer, who shall record them in a separate book entitled "Special Assessment Deficiencies", and to the appropriate city official charged with the responsibility of issuing building permits, who shall notify the council when a private improvement is subsequently constructed on any lot subject to a deficiency. Certification to the county treasurer shall include a legal description of each lot. The council shall establish by ordinance a period of amortization for a public improvement for which there are deficiencies, based upon the useful life of the public improvement, but not to exceed ten years. Deficiencies may be assessed only during the period of amortization, which shall also be certified to the county treasurer and the city official charged with the responsibility of issuing building permits. Certification to the county treasurer shall include a legal description of each lot. When a private improvement is constructed on a lot subject to a deficiency, during the period of amortization, the council shall, by resolution, assess a pro rata portion of the deficiency on that lot, in the same proportion to the total deficiency on that lot as the number of full calendar years remaining in the period of amortization is to the total number of years in the period of amortization, subject to the twenty-five percent limitation of section 384.62. A deficiency assessment becomes a lien on the property and is payable in the same manner, and subject to the same interest and penalties as the other special assessments. The council shall direct the clerk to certify a deficiency assessment to the county treasurer, and to send a notice of the deficiency assessment by certified mail to each owner, as provided in section 384.60, subsection 5, but publication of the notice is not required. An owner may appeal from the amount of the assessment within thirty days of the date notice is mailed. County officials shall collect a deficiency assessment, commencing in the year following the assessment, in the manner provided for the collection of other special assessments. Upon collection, the county treasurer shall make the appropriate credit entries in the "Special Assessment Deficiencies" book, and shall credit the amounts collected as provided for other special assessments on the same public improvement, or to the city, to the extent that the deficiency has been previously paid from other city funds. 384.64 Assessment to railway company. The right of way of a railway company is subject to special assessments for public improvements, and such assessments constitute a debt due the city which is a paramount lien upon the track of the railway company owning or leasing the right of way within the limits of the city. The property of a railway to which a lien for unpaid special assessment has attached may not be released from the lien until the whole assessment is paid. 384.65 Installments due.

1. The first installment of each assessment, or the total amount if less than fifty dollars, is due and payable on July 1 next succeeding the date of the levy, unless the assessment is filed with the county auditor after May 31 in any year. The first installment shall bear interest on the whole unpaid assessment from the date of acceptance of the work by the council to the first day of December following the due date.

2. The succeeding annual installments, with interest on the whole unpaid amount, to the first day of December following the due date, are respectively due on July 1 annually, and must be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the September semiannual payment of ordinary taxes.

3. All future installments of an assessment may be paid on any date by payment of the then outstanding balance, plus interest to December 1 following the due date of the next maturing installment.

4. Each installment of an assessment with interest on the unpaid balance is delinquent after the thirtieth day of September next after its due date, and bears the same delinquent interest with the same penalties as ordinary taxes. When collected, the interest and penalties must be credited to the same fund as the special assessment.

5. From the date of filing of a certified copy of the resolution of necessity, the plat, and the schedule of assessments as provided in section 384.51, all special assessments with all interest and penalties become and remain a lien on the benefited properties until paid, and have equal precedence with ordinary taxes, and are not divested by any judicial sale.

6. Any property owner may elect to pay one-half of any annual installment of principal and interest of a special assessment in advance, with the second semi-annual payment of ordinary taxes collected in the year preceding the due date of such installment. The county treasurer shall accept such partial payment of the special assessment, and shall credit the next annual installment of such special assessment to the extent of such payment, and shall remit the payments to the city.

7. Each installment of an assessment shall be equal to the amount of the unpaid assessment as computed on the thirty-first day after the certification of the assessment divided by the number of annual installments into which the assessment may be divided as adopted by the council pursuant to section 384.60. 384.66 Test of regularity.

1. A person having an interest in property subject to special assessment may, within twenty days after the adoption of a resolution of necessity, test the regularity of the proceedings or legality of the assessment procedure by a petition in equity filed in the district court of the county where the property is located. A petition does not stay further proceedings on the improvement by the council, unless there is also filed a bond in an amount and with security approved by the court.

2. A person having an interest in any property specially assessed may appeal from the amount of the assessment, at any stage of the special assessment procedure up to twenty days after the final publication of notice of filing of the final assessment schedule, by petition to the district court of the county where the property is located but such appeal is only to the amount of that assessment and does not stay further proceedings by the council on the improvement. No action shall be brought appealing the amount of any special assessment from and after twenty days after said final publication.

3. A person having an interest in property subject to special assessment has a right of appeal to the district court on the ground of fraud.

4. No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to special assessments or the validity of any special assessment levied for any public improvement under this part, from and after sixty days after the final publication of notice of filing the final assessment schedule. [C97, §839; S13, §792-c, -f, 840-a; SS15, §840-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6063-6065, 6091; C46, §391.88-391.90, 395.13; C50, §391.88-391.90, 391A.28, 395.13; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §391.88-391.90, 391A.31, 395.13; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.66]

384.67 Payment to county treasurer. Assessments levied and certified under the provisions of this division, including installments and interest, are payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county where the property assessed is located, except that assessments may be paid in full or in part and without interest within thirty days after the date of certification, at the office of the county treasurer, if the property being assessed is located in an unincorporated area, or the city clerk, if the property being assessed is located in an incorporated area except when the city council specifically provides payment to be made in the office of the county treasurer. Referred to in §425.17(10)

1. After certification of the final assessment schedule, the city may, by resolution, authorize and issue bonds in anticipation of the collection of unpaid special assessments. However, the total principal amount of bonds issued for a public improvement may not exceed the total amount of unpaid special assessments less the proportionate unpaid amount assessed for the default fund.

2. All special assessment bonds are negotiable, must state on their face that they are issued under the provisions of this division, and are payable as to both principal and interest from the proceeds of the special assessments levied for the public improvement. Such bonds may bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A payable annually or semi-annually, must mature serially on December 1 of the years in which any of the principal is scheduled to become due, and may contain a provision that the city reserves the right and option of calling and redeeming any or all of the bonds prior to maturity on any interest payment date or within forty-five days thereafter upon the terms specified therein. Such bonds must be called "improvement bonds", must designate the general type of improvement or improvements for which issued, and may be issued in any denomination, not exceeding ten thousand dollars. Bonds issued for a public improvement authorized in section 384.38, subsection 2, must be named in a way to distinguish them from other improvement bonds of the city, and to designate the property specially assessed for the improvement. Improvement bonds issued for any one levy must bear the same date and be divided into as many series as there are years in which installments of the special assessment mature, and each series must be as nearly equal in amount as practicable.

3. The proceeds of the special assessments and interest collected thereon must be used and applied by the city to the payment of the interest on the bonds and to the retirement of the principal as rapidly as proceeds are collected. Such bonds and coupons do not make the city liable in any way, except for the proper application of special assessments. If interest becomes due on any of the bonds when there is no fund or funds from which to pay it, the council may make a temporary loan for payment of the interest, which loan must be repaid from the special assessments and interest pledged to secure the bonds, but in case of purchase by the city at tax sale of the property on which a special assessment is levied, the loan must be repaid from the funds of the city from which deficiencies on the improvement were paid, or if there were no deficiencies, from the general fund.

4. Special assessment bonds must be sold at public or private sale in the manner provided by chapter 75, and may not be sold for less than par value with accrued interest from date to the time of delivery, or if no bids are received at public sale, bonds bearing the same rate of interest as the special assessment may be delivered to the contractor in payment of the cost of the public improvement. The proceeds of the sale must be applied to the payment of the cost of the public improvement.

5. Any excess of proceeds from special assessments remaining after all of the bonds for a particular improvement have been paid with interest may be credited to the fund from which deficiencies for the improvement could have been paid. However, any excess in a default fund established for a public improvement authorized in section 384.38, subsection 2, shall be held by the city in a special fund to guarantee other improvement bonds which may be issued by the city for public improvements authorized under that section.

