The department is hereby further empowered to carry such an amount of insurance to cover any accident or destruction in part or in whole to any toll bridge. All moneys collected on any indemnity bond or insurance policy as the result of any damage or injury to any such toll bridge shall be used for the purpose of repairing or rebuilding of any such toll bridge as long as there are revenue bonds against any such structure outstanding and unredeemed. The department is also empowered to carry insurance or indemnity bonds insuring against the loss of tolls or other revenues to be derived from any such toll bridge by reason of any interruption in the use of such toll bridge from any cause whatever, and the proceeds of such insurance or indemnity bonds shall be paid into the fund into which the tolls and other revenues of the bridge thus insured are required to be paid and shall be applied to the same purposes and in the same manner as other moneys in the said fund. Such insurance or indemnity bonds may be in an amount equal to the probable tolls and other revenues to be received from the operation of such toll bridge during any period of time that may be determined upon by the department and fixed in its discretion, and be paid for out of the toll revenue fund as may be specified in said proceedings. The department may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds for the carrying of insurance as authorized by this chapter and the purchase and carrying of insurance as authorized by this chapter shall thereupon be obligatory upon the department and be paid for out of the toll revenue fund as may be specified in said proceedings.

Toll charges so fixed may be changed from time to time as conditions may warrant. The department in establishing toll charges shall give due consideration to the amount required annually to pay the principal of and interest on bonds payable from the revenues thereof. The tolls and charges shall be at all times fixed at rates sufficient to pay the bonds and interest as they mature, together with the creation and maintenance of bond reserve funds and other funds as established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds, for any particular toll bridge. The amounts required to pay the principal of and interest on bonds shall constitute a charge and lien on all such tolls and other revenues and interest thereon and sinking funds created therefrom received from the use and operation of said toll bridge, and the department is hereby authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of said tolls and revenues for the payment of bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter and interest thereon and to create and maintain a reserve therefor. Such tolls and revenues, together with the interest earned thereon, shall constitute a trust fund for the security and payment of such bonds and shall

Any such city, county, or other political subdivision may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the department advance or contribute money for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of interest or principal on the bonds issued by the department to finance the bridge. Appropriations for such purposes may be made from any funds available, including county road funds received from or credited by the state, or funds obtained by excess tax levies made pursuant to law or the issuance of general obligation bonds for this purpose. Money or property so advanced or contributed may be immediately transferred or delivered to the department to be used for the purpose for which contribution was made. The department may enter into an agreement with a city, county, or other political subdivision to repay any money or the value of a right of way, labor, materials or other property so advanced or contributed. The department may make such repayment to a city, county, or other political subdivision and reimburse the state for any expenditures made by it in connection with the bridge out of tolls and other revenues for the use of the bridge.

The amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired by the department, equals the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling which is a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling adequate to accommodate such displaced person, reasonably accessible to public services and places of employment and available on the private market. All determinations required to carry out this paragraph shall be made in accordance with administrative rules established by the department in making these additional payments.

The department shall cause a physical inspection to be made of all specially constructed or reconstructed motor vehicles, upon application for a certificate of title by the owner, to determine whether the motor vehicle is in a safe operating condition and that the integral component parts are properly identified and that the rightful ownership is established before issuing the owner the authority to have the motor vehicle registered and titled. With reference to every foreign vehicle which has been registered outside of this state the owner shall surrender to the treasurer all registration plates, registration cards, and certificates of title, or, if vehicle to be registered is from a nontitle state, the evidence of foreign registration and ownership as may be prescribed by the department except as provided in subsection 2.

This subsection shall not apply to snowmobiles as defined in section 321G.1. Section 321.382 does not apply to a vehicle registered under this subsection which is operated exclusively by a handicapped person who has obtained a special identification device as provided in section 601E.6, providing the special identification device is carried in the vehicle and shown to any peace officer on request.

Copies the department requires shall be sent to the department in the manner and at the time the department directs. The certificate of title shall contain upon its face the identical information required upon the face of the registration receipt. In addition, the certificate of title shall contain a statement of the owner's title, the amount of tax paid pursuant to section 423.7, the name and address of the previous owner, and a statement of all security interests and encumbrances as shown in the application, upon the vehicle described including the nature of the security interest, date of notation and name and address of the secured party. The certificate shall bear the seal of the county treasurer, the signature of the county treasurer or that of the deputy county treasurer, and shall provide space for the signature of the owner. The owner shall sign the certificate of title in the space provided with pen and ink upon its receipt. The certificate of title shall contain upon the reverse side a form for assignment of title or interest and warranty by the owner, for reassignments by a licensed dealer and for application for a new certificate of title by the transferee as provided in this chapter. All certificates of title shall be typewritten or printed by other mechanical means. Otherwise the certificate of title shall be delivered by the county treasurer to the person holding the first security interest or encumbrance as shown in the certificate. The county treasurer shall maintain in the county records system information contained on the certificate of title. The information shall be accessible by title certificate number for a period of three years from the date of notification of cancellation of title or that a new title has been issued as provided in this chapter. Copies the department requires shall be sent to the department in the manner and at the time the department directs. The department shall designate a uniform system of title numbers to indicate the county of issuance.

A vehicle shall be registered for the registration year. A vehicle registered for the first time in this state shall be registered for the remaining unexpired months of the registration year and pay a registration fee prorated for the remaining unexpired months of the registration year.

If the county treasurer or department is not satisfied as to the ownership of the vehicle or that there are no undisclosed security interests in it, the county treasurer or department may register the vehicle but shall as a condition of issuing a certificate of title and registration receipt, require the applicant to file with the department a bond in the form prescribed by the department and executed by the applicant, and either accompanied by the deposit of cash with the department or also executed by a person authorized to conduct a surety business in this state. The bond shall be in an amount equal to one and one-half times the current value of the vehicle as determined by the department and conditioned to indemnify any prior owner and secured party and any subsequent purchaser of the vehicle or person acquiring any security interest in it, and their respective successors in interest, against any expense, loss or damage, including reasonable attorney's fees, by reason of the issuance of the certificate of title of the vehicle or on account of any defect in or undisclosed security interest upon the right, title and interest of the applicant in and to the vehicle. Any such interested person has a right of action to recover on the bond for any breach of its conditions, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall not exceed the amount of the bond. The bond, and any deposit accompanying it, shall be returned at the end of three years or prior thereto if the vehicle is no longer registered in this state and the currently valid certificate of title is surrendered to the department, unless the department has been notified of the pendency of an action to recover on the bond.

Upon payment of a fee of two dollars, the county treasurer shall issue a salvage certificate of title which shall bear the word "SALVAGE" stamped on the face of the title in bold letters and coded in a manner prescribed by the department. A salvage certificate of title may be assigned to any person. When a wrecked or salvage vehicle has been repaired or rebuilt, that person shall make application for a certificate of title to the county treasurer of the county of residence of the owner, and shall surrender the salvage certificate of title issued for the vehicle. A verification of the vehicle identification number of the vehicle shall be made by a peace officer of the state department of transportation, the department of public safety, county sheriff or police department of cities with a population exceeding five thousand persons or a person designated by the commissioner of public safety or the director. keeper in writing within such period of time that such vehicle is not an abandoned motor vehicle and shall be reported by the garagekeeper to the police authority. If the identity or address of the last registered owner of the motor vehicle cannot be determined, the vehicle shall be deemed an abandoned motor vehicle on the eleventh day after the period for which the vehicle was to remain on the premises unless reclaimed by the owner within the ten-day period or the owner notifies the garagekeeper in writing within such period of time that such vehicle is not an abandoned motor vehicle and shall be reported by the garagekeeper to the police authority. All abandoned motor vehicles left in garages may be taken into custody by a police authority upon the request of the garagekeeper and sold in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 321.89, subsection 4, unless the motor vehicle is reclaimed. The proceeds of the sale shall be first applied to the garagekeeper's charges for towing and storage, and any surplus proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with section 321.89, subsection 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair any lien of a garagekeeper under the laws of this state, or the right of a garagekeeper to foreclose the garagekeeper's lien, provided that a garagekeeper shall be deemed to have abandoned the garagekeeper's artisan lien when such vehicle is taken into custody by the police authority. For the purposes of this section "garagekeeper" means any operator of a parking place or establishment, motor vehicle storage facility, or establishment for the servicing, repair, or maintenance of motor vehicles.

2. Disposal to demolisher.

a. Any person, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed and is thereby unable to transfer title to the motor vehicle, may apply to the police authority of the jurisdiction in which the motor vehicle is situated for authority to sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of the motor vehicle to a demolisher.

b. The application shall set out the name and address of the applicant, the year, make, model, and serial number of the motor vehicle, if ascertainable, together with any other identifying features, and shall contain a concise statement of the facts surrounding the abandonment, or a statement that the title of the motor vehicle is lost or destroyed, or the reasons for the defect of title in the owner. The applicant shall execute an affidavit stating that the facts alleged are true and that no material fact has been withheld.

c. If the police authority finds that the application is executed in proper form, and shows that the motor vehicle has been abandoned upon the property of the applicant, or if it shows that the motor vehicle is not abandoned but that the applicant appears to be the rightful owner, the police authority shall follow appropriate notification procedures as set forth in section 321.89, subsection 3.

d. If the abandoned motor vehicle is not reclaimed in accordance with section 321.89, subsection 3, or no lienholder objects to the disposal in the case of an owner-applicant, the police authority shall give the applicant a certificate of authority to dispose of the motor vehicle to any demolisher for demolition, wrecking, or dismantling. The demolisher shall accept such certificate in lieu of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle.

e Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section and sections 321 89 and 321 91, any person, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed, may dispose of such motor vehicle to a demolisher for junk without a title and without the notification procedures of section 321 89, subsection 3, if the motor vehicle lacks an engine or two or more wheels or other structural part which renders the vehicle totally inoperable.

f The owner of an abandoned motor vehicle and all lienholders shall no longer have any right, title, claim, or interest in or to such motor vehicle, and no court in any case in law or equity shall recognize any right, title, claim, or interest of any such owner and lienholders after the disposal of such motor vehicle to a demolisher.

g Any proceeds from the sale of an abandoned motor vehicle to a demolisher under this section, by one other than the owner of the vehicle, shall first be applied to that person's expenses in effecting the sale, including storage, towing, and disposal charges, and any surplus shall be distributed in accordance with section 321 89, subsection 4.

3 Duties of demolishers

a Any demolisher who purchases or otherwise acquires an abandoned motor vehicle for junk under the provisions of this section shall junk, scrap, wreck, dismantle, or demolish such motor vehicle. However, if the vehicle is acquired under the provisions of subsection 2, paragraph "e", the demolisher shall apply to the police authority of the jurisdiction from which the vehicle was acquired for a certificate of authority to demolish the vehicle. In making the application the demolisher shall describe the motor vehicle as required by subsection 2, paragraph "b". The police authority shall issue the certificate of authority upon complying with subsection 2, paragraph "c", but shall be excused from following the notification procedures as required therein. No further titling of the motor vehicle shall be permitted. After the motor vehicle has been demolished, processed, or changed so that it physically is no longer a motor vehicle, the demolisher shall surrender the auction sales receipt or certificate of authority to dispose of or demolish a motor vehicle to the department for cancellation. The department shall issue such forms and rules governing the surrender of auction sales receipts, certificates of title, and certificates of authority to dispose of or demolish motor vehicles, and the cancellation and surrender of the registrations and certificates of title for such motor vehicles as are appropriate.

b A demolisher shall keep an accurate and complete record of all motor vehicles purchased or received by the demolisher in the course of the demolisher's business. Such records shall be open for inspection by any police authority at any time during normal business hours. Any record required by this section shall be kept by the demolisher for at least one year after the transaction to which it applies.

321.126 Refunds of fees.

Refunds of current registration fees paid for the registration of motor vehicles shall be allowed in accordance with this section, except that no refund shall be allowed and paid if the unused portion of the fee is less than five dollars. Subsections 1 and 2 shall not apply to motor vehicles registered by the county treasurer. The refunds shall be made as follows:

1. If the motor vehicle is destroyed by fire or accident, or junked and its identity as a motor vehicle entirely eliminated, the owner in whose name the motor vehicle was registered at the time of destruction or dismantling shall return the plates to the department and within thirty days thereafter make a statement of such destruction or dismantling and make claim for refund. With reference to the destruction or dismantling of a vehicle, no refund shall be allowed unless a junking certificate has been issued, as provided in section 321.52.

2. If the motor vehicle is stolen, the owner shall give notice of the theft to the department within five days. If the motor vehicle is not recovered by the owner thirty days prior to the end of the current registration year, the owner shall make a statement of the theft and make claim for refund.

3. If the motor vehicle is placed in storage by the owner upon the owner's entry into the military service of the United States, the owner shall return the plates to the county treasurer or the department and make a statement regarding the storage and military service and make claim for refund. Whenever the owner of a motor vehicle so placed in storage desires to again register the vehicle, the county treasurer or department shall compute and collect the fees for registration for the registration year commencing in the month the vehicle is removed from storage.

4. If the motor vehicle is registered by the county treasurer during the current registration year and the owner or lessee registers the vehicle for prorate under chapter 326, the owner of the registered vehicle shall surrender the registration plates to the county treasurer and may file a claim for refund.

5. A refund for trailers and semitrailers issued a multiyear registration plate shall be paid by the department upon application.

6. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, there shall be no refund of proportional registration fees unless the state which issued the base plate for the vehicle allows such refund. If an owner subject to proportional registration leases the vehicle for which the refund is sought, the claim shall be filed in the names of both the lessee and the lessor and the refund payment made payable to both the lessor and the lessee. The term "owner" for purposes of this section shall include a person in whom is vested right of possession or control of a vehicle which is subject to a lease, contract, or other legal arrangement vesting right of possession or control in addition to the term as defined in section 321.1, subsection 36.

321.193 Restricted licenses.

When provided in rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A, the department upon issuing an operator's or chauffeur's license or motorized bicycle license shall have authority whenever good cause appears to impose restrictions suitable to the licensee's driving ability with respect to the type of vehicle or special mechanical control devices required on a motor vehicle which the licensee may operate or such other restrictions applicable to the licensee, including licenses issued under section 321.194, as the department may determine to be appropriate to assure the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the licensee. The department shall not require a person issued a valid operator's or chauffeur's license to comply with any other licensing requirements in order to operate a motorized bicycle.

The department may either issue a special restricted license or may set forth such restrictions upon the usual license form.

The department may upon receiving satisfactory evidence of any violation of the restrictions of such license suspend or revoke the same but the licensee shall be entitled to a hearing as upon a suspension or revocation under this chapter.

It is a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in section 321.482, for any person to operate a motor vehicle in any manner in violation of the restrictions imposed in a restricted license issued to that person.

321.194 Minors' school licenses.

Upon certification of a special need by the school board or the superintendent of the applicant's school, the department may issue a school license to a person between the ages of fourteen and eighteen years. The license shall entitle the holder, while having the license in immediate possession, to operate a motor vehicle during the hours of 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. over the most direct and accessible route between the licensee's residence and schools of enrollment and between schools of enrollment for the purpose of attending duly scheduled courses of instruction and extracurricular activities at the schools or at any time when accompanied by a parent or guardian, driver education instructor, or prospective driver education instructor who is a holder of a valid operator's or chauffeur's license, and who is actually occupying a seat beside the driver. The license shall expire on the licensee's eighteenth birthday or upon issuance of a restricted license under section 321.178, subsection 2 or operator's license.

Each application shall be accompanied by a statement from the school board or superintendent of the applicant's school. The statement shall be upon a form provided by the department. The school board or superintendent shall certify that a need exists for the license and that the board and superintendent are not responsible for actions of the applicant which pertain to the use of the school license. The department of public instruction shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A establishing criteria for issuing a statement of necessity. Upon receipt of a statement of necessity, the department shall issue a school license. The fact that the applicant resides at a distance less than one mile from the applicant's schools of enrollment is prima-facie evidence of the nonexistence of necessity for the issuance of a license.

A license issued under this section is subject to suspension or revocation in like manner as any other license or permit issued under a law of this state. The department may also suspend a license upon receiving satisfactory evidence that the licensee has violated the restrictions of the license or has been involved in one or more accidents chargeable to the licensee. The department may suspend a license issued under this section upon receiving a record of the licensee's conviction for one violation and shall revoke the license upon receiving a record of conviction for two or more violations of a law of this state or a city ordinance regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways other than parking violations as defined in section 321.210. After revoking a license under this section the department shall not grant an application for a new license or permit until the expiration of one year or until the licensee's sixteenth birthday whichever is the longer period.

The license shall be renewable without written examination or penalty within a period of thirty days after its expiration date. A person shall not be considered to be driving with an invalid license during a period of thirty days following the license expiration date. However, for any license renewed within such thirty-day period, the date of issuance shall be considered to be the previous birthday anniversary on which it expired. Applicants whose licenses are restricted due to vision or other physical deficiencies may be required to renew their licenses every two years. For the purposes of this section the birthday anniversary of a person born on February 29 shall be deemed to occur on March 1. All applications for renewal of operators' licenses shall be made under the direct supervision of a uniformed member of the department and shall be approved by the uniformed member. The department in its discretion may authorize the renewal of a valid license upon application without an examination provided that the applicant satisfactorily passes a vision test as prescribed by the department.

Any resident of Iowa holding a valid operator's or chauffeur's license who is temporarily absent from the state, or incapacitated, may, at the time for renewal for such license, obtain from the sheriff of the county of the licensee's residence a form to apply for a temporary extension of the license. The department upon receipt of such application form properly filled out shall, upon a showing of good cause, issue a temporary extension of such license for not to exceed six months. The department shall prescribe and furnish such forms to each county sheriff.

For the purposes of this section the birthday anniversary of a person born on February 29 shall be deemed to occur on March 1. The department in its discretion may waive the examination of any applicant previously licensed as a chauffeur under this chapter, provided that the person satisfactorily passes a vision test as prescribed by the department. 2. Official traffic control signals consisting of colored lights or colored lighted arrows shall regulate vehicle and pedestrian traffic in the following manner:

a. A "steady circular red" light means vehicular traffic shall stop. Vehicular traffic shall remain standing until a signal to proceed is shown or vehicular traffic, unless prohibited by a sign, may cautiously enter the intersection to make a right turn from the right lane of traffic or a left turn from a one-way street to a one-way street from the left lane of traffic on a one-way street onto the leftmost lane of traffic on a one-way street. Turns made under this paragraph shall be made in a manner that does not interfere with other vehicular or pedestrian traffic lawfully using the intersection. Pedestrian traffic facing a steady circular red light shall not enter the roadway unless the pedestrian can safely cross the roadway without interfering with any vehicular traffic.

b. A "steady circular yellow" or "steady yellow arrow" light means vehicular traffic is warned that the related green movement is being terminated and vehicular traffic shall no longer proceed into the intersection and shall stop. If the stop cannot be made in safety, a vehicle may be driven cautiously through the intersection. Pedestrian traffic is warned that there is insufficient time to cross the intersection and any pedestrian starting to cross the roadway shall yield the right of way to all vehicles.

c. A "steady circular green" light means vehicular traffic may proceed straight, turn right or turn left through the intersection unless otherwise specifically prohibited. Vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to other vehicular and pedestrian traffic lawfully within the intersection.

d. A "steady green arrow" light shown alone or with another official traffic control signal means vehicular traffic may cautiously enter the intersection and proceed in the direction indicated by the arrow. Vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and pedestrians lawfully within the intersection.

e. A "flashing circular red" light means vehicular traffic shall stop and after stopping may proceed cautiously through the intersection yielding to all vehicles not required to stop or yield which are within the intersection or approaching so closely as to constitute a hazard, but then may proceed.

f. A "flashing yellow" light means vehicular traffic shall proceed through the intersection or past such signal with caution.

g. A "don't walk" light is a pedestrian signal which means that pedestrian traffic facing the illuminated pedestrian signal shall not start to cross the roadway in the direction of the pedestrian signal, and pedestrian traffic in the crossing shall proceed to a safety zone.

h. A "walk" light is a pedestrian signal which means that pedestrian traffic facing the illuminated pedestrian signal may proceed to cross the roadway in the direction of the pedestrian signal and shall be given the right of way by drivers of all vehicles.

SPEED RESTRICTIONS

321.285 Speed restrictions

Any person driving a motor vehicle on a highway shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed not greater than nor less than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic, surface and width of the highway and of any other conditions then existing, and no person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than will permit the person to bring it to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead, such driver having the right to assume, however, that all persons using said highway will observe the law.

The following shall be the lawful speed except as hereinbefore or hereinafter modified, and any speed in excess thereof shall be unlawful.

1 Twenty miles per hour in any business district.

2 Twenty five miles per hour in any residence or school district.

3 Forty miles per hour for any motor vehicle drawing another vehicle, except as hereinafter specified.

4 Forty five miles per hour in any suburban district. Each school district as defined in subsection 59 of section 321 1 shall be marked by distinctive signs as provided by the current manual of uniform traffic control devices adopted by the department and placed on the highway at the limits of such school district.

5 Fifty five miles per hour from sunset to sunrise and fifty-five miles per hour from sunrise to sunset.

6 Fifty five miles per hour for any motor vehicle drawing a one or two wheel trailer or a tandem wheel trailer not more than thirty two feet in length including towing arm and not more than eight feet in width.

7 Reasonable and proper, but not greater than fifty five miles per hour at any time between sunrise and sunset, and not greater than fifty miles per hour at any time between sunset and sunrise, on secondary roads unless such roads are surfaced with concrete or asphalt or a combination of both, in which case the speed limits shall be the same as provided in subsection 5 of this section. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation conducted by the department when so requested by said board that the speed limit on any secondary road is greater than is reasonable and proper under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of a secondary road, said board shall determine and declare a reasonable and proper speed limit thereat. Such speed limits as determined by the board of supervisors shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected by the board of supervisors at such intersection or other place or part of the highway.

8. Notwithstanding any other speed restrictions, the speed limits for all vehicular traffic, except vehicles subject to the provisions of section 321.286 on fully controlled-access, divided, multilaned highways including the national system of interstate highways designated by the federal highway administration and this state [23 U.S.C. 103 (e) 1977] shall be fifty-five miles per hour. However, the department or the cities, with the approval of the department, may establish a lower speed limit upon such highways located within the corporate limits of any city used as city alternate routes, commonly referred to as "freeways." For the purposes of this subsection a fully controlled-access highway is a highway that gives preference to through traffic by providing access connections with selected public roads only and by prohibiting crossings at grade or direct private driveway connections. It is further provided that a minimum speed of forty miles per hour, road conditions permitting, shall be established on the highways referred to in this subsection.

