Any animal killed under such a program shall be appraised by three competent and disinterested persons, one to be appointed by the state department of agriculture and land stewardship, one by the owner, and the third by the other two, and it shall be their duty to appraise and report their appraisal under oath to the department of agriculture and land stewardship, and they shall receive such compensation and expenses as shall be provided for in the program. Claims for indemnity and those filed by the appraisers for compensation and expenses shall be filed with the secretary of agriculture and submitted by the secretary to the executive council for its approval or disapproval. For the purposes of this division, the following words shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section:

"Garbage" means putrescible animal and vegetable wastes resulting from the handling, preparation, cooking, and consumption of foods, including animal carcasses or parts thereof, and shall include all waste material, by-products of a kitchen, restaurant, hotel, or slaughterhouse, every refuse accumulation of animal, fruit, or vegetable matter, liquids or otherwise, except grain not consumed, that is collected from hog sales pen floors in public stockyards and fed under the control of the department of agriculture. Animals or parts of animals, which are processed by slaughterhouses or rendering establishments, and which as part of such processing are heated to not less than 212°F. for thirty minutes, shall not be deemed garbage for purposes of this chapter.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §612

Further definitions; see §159.1

163.27 Boiling garbage.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to feed garbage to animals unless such garbage has been heated to a temperature of 212°F. for thirty minutes, or other acceptable method, as provided by rules promulgated by the department, provided this requirement shall not apply to an individual who feeds to the individual's own animals only the garbage obtained from the individual's own household. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to feed any public or commercial garbage to swine after September 1, 1970.

163.28 Licenses.

Before any person shall process any public or commercial garbage for swine, application for a license shall be made to the department setting forth the name and address of the applicant's proposed place of business, and the method used to process such garbage as outlined in section 163.27.

On receipt of such application, the secretary or the secretary's authorized agent shall at once inspect the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct such business. If the inspector finds that said building complies with the requirements of this chapter, and with the rules of the department, and that the applicant is a responsible and suitable person, the inspector shall so certify in writing to the department.

On receipt of such certificate, the department shall issue a license to said applicant to conduct such business at the place specified until the first day of September following date of issue.

The license fee for each processing plant shall be fifty dollars, except that the first license fee may be prorated on a monthly basis as prescribed by the department. The secretary shall not issue a license which would permit the processing of any garbage for swine feeding after September 1, 1970.

MOVEMENT OF SWINE

163.30 Swine imported or native — pig dealers.

1. This section shall apply to all swine moved interstate and intrastate, except swine moved directly to slaughter or to a livestock market for sale directly to a slaughtering establishment for immediate slaughter.

2. When used in this chapter:

a. "Dealer" means any person who is engaged in the business of buying for resale, or selling, or exchanging swine as a principal or agent or who claims to be so engaged, but does not include the owner or operator of a farm who does not claim to be so engaged, and who sells or exchanges only those swine which have been kept by the person solely for feeding or breeding purposes.

b. "Separate and apart" means a manner of holding swine so as not to have physical contact with other swine on the premises.

c. "Swine moved" means any physical relocation of swine to different premises, except that it does not include movement of swine when their ownership does not change, and both their prior and new locations, and the movement between such locations, are within the state of Iowa.

3. No person shall act as a dealer without first securing a dealer's license from the department. The fee for a dealer's license shall be five dollars per annum and all licenses shall expire on the first day of July following date of issue. Licenses shall be numbered and the dealer shall retain the number from year to year. To secure a license, the applicant must file with the department a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars with the secretary named as trustee, for the use and benefit of anyone damaged by a violation of this section, except that the bond shall not be required for dealers who are bonded in the same or a greater amount than required pursuant to the federal Packers and Stockyards Act.

Each employee or agent doing business by buying for resale, selling or exchanging feeder swine in the name of a licensed dealer, shall be required to secure a permit and identification card issued by the department showing the person is employed by or represents a licensed dealer. All such permits and identification cards shall be issued upon application forms furnished by the department at a cost of three dollars per annum, and shall expire on the first day of July following the date of issue.

No permittee shall represent more than one dealer. Failure of any such licensee or permittee to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule made pursuant to this chapter is cause for revocation by the secretary of the permit or license after notice to the alleged offender and the holding of a hearing thereon by the secretary. Such rules and regulations shall be made in accordance with chapter 17A. Any rule, the violation of which is made the basis for revocation, except temporary emergency rules, shall first have been approved after public hearing as provided in section 17A.16 after giving twenty days' notice of such hearing as follows:

By mailing notice, by ordinary mail, to every person filing a request for notice accompanied by an addressed envelope with prepaid postage. Any person may file such a request to be listed with any agency for notice for the time and place for all hearings on proposed rules, which request shall be accompanied by a remittance of five dollars. Such fee shall be added to the operating fund of the department. The listing shall expire semiannually on January 1 and July 1.

4. All swine moved shall be individually identified with a distinctive and easily discernible ear tag affixed in either ear of the animal or other identification acceptable to the department, which has been specified by rule promulgated under the department's rulemaking authority. The department shall make ear tags available at convenient locations within each county and shall sell such tags at a price not exceeding the cost to producers and others to comply with this section.

Every seller, dealer and market operator shall keep a record of the ear tag numbers, or other approved identification, and the farm of origin of swine moved by or through that person, which records shall be made available by that person to any appropriate representative of the department or the United States department of agriculture.

5. All swine moved shall be accompanied by an official health certificate or veterinarian inspection certificate issued by the state of origin and prepared and signed by a veterinarian. The health certificate or veterinarian inspection certificate shall show the point of origin, the point of destination, individual identification, immunization status, and, when required, any movement permit number assigned to the shipment by the department. All such movement of swine shall be completed within seventy-two hours unless an extension of time for movement is granted by the department.

However, swine may be moved intrastate directly to an approved state, federal or auction market without such identification or certification, there to be identified and certificated.

However, registered swine for exhibition or breeding purposes which can be individually identified by an ear notch or tattoo or other method approved by the department are excepted from this identification requirement. In addition, native Iowa swine moved from farm to farm may be excepted from the identification requirement if the seller and purchaser sign a statement providing that feeder pigs will not be commingled for a period of thirty days and such fact is stated on the health certificate.

6. The department may require issuance of movement permits on certain categories of swine moved, prior to their movement, pursuant to departmental rule. The rule shall be promulgated when in the judgment of the secretary, such movements would otherwise threaten or imperil the eradication of hog cholera in Iowa.

7. All swine moved shall be quarantined separate and apart from other swine located at the Iowa farm of destination for thirty days beginning with their arrival at such premises, or if such incoming swine are not held separate and apart, all swine on such premises shall be thus quarantined, except animals moving from such premises directly to slaughter.

There can only be one transfer by a dealer, involving not more than two markets, prior to quarantine.

8. The use of anti-hog-cholera serum or antibody concentrate shall be in accordance with rules issued by the department.

9. All swine found by a registered veterinarian to have any infectious, contagious, or communicable swine disease after delivery to any livestock sale barn or auction market for resale other than for slaughter, shall be immediately returned to the consignor's premises to be quarantined separate and apart for fifteen days. Such swine may not be moved from such premises for any purpose unless an official health certificate or veterinarian inspection certificate accompanies the movement or unless they are sent to slaughter. This subsection shall in no way supersede the requirements of sections 163A.2 and 163A.3.

2. "Lease" when used as a verb means to physically deliver a breeding bull pursuant to a lease agreement.

An annual license may be obtained from the department upon application and payment of a ten-dollar fee. Each license shall expire on the first of July following the date of issue. An application shall be made on a form provided by the department and shall contain the name of the person engaged in the business of leasing breeding bulls as lessor, the address of such business, the registration number of each breeding bull, and a description as to breed, color and other distinguishing marks, leased as lessor, and such other information as the secretary of agriculture may specify by rule promulgated pursuant to chapter 17A.

For the purposes of this section, a person is engaged in the business of leasing a breeding bull within this state as lessor if the person leases any breeding bull to an Iowa resident more than once in any calendar year for a fee.

The department shall issue to each licensee a tag or an identifying mark if the lessor desires this method of identification, for each breeding bull to be leased by the licensee. Each tag or identifying mark shall have an identification number which shall be a permanent identification number for such breeding bull and, upon disposition of such animal, the licensee shall notify the department of such disposition and the name and address of the buyer if such animal is sold. When an additional breeding bull to be leased is acquired by a licensee, the department shall issue a tag or approve an identifying mark for such animal without fee. [C79, 81, §163.42]

163.43 Health certificate required.

No licensee shall lease as lessor, and no person shall lease as lessee, a breeding bull within this state unless such breeding bull is accompanied by a health certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian and showing:

1. That the breeding bull has been tested by a licensed veterinarian within sixty days prior to rental and found to be free from Bang's disease, and tuberculosis.
2. That, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the examining licensed veterinarian, the breeding bull is apparently free from any infectious, contagious or communicable disease.

Such health certificate shall be valid for one rental on one premise only. Thereafter, a new health certificate must be issued after the breeding bull has been retested; but no new test for tuberculosis shall be required if the breeding bull is leased within sixty days of the last tuberculosis test.

One copy of the health certificate shall be filed with the department within fourteen days after its issuance; and one copy shall be issued to the lessee when the breeding bull is delivered to the lessee. It shall be unlawful for the owner of any breeding bull located within this state to sell the semen from that bull for the purpose of artificial insemination unless that person has in possession a signed health certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian within twelve months before the date the semen was collected, provided the bull had not been moved to any other premise between the date of examination and the date of collection, showing that on the date of issue the breeding bull had been tested negative for tuberculosis and Bang's disease and, to the best knowledge and belief of the examining veterinarian, was apparently free from any infectious, contagious, or communicable disease. If a breeding bull is moved to any other premise after issuance of the health certificate but prior to collection of the semen, that health certificate shall be invalid for purposes of this section.

"Bang's disease" is also known as bovine brucellosis

164.16 Movement or slaughter permit.

No condemned cattle shall be slaughtered, have their location changed, or be moved from quarantine except by official written permit by the department or by a licensed veterinarian authorized by the department.

164.17 Condemned for slaughter permit.

When a written order has been issued by the department or its authorized representative for the removal of condemned cattle to slaughter, all the cattle shall be tagged and handled within fifteen days after the date of testing; such cattle within thirty days shall be moved and slaughtered under the direct supervision of a duly authorized agent or representative of the United States department of agriculture at a time and place designated by the department. Any animal condemned because of brucellosis shall be disposed of by its owner within a period not to exceed forty-five days from the date on which blood samples were drawn disclosing it as a reactor.

164.18 Unlawful sale.

No person shall sell, offer for sale, or purchase any cattle condemned as a result of an official test, except under regulations issued by the department.

164.19 Quarantine.

The department may issue any quarantine orders deemed necessary for the control and eradication of brucellosis and the proper enforcement of this chapter. Any lot or group of cattle in which reactors have been disclosed shall be under quarantine along with any cattle from which the lot or group originated or commingled. Such cattle may be sold for slaughter under permit, or returned to their place of origin. In hardship cases the department may upon investigation of the case alter any quarantine orders deemed necessary to alleviate the hardship and protect the industry and prospective purchasers. The department shall promulgate rules subject to provisions of chapter 17A.

164.20 Appraisal of value.

Before being slaughtered, condemned cattle shall be appraised at their cash value for dairy and breeding purposes by the owner and a representative of the state department of agriculture and land stewardship, or a representative of the United States department of agriculture, or by the owner and both of such representatives. If these parties cannot agree as to the amount of the appraisal, there shall be appointed three competent and disinterested persons, one by the state department of agriculture and land stewardship, one by the owner, and one by the first two appointed, to appraise such animals, which appraisal shall be final.

164.21 Amount of indemnity.

The department shall certify the claim of the owner for each animal slaughtered in accordance with this chapter. An infected herd may be completely depopulated and indemnity paid when, in the opinion of the department and the veterinary service of the United States department of agriculture, the disease cannot be adequately controlled by routine testing.

Indemnity shall only be paid if money is available in the brucellosis and tuberculosis eradication fund and if indemnity payment is also made by the United States department of agriculture. However, if the United States department of agriculture is unable to pay indemnity, the state may still pay indemnity for condemned animals if money is available.

In the case of individual payment, all animals shall be individually appraised and the amount of indemnity shall be equal to the difference between the slaughter value and the appraisal price, less the amount of indemnity paid by the United States department of agriculture. The total amount of indemnity paid by the brucellosis and tuberculosis eradication fund for a grade animal or a purebred animal shall not exceed two hundred dollars. However, if a purebred animal is purchased and owned for at least one year before testing and the owner can verify the actual cost, the secretary of agriculture may award the payment of an additional indemnification not to exceed five hundred fifty dollars or the actual cost of the animal when purchased, whichever is less.

164.29 Reciprocal agreements.

The secretary of agriculture of the state of Iowa is hereby authorized and directed to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states to the end that cattle which are covered by certificates of vaccination in the state of Iowa and other states may be transported and sold in interstate commerce between the state of Iowa and such other states which enter into reciprocal agreements.

164.30 Back tagging cattle received for sale or slaughter.

All bovine animals two years of age and older received for sale or shipment to a slaughtering establishment shall be identified with a back tag issued by the department. The back tag shall be affixed to the animal as directed by the department. It shall be the duty of every livestock trucker when delivering to out-of-state markets, and every livestock dealer, livestock market operator, stockyards operator, and slaughtering establishment to identify all such bovine animals not bearing a back tag at the time of taking possession or control of such animals. A livestock trucker may be exempted from this requirement if the animals are identified as to the farm of origin when delivered to a livestock market, stockyards, or slaughtering establishment which agrees to accept responsibility for back-tag identification. Every person required to identify animals in accordance with this section shall file reports of such identification on forms as specified by the department, including thereon the back-tag number and date of application; the name, address and county of residence of the person who owned or controlled the herd from which such animals originated; and whether the animal was of the beef or dairy type. Each such report should cover all animals identified during the preceding week. The removal of back tags shall be restricted to personnel specifically authorized by, and according to, instructions and policies issued by the department. The removal of back tags by unauthorized personnel shall be considered a violation of this section and subject to the penalties as provided in section 164.31.

165.1 Co-operation.

The state department of agriculture and land stewardship is hereby authorized to co-operate with the federal department of agriculture for the purpose of eradicating tuberculosis from the dairy and beef breeds of cattle in the state.

165.2 State as accredited area.

The state of Iowa is hereby declared to be and is hereby established as an accredited area for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis from the dairy and breeding cattle of the state. It shall be the duty of the department of agriculture to eradicate bovine tuberculosis in all of the counties of the state in the manner provided by law as it appears in this chapter. Said department shall proceed with the examination, including the tuberculin test, of all such cattle as rapidly as practicable and as is consistent with efficient work, and as funds are available for paying the indemnities as provided by law.

An owner of dairy or breeding cattle in the state shall conform to and abide by the rules laid down by the department and the federal department of agriculture and follow their instructions designed to suppress the disease, prevent its spread, and avoid reinfection of the herd.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §616

165.3 Appraisal.

Before being tested, such animals shall be appraised at their cash value for breeding, dairy, or beef purposes by the owner and a representative of the department, or a representative of the federal department of agriculture, or by the owner and both of such representatives. If these parties cannot agree as to the amount of the appraisal, there shall be appointed three competent and disinterested persons, one by the department, one by the owner, and the third by the first two appointed, to appraise such animals, which appraisal shall be final. Every appraisal shall be under oath or affirmation and the expense of the same shall be paid by the state, except as provided in this chapter.

165.4 Presence of tuberculosis.

If, after such examination, tubercular animals are found, the department shall have authority to order such disposition of them as it considers most desirable and economical. If the department deems that a due regard for the public health warrants it, it may enter into a written agreement with the owner, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe, for the separation and quarantine of such diseased animals. Subject to such conditions, the diseased animals may continue to be used for breeding purposes.

165.5 Nonright to receive compensation.

Any animal retained, under section 165.4, by the owner for ninety days after it has been adjudged infected with tuberculosis shall not be made the basis of any claim for compensation against the state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2670; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §165.5]

165.6 Amount of indemnity.

When breeding animals are slaughtered following any test, there shall be deducted from their appraised value the proceeds from the sale of salvage. The owner shall be paid by the state one-third of the sum remaining after the above deduction is made, but the state shall in no case pay to such owner a sum in excess of seventy-five dollars for any registered purebred animal or fifty dollars for any grade animal.

The pedigree of purebred cattle shall be proved by certificate of registry from the herdbooks where registered.

No compensation shall be paid to any person for an animal condemned for tuberculosis unless said animal, if produced in, or imported into, the state has been owned by such owner for at least six months prior to condemnation or was raised by such person.

The department shall establish rules for determining when a herd of cattle, tested and maintained under the provisions of this chapter, the laws of the United States, and the rules of the state department of agriculture and land stewardship and the federal department of agriculture, shall be considered as tuberculosis-free. When any herd meets such requirements the owner shall be entitled to a certificate from the department showing that the herd is a tuberculosis-free accredited herd. Such certificate shall be revoked whenever the herd no longer meets the necessary requirements for an accredited herd, but the herd may be reinstated as an accredited herd upon subsequent compliance with such requirements.

166B.2 General authority.

