c A document certified by the department as being proper evidence of termination of parental rights in a jurisdiction outside the United States shall be recognized in this state

2 If there is a proxy adoption in the minor person's country of origin, a further adoption must occur in the state where the adopting parents reside in accordance with the adoption laws of that state

3 The department may provide necessary assistance to an eligible citizen of Iowa who desires to, in accordance with the immigration laws of the United States, make an international adoption For any such assistance the department may charge a fee which does not exceed the reasonable cost of services rendered and which is based on a sliding scale relating to the investigated person's ability to pay

4 Any rules of the department relating to placement of a minor child for adoption which are more restrictive than comparable rules of agencies making international placements and laws of the United States shall not be enforced by the department in an international adoption

600.16 Termination and adoption record.

1 Any information compiled under section 600 8, subsection 1, paragraph "c", subparagraphs (1) and (2) shall be made available at any time by the clerk of the court, the department, or any agency which made the placement to

- a The adopting parents
- b The adopted person, provided that person is an adult at the time the request for information is made

c Any person approved by the department if the person uses this information solely for the purposes of conducting a legitimate research project or of treating a patient in a medical facility

Information regarding an adopted person's existing medical and developmental history and family medical history, which meets the definition of background information in section 600 8, subsection 1, paragraph "c", but which was compiled prior to July 1, 1976, shall be made available as provided in this subsection. However, the identity of the adopted person's natural parents shall not be disclosed

2 The permanent termination of parental rights record of the juvenile court under chapter 600A and the permanent adoption record of the court shall be sealed by the clerk of the juvenile court and the clerk of court, as appropriate, when they are complete and after the time for appeal has expired. All papers and records pertaining to a termination of parental rights under chapter 600A and to an adoption, whether a part of the permanent termination and adoption records of the juvenile court and of the court or on file with a guardian, guardian ad litem, custodian, person who placed a minor person, or the department shall not be open to inspection and the identity of the natural parents of an adopted person shall not be revealed. However, an agency involved in placement shall contact the adopting parents or the adult adopted child regarding eligibility of the adopted child for benefits based on entitlement of benefits or inheritance from the terminated natural parents. Also, the clerk of the court shall, upon application to and order of the court for good cause shown, open the permanent adoption record of the court for the adopted person who is an adult and reveal the names of either or both of the natural parents. A natural parent may file an affidavit requesting that the court reveal or not reveal the parent's name. The court shall consider any such affidavit in determining whether there is good cause to order opening of the records. If the adopted person who applies for revelation of the natural parents' name has a sibling who is a minor and who has been adopted by the same parents, the court may deny such application on the grounds that revelation to the applicant may also indirectly and harmfully permit the same revelation to the applicant's minor sibling. To facilitate the natural parents in filing such affidavit, the department shall, upon request of such parent, file an affidavit in the court in which the adoption records have been sealed.

3 Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, the juvenile court or court may, upon competent medical evidence, open termination or adoption records if opening is shown to be necessary to save the life of or prevent irreparable physical harm to an adopted person or the person's offspring. The juvenile court or court shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed under this subsection to the adopted person. The juvenile court or court may, however, permit revelation of the identity of the natural parents to medical personnel attending the adopted person or the person's offspring. These medical personnel shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed to the adopted person.

4 Any person, other than the adopting parents or the adopted person, who discloses information in violation of the provisions of this section shall be, upon conviction, guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

This chapter shall be construed liberally. The welfare of the child subject to the proceedings of this chapter shall be the paramount consideration in interpreting this chapter. However, the interests of the parents of this child or any natural person standing in the place of the parents to this child shall be given due consideration in this interpretation.

600A.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

- 1 "Child" means a son or daughter of a parent, whether by birth or adoption
- 2 "Parent" means a father or mother of a child, whether by birth or adoption
- 3 "Parent child relationship" means the relationship between a parent and a child recognized by the law as conferring certain rights and privileges and imposing certain duties. The term extends equally to every child and every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents of the child. The rights, duties, and privileges recognized in the parent child relationship include those which are maintained by a guardian, custodian, and guardian ad litem.

4 "Termination of parental rights" means a complete severance and extinguishment of a parent-child relationship between one or both living parents and the child.

5 "Natural parent" means a parent who has been a biological party to the procreation of the child.

6 "Stepparent" means a person who is the spouse of a parent in a parent child relationship, but who is not a parent in that parent child relationship.

7 "Guardian" means a person who is not the parent of a minor child, but who has been appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the minor child to make important decisions which have permanent effect on the life and development of that child and to promote the general welfare of that child. A guardian may be a court or a juvenile court. Guardian does not mean conservator, as defined in section 633.3, although a person who is appointed to be a guardian may also be appointed to be a conservator.

Unless otherwise enlarged or circumscribed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the minor child or by operation of law, the rights and duties of a guardian with respect to a minor child shall be as follows:

a To consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, or medical, psychiatric or surgical treatment.

b To serve as custodian, unless another person has been appointed custodian.

c To make reasonable visitations if the guardian does not have physical possession or custody of the minor child.

d To consent to adoption and to make any other decision that the parents could have made when the parent-child relationship existed.

8 "Custodian" means a stepparent or a relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity to a minor child who has assumed responsibility for that child, a person who has accepted a release of custody, or a person appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over a child. The rights and duties of a custodian with respect to a child shall be as follows:

a To maintain or transfer to another the physical possession of that child.

b To protect, train, and discipline that child.

c To provide food, clothing, housing, and ordinary medical care for that child.

d To consent to emergency medical care, including surgery.

e To sign a release of medical information to a health professional.

All rights and duties of a custodian shall be subject to any residual rights and duties remaining in a parent or guardian.

9 "Guardian ad litem" means a person appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the minor child to represent that child in a legal action.

10 "Minor" means an unmarried person who is under the age of eighteen years.

11 "Adult" means a person who is married or eighteen years of age or older.

12 "Agency" means a child placing agency as defined in section 238.2 or the department.

13 "Department" means the state department of human services or its subdivisions.

14 "Court" means a district court.

15 "Juvenile court" means the juvenile court established by section 602.7101.

16 "To abandon a minor child" means to permanently relinquish or surrender, without reference to any particular person, the parental rights, duties, or privileges inherent in the parent-child relationship. The term includes both the intention to abandon and the acts by which the intention is evidenced. The term does not require that the relinquishment or surrender be over any particular period of time.

17 "Independent placement" means placement for purposes of adoption of a minor in the home of a proposed adoptive parent by a person who is not the proposed adoptive parent and who is not acting on behalf of the department or of a child-placing agency. [C77, 79, 81, §600A.2]

Referred to in §600.2

600A.3 Exclusivity

Termination of parental rights shall be accomplished only according to the provisions of this chapter. However, termination of parental rights between an adult child and the child's parents may be accomplished by a decree of adoption establishing a new parent-child relationship.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §232.40, C77, 79, 81, §600A.3]

600A.4 Relationship unaltered — release of custody — voluntariness of release.

1 A parent shall not permanently alter the parent-child relationship, except as ordered by a juvenile court or court. However, custody of a minor child may be assumed by a stepparent or a relative of that child within the fourth degree of consanguinity or transferred by an acceptance of a release of custody. A person who assumes custody or an agency which accepts a release of custody under this section becomes, upon assumption or acceptance, the custodian of the minor child.

2 A release of custody a Shall be accepted only by an agency or a person making an independent placement.

b Shall not be accepted by a person who in any way intends to adopt the child who is the subject of the release.

c Shall be in writing.

d Shall be signed, not less than seventy-two hours after the birth of the child to be released, by all living parents.

e Shall be witnessed by two persons familiar with the parent-child relationship.

f Shall name the person who is accepting the release.

g Shall be followed, within a reasonable time, by the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights under section 600A.5.

h Shall state the purpose of the release, shall indicate that if it is not revoked it may be grounds for termination, and shall fully inform the signing parent of the manner in which a revocation of the release may be sought.

3 Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 2, an agency or a person making an independent placement may assume custody of a minor child upon the signature of the one living parent who has possession of the minor child if the agency or a person making an independent placement immediately petitions the juvenile court designated in section 600A.5 to be appointed custodian and otherwise petitions, either in the same petition or within a reasonable time in a separate petition, for termination of parental rights under section 600A.5. Upon the custody petition, the juvenile court may appoint a guardian as well as a custodian.

4 Either a parent who has signed a release of custody, or a nonsigning parent, may, at any time prior to the entry of an order terminating parental rights, request the juvenile court designated in section 600A 5 to order the revocation of any release of custody previously executed by either parent. If such request is by a signing parent, and is within ninety six hours of the time such parent signed a release of custody, the juvenile court shall order the release revoked. Otherwise, the juvenile court shall order the release or releases revoked only upon clear and convincing evidence that good cause exists for revocation. Good cause for revocation includes but is not limited to a showing that the release was obtained by fraud, coercion, or misrepresentation of law or fact which was material to its execution. In determining whether good cause, other than fraud, coercion or misrepresentation, exists for revocation, the juvenile court shall give paramount consideration to the best interests of the child and due consideration to the interests of the parents of the child and of any person standing in the place of the parents.

600A.6 Notice of termination hearing.

1 A termination of parental rights under this chapter shall, unless provided otherwise in this section, be ordered only after notice has been served on all necessary parties and these parties have been given an opportunity to be heard before the juvenile court except that notice need not be served on the petitioner or on any necessary party who is spouse of the petitioner. "Necessary party" means any person whose name, residence, and domicile are required to be included on the petition under section 600A 5, subsection 3, paragraphs "a" and "b" except a natural parent who has been convicted of having sexually abused the other natural parent while not cohabiting with that parent as husband and wife thereby producing the birth of the child who is the subject of the termination proceedings.

2 Prior to the service of notice on the necessary parties, the juvenile court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor child if the child does not have a guardian or if the interests of the guardian conflict with the interests of the child. Such guardian ad litem shall be a necessary party under subsection 1 of this section.

3 Notice under this section may be served personally or constructively, as specified under subsections 4, 5, and 6. This notice shall state:

5 A necessary party whose identity is known but whose location or address is unknown may be served by published notice. Such notice shall be served according to the rules of civil procedure relating to an original notice where not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. In addition to the requirements of subsection 3, such notice shall include only the name of the unlocated necessary party being noticed. Notice by publication shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the last publication to be not less than seven days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights.

6 The juvenile court shall require that every reasonable effort is made to identify, locate, and notice an unidentified necessary party. A reasonable effort to notice such party shall not be by published notice which includes the name of any identified necessary party. If the juvenile court reasonably concludes, upon a proper showing that the identity and location of the necessary party has not been determined, the juvenile court shall, upon proper findings and order entered of record, dispense with notice to this necessary party.

7 Proof of service of notice in the manner prescribed shall be filed with the juvenile court prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights.

2 If an order is issued under subsection 1, paragraph "b" of this section, the juvenile court shall retain jurisdiction to change a guardian or custodian and to allow a terminated parent to request vacation of the termination order if the child is not on placement for adoption or a petition for adoption of the child is not on file. The juvenile court shall grant the vacation request only if it is in the best interest of the child.

3 A copy of any order made under this section shall be sent by the clerk of the juvenile court to:

a The department

b The petitioner

c The parents whose rights have been terminated if they request such copies.

d Any guardian, custodian, or guardian ad litem of the child.

2 Any place of public accommodation, employer labor organization, or other person who has any employees or members who refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the commission a verified written complaint in triplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action

3 a After the filing of a verified complaint, a true copy shall be served within twenty days by certified mail on the person against whom the complaint is filed An authorized member of the commission staff shall make a prompt investigation and shall issue a recommendation to a hearing officer under the jurisdiction of the commission, who shall then issue a determination of probable cause or no probable cause

b For purposes of this chapter, a hearing officer issuing a determination of probable cause or no probable cause under this section shall be exempt from the provisions of section 17A 17

c If the hearing officer concurs with the investigating official that probable cause exists regarding the allegations of the complaint, the staff of the commission shall promptly endeavor to eliminate the discriminatory or unfair practice by conference conciliation, and persuasion If the hearing officer finds that no probable cause exists, the hearing officer shall issue a final order dismissing the complaint and shall promptly mail a copy to the complainant and to the respondent by certified mail. A finding of probable cause shall not be introduced into evidence in an action brought under section 601A.16.

d. The commission staff must endeavor to eliminate the discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion for a period of thirty days following the initial conciliation meeting between the respondent and the commission staff after a finding of probable cause. After the expiration of thirty days, the director may order the conciliation conference and persuasion procedure provided in this section to be bypassed when the director determines the procedure is unworkable by reason of past patterns and practices of the respondent, or a statement by the respondent that the respondent is unwilling to continue with the conciliation. The director must have the approval of a commissioner before bypassing the conciliation, conference and persuasion procedure. Upon the bypassing of conciliation, the director shall state in writing the reasons for bypassing.

4. The members of the commission and its staff shall not disclose the filing of a complaint, the information gathered during the investigation, or the endeavors to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, unless such disclosure is made in connection with the conduct of such investigation.

5. When the director is satisfied that further endeavor to settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion is unworkable and should be bypassed, and the thirty day period provided for in subsection 3 has expired without agreement, the director with the approval of a commissioner, shall issue and cause to be served a written notice specifying the charges in the complaint as they may have been amended and the reasons for bypassing conciliation, if the conciliation is bypassed, and requiring the respondent to answer the charges of the complaint at a hearing before the commission, a commissioner, or a person designated by the commission to conduct the hearing, hereafter referred to as the hearing officer, and at a time and place to be specified in the notice.

6. The case in support of such complaint shall be presented at the hearing by one of the commission's attorneys or agents. The investigating official shall not participate in the hearing except as a witness nor participate in the deliberations of the commission in such case.

7. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A for contested cases. The burden of proof in such a hearing shall be on the commission.

8. If upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the discriminatory or unfair practice and to take the necessary remedial action as in the judgment of the commission will carry out the purposes of this chapter. A copy of the order shall be delivered to the respondent, the complainant, and to any other public officers and persons as the commission deems proper.

a. For the purposes of this subsection and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter "remedial action" includes but is not limited to the following:

(1) Hiring reinstatement or upgrading of employees with or without pay. Interim earned income and unemployment compensation shall operate to reduce the pay otherwise allowable.

(2) Admission or restoration of individuals to a labor organization, admission to or participation in a guidance program, apprenticeship training program, on the job training program or other occupational training or retraining program, with the utilization of objective criteria in the admission of individuals to such programs.

(3) Admission of individuals to a public accommodation or an educational institution.

(4) Sale, exchange, lease, rental, assignment or sublease of real property to an individual.

(5) Extension to all individuals of the full and equal enjoyment of the advantages, facilities, privileges, and services of the respondent denied to the complainant because of the discriminatory or unfair practice.

(6) Reporting as to the manner of compliance.

(7) Posting notices in conspicuous places in the respondent's place of business in form prescribed by the commission and inclusion of notices in advertising material.

(8) Payment to the complainant of damages for an injury caused by the discriminatory or unfair practice which damages shall include but are not limited to actual damages, court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

b. In addition to the remedies provided in the preceding provisions of this subsection, the commission may issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the discriminatory or unfair practice and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the commission will carry out the purposes of this chapter as follows:

(1) In the case of a respondent operating by virtue of a license issued by the state or a political subdivision or agency, if the commission, upon notice to the respondent with an opportunity to be heard, determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice and that the practice was authorized, requested, commanded, performed or knowingly or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors of the respondent or by an officer or executive agent acting within the scope of the officer's or agent's employment, the commission shall so certify to the licensing agency. Unless the commission finding of a discriminatory or unfair practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, the finding of discrimination is binding on the licensing agency. If a certification is made pursuant to this subsection, the licensing agency may initiate licensee disciplinary procedures.

(2) In the case of a respondent who is found by the commission to have engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice in the course of performing under a contract or subcontract with the state or political subdivision or agency, if the practice was authorized, requested, commanded, performed, or knowingly or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors of the respondent or by an officer or executive agent acting within the scope of the officer's or agent's employment, the commission shall so certify to the contracting agency. Unless the commission's finding of a discriminatory or unfair practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, the finding of discrimination is binding on the contracting agency.

(3) Upon receiving a certification made under this subsection, a contracting agency may take appropriate action to terminate a contract or portion thereof previously entered into with the respondent, either absolutely or on condition that the respondent carry out a program of compliance with the provisions of this chapter; and assist the state and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof to refrain from entering into further contracts.

c. The election of an affirmative order under paragraph "b" of this subsection shall not bar the election of affirmative remedies provided in paragraph "a" of this subsection.

9. The terms of a conciliation agreement reached with the respondent may require the respondent to refrain in the future from committing discriminatory or unfair practices of the type stated in the agreement, to take remedial action as in the judgment of the commission will carry out the purposes of this chapter, and to consent to the entry in an appropriate district court of a consent decree embodying the terms of the conciliation agreement. Violation of such a consent decree may be punished as contempt by the court in which it is filed, upon a showing by the commission of the violation at any time within six months of its occurrence. In all cases where a conciliation agreement is entered into, the commission shall issue an order stating its terms and furnish a copy of the order to the complainant, the respondent, and such other persons as the commission deems proper. At any time in its discretion, the commission may investigate whether the terms of the agreement are being complied with by the respondent.

Upon a finding that the terms of the conciliation agreement are not being complied with by the respondent, the commission shall take appropriate action to assure compliance.

10. If, upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in any such discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall issue an order denying relief and stating the findings of fact and conclusions of the commission, and shall cause a copy of the order dismissing the complaint to be served by certified mail on the complainant and the respondent.

11. The commission shall establish rules to govern, expedite, and effectuate the procedures established by this chapter and its own actions thereunder.

12. A claim under this chapter shall not be maintained unless a complaint is filed with the commission within one hundred eighty days after the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred.

a The complainant has timely filed the complaint with the commission as provided in section 601A.15, subsection 12; and b The complaint has been on file with the commission for at least one hundred twenty days and the commission has issued a release to the complainant pursuant to subsection 2 of this section.

601A.19 Local laws may implement this chapter.

Nothing contained in any provision of this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the general assembly to occupy the field in which this chapter operates to the exclusion of local laws not inconsistent with this chapter that deal with the same subject matter.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent to prohibit an agency of local government having as its purpose the investigation and resolution of violations of this chapter from developing procedures and remedies necessary to insure the protection of rights secured by the Iowa civil rights Act. An agency of local government and the Iowa civil rights commission shall co-operate in the sharing of data and research, and co-ordinating investigations and conciliations in order to eliminate needless duplication.

The commission may designate an agency of local government as a referral agency. However, the commission in its discretion may refer a complaint filed with the commission to a referral agency having jurisdiction over the parties for investigation and resolution; and a referral agency in its discretion may refer a complaint filed with that agency to the commission for investigation and resolution. The commission may promulgate rules establishing the procedures for referral of complaints. A referral agency may refuse to accept a case referred to it by the commission if the referral agency is unable to effect proper administration of the complaint. It shall be the burden of the referral agency to demonstrate that it is unable to properly administer that complaint.

A final decision by a referral agency shall be subject to judicial review as provided in section 601A.17 in the same manner and to the same extent as a final decision of the commission.

The referral of a complaint by the commission to a referral agency or by a referral agency to the commission shall not affect the right of a complainant to commence an action in the district court under section 601A.16.

602.6201 Office of district judge — apportionment.

1. District judges shall be nominated and appointed and shall stand for retention in office as provided in chapter 46. District judges shall qualify for office as provided in chapter 63.

2. A district judge must be a resident of the judicial election district in which appointed and retained. Subject to the provision for reassignment of judges under section 602.6108, a district judge shall serve in the district of the judge's residence while in office, regardless of the number of judgeships to which the district is entitled under subsection 3.

3. The number of judgeships to which each of the judicial election districts is entitled is determined according to the following formula:

a In an election district where the largest county contains two hundred thousand or more population, there is one judgeship per seven hundred twenty five combined civil and criminal filings or major fraction thereof. However, the seat of government is entitled to one additional judgeship.

b In an election district where the largest county contains eighty five thousand or more population, but less than two hundred thousand, there is one judgeship per six hundred twenty five combined civil and criminal filings or major fraction thereof.

c In an election district where the largest county contains forty five thousand or more population, but less than eighty five thousand, there is one judgeship per five hundred twenty five combined civil and criminal filings or major fraction thereof.

d In an election district where the largest county contains less than forty five thousand population, there is one judgeship per four hundred seventy five combined civil and criminal filings or major fraction thereof.

e Notwithstanding paragraph "a," "b," "c," or "d," each election district is entitled to not less than one judgeship for each forty thousand population or major fraction thereof contained in the election district.

f The filings included in the determinations to be made under this subsection shall include juvenile court filings after July 1, 1985, shall not include small claims or nonindictable misdemeanors, and shall not include either civil actions for money judgment where the amount in controversy does not exceed three thousand dollars or indictable misdemeanors, which were assigned to district associate judges and judicial magistrates as shown on their administrative reports, but shall include appeals from decisions of judicial magistrates, district associate judges, and district judges sitting as judicial magistrates. The figures on filings shall be the average for the latest available previous three year period and when current census figures on population are not available, figures shall be taken from the state department of health computations.

4 For purposes of this section, a vacancy means the death, resignation, retirement, or removal of a district judge, or the failure of a district judge to be retained in office at the judicial election, or an increase in judgeships under this section.

5 In those judicial election districts having more district judges than the number of judgeships specified by the formula in subsection 3, vacancies shall not be filled.

6 In those judicial election districts having fewer or the same number of district judges as the number of judgeships specified by the formula in subsection 3, vacancies in the number of district judges shall be filled as they occur.

7 In those judicial districts that contain more than one judicial election district, a vacancy in a judicial election district shall not be filled if the total number of district judges in all judicial election districts within the judicial district equals or exceeds the aggregate number of judgeships to which all of the judicial election districts of the judicial district are authorized.

8 Vacancies shall not be filled in a judicial election district which becomes entitled to fewer judgeships under subsection 3, but an incumbent district judge shall not be removed from office because of a reduction in the number of authorized judgeships.

9 During February of each year, and at other times as appropriate, the state court administrator shall make the determinations required under this section, and shall notify the appropriate nominating commissions and the governor of appointments that are required.

10 Notwithstanding the formula for determining the number of judgeships in this section, the number of district judges shall not exceed ninety-nine during the period commencing July 1, 1983 and ending as the general assembly shall specify.

2 Delay in the preparation and signing of the record of court proceedings shall not prevent the issuance of an execution and other proceedings may be had in the same manner as though the record had been signed.

3 A record shall not be amended or impaired by the clerk of the district court, or by any other officer of the court, or by any other person, except pursuant to the order of the district court or some other court of competent authority.

4 Entries made and signed, unless amended or expunged as provided in subsection 3, may be altered only to correct an evident mistake.

There shall be one district associate judge in counties having a population, according to the most recent federal decennial census, of more than thirty-five thousand and less than eighty thousand, two in counties having a population of more than eighty thousand and less than one hundred twenty five thousand, three in counties having a population of more than one hundred twenty five thousand and less than two hundred thousand, and four in counties having a population of two hundred thousand or above. A district associate judge appointed pursuant to section 602.6302 or 602.6303 shall not be counted for purposes of this section.

1 In a county having an apportionment of three or more magistrates, the chief judge of the judicial district, subject to the limitations of this section, may designate by order that a district associate judge be appointed pursuant to this section in lieu of magistrates appointed under section 602.6403. The order of substitution may be made only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the district judges in that judicial election district and only upon a finding by a majority of those district judges that the substitution would provide more speedy and efficient performance of judicial business within that judicial election district. An order of substitution shall not take effect unless a copy of the order is received by the chairperson of the county magistrate appointing commission no later than the thirty first day of March of the year in which the substitution is to take effect. A copy of the order also shall be sent to the state court administrator.

2 For a county in which a substitution order is in effect, the number of magistrates actually appointed pursuant to section 602.6403 shall be reduced by three for each district associate judge substituted under this section. Upon a subsequent reduction in the apportionment of magistrates to the county, the magistrate appointing commission shall further reduce the number of magistrates appointed.

3 a Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a substitution shall not increase or decrease the number of magistrates authorized by this article.

c A substitution shall not be made where the apportionment of magistrates to a county is insufficient to permit the full reduction in appointments of magistrates as required by subsection 2.

4 If an apportionment by the state court administrator pursuant to section 602.6401 reduces the number of magistrates in the county to less than three, or if a majority of the district judges in the judicial election district determines that a substitution is no longer desirable, then the substituted office shall be terminated. However, a reversion pursuant to this subsection, irrespective of cause, shall not take effect until the substitute district associate judge fails to be retained in office at a judicial election or otherwise leaves office, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Upon the termination of office of that district associate judge, appointments shall be made pursuant to section 602.6403 as necessary to reestablish terms of office as provided in section 602.6403, subsection 4.

