A temporary suspension shall be effective on the date of issuance of the order of suspension, and until a revocation hearing has been held and the secretary either has entered an order of revocation of the license, or has terminated the order of suspension.

[C77, 79, 81, §172A.11]

172A.12 Revocation of license.

1. The secretary shall have the authority to revoke the license of a dealer or broker or agent upon notice and hearing if any of the following conditions exist:

a. Grounds exist for the temporary suspension of the license without hearing, and it is established that the person is or will be unable to meet obligations to producers of livestock when due.

b. The person has refused access to the secretary to the books and records of the person as required by this chapter.

c. Any other conditions exist which in the opinion of the secretary reasonably establish that it would be financially detrimental to livestock producers of this state to permit the person to engage in licensed activities in this state.

An order of revocation shall be effective upon the issuance of the order of revocation, and until the order is rescinded by the secretary, or until the decision of the secretary is reversed by a final order of a court of this state.

172A.13 Rules.

The secretary is authorized to adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A which are reasonable and necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

CHAPTER 172B

TRANSPORTATION OF LIVESTOCK

Referred to in §331 653

- 172B.1 Definitions.
 172B.2 Transportation certificate exhibited — public offense.
 172B.3 Form of certificate — substitutes.
 172B.4 Execution and retention of records.
 172B.5 Authority of law enforcement officers.
 172B.6 Offenses and penalties.

172B.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Livestock" means and includes live cattle, swine, sheep or horses, and the carcasses of such animals whether in whole or in part.
2. "Law enforcement officer" means a state highway safety patrolman, a sheriff, or other peace officer so designated by this state or by a county or municipality.
3. "Owner" means a person having legal title to livestock.
4. "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's designee.
5. "Transporting livestock" means being in custody of or operating a vehicle in this state, whether or not on a highway, in which are confined one or more head of livestock. Vehicle includes a truck, trailer, and other device used for the purpose of conveying objects, whether or not the device has motive power or is attached to a vehicle with motive power at the time the livestock are confined.
6. "Transportation certificate" means the document specified in section 172B.3 and includes either the standard form prescribed by the secretary, or a substitute document the use of which has been authorized by the secretary.

172B.2 Transportation certificate exhibited — public offense.

A person transporting livestock shall execute in the presence of a law enforcement officer, at the request of the officer, a transportation certificate. A person who fails to comply with this section commits a public offense punishable as provided in section 172B.6. A person who fails to execute a transportation certificate upon the request of the officer fails to comply with this section even though the person possesses a transportation certificate.

172B.3 Form of certificate — substitutes.

1. Duties of secretary. The secretary, pursuant to chapter 17A, shall prescribe a standard form of the transportation certificate required by this chapter. Where the laws of this state or of the United States require the possession of another shipping document by a person transporting livestock, or where the industry practice of carriers requires the possession of a shipping document by a person transporting livestock, and where such a document contains all of the information other than signatures which is prescribed in subsection 2, upon application of a carrier the secretary by rule shall authorize the use of a specific document in lieu of the standard form prescribed by the secretary, but subject to any conditions the secretary may impose. A person who is in possession of a shipping document approved by the secretary shall not be required to possess the standard form transportation certificate prescribed by the secretary, but the person may be required by a law enforcement officer to execute the standard form transportation certificate.

The form prescribed or authorized by the secretary shall be executed in triplicate, and shall be retained as provided in section 172B.4.

The secretary shall distribute, upon request, copies of the prescribed standard form to veterinarians, marketing agencies, carriers, law enforcement officers, and other persons, and may collect a fee from the recipient totaling not more than the cost of printing and postage. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a person from causing the reproduction of the standard form, and an accurate reproduction of a standard current form may be used as a transportation certificate for all purposes.

2. Contents. The transportation certificate shall contain the following information:

- a. The date of execution of the certificate.
- b. The name and address of the owner of the livestock.
- c. The name and address of the shipper if other than the owner.
- d. The address of the loading point of the livestock, or the nearest post office and county.
- e. The date of loading of the livestock.
- f. The name and address of the purchaser, consignee, or other person receiving shipment.
- g. The address of the destination of the livestock, or the nearest post office and county.
- h. The name and address of the carrier or person transporting livestock.
- i. The motor vehicle operator's license number of the person transporting livestock.
- j. The vehicle license number and the state of issuance.
- k. The vehicle seal number, if any.

l. The form number and state of issuance of any health certificate accompanying the livestock.

m. A description of the livestock including number, breed, sex, age, and brands, if any.

n. The signature of the owner or shipper, or the signature of the person transporting livestock, or the signatures of either the owner or shipper and the person transporting livestock.

Referred to in §172B 1, 172B 5

172B.4 Execution and retention of records.

1. Shipper. A person who causes the transporting of livestock shall cause to be executed and to be delivered to the person transporting livestock, at the request of that person, duplicate copies of a transportation certificate.

2. Transporter. A person transporting livestock who has been given a receipt by a law enforcement officer shall retain that receipt until the person relinquishes custody of the livestock.

3. Law enforcement officer. A law enforcement officer, upon requesting and receiving a transportation certificate, shall retain a copy of the certificate and shall submit the certificate to the law enforcement agency by which the officer is employed. The officer shall give to the person transporting livestock, in a form prescribed by the commissioner of public safety or the commissioner's designee, a receipt for the certificate given to the officer. However, a law enforcement officer shall not retain a copy of the certificate if the person transporting livestock has a receipt issued by another law enforcement officer.

The commissioner of public safety may authorize the use of any method of giving receipt, including endorsement by the officer on the certificate retained by the person transporting livestock. The receipt shall make the law enforcement officer issuing the receipt identifiable by other law enforcement officers.

Referred to in §172B 3, 172B 5, 172B 6

172B.5 Authority of law enforcement officers.

1. Investigation. A law enforcement officer may stop and detain a person, whether on or off a highway, who is transporting livestock for the purpose of obtaining compliance with section 172B.2, and the officer may request the presentation or execution of a transportation certificate. The officer may examine the livestock for identification, the vehicle for the purpose of obtaining the vehicle registration number, and the registration of the vehicle and the operator's license of the driver or person detained. However, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize any law enforcement officer to open or require the opening of the cargo compartment of any vehicle manufactured for use in carrying refrigerated cargo when both the cargo is actually under refrigeration at the time the vehicle is detained by the law enforcement officer, and the person operating the vehicle has in possession when stopped a valid transportation certificate or approved shipping document which was executed by the shipper and which identifies the cargo as processed livestock and otherwise complies with section 172B.3, subsection 2.

2. Execution of certificate. If the person transporting livestock does not possess a completed transportation certificate, or if in the opinion of the officer the form possessed is improper, the officer may provide the person with a blank standard form, and may request that the person execute the form, including the person's signature. The person shall be permitted to view any documents in the person's possession for the purpose of completing the form. Except as provided in section 172B.4, the officer shall retain a copy of the certificate and shall give the person a receipt for that certificate.

3. Detention. A law enforcement officer may detain a person transporting livestock for a reasonable period of time not to exceed thirty minutes for the purpose of verifying any information obtained by the officer.

4. Arrest. A detention for the purposes of subsections 1, 2 and 3 shall not constitute an arrest. If the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the person transporting livestock has committed a public offense, the officer may place the person under arrest. The officer may require the person to move the vehicle to a place determined by the officer, or the officer may make other provisions for the vehicle and the livestock, as the officer shall determine. If the owner of the livestock is not available, the officer is authorized to incur reasonable expense for the care of the livestock which expense shall be charged to and paid by the owner of the livestock.

172B.6 Offenses and penalties.

1. A person who is convicted of violating section 172B.2 shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. A person who makes or utters a transportation certificate with knowledge that some or all of the information contained in the certificate is false, or a person who alters, forges, or counterfeits a transportation certificate, or the receipt prescribed in section 172B.4, commits a class "C" felony.

172C.11 Penalties — reports.

Failure to timely file a report or the filing of false information is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars.

For purposes of this section a report is timely filed if the report is filed prior to May 1 of the year in which it is required to be filed.

The secretary of state shall notify a person who the secretary has reason to believe is required to file a report as provided by this chapter and who has not filed a timely report, that the person may be in violation of this section. After thirty days from receipt of the notice, any person required to report under this chapter who has not filed, shall be assessed a civil penalty of one hundred dollars for each day in which the report is not filed. The secretary of state shall include in the notice, a statement of the penalty which will be assessed if the report is required and is not filed within thirty days. This penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty under this chapter. The secretary of state shall notify the state attorney general, when the secretary of state has reason to believe a violation of this chapter has occurred.

172C.12 County assessor's report.

The county assessor shall forward to the secretary of state, by October 1 of each year, the name and address of every corporation, nonresident alien and trust owning agricultural land in the county as shown by the assessment rolls of the county.

[C77, 79, 81, §172C.12]

172C.13 County recorder's report.

The county recorder shall forward to the secretary of state, by December 1 of each year, the names and addresses of each limited partnership owning agricultural land or engaged in farming in the county as shown by county records.

[C77, 79, 81, §172C.13]

172C.14 Duties of secretary of state — legislative use.

The secretary of state shall do all things necessary to implement this chapter. It is the intent of this section that information shall be made available to members of the general assembly and appropriate committees of the general assembly in order to determine the extent of farming being carried out in this state by corporations and other business entities and the effect of such farming practices upon the economy of this state. The reports of processors required in section 172C.9 shall be confidential reports except as to the general assembly and appropriate committees of the general assembly whose members upon receipt of such reports treat such information as confidential and to the attorney general for review and appropriate action when necessary. The secretary of state shall assist any committee of the general assembly existing or established for the purposes of studying the effects of this chapter and the practices this chapter seeks to study and regulate.

172C.15 Additional information.

The secretary of state shall request additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to administer this chapter.

CHAPTER 172D

LIVESTOCK FEEDLOTS

Referred to in §657 8

172D.1 Definitions.

172D.2 Compliance — a defense to nuisance actions.

172D.3 Compliance with rules of the department.

172D.4 Compliance with zoning requirements.

172D.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "City" means a municipal corporation, but not including a county, township, school district, or any special-purpose district or authority.

2. "Department" means the department of environmental quality in a reference to a time before July 1, 1983, and the department of water, air and waste management in a reference to a time on or after July 1, 1983, and includes any officer or agency within that department.

3. "Established date of operation" means the date on which a feedlot commenced operating with not more livestock than reasonably could be maintained by the physical facilities existing as of that date. If the physical facilities of the feedlot are subsequently expanded, the established date of operation for each expansion is deemed to be a separate and independent "established date of operation" established as of this date of commencement of the expanded operations, and the commencement of expanded operations shall not divest the feedlot of a previously established date of operation.

4. "Established date of ownership" means the date of the recording of an appropriate muniment of title establishing the ownership of realty.

5. "Rule of the department" means a rule as defined in section 17A.2 which materially affects the operation of a feedlot and which has been adopted by the department. The term includes a rule which was in effect prior to July 1, 1975. Except as specifically provided in section 172D.3, subsection 2, paragraph "b", subparagraph (5) and paragraph "c", subpara-graph (5) nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to empower the department to make any rule

6 "Feedlot" means a lot, yard, corral, or other area in which livestock are confined, primarily for the purposes of feeding and growth prior to slaughter. The term does not include areas which are used for the raising of crops or other vegetation and upon which livestock are allowed to graze or feed

7 "Livestock" means cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, and other animals or fowl, which are being produced primarily for use as food or food products for human consumption

8 "Materially affects" means prohibits or regulates with respect to the location, or the emission of noise, effluent, odors, sewage, waste, or similar products resulting from the operation or the location or use of buildings, machinery, vehicles, equipment, or other real or personal property used in the operation, of a livestock feedlot

9 "Nuisance" means and includes public or private nuisance as defined either by statute or by the common law

10 "Nuisance action or proceeding" means and includes every action, claim or proceeding, whether brought at law, in equity, or as an administrative proceeding, which is based on nuisance

11 "Owner" shall mean the person holding record title to real estate to include both legal and equitable interests under recorded real estate contracts

12 "Zoning requirement" means a regulation or ordinance, which has been adopted by a city, county, township, school district, or any special purpose district or authority, and which materially affects the operation of a feedlot. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to empower any agency described in this subsection to make any regulation or ordinance

13 A rule pertaining to "feedlot management standards" means a rule, the implementation of which, or the compliance with which, requires the expenditure of funds not in excess of two percent of the establishment cost of the feedlot

14 A rule pertaining to "feedlot design standards" means a rule, the implementation of which, or the compliance with which, requires the expenditure of funds in excess of two percent of the establishment cost of the feedlot

15 "Establishment cost of a feedlot" means the cost or value of the feedlot on its established date of operation and includes the cost or value of the building, machinery, vehicles, equipment or other real or personal property used in the operation of the feedlot [C77, 79, 81, §172D 1, 82 Acts, ch 1199, §92, 96] 84 Acts, ch 1219, §7

172D.2 Compliance — a defense to nuisance actions.

In any nuisance action or proceeding against a feedlot brought by or on behalf of a person whose date of ownership of realty is subsequent to the established date of operation of that feedlot, proof of compliance with sections 172D 3 and 172D 4 shall be an absolute defense, provided that the conditions or circumstances alleged to constitute a nuisance are subject to regulatory jurisdiction in accordance with either section 172D 3 or 172D 4

172D 3 Compliance with rules of the department

1 Requirement A person who operates a feedlot shall comply with applicable rules of the department. The applicability of a rule of the department shall be as provided in subsection 2. A person complies with this section as a matter of law where no rule of the department exists

2 Applicability of rules

a Exclusion for federally mandated requirements This section shall apply to the department's rules except for rules required for delegation of the national pollutant discharge elimination system permit program pursuant to the federal Water Pollution Control Act, Title 33, United States Code, chapter 126, as amended, and 40 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 124

b Applicability of rules of the department other than those relating to air quality under division II of chapter 455B

(1) A rule of the department in effect on November 1, 1976 shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation prior to November 1, 1976

(2) A rule of the department shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation subsequent to the effective date of the rule

(3) A rule of the department adopted after November 1, 1976 does not apply to a feedlot holding a wastewater permit from the department and having an established date of operation prior to the effective date of the rule until either the expiration of the term of the permit in effect on the effective date of the rule, or ten years from the established date of operation of the feedlot, whichever time period is greater

(4) A rule of the department adopted after November 1, 1976 does not apply to a feedlot not previously required to hold a wastewater permit from the department and having an established date of operation prior to the effective date of the rule for either a period of ten years from the established date of operation of the feedlot or five years from the effective date of the rule, whichever time period is greater

(5) To achieve compliance with applicable rules the department shall issue an appropriate compliance schedule

c Applicability of rules of the department relating to air quality under division II of chapter 455B

(1) A rule of the department under division II of chapter 455B in effect on November 1, 1976 shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation prior to November 1, 1976

(2) A rule of the department under division II of chapter 455B shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation subsequent to the effective date of the rule

(3) A rule of the department under division II of chapter 455B pertaining to feedlot management standards adopted after November 1, 1976 shall not apply to any feedlot having an established date of operation prior to the effective date of the rule until one year after the effective date of the rule

(4) A rule of the department under division II of chapter 455B pertaining to feedlot design standards adopted after November 1, 1976 shall not apply to any feedlot having an established date of operation prior to the effective date of the rule for either a period of ten years from the established date of operation of the feedlot or two years from the effective date of the rule, whichever time period is greater. However, any design standard rule pertaining to the siting of any feedlot shall apply only to a feedlot with an established date of operation subsequent to the effective date of the rule.

(5) To achieve compliance with applicable rules the department shall issue an appropriate compliance schedule.

[C77, 79, 81, §172D.3]

84 Acts, ch 1219, §8

Referred to in §172D 1, 172D 2

172D.4 Compliance with zoning requirements.

1. Requirement. A person who operates a feedlot shall comply with applicable zoning requirements. The applicability of a zoning requirement shall be as provided in subsection 2 of this section. A person complies with this section as a matter of law where no zoning requirement exists.

2. Applicability.

a. A zoning requirement shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation subsequent to the effective date of the zoning requirement.

b. A zoning requirement, other than one adopted by a city, shall not apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation prior to the effective date of the zoning requirement for a period of ten years from the effective date of that zoning requirement.

c. A zoning requirement which is in effect on November 1, 1976, shall apply to a feedlot with an established date of operation prior to November 1, 1976.

d. A zoning requirement adopted by a city shall apply to a feedlot located within an incorporated or unincorporated area which is subject to regulation by that city as of November 1, 1976, regardless of the established date of operation of the feedlot.

e. A zoning requirement adopted by a city shall not apply to a feedlot which becomes located within an incorporated or unincorporated area subject to regulation by that city by virtue of an incorporation or annexation which takes effect after November 1, 1976 for a period of ten years from the effective date of the incorporation or annexation.

173.2 Convention.

A convention shall be held at a time and place in Iowa to be designated by the Iowa state fair board each year, not to be set before a complete year audit can be presented to the convention, to elect members of the state fair board and conduct other business of the board. The board shall give sixty days' notice of the location of the convention to all agricultural associations and persons eligible to attend. The convention shall be composed of:

1. The members of the state fair board as then organized.

2. The president or secretary of each county or district agricultural society entitled to receive aid from the state, or a regularly elected delegate therefrom accredited in writing, who shall be a resident of the county.

3. One delegate, a resident of the county, to be appointed by the board of supervisors in each county where there is no such society, or when such society fails to report to the state fair board in the manner provided by law as a basis for state aid. The board shall promptly report such failure to the county auditor.

4. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa state horticultural society.

5. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa state dairy association.

6. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa beef cattle producers association.

7. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa crop improvement association.

8. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa swine producers association.

9. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa horse industry council.

10. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa sheep association.

11. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa home economists association.

12. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa dietetics association.

13. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa arts council.

14. The president, or an accredited representative, of the Iowa board of public instruction.

173.3 Certification of state aid associations.

On or before November 15 of each year, the secretary of agriculture shall certify to the secretary of the state fair board the names of the various associations and societies which have qualified for state aid under the provisions of chapters 176 to 178, 180 to 184, and 186, and which are entitled to representation in the convention as provided in section 173.2.

173.4 Voting power.

On all questions arising for determination by the convention, each member present shall be entitled to but one vote, and no proxies shall be recognized by the convention. However, a member who is also a board director at large or a board congressional director shall not be entitled to vote for a successor to each of the three directors at large or a successor to each congressional director on the board.

173.5 Elections to be made.

The convention shall elect:

1. A successor to each of the three directors at large whose term expires at noon on the day following the adjournment of the convention. No two directors at large shall be elected from the same congressional district.

2. A successor to each congressional district director on the board whose term expires at noon on the day following the adjournment of the convention.

173.6 Terms of office.

The term of the president and vice president of the board shall be one year and that of a director two years. No person shall hold the office of president for more than three consecutive years, plus any portion of a year in which the person was first elected by the board to fill a vacancy. The term of a director shall begin at noon on the day following the adjournment of the convention at which the director was elected and shall continue until a successor is elected and qualified as provided in this chapter.

173.7 Vacancies.

If, after the adjournment of the convention, a vacancy occurs in the office of any member of the board elected by the convention the board shall fill the same, and the member so elected shall qualify at once and serve until noon of the day following the adjournment of the next convention. If, by that time, the member elected by the board will not have completed the full term for which the member's predecessor was elected, said convention shall elect a member to serve out the unexpired portion of such term. The member so elected shall qualify at the same time as other members elected by the convention.

173.8 Compensation and expenses.

A member of the board elected at the annual convention shall be paid a forty dollar per diem and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in official duties. All per diem and expense moneys paid to a member shall be paid from funds of the state fair board.

173.9 Secretary.

The board shall elect a secretary who shall hold office for one year, and he shall:

1. Keep a complete record of the annual convention and of all meetings of the board.

2. Draw all warrants on the treasurer of the board and keep a correct account thereof.

3. Perform such other duties as the board may direct.

173.10 Salary of secretary.

The secretary shall receive such salary as fixed by the general assembly.

173.11 Treasurer.

The board shall elect a treasurer who shall hold office for one year, and the treasurer shall:

1. Keep a correct account of the receipts and disbursements of all moneys belonging to the board.
2. Make payments on all warrants signed by the president and secretary from any funds available for such purpose.
3. Execute and file with the secretary of the board a bond, to be approved by the board, for the faithful performance of the treasurer's duties.

173.12 Salary of treasurer.

The treasurer shall receive such compensation for his services as the board may fix, not to exceed five hundred dollars a year, and shall be paid a forty-dollar per diem and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in official duties.

173.13 Executive committee — meetings.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall constitute an executive committee, which shall transact such business as may be delegated to it by the board. The president may call meetings of the board or executive committee when the interests of the work require it.

173.14 Powers and duties of board.

The state fair board shall have the custody and control of the state fairgrounds, including the buildings and equipment thereon belonging to the state, and shall have power to:

1. Erect and repair buildings on said grounds and make other necessary improvements thereon.
2. Regulate the construction of street railways within said grounds and determine the motive power by which the same shall be propelled.
3. Hold an annual fair and exposition on said grounds.
4. Prepare premium lists and establish rules of exhibition for such fair which shall be published by the board not later than the first day of June in each year.
5. Take and hold property by gift, devise, or bequest for fair purposes, and the president, secretary, and treasurer of the board shall have charge and control of the same, subject to the action of the board. Such officers shall give bonds as required in the case of executors, to be approved by the board and filed with the secretary of state.
6. The state fair board may grant a written permit to such persons as it deems proper to sell fruit, provisions, and other articles not prohibited by law, under such regulations as the board may prescribe.
7. The president of the state fair board may appoint such number of special police as the president may deem necessary and such officers are hereby vested with the powers and charged with the duties of peace officers.

8. Adopt all necessary rules in the discharge of its duties and in the exercise of the powers herein conferred.

9. With the approval of the executive council, purchase real estate adjacent to the state fairgrounds for use in conjunction with the state fairgrounds. A purchase of real estate may be made by written contract providing for payment over a period of years. The obligations of the contract shall constitute a debt or charge against the state fair board but not against the general fund of the state. The title to real estate acquired under this subsection and any improvements erected on the real estate shall be taken and held in the name of the state of Iowa and shall be under the custody and control of the state fair board. The state comptroller shall transfer moneys to the appropriate agencies in order to carry out the intent of this section.

83 Acts, ch 195, §23

173.15 Management of state fair.

The board may delegate the management of the state fair to the executive committee and two or more additional members of the board; and in carrying on such fair it may employ such assistance as may be deemed necessary.

173.16 Maintenance of state fair.

All expenses incurred in maintaining the state fairgrounds and in conducting the annual fair thereon, including the compensation and expenses of the officers, members, and employees of the board, shall be recorded by the secretary and paid from the state fair receipts, unless a specific appropriation has been provided for such purpose. An individual member of the state fair board shall not be personally liable because of any act performed or debt created by action of the board in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

173.17 Claims.

The board shall prescribe rules for the presentation and payment of claims out of the state fair receipts and other funds of the board and no claim shall be allowed which does not comply therewith.

173.18 Warrants.

No claim shall be paid by the treasurer except upon a warrant signed by the president and secretary of the board, but this section shall not apply to the payment of state fair premiums.

173.19 Auditing of accounts.

Prior to the annual convention, the auditor of state shall examine and report to the executive council upon all financial affairs of the board.

173.20 Report.

The board shall file each year with the department of agriculture, at such time as the department may specify, a report containing such information relative to the state fair and exposition and the district and county fairs as the department may require.

173.21 Annual report to governor.

The state fair board shall each year at the time provided by law make a report to the governor containing:

1. A complete account of the annual state fair and exposition.
2. The proceedings of the annual state agricultural convention.
3. The proceedings of the annual county and district fair managers convention.

174.1 Terms defined.

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. “Fair” shall mean a bona fide exhibition of agricultural, dairy, and kindred products, livestock, and farm implements.

2. “Society” shall mean a county or district fair or agricultural society incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of holding such fair, and which owns or leases at least ten acres of ground and owns buildings and improvements situated on said ground of a value of at least eight thousand dollars, or any incorporated farm organization authorized to hold an agricultural fair which owns or leases buildings and grounds especially constructed for fair purposes of the value of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in a county where no other agricultural fair receiving state aid is held.

3. “Management” shall mean president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer of the society.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2894; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §174.1]

174.2 Powers of society.

Each society may hold annually a fair to further interest in agriculture and to encourage the improvement of agricultural products, livestock, articles of domestic industry, implements, and other mechanical devices. It may offer and award such premiums as will induce general competition.

In addition to the powers granted herein the society shall possess the powers of a corporation not for pecuniary profit under the laws of this state and those powers enumerated in its articles of incorporation, such powers to be exercised before and after the holding of such fairs.

No salary or compensation of any kind shall be paid to the president, vice president, treasurer, or to any director of the association for such duties.

174.3 Control of grounds.

During the time a fair is being held, no ordinance or resolution of any city shall in any way impair the authority of the society, but it shall have sole and exclusive control over and management of such fair

174.4 Permits to sell articles.

The management of any society may grant a written permit to such persons as it thinks proper, to sell fruit, provisions, and other articles not prohibited by law, under such regulations as the board of directors may prescribe

174.5 Appointment of police.

The management of any society may appoint such number of special police as it may deem necessary. Such officers are hereby vested with the powers and charged with the duties of peace officers

174.6 Removal of obstructions.

All shows, swings, booths, tents, vehicles, or any other thing that may obstruct the grounds of any society or the driveways thereof may be removed from the grounds on the order of the management

174.7 Refusal to remove obstructions.

Any person owning, occupying, or using any such obstruction who shall refuse or fail to remove the same when ordered to do so by the management shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor

174.8 Publication of financial statement.

Each society shall annually publish in one newspaper of the county a financial statement of receipts and disbursements for the current year

174.9 State aid.

Each society shall be entitled to receive aid from the state if it files with the state fair board on or before November 1 of each year, a sworn statement which shall show

1 The actual amount paid by it in cash premiums at its fair for the current year, which statement must correspond with its published offer of premiums

2 That no part of said amount was paid for speed events, or to secure games or amusements

3 A full and accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the society for the current year and other statistical data relative to exhibits and attendance for the year

4 A copy of the published financial statement published as required by law, together with proof of such publication and a certified statement showing an itemized list of premiums awarded, and such other information as the state fair board may require

174.10 Appropriation — availability.

1 The appropriation which is made biennially for state aid to the foregoing societies shall be available and applicable to incorporated societies of a purely agricultural nature which were entitled to draw eight hundred fifty dollars or more state aid in 1926, or societies located in counties that have no other fair or agricultural society, and which were in existence and drew state aid in 1926, except that in a county where there are two definitely separate county extension offices, two agricultural societies may receive state aid. The provisions of section 174 1 as to ownership of property shall not apply to societies under this section

2 In counties having two incorporated agricultural societies conducting county fairs, but not having two definitely separate county extension offices, the state aid shall be prorated between the two societies or, if an official county fair is designated by election, shall be paid to that society determined to be conducting the official county fair. The board of supervisors, upon receiving a petition which meets the requirements of section 331 306, shall submit to the qualified electors of the county at the next general election following submission of the petition or at a special election if requested by the petitioners at no cost to the county, the question of which fair shall be designated as the official county fair. Notice of the election shall be given as provided in section 49 53. The fair receiving a majority of the votes cast on the question shall be designated the official county fair. To qualify as the official county fair, the sponsoring society need not meet the conditions provided in subsection 1

174.11 Amount allowed as state aid.

The amount allowed to any society as state aid shall be a sum equal to eighty percent of the first one thousand dollars, seventy percent of the second one thousand dollars, and sixty percent of the third one thousand dollars paid in cash by the society for premiums at its annual fair for the current year, but the total aid shall not in any one year exceed two thousand dollars to any one agricultural society. However, in counties having more than one fair entitled to state aid, except in counties where there are two definitely separate county extension offices, the state aid available for the county shall be prorated to the fairs, which have been in existence for three years or more, on the basis of cash premiums paid by the fairs or, if an official county fair has been designated as provided in section 174 10, subsection 2, the state aid shall be paid to the official county fair

174.12 Payment of state aid.

The state comptroller shall issue a warrant to any society for the amount due as state aid, less one hundred dollars, provided the secretary of the state fair board certifies to the comptroller that such society has complied with the law relative thereto and that a named amount is due the society. The comptroller shall issue a like warrant for one hundred dollars provided the secretary of the state fair board certifies that such society had an accredited delegate in attendance at the annual convention for the election of members of the state fair board.

174.13 County aid.

The board of supervisors of the county in which a society is located may appropriate moneys to be used for fitting up or purchasing fairgrounds for the society or for aiding boys and girls 4-H club work and payment of agricultural and livestock premiums in connection with the fair, if the society owns or leases at least ten acres of land for the fairground and owns or leases buildings and improvements on the land of at least eight thousand dollars in value. A society may meet the requirement of owning or leasing land, buildings, and improvements through ownership by a joint entity under chapter 28E, of which the society is a part.

174.14 Fairground aid.

The board of supervisors of a county which has acquired real estate for county or district fair purposes and which has a society using the real estate, may appropriate moneys to be used for the erection and repair of buildings or other permanent improvements on the real estate, and for the payment of debts contracted in the erection or repair and payment of agricultural and livestock premiums. In addition, the net proceeds from the sale of fairground sites and structures on the sites shall be used for the erection of permanent buildings on a new fairground site or the cost of moving structures from the old to the new site.

174.15 Purchase and management.

Title to land purchased or received for fairground purposes shall be taken in the name of the county, but the board of supervisors shall place it under the control and management of an incorporated county or district fair society. The society may act as agent for the county in the erection of buildings, maintenance of grounds and buildings, or improvements constructed on the grounds. Title to new buildings or improvements shall be taken in the name of the county but the county is not liable for the improvements or expenditures for them.

174.18 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097; see §331.422(7).

174.19 Report to supervisors.

Each society receiving an appropriation from the county shall, through its secretary, make to the board of supervisors a detailed statement, accompanied with vouchers, showing the legal disbursement of all moneys so received.

174.20 Fraudulent entries of horses.

No person, partnership, company, or corporation shall knowingly enter or cause to be entered any horse of any age or sex under an assumed name, or out of its proper class, to compete for any purse, prize, premium, stake, or sweepstake offered or given by any agricultural or other society, association, person, or persons in the state, or drive any such horse under an assumed name, or out of its proper class, where such prize, purse, premium, stake, or sweepstake is to be decided by a contest of speed.

175.3 Establishment of authority.

1 The Iowa family farm development authority is established, and constituted a public instrumentality and agency of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions. The authority is established to undertake programs which assist beginning farmers in purchasing agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property for the purpose of farming and programs which provide financing to farmers for permanent soil and water conservation practices on agricultural land within the state or for the acquisition of conservation farm equipment. The powers of the authority are vested in and exercised by a board of eleven members with nine members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The treasurer of state and the secretary of agriculture are ex officio nonvoting members. No more than five members shall belong to the same political party. As far as possible the governor shall include within the membership persons who represent financial institutions experienced in agricultural lending, the real estate sales industry, farmers, beginning farmers, average taxpayers, local government, and any other person specially interested in family farm development

2 The appointed members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for terms of six years except that, of the first appointments, three members shall be appointed for terms of two years and three members shall be appointed for a term of four years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. An appointed member of the authority may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing. An appointed member of the authority may also serve as a member of the Iowa housing finance authority

3 Six members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the authority. The majority shall not include any member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member of a conflict of interest shall be conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority

4 The appointed members of the authority are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members

5 The appointed members of the authority and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64

6 Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or whenever two members so request

7 The appointed members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director shall serve as secretary to the authority

8 The net earnings of the authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations or to implement the public purposes and programs authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority including any net earnings shall vest in the state

175.4 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares as follows

1 The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes

2 The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter

3 There exists a serious problem in this state regarding the ability of nonestablished farmers to acquire agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property in order to enter farming

4 This barrier to entry into farming is conducive to consolidation of acreage of agricultural land with fewer individuals resulting in a grave threat to the traditional family farm

5 These conditions result in a loss in population, unemployment and a movement of persons from rural communities to urban areas accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services

6. One major cause of this condition has been recurrent shortages of funds in private channels and the high interest cost of borrowing.

7. These shortages and costs have made the sale and purchase of agricultural land to beginning farmers a virtual impossibility in many parts of the state.

8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise have not in the past corrected these conditions.

9. A stable supply of adequate funds for agricultural financing is required to encourage beginning farmers in an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the problems described in this section.

10. Article IX, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Iowa requires that, "The General Assembly shall encourage, by all suitable means, the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement," and agricultural improvement and the public good are served by a policy of facilitating access to capital by beginning farmers unable to obtain capital elsewhere in order to preserve, encourage and protect the family farm which has been the economic, political and social backbone of rural Iowa.

11. It is necessary to create a state family farm development authority to encourage ownership of farms by beginning farmers by providing purchase money loans to beginning farmers who are not able to obtain adequate capital elsewhere to provide such funds and to lower costs through the use of public financing.

12. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted.

13. The erosion of topsoil on agricultural land by wind and water is a serious problem within the state and one which threatens to destroy the natural resource most responsible for Iowa's prosperity.

14. It is necessary to the preservation of the economy and well-being of the state to encourage soil conservation practices by providing loans for permanent soil and water conservation practices on agricultural land within the state and for the acquisition of conservation farm equipment.

175.5 Guiding principles.

In the performance of its duties, implementation of its powers, selection of specific programs and projects to receive its assistance, the authority shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The authority shall not become an owner of real or depreciable property, except on a temporary basis where necessary in order to implement its programs, to protect its investments by means of foreclosure or other means, or to facilitate transfer of real or depreciable property for the use of beginning farmers.

2. The authority shall exercise diligence and care in selection of projects to receive its assistance and shall apply customary and acceptable business and lending standards in selection and subsequent implementation of the projects. The authority may delegate primary responsibility for determination and implementation of the projects to any federal governmental agency which assumes any obligation to repay the loan, either directly or by insurance or guarantee.

3. The authority shall establish a beginning farmer loan program to aid beginning farmers in the acquisition of agricultural land and improvements and depreciable agricultural property.

175.6 General powers.

The authority has all of the general powers needed to carry out its purposes and duties, and to exercise its specific powers, including but not limited to the power to:

1. Issue its negotiable bonds and notes as provided in this chapter in order to finance its programs.

2. Sue and be sued in its own name.

3. Have and alter a corporate seal.

4. Make and alter bylaws for its management consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

5. Make and execute agreements, contracts and other instruments, with any public or private entity, including but not limited to, any federal governmental agency or instrumentality. The authority may make and execute contracts with any firm of independent certified public accountants to prepare an annual report on behalf of the authority. The authority may make and execute contracts with mortgage lenders for the servicing of mortgage and secured loans. All political subdivisions, other public agencies and state agencies may enter into contracts and otherwise co-operate with the authority.

6. Acquire, hold, improve, mortgage, lease and dispose of real and personal property, including but not limited to, the power to sell at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any property, mortgage or secured loan or other obligation held by it.

7. Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its operations and property interests, including pool insurance on any group of mortgage or secured loans.

8. Fix and collect fees and charges for its services.

9. Subject to an agreement with bondholders or noteholders, invest or deposit moneys of the authority in a manner determined by the authority, notwithstanding chapter 452 or 453.

10. Accept appropriations, gifts, grants, loans, or other aid from public or private entities. A record of all gifts or grants, stating the type, amount and donor, shall be clearly set out in the authority's annual report along with the record of other receipts.

11. Provide to public and private entities technical assistance and counseling related to the authority's purposes.

12. In co-operation with other local, state or federal governmental agencies or instrumentalities, conduct studies of beginning farmer agricultural needs, and gather and compile data useful to facilitate decision making.

13. Contract with architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, housing construction and finance experts, and other advisors or enter into contracts or agreements for such services with local, state or federal governmental agencies.

14. Make, alter and repeal rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and subject to chapter 17A.

84 Acts, ch 1230, §1

175.7 Executive director — staff.

1. The governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, shall appoint an executive director of the authority, who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The executive director shall be selected primarily for administrative ability and knowledge in the field, without regard to political affiliation. The executive director shall not, directly or indirectly, exert influence to induce any other officers or employees of the state to adopt a political view, or to favor a political candidate for office.

2. The executive director shall advise the authority on matters relating to agricultural land and property and agricultural finance, and carry out all directives from the authority, and shall hire and supervise the authority's staff pursuant to its directions and under chapter 19A, except that principal administrative assistants with responsibilities in beginning farm loan programs, accounting, mortgage loan processing, and investment portfolio management are exempt from that chapter.

3. The executive director, as secretary of the authority, shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of its minute book and seal. The executive director may cause to be made copies of all minutes and other records and documents of the authority and give certificates under the seal of the authority to the effect that the copies are true copies and all persons dealing with the authority may rely upon the certificates.

84 Acts, ch 1236, §1

175.8 Annual report.

1. The authority shall submit to the governor and to the members of the general assembly as request it, not later than January 15 of each year, a complete and economically designed and reproduced report setting forth:

- a. Its operations and accomplishments.
- b. Its receipts and expenditures during the fiscal year, in accordance with the classifications it establishes for its operating and capital accounts.
- c. Its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year and the status of reserve, special and other funds.
- d. A schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and issued during its fiscal year.
- e. A statement of its proposed and projected activities.
- f. Recommendations to the general assembly, as it deems necessary.
- g. An analysis of beginning farmer needs in the state.

2. The annual report shall identify performance goals of the authority, and clearly indicate the extent of progress during the reporting period, in attaining the goals. Where possible, results shall be expressed in terms of number of loans and acres of agricultural land.

175.9 Nondiscrimination.

1. The opportunity to acquire agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property financed or otherwise assisted by the authority, directly or indirectly, is open to all persons regardless of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental impairment, or religion.

2. The authority shall promote marketing plans for its programs under this chapter.

175.10 Surplus moneys.

Moneys declared by the authority to be surplus moneys which are not required to service bonds and notes, to pay administrative expenses of the authority or to accumulate necessary operating or loss reserves, shall be used by the authority to provide loans, grants, subsidies, and services to beginning farmers through any of the programs authorized in this chapter.

175.11 Combination programs.

Programs authorized in this chapter may be combined with any other programs authorized in this chapter, under chapter 220 or under a federal program in order to facilitate as far as practicable the acquisition of agricultural land and property by beginning farmers or to facilitate the implementation of permanent soil and water conservation practices and the acquisition of conservation farm equipment.

[C81, §175.11; 82 Acts, ch 1243, §5]

175.12 Beginning farmer program.

1. The authority shall develop a beginning farmer loan program to facilitate the acquisition of agricultural land and improvements and depreciable agricultural property by beginning farmers. The authority shall exercise the powers granted to it in this chapter in order to fulfill the goal of providing financial assistance to beginning farmers in the acquisition of agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property. The authority may participate in and co-operate with programs of the farmers home administration, federal land bank or any other agency or instrumentality of the federal government or with any program of any other state agency in the administration of the beginning farmer loan program and in the making or purchasing of mortgage or secured loans pursuant to this chapter.

2. The authority may participate in any federal programs designed to assist beginning farmers or in any related federal or state programs.

3. The authority shall provide in a beginning farmer loan program that a mortgage or secured loan to or on behalf of a beginning farmer shall be provided only if the following criteria are satisfied:

- a. The beginning farmer is a resident of the state.
- b. The agricultural land and agricultural improvements or depreciable agricultural property the beginning farmer proposes to purchase will be located in the state.
- c. The beginning farmer has sufficient education, training, or experience in the type of farming for which the beginning farmer requests the mortgage or secured loan.
- d. The authority is financing the acquisition by that beginning farmer of agricultural land and agricultural improvements totaling no more than five hundred thousand dollars in value or of depreciable agricultural property totaling no more than one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars in value.

e. If the loan is for the acquisition of agricultural land, the beginning farmer has or will have access to adequate working capital, farm equipment, machinery or livestock. If the loan is for the acquisition of depreciable agricultural property, the beginning farmer has or will have access to adequate working capital or agricultural land.

f. The authority determines that the beginning farmer is unable to secure financing from nongovernmental sources upon terms and conditions which the beginning farmer reasonably could be expected to fulfill.

g. The agricultural land and agricultural improvements shall only be used for farming by the beginning farmer or the farmer's family.

h. The beginning farmer has not previously received financing under the program for the acquisition of property similar in nature to the property for which the loan is sought. However, this restriction shall not apply if the amount previously received plus the amount of the loan sought does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars in the case of agricultural land and improvements or one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars in the case of depreciable agricultural property.

i. Other criteria as the authority prescribes by rule.

4. The authority may provide in a mortgage or secured loan made or purchased pursuant to this chapter that the loan may not be assumed or any interest in the agricultural land or improvements or depreciable agricultural property may not be leased, sold or otherwise conveyed without its prior written consent and may provide a due-on-sale clause with respect to the occurrence of any of the foregoing events without its prior written consent. The authority may provide by rule the grounds for permitted assumptions of a mortgage or for the leasing, sale or other conveyance of any interest in the agricultural land or improvements. However, the authority shall provide and state in a mortgage or secured loan that the authority has the power to raise the interest rate of the loan to the prevailing market rate if the mortgage or secured loan is assumed by a farmer who is already established in that field at the time of the assumption of the loan. This provision controls with respect to a mortgage loan made or purchased pursuant to this chapter notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 535.

5. The authority may participate in any interest in any mortgage or secured loan made or purchased pursuant to this chapter with a mortgage lender. The participation interest may be on a parity with the interest in the mortgage or secured loan retained by the authority, equally and ratably secured by the mortgage or securing agreement securing the mortgage or secured loan.

[C81, §175.12; 81 Acts, ch 68, §3, 4]

Referred to in §175.34

175.13 Loans to beginning farmers.

1. The authority may make mortgage or secured loans, including but not limited to mortgage or secured loans insured, guaranteed, or otherwise secured by the federal government or a federal governmental agency or instrumentality, a state agency or private mortgage insurers, to beginning farmers to provide financing for agricultural land and agricultural improvements or depreciable agricultural property.

2. Mortgage or secured loans shall contain terms and provisions, including interest rates, and be in a form established by rules of the authority. The authority may require the beginning farmer to execute a note, loan agreement or other evidence of indebtedness and furnish additional assurances and guarantees, including insurance, reasonably related to protecting the security of the mortgage or secured loan, as the authority deems necessary.

[C81, §175.13]

Referred to in §175.34

175.14 Loans to mortgage lenders.

1. The authority may make and contract to make loans to mortgage lenders on terms and conditions it determines are reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment and to implementing the purposes of this chapter. Mortgage lenders are authorized to borrow from the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of each loan to a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender, within a reasonable period after receipt of the loan proceeds as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have entered into written commitments to make and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have disbursed the loan proceeds in new mortgage or secured loans to beginning farmers in an aggregate principal amount of not less than the amount of the loan. New mortgage or secured loans shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rules which are reasonably related to implementing the purposes of this chapter.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender to which the authority has made a loan, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage or secured loans to beginning farmers as required by this section and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage or secured loans to beginning farmers may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of a loan to a national banking association or a federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any enforcement proceeding. The authority may also require, as a condition of a loan to a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority shall require that each mortgage lender receiving a loan pursuant to this section shall issue and deliver to the authority evidence of its indebtedness to the authority which shall constitute a general obligation of the mortgage lender and shall bear a date, mature at a time, be subject to prepayment and contain other provisions consistent with this section and reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment, as the authority determines.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the interest rate and other terms of loans to mortgage lenders made from the proceeds of an issue of bonds or notes of the authority shall be at least sufficient to assure the payment of the bonds or notes and the interest on them as they become due.

7. The authority may require that loans to mortgage lenders are additionally secured as to payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of and lien upon collateral security by special escrow funds or other forms of guarantee and in amounts and forms as the authority by resolution determines to be necessary to assure the payment of the loans and the interest as they become due. Collateral security shall consist of direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed by the United States or one of its agencies, obligations satisfactory to the authority which are issued by other federal agencies, direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed by a state or a political subdivision of a state or investment quality obligations approved by the authority.

8. The authority may require that collateral for loans be deposited with a bank, trust company or other financial institution acceptable to the authority located in this state and designated by the authority as custodian. In the absence of that requirement, each mortgage lender shall enter into an agreement with the authority containing provisions the authority deems necessary to adequately identify and maintain the collateral, service the collateral and require the mortgage lender to hold the collateral as an agent for the authority and be accountable to the authority as the trustee of an express trust for the application and disposition of the collateral and the income from it. The authority may also establish additional requirements it deems necessary with respect to the pledging, assigning, setting aside or holding of collateral and the making of substitutions for it or additions to it and the disposition of income and receipts from it.

9. The authority may require as a condition of loans to mortgage lenders any representations and warranties it determines are necessary to secure the loans and carry out the purposes of this section.

10. The authority may require the beginning farmer to satisfy conditions and requirements normally imposed by mortgage lenders in making similar loans, including but not limited to, the purchase of capital stock in the federal land bank.

11. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with a provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section.

[C81, §175.14]

Referred to in §175.27, 175.34

175.15 Purchase of loans.

1. The authority may purchase and make advance commitments to purchase mortgage or secured loans from mortgage lenders at prices and upon terms and conditions as it determines. However, the total purchase price for all mortgage or secured loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the mortgage or secured loans purchased. Mortgage lenders are authorized to sell mortgage or secured loans to the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of purchase of mortgage or secured loans from mortgage lenders that the mortgage lenders certify that the mortgage or secured loans purchased are loans made to beginning farmers. Mortgage or secured loans to be made by mortgage lenders shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rule. The authority may make a commitment to purchase mortgage or secured loans from mortgage lenders in advance of the time the loans are made by mortgage lenders. The authority shall require as a condition of a commitment that mortgage lenders certify in writing that all mortgage or secured loans represented by the commitment will be made to beginning farmers and that the mortgage lender will comply with other authority specifications.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender from which the authority has purchased loans of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of mortgage or secured loans to beginning farmers as required by this section and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of mortgage or secured loans to beginning farmers may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of mortgage or secured loans from any national banking association or federally chartered savings and loan association the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any enforcement proceeding. The authority may also require as a condition of the purchase of mortgage or secured loans from a mortgage lender agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of a mortgage or secured loan from a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender make representations and warranties the authority requires. A mortgage lender is liable to the authority for damages suffered by the authority by reason of the untruth of a representation or the breach of a warranty and, in the event that a representation proves to be untrue when made or in the event of a breach of warranty, the mortgage lender shall, at the option of the authority, repurchase the mortgage or secured loan for the original purchase price adjusted for amounts subsequently paid on it, as the authority determines.

6. The authority shall require the recording of an assignment of a mortgage loan purchased by it from a mortgage lender and is not required to notify the mortgagor of its purchase of the mortgage loan. The authority is not required to inspect or take possession of the mortgage documents if the mortgage lender from which the mortgage loan is purchased enters into a contract to service the mortgage loan and account to the authority for it.

7. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with another provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section.

[C81, §175.15]

Referred to in §175.27, 175.34

175.16 Powers relating to loans.

Subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, the authority may renegotiate a mortgage or secured loan or a loan to a mortgage lender in default, waive a default or consent to the modification of the terms of a mortgage or secured loan or a loan to a mortgage lender, forgive or forbear all or part of a mortgage or secured loan or a loan to a mortgage lender and commence, prosecute and enforce a judgment in any action, including but not limited to a foreclosure action, to protect or enforce any right conferred upon it by law, mortgage or secured loan agreement, contract or other agreement and in connection with any action, bid for and purchase the property or acquire or take possession of it, complete, administer, pay the principal of and interest on any obligations incurred in connection with the property and dispose of and otherwise deal with the property in a manner the authority deems advisable to protect its interests.

175.17 Bonds and notes.

1. The authority may issue its negotiable bonds and notes in principal amounts which, in the opinion of the authority, are necessary to provide sufficient funds for achievement of its corporate purposes, the payment of interest on its bonds and notes, the establishment of reserves to secure its bonds and notes and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and powers. However, the authority may not have a total principal amount of bonds and notes outstanding at any time in excess of one hundred fifty million dollars. The bonds and notes shall be deemed to be investment securities and negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code.

2. Bonds and notes are payable solely and only out of the moneys, assets or revenues of the authority and as provided in the agreement with bondholders or noteholders pledging any particular moneys, assets or revenues. Bonds or notes are not an obligation of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitations, but are special obligations of the authority payable solely and only from the sources provided in this chapter, and the authority shall not pledge the credit or taxing power of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority or make its debts payable out of any moneys except those of the authority.

3. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. However, a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to negotiate and fix the details of an issue of bonds or notes by an appropriate certificate of the authorized officer.

4. Bonds shall:

a. State the date and series of the issue, be consecutively numbered and state on their face that they are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the assets of the authority and do not constitute an indebtedness of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limit.

b. Be either registered, registered as to principal only, or in coupon form, issued in denominations as the authority prescribes, fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this state, signed on behalf of the authority with the manual or facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, attested by the manual or facsimile signature of the secretary, have impressed or imprinted thereon the seal of the authority or a facsimile of it, and the coupons attached shall be signed with the facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, be payable as to interest at rates and at times as the authority determines, be payable as to principal at times over a period not to exceed fifty years from the date of issuance, at places and with reserved rights of prior redemption, as the authority prescribes, be sold at prices, at public or private sale, and in a manner as the authority prescribes, and the authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it deems necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and sale, and be issued under and subject to the terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal, redemption premiums, if any, interest and other terms, conditions, covenants and protective provisions safeguarding payment, not inconsistent with this chapter, as are found to be necessary by the authority for the most advantageous sale, which may include, but are not limited to, covenants with the holders of the bonds as to those matters set forth in section 220.26, subsection 4, paragraph "b".

5. The authority may issue its bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds or notes of the authority then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premiums and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the outstanding bonds or notes. Until the proceeds of bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes are applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding bonds or notes or the redemption of outstanding bonds or notes, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and be invested and reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The interest, income and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds or notes to be refunded by purchase, retirement or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other bonds.

6. The authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew them from time to time but the maximum maturity of the notes, including renewals, shall not exceed ten years from the date of issue of the original notes. Notes are payable from any available moneys of the authority not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of the sale of bonds in anticipation of which the notes were issued. Notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. Notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds and notes and the resolution authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection, which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Notes may be sold at public or private sale. In case of default on its notes or violation of any obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided in this chapter for bondholders. Notes shall be as fully negotiable as bonds of the authority.

7. A copy of each pledge agreement by or to the authority, including without limitation each bond resolution, indenture of trust or similar agreement, or any revisions or supplements to it shall be filed with the secretary of state and no further filing or other action under article 9* of the uniform commercial code, or any other law of the state shall be required to perfect the security interest in the collateral or any additions to it or substitutions for it and the lien and trust so created shall be binding from and after the time made against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the pledgor.

8. Members of the authority and any person executing its bonds, notes or other obligations are not liable personally on the bonds, notes or other obligations or subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

9. The authority shall publish a notice of intention to issue bonds or notes in a newspaper published and of general circulation in the state. The notice shall include a statement of the maximum amount of bonds or notes proposed to be issued, and in general, what net revenues will be pledged to pay the bonds or notes and interest thereon. An action shall not be brought questioning the legality of the bonds or notes or the power of the authority to issue the bonds or notes or to the legality of any proceedings in connection with the authorization or issuance of the bonds or notes after sixty days from the date of publication of the notice.

Referred to in §175.33, 175.34

*Section 554 9101 et seq

175.18 Reserve funds and appropriations.

1. The authority may create and establish one or more special funds, each to be known as a "bond reserve fund" and shall pay into each bond reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of the fund, any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing their issuance and any other moneys which are available to the authority for the purpose of the fund from any other sources. Moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn from it in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, as provided in this section, except for the purpose of making payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to the investment of it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund requirement for it.

3. The authority shall not at any time issue bonds, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the authority at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, an amount of money, as provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing the bonds with respect to which the fund is established, equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds secured by the fund.

4. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of its corporate purposes, provision is made in subsection 1 for the accumulation in each bond reserve fund of an amount equal to the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. In order further to assure maintenance of the bond reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July 1 of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor a certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to its bond reserve fund requirement. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including any sum required to restore each bond reserve fund to its bond reserve fund requirement. Sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable bond reserve fund.

5. Amounts paid over to the authority by the state pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute and be accounted for as advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes or obligations of the authority, the bond reserve fund and operating expenses.

6. The authority shall cause to be delivered to the legislative fiscal committee within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year its annual report certified by an independent certified public accountant, who may be the accountant or a member of the firm of accountants who regularly audits the books and accounts of the authority selected by the authority. In the event that the principal amount of any bonds or notes deposited in a bond reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal or interest thereby reducing the amount of that fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall take steps to restore the fund to its bond reserve fund requirement from any amounts available, other than principal of a bond issue, which are not pledged to the payment of other bonds or notes.

175.19 Remedies of bondholders and noteholders.

1. If the authority defaults in the payment of principal or interest on an issue of bonds or notes at maturity or upon call for redemption and the default continues for a period of thirty days or if the authority fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or defaults in an agreement made with the holders of an issue of bonds or notes, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of bonds or notes of the issue then outstanding, by instrument filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of the bonds or notes for the purposes provided in this section.

2. The authority or any trustee appointed under the indenture under which the bonds are issued may, but upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding shall:

a. Enforce all rights of the bondholders or noteholders including the right to require the authority to carry out its agreements with the holders and to perform its duties under this chapter.

b. Bring suit upon the bonds or notes.

c. By action require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders.

d. By action enjoin any acts or things which are unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders.

e. Declare all the bonds or notes due and payable and if all defaults are made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding, annul the declaration and its consequences.

3. The trustee shall also have all powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of functions specifically set forth or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. Before declaring the principal of bonds or notes due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority and to the attorney general of the state.

5. The district court has jurisdiction of any action by the trustee on behalf of bondholders or notehold-

ers. The venue of the action shall be in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

The bondholders or noteholders may, to the extent provided in the resolution to which the bonds or notes were issued or in its agreement with the authority, enforce any of the remedies in paragraphs "a" to "e" or the remedies provided in such proceedings or agreements for and on their own behalf.

175.20 Agreement of the state.

The state pledges and agrees with the holders of any bonds or notes that the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of agreements made with the holders or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds or notes together with the interest on them, plus interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action by or on behalf of the holders are fully met and discharged. The authority may include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds or notes.

175.21 Bonds and notes as legal investments.

Bonds and notes are securities in which public officers, state departments and agencies, political subdivisions, insurance companies and other persons carrying on an insurance business, banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, administrators, executors, guardians, conservators, trustees and other fiduciaries and other persons authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of this state may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also securities which may be deposited with and may be received by public officers, state departments and agencies and political subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is authorized.

175.22 Moneys of the authority.

1. Moneys of the authority, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be paid to the authority and shall be deposited in a bank or other financial institution designated by the authority. The moneys shall be withdrawn on the order of the person authorized by the authority. Deposits shall be secured in the manner determined by the authority. The auditor of state or the auditor's legally authorized representatives may periodically examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing, and the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for the examination.

2. The authority may contract with holders of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of moneys of the authority, of moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes and to carry out the contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of the moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and banks and trust companies may give security for the deposits.

3. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders or noteholders and to the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

4. The authority shall submit to the governor, the auditor of state and the state comptroller, within thirty days of its receipt, a copy of the report of every external examination of the books and accounts of the authority other than copies of the reports of examinations made by the auditor of state.

175.23 Limitation of liability.

Members of the authority and persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their employment or agency, are not subject to personal liability resulting from carrying out the powers and duties given in this chapter.

175.24 Assistance by state officers, agencies and departments.

State officers and state departments and agencies may render services to the authority within their respective functions as requested by the authority.

175.25 Liberal interpretation.

This chapter, being necessary for the welfare of this state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

175.26 Conflicts of interest.

1. If a member or employee other than the executive director of the authority has an interest, either direct or indirect, in a contract to which the authority is or is to be a party or in a mortgage lender requesting a loan from or offering to sell mortgage or secured loans to the authority, the interest shall be disclosed to the authority in writing and shall be set forth in the minutes of the authority. The member or employee having the interest shall not participate in action by the authority with respect to that contract or mortgage lender.

2. This section does not limit the right of a member, officer or employee of the authority to acquire an interest in bonds or notes or to limit the right of a member or employee other than the executive director to have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are deposited or which is acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party.

3. The executive director shall not have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are deposited or which is acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party. The executive director shall not receive, in addition to fixed salary or compensation, any money or valuable thing, either directly or indirectly, or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale of property or loan made by the authority, nor shall the executive director be pecuniarily interested, either as principal, co-principal, agent or beneficiary, either directly or indirectly or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, in any purchase, sale or loan.

175.27 Exemption from competitive bid laws.

The authority and all contracts made by it in carrying out its public and essential governmental functions under sections 175.14 and 175.15, shall be exempt from the laws of the state which provide for competitive bids in connection with such contracts.

175.28 Agency.

The authority shall make application to and receive from the secretary of agriculture of the United States, or any other proper federal official, pursuant and subject to the provisions of Pub. L. No. 499, 64 Stat. 152 (1950), (formerly codified 40 U.S.C. 440 et seq. (1976)) all of the trust assets held by the United States in trust for the Iowa rural rehabilitation corporation now dissolved.

Referred to in §175.30

175.29 Agreements.

The authority may enter into agreements with the secretary of agriculture of the United States pursuant to Pub. L. No. 499 s. 2(f) (1950) upon terms and conditions and for periods of time as mutually agreeable, authorizing the authority to accept, administer, expend and use in the state of Iowa all or any part of the trust assets or other funds in the state of Iowa which have been appropriated for use in carrying out the purposes of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act and to do any and all things necessary to effectuate and carry out the purposes of said agreements.

175.30 Assets — account.

The trust assets received under the application made pursuant to section 175.28 other than cash shall be taken on proper transfer or assignment from the department of human services to the authority and administered as provided in this chapter. These funds may be used for any of the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to costs of administration and insuring or guaranteeing payment of all or a portion of loans made pursuant to this chapter.

Beginning with August 11, 1983*, the authority shall establish an insurance or guarantee loan program with those funds received pursuant to section 175.28 to the extent those funds were not committed under a program authorized by this chapter on August 11, 1983*. This program shall provide for the insuring or guaranteeing of seventy-five percent of the amount of an agricultural loan, not in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, made to a beginning farmer to provide new operating moneys for farming purposes in this state. The authority shall insure or guarantee only one such loan of that farmer. The authority shall insure or guarantee a loan for only one year but with the option to extend the insurance or guarantee once for an additional year. The authority shall not insure or guarantee a loan where the ratio of the beginning farmer's liabilities, excluding the amount of the loan, to assets is greater than three to one. Provision shall be made in the insuring or guaranteeing of a loan that only those funds set aside for this program as provided in this paragraph shall be used for the payment of all or a portion of the loan insured or guaranteed. Provision shall also be made which provides that the authority shall pay under its insurance or guarantee seventy five percent of the actual amount of the default. A mortgage lender which seeks to have a loan of the lender insured or guaranteed under this program shall apply to the authority for the insurance or guarantee pursuant to rules established by the authority for this purpose. This program shall not obligate the state, authority, or other agency except to the extent provided in this paragraph. The authority shall define by rule what constitutes a loan made to provide new operating moneys which definition shall not include a loan made for acquisition of agricultural land or agricultural improvements, or the refinancing of an existing loan even if made for operating purposes.

175.31 Programs in progress.

The authority shall complete the administration of programs in progress on July 1, 1980 to the extent that funds were committed, obligations incurred or rights accrued prior to July 1, 1980 under the programs authorized under sections 234 15 to 234 20 prior to the repeal of those sections. Moneys received under this section shall be deposited to the authority.

175.32 Liability.

The United States, the authority and the secretary of agriculture of the United States shall be held free from liability by virtue of the transfer of the assets to the authority. The authority and persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their employment or agency, are not subject to personal liability resulting from carrying out their powers and duties under this chapter.

175.33 Additional loan program.

1 The authority may enter into a loan agreement with a beginning farmer to finance in whole or in part the acquisition by construction or purchase of agricultural land, agricultural improvements, or depreciable agricultural property. The repayment obligation of the beginning farmer may be unsecured, or may be secured by a mortgage or security agreement or by other security as the authority deems advisable, and may be evidenced by one or more notes of the beginning farmer. The loan agreement may contain terms and conditions as the authority deems advisable.

2 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purposes set forth in subsection 1 and may enter into a lending agreement or purchase agreement with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders may enter into an agreement to provide for any of the following:

a That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and investments thereon may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority, may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreement or any other security instrument securing the debt obligation of the beginning farmer.

c That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreement or security instrument on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee and if there is a default in the principal or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained therein, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

d That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced and any collateral sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law and a trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured thereby may become a purchaser if it is the highest bidder.

e Other terms and conditions.

3 The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes that the principal and interest shall be limited obligations payable solely out of the revenues derived from the debt obligation, collateral, or other security furnished by or on behalf of the beginning farmer, and that the principal and interest does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or a charge against its general credit or general fund.

4 The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 175 17, subsection 9 and section 175 19, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued pursuant to and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent that they are inconsistent with this section.

175.34 Soil conservation loan program.

1 The authority shall establish a soil conservation loan program to facilitate the implementation of permanent soil and water conservation practices and the acquisition of conservation farm equipment for agricultural land within the state by making financing for this program available to credit worthy owners or operators of agricultural land within the state. The authority may provide this financing under the program by direct loans, loans to lenders, and the purchase of loans in the manner provided in sections 175 13 through 175 15, except that the financing pursuant to these sections shall not be limited to beginning farmers. In addition under the program, the authority may enter into a loan agreement with the owner or operator to finance in whole or in part the implementation of permanent soil and water conservation practices and the acquisition of conservation farm equipment for agricultural land in the state. The repayment obligation of the owner or operator may be unsecured, or may be secured by a mortgage or security agreement or by other security as the authority deems advisable, and may be evidenced by one or more notes of the owner or operator. The loan agreement may contain terms and conditions as the authority deems advisable.

2 In addition to the other conditions and criteria established for the soil conservation loan program, the following apply:

a Loans made pursuant to the soil conservation loan program shall only be made to the owner or operator of a farm located within the state for which a conservation plan has been developed by the soil conservation district and the project for which the loan is to be made has been approved by the district. However, loans under the soil conservation loan program for implementation of a permanent soil and water conservation practice shall not be remitted to the applicant until the applicant provides evidence that payment of the permanent soil and water conservation practice is arranged for and the soil conservation district certifies that the practice is completed and approved.

b The program and financing provided pursuant to the program shall not be limited to beginning farmers but shall be available to all credit worthy owners or operators of agricultural land within the state, however in providing financing for the acquisition of conservation farm equipment preference shall be given those owners or operators of agricultural land who have the lower net worths.

c The department of soil conservation or any other state agency and the commissioners and staffs of the soil conservation districts are authorized to provide technical and financial assistance to the authority or in connection with the soil conservation loan program to assure the success of this program.

d The amount of financing that may be provided under the soil conservation loan program shall not exceed the cost of implementing the permanent soil and water conservation practice or of acquiring the conservation farm equipment which the owner or operator is seeking to implement or acquire less any amounts the owner or operator will receive in public cost sharing funds under chapter 467A or other provisions of state or federal law for the implementation or acquisition. However, the maximum amount of loans that an owner or operator may receive pursuant to this program shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars for permanent soil and water conservation practices and fifty thousand dollars for conservation farm equipment.

e If a cooperator of a soil conservation district qualifies for cost sharing under a state soil conservation cost share program, the cooperator is eligible for a loan request. In granting these requests the authority shall give preference to those with the lower net worths.

3 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purposes set forth in subsection 1 and may enter into a lending agreement or purchase agreement with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. However, the authority shall not have a total principal amount of bonds and notes outstanding under this section at any time in excess of twenty five percent of the limitation on the amount of bonds and notes at any time specified in section 175.17, subsection 1. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders may enter into an agreement to provide for any of the following:

a That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and investments thereon may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority, may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreement or any other security instrument securing the debt obligation of the owner or operator of the agricultural land.

c That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreement or security instrument on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee and if there is a default in the principal or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained therein, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

d That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced and any collateral sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law and a trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured thereby may become a purchaser if it is the highest bidder.

e Other terms and conditions.

4 The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes that the principal and interest are limited obligations payable solely out of the revenues derived from the debt obligation, collateral, or other security furnished by or on behalf of the owner or operator of the agricultural land, and that the principal and interest do not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or a charge against its general credit or general fund.

5 The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 175.12, section 175.17, subsection 9 and section 175.19, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued pursuant to and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent that they are inconsistent with this section.

176A.1 Short title.

This chapter may be known and cited as the “County Agricultural Extension Law.”

176A.2 Declaration of policy.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to provide for aid in disseminating among the people of Iowa useful and practical information on subjects relating to agriculture, home economics and rural and community life, and to encourage the application of the same in the several counties of the state through extension work to be carried on in co-operation with Iowa State University of science and technology and the United States department of agriculture as provided in the Act of Congress May 8, 1914, as amended by Public Law 83 of the Eighty-third Congress.

176A.3 Definition of terms.

Whenever used or referred to in this chapter unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context (1) “county agricultural extension district” hereinafter referred to as “extension district” means a governmental subdivision of this state, and a public body corporate organized in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for the purposes, with the powers, and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth; (2)

“county agricultural extension council” hereinafter referred to as “extension council” means the agency created and constituted as provided in section 176A.5; (3) “Iowa State University” means the “Iowa State University of science and technology,” and shall hereinafter be referred to as “Iowa State University”; (4) “extension service” means the “co-operative extension service in agriculture and home economics of Iowa State University,” and shall hereinafter be referred to as “extension service”; (5) “director of extension” means the “director of Iowa State University of science and technology extension service,” and shall hereinafter be referred to as “director of extension.”

176A.4 Establishment — body corporate — county agricultural extension districts.

Each county, except Pottawattamie, is constituted and established as a “county agricultural extension district” and shall be a public body corporate organized in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for the purposes, with the powers and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth. Pottawattamie county shall be divided into and constitute two districts with one district to be known as “East Pottawattamie” which shall include the following townships: Pleasant, Layton, Knox, James, Valley, Lincoln, Washington, Belknap, Center, Wright, Carson, Macedonia, Grove, Waveland; and the other “West Pot-

176A.5 County agricultural extension council.

There shall be elected in each extension district an "extension council" consisting of one elected resident member from each of the townships. The members of the extension council shall be qualified by being a resident qualified voter of the township. The resident qualified voters in each of the townships of a district shall meet annually during the period November 1 to December 31, upon a date and at a time and place determined and fixed by the extension council, except as herein otherwise provided.

Referred to in §176A 3, 176A 16

176A.6 Annual elections.

In the year in each of the townships of each of the extension districts in which the term of office of the member of the extension council elected from the township expires as of December 31 in said year there shall be held an annual township election meeting during the period November 1 to December 31 for the election of a member of the extension council for a term of two years. No member of the extension council who has been elected to serve for a two-year term shall be eligible for election for more than one successive two-year term.

176A.7 County agricultural extension council — meetings.

The members of each of the extension councils elected from the several townships of each of the extension districts, as herein provided, shall constitute the extension council of each extension district and their term of office shall commence January 1 following the date of their election, and they shall meet annually in each of the extension districts on such date and at such time and place during the months of January and July each year, and at such other times during the year as shall be determined and fixed by the extension council.

176A.8 Powers and duties of county agricultural extension council.

The extension councils of each extension district of the state shall have, exercise, and perform the following powers and duties:

1. To elect from their own number annually in January a chairperson, vice chairperson, secretary and a treasurer who shall serve and be the officers of the extension council for a term expiring December 31 each year, and perform the functions and duties as herein in this chapter provided.

2. To and shall each year at the meeting at which the date, time, and place of the holding of township election meetings is fixed and determined, appoint from their own number one member whose term does not expire as of December 31 following said meeting to act as temporary chairperson of the first meeting of the extension council to be held in January following his appointment, and one to act as temporary secretary of said extension council meeting.

3. To serve as an agency of the state and to manage and transact all of the business and affairs of its district and have control of all of the property acquired by it and necessary for the conduct of the business of the district for the purposes of this chapter.

4. To and shall fix the date, time and place in each of the townships of the extension district for the holding of township election meetings during the period provided for the holding of them for the election of members of the extension council, and call the township election meetings in each of the townships of the extension district for the election of the members of the extension council and cause notice of said election to be published once at least one week but not more than three weeks prior to the date fixed for the holding of such meetings in a newspaper having general circulation in each extension district, and the cost of publishing said notice shall be paid by the extension council. The township election meeting to elect a member of the extension council from the township may, by designation of the extension council, be held in another township of that county, provided that the extension council may not designate that over four such township elections may be combined into one election. All the provisions of this chapter referring to township election meetings in the townships shall apply equally to the election meetings held at such other place in the county.

5. To and shall prior to the date of the holding of a township election meeting, designate two resident qualified voters in each of the several townships in which an election meeting is to be held, one to act as chairperson, one to act as secretary of said meeting, which said meeting shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order. The minutes of each township election meeting shall be recorded by the secretary, signed and certified by the chairperson and secretary and delivered by the secretary to the office of the extension council of the several extension districts on or before the date fixed for the next meeting of the extension council.

6. To and shall prior to the date fixed for the holding of the election meetings in the several townships of the district, appoint in each of the townships in which a township election meeting is to be held a nominating committee consisting of three members and designate the chairperson thereof, which nominating committee shall nominate at least two resident qualified voters as candidates for election to membership in the extension council, which committee shall certify the names of the nominees and deliver said certificate to the person designated as chairperson of the township election meeting on or before the date fixed for the holding thereof.

7. To enter into a Memorandum of Understanding with the extension service setting forth the co-operative relationship between the extension service and the extension district.

8. To employ all necessary extension professional personnel from qualified nominees furnished to it and recommended by the director of extension and not to terminate the employment of any such without first conferring with the director of extension, and to employ such other personnel as it shall determine necessary for the conduct of the business of the extension district, and to fix the compensation for all such personnel in co operation with the extension service and in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding entered into with such extension service

9 To prepare annually on or before January 31 a budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending the following June 30, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 24 and certify the same to the board of supervisors of the county of their extension district as required by law

10 To and shall be responsible for the preparation and adoption of the educational program on extension work in agriculture, home economics and 4-H club work, and periodically review said program and for the carrying out of the same in co-operation with the extension service in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding with said extension service

11 To make and adopt such rules not inconsistent with the law as it may deem necessary for its own government and the transaction of the business of the extension district

12 To fill all vacancies in its membership to serve for the unexpired term of the member creating such vacancy by electing a resident qualified voter from the township of the residence of the member creating such vacancy If for any reason a township election meeting is not held pursuant to call and published notice and no one is elected from said township as a member of the extension council of the district, there shall be a vacancy in such membership on the extension council

13 To and shall, as soon as possible following the meeting at which the officers are elected, file in the office of the board of supervisors and of the county treasurer a certificate signed by its chairperson and secretary certifying the names, addresses and terms of office of each member, and the names and addresses of the officers of the extension council with the signatures of the officers affixed thereto, and said certificate shall be conclusive as to the organization of the extension district, its extension council, and as to its members and its officers

14 To and shall deposit all funds received from the "county agricultural extension education fund" in a bank or banks approved by it in the name of the extension district These receipts shall constitute a fund known as the "county agricultural extension education fund" which shall be disbursed by the treasurer of the extension council on vouchers signed by its chairperson and secretary and approved by the extension council and recorded in its minutes

15 To expend the "county agricultural extension education fund" for salaries and travel, expense of personnel, rental, office supplies, equipment, communications, office facilities and services, and in payment of such other items as shall be necessary to carry out the extension district program, provided, however, it shall be unlawful for the county agricultural extension council to lease any office space which is occupied or used by any other farm organization or farm co operative, and provided further, that it shall be lawful for the county agricultural extension council to lease space in a building owned or occupied by a farm organization or farm co-operative

16 To carry over unexpended county agricultural extension education funds into the next year so that funds will be available to carry on the program until such time as moneys received from taxes are collected by the county treasurer However, the unencumbered funds in the county agricultural extension education fund in excess of one half the amount expended from the fund in the previous year shall be paid over to the county treasurer The treasurer of the extension council with the approval of the council may invest agricultural extension education funds retained by the council and not needed for current expenses in the manner authorized for treasurers of political subdivisions under section 453 1

17 To file with the county auditor and to publish in two newspapers of general circulation in the district before August 1 full and detailed reports under oath of all receipts, from whatever source derived, and expenditures of such county agricultural extension education fund showing from whom received, to whom paid and for what purpose for the last fiscal year

176A.14 Extension council officers — duties.

1. The chairperson of the extension council shall preside at all meetings of the extension council, have authority to call special meetings of said council upon such notice as shall be fixed and determined by the extension council, and shall call special meetings of the extension council upon the written request of a majority of the members of said council, and in addition to the duties imposed in this chapter perform and exercise the usual duties performed and exercised by a chairperson or president of a board of directors of a corporation.

2. The vice chairperson, in the absence or disability of the chairperson, or the chairperson's refusal to act, shall perform the duties imposed upon the chairperson and act in the chairperson's stead.

3. The secretary shall perform the duties usually incident to this office. The secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the extension council. The secretary shall sign such instruments and papers as are required to be signed by the secretary as such in this chapter, and by the extension council from time to time.

4. The treasurer shall receive, deposit and have charge of all of the funds of the extension council and pay and disburse the same as in this chapter required, and as may be from time to time required by the extension council. The treasurer shall keep an accurate record of receipts and disbursements and submit a report thereof at such times as may be required by the extension council.

Each of the officers of the extension council shall perform and carry out the duties herein in this section imposed upon them and perform and carry out such other duties as shall be imposed upon them in the rules adopted by the extension council from time to time as in this chapter authorized. The members of the extension council, within fifteen days after their election as such, shall take and sign the usual oath of public officers and the same shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county of the extension district. The treasurer of the extension council, within ten days after the election as treasurer and before entering upon the duties of the office as treasurer, shall execute to the extension council a corporate surety bond of one hundred twenty-five percent of the amount, as near as can be ascertained, that shall be in the hands of the treasurer at any one time. All such bonds shall be continued to the faithful discharge of the duties of the office of treasurer. The amount and sufficiency of all bonds shall be determined by the county treasurer of the county of the extension district and upon the treasurer's approval endorsed on the bond shall be filed with the county auditor of the county of the extension district who shall notify the chairperson of the extension council of the approval by the county treasurer and of the filing thereof in the auditor's office. The cost of any corporate surety bond so furnished by a treasurer shall be paid for by the extension council.

176A.15 Consolidation of extension districts.

Any two or more extension districts may be consolidated to form a single extension district, by resolution duly adopted by the extension council of each such extension district. Upon adoption of such resolutions providing for such consolidation, the extension councils shall do all things which may be necessary or convenient to carry into effect such consolidation. The initial extension council for such new extension district shall consist of the members of the extension councils of the consolidated extension districts. The extension council of such new extension district shall promptly elect officers as provided in this chapter, and upon such election the terms of the officers of the extension councils of the consolidated extension districts shall terminate. The extension council of the new extension district shall select a name for such district and shall file the name, together with copies of the resolution providing for such consolidation, with the recorder of each county affected thereby. The new extension district shall be regarded for all purposes as an extension district, the same as if such extension district consisted of a single county, and its extension council and officers thereof shall have all the powers and duties which now or hereafter may pertain to extension councils and officers thereof. All assets and liabilities of the consolidated extension districts shall become the assets and liabilities of the new extension district. The tax rate for the "county agricultural extension education fund" shall be the same in each county included in an extension district formed by consolidation. For the purposes of any law requiring extension districts to file any document with or certify any information to any county officer or board, an extension district formed by consolidation shall file or certify the same with or to the appropriate officer or board of each county included in the extension district. An extension district formed by consolidation may be dissolved and the original extension districts as they existed prior to such consolidation may be re-established, by resolution duly adopted by the extension council of such extension district; and upon adoption of such resolution, the extension council shall do all things which may be necessary or convenient to carry into effect such dissolution and the re-establishment of the original extension districts.

177A.1 Short title.

This chapter shall be known by the short title of "The Iowa Crop Pest Act."

177A.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

"Insect pests and diseases." Insect pests and diseases injurious to plants and plant products, including any of the stages of development of such insect pests and diseases.

"Plants and plant products." Trees, shrubs, vines, berry plants, greenhouse plants and all other nursery plants; forage and cereal plants, and all other parts of plants; cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, and all other parts of plants; and fruit, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, wood, lumber, and all other plant products.

"Places." Vessels, cars, boats, trucks, automobiles, aircraft, wagons and other vehicles or carriers, whether air, land or water, buildings, docks, nurseries, greenhouses, orchards, fields, gardens, and other premises or any container where plants and plant products are grown, kept or handled.

177A.3 State entomologist.

There is hereby created and established within the department of agriculture the office of state entomologist. The state entomologist shall be appointed by, responsible to and under the authority of the secretary of agriculture in the issuance of all rules, the establishment of quarantines and other official acts. The secretary of agriculture shall provide the state entomologist with suitable office space.

[S13, §2575-a47; C24, §4045; C27, 31, 35, §4062-b3; C39, §4062.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §267.3; C75, 77, 79, 81, §177A.3; 81 Acts, ch 70, §1]

177A.4 Employees — expenses.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the state entomologist with the approval of the secretary of agriculture shall employ, prescribe the duties of, and fix the compensation of, such inspectors, and other employees as needed and incur such expenses as may be necessary, within the limits of appropriations made by law. The state entomologist shall co-operate with other departments, boards and officers of the state and of the United States as far as practicable.

177A.5 Duties — public nuisances.

The state entomologist shall keep informed as to known species and varieties of insect pests and diseases, the origin, locality, nature and appearance thereof, the manner in which they are disseminated, and approved methods of treatment and eradication. In the rules made pursuant to this chapter the state entomologist shall list the dangerously injurious insect pests and diseases which the entomologist shall find should be prevented from being introduced into, or disseminated within, this state in order to safeguard the plants and plant products likely to become infested or infected with such insect pests and diseases. Every such insect pest and disease listed, and every plant product infested or infected therewith, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. Every person who has knowledge of the presence in or upon any place of any insect pest or disease so listed, shall immediately report the fact and location to the state entomologist, or the assistant state entomologist, giving such detailed information relative thereto as the person may have. Every person who deals in or engages in the sale of plants and plant products shall furnish to the state entomologist or the entomologist's inspectors, when requested, a statement of the names and addresses of the persons from whom and the localities where the person purchased or obtained such plants and plant products.

177A.6 Rules.

The state entomologist shall, from time to time, make rules for carrying out the provisions and requirements of this chapter, including rules under which the inspectors and other employees shall:

1. Inspect places, plants and plant products, and things and substances used or connected therewith,
2. Investigate, control, eradicate and prevent the dissemination of insect pests and diseases, and
3. Supervise or cause the treatment, cutting and destruction of plants and plant products infested or infected therewith.

The state entomologist, the entomologist's inspectors, employees, or other authorized agents shall have authority to enforce these rules which shall be published in the same manner as are the other rules of the department of agriculture.

No nursery stock dealer shall sell, offer for sale, or distribute nursery products by any method, or under any circumstances or condition, which have the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective customers as to quantity, size, grade, kind, species, age, maturity, viability condition, vigor, hardiness, number of times transplanted, growth ability, growth characteristics, rate of growth or time required before flowering or fruiting, price, origin or place where grown, or in any other material respect.

When under the provisions of this section it becomes necessary for the state entomologist to verify sizes and grades of nursery stock, or either of them, the entomologist shall use as a guide the "American Standard for Nursery Stock" as revised and approved by the American Standards Association, Inc.

177A.7 Infection — eradication — notice.

Whenever inspection discloses that any places, or plants or plant products, or things and substances used or connected therewith, are infested or infected with any dangerously injurious insect pest or disease listed as a public nuisance, written notice thereof shall be given the owner or person in possession or control of the place where found, who shall proceed to control, eradicate or prevent the dissemination of such insect pest or disease, and to remove, cut or destroy infested and infected plants and plant products, or things and substances used or connected therewith, as prescribed in the notice or the rules. Whenever such owner or person in possession cannot be found, or shall fail, neglect or refuse to obey the requirements of the notice and the rules, such requirements shall be carried out by the state entomologist, as required by section 177A.17.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, give away, carry, ship, or deliver for carriage or shipment, within this state, any plants or plant products listed in the rules unless such plants or plant products have been officially inspected and a certificate issued by an inspector of the state entomologist's office stating that such plants or plant products have been inspected and found to be apparently free from dangerously injurious insect pests and diseases, and giving any other facts provided for in the rules. For the issuance of such certificate, the state entomologist may require the payment of a reasonable fee to cover the expense of such inspection and certification. Provided, that if such plants or plant products were brought into this state in compliance with section 177A.8, the certificate required by that section may be accepted in lieu of the inspection and certificate required by this section, in such cases as shall be provided for in the rules. If it shall be found at any time that a certificate of inspection, issued or accepted under the provisions of this section, is being used in connection with plants and plant products which are infested or infected with dangerously injurious insect pests or diseases or in connection with uninspected plants, its further use may be prohibited, subject to such inspection and disposition of the plants and plant products involved as may be provided for by the state entomologist. All moneys collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be turned over to the secretary who shall deposit them in the state treasury.

The fees for inspections and certifications shall not be less than fifteen dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. Certificates shall be issued to nursery stock growers and dealers on an annual basis. Inspection and certification fees for nursery stock growers shall be fifteen dollars plus one dollar per acre or part thereof, according to the amount of stock inspected. The inspection and certification fee for nursery stock dealers shall be fifteen dollars. All fees shall be paid at the time of inspection or before a certificate is issued. Inspection and certification shall take place when necessary to enforce this chapter and the rules pursuant to it. Certificates issued in accordance with this chapter may be revoked when inspection results determine that conditions violate the standards for which certification was issued.

177A.11 Quarantine — general powers.

Whenever the state entomologist shall find that there exists outside of this state any insect pest or disease, and that its introduction into this state should be prevented in order to safeguard plants and plant products in this state, the state entomologist is authorized to quarantine and promulgate quarantine restrictions covering areas within the states affected by the pest and may adopt, issue, and enforce rules supplemental to such quarantines for the control of the pest. Under such quarantines, the state entomologist or his authorized agents may prohibit and prevent the movement within the state without inspection, or the shipment or transportation within the state, of any agricultural or horticultural product, or any other material of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerously injurious insect pest or disease in any living state of its development; and, in the enforcement of such quarantine, may intercept, stop, and detain for official inspection any person, car, vessel, boat, truck, automobile, aircraft, wagon, vehicles or carriers or any container, material, or substance believed or known to be carrying the insect pest or plant disease in any living state of its development in violation of said quarantines or of the rules issued supplemental thereto, and may seize, possess, and destroy any agricultural or horticultural product or other material of any character whatsoever, moved, shipped, or transported in violation of such quarantines or the rules.

[S13, §2575-a48; C24, §4049; C27, 31, 35, §4062-b11; C39, §4062.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §267.11; C75, 77, 79, 81, §177A.11]

177A.12 Federal quarantine — seizures.

1. Until the secretary of agriculture of the United States shall have made a determination that a federal quarantine is necessary, and has duly established the same with reference to any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, the state entomologist of this state is authorized to promulgate and enforce quarantine regulations prohibiting or restricting the transportation of any class of plant material or product or article into this state from any state, territory or district of the United States, when the entomologist shall have information that a dangerous plant disease or insect infestation exists in such state, territory, district, or portion thereof.

2. The state entomologist, the entomologist's inspectors or duly authorized agents are authorized to seize, destroy, or return to the point of origin any material received in this state in violation of any state quarantine established under the authority of subsection 1 hereof, or in violation of any federal quarantine established under the authority of the Act of August 20, 1912, [37 Stat. L. ch 308] or any amendment thereto.

177A.13 Quarantines — seizure and destruction.

Whenever the state entomologist shall find that there exists in this state, or any part thereof, any dangerously injurious insect pest or plant disease, and that its dissemination should be controlled or prevented, the entomologist may institute quarantines and promulgate quarantine restrictions covering areas within the state affected by such pest or disease, and may adopt, issue and enforce rules supplemental to such quarantines for the control of this pest. Under such quarantines, the state entomologist, the entomologist's inspectors or authorized agents may prohibit and prevent the movement within the state without inspection or the shipment or transportation within this state, of any agricultural or horticultural product, or any other material of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerously injurious insect pest or disease in any living state of its development; and, in the enforcement of such quarantine, may intercept, stop, and detain for official inspection any person, car, vessel, boat, truck, automobile, aircraft, wagon, or other vehicles or carriers of any kind or character, whether air, land, or water, or any container or material believed or known to be carrying such insect pest or plant disease in any living state of its development or any such material, in violation of said quarantine or of the rules issued supplemental thereto, and may seize, possess, and destroy any agricultural or horticultural product or other material of any character whatsoever, moved, shipped, or transported in violation of such quarantines or the said rules.

The state entomologist shall give public notice of such quarantines, specifying the plants and plant products infested or infected, or likely to become infested or infected; and the movement, planting or other use of any such plant or plant product, or other thing or substance specified in such notice as likely to carry and disseminate such insect pest or disease, except under such conditions as shall be prescribed as to inspection, treatment and disposition, shall be prohibited within such area as the entomologist may designate. When the state entomologist shall find that the danger of the dissemination of such insect pest or disease has ceased to exist, the entomologist shall give public notice that the quarantine is raised.

177A.17 Duty of owner — assessment of costs.

When treatment or destruction of an agricultural or horticultural plant or product, in field, feedlot, place of assemblage or storage, or elsewhere, or when a special type of plowing or any other agricultural or horticultural operation is required under the rules, the owner or person having charge of the plants, plant products or places, upon due notice from the state entomologist or the entomologist's authorized agents, shall take the action required within the time and in the manner designated by the notice. If the owner or person in charge refuses or neglects to obey the notice, the secretary of agriculture, or the secretary's authorized agents, may do what is required, and the secretary shall assess the expense to the owner after giving the owner legal notice and a hearing. No expense other than that incidental to normal and usual farm operations shall be so assessed. If the assessment is not paid, the secretary shall certify it to the treasurer of the proper county who shall enter it on the tax books and collect it as ordinary taxes are collected and remit it to the secretary.

177A.19 Harmful barberry.

1. No person, firm, or corporation shall receive, ship, accept for shipment, transport, sell, offer for sale, give away, deliver, plant, or permit to exist on the person's, firm's, or corporation's premises any plant of the harmful barberry, or any plant of a species that shall be designated by the state entomologist in published regulations to be a host or carrier of a dangerous plant disease or insect pest.

2. The state entomologist and the entomologist's inspectors, and authorized agents, are hereby empowered to eradicate any such plant found growing in the state. If the owner shall refuse or neglect to eradicate such plants within ten days after receiving a written notice, the expense of such eradication shall be assessed, collected, and enforced against the premises upon which such expense was incurred as taxes are assessed, collected and enforced.

3. The term "harmful barberry" shall be interpreted to consist of any species of Berberis or Mahonia susceptible to infection by Puccinia graminis, commonly called black stem rust of grain, but not including Japanese barberry (B. thunbergii), which does not propagate the rust.

4. The procedures provided in section 177A.17 and all other applicable provisions of sections 177A.5 to 177A.18 shall govern and apply to the enforcement of this section.

179.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. The term "commission" shall mean the Iowa dairy industry commission.
2. The term "person" shall mean individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, associations, co-operatives, and any and all other business units.
3. The term "producer" shall mean and include every person who produces milk or cream from cows and thereafter sells the same as milk, cream, or other dairy products.
4. The term "dealer" shall mean and include any person who buys, sells, manufactures, processes or ships dairy products, or who acts as sales or purchasing agent, broker or factor of dairy products.
5. "Collection period" means a calendar month. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §179.1]

179.2 Commission created — suspension during national order.

There is created an Iowa dairy industry commission, referred to in this chapter as the commission. The commission shall be composed of the head of the dairy science department and the head of the food technology department of Iowa State University of science and technology, the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's designee, and nine members appointed by the secretary of agriculture as provided in this section.

For purposes of this chapter, the board of directors of the Iowa state dairy association shall divide the state, by counties, into nine districts, each having approximately an equal number of cows kept for milking purposes, based on the latest available United States census. The districts shall be numbered consecutively by the board.

On or before May 15 each year,* the board of directors of the Iowa state dairy association shall nominate for the offices of appointive commissioners, three resident producers from each of the nine representative districts. The list of nominees shall be certified to the secretary of agriculture by the president and secretary of the Iowa state dairy association. On or before June 10, 1975, the secretary of agriculture shall appoint one of the nominees so certified from each of the districts as a commissioner of the Iowa dairy industry commission. Commissioners selected from districts one, four, and seven shall be appointed for one-year terms; commissioners appointed from districts two, five, and eight shall be appointed for two-year terms; and commissioners appointed from districts three, six, and nine shall be appointed for three-year terms. Thereafter, commissioners shall be appointed for three-year terms in the manner provided in this section.

Commissioners shall serve until their successors are duly appointed and qualify. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the commission resulting from removal from the district, death, inability or refusal to serve, or failure to meet the definition of a producer, shall be filled within three months of the time the vacancy occurs in the manner provided in this section. Vacancy appointments shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term. A commissioner shall not serve more than two consecutive full terms.

Appointive members of the commission shall receive forty dollars for each day spent on official business of the commission, not to exceed six hundred dollars per annum, and their actual necessary expenses, while engaged in commission activity.

When a national promotional order is established by the United States department of agriculture pursuant to the dairy product stabilization Act of 1983, collection of the excise tax in section 179.5 shall be suspended for the period in which the national order is in effect. The commission shall continue to operate thereafter for only such period of time as is necessary to pay refunds and disburse the funds remaining in the dairy industry fund for the purposes enumerated in this chapter. Upon completion of these acts, the existence of the Iowa dairy industry commission shall be suspended. The secretary of agriculture shall certify the suspension of the commission as of a date certain to the Iowa dairy industry commission and the Iowa state dairy association. When the existence of the commission is suspended, the terms of office being served by individual commissioners shall also be suspended.

When the national promotional order expires, the period of suspension of the excise tax in section 179.5 shall terminate and the secretary of agriculture shall take such steps as are necessary to collect that excise tax and otherwise fulfill the duties of the commission, except that of expending funds collected under the excise tax, until those duties can be resumed by the reactivated commission. When the national promotional order expires, the period of suspension of the commission shall terminate and the terms of office of the individual commissioners shall continue and the period of the suspension shall not be counted to determine the time left in the terms of office. Vacancies occurring in the commission during the period of suspension shall be filled when the suspension is terminated. The secretary of agriculture shall call the first meeting of the reactivated commission. Upon reactivation, the commission shall reimburse the secretary of agriculture for any expenses incurred in carrying out the duties provided in this paragraph.

The powers and duties of the commission shall include the following:

1. To elect a chairperson, a secretary, and from time to time such other officers as it may deem advisable, and from time to time to adopt, rescind, modify and amend all proper and necessary rules, regulations and orders for the exercise of its power and the performance of its duties, which rules and orders shall have the force and effect of law when not inconsistent with existing laws.

2. To administer and enforce this chapter, and do and perform all acts and exercise all powers reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

3. To employ at its pleasure and discharge at its pleasure such attorneys, advertising counsel, advertising agencies, clerks and employees as it deems necessary, and to prescribe their duties and powers and fix their compensation.

4. To establish offices and incur any and all expense, and to enter into any and all contracts and agreements for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter.

5. To report alleged violations of this chapter to the attorney general of the state of Iowa.

6. To conduct scientific research for the purpose of developing and discovering the health, food, therapeutic, dietetic, and industrial uses for products of milk or its derivatives.

7. To make in the name of the commission such advertising contracts and other agreements as it deems necessary to promote the sale and consumption of dairy products on either a state or national basis.

8. To keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all its dealings, which books, records, and accounts shall be open to inspection and audit by the board of directors of the Iowa state dairy association or its representatives, and shall be audited annually by the auditor of state.

9. To receive, administer, disburse and account for, in addition to the funds received from the excise tax hereinafter imposed by section 179.5, all such other funds as may be voluntarily contributed to said commission for the purpose of promoting dairy products.

179.4 Advertising campaign.

The commission shall plan and conduct a campaign for commodity advertising, publicity and sales promotion, research and educational campaigns to increase the consumption of dairy products, and may contract for any advertising, publicity, and sales promotion, research and educational service. To accomplish such purpose the commission shall have power and it shall be the duty of the commission to disseminate information as follows:

1. Relating to dairy products and the importance thereof in preserving the public health, the economy thereof in the diet of the people, and the importance thereof in the nutrition of children.

2. Relating to the manner, method, and means used and employed in the production, processing, and marketing of dairy products in order to comply with the laws of the state and nation regulating and safeguarding such production and marketing to insure a pure and wholesome product.

3. Relating to the method of the producer and dealer in producing and handling dairy products in order to meet the standards imposed by the state and federal government to insure a pure and nutritious product.

4. Relating to the harmful effect on the public health that would result from a breakdown of the dairy industry.

5. Relating to the reasons why producers should receive a reasonable return on their labor investment.

6. Relating to the problem of furnishing the consumer at all times with an abundant supply of high quality dairy products at reasonable prices.

7. Relating to the factors of instability peculiar to the dairy industry, such as unbalanced production, influence of consumer purchasing power, and price relative to the cost of other items of food in the normal diet of people, all to the end that an intelligent and increasing consumer demand may be stimulated.

8. Relating to the possibilities of increasing consumption of dairy products.

9. Relating to such other, further and additional information as shall tend to promote increased consumption of dairy products, and as may foster a better understanding and more efficient co-operation between producers and the consuming public.

179.5 Excise tax. ^{179.4 Amend} Ch 126, §10—85 Acts

1. Except as otherwise provided in section 179.13, there is hereby levied and imposed an excise tax of one cent per pound or fraction thereof upon all butterfat in cream and four cents per hundredweight or fraction thereof in milk produced in the state during the period beginning May 1 and terminating June 30, annually; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to butterfat in milk and cream produced outside the state.

2. All taxes levied and imposed under this chapter shall be deducted from the price charged by the producer and shall be collected by the first dealer; provided, however, that:

a. Where the producer produces milk or cream from cows and thereafter sells the same as milk, cream, or other dairy products, directly to the consumer the taxes aforesaid shall be remitted by such producer.

b. Where the producer sells milk, cream or other dairy products to any dealer outside the state the taxes aforesaid shall be due and payable by such producer before the shipment is made, except that the commission may make such agreements with extra state dealers for the keeping of records and the collection of the taxes aforesaid as are necessary to secure the payment of the said taxes within the time fixed by this chapter.

All taxes levied and imposed under this chapter and any voluntary contributions made to the dairy industry commission, shall be paid to and collected by the secretary of the commission who shall remit to the treasurer of the state, quarterly, and at the same time render to the state comptroller an itemized and verified report showing the source from which said taxes and voluntary contributions were obtained. All such taxes and voluntary contributions received, collected and remitted shall be placed in a special fund by the treasurer of state, and the state comptroller, to be known as the "Dairy Industry Fund" to be used by the Iowa dairy industry commission for the purposes set out in this chapter and to administer and enforce the laws relative thereto. Funds deposited in the dairy industry fund are appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

Any person from whom the excise tax provided in this chapter is collected may, by application filed with this commission within thirty days after the collection of said tax, have said tax remitted to that person by the commission.

179.6 Producers' records.

Every producer shipping milk, cream or other dairy products to any dealer outside of Iowa who is not by agreement with the commission collecting the tax imposed by this chapter, and every first dealer within the state and every producer distributing milk, cream, or other dairy products directly to the consumer, shall keep a complete and accurate record of all butterfat taxed by this chapter in milk or cream produced, bottled, processed or distributed by the person during any period for which an excise tax levy is imposed under the provisions of this chapter. Such records shall be in such form and contain such information as the commission shall by rule prescribe and shall be preserved by the person charged with their making for a period of two years and shall be offered or submitted for inspection at any time upon written or oral request by the commission or its duly authorized agent or employee.

179.7 Returns filed with commission.

Every person charged by this chapter or by agreement with the commission with the keeping of records provided for in this chapter shall at such times as the commission may by rule require, file with the commission a return on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the commission stating the quantity of dairy products produced, bottled, processed, or distributed, and butterfat content of all milk or cream produced by, delivered to or purchased by such person from the various producers of dairy products or their agents in the state during the collection period prescribed in section 179.5, subsection 1, and as a result of any referendum. Such return shall contain such other information as the commission may require, and shall be made in triplicate, one copy of which shall be for the files of the person making the return, and one copy available at the office of such person, for the use of his patrons, and the original filed with the commission.

179.8 Payment of expenses.

No part of the expense incurred by the commission shall be paid out of any funds in the state treasury except said dairy industry fund which shall be subject at all times to the warrant of the state comptroller, drawn upon written requisition of the chairperson of the commission and attested by the secretary for the payment of all salaries, and other expenses necessary, to carry out the provisions of this chapter, but in no event shall the total expenses therefor exceed the total taxes collected and deposited to the credit of said fund.

 Ch 126, §15-85 Acts

Under such administrative procedures as the department of agriculture may prescribe for conduct of referendums hereinafter provided for, the department shall, upon petition by one thousand five hundred or more producers, conduct an initial referendum within sixty days after receipt thereof on the proposition of whether or not an excise tax of up to five cents per hundredweight on all milk sold in this state separate from and in addition to that provided for in section 179.5, shall be levied and assessed.

Notice of any referendum hereunder to levy such additional excise tax in the first instance, or any extension thereof, including the date of the referendum and voting places, shall be given by the department by publication for a period of not less than five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state and in such other newspapers as the department may prescribe. Referendum voting shall be conducted no sooner than ten days after the last date of publication of such notice.

Each producer, upon signing a statement certifying to the department that the person is a bona fide producer as defined in this chapter, shall be entitled to one vote in each referendum. At the close of any referendum, the department shall within thirty days thereafter count and tabulate the ballots filed during such referendum. If from the tabulation the department determines that a majority of the total number of producers voting in the referendum favor the proposal, the excise tax provided for in this section shall be imposed in the manner provided in section 179.5, subsection 2, on the sixtieth day after the date of determination by the department that the referendum has passed. The ballots thus cast shall constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in determinations made by the department under the provisions of this chapter.

If the referendum vote favors imposition of the additional excise tax provided for in this section, the commission shall not more frequently than once per calendar year, set the initial and subsequent assessment rates as follows:

1. For the months of May and June an amount which when added to the excise tax provided for in section 179.5 equates to a total of five cents or less per hundredweight on taxable milk sold during those months.

2. For all other calendar months five cents or less per hundredweight of taxable milk sold during those months.

However, during the first year of the excise tax period created by the first favorable referendum vote pursuant to the provisions of this section, the assessment rate set by the commission for May and June shall not exceed that established by section 179.5, and the assessment rate set by the commission for all other calendar months of such year shall not exceed three cents per hundredweight.

The commission shall give notice of all rates thus established by publication for a period of not less than three consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state at least thirty days in advance of the effective date thereof.

Any excise tax adopted under this section pursuant to the initial referendum shall become of no force or effect five years after its commencement unless it is extended for subsequent five-year periods by additional referendums. Ninety days prior to termination of the initial assessment period, or any extension period, the secretary shall cause notice to be published in accordance with the notice required in this section for the initial referendum, and a referendum on the question of whether the excise tax as provided for in this section should be extended for an additional five-year period shall be conducted. If the department determines that a majority of the total number of producers voting in the referendum favor the assessment, the excise tax provided for herein shall continue to be levied for an additional five years from the ending date of the preceding five-year period.

All excise taxes due pursuant to this section shall be collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter relating to the collection of the excise tax provided for in section 179.5, as nearly as may be, and deposited in the dairy industry fund. Such funds may only be expended by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

If the department determines that any referendum has failed, no subsequent referendum shall be conducted sooner than one hundred eighty days after such determination. Pursuant to petition or motion as hereinabove provided filed within one year after its most recent determination, the department shall then conduct a subsequent referendum in accordance with the provisions of this section.

In the event of failure to make such petition within said period, or, the second consecutive failure of any referendum to pass, no further referendums shall be conducted and the levy and assessment created in this section shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

179.14 Influencing legislation.

Neither commissioners, nor employees of the commission, shall attempt in any manner to influence legislation affecting any matters pertaining to the activities of the commission. No portion of the dairy industry fund shall be used in any manner to influence legislation or support any political candidate for public office, either directly or indirectly, or to support any political party.

- 180.1 4-H dairy calf club exposition.
- 180.2 "Exposition" defined.
- 180.3 Statement of expenditures.

- 180.4 Certification by department.
- 180.5 Payment of state aid.

180.1 4-H dairy calf club exposition.

The Iowa state dairy association is hereby empowered, authorized and directed to hold annually at such time and place in Iowa as said association may select an exposition of 4-H dairy calves and contests.

180.2 "Exposition" defined.

For the purpose of this chapter, 4-H dairy calf club exposition is interpreted to include the exhibits of dairy club heifers and the holding of judging contests, demonstration contests, record-book contests, and production contests for 4-H dairy club members.

180.3 Statement of expenditures.

After each exposition the president and secretary of said association shall file with the state secretary of agriculture a sworn statement of the actual amount of cash premiums paid at such exposition for the current season which must correspond with the published offer of premiums by said association.

[C35, §2948-g3; C39, §2948.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §180.3]

Referred to in §180 4

180.4 Certification by department.

The department of agriculture on receipt of such statement shall, if it complies with section 180.3, certify to the state comptroller that a named amount is due said association as state aid.

180.5 Payment of state aid.

The state comptroller on receipt of such certificate shall draw a warrant in favor of the secretary or treasurer of said association for a sum equal to eighty percent of the amount paid in premiums by it, but in no case shall the amount exceed two thousand dollars in any one year.

[C35, §2948-g5; C39, §2948.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §180.5]

- 181.17 Producers not members.
- 181.18 Rules.
- 181.19 Additional referendum.
- 181.20 Misdemeanors.

181.1 Recognition of organization.

The Iowa beef cattle producers association now existing in and incorporated under the laws of this state shall be entitled to the benefits of this chapter by filing, each year, with the department of agriculture, verified proof of the names of its president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and that five hundred persons are bona fide members of said association, together with such other information as the department of agriculture may require.

Referred to in §181.17

181.2 Duties and objects of association.

The Iowa beef cattle producers association shall:

1. Aid in the promotion of the beef cattle industry of the state.

2. Provide for practical and scientific instruction in the breeding and raising of beef cattle.

3. Provide for the inspection of herds, premises, appliances, methods, and feedstuffs used in the raising of beef cattle.

4. Make demonstrations in the feeding of beef cattle and publish suggestions beneficial to such business.

5. Aid and promote beef cattle feeding contests, shows, and sales.

6. Publish a breeders' directory.

7. Make an annual report of the proceedings and expenditures to the secretary of agriculture.

181.3 Executive committee.

The association shall act through an executive committee which shall consist of:

1. The president and the secretary of the association.

2. The dean of the college of agriculture of the Iowa State University of science and technology.

3. A member of the faculty of said university engaged in the teaching of animal husbandry to be designated by said dean.

4. The secretary of agriculture.

181.4 Employees of committee.

The executive committee may employ two or more competent persons who shall devote their entire time, under the direction of the committee, in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The salary of such persons so employed shall be set by the executive committee subject to the approval of the secretary of agriculture, and such persons shall hold office at the pleasure of the executive committee.

181.5 Expenses of officers.

The officers of the association shall serve without compensation, but shall receive their necessary expenses while engaged in the business of the association.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2953; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.5]

Referred to in §181.13

181.6 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "First purchaser" means any person who buys cattle or veal calves for slaughter, in the first instance.

2. "Producer" means every person who raises cattle or veal calves for slaughter or who feeds cattle or veal calves for slaughter or both.

3. For the purposes of this chapter, "executive committee" means two members appointed by the Iowa beef cattle producers association, two members appointed by the Iowa livestock feeders association, one member appointed by the Iowa livestock auction market association, the secretary of agriculture, the dean of the college of agriculture of the Iowa State University of science and technology, and a member of the faculty of Iowa State University of science and technology engaged in the teaching of animal husbandry designated by the dean of the college of agriculture.

181.7 Research and educational programs.

The executive committee shall engage in research and education programs directed toward better and more efficient production, marketing, and utilization of cattle and veal calves and products made therefrom; provide methods and means including, but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques for the maintenance of present markets; make donations to nonprofit organizations working toward the purposes of this section; assist in development of new or larger markets both domestic and foreign for cattle and veal calves and products made therefrom.

181.8 Examining books and papers.

The executive committee shall have power to authorize its agents to enter at a reasonable time upon the premises of any purchaser charged by this chapter with remitting to the committee the excise tax, and to cause to be examined by such agent or agents, all books, records, documents, and other instruments bearing upon the amount of such excise tax; provided, however, that the executive committee must first have reasonable grounds to believe that all such excise taxes have not been remitted or fully accounted for, as herein provided.

The executive committee is authorized to enter into arrangements with persons purchasing cattle and veal calves for slaughter outside of Iowa on the basis provided in section 181.9, for remitting the excise tax by such buyers.

181.9 Referendum.

No excise tax shall be assessed or collected under the provisions of this chapter until the secretary of agriculture finds that the assessment has been assented to by referendum vote. The secretary, upon the request of any fifty beef producers, shall conduct an initial referendum by written ballot to determine such assent, after giving due notice of intention to conduct the referendum.

Notice of any referendum on the question of whether to initiate or extend an excise tax shall be given by publication for a period of not less than five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state and in such other newspapers as the secretary may prescribe. No referendum shall be commenced prior to five days after the last day of the period of publication. The notice of referendum shall set forth the period and voting places for the referendum, and the amount of the excise tax to be collected if the referendum is favorable.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.9]

Referred to in §181 8, 181 10, 181 15, 181 19

181.10 Effective period.

Each producer, upon signing a statement certifying that the person is a bona fide producer, as defined in this chapter, shall be entitled to one vote. At the close of the referendum period, the secretary of agriculture shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during the referendum period. If the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the assessment, the excise tax provided in this chapter shall be assessed and levied within ninety days.

The ballots shall constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in any finding made by the secretary under the provisions of this chapter. The secretary may prescribe additional procedures as necessary to conduct a referendum.

Any assessment adopted following the initial referendum shall become of no force or effect four years after its adoption, unless it is extended for additional periods of four years by another referendum. Ninety days prior to termination of the initial assessment period or any extension period, the secretary shall cause notice to be published in accordance with section 181.9, and a referendum on the question of whether the excise tax should be extended for an additional four-year period shall be conducted. If the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the assessment, the excise tax shall continue to be levied for an additional four years from the ending date of the preceding four-year period.

In the event of the failure of the initial referendum, a second initial referendum may be called by producers within one hundred eighty days after the secretary's determination on the first referendum. In the event of failure of the second initial referendum to pass, no further referendums shall be conducted.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.10]

181.11 Excise tax.

Upon determination by the secretary of agriculture that assent to assessment has been given, there shall be assessed and levied an excise tax of ten cents per head on all beef cattle and five cents per head on all veal calves sold for slaughter. The tax shall be due at or before the time animals are first sold for purposes of slaughter, and shall be paid at a time the council may, by rule or regulation, prescribe, but not later than the last day of the month following the end of the prior reporting period in which animals are sold.

The tax shall be assessed and levied on any person selling beef cattle or veal calves for slaughter, at the time of delivery of the animals for sale, and shall be deducted by the first purchaser from the price paid to the seller. The first purchaser, at the time of sale, shall make and deliver to the producer separate invoices for each purchase, showing the name and address of the producer and the first purchaser, the number and kind of animals sold, and the date of sale.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.11]

181.12 Remission of tax on application.

A person from whom the excise tax is collected may, by written application filed with the executive committee within sixty days after its collection, have the amount remitted to the person by the executive committee. The information that the excise tax is refundable and the address of the executive committee to which application for a refund may be made shall appear on the invoice of sale form supplied by the purchaser to the producer near the area on the form which shows the amount of the excise tax paid. The executive committee shall furnish uniform application for refund forms and envelopes properly addressed to the executive committee to each purchaser charged by this chapter with remitting the excise tax in sufficient number to make the refund forms and envelopes readily available to all producers. A purchaser charged by this chapter with remitting the excise tax shall display the application for refund forms and envelopes in a prominent position in its place of business and make them readily available to all producers.

181.13 Fund.

All excise taxes imposed and levied under this chapter shall be paid to and collected by the executive committee and deposited with the treasurer of state in a separate cattle and veal calf fund which is hereby created. From the moneys collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the executive committee shall first pay the costs of referendums held pursuant hereto; the costs of collection of such excise tax, the expenses of its agents and expenses of officers provided for in section 181.5. Except as otherwise provided in section 181.19, at least thirty percent of the funds remaining thereafter shall be remitted to the national livestock and meat board and the beef industry council thereof, and at least ten percent of the remaining funds shall be remitted to the Iowa beef cattle producers association in such proportions as the committee may determine, for use by them in a manner not inconsistent with section 181.7. The remaining moneys received, with approval of a majority of the executive committee, shall be expended as found necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this chapter. The cattle and veal calf fund shall be subject at all times to warrants by the state comptroller, drawn upon the written requisition of the chairperson of the executive committee and attested to by its secretary, for the payment of all expenditures of the committee, which shall, at no time, exceed the amount deposited to the credit of such fund.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.13]

Referred to in §181 19

181.14 Notice of extension.

Ninety days prior to the termination of the initial assessment period provided for herein, or any extension thereof, the secretary of agriculture shall cause notice to be published in accordance herewith of a referendum to be conducted on the question of whether the excise tax provided for herein should be extended for an additional four year period

Notice of any such referendum shall be given by the secretary by publishing the same for a period of not less than five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state and in such other newspapers as the secretary may prescribe. The notice of referendum shall set forth the period for voting and the voting places for the referendum and the amount of the deduction pursuant to section 181.11. No referendum shall be commenced prior to five days after the last day of such period of publication.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.14]

181.15 Imposition for additional period.

Each producer upon signing a statement certifying that the person is a bona fide producer, as defined in this chapter, shall be entitled to one vote. At the close of the referendum period, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during the referendum period. If from such tabulation the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the assessment, the excise tax provided for in section 181.9 shall be levied and imposed for an additional four years from the end of the previous taxing period.

The ballots thus cast shall constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in any finding made by the secretary under the provisions of this chapter. The secretary may prescribe such additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct a referendum.

No assessment levied pursuant to this chapter shall continue after forty eight months from its initiation, unless it is extended for additional periods of four years by referendum.

In the event of the failure of any referendum provided for herein to pass, a subsequent referendum may be called by the secretary upon petition therefor by at least one hundred producers within one hundred eighty days after the secretary's determination that the prior referendum has failed. In the event of failure to make such petition within said period, or, the second consecutive failure of a referendum to pass, no further referendum shall be conducted and the levy and assessment herein created shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

181.16 Moneys remaining in fund.

If any extension referendum fails to carry, moneys remaining in the cattle and veal calf fund shall continue to be expended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter until exhausted.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.16]

Referred to in §181.19

181.17 Producers not members.

Every producer, even though not a member thereof, shall be entitled to vote in elections of persons to be directors of the Iowa beef cattle producers association in the same manner as if the producer were a member. Directors thus elected, shall elect from their number the officers referred to in section 181.1.

181.18 Rules.

All rules of the executive committee heretofore or hereinafter promulgated shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

181.19 Additional referendum.

The secretary shall, upon the petition of five hundred producers, conduct an initial referendum to determine whether an excise tax shall be collected, at a rate established by the executive committee, of not to exceed fifty cents per head on all beef cattle sold for slaughter and not to exceed thirty five cents per head on all veal calves sold for slaughter and on all sales of beef cattle for any other purpose.

The initial referendum and subsequent referendums for extension of such excise tax shall be conducted under the provisions of sections 181.9 and 181.10, as nearly as may be. Upon determination by the secretary that assent to the assessment has been given, there shall be assessed and levied an excise tax on each sale in the amount provided in this section. The tax shall be due at or before the time the animals are sold and shall be paid at a time prescribed by the council, but not later than the last day of the month following the end of the prior reporting period in which the animals are sold.

The tax shall be assessed and levied on any person selling beef cattle or veal calves and shall be deducted by the purchaser from the price paid to the seller. The purchaser, at the time of the sale, shall make and deliver to the seller separate invoices for each sale showing the names and addresses of the seller and the purchaser, the number and kinds of animals sold, whether sold for slaughter or feeding, and the date of sale.

On the date of the effective period for the collection of the excise tax provided for in this section, any excise tax being assessed and levied under section 181.11 shall terminate during any period for which any excise tax provided for in this section shall be in effect. The provisions of sections 181.12, 181.13, 181.14, 181.15 and 181.16 shall also be applicable to the tax provided for in this section, as nearly as may be. Notwithstanding the provisions in section 181.13 to the contrary, at least fifteen percent of the funds collected from an excise tax assessed and levied under the provisions of this section shall be remitted to the national livestock and meat board and the beef industry council thereof, after first paying the costs and expenses referred to in section 181.13.

Referred to in §181.13

181.20 Misdemeanors.

Any person who shall violate or assist in the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

COUNTY SHOW

184.1 State aid.

Every poultry association which complies with the following conditions shall be entitled to the aid herein provided

1 The association shall be composed of at least fifteen bona fide poultry raisers or dealers in poultry, residing in any one county

2 The membership of the association must be open to all persons on an equal basis, with a minimum membership fee of twenty five cents or a maximum fee not exceeding one dollar

3 The association shall have a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and a board of directors of at least three persons other than said officers

4 The annual income in cash of the association, exclusive of state aid, shall be at least one hundred dollars, and the total expenditures in cash shall be one hundred dollars, in addition to the state aid

5 The association shall hold a bona fide poultry show, each year, of not less than two working days

6 The association shall notify the department on or before October 1 of its intention of holding a poultry show

7 The association shall, on or before June 1 of each year, file with the department of agriculture a sworn statement showing compliance with the foregoing conditions, and, in detail, the manner in which its funds for the preceding twelve months have been expended, together with such other information as the department may require

184.2 Certification by department.

The department of agriculture shall on receipt of such statement, if it complies with section 184 1, and the expenditures listed therein appear to be bona fide, certify to the state comptroller after the time for filing such statement has expired, that the association has complied with all conditions imposed by this chapter and is entitled to the state aid herein provided

184.3 Payment of state aid.

The comptroller, on receipt of such statement, shall issue a warrant to the treasurer of such association for one hundred dollars

184.4 Division of state aid.

If more than one such association from the same county is entitled to state aid, the one hundred dollars shall be equally divided among such associations and the comptroller shall draw the warrants accordingly

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2957; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184 4]

STATE SHOW

184.5 State-wide show — management.

An annual state wide poultry show is hereby authorized Such show shall be conducted or managed by the officers of the local poultry association of the place at which such show is held

184.6 Location of state-wide poultry show.

At each state poultry show, a convention shall be held to determine the place of holding the next state show Each association that has complied with the provisions of this chapter, for state aid, shall be entitled to send one delegate, who shall have one vote on all questions that arise The officers of the local association conducting the show shall officiate at the convention

184.7 Statement of expenditures.

Such local poultry association, through its treasurer, shall, upon the adjournment of the state-wide poultry show, file with the department of agriculture a sworn statement which shall show the time and place of holding such show and an itemized statement of all expenditures on account thereof, and the specific purposes for which the same were expended, together with such other information as the department may require.

184.8 Required income, etc.

The annual income in cash, exclusive of state aid, shall be five hundred dollars, and the total expenditures in cash shall be five hundred dollars, in addition to the state aid.

184.9 Certification by department.

The department of agriculture, on receipt of such statement, if the same is, in its judgment, sufficient, and the expenditures bona fide, shall certify to the state comptroller that such state-wide poultry show has been held under the management of such local association. Said certificate shall show the amount of the bona fide expenditures on account of such convention.

184.10 Payment of state aid.

The comptroller, on receipt of such certificate, shall issue a warrant to the treasurer of such association for the amount of said expenditures, but in no case shall such warrant exceed five hundred dollars in any one year.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2962; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184.10]

DISTRICT SHOW

184.11 Affiliated county associations.

Poultry associations in counties where no local poultry show is held, may affiliate with associations in adjacent counties and hold a district poultry show at some location that is mutually satisfactory.

184.12 District show management.

Each county poultry association affiliating with a district show shall form a county association as set forth in this chapter, and notify the department, on or before October 1, of its intentions of affiliating with other counties in the holding of a district poultry show. The president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of such affiliating county poultry associations shall meet and elect officers who shall manage and conduct the district poultry show.

184.13 Showing required.

The officers of a district poultry show shall, on or before June 1 of each year, file with the department of agriculture a sworn statement showing compliance with all of the foregoing conditions and in detail the manner in which its funds have been expended, together with such other information as the department may require. The annual income in cash, exclusive of state aid, shall be at least one hundred dollars per county that is affiliated with a district organization, and the total expenditures in cash shall be one hundred dollars per county affiliated, in addition to the state aid. The total amount of state aid which will be available for such district show shall be the amount that would otherwise be available to the respective county poultry associations.

184.14 State aid.

Said state aid shall be payable to the treasurer of said district poultry show under substantially the same procedure as governs the payment of such aid in case of a state-wide poultry show.

184A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise

1 "Producer" means any person doing business within this state who grows more than two hundred turkeys for slaughter each year. The word "producer" may include where applicable, an integrator, who is a person who both produces and processes turkeys.

2 "Processor" means any person who purchases more than one thousand turkeys for slaughter each year. The word "processor" may include where applicable, an integrator, who is a person who both produces and processes turkeys.

3 "Turkeys" means turkeys raised for slaughter.

4 "Treasurer" means the person appointed as treasurer by the Iowa turkey marketing council from the membership of the council.

5 "Secretary" means a person employed by the Iowa turkey marketing council to perform duties specified by this chapter or the council.

6 "Market development" means research and education programs directed toward better and more efficient production, marketing and utilization of turkey and turkey products produced for resale, and methods and means, including, but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques, for the maintenance of present markets, for the development of new or larger domestic or foreign markets, for the sale of turkeys, and for prevention, modification, or elimination of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of such agricultural commodities to market. Market development includes providing promotion and research funds for Iowa's participation in activities such as the national turkey federation, the "eat more turkey" campaign, the national turkey federation research fund and other activities as may be authorized by the council.

7 "Iowa turkey marketing council" or "council" means the council administering promotion and research funds. The council shall consist of the following seven members:

a The Iowa secretary of agriculture or the secretary's representative

b The chairperson of the poultry science department of the Iowa State University of science and technology

c The president of the Iowa turkey federation

d Four representatives selected from a list of eight names submitted by the Iowa turkey federation by the secretary of agriculture who shall represent the Iowa turkey industry

184A.2 Fee imposed — rate.

If approved by a majority of the voters at a referendum as provided in section 184A 10, there is hereby imposed a fee upon each turkey delivered for processing in the state of Iowa. The rate of the fee imposed shall not be more than one cent for each turkey weighing less than ten pounds live weight and not more than two cents for each turkey weighing ten or more pounds live weight, as established at the discretion of the council.

The fee shall be imposed on the producer and collected at the time of delivery of a turkey to the processing plant and shall be deducted by the processor at the time of delivery from the price paid to the producer at the time of the sale to the processor.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A 2]

184A.3 Invoices.

At the time of delivery to the processing plant, the processor shall sign and deliver to the producer separate invoices for each purchase or such other records which will expedite collection of the fee. The invoices shall show:

1 The name and address of the producer and the seller, if different from the producer

2 The name and address of the processor

3 The quantity of turkeys sold

4 The date of the delivery

Invoices shall be legibly written and shall not be altered.

184A.4 Deposit of fee.

The fee imposed by this chapter shall be paid by the processor to the Iowa turkey marketing council. Amounts collected from the fees shall be deposited with the treasurer of state in a separate special fund to be known as the "Iowa turkey account."

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A 4]

184A.5 Monthly remittal.

The fee imposed by this chapter shall be remitted by a processor to the treasurer monthly.

184A.6 Use of funds.

After payment of expenses, in accordance with section 184A 9 all moneys in the Iowa turkey account may be used by the Iowa turkey marketing council for payment of claims based upon obligations incurred in market development on behalf of the turkey industry and such moneys are hereby appropriated for such purposes.

184A.7 Warrants by comptroller.

The Iowa turkey account shall be subject at all times to warrant by the state comptroller, upon the written requisition of the chairperson of the Iowa turkey marketing council, attested to by the secretary.

184A.8 Refund.

Any producer who makes written application to the council, on forms provided by it, within sixty days after the date of delivery of turkeys to a processor, shall receive a refund of the amount of fee which was deducted.

184A.9 Audit.

Moneys collected under authority of this chapter shall be subject to audit by the auditor of state and shall be used by the council first for the payment of collection expenses and for payment of the costs and expenses arising in connection with conducting any required referendums, and secondly by the turkey marketing council for market development.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A.9]

184A.10 Referendum.

Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least twenty-five producers requesting an initial referendum election to determine whether to impose the fee as provided in section 184A.2 the secretary shall call and conduct an initial referendum.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A.10]

184A.11 Notice.

Notice of a referendum on the question of whether to impose the fee shall be given by the secretary by publishing the notice for a period of not less than five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state, and for a similar period in other newspapers as the secretary prescribes. A referendum shall not be commenced prior to five days after the last day of the period of publication. The notice of referendum shall set forth the period and voting places for the referendum, and the maximum amount of the fee. Each producer, upon signing a statement certifying that the person is a bona fide producer, as defined in this chapter, is entitled to one vote.

184A.12 Additional referendums.

At the close of the referendum period, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots cast during the period. If the secretary finds that the majority of voters favor imposing the fee, the fee shall be imposed within ninety days following the referendum and shall continue for a period of five years unless extended. If the majority of voters do not favor imposing the fee, the fee will not be imposed until another referendum is held and a majority of voters favor imposing the fee.

If the majority of voters do not favor imposing the fee, a second referendum may be called by the secretary if petitioned by twenty-five producers and conducted within one hundred eighty days after the referendum. If a majority of voters do not favor imposition of the fee at the second referendum, an initial referendum shall not be conducted within a period of two years.

Subsequent referendums to extend the imposition of the fee shall be held at least thirty days prior to the termination of the period for which the fee is imposed. If the majority of voters do not favor extending the imposition of the fee, the moneys remaining in the Iowa turkey account shall continue to be expended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter until exhausted.

184A.13 Bonds.

Every administrator, employee, or other person occupying a position of trust under this chapter shall give bond in the amount required by the secretary, and the premiums for bonds shall be part of the costs of collecting the fee.

184A.14 Examination of books.

Any person subject to the provisions of this chapter shall furnish, on forms provided by the council, any information needed to enable the council and secretary to effectuate the policies of this chapter. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the council or secretary under the provisions of this chapter, the secretary may examine books, papers, records, copies of tax returns, accounts, correspondence, contracts, or other documents and memoranda it deems relevant which are in the control of any person and which are not otherwise confidential as provided by law. The secretary may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and issue subpoenas duces tecum in connection with the administration of this chapter.

184A.15 Misdemeanor.

It is a simple misdemeanor for any person to willfully violate any provision of this chapter, or for any person to willfully render or furnish a false or fraudulent report, statement, or record required by the council or secretary.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A.15]

184A.16 Agreement with processors.

The secretary may enter into agreements with processors from outside Iowa for payment of the fee.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §184A.16]

184A.17 Report required.