The department may destroy or require the destruction of any swine which the state veterinarian knows to be, or suspects is, affected with or exposed to hog cholera, whenever the department finds such destruction to be necessary to prevent or reduce the danger of the spread of hog cholera. Disposal of condemned swine shall be under the supervision of a regulatory employee. Salvage of apparently healthy marketable swine is permissible as a minimum provision and may be discontinued in favor of total herd disposition with indemnification as necessary and without such salvage in any case or at any time when it is determined by the department and the United States department of agriculture that the procedure would constitute an undue threat to the eradication program. Before being condemned and ordered to be destroyed, a positive diagnosis of hog cholera affecting the herd must be confirmed by a state or federal laboratory or personnel approved by the department and the United States department of agriculture.

166B.3 Appraisal and indemnification.

The department shall appraise any swine destroyed or ordered destroyed pursuant to this chapter at not to exceed current market value and shall indemnify the owner of such swine in an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars for purebred, inbred or hybrid or breeding swine; and not to exceed one hundred dollars for all other swine, provided that fifty percent or more of all such indemnities are paid by the United States department of agriculture.

166B.4 Institution of indemnification.

It is hereby recognized and declared that indemnification for destruction of swine infected with or exposed to hog cholera is an expression of the public policy of this state but employed only in the final stages of eradication of the disease, or as a means of preventing or minimizing its recurrence. The department of agriculture and land stewardship shall not therefore institute an initial program of indemnification pursuant to the chapter until it is mutually agreed between the state department of agriculture and land stewardship and the United States department of agriculture that such action is necessary in order to carry out the hog-cholera eradication program.

166B.5 Co-operation with United States.

The department may co-operate with the United States, or any department, agency or officer thereof, in the control and eradication of hog cholera, including the sharing in payment of indemnities for swine destroyed.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §166B.5]

166B.6 Rules.

The department of agriculture and land stewardship may make, promulgate, amend, repeal, and enforce necessary rules for implementing this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §166B.6]

166B.7 Judicial review.

Judicial review of department action under this chapter may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county, wherein the hogs are situated.

166C.3 Control program.

The department shall establish an Aujeszky's disease control program which may include the following:

1. The designation of one or more Aujeszky's disease tests and provision for the identification of infected animals by requiring the administration of any designated test at the times and in the manner specified by the department. The department may designate and require the use of designated disease test reports, health certificates, or other permits in connection therewith.

2. The regulation of the sale, lease, exhibition, or movement within this state of any group, class or type of animal in any manner calculated to control the transmission or incidence of Aujeszky's disease within this state. But the department shall not regulate the movement of animals where the ownership does not change unless such movement constitutes a serious threat to the success of the Aujeszky's disease control program.

3. The regulation of the importation of animals into this state in any manner calculated to prevent the spread of Aujeszky's disease.

4. The imposition of quarantines, including quarantines until shipment to slaughter, upon herds containing one or more infected animals and the release of such quarantines under the conditions specified by the department. The department shall provide for the movement of herds under quarantine in hardship cases if such movement will not threaten the success of the Aujeszky's disease control program.

5. The establishment of a program involving approved Aujeszky's disease-free herds and the requirements for the certification thereof.

6. The prohibition of the use, sale, distribution or offer to sell or distribute any Aujeszky's disease vaccine within this state if the secretary determines that such a prohibition will aid in the control of the transmission or incidence of Aujeszky's disease in this state; provided, however, that the secretary may during this prohibition issue permits for the use of a specified Aujeszky's disease vaccine to an individual producer, if such use is required by an individual hardship, and a biological laboratory, governmental authority, or manufacturer of biological products for the purpose of research or testing; if such use, under the conditions imposed by the secretary, will not be detrimental to the department's statewide Aujeszky's disease program. Every permit shall specify those conditions of use which in the opinion of the secretary are necessary to prevent any detriment to the department's statewide Aujeszky's disease control program and shall authorize the sale of the specified vaccine, in the amount stated in the permit, to the permit holder.

The department shall charge a fee for each Aujeszky's disease test. The fees shall cover the costs of the program but shall not exceed one dollar for each Aujeszky's disease test and all moneys obtained by collection of such fees shall be deposited in the state general fund.

166C.4 Dead animals.

Bodies of animals which have died from Aujeszky's disease shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of chapter 167.

If the test result is determined by a laboratory located within Iowa, the director of that laboratory must report the result thereof to the department, on forms prescribed, within ten days following completion thereof.

166C.6 Rules.

The department may make and adopt rules for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

Any person who feels wrongfully aggrieved by actions taken under the authority of this chapter shall upon application to the department be entitled to a prompt hearing on such matter, to be conducted in accordance with the contested case procedures of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

[C79, 81, §166C.7]

1. The governor shall appoint, subject to confirmation by the senate, a board of five individuals, three of whom shall be licensed veterinarians and two of whom shall not be licensed veterinarians, but shall be knowledgeable in the area of animal husbandry and who shall represent the general public. The representatives of the general public shall not prepare, grade or otherwise administer examinations to applicants for license to practice veterinary medicine. The board shall be known as the Iowa board of veterinary medicine. Each licensed veterinarian shall be actively engaged in veterinary medicine and shall have been so engaged for a period of five years immediately preceding appointment, the last two of which shall have been in Iowa. A member of the board shall not be employed by or have any material or financial interest in any wholesale or jobbing house dealing in supplies, equipment or instruments used or useful in the practice of veterinary medicine. The person designated as the state veterinarian shall serve as secretary of the board.

Professional associations or societies composed of licensed veterinarians may recommend the names of potential board members to the governor, but the governor is not bound by the recommendations.

2. The members of the board shall be appointed for a term of three years except the terms of the members of the initial board shall be rotated in such a manner that at least one member shall retire each year and a successor be appointed. The term of each member shall commence and end as provided by section 69.19. Members shall serve no more than three terms or nine years total, whichever is less.

3. Any vacancy in the membership of the board caused by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, shall be filled for the period of the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments.

4. Members of the board shall, in addition to necessary traveling and other expenses, set their own per diem compensation at a rate not exceeding forty dollars per day for each day actually engaged in the discharge of their duties including compensation for the time spent traveling to and from the place of conducting the examination and for a reasonable number of days for the preparation of examination and the reading of papers, in addition to the time actually spent in conducting examinations, within the limits of funds appropriated to the board.

5. The department shall furnish the board with all articles and supplies required for the public use and necessary to enable the board to perform the duties imposed upon it by law. Such articles and supplies shall be obtained by the department in the same manner in which the regular supplies for the department are obtained, and the department shall assess the costs to the board for such articles and supplies. The board shall also reimburse the department for direct and indirect administrative costs incurred in issuing and renewing the licenses.

6. The board shall meet at least once each year as determined by the board. Other necessary meetings may be called by the president of the board by giving proper notice. Except as provided, a majority of the board constitutes a quorum. Meetings shall be open and public except that the board may meet in closed session to prepare, approve, administer, or grade examinations, or to deliberate the qualifications of an applicant for license or the disposition of a proceeding to discipline a licensed veterinarian.

7. At its annual meeting, the board shall organize by electing a president and such other officers as may be necessary. Officers of the board serve for terms of one year and until a successor is elected, without limitation on the number of terms an officer may serve. The president shall serve as chairperson of board meetings.

The duties of the board shall include carrying on the correspondence of the board, keeping permanent accounts and records of all receipts and disbursements by the board and of all board proceedings, including the disposition of all applications for license, and keeping a register of all persons currently licensed by the board. At the end of each fiscal year, the president and secretary shall submit to the governor a report on the transactions of the board, including an account of moneys received and disbursed.

8. The board shall set the fees by rule for a license to practice veterinary medicine issued upon the basis of the examination. It shall also set the fees by rule for a license granted on the basis of reciprocity, a renewal of a license to practice veterinary medicine, a certified statement that a licensee is licensed to practice in this state, and an issuance of a duplicate license when the original is lost or destroyed. The fee shall be based upon the administrative costs of sustaining the board and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- a. Per diem, expenses, and travel of board members.
 - b. Costs to the department for administration of this chapter.
9. Upon a three-fifths vote, the board may:
- a. Examine and determine the qualifications and fitness of applicants for a license to practice veterinary medicine in the state.
 - b. Issue, renew, or deny issuance or renewal of licenses and temporary permits to practice veterinary medicine in this state.
 - c. Establish and publish annually a schedule of fees for licensing and registration of veterinarians. The fee schedule shall be based on the board's anticipated financial requirements for the year.
 - d. Conduct investigations for the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or grounds for disciplining licensed veterinarians.
 - e. Hold hearings on all matters properly brought before the board and administer oaths, receive evidence, make the necessary determinations, and enter orders consistent with the findings. The board may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of papers, records, or other documentary evidence and commission depositions. An administrative hearing officer may be appointed pursuant to section 17A.11, subsection 3 to perform those functions which properly repose in an administrative hearing officer.
 - f. Employ full-time or part-time personnel, professional, clerical, or special, as are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter.
 - g. Appoint from its own membership one or more members to act as representatives of the board at any meeting within or without the state where such representation is deemed desirable.

h. Bring proceedings in the courts for the enforcement of this chapter or any regulations made pursuant to this chapter.

i. Adopt, amend, or repeal rules relating to the standards of conduct for, testing of, and revocation or suspension of certificates issued to veterinary assistants. However, a certificate shall not be suspended or revoked by less than a two-thirds vote of the entire board in a proceeding conducted in compliance with section 17A.12.

j. Adopt, amend, or repeal all rules necessary for its government and all regulations necessary to carry into effect the provision of this chapter, including the establishment and publication of standards of professional conduct for the practice of veterinary medicine.

The powers enumerated above are granted for the purpose of enabling the board to effectively supervise the practice of veterinary medicine and are to be construed liberally to accomplish this objective.

1. Criminal history or prior misconduct of the applicant.
2. Information relating to the contents of the examination.
3. Information relating to the examination results other than final score except for information about the results of an examination which is given to the person who took the examination.

169.7 Status of persons previously licensed.

Any person holding a valid license to practice veterinary medicine in this state on January 1, 1979 shall be recognized as a licensed veterinarian and shall be entitled to retain this status as long as licensee complies with the provisions of this chapter.

[C79, 81, §169.7]

169.8 Qualifications.

Any person desiring a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state shall make written application to the board on a form approved by the board. The application shall show that the applicant is a graduate of an accredited or approved college of veterinary medicine or the holder of an ECFVG certificate. The application shall also show such other information and proof as the board may require by rule. The application shall be accompanied by a fee in the amount established and published by the board.

If the board determines that the applicant possesses the proper qualifications, it shall admit the applicant to the next examination, or if the applicant is eligible for license without examination under section 169.10, the board may grant a license to the applicant. If an applicant is found not qualified to take the examination or for a license without examination, the secretary of the board shall immediately notify the applicant in writing of such finding and the grounds therefor. An applicant found unqualified may request a hearing on the question of the applicant's qualification under the procedure set forth in section 169.14. Any applicant who is found not qualified shall be allowed the return of the application fee.

Every individual licensed under this chapter shall keep the license displayed in the place at which an office is maintained.

The name, location, number of years of practice of the person to whom a license is issued, the number of the certificate, and the date of registration thereof shall be entered in a book kept in the office of the department of agriculture and land stewardship, to be known as the "registry book", and the same shall be open to public inspection.

When any person licensed to practice under this chapter changes residence, the board shall be notified within thirty days and such change shall be noted in the registry book.

169.9 Examinations.

The board shall hold at least one examination during each year and may hold such additional examinations as it deems necessary. The secretary shall give public notice of the time and place for each examination at least ninety days in advance of the date set for the examination. A person desiring to take an examination shall make application at least thirty days before the date of the examination.

The preparation, administration, and grading of examinations shall be governed by rules prescribed by the board. Examinations shall be designed to test the examinee's knowledge of and proficiency in the subjects and techniques commonly taught in veterinary schools. To pass the examination, the examinee must demonstrate scientific and practical knowledge sufficient to establish competency to practice veterinary medicine in the judgment of the board. All examinees shall be tested by a written examination, supplemented by such oral interviews and practical demonstrations as the board may deem necessary. The board may adopt and use the examination prepared by the national board of veterinary examiners as a part of the examination given to examinees.

After each examination, the board shall notify each examinee of the examination result, and the board shall issue licenses to the individuals successfully completing the examination. The board shall record the new licenses and issue a certificate of registration to the new licensees. Any individual failing an examination shall be admitted to any subsequent examination on payment of the application fee.

In all written examinations the identity of the individual taking the same shall not be disclosed upon the examination papers in such a way as to enable the members of the examining board to know by whom written until after the papers have been passed upon.

169.10 License without examination.

For the purpose of recognizing licenses to practice veterinary medicine which have been issued in other states, the department, upon recommendation of the board, may by rule establish reciprocal relations with the duly constituted and proper authorities of such other states.

When the laws of such other states or the rules of such authorities place any requirement or disability upon a person licensed under this chapter or on any person holding a degree in veterinary medicine from the state university of science and technology of this state which affects the rights of the persons to be licensed or to practice in the other states, then the same requirement or disability shall be placed upon any person licensed in the other state or holding a diploma from any veterinary college situated therein, when applying for a license to practice in this state.

After reciprocal relations are entered into, the department may, in lieu of a written examination, issue a license to practice veterinary medicine on the basis of a certificate of registration or license issued by the duly constituted and proper authorities of another state with which such reciprocal relations exist, if such certificate of registration or license has been issued by such other state on requirements substantially equivalent to those required in this state at the time of the issuance of such certificate of registration or license.

When the requirements for a license in any state with which this state has a reciprocal agreement are no longer equal to those existing in this state, then such agreement shall be terminated and licenses issued in such state shall not be recognized as a basis for granting a license in this state until a new agreement has been negotiated. The fact of such change shall be determined by the board and certified to the department.

169.11 Temporary permit.

The board may issue without examination a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine in this state:

1. To a qualified applicant for license pending examination and the temporary permit shall expire the day after the notice of results of the first examination given after the permit is issued. The temporary permit holder should keep the secretary continually advised of the permit holder's current address.

2. To a nonresident veterinarian validly licensed in another state, territory, or district of the United States or a foreign country who pays the fee established and published by the board. Such temporary permit shall be issued for a period of no more than one hundred eighty days and no more than one permit shall be issued to a person during each calendar year.

169.12 License renewal.

All licenses shall expire in multiyear intervals as determined by the board but may be renewed by registration with the board and payment of the registration renewal fee established and published by the board. Prior to expiration the secretary shall mail a notice to each licensed veterinarian that the license will expire and provide the licensee with a form for registration.

Any person who shall practice veterinary medicine after license expiration is practicing in violation of this chapter. However, a person may renew an expired license within five years of the date of its expiration by making written application for renewal and paying the current renewal fee plus all delinquent renewal fees. After five years have elapsed since the date of expiration, a license may not be renewed, and the holder must make application for a new license and take the license examination.

The board may by rule waive the payment of the registration renewal fee of a licensed veterinarian during the period when the veterinarian is on active duty with any branch of the armed services of the United States.

Any licensee who is desirous of changing residence to another state or territory shall, upon application to the department and payment of the legal fee, receive a certified statement that the licensee is a duly licensed practitioner in this state.

[S13, §2538-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2769, 2769.1, 2798; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §169.6, 169.35; C79, 81, §169.12]

169.13 Discipline of licensees.

The board of veterinary medicine, after due notice and hearing, may revoke or suspend a license to practice veterinary medicine if it determines that a veterinarian licensed to practice veterinary medicine is guilty of any of the following acts or offenses:

1. Knowingly making misleading, deceptive, untrue, or fraudulent representation in the practice of the profession.

2. Being convicted of a felony in the courts of this state or another state, territory, or country. Conviction as used in this paragraph includes a conviction of an offense which if committed in this state would be deemed a felony without regard to its designation elsewhere, or a criminal proceeding in which a finding or verdict of guilt is made or returned, but the adjudication or guilt is either withheld or not entered. A certified copy of the final order or judgment of conviction or plea of guilty in this state or in another state is conclusive evidence.

3. Violating a statute or law of this state, another state, or the United States, without regard to its designation as either felony or misdemeanor, which statute or law relates to the practice of veterinary medicine.

4. Having the person's license to practice veterinary medicine revoked or suspended, or having other disciplinary action taken by a licensing authority of another state, territory, or country. A certified copy of the record or order of suspension, revocation, or disciplinary action is conclusive or prima facie evidence.

5. Knowingly aiding, assisting, procuring, or advising a person to unlawfully practice veterinary medicine.

6. Being adjudged mentally incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction. The adjudication shall automatically suspend a license for the duration of the license unless the board orders otherwise.

7. Being guilty of a willful or repeated departure from, or the failure to conform to, the minimal standard of acceptable and prevailing practice of veterinary medicine as defined in rules adopted by the board, in which proceeding actual injury to an animal need not be established; or the committing by a veterinarian of an act contrary to honesty, justice, or good morals, whether the act is committed in the course of the practice or otherwise, and whether committed within or without this state.

8. Inability to practice veterinary medicine with reasonable skill and safety by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or other type of material or as a result of a mental or physical condition. The board, upon probable cause, may compel a veterinarian to submit to a mental or physical examination by designated physicians. Failure of a veterinarian to submit to an examination constitutes an admission to the allegations made against that veterinarian and the finding of fact and decision of the board may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. At reasonable intervals, a veterinarian shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that the veterinarian can resume the competent practice of veterinary medicine with reasonable skill and safety to animals.