It is further provided that any kind of vehicle, implement, or conveyance incapable of attaining and maintaining a speed of forty miles per hour shall be prohibited from using the interstate system.

321.463 Maximum gross weight.

An axle may be divided into two or more parts, except that all parts in the same vertical transverse plane shall be considered as one axle.

The gross weight on any one axle of a vehicle, or of a combination of vehicles, operated on the highways of this state, shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds on an axle equipped with pneumatic tires, and shall not exceed fourteen thousand pounds on an axle equipped with solid rubber tires. The gross weight on any tandem axle of a vehicle, or any combination of vehicles, shall not exceed thirty-four thousand pounds on an axle equipped with pneumatic tires.

A group of two or more consecutive axles of any vehicle or combination of vehicles, shall not carry a load in pounds in excess of the overall gross weight determined by application of the following formula: W equals $500(LN/N-1 + 12N + 36)$. W equals the overall gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles to the nearest five hundred pounds, L equals the distance in feet, rounded to the nearest whole foot, between the extreme of any group of two or more consecutive axles, and N equals the number of axles in the group under consideration. The following are exceptions to application of the formula:

1. Two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of thirty-four thousand pounds each providing the overall distance between the first and last axles of the consecutive sets of tandem axles is thirty-six feet or more.

2. On highways not part of the interstate system, a vehicle or combination of vehicles having:

a Four axles where the extreme axles are eighteen feet apart may carry a gross load of fifty-three thousand pounds.

b Five axles where the extreme axles are thirty-two feet apart may carry a gross load of sixty-seven thousand five hundred pounds.

c Six or more axles where the extreme axles are forty-one feet apart may carry a gross load of seventy-eight thousand pounds.

For every foot of distance between extreme axles less than the above axle spacings, the overall gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be determined by deducting one thousand pounds from the gross loads specified in paragraphs "a", "b" and "c". All measurements between extreme axles shall be rounded to the nearest whole foot.

The maximum gross weight shall not exceed eighty thousand pounds.

The weight on any one axle, including a tandem axle, of a vehicle which is transporting livestock on highways not part of the interstate system may exceed the legal maximum weight given in this chapter providing that the gross weight on any particular group of axles on such vehicle does not exceed the gross weight allowable under this chapter for such groups of axles.

A person who operates a vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section, and an owner, or any other person, employing or otherwise directing the operator of a vehicle, who requires or knowingly permits the operation of a vehicle in violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined according to the following schedule:

AXLF TANDEM AXLE
AND GROUP OF AXLES WEIGHT VIOLATIONS

Pounds Overloaded	Amount of Fine
Up to and including 1 000 pounds	$10 plus one half cent per pound
Over 1 000 pounds to and including 2 000 pounds	$15 plus one half cent per pound
Over 2 000 pounds to and including 3 000 pounds	$80 plus three cents per pound
Over 3 000 pounds to and including 4 000 pounds	$100 plus four cents per pound
Over 4 000 pounds to and including 5 000 pounds	$150 plus five cents per pound
Over 5 000 pounds to and including 6 000 pounds	$200 plus seven cents per pound
Over 6 000 pounds	$200 plus ten cents per pound

Fines for gross weight violations for vehicles or combinations of vehicles shall be assessed at one-half of the fine rate schedule for axle, tandem axle, and groups of axles weight violations

The amount of the fine to be assessed shall be computed on the difference between the actual weight and the maximum legal weight specified in this section by applying the appropriate rate in the preceding schedule for the total amount of overload

The schedule of fines may be assessed in addition to any other penalties provided for in this chapter

Overloads on axles and tandem axles and overloads on groups of axles or on an entire vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be considered as separate violations of the provisions of this section

A person who issues or executes, or causes to be issued or executed, a bill of lading, manifest, or shipping document of any kind which states a false weight of the cargo set forth on such bill, manifest, or document, which is less than the actual weight of the cargo, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a simple misdemeanor

321.465 Weighing vehicles and removal of excess.

Any peace officer having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to require the driver to stop and submit to a weighing of the same either by means of portable or stationary scales and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scales

Whenever an officer upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of such vehicle to such limit as permitted under this chapter All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of such vehicle at the risk of such owner or operator

A driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and otherwise comply with this section, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor

Upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, if such load is a sealed load, the weight officer shall issue a certificate setting forth the weights as determined by the weight officer and the seal number or numbers, if requested by the operator

2 During or after the seventh month of a current registration year, the owner of a motor truck, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or trailer may, if the owner's operation has not resulted in a conviction or action pending under this section, increase the gross weight of the vehicle to a higher gross weight classification by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the registration year

3 Upon conversion of a truck to a truck tractor or a truck tractor to a truck, an increased gross weight registration of the proper type may be obtained for the vehicle by payment, except as provided in section 321 106, of one twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the annual fee for the gross weight at which the vehicle is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the registration year from the date of the conversion

4. The registered gross weight of any vehicle or combination of vehicles may also be increased by installing and using a properly registered auxiliary axle or axles, and the combined registered gross weight of such vehicle and auxiliary axle or axles shall determine the total registered gross weight thereof. No auxiliary axle may be used to convert a single axle to a tandem axle unless equipped with a device to equalize the load carried by the single axle and the said auxiliary axle when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, and the load transmitted to the highway by either the single axle or the auxiliary axle shall not exceed that permitted for any single axle, nor shall the load transmitted to the highway when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, exceed that permitted for any tandem axle.

5. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor truck, trailer, truck tractor, road tractor, semi-trailer or combination thereof, or any such vehicle equipped with a transferable auxiliary axle or axles, on the public highways with a gross weight exceeding that for which it is registered by more than five percent of the gross weight for which it is registered, provided, however, that any vehicle or vehicle combination referred to herein, while carrying a load of raw farm products, soil fertilizers, including ground limestone, raw dairy products or livestock, live poultry, eggs, may be operated with a gross weight of twenty-five percent in excess of the gross weight for which it is registered.

6. For the purposes of this section cracked or ground soy beans, sargo, corn, wheat, rye, oats or other grain shall be deemed to be raw farm products, provided that such products are being directly delivered to a farm, from the place where the whole grain had been delivered from a farm for the purpose of cracking or grinding and immediate delivery to the farm to which such cracked or ground products are being delivered.

1 The director shall, immediately or within sixty days after the receipt of a report of a motor vehicle accident within this state which has resulted in bodily injury or death or damage to the property of any one person in excess of five hundred dollars, suspend the license of each operator and all registrations of each owner of a motor vehicle in any manner involved in the accident, and if the operator is a nonresident the privilege of operating a motor vehicle within this state, and if the owner is a nonresident the privilege of the use within this state of any motor vehicle owned by the owner, unless the operator or owner or both shall deposit security in a sum which shall be sufficient in the judgment of the director to satisfy any judgment or judgments for damages resulting from the accident as may be recovered against the operator or owner, provided notice of the suspension shall be sent by the director to the operator and owner not less than ten days prior to the effective date of the suspension and shall state the amount required as security

2 Twelve months after such accident, provided the department has not been notified by any party to the action or an attorney for any party that an action for damages arising out of such accident has been instituted within one year from the date of the accident, or

3 Evidence satisfactory to the director has been filed with the director of a release from liability, or a final adjudication of nonliability, or a warrant for confession of judgment, or a duly acknowledged written agreement, in accordance with section 321A 6, subsection 4, provided, however, in the event there shall be any default in the payment of any installment under any confession of judgment, then, upon notice of such default, the director shall forthwith suspend the license and registration or nonresident's operating privilege of such person defaulting which shall not be restored unless and until the entire amount provided for in said confession of judgment has been paid; and provided, further, that in the event there shall be any default in the payment of any installment under any duly acknowledged written agreement, then, upon notice of such default, the director shall forthwith suspend the license and registration or nonresident's operating privilege of such person defaulting which shall not be restored unless and until

321A.17(5) Amend

b Shall insure the person named in the policy and any other person, as insured, using the motor vehicles with the express or implied permission of the named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of the motor vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such motor vehicle, as follows: With respect to all accidents which occur on or after January 1, 1981, and before January 1, 1983, fifteen thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, thirty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident, and with respect to all accidents which occur on or after January 1, 1983, twenty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, forty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and fifteen thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

3 Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon the person by law for damages arising out of the use by the person of any motor vehicle not owned by the person, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

5 Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workers' compensation law nor any liability on account of bodily injury to or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance, or repair of any such motor vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of, or transported by the insured.

b The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

c The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in paragraph "b" of subsection 2 of this section.

d The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or endorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of the chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

7 Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy and such excess or additional coverage shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

8 Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

9 Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

10 The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carriers which policies together meet such requirements.

11 Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy.

1. Proof of financial responsibility may be evidenced by the bond of a surety company duly authorized to transact business within this state, or a bond with at least two individual sureties each owning real estate within this state, and together having equities equal in value to at least twice the amount of the bond, which real estate shall be scheduled in the bond approved by a judge or clerk of a court of record, which said bond shall be conditioned for payment of the amounts specified in section 321A.1, subsection 10. Such bond shall be filed with the director and shall not be cancelable except after ten days' written notice to the director. Such bond shall constitute a lien in favor of the state upon the real estate so scheduled of any surety, which lien shall exist in favor of any holder of a final judgment against the person who has filed such bond, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury to or death of any person, or for damage because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle after such bond was filed, upon the filing of notice to that effect by the director in the office of the proper clerk of court of the county where such real estate shall be located. Any individual surety so scheduling real estate security shall furnish satisfactory evidence of title thereto and the nature and extent of all encumbrances thereon and the value of the surety's interest therein, in such manner as the judge or clerk of the court of record approving the bond may require. The notice filed by the director shall, in addition to any other matters deemed by the director to be pertinent, contain a legal description of the real estate so scheduled, the name of the holder of the record title, the amount for which it stands as security, and the name of the person in whose behalf proof is so being made. Upon the filing of such notice the clerk of the court of such county shall retain the same as part of the records of such court and enter upon the encumbrance book the date and hour of filing, the name of the surety, the name of the record titleholder, the description of the real estate, and the further notation that a lien is charged on such real estate pursuant to the notice filed hereunder. From and after the entry of the foregoing upon the encumbrance book all persons whomsoever shall be charged with notice thereof.

2. If such a judgment, rendered against the principal on such bond shall not be satisfied within sixty days after it has become final, the judgment creditor may, for the judgment creditor's own use and benefit and at the judgment creditor's sole expense, bring an action or actions in the name of the state against the company or persons executing such bond, including an action or proceeding to foreclose any lien that may exist upon the real estate of a person who has executed such bond. An action to foreclose any lien upon real estate scheduled by any surety under the provisions of this chapter shall be by equitable proceeding in the same manner as is provided for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages.

At any time after two years from the date such proof was required when, during the two-year period preceding the request, the director has not received record of a conviction or a forfeiture of bail which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished; or

b. In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed or the permanent incapacity of such person to operate a motor vehicle; or

An affidavit of the applicant as to the nonexistence of such facts, or that the applicant has been released from all of the applicant's liability, or has been finally adjudicated not to be liable, for such injury or damage, shall be sufficient evidence thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary in the records of the director.

3. Whenever any person whose proof has been canceled or returned under paragraph "c" of subsection 1 of this section applies for a license or registration within a period of two years from the date proof was originally required, any such application shall be refused unless the applicant shall re-establish such proof for the remainder of the two-year period.

As used in this chapter and sections 29B 106 and 321 281, the words “alcoholic beverage” and “alcohol concentration” mean as defined in section 321 1

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, “director” means the director of transportation or the director’s designee, and “department” means the state department of transportation

As used in this chapter, “arrest” includes but is not limited to taking into custody pursuant to section 232 19

321B.3 Preliminary screening test.

When a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a motor vehicle operator may be violating or has violated section 321 281, or the operator has been involved in a motor vehicle collision resulting in injury or death, the peace officer may request the operator to provide a sample of the operator’s breath for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for that purpose. The results of this preliminary screening test may be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made and whether to request a chemical test authorized in this chapter, but shall not be used in any court action except to prove that a chemical test was properly requested of a person pursuant to this chapter 321B.4 Implied consent to test.

1 Any person who operates a motor vehicle in this state under circumstances which give reasonable grounds to believe that the person has been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321 281 is deemed to have given consent to the withdrawal of specimens of the person’s blood, breath, or urine and to a chemical test or tests of the specimens for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration or presence of drugs, subject to this section. The withdrawal of the body substances and the test or tests shall be administered at the written request of a peace officer having reasonable grounds to believe that the person was operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321 281, and if any of the following conditions exist

a. A peace officer has lawfully placed the person under arrest for violation of section 321.281.

b. The person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in personal injury or death.

c. The person has refused to take a preliminary breath screening test provided by this chapter.

d. The preliminary breath screening test was administered and it indicated an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more.

2. The peace officer shall determine which of the four substances, breath, blood, saliva, or urine, shall be tested. Refusal to submit to a chemical test of urine, saliva or breath is deemed a refusal to submit, and section 321B.13 applies. A refusal to submit to a chemical test of blood is not deemed a refusal to submit, but in that case, the peace officer shall then determine which one of the other three substances shall be tested and shall offer the test. If the peace officer fails to provide a test within two hours after the preliminary screening test is administered or refused or the arrest is made, whichever occurs first, a test is not required, and there shall be no revocation under section 321B.13.

A person who has been requested to submit to a chemical test shall be advised by a peace officer of the following:

1. If the person refuses to submit to the test, the person's license or operating privilege will be revoked by the department for the applicable period under section 321B.13.

2. If the person submits to the test and the results indicate an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more, the person's license or operating privilege will be revoked by the department for the applicable period under section 321B.16.

This section does not apply in any case involving a person described in section 321B.11.

§321B 12, Code 1981, transferred to §321B 36 in Code 1983

321B.13 Refusal to submit — revocation — temporary restricted license.

If a person refuses to submit to the chemical testing, a test shall not be given, but the department, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the peace officer that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, that specified conditions existed for chemical testing pursuant to section 321B.4, and that the person had refused to submit to the chemical testing, shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privilege for a period of two hundred forty days if the person has no previous revocation under section 321.209, subsection 2, section 321.281, or this chapter; and five hundred forty days if the person has one or more previous revocations under those provisions; or if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period a license or permit would be revoked, subject to review as provided in this chapter. The effective date of revocation shall be twenty days after the department has mailed notice of revocation to the person by certified mail or, on behalf of the department, a peace officer offering or directing the administration of a chemical test may serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person who refuses to permit chemical testing. If the peace officer serves that immediate notice, the peace officer shall take the Iowa license or permit of the driver, if any, and issue a temporary license effective for only twenty days. The peace officer shall immediately send the person's license to the department along with an affidavit indicating the person's refusal to submit to chemical testing.

The department may, on application, issue a temporary restricted license to a person whose license has been subject to revocation under section 321.209, subsection 2, section 321.281, or this chapter, for a second or subsequent time to allow the person to drive to and from the person's home and place of employment, in the course of the person's employment, and to attend evaluation, treatment or educational services for alcohol or drug dependency, upon expiration of the first three hundred and sixty days of the person's period of revocation.

The department may, on application, issue a temporary restricted license to a person whose license has been revoked under this section and who has entered a plea of guilty to a charge under section 321.281 when the person's regular employment includes the operation of a motor vehicle or who cannot perform the person's regular occupation without the use of a motor vehicle, or when the person's use of a motor vehicle is necessary to attend evaluation, treatment or educational services for alcohol or drug dependency, or to attend court ordered community service, but the person shall not operate a vehicle for pleasure while holding a restricted license. However, this paragraph does not apply to a person whose license is suspended or revoked for another reason.

321B.14 Tests pursuant to warrants.

1 Refusal to consent to a test under section 321B 4 does not prohibit the withdrawal of a specimen for chemical testing pursuant to a search warrant issued in the investigation of a suspected violation of section 707 5 where the following grounds exist

a A traffic accident has resulted in a death or personal injury reasonably likely to cause death, and

b There are reasonable grounds to believe that one or more of the persons whose driving may have been the proximate cause of the accident was violating section 321 281 at the time of the accident

2 Search warrants may be issued under this section in full compliance with chapter 808 or they may be issued under subsection 3

3 Notwithstanding section 808 3, the issuance of a search warrant under this section may be based upon sworn oral testimony communicated by telephone if the magistrate who is asked to issue the warrant is satisfied that the circumstances make it reasonable to dispense with a written affidavit. The following shall then apply a When a caller applies for the issuance of a warrant under this section and the magistrate becomes aware of the purpose of the call, the magistrate shall place under oath the person applying for the warrant

b The person applying for the warrant shall prepare a duplicate warrant and read the duplicate warrant, verbatim, to the magistrate who shall enter, verbatim, what is read to the magistrate on a form that will be considered the original warrant. The magistrate may direct that the warrant be modified

c The oral application testimony shall set forth facts and information tending to establish the existence of the grounds for the warrant and shall describe with a reasonable degree of specificity the person or persons whose driving is believed to have been the proximate cause of the accident and from whom a specimen is to be withdrawn and the location where the withdrawal of the specimen or specimens is to take place d If a voice recording device is available, the magistrate may record by means of that device all of the call after the magistrate becomes aware of the purpose of the call. Otherwise, the magistrate shall cause a stenographic or longhand memorandum to be made of the oral testimony of the person applying for the warrant

e If the magistrate is satisfied from the oral testimony that the grounds for the warrant exist or that there is probable cause to believe that they exist, the magistrate shall order the issuance of the warrant by directing the person applying for the warrant to sign the magistrate's name on the duplicate warrant. The magistrate shall immediately sign the original warrant and enter on its face the exact time when the issuance was ordered

f The person who executes the warrant shall enter the time of execution on the face of the duplicate warrant

g The magistrate shall cause any record of the call made by means of a voice recording device to be transcribed, shall certify the accuracy of the transcript and shall file the transcript and the original record with the clerk. If a stenographic or longhand memorandum was made of the oral testimony of the person who applied for the warrant, the magistrate shall file a signed copy with the clerk

h The clerk of court shall maintain the original and duplicate warrants along with the record of the telephone call and any transcript or memorandum made of the call in a confidential file until a charge, if any, is filed

4 Search warrants issued under this section shall authorize and direct peace officers to secure the withdrawal of blood specimens by medical personnel under section 321B 15. Reasonable care shall be exercised to ensure the health and safety of the persons from whom specimens are withdrawn in execution of the warrants. If a person from whom a specimen is to be withdrawn objects to the withdrawal of blood, the person is capable of giving a specimen of breath, and a direct breath testing instrument is readily available, the warrant may be executed by the withdrawal of a specimen of breath for chemical testing

5 The act of any person knowingly resisting or obstructing the withdrawal of a specimen pursuant to a search warrant issued under this section constitutes a contempt punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. Also, if the withdrawal of a specimen is so resisted or obstructed, sections 321B 13 and 321B 29 apply

6 Nonsubstantive variances between the contents of the original and duplicate warrants shall not cause a warrant issued under subsection 3 of this section to be considered invalid

7 Specimens obtained pursuant to warrants issued under this section are not subject to disposition under section 808 9 or chapter 809

8 Subsections 1 to 7 of this section do not apply where a test may be administered under section 321B 11

9 Medical personnel who use reasonable care and accepted medical practices in withdrawing blood specimens are immune from liability for their actions in complying with requests made of them pursuant to search warrants or pursuant to section 321B 15

§321B 14 Code 1981 transferred to §321B 39 in Code 1983

321B.15 Taking sample for test.

Only a licensed physician, physician's assistant as defined in section 148C 1, subsection 6, medical technologist or registered nurse, acting at the request of a peace officer, may withdraw a specimen of blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration or the presence of drugs. However, any peace officer, using devices and methods approved by the commissioner of public safety, may take a specimen of a person's breath or urine for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration or the presence of drugs. Only new, originally factory wrapped, disposable sy ringes and needles, kept under strictly sanitary and sterile conditions shall be used for drawing blood.

The person may have an independent chemical test or tests administered by a person of the person's own choosing and at the person's own expense in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer. The failure or inability of the person to obtain an independent chemical test or tests does not preclude the admission of evidence of the results of the test or tests administered at the direction of the peace officer. Upon the request of the person who is tested, the results of the test or tests administered at the direction of the peace officer shall be made available to the person.

321B.16 Test result revocation — temporary restricted license.

Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, that there existed one or more of the necessary conditions for chemical testing described in section 321B.4, subsection 1, and that the person submitted to chemical testing and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more, the department shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege for a period of one hundred eighty days if the person has had no revocation within the previous six years under section 321.209, subsection 2, section 321.281 or this chapter, and one year if the person has had one or more previous revocations under those provisions arising from separate occurrences.

The effective date of the revocation shall be twenty days after the department has mailed notice of revocation to the person by certified mail. The peace officer who requested or directed the administration of the chemical test may, on behalf of the department, serve immediate notice of revocation on a person whose test results indicated an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more.

If the peace officer serves that immediate notice, the peace officer shall take the person's Iowa license or permit, if any, and issue a temporary license valid only for twenty days. The peace officer shall immediately send the person's driver's license to the department along with the officer's certificate indicating that the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more.

The department may, on application, issue a temporary restricted license to the person whose license has been revoked when the person's regular employment includes the operation of a motor vehicle or the person cannot perform the person's regular occupation without the use of a motor vehicle, or when the person's use of a motor vehicle is necessary to attend evaluation, treatment or educational services for alcohol or drug dependency, but the person shall not operate a vehicle for pleasure while holding a restricted license. However, this paragraph does not apply to a person whose license is suspended or revoked for another reason.

321B.26 Hearing.

Upon the written request of a person whose privilege to drive has been revoked or denied, or who has been issued a twenty-day license pursuant to section 321B.13 or section 321B.16, the department shall grant the person an opportunity to be heard within twenty days after the receipt of the request, but the request must be made within ten days of the effective date of revocation or denial of driving privileges or the issuance of a temporary license. The hearing shall be before the department in the county where the alleged events occurred, unless the director and the person agree that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing may be recorded and its scope shall be limited to the issues of whether a peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person was operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281 and either of the following:

a Whether the person refused to submit to the test or tests.

b Whether a test was administered and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of ten hundredths or more.

Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by a person while operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 321.281, evidence of the alcohol concentration or the presence of drugs in the person's body substances at the time of the act alleged as shown by a chemical analysis of the person's blood, breath, or urine is admissible. If it is established at trial that an analysis of a breath specimen was performed by a certified operator using a device and methods approved by the commissioner of public safety, no further foundation is necessary for introduction of the evidence.