6. Cities may issue refunding bonds to pay off and take up special assessment bonds issued in payment for public improvements, or to refund any part thereof, as follows:

a. Refunding bonds must substantially conform to the provisions of this division, and the face value is limited to the amount of the unpaid special assessments with the interest thereon of the particular issue of bonds to be refunded.

b. Refunding bonds or their proceeds may be used only to pay improvement bonds taken up.

c. The expense of refunding bonds must be paid out of the funds of the city from which the cost of similar improvements might lawfully be paid.

d. When refunding bonds are issued to pay improvement bonds, all special assessments and sinking funds applicable to the payment of the improvement bonds previously issued must be applied in the same manner and to the same extent to the payment of the refunding bonds, and all the powers and duties to levy and to carry special assessments and taxes, to create liens upon property, and to establish sinking funds in respect to the bonds previously issued continue until refunding bonds are paid.

e. The city shall collect the special assessment out of which the refunding bonds are payable and hold the proceeds in trust for the payment of the refunding bonds, but it is not liable except for the proper application of the assessments.

7. No action shall be brought questioning the legality of the bonds authorized by this section from and after sixty days from the date the bonds are ordered issued by the city. [C97, §842, 843, 845, 847, 987;

384.69 Property sold at tax sale. Property against which a special assessment has been levied for public improvements may be sold for any sum of principal or interest due and delinquent, at any regular or adjourned tax sale in the same manner with the same forfeitures, penalties, right of redemption, certificates, and deeds, as for the nonpayment of ordinary taxes. When bonds have been issued in anticipation of special assessments and interest for which property is to be sold, the city may be a purchaser and is entitled to all rights of purchasers at tax sales. The proceeds subsequently realized from sales of property so purchased by the city must be credited to the funds of the city from which deficiencies on the improvement were paid, or if there were no deficiencies, to the general fund. 384.74 Correction of errors. When, in making a special assessment, any property is assessed too little or too much, the assessment may be corrected and a reassessment and relevy made in conformity with the correction, and a tax collected in excess of the proper amount must be refunded to the person paying it. Corrected assessments are a lien on the lots the same as the original assessments, must be certified by the clerk to the county treasurer in the same manner, and must so far as practicable, be collected in the same installments, draw interest at the same rate, and be enforced in the same manner as the original assessment.

However, if the city does not certify the assessments within six months of final publication as required by division IV of this chapter, all such assessments shall be null, void, and of no effect. Any bonds issued with such void assessments as security shall be paid by the city as they become due out of its debt service as provided in section 384.4. A city may combine any one or more of the procedural acts required by this division and call for bids for construction of a public improvement and comply with legal requirements respecting public contracts so as to permit the council to receive and consider proposals at the time of hearing on the resolution of necessity. [C97, §838, 981; SS15, §840-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6062, 6921; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §391.87, 420.274; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.75]

The provisions of this division apply to any public improvement undertaken jointly by the city and another city or by the city and the state or any other political subdivision of the state, and a city may enter into an agreement for such purpose under the provisions of chapter 28E and may assess and pay its portion of the cost of a public improvement as provided in this division, but any requirement of this part in respect to approval of detailed plans and specifications, calling for construction bids, awarding construction contracts and acceptance of the completed improvement may be carried out by each city with other cities, the state or any other political subdivision of the state, as provided in an agreement entered into as permitted by chapter 28E. However, an agreement between the city and the state department of transportation is also governed by the provisions of sections 313.21 to 313.23. 384.77 Assessments along railways. In the making of assessments for paving streets, avenues or public places along or upon which a track of a railway or street railway company is located, the engineer shall make an estimate of the cost of building the improvement, and an estimate of the cost of the improvement if tracks were not there. The railway or street railway company may be charged with the difference between the two estimates of cost, and shall make payment in the same manner as other special assessments are paid. This section applies only to track within the limits of the improvement proper and shall not be construed as exempting a railway or street railway company from a special assessment on other property, adjacent or abutting, within the assessment district and owned by the company, nor does this section relieve a company from any of its duties and liabilities set forth in any other law concerning repair or construction of the strip of paving between the rails and one foot outside. Without limiting the foregoing, projects commenced prior to said effective date may be financed by the issuance of special assessment bonds and other bonds under any such amended or repealed law or by the issuance of special assessment bonds, or other bonds under the city code. For the purposes of this section, commencement of a project includes but is not limited to action taken by the council or authorized officer to fix a date for a hearing in connection with any part of a public improvement, and commencement of proceedings for the levy of special assessments and the issuance of special assessment bonds includes but is not limited to action taken by the council to fix a date for a hearing in connection with any public improvement proposed to be financed in whole or in part through special assessments. 384.81 Provisions of city code exclusive.

1. A city which proposes to establish, own, acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, lease, sell, construct, reconstruct, extend, remodel, improve, repair, equip, maintain and operate within or without its corporate limits a city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise must do so in accordance with the provisions of the city code.

2. If all of the utilities involved in the establishment of a combined utility system are, at the time of establishment, controlled and managed by the same utility board, such utility board shall continue as the governing body of the combined utility system; otherwise the city council is the governing body of a combined utility system, but a utility board for a combined utility system may be established as provided in chapter 388. If a combined utility system or combined city enterprise is dissolved, each city utility or city enterprise shall continue in existence as a separate city utility or city enterprise unless the voters additionally authorize the abandonment thereof. The governing body of a combined utility system which is dissolved shall continue as the governing body of each city utility which was a part of the combined utility system unless changed as provided in chapter 388. The adding of an additional city utility to an existing combined utility system is the establishment of a new combined utility system and must be approved by the voters of the city as provided in chapter 388, but the governing body of the existing combined utility system shall continue as the governing body of the new combined utility system.

3. A combined utility system or combined city enterprise may be established, but if there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of any city utility or city enterprise involved, all such outstanding obligations must be assumed by the governing body of the combined utility system or combined city enterprise subject to all terms established at the time of the original issue, or refunded through the issuance of revenue bonds of the combined utility system or combined city enterprise as a part of the procedure for the establishment of the combined utility system or combined city enterprise, or funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on such outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity must have been properly set aside and pledged for that purpose. Any revenues earmarked for payment of the obligations must be handled by the governing body of the combined utility or combined city enterprise in the same manner as they were handled by the governing body of the city utility or city enterprise involved. A city utility or city enterprise may not be abandoned and a combined utility system or combined city enterprise may not be dissolved so long as there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise unless funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on such outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity have been properly set aside and pledged for such purpose. 384.82 Procedure for financing.

1. A city may carry out projects, borrow money, and issue revenue bonds and pledge orders to pay all or part of the cost of projects, such revenue bonds and pledge orders to be payable solely and only out of the net revenues of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise involved in the project. The cost of a project includes the construction contracts, interest upon the revenue bonds and pledge orders during the period or estimated period of construction and for twelve months thereafter, or for twelve months after the acquisition date, such reserve funds as the governing body may deem advisable in connection with the project and the issuance of revenue bonds and pledge orders, and the costs of engineering, architectural, technical and legal services, preliminary reports, surveys, property valuations, estimates, plans, specifications, notices, acquisition of real and personal property, consequential damages or costs, easements, rights of way, supervision, inspection, testing, publications, printing and sale of bonds and provisions for contingencies. A city may sell revenue bonds or pledge orders at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and may deliver revenue bonds and pledge orders to the contractors, sellers, and other persons furnishing materials and services constituting a part of the cost of the project in payment therefor.

A city may deliver its revenue bonds to the federal government or any agency thereof which has loaned the city money for sanitary or solid waste projects, water projects or other projects for which the government has a loan program.