3 An alternate district associate judge shall serve initial and regular terms and shall stand for retention in office in the same manner as regular district associate judges. However, a vacancy in the office of alternate district associate judge shall not be filled unless the conditions of subsection 1 are satisfied after the vacancy occurs.

4 The chief judge of the judicial district may order that the alternate temporarily sit in place of the regular district associate judge while the latter is unable to act. The words "unable to act" mean a temporary absence from court duties, including a reasonable vacation period.

5 The appointment of an alternate district associate judge does not affect the rights, duties, or remuneration of the regularly appointed district associate judge, and the appointment of an alternate does not affect the number or apportionment of district associate judges authorized by this part.

The commission shall accept applications for consideration for nomination as district associate judge for a minimum of fifteen days prior to certifying nominations. The commission shall consider the applications and shall, by majority vote, certify to the chief judge of the judicial district not later than December 15 of that year the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. If there are three or fewer applicants the commission shall certify all applicants who meet the statutory qualifications. Nominees shall be chosen solely on the basis of the qualifications of the applicants, and political affiliation shall not be considered.

3 Within thirty days after a county magistrate appointing commission receives notification of an actual or impending vacancy in the office of district associate judge, other than a vacancy referred to in subsection 2, the commission shall certify to the chief judge of the judicial district the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. The commission shall publicize notice of the vacancy in at least two publications in the official county newspaper. The commission shall accept applications for consideration for nomination as district associate judge for a minimum of fifteen days prior to certifying nominations. The commission shall consider the applications and shall, by majority vote, certify to the chief judge of the judicial district the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. If there are three or fewer applicants the commission shall certify all applicants who meet the statutory qualifications. Nominees shall be chosen solely on the basis of the qualifications of the applicants, and political affiliation shall not be considered. As used in this subsection, a vacancy is created by the death, retirement, resignation, or removal of a district associate judge, or by an increase in the number of positions authorized.

4. Within fifteen days after the chief judge of a judicial district has received the list of nominees to fill a vacancy in the office of district associate judge, the district judges in the judicial election district shall, by majority vote, appoint one of those nominees to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be filed not later than the date of retirement.

d Submits evidence to the satisfaction of the supreme court that as of the date of retirement the judicial officer does not suffer from a permanent physical or mental disability which would substantially interfere with the performance of duties agreed to under paragraph "c" of this subsection.

3 The clerk of the supreme court shall maintain a book entitled "Roster of Senior Judges", and shall enter in the book the name of each judicial officer who files a timely election under subsection 1 and qualifies under subsection 2. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A.3]

613A.4 Claims exempted.

The liability imposed by section 613A.2 shall have no application to any claim enumerated in this section. As to any such claim, a municipality shall be liable only to the extent liability may be imposed by the express statute dealing with such claims and, in the absence of such express statute, the municipality shall be immune from liability

1 Any claim by an employee of the municipality which is covered by the Iowa workers' compensation law

2 Any claim in connection with the assessment or collection of taxes

3 Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality, exercising due care, in the execution of a statute, ordinance, or regulation whether the statute, ordinance or regulation is valid, or based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function or duty on the part of the municipality or an officer or employee of the municipality, whether or not the discretion is abused

A claim under this chapter shall not be allowed for failure to upgrade, improve, or alter any aspect of an existing highway, secondary road, street, to new, changed, or altered design standards. In respect to highways and roads, sealcoating, asphaltting, patching, resurfacing, ditching, draining, repairing, graveling, rocking, blading, or maintaining an existing highway or road does not constitute reconstruction. This subsection shall not apply to claims based upon gross negligence

8 Any claim based upon or arising out of a claim of negligent design or specification, negligent adoption of design or specification, or negligent construction or reconstruction of a public improvement as defined in section 384.37, subsection 1, or other public facility that was constructed or reconstructed in ac-

613A.5 Limitation of actions.

Every person who claims damages from any municipality or any officer, employee or agent of a municipality for or on account of any wrongful death, loss or injury within the scope of section 613A.2 or section 613A.8 or under common law shall commence an action therefor within six months, unless said person shall cause to be presented to the governing body of the municipality within sixty days after the alleged wrongful death, loss or injury a written notice stating the time, place, and circumstances thereof and the amount of compensation or other relief demanded. Failure to state time or place or circumstances or the amount of compensation or other relief demanded shall not invalidate the notice, providing, the claimant shall furnish full information within fifteen days after demand by the municipality. No action therefor shall be maintained unless such notice has been given and unless the action is commenced within two years after such notice. The time for giving such notice shall include a reasonable length of time, not to exceed ninety days, during which the person injured is incapacitated by the injury from giving such notice

613A.6 Death — claim presented by another

When the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission, the notice may be presented by the personal representative, surviving spouse, or next of kin or the consular officer of the foreign country of which the deceased was a citizen, within one year after the alleged injury resulting in such death, but if the person for whose death the claim is made has presented a notice that would have been sufficient had the person lived, an action for wrongful death may be brought without additional notice

613A.7 Insurance.

The governing body of any municipality may purchase a policy of liability insurance insuring against all or any part of liability which might be incurred by such municipality or its officers, employees and agents under the provisions of section 613A.2 and section 613A.8 and may similarly purchase insurance covering torts specified in section 613A.4. The premium costs of such insurance may be paid out of the general fund or any available funds or may be levied in excess of any tax limitation imposed by statute. Any independent or autonomous board or commission in the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body may similarly procure liability insurance within the field of its operation. The procurement of such insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity as to those exceptions listed in section 613A.4 to the extent stated in such policy but shall have no further effect on the liability of the municipality beyond the scope of this chapter. The existence of any insurance which covers in whole or in part any judgment or award which may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, or lack of any such insurance, shall not be material in the trial of any action brought against the governing body of any municipality, or their officers, employees or agents and any reference to such insurance, or lack of same, shall be grounds for a mistrial.

613A.8 Officers and employees defended.

The governing body shall defend its officers and employees, whether elected or appointed and shall save harmless and indemnify the officers and employees against any tort claim or demand, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring within the scope of their employment or duties. However, the duty to save harmless and indemnify does not apply to awards for punitive damages. The exception for punitive damages does not prohibit a governing body from purchasing insurance to protect its officers and employees from punitive damages. The duty to save harmless and indemnify does not apply and the municipality is entitled to restitution by an officer or employee if, in an action commenced by the municipality against the officer or employee, it is determined that the conduct of the officer or employee upon which the tort claim or demand was based constituted a willful and wanton act or omission. Any independent or autonomous board or commission of a municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body shall similarly defend, save harmless and indemnify its officers and employees against tort claims or demands.

The duties to defend and to save harmless and indemnify shall apply whether or not the municipality is a party to the action and shall include but not be limited to cases arising under title 42 United States Code section 1983.

In the event the officer or employee fails to cooperate in the defense against the claim or demand, the municipality shall have a right of indemnification against that officer or employee.

613A.9 Compromise and settlement.

The governing body of any municipality may compromise, adjust and settle tort claims against the municipality, its officers, employees and agents, for damages under sections 613A.2 or 613A.8 and may appropriate money for the payment of amounts agreed upon.

613A.10 Tax to pay judgment or settlement.

When a final judgment is entered against or a settlement is made by a municipality for a claim within the scope of section 613A.2 or 613A.8, payment shall be made and the same remedies shall apply in the case of nonpayment as in the case of other judgments against the municipality. If said judgment or settlement is unpaid at the time of the adoption of the annual budget, it shall budget an amount sufficient to pay the judgment or settlement together with interest accruing thereon to the expected date of payment. Such tax may be levied in excess of any limitation imposed by statute.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A.10]

613A.11 Claims not retrospective.

This chapter shall have no application to any occurrence or injury claim or action arising prior to January 1, 1968.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A.11]

613A.12 Officers and employees — personal liability.

All officers and employees of municipalities are not personally liable for any claim which is exempted under section 613A.4, except a claim for punitive damages, and actions permitted under section 85.20. An officer or employee of a municipality is not liable for punitive damages as a result of acts in the performance of a law enforcement or emergency duty, unless actual malice or willful, wanton and reckless misconduct is proven.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

622.1 Certification under penalty of perjury.

1. When the laws of this state or any lawful requirement made under them requires or permits a matter to be supported by a sworn statement written by the person attesting the matter, the person may attest the matter by an unsworn written statement if that statement recites that the person certifies the matter to be true under penalty of perjury under the laws of this state, states the date of the statement's execution and is subscribed by that person. This section does not apply to acknowledgments where execution is required by law, to a document which is to be recorded under chapter 558 or to a self-proved will under section 633.279, subsection 2.

2. The certification described in subsection 1 may be in substantially the following form:

"I certify under penalty of perjury and pursuant to the laws of the state of Iowa that the preceding is true and correct.

Date	Signature"
84 Acts, ch 1048, §1
<small>Section 622 1, Code 1983, repealed by 83 Acts, ch 37, §7</small>

622.2 Credibility.

Facts which have heretofore caused the exclusion of testimony may still be shown for the purpose of lessening its credibility.

622.3 Interest.

No person offered as a witness in any action or proceeding in any court, or before any officer acting judicially, shall be excluded by reason of the person's interests in the event of the action or proceeding, or because the person is a party thereto, except as provided in this chapter.

[R60, §3980; C73, §3638; C97, §4603; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11256; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §622.3]

622.4 Transaction with person since deceased or mentally ill. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 37, §7.

622.5 Exceptions. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 37, §7.

622.6 Depositions taken conditionally. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 37, §7.

622.7 Husband or wife as witness. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 37, §7.

622.8 Witness for each other.

In all civil and criminal cases the husband and wife may be witnesses for each other.

[C51, §2391; R60, §3983; C73, §3641; C97, §4606; S13, §4606; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11261; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §622.8]

622.9 Communications between husband and wife.

Neither husband nor wife can be examined in any case as to any communication made by the one to the other while married, nor shall they, after the marriage relation ceases, be permitted to reveal in testimony any such communication made while the marriage subsisted.

[C51, §2392; R60, §3984; C73, §3642; C97, §4607; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11262; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §622.9]

622.10 Communications in professional confidence — exceptions — application to court.

A practicing attorney, counselor, physician, surgeon, physician's assistant, mental health professional, or the stenographer or confidential clerk of any such person, who obtains information by reason of the person's employment, minister of the gospel or priest of any denomination shall not be allowed, in giving testimony, to disclose any confidential communication properly entrusted to the person in the person's professional capacity, and necessary and proper to enable the person to discharge the functions of the person's office according to the usual course of practice or discipline. The prohibition does not apply to cases where the person in whose favor the prohibition is made waives the rights conferred; nor does the prohibition apply to physicians or surgeons, physician's assistants, mental health professionals, or to the stenographer or confidential clerk of any physicians or surgeons, physician's assistants, or mental health professionals, in a civil action in which the condition of the person in whose favor the prohibition is made is an element or factor of the claim or defense of the person or of any party claiming through or under the person. The evidence is admissible upon trial of the action only as it relates to the condition alleged. If an adverse party desires the oral deposition, either discovery or evidentiary, of a physician or surgeon, physician's assistant, or mental health professional to which the prohibition would otherwise apply or the stenographer or confidential clerk of a physician or surgeon, physician's assistant, or mental health professional or desires to call a physician or surgeon, physician's assistant, or mental health professional to which the prohibition would otherwise apply or the stenographer or confidential clerk of a physician or surgeon, physician's assistant, or mental health professional as a witness at the trial of the action, the adverse party shall file an application with the court for permission to do so. The court upon hearing, which shall not be ex parte, shall grant permission unless the court finds that the evidence sought does not relate to the condition alleged and shall fix a reasonable fee to be paid to the physician or surgeon, physician's assistant, or mental health professional by the party taking the deposition or calling the witness. For the purposes of this section, "mental health professional" means psychologists certified under chapter 154B, registered nurses licensed under chapter 152, or individuals holding at least a master's degree in social work or counseling and guidance.

No qualified school guidance counselor, who has met the certification and approval standards of the department of public instruction as provided in section 257.25, subsection 9, who obtains information by reason of the counselor's employment as a qualified school guidance counselor shall be allowed, in giving testimony, to disclose any confidential communications properly entrusted to the counselor by a pupil or the pupil's parent or guardian in the counselor's capacity as a qualified school guidance counselor and necessary and proper to enable the counselor to perform the counselor's duties as a qualified school guidance counselor.

622.22 Understanding of parties to agreement.

When the terms of an agreement have been intended in a different sense by the parties to it, that sense is to prevail against either party in which a party had reason to suppose the other understood it.

622.23 Historical and scientific works.

Historical works, books of science or art, and published maps or charts, when made by persons indifferent between the parties, are presumptive evidence of facts of general notoriety or interest therein stated.

When a subscribing witness denies or does not recollect the execution of the instrument to which the witness' name is subscribed as such witness, its execution may be proved by other evidence.

622.27 Entries and writings of deceased person.

The entries and other writings of a person deceased, who was in a position to know the facts therein stated, made at or near the time of the transaction, are presumptive evidence of such facts, when the entry was made against the interest of the person so making it, or when made in a professional capacity or in the ordinary course of professional conduct, or when made in the performance of a duty specially enjoined by law.

622.28 Writing or record — when admissible — absence of record — effect.

Any writing or record, whether in the form of an entry in a book, or otherwise, including electronic means and interpretations thereof, offered as memoranda or records of acts, conditions or events to prove the facts stated therein, shall be admissible as evidence if the judge finds that they were made in the regular course of a business at or about the time of the act, condition or event recorded, and that the sources of information from which made and the method and circumstances of their preparation were such as to indicate their trustworthiness, and if the judge finds that they are not excludable as evidence because of any rule of admissibility of evidence other than the hearsay rule.

Evidence of the absence of a memorandum or record from the memoranda or records of a business of an asserted act, event or condition, shall be admissible as evidence to prove the nonoccurrence of the act or event, or the nonexistence of the condition, if the judge finds that it was in the regular course of that business to make such memoranda of all such acts, events or conditions at the time thereof or within a reasonable time thereafter, and to preserve them.

The term business, as used in this section, includes business, profession, occupation, and calling of every kind.

1. If the person requiring assistance is a witness in the civil legal proceeding.
2. If the person requiring assistance is indigent and financially unable to secure an interpreter.

In civil cases, every court shall tax the cost of an interpreter the same as other court costs. In criminal cases, where the defendant is indigent, the interpreter shall be considered as a defendant’s witness under R.Cr.P. 14 for the purpose of receiving fees, except that subpoenas shall not be required. 2. "State" includes the state of Iowa, an agency of the state, or any official of the state acting in an official capacity.

625.29 Fees — expenses.

1. Unless otherwise provided by law, and if the prevailing party meets the eligibility requirements of subsection 2, the court in a civil action brought by the state or an action for judicial review brought against the state pursuant to chapter 17A other than for a rule-making decision, shall award fees and other expenses to the prevailing party unless the prevailing party is the state. However, the court shall not make an award under this section if it finds one of the following:

a The position of the state was supported by substantial evidence.

b The state's role in the case was primarily adjudicative.

c Special circumstances exist which would make the award unjust.

d The action arose from a proceeding in which the role of the state was to determine the eligibility or entitlement of an individual to a monetary benefit or its equivalent or to adjudicate a dispute or issue between private parties or to establish or fix a rate.

e The proceeding was brought by the state pursuant to titles 35 through 37.

f The proceeding involved eminent domain, foreclosure, collection of judgment debts, or was a proceeding in which the state was a nominal party.

g The proceeding involved the Iowa merit employment commission under chapter 19A.

h. The proceeding is a tort claim.

2. To be eligible for an award of fees and other expenses under this section, the prevailing party shall be one of the following:

a A natural person.

b A sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, or public or private organization, any of which meets the following criteria:

(1) Its average daily employment was twenty persons or less for the twelve months preceding the filing of the action.

(2) Its gross receipts for the twelve-month period preceding the filing of the action were one million dollars or less, or its average gross receipts for the three twelve-month periods preceding the filing of the action were two million dollars or less.

3. A party seeking an award for fees and other expenses under this section must file a claim for relief as a part of the civil action or as a part of the action for judicial review brought against the state pursuant to chapter 17A. If the amount sought includes an attorney's fees or fees for an expert, the application shall include an itemized statement for these fees indicating the actual time expended in representing the party and the rate at which the fees were computed. The party seeking relief must establish that the state's case was not supported by substantial evidence.

4. The court, in its discretion, may reduce the amount to be awarded pursuant to this section, or deny an award, to the extent that the prevailing party, during the course of the proceedings engaged in conduct which unduly and unreasonably protracted the final resolution of the matter in controversy.

5. An award pursuant to this section shall not personally obligate any officer or employee of this state for payment.

6. Fees and other expenses awarded under this section may be ordered in addition to any compensation awarded in a judgment. When awarding fees and other expenses against the state under this section, the court shall order the auditor of state to issue a warrant drawn on the state general fund for the amount of the award. The treasurer of state shall pay the warrant. However, if the court finds that an agency of state government, against which fees and other expenses are awarded for an action for judicial review of an agency proceeding under chapter 17A, has acted in bad faith in initiating an action deemed frivolous or without merit, then the agency shall make the payment ordered from the moneys appropriated to that agency.

7. Each agency that pays fees or other expenses for an action for judicial review of an agency proceeding under chapter 17A shall report annually to the chairs and ranking members of the appropriate appropriations subcommittees of the general assembly the amount of fees or other expenses paid during the preceding fiscal year by that agency. In its report the agency shall describe the number, nature, and amount of the awards, the claims involved in the action, and other relevant information which might aid the general assembly in evaluating the scope and impact of these awards.

ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

626A 1	Definition	626A 5	Fees
626A 2	Filing and status of foreign judgments	626A 6	Optional procedure
626A 3	Notice of filing	626A 7	Uniformity of interpretation
626A 4	Stay	626A 8	Short title

626A.1 Definition.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires, "foreign judgment" means a judgment, decree, or order of a court of the United States or of any other court which is entitled to full faith and credit in this state

[C81, §626A 1]

626A.2 Filing and status of foreign judgments.

A copy of a foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with an Act of Congress or the statutes of this state may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of a county of this state which would have venue if the original action was being commenced in this state. The clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the district court of this state. A judgment so filed has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the district court of this state and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner

626A.3 Notice of filing.

1 At the time of the filing of the foreign judgment, the judgment creditor or the creditor's lawyer shall make and file with the clerk of court an affidavit setting forth the name and last known post office address of the judgment debtor, and the judgment creditor

2 Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit as provided in subsection 1, the clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and post-office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's lawyer, if any, in this state

3 No execution or other process for enforcement of a foreign judgment filed under this chapter shall issue until the expiration of twenty days after the date the judgment is filed

626A.4 Stay.

1 If the judgment debtor shows the district court in which the judgment is filed that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the state in which it was rendered

2 If the judgment debtor shows the district court in which the judgment is filed that grounds exist upon which enforcement of a judgment of the district court of this state would be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, upon requiring the same security for satisfaction of the judgment which is required in this state

626A.5 Fees.

A person filing a foreign judgment shall pay a filing fee of five dollars to the clerk of court. Fees for docketing, transcription or other enforcement proceedings shall be as provided for judgments of the district court

[C81, §626A 5]

626A.6 Optional procedure.

The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce the creditor's judgment instead of proceeding under this chapter remains unimpaired

[C81, §626A 6]

626A.7 Uniformity of interpretation.

This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it

[C81, §626A 7]

626A.8 Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the uniform enforcement of foreign judgments Act

[C81, §626A 8]

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §631 10]

631.11 Hearing.

1 Informality The hearing shall be to the court, shall be simple and informal, and shall be conducted by the court itself, without regard to technicalities of procedure

2 Evidence The court shall swear the parties and their witnesses, and examine them in such a way as to bring out the truth. The parties may participate, either personally or by attorney. The court may continue the hearing from time to time and may amend new or amended pleadings, if justice requires

3 Record Upon the trial, the judicial magistrate shall make detailed minutes of the testimony of each witness and append the exhibits or copies thereof to the record. The proceedings upon trial shall not be reported by a certified court reporter, unless the party provides the reporter at such party's expense. The magistrate, in the magistrate's discretion, may cause the proceedings upon trial to be reported electronically. If the proceedings are being electronically recorded both parties shall be notified in advance of that recording. If the proceedings have been reported electronically the recording shall be retained under the jurisdiction of the magistrate unless appealed, and upon appeal shall be transcribed only by a person designated by the court under the supervision of the magistrate

4 Judgment Judgment shall be rendered, based upon applicable law and upon a preponderance of the evidence

If a transcription of an electronic recording is filed, the record on appeal shall contain the tape or other medium on which the proceedings were preserved. A transcription of an electronic recording shall be provided any party upon request and upon payment by the party of the actual costs of transcription a The appeal shall be promptly heard upon the record thus filed without further evidence. If the original action was tried by a district judge, the appeal shall be decided by a different district judge. If the original action was tried by a district associate judge, the appeal shall be decided by a district judge. If the original action was tried by a judicial magistrate, the appeal shall be decided by a district judge or a district associate judge. The judge shall decide the appeal without regard to technicalities or defects which have not prejudiced the substantial rights of the parties, and may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment, or render judgment as the judge or magistrate should have rendered

4 Procedure on appeal

If the record, in the opinion of the deciding judge, is inadequate for the purpose of rendering a judgment on appeal, the judge may order that additional evidence be presented relative to one or more issues, and may enter any other order which is necessary to protect the rights of the parties. The judge shall take minutes of any additional evidence, but the hearing shall not be reported by a certified court reporter.

b. Upon entry of judgment the clerk may cause any recording tape or other device contained in the record to be erased for subsequent use.

631.16 Discretionary review by supreme court.

1. A civil action originally tried as a small claim shall not be appealed to the supreme court except by discretionary review as provided herein.

2. "Discretionary review" is the process by which the supreme court may exercise its discretion, in like manner as under the rules pertaining to interlocutory appeals and certiorari in civil cases, to review specified matters not subject to appeal as a matter of right. The supreme court may adopt additional rules to control access to discretionary review.

3. The party seeking review shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the appellee, but the title of the action shall not be changed from that in the court below.

4. A petition for review shall be filed in writing with the clerk of the district court within ten days after judgment.

b. Immediately prepare and transmit to the clerk of the supreme court a transcript of all record entries relevant to the application, together with copies of all papers in the case on file with the court, and a transcript of the official report, if any, all duly certified under seal of the court.

Failure of the clerk of the district court to transmit all the papers as required by this subsection shall not prejudice the rights of the parties.

6. The record and case shall be presented to the supreme court as provided by the rules of appellate procedure; and the provisions of law in civil procedure relating to the filing of decisions and opinions of the supreme court shall apply in such cases. The case may be transferred to the court of appeals by the supreme court.

7. An application shall not be dismissed for an informality or defect in taking it if corrected as directed by the appellate court. The appellate court, after an examination of the entire record, may dispose of the case by affirmation, reversal or modification of the lower court judgment, and may order a new trial. It also may dismiss the application if both of the following are true:

a. The court determines that there has been no substantial miscarriage of justice.

b. The arguments do not present definite grounds for a hearing.

8. The decision of the appellate court with any opinion filed or judgment rendered must be recorded by the supreme court clerk. After the expiration of the period allowed for a rehearing, or as ordered by the court or provided by its rules, a certified copy of the decision and opinion shall be transmitted to the clerk of the trial court, and filed and entered of record in the district court.

9. The jurisdiction of the appellate court shall cease after the certified copy of the decision and opinion is transmitted to the clerk of the trial court. All proceedings for executing the judgment shall be had in the trial court or by its clerk.

RIGHTS OF SURVIVING SPOUSE

RIGHT TO TAKE AGAINST THE WILL

633.236 Right of surviving spouse to elect to take against will

When a married person dies testate as to any part of the person's estate, the surviving spouse shall have the right to elect to take against the will under the provisions of sections 633 237 to 633 246

Referred to in §633 245 633 246 633 247 633 264 633 704(4)

633.237 Presumption that surviving spouse elects to take under will.

If a voluntary election to take or refuse to take under a will has not been filed by a surviving spouse within two months of the date of the second publication of notice of admission of the will to probate, and the surviving spouse is not the executor of the will, the executor shall cause to be served a written notice upon the surviving spouse in the manner directed by the court, advising the surviving spouse that the will of the decedent has been admitted to probate, stating the name of the court where the will was admitted and the date when the will was admitted to probate, and notifying the spouse that unless within four months after service of the notice, the spouse files an election in writing with the clerk of that court refusing to take under the will, the spouse shall take under the will. If the surviving spouse files an election to take under the will at any time the requirements of this section for serving notice are waived. If within the period of four months an affidavit is filed setting forth that the surviving spouse is incapable to make the election, the court shall determine whether there shall be an election to take against the will in accordance with section 633 238. The court on application may, prior to the expiration of the period of four months, for cause shown, enter an order extending the time for making the election.