INTERSTATE DRIVERS LICENSE COMPACTS

Referred to in §321 555

321C.1 Authority to compact.

321C.1 Authority to compact.

The director of transportation may, subject to the approval of the state transportation commission, enter into drivers license compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states agree:

ARTICLE I — FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

a. The party states find that:

1. The safety of their streets and highways is materially affected by the degree of compliance with state laws and local ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles.

321C.2 Enforcement.

2. Violation of such a law or ordinance is evidence that the violator engages in conduct which is likely to endanger the safety of persons and property.

3. The continuance in force of a license to drive is predicated upon compliance with laws and ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles, in whichever jurisdiction the vehicle is operated.

b. It is the policy of each of the party states to:

1. Promote compliance with the laws, ordinances, and administrative rules and regulations relating to the operation of motor vehicles by their operators in each of the jurisdictions where such operators drive motor vehicles.

2. Make the reciprocal recognition of licenses to drive and eligibility therefor more just and equitable by considering the overall compliance with motor vehicle laws, ordinances and administrative rules and regulations as a condition precedent to the continuance or issuance of any license by reason of which the licensee is authorized or permitted to operate a motor vehicle in any of the party states.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b "Home state" means the state which has issued and has the power to suspend or revoke the use of the license or permit to operate a motor vehicle.

c "Conviction" means a conviction of any offense related to the use or operation of a motor vehicle which is prohibited by state law, municipal ordinance or administrative rule or regulation, or a forfeiture of bail, bond or other security deposited to secure appearance by a person charged with having committed any such offense, and which conviction or forfeiture is required to be reported to the licensing authority.

ARTICLE III — REPORTS OF CONVICTION

The licensing authority of a party state shall report each conviction of a person from another party state occurring within its jurisdiction to the licensing authority of the home state of the licensee. Such report shall clearly identify the person convicted; describe the violation specifying the section of the statute, code or ordinance violated; identify the court in which action was taken; indicate whether a plea of guilty or not guilty was entered, or the conviction was a result of the forfeiture of bail, bond or other security; and shall include any special findings made in connection therewith.

Referred to in Art. IV

ARTICLE IV — EFFECT OF CONVICTION

a The licensing authority in the home state, for the purposes of suspension, revocation or limitation of the license to operate a motor vehicle, shall give the same effect to the conduct reported, pursuant to Article III of this compact, as it would if such conduct had occurred in the home state, in the case of convictions for:

1. Manslaughter or negligent homicide resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle;

2. Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug, or under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders the driver incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle;

3. Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;

4. Failure to stop and render aid in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another.

b As to other convictions, reported pursuant to Article III, the licensing authority in the home state shall give such effect to the conduct as is provided by the laws of the home state.

c If the laws of a party state do not provide for offenses or violations denominated or described in precisely the words employed in subdivision "a" of this article, such party state shall construe the denominations and descriptions appearing in subdivision "a" hereof as being applicable to and identifying those offenses or violations of a substantially similar nature, and the laws of such party state shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to ensure that full force and effect is given to this article.

ARTICLE V — APPLICATIONS FOR NEW LICENSES

Upon application for a license to drive, the licensing authority in a party state shall ascertain whether the applicant has ever held, or is the holder of a license to drive issued by any other party state. The licensing authority in the state where application is made shall not issue a license to drive to the applicant if:

1. The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been suspended by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such suspension period has not terminated.

2. The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been revoked by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such revocation has not terminated, except that after the expiration of one year from the date the license was revoked, such person may make application for a new license if permitted by law. The licensing authority may refuse to issue a license to any such applicant if, after investigation, the licensing authority determines that it will not be safe to grant to such person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways.

3. The applicant is the holder of a license to drive issued by another party state and currently in force unless the applicant surrenders such license.

ARTICLE VI — APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS

Except as expressly required by provisions of this compact, nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect the right of any party state to apply any of its other laws relating to licenses to drive to any person or circumstance, nor to invalidate or prevent any driver license agreement or other co-operative arrangement between a party state and a nonparty state.

ARTICLE VII — COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR AND INTERCHANGE OF INFORMATION

a The head of the licensing authority of each party state shall be the administrator of this compact for that state. The administrators, acting jointly, shall have the power to formulate all necessary and proper procedures for the exchange of information under this compact.

b The administrator of each party state shall furnish to the administrator of each other party state any information or documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the administration of this compact ties of states remaining party to the compact of any report of conviction occurring prior to the withdrawal

ARTICLE VIII — ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a This compact shall enter into force and become effective as to any state when it has enacted the same into law

b Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until six months after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect the validity or applicability by the licensing authori

ARTICLE IX — CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable.

CHAPTER 321D

VEHICLE EQUIPMENT COMPACTS

321D 1 Authority to compact

321D 2 Enforcement

321D.1 Authority to compact.

The director of transportation may, subject to the approval of the state transportation commission, enter into vehicle equipment safety compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form:

The contracting states agree

ARTICLE I — FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

a The party states find that

1 Accidents and deaths on their streets and highways present a very serious human and economic problem with a major deleterious effect on the public welfare.

2 There is a vital need for the development of greater interjurisdictional cooperation to achieve the necessary uniformity in the laws, rules, regulations and codes relating to vehicle equipment, and to accomplish this by such means as will minimize the time between the development of demonstrably and scientifically sound safety features and their incorporation into vehicles.

b The purposes of this compact are to

1. Promote uniformity in regulation of and standards for equipment

2 Secure uniformity of law and administrative practice in vehicular regulation and related safety standards to permit incorporation of desirable equipment changes in vehicles in the interest of greater traffic safety.

3 To provide means for the encouragement and utilization of research which will facilitate the achievement of the foregoing purposes, with due regard for the findings set forth in subdivision "a" of this article.

c It is the intent of this compact to emphasize performance requirements and not to determine the specific detail of engineering in the manufacture of vehicles or equipment except to the extent necessary for the meeting of such performance requirements.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact

a "Vehicle" means every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

b "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

c "Equipment" means any part of a vehicle or any accessory for use thereon which affects the safety of operation of such vehicle or the safety of the occupants a There is hereby created an agency of the party states to be known as the "Vehicle Equipment Safety Commission" hereinafter called the commission. The commission shall be composed of one commissioner from each party state who shall be appointed, serve and be subject to removal in accordance with the laws of the state which the commissioner represents. If authorized by the laws of the commissioner's party state, a commissioner may provide for the discharge of the commissioner's duties and the performance of the commissioner's functions on the commission, either for the duration of the commissioner's membership or for any lesser period of time, by an alternate. No such alternate shall be entitled to serve unless notification of the alternate's identity and appointment shall have been given to the commission in such form as the commission may require. Each commissioner, and each alternate, when serving in the place and stead of a commissioner, shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the commission for expenses actually incurred in attending commission meetings or while engaged in the business of the commission.

ARTICLE III — THE COMMISSION

b The commissioners shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners, or their alternates, are present.

c The commission shall have a seal.

d The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairperson, a vice chairperson and a treasurer. The commission may appoint an executive director and fix the executive director's duties and compensation. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and together with the treasurer shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director also shall serve as secretary. If there be no executive director, the commission shall elect a secretary in addition to the other officers provided by this subdivision.

e Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director with the approval of the commission, or the commission if there be no executive director, shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the commission's functions, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel.

f The commission may establish and maintain independently or in conjunction with any one or more of the party states, a suitable retirement system for its full time employees. Employees of the commission shall be eligible for social security coverage in respect of old-age and survivor's insurance provided that the commission takes such steps as may be necessary pursuant to the laws of the United States, to participate in such program of insurance as a governmental agency or unit. The commission may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate.

g The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party state, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party states or their subdivisions.

h The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same.

Referred to in Art. VI c

i The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

j The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states. The bylaws shall provide for appropriate notice to the commissioners of all commission meetings and hearings and the business to be transacted at such meetings or hearings. Such notice shall also be given to such agencies or officers of each party state as the laws of such party state may provide.

k The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year, and embodying such recommendations as may have been issued by the commission. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV — RESEARCH AND TESTING

The commission shall have power to a Collect, correlate, analyze and evaluate information resulting or derivable from research and testing activities in equipment and related fields.

b Recommend and encourage the undertaking of research and testing in any aspect of equipment or related matters when, in its judgment, appropriate or sufficient research or testing has not been undertaken.

c Contract for such equipment research and testing as one or more governmental agencies may agree to have contracted for by the commission, provided that such governmental agency or agencies shall make available the funds necessary for such research and testing.

d Recommend to the party states changes in law or policy with emphasis on uniformity of laws and administrative rules, regulations or codes which would promote effective governmental action or co-ordination in the prevention of equipment-related highway accidents or the mitigation of equipment related highway safety problems

ARTICLE V — VEHICULAR EQUIPMENT

a In the interest of vehicular and public safety, the commission may study the need for or desirability of the establishment of or changes in performance requirements or restrictions for any item of equipment. As a result of such study, the commission may publish a report relating to any item or items of equipment, and the issuance of such a report shall be a condition precedent to any proceedings or other action provided or authorized by this article. No less than sixty days after the publication of a report containing the results of such study, the commission upon due notice shall hold a hearing or hearings at such place or places as it may determine.

b Following the hearing or hearings provided for in subdivision "a" of this article, and with due regard for standards recommended by appropriate professional and technical associations and agencies, the commission may issue rules, regulations or codes embodying performance requirements or restrictions for any item or items of equipment covered in the report, which in the opinion of the commission will be fair and equitable and effectuate the purposes of this compact.

c Each party state obligates itself to give due consideration to any and all rules, regulations and codes issued by the commission and hereby declares its policy and intent to be the promotion of uniformity in the laws of the several party states relating to equipment.

d The commission shall send prompt notice of its action in issuing any rule, regulation or code pursuant to this article to the appropriate motor vehicle agency of each party state and such notice shall contain the complete text of the rule, regulation or code.

e If the constitution of a party state requires, or if its statutes provide, the approval of the legislature by appropriate resolution or act may be made a condition precedent to the taking effect in such party state of any rule, regulation or code. In such event, the commissioner of such party state shall submit any commission rule, regulation or code to the legislature as promptly as may be in lieu of administrative acceptance or rejection thereof by the party state.

f Except as otherwise specifically provided in or pursuant to subdivisions "e" and "g" of this article, the appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state shall in accordance with its constitution or procedural laws adopt the rule, regulation or code within six months of the sending of the notice, and, upon such adoption, the rule, regulation or code shall have the force and effect of law therein.

g The appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state may decline to adopt a rule, regulation or code issued by the commission pursuant to this article if such agency specifically finds, after public hearing on due notice, that a variation from the commission's rule, regulation or code is necessary to the public safety, and incorporates in such finding the reasons upon which it is based. Any such finding shall be subject to review by such procedure for review of administrative determinations as may be applicable pursuant to the laws of the party state. Upon request, the commission shall be furnished with a copy of the transcript of any hearings held pursuant to this subdivision.

ARTICLE VI — FINANCE

a The commission shall submit to the executive head or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

b Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: One-third in equal shares, and the remainder in proportion to the number of motor vehicles registered in each party state. In determining the number of such registrations, the commission may employ such source or sources of information as in its judgment present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the source or sources used in obtaining information concerning vehicular registrations.

c The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under Article III "h" of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under Article III "h" hereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

d The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its rules. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

e The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

f Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII — CONFLICT OF INTEREST

a The commission shall adopt rules and regulations with respect to conflict of interest for the commissioners of the party states, and their alter nates, if any, and for the staff of the commission and contractors with the commission to the end that no member or employee or contractor shall have a pecuniary or other incompatible interest in the manufacture, sale or distribution of motor vehicles or vehicular equipment or in any facility or enterprise employed by the commission or on its behalf for testing, conduct of investigations or research. In addition to any penalty for violation of such rules and regulations as may be applicable under the laws of the violator's jurisdiction of residence, employment or business, any violation of a commission rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this article shall require the immediate discharge of any violating employee and the immediate vacating of membership, or relinquishing of status as a member on the commission by any commissioner or alternate. In the case of a contractor, any violation of any such rule or regulation shall make any contract of the violator with the commission subject to cancellation by the commission.

b. Nothing contained in this article shall be deemed to prevent a contractor for the commission from using any facilities subject to the contractor's control in the performance of the contract even though such facilities are not devoted solely to work of or done on behalf of the commission; nor to prevent such a contractor from receiving remuneration or profit from the use of such facilities.

ARTICLE VIII — ADVISORY AND TECHNICAL COMMITTEES

The commission may establish such advisory and technical committees as it may deem necessary, membership on which may include private citizens and public officials, and may co-operate with and use the services of any such committees and the organizations which the members represent in furthering any of its activities.

ARTICLE IX — ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a. This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any six or more states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof.

b. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §321D.1]

321D.2 Enforcement.

The agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions and municipalities shall enforce this compact and do all things appropriate to effect its purpose and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions.

321E.1 Permits by department.

The department and local authorities may in their discretion and upon application and with good cause being shown issue permits for the movement of construction machinery being temporarily moved on streets, roads or highways and for vehicles with indivisible loads which exceed the maximum dimensions and weights specified in sections 321.452 to 321.466, but not to exceed the limitations imposed in sections 321E.1 to 321E.15 except as provided in sections 321E.29 and 321E.30. Vehicles permitted to transport indivisible loads may exceed the width and length limitations specified in sections 321.454 and 321.457 for the purpose of picking up an indivisible load or returning from delivery of the indivisible load. Permits issued may be single-trip permits or annual permits. Permits shall be in writing and shall be carried in the cab of the vehicle for which the permit has been issued and shall be available for inspection at all times. The vehicle and load for which the permit has been issued shall be open to inspection by a peace officer or an authorized agent of a permit granting authority. When in the judgment of the issuing local authority in cities and counties the movement of a vehicle with an indivisible load or construction machinery which exceeds the maximum dimensions and weights will be unduly hazardous to public safety or will cause undue damage to streets, avenues, boulevards, thoroughfares, highways, curbs, sidewalks, trees, or other public or private property, the permit shall be denied and the reasons for denial endorsed on the application. Permits issued by local authorities shall designate the days when and routes upon which loads and construction machinery may be moved within the county on other than primary roads.

1. The gross weight on any axle of any vehicle or combination of vehicles traveling under a permit issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall not exceed the maximum axle load prescribed in section 321.463; except that, construction machinery being temporarily moved on streets, roads, or highways may have a gross weight of thirty-six thousand pounds on any single axle equipped with a minimum size twenty-six point five-inch by twenty-five-inch flotation pneumatic tires and a maximum gross weight of twenty thousand pounds on any single axle equipped with minimum size eighteen-inch by twenty-five-inch flotation pneumatic tires, with the department authorized to adopt rules to permit the use of tire sizes and weights within the minimum and maximum specifications provided in this section, provided that the total gross weight of the vehicle or a combination of vehicles does not exceed a maximum of one hundred twenty-six thousand pounds; and except that a manufacturer of machinery or equipment manufactured or assembled in Iowa may be granted a permit for the movement of such machinery or equipment mounted on pneumatic tires with axle loads exceeding the maximum axle load prescribed in section 321.463 for distances not to exceed twenty-five miles at a speed not greater than twenty miles per hour. The movement of such machinery or equipment shall be over a specified route between the place of assembly or manufacture and a storage area, shipping point, proving ground, experimental area, weighing station, or another manufacturing plant.

2. Special mobile equipment, as defined in section 321.1, subsection 17, is not subject to the requirements for distance in feet between the extremes of any group of axles or the extreme axles of the vehicle or combination of vehicles as required by this chapter when being moved upon the highways, except the interstate road system, as defined in section 306.3, subsection 3.

3. Trailers registered in the state as of March 31, 1983 for the 1983 registration year used exclusively in the transportation of soil conservation equipment are not subject to the requirements for distance in feet between the extremes of any group of axles or the extreme axles of the vehicle or combination of vehicles as are required under section 321.463, except on the interstate road system as defined in section 306.3, subsection 3.

Fees for the movement of buildings, parts of buildings, or unusual vehicles or loads may be increased to cover the costs of inspections by the issuing authority. A fee not to exceed one hundred dollars per ten-hour day or a prorated fraction of that fee per person and car for escort service may be charged when requested or when required under this chapter. Proration of escort fees between state and local authorities when more than one governmental authority provides or is required to provide escort for a movement during the period of a day shall be determined by rule under section 321E.15. 1 Has made a material false statement in the application for the license, or

2 Has not complied with the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated by the department thereunder except as otherwise provided, or

3 Is of bad business repute, or

4 Has been guilty of a fraudulent act in connection with selling, bartering, or otherwise dealing in motor vehicles, or

10 If it has been judicially determined that the licensee has intentionally violated any of the provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code, and the licensee continues to make consumer credit sales, consumer loans or consumer leases in violation of the Iowa consumer credit code

It shall be sufficient cause for refusal or revocation of a license as a motor vehicle dealer in the case of a partnership or corporation if any member of the partnership or any officer or director of the corporation has committed any act or omission which would be cause for refusing or revoking a license to such person as an individual.

In considering whether or not a contract or agreement between a motor vehicle dealer and a manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles has been terminated by such manufacturer or distributor without just and reasonable cause therefor, the department shall take into consideration the circumstances existing at the time of such termination, including the amount of business transacted by the motor vehicle dealer pursuant to the contract or agreement and prior to such termination, the investment necessarily made and the obligation necessarily incurred by the motor vehicle dealer in the performance of the dealer's part of such contract, the permanency of such investment, the reasons for such termination by such manufacturer or distributor and the fact that it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of a motor vehicle dealer to be disrupted by termination of such contract without just and reasonable cause.

Whenever the department determines to deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuses to issue a license to the person as such, the department shall enter a final order thereof with its findings relating thereto within thirty days from the date of the hearing thereon.

[C39, §5039.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.6]

The supplemental statement shall be in the form prescribed by the department and shall disclose such information as would have been required by this chapter if such changes had occurred prior to the licensee making application for a license.

If the department finds that the changes set forth in the supplemental statement do not violate the provisions of this chapter and it grants to the licensee the privilege of doing business in the manner set forth therein, it shall upon surrender to it of the license of the motor vehicle dealer, issue to the dealer a new license appropriate to the dealer's original application as modified by such supplemental statement.

[C39, §5039.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.8]

Witnesses shall receive the same compensation provided in section 622.69 and shall be compensated from funds appropriated to the department.

The department is further authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any retail motor vehicle dealer if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such licensee has been convicted or has forfeited bail on three charges of:

322A.2 Discontinuing franchise.

Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, no franchiser shall terminate or refuse to continue any franchise unless the franchiser has first established, in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter, that

1 The franchiser has good cause for termination or noncontinuance, and

2 Upon termination or noncontinuance, another franchise in the same line make will become effective in the same community, without diminution of the motor vehicle service formerly provided, or that the community cannot be reasonably expected to support such a dealership, provided, however, a franchiser may terminate a franchise for a particular line make if the franchiser discontinues that line-make and a franchiser may terminate a franchise if the franchisee's license as a motor vehicle dealer is revoked pursuant to the provisions of chapter 322

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 2]

322A.3 New franchise.

In the event that a franchiser is permitted to terminate or not continue a franchise, and is further permitted not to enter into a franchise for the line make in the community, no franchise shall thereafter be entered into for the sale of motor vehicles of that line make in the community, unless the franchiser has first established, in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter, that there has been a change of circumstances so that the community at that time can be reasonably expected to support the dealership

322A.4 Additional franchise.

No franchiser shall enter into any franchise for the purpose of establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership in any community in which the same line make is then represented, unless the franchiser has first established in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter that there is good cause for such additional motor vehicle dealership under such franchise, and that it is in the public interest

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A 4]

322A.5 Warranties.

Every franchiser and franchisee shall fulfill the terms of any express or implied warranty concerning the sale of a motor vehicle to the public of the line-make which is the subject of a contract or franchise agreement between the parties. If it is determined by the district court that either the franchiser or franchisee, or both, have violated an express or implied warranty, the court shall add to any award or relief granted an additional award for reasonable attorney fees and other necessary expenses for maintaining the litigation

322A.6 Application filed with authority.

In the event that a franchiser seeks to terminate or not continue any franchise, or seeks to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership of the same line make, the franchiser shall file an application with the authority for permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or for permission to enter into a franchise for additional representation of the same line-make in that community

An applicant seeking permission to enter into a franchise for additional representation of the same line-make in a community shall deposit with the authority at the time the application is filed, an amount of money to be determined by the authority to secure the payment of the costs and expenses of the hearing. If the application requests permission to establish an additional motor vehicle dealership, a copy of the order shall be sent to all franchisees in the community who are then engaged in the business of offering to sell or selling the same line-make. Copies of orders shall be addressed to the franchisee at the place where the business is conducted. The authority may also give notice of franchiser's application to any other parties whom the authority may deem interested persons, such notice to be in the form and substance and given in the manner the authority deems appropriate

Any person who can show an interest in the application may become a party to the hearing, whether or not he receives notice, provided, however, a party not receiving notice shall be limited to participation at the hearing on the question of the public interest in the termination or continuation of the franchise or in the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.8, 81 Acts, ch 22, §22]

322A.9 Burden of proof.

Upon hearing, the franchiser shall have the burden of proof to establish that under the provisions of this chapter he should be granted permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to require or authorize any investigation by the authority of any matter before the authority under this chapter. Upon hearing, the authority shall hear the evidence introduced by the parties and shall make its decision solely upon the record so made.

322A.10 Rules of evidence.

The rules of civil procedure relating to discovery and inspection shall apply to hearings held under the provisions of this chapter, and the authority may issue orders to give effect to such rules.

In the event issues are raised which would involve violations of any state or federal antitrust or price-fixing law, all discovery and inspection proceedings which would be available under such issues in a state or federal court action shall be available to the parties to the hearing, and the authority may issue orders to give effect to such proceedings.

Evidence which would be admissible under the issues in a state or federal court action is admissible in a hearing held by the authority. The authority shall apportion all costs between the parties.

322A.11 Condition barring change in franchise.

Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, the following shall not constitute good cause for the termination or noncontinuation of a franchise, or for entering into a franchise for the establishment of an additional dealership in a community for the same line-make:

1. The sole fact that franchiser desires further penetration of the market.

2. The change of ownership of the franchisee's dealership or the change of executive management of the franchisee's dealership, unless the franchiser, having the burden of proof, proves that such change of ownership or executive management will be substantially detrimental to the distribution of franchiser's motor vehicles in the community.