185.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

- 1 "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture
- 2 "Board" means the Iowa soybean promotion board established by this chapter
- 3 "Promotional order" means an order administered pursuant to this chapter which establishes a program for the promotion, research and market development of soybeans and provides for an assessment to finance the program
- 4 "Market development" means to engage in research and educational programs directed toward better and more efficient utilization of soybeans, to provide methods and means, including but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques for the maintenance of present markets, to provide for the development of new or larger domestic and foreign markets, and to provide for the prevention, modification, or elimination of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of soybeans
- 5 "Producer" means any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, or association engaged in this state in the business of producing and marketing in their name at least two hundred fifty bushels of soybeans in the previous marketing year
- 6 "First purchaser" means a person, public or private corporation, governmental subdivision, association, co-operative, partnership, commercial buyer, dealer, or processor who purchases soybeans from a producer for the first time for any purpose except to feed it to the purchaser's livestock or to manufacture a product from the soybeans purchased for the purchaser's personal consumption
- 7 "Marketing year" means the twelve month period beginning the first day of September and ending on the following thirty-first day of August
- 8 "District" means an official crop reporting district formed by the United States department of agriculture and set out in the annual farm census published by the Iowa department of agriculture

9 "Soybeans" means and includes all kinds of varieties of soybeans marketed or sold as soybeans by the producer

10 "Bushel" means sixty pounds of soybeans by weight

11 "Assessment" means an excise tax on each bushel of soybeans marketed in this state as provided in this chapter

12 "Marketed in this state" refers to a sale of soybeans to a first purchaser who is a resident of or doing business in this state where actual delivery of the soybeans occurs in this state

13 "Sale" or "purchase" includes but is not limited to the pledge or other encumbrance of soybeans as security for a loan extended under a federal price support loan program Actual delivery of the soybeans occurs when the soybeans are pledged or otherwise encumbered to secure the loan The purchase price of the soybeans is the principal amount of the loan extended and the purchase invoice for the soybeans is the documentation required for extension of the loan [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §185 1]

185.2 Petition for election.

Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least five hundred producers requesting an initial referendum election to determine whether a promotional order shall be placed in effect, the secretary shall call an initial referendum election to be conducted within sixty days following receipt of the petition Producers shall vote by written ballot in the manner provided by this chapter for referendum elections

185.3 Board established.

If a majority of the producers voting in the referendum election approve the passage of the promotional order, an Iowa soybean promotion board shall be established. The board shall consist of one director elected from each district in the state, except that a district producing more than an average of twenty-five million bushels of soybeans in the three previous marketing years is entitled to two directors.

185.4 Initial board.

For the initial board, the secretary shall notify the Iowa soybean association, mentioned in section 159.25, immediately after approval of a promotional order at the referendum election and the association shall nominate two candidates for each position as director. Candidates shall be resident producers of the district from which they are nominated. The secretary shall receive the nominations, and shall call an election for members of the initial board within thirty days following passage of the promotional order.

185.5 Election for directors.

Notice of the initial election for directors of the board shall be given by the secretary by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the state at least five days prior to the date of the election and in any other reasonable manner as may be determined by the secretary. The notice shall set forth the period of time for voting, voting places, and such other information as the secretary may deem necessary.

Notice of subsequent elections for directors of the board in a district shall be given by the board by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the district and in any other reasonable manner as may be determined by the board and shall set forth the period of time for voting, voting places, and such other information as the board may deem necessary.

185.6 Who elected.

In districts electing one director, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. In districts electing two directors, producers shall vote for two directors, and the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

185.7 Terms.

Director terms shall be for three years and no director of the board shall serve for more than three complete consecutive terms.

The terms of office for the initial board shall be determined by lot. As nearly as possible one-third of the directors shall serve for one year, one-third of the directors shall serve for two years, and one-third of the directors shall serve for three years. The initial board shall not contain two directors from the same district serving the same term.

185.8 Future elections.

After election of the initial board, the board shall administer subsequent elections for directors of the board with the assistance of the secretary. Prior to the expiration of a director's term of office, the board shall appoint a nominating committee for the district represented by such director. The nominating committee shall consist of five producers who are residents of the district from which a director must be elected. The nominating committee shall nominate two resident producers as candidates for each director position for which an election is to be held. Additional candidates may be nominated by a written petition of one hundred producers. Procedures governing the time and place of filing shall be promulgated and publicized by the board.

185.9 Vacancies.

The board shall by appointment fill an unexpired term if a vacancy occurs in the board.

185.10 Ex officio members.

The secretary, the dean of the college of agriculture of Iowa State University of science and technology, and the director of the Iowa development commission, or their designees, and two representatives of first purchaser organizations shall serve on the board as nonvoting ex officio members. One each of the two first purchaser representatives shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the Iowa Grain and Feed Association and Agri-Industries.

185.11 Purpose of board.

The purposes of the board shall be to:

1. Enter into contracts or agreements with recognized and qualified agencies or organizations for the development and carrying out of research and education programs directed toward better and more efficient production, marketing, and utilization of soybeans and soybean products.

2. Provide methods and means, including, but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques for the maintenance of present markets.

3. Assist in development of new or larger markets, both domestic and foreign, for soybeans and soybean products.

4. Work for prevention, modification, or elimination of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of soybeans and soybean products to market.

185.12 Officers.

The board shall:

1. Elect a chairperson and other officers as advisable.

2. Administer this chapter, and perform all acts reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §185.12]

185.13 Powers and duties.

The board may:

1. Employ and discharge assistants and professional counsel as necessary, prescribe their duties and powers, and fix their compensation.

2. Establish offices, incur expenses, and enter into any contracts or agreements necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

3. Adopt, rescind, and amend all proper and necessary rules for the exercise of its powers and duties.

4. Enter into arrangements for collection of the assessment on soybeans marketed in this state.

185.14 Per diem and expenses.

Each member of the board shall receive thirty dollars per day and actual expenses in performing official board functions not to exceed forty days per year. No member of the board shall be a salaried employee of the board or any organization or agency which is receiving funds from the board. The board shall meet at least once every three months, and at such other times as deemed necessary by the board.

185.15 Initial meeting.

The initial board shall meet and organize following the members' election, and the promotional order, including the assessment, shall become effective sixty days following the date of the election of the board. A promotional order shall be effective for four years from its effective date.

185.16 Notice of referendum.

Notice of a referendum election to initiate or extend a promotional order shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in this state at least ten days prior to the date of the referendum and in any other reasonable manner as may be determined by the secretary for the initial referendum and by the board for extension of the promotional order.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §185.16]

Referred to in §185.25

185.17 Contents of notice.

The notice of referendum shall set forth the period of time for voting, voting places and such other information as the secretary may deem necessary in an initial referendum. The board shall make such determinations in any subsequent referendum.

185.18 Counting.

At the close of a referendum voting period, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots cast during the referendum period.

185.19 Effect.

The ballots shall constitute conclusive evidence as to the validity of the promotional order.

185.20 Producers only to vote.

Only producers are eligible to vote in an election for directors or a referendum election and only in the district in which they reside. A producer shall sign an affidavit furnished by the secretary at the time of voting certifying the producer's eligibility to vote. Each qualified producer shall be entitled to one vote.

185.21 Assessment.

The board shall set the assessment rate. Assessments pursuant to the promotional order shall be paid into the soybean promotion fund established in section 185.26. An assessment shall not exceed one cent per bushel upon soybeans marketed in this state and sold to a first purchaser. The rate of assessment shall be determined by the board but shall not be changed, once established, during a marketing year.

185.22 Promotional order.

After a promotional order has been issued, the first purchaser at the time of payment for soybeans shall show the total amount of assessment deducted from the sale on the purchase invoice.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §185.22]

185.23 Deduction of assessment.

The assessment shall be deducted from the purchase price of soybeans at the time of sale, and forwarded to the board by the first purchaser in the manner and at intervals determined by the board.

185.24 Cancellation of order.

If a promotional order has been canceled by a referendum, and all funds expended, the board shall cease to function. Any funds remaining one year following the termination of a promotional order shall be disbursed by the board to the Iowa Soybean Association. However, if a future referendum passes, the board shall be reorganized by the secretary and members shall serve out their terms as though there had been no lapse of time between effective orders.

185.25 Assessment nullified.

An assessment adopted upon the initiation of a promotional order shall be of no force or effect upon termination of the promotional order. At least sixty days but not more than one hundred eighty days prior to the termination date of a promotional order, the secretary shall cause notice to be published in accordance with section 185.16, and a referendum on the question of whether a promotional order shall be extended for an additional four-year period shall be conducted. If the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the promotional order, then the order shall continue to be in effect for an additional four-year period. If a referendum should fail, another referendum shall not be held within one hundred eighty days. A succeeding referendum shall be called by the secretary upon petition of at least one hundred producers requesting a referendum.

185.26 Deposit of funds.

Assessments collected by the board from a sale of soybeans shall be deposited in the office of the treasurer of state together with any gifts, or any federal or state grant as may be received by the board, and placed in a special fund to be known as the soybean promotion fund. Moneys collected shall be subject to audit by the auditor of state. From moneys collected, the board shall first pay the costs of referendums, elections and other expenses incurred in the administration of this chapter, and thereafter moneys may be expended for the purpose of market development. The fund shall be subject at all times to warrants by the state comptroller, drawn upon the written requisition of the chairperson of the board and attested to by the secretary of the board.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §185.26]

185.27 Refund of assessment.

A producer who has sold soybeans and had an assessment deducted from the sale price may, by application in writing to the board, secure a refund in the amount deducted. The refund shall be payable only when the application shall have been made to the board within sixty days after the deduction. Application forms shall be given by the board to each first purchaser when requested and the first purchaser shall make the applications available to any producer. Each application for refund by a producer shall have attached thereto proof of assessment deducted. The proof of assessment may be in the form of a duplicate or certified copy of the purchase invoice by the first purchaser. The board shall have thirty days from the date the application for refund is received to remit the refund to the producer.

185.28 Appropriation.

All moneys deposited in the soybean promotion fund are appropriated for the administration of this chapter and for the payment of claims based upon obligations incurred in the performance of activities and functions set forth in this chapter.

185.29 Remission of excess funds.

After the costs of elections, referendum, necessary board expenses and administrative costs have been paid, at least seventy-five percent of the remaining funds in the soybean promotion fund shall be expended for market development activities to include developing and expanding new markets for soybeans and soybean products worldwide. The funds can only be used for research, promotion, and education in cooperation with agencies who are equipped to do this kind of work.

185.30 Bond.

Every person occupying a position of trust under any provisions of this chapter shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the board, the premium for which shall be paid out of the soybean promotion fund.

185.31 Penalty.

It is a simple misdemeanor for any person to willfully violate any provision of this chapter or for any person to willfully render or furnish a false or fraudulent report, statement, or record required by the secretary.

185.32 First purchaser information.

Every first purchaser shall upon request furnish the secretary with such information as is necessary to enable the secretary and the board to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such information shall be provided as prescribed by the secretary. The secretary may examine any records relating to the purchase, sale, storage, processing, handling, or assessment of soybeans by any first purchaser. The secretary may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and issue subpoenas as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

185.33 Annual report.

The board shall make an annual report to the secretary on or before November 1 of each year, showing all income and expenses and other relevant information concerning assessments collected and expended under the provisions of this chapter.

185.34 Not a state agency.

The Iowa soybean promotion board shall not be a state agency.

The purposes of the board shall be to:

1. Enter into contracts or agreements with recognized and qualified agencies or organizations for the development and carrying out of research and education programs directed toward better and more efficient production, marketing, and utilization of corn and corn products.

2. Provide methods and means, including, but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques for the maintenance of present markets.

3. Assist in development of new or larger markets, both domestic and foreign, for corn and corn products.

4. Work for prevention, modification, or elimination of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of corn and corn products to market.

185C.12 Officers.

The board shall:

1. Elect a chairperson and other officers as advisable.

2. Administer this chapter, and perform all acts reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

[C77, 79, 81, §185C.12]

185C.13 Powers and duties.

The board may:

1. Employ and discharge assistants and professional counsel as necessary, prescribe their duties and powers, and fix their compensation.

2. Establish offices, incur expenses, and enter into any contracts or agreements necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

3. Adopt, rescind, and amend all proper and necessary rules for the exercise of its powers and duties.

4. Enter into arrangements for collection of the assessment on corn marketed in this state.

185C.14 Per diem and expenses.

Each member of the board shall receive thirty dollars per day and actual expenses in performing official board functions not to exceed forty days per year. No member of the board shall be a salaried employee of the board or any organization or agency which is receiving funds from the board. The board shall meet at least once every three months, and at such other times as deemed necessary by the board.

185C.15 Initial meeting.

The initial board shall meet and organize following the members' election, and the promotional order, including the assessment, shall become effective sixty days following the date of the election of the board. A promotional order shall be effective for four years from its effective date.

185C.16 Notice of referendum.

Notice of a referendum election to initiate or extend a promotional order shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in this state at least ten days prior to the date of the referendum and in any other reasonable manner as may be determined by the secretary for the initial referendum and by the board for extension of the promotional order.

Referred to in §185C.25

185C.17 Contents of notice.

The notice of referendum shall set forth the period of time for voting, voting places and such other information as the secretary may deem necessary in an initial referendum. The board shall make such determinations in any subsequent referendum.

185C.18 Counting.

At the close of a referendum voting period, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots cast during the referendum period.

185C.19 Effect.

The ballots shall constitute conclusive evidence as to the validity of the promotional order.

185C.20 Producers only to vote.

Only producers are eligible to vote in an election for directors or a referendum election and only in the district in which they reside. A producer shall sign an affidavit furnished by the secretary at the time of voting certifying the producer's eligibility to vote. Each qualified producer shall be entitled to one vote.

185C.21 Assessment.

The board shall set the assessment rate. Assessments pursuant to the promotional order shall be paid into the corn promotion fund established in section 185C.26. An assessment shall not exceed one-quarter of one cent per bushel upon corn marketed in this state. The rate of assessment shall be determined by the board but shall not be changed, once established, during a marketing year.

185C.22 Promotional order.

After a promotional order has been issued, the first purchaser at the time of payment for corn shall show the total amount of assessment deducted from the sale on the purchase invoice.

[C77, 79, 81, §185C.22]

185C.23 Deduction of assessment.

The assessment shall be deducted from the purchase price of corn at the time of sale, and forwarded to the board by the first purchaser in the manner and at intervals determined by the board.

185C.24 Cancellation of order.

If a promotional order has been canceled by a referendum, and all funds expended, the board shall cease to function. Any funds remaining one year following the termination of a promotional order shall be disbursed by the secretary for corn market development. However if a future referendum passes, the board shall be reorganized by the secretary and members shall serve out their terms as though there had been no lapse of time between effective orders.

185C.25 Assessment nullified.

An assessment adopted upon the initiation of a promotional order shall be of no force or effect upon termination of the promotional order. At least sixty days but not more than one hundred eighty days prior to the termination date of a promotional order, the secretary shall cause notice to be published in accordance with section 185C.16, and a referendum on the question of whether a promotional order shall be extended for an additional four-year period shall be conducted. If the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the promotional order, then the order shall continue to be in effect for an additional four-year period. If a referendum should fail, another referendum shall not be held within one hundred eighty days. A succeeding referendum shall be called by the secretary upon petition of at least five hundred producers requesting a referendum.

185C.26 Deposit of funds.

Assessments collected by the board from a sale of corn shall be deposited in the office of the treasurer of state together with any gifts, or any federal or state grant as may be received by the board, and placed in a special fund to be known as the corn promotion fund. Moneys collected shall be subject to audit by the auditor of state. From moneys collected, the board shall first pay all the direct and indirect costs incurred by the secretary and the costs of referendums, elections and other expenses incurred in the administration of this chapter, and thereafter moneys may be expended for the purpose of market development. The fund shall be subject at all times to warrants by the state comptroller, drawn upon the written requisition of the chairperson of the board and attested to by the secretary of the board.

185C.27 Refund of assessment.

A producer who has sold corn and had an assessment deducted from the sale price may, by application in writing to the board, secure a refund in the amount deducted. The refund shall be payable only when the application shall have been made to the board within sixty days after the deduction. Application forms shall be given by the board to each first purchaser when requested and the first purchaser shall make the applications available to any producer. Each application for refund by a producer shall have attached thereto proof of assessment deducted. The proof of assessment may be in the form of a duplicate or certified copy of the purchase invoice by the first purchaser. The board shall have thirty days from the date the application for refund is received to remit the refund to the producer.

185C.28 Appropriation.

All moneys deposited in the corn promotion fund are appropriated for the administration of this chapter and for the payment of claims based upon obligations incurred in the performance of activities and functions set forth in this chapter.

185C.29 Remission of excess funds.

After the costs of elections, referendum, necessary board expenses and administrative costs have been paid, at least seventy-five percent of the remaining funds in the corn promotion fund shall be allocated to organizations selected by the corn promotion board on the basis of their ability to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The funds can only be used for research, promotion, and education in co-operation with agencies who are equipped to do this kind of work.

The Iowa corn promotion board shall not engage in any political activity, and it shall be a condition of any allocation of funds that any organization receiving funds shall not expend the funds on political activity or on any attempt to influence legislation.

185C.30 Bond.

Every person occupying a position of trust under any provisions of this chapter shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the board, the premium for which shall be paid out of the corn promotion fund

185C.31 Penalty.

It is a simple misdemeanor for any person to willfully violate any provision of this chapter or for any person to willfully render or furnish a false or fraudulent report, statement, or record required by the secretary

185C.32 First purchaser information.

Every first purchaser shall upon request furnish the secretary with such information as is necessary to enable the secretary and the board to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such information shall be provided as prescribed by the secretary. The secretary may examine any records relating to the purchase or assessment of corn by any first purchaser. The secretary may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and issue subpoenas as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. When requested by the board, the secretary shall employ these powers in the manner requested 185C.33 Annual report.

The board shall make an annual report to the secretary on or before December 1 of each year, showing all income and expenses and other relevant information concerning assessments collected and expended under the provisions of this chapter 185C.34 Not a state agency.

The Iowa corn promotion board is not a state agency

CHAPTER 186

STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Referred to in §159 6(10) 173 3

186 1 Meetings and organization of society
186 2 Horticultural exposition
186 3 Affiliation with allied societies

186 4 Annual report
186 5 Appropriations

186.1 Meetings and organization of society.

The state horticultural society shall hold meetings each year, at such times as it may fix, for the transaction of business. The officers and board of directors of the society shall be chosen as provided for in the constitution of the society, for the period and in the manner prescribed therein, but the secretary of agriculture shall be a member of the board of directors and of the executive committee. Any vacancy in the offices filled by the society may be filled by the executive committee for the unexpired portion of the term

186.2 Horticultural exposition.

The society is authorized to hold, at such time and in such place in Iowa as it may select, a horticultural exposition, including honey products and manufactured plant products, with practical and scientific demonstrations of approved methods of crop production, grading, packing, marketing, and establishment of standard market grades pertaining to horticulture. It may delegate to its executive committee the duty and power to make and execute all plans for the holding of such an exposition

186.3 Affiliation with allied societies.

The society shall encourage the affiliation with itself of societies organized for the purpose of furthering the horticultural, honey bee, or forestry interests of the state

186.4 Annual report.

The secretary shall make an annual report to the department of agriculture at such time as the department may require. Such report shall contain the proceedings of the society, an account of the exposition, a summarized statement of the expenditures for the year, the general condition of horticultural, honey bee, and forestry interests throughout the state, together with such additional information as the department may require

186.5 Appropriations.

All money appropriated by the state for the use of the state horticultural society shall be paid on the warrant of the state comptroller, upon the order of the president and secretary of said society, in such sums and at such times as may be for the interests of said society. All expenditures from state funds for the use of the state horticultural society are to be approved by the secretary of the state department of agriculture.

CHAPTER 186A

ARBOR WEEK

See §159 6

186A.1 Arbor day and week.

186A.1 Arbor day and week.

The last Friday in April in each year shall be observed in Iowa as arbor day and the week in which this Friday falls shall be observed as arbor week. This day and week shall be designated annually by the governor with suitable proclamation urging that schools, civic organizations, governmental departments and all citizens and groups give serious thought to and appreciation of the contribution of trees to the beauty and economic welfare of Iowa.

- 187.16 Branding committee.

187.1 Definitions.

When used in this chapter:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture.
2. "Person" means an individual, firm, association, partnership, or corporation; the singular shall also mean the plural where applicable.
3. "Brand" means an identification mark that is burned into the hide of a live animal by a hot iron or another method approved by the secretary.
4. "Cryo-branding" means a brand produced by application of extreme cold temperature.

187.2 Adoption of brand.

Any person having cattle, sheep, horses, mules, or asses shall have the right to adopt a brand for the use of which the person shall have the exclusive right in this state, after recording such brand as provided in sections 187.4 and 187.6 or 187.9.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.2]

187.3 Must be recorded.

No evidence of ownership by brand shall be permitted in any court in this state unless the brand shall be recorded as provided in sections 187.4 and 187.6 or 187.9. In no case shall cryo-brands be accepted as evidence of ownership.

187.4 Recording — fee.

Any person desiring to adopt a brand shall forward to the secretary proper brand application forms of such desired brand, together with a recording fee in an amount established by rule of the secretary pursuant to chapter 17A, which amount shall be based upon the administrative costs of maintaining the brand program provided for by this chapter. Upon receipt of such application and fee, the secretary shall file the same and unless such brand is of record as that of some other person or conflicts with or closely resembles the brand of another person, the secretary shall record the same. If the secretary determines that such brand is of record or conflicts with or closely resembles the brand of another person the secretary shall not record it but shall return such facsimile and fee to the forwarding person. The power of examination, approval, acceptance, or rejection shall be vested in the secretary. It shall be the duty of the secretary to file all brands offered for record pending the examination provided for in this section. The secretary shall make such examination as promptly as possible. If the brand is accepted, the ownership thereof shall vest in the person recording it from the date of filing.

[C51, §921–923; R60, §1556–1558; C73, §1480, 1481, 3809; C97, §2335, 2336; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2977, 2978; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §187.2, 187.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.4]

Referred to in §187.2, 187.3, 187.5, 187.8, 187.12, 187.15

187.5 Effect of record.

The recording provided for in sections 187.4 and 187.6 or 187.9 shall secure the brand to the person and shall be considered personal property of said owner.

187.6 Certified copies furnished.

As soon as the brand is recorded by the secretary, the secretary shall furnish the owner thereof with two certified copies of the record of such brand.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.6]

Referred to in §187.2, 187.3, 187.5, 187.10, 187.12

187.7 Unlawful use of brand.

It shall be unlawful to use any brand for branding any horses, cattle, sheep, mules, or asses unless the brand has been recorded as provided by this chapter. Hot brands and cryo-brands, consisting of Arabic numerals only, may be used in conjunction with recorded brands for within the herd identification and as such shall not be recorded; and when so used shall not be evidence of ownership. Anyone convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

187.8 Sale or assignment of brand.

Any brand recorded as provided in section 187.4 shall be the property of the person causing such record to be made and shall be subject to sale, assignment, transfer, devise, and descent as personal property. Instruments of writing, evidencing the sale, assignment, or transfer of such brand shall be recorded by the secretary and the fee for recording such sale, assignment, or transfer shall be in an amount established by rule of the secretary pursuant to chapter 17A, which amount shall be based upon the administrative costs of maintaining the brand program provided for by this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.8]

Referred to in §187.12

187.9 Certified copy to new owner.

As soon as instruments of writing evidencing the sale, assignment, or transfer of a brand have been recorded by the secretary, the secretary shall furnish such new owner one certified copy of such sale, assignment, or transfer.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.9]

187.10 Evidence of ownership.

In all suits at law or equity or in any criminal proceedings in which the title to animals is an issue, the certified copies recorded as provided for in section 187.6 or 187.9 shall be prima-facie evidence of the ownership of such animal by the person in whose name the brand is recorded. Disputes in custody or ownership of branded animals shall be investigated, on request, by the sheriff of the county where the animals are located and the sheriff may call upon the services of an authorized person, approved by the secretary of agriculture, in reading the brands on animals. The cost of such services shall be borne by the person requesting the investigation. The results of the sheriff's investigation shall be a public record and be admissible in evidence.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.10]

187.11 Publication of brands list.

It shall be the duty of the secretary from time to time to cause to be published in book form a list of all brands on record at the time of such publication. Such lists may be supplemented from time to time. The publication shall contain a facsimile of all brands recorded and the owner's name and post-office address. The records shall be arranged in convenient form for reference. It shall be the duty of the secretary to send one copy of the brand book and supplements to the county recorder of each county. Such books and supplements shall be without cost to the county and shall be kept as a matter of public record. The books and supplements may be sold to the general public at the cost of printing and mailing each book.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.11]

Referred to in §331.602

187.12 Fees to general fund.

All fees and money, collected under the provisions of sections 187.4, 187.6, 187.8, and 187.13 by the secretary shall be placed in the general fund.

187.13 Fee each fifth year.

Each owner of a brand of record beginning on January 1, 1970, shall pay to the secretary a fee of five dollars and a renewal fee on January 1 of each fifth year after the payment of the five dollar fee, or on January 1 of each fifth year following the original recording of a brand recorded after June 30, 1975. The amount of the renewal fee required for January 1, 1976 and each year thereafter shall be established by rule of the secretary pursuant to chapter 17A. Such amount shall be based upon the administrative costs of maintaining the brand program provided for in this chapter. It shall be the duty of the secretary to notify every owner of a brand of record at least thirty days prior to the date of the renewal period. The secretary shall give a receipt for all such payments made and if any owner of a brand of record shall fail, refuse, or neglect to pay such fee by July 1 of each year in which it is due, such brand shall become forfeited and no longer carried in the record. Any such forfeited brand shall not be issued to any other person within a period of less than five years following date of forfeiture.

187.14 Tampering with brand.

Any person who shall brand, attempt to brand, or cause to be branded the animals of another, or who shall efface, deface, or obliterate or attempt to efface, deface, or obliterate any brand upon any animal or animals of another, or who shall brand, attempt to brand, or cause to be branded the recorded brand of another on any animal shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §187.14]

187.15 Effect of prior brands.

Any person having duly recorded a brand or mark used on live animals in the office of any county recorder of any county in Iowa before July 4, 1965, shall be presumed to be the owner of such brand or mark and shall be protected in the use of such brand or mark for a period of ninety days from July 4, 1965. In the event any two or more persons present for recording the same or similar brand, the one whose brand was recorded first with any county recorder shall be the one entitled to record, use, and own such brand pursuant to this chapter. If such presumed owner fails to file application, facsimile, and recording fee as provided for in section 187.4 within the ninety-day period, title to such brand or mark which may have been acquired by such recording shall terminate as of midnight of the last day of the ninety-day period. If such presumed owner files an application, facsimile, and recording fee as provided for in section 187.4 it shall be the duty of the secretary to give priority to examination of such application.

187.16 Branding committee.

The secretary may appoint a state branding committee to help initiate this program.

188.1 Definition of terms.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Owner" when used with reference to animals, means any person in possession or entitled to the present possession thereof, or having care or charge of them, or holding the legal title to them.

2. "Owner" when used with reference to lands, means the person having title thereto, or the lessee or occupant thereof.

3. "Animal" or "animals" when used in this chapter shall include and embrace horses, cattle, swine, sheep, goats, mules, and asses.

4. "Estray" shall mean any animal unlawfully running at large the ownership of which cannot, with reasonable inquiry in the neighborhood, be ascertained, or any animal which has been abandoned by its owner.

5. "Trespassing animals" means those unlawfully upon land, or running at large contrary to law or police regulations.

188.2 Restraint of animals.

All animals shall be restrained by the owners thereof from running at large.

188.3 Trespass on lawfully fenced land.

Any animal trespassing upon land, fenced as provided by law, may be distrained by the owner of such land, and held for all damages done thereon by it, unless it escaped from adjoining land in consequence of the neglect of such landowner to maintain the landowner's part of a lawful partition fence.

Fences, ch 113

188.4 Neglect to maintain partition fence.

The owner of the land from which such animal escaped shall also be liable for such damages if it escaped therefrom in consequence of the owner's neglect to maintain the owner's part of a lawful partition fence, or if the trespassing animal was not lawfully upon the owner's land, and the owner had knowledge thereof.

Fences, ch 113

188.5 Trespass on unfenced land.

If there be no lawful partition fence, and the line thereof has not been assigned either by the fence viewers or by agreement of the parties, any animal trespassing across such partition line shall not be distrained, nor shall there be any liability therefor.

188.6 Trespass on highway.

Animals which are unlawfully running at large on the highway may be distrained by the owner of the adjoining land and held for damages done by them and for the costs provided in this chapter.

188.7 Animals under control.

An animal shall not be considered as running at large so long as it is under the reasonable care and control of the owner upon the public road for driving or travel thereon.

188.8 Action in lieu of distraint.

Instead of distraining trespassing animals, the injured person may recover all damages caused thereby in an action against the owner thereof, and may join therein the owner of the land from which it escaped, if the owner is liable therefor, and all or any of the different owners of the animals who have not paid their proportion of the damages or costs.

188.9 Action when stock is released or has escaped.

If distrained animals escape or are released without the consent of the distraining party, that party may recover damages as above provided, with costs, and the costs of distraint made prior to such escape or release.

188.10 Release on payment of ratable share.

If there is more than one owner of distrained animals, each may pay the owner's ratable share of the damages and costs, and release the owner's animals.

188.11 Procedure on distraint.

The person distraining animals shall, within twenty-four hours after such distraint, Sunday not included, notify the owner of the animals of such distraint and of the actual amount of damages and costs caused by such animals. If the said owner fails to satisfy such damages and costs within twenty-four hours after such notification, the person distraining shall immediately notify the township trustees and demand that they appear upon the premises where the damages occurred and assess the damages. The trustees shall immediately fix a time for the assessment of such damages and notify the owner of the animal accordingly.

188.12 Appointee in lieu of trustee.

If for any reason one or more trustees shall be unable to act, the trustees present shall appoint one or more disinterested citizens in place of such trustees.

188.13 Tender.

The owner of the animals may tender to the person suffering damage an amount less than that demanded by claimant, as damages and costs, and if such tender be refused, and the final assessment of damages be no more than such tender, then all costs, and compensation for keeping the animals accruing after such tender, shall be paid by the person distraining the animals.

Tender in general, ch 538

188.14 Assessment of damages.

The trustees, or a majority thereof, shall meet on the premises where the damages occurred at the time fixed and assess the damages and costs and file their written report with the township clerk, who shall record the same. Said assessment shall be final unless appealed from.

188.15 Failure to pay damages.

If the owner of the distrained animals neglects for two days after such assessment to pay the amount thereof, the township clerk shall at once post up in three conspicuous places in the township a notice of the time and place at which the clerk will sell said animals, describing them. The place of sale shall be at the place of distraint. The sale shall be between the hours of one and three o'clock p.m. and on a day not less than five nor more than ten days after the posting.

188.16 Escape or release.

If any distrained animal escapes, or is unlawfully released, the injured person may recapture the same. If the recapture is effected before the day of sale as already fixed in the notice, the sale shall proceed under such notice. If the recapture is effected after the day of sale has passed, the township clerk shall issue new notices of sale and proceed anew.

188.17 Sale.

The clerk shall, at the time and place named in said notice, sell the animals at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, but only such number of animals shall be sold as is necessary to satisfy the damages and costs. Animals unsold shall be at once returned to the owner, and also the surplus remaining, if any, out of any sold.

188.18 Unknown owner.

Should the owner of the surplus be unknown the same shall be paid to the county treasurer, who shall give duplicate receipts therefor, one of which shall be filed with the county auditor. The owner of said animal, on filing a claim therefor within twelve months after payment to the treasurer, shall be entitled to receive said surplus from the county.

188.19 Appeal — time.

Any person aggrieved by the assessment made by the trustees may appeal to the district court by filing with the township clerk, within four days after the report of the trustees is filed with such clerk an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by said clerk and conditioned to pay all damages and costs.

Presumption of approval of bond, §682.10

188.20 Appeal bonds — amount.

Appeal bonds shall be in the following amounts:

1. When the appeal is taken by the person distraining the animals, twice the value of the animals, as fixed by the clerk.

2. When the appeal is taken by the owner of the distrained animals, twice the value of the animals, so fixed, or twice the amount of damages and costs in those cases where the value of the animals exceeds the amount of the damages claimed.

188.21 Appeal by claimant — effect.

When an appeal is thus taken by the person distraining such animals the animals shall be held for the satisfaction of such judgment as may be rendered on appeal, except as provided in section 188.22.

188.22 Release pending appeal.

The owner of said animals may secure the release of the same at any time before judgment by filing with the township clerk before the appeal is certified, or with the clerk of the district court thereafter, a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the clerk with whom filed, conditioned to pay all damages and costs recovered in said cause on appeal. The clerk receiving such bond shall file the same, and forthwith certify the fact to the person having charge of the distrained animals, who shall thereupon release the same to the owner.

Referred to in §188.21, 602.8102(34)

188.23 Appeal by owner — effect.

Where the owner appeals and files a bond, as herein provided, it shall operate as a supersedeas, and the distrained animals shall be released to the owner.

[C73, §1455; C97, §2318; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3001; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188.23]

Referred to in §602.8102(34)

188.24 Transcript — clerk to file.

Within five days after the taking of the appeal, the township clerk shall make out a certified transcript of the record of the finding of the trustees, and file the same, together with the notice of appeal, if in writing, and the bond, with the clerk of the district court

188.25 Unlawful release.

A person who releases an animal, distrained as provided in this chapter, without the consent of the person distraining the animal is guilty of a simple misdemeanor

See §903 1

188.26 Taking up estray.

Any resident of a county may take up an estray when the same is on the resident's premises. The resident may also take up an estray which is upon the premises of any other person when such other person had knowledge that such estray was on the other person's premises and fails for five days to take up such estray

188.27 Procedure on taking up estray.

A person taking up an estray shall, within five days thereafter, post up, for ten days, a written notice in three of the most public places in the township, which notice shall be signed by the person and shall embrace

1 A full description of said animal

2 The time and place of taking up such estray

188.28 Proof of service.

Immediately after the expiration of said ten days of posting, the person taking up the estray shall, unless such estray has been previously claimed by the owner, file with the county auditor an affidavit which shall show

1 The time and place of taking up such estray

2 The time and places of posting said notice, together with a copy of said notice

3 That said animal remains unclaimed

4 Whether the marks or brands of said animal have been altered to the person's knowledge, either before or after the same was taken up

188.29 Repealed by 64GA, ch 1124, §282

188.30 Record and posting by county auditor.

The county auditor shall record the affidavit in the estray book in the auditor's office and cause a copy thereof to be posted at the door of the courthouse

Referred to in §331 502 331 508

188.31 Publication.

The auditor shall cause the affidavit to be published once each week for three weeks in some newspaper in the county

[R60, §1511-1513, C73, §1468, C97, §2324, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3009; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188 31]

Referred to in §331 502

188.32 Fees and expenses.

The person taking up an estray shall pay the legal fees due to the county auditor for entering said affidavit in the estray book, and posting and publishing the same, which amounts, together with the compensation provided by law, shall be refunded to the person taking up such estray by the owner thereof in case the animal is restored to the owner

Referred to in §331 502

188.33 Two or more estrays — procedure.

If two or more estrays are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be included in one notice and affidavit and but one fee shall be paid therefor, and if fewer than the whole number of animals thus included are restored to the owner, a proportionate amount of such fees and expenses shall be refunded

188.34 Property vests when.

If the estray be not claimed by the owner within six months from the time it is taken up, the property therein shall vest in the taker-up, if the taker-up has complied with the provisions of this chapter

188.35 Recovery by owner.

At any time before the property in the estray vests in the person who has taken it up, the owner shall be entitled to recover possession of it on paying to the person who has taken it up

1 The compensation to which the person is entitled by law

2 The fees and expenses which the taker-up has paid in advance

3 Any reward which has been offered by the owner

4 A reasonable allowance for the expenses of keeping such estray, taking into account the use which the person taking up has had of it, which latter allowance shall be made by the court before whom a proceeding to recover the animal shall be brought in the event the owner and the taker up cannot agree with reference thereto

188.36 Former owner — rights after vesting of title.

At any time within six months after the property in an estray has vested in the taker-up, the former owner shall be entitled to receive from the taker-up, on demand, the value of the estray, not including any increased value which has accrued since it was taken up, after deducting therefrom the compensation, reward, fees, and expenses referred to in section 188.35, or the taker-up may, at the option of the taker-up, elect to surrender the estray, if still in the possession of the taker-up, in which case the owner must pay such compensation, reward, fees, and expenses.

188.37 Lawful use of estray.

Any person legally taking up an estray may use or work it, if the person does so with care and moderation, and does not abuse or injure it. Estrays adapted thereto may be milked by the taker-up.

188.38 Unlawful use of estray.

Any person who unlawfully takes up any estray, or takes up any estray and fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, or uses or works it in any manner contrary to this chapter, or works it before having it appraised, or keeps it out of the county for more than five days at any one time before the person acquires a title to it, shall be liable to the owner of the estray for double the amount of any injury to the estray.

188.39 Nonliability of taker-up.

If any estray, legally taken up, escape from the finder or die without any fault on the finder's part, the finder shall not be liable for the loss.

188.40 Penalty against finder.

If any person shall sell, trade, or take out of the state any estray before the legal title shall have vested in the person, the person shall forfeit to the owner double its value, and shall also be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

188.41 Transfer of estrays.

The personal representatives of a taker-up shall succeed to all the rights of such taker-up. The county auditor may authorize the taker-up or the personal representative to transfer an estray to another person who shall take the place of the taker-up or personal representative.

[C97, §2331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3019; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188.41]

Referred to in §331 502

188.42 Sale of estrays.

When an estray has damaged property and is taken up by the owner of such property, such owner, instead of proceeding against said animal as an estray as hereinafore provided, may proceed against it as provided for the distraint and sale of animals, the ownership of which is known.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3020; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188.42]

Referred to in §188 43, 331 502

188.43 Notice.

In cases contemplated by section 188.42, a notice of the taking up and the amount of the claim for damages shall be served on the unknown owner by two publications of a notice in at least two of the official newspapers of the county, which notice shall:

1. Be signed by the taker-up, with the post-office address of the taker-up.
2. Be addressed to the unknown owner.
3. Contain a full description of the animal, including all marks or brands thereon.
4. Specify the time and place of the taking up, and the amount of damages and costs claimed.

5. Notify the unknown owner that unless the owner appears within six months and pays said damages and all legal costs, said taker-up will apply to the township clerk for an assessment of damages caused by said animal and costs, and will take proceedings for the sale of such animal for the payment thereof.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3021; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188.43]

188.44 Assessment of damages and costs.

At any time after six months from the date of the last publication, or at any time after the owner appears and fails to pay said damages and costs, the taker-up may apply to the township clerk for an assessment of the damages and costs, and all subsequent proceedings shall be as provided in case of distraint of animals, the ownership of which is known. The legal fees for publishing said notice shall be included in the assessment of costs.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3022; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §188.44]

Referred to in §188 45, 331 502

Fees for publication, §618 11

188.45 Owner discovered.

Should the taker-up mentioned in section 188.44 discover the owner of said animal prior to the expiration of said six months, the taker-up shall immediately serve written notice upon such owner of the taking up of said animal and of the amount of the said claim of the taker-up, and unless the owner discharges said claim within twenty-four hours such taker-up shall proceed in the same manner as provided in case of the distraint of animals the ownership of which is known.

188.46 Penalty.

Any officer who fails to perform the duties enjoined upon the officer in this chapter in relation to estrays, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

See §903 1

188.47 Bond to release.

Before any property held under this chapter is sold under distraint, or before the title to an estray vests in the taker-up, it may be released at once upon the owner giving to the distrainer or taker-up a bond, with sureties, to be approved by the township clerk or county auditor, before whom the matter is then pending, conditioned to pay to the holder of the property, within twenty days after such approval, all costs, damages, and compensation to which the holder is entitled. In case the obligee in said bond is compelled to begin action on such bond, the court may tax a reasonable attorney's fee in favor of such obligee.

188.48 Compensation and fees.

The compensation for services under this chapter shall be as follows:

1. For distraining all animals except as otherwise provided, two dollars for each head taken on one distraint.
2. For distraining each stallion, jack, bull, boar, or buck, two dollars.
3. For keeping horses, cattle, mules, and asses, two dollars a day, from the time the same is taken up.
4. For keeping any other animals, two dollars a day from the time the same is taken up.
5. For posting notices and selling animals, the same fees as are allowed peace officers for like services upon execution.
6. For taking up as an estray two dollars a head.
7. To the county auditor, for all services in each case of estrays, including posting and publishing notice, but not including the fee of the printer, fifty cents.

8. To the township clerk, for posting notices, twenty-five cents, and services not otherwise provided for, the same fees as are allowed in assessing damages done by trespassing animals, with ten cents mileage each way.

9. To the township clerk, ten cents per each hundred words entered of record, the same fees for a copy thereof, and in addition twenty-five cents for a certificate thereto, and fifty cents for filing and approving any bond.

DIVISION I

INSPECTION — SAMPLES

189.3 Procuring samples.

The department shall, for the purpose of examination or analysis, procure from time to time, or whenever said department has occasion to believe any of the provisions of this title are being violated, samples of the articles dealt with in this title which have been shipped into this state, offered or exposed for sale, or sold in the state.

189.4 Access to factories and buildings.

The department shall have full access to all places, factories, buildings, stands, or premises, and to all wagons, auto trucks, vehicles, or cars used in the preparation, production, distribution, transportation, offering or exposing for sale, or sale of any article dealt with in this title.

189.5 Dealer to furnish samples.

Upon request and tender of the selling price by the department any person who prepares, manufactures, offers or exposes for sale, or delivers to a purchaser any article dealt with in this title shall furnish, within business hours, a sample of the same, sufficient in quantity for a proper analysis or examination as shall be provided by the rules of the department.

189.6 Taking of samples.

The department may, without the consent of the owner, examine or open any package containing, or believed to contain, any article or product which it suspects may be prepared, manufactured, offered, or exposed for sale, sold, or held in possession in violation of the provisions of this title, in order to secure a sample for analysis or examination, and said sample and damage to container shall be paid for at the current market price out of the contingent fund of the department.

189.7 Preservation of sample.

After the sample is taken it shall be carefully sealed with the seal of the department and labeled with the name or brand of the article, the name of the party from whose stock it was taken, and the date and place of taking such sample. Upon request a duplicate sample, sealed and labeled in the same manner, shall be delivered to the person from whose stock the sample was taken. The label and duplicate shall be signed by the person taking the same. The method of taking samples of particular articles may be prescribed by the rules of the department.

189.8 Witnesses.

In the enforcement of the provisions of this title the department shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, enforce their attendance, and examine them under oath. Such witnesses shall be allowed the same fees as witnesses in district court. Said fees shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the department.

[C97, §2515; SS15, §2515; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3036; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189.8]

Referred to in §210 18

DIVISION IV

OFFENSES — PENALTIES

189.17 Confiscation or condemnation.

Unless a procedure or method of seizure and confiscation or condemnation is otherwise provided, the secretary is hereby authorized to prohibit the entrance into channels of commerce or possession of any article found to be adulterated or improperly labeled according to the provisions of this division or rules established hereunder. Any articles found in channels of commerce or in possession by an inspector which are not in compliance with the adulteration or labeling provisions of this division shall be subject to immediate seizure by the department. Seized articles shall be condemned unless of such character that the articles can be made to conform with the provisions of this division by methods approved by the secretary. Condemned articles shall be effectively destroyed for the purpose for which they were intended by the owner of the article, or the owner's agent, under the supervision of an inspector in such manner as the secretary may prescribe.

189.18 Wrongful condemnation — restitution.

A party whose article, item, commodity or product is wrongfully condemned or seized shall be entitled to maintain a cause of action against the state of Iowa, for the damage proximately caused by the wrongful condemnation or seizure. Such cause of action shall be a claim as defined in chapter 25A and shall be subject to the provisions of said chapter, notwithstanding the provisions of section 25A.14.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189.18]

DIVISION III

189A.1 Title.

This chapter shall be known as the "Meat and Poultry Inspection Act".

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189A.1]

189A.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter except as otherwise specified:

1. "Department" means the Iowa department of agriculture.

2 "Secretary" means the Iowa secretary of agriculture or the secretary's delegate

3 "Person" includes any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit, and any officer, agent, or employee thereof

4 "Broker" means any person engaged in the business of buying or selling livestock products or poultry products on commission, or otherwise negotiating purchases or sales of such articles other than for the person's own account or as an employee of another person

5 "Renderer" means any person engaged in the business of rendering livestock or poultry carcasses, or parts or products of such carcasses, except rendering conducted under inspection or exemption under this chapter

6 "Animal food manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of preparing animal food, including poultry, derived wholly or in part from livestock or poultry carcasses or parts or products of such carcasses

7 "Intrastate commerce" means commerce within this state

8 "Livestock" means any cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules or other equines, whether live or dead

9 "Livestock product" means any carcass, part thereof, meat, or meat food product of any livestock

10 "Meat food product" means any product capable of use as human food which is made wholly or in part from any meat or other portion of the carcass of any cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, excepting products which contain meat or other portions of such carcasses only in a relatively small proportion or historically have not been considered by consumers as products of the meat food industry, and which are exempted from definition as a meat food product by the secretary under such conditions as the secretary may prescribe to assure that the meat or other portions of such carcass contained in such product are not adulterated and that such products are not represented as meat food products. This term as applied to food products of equines shall have a meaning comparable to that provided in this paragraph with respect to cattle, sheep, swine, and goats

11 "Poultry" means any domesticated bird, whether live or dead

12 "Poultry product" means any poultry carcass or part thereof, or any product which is made wholly or in part from any poultry carcass or part thereof, excepting products which contain poultry ingredients only in a relatively small proportion or historically have not been considered by consumers as products of the poultry food industry, and which are exempted by the secretary from definition as a poultry product under such conditions as the secretary may prescribe to assure that the poultry ingredients in such products are not adulterated and that such products are not represented as poultry products

13 "Capable of use as human food" shall apply to any livestock or poultry carcass, or part or product of any such carcass, unless it is denatured or otherwise identified as required by regulations prescribed by the secretary to deter its use as human food, or it is naturally inedible by humans

14 "Prepared" means slaughtered, canned, salted, stuffed, rendered, boned, cut up, or otherwise manufactured or processed

15 "Adulterated" shall apply to any livestock product or poultry product under any one or more of the following circumstances

a If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health, but in case the substance is not an added substance such article shall not be considered adulterated under this clause if the quantity of such substance in or on such article does not ordinarily render it injurious to health

b (1) If it bears or contains, by reason of administration of any substance to the livestock or poultry or otherwise, any added poisonous or deleterious substance, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity, a food additive, or a color additive, which may, in the judgment of the secretary, make such article unfit for human food

(2) If it is, in whole or in part, a raw agricultural commodity and such commodity bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

(3) If it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

(4) If it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 706 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, however, an article which is not otherwise deemed adulterated under subparagraph (2), (3), or (4) of this paragraph shall nevertheless be deemed adulterated if use of the pesticide chemical, food additive, or color additive in or on such article is prohibited by regulations of the secretary in official establishments

c If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance or is for any other reason unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food

d If it has been prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health

e If it is, in whole or in part, the product of an animal, including poultry, which has died otherwise than by slaughter f If its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health

g If it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with a regulation or exemption in effect pursuant to section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

h If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom, or if any substance has been substituted, wholly or in part therefor, or if damage or inferiority has been concealed in any manner, or if any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength, or make it appear better or of greater value than it is i If it is margarine containing animal fat and any of the raw material used therein consisted in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance

16 “Misbranded” shall apply to any livestock product or poultry product under any one or more of the following circumstances a If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular

b If it is offered for sale under the name of another food

c If it is an imitation of another food, unless its label bears, in type of uniform size and prominence, the word “imitation”, and immediately thereafter the name of the food imitated

d If its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading

e Unless it bears a label showing both

(1) The name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor

(2) An accurate statement of the quantity of the product in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count, however, under this paragraph, exemptions as to livestock products not in containers may be established by regulations prescribed by the secretary, and under this subparagraph reasonable variations may be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages may be established for livestock products or poultry products by regulations prescribed by the secretary

f If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or other labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness, as compared with other words, statements, designs, or devices in the labeling, and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use

g If it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a definition and standard of identity or composition has been prescribed by the regulations of the secretary under section 189A 7, unless it conforms to such definition and standard and its label bears the name of the food specified in the definition and standard and, insofar as may be required by such regulations, the common names of optional ingredients, other than spices, flavoring, and coloring, present in such food

h If it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a standard or standards of fill of container have been prescribed by regulations of the secretary under section 189A 7, and it falls below the standard of fill of container applicable thereto, unless its label bears, in such manner and form as such regulations specify, a statement that it falls below such standard

i If it is not subject to the provisions of paragraph “g” of this subsection, unless its label bears both

(1) The common or usual name of the food, if any

(2) In case it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the common or usual name of each such ingredient, except that spices, flavorings, and colorings may, when authorized by the secretary, be designated as spices, flavorings, and colorings without naming each, however, to the extent that compliance with the requirements of this subparagraph is impracticable, or results in deception or unfair competition, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the secretary

j If it purports to be or is represented for special dietary uses, unless its label bears such information concerning its vitamin, mineral, and other dietary properties as the secretary, after consultation with the secretary of agriculture of the United States, determines to be and by regulations prescribes as necessary in order to fully inform purchasers as to its value for such uses

k If it bears or contains any artificial flavoring, artificial coloring, or chemical preservative, unless it bears labeling stating that fact, however, to the extent that compliance with the requirements of this paragraph is impracticable, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the secretary

l If it fails to bear, directly thereon and on its containers, as the secretary may by regulations prescribe, the official inspection legend and establishment number of the establishment where the product was prepared and, unrestricted by any of the foregoing, such other information as the secretary may require in such regulations to assure that it will not have false or misleading labeling and that the public will be informed of the manner of handling required to maintain the article in a wholesome condition

17 “Label” means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon any article or the immediate container, not including package liners, of any article

18 “Labeling” means all labels and other written, printed, or graphic matter either upon any article or any of its containers or wrappers, or accompanying such article

19 “Container” or “package” means any box, can, tin, cloth, plastic or other receptacle, wrapper, or cover

20 “Shipping container” means any container used or intended for use in packaging the product packed in an immediate container

21 “Immediate container” means any consumer package, or any other container in which livestock products or poultry products, not consumer packaged, are packed

22 “Federal Meat Inspection Act” means the Act so entitled approved March 4, 1907 (34 Stat 1260), as amended by the Wholesome Meat Act (81 Stat 584), “federal Poultry Products Inspection Act” means the Act so entitled approved August 28, 1957 (71 Stat 441), as amended by the Wholesome Poultry Products Act (82 Stat 791), and “federal Acts” means these two federal laws

23 “Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act” means the Act so entitled, approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat 1040), and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto

24 “Pesticide chemical”, “food additive”, “color additive”, and “raw agricultural commodity” shall have the same meanings for purposes of this chapter as under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

25 “Official mark” means the official inspection legend or any other symbol prescribed by regulations of the secretary to identify the status of any article or livestock or poultry under this chapter

26 “Official inspection legend” means any symbol prescribed by regulations of the secretary showing that an article was inspected and passed in accordance with this chapter

27 “Official certificate” means any certificate prescribed by regulations of the secretary for issuance by an inspector or other person performing official functions under this chapter

28 “Official device” means any device prescribed or authorized by the secretary for use in applying any official mark

29 “Official establishment” means any establishment as determined by the secretary at which inspection of the slaughter of livestock or poultry or the preparation of livestock products or poultry products is maintained under the authority of this chapter

30 “Inspector” means an employee or official of the Iowa department of agriculture authorized by the secretary or any employee or official of the government of any county or other governmental subdivision of this state, authorized by the secretary to perform any inspection functions under this chapter under an agreement between the secretary and such governmental subdivision

31 “Veterinary inspector” means a graduate veterinarian with appropriate training to perform the inspection functions under the provisions of this chapter

32 “Establishment” means all premises where animals or poultry are slaughtered or otherwise prepared, either for custom, resale, or retail, for food purposes, meat or poultry canneries, sausage factories, smoking or curing operations, restaurants, grocery stores, brokerages, cold storage plants, and similar places

33 “Reinspection” includes inspection of the preparation of livestock products and poultry products, as well as re-examination of articles previously inspected

189A 3 License — fee.

No person shall operate an establishment other than a grocery store or food service establishment as defined in section 170A 2 without first obtaining a license from the department The license fee for each establishment per year or any part of a year shall be

1 For all meat and poultry slaughtered or otherwise prepared not exceeding twenty thousand pounds per year for sale, resale, or custom, twenty five dollars

2 For all meat and poultry slaughtered or otherwise prepared in excess of twenty thousand pounds per year for sale, resale, or custom, fifty dollars

The funds shall be deposited with the department of agriculture The license year shall be from July 1 to June 30 Applications for licenses shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the department

It is the objective of this chapter to provide for meat and poultry products inspection programs that will impose and enforce requirements with respect to intrastate operations and commerce that are at least equal to those imposed and enforced under the federal Meat Inspection Act and the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act with respect to operations and transactions in interstate commerce, and the secretary is directed to administer this chapter so as to accomplish this purpose A director of the meat and poultry inspection service shall be designated as the secretary’s delegate to be the appropriate state official to cooperate with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in administration of this chapter

Referred to in §170 2 189A 5 189A 7

189A 4 Exemptions

In order to accomplish the objectives of this chapter, the secretary may exempt the following types of operations from inspection

1 Slaughtering and preparation by any person of livestock and poultry of the person’s own raising exclusively for use by the person and members of the person’s household, and the person’s nonpaying guests and employees

2 Any other operations which the secretary may determine would best be exempted to further the purposes of this chapter, to the extent such exemptions conform to the federal Meat Inspection Act and the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act and the regulations thereunder

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189A 4]

189A 5 Veterinarians and inspectors.

The secretary shall administer this chapter and shall employ veterinarians to administer this chapter and veterinarians licensed in the state of Iowa as veterinary inspectors The secretary is also authorized to employ as meat inspectors other persons who have qualified and are skilled in the inspection of meat and poultry products and any other additional employees the secretary deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter The meat inspectors shall be under the supervision of a veterinary inspector The secretary may also enter into contracts with qualified individuals to perform inspection services as the secretary may designate for a fee per head or per unit volume to be determined by the secretary provided such persons are not employed in the establishment in which the inspection takes place The secretary may utilize any employee, agent, or equipment of the department in the enforcement of this chapter, and may assign to inspectors other duties related to the acceptance of meat and poultry products

In order to accomplish the objectives stated in section 189A 3 the secretary shall

1 By regulations require antemortem and post mortem inspections, quarantine, segregation, and reinspections with respect to the slaughter of livestock and poultry and the preparation of livestock products and poultry products at all establishments in this state, except those exempted by section 189A 4, at which livestock or poultry are slaughtered or livestock or poultry products are prepared for human food solely for distribution in intrastate commerce

2 By regulations require the identification of livestock and poultry for inspection purposes and the marking and labeling of livestock products or poultry products or their containers, or both, as “Iowa Inspected and Passed” if the products are found upon inspection to be not adulterated, and as “Iowa Inspected and Condemned” if they are found upon inspection to be adulterated, and the destruction for food purposes of all such condemned products under the supervision of an inspector

3 Prohibit the entry into official establishments of livestock products and poultry products not prepared under federal inspection or inspection pursuant to this chapter and further limit the entry of such articles and other materials into such establishments under such conditions as the secretary deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter

4. By regulations require that when livestock products and poultry products leave official establishments they shall bear directly thereon or on their containers, or both, all information required by subsection 16 of section 189A.2; and require approval of all labeling and containers to be used for such products when sold or transported in intrastate commerce to assure that they comply with the requirements of this chapter.

5. Investigate the sanitary conditions of each establishment within subsection 1 of this section and withdraw or otherwise refuse to provide inspection service at any such establishment where the sanitary conditions are such as to render adulterated any livestock products or poultry products prepared or handled thereat.

6. Prescribe regulations relating to sanitation for all establishments required to have inspection under subsection 1 of this section.

7. By regulations require that both of the following classes of persons shall keep such records and for such periods as are specified in the regulations to fully and correctly disclose all transactions involved in their business, and to afford the secretary and the secretary's representatives, including representatives of other governmental agencies designated by the secretary, access to such places of business, and opportunity at all reasonable times to examine the facilities, inventory, and records thereof, to copy the records, and to take reasonable samples of the inventory upon payment of the fair market value therefor:

a. Any person that engages in or for intrastate commerce in the business of slaughtering any livestock or poultry, or preparing, freezing, packaging or labeling, buying or selling, as a broker, wholesaler, or otherwise, transporting, or storing any livestock products or poultry products for human or animal food.

b. Any person that engages in or for intrastate commerce in business as a renderer or in the business of buying, selling, or transporting any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or parts of the carcasses of any such animals, including poultry, that died otherwise than by slaughter.

189A.6 Health examination of employees.

The operator of any establishment shall require all employees of such establishment to have a health examination by a physician and a certified health certificate for each employee shall be kept on file by the operator. The secretary may at any time require an employee of an establishment to submit to a health examination by a physician. No person suffering from any communicable disease, including any communicable skin disease, and no person with infected wounds, and no person who is a "carrier" of a communicable disease shall be employed in any capacity in an establishment. No person shall work or be employed in or about any establishment during the time in which a communicable disease exists in the home in which such person resides unless such person has obtained a certificate from a physician to the effect that no danger of public contagion or infection will result from the employment of such person in such establishment. Every person employed by an establishment and engaged in direct physical contact with meat or poultry products during its preparation, processing, or storage, shall be clean in person, wear clean washable outer garments and a suitable cap or other head covering used exclusively in such work. Only persons specifically designated by the operator of an establishment shall be permitted to touch meat or poultry products with their hands, and the persons so designated shall keep their hands scrupulously clean.

189A.7 Powers of secretary of agriculture.

In order to accomplish the objective stated in section 189A.3 the secretary may:

1. Remove inspectors from any establishment that fails to destroy condemned products as required under section 189A.5, subsection 2.

2. Refuse to provide inspection service under this chapter with respect to any establishment for causes specified in section 401 of the federal Meat Inspection Act or section 18 of the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act.

3. Order labeling and containers to be withheld from use if the secretary determines that the labeling is false or misleading or the containers are of a misleading size or form.

4. By regulations prescribe the sizes and style of type to be used for labeling information required under this chapter, and definitions and standards of identity or composition or standards of fill of container, consistent with federal standards, when the secretary deems such action appropriate for the protection of the public and after consultation with the secretary of agriculture of the United States.

5. By regulations prescribe conditions of storage and handling of livestock products and poultry products by persons engaged in the business of buying, selling, freezing, storing, or transporting such articles in or for intrastate commerce to assure that such articles will not be adulterated or misbranded when delivered to the consumer.

6. Require that equines be slaughtered and prepared in establishments separate from establishments where other livestock are slaughtered or their products are prepared.

7. By regulations require that every person engaged in business in or for intrastate commerce as a broker, renderer, animal food manufacturer, or wholesaler or public warehouse of livestock or poultry products, or engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transporting in intrastate commerce any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or parts of the carcasses of any such animals, including poultry, that died otherwise than by slaughter shall register with the secretary the person's name and the address of each place of business at which and all trade names under which the person conducts such business.

8. Adopt by reference or otherwise such provisions of the rules and regulations under the federal Acts, with such changes therein as the secretary deems appropriate to make them applicable to operations and transactions subject to this chapter, which shall have the same force and effect as if promulgated under this chapter, and promulgate such other rules and regulations as the secretary deems necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter, including rules of practice providing opportunity for hearing in connection with issuance of orders under section 189A 5, subsection 5, and subsection 1, 2, or 3 of this section and prescribing procedures for proceedings in such cases, however, this shall not preclude a requirement that a label or container be withheld from use, or a refusal of inspection pursuant to the sections cited herein pending issuance of a final order in any such proceeding

9 Appoint and prescribe the duties of such inspectors and other personnel as the secretary deems necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter

10 Co operate with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in administration of this chapter to effectuate the purposes stated in section 189A 3, accept federal assistance for that purpose and spend public funds of this state appropriated for administration of this chapter to pay the state's proportionate share of the estimated total cost of the co operative program

11 Recommend to the secretary of agriculture of the United States for appointment to the advisory committees provided for in the federal Acts, such officials or employees of the Iowa meat and poultry inspection service as the secretary shall designate

12 Serve as a representative of the governor for consultation with said secretary under paragraph "c" of section 301 of the federal Meat Inspection Act and paragraph "c" of section 5 of the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act unless the governor selects another representative

Referred to in §189A 2(16 k, h) 189A 10

189A.8 Prohibited acts.

1 No person shall sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, any carcasses of horses, mules, or other equines or parts of such carcasses, or the meat or meat food products thereof, unless they are plainly and conspicuously marked or labeled or otherwise identified as required by regulations prescribed by the secretary to show the kinds of animals from which they were derived

2 No person shall buy, sell, transport, or offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation, in intrastate commerce, any livestock products or poultry products which are not intended for use as human food unless they are denatured or otherwise identified as required by the regulations of the secretary or are naturally inedible by humans

3 No person engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transporting in intrastate commerce, dead, dying, disabled, or diseased animals, or any parts of the carcasses of any animals that died otherwise than by slaughter, shall buy, sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in such commerce, any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or the products of any such animals that died otherwise than by slaughter, unless such transaction or transportation is made in accordance with such regulations as the secretary may prescribe to assure that such animals, or the unwholesome parts or products thereof, will be prevented from being used for human food purposes

189A.9 Hours of operation.

The secretary may require operations at licensed establishments to be conducted during reasonable hours. The owner or operator of each licensed establishment shall keep the secretary informed in advance of intended hours of operation

A charge shall be made for overtime inspection in excess of eight hours per day or outside assigned work schedules and also on state legal holidays

189A.10 Compliance required.

1 No person shall, with respect to any livestock or poultry or any livestock products or poultry products, do any of the following a Slaughter any such animals or prepare any such articles which are capable of use as human food, at any establishment preparing such articles solely for intrastate commerce, except in compliance with the requirements of this chapter

b Sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, any such articles which are both

(1) Capable of use as human food

(2) Adulterated or misbranded at the time of such sale, transportation, offer for sale or transportation, or receipt for transportation, or any articles required to be inspected under this chapter unless they have been so inspected and passed

c With respect to any such articles which are capable of use as human food, any act while they are being transported in intrastate commerce or held for sale after such transportation, which is intended to cause or has the effect of causing such articles to be adulterated or misbranded

2 No person shall sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, or from an official establishment, any slaughtered poultry from which the blood, feathers, feet, head, or viscera have not been removed in accordance with regulations promulgated by the secretary except as may be authorized by such regulations

3 No person shall violate any provision of the regulations or orders of the secretary under section 189A 5, subsection 7, or section 189A 7

189A.11 Access by inspectors — acceptance by state agencies.

No person shall deny access to any authorized inspectors upon the presentation of proper identification at any reasonable time to establishments and to all parts of such premises for the purposes of making inspections under this chapter

When meat has been inspected and approved by the department, such inspection will be equal to federal inspection and therefore may be accepted by state agencies and political subdivisions of the state and no other inspection can be required

1 No inspection of products placed in any container at any official establishment shall be deemed to be complete until the products are sealed or enclosed therein under the supervision of an inspector

2 For purposes of any inspection of products required by this chapter, inspectors authorized by the secretary shall have access at all times by day or night to every part of every establishment required to have inspection under this chapter, whether the establishment is operated or not

189A.12 Seizure, detention and determination.

Whenever any livestock or poultry product or any product exempted from the definition of a livestock or poultry product, or any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry is found by any authorized representative of the secretary upon any premises where it is held for purposes of, or during or after distribution in, intrastate commerce or is otherwise subject to this chapter, and there is reason to believe that any such article is adulterated or misbranded and is capable of use as human food, or that it has not been inspected in violation of the provisions of this chapter, the federal Meat Inspection Act, the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act, or the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or that such article or animal has been or is intended to be distributed in violation of any such provisions, it may be detained by such representative for a period not to exceed twenty days, pending action under this section or notification of any federal authorities having jurisdiction over such article or animal, and shall not be moved by any person from the place at which it is located when so detained until released by such representative. All official marks may be required by such representative to be removed from such article or animal before it is released unless it appears to the satisfaction of the secretary that the article or animal is eligible to retain such marks

1 Any livestock or poultry product, or any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry which is being transported in intrastate commerce, or is otherwise subject to this chapter, or is held for sale in this state after such transportation, and which is or has been prepared, sold, transported, or otherwise distributed or offered or received for distribution in violation of this chapter, or is capable of use as human food and is adulterated or misbranded, or is in any other way in violation of this chapter shall be liable to be proceeded against and seized and condemned at any time on a complaint filed in the district court of the particular county within the jurisdiction of which such article or animal is found. If such article or animal is condemned it shall, after entry of the decree, be disposed of by destruction or sale as the court may direct and any proceeds, less the court costs and fees, storage fees, and other proper expenses, shall be paid into the treasury of this state, but the article or animal shall not be sold contrary to the provisions of this chapter, the federal Meat Inspection Act, the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act, or the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, however, upon the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that the article or animal shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the laws of the United States, the court may direct that such article or animal be delivered to the owner thereof subject to such supervision by authorized representatives of the secretary as is necessary to insure compliance with the applicable laws. When a decree of condemnation is entered against the article or animal and it is released under bond or destroyed, court costs and fees, storage fees, and other proper expenses shall be awarded against any person intervening as claimant of the article or animal. The proceedings in such cases shall be held without a jury, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in any case, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit of and in the name of this state

2 The provisions of this section shall in no way derogate from authority for condemnation or seizure conferred by other provisions of this chapter or other applicable laws

189A 13 Rules

The secretary shall promulgate such rules as may be necessary for the effective administration of this chapter

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189A 13]

189A.14 Judicial review — enforcement.

1 Judicial review of the action of the secretary may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act

2 The district court is hereby vested with jurisdiction to enforce this chapter, to prevent and restrain violations herein

189A 15 Co-operation with other agencies.

The secretary is hereby authorized to co operate with all other agencies, federal and state, in order to carry out the effective administration of this chapter

189A.16 Forgery or counterfeiting.

1 No brand manufacturer, printer, or other person shall cast, print, lithograph, or otherwise make any device containing any official mark or simulation thereof, or any label bearing any such mark or simulation, or any form of official certificate or simulation thereof, except as authorized by the secretary

2 No person shall do any of the following a Forge any official device, mark, or certificate

b Without authorization from the secretary, use any official device, mark, or certificate, or simulation thereof, or alter, detach, deface, or destroy any official device, mark, or certificate

c Contrary to the regulations prescribed by the secretary, fail to use, or to detach, deface, or destroy any official device, mark, or certificate

d Knowingly possess, without promptly notifying the secretary or the secretary's representative, any official device or any counterfeit, simulated, forged, or improperly altered official certificate or any device or label or any carcass of any animal, including poultry, or part or product thereof, bearing any counterfeit, simulated, forged, or improperly altered official mark

e Knowingly make any false statement in any shipper's certificate or other nonofficial or official certificate provided for in the regulations prescribed by the secretary

f Knowingly represent that any article has been inspected and passed, or exempted, under this chapter when it has not been so inspected and passed, or exempted

189A.17 Penalties.

1 Any person who violates any provisions of this chapter for which no other criminal penalty is provided shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor, but if such violation involves intent to defraud, or any distribution or attempted distribution of an article that is adulterated, except as defined in section 189A.2, subsection 15, paragraph "h" such person shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice

2 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary to report, for the institution of legal proceedings, minor violations of this chapter whenever the secretary believes that the public interest will be adequately served by a suitable written notice of warning

3 The secretary shall also have power

a To gather and compile information concerning, and to investigate from time to time the organization, business, conduct, practices, and management of any person engaged in intrastate commerce, and the relation thereof to other persons

b To require persons engaged in intrastate commerce to file with the secretary in such form as the secretary may prescribe, annual or special reports or answers in writing to specific questions, furnishing to the secretary such information as the secretary may require as to the organization, business, conduct, practices, management, and relation to other persons of the person filing such reports or answers. Such reports and answers shall be made under oath, or otherwise as the secretary may prescribe, and shall be filed with the secretary within such reasonable period as the secretary may prescribe, unless additional time be granted in any case by the secretary

4 a For the purpose of this chapter the secretary may, at all reasonable times, examine and copy any documentary evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against, and may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all documentary evidence of any person relating to any matter under investigation. The secretary may sign subpoenas and administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence

b Such attendance of witnesses, and the production of such documentary evidence may be required at any designated place of hearing. In case of disobedience to a subpoena the secretary may invoke the aid of the district court having jurisdiction over the matter in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence

c The district court may, in case of failure or refusal to obey a subpoena issued herein to any person, enter an order requiring such person to appear before the secretary or to produce documentary evidence if so ordered, or to give evidence concerning the matter in question, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as contempt

d Upon the application of the attorney general of this state at the request of the secretary, the court shall have jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus commanding any person to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any order of the secretary pursuant thereto

e The secretary may order testimony to be taken by deposition in any proceeding or investigation pending under this chapter at any stage of such proceeding or investigation. Such depositions may be taken before any person designated by the secretary and having power to administer oaths. Such testimony shall be reduced to writing by the person taking the deposition, or under the person's direction and shall then be subscribed by the deponent. Any person may be compelled to appear and depose and to produce documentary evidence in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify and produce documentary evidence before the secretary as herein provided

f Witnesses summoned before the secretary shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the district court, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in such district court

g No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, schedules of charges, contracts, agreements, or other documentary evidence before the secretary or in obedience to the subpoena of the secretary, whether such subpoena be signed or issued by the secretary or the secretary's delegate, or in any cause or proceeding, criminal or otherwise, based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of this chapter for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after having claimed the privilege against self incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that any individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying

5 a Any person who neglects or refuses to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry, or to produce documentary evidence, if it is in the person's power to do so, in obedience to the subpoena or lawful requirement of the secretary shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor

b Any person who willfully makes, or causes to be made, any false entry or statement of fact in any report required to be made under this chapter, or who willfully makes, or causes to be made, any false entry in any account, record, or memorandum kept by any person subject to this chapter, or who willfully neglects or fails to make or to cause to be made, full, true, and correct entries in such accounts, records, or memoranda, of all facts and transactions pertaining to the business of such person, or who willfully leaves the jurisdiction of this state, or willfully mutilates, alters, or by any other means falsifies any documentary evidence of any person subject to this chapter or who willfully refuses to submit to the secretary or to any of the secretary's authorized agents, for the purpose of inspection and taking copies, any documentary evidence of any person subject to this chapter in the person's possession or control, shall be deemed guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor

c. If a person required by this chapter to file an annual or special report fails to do so within the time fixed by the secretary for filing it, and the failure continues for thirty days after notice of default, the person shall forfeit to this state the sum of one hundred dollars for each day of the continuance of the failure, which forfeiture is payable into the treasury of this state, and is recoverable in a civil suit in the name of the state brought in the district court of the county where the person has a principal office or in the district court of any county in which the person does business. The county attorneys shall prosecute for the recovery of such forfeitures.

d. Any officer or employee of this state who makes public any information obtained by the secretary, without the secretary's authority, unless directed by a court, or uses any such information to the officer's or employee's advantage, shall be deemed guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

The requirements of this chapter shall apply to persons, establishments, animals, and articles regulated under the federal Meat Inspection Act or the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act to the extent provided for in said federal Acts and also to the extent provided in this chapter and in regulations the secretary may prescribe to promulgate this chapter.

31 Food Food shall include any article used by man or domestic animals for food, drink, confectionery, or condiment, or which enters into the composition of the same, whether simple, blended, mixed, or compound The term "blended" shall be construed to mean a mixture of like substances

32 Ice cream mix Ice cream mix is a pure clean product made from a combination of milk products and one or more of the following Sugar, dextrose and glucose, and may contain one or more of the following ingredients Eggs, egg products, harmless coloring, salt and wholesome stabilizer

It may not contain more than one half of one percent by weight of stabilizer It may contain not less than ten percent by weight of milk fat nor less than twenty percent by weight of total milk solids The acidity and the salt balance of the ice cream may be standardized by the use of a harmless alkali, an amount not to exceed one half of one percent calculated as lactic acid In no case shall the bacteria count of ice cream mix exceed one hundred thousand to the cubic centimeter

33 Ice cream Ice cream is a pure clean frozen product made from ice cream mix and a harmless flavoring It shall contain not less than ten percent by weight of milk fat and not less than twenty percent by weight of total milk solids, except where fruit, fruit juice, or both fruit and fruit juice, nuts, cocoa or chocolate, or cocoa and chocolate syrup, maple syrup, cakes or confections are used for the purpose of flavoring, then it shall contain not less than eight percent by weight of milk fat and not less than sixteen percent by weight of total milk solids

In no case shall any ice cream contain less than one and six-tenths pounds of total food solids per gallon nor shall the bacteria count exceed fifty thousand to the cubic centimeter

A quart of ice cream in factory filled packages shall weigh not less than eighteen ounces

34 Flavored ice cream

a Fruit ice cream is ice cream flavored exclusively with fruit and shall be labeled "Fruit Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the fruit

b Fruit flavored ice cream is ice cream flavored with fruit and fruit juice, or with fruit juice, and shall be labeled "Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the fruit

c Nut ice cream is ice cream flavored exclusively with nut meats and shall be labeled "Nut Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the nut used

d Nut flavored ice cream is ice cream flavored with a combination of nut meats and one or both of the following Juice of nut meats or true nut extract and shall be labeled "Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the nut e Any ice cream bearing the name of a fruit or nut flavor but flavored with artificial flavor shall be labeled "Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the fruit or nut and followed by the words "artificially flavored," in the same size type. Such ice cream shall contain not less than ten percent by weight of total milk fat and not less than twenty percent by weight of total milk solids.

f Any ice cream flavored with confections, cakes, bread or pastry products, cereals or vegetables, the ice cream shall be labeled "Ice Cream" preceded by the name of the product imparting the flavor.

g Frozen custard, French ice cream, French custard ice cream is a frozen product which shall contain not less than five dozen clean wholesome egg yolks, or one and five tenths pounds of wholesome dry egg yolks or three pounds wholesome frozen egg yolks for each ninety pounds of the product and shall conform in all other respects to the definition and standard of identity of ice cream prescribed previously.

35 a Ice milk Ice milk is a pure, clean frozen or semifrozen product made from a combination of milk products and one or more of the following ingredients: Sugar, dextrose, glucose, corn syrup in liquid or dry form, with harmless flavoring or coloring or both, either natural or artificial, and with or without wholesome stabilizer, and in the manufacture of which freezing has been accompanied by agitation of the ingredients. It contains not more than one-half of one percent by weight of wholesome stabilizer, and shall contain not less than two percent and not more than seven percent by weight of milk fat, and not less than eleven percent by weight of total milk solids. In no case shall any ice milk contain less than one and three-tenths pounds of total food solids per gallon or weigh less than four and five tenths pounds per gallon. It shall not contain fats other than milk fat. Every particle of mix shall be pasteurized at temperature of not less than 155°F for not less than thirty minutes or to a temperature of not less than 175°F for not less than twenty five seconds in approved and properly operated equipment. Provided, that nothing contained in this definition shall be construed as barring any other process which has been demonstrated to be equally efficient and is approved by the state department of agriculture. It shall contain not more than fifty thousand bacteria per cubic centimeter in the manufacturer's package.

Ice milk sold at retail in the manufacturer's package or wrapper shall be labeled on a contrasting background in plain legible eight-point type with the words, "Ice Milk", provided that when flavored exclusively with fruit it shall be labeled, "Fruit Ice Milk", preceded by the name of the fruit. When flavored with fruit and fruit juice, or with fruit juice, it shall be labeled, "Ice Milk", preceded by the name of the fruit. When bearing the name of a fruit or nut flavor but flavored with artificial flavor, it shall be labeled, "Ice Milk", preceded by the name of the nut or fruit and followed by the words "artificially flavored" in the same size type. When flavored with cocoa or chocolate, or cocoa and chocolate syrup, maple syrup, or confections, it shall be labeled, "Ice Milk", preceded by the name of the product imparting the flavor.

A sign shall be posted in every retail establishment where ice milk is sold, on a white card not less than twelve by twenty two inches in dimensions with letters not less than three inches in height and two inches in width containing the words, "Ice Milk Sold Here", such a sign shall at all times be within plain view of, and at an easily readable distance from the customer.

36 Milk sherbet

a Milk sherbet is the pure clean frozen product made from a combination of milk products and one or more of the following ingredients: Sugar, sucrose, dextrose, harmless coloring and stabilizer composed of wholesome edible material, flavoring derived from fruit, fruit juice and lactic, citric, or tartaric acid and with not less than thirty five hundredths of one percent of acid as determined by titrating with standard alkali and expressed as lactic acid.

It shall contain not less than two percent and not more than five percent by weight of milk solids and the milk fat content thereof shall be not less than one percent and not more than two percent. It shall be identified by its common or usual flavor name.

b Ices or fruit ices shall conform in all respects to the definition and standard of identity for milk sherbet, except that it shall contain no milk solids.

37 Frozen malted milk "Frozen malted milk" means the pure, clean, frozen or semifrozen product made from the combination of milk products, malted milk and one or more of the following ingredients: Eggs, sugar, dextrose, and honey, with or without flavoring and coloring, and with or without edible gelatin or vegetable stabilizer, and in the manufacture of which freezing has been accompanied by agitation of the ingredients. It contains not more than one-half of one percent by weight of edible gelatin or vegetable stabilizer, not less than seven percent by weight of milk fat, not less than fourteen percent by weight of total milk solids, and not less than three percent by weight of malted milk. In no case shall frozen malted milk contain less than one and three-tenths pounds of total food solids per gallon or weigh less than four and one-half pounds per gallon.

Provided, however, products complying with the above definition except that they contain less than seven percent by weight of milk fat, shall be sold only in the manufacturer's original package or wrapper and must be labeled in plain legible eight-point type with the words "Imitation Frozen Malted Milk."

38 Milk Milk is hereby defined to be the lacteal secretion, practically free from colostrum, obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, which contains not less than eight and one-fourth percent milk solids not-fat and not less than three and one-fourth percent milk fat (Milk fat or butterfat is the fat of milk.)

39 Skim milk or skimmed milk Skim milk or skimmed milk is milk from which sufficient milk fat has been removed to reduce its milk fat content to less than one half of one percent.

40 Goat milk Goat milk is the lacteal secretion, practically free from colostrum, obtained by the complete milking of healthy goats. The word "milk" shall be interpreted to include goat milk.

41 Half-and-half Half and half is a product consisting of a mixture of milk and cream which contains not less than ten and one half percent milk fat.

42 Cultured half-and-half Sour half-and-half or cultured half and half is fluid or semifluid half and-half derived from the souring, by lactic acid producing bacteria or similar culture, of pasteurized half and-half, which contains not less than one fifth of one percent acidity expressed as lactic acid

43 Reconstituted milk Reconstituted or recombined milk or milk products shall mean milk or milk products defined in this section which result from the recombining of milk constituents with potable water

44 Concentrated milk Concentrated milk is a fluid product, unsterilized and unsweetened, resulting from the removal of a considerable portion of the water from milk, which, when combined with potable water, results in a product conforming with the standards for milk fat and solids not-fat of milk

45 Concentrated milk products Concentrated milk products shall mean and include homogenized concentrated milk, vitamin "D" concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, fortified concentrated skim milk, concentrated low fat milk, fortified concentrated low fat milk, concentrated flavored milk, concentrated flavored milk products, and similar concentrated products made from concentrated milk or concentrated skim milk, and which, when combined with potable water in accordance with instructions printed on the container, conform with the definitions of the corresponding milk products in this chapter and chapters 191 and 192

46 Low fat milk Low fat milk is milk from which a sufficient portion of milk fat has been removed to reduce its milk fat content to not less than one half of one percent and not more than two percent

47 Vitamin "D" milk Vitamin "D" milk and milk products are milk and milk products, the vitamin "D" content of which has been increased by an approved method to at least four hundred U S P units per quart

48 Fortified milk Fortified milk and milk products are milk and milk products other than vitamin "D" milk and milk products, the vitamin or mineral content of which has been increased by a method and in an amount approved by the secretary

49 Homogenized milk Homogenized milk is milk which has been treated to insure breakup of the fat globules to such an extent that, after forty-eight hours of quiescent storage at 45°F, no visible cream separation occurs on the milk, and the fat percentage of the top one hundred milliliters of milk in a quart, or of proportionate volumes in containers of other sizes, does not differ by more than ten percent from the fat percentage of the remaining milk as determined after thorough mixing. The word "milk" shall be interpreted to include homogenized milk

50 Flavored milk Flavored milk or milk products shall mean milk and milk products as defined in this chapter and chapters 191 and 192 to which has been added a flavor or sweetener or both

51 Buttermilk Buttermilk is a fluid product containing not less than eight and one-fourth percent of milk solids not-fat and resulting from the manufacture of butter from milk or cream

52 Cultured buttermilk Cultured buttermilk is a fluid product resulting from the souring, by lactic acid producing bacteria or similar culture, of pasteurized skim milk or pasteurized low fat milk

53 Cultured milk Cultured milk or cultured whole milk buttermilk is a fluid product resulting from the souring, by lactic acid producing bacteria or similar culture, of pasteurized milk

54 Acidified milk Acidified milk and milk products are milk and milk products obtained by the addition of food grade acids to pasteurized cream, half and-half, milk, low fat milk, or skim milk, resulting in a product acidity of not less than one-fifth of one percent expressed as lactic acid

55 Milk products Milk products include cream, light cream, coffee cream, table cream, whipping cream, light whipping cream, heavy cream, heavy whipping cream, whipped cream, whipped light cream, whipped coffee cream, whipped table cream, sour cream, cultured sour cream, half and half, sour half and-half, cultured half and-half, reconstituted or recombined milk and milk products, concentrated milk, concentrated milk products, skim milk, skimmed milk, low fat milk, fortified milk and milk products, vitamin "D" milk and milk products, homogenized milk, flavored milk or milk products, buttermilk, cultured buttermilk, cultured milk, cultured whole milk buttermilk, and acidified milk and milk products

This definition is not intended to include such products as sterilized milk and milk products hermetically sealed in a container and so processed, either before or after sealing, as to prevent microbial spoilage, or evaporated milk, condensed milk, ice cream and other frozen desserts, butter, dry milk products, except as defined herein, cottage cheese dry curd, cottage cheese, low fat cottage cheese, cheese or cheese products except when they are combined with other substances to produce any pasteurized milk or milk product defined herein

56 Grade "A" dry milk Grade "A" dry milk products are milk products which have been produced for use in grade "A" pasteurized milk products and which have been manufactured under the provisions of Grade "A" Dry Milk Products — Recommended Sanitation Ordinance and Code for Dry Milk Products Used in Grade "A" Pasteurized Milk Products (1959) of the United States Public Health Service

57 Optional ingredients Optional ingredients shall mean and include grade "A" dry milk products, concentrated milk, concentrated milk products, flavors, sweeteners, stabilizers, emulsifiers, acidifiers, vitamins, minerals, and similar ingredients

58 Oysters Oysters shall not contain ice, nor more than sixteen and two-thirds percent by weight of free liquid

59 Vinegar Vinegar is the product made by the alcoholic and subsequent fermentation of fruits, grain, vegetables, sugar, or syrups without the addition of any other substance and containing an acidity of not less than four percent by weight of absolute acetic acid. The product may be distilled, but when not distilled it shall not carry in solution any other substance except the extractive matter derived from the substances from which it was made

60 Cider or apple vinegar Cider or apple vinegar is a similar product made by the same process solely from the juice of apples. Such vinegar which during the course of manufacture has developed in excess of four percent acetic acid may be reduced to said strength

61. Corn sugar vinegar. Corn sugar vinegar is a similar product made by the same process solely from solutions of starch sugar.

62. Malt vinegar. Malt vinegar is a similar product made by the same process solely from barley malt or cereals whose starch has been converted by malt.

63. Sugar vinegar. Sugar vinegar is a similar product made by the same process solely from sucrose.

64. Lard. Lard is the fat rendered from fresh, clean, sound, fatty tissues from hogs in good health at the time of slaughter, with or without lard stearin or a hardened lard. The tissues do not include bones, detached skin, head fat, ears, tails, organs, windpipes, large blood vessels, scrap fat, skimmings, settlings, pressings and the like and are reasonably free from muscle tissue and blood.

65. Rendered pork fat Rendered pork fat is the fat other than lard, rendered from clean, sound carcasses, parts of carcasses, or edible organs from hogs in good health at the time of slaughter, except that stomachs, tails, bones from the head and bones from cured or cooked pork are not included. The tissues rendered are usually fresh, but may be cured, cooked, or otherwise prepared and may contain some meat food products. Rendered pork fat may be hardened by the use of lard stearin or hardened lard or rendered pork fat stearin or hardened rendered pork fat or any combination.

66. Substitute for sugar. Where sugar is given as one of the ingredients in a food product when the definition is established by law or by regulation, the following products may be used as optional ingredients: Dextrose (corn sugar) or corn syrup.

67. Honey. Honey is the secretion of floral nectar collected by the honeybee and stored in wax combs constructed by the honeybee, or the liquid derived therefrom.

Referred to in §189 14, 190 3, 191 2(5), 191 6

190.2 Additional standards.

The department* may establish and publish standards for foods when such standards are not fixed by law, but the same shall conform with those proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture of the United States.

*See §189 1

190.3 Food adulterations.

For the purposes of this chapter any food shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If any substance has been mixed or packed with it so as to reduce or injuriously affect its quality.
2. If any substance has been substituted to any extent.
3. If any valuable constituent has been removed to any extent.
4. If it has been mixed, colored, powdered, coated, or stained whereby damage or inferiority is concealed.
5. If it contains formaldehyde, sulphites or boron compound, or any poisonous or other ingredients injurious to health.

6. If it consists to any extent of a diseased, filthy, or decomposed animal or vegetable substance, whether manufactured or otherwise.

7. If it consists to any extent of an animal that has died otherwise than by slaughter.

8. If it is the product of or obtained from a diseased or infected animal.

9. If it has been damaged by freezing.

10. If it does not conform to the standards established by law or by the department.

The provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section shall not apply to the addition of vitamins approved by the United States Pharmacopoeia or the removal of milk fat from milk as defined in section 190.1, subsection 39.

[C73, §4042; C97, §4989, 4990; S13, §2515-b, -d; SS15, §4999-a31e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3060; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190.3]

Referred to in §190 4, 190 9

190.4 Adulterations of dairy products.

In addition to the adulterations enumerated in section 190.3, milk, cream, or skimmed milk shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If it contains visible dirt or is kept or placed at any time in an unclean container.

2. If obtained from a cow within fifteen days before or five days after calving.

3. If obtained from a cow stabled in an unhealthful place, or fed upon any substance in a state of putrefaction or of unhealthful nature.

4. If obtained from a cow which has consumed chemical, medicinal, or radioactive agents capable of being secreted in milk.

5. If obtained from a cow in a mastitic condition. [C97, §4989, 4990; S13, §2515-b, -d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3061; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190.4]

190.5 Adulterated milk or milk products.

Any milk or milk product shall further be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance in a quantity which may render it injurious to health.

2. If it bears or contains any added poisonous or deleterious substance for which no safe tolerance has been established by state or federal regulation, or in excess of such tolerance if one has been established.

3. If it consists, in whole or in part, of any substance unfit for human consumption.

4. If it has been produced, processed, prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions.

5. If its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health.

6. If any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength, or make it appear better or of greater value than it is.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190.5]

Referred to in §192 14

190.6 Adulteration with fats and oils.

No milk, cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, condensed or evaporated milk, powdered or desiccated milk, condensed skimmed milk, ice cream, or any fluid oil other than milk fat, and no product so made or prepared shall be sold, offered or exposed for sale, or possessed with the intent to sell, under any trade name or other designation of any kind. Provided however, that it shall be lawful to produce and sell a condensed or evaporated milk product in which the milk fat has been replaced by an edible vegetable fat made from soybean oil. Such a product shall be given a distinctive name to distinguish it from natural, condensed, or evaporated milk, which name shall not include the words "milk" or "milk products" or any derivative thereof, and the label under which such a product is sold at retail shall clearly state the vegetable fat content of the product.

190.7 Coloring imitation cheese.

No imitation cheese shall be colored with any substance and no such imitation cheese shall be made by mixing animal fats, vegetable oils, or other substances for the purpose or with the effect of imparting to the mixture the color of yellow cheese.

190.8 Coloring vinegar.

Vinegar shall not be colored with coloring matter and distilled vinegar shall not have a brown color in imitation of cider vinegar.

190.9 Adulteration of candies.

In addition to the adulterations enumerated in section 190.3, candy shall be deemed to be adulterated if it contains terra alba, barytes, talc, paraffin, chrome yellow, or other mineral substance.

190.10 Sale by false name.

No person shall offer or expose for sale, sell, or deliver any article of food which is defined in this chapter under any other name than the one herein specified or offer or expose for sale, sell, or deliver any article of food which is not defined in this chapter under any other name than its true name, trade name, or trade-mark name.

"Person" defined, §191.4

190.11 Artificial sweetening — labeling.

Where any approved artificial sweetening product such as saccharine or sulfamate is used by any person in the manufacture or sale of any article of food intended for human consumption, the container in which any such food or beverage is sold or offered for sale to the public shall be clearly, legibly and noticeably labeled with the name of the sweetening product used. The portion of the store, display counter, shelving, or other place where such food or beverage is displayed or offered for sale, shall be clearly and plainly identified by an appropriate sign reading "FOR DIETARY PURPOSES."

190.12 Standards for frozen desserts.

Frozen desserts and the pasteurized dairy ingredients used in the manufacture thereof, shall comply with the following standards:

Milk, cream, and fluid dairy ingredient	Temperature Bacterial limit Coliform limit	Storage at 45° F. 50,000 per milliliter 10 per milliliter
Frozen dessert mixes, frozen desserts (plain)	Temperature Bacterial limit Coliform limit	Storage at 45° F. 50,000 per gram 10 per gram
Dry dairy ingredient	Extra grade or better as defined by U.S. Standards for grades for the particular product.
Dry powder mix	Bacterial limit Coliform limit	50,000 per gram 10 per gram

The bacteria count and coliform determination shall not exceed this standard in three out of the last five consecutive samples taken by the regulatory agency.

This section shall not preclude holding mix at a higher temperature for a short period of time immediately prior to freezing where applicable to the particular manufacturing or processing practices.

This section shall not apply to sterilized mix in hermetically sealed containers.

The coliform determination for bulky flavored frozen desserts shall not be more than twenty per gram.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190.12]

190.13 Frozen desserts — edible containers.

Notwithstanding any other labeling provision of the Code, frozen dessert of any kind or flavor may be dispensed and sold at retail in edible containers or as a part of any food preparation intended for consumption without further preparation, including but not limited to the preparations commonly termed milk shakes, malted milks, sundaes, and floats

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190 13]

190A.1 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter

1 "Vegetable fat frozen dessert" means the food prepared by freezing, while stirring, a pasteurized mix composed of one or more edible natural vegetable fats or oils derived from vegetable sources, solids not fat, sugar or other sweeteners, one or more flavoring ingredients, and one or more stabilizers or emulsifiers or both. It may also contain one or more egg ingredients, and one or more caseinates.

2 "Mellorine" means the food prepared by freezing, while stirring, a pasteurized mix composed of a blend of one or more edible natural food fats or oils derived from vegetable sources with one or more natural food fats or oils derived from animal sources, other than milk fat, or consists entirely of one or more animal fats or oils, solids-not fat, sugar or other sweeteners, one or more flavoring ingredients, and one or more stabilizers or emulsifiers or both. It may also contain one or more egg ingredients, and one or more caseinates.

3 "Imitation frozen dessert" means any frozen sweetened product regardless of the name under which it is manufactured, sold or offered for sale, and which is manufactured in a manner similar to the process used in manufacturing ice cream, French ice cream, ice milk, fruit sherbet, water ices, vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine, quiescently frozen confection, and quiescently frozen dairy confection, but which does not conform to the definition and standard of identity established for any of the products defined in this or any other statute or regulation promulgated under any other statute of this state.

4 "Frozen dessert mix" means the pasteurized unfrozen liquid or fluid combination of two or more ingredients permitted in a frozen dessert with or without fruit, fruit juices, candy, baked goods and confections, nut meats, or other harmless flavor or color or both.

5 "Dry powder mix" is the unfrozen combination of two or more ingredients, which shall have been properly pasteurized if they are derivatives of milk, dairy products, or eggs, which are permitted in a frozen dessert before liquefying into a mix or the addition of fruit, fruit juices, candy, baked goods and confections, nut meats, or other harmless flavor or color or both.

6 "Frozen desserts" means ice cream, frozen custard, French ice cream, French custard ice cream, artificially sweetened ice cream, ice milk, fruit sherbet, water ice, quiescently frozen confection, quiescently frozen dairy confection, vegetable fat frozen dessert, frozen confection, mellorine frozen dessert, imitation frozen desserts together with any liquid or dry mix used in such frozen desserts, and any products which are similar in appearance, odor or taste to such products, or are prepared or frozen as frozen desserts are customarily prepared or frozen, whether made with dairy products or nondairy products.

7 "Food fats or oils" means edible natural fats derived from vegetable sources, and includes milk fat, meat fat, and fat derived from marine animals or fish. It is not necessary that such food fats be hydrogenated. Harmless optional ingredients may be used, in an amount not exceeding one-half of one percent of the weight of the finished food, to prevent fat oxidation.

8 "Solids-not-fat" means a Skim milk

b Concentrated skim milk

c Evaporated skim milk

d Condensed skim milk

e Super-heated condensed skim milk

f Sweetened condensed skim milk

g Nonfat dry milk

h Dry whey

i Concentrated whey

j Sweet cream buttermilk (whether fluid, condensed or dried)

Any of the foregoing products from which all or a portion of the lactose has been removed after crystallization or the lactose has been converted to simple sugars by hydrolysis.

- 9 "Sweetening ingredients" means
- a Sugar (sucrose) or sugar syrup
 - b Dextrose
 - c Invert sugar (in paste or syrup form)
 - d Corn syrup, dried corn syrup, glucose syrup, dried glucose syrup
 - e Maple syrup, maple sugar
 - f Honey
 - g Brown sugar
 - h Malt syrup, maltose syrup, malt extract
 - i Dried malt syrup, dried maltose syrup, dried malt extract
 - j Refiner's syrup
 - k Molasses (other than blackstrap)
 - l Lactose
 - m Fructose
- 10 "Flavoring ingredients" means
- a Ground spice, ground vanilla beans, infusion of coffee or tea, or any natural food flavoring
 - b Any artificial food flavoring
 - c Chocolate or cocoa, which may be added as such or as a suspension in syrup, and which may contain disodium phosphate or sodium citrate in such quantity that the finished vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine contains not more than zero point two percent by weight of disodium phosphate or sodium citrate
 - d Mature fruit or the juice of mature fruit, either of which may be fresh, frozen, canned, concentrated, or partially or wholly dried
 - e Nut meats, which may be roasted, cooked in an edible fat or oil, or preserved in syrup, and which may be salted
 - f Malted milk
 - g Confectionery For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "confectionery" means candy, cakes, cookies, glaceed fruits, and variegating flavors
 - h Properly prepared and cooked cereal
- 11 "Egg ingredients" means
- a Liquid eggs
 - b Frozen eggs
 - c Dried eggs
 - d Egg yolks
 - e Frozen egg yolks
 - f Dried egg yolks Any egg ingredient used shall be added to the mix before it is pasteurized
- 12 "Caseinates" means casein prepared by precipitation with gums, ammonium caseinate, calcium caseinate, potassium caseinate, and sodium caseinate. Caseinates in liquid or dry form, but free of excess alkali may be added to a mix containing not less than eight percent by weight of food fats, and not less than two point fifty six percent of protein
- 13 "Stabilizers and emulsifiers" mean
- a Agar-agar, algin (sodium alginate), calcium sulfate, gelatin, gum acacia, guar seed gum, gum karaya, locust bean gum, oat gum, gum tragacanth, carrageenan, lecithin, psyllium seed husk, cellulose gum and propylene glycol alginate. The total weight of the solids of any such ingredient used singly or of any combination of two or more such ingredients used (including any such ingredient and pectin added separately to the fruit ingredient) is not more than zero point five percent of the weight of the finished vegetable frozen fat dessert or mellorine. Such ingredients may be added in admixture with dextrin, propylene glycol or glycerin. Salts of carrageenan, furcelleran, salts of furcelleran, and sodium carboxymethylcellulose

b Monoglycerides or diglycerides or both of fat forming fatty acids. The total weight of such ingredients shall not be more than zero point two percent of the weight of the finished mellorine. When a preparation having over ninety percent of monoglycerides is used, it may be preblended with edible fat in an amount not exceeding twenty percent by weight of such blend and the total amount of such blend used shall not exceed zero point two percent of the weight of the finished vegetable fat frozen dessert of mellorine

c Polyoxyethylene twenty sorbitan tristearate or polyoxyethylene twenty sorbitan monooleate or both, in an amount not exceeding zero point one percent of the weight of the finished vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine, and microcrystalline cellulose in a quantity not to exceed one point five percent by weight of the finished vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §190A 1]

190A.2 Minimum requirements.

Vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine shall contain not less than eight percent by weight of food fats and not less than two point fifty six percent of protein derived from solids not fat except when it contains one or more of the optional flavoring ingredients as defined in this chapter in which case it shall contain at least six point four percent of food fats and at least two point zero five percent of protein derived from solids not fat. Vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine shall contain not less than one point six pounds of total food solids per gallon and shall weigh not less than four point five pounds per gallon. Coloring and water may be added and the mix may be seasoned with salt and be homogenized

190A.3 Fruit flavoring

Fruit used for flavoring may be whole, shredded, or comminuted, it may be sweetened, thickened with pectin or with one or more of the stabilizers or emulsifiers named in section 190A 1, subject to the restriction on the total quantity of such substances in vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine prescribed in that section, and it may be acidulated with citric, ascorbic or phosphoric acid. The fruit is prepared by the removal of pits, seeds, skins, and cores, where such removal is usual in preparing that kind of fruit for consumption as fresh fruits. In the case of fruit or fruit juice from which part of the water is removed, the substances contributing flavor volatilized during water removal may be condensed and reincorporated in the concentrated fruit or fruit juice. In the case of the citrus fruits the whole fruit, including the peel but excluding the seeds, may be used, and in the case of citrus juice or concentrated citrus juice, cold pressed citrus oil may be added in an amount not exceeding that which would have been obtained if the peel from the whole fruit had been used. For the purposes of this section, the flesh of the coconut shall be considered a fruit

190A.4 Rules adopted.

The secretary of agriculture may promulgate regulations specifying the manner by which the characterizing flavor of the frozen dessert shall be declared. The terms of such regulation shall conform to those which are required in the case of the characterizing flavor declaration by statutes or regulations for ice cream.

190A.5 Labeling requirements.

The name vegetable fat frozen dessert, mellorine, or imitation frozen dessert shall appear on any label required by law or departmental rules on packages or containers of such products, in such type size and with such prominence as may be readily seen and understood under normal conditions of purchase. Vegetable fat frozen dessert, mellorine, or imitation frozen dessert may not be designated by the use of the word "cream" or its phonetic equivalent. Products made in accordance with this chapter shall be labeled "vegetable fat frozen dessert" when the food fat portion thereof contains only vegetable fats or oils, and shall be labeled "mellorine" when vegetable fats or oils are blended and in combination with animal fats or oils (other than milk fat) or when the food portion contains an animal fat or oil or a blend of animal fats or oils. The container or wrapper shall bear labeling declaring all the ingredients therein in the order of their decreasing predominance; whether any fat or oil ingredient is hydrogenated or hardened, and the number of United States Pharmacopoeia units of vitamin A added if any is present.

190A.6 False advertising.

The false and misleading advertising of vegetable fat frozen dessert, mellorine, or imitation frozen dessert is prohibited. An advertisement of these foods shall be deemed to be false and misleading if in such advertisement representations are made or suggested by statement, word, grade, designation, design, device, symbol, sound, or any combination thereof, that such food is a dairy product, except that nothing contained herein shall prevent a truthful, accurate, and full statement in any such advertisement of all the ingredients in such foods.

190A.7 Signs posted.

Any imitation frozen dessert manufactured, sold, or offered for sale in such manner that a label is required by law or departmental rule shall be designated on such label as imitation frozen dessert, however, any special frozen dietary dessert manufactured and sold under the provisions of any law or regulation of this state, shall not be considered an imitation frozen dessert for the purposes of this section. A sign shall be posted in every retail establishment where "vegetable fat frozen dessert", "mellorine" or "imitation frozen dessert" is sold in other than factory-filled packages. This sign shall state in letters of such size as to be visible and easily read by the purchaser at the point of sale: (Name of product) SOLD HERE. Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall constitute misbranding and is hereby prohibited.

190A.8 Violations.

The preparation, storage, packaging, labeling, sale, offering for sale, serving, or dispensing of vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine, in violation of this chapter is hereby prohibited. The false and misleading advertising of vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine, in violation of this chapter, is hereby prohibited. Preparation of vegetable fat frozen dessert or mellorine in violation of section 190.12 is hereby prohibited.

190A.9 Administration by secretary.

The secretary of agriculture shall administer and supervise the enforcement of this chapter, prescribe rules and regulations to carry out its purposes, provide for periodic inspections and investigations as deemed necessary, receive and provide for the investigation of complaint, and provide for the institution and prosecution of civil or criminal actions or both. The provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations issued thereunder may be enforced by injunction in any court having jurisdiction to grant injunctive relief, and adulterated or misbranded articles illegally held or otherwise involved in a violation of this chapter or of rules and regulations shall be subject to seizure and disposition in accordance with an order of court.

190A.10 Dry powder mix.

No dry powder mix, as defined by this chapter, shall be required to be repasteurized after being liquefied.

191.1 Label requirements.

All food offered or exposed for sale, or sold in package or wrapped form, shall be labeled on the package or container as prescribed in sections 189 9 to 189 12, inclusive, unless otherwise provided in this chapter

191.2 Dairy products and imitations.

The products enumerated below shall be labeled on the side or top of the container or package in which placed, kept, offered or exposed for sale, or sold as prescribed in sections 189 9 to 189 12, inclusive, except that the label shall be printed in letters not less than three quarters inch in height and one half inch in width and subject to the following regulations

1 Renovated butter Renovated butter shall be labeled with the words “Renovated Butter”, and if offered or exposed for sale or sold in prints or rolls the wrapper of each and the container as required above shall be so labeled. If such butter is offered or exposed for sale uncovered and not in a container or package, a placard containing the required label shall be attached to the mass so as to be easily seen by the purchaser

2 Oleomargarine No person shall sell or offer for sale, colored oleo, oleomargarine or margarine unless — such oleo, oleomargarine or margarine is packaged, the net weight of the contents of any package sold in a retail establishment is one pound or less, there appears on the label of the package the word “oleo”, “oleomargarine” or “margarine” in type or lettering at least as large as any other type or lettering on such label, and a full and accurate statement of all the ingredients contained in such oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, and each part of the contents of the package is contained in a wrapper which bears the word “oleo”, “oleomargarine” or “margarine” in type or lettering not smaller than twenty point type

For the purposes of this chapter the term “oleo”, “oleomargarine” or “margarine” includes all substances, mixtures and compounds known as oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, and all substances, mixtures and compounds which have a consistence similar to that of butter and which contain any edible oils or fats other than milk fat if made in imitation or semblance of butter. For the purposes of this chapter colored oleo, oleomargarine or margarine is oleo, oleomargarine or margarine to which any color has been added

Whenever coloring of any kind has been added it shall be clearly stated on both inside wrapper and the outside package. The ingredients of oleo, oleomargarine or margarine shall be listed on both the inside wrapper and outside package in the order of the amounts of ingredients in the package

Such oleo, oleomargarine or margarine shall contain vitamin “A” in such quantity that the finished oleo, oleomargarine or margarine contains not less than fifteen thousand United States Pharmacopoeia units of vitamin “A” per pound, as determined by the method prescribed in the Pharmacopoeia of the United States for the total biological vitamin “A” activity

3 Imitation cheese Imitation cheese shall be labeled with the words “Imitation Cheese” on the cheese and on the package

4 Nonfat dry milk For the purposes of this chapter the product resulting from the removal of fat and water from milk and containing the lactose, milk proteins, and milk minerals in the same relative proportions as in the fresh milk from which it was made may be labeled and sold as “nonfat dry milk”. It shall contain not over five percent by weight of moisture and the fat content shall not be over one and one half percent by weight unless otherwise indicated

5 All bottles, containers, and packages enclosing milk or milk products as defined in section 190 1, sub sections 6 and 38 to 57, shall be conspicuously labeled or marked with a The name of the contents as given in the definitions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 192

b The word “reconstituted” or “recombined” if the product is made by reconstitution or recombination

c The grade of the contents

d The word “pasteurized” if the contents are pasteurized and the identity of the plant where pasteurized

e The word “raw” if the contents are raw and the name or other identity of the producer

f The designation vitamin “D” and the number of U S P units per quart in the case of vitamin “D” milk or milk products

g The volume or proportion of water to be added for recombining in the case of concentrated milk or milk products

h The words "nonfat milk solids added" and the percentage added if such solids have been added, except that this requirement shall not apply to reconstituted or recombined milk and milk products

i The words "artificially sweetened" in the name if nonnutritive or artificial sweeteners or both are used

j The common name of stabilizers, distillates, and ingredients, provided that

(1) Only the identity of the milk producer shall be required on cans delivered to a milk plant which receives only grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization, and which immediately dumps, washes, and returns the cans to the milk producer

(2) The identity of both milk producer and the grade shall be required on cans delivered to a milk plant which receives both grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization and ungraded raw milk and which immediately dumps, washes, and returns the cans to the milk producer

(3) In the case of concentrated milk products, the specific name of the product shall be substituted for the generic term "concentrated milk products", e.g., "homogenized concentrated milk", "concentrated skim milk", "concentrated chocolate milk", "concentrated chocolate flavored low fat milk"

(4) In the case of flavored milk or flavored reconstituted milk, the name of the principal flavor shall be substituted for the word "flavored"

(5) In the case of cultured milk and milk products, the special type culture used may be substituted for the word "cultured", e.g., "acidophilus buttermilk", "Bulgarian buttermilk", and "yogurt"

6 All vehicles and transport tanks containing milk or milk products shall be legibly marked with the name and address of the milk plant or hauler in possession of the contents

7 Tanks transporting raw milk and milk products to a milk plant from sources of supply not under the supervision of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation are required to be marked with the name and address of the milk plant or hauler and shall be sealed, in addition, for each such shipment, a shipping statement shall be prepared containing at least the following information a Shipper's name, address, and permit number b Permit number of hauler, if not employee of shipper

c Point of origin of shipment

d Tanker identity number e Name of product

f Weight of product

g Grade of product

h Temperature of product

i Date of shipment

j Name of supervising health authority at the point of origin

k Whether the contents are raw, pasteurized, or otherwise heat treated

Such statement shall be prepared in triplicate and shall be kept on file by the shipper, the consignee, and the carrier for a period of six months for the information of the secretary

8 The labeling information which is required on all bottles, containers, or packages of milk or milk products shall be in letters of an acceptable size, kind, and color satisfactory to the secretary and shall contain no marks or words which are misleading

9 Milk and milk products are misbranded a When their container bears or accompanies any false or misleading written, printed, or graphic matter

b When such milk and milk products do not conform to their definitions as contained in chapters 190, 191 and 192

c When such products are not labeled in accordance with this section

[C97, §2517, 4989, S13, §2515 b, c, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3068; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §191 2]

191.3 Sale of imitation products — notice to public — penalties.

Every person owning or in charge of any place where food or drink is sold who uses or serves therein imitation cheese, as in this title defined, shall display at all times opposite each table or place of service a placard for such imitation, with the words "Imitation served here", without other matter, printed in black roman letters not less than three inches in height and two inches in width, on a white card twelve by twenty two inches in dimensions

No person shall serve colored oleo, oleomargarine or margarine at a public eating place unless a notice that oleo, oleomargarine or margarine is served is displayed prominently and conspicuously in such place and in a manner as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual being served in the eating place or is printed or is otherwise set forth on the menu in type or lettering not smaller than that normally used to designate the serving of other food items or unless each separate serving bears or is accompanied by labeling identifying it as oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, or each separate serving thereof is triangular in shape

Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor, and the person shall have all licenses issued by the state for the public eating place in which a violation occurred suspended for one year

191.4 "Person" defined.

"Person" as used in this chapter and chapters 190 and 192 means any individual, plant operator, partnership, corporation, company, firm, trustee, or association

191.5 Advertising oleomargarine — restrictions.

No person, in person or by an agent, shall, by any means whatever, directly or indirectly, advertise or represent by statement, printing, writing, circular, poster, design, device, grade designation, advertisement, symbol, sound, or any combination thereof, that oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, or any brand of oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, is a dairy product for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase for consumption of oleo, oleomargarine or margarine, or any brand thereof. Whoever shall violate this provision shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor

191.6 Standards for oleomargarine.

The department of agriculture may prescribe and establish standards for oleo, oleomargarine or margarine manufactured or sold in this state and may adopt the standards set up by now existing regulations of the federal security administration or agency as found in 1949, Code of Federal Regulations, Title 21, Part 45, section 45.0, or any amendments thereto. Any standards so established shall not be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of section 190.1, subsection 2 entitled "Oleo, oleomargarine or margarine."

191.7 Enforcement of oleomargarine law.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of agriculture and the secretary's agents to enforce this chapter and of the county attorneys and of the attorney general of the state to co-operate with the secretary in the enforcement of this chapter

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §191.7]
 Referred to in §331.756(36)

191.8 Baking powder and vinegar.

Baking powder and distilled vinegar shall show on the label the name of each ingredient from which made. Distilled vinegar shall be marked as such, and cider vinegar which, having been in excess of the standard of acidity, has been reduced to the standard, shall have that fact indicated on the label.

191A.1 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter

- 1 "Commissary" or "vending machine commissary" means a catering establishment, restaurant, or any other place in which food, containers, or supplies are kept, handled, prepared, packaged, or stored
- 2 "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture
- 3 "Department" means the department of agriculture
- 4 "Food" means any raw, cooked, or processed edible substance, ice, beverage, or ingredient used or intended for use or for sale in whole or in part for human consumption
- 5 "Local board of health" means a county, city, or district board of health
- 6 "Machine location" means the room, enclosure, space, or area where one or more vending machines are installed and operated
- 7 "Municipal corporation" means a political subdivision of this state
- 8 "Operator" means any person who by contract, agreement, or ownership takes responsibility for furnishing, installing, servicing, operating, or maintaining one or more vending machines

9 "Potentially hazardous food" means any food that consists in whole or in part of milk or milk products, eggs, meat, poultry, fish, shell fish, edible crustacea, or other ingredients including synthetic ingredients, in a form capable of supporting rapid and progressive growth or infectious or toxigenic microorganisms. The term does not include clean, whole, uncracked, odor free shell eggs or foods which have a pH level of 4.5 or below or a water activity (Aw) value of 0.85 or less.

10 "Regulatory authority" means the state department of agriculture or local board of health that has entered into an agreement with the secretary of agriculture pursuant to section 191A.14 for authority to enforce the food and beverage vending machine laws in its jurisdiction.

11 "Vending machine" means any self-service device which, upon insertion of a coin or token, or by other similar means, dispenses unit servings of food, either in bulk or in packages, without the necessity of replenishing the device between each vending operation.

12 "Perishable food" means any food of a type or in a condition which may spoil
 [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §191A.1]

191A.2 License to operate.

No person shall operate one or more vending machines until a vending machine operator's license has been obtained from the regulatory authority. The annual license shall expire one year from the date of original issuance and is renewable. Vending machines dispensing only ball gum, or similar nonperishable snacks as prescribed and defined by regulation of the secretary, or bottled or canned soft drinks shall not require a license or be subject to the fee schedule provided in this chapter, but they may be inspected pursuant to section 191A.8

191A.3 Application.

An application for a vending machine operator's license shall be made upon a form furnished by the regulatory authority. The application form shall provide for obtaining information relating to ownership of commissaries, location of commissaries, location of shops and other servicing centers, and the total number of licensable vending machines by general product type owned and operated by the applicant and other information required by the secretary. The operator shall agree in the application to maintain within the jurisdiction of the regulatory authority a complete list of all vending machines and machine locations operated by the applicant and to make the list available to the regulatory authority at the time of inspection or auditing.

191A.4 Fees.

The regulatory authority shall collect a fee of two dollars per vending machine for a vending machine operator's license.

The vending machine operator's license shall not be transferable from one person to another, but shall require an immediate application and the payment of a new fee.

Fees for a vending machine commissary shall be the same as those for a food establishment as set forth in section 170.5 or for a food service establishment as set forth in section 170A.5, whichever is applicable.

191A.5 Repealed by 67GA, ch 1078, §62191A.6 Identification tag.

Each vending machine licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall bear a readily visible identification tag or decal provided by the licensee, containing the licensee's business address and phone number, and a company permit number assigned by the regulatory authority.

191A.7 Disciplinary action.

A license issued under this chapter may be revoked by the regulatory authority for violation by the licensee of a provision of this chapter or an applicable rule of the department. In lieu of license revocation, the regulatory authority may require the immediate discontinuance of operation of a vending machine or commissary whenever it finds insanitary conditions or other conditions which constitute a substantial hazard to the public health. The order shall apply only to the vending machines, commissary, or product involved. A person whose license is revoked, or who is ordered to discontinue the operation of a vending machine or commissary, may appeal that decision to the secretary. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall schedule and hold a hearing upon the appeal not later than thirty days from the time of revocation or the order of discontinuance. The secretary shall issue a decision immediately following the hearing. Judicial review may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

191A.8 Inspection.

The regulatory authority shall inspect all vending machine commissaries at least once each calendar year, and shall inspect representative vending machines and vehicles as often as deemed necessary to determine compliance with this chapter and applicable rules of the department. Section 170B.15 shall be applicable to the operation of vending machines.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §191A.8]

191A.9 Applicable provisions.

The provisions of sections 170.50, 170.51 and 170B.14 shall apply in the enforcement of this chapter.

191A.10 Rules.

The department shall promulgate rules governing requirements for sanitation of vended foods and beverages not inconsistent with the terms of this chapter nor federal standards governing the requirements for sanitation of vended foods and beverages. Such rules shall set forth:

- 1 Materials and type of interior and exterior construction of commissaries and vending machines
- 2 Machine location and operation
- 3 Water supply
- 4 Waste disposal
- 5 Other factors affecting the purity of food or beverage processed or dispensed

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §191A.10]

191A.11 Exceptions to license.

The food establishment license required by section 170.2 or the food service establishment license required by the Iowa food service sanitation code shall not be required for the area where vending machines licensed under this chapter are located.

191A.12 Penalty.

Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

191A.13 Fees deposited in general fund.

All fees collected by the department under the requirements of this chapter shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. Fees collected by a municipal corporation under the requirements of this chapter shall be retained by it and for its use.

191A.14 Authority to enforce the food and beverage vending machine laws.

The secretary has sole and exclusive authority to regulate, license, and inspect food and beverage vending machines and operators and to otherwise enforce the food and beverage vending machine laws. Municipal corporations shall not regulate, license, inspect, or collect license fees for food and beverage vending machines or their operation except pursuant to this section.

If a municipal corporation wants its local board of health to enforce the food and beverage vending machine laws within its jurisdiction, the municipal corporation may enter into an agreement to do so with the secretary. The secretary may enter into such an agreement if the secretary finds that the local board of health has adequate resources to perform the required functions. A municipal corporation may only enter into an agreement to enforce the food and beverage vending machine laws if it also agrees to enforce the Iowa food service sanitation code pursuant to section 170A.4 and to enforce the Iowa hotel sanitation code pursuant to section 170B.3.

Each local board of health that is responsible for enforcing the food and beverage vending machine laws within its jurisdiction pursuant to an agreement shall make an annual report to the secretary providing the following information:

1. The total number of food or beverage vending machine operator's licenses granted or renewed during the year.
2. The amount of money collected in license fees during the year.
3. Other information the secretary requests.

The secretary shall monitor local boards of health to determine if they are enforcing the food and beverage vending machine laws within their respective jurisdictions. If the secretary determines that the food and beverage vending machine laws are enforced by a local board of health, the secretary shall accept such enforcement in lieu of enforcement by the department in that jurisdiction. If the secretary determines that the food and beverage vending machine laws are not enforced by a local board of health, the secretary may rescind the agreement after reasonable notice and an opportunity for a hearing. If the agreement is rescinded, the secretary shall assume responsibility for enforcement in the jurisdiction involved.

192.5 Milk or milk products permit.

It shall be unlawful for any person who does not possess a permit from the secretary or authorized municipal corporation to bring into, send into, or receive into the state for sale, or to sell, or offer for sale therein, or to have in storage any milk or milk products defined in this chapter and chapters 190 and 191; provided that, grocery stores, restaurants, soda fountains, and similar establishments where milk or milk products or both are served or sold at retail, but not processed, may be exempt from the requirements of this section.

Only a person who complies with the requirements of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 shall be entitled to receive and retain such a permit from the department or authorized municipal corporation. Permits shall not be transferable with respect to persons or locations.

The secretary or authorized municipal corporation shall suspend such permit whenever there is reason to believe that a public health hazard exists, or whenever the permit holder has violated any of the requirements of said chapters or whenever the permit holder has interfered with the secretary or authorized municipal corporation in the performance of their duties: Except, where the milk or milk product involved creates, or appears to create, an imminent hazard to the public health; or in any case of a willful refusal to permit authorized inspection, the secretary or authorized municipal corporation shall serve upon the holder a written notice of intent to suspend the permit. The notice shall specify with particularity the violations in question and afford the holder such reasonable opportunity to correct such violations as may be agreed to by the parties, or in the absence of agreement, fixed by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation before making any order of suspension effective. A suspension of permit shall remain in effect until the violation has been corrected to the satisfaction of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation.

Upon written application of any person whose permit has been suspended, or upon application within forty-eight hours of any person who has been served with a notice of intention to suspend, and in the latter case before suspension, the secretary or authorized municipal corporation shall within seventy-two hours proceed to a hearing to ascertain the facts of such violation or interference and upon evidence presented at such hearing shall affirm, modify, or rescind the suspension or intention to suspend.

Upon repeated violation, the secretary or authorized municipal corporation may revoke such permit following reasonable notice to the permit holder and an opportunity for a hearing. This section is not intended to preclude the institution of court action as provided in sections 192.11 and 192.16.

The provisions of this section are intended for the regulation of the production, processing, labeling, and distribution of grade "A" milk and grade "A" milk products under sanitary requirements which are uniform throughout the state.

192.8 Definitions.

For the purpose of this title, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Pasteurization", "pasteurized", and similar terms mean the process of heating every particle of milk or milk product to at least 145°F., and holding it continuously at or above this temperature for at least thirty minutes, or to at least 161°F., and holding it continuously at or above this temperature for at least fifteen seconds, in equipment which is properly operated and approved by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation; except, that milk products which have a higher milk fat content than milk or contain added sweeteners or both shall be heated to at least 150°F., and held continuously at or above that temperature for at least thirty minutes, or to at least 166°F., and held continuously at or above that temperature for at least fifteen seconds. Nothing in this definition shall be construed as barring any other pasteurization process which has been recognized by the United States public health service to be equally efficient and which is approved by the department of agriculture.

Referred to in §192 21(16)

2. "Sanitation" is the application of any effective method or substance to a clean surface for the destruction of pathogens, and of other organisms as far as is practicable. Such treatment shall not adversely affect the equipment, the milk or milk product or the health of consumers, and shall be acceptable to the secretary or authorized municipal corporation.

3. A "milk producer" is any person who operates a dairy farm and provides, sells, or offers milk for sale to a milk plant, receiving station, or transfer station.

4. A "milk hauler" is any person who transports raw milk or raw milk products or both to or from a milk plant or a receiving or transfer station.