2. A city may issue revenue bonds or pledge orders to refund revenue bonds, pledge orders, and other obligations which are by their terms payable from the net revenues of the same city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise, or from a city utility comprising a part of the combined utility system or a city enterprise comprising a part of the combined city enterprise, at lower, the same, or higher rates of interest. A city may sell refunding revenue bonds or pledge orders at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and apply the proceeds to the payment of the obligations being refunded, and may exchange refunding revenue bonds or pledge orders in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The principal amount of any refunding revenue bonds or pledge orders may exceed the principal amount of the obligations being refunded to the extent necessary to pay a premium due on the call of the obligations being refunded and to fund interest accrued and to accrue on the obligations being refunded. [C31, §6134-d1; C35, §5903-f4, 6066-f6, 6134-d1, -f1; C39, §5903.15, 6066.29, 6134.01-6134.03; C46, §385.4, 394.6, 397.9-397.11; C50, §385.4, 390.9, 394.6, 397.9-397.11; C58, 62, 66, §385.4, 386B.10, 390.9, 394.6, 397.9-397.11; C71, 73, §385.4, 386B.10, 390.9, 390.16, 394.6, 397.9-397.11; C75, 77, 79, 81, §384.82; 81 Acts, ch 126, §1]

384.83 Revenue bonds.

1. A city may issue revenue bonds pursuant to a resolution of the governing body of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise, adopted at a regular or special meeting by a majority of the total number of members to which the governing body is entitled.

2. Before the governing body institutes proceedings for the issuance of revenue bonds, it shall fix a time and place of meeting at which it proposes to take action and give notice by publication in the manner directed in section 362.3. The notice must include a statement of the time and place of the meeting, the maximum amount of the proposed revenue bonds, the purpose for which the revenue bonds will be issued, and the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise whose net revenues will be used to pay the revenue bonds and interest thereon. The governing body shall at the meeting receive oral or written objections from any resident or property owner of the city. After all objections have been received and considered, the governing body may, at the meeting or any adjournment thereof, take additional action for the issuance of the bonds or abandon the proposal to issue bonds. Any resident or property owner of the city may appeal a decision of the governing body to take additional action to the district court of the county in which any part of the city is located within fifteen days after the additional action is taken, but the additional action of the governing body is final and conclusive unless the court finds that the governing body exceeded its authority. The provisions of this subsection with respect to notice, hearing, and appeal in connection with the issuance of revenue bonds are in lieu of those contained in chapter 23 or any other law.

3. Revenue bonds may bear dates, bear interest at rates not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, mature in one or more installments, be in either coupon or registered form, carry registration and conversion privileges, be payable as to principal and interest at times and places, be subject to terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, and be in one or more denominations, all as provided by the resolution of the governing body authorizing their issuance. The resolution may also prescribe additional provisions, terms, conditions, and covenants which the governing body deems advisable, consistent with the provisions of the city code, including provisions for creating and maintaining reserve funds, the issuance of additional revenue bonds ranking on a parity with such revenue bonds and additional revenue bonds junior and subordinate to such revenue bonds, and that such revenue bonds shall rank on a parity with or be junior and subordinate to any revenue bonds which may be then outstanding. Revenue bonds are a contract between the city and holders and the resolution is a part of the contract.

4. If the governing body is a city council, the revenue bonds must be executed by the mayor and clerk of the city. If the governing body is a utility board, the revenue bonds must be executed by the chairman and secretary of the board. If coupons are attached to the revenue bonds, they must be executed with the original or facsimile signature of the clerk or secretary. A revenue bond is valid and binding for all purposes if it bears the signatures of the officers in office on the date of the execution of the bonds notwithstanding that any or all persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be such officers prior to the delivery thereof. The issuance of revenue bonds must be recorded in the office of the city treasurer or other financial officer designated by the council, and a certificate of the recording by the treasurer or other officer must be printed on the back of each revenue bond.

5. Revenue bonds and pledge orders issued pursuant to this division are negotiable instruments.

6. A city may issue pledge orders pursuant to a resolution of the governing body of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise, adopted by a majority of the total number of members to which the governing body is entitled, at a regular or special meeting, ordering their issuance and delivery in payment for all or part of the cost of a project. Pledge orders may bear interest at rates not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A.

7. The physical properties of a city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise may not be pledged or mortgaged to secure the payment of revenue bonds or pledge orders or the interest thereon. 384.84 Rates for proprietary functions.

1. The governing body of a city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise may establish, impose, adjust, and provide for the collection of rates to produce gross revenues at least sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise and, whenever revenue bonds or pledge orders are issued and outstanding pursuant to this division, shall establish, impose, adjust, and provide for the collection of rates to produce gross revenues at least sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise, or combined city enterprise, and to leave a balance of net revenues sufficient at all times to pay the principal of and interest on the revenue bonds and pledge orders as they become due and to maintain a reasonable reserve for the payment of principal and interest, and a sufficient portion of net revenues must be pledged for that purpose. Rates must be established by ordinance of the council or by resolution of the trustees, published in the same manner as an ordinance. e The purpose of the establishment of the district, which may be stated generally, or in terms of the relationship of the property within the district or the interests of the owners of property within the district, or in terms of the improvements or self liquidating improvements proposed to be developed for the purposes of the district, either specific improvements, self liquidating improvements, or general categories of improvements, or any combination of the foregoing

f A statement that taxes levied for the self supported improvement district operation fund shall be used for the purpose of paying maintenance expenses of improvements or self-liquidating improvements financed pursuant to this chapter for a specified length of time, along with any options to renew, if such taxes are to be used for this maintenance purpose

3 The council shall notify the city planning commission upon the receipt of a petition It shall be the duty of the city planning commission to make recommendations to the council in regard to the proposed district The city planning commission shall, with due diligence, prepare an evaluative report for the council on the merit and feasibility of the project The council shall not hold its public hearings or take further action on the establishment of the district until it has received the report of the city planning commission In addition to its report, the commission may, from time to time, recommend to the council amendments and changes relating to the project

If no city planning commission exists, the council shall notify the metropolitan or regional planning commission upon receipt of a petition, and such commission shall have the same duties as the city planning commission set forth in this subsection If no planning commission exists, the council shall notify the zoning commission upon receipt of a petition, and such commission shall have the same duties as the city planning commission set forth in this subsection If no planning or zoning commission exists, the council shall call a hearing on the establishment of a district upon receipt of a petition

4 Upon the receipt of the commission's final report the council shall set a time and place for a meeting at which the council proposes to take action for the establishment of the district, and shall publish notice of the meeting as provided in section 362 3, and the clerk shall send a copy of the notice by certified mail not less than fifteen days before the meeting to each owner of property within the proposed district at the owner's address as shown by the records of the county auditor If a property is shown to be in the name of more than one owner at the same mailing address, a single notice may be mailed addressed to all owners at that address Failure to receive a mailed notice is not grounds for objection to the council's taking any action authorized in this chapter

5 In addition to the time and place of the meeting for hearing on the petition, the notice must state a That a petition has been filed with the council asking that a district be established

d The property proposed to be included in the district

e The maximum rate of tax which may be imposed upon the property in the district

6 At the time and place set in the notice the council shall hear all owners of property in the proposed district or residents of the city desiring to express their views The council must wait at least thirty days after the public hearing has been held before it may adopt an ordinance establishing a district which must be comprised of all the property which the council finds has the relationship or whose owners have the interest described in subsection 1, paragraph "c" Property included in the proposed district need not be included in the established district However, no property may be included in the district that was not included in the proposed district until the council has held another hearing after it has published and mailed the same notice as required in subsections 4 and 5 of this section on the original petition to the owners of the additional property, or has caused a notice of the inclusion of the property to be personally served upon each owner of the additional property, or has received a written waiver of notice from each owner of the additional property

7 Adoption of the ordinance establishing a district requires the affirmative vote of three-fourths of all of the members of the council, or in cities having but three members of the council, the affirmative vote of two members However if a remonstrance has been filed with the clerk signed by at least twenty five percent of all owners of property within the proposed district representing ownership of property with an assessed value of twenty five percent or more of the assessed value of all of the property in the proposed district, the adoption of the ordinance requires a unanimous vote of the council

8 The clerk shall cause a copy of the ordinance to be filed in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any property within the district is located

9 At any time prior to adoption of an ordinance establishing a district, the entire matter of establishing such district shall be withdrawn from council consideration if a petition objecting to establishing such district is filed with its clerk containing the signatures of at least forty percent of all owners of property within the proposed district or signatures which together represent ownership of property with an assessed value of forty percent or more of the assessed value of all property within the proposed district

10 The adoption of an ordinance establishing a district is a legislative determination that the property within the district has the relationship or its owners have the interest required under subsection 1, paragraph "c" and includes all of the property within the area which has that relationship or the owners of which have that interest in the district