3. The fact that the franchisee refused to purchase or accept delivery of any motor vehicle or vehicles, parts, accessories or any other commodity or service not ordered by the franchisee.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.12]

322A.13 Compulsory attendance at hearings.

The authority may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, compel the attendance of witnesses and production of books, papers, documents, and all other evidence. The authority may apply to the district court of the county wherein the hearing is being held for a court order enforcing this section.

322A.14 License to dealer denied.

In the event that a franchiser enters into or attempts to enter into a franchise, whether upon termination or refusal to continue another franchise or upon the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership in a community where the same line-make is then represented, without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, no license under chapter 322 shall be issued to that franchisee or proposed franchisee to engage in the business of selling motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by that franchiser.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322A.14]

322A.15 Authority's guidelines.

In determining whether good cause has been established for terminating or not continuing a franchise, the authority shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to:

1. Amount of business transacted by the franchisee.

2. Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by the franchisee in the performance of the franchisee's part of the franchise.

3. Permanency of the investment.

5. Whether the franchisee has adequate motor vehicle service facilities, equipment, parts and qualified service personnel to reasonably provide consumer care for the motor vehicles sold at retail by the franchisee and any other motor vehicles of the same line-make.

6. Whether the franchisee refuses to honor warranties of the franchiser to be performed by the franchisee, provided that the franchiser reimburses the franchisee for such warranty work performed by the franchisee.

7. Except as provided in section 322A.11, failure by the franchisee to substantially comply with those requirements of the franchise which are determined by the authority to be reasonable and material.

8. Except as provided in section 322A.11, bad faith by the franchisee in complying with those terms of the franchise which are determined by the authority to be reasonable and material.

CHAPTER 322E

NEW MOTOR VEHICLE REPAIR OR REPLACEMENT

322E.1 New motor vehicle warranties.

322E.1 New motor vehicle warranties.

1. As used in this section:
 - a. "Consumer" means the original purchaser, other than for purposes of resale, of a motor vehicle for a personal, family, household, or agricultural purpose, any person to whom the motor vehicle is transferred during the duration of an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle, and any other person entitled by the terms of the warranty to enforce the obligations of the warranty.

322D.3(7,9) Amend Ch 47, §6-65 Acts

b "Motor vehicle" means a new car or pickup as defined in section 321.1.

2. If a new motor vehicle does not conform to all applicable express warranties, and the consumer reports the nonconformity to the manufacturer, its agent or its authorized dealer during the term of the express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a consumer, whichever term or period ends earlier, the manufacturer, its agent or its authorized dealer shall make repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to express warranties, notwithstanding the fact that repairs are made after the expiration of the term or the one-year period.

3. If the manufacturer, or its agents or authorized dealers are unable after a reasonable number of attempts to conform the motor vehicle to any applicable express warranty by repairing or correcting any defect or condition which substantially impairs the use and value of the motor vehicle to the consumer, the manufacturer shall replace the motor vehicle with a comparable new motor vehicle or accept return of the vehicle from the consumer and refund to the consumer the full purchase price including all collateral charges, less a reasonable allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle. Replacement of the motor vehicle with a new motor vehicle shall only take place upon the return of the motor vehicle by the consumer accompanied by either the certificate of title free of liens, or an agreement of any lienholder to release the lien on the motor vehicle and substitute a lien on the new motor vehicle. The fact that there is a lien on the title of the motor vehicle will not be a bar to a decision by the consumer to return the motor vehicle for replacement by a comparable new motor vehicle rather than receive a refund of the purchase price, if the lienholder is or is owned by the manufacturer, is a subsidiary of the manufacturer, or is under common ownership with the manufacturer. Refunds shall be made to the consumer, and lienholder if any, as their interests may appear. A reasonable allowance for use shall be that amount directly attributable to use by the consumer prior to the first report of the nonconformity to the manufacturer, agent or dealer and during any subsequent period when the vehicle is not out of service by reason of repair. It is an affirmative defense to a claim under this section that an alleged nonconformity does not substantially impair the use and value of the motor vehicle to the consumer or that a nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect or unauthorized modifications or alterations of a motor vehicle.

4. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties, if the same nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents or authorized dealers within the express warranty term or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a consumer, whichever period ends earlier, but the nonconformity continues to exist, or if the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of thirty or more calendar days during the applicable term or period. However, the presumption shall not operate against a manufacturer unless the manufacturer has received prior direct notice of the defect from or on behalf of the consumer and has had an opportunity to correct the defect alleged. The term of an express warranty, the one-year period and the thirty-day period shall be extended by any period of time during which repair services are not available to the consumer because of a war, invasion or strike, or fire, flood or other natural disaster.

5. This section does not limit the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law.

6. If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute settlement procedure which complies in all respects with 16 C.F.R. part 703, the provisions of subsection 3 of this section concerning refunds or replacement do not apply to a consumer who has not first resorted to the dispute settlement procedure.

7. Any action brought under this section shall be commenced within six months following either the expiration of the express warranty term, or one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a consumer, whichever is the earlier date.

8. All new cars sold in this state shall have affixed thereto in writing at the time of delivery of the new car to the purchaser the following statement: "The purchaser of this new car is protected under the warranty provisions of Iowa Code section 322E.1. For further information contact the Consumer Protection Division of the Iowa Attorney General's Office."

Notice shall be given by restricted certified mail, as defined in section 618 15. If a dealer, within thirty days after the date of delivery of the notice from the distributor or franchiser, applies to the commission for a hearing under this chapter, the dealer franchise shall remain in effect pending a final order by the commission. The application filed by the dealer shall state, under oath, that the dealer's license, issued pursuant to chapter 214, for pumps and meters located on the retail premises occupied by the dealer has not been canceled, that the dealer has not filed a petition in bankruptcy or been declared bankrupt within six months preceding the filing of the application, that the franchiser or distributor has not withdrawn entirely from the sale for resale of motor fuel and special fuel in this state, that there are no past due sums owing by the dealer to the franchiser or distributor, and that the dealer has not consented in writing to the termination or nonrenewal of the dealer franchise

323.4 Continuance.

The commission may continue the date of hearing for a period of thirty days, and may upon application, but not ex parte, continue the date of hearing for an additional period of thirty days

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323 4]

323.5 Burden of proof.

Upon hearing, if the commission finds the statements contained in the application are true, then the franchiser or distributor that intends to terminate or not renew the distributor franchise or dealer franchise shall have the burden of proof to establish that the franchiser or distributor, as the case may be, has good cause for terminating or not renewing the franchise.

If the commission finds the statements contained in the application are not true, the application shall be denied. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to require or authorize any investigation by the commission of any matter before the commission under this chapter. Upon hearing the commission shall hear the evidence introduced by the parties and shall make its decision solely upon the record made. If the commission denies the termination or nonrenewal of the franchise, it may make such further order as may be necessary to require compliance with the terms of the franchise and to prevent retaliatory action

323.6 Conditions barring change in distributor franchise.

Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of a distributor franchise, the following shall not constitute good cause for the termination or refusal to renew a distributor franchise

1 The sole fact that the franchiser desires further penetration of the market

2 The change of executive management of the distributor, unless the franchiser, having the burden of proof, proves that the change of executive management will be substantially detrimental to the distribution of the franchiser's motor fuels or special fuels in the area served by the distributor

3 The sale or change of ownership of the distributor's business, unless the transfer of the distributor's license pursuant to chapter 324 is denied or the new owner is unable to obtain a license under chapter 324

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323 6]

Referred to in §323 7

323.7 Commission's guidelines.

In determining whether good cause has been established for terminating or not renewing a distributor franchise or dealer franchise, the commission shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to

1 Amount of business transacted by the distributor or dealer

2 Investments made and obligations incurred by the distributor or dealer in performance of the franchise

3 Permanency of the investment

4 Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of the distributor or dealer to be disrupted

5 Ability of the distributor or dealer to timely pay financial obligations

6 Whether the distributor or dealer has adequate equipment and qualified personnel to reasonably provide for the distribution and marketing of the motor fuel or special fuel sold to the distributor or dealer

7 Except as provided in section 323 6, failure of the distributor to substantially comply with those requirements of the distributor franchise that are determined by the commission to be reasonable and material

8 Failure of the dealer to substantially comply with those requirements of the dealer franchise that are determined by the commission to be reasonable and material

323.8 Compulsory attendance at hearings.

The commission may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, compel the attendance of witnesses and production of books, papers, documents and other evidence. The commission may apply to the district court of the county in which the hearing is to be held for a court order to enforce actions taken under this section

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323 8]

323.9 Violations.

Any person violating the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a simple misdemeanor

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323 9]

323.10 Intent.

The provisions of this chapter are enacted in the exercise of the police powers of this state for the purpose of protecting the health, safety and general welfare of the people of this state and because methods and practices in the marketing and distribution of motor fuel and special fuel have impaired the availability to the public of the fuel and the services supplied by distributors and dealers who have entered into a franchise agreement with their respective suppliers.

323.11 Hearing.

Upon receiving an application, the commission shall order a hearing. The hearing shall be held within thirty days of receipt of the application and in accordance with the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The commission shall notify the franchiser or distributor of the time and place of the hearing. The commission may also give notice of the application to any other party the commission deems an interested person. The notice shall be in the form and substance and given in the manner determined by the commission.

Any person who can show an interest in the application may become a party to the hearing, whether or not the person receives notice; but a party not receiving notice shall be limited to participation at the hearing on the question of the public interest in the termination or continuation of the franchise.

323.12 Appeal.

Appeal may be taken from the final order of the commission by either the distributor, franchiser or dealer, to the district court of the county where the distributor or dealer either resides or maintains the principal place of business, within thirty days from the time the decision is filed with the commission, by giving at least ten days' notice to the commission to be served on its chairperson or secretary in the same manner as original notices are now served, and by filing with the clerk of court a bond for costs in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars. Appeal shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323.12]

323.13 Waiver.

Any provision of a dealer franchise or distributor franchise which is an attempted waiver of the benefits of this chapter shall be void and unenforceable.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §323.13]

323.14 Death of franchisee — successor — penalty.

1. It is unlawful to include in any distributor franchise or dealer franchise agreement a term which provides for the termination of the franchise by the franchiser upon the death of the franchisee if the franchisee, prior to his or her death, designates a successor-in-interest in a form prescribed by and delivered to the franchiser. For the purposes of this section, "successor-in-interest" is restricted to either a surviving spouse or adult child of the franchisee who, at the time of the franchisee's death, is able to meet reasonable qualifications then being required of distributors or dealers by the franchiser.

2. The successor-in-interest designated as provided in subsection 1 shall have twenty-one days after the death of the franchisee to give written notice of an election to assume and operate the franchise. The notification shall contain such information regarding business experience and credit worthiness as is reasonably required by the franchiser. The successor-in-interest must offer to assume and commence operation of the franchise within ten days after the franchiser approves the assumption.

3. The franchise available to the successor-in-interest pursuant to this section shall be the same as that which existed in the name of the deceased franchisee at the time of the franchisee's death.

4. A franchisee may designate a primary and one alternate successor-in-interest. The alternate, if one is designated, has no rights under this section in the event of an exercise of rights by the primary successor-in-interest. If an alternate desires to assume and operate the franchise in the event the primary successor-in-interest fails to do so, the alternate must give notice of such election and otherwise comply with subsection 2.

5. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this section, actions to be performed by the franchiser or by the successor-in-interest under this section shall be performed within a reasonable time.

6. Following the death of a franchisee, and prior to the operation of the franchise by the successor-in-interest as provided in this section, the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased franchisee may operate the franchise.

7. If the successor-in-interest assumes the franchise, the successor-in-interest shall account to the heirs or estate of the deceased franchisee for the value of personal property of the franchisee located at or related to the franchise.

8. If the successor-in-interest does not assume the franchise, the franchiser shall account to the heirs or the estate of the deceased franchisee for the value of branded products purchased directly from the franchiser.

9. A franchisee or successor-in-interest may commence a civil action to compel compliance by a franchiser with this section, or to obtain damages caused by a failure to comply with this section, or both, within two years after the date the franchiser fails to comply with the requirements of this section.

[81 Acts, ch 114, §1, 2]

This section applies to franchise agreements executed or renewed on or after July 1, 1981.

4 "Motor fuel" means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use as a fuel in self propelled vehicles designed primarily for use on public streets, roads, and highways

[C81, §323A 1]

323A.2 Purchase from other source.

1 The orderly flow of an adequate supply of motor fuel is declared to be essential to the economy and to the welfare of the people of this state. Therefore, in the public interest and notwithstanding the terms, provisions, or conditions of any franchise, a franchisee unable to obtain motor fuel from the franchisor may purchase the fuel from another available source, subject to subsections 2 to 5 and provided the franchisee has done all of the following a At least forty-eight hours prior to entering into an agreement to purchase motor fuel from another source, the franchisee has requested delivery of motor fuel from the franchisor and the requested motor fuel has not been delivered and the franchisor has given the franchisee notice that the franchisor is unable to provide the requested motor fuel, or prior to entering into an agreement the franchisor has stated to the franchisee that the requested motor fuel will not be delivered. The request to the franchisor for delivery shall be for a type of fuel normally provided by the franchisor to the franchisee and for a quantity of fuel not exceeding the average amount sold by the franchisee in one week, based upon average weekly sales in the three months preceding the request, except that this provision shall not restrict a franchisee from purchasing gasoline from a source other than the franchisor or limit the quantity to be purchased when the franchisor does not normally supply the franchisee with gasoline

b The franchisee has requested and has been denied delivery of motor fuel sold or distributed under the trademark named in the franchise from a person other than franchisor

c The franchisee has requested motor fuel from the set aside program administered by the energy policy council under section 93 7, subsection 9, and allocation from the set aside program has been denied and the director of the energy policy council determines that the franchisee has demonstrated that a special hardship exists in the community served by the franchisee relating to the public health, safety and welfare, as specified under the rules of the energy policy council

2 The quantity of motor fuel requested or purchased from another source including those sources listed in subsection 1, paragraphs "b" and "c" shall not exceed the quantity requested from the franchisor

3 At the time a franchisee enters into an agreement to purchase motor fuel from a source other than the franchisor, the franchisee shall inform the franchisor by the quickest available means

4 If the franchisee sells motor fuel supplied from a source other than the franchisor, the franchisee shall prominently post a sign disclosing this fact to the public on each motor fuel pump used for dispensing the motor fuel. The size of the sign shall not be less than eight inches by ten inches and the letters on the sign shall be at least three inches in height

5 A franchisee who sells motor fuel supplied from a source other than the franchisor shall also fully indemnify the franchisor against any claims asserted by a user on which the claimant prevails and in which the court determines that motor fuel not acquired from the franchisor was the proximate cause of the injury

Purchases of motor fuel in accordance with this section are not good cause for termination of a franchise
[C81, §323A 2]

323A.3 Effective date.

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable only to franchise agreements entered into or renewed after July 1, 1980

MOTOR FUEL TAX

Referred to in §324 32 324 54 324 57 324 65

324.1 Short title

This division, plus applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Motor Fuel Tax Law," and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division

[C35, §5093 f40, C39, §5093.39; C46, 50, 54, §324 66, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 1]
Similar provisions §324 31 324 50

324.2 Definitions.

As employed in this division

1 "Motor fuel" shall mean (a) all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasoline (including casinghead and absorption or natural gasoline) regardless of their classifications or uses, and (b) any liquid advertised, offered for sale, sold for use as, or commonly or commercially used as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles, which when subjected to distillation of gasoline, naphtha, kerosene and similar petroleum products (American Society of Testing Materials Designation D 86), show not less than ten per centum distilled (recovered) below three hundred forty-seven degrees Fahrenheit (one hundred seventy-five degrees Centigrade) and not less than ninety five per centum distilled (recovered) below four hundred sixty four degrees Fahrenheit (two hundred forty degrees Centigrade), provided, that the term "motor fuel" shall not include special fuel as defined in section 324 33, subsection 1, and shall not include liquefied gases which would not exist as liquids at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and a pressure of fourteen and seven tenths pounds per square inch absolute, nor naphthas and solvents as hereinafter defined unless the liquefied gases or naphthas and solvents are used as a component in the manufacture, compounding, or blending of a liquid within (b) above, in which event the resulting product shall be deemed to be motor fuel

2 "Distributor" shall mean and include any person who first receives motor fuel within this state (within the meaning of the word "received" as hereinafter defined), and any person now or hereafter engaged in the business of selling motor fuel to a dealer in this state for resale provided that a person may bring into this state not to exceed thirty gallons of motor fuel in the fuel supply tank, or any other container, directly connected to the motor of a motor vehicle without becoming a distributor

3 "Licensee" shall mean and include any person holding an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue under this division or any prior motor fuel tax law

4 "Dealer," "agent" and "consignee" shall mean and include any person (except distributors as herein defined) now or hereafter engaged in the business of selling motor fuel in this state

5 "Motor fuel deemed received" a Motor fuel refined at a refinery in this state and placed in tanks thereat, and motor fuel transferred from a refinery or a marine or pipeline terminal in this state or from points outside this state to a refinery or a marine or pipeline terminal in this state and placed in tanks thereat, shall be deemed received, for the purposes of this division, at the time withdrawn from such refinery or terminal storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than refineries or marine or pipeline terminals and not before

When withdrawn from refinery or terminal storage as aforesaid, the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the person who was the owner thereof immediately prior to withdrawal, unless (1) the motor fuel is withdrawn for shipment or delivery to a licensee, in which case the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the licensee to whom shipped or delivered or (2) the motor fuel is withdrawn for shipment or delivery to a non licensee for the account of a licensee in which case the motor fuel shall be deemed received by the licensee for whose account the shipment or delivery to the non licensee is made

b Motor fuel imported into this state, other than that placed in storage at refineries or terminals as set out in paragraph "a" above, shall be deemed received at the time unloaded in this state and by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after it is unloaded in this state, except that if motor fuel so imported is used in this state directly from the transportation equipment by which imported then the motor fuel shall be deemed received at the time it is brought into this state and by the person using the motor fuel within this state, provided however, that if motor fuel shipped or brought into this state by a licensee is sold and delivered directly to a nonlicensee in this state, then the gallonage so delivered shall be deemed received by the licensee shipping or bringing the motor fuel into this state

c Motor fuel produced, compounded, or blended in this state other than at a refinery, marine or pipeline terminal, shall be deemed to be received at the time and by the person who is the owner thereof when the same is so produced, compounded or blended

Except as hereinbefore set forth, the word "received" shall be given its usual and customary meaning

6 "Naphthas and solvents" shall mean and include those liquids which come within the distillation specifications for motor fuel set out under subsection 1, paragraph "b," but which are designed and sold for exclusive use other than as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles

7 "Gasohol" means motor fuel containing at least ten percent alcohol distilled from agricultural products

[C27, 31, §5093 a2, C35, §5093 f2, C39, §5093.02; C46, 50, 54, §324 1, C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324 2]

324.3 Levy of excise tax — exemptions — refunds.

For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of thirteen cents per gallon beginning September 1, 1981 is imposed upon the use of all motor fuel used for any purpose except motor fuel containing at least ten percent alcohol distilled from agricultural products grown in the United States for the period beginning July 1, 1978 and ending June 30, 1986 and except as otherwise provided in this division. The tax shall be paid in the first instance by the distributor upon the invoiced gallonage of all motor fuel received by the distributor in this state, within the meaning of the word "received" as defined in this division, less the deductions authorized. Thereafter, except as otherwise provided, the per gallon amount of the tax shall be added to the selling price of every gallon of such motor fuel sold in this state and collected from the purchaser so that the ultimate consumer bears the burden of the tax, provided that tax shall not be imposed or collected under this division with respect to the following:

1 Motor fuel sold for export or exported from this state to any other state, territory, or foreign country

2 Motor fuel sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof

3 Motor fuel sold to any post exchange or other concessionaire on any federal reservation within this state, but the tax on motor fuel so sold, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall be collected by the post exchange or concessionaire, reported and paid the department of revenue

4 Motor fuel used in the operation of an Iowa urban transit system or regional transit system. Any fuel sold to an Iowa urban transit system or regional transit system which is used for a purpose other than as specified in section 324.57, subsections 9 and 11, is not exempt from the tax

5 Motor fuel sold to the state, any of its agencies, or to any political subdivision of the state, which is used for public purposes and delivered into any size of storage tank owned or used exclusively by the state, any of its agencies, or a political subdivision of the state. The department of revenue shall issue exemption certificate forms to the state, its agencies, and political subdivisions of the state, or the state, any of its agencies, or a political subdivision of the state, or a licensed motor fuel distributor may provide its own certificate of exemption in the form prescribed by the director, to a distributor or dealer to substantiate tax-exempt sales of motor fuel under this subsection. The certificate of exemption shall state that all of the motor fuel delivered into the storage tank shall be used for public purposes

Motor fuel shall be sold tax paid to the state of Iowa, any of its agencies, or to any political subdivision of the state, including motor fuel sold for the transportation of pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285.5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285 unless the motor fuel is delivered into storage tanks and exempt under subsection 5. Tax on fuel which is used for public purposes is subject to refund, including tax paid on motor fuel sold for the transportation of school pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285.5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285. Claims for refunds will be filed with the department on a quarterly basis and the director shall not grant a refund of motor fuel or special fuel tax where a claim is not filed within one year from the date the tax was due. The claim shall contain the number of gallons purchased, the calculation of the amount of motor fuel and special fuel tax subject to refund and any other information required by the department necessary to process the refund.

For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of six cents per gallon for the period beginning September 1, 1981 and ending April 30, 1982, an excise tax of eight cents per gallon for the period beginning May 1, 1982 and ending June 30, 1983, an excise tax of ten cents per gallon for the period beginning July 1, 1983 and ending June 30, 1984, an excise tax of eleven cents per gallon for the period beginning July 1, 1984 and ending June 30, 1985, an excise tax of twelve cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1985 and ending June 30, 1986, is imposed upon the use of gasohol used for any purpose except as otherwise provided in this division.