If the surviving spouse is an executor of the will and fails, within four months after the date of the second publication of notice of admission of the will to probate, to file with the clerk of the court an election to refuse to take under the will of the deceased, it shall be conclusively presumed that the survivor consents to the provisions of the will and elects to take under it. However, the court on application may, prior to the expiration of the period of four months, on cause shown, enter an order extending the time for making the election.

2. All personal property that, at the time of death, was in the hands of the decedent as the head of a family, exempt from execution.

The share of the surviving spouse in such real estate shall be set off in such manner as to include the ordinary dwelling house given by law to the homestead, or so much thereof as will be equal to the share allotted to the spouse by section 633.238 unless the spouse prefers a different arrangement; but no such different arrangement shall be permitted unless there be sufficient property remaining to pay the claims and charges against the decedent's estate.

633.274 Exception to antilapse statute.

The devise to a spouse of the testator, where the spouse does not survive the testator, shall lapse notwithstanding the provisions of section 633 273, unless from the terms of the will, the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 274]

633.275 Testamentary additions to trusts.

A devise or bequest, the validity of which is determinable by the law of this state, may be made by a will to the trustee of a trust established, or to be established, by the testator, or by the testator and some other person or persons, or by some other person or persons, including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved some or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts, if the trust is identified in the testator's will, and if its terms are set forth in a written instrument other than a will executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will, or in the valid last will of a person who has predeceased the testator regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust. The devise or bequest is not invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or after the death of the testator. Unless the testator provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed shall not be deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator, but shall become a part of the trust to which it is given and shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the instrument or will setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before the death of the testator, regardless of whether any such amendment was made before or after the execution of the testator's will, and, if the testator's will so provides, including any amendments to the trust made after the death of the testator. A revocation or termination of the trust before the death of the testator causes the devise or bequest to lapse. This section does not invalidate a devise or bequest made by a will executed prior to January 1, 1964

A will may refer to a written statement, letter, or list to dispose of items of tangible personal property not otherwise specifically disposed of by the will, except tangible personal property used in trade or business. Tangible personal property, for purposes of this section, includes household goods, furnishings, furniture, personal effects, clothing, jewelry, books, works of art, ornaments, and automobiles. If the writing is dated and is either in the handwriting of the testator or is signed by testator, and if it describes the items and distributees with reasonable certainty, the personal representative shall distribute the described items of tangible personal property to the distributees entitled to them. The writing may be referred to as one to be in existence at the time of the testator's death. The writing may be prepared before or after the execution of the will. The writing may be altered, added to, or changed in any respect by the testator after its preparation, and it may be a writing which has no significance apart from its effect upon the dispositions made by the will. Property passing by the writing shall be considered as property passing as a specific bequest under will

633.277 Uniformity of interpretation.

Section 633 275 shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which have adopted a similar provision

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 277]

633.278 Devise of encumbered property.

When any property subject to a mortgage, other lien or security interest, is specifically devised, the devisee shall take such property so devised subject to such mortgage, other lien or security interest, unless the will provides expressly or by necessary implication that such mortgage, other lien or security interest be otherwise paid. If there is a testamentary direction to discharge such mortgage, other lien or security interest, the rules of abatement specified in section 633 436 shall be applied

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 278]

If the claim is contingent, the nature of the contingency shall also be stated. The duplicate of said claim shall be mailed by the clerk to the personal representative or the personal representative's attorney of record.

If a claim is founded on a written instrument, the original or a copy thereof with all endorsements must be attached to the claim. The original instrument must be exhibited to the personal representative or court, upon demand, unless it is lost or destroyed, in which case its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim.

633.421 Unsecured claims not yet due.

Upon proof of an unsecured claim which will become due at some future time, the same may be paid if the claimant will consent to such discount as the court thinks reasonable; otherwise, the court shall direct the investment of an amount which will provide for the payment of the claim when it becomes due.

[C51, §1364, 1377; R60, §2396, 2409; C73, §2413, 2425; C97, §3342, 3352; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11964, 11975; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635.60, 635.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.421]

633.422 Secured claims not yet due.

When a creditor holds any security for a claim not yet due, the creditor may file the claim as a claim not yet due with the right of withdrawing the claim if the compromise offer is not satisfactory, and, after such withdrawal, rely entirely on the creditor's security, or the creditor may elect to rely entirely on the creditor's security without the necessity of filing a claim.

633.423 Procedure for secured claims.

When a creditor holds any security for the creditor's claim, the security shall be described in the claim. If the claim is secured by a mortgage, pledge or other lien which has been recorded, it shall be sufficient to describe the lien by date, and refer to the volume, page and place of recording. The claim shall be allowed in the amount remaining unpaid at the time of its allowance, and the judgment allowing it shall describe the security. Payment of the claim shall be upon the basis of the full amount thereof if the creditor shall surrender the creditor's security; otherwise payment shall be upon the basis of one of the following:

1. If the creditor shall exhaust the security before receiving payment, then upon the full amount of the claim allowed, less the amount realized upon exhausting the security; or

2. If the creditor shall not have exhausted, or shall not have the right to exhaust, the security, then upon the full amount of the claim allowed, less the value of the security determined by agreement, or as the court may direct.

633.424 Contingent claims.

Contingent claims which cannot be allowed as absolute debts shall, nevertheless, be filed in the court and proved. If allowed as a contingent claim, the order of allowance shall state the nature of the contingency. If such claim shall become absolute before distribution of the estate, it shall be paid in the same manner as absolute claims of the same class. In all other cases, the court may provide for the payment of contingent claims in any one of the following methods:

1. The creditor and personal representative may determine, by agreement, arbitration or compromise, the value thereof, according to its probable present worth, and upon approval thereof by the court, it may be allowed and paid in the same manner as an absolute claim, or

2. The court may order the personal representative to make distribution of the estate but to retain sufficient funds to pay the claim if and when the same becomes absolute; but, for this purpose, the estate shall not be kept open longer than two years after distribution of the remainder of the estate; and if such claim has not become absolute within that time, distribution shall be made to the distributees of the funds so retained, after paying any costs and expenses accruing during such period, and such distributees shall be liable to the creditor to the extent of the estate received by them, if such contingent claim thereafter becomes absolute. When distribution is so made to distributees, the court may require such distributees to give bond for the satisfaction of their liability to the contingent creditor, or

3 The court may order distribution of the estate as though such contingent claim did not exist, but the distributees shall be liable to the creditor to the extent of the estate received by them, if the contingent claim thereafter becomes absolute, and the court may require such distributees to give bond for the performance of their liability to the contingent creditor, or

4 Such other method as the court may order [C51, §1365, R60, §2397, C73, §2414, C97, §3343, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11965; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635 61, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 424]

CLASSIFICATION ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS AND CHARGES

633.425 Classification of debts and charges.

In any estate in which the assets are, or appear to be, insufficient to pay in full all debts and charges of the estate, the personal representative shall classify the debts and charges as follows

- 1 Court costs
- 2 Other costs of administration
- 3 Reasonable funeral and burial expenses
- 4 All debts and taxes having preference under the laws of the United States
- 5 Reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending at the decedent's last illness
- 6 All taxes having preferences under the laws of this state
- 7 All debts owing to employees for labor performed during the ninety days next preceding the death of the decedent
- 8 All unpaid support payments as defined in section 598 1, subsection 2, and all additional unpaid awards and judgments against the decedent in any dissolution, separate maintenance, uniform support, or paternity action to the extent that the support, awards, and judgments have accrued at the time of death of the decedent
- 9 All other claims allowed

633.426 Order of payment of debts and charges.

Payment of debts and charges of the estate shall be made in the order provided in the preceding section, without preference of any claim over another of the same class. If the assets of the estate are insufficient to pay in full all of the claims of a class, then such claims shall be paid on a pro rata basis, without preference between claims then due and those of the same class not due

633.427 Payment of contingent claims by distributees — contribution.

If a contingent claim has been filed and allowed against an estate and all the assets of the estate have been distributed, and the claim becomes absolute, the creditor has the right to recover on the claim against those distributees whose distributive shares have been increased because the amount of the claim as finally determined was not paid prior to final distribution, if an action for recovery is commenced within four months after the claim becomes absolute. Such distributees are jointly and severally liable, but a distributee is not liable for an amount exceeding the amount of the estate or fund so distributed to that distributee. If more than one distributee is liable to the creditor, the creditor shall make parties to the action all such distributees who can be reached by process. By its judgment, the court shall determine the amount of the liability of each of the distributees as between themselves, but if any distributee is insolvent or unable to pay that distributee's proportion, or is beyond the reach of process, the others, to the extent of their respective liabilities, are nevertheless liable to the creditor for the whole amount of the creditor's debt. If any person liable for the debt fails to pay that person's just proportion to the creditors, the person is liable to indemnify all who, by reason of the failure, have paid more than their just proportion of the debt, the indemnity to be recovered in the same action or in separate actions.

633.430 Execution and levies prohibited.

No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against, any property of the estate under any judgment against a decedent or a personal representative, but the provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent the enforcement of mortgages.

[C51, §1368, R60, §2400, C73, §2416, C97, §3345, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11967; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §635 63, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633 430]

633.431 Claims of personal representative.

If the personal representative is a creditor of the decedent, the personal representative shall file the claim as other creditors, and the court shall appoint some competent person as temporary administrator to represent the estate in the matter of allowing or disallowing such claim. The same procedure shall be followed in the case of corepresentatives where all such representatives are creditors of the estate, but if one of the corepresentatives is not a creditor of the estate, such disinterested representative shall represent the estate in the matter of allowing or disallowing such claim against the estate by a corepresentative.

633.432 Allowance or disallowance of claim of personal representative.

The temporary administrator shall, after investigation, file a report with the court recommending the allowance or disallowance of such claim. Unless the court allows the claim, it shall then be disposed of as a contested claim in accordance with the provisions of sections 633.439 to 633.448.

633.433 Payment of debts and charges before expiration of four months' period.

As soon as the personal representative is possessed of sufficient means over and above the other costs of administration, the personal representative shall pay any allowance made by the court for the surviving spouse and children of the decedent, and may pay the expenses of funeral, burial and last illness. Prior to the expiration of four months after the date of the second publication of notice to creditors, the personal representative shall pay other debts and charges against the estate as the court orders, and the court may require bond or other security to be given by the creditor to refund such part of the payment as may be necessary to make payment in accordance with this code. All payments made by the personal representative without order of court are at the personal representative's own peril.

1. Property not disposed of by the will;
2. Property devised to the residuary devisee, except property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will;
3. Property disposed of by the will, but not specifically devised and not devised to the residuary devisee, except property devised to a surviving spouse who takes under the will;

1. When provisions of the will, trust or other testamentary instrument of the decedent provide explicitly for an order of abatement contrary to the provisions of section 633.436, the provisions of the will or other testamentary instrument shall determine the order of abatement.

2. Except as provided in subsection 1 of this section, if the provisions of the will, the testamentary plan, or the express or the implied purpose of the devise would be defeated by the order of abatement as provided in section 633.436, then upon application to the court by a fiduciary or a distributee, and after notice to all interested parties, the court shall determine the order for abatement of the shares of distributees in such other manner as may be found necessary to give effect to the intention of the testator. In order to change the order of abatement as provided in section 633.436, it will be necessary for the court to find it clear and convincing that the provisions of the will, the testamentary plan, or the express or implied purpose of the devise would be defeated by the order of abatement stated in section 633.436.

DIVISION XVI

DISCLAIMER OF SUCCESSION TO REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

633.704 Disclaimer.

1 Right of disclaimer. A person, including a person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment, is not required to take as a distributee, as a beneficiary, as an annuitant, or as a transferee including as a transferee in joint tenancy, or otherwise, and a person, as a donee of a power, is not required to accept any right of appointment. If the requirements of this section are met, a person may disclaim, in whole or in part, the transfer of a power, or the transfer, receipt of, or entitlement or succession to, any property, real or personal, or any interest in property, including but not limited to an interest in trust, and including but not limited to ownership, proceeds of, or other benefits to or under a life insurance policy or annuity contract, by delivering a written instrument of disclaimer within the time and in the manner provided in this section. The instrument shall a Describe the property, interest, or right disclaimed.

b Declare the disclaimer and the extent of the disclaimer.

c Be signed and acknowledged by the disclaimant.

2 Time of disclaimer — filing — irrevocability a Time of disclaimer The disclaimer instrument shall be received by the transferor of the property, interest, or right, the transferor's fiduciary, or the holder of the legal title to which the property, interest, or right relates, not later than the date which is nine months after the later of the date on which the transfer of the property, interest, or right is made, or the date on which the disclaimant attains eighteen years of age. The nine month period for making a disclaimer shall be determined with reference to each transfer. With respect to a testamentary transfer, the transfer occurs upon the date of the decedent's death. Any property, interest, or right may be disclaimed nine months after the date of the disclaimant's eighteenth birthday even though the disclaimant received benefits from the property, interest, or right without any action on the disclaimant's part before attaining eighteen years of age. However, if a person entitled to disclaim does not have actual knowledge of the existence of the transfer, the disclaimer may be made not later than nine months after the person has actual knowledge of the existence of the transfer.

b Filing A copy of an instrument of disclaimer affecting real estate shall be filed in the office of the county recorder of the county where the real estate is located. Failure to file with the county recorder within the time permitted for disclaimer does not invalidate the disclaimer. A copy of an instrument of disclaimer, regardless of subject, may be filed with the clerk of court of the county in which proceedings for administration have been commenced, if applicable.

c Irrevocability An instrument of disclaimer shall be unqualified and is irrevocable from and after the date of its receipt.

3 Effective disclaimer

a Passage of disclaimed interest or property Unless the transferor has otherwise provided, the property, interest, or right disclaimed, and any future interest which is to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the termination of the interest or right disclaimed, descends or shall be distributed as if the disclaimant has died prior to the date of the transfer, or if the disclaimant is one designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, then as if the disclaimant has predeceased the donee of the power unless the donee of the power has otherwise provided. In every case, the disclaimer relates back for all purposes to the date of the transfer. In the case of a disclaiming beneficiary under a will, other than a spouse, the property, interest, or right disclaimed passes to the heirs of the disclaimant unless from the terms of the transferor's will the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary, in which event the property, interest, or right disclaimed passes pursuant to the will. In the case of a disclaimer under a will by a spouse the property, interest, or right disclaimed lapses unless from the terms of the trans-feror's will the intent is clear and explicit to the contrary.

b Future interest A person who has a present and a future interest in property and who disclaims the present interest, in whole or in part, shall be deemed to have disclaimed the future interest to the same extent. However, if such person disclaims only the future interest, in whole or in part, that person shall retain the present interest, and the disclaimer shall only affect the future interest involved.

c Death or disability of disclaimant If a person eligible to disclaim dies within the time allowed for a disclaimer, the right to disclaim continues for the time allowed and the personal representative of the person eligible to disclaim has the same right to disclaim as the disclaimant and may disclaim on behalf of the personal representative's decedent. If a person entitled to disclaim is disabled, the court may authorize or direct a conservator or guardian to exercise the right to disclaim on behalf of the person under disability if the court finds it is in the person's best interests.

4 Waiver and bar An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of any property, interest, or right, or a contract therefor, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, or an acceptance of any property, interest, or right, by an heir, devisee, donee, transferee, joint owner, person succeeding to a disclaimed interest, annuitant, beneficiary under a life insurance policy, or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, or a sale of property by execution, made before the expiration of the period in which a person may disclaim as provided in this section, bars the right to disclaim that property, interest, or right. An election by a surviving spouse under sections 633.236 to 633.246 is not a waiver or bar of the right to disclaim. The right to disclaim exists irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when received, as provided in this section, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, is binding upon the disclaimant or person waiving and all parties claiming by, through, and under the disclaimant or person waiving. If a beneficiary who disclaims any property, interest, or right is also a fiduciary, actions taken by the person in the exercise of fiduciary powers to preserve or maintain the property, interest, or right shall not be treated as an acceptance of the property, interest, or right. A fiduciary, however, does not retain discretionary power to direct the enjoyment of the disclaimed property, interest, or right.

5 Exclusiveness of remedy This section does not abridge the right of a person to assign, convey, release, or renounce any property, interest, or right arising under any other statute.

6 Effective date This section applies only to transfers occurring on or after July 1, 1981.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §633.704, 81 Acts, ch 197, §1, 2]
See chapter 559 power of appointment

633.705 When power of attorney not affected by disability.

Whenever a principal designates another the principal's attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal", or "This power of attorney shall be come effective upon the disability of the principal", or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable as provided in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal and the principal's heirs, devisees and personal representatives as if the principal were alive, competent and not disabled. If a conservator thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the conservator rather than the principal, and the conservator shall have the power to revoke the power of attorney on behalf of the principal.

Referred to in §633 706

633.706 Other powers of attorney not revoked until notice of death or disability.

1 The death, disability, or incompetence of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing other than a power as described by section 633 705, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability, or incompetence of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the principal's heirs, devisees, and personal representatives.

2 An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent stating that the attorney in fact or agent did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney, by death, disability or incompetence, is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when properly acknowledged is likewise recordable.

3 This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney.

639 1 Method

The plaintiff in a civil action may cause the property of the defendant not exempt from execution to be attached at the commencement or during the progress of the proceeding, by pursuing the course hereinafter prescribed

639 2 Proceedings auxiliary

If it be subsequent to the commencement of the action, a separate petition or an amendment to the petition must be filed, and in all cases the proceedings relative to the attachment are to be deemed independent of the ordinary proceedings and only auxiliary thereto

[C51, §1847, R60, §3173, C73, §2950, C97, §3877, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 2]

639 3 Grounds

The petition or amendment to petition which asks an attachment must in all cases be sworn to. It must state one or more of the following grounds

1 That the defendant is a foreign corporation or acting as such

2 That the defendant is a nonresident of the state

3 That the defendant is about to remove the defendant's property out of the state without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of the defendant's debts

4 That the defendant has disposed of the defendant's property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud the defendant's creditors

5 That the defendant is about to dispose of the defendant's property with intent to defraud the defendant's creditors

6 That the defendant has absconded, so that the ordinary process cannot be served upon the defendant

7 That the defendant is about to remove permanently out of the county, and has property therein not exempt from execution, and that the defendant refuses to pay or secure the plaintiff

8 That the defendant is about to remove permanently out of the state, and refuses to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff

9 That the defendant is about to remove the defendant's property or a part thereof out of the county with intent to defraud the defendant's creditors

10 That the defendant is about to convert the defendant's property or a part thereof into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of the defendant's creditors

11 That the defendant has property or rights in action which the defendant conceals

12 That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses

Referred to in §204 40* 537 7110

639.4 Alternative statement of grounds.

The causes for the attachment shall not be stated in the alternative

[R60, §3242, C73, §3021, C97, §3878, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12081; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 4]

639.5 Issued on Sunday.

Where the petition states, in addition to the other facts required, that the plaintiff will lose the plaintiff's claim unless the attachment issues and is served on Sunday, it may be issued and served on that day

[C73, §2952, C97, §3879, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12082; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 5]

Analogous or related provisions §602 1602 626 6 643 3 667 3 and R C P 57

639.6 On contract — amount due.

If the plaintiff's demand is founded on contract, the petition must state that something is due, and, as nearly as practicable, the amount, which must be more than five dollars in order to authorize an attachment

[C51, §1849, R60, §3175, C73, §2953, C97, §3880, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12083; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 6]

639.7 Value of property attached.

The amount thus sworn to is intended as a guide to the sheriff, who must, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifty per cent greater in value than that amount

[C51, §1850, R60, §3176, C73, §2954, C97, §3881, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 7]

639.8 Allowance of value in other cases.

If the demand is not founded on contract, the original petition must be presented to some judge of the supreme or district court, or the judge of the court from which the issuance of a writ of attachment is sought, who shall make an allowance thereon of the amount in value of the property that may be attached

[C51, §1851, R60, §3177, C73, §2955, C97, §3882, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12085; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639 8]

639.9 For debts not due — grounds.

The property of a debtor may be attached on debts not due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the petition, in addition to that fact, states one or more of the following grounds

1 That the defendant is about to dispose of the defendant's property with intent to defraud the defendant's creditors

2 That the defendant is about to remove or has removed from the state, and refuses to secure the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which removal or contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted

3 That the defendant has disposed of the defendant's property in whole or in part with intent to defraud the defendant's creditors

4 That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses

639.10 Appearance — judgment — perishable property.

If, at the time of the service of the attachment, the claim upon which suit is brought is not due, the defendant need not appear in the action until the maturity of the demand, unless the defendant elects to plead, in which event the cause shall stand for trial when it is reached in its regular order, and no final judgment shall be rendered therein before the maturity of the debt unless such election is made, but if perishable property is levied upon, it may be sold as in other attachment cases

639.11 Bond.

In all cases before it can be issued, the plaintiff must file with the clerk a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties to be approved by such clerk, in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought to be attached, and in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the wrongful suing out of the attachment.

639.12 Bond for levy on real property only.

In any case where only real property is sought to be attached, the plaintiff shall file such bond in a penalty to be fixed by the court or the clerk, and in such cases, the clerk shall issue a writ thereunder and shall direct therein that real property only shall be attached.

[C31, 35, §12088-d1; C39, §12088.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.12]

639.13 Additional security.

The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, and if, on such motion, the court is satisfied that the surety on the plaintiff's bond has removed from the state, or is not sufficient, the attachment may be vacated and restitution directed of any property taken under it, unless, in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, security is given by the plaintiff.

639.14 Action on bond.

In an action on such bond, the plaintiff therein may recover, if the plaintiff shows that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, and that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same was issued to be true, the actual damages sustained, and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court; and if it be shown such attachment was sued out maliciously, the plaintiff may recover exemplary damages, nor need the plaintiff wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond.

Referred to in §445 4

639.15 Remedy for falsely suing out — counterclaim.

The fact stated as a cause of attachment shall not be contested in the action by a mere defense. The defendant's remedy shall be on the bond, but the defendant may in the defendant's discretion sue thereon by way of counterclaim, and in such case shall recover damages as in an original action on such bond.

639.16 Writ to sheriff.

The clerk shall issue a writ of attachment, directing the sheriff of the county therein named to attach the property of the defendant to the requisite amount therein stated.

[C51, §1856; R60, §3185; C73, §2962; C97, §3889; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12092; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.16]

639.17 Several writs to different counties.

Attachments may be issued from the district court to different counties, and several may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession and subsequently, until sufficient property has been attached; but only those executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

639.18 Surplus levy.

If more property is attached in the aggregate than the plaintiff is entitled to, the surplus must be abandoned, and the plaintiff pay all costs incurred in relation to such surplus.

639.19 Property attached.

The sheriff shall in all cases attach the amount of property directed, if sufficient, not exempt from execution, is found in the sheriff's county, giving that in which the defendant has a legal and unquestionable title a preference over that in which the defendant's title is doubtful or only equitable.

[C51, §1857; R60, §3186; C73, §2964; C97, §3891; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12095; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §639.19]

2. If the default or breach of terms of said written instrument occur after the first day of March, but during that crop year and that year's crop fails by reason of any of the causes hereinbefore set out, then the continuance shall end on the first day of March of the second succeeding year.

3. Only one such continuance shall be granted, except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances in which event the court may in its discretion grant a second continuance for such further period as to the court may seem just and equitable, not to exceed one year.

4. The order shall provide for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the property and to rent the same and the owner or party in possession shall be given preference in the occupancy thereof and the receiver shall collect the rents and income and distribute the proceeds as follows:

- a. For the payment of the costs of receivership.
- b. For the payment of taxes due or becoming due during the period of receivership.
- c. For the payment of insurance on the buildings on the premises.

The expense of abating a nuisance by virtue of a warrant can be collected by the officer in the same manner as damages and costs are collected on execution, except that the materials of any buildings, fences, or other things that may be removed as a nuisance may be first levied upon and sold by the officer, and if any of the proceeds remain after satisfying the expense of the removal, such balance must be paid by the officer to the defendant, or to the owner of the property levied upon; and if said proceeds are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the officer must collect the residue thereof.