5 A "milk distributor" is any person who offers for sale or sells to another any milk or milk products

6 A "dairy farm" is any place or location where one or more cows or goats are kept, and from which a part or all of any milk or milk product is provided, sold, or offered for sale to a milk plant, transfer station, or receiving station

7 A "milk plant" or "receiving station" is any place, location, or establishment where milk or milk products are collected, handled, processed, stored, pasteurized, bottled, or prepared for distribution

8 A "transfer station" is any place, location, or establishment where milk or milk products are transferred directly from one transport tank to another

9 An "official laboratory" is a biological, chemical, or physical laboratory which is under the direct supervision of the department or authorized municipal corporation

10 An "officially designated laboratory" is a commercial laboratory authorized to do official work by the department or authorized municipal corporation, or a milk industry laboratory officially designated by the department or authorized municipal corporation for the examination of producer samples of grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization

11 "Municipal corporation" means any political subdivision of this state

[S13, §4989 a, C24, §3076, C27, 31, 35, §3076-b1, C39, §3076.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192 7, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 8]

Referred to in §192 10 192 21(16)

192.9 Record.

Every owner, manager or operator of a milk plant, creamery, or ice cream factory, shall equip each vat or pasteurizer used in pasteurizing milk, cream or dairy products with an accurate recording thermometer and an accurate indication thermometer Each temperature chart from such recording thermometer shall be identified with the date, the identification of material pasteurized and be initialed by the person responsible for the pasteurization and be kept on file for six months for the inspection of the department

[C27, 31, 35, §3076-b2, C39, §3076.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192 8, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 9]

192.10 Injunction.

Any owner, manager, or operator of a creamery, or ice cream factory, violating any of the provisions of sections 192 7 to 192 9, inclusive, may be restrained by injunction from operating any such business No injunction shall issue until after the defendant has had at least five days' notice of the application therefor and the time fixed for hearing thereon

192.11 Grade "A" exclusively to be sold.

Only grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products shall be sold to the final consumer, or to restaurants, soda fountains, grocery stores, or similar establishments, except in an emergency, the sale of pasteurized milk and milk products which have not been graded, or the grade of which is unknown, may be authorized by the secretary, in which case, such products shall be labeled "ungraded"

No person shall within the state produce, provide, sell, offer, or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any milk or milk product which is adulterated or misbranded, except, in an emergency, the sale of pasteurized milk and milk products which have not been graded, or the grade of which is unknown, may be authorized by the secretary, in which case such products shall be labeled "ungraded"

Any adulterated or misbranded milk or milk product may be impounded by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation and disposed of in accordance with applicable laws or regulations

Each dairy farm, milk plant, receiving station, and transfer station whose milk or milk products are intended for consumption as grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products shall be inspected by the secretary prior to the issuance of the permit provided for in section 192 5 However, if any municipal corporation makes application to the secretary for authority to conduct such inspections, the secretary, upon finding that such municipal corporation has qualified personnel to perform the same, shall enter into agreements with the municipal corporation providing for such inspection Inspection by either the secretary or approved municipal corporation shall be acceptable for issuance of such permit by the secretary or municipal corporation

When inspections are conducted and permits are issued by a municipal corporation under this chapter, in a manner which the secretary deems consistent with the provisions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191, as evidenced by the annual survey by the state department of health provided for in section 192 31, the secretary shall accept such procedures in lieu of administration of the provisions of said chapters by the state, within the jurisdiction involved In the event the survey required in section 192 31 indicates that a municipal corporation is acting in a manner which is inconsistent with the provisions of said chapters, the secretary may revoke the agreement with the municipal corporation after notice and hearing, in the manner described for permit revocation in section 192 5 and perform such acts as are necessary to regulate grade "A" milk and milk products in such jurisdiction in conformity herewith

Following the issuance of such permit, each dairy farm and transfer station shall be inspected at least once every six months and each milk plant and receiving station shall be inspected at least once every three months Should the violation of any requirement set forth in sections 192 19 through 192 25 be found to exist, a second inspection shall be required after the time deemed necessary to remedy the violation, but not before three days from the previous inspection The reinspection shall be used to determine compliance with the requirements of said sections Any violation of the same requirement of said sections on such reinspection shall call for permit suspension in accordance with section 192 5 or court action or both

One copy of the inspection report shall be handed to the operator, or other responsible person, or be posted in a conspicuous place on an inside wall of the establishment The inspection report shall not be defaced and shall be made available to the secretary upon request An identical copy of the inspection report shall be filed with the records of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3077; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192 10, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 11]

Referred to in §192 5 192 14 192 30

192.12 Access to premises.

Every milk producer, hauler, distributor, or plant operator shall, upon request of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, permit access of official ly designated persons to all parts of the establishment or facilities to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 A distributor or plant operator shall furnish the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, upon request, for official use only, a true statement of the actual quantities of milk and milk products of each grade purchased and sold, and a list of all sources of such milk and milk products, records of inspections, tests, and pasteurization time and temperature records

192.13 Trade secrets protected.

It shall be unlawful for any person who in an official capacity obtains any information under the provisions of this chapter or chapter 191 which is entitled to protection as a trade secret, including information as to quantity, quality, source or disposition of milk or milk products, or results of inspections or tests there of, to use such information to the person's own advantage or to reveal it to any unauthorized person

192.14 Samples to be taken periodically.

During any consecutive six months, at least four samples of raw milk for pasteurization shall be taken from each producer having a permit as defined in section 192 5 and four samples of raw milk for pasteurization shall be taken from each milk plant having such a permit after receipt of the milk by the milk plant and prior to pasteurization In addition, during any consecutive six months, at least four samples of pasteurized milk and at least four samples of each milk product defined in this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 shall be taken from every such milk plant Such samples of milk and milk products shall be taken while in possession of the producer or distributor at any time prior to final delivery Samples of milk and milk products from dairy retail stores, restaurants and food establishments as defined in chapter 170, grocery stores, vending machines, and other places where milk and milk products are sold shall be examined periodically as determined by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation and the results of such examination shall be used to determine compliance with sections 190 5, 191 2, subsections 5 to 9, inclusive, 192 11, 192 23, 192 24 and 192 25 Proprietors of such establishments shall furnish the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, upon their request, with the names of all the distributors from whom milk or milk products are obtained

192.15 Bacterial counts taken

Required bacterial counts and cooling temperature checks shall be performed on grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization In addition, antibiotic tests on each producer's milk or on commingled raw milk shall be conducted at least four times during any consecutive six months When commingled milk is tested, all producers shall be represented in the sample All individual sources of milk shall be tested when test results on the commingled milk are positive Required bacterial counts, coliform determinations, phosphatase, and cooling temperatures checks shall be performed on pasteurized milk and milk products

192.16 Notice of excessive counts.

Whenever two of the last four consecutive bacteria counts, coliform determinations, or cooling temperatures, taken on separate days exceed the limit of the standard for the milk or milk products or both, the secretary or authorized municipal corporation shall send a written notice thereof to the person concerned The notice shall be in effect so long as two of the last four consecutive samples exceed the limit of the standard An additional sample shall be taken within four teen days of the sending of such notice, but not before the lapse of three days from the previous sampling Immediate suspension of permit in accordance with section 192 5 or court action or both shall be instituted whenever the standard is violated by three of the last five bacteria counts, coliform determinations, or cooling temperatures

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 16]

192.17 Positive phosphatase test

Whenever a phosphatase test is positive, the cause shall be determined Where the cause is improper pasteurization, the cause shall be corrected and any milk or milk product involved shall not be offered for sale

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 17]

192 18 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 72, §7

192.19 Table of standards.

All grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization and all grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products shall be produced, processed, and pasteurized to conform with the following chemical, bacteriological, and temperature standards, and the sanitation requirements of this chapter

No process or manipulation other than pasteurization, processing methods integral therewith, and appropriate refrigeration shall be applied to milk and milk products for the purpose of removing or deactivating microorganisms, however in the bulk shipment of raw cream, skim milk, or lowfat milk, the heating of the raw milk to temperatures no greater than 125°F (52°C) for separation purposes is permitted when the resulting bulk shipments of cream, skim milk, and lowfat milk are labeled "heat treated"

Chemical, Bacteriological and Temperature Standards for Grade "A" Milk and Milk Products

Grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization	Temperature	Cooled to 45°F (7°C) or less within two hours after milking if the blend temperature after the first and subsequent milkings does not exceed 50°F (10°C)
	Bacterial limits	Individual producer milk not to exceed 100,000 per milliliter prior to commingling with other producer milk Not exceeding 300,000 per milliliter as commingled milk prior to pasteurization
	Antibiotics	No detectible antibiotic residues
Grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products (except cultured products)	Temperature	Cooled to 45°F or less and maintained thereat, except when on delivery vehicles
	Bacterial limits	Milk and milk products—20,000 per milliliter
	Coliform limit	Not exceeding 10 per milliliter
	Phosphatase	Less than 1 microgram per milliliter, by Scharer Rapid Method (or equivalent by other means)
Grade "A" pasteurized cultured products	Temperature	Cooled to 45° F or less and maintained thereat, except when on delivery vehicles
	Coliform limit	Not exceeding 10 per milliliter
	Phosphatase	Less than 1 microgram per milliliter, by Scharer Rapid Method (or equivalent by other means)
	Bacterial limits	Exempt

Referred to in §192.11

192.20 Sanitation requirements for grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization.

1 Cows which show evidence of the secretion of abnormal milk in one or more quarters based upon bacteriological, chemical, or physical examination, shall be milked last or with separate equipment, and the milk shall be discarded Cows treated with, or cows which have consumed chemical, medicinal or radioactive agents which are capable of being secreted in the milk and which, in the judgment of the health authority, may be deleterious to human health, shall be milked last or with separate equipment, and the milk disposed of as the health authority may direct

2 A milking barn, stable, or parlor shall be provided on all dairy farms in which the milking herd shall be housed during milking time operations The areas used for milking purposes shall a Have floors constructed of concrete or equally impervious material

b Have walls and ceilings which are smooth, painted or finished in an approved manner and are in good repair and ceilings shall be dust tight

c Have separate stalls or pens for horses, calves, and bulls

d Be provided with natural or artificial light, or both, well distributed for day milking or night milking, or both

e Provide sufficient airspace and air circulation to prevent condensation and excessive odors

f Not be overcrowded

g Have dust tight covered boxes or bins or separate storage facilities for ground, chopped, or concentrated feed

The interior of such places shall be kept clean Floors, walls, windows, pipe lines, and equipment shall be free of filth and litter and shall be clean Swine and fowl shall be kept out of the milking barn

3 Cow yards shall be graded and drained and shall have no standing pools of water or accumulations of organic wastes In loafing or cattle housing areas, cow droppings and soiled bedding shall be removed or clean bedding added at sufficiently frequent intervals to prevent the soiling of the cow's udder and flanks Waste feed shall not be allowed to accumulate Manure packs shall be properly drained and shall provide a reasonably firm footing Swine shall be kept out of the cow yard

4 A milk house or room of sufficient size shall be provided in which the cooling, handling, and storing of milk and the washing, sanitizing, and storing of milk containers and utensils shall be conducted

The milk house shall be provided with a smooth floor constructed of concrete or equally impervious material graded to drain and maintained in good repair Liquid waste shall be disposed of in a sanitary manner All floor drains shall be accessible and shall be trapped if connected to a sanitary sewer system

The walls and ceilings shall be constructed of smooth material, shall be in good repair, and shall be well painted or finished in an equally suitable manner

The milk house shall have adequate natural or artificial light or both and be well ventilated

The milk house shall be used for no other purpose than milk house operations. There shall be no direct opening into any barn, stable, or into a room used for domestic purposes, except, a direct opening between the milk house and milking barn, stable, or parlor shall be permitted when one or more tight fitting, self closing solid doors hinged to be single or double acting is provided

Water under pressure shall be piped into the milk house

The milk house shall be equipped with a two compartment wash vat and adequate hot water heating facilities

5 When a transportation tank is used for the cooling and storage of milk on the dairy farm, such tank shall be provided with a suitable shelter for the receipt of milk. Such shelter shall be adjacent to, but not a part of, the milk room and shall comply with the requirements of the milk room with respect to construction, light, drainage, insect and rodent control, and general maintenance

6 The floors, walls, ceilings, windows, tables, shelves, cabinets, wash vats, nonproduct contact surfaces of milk containers, utensils, and equipment, and other milk room equipment shall be clean. Only articles directly related to milk room activities shall be permitted in the milk room. The milk room shall be free of trash, animals, and fowl

7 Every dairy farm shall be provided with one or more toilets, conveniently located and properly constructed, operated, and maintained in a sanitary manner. The waste shall be inaccessible to flies and shall not pollute the soil surface or contaminate any water supply

8 Water for milk house and milking operations shall be from a supply properly located, protected, and operated, and shall be easily accessible, adequate, and of a safe, sanitary quality

9 All multiuse containers, equipment, and utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk shall be made of smooth, nonabsorbent, corrosion resistant, nontoxic materials, and shall be so constructed as to be easily cleaned. All containers, utensils, and equipment shall be in good repair. All milk pails used for hand milking and stripping shall be seamless and of the hooded type. Multiple-use woven material shall not be used for straining milk. All single-service articles shall have been manufactured, packaged, transported, stored, and handled in a sanitary manner and shall comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter. Articles intended for single-service use shall not be reused

10 Farm holding or cooling tanks, welded sanitary piping, and transportation tanks shall comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter

11 The product-contact surfaces of all multiuse containers, equipment, and utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk shall be cleaned after each usage

The product-contact surfaces of all multiuse containers, equipment, and utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk shall be sanitized before each usage

All containers, utensils, and equipment used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk, unless stored in sanitizing solutions, shall be stored to assure complete drainage and shall be protected from contamination prior to use

After sanitization, all containers, utensils, and equipment shall be handled in such manner as to prevent contamination of any product contact surface

12 Milking shall be done in the milking barn, stable, or parlor. The flanks, udders, bellies, and tails of all milking cows shall be free from visible dirt. All brushing shall be completed prior to milking. The udders and teats of all milking cows shall be cleaned and treated with a sanitizing solution just prior to the time of milking and shall be relatively dry before milking. Wet hand milking is prohibited

13 Surcingles, milk stools, and antikickers shall be kept clean and stored above the floor

14 Each pail or container of milk shall be transferred immediately from the milking barn, stable, or parlor to the milk house. No milk shall be strained, poured, transferred, or stored unless it is properly protected from contamination

15 There shall be provided adequate handwashing facilities, including running water, soap or detergent, and individual sanitary towels, in the milk house and in the milking barn, stable, or parlor, or convenient thereto

16 Hands shall be washed clean and dried with an individual sanitary towel immediately before milking, before performing any milk house function, and immediately after the interruption of any of these activities. Milkers and milk haulers shall wear clean outer garments while milking or handling milk, milk containers, utensils, or equipment

17 Raw milk for pasteurization shall be cooled to 45°F (7°C) or less within two hours after milking if the blend temperature after the first and subsequent milkings does not exceed 50°F (10°C)

18 Vehicles used to transport milk in cans from the dairy farms to the milk plant or receiving station shall be constructed and operated to protect their contents from sun, freezing, and contamination. Such vehicles shall be kept clean inside and out, and no substance capable of contaminating milk shall be transported with milk

19 Effective measures shall be taken to prevent the contamination of milk, containers, equipment, and utensils by insects and rodents and by chemicals used to control such vermin. Milk rooms shall be free of insects and rodents. Surroundings shall be kept neat, clean, and free of conditions which might harbor or be conducive to the breeding of insects and rodents

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3077; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.10(1), C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.20, 81 Acts, ch 72, §3]

Referred to in §192.11

192.21 Sanitation requirements for grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products.

A receiving station shall comply with subsections 1 through 15, 17, 20 and 22 of this section, except, that the partitioning requirement of subsection 5 of this section shall not apply

A transfer station shall comply with subsections 1, 4, 6 through 12, 14, 15, 20, and 22 of this section, and the applicable provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section as climatic and operating conditions require; except, in every case, overhead protection shall be provided.

Facilities for the cleaning and sanitizing of bulk transport tanks shall comply with subsections 1, 4, 6 through 12, 14, 15, 20, and 22 of this section, and the applicable provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section as climatic and operating conditions require; except, in every case, overhead protection shall be provided.

1. The floors of all rooms in which milk or milk products are processed, handled, or stored, or in which milk containers, equipment and utensils are washed, shall be constructed of concrete or other equally impervious and easily cleaned material and shall be smooth, properly sloped, provided with trapped drains kept in good repair; except, that cold-storage rooms used for storing milk and milk products need not be provided with floor drains when the floors are sloped to drain to one or more exits and storage rooms for storing dry ingredients or packaging materials or both need not be provided with drains and the floors may be constructed of tightly joined wood.

2. Walls and ceilings of rooms in which milk or milk products are handled, processed, or stored, or in which milk containers, utensils, and equipment are washed, shall have a smooth, washable, light-colored surface in good repair.

3. Effective means shall be provided to prevent the access of flies and rodents. All openings to the outside shall have solid doors or glazed windows which shall be closed during dusty weather.

4. All rooms in which milk and milk products are handled, processed, or stored or in which milk containers, equipment, and utensils are washed or both shall be well lighted and well ventilated.

5. There shall be separate rooms for:

a. Pasteurizing, processing, cooling, and packaging.

b. Cleaning of milk cans and bottles.

In addition, plants receiving milk in bulk transport tanks shall provide for cleaning and sanitizing facilities.

Unless all milk and milk products are received in bulk transport tanks, a receiving room, separate from rooms "a" and "b" of this subsection, shall be required. Rooms in which milk or milk products are handled, processed, or stored, or in which milk containers, utensils, and equipment are washed or stored, shall not open directly into any stable or any room used for domestic purposes.

6. Every milk plant shall be provided with toilet facilities conforming with the statutes of the state of Iowa. Toilet rooms shall not open directly into any room in which milk or milk products or both are processed. Toilet rooms shall be completely enclosed and shall have tight-fitting, self-closing doors. Dressing rooms, toilet rooms, and fixtures shall be kept in a clean condition and good repair and shall be well-ventilated and well-lighted. Sewage and other liquid wastes shall be disposed of in a sanitary manner.

7. Water for milk plant purposes shall be from a supply properly located, protected, and operated and shall be easily accessible, adequate, and of a safe, sanitary quality.

8. Convenient hand-washing facilities shall be provided, including hot and cold or warm running water or both, soap, and individual sanitary towels or other approved hand-drying devices. Hand-washing facilities shall be kept in a clean condition and in good repair.

9. All rooms in which milk and milk products are handled, processed, or stored, or in which containers, utensils, or equipment are washed or stored, or both, shall be kept clean, neat, and free of evidence of insects and rodents. Pesticides shall be safely used. Only equipment directly related to processing operations or to the handling of containers, utensils, and equipment shall be permitted in the pasteurizing, processing, cooling, packaging, and bulk milk storage rooms.

10. All sanitary piping, fittings, and connections exposed to milk and milk products or from which liquids may drip, drain, or be drawn into milk or milk products shall consist of smooth, impervious, corrosion-resistant, nontoxic, easily cleanable material. All piping shall be in good repair. Pasteurized milk and milk products shall be conducted from one piece of equipment to another only through sanitary piping.

11. All multiuse containers and equipment with which milk or milk products come into contact shall be of smooth, impervious, corrosion-resistant, nontoxic material, shall be constructed for ease of cleaning, and shall be kept in good repair. All single-service containers, closures, gaskets, and other articles with which milk or milk products come in contact shall be nontoxic, and shall have been manufactured, packaged, transported, and handled in a sanitary manner. Articles intended for single-service use shall not be reused.

12. The product-contact surfaces of all multiuse containers, utensils, and equipment used in the transportation, processing, handling, and storage of milk and milk products shall be effectively cleaned and shall be sanitized before each use.

13. After cleaning, all multiuse milk or milk product containers, utensils, and equipment shall be transported and stored to assure complete drainage, and shall be protected from contamination before use.

14. Single-service caps, cap stock, parchment paper, containers, gaskets, and other single-service articles for use in contact with milk and milk products shall be purchased and stored in sanitary tubes, wrappings, or cartons, shall be kept therein in a clean, dry place until used, and shall be handled in a sanitary manner.

15. Milk plant operations, equipment, and facilities shall be located and conducted to prevent any contamination of milk or milk products, ingredients, equipment, containers, and utensils. All milk or milk products or ingredients which have been spilled, overflowed, or leaked shall be discarded. The processing or handling of products other than milk and milk products in the pasteurization plant shall be performed to preclude the contamination of such milk and milk products.

16. Pasteurization shall be performed as defined in section 192.8, subsection 1.

17. All raw milk and milk products shall be maintained at 45°F. (7°C.) or less until processed. All pasteurized milk and milk products, except those to be cultured, shall be cooled immediately prior to filling or packaging in approved equipment to a temperature of 45°F. (7°C.) or less. All pasteurized milk and milk products shall be stored at a temperature of 45°F. (7°C.) or less. On delivery vehicles, the temperature of milk and milk products shall not exceed 50°F. (10°C.). Every room or tank in which milk or milk products are stored shall be equipped with an accurate thermometer.

18. Bottling and packaging of milk and milk products shall be done at the place of pasteurization in approved mechanical equipment.

19. Capping or closing of milk and milk product containers shall be done in a sanitary manner by approved mechanical capping or closing equipment, or both. The cap or closure shall protect the pouring lip to at least its largest diameter.

20. Hands shall be thoroughly washed before commencing plant functions and as often as may be required to remove soil and contamination. No employee shall resume work after visiting the toilet room without thoroughly washing the employee's hands. All persons engaged in the processing, pasteurization, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, equipment, and utensils shall wear clean outer garments. The use of tobacco by any person while engaged in the processing of milk or milk products is prohibited.

21. All vehicles used for transportation of pasteurized milk and milk products shall be constructed and operated so that the milk and milk products are protected from sun, from freezing, and from contamination.

22. Milk plant surroundings shall be kept neat, clean, and free from conditions which might attract or harbor flies, other insects, or rodents, or which otherwise constitute a nuisance.

192.22 Milk for pasteurization from accredited area.

All milk for pasteurization shall be from herds which are located in a modified accredited tuberculosis area as determined by the United States department of agriculture; except, that herds located in an area that fails to maintain such accredited status shall have been accredited by the department as tuberculosis free or shall have passed an annual tuberculosis test.

All milk for pasteurization shall be from herds under a brucellosis eradication program which meets one of the following conditions:

a. Is located in a certified brucellosis-free area as defined by the United States department of agriculture and enrolled in the testing program for such areas.

b. Is located in a modified certified brucellosis area as defined by the United States department of agriculture and enrolled in the testing program for such areas.

c. Meets United States department of agriculture requirements for an individually certified herd.

d. Is participating in a milk ring testing program which is conducted on a continuing basis at intervals of not less than every three months or more than every six months with individual blood tests on all animals in herds showing suspicious reactions to the milk ring test.

e. Is having an individual blood agglutination test annually with an allowable maximum grace period not exceeding two months.

For diseases other than brucellosis and tuberculosis, the secretary shall require such physical, chemical, or bacteriological tests as the secretary deems necessary. The diagnosis of other diseases in dairy cattle shall be based upon the findings of a licensed veterinarian or a veterinarian in the employ of an official agency. Any diseased animal disclosed by such test shall be disposed of as the secretary directs.

Referred to in §192 11

192.23 Transferring milk.

Except as permitted in this chapter, no milk producer or distributor shall transfer milk or milk products from one container or tank truck to another on the street, in any vehicle, store, or in any place except a milk plant, receiving station, transfer station, or milk house especially used for that purpose. The dipping or lading of milk or fluid milk products is prohibited.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.23]

192.24 Milk served in container.

It shall be unlawful to sell or serve any milk or fluid milk product except in the individual, original container received from the distributor or from an approved bulk dispenser; except, this prohibition shall not apply to milk for mixed drinks requiring less than one-half pint of milk, or to cream, whipped cream, or half-and-half which is consumed on the premises and which may be served from the original container of not more than one-half gallon capacity, or from a bulk dispenser approved for such service by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation.

Referred to in §192 11, 192 14, 548 13(5)

192.25 Temperature to be maintained.

It shall be unlawful to sell or serve any pasteurized milk or milk product which has not been maintained at a temperature of 45°F. or less except as authorized in section 192.21, subsection 17. If containers of pasteurized milk or milk products are stored in ice, the storage container shall be properly drained.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.25]

192.26 Foreign milk sold in Iowa.

Milk and milk products from points beyond the limits of the state of Iowa may be sold in Iowa provided they are produced and pasteurized under regulations which are substantially equivalent to this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 and have been awarded an acceptable milk sanitation compliance and enforcement rating made by a state milk sanitation rating officer certified by the United States public health service.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.26]

192.27 Building plans submitted to secretary.

Properly prepared plans for all milk houses, milking barns, stables, parlors, transfer stations, receiving stations, and milk plants regulated under this chapter which are hereafter constructed, reconstructed, or extensively altered, shall be submitted to the secretary or authorized municipal corporation for written approval before work is begun.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.27]

192.28 Diseased persons excluded.

No person affected with any disease in a communicable form or while a carrier of such disease shall work at any dairy farm or milk plant in any capacity which brings the person into contact with the production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, equipment, and utensils. No dairy farm or milk plant operator shall employ in any such capacity any such person, or any person suspected of having any disease in a communicable form, or of being a carrier of such disease. Any producer or distributor of milk or milk products, upon whose dairy farm, or in whose milk plant any communicable disease occurs, or who suspects that any employee has contracted any disease in a communicable form, or has become a carrier of such disease shall immediately notify the secretary or authorized municipal corporation.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.28]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.29 Infection from milk handler.

When reasonable cause exists to suspect the possibility of transmission of infection from any person concerned with the handling of milk or milk products, or both, the secretary or authorized municipal corporation may require any and all of the following measures:

1. The immediate exclusion of that person from milk handling.
2. The immediate exclusion of the milk supply concerned from distribution and use.
3. Adequate medical and bacteriological examination of the person, of the person's associates, and of their body discharges.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.29]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.30 Law to be enforced by secretary of agriculture or municipalities.

This chapter and chapters 190 and 191 shall be enforced by the secretary or municipal corporations, which have entered into agreements with the secretary under section 192.11, both of whom shall make regulations which shall conform to the Grade "A" Pasteurized Milk Ordinance with Administrative Procedures - 1978 Recommendations of the United States Public Health Service, a certified copy of which shall be on file at the secretary's office or the office of the clerk of an authorized municipal corporation. Where the mandatory compliance with provisions of the appendixes therein is specified, the provisions shall be deemed a requirement of the chapters.

Municipal corporations may establish grade "A" standards for cottage cheese dry curd, cottage cheese, and low fat cottage cheese as a part of the ordinance required by this section; however no municipal corporation shall require a grade "A" rating for these products as a condition precedent to their sale within the city.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.30; 81 Acts, ch 72, §5]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.31 Certification of grade "A" label.

The state department of health shall annually survey and certify all milk labeled grade "A" pasteurized and grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization, and, in the event a survey shows the requirements for production, processing, and distribution for such grade are not being complied with, the fact thereof shall be certified by the state department of health to the secretary of agriculture who shall proceed with the provisions of section 192.5 for suspending the permit of the violator or who, if the secretary did not issue such permit, shall withdraw the grade "A" declared on the label.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.31]
 Referred to in §192 11, 548 13(5)

192.32 Injunction for violations.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 may be enjoined from continuing such violations. Each day upon which such a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.32]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.33 Rating required to retain permit.

A pasteurized milk and milk products sanitation compliance rating of ninety percent or more calculated according to the rating system as contained in Public Health Service Publication, "Method of Making Sanitation Ratings of Milk Supplies, 1978 Edition", shall be necessary to receive or retain a permit under section 192.5. Said publication is hereby incorporated into this section by this reference and made a part hereof insofar as applicable, a copy of which shall be on file in the office of the secretary or the office of the clerk of an authorized municipal corporation at all times.

 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.34 Sanitary regulations.

Every person who deals in or manufactures dairy products or imitations thereof shall maintain the person's premises, utensils, wagons, and equipment in a clean and hygienic condition.

[C97, §2522; S13, §2522; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.11; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.34]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.35 Bacteriologists.

The state department of agriculture may employ dairy specialists or bacteriologists who shall devote their full time to the improvement of sanitation in the production, processing and marketing of dairy products. Said dairy specialists and bacteriologists shall have qualifications as to education and experience and such other requirements as the secretary may require.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.12; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.35]
 Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.36 Duties.

Said dairy specialists and bacteriologists employed by the department shall co-operate with the dairy and food inspectors of the department and with the health departments of cities for sanitary control of the production, processing, and marketing of dairy products. The department shall provide adequate laboratory facilities for the efficient performance of their duties.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.13; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.36]

192.37 Testing milk or cream.

Every person testing cream or milk to determine the percent of milk fat as a basis for fixing the purchase price shall secure a milk tester's license from the department and shall make tests only by such process as has been approved by said department. Each composite sample taken shall cover a period of not more than sixteen days and all such composite samples shall cover the same period of time.

[SS15, §2515-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.14; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.37]

Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.38 Examination.

Each applicant for such a license shall be required to submit to examination and by actual demonstration show that the applicant is competent to test cream and milk according to an approved process.

[SS15, §2515-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.15; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.38]

192.39 Supplying standard measures.

The department shall furnish each licensee one standard test bottle and one standard pipette adapted to the use of the testing machine approved for the licensee. Said bottle and pipette shall be certified to by the department as standard and shall bear the official stamp of the department. Any person not a licensee may secure test bottles and pipettes from the department at the legal price.

[C97, §2515; SS15, §2515; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3081; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.16; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.39]

Referred to in §548 13(5)

192.40 Fees.

The fee for each license shall be three dollars, and standard test bottles and pipettes shall be furnished at actual cost.

[C97, §2515; SS15, §2515-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3082; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §192.17; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192.40]

192.41 Bottles and pipettes.

The standard bottle and pipette received from the department shall be used by the licensee in verifying test tubes and pipettes used by the licensee in making tests; and the same shall be subject to inspection by the owner or vendor of the cream or milk which is the subject of the tests.

192.42 Substitute tester.

With the approval of the department any licensee may for valid reasons appoint a person to act for the licensee, not to exceed a period of fourteen days.

192.43 False tests.

No person shall falsely manipulate or misread the Babcock test or any other milk or cream testing apparatus. The writing of a check or payment of money for cream or milk at any given test shall constitute prima-facie evidence that such test was made.

192.44 Tests by unlicensed person.

The testing of each lot of milk or cream by an unlicensed person shall constitute a separate offense.

192.45 Actions for purchase price — proof.

In an action by the vendor for the purchase price of cream or milk, sold on test to be made by the vendee, the burden of establishing the proper use of an approved test shall be upon the vendee.

192.46 Milk plant fees.

A municipal corporation shall not charge a milk plant or receiving station any fee for inspection of a milk plant or receiving station for milk or milk products unless the municipal corporation has entered into agreement with the secretary of agriculture to conduct inspections pursuant to this chapter.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a municipal corporation having an agreement with the secretary of agriculture to continue agreements with other municipal corporations for inspection of their milk plants, receiving stations, and for milk and milk products, and allowing municipal corporations to charge a fee for that inspection provided the service is rendered.

192.47 to 192.53 Repealed by 65GA, ch 171, §3.192.54 Imitation butter.

Imitation butter shall be sold only under the name of oleomargarine, and no person shall use in any way, in connection or association with the sale or exposure for sale or advertisement of any such product, the word "butter", "creamery", or "dairy", or the name or representation of any breed of dairy cattle, or any combination of such word or words and representation, or any other words or symbols or combination thereof commonly used in the sale of butter.

192.55 Butter score required.

All butter carrying "AA", "AB" and "C" grades shall score in conformity with U. S. D. A. standards.

192.56 Container.

The term "container" used in the following sections of this chapter shall mean cans, bottles, paper cartons or other nonrigid containers, casks, kegs, barrels, and other receptacles of like nature

192.57 Milk bottles to be marked.

Bottles or jars used for the sale of milk shall have clearly blown or permanently marked in the side of the bottle, the capacity of the bottle, and on the bottom of the bottle the name, initials, or certification mark of the manufacturer. The designating number shall be furnished by the department on request

192.58 Adoption of brand.

With the approval of the department any person who deals in or transports milk, cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, or ice cream may adopt a distinctive mark or brand to be placed upon any container owned or used by the person, and the same may be registered with the department

192.59 Retention of marked container.

No person shall, without the consent of the owner, retain for a longer period than three days a container bearing a registered mark, and any person receiving such a container shall immediately return it to the owner by a common carrier. A receipt from a common carrier shall be prima-facie evidence that such container was returned

192.60 Return of bottles.

Milk and cream bottles bearing registered marks shall be returned by delivering them to the owner or the owner's agent in person or by leaving them where they may be picked up by the owner

192.61 Stray containers.

When any person comes into possession of a container bearing a registered mark which belongs to another whose name and address the person does not know, the person shall immediately notify the department in writing, giving the size, shape, and mark of the container. Upon receipt of shipping directions from the department the person shall at once forward the container by a common carrier, collect, to the address furnished. Milk or cream bottles need not be returned when the cost of return is greater than the market value of the bottles

192.62 Registered mark.

No person shall for any purpose use any registered mark or any container bearing such mark, or remove or alter any such mark placed upon a container without the consent of the owner

192.63 Certified laboratories.

To insure uniformity in the tests and reporting, an employee certified by the United States public health service of the bacteriological laboratory of the department shall annually certify all laboratories doing work in the sanitary quality of milk and dairy products for public report. Such approval by the department shall be based on the evaluation of these laboratories as to personnel training, laboratory methods used, and reporting. The results on tests made by approved laboratories shall be reported to the department on request, on forms prescribed by the secretary of agriculture, and such reports may be used by the department

The department shall annually certify every laboratory in the state doing work in the sanitary quality of milk and dairy products for public report. The certifying officer may enter any such place at any reasonable hour to make such survey. The management of the laboratory shall afford free access to every part of the premises and render all aid and assistance necessary to enable the certifying officer to make a thorough and complete examination

192.64 Coloring rejected milk.

It shall be the duty of the milk or cream grader to thoroughly mix with all rejected milk or cream, a harmless coloring matter as will prevent all such rejected milk from being offered for sale

192.65 Transportation.

Every vehicle used to transport milk from producers to any dairy plant shall be in a sanitary condition. Every vehicle so used shall be enclosed to protect the milk from extreme heat or cold and from dust or other contamination, provided, however, that this provision shall not be applied to producers delivering their own milk when such milk is otherwise protected from extreme heat or cold and from dust or other contamination

192.66 Bulk tanks on farms for milk.

Any producer using a bulk tank for cooling and storage of milk to be used for manufacturing purposes shall have an enclosed milk room which shall conform to the standards provided by this section. The floor shall be constructed of concrete or other impervious material, maintained in good repair, and graded to provide proper drainage. The walls and ceilings of the room shall be sealed and constructed of smooth easily cleaned material. All windows shall be screened and doors shall be self closing. It shall be well ventilated and must meet the following requirements

1 The bulk tank shall not be located over a drain or under a ventilator

2 The hose port shall be located in an exterior wall and fitted with a tight self-closing door

3 A two hundred twenty volt lock type electrical connection with ground and weatherproof type receptacle and switchbox shall be provided near the hose port

4 Each milk room shall have an adequate supply of water readily accessible with facilities for heating the water, to insure the cleaning and sanitizing of the bulk tank, utensils and equipment and the keeping of the milk room clean

5 No lights shall be placed directly over the bulk tank

6 The bulk tank shall be properly located in the milk room for easy access to all areas for cleaning and servicing

7 The enforcement of this section shall be administered by the Iowa department of agriculture

8 Any person violating any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor [C66, §192 43, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192 66]

192A.1 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter

1 "Dairy product" means milk, skim milk, cream, sour cream, ice cream, ice cream mix, ice milk except that sold in semifrozen form, ice milk mix, cottage cheese, frozen desserts, reconstituted milk, minimal milk fat products, and any additive variant of any dairy product

2 "Department" means state department of agriculture

3 "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture of the state of Iowa

4 "Person" means any individual, corporation, cooperative, association, partnership, or other business unit

5 "Processor" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing, processing, or packaging dairy products

6 "Distributor" means any person engaged in the business of selling any dairy product at wholesale and any person engaged in the business of selling any dairy product at retail on home delivery routes

7 "Retailer" means any person within this state engaged in the business of operating any retail establishment or institution, including but not limited to hotels, restaurants, grocery stores, drug stores, and automatic vending machines where dairy products are consumed or sold to customers This subsection shall not apply to schools, churches or other charitable institutions not operated for profit

8 "Broker" means any person engaged in negotiating sales or purchases of selected dairy products for or on behalf of a processor, distributor, or retailer

9 "Sale" or "sell" means and includes any commercial transfer for consideration, exchange, barter, gift, or offer for sale and distribution in any manner or by any means

10 Any subsidiary or affiliate corporation, cooperative, officer, director, or partner of a corporation, cooperative, or partnership which is a processor or distributor of dairy products is deemed to be a processor or distributor of dairy products

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192A 1]

192A.2 Division of dairy trade practices.

The secretary of agriculture is hereby entrusted with the administration and enforcement of this chapter There is hereby created in the department of agriculture a division to be known as the "Division of Dairy Trade Practices" The head of the division shall be the "Chief of the Division of Dairy Trade Prac tices" All powers of the secretary under this chapter may be exercised by and through the chief of the division of dairy trade practices. The secretary shall employ such professional and other personnel as, in the secretary's judgment, shall be necessary to the proper performance of the secretary's duties hereunder

192A.3 Unlawful discrimination.

It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in business within the state of Iowa, either directly or indirectly, to discriminate in price between different purchasers of dairy products of like grade and quality where the effect of such discrimination may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either the grantor or receiver. Nothing herein shall prevent

1 Differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which dairy products are sold or delivered to purchasers or differentials otherwise permitted in this chapter

2 Persons engaged in selling dairy products from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions are not in restraint of trade

3 Price changes from time to time in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of dairy products such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in dairy products

4 Price differentials made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter

192A.4 Unlawful price differentials.

It shall be unlawful for any person to discriminate in price by selling or offering to sell any dairy product to any purchaser in the state of Iowa at prices lower than those exacted by such persons elsewhere in the state for the purpose or with the effect of injuring competition or tending to create a monopoly, provided however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent price differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of sale or transportation resulting from differing methods or quantities in which such dairy products are sold or transported to such purchasers, and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent sales made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter

192A.5 Minimum price agreements unlawful.

It shall be unlawful for any processor, distributor, or retailer to engage in the following practice

To enter into any agreement or contract with any other person for the establishment or maintenance of minimum prices of dairy products in restraint of trade and for the purpose of eliminating free and open competition in the sale of dairy products

192A.6 Discounts or rebates

No processor or distributor shall give or extend discounts or rebates, directly or indirectly, to retailers or other processors or distributors on dairy products or give or extend to such purchasers any services connected with the delivery, handling or stocking of such products except as provided in this chapter. A processor or distributor may provide services to a particular processor, distributor, or retailer or may sell dairy products at a price necessary to meet a bona fide offer by a competitor. The service or discount shall not be given until the processor or distributor first files with the department a written record of the date and terms of the competitive offer, the name of the processor, distributor, or retailer to whom the offer was made, and the name of the competitor who made the offer. Any such record filed with the department shall be used only for determining or verifying proof of violations of this chapter

192A.7 Price list to be filed.

All distributors offering dairy products for sale within the state shall file with the department on a form provided by said department a complete price list showing the invoice price of such distributor of all items of dairy products sold or offered for sale by them. Distributors who offer dairy products for sale both at their respective places of business and deliver to retailer or retail outlets, shall include on such price lists filed with the department the different prices established for dairy products offered for sale at their respective places of business and for dairy products delivered to the retailer or retail outlet. Distributors who offer dairy products for sale to consumers on home delivery routes shall include on such price lists filed with the department, the different prices established for dairy products offered for sale to such consumers. Within thirty days after July 4, 1965, every distributor shall file with the department its initial price schedules and schedules of discounts and rebates and thereafter, every distributor shall charge its prices in accordance with its schedule on file with the department until such price schedule is changed as hereinafter provided. Before any distributor may make any change in its price schedule and prices charged, it shall give notice by certified mail to the department setting forth its new schedule of prices or new schedule of discounts and rebates prior to the effective date of any change in such schedule on file with the department (except that where prices are changed in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, notice to the department of the new schedule of prices shall be given within two business days after such change). The initial filing of schedules or any new schedules shall be filed with the department either in person or by certified mail. Price lists filed with the department shall be used only for determining and proving violations of this chapter. Failure or refusal to file current price lists with the department shall be a violation of this chapter

192A.8 Gift of signs to retailer prohibited.

No processor or distributor shall furnish, give, lend, sell, or rent any advertising signs of a permanent nature except signs advertising the processor's or distributor's own products. Not more than one-third of the space or cost of advertising signs permitted under this section may be used to identify the retailer.

192A.9 Payments for rent prohibited.

No processor or distributor shall make payments of money, credit, gifts, or loans to retailers as rental for the storage or display of dairy products on the premises where offered for sale by the retailer.

192A.10 Loans to retailers prohibited — exception.

No processor or distributor shall make or underwrite loans to a retailer or become bound in any manner for the financial obligation of any retailer except that a processor or distributor may lend money to a retailer for the purchase of equipment for the storage, transportation, and display of dairy products. Such loans may be made to the retailer provided the loan is for not more than ninety percent of the purchase price with at least six percent annual interest on the principal amount and on the unconditional written promise of the retailer that the loan shall be paid within a period not to exceed thirty-six months.

192A.11 Equipment restrictions.

No processor or distributor shall furnish, sell, give, lend, or rent any equipment to a retailer except:

1. Processors and distributors, under a bill of sale or conditional sales contract describing the property sold and specifying the price and terms of sale, may sell equipment for the storage, transportation, and display of dairy products to the retailer. The selling price of such equipment shall be not less than the cost to the wholesaler less ten percent per year depreciation plus transportation and installation costs plus at least six percent, but in no event shall the price be less than ten dollars per unit. If the processor or distributor makes the sale under a security agreement or conditional sales contract, the terms of sale shall be no more favorable to the retailer than those provided in this section.

2. Processors and distributors may provide without restriction coin-vending machines from which the product vended is intended by such processor or distributor to be consumed on the premises.

3. Processors and distributors may furnish equipment for the storage, transportation, or display of dairy products for one period of not longer than ten consecutive days a year to any one retailer for use at a fair, exhibition, exposition, or other promotional event for agricultural, industrial, charitable, educational, religious or recreational purposes.

192A.12 Repair of other equipment limited.

No processor or distributor shall maintain or make repairs of any equipment owned by a retailer except equipment used exclusively for dairy products. On such maintenance or repairs, the processor or distributor shall make charges for the service and parts at the same prices as are charged by third persons rendering such service in the community where the retailer is located. In no event shall the charges be less than the cost to the processor or distributor plus a reasonable margin of profit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192A.12]

192A.13 Gifts to retailers prohibited.

No processor or distributor shall give, offer to give, furnish, finance, or otherwise make available any free goods to any person, directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale of dairy products or to any other person doing business with such person, or give, offer to give, furnish, finance, or otherwise make available any payments, gifts, or grants of anything of value to any retailer. Nothing in this section shall prevent transactions with retailers of any of the following:

1. The furnishing of point of sale advertising material made of paper, cardboard, or other material not of a permanent nature for the use in the promotion of the products of such processor or distributor which remain inside retailer locations.

2. The furnishing of hostesses or demonstrators at any retailer's location to promote the products of the processor or distributor.

3. The advertising by a processor or distributor of products through any advertising media the processor or distributor selects which does not involve allowances, payments, or the furnishing of other property to persons purchasing such products in a manner prohibited by this section.

4. Advertising allowances which do no more than reimburse a retailer for costs in advertising dairy products of the processor or distributor.

192A.14 Processors or distributors may have own outlets.

No processor or distributor shall be prohibited from operating a retail outlet for retail sales or prohibited from using in the retail outlet any equipment or advertising or miscellaneous matter owned by the processor or distributor provided the retail outlet is under direct control and management of the processor or distributor.

192A.15 Gifts of products on premises.

No processor or distributor shall be prohibited from giving away dairy products to be consumed on the sale premises.

192A.16 Unlawful for retailer to receive proscribed items.

It shall be unlawful for any retailer to receive, directly or indirectly, from or through a processor, distributor, or broker, any discount, rebate, allowance, service, price discrimination, advertising material, loan, equipment, payment, or any other thing of value all as prohibited by this chapter.

192A.17 Brokers acts limited.

It shall be unlawful for a broker or any officer or agent of any brokerage firm to participate, directly or indirectly, in any practice prohibited by this chapter. It shall be unlawful for any processor, distributor, or retailer to engage or offer to engage, directly or indirectly, through a broker in any practice prohibited by this chapter.

192A.18 Grievances reported to department.

Any person claiming to be injured by another person through the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter may file in writing a statement of such violation with the department. Upon receipt of the written statement, the department shall immediately cause an investigation to be made of the alleged violation. Whenever it shall appear that any person is violating or threatening to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or the regulations or orders of the secretary, then the department may call upon the county attorney of any county in which such violation occurred to bring suit against such person in the district court to restrain such person from continuing or from carrying out the acts or practices alleged. In such suit the county attorney may obtain such injunction prohibitory and mandatory including temporary restraining orders and temporary injunctions as the facts may warrant without being required to prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist and without being required to give bond.

192A.19 Reports and answers to department.

Whenever the department has reason to believe that any distributor or retailer or processor may be in possession of information relevant to an investigation by it of suspected violations of the provisions of this chapter, the secretary may require such person to file with the secretary in such form as the secretary may prescribe special reports or answers in writing to specific questions furnishing such information. Such reports and answers shall be made under oath or otherwise as the secretary may prescribe and shall be filed with the secretary within such reasonable period as the secretary may prescribe. Any person who fails without lawful cause to file such reports or answers in writing within the period prescribed or shall willfully make or cause to be made any false statements in any such report or answer in writing shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

192A.20 Order to appear — judicial review.

Whenever the secretary has reason to believe that any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations adopted thereunder, the secretary may enter an order requiring such person to appear before the secretary and show cause why an order should not be entered requiring such person to cease and desist from the violations charged. Such order shall set forth the alleged violations, fix the time and place of the hearing, and provide for notice thereof which shall be given not less than twenty days before the date of such hearing. After hearing by the secretary, or if the person charged with such violation fails to appear at the time of said hearing, if the secretary finds such person to be in violation the secretary shall enter an order requiring such person to cease and desist from the specific acts, practices, or omissions so found to be in violation and from related acts, practices or omissions.

Any order entered by the secretary or other action of the secretary may be judicially reviewed in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

Any person violating any order of the secretary under the first paragraph of this section after the period for seeking judicial review thereof has elapsed without the filing of a petition for such review, or on the termination of any review proceedings shall be subject to a civil penalty to be levied by the district court in a proceeding instituted for that purpose in an amount of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars provided that in the case of continuing violations the minimum amount of such penalty shall be either five hundred dollars or twenty-five dollars for each day of violation, whichever is the larger.

192A.21 Oaths and subpoenas.

The department is authorized and empowered to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas for persons and pertinent operating records in making investigations provided in section 192A.19. If a person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued under this chapter, the department may apply to the district court to issue an order requiring the person to appear before the department to produce evidence or to give testimony concerning the matter under investigation. The application for the order shall be filed with the district court within the county in which the investigation is conducted or in which the person guilty of failure or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business or has the person's principal place of business. Any person willfully failing to obey an order of the court is guilty of contempt of court and shall be proceeded against as provided by law.

192A.22 Intervention — punitive damages.

Any person who is injured in business or property by reason of another person's violation of any provisions of this chapter may intervene in the suit for injunction instituted against the other person. The injured party may bring a separate action and recover three times the actual damages sustained as a result of the violation together with the costs of the suit or may sue to enjoin the violation of any provision of this chapter.

192A.24 Investigation and hearing.

Any person whose license is sought to be denied, suspended, or revoked shall have full rights to counsel and to produce witnesses in the person's behalf at the hearing. After full investigation and hearing, the department may deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any person who is found to have willfully violated any provision of this chapter. When the department finds that a violation warrants the suspension of the license, no license shall be suspended for a period to exceed thirty days upon proof of a first violation or for a period to exceed six months upon proof of a second violation. Upon proof of a third and subsequent violations, the license shall be suspended for a period of one year where the department finds that such violation warrants a suspension.

192A.25 Procedure — judicial review.

The department shall by certified mail or by personal service notify the person whose license has been denied, suspended, or revoked setting forth the reasons for the decision. The denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notification. Judicial review may be sought of any such action in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

192A.27 Limitation of action.

Any action arising under this chapter, whether in law or equity, shall be commenced within two years after the right of action first accrues or is forever barred.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §192A 27]

192A.28 Rules.

The department is authorized and directed to promulgate rules to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

192A.29 Storage cabinets formerly installed.

Storage cabinets prohibited under section 192A 12 supplied by processors and distributors to retailers prior to July 4, 1965, shall be removed from the retailer's premises or sold as provided in this chapter prior to June 30, 1966.

192A.30 Permit fees.

For the purpose of administering and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, each processor shall pay to the secretary permit fees in an amount, as from time to time set by the secretary, not to exceed five mills per hundredweight on milk processed into dairy products as defined in section 192A 1, and sold within the state of Iowa, except ice cream and its additive variants and nonmilk fat imitations which amount shall not be in excess of three mills per gallon thereof. Products upon which fees have been paid shall be exempt from further fees in successive transactions. The fees for each month thus computed shall be paid by the dealer to the secretary on or before the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

CHAPTER 193

OVERRUN IN MANUFACTURE OF BUTTER

General penalty §189 21

193 1 Defined
193 2 Limit
193 3 Records

193 4 Records not open to public inspection
193 5 Reports as evidence

193.1 Defined.

For the purpose of this chapter "overrun" is the difference between the weight of any given amount of pure butterfat and the weight of the butter manufactured therefrom, and this difference, ascertained in any case, divided by the given amount of pure butterfat in such case and multiplied by one hundred, is the "percentage of overrun", in the manufacture of butter. [C31, 35, §3100-c1, C39, §3100.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §193 1]

193.2 Limit.

It shall be and hereby is declared to be unlawful for any person to have or permit a percentage of overrun in excess of twenty-four and one-half percent in butter manufactured by the person.

193.3 Records.

Every person engaged in the purchase, manufacture, or sale of dairy products, and all owners of skimming stations or other places engaged in the business of purchasing milk or cream, and operators of condenseries, creameries, milk factories, and cheese factories, shall keep in proper books true and full records of all milk, cream, butterfat, and other dairy products purchased, received, shipped, stored, or handled by them, the amount of salted butter and unsalted butter manufactured therefrom, and the amounts of butterfat used in the form of cream, ice cream, milk, or any other products.

[C31, 35, §3100-c3, C39, §3100.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §193 3]

193.4 Records not open to public inspection.

The books and records, or a certified copy of same, of all persons, owners, and operators coming within the provisions of section 193.3 shall be kept within this state and shall be open for the inspection of the secretary of agriculture and the secretary's deputies or employees at all times, who shall make such examination thereof as is desired or deemed necessary by the secretary of agriculture. Any statement, report, or information required by this chapter to be made or furnished by any person, corporation, or association, shall be for the information of the secretary of agriculture, the attorney general, or any public official who may be interested in an official way in receiving such statement, report, or information, but such statement, report, or information shall not be open to public inspection, nor shall it be published or used for private purposes, but may be used in an official, legitimate way in the enforcement of this chapter.

193.5 Reports as evidence.

The reports required by law to be made and which are made to the secretary of agriculture by persons engaged in the manufacture of butter shall be competent evidence in any prosecution under this chapter against the person making the same, whenever such reports, received in evidence upon the trial, show that during a period of one month or more the person on trial and charged with a violation of this chapter, alleged to have been committed on a certain date within said period, has had or permitted an average percentage of overrun in excess of twenty-four and one-half percent in the salted butter manufactured by the person during said period, such showing shall be a violation of this chapter by the person so charged, committed as to the date alleged.

193.6 Penalty.

A person violating a provision of this chapter is guilty of a simple misdemeanor and upon a third violation may be restrained by injunction from operating such a business.

194.1 Citation of chapter.

This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa grading law for milk used for manufacturing purposes."

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.1]

194.2 Enforcement.

The secretary of agriculture shall enforce the provisions hereof, and to this end may adopt such rules and regulations as may appear necessary, but not inconsistent herewith.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.2]

194.3 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture.
2. "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations.
3. "Milk processing plant" means an establishment to which milk of diverse producers is delivered where said products are manufactured into butter, cheese, dry milk or other dairy products for commercial purposes.
4. "Organoleptic examination or grading of milk" means examination by the senses of sight, smell and taste.
5. "Milk used for manufacturing purposes" means milk or milk products manufactured into butter, cheese, ungraded dry milk or other dairy products except milk and milk products as defined in chapter 190.

194.4 Physical characteristics.

All milk received at a creamery, cheese factory, or milk-processing plant shall be examined for physical characteristics, off-flavors and off-odors, including those associated with developed acidity. The condition of the raw milk shall be wholesome and characteristic of normal milk. The flavor and odor of the raw milk shall be fresh and sweet; however, slight feed flavors may be present.

Any raw milk that shows an abnormal condition including, but not limited to, curdled, ropy, clotted and bloody, or that contains extraneous matter or which shows significant bacterial deterioration, or which contains matter evidencing production from a mastitic cow; or which contains chemicals, medicines, or radioactive agents deleterious to health is unlawful milk and shall be rejected to the producer, seller, or shipper and shall not be used in the processing or manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption.

At least four times in every six-month period a test shall be made of each producer's milk to determine the existence of evidence of production from mastitic cows. The secretary shall determine and promulgate the standards and methods of testing the milk for this purpose being guided by recommendations or regulations established by federal agencies regulating in this field.

194.5 Frequency of tests.

A test shall be made on the first purchase of milk from a new producer and at least once within each thirty-day interval thereafter. One lot of milk from each producer shall be selected at random and tested for extraneous matter by an appropriate method. The secretary shall determine and promulgate the standards and methods of testing the milk for extraneous matter. The method and standards shall be no less strict than those recommended by the agricultural marketing service, U.S. department of agriculture.

194.6 Bacterial test.

At least once every thirty days an estimate of the bacterial quality shall be made of each producer's milk by use of a standard plate count or an equivalent plate counting procedure in an officially designated laboratory.

For the purpose of quality improvement and payment, the following classifications of milk for bacterial estimate shall be applicable:

Bacterial Estimate Classification	Standard Plate Count or Equivalent
Class 1	Not over 500,000 per Milliliter
Class 2	Not over 3,000,000 per Milliliter
Undergrade	Over 3,000,000 per Milliliter

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.6]

Amendments in 84 Acts, ch 1120, re classifications of milk for bacterial estimate, effective July 1, 1986, will be published in 1985 Code Supplement

194.7 Acceptable milk.

Milk acceptable from the standpoint of organoleptic examination, containing no excessive extraneous matter and complying with class 1 or 2 for bacterial estimate shall be acceptable for use in the processing and manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.7]

194.8 Unacceptable milk.

Milk acceptable from the standpoint of organoleptic examination, as specified in section 194.6, containing no excessive extraneous matter and classified in excess of three million for bacterial estimate, may be used in the processing and manufacturing of dairy products for human consumption for a period of seven consecutive days.

After a week another quality test must be run on this producer's milk, and if the milk has not improved to class 2 or better, similar tests must be made at least one day per week for three successive weeks. If after the fourth weekly test the milk from the producer has not improved to class 2 or better, no plant shall accept milk from this producer for the manufacture of dairy products for human consumption until the secretary has authorized the producer's reinstatement. Any further acceptance of milk from this producer shall be on the basis of testing the first shipment for extraneous matter and bacterial estimate to determine if the milk is class 2 or better.

Amendments in 84 Acts, ch 1120, re classifications of milk for bacterial estimate, effective July 1, 1986, will be published in 1985 Code Supplement

194.9 Unlawful milk.

Milk, which from the standpoint of organoleptic examination is not acceptable, or which contains excessive extraneous matter or which by four weekly bacterial estimate tests in excess of three million, or which contains material evidencing production from a mastitic cow; or which contains chemicals, medicines, or radioactive agents deleterious to health, shall be deemed unlawful for the manufacture of dairy products for human consumption.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.9]

Amendments in 84 Acts, ch 1120, re classification of milk for bacterial estimate, effective July 1 1986, will be published in 1985 Code Supplement 194.10 Milk purchased on basis of grade.

All purchases and deliveries of milk and cream for the manufacture of dairy products shall be made on the basis of grades and definitions set forth in this chapter.

194.11 Price differential.

All purchasers and receivers of milk for the manufacture of dairy products for human consumption shall maintain a reasonable price differential between the grades of milk as defined by the bacterial estimate tests. This price differential shall not be less than five percent of the price for grade one milk.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.11]

194.12 Milk grader.

Every creamery, cheese factory and milk processing plant must employ at least one person who is duly licensed as a grader of milk.

194.13 License.

Milk grader's licenses shall be issued by the secretary to persons who shall have passed a satisfactory examination as to their qualifications to grade milk or cream. Said license shall not be transferable.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.13]

194.14 Fee.

Each license shall, unless sooner revoked, be valid until July 1 after date of issuance. The fee therefor shall be three dollars, which shall be paid before the license is issued.

194.15 Grader's duty.

It shall be the duty of each licensed grader to comply with or to cause the plants which the grader owns, operates or in which the grader is employed, to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.15]

194.16 Revocation or suspension.

Any license issued under this chapter may be revoked by the secretary for any violation of this chapter or for violation of any standard of sanitation prescribed by any other statute applicable to the holder of such license, but only after the holder of the license has been given reasonable notice of the intention to revoke the license and reasonable opportunity to be heard, provided, however, that when a licensee is convicted of a willful violation of any requirement of this chapter, the secretary shall summarily suspend said license for a period of thirty days and provided that upon a second such conviction the secretary shall summarily and permanently revoke such license.

194.17 Records.

Each creamery, cheese factory or milk processing plant shall maintain records of all purchases and receipts of milk from individual producers. These records must show:

1. Name of producer.
2. Date of delivery.
3. Quantity delivered.
4. Grade assigned.

194.18 Coloring unlawful milk.

It shall be the duty of each licensed grader of milk to mix with any unlawful milk, whenever observed by the grader, a harmless coloring matter that will prevent the unlawful milk to be processed and used in any form for human consumption.

194.19 Vehicles used for transportation and licenses for persons.

Every vehicle used for the collection of milk for manufacture of dairy products, and persons purchasing milk for manufacture of dairy products, shall first be licensed by the secretary of agriculture according to chapter 195. This shall not apply to individuals transporting their own dairy products.

By applying for said license, the applicant consents to abide by all laws set forth in this chapter and the rules and regulations which may be promulgated to implement these laws in the case of all milk obtained from Iowa producers for manufacture of dairy products.

The provisions of section 189.28 shall not apply to milk for manufacture of dairy products.

194.20 Penalty.

Any person who, in person or by an agent or employee, willfully violates any requirement of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §194.20]

195.25 Samples.
195.26 Prohibited acts.

195.27 Penalties.

195.1 Title.

This chapter may be cited as "The Cream Grading Law" and is an amendment to this title.

195.2 Enforcement.

The secretary of agriculture shall enforce the provisions hereof, and to this end may adopt such rules and regulations, not inconsistent herewith, as may appear necessary.

195.3 Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of agriculture.

2. "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations.

3. "Creamery" means an establishment to which milk or cream of divers producers is delivered and where said products are manufactured into butter or cheese for commercial purposes.

4. "Cream station" means a place, other than a creamery, where deliveries of cream are weighed, sampled, graded or tested for purchase on a butterfat basis.

5. "Cream route" means any method used in gathering or transporting cream for hire from two or more producers to a cream station or creamery, except common carriers.

6. "Sweet cream" shall be cream which after proper manufacturing will yield butter meeting at least the requirements of United States department of agriculture grade "A" or United States department of agriculture ninety-two score. It shall be fresh and clean to the taste and its acidity shall at no time exceed two-tenths of one percent calculated as lactic acid. It may have a slight feed flavor. It shall be free from extraneous matter.

7. "Grade one cream" shall be cream which after proper manufacturing will yield butter meeting at least the requirements of United States department of agriculture grade "B" or United States department of agriculture ninety score. It shall be free from flavors resulting from decomposition or age. It may have smothered, slight utensil, or feed flavors and its acidity shall at no time exceed six-tenths of one percent calculated as lactic acid. It shall be free from extraneous matter.

8. "Grade two cream" shall be cream which after proper manufacturing will yield butter meeting at least the requirements of United States department of agriculture grade "C" or United States department of agriculture eighty-nine score. It shall be free from flavors resulting from decomposition or age. It may have off-flavors to a limited degree and its acidity may exceed six-tenths of one percent calculated as lactic acid. It shall be free from extraneous matter.

9. "Unlawful cream" shall be cream which has such flavors as stale, rancid, cheesy, yeasty, metallic, oily, putrid, or other objectionable flavors or which shows evidence of decomposition and age. Unlawful cream shall also be cream containing excessive extraneous matter as set forth in section 195.14, regardless of other quality characteristics.

195.4 Basis of purchase.

All purchases of cream shall be made on the basis of sweet cream, first grade cream and second grade cream.

195.5 Price differential.

Every person owning or operating a creamery, or cream station, or cream vehicle route and engaged in the business of buying two or more grades of cream shall maintain a price differential between said grades of not less than one cent per pound of butterfat.

195.6 Repealed by 56GA, ch 113, §2.

195.7 Licensed graders.

A grader of milk or cream, duly licensed as herein provided, shall be maintained in every creamery and cream station; also in every vehicle when cream or milk is not gathered in individual containers.

195.8 License granted.

Such license shall be issued by the secretary to persons who shall have passed a satisfactory examination as to their qualifications to grade cream or milk and who confirm their qualifications by an actual demonstration. Said license shall not be transferable.

195.9 Tenure — fee.

Each license shall, unless sooner revoked, be valid until July 1 after date of issuance. The fee therefor shall be three dollars which shall be paid before the license is issued.

195.10 Duty of grader.

Each licensed grader of milk or cream shall immediately grade each lot of milk or cream delivered to or received by the grader. Wherever a particular lot of milk or cream is graded whether at the creamery, at the cream station, or at the vehicle used for transportation, the grader shall forthwith make and preserve a true record of said particular lot, which record shall show:

1. Name of the producer or owner.
2. Date of delivery.
3. Quantity delivered.
4. Grade or grades assigned.
5. Price paid.

195.11 Treatment of graded cream.

As soon as cream is graded, it shall be placed forthwith in a clean container. Each container containing graded cream shall have a label or tag firmly attached thereto showing in a legible and conspicuous manner the grade of the cream therein and the date when said cream was graded. The grader of said cream shall see that this section is complied with.

195.12 Treatment of unlawful milk or cream.

It is hereby made the duty of each licensed grader of milk or cream to thoroughly mix with any unlawful milk or cream whenever and wherever discovered by the grader such harmless coloring matter as will prevent such unlawful milk or cream from being used for human consumption.

195.13 Extraneous matter test.

A test for the purpose of determining the amount and nature of extraneous matter in cream shall always be made by the grader on the first purchase of cream from a customer. At least one test for extraneous matter shall be made each month on the cream sold by each customer. But the grader shall make such test whenever the grader has reason to believe that such test is advisable.

195.14 Details of test.

The secretary of agriculture shall determine and promulgate the standards and methods of testing milk or cream for extraneous matter. These standards and methods shall be no less than the minimum requirements of the United States public health service standards.

[C35, §3100-g14; C39, §3100.33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §195.14]

Referred to in §195.3(9)

195.15 Operating license.

No creamery or cheese factory or cream station or vehicle for the collection of cream or milk for manufacture of dairy products shall be operated unless the owner or operator shall have first obtained from the secretary a license for each creamery, each cheese factory, each cream station, and each vehicle so owned or operated.

195.16 Issuance of license.

The license to operate as aforesaid shall be issued by the secretary and shall specify the particular creamery or cream station, the operation of which is authorized; also, in a general way, the route over which the vehicle is authorized to operate.

195.17 Tenure — fees.

Such license, unless sooner revoked, shall expire December 31 after the date of issuance. The fee therefor, payable to the secretary before its issuance, shall be:

1. For each creamery, five dollars.
2. For each cream station, three dollars.
3. For each vehicle, three dollars.
4. For each cheese factory, five dollars.

195.18 Posting.

The holder of said license shall keep said license continuously posted in some conspicuous place inside said creamery, or cream station, or inside the driver's compartment of the said vehicle, as the case may be.

195.19 Revocation of license.

Any license issued under this chapter may be revoked by the secretary for any violation of this chapter or for violation of any standard of sanitation prescribed by any other statute applicable to the holder of such license, but only after the holder of the license has been given reasonable notice of the intention to revoke the license and reasonable opportunity to be heard, provided that when a licensee is convicted of a willful violation of any requirement of this chapter, the secretary shall summarily suspend said license for a period of thirty days and provided that upon a second such conviction the secretary shall summarily and permanently revoke said license.

195.20 Sanitation.

No creamery or cream station or vehicle used on a route for the collection of cream shall be operated or permitted to be operated in an unclean or insanitary condition.

195.21 Separate rooms.

The owner or operator of a creamery or cream station shall maintain a separate room or rooms for the handling and sorting of cream and dairy products, which room or rooms shall be constructed and maintained in the same sanitary condition now required by statute for the construction and maintenance of creameries generally, be well lighted and ventilated, and be provided with proper cooling facilities and an adequate supply of hot and cold water.

195.22 Transportation.

Every vehicle used to transport milk or cream from producers to any dairy plant shall be maintained in a sanitary condition. Every vehicle so used shall be enclosed to protect the milk or cream from extreme heat or cold and from dust or other contamination, provided, however, that this provision shall not be applied to producers delivering their own milk or cream when such milk or cream is otherwise protected from extreme heat or cold and from dust or other contamination.

195.23 Empty cans.

Empty cream cans shall be thoroughly washed and kept in a sanitary condition, stored, and protected from the weather.

195.24 Inspection.

The secretary and all his authorized agents shall have access, at all reasonable times, to all creameries and cream stations and other places, including vehicles for transportation, where milk or cream is produced, received, tested, purchased, transported, or used for the manufacture of butter.

195.25 Samples.

The secretary, and all such authorized agents on showing their authority and upon paying or offering to pay the value thereof, may take from any producer, handler, receiver, or seller of milk or cream, or from any manufacturer of butter, whether principal, agent or employee, samples of milk, cream or butter for purposes of inspection and analysis.

195.26 Prohibited acts.

The following acts or omissions are prohibited:

1 The purchase or receipt of cream except on the basis of grades as herein provided.

2 The failure to provide a price differential as herein provided.

3 The grading by an unlicensed grader of any lot of cream.

4 The improper or incorrect grading by a licensed grader of any lot of cream.

5 Knowingly offering or exposing for sale of unlawful cream for any human consumption.

6 The purchase, possession or acceptance of unlawful cream for human consumption.

7 The failure of a licensed grader of cream to make and keep such records as are herein required of the grader.

8 The possession by the owner or operator of a creamery or of a cream station, or of a cream route vehicle of any graded cream which is unlabeled or falsely labeled.

9 The maintenance of a creamery or cream station or cream route vehicle in an insanitary condition.

10 The conducting or maintaining of a creamery, or cream station, or cream route vehicle in such a manner that cream may be contaminated.

11 The act of obstructing or hindering any official inspection by the secretary or by any of his authorized agents.

12 The removal or defacement of any tag or tags as herein required which have been attached to a receptacle containing cream.

13 The handling or transportation of cream contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

14 The operation of a creamery, or cream station, or cream route vehicle without obtaining a license as herein provided.

This enumeration of prohibited acts shall not be construed to exempt the violator of any other provision of this chapter from criminal responsibility.

196.1 Definitions.

Unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Retailer" means a person who sells eggs directly to consumers except a producer who sells eggs under the provisions of section 196.4.

2. "Egg handler" or "handler" means a person who buys or sells eggs, or uses eggs in the preparation of human food. "Egg handler" or "handler" does not include a retailer, a consumer, an establishment, or a producer who sells eggs as provided in section 196.4.

3. "Nest run eggs" means eggs which have not been denatured, candled, graded, processed or labeled.

4. "Producer" means a person who owns layer type chickens.

5. "Establishment" means any place in which eggs are offered or sold as human food for consumption by its employees, students, patrons, customers, residents, inmates or patients or as an ingredient in food offered or sold in a form ready for immediate consumption.

6. "Candling" means the careful examination of each shell egg and the elimination of those eggs determined unfit for human consumption.

7. "Grading" means classifying each shell egg by weight and grading in accordance with egg grading standards approved by the United States government as of July 1, 1979, pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, 7 U.S.C. §1621 et. seq.

8. "Secretary", "department", and "package" have the meanings ascribed to them in section 189.1.

9. "Consumer" means a person who buys eggs for personal consumption.

196.2 Enforcement.

The secretary shall enforce the provisions of this chapter, and may make rules pursuant to chapter 17A and consistent with regulations of the United States government as they exist on July 1, 1979, pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, 7 U.S.C. §1621 et. seq., and the Egg Products Inspection Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §1044 et. seq.

196.3 Egg handler's license and fee.

Every egg handler shall obtain an annual license from the department. The fee for the license shall be determined on the basis of the total number of eggs purchased or handled during the preceding month of April in each calendar year as follows:

- 1. Less than one hundred twenty-five cases $15.00
- 2. One hundred twenty-five cases or more but less than two hundred fifty cases $35.00
- 3. Two hundred fifty cases or more but less than one thousand cases $50.00
- 4. One thousand cases or more but less than five thousand cases $100.00
- 5. Five thousand cases or more but less than ten thousand cases $175.00
- 6. Ten thousand cases or more $250.00

The license shall expire one year after its date of issue. For the purpose of determining fees, a case shall be thirty dozen eggs. All fees collected shall be remitted to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state.

If an egg handler is not operating during the month of April, the department shall estimate the volume of eggs purchased or handled, or both, and may revise the fee based on three months of operation.

Referred to in §196.4

196.4 Producers and hatcheries exempt.

Producers who sell eggs produced exclusively by their own flocks directly to handlers, or to consumers, shall not be required to demonstrate to the department or the United States department of agriculture inspector their capability to perform candling and grading.

A hatchery shall obtain an egg handler's license pursuant to section 196.3 if it purchases eggs which are not used for hatching purposes.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3102; C46, 50, 54, §196.2; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §196.5; C77, 79, 81, §196.4]

Referred to in §196.1

196.5 Candling and grading capability.

Each person who candles and grades eggs shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department or the United States department of agriculture inspector, the capability to perform candling and grading.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3109; C46, 50, 54, §196.9; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §196.7, 196.8; C77, 79, 81, §196.5]

196.6 Candling and grading room.

An egg handler's license shall be obtained from the department for each location at which eggs will be candled and graded. Before a license is issued for each location candling eggs, the department shall make a careful survey of the premises and determine that the premises contain proper facilities for candling and grading.

196.7 Candling and grading prior to sale.

All eggs offered for sale by an egg handler to a retailer, an establishment or a consumer, shall be candled and graded.

[C24, §3108; C27, 31, 35, §3108, 3112-b1; C39, §3112.1; C46, 50, 54, §196.8, 196.13; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §196.12, 196.14; C77, 79, 81, §196.7]

196.8 Quality.

All eggs offered for sale to an establishment must be no lower than United States department of agriculture consumer grade "B". Retailers selling eggs at retail must hold eggs at a temperature not to exceed sixty degrees Fahrenheit or sixteen degrees Celsius.

[C27, 31, 35, §3112-b1; C39, §3112.1; C46, 50, 54, §196.13; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §196.14; C77, 79, 81, §196.8]

196.9 Eggs unfit as human food.

Eggs determined to be unfit for human food under title 21, section 1034 of the United States Code as amended to July 1, 1979 shall not be bought or sold or offered for purchase or sale by any person unless the eggs are denatured so that they cannot be used for human food.

196.1(7) Amend Ch 196, §20-85 Acts

196.9 Amend Ch 196, §22-85 Acts

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3104, 3105, 3108; C46, 50, 54, §196.4, 196.5, 196.8; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §196.10; C77, 79, 81, §196.9]

196.10 Labeling.

Sections 189.9 to 189.12 shall apply to the labeling of packaged eggs which have been candled and graded if not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. All cases of loose packed eggs sold in this state shall identify the egg handler's name or license number or United States department of agriculture plant number, and, the grade of the eggs contained in the case. Each carton containing eggs for retail sale in Iowa which have been candled and graded shall be marked with the grade and size of the eggs contained, the date they were packed, and the name and address of the distributor or packer.

196.11 Storage.

The provisions of section 189.28 shall not apply to eggs.

196.12 Transportation.

Vehicles used to transport eggs from the point of production to an egg handler or between handlers shall be kept in sanitary condition and shall be enclosed. However, this section shall not apply to producers transporting their own eggs to a handler.

196.13 Records.

Handlers shall keep a record for three years of each of their purchases and sales of eggs, including the date of the transaction, the names of the parties, the grade, or nest run, and the quantity of eggs being purchased or sold.

196.14 Penalty.

Any person who violates a provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. In addition, if the offender is a handler or a retailer, the court for the third offense shall suspend the offender's license for thirty days; for the fourth and any subsequent offense, such license shall be revoked for a period of one year.

196A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

1. "Producer" means any person who owns, or contracts for the care of, five hundred or more layer-type chickens, the eggs of which are sold in this state through commercial channels, including, but not limited to, eggs for hatching, which have been produced by the producer's own flock.

2. "Hatchery operator" means any person who operates a hatchery licensed under chapter 168 and who is actively engaged in the business of hatching or selling chickens for commercial purposes.

3. "Processor" means the first purchaser of eggs from a producer, or a person who both produces and processes eggs.

4. "Purchaser" means a person who resells eggs purchased from a producer or offers for sale a product produced from such eggs for any purpose.

5 "Poultry and poultry products" means layer-type chicken hens and eggs, including hatching eggs, and their products

6 "Market development" means research and educational programs which are directed toward a Better and more efficient production, marketing, and utilization of poultry and poultry products produced for resale

b Better methods, including, but not limited to, public relations and other promotion techniques for the maintenance of present markets and for the development of new or larger domestic or foreign markets and for the sale of poultry and poultry products

c Prevention, modification or elimination of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of poultry and poultry products to market

7 "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's appointee

8 "District" means a producer district established by the Iowa poultry association, incorporated. The Iowa poultry association, incorporated shall establish four districts in this state from which egg producers shall be appointed to serve on the Iowa egg council pursuant to this chapter

9 "Council" means the Iowa egg council

196A.2 Petition for election.

Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least fifty producers requesting a referendum election to determine whether to establish an Iowa egg council and to impose an excise tax not to exceed five cents on every thirty dozen eggs sold, the secretary shall call a referendum to be conducted within sixty days following receipt of the petition. The petitioners shall guarantee payment of the cost of a referendum held under this chapter

196A.3 Notice of referendum.

The secretary shall give notice of the referendum on the question whether to establish an Iowa egg council and to impose the tax by publishing the notice for a period of not less than five days in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state. The notice shall state the voting places, period of time for voting, and other information deemed necessary by the secretary

A referendum shall not be commenced until five days after the last date of publication

196A.4 Establishment of egg council and tax.

Each producer who signs a statement certifying that the producer is a bona fide producer shall be entitled to one vote. At the close of the referendum, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots cast. If a majority of voters favor establishing an Iowa egg council and imposing a tax, an Iowa egg council shall be established, and the tax shall be imposed commencing not more than sixty days following the referendum as determined by the Iowa egg council and shall continue for a period of five years unless extended as provided under this chapter. If a majority of the voters do not favor establishing an Iowa egg council and imposing the tax, the tax will not be imposed nor will the council be established until another referendum is held under this chapter and a majority of the voters favor establishing a council and imposing the tax. If a referendum should fail, another referendum shall not be held within one hundred eighty days

Subsequent referendums to extend the imposition of the tax shall be held every five years in the year prior to the expiration of the tax in force, however, upon receipt of a petition signed by at least fifty producers requesting a referendum election to determine whether to terminate the establishment of the Iowa egg council and to terminate the imposition of the excise tax as provided herein, the secretary shall call a referendum to be conducted within sixty days following the receipt of the petition. The petitioners shall guarantee the payment of the costs of such referendum. If the majority of the voters of any subsequent referendum do not favor an extension, an additional referendum may be held when the secretary receives a petition signed by at least fifty producers. However, the subsequent referendum shall not be held within one hundred eighty days

196A.5 Composition of council.

The Iowa egg council established under this chapter shall be composed of four egg producers, one from each district, two egg processors, and one hatchery operator who shall be appointed pursuant to this chapter. The secretary or the secretary's representative, the director of the Iowa development commission, and the chairperson of the poultry science section of the department of animal science at Iowa State University of science and technology or the chairperson's representative shall serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the council. The council shall annually elect a chairperson from its membership

196A.6 Initial appointments.

For the initial council the secretary shall notify the Iowa poultry association, incorporated, immediately after passage of the question at the referendum election and the association shall nominate two producers from each district, four processors from the state, and two hatchery operators from the state to serve on the Iowa egg council. The secretary shall receive the nominations and shall appoint from these nominations members of the initial council within thirty days following passage of the question at the referendum election

196A.7 Notice of subsequent elections.

Notice of subsequent elections for members of the council shall be given by the council by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the state and in any other reasonable manner as may be determined by the council and shall set forth the period of time for voting, voting places, and other information as the council deems necessary 196A.8 Terms.

The term of office for members of the council shall be four years and no member shall serve more than three consecutive terms. The producers on the initial council shall determine their terms by lot, so that two producers shall serve a two-year term and two producers shall serve a four-year term. The two processors on the initial council shall determine their terms by lot so that one processor shall serve a two-year term and one shall serve a four-year term. The hatchery operator on the initial council shall serve a two-year term.

196A.9 Subsequent membership.

After the appointment of the initial council, the council shall administer subsequent elections for members of the council with the assistance of the secretary. Before the expiration of a producer's term of office, the council shall appoint a nominating committee for the district represented by the producer. The nominating committee shall consist of five producers who are residents of the district from which a member must be elected. The nominating committee shall nominate two resident producers as candidates for the membership position for which an election is to be held. Additional candidates may be nominated by a written petition of fifty producers. Procedures governing the time and place of filing the nominations shall be promulgated by rule and publicized by the council.

In addition the council shall appoint a nominating committee composed of five processors and five hatchery operators in the state. The nominating committee shall nominate two processors as candidates for each processor position and two hatchery operators as candidates for the hatchery operator position on the council.

196A.10 Vacancies.

The council shall by appointment fill an unexpired term if a vacancy occurs on the council.

196A.11 Duties of council.

The Iowa egg council shall:

1. Provide methods, including, but not limited to public relations and other promotion techniques, for the maintenance of present markets. However, the council shall not impose any marketing order or similar restriction.

2. Assist in other market development.

3. Perform all acts necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.11]

196A.12 Powers.

The Iowa egg council may:

1. Employ and discharge assistants and professional counsel as necessary, prescribe their duties and powers and fix their compensation.

2. Establish offices, incur expenses and enter into any contracts or agreements necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

3. Adopt, rescind and amend all proper and necessary rules for the exercise of its powers and duties.

4. Enter into arrangements for collection of the tax on eggs.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.12]

196A.13 Prohibited actions.

The council shall not:

1. Become a dues-paying member of any other firm, association, organization or corporation, public or private.

2. Furnish, directly or indirectly, any financial support to or for any other person, firm, association, organization or corporation, public or private, except for contracts for services rendered or to be rendered for research and promotional and public relations programs and for administrative expenses of the Iowa egg council.

3. Act, directly or indirectly, in any capacity in marketing or making contracts for the marketing of eggs or poultry.

4. Act, directly or indirectly, in any capacity in selling or contracting for the selling of egg-producing or poultry-producing equipment.

5. Make any contribution out of the funds of the council, either directly or indirectly, to any political party or organization or in support of any political candidate for public office or payments to a political candidate or member of Congress or the Iowa legislature for honorariums, speeches or for any other purposes above actual and necessary expenses.

196A.14 Compensation.

Members of the council may receive payment for their actual expenses and travel in performing official council functions. Payment shall be made from amounts collected from the tax. No member of the council shall be a salaried employee of the council or any organization or agency receiving funds from the council. The council shall meet at least once every three months, and at other times it deems necessary.

196A.15 Tax.

If approved by a majority of voters at a referendum, a tax to be set by the council at not more than five cents for each thirty dozen eggs sold by a producer will be imposed on the producer at the time of delivery to a purchaser who will deduct the tax from the price paid to the producer at the time of sale. If the producer sells eggs to a purchaser outside the state of Iowa, the producer shall deduct the tax from the amount received from the sale and shall forward the amount deducted to the council within thirty days following each calendar quarter. If the producer and processor are the same person, then that person shall pay the tax to the council within thirty days following each calendar quarter.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.15]

196A.16 Invoice required.

At the time of sale, the purchaser shall sign and deliver to the producer separate invoices for each purchase. The invoices shall show:

1. The name and address of the producer and the seller, if different from the producer.

2. The name and address of the purchaser.

3. The quantity of eggs sold.

4. The date of the purchase.

5. The rate of withholding and the total amount of tax withheld.

Invoices shall be legibly written and shall not be altered.

196A.17 Egg fund.

Subject to the provisions of section 196A.15, the tax imposed by this chapter shall be remitted by the purchaser to the Iowa egg council not later than thirty days following each calendar quarter during which the tax was collected. Amounts collected from the tax shall be deposited in the office of the treasurer of state in a separate fund to be known as the Iowa egg fund.

196A.18 Refunds.

A producer who has paid the tax may, by application in writing to the council, secure a refund in the amount paid or any portion thereof. The refund shall be payable only when the application shall have been made to the council within sixty days after the end of the calendar quarter during which the eggs were sold by the producer. Each application for refund by a producer shall have attached thereto proof of tax paid. The proof of tax paid may be in the form of a duplicate or certified copy of the purchase invoice by the purchaser.

196A.19 Use of egg fund.

Moneys collected under the authority of this chapter shall be subject to audit by the auditor of state and shall be used by the Iowa egg council first for the payment of collection and refund expenses, second for payment of the costs and expenses arising in connection with conducting referendums, and third for market development. Any moneys remaining in the Iowa egg fund after a referendum is held when a majority of the voters do not favor extending the tax shall continue to be expended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter until exhausted.

196A.20 Warrants by comptroller.

The Iowa egg fund shall be subject at all times to warrant by the state comptroller, upon written requisition of the chairperson or treasurer of the council, attested to by the council secretary or executive director.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.20]

196A.21 Bond required.

All persons holding positions of trust under this chapter shall give bond in the amount required by the council. The premiums for bond costs shall be paid from the Iowa egg fund.

196A.22 Examination of records.

Persons subject to the provisions of this chapter shall furnish on forms provided by the council any information needed to enable the council to effectuate the policies of this chapter. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the council under the provisions of this chapter, the secretary may examine books, papers, records, copies of tax returns not confidential by law, and accounts, which are in the control of any person. The secretary may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and issue subpoenas in connection with the administration of this chapter.

196A.23 Penalty.

Any person who willfully violates any provision of this chapter, willfully gives a false report, statement, or record required by the council, or willfully fails to furnish or render any report, statement or record required by the secretary shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.23]

196A.24 Purchasers outside Iowa.

The secretary may enter into arrangements with purchasers from outside Iowa for payment of the tax.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.24]

196A.25 Report.

During the period of collection of the tax, the council in co-operation with the auditor of state shall make an annual report which shall show all income, expenses and other relevant information.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §196A.25]

198.1 Short title.

This chapter shall be known as the "Iowa Commercial Feed Law of 1974 "

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §198 1]

198.2 Enforcing official.

This chapter shall be administered by the secretary of agriculture

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §198 2]

198.3 Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter

- 1 "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture
- 2 "Distribute" means to offer for sale, sell, exchange or barter, commercial feed or to supply, furnish, or otherwise provide commercial feed to a contract feeder

3 "Distributor" means any person who distributes

4 "Commercial feed" means all materials except whole seeds unmixed or physically altered entire unmixed seeds, when not adulterated within the meaning of section 198 7, subsection 1, which are distributed for use as feed or for mixing in feed The secretary by rule may exempt from this definition, or from specific provisions of this chapter, commodities such as hay, straw, stover, silage, cobs, husks, hulls and individual chemical compounds or substances when such commodities, compounds or substances are not intermixed or mixed with other materials, and are not adulterated within the meaning of section 198 7, subsection 1

5 "Feed ingredient" means each of the constituent materials making up a commercial feed

6. “Mineral feed” means a commercial feed intended to supply primarily mineral elements or inorganic nutrients.

7. “Drug” means any article intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease in animals other than man and articles other than feed intended to affect the structure or any function of the animal body.

8. “Customer-formula feed” means commercial feed which consists of a mixture of commercial feeds or feed ingredients, or both, each batch of which is manufactured according to the specific instructions of the final purchaser.

9. “Manufacture” means to grind, mix or blend or further process a commercial feed for distribution.

10. “Brand name” means any word, name, symbol, or device or any combination thereof, identifying the commercial feed of a distributor or registrant and distinguishing it from that of others.

11. “Product name” means the name of the commercial feed which identifies it as to kind, class, or specific use.

12. “Label” means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon or affixed to the container in which a commercial feed is distributed, or on the invoice or delivery slip with which a commercial feed is distributed.

13. “Labeling” means all labels and other written, printed or graphic matter upon a commercial feed or any of its containers or wrappers or, accompanying such commercial feed.

14. “Ton” means a net weight of two thousand pounds avoirdupois.

15. “Percent” or “percentages” means percentages by weight.

16. “Official sample” means a sample of feed taken by the secretary or the secretary’s agent in accordance with the provisions of section 198.11, subsection 3, 5 or 6.

17. “Contract feeder” means a person who as an independent contractor, feeds commercial feed to animals pursuant to a contract whereby such commercial feed is supplied, furnished or otherwise provided to such person and whereby such person’s remuneration is determined all or in part by feed consumption, mortality, profits or amount or quality of product.

18. “Pet food” means any commercial feed prepared and distributed for consumption by pets.

19. “Pet” means any domesticated animal normally maintained in or near the household of the owner thereof.

20. “Specialty pet food” means any commercial feed prepared and distributed for consumption by specialty pets.

21. “Specialty pet” means any domesticated animal pet normally maintained in a cage or tank, such as, but not limited to, gerbils, hamsters, canaries, psittacine birds, mynahs, finches, tropical fish, goldfish, snakes and turtles.

[S13, §5077-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3113; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §198.1; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §198.3]

name, place of business and location of each manufacturing facility in this state.

2. No person shall distribute in this state a commercial feed, except a customer-formula feed, which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of this section. The application for registration shall be submitted in the manner prescribed by the secretary. Upon approval by the secretary the registration shall be issued to the applicant. A registration shall continue in effect unless it is canceled by the registrant or unless it is canceled by the secretary pursuant to subsection 3.

3. The secretary may refuse registration of any commercial feed not in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and may cancel any registration found not to be in compliance with any provisions of this chapter, provided, that no registration shall be refused or canceled unless the registrant shall have been given an opportunity to be heard before the secretary and to amend the registrant’s application in order to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

Referred to in §198 8

198.5 Labeling.

A commercial feed shall be labeled as follows:

1. In case of a commercial feed, except a customer-formula feed, it shall be accompanied by a label bearing the following information:

a. The net weight.

b. The product name and the brand name, if any, under which the commercial feed is distributed.

c. The guaranteed analysis stated in such terms as the secretary by rule determines is required to advise the user of the composition of the feed or to support claims made in the labeling. In all cases the substances or elements must be determinable by laboratory methods such as the methods published by the association of official analytical chemists.

d. The common or usual name of each ingredient used in the manufacture of the commercial feed, provided, that the secretary by rule may permit the use of a collective term for a group of ingredients which perform a similar function, or the secretary may exempt such commercial feeds, or any group thereof, from this requirement of an ingredient statement if the secretary finds that such statement is not required in the interest of consumers.

e. The name and principal mailing address of the manufacturer or the person responsible for distributing the commercial feed.

f. Adequate directions for use for all commercial feeds containing drugs and for such other feeds as the secretary may require by rule as necessary for their safe and effective use.

g. Such precautionary statements as the secretary by rule determines are necessary for the safe and effective use of the commercial feed.

2. In the case of a customer-formula feed, it shall be accompanied by a label, invoice, delivery slip or other shipping document, bearing the following information:

a. Name and address of the manufacturer.

b. Name and address of the purchaser.

198.4 Registration.

1. No person shall manufacture a commercial feed in this state, unless the person has filed with the secretary on forms provided by the secretary, the person’s

c Date of delivery

d The product name and brand name, if any, and the net weight of each registered commercial feed used in the mixture, and the net weight of each other ingredient used

e Adequate directions for use for all customer formula feeds containing drugs and for such other feeds as the secretary may require by rule as necessary for their safe and effective use

f Such precautionary statements as the secretary by rule determines are necessary for the safe and effective use of the customer formula feed

[S13, §5077 a6, a7, SS15, §5077 a6, a7, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3114-3116; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §198 2, 198 5, 198 6, C66, 71, 73, §198 6, C75, 77, 79, 81, §198 5]

Referred to in §198 6

198.6 Misbranding.

A commercial feed shall be deemed to be misbranded

1 If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular

2 If it is distributed under the name of another commercial feed

3 If it is not labeled as required in section 198 5

4 If it purports to be or is represented as a commercial feed, or if it purports to contain or is represented as containing a commercial feed ingredient, unless such commercial feed or feed ingredient conforms to the definition, if any, prescribed by rule by the secretary

5 If any word, statement, or other information required by this chapter to appear on the label is not prominently and conspicuously placed thereon and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use

198.7 Adulteration.

A commercial feed shall be deemed to be adulterated

1 a If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health, but in case the substance is not an added substance, such commercial feed shall not be considered adulterated under this subsection if the quantity of such substance in such commercial feed does not ordinarily render it injurious to health

b If it bears or contains any added poisonous, added deleterious, or added nonnutritive substance which is unsafe within the meaning of section 406 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity or a food additive

c If it is, or it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

d If it is a raw agricultural commodity and it bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408, subparagraph "a" of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, provided, that where a pesticide chemical has been used in or on a raw agricultural commodity in conformity with an exemption granted or a tolerance prescribed under section 408 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and such raw agricultural commodity has been subjected to processing such as canning, cooking, freezing, dehydrating or milling, the residue of such pesticide chemical remaining in or on such processed feed shall not be deemed unsafe if such residue in or on the raw agricultural commodity has been removed to the extent possible in good manufacturing practice and the concentration of such residue in the processed feed is not greater than the tolerance prescribed for the raw agriculture commodity unless the feeding of such processed feed will result or is likely to result in a pesticide residue in the edible product of the animal, which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408, subparagraph "a" of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

e If it is, or it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 706 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

2 If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom or any less valuable substance substituted therefor

3 If its composition or quality falls below or differs from that which it is purported or is represented to possess by its labeling

4 If it contains a drug and the methods used in or the facilities or controls used for its manufacture, processing, or packaging do not conform to current good manufacturing practice rules promulgated by the secretary to assure that the drug meets the requirement of this chapter as to safety and has the identity and strength and meets the quality and purity characteristics which it purports or is represented to possess In promulgating such rules, the secretary shall adopt the current good manufacturing practice regulations for medicated feed premixes and for medicated feeds established under authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, unless the secretary determines that they are not appropriate to the conditions which exist in this state

5 If it contains viable weed seeds in amounts exceeding the limits which the secretary shall establish by rule

[S13, §5077 a13, C24, 27, 31, 35, §3114 d2, 3126, C39, §3114.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §198 4, 198 13, C66, 71, 73, §198 8, C75, 77, 79, 81, §198 7]

Referred to in §198 3 198 8 198 11

198.8 Prohibited acts.

It shall be unlawful for any person to 1 Manufacture or distribute any commercial feed that is adulterated or misbranded

2 Adulterate or misbrand any commercial feed

3 Distribute agricultural commodities such as whole seed, hay, straw, stover, silage, cobs, husks and hulls, which are adulterated within the meaning of section 198 7, subsection 1

4 Remove or dispose of a commercial feed in violation of an order under section 198 12

5 Fail or refuse to register in accordance with section 198 4

6 Violate section 198 13, subsection 6

7 Fail to pay inspection fees and file reports as required by section 198 9

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §198 8]

198.9 Inspection fees and reports.

1 An inspection fee to be fixed annually by the secretary, at the rate of no more than twelve cents per ton shall be paid on commercial feeds distributed in this state, by the person who distributes the commercial feed to the consumer, subject to the following:

a. A fee shall not be paid on a commercial feed if the payment has been made by a previous distributor.

b. A fee shall not be paid on customer-formula feeds if the inspection fee is paid on the commercial feeds which are used as ingredients therein.

c. A fee shall not be paid on commercial feeds which are used as ingredients for the manufacture of commercial feeds which are registered. If the fee has already been paid, credit shall be given for such payment.

d. In the case of a commercial feed which is distributed in the state only in packages of ten pounds or less, an annual fee of twenty-five dollars, shall be paid in lieu of the inspection fee specified above.

e. The minimum inspection fee shall be a semiannual fee of ten dollars.

f. In the case of specialty pet food, which is distributed in the state in packages of one pound or less, an annual fee of twenty-five dollars shall be paid in lieu of an inspection fee.

2. Each person who is liable for the payment of such fee shall:

a. File, not later than the last day of January and July of each year a semiannual statement, setting forth the number of net tons of commercial feeds distributed in this state during the preceding six months and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in subsection 1. Inspection fees which are due and owing and have not been remitted to the secretary within fifteen days following the due date shall have a delinquency fee of ten percent or five dollars, whichever is greater, added to the amount due when payment is finally made. The assessment of this delinquency fee shall not prevent the department from taking other actions as provided in this chapter.

b. Keep such records as may be necessary or required by the secretary to indicate accurately the tonnage of commercial feed distributed in this state, and the secretary shall have the right to examine such records to verify statements of tonnage.

Failure to make an accurate statement of tonnage or to pay the inspection fee or comply as provided herein shall constitute sufficient cause for the cancellation of all registrations on file for the distributor.

3. Fees collected shall constitute a fund for the payment of the costs of inspection, sampling, analysis, supportive research and other expenses necessary for the administration of this chapter.

If there is an unencumbered balance of funds in the commercial feed fund on June 30 of any fiscal year equal to or exceeding three hundred fifty thousand dollars, the secretary of agriculture shall reduce the per ton fee provided for in subsection 1 for the next fiscal year in such amount as will result in an ending estimated balance for June 30 of the next fiscal year of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

[S13, §5077-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3118-3121; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §198.8-198.12; C66, 71, 73, §198.7; C75, 77, 79, 81, §198.9]

83 Acts, ch 122, §1
Referred to in §198.8

198.10 Rules.

1. The secretary may promulgate such rules for commercial feeds and pet foods as are specifically authorized in this chapter and such other reasonable rules as may be necessary for the efficient enforcement of this chapter. In the interest of uniformity the secretary shall by rule adopt, unless the secretary determines that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or are not appropriate to conditions which exist in this state, the following:

a. The official definitions of feed ingredients and official feed terms adopted by the Association of American Feed Control Officials and published in the official publication of that organization, and

b. Any rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, U.S.C. section 301, et seq., provided, that the secretary would have the authority under this chapter to promulgate such rules.

2. Before the issuance, amendment or repeal of any rule authorized by this chapter, the secretary shall publish the proposed rule, amendment, or notice to repeal an existing rule in a manner reasonably calculated to give interested parties, including all current registrants, adequate notice and shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing, within a reasonable period of time. After consideration of all views presented by interested persons, the secretary shall take appropriate action to issue the proposed rule or to amend or repeal an existing rule. The provisions of this subsection notwithstanding, if the secretary, pursuant to the authority of this chapter, adopts the official definitions of feed ingredients or official feed terms as adopted by the Association of American Feed Control Officials, or rules promulgated pursuant to the authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, any amendment or modification adopted by said association or by the secretary of health, education and welfare in the case of regulations promulgated pursuant to the federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, shall be adopted automatically under this chapter without regard to publication of the notice required by this subsection, unless the secretary, by order specifically determines that said amendment or modification shall not be adopted.

198.11 Inspection, sampling and analysis.

1. For the purpose of enforcement of this chapter, and in order to determine whether its provisions have been complied with, including whether or not any operations may be subject to such provisions, officers or employees duly designated by the secretary, upon presenting appropriate credentials, and a written notice to the owner, operator or agent in charge, are authorized:

a. To enter, during normal business hours, any factory, warehouse or establishment within the state in which commercial feeds are manufactured, processed, packed or held for distribution, or to enter any vehicle being used to transport or hold such feed.

b. To inspect at reasonable times and within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, such factory, warehouse, establishment or vehicle and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished materials, containers and labeling therein. The inspection may include the verification of only such records, and production and control procedures as may be necessary to determine compliance with the good manufacturing practice regulations established under section 198 7, subsection 4

2 A separate notice shall be given for each such inspection, but a notice shall not be required for each entry made during the period covered by the inspection. Each such inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness. Upon completion of the inspection, the person in charge of the facility or vehicle shall be so notified.

3 If the officer or employee making such inspection of a factory, warehouse or other establishment has obtained a sample in the course of the inspection, upon completion of the inspection and prior to leaving the premises the officer or employee shall give to the owner, operator or agent in charge a receipt describing the samples obtained.

4 If the owner of any factory, warehouse, or establishment described in subsection 1, or the owner's agent, refuses to admit the secretary or the secretary's agent to inspect in accordance with subsections 1 and 2, the secretary may obtain from any state court a warrant directing such owner or the owner's agent to submit the premises described in such warrant to inspection.

5 For the purpose of the enforcement of this chapter, the secretary or the secretary's duly designated agent is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises including any vehicle of transport during regular business hours to have access to, and to obtain samples, and to examine records relating to distribution of commercial feeds.

6 Sampling and analysis shall be conducted in accordance with methods published by the association of official analytical chemists, or in accordance with other generally recognized methods.

7 The results of all analyses of official samples shall be forwarded by the secretary to the person named on the label. When the inspection and analysis of an official sample indicates a commercial feed has been adulterated or misbranded and upon request within thirty days following receipt of the analysis the secretary shall furnish to the registrant a portion of the sample concerned.

8 The secretary, in determining for administrative purposes whether a commercial feed is deficient in any component, shall be guided by the official sample as defined in section 198 3, subsection 16, and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsections 3, 5 and 6.

[C66, 71, 73, §198 10, C75, 77, 79, 81, §198 11]

198.12 Detained commercial feeds.

1 When the secretary or the secretary's authorized agent has reasonable cause to believe any lot of commercial feed is being distributed in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any of the prescribed rules under this chapter, the secretary or agent may issue and enforce a written or printed "withdrawal from distribution" order, warning the distributor not to dispose of the lot of commercial feed in any manner until written permission is given by the secretary or the court. The secretary shall release the lot of commercial feed so withdrawn when said provisions and rules have been complied with. If compliance is not obtained within thirty days, the secretary may begin, or upon request of the distributor or registrant shall begin proceedings for condemnation.

2 Any lot of commercial feed not in compliance with said provisions and rules shall be subject to seizure on complaint of the secretary to a court of competent jurisdiction in the area in which said commercial feed is located. In the event the court finds the said commercial feed to be in violation of this chapter and order the condemnation of said commercial feed, it shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the quality of the commercial feed and the laws of the state, provided, that in no instance shall the disposition of said commercial feed be ordered by the court without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for release of said commercial feed or for permission to process or relabel said commercial feed to bring it into compliance with this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §198 12]

198.13 Penalties.

1 Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this chapter or who shall impede, hinder or otherwise prevent, or attempt to prevent, said secretary or the secretary's authorized agent in performance of that person's duty in connection with the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or the secretary's representative to a Report for prosecution

b Institute seizure proceedings

c Issue a withdrawal from distribution order, as a result of minor violations of the chapter, or when the secretary or representative believes the public interest will best be served by suitable notice of warning in writing.

3 It shall be the duty of each county attorney to whom any violation is reported to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay. Before the secretary reports a violation for such prosecution, an opportunity shall be given the distributor to present the distributor's view to the secretary.

4 The secretary may apply for and the court may grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule promulgated under the chapter notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law. If granted, the injunction shall be issued without bond.

5 Any person adversely affected by an act, order, or ruling made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may within forty five days thereafter bring action in the district court for judicial review of such actions. The form of the proceeding shall be any which may be provided by statutes of this state to review decisions of administrative agencies, or in the absence or inadequacy thereof, any applicable form of legal action, including actions for declaratory judgments or writs or prohibitory or mandatory injunctions.

6 Any person who uses to the person's own advantage, or reveals to other than the secretary, or officers of the department or to the courts when relevant in any judicial proceeding, any information acquired under the authority of this chapter, concerning any method, records, formulations or processes which as a trade secret is entitled to protection, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor. This prohibition shall not be deemed as prohibiting the secretary, or the secretary's duly authorized agent, from exchanging information of a regulatory nature with appointed officials of the United States government, or of other states, who are similarly prohibited by law from revealing this information.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §198.13]
 Referred to in §198 8, 331 756(37)

198.14 Co-operation with other entities.

The secretary may co-operate with and enter into agreements with governmental agencies of this state, other states, agencies of the federal government, and private associations in order to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter.

198.15 Publication.

The secretary shall publish at least annually, in such forms as the secretary may deem proper, information concerning the sales of commercial feeds, together with such data on their production and use as the secretary may consider advisable, and a report of the results of the analyses of official samples of commercial feeds sold within the state as compared with the analyses guaranteed in the registration and on the label. Provided, that the information concerning production and use of commercial feed shall not disclose the operations of any person.

199.1 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter or as used in labeling of seed:

1. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, company, society, or association.
2. "Agricultural seed" means grass, forage, cereal, oil, fiber, and any other kind of crop seed commonly recognized within this state as agricultural seed, lawn seed, vegetable seed, or seed mixtures. Agricultural seed may include any additional seed the secretary designates by rules.
3. "Vegetable seed" means the crops which are grown in gardens or truck farms and are generally sold under the name of vegetable or herb seed in this state.
4. "Weed seed" means the seed of all plants listed as weeds in this chapter or listed as weeds in the rules of the department or commonly recognized as weeds in this state.
5. Noxious weed seed shall be divided into two classes, "primary noxious weed seed" and "secondary noxious weed seed" which are defined in paragraphs

"a" and "b" of this subsection. The secretary, upon the recommendation of the dean of agriculture, Iowa State University of science and technology, shall adopt as a rule, after public hearing, pursuant to chapter 17A, the list of seed classified as "primary noxious weed seed" and "secondary noxious weed seed".

a. "Primary noxious weed seed" are the seed of perennial weeds that reproduce by seed and by underground roots or stems and which, when established, are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by good cultural practices. For the purpose of this chapter and the sale of seed, primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

- (1) Quack grass — Agropyron repens (L.) Beauv.
- (2) Canada thistle — Cirsium arvense (L.) Scop.
- (3) Perennial sow thistle — Sonchus arvensis L.
- (4) Perennial pepper grass (hoary cress) — Cardaria draba (L.) Desv.
- (5) European morning-glory (field bindweed) — Convolvulus arvensis L.

- (6) Horse nettle — Solanum carolinense L.
- (7) Leafy spurge — Euphorbia esula L.
- (8) Russian knapweed — Centaurea repens L.

b "Secondary noxious weed seed" are the seed of weeds that are very objectionable in fields, lawns, or gardens in this state, but can be controlled by good cultural practices. For the purpose of this chapter and the sale of seed, the secondary noxious weed seeds in this state are the seeds of:

- (1) Wild carrot — Daucus carota L.
- (2) Sour dock (curly dock) — Rumex crispus L.
- (3) Smooth dock — Rumex altissimus Wood.
- (4) Sheep sorrel (red sorrel) — Rumex acetosella L.
- (5) Butterprint (velvet leaf) — Abutilon theophrasti Medic.
- (6) Mustards — Brassica juncea (L.) Coss., Sinapis arvensis L. and B. nigra (L.) Koch.
- (7) Cocklebur — Xanthium strumarium L.
- (8) Buckhorn — Plantago lanceolata L.
- (9) Dodders — Cuscuta species.
- (10) Giant foxtail — Setaria faberii Herrm.
- (11) Poison hemlock — Conium maculatum.
- (12) Wild sunflower — Wild strain of Helianthus annuus (L.)
- (13) Puncture vine — Tribulus terrestris.

6. "Purity" means the pure seed percentage by weight, exclusive of inert matter and of other agricultural or weed seed which are distinguishable by their appearance from the crop seed in question.

7. "Tolerance" means the allowable deviation from any figure used on a label to designate the percentage of any component or the number of seeds given for the lot in question and is based on the law of normal variation from a mean. The secretary shall prepare tables of tolerances allowable in the enforcement of this chapter and may be guided in the preparation by the regulations under the federal Seed Act, 7 C.F.R., sec. 201.59 et. seq.

8. "Treated seed" means agricultural seed that has been given an application of a substance, or subjected to a procedure, for which a claim is made or which is designed to reduce, control or repel disease organisms, insects, or other pests which attack seed or seedlings.

9. "Coated seed" means seed that has been encapsulated or covered with a substance other than those defined as "inoculated seed" or "treated seed". Pelleted seed is a subclass of "coated seed".

10. "Inoculant for leguminous plants" means a bacterial culture, or material containing bacteria, that is represented as causing the formation of nodules and aiding the growth of leguminous plants by the fixation of nitrogen.

11. "Inoculated seed" means seed to which has been added a substance containing the cells, spores or mycelia of microorganisms for which a claim is made.

12. "Labeling" means all labels and other written, printed, or graphic representations, in any form, accompanying and pertaining to seed, whether in bulk or in containers, and includes invoices.

13. "Advertisement" means all representations, other than those on the label, relating to seed within the scope of this chapter.

14. "Permit holder" is a person who has obtained a permit from the department as required under sections 199.15 and 199.16.

15. "Registered seed technologist" is a person who has attained registered membership in the society of commercial seed technologists through qualifying tests and experience as required by this society.

16. "Record" means all information relating to a shipment of agricultural seed and includes a file sample of each lot of seed.

17. "Kind" means one or more related species or subspecies which singly or collectively are known by one common name.

18. "Conditioning" means cleaning to remove chaff, sterile florets, immature seed, weed seed, inert matter, and other crop seed; scarifying; blending to obtain uniform quality; or any other operation which may change the purity or germination of the seed and require retesting to determine the quality of the seed.

19. "Cultivar" or "variety" means a cultivated subdivision of a kind of plant that may be characterized by growth habits, fruit, seed, or other characteristics, by which it can be differentiated from other plants of the same kind.

20. "Mixture" or "blend" means a combination of seed of more than one kind or variety if present in excess of five percent of the whole.

21. "Multiline cultivar" means a planned combination of two or more near-isogenic lines of a normally self-fertilizing kind of crop.

22. "Hybrid" means the first generation seed produced by controlled pollination of two inbred lines to produce a single cross; an inbred line and a single cross of two unrelated inbred lines to produce a three-way cross; an inbred line and a single cross of two related lines to produce a modified single cross; two single crosses to produce a double cross; an inbred line or a single cross with an open-pollinated or synthetic cultivar to produce a modified cultivar cross; or a cross of two open-pollinated or synthetic cultivars to produce a cultivar cross. The second or subsequent generation from such crosses are not hybrids. Hybrid designations shall be treated as cultivar names.

23. "Certifying agency" means an agency authorized under the laws of a state, territory, or possession to officially certify seed and which has standards and procedures approved by the United States secretary of agriculture to assure genetic purity and identity of the seed certified, or an agency of a foreign country determined by the United States secretary of agriculture to adhere to the procedures and standards for seed certification comparable to those adhered to generally by seed certifying agencies in the United States.

The Iowa secretary of agriculture shall, by rule, define the terms "breeder", "foundation", "registered", "certified" and "inbred", as used in this chapter.

Weeds, ch 317

199.2 Dean of agriculture as advisor.

The dean of agriculture of Iowa State University of science and technology or the dean's designee shall be the technical advisor to the secretary in the administration of this chapter.

199.3 Labeling of seed.

Each container of agricultural or vegetable seed which is sold, offered for sale, exposed for sale, or transported within this state shall be labeled according to the following schedule

1 Seed for sowing purposes shall be labeled as follows a Agricultural or vegetable seed that is treated, inoculated, or coated shall contain a word or statement indicating that the treatment, inoculation, or coating has been done. A separate label may be used

b If treated, the label shall indicate the commonly accepted chemical or abbreviated chemical name of the applied substance or substances or a description of the type and purpose of procedure used. If the substance in the amount present with the seed is harmful to human or vertebrate animals, the label shall bear a caution statement such as "Do not use for food, feed, or oil purposes". In addition, for highly toxic substances, a poison statement or symbol shall be shown on the label

c If the seed is inoculated, the label shall indicate the month and year beyond which the inoculant is not claimed to be effective

d If the seed is coated, the label shall show the percentage by weight in the container of pure seed, inert matter, coating material, other crop seed, and weed seed. The percentage of germination shall be labeled on the basis of a determination made on at least four hundred pellets or capsules, whether or not they contain seed

e All seed in package or wrapped form which are required to be labeled, unless otherwise provided, shall conform to the requirements of sections 189.9 and 189.11

2 Except for seed mixtures for lawn or turf purposes, agricultural seed shall bear a label indicating a The name of the kind or kind and variety for each agricultural seed present in excess of five percent of the whole and the percentage by weight of each. If the variety of those kinds generally labeled as to variety is not stated, the label shall show the name of the kind and the words, "variety not stated". Hybrids shall be labeled as hybrids. Seed shall not be labeled or advertised under a trademark or brand name in a manner that may create the impression that the trademark or brand name is a variety name

b Lot number or other lot identification

c State or foreign country of origin, if known, of alfalfa and red clover. If the origin is unknown, the fact shall be stated

d Percentage by weight of all weed seed

e The name and rate of occurrence per unit of weight of each kind of secondary noxious weed seed present f Percentage by weight of agricultural seed which may be designated as "other crop seed" other than those required to be named on the label

g Percentage by weight of inert matter

h For each named agricultural seed

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present

(3) The calendar month and year the test was completed to determine the percentages

Following (1) and (2), the "total germination and hard seed" may be stated as such, if desired

i Name and address of the person who labeled the seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within this state

3 For seed mixtures for lawn or turf purposes, the label shall indicate a The word "mixed" or "mixture" along with the name of the mixture

b The heading "pure seed" and "germination" or "germ" where appropriate

c Commonly accepted name of kind or kind and variety of each turf seed component in excess of five percent of the whole, and the percentage by weight of pure seed in order of its predominance and in columnar form d Name and percentage by weight of other agricultural seed than those required to be named on the label which shall be designated as "other crop seed". If the mixture contains no "other crop seed" that fact may be indicated by the words "contains no other crop seed"

e Percentage by weight of inert matter

f Percentage by weight of all weed seed. Maximum weed seed content not to exceed one percent by weight

g The name and rate of occurrence per unit of weight of each kind of secondary noxious weed seed present

h For each turf seed named under paragraph "c"

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present

(3) Calendar month and year the test was completed to determine such percentages. The oldest current test date applicable to any single kind in the mixture shall appear on the label

i Name and address of the person who labeled the seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within the state

4 The labeling requirements for vegetable seed sold from containers of more than one pound shall be deemed to have been met if the seed is weighed from a properly labeled container in the presence of the purchaser. Packets of vegetable seed prepared for use in home gardens or household plantings or vegetable seed in preplanted containers, mats, tapes, or other planting devices, shall bear labels with the following information a Name of kind and variety of seed

b Lot identification

c The year for which the seed was packed for sale or the percentage of germination and the calendar month and year the test to determine such percentage was completed

d Name and address of the person who labeled the seed or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within the state

e For seed which germinate less than the standard last established by the secretary in rules adopted under chapter 17A

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present

(3) The words "below standard" in not less than eight point type

f. For seed placed in a germination medium, mat, tape, or other device in such a way as to make it difficult to determine the quantity of seed without removing the seed from the medium, mat, tape, or device, a statement to indicate the minimum number of seed in the container.

5. All other vegetable seed containers shall be labeled, indicating:

a. The name of each kind and variety present in excess of five percent and the percentage by weight of each in order of its predominance.

b. Lot number or other lot identification.

c. For each named vegetable seed:

(1) Percentage germination exclusive of hard seed.

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present.

(3) The calendar month and year the test was completed to determine such percentages.

Following (1) and (2) the "total germination and hard seed" may be stated as such, if desired.

d. Name and address of the person who labeled the seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within the state.

6. Seed sold on or from the farm, which is exempt from the permit requirements by section 199.15, shall be labeled on the basis of tests performed by the Iowa State University of science and technology seed laboratory, department of agriculture seed laboratory, or a commercial seed laboratory personally supervised by a registered seed technologist. Tests for labeling shall be as provided in section 199.10.

[S13, §5077-a6, -a18, -a19, -a21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3129, 3130, 3131, 3132; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199.3; 82 Acts, ch 1191, §3]

199.4 Sales from bulk.

In case agricultural or vegetable seed is offered or exposed for sale in bulk or sold from bulk, the information required under section 199.3 may be supplied by a placard conspicuously displayed with the several required items thereon or a printed or written statement to be furnished to any purchaser of the seed.

199.5 Hybrid corn.

It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer or expose for sale, or falsely mark or tag, within the state any seed corn as hybrid unless it falls within the definition of hybrid in section 199.1.

199.6 Inoculant for legumes.

The container of any inoculant for leguminous plants which is sold, offered for sale, or exposed for sale within the state shall bear a label giving in the English language in legible letters the following information:

1. The kind or kinds of leguminous plants for which the contents are to be used.

2. The quantity of seed to which the contents are to be applied.

3. An expiry date after which the inoculant might be ineffective.

4. The name and place of business of the manufacturer or laboratory of origin, or alternately of the vendor only, if the vendor accepts responsibility for the accuracy of the declarations made in subsections 1, 2, and 3 of this section.

199.7 Certified seed.

The classes of certified seed are breeder, foundation, registered, and certified and shall be recognized by the certifying agency.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or expose for sale in the state:

1. Any agricultural seed, including seed potatoes, as a recognized class of certified seed unless:

a. Such seed has been certified by a duly constituted state authority or state association recognized by the Iowa secretary of agriculture.

b. Each container bears an official label approved by the certifying agency stating that the seed has met the certification requirements established by the certifying agency.

c. Each container of the certified class of certified seed bears a label blue in color with the word "certified" thereon.

d. Each container of the foundation and registered classes of certified seed bears a label with a color or colors approved by the certifying agency.

2. Any agricultural seed, including seed potatoes, with a blue label unless such seed is a class of certified seed.

199.8 Prohibited acts.

1. It is unlawful for a person to sell, transport, offer for sale, expose for sale, or advertise an agricultural or vegetable seed:

a. Unless the test to determine the percentage of germination as required by this chapter has been completed within nine months, excluding the month of the test, immediately prior to selling, transporting, offering, exposing, or advertising for sale. A retest is not required for seed in hermetically sealed containers or packages provided they have not reached the thirty-six month expiration date.

b. Not labeled in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or having a false or misleading label.

c. For which there has been false or misleading advertising.

d. Consisting of or containing primary noxious weed seed, subject to recognized tolerances.

e. Consisting of or containing secondary noxious weed seed per weight unit in excess of the number prescribed by rules adopted under this chapter, or in excess of the number declared on the label attached to the container of the seed or associated with the seed.

f. Containing more than one and one-half percent by weight of all weed seed.

g. If any labeling, advertising, or other representation subject to this chapter represents the seed to be certified seed or any class thereof, unless:

(1) It has been determined by a seed certifying agency that the seed conforms to standards of varietal purity and identity as to kind in compliance with the rules and regulations of the agency

(2) The seed bears an official label issued for the seed by a seed certifying agency stating that the seed is of a specified class and a specified kind or variety

h Labeled with a variety name but not certified by an official seed certifying agency when it is a variety for which a United States certificate of plant variety protection under the Plant Variety Protection Act, 7 U S C sec 2321 et seq, specifies sale only as a class of certified seed Seed from a certified lot may be labeled as to variety name and used in a blend, by or with the approval of the owner of the variety

2 It is unlawful for a person to a Detach, alter, deface, or destroy a label provided for in this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter, or to alter or substitute seed in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this chapter

b Disseminate false or misleading advertisements concerning seed subject to this chapter

c Hinder or obstruct in any way an authorized person in the performance of duties under this chapter

d Fail to comply with a "stop sale" order or to move or otherwise handle or dispose of any lot of seed held under a "stop sale" order or tags attached thereto, except with express permission of the enforcing officer, and for the purpose specified thereby e Use the word "trace" as a substitute for any statement which is required

f Use the word "type" in labeling in connection with the name of an agricultural seed variety

3 It is unlawful for a person to sell, transport, offer for sale, expose for sale, or advertise screenings of any agricultural seed subject to this chapter, unless it is stated on the label if in containers or on the invoice if in bulk, that they are not intended for seeding purposes For the purpose of this subsection, "screenings" includes chaff, empty florets, immature seed, weed seed, inert matter, and other materials removed by cleaning from any agricultural seed subject to this chapter

Referred to in §199 9(1) 199 12

199.9 Exemptions.

1 Sections 199 3 and 199 8 do not apply to a Seed or grain not intended for sowing purposes

b Seed in storage in, or consigned to, or for sale to, a seed cleaning or conditioning establishment for cleaning or conditioning, provided that any labeling or other representation which is made with respect to the unclean or unconditioned seed is subject to this chapter

c A carrier in respect to seed transported or delivered for transportation in the ordinary course of its business as a carrier provided that the carrier is not engaged in producing, conditioning, or marketing seed, and subject to this chapter

2 A person is not subject to the penalties of this chapter for having sold, offered or exposed for sale in this state any agricultural seeds which were incorrectly labeled or represented as to kind, species, variety, or origin when those seeds cannot be identified by examination, unless the person has failed to obtain an invoice or genuine grower's declaration or other labeling information and to take other precautions as reasonable to ensure the identity A genuine grower's declaration of variety shall affirm that the grower holds records of proof concerning parent seed such as invoices and labels

199.10 Testing methods — co-operation of facilities.

1 Testing methods when seed is for sale Seed lots of all kinds of agricultural seed intended for sale in this state shall be tested in accordance with the association of official seed analysts' rules for testing seed or the regulations under the federal Seed Act The tests required shall be a Purity analysis

b Noxious weed examination

c Germination

2 Charges for testing Charges for seed testing by the Iowa State University or department of agriculture seed laboratory shall be determined by the Iowa State University laboratory Separate fee schedules shall be published for a Tests for seedsmen, permit holders and farmers who plan to sell seed

b Tests for out of state persons

3 Co operation between the Iowa State University and the state department of agriculture To furnish farmers and seedsmen with information as to seed quality and guide them in the proper labeling of seed for sale, these organizations shall a Integrate seed testing so as to avoid unnecessary duplication of personnel and equipment The state department of agriculture seed laboratory shall be primarily concerned with seed testing for seed law enforcement purposes The Iowa State University seed laboratory shall promote seed education and research and shall conduct service testing for farmers and seedsmen

b Exchange information which will be mutually beneficial to both agencies in matters pertaining to agricultural seed

c Guide seed testing by all individuals, organizations or seedsmen so as to promote uniformity of seed testing in Iowa

[S13, §5077-a12, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3135; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199 10, 82 Acts, ch 1191, §9-11]

Referred to in §199 3(6)

199.11 Authority of secretary of agriculture.

1 For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the state secretary of agriculture who may act through authorized agents is hereby authorized and directed a To sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test agricultural seeds transported, sold, offered or exposed for sale within this state for sowing purposes, at such time and place and to such extent as the secretary may deem necessary to determine whether said agricultural seeds are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and to notify promptly the person who transported, sold, offered or exposed the seed for sale, of any violation

199-10(13) Amend Ch 67, §22-85 Acts

b. To prescribe and, after public hearing following due public notice, to adopt rules and regulations governing the methods of sampling, inspecting, analysis, tests, and examination of agricultural seed, and the tolerances to be followed in the administration of this chapter, which shall be in general accord with officially prescribed practice in interstate commerce under the federal seed Act and such other rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure the efficient enforcement of this chapter.

2. Further, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the state secretary of agriculture, individually or through authorized agents, is authorized and directed:

a. To enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds subject to this chapter and the rules and regulations thereunder.

b. To issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural seed which the state secretary of agriculture or the secretary's authorized agents believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter which shall prohibit further sale of such seed until such officer has evidence that the law has been complied with; provided, that the owner or custodian of such seed shall be permitted to remove said seed from a sales-room open to the public; provided further, that in respect to seeds which have been denied sale as provided in this subsection, judicial review may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court; and provided further, that the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed as limiting the right of the enforcement officer to proceed as authorized by other sections of this chapter.

c. To establish and maintain or make provision for seed testing facilities essential to the enforcement of this chapter, to employ qualified persons, and to incur such expenses as may be necessary to comply with these provisions.

d. To co-operate with the United States department of agriculture in seed law enforcement.

199.12 Seizure of unlawful seed.

Upon the recommendation of the secretary or the secretary's duly authorized agents, the court of competent jurisdiction in the area in which the seed is located shall cause the seizure and subsequent denaturing, conditioning, or destruction to prevent the use for sowing purposes of any lot of agricultural seed found to be prohibited from sale as set forth in section 199.8, provided that in no instance shall the denaturing, conditioning, or destruction be ordered without first having given the claimant of the seed an opportunity to apply to the court for the release of the seed.

199.13 Penalty.

A violation of this chapter is a simple misdemeanor. The department of agriculture may institute criminal or civil proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce this chapter. When in the performance of the secretary's duties in enforcing this chapter the secretary applies to a court for a temporary or permanent injunction restraining a person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the injunction is to be issued without bond and the person restrained by the injunction shall pay the costs made necessary by the procedure.

199.14 Enforcement.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of agriculture, and the secretary's agents, to enforce this chapter and of the county attorneys and of the attorney general of the state to co-operate with the secretary in the enforcement of this chapter.

[C35, §3137-g4; C39, §3137.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199.14]

199.15 Permit — fee — fraud.

A person shall not sell, distribute, advertise, solicit orders for, offer or expose for sale, agricultural or vegetable seed without first obtaining from the department a permit to engage in the business. A permit is not required of persons selling seeds which have been packed and distributed by a person holding and having in force a permit. A permit is not required of persons selling or advertising seed of their own production, provided that the seed is stored or delivered to a purchaser only on or from the farm or premises where grown. The fee for a new permit is ten dollars and the fee for a renewed permit is based on the gross annual sales of seeds in Iowa during the previous twelve-month period under the permit holder's label and all permits expire on the first day of July following date of issue. Permits shall be issued subject to the following fee schedule:

Gross sales of seeds		Fee
Not more than	$ 25,000	$10
Over $25,000 but not exceeding	50,000	20
Over $50,000 but not exceeding	100,000	30
Over $100,000 but not exceeding	200,000	40

For each additional increment of one hundred thousand dollars of sales in Iowa the fee shall increase by ten dollars. The fee shall not exceed five hundred dollars for a permit holder.

After due notice given at least ten days prior to a date of hearing fixed by the secretary, the department may revoke or refuse to renew a permit issued under this section if a violation of this chapter or if intent to defraud is established. The failure to fulfill a contract to repurchase the seed crop produced from any agricultural seed, if the crop meets the requirements set forth in the contract and the standards specified in this chapter, is prima-facie evidence of intent to defraud the purchaser at the time of entering into the contract. However, this does not apply when seed stock is furnished by the contractor to the grower at no cost.

199.16 Permit holder's bond.

It is unlawful for the holder of any permit to enter into a contract with a person who purchases agricultural seed whereby the permit holder agrees to repurchase the seed crop produced from the purchased seed at a price in excess of the current market price at time of delivery, unless the permit holder has on file with the department a bond, in a penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa, with sureties approved by the secretary, for the use and benefit of the person holding the contract who might have a cause of action of any nature arising from the purchase or contract. However, the aggregate liability of the surety to the person shall not exceed the sum of the bond.

199.17 Records and seed samples.

A person whose name appears on the label as handling agricultural or vegetable seed subject to this chapter shall keep for a period of two years complete records of each lot of agricultural or vegetable seed handled and shall keep for one year a file sample of each lot of seed after final disposition of the lot. The records and samples pertaining to the shipments involved shall be accessible for inspection by the department during the customary business hours.

200.1 Title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited by the short title of "Iowa Fertilizer Law."

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.1]

200.2 Enforcing official.

This chapter shall be administered by the secretary of agriculture, hereinafter referred to as the secretary.

200.3 Definitions of words and terms.

When used in this chapter:

1. The term "fertilizer" means any substance containing one or more recognized plant nutrient which is used for its plant nutrient content and which is designed for use and claimed to have value in promoting plant growth except unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures or calcium and magnesium carbonate materials used primarily for correcting soil acidity.

2. The term "fertilizer material" means any substance used as a fertilizer or for compounding a fertilizer containing one or more of the recognized plant nutrients which are used for promoting plant growth or altering plant composition.

3. The term "unmanipulated manures" means any substances composed primarily of excreta, plant remains, or mixtures of such substances which have not been processed in any manner.

4. The term "commercial fertilizer" includes fertilizer and fertilizer materials and fertilizer-pesticide mixtures.

5. A "specialty fertilizer" is a commercial fertilizer distributed primarily for nonfarm use, such as home gardens, lawns, shrubbery, flowers, golf courses, municipal parks, cemeteries, greenhouses and nurseries and may include commercial fertilizers used for research or experimental purposes.

6. The term "bulk fertilizer" shall mean commercial fertilizer delivered to the purchaser in the solid, liquid, or gaseous state, in a nonpackaged form to which a label cannot be attached.

7. The term "anhydrous ammonia" means the compound formed by the combination of two gaseous elements, nitrogen and hydrogen, in the proportion of one part nitrogen to three parts hydrogen by volume.

8. The term "pesticide" as used in this chapter means insecticides, miticides, nemacides, fungicides, herbicides and any other substance used in pest control.

9. A "soil conditioner" is any substance which when added to the soil or applied to plants will produce a favorable growth, yield or quality of crop or soil flora or fauna or other soil characteristics, other than a fertilizer, recognized pesticide, unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures or calcium and magnesium carbonate materials used primarily for correcting soil acidity.

10. The term "brand" means a term, design, or trademark used in connection with one or several grades of commercial fertilizer.

11. The term "grade" means the percentages of total nitrogen, available phosphorus or P₂O₅ or both, and soluble potassium or K₂O or both stated in whole numbers in same terms, order and percentages as in the "guaranteed analysis."

12. Guaranteed analysis:

a. The term "guaranteed analysis" shall mean the minimum percentage of plant nutrients claimed and reported as Total Nitrogen (N), Available Phosphorus (P) or P₂O₅ or both, Soluble Potassium (K) or K₂O or both and in the following form:

- Total Nitrogen (N) _____ percent
- Available Phosphorus (P) or P₂O₅ or both _____ percent
- Soluble Potassium (K) or K₂O or both _____ percent

Registration and guarantee of water soluble phosphorus (P) or (P₂O₅) shall be permitted.

b. The term "guaranteed analysis", in the form specified in paragraph "a", includes:

(1) For unacidulated mineral phosphatic materials and basic slag, both total and available phosphorus or P₂O₅ or both and the degree of fineness. For bone tankage and other organic phosphatic materials, total phosphorus or P₂O₅ or both.

(2) When any additional plant nutrient elements contained in a substance as identified in subsection 1 of this section, are claimed in writing, they shall be identified in the guarantee, expressed as the element, and shall be subject to inspection and analysis in accordance with the methods and regulations that may be prescribed by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

13. The term "official sample" means any sample of commercial fertilizer taken by the secretary or the secretary's agent.

14. The term "ton" means a net weight of two thousand pounds avoirdupois.

15. The term "percent or percentage" means the percentage by weight.

16. The term "person" includes individual, partnership, association, firm and corporation.

17. The term "distributor" means any person who imports, consigns, manufactures, produces, compounds, mixes, or blends commercial fertilizer, or who offers for sale, sells, barters, or otherwise distributes commercial fertilizer in this state.