324.4 Distributor's license.

It shall be unlawful for any person to receive motor fuel within this state or to otherwise act as a distributor unless the person holds an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue. To procure a license a distributor shall file with the department of revenue an application signed under penalty for false certificate and in such form as the department of revenue may prescribe, setting forth:

1 The name under which the distributor will transact business in the state of Iowa

2 The location, with street number address, of the principal office or place of business of the distributor within this state

3 The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if the distributor is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers, if the distributor is a corporation or association

A license shall not be issued if the applicant is a foreign corporation, unless it is at the time properly qualified under the laws of this state to do business therein

If (a) any application for a license to transact business as a distributor in this state shall be filed by any person whose license shall have been canceled for cause at any time theretofore under the provisions of the chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, or (b) the department of revenue shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or (c) the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, the department of revenue, after a hearing of which the applicant shall have been given fifteen days' notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, shall have and is hereby given the right and authority to refuse to issue to the applicant a distributor's license

Upon the filing of the application, a filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the department of revenue

The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid and the other conditions and requirements of this section and division IV having been complied with, the department of revenue shall issue to the applicant a license to transact business as a distributor in this state. The license shall remain in full force and effect until canceled as provided in this chapter

The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the distributor in this state

The department of revenue shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensees

If, during any month, a person licensed as a distributor under this division uses tax paid motor fuel to blend gasohol and the refund otherwise due under this section is greater than the distributor's total tax liability for that month, the distributor will be entitled to a credit. The claim for credit shall be filed as part of the report required by section 324 8.

In order to obtain the refund established by this section, the person shall do all of the following:

1 Obtain a blender's permit as provided in section 324 18.

If a fraudulent refund claim is filed with intent to evade the tax, the penalty shall be fifty percent in lieu of five percent. The person shall also pay interest on the excess refunded at a rate of three-fourths of one percent per month counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the refund was issued to the date the excess refund is repaid to the state.

2 "Use" means the receipt, delivery or placing of special fuels by a special fuel user into a supply fuel tank of a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in this state or delivered into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank, except that with respect to natural gas used as a special fuel "use" means the receipt, delivery or placing of the natural gas into equipment for compressing the gas for subsequent delivery into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle

3 "Special fuel dealer" means any person in the business of handling special fuel who delivers any part thereof into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle or delivers special fuel to a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank

5 "Licensed special fuel user" means and includes any person licensed by the department who dispenses special fuel, upon which the special fuel tax has not been previously paid, for highway use from bulk sources owned and controlled by the person into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or commercial motor vehicle owned or controlled by the person. A licensed special fuel user shall make bulk purchases of special fuel for highway use only from a licensed special fuel distributor, except that a licensed special fuel user may purchase natural gas for highway use as a special fuel from the piped distribution system of a public utility or a pipeline company. The sale of natural gas by a public utility or a pipeline company is not a sale of special fuel requiring a special fuel distributor's license

324.34 Tax imposed.

For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state, there is levied and imposed an excise tax on the use (as defined herein) of special fuel in any motor vehicle. The rate of tax on special (diesel engine) fuel is thirteen and one-half cents per gallon beginning September 1, 1981 and fifteen and one-half cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1982. On all other special fuel the per gallon rate is the same as the motor fuel tax. The tax, with respect to all special fuel delivered by a special fuel dealer for use in this state as defined by section 324.33, shall attach at the time of the delivery and shall be collected by the dealer from the special fuel user and paid over to the department of revenue as provided in this chapter. The tax, with respect to special fuel acquired by a special fuel user in any manner other than by delivery by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or delivery into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank by a special fuel dealer or distributor, shall attach at the time of the use (as herein defined) of the fuel and shall be paid over to the department of revenue by the user as provided in this chapter.

All deliveries by distributors of special fuel to be used for highway use, except deliveries into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank, must be made into storage connected to a sealed meter pump as licensed in said section. Special fuel delivered to a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank of a special fuel user by a distributor shall be metered upon delivery and the special fuel tax shall be collected by the distributor and paid over to the department of revenue.

The department of revenue shall make reasonable rules governing the dispensing of special fuel by distributors, special fuel dealers and licensed special fuel users. The department shall require that all pumps located at special fuel dealer locations and licensed special fuel user locations through which fuel oil or liquefied petroleum gas can be dispensed, be metered, inspected, tested for accuracy, sealed and licensed by the state department of agriculture, and that special fuel delivered into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle or into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank shall be dispensed only through tested metered pumps and may be sold without temperature correction or corrected to a temperature of sixty degrees. If the metered gallonage is to be temperature corrected, only a temperature compensated meter shall be used.

324.34 Amend § 324.2(1), § 324.34, § 324.35, 16-85 Acts

The deliberate heating of road taxable motor fuel or special fuel by dealers prior to consumer sale is a simple misdemeanor.

All gallonage for nonhighway use, dispensed through metered pumps as licensed above, on which special fuel tax is not collected, must be substantiated by nonhighway exemption certificates as provided by the department of revenue, signed by the purchaser, and retained by the dealer.

For the privilege of purchasing special fuel, dispensed through metered pumps as licensed above, on a basis exempt from the special fuel tax, the purchaser shall sign nonhighway exemption certificates for the gallonage claimed for nonhighway use.

The department of revenue will disallow all sales said to be for nonhighway use unless proof is established by the retention of said certificate. Certificates for nonhighway use sales must be retained by the dealer for a period of three years.

For natural gas used as a special fuel the rate of tax that is equivalent to the motor fuel tax shall be ten and one half cents per hundred cubic feet adjusted to a base temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and a pressure of fourteen and seventy three hundredths pounds per square inch absolute. The tax on natural gas shall attach at the time of delivery into equipment for compressing the gas for subsequent delivery into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle and shall be paid over to the department of revenue by the person operating the compressing equipment under the applicable provisions for users or dealers. Natural gas used as a special fuel shall be delivered into compressing equipment through sealed meters certified for accuracy by the department of agriculture.

A person shall not deliver any special fuel into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle registered in Iowa on or after March 15, 1983 unless there is a special fuel user identification sticker affixed in a prominent place on the vehicle adjacent to the place where the special fuel is delivered into the tank or unless the motor vehicle is registered under chapter 326.

Except for deliveries to a licensed special fuel dealer or licensed special fuel user or deliveries on which the special fuel tax is paid at the time of delivery it is unlawful to deliver liquefied petroleum gas into any tank which has a valve or other outlet capable of transferring the liquefied petroleum gas into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle unless the person making the delivery receives a written statement from the recipient of the fuel which states that the recipient knows that the use of liquefied petroleum gas for highway purposes is unlawful.

Tax on special fuel sold to the state of Iowa, any of its agencies or any political subdivisions of the state where such fuel is used for public purposes is subject to refund, including tax paid on special fuel sold for the transportation of school pupils of approved public and nonpublic schools by a contract carrier who contracts with the public school under section 285 5 for the transportation of public and nonpublic school pupils under chapter 285. Claims shall be filed in accordance with the claims for motor fuel tax refunds provided by section 324 3.

A tax shall not be imposed under this division and sections 324 34, 324 36, and 324 38 are not applicable if special fuel is sold to the state, any of its agencies, an Iowa urban transit system, regional transit system, or political subdivision of the state when the special fuel is delivered into storage tanks, regardless of size, and all of the special fuel is used for public purposes.

324.36 Special fuel distributors', special fuel dealers' and special fuel users' licenses.

1 Required It is unlawful for a person to act as a special fuel dealer in this state unless the person holds a special fuel dealer's license issued to the person by the department of revenue, except as provided in section 3 of this Act. * A person who holds a special fuel distributor's license may dispense special fuel into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank without obtaining a special fuel dealer's license. Except for special fuel which is delivered by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank in this state or delivered by a special fuel distributor into a motor vehicle special fuel holding tank, the use, as herein defined, of special fuel in this state by a person is unlawful unless the person holds a special fuel user's license issued to the person by the department of revenue. It is unlawful for a person to sell special fuel in this state in bulk for highway use without first obtaining a special fuel distributor's license. The license shall be issued under the same procedure and subject to the same requirements and limitations as provided in section 324 4.

324.36(1) Amend
Ch 67, §40-85 Acts

2 Application Application for a special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license shall be made to the department of revenue. A special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license, which ever is applicable, shall be required for each separate place of business or location where special fuels are regularly delivered or placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle. Provided, that if a special fuel dealer also operates one or more bulk plants from which the distribution of a special fuel is primarily by tank vehicle, the special fuel dealer need not obtain a separate license for any of these plants not provided with fixed equipment designed for fueling vehicles. Upon written application and at the discretion of the director, a special fuel user whose business operations require mobile special fuel storage may obtain a single special fuel user's license to be issued to the user's permanent principal place of business.

3 Form of application The application shall be filed upon a form prepared and furnished by the department of revenue and shall contain such information as the department of revenue deems necessary.

4 Issuance Upon receipt of the application, the department of revenue shall issue to the applicant a license to act as a special fuel dealer or a special fuel user, provided, however, the department of revenue may refuse to issue a special fuel dealer's license or a special fuel user's license to any person (a) who formerly held either type of license and which has been revoked for cause, or (b) who is a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license has been revoked for cause, or (c) upon other sufficient cause being shown. Before refusal, the department of revenue shall grant the applicant a hearing and give the applicant at least fifteen days' written notice of the time and place thereof.

5 Expiration of license Each special fuel dealer's license and special fuel user's license shall be valid until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

6 Assignment forbidden A special fuel dealer's license or special fuel user's license shall not be transferable.

1 Special fuel distributors shall prepare and maintain with respect to the special fuel the same records as provided in section 324 10 for motor fuel distributors, subject to the same requirements.

2 For each location where special fuel is delivered or placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, the special fuel dealer or user making the delivery shall prepare and maintain for a period of three years such records as the department of revenue may reasonably require with respect to all these deliveries, and with respect to inventories, receipts, purchases, and sales or other dispositions of special fuel.

324.38 Returns and tax payments.

1 Returns for licensed dealers and users For the purpose of determining the amount of liability for special fuel tax each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file with the department of revenue not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter a monthly tax return certified under penalties for false certificate. The return shall show, with reference to each location at which special fuel is delivered or placed by the dealer or user into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle during the next preceding calendar month, such information as the department of revenue may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this division. However, if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, the monthly return to the department of revenue covering the location need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made.

2 Computation The amount of tax due shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate tax rate per gallon by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered or placed by the special fuel dealer or user into supply tanks of motor vehicles.

3 Payments The return shall be accompanied by remittance in the amount of the tax due for the month in which the special fuel was placed in the fuel tanks of motor vehicles.

4 Quarterly returns and tax payment by special fuel distributors For the purpose of determining the amount of the tax liability for special fuel tax, each special fuel distributor licensed under this chapter shall file with the department of revenue, not later than the last day of the month next following each calendar quarter, a quarterly tax return certified under penalties for false certificate. The return shall show the total amount of special fuel sold during the quarter, the amount of special fuel sold for nonhighway use, the amount of fuel sold to licensed special fuel dealers and users, the amount of special fuel delivered into motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks, the amount of tax due, and such other pertinent information required by the department of revenue. The amount of tax due shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate tax rate per gallon by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered or placed by the special fuel distributor into the motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance in the amount of the tax due for the quarter.

5 Exemption for fueling by licensed dealers or distributors If the purchase of special fuel within this state by a person not required to be licensed under this division is purchased solely in one or more of the following manners, the person need not file a return.

a Special fuels purchased tax paid and delivered into the fuel supply tank of the user's motor vehicles by licensed special fuel dealers.

b Special fuels purchased tax paid and delivered into the user's motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks by licensed special fuel dealers.

c Special fuels purchased tax paid and delivered into the user's motor vehicle special fuel holding tanks by licensed special fuel distributors.

d Special fuel delivered by a special fuel distributor into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle which is stranded, provided the delivery is limited to twenty gallons and the distributor collects and remits the tax to the department.

6. Presumption. For purposes of this section there shall be a prima-facie presumption that all special fuel received by a special dealer or special fuel user into storage and dispensing equipment designed to fuel motor vehicles is to be delivered by the special fuel dealer or special fuel user into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

Referred to in §324.57, 324.58, 324.65, 324.76

324.50 Short title.

This division and applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Interstate Fuel Use Tax Law," and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division.

Similar provision, §324.1, 324.31

324.51 Purpose.

The purpose of this division is to provide an additional method of collecting fuel taxes from interstate motor vehicle operators commensurate with their operations on Iowa highways; and to permit the state department of transportation to suspend this collection as to transportation entering Iowa from any other state where it appears that Iowa highway fuel tax revenue and interstate highway transportation moving out of Iowa will not be unduly prejudiced thereby.

[C27, 31, §4755-b38, 5093-a1; C35, §5093-f3; C39, §5093.03; C46, 50, 54, §324.2; C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §324.51]

324.52 Fuels imported in supply tanks of motor vehicles.

No person shall bring into this state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle, or any other container, regardless of whether or not the supply tanks are connected to the motor of the vehicle, any motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicle in this state unless that person has paid or made arrangements in advance with the state department of transportation for payment of Iowa fuel taxes on the gallonage consumed in operating the vehicle in this state; except that this division shall not apply to a private passenger automobile.

Any person who is unable to display either of the permits provided in section 324.53 and brings into the state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle more than thirty gallons of motor fuel or special fuel in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

324.53 Permit.

The advance arrangements referred to in the preceding section shall include the procuring of a permanent interstate fuel permit or single trip interstate permit.

Persons choosing not to make advance arrangements with the state department of transportation by procuring a permit are not relieved of their responsibility to purchase motor fuel and special fuel commensurate with their use of the state's highway system. When there is reasonable cause to believe that there is evasion of the fuel tax on commercial motor vehicles, the state department of transportation may audit persons not holding a permit. Audits shall be conducted pursuant to section 324.55. The state department of transportation shall collect all taxes due and refund any overpayment.

A permanent permit may be obtained upon application to the state department of transportation. A fee of ten dollars shall be charged for each permit issued. The holder of a permanent permit shall have the privilege of bringing into this state in the fuel supply tanks of commercial motor vehicles any amount of motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicles and for that privilege shall pay Iowa motor fuel or special fuel taxes as provided in section 324.54. A single trip interstate permit may be obtained from the state department of transportation. A fee of twelve dollars shall be charged for each individual single trip interstate permit issued. A single trip interstate permit is subject to the following provisions and limitations:

1. The permit shall be issued and be valid for seventy-two consecutive hours, except in emergencies, or until the time of leaving the state, whichever first occurs.

2. The permit shall cover only one commercial motor vehicle and is not transferable.

3. Single trip interstate fuel permits may be made available from sources other than indicated in this section at the discretion of the state department of transportation.

Each vehicle operated into or through Iowa in interstate operations using motor fuel or special fuel acquired in any other state shall carry in or on the vehicle a duplicate or evidence of the permit required in this section. A fee not to exceed fifty cents shall be charged for each duplicate or other evidence of permit issued.

324.54 Fuel tax computation — refund — reporting and payment.

Fuel tax liability under this division shall be computed on the total number of gallons of each kind of motor fuel and special fuel consumed in the operation in Iowa by commercial motor vehicles subject to this division at the same rate for each kind of fuel as would be applicable if taxed under division I or division II of this chapter. A refund against the fuel tax liability so computed shall be allowed, on excess Iowa motor fuel purchased, in the amount of fuel tax paid at the prevailing rate per gallon set out under division I or division II of this chapter on motor fuel and special fuel consumed by commercial motor vehicles, the operation of which is subject to this division.

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, the holder of a permanent permit may make application to the state department of transportation for a refund, not later than the last day of the third month following the quarter in which the overpayment of Iowa fuel tax paid on excess purchases of motor fuel or special fuel was reported as provided in section 324.8, and which application is supported by such proof as the state department of transportation may require. The state department of transportation shall refund Iowa fuel tax paid on motor fuel or special fuel purchased in excess of the amount consumed by such commercial motor vehicles in their operation on the highways of this state.

Application for a refund of fuel tax under this division must be made for each quarter in which the excess payment was reported, and will not be allowed unless the amount of fuel tax paid on the fuel purchased in this state, in excess of that consumed for highway operation in this state in the quarter applied for, is in an amount exceeding ten dollars. An application for a refund of excess Iowa fuel tax paid under this division which is filed for any period or in any manner other than herein set out shall not be allowed.

To determine the amount of fuel taxes due under this division and to prevent the evasion thereof, the state department of transportation shall require a quarterly report on forms prescribed by the state department of transportation. It shall be filed not later than the last day of the month following the quarter reported, and each quarter thereafter. These reports shall be required of all persons who have been issued a permit under this division and shall cover actual operation and fuel consumption in Iowa on the basis of the permit holder's average consumption of fuel in Iowa, determined by the total miles traveled and the total fuel purchased and consumed for highway use by the permittee's commercial motor vehicles in the permittee's entire operation in all states to establish an overall miles per gallon ratio, which ratio shall be used to compute the gallons used for the miles traveled in Iowa.

Every person operating within the purview of this division shall make and keep for a period of three years such records as may reasonably be required by the state department of transportation for the administration of this division. If in the normal conduct of the business, the required records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the state department of transportation at the office outside Iowa.

The state department of transportation within a period of one year from the issuance of a permanent interstate fuel permit may audit the records of the permittee for the two years preceding the issuance of the permit. The state department of transportation shall collect all taxes due had the permittee been licensed for the two years prior to the issuance of the permit and shall refund any overpayment pursuant to section 324.54. When, as a result of an audit, fuel taxes unpaid and due the state of Iowa exceed five hundred dollars, the audit shall be at the expense of the person whose records are being audited. However, if an audit of records maintained under this section is made outside the state of Iowa in a state which requires payment of the costs for similar audits performed by officials or employees of the other state when made in Iowa, then all costs of audits performed outside of Iowa in the other state shall be at the expense of the person whose records are audited.

The director of transportation may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the agreement for the collection and refund of interstate motor fuel tax.

"Iowa urban transit system" also includes motor buses operated upon the streets of adjoining cities, whether interstate or intrastate, for the trans-

Privately chartered bus services, motor carriers and interurban carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the state department of transportation, school bus services and taxicabs shall not be construed to be an urban transit system nor a part of any such system.

10. However, the administration and overhead support services for the overall regional transit system shall be consolidated into one existing or new agency to be mutually agreed upon by the participating members. Privately chartered bus services and uses other than providing services that are open and public on a shared ride basis shall not be construed to be a regional transit system.

The provisions of this section shall govern the primary liability pursuant to this section if either lessor or lessee primarily fails in whole or in part to discharge this liability. Such failing party as lessor or lessee party to the transaction shall be jointly and severally responsible and liable for the provisions of division III of this chapter and for payment of any tax unpaid and due pursuant thereto, provided that any taxes collected by this state shall not exceed the total amount or amounts of the taxes due on account of the transaction in question and such penalties and costs, if any, as may be imposed.

The department of revenue shall also make available to the public information with respect to special fuel dealers and users and as to each of them the gallonage used and taxes paid. The department of revenue or the state department of transportation, upon request of officials entrusted with enforcement of the motor vehicle fuel tax laws of the federal government or any other state, may forward to such officials any pertinent information which the appropriate state agency may have relative to motor fuel and special fuel provided the officials of the other state furnish like information.

324.64 Failure to file return — incorrect return.

If a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient and the filer fails to file a corrected or sufficient return within twenty days after the same is required by notice from the appropriate state agency, the appropriate state agency shall determine the amount of tax due. The determination shall be made from all information that the appropriate state agency may be able to obtain and, if necessary, the agency may estimate the tax on the basis of external indices. The appropriate state agency shall give notice of the determination to the person liable for the tax. The determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed shall, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, apply to the director of the appropriate state agency for a hearing or unless the director reduces the assessment. At the hearing, evidence may be offered to support the determination or to prove that it is incorrect. After the hearing, the director shall give notice of the decision to the person liable for the tax. The findings of the appropriate state agency as to the amount of fuel taxes, penalties and interest due from any person shall be presumed to be the correct amount and in any litigation which may follow, the certificate of the agency shall be admitted in evidence, shall constitute a prima-facie case and shall impose upon the other party the burden of showing any error in the findings and the extent thereof or that the finding was contrary to law.

The director may, on his or her own motion at any time, abate any portion of tax, interest or penalties which are determined to be excessive in amount or erroneously or illegally assessed.

324.65 Failure to promptly pay fuel taxes — interest and penalties.

If a licensee or other person fails to remit at least ninety percent of the tax due with the filing of the return on or before the due date or pays less than ninety percent of any tax required to be shown on the return, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax due. The penalty imposed under this section is not subject to waiver. The taxpayer shall also pay interest on the tax or additional tax at the rate in effect under section 421.7 counting each fraction of a month as an entire month, computed from the date the return was required to be filed.

The appropriate state agency shall not remit any part of a penalty for delinquent payment where the delinquency results from the fact that a check given in payment is not honored because of insufficient funds in the account upon which the check was drawn. However, if it appears as a result of an investigation or from a preponderance of the evidence adduced at a hearing that there has been a deliberate attempt on the part of a licensee or other person to evade payment of fuel taxes there shall be added to the assessment against the offending person and collected a penalty of fifty percent of the tax due. Any report required of licensees or persons operating under divisions I, II and III, upon which no tax may be due, is subject to a penalty of ten dollars if the report is not timely filed with the appropriate state agency.

The appropriate state agency shall administer the taxes imposed by this chapter in the same manner and subject to all the provisions of section 422.25, subsection 4 and section 422.52, subsection 3.

All the provisions of section 422.26 shall apply in respect to the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs imposed by this chapter excepting that as applied to any tax imposed by this chapter, the lien therein provided shall be prior and paramount over all subsequent liens upon any personal property within this state, or right to such personal property, belonging to the taxpayer without the necessity of recording as therein provided. The requirements for recording shall, as applied to the tax imposed by this chapter, apply only to the liens upon real property. When requested to do so by any person from whom a taxpayer is seeking credit, or with whom the taxpayer is negotiating the sale of any personal property, or by any other person having a legitimate interest in such information, the director shall, upon being satisfied that such a situation exists, inform such person as to the amount of unpaid taxes due by such taxpayer under the provisions of this chapter. The giving of such information under such circumstances shall not be deemed a violation of section 324.63 as applied to this chapter.

No assessment shall be made covering any period beyond three years prior to the date of assessment.

324.68 Power of department of revenue or the state department of transportation to cancel licenses.

If a licensee files a false report of the data or information required by this chapter, or fails, refuses, or neglects to file a report required by this chapter, or to pay the full amount of fuel tax as required by this chapter, then after ten days' written notice by registered mail directed to the last known address of the licensee setting a time and place at which the licensee may appear and show cause why the license should not be canceled, and if the licensee fails to appear or if upon the hearing it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the failure to correctly report or pay was with intent to evade the tax, the appropriate state agency may cancel the license and shall notify the licensee of the cancellation by registered mail to the licensee's last known address.