661.1 Definition.

The action of mandamus is one brought to obtain an order commanding an inferior tribunal, board, corporation, or person to do or not to do an act, the performance or omission of which the law enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station

661.2 Discretion — exercise of.

Where discretion is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only compel it to act, but cannot control such discretion

661.3 Nature of action.

All such actions shall be tried as equitable actions

[S13, §4341, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12442; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661 3]

661.4 Order issued.

The order may be issued by the district court to any inferior tribunal, or to any corporation, officer, or person, and by the supreme court or the court of appeals to any inferior court, if necessary, and in any other case where it is found necessary for either of those courts to exercise its legitimate power

661.5 Auxiliary remedy.

The plaintiff in any action, except those brought for the recovery of specific real or personal property, may also, as an auxiliary relief, have an order of mandamus to compel the performance of a duty established in such action 661.6 “Enforceable duty” defined.

If such duty, the performance of which is sought to be compelled, is not one resulting from an office, trust, or station, it must be one for the breach of which a legal right to damages is already complete at the commencement of the action, and must also be a duty of which a court of equity would enforce the performance

661.7 Other plain, speedy and adequate remedy.

An order of mandamus shall not be issued in any case where there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law, save as herein provided

[C51, §2182, R60, §3765, C73, §3376, C97, §4344, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12446; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661 7]

The order of mandamus is granted on the petition of any private party aggrieved, without the concurrence of the prosecutor for the state, or on the petition of the state by the county attorney, when the public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought

661.9 Petition.

The plaintiff in such action shall state the plaintiff's claim, and shall also state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall also set forth that the plaintiff, if a private individual, is personally interested therein, and that the plaintiff sustains and may sustain damage by the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has been demanded by the plaintiff, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty

[R60, §3762, C73, §3378, C97, §4346, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §661 9]

The pleadings and other proceedings in any action in which a mandamus is claimed shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and costs shall be recoverable by either party, as in an ordinary action for the recovery of damages

663A.3 How to commence proceeding — limitation.

A proceeding is commenced by filing an application verified by the applicant with the clerk of the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. However, if the applicant is seeking relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, the application shall be filed with the clerk of the court of the county in which the applicant is being confined. An application must be filed within three years from the date the conviction or decision is final or, in the event of an appeal, from the date the writ of procedendo is issued. However, this limitation does not apply to a ground of fact or law that could not have been raised within the applicable time period. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant and the authenticity of all documents and exhibits included in or attached to the application must be sworn to affirmatively as true and correct. The supreme court may prescribe the form of the application and verification. The clerk shall docket the application upon its receipt and promptly bring it to the attention of the court and deliver a copy to the county attorney and the attorney general.

663A.4 Facts to be presented.

The application shall identify the proceedings in which the applicant was convicted, give the date of the entry of the judgment of conviction or sentence complained of, specifically set forth the grounds upon which the application is based, and clearly state the relief desired. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant shall be set forth separately from other allegations of facts and shall be verified as provided in section 663A.3. Affidavits, records, or other evidence supporting its allegations shall be attached to the application or the application shall recite why they are not attached. The application shall identify all previous proceedings, together with the grounds therein asserted, taken by the applicant to secure relief from the conviction or sentence. Argument, citations, and discussion of authorities are unnecessary.

663A.5 Payment of costs.

If the applicant is unable to pay court costs and expenses of representation, including stenographic, printing, and legal services, these costs and expenses shall be made available to the applicant in the preparation of the application, in the trial court, and on review.

If an applicant confined in a state institution seeks relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, and the court finds in favor of the applicant, or the postconviction proceedings fail and costs and expenses referred to in unnumbered paragraph 1 cannot be collected from the applicant, these costs and expenses initially shall be paid by the county in which the state institution is located. The facts of payment and the proceedings on which it is based, with a statement of the amount of costs and expenses incurred, with approval in writing by the presiding judge appended to the statement or endorsed on it, shall be certified by the clerk of the district court under seal to the state executive council. The executive council shall review the proceedings and authorize reimbursement for the costs and expenses or for that part which the executive council finds justified, and shall notify the state comptroller to draw a warrant to the county treasurer on the state general fund for the amount authorized.

663A.6 Determination of relief.

Within thirty days after the docketing of the application, or within any further time the court may fix, the state shall respond by answer or by motion which may be supported by affidavits. At any time prior to entry of judgment the court may grant leave to withdraw the application. The court may make appropriate orders for amendment of the application or any pleading or motion, for pleading over, for filing further pleadings or motions, or for extending the time of the filing of any pleading. In considering the application the court shall take account of substance regardless of defects of form. If the application is not accompanied by the record of the proceedings challenged therein, the respondent shall file with its answer the record or portions thereof that are material to the questions raised in the application.

When a court is satisfied, on the basis of the application, the answer or motion, and the record, that the applicant is not entitled to postconviction relief and no purpose would be served by any further proceedings, it may indicate to the parties its intention to dismiss the application and its reasons for dismissal. The applicant shall be given an opportunity to reply to the proposed dismissal. In light of the reply, or on default thereof, the court may order the application dismissed or grant leave to file an amended application or direct that the proceedings otherwise continue. Disposition on the pleadings and record is not proper if a material issue of fact exists.

The court may grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of the application, when it appears from the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions and agreements of fact, together with any affidavits submitted, that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

663A.7 Court to hear application.

The application shall be heard in, and before any judge of the court in which the conviction or sentence took place. However, if the applicant is seeking relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, the application shall be heard in, and before any judge of the court of the county in which the applicant is being confined. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved. All rules and statutes applicable in civil proceedings including pretrial and discovery procedures are available to the parties. The court may receive proof of affidavits, depositions, oral testimony, or other evidence, and may order the applicant brought before it for the hearing. If the court finds in favor of the applicant, it shall enter an appropriate order with respect to the conviction or sentence in the former proceedings, and any supplementary orders as to rearraignment, retrial, custody, bail, discharge, correction of sentence, or other matters that may be necessary and proper. The court shall make specific findings of fact, and state expressly its conclusions of law, relating to each issue presented. This order is a final judgment.

663A.8 Grounds must be all-inclusive.

All grounds for relief available to an applicant under this chapter must be raised in the applicant's original, supplemental or amended application. Any ground finally adjudicated or not raised, or knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waived in the proceeding that resulted in the conviction or sentence, or in any other proceeding the applicant has taken to secure relief, may not be the basis for a subsequent application, unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which for sufficient reason was not asserted or was inadequately raised in the original, supplemental, or amended application.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §663A.8]

663A.9 Appeal.

A final judgment entered under this chapter may be reviewed by the supreme court of this state on appeal, brought either by the applicant or by the state within sixty days from the entry of the judgment.

666.2 Prior judgment no bar.

A judgment in favor of a party for one delinquency does not preclude the same or another party from an action on the same security for another delinquency, except that sureties can be made liable in the aggregate only to the extent of their undertaking.

CHAPTER 668

LIABILITY IN TORT — COMPARATIVE FAULT

Sections 668 1 through 668 10, except 668 4, apply to all cases filed on or after July 1, 1984 Section 668 4 applies to all cases tried on or after July 1, 1984, 84 Acts, ch 1293, §15

- 668.1 Fault defined.
- 668.2 Party defined.
- 668.3 Comparative fault — effect.

- 668.5 Right of contribution.

- 668.6 Enforcement of contribution.

- 668.8 Tolling of statute.
- 668.9 Insurance practice.
- 668.10 Governmental exemptions.

668.1 Fault defined.

1 As used in this chapter, "fault" means one or more acts or omissions that are in any measure negligent or reckless toward the person or property of the actor or others, or that subject a person to strict tort liability. The term also includes breach of warranty, unreasonable assumption of risk not constituting an enforceable express consent, misuse of a product for which the defendant otherwise would be liable, and unreasonable failure to avoid an injury or to mitigate damages.

2 The legal requirements of cause in fact and proximate cause apply both to fault as the basis for liability and to contributory fault.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §1

See also §619.17

668.2 Party defined.

As used in this chapter, unless otherwise required, "party" means any of the following:

- 1 A claimant
 - 2 A person named as defendant
 - 3 A person who has been released pursuant to section 668.7
 - 4 A third party defendant
- 84 Acts, ch 1293, §2

668.3 Comparative fault — effect.

1 Contributory fault shall not bar recovery in an action by a claimant to recover damages for fault resulting in death or in injury to person or property unless the claimant bears a greater percentage of fault than the combined percentage of fault attributed to the defendants, third party defendants and persons who have been released pursuant to section 668.7, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of fault attributable to the claimant.

2 In the trial of a claim involving the fault of more than one party to the claim, including third party defendants and persons who have been released pursuant to section 668.7, the court, unless otherwise agreed by all parties, shall instruct the jury to answer special interrogatories or, if there is no jury, shall make findings, indicating all of the following:

a The amount of damages each claimant will be entitled to recover if contributory fault is disregarded.

b The percentage of the total fault allocated to each claimant, defendant, third party defendant, and person who has been released from liability under section 668.7. For this purpose the court may determine that two or more persons are to be treated as a single party.

3 In determining the percentages of fault, the trier of fact shall consider both the nature of the conduct of each party and the extent of the causal relation between the conduct and the damages claimed.

4 The court shall determine the amount of damages payable to each claimant by each other party, if any, in accordance with the findings of the court or jury.

5 If the claim is tried to a jury, the court shall give instructions and permit evidence and argument with respect to the effects of the answers to be returned to the interrogatories submitted under this section.

6 In an action brought under this chapter and tried to a jury, the court shall not discharge the jury until the court has determined that the verdict or verdicts are consistent with the total damages and percentages of fault, and if inconsistencies exist the court shall do all of the following:

a Inform the jury of the inconsistencies.

b Order the jury to resume deliberations to correct the inconsistencies.

c Instruct the jury that it is at liberty to change any portion or portions of the verdicts to correct the inconsistencies.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §3

Referred to in §668.5, 668.6, 668.7

668.4 Joint and several liability.

In actions brought under this chapter, the rule of joint and several liability shall not apply to defendants who are found to bear less than fifty percent of the total fault assigned to all parties.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §4

Applies to all cases tried on or after July 1, 1984. 84 Acts, ch 1293, §15

668.5 Right of contribution.

1 A right of contribution exists between or among two or more persons who are liable upon the same indivisible claim for the same injury, death, or harm, whether or not judgment has been recovered against all or any of them. It may be enforced either in the original action or by a separate action brought for that purpose. The basis for contribution is each person's equitable share of the obligations, including the share of fault of a claimant, as determined in accordance with section 668.3.

2 Contribution is available to a person who enters into a settlement with the claimant only if the liability of the person against whom contribution is sought has been extinguished and only to the extent that the amount paid in settlement was reasonable.

668.6 Enforcement of contribution.

1 If the percentages of fault of each of the parties to a claim for contribution have been established previously by the court as provided in section 668.3, a party paying more than the party's percentage share of damages may recover judgment for contribution upon motion to the court or in a separate action.

2 If the percentages of fault of each of the parties to a claim for contribution have not been established by the court, contribution may be enforced in a separate action, whether or not a judgment has been rendered against either the person seeking contribution or the person from whom contribution is sought.

3 If a judgment has been rendered, an action for contribution must be commenced within one year after the judgment becomes final. If a judgment has not been rendered, a claim for contribution is enforceable only upon satisfaction of one of the following sets of conditions:

a The person bringing the action for contribution must have discharged the liability of the person from whom contribution is sought by payment made within the period of the statute of limitations applicable to the claimant's right of action and must have commenced the action for contribution within one year after the date of that payment.

b The person seeking contribution must have agreed while the action of the claimant was pending to discharge the liability of the person from whom contribution is sought and within one year after the date of the agreement must have discharged that liability and commenced the action for contribution.

668.7 Effect of release.

A release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person liable discharges that person from all liability for contribution, but it does not discharge any other persons liable upon the same claim unless it so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person against other persons is reduced by the amount of the released person's equitable share of the obligation, as determined in section 668.3, subsection 4.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §7

Referred to in §668 2, 668 3

668.8 Tolling of statute.

The filing of a petition under this chapter tolls the statute of limitations for the commencement of an action against all parties who may be assessed any percentage of fault under this chapter.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §8

668.9 Insurance practice.

It shall be an unfair trade practice, as defined in chapter 507B, if an insurer assigns a percentage of fault to a claimant, for the purpose of reducing a settlement, when there exists no reasonable evidence upon which the assigned percentage of fault could be based. The prohibitions and sanctions of chapter 507B shall apply to violations of this section.

84 Acts, ch 1293, §9

668.10 Governmental exemptions.

In any action brought pursuant to this chapter, the state or a municipality shall not be assigned a percentage of fault for any of the following:

1. The failure to place, erect, or install a stop sign, traffic control device, or other regulatory sign as defined in the uniform manual for traffic control devices adopted pursuant to section 321.252. However, once a regulatory device has been placed, created or installed, the state or municipality may be assigned a percentage of fault for its failure to maintain the device.

2. The failure to remove natural or unnatural accumulations of snow or ice, or to place sand, salt, or other abrasive material on a highway, road, or street if the state or municipality establishes that it has complied with its policy or level of service for snow and ice removal or placing sand, salt or other abrasive material on its highways, roads, or streets.

3. For contribution unless the party claiming contribution has given the state or municipality notice of the claim pursuant to sections 25A.13 and 613A.5.

679A.1 Validity of arbitration agreement.

1. A written agreement to submit to arbitration an existing controversy is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable unless grounds exist at law or in equity for the revocation of the written agreement.

2. A provision in a written contract to submit to arbitration a future controversy arising between the parties is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable unless grounds exist at law or in equity for the revocation of the contract. This subsection shall not apply to any of the following:

- a A contract of adhesion.
- b A contract between employers and employees.
- c Unless otherwise provided in a separate writing executed by all parties to the contract, any claim sounding in tort whether or not involving a breach of contract.

Referred to in §679A 2

679A.2 Proceedings to compel or stay arbitration.

1. On application of a party showing an agreement described in section 679A.1 and the opposing party's refusal to arbitrate, the district court shall order the parties to proceed with arbitration. However, if the opposing party denies the existence of a valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate, the district court shall proceed to the determination of the issue and shall order arbitration if a valid and enforceable agreement is found to exist. If no such agreement exists, the court shall deny the application.

2. On application, the district court may stay an arbitration proceeding commenced or threatened on a showing that there is no valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate. The issue, when in substantial and bona fide dispute, shall be tried and the stay ordered if a valid and enforceable agreement to arbitrate does not exist. If an agreement is found to exist, the court shall order the parties to proceed to arbitration.

3. If an issue referable to arbitration under the alleged agreement is involved in an action or proceeding pending in a district court, the application shall be made to that court. Otherwise, the application may be made in a district court as provided in section 679A.16.

4. An action or proceeding involving an issue subject to arbitration shall be stayed if an order for arbitration or an application for an order to arbitrate has been made under this section or, if the issue is severable, the stay may be made with respect to the part of the issue which is subject to arbitration only. When the application is made in such an action or proceeding, the order for arbitration shall include the stay.

5. An order for arbitration shall not be refused on the ground that the claim in issue lacks merit or because any fault or grounds for the claim sought to be arbitrated have not been shown.

Referred to in §679A 12, 679A 17

679A.3 Appointment of arbitrators by district court.

If the arbitration agreement provides a method of appointment of arbitrators, this method shall be followed. In the absence of a method of appointing, or if the agreed method fails or for any reason cannot be followed, or when an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable to act and a successor has not been appointed, the district court on application of a party shall appoint one or more arbitrators. An arbitrator appointed by the district court has the same powers as an arbitrator specifically named in the agreement.

Referred to in §679A 12

679A.4 Majority action by arbitrators.

The powers of the arbitrators may be exercised by a majority unless otherwise provided by the agreement or by this chapter.

[81 Acts, ch 202, §4]

679A.5 Hearing.

Unless otherwise provided by the agreement:

1. The arbitrators shall determine a time and place for the hearing and cause notification to the parties to be served personally or by registered mail not less than five days before the hearing. Appearance at the hearing waives the notice. The arbitrators may adjourn the hearing as necessary and, on request of a party and for good cause, or upon their own motion may postpone the hearing to a time not later than the date fixed by the agreement for making the award. The arbitrators may hear and determine the controversy upon the evidence produced even if a party duly notified fails to appear.

2. The parties are entitled to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.

3. The hearing shall be conducted by all the arbitrators. If, during the course of the hearing, an arbitrator for any reason ceases to act, the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators may continue with the hearing and determination of the controversy.

Referred to in §679A.12

679A.6 Representation by attorney.

A party has the right to be represented by an attorney at any proceeding or hearing under this chapter. A waiver of this right before the proceeding or hearing is ineffective.

[81 Acts, ch 202, §6]

679A.7 Witnesses, subpoenas, depositions.

1. The arbitrators may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of books, records, documents, and other evidence, and may administer oaths. Subpoenas shall be served, and upon application to the district court by a party or the arbitrators, enforced in the manner provided by law for the service and enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

2. On application of a party and for use as evidence, the arbitrators may permit a deposition to be taken, in the manner and upon the terms designated by the arbitrators, of a witness who cannot be subpoenaed or is unable to attend the hearing.

3. All provisions of the law compelling a person under subpoena to testify are applicable.

4. Unless otherwise agreed, fees for attendance as a witness shall be the same as for a witness in the district court.

679A.8 Award.

1. The award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrators joining in the award. The arbitrators shall deliver a copy to each party personally, by registered mail, or as provided in the agreement.

2. A party waives the objection that an award was not made within the proper time unless the party notifies the arbitrators of the party's objection before the award is received.

3. Unless otherwise agreed, an award shall be made within thirty days after the arbitration hearing.

[C51, §2106-2108; R60, §3683-3685; C73, §3423-

3425; C97, §4392-4394; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12702-12704; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.8-679.10; 81 Acts, ch 202, §8]

679A.9 Change of award by arbitrators.

On application of a party or, if an application to the district court is pending under sections 679A.11 to 679A.13, on submission to the arbitrators by the district court under the conditions the district court orders, the arbitrators may modify or correct the award upon the grounds stated in section 679A.13, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" and "c", or for the purpose of clarifying the award. The application shall be made within twenty days after delivery of the award to the applicant. Written notice of the application shall be given to the opposing party, stating that the opposing party must serve any objections to the application within ten days from the notice. The modified or corrected award is subject to sections 679A.11 to 679A.13.

[C51, §2110; R60, §3687; C73, §3427; C97, §4397; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12706; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.12; 81 Acts, ch 202, §9]

679A.10 Fees and expenses of arbitration.

Unless otherwise provided in the agreement to arbitrate, and except for council fees, the arbitrators' expenses and fees and any other expenses incurred in the conduct of the arbitration shall be paid as provided in the award.

[C51, §2114; R60, §3691; C73, §3834; C97, §3873; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12711; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §679.17; 81 Acts, ch 202, §10]

679A.11 Confirmation of an award.

Upon application of a party, the district court shall confirm an award, unless within the time limits imposed under sections 679A.12 and 679A.13 grounds are urged for vacating, modifying, or correcting the award, in which case the district court shall proceed as provided in sections 679A.12 and 679A.13.

[81 Acts, ch 202, §11]

Referred to in §679A.9

679A.12 Vacating an award.

1. Upon application of a party, the district court shall vacate an award if any of the following apply:

a. The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other illegal means.

b. There was evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral, corruption in any of the arbitrators, or misconduct prejudicing the rights of a party.

c. The arbitrators exceeded their powers.

d. The arbitrators refused to postpone the hearing upon sufficient cause being shown for the postponement, refused to hear evidence material to the controversy, or conducted the hearing contrary to the provisions of section 679A.5, in a manner which prejudiced substantially the rights of a party.

e. There was no arbitration agreement, the issue was not adversely determined in proceedings under section 679A.2, and the party did not participate in the arbitration hearing without raising the objection.

f. Substantial evidence on the record as a whole does not support the award. The court shall not vacate an award on this ground if a party urging the vacation has not caused the arbitration proceedings to be reported, if the parties have agreed that a vacation shall not be made on this ground, or if the arbitration has been conducted under the auspices of the American arbitration association.

2. The fact that the relief awarded could not or would not be granted by a court of law or equity is not ground for vacating or refusing to confirm the award.

3. An application under this section shall be made within ninety days after delivery of a copy of the award to the applicant. However, if the application to vacate an award is predicated upon corruption, fraud, or other illegal means, it shall be made within ninety days after those grounds are known or should have been known.

4. In vacating the award on grounds other than stated in subsection 1, paragraph "e", the district court may order a rehearing before new arbitrators chosen as provided in the agreement, or in the absence of a method in the agreement, by the district court in accordance with section 679A.3, or if the award is vacated on grounds set forth in subsection 1, paragraph "c" or "d" of this section, the district court may order a rehearing before the arbitrators who made the award or their successors appointed in accordance with section 679A.3. The time within which the agreement requires the award to be made is applicable to the rehearing and commences from the date of the order.

Referred to in §679A 9, 679A 11

679A.13 Modification or correction of award.

1. Upon application made within ninety days after delivery of a copy of the award to the applicant, the district court shall modify or correct the award if any of the following apply:

a. There is an evident miscalculation of figures or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property referred to in the award.

b. The arbitrators have awarded upon a matter not submitted to them and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the issues submitted.

c. The award is imperfect in a matter of form, not affecting the merits of the controversy.

2. If the application is granted, the district court shall modify and correct the award to effect its intent and shall confirm the award as modified and corrected.

[81 Acts, ch 202, §13]

Referred to in §679A 9, 679A 11

679A.14 Judgment or decree on award.

Upon the granting of an order confirming, modifying, or correcting an award, a judgment or decree shall be entered in conformity with the order enforced as any other judgment or decree. Costs of the application and the subsequent proceedings and disbursements may be awarded by the district court.

679A.15 Applications to district court.

Except as otherwise provided, an application to the district court under this chapter shall be by motion and shall be heard in the manner and upon the notice provided by law or rule of civil procedure, for the making and hearing of motions. Unless the parties have agreed otherwise, notice of an initial application for an order shall be served in the manner provided by the Iowa rules of civil procedure for the service of original notice in an action.

[81 Acts, ch 202, §15]

679A.16 Venue.

An initial application shall be made to the district court of the county in which the agreement provides the arbitration hearing shall be held or, if the hearing has been held, in the county in which it was held. Otherwise the application shall be made in the district court of the county where the adverse party resides or has a place of business or, if the adverse party has no residence or place of business in this state, to the district court of any county.  Chapters 701 to 728 shall be known and may be cited as "Iowa Criminal Code"
 [C79, 81, §701.1]

701.2 Public offense.

A public offense is that which is prohibited by statute and is punishable by fine or imprisonment
 [C51, §2816–2818, R60, §4428–4430, C73, §4103, 4105, C97, §5092–5094, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12889–12891; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.1, 687.2, 687.4, C79, 81, §701.2]

701.3 Presumption of innocence.

Every person is presumed innocent until proved guilty. No person shall be convicted of any offense unless the person's guilt thereof is proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

See R Cr P 21(9)

701.4 Insanity.

A person shall not be convicted of a crime if at the time the crime is committed the person suffers from such a diseased or deranged condition of the mind as to render the person incapable of knowing the nature and quality of the act the person is committing or incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong in relation to that act. Insanity need not exist for any specific length of time before or after the commission of the alleged criminal act. If the defense of insanity is raised, the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant at the time of the crime suffered from such a deranged condition of the mind as to render the defendant incapable of knowing the nature and quality of the act the defendant was committing or was incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong in relation to the act.

[C79, 81, §701.4]

Referred to in R Cr P 10(11)(b)(1)

701.5 Intoxicants or drugs.

The fact that a person is under the influence of intoxicants or drugs neither excuses the person's act nor aggravates the person's guilt, but may be shown where it is relevant in proving the person's specific intent or recklessness at the time of the person's alleged criminal act or in proving any element of the public offense with which the person is charged.

[C79, 81, §701.5]

701.6 Ignorance or mistake.

All persons are presumed to know the law. Evidence of an accused person's ignorance or mistake as to a matter of either fact or law shall be admissible in any case where it shall tend to prove the existence or non-existence of some element of the crime with which the person is charged.

[C79, 81, §701.6]

701.7 Felony defined and classified.

A public offense is a felony of a particular class when the statute defining the crime declares it to be a felony. Felonies are class "A" felonies, class "B" felonies, class "C" felonies, and class "D" felonies. Where the statute defining the offense declares it to be a felony but does not state what class of felony it is or provide for a specific penalty, that felony shall be a class "D" felony.