A person licensed to practice veterinary medicine who makes application for the renewal of the person's license as required by section 169.12 gives consent to submit to a mental or physical examination as provided by this paragraph when directed in writing by the board. All objections shall be waived as to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or examination reports on the grounds that they constitute privileged communication. The medical testimony or examination reports shall not be used against a veterinarian in another proceeding and are confidential except for other actions filed against a veterinarian to revoke or suspend that person's license.

9. Willful or repeated violation of lawful rules adopted by the board or violation of a lawful order of the board, previously entered by the board in a disciplinary hearing.

169.14 Proceedings.

A proceeding for the revocation or suspension of a license to practice veterinary medicine or to discipline a person licensed to practice veterinary medicine shall be substantially in accord with the following:

1. The board, upon its own motion or upon verified complaint in writing, may issue an order fixing the time and place for hearing. A written notice of the time and place of the hearing, together with a statement of the charges, shall be served upon the licensee at least ten days before the hearing in the manner required for the service of notice of the commencement of an ordinary action.

2. If the licensee has left the state, the notice and statement of the charges shall be so served at least twenty days before the date of the hearing, wherever the licensee may be found. If the whereabouts of the licensee is unknown, service may be had by publication as provided in the rules of civil procedure upon filing the affidavit required by those rules. If the licensee fails to appear either in person or by counsel at the time and place designated in the notice, the board shall proceed with the hearing.

3. The hearing shall be before a member or members designated by the board or before a hearing officer appointed by the board. The presiding board member or hearing officer may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, and take or cause depositions to be taken in connection with the hearing. The member or officer shall issue subpoenas at the request and on behalf of the licensee.

4. A mechanized or stenographic record of the proceedings shall be kept. The licensee shall be given the opportunity to appear personally and by attorney, with the right to produce evidence in one's own behalf, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to examine documentary evidence produced against the licensee.

5. If a person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the presiding member or hearing officer or to answer a proper question put to that person during the hearing, the presiding member or hearing officer may invoke the aid of a court of competent jurisdiction in requiring the attendance and testimony of that person and the production of papers. A failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

6. Unless the hearing is before the entire board, a transcript of the proceeding, together with exhibits presented, shall be considered by the entire board at the earliest practicable time. The licensee and attorney shall be given the opportunity to appear personally to present the licensee's position and arguments to the board. The board shall determine the charge upon the merits on the basis of the evidence in the record before it.

7. Upon three members of the board voting in favor of finding the licensee guilty of an act or offense specified in section 169.13, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and its decision imposing one or more of the following disciplinary measures:

- a. Suspend the license to practice veterinary medicine for a period to be determined by the board.
- b. Revoke the license to practice veterinary medicine.
- c. Suspend imposition of judgment and penalty or impose the judgment and penalty, but suspend enforcement and place the veterinarian on probation. The probation ordered may be vacated upon noncompliance. The board may restore and reissue a license to practice veterinary medicine, and may impose a disciplinary or corrective measure which it might originally have imposed.

8. Judicial review of the board's action may be sought in accordance with the terms of chapter 17A.

9. The filing of a petition for review does not in itself stay execution or enforcement of board action. Upon application, the board or the review court, in appropriate cases, may order a stay pending the outcome of the review proceedings.

172A.2 License required.

No person shall act as a dealer or broker without first being licensed. No person shall act for any dealer or broker as an agent unless such dealer or broker is licensed, has designated such agent to act in the dealer's or broker's behalf, and has notified the secretary of the designation in the dealer's or broker's application for license or has given official notice in writing of the appointment of the agent and the secretary has issued to the agent an agent's license. A dealer or broker shall be accountable and responsible for contracts made by an agent in the course of the agent's employment. The license of an agent whose employment by the dealer or broker is terminated shall be void on the date written notice of termination is received by the secretary. The license of a dealer, broker, or agent, unless revoked, shall expire on the last day of June following the date of issue. The annual fee for the license of a dealer or broker is fifty dollars. The annual fee for an agent's license is ten dollars.

No person may be issued a license if that person previously has had a license revoked, or previously was issued a license and the secretary suspended that license, unless the order of suspension or revocation is thereafter terminated by the secretary.

172A.3 Application for license.

Application for a license as a dealer or broker or as an agent shall be made in writing to the department. The application shall state the nature of the business, the municipal corporation, township and county, the post-office address at which the business is to be conducted, and such additional information as the department may prescribe.

The applicant upon satisfying the department of the applicant's character and good faith in seeking to engage in such business and upon complying with such other requirements specified in this chapter, shall be issued by the department a license to conduct the business of a dealer, broker, or agent at the place named in the application.

172A.4 Proof of financial responsibility required.

No license shall be issued by the secretary to a dealer or broker until the applicant has furnished proof of financial responsibility as provided in this section. The proof may be in the following forms:

1. A bond of a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Iowa in the form prescribed by and to the satisfaction of the secretary, conditioned for the payment of a judgment against the applicant furnishing the bond because of nonpayment of obligations in connection with the purchase of animals.

a. The amount of bond for an established dealer or broker who does not maintain a business location in this state shall be not less than the nearest multiple of five thousand dollars above twice the average daily value of purchases of livestock originating in this state, handled by such applicant during the preceding twelve months or such parts thereof as the applicant was purchasing livestock. The bond of a person who does not maintain a business location in this state shall be conditioned for the payment only of those claims which arise from purchases of livestock originating in this state.

b. The amount of bond for an established dealer or broker who maintains one or more business locations in this state shall be not less than the nearest multiple of five thousand dollars above twice the average daily value of purchases of livestock originating in this state handled by the applicant during the preceding twelve months or such parts thereof as the applicant was purchasing livestock. The bond of a person who maintains one or more business locations in this state shall be conditioned for the payment only of those claims which arise from purchases of livestock originating in this state.

c. If a new dealer or broker not previously covered by this chapter applies for a license, the amount of bond shall be based on twice the estimated average daily value of purchases of livestock originating in this state.

d. For the purpose of computing average daily value, two hundred sixty is deemed the number of business days in a year.

e. Whenever a dealer or broker's weekly purchases exceed one hundred fifty percent of the dealer's or broker's average weekly volume, the department shall require additional bond in an amount determined by the department.

f. The licensee and surety of the bond shall be held and firmly bound unto the secretary as trustee for all persons who may be damaged because of nonpayment of obligations in connection with the purchase of animals originating in this state. Any person damaged because of such nonpayment may maintain suit in the person's own behalf to recover on the bond, even though not named as a party to the bond.

g. For purposes of subsection 1, "purchases of livestock originating in this state" shall not include purchases by dealers or brokers from their subsidiaries.

2. A bond equivalent may be filed in lieu of a bond. The bond equivalent shall be in the form of a trust agreement and the fund of the trust shall be in the form of fully negotiable obligations of the United States or certificates of deposit insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

The trust agreement shall be in the form prescribed by the secretary and executed to the satisfaction of the secretary. The trustee of the trust agreement shall be an institution located in this state in which the funds are invested or deposited.

The trust agreement shall provide as beneficiary, the secretary for the benefit of those persons damaged because of nonpayment of obligations in connection with the purchase of animals originating in this state. The fund in trust shall be an amount calculated in the exact manner as provided in subsection 1. The fund in trust shall not be subject to attachment for any other claim, or to levy of execution upon a judgment based on any other claim.

3. Any person damaged by nonpayment of obligations or by any misrepresentation or fraud on the part of a broker or dealer may maintain an action against the broker or dealer, and the sureties on the bonds or the trustee of a trust fund. The aggregate liability of the sureties or the trust for all such damage shall not exceed the amount of the bond or trust. In the event that the aggregate claims exceed the total amount of the bond or trust, the amount payable on account of any claim shall be in the same proportion to the amount of the bond or trust as the individual claim bears to the aggregate claims.

Unless the person damaged files claim with the dealer or broker, and with the sureties or trustee, and with the department within ninety days after the date of the transaction on which the claim is based, the claimant shall be barred from maintaining an action on the bond or trust and from receiving any proceeds from the bond or trust.

4. Whenever the secretary determines that the business volume of the applicant or licensee is such as to render the bond or trust inadequate, the amount of the bond or trust shall be, upon notice, adjusted.

5. All bonds and trust agreements shall contain a provision requiring that at least thirty days' prior notice in writing be given to the secretary by the party terminating the bond or trust agreement as a condition precedent to termination.

Whenever a bond or a trust agreement is to be terminated by a cancellation by the surety or trustee, the secretary shall cause to be published notices of the proposed cancellation not less than ten days prior to the date the cancellation is effective. The notices shall be published as follows:

a. In the Iowa administrative code.

b. In a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the licensee maintains a business location, or if the licensee maintains no business location in this state, then in the county where the licensee transacts a substantial part of the licensee's business.

c. By general news release to all news media. Failure by the secretary to cause the publication of notice as required by this paragraph shall not be deemed to prevent or delay the cancellation.

The termination of a bond or a trust agreement shall not release the parties from any liability arising out of the facts or transactions occurring prior to the termination date.

Trust funds shall not be withdrawn from trust by a licensee until the expiration of ninety days after the date of termination of the trust, and then only if no claims secured by the agreement have been filed with the secretary. If any claims have been filed with the secretary, the withdrawal of funds by the licensee shall not be permitted until the claims have been satisfied or released and evidence of the satisfaction or release filed with the secretary.

6. A person who is not a resident of this state and who either maintains no business location in this state or maintains one or more business locations in this state, and a person who is a resident of this state and who maintains more than one business location in this state, may submit a consolidated proof of financial responsibility. The consolidated proof of financial responsibility shall consist of a bond or a trust agreement meeting all of the requirements of this section, except that the calculation of the amount of the bond or the amount of the trust fund shall be based on the average daily value of all purchases of livestock originating in this state. A person who submits consolidated proof of financial responsibility shall maintain separate records for each business location, and shall maintain such other records respecting purchases of livestock as the secretary by rule shall prescribe.

Registration shall be effective upon filing with the secretary a certified copy of the bond filed with the United States department of agriculture, and shall continue in effect until that bond is terminated.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §172A.5]

172A.6 Low volume dealers exempt from license and bond.

Said licensees are made subject to this chapter as to the regulatory and penal provisions hereof. All other provisions of this chapter shall apply to said dealers or brokers.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any other person who purchases livestock for slaughter valued at less than an average daily value of two thousand five hundred dollars based upon the preceding twelve months or such part thereof as the person was purchasing livestock.

172A.8 Reciprocal agreements.

The department shall have the power and authority to enter into reciprocal agreements with the authorized representatives of other federal or state jurisdictions for the exchange of information and audit reports on a co-operative basis which may assist the department in the proper administration of this chapter.

Each dealer, or broker purchasing livestock, before the close of the next business day following either the purchase of livestock or the determination of the amount of the purchase price, whichever is later, shall transmit or deliver to the seller or the seller's duly authorized agent the full amount of the purchase price. If livestock is bought on a yield or grade and yield basis, a dealer or broker shall upon the express request in writing of the seller, transmit or deliver to the seller or the seller's duly authorized agent before the close of the next business day following such purchase or delivery, whichever is later, up to eighty percent of the estimated purchase price, and pay the remaining balance on the next business day following the determination of the purchase price.

2. Payment to the seller shall be made by cash, check, or wire transfer of funds. If payment to the seller is by check, the check shall be drawn on a bank located in this state or on a bank located in an adjacent state and in the nearest city to Iowa in which a check processing center of a federal reserve bank district is located. For the purpose of this subsection, "wire transfer" means any telephonic, telegraphic, electronic, or similar communication between the bank of the purchaser and the bank of the seller which results in the transfer of funds or credits of the purchaser to an account of the seller.

3. Provisions of this section may be modified by an agreement signed by both the buyer and the seller or their duly authorized agents at the time of the sale. However, such an agreement shall not be a condition of sale unless expressly requested by the seller.

4. Failure to comply with this section shall be a violation of this chapter.

172A.10 Injunctions — criminal penalties.

If any person who is required by this chapter to be licensed fails to obtain the required license, or if any person who is required by this chapter to maintain proof of financial responsibility, or if any licensee fails to discontinue engaging in licensed activities when that person's license has been suspended, such failure shall be deemed a nuisance and the secretary may bring an action on behalf of the state to enjoin such nuisance. Such actions may be heard on not less than five days notice to the person whose activities are sought to be enjoined. The failure to obtain a license when required, or the failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

Any person convicted of violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

b. Failure to pay for purchases of livestock in the manner required by section 172A.9.

An order of suspension issued by the secretary shall be effective for an indefinite period, unless and until the person establishes to the satisfaction of the secretary that the person has taken reasonable precautions to prevent a recurrence of the act or omission in the future.

2. The secretary shall have the authority temporarily to suspend without hearing the license of any licensee in any of the following circumstances:

a. The licensee fails to maintain proof of financial responsibility, or the surety on the licensee's bond loses its authorization to issue bonds in this state, or the trustee of a trust fund loses its authorization to engage in the business of a fiduciary.

b. Claims are filed with the secretary against the bond or trust in an aggregate amount equal to ten percent or more of the amount of the bond.

A temporary suspension shall be effective on the date of issuance of the order of suspension, and until a revocation hearing has been held and the secretary either has entered an order of revocation of the license, or has terminated the order of suspension.

172A.12 Revocation of license.

1. The secretary shall have the authority to revoke the license of a dealer or broker or agent upon notice and hearing if any of the following conditions exist:

b. The person has refused access to the secretary to the books and records of the person as required by this chapter.

c. Any other conditions exist which in the opinion of the secretary reasonably establish that it would be financially detrimental to livestock producers of this state to permit the person to engage in licensed activities in this state.

An order of revocation shall be effective upon the issuance of the order of revocation, and until the order is rescinded by the secretary, or until the decision of the secretary is reversed by a final order of a court of this state.

However, in counties having more than one fair entitled to state aid, except in counties where there are two definitely separate county extension offices, the state aid available for the county shall be prorated to the fairs, which have been in existence for three years or more, on the basis of cash premiums paid by the fairs or, if an official county fair has been designated as provided in section 174.10, subsection 2, the state aid shall be paid to the official county fair.

In addition, the net proceeds from the sale of fairground sites and structures on the sites shall be used for the erection of permanent buildings on a new fairground site or the cost of moving structures from the old to the new site.

175.3 Establishment of authority.

1. The agricultural development authority is established within the department of agriculture and land stewardship. The authority is constituted a public instrumentality and agency of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions. The authority is established to undertake programs which assist beginning farmers in purchasing agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property for the purpose of farming, and programs which provide financing to farmers for permanent soil and water conservation practices on agricultural land within the state or for the acquisition of conservation farm equipment, and programs to assist farmers within the state in financing operating expenses and cash flow requirements of farming. The authority shall also develop programs to assist qualified agricultural producers within the state with financing other capital requirements or operating expenses. The powers of the authority are vested in and exercised by a board of eleven members with nine members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The treasurer of state or the treasurer's designee and the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's designee are ex officio nonvoting members. No more than five appointed members shall belong to the same political party. As far as possible the governor shall include within the membership persons who represent financial institutions experienced in agricultural lending, the real estate sales industry, farmers, beginning farmers, average taxpayers, local government, soil conservation district officials, and other persons specially interested in family farm development.

2. The appointed members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for terms of six years except that, of the first appointments, three members shall be appointed for terms of two years and three members shall be appointed for a term of four years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. An appointed member of the authority may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing. An appointed member of the authority may also serve as a member of the Iowa finance authority.

3. Five voting members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the authority. The majority shall not include any member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member that the member has a conflict of interest is conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority.

4. The appointed members of the authority are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

5. The appointed members of the authority and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

6. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or whenever two members so request.

7. The appointed members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director shall serve as secretary to the authority.

8. The net earnings of the authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations or to implement the public purposes and programs authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority including any net earnings shall vest in the state.

175.4 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious problem in this state regarding the ability of nonestablished farmers to acquire agricultural land and agricultural improvements and depreciable agricultural property in order to enter farming.

4. This barrier to entry into farming is conducive to consolidation of acreage of agricultural land with fewer individuals resulting in a grave threat to the traditional family farm.

5. These conditions result in a loss in population, unemployment and a movement of persons from rural communities to urban areas accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services.

6. One major cause of this condition has been recurrent shortages of funds in private channels and the high interest cost of borrowing.

7. These shortages and costs have made the sale and purchase of agricultural land to beginning farmers a virtual impossibility in many parts of the state.

8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise have not in the past corrected these conditions.

9. A stable supply of adequate funds for agricultural financing is required to encourage beginning farmers in an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the problems described in this section.

10. Article IX, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Iowa requires that, "The General Assembly shall encourage, by all suitable means, the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement," and agricultural improvement and the public good are served by a policy of facilitating access to capital by beginning farmers unable to obtain capital elsewhere in order to preserve, encourage and protect the family farm which has been the economic, political and social backbone of rural Iowa.

11. It is necessary to create a state family farm development authority to encourage ownership of farms by beginning farmers by providing purchase money loans to beginning farmers who are not able to obtain adequate capital elsewhere to provide such funds and to lower costs through the use of public financing.

12. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted.