11 Any resident or property owner of the city may appeal the action and the decisions of the council, including the creation of the district and the levying of the proposed taxes for the district, to the district court of the county in which any part of the district is located, within thirty days after the date upon which the ordinance creating the district becomes effective, but the action and decision of the council are final and conclusive unless the court finds that the council exceeded its authority No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to the establishment of a district or the validity of the district, or the propriety of the inclusion or exclusion of any property within or from the district, or the ability of the city to levy taxes in accordance with the ordinance establishing the district, after thirty days from the date on which the ordinance creating the district becomes effective

12 The procedural steps for the petitioning and creation of the district may be combined with the procedural steps for the authorization of any improvement or self liquidating improvement, or the procedural steps for the authorization of any tax, or any combination thereof

13 The rate of debt service tax referred to in the petition and the ordinance creating the district shall only restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued, and shall not limit the ability of the city to levy as necessary in subsequent years to pay interest and amortize the principal of that amount of bonds

14 The ordinance creating the district may provide for the division of all of the property within the district into two or more zones based upon a reasonable difference in the relationship of the property or the interest of its owners, whether the difference is qualitative or quantitative The ordinance creating the district and establishing the different zones may establish a different maximum rate of tax for each zone, or may provide that the rate of tax for a zone shall be a certain set percentage of the tax levied in the zone which is subject to the highest rate of tax [C77, 79, 81, §386 3]

386.4 Amendments to district.

1 The ordinance creating the district may be amended and property may be added to the district and the maximum rate of taxes referred to in the ordinance may be increased at any time in the same manner and by the same procedure as for the establishment of a district All property added to a district shall be subject to all taxes currently and thereafter levied including debt service levies for bonds previously or thereafter issued

2 Action by the council amending the ordinance creating the district, including adding any eligible property or deleting any property within the district or changing any maximum rate of taxes, shall be by ordinance adopted by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of all of the members of the council, or in cities having but three members of the council, the affirmative vote of two members However, if a remonstrance has been filed with the clerk signed by at least twenty-five percent of all owners of property within the district and all property proposed to be included representing ownership of property with an assessed value of twenty-five percent or more of the assessed value of all the property in the district and all property proposed to be included, the amending ordinance must be adopted by unanimous vote of the council

3 The clerk shall cause a copy of the amending ordinance to be filed in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any property within the district as amended is located

4 At any time prior to council amendment of the ordinance creating the district, the entire matter of amending such ordinance shall be withdrawn from council consideration if a petition objecting to amending such ordinance is filed with its clerk containing either the signatures of at least forty percent of all owners of property within the district and all property proposed to be included or signatures which together represent ownership of property with an assessed value of forty percent or more of the assessed value of all property within the district and all property proposed to be included

5 Any resident or property owner of the city may appeal the action or decisions of the council amending the ordinance creating the district, to the district court of the county in which any part of the district, as amended, is located, within fifteen days after the date upon which the ordinance amending the ordinance creating the district becomes effective, but the action and decision of the council are final and conclusive unless the court finds that the council exceeded its authority. No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to the amended ordinance or the validity of the district as amended, or the propriety of the inclusion or exclusion of any property within or from the amended district, or the ability of the city to levy taxes in accordance with the ordinance establishing the district, as amended, after thirty days from the date upon which the amending ordinance becomes effective.

6. All other provisions in section 386.3 shall apply to an amended district and to the ordinance amending the ordinance creating the district with the same effect as they apply to the original district and the ordinance creating the original district. [C77, 79, 81, §386.4]

386.5 Dissolution. A district may be dissolved and terminated by action of the council rescinding the ordinance creating the district, and any subsequent ordinances amending the district, by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of all members of the council, or in cities having but three members of the council, the affirmative vote of two members. However, if a remonstrance has been filed with the clerk signed by at least twenty-five percent of all owners of property within the district representing ownership of property with an assessed value of twenty-five percent or more of the assessed value of all the property in the district, the rescission of the ordinance creating the district, and any subsequent ordinances amending the district, requires a unanimous vote of the council.

At any time prior to action of the council rescinding the ordinance creating the district, and any subsequent ordinances amending the district, the entire matter of dissolving a district shall be withdrawn from council consideration if a petition is filed with its clerk containing the signatures of at least forty percent of all owners of property within the district or signatures which together represent ownership of property with an assessed value of forty percent or more of the assessed value of all property within the district. [C77, 79, 81, §386.5]

386.6 Improvements. When a city proposes to construct an improvement the cost of which is to be paid or financed under the provisions of this chapter, it must do so in accordance with the provisions of this section, as follows:

1. The council shall initiate proceedings for a proposed improvement upon receipt of a petition signed by at least twenty-five percent of all owners of property within the district representing ownership of property with an assessed value of twenty-five percent or more of the assessed value of all the property in the district.

2. Upon the receipt of such a petition the council shall notify the city planning commission, if one exists, the metropolitan or regional planning commission, if one exists, or the zoning commission, if one exists, in the order set forth in section 386.3, subsection 3. Upon notification by the council, the commission shall prepare an evaluative report for the council on the merit and feasibility of the improvement and carry out all other duties as set forth in section 386.3, subsection 3. If no planning or zoning commission exists, the council shall call a hearing on a proposed improvement upon receipt of a petition.

3. Upon the receipt of the commission's report the council shall set a time and place of meeting at which the council proposes to take action on the proposed improvement and shall publish and mail notice as provided in section 386.3, subsections 4 and 5.

4. The notice must include a statement that an improvement has been proposed, the nature of the improvement, the source of payment of the cost of the improvement, and the time and place of hearing.

5. At the time and place set in the notice the council shall hear all owners of property in the district or residents of the city desiring to express their views. The council must wait at least thirty days after the public hearing has been held before it may take action to order construction of the improvement. The provisions of section 386.3, subsections 7 and 9 relating to the adoption of the ordinance establishing a district, the requisite vote therefor, the remonstrance thereto and the withdrawal of the entire matter from council consideration apply to the adoption of the resolution ordering the construction of the improvement.

6. If the council orders the construction of the improvement, it shall proceed to let contracts therefor in accordance with chapter 384, division VI.

7. The adoption of a resolution ordering the construction of an improvement is a legislative determination that the proposed improvement is in furtherance of the purposes of the district and that all property in the district will be affected by the construction of the improvement, or that all owners of property in the district have an interest in the construction of the improvement.

8. Any resident or property owner of the city may appeal the action or decisions of the council ordering the construction of the improvement to the district court of the county in which any part of the district is located within thirty days after the adoption of the resolution ordering construction of the improvement, but the action and decisions of the council are final and conclusive unless the court finds that the council exceeded its authority. No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to the ordering of the construction of an improvement, or the right of the city to apply moneys in the capital improvement fund referred to in this chapter to the payment of the costs of the improvement, or the right of the city to issue bonds referred to in this chapter for the payment of the costs of the improvement, or the right of the city to levy taxes which with any other taxes authorized by this chapter do not exceed the maximum rate of tax that may be imposed upon property within the district for the payment of principal of and interest on bonds issued to pay the costs of the improvement, after thirty days from the date of adoption of the resolution ordering construction of the improvement.

9. The procedural steps contained in this section may be combined with the procedural steps for the petitioning and creation of the district or the procedural steps for the authorization of any tax or any combination thereof. [C77, 79, 81, §386.6]

386.7 Self-liquidating improvements. When a city proposes to construct a self-liquidating improvement, the cost of which is to be paid or financed under the provisions of this chapter, it must do so in accordance with the provisions of this section as follows:

1. Section 386.6, subsections 1 to 5 are applicable to a self-liquidating improvement to the same extent as they are applicable to an improvement and the proceedings initiating a self-liquidating improvement shall be governed thereby.

2. Before the council may order the construction of a self-liquidating improvement, and after hearing thereon, it must find that the self-liquidating improvement and the leasing of a part or the whole of it to any person or governmental body will further the corporate purposes of the city and will:

a. Aid in the commercial development of the district.

b. Further the interests of the district; or

c. Not substantially reduce the city's property tax base.