[C51, §2817; R60, §4429; C73, §4104; C97, §5093; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12890; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.2; C79, 81, §701.7]

701.8 Misdemeanor defined and classified.

All public offenses which are not felonies are misdemeanors. Misdemeanors are aggravated misdemeanors, serious misdemeanors, or simple misdemeanors. Where an act is declared to be a public offense, crime or misdemeanor, but no other designation is given, such act shall be a simple misdemeanor.

[C51, §2675, 2818; R60, §4302, 4430; C73, §3966, 4105; C97, §4905, 5094; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12891, 12893; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §687.4, 687.6; C79, 81, §701.8]

See also §903 1

701.9 Merger of lesser included offenses.

No person shall be convicted of a public offense which is necessarily included in another public offense of which the person is convicted. If the jury returns a verdict of guilty of more than one offense and such verdict conflicts with this section, the court shall enter judgment of guilty of the greater of the offenses only.

[C79, 81, §701.9]

See R Cr P 6(1), 21(3)

701.10 Civil remedies preserved.

714.1 Theft defined.

A person commits theft when the person does any of the following:

1. Takes possession or control of the property of another, or property in the possession of another, with the intent to deprive the other thereof.

2. Misappropriates property which the person has in trust, or property of another which the person has in the person's possession or control, whether such possession or control is lawful or unlawful, by using or disposing of it in a manner which is inconsistent with or a denial of the trust or of the owner's rights in such property, or conceals found property, or appropriates such property to the person's own use, when the owner of such property is known to the person. Failure by a bailee or lessee of personal property to return the property within seventy-two hours after a time specified in a written agreement of lease or bailment shall be evidence of misappropriation.

3. Obtains the labor or services of another, or a transfer of possession, control, or ownership of the property of another, or the beneficial use of property of another, by deception. Where compensation for goods and services is ordinarily paid immediately upon the obtaining of such goods or the rendering of such services, the refusal to pay or leaving the premises without payment or offer to pay or without having obtained from the owner or operator the right to pay subsequent to leaving the premises gives rise to an inference that the goods or services were obtained by deception.

4. Exercises control over stolen property, knowing such property to have been stolen, or having reasonable cause to believe that such property has been stolen, unless the person's purpose is to promptly restore it to the owner or to deliver it to an appropriate public officer. The fact that the person is found in possession of property which has been stolen from two or more persons on separate occasions, or that the person is a dealer or other person familiar with the value of such property and has acquired it for a consideration which is far below its reasonable value, shall be evidence from which the court or jury may infer that the person knew or believed that the property had been stolen.

5. Takes, destroys, conceals or disposes of property in which someone else has a security interest, with intent to defraud the secured party.

6. Makes, utters, draws, delivers, or gives any check, share draft, draft, or written order on any bank, credit union, person or corporation, and obtains property or service in exchange therefor, if the person knows that such check, share draft, draft or written order will not be paid when presented.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because of insufficient funds, and the maker has not paid the holder of the instrument the amount due thereon within ten days of the maker's receipt of notice from the holder that payment has been refused by the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such facts that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation. Notice of refusal of payment shall be by certified mail, or by personal service in the manner prescribed for serving original notices.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because the maker has no account with the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such fact that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation.

7. Any act that is declared to be theft by any provision of the Code.

715.2 Use of financial instrument defined.

715.3 Intent and knowledge.

715.4 Proof of intent.

715.5 Person defined.

715.6 False use of a financial instrument — penalties.

715.7 Filing multiple counts in one information, indictment, or complaint.

715.1 Financial instrument defined.

A financial instrument is any of the following:

1. A check, bill note, draft, bond receipt, or any writing which ostensibly evidences an obligation of, or surrender of right or claim by, the person who has purportedly executed it or authorized its execution. "Writing" includes printing or any other method of recording information, money, coins, tokens, stamps, seals, credit cards, badges, trademarks, and other symbols of value, right, privilege, or identification.

2. Any deed, will or testamentary document, bill of sale, warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or any writing which purports to convey an interest in some property, or to be evidence of or to establish a right in some property.

3. Any letter, credit card, charge plate, or other device which is designed to identify the person tendering such device as one to whom credit may be extended, or as one to whom goods or services may be furnished and charged to the account of another.

4. Any endorsement, acceptance, acknowledgment, codicil, or any writing of any kind upon or ancillary to any financial instrument which does or purports to affect such instrument or the rights or obligations evidenced thereby.

Referred to in §715.6

715.2 Use of financial instrument defined.

One uses a financial instrument when one does any of the following:

1. Makes or executes such instrument or an endorsement thereon, or alters such instrument so as to materially change its nature or the right or obligation which it purports to represent.

2. Tenders or offers such instrument to another in the course of a financial or commercial transaction, with the representation, either express or by implication, that the instrument is what it purports to be and that one is a person who is shown on its face to be one who may rightfully so use such instrument.

3. Possesses such instrument, knowing it to be false or knowing that one has no right to use or possess it.

715.3 Intent and knowledge.

The term "intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value" includes the intent to deliver a financial instrument to another, knowing that the other person intends to use the instrument to obtain fraudulently something of value.

One acts with knowledge of facts when the person has information which would put a reasonable person on inquiry as to such facts, but acts without making a reasonable inquiry.

715.4 Proof of intent.

The intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value shall not be proved by the mere possession of a falsified financial instrument or a financial instrument which the possessor has no right to use.

[C79, 81, §715.4]

715.5 Person defined.

The term "person" as used in this chapter means a natural person, a fiduciary, a state, a private or public corporation or de facto corporation of any kind, or an officer or agent thereof, and includes fictitious persons or corporations. It is immaterial that any person whom the instrument on its face identifies as having the right to use it, does or does not have such a right, or whether such person does or does not actually exist.

[C79, 81, §715.5]

715.6 False use of a financial instrument — penalties.

The use of a financial instrument with the intent to obtain fraudulently anything of value by a user who knows that the instrument is not what it purports to be, or who knows that the user is not the person nor the authorized agent of the person who, as shown on the instrument, has the right to so use the instrument, constitutes the false use of a financial instrument.

False use of a financial instrument as defined in section 715.1, subsection 2, 3, or 4, is false use of a financial instrument in the first degree. False use of a financial instrument as defined in section 715.1, subsection 1, to obtain property one hundred dollars or more in value, is false use of a financial instrument in the first degree. False use of a financial instrument in the first degree is a class "D" felony.

False use of a financial instrument as defined in section 715.1, subsection 1, to obtain property not exceeding one hundred dollars in value, is false use of a financial instrument in the second degree. False use of a financial instrument in the second degree is an aggravated misdemeanor.

The value of property for purposes of this section is its normal market or exchange value within the community at the time of the false use of a financial instrument with intent to obtain the property. If money or property is sought to be obtained by a series of false uses of financial instruments from the same person or location, or from different persons by a series of false uses of financial instruments which occur in approximately the same location or time period so that the attempts to obtain property are attributable to a single scheme, plan or conspiracy, such false uses of financial instruments may be considered a single false use of a financial instrument and the value may be the total value of all the property sought to be obtained.

715.7 Filing multiple counts in one information, indictment, or complaint.

A single information, indictment, or complaint charging false use of a financial instrument may allege more than one such violation against a person. The multiple charges shall be set out in separate counts, and the accused person shall be acquitted or convicted upon each count by a separate verdict. A convicted person shall be sentenced upon each verdict of guilty. The court may consider separate verdicts of guilty returned at the same time as one offense for the purpose of sentencing.

804.1 Arrest by warrant — complaint and citation defined.

A criminal proceeding may be commenced by the filing of a complaint before a magistrate. When such complaint is made, charging the commission of some designated public offense in which such magistrate has jurisdiction, and it appears from the complaint or from affidavits filed with it that there is probable cause to believe an offense has been committed and a designated person has committed it, the magistrate shall, except as otherwise provided, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person.

If the complaint charges a public offense, the magistrate may issue a citation instead of a warrant of arrest. The citation shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the citation at a time and place stated in the citation. The magistrate shall prescribe the manner of service for the citation at the time the citation is issued.

The citation may be served in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action.

If the person named in the citation is actually served as provided herein and willfully fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the citation, the person shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor and the magistrate may issue a warrant of arrest for the offense originally charged.

If after issuing a citation the magistrate becomes satisfied that the person to whom such citation has been directed will not appear, the magistrate may at once issue a warrant of arrest without waiting for the date mentioned in the citation.

804.21 Initial appearance before magistrate — arrest by warrant.

1 A person arrested in obedience to a warrant shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the nearest or most accessible magistrate. The officer shall at the same time deliver to the magistrate the warrant with the officer's return endorsed on it and subscribed by the officer with the officer's official title. However, this section, and sections 804 22 and 804 23, do not preclude the release of an arrested person within the period of time the person would otherwise remain incarcerated while waiting to be taken before a magistrate if the release is pursuant to pretrial release guidelines or a bond schedule promulgated by the judicial council acting pursuant to Iowa rule of civil procedure 380. If, however, a person is released pursuant to pretrial release guidelines, a magistrate must, within twenty-four hours of such release, or as soon as practicable on the next subsequent working day of the court, either (1) approve in writing of the release, or (2) disapprove of the release and issue a warrant for the person's arrest.

2 Where the offense is bailable, the magistrate shall fix bail giving due consideration to the bail endorsed on the warrant or other conditions stipulated on the warrant for the defendant's appearance in the court which issued the warrant, if such person is not released on bail, the magistrate must redeliver the warrant to the officer, and the officer shall retain custody of the arrested person until the person's removal to appear before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

3 If the magistrate who issued the warrant is absent or unable to act, the arrested person shall be taken to the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the judicial district where the offense occurred, and all documents on which the warrant was issued must be sent to such magistrate, or if they cannot be procured, the informant and the informant's witnesses must be subpoenaed to make new affidavits.

4 When the court is not in session, a person arrested and placed in jail may be released on the person's own recognizance with or without other conditions, by the verbal or written order of a judge or magistrate. The verbal order may be communicated by telephone. The judge or magistrate may issue such order of release only upon the request of an attorney or person believed by the judge or magistrate to be reliable.

5 a The judicial council shall promulgate rules and bond levels to be contained within a bond schedule for the release of an arrested person.

b The bond schedule shall not be used unless both the following conditions are met:

(1) The person was arrested for a crime other than a forcible felony, and

(2) The courts are not in session.

6 This section does not prevent the release of the arrested person pending initial appearance upon the furnishing of bail in the amount endorsed on the warrant. The initial appearance of a person so released shall be scheduled for a time not more than ten days after the date of release.

804.22 Initial appearance before magistrate — arrest without warrant.

When an arrest is made without a warrant, the person arrested shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the judicial district in which such arrest was made, and the grounds on which the arrest was made shall be stated to the magistrate by complaint, subscribed and sworn to by the complainant, or supported by the complainant's affirmation, and such magistrate shall proceed as follows:

1. If the magistrate believes from such complaint that the offense charged is triable in the magistrate's court, the magistrate shall proceed with the case.

2. If the magistrate believes from such complaint that the offense charged is triable in another court, the magistrate shall by written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be taken before the appropriate magistrate in the district in which the offense is triable, and shall fix the amount of bail or other conditions of release which the person arrested may give for the person's appearance at the other court.

This section and the rules of criminal procedure do not affect the provisions of chapter 805 authorizing the release of a person on citation or bail prior to initial appearance. The initial appearance of a person so released shall be scheduled for a time not more than ten days after the date of release.

804.23 Initial appearance of arrested material witness before magistrate.

The officer shall, without unnecessary delay, take the person arrested pursuant to section 804.11 before the nearest or most accessible magistrate to the place where the arrest occurred.

At the appearance before the magistrate, the law enforcement officer shall make a showing to the magistrate, by sworn affidavit, that probable cause exists to believe that a person is a necessary and material witness to a felony and that such person might be unavailable for service of a subpoena. The magistrate may order the person released pursuant to section 811.2.

for questioning or arrested for an alleged violation of a criminal law including a local ordinance, the peace officer making the arrest or that officer's superior shall procure at the earliest possible time, unless the hearing impaired person waives the right in writing, and the waiver was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently, a qualified interpreter in accordance with section 622B 2 and the rules adopted by the supreme court as required in section 622B 1 subsection 2. The interpreter shall interpret the Miranda warning, notification of rights, the interrogation proceedings, other questioning or arrest procedures and all statements made by the hearing impaired person. An answer, statement, or admission, oral or written, made by a hearing impaired person in reply to a question of a law enforcement officer or any other person having a prosecutorial function in a criminal proceeding is not admissible in court and shall not be used against the hearing impaired person if that answer, statement, or admission was not made or elicited through a qualified interpreter, unless the hearing impaired person waives this exclusion in writing, and the waiver was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently. The role of the interpreter is to facilitate communication between the hearing and hearing impaired parties. POLICE CITATIONS

805.1 When police citation may issue.

1. Except for an offense for which an accused would not be eligible for bail under section 811.1, a peace officer having grounds to make an arrest may issue a citation in lieu of making an arrest without a warrant or, if a warrantless arrest has been made, a citation may be issued in lieu of continued custody.

2. The citation procedure for traffic and other violations designated as scheduled violations is governed by sections 805.6 through 805.15.

3. a. State and local law enforcement agencies in the state of Iowa may cooperate to formulate uniform guidelines that will provide for the maximum possible use of citations in lieu of arrest and in lieu of continued custody for offenses for which citations are authorized. These guidelines shall be submitted to the Iowa law enforcement academy council for review. The Iowa law enforcement academy council shall then submit recommendations to the general assembly no later than January 1, 1984.

b. Factors to be considered by the agencies in formulating the guidelines relating to the issuance of citations for simple misdemeanors not governed by subsection 2, shall include but shall not be limited to all of the following:

- (1) Whether a person refuses or fails to produce means for a satisfactory identification.
- (2) Whether a person refuses to sign the citation.
- (3) Whether detention appears reasonably necessary in order to halt a continuing offense or disturbance or to prevent harm to a person or persons.
- (4) Whether a person appears to be under the influence of intoxicants or drugs and no one is available to take custody of the person and be responsible for the person's safety.
- (5) Whether a person has insufficient ties to the jurisdiction to assure that the person will appear or it reasonably appears that there is a substantial likelihood that the person will refuse to appear in response to a citation.
- (6) Whether a person has previously failed to appear in response to a citation or after release on pretrial release guidelines.

c. Additional factors to be considered in the formulation of guidelines relating to the issuance of citations for other offenses for which citations are authorized shall include but shall not be limited to all of the following concerning the person:

- (1) Place and length of residence.
- (2) Family relationships.
- (3) References.
- (4) Present and past employment.
- (5) Criminal record.
- (6) Nature and circumstances of the alleged offense.
- (7) Other facts relevant to the likelihood of the person's response to a citation.

4. The issuance of a citation in lieu of arrest or in lieu of continued custody does not affect the officer's authority to conduct an otherwise lawful search. The issuance of a citation in lieu of arrest shall be deemed an arrest for the purpose of the speedy indictment requirements of R.Cr.P. section 27, subsection 2, paragraph "a", Ia. Ct. Rules, 2d ed.

5. Even if a citation is issued, the officer may take the cited person to an appropriate medical facility if it reasonably appears that the person needs care.

6. When a citation is not issued for an offense for which a citation is authorized, the arrested person may be released pending initial appearance on bail or on other conditions determined by pretrial release guidelines. When an arrested person furnishes bail, the officer then in charge of the place of detention shall secure it in safekeeping and shall see that it is forwarded to the office of the clerk of court during the clerk's next regular business day.

7. When the offense is one for which a citation is not authorized, the person does not qualify for release under pretrial release guidelines and the person cannot be released under a bond schedule, the person may be released on bail or otherwise only after initial appearance before a magistrate as provided in chapter 804 and the rules of criminal procedure.

The cost of the publication shall be paid out of the budget of the department of public safety and out of the budget of the state conservation commission, each budget being liable for half of those costs. Copies shall be made available to individuals upon request, and a charge may be collected which does not exceed the cost of printing.

805.9 Admission of scheduled violations.

1. In cases of scheduled violations, the defendant, before the time specified in the citation and complaint for appearance before the court, may sign the admission of violation on the citation and complaint and deliver or mail the citation and complaint, together with the minimum fine for the violation, plus eight dollars costs, to a scheduled violations office in the county. The office shall, if the offense is a moving violation under chapter 321, forward a copy of the citation and complaint and admission to the department of transportation as required by section 321.207. In this case the defendant is not required to appear before the court. The admission constitutes a conviction.

2. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation by information may obtain two copies of the information from the court and, before the time the defendant is required to appear before the court, deliver or mail the copies, together with the defendant's admission, fine, and eight dollars costs, to the scheduled violations office in the county. The procedure, fine, and costs are the same as when the charge is by citation and complaint, with the admission and the number of the defendant's operator's or chauffeur's license placed upon the information, when the violation involves the use of a motor vehicle.

3. When section 805.8 and this section are applicable but the officer does not deem it advisable to release the defendant and no court in the county is in session:

a. If the defendant wishes to admit the violation, the officer may release the defendant upon observing the person mail the citation and complaint, admission, and minimum fine, together with eight dollars costs, to a traffic violations office in the county, in an envelope furnished by the officer. The admission constitutes a conviction and judgment in the amount of the scheduled fine plus eight dollars costs. The officer may allow the defendant to use a credit card pursuant to rules adopted under section 805.14 by the department of public safety or to mail a check in the proper amount in lieu of cash. If the check is not paid by the drawee for any reason, the defendant may be held in contempt of court. The officer shall advise the defendant of the penalty for nonpayment of the check.

b. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" of this subsection, the officer may release the defendant upon observing the defendant mail to a court in the county the citation and complaint and one and one-half times the minimum fine together with eight dollars costs, or in lieu of one and one-half times the fine and the costs, a guaranteed arrest bond certificate as provided in section 321.1, subsection 70, as bail together with the following statement signed by the defendant:

"I agree that either (1) I will appear pursuant to this citation or (2) if I do not appear in person or by counsel to defend against the offense charged in this citation the court is authorized to enter a conviction and render judgment against me for the amount of one and one-half times the scheduled fine plus eight dollars costs."

c. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" or "b", or when section 804.7 is applicable, the officer may arrest and confine the defendant if authorized by the latter section, and proceed according to chapter 804.

4. A defendant who admits a scheduled violation may appear before court. The procedure, costs, and fine, without suspension of the fine, after the hearing are the same as in the traffic violations office.

5. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation who does not fully comply with subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section before the time required to appear before the court must, at that time, appear before the court. If the defendant admits the violation, the procedure and fine, without suspension, after the hearing are the same before the court as before the traffic violations office with eight dollars court costs, without prejudice, when applicable, to proceedings under section 321.487.

6. The eight dollars in costs imposed by this section are the total costs collectible from a defendant upon either an admission of a violation without hearing, or upon a hearing pursuant to subsection 4. Fees shall not be imposed upon or collected from a defendant for the purposes specified in section 602.8105, subsection 1, paragraph "i", "j", or "t".

810.3 Authority to issue order.

- 2 That there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the person named or described in the application committed the felony and it is reasonable in view of the seriousness of the offense to subject that person to the requested nontestimonial identification procedures.
- 3 That the results of the requested nontestimonial identification procedures will be of material aid in determining whether the person named or described in the application committed the felony

4 That such evidence cannot practicably be obtained from other sources
[81 Acts, ch 206, §5]

810.7 Issuance of order.

Upon a showing that the required grounds exist, the court shall issue an order directing the person named or described in the application to appear at a designated time and place for nontestimonial identification procedures. The order shall be maintained by the clerk of the district court along with the application and the affidavits in support of the application in a confidential file until a charge is filed, at which time the order, application, and affidavits in support of the application shall become public records unless the court upon an in camera hearing orders that they be kept confidential.

8 That the right to counsel shall apply during nontestimonial identification procedures, including the right of indigent persons to appointed counsel.

Upon presentation of the person, the court shall read the nontestimonial identification order to the person and afford a reasonable opportunity for the person to consult with a lawyer and to seek modification or vacation of the order. The court may then direct the person to participate immediately in the designated nontestimonial identification procedures. After the procedures have been completed, the person shall be released or charged with a felony.

[81 Acts, ch 206, §11]

811.2 Conditions of release — penalty for failure to appear.

1. Conditions for release of defendant. All bailable defendants shall be ordered released from custody pending judgment or entry of deferred judgment on their personal recognizance, or upon the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the magistrate unless the magistrate determines in the exercise of the magistrate’s discretion, that such a release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required or that release will jeopardize the personal safety of another person or persons. When such determination is made, the magistrate shall, either in lieu of or in addition to the above methods of release, impose the first of the following conditions of release which will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for trial or deferral of judgment and the safety of other persons, or, if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

a. Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise the defendant.

b. Place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release.

c. Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit with the clerk of court in cash or other qualified security of a sum not to exceed ten percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned to the defendant upon the performance of the appearances as required in section 811.6.

d. Require the execution of a bail bond with sufficient surety, or the deposit of cash in lieu of bond. However, except as provided in section 811.1, bail initially given remains valid until final disposition of the offense or entry of an order deferring judgment. If the amount of bail is deemed insufficient by the court before whom the offense is pending, the court may order an increase of bail and the defendant must provide the additional undertaking, written or in cash, to secure release

e Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required, or the safety of another person or persons including a condition requiring that the defendant return to custody after specified hours

2 Determination of conditions In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of another person or persons, the magistrate shall, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of the defendant's residence in the community, the defendant's record of convictions, and the defendant's record of appearance at court proceedings or of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings

3 Release at initial appearance This chapter does not preclude the release of an arrested person as authorized by section 804.21

4 Statement to all defendants When a defendant appears before a magistrate pursuant to R Cr P 2 or 3, the defendant shall be informed of the defendant's right to have said conditions of release reviewed. If the defendant indicates that the defendant desires such a review and is indigent and unable to retain legal counsel, the magistrate shall appoint an attorney to represent the defendant for the purpose of such review. Unless the conditions of release are amended and the defendant is thereupon released, the magistrate shall set forth in writing the reasons for requiring conditions imposed. A defendant who is ordered released by a magistrate other than a district court judge or district associate judge on a condition which required that the defendant return to custody after specified hours, shall, upon application, be entitled to review by the magistrate who imposed the condition in the same manner as a defendant who remains in full-time custody. In the event that the magistrate who imposed conditions of release is not available, any other magistrate in the judicial district may review such conditions

5 Statement of conditions when defendant is released A magistrate authorizing the release of a defendant under this section shall issue a written order containing a statement of the conditions imposed if any, shall inform the defendant of the penalties applicable to violation of the conditions of release and shall advise the defendant that a warrant for the defendant's arrest will be issued immediately upon such violation

6 Amendment of release conditions A magistrate ordering the release of the defendant on any conditions specified in this section may at any time amend the order to impose additional or different conditions of release, provided that, if the imposition of different or additional conditions results in the detention of the defendant as a result of the defendant's inability to meet such conditions, the provisions of subsection 3 of this section shall apply

a A defendant who is detained, or whose release on a condition requiring the defendant to return to custody after specified hours is continued, after review of the defendant's application pursuant to subsection 3 or 5 of this section, by a magistrate, other than a district judge or district associate judge having original jurisdiction of the offense with which the defendant is charged, may make application to a district judge or district associate judge having jurisdiction to amend the order. Said motion shall be promptly set for hearing and a record made thereof

b In any case in which a court denied a motion under paragraph "a" of this subsection to amend an order imposing conditions of release, or a defendant is detained after conditions of release have been imposed or amended upon such a motion, an appeal may be taken from the district court. The appeal shall be determined summarily, without briefs, on the record made. However, the defendant may elect to file briefs and may be heard in oral argument, in which case the prosecution shall have a right to respond as in an ordinary appeal from a criminal conviction. The appellate court may, on its own motion, order the parties to submit briefs and set the time in which such briefs shall be filed. Any order so appealed shall be affirmed if it is supported by the proceeding below. If the order is not so supported, the court may remand the case for a further hearing or may, with or without additional evidence, order the defendant released pursuant to subsection 1 of this section

8 Failure to appear — penalty Any person who, having been released pursuant to this section, willfully fails to appear before any court or magistrate as required shall, in addition to the forfeiture of any security given or pledged for the person's release, if the person was released in connection with a charge which constitutes a felony, or while awaiting sentence or pending appeal after conviction of any public offense, be guilty of a class "D" felony. If the defendant was released before conviction or acquittal in connection with a charge which constitutes any public offense not a felony, the defendant shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. If the person was released for appearance as a material witness, the person shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the power of the court to punish for contempt

811.3 Qualification and examination of surety.

1 Insurance companies doing business in this state under the provisions of section 515.48, subsection 2, may act as surety. Resident owners of property which is located within the state and which is worth the amount specified in the undertaking, may act as surety, and must in all cases justify by an affidavit taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths that such surety possesses such qualifications

2 In taking bail each signer may justify severally in amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, if the whole justification be equivalent to one sufficient bail

3 The court in which the action is pending, or the clerk thereof, or magistrate may require the personal appearance of sureties offered, and may thereupon further examine them upon oath concerning their sufficiency, and may also receive other evidence for or against the sufficiency of the bail. When such examination is closed, the official conducting such examination must make an order, either allowing or disallowing the bail, and forthwith cause the same, with the affidavits or justification and undertaking of bail, to be filed with the clerk of the court to which the papers on the preliminary examination are required to be sent.