13. The erosion of topsoil on agricultural land by wind and water is a serious problem within the state and one which threatens to destroy the natural resource most responsible for Iowa's prosperity.

14. It is necessary to the preservation of the economy and well-being of the state to encourage soil conservation practices by providing loans for permanent soil and water conservation practices on agricultural land within the state and for the acquisition of conservation farm equipment.

15. There exists a serious problem in this state regarding the ability of farmers to obtain affordable operating loans for reasonable and necessary expenses and cash flow requirements of farming.

16. Farming is one of the principal pursuits of the inhabitants of this state. Many other industries and pursuits, in turn, are wholly dependent upon farming.

17. The inability of farmers to obtain affordable operating loans is conducive to a general decline of the economy in this state.

18. It is necessary to establish an agricultural loan assistance program in this state to assist farmers in obtaining adequate financing at affordable rates for operating expenses and thereby assist in the stabilization of the economic condition of this state.

175.5 Guiding principles.

In the performance of its duties, implementation of its powers, selection of specific programs and projects to receive its assistance, the authority shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The authority shall not become an owner of real or depreciable property, except on a temporary basis where necessary in order to implement its programs, to protect its investments by means of foreclosure or other means, or to facilitate transfer of real or depreciable property for the use of beginning farmers.

2. The authority shall exercise diligence and care in selection of projects to receive its assistance and shall apply customary and acceptable business and lending standards in selection and subsequent implementation of the projects. The authority may delegate primary responsibility for determination and implementation of the projects to any federal governmental agency which assumes any obligation to repay the loan, either directly or by insurance or guarantee.

3. The authority shall establish a beginning farmer loan program to aid beginning farmers in the acquisition of agricultural land and improvements and depreciable agricultural property.

4. The authority shall develop programs for providing financial assistance to agricultural producers in this state.

Moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn from it in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, as provided in this section, except for the purpose of making payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to the investment of it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund requirement for it.

3. The authority shall not at any time issue bonds, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the authority at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, an amount of money, as provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing the bonds with respect to which the fund is established, equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds secured by the fund.

4. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of its corporate purposes, provision is made in subsection 1 for the accumulation in each bond reserve fund of an amount equal to the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. In order further to assure maintenance of the bond reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July 1 of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor a certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to its bond reserve fund requirement. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including any sum required to restore each bond reserve fund to its bond reserve fund requirement. Sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable bond reserve fund.

5. Amounts paid over to the authority by the state pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute and be accounted for as advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes or obligations of the authority, the bond reserve fund and operating expenses.

6. The authority shall cause to be delivered to the legislative fiscal committee within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year its annual report certified by an independent certified public accountant, who may be the accountant or a member of the firm of accountants who regularly audits the books and accounts of the authority selected by the authority. In the event that the principal amount of any bonds or notes deposited in a bond reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal or interest thereby reducing the amount of that fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall take steps to restore the fund to its bond reserve fund requirement from any amounts available, other than principal of a bond issue, which are not pledged to the payment of other bonds or notes.

175.19 Remedies of bondholders and noteholders.

The authority shall insure or guarantee a loan for only one year but with the option to extend the insurance or guarantee once for an additional year. The authority shall not insure or guarantee a loan where the ratio of the beginning or displaced farmer's liabilities, excluding the amount of the loan, to assets is greater than three to one. Provision shall be made in the insuring or guaranteeing of a loan that only those funds set aside for this program as provided in this paragraph shall be used for the payment of all or a portion of the loan insured or guaranteed. 4. The authority may participate in and cooperate with programs of an agency or instrumentality of the federal government in the administration of the agricultural loan assistance program. The authority may provide in the agricultural loan assistance program that a grant may be provided in conjunction with a farmer's operating loan only if the farmer and lending institution participate in one or more operating loan assistance programs of an agency or instrumentality of the federal government, which are determined to be appropriate by the authority.

5. Upon approval of an eligibility application and a determination by the authority that assistance pursuant to the agricultural loan assistance program is needed to qualify a farmer and lending institution for participation in an appropriate operating loan assistance program of an agency or instrumentality of the federal government, the authority may:

a. Enter into an agreement with the lending institution and the farmer to supplement the assistance to be received pursuant to the federal program in which agreement the lending institution shall agree to reduce for one year the interest rate on the farmer's operating loan to the rate determined by the authority to be necessary to qualify the farmer and lending institution for participation in the federal program and the farmer shall agree to comply with the rules and requirements established by the authority.

175A.1 Legislative findings — purpose.

The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious problem in this state regarding the ability of farmers and small businesses to obtain adequate affordable operating loans and to service the debt on existing operating, machinery, and land loans.

4. Farming and the operation of small regionally owned businesses are principal pursuits of the inhabitants of this state. Many other industries and pursuits are wholly dependent upon farming and small business.

5. The inability of farmers and small businesses to obtain adequate affordable operating loans and to service the debt on existing operating, machinery, and land loans is conducive to economic decline and poverty and impairs the economic value of vast areas of the state, which are characterized by depreciated property values, impaired investments, and reduced capacity to pay taxes.

6. These conditions result in a loss of population and further economic deterioration, accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services.

7. A major cause of the unavailability of adequate affordable operating loans and the inability to service the debt on existing operating, machinery, and land loans is the unstable economic condition of the state, due in part to unanticipated high interest rates.

8. A stable economic condition is necessary to encourage and facilitate the availability of adequate affordable operating loans and to enable farmers and small businesses to service the debt on existing operating, machinery, and land loans, and it is necessary to create a state economic protective and investment authority to administer programs to stabilize the economic condition.

9. The public purpose of this chapter is to maximize the economic potential of the state and to thereby stabilize the economic condition of the state.

175A.3 Establishment of authority.

1. The Iowa economic protective and investment authority is established and constituted a public instrumentality and agency of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions. The authority is established to undertake programs which provide assistance for farming and for small businesses, and other programs the authority deems necessary to carry out the purpose identified in section 175A.1. The powers of the authority are vested in and exercised by a board of five members appointed by a committee composed of the majority and minority floor leaders of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the minority floor leader of the house of representatives. No more than three members appointed pursuant to this subsection shall belong to the same political party. As far as possible the board shall include within the membership persons who represent lending institutions experienced in agricultural or small business lending, agricultural suppliers, farmers, operators of small businesses, average citizens, and other persons specially interested in the availability of funds for farm operating loans.

2. The members of the authority appointed pursuant to subsection 1 shall serve terms of three years, except that, of first appointments, one member shall be appointed for a term of one year and two members shall be appointed for terms of two years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member of the authority appointed pursuant to subsection 1 may be removed from office by the committee for misfeasance, malfeasance, willful neglect of duty, or other just cause after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing. A member of the authority appointed pursuant to subsection 1 may also serve as a member of the Iowa family farm development authority.

3. Three members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the authority is necessary for substantive action to be taken by the authority. The majority shall not include a member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member of a conflict of interest is conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority.

4. The members of the authority appointed pursuant to subsection 1 are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

5. The members of the authority appointed pursuant to subsection 1 and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

6. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or when two members so request.

7. The members appointed pursuant to subsection 1 shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director, appointed pursuant to section 175A.5, is a nonvoting ex officio member of the board and shall serve as secretary to the authority.

8. The net earnings of the authority, beyond those necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations, or to implement the authorized public purposes and programs, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority, including any such net earnings of the authority, shall vest in the state.

The panel shall provide advice and assistance to the authority in the performance of the authority's functions, but shall not vote in board decisions.

175A.5 Executive director — staff.

1. The governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, shall appoint an executive director of the authority, who shall serve a four-year term at the pleasure of the governor. The term shall begin and end as provided in section 69.19. The executive director shall be selected primarily for administrative ability and knowledge in the field, without regard to political affiliation. The executive director shall not, directly or indirectly, exert influence to induce other officers or employees of the state to adopt a political view, or to favor a political candidate for office.

2. The executive director is a nonvoting ex officio member of the board, and shall advise the authority on matters relating to finance, carry out all directives from the authority, and hire and supervise the authority's staff pursuant to its directions and under chapter 19A, except that principal administrative assistants with responsibilities in operating loan programs, accounting, and processing of applications for interest reduction are exempt from that chapter.

3. The executive director, as secretary of the authority, shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of its minute book and seal. The executive director may cause copies to

1. The authority shall establish and develop an operating assistance program to facilitate the availability of affordable operating capital to as many farmers and small businesses as possible by providing grants to lending institutions as provided in this section.

2. Lending institutions shall make available to borrowers a lender-borrower eligibility application form prepared by the authority for the operating assistance program. Application to the authority for assistance under this section shall be executed jointly by the lending institution and the borrower upon an approved form.

3. The authority shall provide in the operating assistance program that the grant will be provided in conjunction with a borrower's operating loan only if the following criteria are satisfied as evidenced on a lender-borrower eligibility application:

- a. The borrower is a resident of the state.
- b. The farming operation or small business for which the borrower seeks the operating assistance is located in the state.
- c. The operating loan, if a new loan, will be used, and if an existing loan, was used by the borrower for the reasonably necessary expenses and cash flow requirements of farming or of the operation of a small business.
- d. The borrower has made full disclosure of the borrower's finances to the lending institution.

e. Requirements prescribed by the authority by rule, which may include but are not limited to participation in federal crop insurance programs, where available, a consideration of the borrower's agreement to maintain farm management techniques and standards established by the authority, participation in federal farm programs, where applicable, and the maximized use of available loan guarantees including small business administration programs, where applicable.

4. The authority shall provide in the operating assistance program that the authority may, upon approval by the board of an application, enter into an agreement with the lending institution in which the lending institution shall agree to reduce for one year the interest rate on the borrower's operating loan, whether the loan is a new loan or is an existing and unpaid loan, to a rate at least five percent below the base rate, which is the maximum lawful rate of interest as determined by the superintendent of banking pursuant to section 535.2 for the calendar month in which the application was approved by the authority. However, the authority may lower the base rate if necessary to accommodate regional financial conditions. The authority shall agree to give to each lending institution which has agreed with the authority to the interest reduction a grant in the amount, as determined by the authority, necessary to reimburse the lending institution for the reduction of the interest rate on the borrower's operating loan by two percent for the term of the loan or for one year, whichever is less. The grant shall be paid to the lending institution within sixty days after the date the application is approved.

5. The authority shall require each lending institution to which the authority has approved an application for a grant on an operating loan to submit to the authority evidence satisfactory to the authority of a reduction in the interest rate as required by an agreement pursuant to subsection 4, and in that connection, the board members, employees or agents of the authority may inspect the books and records of a lending institution.

6. Compliance by a lending institution with the terms of an agreement with the authority pursuant to subsection 4 may be enforced by decree of a district court of this state. The authority may require, as a condition of a payment to a national banking association or a federally chartered savings and loan association or savings bank on an operating loan, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over an enforcement proceeding. The authority may also require, as a condition for approval of an application for a grant to a lending institution on an operating loan, that the lending institution agree to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the lending institution of its agreement with the authority pursuant to subsection 4, and the penalties are recoverable at the suit of the authority.

7. If a lending institution refuses a borrower's request to apply for an operating assistance grant under this section, the borrower may provide the authority with a written statement regarding the lending institution's refusal. A borrower who has provided the authority with a written statement may be provided with an opportunity for a hearing on the refusal before the board or persons designated by the authority. The procedure established in this subsection is not a contested case under chapter 17A.

4. Obligations shall:

a. State the date and series of the issue, be consecutively numbered, and state on their face that they are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the assets of the authority and do not constitute an indebtedness of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limit.

The interest, income and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding obligations to be refunded by purchase, retirement or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding obligations shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other obligations issued pursuant to this chapter.

6. The authority may issue negotiable obligation anticipation notes and may renew them from time to time but the maximum maturity of the notes, including renewals, shall not exceed ten years from the date of issue of the original notes. Notes are payable from any available moneys of the authority not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of the sale of obligations of the authority in anticipation of which the notes were issued. Notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. Notes shall be issued in the same manner as other obligations, and the resolution authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection, which the obligation or a resolution of the authority may contain. 176B.1 Purpose.

It is the intent of the general assembly and the policy of this state to provide for the orderly use and development of land and related natural resources in Iowa for residential, commercial, industrial, and recreational purposes, preserve private property rights, protect natural and historic resources and fragile ecosystems of this state including forests, wetlands, rivers, streams, lakes and their shorelines, aquifers, prairies, and recreational areas to promote the efficient use and conservation of energy resources, to promote the creation and maintenance of wildlife habitat, to consider the protection of soil from wind and water erosion and preserve the availability and use of agricultural land for agricultural production, through processes that emphasize the participation of citizens and local governments.

The general assembly recognizes the importance of preserving the state's finite supply of agricultural land. Conversion of farmland to urban development, and other nonfarm uses, reduces future food production capabilities and may ultimately undermine agriculture as a major economic activity in Iowa.

It is the intent of the general assembly to provide local citizens and local governments the means by which agricultural land may be protected from nonagricultural development pressures. This may be accomplished by the creation of county land preservation and use plans and policies, adoption of an agricultural land preservation ordinance, or establishment of agricultural areas in which substantial agricultural activities are encouraged, so that land inside these areas or subject to those ordinances is conserved for the production of food, fiber, and livestock, thus assuring the preservation of agriculture as a major factor in the economy of this state.

Under such quarantines, the state entomologist or the state entomologist's authorized agents may prohibit and prevent the movement within the state without inspection, or the shipment or transportation within the state, of any agricultural or horticultural product, or any other material of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerously injurious insect pest or disease in any living state of its development; and, in the enforcement of such quarantine, may intercept, stop, and detain for official inspection any person, car, vessel, boat, truck, automobile, aircraft, wagon, vehicles or carriers or any container, material, or substance believed or known to be carrying the insect pest or plant disease in any living state of its development in violation of said quarantines or of the rules issued supplemental thereto, and may seize, possess, and destroy any agricultural or horticultural product or other material of any character whatsoever, moved, shipped, or transported in violation of such quarantines or the rules.

179.2 Commission created — suspension during national order — reactivation.

1. There is created an Iowa dairy industry commission, referred to in this chapter as the commission. The commission shall be composed of the secretary of agriculture or the secretary's designee, the dean of agriculture at Iowa state university of science and technology or the dean's designee, and sixteen members appointed by the secretary of agriculture as provided in this section.
2. Commissioners shall serve until their successors are duly appointed and qualify. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the commission resulting from death, inability or refusal to serve, or failure to meet the definition of a producer, shall be filled within three months of the time the vacancy occurs in the manner provided by the commission. Vacancy appointments shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term. A commissioner shall not serve more than two consecutive full terms.
3. Appointive members of the commission shall receive forty dollars for each day spent on official business of the commission, not to exceed six hundred dollars per annum, and their actual necessary expenses, while engaged in commission activity.
4. When a national promotional order is established by the United States department of agriculture pursuant to the Dairy Product Stabilization Act of 1983, collection of the excise tax in section 179.5 shall be suspended for the period in which the national order is in effect. The commission shall continue to operate thereafter for only the period of time necessary to pay refunds and disburse the funds remaining in the dairy industry fund for the purposes enumerated in this chapter. Upon completion of these acts, the existence of the Iowa dairy industry commission shall be suspended. The secretary of agriculture shall certify the suspension of the commission as of a date certain to the Iowa dairy industry commission and the Iowa state dairy association. Upon reactivation, the commission shall reimburse the secretary of agriculture for expenses incurred in carrying out the duties provided in this subsection.

6. When the national dairy promotion program expires and the suspension of the Iowa dairy industry commission terminates pursuant to subsection 5, all first purchasers shall, in a manner designed to reflect their proportionate contributions to the national dairy promotion program in its most recently completed fiscal year, nominate two resident producers for each of the sixteen offices of the commission. The secretary of agriculture shall then appoint one nominee from each set of two nominees as commissioners of the reactivated Iowa dairy industry commission. The secretary of agriculture shall stagger the terms of the reactivated commission resulting in as nearly as possible one third of the commissioners serving for one year, one third of the commissioners serving for two years, and one third of the commissioners serving for three years. After the initial staggering of terms by the secretary, commissioners shall be appointed to three-year terms.

7. After the reactivated commission has been formed, nominations for commissioners shall be made by first purchasers in a manner designed to reflect their proportionate contributions to the Iowa dairy industry commission in its most recently completed fiscal year.

179.13 Referendum.

At a time designated by the commission within eighteen months after termination of the national promotional order made pursuant to the Dairy Product Stabilization Act of 1983, the commission shall conduct a referendum under administrative procedures prescribed by the department.

Upon signing a statement certifying to the department that the person is a bona fide producer as defined in this chapter, each producer is entitled to one vote in each referendum. When the secretary is required to determine the approval or disapproval of producers under this section, the secretary shall consider the approval or disapproval of a cooperative association of producers, engaged in a bona fide manner in marketing milk, as the approval or disapproval of the producers who are members of or contract with the cooperative association of producers. If a cooperative association elects to vote on behalf of its members, the cooperative association shall provide each producer on whose behalf the cooperative association is expressing approval or disapproval with a description of the question presented in the referendum together with a statement of the manner in which the cooperative association intends to cast its vote on behalf of the membership. The information shall inform the producer of procedures to follow to cast an individual ballot if the producer chooses to do so within the period of time established by the secretary for casting ballots. The notification shall be made at least thirty days prior to the referendum and shall include an official ballot. The ballots shall be tabulated by the secretary and the vote of the cooperative association shall be adjusted to reflect the individual votes.