3. If the council orders the construction of the self-liquidating improvement, any contracts shall be let therefor in accordance with chapter 384 of division VI.

4. The adoption of a resolution ordering the construction of a self-liquidating improvement is a legislative determination that the proposed self-liquidating improvement and the leasing of a part or the whole of it to any person or governmental body will further the corporate purposes of the city and will:

a. Aid in the commercial development of the district.

b. Further the interests of the district; or

c. Not substantially reduce the city's property tax base.

5. A city may lease any or all of a self-liquidating improvement to any person or governmental body.

6. A city may issue revenue bonds payable from the income and receipts derived from the self-liquidated improvement. Chapter 384, division V applies to revenue bonds for self-liquidating improvements and the term "city enterprise" as used in that division shall be deemed to include self-liquidating improvements authorized by this chapter.

7. Any resident or property owner of the city may appeal a decision of the council to order the construction of a self-liquidating improvement or to lease any or all of a self-liquidating improvement to the district court of the county in which any part of the district is located, within thirty days after the adoption of the resolution ordering the self-liquidating improvement, but the action of the council is final and conclusive unless the court finds that the council exceeded its authority.

8. No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to the ordering of the construction of a self-liquidating improvement after thirty days from the date of adoption of the resolution ordering construction of the self-liquidating improvement. No action may be brought questioning the regularity of the proceedings pertaining to the leasing of any or all of a self-liquidating improvement after thirty days from the date of the adoption of a resolution approving the proposed lease. In addition to the limitation contained in section 384.92, no action may be brought which questions the legality of revenue bonds or the power of the city to issue revenue bonds or the effectiveness of any proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of revenue bonds relating to a self-liquidating improvement after thirty days from the time the bonds are ordered issued by the city.

9. The procedural steps contained in this section may be combined with the procedural steps for the petitioning and creation of the district. [C77, 79, 81, §386.7]

386.8 Operation tax. A city may establish a self-supported improvement district operation fund, and may certify taxes not to exceed the rate limitation as established in the ordinance creating the district, or any amendment thereto, each year to be levied for the fund against all of the property in the district, for the purpose of paying the administrative expenses of the district, which may include but are not limited to administrative personnel salaries, a separate administrative office, planning costs including consultation fees, engineering fees, architectural fees, and legal fees and all other expenses reasonably associated with the administration of the district and the fulfilling of the purposes of the district. The taxes levied for this fund may also be used for the purpose of paying maintenance expenses of improvements or self-liquidating improvements financed pursuant to this chapter for a specified length of time with one or more options to renew if such is clearly stated in the petition which requests the council to authorize construction of the improvement or self-liquidating improvement, whether or not such petition is combined with the petition requesting creation of a district. Parcels of property which are assessed as residential property for property tax purposes are exempt from the tax levied under this section. A tax levied under this section is not subject to the levy limitation in section 384.1. [C77, 79, 81, §386.8]

386.9 Capital improvement fund. A city may establish a capital improvement fund for a district and may certify taxes, not to exceed the rate established by the ordinance creating the district, or any subsequent amendment thereto, each year to be levied for the fund against all of the property in the district, for the purpose of accumulating moneys for the financing or payment of a part or all of the costs of any improvement or self-liquidating improvement. However, parcels of property which are assessed as residential property for property tax purposes are exempt from the tax levied under this section. A tax levied under this section is not subject to the levy limitations in section 384.1 or 384.7. [C77, 79, 81, §386.9]

Referred to in §386.12

386.10 Debt service fund. A city shall establish a self-supported municipal improvement district debt service fund whenever any self-supported municipal improvement district bonds are issued and outstanding, other than revenue bonds, and shall certify taxes to be levied against all of the property in the district for the debt service fund in the amount necessary to pay interest as it becomes due and the amount necessary to pay, or to create a sinking fund to pay, the principal at maturity of all self-supported municipal improvement district bonds as authorized in section 386.11, issued by the city. However, parcels of property which are assessed as residential property for property tax purposes at the time of the issuance of the bonds are exempt from the tax levied under this section until such time as the parcels are no longer assessed as residential property. [C77, 79, 81, §386.10]

386.11 Self-supported municipal improvement district bonds.

1. A city may issue and sell self-supported municipal improvement district bonds at public or private sale payable from taxes which must be levied in accordance with chapter 76. The bonds are payable from the levy of unlimited ad valorem taxes on all the taxable property within the district through the district debt service fund authorized by section 386.10. When self-supported municipal improvement district bonds are issued and taxes are levied in accordance with chapter 76, the taxes shall continue to be levied, until the bonds and interest thereon are paid in full, against all of the taxable property that was included in the district at the time of the issuance of the bonds, regardless of any subsequent removal of any property from the district or the dissolution of the district.

2. The proceeds of the sale of the bonds may be used to pay any or all of the costs of any improvement, or be used to pay any legal indebtedness incurred for the cost of any improvement including bonds or warrants previously issued to pay the costs of an improvement, or bonds may be exchanged for the evidences of such legal indebtedness.

3. Before the council may institute proceedings for the issuance of bonds, it shall proceed in the same manner as is required for the institution of proceedings for the issuance of bonds for an essential corporate purpose as provided in section 384.25, subsection 2 and all of the provisions of that subsection apply to bonds issued pursuant to this section.

4. A city may issue bonds authorized by this section pursuant to a resolution adopted at a regular or special meeting by an affirmative vote of a majority of the total members to which the council is entitled. The proceeds of a single bond issue may be used for various improvements.

5. The provisions of sections 384.29, 384.30, and 384.31 apply to bonds issued pursuant to this section, except that the bonds shall be designated "municipal improvement district bonds".

6. No action may be brought which questions the legality of bonds issued pursuant to this section or the power of a city to issue the bonds or the effectiveness of any proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of the bonds after thirty days from the time the bonds are ordered issued by the city. [C77, 79, 81, §386.11]

Referred to in §386.10

386.12 Payment for improvements. The costs of improvements may be paid from any of the following sources or a combination thereof:

1. The capital improvement fund referred to in section 386.9.

2. The proceeds of bonds referred to in section 386.11.

3. Any other funds of the city which are legally available to pay all or a portion of the cost of an improvement. The fact that an improvement is initiated under the provisions of this chapter, or any of the costs of an improvement or any part of an improvement are being paid under the provisions of this chapter, shall not preclude the city from paying any costs of an improvement from any fund from which it might otherwise have been able to pay such costs. In addition, and not in limitation of the foregoing, any improvement which constitutes an essential corporate purpose or a general corporate purpose as defined in section 384.24, subsections 3 and 4, may be financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the issuance of general obligation bonds of the city pursuant to the provisions of chapter 384, division III.

4. Payment for the costs of an improvement may also be made in warrants drawn on any fund from which payment for the improvement may be made. If such funds are depleted, anticipatory warrants may be issued bearing a rate of interest not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, which do not constitute a violation of section 384.10, even if the collection of taxes or income from the sale of bonds applicable to the improvement is after the end of the fiscal year in which the warrants are issued. If the city arranges for the private sale of anticipatory warrants, they may be sold and the proceeds used to pay the costs of the improvement. Such warrants may be used to pay other persons furnishing services constituting a part of the cost of the improvement. [C77, 79, 81, §386.12]

386.13 Parking fee abatements. A city may apply moneys in the operation fund of the district to prepay parking fees at any city parking facility located in or used in conjunction with the district but only after notice and hearing as required by section 386.6. The authority to prepay such fees shall exist only for the period of time set out in the notice to owners and in the resolution of the council authorizing the application of funds for that purpose. Upon the application of sufficient amounts of prepaid fees, the city need not charge individual users of the parking facility. Before adopting a resolution authorizing the application of funds for such purpose, the council must find that the application will further the purposes of the district, including but not limited to increasing the commercial activity in the district. [C77, 79, 81, §386.13]

386.14 Independent provisions. The provisions of this chapter with respect to notice, hearing and appeal for the construction of improvements and self-liquidating improvements and the issuance and sale of bonds are in lieu of the provisions contained in chapters 75 and 23, or any other law, unless specifically referred to and made applicable by this chapter. 387.1 Intent. The purpose of this chapter is to encourage a sense of community in Iowa's small cities and rural areas through self-help development activities in local communities, to encourage local decisions on the development needs of the community and to encourage local citizens to realize their own resources and participate in decisions on development needs and their implementation. This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa Rural Community Development Act". [C79, 81, §387.1]

387.2 Committee established. The Iowa rural community development committee is established within the office for planning and programming and is composed of the following:

1. Seven citizens of the state appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate for terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19 one of whom shall be elected by the members every two years to serve as chairperson of the committee. One citizen from a city qualifying pursuant to section 387.3 shall be appointed from each congressional district and one citizen shall be appointed from the state at large.