811.4 Undertaking of bail as liens on real estate

Undertakings of bail, immediately after such undertakings are filed with the clerk of the district court, shall be docketed as liens on real estate, entered upon the lien index as required for judgments in civil cases, and from the time of such entries, shall be liens upon real estate of the persons executing the same. Attested copies of such undertakings may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the real estate is situated, in the same manner and with like effect as attested copies of civil judgments, and shall be immediately docketed and indexed in the same manner.

811.5 Bail on appeal.

After conviction, upon appeal to the appellate court, the defendant must be admitted to bail, if it be from the judgment imposing a fine, upon the undertaking of bail that the defendant will, in all respects, abide the orders and the judgment of the appellate court upon appeal, if from a judgment of imprisonment, except as provided in section 811.1 upon the undertaking of bail that the defendant will surrender in execution of the judgment and direction of the appellate court, and in all respects abide the orders and judgment of the appellate court upon the appeal. Such bail may be taken, either by the court where the judgment was rendered, or the district court of the county in which the defendant is imprisoned, or by the appellate court, or a judge or clerk of any of such courts. Provided, that in lieu of bail, bailable defendants as described herein may be released in accordance with the provisions of section 811.2.

811.6 Forfeiture of bail.

1 A defendant released pursuant to this chapter shall appear at arraignment, trial, judgment, or such other proceedings where the defendant's appearance is required. If the defendant fails to appear at the time and place when the defendant's personal appearance is lawfully required, or to surrender in execution of the judgment, the court must direct an entry of the failure to be made of record, and the undertaking of the defendant's bail, or the money deposited, is thereupon forfeited. As a part of the entry, except as provided in R Cr P 53, the court shall direct the sheriff of the county to give ten days' notice in writing to the defendant and the defendant's sureties to appear and show cause, if any, why judgment should not be entered for the amount of bail. If such appearance is not made, judgment shall be entered by the court. If appearance is made, the court shall set the case down for immediate hearing as an ordinary action.

2 Where a forfeiture and judgment have been entered as provided in this section, and the amount of the judgment has been paid to the clerk, the clerk shall hold the same as funds of the clerk's office for a period of sixty days from the date of judgment.

3 The court may, upon application, set aside such judgment if, within sixty days from the date thereof, the defendant shall voluntarily surrender to the sheriff of the county, or the defendant's sureties shall, at their own expense, deliver the defendant to the custody of the sheriff. Such judgment shall not be set aside, however, unless as a condition precedent thereto, the defendant and the defendant's sureties shall have paid all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

811.7 Recommitment after bail.

1 The magistrate may, by an order entered on the record, direct the defendant to be arrested and committed to jail until legally discharged, after the defendant has given bail or deposited money in lieu thereof, or otherwise is released pursuant to this chapter, when it satisfactorily appears to the court that the defendant has failed to appear as required, or the defendant has violated a condition of release, or when, after the filing of an indictment or information, the court finds the bail taken or money deposited is insufficient.

2 Such order for recommitment must recite generally the facts upon which it is founded, and must direct that the defendant be arrested and committed to the custody of the sheriff of the county in which such order is entered. The defendant may be arrested pursuant to such order, upon a certified copy thereof in any county of the state.

3 If the order recite, as the ground on which it is made, the failure of the defendant to appear for judgment upon conviction, the defendant must be committed according to the requirements of the order, if made for any other cause and the offense is bailable, the court must cause a direction to be inserted in the order that the defendant be admitted to bail, in a sum to be stated in the order.

1. At any time before the forfeiture of the undertaking, the surety may surrender the defendant, or the defendant may surrender, to the officer to whose custody the defendant was committed at the time of giving bail, and such officer shall detain the defendant as upon a commitment and must, upon such surrender and the receipt of a certified copy of the undertaking of bail, acknowledge the surrender by a certificate in writing.

2. Upon the filing of the undertaking and the certificate of the officer, or the certificate of the officer alone if money has been deposited instead of bail, the court or clerk shall immediately order return of the money deposited to the person who deposited the same, or order an exoneration of the surety.

3. For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the surety, at any time before finally charged and at any place within the state, may arrest the defendant, or, by a written authority endorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower any person of suitable age and discretion to do so.

811.9 Forfeiture of appearance bond.

Sections 811.6 through 811.8 shall not apply in a case where a simple misdemeanor is charged upon a uniform citation and complaint and where the defendant has submitted an unsecured appearance bond or has submitted bail in the form of cash, check, credit card as provided in section 805.14, or guaranteed arrest bond certificate as defined in section 321.1. When a defendant fails to appear as required in such cases, the court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture of the bond or bail. The judgment shall be final upon entry and shall not be set aside.

[C79, 81, §811.9]

811.10 Discharge of surety.

When a defendant is admitted to bail by means of a surety bail bond pursuant to section 811.2, subsection 1, paragraph "d", the obligation of surety shall be discharged, and the surety released, upon any of the following conditions:

1. Dismissal of the charges against the defendant.
2. Judgment of acquittal against the defendant.
3. Judgment of conviction against the defendant.
4. Entry of an order deferring judgment of the defendant.

5. Entry of an order by the court which, by its terms, continues the case against the defendant for a period exceeding six months.

Admittance to bail under this section, if required by the court, requires a new bail undertaking by the defendant. The surety under this section is responsible only for the failure of the defendant to appear at required court appearances during the period of deferral of judgment.

812.2 Hearing.

812.3 Mental incompetency of accused.

812.4 Cessation of criminal prosecution.

812.5 Effect of restoration of mental capacity.

812.1 When detention allowed.

When a person is awaiting sentence after conviction of a felony or following sentence of confinement is pursuing an appeal in such case, and the person would be otherwise eligible for release under chapter 811, but it appears by clear and convincing evidence that if released the person is likely to pose a danger to another person or to the property of others, such person may be detained under the authority of this chapter.

[C79, 81, §812.1]

812.2 Hearing.

The following procedures shall apply to detention hearings held pursuant to this chapter:

1. The prosecuting attorney may initiate a detention hearing by ex parte written motion. Upon such motion, the district court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person, if the person is not in custody.

2. The detention hearing shall be held immediately upon the person being brought before the district court for such hearing unless the person or the prosecuting attorney moves for a continuance. A continuance granted on motion of the person shall not exceed three calendar days. A continuance on motion of the prosecuting attorney shall be granted only upon good cause shown and shall not exceed three calendar days. The person may be detained pending the hearing.

3 The person shall be entitled to representation by counsel, including appointed counsel for indigent persons, and shall be entitled to the right of cross examination and to present information, to testify, and to present witnesses in the person's own behalf.

4 Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this section need not conform to the formal rules of evidence.

5 Testimony of the person given during the hearing shall not be admissible on the issue of guilt in any other judicial proceeding, subject only to the following exceptions. Such testimony shall be admissible in proceedings under sections 811 2, subsection 8 and 811 8, and in perjury proceedings.

6 Unless the defendant otherwise requests in writing, the district court shall conduct the hearing as a private hearing, and any order entered shall remain confidential as to the public generally until the conclusion of the trial.

7 Appeals from orders of detention may be taken in the manner provided under section 811 2, subsection 7.

8 If the trial court issues an order of detention, it shall be accompanied by a written finding of fact and the reasons for the detention order.

9 For the purposes of such proceedings, the trial court is not divested of jurisdiction by the filing of a notice of appeal.

[C79, 81, §812 2]

812.3 Mental incompetency of accused.

If at any stage of a criminal proceeding it reasonably appears that the defendant is suffering from a mental disorder which prevents the defendant from appreciating the charge, understanding the proceedings, or assisting effectively in the defense, further proceedings must be suspended and a hearing had upon that question.

812.4 Cessation of criminal prosecution.

If, upon hearing conducted by the court, the accused is found to be incapacitated in the manner described in section 812 3, no further proceedings shall be taken under the complaint or indictment until the accused's capacity is restored, and, if the accused's release will endanger the public peace or safety, the court must order the accused committed to the custody of the department of human services.

812.5 Effect of restoration of mental capacity.

If the accused is committed to the department of human services, after the expiration of a period not to exceed six months, the court shall upon hearing review the confinement and determine whether there is a substantial probability the prisoner will regain capacity within a reasonable time. If not, the state shall be directed to institute civil commitment proceedings. When it thereafter appears that the accused can effectively assist in the accused's defense, that department shall give notice to the sheriff and county attorney of the proper county of such fact, and the sheriff, without delay, must receive and hold the accused in custody until the accused is brought to trial or judgment, as the case may be, or is legally discharged, the expense for conveying and returning the accused, or any other, to be paid in the first instance by the county from which the accused is sent, but such county may recover the same from another county or municipal body bound to provide for or maintain the accused elsewhere, and the sheriff shall be allowed for the sheriff's services the same fees as are allowed for conveying convicts to the penitentiary.

814.1 Definition of appeal and discretionary review.

For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Appeal" is the right of both the defendant and the state to have specified actions of the district court considered by an appellate court.

2. "Discretionary review" is the process by which an appellate court may exercise its discretion, in like manner as under the rules pertaining to interlocutory appeals and certiorari in civil cases, to review specified matters not subject to appeal as a matter of right. The supreme court may adopt additional rules to control access to discretionary review.

814.2 Parties — how designated on appeal.

The party seeking review shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the appellee, but the title of the action shall not be changed from that in the district court.

[R60, §4818, 4819; C73, §4531, 4532; C97, §5455; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §14004; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §793.12; C79, 81, §814.2]

814.3 Appeals in cases involving more than one defendant.

When defendants are tried jointly, they may seek discretionary review or may appeal separately or may join. The appellate court may, in the interest of justice, consolidate appeals or applications for discretionary review.

818.1 Agreement with other states.

The interstate extradition compact is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE EXTRADITION COMPACT

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

[C79, 81, §818.1]

818.2 Findings.

The states which are parties to this agreement find that existing* extradition procedures are cumbersome, costly and frequently result in unnecessary delay in the extradition of fugitives. They find further that the provisions of the United States Constitution and United States Code relating to extradition are meant to facilitate the return of fugitives; do not prescribe the exclusive means for return of fugitives; and do not prevent the states from establishing other procedures for this purpose.

[C79, 81, §818.2]

*66GA, ch 1245(2), §1802 effective January 1, 1978

818.3 Definitions.

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "State" means any state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. "Demanding state" means the state in which a crime has been committed and where a charge has been filed against a fugitive whose return for trial is sought.

3. "Asylum state" means the state in which a person for whom the warrant was issued has been found or arrested and from which the person's return to the demanding state is sought.

4. "Fugitive" means any person who is charged with a crime in the demanding state, or any person who has been convicted of a crime in the demanding state and has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his or her bail, probation or parole, and is no longer within the demanding state, whether the person's leaving the demanding state was voluntary or involuntary. For purposes of this division the term "fugitive" further includes a person in the asylum state charged with committing a crime in the demanding state by the doing of an intentional act outside the demanding state which resulted in such crime, as set forth in section 818.15.

5. "Local prosecuting authority" means the chief prosecuting attorney or the attorney's designee, of the governmental unit of the demanding state which has jurisdiction over the crime committed by the fugitive. When the return to the demanding state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in the demanding state and the fugitive has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of bail, probation or parole, the term "local prosecuting authority" includes the chief prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, and in the case of escapes the warden of the institution or the sheriff of the county from which the escape was made, and in such cases these officials may make demand for return of the fugitive in accordance with the provisions of this compact.

6. "Chief law enforcement officer" means county sheriff, chief of police or other chief law enforcement officer in the local governmental unit wherein the fugitive is located, and when the fugitive is confined in a penitentiary or reformatory, it includes the warden or chief administrative officer of that institution.

[C79, 81, §818.3]

818.4 Demand for return.

The local prosecuting authority of the demanding state shall have the authority to issue a demand for the return of a fugitive. The demand shall be made to a chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state where the accused has been found.

[C79, 81, §818.4]

818.5 Contents of demand.

Demand for the extradition of a fugitive under this chapter shall be in writing or by other official communication setting forth the crime with which the fugitive is charged, or that the fugitive has escaped confinement or broken the terms of the fugitive's bail, probation, or parole. Said demand shall allege that a crime was committed in the demanding state and that the person sought is a fugitive within the meaning of this compact.

[C79, 81, §818.5]

Referred to in §818.13, 818.15

818.6 Arrest of fugitive.

A chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state who receives the demand is authorized to cause the arrest of the fugitive in accordance with the laws of the asylum state.

[C79, 81, §818.6]

818.7 Procedure after arrest.

When an arrest has been made the fugitive shall be taken for an appearance before a judge of court of record who shall inform the fugitive of the demand made for the fugitive's surrender and of the crime with which the fugitive is charged, or other reason for the demand as set forth in section 818.15. Said judge shall apprise the fugitive of the fugitive's legal rights and shall advise said fugitive of the fugitive's right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

[C79, 81, §818.7]

818.8 Confinement of fugitive.

If, at the fugitive's appearance, it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged or has escaped confinement or broken the terms of the person's bail, probation, or parole and, except in cases arising under section 818.15, that the fugitive has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate before whom the fugitive is taken must, by warrant reciting the accusation, commit the fugitive to jail. Such commitment shall occur unless the accused give bail as provided in section 818.14 or is otherwise legally discharged. When the accused is confined pursuant to this section, said confinement shall be for the time specified in the warrant, but not exceeding fifteen days, as will enable the arrest of the fugitive to be made under a warrant issued by the authorities of the state having jurisdiction of the crime. If a writ of habeas corpus is applied for, the time established in this section shall be extended until such writ is disposed of.

[C79, 81, §818.8]

818.9 Warrant for conveyance.

The local prosecuting authority of the demanding state shall cause a warrant to be issued to an agent, commanding the agent to receive the fugitive when delivered to the agent and convey the fugitive to the proper officer of the local jurisdiction in the demanding state.

[C79, 81, §818.9]

818.10 Surrender of fugitive.

Said designated agent of the demanding state may at all times enter the asylum state for the purpose of making demand for the surrender of the fugitive. Upon demand and proof of authority, the fugitive shall be released and surrendered to the agent's custody subject to the provisions of sections 818.11 and 818.12 unless a petition for habeas corpus has been applied for and is pending before the court. All requirements to obtain extradition other than provided in this compact are hereby waived on the part of the state party hereto as to such fugitive.

[C79, 81, §818.10]

818.11 Prosecution pending.

If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against the fugitive under the laws of the asylum state and is still pending, the prosecuting authority of the asylum state in its discretion may either surrender the fugitive on demand or hold the fugitive until the fugitive has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in the asylum state.

[C79, 81, §818.11]

Referred to in §818 10

818.12 Extradition during imprisonment.

When it is desired to have returned to the demanding state a person sentenced in the asylum state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned, the governor of the asylum state may agree with the governor of the demanding state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of the prisoner's term or sentence upon condition that such person be returned to the asylum state as soon as the prosecution in the demanding state is terminated.

[C79, 81, §818.12]

Referred to in §818 10

818.13 Review — habeas corpus hearing.

The guilt or innocence of the fugitive as to the crime of which the fugitive is charged is not reviewable by any official of the asylum state or in any proceeding in the asylum state after the demand for extradition. When a habeas corpus hearing is held pursuant to section 818.5, the judge shall cause to be presented to the fugitive a certified copy of the indictment found or information from the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon; or a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state that the fugitive has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of the fugitive's bail, probation or parole. Notice of such habeas corpus hearing including the time and place thereof shall be given to the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state.

818.14 Bail.

Unless the crime with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the demanding state, a judge or magistrate in the asylum state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as the judge or magistrate deems proper, conditioned for the prisoner's appearance before the judge or magistrate at a time specified in such bond, and for the prisoner's surrender. In the event of a violation of the conditions of said bond, forfeiture thereof and recovery thereon may be had as in the case of appearance bonds given by accused persons in criminal proceedings in the asylum state.

[C79, 81, §818.14]

Referred to in §818 8

818.15 Interstate crimes.

A chief law enforcement officer of the local governmental unit in the asylum state may surrender, on demand of the local prosecuting authority of the demanding state, any person in the asylum state charged in the demanding state in the manner provided in section 818.5 with committing an act in the asylum state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the demanding state. The provisions of this compact not otherwise inconsistent shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

[C79, 81, §818.15]

Referred to in §818 3, 818 7, 818 8

818.16 Expenses and costs.

The expenses incurred in extradition shall be assessed to the governmental unit of the demanding state seeking the return of the fugitive, but this provision shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal arrangements between a party state and its subdivisions as to the payment of costs or responsibilities therefor. These expenses shall include fees paid to the officers of the asylum state and all necessary and actual traveling expenses incurred in returning the prisoner.

[C79, 81, §818.16]

818.17 Administrator's duties.

Each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this compact.

[C79, 81, §818.17]

Referred to in §818 18

818.18 Administrator of interstate extradition.

The governor of this state shall appoint an administrator of interstate extradition to serve in such capacity for a period and under terms determined by the governor. Said administrator shall fulfill the duties set forth in section 818 17 and such other necessary duties as may be required for the administration of this compact.

[C79, 81, §818 18]

818.19 Effective date — withdrawal.

This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this compact may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated at the time such withdrawal takes effect.

[C79, 81, §818 19]

818.20 Uniform criminal extradition Act unaffected.

This compact provides an alternate procedure to the uniform criminal extradition Act, which remains in full force and effect, a state seeking return of a fugitive may proceed under this compact, or under the uniform criminal extradition Act. Where another state seeks return of a fugitive under this compact, the governor of this state may intervene at any time prior to surrender of the fugitive and require the proceedings to be stayed subject to investigation and appropriate orders relating to custody of the fugitive by the governor.

[C79, 81, §818 20]

818.21 Construction — validity — constitutionality.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

818.22 Enforcement.

All courts, departments, agencies, officers and employees of this state and its political subdivisions are hereby directed to enforce the interstate extradition compact and to cooperate with one another and with other party states in enforcing the compact and effectuating its purpose.

[C79, 81, §818 22]

818.23 Copies of compact transmitted.

Copies of this chapter shall, upon its approval, be transmitted to the governor of each state, the attorney general and the administrator of general services of the United States, and the council of state governments.

[C79, 81, §818 23]

818.24 Short title.

CHAPTER 821

AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS COMPACT

Referred to in §602.6405

This chapter was not enacted as a part of the criminal code but was transferred here from chapter 759A, Code 1977

- 821.1 Agreement with other states.
- 821.2 Court defined.
- 821.3 Co-operation.
- 821.4 Habitual criminals.

- 821.5 Escape in another state.
- 821.6 Transfer of custody.
- 821.7 Detainer administrator.
- 821.8 Copies of law transmitted.

821.1 Agreement with other states.

The agreement on detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of co-operative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such co-operative procedures.

ARTICLE II

As used in this agreement:

a. "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b. "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that the prisoner initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to Article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article IV hereof.

c. "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to Article III or Article IV hereof.

ARTICLE III

Referred to in Articles II, V and VI

a. Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, the prisoner shall be brought to trial within one hundred eighty days after the prisoner shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of the prisoner's imprisonment and the prisoner's request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint: Provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or the prisoner's counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

b. The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested

c The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform the prisoner of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against the prisoner and shall also inform the prisoner of the prisoner's right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based d Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainees have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

e Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph "d" hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon the prisoner, after completion of the prisoner's term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of the prisoner's body in any court where the prisoner's presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

f Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to the prisoner's execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall void the request.

ARTICLE IV
Referred to in Articles II, V and VI a The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom the officer has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V "a" hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated. Provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request. And provided further that there shall be a period of thirty days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon the governor's own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

b Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainees against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

c In respect of any proceeding made possible by this Article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or the prisoner's counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

d Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which the prisoner may have to contest the legality of the prisoner's delivery as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

e If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V "e" hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

ARTICLE V
Referred to in Article IV (a, e)

a In response to a request made under Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

b The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of the officer's or other representative's authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

c If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

d The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for the prisoner's attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which the prisoner's presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

e At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

f During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

g For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

h From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

ARTICLE VI

a In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

b No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

ARTICLE VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

ARTICLE IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected.

thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.4; C79, 81, §821.4]

821.5 Escape in another state.

Escape from custody while in another state, pursuant to this agreement on detainers shall constitute an offense against the laws of this state to the same extent and degree as an escape from the institution in which the prisoner was confined immediately prior to having been sent to another state pursuant to the provisions of the agreement on detainers and shall be punishable in the same manner as an escape from said institution.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §759A.5; C79, 81, §821.5]

The court may consider information from other sources. The court shall order a presentence investigation when the offense is a class "B," class "C," or class "D" felony. The investigation shall be made by the judicial district department of correctional services.

The purpose of the report by the judicial district department of correctional services is to provide the court pertinent information for purposes of sentencing and to include suggestions for correctional planning for use by correctional authorities subsequent to sentencing.

For a period of thirty days from the date when a person convicted of a misdemeanor begins to serve a sentence of confinement, the court may order the person to be returned to the court, at which time the court may review its previous action and reaffirm it or substitute for it any sentence permitted by law. 83 Acts, ch 147, §2, 14, 15

903A.2 Good conduct time.

Each inmate of an institution under the Iowa department of corrections, is eligible for a reduction of sentence of one day for each day of good conduct of the inmate while committed to one of the department's institutions. In addition to the sentence reduction of one day for each day of good conduct, each inmate is eligible for an additional reduction of sentence of up to five days a month if the inmate participates satisfactorily in employment in the institution, in Iowa state industries, in an inmate employment program established by the director, or in an inmate educational program approved by the director. Reduction of sentence pursuant to this section may be subject to forfeiture pursuant to section 903A.3. Computation of good conduct time is subject to the following conditions:

1. Time served in jail or other facility, credited by the clerk of court prior to actual placement in a correctional institution, shall accrue for purposes of reduction of sentence under this section.

2. Time spent during escape shall not accrue for purposes of reduction of sentence under this section. An inmate who intentionally escapes may forfeit all good conduct time accrued and not forfeited prior to the escape.

3. Time between parole violation, which violation is determined by the board of parole at the final parole violation hearing, and incarceration shall not accrue for purposes of reduction of sentence under this section.

4. Good conduct time earned and not forfeited shall accrue to an inmate serving a life sentence. The good conduct time so accrued does not apply to reduce the life sentence, but shall be credited to the inmate on the date of commutation, if the life sentence is commuted to a term of years.

5. Except in life sentences, good conduct time shall be credited to the maximum sentence annually on the date of admission.

83 Acts, ch 147, §3, 14, 15

903A.3 Loss or forfeiture of good conduct time.

1. Upon finding that an inmate has violated an institutional rule, the independent hearing officer may order forfeiture of any or all good conduct time earned and not forfeited up to the date of the violation by the inmate. The independent hearing officer has discretion within the guidelines established pursuant to section 903A.4, to determine the amount of time that should be forfeited based upon the severity of the violation. Prior violations by the inmate may be considered by the hearing officer in the decision.

2. The orders of the hearing officer are subject to appeal to the superintendent or warden of the institution, or the superintendent's or warden's designee, who may either affirm, modify, remand for correction of procedural errors, or reverse an order. However, sanctions shall not be increased on appeal. A decision of the superintendent, warden, or designee is subject to review by the director of the Iowa department of corrections who may either affirm, modify, remand for correction of procedural errors, or reverse the decision. However, sanctions shall not be increased on review.

3. The director of the Iowa department of corrections or the director's designee, may restore all or any portion of previously forfeited good conduct time for acts of heroism or for meritorious actions. The director shall establish by rule the requirements as to which activities may warrant the restoration of good conduct time and the amount of good conduct time to be restored.

4. The inmate disciplinary procedure, including but not limited to the method of awarding or forfeiting time pursuant to this chapter, is not a contested case subject to chapter 17A.