The department shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during the referendum within thirty days of the close of the referendum. If from the tabulation the department determines that a majority of the total number of producers voting in the referendum favors the proposal, the excise tax provided for in this chapter shall be continued. The ballots cast pursuant to this section constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in determinations made by the department under this chapter.

The secretary may conduct a referendum at any time after the Iowa dairy industry commission is reactivated, and shall hold a referendum on request of a representative group comprising ten percent or more of the number of producers eligible to vote, to determine whether the producers favor the termination or suspension of the excise tax. The secretary shall suspend or terminate collection of the excise tax within six months after the secretary determines that suspension or termination of the excise tax is favored by a majority of the producers voting in the referendum, and shall terminate the excise tax in an orderly manner as soon as practicable after the determination.

If the executive committee does not receive certification as a qualified state beef council it shall, if necessary to prevent collection of an excise tax on beef cattle in addition to the national assessment, suspend the collection of the excise tax provided in this chapter. If the executive committee does suspend collection of the excise tax provided in this chapter, the period of that suspension terminates upon expiration of the assessment collected pursuant to the Beef Promotion and Research Act of 1985.

The secretary, upon the request of any fifty beef producers, shall conduct an initial referendum by written ballot to determine such assent, after giving due notice of intention to conduct the referendum.

Notice of any referendum on the question of whether to initiate or extend an excise tax shall be given by publication for a period of not less than five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state and in such other newspapers as the secretary may prescribe. No referendum shall be commenced prior to five days after the last day of the period of publication. At the close of the referendum period, the secretary of agriculture shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during the referendum period. If the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the assessment, the excise tax provided in this chapter shall be assessed and levied within ninety days.

The ballots shall constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in any finding made by the secretary under the provisions of this chapter. The secretary may prescribe additional procedures as necessary to conduct a referendum.

In the event of the failure of the initial referendum, a second initial referendum may be called by producers within one hundred eighty days after the secretary's determination on the first referendum. In the event of failure of the second initial referendum to pass, no further referendums shall be conducted.

The tax shall be due at or before the time animals are first sold for purposes of slaughter, and shall be paid at a time the council may, by rule or regulation, prescribe, but not later than the last day of the month following the end of the prior reporting period in which animals are sold.

The tax shall be assessed and levied on any person selling beef cattle or veal calves for slaughter, at the time of delivery of the animals for sale, and shall be deducted by the first purchaser from the price paid to the seller. The first purchaser, at the time of sale, shall make and deliver to the producer separate invoices for each purchase, showing the name and address of the producer and the first purchaser, the number and kind of animals sold, and the date of sale.

The information that the excise tax is refundable and the address of the executive committee to which application for a refund may be made shall appear on the invoice of sale form supplied by the purchaser to the producer near the area on the form which shows the amount of the excise tax paid. The executive committee shall furnish uniform application for refund forms and envelopes properly addressed to the executive committee to each purchaser charged by this chapter with remitting the excise tax in sufficient number to make the refund forms and envelopes readily available to all producers. A purchaser charged by this chapter with remitting the excise tax shall display the application for refund forms and envelopes in a prominent position in its place of business and make them readily available to all producers.

All excise taxes imposed and levied under this chapter shall be paid to and collected by the executive committee and deposited with the treasurer of state in a separate cattle and veal calf fund which is hereby created. From the moneys collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the executive committee shall first pay the costs of referendums held pursuant hereto; the costs of collection of such excise tax, the expenses of its agents and expenses of officers provided for in section 181.5. Except as otherwise provided in section 181.19, at least thirty percent of the funds remaining thereafter shall be remitted to the national livestock and meat board and the beef industry council thereof, and at least ten percent of the remaining funds shall be remitted to the Iowa beef cattle producers association in such proportions as the committee may determine, for use by them in a manner not inconsistent with section 181.7. The remaining moneys received, with approval of a majority of the executive committee, shall be expended as found necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this chapter. The cattle and veal calf fund shall be subject at all times to warrants by the director of revenue and finance, drawn upon the written requisition of the chairperson of the executive committee and attested to by its secretary, for the payment of all expenditures of the committee, which shall, at no time, exceed the amount deposited to the credit of such fund.

All moneys deposited in the cattle and veal calf fund are appropriated for the administration of this chapter and for the payment of claims based upon obligations incurred in the performance of activities and functions set forth in this chapter.

Each producer upon signing a statement certifying that the person is a bona fide producer, as defined in this chapter, shall be entitled to one vote. At the close of the referendum period, the secretary shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during the referendum period. If from such tabulation the secretary finds that a majority of the total number of producers voting favor the assessment, the excise tax provided for in section 181.9 shall be levied and imposed for an additional four years from the end of the previous taxing period.

The ballots thus cast shall constitute complete and conclusive evidence for use in any finding made by the secretary under the provisions of this chapter. The secretary may prescribe such additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct a referendum.

In the event of the failure of any referendum provided for herein to pass, a subsequent referendum may be called by the secretary upon petition therefor by at least one hundred producers within one hundred eighty days after the secretary's determination that the prior referendum has failed. In the event of failure to make such petition within said period, or, the second consecutive failure of a referendum to pass, no further referendum shall be conducted and the levy and assessment herein created shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

If any extension referendum fails to carry, moneys remaining in the cattle and veal calf fund shall continue to be expended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter until exhausted.

181.17 Producers not members.

Every producer, even though not a member thereof, shall be entitled to vote in elections of persons to be directors of the Iowa beef cattle producers association in the same manner as if the producer were a member. Directors thus elected, shall elect from their number the officers referred to in section 181.1.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.17]

181.18 Rules.

All rules of the executive committee heretofore or hereinafter promulgated shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §181.18]

181.19 Additional referendum — period assessment effective — extension or termination.

The secretary shall, upon the petition of five hundred producers, conduct an initial referendum to determine whether an excise tax shall be collected, at a rate established by the executive committee, of not to exceed fifty cents per head on all beef cattle sold for slaughter and not to exceed thirty-five cents per head on all veal calves sold for slaughter and on all sales of beef cattle for any other purpose.

The initial referendum and subsequent referendums for extension of such excise tax shall be conducted under the provisions of sections 181.9 and 181.10, as nearly as may be. Upon determination by the secretary that assent to the assessment has been given, there shall be assessed and levied an excise tax on each sale in the amount provided in this section. The tax shall be due at or before the time the animals are sold and shall be paid at a time prescribed by the council, but not later than the last day of the month following the end of the prior reporting period in which the animals are sold.

The tax shall be assessed and levied on any person selling beef cattle or veal calves and shall be deducted by the purchaser from the price paid to the seller. The purchaser, at the time of the sale, shall make and deliver to the seller separate invoices for each sale showing the names and addresses of the seller and the purchaser, the number and kinds of animals sold, whether sold for slaughter or feeding, and the date of sale.

On the date of the effective period for the collection of the excise tax provided for in this section, any excise tax being assessed and levied under section 181.11 shall terminate during any period for which any excise tax provided for in this section shall be in effect. The provisions of sections 181.12, 181.13, 181.14, 181.15 and 181.16 shall also be applicable to the tax provided for in this section, as nearly as may be. Notwithstanding the provisions in section 181.13 to the contrary, at least fifteen percent of the funds collected from an excise tax assessed and levied under the provisions of this section shall be remitted to the national livestock and meat board and the beef industry council thereof, after first paying the costs and expenses referred to in section 181.13.

An assessment adopted following the initial referendum shall be effective for four years from its effective date and shall be either extended or terminated as provided in this section.

Upon receipt of a petition not less than one hundred fifty nor more than two hundred forty days from a four-year anniversary of the effective date of the assessment, signed within that same period by a number of producers equal to or greater than two percent of the number of producers reported in the most recent United States census of agriculture, requesting a referendum to determine whether to extend the assessment, the secretary shall call a referendum to be conducted not earlier than thirty days before the four-year anniversary date. If the secretary determines that extension of the assessment is not favored by a majority of the producers voting in the referendum, the secretary and the board shall terminate the assessment in an orderly manner as soon as practicable after the determination.

If no valid petition for extension is received by the secretary within the time period described above, or if a petition is received but the referendum to extend the assessment passes, the assessment shall continue in effect for four additional years from the anniversary of its effective date described above.

which contain meat or other portions of such carcasses only in a relatively small proportion or historically have not been considered by consumers as products of the meat food industry, and which are exempted from definition as a meat food product by the secretary under such conditions as the secretary may prescribe to assure that the meat or other portions of such carcass contained in such product are not adulterated and that such products are not represented as meat food products. This term as applied to food products of equines shall have a meaning comparable to that provided in this paragraph with respect to cattle, sheep, swine, and goats.

11. "Poultry" means any domesticated bird, whether live or dead.

12. "Poultry product" means any poultry carcass or part thereof, or any product which is made wholly or in part from any poultry carcass or part thereof, excepting products which contain poultry ingredients only in a relatively small proportion or historically have not been considered by consumers as products of the poultry food industry, and which are exempted by the secretary from definition as a poultry product under such conditions as the secretary may prescribe to assure that the poultry ingredients in such products are not adulterated and that such products are not represented as poultry products.

13. "Capable of use as human food" shall apply to any livestock or poultry carcass, or part or product of any such carcass, unless it is denatured or otherwise identified as required by regulations prescribed by the secretary to deter its use as human food, or it is naturally inedible by humans.

14. "Prepared" means slaughtered, canned, salted, stuffed, rendered, boned, cut up, or otherwise manufactured or processed.

15. "Adulterated" shall apply to any livestock product or poultry product under any one or more of the following circumstances:

a. If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; but in case the substance is not an added substance such article shall not be considered adulterated under this clause if the quantity of such substance in or on such article does not ordinarily render it injurious to health.

b. (1) If it bears or contains, by reason of administration of any substance to the livestock or poultry or otherwise, any added poisonous or deleterious substance, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity; a food additive; or a color additive, which may, in the judgment of the secretary, make such article unfit for human food.

(2) If it is, in whole or in part, a raw agricultural commodity and such commodity bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(3) If it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(4) If it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 706 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act; however, an article which is not otherwise deemed adulterated under subparagraph (2), (3), or (4) of this paragraph shall nevertheless be deemed adulterated if use of the pesticide chemical, food additive, or color additive in or on such article is prohibited by regulations of the secretary in official establishments.

c. If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance or is for any other reason unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food.

d. If it has been prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health.

e. If it is, in whole or in part, the product of an animal, including poultry, which has died otherwise than by slaughter.

f. If its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health.

g. If it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with a regulation or exemption in effect pursuant to section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

h. If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom; or if any substance has been substituted, wholly or in part therefor; or if damage or inferiority has been concealed in any manner; or if any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength, or make it appear better or of greater value than it is.

i. If it is margarine containing animal fat and any of the raw material used therein consisted in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance.

16. "Misbranded" shall apply to any livestock product or poultry product under any one or more of the following circumstances:

a. If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular.

b. If it is offered for sale under the name of another food.

c. If it is an imitation of another food, unless its label bears, in type of uniform size and prominence, the word "imitation", and immediately thereafter the name of the food imitated.

d. If its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading.

e. Unless it bears a label showing both:

(1) The name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor.

(2) An accurate statement of the quantity of the product in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count; however, under this paragraph, exemptions as to livestock products not in containers may be established by regulations prescribed by the secretary, and under this subparagraph reasonable variations may be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages may be established for livestock products or poultry products by regulations prescribed by the secretary.

f. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or other labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness, as compared with other words, statements, designs, or devices in the labeling, and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

g If it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a definition and standard of identity or composition has been prescribed by the regulations of the secretary under section 189A 7, unless it conforms to such definition and standard and its label bears the name of the food specified in the definition and standard and, insofar as may be required by such regulations, the common names of optional ingredients, other than spices, flavoring, and coloring, present in such food

h If it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a standard or standards of fill of container have been prescribed by regulations of the secretary under section 189A 7, and it falls below the standard of fill of container applicable thereto, unless its label bears, in such manner and form as such regulations specify, a statement that it falls below such standard

i If it is not subject to the provisions of paragraph "g" of this subsection, unless its label bears both

(1) The common or usual name of the food, if any

(2) In case it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the common or usual name of each such ingredient, except that spices, flavorings, and colorings may, when authorized by the secretary, be designated as spices, flavorings, and colorings without naming each, however, to the extent that compliance with the requirements of this subparagraph is impracticable, or results in deception or unfair competition, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the secretary

j If it purports to be or is represented for special dietary uses, unless its label bears such information concerning its vitamin, mineral, and other dietary properties as the secretary, after consultation with the secretary of agriculture of the United States, determines to be and by regulations prescribes as necessary in order to fully inform purchasers as to its value for such uses

k If it bears or contains any artificial flavoring, artificial coloring, or chemical preservative, unless it bears labeling stating that fact, however, to the extent that compliance with the requirements of this paragraph is impracticable, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the secretary

l If it fails to bear, directly thereon and on its containers, as the secretary may by regulations prescribe, the official inspection legend and establishment number of the establishment where the product was prepared and, unrestricted by any of the foregoing, such other information as the secretary may require in such regulations to assure that it will not have false or misleading labeling and that the public will be informed of the manner of handling required to maintain the article in a wholesome condition

The funds shall be deposited with the department. The license year shall be from July 1 to June 30. Applications for licenses shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the department.

It is the objective of this chapter to provide for meat and poultry products inspection programs that will impose and enforce requirements with respect to intrastate operations and commerce that are at least equal to those imposed and enforced under the federal Meat Inspection Act and the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act with respect to operations and transactions in interstate commerce; and the secretary is directed to administer this chapter so as to accomplish this purpose. A director of the meat and poultry inspection service shall be designated as the secretary's delegate to be the appropriate state official to co-operate with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in administration of this chapter.

In order to accomplish the objectives of this chapter, the secretary may exempt the following types of operations from inspection:

1. Slaughtering and preparation by any person of livestock and poultry of the person's own raising exclusively for use by the person and members of the person's household, and the person's nonpaying guests and employees.

2. Any other operations which the secretary may determine would best be exempted to further the purposes of this chapter, to the extent such exemptions conform to the federal Meat Inspection Act and the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act and the regulations thereunder.

189A.5 Veterinarians and inspectors.

The secretary shall administer this chapter and shall employ veterinarians to administer this chapter and veterinarians licensed in the state of Iowa as veterinary inspectors. The secretary is also authorized to employ as meat inspectors other persons who have qualified and are skilled in the inspection of meat and poultry products and any other additional employees the secretary deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The meat inspectors shall be under the supervision of a veterinary inspector. The secretary may also enter into contracts with qualified individuals to perform inspection services as the secretary may designate for a fee per head or per unit volume to be determined by the secretary provided such persons are not employed in the establishment in which the inspection takes place. The secretary may utilize any employee, agent, or equipment of the department in the enforcement of this chapter, and may assign to inspectors other duties related to the acceptance of meat and poultry products.

In order to accomplish the objectives stated in section 189A.3 the secretary shall:

1. By regulations require antemortem and postmortem inspections, quarantine, segregation, and reinspections with respect to the slaughter of livestock and poultry and the preparation of livestock products and poultry products at all establishments in this state, except those exempted by section 189A.4, at which livestock or poultry are slaughtered or livestock or poultry products are prepared for human food solely for distribution in intrastate commerce.

2. By regulations require the identification of livestock and poultry for inspection purposes and the marking and labeling of livestock products or poultry products or their containers, or both, as "Iowa Inspected and Passed" if the products are found upon inspection to be not adulterated, and as "Iowa Inspected and Condemned" if they are found upon inspection to be adulterated; and the destruction for food purposes of all such condemned products under the supervision of an inspector.

3. Prohibit the entry into official establishments of livestock products and poultry products not prepared under federal inspection or inspection pursuant to this chapter and further limit the entry of such articles and other materials into such establishments under such conditions as the secretary deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

4. By regulations require that when livestock products and poultry products leave official establishments they shall bear directly thereon or on their containers, or both, all information required by subsection 16 of section 189A.2; and require approval of all labeling and containers to be used for such products when sold or transported in intrastate commerce to assure that they comply with the requirements of this chapter.

5. Investigate the sanitary conditions of each establishment within subsection 1 of this section and withdraw or otherwise refuse to provide inspection service at any such establishment where the sanitary conditions are such as to render adulterated any livestock products or poultry products prepared or handled thereat.

6. Prescribe regulations relating to sanitation for all establishments required to have inspection under subsection 1 of this section.

7. By regulations require that both of the following classes of persons shall keep such records and for such periods as are specified in the regulations to fully and correctly disclose all transactions involved in their business, and to afford the secretary and the secretary's representatives, including representatives of other governmental agencies designated by the secretary, access to such places of business, and opportunity at all reasonable times to examine the facilities, inventory, and records thereof, to copy the records, and to take reasonable samples of the inventory upon payment of the fair market value therefor:

a. Any person that engages in or for intrastate commerce in the business of slaughtering any livestock or poultry, or preparing, freezing, packaging or labeling, buying or selling, as a broker, wholesaler, or otherwise, transporting, or storing any livestock products or poultry products for human or animal food.

b. Any person that engages in or for intrastate commerce in business as a renderer or in the business of buying, selling, or transporting any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or parts of the carcasses of any such animals, including poultry, that died otherwise than by slaughter.