Not more than four members of the committee appointed pursuant to subsection 1 shall be of the same political party. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointments are made. The members of the committee shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties as members of the committee which shall be paid from the funds appropriated to the committee. [C79, 81, §387.2]

Referred to in §387.6
Confirmation, §2.32

387.3 Qualifications for grants.

1. A sponsor from a city of less than twenty-five hundred population by the last available federal census may apply to the committee for a grant for a community development project. The application must be sponsored by the city government or by an organization representing a broad cross-section of the community.

2. The sponsor shall design and implement a survey to discover community needs and resources. The sponsor shall then hold public meetings to discuss and determine the priority of needs, the available resources, and the most appropriate project for the grant application.

3. The committee shall provide simple and direct forms for applications for the grants. The applications shall include the following:

- a. A description of the process followed in accordance with subsection 2.
- b. A description of the project and the plans for the completion of the project.
- c. A statement as to why the particular project was selected from among the other community needs.
- d. A statement as to the effect of the project upon the community.
- e. A statement of the other resources available for the project. [C79, 81, §387.3]

Referred to in §387.2

387.4 Approval of grants. The committee shall allocate the funds to the applicants based on the extent to which the project is actually a self-help activity, whether the members of the community, and the surrounding area if appropriate, are involved in the determination of the local needs, whether there is local implementation of the development needs, and whether there is local participation in the activity. The committee may request the recommendation of an appropriate public or private agency organized under chapter 28E or 473A regarding the project proposed in the application. The committee shall attempt, after consideration of the prior criteria, to achieve an even distribution among cities of different populations and an even geographic distribution of the grants.

A grant shall not exceed five thousand dollars nor shall it exceed forty percent of the total cost of the project. A grant shall not be approved by the committee unless the grant and the other available resources equal the total cost of the project. The other available resources may include donations of money, goods or services which shall be included in the computation of the cost of the project, but shall not include any funds received from the federal government. [C79, 81, §387.4]

387.5 Warrants. The state comptroller is authorized and directed to draw warrants for the purposes stated in this chapter upon the vouchers of the chairperson of the committee. [C79, 81, §387.5]

387.6 Initial appointees. In making the initial appointments of the members of the committee listed in section 387.2, subsection 1, the governor shall appoint three members to terms of two years, two members to terms of four years, and two members to terms of six years. [C79, 81, §387.6]

- 388.1 Definitions.
- 388.2 Submission to voters.
- 388.3 Procedure upon approval.
- 388.4 Utility board.

- 388.5 Control of tax revenues.
- 388.6 Discrimination in rates.

- 1. "Combined utility system" means the same as defined in section 384.80.
- 2. "Utility board" or "board" means a board of trustees established to operate a city utility, city utilities, or a combined utility system. A single utility board may operate more than one city utility even though such city utilities are not a combined utility system. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.1]

388.2 Submission to voters. The proposal of a city to establish, acquire, lease, or dispose of a city utility, except a sanitary sewage system, in order to undertake or to discontinue the operation of the city utility, or the proposal to establish or dissolve a combined utility system, or the proposal to establish or discontinue a utility board, is subject to the approval of the voters

A proposal for the establishment of a utility board must specify a board of either three or five members.

If a majority of those voting for and against the proposal approves the proposal, the city may proceed as proposed.

If a majority of those voting for and against the proposal does not approve the proposal, the same or a similar proposal may not be submitted to the voters of the city for at least four years from the date of the election at which the proposal was defeated. [C73, §471; C97, §720, 721; S13, §720, 721; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6131-6133, 6144; C46, 50, 54, 58, §397.5-397.7, 397.29; C62, 66, 71, 73, §397.5-397.7, 397.29, 397.43; C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.2]

388.3 Procedure upon approval. If a proposal to establish a utility board receives a favorable majority vote, the mayor shall appoint the board members, as provided in the proposal, subject to the approval of the council. The council shall by resolution provide for staggered six-year terms for, and shall set the compensation of, board members.

A board member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring by reason other than the expiration of a term is appointed for the balance of the unexpired term.

A public officer or a salaried employee of the city may not serve on a utility board. [C97, §747; S13, §747-a, -b; C24, 27, §6147, 6148, 6157; C31, 35, §6147, 6148, 6157, 6943-c1, -c2, -c3; C39, §6147, 6148, 6157, 6943.001-6943.003; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §397.32, 397.33, 398.8, 420.297-420.299; C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.3]

388.4 Utility board. The title of a utility board must be appropriate to the city utility, city utilities, or combined utility system administered by the board. A utility board may be a party to legal action. A utility board may exercise all powers of a city in relation to the city utility, city utilities, or combined utility system it administers, with the following exceptions:

1. A board may not certify taxes to be levied, pass ordinances or amendments, or issue general obligation or special assessment bonds.

2. The title to all property of a city utility or combined utility system must be held in the name of the city, but the utility board has all the powers and authorities of the city with respect to the acquisition by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, lease, sale, or other disposition of such property, and the management, control, and operation of the same, subject to the requirements, terms, covenants, conditions, and provisions of any resolutions authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds, pledge orders, or other obligations which are payable from the revenues of the city utility or combined utility system, and which are then outstanding.

3. A board shall make to the council a detailed annual report, including a complete financial statement.

4. Immediately following a regular or special meeting of a utility board, the secretary shall prepare a condensed statement of the proceedings of the board and cause the statement to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The statement must include a list of all claims allowed, showing the name of the person or firm making the claim, the reason for the claim, and the amount of the claim.

Salary claims must show the gross amount of the claim except that salaries paid to persons regularly employed by the utility, for services regularly performed by them, must be published once annually showing the gross amount of the salary. In cities having more than one hundred fifty thousand population the utility board shall each month prepare in pamphlet form the statement herein required for the preceding month, and furnish copies to the city library, the daily newspapers of the city, the city clerk, and to persons who apply at the office of the secretary, and the pamphlet shall constitute publication as required. Failure by the secretary to make publication is a simple misdemeanor. [S13, §1056-a7, -c24; C24, §5678, 6149; C27, 31, 35, §5676-a2, 6149, 6159-a1; C39, §5676.2, 6149, 6159.1; C46, 50, §363.52, 397.34, 398.11; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §368A.7, 368A.24, 397.34, 398.11; C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.4]

388.5 Control of tax revenues. A utility board shall control tax revenues allocated to the city utility, city utilities, or combined utility system it administers and all moneys derived from the operation of the city utility, city utilities, or combined utility system, the sale of utility property, interest on investments, or from any other source related to the city utility, city utilities, or combined utility system.

All city utility moneys received must be held in a separate utility fund, with a separate account or accounts for each city utility or combined utility system. If a board administers a municipal utility or combined utility system, moneys may be paid out of that utility account only at the direction of the board. [C97, §748; C13, §741-b, 748; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5676, 6158; C46, 50, §363.50, 398.9; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §368A.6, 398.9; C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.5]

388.6 Discrimination in rates. A city utility or a combined utility system may not provide use or service at a discriminatory rate, except to the city or its agencies, as provided in section 384.91. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.6]

388.7 Prior utility board. A utility board functioning on the effective date of the city code shall continue to function until discontinued as provided in this chapter, and has all the powers granted in this chapter.