The director of the Iowa department of corrections shall develop policy and procedural rules to implement sections 903A.1 through 903A.3. The rules may specify disciplinary offenses which may result in the loss of good conduct time, and the amount of good conduct time which may be lost as a result of each disciplinary offense. The director shall establish rules as to what constitutes "satisfactory participation" for purposes of additional reduction of sentence under section 903A.3, for employment in the institution, in Iowa state industries, in an inmate employment program established by the director, or for participation in an educational program approved by the director, when such employment or programs are available.

83 Acts, ch 147, §5, 14, 15

Referred to in §663A 2, 903A 3

903A.5 Time to be served — credit.

An inmate shall not be discharged from the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections until the inmate has served the full term for which the inmate was sentenced, less good conduct time earned and not forfeited, unless the inmate is pardoned or otherwise legally released. Good conduct time earned and not forfeited shall apply to reduce a mandatory minimum sentence being served pursuant to section 204.406, 204.413, 902.7, 902.8, or 906.5. An inmate shall be deemed to be serving the sentence from the day on which the inmate is received into the institution. However, if an inmate was confined to a county jail or other correctional or mental facility at any time prior to sentencing, or after sentencing but prior to the case having been decided on appeal, because of failure to furnish bail or because of being charged with a nonbailable offense, the inmate shall be given credit for the days already served upon the term of the sentence. The clerk of the district court of the county from which the inmate was sentenced, shall certify to the warden the number of days so served.

The district board shall:

1. Adopt bylaws and rules for the conduct of its own business and for the government of the district department's community-based correctional program.

2. Employ a director having the qualifications required by section 905.6 to head the district department's community-based correctional program and, within a range established by the Iowa department of corrections, fix the compensation of and have control over the director and the district department's staff. 3. Designate one of the counties in the judicial district to serve as the district department's administrative agent to provide, in that capacity, all accounting, personnel, facilities management and supportive services needed by the district department, on terms mutually agreeable in regard to advancement of funds to the county for the added expense it incurs as a result of being so designated. However, the district board may designate the district department itself as the district department's administrative agent, if the district board determines that it would be more efficient and less costly than designating a county as the administrative agent.

6. Have authority to accept property by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise and to sell or exchange any property so accepted and apply the proceeds thereof, or the property received in exchange therefor, to the purposes enumerated in subsection 5.

7. Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the district department's community-based correctional program from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies and other lawful sources.

It is the intent of this chapter that a district board shall approve the development and maintenance of such resources by its own staff only if the resources are otherwise unavailable to the district department within reasonable proximity to the community where these services are needed in connection with the community-based correctional program.

10. Establish a project advisory committee to act in an advisory capacity on matters pertaining to the planning, operation, and other pertinent functions of each project in the judicial district.

906.4 Standards for release on parole.

A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency. The board shall release on parole any person whom it has the power to so release, when in its opinion there is reasonable probability that such person can be released without detriment to the community or to the person. A person's release is not a detriment to the communi-

Thereafter, at regular intervals, not to exceed one year, the board shall interview the person and consider the person's prospects for parole. At such time, the board shall consider all pertinent information regarding this person, including the circumstances of the person's offense, any presentence report which may be available, the previous social history and criminal record of the person, the person's conduct, employment, and attitude in prison, and the reports of physical and mental examinations that have been made.

If the person who is under consideration for parole is serving a sentence for conviction of a felony and has a criminal record of one or more prior convictions for a forcible felony or a crime of a similar gravity in this or any other state, parole shall be denied unless the person has served at least one half of the maximum term of the defendant's sentence. However, the mandatory sentence provided for by this section shall not apply if the sentence being served is for a felony other than a forcible felony and the sentences for the prior forcible felonies expired at least five years before the date of conviction for the present felony.

A person while on parole is under the supervision of the district department of correctional services of the district designated by the board of parole. The department of corrections shall prescribe regulations for governing persons on parole. The board may adopt other rules not inconsistent with the rules of the department of corrections as it deems proper or necessary for the performance of its functions.

Probation officers shall keep records of their work and shall make reports to the court when alleged violations occur and within no less than thirty days before the period of probation will expire. 907.3 Deferred judgment, deferred sentence or suspended sentence.

Pursuant to section 901.5, the trial court may, upon a plea of guilty, a verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction may be rendered, exercise any of the options contained in subsections 1 and 2 of this section. However, this section shall not apply to a forcible felony.

1. With the consent of the defendant, the court may defer judgment and place the defendant on probation upon such conditions as it may require, or defer sentence and assign the defendant to the judicial district department of correctional services. Upon a showing that such person is not co-operating with the program or is not responding to it, the court may withdraw the person from the program and impose any sentence authorized by law. Before taking such action, the court shall give the person an opportunity to be heard on any matter relevant to the proposed action. Upon fulfillment of the conditions of probation, the defendant shall be discharged without entry of judgment. Upon violation of the conditions of probation, the court may proceed as provided in chapter 908.

However, this subsection shall not apply if any of the following is true:

a. The offense is a violation of section 709.8 and the child is twelve years of age or under.

b. The defendant previously has been convicted of a felony. "Felony" means a conviction in a court of this or any other state or of the United States, of an offense classified as a felony by the law under which the defendant was convicted at the time of the defendant's conviction.

c. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief, two or more times anywhere in the United States.

d. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief in a felony prosecution anywhere in the United States within the preceding five years, measured from the date of granting of deferment of judgment to the date of commission of the offense.

e. The defendant committed an assault as defined in section 708.1, against a peace officer in the performance of the peace officer's duty.

f. The defendant is a corporation.

g. The offense is a violation of section 321.281 and, within the previous six years, the person has been convicted of a violation of that section or the person's driver's license has been revoked pursuant to that section or chapter 321B.

2. By record entry at the time of or after sentencing, the court may suspend the sentence and place the defendant on probation upon such terms and conditions as it may require including commitment to an alternate jail facility or a community correctional residential treatment facility for a specific number of days to be followed by a term of probation as specified in section 907.7. A person so committed who has probation revoked shall be given credit for such time served.

Before granting deferment in any case, the court shall request of the supreme court administrator a search of the deferred judgment docket and shall consider any prior record of a deferment of judgment against the defendant. The permanent record provided for in this section shall constitute a confidential record exempted from public access under section 22.7 and shall be available only to justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, district judges, district associate judges, and judicial magistrates, and county attorneys requesting information pursuant to this section or the designee of such justice, judge, magistrate, or county attorney.

907.5 Standards for release on probation — written reasons.

Before deferring judgment, deferring sentence, or suspending sentence, the court first shall determine which option, if available, will provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant and protection of the community from further offenses by the defendant and others. In making this determination the court shall consider the age of the defendant; the defendant's prior record of convictions and prior record of deferments of judgment if any; the defendant's employment circumstances; the defendant's family circumstances; the nature of the offense committed; and such other factors as are appropriate. The court shall file a specific written statement of its reasons for and the facts supporting its decision to defer judgment, to defer sentence, or to suspend sentence, and its decision on the length of probation.

907.6 Conditions of probation — regulations.

Probationers are subject to the conditions established by the judicial district department of correctional services subject to the approval of the court, and any additional reasonable conditions which the court may impose to promote rehabilitation of the defendant or protection of the community. Conditions may include but are not limited to adherence to regulations generally applicable to persons released on parole and including requiring unpaid community service as allowed pursuant to section 907.13.

907.7 Length of probation.

The length of the probation shall be for such term as the court may fix but not to exceed five years if the offense is a felony or not to exceed two years if the offense is a misdemeanor.

The length of the probation shall not be less than one year if the offense is a misdemeanor and shall not be less than two years if the offense is a felony. However, the court may subsequently reduce the length of the probation if the court determines that the purposes of probation have been fulfilled. The purposes of probation are to provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant and to protect the community from further offenses by the defendant and others.

In determining the length of the probation, the court shall determine what period is most likely to provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant, to allow enough time to determine whether or not rehabilitation has been successful, and to protect the community from further offenses by the defendant and others.

A person released on probation shall be assigned to a probation officer. Both the person and the person's probation officer shall be furnished with the conditions of the person's probation including a copy of the plan of restitution and the restitution plan of payment, if any, and the regulations which the person will be required to observe, in writing. The probation officer shall explain these conditions and regulations to the person and shall supervise, assist, and counsel the person during the term of the person's probation.

When probation is granted, the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision:

1. Of any suitable resident of this state; or
2. Of the judicial district department of correctional services.*

Jurisdiction of these persons shall remain with the sentencing court.

In each case wherein the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision of the judicial district department of correctional services, the clerk of the district court shall at once furnish the director of the judicial district department of correctional services with certified copies of the indictment or information, the minutes of testimony attached thereto, the judgment entry if judgment is not deferred, and the original mittimus. The county attorney shall at once advise the director, by letter, that the defendant has been placed under the supervision of the judicial district department of correctional services and give the director a detailed statement of the facts and circumstances surrounding the crime committed and the record and history of the defendant as may be known to the county attorney. If the defendant is confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order the defendant held until arrangements are made by the judicial district department of correctional services for the defendant's employment and the defendant has signed the necessary probation papers. If the defendant is not confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order the defendant to remain in the county wherein the defendant has been convicted and sentenced and report to the sheriff as to the defendant's whereabouts.

Upon discharge from probation, if judgment has been deferred under section 907.3, the court's criminal record with reference to the deferred judgment shall be expunged. 907.13 Community service sentencing — liability — workers' compensation.

1. The court may establish as a condition of probation that the defendant perform unpaid community service for a time not to exceed the maximum period of confinement for the offense of which the defendant is convicted. If this condition is established, the defendant in co-operation with the probation officer assigned to the defendant and in co-operation with the judicial district department of correctional services, shall promptly prepare a plan to implement the community service condition. The plan shall include but shall not be limited to the suggested placement of the defendant and the suggested number of hours of services to be required.

2. The defendant's plan of community service, the comments of the defendant's probation officer, and the comments of the representative of the judicial district department of correctional services responsible for the unpaid community service program, shall be submitted promptly to the court. The court shall promptly enter an order approving the plan or modifying it. Compliance with the plan of community service as approved or modified by the court shall be a condition of the defendant's probation. The court thereafter may modify the plan at any time upon the defendant's request, upon the request of the judicial district department of correctional services, or upon the court's own motion.

3. At any time during the probation period the defendant may request and the court shall grant a hearing on any matter related to the plan of community service.

4. Failure of the defendant to comply with subsection 1 or to comply with the plan of community service as approved or modified by the court shall constitute a violation of the conditions of probation. Without limitation, the court may modify the plan of community service or modify the required hours of service, but not beyond the maximum hours of service specified in subsection 1.

5. The state of Iowa is exclusively liable, according to and under chapter 25A, for a tortious act committed by a defendant while performing unpaid community service.

6. The state of Iowa is exclusively liable for and shall pay any compensation becoming due any person under section 85.59.

[C79, 81, §908.1]

908.2 Initial appearance — bail.

An officer making an arrest of an alleged parole violator shall take the arrested person before a magistrate without unnecessary delay for an initial appearance. At that time the alleged parole violator shall be furnished with a written notice of the claimed violation, shall be advised of the right to appointed counsel under rule 26 of the rules of criminal procedure, and shall be given notice that a hearing will take place and that its purpose is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the alleged parole violator has committed a parole violation.

The magistrate may order the alleged parole violator confined in the county jail or may order the alleged parole violator released on bail under terms and conditions as the magistrate may require. Admittance to bail is discretionary with the magistrate and is not a matter of right. A person for whom bail is set may make application for amendment of bail to a district judge or district associate judge having jurisdiction to amend the order. The motion shall be promptly set for hearing and a record shall be made of the hearing.

84 Acts, ch 1089, §1

Referred to in §908 6

The probable cause hearing shall be held in the same county as the alleged parole violator had the initial appearance.

[C79, 81, §908 3]

908.4 Probable cause hearing.

At the probable cause hearing, a liaison officer appointed pursuant to section 904 5 and who is an attorney shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the alleged parole violator has violated parole. The alleged parole violator shall be informed of the inculpatory evidence. The alleged parole violator shall be given an opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and other evidence. The alleged parole violator shall have the right to confront and cross examine adverse witnesses, except where the liaison officer finds that a witness would be subjected to risk or harm if the witness' identity were disclosed.

[C79, 81, §908 4]

908.5 Waiver of probable cause hearing.

The alleged parole violator may waive the probable cause hearing, in which event the liaison officer shall proceed as upon a finding of probable cause. Before accepting a waiver of hearing, the liaison officer shall inform the alleged violator of the charge, of the alleged violator's right to a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that parole has been violated, and that if the hearing is waived, the alleged violator will be committed to the custody of the Iowa department of corrections without further proceedings, to await the determination of the parole board. The liaison officer shall make a verbatim record of the proceedings in which the hearing is waived.

[C79, 81, §908 5]

83 Acts, ch 96, §149, 159

908.6 Disposition by liaison officer.

If it appears from the evidence that there is no probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall order the arrested person to be released from custody and continued on parole. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall commit the arrested person to the custody of the Iowa department of corrections, and the procedure prescribed in section 901 7 shall apply to the commitment, or the liaison officer may recommend that the arrested person be admitted to bail as provided in section 908 2. The liaison officer shall make a summary of the testimony and other evidence considered and a statement of the facts relied on as a basis for the finding of probable cause or no probable cause, and shall without delay forward them together with all documents relating to the matter to the executive secretary of the parole board. If the alleged parole violator has waived the probable cause hearing, the verbatim record of that proceeding shall be forwarded in lieu of the summary of evidence and statement of facts.

[C79, 81, §908 6]

83 Acts, ch 96, §150, 159

908 7 Action by parole board.

Upon a finding of probable cause to believe that a parole violation has occurred, the board of parole or a panel of three or more members of the board shall proceed without unreasonable delay to hear the charge of parole violation. Upon receipt of the record prepared and forwarded by the liaison officer, the board or panel of three or more members of the board shall fix a time and place for the hearing and shall notify in writing the alleged violator, the alleged violator's attorney of record, if any, and the Iowa department of corrections of the hearing and the claimed violation of parole. The alleged violator shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the board or panel of three or more members of the board under rules the board shall adopt. The inquiry shall be limited to the following two matters:

1 Did the alleged parole violation actually occur?

2 If the violation did occur, should the violator's parole be revoked?

If the board or panel of three or more members of the board determines that the parole should be revoked, it shall make an order revoking the parole. The board or panel of three or more members of the board shall furnish the violator with a written statement of the facts relied upon to establish a violation and the reasons for revoking parole.

83 Acts, ch 96, §151, 159, 84 Acts, ch 1156, §1

908.8 Proceeding without arrest or probable cause.

The board of parole may receive from a parole officer a charge or complaint of parole violation against any parolee and the board or a panel of three or more members of the board may proceed to a hearing on the charge in any case where the alleged violator has not been arrested or has been arrested and discharged by the liaison officer on a finding of no probable cause. The presence of the alleged violator at the hearing shall be secured by summons. A statement of the charge against the alleged violator shall accompany the summons, and the parole officer shall give the alleged violator assistance as needed to get to the place of the hearing. Travel expenses, if any, shall be paid by the board. If the alleged violator fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the summons, the failure shall be considered a violation of the parole, and the board or panel of three or more members of the board may proceed to revoke parole. If the parole is revoked, the board or panel of three or more members of the board shall issue a warrant for the person's arrest and return to the custody of the Iowa department of corrections. Upon the person's return to custody, the board or panel of three or more members of the board, upon request, shall give the person an opportunity to present any matters in defense or mitigation of the conduct.

908.9 Disposition of violator

If the parole of a parole violator is revoked, the violator shall remain in the custody of the Iowa department of corrections under the terms of the parolee's original commitment. If the parole of a parole violator is not revoked, the board shall order the person's release subject to the terms of the person's parole with any modifications that the board determines proper.

[C79, 81, §908.9]

83 Acts, ch 96, §153, 159

908.10 Conviction of other offense as violation

When the alleged violation consists of a conviction of a public offense in this or any other state, such conviction shall be proved by a certified copy of the judgment of conviction, together with evidence that the alleged violator is the person against whom the judgment was rendered. Neither the liaison officer, court, nor board of parole shall retry the facts underlying such conviction.

[C79, 81, §908.10]

908.11 Violation of probation.

A probation officer or the judicial district department of correctional services having probable cause to believe that any person released on probation has violated the conditions of probation shall proceed by arrest or summons as in the case of a parole violation. The functions of the liaison officer and the board of parole shall be performed by the judge or magistrate who placed the alleged violator on probation if that judge or magistrate is available otherwise by another judge or magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to try the original offense. If the probation officer proceeds by arrest, any magistrate may receive the complaint, issue an arrest warrant, or conduct the initial appearance and probable cause hearing if it is not convenient for the judge who placed the alleged violator on probation to do so. The initial appearance, probable cause hearing, and probation revocation hearing or any of them may at the discretion of the court be merged into a single hearing when it appears that the alleged violator will not be prejudiced thereby. If the violation is established, the court may continue the probation with or without an alteration of the conditions of probation. If the defendant is an adult, the court may hold the defendant in contempt of court and sentence the defendant to a jail term while continuing the probation, or may revoke the probation and require the defendant to serve the sentence imposed or any lesser sentence, and, if imposition of sentence was deferred, may impose any sentence which might originally have been imposed.

910.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Victim" means any person who has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the offender's criminal activities. However, for purposes of this chapter, an insurer is not a victim and does not have a right of subrogation

2 "Pecuniary damages" means all damages to the extent not paid by an insurer, which a victim could recover against the offender in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event, except punitive damages and damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and loss of consortium. Without limitation, "pecuniary damages" includes damages for wrongful death

3 "Criminal activities" means any crime for which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered and any other crime committed after July 1, 1982 which is admitted or not contested by the offender, whether or not prosecuted. However, "criminal activities" does not include simple misdemeanors under chapter 321

4 "Restitution" means payment of pecuniary damages to a victim in an amount and in the manner provided by the offender's plan of restitution. Restitution shall also include the payment of court costs, court appointed attorney's fees or the expense of a public defender, and the performance of a public serv ice by an offender in an amount set by the court when the offender cannot reasonably pay all or part of the court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees or the expense of a public defender.

83 Acts, ch 15, §1, 3

1983 amendments applicable only to persons sentenced on or after July 1, 1983

910.2 Restitution ordered by sentencing court.

In all criminal cases except simple misdemeanors under chapter 321, in which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered, the sentencing court shall order that restitution be made by each offender to the victims of the offender's criminal activities and, to the extent that the offender is reasonably able to do so, to the county where conviction was rendered for court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees or the expense of a public defender when applicable. However, victims shall be paid in full before restitution payments are paid to the county for court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees or for the expense of a public defender. When the offender is not reasonably able to pay all or a part of the court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees or the expense of a public defender, the court may require the offender in lieu of that portion of the court costs, court-appointed attorney's fees, or expense of a public defender for which the offender is not reasonably able to pay, to perform a needed public service for any governmental agency or for a private, nonprofit agency which provides a service to the youth, elderly or poor of the community. When community service is ordered, the court shall set a specific number of hours of service to be performed by the offender. The judicial district department of correctional services shall provide for the assignment of the offender to a public agency or private nonprofit agency to perform the required service.

1983 amendments applicable only to persons sentenced on or after July 1, 1983

910.3 Determination of amount of restitution.

The court shall require the county attorney to promptly prepare a statement of pecuniary damages to victims of the defendant and shall require the clerk of court to prepare a statement of court-appointed attorney's fees, the expense of a public defender and court costs which shall be promptly provided to the presentence investigator. These statements shall become a part of the presentence report. If a defendant believes no person suffered pecuniary damages, the defendant shall so state. If the defendant has any mental or physical impairment which would limit or prohibit the performance of a public service, the defendant shall so state. The court may order a mental or physical examination, or both, of the defendant to determine a proper course of action. At the time of sentencing or at a later date to be determined by the court, the court shall set out the amount of restitution including the amount of public service to be performed as restitution and the persons to whom restitution must be paid. This shall be known as the plan

[C75, 77, §789A.8; C79, 81, §907.12; 82 Acts, ch 1162, §4]

84 Acts, ch 1041, §1

910.4 Condition of probation — payment plan.

When restitution is ordered by the sentencing court and the offender is placed on probation, restitution shall be a condition of probation. Failure of the offender to comply with the plan of restitution, plan of payment, or community service requirements when community service is ordered by the court as restitution, shall constitute a violation of probation and shall constitute contempt of court. The court may hold the offender in contempt, revoke probation, or may extend the period of probation in such circumstances. However, if the period of probation is extended it shall not be for more than the maximum period of probation for the offense committed as provided in section 907.7.

If an offender's probation is revoked, his or her assigned probation officer shall forward to the director of the division of adult corrections, information concerning the offender's restitution plan, restitution plan of payment, the restitution payment balance, and any other pertinent information concerning or affecting restitution by the offender.

When the offender is committed to a county jail, or to an alternate facility, the office or individual charged with supervision of the offender shall prepare a restitution plan of payment taking into consideration the offender's income, physical and mental health, age, education, employment and family circumstances. The office or individual charged with supervision of the offender shall review the plan of restitution ordered by the court, and shall submit a restitution plan of payment to the sentencing court. When community service is ordered by the court as restitution, the restitution plan of payment shall set out a plan to meet the requirement for the community service. The court may approve or modify the plan of restitution and restitution plan of payment. When there is a significant change in the offender's income or circumstances, the office or individual which has supervision of the plan of payment shall submit a modified restitution plan of payment to the court. When there is a transfer of supervision from one office or individual charged with supervision of the offender to another, the sending office or individual shall forward to the receiving office or individual all necessary information regarding the balance owed against the original amount of restitution ordered and the balance of public service required. When the offender's circumstances and income have significantly changed, the receiving office or individual shall submit a new plan of payment to the sentencing court for approval or modification based on the considerations enumerated in this section.

Referred to in §910.6

910.5 Condition of work release or parole.

1. When an offender is committed to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections pursuant to a sentence of confinement, the sentencing court shall forward to the director, a copy of the offender's restitution plan, present restitution payment plan if any, and other pertinent information concerning or affecting restitution by the offender. However, if the offender is committed to the custody of the director after revocation of probation, this information shall be forwarded by the offender's probation officer.

An offender committed to a penal or correctional facility of the state, shall make restitution while placed in that facility. Upon commitment to the custody of the director of the division of adult corrections, the director or the director's designee shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or modify any existing plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. The director or the director's designee may modify the plan of payment at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances.

2. If an offender is to be placed on work release from an institution under the control of the director of the division of adult corrections, restitution shall be a condition of work release. The chief of the bureau of community correctional services of the division of adult corrections, shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. The bureau chief may modify the plan of payment at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment, including the community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of work release and the work release privilege may be revoked.

3. If an offender is to be placed on work release from a facility under control of a county sheriff or the judicial district department of correctional services, restitution shall be a condition of work release. The office or individual charged with supervision of the offender shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including the community service requirement, if any, constitutes a violation of a condition of work release. The office or individual charged with supervision of the offender may modify the plan of restitution at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances.

4. If an offender is to be placed on parole, restitution shall be a condition of parole. The district department of correctional services to which the offender will be assigned shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including a community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of parole. The parole officer may modify the plan of payment any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances. A restitution plan of payment or modified plan of payment, prepared by a parole officer, must meet the approval of the director of the district department of correctional services.

5. IOWA*

Iowa was organized as a Territory by Act of June 12, 1838, effective July 3, from a portion of Wisconsin Territory. The limits were defined as follows in the Act¹ creating it:

all that part of the present Territory of Wisconsin which lies west of the Mississippi river, and west of a line drawn due north from the headwaters or sources of the Mississippi to the Territorial line.

The approximate position of the outlet of Lake Itasca, which is generally accepted as the source of the Mississippi, is latitude $47^{\circ} 15' \frac{1}{3}$, longitude $95^{\circ} 12' \frac{1}{2}$. The river runs north-westward for about 6 miles before it turns east. The north-south boundary line across the western part of the Lake of the Woods is in longitude $95^{\circ} 09' 11.6''$ (p.14).

The following clause from an Act passed in 1839 is supplementary to the Act above quoted:²

That the middle or center of the main channel of the Mississippi shall be deemed, and is hereby declared, to be the eastern boundary line of the Territory of Iowa, so far or to such extent as the said Territory is bounded eastwardly by or upon said river.