18. The term "sell" or "sale" includes exchange.

19. "Anhydrous ammonia plant" means a facility used for the manufacture or distribution of the compound formed by the combination of two gaseous elements, nitrogen and hydrogen, in the proportion of one part nitrogen to three parts hydrogen by volume.

20. "Established date of operation" means the date on which an anhydrous ammonia plant commenced operating. If the physical facilities of the plant are subsequently expanded, the established date of operation for each expansion is deemed to be a separate and independent "established date of operation" established as of the date of commencement of the expanded operations. The commencement of expanded operations does not divest the plant of a previously established date of operation.

21. "Established date of ownership" means the date of the recording of an appropriate instrument of title establishing the ownership of real estate.

22. "Rule" means a rule as defined in section 17A.2 which materially affects the operation of an anhydrous ammonia plant. The term includes a rule which was in effect prior to July 1, 1984.

23. "Nuisance" means public or private nuisance as defined by statute or by the common law.

24. "Nuisance action or proceeding" means an action, claim or proceeding brought at law, in equity, or as an administrative proceeding, which is based on nuisance.

25. "Owner" means the person holding record title to real estate, and includes both legal and equitable interest under recorded real estate contracts.

26. Words importing the singular number may extend and be applied to several persons or things, and words importing the plural number may include the singular.

200.4 Licenses.

1. Any person who manufactures, mixes, blends, or mixes to customers order any fertilizer or soil conditioner offered for sale, sold, or distributed in Iowa must first obtain a license from the secretary of agriculture and shall pay a ten-dollar license fee for each plant or place of manufacture, from which fertilizer or soil conditioner products are sold or distributed in Iowa. Such license fee shall be paid annually on July 1 of each year and the manufacturer, blender or mixer shall at the same time, list the name and address of each such plant or place of manufacture, from which sale or distribution is made.

This subsection shall not apply to a manufacturer who manufactures "specialty fertilizer" only, as defined in section 200.3, subsection 5, in packages of twenty-five pounds or less.

2. Said licensee shall at all times produce an intimate and uniform mixture of fertilizers or soil conditioners. When two or more fertilizer materials are delivered in the same load, they shall be thoroughly and uniformly mixed unless they are in separate compartments.

[C46, 50, 54, §200.2, 200.4, 200.6; C58, 62, §200.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.4]

Referred to in §200.7, 200 9

200.5 Registration.

1. Each brand and grade of commercial fertilizer and each soil conditioner shall be registered before being offered for sale, sold or otherwise distributed in this state; except that a commercial fertilizer formulated according to special specifications furnished by a consumer to fill the consumer's order shall not be required to be registered, but shall be labeled as provided in subsection 3 of section 200.6. The application for registration shall be submitted to the secretary on forms furnished by the secretary and shall be accompanied by a label setting forth the guaranteed analysis which shall be the same as that appearing on the registered product.

2. All registration will be permanent, provided, however, that the secretary may request a listing of products to be currently manufactured. The application shall include the following information in the following order:

- a. Net weight, if sold in packaged form.
- b. Name and address of the registrant.
- c. Name of product.
- d. Brand.
- e. Grade.
- f. Guaranteed analysis.

3. In addition to the information required in subsection 2 of this section, applications for registration of soil conditioners must include the name or chemical designation and percentage of content of each of the active ingredients.

4. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing, following due notice, to adopt rules regulating the labeling and registration of specialty fertilizers and other fertilizer products, when necessary in the secretary's opinion. The secretary may require any reasonable information in addition to subsection 12 of section 200.3, which is necessary and useful to the purchasers of specialty fertilizers of this state and to promote uniformity among states.

5. The secretary is authorized after public hearing, following due notice, to establish minimum acceptable levels of trace and secondary elements recognized as effective to aid crops produced in Iowa and to require such warning statements as may be deemed necessary to prevent injury to crops.

6. The secretary, whenever the secretary deems it necessary in the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of additional data about any fertilizer or product to support the claims made for it. If it appears to the secretary that the composition of the article is such as to warrant the claims made for it, and if the article, its labeling and other material required to be submitted, comply with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary shall register the product.

7. If it does not appear to the secretary that the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it, or if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted does not comply with the provision of this chapter, the secretary shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the article, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fails to comply with this chapter so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections before resubmitting the label.

8. It shall be the responsibility of the registrant to submit satisfactory evidence of favorable effects and safety of the product.

9. A distributor shall not be required to register any brand and grade of commercial fertilizer which is already registered under this chapter by another person.

10. The advisory committee created in section 206.23 shall advise and assist the secretary on the registration of a product of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner under the provisions of this chapter.

[S13, §2528-f, -f1; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3139-3141; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §200.4; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.5]

Referred to in § 200 6(1, 2), 200 13

200.6 Labeling.

1. Any commercial fertilizer offered for sale or sold or distributed in this state in bags, or other containers, shall have placed on or affixed to the container in legibly written or printed form, the information required by subsection 2 of section 200.5; either on tags affixed to the end of the package or directly on the package.

2. If distributed in bulk, the shipment must be accompanied by a written or printed statement giving the purchaser's name and address in addition to the labeling requirement set forth in subsection 2 of section 200.5.

3. A commercial fertilizer formulated according to specifications which are furnished by a consumer prior to mixing shall be labeled to show the net weight, guaranteed analysis, and the name and address of the distributor and may show the net weight and guaranteed analysis of each of the fertilizer materials or soil conditioners used. It is the responsibility of the distributor to mix these materials uniformly and intimately so that when sampled in the prescribed manner the resulting analysis would meet the guarantee.

4. All bulk bins or intermediate storage of bulk commercial fertilizer where being offered for sale or distributed direct to the consumer shall be labeled showing brand, name and grade of product.

5. All fertilizers distributed or stored in bulk, unless in the manufacturers authorized containers shall be labeled as the responsibility of the possessor.

6. Soil conditioners shall be labeled in accordance with subsection 1 of this section and in addition shall show the name or chemical designation and content of the active ingredients.

[S13, §2528-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3142; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §200.5; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.6]

Referred to in §200 5(1), 200 13

200.7 Fertilizer-pesticide mixture.

Only those persons licensed under section 200.4 shall be permitted to add pesticides to commercial fertilizers. These persons shall at all times produce a uniform mixture of fertilizer and pesticide and shall register and label their product in compliance with both the Iowa Pesticide Act* and this chapter.

[C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.7]

200.8 Inspection fees.

1. There shall be paid by the licensee to the secretary for all commercial fertilizers and soil conditioners sold, or distributed in this state, an inspection fee to be fixed annually by the secretary of agriculture at not more than twenty cents per ton: Except sales for manufacturing purposes only are hereby exempted from fees but must still be reported showing manufacturer who purchased same. Payment of said inspection fee by any licensee shall exempt all other persons, firms or corporations from the payment thereof.

On individual packages of specialty fertilizer containing twenty-five pounds or less, there shall be paid in lieu of the annual license fee and the semiannual inspection fee as set forth in this chapter, an annual registration and inspection fee of twenty-five dollars for each brand and grade sold or distributed in the state. In the event that any person sells specialty fertilizer in packages of twenty-five pounds or less and also in packages of more than twenty-five pounds, this annual registration and inspection fee shall apply only to that portion sold in packages of twenty-five pounds or less, and that portion sold in packages of more than twenty-five pounds shall be subject to the same inspection fee as fixed by the secretary of agriculture as provided in this chapter.

2. Every licensee and any person required to pay an annual registration and inspection fee under this chapter in this state shall:

a. File not later than the last day of January and July of each year, on forms furnished by secretary, a semiannual statement setting forth the number of net tons of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioners distributed in this state by grade for each county during the preceding six months' period; and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in subsection 1 of this section. However, in lieu of the semiannual statement by grade for each county, as hereinabove provided for, the registrant, on individual packages of commercial fertilizer containing twenty-five pounds or less, shall file not later than the last day of July of each year, on forms furnished by the secretary, an annual statement setting forth the number of net tons of commercial fertilizer distributed in this state by grade during the preceding twelve-month period, but no inspection fee shall be due thereon.

b. If the tonnage report is not filed or the payment of inspection fees, or both, is not made within ten days after the last day of January and July of each year as required in paragraph "a" of this subsection, a penalty amounting to ten percent of the amount due, if any, shall be assessed against the licensee. In any case, the penalty shall be no less than fifty dollars. The amount of fees due, if any, and penalty shall constitute a debt and become the basis of a judgment against the licensee.

3. If there is an unencumbered balance of funds in the fertilizer fund on June 30 of any fiscal year equal to or exceeding three hundred fifty thousand dollars, the secretary of agriculture shall reduce the per ton fee provided for in subsection 1 for the next fiscal year in such amount as will result in an ending estimated balance for the June 30 of the next fiscal year of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

[C46, 50, 54, §200.15; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.8]

Referred to in §200.9

200.8(3) Amend
Ch 142, §1-85 Acts

200.9 Fertilizer fund.

Fees collected for licenses and inspection fees under sections 200.4 and 200.8 shall be deposited in the treasury to the credit of the fertilizer fund to be used only by the department of agriculture for the purpose of inspection, sampling, analysis, preparation and publishing of reports and other expenses necessary for administration of this chapter. The secretary may assign moneys to the Iowa agricultural experiment station for research, work projects, investigations as may be needed for the specific purpose of improving the regulatory functions for enforcement of this chapter.

200.10 Inspection, sampling and analysis.

1. It shall be the duty of the secretary, who may act through an authorized agent, to sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test commercial fertilizers or soil conditioners distributed within this state at time and place and to such an extent as the secretary may deem necessary, to determine whether such commercial fertilizers and soil conditioners are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. In the performance of the foregoing duty, the secretary shall counsel with the director of the Iowa agricultural experimental station in respect to the time, place and extent of sampling. The secretary individually or through an agent is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises or conveyances during regular business hours in order to have access to commercial fertilizers or soil conditioners subject to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations pertaining thereto. It shall be the duty of the secretary to maintain a laboratory with the necessary equipment and to employ such employees as may be necessary to aid in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

2. The methods of sampling and analysis shall be the official methods of the association of official agricultural chemists in all cases where methods have been adopted by the association.

The findings of the state chemist or the state chemist's deputy, as shown by the sworn statement of the results of analysis of official samples of any brand and grade of commercial fertilizer, fertilizer material or soil conditioner, shall constitute prima-facie evidence of their correctness in the courts of this state, as to the particular lots sampled and analyzed.

3. The secretary, in determining for administrative purposes whether any commercial fertilizer is deficient in plant food, or soil conditioner deficient in guaranteed active ingredients, shall be guided by the official sample as defined in subsection 13 of section 200.3, and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsection 2 of this section.

4. The results of official analysis of any commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner which has been found to be in violation of any provision of this chapter, shall be forwarded by the secretary to the registrant. Upon request, the secretary shall furnish to the registrant a portion of any sample.

200.11 Filler material.

It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, offer for sale or sell in this state, any commercial fertilizer, or soil conditioner containing any substance used as a filler that is injurious to crop growth or deleterious to the soil, or to use in such commercial fertilizer, or soil conditioner as a filler any substance that contains inert or useless plant food material for the purpose or with the effect of deceiving or defrauding the purchaser.

200.12 False or misleading statements.

A commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner is misbranded if it does not identify substances promoting plant growth as defined in subsection 1 of section 200.3, or if it carries any false or misleading statement upon or attached to the container or stated on the invoice or delivery ticket, or if the container or on the invoice or delivery ticket or in any advertising matter whatsoever connected with, accompanying or associated with the commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner. Further, the burden of proof of the desirable effect of the product on plant growth shall be the responsibility of the registrant.

200.13 Reports and publications.

The secretary shall publish at least annually, in such forms as the secretary may deem proper, information concerning the sales of commercial fertilizers, together with such data on their production and use as the secretary may consider advisable. The secretary shall report semiannually the results of the analysis based on official samples taken of commercial fertilizers sold within the state as compared with the analyses guaranteed under section 200.5 and section 200.6, together with name and address of the manufacturer or distributor of such commercial fertilizer at the time the official sample was taken. A copy of this semiannual report will be mailed by the secretary to each corresponding county extension director in the state.

200.14 Rules.

1. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing, following due notice, to adopt rules setting forth minimum general safety standards for the design, construction, location, installation and operation of equipment for storage, handling, transportation by tank truck or tank trailer, and utilization of anhydrous ammonia. The rules shall be such as are reasonably necessary for the protection and safety of the public and persons using anhydrous ammonia, and shall be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety.

It is hereby declared that rules in substantial conformity with the published standards of the agricultural ammonia institute for the design, installation and construction of containers and pertinent equipment for the storage and handling of anhydrous ammonia, shall be deemed to be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety.

All anhydrous ammonia equipment shall be installed and maintained in a safe operating condition and in conformity with the rules and regulations of the secretary of agriculture. No person, firm or corporation, other than the owner and those authorized by the owner to do so, shall sell, fill, refill, deliver or permit to be delivered, or use in any manner any an-hydrous ammonia container or receptacle for any gas, compound for any other purpose whatsoever.

2. The secretary is hereby charged with the enforcement of this chapter, and after due publicity and due public hearing, is empowered to promulgate and adopt such reasonable rules as may be necessary in order to carry into effect the purpose and intent of this chapter or to secure the efficient administration thereof.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the use of storage tanks smaller than transporting tanks nor the transfer of all kinds of fertilizer including anhydrous ammonia directly from transporting tanks to implements of husbandry, if proper safety precautions are observed.

[C46, 50, 54, §200.13; C58, 62, §200.15; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.14]

Referred to in §200.21

200.15 Refusal to register, or cancellation of registration and licenses.

The secretary is authorized and empowered to cancel the registration of any product of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner or license or to refuse to register any product of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner or refuse to license any applicant as herein provided, upon satisfactory evidence that the registrant or licensee has used fraudulent or deceptive practices or who willfully violates any provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder: Except no registration or license shall be revoked or refused until the registrant or licensee shall have been given the opportunity to appear for a hearing by the secretary.

200.16 "Stop sale" orders.

The secretary may issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale, use or removal" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner, and to hold at a designated place when the secretary finds said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner is being offered or exposed for sale in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or any of the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder until the law has been complied with and said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner is released in writing by the secretary or said violation has been otherwise legally disposed of by written authority, and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the withdrawal have been paid.

200.17 Seizure, condemnation and sale.

Any lot of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner not in compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to seizure on complaint of the secretary to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county or adjoining county in which said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner is located. In the event the court finds the said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner to be in violation of this chapter and orders the condemnation of said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner, it shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the quality of the commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner and the laws of the state: Except in no instance shall the disposition of said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner be ordered by the court without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for release of said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner or for permission to reprocess or relabel said commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner to bring it into compliance with this chapter.

200.18 Violations.

1. If it shall appear from the examination of any commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner or any anhydrous ammonia installation, equipment, or operation that any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder have been violated, the secretary shall cause notice of the violations to be given to the registrant, distributor, or possessor from whom said sample was taken; any person so notified shall be given opportunity to be heard under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the secretary. If it appears after such hearing, either in the presence or absence of the person so notified, that any of the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations issued thereunder have been violated, the secretary may certify the facts to the proper prosecuting attorney.

2. Any person violating any provision of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or the secretary's representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of seizure proceedings minor violations of the chapter when the secretary believes that the public interest will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

4. It shall be the duty of each county attorney to whom any violation is reported, to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay.

5. The secretary is hereby authorized to apply for and the court to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated under the chapter notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law, said injunction to be issued without bond.

[C46, 50, 54, §200.11, 200.14; C58, 62, §200.19; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §200.18]

200.19 Exchanges between manufacturers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict or avoid sales or exchanges of commercial fertilizers or soil conditioners to each other by importers, manufacturers, or manipulators who mix fertilizer materials for sale or as preventing the free and unrestricted shipments of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner to manufacturers or manipulators who have registered their brands as required by the provisions of this chapter.

200.20 Phosphoric acid, nitrogen and potash requirements.

No phosphatic fertilizer containing less than eighteen percent available phosphoric acid (P_2O_5), nor any nitrogen fertilizer containing less than fifteen percent total nitrogen (N), nor any potash fertilizer containing less than fifteen percent soluble potash (K_2O), nor any mixed fertilizer in which the sum of the guaranteed analysis of total nitrogen (N), available phosphoric acid (P_2O_5), and soluble potash (K_2O), totals less than twenty percent shall be offered for sale, sold, or distributed in this state. This section shall neither apply to specialty fertilizers as defined in section 200.3, subsection 5, nor to any fertilizer designed to be applied and ordinarily applied directly to growing plant foliage to stimulate further growth.

200.21 Compliance — a defense to certain nuisance actions.

In a nuisance action or proceeding against an anhydrous ammonia plant brought by or on behalf of the person whose established date of ownership is subsequent to the established date of operation of an anhydrous ammonia plant, proof of compliance with applicable provisions of this chapter and applicable rules adopted pursuant to section 200.14 shall be a defense to a nuisance action or proceeding.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Agricultural lime", "limestone" or "aglime" shall include all calcium and magnesium products sold for agricultural purposes in the oxide, hydrate, or carbonate form; such form being designated as quick-lime, hydrated lime, carbonate of lime, and crushed or ground limestone.
 2. "ASCS" shall mean Iowa agricultural stabilization and conservation service state office of the United States department of agriculture.
 3. "ECCE" shall mean effective calcium carbonate equivalent.
 4. "Number four", "number eight" and "number sixty" mesh sieve as used herein shall mean four, eight and sixty meshes respectively per linear inch, according to the specifications of the American society for testing materials.
 5. "Permanent fixed plants" as used in this chapter shall mean stationary crushing and screening equipment which is immobile.
 6. "Portable plants" as used in this chapter shall mean mobile crushing and screening equipment mounted on wheels.
 7. "Ton" shall mean two thousand avoirdupois pounds.
- [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §201.4; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §201.1]

201.2 License to sell.

Before any person shall sell, offer for sale, or dispose of in this state any agricultural lime to be used for soil fertility or the correction of soil acidity, such person shall file with the secretary of agriculture an acceptable application for a license to sell, together with the license fee, on or before January 31 of each year. The application shall be sworn to before a notary public, or other proper official, stating the name of the manufacturer or shipper, the location of the principal office of the manufacturer or shipper, and the name, brand, or trademark under which the agricultural lime will be sold.

201.3 Fee.

The annual license fee shall be twenty-five dollars.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §201.3]

201.4 Issuance of license.

Upon the acceptance of the application and the proper fee, the secretary of agriculture shall issue a license for the current year. The payment of such license fee shall exempt any agent or dealer of a licensee from the licensing requirements of this chapter. All licenses shall expire on January 31 of each year.

201.5 Analyses.

Agricultural lime, limestone or aglime sold, offered, or exposed for sale in this state shall be analyzed on the basis of the number of pounds of effective calcium carbonate equivalent per ton, using the method set forth in subsections 1, 2, and 3 of this section:

1. A fineness factor shall be determined as follows:
 - a Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number four sieve by one-tenth.
 - b Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number eight sieve by three-tenths.
 - c Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number sixty sieve by six-tenths. Add the results obtained from paragraphs "a", "b", and "c" of this subsection to obtain the fineness factor.
2. Multiply the fineness factor obtained by using the method set forth in subsection 1 of this section by the percent of calcium carbonate equivalent in the agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime to obtain the percent of ECCE.
3. The number of pounds of ECCE per ton of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall be determined by multiplying two thousand pounds by the percent of ECCE determined as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

[C27, 31, 35, §3142-b1; C39, §3142.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §201.5]

Referred to in §201 7, 201 8

201.6 Samples — how obtained.

Samples of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime within the meaning of this chapter for analyzing the number of pounds of ECCE shall be obtained by taking such sample from the manufacturer's or producer's production belt as the material is being produced. Sampling of stockpiles shall be made only when there is a stockpile having no certification of ECCE, as herein provided. Samples shall be taken at locations where there are permanent fixed plants once each calendar month during the months in which agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime is being manufactured or produced. Samples shall be taken at locations where there is no permanent fixed plant once during the first week that a portable plant is at a location and manufacturing or producing agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, and once each week thereafter during the period that the portable plant is at the location and manufacturing or producing agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime until a total of five representative samples have been accumulated and submitted for analysis, after which a sample shall be obtained and tested once each calendar month during the months in which agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime is being manufactured or produced. Samples from production belts shall be taken by the manufacturer or producer in the presence of a person or persons appointed by the secretary of agriculture. Samples from stockpiles, where stockpile sampling is authorized in this section, shall be taken by a person or persons appointed by the secretary of agriculture. The manufacturer or producer of agricultural lime, limestone or aglime shall notify the secretary of agriculture or person or persons appointed by the secretary of the manufacture or production of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime so that samples may be taken in compliance with this section.

Referred to in §201 7, 201 11, 201 12

201.7 Submission to university.

Samples of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime taken as provided in section 201.6 may be submitted by the secretary of agriculture, or person or persons appointed by the secretary, to the Iowa State University of science and technology for analyzing in accordance with the provisions of section 201 5 The results of the analysis of each sample shall be submitted to the secretary of agriculture

201.3 Amend Ch 142, §2-85 Acts

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §201 7]

Referred to in §201 8 201 12

201.8 Certification.

The secretary of agriculture shall, upon receipt of the analysis provided in section 201 7 certify the number of pounds of ECCE, using the method provided in section 201 5, to the manufacturer or producer from whom the sample was obtained by written notice and forwarded by United States mail The effective date of the certification shall be on a Monday but not less than seven days from date of mailing and the date of mailing shall not be counted as one of the seven days

Each certification of ECCE shall be based on the average of a maximum of five analyses obtained from five samples Each new analysis received shall be added to the previous five analyses and the oldest analysis shall be omitted Less than five analyses shall be averaged on the basis of the actual number of analyses Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a manufacturer or producer from having a certification on separate stockpiles of agricultural lime, limestone or aglime, provided that such separate stockpiles shall be separated from any other stockpile and such separate stockpiles shall have been sampled as provided in this chapter

201.9 Certification by the ASCS.

The secretary of agriculture may adopt the certification of pounds of ECCE issued by the ASCS and if adopted shall constitute compliance with this chapter

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §201 9]

201 10 Pounds of ECCE per ton.

All agricultural lime, limestone or aglime sold, offered, or exposed for sale shall be sold, offered, or exposed for sale by the pound of ECCE Any person who shall sell, offer, or expose for sale or who shall ship, transport, or deliver agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall affix, or cause to be affixed, to every bill of lading, scale ticket, ticket, delivery receipt or other instrument of sale, shipping or delivery, plainly thereon in the English language, the certification of the secretary of agriculture of the number of pounds of ECCE per ton in the agricultural lime, limestone or aglime, and the name, brand, or trademark under which the agricultural lime, limestone or aglime is sold, the name of the manufacturer, producer or shipper, and the location of the principal office of the manufacturer, producer or shipper The certification shall be in the following form

“Iowa Secretary of Agriculture Certified _____ pounds ECCE per ton”

The pounds of ECCE certified by the secretary of agriculture for the agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall be inserted in the space provided

In case the secretary of agriculture shall adopt the certification of number of pounds of ECCE of the ASCS, the following form will effect full compliance with this section

“ASCS certified _____ pounds ECCE per ton”

201 11 Penalties

Whoever sells offers for sale, or exposes for sale or distribution any bulk agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime without complying with the provisions of this chapter, or permits any certification to accompany or be printed or stamped on any bill of lading, scale ticket, ticket, or delivery receipt or other instrument of sale shipping or delivery, stating that the agricultural lime, limestone or aglime contains a different number of pounds of ECCE than certified as provided in this chapter, or who shall adulterate any agricultural lime limestone or aglime with foreign mineral matter or other foreign substances, or who shall adulterate the same with any substance injurious to the growth of plants or make any false report, shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor The secretary of agriculture may revoke the license of any person so convicted

In all litigation arising from the purchase, sale, or disposal of any agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, in which the composition of the same may be involved, a certified copy of the official analysis shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the composition of such agricultural lime limestone, or aglime The possession of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, in any building, room, railroad equipment, store, storeroom, warehouse, truck, or other place within this state, except by a person who has the same for the person's private use, without complying with the provisions of this chapter relative to agricultural lime, shall be prima facie evidence of keeping the same for the purpose of selling or disposal

It shall be the duty of the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's deputized representative to bring prosecution for all violations under the provisions of this chapter Action may be commenced by the attorney general when requested to do so by the secretary A person authorized by law to prosecute a case under the provisions of this chapter shall not be required to advance or secure costs therein If the defendant is acquitted or discharged from custody, or if the defendant is convicted and committed in default of the payment of fine and costs, such costs shall be certified under oath by the court to the county auditor who shall, when verified, issue a warrant on the county treasurer payable to the person or persons entitled thereto The secretary of agriculture shall rest the secretary's prosecution under this chapter on samples collected as provided in section 201 6

201 12 Rules and regulations.

The secretary of agriculture is hereby empowered to prescribe and enforce such rules and regulations relating to agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this chapter, including establishing and collecting a reasonable fee from the producers of agricultural lime to cover the cost of obtaining samples and analyzing same as prescribed in sections 201 6 and 201 7, and to refuse the registration of any agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime under a name or claim which would be misleading

201.13 Fees to state treasury.

The moneys received under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid into the state treasury. The secretary of agriculture shall issue a quarterly report showing a statement of moneys received from license fees for the sale of agricultural lime, limestone or aglime, and of fines collected from prosecutions in the enforcement of this chapter. The secretary shall also issue a quarterly report, which shall be available to the public, showing the certifications of ECCE for all agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime certified as provided ed in this chapter, which report shall be by manufacturer or producer and location or locations. The reports required by this section shall be issued not later than twenty days after March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31

201.14 Misdemeanor

Any person who shall obstruct the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's agents or representatives when in the discharge of any duty or duties prescribed by this chapter shall be deemed to be guilty of a simple misdemeanor

CHAPTER 202

COUNTY LIMESTONE QUARRIES

Referred to in §331 382

- 202 1 Board may establish
- 202 2 Equipment to operate
- 202 3 Petition by farm owners
- 202 4 Assessment lien
- 202 5 Interest on installments
- 202 6 Anticipatory warrants

- 202 7 Contents of warrants
- 202 8 Registration — call
- 202 9 Price of lime
- 202 10 Cost calculated
- 202 11 Relief labor

202.1 Board may establish.

The board of supervisors of any county where there is no privately owned quarry, or when a privately owned quarry is unable to supply limestone in the same amount and at the same price and terms, shall have the jurisdiction, power and authority, at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, locate, acquire by purchase or lease for the county use, any limestone quarry not at that time being operated by private individuals, corporations or associations, suitable for agricultural purposes. Such quarry shall not be so established, located, acquired, or leased unless and until the board has determined by actual investigation that the county can produce by such method lime at less cost than lime of the same quality may be purchased by the county and delivered in the county from other sources

202.2 Equipment to operate.

The board of supervisors shall have the authority and power to acquire such equipment as it shall deem necessary for the operation of any limestone quarry acquired for the production of agricultural lime

202.3 Petition by farm owners.

When a petition signed by fifty or more owners of farms within the county requesting the board of supervisors to sell lime to them under this chapter is filed with the board of supervisors, or when a petition signed by any number of owners of farms within the county requesting the board of supervisors to sell to them under this chapter an amount of lime aggregating not less than five thousand tons, is filed with the board of supervisors, said board may provide for and sell, under the provisions of this chapter, such lime as is requested to the said farm owners signing the petition and to any others requesting such sale of lime

202.4 Assessment lien.

The board shall have full power and authority to quarry, pulverize and sell or to purchase and resell to said farm owners in their respective counties, limestone for their use on their farms and may either sell same for cash, or on application of any farm owner in the county, written notice having been first given to the mortgage or lien holder and consent of said lien holders having been obtained in writing, which consent shall be filed in the office of the county auditor, provide agricultural lime, and deliver same to farm of applicant, payment for same to be provided for by a special assessment tax levy against the real estate so benefited in the amount of the sales value and transportation of said agricultural lime, which assessment shall be payable at the option of the owner of the farm or the owner's legal heirs or assignees in its entirety on or before December 1 following the receipt of said lime or may be paid in five equal annual installments payable on October 1 of each succeeding year with the ordinary taxes until said special assessment is fully paid. The special assessment shall, by consent, be a lien prior to any lien or liens upon said real estate.

Referred to in §202.5

202.5 Interest on installments.

All unpaid installments of the special assessment tax levied against the property described in section 202.4 shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A and all delinquent installments shall be subject to the same penalties as are now applied to delinquent general taxes.

202.6 Anticipatory warrants.

The board shall have the authority for the purpose of financing and carrying out the provisions of this chapter to issue anticipatory warrants drawn on the county, in denominations of one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars, which anticipatory warrants shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A; and shall not be a general obligation on the county and be secured only by the special assessment tax levy as herein provided.

202.7 Contents of warrants.

All such anticipatory warrants shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors and attested by the county auditor with the auditor's official seal attached thereto, and dated as of the date of sale, and shall not be sold for less than par value. Said bonds may be drawn and sold from time to time as the need for funds to carry out the purpose of this chapter arises.

[C39, §3142.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §202.7]

Referred to in §331.502

202.8 Registration — call.

All anticipatory warrants drawn under the provisions of this chapter, shall be numbered consecutively, and be registered in the office of the county treasurer and be subject to call in numerical order at any time when sufficient money derived from the sale of such limestone or the payment of a special assessment levied therefor, is in the hands of the county treasurer to retire any of said warrants together with accrued interest thereon.

[C39, §3142.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §202.8]

Referred to in §331.552

202.9 Price of lime.

The cost price of this agricultural lime shall be fixed by the board of supervisors, at not less than the actual cost of production at the quarry with ten percent added to provide for the cost of and depreciation on the equipment used in the production of said agricultural lime, together with any cost in transportation of the lime from the quarry to the farm of applicant.

[C39, §3142.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §202.9]

Referred to in §202.10

202.10 Cost calculated.

In calculating the cost price of the agricultural lime to the county as referred to in section 202.9, all elements of the cost of the operations, including the amortization of the purchase price of any quarries, lands, or equipment over the period during which any bonds, warrants or other obligations incurred by the county therefor shall mature, cost of all labor, proportionate and actual administrative overhead of county officials and other county executive employees in administering said chapter and conducting said business, repairs to plant machinery and equipment, wages of all employees and all other costs of production shall be kept in a separate system of accounts, and all books and records with respect to the cost of said agricultural limestone and the methods of bookkeeping and all records in connection with the production, disposal and sale of said agricultural limestone shall be open to the inspection of the public at all times.

202.11 Relief labor.

The board is specifically authorized to use relief labor in the production of agricultural lime as provided for in this chapter, but shall pay the prevailing labor scale for that type of work, customary in that vicinity.

General penalty, §189 21

- 203.1 Defined.
- 203.2 "Adulteration" defined.
- 203.3 Labeling of drugs.
- 203.4 Curative or therapeutic mislabeling.
- 203.5 Certain drugs exempted.

- 203.6 "Itinerant vendor of drugs" defined.
- 203.7 License required of itinerant — fee.
- 203.8 Commercial feeds excepted.
- 203.9 Pharmacopoeia and National Formulary.

203.1 Defined.

For the purposes of this chapter "drug" shall include all substances and preparations for internal or external use recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary and any substances or mixture of substances intended to be used for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, or prevention of diseases of either man or animal.

Similar statute, §155 3

203.2 "Adulteration" defined.

For the purposes of this chapter a drug shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If it is sold by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary and it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity as determined by the test laid down therein.

2. If its strength, quality or purity falls below the standard under which sold.

203.3 Labeling of drugs.

Every drug offered or exposed for sale, or sold in package or wrapped form, shall be labeled on the package or container as prescribed in sections 189.9 and 189.10, except that the quantity of the contents need not be stated; and in addition thereto shall have printed on the label the name and the exact quantity or proportion of any alcohol, morphine, opium, heroin, chloroform, cannabis, indica, chloral hydrate, acetanilide, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained in said drug. In case the principal package or container is enclosed in an outside wrapper or carton, the same label prescribed by this section for the package or container shall also be printed upon said wrapper or carton.

[S13, §4999-a35; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3145; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203.3]
Referred to in §203 4, 203 5

203.4 Curative or therapeutic mislabeling.

In addition to the requirements of section 203.3 a drug shall also be deemed to be improperly labeled if the package or container or printed matter accompanying it bears or contains any representation regarding the curative or therapeutic effect of such drug or any of the ingredients contained therein which is false and fraudulent.

203.5 Certain drugs exempted.

Nothing in section 203.3 shall be construed to apply:

1. To any drug specified in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary, which is in accordance therewith, and which is sold under the name given therein.

2. To the filling of prescriptions furnished by licensed physicians, dentists, or veterinarians, the originals of which are retained and filed by the pharmacist filling the same.

3. To any drug or medicine personally dispensed by any licensed physician, dentist, or veterinarian in the course of that person's practice.

203.6 "Itinerant vendor of drugs" defined.

"Itinerant vendor of drugs" shall mean any person who goes from place to place, or from house to house, and sells, offers or exposes for sale any drug as defined in this chapter.

203.7 License required of itinerant — fee.

Every itinerant vendor of drugs or medicines shall procure an annual license from the pharmacy examiners. The fee for such license shall be fifty dollars; such license may be transferred by the licensee upon the payment of a fee of one dollar to the pharmacy examiners. No license fee shall be required from any person who exclusively takes bona fide orders for transmission to the company and where such orders are shipped direct to the customer by or through a common carrier.

203.8 Commercial feeds excepted.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as applying to commercial feeds so defined in section 198.3 [C35, §3149 e1, C39, §3149.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203.8]

203.9 Pharmacopoeia and National Formulary.

There shall be kept in every place in which drugs or medicines are compounded, a copy of the latest revision of the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary, which books shall be subject at all times to the inspection of the pharmacy examiners [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3150; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203.9]

203A.2 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter

- 1 The term "board" means the board of pharmacy examiners provided for in chapter 147
- 2 The term "person" includes individual, partnership, corporation and association
- 3 The term "drug" means (a) articles recognized in the official United States Pharmacopoeia, official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, or official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them, and (b) articles intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease in humans, and (c) articles (other than food) intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of humans, and (d) articles intended for use as a component of any articles specified in clause "a", "b", or "c", but does not include devices or their components, parts or accessories

4 The term "devices" (except when used in subsection 10 of this section and section 203A.3 subsection 7, and section 203A.10 subsection 2, and section 203A.13 subsection 3) means instruments, apparatus and contrivances, including their components, parts and accessories, intended (a) for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in humans, or (b) to affect the structure or any function of the human body

5 The term "cosmetic" means (a) articles intended to be rubbed, poured, sprinkled, or sprayed on, introduced into, or otherwise applied to the human body or any part thereof for cleansing, beautifying, promoting attractiveness, or altering the appearance, and (b) articles intended for use as a component of any such articles, except that such term shall not include soap

6 The term "official compendium" means the official United States Pharmacopoeia, official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them

7 The term "label" means a display of written, printed or graphic matter upon the immediate container of any article, and a requirement made by or under authority of this chapter that any word, statement, or other information appear on the label shall not be considered to be complied with unless such word, statement, or other information also appears on the outside container or wrapper, if any there be, of the retail package of such articles, or is easily legible through the outside container or wrapper

8. The term “immediate container” does not include package liners.

9. The term “labeling” means all labels and other written, printed, or graphic matter (a) upon an article or any of its containers or wrappers, or (b) accompanying such article.

10. If an article is alleged to be misbranded because the labeling is misleading, or if an advertisement is alleged to be false because it is misleading, then in determining whether the labeling or advertisement is misleading, there shall be taken into account (among other things), not only representations made or suggested by statement, words, design, device, sound, or in any combination thereof, but also the extent to which the labeling or advertisement fails to reveal facts material in the light of such representations or material with respect to consequences which may result from the use of the article to which the labeling or advertisement relates under the conditions of use prescribed in the labeling or advertisement thereof or under such conditions of use as are customary or usual.

11. The term “advertisement” means all representations disseminated in any manner or by any means, other than by labeling, for the purpose of inducing, or which are likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of drugs, devices, or cosmetics.

12. The representation of a drug, in its labeling or advertisement, as an antiseptic shall be considered to be a representation that it is a germicide, except in the case of a drug purporting to be, or represented as, an antiseptic for inhibitory use as a wet dressing, ointment, dusting powder, or such other use as involved prolonged contact with the body.

13. The term “new drug” means (a) any drug the composition of which is such that such drug is not generally recognized among experts qualified by scientific training and experience to evaluate the safety of drugs, as safe for use under the conditions prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof; or (b) any drug the composition of which is such that such drugs, as a result of investigations to determine its safety for use under such conditions, has become so recognized, but which has not otherwise than in such investigations, been used to a material extent or for a material time under such conditions.

14. The term “contaminated with filth” applies to any drug, device, or cosmetic not securely protected from dust, dirt, and as far as may be necessary by all reasonable means, from all foreign or injurious contaminations.

15. The provisions of this chapter regarding the selling of drugs, devices, or cosmetics, shall be considered to include the manufacture, production, processing, packing, exposure, offer, possession, and holding of any such articles in the conduct of any drug, or cosmetic establishment.

16. The term “federal Act” means the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (Title 21 U.S.C. 301 et seq.; 52 Stat. 1040 et seq.).

17. “Manufacturer” means a person who prepares, compounds, processes or fabricates any prescription drug.

18. “Packer” or “distributor” means a person who repackages or otherwise changes the container, wrapper or labeling of any prescription drug in furtherance of the distribution of the drug or cosmetic, but does not include a retailer who repackages a drug or cosmetic at the time of sale to its ultimate consumer.

 Referred to in §125 2, 155 3(16)

203A.3 Prohibited acts.

The following acts and the causing thereof within the state of Iowa are hereby prohibited:

1. The manufacture, sale, or delivery, holding or offering for sale of any drug, device, or cosmetic that is adulterated or misbranded.

2. The adulteration or misbranding of any drug, device, or cosmetic.

3. The receipt in commerce of any drug, device, or cosmetic that is adulterated or misbranded, and the delivery or proffered delivery thereof for pay or otherwise.

4. The sale, delivery for sale, holding for sale, or offering for sale of any article in violation of section 203A.11.

5. The dissemination of any false advertisement.

6. The refusal to permit entry or inspection, or to permit the taking of a sample, as authorized by section 203A.16.

7. The giving of a guaranty or undertaking which guaranty or undertaking is false, except by a person who relied on a guaranty or undertaking to the same effect signed by, and containing the name and address of the person residing in the state of Iowa from whom the person received in good faith the drug, device, or cosmetic.

Referred to in §203A 2(4)

8. The removal or disposal of a detained or embargoed article in violation of section 203A.6.

9. The alteration, mutilation, destruction, obliteration, or removal of the whole or any part of the labeling, of or the doing of any other act with respect to a drug, device, or cosmetic, if such act is done while such article is held for sale and results in such article being misbranded.

10. Forging, counterfeiting, simulating, or falsely representing, or without proper authority using any mark, stamp, tag, label, or other identification device authorized or required by regulations promulgated under the provisions of this chapter.

11. The using, on the labeling of any drug or in any advertisement relating to such drug, of any representation or suggestion that an application with respect to such drug is effective under section 203A.11, or that such drug complies with the provisions of such section.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.3]

203A.4 Injunction.

In addition to the remedies hereinafter provided the board is hereby authorized to apply to the court for, and such court shall have jurisdiction upon hearing and for cause shown, to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating any provisions of this chapter; irrespective of whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at law.

203A.5 Penalties.

1. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor; but if the violation is committed after a conviction of such person under this section has become final, such person shall be guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

2. No person shall be subject to the penalties of subsection 1 of this section, for having violated provisions of this chapter if the person establishes a guaranty or undertaking signed by, and containing the name and address of the person residing in the state of Iowa from whom the person received in good faith the article, to the effect that such article is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, designating this chapter.

3. No publisher, radio-broadcast licensee, or agency or medium for the dissemination of an advertisement, except the manufacturer, packer, distributor, or seller of the article to which a false advertisement relates, shall be liable under this section by reason of the dissemination by the publisher, licensee, agency or medium of such false advertisement, unless the person has refused, on the request of the board to furnish the board the name and post-office address of the manufacturer, packer, distributor, seller, or advertising agency, residing in the state of Iowa, who cause the person to disseminate such advertisement.

203A.6 Detained or embargoed articles.

1. Whenever a duly authorized agent of the board finds or has probable cause to believe, that any drug, device, or cosmetic is adulterated, or so misbranded as to be dangerous or fraudulent, within the meaning of this chapter, the agent shall affix to such article a tag or other appropriate marking, giving notice that such article is, or is suspected of being, adulterated or misbranded and has been detained or embargoed, and warning all persons not to remove or dispose of such article by sale or otherwise until permission for removal or disposal is given by such agent or the court. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove or dispose of such detained or embargoed article by sale or otherwise without such permission.

2. When an article detained or embargoed under subsection 1 has been found by such agent to be adulterated or misbranded, the agent shall petition the judge of the district court in whose jurisdiction the article is detained or embargoed for a libel for condemnation of such article. When such agent has found that an article so detained or embargoed is not adulterated or misbranded, the agent shall remove the tag or other marking.

3. If the court finds that a detained or embargoed article is adulterated or misbranded, such article shall, after entry of the decree, be destroyed at the expense of the claimant thereof, under the supervision of such agent, and all court costs and fees, and storage and other proper expenses, shall be taxed against the claimant of such article or the claimant's agent; provided, that when the adulteration or misbranding can be corrected by proper labeling, or processing of the article, the court, after entry of the decree and after such costs, fees, and expenses have been paid and a good and sufficient bond, conditioned that such article shall be so labeled or processed, has been executed, may by order direct that such article be delivered to the claimant thereof for such labeling or processing under the supervision of an agent of the board. The expense of such supervision shall be paid by the claimant. Such bond shall be returned to the claimant of the article on representation to the court by the board that the article is no longer in violation of this chapter, and that the expenses of such supervision have been paid.

Referred to in §203A 3(8)

203A.7 Prosecution.

It shall be the duty of each attorney general, or county attorney to whom the board reports any violation of this chapter, to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted in the proper courts without delay and to be prosecuted in the manner required by law. Before any violation of this chapter is reported to any such attorney for the institution of a criminal proceeding, the person against whom such proceeding is contemplated shall be given appropriate notice and an opportunity to present the person's views before the board, or its designated agent, either orally or in writing, in person, or by attorney, with regard to such contemplated proceeding.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.7]
Referred to in §331 756(40)

203A.8 Minor violations.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the board to report for the institution of proceedings under this chapter, minor violations of this chapter, whenever the board believes that the public interest will be adequately served in the circumstances by a suitable written notice or warning.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.8]

203A.9 What deemed adulterated.

A drug or device shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. (a) If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance; or (b) if it has been produced, prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have been contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health; or (c) if it is a drug and its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health; or (d) if it is a drug and it bears or contains, for the purposes of coloring only, a coal-tar color other than one from a batch certified under the authority of the federal Act.

2. If it purports to be or is represented as a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, and its strength differs from, or its quality or purity falls below, the standard set forth in such compendium. Such determination as to strength, quality, or purity shall be made in accordance with the tests or methods of assay set forth in such compendium, or in the absence of or inadequacy of such tests or methods of assay, those prescribed under authority of the federal Act. No drug defined in an official compendium shall be deemed to be adulterated under this paragraph because it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity thereof set forth in such compendium if its difference in strength, quality, or purity from such standard is plainly stated on its label Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States it will be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia

3 If it is not subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section and its strength differs from, or its purity or quality falls below, that which it purports or is represented to possess

4 If it is a drug and any substance has been (a) mixed or packed therewith so as to reduce its quality or strength, or (b) substituted wholly or in part therefor

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A 9]

203A.10 What deemed misbranded.

A drug or device shall be deemed to be misbranded

1 If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular

2 If in package form unless it bears a label containing (a) the name and place of business of the manufacturer and if different, the name and place of the packer or distributor, and (b) an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count, provided, that under clause "a" of this subsection reasonable variations shall be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages shall be established, by regulations prescribed by the board Any drug subject to and in compliance with section 203A 19 shall be deemed in compliance with clause "a" of this subsection

3 If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use

4 If it is for use by humans and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha eucaine, barbituric acid, beta eucaine, bromal, canabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, codeine, heroin, marijuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substance, which derivative has been by the board after investigation, found to be, and by regulations under this chapter, designated as, habit forming, unless its label bears the name and quantity or proportion of such substance or derivative and in juxtaposition therewith the statement "Warning — May be habit forming"

5 If it is a drug and is not designated solely by a name recognized in an official compendium unless its label bears (a) the common or usual name of the drug, if such there be, and (b) in case it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the common or usual name of each active ingredient, including the kind and quantity or proportion of any alcohol, and also including, whether active or not, the name and quantity or proportion of any bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilid, acetphenetidin, amidopyrine, antipyrine, atro-

pine hyoscine, hyoscyamine arsenic, digitalis and digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, thyroid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein, provided, that to the extent that compliance with the requirements of clause "a" of this subsection is impracticable, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the board

6 Unless its labeling bears (a) adequate directions for use, and (b) such adequate warnings against use in those pathological conditions or by children where its use may be dangerous to health, or against unsafe dosage or methods or duration of administration or application in such manner and form, as are necessary for the protection of users, provided, that where any requirement of clause "a" of this subsection, applied to any drug or device is not necessary for the protection of the public health, the board shall promulgate regulations exempting such drug from such requirements

7 If it purports to be a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, unless it is packaged and labeled as prescribed therein, provided, that the method of packing may be modified with the consent of the board Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia

8 If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health No such regulation shall be established for any drug recognized in an official compendium until the board shall have informed the appropriate body charged with the revision of such compendium of the need for such packaging or labeling requirements and such body shall have failed within a reasonable time to prescribe such requirements

9 (a) If it is a drug and its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading, or (b) if it is an imitation of another drug, or (c) if it is offered for sale under the name of another drug

10 If it is dangerous to health when used in the dosage, or with the frequency or duration prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof

11 If (a) it is a drug sold at retail and contains any quantity of aminopyrine, barbituric acid, pituitary, thyroid, or their derivatives, or (b) it is a drug or device sold at retail and its label bears a statement that it is to be dispensed or sold only by or on the prescription of a doctor, dentist or veterinarian, unless it is sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian who is licensed by law to administer such drug or device, and its label bears the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian

12 A drug sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian (except a drug sold in the course of the conduct of a business of selling drugs pursuant to diagnosis by mail) shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if a Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and b Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A 10]
Referred to in §203A 2(4) 203A 15(3)

203A.11 Application to sell new drugs.

1 No person shall sell, deliver, offer for sale, have for sale or give away any new drug unless (a) an application with respect thereto has become effective under section 505 of the federal Act, or (b) when not subject to the federal Act unless such drug has been tested and has not been found to be unsafe for use under the conditions prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof, and prior to selling or offering for sale such drug, there has been filed with the board an application setting forth (1) full reports of investigations which have been made to show whether or not such drug is safe for use, (2) a full list of the articles used as components of such drug, (3) a full statement of the composition of such drug, and (4) a full description of the methods used in, and the facilities and controls used for, the manufacture, processing, and packing of such drug. The application shall be accompanied by such samples of such drug and of the articles used as components thereof as the board may require, specimens of the labeling proposed to be used for such drug, and a fee of fifty dollars

2 An application provided for in subsection 1 part "b" shall become effective on the sixtieth day after the filing thereof, except that if the board finds after due notice to the applicant and giving the applicant an opportunity for a hearing, that the drug is not safe for use under the conditions prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the proposed labeling thereof, it shall, prior to the effective date of the application, issue an order refusing to permit the application to become effective

3 This section shall not apply

a To a drug intended solely for investigational use by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to investigate the safety in drugs, provided the drug is plainly labeled "For investigational use only", or b To a drug sold in this state at any time prior to the enactment of this chapter or introduced into interstate commerce at any time prior to the enactment of the federal Act, or c To any drug which is licensed under the virus, serum and toxin Act of July 1, 1902 (U S C 1934 ed title 42, Chap 4)

4 An order refusing to permit an application under this section to become effective may be revoked by the board

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A 11]
Referred to in §203A 3(4) 11)

203A.12 Adulterated cosmetics.

A cosmetic shall be deemed to be adulterated

1 If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to users under the conditions of use prescribed in the labeling or advertisement thereof, or under such conditions of use as are customary or usual, provided, that this provision shall not apply to coal tar hair dye, the label of which bears the following legend conspicuously displayed thereon "Caution — This product contains ingredients which may cause skin irritation on certain individuals and a preliminary test according to accompanying directions should first be made. This product must not be used for dyeing the eyelashes or eyebrows, to do so may cause blindness," and the labeling of which bears adequate directions for such preliminary testing. For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph five the term "hair dye" shall not include eyelash dyes or eyebrow dyes

2 If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance

3 If it has been produced, prepared, packed or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health

4 If its container is composed, in whole or in part of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health

5 If it is not a hair dye and it bears or contains a coal tar color other than one from a batch which has been certified under authority of the federal Act

203A.13 Misbranded cosmetics.

A cosmetic shall be deemed to be misbranded

1 If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular

2 If in package form unless it bears a label containing (a) the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor, and (b) an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure or numerical count, provided, that under clause "b" of this subsection reasonable variations shall be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages shall be established by regulations prescribed by the board

3 If any word, statement or other information required by or under authority of this chapter, to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs, or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use

4 If its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading

5 If it contains any poisonous or deleterious substance and is intended to be used in liquid, powdered or paste form and the label or container does not warn that the contents are dangerous to human life if taken internally

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A 13]
Referred to in §203A 2(4)

203A.14 False advertising.

1 An advertisement of a drug, device, or cosmetic shall be deemed to be false if it is false or misleading in any particular

2. For the purpose of this chapter the advertisement of a drug or device representing it to have any effect in albuminuria, appendicitis, arteriosclerosis, blood poison, bone disease, Bright's disease, cancer, carbuncles, cholecystitis, diabetes, diphtheria, dropsy, erysipelas, gallstones, heart and vascular diseases, high blood pressure, mastoiditis, measles, meningitis, mumps, nephritis, otitis-media, paralysis, pneumonia, poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis), prostate gland disorders, pyelitis, scarlet fever, sexual impotence, sinus infection, smallpox, tuberculosis, tumors, typhoid, uremia, venereal disease, shall also be deemed to be false, except that no advertisement not in violation of subsection 1 shall be deemed to be false under this subsection if it is disseminated only to doctors, dentists or veterinarians, or appears only in the scientific periodicals of these professions, or is disseminated only for the purpose of public-health education by persons not commercially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale of such drugs or devices; provided, that whenever the board determines that an advance in medical science has made any type of self-medication safe as to any of the diseases named above, the board shall by regulation authorize the advertisement of drugs having curative or therapeutic effect for such disease, subject to such conditions and restrictions as the board may deem necessary in the interests of public health; provided, that this subsection shall not be construed as indicating that self-medication for disease other than those named herein is safe or efficacious.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.14]

203A.15 Regulations by board.

1. The authority to promulgate regulations for the efficient enforcement of this chapter is hereby vested in the board. The board is hereby authorized to make the regulations promulgated under this chapter conform, insofar as practicable, with those promulgated under the federal Act.

2. Hearings authorized or required by this chapter shall be conducted by the board or such officer, agent or employee as the board may designate for the purpose.

3. Before promulgating any regulations contemplated by section 203A.10 subsections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 11, or section 203A.14, subsection 2, the board shall give appropriate notice of the proposal and of the time and place for a hearing.

203A.16 Authority of board.

The board or its duly authorized agent shall have free access at all reasonable hours to any factory, warehouse, or establishment, in which drugs, devices, or cosmetics are manufactured, processed, packed, or held for introduction into commerce, or to enter any vehicle being used to transport or hold such drugs, devices, or cosmetics in commerce, for the purpose:

1. Of inspecting such factory, warehouse, establishment, or vehicle to determine if any of the provisions of this chapter are being violated; and

2. To secure samples of any drug, device, or cosmetic after paying or offering to pay for such sample. It shall be the duty of the board to make or cause to be made examinations of samples secured under the provisions of this section to determine whether or not any provision of this chapter is being violated.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.16]
 Referred to in §203A.3(6)

203A.17 Dissemination of information.

1. The board may cause to be published from time to time reports summarizing all judgments, decrees, and court orders which have been rendered under this chapter, including the nature of the charge and the disposition thereof.

2. The board may also cause to be disseminated such information regarding drugs, devices, and cosmetics as the board deems necessary in the interest of the public health and the protection of the consumer against fraud. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the board from collecting, reporting, and illustrating the results of the investigations of the board.

203A.18 Analysis by state chemist.

Any analysis of drugs, devices, or cosmetics deemed necessary by the board in the enforcement of this chapter shall be made by the state chemist when requested by said board.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §203A.18]

203A.19 Information filed and placed on labels.

Any prescription drug, as defined in section 155.3, subsection 10, is misbranded unless:

1. The label sets forth:

a. The generic name of the drug, which shall be printed in a type size at least half as large as that used for the brand or trade name of the drug product; and

b. The name and place of business of the actual manufacturer of the finished dosage form of the drug and if different, the name and place of business of the packer or distributor of the drug.

2. There has been filed with the board by the manufacturer packer or distributor of the drug a statement which is accurate with respect to the drug setting forth the information required by subsection 1 together with all additional information relating to demonstrated bioavailability, side effects, contraindications and effectiveness as may be required by rules of the board.

[C77, 79, 81, §203A.19]

DIVISION I

204.101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Administer" means the direct application of a controlled substance, whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means, to the body of a patient or research subject by:

a. A practitioner, or in the practitioner's persence, by the practitioner's authorized agent; or

b. The patient or research subject at the direction and in the presence of the practitioner.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a physician, dentist, podiatrist or veterinarian from delegating the administration of controlled substances under this chapter to a nurse, intern, or other qualified individual or, as to veterinarians, to an orderly or assistant, under the veterinarian's direction and supervision; all pursuant to rules adopted by the board.

2 "Agent" means an authorized person who acts on behalf of or at the direction of a manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser. It does not include a common or contract carrier, public warehouse, or employee of the carrier or warehouse.

3 "Bureau" means the bureau of narcotics and dangerous drugs, United States department of justice, or its successor agency.

4 "Board" means the state board of pharmacy examiners.

5 "Department" means the department of public safety of the state of Iowa.

6 "Controlled substance" means a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in schedules I through V of division II of this chapter.

7 "Counterfeit substance" means a controlled substance which, or the container or labeling of which, without authorization, bears the trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, number or device, or any likeness thereof, of a manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser other than the person who in fact manufactured, distributed, or dispensed the substance.

8 "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

9 "Dispense" means to deliver a controlled substance to an ultimate user or research subject by or pursuant to the lawful order of a practitioner, including the prescribing, administering, packaging, labeling, or compounding necessary to prepare the substance for that delivery.

10 "Dispenser" means a practitioner who dispenses.

11 "Distribute" means to deliver other than by administering or dispensing a controlled substance.

12 "Distributor" means a person who distributes.

13 "Drug" means a Substances recognized as drugs in the official United States Pharmacopoeia, official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, or official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them.

b Substances intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in man or animals.

c Substances, other than food, intended to affect the structure or any function of the human body or animals, and d Substances intended for use as a component of any article specified in paragraphs "a", "b", or "c" of this subsection. It does not include devices or their components, parts, or accessories.

14 "Immediate precursor" means a substance which the board has found to be and by rule designates as being the principal compound commonly used or produced primarily for use, and which is an immediate chemical intermediary used or likely to be used in the manufacture of a controlled substance, the control of which is necessary to prevent, curtail, or limit manufacture.

15 "Isomer" means, except as otherwise designated, the optical isomer.

16 "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, propagation, compounding, conversion or processing of a controlled substance, either directly or by extraction from substances of natural origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis, and includes any packaging or repackaging of the substance or labeling or relabeling of its container, except that this term does not include the preparation or compounding of a controlled substance by an individual for the individual's own use, or the preparation, compounding, packaging, or labeling of a controlled substance.

a By a practitioner as an incident to administering or dispensing of a controlled substance in the course of the practitioner's professional practice, or b By a practitioner, or by an authorized agent under the practitioner's supervision, for the purpose of, or as an incident to, research, teaching, or chemical analysis and not for sale.

17 "Marijuana" means all parts of the plants of the genus cannabis, whether growing or not, the seeds thereof, the resin extracted from any part of the plant, and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of the plant, its seeds or resin, including tetrahydrocannabinols. It does not include the mature stalks of the plant, fiber produced from the stalks, oil or cake made from the seeds of the plant, any other compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the mature stalks (except the resin extracted therefrom), fiber, oil or cake or the sterilized seed of the plant which is incapable of germination.

18 "Narcotic drug" means any of the following, whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis.

a Opium and opiate, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium or opiate.

b Any salt, compound, isomer, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of the substances referred to in paragraph "a" but not including the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium.

c Opium poppy and poppy straw.

19 "Opiate" means any substance having an addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability similar to morphine or being capable of conversion into a drug having addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability. It does not include, unless specifically designated as controlled under section 204 201, the dextrorotatory isomer of 3-methoxy-n-methylmorphinan and its salts (dextro-methorphan). It does include its racemic and levorotatory forms.

20 "Opium poppy" means the plant of the species Papaver somniferum L., except its seeds.

21 "Person" means individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, or any other legal entity.

22 "Poppy straw" means all parts, except the seeds, of the opium poppy, after mowing.

23 "Practitioner" means either a A physician, dentist, podiatrist, veterinarian, scientific investigator or other person licensed, registered or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to or to administer a controlled substance in the course of professional practice or research in this state.

b A pharmacy, hospital or other institution licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to or to administer a controlled substance in the course of professional practice or research in this state.

24. "Production" includes the manufacture, planting, cultivation, growing, or harvesting of a controlled substance.

25. "State," when applied to a part of the United States, includes any state, district, commonwealth, territory, insular possession, and any area subject to the legal authority of the United States of America.

26. "Ultimate user" means a person who lawfully possesses a controlled substance for the person's own use or for the use of a member of the person's household or for administering to an animal owned by the person or by a member of the person's household.

27. "Simulated controlled substance" means a substance which is not a controlled substance but which is expressly represented to be a controlled substance, or a substance which is not a controlled substance but which is impliedly represented to be a controlled substance and which because of its nature, packaging, or appearance would lead a reasonable person to believe it to be a controlled substance.

DIVISION II

STANDARDS AND SCHEDULES

204.201 Duty to recommend changes in schedules.

1. The board shall administer the regulatory provisions of this chapter. Annually, within thirty days after the convening of each regular session of the general assembly, the board shall recommend to the general assembly any deletions from, or revisions in the schedules of substances, enumerated in sections 204.204, 204.206, 204.208, 204.210 or 204.212, which it deems necessary or advisable. In making a recommendation to the general assembly regarding a substance, the board shall consider the following:

- a. The actual or relative potential for abuse;
- b. The scientific evidence of its pharmacological effect, if known;
- c. State of current scientific knowledge regarding the substance;
- d. The history and current pattern of abuse;
- e. The scope, duration, and significance of abuse;
- f. The risk to the public health;
- g. The potential of the substance to produce psychic or physiological dependence liability; and
- h. Whether the substance is an immediate precursor of a substance already controlled under this division.

2. After considering the above factors, the board shall make a recommendation to the general assembly, specifying the change which should be made in existing schedules, if it finds that the potential for abuse or lack thereof of the substance is not properly reflected by the existing schedules.

3. If the board designates a substance as an immediate precursor, substances which are precursors of the controlled precursor shall not be subject to control solely because they are precursors of the controlled precursor. Such designations shall be made pursuant to the procedures of chapter 17A.

4. If any new substance is designated as a controlled substance under federal law and notice of the designation is given to the board, the board shall similarly designate as controlled the new substance under this chapter after the expiration of thirty days from publication in the Federal Register of a final order designating a new substance as a controlled substance, unless within that thirty-day period the board objects to the new designation. In that case the board shall publish the reasons for objection and afford all interested parties an opportunity to be heard. At the conclusion of the hearing the board shall announce its decision. Upon publication of objection to a new substance being designated as a controlled substance under this chapter by the board, control under this chapter is stayed until the board publishes its decision. If a substance is designated as controlled by the board under this paragraph the control shall be temporary and if within sixty days after the next regular session of the general assembly convenes it has not made the corresponding changes in this chapter, the temporary designation of control of the substance by the board shall be nullified.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.201]

Referred to in §204 101(18)

204.202 Controlled substances — listed regardless of name.

The controlled substances listed in the schedules in sections 204.204, 204.206, 204.208, 204.210 and 204.212 are included by whatever official name, common or usual name, chemical name, or trade name is designated.

204.203 Substances listed in schedule I — criteria.

The board shall recommend to the general assembly that it place in schedule I any substance not already included therein if the board finds that the substance:

1. Has high potential for abuse; and
2. Has no accepted medical use in treatment in the United States; or lacks accepted safety for use in treatment under medical supervision.

If the board finds that any substance included in schedule I does not meet these criteria, it shall recommend that the general assembly place the substance in a different schedule or remove it from the list of controlled substances, as appropriate.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.203]

204.204 Schedule I — substances included.

1. The controlled substances listed in this section are included in schedule I.

2. Opiates. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, whenever the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

- a. Acetylmethadol.

- b* Allylprodine
- c* Alphacetylmethadol
- d* Alphameprodine
- e* Alphamethadol
- f* Alpha-Methylfentanyl (N (1 (alpha-methyl-beta phenyl) ethyl 4 piperidyl) propionanilide, 1 (1-methyl 2 phenylethyl) 4-(N-propanilido)piperidine)
- g* Benzethidine
- h* Betacetylmethadol
- i* Betameprodine
- j* Betamethadol
- k* Betaprodine
- l* Clonitazene
- m* Dextromoramide
- n* Difenoxin
- o* Diampromide
- p* Diethylthiambutene
- q* Dimenoxadol
- r* Dimepheptanol
- s* Dimethylthiambutene
- t* Dioxaphetyl butyrate
- u* Dipipanone
- v* Ethylmethylthiambutene
- w* Etonitazene
- x* Etoxadine
- y* Furethidine
- z* Hydroxypethidine
- aa* Ketobemidone
- ab* Levomoramide
- ac* Levophenacilmorphan
- ad* Morpheridine
- ae* Noracymethadol
- af* Norlevorphanol
- ag* Normethadone
- ah* Norpipanone
- ai* Phenadoxone
- aj* Phenampromide
- ak* Phenomorphan
- al* Phenoperidine
- am* Piritramide
- an* Proheptazine
- ao* Properidine
- ap* Propiram
- aq* Racemoramide
- ar* Sufentanil
- as* Tildine
- at* Trimeperidine
- 3 Opium derivatives Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following opium derivatives, their salts, isomers and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation
 - a* Acetorphine
 - b* Acetyldihydrocodeine
 - c* Benzylmorphine
 - d* Codeine methylbromide
 - e* Codeine N Oxide
 - f* Cyprenorphine
 - g* Desomorphine
 - h* Dihydromorphine
 - i* Etorphine (except hydrochloride salt)
 - j* Heroin
 - k* Hydromorphinol
 - l* Methyl-desorphine

- m* Methyl-dihydromorphine
- n* Morphine methylbromide
- o* Morphine methylsulfonate
- p* Morphine-N Oxide
- q* Myrophine
- r* Nicocodeine
- s* Nicomorphine
- t* Normorphine
- u* Phoclodine
- v* Thebacon
- w* Drotebanol
- 4 Hallucinogenic substances Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation, which contains any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances, or which contains any of its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation (for purposes of this paragraph only, the term "isomer" includes the optical, position and geometric isomers)
 - a* 4-bromo 2,5 dimethoxy-amphetamine Some trade or other names 4 bromo 2,5-dimethoxy a-methylphenethylamine, 4 bromo-2,5 DMA
 - b* 2,5 dimethoxyamphetamine Some trade or other names 2,5 dimethoxy a methylphenethy-lamine, 2,5 DMA
 - c* 4-methoxyamphetamine Some trade or other names 4 methoxy-a methylphenethylamine, par-amethoxyamphetamine, PMA
 - d* 5 methoxy 3,4-methylenedioxy amphetamine
 - e* 4-methyl 2,5-dimethoxyl-amphetamine Some trade or other names 4 methyl 2,5 dimethoxya-methylphenethylamine, "DOM", and "STP"
 - f* 3,4 methylenedioxy amphetamine, also known as MDA
 - g* 3,4,5 trimethoxy amphetamine
 - h* Bufotenine Some trade or other names 3 (B Dimethylaminoethyl) 5 hydroxyindole, 3 (2 dimethylaminoethyl) 5-indolol, N, N dimethylserotonin, 5 hydroxy-N, N dimethyltryptamine, mappine
 - i* Diethyltryptamine Some trade and other names N, N Diethyltryptamine, DET
 - j* Dimethyltryptamine Some trade or other names DMT
 - k* Ibogaine Some trade or other names 7 Ethyl 6,6B,7,8,9,10,12,13 octahydro 2-methoxy 6,9 methano-5H pyrido (1 , 2 1,2) azepino (5,4 b) indole, Tabernanthe iboga
 - l* Lysergic acid diethylamide
 - m* Marijuana, except as otherwise provided by rules of the board of pharmacy examiners for medicinal purposes
 - n* Mescaline
 - o* Parahexyl Some trade or other names 3
Hexyl 1 hydroxy 7,8,9,10 tetrahydro 6,6,9 trimethyl 6H dibenzo (b,d) pyran, synhexyl
 - p* Peyote, except as otherwise provided in subsection 8 Meaning all parts of the plant presently classified botanically as Lophophora williamsii Lemaire, whether growing or not, the seeds thereof, any extract from any part of such plant, and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of such plant, its seeds or extracts
 - q* N-ethyl 3 piperidyl benzilate

r N-methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate

s Psilocybin

t Psilocybin

u Tetrahydrocannabinols, except as otherwise provided by rules of the board of pharmacy examiners for medicinal purposes Synthetic equivalents of the substances contained in the plant, or in the resinous extractives of Cannabis, and synthetic substances, derivatives, and their isomers with similar chemical structure and pharmacological activity such as the following Δ^1 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers Δ^6 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers $\Delta^{3,4}$ cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers (Since nomenclature of these substances is not internationally standardized, compounds of these structures, regardless of numerical designation of atomic positions covered)

v Ethylamine analog of phencyclidine Some trade or other names N-ethyl 1 phenylcyclohexylamine, (1 phenylcyclohexyl) ethylamine, N (1 phenylcyclohexyl) ethylamine, cyclohexamine, PCE w Pyrrolidine analog of phencyclidine Some trade or other names 1-(1 phenylcyclohexyl)-pyrrolidine, PCPy, PHP

x Thiophene analog of phencyclidine Some trade or other names 1-(1 (2-thienyl)-cyclohexyl) piperidine, 2-thienylanalog of phencyclidine, TPCP, TCP

5 Depressants Unless specifically exempted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation

a Mecloqualone

b Reserved

6 Stimulants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substance having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers

a Fenethylamine

b N-ethylamphetamine

7 Exclusions This section does not apply to marijuana, tetrahydrocannabinols or chemical derivatives of tetrahydrocannabinol when utilized for medicinal purposes pursuant to rules of the state board of pharmacy examiners

8 Peyote Nothing in this chapter shall apply to peyote when used in bona fide religious ceremonies of the Native American Church, however, persons supplying the product to the church shall register, maintain appropriate records of receipts and disbursements of peyote, and otherwise comply with all applicable requirements of this chapter and rules adopted pursuant thereto

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 204, 82 Acts, ch 1044, §1, 2]

Referred to in §204 201(1) 204 202 204 303

204.205 Substances listed in schedule II — criteria.

The board shall recommend to the general assembly that it place in schedule II any substance not already included therein if the board finds that

1 The substance has high potential for abuse,

2 The substance has currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, or currently accepted medical use with severe restrictions, and

3 Abuse of the substance may lead to severe psychic or physical dependence

If the board finds that any substance included in schedule II does not meet these criteria, it shall recommend that the general assembly place the substance in a different schedule or remove it from the list of controlled substances, as appropriate

204.206 Schedule II — substances included.

1 Schedule II consists of the drugs and other substances, by whatever official name, common or usual name, chemical name, or brand name designated, listed in this section

2 Substances, vegetable origin or chemical synthesis Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following substances whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis a Opium and opiate, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium or opiate, excluding apomorphine, dextrophan, nalbuphine, naloxone, and naltrexone, and their respective salts, but including the following

(1) Raw opium

(2) Opium extracts

(3) Opium fluid extracts

(4) Powdered opium

(5) Granulated opium

(6) Tincture of opium

(7) Codeine

(8) Ethylmorphine

(9) Etorphine hydrochloride

(10) Hydrocodone, also known as dihydrocodeinone

(11) Hydromorphone, also known as dihydromorphinone

(12) Metopon

(13) Morphine

(14) Oxycodone

(15) Oxymorphone

(16) Thebaine

b Any salt, compound, derivative or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of the substances referred to in paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), except that these substances shall not include the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium

c Opium poppy and poppy straw

d Coca leaves and any salt, compound, derivative or preparation of coca leaves Decocainized coca leaves or extractions which do not contain cocaine or ecgonine are excluded from this paragraph The following substances and their salts, isomers and salts of isomers, if salts, isomers or salts of isomers exist under the specific chemical designation, are included in this paragraph

Ch 86, §2-85 Acts

204.206(3) Ad'd'l
Ch 86, §3-85 Acts

- (1) Cocaine
- (2) Ecgonine
- e Concentrate of poppy straw (the crude extract of poppy straw in either liquid, solid or powder form which contains the phenanthrene alkaloids of the opium poppy)
- 3 Opiates Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule any of the following opiates, including its isomers, esters, ethers, salts and salts of isomers, esters and ethers whenever the existence of such isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation, dextroprhan and levopropoxyphene excepted
 - a Alphaprodine
 - b Anileridine
 - c Bezitramide
 - d Bulk dextropropoxyphene (nondosage forms)
 - e Dihydrocodeine
 - f Diphenoxylate
 - g Fentanyl
 - h Isomethadone
 - i Levomethorphan
 - j Levorphanol
 - k Metazocine
 - l Methadone
 - m Methadone intermediate, 4 cyano 2 dimethylamino 4,4 diphenyl butane
 - n Moramide-intermediate 2 methyl 3 morpholino 1,1 diphenylpropane carboxylic acid
 - o Pethidine (meperidine)
 - p Pethidine intermediate A 4 cyano 1 methyl 4 phenylpiperidine
 - q Pethidine-intermediate B, ethyl 4 phenylpiperidine 4 carboxylate
 - r Pethidine-intermediate C, 1 methyl 4 phenylpiperidine-4 carboxylic acid
 - s Phenazocine
 - t Piminodine
 - u Racemethorphan
 - v Racemorphan
- 4 Stimulants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system
 - a Amphetamine, its salts, isomers, and salts of its isomers
 - b Methamphetamine, its salts, isomers, and salts of its isomers
 - c Phenmetrazine and its salts
 - d Methylphenidate and its salts
- 5 Depressants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation
 - a Amobarbital
 - b Methaqualone
 - c Pentobarbital
 - d Phencyclidine
 - e Secobarbital
- 6 Immediate precursors Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any mate rial, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances

- a Immediate precursor to amphetamine and methamphetamine

- (1) Phenylacetone Some trade or other names phenyl 2 propanone, P2P, benzyl methyl ketone, methyl benzyl ketone

- b Immediate precursors to phencyclidine (PCP)

- (1) 1 phenylcyclohexylamine

- (2) 1 piperidinocyclohexanecarbonitrile (PCC)

- 7 Marijuana, tetrahydrocannabinol and chemical derivatives of tetrahydrocannabinol shall be deemed to be schedule II substances, but only when used for medicinal purposes pursuant to rules of the board of pharmacy examiners

Referred to in §204 201(1) 204 202 204 303

204.207 Substances listed in schedule III — criteria.

The board shall recommend to the general assembly that it place in schedule III any substance not already included therein if the board finds that

- 1 The substance has a potential for abuse less than the substances listed in schedules I and II,

- 2 The substance has currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and

- 3 Abuse of the substance may lead to moderate or low physical dependence or high psychological dependence

If the board finds that any substance included in schedule III does not meet these criteria, it shall recommend that the general assembly place the substance in a different schedule or remove it from the list of controlled substances, as appropriate

[C73, 75, 77 79, 81, §204 207]

204.208 Schedule III — substances included.

- 1 The controlled substances listed in this section are included in schedule III

- 2 Stimulants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers (whether optical, position, or geometric), and salts of such isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation

- a Benzphetamine

- b Chlorphentermine

- c Clortermine

- d Phendimetrazine

- 3 Depressants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant effect on the central nervous system

- a Any compound, mixture or preparation containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital or any salt thereof and one or more other active medicinal ingredients which are not listed in any schedules

- b Any suppository dosage form containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital or any salt of any of these drugs and approved by the federal food and drug administration for marketing only as a suppository

c Any substance which contains any quantity of a derivative of barbituric acid or any salt thereof

d Chlorhexadol

e Glutethimide

f Lysergic acid

g Lysergic acid amide

h Methyprylon

i Sulfondiethylmethane

j Sulfonethylmethane

k Sulfonmethane

4 Nalorphine

5 Narcotic drugs Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following narcotic drugs, or their salts calculated as the free anhydrous base or alkaloid, in limited quantities as set forth below

a Not more than one point eight grams of codeine per one hundred milliliters or not more than ninety milligrams per dosage unit, with an equal or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium

b Not more than one point eight grams of codeine per one hundred milliliters or not more than ninety milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts c Not more than three hundred milligrams of dihydrocodeinone per one hundred milliliters or not more than fifteen milligrams per dosage unit, with a fourfold or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium

d Not more than three hundred milligrams of dihydrocodeinone per one hundred milliliters or not more than fifteen milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts

e Not more than one point eight grams of dihydrocodeine per one hundred milliliters or not more than ninety milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts

f Not more than three hundred milligrams of ethylmorphine per one hundred milliliters or not more than fifteen milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts

g Not more than five hundred milligrams of opium per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams or not more than twenty five milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts

h Not more than fifty milligrams of morphine per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts

6 The board by rule may except any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any stimulant or depressant substance listed in subsections 2 and 3 of this section from the application of all or any part of this chapter if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in such combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration as to vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system

204.209 Substances listed in schedule IV — criteria

The board shall recommend to the general assembly that it place in schedule IV any substance not already included therein if the board finds that

1 The substance has a low potential for abuse relative to the substances listed in schedule III,

2 The substance has currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and

3 Abuse of the substance may lead to limited physical dependence or psychological dependence relative to the substances listed in schedule III

If the board finds that any substance included in schedule IV does not meet these criteria, it shall recommend that the general assembly place the substance in a different schedule or remove it from the list of controlled substances, as appropriate

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 209]

204.210 Schedule IV — substances included.

1 The controlled substances listed in this section are included in schedule IV

2 Narcotic drugs Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following narcotic drugs, or their salts calculated as the free anhydrous base or alkaloid, in limited quantities as set forth below

a Not more than one milligram of difenoxin and not less than twenty five micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit

b Dextropropoxyphene (alpha (+) 4 dimethylamino 1 2 diphenyl 3 methyl 2 propionoxybutane)

3 Depressants Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation

204.211 Schedule V — criteria.

The board shall recommend to the general assembly that it place in schedule V any substance not already included therein if the board finds that

- 1 The substance has a low potential for abuse relative to the substances listed in schedule IV,
- 2 The substance has currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and
- 3 The substance has limited physical dependence or psychological dependence liability relative to the controlled substances listed in schedule IV

If the board finds that any substance included in schedule V does not meet these criteria, it shall recommend that the general assembly place the substance in a different schedule or remove it from the list of controlled substances, as appropriate 204.212 Schedule V — substances included.

- 1 The controlled substances listed in this section are included in schedule V
- 2 Narcotic drugs containing nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following narcotic drugs, or their salts calculated as the free anhydrous base or alkaloid, in limited quantities as set forth below, which shall include one or more nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by narcotic drugs alone a Not more than two hundred milligrams of codeine per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams

b Not more than one hundred milligrams of dihydrocodeine per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams

c Not more than one hundred milligrams of ethylmorphine per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams

d Not more than two point five milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than twenty-five micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit e Not more than one hundred milligrams of opium per one hundred milliliters or per one hundred grams

DIVISION III

REGULATION OF MANUFACTURE, DISTRIBUTION AND DISPENSING OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

204.301 Rules.

The board may, subject to chapter 17A, promulgate rules and charge reasonable fees relating to the registration and control of the manufacture, distribution, and dispensing of controlled substances within this state

204.302 Registration requirements.

1 Every person who manufactures, distributes, or dispenses any controlled substance within this state or who proposes to engage in the manufacture, distribution, or dispensing of any controlled substance within this state, shall obtain annually a registration issued by the board in accordance with its rules

2 Persons registered by the board under this chapter to manufacture, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with controlled substances may possess, manufacture, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with those substances to the extent authorized by their registration and in conformity with the other provisions of this division

3 The following persons need not register and may lawfully possess controlled substances under this chapter

a An agent or employee of any registered manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser of any controlled substance if the agent or employee is acting in the usual course of the agent's or employee's business or employment

b A common or contract carrier or warehouse operator, or an employee thereof, whose possession of any controlled substance is in the usual course of business or employment

c An ultimate user or a person in possession of any controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner or in possession of a schedule V substance

4 A separate registration is required for each principal place of business or professional practice where the applicant manufactures, distributes, or dispenses controlled substances

5 The board may inspect the establishment of a registrant or applicant for registration in accordance with the board's rules

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3155, C39, §3169.03, 3169.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §204 03, 204 12, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 302]

Referred to in §204A 5

204.303 Registration.

1 The board shall register an applicant to manufacture or distribute controlled substances included in sections 204 204, 204 206, 204 208, 204 210 and 204 212 unless it determines that the issuance of that registration would be inconsistent with the public interest In determining the public interest, the board shall consider all of the following factors

a Maintenance of effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into other than legitimate medical, scientific, or industrial channels

b Compliance with applicable state and local law

c Any convictions of the applicant under any federal and state laws relating to any controlled substance

d Past experience in the manufacture or distribution of controlled substances, and the existence in the applicant's establishment of effective controls against diversion

e Furnishing by the applicant of false or fraudulent material in any application filed under this chapter

f Suspension or revocation of the applicant's federal registration to manufacture, distribute, or dispense controlled substances as authorized by federal law

g Any other factors relevant to and consistent with the public health and safety

2 Registration under subsection 1 of this section does not entitle a registrant to manufacture and distribute controlled substances in schedule I or II other than those specified in the registration

3 Practitioners shall be registered to dispense any controlled substances or to conduct research with controlled substances in schedules II through V if they are authorized to dispense or conduct research under the law of this state The board need not require separate registration under this division for practitioners engaging in research with nonnarcotic controlled substances in schedules II through V where the registrant is already registered under this division in another capacity Practitioners registered under federal law to conduct research with schedule I substances may conduct research in schedule I substances within this state upon furnishing the board evidence of the federal registration

4 Compliance by manufacturers and distributors with the provisions of the federal law respecting registration, excluding fees, entitles them to be registered under this chapter

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 303]

Referred to in §204 304

204.304 Revocation and suspension of registration.

1 A registration under section 204 303 to manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled substance may be suspended or revoked by the board upon a finding that the registrant a Has furnished false or fraudulent material information in any application filed under this chapter, b Has had the registrant's federal registration suspended or revoked to manufacture, distribute, or dispense controlled substances, or c Has been convicted of a public offense under any state or federal law relating to any controlled substance For the purpose of this section only, a conviction shall include a plea of guilty, a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court which forfeiture has not been vacated, or a finding of guilt in a criminal action even though the entry of the judgment or sentence has been withheld and the individual placed on probation

2 The board may limit revocation or suspension of a registration to the particular controlled substance with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension exist

3 If the board suspends or revokes a registration, all controlled substances owned or possessed by the registrant at the time of suspension or the effective date of the revocation order may be placed under seal No disposition may be made of substances under seal until the time for taking an appeal has elapsed or until all appeals have been concluded unless a court, upon application, orders the sale of perishable substances and the deposit of the proceeds of the sale with the court Upon a revocation order becoming final, all such controlled substances may be forfeited to the state

4 The board shall promptly notify the bureau and the department of all orders suspending or revoking registration and all forfeitures of controlled substances

[C39, §3169.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §204 4, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 304]

Referred to in §204 305

204.305 Order to show cause.

1 Before denying, suspending or revoking a registration, or refusing a renewal of registration, the board shall serve upon the applicant or registrant an order to show cause why registration should not be denied, revoked, or suspended, or why the renewal should not be refused The order to show cause shall contain a statement of the basis therefor and shall call upon the applicant or registrant to appear before the board at a time and place not less than thirty days after the date of service of the order, but in the case of a denial or renewal of registration the show cause order shall be served not later than thirty days before the expiration of the registration These proceedings shall be conducted without regard to any criminal prosecution or other proceeding Proceedings to refuse renewal of registration shall not abate the existing registration which shall remain in effect pending the outcome of the administrative hearing

2 The board, without an order to show cause, may suspend any registration simultaneously with the institution of proceedings under section 204 304, or where renewal of registration is refused, if it finds that there is an imminent danger to the public health or safety which warrants this action The suspension shall continue in effect until the conclusion of the proceedings, including judicial review thereof, under the provisions of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, unless sooner withdrawn by the board or dissolved by the order of the district court or an appellate court.

204.306 Records of registrants.

Persons registered to manufacture, distribute, dispense, or administer controlled substances under this chapter shall keep records and maintain inventories in conformance with the record keeping and inventory requirements of federal law and with such additional rules as may be issued by the board. A practitioner who engages in dispensing any controlled substance to the practitioner's patients shall keep records of receipt and disbursements of such drugs, including dispensing or other disposition, and information as to controlled substances stolen, lost, or destroyed. In every such case the records of controlled substance received shall show the date of receipt, the name and address of the person from whom received, and the kind and quantity of drugs received. The record of all controlled substances dispensed or otherwise disposed of, shall show the date of dispensing, the name and address of the person to whom or for whose use, or the owner and species of animal for which the drugs were dispensed and the kind and quantity of drugs dispensed.

Every such record shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of the transaction recorded. Records of controlled substances lost, destroyed or stolen, shall contain a detailed list of the kind and quantity of such drugs and the date of the discovery of such loss, destruction, or theft.

No person shall distribute complimentary packages of controlled substances, to a practitioner unless that person prepares and leaves with the practitioner a specific written list of the items so distributed. This list shall be prepared on a form prescribed by rules promulgated by the board, and the person who distributes the items listed shall send a copy of the list to the board as soon as practicable after distribution of the complimentary packages to the practitioner.

[C39, §3169.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §204.9; C71, §204.9, 204A.4; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.306]

Referred to in §204.308

204.307 Order forms.

Controlled substances in schedules I and II shall be distributed by a registrant to another registrant only pursuant to an order form. Compliance with the provisions of federal law respecting order forms shall be deemed compliance with this section.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3154, 3155; C39, §3169.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §204.5; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.307]

Referred to in §204.403

204.308 Prescriptions.

1. Except when dispensed directly by a practitioner, other than a pharmacy, to an ultimate user, no controlled substance in schedule II may be dispensed without the written prescription of a practitioner.

2. In emergency situations, as defined by rule of the board, schedule II drugs may be dispensed upon oral prescription of a practitioner, reduced promptly to writing and filed by the pharmacy. Prescriptions shall be retained in conformity with the requirements of section 204.306. No prescription for a schedule II substance may be refilled.

3. Except when dispensed directly by a practitioner, other than a pharmacy, to an ultimate user, a controlled substance included in schedule III or IV, which is a prescription drug as determined under section 155.3, subsections 9 and 10, shall not be dispensed without a written or oral prescription of a practitioner. The prescription may not be filled or refilled more than six months after the date thereof or be refilled more than five times, unless renewed by the practitioner.

4. A controlled substance included in schedule V shall not be distributed or dispensed other than for a medical purpose.

[C39, §3169.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §204.6; C71, §204.6, 204A.7; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.308]

DIVISION IV

OFFENSES AND PENALTIES

204.401 Prohibited acts — manufacturers — possessors — counterfeit substances — simulated controlled substances — penalties.

1. Except as authorized by this chapter, it is unlawful for any person to manufacture, deliver, or possess with intent to manufacture or deliver, a controlled substance, or to act with, enter into a common scheme or design with, or conspire with one or more other persons to manufacture, deliver, or possess with intent to manufacture or deliver, a controlled substance.

Any person who violates this subsection with respect to:

a. A substance classified in schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug or cocaine, is guilty of a class "C" felony.

b. Any other controlled substance classified in schedules I, II, or III, is guilty of a class "D" felony.

c. A substance classified in schedule IV or V, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

2. Except as authorized by this chapter, it is unlawful for a person to create, deliver, or possess with intent to deliver, a counterfeit substance or a simulated controlled substance, or to act with, enter into a common scheme or design with, or conspire with one or more other persons to create, deliver, or possess with intent to deliver, a counterfeit substance or a simulated controlled substance.

A person who violates this subsection with respect to:

a. A counterfeit substance classified in schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug or cocaine, or a simulated controlled substance represented to be a narcotic drug or cocaine classified in schedule I or II, is guilty of a class "C" felony.

b. Any other counterfeit substance classified in schedule I, II, or III, or any simulated controlled substance represented to be any other substance classified in schedule I, II, or III, is guilty of a class "D" felony.

c. A counterfeit substance classified in schedule IV, or a simulated controlled substance represented to be a substance classified in schedule IV, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

d. A counterfeit substance classified in schedule V, or a simulated controlled substance represented to be a substance classified in schedule V, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

3. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess a controlled substance unless such substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of the practitioner's professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by this chapter. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a serious misdemeanor. If the controlled substance is marijuana, the punishment shall be by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All or any part of a sentence imposed pursuant to this section may be suspended and the person placed upon probation upon such terms and conditions as the court may impose including the active participation by such person in a drug treatment, rehabilitation or education program approved by the court.

204.402 Prohibited acts — distributors — registrants — proprietors — penalties.

1. It is unlawful for any person:

a. Who is subject to division III to distribute or dispense a controlled substance in violation of section 204.308;

b. Who is a registrant, to manufacture a controlled substance not authorized by the registration, or to distribute or dispense a controlled substance not authorized by the registration to another registrant or other authorized person;

c. To refuse or fail to make, keep or furnish any record, notification, order form, statement, invoice or information required under this chapter;

d. To refuse an entry into any premises during reasonable business hours for any inspection authorized by this chapter; or

e. Knowingly to keep or permit the keeping or to maintain any premises, store, shop, warehouse, dwelling, temporary, or permanent building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or other temporary or permanent structure or place, which is resorted to by persons using controlled substances in violation of this chapter for the purpose of using these substances, or which is used for keeping, possessing or selling them in violation of this chapter.

2. Any person who violates subsection 1 of this section, or who acts with, enters into a common scheme or design with, or conspires with one or more other persons to violate subsection 1 of this section, is guilty of a public offense and upon conviction:

a. Of a violation of paragraphs "a", "b", "d", or "e" shall be an aggravated misdemeanor.

b. Of a violation of paragraph "c" shall be a serious misdemeanor.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.402]

204.403 Prohibited acts — controlled substances, distribution, use, possession — records and information — penalties.

1. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally:

a. To distribute as a registrant a controlled substance classified in schedules I or II, except pursuant to an order form as required by section 204.307;

b. To use in the course of the manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance a registration number which is fictitious, revoked, suspended, or issued to another person;

c. To acquire or obtain possession of a controlled substance by misrepresentation, fraud, forgery, deception or subterfuge;

d. To furnish false or fraudulent material information, or omit any material information from, any application, report, or other document required to be kept or filed under this chapter, or any record required to be kept by this chapter; or

e. To make, distribute, or possess any punch, die, plate, stone, or other thing designed to print, imprint, or reproduce the trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, or device of another or any likeness of any of the foregoing upon any drug or container or labeling thereof so as to render the drug a counterfeit substance.

2. Any person who violates this section, or who acts with, enters into a common scheme or design with, or conspires with one or more other persons to violate this section, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

Referred to in §155.30

204.404 Penalties under other laws.

Any penalty imposed for violation of this division shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any civil or administrative penalty or sanction otherwise authorized by law.

204.405 Bar to prosecution.

If a violation of this chapter is a violation of a federal law or the law of another state, the conviction or acquittal under federal law or the law of another state for the same act is a bar to prosecution in this state.

[C39, §3169.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §204.23; C66, 71, §204.21; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.405]

204.406 Distribution to person under age eighteen.

1. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 1, by distributing a substance listed in schedule I or II, which is a narcotic drug or cocaine, to a person under eighteen years of age, is guilty of a class "B" felony; however the minimum time to be served before parole may be granted is five years. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 1, by distributing any other controlled substance listed in schedule I, II, or III to a person under eighteen years of age who is at least three years younger than the violator is guilty of a class “C” felony. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 1 by distributing a controlled substance listed in schedule IV or V to a person under eighteen years of age who is at least three years younger than the violator is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

2. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 2 by distributing a counterfeit substance listed in schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug or cocaine, or a simulated controlled substance represented to be a narcotic drug or cocaine classified in schedule I or II, to a person under eighteen years of age is guilty of a class “B” felony. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 2, by distributing any other counterfeit substance listed in schedule I, II, or III or a simulated controlled substance represented to be any substance listed in schedule I, II, or III, to a person under eighteen years of age who is at least three years younger than the violator is guilty of a class “C” felony. A person who is eighteen years of age or over who violates section 204.401, subsection 2, by distributing a counterfeit substance listed in schedule IV or V or a simulated controlled substance represented to be a substance listed in schedule IV or V to a person under eighteen years of age who is at least three years younger than the violator is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

204.407 Gatherings where controlled substances unlawfully used — penalties.

It is unlawful for any person to sponsor, promote, or aid, or assist in the sponsoring or promoting of a meeting, gathering, or assemblage with the knowledge or intent that a controlled substance be there distributed, used or possessed, in violation of this chapter.

Court-appointed attorney fees incurred in the defense of any person charged with a felony under this section shall be taxed as part of the costs against the defendants who are found guilty. If the defendant does not discharge such costs within ninety days, the county paying such costs may seek indemnification therefor from the Iowa general assembly. A county may also seek indemnification from the general assembly of court-appointed attorney fees incurred in the defense of any person charged with a felony under this section who was found not guilty.

Any person who violates this section and where the controlled substance is any one other than marijuana is guilty of a class “D” felony.

Any person who violates this section, and where the controlled substance is marijuana only, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

The district court shall grant an injunction barring a meeting, gathering, or assemblage if upon hearing the court finds that the sponsors or promoters of the meeting, gathering, or assemblage have not taken reasonable means to prevent the unlawful distribution, use or possession of a controlled substance. Further injunctive relief may be granted against all persons furnishing goods or services to such meeting, gathering, or assemblage.

The district court may, upon application and a showing of one or more of the grounds provided in section 639.3, grant to the state or governmental subdivision thereof a writ of attachment, ex parte, without bond, in an amount necessary to secure the payment of any fine that may be imposed and the payment of costs. The reasonable expense to the state and governmental subdivisions thereof to provide the necessary law enforcement resulting from a meeting, gathering or assemblage held in violation of this section may be taxed as costs in the criminal action.

Court costs and court-appointed attorney fees incurred in the prosecution of any person charged with violation of this chapter shall be taxed against the defendants who are found guilty of violating this section. If no defendant is found guilty of violating this section, or if the court costs and court-appointed attorney fees are not satisfied by the defendants, the court costs and court-appointed attorney fees shall be paid by the state of Iowa.

204.408 Joint criminal trials.

Information, indictments, trial, and sentencing for violations of this chapter may allege any number of violations of their provisions against one person and join one or more persons as defendants who it is alleged violated the same provisions in the same transaction or series of transactions and which involve common questions of law and fact. The several charges shall be set out in separate counts and each accused person shall be convicted or acquitted upon each count by separate verdict. Each accused person shall thereafter be sentenced upon each verdict of guilty. The court may consider such separate verdicts of guilty returned at the same time as one offense for the purpose of sentencing as provided in this chapter. The court may grant a severance and separate trial to any accused person jointly charged or indicted if it appears that substantial injustice would result to such accused person unless a separate trial was granted.

204.409 Conditional discharge, commitment for treatment, probation, parole.

1. Whenever a person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this chapter or an offense under a state or federal statute relating to narcotic drugs or cocaine, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled substance under section 204.401, subsection 3, or is sentenced pursuant to section 204.410, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place the accused on probation upon terms and conditions as it requires. When a person is placed on probation under this subsection, the person's appearance bond may be discharged at the discretion of the court. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against the person. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime, including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions under section 204 410. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

2 Whenever the court finds that a person who is charged with a violation of section 204 401 and who consents thereto, or who has entered a plea of guilty to or been found guilty of a violation of that section, is addicted to, dependent upon, or a chronic abuser of any controlled substance and that such person will be aided by proper medical treatment and rehabilitative services, it may order that the person be committed as an inpatient or outpatient to a facility licensed by the state department of substance abuse for medical treatment and rehabilitative services. A person committed under this subsection who is not possessed of sufficient income or estate to enable the person to make payment of the costs of such treatment in whole or in part shall be considered a state patient and the costs of treatment shall be paid as provided in section 125 44. The determination of ability to pay shall be made by the court. The court shall require the patient, or the patient's parent, guardian, or custodian to complete under oath a detailed financial statement. The court may enter appropriate orders requiring the patient or those legally liable for the patient's support to reimburse the state with the costs, or any part thereof. In order to obtain the most effective results from such medical treatment and rehabilitative services, the court may commit the person to the custody of a public or private agency or any other responsible person and impose other conditions upon the commitment as is necessary to insure compliance with the court's order and to insure that the person will not, during the period of treatment and rehabilitation, again violate a provision of this chapter. If it is established thereafter to the satisfaction of the court that the person has again violated a provision of this chapter, the person may be returned to custody or sentenced upon conviction as provided by law. The public or private agency or responsible person to whom the accused person was committed by the court shall immediately report to the court when the person has received maximum benefit from the program or has recovered from addiction, dependency, or tendency to chronically abuse any controlled substance. The person shall then be returned to the court for disposition of the case. If the person has been charged or indicted, but not convicted, such charge shall proceed to trial or final disposition. If the person has been convicted or is thereafter convicted, the court shall sentence the person as provided by law but may remit all or any part of the sentence and place the person on probation upon terms and conditions as the court may prescribe.

204.410 Accommodation offense.

In a prosecution for unlawful delivery or possession with intent to deliver marijuana, if the prosecution proves that the defendant violated the provisions of section 204 401, subsection 1, by proving that the defendant delivered or possessed with intent to deliver one ounce or less of marijuana, the defendant is guilty of an accommodation offense and rather than being sentenced as if convicted for a violation of section 204 401, subsection 1, paragraph "b" shall be sentenced as if convicted of a violation of section 204 401, subsection 3. An accommodation offense may be proved as an included offense under a charge of delivering or possessing with the intent to deliver marijuana in violation of section 204 401, subsection 1. This section does not apply to hashish, hashish oil, or other derivatives of marijuana as defined in section 204 101, subsection 17.

204.411 Second or subsequent offenses

1 Any person convicted of a second or subsequent offense under this chapter, may be punished by imprisonment for a period not to exceed three times the term otherwise authorized, or fined not more than three times the amount otherwise authorized, or punished by both such imprisonment and fine.

2 For purposes of this section, an offense is considered a second or subsequent offense, if, prior to the person's having been convicted of the offense, the offender has ever been convicted under this chapter or under any state or federal statute relating to narcotic drugs or cocaine, marijuana, depressant, stimulant, or hallucinogenic drugs.

3 This section does not apply to offenses under section 204 401, subsection 3.

DIVISION V

ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

204.501 Responsibility for enforcement.

The department is primarily responsible for the enforcement of this chapter, and all other laws and regulations of this state, relating to controlled or counterfeit substances, or simulated or imitation controlled substances*, except that the board is primarily responsible for making accountability audits of the supply and inventory of controlled substances in the possession of pharmacists, doctors, hospitals, and health care facilities as defined in section 135C 1, subsection 8, as well as in the possession of any and all other individuals or institutions authorized to have possession of any controlled substances, and is also primarily responsible for any other duties in respect to controlled substances as specifically delegated to the board by law An officer or employee of the board may, when so directed or authorized by the board

1 Execute and serve search warrants, administrative inspection warrants, subpoenas, and summonses issued under the authority of this state

2 Make seizures of property pursuant to the provisions of this chapter

[C39, §3169.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §204 20, 204 26, C66, 71, §204 19, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 501, 82 Acts, ch 1147, §10]

Referred to in §204 502

204.502 Administrative inspections and warrants.

1 Issuance and execution of administrative inspection warrants shall be as follows a A district judge or district associate judge, with in the court’s jurisdiction, and upon proper oath or affirmation showing probable cause, may issue warrants for the purpose of conducting administrative inspections under this chapter or a related rule or under chapter 204A The warrant may also permit seizures of property appropriate to the inspections For purposes of the issuance of administrative inspection warrants, probable cause exists upon showing a valid public interest in the effective enforcement of the statute or related rules, sufficient to justify administrative inspection of the area, premises, building or conveyance in the circumstances specified in the application for the warrant

b A warrant shall issue only upon sworn testimony of an officer or employee of the board duly designated and having knowledge of the facts alleged, before the judicial officer, establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant If the judicial officer is satisfied that grounds for the application exist or that there is probable cause to believe they exist, the officer shall issue a warrant identifying the area, premises, building, or conveyance to be inspected, the purpose of the inspection, and, if appropriate, the type of property to be inspected, if any

The warrant shall

(1) State the grounds for its issuance and the name of each person whose testimony has been taken in support thereof

(2) Be directed to a person authorized by section 204 501 to execute it

(3) Command the person to whom it is directed to inspect the area, premises, building, or conveyance identified for the purpose specified and, if appropriate, direct the seizure of the property specified

(4) Identify the item or types of property to be seized, if any

(5) Direct that it be served during normal business hours, if appropriate, and designate the judge to whom it shall be returned

c A warrant issued pursuant to this section must be executed and returned within ten days after its date unless, upon a showing of a need for additional time, the court so instructs otherwise in the warrant If property is seized pursuant to a warrant, the person executing the warrant shall give to the person from whom the property is seized, or the person in charge of the premises from which the property is seized, a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property seized or shall leave the copy and receipt at the place from which the property is seized The return of the warrant shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property seized The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person executing the warrant and of the person from whose possession or premises the property was seized, if they are present, or in the presence of at least one credible person other than the person executing the warrant A copy of the inventory shall be delivered to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was seized the applicant for the warrant

d The judicial officer who has issued a warrant under this section shall require that there be attached to the warrant a copy of the return, and of all papers filed in connection with the return, and shall file them with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the inspection was made

2 The department may make administrative inspections of controlled premises in accordance with the following provisions a For purposes of this section only, “controlled premises” means

(1) Places where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this chapter are required to keep records, and

(2) Places including factories, warehouse establishments, and conveyances where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this chapter are permitted to hold, manufacture, compound, process, sell, deliver, or otherwise dispose of any controlled substance

b Whenever authorized by an administrative inspection warrant issued pursuant to subsection 1 of this section an officer or employee of the board, upon presenting the warrant and appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, has the right to enter controlled premises for the purpose of conducting an administrative inspection

c Whenever authorized by an administrative inspection warrant, an officer or employee of the board has the right

(1) To inspect and copy records required by this chapter to be kept,

(2) To inspect, within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, controlled premises and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished material, containers and labeling found therein, and, except as provided in paragraph "e" of this subsection, all other things therein, including records, files, papers, processes, controls and facilities bearing on violation of this chapter, and

(3) To inventory any stock of any controlled substance therein and obtain samples of any such substance

d This section shall not be construed to prevent the inspection without a warrant of books and records pursuant to a subpoena issued in accordance with section 622 65, nor shall this section be construed to prevent entries and administrative inspections, including seizures of property, without a warrant

(1) With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises,

(2) In situations presenting imminent danger to health or safety,

(3) In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the mobility of the conveyance makes it impracticable to obtain a warrant,

(4) In any other exceptional or emergency circumstance where time or opportunity to apply for a warrant is lacking, and

(5) In all other situations where a warrant is not constitutionally required

e Except when the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises so consents in writing, no inspection authorized by this section shall extend to financial data, sales data, other than shipment data, or pricing data

204.503 Injunctions

1 The district court may exercise jurisdiction to enjoin violations of this chapter

2 In case of an alleged violation of an injunction or restraining order issued under this section, upon demand of the defendant, trial shall be by a jury

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204 503]

204.504 Co-operative arrangements and confidentiality.

1 The department and board, subject to approval and direction of the governor, shall co operate with federal and other state agencies in discharging its responsibilities concerning traffic in controlled substances and in suppressing the abuse of controlled substances To this end they may jointly a Arrange for the exchange of information between governmental officials concerning the use and abuse of controlled substances

b Co ordinate and co operate in training programs on controlled substance law enforcement at the local and state levels

c Co operate with the bureau by establishing a centralized unit which will accept, catalogue, file, and collect statistics, including records of drug dependent persons and other controlled substance law offenders within the state, and make such information available for federal, state and local law enforcement purposes, except that they shall not furnish the name or identity of a patient or research subject whose identity could not be obtained under subsection 3 d Conduct programs of eradication aimed at destroying wild or illicit growth of plant species from which controlled substances may be extracted

2 Results, information, and evidence received from the bureau relating to the regulatory functions of this chapter, including results of inspections conducted by that agency may be relied upon and acted upon by the board or the department in the exercise of their regulatory functions under this chapter

3 A practitioner engaged in medical practice or research or the Iowa drug abuse authority or any program which is licensed by the authority shall not be required to furnish the name or identity of a patient or research subject to the board or the department, nor shall the practitioner or the authority or any program which is licensed by the authority be compelled in any state or local civil criminal, administrative, legislative or other proceedings to furnish the name or identity of an individual that the practitioner or the authority or any of its licensed programs is obligated to keep confidential

204.505 Forfeitures

1 The following are subject to forfeiture

a All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed or acquired in violation of this chapter,

b All raw materials, products and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter,

c All property which is used or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs "a" or "b", d All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter

e All controlled substances in the possession of a practitioner which are material to a record keeping violation

f Everything of value that is furnished or intended to be furnished in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter, all proceeds including real and personal property traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and conveyances used or intended to be used to facilitate a violation of this chapter, except that property shall not be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of an act or omission committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent. All moneys, coin, and currency found in close proximity to forfeitable controlled substances, to forfeitable drug manufacturing or distributing paraphernalia, or to forfeitable records of the importation, manufacture, or distribution of controlled substances, are presumed to be forfeitable under this paragraph. The burden of proof is upon claimants of the property to rebut this presumption.

2 Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by the board or department when a The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant, b The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter, c The department has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety, or d The department has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

3 In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection 2, proceedings under subsection 4 shall be instituted promptly.

4 The disposition of property, other than conveyances subject to forfeiture, which has been taken or detained under this chapter shall be made in accordance with chapter 809.

However, controlled substances taken, detained, or forfeited shall be disposed of as provided by section 204 506. Such property shall not be subject to replev in.

5 Controlled substances classified in schedule I that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and when seized shall be summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in schedule I, which are seized or come into the possession of the state, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the state.

6 Species of plants from which controlled substances classified in schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the state.

7 The failure, upon demand by the board or department, or its duly authorized agent, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which such species of plants are growing or being stored, to produce an appropriate registration, or proof that the person is the holder thereof, shall constitute authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

8 Chapter 127 shall be applicable to conveyances used to transport or hold any controlled substance listed in schedules I, II, III, or IV of this chapter.

Referred to in §809 6

204.506 Controlled substances — disposal.

All controlled substances, the lawful possession of which is not established or the title to which cannot be ascertained, or excess or undesired controlled substances, which have come into the custody of the board, the department, or any peace officer, shall be disposed of as follows:

1 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the court having jurisdiction shall order such controlled substances forfeited and destroyed. A record of the place where the controlled substances were seized, of the kinds and quantities of controlled substances so destroyed, and of the time, place, and manner of destruction, shall be kept, and a return under oath, reporting said destruction, shall be made to the court and to the bureau by the officer who destroys them.

2 Upon written application by the board, the court by whom the forfeiture of controlled substances has been decreed may order the delivery of any of them, except controlled substances listed in schedule I, to the board for distribution or destruction, as provided by this section.

3 Upon application by any hospital within this state, not operated for private gain, the board may in its discretion deliver any controlled substances that have come into its custody by authority of this section to the applicant for medicinal use. The board may from time to time deliver excess stocks of controlled substances to the bureau for disposition, or may destroy the excess controlled substances.

4 The board shall keep a full and complete record of all controlled substances received and disposed of, showing the exact kinds, quantities, and forms of controlled substances, the persons from whom received and to whom delivered, by whose authority received, delivered, and destroyed and the dates of the receipt, disposal, or destruction, which record shall be open to inspection by all federal or state officers charged with the enforcement of federal and state laws relating to any controlled substance.

204.507 Burden of proof — liabilities.

1 It is not necessary for the state to negate any exemption or exception set forth in this chapter in any complaint, information, indictment or other pleading or in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding under this chapter. The proof of entitlement to any exemption or exception by the person claiming its benefit shall be a valid defense.

2 The absence of proof that a person is the duly authorized holder of an appropriate registration or order form issued under this chapter creates a rebuttable presumption that the person is not the holder of such registration or form.

3 No liability shall be imposed by virtue of this chapter upon any authorized state, county or municipal officer, engaged in the lawful performance of the officer's duties.

204.508 Judicial review.

Judicial review of actions of board or department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §204.508]

204.509 Education and research.

1. The board and the department*, subject to approval and direction of the governor, shall carry out educational programs designed to prevent and deter misuse and abuse of controlled substances. They shall consult with each other and co-ordinate their programs so as to avoid duplication of effort. In connection with these programs they may:

a. Promote better recognition of the problems of misuse and abuse of controlled substances within the regulated industry and among interested groups and organizations;

b. Assist the regulated industry and interested groups and organizations in contributing to the reduction of misuse and abuse of controlled substances;

c. Consult with interested groups and organizations to aid them in solving administrative and organizational problems;

d. Evaluate procedures, projects, techniques, and controls conducted or proposed as part of educational programs on misuse and abuse of controlled substances;

e. Disseminate the results of research on misuse and abuse of controlled substances to promote a better public understanding of what problems exist and what can be done to combat them; and,

f. Assist in the education and training of state and local law enforcement officials in their efforts to control misuse and abuse of controlled substances.

2. The board and the department, subject to approval and direction of the governor, shall encourage research on misuse and abuse of controlled substances. In connection with such research, and in furtherance of the enforcement of this chapter, they may in such manner as will best insure co-ordination and avoid duplication of effort:

a. Establish methods to assess accurately the effects of controlled substances and identify and characterize those with potential for abuse;

b. Make studies and undertake programs of research to:

(1) Develop new or improved approaches, techniques, systems, equipment and devices to strengthen the enforcement of this chapter;

(2) Determine patterns of misuse and abuse of controlled substances and the social effects thereof; and,

(3) Improve methods for preventing, predicting, understanding and dealing with the misuse and abuse of controlled substances; and,

c. Enter into contracts with public agencies, institutions of higher education, and private organizations or individuals for the purpose of conducting research, demonstrations, or special projects which bear directly on misuse and abuse of controlled substances.

3. The board or department, subject to approval and direction of the governor, may enter into contracts for educational and research activities without performance bonds.

4. The board and department, subject to approval and direction of the governor, may jointly authorize persons engaged in research on the use and effects of controlled substances to withhold the names and other identifying characteristics of individuals who are the subjects of the research. Persons who obtain this authorization shall not be compelled in any civil, criminal, administrative, legislative, or other proceeding to identify the individuals who are the subjects of research for which the authorization was obtained.

5. The board and department, subject to approval and direction of the governor, may jointly authorize the possession and distribution of controlled substances by persons engaged in research. Persons who obtain this authorization are exempt from state prosecution for possession and distribution of controlled substances to the extent of the authorization.

204.510 Reports of arrests and analyses to department.

Any peace officer who arrests for any crime, any known unlawful user of the drugs described in Schedule I, II, III or IV, or who arrests any person for a violation of this chapter, or charges any person with a violation of this chapter subsequent to the person's arrest, shall within five days after the arrest or the filing of the charge, whichever is later, report the arrest and the charge filed to the department. The peace officer or any other peace officer or law-enforcement agency which makes or obtains any quantitative or qualitative analysis of any substance seized in connection with the arrest of the person charged, shall report to the department the results of the analysis at the time the arrest is reported or at such later time as the results of the analysis become available.

This information is for the exclusive use of the division of narcotic and drug enforcement, in the department of public safety, and shall not be a matter of public record.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Controlled substance" means a controlled substance as defined in section 204.101, subsection 6.

2. "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer, distribution, or dispensing to another of an imitation controlled substance.

3. "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, compounding, processing, encapsulating, packaging, or labeling of an imitation controlled substance.

4. "Imitation controlled substance" means a substance which is not a controlled substance but which by color, shape, size, markings, and other aspects of dosage unit appearance, and packaging or other factors, appears to be or resembles a controlled substance.

The state board of pharmacy examiners may designate a substance as an imitation controlled substance pursuant to the board's rulemaking authority and in accordance with chapter 17A.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §5]

204A.3 Factors indicating an imitation controlled substance.

When a substance has not been designated as an imitation controlled substance by the state board of pharmacy examiners and when dosage unit appearance alone does not establish that a substance is an imitation controlled substance the following factors may be considered in determining whether the substance is an imitation controlled substance:

1. The person in control of the substance expressly or impliedly represents that the substance has the effect of a controlled substance.

2. The person in control of the substance expressly or impliedly represents that the substance because of its nature or appearance can be sold or delivered as a controlled substance or as a substitute for a controlled substance.

3. The person in control of the substance either demands or receives money or other property having a value substantially greater than the actual value of the substance as consideration for delivery of the substance.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §6]

204A.4 Offenses and penalties.

1. It is unlawful for a person to manufacture, deliver, or possess with intent to deliver, an imitation controlled substance. Except as provided in subsection 3, a person who violates this subsection is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

2. It is unlawful for a person to publish or to post or distribute in a public place, an advertisement or solicitation, if the person knows or reasonably should know the advertisement or solicitation is to promote the distribution of imitation controlled substances. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

3. A person who is eighteen years of age or older who violates this section by delivering an imitation controlled substance to a person under eighteen years of age who is at least three years younger than the violator is guilty of a class "D" felony.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §7]

204A.5 Immunity.

It is not unlawful for a person registered under section 204.302, to manufacture, deliver, or possess an imitation controlled substance for use as a placebo by a registered practitioner in the course of professional practice or research.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §8]

204A.6 Forfeiture.

1. The following are subject to forfeiture:

a. All imitation controlled substances which have been manufactured, delivered or acquired in violation of this chapter.

b. All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting an imitation controlled substance in violation of this chapter.

c. All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraph "a" or "b".

d. All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter.

2. Property subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized when any of the following apply:

a. The seizure is incident to an arrest, or a search under a search warrant, or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant issued as provided in section 204.502.

b. The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment of forfeiture in favor of the state in an injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter.

c. There is probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

3. If property, other than a conveyance subject to forfeiture, is seized under subsection 2, it shall be disposed of in accordance with chapter 809.

However, imitation controlled substances taken, detained, or forfeited shall be disposed of as provided in section 204.506. Imitation controlled substances are not subject to replevin.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §9]

CHAPTER 205

SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF POISONS

Referred to in §147.99, 159.6(9), 189.2
General penalty, §189.21

205.1 Sale of abortifacients.

205.2 Exception.

205.3 Prescriptions.

205.4 Wood or denatured alcohol.

205.5 Regulations as to sales of certain poisons.

205.6 Poison register.

205.7 Labeling poisons.

205.8 Certain sales excepted.

205.9 Prohibited sales.

205.10 False representations.

205.11 Enforcement.

205.12 Chemical analysis of drugs.

205.13 Applicability of other statutes.

205.1 Sale of abortifacients.

No person shall sell, offer or expose for sale, deliver, give away, or have in the person's possession with intent to sell, except upon the original written prescription of a licensed physician, dentist, or veterinarian, any cotton root, ergot, oil of tansy, oil of savin, or derivatives of any of said drugs.

[C51, §2728; R60, §4374; C73, §4038; C97, §2593; S13, §2593, 2596-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3170; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.1]

Referred to in §205.2

205.2 Exception.

The requirements of section 205.1 that certain drugs shall be furnished only upon written prescription, shall not apply to the sale of such drugs to persons who wholesale or retail the same, nor to any licensed physician, dentist, or veterinarian for use in the practice of that person's profession.

[S13, §2596-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3171; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.2]

205.3 Prescriptions.

No person shall fill any prescriptions calling for any of the drugs required by chapter 204 or this chapter to be furnished only upon written prescription unless the same be for medical, dental, or veterinary purposes only, and unless the physician, dentist, or veterinarian prescribing the same be personally known to such person, and no such prescription shall be refilled.

[S13, §2596-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3172; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.3]

205.4 Wood or denatured alcohol.

No person shall have in the person's possession or dispose of in any manner any article intended for use of man or domestic animals, for internal or external use, for cosmetic purposes, for inhalation, or for perfumes, which contains methyl (wood) alcohol, crude or refined, or completely denatured alcohol. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to specially denatured alcohols the formula of which has been approved and the manufacture and use regulated by the federal government.

205.5 Regulations as to sales of certain poisons.

It shall be unlawful for any person except a licensed pharmacist to sell at retail any of the poisons enumerated in this section: Ammoniated mercury, mercury bichloride, red mercuric iodide, and other poisonous salts and compounds of mercury; salts and compounds of arsenic; salts of antimony; salts of barium except the sulphate; salts of thallium; hydrocyanic acid and its salts; chromic, glacial acetic, and picric acids; chloral hydrate, croton oil, creosol, chloroform, dinitrophenol, ether, oil of bitter almonds, phenol, phosphorus and sodium fluoride; aconitine, arecoline, atrophine, brucine, homatropine, hyoscyamine, nicotine, strychnine, and the salts of these alkaloids; aconite, belladonna, cantharides, digitalis, nux vomica, veratrum, and the preparations of these poisonous drugs.

S13, §2593; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3174; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.5]

Referred to in §205 6-205 10

205.6 Poison register.

It shall be unlawful for any pharmacist to sell at retail any of the poisons enumerated in section 205.5 unless the pharmacist ascertains that the purchaser is aware of the character of the drug and the purchaser represents that it is to be used for a proper purpose and every sale of any poison enumerated in section 205.5 shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose, to be known as a "Poison Register" and the same shall show the date of the sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name of the poison, the purpose for which it was represented to be purchased, and the name of the natural person making the sale, which book or books shall be open for inspection by the pharmacy examiners, or any magistrate or peace officer of this state, and preserved for at least five years after the date of the last sale therein recorded.

[C97, §2593; S13, §2593; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3175; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.6]

Referred to in §205 8, 205 9

205.7 Labeling poisons.

Except as otherwise provided, it shall be unlawful to vend, sell, dispense, or give away any poison enumerated in section 205.5, or sodium chlorate or crude carbolic acid, or any other potent poisons, without affixing to the bottle, box, vessel, or package containing the same, a label containing the name of the poison either printed or plainly written, and the word "Poison" printed in red ink, and the name and place of business of the distributor, manufacturer, wholesaler or dealer; and every package or container which contains ammonia water, concentrated lye, denatured alcohol, formaldehyde, benzol, carbon tetrachloride, commercial hydrochloric, nitric, sulphuric or oxalic acids, shall be labeled with the name of the poison, which label shall bear the name and place of business of the distributor, manufacturer, wholesaler, or dealer, the most available antidote and the word "Poison" printed in red ink in a conspicuous place thereon.

[C51, §2728; R60, §4374; C73, §4038; C97, §2588, 2593, 4976; S13, §2593; SS15, §2588; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3176; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.7]

Referred to in §205 8

205.8 Certain sales excepted.

Nothing in sections 205.5 to 205.7 shall apply:

1. To proprietary medicines, provided they are not in themselves poisonous and are sold in original unbroken packages.

2. To the filling of prescriptions from or the sale to licensed physicians, dentists, or veterinarians or sales to another pharmacist or to hospitals; or to drugs dispensed by licensed physicians, dentists, or veterinarians, as an incident to the practice of their professions.

3. To insecticides and fungicides as defined in chapter 206 and commercial feeds as defined in section 198.3, provided same be labeled in accordance with said section and sold in original unbroken packages, provided, however, that stock dips and fly sprays may be sold in bulk or otherwise and the vessel or container need not have printed on the label the most available antidote.

4. To any proprietary preparation intended for use in destroying mice, rats, gophers or other lower animals, provided same is sold in original unbroken packages and bears the word "Poison", the most available antidote, and the name of the manufacturer.

[C97, §2593; S13, §2593; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3177; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.8]

205.9 Prohibited sales.

It shall be unlawful for any person in this state to sell or deliver any poison to any person known to be of unsound mind or under the influence of intoxicants, and it shall likewise be unlawful for any person in this state to sell or deliver any poison enumerated in section 205.5 to any minor under sixteen years of age except upon a written order signed by some responsible person known to the person selling or delivering the same, which said written order shall contain all of the information required to be entered in the poison register under the provisions of section 205.6.

[C27, 31, 35, §3177-b1; C39, §3177.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.9]

205.10 False representations.

Any person who obtains any poison enumerated in section 205.5 under a false name or statement shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

[C51, §2728; R60, §4374; C73, §4038; C97, §2593; S13, §2593; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3178; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.10]

General penalty, §189 21

205.11 Enforcement.

The provisions of this chapter and chapters 203 and 204 shall be administered and enforced by the pharmacy examiners. In discharging any duty or exercising any power under said chapters, the pharmacy examiners shall be governed by all the provisions of chapter 189, which govern the department of agriculture when discharging a similar duty or exercising a similar power with reference to any of the articles dealt with in this title.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3179; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.11]

205.12 Chemical analysis of drugs.

Any chemical analysis deemed necessary by the pharmacy examiners in the enforcement of this chapter and chapters 203 and 204 shall be made by the department of agriculture when requested by said examiners.

205.13 Applicability of other statutes.

Insofar as applicable the provisions of chapter 189, shall apply to the articles dealt with in this chapter and chapters 203 and 204. The powers vested in the department of agriculture by said chapter shall be deemed for the purpose of this chapter and chapters 203 and 204 to be vested in the pharmacy examiners.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3181; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §205.13]

206.1 Title of Act.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Pesticide Act of Iowa".

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §206.1]

206.2 Definitions.

When used in this chapter:

1. The term "pesticide" shall mean (a) any substance or mixture of substances intended for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating directly or indirectly any insects, rodents, nematodes, fungi, weeds, and other forms of plant or animal life or viruses, except viruses on or in living persons, which the secretary shall declare to be a pest, and (b) any substances intended for use as a plant growth regulator, defoliant or desiccant.

2. The term "device" means any instrument or contrivance intended for trapping, destroying, repelling, or mitigating insects, birds, or rodents or destroying, repelling, or mitigating fungi, nematodes, weeds or such other pests as may be designated by the secretary, but not including equipment used for the application of pesticides when sold separately therefrom.

3. The term "plant growth regulator" means any substance or mixture of substances intended, through physiological action, for accelerating or retarding the rate of growth or rate of maturation, or for otherwise altering the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the produce thereof, but shall not include substances to the extent that they are intended as plant nutrients, trace elements, nutritional chemicals, plant inoculants, and soil amendments.

4. The term "ingredient statement" means either:

a. A statement of the name and percentage by weight of each active ingredient, together with the total percentage of the inert ingredients, in the pesticide.

b. When the pesticide contains arsenic in any form, the ingredient statement shall also include percentages of total and water soluble arsenic, each calculated as elemental arsenic.

5. The term "active ingredient" means:

a. In the case of a pesticide other than a plant growth regulator, defoliant or desiccant, an ingredient which will prevent, destroy, repel, or mitigate insects, nematodes, fungi, rodents, weeds, or other pests.

b. In the case of a plant growth regulator, an ingredient which, through physiological action, will accelerate or retard the rate of growth or rate of maturation or otherwise alter the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the produce thereof.

c. In the case of a defoliant, an ingredient which will cause the leaves or foliage to drop from a plant.

d. In the case of a desiccant, an ingredient which will artificially accelerate the drying of plant tissue.

6. The term "inert ingredient" means an ingredient which is not an active ingredient.

7. The term "antidote" means the most practical immediate treatment in case of poisoning and includes first aid treatment.

8. The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

9. The term "department" shall mean the Iowa department of agriculture.

10. The term "secretary" means the secretary of the Iowa department of agriculture.

11. The term "registrant" means the person registering any pesticide or device or who has obtained a certificate of license from the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

12. The term "commercial applicator" shall mean any person or corporation who enters into a contract or an agreement for the sake of monetary payment and agrees to perform a service by applying any pesticide or servicing any device but shall not include a farmer trading work with another.

13. The term "label" means the written, printed, or graphic matter on, or attached to, the pesticide or device, or the immediate container thereof, and the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if any there be, of the pesticide or device.

14 The term "labeling" means all labels and other written, printed or graphic matter a Upon the pesticide or device or any of its containers or wrappers

b Accompanying the pesticide or device at any time

c To which reference is made on the label or in literature accompanying the pesticide or device, except when accurate, nonmisleading reference is made to current official publications of the United States department of agriculture or interior, the United States public health service, the state agricultural experiment stations, the Iowa State University, the Iowa department of public health, the state conservation commission, or other similar federal institutions or official agencies of this state or other states authorized by law to conduct research in the field of pesticides

15 The term "adulterated" shall apply to any pesticide if its strength or purity falls below the professed standard or quality as expressed on labeling or under which it is sold, or if any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article, or if any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted

16 The term "misbranded" shall apply a To any pesticide or device if its labeling bears any statement, design or graphic representation relative thereto or to its ingredients which is false or misleading in any particular

b To any pesticide

(1) If it is an imitation of or is offered for sale under the name of another pesticide

(2) If its labeling bears any reference to registration under this chapter, when not so registered

(3) If the labeling accompanying it does not contain directions for use which are necessary and if complied with adequate for the protection of the public

(4) If the label does not contain a warning or caution statement which may be necessary and if complied with adequate to prevent injury to living persons and other vertebrate animals

(5) If the label does not bear an ingredient statement on that part of the immediate container and on the outside container or wrapper, if there is to be one, through which the ingredient statement on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, of the retail package which is presented or displayed under customary conditions of purchase

(6) If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness as compared with other words, statements, designs, or graphic matter in the labeling and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use

(7) If in the case of an insecticide, nematocide, fungicide, or herbicide when used as directed or in accordance with commonly recognized practice it shall be injurious to living persons or other vertebrate animals, or vegetation, except weeds, to which it is applied, or to the person applying such pesticide

(8) If in the case of a plant growth regulator, defoliant, or desiccant when used as directed it shall be injurious to living man or other vertebrate animals, or vegetation to which it is applied, or to the person applying such pesticide, provided, that physical or physiological effects on plants or parts thereof shall not be deemed to be injury, when this is the purpose for which the plant growth regulator, defoliant, or desiccant was applied, in accordance with the label claims and recommendations

17 "Certified applicator" means any individual who is certified under this chapter as authorized to use or supervise the use of any pesticide which is classified for restricted use

18 "Certified private applicator" means a certified applicator who uses or supervises the use of any pesticide which is classified for restricted use for purposes of producing any agricultural commodity on property owned or rented by the applicator or the applicator's employer or, if applied without compensation other than trading of personal services between producers of agricultural commodities, on the property of another person

19 "Certified commercial applicator" means a pesticide applicator or individual who applies or uses a restricted use pesticide or device for the purpose of producing any agricultural commodity or on any property of another for compensation

20 "Public applicator" means an individual who applies pesticides as an employee of a state agency, county, municipal corporation, or other governmental agency. This term does not include employees who work only under the direct supervision of a public applicator

21 The term "distribute" means to offer for sale, hold for sale, sell, barter, or supply pesticides in this state

22 The term "hazard" means a probability that a given pesticide will have an adverse effect on man or the environment in a given situation, the relative likelihood of danger or ill effect being dependent on a number of interrelated factors present at any given time

23 The term "permit" means a written certificate, issued by the secretary or the secretary's agent under rules adopted by the department authorizing the use of certain state restricted use pesticides

24 The term "pesticide dealer" means any person who distributes any restricted use pesticides which, by regulation, are restricted to application only by certified applicators

25 The term "restricted use pesticide" means any pesticide restricted as to use by rule of the secretary as adopted under section 206 20

26 "State restricted use pesticide" means a pesticide which is restricted for sale, use, or distribution under section 455B 471

27 The term "under the direct supervision of" means the act or process whereby the application of a pesticide is made by a competent person acting under the instructions and control of a certified applicator or a state licensed commercial applicator who is available if and when needed, even though such certified applicator is not physically present at the time place the pesticide is applied

28 The term "unreasonable adverse effects on the environment" means any unreasonable risk to man or the environment, taking into account the economic, social and environmental costs and benefits of the use of any pesticide.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3182; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §206.1; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §206.2]

83 Acts, ch 101, §34

Referred to in §455B 471, 455D.4, 570A 1

206.3 Examination and orders.

The examination of pesticides and those products to which pesticides have been applied for the content of pesticide residues shall be made under the direction of the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, for the purpose of determining whether they comply with the requirements of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter. If it shall appear from such examination that a pesticide fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, contemplates instituting criminal proceedings against any person, the secretary or representative shall cause notice to be given to such person. Any person so notified shall be given an opportunity to present the person's views, either orally or in writing, with regard to such contemplated proceedings and if thereafter in the opinion of the secretary, or authorized representative, it shall appear that the provisions of the chapter have been violated by such person, then the secretary or authorized representative may refer the facts to the county attorney for the county in which the violation shall have occurred with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of proceedings in minor violations of the chapter whenever the secretary or representative believes that the public interests will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

206.4 Classification of licenses.

1. The secretary may classify or subclassify certifications or licenses to be issued under this chapter. Each classification shall be subject to separate testing procedures and requirements. However, no person shall be required to pay an additional license fee if such person desires to be licensed in one or all of the license classifications provided for by the secretary under the authority of this section.