[C66, §170.20, 189A.5, 189A.7, 189A.8, 189A.10; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §189A.5]

189A.6 Health examination of employees.

The operator of any establishment shall require all employees of such establishment to have a health examination by a physician and a certified health certificate for each employee shall be kept on file by the operator. The secretary may at any time require an employee of an establishment to submit to a health examination by a physician. No person suffering from any communicable disease, including any communicable skin disease, and no person with infected wounds, and no person who is a "carrier" of a communicable disease shall be employed in any capacity in an establishment. No person shall work or be employed in or about any establishment during the time in which a communicable disease exists in the home in which such person resides unless such person has obtained a certificate from a physician to the effect that no danger of public contagion or infection will result from the employment of such person in such establishment. Every person employed by an establishment and engaged in direct physical contact with meat or poultry products during its preparation, processing, or storage, shall be clean in person, wear clean washable outer garments and a suitable cap or other head covering used exclusively in such work. Only persons specifically designated by the operator of an establishment shall be permitted to touch meat or poultry products with their hands, and the persons so designated shall keep their hands scrupulously clean.

189A.7 Powers of secretary of agriculture.

In order to accomplish the objective stated in section 189A.3 the secretary may:

1. Remove inspectors from any establishment that fails to destroy condemned products as required under section 189A.5, subsection 2.

2. Refuse to provide inspection service under this chapter with respect to any establishment for causes specified in section 401 of the federal Meat Inspection Act or section 18 of the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act.

3. Order labeling and containers to be withheld from use if the secretary determines that the labeling is false or misleading or the containers are of a misleading size or form.

4. By regulations prescribe the sizes and style of type to be used for labeling information required under this chapter, and definitions and standards of identity or composition or standards of fill of container, consistent with federal standards, when the secretary deems such action appropriate for the protection of the public and after consultation with the secretary of agriculture of the United States.

5. By regulations prescribe conditions of storage and handling of livestock products and poultry products by persons engaged in the business of buying, selling, freezing, storing, or transporting such articles in or for intrastate commerce to assure that such articles will not be adulterated or misbranded when delivered to the consumer.

6. Require that equines be slaughtered and prepared in establishments separate from establishments where other livestock are slaughtered or their products are prepared.

7. By regulations require that every person engaged in business in or for intrastate commerce as a broker, renderer, animal food manufacturer, or wholesaler or public warehouse of livestock or poultry products, or engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transporting in intrastate commerce any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or parts of the carcasses of any such animals, including poultry, that died otherwise than by slaughter shall register with the secretary the person's name and the address of each place of business at which and all trade names under which the person conducts such business.

8. Adopt by reference or otherwise such provisions of the rules and regulations under the federal Acts, with such changes therein as the secretary deems appropriate to make them applicable to operations and transactions subject to this chapter, which shall have the same force and effect as if promulgated under this chapter, and promulgate such other rules and regulations as the secretary deems necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter, including rules of practice providing opportunity for hearing in connection with issuance of orders under section 189A.5, subsection 5, and subsection 1, 2, or 3 of this section and prescribing procedures for proceedings in such cases; however, this shall not preclude a requirement that a label or container be withheld from use, or a refusal of inspection pursuant to the sections cited herein pending issuance of a final order in any such proceeding.

9. Appoint and prescribe the duties of such inspectors and other personnel as the secretary deems necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter.

10. Co-operate with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in administration of this chapter to effectuate the purposes stated in section 189A.3; accept federal assistance for that purpose and spend public funds of this state appropriated for administration of this chapter to pay the state's proportionate share of the estimated total cost of the co-operative program.

11. Recommend to the secretary of agriculture of the United States for appointment to the advisory committees provided for in the federal Acts, such officials or employees of the Iowa meat and poultry inspection service as the secretary shall designate.

12. Serve as a representative of the governor for consultation with said secretary under paragraph "c" of section 301 of the federal Meat Inspection Act and paragraph "c" of section 5 of the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act unless the governor selects another representative.

189A.8 Prohibited acts.

1. No person shall sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, any carcasses of horses, mules, or other equines or parts of such carcasses, or the meat or meat food products thereof, unless they are plainly and conspicuously marked or labeled or otherwise identified as required by regulations prescribed by the secretary to show the kinds of animals from which they were derived.

2. No person shall buy, sell, transport, or offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation, in intrastate commerce, any livestock products or poultry products which are not intended for use as human food unless they are denatured or otherwise identified as required by the regulations of the secretary or are naturally inedible by humans.

3. No person engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transporting in intrastate commerce, dead, dying, disabled, or diseased animals, or any parts of the carcasses of any animals that died otherwise than by slaughter, shall buy, sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in such commerce, any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry or the products of any such animals that died otherwise than by slaughter, unless such transaction or transportation is made in accordance with such regulations as the secretary may prescribe to assure that such animals, or the unwholesome parts or products thereof, will be prevented from being used for human food purposes.

189A.9 Hours of operation.

The secretary may require operations at licensed establishments to be conducted during reasonable hours. The owner or operator of each licensed establishment shall keep the secretary informed in advance of intended hours of operation.

A charge shall be made for overtime inspection in excess of eight hours per day or outside assigned work schedules and also on state legal holidays.

189A.10 Compliance required.

1. No person shall, with respect to any livestock or poultry or any livestock products or poultry products, do any of the following:

a. Slaughter any such animals or prepare any such articles which are capable of use as human food, at any establishment preparing such articles solely for intrastate commerce, except in compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

b. Sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, any such articles which are both:

(1) Capable of use as human food.

(2) Adulterated or misbranded at the time of such sale, transportation, offer for sale or transportation, or receipt for transportation; or any articles required to be inspected under this chapter unless they have been so inspected and passed.

c. With respect to any such articles which are capable of use as human food, any act while they are being transported in intrastate commerce or held for sale after such transportation, which is intended to cause or has the effect of causing such articles to be adulterated or misbranded.

2. No person shall sell, transport, offer for sale or transportation, or receive for transportation in intrastate commerce, or from an official establishment, any slaughtered poultry from which the blood, feathers, feet, head, or viscera have not been removed in accordance with regulations promulgated by the secretary except as may be authorized by such regulations.

3. No person shall violate any provision of the regulations or orders of the secretary under section 189A.5, subsection 7, or section 189A.7.

189A.11 Access by inspectors — acceptance by state agencies.

No person shall deny access to any authorized inspectors upon the presentation of proper identification at any reasonable time to establishments and to all parts of such premises for the purposes of making inspections under this chapter.

When meat has been inspected and approved by the department, such inspection will be equal to federal inspection and therefore may be accepted by state agencies and political subdivisions of the state and no other inspection can be required.

1. No inspection of products placed in any container at any official establishment shall be deemed to be complete until the products are sealed or enclosed therein under the supervision of an inspector.

189A.12 Seizure, detention and determination.

Whenever any livestock or poultry product or any product exempted from the definition of a livestock or poultry product, or any dead, dying, disabled, or diseased livestock or poultry is found by any authorized representative of the secretary upon any premises where it is held for purposes of, or during or after distribution in, intrastate commerce or is otherwise subject to this chapter, and there is reason to believe that any such article is adulterated or misbranded and is capable of use as human food, or that it has not been inspected in violation of the provisions of this chapter, the federal Meat Inspection Act, the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act, or the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or that such article or animal has been or is intended to be distributed in violation of any such provisions, it may be detained by such representative for a period not to exceed twenty days, pending action under this section or notification of any federal authorities having jurisdiction over such article or animal, and shall not be moved by any person from the place at which it is located when so detained until released by such representative. All official marks may be required by such representative to be removed from such article or animal before it is released unless it appears to the satisfaction of the secretary that the article or animal is eligible to retain such marks.

If such article or animal is condemned it shall, after entry of the decree, be disposed of by destruction or sale as the court may direct and any proceeds, less the court costs and fees, storage fees, and other proper expenses, shall be paid into the treasury of this state, but the article or animal shall not be sold contrary to the provisions of this chapter, the federal Meat Inspection Act, the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act, or the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act; however, upon the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that the article or animal shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the laws of the United States, the court may direct that such article or animal be delivered to the owner thereof subject to such supervision by authorized representatives of the secretary as is necessary to insure compliance with the applicable laws. When a decree of condemnation is entered against the article or animal and it is released under bond or destroyed, court costs and fees, storage fees, and other proper expenses shall be awarded against any person intervening as claimant of the article or animal. The proceedings in such cases shall be held without a jury, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in any case, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit of and in the name of this state.

2. The provisions of this section shall in no way derogate from authority for condemnation or seizure conferred by other provisions of this chapter or other applicable laws.

192.11 Grade "A" exclusively to be sold.

Only grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products shall be sold to the final consumer, or to restaurants, soda fountains, grocery stores, or similar establishments; except in an emergency, the sale of pasteurized milk and milk products which have not been graded, or the grade of which is unknown, may be authorized by the secretary, in which case, such products shall be labeled "ungraded".

No person shall within the state produce, provide, sell, offer, or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any milk or milk product which is adulterated or misbranded; except, in an emergency, the sale of pasteurized milk and milk products which have not been graded, or the grade of which is unknown, may be authorized by the secretary, in which case such products shall be labeled "ungraded".

Any adulterated or misbranded milk or milk product may be impounded by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation and disposed of in accordance with applicable laws or regulations.

Each dairy farm, milk plant, receiving station, and transfer station whose milk or milk products are intended for consumption as grade "A" pasteurized milk and milk products shall be inspected by the secretary prior to the issuance of the permit provided for in section 192.5. However, if any municipal corporation makes application to the secretary for authority to conduct such inspections, the secretary, upon finding that such municipal corporation has qualified personnel to perform the same, shall enter into agreements with the municipal corporation providing for such inspection. Inspection by either the secretary or approved municipal corporation shall be acceptable for issuance of such permit by the secretary or municipal corporation.

When inspections are conducted and permits are issued by a municipal corporation under this chapter, in a manner which the secretary deems consistent with the provisions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191, as evidenced by the annual survey by the Iowa department of public health provided for in section 192.31, the secretary shall accept such procedures in lieu of administration of the provisions of said chapters by the state, within the jurisdiction involved. In the event the survey required in section 192.31 indicates that a municipal corporation is acting in a manner which is inconsistent with the provisions of said chapters, the secretary may revoke the agreement with the municipal corporation after notice and hearing, in the manner described for permit revocation in section 192.5 and perform such acts as are necessary to regulate grade "A" milk and milk products in such jurisdiction in conformity herewith.

Following the issuance of such permit, each dairy farm and transfer station shall be inspected at least once every six months and each milk plant and receiving station shall be inspected at least once every three months. Should the violation of any requirement set forth in sections 192.19 through 192.25 be found to exist, a second inspection shall be required after the time deemed necessary to remedy the violation, but not before three days from the previous inspection. The reinspection shall be used to determine compliance with the requirements of said sections. Any violation of the same requirement of said sections on such reinspection shall call for permit suspension in accordance with section 192.5 or court action or both.

One copy of the inspection report shall be handed to the operator, or other responsible person, or be posted in a conspicuous place on an inside wall of the establishment. The inspection report shall not be defaced and shall be made available to the secretary upon request. An identical copy of the inspection report shall be filed with the records of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation.

192.12 Access to premises.

Every milk producer, hauler, distributor, or plant operator shall, upon request of the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, permit access of officially designated persons to all parts of the establishment or facilities to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter and chapters 190 and 191. A distributor or plant operator shall furnish the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, upon request, for official use only, a true statement of the actual quantities of milk and milk products of each grade purchased and sold, and a list of all sources of such milk and milk products, records of inspections, tests, and pasteurization time and temperature records.

192.13 Trade secrets protected.

It shall be unlawful for any person who in an official capacity obtains any information under the provisions of this chapter or chapter 191 which is entitled to protection as a trade secret, including information as to quantity, quality, source or disposition of milk or milk products, or results of inspections or tests thereof, to use such information to the person's own advantage or to reveal it to any unauthorized person.

192.14 Samples to be taken periodically.

During any consecutive six months, at least four samples of raw milk for pasteurization shall be taken from each producer having a permit as defined in section 192.5 and four samples of raw milk for pasteurization shall be taken from each milk plant having such a permit after receipt of the milk by the milk plant and prior to pasteurization. In addition, during any consecutive six months, at least four samples of pasteurized milk and at least four samples of each milk product defined in this chapter and chapters 190 and 191 shall be taken from every such milk plant. Such samples of milk and milk products shall be taken while in possession of the producer or distributor at any time prior to final delivery. Samples of milk and milk products from dairy retail stores, restaurants and food establishments as defined in chapter 170, grocery stores, vending machines, and other places where milk and milk products are sold shall be examined periodically as determined by the secretary or authorized municipal corporation and the results of such examination shall be used to determine compliance with sections 190.5, 191.2, subsections 5 to 9, inclusive, 192.11, 192.23, 192.24 and 192.25. Proprietors of such establishments shall furnish the secretary or authorized municipal corporation, upon their request, with the names of all the distributors from whom milk or milk products are obtained.

The notice shall be in effect so long as two of the last four consecutive samples exceed the limit of the standard. An additional sample shall be taken within fourteen days of the sending of such notice, but not before the lapse of three days from the previous sampling. Immediate suspension of permit in accordance with section 192.5 or court action or both shall be instituted whenever the standard is violated by three of the last five bacteria counts, coliform determinations, or cooling temperatures.

192A.2 Division of dairy trade practices.

The secretary of agriculture is hereby entrusted with the administration and enforcement of this chapter. There is hereby created in the department of agriculture and land stewardship a division to be known as the "Division of Dairy Trade Practices". The head of the division shall be the "Chief of the Division of Dairy Trade Practices". All powers of the secretary under this chapter may be exercised by and through the chief of the division of dairy trade practices. The secretary shall employ such professional and other personnel as, in the secretary's judgment, shall be necessary to the proper performance of the secretary's duties hereunder.

192A.3 Unlawful discrimination.

It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in business within the state of Iowa, either directly or indirectly, to discriminate in price between different purchasers of dairy products of like grade and quality where the effect of such discrimination may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either the grantor or receiver. Nothing herein shall prevent:

1. Differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which dairy products are sold or delivered to purchasers or differentials otherwise permitted in this chapter.

2. Persons engaged in selling dairy products from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions are not in restraint of trade.

3. Price changes from time to time in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of dairy products such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in dairy products.

4. Price differentials made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter.

192A.4 Unlawful price differentials.

It shall be unlawful for any person to discriminate in price by selling or offering to sell any dairy product to any purchaser in the state of Iowa at prices lower than those exacted by such persons elsewhere in the state for the purpose or with the effect of injuring competition or tending to create a monopoly; provided however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent price differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of sale or transportation resulting from differing methods or quantities in which such dairy products are sold or transported to such purchasers; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent sales made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, whether the price of the competitor is in compliance with or in violation of this chapter.

192A.5 Minimum price agreements unlawful.

It shall be unlawful for any processor, distributor, or retailer to engage in the following practice:

To enter into any agreement or contract with any other person for the establishment or maintenance of minimum prices of dairy products in restraint of trade and for the purpose of eliminating free and open competition in the sale of dairy products.

192A.6 Discounts or rebates.

No processor or distributor shall give or extend discounts or rebates, directly or indirectly, to retailers or other processors or distributors on dairy products or give or extend to such purchasers any services connected with the delivery, handling or stocking of such products except as provided in this chapter. A processor or distributor may provide services to a particular processor, distributor, or retailer or may sell dairy products at a price necessary to meet a bona fide offer by a competitor. The service or discount shall not be given until the processor or distributor first files with the department a written record of the date and terms of the competitive offer, the name of the processor, distributor, or retailer to whom the offer was made, and the name of the competitor who made the offer. Any such record filed with the department shall be used only for determining or verifying proof of violations of this chapter.

Distributors who offer dairy products for sale to consumers on home delivery routes shall include on such price lists filed with the department, the different prices established for dairy products offered for sale to such consumers. Within thirty days after July 4, 1965, every distributor shall file with the department its initial price schedules and schedules of discounts and rebates and thereafter, every distributor shall charge its prices in accordance with its schedule on file with the department until such price schedule is changed as hereinafter provided. Before any distributor may make any change in its price schedule and prices charged, it shall give notice by certified mail to the department setting forth its new schedule of prices or new schedule of discounts and rebates prior to the effective date of any change in such schedule on file with the department (except that where prices are changed in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, notice to the department of the new schedule of prices shall be given within two business days after such change). The initial filing of schedules or any new schedules shall be filed with the department either in person or by certified mail. Price lists filed with the department shall be used only for determining and proving violations of this chapter. 198.7 Adulteration.