On March 3, 1845, an Act was approved for the admission of Iowa to the Union as a State, but the Act required that the assent of the people of Iowa be given to it by popular vote. In this Act the boundaries were given as follows:³

That the following shall be the boundaries of said State of Iowa, to wit: Beginning at the mouth of the Des Moines River, at the middle of the Mississippi, thence by the middle of the channel of that river to a parallel of latitude passing through the mouth of the Mankato or Blue-Earth river [latitude $44^{\circ} 10'$], thence west along the said parallel of latitude to a point where it is intersected by a meridian line, seventeen degrees and thirty minutes west of the meridian of Washington city, thence due south to the northern boundary line of the State of Missouri, thence eastwardly following that boundary to the point at which the same intersects the Des Moines river, thence by the middle of the channel of that river to the place of beginning.

These boundaries were not acceptable to the people and by a popular vote were rejected.

Another constitutional convention was held in May, 1846, and Congress passed an Act, approved August 4, 1846, fixing the boundaries in accordance with the wishes of the people and described as follows:

Beginning at the middle of the main channel of the Mississippi River at a point due east of the middle of the mouth of the main channel of the Des Moines River; thence up the middle of the main channel of the said Des Moines River to a point on said river where the northern boundary line of the State of Missouri, as established by the constitution of that State, adopted June twelfth, eighteen hundred and twenty, crosses the said middle of the main channel of the said Des Moines River; thence westwardly along the said northern boundary line of the State of Missouri, as established at the time aforesaid, until an extension of said line intersect the middle of the main channel of the Missouri River, thence up the middle of the main channel of the said Missouri River, to a point opposite the middle of the main channel of the Big Sioux River, according to Nicollet's map; thence up the main channel of the said Big Sioux River, according to said map, until it is intersected by the parallel of forty-three degrees and thirty minutes north latitude; thence east along said parallel of forty-three degrees and thirty minutes, until said parallel intersect the middle of the main channel of the Mississippi River; thence down the middle of the main channel of said Mississippi River to the place of beginning.

The admission of Iowa appears to have left a large area to the north and west unattached, which so remained until Minnesota Territory was organized in 1849.

The Act of August 4, 1846, directed that a long-standing dispute between Missouri and Iowa Territory regarding their common boundary* be referred to the United States Supreme Court for adjudication. The area claimed by both was a strip of land about 10 miles wide and 200 miles long, north of the present boundary. Missouri maintained that the clause in that state's enabling Act, "the rapids of the river Des Moines," referred to rapids in the river of that name and not to rapids of a similar name in the Mississippi, also that the Indian boundary line run and marked in 1816 by authority of the United States, known as the Sullivan line, was erroneously established. A line claimed by Missouri was run by J. C. Brown in 1837 by order of the State legislature.

The United States Supreme Court decided in 1849 that the Sullivan line of 1816 is the correct boundary and ordered that it be resurveyed. The report of the commissioners appointed by the court to re-mark the line was accepted in 1851.

So many of the marks on this line as established in 1850 had become lost or destroyed that the United States Supreme Court in 1896 ordered that certain parts be re-established, especially those between mileposts 50 and 55. Accordingly 20 miles of line was resurveyed by officers of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey in 1896, and durable monuments of granite or iron were established thereon. The geographic position of milepost No. 40 was determined as latitude $40^{\circ} 34.4'$, longitude $95^{\circ} 51'$, and that of No. 60 as latitude $40^{\circ} 34.6'$, longitude $93^{\circ} 28'$.

The survey of the north boundary of Iowa on the parallel of $43^{\circ} 30'$, authorized by congressional Act of March 3, 1849, was completed in 1852. The position for each end of the line and for several intermediate points was determined astronomically.

This is the first State thus far noted having a boundary referred to the Washington meridian. Congress by Act approved September 28, 1850, ordered:

That hereafter the meridian of the observatory at Washington shall be adopted and used as the American meridian for all astronomic purposes and * * * Greenwich for nautical purposes.

*The northern boundary of Missouri had been established as "100 miles north of the junction of the Missouri and Kaw (Kansas) rivers and thence east. * * * (See 7 Howard 660 and 10 Howard 1.)"

Sullivan had disregarded the changing declination of his compass as he proceeded east, hence the southern boundary of Iowa is a curve. The following is a quotation from the commissioner's records as reported in 10 Howard (U.S.) 15: "We soon satisfied ourselves that the line run by Sullivan was not only not a due east line, but that it was not straight! That more or less northing should have been made in the old line was to have been expected from the fact that Sullivan ran the whole line with one variation of the needle, and that variation too great. This would account for the fact that the northing increases as he progressed east."

RULES PROMULGATED BY THE SUPREME COURT OMITTED

Section 14 12, subsection 7, Code 1985 provides “The rules of civil procedure rules of criminal procedure, or rules of appellate procedure and other rules prescribed by the supreme court shall be published either in the Code or a supplement to the Code in a manner specified by the supreme court after consultation with the legislative council. The publication as provided in section 14 21 may be made in lieu of a Code or supplement publication for all or a portion of the various rules if specified by the supreme court after consultation with the legislative council. In determining the manner of publication consideration shall be given to whether specific rules are subject to change by submission to the general assembly or by order of the court.”

The Iowa supreme court after consultation with the Iowa legislative council specified that all court rules contained in the publication “Iowa Court Rules” shall be omitted from the Code.

MORTALITY TABLES

The American Experience Table of Mortality was published in the Code of 1939. As stated in the heading to said table it is no part of any statute and is set out as a convenience only to meet numerous requests therefor.

From information obtained from the Commissioner of Insurance and numerous experts on insurance law the Code Editor is advised that the American Experience Table of Mortality is outmoded. Longevity has increased and greater scientific study has been made of the subject of mortality tables since that table was prepared. The results have been that new and more modern tables have been made which are known as the 1941 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, the 1958 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and the 1980 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Mortality Table. The tables have been prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and have been adopted by statute or by the approval of the Insurance Commissioners in practically all of the states including Iowa.

The Code Editor is authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance to say that they are approved by him and used and accepted by him in his official work. The 1958 C.S.O. and the 1980 C.S.O. Tables are included herein as a matter of convenience to those who may have use for such tables. (January 1983)

See sections 508.36 and 508.37 of the Code for reference to other Mortality Tables under the Standard Valuation and Nonforfeiture Law. Also see the State Revenue Department's table at the end of chapter 450 of the Code adopted pursuant to the Inheritance Tax Law.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 12.10 It appears that the 1983 amendments do not conflict, so they were harmonized as authorized in section 4.11 of the Code. In other sections which refer to this note, it has been assumed that a strike or repeal prevails over an amendment to the same material and does not create an irreconcilable conflict; and that the substitution of correct departmental titles as authorized by law does not create a conflict.
- 17A.32 and 17A.33 Although 84 Acts, chapter 1007, sections 2 and 3 referred to "this Act", it seemed apparent in the context that only section 1, numbered as section 17A.31, was intended and the reference has been codified that way.
- 19A.3 83 Acts, chapter 126, section 24 purported to amend unnumbered paragraph 5 of section 19A.3. However, it appears that unnumbered paragraph 4 is the correct reference so the amendment has been applied to that paragraph.
- 28.89 84 Acts, chapter 1067, section 8 and chapter 1303, section 10 both amended the section to change the warrant-signing officer from the treasurer of state to the state comptroller. 84 Acts, chapter 1164, section 4 made extensive changes in the section, including striking and rewriting the provision which contained the words changed in the other Acts. Therefore, the amendments cannot be harmonized in that respect. Chapter 1164 was enacted after chapter 1067, but before chapter 1303. However, the chapter 1164 amendment has been printed since it is a specific substantive change which appears to prevail under sections 4.4 and 4.7 of the Code. A bill will be proposed in the 1985 general assembly to clarify the general assembly's intent.
- 28.90 The amendment by 84 Acts, chapter 1164, section 5 incorporates the amendment by chapter 1067, section 9, so there is no conflict.
- 32.2 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10204 states that if both chapter 186 and 83 Acts, chapter 185 are enacted, and if chapter 185 deposits in the general fund of the state all amounts that would be received from a clerk of the district court under what is now section 602.8106, subsection 3, certain amendments and repeals in chapter 185 shall prevail and what is now section 602.8107 and certain other amendments in the chapters shall be void. Both were enacted as described, but the relevant sections in chapter 185 were not effective until July 1, 1984. It appears that the intent of the general assembly was to change the method of distributing certain moneys on that date, and that the amendments which were to prevail and the section and other amendments which were to be void should prevail and be void on July 1, 1984. Therefore, section 602.8107 and the relevant amendments were printed in Code Supplement 1983 under the assumption that they were in effect until July 1, 1984. They were followed by the prevailing provisions of chapter 185 which were assumed to be effective on that date. In Code 1985 the latter versions only are printed.
- 33.2 Although 84 Acts, chapter 1180, section 7 purported to amend section 33.1 by the addition of a new paragraph, it appears that section 33.2 was intended, since section 33.1 simply lists legal public holidays while section 33.2 provides holiday leave benefits for state employees; therefore, the amendment has been added at the end of the fourth unnumbered paragraph of section 33.2.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 48.3 and 48.6 The amendments in 84 Acts, chapter 1067, sections 11 and 12, and chapter 1291, sections 4 and 5 have been harmonized in accordance with section 4.11 of the Code to include the corrective changes in chapter 1067 and the substantive changes in chapter 1291.
- 80.25A As enacted, this section had an “a” in the phrase “division of (a) criminal investigation.” As it appeared to be a clerical error, it was omitted under the authority of section 14.13 of the Code.
- 80A.2 This section, as amended by 84 Acts, chapter 1135, section 1, effective July 1, 1984, was repealed by 84 Acts, chapter 1235, section 18 and replaced, effective January 1, 1985, by a new section which is printed. For the history of the former section 80A.2, see the bracketed history following the section in Code 1983.
- 80D.5 In 80 Acts, chapter 1191, section 5, the reference is to “sections 7 and 16 of this Act”. However, it appears that the reference should have been to sections 7 and 15 as they are the ones which state exemptions, so the corresponding section numbers have been printed in accordance with the authority in section 14.13 of the Code.
- 97B.7[2b(6)] 84 Acts, chapter 1180, section 9 and chapter 1285, section 3 both amended section 97B.7, subsection 2, paragraph b, subparagraph 6, unnumbered paragraph 2. Identical style changes were made in both Acts. The former Act struck the last portion of the second sentence and the latter rewrote that portion and added to it. To this extent the two amendments are irreconcilable, so chapter 1285, section 3, which was approved later, has been codified.
- 97B.49(10) Although 83 Acts, chapter 96, section 157 directed that the references to “department of social services” in this subsection be changed to “department of human services”, it appears that the change should have been to the new “Iowa Department of Corrections” since correctional officers are the subject matter. Therefore, in accordance with the directive in chapter 96, section 160, to make “other corrective changes consistent with the intent of this Act”, the references have been changed to the “Iowa Department of Corrections”.
- 109.38 The amendment to subsection 2 by 84 Acts, chapter 1213, section 1 incorporates the amendment by chapter 1260, section 1, so there is no conflict.
- 110.1 The amendment in 84 Acts, chapter 1199, section 2 changing the fee in subsection 4, paragraph e, for a nonresident fur dealer’s license to $450 was superseded by the later enactment of 84 Acts, chapter 1260, section 2 which set the fee at $400.
- 125.76 The amendments to this section conflict. Since 83 Acts, chapter 101, section 15 corrected a section number reference to make it consistent with the Code, and 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10044, which is the court reorganization Act, was passed later and further changed the section number reference after repealing the number referred to in chapter 101, the amendment in chapter 186 appears to prevail and is printed in accordance with sections 4.8 and 4.11 of the Code.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 127.20 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10204 provided that the amendment to this section would be void if chapter 185 became law. Chapter 185 was enacted effective July 1, 1984. It is not clear whether voiding the amendment reverts the section to its former condition, but that appears to be the intent so the section has been printed as it appeared before the amendment by chapter 186, except for editorial gender and punctuation changes. The chapter 186 amendment was printed in the Code Supplement 1983. It appears that under section 602.1304 of the Code, any remaining moneys received under this section as amended by chapter 186 would be paid into the general fund of the state.
- 127.21 This section was repealed by 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10203, effective July 1, 1983. However, 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10204 provided that if chapter 185 was enacted, the amendment to section 127.21 in that Act would prevail. Chapter 185 was enacted effective July 1, 1984. However, it is often held that a repealed Act cannot be amended. The section is shown as repealed, consistent with the treatment of the section by the supreme court in its temporary transition rules for court reorganization.
- 144.37 The amendments to unnumbered paragraph 2 conflict in some respects. In what was the third sentence of the paragraph, 83 Acts, chapter 101, section 23, a corrective Act, changed the word "divorce" to "dissolution", while 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10049, the court reorganization Act, struck the entire sentence and added a few other words which do not appear to conflict. Since chapter 186 was passed later it appears to prevail under sections 4.8 and 4.11 of the Code and the paragraph is printed here substantially as passed in chapter 186.
- 144.46 The amendments conflict in some respects. 83 Acts, chapter 123, section 68, the county finance Act, struck the words "general fund" and inserted the word "treasury" to preserve internal consistency. However, 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10050, the court reorganization Act, which was passed later, struck the entire phrase in which those words appeared. Chapter 186 appears to prevail under sections 4.8 and 4.11 of the Code, so the section has been printed that way.
- 151.11 In 83 Acts, chapter 83, section 7, the reference to chapter 17A included the words ", Code 1983" which have been omitted in printing under the authority of section 14.14 of the Code.
- 154C.1,
154C.2 and
154C.4 84 Acts, chapter 1075, sections 1, 2 and 4 referred to "sections 1 through 12 of this Act" or "sections 1 through 13 of this Act". These sections included new chapter 154C and various coordinating amendments to chapter 147, the general licensing chapter. In sections 1 and 4 (154C.1 and 154C.4) the reference has been changed editorially to "this chapter", which is chapter 154C. However, in section 2 (154C.2) a reference to "this chapter and chapter 147" appears to be a more accurate substitution.
- 169.5 Although 84 Acts, chapter 1067, section 23 purported to amend paragraph i of subsection 8 of section 169.5, there is no paragraph i in subsection 8. It appears that subsection 9 was intended and the amendment has been applied to subsection 9.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 217A.77 83 Acts, chapter 51, section 2 enacted this section as a new section in chapter 218 of the Code. However, it appears to be more appropriately placed in the new chapter 217A.
- 217A.78 83 Acts, chapter 51, section 3 amended section 246.18 with the apparent intent of making it applicable to all institutions under the new Iowa department of corrections so it was transferred here as part of new chapter 217A.
- 217A.79 83 Acts, chapter 51, section 4 amended section 246.25 with the apparent intent of making it applicable to all institutions under the new Iowa department of corrections so it was transferred here as part of new chapter 217A.
- 217A.80 84 Acts, chapter 1004, section 1 enacted this section as a new section in chapter 218 of the Code. However, it appears to be more appropriately placed in chapter 217A.
- 232.68 This section was originally in chapter 235A and was legislatively transferred to chapter 232, division III, part 2, along with sections 235A.3 through 235A.11. The word "chapter" in the first unnumbered paragraph was not changed at the time of transfer, but is now changed to reflect more accurately the sections to which the definitions apply.
- 232.71(4) The corrective amendment in subsection 4 which changes the department's name, although enacted to be in effect October 1, 1983, was printed in Code Supplement 1983 as in effect July 1, 1983, under the authority given to the Code editor in several Acts to make corrective changes consistent with the intent of 83 Acts, chapter 96. (See Code editor's preface to the Supplement.)
- 232.87 In the enactment of this section in 78 Acts, chapter 1088, section 43, it appears that the reference to "this Act" in subsection 1 was intended to refer to the main portion of the Act which became chapter 232, so the words "this chapter" have been substituted.
- 239.12 The amendments by 84 Acts, chapter 1276, section 9 and chapter 1067, section 24 are similar and have been harmonized in accordance with section 4.11 of the Code.
- 247.31 The amendments conflict. 83 Acts, chapter 96, section 101 made corrective amendments which were to be effective October 1, 1983. However, 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10061, which was passed later, struck the language where the corrections were made and made substantive changes which eliminated the need for the corrections. It appears that chapter 186 should prevail under sections 4.8 and 4.11 of the Code, and the section has been so printed here.
- 261.54 The amendments to unnumbered paragraph 1 by 84 Acts, chapter 1044, section 1 and chapter 1060, section 2 have been harmonized as required under section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321.27 82 Acts, chapter 1062, section 35 referred to "section 33 of this Act," but it appears that section 34 was intended. Section 34 is now section 321.26, so that number has been inserted in unnumbered paragraph 1 of section 321.27.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 321.47 The amendment to unnumbered paragraph 1 in 84 Acts, chapter 1305, section 53, which changes the fee from $2 to $10, has been harmonized with the more extensive amendment in 84 Acts, chapter 1243, section 1, as required under section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321.48 The amendments to subsection 2 by 84 Acts, chapter 1169, section 1 and chapter 1305, section 54, have been harmonized as required by section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321.166 82 Acts, chapter 1062, section 36 referred to "section 27 of this Act" and "section 28 of this Act" in establishing effective dates, but it appears that sections 28 and 29 were intended. The reference to section 27 (28) is moot due to the amendment in 83 Acts, chapter 24, section 7. The reference to section 28 (29) was covered in the footnote to this section in Code Supplement 1983.
- 321.215 The amendments to subsection 3 by 84 Acts, chapter 1022, section 6 and chapter 1219, section 26 have been harmonized as required by section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321.366 Although the amendments to unnumbered paragraph 1 and subsection 5 in 84 Acts, chapter 1022, section 8 and chapter 1219, section 27, conflict in the use of singular or plural subjects, there appear to be no irreconcilable conflicts of substance so the amendments have been harmonized as required under section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321.555 The amendments to subsection 2 by 84 Acts, chapter 1022, section 9 and chapter 1016, section 4 have been harmonized as required under section 4.11 of the Code.
- 321B.2 The amendment in 84 Acts, chapter 1292, section 9 incorporates the amendment to unnumbered paragraph 2 by 84 Acts, chapter 1219, section 28, so there is no conflict.
- 346A.2 This section is printed as amended by 83 Acts, chapter 123, section 157 which struck the sentence amended by 83 Acts, chapter 12, section 2. However, as the footnotes in Code Supplement 1983 indicate, chapter 12 was effective from April 12, 1983, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1983, and chapter 123 is effective for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1984.
- 422.43 The amendments to subsection 11 by 84 Acts, chapter 1140, section 2, chapter 1254, section 2, and chapter 1305, section 77 each make different changes to the list of taxable services and have been harmonized in accordance with section 4.11 of the Code.
- 423.1 Amendments to subsection 4 by 84 Acts, chapter 1140, section 3 and chapter 1254, section 3 each add different services to the definition and have been harmonized as required by section 4.11 of the Code.
- 428A.8 The amendments to unnumbered paragraph 2 technically conflict but there is little difference in their meaning. 83 Acts, chapter 135, section 4 was passed later so it is printed here in accordance with sections 4.8 and 4.11 of the Code.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 455.40 The amendments in 84 Acts, chapter 1055, section 10 and chapter 1189, section 1 have been harmonized in accordance with section 4.11 of the Code, as they appear to be reconcilable in substance; one providing for credit union share drafts to be used as deposit with a bid bond, and one increasing from $2,500 to $5,000 the estimated cost for which a county board may let a construction contract without taking bids. Where a conflict in specific word usage was found, chapter 1189, section 1, which was enacted later, was used.
- 455.63 Apparently, there is no substantive difference between 84 Acts, chapter 1028, section 1 and chapter 1189, section 2. In order to incorporate all grammatical changes the version enacted later, chapter 1189, section 2, has been printed.
- 455B.278(1) The amendments can be harmonized in some respects but conflict in their handling of application fees. 83 Acts, chapter 136, section 3, which was passed later (although both Acts were signed by the governor on the same day) struck the language relating to application fees which had been amended by 83 Acts, chapter 137, section 21. Chapter 136 also added a new subsection to section 455B.105 which provided specific details regarding application fees. Therefore, the subsection as amended by chapter 136 has been printed, along with parts of the amendment by chapter 137 which do not appear to conflict. This combination appears to comply with sections 4.7, 4.8, and 4.11 of the Code.
- 467A.71 83 Acts, chapter 207, section 53 as enacted omitted the letter "s" on the word "practices" in the title "conservation practices revolving loan fund" in some instances. It was added editorially for consistency.
- 534.702(1h) (formerly 534.48(8)) 84 Acts, chapter 1081, section 2 struck the amended language in 84 Acts, chapter 1067, section 44, and was enacted later in time so it appears to prevail under section 4.11 of the Code and the section has been so printed.
- 537.1301 Although new subsection 43 was assigned to section 537.1302 in 83 Acts, chapter 124, section 25, it appears that section 537.1301, which is the "definitions" section, is a more correct placement.
- 542.6 Although 83 Acts, chapter 18, section 2 does not state that it applies to the two printed versions of section 542.6 in Code 1983, it appears that it was the intent to strike subsections 3 and 4 in both printed versions of section 542.6, so it was shown that way in Code Supplement 1983.
- 542.6 and 543.33 Although 84 Acts, chapter 1100, sections 2 and 4 did not refer to the Code Supplement 1983 in striking and rewriting these sections, it appears that the versions in Code Supplement 1983 which were enacted to take effect July 1, 1984, were meant to be replaced by the newly enacted versions.
- 602.1212 Although 83 Acts, chapter 127, section 43 purported to add this section to chapter 602, Code 1983, which was subsequently repealed by 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10203, it appears that there was no intent to repeal this new section so it has been added to the new chapter 602 enacted by chapter 186. The supreme court is implementing this section.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 631 2(2) The amendments have been harmonized to the extent possible. They conflict in the section number reference, and since 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10116 was passed later and contains the correct reference, it appears to prevail in this respect in accordance with sections 4 8 and 4 11 of the Code.
- 631 6 Although 83 Acts, chapter 63, section 3 purported to amend unnumbered paragraph 6, it appears that unnumbered paragraph 2 (the last paragraph) is the correct reference. The amendments to this section have been harmonized. The latest amendment to unnumbered paragraph 2 was 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10118, the court reorganization Act, which provided that revenue from small claims court which would otherwise have gone to the counties, be deposited in the court revenue distribution account. The supreme court, under the authority granted it in chapter 186, section 10301 to interpret the application of provisions of that chapter, has determined that the amendment to subsection 1 of section 631 6 made by 83 Acts, chapter 63, section 2 is compatible with chapter 186 except that the portion of the docket fee it allocated to the county should go to the new court revenue distribution account. This made the amendment in chapter 63 to unnumbered paragraph 2 of section 631 6, which excepted docket fees from its provisions, irreconcilable. The amendment to unnumbered paragraph 2 in 83 Acts, chapter 101, section 125 was enacted earlier and was corrective only, so a portion of it was superseded by chapter 186 and a portion could be used. The section has been printed in a manner compatible with sections 4 8 and 4 11 of the Code, and the supreme court's interpretation.
- 666 6 83 Acts chapter 185 section 59 and chapter 186, section 10127 both amend this section in a conflicting manner and without reference to each other. Chapter 186 was approved one day later than chapter 185. This section was not listed in section 10204 of chapter 186 as one in which the amendment in chapter 185 would prevail. In addition, the amendment in chapter 186 has been implemented in the supreme court's transition rules for court reorganization, and it appears to better reflect the legislative intent to conform the section to court reorganization requirements. Therefore, the amendment in chapter 186, section 10127, is printed.
- 714 8 In 84 Acts, chapter 1048, section 2, it appears that the word "false" should have been inserted before the word "certification". Corrective legislation will be proposed in the 1985 session of the general assembly.
- 730 4 Although 83 Acts, chapter 86, sections 1 and 3 were enacted as if they were temporary sections, it appears that they should be codified along with section 2, so the three sections are printed as three subsections of new section 730 4.
- 805 9(6) The amendments to subsection 6 conflict. 83 Acts, chapter 204, section 10 was passed later (although both were signed by the governor on the same day) and increased the fees, so it appears to prevail under sections 4 8 and 4 11 of the Code. However, since the section number reference in that Act was changed and corrected in 83 Acts, chapter 186, section 10131, the Acts have been harmonized by including that reference from chapter 186.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 815.13 The amendment by 84 Acts, chapter 1301, section 16 incorporates the amendment by 84 Acts, chapter 1178, section 12, so there is no conflict.
- 902.4 The amendments in 84 Acts, chapter 1139, section 1 and chapter 1149, section 1 each add separate sentences to the section so they were harmonized to give effect to both as required under section 4.11 of the Code.
- 905.1(7) 83 Acts, chapter 89, section 1 referred to “chapter 905.3”. It appears that “section 905.3” was intended, and it has been printed that way.