2. The secretary in promulgating rules under this chapter shall prescribe standards for the certification of applicators of pesticides. In determining these standards the secretary shall take into consideration standards of the United States environmental protection agency and is authorized to adopt by rule these standards.

206.5 Certification requirements.

No person shall apply any restricted use pesticide without first complying with the certification requirements of this chapter and such other restrictions as determined by the secretary or being under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

The secretary shall adopt, by rule, requirements for the examination, re-examination and certification of applicants and set a fee of not more than ten dollars for the certification program of commercial applicators and not more than five dollars for the certification program of private applicators.

The secretary may adopt rules for the training of applicators in co-operation with the co-operative extension service at Iowa State University of science and technology.

The secretary shall not require applicants for certification as private applicators to take and pass a written test, if the applicant instead shows proof that the applicant has attended an informational course of instruction approved by the secretary. The secretary shall provide for temporary certification for emergency purchases of restricted use products by requiring the purchaser to sign an affidavit, at the point of purchase, that the purchaser has read and understands the information on the label of the restricted use product being purchased.

206.6 License for commercial applicators.

1. Commercial applicator. No person shall engage in the business of applying pesticides to the lands or property of another at any time without being licensed by the secretary. The secretary shall require an annual license fee of not more than twenty-five dollars for each license. Application for a license shall be made in writing to the department on a designated form obtained from the department. Each application for a license shall contain information regarding the applicant's qualifications and proposed operations, license classification or classifications for which the applicant is applying.

A person who applies pesticides by use of an aircraft and who is licensed as an aerial commercial applicator in another state shall apply pesticides in Iowa only under the direct supervision of a person holding a valid Iowa aerial commercial applicator's license. The supervising aerial commercial applicator is jointly liable with the person who is licensed as an aerial commercial applicator in another state for damages. The supervising applicator shall immediately notify the secretary of the commencement and of the termination of service provided by the supervised applicator. However, a person licensed in another state as an aerial commercial applicator may operate independently if the person acquires an aerial commercial applicator license from the secretary, posts bond in an amount to be determined by the secretary, and registers with the department of transportation. The person is liable for damages.

2. Nonresident applicator. Any nonresident applying for a license under this chapter to operate in the state shall file a written power of attorney designating the secretary of state as the agent of such nonresident upon whom service of process may be had in the event of any suit against said nonresident person, and such power of attorney shall be so prepared and in such form as to render effective the jurisdiction of the courts of this state over such nonresident applicants. A nonresident who has a duly appointed resident agent upon whom process may be served as provided by law shall not be required to designate the secretary of state as such agent. The secretary of state shall be allowed such fees as provided by law for designating resident agents. The secretary shall be furnished with a copy of such designation of the secretary of state or of a resident agent, such copy to be certified by the secretary of state.

3. Examination for commercial applicator license. The secretary shall not issue a commercial applicator license until the individual engaged in or managing the pesticide application business is qualified by passing an examination to demonstrate to the secretary the individual's knowledge of how to apply pesticides under the classifications the individual has applied for, and the individual's knowledge of the nature and effect of pesticides the individual may apply under such classifications. The applicant successfully completing this examination requirement shall be a licensed commercial applicator.

4. Renewal of applicant's license. The secretary shall renew any applicant's license under the classifications for which such applicant is licensed, provided that a program of training of all personnel who apply pesticides has been established and maintained by the licensee. Such a program may include attending training sessions such as co-operative extension short courses or industry trade association training seminars.

5. Issue commercial applicator license. If the secretary finds the applicant qualified to apply pesticides in the classifications for which the applicant has applied and if the applicant files the bonds or insurance required under section 206.13, and if the applicant applying for a license to engage in aerial application of pesticides has met all of the requirements of the federal aviation administration, the department of transportation, and any other applicable federal or state laws or regulations to operate the equipment described in the application, the secretary shall issue a commercial applicator license limited to the classifications for which the applicant is qualified, which shall expire at the end of the calendar year of issue unless it has been revoked or suspended prior thereto by the secretary for cause. The secretary may limit the license of the applicant to the use of certain pesticides, or to certain areas, or to certain types of equipment if the applicant is only so qualified. If a license is not issued as applied for, the secretary shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons.

6. Public applicator.

a. All state agencies, counties, municipal corporations, and any other governmental agency shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted thereunder concerning the application of pesticides.

b. Public applicators for agencies listed in this subsection shall be subject to examinations as provided for in this section, however, the secretary shall issue a limited license without a fee to such public applicator who has qualified for such license. The public applicator license shall be valid only when such applicator is acting as an applicator applying or supervising the application of pesticides used by such entities. Government research personnel shall be exempt from this licensing requirement when applying pesticides only to experimental plots. Individuals licensed pursuant to this section shall be licensed public applicators.

c. Such agencies and municipal corporations shall be subject to legal recourse by any person damaged by such application of any pesticide, and such action may be brought in the county where the damage or some part thereof occurred.

Referred to in §206 11, 206 13, 206 17, 206 18

206.7 Certified applicators.

1. Requirement for certification. No commercial or public applicator shall apply any restricted use pesticide without first complying with the certification standards or being under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

2. Certification standards. Certification standards shall be adopted by the secretary to determine the individual's competence with respect to the application and handling of the restricted use pesticides. In determining these standards, the secretary shall take into consideration the standards of the United States environmental protection agency.

3. Reasons for not qualifying. If the secretary does not qualify the applicator under this section the secretary shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons therefor.

206.8 Pesticide dealer license.

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to act in the capacity of a pesticide dealer, or advertise as, or assume to act as a pesticide dealer at any time without first having obtained a license from the secretary which shall expire at the end of the calendar year of issue. A license shall be required for each location or outlet located within this state from which such pesticides are distributed. Any manufacturer, registrant, or distributor who has no pesticide dealer outlet licensed within this state and who distributes such pesticides directly into this state shall obtain a pesticide dealer license for the manufacturer's, registrant's, or distributor's principal out-of-state location or outlet.

2. Application for a license shall be accompanied by a twenty-five dollar annual license fee for the primary business location and an additional five dollar annual license fee for each other location or outlet within the state, and shall be on a form prescribed by the secretary and shall include the full name of the person applying for such license.

3. Provisions of this section shall not apply to a pesticide applicator who sells pesticides as an integral part of the applicator's pesticide application service, or any federal, state, county or municipal agency which provides pesticides only for its own programs.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.8]

206.9 Co-operative agreements.

The secretary may co-operate, receive grants-in-aid and enter into agreements with any agency of the federal government, of this state or its subdivisions, or with any agency of another state, or trade associations to obtain assistance in the implementation of this chapter and to:

1. Secure uniformity of regulations;
2. Co-operate in the enforcement of the federal pesticide control laws through the use of state or federal personnel and facilities and to implement co-operative enforcement programs;

3. Develop and administer state programs for training and certification of certified applicators consistent with federal standards;

4. Contract for training with other agencies including federal agencies for the purpose of training certified applicators;

5. Contract for monitoring pesticides for the national plan;

6. Prepare and submit state plans to meet federal certification standards; and,

7. Regulate certified applicators.

[C66, 71, 73, §206.11; C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.9]

206.10 License renewals — delinquent fee.

If the application for renewal of any license provided for in this chapter is not filed prior to the first of January in any year, a delinquent fee of twenty-five percent shall be assessed and added to the original fee and shall be paid by the applicant before the renewal license shall be issued. A delinquent fee shall not apply if the applicant furnishes an affidavit certifying that the applicant has not applied pesticides after the expiration of the applicant's license. All licenses issued under this chapter shall expire December 31 each year.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.10]

206.11 Distribution or sale of pesticides.

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to distribute, give, sell, or offer for sale within this state or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state any of the following:

a. Any pesticide which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of section 206.12.

b. Any pesticide, if any of the claims made for it, or if any of the directions for its use, differ in substance from the representations made in connection with its registration.

c. Any pesticide if the composition thereof differs from its composition as represented in connection with its registration, unless within the discretion of the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, a change in the labeling or formula of a pesticide within a registration period, has been authorized, without requiring a reregistration of the product.

d. Any pesticide, unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container, and there is affixed to such container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there be one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing the following:

(1) The name and address of the manufacturer, registrant, or person for whom manufactured.

(2) The name, brand, or trade-mark of said article.

(3) The net weight or measure of the contents subject, however, to such reasonable variations as the secretary may permit.

(4) An ingredient statement as required in section 206.12.

(5) The date of manufacture of products found by the secretary to be subject to deterioration because of age.

e. Any pesticide which contains any substance or substances in quantities highly toxic to humans; determined as provided in section 206.6, unless the label shall bear, in addition to any other matter required by this chapter:

(1) The skull and cross-bones.

(2) The word "poison" prominently, in red, on a background of distinctly contrasting color.

(3) A statement of an antidote for the pesticide.

(4) Instructions for safe disposal of the container when the used container is found by the secretary after public hearing to be hazardous to humans or other vertebrate animals.

f. Any standard lead arsenate, basic lead arsenate, calcium arsenate, magnesium arsenate, zinc arsenate, zinc arsenite, sodium fluoride, sodium fluosilicate and barium fluosilicate unless such pesticides have been distinctly colored or discolored as provided by regulations issued in accordance with this chapter, or any other white powder which the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representatives, after investigation of and after public hearing on the necessity for such action for the protection of the public health and the feasibility of such coloration or discoloration, shall, by regulation, require to be distinctly colored or discolored; unless it has been so colored or discolored; provided, that the secretary, or authorized representative, may exempt any pesticide to the extent that it is intended for a particular use or uses from the coloring or discoloring required or authorized by this section if the secretary or representative determines that such coloring or discoloring for such use or uses is not necessary for the protection of the public health or safety.

g. Any pesticide which is adulterated or misbranded.

2. It shall be unlawful:

a. For any person to detach, alter, deface, or destroy in whole or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this chapter or the rules promulgated hereunder, or to add any substance to, or take any substance from a pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this chapter.

b. For any person to use for the person's own advantage or to reveal, other than to the secretary, or officials or employees of the state or officials or employees of the United States department of agriculture, or other federal agencies, or to the courts in response to a subpoena, or to physicians, and in emergencies to pharmacists and other qualified persons for use in the preparation of antidotes, in accordance with such directions as the secretary may prescribe, any information relative to formulae of products acquired by authority of section 206.12.

c. For any person to interfere in any way with the secretary or the secretary's duly authorized agents in carrying out the duties imposed by this chapter.

3. It shall be unlawful:

a. To distribute any restricted use pesticide to any person who is required by law or rules promulgated under such law to be certified to use or purchase such restricted pesticides unless such person or the person's agent, to whom distribution is made, is certified to use or purchase such restricted pesticide. Subject to conditions established by the secretary such certification may be obtained immediately prior to distribution from any person designated by the secretary.

b. For any person to use or cause to be used any pesticide contrary to its labeling or to rules of the state of Iowa if those rules differ from or further restrict the usage.

c. For any person to handle, transport, store, display, or distribute pesticides in such a manner as to endanger human beings and their environment or to endanger food, feed, or any other products that may be transported, stored, displayed or distributed with such pesticides.

d. For any person to dispose of, discard, or store any pesticides or pesticide containers in such a manner as to cause injury to humans, vegetation, crops, livestock, wildlife, pollinating insects or to pollute any water supply or waterway.

4. The secretary may suspend an applicator's license pending inquiry, and, after opportunity for a hearing, to be held within ten days, may deny, suspend, revoke or modify any provision of any license, permit or certification issued under this chapter, if the secretary finds that the applicant or the holder of a license, permit or certification has committed any of the following acts, each of which is declared to be a violation of this chapter. However, any licensed or unlicensed person shall be subject to the penalties provided for by section 206.22.

a. Made a pesticide recommendation or application inconsistent with the labeling.

b. Applied known ineffective or improper materials.

c. Operated faulty or unsafe equipment.

d. Operated in a faulty, careless or negligent manner.

e. Neglected or, after notice, refused to comply with the provisions of this chapter, the rules adopted hereunder, or of any lawful order of the secretary.

f. Refused or neglected to keep and maintain the records required by this chapter, or to make reports when and as required.

g. Made false or fraudulent records, invoice or reports.

h. Refused or neglected to comply with any limitations or restrictions on or in a duly issued license, permit or certification.

i. Aided or abetted a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this chapter, conspired with such a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this chapter, or allowed one's license, permit or certification to be used by another person.

j. Made false or misleading statements during or after an inspection concerning any infestation or infection of pests found on land.

k. Impersonated any federal, state, county or city inspector or official.

Referred to in §206.18, 206.22

206.12 Registration.

1. Every pesticide which is distributed, sold or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce between points within the state through any point outside this state shall be registered with the department of agriculture. All registration of products shall expire on the thirty-first day of December following date of issuance, unless such registration shall be renewed annually, in which event expiration date shall be extended for each year of renewal registration, or until otherwise terminated; provided that:

a. For the purpose of this chapter, fertilizers in mixed fertilizer-pesticide formulations shall be considered as inert ingredients.

b. Within the discretion of the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, a change in the labeling or formulae of a pesticide may be made within the current period of registration, without requiring a reregistration of the product, provided the name of the item is not changed.

2. The registrant shall file with the department a statement containing:

a. The name and address of the registrant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if other than the registrant.

b. The name of the pesticide.

c. An ingredient statement in which the accepted common name and percentage by weight of each active ingredient is listed as well as the percentage of inert ingredients in the pesticides.

d. A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the pesticide and a statement of all claims made and to be made for it including directions for use.

e. A full description of the tests made and results thereof upon which the claims are based, if requested by the secretary. In the case of renewal or reregistration, a statement may be required only with respect to information which is different from that furnished when the pesticide was registered or last reregistered.

3. The registrant, before selling or offering for sale any pesticide in this state, shall register each brand and grade of such pesticide with the secretary upon forms furnished by the secretary, and, for the purpose of defraying expenses connected with the enforcement of this chapter, the secretary shall set the registration fee annually at no more than twenty dollars for each and every brand and grade to be offered for sale in this state. The fees collected shall be deposited in the treasury to the credit of the pesticide fund to be used only for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

4. The secretary, whenever the secretary deems it necessary in the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of the complete formula of any pesticide. If it appears to the secretary that the composition of the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it and if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted comply with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary shall register the article.

5. If it does not appear to the secretary that the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it or if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the article, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with this chapter so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, registration is not required in the case of a pesticide shipped from one plant within this state to another plant within this state operated by the same person.

[C66, 71, 73, §206.4; C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.12]
 Referred to in §206.11, 206.16, 206.22

206.13 Surety bond or insurance required of commercial applicator.

The secretary shall not issue a commercial applicator's license as required in section 206.6 until the applicant has furnished evidence of financial responsibility with the secretary consisting either of a surety bond or a liability insurance policy or certification thereof. Such surety bond or liability insurance policy shall provide coverage to pay on behalf of the insured all sums which the insured shall become legally obligated to pay as damages as a result of the pesticide operations of the applicant. However, the surety bond or liability insurance policy will not apply to damages or injury which are either expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. Any such liability insurance policy shall be subject to the insurer's policy provisions filed with and approved by the commissioner of insurance. The surety bond or liability insurance policy submitted as evidence of financial responsibility need not apply to damages or injury to agricultural crops, plants, or land being worked upon by the applicant.

The amount of the surety bond or liability insurance as provided for in this section shall be not less than fifty thousand dollars for property damage and public liability insurance, each separately. Such surety bond or liability insurance shall be maintained at not less than that sum at all times during the licensed period. The secretary shall be notified ten days prior to any reduction at the request of the applicant or cancellation of such surety bond or liability insurance by the surety or insurer. The total and aggregate of the surety and insurer for all claims shall be limited to the face of the bond or liability insurance policy.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.13]
 Referred to in §206.6

206.14 Reports of pesticide accidents, incidents or loss.

1. The secretary may by rule require the reporting of significant pesticide accidents or incidents to a designated state agency.

2. Any person claiming damages from a pesticide application shall have filed with the secretary on a form prescribed by the secretary a written statement claiming that the person has been damaged.

a. This report shall have been filed within sixty days after the alleged date that damages occurred. If a growing crop is alleged to have been damaged, the report must be filed prior to the time that twenty-five percent of the crop has been harvested. Such statement shall contain, but shall not be limited to the name of the person allegedly responsible for the application of said pesticide, the name of the owner or lessee of the land on which the crop is grown and for which damage is alleged to have occurred, and the date on which the alleged damage occurred.

b. The secretary shall prepare a form to be furnished to persons to be used in such cases and such form shall contain such other requirements as the secretary may deem proper. The secretary shall, upon receipt of such statement, notify the licensee and the owner or lessee of the land or other person who may be charged with the responsibility of the damages claimed, and furnish copies of such statements as may be requested. The secretary shall inspect damages whenever possible and when the secretary determines that the complaint has sufficient merit the secretary shall make such information available to the person claiming damage and to the person who is alleged to have caused the damage.

3. The filing of such a report or failure to give notice shall not preclude recovery in an action for damages and shall not affect the limitations of actions set forth in chapter 614. Nothing herein shall prohibit an action for damages for bodily injury or death to any person.

a. The filing of such report or the failure to file such a report shall not be a violation of this chapter. However, if the person failing to file such report is the only one injured from such use or application of a pesticide by others, the secretary may, when in the public interest, refuse to hold a hearing for the denial, suspension or revocation of a license or permit issued under this chapter until such report is filed.

b. Where damage is alleged to have occurred, the claimant shall permit the secretary, the licensee and the licensee's representatives, such as surety or insurer, to observe within reasonable hours the lands or nontarget organism alleged to have been damaged in order that such damage may be examined. Failure of the claimant to permit such observation and examination of the damaged lands shall automatically bar the claim against the licensee.

4. The secretary shall require, by rule, that veterinarians licensed and practicing veterinary medicine in the state promptly report to the department a case of domestic livestock poisoning or suspected poisoning by agricultural chemicals.

[C73, §206.13, 455B.102; C75, 77, §206.14, 455B.102; C79, §206.14, 455B.132; C81, §206.14]

206.15 Licensee to keep records.

The secretary shall require commercial applicators and certified commercial applicators to maintain records with respect to application of pesticides. Such relevant information as the secretary may deem necessary may be specified by regulation. Such records shall be kept for a period of three years from the date of the application of the pesticide to which such records refer, and the secretary shall, upon request in writing, be furnished with a copy of such records forthwith.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.15]

206.16 Confiscation.

1. Any pesticide or device that is distributed, sold, or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state shall be liable to be proceeded against in any district court in any county of the state where it may be found and seized for confiscation by condemnation.

a. In the case of a pesticide:

(1) If it is adulterated or misbranded.

(2) If it has not been registered under the provisions of section 206.12.

(3) If it fails to bear on its label the information required by this chapter.

(4) If it is a white powder pesticide and is not colored as required under this chapter.

b. In the case of a device, if it is misbranded.

2. If the article is condemned, it shall, after entry of decree, be disposed of by destruction or sale as the court may direct and the proceeds if such article is sold, less legal costs, shall be paid to the state treasurer; provided, that the article shall not be sold contrary to the provisions of this chapter; and, provided further, that upon payment of costs and execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that the article shall not be disposed of unlawfully, the court may direct that said article be delivered to the owner thereof for relabeling or reprocessing as the case may be.

3. When a decree of condemnation is entered against the article, court costs and fees and storage and other proper expenses shall be awarded against the person, if any, intervening as claimant of the article.

4. When the secretary has reasonable cause to believe a pesticide or device is being distributed, stored, transported, or used in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any of the prescribed rules under this chapter, the secretary may issue and serve a written "stop sale, use, or removal" order upon the owner or custodian of any such pesticide or device. If the owner or custodian is not available for service of the order, the secretary may attach the order to the pesticide or device and notify the registrant. The pesticide or device shall not be sold, used, or removed until the provisions of this chapter have been complied with and the pesticide or device has been released in writing under conditions specified by the secretary or the violation has been otherwise disposed of as provided in this chapter by a court of competent jurisdiction.

206.17 Reciprocal agreement.

The secretary may waive all or part of the examination requirements provided for in sections 206.6 and 206.7 on a reciprocal basis with any other state which has substantially the same standards.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.17]

206.18 Exception to penalties.

1. The penalties provided for violations of section 206.11, subsection 1, shall not apply to:

a. Any carrier while lawfully engaged in transporting a pesticide within this state, if such carrier shall, upon request, permit the secretary or the secretary's designated agent to copy all records showing the transactions in and movement of the articles.

b. Public officials of this state and the federal government engaged in the performance of their official duties.

c. The manufacturer or shipper of a pesticide for experimental use only:

(1) By or under the supervision of an agency of this state or of the federal government authorized by law to conduct research in the field of pesticides.

(2) By others if the pesticide is not sold and if the container thereof is plainly and conspicuously marked "for experimental use only — not to be sold", together with the manufacturer's name and address; provided, however, that if a written permit has been obtained from the secretary, pesticides may be sold for experimental purposes subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be set forth in the permit.

2. No article shall be deemed in violation of this chapter when intended solely for export to a foreign country, and when prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, all the provisions of this chapter shall apply.

3. The provisions of section 206.6 relating to licenses and requirements for their issuance shall not apply to any farmer applying pesticides for the farmer or with ground equipment or manually for the farmer's neighbors; provided, that:

a. The farmer operates farm property and operates and maintains pesticide application equipment primarily for the farmer's own use;

b. The farmer is not regularly engaged in the business of applying pesticides for hire amounting to a principal or regular occupation and that the farmer shall not publicly claim to be a pesticide applicator;

c. The farmer operates the pesticide application equipment only in the vicinity of the farmer's own property and for the accommodation of the farmer's neighbors.

4. The licensing requirements of section 206.6 shall not apply to persons using hand-powered or self-propelled equipment not exceeding seven and one-half horsepower as determined by rules promulgated by the department to apply pesticides to lawns, or to ornamental shrubs and trees not in excess of twelve feet high, as an incidental part of taking care of household lawns and yards provided, that such persons shall not publicly hold themselves out as being in the business of applying pesticides, and that such persons do not apply restricted use pesticides or state restricted use pesticides, restricted to use only by certified applicators.

5. The provisions of section 206.6 relating to licenses and requirements for their issuance shall not apply to a doctor of veterinary medicine applying pesticides to animals during the normal course of veterinary practice; provided that the veterinarian is not regularly engaged in the business of applying pesticides for hire amounting to a principal or regular occupation or does not publicly claim to be a pesticide applicator; and that the veterinarian does not apply restricted use pesticides, or state restricted use pesticides, restricted to use by certified applicators only.

[C66, 71, 73, §206.8; C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.18]

206.19 Rules.

The department shall, by rule, after public hearing following due notice:

1. Declare as a pest any form of plant or animal life or virus which is unduly injurious to plants, man, domestic animals, articles, or substances.

2. Determine the proper use of pesticides including but not limited to their formulations, times and methods of application, and other conditions of use.

[C66, §206.6; C71, §206.6, 206.12; C73, §206.12, 455B.102; C75, 77, §206.19, 455B.102; C79, §206.19, 455B.132; C81, §206.19]

206.20 Restricted use pesticides classified.

The secretary shall determine, by rule, the pesticides to be classified as restricted use pesticides. In determining these rules the secretary shall take into consideration the pesticides classified as restricted use by the United States environmental protection agency and is authorized to adopt by reference these classifications.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.20]

Referred to in §206 2(25)

206.21 Secretary of agriculture — duties.

1. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing following due notice, to make appropriate rules for carrying out the provisions of this chapter, including rules providing for the collection and chemical examination of samples of pesticides or devices.

2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions and the requirements of this chapter and the rules made and notices given pursuant thereto, the secretary or the secretary's authorized agents, inspectors, or employees may enter into or upon any place during reasonable business hours in order to take periodic random samples for chemical examinations of pesticides and devices and to open any bundle, package or other container containing or believed to contain a pesticide in order to determine whether the pesticide or device complies with the requirements of this chapter. Methods of analysis shall be those currently used by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

206.22 Penalties.

1. Any person violating section 206.11, subsection 1, paragraph "a", shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Any person violating any provision of this chapter other than section 206.11, subsection 1, paragraph "a", shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor; provided, that any offense committed more than five years after a previous conviction shall be considered a first offense; and provided, further, that in any case where a registrant was issued a warning by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, such registrant shall upon conviction of a violation of any provision of this chapter other than section 206.11, subsection 1, paragraph "a", be guilty of a serious misdemeanor; and the registration of the article with reference to which the violation occurred shall terminate automatically. An article, the registration of which has been terminated, may not again be registered unless the article, its labeling, and other material required to be submitted appear to the secretary to comply with all the requirements of this chapter.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the section, in case any person, with intent to defraud, uses or reveals information relative to formulae of products acquired under authority of section 206.12, he shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

[C66, 71, 73, §206.9; C75, 77, 79, 81, §206.22]

Referred to in §206 11

206.23 Advisory committee created — duties.

1. An advisory committee to the secretary is created. The advisory committee shall have the following members:

a. The dean, college of veterinary medicine, Iowa State University of science and technology, or the dean's designee;

b. The dean, college of medicine, University of Iowa, or the dean's designee;

c. An entomologist, botanist, geneticist, horticulturist, agronomist and two persons representing the general public appointed by the secretary. Appointive members of the advisory committee shall serve terms of four years.

2. The advisory committee shall assist the secretary in obtaining scientific data and co-ordinating agricultural chemical regulatory, enforcement, research, and educational functions of the state. The advisory committee shall recommend rules regarding the sale, use, or disuse of agricultural chemicals to the secretary.

3. The advisory committee shall adopt rules relating to its procedures, and meetings under the general supervision of the secretary.

4. The members of the advisory committee shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their official duties.

208A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires: (1) "Antifreeze" shall include all substances and preparations intended for use as the cooling medium, or to be added to the cooling liquid, in the cooling system of internal combustion engines to prevent freezing of the cooling liquid or to lower its freezing point; and (2) "person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies and associations.

208A.2 What deemed adulterated.

An antifreeze shall be deemed to be adulterated: (1) If it consists in whole or in part of any substance which will render it injurious to the cooling system of an internal combustion engine or will make the operation of the engine dangerous to the user; or (2) if its strength, quality, or purity falls below the standard of strength, quality, or purity under which it is sold.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.2]

208A.3 What deemed misbranded.

An antifreeze shall be deemed to be misbranded: (1) If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular; or (2) if in package form it does not bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight or measure on the outside of the package.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.3]

208A.4 Inspection by department.

Before any antifreeze shall be sold, exposed for sale, or held with intent to sell within this state, a sample thereof must be inspected by the department of agriculture. Upon application of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of antifreeze submitted, the department shall inspect the antifreeze submitted. If the antifreeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the department, and is not in violation of this chapter, the department shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such antifreeze in this state until the formula or labeling of the antifreeze is changed in any manner.

If the department shall at a later date find that the product to be sold, exposed for sale or held with intent to sell has been materially altered or adulterated, a change has been made in the name, brand or trademark under which the antifreeze is sold, or it violates the provisions of this chapter, the department shall notify the applicant and the permit shall be canceled forthwith.

208A.5 Samples — analysis.

The department of agriculture shall enforce the provisions of this chapter by inspections, chemical analysis, or any other appropriate methods. All samples for inspection or analysis shall be taken from stocks in the state or intended for sale in the state or the department through its agents may call upon the manufacturer or distributor applying for an inspection of an antifreeze to supply such samples thereof for analysis. The department, through its agents, shall have free access by legal means during business hours to all places of business, buildings, vehicles, cars and vessels used in the manufacture, transportation, sale or storage of any antifreeze, and it may open by legal means any box, carton, parcel, or package, containing or supposed to contain any antifreeze and may take therefrom samples for analysis.

208A.6 Rules.

The department of agriculture shall have authority to promulgate such rules as are necessary to promptly and effectively enforce the provisions of this chapter.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.6]

208A.7 List of approved brands.

The department of agriculture may furnish upon request a list of the brands and trade-marks of antifreeze inspected by the department during the calendar year which have been found to be in accord with this chapter.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.7]

208A.8 Advertising restricted.

No advertising literature relating to any antifreeze sold or to be sold in this state shall contain any statement that the antifreeze advertised for sale has met the requirements of the department of agriculture until such antifreeze has been given the laboratory test and inspection of the department, and found to meet all the standard requirements and not to be in violation of this chapter. Then such statement may be contained in any advertising literature where such brand or trade-mark of antifreeze is being advertised for sale, and such statement may be used on all regular containers of such antifreeze.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.8]

208A.9 Prosecution.

Whenever the department of agriculture shall discover any antifreeze is being sold or has been sold in violation of this chapter, the facts shall be furnished to the attorney general who shall institute proper proceedings.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.9]

208A.10 Fees remitted.

All fees provided for in this chapter shall be collected by the secretary of the department of agriculture and remitted to the state treasury.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.10]

208A.11 Penalty.

If any person, partnership, corporation, or association shall violate the provisions of this chapter, such person, partnership, corporation or association shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, the department may after due hearing cancel registration.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.11]

208A.12 Citation of chapter.

This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa Antifreeze Act."

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §208A.12]

210.1 Standard established.

The weights and measures which have been presented by the department* to the federal bureau of standards and approved, standardized, and certified by said bureau in accordance with the laws of the Congress of the United States shall be the standard weights and measures throughout the state.

[C51, §937; R60, §1775; C73, §2037; C97, §3009; S13, §3009-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3227; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.1]

Referred to in §210.2, 210.4, 210.5, 210.6

*See §189.1

210.2 Length and surface measure.

The unit or standard measure of length and surface from which all other measures of extension shall be derived and ascertained, whether they be lineal, superficial, or solid, shall be the standard yard secured in accordance with the provisions of section 210.1. It shall be divided into three equal parts called feet, and each foot into twelve equal parts called inches, and for the measure of cloth and other commodities commonly sold by the yard it may be divided into halves, quarters, eighths, and sixteenths. The rod, pole, or perch shall contain five and one-half such yards, and the mile, one thousand seven hundred sixty such yards.

[C51, §937; R60, §1775; C73, §2038-2040; C97, §3010; S13, §3009-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3228; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.2]

210.3 Land measure.

The acre for land measure shall be measured horizontally and contain ten square chains and be equivalent in area to a rectangle sixteen rods in length and ten rods in breadth, six hundred and forty such acres being contained in a square mile. The chain for measuring land shall be twenty-two yards long, and be divided into one hundred equal parts, called links.

[C73, §2041; C97, §3011; S13, §3009-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3229; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.3]

210.4 Weight.

The units or standards of weight from which all other weights shall be derived and ascertained shall be the standard avoirdupois and troy weights secured in accordance with the provisions of section 210.1. The avoirdupois pound, which bears to the troy pound the ratio of seven thousand to five thousand seven hundred sixty, shall be divided into sixteen equal parts called ounces; the hundred-weight shall consist of one hundred avoirdupois pounds, and twenty hundred-weight shall constitute a ton. The troy ounce shall be equal to the twelfth part of a troy pound.

[C51, §938; R60, §1776; C73, §2042, 2043; C97, §3012; S13, §3009-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3230; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.4]

210.5 Liquids.

The unit or standard measure of capacity for liquids from which all other measures of liquids shall be derived and ascertained shall be the standard gallon secured in accordance with the provisions of section 210.1. The gallon shall be divided by continual division by the number two so as to make half-gallons, quarts, pints, half-pints, and gills. The barrel shall consist of thirty-one and one-half gallons, and two barrels shall constitute a hogshead.

[C73, §2044, 2045; C97, §3013; S13, §3009-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3231; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.5]

210.6 Dry measure.

The unit or standard measure of capacity for substances not liquids from which all other measures of such substances shall be derived and ascertained shall be the standard half-bushel secured in accordance with the provisions of section 210.1. The peck, half-peck, quarter-peck, quart, pint, and half-pint measures for measuring commodities which are not liquids, shall be derived from the half-bushel by successively dividing the cubic inch capacity of that measure by two.

[C73, §2046, 2047; C97, §3014; S13, §3009-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3232; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.6]

210.7 Bottomless measure.

Bottomless dry measures shall not be used unless they conform in shape to the United States standard dry measures.

[SS15, §3009-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3233; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.7]

210.8 Sales of dry commodities.

All dry commodities unless bought or sold in package or wrapped form shall be bought or sold only by the standard weight or measure herein established, or by numerical count, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, except as provided in sections 210.9 to 210.12.

[SS15, §3009-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3234; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.8]

Referred to in §210.9

210.9 Drugs and section comb honey exempted.

The requirements of section 210.8 shall not apply to drugs or section comb honey.

[SS15, §3009-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3235; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.9]

Referred to in §210.8

210.10 Bushel measure.

When any of the commodities enumerated in this section shall be sold by the bushel or fractional part thereof, except when sold in a United States standard container or as provided in sections 210.11 and 210.12, the measure shall be determined by avoirdupois weight and shall be computed as follows:

210.11 Sale of fruits and vegetables by dry measure.

Blackberries, blueberries, cranberries, currants, gooseberries, raspberries, cherries, strawberries, and similar berries, also onion sets in quantities of one peck or less, may be sold by the quart, pint, or half-pint, dry measure.

[SS15, §3009-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3237; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.11]

Referred to in §210.8, 210.10

210.12 Sale of fruits and vegetables in baskets.

Grapes, other fruits, and vegetables may be sold in climax baskets; but when said commodities are sold in such manner and the containers are labeled with the net weight of the contents in accordance with the provisions of section 189.9, all the provisions of the chapter* relative to labeling foods shall be deemed to have been complied with.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3238; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.12]

Referred to in §210.8, 210.10

*See chapter 191

210.13 Berry boxes and climax baskets.

Berry boxes sold, used, or offered or exposed for sale shall have an interior capacity of one quart, pint, or half-pint dry measure. Climax baskets sold, used, or offered or exposed for sale shall be of the standard size fixed below:

1. Two-quart basket: Length of bottom piece, nine and one-half inches; width of bottom piece, three and one-half inches; thickness of bottom piece, three-eighths of an inch; height of basket, three and seven-eighths inches, outside measurement; top of basket, length eleven inches, and width five inches, outside measurement; basket to have a cover five by eleven inches, when a cover is used.

2. Four-quart basket: Length of bottom piece, twelve inches; width of bottom piece, four and one-half inches; thickness of bottom piece, three-eighths of an inch; height of basket, four and eleven-sixteenths inches, outside measurement; top of basket, length fourteen inches, width six and one-fourth inches, outside measurement; basket to have cover six and one-fourth inches by fourteen inches, when cover is used.

3. Twelve-quart basket: Length of bottom piece, sixteen inches; width of bottom piece, six and one-half inches; thickness of bottom piece, seven-sixteenths of an inch, outside measurement; top of basket, length nineteen inches, height of basket, seven and one-sixteenth inches, width nine inches, outside measurement; basket to have cover nine inches by nineteen inches, when cover is used.

[SS15, §3009-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3239; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.13]

210.14 Hop boxes.

The standard box used in packing hops shall be thirty-six inches long, eighteen inches wide, and twenty-three and one-fourth inches deep, inside measurement.

[C73, §2051; C97, §3018; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3240; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.14]

210.15 Milk bottles or containers.

The standard bottle or container used for the sale of milk and cream shall be of a capacity of one gallon, one-half gallon, three pints, one quart, one pint, one-half pint, one-third quart, one gill, filled full to the bottom of the lip.

[S13, §3009-k; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3241; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.15]

210.16 Flour.

The standard weights of flour when sold in package form shall be as follows: Two, five, ten, twenty-five, fifty, or one hundred pounds.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3242; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.16]

210.17 Mason work or stone.

The perch of mason work or stone shall consist of twenty-five feet, cubic measure.

[C51, §939; R60, §1777; C73, §2050; C97, §3017; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3243; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.17]

210.18 Sales to be by standard weight or measure — labeling.

All commodities bought or sold by weight or measure shall be bought or sold only by the standards established by this chapter, unless the vendor and vendee otherwise agree. Sales by weight shall be by avoirdupois weight unless troy weight is agreed upon by the vendor and vendee.

All commodities bought or sold in package form shall be labeled in compliance with the general provisions for labeling provided for in sections 189.9 to 189.16, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter.

210.19 Standard weight of bread.

The standard loaf of bread shall weigh one pound, avoirdupois weight. All bread manufactured, procured, made or kept for the purpose of sale, offered or exposed for sale, or sold in the form of loaves, shall be one of the following standard weights and no other, namely: Three-quarters pound, one pound, one and one-quarter pound, one and one-half pound, or multiples of one pound, avoirdupois weight; and provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to biscuits, buns, crackers, rolls or to what is commonly known as “stale” bread and sold as such, in case the seller shall, at the time of sale, expressly state to the buyer that the bread so sold is “stale” bread. In case of twin or multiple loaves, the weight specified in this section shall apply to the combined weight of the two units.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b1; C39, §3244.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.19]

Referred to in §210 21, 210 23, 210 24

210.20 Wrapper.

There shall be printed upon the wrapper of each loaf of bread in plain conspicuous type, the name and address of the manufacturer and the weight of the loaf in terms of one of the standard weights herein specified.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b2; C39, §3244.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.20]

Referred to in §210 21, 210 23, 210 24

210.21 Violations.

It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, procure, or keep for the purpose of sale, offer or expose for sale, or sell bread in the form of loaves which are not of one of the weights specified in section 210.19 or violate the rules of the secretary of agriculture pertaining thereto. Any person who, in person or by a servant, or agent, or as the servant or agent of another, shall violate any of the provisions of sections 210.19 to 210.25, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b3; C39, §3244.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.21]

Referred to in §210 22, 210 23, 210 24

210.22 “Person” defined.

The word “person” as used in section 210.21 shall be construed to import both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies, and associations.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b4; C39, §3244.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.22]

Referred to in §210 21, 210 23, 210 24

210.23 Exception.

Any person engaged in home baking is exempt from the provisions of sections 210.19 to 210.22.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b5; C39, §3244.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.23]

Referred to in §210 21, 210 24

210.24 Enforcement — rules and regulations.

The secretary of agriculture shall enforce the provisions of sections 210.19 to 210.25. The secretary shall make rules for the enforcement of the provisions of said sections not inconsistent therewith, and such rules and regulations shall include reasonable variations and tolerances.

[C27, 31, 35, §3244-b6; C39, §3244.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.24]

Referred to in §210 21

210.25 Weighing bread.

Bread when weighed for inspection shall be weighed in the manufacturer’s plant when said bread is wrapped ready for delivery, and bread coming into the state from an adjoining state when weighed for inspection shall be weighed in the packages, containers, vehicles, or trucks of the manufacturer at the time when said bread crosses the state line, or at the first point of stop for sale or delivery of said bread after crossing the Iowa state line, and the weight shall be determined by averaging the weight of not less than fifteen loaves picked at random from any given lot.

[C35, §3244-f1; C39, §3244.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §210.25]

Referred to in §210 21, 210 24

210.26 Measuring saw logs.

The Scribner decimal “C” log rule is hereby adopted as the standard log rule for determining the board-foot content of saw logs; and all contracts hereafter entered into for the cutting, purchase and sale of saw logs shall be deemed to be made on the basis of such standard rule unless some other method is specifically agreed upon.

SALE OF LIVESTOCK

Repealed by 66GA, ch 1056, §45

CHAPTER 212

SALES OF CERTAIN COMMODITIES FROM BULK

General penalty, §189.21

- 212.1 Coal, charcoal, and coke.
 212.2 Delivery tickets required.
 212.3 Disposition of delivery tickets.

- 212.4 Sales without delivery.
 212.5 Repealed by 62GA, ch 190, §1.
 212.6 Inspection of vehicles.

212.1 Coal, charcoal, and coke.

No person shall sell, offer or expose for sale any coal, charcoal, or coke in any other manner than by weight, or represent any of said commodities as being the product of any county, state, or territory, except that in which mined or produced, or represent that said commodities contain more British thermal units than are present therein.

[S13, §3009-l; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3245; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §212.1]

212.2 Delivery tickets required.

No person shall deliver any bulk commodities, other than liquids, by vehicle unless otherwise provided for without each such delivery being accompanied by duplicate delivery tickets, on each of which shall be written in ink or other indelible substance the actual weight distinctly expressed in pounds or kilograms of the gross weight of the load, the tare of the delivery vehicle, and the net amount in weight of the commodity or, if the commodity is weighed by hopper scale or belt conveyor, the net weight of the commodity expressed in pounds or kilograms without expression of the tare of the delivery vehicle or the gross weight of the load. The delivery ticket shall display the names of the purchaser and the dealer from whom purchased.

212.3 Disposition of delivery tickets.

One of said duplicate tickets shall be delivered to the vendee and the other one shall be returned to the vendor. Upon demand of the department* the person in charge of the load shall surrender one of said duplicate tickets to the person making such demand. If said ticket is retained an official weight slip shall be delivered by said department to the vendee or the vendee's agent.

[S13, §3009-l; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3247; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §212.3]

212.4 Sales without delivery.

When the vendee carries away the commodity purchased, a delivery ticket, showing the actual number of pounds received by the vendee, shall be issued to the vendee by the vendor.

[S13, §3009-l; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3248; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §212.4]

212.5 Repealed by 62GA, ch 190, §1.212.6 Inspection of vehicles.

The department may stop any wagon, auto truck, or other vehicle loaded with any commodity being bought, offered or exposed for sale, or sold, and compel the person having charge of the same to bring the load to a scale designated by said department and weighed for the purpose of determining the true net weight of the commodity.

[S13, §3009-l; SS15, §3009-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3250; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §212.6]

STATE METROLOGIST AND CITY SEALERS

General penalty, §189 21

- 213.1 State metrologist.
- 213.2 Physical standards.
- 213.3 Testing weights and measures.
- 213.4 Sealing milk bottles.
- 213.5 Sealer for cities.
- 213.6 Duties.
- 213.7 Expenses.

213.1 State metrologist.

The department* shall designate one of its assistants to act as state metrologist of weights and measures. All weights and measures sealed by the state metrologist shall be impressed with the word "Iowa." [C73, §2053-2055; C97, §3020; S13, §3009-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3251; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.1]

*See §189.1

213.2 Physical standards.

Weights and measures, which conform to the standards of the national bureau of standards existing as of January 1, 1979, that are traceable to the United States standards supplied by the federal government or approved as being in compliance with its standards by the national bureau of standards shall be the state primary standard of weights and measures. Such weights and measures shall be verified upon initial receipt of same and as often as deemed necessary by the secretary of agriculture. The secretary may provide for the alteration in the state primary standard of weights and measures in order to maintain traceability with the standard of the national bureau of standards. All such alterations shall be made pursuant to rules promulgated by the secretary in accordance with chapter 17A.

[C73, §2053, 2054; C97, §3020; S13, §3009-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3252; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.2]

213.3 Testing weights and measures.

Upon written request of any citizen, firm, or corporation, city or county, or educational institution of the state made to the department, a test or calibration of any weights, measures, weighing or measuring devices, and instruments or apparatus to be used as standards shall be made.

[S13, §3009-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3253; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.3]

213.4 Sealing milk bottles.

The state metrologist shall not be required to seal bottles for milk or cream, but they shall be inspected from time to time in order to ascertain whether they are standard.

[S13, §3009-k; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3254; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.4]

213.5 Sealer for cities.

A sealer of weights and measures may be appointed in any city by the council, who shall hold office during its pleasure, and may obtain from the department such standard weights and measures as the council may deem necessary.

[C73, §2059, 2060; C97, §3023; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3255; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.5]

213.6 Duties.

Each sealer in cities shall take charge of and provide for the safekeeping of the city standards, and see that the weights, measures, and all apparatus used for determining the quantity of commodities used throughout the city, agree with the standards in the sealer's possession.

[C73, §2059, 2060; C97, §3023; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3256; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.6]

213.7 Expenses.

All expenses directly incurred in furnishing the several cities with standards, or in comparing those that may be in their possession, shall be borne by said cities.

[C73, §2061; C97, §3024; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3257; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §213.7]

- 214.12 Motor vehicle fuel pump pricing labels. Repealed by 80 Acts, ch 1054, §20.

214.1 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter:

1. "Public scale" shall mean any scale or weighing device for the use of which a charge is made or compensation is derived.

2. "Gasoline pump" shall mean any pump, meter, or similar measuring device used for measuring gasoline.

[C73, §2065; C97, §3027; SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3258; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.1]

80 Acts, ch 1054, §20, effective January 1, 1985

214.2 License.

Every person who shall use or display for use any public scale, pump or meter used in measuring the quantity of gasoline or fuel oil sold to consumer customers shall secure a license for said scale, pump or meter from the department.

[SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3259; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.2]

214.3 Fee.

The license for a public scale shall expire on December 31 of each year, and for a gasoline pump or meter on June 30 of each year.

A fee for each said license shall be four dollars per annum provided, however, that the fee for gasoline pumps and meters shall be two dollars per annum if paid within one month from the date said license is due.

A license fee on every gasoline pump and meter is due the day any such pump or meter is placed in operation.

[SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3260; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.3]

214.4 Form of license.

The license shall be in the form of a label bearing the words "Licensed by the State of Iowa, No." Each label shall be numbered consecutively and bear the year for which the license is granted.

[SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3261; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.4]

214.5 License to be displayed.

The license plate shall be displayed prominently on the front of the scale or pump, and the defacing or wrongful removal of such plate shall be punished as provided in chapter 189. Absence of license plate shall be prima-facie evidence that the weighing or measuring device is being operated contrary to law.

[SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3262; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.5]

214.6 Oath of weighmasters.

All persons keeping public scales, before entering upon their duties as weighmasters, shall be sworn before some person having authority to administer oaths, to keep their scales correctly balanced, to make true weights, and to render a correct account to the person having weighing done.

[C73, §2065; C97, §3027; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3263; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.6]

Referred to in §214.8

214.7 Registers.

Weighmasters are required to make true weights and keep a correct register of all weighing done by them, giving the amount of each weight, date thereof, and the name of the person or persons for whom done, and give, upon demand, to any person having weighing done, a certificate showing the weight, date, and for whom weighed.

[C73, §2066, 2067; C97, §3028; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3264; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.7]

Referred to in §214.8

214.8 Penalty.

Any weighmaster violating any of the provisions of sections 214.6 and 214.7, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor, and be liable to the person injured for all damages sustained.

[C73, §2068; C97, §3029; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3265; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214.8]

214.9 Self-service gasoline pumps.

Self-service gasoline pumps and self-service special fuel pumps at service stations may be equipped with automatic latch-open devices on the fuel dispensing hose nozzle only if the nozzle valve is the automatic closing type.

[C81, §214.9]

214.10 Rules.

The department of agriculture may promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A as necessary to promptly and effectively enforce the provisions of this chapter.

[C81, §214.10]

214.11 Half pricing of motor vehicle fuel.
Repealed by 80 Acts, ch 1054, §20, effective January 1, 1985.

Ch 76, §2—85 Acts

214A.1 Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply to the various terms used in this chapter:

1. “Motor vehicle fuel” shall mean and include any substance or combination of substances which is intended to be or is capable of being used for the purpose of propelling or running by combustion any internal combustion engine and kept for sale or sold for that purpose. The products commonly known as kerosene and distillate or petroleum products of lower gravity (Baume scale) when not used to propel a motor vehicle or for compounding or combining with any motor vehicle fuel, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

2. “Department” wherever used throughout this chapter shall be construed to mean the department of agriculture.

3. “Retail dealer” shall mean and include any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation who operates, maintains, or conducts, either in person, or by any agent, employee, or servant, any place of business, filling station, pump station, or tank wagon, from which any motor vehicle fuel, as defined herein, is sold or offered for sale, at retail, or to the final or ultimate consumer.

4. “Wholesale dealer” shall mean and include any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation, other than retail dealers as defined in subsection 3 of this section, who sells, keeps, or holds, for sale, or purchase for the purpose of sale within this state, any motor vehicle fuel.

[C31, 35, §5093-d1; C39, §5095.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.1; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.1]

Referred to in §214.1

214A.2 Tests and standards.

1. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing following due notice, to make appropriate rules for carrying out the provisions of this chapter. In the interest of uniformity, the secretary shall adopt by reference or otherwise specifications relating to tests and standards for motor fuel established by the American society for testing and materials (A.S.T.M.), unless the secretary determines those specifications are inconsistent with this chapter or are not appropriate to the conditions which exist in this state.

2. Octane number shall conform to the average of values obtained from the A.S.T.M. D-2699 research method and the A.S.T.M. D-2700 motor method.

Octane number for regular grade gasoline shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than eighty-eight.

Octane number for premium grade leaded gasoline shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than ninety-three.

Octane number for unleaded grade gasoline shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than eighty-seven.

Octane number for premium grade unleaded gasoline shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than ninety.

Octane number for ten percent ethanol-blended leaded fuel shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than ninety.

Octane number for ten percent ethanol-blended unleaded fuel shall follow the latest specifications of A.S.T.M. and shall not be less than eighty-nine.

“A.S.T.M.” means the A.S.T.M. standards in effect on July 1, 1983.

3. Gasoline shall not contain a mixture of more than thirteen percent ethanol.

[C31, 35, §5093-d2; C39, §5095.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.2; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.2; 82 Acts, ch 1131, §1, ch 1170, §1] 214A.2(4) Add'l. P.C.
84 Acts, ch 1083, §1 Ch 76, §§-85 Acts
Referred to in §214A.4, 214A.6, 214A.7, 214A.9

214A.3 False representations.

No person for purposes of selling shall falsely represent the quality or kind of any motor vehicle fuel or add coloring matter thereto for the purpose of misleading the public as to its quality.

[C31, 35, §5093-d3; C39, §5095.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.3; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.3]

214A.4 Intrastate shipments.

No wholesale dealer or retail dealer shall receive or sell or hold for sale, within this state, any motor vehicle fuel for which specifications are prescribed in this chapter, unless the dealer first secures from the refiner or producer of such motor vehicle fuel, a statement, verified by the oath of a competent chemist, employed by or representing such refiner or producer, showing the true standards and tests of such motor vehicle fuel, obtained by the methods referred to in section 214A.2 hereof. Such verified tests shall be required and must accompany the bill of lading or shipping documents representing the shipment of such motor vehicle fuel into this state before such shipment can be received and unloaded.

214A.5 Sales slip on demand.

Each wholesale dealer or retail dealer in this state shall, when making a sale of motor vehicle fuel, give to each purchaser upon demand a sales slip upon which must be printed the words "This motor vehicle fuel conforms to the standard of specifications required by the state of Iowa."

[C31, 35, §5093-d5; C39, §5095.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.5; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.5]

214A.6 Department tests — fee.

Any wholesale dealer or retail dealer may, at the dealer's option, forward to the department for testing a sample taken in the manner here prescribed. The dealer shall draw from such original container, in the presence of some reputable person, into a clean receptacle, suitable for shipping, a sample of such motor vehicle fuel, not less than eight fluid ounces, and shall carefully seal such receptacle and affix thereto a written label showing the car number or other identifying marks upon such original container from which such sample was taken, all in the presence of such reputable person, and such wholesale dealer or retail dealer and such reputable person shall make a statement, under oath, that such sample was taken in the manner provided for herein, referring to the identifying marks upon such label. At the same time such sworn statement, together with a fee of two dollars for the making of such test, shall be forwarded to the department. The department shall test such sample by the methods provided for in section 214A.2 and shall forward to such wholesale dealer or retail dealer a certified copy of the results of such tests.

[C31, 35, §5093-d6; C39, §5095.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.6; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.6]

214A.7 Department inspection — samples tested.

The department of agriculture, its agents or employees, shall, from time to time, make or cause to be made tests of any motor vehicle fuel which is being sold, or held or offered for sale within this state, and for such purposes such inspectors shall have the right to enter upon the premises of any wholesale dealer or retail dealer in motor vehicle fuels within this state, and to take from any container a sample of such motor vehicle fuel, not to exceed eight fluid ounces, which sample shall be sealed and appropriately marked or labeled by such inspector and delivered to the department. The department shall make, or cause to be made, complete analyses or tests of such motor vehicle fuel by the methods specified in section 214A.2.

214A.8 Prohibition.

No retail or wholesale dealer defined in this chapter shall sell any motor vehicle fuel in the state that fails to meet the standards and specifications applicable thereto as set out in this chapter.

[C31, 35, §5093-d8; C39, §5095.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.8; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.8]

214A.9 Poster showing analysis.

Any retail dealer who sells or holds for sale motor vehicle fuel, as defined in section 214A.2 hereof, may post upon any container or pump from which such motor vehicle fuel is being sold, a statement or notice in form to be prescribed by the department, showing the results of the tests of such motor vehicle fuel then being sold from such pumps or other containers.

[C31, 35, §5093-d9; C39, §5095.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.9; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.9]

214A.10 Transfer pipes.

No wholesale dealer, retail dealer, or other person shall, within this state, use the same pipeline, for transferring gasoline and similar motor vehicle fuel from one container to another, as that used for transferring kerosene or other inflammable product used for open flame illuminating or heating purposes.

[C31, 35, §5093-d10; C39, §5095.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §323.10; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §214A.10]

214A.11 Violations.

Any person violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

215.1 Duty to inspect.

The department* shall regularly inspect all commercial weighing and measuring devices, and when complaint is made to the department that any false or incorrect weights or measures are being made, the department shall inspect the commercial weighing and measuring devices which caused the complaint.

[S13, §3009-o; SS15, §3009-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3266; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.1]

*See §189 1

215.2 Fees.

An inspection fee shall be charged the person owning or operating the scale so inspected in accordance with the following schedule:

1. Railroad track scales, fifty dollars each.
2. Other scales,
 - a. 500 to 1,000 pounds capacity, five dollars each;
 - b. 1,001 to 30,000 pounds capacity, fifteen dollars each, except as provided in subsection 3;

c. 30,001 to 50,000 pounds capacity, thirty-five dollars each;

d. 50,001 pounds capacity or more, fifty dollars each.

3. A minimum fee of twenty-five dollars shall be charged for each vehicle and livestock scale.

[SS15, §3009-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3267; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.2]

215.3 Payment by party complaining.

When such inspection shall be made upon the complaint of any person other than the owner of the scale, and upon examination the scale is found by the department to be accurate for weighing, the inspection fee for such inspection shall be paid by the person making complaint.

[SS15, §3009-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3268; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.3]

215.4 Limitation on inspections.

A person shall not be required to pay more than two inspection fees for any one scale in any one year unless additional inspections are made at the request of the owner of said scale. If a scale is found to be inaccurate upon inspection by the department and notice is received by the department that the scale has been repaired and upon reinspection the scale is found to be accurate, a fee shall not be charged for the reinspection. A second inspection fee shall be charged if, upon reinspection, the scale is found to be inaccurate.

[SS15, §3009-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3269; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.4]

215.5 Confiscation of scales.

The department may seize without warrant and confiscate any incorrect scales, weights, or measures, or any weighing apparatus or part thereof which do not conform to the state standards or upon which the license fee has not been paid. If any weighing or measuring apparatus or part thereof be found out of order the same may be tagged by the department "Condemned until repaired", which tag shall not be altered or removed until said apparatus is properly repaired.

[S13, §3009-q; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3270; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.5]

215.6 False weights or measures.

If any person engaged in the purchase or sale of any commodity by weight or measurement, or in the employment of labor where the price thereof is to be determined by weight or measurement of the articles upon which such labor is bestowed, has in the person's possession any inaccurate scales, weights, or measures, or other apparatus for determining the quantity of any commodity, which do not conform to the standard weights and measures, the person shall be punished as provided in chapter 189.

[SS15, §3009-p; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3271; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.6]

215.7 Transactions by false weights or measures.

Any person shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of this chapter and shall be punished as provided in chapter 189:

1. If such person sell, trade, deliver, charge for or claim to have delivered to a purchaser an amount of any commodity which is less in weight or measure than that which is asked for, agreed upon, claimed to have been delivered, or noted on the delivery ticket.

2. If such person make settlement for or enter credit, based upon any false weight or measurement, for any commodity purchased.

3. If such person make settlement for or enter credit, based upon any false weight or measurement, for any labor where the price of producing or mining is determined by weight or measure.

4. If such person record a false weight or measurement upon the weight ticket or book.

[SS15, §3009-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3272; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.7]

Referred to in §215.8

215.8 Reasonable variations.

In enforcing the provisions of section 215.7 reasonable variations shall be permitted and exemptions as to small packages shall be established by rules of the department.

[SS15, §3009-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3273; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.8]

215.9 Power of cities limited.

Commodities weighed upon any scale bearing the inspection card, issued by the department, shall not be required to be reweighed by any ordinance of any city, nor shall their sale, at the weights so ascertained, and because thereof, be, by such ordinance, prohibited or restricted.

[SS15, §3009-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3274; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.9]

215.10 Installation of new scales.

It shall be unlawful to install a scale, used for commercial purposes in this state, unless the scale is so installed that it is easily accessible for inspection and testing by equipment of the state department of agriculture and with due regard to the scale's size and capacity. Every scale manufacturer or dealer shall, upon selling a scale of the above types in Iowa, submit to the department of agriculture upon forms provided by the department, the make, capacity of the scale, the date of sale, and the date and location of its installation.

215.11 Dial visible to public.

The weight indicating dial or beams on counter scales used to weigh articles sold at retail shall be so located that the reading dial indicating the weight shall at all times be visible to the public.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.11]

215.12 Bond of scale repairers.

Any person, firm, or corporation engaging in any scale repair work for hire in this state shall first file with the department of agriculture a bond of the form required by chapter 64 in the sum of one thousand dollars conditioned to guarantee the workmanship and faithful performance of the assumed task and providing for liquidated damages for failure to perform such conditions. Such person, firm, or corporation, on depositing with the department of agriculture a bond in the amount of one thousand dollars shall be furnished a certificate authorizing them to do what is known as scale repair work, or installation of new scales in the state of Iowa. This certificate shall be valid until revoked by the secretary of agriculture.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.12]

215.13 Graduations on beam.

All new weigh beams or dials on what is known as livestock scales used for determining the weight in buying or selling livestock shall be in not over five-pound graduations.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.13]

215.14 Approval by department — electronic scales.

No scale known in the commercial field as a railroad, truck or livestock scale shall be installed in the state of Iowa without first being approved by the state department of agriculture. The approval shall be based upon the recommendations of the U. S. bureau of standards. All motor truck scales, livestock scales, and grain dump scales, hereafter installed and regardless of capacity shall have a clearance of not less than four feet from the finished floor line of scale pit to the bottom of the "I" beam of the scale bridge, except an electronic scale may be installed in a building and the scale shall be placed on concrete footings with concrete floor. The specifications for these scales shall be furnished by the scale manufacturer after approval by the state department of agriculture. The approval shall be based upon the recommendation of the U. S. bureau of standards.

215.15 Scale pit.

Scale pit shall have proper room for inspector or service person to repair or inspect scale. Scale pit shall remain dry at all times and adequate drainage shall be provided for the purpose of inspecting and cleaning.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.15]

215.16 Weighing beyond capacity.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to use such a scale for weighing commodities the gross weight of which is greater than the factory rated scale capacity. The capacity of the scale shall be stamped by the manufacturer on each weigh beam or dial. The capacity of the scale shall be posted so as to be visible to the public.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.16]

215.17 Test weights to be used.

Any person, firm or corporation engaged in scale repair work for hire shall use only test weights sealed by the state department of agriculture in determining the effectiveness of repair work and said test weights shall be sealed as to their accuracy once each year. Provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for such person to claim to be an official scale inspector or to use said test weights except to determine the accuracy of scale repair work done by the person and the person shall be entitled to no fee for their use. A fee shall be charged and collected at time of inspection for the inspection of such weights as follows:

All weights up to and including 25 pounds $.75 each

All weights up to and including 50 pounds	1.50 each
Over 50 pounds capacity, up to and including 100 pounds	2.00 each
Over 100 pounds capacity, up to and including 500 pounds.	3.00 each
Over 500 pounds capacity, up to and including 1,000 pounds	5.00 each
The fee for all tank calibrations shall be as follows:
100 gallons up to and including 300 gallons	$ 3.00
301 gallons up to and including 500 gallons	5.00
501 gallons up to and including 1,000 gallons.	7.50
1,001 gallons up to and including 2,000 gallons.	10.00
2,001 gallons up to and including 3,000 gallons.	12.00
3,001 gallons up to and including 4,000 gallons.	14.00
4,001 gallons up to and including 5,000 gallons.	16.00
5,001 gallons up to and including 6,000 gallons.	18.00
6,001 gallons up to and including 7,000 gallons.	20.00
7,001 gallons and up	25.00

No calibration will be required of any tank which is not used for the purpose of measuring, or which is equipped with a meter, nor shall vehicle tanks loaded from meters and carrying a printed ticket showing gallonage be required to be calibrated.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.17]

215.18 Specifications and tolerances.

The secretary of agriculture may after consultation and with the advice of U. S. bureau of standards establish specifications and tolerances for weights and measures and weighing and measuring devices, and said specifications and tolerances shall be legal specifications and tolerances in this state, and shall be observed in all inspections and tests.

[C65, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.18] Referred to in §215A 3

215.19 Automatic recorders on scales.

Except for scales used by packers slaughtering fewer than one hundred twenty head of livestock per day, all scales with a capacity over five hundred pounds, which are used for commercial purposes in the state of Iowa, and installed after January 1, 1981, shall be equipped with either a type-registering weigh beam, a dial with a mechanical ticket printer, an automatic weight recorder, or some similar device which shall be used for printing or stamping the weight values on scale tickets.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215.19] Referred to in §327D 130

215.20 Liquid petroleum gas meters — fee.

The secretary of agriculture shall annually inspect and test all liquid meters used for the measurement and retail sale of liquefied petroleum gas and the secretary shall condemn all meters which are found to be inaccurate. A reasonable tolerance within a maximum of two percent, plus or minus, shall be allowed. It is unlawful to use a meter for retail measurement and sale which has been condemned. All condemned meters shall be conspicuously marked "inaccurate", and the mark shall not be removed or defaced except upon authorization of the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's authorized representative. The secretary of agriculture shall charge an annual fee of ten dollars for each meter tested but the testing fee provided for by this section shall not be charged more than once in a calendar year to each meter tested. When liquefied petroleum gas is sold or delivered to a consumer as a liquid and by liquid measurement, the volume of liquid sold and delivered shall be corrected to a temperature of 60° F through use of an approved volume correction factor table, or through use of an approved meter with sealed automatic compensation mechanism. All sale tickets shall show the delivered gallons, the temperature at the time of delivery and the corrected gallonage, or shall state that temperature correction was automatically made.

Any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215 20]

215.21 Individual carcass weights.

With payment for each purchase of livestock except poultry bought on a carcass weight or grade and yield basis, each packer shall provide the seller with one statement displaying the individual carcass weights of all the animals sold.

[C81, §215.21]

215.22 Packer-monorail scale.

The speed of a monorail scale operation used by a packer shall not exceed the manufacturer's recommendation or specifications for accurate weighing under normal, in-use operating conditions. The operational speed shall be permanently marked on the indicating element. Adequate measures shall be provided whereby testing and inspections can be conducted under normal in-use conditions. Tare weights for trolleys or gambrels shall be registered with the department. The registered tare adjustment on the indicating element shall be sealed or pinned.

[C81, §215 22]

215.23 Servicer's license.

A servicer shall not install, service or repair a commercial weighing or measuring device until the servicer has demonstrated that the servicer has available adequate testing equipment, and that the servicer possesses a working knowledge of all devices the servicer intends to install or repair and of all appropriate weights, measures, statutes and rules, as evidenced by passing a qualifying examination to be conducted by the department and obtaining a license. The secretary of agriculture shall establish by rule pursuant to chapter 17A, requirements for and contents of the examination. In determining these qualifications, the secretary shall consider the specifications of the national bureau of standards, handbook forty-four, "specifications, tolerances, and technical requirements for commercial weighing and measuring devices." The secretary shall require an annual license fee of not more than five dollars for each license. Each license shall expire one year from date of issuance.

[C81, §215 23]

215.24 Rules.

The department of agriculture may promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A as necessary to promptly and effectively enforce the provisions of this chapter.

[C81, §215 24]

215.25 Railroad track scales.

The department of agriculture shall inspect the railroad track scales referred to in section 327D 127. The department may adopt rules establishing standards for the scales. The rules may include but are not limited to safety standards, accuracy and the style and content of forms and certificates to be used for weighing.

[C81, §215 25]

215.26 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

1 "Commercial weighing and measuring device" means a weight or measure or weighing or measuring device used to establish size, quantity, area or other quantitative measurement of a commodity sold by weight or measurement, or where the price to be paid for producing the commodity is based upon the weight or measurement of the commodity. The term includes an accessory attached to or used in connection with a commercial weighing or measuring device when the accessory is so designed or installed that its operation may affect the accuracy of the device.

2 "Servicer" means an individual employed by a service agency who installs, services or repairs a commercial weighing or measuring device for hire, commission or salary.

3 "Service agency" means an individual, firm or corporation which holds itself out to the public as having servicers available to install, service or repair a weighing or measuring device for hire.

4 "Packer" means a person engaged in the business of any of the following:

a Buying livestock in commerce for purposes of slaughter, b Manufacturing or preparing meats or meat food products for sale or shipment in commerce, c Marketing meats, meat food products, or live stock products in an unmanufactured form acting as a wholesale broker, dealer, or distributor in commerce.

CHAPTER 215A

MOISTURE-MEASURING DEVICES

215A.1 Definitions.
 215A.2 Inspection by department.
 215A.3 Rules adopted — hearing.
 215A.4 Officer assigned to act.
 215A.5 Marking with seal.

215A.6 Procedure when device rejected.
 215A.7 Located where visible to public.
 215A.8 Untested devices not to be used — exception.
 215A.9 Inspection fee.
 215A.10 Penalty.

215A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of agriculture.
2. "Department" means the Iowa department of agriculture.
3. "Moisture-measuring devices" means any device or instrument used by any person in proving or ascertaining the moisture content of agricultural products.
4. "Agricultural products" means any product of agricultural activity which is tested for moisture content when offered for sale, processing, or storage.
5. "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, co-operative association, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest in the same venture and shall include the United States, the state, or any subdivision of either.

215A.2 Inspection by department.

The department shall inspect or cause to be inspected at least annually every moisture-measuring device used in commerce in this state, except those belonging to the United States or the state, or any subdivision of either, except as herein provided. The department may inspect or cause to be inspected at the convenience of the department any moisture-measuring device upon a request in writing from the owner thereof.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.2]

215A.3 Rules adopted — hearing.

The department is charged with the enforcement of this chapter and, after due publicity and due public hearing, is empowered to establish rules, regulations, specifications, standards, and tests as necessary in order to secure the efficient administration of this chapter. Publicity concerning the public hearing shall be reasonably calculated to give interested parties adequate notice and adequate opportunity to be heard. In establishing such rules, regulations, specifications, standards, and tests the department may use the specifications and tolerances established in section 215.18, and shall use the specifications and tolerances established by the United States department of agriculture as of November 15, 1971, in chapter XII of GR instruction 916-6, equipment manual, used by the federal grain inspection service. The department may from time to time publish such data in connection with the administration of this chapter as may be of public interest.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.3]

215A.4 Officer assigned to act.

The department may at its discretion designate an employee or officer of the department to act for the department in any details connected with the administration of this chapter.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.4]

215A.5 Marking with seal.

If an inspection or comparative test reveals that the moisture-measuring device being inspected or tested conforms to the standards and specifications established by the department, the department shall cause the same to be marked with an appropriate seal. Any moisture-measuring device which upon inspection is found not to conform with the specifications and standards established by the department shall be marked with an appropriate seal showing such device to be defective, which seal shall not be altered or removed until said moisture-measuring device is properly repaired and reinspected. The owner or user of such device shall be notified of such defective condition by the department or its properly designated employees on an inspection form prepared by the department.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.5]

Referred to in §215A.6, 215A.9

215A.6 Procedure when device rejected.

Any defective moisture-measuring device, while so marked, sealed, or tagged, as provided in section 215A.5, may be used to ascertain the moisture content of agricultural products offered for sale, processing, or storage, only under the following conditions:

1. The person shall keep a record, open to inspection, of every commercial sample of agricultural products inspected by the tagged device, showing that an adjustment was made on all such agricultural products tested.
2. The device shall be repaired to comply with section 215A.5 within a period of thirty days, and the department thereupon notified.

If, upon reinspection, the device is again rejected under the provisions of section 215A.5, such device shall be sealed and shall not be used until repaired and reinspected.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.6]

215A.7 Located where visible to public.

Every device used to ascertain the moisture content of agricultural products offered for sale, processing, or storage shall be used in a location visible to the general public and the detailed procedure for operating a moisture-measuring device shall be displayed in a conspicuous place close to the moisture-measuring device.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.7]

215A.8 Untested devices not to be used — exception.

No person shall use or cause to be used any grain moisture-measuring device which has not been inspected and approved for use by the department; except, a newly purchased grain moisture-measuring device may be used prior to regular inspection and approval if the user of such device has given notice to the department of the purchase and before use of such new device.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §215A.8]

215A.9 Inspection fee.

The department shall charge, assess, and cause to be collected at the time of inspection an inspection fee of ten dollars for the first moisture-measuring device required to be inspected under this chapter, and for each additional moisture-measuring device inspected at the same time the fee shall be five dollars.

A fee of ten dollars shall be charged for each device subject to reinspection under section 215A.5. All monies received by the department under the provisions of this chapter shall be handled in the same manner as “repayment receipts” as defined in chapter 8, and shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

215A.10 Penalty.

Every person who uses or causes to be used a moisture-measuring device in commerce with knowledge that such device has not been inspected and approved by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

216.1 Statement of intent.

It is the intent of this chapter that there be made available to inmates of the state correctional institutions opportunities for employment in meaningful jobs with the following objectives:

1. To develop within those inmates willing to accept and persevere in such employment:
 - a. Positive attitudes which will enable them to eventually function as law-abiding, self-supporting members of the community;
 - b. Good work habits that will assist them in eventually securing and holding gainful employment outside the correctional system; and
 - c. To the extent feasible, marketable skills that can lead directly to gainful employment upon release from a correctional institution.
2. To enable those inmates willing to accept and persevere in such employment to:
 - a. Provide or assist in providing for their dependents, thus tending to strengthen the inmates' family ties while reducing the likelihood that inmates' families will have to rely upon public assistance for subsistence;

b. Make restitution, as the opportunity to do so becomes available, to the victims of the offenses for which the inmates were incarcerated, so as to assist the inmates in accepting responsibility for the consequences of their acts;

c. Make it feasible to require that such inmates pay some portion of the cost of board and maintenance in a correctional institution, in a manner similar to what would be necessary if they were employed in the community; and

d. Accumulate savings so that such inmates will have funds for necessities upon their eventual return to the community.

216.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Industries board" means the state prison industries advisory board.
2. "Iowa state industries" means prison industries that are established and maintained by the Iowa department of corrections, in consultation with the industries board, at or adjacent to the state's adult correctional institutions, except that an inmate employment program established by the state director under section 216.5, subsection 7 is not restricted to industries at or adjacent to the institutions.
3. "State director" means the director of the Iowa department of corrections, or the director's designee. [C79, 81, §216.2; 82 Acts, ch 1007, §2, ch 1100, §3] 83 Acts, ch 96, §61, 159

216.3 Prison industries advisory board.

1. There is established a state prison industries advisory board, consisting of seven members selected as prescribed by this subsection.

a. Five members shall be appointed by the governor for terms of four years beginning July 1 of the year of appointment. They shall be chosen as follows:

- (1) One member shall represent agriculture and one member shall represent manufacturing, with particular reference to the roles of their constituencies as potential employers of inmates and former inmates of the state's correctional institutions.
- (2) One member shall represent labor organizations, membership in which may be helpful to former inmates of the state's correctional institutions who seek to train for and obtain gainful employment.
- (3) One member shall represent agencies, groups and individuals in this state which plan and maintain programs of vocational and technical education oriented to development of marketable skills.
- (4) One member shall represent the financial industry and be familiar with accounting practices in private industry.

b. One member each shall be designated by and shall serve at the pleasure of the state director and the state board of parole, respectively.

c. Upon the resignation, death or removal of any member appointed under paragraph "a" of this subsection, the vacancy shall be filled by the governor for the balance of the unexpired term. In making the initial appointments under that paragraph, the governor shall designate two appointees to serve terms of two years and three to serve terms of four years from July 1, 1977.

2. Biennially, the industries board shall organize by election of a chairperson and a vice chairperson, as soon as reasonably possible after the new appointees have been named. Other meetings shall be held at the call of the chairperson or of any three members, as necessary to enable the industries board to discharge its duties. Board members shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties, and those members not state employees shall also be entitled to forty dollars per diem for each day they are so engaged.

3. The state director shall provide such administrative and technical assistance as is necessary to enable the industries board to discharge its duties. The industries board shall be provided necessary office and meeting space at the seat of government.

216.4 Duties of industries board.

The industries board's principal duties shall be to promulgate and adopt rules and to advise the state director regarding the management of Iowa state industries so as to further the intent stated by section 216.1.

[C79, 81, §216.4]

216.5 Duties of state director.

The state director, with the advice of the industries board, shall:

1. Conduct market studies and consult with public bodies and officers who are listed in section 216.7, and with other potential purchasers, for the purpose of determining items or services needed and design features desired or required by potential purchasers of Iowa state industries products or services.

2. Receive, investigate and take appropriate action upon any complaints from potential purchasers of Iowa state industries products or services regarding lack of co-operation by Iowa state industries with public bodies and officers who are listed in section 216.7, and with other potential purchasers.

3. Establish, transfer and close industrial operations as deemed advisable to maximize opportunities for gainful employment of inmates and to adjust to actual or potential market demand for particular products or services.

4. Establish and from time to time adjust, as necessary, levels of pay for inmates employed by Iowa state industries.

5. Co-ordinate Iowa state industries, and other opportunities for gainful employment available to inmates of adult correctional institutions, with vocational and technical training opportunities and apprenticeship programs, to the greatest extent feasible.

6. Promote, plan, and when deemed advisable, assist in the location of privately owned and operated industrial enterprises on the grounds of adult correctional institutions, pursuant to section 216.10.

7. Implement an inmate employment program to employ trustworthy inmates of state correctional institutions, under proper supervision, whether at employment centers located outside the state correctional institutions or in construction or maintenance work at public or charitable facilities, which shall meet the following conditions:

a. Inmates applying to participate in a program shall be approved by the work release committee designated pursuant to section 247A.3 and shall reside at state correctional institutions.

b. The state director shall encourage the making of agreements with departments and agencies of the state or its political subdivisions to provide products or services under a program to the departments and agencies.

c. The state director shall promulgate rules concerning access to and distribution of products and services provided under a program.

d. The state director shall promulgate rules establishing criteria for the screening of inmates applying to participate in a program to assure that each participant:

(1) Develops the positive attitudes, good work habits, and marketable skills as those objectives are established in section 216.1, subsection 1.

216.6 Authority of state director not impaired.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair the authority of the state director over the adult correctional institutions of this state, nor over the inmates thereof. It is, however, the duty of the state director to obtain the advice of the industries board to further the intent stated by section 216.1.

[C79, 81, §216.6]

216.7 Price lists to public officials.

The state director shall cause to be prepared from time to time classified and itemized price lists of the products manufactured by Iowa state industries. Such lists shall be furnished to all boards of supervisors, boards of directors of school corporations, city councils, and all other state, county, city and school departments and officials empowered to purchase supplies and equipment for public purposes.

216.8 Purchase of products.

1. A product possessing the performance characteristics of a product listed in the price lists prepared pursuant to section 216.7 shall not be purchased by any department or agency of state government from a source other than Iowa state industries, except:

a. When the purchase is made under emergency circumstances, which shall be explained in writing by the public body or officer who made or authorized the purchase if the state director so requests; or

b. When the state director releases, in writing, the obligation of the department or agency to purchase the product from Iowa state industries, after determining that Iowa state industries is unable to meet the performance characteristics of the purchase request for the product, and a copy of the release is attached to the request to the state comptroller for payment for a similar product, or when Iowa state industries is unable to furnish needed products, comparable in both quality and price to those available from alternative sources, within a reasonable length of time. Any disputes arising between a purchasing department or agency and Iowa state industries regarding similarity of products, or comparability of quality or price, or the availability of the product shall be referred to the director of the department of general services, whose decision shall be subject to appeal as provided in section 18.7.

2. The state director shall adopt and update as necessary rules setting specific delivery schedules for each of the products manufactured by Iowa state industries. These delivery schedules shall not apply where a different delivery schedule is specifically negotiated by Iowa state industries and a particular purchaser.

3. A department or agency of the state shall cooperate and enter into agreements, if possible, for the provision of products and services under an inmate employment program established by the state director under section 216.5, subsection 7.

216.9 Industries revolving fund — uses.

1. There is established in the treasury of the state a permanent Iowa state industries revolving fund. This revolving fund shall be created by the transfer thereto of all moneys in the revolving fund formerly established under section 246.26 as that section appeared in the Code of 1977 and prior editions, and shall be maintained by depositing therein all receipts from the sale of products manufactured by Iowa state industries, and from sale of any property of Iowa state industries found by the state director to be obsolete or unneeded.

2. The Iowa state industries revolving fund shall be used only for the following purposes:

a. Establishment, maintenance, transfer or closure of industrial operations, or vocational, technical and related training facilities and services for inmates as authorized by the state director in consultation with the industries board.

b. Payment of all costs incurred by the industries board, including but not limited to per diem and expenses of its members, and of salaries, support and maintenance of Iowa state industries. Payments from the revolving fund authorized by this subsection shall be made in the same manner as payments from appropriations for salaries, support and maintenance of the institutions under the jurisdiction of the state director.

3. The Iowa state industries revolving fund shall not be used for the operation of farms at any adult correctional institution unless such farms are operated directly by Iowa state industries.

4. The fund established by this section shall not revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any annual or biennial period and the investment proceeds earned from the balance of the fund shall be credited to the fund and used for the purposes provided for in this section.

manufacture and processing of products, or any other commercial enterprise deemed by the state director to be consistent with the intent stated in section 216.1.

2. Each lease negotiated and concluded under subsection 1 shall include, and shall be valid only so long as the lessee adheres to, the following provisions:

a. All persons employed in the factory or other commercial enterprise operated in the leased property, except the lessee's supervisory employees and necessary training personnel approved by the industries board, shall be inmates of the institution where the leased property is located who are approved for such employment by the state director and the lessee.

b. The factory or other commercial enterprise operated in the leased property shall observe at all times such practices and procedures regarding security as the lease may specify, or as the state director may temporarily stipulate during periods of emergency.

c. The factory or other commercial enterprise operated in the leased property shall be deemed a private enterprise and subject to all the laws and lawfully adopted rules of this state governing the operation of similar business enterprises elsewhere.

3. Except as prohibited by applicable provisions of the United States Code, inmates of adult correctional institutions of this state may be employed in the manufacture and processing of products for introduction into interstate or intrastate commerce, so long as they are paid wages commensurate with those paid persons employed in similar jobs outside the correctional institutions.

1. Wages paid to inmates are commensurate with those paid employees doing similar work. This may include piece rating for which the individual would be paid only for what is produced. The private employer shall pay to Iowa state industries at a rate commensurate with wages paid to other workers performing similar work.

2. Such paid inmate employment will not result in displacement of employed workers.

3. The state director shall ensure that security and screening procedures protect the safety of the public.

4. The state director shall comply with the intent of section 216.1.

216.13 Inmate employees' pay supplement revolving fund.

There is established in the treasury of the state a permanent adult correctional institutions inmate employees' pay supplement revolving fund, consisting solely of money paid as board and maintenance by inmates employed by Iowa state industries, or employed pursuant to section 216.10. The fund established by this section may be used to supplement the pay of inmates who perform other institutional work within and about the adult correctional institutions including those who are employed by Iowa state industries. Payments made from such fund shall supplement and not replace all or any part of the pay otherwise received by, and shall be equably distributed among such inmates. The employment of inmates to perform other institutional or industry work shall, to the greatest extent feasible, be in accord with the intent stated in section 216.1. The fund may also be used to supplement other rehabilitation activities within the adult correctional institutions. Determination of the use of the funds is the responsibility of the director of adult corrections who shall first seek the advice of the prison industries advisory board.

217.1 Programs of department.

There is established a department of human services to administer programs designed to improve the well-being and productivity of the people of the state of Iowa. The department shall concern itself with the problems of human behavior, adjustment, and daily living through the administration of programs of family, child, and adult welfare, economic assistance including costs of medical care, rehabilitation toward self-care and support, delinquency prevention and control, treatment and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders, care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally retarded, and other related programs as provided by law.

217.2 Council on human services.

There is created within the department of human services a council on human services which shall act in a policy-making and advisory capacity on matters within the jurisdiction of the department. The council shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Appointments shall be made on the basis of interest in public affairs, good judgment, and knowledge and ability in the field of human services. Appointments shall be made to provide a diversity of interest and point of view in the membership and without regard to religious opinions or affiliations. Members of the council shall serve for six-year staggered terms.

Each term shall commence and end as provided by section 69.19.

All members of the council shall be electors of the state of Iowa. No more than four members shall belong to the same political party and no more than two members shall, at the time of appointment, reside in the same congressional district. At least one member of the council shall be a member of a county board of supervisors at the time of appointment to the council. Vacancies occurring during a term of office shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the balance of the unexpired term subject to confirmation by the senate.

217.3 Duties of council.

The council of human services shall:

1. Organize annually and select a chairperson and vice chairperson.
2. Adopt and establish policy for the operation and conduct of the department of human services, subject to any guidelines which may be adopted by the general assembly, and the implementation of all services and programs thereunder.

3. Report immediately to the governor any failure by the commissioner or any director of the department of human services to carry out any of the policy decisions or directives of the council.

4. Approve the budget of the department of human services prior to submission to the governor.

5. Insure that all programs administered or services rendered by the department directly to any citizen or through a local board of welfare to any citizen are co-ordinated and integrated so that any citizen does not receive a duplication of services from various departments or local agencies that could be rendered by one department or local agency. If the council finds that such is not the case, it shall hear and determine which department or local agency shall provide the needed service or services and enter an order of their determination by resolution of the council which must be concurred in by at least a majority of the members. Thereafter such order or resolution of the council shall be obeyed by all state departments and local agencies to which it is directed.

6. Adopt all necessary rules recommended by the commissioner or directors of divisions hereinafter established prior to their promulgation pursuant to chapter 17A.

7. Approve the establishment of any new division or reorganization, consolidation or abolition of any established division prior to the same becoming effective.

8. Recommend to the governor the names of individuals qualified for the position of commissioner of human services when a vacancy exists in the office.

217.5 Commissioner of human services.

There shall be a commissioner of human services who shall be the chief administrative officer for the department of human services. The commissioner shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The governor shall fill a vacancy in this office in the same manner as the original appointment was made. Such commissioner shall be selected primarily for administrative ability.

The commissioner shall not be selected on the basis of political affiliation and shall not engage in political activity while holding this position.

217.6 Rules and regulations.

The commissioner is hereby authorized to recommend to the council for adoption such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry into practice the programs of the various divisions and to establish such divisions and to assign or reassign duties, powers, and responsibilities within the department, all with the approval of the council of human services, within the department as the commissioner deems necessary and appropriate for the proper administration of the duties, functions and programs with which the department is charged. Any action taken, decision made, or administrative rule adopted by any director of a division may be reviewed by the commissioner. The commissioner, upon such review, may affirm, modify, or reverse any such action, decision, or rule. The commissioner shall organize the department of human services into divisions to carry out in efficient manner the intent of this chapter.

The department of human services may be initially divided into the following divisions of responsibility: The division of child and family services, the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, the division of administration, and the division of planning, research and statistics.

217.30 Confidentiality of records — report of recipients.

1. The following information relative to individuals receiving services or assistance from the department shall be held confidential:

a. Names and addresses of individuals receiving services or assistance from the department, and the types of services or amounts of assistance provided, except as otherwise provided in subsection 4.

b. Information concerning the social or economic conditions or circumstances of particular individuals who are receiving or have received services or assistance from the department.

c. Agency evaluations of information about a particular individual.

d. Medical or psychiatric data, including diagnosis and past history of disease or disability, concerning a particular individual.

2. Information described in subsection 1 shall not be disclosed to or used by any person or agency except for purposes of administration of the programs of services or assistance, and shall not in any case, except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, paragraph "b", be disclosed to or used by persons or agencies outside the department unless they are subject to standards of confidentiality comparable to those imposed on the department by this division.

3. Nothing in this section shall restrict the disclosure or use of information regarding the cost, purpose, number of persons served or assisted by, and results of any program administered by the department, and other general and statistical information, so long as the information does not identify particular individuals served or assisted.

4. a. The general assembly finds and determines that the use and disclosure of information as provided in this subsection are for purposes directly connected with the administration of the programs of services and assistance referred to in this section and are essential for their proper administration.

b. Confidential information described in subsection 1, paragraphs "a," "b" and "c" shall be disclosed to public officials, for use in connection with their official duties relating to law enforcement, audits and other purposes directly connected with the administration of such programs, upon written application to and with approval of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee.

c. The department shall prepare and file in its office on or before the thirtieth day of each January, April, July and October a report showing the names and last known addresses of all recipients of assistance under sections 249.2 to 249.4 or chapters 239 or 249A, together with the amount paid to or for each recipient during the preceding calendar quarter. The report shall contain a separate section for each county, including all such recipients whose last known addresses are in the county. The department shall prepare and file in the office of each county board of social welfare a copy of the county section of each report for that county, on or before the same day specified in this paragraph. Each report shall be securely fixed in a record book to be used only for such reports. Each record book shall be a public record, open to public inspection at all times during the regular office hours of the office where filed. Each person who examines the record shall first sign a written agreement that the signer will not use any information obtained from the record for commercial or political purposes.

d. It shall be unlawful for any person to solicit, disclose, receive, use, or to authorize or knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of any information obtained from any such report or record for commercial or political purposes.

5. If it is definitely established that any provision of this section would cause any of the programs of services or assistance referred to in this section to be ineligible for federal funds, such provision shall be limited or restricted to the extent which is essential to make such program eligible for federal funds. The department shall adopt, pursuant to chapter 17A, any rules necessary to implement this subsection.

6. The provisions of this section shall apply to recipients of assistance under chapter 252. The reports required to be prepared by the department under this section shall, with respect to such assistance or services, be prepared by the person or officer charged with the oversight of the poor.

7. Violation of this section shall constitute a serious misdemeanor.

8. The provisions of this section shall take precedence over section 17A.12, subsection 7.

217.31 Action for damages.

Any person may institute a civil action for damages under chapter 25A or to restrain the dissemination of confidential records set out in subsection 1, paragraph "b," "c," or "d" of section 217.30, in violation of that section, and any person, agency or governmental body proven to have disseminated or to have requested and received confidential records in violation of subsection 1, paragraph "b," "c," or "d" of section 217.30, shall be liable for actual damages and exemplary damages for each violation and shall be liable for court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the party bringing the action. In no case shall the award for damages be less than one hundred dollars.

Any reasonable grounds that a public employee has violated any provision of this division shall be grounds for immediate removal from access of any kind to confidential records or suspension from duty without pay.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §217.31]

217.32 Office space in county.

Where the department of human services assigns personnel to an office located in a county for the purpose of performing in that county designated duties and responsibilities assigned by law to the department, it shall be the responsibility of the county to provide and maintain the necessary office space and office supplies and equipment for the personnel so assigned in the same manner as if they were employees of the county. The department shall at least annually, or more frequently if the department so elects, reimburse the county for a portion, designated by law, of the cost of maintaining office space and providing supplies and equipment as required by this section, and also for a similar portion of the cost of providing the necessary office space if in order to do so it is necessary for the county to lease office space outside the courthouse or any other building owned by the county. The portion of the foregoing costs reimbursed to the county under this section shall be equivalent to the proportion of those costs which the federal government authorizes to be paid from available federal funds, unless the general assembly directs otherwise when appropriating funds for support of the department.

217A.8 Director — duties, powers.

1 The director shall

a Supervise the operations of the institutions under the department's jurisdiction and may delegate the powers and authorities given the director by statute to officers or employees of the department.

b Supervise state agents whose duties relate primarily to the department.

c Establish and maintain a program to oversee women's institutional and community corrections programs and to provide community support to ensure continuity and consistency of programs. The person responsible for implementing this section shall report to the director.

d Establish and maintain acceptable standards of treatment, training, education, and rehabilitation in the various state penal and corrective institutions which shall include habilitative services and treatment for mentally retarded offenders. For the purposes of this paragraph, habilitative services and treatment means medical, mental health, social, educational, counseling, and other services which will assist a mentally retarded person to become self-reliant. However, the director may also provide rehabilitative treatment and services to other persons who require the services. The director shall identify all individuals entering the correctional system who are mentally retarded, as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5. Identification shall be made by a qualified mental retardation professional. In assigning a mentally retarded offender, or an offender with an inadequately developed intelligence or with impaired mental abilities, to a correctional facility, the director shall consider both the program needs and the security needs of the offender. The director shall consult with the department of human services in providing habilitative services and treatment to mentally ill and mentally retarded offenders.

e Employ, assign, and reassign personnel as necessary for the performance of duties and responsibilities assigned to the department. Employees shall be selected on the basis of fitness for work to be performed with due regard to training and experience and are subject to chapter 19A.

f Establish standards of mental fitness which shall govern the initial recruitment, selection, and appointment of correctional officers. To promote these standards, the director shall by rule require a battery of psychological tests to determine cognitive skills, personality characteristics and suitability of all applicants for a correctional career.

g Examine all state institutions which are penal, reformatory, or corrective to determine their efficiency for adequate care, custody, and training of their inmates and report the findings to the board.

h Prepare a budget for the department, subject to the approval of the board, and other reports as required by law.

i Develop long range correctional planning and an on-going five year corrections master plan. The director shall annually report to the general assembly to inform its members as to the status and content of the planning and master plan.

j Supervise rehabilitation camps within the state as may be established by the director. Persons committed to institutions under the department may be transferred to the facilities of the camp system and upon transfer shall be subject to the same laws as pertain to the transferring institution.

k Adopt rules subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the internal management of institutions and agencies under the director's charge and necessary to carry out the duties and powers outlined in this section.

l Adopt rules, policies, and procedures, subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the supervision of parole and work release.

2 The director, with the express approval of the board, may establish for any inmate sentenced pursuant to section 902.3 a furlough program under which inmates sentenced to and confined in any institution under the jurisdiction of the department may be temporarily released. A furlough for a period not to exceed fourteen days may be granted when an immediate member of an inmate's family is seriously ill or has died, when an inmate is to be interviewed by a prospective employer, or when an inmate is authorized to participate in a training program not available within the institution. Furloughs for a period not to exceed fourteen days may also be granted in order to allow inmates to participate in programs or activities that serve rehabilitative objectives.

3 The director may establish a sales bonus system for the sales representatives for prison industry.

217A.31 Transfers — inmates — mentally ill.

1. The director may transfer at the expense of the state an inmate of one institution to another similar institution under the director's control. The director may transfer an inmate under the director's jurisdiction from any institution supervised by the director to another institution under the control of a director of a division of the department of human services with the consent and approval of the other director and may transfer an inmate to any other institution for mental or physical examination or treatment retaining jurisdiction over the inmate when so transferred.

If the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction over a child over thirteen and under eighteen years of age pursuant to section 232.45 so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult and if the child is convicted of a public offense in the district court and committed to the custody of the director under section 901.7, the director may request transfer of the child to the state training school under this section. If the director of a division of the department of human services consents and approves the transfer, the child may be retained in temporary custody by the state training school until attaining the age of eighteen, at which time the child shall be returned to the custody of the director of the department of corrections to serve the remainder of the sentence imposed by the district court. If the child becomes a security risk or becomes a danger to other residents of the state training school at any time before reaching eighteen years of age, the director of the division of the department of human services may immediately return the child to the custody of the director of the department of corrections to serve the remainder of the sentence.

2. When the state director has cause to believe that a prisoner in a state correctional institution is mentally ill, the Iowa department of corrections may cause that prisoner to be transferred to the Iowa medical and classification center for examination, diagnosis, or treatment. The prisoner shall be confined at that institution or a state hospital for the mentally ill until the expiration of the prisoner's sentence or until the prisoner is pronounced in good mental health. If the prisoner is pronounced in good mental health before the expiration of the prisoner's sentence, the prisoner shall be returned to the state correctional institution until the expiration of the prisoner's sentence. The provisions of the Code applicable to an inmate at the correctional institution from which the prisoner is transferred remain applicable during the inmate's stay at the Iowa medical and classification center. However, section 246.32 applies to the total inmate population, including both convicts and patients.

3. When the state director has reason to believe that a prisoner in a state correctional institution, whose sentence has expired, is mentally ill, the director shall cause examination to be made of the prisoner by competent physicians who shall certify to the state director whether the prisoner is in good mental health or mentally ill. The state director may make further investigation and if satisfied that the prisoner is mentally ill, the state director may cause the prisoner to be transferred to one of the hospitals for the mentally ill, or may order the prisoner to be confined in the Iowa medical and classification center.

217A.56 Emergency purchases.

The purchase of materials or equipment for penal or correctional institutions under the department is exempted from the requirements of centralized purchasing and bidding by the department of general services if the materials or equipment are needed to make an emergency repair at an institution or the security of the institution would be jeopardized because the materials or equipment could not be purchased soon enough through centralized purchasing and bidding and, in either case, if the director approves the emergency purchase.

83 Acts, ch 96, §40, 159

217A.57 Plans and specifications.

The director shall cause plans and specifications to be prepared for all improvements authorized and costing over twenty-five thousand dollars. An appropriation for any improvement costing over twenty-five thousand dollars shall not be expended until the adoption of suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect and accompanied by a detailed statement of the amount, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the improvement.

A plan shall not be adopted, and an improvement shall not be constructed, which contemplates an expenditure of money in excess of the appropriation.

83 Acts, ch 96, §41, 159

217A.58 Letting of contracts-repairs or alterations.

The director shall, in writing, let all contracts for authorized improvements costing in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars to the lowest responsible bidder, after advertisement for bids as the director deems proper in order to secure full competition. The director may reject all bids and readvertise. A preliminary deposit of money, bank check, or certified check, or a bid bond as provided in section 23.20, in an amount the director prescribes shall be required as an evidence of good faith, upon all proposals for the construction of improvements. The deposit, bank check, or certified check shall be held under the direction of the director. Upon prior authorization by the director, improvements costing five thousand dollars or less may be made by the superintendent of any institution.

Contracts are not required for improvements at any state institution where the labor of inmates is to be used.

83 Acts, ch 96, §42, 159

217A.59 Payment for improvements.

The director shall not authorize payment for construction purposes until satisfactory proof has been furnished to the director by the proper officer or supervising architect, that the contract has been complied with by the parties. Payments shall be made in a manner similar to that in which the current expenses of the institutions are paid.

83 Acts, ch 96, §43, 159

217A.60 to 217A.65 Reserved.

217A.66 Property of deceased inmate.

Upon the death of an inmate, the superintendent of the institution shall immediately take possession of the decedent's property left at the institution and shall deliver the property to the duly appointed representative of the deceased. However, if administration is not granted within one year from the date of the death of the decedent and the value of the estate of decedent is so small as to make the granting of administration inadvisable, then delivery of the money and other property left by the decedent may be made to the surviving spouse or an heir of the decedent. If administration is not granted within one year from the death of decedent and no surviving spouse or heir is known, the superintendent shall convert the property into money.

217A.66 Add'l
Ch 21, §25-85 Acts

217A.67 Money deposited with treasurer of state.

Money from property converted pursuant to section 217A.66 shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state as soon after one year after the death of the inmate as practicable. A complete permanent record of the property, showing by whom and with whom it was left, its amount when converted to money, the date of the death of the owner, the owner's reputed place of residence before becoming an inmate of the institution, the date on which the money was sent to the treasurer of state, and any other facts which may tend to identify the decedent and explain the case, shall be kept by the superintendent of the institution, and a transcript of the record shall be sent to and kept by the treasurer of state.

Money deposited with the treasurer of state pursuant to this section shall be paid at any time within ten years from the death of the inmate to any person who is shown to be entitled to it.

83 Acts, ch 96, §45, 159

Analogous provisions, §218.68-218.70

217A.68 Temporary quarters in emergency.

If the buildings at any institution under the management of the director are destroyed or rendered unfit for habitation by reason of fire, storms, or other like causes, to such an extent that the inmates cannot be confined and cared for at the institution, the director shall make temporary provision for the confinement and care of the inmates at some other place in the state. Like provision may be made in case of an epidemic among the inmates. The reasonable cost of the change including the cost of transfer of inmates, shall be paid from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

83 Acts, ch 96, §46, 159

Analogous provision, §218.72

217A.69 Industries.

The director may establish industries at or in connection with any of the institutions under the director's control and may make contractual agreements with the United States, other states, state departments and agencies, and subdivisions of the state, for purchase of industry products.

The director may with the assistance of the Iowa state conservation commission establish and operate forestry nurseries on state-owned land under the control of the department. Residents of the adult correctional institutions shall provide the labor for the operation. Nursery stock shall be sold in accordance with the rules of the state conservation commission. The department shall pay the costs of establishing and operating the forestry nurseries out of the revolving farm fund created in section 217A.70. The state conservation commission shall pay the costs of transporting, sorting, and distributing nursery stock to and from or on state-owned land under the control of the commission. Receipts from the sale of nursery stock produced under this section shall be divided between the department and the state conservation commission in direct proportion to their respective costs as a percentage of the total costs. The department shall deposit its receipts in the revolving farm fund created in section 217A.70.

217A.70 Revolving farm fund.

A revolving farm fund is created in the state treasury in which the department shall deposit receipts from agricultural products, nursery stock, agricultural land rentals, and the sale of livestock. However, before any agricultural operation is phased out, the department which proposes to discontinue this operation shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the subcommittee in the senate and house of representatives which has handled the appropriation for this department in the past session of the legislature. Before the department sells farmland under the control of the department, the director shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the joint appropriations subcommittee that handled the appropriation for the department during the past legislative session. The department may pay from the fund for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of farms and agricultural or nursery property under the control of the department. A purchase order for five thousand dollars or less payable from the fund is exempt from the general purchasing requirements of chapter 18. Notwithstanding section 8.33, unencumbered or unobligated receipts in the revolving farm fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund of the state.

The department shall annually prepare a financial statement to provide for an accounting of the funds in the revolving farm fund. The financial statement shall be filed with the legislative fiscal bureau on or before February 1 each year.

As used in this section, "department" means the Iowa department of corrections and the Iowa department of human services.

The farm operations administrator appointed under section 217A.22 shall perform the functions described under section 217A.22 for agricultural operations on property of the Iowa department of human services.

The Iowa department of human services shall enter into an agreement under chapter 28D with the Iowa department of corrections to implement this paragraph.

83 Acts, ch 96, §48, 159

Referred to in §217A.22, 217A.69

217A.71 Cooperation.

The department and the director shall cooperate with any department or agency of the state government in any manner, including the exchange of employees, calculated to improve administration of the affairs of the institutions. Joint use of facilities by the department and another public agency as defined in section 28E.2 shall be only according to an agreement entered into under chapter 28E. All joint campuses shall have one superintendent and one business manager who shall be employed by the department with supervisory responsibility for the majority of the facility's population. Employment of the superintendent and business manager shall be done in consultation with the department which has responsibility for services for the other population at the facility.

83 Acts, ch 96, §49, 159

217A.72 Consultants.

The director may secure the services of consultants to furnish advice on administrative, professional, or technical problems to the director or the employees of institutions under the director's jurisdiction or to provide in-service training and instruction for the employees. The director may pay the consultants from funds appropriated to the department or to any institution under the department's jurisdiction.

83 Acts, ch 96, §50, 159

Analogous provision, §218.93

217A.73 Director may buy and sell real estate — options.

The director, subject to the approval of the board and executive council, may secure options to purchase real estate and acquire and sell real estate for the proper uses of the institutions. Real estate shall be acquired and sold upon terms and conditions the director recommends subject to the approval of the board and the executive council. Upon sale of the real estate, the proceeds shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state. There is appropriated from the general fund of the state to the department a sum equal to the proceeds so deposited and credited to the general fund of the state which, with the prior approval of the executive council, may be used to purchase other real estate or for capital improvements upon property under the director's supervision.

The costs incident to the securing of options and acquisition and sale of real estate including, but not limited to, appraisals, invitations for offers, abstracts, and other necessary costs, may be paid from moneys appropriated for support and maintenance to the institution at which the real estate is located. The fund shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the sale.

83 Acts, ch 96, §51, 159

Analogous provision, §218.94

217A.74 Fire protection contracts.

The director may enter into contracts with the governing body of any city for the protection from fire of any property under the director's primary control, located in any city or in territory contiguous to a city.

The state fire marshal shall cause an annual inspection to be made of all the institutions listed in section 217A.2 and shall make a written report of the inspection to the director.

83 Acts, ch 96, §52, 159

Analogous provision, §218.95

217A.75 Gifts.

The department may accept gifts of real or personal property from the federal government or any source. The director may exercise powers with reference to the property so accepted as necessary or appropriate to its preservation and the purposes for which it is given.

83 Acts, ch 96, §53, 159

217A.76 Canteen maintained.

The director may maintain a canteen at any institution under the director's jurisdiction for the sale to persons confined in the institution of items such as toilet articles, candy, tobacco products, notions, and other sundries, and may provide the necessary facilities, equipment, personnel, and merchandise for the canteen. The director shall specify the items to be sold in the canteen. The department may establish and maintain a permanent operating fund for each canteen. The fund shall consist of the receipts from the sale of commodities at the canteen.

83 Acts, ch 96, §54, 159

Analogous provision, §218.98

217A.77 Confiscation of contraband currency.

1. Except as provided for by the director by rule, it is unlawful for an inmate of one of the penal or correctional facilities under the department to possess United States or foreign currency in the penal or correctional facility.

2. The director shall adopt rules as to circumstances under which the possession of currency by an inmate of a penal or correctional facility under the department, is authorized.

3. The department may confiscate currency unlawfully possessed in violation of this section. Money confiscated pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special fund in the state treasury which fund shall be established by the treasurer of state. Money deposited in the fund may be drawn upon by the department to pay for expenses incurred in operating the division's penal and correctional facilities and programs.

217A.78 Employment of inmates — institutions and public service.

Inmates shall be employed only on state account in the maintenance of state institutions, in the erection, repair, authorized demolition, or operation of buildings and works used in connection with the institutions, and in industries established and maintained in connection with the institutions by the state director. The state director may detail prisoners classified as trustees, from correctional institutions under the control of the state director to perform public service for the conservation commission and other agencies of state, county, or local government. The supervision, security, transportation, and compensation of inmates used in public service projects shall be provided pursuant to agreements made by the state director and the agency of state, local, or county government for which the work is done. Housing and maintenance shall also be provided pursuant to the agreement unless the inmate is housed and maintained in the correctional facility. All such employment, including but not limited to that provided in this section, shall have as its primary purpose, and shall provide for, inculcation or the reactivation of attitudes, skills, and habit patterns which will be conducive to inmate rehabilitation.

However, an inmate shall not be employed in a public service project if the employment of that inmate would replace a person employed by the state agency or political subdivision which employee is performing the work of the public service project at the time the inmate is being considered for employment in the project.

218.4 Recommendation for rules.

The directors of particular institutions shall recommend to the council on human services for adoption such rules not inconsistent with law as they may deem necessary for the discharge of their duties, the management of each of such institutions, the admission of residents thereto and the treatment, care, custody, education and discharge of residents. It is made the duty of the particular directors to establish rules by which danger to life and property from fire will be minimized. In the discharge of their duties and in the enforcement of their rules, they may require any of their appointees to perform duties in addition to those required by statute.

Such rules when prescribed or approved by the council shall be uniform and shall apply to all institutions under the particular director and to all other institutions under the director's jurisdiction and the primary rules of the director of the division of mental health for use in institutions where the mentally ill are kept shall, unless otherwise indicated, uniformly apply to county or private hospitals wherein the mentally ill are kept, but such rules shall not interfere with proper medical treatment administered patients by competent physicians. Annually, signed copies of such rules shall be sent to the chief executive officer of each such institution or hospital under the control or supervision of a particular director and copies shall also be sent to the clerk of each district court, the chairperson of the board of supervisors of each county and, as appropriate, to the officer in charge of institutions or hospitals caring for the mentally ill in each county who shall be responsible for seeing that the same is posted in each institution or hospital in a prominent place. Such rules shall be kept current to meet the public need and shall be revised and published annually.

The state fire marshal shall cause to be made an annual inspection of all the institutions listed in section 218.1 and shall make written report thereof to the particular director of the state department of human services in control of such institution.

218.14 Dwelling house.

The division director having control over any state institution may, with consent of the commissioner of human services, furnish the executive head of each of the institutions, in addition to salary, with a dwelling house or with appropriate quarters in lieu thereof, or the division director may compensate the executive head of each of the institutions in lieu of furnishing a house or quarters. If an executive head of the institution is furnished with a dwelling house or quarters, either of which is owned by the state, the executive head may also be furnished with water, heat and electricity.

The division director having control over any state institution may furnish assistant executive heads or other employees, or both, with dwelling houses or with appropriate quarters, owned by the state. The assistant executive head or employee, who is so furnished shall pay rent for the dwelling house or quarters in an amount to be determined by the executive head of the institution, which shall be the fair market rental value of the house or quarters. If an assistant executive head or employee is furnished with a dwelling house or quarters either of which is owned by the state, the assistant executive head or employee may also be furnished with water, heat and electricity. However, the furnishing of these utilities shall be considered in determining the fair market rental value of the house or quarters.

218.45 Conferences.

Quarterly conferences of the chief executive officers of said institutions shall be held with the director in control of such institution at Des Moines or at institutions under the director's jurisdiction, for the consideration of all matters relative to the management of said institutions. Full minutes of such meetings shall be preserved in the records of the director. The director in control may cause papers to be prepared and read, at such conferences, on appropriate subjects.

[S13, §2727-a20; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3328; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.45]

218.46 Scientific investigation.

1. The directors of divisions of the department of human services who are in charge of institutions shall encourage the scientific investigation, on the part of the executive heads and medical staffs of the various institutions, as to the most successful methods of managing such institutions and treating the persons committed thereto, shall procure and furnish to such heads and staffs information relative to such management and treatment, and, from time to time, publish bulletins and reports of scientific and clinical work done in said institutions.

2. The directors of such state institutions are authorized to provide services and facilities for the scientific observation, rechecking and treatment of mentally ill persons within the state. Application by, or on behalf of, any person for such services and facilities shall be made to the director in charge of the particular institution involved and shall be made on forms furnished by such director. The time and place of admission of any person to outpatient or clinical services and facilities for scientific observation, rechecking and treatment and the use of such services and facilities for the benefit of persons who have already been hospitalized for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment or involuntarily hospitalized as seriously mentally ill shall be in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the director in control of the particular institution involved.

218.51 Monthly reports of contingent fund.

A monthly report of the status of such contingent fund shall be submitted by the proper officer of said institution to the director in control of the institution involved and such rules as such director may establish.

[SS15, §2727-a44; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3334; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.51]

218.52 Supplies — competition.

The director in control of a state institution shall, in the purchase of supplies, afford all reasonable opportunity for competition, and shall give preference to local dealers and Iowa producers when such can be done without loss to the state.

[S13, §2727-a46; SS15, §2727-a50; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3335; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.52]

Preference to Iowa products, §73 1 et seq

218.53 Dealers may file addresses.

Jobbers or others desirous of selling supplies shall, by filing with the director in control of a state institution a memorandum showing their address and business, be afforded an opportunity to compete for the furnishing of supplies, under such rules as such director may prescribe.

[SS15, §2727-a50; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3336; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.53]

218.54 Samples preserved.

When purchases are made by sample, the same shall be properly marked and retained until after an award or delivery of such items is made.

[SS15, §2727-a50; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3337; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.54]

218.55 Purchase from an institution.

The director of a division of the department of human services may purchase supplies of any institution under the director's control, for use in any other such institution, and reasonable payment therefor shall be made as in case of other purchases.

[S13, §2727-a47; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3338; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.55]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

218.56 Purchase of supplies.

The directors shall, from time to time, adopt and make of record, rules and regulations governing the purchase of all articles and supplies needed at the various institutions under their control, and the form and verification of vouchers for such purchases.

[S13, §2727-a41, -a42, -a49; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3339; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.56]

218.57 Combining appropriations.

The state comptroller is authorized to combine the balances carried in all specific appropriations into a special account for each institution under the control of a particular director of a division of the department of human services, except that the support fund for each institution shall be carried as a separate account.

[S13, §2727-a43; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3344; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218.57]
83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

218.58 Construction, repair, and improvement projects — emergencies — rules.

1. The department shall prepare and submit to the state comptroller, as provided in section 8.23, a multiyear construction program including estimates of the expenditure requirements for the construction, repair, or improvement of buildings, grounds, or equipment at the institutions listed in section 218.1.

2. The commissioner shall have plans and specifications prepared for authorized construction, repair, or improvement projects costing over twenty-five thousand dollars. An appropriation for a project shall not be expended until the department has adopted plans and specifications and has completed a detailed estimate of the cost of the project, prepared under the supervision of a registered architect or registered professional engineer. Plans and specifications shall not be adopted and a project shall not proceed if the project would require an expenditure of money in excess of the appropriation.

The commissioner may employ a registered architect or registered professional engineer, and other technical staff necessary to complete authorized projects. The commissioner may secure consultant architectural or engineering services required to complete authorized projects.

3. The commissioner shall let all contracts under chapter 23 for authorized construction, repair, or improvement of departmental buildings, grounds, or equipment. The department may advertise in a newspaper published at the seat of government in lieu of advertising in a newspaper in the county in which a project is located.

4. If the commissioner determines that emergency repairs or improvements estimated to cost more than twenty-five thousand dollars are necessary to assure the continued operation of a departmental institution, the requirements of subsections 2 and 3 for preparation of plans and specifications and competitive procurement procedures are waived. The commissioner's determination of necessity for waiver shall be in writing and shall be entered in the project record for emergency repairs or improvements. Emergency repairs or improvements shall be accomplished using plans and specifications and competitive procurement procedures to the greatest extent possible, considering the necessity for rapid completion of the project. A waiver of the requirements of subsections 2 and 3 does not authorize an expenditure in excess of an amount otherwise authorized for the repair or improvement.

5. A claim for payment relating to a project shall be itemized on a voucher form pursuant to section 8.15, certified by the claimant and the architect or engineer in charge, and audited and approved by the department. Upon approval by the department, the voucher shall be forwarded to the state comptroller, who shall draw a warrant to be paid by the treasurer of state from funds appropriated for the project. A partial payment made before completion of the project does not constitute final acceptance of the work or a waiver of any defect in the work.

6. Subject to the prior approval of the director in control of a departmental institution, minor projects costing five thousand dollars or less may be authorized and completed by the executive head of the institution through the use of day labor. A contract is not required if a minor project is to be completed with the use of resident labor.

7. The department shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A for construction, repair, and improvement projects, relating to programming and design, the bidding and letting of contracts, procurement and construction management operations, consultant services, and emergency repairs and improvements.

218.71 Repealed by 68GA, ch 2, §49.

218.72 Temporary quarters in emergency.

In case the buildings at any institution under the management of a director of the division of the department of human services are destroyed or rendered unfit for habitation by reason of fire, storms, or other like causes, to such an extent that the residents cannot be there confined and cared for, said director shall make temporary provision for the confinement and care of the residents at some other place in the state. Like provision may be made in case any pestilence breaks out among the residents. The reasonable cost of the change, including transfer of residents, shall be paid from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The commissioner of the department of human services shall have full power, subject to the approval of the executive council to secure options to purchase real estate, to acquire and sell real estate, and to grant utility easements, for the proper uses of said institutions. Real estate shall be acquired and sold and utility easements granted, upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner may recommend subject to the approval of the executive council. Upon sale of such real estate, the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state a sum equal to the proceeds so deposited and credited to the general fund of the state to the department of human services, which with the prior approval of the executive council may be used to purchase other real estate or for capital improvements upon property under such commissioner's control.

The costs incident to securing of options, acquisition and sale of real estate and granting of utility easements, including, but not limited to, appraisals, invitations for offers, abstracts, and other necessary costs, may be paid from moneys appropriated for support and maintenance to the institution at which such real estate is located. Such fund shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the sale.

INTERSTATE MENTAL HEALTH COMPACT

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted.
218A.2 Administrator.
218A.3 Supplementary agreements.

218A.4 Payments.
218A.5 Consultation.
218A.6 Distribution of compact.

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted.

The interstate compact on mental health is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that the proper and expeditious treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient can be facilitated by co-operative action, to the benefit of the patients, their families, and society as a whole. Further, the party states find that the necessity of and desirability for furnishing such care and treatment bears no primary relation to the residence or citizenship of the patient but that, on the contrary, the controlling factors of community safety and humanitarianism require that facilities and services be made available for all who are in need of them. Consequently, it is the purpose of this compact and of the party states to provide the necessary legal basis for the institutionalization or other appropriate care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient under a system that recognizes the paramount importance of patient welfare and to establish the responsibilities of the party states in terms of such welfare.

ARTICLE II

As used in this compact:

a. "Sending state" shall mean a party state from which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or from which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

b. "Receiving state" shall mean a party state to which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or to which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

c. "Institution" shall mean any hospital or other facility maintained by a party state or political subdivision thereof for the care and treatment of mental illness or mental deficiency.

d. "Patient" shall mean any person subject to or eligible as determined by the laws of the sending state, for institutionalization or other care, treatment, or supervision pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

e. "After-care" shall mean care, treatment and services provided a patient, as defined herein, on convalescent status or conditional release.

f. "Mental illness" shall mean mental disease to such extent that a person so afflicted requires care and treatment for the person's own welfare, or the welfare of others, or of the community.

g. "Mental deficiency" shall mean mental deficiency as defined by appropriate clinical authorities to such extent that a person so afflicted is incapable of managing the person and the person's affairs, but shall not include mental illness as defined herein.

h. "State" shall mean any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III

a. Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency, the person shall be eligible for care and treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of the person's residence, settlement or citizenship qualifications.

b. The provisions of paragraph "a" of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, any patient may be transferred to an institution in another state whenever there are factors based upon clinical determinations indicating that the care and treatment of said patient would be facilitated or improved thereby. Any such institutionalization may be for the entire period of care and treatment or for any portion or portions thereof. The factors referred to in this paragraph shall include the patient's full record with due regard for the location of the patient's family, character of the illness and probable duration thereof, and such other factors as shall be considered appropriate.

c. No state shall be obliged to receive any patient pursuant to the provisions of paragraph "b" of this article unless the sending state has given advance notice of its intention to send the patient; furnished all available medical and other pertinent records concerning the patient; given the qualified medical or other appropriate clinical authorities of the receiving state an opportunity to examine the patient if said authorities so wish; and unless the receiving state shall agree to accept the patient.

d. In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients, an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that the interstate patient would be taken if the interstate patient were a local patient.

e. Pursuant to this compact, the determination as to the suitable place of institutionalization for a patient may be reviewed at any time and such further transfer of the patient may be made as seems likely to be in the best interest of the patient.

ARTICLE IV

a. Whenever, pursuant to the laws of the state in which a patient is physically present, it shall be determined that the patient should receive after-care or supervision, such care or supervision may be provided in a receiving state. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state shall have reason to believe that after-care in another state would be in the best interest of the patient and would not jeopardize the public safety, they shall request the appropriate authorities in the receiving state to investigate the desirability of affording the patient such after-care in said receiving state, and such investigation shall be made with all reasonable speed. The request for investigation shall be accompanied by complete information concerning the patient's intended place of residence and the identity of the person in whose charge it is proposed to place the patient, the complete medical history of the patient, and such other documents as may be pertinent.

b. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state and the appropriate authorities in the receiving state find that the best interest of the patient would be served thereby, and if the public safety would not be jeopardized thereby, the patient may receive after-care or supervision in the receiving state.

c. In supervising, treating, or caring for a patient on after-care pursuant to the terms of this article, a receiving state shall employ the same standards of visitation, examination, care, and treatment that it employs for similar local patients.

ARTICLE V

Whenever a dangerous or potentially dangerous patient escapes from an institution in any party state, that state shall promptly notify all appropriate authorities within and without the jurisdiction of the escape in a manner reasonably calculated to facilitate the speedy apprehension of the escapee. Immediately upon the apprehension and identification of any such dangerous or potentially dangerous patient, the patient shall be detained in the state where found pending disposition in accordance with law.

Referred to in article IX (a)

ARTICLE VI

The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the patient, shall be permitted to transport any patient being moved pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE VII

a. No person shall be deemed a patient of more than one institution at any given time. Completion of transfer of any patient to an institution in a receiving state shall have the effect of making the person a patient of the institution in the receiving state.

b. The sending state shall pay all costs of and incidental to the transportation of any patient pursuant to this compact, but any two or more party states may, by making a specific agreement for that purpose, arrange for a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

Referred to in article XIII (b)

c. No provision of this compact shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationships among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

d. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to any provision of this compact.

e. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to invalidate any reciprocal agreement between a party state and a nonparty state relating to institutionalization, care or treatment of the mentally ill or mentally deficient, or any statutory authority pursuant to which such agreements may be made.

Referred to in §218A 3

ARTICLE VIII

a. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to abridge, diminish, or in any way impair the rights, duties, and responsibilities of any patient's guardian on the guardian's own behalf or in respect of any patient for whom the guardian may serve, except that where the transfer of any patient to another jurisdiction makes advisable the appointment of a supplemental or substitute guardian, any court of competent jurisdiction in the receiving state may make such supplemental or substitute appointment and the court which appointed the previous guardian shall upon being duly advised of the new appointment, and upon the satisfactory completion of such accounting and other acts as such court may by law require, relieve the previous guardian of power and responsibility to whatever extent shall be appropriate in the circumstances; provided, however, that in the case of any patient having settlement in the sending state, the court of competent jurisdiction in the sending state shall have the sole discretion to relieve a guardian appointed by it or continue the guardian's power and responsibility, whichever it shall deem advisable. The court in the receiving state may, in its discretion, confirm or reappoint the person or persons previously serving as guardian in the sending state in lieu of making a supplemental or substitute appointment.

b. The term "guardian" as used in paragraph "a" of this article shall include any guardian, trustee, legal committee, conservator, or other person or agency however denominated who is charged by law with power to act for or responsibility for the person or property of a patient.

ARTICLE IX

a. No provision of this compact except article V shall apply to any person institutionalized while under sentence in a penal or correctional institution or while subject to trial on a criminal charge, or whose institutionalization is due to the commission of an offense for which, in the absence of mental illness or mental deficiency, said person would be subject to incarceration in a penal or correctional institution.

b. To every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no patient shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup, but such patient shall, with all expedition, be taken to a suitable institutional facility for mental illness or mental deficiency.

ARTICLE X

a. Each party state shall appoint a "compact administrator" who, on behalf of the compact administrator's state, shall act as general co-ordinator of activities under the compact in the administrator's state and who shall receive copies of all reports, correspondence, and other documents relating to any patient processed under the compact by the administrator's state either in the capacity of sending or receiving state. The compact administrator or the administrator's duly designated representative shall be the official with whom other party states shall deal in any matter relating to the compact or any patient processed thereunder.

b. The compact administrators of the respective party states shall have power to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XI

The duly constituted administrative authorities of any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements for the provision of any service or facility or for the maintenance of any institution on a joint or co-operative basis whenever the states concerned shall find that such agreements will improve services, facilities, or institutional care and treatment in the fields of mental illness or mental deficiency. No such supplementary agreement shall be construed so as to relieve any party state of any obligation which it otherwise would have under other provisions of this compact.

Referred to in article XIII (b), §218A.3

ARTICLE XII

This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states legally joining therein.

ARTICLE XIII

a. A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. Such withdrawal shall take effect one year after notice thereof has been communicated officially and in writing to the governors and compact administrators of all other party states. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not change the status of any patient who has been sent to said state or sent out of said state pursuant to the provisions of the compact.

b. Withdrawal from any agreement permitted by article VII "b" as to costs or from any supplementary agreement made pursuant to article XI shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

218A.2 Administrator.

Pursuant to the compact, the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services shall be the compact administrator. The compact administrator may co-operate with all departments, agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact and of any supplementary agreement entered into by this state under the compact.

See 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 82 Acts, ch 1117, §2

218A.3 Supplementary agreements.

The compact administrator is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to articles VII and XI of the compact. In the event that such supplementary agreements shall require or contemplate the use of any institution or facility of this state or require or contemplate the provisions of any service by this state, no such agreement shall have force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction said institution or facility is operated or whose department or agency will be charged with the rendering of such service.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §218A.3]

218A.4 Payments.

The compact administrator, subject to the approval of the commissioner of the department of human services, may make or arrange for any payments necessary to discharge any financial obligations imposed upon this state by the compact or by any supplementary agreement entered into thereunder.

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

218B.1 Citation.

218B.2 Corrections compact.

218B.3 Duty of director.

218B.1 Citation.

This chapter may be cited as the "Interstate Corrections Compact."

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §218B.1]

218B.2 Corrections compact.

The interstate corrections compact is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with any other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of co-operation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of co-operation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE AND POLICY

The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "State" means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

3. "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

4. "Inmate" means an offender who is committed, under sentence to or confined in a penal or correctional institution.

5. "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III — CONTRACTS

Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

1. Its duration.

2. Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.

3. Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom.

4. Delivery and retaking of inmates.

5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

Referred to in article IV

218B.2, Art. III, (2) Amend
Ch 21, §34-85 Acts

ARTICLE IV — PROCEDURES AND RIGHTS

Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of article III.

Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of the inmate's record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or the inmate's status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which the inmate could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in their exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

ARTICLE V — ACTS NOT REVIEWABLE IN RECEIVING STATE — EXTRADITION

Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

An inmate who escapes from an institution in which the inmate is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

ARTICLE VI — FEDERAL AID

Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII — ENTRY INTO FORCE

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

ARTICLE VIII — WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — OTHER ARRANGEMENTS UNAFFECTED

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of co-operative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X — CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §218B.2]

218B.3 Duty of director.

The director of the Iowa department of corrections shall do all things necessary or incidental to the carrying out of the compact.

219.2 Right to admission.

1. Persons described in section 219.1 who do not have sufficient means for their own support, or are disabled by disease, wounds, old age or otherwise, and are unable to earn a livelihood, and who are residents of the state of Iowa on the date of the application and immediately preceding the date the application is accepted, may be admitted to the home as members under rules adopted by the commissioner. Eligibility determinations are subject to approval by the commissioner.

2. A person shall not be received or retained in the home who has been diagnosed by a qualified mental health professional as acutely mentally ill and considered dangerous to self or others, is an acute inebriate, or is addicted to the use of drugs, and whose documented behavior is continuously disruptive to the operation of the facility.

219.6 Certificate of eligibility.

Before admission, each applicant shall file with the commandant an affidavit signed by two members of the commission of veteran affairs of the county in which the person resides, stating that the person to the best of their knowledge and belief is a resident of that county and that the person is unable to earn a livelihood and the person's income, exclusive of pension, compensation, war risk insurance payments, or pensions or annuities under the social security Act and the railroad retirement Acts, is less than is sufficient to provide the type of health care necessary for the person's welfare. The affidavit is conclusive evidence of the residence of the person but is prima facie only in all other matters affecting the eligibility of the applicant and the liability of the county with respect to the expense of the person for which the county may be liable. All records of admission shall show the residence of the applicant.

219.7 Contributing to own support.

1. Except as otherwise provided in chapter 249A and other provisions of this chapter, a member of the home who receives a pension, compensation or gratuity from the United States government, or income from any source of more than twenty-five dollars per month, shall contribute to the member's own maintenance or support while a member of the home. The amount of the contribution and the method of collection shall be determined by the commissioner, but the amount shall in no case exceed the actual cost of keeping and maintaining the person in the home.

2. Sums paid to and received by the commandant for the support of members of the home shall be paid monthly by the commandant to the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state.

3. The commissioner may require any member of the home to render assistance in the care of the home and its grounds as the member's psycho-social and physical condition will permit, as a phase of that member's rehabilitation program. The commissioner shall compensate each member who furnishes assistance at rates established by the commissioner.

219.12 Bank account for members' deposits.

1 The Iowa veterans home, for the convenience of its members, may maintain a commercial account with a federally insured bank for the individual personal deposits of its members. The account shall be known as the Iowa veterans home membership account. The commandant shall record each member's personal deposits individually and shall deposit the funds in the membership account, where the members' deposits shall be held in the aggregate.

2 The commandant, if authorized by a member of the home, and pursuant to policies adopted by the commissioner, may make withdrawals against that member's personal account to pay regular bills and other expenses incurred by the member. The authorization may be given by the member at any time and shall not be a condition of admission to the home.

219.13 Commandant.

1 The commissioner shall appoint a commandant who shall be the person responsible for handling veterans affairs for the department of human services, shall serve as the chief executive of the home and shall have the immediate custody and control, subject to the orders of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee, of all property used in connection with the home.

2 The commandant must be a resident of the state of Iowa and an honorably discharged veteran who served in the armed forces of the United States during a conflict or war. As used in this section, the dates of service in a conflict or war shall coincide with the dates of service established by the Congress of the United States.

3 The commandant shall receive an annual salary as the commissioner may determine. In addition to salary, the commissioner shall furnish the commandant with a dwelling house or with appropriate quarters and additional allowances, as provided in section 218 14 for executive heads of state institutions.

219.19 Dual conviction — probation.

A person who, while a member of the home, is twice convicted of an offense against the statutes of the state, or twice found guilty by the commandant or a court martial of intoxication or other infraction of the rules of the home, shall deposit all of the person's pension money with the commandant immediately upon receipt of the pension check or warrant. In lieu of trial by the commandant the member may demand a court martial. The pension money shall be deposited by the commandant in a separate account for and in behalf of the pensioner and the commandant shall, under the rules the commissioner provides, pay the money out with the consent of the pensioner in the manner and for purposes the commissioner approves. If, after a period of six months, the pensioner's conduct is orderly and sober, the deposit shall be returned to the pensioner. If the pensioner is discharged from the home the balance of the deposit shall be paid to the pensioner within thirty days after discharge.

220.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Authority" means the Iowa housing finance authority established in section 220.2.

2. "Low or moderate income families" means families who cannot afford to pay enough to cause private enterprise in their locality to build an adequate supply of decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings for their use, and also includes, but is not limited to, (1) elderly families, families in which one or more persons are handicapped or disabled, lower income families and very low income families, and (2) families purchasing or renting qualified residential housing.

220.1 Add'l

3. "Lower income families" means families whose incomes do not exceed eighty percent of the median income for the area with adjustments for the size of the family or other adjustments necessary due to unusual prevailing conditions in the area, and includes, but is not limited to, very low income families.

4. "Very low income families" means families whose incomes do not exceed fifty percent of the median income for the area, with adjustments for the size of the family or other adjustments necessary due to unusual prevailing conditions in the area.

5. "Elderly families" means families of low or moderate income where the head of the household or the head's spouse is at least sixty-two years of age or older, or the surviving member of any such tenant family.

6. a. "Families" includes but is not limited to families consisting of a single adult person who is primarily responsible for the person's own support, is at least sixty-two years of age, is disabled, is handicapped, is displaced, or is the remaining member of a tenant family.

b. "Families" includes but is not limited to two or more persons living together who are at least sixty-two years of age, are disabled, or are handicapped, or one or more such individuals living with another person who is essential to such individual's care or well-being.

7. "Disabled" means unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment.

8. "Handicapped" means having a physical or mental impairment which is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration, substantially impedes the ability to live independently, and is of a nature that the ability to live independently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.

9. "Displaced" means displaced by governmental action, or by having one's dwelling extensively damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster.

10. "Income" means income from all sources of each member of the household, with appropriate exceptions and exemptions reasonably related to an equitable determination of the family's available income, as established by rule of the authority.

11. a. "Housing" means single family and multifamily dwellings, and facilities incidental or appurtenant to the dwellings, and includes group homes of fifteen beds or less licensed as health care facilities or child foster care facilities and modular or mobile homes which are permanently affixed to a foundation and are assessed as realty.

b. "Adequate housing" means housing which meets minimum structural, heating, lighting, ventilation, sanitary, occupancy and maintenance standards compatible with applicable building and housing codes, as determined under rules of the authority.

12. "Health care facilities" means those facilities referred to in section 135C.1, subsection 4, which contain fifteen beds or less.

13. "Mortgage" means a mortgage, mortgage deed, deed of trust, or other instrument creating a first lien, subject only to title exceptions acceptable to the authority, on a fee interest in real property which includes completed housing located within this state, or on a leasehold on such a fee interest which has a remaining term at the time of computation that exceeds by not less than ten years the maturity date of the mortgage loan.

14. "Mortgage lender" means any bank, trust company, mortgage company, national banking association, savings and loan association, life insurance company, any governmental agency, or any other financial institution authorized to make mortgage loans in this state and includes a financial institution as defined in section 496B.2, subsection 2, which lends moneys for industrial or business purposes.

15. "Mortgage loan" means a financial obligation secured by a mortgage.

16. "Bond" means a bond issued by the authority pursuant to sections 220.26 to 220.30.

17. "Note" means a bond anticipation note or a housing development fund note issued by the authority pursuant to this chapter.

18. "State agency" means any board, commission, department, public officer, or other agency of the state of Iowa.

19. "Housing program" means any work or undertaking of new construction or rehabilitation of one or more housing units, or the acquisition of existing residential structures, for the provision of housing, which is financed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter for the primary purpose of providing housing for low or moderate income families. A housing program may include housing for other economic groups as part of an overall plan to develop new or rehabilitated communities or neighborhoods, where housing low or moderate income families is a primary goal. A housing program may include any buildings, land, equipment, facilities, or other real or personal property which is necessary or convenient in connection with the provision of housing, including, but not limited to, streets, sewers, utilities, parks, site preparation, landscaping, and other nonhousing facilities, such as administrative, community, health, recreational, educational, and commercial facilities, as the authority determines to be necessary or convenient in relation to the purposes of this chapter.

20. "Housing sponsor" means any individual, joint venture, partnership, limited partnership, trust, corporation, housing co-operative, local public entity, governmental unit, or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, approved by the authority or pursuant to standards adopted by the authority as qualified to either own, construct, acquire, rehabilitate, operate, manage or maintain a housing program, whether for profit, nonprofit or limited profit, subject to the regulatory powers of the authority and other terms and conditions set forth in this chapter.

21. "Dilapidated" means decayed, deteriorated or fallen into partial disuse through neglect or misuse.

22. "Property improvement loan" means a financial obligation secured by collateral acceptable to the authority, the proceeds of which shall be used for improvement or rehabilitation of housing which is deemed by the authority to be substandard in its pro-

TECTIVE COATINGS OR ITS STRUCTURAL, PLUMBING, HEATING, COOLING, OR ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS, AND REGARDLESS OF THE CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY THE TERM "PROPERTY IMPROVEMENT LOAN" MAY INCLUDE LOANS TO INCREASE THE ENERGY EFFICIENCY OF HOUSING OR TO FINANCE SOLAR OR OTHER RENEWABLE ENERGY SYSTEMS FOR USE IN THAT HOUSING

23 When used in the context of an assumption of a loan, "assume" or "assumed" means any type of transaction involving the sale or transfer of an ownership interest in real estate financed by the authority, whether the conveyance involves a transfer by deed or real estate contract or some other device

24 "Child foster care facilities" means the same as defined in section 237 1

25 "Cost" as applied to Iowa small business loan program projects means the cost of acquisition, construction, or both including the cost of acquisition of all land, rights of way, property rights, easements, franchise rights, and interests required for acquisition, construction, or both It also means the cost of demolishing or removing structures on acquired land, the cost of access roads to private property, including the cost of land or easements, and the cost of all machinery, furnishings, and equipment, financing charges, and interest prior to and during construction and for no more than eighteen months after completion of construction Cost also means the cost of engineering, legal expenses, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of cost and revenues, as well as other expenses incidental to determining the feasibility or practicability of acquiring or constructing a project It also means other expenses incidental to the acquisition or construction of the project, the financing of the acquisition or construction, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds, to be paid into any special funds from the proceeds of the bonds, and the financing of the placing of a project in operation

26 "Project" means real or personal property connected with a facility to be acquired, constructed, improved, or equipped, with the aid of the Iowa small business loan program as provided in sections 220 61 to 220 65

27 "Iowa small business loan program" or "loan program" means the program for lending moneys to small business established under sections 220 61 to 220 65

28 "Small business" means a business entity organized for profit, including but not limited to an individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, association or cooperative, to which the following apply

a It is not an affiliate or subsidiary of a business dominant in its field of operation

b It has either twenty or fewer full time equivalent positions or not more than the equivalent of three million dollars in annual gross revenues as computed, for the preceding fiscal year or as the average of the three preceding fiscal years

c It does not involve the operation of a farm and does not involve the practice of a profession

For purposes of this definition "dominant in its field of operation" means having more than twenty full-time equivalent positions and more than three million dollars in annual gross revenues, and "affiliate or subsidiary of a business dominant in its field of operation" means a business which is at least twenty percent owned by a business dominant in its field of operation, or by partners, officers, directors, majority stockholders, or their equivalent, of a business dominant in that field of operation

The authority may, by resolution, waive any or all of the requirements of paragraph "b" in connection with a loan to a small business, as defined under applicable federal law and regulations that have been enacted or adopted by April 1, 1983, in which federal assistance, insurance or guaranties are sought

29 "Mortgage backed security" means a security issued by the authority which is secured by residential mortgage loans owned by the authority

30 "Residential mortgage interest reduction program" means the program for buying-down interest rates on residential mortgage loans pursuant to sections 220 81 through 220 84

31 "Residential mortgage loan" means a financial obligation secured by a mortgage on a single family or two family home

32 "Residential mortgage marketing program" means the program for buying and selling residential mortgage loans and the selling of mortgage-backed securities pursuant to sections 220 71 through 220 73

33 "Qualified residential housing" means any of the following a Owner occupied residences purchased in a manner which satisfies the requirements contained in section 103A of the Internal Revenue Code in order to be financed with tax exempt mortgage subsidy bonds

b Residential property qualifying pursuant to section 103(b)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code to be financed with tax exempt residential rental property bonds

c Housing for low or moderate income families, elderly families, and families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled

The authority shall establish by rule further definitions applicable to this chapter, and clarification of the definitions in this section, as necessary to assure eligibility for funds available under federal housing laws, or to assure complying with federal tax laws relating to the issuance of tax exempt mortgage subsidy bonds pursuant to section 103A of the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 422 3, or relating to the issuance of tax exempt residential rental property bonds for qualified residential housing under section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code to the same political party. As far as possible the governor shall include within the membership persons who represent community and housing development industries, housing finance industries, the real estate sales industry, elderly families, minorities, lower income families, very low income families, handicapped and disabled families, average taxpayers, local government, and any other person specially interested in community housing.

2. Members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for staggered terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member of the authority may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing.

3. Five members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the authority. The majority shall not include any member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member of a conflict of interest shall be conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority.

4. Members of the authority are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

5. Members of the authority and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

6. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or whenever two members so request.

7. Members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director shall serve as secretary to the authority.

8. The net earnings of the authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations, or to implement the public purposes and programs herein authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority, including any such net earnings of the authority, shall vest in the state. The state reserves the right at any time to alter, amend, repeal, or otherwise change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the authority, including the power to terminate the authority, except that no law shall ever be passed impairing the obligation of any contract or contracts entered into by the authority to the extent that any such law would contravene article I, section 21 of the Constitution of the state of Iowa or article I, section 10 of the Constitution of the United States.

220.3 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious shortage of safe and sanitary residential housing available to low or moderate income families.

4. This shortage is conducive to disease, crime, environmental decline and poverty and impairs the economic value of large areas, which are characterized by depreciated values, impaired investments, and reduced capacity to pay taxes and are a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the state.

5. These conditions result in a loss in population and further deterioration, accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services elsewhere.

6. One major cause of this condition has been recurrent shortages of funds in private channels.

7. These shortages have contributed to reductions in construction of new residential units, and have made the sale and purchase of existing residential units a virtual impossibility in many parts of the state.

8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise have not in the past corrected these conditions.

9. A stable supply of adequate funds for residential financing is required to encourage new housing and the rehabilitation of existing housing in an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the problems described in this section.

10. It is necessary to create a state housing finance authority to encourage the investment of private capital and stimulate the construction and rehabilitation of adequate housing through the use of public financing.

11. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted.

12. The interest costs paid by group homes of fifteen beds or less licensed as health care facilities or child foster care facilities for facility acquisition and indirectly reimbursed by the department of human services through payments for patients at those facilities who are recipients of medical assistance or state supplementary assistance are severe drains on the state's budget. A reduction in these costs obtained through financing with tax-exempt revenue bonds would clearly be in the public interest.

13. There is a need in areas of the state for new construction of certain group homes of fifteen beds or less licensed as health care facilities or child foster care facilities to provide adequate housing and care for elderly and handicapped Iowans and to provide adequate housing and foster care for children.

220.4 Guiding principles.

In the performance of its duties and implementation of its powers, and in the selection of specific programs and projects to receive its assistance, the authority shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The authority shall not become an owner of real property, except on a temporary basis where necessary in order to implement its programs, protect its investments by means of foreclosure or other means, or to facilitate transfer of real property for the use of low or moderate income families.

2. The authority shall function in co-operation with local governmental units and local or regional housing agencies, and in fulfillment of local or regional housing plans, and to that end shall provide technical assistance to local governmental units and local or regional agencies in need of that assistance.

3. A local contributing effort shall be required of each project assisted by the authority. As used in this subsection, "project" includes one or more programs authorized under the provisions of this chapter. The local contribution may be provided by local governmental units or by local or regional agencies, public or private. Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, the percentage and type of local contribution shall be determined by the authority, and may include, but should not be limited to, cash match, land contribution, tax abatement, or ancillary facilities. The authority shall encourage ingenuity and creativity in local effort.

4. The authority shall encourage units of local government and local and regional housing agencies to use federal revenue-sharing funds for programs which increase or improve the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families.

5. The authority shall encourage co-operative housing efforts at the local level, both with respect to the co-operation of public bodies with private enterprise and civic groups, and with respect to the formation of regional or multicity units engaged in housing.

6. Wherever practicable, the authority shall give preference to the following types of programs:

a. Those which treat housing problems in the context of the total needs of individuals and communities, recognizing that individuals may have other problems and needs closely related to their need for adequate housing, and that the development of isolated housing units without regard for neighborhood and community development tends to create undesirable consequences.

b. Those which promote home ownership by families of low or moderate income, recognizing the need for educational counseling programs in family financial management and home maintenance in order to achieve this goal.

c. Those which involve the rehabilitation and conservation of existing housing units, and the preservation of existing neighborhoods and communities.

d. Those designed to serve elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, lower income families or very low income families.

7. The authority shall encourage the protection, restoration and rehabilitation of historic properties, and the preservation of other properties of special value for architectural or esthetic reasons. As used in this subsection, "historic properties" means landmarks, landmark sites, or districts which are significant in the history, architecture, archaeology or culture of this state, its communities, or the nation.

8. The authority shall exercise diligence and care in selection of projects to receive its assistance, and shall apply customary and acceptable business and lending standards in selection and subsequent implementation of such projects.

220.5 General powers.

The authority has all of the general powers needed to carry out its purposes and duties, and exercise its specific powers, including but not limited to the power to:

1. Issue its negotiable bonds and notes as provided in sections 220.26 to 220.30 in order to finance its programs.

2. Sue and be sued in its own name.

3. Have and alter a corporate seal.

4. Make and alter bylaws for its management consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

5. Make and execute agreements, contracts and other instruments, with any public or private entity. All political subdivisions, public housing agencies, other public agencies and state departments and agencies may enter into contracts and otherwise cooperate with the authority.

6. Acquire, hold, improve, mortgage, lease and dispose of real and personal property, including, but not limited to, the power to sell at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any such property, mortgage loan, or other obligation held by it.

7. Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its operations and property interests.

8. Fix and collect fees and charges for its services.

9. Subject to an agreement with bondholders or noteholders, invest or deposit moneys of the authority in a manner determined by the authority, notwithstanding chapter 452 or 453.

10. Accept appropriations, gifts, grants, loans, or other aid from public or private entities. A record of all gifts or grants, stating the type, amount and donor, shall be clearly set out in the authority's annual report along with the record of other receipts.

11. Provide technical assistance and counseling related to the authority's purposes, to public and private entities.

12. In co-operation with other local, state or federal governmental agencies, conduct research studies, develop estimates of unmet housing needs, and gather and compile data useful to facilitate decision making.

13. Co-operate in development of, and initiate housing demonstration projects.

14. Contract with architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, housing construction and finance experts, and other advisors. However, the authority may enter into contracts or agreements for such services with local, state or federal governmental agencies.

15. Make, alter and repeal rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and subject to chapter 17A.

220.6 Staff.

1. The governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, shall appoint an executive director of the authority, who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The executive director shall be selected primarily for administrative ability and knowledge in the field, without regard to political affiliation. The executive director shall not, directly or indirectly, exert influence to induce any other officers or employees of the state to adopt a political view, or to favor a political candidate for office.

2. The executive director shall advise the authority on matters relating to housing and housing finance, carry out all directives from the authority, and hire and supervise the authority's staff pursuant to its directions and under the provisions of chapter 19A, except that principal administrative assistants with responsibilities in housing development, accounting, mortgage loan processing, and investment portfolio management shall be exempt.

3. The executive director, as secretary of the authority, shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of its minute book and seal. The executive director shall have authority to cause to be made copies of all minutes and other records and documents of the authority and to give certificates under the seal of the authority to the effect that such copies are true copies and all persons dealing with the authority may rely upon such certificates.

4. The director of the Iowa housing finance authority shall report to the Iowa general assembly in February of 1980, an analysis of the nature and status of the disclosure reports filed pursuant to section 535A.4.

The director's report shall also include but is not limited to an analysis of the financial needs of economically depressed urban residential areas, and recommendations for future action to insure the economic health of urban residential areas.

220.7 Annual report.

1. The authority shall submit to the governor and to the general assembly, not later than January 15 each year, a complete report setting forth:

- a. Its operations and accomplishments.
- b. Its receipts and expenditures during the fiscal year, in accordance with the classifications it establishes for its operating and capital accounts.
- c. Its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year and the status of reserve, special and other funds.
- d. A schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and issued during its fiscal year.
- e. A statement of its proposed and projected activities.
- f. Recommendations to the general assembly, as it deems necessary.
- g. An analysis of current housing needs in the state.

2. The annual report shall identify performance goals of the authority, and clearly indicate the extent of progress during the reporting period, in attaining the goals. Where possible, results shall be expressed in terms of housing units.

220.9 Nondiscrimination and affirmative action.

1. Housing financed or otherwise assisted by the authority, directly or indirectly, shall be open to all persons regardless of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental impairment, or religion except that preference may be given to elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, lower income families or very low income families.

2. The authority shall promote marketing plans to make housing available to all persons without discrimination.

3. The authority shall require adoption and submission of an affirmative action program for employment by all contractors and subcontractors of housing financed or otherwise assisted by the authority.

4. The authority shall require all mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by it to agree that they will not designate certain areas as unsuitable for the making of mortgage loans because of the prevailing income, racial, ethnic or other characteristics of the inhabitants of the area. This subsection is intended to prohibit all mortgage lenders who participate in authority programs from engaging in the practice commonly known as "redlining".

5. The authority may require mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by the authority to take affirmative action to make mortgage loans in areas with a higher than average concentration of lower-income families or members of racial or ethnic minorities.

220.12 Property improvement loans and mortgage loans.

1. The authority may make property improvement loans and mortgage loans, including but not limited to mortgage loans insured, guaranteed, or otherwise secured by the federal government or by private mortgage insurers, to housing sponsors to provide financing of adequate housing for low or moderate income families, elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, child foster care facilities, and health care facilities.

2. A property improvement loan or mortgage loan under this section may be made only when the authority determines that the housing sponsor is unable to obtain the necessary financing from nongovernmental sources upon terms and conditions which the sponsor reasonably could be expected to fulfill.

3. The authority shall make and execute contracts with mortgage lenders for the servicing of property improvement loans and mortgage loans made under this section. The authority may pay the reasonable value of services rendered pursuant to such contracts.

4. Mortgage loans and property improvement loans shall contain terms and provisions including interest rates, and be in a form as established by rules of the authority. The authority shall require the housing sponsor to execute assurances and guarantees reasonably related to protecting the security of the mortgage loan, as the authority deems necessary.

5. In considering an application for a property improvement loan or mortgage loan under this section, the authority shall determine that the housing will be adequate and provide for the special needs of families of low or moderate income, elderly families, or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, or will meet state standards for health care facilities or child foster care facilities, and shall also give consideration to:

a. The comparative need for housing, child foster care facilities, or health care facilities in the area.

b. The ability of the applicant to operate, manage and maintain the proposed housing.

6. Each property improvement loan or mortgage loan shall be subject to an agreement between the authority and the housing sponsor which will subject the housing sponsor to limitations established by the authority as to rentals and other charges, builders' and developers' profits and fees, and dispositions of interests in the property mortgaged, including provisions to prohibit assumption of a mortgage without permission of the mortgagee.

7. As a condition of a property improvement loan or mortgage loan, the authority may, upon reasonable notice, during construction or rehabilitation of the housing and during its operation:

a. Enter upon and inspect the physical condition of the premises, examine books and records of the housing sponsor, and impose fees to cover the cost of the inspections and examinations.

b. Require alterations or repairs as necessary to protect the security of its investment and the welfare of the occupants, and to ensure that the housing is in conformity with applicable federal, state and local laws.

c. Require whatever action is necessary to comply with applicable federal, state and local laws, and file and prosecute a complaint or seek injunctive relief for a violation of applicable federal, state or local laws.

8. A property improvement loan or mortgage loan may be prepaid to maturity after a period of years as determined by rule of the authority, if the authority determines that the prepayment will not result in a material escalation of rents or fees charged to the occupants.

9. The authority may require as a condition of a property improvement loan that the improvements to be made therewith shall include bringing the property into compliance with thermal efficiency standards established by the state building code commissioner for existing structures or into compliance with such other thermal efficiency standards as the authority may deem appropriate.

220.13 Lease-purchase agreements.

In order to encourage eventual home ownership by low or moderate income families who are able to establish home ownership capability by showing regularity of payment and property maintenance, the authority may assist in the provision of housing to such families by means of down payment grants made pursuant to the lease-purchase program.

1. To the extent funds are available, the authority may provide down payment grants on behalf of low and moderate income families to nonprofit sponsors to defray all or part of the down payment on real property that is transferred by such sponsors to such families under the terms of the lease-purchase program.

2. To qualify for a down payment grant, the tenant shall have occupied the property for at least one year, have performed all routine maintenance, and have made all lease or rental payments on time and in full, during the year ending on the date of transfer.

3. Not more than thirty days prior to transfer of a property, an independent appraisal of such property shall be obtained, and the down payment shall not exceed ten percent of the lesser of the appraised value or agreed upon price.

4. Such down payment grant may be collectible in full and immediately by the authority in the following cases, when the beneficiary of the grant has lived in and occupied the property for less than five continuous years.

a. If the purchaser, at any future time, resells the property to a family that is not eligible for assistance under this section.

b If the property is totally destroyed and insurance settlement is made.

220.14 Iowa homesteading program.

1. The Iowa homesteading program is established under the supervision of the authority to alleviate problems of slums and blighted areas, to provide for rehabilitation of deteriorating housing, and to provide the opportunity to rehabilitate and occupy such housing, to low and moderate income families, all of which are deemed to be public purposes. The authority may establish homesteading projects in any part of the state, subject to approval of the local governing body; and, in co-operation with suitable local agencies, the authority may provide financial and technical assistance to housing sponsors for the establishment and implementation of homesteading projects which meet the requirements of this chapter, and the authority may co-operate with similar local projects to provide housing.

2. Homesteading projects which meet the requirements of this chapter may be designated by the authority as Iowa homesteading projects. The conditional and absolute conveyance of fee simple title to real property, to a homesteading applicant, shall result in the inclusion of such real property in a designated Iowa homesteading project. The result of such designation shall be the cancellation of back taxes, penalties, interest and costs of the real property pursuant to sections 446.39 and 569.8, notwithstanding any other financial, technical or principal involvement in the property by the authority.

3. The authority may provide property improvement or mortgage loans to facilitate designated Iowa homesteading projects. Such loans may be for the purpose of financing acquisition, improvement or rehabilitation of housing included in a designated homesteading project. Such loans shall be made only upon property for which a conditional conveyance will be granted. The interest rates, security requirements and other terms of such loans shall be established by the authority and shall be as low as practical considering market conditions.

a. The housing sponsor of the designated homesteading project shall agree to:

(1) Approval of homesteading applicants on a first-in-time is first-in-right basis, unless probability of success with a subsequent applicant is substantially higher. In cases of two or more applicants for a single property, priority may be given to a resident of the city or county where the property is located, or to the applicant with the lowest income who is otherwise qualified.

(2) Assistance to approved applicants in seeking and obtaining counseling and financial assistance from appropriate sources during homesteading, and for a period of three years after the date of absolute conveyance.

(3) Conditional conveyance of unoccupied residential property to the applicant with or without any substantial consideration, which consideration may include the value of work performed by the applicant in rehabilitating the property during the period of the conditional conveyance.

(4) Arrangement of local supervision and administration of the designated homesteading project, including announced quarterly inspections of homesteads during rehabilitation.

(5) Revocation of the conditional conveyance, at option of the authority, upon any material breach of the agreement between the housing sponsor and the authority.

(6) Repossession of property, subject to authority approval and upon proper notice and hearing unless waived in writing by the homesteading applicant, for unreasonable failure to complete rehabilitation as agreed upon at the time of conditional conveyance.

(7) Absolute conveyance of fee simple title to the applicant, upon satisfactory completion of rehabilitation and arrangement of mortgage financing from the authority or other institutions, as appropriate.

b. An approved applicant for a designated homesteading project shall:

(1) Agree to rehabilitate the property to meet applicable building or housing code standards within a two-year period after conditional conveyance. However, the two-year period may be extended for just cause.

(2) Agree to live in and occupy the homesteading property for five continuous years from the date of conditional conveyance. Such agreement may be waived by mutual agreement of the authority, the housing sponsor, and the applicant.

c. The authority may:

(1) Encourage homesteading sponsors and participating political subdivisions to co-ordinate approaches to neighborhood and area wide improvement through upgrading the public services and facilities through a designated Iowa homesteading project.

(2) Recommend legislation to provide appropriate exemptions from real property tax laws for properties included in a designated homesteading project.

(3) Recommend temporary suspension or temporary or permanent modification of building and housing code requirements to the extent necessary to permit safe and economical rehabilitation of housing included in a designated homesteading project.

220.15 Housing assistance for very low income and lower income families.

1. The authority shall participate in the housing assistance payments program under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 1401 et seq., title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 201 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). The purpose of participation is to enable the authority to obtain, on behalf of the state of Iowa, set-asides of contract authorization reserved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for public housing agencies, to enter into annual contributions contracts, to otherwise expedite use of the program through the use of state housing finance funds, and to encourage new construction and substantial rehabilitation of housing suitable for assistance under the program. Assistance may be provided for existing housing units made available by owners for the program, as well as for newly constructed housing units. Maximum rents shall be established by the authority in conformity with federal law.

2. To establish maximum eligibility for set-asides the authority shall:

a. Develop and implement procedures which will to the fullest possible extent compliment the allocation system of the United States department of housing and urban development.

b. Evaluate statewide and local housing needs and develop a program to provide housing in areas of most critical need, within its allocation of set-aside contract authority.

c. Comply with all documentation and application requirements of the federal law.

3. The authority shall co-operate to the fullest extent possible with local housing agencies for implementation of the housing assistance payments program. The agency may enter into agreements with local housing agencies, housing cooperatives, or other public or private entities for commitment of housing assistance upon completion of an approved proposal, and may subsequently execute with such entities housing assistance payments contracts.

4. Permanent financing for units to be subsidized under the housing assistance payments program may be provided by the authority, directly or indirectly, by the proceeds from the sale of bonds and notes as provided in this Act, or by other moneys available to the authority, by appropriations or otherwise.

5. The authority shall, when appropriate, take necessary steps to co-operate with the United States department of agriculture in implementation of sections 517 and 521 of the Housing Act of 1949, sections 1487 and 1490a, title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 514 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). The purpose of such programs is to extend to rural areas the provisions of housing assistance payments programs.

6. The authority shall, when appropriate, take necessary steps to participate in the programs of federal assistance to state housing finance agencies for expanding the supply of housing available to low or moderate income families, as provided in section 802 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383).

7. The authority may participate in other programs under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383), and in other federal programs designed to increase the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families and may recommend appropriate legislation to the general assembly where further legislation is needed to accomplish such participation. However, failure of the authority to participate in the federal programs set out in this section does not invalidate any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority.

220.16 Rent supplements.

1. The authority may establish and administer through local public or private agencies an eighteen month demonstration program of rent supplements designed for very low income and lower income families, to provide for payment of a maximum of the difference between twenty-five percent of an eligible family's income and the fair market rental of a unit of housing, as established by the authority. Eligibility of a housing unit for participation in the demonstration rent supplement program is subject to approval by the authority based on compliance with the definition of adequate housing in this chapter, and agreement by the owner to comply with authority rules pertaining to equal housing opportunity, maintenance, occupancy, and other authority policies. The authority shall, by rule, establish criteria for participation in the demonstration project, based upon the provisions of this section and section 220.4, including but not limited to the selection of target groups, determined by geographical location or special needs, to receive the benefits of the program under the demonstration project. It shall then receive applications for participation in the demonstration project from agencies or organizations described in subsection 2, prepare a detailed plan for the total demonstration project including a statement of funding needs, and submit the plan to the general assembly with its budget request.

2. A governing body of a city or county, a public housing agency, or a private, nonprofit organization which provides or wishes to provide housing to lower income families, is eligible to apply for participation in the rent supplement program. Funds available for the rent supplement program, whether from appropriations or from other sources, shall be made available by the authority to cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations on a one-to-one matching basis with funds supplied by the cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations that participate.

220.17 Emergency housing fund.

The authority may make grants and temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, for the following purposes:

1. To defray the local contribution requirement for housing sponsors who apply for rent supplement assistance as provided in section 220.16 and who, in the judgment of the authority, would not be able to provide the local contribution without undue hardship.

2. To defray temporary housing costs that result from displacement by natural or other disaster, if the disaster has been proclaimed by the governor.

3. To defray a portion of the expense required to develop and initiate housing which deals creatively with the housing problems of low or moderate income families, elderly families, and families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled.

Referred to in §403A 3(10), 533 16

220.18 Special housing assistance.

1. The authority may make temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, to defray development costs for housing for low or moderate income families provided by housing sponsors. A "development cost" loan shall be repaid in full by the borrower concurrent with obtaining a construction loan, unless the authority extends the period for repayment, but the period for repayment shall not be extended beyond the date of obtaining a mortgage loan on the housing. As used in this section, "development costs" means the costs approved by the authority as appropriate expenditures which may be incurred by builders and developers prior to commitment and initial advance of the proceeds of a construction loan or a mortgage loan, including but not limited to:

a. Payments for options to purchase properties on the proposed housing site, deposits on contracts of purchase, or, with approval of the authority, payments for the purchasing of such properties.

b. Legal and organizational expenses including payment of attorney fees, project manager, clerical and other staff salaries, office rent and other incidental expenses.

c. Payment of fees for preliminary feasibility studies and advances for planning, engineering and architectural work.

d. Expenses for tenant surveys and market analysis.

e. Necessary application and other fees.

2. The authority may make or participate in the making of property improvement loans or mortgage loans for rehabilitation or preservation of existing dwellings for the use of low or moderate income families, elderly families or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled. A rehabilitation or preservation loan may be for the estimated cost of the rehabilitation work to be done, for the purpose of refinancing an existing mortgage loan, for the purpose of doing the rehabilitation work, or for the purpose of acquiring housing in which rehabilitation work is to be done. The rehabilitation or preservation loan shall not exceed, with all other existing indebtedness of the property, the estimated market value of the property as determined by the authority, after the rehabilitation or preservation is completed, and the term of a loan shall not exceed the estimated useful life of the property as determined by the authority, after rehabilitation or preservation. The proposed rehabilitation or preservation shall assure that the property will not contain any substantial violation of applicable housing codes. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be made only when the authority determines that the proposed mortgagor is unable to obtain the necessary financing from nongovernmental sources upon terms and conditions which the proposed mortgagor reasonably could be expected to fulfill. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be provided only within an area of a city for which an authorized city agency submits a satisfactory affirmative neighborhood preservation program, or in other areas within or outside of cities where the authority determines that rehabilitation or preservation is economically sound and a program of neighborhood preservation is appropriate. The following criteria, along with others reasonably related to the purposes of this chapter, which may be determined by the authority, shall be considered in determining whether an affirmative neighborhood preservation program is satisfactory:

a. The degree of blight, decay or deterioration of housing or the imminent threat of blight, decay or deterioration of housing within the area.

b. The degree to which financing for repairs, remodeling or rehabilitation of housing within the area is available.

c. The proportion of residential structures within the area which are owner-occupied.

d. The degree to which the financial resources of proposed occupants of the housing, including resources available to them under this chapter or other federal, state, and local laws and programs, provide reasonable assurances of the economic feasibility of the financing of rehabilitation or preservation.

e. The expressed commitment of the city to provide a concentrated effort to enforce the applicable housing codes within the area.

f. The expressed commitment of the city to provide capital improvements and other city services so as to stabilize, improve and restore the neighborhood.

220.19 Housing assistance fund notes.

The authority may issue housing assistance fund notes, the principal and interest of which shall be payable solely from the housing assistance fund established under section 220.18. The fund notes of each issue shall be dated, shall mature at such times not exceeding ten years from their dates, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at prices and under terms and conditions as determined by the authority. The authority shall determine the form and manner of execution of the fund notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denominations and the places of payment of principal and interest, which may be any financial institution within or without the state or any agent, including the lender. If any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on fund notes or coupons shall cease to be that officer before the delivery of the notes or coupons, the signature or facsimile shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if the officer had remained in office until delivery. The fund notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the authority determines, and provision may be made for the registration of coupon fund notes as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the conversion into coupon fund notes of any fund notes registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of registered and coupon fund notes. Fund notes shall bear interest at rates as determined by the authority and may be sold in a manner, either at public or private sale, and for a price as the authority determines to be best to effectuate the purposes of the housing assistance fund. The proceeds of fund notes shall be used solely for the purposes for which issued and shall be disbursed in a manner and under restrictions as provided in this section and in the resolution of the authority providing for their issuance. The authority may provide for the replacement of fund notes which become mutilated or are destroyed or lost.

220.20 Loans to mortgage lenders.

1. The authority may make, and contract to make, loans to mortgage lenders on terms and conditions as it determines which are reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment and to implementing the purposes of this chapter, and subject to this section, and all mortgage lenders are authorized to borrow from the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of each loan to a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender, within a reasonable period after receipt of the loan proceeds as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have entered into written commitments to make, and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have disbursed the loan proceeds in new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the loan. New mortgage loans shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rules which are reasonably related to implementing the purposes of this chapter.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender to which the authority has made a loan, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section, and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of a loan to a national banking association or a federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require, as a condition of a loan to a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority shall require that each mortgage lender receiving a loan pursuant to this section shall issue and deliver to the authority an evidence of its indebtedness to the authority which shall constitute a general obligation of the mortgage lender and shall bear a date, mature at a time, be subject to prepayment, and contain other provisions consistent with this section and reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment, as the authority determines.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, the interest rate and other terms of loans to mortgage lenders made from the proceeds of an issue of bonds or notes of the authority shall be at least sufficient to assure the payment of the bonds or notes and the interest on them as they become due.

7. The authority shall require that loans to mortgage lenders are additionally secured as to payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of and lien upon collateral security by special escrow funds or other forms of guarantee and in such amounts and forms as the authority shall by resolution determine to be necessary to assure the payment of the loans and the interest thereon as they become due. Collateral security shall consist of direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, the United States or one of its agencies, obligations satisfactory to the authority which are issued by other federal agencies, direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed by a state or a political subdivision of a state, or investment quality obligations approved by the authority.

8. The authority may require that collateral for loans be deposited with a bank, trust company or other financial institution acceptable to the authority located in this state and designated by the authority as custodian. In the absence of such a requirement, each mortgage lender shall enter into an agreement with the authority containing provisions as the authority deems necessary to adequately identify and maintain the collateral, service the collateral, and require the mortgage lender to hold the collateral as an agent for the authority and be accountable to the authority as the trustee of an express trust for the application and disposition of the collateral and the income from it. The authority may also establish additional requirements as it deems necessary with respect to the pledging, assigning, setting aside, or holding of collateral and the making of substitutions for it or additions to it and the disposition of income and receipts from it.

9. The authority may require as a condition of loans to mortgage lenders, any representations and warranties it determines are necessary to secure the loans and carry out the purposes of this section.

10. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with a provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section.

220.21 Purchase of mortgage loans.

1. The authority may purchase, and make advance commitments to purchase, mortgage loans from mortgage lenders at prices and upon terms and conditions as it determines subject to this section. However, the total purchase price for all mortgage loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the mortgage loans purchased. Mortgage lenders are authorized to sell mortgage loans to the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from mortgage lenders that the mortgage lenders, within a reasonable period after receipt of the purchase price as the authority prescribes by rule, shall enter into written commitments to loan and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall loan an amount equal to the entire purchase price of the mortgage loans, on new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families or certify that mortgage loans purchased are mortgage loans made to low or moderate income families. New mortgage loans to be made by mortgage lenders shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rule. The authority may make a commitment to purchase mortgage loans from mortgage lenders in advance of the time such loans are made by mortgage lenders. The authority shall require as a condition of such commitment that mortgage lenders certify in writing that all mortgage loans represented by the commitment will be made to low or moderate income families, and that other authority specifications will be complied with.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender from which the authority has purchased mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from any national banking association or federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require as a condition of the authority's purchase of mortgage loans from a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of a mortgage loan from a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender represent and warrant to the authority that:

a. The unpaid principal balance of the mortgage loan and the interest rate on it have been accurately stated to the authority.

b. The amount of the unpaid principal balance is justly due and owing.

c. The mortgage lender has no notice of the existence of any counterclaim, offset or defense asserted by the mortgagor or the mortgagor's successor in interest.

d. The mortgage loan is evidenced by a bond or promissory note and a mortgage which has been properly recorded with the appropriate public official.

e. The mortgage constitutes a valid first lien on the real property described to the authority subject only to real property taxes not yet due, installments of assessments not yet due, and easements and restrictions of record which do not adversely affect, to a material degree, the use or value of the real property or improvements on it.

f. The mortgagor is not now in default in the payment of any installment of principal or interest, escrow funds, real property taxes or otherwise in the performance of obligations under the mortgage documents and has not to the knowledge of the mortgage lender been in default in the performance of any obligation under the mortgage for a period of longer than sixty days during the life of the mortgage.

g. The improvements to the mortgaged real property are covered by a valid and subsisting policy of insurance issued by a company authorized to issue such policies in this state and providing fire and extended coverage in amounts as the authority prescribes by rule.

h. The mortgage loan meets the prevailing investment quality standards for mortgage loans in this state.

6. A mortgage lender is liable to the authority for damages suffered by the authority by reason of the untruth of a representation or the breach of a warranty and, in the event that a representation proves to be untrue when made or in the event of a breach of warranty, the mortgage lender shall, at the option of the authority, repurchase the mortgage loan for the original purchase price adjusted for amounts subsequently paid on it, as the authority determines.

7. The authority shall require the recording of an assignment of a mortgage loan purchased by it from a mortgage lender and shall not be required to notify the mortgagor of its purchase of the mortgage loan. The authority shall not be required to inspect or take possession of the mortgage documents if the mortgage lender from which the mortgage loan is purchased by the authority enters into a contract to service the mortgage loan and account to the authority for it.

8. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with another provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section.

220.22 Rules — loans to mortgage lenders and purchase of mortgage loans.

The rules of the authority relating to the making of loans to mortgage lenders or the purchase of mortgage loans shall provide at least for the following:

1. Procedures for the submission by mortgage lenders to the authority of request for loans and offers to sell mortgage loans.

2. Standards for allocating bond proceeds among mortgage lenders requesting loans from, or offering to sell mortgage loans to, the authority.

3. Standards for determining the principal amount to be loaned to each mortgage lender and the interest rate on each loan.

4. Standards for determining the aggregate principal amount of mortgage loans to be purchased from each mortgage lender and the purchase price.

5. Qualifications or characteristics of housing and the purchasers to be financed by new mortgage loans made in satisfaction of the requirements of section 220.20, subsection 2 or section 220.21, subsection 2.

6. Restrictions as to the interest rates to be allowed on new mortgage loans and the return to be realized by mortgage lenders.

7. Requirements as to commitments and disbursements by mortgage lenders with respect to new mortgage loans.

8. Schedules of fees and charges to be imposed by the authority.

9. Requirements for provisions that prohibit mortgage loans made under this program from being assumed without permission of the mortgagee.

Referred to in §403A 3(10), 533.16

220.23 Powers relating to loans.

Subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, the authority may renegotiate a mortgage loan or loan to a mortgage lender in default, waive a default or consent to the modification of the terms of a mortgage loan or a loan to a mortgage lender, forgive or forbear all or part of a mortgage loan or a loan to a mortgage lender, and commence, prosecute and enforce a judgment in any action, including but not limited to a foreclosure action, to protect or enforce any right conferred upon it by law, mortgage loan agreement, contract or other agreement, and in connection with any such action, bid for and purchase the property or acquire or take possession of it, complete, administer, pay the principal of and interest on any obligations incurred in connection with the property and dispose of and otherwise deal with the property in a manner as the authority deems advisable to protect its interests.

220.24 Certification of amortization periods.

Before the authority provides money, either directly or indirectly, for any mortgage loan including property improvement loans authorized under 220.37, it must obtain the certificate of a competent appraiser to the effect that the economic lifespan of the property on which the mortgage loan or property improvement loan is to be made is in excess of the period of amortization of the mortgage loan or property improvement loan. If an appraiser is used for the purpose of this section or for valuation of property for which the authority will provide money, either directly or indirectly, the authority shall give preference to the use of a local appraiser.

Referred to in §403A 3(10), 533 16

220.26 Bonds and notes.

1. The authority may issue its negotiable bonds and notes in principal amounts as, in the opinion of the authority, are necessary to provide sufficient funds for achievement of its corporate purposes, the payment of interest on its bonds and notes, the establishment of reserves to secure its bonds and notes, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and powers. However, the authority shall not have a total principal amount of bonds and notes outstanding at any time in excess of six hundred fifty million dollars plus a total of fifty million dollars for property improvement loans to finance solar and other renewable energy systems in housing as authorized by section 220.37 and to finance loans to provide solar and other renewable energy systems for and to increase the energy efficiency of small businesses under the Iowa small business loan program. Two hundred fifty million dollars of the total principal amount of bonds and notes may be issued pursuant to the small business loan program. The bonds and notes shall be deemed to be investment securities and negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code.

2. Bonds and notes issued by the authority are payable solely and only out of the moneys, assets, or revenues of the authority, and as provided in the agreement with bondholders or noteholders pledging any particular moneys, assets or revenues. Bonds or notes are not an obligation of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitations, but are special obligations of the authority payable solely and only from the sources provided in this chapter, and the authority may not pledge the credit or taxing power of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority, or make its debts payable out of any moneys except those of the authority.

3. The maximum amount of bonds and notes issued by the authority which may be outstanding at any time shall be set by statute. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. However, a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to negotiate and fix the details of an issue of bonds or notes by an appropriate certificate of the authorized officer.

4. Bonds shall:

a. State the date and series of the issue, be consecutively numbered, and state on their face that they are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the assets of the authority and do not constitute an indebtedness of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limit.

b. Be either registered, registered as to principal only, or in coupon form, issued in denominations as the authority prescribes, fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this state, signed on behalf of the authority with the manual or facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, attested by the manual or facsimile signature of the secretary, have impressed or imprinted thereon the seal of the authority or a facsimile of it, and the coupons attached shall be signed with the facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, be payable as to interest at rates and at times as the authority determines, be payable as to principal at times over a period not to exceed fifty years from the date of issuance, at places, and with reserved rights of prior redemption, as the authority prescribes, be sold at prices, at public or private sale, and in a manner as the authority prescribes, and the authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it deems necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and sale, and be issued under and subject to the terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal, redemption premiums, if any, interest and other terms, conditions, covenants and protective provisions safeguarding payment, not inconsistent with this chapter, as are found to be necessary by the authority for the most advantageous sale, which may include, but are not limited to, covenants with the holders of the bonds as to:

220.26(1,2) Amend, P.C.
Ch 225, §2-85 Acts

(1) Pledging or creating a lien, to the extent provided by the resolution, on moneys or property of the authority or moneys held in trust or otherwise by others to secure the payment of the bonds.

(2) Providing for the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of or due to the authority.

(3) The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation or disposition of them.

(4) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of an issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied.

(5) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds and on the refunding of outstanding or other bonds.

(6) The procedure by which the terms of a contract with the holders of bonds may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which consent may be given.

(7) The creation of special funds into which moneys of the authority may be deposited.

(8) Vesting in a trustee properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority determines, which may include the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed for the holders of any issue of bonds pursuant to section 220.28, in which event the provisions of that section authorizing appointment of a trustee by the holders of bonds shall not apply, or limiting or abrogating the right of the holders of bonds to appoint a trustee under that section, or limiting the rights, duties and powers of the trustee.

(9) Defining the acts or omissions which constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority and providing for the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds in the event of a default. However, rights and remedies shall be consistent with the laws of this state and other provisions of this chapter.

(10) Any other matters which affect the security and protection of the bonds and the rights of the holders.

5. The authority may issue its bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds or notes of the authority then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premiums thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the outstanding bonds or notes. Until the proceeds of bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes are applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding bonds or notes or the redemption of outstanding bonds or notes, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and be invested and reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The interest, income and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds or notes to be refunded by purchase, retirement or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

6. The authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew them from time to time but the maximum maturity of the notes, including renewals, shall not exceed ten years from the date of issue of the original notes. Notes are payable from any available moneys of the authority not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of the authority in anticipation of which the notes were issued. Notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. Notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds, and notes and the resolution authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection, which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Notes may be sold at public or private sale. In case of default on its notes or violation of any obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided in this chapter for bondholders. Notes shall be as fully negotiable as bonds of the authority.

7. A copy of each pledge agreement by or to the authority, including without limitation each bond resolution, indenture of trust or similar agreement, or any revisions or supplements to it shall be filed with the secretary of state and no further filing or other action under sections 554.9101 to 554.9507, article 9 of the uniform commercial code, or any other law of the state shall be required to perfect the security interest in the collateral or any additions to it or substitutions for it, and the lien and trust so created shall be binding from and after the time made against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the pledgor.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing its bonds, notes or other obligations shall be liable personally on the bonds, notes, or other obligations or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

9. The authority may make or participate in the making of loans to housing sponsors to provide interim construction financing for the construction or rehabilitation of adequate housing for low or moderate income persons or families, elderly persons or families, and persons or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, and of non-institutional residential care facilities. An interim construction loan may be made under this section only if the loan is the subject of a commitment from an agency or instrumentality of the United States government or from the authority, to provide long-term financing for the mortgage loan and interim construction advances made under the interim construction loan will be insured or guaranteed by an agency or instrumentality of the United States government.

220.27 Reserve funds and appropriations.

1. The authority may create and establish one or more special funds, to be known as "bond reserve funds", and shall pay into each bond reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of the fund, any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing their issuance, and any other moneys which may be available to the authority for the purpose of the fund from any other sources. All moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn from it at any time in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, as provided in this section, except for the purpose of making, with respect to bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund, payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to the investment of it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund requirement for it.

3. The authority shall not at any time issue bonds, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the authority at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, an amount of money, as provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing the bonds with respect to which the fund is established, equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds of the authority secured in whole or in part by the fund.

4. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of its corporate purposes, provision is made in subsection 1 for the accumulation in each bond reserve fund of an amount equal to the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. In order further to assure maintenance of the bond reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July first of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor the chairperson's certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable bond reserve fund.

5. All amounts paid over to the authority by the state pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute and be accounted for as advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority theretofore or thereafter issued, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes or obligations of the authority, the bond reserve fund and operating expenses.

6. The authority shall cause to be delivered to the legislative fiscal committee within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year its annual report certified by an independent certified public accountant (who may be the accountant or a member of the firm of accountants who regularly audits the books and accounts of the authority) selected by the authority. In the event that the principal amount of any bonds or notes deposited in a bond reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal or interest thereby reducing the amount of that fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall thereafter take steps to restore such bond reserve to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund from any amounts available, other than principal of a bond issue, which are not pledged to the payment of other bonds or notes.

220.28 Remedies of bondholders and noteholders.

1. If the authority defaults in the payment of principal or interest on an issue of bonds or notes after they become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and the default continues for a period of thirty days, or if the authority fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or defaults in an agreement made with the holders of an issue of bonds or notes, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of bonds or notes of the issue then outstanding, by instrument filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located, and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of the bonds or notes for the purposes provided in this section.

2. The authority or any trustee appointed under the indenture under which the bonds are issued may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding shall:

a. Enforce all rights of the bondholders or noteholders, including the right to require the authority to carry out its agreements with the holders and to perform its duties under this chapter.

b. Bring suit upon the bonds or notes.

c. By action require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders.

d. By action enjoin any acts or things which are unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders.

e. Declare all the bonds or notes due and payable and if all defaults are made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding, annul the declaration and its consequences.

The bondholders or noteholders, to the extent provided in the resolution by which the bonds or notes were issued or in their agreement with the authority, may enforce any of the remedies in paragraphs "a" to "e" or the remedies provided in those agreements for and on their own behalf.

3. The trustee shall also have and possess all powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of functions specifically set forth or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. Before declaring the principal of bonds or notes due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority and to the attorney general of the state.

5. The district court has jurisdiction of any action by the trustee on behalf of bondholders or noteholders. The venue of the action shall be in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

220.31 Moneys of the authority.

1. Moneys of the authority from whatever source derived, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be paid to the authority and shall be deposited in a bank or other financial institution designated by the authority. The moneys shall be withdrawn on the order of the person authorized by the authority. Deposits shall, if required by the authority, be secured in the manner determined by the authority. The auditor of state and the auditor's legally authorized representatives may periodically examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing, and the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for the examination.

2. The authority may contract with holders of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, security, investment, and payment of moneys of the authority, of moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes, and to carry out the contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of the moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and banks and trust companies may give security for the deposits.

3. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders or noteholders and to the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

4. The authority shall submit to the governor, the auditor of state, and the state comptroller, within thirty days of its receipt by the authority, a copy of the report of every external examination of the books and accounts of the authority other than copies of the reports of examinations made by the auditor of state.

220.35 Conflicts of interest.

1. If a member or employee other than the executive director of the authority has an interest, either direct or indirect, in a contract to which the authority is, or is to be, a party, or in a mortgage lender requesting a loan from, or offering to sell mortgage loans to, the authority, the interest shall be disclosed to the authority in writing and shall be set forth in the minutes of the authority. The member or employee having the interest shall not participate in action by the authority with respect to that contract or mortgage lender.

A violation of a provision of this subsection is misconduct in office under section 721.2. However, a resolution of the authority is not invalid because of a vote cast by a member in violation of this subsection unless the vote was decisive in the passage of the resolution.

For the purposes of this subsection, “action of the authority with respect to that contract or mortgage lender” means only an action directly affecting a separate contract or mortgage lender, and does not include an action which benefits the general public or which affects all or a substantial portion of the contracts or mortgage lenders included in a program of the authority.

2. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the right of a member, officer or employee of the authority to acquire an interest in bonds or notes of the authority or to limit the right of a member or employee other than the executive director to have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be, deposited or which is, or is to be, acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party.

3. The executive director shall not have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be, deposited or which is, or is to be, acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party. The executive director shall not receive, in addition to fixed salary or compensation, any money or valuable thing, either directly or indirectly, or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale of property, or loan, made by the authority, nor shall the executive director be pecuniarily interested, either as principal, coprincipal, agent or beneficiary, either directly or indirectly, or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, in any such purchase, sale or loan.

220.39 New construction requirement.

The authority shall ensure that fifty percent or more of the proceeds from sales of obligations of the authority in each three-year period beginning July 1, 1981, are newly constructed housing units. Failure to comply with this requirement does not invalidate any bonds, notes, or other obligations of the authority, but in the event of noncompliance with this requirement the authority shall make a special report to the governor and to the general assembly as to the reasons for noncompliance, and the authority shall not commit further funds for housing units that do not help meet this requirement until this requirement is reached, other than to complete projects already started.

220.42 Inconsistent provisions.

This chapter takes precedence over any conflicting provisions contained in section 535.8, subsection 2, with respect to the use or enforcement of a due-on-sale or similar clause in a mortgage loan agreement, and takes precedence over any conflicting provisions contained in laws enacted after July 1, 1981, with respect to the use or enforcement of a due-on-sale or similar clause in a mortgage loan agreement unless those laws expressly provide that they take precedence over this chapter.

[81 Acts, ch 76, §6]

220.43 Economic distress areas named.

The authority shall be the agency of this state to designate “areas of economic distress” for purposes of section 103A(k)(3)(A)(i) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

[81 Acts, ch 76, §7]

220.44 Application of funds from sales of obligations.

All moneys received by or on behalf of the authority, whether as proceeds from the sale of obligations or as revenues, are trust funds to be held and applied solely for the purposes specified in the appropriation, bond resolution, or other document authorizing receipt of the moneys by the authority. A person with which the moneys are deposited shall act as trustee of the moneys and shall hold and apply the moneys for the purposes specified in this chapter subject to limitations specified in this chapter and in the bond resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations.

[82 Acts, ch 1173, §6]

220.45 Qualified mortgage bonds — allocation of state ceiling.

For purposes of this section, “Internal Revenue Code of 1954” means the same as defined in section 422.3, “state ceiling” means the same as defined in section 103A(g)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and “qualified mortgage bonds” means the same as defined in section 103A(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Pursuant to section 103A(g) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount of the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds is allocated to the authority. The authority may provide pursuant to subsection 1 for reallocation of an amount, not in excess of fifty percent of the state ceiling, among other governmental units in the state having authority to issue qualified mortgage bonds.

1 An allocation to a governmental unit shall not exceed the amount which the governmental unit has shown can reasonably be anticipated to be fully utilized during that calendar year. In considering a request for allocation, the authority shall consider the following factors:

a The number of requests received and expected to be received from other governmental units for the calendar year and the volume of bonds represented by those requests.

b The population of the governmental unit making the request.

c The volume of bonds issued or to be issued by the authority in the calendar year the proceeds of which will be allocated to the same geographical area.

d The amount of bond proceeds to be targeted to areas of chronic economic distress as defined in section 103A(k) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

e The economies of a bond issue of a larger or smaller size.

f Allocations made under this section in the same or previous calendar years to the governmental unit.

g If another governmental unit having authority to issue qualified mortgage bonds has jurisdiction over all or part of the same geographical area as the unit requesting an allocation and the realistic plans of that other unit to issue the bonds.

h The probability that a governmental unit will be able to use the funds allocated within a reasonable period of time.

i Other factors and considerations the authority deems necessary or appropriate.

220.51 Additional loan program.

1 The authority may enter into a loan agreement with a housing sponsor to finance in whole or in part the acquisition of housing by construction or purchase. The repayment obligation of the housing sponsor may be unsecured, secured by a mortgage or security agreement, or secured by other security as the authority deems advisable, and may be evidenced by one or more notes of the housing sponsor. The loan agreement may contain terms and conditions the authority deems advisable.

2 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purposes set forth in subsection 1 and may enter into a lending agreement or purchase agreement with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders may enter into an agreement to provide for any of the following:

a That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority, may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreement or any other security instrument securing the debt obligation of the housing sponsor.

c That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreement or security instrument on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee and if there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the agreement or instrument, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained in the agreement or instrument.

d That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced and any collateral sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law and a trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured thereby may become a purchaser if it is the highest bidder.

e Other terms and conditions.

3 The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes that the principal and interest shall be limited obligations payable solely out of the revenues derived from the debt obligation, collateral, or other security furnished by or on behalf of the housing sponsor, and that the principal and interest does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or a charge against its general credit or general fund.

4 The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 220.28, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued pursuant to and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent that they are inconsistent with this section.

SMALL BUSINESS LOAN PROGRAM

220.61 Legislative findings — purposes — public policy.

1 The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

a A viable small business community is essential to the continuing welfare of Iowans who depend on small business for employment.

b Iowa small business must continue to expand and develop if they are to remain competitive in state and local markets.

c Small business expansion and development is dependent upon the availability of financing for expansion and development at interest rates which small businesses may reasonably pay.

d Private financing for small businesses at low interest rates is unavailable to assist small business expansion and development. The Iowa small business loan program is necessary to encourage the investment of private capital in small business expansion and development through the use of public financing as provided in this section and sections 220.62 to 220.65.

2. The purposes of the small business loan program are:

- a. To promote the business prosperity and economic welfare of Iowa and Iowans.
- b. To assist, through loans, investments, and other transactions, the location of new small business and industry in the state.
- c. To assist through loans, investments, and other transactions, existing small business and industry in the state.
- d. To provide employment opportunities and thereby improve the standard of living of Iowans.
- e. To promote industrial, commercial, and recreational development in this state.

3. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys provided by the sale of revenue bonds may be used.

4. It is the public policy of the state through the establishment of the small business loan program to promote the economic welfare of Iowans and to improve employment opportunities for Iowans. To advance that public policy, the authority may make loans to borrowers for both the acquisition and the construction of projects and may issue obligations of this state payable solely from bond proceeds, to pay the cost of the projects.

[82 Acts, ch 1173, §5]
 Referred to in §220 1(26, 27)

220.62 Small business loan program.

1. The authority shall initiate a program to assist the development and expansion of small business in Iowa. The authority may issue bonds and notes the proceeds of which shall be used to make program loans. The principal amount of bonds and notes that may be issued pursuant to the loan program and the principal amount of the bonds and notes issued which shall be counted as a portion of the total principal amount of bonds and notes of the authority which may be outstanding at any time are as provided in section 220.26, subsection 1. Bonds and notes issued under this section are subject to all provisions of this chapter relating to the issuance of bonds.

2. The authority may contract with the Iowa business development credit corporation or any other corporation organized under chapter 496B for the provision by the corporation of lending and other administrative services relative to the loan program to the authority.

220.63 Small business loan program — specific powers.

In assisting Iowa small businesses through the loan program, the authority may do any of the following:

1. Make loans, secured and unsecured, for both the acquisition and the construction of projects on terms the authority determines. The authority may take any action which is reasonable and lawful to protect its security and to avoid losses from its loans.

Before making a loan, the authority shall find that the proposed project shall result in one or more of the following:

- a. The creation of jobs in Iowa.
 - b. Increased revenues for the borrower from a more modern or expanded facility.
 - c. Providing a service facility needed in the community where the project will be located.
2. Acquire, hold, and mortgage personal property and real estate and interests in real estate to be used as a project.
3. Purchase, construct, improve, furnish, equip, lease, option, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of projects under the terms the authority determines. However, in the lease, sale, or loan agreement relating to a project, the authority shall provide for adequate maintenance of the project.
4. Grant a mortgage, lien, pledge, assignment, or other encumbrance on a project, revenues, or reserve or other funds established in connection with obligations, or with respect to a lease, sale, or loan relating to a project, or a guaranty or insurance agreement relating to a project, or an interest, secured or unsecured, of the authority in a project or part of a project.

5. Provide that the interest on obligations may vary in accordance with a base or formula authorized by the authority.

6. Contract for the acquisition, construction, or both of a project or part of a project and for the leasing, subleasing, sale, or other disposition of a project in a manner determined by the authority.

7. Cooperate with the Iowa development commission and use its facilities to assist and encourage organizations in Iowa communities in the promotion and development of small business prosperity in those communities.

220.64 Small business loan criteria.

In determining whether a small business is eligible for a loan from the small business loan program, the authority shall consider the following criteria:

- 1. The applicant shall be of good character as determined by rule which shall be adopted by the authority.
- 2. The applicant shall show evidence that the applicant is able to operate the business successfully.
- 3. The applicant shall have enough capital in the business so that with assistance from the loan program, the applicant will be able to operate the business on a financially sound basis.
- 4. The loan shall be so secured or of such sound value as to reasonably assure repayment.
- 5. The business' past earnings record and future prospects shall indicate an ability to repay the loan out of income from the business.
- 6. Whether the granting of the loan will increase employment or have other favorable effects upon the economic life of the community where the business is located.

220.65 Loan agreement with sponsors.

1. The authority may enter into a loan agreement with a project sponsor to finance in whole or in part the acquisition of a project by construction or purchase. The repayment obligation of the project sponsor may be unsecured, secured by a mortgage or security agreement, or secured by other security as the authority deems advisable, and may be evidenced by one or more notes of the project sponsor. The loan agreement may contain terms and conditions the authority deems advisable.

2. The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purposes set forth in subsection 1 and may enter into a lending agreement or purchase agreement with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders may enter into an agreement to provide for any of the following:

a. That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b. That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority, may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreement or any other security instrument securing the debt obligation of the project sponsor.

c. That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreement or security instrument on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee and if there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the agreement or instrument, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained in the agreement or instrument.

d. That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced and any collateral sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law and a trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured thereby may become a purchaser if it is the highest bidder.

e. Other terms and conditions.

3. The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes that the principal and interest shall be limited obligations payable solely out of the revenues derived from the debt obligation, collateral, or other security furnished by or on behalf of the project sponsor, and that the principal and interest does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or a charge against its general credit or general fund.

4. The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 220.28, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued pursuant to and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent that they are inconsistent with this section.

RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE MARKETING PROGRAM

220.71 Residential mortgage marketing program.

The authority shall establish a program to assist lenders to sell residential mortgage loans in the organized and unorganized secondary mortgage market. The authority may issue taxable and tax-exempt bonds and notes. The proceeds of the bonds shall be used to purchase residential mortgage loans from lenders. The bonds and notes are a portion of the total principal amount of bonds and notes of the authority which may be outstanding at any time pursuant to section 220.26, subsection 1. Bonds and notes issued under this section are subject to all provisions of this chapter relating to the issuance of bonds.

Referred to in §220.1(32)

220.72 Powers.

1. The authority may purchase, and make advance commitments to purchase, residential mortgage loans from mortgage lenders at prices and upon terms and conditions it determines subject to this section. However, the total purchase price for all residential mortgage loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the residential mortgage loans purchased. Mortgage lenders are authorized to sell residential mortgage loans to the authority in accordance with this section and the rules of the authority. The authority may charge a mortgage lender a commitment fee or other fees as set by rule as a condition for the authority purchasing residential mortgage loans.

2. The authority may sell or make advanced commitments to sell residential mortgage loans in the organized or unorganized secondary mortgage market. The authority may issue and sell securities that are secured by residential mortgage loans held by the authority. The authority may aggregate the residential mortgage loans sold in the secondary market or used as security on the mortgage-backed securities. The amount of mortgage-backed securities sold shall not exceed principal of the mortgages retained by the authority as security.

3. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of a residential mortgage loan from a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender represent and warrant to the authority that:

a. The unpaid principal balance of the residential mortgage loan and the interest rate on it have been accurately stated to the authority.

b. The amount of the unpaid principal balance is justly due and owing.

c. The mortgage lender has no notice of the existence of a counterclaim, offset, or defense asserted by the mortgagor or the mortgagor's successor in interest.

d. The residential mortgage loan is evidenced by a bond or promissory note and a mortgage which has been properly recorded with the appropriate public official.

e. The mortgage constitutes a valid first lien on the real property described in the mortgage to the authority subject only to real property taxes not yet due, installments of assessments not yet due, and easements and restrictions of record which do not adversely affect, to a material degree, the use or value of the real property or improvements on it.

f. The mortgagor is not now in default in the payment of an installment of principal or interest, escrow funds, real property taxes, or otherwise in the performance of obligations under the mortgage documents and has not to the knowledge of the mortgage lender been in default in the performance of an obligation under the mortgage for a period of longer than sixty days during the life of the mortgage.

g. The improvements to the mortgaged real property are covered by a valid and subsisting policy of insurance issued by a company authorized to issue policies in this state and providing fire and extended coverage in amounts as the authority prescribes by rule.

h. The residential mortgage loan meets the prevailing investment quality standards for residential mortgage loans in this state.

83 Acts, ch 124, §8
 Referred to in §220 1(32)

220.73 Rules.

The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A relating to the purchase and sale of residential mortgage loans and the sale of mortgage-backed securities. The rules shall provide at least for the following:

1. Procedures for the submission by mortgage lenders to the authority of offers to sell mortgage loans.
2. Standards for allocating bond proceeds among mortgage lenders offering to sell mortgage loans to the authority.
3. Standards for determining the aggregate principal amount of mortgage loans to be purchased from each mortgage lender and the purchase price.
4. Schedules of fees and charges to be imposed by the authority.
5. Procedures for issuing mortgage-backed securities.

RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE INTEREST REDUCTION PROGRAM

220.81 Residential mortgage interest reduction program.

1. The authority shall initiate a residential mortgage interest reduction program to reduce the interest costs on groups of mortgage loans. The authority shall use the money specially appropriated to operate this program, and the authority may use moneys declared to be surplus as provided in section 220.10, subsection 1, or moneys obtained from grants, gifts, bequests, contributions, and other uncommitted funds to operate this program.

2. Each mortgage loan included in this program shall be for the purpose of acquiring a single-family dwelling to be occupied by the owner of that dwelling, or a two-family dwelling where the owner will occupy one of the units. The authority shall adopt rules establishing the maximum purchase prices for both single-family dwellings and two-family dwellings in order to be included in a particular group of mortgages. These maximum purchase prices shall not exceed the maximum prices established by section 103A, Internal Revenue Code of 1954. These rules shall only apply to mortgages financed from the sale of tax-exempt bonds.

3. The interest reduction established by the authority for a group of loans shall meet the requirements of this subsection. The interest rate of a loan shall be reduced for a period not to exceed five years. The interest rate of a loan during the first year shall be reduced by not less than three percent and not more than five percent. The amount of the reduction in the interest rate of the loan in each subsequent year of the reduction period, if there are any subsequent years, shall be equal to the percent reduction in the first year multiplied times a fraction which has as its denominator the total number of years of the interest reduction period and has as its numerator the number of years remaining in the interest reduction period at the beginning of the subsequent year. For purposes of this subsection the first year of the interest reduction period starts on the date the loan is closed and ends eleven months after the date of the first monthly payment.

4. The authority shall implement this program by allocating a specified amount of money to reduce the interest rate on some or all of the mortgage loans purchased. The authority shall pay for the interest reduction on a group of loans to mortgage lenders, mortgage purchasers, or investors at the same time that it purchases that group of loans. For each bond issue using this program the authority shall establish the interest rate reductions it will purchase, the amount the authority will pay for the interest rate reductions, and the method of determining which of the eligible loans will be reduced.

 Referred to in §220 1(30), 220 10

220.82 Lien.

The authority shall file a lien on the property for which an interest reduction payment is made in the amount of the payment. The lien shall be filed in the recorder's office of the county in which the property is located.

83 Acts, ch 124, §11
 Referred to in §220 1(30)

220.83 Recapture of interest reduction payment.

1. A mortgagor shall repay the authority the lesser of the amount of interest reduction payment actually paid by the authority on behalf of the mortgagor or fifty percent of the net appreciation of the property. The term "net appreciation of the property" as used in this section means an increase in the value of the property over the purchase price less the reasonable costs of sale and the reasonable costs of improvements made to the property.

2. Repayment shall be made when any of the following occur:

a. The mortgagor sells or otherwise transfers the property. However, repayment is not required if the transfer is to the surviving spouse of the mortgagor upon the mortgagor's death.

b The mortgagor rents the property for more than twelve months.

c The mortgagor requests the authority to release the lien on the property.

d The mortgage lender files a court action to foreclose on the mortgage. However, the authority may abate payment pending the outcome of the foreclosure action.

CHAPTER 220A

INTERAGENCY INFORMATION SERVICE ON MENTALLY HANDICAPPED

Referred to in §218 11

220A.1 Purpose.

220A.2 Definitions.

220A.3 Administrative agency.

220A.4 Agencies involved.

220A.5 Duties of department.

220A.6 Information to others.

220A.7 Restrictions not applicable.

220A.8 Statistical information.

220A.9 Statutory immunity.

220A.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to permit information concerning persons believed to be mentally handicapped to be efficiently used by and exchanged among the state and local governments, their departments and agencies, and with other public or private agencies, where the use or exchange of the information is for the purpose of assisting any of the agencies in providing care, evaluation, services, assistance, education, or habilitation to such persons.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.1]

220A.2 Definitions.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Service" means the interagency case information service.

2. "Public agency" means any agency, department, board, commission, or division of the state of Iowa or the United States, any political subdivision or school board in the state of Iowa, any state of the United States, and the District of Columbia.

3. "Private agency" means any individual and any nonprofit or business organization authorized under the laws of Iowa.

4. "Department" means the department of human services.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.2]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

220A.3 Administrative agency.

The department of human services is hereby designated as the administrative agency to provide for a central data control and exchange agency known as the interagency case information service.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.3]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

220A.4 Agencies involved.

The service shall receive from and make available to the following state agencies case information on persons believed to be mentally handicapped: The state department of health, the state department of public instruction, the state board of regents, and the state department of human services.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.4]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

Referred to in §220A 6

220A.5 Duties of department.

The department shall:

1. Administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

2. Be the official agency to join or co-operate with the government of the United States or any state of the United States and the District of Columbia through their appropriate agencies or departments in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

3. Apply for and receive funds, appropriations, moneys, grants, gifts, or services of any kind from the United States or any agency thereof, as well as this state and any person or private agency for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter and the services hereunder.

4. Make such reports and budget estimates to the governor and to the general assembly as are necessary to obtain the appropriation of state funds for the service.

5. Co-operate with the other state departments and public and private agencies as authorized by this chapter in obtaining, exchanging, and disseminating case information.

6. Employ personnel for the administration of the service and contract with other public or private agencies to carry out the services.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.5]

220A.6 Information to others.

The state agencies designated in section 220A.4 may receive from and disseminate to other public agencies or private agencies such information as is necessary or proper for the purpose of providing evaluation services, treatment services, education, support or habilitation services to the mentally handicapped person. The enumerated state agencies or their designated staff shall be authorized to make determination of the proper receipt or dissemination of information to other public or private agencies.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.6]

220A.7 Restrictions not applicable.

Any law or departmental rule of the state of Iowa which restricts or declares confidential information concerning persons believed to be mentally handicapped shall not apply to information exchanged through the service for the purposes of this chapter. Information supplied under a restriction by the government of the United States, its departments or agencies, or by other state government, its departments and agencies, shall be processed in compliance with such restrictions. Any case information restricted by any order of court shall be processed in compliance with the order.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.7]

220A.8 Statistical information.

For purposes of research, study, and public information, public or private agencies may receive from the service comprehensive statistical information which may be disseminated to the public. Such information shall not use names of individual persons nor be so specific as to make possible the identification of individual persons.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §220A.8]

220A.9 Statutory immunity.

Any person or any public or private agency or employee thereof who participates in good faith in the collection, exchange, or dissemination of case information for the purposes of this chapter shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, which might be otherwise imposed.

222.1 Purpose of state schools.

The Glenwood state hospital-school and the Woodward state hospital-school shall be maintained for the purpose of providing treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support of mentally retarded persons in this state.

A special mental retardation unit may be maintained at one of the state mental health institutes for the purposes set forth in sections 222.88 to 222.91.

[S13, §2727-a93, -a95; SS15, §2727-a93, -a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3465, 3468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.1, 223.4; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.1]

222.2 Definitions.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Hospital-schools" means the Glenwood state hospital-school and the Woodward state hospital-school.

2. "Special unit" means a special mental retardation unit established at a state mental health institute pursuant to sections 222.88 to 222.91.

3. "Director" or "state director" means the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services.

4. "Superintendents" means the superintendents of the state hospital-schools.

5. "Mental retardation" or "mentally retarded" means a term or terms to describe children and adults who as a result of inadequately developed intelligence are significantly impaired in ability to learn or to adapt to the demands of society.

[C97, §2699; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3411; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.1; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.2; 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 30]

See 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 82 Acts, ch 1117, §2

222.3 Superintendents.

The state director shall appoint a qualified superintendent for each of the hospital-schools who shall receive such salary as the state director shall determine.

[SS15, §2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.2; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.3]

222.4 Duties.

The superintendents shall:

1. Perform all duties required by law and by the state director not inconsistent with law.

2. Oversee and insure individual treatment and professional care of each patient in the hospital-schools.

3. Maintain a full and complete record of the condition of each patient in the hospital-schools.

4. Have custody, control, and management of all patients in such manner as deemed best subject to the regulations of the state director.

[SS15, §2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.4]
Referred to in §222.90

222.5 Preadmission diagnostic evaluation.

No person shall be eligible for admission to a hospital-school or a special unit until a preadmission diagnostic evaluation has been made by a hospital-school or a special unit which confirms or establishes the need for admission.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3444; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.34; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.5]

222.6 State districts.

The state director shall divide the state into two districts in such manner that one of the hospital-schools shall be located within each of the districts. Such districts may from time to time be changed. After such districts have been established, the director shall notify all boards of supervisors, county auditors, and clerks of the district courts of the action. Thereafter, unless the state director otherwise orders, all admissions or commitments of mentally retarded persons from a district shall be to the hospital-school located within such district.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3476; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.10; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.6]

222.7 Transfers.

The state director may transfer patients from one state hospital-school to the other and may at any time transfer patients from the hospital-schools to the hospitals for the mentally ill, or transfer patients in the hospital-schools to a special unit or vice versa. The state director may also transfer patients from a hospital for the mentally ill to a hospital-school if:

1. In the case of a patient who entered the hospital for the mentally ill voluntarily, consent is given in advance by the patient or, if the patient is a minor or is incompetent, the person responsible for the patient.

2. In the case of a patient hospitalized pursuant to sections 229.6 to 229.15, the consent of the court which hospitalized the patient is obtained in advance, rather than afterward as otherwise permitted by section 229.15, subsection 3.

[SS15, §2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3456, 3472, 3477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.46, 223.8, 223.11; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.7]

83 Acts, ch 96, §71, 159

Referred to in §226.8

222.8 Communications by patients.

Persons admitted to the hospital-schools or a special unit shall have all reasonable opportunity and facility for communication with their friends. Such persons shall be permitted to write and send letters, provided the letters contain nothing of an offensive character. Letters written by any patient to the state director or to any state or county official shall be forwarded unopened.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3445; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.35; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.8]

222.9 Unauthorized departures.

If any mentally retarded person shall depart without proper authorization from a hospital-school or a special unit, it shall be the duty of the superintendent and the superintendent's assistants and all peace officers of any county in which such patient may be found, to take and detain the patient without a warrant or order and to immediately report such detention to the superintendent who shall immediately provide for the return of such patient to the hospital-school or special unit.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3460; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.50; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.9]

222.10 Duty of peace officer.

When any mentally retarded person departs without proper authority from an institution in another state and is found in this state, any peace officer in any county in which such patient is found may take and detain the patient without warrant or order and shall report such detention to the state director. The state director shall provide for the return of the patient to the authorities in the state from which the unauthorized departure was made. Pending return, such patient may be detained temporarily at one of the institutions of this state governed by the state director or by the director of the division of child and family services of the department of human services. The provisions of this section relating to the state director shall also apply to the return of other nonresident mentally retarded persons having legal settlement outside the state of Iowa.

[C58, 62, §222.55; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.10]
83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

222.11 Expense.

All actual and necessary expenses incurred in the taking into protective custody, restraint, and transportation of such patients to the hospital-schools shall be paid on itemized vouchers, sworn to by the claimants, and approved by the superintendent and the state director from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3461; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.51; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.11]

222.12 Deaths investigated.

In the event of a sudden or mysterious death of a patient of a hospital-school or the special unit or any private institution for the mentally retarded, an investigation shall be held by the county medical examiner. The superintendent of a hospital-school or a special unit or chief administrative officer of any private institution may request an investigation of the death of any patient by the county medical examiner. Notice of the death of the patient, and the cause thereof, shall be sent to the county board of supervisors and to the judge of the court having had jurisdiction over a committed patient. The fact of death with the time, place, and alleged cause shall be entered upon the docket of the court. The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the admission of a patient to such institutions may request an investigation by the county medical examiner in the event of the death of the patient. The person or persons making the request shall be liable for the expense of such investigation and payment therefor may be required in advance.

The expense of a county medical examiner's investigation when requested by the superintendent of a state hospital-school or a special unit shall be paid from support funds of that institution.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3447; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.37; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.12]

222.13 Voluntary admissions.

The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for any person believed to be mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter may on behalf of such person request the county board of supervisors or their designated agent to apply to the superintendent of any state hospital-school for the voluntary admission of such person either as an inpatient or an outpatient of the hospital-school. After determining the legal settlement of such person as provided by this chapter, the board of supervisors shall, on forms prescribed by the state director, apply to the superintendent of the hospital-school in the district for the admission of such person to the hospital-school. An application for admission to a special unit of any person believed to be in need of any of the services provided by the special unit under section 222.88 may be made in the same manner, upon request of the parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the handicapped person. The superintendent shall accept the application providing a preadmission diagnostic evaluation confirms or establishes the need for admission, except that no application may be accepted if the institution does not have adequate facilities available or if the acceptance will result in an overcrowded condition.

If the hospital-school has no appropriate program for the treatment of such persons, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the placement of the persons in any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of human services, which offers appropriate services for such persons.

Upon applying for admission of a person to a hospital-school, or a special unit, the board of supervisors shall make a full investigation into the financial circumstances of that person and those liable for that person's support under section 222.78, to determine whether or not any of them are able to pay the expenses arising out of the admission of the person to a hospital-school or special treatment unit. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are presently unable to pay such expenses, they shall direct that the expenses be paid by the county. The board may review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally responsible for that person are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges so incurred during the period beginning on the date of the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the board again changes its finding. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are able to pay the expenses, they shall direct that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78, and the county auditor shall be responsible for the collection thereof.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3464, 3477.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.54, 223.13; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.13]

Referred to in §222 14, 222 31, 331 381, 331 502

222.14 Care by county pending admission.

If the institution is unable to receive a patient, the superintendent shall notify the county board of supervisors of the county from which the application in behalf of the prospective patient was made of the time when such person may be received. Until such time as the patient is able to be received by the institution, or when application has been made for admission to a public or private facility as provided in section 222.13 and the application is pending, the care of said person shall be provided as arranged by the county board of supervisors.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3433; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.23; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.14]

Referred to in §331 381

222.15 Discharge of voluntary patients.

The parent, guardian, or any other person responsible for the voluntary admission of any person to a hospital-school or a special unit may, upon ten days' notice, obtain the discharge of such person by giving to the superintendent of the institution and the county board of supervisors of the county from which such person was admitted written notice of the desire for such discharge.

[SS15, §2727-a96; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.15]

Referred to in §222 59

222.16 Petition for adjudication of retardation.

A petition for the adjudication of the mental retardation of a person within the meaning of this chapter may, with the permission of the court be filed without fee against such person with the clerk of the district court of the county or city in which such alleged mentally retarded person resides or is found. The petition may be filed by any relative of such person, by a guardian, or by any reputable citizen of the county of such residence or of such place of finding.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3413; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.16]

222.17 Allegations verified.

The petition shall be verified by affidavit, may be filed on information or belief, and shall:

1. Allege that such person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter.
2. Allege that the filing of the petition is conducive to the welfare of such person and of the community.
3. List the name and residence of all known persons supervising, caring for, or supporting such person, or assuming, or under obligation to do so.
4. List the name and residence, if known, of the parents of such person and of all other persons legally chargeable with the supervision, care, or support of such person.
5. List the names of all obtainable witnesses known to the petitioner by which the allegations of the petition may be established.
6. State whether such person has been examined by a qualified physician with a view of determining the person's mental condition.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3414, 3415; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.4, 222.5; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.17]

222.18 County attorney to appear.

The county attorney shall, if requested, appear on behalf of any petitioner for the commitment of a person alleged to be mentally retarded under this chapter, and on behalf of all public officials and superintendents in all matters pertaining to the duties imposed upon them by this chapter.

Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall enter an order directing the county attorney of the county in which the allegedly mentally retarded person resides to make a full investigation regarding the financial condition of that person and of those persons legally liable for that person's support under section 222.78.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3412; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.2; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.18]

222.19 Party respondents.

The following persons, in addition to the person alleged to be mentally retarded, shall be made party respondents if the persons reside in this state and their names and residences are known:

1. The parent or parents of said principal person.
2. The person with whom said principal person is living.
3. The person or persons assuming to give the principal respondent care and attention.
4. The guardian, if there be such, of the person or property of the principal respondent.

222.20 Notice served.

Notice of the pendency of said petition and of the time and place of hearing thereon shall be served upon all respondents who are residents of the county in which the petition is filed, in the manner in which the original notices are served. The court shall by written order direct the manner and time of service on all other parties. No notice need be served on those who are personally before the court.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3417; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.7; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.20]

Manner of service, R C P 49-64

222.21 Order requiring attendance.

If the person alleged to be mentally retarded is not before the court, the court may issue an order requiring the person, who has the care, custody, and control of the allegedly mentally retarded person to bring said alleged mentally retarded person into court at the time and place stated in said order.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3417; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.7; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.21]

222.22 Time of appearance.

The time of appearance shall not be less than five days after completed service unless the court orders otherwise. Appearance on behalf of such alleged mentally retarded person may be made by any citizen of the county or by any relative. The district court shall assign counsel for the allegedly mentally retarded person. Counsel shall prior to proceedings personally consult with such person unless the judge appointing such counsel certifies that in the judge's opinion, such consultation shall serve no useful purpose. Such certification shall be made a part of the record. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3418; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.8; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.22]

Referred to in §815 9

222.23 Persons to be present.

At any hearing for commitment under this chapter, the person whose commitment is sought, the person's appointed counsel, the person's own attorney, if any, and any physician or psychologist whose testimony is to be made a part of the record shall be present unless the presiding judge shall determine that the presence will not be in the best interest of the person whose commitment is sought. Such determination shall be made a part of the record.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.23]

222.24 When held.

The hearing may be heard in term time or in vacation. The petition shall be taken as confessed by all respondents, except the principal person, who are duly served and who do not appear at the time required by the notice.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3419; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.24]

222.25 Custody pending hearing.

Pending final hearing, the court may at any time after the filing of the petition and on satisfactory showing that it is in the best interest of the alleged mentally retarded person and of the community that such person be at once taken into custody, or that service of notice will be ineffectual if the person is not taken into custody, issue an order for the immediate production of such person before the court. In such case, the court may make any proper order for the custody or confinement of such person as will protect the person and the community and insure the presence of such person at the hearing. Such person shall not be confined with those accused or convicted of crime.

222.27 Hearing in public.

Hearings shall be public, unless otherwise requested by the parent, guardian, or other person having the custody of the mentally retarded person, or if the judge considers, a closed hearing in the best interests of the mentally retarded person.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3423; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.13; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.27]

222.28 Commission to examine.

The court may, at or prior to the final hearing, appoint a commission of one qualified physician and one qualified psychologist who shall make a personal examination of the person alleged to be mentally retarded for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3424; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.14; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.28]

Referred to in §222.31

222.29 Report.

Said commission shall report in writing to the court the facts attending the mental condition of said person, its conclusion based thereon, and its recommendations concerning such person. The commission shall also report to the court sworn answers to such questions as may be required by the court. Such reports shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3425; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.15; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.29]

222.30 Ruling on report.

No objections or exceptions need be made to said report. The court may set the report aside, and may order a new examination by the same or by a new commission, or may make such findings of fact in lieu of said report as may be justified by the evidence before the court.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3426; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.16; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.30]

222.31 Commitment.

If in the opinion of the court, or of a commission as authorized in section 222.28, the person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter and the court determines that it will be conducive to the welfare of that person and of the community to commit the person to a proper institution for treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support, the court shall by proper order:

1. Commit the person to any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of human services. If the person has not been examined by a commission as appointed in section 222.28, the court shall, prior to issuing an order of commitment, appoint such a commission to examine the person for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the commission shall recommend that such order be issued and the private institution to which the person is to be committed shall advise the court that it is willing to receive the person.

2. Commit the person to the state hospital-school designated by the director to serve the county in which the hearing is being held, or to a special unit. The court shall prior to issuing an order of commitment request that a diagnostic evaluation of the person be made by the superintendent of the hospital-school or the special unit, or the superintendent's qualified designee. The evaluation shall be conducted at a place as the superintendent may direct. The cost of the evaluation shall be defrayed by the county of legal settlement unless otherwise ordered by the court. The cost may be equal to but shall not exceed the actual cost of the evaluation. Persons referred by a court to a hospital-school or the special unit for diagnostic evaluation shall be considered as outpatients of the institution. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the superintendent of the institution recommends that the order be issued, and advises the court that adequate facilities for the care of the person are available.

3. The court shall examine the report of the county attorney filed pursuant to section 222.13, and if the report shows that neither the person nor those liable for the person's support under section 222.78 are presently able to pay the charges rising out of the person's care in the hospital-school, or special treatment unit, shall enter an order stating that finding and directing that the charges be paid by the person's county of residence. The court may, upon request of the board of supervisors, review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the court finds upon review that the person or those legally responsible for the person's are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges incurred during the period beginning on the date of the board's request for the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the court again changes its finding. When the court finds that the person, or those liable for the person's support, are able to pay the charges, the court shall enter an order directing that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78.

222.43 Grounds.

Discharges and modifications of orders may be made on any of the following grounds:

1. That the person adjudged to be mentally retarded is not mentally retarded.

2. That the person adjudged to be mentally retarded has improved as to be capable of self care.

3. That the relatives or friends of the mentally retarded person are able and willing to support and care for the mentally retarded person and request the person's discharge, and in the judgment of the superintendent of the institution or hospital-school having charge of the person, no harmful consequences are likely to follow such discharge.

4. That, for any other cause, said discharge should be made or such modification should be entered.

Petitions for discharge or modification of an order of commitment to a special unit may be made upon any of the foregoing grounds, when applicable.

Referred to in §602 8102(37)

222.58 Director to keep record.

The state director shall keep a record of all persons adjudged to be mentally retarded and of the orders respecting such persons by the courts throughout the state. Copies of such orders shall be furnished by the clerk of the court without the state director's application therefor.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3463; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222.53; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.58]

222.59 Superintendent may return patient.

1. The superintendent of a hospital-school or a special unit may, on application of the parent or guardian, return a patient to the parent or guardian. The superintendent in co-operation with other social agencies under the supervision of the Iowa department of human services may arrange for the patient to be placed at an appropriate health care facility licensed under chapter 135C or at some other appropriate facility, which may include a foster home or group home, either under an arrangement which involves full-time responsibility for the patient by such facility, or as part of an arrangement under which the patient is to participate in one or more educational, developmental or employment programs conducted by other responsible persons, agencies or facilities. Such return or placement may be made at any time, even though the patient was committed by a court, upon recommendation of the professional staff of the hospital-school or special unit that the patient is unlikely to benefit from further treatment, training, instruction, or care at the institution or is likely to improve the patient's life status in an alternate facility.

2. In planning for the placement of a patient outside the hospital-school or special unit, it shall be the superintendent's responsibility to arrange for representation of the patient's interest by the patient's parent or legal guardian. If the patient has no living parent and no legal guardian other than the department or one of its officers or employees, the superintendent shall request some person who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and habilitation of the mentally retarded, and who is not an officer or employee of the department nor of any agency or facility which is a party to the arrangement for placement of the patient, to act as the patient's advocate. The superintendent may request some such person to serve as advocate for a patient who has no legal guardian if either or both of the patient's parents are living but are deemed unlikely to or have shown themselves unable to represent the patient's interest effectively due to physical or mental infirmity, residence outside the state at such a distance as to make their effective participation unfeasible, or lack of interest demonstrated by refusal to participate in planning for the patient's placement or by failure to respond within thirty days to a letter sent by restricted certified mail to the last known address of the parent or parents.

3. Each proposed placement shall be reported to the state director, who may approve, modify, alter, or rescind the action if deemed necessary. In so doing, the superintendent of the hospital-school or special unit involved shall certify in writing to the state director that there has been compliance with subsection 2 and that the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is or is not satisfied with the proposed placement, as the case may be. In the latter case, the state director shall afford the parent, guardian or advocate an opportunity to explain objections to the proposed placement and, if the state director decides to approve the proposed placement despite such objection, shall advise the parent, guardian or advocate of the right to appeal the decision pursuant to subsection 4.

4. If a proposed placement of a patient from a hospital-school or special unit which is not satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is approved by the state director; or a proposed placement which is satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is modified, altered or rescinded by the state director, the parent, guardian or advocate may appeal to the department of human services, within thirty days after notification to the parent, guardian or advocate of the proposed placement. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing, conducted by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee who shall act as an impartial arbiter of fact and law. In such hearing the parent, guardian or advocate shall have the opportunity to confront witnesses, to have access to hospital records, to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to be represented by counsel. The standard for such fair hearing shall be to provide "that placement which inures to the best interest of the patient." Judicial review of actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed by the petitioner in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision. In the district court hearings, the parent, guardian or advocate has the right to be represented by counsel. The court shall, in all cases where the interests of the patient conflict with that of parent, guardian or advocate, appoint counsel as guardian ad litem for the patient. Notwithstanding the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, where a petition is filed for judicial review of a proposed placement, the proposed placement shall be stayed pending the outcome of said review proceeding.

5. Placement of a patient outside of a hospital-school or special unit under this section shall not relieve the Iowa department of human services of continuing responsibility for the welfare of the patient, except in cases of discharge under section 222.15 or 222.43. Unless such a discharge has occurred, the department shall provide for review of each placement arrangement made under this section at least once each year, or not more often than once each six months upon the written request of the patient's parent, guardian or advocate, with a view to ascertaining whether such arrangements continue to satisfactorily meet the patient's current needs.

6. The proposed return or placement of a patient outside a hospital-school or special unit shall be reported to the board of supervisors of the patient's county of legal settlement. The county board may not change a placement or program arranged and approved under this section if state funds are being made available to the county which the county may by law use to pay a portion of the cost of care of the patient so placed, however the board may at any time propose an alternative placement or program to the state director. No such alternative placement or program shall be carried out without the prior written approval of the state director, which shall be granted only after evaluation in the same manner as provided by this section for initial placements from a hospital-school or special unit.

7. When a patient committed by a court is to be returned to the parent or guardian, or placed out from a hospital-school or a special unit as otherwise provided in this section, notice shall be sent to the clerk of the court which committed the patient, and to the board of supervisors of both the patient's county of legal settlement and the county to which the patient is to be released, thirty days prior to the time the patient leaves the hospital-school or special unit.

222.61 Legal settlement determined.

When the board of supervisors of any county receives an application on behalf of any person for admission to a hospital-school or a special unit or when any court issues an order committing any person to a hospital-school or a special unit, the board of supervisors or the court shall determine and enter as a matter of record whether the legal settlement of the person is:

1. In the county in which the board of supervisors or court is located.

2. In some other county of the state.

3. In another state or in a foreign country.

4. Unknown.

222.62 Settlement in another county.

Whenever the board of supervisors or the court determines that the legal settlement of the person is other than in the county in which the board or court is located, the board or court shall, as soon as determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital-school or the special unit where the person is a patient. The superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of the patient, to the county so certified until said legal settlement shall be otherwise determined as provided by this chapter.

222.63 Finding of settlement — objection.

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the board of supervisors or the court to the county auditor of the county of legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county whereupon it shall be conclusively presumed that the patient has a legal settlement in said county unless the county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the board of supervisors or the court giving such notice, dispute said legal settlement.

222.64 Foreign state or unknown.

If the legal settlement of the person is found by the board of supervisors or the court to be in a foreign state or country or is found to be unknown, the board of supervisors or the court shall immediately notify the state director of such finding and shall furnish the state director with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement. The care of said person shall be as arranged by the board of supervisors or by such order as the court may enter. Application for admission or order of commitment may be made pending investigation by the state director.

Referred to in §331 381, 331 502

222.65 Investigation.

The state director shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of the person and proceed as follows:

1. If the state director finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court as to legal settlement of the person is correct, the state director shall cause the person either to be transferred to a hospital-school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the state or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the state director finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court is not correct, the state director shall order the person transferred to a state hospital-school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state.

Referred to in §331 381, 331 502

222.67 Charge on finding of settlement.

Where a person has been received into a hospital-school or a special unit as a patient whose legal settlement is supposedly outside the state or is unknown and the state director finds that the legal settlement of the patient was at the time of admission or commitment in a county of this state, the state director shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of the patient to the county of such legal settlement. The costs and expenses shall be collected as provided by law in other cases.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.67]

Referred to in §331.381

222.68 Costs paid in first instance.

All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital-school or a special unit when the person's legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state shall in the first instance be paid by the county from which the person was admitted or committed. The county of legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such expenses. Where any county fails to make such reimbursement within sixty days following submission of a properly itemized bill to the county of legal settlement, a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from submission of the bill may be added to the amount due.

222.70 Dispute between counties.

When a dispute arises between counties or between the state director and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a hospital-school or a special unit, the attorney general at the request of the state director shall without advancement of fees cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists. The action shall be brought to determine such legal settlement, except that such action shall in no case be filed in a county in which the district court or a judge thereof originally made the disputed finding. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that the dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the county of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity.

Referred to in §331.381

222.71 Finding by court.

The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person at the time of admission or commitment was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so finds, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all necessary and legal expenses arising from said admission or commitment and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due.

Referred to in §331.381

222.72 Finding settlement outside state.

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person, at the time of admission or commitment was outside the state or was unknown an order shall be entered that the mentally retarded person shall be maintained in the hospital-school or the special unit at the expense of the state. In such case, the state shall refund to any county all necessary and legal expenses for the cost of said admission or commitment paid by a county. A decision by the court shall be final.

222.73 Superintendent to prepare expense schedule.

The superintendent of each hospital-school and special unit shall certify to the state comptroller on a schedule approved by the comptroller any amount not previously certified by the superintendent due the state for the expenses of patients in each hospital-school and special unit from the several counties responsible under section 222.60. The comptroller shall thereupon charge the amounts so certified to the proper counties. The amount certified by the superintendent to the comptroller to be charged against each county shall be the per-patient-per-day cost of the hospital-school or special unit, as the case may be, multiplied by the number of days each patient for which such county is liable to the state was carried on the rolls of the hospital-school or special unit as an inpatient, plus the amount due for the treatment of outpatients for which such county is liable to the state during the period for which expenses are being certified. The per-patient-per-day cost shall be determined by listing the number of days each inpatient was actually in the hospital-school or special unit during the period for which expenses are being certified and dividing the total of all such days into one hundred percent of the portion of the appropriations for the hospital-school or special unit expended during such period, unless otherwise specified in the biennial appropriations for support of such institutions. The amount charged for the treatment of outpatients shall be at a rate to be established by the state director on the basis of the actual cost of such treatment.

After computing the charge to the county on behalf of each patient, the hospital-school shall reduce the charge by the amount of any money which has been received for that patient's care from any source other than state appropriated funds and has not previously been credited against charges made to the patient's county of legal settlement.

222.74 Duplicate to county.

When certifying to the comptroller amounts to be charged against each county as provided in section 222.73, the superintendent shall send to the county auditor of each county against which the superintendent has so certified any amount, a duplicate of the certificate. The county auditor upon receipt of the duplicate certificate shall enter it to the credit of the state in the ledger of state accounts, and shall immediately issue a notice to the county treasurer authorizing the treasurer to transfer the amount from the county fund to the general state revenue. The treasurer shall file the notice as authority for making the transfer and shall include the amount transferred in the next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which the amount belongs.

222.78 Parents and others liable for support.

The father and mother of any person admitted or committed to a hospital-school or to a special unit, as either an inpatient or an outpatient, and any person, firm, or corporation bound by contract hereafter made for support of such person shall be and remain liable for the support of such person. Such person and those legally bound for the support of the person shall be liable to the county for all sums advanced by the county to the state under the provisions of sections 222.60 and 222.77. The liability of any person, other than the patient, who is legally bound for the support of any patient under eighteen years of age in a hospital-school or a special unit shall in no instance exceed the average minimum cost of the care of a normally intelligent, nonhandicapped minor of the same age and sex as such minor patient. The state director shall establish the scale for this purpose but the scale shall not exceed the standards for personal allowances established by the state division under the aid to dependent children program. Provided further that the father or mother of such person shall not be liable for the support of such person after such person attains the age of eighteen years and that the father or mother shall incur liability only during any period when the father or mother either individually or jointly receive a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which they would be liable to make an income tax payment to this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost as established by the state director for caring for such mentally retarded person.

222.83 Nonresident patients.

The estates of all nonresident patients who are provided treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support in or by a hospital-school or a special unit, and all persons legally bound for the support of such persons, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of such services. The certificate of the superintendent of the hospital-school or special unit in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of such services furnished such patient by the hospital-school or special unit.

222.85 Deposit of moneys — exception to guardians.

Any funds coming into the possession of the superintendent or any employee of a hospital-school or special unit belonging to any patient in that institution shall be deposited in the name of the patient in the patients' personal deposit fund, except that if a guardian of the property has been appointed for the person, the guardian shall have the right to demand and receive such funds. Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires, and comforts for the patient.

Money paid to a hospital-school from any source other than state appropriated funds and intended to pay all or a portion of the cost of care of a patient, which cost would otherwise be paid from state or county funds or from the patient's own funds, shall not be deemed money belonging to the patient for the purposes of this section.

223.6 Final decision.
223.7 Return of patient.
223.8 Costs and charges.

223.1 Institution established.

There is established an institution for persons displaying evidence of mental illness or psychosocial disorders and requiring diagnostic services and treatment in a security setting. The institution may also be used for persons only requiring confinement in a security setting. The institution is under the jurisdiction of the Iowa department of corrections and shall be known as the Iowa medical and classification center.

83 Acts, ch 96, §72, 159; 84 Acts, ch 1184, §4

223.2 Superintendent.

A superintendent of the Iowa medical and classification center shall be appointed by the director of the Iowa department of corrections with the approval of the board of corrections. The superintendent shall be a reputable and qualified person experienced in the administration of programs for the care and treatment of persons afflicted with mental disorders and have other qualifications the director and board deem necessary.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.2; 81 Acts, ch 73, §4]
83 Acts, ch 96, §73, 159; 84 Acts, ch 1184, §5

223.3 Duties.

The superintendent shall:

1. Perform all duties required by law and by the director of the Iowa department of corrections not inconsistent with this chapter.
2. Maintain cognizance of and secure the professional care and treatment of each patient.
3. Maintain a complete record on the condition of each patient.
4. Retain custody of all patients, in the manner deemed necessary and in the best interest of the patients subject to the rules of the director of the Iowa department of corrections.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.3]

83 Acts, ch 96, §74, 159

223.4 Sources of patients.

Patients admitted to the center may originate from the following sources:

1. Residents of an institution under the jurisdiction of the department of human services or the Iowa department of corrections.
2. Commitments by the courts as mentally incompetent to stand trial under section 812.4.
3. Referrals by the courts for psychosocial diagnosis and recommendations as part of the pretrial or presentence procedure or determination of mental competency to stand trial.
4. Mentally ill prisoners from county and city jails for diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment.

Patients from other sources may be admitted providing such admission is not inconsistent with the law and is within the capacity of the facilities and staff to accommodate same.

The director of the Iowa department of corrections may house inmates from any correctional institution at the Iowa medical and classification center in order to provide the inmates with suitable security or medical treatment, or both. Unless an inmate is determined to be mentally ill, the inmate shall not be subjected involuntarily to psychiatric treatment.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.4; 81 Acts, ch 73, §5]
83 Acts, ch 96, §75, 76, 159; 84 Acts, ch 1184, §6

223.5 Admissions in writing only.

All admissions to the center shall be by written application only. Application shall be made by the head of the state institution, agency, governmental body, or court requesting admission to the superintendent of the center. An application may be denied by the superintendent, with the approval of the director of the Iowa department of corrections, if the admission will result in an overcrowded condition or if adequate staff or facilities are not available.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.5]

83 Acts, ch 96, §77, 159

223.6 Final decision.

The decision regarding admission and discharge of patients shall be made by the superintendent of the center, subject to approval of the director of the Iowa department of corrections.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.6]

83 Acts, ch 96, §78, 159

223.7 Return of patient.

When a patient transferred to the center from any other state institution or admitted by request or order of any agency, governmental body, or court no longer requires special treatment in the security setting, the patient may be returned to the source from which received. The state institution, agency, governmental body, or court that referred the patient for hospitalization shall retain constructive jurisdiction over the patient. Patients without legal encumbrances may be discharged directly from the center upon concurrence of the superintendent of the center and the head of the referring institution, agency, governmental body, or court. The support, commitment, and release statutes applicable to a patient at the state institution from which transferred shall remain applicable while the person is a patient at the center.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §223.7]

223.8 Costs and charges.

Chapter 230 governs the determination of costs and charges for the care and treatment of mentally ill patients admitted to the Iowa medical and classification center, except that charges for the care and treatment of any person transferred to the medical and classification center from an adult correctional institution or from a state training school shall be paid entirely from state funds. Charges for all other patients at the medical and classification center shall be billed to the respective counties at the same ratio as for patients at state mental health institutes under section 230.20.

225.1 Establishment.

There shall be established a state psychiatric hospital, especially designed, kept, and administered for the care, observation, and treatment of those persons who are afflicted with abnormal mental conditions.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3954; C39, §3482.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.1]

225.2 Name — location.

It shall be known as the state psychiatric hospital, and shall be located at Iowa City, and integrated with the college of medicine and hospital of the state University of Iowa.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3955; C39, §3482.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.2]

225.3 Under control state board of regents.

The state board of regents shall have full power to manage, control, and govern the said hospital the same as other institutions already under its control.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3957; C39, §3482.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.3]

225.4 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1136, §26.

225.5 Co-operation of hospitals.

The medical director of the state psychiatric hospital shall seek to bring about systematic co-operation between the several state hospitals for the mentally ill and the state psychiatric hospital.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3959; C39, §3482.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.5]

225.6 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1136, §26.

225.7 Classes of patients.

Patients admitted to the said state psychiatric hospital shall be divided into four classes:

1. Voluntary private patients.
2. Committed private patients.
3. Voluntary public patients.
4. Committed public patients.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3961; C39, §3482.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.7]

225.8 Maintenance.

All voluntary private patients and committed private patients shall be kept and maintained without expense to the state, and the voluntary public patients and committed public patients shall be kept and maintained by the state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3962; C39, §3482.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.8]

225.9 Voluntary private patients.

Voluntary private patients may be admitted in accordance with the regulations to be established by the state board of regents, and their care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance shall be without expense to the state. However, the charge for such care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance shall not exceed the cost of the same to the state. The physicians on the hospital staff may charge such patients for their medical services under such rules, regulations and plan therefor as approved by the state board of regents.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3963; C39, §3482.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.9]

225.10 Voluntary public patients.

Persons suffering from mental diseases may be admitted as voluntary public patients as follows: Any physician authorized to practice medicine, osteopathy, or osteopathic medicine in the state of Iowa may file information with any district court of the state or with any judge thereof, stating that the physician has examined the person named therein and finds that the person is suffering from some abnormal mental condition that can probably be remedied by observation, treatment, and hospital care; that the physician believes it would be appropriate for the person to enter the state psychiatric hospital for that purpose and that the person is willing to do so; and that neither the person nor those legally responsible for the person are able to provide the means for such observation and hospital care.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3964; C39, §3482.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.10]

Referred to in §225 12, 225 16, 225 20, 225 30

225.11 Initiating commitment procedures.

When a court finds upon completion of a hearing held pursuant to section 229.12 that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, and the application filed under section 229.6 also contends or the court otherwise concludes that it would be appropriate to refer the respondent to the state psychiatric hospital for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment pursuant to section 229.13, the judge may order that a financial investigation be made in the manner prescribed by section 225.13.

[C77, 79, 81, §225.11]

Referred to in §225 14

225.12 Voluntary public patient — physician's report.

A physician filing an information under section 225.10 shall include a written report to the judge, giving such a history of the case as will be likely to aid in the observation, treatment, and hospital care of the person named in the information and describing the same in detail.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3966; C39, §3482.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.12]

225.13 Financial condition.

It shall be the duty of the judge to have a thorough investigation made by the county attorney of the county of residence of the person named in the information regarding the financial condition of that person and of those legally responsible for the person.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3967; C39, §3482.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.13]

Referred to in §225.11, 331 756(45)

225.14 Finding and order.

Upon the filing of the report of a financial investigation made pursuant to an order issued under section 225.11, the judge of the district court as aforesaid shall review it and make a determination in the matter. If the judge finds that the respondent is an appropriate subject for referral to the state psychiatric hospital, and that the respondent and those legally responsible for the respondent are unable to pay the expenses thereof, the judge shall enter an order directing that the respondent shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a committed public patient.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3968; C39, §3482.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.14]

Referred to in §225.17

225.15 Examination and treatment.

When the respondent arrives at the state psychiatric hospital it shall be the duty of the admitting physician to examine the respondent and determine whether or not, in the physician's judgment, the patient is a fit subject for such observation, treatment and hospital care. If, upon examination, the physician decides that such patient should be admitted to the hospital, the patient shall be provided a proper bed in the hospital; and the physician who shall have charge of the patient shall proceed with such observation, medical treatment, and hospital care as in the physician's judgment are proper and necessary, in compliance with sections 229.13 to 229.16.

A proper and competent nurse shall also be assigned to look after and care for such patient during such observation, treatment, and care as aforesaid.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3969; C39, §3482.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.15]

Referred to in § 225.16, 225.17

225.16 Voluntary public patients — admission.

If the judge of the district court, or the clerk of the court, as aforesaid, finds from the physician's information which was filed under the provisions of section 225.10, that it would be appropriate for the person to enter the state psychiatric hospital, and the report of the county attorney shows that neither the person nor those legally responsible for the person, are able to pay the expenses thereof, or able to pay only a part of the expenses, the judge or clerk shall enter an order directing that the said person shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a voluntary public patient.

When the said patient arrives at the hospital, the patient shall receive the same treatment as is provided for committed public patients in section 225.15.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3970; C39, §3482.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.16]

Referred to in §602 8102(38)

225.17 Committed private patient — treatment.

If the judge of the district court, finds upon the review and determination made under the provisions of section 225.14 that the respondent is an appropriate subject for placement at the state psychiatric hospital, and that the respondent, or those legally responsible for the respondent, are able to pay the expenses thereof, the judge shall enter an order directing that the respondent shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a committed private patient.

When the respondent arrives at the said hospital, the respondent shall receive the same treatment as is provided for committed public patients in section 225.15, in compliance with sections 229.13 to 229.16.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3971; C39, §3482.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.17]

225.18 Attendants.

The court or clerk may, in the court's or clerk's discretion, appoint some person to accompany the committed public patient or the voluntary public patient or the committed private patient from the place where the patient may be to the state psychiatric hospital of the state University at Iowa City, or to accompany such patient from the said hospital to such place as may be designated by the court or clerk. If the patient be a female, the person appointed to accompany her must be a woman.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3974; C39, §3482.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.18]

225.19 Compensation for attendant.

Any person appointed by the court or judge or clerk to accompany said person to or from the hospital or to make an investigation and report on any question involved in the complaint, other than the physician making the examination, shall receive the sum of three dollars per day for the time actually spent in making such investigation (except in cases where the person appointed therefor receives a fixed salary or compensation) and actual necessary expenses incurred in making such investigation or trip.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3975; C39, §3482.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.19]

225.20 Compensation for physician.

The physician making the examination on which is based any information filed under section 225.10 shall receive such sum as the court may direct for each and every examination information so made, and the actual necessary expenses incurred by the physician in making such examination, in conformity with the requirements of this chapter, if the person named in the information is referred to the state psychiatric hospital.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3976; C39, §3482.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.20]

225.21 Vouchers.

The person making claim to compensation shall present to the court or judge an itemized sworn statement of the claim, and when the claim for compensation has been approved by the court or judge or clerk, it shall be filed in the office of the county auditor and shall be allowed by the board of supervisors.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3977; C39, §3482.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.21; 82 Acts, ch 1104, §6]

83 Acts, ch 123, §84, 209

Referred to in §225.24

225.22 Liability of private patients — payment.

Every committed private patient, if the patient has an estate sufficient for that purpose, or if those legally responsible for the patient's support are financially able, shall be liable to the county and state for all expenses paid by them in behalf of such patient. All bills for the care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance of such patients shall be paid by the state comptroller in the same manner as those of committed and voluntary public patients as provided in this chapter, unless the patient or those legally responsible for the patient make such settlement with the state psychiatric hospital.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3978; C39, §3482.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.22]

225.23 Collection for treatment.

If the bills for such patient are paid by the state, it shall be the duty of the state psychiatric hospital to file a certified copy of the claim which has been so paid, with the auditor of the proper county, who shall proceed to collect the same by action, if necessary, in the name of the state psychiatric hospital, and when collected pay the same to the state comptroller. The hospital shall also, at the same time, forward a duplicate of the account to the state comptroller.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3979; C39, §3482.23; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.23]

Referred to in §225.35, 331.502

225.24 Collection of preliminary expense.

Unless said committed private patient or those legally responsible for the patient offer to make such settlement, it shall also be the duty of the county auditor of the proper county as aforesaid to proceed to collect, by action if necessary, in the name of the said county, the amount of all claims for per diem and expenses that have been approved by the said court or judge and paid by the county treasurer of said county as provided for under the provisions of section 225.21, and when collected to pay the same into the county treasury.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3980; C39, §3482.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.24]

Referred to in §225.35, 331.502

225.25 Commitment of private patient as public.

If any patient be admitted to the state psychiatric hospital and thereafter an order of commitment of the patient as a public patient be made by the court or judge or clerk having jurisdiction thereof, the expense of keeping and maintaining the patient from the date of the filing of the information upon which the order is made shall be paid by the state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3981; C39, §3482.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.25]

225.26 Private patients — disposition of funds.

All moneys collected from private patients shall be used for the support of the said hospital.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3982; C39, §3482.26; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.26]

225.27 Discharge — transfer.

The state psychiatric hospital may, at any time, discharge any patient as recovered, as improved, or as not likely to be benefited by further treatment. If the patient being so discharged was involuntarily hospitalized, the hospital shall notify the committing judge or court thereof as required by section 229.14, subsection 3 or section 229.16, whichever is applicable. The court or judge shall, if necessary, appoint some person to accompany the discharged patient from the state psychiatric hospital to such place as the hospital or the court may designate, or authorize the hospital to appoint such attendant.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3983; C39, §3482.27; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.27]

225.28 Appropriation.

The state shall pay to the state psychiatric hospital, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, all expenses for the administration of the hospital, and for the care, treatment, and maintenance of committed and voluntary public patients therein, including their clothing and all other expenses of the hospital for the public patients. The bills for the expenses shall be rendered monthly in accordance with rules agreed upon by the state comptroller and the state board of regents.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3984; C39, §3482.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.28]

225.29 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1136, §26.225.30 Blanks — audit.

The medical faculty of the hospital of the college of medicine of the state University of Iowa shall prepare blanks containing such questions and requiring such information as may be necessary and proper to be obtained by the physician who examines a person or respondent whose referral to the state psychiatric hospital is contemplated. A judge may request that a physician who examines a respondent as required by section 229.10 complete such blanks in duplicate in the course of the examination. A physician who proposes to file an information under section 225.10 shall obtain and complete such blanks in duplicate and file them with the information. The blanks shall be printed by the state and a supply thereof shall be sent to the clerk of each district court of the state. The state comptroller shall audit, allow, and pay the cost of the blanks as other bills for public printing are allowed and paid.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3986, 3987; C39, §3482.30, 3482.31; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §225.30; C75, §225.30, 225.31; C77, 79, 81, §225.30]

225.31 Repealed by 66GA, ch 139, §82.225.32 Report and order to accompany patient.

One of the duplicate reports shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital with the patient, together with a certified copy of the order of the court.

225C.1 Findings and purpose.

The general assembly finds that community-based care, provided in many parts of the state by highly autonomous community mental health and mental retardation service providers working cooperatively with state mental health and mental retardation facilities, is meeting most mental health and mental retardation service needs of those Iowans to whom this care is available. However, the general assembly recognizes that heavy reliance on property tax funding for mental health and mental retardation services has restricted uniform availability of this care. Consequently, greater efforts should be made to assure close coordination and continuity of care for those persons receiving publicly supported mental health and mental retardation services in Iowa. It is the purpose of this chapter to continue and to strengthen the mental health and mental retardation services now available in the state of Iowa, to make these services conveniently available to all persons in this state upon a reasonably uniform financial basis, and to assure the continued high quality of these services.

225C.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Commission" means the mental health and mental retardation commission.
2. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.
3. "Department" means the department of human services.
4. "Division" means the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services.
5. "Director" means the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services.
6. "Comprehensive services" means the mental health services delineated in the annual state mental health plan, and the mental retardation services delineated in the annual state mental retardation plan.

225C.3 Division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities — state mental health authority.

1. The division is designated the state mental health authority as defined in 42 U.S.C. sec. 201(m) (1976) for the purpose of directing the benefits of the National Mental Health Act, 42 U.S.C. sec. 201 et seq. This designation does not preclude the board of regents from authorizing or directing any institution under its jurisdiction to carry out educational, prevention and research activities in the areas of mental health and mental retardation. The division may contract with the board of regents or any institution under the board's jurisdiction to perform any of these functions.

2. The division is designated the state developmental disabilities agency for the purpose of directing the benefits of the Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act, 42 U.S.C. sec. 6001 et seq.

3. The division is administered by the director. The director of the division shall be qualified in the general field of mental health or mental retardation services, and preferably in both fields. The director shall have at least five years of experience as an administrator in one or both of these fields.

3. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §218.75; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §217.10; S81, §225C.2; 81 Acts, ch 78, §3, 20]

Referred to in §217.10

225C.4 Director's duties.

1. The director shall:

a. Prepare and administer state mental health and mental retardation plans for the provision of comprehensive services within the state and prepare and administer the state developmental disabilities plan. The director shall consult with the state department of health, the board of regents or a body designated by the board for that purpose, the office for planning and programming or a body designated by the director of the office for that purpose, the department of public instruction, the department of substance abuse, the department of job service and any other appropriate governmental body, in order to facilitate co-ordination of services provided to mentally ill, mentally retarded, and developmentally disabled persons in this state. The state mental health and mental retardation plans shall be consistent with the state health plan, shall be prepared in consultation with the state health co-ordinating council, and shall incorporate county mental health and mental retardation plans.

b. Assist county co-ordinating boards in developing a program for community mental health and mental retardation services within the state based on the need for comprehensive services, and the services offered by existing public and private facilities, with the goal of providing comprehensive services to all persons in this state who need them.

c. Emphasize the provision of outpatient services by community mental health centers and local mental retardation providers as a preferable alternative to inpatient hospital services.

d. Encourage and facilitate co-ordination of services with the objective of developing and maintaining in the state a mental health and mental retardation service delivery system to provide comprehensive services to all persons in this state who need them, regardless of the place of residence or economic circumstances of those persons.

e. Encourage and facilitate applied research and preventive educational activities related to causes and appropriate treatment for mental illness and mental retardation. The director may designate, or enter into agreements with, private or public agencies to carry out this function.

f. Promote co-ordination of community-based services with those of the state mental health institutes and hospital-schools.

g. Administer state programs regarding the care, treatment, and supervision of mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, except the programs administered by the state board of regents.

h. Administer and control the operation of the state institutions established by chapters 222 and 226, and any other state institutions or facilities providing care, treatment, and supervision to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, except the institutions and facilities of the state board of regents

i Administer the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund established by section 225C 7

j Act as compact administrator with power to effectuate the purposes of interstate compacts on mental health

k Establish and maintain a data collection and management information system oriented to the needs of patients, providers, the department, and other programs or facilities

l Prepare a division budget and reports of the division's activities

m Advise the merit employment commission on recommended qualifications of all division employees

n Establish suitable agreements with other state agencies to encourage appropriate care and to facilitate the co-ordination of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services

o Provide consultation and technical assistance to patients' advocates appointed pursuant to section 229 19, in co-operation with the judicial system and the care review committees appointed for county care facilities pursuant to section 135C 25

p Provide consultation and technical assistance to patients' advocates appointed pursuant to section 222 59

q Provide technical assistance to agencies and organizations, to aid them in meeting standards which are established, or with which compliance is required, under statutes administered by the director, including but not limited to chapters 227 and 230A

r Recommend and enforce minimum accreditation standards for the maintenance and operation of community mental health centers under section 230A 16

s In co-operation with the state department of health, recommend and enforce minimum standards under section 227 4 for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities

t In co-operation with the state department of health, recommend minimum standards for the maintenance and operation of public or private facilities offering services to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, which are not subject to licensure by the department or the state department of health

2 The director may a Apply for, receive, and administer federal aids, grants, and gifts for purposes relating to mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services or programs

b Establish mental health and mental retardation services for all institutions under the control of the commissioner of human services and establish an autism unit, following mutual planning with and consultation from the medical director of the state psychiatric hospital, at an institution or a facility administered by the director to provide psychiatric and related services and other specific programs to meet the needs of autistic persons as defined in section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraph "b", subparagraph (2), and to furnish appropriate diagnostic evaluation services

c Establish and supervise suitable standards of care, treatment, and supervision for mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in all institutions under the control of the commissioner of human services

d Appoint professional consultants to furnish advice on any matters pertaining to mental health and mental retardation The consultants shall be paid as provided by an appropriation of the general assembly [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §218 76, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §217 11, 217 12, S81, §225C 3, 81 Acts, ch 78, §4, 20] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

225C.6 Duties of commission.

1 The commission shall a Advise the director on administration of the overall state plans for comprehensive services

b. Adopt necessary rules pursuant to chapter 17A which relate to mental health and mental retardation programs and services.

c. Adopt standards for accreditation of community mental health centers and comprehensive community mental health programs recommended under section 230A.16.

d. Adopt standards for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities recommended under section 227.4.

e. Adopt standards for the delivery of mental health and mental retardation services by the division, and for the maintenance and operation of public or private facilities offering services to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, which are not subject to licensure by the department or the state department of health, and review the standards employed by the department or the state department of health for licensing facilities which provide services to the mentally ill or mentally retarded persons.

f. Assure that proper appeal procedures are available to persons aggrieved by decisions, actions, or circumstances relating to accreditation.

g. Award grants from the special allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund pursuant to section 225C.11, as well as other moneys that become available to the division for grant purposes.

h. Review and rank applications for federal mental health grants prior to submission to the appropriate federal agency.

i. Annually submit to the governor and the general assembly:

(1) A report concerning the activities of the commission.

(2) Recommendations formulated by the commission for changes in law and for changes in the rules adopted by the auditor of state under section 225C.10.

j. Beginning not later than January 1, 1985, and continuing once every two years thereafter, submit to the governor and the general assembly an evaluation of:

(1) The extent to which mental health and mental retardation services stipulated in the state plans are actually available to persons in each county in the state.

(2) The cost effectiveness of the services being provided by each of the state mental health institutes established under chapter 226 and state hospital-schools established under chapter 222.

(3) The cost effectiveness of programs carried out by randomly selected providers receiving money from the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund established under section 225C.7.

k. Advise the director, the council on human services, the governor, and the general assembly on budgets and appropriations concerning mental health and mental retardation services.

l. Meet with the state developmental disabilities planning council at least twice a year for the purpose of co-ordinating mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities planning and funding.

2. Notwithstanding section 217.3, subsection 6, the commission may adopt the rules authorized by subsection 1, pursuant to chapter 17A, without prior review and approval of those rules by the council on human services.

225C.7 State community mental health and mental retardation services fund established.

1. A state community mental health and mental retardation services fund is established in the office of the treasurer of state, which shall consist of the amounts appropriated to the fund by the general assembly for each fiscal year. Before completion of the department's budget estimate as required by section 8.23, the department shall determine and include in the estimate the amount which should be appropriated to the fund for the forthcoming fiscal period in order to implement the purpose stated in section 225C.1.

2. The state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for each fiscal year shall be divided into two parts, the general allocation and the special allocation. The general allocation is equal to eighty percent and the special allocation is equal to twenty percent of the total appropriation.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.17; S81, §225C.6; 81 Acts, ch 78, §7, 20]

Referred to in §225C 4, 225C 6, 225C 14

225C.8 Distribution of general allocation.

A county is entitled to receive annually from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund a share computed by a formula prescribed pursuant to section 225C.9, subject to the requirements of section 225C.10. As soon after July 1 of each year as reasonably possible, the director shall certify to the state comptroller the amount to which a county is entitled from the general allocation and the comptroller shall issue warrants in the amounts certified, drawn upon the general allocation in favor of the respective counties. A county shall place the money so received in the county mental health and institutions fund, and shall expend it in the same fiscal year in which it is received and only for the purposes authorized by section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g".

If a county has not established or is not affiliated with a community mental health center under chapter 230A, the county shall expend a portion of the money received from the general allocation to contract with a community mental health center to provide mental health services to the county's residents. If such a contractual relationship is unworkable or undesirable, the commission may waive the expenditure requirement. However, if the commission waives the requirement, the commission shall address the specific concerns of the county and shall attempt to facilitate the provision of mental health services to the county's residents through an affiliation agreement or other means.