A commercial feed shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. a. If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; but in case the substance is not an added substance, such commercial feed shall not be considered adulterated under this subsection if the quantity of such substance in such commercial feed does not ordinarily render it injurious to health.

b. If it bears or contains any added poisonous, added deleterious, or added nonnutritive substance which is unsafe within the meaning of section 406 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity or a food additive.

c. If it is, or it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 409 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

d. If it is a raw agricultural commodity and it bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408, subparagraph "a" of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, provided, that where a pesticide chemical has been used in or on a raw agricultural commodity in conformity with an exemption granted or a tolerance prescribed under section 408 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and such raw agricultural commodity has been subjected to processing such as canning, cooking, freezing, dehydrating or milling, the residue of such pesticide chemical remaining in or on such processed feed shall not be deemed unsafe if such residue in or on the raw agricultural commodity has been removed to the extent possible in good manufacturing practice and the concentration of such residue in the processed feed is not greater than the tolerance prescribed for the raw agriculture commodity unless the feeding of such processed feed will result or is likely to result in a pesticide residue in the edible product of the animal, which is unsafe within the meaning of section 408, subparagraph "a" of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

e. If it is, or it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 706 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

2. If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom or any less valuable substance substituted therefor.

3. If its composition or quality falls below or differs from that which it is purported or is represented to possess by its labeling.

4. If it contains a drug and the methods used in or the facilities or controls used for its manufacture, processing, or packaging do not conform to current good manufacturing practice rules promulgated by the secretary to assure that the drug meets the requirement of this chapter as to safety and has the identity and strength and meets the quality and purity characteristics which it purports or is represented to possess.

In promulgating such rules, the secretary shall adopt the current good manufacturing practice regulations for medicated feed premixes and for medicated feeds established under authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, unless the secretary determines that they are not appropriate to the conditions which exist in this state.

5. If it contains viable weed seeds in amounts exceeding the limits which the secretary shall establish by rule.

[S13, §5077-a13; C24, 27, 31, 35, §3114-d2, 3126; C39, §3114.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §198.4, 198.13; C66, 71, 73, §198.8; C75, 77, 79, 81, §198.7]

198.8 Prohibited acts.

It shall be unlawful for any person to:

1. Manufacture or distribute any commercial feed that is adulterated or misbranded.

2. Adulterate or misbrand any commercial feed.

3. Distribute agricultural commodities such as whole seed, hay, straw, stover, silage, cobs, husks and hulls, which are adulterated within the meaning of section 198.7, subsection 1.

4. Remove or dispose of a commercial feed in violation of an order under section 198.12.

5. Fail or refuse to register in accordance with section 198.4.

6. Violate section 198.13, subsection 6.

7. Fail to pay inspection fees and file reports as required by section 198.9.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §198.8]

198.9 Inspection fees and reports.

1. An inspection fee to be fixed annually by the secretary, at the rate of no more than twelve cents per ton shall be paid on commercial feeds distributed in this state, by the person who distributes the commercial feed to the consumer, subject to the following:

a. A fee shall not be paid on a commercial feed if the payment has been made by a previous distributor.

b. A fee shall not be paid on customer-formula feeds if the inspection fee is paid on the commercial feeds which are used as ingredients therein.

c. A fee shall not be paid on commercial feeds which are used as ingredients for the manufacture of commercial feeds which are registered. If the fee has already been paid, credit shall be given for such payment.

d. In the case of a commercial feed which is distributed in the state only in packages of ten pounds or less, an annual fee of twenty-five dollars, shall be paid in lieu of the inspection fee specified above.

e. The minimum inspection fee shall be a semiannual fee of ten dollars.

f. In the case of specialty pet food, which is distributed in the state in packages of one pound or less, an annual fee of twenty-five dollars shall be paid in lieu of an inspection fee.

2. Each person who is liable for the payment of such fee shall:

a. File, not later than the last day of January and July of each year a semiannual statement, setting forth the number of net tons of commercial feeds distributed in this state during the preceding six months and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in subsection 1. Inspection fees which are due and owing and have not been remitted to the secretary within fifteen days following the due date shall have a delinquency fee of ten percent or five dollars, whichever is greater, added to the amount due when payment is finally made. The assessment of this delinquency fee shall not prevent the department from taking other actions as provided in this chapter.

b. Keep such records as may be necessary or required by the secretary to indicate accurately the tonnage of commercial feed distributed in this state, and the secretary shall have the right to examine such records to verify statements of tonnage.

Failure to make an accurate statement of tonnage or to pay the inspection fee or comply as provided herein shall constitute sufficient cause for the cancellation of all registrations on file for the distributor.

3. Fees collected shall constitute a fund for the payment of the costs of inspection, sampling, analysis, supportive research and other expenses necessary for the administration of this chapter.

If there is an unencumbered balance of funds in the commercial feed fund on June 30 of any fiscal year equal to or exceeding three hundred fifty thousand dollars, the secretary of agriculture shall reduce the per ton fee provided for in subsection 1 for the next fiscal year in such amount as will result in an ending estimated balance for June 30 of the next fiscal year of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

198.10 Rules.

1. The secretary may promulgate such rules for commercial feeds and pet foods as are specifically authorized in this chapter and such other reasonable rules as may be necessary for the efficient enforcement of this chapter. In the interest of uniformity the secretary shall by rule adopt, unless the secretary determines that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or are not appropriate to conditions which exist in this state, the following:

a. The official definitions of feed ingredients and official feed terms adopted by the Association of American Feed Control Officials and published in the official publication of that organization, and

b. Any rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, U.S.C. section 301, et seq., provided, that the secretary would have the authority under this chapter to promulgate such rules.

2. Before the issuance, amendment or repeal of any rule authorized by this chapter, the secretary shall publish the proposed rule, amendment, or notice to repeal an existing rule in a manner reasonably calculated to give interested parties, including all current registrants, adequate notice and shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing, within a reasonable period of time. After consideration of all views presented by interested persons, the secretary shall take appropriate action to issue the proposed rule or to amend or repeal an existing rule. The provisions of this subsection notwithstanding, if the secretary, pursuant to the authority of this chapter, adopts the official definitions of feed ingredients or official feed terms as adopted by the Association of American Feed Control Officials, or rules promulgated pursuant to the authority of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, any amendment or modification adopted by said association or by the secretary of health, education and welfare in the case of regulations promulgated pursuant to the federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, shall be adopted automatically under this chapter without regard to publication of the notice required by this subsection, unless the secretary, by order specifically determines that said amendment or modification shall not be adopted.

198.11 Inspection, sampling and analysis.

1. For the purpose of enforcement of this chapter, and in order to determine whether its provisions have been complied with, including whether or not any operations may be subject to such provisions, officers or employees duly designated by the secretary, upon presenting appropriate credentials, and a written notice to the owner, operator or agent in charge, are authorized:

a. To enter, during normal business hours, any factory, warehouse or establishment within the state in which commercial feeds are manufactured, processed, packed or held for distribution, or to enter any vehicle being used to transport or hold such feed.

b. To inspect at reasonable times and within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, such factory, warehouse, establishment or vehicle and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished materials, containers and labeling therein. The inspection may include the verification of only such records, and production and control procedures as may be necessary to determine compliance with the good manufacturing practice regulations established under section 198.7, subsection 4.

2. A separate notice shall be given for each such inspection, but a notice shall not be required for each entry made during the period covered by the inspection. Each such inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness. Upon completion of the inspection, the person in charge of the facility or vehicle shall be so notified.

3. If the officer or employee making such inspection of a factory, warehouse or other establishment has obtained a sample in the course of the inspection, upon completion of the inspection and prior to leaving the premises the officer or employee shall give to the owner, operator or agent in charge a receipt describing the samples obtained.

4. If the owner of any factory, warehouse, or establishment described in subsection 1, or the owner's agent, refuses to admit the secretary or the secretary's agent to inspect in accordance with subsections 1 and 2, the secretary may obtain from any state court a warrant directing such owner or the owner's agent to submit the premises described in such warrant to inspection.

5. For the purpose of the enforcement of this chapter, the secretary or the secretary's duly designated agent is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises including any vehicle of transport during regular business hours to have access to, and to obtain samples, and to examine records relating to distribution of commercial feeds.

6. Sampling and analysis shall be conducted in accordance with methods published by the association of official analytical chemists, or in accordance with other generally recognized methods.

7. The results of all analyses of official samples shall be forwarded by the secretary to the person named on the label. When the inspection and analysis of an official sample indicates a commercial feed has been adulterated or misbranded and upon request within thirty days following receipt of the analysis the secretary shall furnish to the registrant a portion of the sample concerned.

8. The secretary, in determining for administrative purposes whether a commercial feed is deficient in any component, shall be guided by the official sample as defined in section 198.3, subsection 15, and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsections 3, 5 and 6.

198.12 Detained commercial feeds.

1. When the secretary or the secretary's authorized agent has reasonable cause to believe any lot of commercial feed is being distributed in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any of the prescribed rules under this chapter, the secretary or agent may issue and enforce a written or printed "withdrawal from distribution" order, warning the distributor not to dispose of the lot of commercial feed in any manner until written permission is given by the secretary or the court. The secretary shall release the lot of commercial feed so withdrawn when said provisions and rules have been complied with. If compliance is not obtained within thirty days, the secretary may begin, or upon request of the distributor or registrant shall begin, proceedings for condemnation.

2. Any lot of commercial feed not in compliance with said provisions and rules shall be subject to seizure on complaint of the secretary to a court of competent jurisdiction in the area in which said commercial feed is located. In the event the court finds the said commercial feed to be in violation of this chapter and order the condemnation of said commercial feed, it shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the quality of the commercial feed and the laws of the state, provided, that in no instance shall the disposition of said commercial feed be ordered by the court without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for release of said commercial feed or for permission to process or relabel said commercial feed to bring it into compliance with this chapter.

198.13 Penalties.

1. Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this chapter or who shall impede, hinder or otherwise prevent, or attempt to prevent, said secretary or the secretary's authorized agent in performance of that person's duty in connection with the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or the secretary's representative to:

- a. Report for prosecution.
- b. Institute seizure proceedings.

c. Issue a withdrawal from distribution order, as a result of minor violations of the chapter, or when the secretary or representative believes the public interest will best be served by suitable notice of warning in writing.

3. It shall be the duty of each county attorney to whom any violation is reported to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay. Before the secretary reports a violation for such prosecution, an opportunity shall be given the distributor to present the distributor's view to the secretary.

4. The secretary may apply for and the court may grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule promulgated under the chapter notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law. If granted, the injunction shall be issued without bond.

5. Any person adversely affected by an act, order, or ruling made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may within forty-five days thereafter bring action in the district court for judicial review of such actions. The form of the proceeding shall be any which may be provided by statutes of this state to review decisions of administrative agencies, or in the absence or inadequacy thereof, any applicable form of legal action, including actions for declaratory judgments or writs or prohibitory or mandatory injunctions.

6. Any person who uses to the person's own advantage, or reveals to other than the secretary, or officers of the department or to the courts when relevant in any judicial proceeding, any information acquired under the authority of this chapter, concerning any method, records, formulations or processes which as a trade secret is entitled to protection, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor. This prohibition shall not be deemed as prohibiting the secretary, or the secretary's duly authorized agent, from exchanging information of a regulatory nature with appointed officials of the United States government, or of other states, who are similarly prohibited by law from revealing this information.

198.14 Co-operation with other entities.

The secretary may co-operate with and enter into agreements with governmental agencies of this state, other states, agencies of the federal government, and private associations in order to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter.

198.15 Publication.

The secretary shall publish at least annually, in such forms as the secretary may deem proper, information concerning the sales of commercial feeds, together with such data on their production and use as the secretary may consider advisable, and a report of the results of the analyses of official samples of commercial feeds sold within the state as compared with the analyses guaranteed in the registration and on the label. Provided, that the information concerning production and use of commercial feed shall not disclose the operations of any person.

5. Noxious weed seed shall be divided into two classes, "primary noxious weed seed" and "secondary noxious weed seed" which are defined in paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection. The secretary, upon the recommendation of the dean of agriculture, Iowa State University of science and technology, shall adopt as a rule, after public hearing, pursuant to chapter 17A, the list of seed classified as "primary noxious weed seed" and "secondary noxious weed seed".

a. "Primary noxious weed seed" are the seed of perennial weeds that reproduce by seed and by underground roots or stems and which, when established, are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by good cultural practices. For the purpose of this chapter and the sale of seed, primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

199.3 Labeling of seed.

Each container of agricultural or vegetable seed which is sold, offered for sale, exposed for sale, or transported within this state shall be labeled according to the following schedule:

1. Seed for sowing purposes shall be labeled as follows:

a. Agricultural or vegetable seed that is treated, inoculated, or coated shall contain a word or statement indicating that the treatment, inoculation, or coating has been done. A separate label may be used.

b. If treated, the label shall indicate the commonly accepted chemical or abbreviated chemical name of the applied substance or substances or a description of the type and purpose of procedure used. If the substance in the amount present with the seed is harmful to human or vertebrate animals, the label shall bear a caution statement such as "Do not use for food, feed, or oil purposes". In addition, for highly toxic substances, a poison statement or symbol shall be shown on the label.

c. If the seed is inoculated, the label shall indicate the month and year beyond which the inoculant is not claimed to be effective.

d. If the seed is coated, the label shall show the percentage by weight in the container of pure seed, inert matter, coating material, other crop seed, and weed seed. The percentage of germination shall be labeled on the basis of a determination made on at least four hundred pellets or capsules, whether or not they contain seed.

e. All seed in package or wrapped form which are required to be labeled, unless otherwise provided, shall conform to the requirements of sections 189.9 and 189.11.

2. Except for seed mixtures for lawn or turf purposes, agricultural seed shall bear a label indicating:

a. The name of the kind or kind and variety for each agricultural seed present in excess of five percent of the whole and the percentage by weight of each. If the variety of those kinds generally labeled as to variety is not stated, the label shall show the name of the kind and the words, "variety not stated". Hybrids shall be labeled as hybrids. Seed shall not be labeled or advertised under a trademark or brand name in a manner that may create the impression that the trademark or brand name is a variety name.

b. Lot number or other lot identification.

c. State or foreign country of origin, if known, of alfalfa and red clover. If the origin is unknown, the fact shall be stated.

d. Percentage by weight of all weed seed.

e. The name and rate of occurrence per unit of weight of each kind of secondary noxious weed seed present.

f. Percentage by weight of agricultural seed which may be designated as "other crop seed" other than those required to be named on the label.

g. Percentage by weight of inert matter.

h. For each named agricultural seed:

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed.

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present.

(3) The calendar month and year the test was completed to determine the percentages.

Following (1) and (2), the "total germination and hard seed" may be stated as such, if desired.

i. Name and address of the person who labeled the seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within this state.

3. For seed mixtures for lawn or turf purposes, the label shall indicate:

a. The word "mixed" or "mixture" along with the name of the mixture.

b. The heading "pure seed" and "germination" or "germ" where appropriate.

c. Commonly accepted name of kind or kind and variety of each turf seed component in excess of five percent of the whole, and the percentage by weight of pure seed in order of its predominance and in columnar form.

e. Percentage by weight of inert matter.

f. Percentage by weight of all weed seed. Maximum weed seed content not to exceed one percent by weight.

g. The name and rate of occurrence per unit of weight of each kind of secondary noxious weed seed present.

h. For each turf seed named under paragraph "c":

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed.

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present.

(3) Calendar month and year the test was completed to determine such percentages. The oldest current test date applicable to any single kind in the mixture shall appear on the label.

i. Name and address of the person who labeled the seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within the state.

4. The labeling requirements for vegetable seed sold from containers of more than one pound shall be deemed to have been met if the seed is weighed from a properly labeled container in the presence of the purchaser. Packets of vegetable seed prepared for use in home gardens or household plantings or vegetable seed in preplanted containers, mats, tapes, or other planting devices, shall bear labels with the following information:

a. Name of kind and variety of seed.

b. Lot identification.

c. The year for which the seed was packed for sale or the percentage of germination and the calendar month and year the test to determine such percentage was completed.

(1) Percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed.

(2) Percentage of hard seed, if present.

(3) The words "below standard" in not less than eight point type.

199.10 Testing methods — co-operation of facilities.

1. Testing methods when seed is for sale. Seed lots of all kinds of agricultural seed intended for sale in this state shall be tested in accordance with the association of official seed analysts' rules for testing seed or the regulations under the federal Seed Act. The tests required shall be:

- a. Purity analysis.
- b. Noxious weed examination.
- c. Germination.

2. Charges for testing. Charges for seed testing by the Iowa State University or department of agriculture and land stewardship seed laboratory shall be determined by the Iowa State University laboratory. Separate fee schedules shall be published for:

a. Integrate seed testing so as to avoid unnecessary duplication of personnel and equipment. The department of agriculture and land stewardship seed laboratory shall be primarily concerned with seed testing for seed law enforcement purposes. The Iowa State University seed laboratory shall promote seed education and research and shall conduct service testing for farmers and seed dealers.

199.11 Authority of secretary of agriculture.

1. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the state secretary of agriculture who may act through authorized agents is hereby authorized and directed:

a. To sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test agricultural seeds transported, sold, offered or exposed for sale within this state for sowing purposes, at such time and place and to such extent as the secretary may deem necessary to determine whether said agricultural seeds are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and to notify promptly the person who transported, sold, offered or exposed the seed for sale, of any violation.

b. To prescribe and, after public hearing following due public notice, to adopt rules and regulations governing the methods of sampling, inspecting, analysis, tests, and examination of agricultural seed, and the tolerances to be followed in the administration of this chapter, which shall be in general accord with officially prescribed practice in interstate commerce under the federal seed Act and such other rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure the efficient enforcement of this chapter.