If a licensee abuses the privileges for which the license was issued, fails to produce records reasonably requested or fails to extend reasonable co-operation to the appropriate state agency, the licensee shall be advised in writing of a hearing scheduled to determine if the license shall be canceled. The appropriate state agency upon the presentation of a preponderance of evidence may cancel a license for cause.

The director of the appropriate state agency may reissue a license which has been canceled for cause. As a condition of reissuance of a license, in addition to requirements for issuing a new license, the director may require a waiting period not to exceed ninety days before a license can be reissued or a new license issued. The director shall adopt rules specifying those instances for which a waiting period will be required.

Upon receipt of written request from any licensee the appropriate state agency shall cancel the license of the licensee effective on the date of receipt of the request. If, upon investigation, the appropriate state agency finds that a licensee is no longer engaged in the activities for which a license was issued and has not been so engaged for a period of six months, the state agency shall cancel the license and give thirty days' notice of the cancellation mailed to the last known address of the licensee.

If a licensee ceases to engage in the state in activities for which the person's license was issued or discontinues, sells, or transfers the business in which the person has carried on that activity the licensee shall notify the department of revenue, which shall forward notice to the state department of transportation, in writing at least ten days prior to the time the cessation, discontinuance, sale or transfer takes effect. The notice shall give the date of proposed cessation or discontinuance, and, in the event of a proposed sale or transfer of the business, the date and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee. All fuel taxes, penalties and interest under this chapter not yet due and payable shall, together with any and all interest accruing or penalties imposed under this chapter shall become due and payable concurrently with the cessation, discontinuances, sale or transfer, and it shall be the duty of the licensee to make a report and pay all the fuel taxes, interest, and penalties within ten days.

To qualify for the refund, the person shall notify the department of revenue in writing of the loss or destruction and the gallonage lost or destroyed within ten days from the date of discovery of the loss or destruction. Within sixty days after filing the notice, the person shall file with the department of revenue an affidavit sworn to by the person having immediate custody of the motor fuel or special fuel at the time of the loss or destruction setting forth in full the circumstances and amount of the loss or destruction and such other information as the department of revenue may require. Any refund payable under this section may be applied by the department against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant.

If any fuel taxes, penalties, or interest have been erroneously or illegally collected by the appropriate state agency from a licensee, the appropriate state agency may permit the licensee to take credit against a subsequent tax return for the amount of the erroneous or illegal overpayment, may apply the overpayment against any tax liability outstanding on the books of the department against the claimant, or shall certify the amount to the state comptroller, who shall draw a warrant for the certified amount on the treasurer of state payable to the licensee. The refund shall be paid to the licensee immediately.

A refund or credit shall not be made under this section unless a written claim setting forth the circumstances for which the refund or credit should be allowed is filed with the appropriate state agency within one year from the date of the payment of the taxes erroneously or illegally collected or paid.

However, if it is found during an examination by the appropriate state agency that a licensee paid, as a result of a mistake, an amount of tax, penalty, or in-

1. Persons having title to motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel in storage and held for sale on the effective date of an increase in the excise tax rate imposed on motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel under this chapter shall be subject to an inventory tax based upon the gallonage in storage as of the close of the business day next preceding the effective date of the increased excise tax rate of motor fuel, gasohol, or special fuel which will be subject to the increased excise tax rate.

2. Persons subject to the tax imposed under this section shall take an inventory to determine the gallonage in storage for purposes of determining the tax and shall report that gallonage on forms provided by the department of revenue and pay the tax due within thirty days of the prescribed inventory date. The department of revenue shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

324.86 Method of determining gallonage.

The exclusive method of determining gallonage of any purchases or sales of motor fuel and special fuel as defined in this chapter and distillate fuels shall be on a gross volume basis. A temperature-adjusted or other method shall not be used, except as it applies to liquefied petroleum gas and the sale or exchange of petroleum products between petroleum refiners. All invoices, bills of lading, or other records of sale or purchase and all reports or records required to be made, kept, and maintained by a distributor or dealer shall be made, kept, and maintained on the gross volume basis. 324A.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to impose an excise tax upon the use within this state of fuel to power railway vehicles

[81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §22]

324A.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Fuel" means a combustible gas or liquid suitable for the generation of power for the propulsion of railway vehicles, except that it does not include motor fuel as defined in section 324 2

2 "Department" means the department of revenue

3 "Railway vehicle" means a vehicle designed and used primarily upon railways for self propulsion or for propelling conveyances

4 "Railroad company" means a person responsible for the operation of a railway vehicle within this state

[81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §23]

324A.3 Tax imposed.

For the privilege of operating railway vehicles in this state, an excise tax is imposed at the rate of three cents per gallon beginning October 1, 1981 and is imposed at the rate of eight cents per gallon beginning July 1, 1982 upon the use of fuel for the propulsion of a railway vehicle within the state The tax attaches at the time of use and shall be paid monthly to the department by the railroad company using the fuel At such time the Iowa railway finance authority deems necessary, it may require that fuel dispensed in this state shall only be through meters which have been approved for accuracy by the Iowa railway finance authority and sealed by the authority The authority may contract the responsibility for approving and sealing meters to the department of agriculture Fuel dispensed through sealed meters shall be presumed taxable unless the railroad company proves otherwise

Referred to in §324A 6

324A.4 Railroad company license.

A railroad company responsible for paying the tax imposed by this chapter shall obtain a license from the department To obtain a license a railroad company shall file an application with the department which shall include the following information

- 1 The name of the railroad company
 - 2 The location of its principal office within the state, if any
 - 3 A list of each location where fuel will be dispensed on a regular basis
 - 4 Other information the director of revenue requires
- [81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §25]

324A.5 Railroad company reports, tax computation and tax payment.

For the purpose of determining a railroad company's tax liability, each railroad company required to obtain a license under this chapter shall file with the department a monthly report The report shall be filed by the end of the month following the month of use The report shall include the following information

- 1 The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa
- 2 The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed in railway vehicles used solely within the state during the reporting period
- 3 The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa for nontaxable purposes
- 4 The total gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed in railway vehicles used within and without the state
- 5 The total gallons of fuel dispensed outside Iowa and placed into railway vehicles traveling within and without the state
- 6 Other information the director of revenue requires

The report shall be accompanied by a payment equal to the tax due The taxable gallons of fuel shall be computed by adding the number of gallons of fuel dispensed in Iowa and placed into railway vehicles traveling solely within the state during the reporting period and the result of multiplying the total gallons of fuel used in railway vehicles traveling within and without Iowa by a fraction the numerator of which is miles traveled in Iowa by railway vehicles traveling within and without Iowa, and the denominator of which is the total miles traveled by the same railway vehicles The tax shall be computed by multiplying the taxable gallons times the per gallon tax rate

7 If a railroad company believes that the method of computing the tax by the prescribed mileage formula has operated or will so operate as to subject to taxation a greater portion of fuel than is reasonably attributable to use for the propulsion of a railway vehicle in this state, it shall be entitled to file with the department a statement of objections and of such alternative method of determining fuel use in this state as it believes to be proper under the circumstances. If the department concludes that the mileage formula, in fact, does not reasonably attribute fuel use to the state, it shall redetermine the tax per gallons of fuel by such methods as seems best calculated to assign to the state the portion of fuel reasonably used in this state.

[81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §26]

Referred to in §324A 6

324A.6 Annual payment of certain tax liabilities

Notwithstanding the requirement for monthly payment of the excise tax in sections 324A 3 and 324A 5, if it is reasonably expected, as determined by rules prescribed by the director, that a railroad company's annual tax liability will not exceed one thousand two hundred dollars for a calendar year, the railroad company may request and the director may grant permission, in lieu of the requirement for monthly payment of tax, that the tax shall be payable on a calendar year basis. The tax is due and payable no later than January 31 following each calendar year in which the railroad company carried on business.

[82 Acts, ch 1260, §61]

324A.7 Records retained.

Records reasonably required by the department shall be retained by the railroad company for three years.

[81 Acts 2d Ex, ch 3, §27]

An Iowa urban transit system, as defined in section 324.57, subsection 9, may operate within the metropolitan area which it serves and between its service area and another city which is located not more than ten miles from its service area without obtaining a certificate of public convenience and necessity if the other city is not served by another carrier operating under a certificate of public convenience and necessity. a. The regional transit system is not a corporation organized for profit under the laws of Iowa or any other state or the regional transit system is a governmental organization.

b. The regional transit system receives any operating funds from federal, state or local government sources.

c. The regional transit system does not duplicate a transportation service provided by a regional transit system issued a certificate of convenience and necessity.

325.7 When certificate to be issued.

Before a certificate shall be issued, the authority shall, after a public hearing, make a finding that the service proposed to be rendered will promote the public convenience and necessity. If such finding be made, it shall be its duty to issue a certificate.

The authority may issue a certificate, without holding a public hearing, if the service proposed will promote the public convenience and necessity and the service would not be provided if the expense of a public hearing was placed upon the applicant.

If a certificate is to be issued without a public hearing, the authority shall publish notice of its action, at its own expense, in the same manner as provided in section 325.13. Written objections to the issuance of a certificate without holding a hearing may be filed within ten days of last publication of notice. c. A description and identification of each vehicle which is part of the fleet for which proportional registration is sought.

2. The dollar amount of registration fees due this state for each fleet subject to proportional registration shall be computed as follows:

a. Divide total fleet miles during the preceding year into in-state miles during the preceding year to determine the percentage of total fleet mileage allocable to this state.

b. Determine the sum total amount necessary to register each and every vehicle in the fleet based on the annual registration fees prescribed in chapter 321.

c. Multiply the percentage obtained under paragraph "a" of this subsection by the sum total obtained under paragraph "b" of this subsection.

d. The product so obtained under paragraph "c" of this subsection shall be the amount payable by the owner for proportional registration of the fleet for the registration year. Payment of registration fees shall be made in accordance with law.

3. The department may negotiate apportionment agreements on either a vehicle or a dollar basis. In apportionment on a vehicle basis, a sufficient number of vehicles shall be registered to produce total fee payments not less than an amount obtained by applying the proportion of in-state fleet miles to total fleet miles to the fees which would otherwise be required for total fleet registration in this state.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326.6]

Referred to in §326 7

326.7 Agreements on basis of compact miles.

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, and as an alternative to the procedure set out in section 326.6, the department may enter into agreements providing for proportional registration between this state and other jurisdictions of fleets of commercial vehicles owned by residents or nonresidents engaged in interstate commerce or simultaneously engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce on the basis of compact miles.

The Iowa prorate percent will be computed by dividing the Iowa miles by the compact miles as defined in section 326.2. If the composite percentage paid by the Iowa resident to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registrations is less than one hundred percent, the department will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent. If the composite percent paid by the nonresident fleet operator to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registration fees on vehicles base plated in Iowa is less than one hundred percent, the department will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent on such Iowa base plated vehicles.

326.8 Estimating mileage.

When in-state and total fleet or compact mileage cannot be computed for a particular fleet on the basis of actual operation during the preceding year, estimated mileage shall be accepted for the fleet's first prorate application. Estimated mileage shall be based on the proposed operation of the fleet during the entire year for which proportional registration is sought. The applicant shall substantiate the estimate by submitting details of the applicant's proposed operation including, but not limited to, type of operation, its location, routes, and frequency of operation.

Referred to in §326.15

326.9 Individual vehicles not to be proportionally registered.

The registrations of individual vehicles shall not be subject to proportional registration with this state. The same fleet, consisting of the same vehicles in each state, shall be proportionally registered in each state with which the fleet is prorated; and every one of the vehicles shall be included in the fleet in each state. Failure to comply with these requirements shall constitute grounds for cancellation of proration privileges.

326.10 Minimum fee.

The minimum fee for each vehicle registered with this state under an apportionment agreement shall not be less than ten dollars for each truck or truck tractor and two dollars for each trailer. If the department enters into an apportionment agreement where minimum fees are not permitted, the provisions of this section shall not apply. In addition to proportional registration fees, the department shall collect the amounts of fees due as hereinafter provided for the issuance of plates, stickers or other identification of all vehicles subject to proportional registration.

Referred to in §326.11

326.11 Subsequently acquired vehicles.

Vehicles acquired by a fleet owner after the commencement of the registration year and subsequently added to the fleet shall be prorated by applying the mileage percentage used in the original application for such fleet for such registration period to registration fees due under chapter 321 but in no case less than that required by section 326.10. A supplemental report shall be filed with the department not later than ten days after such addition to the fleet.

The director may issue temporary written authorization to carriers for vehicles acquired by a fleet owner and added to the fleet owner's prorate fleet after the beginning of the registration year. The temporary authority shall permit the operation of a commercial vehicle until permanent identification is issued, except that the temporary authority shall expire after forty-five days.

326.12 Vehicles deleted — registration transferred.

Fleet owners who delete commercial vehicles displaying Iowa base plates from the fleet after the commencement of the registration year shall be allowed to transfer registration credit to a replacement vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this section. Iowa shall allow credit for non-Iowa based deleted vehicles only if the state designated by the fleet owner as the base state of the deleted vehicle permits transfer of registration credit to the replacement vehicle. The fleet owner shall notify the department not later than ten days after such deletion and replacement. Allowance of credit for deleted vehicles shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. No additional registration fee shall be assessed on a replacement vehicle upon which the registration fee would have been the same as that for the deleted vehicle. The fee for reissuance or registration credentials or for transfer of credentials shall be seven dollars.

2. No deletion shall be made nor credit allowed toward registration of a replacement vehicle unless the vehicle to be removed from service has been sold, junked, repossessed, foreclosed by mechanic's lien, title transferred by operation of law, or cancellation or expiration of a lease arrangement. The deleted vehicle shall have been disposed of on or before the date the replacement vehicle was acquired or in the possession of the applicant.

3. If a leased vehicle is to be deleted from the fleet and unexpired registration fees applied to the replacement vehicle, the lessee shall certify to the department that any unexpired registration fees paid by the lessor to the lessee have been refunded to the lessor prior to the date of the supplemental application requesting credit for registration fees paid on the deleted vehicle.

326.13 Information under oath.

The department shall require fleet owners to submit under oath any information deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Information furnished under this chapter shall be forwarded to the director of the department by each fleet owner no later than January 1 of the current registration year.

326.14 Plates and receipts.

The department shall issue registration plates and receipts pursuant to apportionment agreements or arrangements authorized under this chapter

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §326 14]

326.15 Refunds of registration fees.

The refund of registration fees paid for motor vehicles under this chapter is allowed, except that no refund shall be allowed and paid if the unused portion of the fee is less than ten dollars per vehicle. Refunds shall be made as follows

1 If the motor vehicle is destroyed by fire or accident, or junked and its identity as a motor vehicle is entirely eliminated, the owner in whose name the motor vehicle was registered at the time of destruction or dismantling shall return the plates to the department and make a claim for refund. A refund is not allowed unless a junking certificate has been issued, as provided in section 321 52

2 If the motor vehicle is removed from the apportioned fleet, the owner in whose name the motor vehicle was registered shall return the plates to the department and make a claim for refund. A refund shall not be allowed without documentation of the subsequent registration of the motor vehicle

3 If the motor vehicle is stolen, the owner shall give notice of the theft to the department within five days. If the motor vehicle is not recovered by the owner before December 1 of the year for which the registration fee was paid, the owner shall make a statement of theft and make a claim for refund

4 If the composite percentage apportioned by an owner on a fleet of vehicles based in Iowa to each of the jurisdictions with which Iowa has an apportionment agreement is more than one hundred percent, the fleet owner may file a claim with the department for a refund of registration fees paid in excess of one hundred percent, except when percentages are computed over one hundred percent as specified in section 326 8. The claim for refund shall be filed on or after December 1 of the year for which refund is requested, and the fleet owner shall furnish satisfactory evidence of the alleged overpayment. The department shall prescribe and provide suitable forms requisite or deemed necessary to process claims and ensure that claims are paid to fleet owners who have complied with proportional registration requirements. A fleet owner may elect to apply a refund to proportional registration fees payable the next registration year in lieu of receiving a refund payable under this section. The state of Iowa is not liable for claims unless filed within four full years following the calendar year for which the application is made

5 If as a result of an audit the motor vehicle registration fees are found to have been paid in error, a claim for refund shall be filed with satisfactory evidence of the error

A refund for trailers and semitrailers issued multiyear registration plates shall be paid by the department under the previously stated conditions

Refunds of proportional registration fees are allowed only if the state which issued the base plate for the vehicle allows a similar refund to Iowa carriers. If the motor vehicle for which refund is sought is leased by the owner to an apportioned registrant, the claim shall be filed in the names of both the lessee and the lessor and the refund payment made payable to both the lessee and the lessor

Refunds of proportional registration fees shall be paid on the basis of unexpired complete calendar months remaining from the date the claim is filed with the department. Refunds for trailers and semitrailers issued a multiyear registration plate shall be paid on the basis of unexpired complete registration years remaining from the date the claim is filed 326.16 Delinquent fees.

If the fees for such proportional registration are not paid to each contracting jurisdiction entitled thereto on the basis of the proportional registration application and supporting documents filed with the department by the fleet owner within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the department, the department shall redetermine fees due this state. If any additional fees due this state are not paid by the fleet owner within twenty days after the mailing to the owner of a notice by certified mail of the additional fees due, such owner's registration in this state shall be canceled. In addition, the fees due for registration in this state shall be a debt due to the state of Iowa

326.17 Iowa base plates.

Resident fleet owners shall be required to list Iowa as the base state for all commercial vehicles which qualify under the term "base state" as defined in this chapter, and Iowa base plates shall be displayed on all such commercial vehicles. Nonresident fleet owners subject to proportional registration shall display Iowa base plates if the commercial vehicle qualifies as an Iowa based vehicle as defined in this chapter

326.18 Fully registered for interstate movement.

When a nonresident fleet owner has registered vehicles on a prorated basis, the vehicles are fully registered insofar as interstate commerce is concerned. The privileges granted to a nonresident pursuant to this chapter permit the operation of a vehicle which is simultaneously engaged in interstate movements and intrastate commerce, provided that the owner has intrastate authority or rights granted by the transportation regulation authority. The authority may also enter into reciprocity agreements pursuant to section 326 5 to permit interstate and intrastate movement of vehicles registered on a prorated basis by a nonresident fleet owner, provided the owner has intrastate authority granted by the transportation regulation authority and the jurisdiction in which the nonresident is based grants the same privilege to an Iowa base plated vehicle. Each vehicle upon which an Iowa base plate is required to be displayed under this chapter is fully registered for both interstate commerce and intrastate commerce

326.19 Records preserved.

Any owner complying with and granted proportional registration privileges shall preserve the records upon which applications are made for a period of four full years following the year for which the application was made. Upon request of the department, all fleet owners shall make all such records available to the department at the office of the director for audit as to accuracy of computation and payment. If the owner does not produce such records when so requested, the owner shall pay the costs of an audit by a duly appointed representative of the department at the home office of the owner. The department shall consider the interests of the state of Iowa and the citizens thereof, the interests of the other jurisdictions and the citizens thereof, and the benefits which will accrue to the economy of the state of Iowa from the uninterrupted flow of commerce in declarations made under this section. Each declaration shall specify that the extent of exemptions, benefits, and privileges is subject to revision without notice upon adoption by the general assembly of legislation in conflict with the terms of any such declaration.

The registration number plates, stickers, or other identification assigned and furnished to any vehicle for the current registration year by the state in which the vehicle is registered shall be displayed on the vehicle substantially as provided in chapter 321 for vehicles registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. In addition, a fee set by the department to cover actual cost shall be charged for each plate, sticker, or other identification furnished for each vehicle registered in accordance with the provisions of this section or extended reci-

The fee for the trip permit shall be ten dollars.

2 The department may enter into agreements with owners and operators of truck stops to permit the owners and operators of truck stops to issue trip permits subject to any conditions imposed by the department. The department is hereby authorized to take possession of any indicia of proportional registration or reciprocity upon expiration, revocation, cancellation, or suspension thereof, or which is fictitious, or which has been unlawfully or erroneously issued.

326.27 Violations to negate agreements.

Any owner denied such reciprocal or proportional registration privileges shall be subject to payment of full annual Iowa registration fees on any such vehicle operated on Iowa highways. Any person who has such privileges canceled shall be subject to the payment of the full annual registration fee for all vehicles operated on the highways of this state for a period of at least five years thereafter. The director of revenue shall cooperate with the department in ascertaining the accuracy of all reports filed pertaining to registration fees and motor fuel taxes

Any person whose privileges are canceled may request an administrative hearing of said action before the transportation regulation board, and during the period pending the hearing the apportioned registration privileges shall be reinstated if the fleet owner posts security with the department in an amount sufficient to pay such full annual fees if an adverse decision is rendered at the hearing. The authority may allow the provision of temporary service for which there is an immediate and urgent need to point or points requested by the application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity upon consideration by the authority and a finding that the point or points do not have liquid bulk carrier service capable of meeting such need or that a carrier is not currently serving those points. Upon meeting the requirements of this chapter and the rules of the authority, such temporary authority, unless suspended or revoked for good cause, shall be valid for such time as the authority shall specify but not to exceed one hundred twenty days. Granting temporary authority shall not create a presumption that the corresponding application will subsequently be granted.

Any person, city or county may file with the department a petition setting forth any particular in which any common carrier has violated the law to which it is subject and the amount of damages sustained by reason thereof. The department shall furnish to the carrier against which complaint is filed, a copy thereof, and a reasonable time shall be fixed by the authority within which such carrier shall answer the petition or satisfy the demand therein made. When the authority has reason to believe that any carrier is violating any of the laws to which it is subject, it may institute an investigation and cause a hearing to be held before it in relation to such matters in all respects as fully as if a petition had been filed.

All reports of hearings and investigations made by the authority shall be entered of record and a copy furnished to the carrier against which the complaint was filed, to the party complaining, and to any other person having a direct interest in the matter. 327D.13 Long and short haul — fair rate.

No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall charge more for the transportation of persons or property to or from any point on its railroad than a fair and just rate or charge.

No such carrier shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance, over the same line or route in the same direction within this state, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge or receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul; provided that upon application to the authority such common carrier may, in special cases, after investigation, be authorized by the authority to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property; and the authority may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier may be relieved from the operation and requirement of this section; but in exercising the authority conferred upon it in this proviso, the authority shall not permit the establishment of any charge to or from the more distant point that is not reasonably compensatory for the service performed; and, if a circuitous rail line or route is, because of such circuitry, granted authority to meet the charges of a more direct line or route to or from competitive points and to maintain higher charges to or from intermediate points on its line, the authority shall not include intermediate points as to which the haul of the petitioning line or route is not longer than that of the direct line or route between the competitive points.

pose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this chapter

Every common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter shall file with the authority and shall print schedules showing the rates for the transportation within this state of persons and property from each point upon its route to all other points on the route and from all points upon its route to all points upon every other route leased, operated, or controlled by it; and from each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated, or controlled by it to all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and a joint rate has been established or ordered between any two points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the schedules of the several carriers in the through route shall show the separately established rates, applicable to the through transportation.