[S81, §225C.7; 81 Acts, ch 78, §8, 20]

225C.9 Formula for distribution of general allocation.

1. The general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be distributed to ensure that each county participates in the distribution of the funds, to recognize past efforts made by individual counties to support state institutional and community-based services for mentally ill and mentally retarded persons, and to recognize both individual counties as entities and the distribution of the state population across counties.

2. In distributing the general allocation, each county shall receive an amount equal to the sum of the following two factors:

a. Fifty percent of the general allocation divided by a factor of ninety-nine.

b. Fifty percent of the general allocation multiplied by a factor equal to that county's proportionate share of the total state population.

[S81, §225C.8; 81 Acts, ch 78, §9, 20]

Referred to in §225C.8, 225C.10

225C.10 Requirements of counties receiving general allocation money.

1. A county is entitled to receive money from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund in any fiscal year in an amount determined by section 225C.9, if that county:

a. Raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services, in the preceding fiscal year, an amount of money at least equal to the amount so raised and expended for those purposes during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980.

(1) With reference to the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount levied and expended by the county under section 331.425, subsection 13, as the subsection read at the time that levy was made, adjusted by a procedure prescribed by rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the director, to exclude expenditures other than mental health and mental retardation expenditures which the county made in that fiscal year from the proceeds of that levy.

(2) With reference to a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1981, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount of money expended by the county from the county mental health and institutions fund for the purposes authorized by section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g", exclusive of state money received from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund and of any third party reimbursement to the county.

(3) A county shall, as soon as reasonably possible after January 1, 1982, begin preparations to adopt and shall by January 1, 1984, implement an accounting and financial reporting procedure for recording expenditures for mental health and mental retardation services, in conformity with rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the director and a committee representing appropriate county officials. It is the intent of this subparagraph that the Seventieth General Assembly, at its 1984 Session, reconsider the requirements of paragraph "a" of this subsection with a view to possible adjustments to more precisely measure each county's financial effort in support of mental health and mental retardation services.

b. Submits or joins other counties in submitting, prior to October 15 of each year, an application for a share of the general allocation for the succeeding fiscal year which is in conformity with subsection 2.

2. An application may be filed by a county or jointly by two or more counties. The application shall consist of:

a. An annual plan to improve or maintain availability and accessibility of comprehensive services to residents of the county or counties, which is found by the director to be in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The annual plan is in substantial compliance with those requirements if it:

(1) Indicates that the services for which the county or counties intend to use general allocation money are comprehensive services or other services mandated or authorized by law, and are offered by accredited or licensed providers where accreditation or licensure standards are applicable.

(2) Demonstrates the availability and accessibility of comprehensive services by establishing or maintaining formal agreements for purchase of services or grant relationships with providers of services, and by extending eligibility for those services to all residents of the county or counties who are unable to assume the full cost of their care.

(3) Demonstrates effective implementation of an annual plan submitted by the county or counties under this subsection for the preceding fiscal year.

b. Evidence that each county is in compliance with subsection 1, paragraph "a".

3. Each application shall be for a period of at least one year and shall be acted upon as soon as reasonably possible by the director, who shall notify the applicant county or counties of the action on the application no later than December 1 of the year in which the application is submitted. Money from the general allocation shall be disbursed on a quarterly basis to the counties entitled to the money under section 225C.9 and this section. Counties receiving the money shall submit quarterly financial and plan status reports in the manner prescribed by the director.

4. A county shall return to the treasurer of state, no later than September 30 of each year, for placement in the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund, an amount equal to the amount by which expenditures by the county under section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g" during the fiscal year ending the preceding June 30 were less than the total of that county's share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for that preceding fiscal year.

[S81, §225C.9; 81 Acts, ch 78, §10, 20, 52(4)]

84 Acts, ch 1030, §1 and 2

Referred to in §225C.6, 225C.8

225C.11 Special allocation.

The special allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be used by the director to administer grants-in-aid, awarded by the commission, to counties, combinations of counties, or their designees to provide to persons in a particular county or area one or more new or expanded community-based mental health or mental retardation services, or to continue those new or expanded services in a subsequent year, in furtherance of the purpose stated in section 225C.1. A grant may be made on terms providing for its use by the county or other grantee over a period of time greater than one year, but the entire grant shall be made from money available in the special allocation for the fiscal year during which the grant is made, and the director shall not obligate funds which the director anticipates will be appropriated in any future fiscal year. Each grant shall be made on terms and conditions agreed to by the director and the grantee. In awarding grants, priority shall be given to proposed projects that enhance deinstitutionalization and provide accessible comprehensive services to geographical areas of the state which do not have those services or which have experienced reductions in those services due to the elimination of programs no longer funded. A proposed project which will offer services other than comprehensive services may be considered for a special allocation grant if the relevancy of the project to the needs of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commission.

[S81, §225C.10; 81 Acts, ch 78, §11, 20]

Referred to in §225C.6

225C.12 Partial reimbursement to counties for local inpatient mental health care and treatment.

1. A county which pays, from county funds budgeted under section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraphs "d" and "g", the cost of care and treatment of a mentally ill person who is admitted pursuant to a preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C.14 to 225C.17 for treatment as an inpatient of a hospital facility, other than a state mental health institute, which has a designated mental health program and is a hospital accredited by the accreditation program for hospital facilities of the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals, is entitled to reimbursement from the state for a portion of the daily cost so incurred by the county. However, a county is not entitled to reimbursement for a cost incurred in connection with the hospitalization of a person who is eligible for medical assistance under chapter 249A, or who is entitled to have care or treatment paid for by any other third party payor, or who is admitted for preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C.14 to 225C.17. The amount of reimbursement for the cost of treatment of a local inpatient to which a county is entitled, on a per-patient-per-day basis, is an amount equal to twenty percent of the average of the state mental health institutes' individual average daily patient costs in the most recent calendar quarter for the program in which the local inpatient would have been served if the patient had been admitted to a state mental health institute.

2. A county may claim reimbursement by filing with the director a claim in a form prescribed by the director by rule. Claims may be filed on a quarterly basis, and when received shall be verified as soon as reasonably possible by the director. The director shall certify to the state comptroller the amount to which each county claiming reimbursement is entitled, and the comptroller shall issue warrants to the respective counties drawn upon funds appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose of this section. A county shall place funds received under this section in the county mental health and institutions fund. If the appropriation for a fiscal year is insufficient to pay all claims arising under this section, the comptroller shall prorate the funds appropriated for that year among the claimant counties so that an equal proportion of each county's claim is paid in each quarter for which proration is necessary.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.16, 227.18; S81, §225C.11; 81 Acts, ch 78, §12, 20, ch 117, §1028]

225C.13 Authority of director to lease facilities.

The director may enter into agreements under which a facility or portion of a facility administered by the director is leased to a department or division of state government, a county or group of counties, or a private nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 504A. A lease executed under this section shall require that the lessee use the leased premises to deliver either comprehensive services or other services normally delivered by the lessee.

[S81, §225C.12; 81 Acts, ch 78, §14, 20]

225C.14 Preliminary diagnostic evaluation.

1. Except in cases of medical emergency, a person shall be admitted to a state mental health institute as an inpatient only after a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by a community mental health center or by an alternative diagnostic facility has confirmed that the admission is appropriate to the person's mental health needs, and that no suitable alternative method of providing the needed services in a less restrictive setting or in or nearer to the person's home community is currently available. The policy established by this section shall be implemented in the manner and to the extent prescribed by sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17. However, notwithstanding the mandatory language requiring preliminary diagnostic evaluations in this section and sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17, preliminary diagnostic evaluations shall not be required until the fiscal year for which the general assembly has appropriated moneys to the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund under section 225C.7.

2. As used in this section and sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17, the term "medical emergency" means a situation in which a prospective patient is received at a state mental health institute in a condition which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer, or that officer's physician designee, requires the immediate admission of the person notwithstanding the policy stated in subsection 1.

Referred to in §225C.12, 225C.15, 225C.16, 331.382

225C.15 County implementation of evaluations.

The board of supervisors of a county shall, no later than July 1, 1982, require that the policy stated in section 225C.14 be followed with respect to admission of persons from that county to a state mental health institute. A community mental health center which is supported, directly or in affiliation with other counties, by that county shall perform the preliminary diagnostic evaluations for that county, unless the performance of the evaluations is not covered by the agreement entered into by the county and the center under section 230A.12, and the center's director certifies to the board of supervisors that the center does not have the capacity to perform the evaluations, in which case the board of supervisors shall proceed under section 225C.17.

[C79, 81, §225B.5; S81, §225C.14; 81 Acts, ch 78, §16, 20]

Referred to in §225C 12, 225C 14, 331.382

225C.16 Referrals for evaluation.

1. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute, or that officer's physician designee, shall advise a person residing in that county who applies for voluntary admission, or a person applying for the voluntary admission of another person who resides in that county, in accordance with section 229.41, that the board of supervisors has implemented the policy stated in section 225C.14, and shall advise that a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of the prospective patient be sought from the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility, if that has not already been done. This subsection does not apply when voluntary admission is sought in accordance with section 229.41 under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency.

2. The clerk of the district court in that county shall refer a person applying for authorization for voluntary admission, or for authorization for voluntary admission of another person, in accordance with section 229.42, to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility for the preliminary diagnostic evaluation unless the applicant furnishes a written statement from that center or facility which indicates that the evaluation has been performed and that the person's admission to a state mental health institute is appropriate. This subsection does not apply when authorization for voluntary admission is sought under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency.

3. Judges of the district court in that county or the judicial hospitalization referee appointed for that county shall so far as possible arrange for a physician on the staff of or designated by the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility to perform a prehearing examination of a respondent required under section 229.8, subsection 3, paragraph "b".

4. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute shall promptly submit to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility a report of the voluntary admission of a patient under the medical emergency clauses of subsections 1 and 2. The report shall explain the nature of the emergency which necessitated the admission of the patient without a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by the center or alternative facility.

225C.17 Alternative diagnostic facility.

If a county is not served by a community mental health center having the capacity to perform the required preliminary diagnostic evaluations, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the evaluations to be performed by an alternative diagnostic facility for the period until the county is served by a community mental health center with the capacity to provide that service. An alternative diagnostic facility may be the outpatient service of a state mental health institute or any other mental health facility or service able to furnish the requisite professional skills to properly perform a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of a person whose admission to a state mental health institute is being sought or considered on either a voluntary or an involuntary basis.

225C.18 County mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board.

1. A county board of supervisors, independently or in conjunction with one or more other county boards of supervisors, shall either establish a county or joint county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board or constitute the board or the joint boards of supervisors as the ex officio county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board. If a separate county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board is established, it shall be composed of persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health and mental retardation services and its size shall be determined by the board or joint boards of supervisors. One or more county supervisors may be named to serve on a separate county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board. If the board or joint boards of supervisors serve ex officio as the county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board, it shall establish an advisory board composed of persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health and mental retardation services, and who are not governmental officials, to advise the co-ordinating board with respect to the co-ordinating board's functions under subsection 2.

2. A county or joint county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board shall:

a. Develop a plan for the provision of mental health and mental retardation services in the county or counties represented by the membership of the board, consistent with the state mental health and mental retardation plans; however, the plan shall only be valid if approved by the county board or boards of supervisors.

b. Distribute, after a county assessment of needed services and available resources, no more than sixty percent of the county's or counties' share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services funds for either mental health or mental retardation services.

c. Prepare an annual fiscal accounting of the use of state moneys appropriated through the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for use in the respective counties.

d. Nominate potential recipients of grant money made available from or through the director for development of mental health or mental retardation services.

226.14 Writing material.

Every patient shall be furnished by the superintendent or party having charge of such person, at least once in each week, with suitable materials for writing, enclosing, sealing, and mailing letters, if the patient requests and uses the same

[C73, §1437, C97, §2301, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3496; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226 14]

226.15 Letters to state director.

The superintendent or other officer in charge of a patient shall, without reading the same, receive all letters addressed to the state director, if so requested, and shall properly mail the same, and deliver to such patient all letters or other writings addressed to the patient Letters written to the person so confined may be examined by the superintendent, and if, in the superintendent's opinion, the delivery of such letters would be injurious to the person so confined, the superintendent shall return the letters to the writer with the superintendent's reasons for not delivering them

[C73, §1438, C97, §2302, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3497; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226 15]

226.16 Unauthorized departure and retaking.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent and of all other officers and employees of any of said hospitals, in case of the unauthorized departure of any involuntarily hospitalized patient, to exercise all due diligence to take into protective custody and return said patient to the hospital. A notification by the superintendent of such unauthorized departure to any peace officer of the state or to any private person shall be sufficient authority to such officer or person to take and return such patient to the hospital.

226.23 Convalescent leave of patients.

Upon the recommendation of the superintendent and in accordance with section 229.15, subsection 4, in the case of an involuntary patient, the state director may place on convalescent leave said patient for a period not to exceed one year, under such conditions as are prescribed by said state director.

[C73, §1424; C97, §2288; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3505; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.23]

226.24 and 226.25 Repealed by 66GA, ch 139, §82.

226.26 Dangerous incurables.

The state director, on the recommendation of the superintendent, and on the application of the relatives or friends of a patient who is not cured and who cannot be safely allowed to go at liberty, may release such patient when fully satisfied that such relatives or friends will provide and maintain all necessary supervision, care, and restraint over such patient. If the patient being so released was involuntarily hospitalized, the consent of the district court which ordered the patient's hospitalization shall be obtained in advance in substantially the manner prescribed by section 229.14, subsection 3.

226.29 Discharge of mentally ill criminals. Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1323, §7.

226.30 Transfer of dangerous patients.

When a patient of any hospital for the mentally ill becomes incorrigible, and unmanageable to such an extent that the patient is dangerous to the safety of others in the hospital, the state director may apply in writing to the district court or to any judge thereof, of the county in which the hospital is situated, for an order to transfer the patient to the Iowa medical and classification center and if the order is granted the patient shall be so transferred. The county attorney of the county shall appear in support of the application on behalf of the state director.

226.31 Examination by court — notice.

Before granting the order authorized in section 226.30 the court or judge shall investigate the allegations of the petition and before proceeding to a hearing thereon shall require notice to be served on the attorney who represented the patient in any prior proceedings under sections 229.6 to 229.15 or the advocate appointed under section 229.19, or in the case of a patient who entered the hospital voluntarily, on any relative, friend, or guardian of the person in question of the filing of said application. On such hearing the court or judge shall appoint a guardian ad litem for said person, if it deems such action necessary to protect the rights of such person.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3513; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.31]

226.32 Overcrowded conditions.

The state director shall order the discharge or removal from the hospital of incurable and harmless patients whenever it is necessary to make room for recent cases. If a patient who is to be so discharged entered the hospital voluntarily, the state director shall notify the auditor of the county interested at least ten days in advance of the day of actual discharge.

[R60, §1483; C73, §1425; C97, §2289; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3514; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.32]

Referred to in §226.33

226.33 Notice to court.

When a patient who was hospitalized involuntarily and who has not fully recovered is discharged from the hospital by the state director under section 226.32, notice of the order shall at once be sent to the court which ordered the patient's hospitalization, in the manner prescribed by section 229.14, subsection 4.

[R60, §1484; C73, §1426; C97, §2290; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3515; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.33]

226.34 Investigation of death — notice.

An investigation by the county medical examiner shall be held in those cases where a death shall occur suddenly and without apparent cause, or a patient die and the patient's relatives so request, but in the latter case the relatives making the request shall be liable for the expense of the same, and payment therefor may be required in advance. When a patient in any mental health institute shall die from any cause, the superintendent of said institute shall within three days of the date of death, send by certified mail a written notice of death to:

1. The decedent's nearest relative.
2. The clerk of the district court of the county from which the patient was committed, and
3. The sheriff of the county from which the patient was committed.

REHABILITATION OF ALCOHOLICS

226.35 to 226.39 Repealed by 65GA, ch 1131, §51.

226.40 Emergency patients.

In case of emergency disaster, with the infliction of numerous casualties among the civilian population, the mental health institutes are authorized to accept sick and wounded persons without commitment or any other formalities.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.40]

226.41 Charge permitted.

The hospital is authorized to make a charge for these patients, in the manner now provided by law and subject to the changes hereinafter provided.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.41]

226.42 Emergency powers of superintendents.

In case the mental health institutes lose contact with the statehouse, due to enemy action or otherwise, the superintendents of the institutes are hereby delegated the following powers and duties:

1. May collect moneys due the state treasury from the counties and from responsible persons or other relatives, these funds to be collected monthly, instead of quarterly, and to be deposited for use in operating the institutes.

2. The superintendent shall have the power to requisition supplies, such as food, fuel, drugs and medical equipment, from any source available, in the name of the state, with the power to enter into contracts binding the state for payment at an indefinite future time.

3. The superintendent shall be authorized to employ personnel in all categories and for whatever remuneration the superintendent deems necessary, without regard to existing laws, rules or regulations, in order to permit the institute to continue its old functions, as well as meet its additional responsibilities.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.42]

MENTAL PATIENTS' PERSONAL FUNDS

226.43 Fund created.

There is hereby established at each hospital a fund known as the "patients' personal deposit fund".

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.43]

Referred to in §222.84

226.44 Deposits.

Any funds, including social security benefits, coming into the possession of the superintendent or any employee of the hospital belonging to any patient in that hospital, shall be deposited in the name of that patient in the patients' personal deposit fund, except that if a guardian of the property of that patient has been appointed, the guardian shall have the right to demand and receive such funds. Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires and comforts for the patient.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226.44]

Referred to in §222.84

226.45 Reimbursement to county or state.

If a patient is not receiving medical assistance under chapter 249A and the amount to the account of any patient in the patients' personal deposit fund exceeds two hundred dollars, the business manager of the hospital may apply any of the excess to reimburse the county of legal settlement or the state in a case where no legal settlement exists for liability incurred by the county or the state for the payment of care, support and maintenance of the patient, when billed by the county of legal settlement or by the director for a patient having no legal settlement.

227.1 Supervision.

All county and private institutions wherein mentally ill persons are kept shall be under the supervision of the state director.

[S13, §2727-a58; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3517; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.1]

227.2 Inspection.

1. The commissioner of public health shall make, or cause to be made, at least one licensure inspection each year of every county care facility. Either the director or the commissioner of public health, in cooperation with each other, upon receipt of a complaint or for good cause, may make, or cause to be made, a review of a county care facility or of any other private or county institution where mentally ill or mentally retarded persons reside. A licensure inspection or a review shall be made by a competent and disinterested person who is acquainted with and interested in the care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons. The objective of a licensure inspection or a review shall be an evaluation of the programming and treatment provided by the facility. After each licensure inspection of a county care facility, the person who made the inspection shall consult with the county authorities on plans and practices that will improve the care given patients and shall make recommendations to the director and the commissioner of public health for co-ordinating and improving the relationships between the administrators of county care facilities, the director, the commissioner of public health, the superintendents of state mental health institutes and hospital-schools, community mental health centers, and other co-operating agencies, to cause improved and more satisfactory care of patients. A written report of each licensure inspection of a county care facility under this section shall be filed with the director and the commissioner of public health and shall include:

- a. The capacity of the institution for the care of residents.
- b. The number, sex, ages, and primary diagnoses of the residents.
- c. The care of residents, their food, clothing, treatment plan, employment, and opportunity for recreational activities and for productive work intended primarily as therapeutic activity.
- d. The number, job classification, sex, duties, and salaries of all employees.

e The cost to the state or county of maintaining residents in a county care facility.

f The recommendations given to and received from county authorities on methods and practices that will improve the conditions under which the county care facility is operated.

g. Any failure to comply with standards adopted under section 227.4 for care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in county care facilities, which is not covered in information submitted pursuant to paragraphs "a" to "f", and any other matters which the commissioner of public health, in consultation with the director, may require.

2. A copy of the written report prescribed by subsection 1 shall be furnished to the county board of supervisors, to the county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board or to its advisory board if the county board of supervisors constitutes ex officio the co-ordinating board, to the administrator of the county care facility inspected and to its care review committee, and to the commission on the aging.

3. The state department of health shall inform the director of an action by the department to suspend, revoke, or deny renewal of a license issued by the state department of health to a county care facility, and the reasons for the action.

4. In addition to the licensure inspections required or authorized by this section, the director shall cause to be made an evaluation of each person cared for in a county care facility at least once each year by one or more qualified mental health, mental retardation, or medical professionals, whichever is appropriate.

a It is the responsibility of the state to secure the annual evaluation for each person who is on convalescent leave or who has not been discharged from a state mental health institute. It is the responsibility of the county to secure the annual evaluation for all other mentally ill persons in the county care facility.

b. It is the responsibility of the state to secure the annual evaluation for each person who is on leave and has not been discharged from a state hospital-school. It is the responsibility of the county to secure the annual evaluation for all other mentally retarded persons in the county care facility.

c It is the responsibility of the county to secure an annual evaluation of each resident of a county care facility to whom neither paragraph "a" nor paragraph "b" is applicable.

5. The evaluations required by subsection 4 shall include an examination of each person which shall reveal the person's condition of mental and physical health and the likelihood of improvement or discharge and other recommendations concerning the care of those persons as the evaluator deems pertinent. One copy of the evaluation shall be filed with the director and one copy shall be filed with the administrator of the county care facility.

See 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 82 Acts, ch 1117, §2

227.3 Residents to have hearing.

The inspector conducting any licensure inspection or review under section 227.2 shall give each resident an opportunity to converse with the inspector out of the hearing of any officer or employee of the institution, and shall fully investigate all complaints and report the result in writing to the director. The director before acting on the report adversely to the institution, shall give the persons in charge a copy of the report and an opportunity to be heard.

[S13, §2727-a60; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3519; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §227.3; 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 33]

227.4 Standards for care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in county care facilities.

The director, in co-operation with the state department of health, shall recommend, and the mental health and mental retardation commission shall adopt standards for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities. The objective of the standards is to ensure that mentally ill and mentally retarded residents of county care facilities are not only adequately fed, clothed, and housed, but are also offered reasonable opportunities for productive work and recreational activities suited to their physical and mental abilities and offering both a constructive outlet for their energies and, if possible, therapeutic benefit. When recommending standards under this section, the director shall designate an advisory committee representing administrators of county care facilities, county co-ordinating boards, and county care facility care review committees to assist in the establishment of standards.

227.5 Repealed by 52GA, ch 126, §3.

227.6 Removal of residents.

If a county care facility fails to comply with rules and standards adopted under this chapter, the director may remove all mentally ill and mentally retarded persons cared for in the county care facility at public expense, to the proper state mental health institute or hospital-school, or to some private or county institution or hospital for the care of the mentally ill or mentally retarded that has complied with the rules prescribed by the director. The removal of residents, if to a state mental health institute or hospital-school, shall be made by an attendant or attendants sent from the institute or hospital-school. If a resident is removed under this section, at least one attendant shall be of the same sex. If the director finds that the needs of mentally ill and mentally retarded residents of any other county or private institution are not being adequately met, those residents may be removed from that institution upon order of the director, in consultation with the commissioner of public health.

[S13, §2727-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3522; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §227.6; 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 35]

Referred to in §229.15(3)

227.7 Cost — collection from county.

227.4 Amended
Ch 127, §2-95 Acts

The cost of such removal, including all expenses of said attendant, shall be certified by the superintendent of the hospital receiving the patient, to the state comptroller, who shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer of state for said sum, which shall be credited to the support fund of said hospital and charged against the general revenues of the state and collected by the comptroller from the county which sent said patient to said institution.

[S13, §2727-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3523; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.7]

Referred to in §227.10

227.8 Notification to guardians.

The state director shall notify the guardian, or one or more of the relatives, of patients kept at private expense, of all violations of said rules by said private or county institutions, and of the action of the state director as to all other patients.

[S13, §2727-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3524; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.8]

227.9 Investigating mental health.

Should the state director believe that any person in any such county or private institution is in good mental health, or illegally restrained of liberty, the state director shall institute and prosecute proceedings in the name of the state, before the proper officer, board, or court, for the discharge of such person.

[S13, §2727-a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3525; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.9]

227.10 Transfers from county or private institutions.

Patients who have been admitted at public expense to any institution to which this chapter is applicable may be involuntarily transferred to the proper state hospital for the mentally ill in the manner prescribed by sections 229.6 to 229.13. The application required by section 229.6 may be filed by the state director or the director's designee, or by the administrator of the institution where the patient is then being maintained or treated. If the patient was admitted to that institution involuntarily, the state director may arrange and complete the transfer, and shall report it as required of a chief medical officer under section 229.15, subsection 4. The transfer shall be made at county expense, and the expense recovered, as provided in section 227.7.

[S13, §2727-a64; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3526; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.10]

227.11 Transfers from state hospitals.

A county chargeable with the expense of a patient in a state hospital for the mentally ill shall remove such patient to a county or private institution for the mentally ill which has complied with the aforesaid rules when the state director or the director's designee so orders on a finding that said patient is suffering from chronic mental illness or from senility and will receive equal benefit by being so transferred. A county shall remove to its county care facility any patient in a state hospital for the mentally ill upon request of the superintendent of the state hospital in which the patient is confined pursuant to the superintendent's authority under section 229.15, subsection 4, and approval by the board of supervisors of the county of the patient's residence. In no case shall a patient be thus transferred except upon compliance with section 229.14, subsection 4, or without the written consent of a relative, friend, or guardian if such relative, friend, or guardian pays the expense of the care of such patient in a state hospital. Patients transferred to a public or private facility under this section may subsequently be placed on convalescent or limited leave or transferred to a different facility for continued full-time custody, care and treatment when, in the opinion of the attending physician or the chief medical officer of the hospital from which the patient was so transferred, the best interest of the patient would be served by such leave or transfer. However, if the patient was originally hospitalized involuntarily, the leave or transfer shall be made in compliance with section 229.15, subsection 4.

[S13, §2727-a64; C24, 27, 31, 35, §3527, 3528; C39, §3527; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.11]

Referred to in §230.15, 331.381

227.12 Difference of opinion.

When a difference of opinion exists between the state director and the authorities in charge of any private or county hospital in regard to the removal of a patient or patients as herein provided, the matter shall be submitted to the district court of the county in which such hospital is situated and shall be summarily tried as an equitable action, and the judgment of the district court shall be final.

227.14 Caring for mentally ill of other counties.

Boards of supervisors of counties having no proper facilities for caring for the mentally ill, may, with the consent of the state director, provide for such care at the expense of the county in any convenient and proper county or private institution for the mentally ill which is willing to receive them.

[S13, §2727-a65; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3531; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.14]

Referred to in §331.381

227.15 Authority to confine in hospital.

No person shall be involuntarily confined and restrained in any private institution or hospital or county hospital or other general hospital with psychiatric ward for the care or treatment of the mentally ill, except by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 to 229.15.

[S13, §2727-a66; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3532; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227.15]

229.1 Definitions.
 As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. “Mental illness” means every type of mental disease or mental disorder, except that it does not refer to mental retardation as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5, or to insanity, diminished responsibility, or mental incompetency as the terms are defined and used in the Iowa criminal code or in the rules of criminal procedure, Iowa court rules, 2d ed.

2. "Seriously mentally impaired" or "serious mental impairment" describes the condition of a person who is afflicted with mental illness and because of that illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment, and who:

a. Is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if allowed to remain at liberty without treatment; or

b. Is likely to inflict serious emotional injury on members of the person's family or others who lack reasonable opportunity to avoid contact with the afflicted person if the afflicted person is allowed to remain at liberty without treatment.

3. "Serious emotional injury" is an injury which does not necessarily exhibit any physical characteristics, but which can be recognized and diagnosed by a licensed physician or other qualified mental health professional and which can be causally connected with the act or omission of a person who is, or is alleged to be, mentally ill.

4. "Respondent" means any person against whom an application has been filed under section 229.6, but who has not been finally ordered committed for full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital.

5. "Patient" means a person who has been hospitalized or ordered hospitalized to receive treatment pursuant to section 229.14.

6. "Licensed physician" means an individual licensed under the provisions of chapter 148, 150 or 150A to practice medicine and surgery, osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery.

7. "Qualified mental health professional" means an individual experienced in the study and treatment of mental disorders in the capacity of:

a. A psychologist certified under chapter 154B; or
b. A registered nurse licensed under chapter 152; or

c. A social worker who holds a master's degree in social work awarded by an accredited college or university.

8. "Public hospital" means:

a. A state mental health institute established by chapter 226; or

b. The state psychiatric hospital established by chapter 225; or

c. Any other publicly supported hospital or institution, or part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill, except that this definition is not applicable to the Iowa medical and classification center established by chapter 223.

9. "Private hospital" means any hospital or institution not directly supported by public funds, or a part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill.

10. "Hospital" means either a public hospital or a private hospital.

11. "Chief medical officer" means the medical director in charge of any public hospital, or any private hospital, or that individual's physician-designee. Nothing in this chapter shall negate the authority otherwise reposed by law in the respective superintendent of each of the state hospitals for the mentally ill, established by chapter 226, to make decisions regarding the appropriateness of admissions or discharges of patients of that hospital, however it is the intent of this chapter that if the superintendent is not a licensed physician the superintendent shall be guided in these decisions by the chief medical officer of that hospital.

12. "Clerk" means the clerk of the district court.

13. "Director" or "state director" means the director of that division of the department of human services having jurisdiction of the state mental health institutes, or that director's designee.

14. "Chemotherapy" means treatment of an individual by use of a drug or substance which cannot legally be delivered or administered to the ultimate user without a physician's prescription or medical order.

229.2 Application for voluntary admission — authority to receive voluntary patients.

1. An application for admission to a public or private hospital for observation, diagnosis, care and treatment as a voluntary patient may be made by any person who is mentally ill or has symptoms of mental illness. In the case of a minor, the parent, guardian or custodian may make application for admission of the minor as a voluntary patient. Upon receipt of an application for voluntary admission of a minor, the chief medical officer shall provide separate prescreening interviews and consultations with the parent, guardian or custodian and the minor to assess the family environment and the appropriateness of the application for admission. If the chief medical officer of the hospital to which application is made determines that the admission is appropriate but the minor objects to the admission, the parent, guardian or custodian must petition the juvenile court for approval of the admission before the minor is actually admitted. The juvenile court shall determine whether the admission is in the best interest of the minor and is consistent with the minor's rights.

2. Upon receiving an application for admission as a voluntary patient, made pursuant to subsection 1:

a. The chief medical officer of a public hospital shall receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought, subject in cases other than medical emergencies to availability of suitable accommodations and to the provisions of sections 229.41 and 229.42.

b. The chief medical officer of a private hospital may receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought.

Referred to in §222.55, 229.4, 229.41

229.3 Discharge of voluntary patients.

Any voluntary patient who has recovered, or whose hospitalization the chief medical officer of the hospital determines is no longer advisable, shall be discharged. Any voluntary patient may be discharged if to do so would in the judgment of the chief medical officer contribute to the most effective use of the hospital in the care and treatment of that patient and of other mentally ill persons.

[C77, 79, 81, §229.3]
 Referred to in §222 55, 226 19

229.4 Right to release on application.

A voluntary patient who requests release or whose release is requested, in writing, by the patient's legal guardian, parent, spouse or adult next-of-kin shall be released from the hospital forthwith, except that:

1. If the patient was admitted on the patient's own application and the request for release is made by some other person, release may be conditioned upon the agreement of the patient.

2. If the patient is a minor who was admitted on the application of the patient's parent, guardian or custodian pursuant to section 229.2, subsection 1, the patient's release prior to becoming eighteen years of age may be conditioned upon the consent of the parent, guardian or custodian, or upon the approval of the juvenile court if the admission was approved by the juvenile court; and

3. If the chief medical officer of the hospital, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk of the district court for the county in which the hospital is located is open and which follows the submission of the written request for release of the patient, files with that clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the release may be postponed for the period of time the court determines is necessary to permit commencement of judicial procedure for involuntary hospitalization. That period of time may not exceed five days, exclusive of days on which the clerk's office is not open unless the period of time is extended by order of a district court judge for good cause shown. Until disposition of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the patient, if one is timely filed, the chief medical officer may detain the patient in the hospital and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the patient's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the patient which is likely to result in physical injury to the patient or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the patient without the patient's consent.

229.5 Departure without notice.

If a voluntary patient departs from the hospital without notice, and in the opinion of the chief medical officer the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the chief medical officer may file an application for involuntary hospitalization of the departed voluntary patient, and request that an order for immediate custody be entered by the court pursuant to section 229.11.

Referred to in §222 55

229.6 Application for order of involuntary hospitalization.

Proceedings for the involuntary hospitalization of an individual may be commenced by any interested person by filing a verified application with the clerk of the district court of the county where the respondent is presently located, or which is the respondent's place of residence. The clerk, or the clerk's designee, shall assist the applicant in completing the application. The application shall:

1. State the applicant's belief that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired.

2. State any other pertinent facts.

3. Be accompanied by:

a. A written statement of a licensed physician in support of the application; or

b. One or more supporting affidavits otherwise corroborating the application; or

c. Corroborative information obtained and reduced to writing by the clerk or the clerk's designee, but only when circumstances make it infeasible to comply with, or when the clerk considers it appropriate to supplement the information supplied pursuant to, either paragraph "a" or paragraph "b" of this subsection.

229.7 Service of notice upon respondent.

Upon the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the clerk shall docket the case and immediately notify a district court judge who shall review the application and accompanying documentation. If the application is adequate as to form, the judge may set a time and place for a hearing on the application, if feasible, but the hearing shall not be held less than forty-eight hours after notice to the respondent unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement. The judge shall direct the clerk to send copies of the application and supporting documentation, together with a notice informing the respondent of the procedures required by this chapter, to the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy for immediate service upon the respondent. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, service of the application, documentation and notice upon the respondent shall be made at the time the respondent is taken into custody.

229.8 Procedure after application is filed.

As soon as practicable after the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the court shall:

1. Determine whether the respondent has an attorney who is able and willing to represent the respondent in the hospitalization proceeding, and if not, whether the respondent is financially able to employ an attorney and capable of meaningfully assisting in selecting one. In accordance with those determinations, the court shall if necessary allow the respondent to select, or shall assign to the respondent, an attorney. If the respondent is financially unable to pay an attorney, the attorney shall be compensated in substantially the manner provided by section 815.7, except that if the county has a public defender the court may designate the public defender or an attorney on the public defender's staff to act as the respondent's attorney.

2. Cause copies of the application and supporting documentation to be sent to the county attorney or the county attorney's attorney-designate for review.

3. Issue a written order which shall:

a. If not previously done, set a time and place for a hospitalization hearing, which shall be at the earliest practicable time not less than forty-eight hours after notice to the respondent, unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement; and

b. Order an examination of the respondent, prior to the hearing, by one or more licensed physicians who shall submit a written report on the examination to the court as required by section 229.10.

229.9 Respondent's attorney informed.

The court shall direct the clerk to furnish at once to the respondent's attorney copies of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the respondent and the supporting documentation, and of the court's order issued pursuant to section 229.8, subsection 3. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, the attorney shall also be advised of that fact. The respondent's attorney shall represent the respondent at all stages of the proceedings, and shall attend the hospitalization hearing.

229.10 Physicians' examination — report.

1. An examination of the respondent shall be conducted by one or more licensed physicians, as required by the court's order, within a reasonable time. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229.11, subsection 2, the examination shall be conducted within twenty-four hours. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229.11, subsection 1 or 3, the examination shall be conducted within forty-eight hours. If the respondent so desires, the respondent shall be entitled to a separate examination by a licensed physician of the respondent's own choice. The reasonable cost of such separate examination shall, if the respondent lacks sufficient funds to pay the cost, be paid from county funds upon order of the court.

Any licensed physician conducting an examination pursuant to this section may consult with or request the participation in the examination of any qualified mental health professional, and may include with or attach to the written report of the examination any findings or observations by any qualified mental health professional who has been so consulted or has so participated in the examination.

If the respondent is not taken into custody under section 229.11, but the court is subsequently informed that the respondent has declined to be examined by the licensed physician or physicians pursuant to the court order, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is necessary to facilitate the examination of the respondent by the licensed physician or physicians.

2. A written report of the examination by the court-designated physician or physicians shall be filed with the clerk prior to the time set for hearing. A written report of any examination by a physician chosen by the respondent may be similarly filed. The clerk shall immediately:

a. Cause the report or reports to be shown to the judge who issued the order; and

b. Cause the respondent's attorney to receive a copy of the report of the court-designated physician or physicians.

3. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the individual is not seriously mentally impaired, the court may without taking further action terminate the proceeding and dismiss the application on its own motion and without notice.

4. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired, the court shall schedule a hearing on the application as soon as possible. The hearing shall be held not more than forty-eight hours after the report is filed, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless an extension for good cause is requested by the respondent, or as soon thereafter as possible if the court considers that sufficient grounds exist for delaying the hearing.

229.11 Judge may order immediate custody.

If the applicant requests that the respondent be taken into immediate custody and the judge, upon reviewing the application and accompanying documentation, finds probable cause to believe that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and is likely to injure the respondent or other persons if allowed to remain at liberty, the judge may enter a written order directing that the respondent be taken into immediate custody by the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy and be detained until the hospitalization hearing, which shall be held no more than five days after the date of the order, except that if the fifth day after the date of the order is a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday, the hearing may be held on the next succeeding business day. The judge may order the respondent detained for the period of time until the hearing is held, and no longer, in accordance with subsection 1 if possible, and if not then in accordance with subsection 2 or, only if neither of these alternatives are available, in accordance with subsection 3. Detention may be:

1. In the custody of a relative, friend or other suitable person who is willing to accept responsibility for supervision of the respondent, and the respondent may be placed under such reasonable restrictions as the judge may order including, but not limited to, restrictions on or a prohibition of any expenditure, encumbrance or disposition of the respondent's funds or property; or

2. In a suitable hospital the chief medical officer of which shall be informed of the reasons why immediate custody has been ordered and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the respondent's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the respondent which is likely to result in physical injury to the respondent or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the respondent without the respondent's consent; or

3. In a public or private facility in the community which is suitably equipped and staffed for the purpose, provided that detention in a jail or other facility intended for confinement of those accused or convicted of crime may not be ordered except in cases of actual emergency when no other secure facility is accessible and then only for a period of not more than twenty-four hours and under close supervision.

229.12 Hearing procedure.

1. At the hospitalization hearing, evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be presented by the county attorney. During the hearing the applicant and the respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify and to present and cross-examine witnesses, and the court may receive the testimony of any other interested person. The respondent has the right to be present at the hearing. If the respondent exercises that right and has been medicated within twelve hours, or such longer period of time as the court may designate, prior to the beginning of the hearing or an adjourned session thereof, the judge shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication upon convening of the hearing.

2. All persons not necessary for the conduct of the proceeding shall be excluded, except that the court may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the proceeding. Upon motion of the county attorney, the judge may exclude the respondent from the hearing during the testimony of any particular witness if the judge determines that that witness' testimony is likely to cause the respondent severe emotional trauma.

3. The respondent's welfare shall be paramount and the hearing shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure, but consistent therewith the issue shall be tried as a civil matter. Such discovery as is permitted under the Iowa rules of civil procedure shall be available to the respondent. The court shall receive all relevant and material evidence which may be offered and need not be bound by the rules of evidence. There shall be a presumption in favor of the respondent, and the burden of evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be upon the applicant. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has not been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall deny the application and terminate the proceeding.

4. If the respondent is not taken into custody under section 229.11, but the court subsequently finds good cause to believe that the respondent is about to depart from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is authorized by section 229.11 and is necessary to insure that the respondent will not depart from the jurisdiction of the court without the court's approval until the proceeding relative to the respondent has been concluded.

229.13 Hospitalization for evaluation.

If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall order the respondent placed in a hospital or other suitable facility as expeditiously as possible for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment. The court shall furnish to the hospital or facility at the time the respondent arrives there a written finding of fact setting forth the evidence on which the finding is based. The chief medical officer of the hospital or facility shall report to the court no more than fifteen days after the individual is admitted to the hospital or facility, making a recommendation for disposition of the matter. An extension of time may be granted for not to exceed seven days upon a showing of cause. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent's attorney, who may contest the need for an extension of time if one is requested. Extension of time shall be granted upon request unless the request is contested, in which case the court shall make such inquiry as it deems appropriate and may either order the respondent's release from the hospital or facility or grant extension of time for psychiatric evaluation.

229.14 Chief medical officer's report.

The chief medical officer's report to the court on the psychiatric evaluation of the respondent shall be made not later than the expiration of the time specified in section 229.13. At least two copies of the report shall be filed with the clerk, who shall dispose of them in the manner prescribed by section 229.10, subsection 2. The report shall state one of the four following alternative findings:

1. That the respondent does not, as of the date of the report, require further treatment for serious mental impairment. If the report so states, the court shall order the respondent's immediate release from involuntary hospitalization and terminate the proceedings.

2. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and is considered likely to benefit from treatment. If the report so states, the court may order the respondent's continued hospitalization for appropriate treatment.

3. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of treatment, but does not require full-time hospitalization. If the report so states it shall include the chief medical officer's recommendation for treatment of the respondent on an outpatient or other appropriate basis, and the court may enter an order directing the respondent to submit to the recommended treatment. The order shall provide that if the respondent fails or refuses to submit to treatment as directed by the court's order, the court may order that the respondent be taken into immediate custody as provided by section 229.11 and, following notice and hearing held in accordance with the procedures of section 229.12, may order the respondent treated as a patient requiring full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital until such time as the chief medical officer reports that the respondent does not require further treatment for serious mental impairment or has indicated the respondent is willing to submit to treatment on another basis as ordered by the court.

4. The respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody and care, but is unlikely to benefit from further treatment in a hospital. If the report so states, the chief medical officer shall recommend an alternative placement for the respondent and the court may order the respondent's transfer to the recommended placement. If the court or the respondent's attorney consider the placement inappropriate, an alternative placement may be arranged upon consultation with the chief medical officer and approval of the court.

229.15 Periodic reports required.

1. Not more than thirty days after entry of an order for continued hospitalization of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 2, and thereafter at successive intervals of not more than sixty days continuing so long as involuntary hospitalization of the patient continues, the chief medical officer of the hospital shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall be submitted in the manner required by section 229.14, shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will be required to remain at the hospital. The chief medical officer may at any time report to the court a finding as stated in section 229.14, subsection 4, and the court shall act thereon as required by that section.

2. Not more than sixty days after the entry of a court order for treatment of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 3, and thereafter at successive intervals as ordered by the court but not to exceed ninety days so long as that court order remains in effect, the medical director of the facility treating the patient shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will require treatment by the facility. If at any time the patient without good cause fails or refuses to submit to treatment as ordered by the court, the medical director shall at once so notify the court, which shall order the patient hospitalized as provided by section 229.14, subsection 3, unless the court finds that the failure or refusal was with good cause and that the patient is willing to receive treatment as provided in the court's order, or in a revised order if the court sees fit to enter one. If at any time the medical director reports to the court that in the director's opinion the patient requires full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and the patient is willing to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital for these purposes, the court may enter an order approving hospitalization for appropriate treatment upon consultation with the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the patient is to be hospitalized. If the patient is unwilling to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital, the procedure for determining involuntary hospitalization, as set out in section 229.14, subsection 3, shall be followed.

3. When a patient has been placed in a facility other than a hospital pursuant to section 229.14, subsection 4, a report on the patient's condition and prognosis shall be made to the court which so placed the patient, at least once every six months, unless the court authorizes annual reports. A report shall be submitted within fifteen days after the facility in which the patient has been placed is evaluated as required by section 227.2, subsection 4. The court may in its discretion waive the requirement of an additional report between the annual evaluations. If the director exercises the authority to remove residents from a county care facility or other county or private institution under section 227.6, the director shall promptly notify each court which placed in that facility any resident so removed.

4. When in the opinion of the chief medical officer the best interest of a patient would be served by a convalescent or limited leave or by transfer to a different hospital for continued full-time custody, care and treatment, the chief medical officer may authorize the leave or arrange and complete the transfer but shall promptly report the leave or transfer to the court. The patient's attorney or advocate may request a hearing on a transfer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to add to or restrict the authority otherwise provided by law for transfer of patients or residents among various state institutions administered by the department of human services.

5. Upon receipt of any report required or authorized by this section the court shall furnish a copy to the patient's attorney, or alternatively to the advocate appointed as required by section 229.19. The court shall examine the report and take the action thereon which it deems appropriate. Should the court fail to receive any report required by this section or section 229.14 at the time the report is due, the court shall investigate the reason for the failure to report and take whatever action may be necessary in the matter.

229.16 Discharge and termination of proceeding.

When in the opinion of the chief medical officer a patient who is hospitalized under subsection 2, or is receiving treatment under subsection 3, or is in full-time care and custody under subsection 4 of section 229.14 no longer requires treatment or care for serious mental impairment, the chief medical officer shall tentatively discharge the patient and immediately report that fact to the court which ordered the patient's hospitalization or care and custody. The court shall thereupon issue an order confirming the patient's discharge from the hospital or from care and custody, as the case may be, and shall terminate the proceedings pursuant to which the order was issued. Copies of the order shall be sent by certified mail to the hospital and the patient.

229.19 Advocate appointed.

The district court in each county shall appoint an individual who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and rehabilitation of the mentally ill, and who is not an officer or employee of the department of human services nor of any agency or facility providing care or treatment to the mentally ill, to act as advocate representing the interests of all patients involuntarily hospitalized by that court, in any matter relating to the patients' hospitalization or treatment under section 229.14 or 229.15. The advocate's responsibility with respect to any patient shall begin at whatever time the attorney employed or appointed to represent that patient as respondent in hospitalization proceedings, conducted under sections 229.6 to 229.13, reports to the court that the attorney's services are no longer required and requests the court's approval to withdraw as counsel for that patient. However, if the patient is found to be seriously mentally impaired at the hospitalization hearing, the attorney representing the patient shall automatically be relieved of responsibility in the case and an advocate shall be appointed at the conclusion of the hearing unless the attorney indicates an intent to continue the attorney's services and the court so directs. If the court directs the attorney to remain on the case the attorney shall assume all the duties of an advocate. The clerk shall furnish the advocate with a copy of the court's order approving the withdrawal and shall inform the patient of the name of the patient's advocate. With regard to each patient whose interests the advocate is required to represent pursuant to this section, the advocate's duties shall include all of the following:

1. To review each report submitted pursuant to sections 229.14 and 229.15.
2. If the advocate is not an attorney, to advise the court at any time it appears that the services of an attorney are required to properly safeguard the patient's interests.
3. To make the advocate readily accessible to communications from the patient and to originate communications with the patient within five days of the patient's commitment.
4. To visit the patient within fifteen days of the patient's commitment and periodically thereafter.
5. To communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25.
6. To file with the court quarterly reports, and additional reports as the advocate feels necessary or as required by the court, in a form prescribed by the court. The reports shall state what actions the advocate has taken with respect to each patient and the amount of time spent.

The hospital or facility to which a patient is committed shall grant all reasonable requests of the advocate to visit the patient, to communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25. An advocate shall not disseminate information from a patient's medical records to any other person unless done for official purposes in connection with the advocate's duties pursuant to this chapter or when required by law.

The court shall from time to time prescribe reasonable compensation for the services of the advocate. The compensation shall be based upon the reports filed by the advocate with the court. The advocate's compensation shall be paid on order of the court by the county in which the court is located.

trates will be sufficiently accessible in that county to make it feasible for them to perform at all times the duties prescribed by sections 229.7 to 229.19 and section 229.22 and by sections 125.75 to 125.94. If the judges find that accessibility of district court judges or magistrates in any county is not sufficient for this purpose, the chief judge of the district shall appoint in that county a judicial hospitalization referee. The judges in any district may at any time review their determination, previously made under this subsection with respect to any county in the district, and pursuant to that review may authorize appointment of a judicial hospitalization referee, or abolish the office, in that county.

2. The judicial hospitalization referee shall be an attorney, licensed to practice law in this state, who shall be chosen with consideration to any training, experience, interest, or combination of those factors, which are pertinent to the duties of the office. The referee shall hold office at the pleasure of and receive compensation at a rate fixed by the chief judge of the district. If the referee expects to be absent from the county for any significant length of time, the referee shall inform the chief judge who may appoint a temporary substitute judicial hospitalization referee having the qualifications set forth in this subsection.

3. When an application for involuntary hospitalization under this chapter or an application for involuntary commitment or treatment of substance abusers under sections 125.75 to 125.94 is filed with the clerk of the district court in any county for which a judicial hospitalization referee has been appointed, and no district judge is accessible in the county, the clerk shall immediately notify the referee in the manner required by section 229.7 or section 125.77. The referee shall thereupon discharge all of the duties imposed upon judges of the district court or magistrates by sections 229.7 to 229.19 or sections 125.75 to 125.94 in the proceeding so initiated. If an emergency hospitalization proceeding is initiated under section 229.22 a judicial hospitalization referee may perform the duties imposed upon a magistrate by that section. Upon termination of the proceeding or issuance of an order under section 229.13 or section 125.83, the referee shall transmit either to the chief judge, or another judge of the district court designated by the chief judge, a statement of the reasons for the referee's action and a copy of any order issued.

4. Any respondent with respect to whom the judicial hospitalization referee has found the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired or a substance abuser sustained by clear and convincing evidence presented at a hearing held under section 229.12 or section 125.82, may appeal from the referee's finding to a judge of the district court by giving the clerk notice in writing, within seven days after the referee's finding is made, that an appeal therefrom is taken. The appeal may be signed by the respondent or by the respondent's next friend, guardian or attorney. When so appealed, the matter shall stand for trial de novo. Upon appeal, the court shall schedule a hospitalization or commitment hearing before a district judge at the earliest practicable time.

5. If the appellant is in custody under the jurisdiction of the district court at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody unless an order that the appellant be taken into immediate custody has previously been issued under section 229.11 or section 125.81, in which case the appellant shall be detained as provided in that section until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge. If the appellant is in the custody of a hospital or facility at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody pending disposition of the appeal unless the chief medical officer, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk is open and which follows service of the notice of appeal, files with the clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the appellant is seriously mentally ill or a substance abuser. In that case, the appellant shall remain in custody of the hospital or facility until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district court.

6. The hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge shall be held, and the judge's finding shall be made and an appropriate order entered, as prescribed by sections 229.12 and 229.13 or sections 125.82 and 125.83. If the judge orders the appellant hospitalized or committed for a complete psychiatric or substance abuse evaluation, jurisdiction of the matter shall revert to the judicial hospitalization referee.

229.22 Hospitalization — emergency procedure.

1. The procedure prescribed by this section shall not be used unless it appears that a person should be immediately detained due to serious mental impairment, but that person cannot be immediately detained by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 and 229.11 because there is no means of immediate access to the district court.

2. In the circumstances described in subsection 1, any peace officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is mentally ill, and because of that illness is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may without a warrant take or cause that person to be taken to the nearest available facility as defined in section 229.11, subsections 2 and 3. A person believed mentally ill, and likely to injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may be delivered to a hospital by someone other than a peace officer. Upon delivery of the person believed mentally ill to the hospital, the chief medical officer may order treatment of that person, including chemotherapy, but only to the extent necessary to preserve the person's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The peace officer who took the person into custody, or other party who brought the person to the hospital, shall describe the circumstances of the matter to the chief medical officer. If the chief medical officer finds that there is reason to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired, and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, the chief medical officer shall at once communicate with the nearest available magistrate as defined in section 801.4, subsection 6. The magistrate shall immediately proceed to the facility where the person is detained, except that if the chief medical officer's communication with the magistrate occurs between the hours of midnight and the next succeeding seven o'clock a.m. and the magistrate deems it appropriate under the circumstances described by the chief medical officer, the magistrate may delay going to the facility and in that case shall give the chief medical officer verbal instructions either directing that the person be released forthwith or authorizing the person's continued detention at that facility. In the latter case, the magistrate shall:

a. By the close of business on the next working day, file with the clerk a written report stating the substance of the information on the basis of which the person's continued detention was ordered; and

b. Arrive at the facility where the person is being detained not later than eight o'clock a.m. of the same day on which the chief medical officer's notification occurs.

3. Upon arrival at the hospital, the magistrate shall at once review the matter. Unless convinced upon initial inquiry that there are no grounds for further detention of the person, the magistrate shall in the manner prescribed by section 229.8, subsection 1 insure that the person has or is provided legal counsel at the earliest practicable time, and shall arrange for the counsel to be present, if practicable, before proceeding further under this section. If the magistrate finds upon review of the report prepared by the chief medical officer under subsection 2 of this section, and of such other information or evidence as the magistrate deems pertinent, that there is probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not detained, the magistrate shall enter a written order for the person to be detained in custody and, if the facility where the person is at that time is not an appropriate hospital, transported to an appropriate hospital. The magistrate's order shall state the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody or otherwise brought to a hospital and the grounds supporting the finding of probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained. The order shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county where it is anticipated that an application will be filed under section 229.6, and a certified copy of the order shall be delivered to the chief medical officer of the hospital where the person is detained, at the earliest practicable time.

4. The chief medical officer of the hospital shall examine and may detain and care for the person taken into custody under the magistrate's order for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours from the time such order is dated, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless the order is sooner dismissed by a magistrate. The hospital may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the person's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to the person's self or others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the person without the person's consent. The person shall be discharged from the hospital and released from custody not later than the expiration of that period, unless an application for the person's involuntary hospitalization is sooner filed with the clerk pursuant to section 229.6. The detention of any person by the procedure and not in excess of the period of time prescribed by this section shall not render the peace officer, physician or hospital so detaining that person liable in a criminal or civil action for false arrest or false imprisonment if the peace officer, physician or hospital had reasonable grounds to believe the person so detained was mentally ill and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained.

5. The cost of hospitalization at a public hospital of a person detained temporarily by the procedure prescribed in this section shall be paid in the same way as if the person had been admitted to the hospital by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 to 229.13.

229.23 Rights and privileges of hospitalized persons.

Every person who is hospitalized or detained under this chapter shall have the right to:

1. Prompt evaluation, emergency psychiatric services, and care and treatment as indicated by sound medical practice.

2. The right to refuse treatment by shock therapy or chemotherapy, unless the use of these treatment modalities is specifically consented to by the patient's next of kin or guardian. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall not apply during any period of custody authorized by section 229.4, subsection 3, section 229.11 or section 229.22, but this exception shall extend only to chemotherapy treatment which is, in the chief medical officer's judgment, necessary to preserve the patient's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall also not apply during any period of custody authorized by the court pursuant to section 229.13 or 229.14. In any other situation in which, in the chief medical officer's judgment, chemotherapy is appropriate for the patient but the patient refuses to consent thereto and there is no next of kin or guardian to give consent, the chief medical officer may request an order authorizing treatment of the patient by chemotherapy from the district court which ordered the patient's hospitalization.

3. In addition to protection of the person's constitutional rights, enjoyment of other legal, medical, religious, social, political, personal and working rights and privileges which the person would enjoy if the person were not so hospitalized or detained, so far as is possible consistent with effective treatment of that person and of the other patients of the hospital. If the patient's rights are restricted, the physician's direction to that effect shall be noted on the patient's record. The department of human services shall, in accordance with chapter 17A establish rules setting forth the specific rights and privileges to which persons so hospitalized or detained are entitled under this section, and the exceptions provided by section 17A.2, subsection 7, paragraphs "a" and "k", shall not be applicable to the rules so established. The patient or the patient's next of kin or friend shall be advised of these rules and be provided a written copy upon the patient's admission to or arrival at the hospital.

1. All papers and records pertaining to any involuntary hospitalization or application for involuntary hospitalization of any person under this chapter, whether part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the department of human services, are subject to inspection only upon an order of the court for good cause shown. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a hospital from complying with the requirements of this chapter and of chapter 230 relative to financial responsibility for the cost of care and treatment provided a patient in that hospital, nor from properly billing any responsible relative or third-party payer for such care and treatment.

2. If authorized in writing by a person who has been the subject of any proceeding or report under sections 229.6 to 229.13 or section 229.22, or by the parent or guardian of that person, information regarding that person which is confidential under subsection 1 may be released to any designated person.

The records maintained by a hospital or other facility relating to the examination, custody, care and treatment of any person in that hospital or facility pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential, except that the chief medical officer shall release appropriate information under any of the following circumstances:

1. The information is requested by a licensed physician, attorney or advocate who provides the chief medical officer with a written waiver signed by the person about whom the information is sought.

2. The information is sought by a court order.

3. The person who is hospitalized or that person's guardian, if the person is a minor or is not legally competent to do so, signs an informed consent to release information. Each signed consent shall designate specifically the person or agency to whom the information is to be sent, and the information may be sent only to that person or agency.

Such records may be released by the chief medical officer when requested for the purpose of research into the causes, incidence, nature and treatment of mental illness, however information shall not be provided in a way that discloses patients' names or which otherwise discloses any patient's identity.

When the chief medical officer deems it to be in the best interest of the patient and the spouse to do so, the chief medical officer may release appropriate information during a consultation which the hospital or facility shall arrange with the spouse of a voluntary or involuntary patient, if requested by a spouse.

229.27 Hospitalization not to equate with incompetency — procedure for finding incompetency due to mental illness.

1. Hospitalization of a person under this chapter, either voluntarily or involuntarily, does not constitute a finding of nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person so hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose including but not limited to any circumstances to which sections 447.7, 472.15, 545.402, subsection 5, paragraph "b", 545.705, 595.3, 597.6, 598.29, 614.8, 614.19, 614.22, 614.24, 614.27, 622.6, 633.244, and 675.21 are applicable.

2. The applicant may, in initiating a petition for involuntary hospitalization of a person under section 229.6 or at any subsequent time prior to conclusion of the involuntary hospitalization proceeding, also petition the court for a finding that the person is incompetent by reason of mental illness. The test of competence for the purpose of this section shall be whether the person possesses sufficient mind to understand in a reasonable manner the nature and effect of the act in which the person is engaged; the fact that a person is mentally ill and in need of treatment for that illness but because of the illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment does not necessarily mean that that person is incapable of transacting business on any subject.

3. A hearing limited to the question of the person's competence and conducted in substantially the manner prescribed in sections 633.552 to 633.556 shall be held when:

a. The court is petitioned or proposes upon its own motion to find incompetent by reason of mental illness a person whose involuntary hospitalization has been ordered under section 229.13 or 229.14, and who contends that the person is not incompetent; or

b. A person previously found incompetent by reason of mental illness under subsection 2 petitions the court for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent and, after notice to the applicant who initiated the petition for hospitalization of the person and to any other party as directed by the court, an objection is filed with the court. The court may order a hearing on its own motion before acting on a petition filed under this paragraph. A petition by a person for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent may be filed at any time without regard to whether the person is at that time hospitalized for treatment of mental illness.

4. Upon petitioning the court for a finding that a respondent is incompetent by reason of mental illness, the applicant may also request the court to appoint a conservator for the respondent. The court may appoint a temporary conservator as provided by section 633.573, or may defer a decision on the appointment of a conservator until a report is received under section 229.13 if the respondent is hospitalized for evaluation pursuant to that section.

5. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude use of any other procedure authorized by law for declaring any person legally incompetent for reasons which may include mental illness, without regard to whether that person is or has been hospitalized for treatment of mental illness.

When a court finds that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained or proposes to order continued hospitalization of any person, or an alternative placement, under section 229.14, subsection 2 or 4, and the court is furnished evidence that the respondent or patient is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government and that the facility is willing to receive the respondent or patient, the court may so order. The respondent or patient, when so hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government within or outside of this state, shall be subject to the rules of the veterans administration or other agency, but shall not thereby lose any procedural rights afforded the respondent or patient by this chapter. The chief officer of the facility shall have, with respect to the person so hospitalized or placed, the same powers and duties as the chief medical officer of a hospital in this state would have in regard to submission of reports to the court, retention of custody, transfer, convalescent leave or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the court to maintain surveillance of the person's treatment and care, and at any time to inquire into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody.

Upon so doing, the chief medical officer shall notify the court which ordered the person's hospitalization in the same manner as would be required in the case of a transfer under section 229.15, subsection 4, and the person transferred shall be entitled to the same rights as the person would have under that subsection. No person shall be transferred under this section who is confined pursuant to conviction of a public offense or whose hospitalization was ordered upon contention of incompetence to stand trial by reason of mental illness, without prior approval of the court which ordered that person's hospitalization.

229.30 Orders of courts in other states.

A judgment or order of hospitalization or commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia, under which any person is hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, shall have the same force and effect with respect to that person while the person is in this state as the judgment or order would have if the person were in the jurisdiction of the court which issued it. That court shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so hospitalized or placed for the purpose of inquiring into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody, as do courts in this state under section 229.28. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the state or district in which is situated the court which issued the judgment or order as regards authority of the chief officer of any facility, operated in this state by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, to retain custody, transfer, place on convalescent leave or discharge the person so hospitalized or committed.

229.31 Commission of inquiry.

A sworn complaint, alleging that a named person is not seriously mentally impaired and is unjustly deprived of liberty in any hospital in the state, may be filed by any person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such named person is so confined, or of the county in which such named person has a legal settlement, and thereupon a judge of said court shall appoint a commission of not more than three persons to inquire into the truth of said allegations. One of said commissioners shall be a physician and if additional commissioners are appointed, one of such commissioners shall be a lawyer.

Referred to in §229 36

229.32 Duty of commission.

Said commission shall at once proceed to the place where said person is confined and make a thorough and discreet examination for the purpose of determining the truth of said allegations and shall promptly report its findings to said judge in writing. Said report shall be accompanied by a written statement of the case signed by the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the person is confined.

[C73, §1442; C97, §2304; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3572; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §229.32]

Referred to in §229 36

229.33 Hearing.

If, on such report and statement, and the hearing of testimony if any is offered, the judge shall find that such person is not seriously mentally impaired, the judge shall order the person's discharge; if the contrary, the judge shall so state, and authorize the continued detention of the person, subject to all applicable requirements of this Act*.

229.34 Finding and order filed.

The finding and order of the judge, with the report and other papers, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court where the complaint was filed. Said clerk shall enter a memorandum thereof on the appropriate record, and forthwith notify the chief medical officer of the hospital of the finding and order of the judge, and the chief medical officer shall carry out the order.

[C73, §1442; C97, §2304; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3574; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §229.34]

Referred to in §229.36

229.35 Compensation — payment.

Said commissioners shall be entitled to their necessary expenses and a reasonable compensation, to be allowed by the judge, who shall certify the same to the state comptroller who shall thereupon draw the proper warrants on any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. The applicant shall pay said costs and expenses if the judge shall so order on a finding that the complaint was filed without probable cause.

[C73, §1442; C97, §2304; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3575; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §229.35]

Referred to in §229.36

229.36 Limitation on proceedings.

The proceeding authorized in sections 229.31 to 229.35, inclusive, shall not be had oftener than once in six months regarding the same person; nor regarding any patient within six months after the patient's admission to the hospital.

[C73, §1443; C97, §2305; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3576; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §229.36]

229.37 Habeas corpus.

All persons confined as seriously mentally impaired shall be entitled to the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus, and the question of serious mental impairment shall be decided at the hearing. If the judge shall decide that the person is seriously mentally impaired, such decision shall be no bar to the issuing of the writ a second time, whenever it shall be alleged that such person is no longer seriously mentally impaired.

Habeas corpus, ch 663

229.38 Cruelty or official misconduct.

If any person having the care of a mentally ill person who has voluntarily entered a hospital or other facility for treatment or care, or who is responsible for psychiatric examination care, treatment and maintenance of any person involuntarily hospitalized under sections 229.6 to 229.15, whether in a hospital or elsewhere, with or without proper authority, shall treat such patient with unnecessary severity, harshness, or cruelty, or in any way abuse the patient or if any person unlawfully detains or deprives of liberty any mentally ill or allegedly mentally ill person, or if any officer required by the provisions of this chapter and chapters 226 and 227, to perform any act shall willfully refuse or neglect to perform the same, the offending person shall, unless otherwise provided, be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

229.39 Status of persons hospitalized under former law.

1. Each person admitted or committed to a hospital for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 who remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976 shall be considered to have been hospitalized under this chapter, and its provisions shall apply to each such person on and after the effective date of this section, except as otherwise provided by subsection 3.

2. Hospitalization of a person for treatment of mental illness, either voluntary or involuntary, on or before December 31, 1975 does not constitute a finding nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose, including but not limited to the circumstances enumerated in section 229.27, subsection 1. This subsection does not invalidate any specific declaration of incompetence of a person hospitalized if the declaration was made pursuant to a separate procedure authorized by law for that purpose, and did not result automatically from the person's hospitalization.

3. Where a person was hospitalized involuntarily for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 and remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976, but was subsequently discharged prior to July 1, 1978, this section shall not be construed to require:

a. The filing after July 1, 1978 of any report relative to that person's status which would have been required to be filed prior to said date if that person had initially been hospitalized under this chapter as amended by Acts of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly, 1975 Session, chapter 139, sections 1 to 30.

b. That legal proceedings be taken under this chapter, as so amended, to clarify the status of the person so hospitalized, unless that person or the district court considers such proceedings necessary in a particular case to appropriately conclude the matter.

[C79, 81, §229.39]

229.41 Voluntary admission.

Persons making application pursuant to section 229.2 on their own behalf or on behalf of another person who is under eighteen years of age, if the person whose admission is sought is received for observation and treatment on such application, shall be required to pay the costs of hospitalization at rates established by the state director, which costs may be collected weekly in advance and shall be payable at the business office of the hospital. Such collections shall be remitted to the state comptroller monthly to be credited to the general fund of the state.

229.42 Costs paid by county.

If a person wishing to make application for voluntary admission to a mental hospital established by chapter 226 is unable to pay the costs of hospitalization or those responsible for such person are unable to pay such costs, application for authorization of voluntary admission must be made to any clerk of the district court before application for admission is made to the hospital. After determining the county of legal settlement the said clerk shall, on forms provided by the state director, authorize such person's admission to a mental health hospital as a voluntary case. The clerk shall at once provide a duplicate copy of the form to the county board of supervisors. The costs of the hospitalization shall be paid by the county of legal settlement to the state comptroller and credited to the general fund of the state, providing the mental health hospital rendering the services has certified to the county auditor of the responsible county the amount chargeable thereto and has sent a duplicate statement of such charges to the state comptroller.

All the provisions of chapter 230 shall apply to such voluntary patients so far as is applicable.

The provisions of this section and of section 229.41 shall apply to all voluntary inpatients or outpatients either away from or at the institution heretofore or hereafter receiving mental health services.

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from superintendent, the state comptroller shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

229.43 Nonresidents or no-settlement patients.

The state director shall have the power to place patients of mental health institutes who have no county of legal settlement; who are nonresidents; or whose legal settlement is unknown, on convalescent leave to a private sponsor or in any health care facility licensed under chapter 135C, when in the opinion of the state director said placement is in the best interests of the patient and the state of Iowa. If the patient was involuntarily hospitalized the district court which hospitalized the patient must be informed when the patient is placed on convalescent leave, as required by section 229.15, subsection 4.

230.1 Liability of county and state.

The necessary and legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, admission, commitment, and support of a mentally ill person admitted or committed to a state hospital shall be paid:

1. By the county in which such person has a legal settlement, or
2. By the state when such person has no legal settlement in this state, or when such settlement is unknown.

The legal settlement of any person found mentally ill who is a patient of any state institution shall be that existing at the time of admission thereto.

[C73, §1402; C97, §2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3581; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.1]

230.2 Finding of legal settlement.

The district court shall, when a person is ordered placed in a hospital for psychiatric examination and appropriate treatment, or as soon thereafter as it obtains the proper information, determine and enter of record whether the legal settlement of said person is:

1. In the county from which the person was placed in the hospital;
2. In some other county of the state;
3. In some foreign state or country; or
4. Unknown.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.2]

230.3 Certification of settlement.

If such legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state, the court shall, as soon as said determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital to which said patient is admitted or committed, and thereupon said superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of such patient, to the county so certified until said settlement shall be otherwise determined as hereinafter provided.

[C73, §1417; C97, §2281; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3583; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.3]

Referred to in §331.502

230.4 Certification to debtor county.

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the court to the county auditor of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall within sixty days give notice in writing to the court that the county disputes the finding of legal settlement.

[C73, §1402; C97, §2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3584; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.4]

230.5 Nonresidents.

If such legal settlement is found by the court to be in some foreign state or country, or unknown, it shall immediately notify the state director of such finding and furnish the state director with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement, and shall in its order issued pursuant to section 229.13 direct that the patient be hospitalized at the appropriate state hospital for the mentally ill.

[C73, §1402; C97, §2270; S13, §2270, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3585; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.5]

Director, §230.34

230.6 Determination by director.

The state director shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of said patient and proceed as follows:

1. If the state director finds that the decision of the court as to legal settlement is correct, the state director shall cause said patient either to be transferred to a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, or to be transferred, with approval of the court as required by this Act* to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the state director finds that the decision of the court is not correct, the state director shall order said patient to be maintained at a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, and shall at once inform the court of such finding and request that the court's order be modified accordingly.

[S13, §2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3586; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.6]

230.7 Transfer of nonresidents.

Upon determining that a patient in a state hospital who has been involuntarily hospitalized under this Act* or admitted voluntarily at public expense was not a resident of this state at the time of the involuntary hospitalization or admission, the state director may cause that patient to be conveyed to the patient's place of residence. However, a transfer under this section may be made only if the patient's condition so permits and other reasons do not render the transfer inadvisable. If the patient was involuntarily hospitalized, prior approval of the transfer must be obtained from the court which ordered the patient hospitalized.

*66GA, ch 139

230.8 Transfers of mentally ill persons — expenses.

The transfer to state hospitals or to the places of their legal settlement of mentally ill persons who have no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made according to the directions of the state director, and when practicable by employees of state hospitals, and the actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the state director, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

[S13, §2308-a, 2727-a28b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3588; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.8]

Referred to in §230.31

230.9 Subsequent discovery of residence.

If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the mentally ill as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the state director finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of admission or commitment, in a county of this state, said state director shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases.

[S13, §2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3589; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.9]

Collection, §230.20

230.10 Preliminary payment of costs.

All legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, and admission or commitment of a person to a state hospital for the mentally ill under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall, in the first instance, be paid by the county of admission or commitment. The county of such legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such payments, with interest.

[S13, §2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3590; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.10]

230.11 Recovery of costs from state.

Costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, and investigation of a person who has been admitted or committed to a state hospital, veterans administration hospital or other agency of the United States government, for the mentally ill and who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, including cost of commitment, if any, shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county which has paid them, and approved by the state director.

[S13, §2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3591; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.11]

Referred to in §331.502

230.12 Action to determine legal settlement.

When a dispute arises between different counties or between the state director and a county as to the legal settlement of a person admitted or committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill, the attorney general, at the request of the state director, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity.

[C73, §1418; C97, §2270, 2282; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3592; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.12]

Trial, R C P 176 et seq

230.13 Judgment when settlement found within state.

The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of the admission or commitment, was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness, and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due.

230.14 Order when nonresidence or unknown settlement appears.

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of admission or commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said mentally ill person shall be maintained in the hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final.

230.15 Personal liability.

A mentally ill person and a person legally liable for the person's support remain liable for the support of the mentally ill person as provided in this section. Persons legally liable for the support of a mentally ill person include the spouse of the mentally ill person, any person bound by contract for support of the mentally ill person, and, with respect to mentally ill persons under eighteen years of age only, the father and mother of the mentally ill person. The county auditor, subject to the direction of the board of supervisors, shall enforce the obligation created in this section as to all sums advanced by the county. The liability to the county incurred by a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support under this section is limited to an amount equal to one hundred percent of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute for one hundred twenty days of hospitalization. This limit of liability may be reached by payment of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person subsequent to a single admission or multiple admissions to a state mental health institute or, if the person is not discharged as cured, subsequent to a single transfer or multiple transfers to a county care facility pursuant to section 227.11. After reaching this limit of liability, a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support is liable to the county for the care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute or, if transferred but not discharged as cured, at a county care facility in an amount not in excess of the average minimum cost of the maintenance of a physically and mentally healthy individual residing in the individual's own home, which standard shall be established and may from time to time be revised by the department of human services. A lien imposed by section 230.25 shall not exceed the amount of the liability which may be incurred under this section on account of any mentally ill person.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost of the care and treatment of any mentally ill person as established by the department of human services.

230.18 Expense in county or private hospitals.

The estates of mentally ill persons who may be treated or confined in any county hospital or home, or in any private hospital or sanatorium, and the estates of persons legally bound for their support, shall be liable to the county for the reasonable cost of such support.

[R60, §1488; C73, §1433; C97, §2297; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3598; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.18]

230.19 Nonresidents liable to state — presumption.

The estates of all nonresident patients provided for and treated in state hospitals for the mentally ill in this state, and all persons legally bound for the support of such patients, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment of such patients while in such hospitals. The certificate of the superintendent of the state hospital in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient, shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment furnished such patient.

230.20 Statement of charges to counties.

The superintendent of each state hospital for the mentally ill established by section 226.1, or the superintendent's designee, shall for each semiannual period, which shall either begin January 1 or July 1, compute the amounts which are due the state from each county for services rendered by the hospital to patients chargeable to those counties, and shall bill the counties quarterly under subsection 4. Each hospital's charges for services rendered in a semiannual period shall be based on that hospital's expenditures during the immediately preceding semiannual period, and shall be computed as follows:

1. The expenditures of the hospital during a semiannual period shall be separately computed by program in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures. In so doing, the superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall not include any of the following:

a. The costs of food, lodging and other maintenance provided to persons not patients of the hospital.

b. The costs of certain direct medical services, which shall be charged directly against the patient who received the services. The direct medical services to which this paragraph is applicable shall be specifically identified in rules adopted by the department of human services in accordance with chapter 17A, and may include but need not be limited to X-ray, laboratory and dental services.

c. The cost of outpatient and state placement services, which shall be charged directly against the patient who received the services at a rate to be established by the state director on the basis of the actual cost of the services.

2. The total patient days of service provided during a semiannual period shall be identified and accumulated for each program for which expenditures are separately computed under subsection 1 of this section.

3. The total expenditure during a semiannual period computed for each program pursuant to subsection 1 shall be divided by the total patient days of service provided during the semiannual period by that program, determined pursuant to subsection 2, to derive the average daily patient cost for each program.

4. Each county shall be charged an amount computed as follows:

a. The charges attributable to each inpatient chargeable to that county, calculated by multiplying the average daily patient cost for each program under which the patient was served by the number of days the patient was so served during the calendar quarter, and adding the cost of direct medical services received by the patient during the calendar quarter; and

b. The charges attributable to each outpatient chargeable to that county who was served by the hospital during the calendar quarter, calculated at the cost established under subsection 1, paragraph "c".

5. An individual statement shall be prepared for a patient on or before the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding the month in which that patient leaves the hospital, and a general statement shall be prepared at least quarterly for each county to which charges are made under this section. Except as otherwise required by sections 125.33 and 125.34 the general statement shall list the name of each patient chargeable to that county who was served by the hospital during the preceding month or calendar quarter and the amount due on account of each patient, and the county shall be billed for eighty percent of the stated charge for each patient specified in this subsection. The statement prepared for each county shall be certified by the superintendent of the hospital to the state comptroller and a duplicate statement shall be mailed to the auditor of that county.

6. All or any reasonable portion of the charges incurred for services rendered to any patient, to the most recent date for which the charges have been computed, may be paid at any time by the patient or by any other person on the patient's behalf. Any payment so made, and any federal financial assistance received pursuant to title XVIII or XIX of the United States Social Security Act for services rendered to a patient, shall be credited against the patient's account and, if the charges so paid have previously been billed to a county, reflected in the hospital's next general statement to that county.

230.21 Duty of county auditor and treasurer.

The county auditor, upon receipt of the duplicate statement required by section 230.20, shall enter it to the credit of the state in the ledger of state accounts, shall furnish to the board of supervisors a list of the names of the persons so certified, and at once issue a notice authorizing the county treasurer to transfer the amount billed to the county by the statement, from the county to the general state revenue, which notice shall be filed by the treasurer as authority for making the transfer. The auditor shall promptly remit the amount so transferred to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which it belongs.

230.22 Penalty.

Should any county fail to pay the amount billed by a statement submitted pursuant to section 230.20 within sixty days from the date the statement is certified by the superintendent, the state comptroller shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from the date the statement is certified until paid. Provided, however, that the penalty shall not be imposed if the county has notified the comptroller of error or questionable items in the billing, in which event, the comptroller may suspend penalty only during the period of negotiation.

230.25 Financial investigation by supervisors.

1. Upon receipt from the county auditor of the list of names furnished pursuant to section 230.21, the board of supervisors shall make an investigation to determine the ability of each person whose name appears on the list, and also the ability of any person liable under section 230.15 for the support of that person, to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization. If the board finds that neither the hospitalized person nor any person legally liable for the person's support is able to pay those expenses, they shall direct the county auditor not to index the names of any of those persons as would otherwise be required by section 230.26. However the board may review its finding with respect to any person at any subsequent time at which another list is furnished by the auditor upon which that person's name appears. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally liable for the person's support are presently able to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization, that finding shall apply only to charges stated upon the certificate from which the list was drawn up and any subsequent charges similarly certified, unless and until the board again changes its finding.

2. All liens created under section 230.25, as that section appeared in the Code of 1975 and prior editions of the Code, are abolished effective January 1, 1977, except as otherwise provided by subsection 1. The board of supervisors of each county shall, as soon as practicable after July 1, 1976, review all liens resulting from the operation of said section 230.25, Code 1975, and make a determination as to the ability of the person against whom the lien exists to pay the charges represented by the lien, and if they find that the person is able to pay those charges they shall direct the county attorney of that county to take immediate action to enforce the lien. If action is commenced under this section on any lien prior to the effective date of the abolition thereof, that lien shall not be abolished but shall continue until the action is completed. The board of supervisors shall release any such lien when the charge on which the lien is based is fully paid or is compromised and settled by the board in such manner as its members deem to be in the best interest of the county, or when the estate affected by the lien has been probated and the proceeds allowable have been applied on the lien.

230.26 Auditor to keep record.

The auditor of each county shall keep an accurate account of the cost of the maintenance of any patient kept in any institution as provided for in this chapter and keep an index of the names of the persons admitted or committed from such county. The name of the husband or the wife of such person designating such party as the spouse of the person admitted or committed shall also be indexed in the same manner as the names of the persons admitted or committed are indexed. The book shall be designated as an account book or index, and shall have no reference in any place to a lien.

230.31 Departers from other states.

When any mentally ill person departs without proper authority from an institution in another state and is found in this state, any peace officer in any county in which such patient is found may take and detain the patient without order and shall report such detention to the state director who shall provide for the return of such patient to the authorities of the state where the unauthorized leave was made. Pending such return such patient may be detained temporarily at one of the institutions of this state governed by the state director or any other director of the state department of human services. Expenses incurred under this section shall be paid in the same manner as is provided for transfers in section 230.8.

230A.1 Establishment and support of community mental health centers.

A county or affiliated counties, by action of the board or boards of supervisors, with approval of the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, may establish a community mental health center under this chapter to serve the county or counties. In establishing the community mental health center, the board of supervisors of each county involved may make a single non-recurring expenditure, in an amount determined by the board. This section does not limit the authority of the board or boards of supervisors of any county or group of counties to continue to expend money to support operation of the center, and to form agreements with the board of supervisors of any additional county for that county to join in supporting and receiving services from or through the center.

[C66, 71, 73, §230.24; C75, 77, 79, 81, §81, §230A.1; 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 41, ch 117, §1029]

230A.2 Services offered.

A community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A.1 may offer to residents of the county or counties it serves any or all of the mental health services defined by the mental health and mental retardation commission in the state mental health plan.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.2; 82 Acts, ch 1117, §3]

Referred to in §230A 10, 230A 12, 230A 14

230A.3 Forms of organization.

Each community mental health center established or continued in operation as authorized by section 230A.1 shall be organized and administered in accordance with one of the two alternative forms prescribed by this chapter. The two alternative forms are:

1. Direct establishment of the center by the county or counties supporting it and administration of the center by an elected board of trustees, pursuant to sections 230A.4 to 230A.11.

2. Establishment of the center by a nonprofit corporation providing services to the county or counties on the basis of an agreement with the board or boards of supervisors, pursuant to sections 230A.12 and 230A.13.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.3]

Referred to in §230A 12

230A.4 Trustees — qualifications — manner of selection.

When the board or boards of supervisors of a county or affiliated counties decides to directly establish a community mental health center under this chapter, the supervisors, acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties, shall appoint a board of community mental health center trustees to serve until the next succeeding general election. The board of trustees shall consist of at least seven members each of whom shall be a resident of the county or one of the counties served by the center. An employee of the center is not eligible for the office of community mental health center trustee. At the first general election following establishment of the center, all members of the board of trustees shall be elected. They shall assume office on the second day of the following January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday, and shall at once divide themselves by lot into three classes of as nearly equal size as possible. The first class shall serve for terms of two years, the second class for terms of four years, and the third class for terms of six years. Thereafter, a member shall be elected to the board of trustees for a term of six years at each general election to succeed each member whose term will expire in the following year.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §230A.4; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1030]

Referred to in §230A 3, 331 321

230A.5 Election of trustees.

The election of community mental health center trustees shall take place at the general election on ballots which shall not reflect a nominee's political affiliation. Nomination shall be made by petition in accordance with chapter 45. The petition form shall be furnished by the county commissioner of elections, signed by eligible electors of the county or affiliated counties equal in number to one percent of the vote cast therein for president of the United States or governor, as the case may be, in the last previous general election, and shall be filed with the county commissioner of elections at least fifty-five days prior to the date of the general election. A plurality shall be sufficient to elect community mental health center trustees, and no primary election for that office shall be held.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.5]

Referred to in §230A.3, 230A.16

230A.6 Vacancies.

Vacancies on the community mental health center board of trustees shall be filled by appointment in accordance with sections 69.11 and 69.12, by the remaining trustees, except that if the offices of more than half of the members of the board are vacant at any one time the vacancies shall be filled by the board of supervisors or boards of supervisors acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties. The office of any trustee who is absent from four consecutive regular board meetings, without prior excuse, may be declared vacant by the board of trustees and filled in accordance with this section.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.6]

Referred to in §230A.3, 230A.16, 331.321

230A.7 Organization — meetings — quorum.

The members of the board of community mental health center trustees shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office within ten days after their appointment or prior to the beginning of the term to which they were elected, as the case may be. At the initial meeting following appointment of a board of trustees or of a majority of the members of a board, and at the first meeting in January after each biennial general election, the board shall organize by election of one of the trustees as chairperson, one as secretary and one as treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall each file with the chairperson a surety bond in a penal sum set by the board of trustees and with sureties approved by the board for the use and benefit of the center, the reasonable cost of which shall be paid from the operating funds of the center. No other members of the board shall be required to post bond. The board shall meet at least once each month. One half plus one of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.7]

Referred to in §230A.3

230A.8 Duties of secretary.

1. The secretary shall report to the county auditor and treasurer the names of the chairperson, secretary and treasurer of the community mental health center board of trustees as soon as practicable after each has qualified.

2. The secretary shall keep a complete record of all proceedings of the board of trustees.

3. The secretary shall draw warrants on the funds of the center, which shall be countersigned by the chairperson of the board of trustees, after claims are certified by the board.

4. The secretary shall file with the board of trustees, on or before the tenth day of each month, a complete statement of all receipts and disbursements from the center's funds during the preceding month and the balance remaining on hand at the close of the month.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.8]

Referred to in §230A.3, 230A.9

230A.9 Duties of treasurer.

1. The treasurer of the community mental health center shall receive the funds made available to the center by the county or counties it serves, and any other funds which may be made available to the center, and shall disburse the center's funds upon warrants drawn as required by section 230A.8, subsection 3.

2. The treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements and shall register all orders drawn and reported to the treasurer by the secretary, showing the number, date, to whom drawn, the purpose and amount.

3. At intervals specified by the county board of supervisors, not less often than once each ninety days, the county treasurer of each county served by the center shall notify the chairperson of the center's board of trustees of all amounts due the center from the county which have not previously been paid over to the treasurer of the center. The chairperson shall then file a claim for payment as specified in sections 331.504, subsection 7, 331.506 and 331.554. Section 331.504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, the claims shall not include information which in any manner identifies an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at the center.

Referred to in §230A.3

230A.10 Powers and duties of trustees.

The community mental health center board of trustees shall:

1. Have authority to adopt bylaws and rules for its own guidance and for the government of the center.

2. Employ a director and staff for the center, fix their compensation, and have control over the director and staff.

3. Designate at least one of the trustees to visit and review the operation of the center at least once each month.

4. Procure and pay premiums on insurance policies required for the prudent management of the center, including but not limited to public liability, professional malpractice liability, workers' compensation and vehicle liability, any of which may include as additional insureds the board of trustees and employees of the center.

5. Establish, with approval of the board or joint boards of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, standards to be followed in determining whether and to what extent persons seeking services from the center shall be considered able to pay the cost of the services received.

6. Establish, with approval of the board or joint boards of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, policies regarding whether the services of the center will be made available to persons who are not residents of the county or counties served by the center, and if so upon what terms.

7. Purchase or lease a site for the center, and provide and equip suitable quarters for the center.

8. Prepare and approve plans and specifications for all center buildings and equipment, and advertise for bids as required by law for county buildings before making any contract for the construction of any building or purchase of equipment.

9. File with the board of supervisors within thirty days after the close of each budget year, a report covering their proceedings with reference to the center and a statement of all receipts and expenditures during the preceding budget year.

10. Accept property by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise; and, if the board deems it advisable, may, at public sale, sell or exchange any property so accepted upon a concurring vote of a majority of all members of the board of trustees, and apply the proceeds thereof, or property received in exchange therefor, to the purposes enumerated in subsection 7, or to purchase equipment.

11. There shall be published quarterly in each of the official newspapers of the county as selected by the board of supervisors pursuant to section 349.1 the schedule of bills allowed and there shall be published annually in such newspapers the schedule of salaries paid by job classification and category, but not by listing names of individual employees. The names, addresses, salaries and job classification of all employees paid in whole or in part from public funds shall be a public record and open to inspection at reasonable times as designated by the board of trustees.

12. Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the community mental health center from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies and other lawful sources.

13. Accept and expend state and federal funds available directly to the community mental health center for all or any part of the cost of any service the center is authorized to provide.

14. Enter into a contract with an affiliate, which may be an individual or a public or private group, agency, or corporation, organized and operating on either a profit or a nonprofit basis, for any of the services described in section 230A.2, to be provided by the affiliate to residents of the county or counties served by the community mental health center who are patients or clients of the center and are referred by the center to the affiliate for service.

230A.11 Trustees — reimbursement — restrictions.

1. No community mental health center trustee shall receive any compensation for services in that office, but the trustee shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary personal expenses incurred in the performance of the trustee's duties. An itemized and verified statement of any such expenses may be filed with the secretary of the board of trustees, and shall be allowed upon approval by the board.

2. No trustee shall have, directly or indirectly, any pecuniary interest in the purchase or sale of any commodities or supplies procured for or disposed of by the center.

Referred to in §230A 3

230A.12 Center organized as nonprofit corporation — agreement with county.

Each community mental health center established or continued in operation pursuant to section 230A.3, subsection 2, shall be organized under the Iowa nonprofit corporation Act appearing as chapter 504A, except that a community mental health center organized under chapter 504 prior to July 1, 1974, shall not be required by this chapter to adopt the Iowa nonprofit corporation Act if it is not otherwise required to do so by law. The board of directors of each such community mental health center shall enter into an agreement with the county or affiliated counties which are to be served by the center, which agreement shall include but need not be limited to the period of time for which the agreement is to be in force, what services the center is to provide for residents of the county or counties to be served, standards the center is to follow in determining whether and to what extent persons seeking services from the center shall be considered able to pay the cost of the services received, and policies regarding availability of the center's services to persons who are not residents of the county or counties served by the center. The board of directors, in addition to exercising the powers of the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation may:

1. Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the community mental health center from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies, and other lawful sources.

2. Accept and expend state and federal funds available directly to the community mental health center for all or any part of the cost of any service the center is authorized to provide.

3. Enter into a contract with an affiliate, which may be an individual or a public or private group, agency or corporation, organized and operating on either a profit or a nonprofit basis, for any of the services described in section 230A.2, to be provided by the affiliate to residents of the county or counties served by the community mental health center who are patients or clients of the center and are referred by the center to the affiliate for service.

Referred to in §225C 15, 230A 3

230A.13 Annual budget.

The board of directors of each community mental health center which is organized as a nonprofit corporation shall prepare an annual budget for the center and, when satisfied with the budget, submit it to the auditor or auditors of the county or affiliated counties served by the center, at the time and in the manner prescribed by chapter 24. The budget shall be subject to review by and approval of the board of supervisors of the county which is served by the center or, in the case of a center serving affiliated counties, by the board of supervisors of each county, acting separately, to the extent the budget is to be financed by taxes levied by that county or by funds allocated to that county by the state which the county may by law use to help support the center.

Release of information which would identify an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at a community mental health center shall not be made a condition of support of that center by any county under this section. Section 331.504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, a community mental health center shall not be required to file a claim which would in any manner identify such an individual, if the center's budget has been approved by the county board under this section and the center is in compliance with section 230A.16, subsection 3.

83 Acts, ch 101, §43

Referred to in §230A.3

230A.14 Support of center — federal funds.

The board of supervisors of any county served by a community mental health center established or continued in operation as authorized by section 230A.1 may expend money from county funds, federal revenue-sharing funds, or other federal matching funds designated by the board of supervisors for that purpose, without a vote of the electorate of the county, to pay the cost of any services described in section 230A.2 which are provided by the center or by an affiliate under contract with the center, or to pay the cost of or grant funds for establishing, reconstructing, remodeling or improving any facility required for the center. However, the county board shall not expend money from that fund, except for designated revenue-sharing or other federal matching funds, for mental health treatment obtained outside a state institution in an amount exceeding eight dollars per capita in any county having less than forty thousand population.

230A.15 Comprehensive community mental health program.

A community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A.1, or which a county or group of counties has agreed to establish or support pursuant to that section, may with approval of the board or boards of supervisors of the county or counties supporting or establishing the center, undertake to provide a comprehensive community mental health program for the county or counties. A center providing a comprehensive community mental health program shall, at a minimum, make available to residents of the county or counties it serves all of the comprehensive mental health services described in the state mental health plan.

230A.16 Establishment of standards.

The director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall recommend and the mental health and mental retardation commission shall adopt standards for community mental health centers and comprehensive community mental health programs, with the overall objective of ensuring that each center and each affiliate providing services under contract with a center furnishes high quality mental health services within a framework of accountability to the community it serves. The standards shall be in substantial conformity with those of the psychiatric committee of the joint committee on accreditation of hospitals and other recognized national standards for evaluation of psychiatric facilities unless in the judgment of the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, with approval of the mental health and mental retardation commission, there are sound reasons for departing from such standards. When recommending standards under this section, the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall designate an advisory committee representing boards of directors and professional staff of community mental health centers to assist in the formulation or revision of standards. At least a simple majority of the members of the advisory committee shall be lay representatives of community mental health center boards of directors. At least one member of the advisory committee shall be a member of a county board of supervisors. The standards recommended under this section shall include requirements that each community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A.1 shall:

1. Maintain and make available to the public a written statement of the services it offers to residents of the county or counties it serves, and employ or contract for services with affiliates employing specified minimum numbers of professional personnel possessing specified appropriate credentials to assure that the services offered are furnished in a manner consistent with currently accepted professional standards in the field of mental health.

2. Unless it is governed by a board of trustees elected or selected under sections 230A.5 and 230A.6, be governed by a board of directors which adequately represents interested professions, consumers of the center's services, socioeconomic, cultural, and age groups, and various geographical areas in the county or counties served by the center.

3. Arrange for the financial condition and transactions of the community mental health center to be audited once each year by the auditor of state. However, in lieu of an audit by state accountants, the local governing body of a community mental health center organized under this chapter may contract with or employ certified public accountants to conduct the audit, pursuant to the applicable terms and conditions prescribed by sections 11.18 and 11.19 and audit format prescribed by the auditor of state. Copies of each audit shall be furnished by the accountant to the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, and the board of supervisors supporting the audited community mental health center.

4. Adopt and implement procedural rules ensuring that no member of the center's board of directors, or board of trustees receives from the center information which identifies or is intended to permit the members of the board to identify any person who is a client of that center.

230A.17 Review and evaluation.

The director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities may review and evaluate any community mental health center upon the recommendation of the mental health and mental retardation commission, and shall do so upon the written request of the center's board of directors, its chief medical or administrative officer, or the board of supervisors of any county from which the center receives public funds. The cost of the review shall be paid by the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities.

230A.18 Report of review and evaluation.

Upon completion of a review made pursuant to section 230A.17, the review shall be submitted to the board of directors and chief medical or administrative officer of the center. If the review concludes that the center fails to meet any of the standards established pursuant to section 230A.16, subsection 1, and that the response of the center to this finding is unsatisfactory, these conclusions shall be reported to the mental health and mental retardation commission which may forward the conclusions to the board of directors of the center and request an appropriate response within thirty days. If no response is received within thirty days, or if the response is unsatisfactory, the commission may call this fact to the attention of the board of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, and in doing so shall indicate what corrective steps have been recommended to the center's board of directors.

DIVISION I

232.1 Rules of construction.

This chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that each child under the jurisdiction of the court shall receive, preferably in the child's own home, the care, guidance and control that will best serve the child's welfare and the best interest of the state. When a child is removed from the control of the child's parents, the court shall secure for the child care as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by the parents.

DEFINITIONS

232.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Abandonment of a child" means the permanent relinquishment or surrender, without reference to any particular person, of the parental rights, duties, or privileges inherent in the parent-child relationship. Proof of abandonment must include both the intention to abandon and the acts by which the intention is evidenced. The term does not require that the relinquishment or surrender be over any particular period of time.

2. "Adjudicatory hearing" means a hearing to determine if the allegations of a petition are true.

3. "Adult" means a person other than a child.

4. "Case permanency plan" means the plan, mandated by Pub. L. No. 96-272, as codified in 42 U.S.C., secs. 671(a)(16), 627(a)(2)(B), and 675(1),(5), designed to achieve placement in the least restrictive, most family-like setting available and in close proximity to the parent's home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child. The plan shall specifically include all of the following:

a. Plans for carrying out the voluntary placement agreement or judicial determination pursuant to which the child entered care.

b. The type and appropriateness of the placement and services to be provided to the child.

c. The care and services that will be provided to the child, natural parents, and foster parents.

d. How the care and services will meet the needs of the child while in care and will facilitate the child's return home or other permanent placement.

5. "Child" means a person under eighteen years of age.

6. "Child in need of assistance" means an unmarried child:

a. Whose parent, guardian or other custodian has abandoned the child.

b. Whose parent, guardian or other custodian has physically abused or neglected the child, or is imminently likely to abuse or neglect the child.

c. Who has suffered or is imminently likely to suffer harmful effects as a result of:

(1) Conditions created by the child's parent, guardian, custodian; or

(2) The failure of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to exercise a reasonable degree of care in supervising the child.

d. Who has been sexually abused by the child's parent, guardian, custodian or other member of the household in which the child resides.

e. Who is in need of medical treatment to cure, alleviate, or prevent serious physical injury or illness and whose parent, guardian or custodian is unwilling or unable to provide such treatment.

f. Who is in need of treatment to cure or alleviate serious mental illness or disorder, or emotional damage as evidenced by severe anxiety, depression, withdrawal or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others and whose parent, guardian, or custodian is unwilling or unable to provide such treatment.

g. Whose parent, guardian, or custodian fails to exercise a minimal degree of care in supplying the child with adequate food, clothing or shelter and refuses other means made available to provide such essentials.

h. Who has committed a delinquent act as a result of pressure, guidance, or approval from a parent, guardian, or custodian.

i. Who has been the subject of or a party to sexual activities for hire or who poses for live display or for photographic or other means of pictorial reproduction or display which is designed to appeal to the prurient interest and is patently offensive; and taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, scientific, political or artistic value.

j. Who is without a parent, guardian or other custodian.

k. Whose parent, guardian, or other custodian for good cause desires to be relieved of the child's care and custody.

l Who for good cause desires to have the child's parents relieved of the child's care and custody

m Who is in need of treatment to cure or alleviate chemical dependency and whose parent, guardian, or custodian is unwilling or unable to provide such treatment

7 "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of human services or that person's designee

8 "Complaint" means an oral or written report which is made to the juvenile court by any person and alleges that a child is within the jurisdiction of the court

9 "Court" means the juvenile court established under section 602 7101

10 "Criminal justice agency" means any agency which has as its primary responsibility the enforcement of the state's criminal laws or of local ordinances made pursuant to state law

11 "Custodian" means a step-parent or a relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity to a minor child who has assumed responsibility for that child, a person who has accepted a release of custody pursuant to division IV or a person appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over a child. The rights and duties of a custodian with respect to a child shall be as follows a To maintain or transfer to another the physical possession of that child

b To protect, train, and discipline that child

c To provide food, clothing, housing, and medical care for that child

d To consent to emergency medical care, including surgery

e To sign a release of medical information to a health professional

All rights and duties of a custodian shall be subject to any residual rights and duties remaining in a parent or guardian

12 "Delinquent act" means a The violation of any state law or local ordinance which would constitute a public offense if committed by an adult except any offense which by law is exempted from the jurisdiction of this chapter

b The violation of a federal law or a law of another state which violation constitutes a criminal offense if the case involving that act has been referred to the juvenile court

13 "Department" means the department of human services and includes the local, county and regional officers of the department

14 "Detention" means the temporary care of a child in a physically restricting facility designed to ensure the continued custody of the child at any point between the child's initial contact with the juvenile authorities and the final disposition of the child's case

15 "Detention hearing" means a hearing at which the court determines whether it is necessary to place or retain a child in detention

16 "Dismissal of complaint" means the termination of all proceedings against a child

17 "Dispositional hearing" means a hearing held after an adjudication to determine what dispositional order should be made

18 "Family in need of assistance" means a family in which there has been a breakdown in the relationship between a child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian

19 "Guardian" means a person who is not the parent of a child, but who has been appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the child, to make important decisions which have a permanent effect on the life and development of that child and to promote the general welfare of that child. A guardian may be a court or a juvenile court. Guardian does not mean conservator, as defined in section 633 3, although a person who is appointed to be a guardian may also be appointed to be a conservator

Unless otherwise enlarged or circumscribed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the child or by operation of law, the rights and duties of a guardian with respect to a child shall be as follows a To consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, or medical, psychiatric, or surgical treatment

b To serve as guardian ad litem, unless the interests of the guardian conflict with the interests of the child or unless another person has been appointed guardian ad litem

c To serve as custodian, unless another person has been appointed custodian

d To make periodic visitations if the guardian does not have physical possession or custody of the child

e To consent to adoption and to make any other decision that the parents could have made when the parent child relationship existed

20 "Guardian ad litem" means a person appointed by the court to represent the interests of the child in any judicial proceeding to which the child is a party

21 "Health practitioner" means a licensed physician or surgeon, osteopath, osteopathic physician or surgeon, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or chiropractor, a resident or intern of any such profession, and any registered nurse or licensed practical nurse

22 "Informal adjustment" means the disposition of a complaint without the filing of a petition and may include but is not limited to the following a Placement of the child on nonjudicial probation

b Provision of intake services

c Referral of the child to a public or private agency other than the court for services

23 "Informal adjustment agreement" means an agreement between an intake officer, a child who is the subject of a complaint, and the child's parent, guardian or custodian providing for the informal adjustment of the complaint

24 "Intake" means the preliminary screening of complaints by an intake officer to determine whether the court should take some action and if so, what action

232.3 Concurrent court proceedings.

1. During the pendency of an action under this chapter, a party to the action is estopped from litigating concurrently the custody, guardianship, or placement of a child who is the subject of the action, in a court other than the juvenile court. A district judge, district associate judge, magistrate, or judicial hospitalization referee, upon notice of the pendency of an action under this chapter, shall not issue an order, finding, or decision relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action, under any law, including but not limited to chapter 598, 598A, or 633.

2. The juvenile court with jurisdiction of the pending action under this chapter, however, may, upon the request of a party to the action or on its own motion, authorize the party to litigate concurrently in another court a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action. Before authorizing a party to litigate a specific issue in another court, the juvenile court shall give all parties to the action an opportunity to be heard on the proposed authorization. The juvenile court may request but shall not require another court to exercise jurisdiction and adjudicate a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child.

DIVISION II

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY PROCEEDINGS

Referred to in §232.11

PART 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

232.8 Jurisdiction.

1. The juvenile court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning any child who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act unless otherwise provided by law, and shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning an adult who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act prior to having become an adult, provided that the taking of that person into custody for the alleged act or the filing of a delinquency petition alleging the commission of the act occurs

a. Less than one year after the alleged commission of an act which would be a simple misdemeanor if committed by an adult; or

b. Less than two years after the alleged commission of an act which would be an offense other than a simple misdemeanor if committed by an adult.

Violations by a child of provisions of chapter 106, 106A, 109, 109A, 110, 110A, 110B, 111, 321, or 321G which would be simple misdemeanors if committed by an adult, violations of county or municipal curfew or traffic ordinances, and violations by a child of the provisions of section 123.47, are excluded from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and shall be prosecuted as simple misdemeanors as provided by law. The court may advise appropriate juvenile authorities and may refer violations of section 123.47 to the juvenile court when there is reason to believe that the child regularly abuses alcohol and may be in need of treatment. The court shall notify the parents or legal guardians of a child that appears before it for a violation of section 123.47.

2. A case involving a person charged in a court other than the juvenile court with the commission of a public offense not exempted by law from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and who is within the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall immediately be transferred to the juvenile court. The transferring court shall order a transfer and shall forward the transfer order together with all papers, documents and a transcript of all testimony filed or admitted into evidence in connection with the case to the clerk of the juvenile court. The jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall attach immediately upon the signing of an order of transfer. From the time of transfer, the custody, shelter care and detention of the person alleged to have committed a delinquent act shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the case shall be processed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

3. The juvenile court, after a hearing and in accordance with the provisions of section 232.45, may waive jurisdiction of a child alleged to have committed a public offense so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult for such offense in another court. If the child pleads guilty or is found guilty of a public offense in another court of this state that court may, with the consent of the child, defer judgment and without regard to restrictions placed upon deferred judgments for adults, place the child on probation for a period not less than one year upon such conditions as it may require. Upon fulfillment of the conditions of probation the child shall be discharged without entry of judgment.

4. Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted as affecting the statutory limitations on prosecutions for murder in the first or second degree.

Referred to in §232.53

232.9 Motion for change of judge.

Prior to a hearing pursuant to sections 232.44 to 232.47, 232.50 or 232.54, the child may file a motion with the district court for the appointment of a new judge. The chief judge of the district court for cause shown shall appoint a new judge.

[C79, 81, §232.9]

232.10 Venue.

1. Venue for delinquency proceedings shall be in the judicial district where the child is found, where the child resides or where the alleged delinquent act occurred.

2. The court may transfer delinquency proceedings to the court of any county having venue at any stage in the proceeding as follows:

a. When it appears that the best interests of the minor or society or the convenience of the parties will be served by a transfer, the court may transfer the case to the court of the county of the child's residence.

b. With the consent of the receiving court the court may transfer the case to the court of the county where the minor is found.

c. The court may transfer the case to the county where the alleged delinquent act occurred.

3. The court shall transfer the case by ordering the transfer and a continuance and by forwarding to the clerk of the receiving court a certified copy of all papers filed together with an order of transfer. The judge of the receiving court may accept the filings of the transferring court or may direct the filing of a new petition and hear the case anew.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, §232.68-232.70; C79, 81, §232.10]

232.11 Right to assistance of counsel.

1. A child shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the following stages of the proceedings within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under division II:

a. From the time the child is taken into custody for any alleged delinquent act that constitutes a serious or aggravated misdemeanor or felony under the Iowa criminal code, and during any questioning thereafter by a peace officer or probation officer.

b. A detention or shelter care hearing as required by section 232.44.

c. A waiver hearing as required by section 232.45.

d. An adjudicatory hearing required by section 232.47.

e. A dispositional hearing as required by section 232.50.

f. Hearings to review and modify a dispositional order as required by section 232.54.

2. The child's right to be represented by counsel under subsection 1, paragraphs "b" to "f" of this section shall not be waived by a child of any age. The child's right to be represented by counsel under subsection 1, paragraph "a" shall not be waived by a child less than sixteen years of age without the written consent of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. The waiver by a child who is at least sixteen years of age is valid only if a good faith effort has been made to notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian that the child has been taken into custody and of the alleged delinquent act for which the child has been taken into custody, the location of the child, and the right of the parent, guardian, or custodian to visit and confer with the child.

3. If the child is not represented by counsel as required under subsection 1, counsel shall be provided as follows:

a. If the court determines, after giving the child's parent, guardian or custodian an opportunity to be heard, that such person has the ability in whole or in part to pay for the employment of counsel, it shall either order that person to retain an attorney to represent the child or shall appoint counsel for the child and order the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for that counsel as provided in subsection 5.

b. If the court determines that the parent, guardian or custodian cannot pay any part of the expenses of counsel to represent the child, it shall appoint such counsel, who shall be reimbursed according to the provisions of section 232.141, subsection 1, paragraph "d".

c. The court may appoint counsel to represent the child and reserve the determination of payment until the parent, guardian or custodian has an opportunity to be heard.

4. If the child is represented by counsel and the court determines that there is a conflict of interest between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian and that the retained counsel could not properly represent the child as a result of the conflict, the court shall appoint other counsel to represent the child and order the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for such counsel as provided in subsection 5.

5. If the court determines, after an inquiry which includes notice and reasonable opportunity to be heard that the parent, guardian or custodian has the ability to pay in whole or in part for the attorney appointed for the child, the court may order that person to pay such sums as the court finds appropriate in the manner and to whom the court directs. If the person so ordered fails to comply with the order without good reason, the court shall enter judgment against the person.

6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the child or the child's parent, guardian or custodian from retaining counsel to represent the child in proceedings under this division II of this chapter in which the alleged delinquent act constitutes a simple misdemeanor under the Iowa Code.

PART 2

CHILD CUSTODY

232.19 Taking a child into custody.

1. A child may be taken into custody:

a. By order of the court.

b. For a delinquent act pursuant to the laws relating to arrest.

c. By a peace officer for the purpose of reuniting a child with the child's family or removing the child to a shelter care facility when the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe the child has run away from the child's parents, guardian, or custodian.

d By a peace officer, juvenile court officer, or juvenile parole officer when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the child has committed a material violation of a dispositional order.

2. When a child is taken into custody as provided in subsection 1 the person taking the child into custody shall notify the child's parent, guardian or custodian as soon as possible and shall not place bodily restraints, such as handcuffs, on the child unless the child physically resists or threatens physical violence when being taken into custody. Unless the child is placed in shelter care or detention in accordance with the provisions of sections 232.21 or 232.22, the child shall be released to the child's parent, guardian, custodian, responsible adult relative, or other adult approved by the court upon the promise of such person to produce the child in court at such time as the court may direct.

[SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.14; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.15, 232.16; C79, 81, §232.19]

232.20 Admission of child to shelter care or detention.

1. If a child is taken into custody and not released as provided in section 232.19, subsection 2, the child shall immediately be taken to a detention or shelter care facility as specified in sections 232.21 or 232.22.

2. When a child is admitted to a detention or shelter care facility the person in charge of the facility or the person's designated representative shall notify the court, the child's attorney, and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian as soon as possible of the admission and the reasons for that admission.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.17; C79, 81, §232.20]

232.21 Placement in shelter care.

1. No child shall be placed in shelter care unless one of the following circumstances applies:

a The child has no parent, guardian, custodian, responsible adult relative or other adult approved by the court who will provide proper shelter, care and supervision.

b The child desires to be placed in shelter care.

c It is necessary to hold the child until the child's parent, guardian, or custodian has been contacted and has taken custody of the child.

d It is necessary to hold the child for transfer to another jurisdiction.

e The child is being placed pursuant to an order of the court.

2. A child may be placed in shelter care as provided in this section only in one of the following facilities:

a A juvenile shelter care home.

b A licensed foster home.

c An institution or other facility operated by the department of human services, or one which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child.

d Any other suitable place designated by the court provided that no place used for the detention of a child may be so designated.

3. When there is reason to believe that a child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" would not voluntarily remain in the shelter care facility, the shelter care facility shall impose reasonable restrictions necessary to ensure the child's continued custody.

4. A child placed in a shelter care facility under this section shall not be held for a period in excess of forty-eight hours without an oral or written court order authorizing the shelter care. When the action is authorized by an oral court order, the court shall enter a written order before the end of the next day confirming the oral order and indicating the reasons for the order. A child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" shall not be held in excess of seventy-two hours in any event.

5. If no satisfactory provision is made for uniting a child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" with the child's family, a child in need of assistance complaint may be filed pursuant to section 232.81. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the right of a child to file a family in need of assistance petition under section 232.125.

[S13, §254-a24; SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3633; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.17; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.17, 232.18; C79, 81, §232.21; 82 Acts, ch 1209, §3]

232.22 Placement in detention.

1. No child shall be placed in detention unless:

a The child is being held under warrant for another jurisdiction; or b The child is an escapee from a juvenile correctional or penal institution; or c There is probable cause to believe that the child has violated conditions of release imposed under section 232.44, subsection 5, paragraph "b", 232.52, or 232.54 and there is a substantial probability that the child will run away or otherwise be unavailable for subsequent court appearance; or d There is probable cause to believe the child has committed a delinquent act, and:

(1) There is a substantial probability that the child will run away or otherwise be unavailable for subsequent court appearance; or

(2) There is a serious risk that the child if released may commit an act which would inflict serious bodily harm on the child or on another; or

(3) There is a serious risk that the child if released may commit serious damage to the property of others.

2. A child may be placed in detention as provided in this section only in one of the following facilities:

a A juvenile detention home.

b Any other suitable place designated by the court.

c A room in a facility intended or used for the detention of adults if there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act, and if:

(1) The child is at least fourteen years of age; and

(2) The child has shown by the child's conduct, habits, or condition that the child constitutes an immediate and serious danger to the child's self or to another, or to the property of another and a facility or place enumerated in paragraph "a" or "b" of this subsection is unavailable, or the court determines that the child's conduct or condition endangers the safety of others in the facility; and

(3) The facility has an adequate staff to supervise and monitor the child's activities at all times; and

(4) The child is confined in a room entirely separated from adults.

d. A place used for the detention of children prior to an adjudicatory hearing may also be used for the detention of a child awaiting disposition to a placement under section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "e" while the adjudicated child is awaiting transfer to the disposition placement.

3. A child shall not be held in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "a" or "b" for a period in excess of twenty-four hours without an oral or written court order authorizing the detention. When the detention is authorized by an oral court order, the court shall enter a written order before the end of the next day confirming the oral order and indicating the reasons for the order.

4. A child shall not be detained in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "c" for a period in excess of twelve hours without the oral or written order of a judge or a magistrate authorizing the detention. When the detention is authorized by an oral court order, the court shall enter a written order before the end of the next day confirming the oral order and indicating the reasons for the order.

INTAKE

232.28 Intake.

1. Any person having knowledge of the facts may file a complaint with the court or its designee alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act. A written record shall be maintained of any oral complaint received.

2. The court or its designee shall refer the complaint to an intake officer who shall consult with law enforcement authorities having knowledge of the facts and conduct a preliminary inquiry to determine what action should be taken.

3. In the course of a preliminary inquiry, the intake officer may:

a. Interview the complainant, victim or witnesses of the alleged delinquent act.

b. Check existing records of the court, law enforcement agencies and public records of other agencies.

c. Hold conferences with the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian for the purpose of interviewing them and discussing the disposition of the complaint in accordance with the requirements set forth in subsection 8.

d. Examine any physical evidence pertinent to the complaint.

e. Interview such persons as are necessary to determine whether the filing of a petition would be in the best interests of the child and the community as provided in section 232.35, subsections 2 and 3.

4. Any additional inquiries may be made only with the consent of the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian.

5. Participation of the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian in a conference with an intake officer shall be voluntary, and they shall have the right to refuse to participate in such conference. At such conference the child shall have the right to the assistance of counsel in accordance with section 232.11 and the right to remain silent when questioned by the intake officer.

6. The intake officer, after consultation with the county attorney when necessary, shall determine whether the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition. A complaint shall be deemed legally sufficient for the filing of a petition if the facts as alleged are sufficient to establish the jurisdiction of the court and probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient to support the filing of a petition, the officer shall determine whether the interests of the child and the public will best be served by the dismissal of the complaint, the informal adjustment of the complaint, or the filing of a petition.

7. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is not legally sufficient for the filing of a petition or that further proceedings are not in the best interests of the child or the public, the intake officer shall dismiss the complaint.

8. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition and that an informal adjustment of the complaint is in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer may make an informal adjustment of the complaint in accordance with section 232.29.

9. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition and that the filing of a petition is in the best interests of the juvenile and the public, the officer shall request the county attorney to file a petition in accordance with section 232.35.

10. A complaint filed with the court or its designee pursuant to this section which alleges that a child fourteen years of age or older has committed a delinquent act which if committed by an adult would be an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony shall be a public record and shall not be confidential under section 232.147.

[SS15, §254-a15; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3621; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.5; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.3; C79, 81, §232.28; 82 Acts, ch 1209, §6, 7]

232.29 Informal adjustment.

1. The informal adjustment of a complaint is a permissible disposition of a complaint at intake subject to the following conditions:

a. The child has admitted the child's involvement in a delinquent act.

b. The intake officer shall advise the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian that they have the right to refuse an informal adjustment of the complaint and demand the filing of a petition and a formal adjudication.

c. Any informal adjustment agreement shall be entered into voluntarily and intelligently by the child with the advice of the child's attorney, or by the child with the consent of a parent, guardian, or custodian if the child is not represented by counsel.

d The terms of such agreement shall be clearly stated in writing and signed by all parties to the agreement and a copy of this agreement shall be given to the child; the counsel for the child; the parent, guardian or custodian; and the intake officer, who shall retain the copy in the case file.

e. An agreement providing for the supervision of a child by a juvenile court officer or the provision of intake services shall not exceed six months.

f. An agreement providing for the referral of a child to a public or private agency for services shall not exceed six months.

g. The child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian shall have the right to terminate such agreement at any time and to request the filing of a petition and a formal adjudication.

h If an informal adjustment of a complaint has been made, a petition based upon the events out of which the original complaint arose may be filed only during the period of six months from the date the informal adjustment agreement was entered into. If a petition is filed within this period the child's compliance with all proper and reasonable terms of the agreement shall be grounds for dismissal of the petition by the court.

i. The person performing the duties of intake officer shall file a report at least annually with the court listing the number of informal adjustments made during the reporting time, the conditions imposed in each case, the number of informal adjustments resulting in dismissal without the filing of a petition, and the number of informal adjustments resulting in the filing of a petition upon the original complaint.

2. An informal adjustment agreement may require the child to perform a work assignment of value to the state or to the public or require the child to make restitution consisting of a monetary payment to the victim or a work assignment directly of value to the victim.

PART 4

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

232.35 Filing of petition.

1. A formal judicial proceeding to determine whether a child has committed a delinquent act shall be initiated by the filing by the county attorney of a petition alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act.

2. If the intake officer determines that a complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act and that the filing of a petition would be in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer shall submit a written request for the filing of a petition to the county attorney. The county attorney may grant or deny the request of the intake officer for the filing of a petition. A determination by the county attorney that a petition should not be filed shall be final.

3. If the intake officer determines that a complaint is not legally sufficient for the filing of a petition or that the filing of a petition would not be in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer shall notify the complainant of the officer's determination and the reasons for such determination, and shall advise the complainant that the complainant may submit the complaint to the county attorney for review. Upon receiving a request for review, the county attorney shall consider the facts presented by the complainant, consult with the intake officer and make the final determination as to whether a petition should be filed. In the absence of a request by the complainant for a review of the intake officer's determination that a petition should not be filed, the officer's determination shall be final.

Referred to in §232.28

232.36 Contents of petition.

1. The petition and subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In the interests of, a child."

2. The petition shall be verified and any statements in the petition may be made upon information and belief.

3. The petition shall set forth plainly:

a. The name, age, and residence of the child who is the subject of the petition.

b. The names and residences of any:

(1) Living parent of the child.

(2) Guardian of the child.

(3) Legal custodian of the child.

(4) Guardian ad litem.

c. With reasonable particularity, the time, place and manner of the delinquent act alleged and the penal law allegedly violated by such act.

4. If any of the facts required under subsection 3, paragraphs "a" and "b" are not known by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

5. The petition shall set forth plainly the nearest known relative of the child if no parent or guardian can be found.

[SS15, §254-a15; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3621, 3622; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.5, 232.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.3; C79, 81, §232.36]

Referred to in §232.87

232.37 Summons, notice, subpoenas and service — order for removal.

1. After a petition has been filed the court shall set a time for an adjudicatory hearing and unless the parties named in subsection 2 voluntarily appear, shall issue a summons requiring the child to appear before the court at a time and place stated and requiring the person who has custody or control of the child to appear before the court and to bring the child with the person at that time. The summons shall attach a copy of the petition and shall give notification of the right to counsel provided for in section 232.11.

2. Notice of the pendency of the case shall be served upon the known parents, guardians or legal custodians of a child if these persons are not summoned to appear as provided in subsection 1. Notice shall also be served upon the child and upon the child's guardian ad litem, if any. The notice shall attach a copy of the petition and shall give notification of the right to counsel provided for in section 232.11.

3. Upon request of the child who is identified in the petition as a party to the proceeding, the child's parent, guardian or custodian, a county attorney or on the court's own motion, the court or the clerk of the court shall issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers at any hearing under this division.

4. Service of summons or notice shall be made personally by the delivery of a copy thereof to the person being served. If the court determining that personal service of a summons or notice is impracticable, the court may order service by certified mail addressed to the last known address or by publication or both. Service of summons or notice shall be made not less than five days before the time fixed for hearing. Service of summons, notice, subpoenas or other process, after an initial valid summons or notice, shall be made in accordance with the rules of the court governing such service in civil actions.

5. If a person personally served with a summons or subpoena fails without reasonable cause to appear or to bring the child, the person may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue an order for the arrest of such person or both the arrest of the person and the taking into custody of the child.

6. The court may issue an order for the removal of the child from the custody of the child's parent, guardian or custodian when there exists an immediate threat that the parent, guardian or custodian will flee the state with the child, or when it appears that the child's immediate removal is necessary to avoid imminent danger to the child's life or health.

232.38 Presence of parents at hearings.

1. Any hearings or proceedings under this division subsequent to the filing of a petition shall not take place without the presence of one or both of the child's parents, guardian or custodian except that a hearing or proceeding may take place without such presence if the parent, guardian or custodian fails to appear after reasonable notification, or if the court finds that a reasonably diligent effort has been made to notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, and the effort was unavailing.

2. In any such hearings or proceedings the court may temporarily excuse the presence of the parent, guardian or custodian when the court deems it in the best interests of the child. Counsel for the parent, guardian or custodian shall have the right to participate in a hearing or proceeding during the absence of the parent, guardian or custodian.

[SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3631; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.15; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.11, 232.30; C79, 81, §232.38]

Referred to in §232.91

232.39 Exclusion of public from hearings.

At any time during the proceedings, the court, on the motion of any of the parties or upon the court's own motion, may exclude the public from hearings under this division if the court determines that the possibility of damage or harm to the juvenile outweighs the public's interest in having an open hearing. Upon closing the hearing to the public, the court may admit those persons who have direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

Referred to in §232.92

232.40 Other issues adjudicated.

When it appears during the course of any hearing or proceeding that some action or remedy other than those indicated by the application or pleading is appropriate, the court, with the consent of all necessary parties, may proceed to hear and determine the additional or other issues as though originally properly sought and pleaded.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.12; C79, 81, §232.40]

232.41 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or mechanical or electronic recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties. The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem. Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624.9.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.32; C79, 81, §232.41]

232.42 Continuances.

1. Continuances in juvenile delinquency proceedings may be granted by the court only for good cause shown on the record if the child is being held in detention.

2. Where the child requests a continuance of proceedings, the court, in an order granting the continuance, may suspend the time limitations imposed on the state by this division for a period of time not to exceed the length of the continuance.

[S13, §254-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3637; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §232.21; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.34; C79, §232.13, 232.42; C81, §232.42]

232.43 Answer — plea agreement — acceptance of plea admitting allegations of petition.

1. A written answer to a delinquency petition need not be filed by the child, but any matters which might be set forth in an answer or other pleading may be filed in writing or pleaded orally before the court.

2. The county attorney and the child's counsel may mutually consider a plea agreement which contemplates entry of a plea admitting the allegations of the petition in the expectation that other charges will be dismissed or not filed or that a specific disposition will be recommended by the county attorney and granted by the court. Any plea discussion shall be open to the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

3. The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without first addressing the child personally in court, determining that the plea is voluntary and not the result of any force or threats or promises other than promises made in connection with a plea agreement and informing the child of and determining that the child understands the following:

a. The nature of the allegations of the petition to which the plea is offered.

b. The severest possible disposition and the maximum length of such disposition which the court may order if the court accepts the plea.

c. The child has the right to deny the allegations of the petition.

d. If the child admits the allegations of the petition the child waives the right to a further adjudicatory hearing.

4. The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without first addressing the county attorney and the child's counsel in court and making an inquiry into whether such a plea is the result of a plea agreement. The court shall require the disclosure of the terms of any such agreement in court. If a plea agreement has been reached which contemplates entry of the plea in the expectation that the court will order a specific disposition or dismiss other charges against the child before the court, the court shall state to the parties whether the court will concur in the proposed disposition or dismissal of charges. If the court will not concur in such disposition or dismissal, the court should advise the child personally of this fact, advise the child that the disposition of the case may be less favorable to the child than that contemplated by the plea agreement, and afford the child the opportunity to withdraw the plea. If the court defers decision as to whether the court will concur with the proposed disposition or dismissal until there has been an opportunity to consider the predisposition report, the court shall advise the child that the court is not bound by the plea agreement and afford the child the opportunity to withdraw the plea.

5. The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without:

a. Determining that there is a factual basis for the plea.

b. Determining that the child was given effective assistance of counsel prior to tender of the plea.

c. Inquiring of the parent or parents who are present in court whether they agree as to the course of action that their child has chosen. If either parent expresses disagreement with the plea, the court may refuse to accept that plea.

6. If the court determines that a plea is not in the child's best interest it may refuse to accept that plea regardless of the agreement of the parties.

[C79, 81, §232.43]

232.44 Detention or shelter care hearing — release from detention upon change of circumstance.

1. A hearing shall be held within forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, of the time of the child's admission to a detention or shelter care facility. If the hearing is not held within the time specified, the child shall be released from shelter care or detention. Prior to the hearing a petition shall be filed, except where the child is already under the supervision of a juvenile court under a prior judgment.

2. The county attorney or a juvenile probation officer may apply for a hearing at any time after the petition is filed to determine whether the child who is the subject of the petition should be placed in detention or shelter care. The court may upon the application or upon its own motion order such hearing.

3. A notice shall be served upon the child, the child's attorney, the child's guardian ad litem if any, and the child's known parent, guardian, or custodian not less than twenty-four hours before the time the hearing is scheduled to begin and in a manner calculated fairly to apprise the parties of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. If the court finds that there has been reasonably diligent effort to give notice to a parent, guardian, or custodian and that the effort has been unavailing, the hearing may proceed without the notice having been served.

4. At the hearing the court shall admit only testimony and other evidence relevant to the determination of whether there is probable cause to believe the child has committed the act as alleged in the petition and to the determination of whether the placement of the child in detention or shelter care is authorized under section 232.21 or 232.22. Any written reports or records made available to the court at the hearing shall be made available to the parties. A copy of the petition shall be given to each of the parties at or before the hearing.