Nothing in the city code shall be construed to allow the abrogation of any franchise. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §388.7]

388.8 Easement continuance. If a city exercised a right to an easement on property before January 1, 1950, for the establishment of water, sewer, or gas or power lines, the city has acquired the right to exercise a continuing easement on that property to the extent necessary for repair and maintenance of those lines. Referred to in §93A 6, 476 22

390.2 Additional power. In addition to other powers conferred by the Constitution and laws of this state, any city having established a utility which operates an existing electric generating facility or distribution system may enter into and carry out joint agreements with other participants for the acquisition of ownership of an undivided interest in a joint facility and for the planning, financing, operation and maintenance of the joint facility. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §390.2]

390.3 Hearing—exception to general statutes. Before a city may enter into or amend a joint agreement, the governing body shall adopt a proposed form of agreement and give notice and conduct a public hearing on the agreement in the manner provided by sections 23.1 to 23.11, which action shall be subject to appeal as provided in chapter 23.

However, in the performance of a joint agreement, the governing body shall not be subject to statutes generally applicable to public contracts, including hearings on plans, specifications, form of contracts, costs, notice and competitive bidding required under chapter 23 or chapter 397 of the 1973 Code or sections 384.95 to 384.103, unless all parties to the joint agreement are cities located within the state of Iowa. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §390.3]

390.4 Undivided joint interest. In substance, a joint agreement shall:

1. Provide that each participant shall own an undivided interest in the joint facility, the interest being equal to the percentage of the money furnished, value of property furnished, or services rendered by each participant toward the total cost of the joint facility, and that each participant shall own and control a like percentage of the output of the joint facility.

2. Provide that each participant shall undertake to finance its portion of the cost of planning, acquisition, operation, and maintenance of the joint facility.

3. Provide that each participant in the ownership of the joint facility shall bear all taxes, if any, chargeable to its ownership of the joint facility under statutes now or hereafter in effect.

4. Provide for the planning, financing, acquisition, operation and maintenance of the joint facility, or for any one or more of said purposes, including the cost to be contributed by each participant.

5. Provide for a uniform method of determining and allocating operation and maintenance expenses of the joint facility.

6. Provide that a participant may be liable only for its own acts with regard to the joint facility, or as principal for the acts of the manager in proportion to its percentage of ownership, and shall not be jointly or severally liable for the acts, omissions or obligations of other participants.

7. Provide that the undivided interest of a participant in the joint facility may not be charged directly or indirectly with a debt or obligation of another participant or be subject to any lien as a result thereof.

8. Provide for the management and operation of the affairs of the joint facility, and the indemnification of the manager, which may include a provision that the joint facility shall be managed and operated by one or more of the participants.

9. Provide that no participant may withdraw from the joint agreement during its duration so long as obligations payable in whole or in part from revenues derived from the operation of the joint facility, and issued by a city, are outstanding, unless prior consent is first granted by each of the other participants either in the joint agreement or otherwise.

10. Provide for the method to be employed in accomplishing the partial or complete termination of the agreement and for disposing of property and assets upon partial or complete termination. The provisions of the joint agreement for disposition of the joint facilities shall not be subject to the statutes limiting or prescribing procedure for the sale of city-owned properties.

11. Provide for the duration of the agreement. An agreement authorized by this chapter shall not be limited as to period of existence, except as may be limited by the terms of the agreement itself.

12. Include other provisions as the parties may deem necessary or appropriate with respect to the conduct of the participants, the operation or ownership of the joint facility, or the settlement of disputes. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §390.4]

390.5 Financing. A city may finance its share of the cost of a joint facility by the use of any method of financing available for city utilities under the statutes of this state, for the financing of electric generation or transmission facilities to be owned by a city in their entirety, including but not limited to the provisions of chapters 397 and 407, Code 1973, and sections 384.23 to 384.36 and sections 384.80 to 384.94 as applicable. Revenues derived by a city utility from its share of ownership or operation of a joint facility shall be deemed to be revenues of the city utility for all purposes including the issuance and payment of bonds secured by or payable from the revenues of a city utility. A joint agreement shall be deemed payable from revenues or revenue bonds of a city utility in the absence of provision to the contrary or a referendum approving the issuance of general obligation bonds. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §390.5]

390.6 Construction. This chapter being necessary for the public health, public safety and general welfare, shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes. This chapter shall be construed as providing a separate and independent method for accomplishing its purposes, and except as provided or necessarily implied shall not be construed as subject to or an amendment of any other law. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no restrictions or requirements contained in this chapter shall be construed as applying to bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of chapter 419. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to limit the powers and authority of privately owned utility companies or electric co-operatives under any other law. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §390.6]

390.7 Construction of amendments. The provisions of 66GA, chapter 199 are retroactive in application to all joint agreements entered into and executed prior to July 1, 1975, under this chapter, on behalf of cities which, on the date of executing the agreements, operated existing electric generating or distribution facilities. However, all such joint agreements which complied with the provisions of this chapter prior to amendment by 66GA, chapter 199, are also in full force and effect according to their terms, and are not rendered invalid in any respect by any provision of 66GA, chapter 199. | 392.4 Joint action. | |

392.1 Establishment by ordinance. If the council wishes to establish an administrative agency, it shall do so by an ordinance which indicates the title, powers, and duties of the agency, the method of appointment or election, qualifications, compensation, and term of members, and other appropriate matters relating to the agency. The title of an administrative agency must be appropriate to its function. The council may not delegate to an administrative agency any of the powers, authorities, and duties prescribed in division V of chapter 384 or in chapter 388, except that the council may delegate to an administrative agency power to establish and collect charges, and disburse the moneys received for the use of a city facility, including a city enterprise, as defined in section 384.24, so long as there are no revenue bonds or pledge orders outstanding which are payable from the revenues of the city enterprise. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the council may delegate rule-making authority to the agency for matters within the scope of the agency's powers and duties, and may prescribe penalties for violation of agency rules which have been adopted by ordinance. Rules governing the use by the public of any city facility must be made readily available to the public. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.1]

392.2 Pledging credit or taxing power prohibited. An administrative agency may not pledge the credit or taxing power of the city. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.2]

392.3 Contracts reviewable by council. Unless otherwise stated in the ordinance establishing the agency, contracts and agreements entered into by administrative agencies are subject to review and approval by the council, but when so approved and to the extent such contracts and agreements are otherwise valid by law, are valid and not voidable by subsequent actions of the city even if the administrative agency is dissolved, but no such contract or agreement may conflict with the provisions of division V of chapter 384 or chapter 388, or any action taken pursuant to the provisions of the same. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.3]

392.4 Joint action. Subject to approval by the council, an administrative agency may take action jointly with other public or private agencies as provided in chapter 28E. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.4]

392.5 Library board. A city library board of trustees functioning on the effective date of the city code shall continue to function in the same manner until altered or discontinued as provided in this section.

In order for the board to function in the same manner, the council shall retain all applicable ordinances, and shall adopt as ordinances all applicable state statutes repealed by 64GA, chapter 1088.

A library board may accept and control the expenditure of all gifts, devises, and bequests to the library.

A proposal to alter the composition, manner of selection, or charge of a library board, or to replace it with an alternate form of administrative agency, is subject to the approval of the voters of the city.

The proposal may be submitted to the voters at any city election by the council on its own motion. Upon receipt of a valid petition as defined in section 362.4, requesting that a proposal be submitted to the voters, the council shall submit the proposal at the next regular city election. A proposal submitted to the voters must describe with reasonable detail the action proposed.

If a majority of those voting approves the proposal, the city may proceed as proposed.

If a majority of those voting does not approve the proposal, the same or a similar proposal may not be submitted to the voters of the city for at least four years from the date of the election at which the proposal was defeated. [C97, §728, 729; S13, §729; SS15, §728; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5851, 5858; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §378.3, 378.10; C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.5]

392.6 Hospital trustees. If a hospital or health care facility is established by a city, the city shall by ordinance provide for the election, at a general, city, or special election, of three trustees, whose terms of office shall be six years; but at the first election, three shall be elected and hold their office, respectively, for two, four, and six years, and they shall by lot determine their respective terms. A board of trustees elected pursuant to this section shall serve as the sole and only board of trustees for any and all institutions established by a city as provided for in this section.