The schedules shall be plainly printed and a copy of often used schedules shall be kept by every carrier readily accessible to and for inspection by the public in every station and office of the carrier where passengers or property are received for transportation when the station or office is in the charge of an agent. A notice printed in bold type and stating that the often used schedules are on file with the agent and open to public inspection, and that the agent will assist any person to determine from the schedule any rate shall be posted by the carrier in public and conspicuous places in each station or office. The authority shall, by rule, provide that adequate public access to schedules not often used be provided in a different manner.

If a grade crossing surface of a railroad track and a highway, street, or alley shall require repairs or maintenance, the costs for the maintenance may be paid as provided in section 312.2, subsection 5.

Such guilt shall then be with the railroad corporation.

This section notwithstanding, a political subdivision may pass a resolution or ordinance regulating the length of time a specific crossing may be blocked if the political subdivision demonstrates that a resolution or ordinance is necessary for public safety or convenience. If a resolution or ordinance is passed the political subdivision shall within thirty days of the effective date of the resolution or ordinance notify the authority and the railroad corporation using the crossing affected by the resolution or ordinance. The resolution or ordinance shall not become effective unless the authority and the railroad corporation are notified within thirty days. The resolution or ordinance shall become effective thirty days after notification unless a person files an objection to the resolution or ordinance with the authority. If an objection is filed the authority shall hold a hearing. The authority may disapprove the resolution or ordinance if public safety or convenience does not require a resolution or ordinance. The resolution approved by the political subdivision is prima-facie evidence that the resolution is adopted to preserve public safety or convenience.

The authority when considering rebuttal evidence shall weigh the benefits accruing to the political subdivision as it bears to the general public use compared to the burden placed on the railroad operation. Public safety or convenience may include, but shall not be limited to, high traffic density at a specific crossing of a main artery or interference with the flow of authorized emergency vehicles.

Political subdivisions shall notify the authority within sixty days of July 1, 1976, of each existing resolution or ordinance which does not conform with the provisions of this section. Political subdivisions not notifying the authority of an existing resolution or ordinance during the calendar year beginning January 1, 1976 shall have an additional sixty days after July 1, 1977 to notify the authority. Failure to do so shall render the resolution or ordinance void.

Such ordinances or resolutions may remain in effect until the authority has acted upon each ordinance or resolution under the procedures specified in this section.

DIVISION III REVERSION TO OWNERS
UPON ABANDONMENT

327G.76 Time of reversion.

Railroad property rights which are extinguished upon cessation of service by the railroad divest when the railway finance authority or the railroad, having obtained authority to abandon the rail line, removes the track materials to the right-of-way. If the railway finance authority does not acquire the line and the railway company does not remove the track materials, the property rights which are extinguished upon cessation of service by the railroad divest one year after the railway obtains the final authorization necessary from the proper authority to remove the track materials.

327G.77 Reversion of railroad right-of-way.

1. If a railroad easement is extinguished under section 327G.76, the property shall pass to the owners of the adjacent property at the time of abandonment. If there are different owners on either side, each owner will take to the center of the right-of-way. Section 614.24 which requires the filing of a verified claim does not apply to rights granted under this subsection.

2. An adjoining property owner may perfect title under subsection 1 by filing an affidavit of ownership with the county recorder. The affidavit shall include the name of the adjoining property owner, a description of the property, the present name of the railroad, the jurisdiction, docket number, and date of order authorizing the railroad to terminate service, and the approximate date the track materials on the right-of-way were removed. A copy of the affidavit must be mailed by the landowner by certified mail to the railroad. The landowner shall pay taxes on the right-of-way from the date the affidavit is filed.

3. Utility facilities located on abandoned railroad right-of-way shall remain on the right-of-way subject to payment by the utility of the fair market value of an easement for the facilities. The utility shall, within sixty days from the time the property is transferred from the railroad, extend a written offer to the landowner to purchase the easement at fair market value. The landowner shall accept or reject the utility's offer within sixty days from the time of receipt. If a disagreement arises between the parties concerning the price or other terms of the transaction, either party may make written application to a compensation commission as established pursuant to chapter 472 to resolve the disagreement. This application shall be made within sixty days from the time the landowner's response is served upon the utility. The compensation commission shall hear the controversy and make a final determination of the fair market value of the easement and the other terms of the transaction which were in dispute within ninety days after the application is filed. If a disagreement arises between the parties concerning the price or other terms of the sale transaction, either or both parties may make written application to the authority to resolve the disagreement. The application shall be made within sixty days from the time an initial written response is served upon the railroad corporation, trustee, or successor in interest by the person wishing to purchase the property. The authority shall hear the controversy and make a final determination of the fair market value of the property and the other terms of the transaction which were in dispute within ninety days after the application is filed. All correspondence shall be by certified mail.

The decision of the authority shall be binding on the parties, except that a person who seeks to purchase such real property may withdraw the offer to purchase within thirty days of the authority's decision. If such a withdrawal is made, the railroad corporation, trustee, or successor in interest may sell or dispose of the real property without further order of the authority.

The two appraisers shall select a third appraiser and the costs of this appraisal shall be divided equally between the parties. If the appraisers selected by the parties cannot agree on selection of a third appraiser, the authority shall appoint a third appraiser and the costs of this appraisal shall be divided equally between the parties.

The authority's determination and order shall be final for the purpose of administrative review to the district court as provided in chapter 17A. The district court's scope of review shall be confined to whether there is substantial evidence to support the authority's determination and order.

For purposes of this section and section 327G.78, "authority" means the transportation regulation authority.

1 The department shall promulgate rules pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A governing the issuance by the department of certificates of registration to all airports in this state which are open for use by the public and governing the annual renewal of those certificates. These rules shall require that an airport applying for a certificate of registration or for a renewal shall comply with minimum standards of safety as promulgated by the department, adopt safe air traffic patterns, and demonstrate that such air traffic patterns are safely coordinated with those of all existing airports and approved airport sites in its vicinity before the certificates of registration or certificate of renewal may be issued. Certificates of registration or renewal may be issued subject to any conditions the department deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. The department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing as provided in chapter 17A, revoke any certificate of registration or renewal, or may refuse to issue a renewal, when it determines a That there has been an abandonment of the airport as such, b That there has been a failure to comply with the conditions of the registration or renewal thereof, or

c That because of change of physical or legal conditions or circumstances the airport has become either unsafe or unusable for the aeronautical purposes for which the registration or renewal was issued.

2 The department shall promulgate rules pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A governing the issuance by the department of certificates of airport site approval. These rules shall provide that any person or governmental subdivision desiring or planning to construct or establish an airport shall obtain a certificate of site approval prior to acquisition of the site or prior to the construction or establishment of the airport. The department shall charge a reasonable fee, based on the cost of a safety inspection of the site approval application, for the issuance of a certificate of site approval, and shall issue such a certificate if it finds a That the site is adequate for the proposed airport, b That such proposed airport, if constructed or established, will conform to minimum standards of safety as promulgated by the department, and c That safe air traffic patterns are established for the proposed airport which are safely coordinated with the traffic patterns of all existing airports and approved airport sites in its vicinity.

3 A certificate of site approval shall remain in effect until a certificate of registration has been issued to an airport located on the approved site as provided in subsection 1, unless the department, after notice and opportunity for hearing, revokes the certificate of site approval upon a finding that a There has been an abandonment of the site as an airport site, b There has been a failure within two years to develop the site as an airport, or to comply with the conditions of the approval, or

c Because of change of physical or legal conditions or circumstances the site is no longer usable for the aeronautical purposes for which the approval was granted.

4 No certificate of site approval shall be required for the site of any existing airport.

5 In considering an application for approval of a proposed airport site or the issuance of an airport registration certificate under subsections 1 and 2, the department may, on its own motion or upon the request of an affected or interested person, hold a hearing as provided in chapter 17A.

There shall be paid to the department at the time of such registration an annual registration fee for each such aircraft, to be computed as follows:

1 Unless otherwise provided in this section, for the first registration, a sum equal to one and one-half percent of the manufacturer's list price of the aircraft.

2 After said aircraft has been registered once the registration fee shall be seventy-five percent of the rate as fixed for the first registration, after two times fifty percent, and after three times twenty-five percent, provided, however, that no aircraft shall be registered for a registration fee of less than fifteen dollars.

3 Where there is no delinquency and the registration is made in August or succeeding months to and including May, the fee shall be computed on the basis of one-twelfth of the annual registration fee multiplied by the number of the unexpired months of the year and said amount shall be the fee collected. No fee shall be required for the month of June for a new aircraft, in good faith delivered in that month, providing said aircraft is registered at the time of purchase for the following year.

4 The registration fee for an aircraft operated in scheduled interstate airline operation, owned by an Iowa person and operated part-time within this state shall be a fee of thirty-five dollars. The application for registration shall be supported by such records as the department shall prescribe.

5. Should the department find and determine that no established manufacturer's list price exists for any such aircraft the department is hereby authorized and empowered to determine and fix the fair value of such aircraft which fair value shall be used in lieu of a manufacturers' list price in computing the registration fee for each such aircraft as otherwise provided by this section.

When the fee as so computed results in a fractional part of a dollar, it shall be computed to the nearest quarter of a dollar.

6. Any aircraft thirty years old, or older, which is used exclusively for noncommercial purposes shall be registered as an antique aircraft for a registration fee of fifteen dollars.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §328.21]
Referred to in §328.26

328.22 Used aircraft.

When an aircraft other than new is registered in Iowa the age of the aircraft in years calculated to the nearest anniversary of the date of manufacture shall be construed as the number of times previously registered, and reduction of the registration fee computed accordingly.

There shall be credited upon the registration fee due for the registration of any aircraft pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, except aircraft used for the application of herbicides and pesticides, any tax, registration fee, or license fee levied upon or charged for said aircraft and paid to any other state, and the registration fee due and to be collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be reduced by the amount of said tax, registration fee or license fee, upon the presentation of the official receipt therefor with the application for registration.

328.24 Refunds of fees.

If, during the year for which an aircraft, except non-resident aircraft used for the application of herbicides and pesticides, was registered and the required fee paid the aircraft is destroyed by fire or accident or junked, and its identity as an aircraft entirely eliminated, or it is removed and continuously used beyond the boundaries of the state, then the owner in whose name it was registered at the time of destruction, dismantling, or removal from the state shall return the certificate of registration to the department within ten days and make affidavit of such destruction, dismantling, or removal and make claim for the refund. The refund shall be paid from the state aviation fund.

The registration fee for the unexpired portion of the year shall be refunded pro rata to the nearest full calendar month.

328.25 Fees in lieu of taxes.

The registration fees imposed by this chapter upon aircraft shall be in lieu of all taxes, general or local, except state sales or use tax, to which aircraft might otherwise be subject.

329.1 Definitions.

The following words, terms, and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, have the meaning herein given, unless otherwise specifically defined, or unless another intention clearly appears, or the context otherwise requires:

1. "Airport" means any area of land or water designed and set aside for the landing and take-off of aircraft and utilized, or to be utilized, in the interest of the public for such purposes.

2. "Airport hazard" means any structure or tree or use of land which would exceed the federal obstruction standards as contained in 14 code of federal regulations sections 77.21, 77.23 and 77.25 as revised March 4, 1972, and which obstruct the air space required for the flight of aircraft and landing or take-off at an airport or is otherwise hazardous to such landing or taking off of aircraft.

3. "Airport hazard area" means any area of land or water upon which an airport hazard might be established if not prevented as provided by this chapter.

4. "Municipality" means any county or city of this state.

5. "Person" means any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

6. "Structure" means any object constructed or installed by man, including, but without limitation, buildings, towers, smokestacks, and overhead transmission lines, including the poles or other structures supporting the same.

7. "Tree" means any object of natural growth.

8. "Obstruction" means any tangible, inanimate physical object, natural or artificial, protruding above the surface of the ground.

9. "Department" means the state department of transportation.

10. The singular shall include the plural, and the plural the singular.

329.2 Airport hazards contrary to public interest.

It is hereby found that an airport hazard endangers the lives and property of users of the airport and of occupants of land and other persons in its vicinity, and also, if of the obstruction type, in effect reduces the size of the area available for the landing, taking off and maneuvering of aircraft, thus tending to destroy or impair the utility of the airport and the public investment therein. Accordingly, it is hereby declared:

1. That the creation or establishment of an airport hazard is a public nuisance and an injury to the community served by the airport in question.

2. That it is necessary in the interest of the public health, safety, and general welfare that the creation or establishment of airport hazards be prevented.

3. That this should be accomplished, to the extent legally possible, by proper exercise of the police power.

4. That the prevention of the creation or establishment of airport hazards, and the elimination, removal, alteration, mitigation, or marking and lighting of existing airport hazards are public purposes for which municipalities may raise and expend public funds, as an incident to the operation of airports, to acquire land or property interests therein.

See §657 2(9)

329.3 Zoning regulations — powers granted.

Every municipality having an airport hazard area within its territorial limits may adopt, administer, and enforce in the manner and upon the conditions prescribed by this chapter, zoning regulations for such airport hazard area, which regulations may divide such area into zones and, within such zones, specify the land uses permitted, and regulate and restrict, for the purpose of preventing airport hazards, the height to which structures and trees may be erected or permitted to grow.

Referred to in §329 4(2), 329 6

When any airport hazard area appertaining to an airport owned or controlled by a municipality is located outside the territorial limits of said municipality:

1 Ordinances The municipality owning or controlling the airport, and the municipality within which the airport hazard area is located, may by duly adopted ordinance adopt, administer, and enforce airport zoning regulations applicable to the airport hazard area

2 Petition to district court If the municipality within which is located such airport hazard area has failed or refused, within sixty days after demand has been made upon it by any municipality owning or controlling the airport, to adopt reasonably adequate airport zoning regulations under section 329 3, or to join in adopting joint airport zoning regulations as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, the municipality owning or controlling the airport may, upon a resolution of necessity therefor duly adopted by its governing body, petition the district court of the county in which such airport hazard area or any part thereof is located, in the name of the municipality owning or controlling the affected airport, praying that zoning regulations be established for the airport hazard area in question

3 Petition — contents Such petition shall allege all essential facts showing the necessity for bringing such action, the relief sought including proposed zoning regulations, and the necessity therefor

4 Parties The parties defendant in such action shall be the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and all persons having an apparent or contingent interest in the property located within such area, who may be joined in said action generally as a class

5 Procedure The action shall be triable in equity and in accordance with general rules of civil procedure, except that such action shall have precedence over any other business of the court except criminal cases, and the court shall set said petition for hearing not less than sixty days nor more than one hundred twenty days from the date it is filed with the clerk of said court

6 Notice The original notice in such action shall be served upon the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and in the same manner as original notice of any other action but not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial, and upon all other defendants by the publication of said notice in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation within the area described in the petition, or as near thereto as possible, which publication shall be in the same manner as provided for the publication of other original notices, provided, however, that the last publication thereof shall be not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial

7 Decree and modification Upon trial the court may enter decree establishing such zoning regulations as it shall find reasonable and necessary The court having once taken jurisdiction of such matter shall retain continuing jurisdiction thereof for such subsequent modification as it may deem advisable, upon proper application of interested parties, and due showing made thereunder after such notice to possible adverse parties as the court shall prescribe

8 Appeal Any person or municipality adversely affected or aggrieved by any findings of the court may appeal therefrom as in other civil actions

9 Enforcement Following the entry of any final decree by the district court, and unless appeal has been taken therefrom, the zoning regulations established by such decree may be enforced, and violations thereof punished, as provided by section 329 14

The department may maintain actions in equity to restrain and abate as nuisances the creation or establishment of airport hazards appertaining to any airport within the state, in violation of any zoning regulations adopted or established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §329 7, 81 Acts, ch 117, §1051]

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §329 8]

329.9 Procedure for adopting zoning regulations — zoning commission.

In adopting, amending, and repealing airport zoning regulations under this chapter the governing body of a city shall follow the procedure in sections 414.4 and 414.6 and the board of supervisors of a county shall follow the procedure in sections 358A.6 and 358A.8. The commission so appointed shall be known as the airport zoning commission. The airport zoning commission shall consist of two members from each municipality selected by the governing body and one additional member to act as chairperson and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. The terms of the members of the airport zoning commission shall be for six years excepting that when the board is first created, one of the members appointed by each municipality shall be appointed for a term of two years and one for a term of four years. 1. All airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall be reasonable and none shall impose any requirement or restriction which is not necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

2. No airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall require the removal, lowering, or other change or alteration of any structure or tree, or interfere with any use, not conforming to the regulations when adopted or amended, except that they may require the owner thereof to permit the municipality at its own expense to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard.

3. All such regulations shall provide that no pre-existing nonconforming structure, tree, or use, shall be replaced, rebuilt, altered, allowed to grow higher, or replanted, so as to constitute a greater airport hazard than it was when such airport zoning regulations or amendments thereto were adopted.

Such variances shall be allowed where a literal application or enforcement of the regulations would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship and the relief granted would not be contrary to the public interest, but would do substantial justice and be in accordance with the spirit of the regulations and this chapter; provided, however, that any such variance may be allowed subject to any reasonable conditions that the board of adjustment may deem necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including the reservation of the right of the municipality, at its own expense, to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard.

The concurring vote of a majority of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any administrative official or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter or to effect any variance therefrom.

The board of adjustment shall consist of two members from each municipality, selected by the governing body thereof, and one additional member to act as chairperson and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. Members shall be removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. The duties of any administrative agency designated pursuant to this chapter shall not include any of the powers herein delegated to the board of adjustment.

DIVISION III

POWERS AND DUTIES OF A COUNTY

PART I

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES

331.301 General powers and limitations.

1 A county may, except as expressly limited by the Constitution, and if not inconsistent with the laws of the general assembly, exercise any power and perform any function it deems appropriate to protect and preserve the rights, privileges, and property of the county or of its residents, and to preserve and improve the peace, safety, health, welfare, comfort, and convenience of its residents. This grant of home rule powers does not include the power to enact private or civil law governing civil relationships, except as incident to an exercise of an independent county power

2 A power of a county is vested in the board, and a duty of a county shall be performed by or under the direction of the board except as otherwise provided by law

3 The enumeration of a specific power of a county, the repeal of a grant of power, or the failure to state a specific power does not limit or restrict the general grant of home rule power conferred by the Constitution and this section. A county may exercise its general powers subject only to limitations expressly imposed by a state law

4 An exercise of a county power is not inconsistent with a state law unless it is irreconcilable with the state law

5 A county shall substantially comply with a procedure established by a state law for exercising a county power unless a state law provides otherwise. If a procedure is not established by state law, a county may determine its own procedure for exercising the power.

331.301 Added by P.C. Ch 156, §1-85 Acts

6. A county shall not set standards and requirements which are lower or less stringent than those imposed by state law, but may set standards and requirements which are higher or more stringent than those imposed by state law, unless a state law provides otherwise.

7. A county shall not levy a tax unless specifically authorized by a state statute.

8. A county is a body corporate for civil and political purposes and shall have a seal as provided in section 331.552, subsection 4.

9. Supervisors and other county officers may administer oaths and take affirmations as provided in chapter 78.

[C51, §93; R60, §221; C73, §279; C97, §394; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5128; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §332.1; S81, §331.301; 81 Acts, ch 117, §300]

331.302 County legislation.

1. The board shall exercise a power or perform a duty only by the passage of a motion, a resolution, an amendment, or an ordinance.

2. A county shall not provide a penalty in excess of a one hundred dollar fine or in excess of thirty days imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance. The criminal penalty surcharge required by section 911.2 shall be added to a county fine and is not a part of the county's penalty.

3. The subject matter of an ordinance or amendment shall be generally described in its title.

4. An amendment to an ordinance or to a code of ordinances shall specifically repeal the ordinance or code, or the section or subsection to be amended, and shall set forth in full the ordinance, code, section or subsection as amended.

5. A proposed ordinance or amendment shall be considered and voted on for passage at two meetings of the board prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors.

However, if a summary of the proposed ordinance or amendment is published as provided in section 331.305 prior to its first consideration and copies are available at the time of publication at the office of the auditor, the ordinance or amendment shall be considered and voted on for passage at one meeting prior to the meeting at which it is to be finally passed, unless this requirement is suspended by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors.

6. Passage of an ordinance, amendment, or resolution requires an affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the supervisors. Each supervisor's vote on an ordinance, amendment, or resolution shall be recorded.

7. A resolution becomes effective upon passage and an ordinance or amendment becomes a law when published, unless a subsequent effective date is provided within the measure.

8. The auditor shall promptly record each measure, publish all ordinances and amendments as provided in section 331.305, authenticate all measures except motions with signature and certification as to time and manner of publication, if any, and maintain for public use copies of all effective ordinances and codes. The auditor's certification is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein.

9. At least once every five years, the board shall compile a code of ordinances containing all of the county ordinances in effect.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains only existing ordinances edited and compiled without change in substance, the board may adopt the code by ordinance.

If a proposed code of ordinances contains a proposed new ordinance or amendment, the board shall hold a public hearing on the proposed code before adoption. The auditor shall publish notice of the hearing as provided in section 331.305. Copies of the proposed code of ordinances shall be available at the auditor's office and the notice shall so state. Within thirty days after the hearing, the board may adopt the proposed code of ordinances which becomes law upon publication of the ordinance adopting it. If the board substantially amends the proposed code of ordinances after a hearing, notice and hearing shall be repeated.

Ordinances and amendments which become effective after adoption of a code of ordinances may be compiled as a supplement to the code, and upon adoption of the supplement by resolution, become part of the code of ordinances.

An adopted code of ordinances is presumptive evidence of the passage, publication, and content of the ordinances therein as of the date of the auditor's certification of the ordinance adopting the code or supplement.

10. The compensation paid to a newspaper for a publication required by this section shall not exceed three-fourths of the fee provided in section 618.11.

11. The board may adopt the provisions of a state-wide or nationally recognized standard code or portions of any such code by an ordinance which identifies the code by subject matter, source, and date, and incorporates the provisions either by reference or by setting them forth in full. The code or portion shall be adopted only after notice and hearing in the manner provided in subsection 9.