5. The court shall find release to be proper under the following circumstances:

a. If the court finds that there is not probable cause to believe that the child is a child within the jurisdiction of the court under this chapter, it shall release the child and dismiss the petition.

b. If the court finds that detention or shelter care is not authorized under section 232.21 or 232.22, or is authorized but not warranted in a particular case, the court shall order the child's release, and in so doing, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(1) Place the child in the custody of a parent, guardian or custodian under that person's supervision, or under the supervision of an organization which agrees to supervise the child.

(2) Place restrictions on the child's travel, association, or place of residence during the period of release.

(3) Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary and consistent with the grounds for detaining children specified in section 232.21 or 232.22, including a condition requiring that the child return to custody as required.

c. An order releasing a child on conditions specified in this section may be amended at any time to impose equally or less restrictive conditions. The order may be amended to impose additional or more restrictive conditions, or to revoke the release, if the child has failed to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

6. If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court under this chapter and that full-time detention or shelter care is authorized under section 232.21 or 232.22, it may issue an order authorizing either shelter care or detention until the adjudicatory hearing is held or for a period not exceeding seven days whichever is shorter.

7. If a child held in shelter care or detention by court order has not been released after a detention hearing or has not appeared at an adjudicatory hearing before the expiration of the order of detention, an additional hearing shall automatically be scheduled for the next court day following the expiration of the order. The child, the child's counsel, the child's guardian ad litem, and the child's parent, guardian or custodian shall be notified of this hearing not less than twenty-four hours before the hearing is scheduled to take place.

8. A child held in a detention or shelter care facility under order of court after a hearing may be released upon a showing that a change of circumstances makes continued detention unnecessary.

9. A written request for the release of the child, setting forth the changed circumstances, may be filed by the child, by a responsible adult on the child's behalf, by the child's custodian, or by the juvenile probation officer.

10. Based upon the facts stated in the request for release the court may grant or deny the request without a hearing, or may order that a hearing be held at a date, time and place determined by the court. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the child and the child's custodian or counsel. Upon receiving evidence at the hearing, the court may release the child to the child's custodian or other suitable person, or may deny the request and remand the child to the detention or shelter care facility.

11. This section does not apply to a child placed in accordance with section 232.78, 232.79, or 232.95.

[C79, 81, §232.44; 82 Acts, ch 1209, §9, 10]

Referred to in §232.9, 232.11, 232.22, 232.45

232.45 Waiver hearing and waiver of jurisdiction.

1. After the filing of a petition which alleges that a child has committed a delinquent act on the basis of an alleged commission of a public offense and before an adjudicatory hearing on the merits of the petition is held, the county attorney or the child may file a motion requesting the court to waive its jurisdiction.

2. The court shall hold a waiver hearing on all such motions.

3. A notice that states the time, place, and purpose of the waiver hearing shall be issued and served in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37. Summons, subpoenas and other process may be issued and served in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37.

4. Prior to the waiver hearing, the juvenile probation officer or other person or agency designated by the court shall conduct an investigation for the purpose of collecting information relevant to the court's decision to waive its jurisdiction over the child and shall submit a report concerning such investigation to the court. The report shall include any recommendations made concerning waiver. Prior to the hearing the court shall provide the child's counsel and the county attorney with access to the report and to all written material to be considered by the court.

5. At the waiver hearing all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

6. At the conclusion of the waiver hearing the court may waive its jurisdiction over the child if:

a. The child is fourteen years of age or older; and
 b. The court determines, or has previously determined in a detention hearing under section 232.44, that there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act which would constitute a public offense; and

c. The court determines that the state has established that there are not reasonable prospects for rehabilitating the child in the event the juvenile court retains jurisdiction over the child and the child is adjudicated to have committed a delinquent act, and that waiver of the court's jurisdiction would be in the best interest of the child or the community.

7. In making the determination required by subsection 6, paragraph "c", the factors which the court shall consider include but are not limited to the following:

a. The nature of the alleged delinquent act and the circumstances under which it was committed.

b. The nature and extent of the child's prior contacts with juvenile authorities, including past efforts of such authorities to treat and rehabilitate the child and the response to such efforts.

c. The programs, facilities and personnel available to the juvenile court for rehabilitation and treatment of the child, and the programs, facilities and personnel which would be available to the court that would have jurisdiction in the event the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction so that the child can be prosecuted as an adult.

8. If at the conclusion of the hearing the court waives its jurisdiction over the child, the court shall make and file written findings as to its reasons for waiving its jurisdiction.

9. If the court waives jurisdiction, statements made by the child after being taken into custody and prior to intake are admissible as evidence in chief against the child in subsequent criminal proceedings provided that the statements were made with the advice of the child's counsel or after waiver of the child's right to counsel and provided that the court finds the child had voluntarily waived the right to remain silent. Other statements made by a child are admissible as evidence in chief provided that the court finds the statements were voluntary. In making its determination, the court may consider any factors it finds relevant and shall consider the following factors:

a. Opportunity for the child to consult with a parent, guardian, custodian, lawyer or other adult.

b. The age of the child.

c. The child's level of education.

d. The child's level of intelligence.

e. Whether the child was advised of the child's constitutional rights.

f. Length of time the child was held in shelter care or detention before making the statement in question.

g. The nature of the questioning which elicited the statement.

h. Whether physical punishment such as deprivation of food or sleep was used upon the child during the shelter care, detention, or questioning.

Statements made by the child during intake or at a waiver hearing held pursuant to this section are not admissible as evidence in chief against the child in subsequent criminal proceedings over the child's objection in any event.

Ch 130, §2-85 Acts

232.45(1, 4, 6, 8, 10) Amend
Ch 130, §1-85 Acts

10. If the court waives its jurisdiction over the child so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult, the judge who made the waiver decision shall not preside at any subsequent proceedings in connection with that prosecution over the objection of the child.

11. If a child who is alleged to have delivered, manufactured, or possessed with intent to deliver or manufacture, a controlled substance except marijuana, as defined in chapter 204, is waived to district court for prosecution, the mandatory minimum sentence provided in section 204.413 shall not be imposed if a conviction is had; however, each child convicted of such an offense shall be confined for not less than thirty days in a secure facility.

Upon application of a person charged or convicted under the authority of this subsection, the district court shall order the records in the case sealed if:

a. Five years have elapsed since the final discharge of that person; and

b. The person has not been convicted of a felony or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor, or adjudicated a delinquent for an act which if committed by an adult would be a felony, or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor since the final discharge of that person.

232.46 Consent decree.

1. At any time after the filing of a petition and prior to entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47, the court may suspend the proceedings on motion of the county attorney or the child's counsel, enter a consent decree, and continue the case under terms and conditions established by the court. These terms and conditions may include the supervision of the child by a juvenile court officer or other agency or person designated by the court and may include the requirement that the child perform a work assignment of value to the state or to the public or make restitution consisting of a monetary payment to the victim or a work assignment directly of value to the victim.

2. A consent decree shall not be entered unless the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian is informed of the consequences of the decree by the court and the court determines that the child has voluntarily and intelligently agreed to the terms and conditions of the decree. If the county attorney objects to the entry of a consent decree, the court shall proceed to determine the appropriateness of entering a consent decree after consideration of any objections or reasons for entering such a decree.

3. A consent decree shall remain in force for six months unless the child is sooner discharged by the court or by the juvenile court officer or other agency or person supervising the child. Upon application of a juvenile court officer or other agency or person supervising the child made prior to the expiration of the decree and after notice and hearing, or upon agreement by the parties, a consent decree may be extended for an additional six months by order of the court.

4. When a child has complied with the express terms and conditions of the consent decree for the required amount of time or until earlier dismissed as provided in subsection 3, the original petition may not be reinstated. However, failure to so comply may result in the child's being thereafter held accountable as if the consent decree had never been entered.

5. A child who is discharged or who completes a period of continuance without the reinstatement of the original petition shall not be proceeded against in any court for a delinquent act alleged in the petition.

232.47 Adjudicatory hearing — findings — adjudication.

1. If a child denies the allegations of the petition, that child may be found to be delinquent only after an adjudicatory hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. The court shall hear and adjudicate all cases involving a petition alleging a child to have committed a delinquent act.

3. The child shall have the right to adjudication by an impartial finder of fact. A judge of the juvenile court may not serve as the finder of fact over objection of the child based upon a showing of prejudice on the part of the judge. In the event that a judge is disqualified from serving as a finder of fact under this provision, a substitute judge shall serve as the finder of fact.

4. At an adjudicatory hearing the state shall have the burden of proving the allegations of the petition.

5. Only evidence which is admissible under the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of criminal cases shall be admitted at the hearing except as otherwise provided by this section.

6. Statements or other evidence derived directly or indirectly from statements which a child makes to a law enforcement officer while in custody without presence of counsel may be admitted into evidence at an adjudicatory hearing over the child's objection only after the court determines whether the child has voluntarily waived the right to remain silent. In making its determination the court may consider any factors it finds relevant and shall consider the following factors:

a. Opportunity for the child to consult with a parent, guardian, custodian, lawyer or other adult.

b. The age of the child.

c. The child's level of education.

d. The child's level of intelligence.

e. Whether the child was advised of the child's constitutional rights.

f. Length of time the child was held in shelter care or detention before making the statement in question.

g. The nature of the questioning which elicited the statement.

h. Whether physical punishment such as deprivation of food or sleep was used upon the child during the shelter care, detention, or questioning.

7. The following statements or other evidence shall not be admitted as evidence in chief at an adjudicatory hearing:

a. Statements or other evidence derived directly or indirectly from statements which a child makes to a juvenile intake officer without the presence of counsel subsequent to the filing of a complaint and prior to adjudication unless the child and the child's attorney consent to the admission of such statements or evidence.

b. Statements which the child makes to a juvenile probation officer or other person conducting a predisposition investigation during such an investigation.

8. At the conclusion of an adjudicatory hearing, the court shall make a finding as to whether the child has committed a delinquent act. The court shall make and file written findings as to the truth of the specific allegations of the petition and as to whether the child has engaged in delinquent conduct.

9. If the court finds that the child did not engage in delinquent conduct, the court shall enter an order dismissing the petition.

10. If the court finds that the child did engage in delinquent conduct, the court may enter an order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act. The child shall be presumed to be innocent of the charges and no finding that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct may be made unless the state has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the child engaged in such behavior.

11. If the court enters an order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act, the court may issue an order authorizing either shelter care or detention until the dispositional hearing is held.

232.48 Predisposition investigation and report.

1. The court shall not make a disposition of the matter following the entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47 until a predisposition report has been submitted to and considered by the court. The court may direct a juvenile court officer or any other agency or individual to conduct a predisposition investigation and to prepare a predisposition report.

2. A predisposition investigation shall not be conducted prior to the adjudication of the child without the consent of the child and the child's counsel. No predisposition report shall be submitted to or considered by the court prior to the completion of the adjudicatory hearing.

3. A predisposition report shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and in division VIII of this chapter. Prior to the dispositional hearing, the court shall permit the child's attorney to inspect any predisposition report to be considered by the court in making a disposition. The court may in its discretion order counsel not to disclose parts of the report to the child, or to the child's parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or custodian if the court finds that disclosure would seriously harm the treatment or rehabilitation of the child.

232.49 Physical and mental examinations.

1. Following the entry of an order of adjudication under section 232.47 the court may after a hearing which may be simultaneous with the adjudicatory hearing, order a physical or mental examination of the child if it finds that an examination is necessary to determine the child's physical or mental condition.

2. When possible an examination shall be conducted on an out-patient basis, but the court may, if it deems necessary, commit the child to a suitable hospital, facility or institution for the purpose of examination. Commitment for examination shall not exceed thirty days and the civil commitment provisions of chapter 229 shall not apply.

3. At any time after the filing of a delinquency petition the court may order a physical or mental examination of the child if the following circumstances apply:

a. The court finds such examination to be in the best interest of the child; and

b. The parent, guardian or custodian and the child's counsel agree.

An examination shall be conducted on an out-patient basis unless the court, the child's counsel and the parent, guardian or custodian agree that it is necessary the child be committed to a suitable hospital, facility or institution for the purpose of examination. Commitment for examination shall not exceed thirty days and the civil commitment provisions of chapter 229 shall not apply.

232.50 Dispositional hearing.

1. As soon as practicable following the entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing in order to determine what disposition should be made of the matter.

2. At that hearing all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

3. When the dispositional hearing is concluded the court shall enter an order to make any one or more of the dispositions authorized under section 232.52.

232.51 Disposition of mentally ill or mentally retarded child.

If the evidence received at an adjudicatory or a dispositional hearing indicates that the child is mentally ill, the court may direct the juvenile court officer or the department to initiate proceedings or to assist the child's parent or guardian to initiate civil commitment proceedings in the juvenile court. Such proceedings shall adhere to the requirements of chapter 229. If the evidence received at an adjudicatory or a dispositional hearing indicates that the child is mentally retarded, the court may direct the juvenile court officer or the department to initiate proceedings or to assist the child's parent or guardian to initiate civil commitment proceedings in the juvenile court. Such proceedings shall adhere to the requirements of chapter 222. In the event the child is committed as a mentally ill or mentally retarded child, any order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act shall be set aside and the petition shall be dismissed.

the child and the child's prior record. The order shall specify the duration and the nature of the disposition, including the type of residence or confinement ordered and the individual, agency, department or facility in whom custody is vested.

2. The dispositional orders which the court may enter subject to its continuing jurisdiction are as follows:

a. An order prescribing a work assignment of value to the state or to the public, or prescribing restitution consisting of monetary payment or a work assignment of value to the victim. Such order may be the sole disposition or may be included as an element in other dispositional orders.

b. An order placing the child on probation and releasing the child to the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

c. An order providing special care and treatment required for the physical, emotional or mental health of the child, and

(1) Placing the child on probation or other supervision; and

(2) If the court deems appropriate, ordering the parent, guardian, or custodian to reimburse the county for any costs incurred as provided in section 232.141, subsection 2 or to otherwise pay or provide for such care and treatment.

d. An order transferring the legal custody of the child, subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court for purposes of section 232.54, to one of the following:

(1) An adult relative or other suitable adult and placing the child on probation.

(2) A child placing agency or other suitable private agency or facility which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for children and placing the child on probation or other supervision.

(3) The department of human services for purposes of foster care and prescribing the type of placement which will serve the best interests of the child and the means by which the placement shall be monitored by the court.

e. An order transferring the guardianship of the child, subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of section 232.54, to the commissioner of the department of human services for purposes of placement in the state training school or other facility provided that:

(1) The child is at least twelve years of age; and

(2) The court finds such placement to be in the best interests of the child or necessary to the protection of the public.

f. An order committing the child to a mental health institute or other appropriate facility for the purpose of treatment of a mental or emotional condition after making findings pursuant to the standards set out for involuntary commitment in chapter 229.

3. When the court enters an order placing a child on probation pursuant to this section, the court may in cases of change of residency transfer jurisdiction of the child to the juvenile court of the county where the child's residence is established. The court to which the jurisdiction of the child is transferred shall have the same powers with respect to the child as if the petition had originally been filed in that court.

4. When the court enters an order transferring the legal and physical custody of a child to an agency, facility, department or institution, the court shall transmit its order, its finding, and a summary of its information concerning the child to such agency, facility, department or institution.

5. If the court orders the transfer of custody of the child to the department of human services or other agency for placement, the department or agency responsible for the placement of the child shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to return the child to the child's home as quickly as possible.

6. When the court orders the transfer of legal custody of a child pursuant to subsection 2, paragraphs "d", "e", or "f", the order shall state that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

232.53 Duration of dispositional orders.

1. Any dispositional order entered by the court pursuant to section 232.52 shall remain in force for an indeterminate period or until the child becomes eighteen years of age unless otherwise specified by the court or unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions of section 232.54. No dispositional order made under section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "e" shall remain in force longer than the maximum possible duration of the sentence which may be imposed on an adult for the commission of the act which the child has been found by the court to have committed.

2. All dispositional orders entered prior to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months shall automatically terminate when the child becomes eighteen years of age. Dispositional orders entered subsequent to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months and prior to the child's eighteenth birthday shall automatically terminate one year after the date of disposition. In the case of an adult within the jurisdiction of the court under the provisions of section 232.8, subsection 1, the dispositional order shall automatically terminate one year after the last date upon which jurisdiction could attach.

3. Notwithstanding section 242.13, a child committed to the training school subsequent to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months and prior to the child's eighteenth birthday may be held at the school beyond the child's eighteenth birthday pursuant to subsection 2 provided that the training school makes application to and receives permission from the committing court. This extension shall be for the purpose of completion by the child of a course of instruction established for the child pursuant to section 242.4 and cannot extend for more than one year beyond the date of disposition.

4. Any person supervising but not having custody of the child pursuant to such an order shall file a written report with the court at least every six months concerning the status and progress of the child.

Any agency, facility, institution or person to whom custody of the child has been transferred pursuant to such order shall file a written report with the court at least every six months concerning the status and progress of the child.

232.54 Termination, modification, or vacation and substitution of dispositional order.

At any time prior to its expiration, a dispositional order may be terminated, modified, or vacated and another dispositional order substituted therefor only in accordance with the following provisions:

1. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "a", "b" or "c" and upon the motion of a child, a child's parent or guardian, a child's guardian ad litem, a person supervising the child under a dispositional order, a county attorney, or upon its own motion, the court may terminate the order and discharge the child, modify the order, or vacate the order and substitute another order pursuant to the provisions of section 232.52. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party.

2. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", and "e", the court shall grant a motion of the person to whom custody has been transferred for termination of the order and discharge of the child, for modification of the order by imposition of less restrictive conditions, or for vacation of the order and substitution of a less restrictive order unless there is clear and convincing evidence that there has not been a change of circumstance sufficient to grant the motion. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion.

3. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", or "e" or "f", the court shall grant a motion of a person or agency to whom custody has been transferred for modification of the order by transfer to an equally restrictive placement, unless there is clear and convincing evidence that there has not been a change of circumstance sufficient to grant the motion. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion.

4. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", "e" or "f", the court may, after notice and hearing, either grant or deny a motion of the child, the child's parent or guardian, or the child's guardian ad litem, to terminate the order and discharge the child, to modify the order either by imposing less restrictive conditions or by transfer to an equally or less restrictive placement, or to vacate the order and substitute a less restrictive order. A motion may be made pursuant to this paragraph no more than once every six months.

5. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d" and "e", the court may, after notice and a hearing at which there is presented clear and convincing evidence to support such an action, either grant or deny a motion by a county attorney or by a person or agency to whom custody has been transferred, to modify an order by imposing more restrictive conditions or to vacate the order and substitute a more restrictive order.

Notice requirements of this section shall be satisfied in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37. At a hearing under this section all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING, INVESTIGATION AND REHABILITATION

232.67 Legislative findings — purpose and policy.

Children in this state are in urgent need of protection from abuse. It is the purpose and policy of this part 2 of division III to provide the greatest possible protection to victims or potential victims of abuse through encouraging the increased reporting of suspected cases of such abuse, insuring the thorough and prompt investigation of these reports, and providing rehabilitative services, where appropriate and whenever possible to abused children and their families which will stabilize the home environment so that the family can remain intact without further danger to the child.

232.68 Definitions.

As used in sections 232.67 through 232.77 and 235A.12 through 235A.23, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Child” means any person under the age of eighteen years.

2. “Child abuse” or “abuse” means harm or threatened harm occurring through:

a. Any nonaccidental physical injury, or injury which is at variance with the history given of it, suffered by a child as the result of the acts or omissions of a person responsible for the care of the child.

b. The commission of any sexual offense with or to a child pursuant to chapter 709, section 726.2, or section 728.12, subsection 1, as a result of the acts or omissions of the person responsible for the care of the child.

c. The failure on the part of a person responsible for the care of a child to provide for the adequate food, shelter, clothing or other care necessary for the child's health and welfare when financially able to do so or when offered financial or other reasonable means to do so. A parent or guardian legitimately practicing religious beliefs who does not provide specified medical treatment for a child for that reason alone shall not be considered abusing the child, however this provision shall not preclude a court from ordering that medical service be provided to the child where the child's health requires it.

d. The acts or omissions of a person responsible for the care of a child which allow, permit, or encourage the child to engage in prostitution pursuant to section 725.1.

3. “Department” means the state department of human services and includes the local, county and regional offices of the department.

4. “Health practitioner” includes a licensed physician and surgeon, osteopath, osteopathic physician and surgeon, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or chiropractor; a resident or intern in any of such professions; and any registered nurse or licensed practical nurse.

5. “Registry” means the central registry for child abuse information established in section 235A.14.

6. “Person responsible for the care of a child” means:

a. A parent, guardian, or foster parent.

b. A relative or any other person with whom the child resides, without reference to the length of time or continuity of such residence.

c. An employee or agent of any public or private facility providing care for a child, including an institution, group home, mental health center, residential treatment center, shelter care facility, detention center or child care facility.

232.69 Mandatory and permissive reporters.

1. The following classes of persons shall make a report within twenty-four hours and as provided in section 232.70, of cases of child abuse:

a. Every health practitioner who examines, attends, or treats a child and who reasonably believes the child has been abused. If, however, the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the child as a member of the staff of a hospital or similar institution, the examining health practitioner shall immediately notify and give complete information to the person in charge of the institution or the health practitioner's designated agent and the person in charge of the institution or designated agent shall make the report.

b. Every self-employed social worker, every social worker under the jurisdiction of the department of human services, any social worker employed by a public or private agency or institution, public or private health care facility as defined in section 135C.1, certified psychologist, certificated school employee, employee or operator of a licensed child care center or registered group day care home or registered family day care home, member of the staff of a mental health center, or peace officer, who, in the course of employment, examines, attends, counsels or treats a child and reasonably believes a child has suffered abuse. If a person is required to report under this section as a member of the staff of a public or private institution, agency or facility, that person shall immediately notify the person in charge of the institution, agency or facility, or that person's designated agent, and the person in charge of the institution, agency, or facility, or the designated agent shall make the report.

2. Any other person who believes that a child has been abused may make a report as provided in section 232.70.

232.70 Reporting procedure.

1. Each report made by a mandatory reporter, as defined in section 232.69, subsection 1, shall be made both orally and in writing. Each report made by a permissive reporter, as defined in section 232.69, subsection 2, may be oral, written, or both.

2. The oral report shall be made by telephone or otherwise to the department of human services. If the person making the report has reason to believe that immediate protection for the child is advisable, that person shall also make an oral report to an appropriate law enforcement agency.

3. The written report shall be made to the department of human services within forty-eight hours after such oral report.

4. The department of human services shall:

a. Immediately, upon receipt of an oral report, make an oral report to the registry;

b. Forward a copy of the written report to the registry; and

c. Notify the appropriate county attorney of the receipt of any report.

5. The oral and written reports shall contain the following information, or as much thereof as the person making the report is able to furnish:

a. The names and home address of the child and the child's parents or other persons believed to be responsible for the child's care;

b. The child's present whereabouts if not the same as the parent's or other person's home address;

c. The child's age;

d. The nature and extent of the child's injuries, including any evidence of previous injuries;

e. The name, age and condition of other children in the same home;

f. Any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injury to the child, the identity of the person or persons responsible for the injury, or in providing assistance to the child; and

g. The name and address of the person making the report.

6. A report made by a permissive reporter, as defined in section 232.69, subsection 2, shall be regarded as a report pursuant to this chapter whether or not the report contains all of the information required by this section and may be made to the department of human services, county attorney, or law enforcement agency. If the report is made to any agency other than the department of human services, such agency shall promptly refer the report to the department of human services.

232.71 Duties of the department upon receipt of report.

1. Whenever a report is received, the department of human services shall promptly commence an appropriate investigation. The primary purpose of this investigation shall be the protection of the child named in the report.

2. The investigation shall include:

a. Identification of the nature, extent and cause of the injuries, if any, to the child named in the report;

b. The identification of the person or persons responsible therefor;

c. The name, age and condition of other children in the same home as the child named in the report;

d. An evaluation of the home environment and relationship of the child named in the report and any other children in the same home as the parents or other persons responsible for their care;

e. An investigation of all other pertinent matters.

3. The investigation may with the consent of the parent or guardian include a visit to the home of the child named in the report and examination of such child. If permission to enter the home and to examine the child is refused, the juvenile court or district court upon a showing of probable cause may authorize the person making the investigation to enter the home and examine the child.

4. The department of human services may request information from any person believed to have knowledge of a child abuse case. The county attorney, any law enforcement or social services agency in the state, and any mandatory reporter shall cooperate and assist in the investigation upon the request of the department of human services. The county attorney and appropriate law enforcement agencies shall also take any other lawful action which may be necessary or advisable for the protection of the child.

5. Administrators of all public and nonpublic schools subject to the authority of the department of public instruction shall cooperate with the investigators by providing confidential access to the child named in the report, and to other children alleged to have relevant information, for the purposes of interviews. The investigators shall determine who shall be present at the interviews. The school administrators are under no duty to report the investigation or interview to the child's parent or guardian. The immunity granted by section 232.73 applies to such administrators and their school districts.

6. The department of human services, upon completion of its investigation, shall make a preliminary report of its investigation as required by subsection 2. A copy of this report shall be transmitted to juvenile court within ninety-six hours after the department of human services initially receives the abuse report unless the juvenile court grants an extension of time for good cause shown. If the preliminary report is not a complete report, a complete report shall be filed within ten working days of the receipt of the abuse report, unless the juvenile court grants an extension of time for good cause shown. The juvenile court shall notify the registry of any action it takes with respect to a suspected case of child abuse.

7. The department of human services shall transmit a copy of the report of its investigation, including actions taken or contemplated, to the registry. The department of human services shall make periodic follow-up reports thereafter in a manner prescribed by the registry so that the registry is kept up-to-date and fully informed concerning the handling of a suspected case of child abuse.

8. The department of human services shall also transmit a copy of the report of its investigation to the county attorney. The county attorney shall notify the registry of any actions or contemplated actions with respect to a suspected case of child abuse so that the registry is kept up-to-date and fully informed concerning the handling of such a case.

9. Based on the investigation conducted pursuant to this section, the department shall offer to the family of any child believed to be the victim of abuse such services as appear appropriate for either the child, the family, or both, if it is explained that the department has no legal authority to compel such family to receive such services.

10. If, upon completion of the investigation, the department of human services determines that the best interests of the child require juvenile court action, the department shall take the appropriate action to initiate such action under this chapter. The county attorney shall assist the county department of human services in the preparation of the necessary papers to initiate such action and shall appear and represent the department at all juvenile court proceedings.

11. The department of human services shall assist the juvenile court or district court during all stages of court proceedings involving a suspected child abuse case in accordance with the purposes of this chapter.

12. The department of human services shall provide for or arrange for and monitor rehabilitative services for abused children and their families on a voluntary basis or under a final or intermediate order of the juvenile court.

13. In every case involving child abuse which results in a child protective judicial proceeding, whether or not the proceeding arises under this chapter, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the child in the proceedings. Before a guardian ad litem is appointed pursuant to this section, the court shall require the person responsible for the care of the child to complete under oath a detailed financial statement. If, on the basis of that financial statement, the court deems that the person responsible for the care of the child is able to bear the cost of the guardian ad litem, the court shall so order. In cases where the person responsible for the care of the child is unable to bear the cost of the guardian ad litem, the expense shall be paid out of the county treasury.

14. If a fourth report is received from the same person who made three earlier unfounded reports which identified the same child as the abused child and the same person responsible for the child as the alleged abuser, the department may determine that the report is again unfounded due to the report's spurious or frivolous nature and may in its discretion terminate its investigation.

"Department of human services" or "county attorney" ordinarily refer to the local or county office serving the county in which the child's home is located.

However, if the person making the report pursuant to this chapter does not know where the child's home is located, or if the child's home is not located in the service area where the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the child, the report may be made to the state department of human services or to the local office serving the county where the person making the report resides or the county where the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the child. These agencies shall promptly proceed as provided in section 232.71, unless the matter is transferred as provided in this section.

If the child's home is located in a county not served by the office receiving the report, the department shall promptly transfer the matter by transmitting a copy of the report of injury and any other pertinent information to the office and the county attorney serving the other county. They shall promptly proceed as provided in section 232.71.

Referred to in §232 68

232.76 Publicity and educational programs.

The department, within the limits of available funds, shall conduct a continuing publicity and educational program for the personnel of the department, persons required to report, and any other appropriate persons to encourage the fullest possible degree of reporting of suspected cases of child abuse. Educational programs shall include but not be limited to the diagnosis and cause of child abuse, the responsibilities, obligations, duties and powers of persons and agencies under this chapter and the procedures of the department and the juvenile court with respect to suspected cases of child abuse and disposition of actual cases.

232.77 Photographs and X rays.

Any person who is required to report a case of child abuse may take or cause to be taken, at public expense, photographs or X rays of the areas of trauma visible on a child. Any health practitioner may, if medically indicated, cause to be performed radiological examination of the child. Any person who takes any photographs or X rays pursuant to this section shall notify the department of human services that such photographs or X rays have been taken, and shall retain such photographs or X rays for a reasonable time thereafter. Whenever such person is required to report under section 232.69, in that person's capacity as a member of the staff of a medical or other private or public institution, agency or facility, that person shall immediately notify the person in charge of such institution, agency, or facility or that person's designated delegate of the need for photographs or X rays.

PART 3

TEMPORARY REMOVAL OF A CHILD

232.78 Temporary removal of a child pursuant to ex parte court order.

1. The juvenile court may enter an ex parte order directing a peace officer to remove a child from the child's home or a child day care facility before or after the filing of a petition under this chapter provided all of the following apply:

a. The parent, guardian, legal custodian, or employee of the child day care facility is absent, or though present, was asked and refused to consent to the removal of the child and was informed of an intent to apply for an order under this section.

b. It appears that the child's immediate removal is necessary to avoid imminent danger to the child's life or health.

c. There is not enough time to file a petition and hold a hearing under section 232.95.

2. The order shall specify the facility to which the child is to be brought. Except for good cause shown or unless the child is sooner returned to the place where the child was residing or permitted to return to the child day care facility, a petition shall be filed under this chapter within three days of the issuance of the order.

3. The juvenile court may enter an order authorizing a physician or hospital to provide emergency medical or surgical procedures before the filing of a petition under this chapter provided:

a. Such procedures are necessary to safeguard the life and health of the child; and

b. There is not enough time to file a petition under this chapter and hold a hearing as provided in section 232.95.

4. Any person who may file a petition under this chapter may apply for, or the court on its own motion may issue, an order for temporary removal under this section. An appropriate person designated by the court shall confer with a person seeking the removal order, shall make every reasonable effort to inform the parent or other person legally responsible for the child's care of the application, and shall make such inquiries as will aid the court in disposing of such application.

232.79 Removal without court order.

1. A peace officer may remove a child from the child's home or a child day care facility or a physician treating a child may keep the child in custody without a court order as required under section 232.78 and without the consent of a parent, guardian, or custodian provided that both of the following apply:

a. The child is in such circumstance or condition that the child's continued presence in the residence or the child day care facility or in the care or custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian presents an imminent danger to the child's life or health.

b. There is not enough time to apply for an order under section 232.78.

2. If a person authorized by this section removes or retains custody of a child, the person shall:

a. Bring the child immediately to a place designated by the rules of the court for this purpose, unless the person is a physician treating the child and the child is or will presently be admitted to a hospital.

b. Make every reasonable effort to inform the parent, guardian, or custodian of the whereabouts of the child.

c. Promptly inform the court in writing of the emergency removal and the circumstances surrounding the removal.

3. Any person, agency, or institution acting in good faith in the removal or keeping of a child pursuant to this section, and any employer of or person under the direction of such a person, agency, or institution, shall have immunity from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as the result of such removal or keeping.

4. When the court is informed that there has been an emergency removal or keeping of a child without a court order, the court shall direct the department of human services or the juvenile probation department to make every reasonable effort to communicate immediately with the child's parent or parents or other person legally responsible for the child's care. The court shall also authorize the department of human services or the juvenile probation department to cause a child thus removed or kept to be returned if it concludes there is not an imminent risk to the child's life and health in so doing. If the child is not returned, the department of human services or the juvenile probation department shall forthwith cause a petition to be filed within three days after the removal.

5. When there has been an emergency removal or keeping of a child without a court order, a physical 232.80 Homemaker services.

A homemaker-home health aide may be assigned to give care to a child in the child's place of residence. Whenever possible, the services shall be provided in preference to removal of the child from the home. The care may be provided under this Act on an emergency basis for up to twenty-four hours without court order, and may be ordered by the court for a period of time extending until dismissal or disposition of the case.

[C79, 81, §232.80; 82 Acts, ch 1260, §118]

232.81 Complaint.

1. Any person having knowledge of the circumstances may file a complaint with the person or agency designated by the court to perform intake duties alleging that a child is a child in need of assistance.

2. Upon receipt of a complaint, the court may request the department of human services, juvenile probation office, or other authorized agency or individual to conduct a preliminary investigation of the complaint to determine if further action should be taken.

3. A petition alleging the child to be a child in need of assistance may be filed pursuant to section 232.87 provided the allegations of the complaint, if proven, are sufficient to establish the court's jurisdiction and the filing is in the best interests of the child.

4. A person or agency shall not maintain any records with regard to a complaint filed under division III of this chapter which is dismissed without the filing of a petition. This subsection does not apply to records maintained pursuant to chapter 235A.

232.82 Removal of sexual offenders from the residence pursuant to court order.

1. Notwithstanding section 561.15, if it is alleged by a person authorized to file a petition under section 232.87, subsection 2, or by the court on its own motion that a parent, guardian, custodian, or an adult member of the household in which a child resides has committed a sexual offense with or against the child, pursuant to chapter 709 or section 726.2, the juvenile court may enter an ex parte order requiring the alleged sexual offender to vacate the child's residence upon a showing that probable cause exists to believe that the sexual offense has occurred and that the presence of the alleged sexual offender in the child's residence presents a danger to the child's life or physical, emotional, or mental health.

2. If an order is entered under subsection 1 and a petition has not yet been filed under this chapter, the petition shall be filed under section 232.87 by the county attorney, the department of human services, or a juvenile court officer within three days of the entering of the order.

3. The juvenile court may order on its own motion, or shall order upon the request of the alleged sexual offender, a hearing to determine whether the order to vacate the residence should be upheld, modified, or vacated. The juvenile court may in any later child in need of assistance proceeding uphold, modify, or vacate the order to vacate the residence.

PART 4

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

232.87 Filing of a petition — contents of petition.

1. A formal judicial proceeding to determine whether a child is a child in need of assistance under this chapter shall be initiated by the filing of a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of assistance.

2. A petition may be filed by the department of human services, juvenile court officer, or county attorney.

3. The department, juvenile court officer, county attorney or judge may authorize the filing of a petition with the clerk of the court by any competent person having knowledge of the circumstances without the payment of a filing fee.

4. The petition shall be submitted in the form specified in section 232.36.

5. The petition shall contain the information specified in section 232.36 and a clear and concise summary of the facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court under this division.

232.88 Summons, notice, subpoenas and services.

After a petition has been filed the court shall issue and serve summons, notice, subpoenas and other process in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings in cases of juvenile delinquency as provided in section 232.37.

[SS15, §254-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3623; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §232.4; C79, 81, §232.88]

232.89 Right to and appointment of counsel.

1. Upon the filing of a petition the parent, guardian or custodian identified in the petition shall have the right to counsel in connection with all subsequent hearings and proceedings. If that person desires but is financially unable to employ counsel, the court shall appoint counsel.

2. Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall appoint counsel and a guardian ad litem for the child identified in the petition as a party to the proceedings. Counsel shall be appointed as follows:

a. If the child is represented by counsel and the court determines there is a conflict of interest between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian and that the retained counsel could not properly represent the child as a result of the conflict, the court shall appoint other counsel to represent the child, who shall be compensated pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3.

b If the child is not represented by counsel, the court shall either order the parent, guardian or custodian to retain counsel for the child or shall appoint counsel for the child, who shall be compensated pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3.

3. The court shall determine, after giving the parent, guardian or custodian an opportunity to be heard, whether such person has the ability to pay in whole or in part for counsel appointed for the child. If the court determines that such person possesses sufficient financial ability, the court shall then consult with the department of human services, the juvenile probation office or other authorized agency or individual regarding the likelihood of impairment of the relationship between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian as a result of ordering the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for the child's counsel. If impairment is deemed unlikely, the court shall order that person to pay such sums as the court finds appropriate in the manner and to whom the court directs. If the person so ordered fails to comply with the order without good reason, the court shall enter judgment against the person. If impairment is deemed likely or if the court determines that the parent, guardian or custodian cannot pay any part of the expenses of counsel appointed to represent the child, counsel shall be reimbursed pursuant to section 232.141, subsection 1, paragraph "d".

4. The same person may serve both as the child's counsel and as guardian ad litem.

232.91 Presence of parents and guardian ad litem at hearings.

Any hearings or proceedings under this division subsequent to the filing of a petition shall not take place without the presence of the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or guardian ad litem in accordance with and subject to section 232.38. A parent without custody may petition the court to be made a party to proceedings under this division.

Referred to in §600A.7

232.93 Other issues adjudicated.

When it appears during the course of any hearing or proceeding that some action or remedy other than those indicated by the application or pleading appears appropriate, the court may, provided all necessary parties consent, proceed to hear and determine the other issues as though originally properly sought and pleaded.

232.94 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or electronic or mechanical recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties. The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem. Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624.9.

232.94A Records — subsequent hearings.

Juvenile court records, social records, and the material required to be recorded pursuant to section 232.94 shall be maintained and shall be a part of each hearing relating to the child so long as and whenever the child is a child in need of assistance.

84 Acts, ch 1279, §12

232.95 Hearing concerning temporary removal.

1. At any time after the petition is filed any person who may file a petition under section 232.87 may apply for, or the court on its own motion may order, a hearing to determine whether the child should be temporarily removed from home. Where the child is in the custody of a person other than the child's parent, guardian or custodian as the result of action taken pursuant to section 232.78 or 232.79, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether the temporary removal should be continued.

2. Upon such hearing, the court may:

a. Remove the child from home and place the child in a shelter care facility or in the custody of a suitable person or agency pending a final order of disposition if the court finds that removal is necessary to avoid imminent risk to the child's life or health.

If removal is ordered, the order shall, in addition, contain a statement that removal from the home is the result of a determination that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of the child, and that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

b. Release the child to the child's parent, guardian or custodian pending a final order of disposition.

c. Authorize a physician or hospital to provide medical or surgical procedures if such procedures are necessary to safeguard the child's life or health.

3. The court shall make and file written findings as to the grounds for granting or denying an application under this section.

Referred to in §232.44(11), 232.78, 232.96, 600A.7

232.96 Adjudicatory hearing.

1. The court shall hear and adjudicate cases involving a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of assistance.

2. The state shall have the burden of proving the allegations by clear and convincing evidence.

3. Only evidence which is admissible under the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of civil cases shall be admitted, except as otherwise provided by this section.

4. A report made to the department of human services pursuant to chapter 235A shall be admissible in evidence if the person making the report does not appear as a witness at the hearing, but such a report shall not alone be sufficient to support a finding that the child is a child in need of assistance unless the attorneys for the child and the parents consent to such a finding.

5. Neither the privilege attaching to confidential communications between a physician and patient nor the prohibition upon admissibility of communications between husband and wife shall be ground for excluding evidence at an adjudicatory hearing.

6. A report, study, record, or other writing or an audiotape or videotape recording made by the department of human services, a juvenile court officer, a peace officer or a hospital relating to a child in a proceeding under this division is admissible notwithstanding any objection to hearsay statements contained in it provided it is relevant and material and provided its probative value substantially outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. The circumstances of the making of the report, study, record or other writing or an audiotape or videotape recording, including the maker's lack of personal knowledge, may be proved to affect its weight.

7. After the hearing is concluded, the court shall make and file written findings as to the truth of allegations of the petition and as to whether the child is a child in need of assistance.

8. If the court concludes facts sufficient to sustain a petition have not been established by clear and convincing evidence or if the court concludes that its aid is not required in the circumstances, the court shall dismiss the petition.

9. If the court concludes that facts sufficient to sustain the petition have been established by clear and convincing evidence and that its aid is required, the court may enter an order adjudicating the child to be a child in need of assistance.

10. If the court enters an order adjudicating the child to be a child in need of assistance, the court, if it has not previously done so, may issue an order authorizing temporary removal of the child from the child's home as set forth in section 232.95, subsection 2, paragraph "a", pending a final order of disposition.

232.97 Social investigation and report.

1. The court shall not make a disposition of the petition until a social report has been submitted to and considered by the court. The court may direct either the juvenile court officer or the department of human services or any other agency licensed by the state to conduct a social investigation and to prepare a social report which may include any evidence provided by an individual providing foster care for the child. A report prepared shall include any founded reports of child abuse.

2. The social investigation may be conducted and the social history may be submitted to the court prior to the adjudication of the child as a child in need of assistance with the consent of the parties.

3. The social report shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Prior to the hearing at which the disposition is determined, the court shall permit counsel for the child, counsel for the child's parent, guardian or custodian, and the guardian ad litem to inspect any social report to be considered by the court. The court may in its discretion order counsel not to disclose parts of the report to the child, or to the parent, guardian or custodian if disclosure would seriously harm the treatment or rehabilitation of the child or would violate a promise of confidentiality given to a source of information.

232.98 Physical and mental examinations.

1. A physical or mental examination of the child may be ordered only after the filing of a petition pursuant to section 232.87 and after a hearing to determine whether an examination is necessary to determine the child's physical or mental condition.

The hearing required by this section may be held simultaneously with the adjudicatory hearing.

An examination ordered prior to the adjudication shall be conducted on an outpatient basis when possible, but if necessary the court may commit the child to a suitable nonsecure hospital, facility, or institution for the purpose of examination for a period not to exceed fifteen days if all of the following are found to be present:

a. Probable cause exists to believe that the child is a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232.2, subsection 6, paragraph "e" or "f".

b. Commitment is necessary to determine whether there is clear and convincing evidence that the child is a child in need of assistance.

c. The child's attorney agrees to the commitment.

An examination ordered after adjudication shall be conducted on an outpatient basis when possible, but if necessary the court may commit the child to a suitable nonsecure hospital, facility, or institution for the purpose of examination for a period not to exceed thirty days.

The child's parent, guardian, or custodian shall be included in counseling sessions offered during the child's stay in a hospital, facility, or institution when feasible, and when in the best interests of the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. If separate counseling sessions are conducted for the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, a joint counseling session shall be offered prior to the release of the child from the hospital, facility, or institution. The court shall require that notice be provided to the child's guardian ad litem of the counseling sessions and of the participants and results of the sessions.

2. Following an adjudication that a child is a child in need of assistance, the court may after a hearing order the physical or mental examination of the parent, guardian or custodian if that person's ability to care for the child is at issue.

232.99 Dispositional hearing — findings.

1. Following the entry of an order pursuant to section 232.96, the court shall, as soon as practicable, hold a dispositional hearing in order to determine what disposition should be made of the petition.

2. All relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

3. When the dispositional hearing is concluded the court shall make the least restrictive disposition appropriate considering all the circumstances of the case. The dispositions which may be entered under this division are listed in sections 232.100 to 232.102 in order from least to most restrictive.

4. The court shall make and file written findings as to its reason for the disposition.

232.100 Suspended judgment.

After the dispositional hearing the court may enter an order suspending judgment and continuing the proceedings subject to terms and conditions imposed to assure the proper care and protection of the child. Such terms and conditions may include the supervision of the child and of the parent, guardian or custodian by the department of human services, juvenile probation office or other appropriate agency designated by the court. The maximum duration of any term or condition of a suspended judgment shall be twelve months unless the court finds at a hearing held during the last month of that period that exceptional circumstances require an extension of the term or condition for an additional six months.

1. After the dispositional hearing, the court may enter an order permitting the child's parent, guardian or custodian at the time of the filing of the petition to retain custody of the child subject to terms and conditions which the court prescribes to assure the proper care and protection of the child. Such terms and conditions may include supervision of the child and the parent, guardian or custodian by the department of human services, juvenile probation office or other appropriate agency which the court designates. Such terms and conditions may also include the provision or acceptance by the parent, guardian or custodian of special treatment or care which the child needs for the child's physical or mental health. If the parent, guardian or custodian fails to provide the treatment or care, the court may order the department of human services or some other appropriate state agency to provide such care or treatment.

2. The duration of any period of supervision or other terms or conditions shall be for an initial period of no more than eighteen months and the court, at the expiration of that period, upon a hearing and for good cause shown, may make not more than two successive extensions of such supervision or other terms or conditions of up to twelve months each.

232.102 Transfer of legal custody of juvenile and placement.

1. After a dispositional hearing the court may enter an order transferring the legal custody of the child to one of the following for purposes of placement:

- a. A relative or other suitable person.
- b. A child placing agency or other suitable private agency, facility or institution which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child.
- c. The department of human services.

2. After a dispositional hearing and upon written findings of fact based upon evidence in the record that an alternative placement set forth in subsection 1, paragraph "b" has previously been made and is not appropriate the court may enter an order transferring the guardianship of the court for the purposes of subsection 6, to the commissioner of human services for the purposes of placement in the Iowa Juvenile Home at Toledo.

3. Whenever possible the court should permit the child to remain at home with the child's parent, guardian or custodian. Custody of the child should not be transferred unless the court finds there is clear and convincing evidence that:

- a. The child cannot be protected from physical abuse without transfer of custody; or
- b. The child cannot be protected from some harm which would justify the adjudication of the child as a child in need of assistance and an adequate placement is available.

The order shall, in addition, contain a statement that removal from the home is the result of a determination that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of the child, and that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

4. The child shall not be placed in the state training school.

5. In any order transferring custody to the department or an agency, or in orders pursuant to a custody order, the court shall specify the nature and category of disposition which will serve the best interests of the child, and shall prescribe the means by which the placement shall be monitored by the court. If the court orders the transfer of the custody of the child to the department of human services or other agency for placement, the department or agency shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to return the child to the child's home as quickly as possible. When the child is not returned to the child's home and if the child has been previously placed in a licensed foster care facility, the department or agency shall consider placing the child in the same licensed foster care facility. If the court orders the transfer of custody to a relative or other suitable person, the court may direct the department or other agency to provide services to the child's parent, guardian or custodian in order to enable them to resume custody of the child.

6. The duration of any placement made after an order pursuant to this section shall be for an initial period of six months. At the expiration of that period and every six months thereafter, the court shall hold a hearing and review the placement in order to determine whether the child should be returned home, an extension of the placement should be made, or a termination of the parent-child relationship proceeding should be instituted. The placement shall be terminated and the child returned to the child's home if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the child will not suffer harm in the manner specified in section 232.2, subsection 6. If the placement is extended, the court shall determine whether additional services are necessary to facilitate the return of the child to the child's home, and if the court determines such services are needed, the court shall order the provision of such services. When the child is not returned to the child's home and if the child has been previously placed in a licensed foster care facility, the department or agency responsible for the placement of the child shall consider placing the child in the same licensed foster care facility.

232.103 Termination, modification, vacation and substitution of dispositional order.

1. At any time prior to expiration of a dispositional order and upon the motion of an authorized party or upon its own motion as provided in this section, the court may terminate the order and discharge the child, modify the order, or vacate the order and make a new order.

2. The following persons shall be authorized to file a motion to terminate, modify or vacate and substitute a dispositional order:

- a. The child.
 - b. The child's parent, guardian or custodian, except that such motion may be filed by that person not more often than once every six months except with leave of court for good cause shown.
 - c. The child's guardian ad litem.
 - d. A person supervising the child pursuant to a dispositional order.
 - e. An agency, facility, institution or person to whom legal custody has been transferred pursuant to a dispositional order.
 - f. The county attorney.
3. A hearing shall be held on a motion to terminate or modify a dispositional order except that a hearing on a motion to terminate an order may be waived upon agreement by all parties. Reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings in cases of juvenile delinquency as provided in section 232.37. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 232.50.

4. The court may terminate an order and release the child if the court finds that the purposes of the order have been accomplished and the child is no longer in need of supervision, care or treatment.

5. The court may modify or vacate an order for good cause shown provided that where the request to modify or vacate is based on the child's alleged failure to comply with the conditions or terms of the order, the court may modify or vacate the order only if it finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child violated a material and reasonable condition or term of the order.

6. If the court vacates the order it may make any other order in accordance with and subject to the provisions of sections 232.100 to 232.102.

DIVISION IV

TERMINATION OF PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP PROCEEDING

Referred to in §600A 5

232.109 Jurisdiction.

The juvenile court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter to terminate a parent-child relationship and all parental rights with respect to a child. No such termination shall be ordered except under the provisions of this chapter if the court has made an order concerning the child pursuant to the provisions of division III of this chapter and the order is in force at the time a petition for termination is filed.

[C79, 81, §232.109]

232.110 Venue.

1. Venue for termination proceedings under this chapter shall be in the judicial district where the child is found or the judicial district where the child resides except as otherwise provided in subsection 2.

2. If a court has made an order concerning the child pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the order is still in force at the time the termination petition is filed, such court shall hear and adjudicate the case unless the court transfers the case.

3. The judge may transfer the case to the juvenile court of any county having venue in accordance with the provisions of section 232.62.

[C79, 81, §232.110]

232.111 Petition.

1. A child's guardian or custodian, the department of human services, a juvenile court officer or the county attorney may file a petition for termination of the parent-child relationship and parental rights with respect to a child.

2 The department, juvenile court officer, county attorney or judge may authorize any competent person having knowledge of the circumstances to file a termination petition with the clerk of the court without the payment of a filing fee

3 A petition for termination of parental rights shall include the following a The legal name, age, and domicile, if any, of the child

b The names, residences, and domicile of any

(1) Living parents of the child

(2) Guardian of the child

(3) Custodian of the child

(4) Guardian ad litem of the child

(5) Petitioner

(6) Person standing in the place of the parents of the child

c A plain statement of those facts and grounds specified in section 232 116 which indicate that the parent child relationship should be terminated

d A plain statement explaining why the petitioner does not know any of the information required under paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection

e The signature and verification of the petitioner

232.112 Notice — service.

1 Persons listed in section 232 111, subsection 3, shall be necessary parties to a termination of parent child relationship proceeding and are entitled to receive notice and an opportunity to be heard, except that notice may be dispensed with in the case of any such person whose name or whereabouts the court determines is unknown and cannot be ascertained by reasonably diligent search

2 Prior to the service of notice on the necessary parties, the juvenile court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a child if the child does not have a guardian or guardian ad litem or if the interests of the guardian or guardian ad litem conflict with the interests of the child Such guardian ad litem shall be a necessary party under subsection 1

3 Notice under this section shall be served personally or shall be sent by restricted certified mail, whichever is determined by the court to be the most effective means of notification Such notice shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure relating to an original notice where not inconsistent with the provisions of this section Notice by personal delivery shall be served not less than seven days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights Notice by restricted certified mail shall be sent not less than fourteen days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights A notice by restricted certified mail which is refused by the necessary party given notice shall be sufficient notice to the party under this section

[C79, 81, §232 112]

232.113 Right to and appointment of counsel.

1 Upon the filing of a petition the parent identified in the petition shall have the right to counsel in connection with all subsequent hearings and proceedings If the parent desires but is financially unable to employ counsel, the court shall appoint counsel

2 Upon the filing of a petition the court shall appoint counsel for the child identified in the petition as a party to the proceedings The same person may serve both as the child's counsel and as guardian ad litem

[C79, 81, §232 113]

232.114 Duties of county attorney.

Upon the filing of a petition the county attorney shall represent the state in all adversary proceedings arising under this division and shall present evidence in support of the petition

[C81, §232 114]

232.115 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or electronic or mechanical recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624 9

[C81, §232 115]

232.116 Grounds for termination.

Except as provided in subsection 6, the court may order the termination of both the parental rights with respect to a child and the relationship between the parents and the child on any of the following grounds

1 The parents voluntarily and intelligently consent to the termination of parental rights and the parent child relationship and for good cause desire the termination

2 The court finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child has been abandoned

3 The court finds that a One or both parents has physically or sexually abused the child, and b The court has previously adjudicated the child to be a child in need of assistance after finding the child to have been physically or sexually abused as the result of the acts or omissions of the parent or parents, or the court has previously adjudicated a child who is a member of the same family to be a child in need of assistance after such a finding, and c There is clear and convincing evidence that the parents had received or were offered services to correct the situation which led to the abuse

4 The court finds that a The child has been adjudicated a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232 96, and

b The custody of the child has been transferred from the child's parents for placement pursuant to section 232 102 and the placement has lasted for a period of at least six consecutive months, but less than twelve consecutive months, and

c There is clear and convincing evidence that the child cannot be returned to the custody of the child's parents as provided in section 232 102, and d There is clear and convincing evidence that the parents have not maintained contact with the child during the previous six consecutive months and have made no reasonable efforts to resume care of the child despite being given the opportunity to do so.

5. The court finds that:

a. The child has been adjudicated a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232.96; and

b. The custody of the child has been transferred from the child's parents for placement pursuant to section 232.102 for at least twelve of the last eighteen months; and

c. There is clear and convincing evidence that the child cannot be returned to the custody of the child's parents as provided in section 232.102.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 2 to 5 the court need not terminate the relationship between parents and child if the court finds:

a. A relative has legal custody of the child; or

b. The child is over ten years of age and objects to such termination; or

c. There is clear and convincing evidence that such termination would be detrimental to the child at the time due to the closeness of the parent-child relationship; or

d. It is necessary to place the child in a hospital, facility or institution for care and treatment and the continuation of the parent-child relationship is not preventing a permanent family placement for the child.

e. That the absence of a parent is due to the parent's admission or commitment to any institution, hospital or health facility or due to active service in the state or federal armed forces.

232.117 Termination — findings — disposition.

1. After the hearing is concluded the court shall make and file written findings.

2. If the court concludes that facts sufficient to terminate parental rights have not been established by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall dismiss the petition.

3. If the court concludes that facts sufficient to sustain the petition have been established by clear and convincing evidence, the court may order parental rights terminated. If the court terminates the parental rights of the child's natural or adoptive parents, the court shall transfer the guardianship and custody of the child to one of the following:

a. The department of human services.

b. A child placing agency or other suitable private agency, facility or institution which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child.

c. A relative or other suitable person.

4. If after a hearing the court does not order the termination of parental rights but finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child is a child in need of assistance, under section 232.2, subsection 6, due to the acts or omissions of one or both of the child's parents the court may adjudicate the child to be a child in need of assistance and may enter an order in accordance with the provisions of sections 232.100, 232.101 or 232.102.

5. If the court orders the termination of parental rights and transfers guardianship and custody under subsection 3, the department of human services or the agency responsible for the placement shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to establish a stable placement for the child by adoption or other permanent placement. The child's placement shall be reviewed by the court every six months until the child is adopted.

1. Upon application of an interested party or upon the court's own motion, the court having jurisdiction of the child may, after notice to the parties and a hearing, remove a court appointed guardian and appoint a guardian in accordance with the provisions of section 232.117, subsection 3.

2. Any minor fourteen years of age or older who has not been adopted but who is placed in a satisfactory foster home may with the consent of the foster parents join with the guardian appointed by the court in an application to the court to remove the existing guardian and appoint the foster parents as guardians of the child.

3. The authority of a guardian appointed by the court terminates when the child reaches the age of majority or is adopted.

232.127 Hearing — adjudication — disposition.

1. Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall fix a time for a hearing and give notice thereof to the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

2. A parent without custody may petition the court to be made a party to proceedings under this division.

3. The court shall exclude the general public from such hearing except the court in its discretion may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the case or the work of the court.

4. The hearing shall be informal and all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

5. The court may adjudicate the family to be a family in need of assistance and enter an appropriate dispositional order if the court finds:

a. There has been a breakdown in the relationship between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian; and

b. The child or the child's parent, guardian or custodian has sought services from public or private agencies to maintain and improve the familial relationship; and

c. The court has at its disposal services for this purpose which can be made available to the family.

6. If the court makes such a finding the court may order any or all of the parties to accept counseling and to comply with any other reasonable orders designed to maintain and improve the familial relationship. At the conclusion of any counseling ordered by the court, or at any other time deemed necessary, the parties shall be required to meet together and be apprised of the findings and recommendations of such counseling. Such an order shall remain in force for a period not to exceed one year unless the court otherwise specifies or sooner terminates the order.

7. The court may not order the child placed on probation, in a foster home or in a nonsecure facility unless the child requests and agrees to such supervision or placement. In no event shall the court order the child placed in the state training school or other secure facility.

8. A child found in contempt of court because of violation of conditions imposed under this section shall not be considered delinquent. Such a contempt may be punished by imposition of a work assignment or assignments to benefit the state or a governmental subdivision of the state. In addition to or in lieu of such an assignment or assignments, the court may impose one of the dispositions set out in sections 232.100 to 232.102.

APPEAL

232.133 Appeal.

1. Any interested party aggrieved by any order or decree of the juvenile court may appeal from the court for review of questions of law or fact.

2. The procedure for such appeals shall be governed by the same provisions applicable to appeals from the district court provided that when such order or decree affects the custody of a child the appeal shall be heard at the earliest practicable time.

3. The pendency of an appeal or application therefor shall not suspend the order of the juvenile court regarding a child and shall not discharge the child from the custody of the court or the agency, association, facility, institution or person to whom the court has transferred legal custody unless the appellate court otherwise orders on application of an appellant.

4. If the appellate court does not dismiss the proceedings and discharge the child, the appellate court shall affirm or modify the order of the juvenile court and remand the child to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court for disposition not inconsistent with the appellate court's finding on the appeal.

DIVISION VII

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

232.139 Interstate juvenile compacts.

The state of Iowa through its courts and agencies is hereby authorized to enter into interstate compacts on juveniles in behalf of this state with any other contracting state which legally joins therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I — FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The co-operation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to

1. Co-operative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole;

2. The return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded;

3. The return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and

4. Additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake co-operatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformative and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to co-operate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — EXISTING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — DEFINITIONS

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

a. That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for the juvenile's return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of the juvenile's running away, the juvenile's location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering the juvenile's own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent whether or not the juvenile is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel the juvenile's return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, the judge shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the juvenile's legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that the juvenile be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing the officer or person to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of the demand made for the juvenile's return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for the juvenile. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, the judge shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the juvenile's legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for the person's own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding ninety days as will enable the person's return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for the person's return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein the juvenile is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which the juvenile ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

Referred to in Art. VI

b. That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

c. That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V — RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABSCONDERS
Referred to in Art. XIV b, d

a. That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody the delinquent juvenile has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of the juvenile's adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of the juvenile's probation or parole or of the juvenile's escape from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing the officer or person to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of the demand made for the juvenile's return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for the juvenile. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, the judge shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the person's legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, the person must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding ninety days, as will enable the person's detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein the juvenile is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which the juvenile escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

Referred to in Art. VI

b. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

ARTICLE VI — VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV "a" or of Article V "a", may consent to the juvenile's immediate return to the state from which the juvenile absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to the juvenile's return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of the juvenile's rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver the juvenile to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding the juvenile's return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order the juvenile to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide the juvenile with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII CO-OPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES Referred to in Art. XIV

a. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

b. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

c. That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against the juvenile within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

d. That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

Referred to in Art. VIII a, b

ARTICLE VIII — RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

a That the provisions of Articles IV “b”, V “b” and VII “d” of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor

b That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV “b”, V “b” or VII “d” of this compact

ARTICLE IX — DETENTION PRACTICES

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons

ARTICLE X — SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS
Referred to in Art. XIV

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the co-operative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall

1 Provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished,

2 Provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to the juvenile being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody,

3 Provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile,

4 Provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state,

5 Provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state,

6 Provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to the juvenile being sent to another state, and

7 Make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states

ARTICLE XI — ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants

ARTICLE XII — COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact

ARTICLE XIII — EXECUTION OF COMPACT

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state

ARTICLE XIV — RENUNCIATION

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present Article

Out-of-State Confinement Amendment

a Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a sending state shall determine that confinement of a probationer or reconfinement of a parolee is necessary or desirable, said officials may direct that the confinement or reconfinement be in an appropriate institution for delinquent juveniles within the territory of the receiving state, such receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state

b Escapees and absconders who would otherwise be returned pursuant to Article V of the compact may be confined or reconfined in the receiving state pursuant to ant to this amendment. In any such case the information and allegations required to be made and furnished in a requisition pursuant to such Article shall be made and furnished, but in place of the demand pursuant to Article V, the sending state shall request confinement or reconfinement in the receiving state. Whenever applicable, detention orders as provided in Article V may be employed pursuant to this paragraph preliminary to disposition of the escapee or absconder.

c The confinement or reconfinement of a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder pursuant to this amendment shall require the concurrence of the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the receiving state.

d As used in this amendment: (1) "Sending state" means sending state as that term is used in Article VII of the compact or the state from which a delinquent juvenile has escaped or absconded within the meaning of Article V of the compact; (2) "receiving state" means any state, other than the sending state, in which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be found, provided that said state is a party to this amendment.

e Every state which adopts this amendment shall designate at least one of its institutions for delinquent juveniles as a "Compact Institution" and shall confine persons therein as provided in paragraph "a" hereof unless the sending and receiving state in question shall make specific contractual arrangements to the contrary. All states party to this amendment shall have access to "Compact Institutions" at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and for the purpose of visiting such of said state's delinquents as may be confined in the institution.

f Persons confined in "Compact Institutions" pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed from said "Compact Institution" for transfer to an appropriate institution within the sending state, for return to probation or parole, for discharge or for any purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state.

g. All persons who may be confined in a "Compact Institution" pursuant to the provisions of this amendment shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner. The fact of confinement or reconfinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any person so confined or reconfined of any rights which said person would have had if confined or reconfined in an appropriate institution of the sending state; nor shall any agreement to submit to confinement or reconfinement pursuant to the terms of this amendment be construed as a waiver of any rights which the delinquent would have had if the delinquent had been confined or reconfined in any appropriate institution of the sending state except that the hearing or hearings, if any, to which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be entitled (prior to confinement or reconfinement) by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate judicial or administrative officers of the receiving state. In this event, said judicial and administrative officers shall act as agents of the sending state after consultation with appropriate officers of the sending state.

h Any receiving state incurring costs or other expenses under this amendment shall be reimbursed in the amount of such costs or other expenses by the sending state unless the states concerned shall specifically otherwise agree. Any two or more states party to this amendment may enter into supplementary agreements determining a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

i This amendment shall take initial effect when entered into by any two or more states party to the compact and shall be effective as to those states which have specifically enacted this amendment. Rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the terms of this amendment may be promulgated by the appropriate officers of those states which have enacted this amendment.

232.140 Confinement of delinquent juvenile.

In addition to any institution in which the authorities of this state may otherwise confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile, such authorities may, pursuant to the out-of-state confinement amendment to the interstate compact on juveniles, confine or order the confinement of a delinquent juvenile in a compact institution within another party state.

DIVISION VIII

EXPENSES AND COSTS

Referred to in §232.48, 602.1303

232.141 Expenses charged to county.

1. The following expenses upon certification of the judge or upon such other authorization as provided by law are a charge upon the county in which the proceedings are held to the extent provided in subsection 4.

a The fees and mileage of witnesses and the expenses and mileage of officers serving notices and subpoenas.

b The expenses of transporting a child to a place designated by a child placing agency for the care of a child if the court transfers legal custody to a child placing agency.

c The expense of transporting a child to or from a place designated by the court.

d Reasonable compensation for an attorney appointed by the court to serve as counsel or guardian ad litem.

e The expense of treatment or care ordered by the court under an authority of subsection 2.

2 Whenever legal custody of a minor is transferred by the court or whenever the minor is placed by the court with someone other than the parents or whenever a minor is given physical or mental examinations or treatment under order of the court and no provision is otherwise made by law for payment for the care examination or treatment of the minor, the costs shall be charged upon the funds of the county in which the proceedings are held upon certification of the judge to the board of supervisors. Except where the parent-child relationship is terminated, the court may inquire into the ability of the parents to support the minor and after giving the parents a reasonable opportunity to be heard may order the parents to pay in the manner and to whom the court may direct, such sums as will cover in whole or in part the cost of care, examination, or treatment of the minor. An order entered under this section shall not obligate a parent paying child support under a custody decree, except that any part of such a monthly support payment may be used to satisfy the obligations imposed by an order entered under this section. If the parents fail to pay the sum without good reason, the parents may be proceeded against for contempt or the court may inform the county attorney who shall proceed against the parents to collect the unpaid sums or both. Any such sums ordered by the court shall be a judgment against each of the parents and a lien as provided in section 624.23. If all or any part of the sums that the parents are ordered to pay is subsequently paid by the county, the judgment and lien shall thereafter be against each of the parents in favor of the county to the extent of such payments.

3. The county charged with the cost and expenses under subsection 1 or 2 may recover the costs and expenses from the county where the child has legal settlement by filing verified claims which shall be payable as are other claims against the county. A detailed statement of the facts upon which the claim is based shall accompany the claim. Any dispute involving the legal settlement of a child for which the court has ordered payment under authority of this section shall be settled in accordance with sections 252.22 and 252.23.

4. Costs incurred under this section shall be paid as follows:

a. The costs incurred under the provisions of section 232.52 of prior Codes by each county for the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1975, 1976 and 1977 shall be averaged. The average cost for each county shall be that county's base cost for the first fiscal year after July 1, 1979.

b. Each county shall be required to pay for the first fiscal year after July 1, 1979 an amount equal to its base cost plus an amount equal to the percentage rate of change in the consumer price index as tabulated by the bureau of labor statistics for the current fiscal year times the base cost.

c. A county's base cost for a fiscal year plus the percentage rate of change amount as computed in paragraph "b" of this subsection shall become that county's base cost for the succeeding fiscal year. The amount to be paid in the succeeding year by the county shall be computed as provided in paragraph "b".

d. Costs incurred under provisions of this section which are not paid by the county under the provisions of paragraphs "a," "b" and "c" shall be paid by the state. The counties shall apply for reimbursement to the department, which shall promulgate rules and forms to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

232.142 Maintenance and cost of juvenile homes.

1. County boards of supervisors which singly or in conjunction with one or more other counties provide and maintain juvenile detention and juvenile shelter care homes are subject to this section.

2. For the purpose of providing and maintaining a county or multicounty home, the board of supervisors of any county may issue general county purpose bonds in accordance with sections 331.441 to 331.449. Expenses for providing and maintaining a multicounty home shall be paid by the counties participating in a manner to be determined by the boards of supervisors.

3. Upon request of the board of supervisors, the area education agency shall provide suitable curriculum, teaching staff, books, supplies, and other necessary materials and equipment for the instruction of children of school age who are detained in such a home.

4. Approved county or multicounty juvenile homes shall be entitled to receive financial aid from the state in the amount and in such manner as determined by the commissioner. Aid paid by the state shall not exceed fifty percent of the total cost of the establishment, improvements, operation, and maintenance of such a home.

5. The commissioner shall adopt minimal rules and standards for the establishment, maintenance, and operation of such homes as shall be necessary to effect the purposes of this chapter. The commissioner shall, upon request, give guidance and consultation in the establishment and administration of such homes and programs for such homes.

6. The commissioner shall approve annually all such homes established and maintained under the provisions of this chapter. No such home shall be approved unless it complies with minimal rules and standards adopted by the commissioner.

DIVISION IX

RECORDS

232.147 Confidentiality of juvenile court records.

1. Juvenile court records shall be confidential. They shall not be inspected and their contents shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section.

2. Official juvenile court records in cases alleging delinquency shall be public records, subject to sealing under section 232.150. If the court has excluded the public from a hearing under division II of this chapter, the transcript of the proceedings shall not be deemed a public record and inspection and disclosure of the contents of the transcript shall not be permitted except pursuant to court order or unless otherwise provided in this chapter.

3. Official juvenile court records in all cases except those alleging delinquency may be inspected and their contents shall be disclosed to the following without court order:

a. The judge and professional court staff, including juvenile court officers.

- b. The child and the child's counsel.
- c. The child's parent, guardian or custodian, and guardian ad litem.
- d. The county attorney and the county attorney's assistants.
- e. An agency, association, facility or institution which has custody of the child, or is legally responsible for the care, treatment or supervision of the child.
- f. A court, court professional staff, and adult probation officers in connection with the preparation of a presentence report concerning a person who prior thereto had been the subject of a juvenile court proceeding.

g. The foster care review committee selected to review recommendations regarding the child's placement in foster care pursuant to section 234.42.

4. Pursuant to court order official records may be inspected by and their contents may be disclosed to:

a. A person conducting bona fide research for research purposes under whatever conditions the court may deem proper, provided that no personal identifying data shall be disclosed to such a person.

b. Persons who have a direct interest in a proceeding or in the work of the court.

5. Inspection of social records and disclosure of their contents shall not be permitted except pursuant to court order or unless otherwise provided in this subsection or chapter.

If an informal adjustment of a complaint is made pursuant to section 232.29, the intake officer shall disclose to the victim of the delinquent act, upon the request of the victim, the name and address of the child who committed the delinquent act.

6. All juvenile court records shall be made available for inspection and their contents shall be disclosed to any party to the case and the party's counsel and to any trial or appellate court in connection with an appeal pursuant to division VI of this chapter.

232.148 Fingerprints — Photographs.

1. Except as provided in this section, a child shall not be fingerprinted or photographed by a criminal justice agency after the child is taken into custody.

2. Fingerprints and photographs of a child who has been taken into custody and who is fourteen years of age or older may be taken and filed by a criminal justice agency investigating the commission of a public offense constituting a felony. However, fingerprint and photograph files of a child who enters into an informal adjustment or consent decree shall be retained only if the child is notified at the time of entering into the informal adjustment or consent decree that the files will be permanently retained by the criminal justice agency.

3. If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that latent fingerprints found during the investigation of the commission of a public offense are those of a particular child, fingerprints of the child may be taken for immediate comparison with the latent fingerprints regardless of the nature of the offense. If the comparison is negative the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be immediately destroyed. If the comparison is positive and the child is referred to the court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be delivered to the court for disposition. If the child is not referred to the court, the fingerprint card and copies of the fingerprints shall be immediately destroyed.

4. Fingerprint and photograph files of children shall be kept separate from those of adults. Copies of fingerprints and photographs of a child shall not be placed in any data storage system established and maintained by the department of public safety pursuant to chapter 692, or in any federal depository for fingerprints.

5. Fingerprint and photograph files of children may be inspected by peace officers when necessary for the discharge of their official duties. The juvenile court may authorize other inspections of such files in individual cases upon a showing that inspection is necessary in the public interest.

6. Fingerprints and photographs of a child shall be removed from the file and destroyed if any of the following situations apply:

a. A petition alleging the child to be delinquent is not filed and the child has not entered into an informal adjustment, admitting involvement in a delinquent act alleged in the complaint.

b. After a petition is filed, the petition is dismissed or the proceedings are suspended and the child has not entered into a consent decree and has not been adjudicated delinquent on the basis of a delinquent act other than one alleged in the petition in question.

c. Upon petition by the child when the child reaches twenty-one years of age and the child has not been adjudicated a delinquent nor convicted of committing an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony after reaching sixteen years of age.

 Referred to in §232.151

232.149 Law enforcement records.

1. The taking of a child into custody under the provisions of section 232.19 shall not be considered an arrest.

2. Records and files of a criminal justice agency concerning a child other than fingerprint and photograph records and files shall not be open to inspection and their contents shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and section 232.150 unless the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction over the child so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult for a public offense.

3. Such records may be inspected and their contents may be disclosed without a court order to the following:

a. Peace officers of this state and other jurisdictions when necessary for the discharge of their official duties.

b. The judge and professional staff, including juvenile court officers, of a juvenile court or of a juvenile or family court in another jurisdiction having the child currently before it in any proceeding.

c. The child, the child's counsel, parent, guardian, custodian and guardian ad litem.

d. The designated representative of any agency, association, facility or institution which has custody of the child, or is responsible for the care, treatment or supervision of the child pursuant to a court order.

e. A court in which the child has been convicted of a public offense in connection with a presentence report or dispositional proceedings.

4. Pursuant to court order such records may be inspected by and their contents may be disclosed to the following:

a. A person conducting bona fide research for research purposes under such conditions as the court may deem proper, provided that no personal identifying data shall be disclosed to such a person.

b. Persons who have a direct interest in a proceeding or in the work of the court.

232.150 Sealing of records.

1. Upon application of a person who was taken into custody for a delinquent act or was the subject of a complaint alleging delinquency or was the subject of a delinquency petition, or upon the court's own motion, the court, after hearing, shall order the records in the case including those specified in sections 232.147 and 232.149 sealed if the court finds all of the following:

a. Two years have elapsed since the final discharge of the person or since the last official action in the person's case if there was no adjudication and disposition.

b. The person has not been subsequently convicted of a felony or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor or adjudicated a delinquent child for an act which if committed by an adult would be a felony, an aggravated misdemeanor or a serious misdemeanor and no proceeding is pending seeking such conviction or adjudication.

However, if the person was adjudicated delinquent for an offense which if committed by an adult would be an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony, the court shall not order the records in the case sealed unless, upon application of the person or upon the court's own motion and after hearing, the court finds that paragraphs "a" and "b" apply and that the sealing is in the best interests of the person and the public.

2. Reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given to the person who is the subject of the records named in the motion, the county attorney, and the agencies having custody of the records named in the application or motion.

3. Notice and copies of a sealing order shall be sent to each agency or person having custody or the records named therein.

4. On entry of a sealing order:

a. All agencies and persons having custody of records which are named therein, shall send such records to the court issuing the order.

b. All index references to sealed records shall be deleted.

5. The sealed records shall no longer be deemed to exist as a matter of law, and the juvenile court and any other agency or person who received notice and a copy of the sealing order shall reply to an inquiry that no such records exist, except when such reply is made to an inquiry pursuant to subsection 6.

6. Inspection of sealed records and disclosure of their contents thereafter may be permitted only pursuant to an order of the court upon application of the person who is the subject of such records except that the court in its discretion may permit reports to be inspected by or their contents to be disclosed for research purposes to a person conducting bona fide research under whatever conditions the court deems proper.

Rules adopted by the Supreme Court are published in the compilation "Iowa Court Rules"

232.153 Applicability of this chapter prior to its effective date.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, this chapter does not apply to juvenile court cases brought prior to July 1, 1979 or to acts committed prior to July 1, 1979 which would otherwise bring a child or a child's parent, guardian or custodian within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to this chapter.

2. In a case pending on or commenced after July 1, 1979, involving acts committed prior to July 1, 1979, upon the request of any party and the approval of the court:

a. Procedural provisions of this chapter shall apply insofar as they are justly applicable.

b. The court may order a disposition of the case pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

3. Provisions of this chapter governing the termination, modification or vacation of a dispositional order shall apply to persons to whom a dispositional order has been issued for acts committed prior to July 1, 1979, except that the maximum length of the order and the severity of the disposition shall not be increased. The provisions of this chapter shall not affect the substantive or procedural validity of a judgment entered before July 1, 1979, regardless of the fact that appeal time has not run or that an appeal is pending.

CHAPTER 232A

JUVENILE VICTIM RESTITUTION

- 232A.1 Definitions.
232A.2 Program created.

- 232A.3 Reports required.
232A.4 Restitution for delinquent acts.

232A.1 Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, "agency" means the criminal and juvenile justice planning agency established in chapter 80C.

83 Acts, ch 94, §2

232A.2 Program created.

A juvenile victim restitution program is created which shall be funded through moneys appropriated by the general assembly to the agency. The primary purpose of the program is to provide funds to compensate victims for losses due to the delinquent acts of juveniles.

Upon completion of a district's plan, the agency shall provide funds in conformance with the procedures and policies of the state. The agency shall reclaim any portion of an initial allocation to a judicial district that is unencumbered on December 31 of any year. The agency shall immediately reallocate the reclaimed funds to those judicial districts from which funds were not reclaimed in the manner provided in this section for the original allocation. Any portion of an amount allocated that remains unencumbered on June 30 of any year shall revert to the general fund of the state.

83 Acts, ch 94, §3

232A.3 Reports required.

Each judicial district shall submit a report of the progress and financial status of its juvenile victim restitution program to the agency on a quarterly basis. The agency shall prepare and submit a report on the progress and financial status of the programs to the general assembly no later than March 15, 1984, and again every year thereafter.

83 Acts, ch 94, §4

232A.4 Restitution for delinquent acts.

If a judge of a juvenile court finds that a juvenile has committed a delinquent act and requires the juvenile to compensate the victim of that act for losses due to the delinquent act of the juvenile, the juvenile shall make such restitution according to a schedule established by the judge from funds earned by the juvenile pursuant to employment engaged in by the juvenile at the time of disposition. If a juvenile enters into an informal adjustment agreement pursuant to section 232.29 to make such restitution, the juvenile shall make such restitution according to a schedule which shall be a part of the informal adjustment agreement. The restitution shall be made under the direction of a probation officer working under the direction of the juvenile court. In those counties where the county maintains an office to provide juvenile victim restitution services, the probation officer may use that office's services. If the juvenile is not employed, the juvenile's probation officer shall make a reasonable effort to find private or other public employment for the juvenile. However, if the juvenile offender does not have employment at the time of disposition and private or other public employment is not obtained despite the efforts of the juvenile's probation officer, the judge may direct the juvenile offender to perform work pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "a", and arrange for compensation of the juvenile in the manner provided for under the program established pursuant to this chapter.

83 Acts, ch 94, §5

CHAPTER 233

CONTRIBUTING TO JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

- 233.1 Contributing to delinquency.
233.2 Penalty — not a bar.
233.3 Suspension of sentence.

- 233.4 Preliminary examination.
233.5 Interpretative clause.

233.1 Contributing to delinquency.

It shall be unlawful:

1. To encourage any child under eighteen years of age to commit any act of delinquency defined in chapter 232.

2. To send, or cause to be sent, any such child to a house of prostitution or to any place where intoxicating liquors are unlawfully sold or unlawfully kept for sale, or to any policy shop, or to any gambling place, or to any public poolroom where beer is sold, or to induce any such child to go to any such places, knowing them to be such.

3. To knowingly encourage, contribute, or in any manner cause such child to violate any law of this state, or any ordinance of any city.

4. To knowingly permit, encourage, or cause such child to be guilty of any vicious or immoral conduct.

5. For a parent willfully to fail to support the parent's child under eighteen years of age whom the parent has a legal obligation to support.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3658; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233.1]

Referred to in §233.2

233.2 Penalty — not a bar.

A violation of section 233.1 is a simple misdemeanor. A conviction does not bar a prosecution of the convicted person for an indictable offense when the acts which caused or contributed to the delinquency or dependency of the child are indictable.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3659; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233.2]

84 Acts, ch 1219, §11

See §233.5

233.3 Suspension of sentence.

Upon said conviction being had, the court may, for a period not exceeding two years, suspend sentence under such conditions as to good behavior as it may prescribe. Should said conditions be fulfilled, the court may at any time enter an order setting said conviction aside and wholly releasing the defendant therefrom. Should said condition be not fulfilled to the satisfaction of the court, an order of sentence may at any time be entered which shall be effective from the date thereof.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3660; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233.3]

233.4 Preliminary examination.

If, in proceedings in juvenile court, it appears probable that an indictable offense has been committed and that the commission thereof caused, or contributed to, the delinquency or dependency of such a child, said court may order the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of such suspected person, and on the appearance of such person said court may proceed to hold a preliminary examination, and in so doing shall exercise all the powers of a committing magistrate.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3661; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233.4]

233.5 Interpretative clause.

For the purposes of this chapter the word "dependency" shall mean all the conditions as enumerated in section 232.2, subsection 6.

[C31, 35, §3661-c1; C39, §3661.001; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233.5]

234.2 Division created.

Within the state department of human services, there is hereby created a division of child and family services which shall be administered by the director of said division and such other officers and employees as may be hereafter provided

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234 2]

234.3 to 234.5 Repealed by 62GA, ch 209, §215234.6 Powers and duties of the state director.

The state director shall be vested with the authority to administer aid to dependent children, state supplementary assistance, food programs, child welfare, and emergency relief, family and adult service programs and any other form of public welfare assistance and institutions that may hereafter be placed under the director's administration. The director shall perform such duties, formulate and make such rules as may be necessary, shall outline such policies, dictate such procedure and delegate such powers as may be necessary for competent and efficient administration. Subject to restrictions that may be imposed by the commissioner of human services and the council on human services, the director shall have power to abolish, alter, consolidate or establish subdivisions and may abolish or change offices created in connection therewith. The director may employ necessary personnel and fix their compensation, may allocate or reallocate functions and duties among any subdivisions now existing or hereafter established, and may promulgate rules relating to the employment of personnel and the allocation of their functions and duties among the various subdivisions as competent and efficient administration may require

The state director shall

1 Co operate with the federal social security board created by title VII of the Social Security Act [42 U S C 901], enacted by the 74th Congress of the United States and approved August 14, 1935, or other agency of the federal government for public welfare assistance, in such reasonable manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid, including the making of such reports in such form and containing such information as the federal social security board, from time to time, may require, and to comply with such regulations as such federal social security board, from time to time, may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports

2 Furnish information to acquaint the public generally with the operation of the acts under the jurisdiction of the state director

3 With the approval of the commissioner of human services, the governor and comptroller, set up from the funds under the director's control and management an administrative fund and from said administrative fund to pay the expenses of operating the state division

4 Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in chapter 239 relating to the consideration of income and resources of claimants for assistance, the state director, with the consent and approval of the commissioner of human services and the council on human services shall make such rules as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid in the assistance programs administered by the state director

5 The department of human services shall have the power and authority to use the funds available to it, to purchase services of all kinds from public or private agencies to provide for the needs of children, including but not limited to psychiatric services supervision, specialized group, foster homes and institutional care

6 Have authority to use funds available to the department, subject to any limitations placed on the use thereof by the legislation appropriating the funds, to provide to or purchase, for families and individuals eligible therefor, services including but not limited to the following a Day care for children or adults, in facilities which are licensed or are approved as meeting standards for licensure

b Foster care, including foster family care, group homes and institutions

c Homemaker services, meeting the standards of the department, provided by agency trained or supervised homemakers placed in the homes of families or adults to assist with maintenance and management of the home, upgrade the level of living of occupants of the home, provide care for children while one or both parents are away, or provide personal care for an ill or disabled family member

The department of human services is authorized to enter into such agreements with agencies of the federal government as are necessary in order to make available to the people of this state any federal food programs which may, under federal laws and regulations, be implemented in this state. Each such program shall be implemented in every county in the state, or in each county where implementation is permitted by federal laws and regulations.

[C79, 81, §234.12]

234.13 Fraudulent practices relating to food programs.

A person is guilty of a fraudulent practice if that person:

1. With intent to gain financial assistance to which that person is not entitled, knowingly makes or causes to be made a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to report to an employee of the department of human services any change in income, resources or other circumstances affecting that person's entitlement to such financial assistance; or

2. As a beneficiary of the food programs, transfers any food stamp coupons or an authorization-to-purchase card to any other individual with intent that such coupons or card be used for the benefit of someone other than persons within the beneficiary's food stamp household as certified by the department of human services; or

3. Knowingly acquires, uses or attempts to use any food stamp coupon or authorization-to-purchase card not issued for the benefit of that person's food stamp household by the department of human services, or by an agency administering food programs in another state.

4. Acquires, alters, transfers, or redeems food stamp coupons or possesses coupons, knowing that the coupons have been received, transferred, or used in violation of this section or the provisions of the federal food stamp program under 7 U.S.C. ch. 51 or the federal regulations issued pursuant to that chapter.

FAMILY PLANNING SERVICES

234.21 Services to be offered.

The state division may offer, provide, or purchase family planning and birth control services to every person who is an eligible applicant or recipient of service or any financial assistance from the department of human services, or who is receiving federal supplementary security income as defined in section 249.1.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.21]

234.22 Extent of services.

Such family planning and birth control services may include interview with trained personnel; distribution of literature; referral to a licensed physician for consultation, examination, tests, medical treatment and prescription; and, to the extent so prescribed, the distribution of rhythm charts, drugs, medical preparations, contraceptive devices and similar products.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.22]

234.23 Charge for services.

In making provision for and offering such services, the state division may charge those persons to whom family planning and birth control services are rendered a fee sufficient to reimburse the state division all or any portion of the costs of the services rendered.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.23]

234.24 Services may be refused.

The refusal of any person to accept family planning and birth control services shall in no way affect the right of such person to receive public assistance or any other public benefit and every person to whom such services are offered shall be so advised initially both orally and in writing. Employees engaged in the administration of this section shall recognize that the right to make decisions concerning family planning and birth control is a fundamental personal right of the individual and nothing in this division shall in any way abridge such individual right, nor shall any individual be required to state the individual's reason for refusing the offer of family planning and birth control services.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.24]

234.25 Language to be used.

In all cases where the recipient does not speak or read the English language, the services shall not be given unless the interviews shall be conducted in, and all literature shall be written in, a language which the recipient understands.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.25]

234.26 Construction.

This division shall be liberally construed to protect the rights of all individuals to pursue their religious beliefs and to follow the dictates of their own consciences, and to prevent the imposition upon any individual of practices offensive to the individual's moral standards.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.26]

234.27 Policy.

The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this division is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.27]

234.28 Obscenity laws not applicable.

The provisions of chapter 728 do not apply to services provided under the terms of this division.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.28]

234.29 to 234.34 Reserved.

FOSTER CARE EXPENSE

234.35 When state to pay foster care costs.

The department of human services shall be initially responsible for paying the cost of foster care for a child under any of the following circumstances:

1. When a court has committed the child to the commissioner of human services or the commissioner's designee.

2. When a court has transferred legal custody of the child to the department of human services.

3. When the department has agreed to provide foster care services for the child on the basis of a signed placement agreement between the department and the child's parent or guardian.

4. When the child has been placed in emergency care for a period of not more than thirty days upon approval of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §234.35]

Referred to in §234.37, 234.38, 237.15, 242.7

234.36 When county to pay foster care costs.

Each county shall pay the cost of foster care for a child placed by a court as provided in section 232.50 or section 232.99. However, in any fiscal year for which the general assembly appropriates state funds to pay for foster care for children placed by courts under sections 232.50 and 232.99, the county is responsible for these costs only when the funds so appropriated to the department for that fiscal year have been exhausted. The rate of payment by the county or the state under this section shall be that fixed by the department of human services pursuant to section 234.38.

234.37 Department may establish accounts for certain children.

The department of human services is authorized to establish an account in the name of any child committed to the commissioner of human services or the commissioner's designee, or whose legal custody has been transferred to the department, or who is voluntarily placed in foster care pursuant to section 234.35. Any money which the child receives from the United States government or any private source shall be placed in the child's account, unless a guardian of the child's property has been appointed and demands the money, in which case it shall be paid to the guardian. The account shall be maintained by the department as trustee for the child in an interest-bearing account at a reputable bank or savings and loan association, except that if the child is residing at an institution administered by the department a limited amount of the child's funds may be maintained in a separate account, which need not be interest bearing, in the child's name at the institution. Any money held in an account in the child's name or in trust for the child under this section may be used, at the discretion of the department and subject to restrictions lawfully imposed by the United States government or other source from which the child receives the funds, for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires and comforts of the child. All of the money held for a child by the department under this section and not used in the child's behalf as authorized by law shall be promptly paid to the child or the child's parent or legal guardian upon termination of the commitment of the child to the commissioner or the commissioner's designee, or upon transfer or cessation of legal custody of the child by the department.

Referred to in §234.38, 242.10, 244.6

234.38 Department may pay foster parents directly.

The department of human services is authorized to make payments directly to foster parents for services provided to children pursuant to section 234.6, subsection 6, paragraph "b", or sections 234.35 and 234.36. The rate of payment by the department for foster care shall be fixed by the department by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A. Payments may be made from any money legally available to the department for that purpose, including but not limited to funds appropriated by the general assembly, money available under section 234.37, and money received from the parent or legal guardian of a child to pay for that child's foster care.

234.39 Responsibility for cost of services.

It is the intent of this chapter that individuals served by the department of human services, and their respective parents or guardians, shall have primary responsibility for paying the cost of care and services provided by the department, to the extent consistent with their incomes and resources. The department shall establish a schedule of charges to be made for care and services provided, on a graduated scale related to the income and resources of the person responsible for payment, by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A. The schedule of charges established and adopted under this section shall not be inconsistent with the limitations on legal liability established under sections 222.78 and 230.15, and by any other statute limiting legal liability which may be imposed on any person for the cost of care and services provided by the department of human services.

A dispositional order of the juvenile court requiring the provision of foster care shall establish, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard is provided to a parent or guardian, the amount of the parent's or guardian's liability for the cost of foster care provided by the department. In establishing the amount of the liability, the court shall take into consideration the department's schedule of charges, and if the amount established deviates from the schedule of charges, the court shall explain the deviation in its order. The order shall direct the payment of the liability to the clerk of the district court for the use of the department's foster care recovery unit. The order shall be filed with the clerk and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment when entered in the judgment docket and lien index. The clerk shall disburse the payments pursuant to the order and enter the disbursements in a record book. If payments are not made as ordered, the clerk shall certify a default to the court and the court may, on its own motion, proceed under section 598.22 or 598.23. A dispositional order establishing the amount of a parent's or guardian's liability for the cost of foster care shall not vacate a prior court order which establishes the parent's or guardian's child support obligation.

234.40 Corporal punishment.

The department of human services shall not adopt or enforce any rule or policy prohibiting limited corporal punishment of foster children by foster parents licensed by the department. This paragraph shall not prevent promulgation of rules prohibiting malicious, willful and wanton conduct by a foster parent which causes injury or damage to a foster child, or exposes the foster child to danger of such injury or damage.

[C79, 81, §234.40]

234.41 Tort actions.

A foster parent licensed by the department of human services stands in the same relationship to the foster parent's minor foster child, for purposes of tort actions by or on behalf of the foster child against the foster parent, as a natural parent to the natural parent's minor child who resides at home. This section does not apply to a foster parent whose malicious, willful and wanton conduct causes injury or damage to a foster child or exposes the foster child to a danger caused by violation of a statute or the rules of the department of human services.

[C79, 81, §234.41]

234.42 Foster care review committees — confidentiality.

The department of human services shall select foster care review committees of at least three individuals each to review recommendations regarding a child foster care placement. The department shall determine the composition, organization, and duties of foster care review committees. Members of a foster care review committee who are not employees of the department are subject to the same standards of confidentiality comparable to those imposed on departmental employees under section 217.30.

235.3 Powers and duties of state director.

The state director shall:

1. Plan and supervise all public child welfare services and activities within the state as provided by this chapter.
2. Make such reports and obtain and furnish such information from time to time as may be necessary to permit co-operation by the state division with the United States children's bureau, the social security board, or any other federal agency which is now or may hereafter be charged with any duty regarding child care or child welfare services.
3. Make such rules and regulations as may be necessary or advisable for the supervision of the private child-caring agencies or officers thereof which the state director is empowered to license, inspect and supervise.
4. Supervise and inspect private institutions for the care of dependent, neglected and delinquent children, and to make reports regarding the same.
5. Designate and approve the private and county institutions within the state to which neglected, dependent and delinquent children may be legally committed and to have supervision of the care of children committed thereto, and the right of visitation and inspection of said institutions at all times.

6. Receive and keep on file annual reports from the juvenile courts of the state, and from all institutions to which neglected, dependent and delinquent children are committed; compile statistics regarding juvenile delinquency, make reports regarding the same and study prevention and cure of juvenile delinquency.

7. Require and receive from the clerks of the courts of record within the state duplicates of the findings of the courts upon petitions for adoption, and keep records and compile statistics regarding adoptions.

8. License and inspect maternity hospitals, and private child-placing agencies; make reports regarding them and revoke such licenses.

9. Make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the distribution and use of funds appropriated for child welfare services.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION

235A.1 Child abuse prevention program.

1. A program for the prevention of child abuse is established within the state department of human services. Any moneys appropriated by the general assembly for child abuse prevention shall be used by the department of human services solely for the purposes of child abuse prevention and shall not be expended for treatment or other service delivery programs regularly maintained by the department. Moneys appropriated for child abuse prevention shall be used by the department through contract with an agency or organization which shall administer the funds with maximum use of voluntary administrative services for the following:

- a. Matching federal funds to purchase services relating to community-based programs for the prevention of child abuse and neglect.
- b. Funding the establishment or expansion of community-based prevention projects or educational programs for the prevention of child abuse and neglect.
- c. To study and evaluate community-based prevention projects and educational programs for the problems of families and children.

Funds for the programs or projects shall be applied for and received by a community-based volunteer coalition or council.

2 The commissioner of human services may accept grants, gifts, and bequests from any source for the purposes designated in subsection 1. The commissioner shall remit funds so received to the treasurer of state who shall deposit them in the general fund of the state for the use of the child abuse prevention program.

3 The child abuse prevention program advisory council is created consisting of five members appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the governor. Two members shall be appointed on the basis of expertise in the area of child abuse and neglect, and three members shall be private citizens. The council shall select its own chairperson and shall serve without compensation or reimbursement for expenses.

4 The advisory council shall a Advise the commissioner of human services and the director of the division of the department of human services responsible for child and family programs regarding expenditures of funds received for the child abuse prevention program.

b Review the implementation and effectiveness of legislation and administrative rules concerning the child abuse prevention program.

c Recommend changes in legislation and administrative rules to the general assembly and the appropriate administrative officials.

d Require reports from state agencies and other entities as necessary to perform its duties.

e Receive and review complaints from the public concerning the operation and management of the child abuse prevention program.

f Approve grant proposals

CHILD ABUSE INFORMATION REGISTRY

235A.12 Legislative findings and purposes.

The general assembly finds and declares that a central registry is required to provide a single source for the state wide collection, maintenance and dissemination of child abuse information. Such a registry is imperative for increased effectiveness in dealing with the problem of child abuse. The general assembly also finds that vigorous protection of rights of individual privacy is an indispensable element of a fair and effective system of collecting, maintaining and disseminating child abuse information.

The purposes of this section and sections 235A.13 to 235A.23 are to facilitate the identification of victims or potential victims of child abuse by making available a single, statewide source of child abuse data, to facilitate research on child abuse by making available a single, statewide source of child abuse data, and to provide maximum safeguards against the unwarranted invasions of privacy which such a registry might otherwise entail.

As used in sections 235A.13 to 235A.23, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Child abuse information" means any or all of the following data maintained by the registry in a manual or automated data storage system and individually identified a Report data

b Investigation data

c Disposition data

2 "Report data" means information pertaining to any occasion involving or reasonably believed to involve child abuse, including a The name and address of the child and the child's parents or other persons responsible for the child's care

b The age of the child

c The nature and extent of the injury, including evidence of any previous injury

d Any other information believed to be helpful in establishing the cause of the injury and the identity of the person or persons responsible therefor

3 "Investigation data" means information pertaining to the evaluation of report data, including a Additional information as to the nature, extent and cause of the injury, and the identity of persons responsible therefor

b The names and conditions of other children in the home

c The child's home environment and relationships with parents or others responsible for the child's care

4 "Disposition data" means information pertaining to an opinion or decision as to the occurrence of child abuse, including a Any intermediate or ultimate opinion or decision reached by investigative personnel

b Any opinion or decision reached in the course of judicial proceedings

c The present status of any case

5 "Confidentiality" means the withholding of information from any manner of communication, public or private 235A.14 Creation and maintenance of a central registry.

1 There is created within the state department of human services a central registry for child abuse information. The department shall organize and staff the registry and adopt rules for its operation.

2. The registry shall collect, maintain and disseminate child abuse information as provided for by this chapter.

3. The department shall maintain a toll-free telephone line, which shall be available on a twenty-four hour a day, seven-day a week basis and which the department of human services and all other persons may use to report cases of suspected child abuse and that all persons authorized by this chapter may use for obtaining child abuse information.

4. An oral report of suspected child abuse initially made to the central registry shall be immediately transmitted by the department to the appropriate county department of social services or law enforcement agency, or both.

5. The registry, upon receipt of a report of suspected child abuse, shall search the records of the registry, and if the records of the registry reveal any previous report of child abuse involving the same child or any other child in the same family, or if the records reveal any other pertinent information with respect to the same child or any other child in the same family, the appropriate office of the department of human services or law enforcement agency shall be immediately notified of that fact.

6. The central registry shall include but not be limited to report data, investigation data and disposition data.

235A.15 Authorized access.

1. Notwithstanding chapter 22, the confidentiality of all child abuse information shall be maintained, except as specifically provided by subsection 2.

2. Access to child abuse information is authorized only:

a. To a health practitioner who is examining, attending or treating a child whom the practitioner believes or has reason to believe has been the victim of abuse.

b. To employees of the department of human services having responsibility for the investigation of a child abuse report.

c. To a law enforcement officer having responsibility for the temporary emergency removal of a child from the child's parent or other legal guardian.

d. To a juvenile court or district court upon a finding that information is necessary for the resolution of an issue arising in any phase of a case involving child abuse, except that information obtained through the registry shall not be utilized in any aspect of any criminal prosecution.

e. To an authorized person or agency having responsibility for the care or supervision of a child named in a report as a victim of abuse or a person named in a report as having abused a child, if the juvenile court or the registry deems access to child abuse information by such person or agency to be necessary.

f. To a person conducting bona fide research on child abuse, if the details identifying any subject of a child abuse report are deleted.

g. To a person who is the subject of any report as provided in section 235A.19.

h. To registry or department personnel where necessary to the performance of their official duties.

i. To a court hearing an appeal for correction or expungement of registry information as provided in section 235A.19.

j. In an individual case, to the mandatory reporter who reported the child abuse.

k. To a multidisciplinary team, if the department of human services approves the composition of the multidisciplinary team and determines that access to the team is necessary to assist the department in the diagnosis, assessment, and disposition of a child abuse case.

A person, agency or other recipient of child abuse information authorized to receive such information shall not redisseminate such information, except that redissemination shall be permitted when:

1. The redissemination is for official purposes in connection with prescribed duties or, in the case of a health practitioner, pursuant to professional responsibilities.

2. The person to whom such information would be redisseminated would have independent access to the same information under section 235A.15.

3. A written record is made of the redissemination, including the name of the recipient and the date and purpose of the redissemination.

4. The written record is forwarded to the registry within thirty days of the redissemination.

5. The department of human services shall notify orally the mandatory reporter in an individual child abuse case of the results of the case investigation and of the confidentiality provisions of section 235A.15 and 235A.21. The department may subsequently transmit a written notice to the mandatory reporter of the results and confidentiality provisions. A copy of the written notice shall be transmitted to the registry and shall be maintained by the registry as provided in section 235A.18.

1. Child abuse information relating to a particular case of suspected child abuse shall be sealed ten years after the receipt of the initial report of such abuse by the registry unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access. If a subsequent report of a suspected case of child abuse involving the child named in the initial report as the victim of abuse or a person named in such report as having abused a child is received by the registry within this ten-year period, the information shall be sealed ten years after receipt of the subsequent report unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access.

2. Child abuse information shall be expunged one year after the receipt of the initial report of such abuse if the information cannot be determined by a preponderance of the evidence to be founded or unfounded. Child abuse information shall be expunged if the information is determined to be unfounded as a result of any of the following:

- a. The investigation of a report of suspected child abuse by the department.
- b. A successful appeal as provided in section 235A.19.
- c. A court adjudication.

3. The registry, at least once a year, shall review and determine the current status of child abuse reports which are transmitted or made to the registry after July 1, 1974, which are at least one year old and in connection with which no investigatory report has been filed by the department of human services pursuant to section 232.71. If no such investigatory report has been filed, the registry shall request the department of human services to file a report. In the event a report is not filed within ninety days subsequent to such a request, the report and information relating thereto shall be sealed and remain sealed unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access.

1. Any person or that person's attorney shall have the right to examine child abuse information in the registry which refers to that person. The registry may prescribe reasonable hours and places of examination.

2. Any person who files with the registry a written statement to the effect that child abuse information referring to such person is in whole or in part erroneous, and requests a correction or expungement of that information, shall be notified within sixty days by the registry, in writing, of its decision or order regarding the correction or elimination. All decisions and orders shall be accompanied by findings of fact, and the registry shall provide the opportunity for a fair hearing when it initially determines that the information should not be corrected or expunged as requested.

3. The registry's decision or order may be appealed to the district court of Polk county by the person requesting the correction or expungement or to the district court of the district in which such person resides. Immediately upon such appeal the court shall order the registry to file with the court a certified copy of the child abuse information. Appeal shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

4. Upon the request of the appellant, the record and evidence in such cases shall be closed to all but the court and its officers, and access thereto shall be prohibited unless otherwise ordered by the court. The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for such actions. No person other than the appellant shall permit a copy of any of the testimony or pleadings or the substance thereof to be made available to any person other than a party to the action or the party's attorney. Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall be a public offense punishable under section 235A.21.

5. Whenever the registry corrects or eliminates information as requested or as ordered by the court, the registry shall advise all persons who have received the incorrect information of such fact. Upon application to the court and service of notice on the registry, any individual may request and obtain a list of all persons who have received child abuse information referring to the individual.

6. In the course of any proceeding provided for by this section, the identity of the person who reported the disputed information and the identity of any person who has been reported as having abused a child may be withheld upon a determination by the registry that disclosure of their identities would be detrimental to their interests.

CHAPTER 235B

ADULT ABUSE

235B.1 Adult abuse services.

235B.1 Adult abuse services.

1. As used in this section, “dependent adult abuse” means:

a. Any of the following as a result of the willful or negligent acts or omissions of a caretaker:

(1) Physical injury to or unreasonable confinement or cruel punishment of a dependent adult.

(2) The commission of a sexual offense under chapter 709 or section 726.2 with or against a dependent adult.

(3) Exploitation of a dependent adult which means the act or process of taking unfair advantage of a dependent adult or the adult’s physical or financial resources for one’s own personal or pecuniary profit by the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, deception, false representation, or false pretenses.

(4) The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, supervision, physical and mental health care, and other care necessary to maintain a dependent adult’s life or health.

b. The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, supervision, physical and mental health care, and other care necessary to maintain a dependent adult’s life or health as a result of the acts or omissions of the dependent adult.

2. Dependent adult abuse does not include:

a. Depriving a dependent adult of medical treatment if the dependent adult holds a belief or is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on spiritual means in place of reliance on medical treatment.

b. The withholding and withdrawing of health care from a dependent adult who is terminally ill in the opinion of a licensed physician, when the withholding and withdrawing of health care is done at the request of the dependent adult or at the request of the dependent adult’s next-of-kin or guardian pursuant to the applicable procedures under chapter 125, 222, 229, or 633.

3. The department of human services shall operate a program relating to the providing of services in cases of dependent adult abuse. The program shall emphasize the reporting and evaluation of dependent adult abuse of an adult who is unable to protect the adult’s own interests or unable to perform or obtain essential services.

4. a. A person who believes that a dependent adult has suffered abuse may report the suspected abuse to the department of human services. The department shall receive dependent adult abuse reports and shall collect, maintain, and disseminate the reports pursuant to sections 235A.12 through 235A.24 by expanding the central registry for child abuse to include reports of dependent adult abuse. The department shall evaluate the reports expeditiously. However, the state department of health is solely responsible for the evaluation and disposition of adult abuse cases within health care facilities and shall inform the department of human services of such evaluations and dispositions.

b. The department of human services shall inform the appropriate county attorneys of any reports. County attorneys, law enforcement agencies, multidisciplinary teams as defined in section 235A.13, subsection 9, and social services agencies in the state shall cooperate and assist in the evaluation upon the request of the department. County attorneys and appropriate law enforcement agencies shall also take any other lawful action necessary or advisable for the protection of the dependent adult.

c Upon a showing of probable cause that a dependent adult has been abused, a district court may authorize a person, authorized by the department to make an evaluation, to enter the residence of, and to examine the dependent adult

5 a If, upon completion of the evaluation or upon referral from the state department of health, the department of human services determines that the best interests of the dependent adult require district court action, the department shall initiate action for the appointment of a guardian or conservator or for admission or commitment to an appropriate institution or facility pursuant to the applicable procedures under chapter 125, 222, 229, or 633 The appropriate county attorney shall assist the department in the preparation of the necessary papers to initiate the action and shall appear and represent the department at all district court proceedings

b The department shall assist the district court during all stages of court proceedings involving a suspected case of adult abuse

c In every case involving adult abuse which is substantiated by the department and which results in a judicial proceeding on behalf of the dependent adult, legal counsel shall be appointed by the court to represent the dependent adult in the proceedings The court may also appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the dependent adult if necessary to protect the dependent adult's best interests The same attorney may be appointed to serve both as legal counsel and as guardian ad litem Before legal counsel or a guardian ad litem is appointed pursuant to this section, the court shall require the dependent adult and any person legally responsible for the support of the dependent adult to complete under oath a detailed financial statement If, on the basis of that financial statement, the court deems that the dependent adult or the legally responsible person is able to bear all or a portion of the cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the court shall so order In cases where the dependent adult or the legally responsible person is unable to bear the cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the expense shall be paid by the county

6 The department of human services shall complete an assessment of needed services and shall make appropriate referrals to services The department may provide necessary protective services and may establish a sliding fee schedule for those persons able to pay a portion of the protective services

7 A person participating in good faith in reporting or cooperating or assisting the department of human services in evaluating a case of dependent adult abuse has immunity from liability, civil or criminal, which might otherwise be incurred or imposed based upon the act of making the report or giving the assistance The person has the same immunity with respect to participation in good faith in a judicial proceeding resulting from the report or assistance or relating to the subject matter of the report or assistance

236.1 Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "Domestic Abuse Act"

[C81, §236 1]

236.2 Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context

1 "Domestic abuse" means committing assault as defined in section 708 1 under either of the following circumstances a The assault is between family or household members who resided together at the time of the assault

b The assault is between separated spouses not residing together at the time of the assault

2 "Family or household members" means spouses, persons cohabiting, parents, or other persons related by consanguinity or affinity, except children under eighteen

[C81, §236 2]

236.3 Commencement of actions.

A person may seek relief from domestic abuse by filing a verified petition in the district court. Venue shall lie where either party resides. The petition shall state the:

1. Name of the plaintiff and the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney.
2. Name and address, if known, of the defendant.
3. Relationship of the plaintiff to the defendant.
4. Nature of the alleged domestic abuse.
5. Name and age of each child under eighteen whose welfare may be affected by the controversy.
6. Desired relief, including a request for temporary or emergency orders.

If the plaintiff files an affidavit stating that the plaintiff does not have funds available to pay the cost of filing and service, the petition shall be filed and service shall be made without payment of costs. If a petition is filed and service is made without payment of costs, the court shall determine at the hearing if the plaintiff is indigent. If the court finds that the plaintiff is not indigent, the court may order the plaintiff to pay the costs of filing and service.

[C81, §236.3]

Referred to in §236.6

236.4 Hearings — temporary orders.

1. Within ten days after commencing a proceeding and upon notice to the other party, a hearing shall be held at which the plaintiff must prove the allegation of domestic abuse by a preponderance of the evidence.

2. The court may enter any temporary order it deems necessary to protect the plaintiff from domestic abuse prior to the hearing, upon good cause shown in an ex parte proceeding. Present danger of domestic abuse to the plaintiff constitutes good cause for purposes of this subsection.

3. If a hearing is continued, the court may make or extend any temporary order under subsection 2 that it deems necessary.

4. Upon application of a party, the court shall issue subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers.

5. The court shall advise the defendant of a right to be represented by counsel of the defendant's choosing and to have a continuance to secure counsel.

6. Hearings shall be recorded.

[C81, §236.4]

Referred to in §236.6

236.5 Disposition.

Upon a finding that the defendant has engaged in domestic abuse:

1. The court may order that the plaintiff and the defendant receive professional counseling, either from a private source approved by the court or from a source appointed by the court. Costs of counseling shall be paid in full or in part by the parties and taxed as court costs. If the court determines that the parties are unable to pay the costs, they may be paid in full or in part from the county treasury.

2. The court may grant a protection order or approve a consent agreement which may contain but is not limited to any of the following provisions:

- a. That the defendant cease domestic abuse of the plaintiff.
- b. That the defendant grant possession of the residence to the plaintiff to the exclusion of the defendant or that the defendant provide suitable alternate housing for the plaintiff.

c. That the defendant stay away from the plaintiff's residence, school or place of employment.

d. The awarding of temporary custody of or establishing temporary visitation rights with regard to children under eighteen.

e. That the defendant pay the clerk a sum of money for the separate support and maintenance of the plaintiff and children under eighteen.

An order for counseling, a protection order or approved consent agreement shall be for a fixed period of time not to exceed one year. The court may amend its order or a consent agreement at any time upon a petition filed by either party and after notice and hearing.

3. An order or consent agreement under this section shall not affect title to real property.

4. A certified copy of any order or approved consent agreement shall be issued to the plaintiff, the defendant and law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction to enforce the order or consent agreement. Any subsequent amendment or revocation of an order or consent agreement shall be forwarded by the clerk to all individuals and agencies previously notified.

[C81, §236.5]

83 Acts, ch 123, §93, 209

Referred to in §236.6, 331.424

236.6 Emergency orders.

1. When the court is unavailable from the close of business at the end of the day or week to the resumption of business at the beginning of the day or week, a petition may be filed before a district judge, or district associate judge designated by the chief judge of the judicial district, who may grant emergency relief in accordance with section 236.5, subsection 2 if the district judge or district associate judge deems it necessary to protect the plaintiff from domestic abuse, upon good cause shown in an ex parte proceeding. Present danger of domestic abuse to the plaintiff constitutes good cause for purposes of this subsection.

2. An emergency order issued under subsection 1 shall expire seventy-two hours after issuance. When the order expires, the plaintiff may seek a temporary order from the court pursuant to section 236.4.

3. A petition filed and emergency order issued under this section and any documentation in support of the petition and order shall be immediately certified to the court. The certification shall commence a proceeding for purposes of section 236.3.

[C81, §236.6]

236.7 Procedure.

1. A proceeding under this chapter shall be held in accordance with the rules of civil procedure, except as otherwise set forth in this chapter, and is in addition to any other civil or criminal remedy.

2. The plaintiff's right to relief under this chapter is not affected by leaving the residence or household to avoid domestic abuse.

[C81, §236.7]

236.8 Contempt.

The court may hold a party in contempt for a violation of an order issued pursuant to this chapter or for violation of a court-approved consent agreement. If held in contempt, the defendant shall serve a jail sentence which may be on weekends.

236.3 Amend
Ch 175, §3-85 Acts

[C81, §236.8]

236.9 Domestic abuse information.

State and local law enforcement agencies shall collect and maintain domestic abuse information. They shall relay this information at least quarterly to the central registry for domestic abuse information within the department of human services.

The registry may compile statistics and issue reports, provided identifying details of the subject of domestic abuse are deleted.

Access to domestic abuse information in the registry is authorized only:

1. To a district court upon a finding that information is necessary for the resolution of an issue arising in a case involving domestic abuse.

2. To a person conducting bona fide research on domestic abuse, if the details identifying a subject of domestic abuse are deleted.

3. To registry or department personnel where necessary to the performance of their official duties.

[C81, §236.9]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159 236.9 R&S
Ch 175, §4-85 Acts

236.10 Confidentiality of records.

The file in a domestic abuse case shall be sealed by the clerk of court when it is complete and after the time for appeal has expired. However, the clerk shall open the file upon application to and order of the court for good cause shown.

[C81, §236.10]

236.11 Duty of peace officer.

A peace officer shall use every reasonable means to enforce an order or approved consent agreement issued pursuant to this chapter. A peace officer shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for acting pursuant to this section provided that the peace officer acts in good faith, on probable cause and without malice.

[C81, §236.11]

236.12 Prevention of further abuse — notification of rights — penalty for violation of police order.

1. If a peace officer has reason to believe that domestic abuse has occurred, the officer shall use all reasonable means to prevent further abuse including but not limited to the following:

a. If requested, remaining on the scene as long as there is a danger to an abused person's physical safety without the presence of a peace officer, including but not limited to staying in the dwelling unit, or if unable to remain on the scene, assisting the person in leaving the residence.

b. Assisting an abused person in obtaining medical treatment necessitated by an assault, including providing assistance to the abused person in obtaining transportation to the emergency room of the nearest hospital.

236.12(2) Add!
Ch 175, §5-85 Acts

c. Providing an abused person with immediate and adequate notice of the person's rights. The notice shall consist of handing the person a copy of the following statement written in English and Spanish, asking the person to read the card and whether the person understands the rights:

"You have the right to ask the court for the following help on a temporary basis:

(1) Keeping your attacker away from you, your home and your place of work.

(2) The right to stay at your home without interference from your attacker.

(3) Getting custody of children and obtaining support for yourself and your minor children if your attacker is legally required to provide such support.

(4) Professional counseling.

You have the right to file criminal charges for threats, assaults, or other related crimes.

You have the right to seek restitution against your attacker for harm to yourself or your property.

If you are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer present assist you in obtaining transportation to the nearest hospital or otherwise assist you.

If you believe that police protection is needed for your physical safety, you have the right to request that the officer present remain at the scene until you and other affected parties can leave or until safety is otherwise ensured."

The notice shall also contain the telephone numbers of safe shelters, support groups, or crisis lines operating in the area.

2. A peace officer may, with or without a warrant, take any or all of the following courses of action if the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that there was recent physical domestic abuse inflicted on a person:

a. The officer may make reasonable inquiry of the person upon whom the officer believes the harm has been inflicted and of any witnesses, to ascertain whether there is probable danger of further physical domestic abuse being inflicted on the injured person.

b. If the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that there is a probable danger, the officer may lawfully order the abusing party to leave the premises for a cooling-off period of up to twelve hours.

c. If the abusing party refuses to comply with the order to leave or returns to the premises before the expiration of time ordered by the peace officer, the officer may place the abuser under arrest.

The person refusing to comply with the lawful order of a peace officer under this subsection commits a violation of, and is subject to, the provisions of section 719.1.

3. A peace officer is not civilly or criminally liable for actions pursuant to this section taken in good faith.

DIVISION I
CHILD FOSTER CARE

237.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Agency" means a person, as defined in section 4.1, subsection 13, which provides child foster care and which does not meet the definition of an individual in subsection 7.
2. "Child" means child as defined in section 234.1, subsection 4.
3. "Child foster care" means the provision of parental nurturing, including but not limited to the furnishing of food, lodging, training, education, supervision, treatment or other care, to a child on a full-time basis by a person other than a relative or guardian of the child, but does not include:
 - a. Care furnished by an individual person who receives the child of a personal friend as an occasional and personal guest in the individual person's home, free of charge and not as a business.
 - b. Care furnished by an individual person with whom a child has been placed for lawful adoption, unless that adoption is not completed within two years after placement.
 - c. Care furnished by a private boarding school subject to approval by the state board of public instruction pursuant to section 257.25.
 - d. Child day care furnished by a child care center, group day care home, or family day care home as defined in section 237A.1.
4. "Department" means the department of human services.
5. "Director" means the director of that division of the department designated by the commissioner of human services to administer this chapter or the director's designee.

6. "Facility" means the personnel, program, physical plant, and equipment of a licensee.

7. "Individual" means an individual person or a married couple who provides child foster care in a single-family home environment and which does not meet the definition of an agency in subsection 1.

8. "Licensee" means an individual or an agency licensed by the director under this chapter.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661-a42, -a43; C39, §3661.056, 3661.057; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.1, 237.2; C81, §237.1; 82 Acts, ch 1016, §1]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

Referred to in §220 1(24), 237 4, 282 19

237.2 Purpose.

It is the policy of this state to provide appropriate protection for children who are separated from the direct personal care of their parents, relatives, or guardians and, as a result, are subject to difficulty in achieving appropriate physical, mental, emotional, educational, or social development. This chapter shall be construed and administered to further that policy by assuring that child foster care is adequately provided by competently staffed and well-equipped child foster care facilities, including but not limited to residential treatment centers, group homes, and foster family homes.

[C81, §237.2]

237.3 Rules.

1. Except as otherwise provided by subsections 3 and 4, the director shall promulgate, after their adoption by the council on human services, and enforce in accordance with chapter 17A, administrative rules necessary to implement this chapter. Formulation of the rules shall include consultation with representatives of child foster care providers, and other persons affected by this chapter. The rules shall encourage the provision of child foster care in a single-family, home environment, exempting the single-family, home facility from inappropriate rules.

2. Rules applicable to licensees shall include but are not limited to:

a. Types of facilities, including but not limited to single-family, home facilities with child foster care provided by individuals and other public and private facilities with child foster care provided by agencies, and other categories of child foster care for which licenses are issued.

b. The number, qualifications, character, and parenting ability of personnel necessary to assure the health, safety and welfare of children receiving child foster care.

c. Programs for education and in-service training of personnel.

d. The physical environment of a facility.

e. Policies for intake, assessment, admission and discharge.

f. Housing, health, safety, and medical-care policies for children receiving child foster care.

g. The adequacy of programs available to children receiving child foster care provided by agencies, including but not limited to:

(1) Dietary services.

(2) Social services.

(3) Activity programs.

(4) Behavior management procedures.

(5) Educational programs, including special education as defined in section 281.2, subsection 2 where appropriate, which are approved by the state board of public instruction. The department shall not promulgate rules which regulate individual licensees in the subject areas enumerated in this paragraph.

h. Policies for involvement of natural parents.

i. Records a licensee is required to keep, and reports a licensee is required to make to the director.

j. Prior to the licensing of an individual as a foster family home, a required, written social assessment of the quality of the living situation in the home of the individual, and a required compilation of personal references for the individual other than those references given by the individual.

3. Rules governing fire safety in facilities with child foster care provided by agencies shall be promulgated by the state fire marshal pursuant to section 100.1, subsection 5 after consultation with the director.

4. Rules governing sanitation, water and waste disposal standards for facilities shall be promulgated by the state department of health pursuant to section 135.11, subsection 15 after consultation with the director.

5. In case of a conflict between rules promulgated pursuant to subsections 3 and 4 and local rules, the more stringent requirement applies.

6. Rules of the department shall not prohibit the licensing, as foster family homes, of individuals who are departmental employees not directly engaged in the administration of the child foster care program pursuant to this chapter.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661-a52; C39, §3661.066; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.11; C81, §237.3]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

237.4 License required — exceptions.

An individual or an agency, as defined in section 237.1, shall not provide child foster care unless the individual or agency obtains a license issued by the director under this chapter. However, a license is not required of the following:

1. An individual providing child foster care for a total of not more than twenty days in one calendar year.

2. A hospital licensed under chapter 135B.

3. A health care facility licensed under chapter 135C.

4. A juvenile detention home or juvenile shelter care home approved under section 232.142.

5. An institution listed in section 218.1.

6. A facility licensed under chapter 125.

7. An individual providing child care as a babysitter at the request of a parent, guardian or relative having lawful custody of the child.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661-a49; C39, §3661.063; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.8; C81, §237.4; 82 Acts, ch 1016, §2]

84 Acts, ch 1050, §1

237.5 License application and issuance — denial, suspension or revocation — provisional licenses.

1. An individual or an agency shall apply for a license by completing an application to the director upon forms furnished by the director. The director shall issue or reissue a license if the director determines that the applicant or licensee is or upon commencing operation will provide child foster care in compliance with this chapter. A license is valid for one year from the date of issuance. The license shall state on its face the name of the licensee, the type of facility, the particular premises for which the license is issued, and the number of children who may be cared for by the facility on the premises at one time. The license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the physical plant of the facility, except that if the facility is in a single-family home the license may be kept where it is readily available for examination upon request.

2. The director may deny an application for a license, and may suspend or revoke a license, if the applicant or licensee violates this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, or knowingly makes a false statement concerning a material fact or conceals a material fact on the license application or in a report regarding operation of the facility submitted to the director.

3. The director may issue a provisional license for not more than one year to a licensee whose facility does not meet the requirements of this chapter, if written plans to bring the facility into compliance with the applicable requirements are submitted to and approved by the director. The plans shall state a specific time when compliance will be achieved. Only one provisional license shall be issued for a facility by reason of the same deficiency.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661-a44, -a46, -a51, -a53, -a54; C39, §3661.058, 3661.060, 3661.065, 3661.067, 3661.068; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.3, 237.5, 237.10, 237.12, 237.13; C81, §237.5]

237.5A Foster parent training.

As a condition for initial licensure, each individual licensee shall complete twelve hours of foster parent training offered or approved by the department. The training shall include but not be limited to physical care, education, learning disabilities, referral to and receipt of necessary professional services, behavioral assessment and modification, self assessment, self living skills, and biological parent contact. An individual licensee may complete the training as part of an approved training program offered by a public or private agency with expertise in the provision of child foster care or in related subject areas.

84 Acts, ch 1279, §25

Applies to persons licensed on or after July 1, 1984. 84 Acts, ch 1279, §43

237.6 Restricted use of facility.

A licensee shall not furnish child foster care in a building or on premises not designated in the license. A licensee shall not furnish child foster care to a greater number of children than is designated in the license unless the director so authorizes. Multiple licenses authorizing separate and distinct parts of a facility to provide different categories of child foster care may be issued.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661 a50, C39, §3661.064; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237 9, C81, §237 6]

237.7 Reports and inspections.

The director may require submission of reports by a licensee, and shall cause at least one annual announced inspection of each facility to assess the quality of the living situation and to determine compliance with applicable requirements and standards. The director may examine records of a licensee, including but not limited to corporate records and board minutes, and may inquire into matters concerning a licensee and its employees relating to requirements and standards for child foster care under this chapter.

DIVISION II

FOSTER CARE REVIEW

237.15 Definitions.

For the purposes of this division unless otherwise defined:

1 "Local board" means a local foster care review board created pursuant to section 237 19.

2 "State board" means the state foster care review board created pursuant to section 237 16.

3 "Child receiving foster care" means a child defined in section 234 1 whose foster care placement is the financial responsibility of the state pursuant to section 234 35, subsection 1, 2, or 4 or 234 36 or who is under the guardianship of the department.

4 "Person or court responsible for the child" means the department, including but not limited to the department of human services, agency, or individual who is the guardian of a neglected, dependent, or delinquent child by court order and has the responsibility of the care of the child, or the court having jurisdiction over the child.

5 "Family" means the social unit consisting of the child and the biological or adoptive parent, stepparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, and grandparent of the child.

6 "Case permanency plan" means the plan, mandated by Pub L No 96-272, as codified in 42 U S C , secs 671(a)(16), 627(a)(2)(B), and 675(1),(5), designed to achieve placement in the least restrictive, most family-like setting available and in close proximity to the parent's home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child. The plan shall specifically include all of the following:

a Plans for carrying out the voluntary placement agreement or judicial determination pursuant to which the child entered care.

b The type and appropriateness of the placement and services to be provided to the child.

c The care and services that will be provided to the child, natural parents, and foster parents.

d. How the care and services will meet the needs of the child while in care and will facilitate the child's return home or other permanent placement.

237.16 State foster care review board.

The state foster care review board is created. The state board consists of seven members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate and directly responsible to the governor and shall not be located within a current department or agency of the state. Vacancies on the state board shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

The members of the state board shall annually select a chairperson, vice chairperson, and other officers the members deem necessary. The members shall not receive per diem but shall receive reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in their duties as members. The state board shall meet at least twice a year.

An employee of the department, an employee or board member of a child-placing agency, an employee of an agency with which the department contracts for services for children under foster care, a foster parent providing foster care, or an employee of the district court is not eligible to serve on the state board.

Referred to in §237.15

Repealed effective July 1, 1988, 84 Acts, ch 1279, §44

237.17 Foster care registry.

The state board shall establish a registry of the placements of all children receiving foster care in the two judicial districts with local boards. The department shall notify the state board of each placement within three working days of the department's notification of the placement. The notification to the state board shall include information identifying the child receiving foster care and placement information for that child.

Within thirty days of the placement the agency responsible for the placement shall submit the case permanency plan to the state board. All subsequent revisions of the case permanency plan shall be submitted when the revisions are developed. In cases where the agency responsible for the placement is not the department, the case permanency plan shall also be submitted to the department.