Cities maintaining an institution as provided for in this section which have a board of trustees consisting of three members may by ordinance increase the number of members to five and provide for the appointment of one of the additional members until the next succeeding general or city election, and for the appointment of the other additional member until the second succeeding general or city election. Thereafter, the terms of office of such additional members shall be six years.

The trustees shall within ten days after their election qualify by taking the oath of office, and organize as a board by the election of one of their number as chairman and one as secretary, but no bond shall be required of them.

The official serving as treasurer of the city shall be the treasurer of the board of trustees, and shall receive and disburse all funds under the control of the board as ordered by it, but shall receive no additional compensation for his services. The treasurer shall give bond in a form and amount as determined by the board in its discretion.

No trustee shall receive any compensation for his services performed, but he may receive reimbursement for any cash expenses actually made for personal expenses incurred as trustee, but an itemized statement of all expenses and moneys paid out shall be made under oath by each of the trustees and filed with the secretary and allowed only by the affirmative vote of the full board.

The board of trustees shall be vested with authority to provide for the management, control, and government of the city hospital or health care facility established as permitted by this section, and shall provide all needed rules for the economic conduct thereof and shall annually prepare a condensed statement of the total receipts and expenditures for the hospital or health care facility and cause the same to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city in which the hospital or health care facility is located. In the management of the hospital or health care facility no discrimination shall be made against practitioners of any school of medicine recognized by the laws of the state.

As a part of the board's authority it may accept property by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise; and, if the board deems it advisable, may, at public sale, sell or exchange any property so accepted upon a concurring vote of a majority of all members of the board of trustees, and apply the proceeds thereof, or property received in exchange therefor, to any legitimate hospital or health care facility purpose.

The trustees may in their discretion establish a fund for depreciation as a separate fund. Said funds may be invested in United States government bonds and when so invested the accumulation of interest on the bonds so purchased shall be used for the purposes of the depreciation fund; an investment when so made shall remain in United States government bonds until such time as in the judgment of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable to use the funds for hospital or health care facility purposes.

Boards of trustees of institutions provided for in this section are granted all of the powers and duties necessary for the management, control and government of the institutions, specifically including but not limited to any applicable powers and duties granted boards of trustees under other provisions of the Code relating to hospitals, nursing homes, and custodial homes irrespective of the chapter of the Code under which such institutions are established, organized, operated or maintained. [S13, §741-o, -p; C24, §5867-5871; C27, 31, 35, §5867, 5867-a1, 5868-5871; C39, §5867, 5867.1, 5868-5871; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §380.1-380.6; C71, 73, §380.1-380.6, 380.16; C75, 77, 79, 81, §392.6]

392.7 Prior agencies. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, an administrative agency established by a city shall continue with the same powers and duties until altered or discontinued as provided in this section. The council may by ordinance reduce or increase an administrative agency's power and duties, or may transfer powers and duties from one agency to another. The council may discontinue an administrative agency by adopting a resolution proposing the action, and publishing notice as provided in section 362.3, of the resolution and of a date, time and place of a public hearing on the proposal, and may discontinue the agency by ordinance or amendment not sooner than thirty days following the hearing. - 394.1 Authority to issue bonds—taxes.
- 394.2 Question submitted to voters.

- 394.3 Tax for operating zoo.
- 394.4 Contracts with other cities—election.

394.1 Authority to issue bonds—taxes. Cities are hereby authorized to contract indebtedness and to issue general obligation bonds to provide funds to pay the cost of opening, establishing, constructing, improving, extending or remodeling of a zoo or zoological garden and to construct, reconstruct or repair any such improvement and to pay the cost of land needed for any of said purposes.

Taxes for the payment of said bonds shall be levied in accordance with chapter 76, and said bonds shall be payable through the debt service fund in not more than twenty years, and bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, and shall be of such form as the city council shall by resolution provide, but no city shall become indebted in excess of five percent of the actual value of the taxable property within said city, as shown by the last preceding state and county tax lists. The indebtedness incurred for the purpose provided in this section shall not be considered an indebtedness incurred for general or ordinary purposes.

This section shall be construed as granting additional power without limiting the power already existing in cities.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all municipal corporations regardless of form of government or manner of incorporation. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §394.1]

394.2 Question submitted to voters. It shall not be necessary to submit to the voters the proposition of issuing bonds for refunding purposes, but prior to the issuance of bonds for other purposes the council shall submit to the voters of the city at a general election or a regular municipal election the proposition of issuing the bonds. Notice of the election on the proposition of issuing bonds shall be published as required by section 49.53. The notice shall also state whether or not an admission fee is to be charged by the zoo or zoological gardens.

Bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be sold by the council in the manner prescribed by chapter 75; however, refunding bonds may either be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the bonds to be refunded, or the refunding bonds may be issued in exchange for the bonds being refunded upon their surrender and cancellation. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §394.2]

394.3 Tax for operating zoo. A city establishing or having established a zoo or zoological garden may authorize not to exceed a levy of twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation on all taxable property within the corporation for the purpose of paying the costs of operating, maintaining and managing a zoo or zoological garden. The levy shall be subject to cumulative levy limitations otherwise provided by law unless said levy shall have been submitted to and approved by the voters of said city. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §394.3]

394.4 Contracts with other cities—election. Contracts may be made between any city establishing or having established a zoo or zoological garden and any other city or county, but a county may contract only with respect to residents outside of any city, for the use of such zoo or zoological garden or any extension service thereof by its residents, and for the levy of a tax in support thereof. Such contracts shall provide for the rate of tax to be levied during the term thereof, not exceeding twenty-seven cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. Said contracts may be submitted to the voters of either city and shall not be subject to termination if approved by the voters of both parties.

If not so approved, such contracts may be modified by mutual consent or may be terminated by the voters of either party thereto.

Any such tax shall be subject to cumulative levy limitations applicable generally to the contracting parties unless the contract shall have been approved by the voters.

Any election held hereunder may be held upon notice and in any manner provided by law applicable to the contracting party with respect to elections upon special public propositions; provided that it shall not be necessary to set out the contract provisions in full as a part of the ballot. 400.1 Appointment of commission. In cities having a population of eight thousand or over, having a paid fire department or a paid police department, the mayor, one year after each regular municipal election, with the approval of the council, shall appoint three civil service commissioners who shall hold office, one until the first Monday in April of the second year, one until the first Monday in April of the fourth year, and one until the first Monday in April of the sixth year after such appointment, whose successors shall be appointed for a term of six years. [SS15, §1056-a32; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5689; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §365.1; C75, 77, 79, 81, §400.1]

No person while on said commission, shall hold or be a candidate for any office of public trust. Provided, this section notwithstanding, when a human rights commission has been established by any city, the director thereof shall ex officio be a member, without vote, of the civil service commission.

Civil service commissioners shall not buy from, sell to, or in any manner become parties, directly, to any contract to furnish supplies, material, or labor to the city in which they are commissioners. 400.3 Optional appointment of commission—abolishing commission. In cities having a population of less than eight thousand, the city council may, by ordinance, adopt the provisions of this chapter in which case it shall either appoint such commission or provide, by ordinance, for the exercise of the powers and performance of the duties of the commission by the council. Where the city council exercises the pow-

Whenever the city council appoints a commission, it may, by ordinance, abolish it, and the commission shall stand abolished sixty days from the date of the ordinance and the powers and duties of the commission shall revert to the city council except whenever a city having a population of less than eight thousand provides for the appointment of a civil service commission, it may by ordinance abolish such office, but said ordinance shall not take effect until it has been submitted to the voters at a regular municipal election and approved by a majority of the voters at such election. The ordinance shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of said election in a newspaper published in and having a general circulation in said city. 400.4 Chairman—clerk—records. The chairman of the commission for each biennial period shall be the member whose term first expires. In cities having a population of more than seventy-five thousand the commission shall appoint an employee in the city clerk's office who is employed under the provisions of this chapter to be clerk of the commission and his duties as such clerk shall have precedence over any additional duties of his regular employment. In all other cities the city clerk shall be clerk of the commission.

The civil service commission shall keep a record of all its meetings and also a complete individual service record of each civil service employee which record shall be permanent and kept up to date.