12. Immediately after the effective date of a measure establishing a zoning district, building lines, or fire limits, the auditor shall certify the measure and a plat showing the district, lines, or limits, to the recorder. The recorder shall record the measure and plat in the miscellaneous record or other book provided for special records, and shall index the record.

13. A measure voted upon is not invalid because a supervisor has a conflict of interest, unless the vote of the supervisor was decisive to passage of the measure. If a majority or unanimous vote of the board is required by statute, the majority or vote shall be computed on the basis of the number of supervisors not disqualified by reason of conflict of interest. However, a majority of all supervisors is required for a quorum. For the purposes of this subsection, the statement of a supervisor that the supervisor declines to vote by reason of conflict of interest is conclusive and shall be entered of record.

14. A valid measure adopted by a county prior to July 1, 1981 remains valid unless the measure is irrec-

set aside for payment when presented. Redemptions shall be made in the order of the bond numbers

The auditor shall make available a sufficient number of copies of the budget to meet the requests of taxpayers and organizations and have them available for distribution at the court-house or other places designated by the board.

3. The board shall set a time and place for a public hearing on the budget before the final certification date and shall publish notice of the hearing not less than ten nor more than twenty days prior to the hearing in one or more newspapers which meet the requirements of section 618.14. 6. The board shall appropriate, by resolution, the amounts deemed necessary for each of the different county officers and departments during the ensuing fiscal year. Increases or decreases in these appropriations do not require a budget amendment, but may be provided by resolution at a regular meeting of the board, as long as each class of proposed expenditures contained in the budget summary published under subsection 3 of this section is not increased. However, decreases in appropriations for a county officer or department of more than ten percent or five thousand dollars, whichever is greater, shall not be effective unless the board sets a time and place for a public hearing on the proposed decrease and publishes notice of the hearing not less than ten nor more than twenty days prior to the hearing in one or more newspapers which meet the requirements of section 618.14.

331.447 Taxes to pay bonds.

1 Taxes for the payment of general obligation bonds shall be levied in accordance with chapter 76, and the bonds are payable from the levy of unlimited ad valorem taxes on all the taxable property within the county through its debt service fund required by section 331 430 except that a The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year shall not exceed the maximum rate of tax, if any, provided by this division for the purpose for which the bonds were issued If general obligation bonds are issued for different categories, as provided in section 331 445, the maximum rate of levies, if any, for each purpose shall apply separately to that portion of the bond issue for that category and the resolution authorizing the bond issue shall clearly set forth the annual debt service requirements with respect to each purpose in sufficient detail to indicate compliance with the rate of tax levy, if any

b The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year may only exceed the statutory rate of levy limit, if any, by the amount that the qualified electors of the county have approved at a special election, which may be held at the same time as the general election and may be included in the proposition authorizing the issuance of bonds, if an election on the proposition is necessary, or may be submitted as a separate proposition at the same election or at a different election Notice of the election shall be given as specified in section 331 305 If the proposition includes issuing bonds and increasing the levy limit, it shall be in substantially the following form

“Shall the county of _____, state of Iowa, be authorized to _____ (here state purpose of project) at a total cost not exceeding $ _____ and issue its general obligation bonds in an amount not exceeding $ _____ for that purpose, and be authorized to levy annually a tax not exceeding _____ dollars and _____ cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property within the county to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds?”

If the proposition includes only increasing the levy limit it shall be in substantially the following form “Shall the county of _____, state of Iowa, be authorized to levy annually a tax not exceeding _____ dollars and cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property within the county to pay principal and interest on the bonded indebtedness of the county for the purpose of?”

2. A statutory or voted tax levy limitation does not limit the source of payment of bonds and interest, but only restricts the amount of bonds which may be issued.

3. For the sole purpose of computing the amount of bonds which may be issued as the result of the application of a statutory or voted tax levy limitation, all interest on the bonds in excess of that accruing in the first twelve months may be excluded from the first annual levy of taxes, so that the need for including more than one year's interest on the first annual levy of taxes to pay the bonds and interest does not operate to further restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued, and in certifying the annual levies, the first annual levy of taxes shall be sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on the bonds becoming due prior to the next succeeding annual levy and the full amount of the annual levy shall be entered for collection as provided in chapter 76.

331.462 County enterprises — combined county enterprises.

1 A county which proposes to establish, own, acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, lease, sell, construct, reconstruct, extend, remodel, improve, repair, equip, maintain and operate within or without its corporate limits a county enterprise or combined county enterprise financed by revenue bonds shall do so in accordance with this part

2 If a combined county enterprise is dissolved, each county enterprise which was a part of the combined county enterprise shall continue in existence as a separate county enterprise until it is abandoned by the board

3 A combined county enterprise may be established, but if there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of any county enterprise involved, the obligations shall be assumed by the board subject to all terms established at the time of the original issue, or refunded through the issuance of revenue bonds of the combined county enterprise as a part of the procedure for the establishment of the combined county enterprise, or funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity shall be set aside and pledged for that purpose. Revenues earmarked for payment of the obligations shall be handled by the board in the same manner as they were handled for the county enterprise involved. A county enterprise shall not be abandoned and a combined county enterprise shall not be dissolved so long as there are obligations outstanding which by their terms are payable from the revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise unless funds sufficient to pay the principal of and all interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations at and prior to maturity have been set aside and pledged for that purpose

331.463 Procedure for financing.

1 The board may carry out projects, borrow money, and issue revenue bonds and pledge orders to pay all or part of the cost of projects, the revenue bonds and pledge orders to be payable solely out of the net revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise involved in the project. The cost of a project includes the construction contracts, interest upon the revenue bonds and pledge orders during the period or estimated period of construction and for twelve months thereafter, or for twelve months after the acquisition date, reserve funds as the board deems advisable in connection with the project and the issuance of revenue bonds and pledge orders, and the costs of engineering, architectural, technical and legal services, preliminary reports, surveys, property valuations, estimates, plans, specifications, notices, acquisition of real and personal property, consequential damages or costs, easements, rights of way, supervision, inspection, testing, publications, printing and sale of bonds and provisions for contingencies. The board may sell revenue bonds or pledge orders at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and may deliver revenue bonds and pledge orders to the contractors, sellers, and other persons furnishing materials and services constituting a part of the cost of the project in payment therefor

The board may deliver its revenue bonds to the federal government or any agency thereof which has loaned the county money for sanitary or solid waste projects, water projects, or other projects, for which the government has a loan program

2 The board may issue revenue bonds to refund revenue bonds, pledge orders, and other obligations which are by their terms payable from the net revenues of the same county enterprise or combined county enterprise, or from a county enterprise comprising a part of the combined county enterprise, at lower, the same, or higher rates of interest. A county may sell refunding revenue bonds at public or private sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 and apply the proceeds to the payment of the obligations being re funded, and may exchange refunding revenue bonds in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The principal amount of refunding revenue bonds may exceed the principal amount of the obligations being refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the obligations being refunded and to fund interest accrued and to accrue on the obligations being refunded.

3 The board may contract to pay not to exceed ninety five percent of the engineer's estimated value of the acceptable work completed during the month to the contractor at the end of each month for work, material, or services. Payment may be made in warrants drawn on any fund from which payment for the work may be made. If such funds are depleted, anticipatory warrants may be issued bearing a rate of interest not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A even if a collection of taxes or special assessments or income from the sale of bonds which have been authorized and are applicable to the public improvement takes place after the fiscal year in which the warrants are issued. If the board arranges for the private sale of anticipatory warrants, they may be sold and the proceeds used to pay the contractor. The warrants may also be used to pay other persons furnishing services constituting a part of the cost of the public improvement.

331.464 Revenue bonds.

1 The board may issue revenue bonds pursuant to a resolution adopted at a regular or special meeting by a majority of the total number of members of the board.

2 Before the board institutes proceedings for the issuance of revenue bonds, it shall fix a time and place of meeting at which it proposes to take action, and give notice by publication in the manner directed in section 331 305. The notice must include a statement of the time and place of the meeting, the maximum amount of the proposed revenue bonds, the purpose for which the revenue bonds will be issued, and the county enterprise or combined county enterprise whose net revenues will be used to pay the revenue bonds and interest thereon. At the meeting the board shall receive oral or written objections from any resident or property owner of the county. After all objections have been received and considered, the board, at the meeting or a date to which it is adjourned, may take additional action for the issuance of the bonds or abandon the proposal to issue bonds. Any resident or property owner of the county may appeal a decision of the board to take additional action to the district court of the county within fifteen days after the additional action is taken, but the additional action of the board is final and conclusive unless the court finds that the board exceeded its authority. The provisions of this subsection with respect to notice, hearing, and appeal are in lieu of those contained in any other law.

3 Revenue bonds may bear dates, bear interest at rates not exceeding those permitted by chapter 74A, mature in one or more installments, be in either coupon or registered form, carry registration and conversion privileges, be payable as to principal and interest at times and places, be subject to terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, and be in one or more denominations, all as provided by the resolution of the board authorizing their issuance. The resolution may also prescribe additional provisions, terms, conditions, and covenants which the board deems advisable, consistent with this part, including provisions for creating and maintaining reserve funds, the issuance of additional revenue bonds ranking on a parity with such revenue bonds and additional revenue bonds junior and subordinate to such revenue bonds, and that such revenue bonds shall rank on a parity with or be junior and subordinate to any revenue bonds which may be then outstanding. Revenue bonds are a contract between the county and holders and the resolution is a part of the contract.

4 Revenue bonds shall be executed by the chair person of the board and the auditor. If coupons are attached to the revenue bonds, they shall be executed with the original or facsimile signature of the auditor. A revenue bond is valid and binding for all purposes if it bears the signatures of the officers in office on the date of the execution of the bonds notwithstanding that any or all persons whose signatures appear have ceased to be such officers prior to the delivery of the bonds. The issuance of revenue bonds shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer, and a certificate of the recording by the treasurer shall be printed on the back of each revenue bond.

5 Revenue bonds, pledge orders and warrants issued under this part are negotiable instruments.

6 The board may issue pledge orders pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of supervisors, at a regular or special meeting, ordering their issuance and delivery in payment for all or part of the cost of a project. Pledge orders may bear interest at rates not exceeding those permitted by chapter 74A.

7 The physical properties of a county enterprise or combined county enterprise shall not be pledged or mortgaged to secure the payment of revenue bonds or pledge orders or the interest thereon.

Rates shall be established by ordinance. Rates or charges for the services of a county enterprise defined in section 331 461, subsection 1, paragraph "b", if not paid as provided by ordinance, constitute a lien upon the premises served and may be certified to the auditor and collected in the same manner as taxes.

2 The board may a By ordinance establish, impose, adjust and provide for the collection of charges for connection to a county enterprise or combined county enterprise

b Contract for the use of or services provided by a county enterprise or combined county enterprise with persons whose type or quantity of use or service is unusual

2 Revenue bonds and pledge orders are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the portion of the net revenues of the county enterprise or combined county enterprise pledged to their payment and are not a debt of or charge against the county within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation provision

3 The sole remedy for a breach or default of a term of a revenue bond or pledge order is a proceeding in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this part and of the terms of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or pledge orders, or to obtain the appointment of a receiver to take possession of and operate the county enterprise or combined county enterprise, and to perform the duties required by this part and the terms of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or pledge orders

2 This part does not prohibit or prevent the board from using funds derived from the issuance of general obligation bonds, the levy of special assessments and the issuance of special assessment bonds, and any other source which may be properly used for such purpose, to pay a part of the cost of a project

3 The county shall pay for the use of or the services provided by the county enterprise or combined county enterprise as any other customer, except that the county may pay for use or service at a reduced rate or receive free use or service so long as the county complies with the provisions, terms, conditions and covenants of all resolutions pursuant to which revenue bonds or pledge orders are issued and outstanding

331.802 Deaths — reported and investigated.

1. A person's death which affects the public interest as specified in subsection 3 shall be reported to the county medical examiner or the state medical examiner by the physician in attendance, any law enforcement officer having knowledge of the death, the embalmer, or any other person present. The appropriate medical examiner shall notify the city or state law enforcement agency or sheriff and take charge of the body.

2. If a person's death affects the public interest, the county medical examiner shall conduct a preliminary investigation of the cause and manner of death, prepare a written report of the findings, promptly submit the full report to the state medical examiner on forms prescribed for that purpose, and submit a copy of the report to the county attorney. For each preliminary investigation and the preparation and submission of the required reports, the county medical examiner shall receive a fee determined by the board plus the examiner's actual expenses. The fee and expenses shall be paid by the county for which the service is provided. The fee and expenses of the county medical examiner who performs an autopsy or conducts an investigation of a person who dies after being brought into this state for emergency medical treatment by or at the direction of an out-of-state law enforcement officer or public authority shall be paid

j. Death of a child under the age of two years if death results from an unknown cause or if the circumstances surrounding the death indicate that sudden infant death syndrome may be the cause of death.

4. The county medical examiner shall conduct the investigation in the manner required by the state medical examiner and shall determine whether the public interest requires an autopsy or other special investigation. However, if the death occurred in the manner specified in subsection 3, paragraph "j", the county medical examiner shall order an autopsy, the expense of which shall be reimbursed by the state department of health. In determining the need for an autopsy, the county medical examiner may consider the request for an autopsy from a public official or private person, but the state medical examiner or the county attorney of the county where the death occurred may require an autopsy.

5. a. A person making an autopsy shall promptly file a complete record of the findings in the office of the state medical examiner and the county attorney of the county where death occurred and the county attorney of the county where any injury contributing to or causing the death was sustained.

b. A copy of a record, photograph, laboratory finding, or record in the office of the state medical examiner or any medical examiner, when attested to by the state medical examiner or a staff member or the medical examiner in whose office the record, photograph, or finding is filed, shall be received as evidence in any court or other proceedings for any purpose for which the original could be received without proof of the official character of the person whose name is signed to it.

7. In case of a sudden, violent, or suspicious death after which the body is buried without an investigation or autopsy, the county medical examiner, upon being advised of the facts, shall notify the county attorney. The county attorney shall apply for a court order requiring the body to be exhumed in accordance with chapter 144. Upon receipt of the court order, an autopsy shall be performed by a medical examiner or by a pathologist designated by the medical examiner and the facts disclosed by the autopsy shall be communicated to the court ordering the disinterment for appropriate action.

8. Where donation of the remains of the deceased to a medical school or similar institution equipped with facilities to perform autopsies is provided by will or directed by the spouse, parents or children of full age, of the deceased, any autopsy under this section shall be performed at the direction of the school or institution, and in such a manner as to further the purpose of the donation, while serving the public interest.

1. Any joint building acquired, owned, erected, constructed, controlled, or occupied in accordance with the authorization contained in this section is declared to be acquired, owned, erected, constructed, controlled, or occupied for a public purpose and as a matter of public need.

2. Any county may join with its county seat to incorporate an "Authority" for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, demolishing, improving, enlarging, equipping, furnishing, repairing, maintaining, and operating a public building, and to acquire and prepare the necessary site, including demolition of any structures, for the joint use of the county and city or any school district which is within or is a part of the county or city.

3. The incorporation of an authority shall be accomplished by the adoption of articles of incorporation by the governing body of each incorporating unit. For adoption, the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each governing body is required. The articles of incorporation shall be executed for and on behalf of each incorporating unit by the following officers:

a. For the county, by the chairperson of the board of supervisors.

b. For the city, by its mayor and city clerk.

4. The articles of incorporation shall set forth the name of the authority, the name of the incorporating units, the purpose for which the authority is created, the number, terms, and manner of selection of its officers including its governing body which shall be known as the "commission", the powers and duties of the authority and of its officers, the date upon which the authority becomes effective, the name of the newspaper in which the articles of incorporation shall be published, and any other matters.

5. The authority shall be directed and governed by a board of commissioners of three members, one to be elected by the board of supervisors of the county from the area outside of the county seat, one to be elected by the council of the city from the area inside the city, and one to be elected by the joint action of the board of supervisors of the county and the council of the city, and if the governing bodies are unable to agree upon a choice for the third member within sixty days of the election of the first member, then the third member shall be appointed by the governor. The commissioners shall serve for six-year terms. Of the first appointees, the member appointed by the board of supervisors shall be for a term of two years, the member appointed by the city council shall be for a term of four years, and the member appointed by the joint action of the board and council shall be for a term of six years. The board of commissioners shall designate one of their number as chairperson, one as secretary, and one as treasurer, and shall adopt bylaws and rules of procedure and provide therein for regular meetings and for the proper safekeeping of its records. No commissioner shall receive any compensation in connection with services as commissioner. Each commissioner, however, shall be entitled to reimbursement for any necessary expenditures in connection with the performance of the commissioner's duties.

6. The articles of incorporation shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder and filed with the secretary of state, and shall be published once in a newspaper designated in the articles of incorporation and having a general circulation within the county, and upon such recording and publication, the authority shall be deemed to come into existence.

7. Amendments may be made to the articles of incorporation if adopted by the governing body of each incorporating unit, provided that no amendment shall impair the obligation of any bond or other contract. Each amendment shall be adopted, executed, recorded and published in the same manner as specified for the original articles of incorporation.

In addition, it shall have and exercise the following public and essential governmental powers and functions and all other powers incidental or necessary to carry out and effectuate its express powers:

a To select, locate, and designate an area lying wholly within the territorial limits of the county seat of the county in which the authority is incorporated as the site to be acquired for the construction, alteration, enlargement, or improvement of a building. The site selected is subject to approval by a majority of the members of each governing body of the incorporating units.

l The provisions of chapter 23 applicable to other municipalities are applicable to an authority.

10 After the incorporation of an authority, and before the sale of any issue of revenue bonds, except refunding bonds, the authority shall submit in a single countywide election to the qualified voters of the city and county, at a general, primary, or special election called for that purpose, the question of whether an authority shall issue and sell revenue bonds, stating the amount, for any of the purposes for which it is incorporated. An affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposition is required to authorize the issuance and sale of revenue bonds. A notice of the election shall be published once each week for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in the county. The notice shall name the time when the question shall be submitted, and a copy of the question to be submitted shall be posted at each polling place during the day of election. The authority shall call this election with the concurrence of both incorporating units, and it shall establish the voting precincts and polling places, and appoint the election judges, and in so doing such election procedures shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapters 49 and 50.

11 When the board of commissioners decides to issue bonds subject to the election requirement, it shall adopt a resolution describing the area to be acquired, the nature of the existing improvements, the disposition to be made of the improvements, and a general description of any new buildings to be constructed.

12 The resolution shall set out the limit of the cost of the project, including the cost of acquiring and preparing the site, determine the period of usefulness and fix the amount of revenue bonds to be issued, the date or dates of maturity, the dates on which interest is payable, the sinking fund provisions, and all other details in connection with the bonds. The board shall determine and fix the rate of interest of any revenue bonds issued, in a resolution adopted by the board prior to the issuance. The resolution, trust agreement, or other contract entered into with the bondholders may contain covenants and restrictions concerning the issuance of additional revenue bonds as necessary or advisable for the assurance of the payment of the bonds authorized.

All bonds issued by an authority shall be sold at a price so that the interest cost to the commission of the proceeds of the bonds shall not exceed that permitted by chapter 74A, payable semiannually, computed to maturity, and shall be sold in the manner and at the time the board of commissioners determines.

15. Bonds issued by an authority, and the interest thereon, shall be payable solely from the revenues derived from the operation, management, or use of the buildings acquired or to be acquired by the authority, which revenues shall include payments received under any leases or other contracts for the use of the buildings. Bonds shall recite that the principal and interest thereon are payable only from the revenues pledged, and shall state on their face that they are not an indebtedness of the authority or a claim against the property of the authority.

All bonds redeemed or purchased shall be canceled.

18. To secure the payment of revenue bonds and for the purpose of setting forth the covenants and undertakings of the authority in connection with the issuance of revenue bonds and the issuance of any additional revenue bonds payable from such revenue income to be derived from the operation, management, or use of the buildings acquired or to be acquired by the authority, the authority may execute and deliver a trust agreement except that no lien upon any physical property of the authority shall be created.

19. The resolution shall provide for the creation of a sinking fund account into which shall be payable from the revenues of the project, from month to month as such revenues are collected, the sums in excess of the cost of maintenance and operation of the project and the cost of administration of the authority, sufficient to comply with the covenants of the bond resolution and sufficient to pay the accruing interest and retire the bonds at maturity. The board of commissioners, in a resolution, may provide for other accounts as necessary for the sale of the bonds. Moneys in the accounts shall be applied in the manner provided by the resolution, the trust agreement, or other contract with the bondholders.

20. No such bonds shall constitute a debt of the authority or of any public body within the meaning of any statutory or constitutional limitation as to debt.

21. From and after the issuance of bonds the board of commissioners shall establish and fix rates, rentals, fees, and charges for the use of any and all buildings or space owned and operated by the authority, sufficient at all times to pay maintenance and operation costs and to pay the accruing interest and retire the bonds at maturity and to make all payments to all accounts created by any bond resolution and to comply with all covenants of any bond resolution.

22. When an incorporating unit enters into a lease with the authority, the governing body of the incorporating unit shall provide by ordinance or resolution for the levy and collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the annual rent payable under the lease as and when it becomes due and payable. The tax shall be levied and collected in like manner with the other taxes of the incorporating unit and shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized to be levied by that incorporating unit. This tax shall not be included within and shall be in addition to any statutory limitation of rate or amount for that incorporating unit. The fund realized from the tax levy shall be set aside for the payment of the annual rent and shall not be disbursed for any other purpose until the annual rental has been paid in full.

23. All leases, contracts, deeds of conveyance, bonds, or other instruments in writing on behalf of the authority, shall be executed in the name of the authority by the chairperson and secretary of the authority, or by other officers as the board of commissioners, by resolution, directs, and the seal of the authority shall be affixed.

24. All property owned by any authority shall be exempt from taxation by the state or any taxing unit of the state. However, any interest derived from bonds issued by the authority shall be subject to taxation.

25. When all bonds issued by an authority have been retired, the authority may convey the title to the property owned by the authority to the incorporating units in accordance with the provisions therefor contained in the articles of incorporation, or, if none, in accordance with any agreement adopted by the respective governing bodies of the incorporating units, and the authority. The proposition of whether a conveyance shall be made shall be submitted to the legal voters of the city and county, utilizing the election procedures provided for bond issues, and an affirmative vote equal to at least a majority of the total votes cast on the proposition shall be required to authorize the conveyance. If the proposition does not carry, the authority shall continue to operate, maintain, and manage the building under a lease arrangement with the incorporating units.