2. Further, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the state secretary of agriculture, individually or through authorized agents, is authorized and directed:

a. To enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds subject to this chapter and the rules and regulations thereunder.

b. To issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural seed which the state secretary of agriculture or the secretary's authorized agents believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter which shall prohibit further sale of such seed until such officer has evidence that the law has been complied with; provided, that the owner or custodian of such seed shall be permitted to remove said seed from a salesroom open to the public; provided further, that in respect to seeds which have been denied sale as provided in this subsection, judicial review may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court; and provided further, that the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed as limiting the right of the enforcement officer to proceed as authorized by other sections of this chapter.

c. To establish and maintain or make provision for seed testing facilities essential to the enforcement of this chapter, to employ qualified persons, and to incur such expenses as may be necessary to comply with these provisions.

d. To co-operate with the United States department of agriculture in seed law enforcement.

199.12 Seizure of unlawful seed.

Upon the recommendation of the secretary or the secretary's duly authorized agents, the court of competent jurisdiction in the area in which the seed is located shall cause the seizure and subsequent denaturing, conditioning, or destruction to prevent the use for sowing purposes of any lot of agricultural seed found to be prohibited from sale as set forth in section 199.8, provided that in no instance shall the denaturing, conditioning, or destruction be ordered without first having given the claimant of the seed an opportunity to apply to the court for the release of the seed.

[C35, §3137-g3; C39, §3137.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199.12; 82 Acts, ch 1191, §12]

199.13 Penalty.

A violation of this chapter is a simple misdemeanor. The department may institute criminal or civil proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce this chapter. When in the performance of the secretary's duties in enforcing this chapter the secretary applies to a court for a temporary or permanent injunction restraining a person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the injunction is to be issued without bond and the person restrained by the injunction shall pay the costs made necessary by the procedure.

[C35, §3137-e2; C39, §3137.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199.13; 82 Acts, ch 1191, §13]

199.14 Enforcement.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of agriculture, and the secretary's agents, to enforce this chapter and of the county attorneys and of the attorney general of the state to co-operate with the secretary in the enforcement of this chapter.

[C35, §3137-g4; C39, §3137.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §199.14]

199.15 Permit — fee — fraud.

A person shall not sell, distribute, advertise, solicit orders for, offer or expose for sale, agricultural or vegetable seed without first obtaining from the department a permit to engage in the business. A permit is not required of persons selling seeds which have been packed and distributed by a person holding and having in force a permit. A permit is not required of persons selling or advertising seed of their own production, provided that the seed is stored or delivered to a purchaser only on or from the farm or premises where grown. The fee for a new permit is ten dollars and the fee for a renewed permit is based on the gross annual sales of seeds in Iowa during the previous twelve-month period under the permit holder's label and all permits expire on the first day of July following date of issue. Permits shall be issued subject to the following fee schedule:

Gross sales of seeds	Fee
Not more than $ 25,000	$10
Over $25,000 but not exceeding 50,000	20
Over $50,000 but not exceeding 100,000	30
Over $100,000 but not exceeding 200,000	40

For each additional increment of one hundred thousand dollars of sales in Iowa the fee shall increase by ten dollars. The fee shall not exceed five hundred dollars for a permit holder.

After due notice given at least ten days prior to a date of hearing fixed by the secretary, the department may revoke or refuse to renew a permit issued under this section if a violation of this chapter or if intent to defraud is established. The failure to fulfill a contract to repurchase the seed crop produced from any agricultural seed, if the crop meets the requirements set forth in the contract and the standards specified in this chapter, is prima-facie evidence of intent to defraud the purchaser at the time of entering into the contract. However, this does not apply when seed stock is furnished by the contractor to the grower at no cost.

199.16 Permit holder's bond.

It is unlawful for the permit holder to enter into a contract with a grower who purchases agricultural seed in which the permit holder agrees to repurchase the seed crop produced from the purchased seed at a price in excess of the current market price, unless the permit holder has on file with the department a bond, in a penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa, with sureties approved by the secretary, for the use and benefit of a person holding a repurchase contract who might have a cause of action of any nature arising from the purchase or contract. However, the aggregate liability of the surety to all purchasers of seed holding repurchase contracts shall not exceed the sum of the bond.

199.17 Records and seed samples.

A person whose name appears on the label as handling agricultural or vegetable seed subject to this chapter shall keep for a period of two years complete records of each lot of agricultural or vegetable seed handled and shall keep for one year a file sample of each lot of seed after final disposition of the lot. The records and samples pertaining to the shipments involved shall be accessible for inspection by the department during the customary business hours.

When used in this chapter:

1. The term "fertilizer" means any substance containing one or more recognized plant nutrient which is used for its plant nutrient content and which is designed for use and claimed to have value in promoting plant growth except unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures or calcium and magnesium carbonate materials used primarily for correcting soil acidity.

2. The term "fertilizer material" means any substance used as a fertilizer or for compounding a fertilizer containing one or more of the recognized plant nutrients which are used for promoting plant growth or altering plant composition.

3. The term "unmanipulated manures" means any substances composed primarily of excreta, plant remains, or mixtures of such substances which have not been processed in any manner.

4. The term "commercial fertilizer" includes fertilizer and fertilizer materials and fertilizer-pesticide mixtures.

5. A "specialty fertilizer" is a commercial fertilizer distributed primarily for nonfarm use, such as home gardens, lawns, shrubbery, flowers, golf courses, municipal parks, cemeteries, greenhouses and nurseries and may include commercial fertilizers used for research or experimental purposes.

6. The term "bulk fertilizer" shall mean commercial fertilizer delivered to the purchaser in the solid, liquid, or gaseous state, in a nonpackaged form to which a label cannot be attached.

7. The term "anhydrous ammonia" means the compound formed by the combination of two gaseous elements, nitrogen and hydrogen, in the proportion of one part nitrogen to three parts hydrogen by volume.

8. The term "pesticide" as used in this chapter means insecticides, miticides, nemacides, fungicides, herbicides and any other substance used in pest control.

9. A "soil conditioner" is any substance which when added to the soil or applied to plants will produce a favorable growth, yield or quality of crop or soil flora or fauna or other soil characteristics, other than a fertilizer, recognized pesticide, unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures or calcium and magnesium carbonate materials used primarily for correcting soil acidity.

10. The term "brand" means a term, design, or trademark used in connection with one or several grades of commercial fertilizer.

11. The term "grade" means the percentages of total nitrogen, available phosphorus or P_2O_5 or both, and soluble potassium or K_2O or both stated in whole numbers in same terms, order and percentages as in the "guaranteed analysis."

12. Guaranteed analysis:

a. The term "guaranteed analysis" shall mean the minimum percentage of plant nutrients claimed and reported as Total Nitrogen (N), Available Phosphorus (P) or P_2O_5 or both, Soluble Potassium (K) or K_2O or both and in the following form:

Total Nitrogen (N)..... percent

Available Phosphorus (P) or

P_2O_5 or both..... percent

Soluble Potassium (K) or

K_2O or both..... percent

Registration and guarantee of water soluble phosphorus (P) or (P_2O_5) shall be permitted.

b. The term "guaranteed analysis", in the form specified in paragraph "a", includes:

(1) For unacidulated mineral phosphatic materials and basic slag, both total and available phosphorus or P_2O_5 , or both and the degree of fineness. For bone tankage and other organic phosphatic materials, total phosphorus or P_2O_5 , or both.

(2) When any additional plant nutrient elements contained in a substance as identified in subsection 1 of this section, are claimed in writing, they shall be identified in the guarantee, expressed as the element, and shall be subject to inspection and analysis in accordance with the methods and regulations that may be prescribed by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

13. The term "official sample" means any sample of commercial fertilizer taken by the secretary or the secretary's agent.

14. The term "ton" means a net weight of two thousand pounds avoirdupois.

20. "Established date of operation" means the date on which an anhydrous ammonia plant commenced operating. If the physical facilities of the plant are subsequently expanded, the established date of operation for each expansion is deemed to be a separate and independent "established date of operation" established as of the date of commencement of the expanded operations. The commencement of expanded operations does not divest the plant of a previously established date of operation.

21. "Established date of ownership" means the date of the recording of an appropriate instrument of title establishing the ownership of real estate.

22. "Rule" means a rule as defined in section 17A.2 which materially affects the operation of an anhydrous ammonia plant. The term includes a rule which was in effect prior to July 1, 1984.

200.4 Licenses.

1. Any person who manufactures, mixes, blends, or mixes to customers order any fertilizer or soil conditioner offered for sale, sold, or distributed in Iowa must first obtain a license from the secretary of agriculture and shall pay a ten-dollar license fee for each plant or place of manufacture, from which fertilizer or soil conditioner products are sold or distributed in Iowa. Such license fee shall be paid annually on July 1 of each year and the manufacturer, blender or mixer shall at the same time, list the name and address of each such plant or place of manufacture, from which sale or distribution is made.

This subsection shall not apply to a manufacturer who manufactures "specialty fertilizer" only, as defined in section 200.3, subsection 5, in packages of twenty-five pounds or less.

2. Said licensee shall at all times produce an intimate and uniform mixture of fertilizers or soil conditioners. When two or more fertilizer materials are delivered in the same load, they shall be thoroughly and uniformly mixed unless they are in separate compartments.

The secretary may require any reasonable information in addition to subsection 12 of section 200.3, which is necessary and useful to the purchasers of specialty fertilizers of this state and to promote uniformity among states.

5. The secretary is authorized after public hearing, following due notice, to establish minimum acceptable levels of trace and secondary elements recognized as effective to aid crops produced in Iowa and to require such warning statements as may be deemed necessary to prevent injury to crops.

200.8 Inspection fees.

1. There shall be paid by the licensee to the secretary for all commercial fertilizers and soil conditioners sold, or distributed in this state, an inspection fee to be fixed annually by the secretary of agriculture at not more than twenty cents per ton: Except sales for manufacturing purposes only are hereby exempted from fees but must still be reported showing manufacturer who purchased same. Payment of said inspection fee by any licensee shall exempt all other persons, firms or corporations from the payment thereof.

On individual packages of specialty fertilizer containing twenty-five pounds or less, there shall be paid in lieu of the annual license fee and the semiannual inspection fee as set forth in this chapter, an annual registration and inspection fee of twenty-five dollars for each brand and grade sold or distributed in the state. In the event that any person sells specialty fertilizer in packages of twenty-five pounds or less and also in packages of more than twenty-five pounds, this annual registration and inspection fee shall apply only to that portion sold in packages of twenty-five pounds or less, and that portion sold in packages of more than twenty-five pounds shall be subject to the same inspection fee as fixed by the secretary of agriculture as provided in this chapter.

2. Every licensee and any person required to pay an annual registration and inspection fee under this chapter in this state shall:

a. File not later than the last day of January and July of each year, on forms furnished by secretary, a semiannual statement setting forth the number of net tons of commercial fertilizer or soil conditioners distributed in this state by grade for each county during the preceding six months' period; and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in subsection 1 of this section. However, in lieu of the semiannual statement by grade for each county, as hereinabove provided for, the registrant, on individual packages of commercial fertilizer containing twenty-five pounds or less, shall file not later than the last day of July of each year, on forms furnished by the secretary, an annual statement setting forth the number of net tons of commercial fertilizer distributed in this state by grade during the preceding twelve-month period, but no inspection fee shall be due thereon.

b. If the tonnage report is not filed or the payment of inspection fees, or both, is not made within ten days after the last day of January and July of each year as required in paragraph "a" of this subsection, a penalty amounting to ten percent of the amount due, if any, shall be assessed against the licensee. In any case, the penalty shall be no less than fifty dollars. The amount of fees due, if any, and penalty shall constitute a debt and become the basis of a judgment against the licensee.

3. If there is an unencumbered balance of funds in the fertilizer fund on June 30 of any fiscal year equal to or exceeding three hundred fifty thousand dollars, the secretary of agriculture shall reduce the per ton fee provided for in subsection 1 and the annual license fee established pursuant to section 201.3 for the next fiscal year in such amount as will result in an ending estimated balance for the June 30 of the next fiscal year of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

200.9 Fertilizer fund.

Fees collected for licenses and inspection fees under sections 200.4 and 200.8 shall be deposited in the treasury to the credit of the fertilizer fund to be used only by the department for the purpose of inspection, sampling, analysis, preparation and publishing of reports and other expenses necessary for administration of this chapter. The secretary may assign moneys to the Iowa agricultural experiment station for research, work projects, investigations as may be needed for the specific purpose of improving the regulatory functions for enforcement of this chapter.

200.10 Inspection, sampling and analysis.

1. It shall be the duty of the secretary, who may act through an authorized agent, to sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test commercial fertilizers or soil conditioners distributed within this state at time and place and to such an extent as the secretary may deem necessary, to determine whether such commercial fertilizers and soil conditioners are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. In the performance of the foregoing duty, the secretary shall counsel with the director of the Iowa agricultural experimental station in respect to the time, place and extent of sampling. The secretary individually or through an agent is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises or conveyances during regular business hours in order to have access to commercial fertilizers or soil conditioners subject to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations pertaining thereto. It shall be the duty of the secretary to maintain a laboratory with the necessary equipment and to employ such employees as may be necessary to aid in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

2. The methods of sampling and analysis shall be the official methods of the association of official agricultural chemists in all cases where methods have been adopted by the association.

The findings of the state chemist or the state chemist's deputy, as shown by the sworn statement of the results of analysis of official samples of any brand and grade of commercial fertilizer, fertilizer material or soil conditioner, shall constitute prima-facie evidence of their correctness in the courts of this state, as to the particular lots sampled and analyzed.

3. The secretary, in determining for administrative purposes whether any commercial fertilizer is deficient in plant food, or soil conditioner deficient in guaranteed active ingredients, shall be guided by the official sample as defined in subsection 13 of section 200.3, and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsection 2 of this section.

4. The results of official analysis of any commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner which has been found to be in violation of any provision of this chapter, shall be forwarded by the secretary to the registrant. Upon request, the secretary shall furnish to the registrant a portion of any sample.

It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, offer for sale or sell in this state, any commercial fertilizer, or soil conditioner containing any substance used as a filler that is injurious to crop growth or deleterious to the soil, or to use in such commercial fertilizer, or soil conditioner as a filler any substance that contains inert or useless plant food material for the purpose or with the effect of deceiving or defrauding the purchaser.

200.12 False or misleading statements.

A commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner is misbranded if it does not identify substances promoting plant growth as defined in subsection 1 of section 200.3, or if it carries any false or misleading statement upon or attached to the container or stated on the invoice or delivery ticket, or if the container or on the invoice or delivery ticket or in any advertising matter whatsoever connected with, accompanying or associated with the commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner. Further, the burden of proof of the desirable effect of the product on plant growth shall be the responsibility of the registrant.

The secretary shall publish at least annually, in such forms as the secretary may deem proper, information concerning the sales of commercial fertilizers, together with such data on their production and use as the secretary may consider advisable. The secretary shall report semiannually the results of the analysis based on official samples taken of commercial fertilizers sold within the state as compared with the analyses guaranteed under section 200.5 and section 200.6, together with name and address of the manufacturer or distributor of such commercial fertilizer at the time the official sample was taken. A copy of this semiannual report will be mailed by the secretary to each corresponding county extension director in the state.

1. The secretary is authorized, after public hearing, following due notice, to adopt rules setting forth minimum general safety standards for the design, construction, location, installation and operation of equipment for storage, handling, transportation by tank truck or tank trailer, and utilization of anhydrous ammonia. The rules shall be such as are reasonably necessary for the protection and safety of the public and persons using anhydrous ammonia, and shall be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety.

It is hereby declared that rules in substantial conformity with the published standards of the agricultural ammonia institute for the design, installation and construction of containers and pertinent equipment for the storage and handling of anhydrous ammonia, shall be deemed to be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety.

No person, firm or corporation, other than the owner and those authorized by the owner to do so, shall sell, fill, refill, deliver or permit to be delivered, or use in any manner any anhydrous ammonia container or receptacle for any gas, compound for any other purpose whatsoever.

2. The secretary is hereby charged with the enforcement of this chapter, and after due publicity and due public hearing, is empowered to promulgate and adopt such reasonable rules as may be necessary in order to carry into effect the purpose and intent of this chapter or to secure the efficient administration thereof.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the use of storage tanks smaller than transporting tanks nor the transfer of all kinds of fertilizer including anhydrous ammonia directly from transporting tanks to implements of husbandry, if proper safety precautions are observed.

200.18 Violations.

1. If it shall appear from the examination of any commercial fertilizer or soil conditioner or any anhydrous ammonia installation, equipment, or operation that any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder have been violated, the secretary shall cause notice of the violations to be given to the registrant, distributor, or possessor from whom said sample was taken; any person so notified shall be given opportunity to be heard under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the secretary. 2. Any person violating any provision of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or the secretary's representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of seizure proceedings minor violations of the chapter when the secretary believes that the public interest will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

201.5 Analyses.

Agricultural lime, limestone or aglime sold, offered, or exposed for sale in this state shall be analyzed on the basis of the number of pounds of effective calcium carbonate equivalent per ton, using the method set forth in subsections 1, 2, and 3 of this section:

1. A fineness factor shall be determined as follows:
 - a. Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number four sieve by one-tenth.
 - b. Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number eight sieve by three-tenths.
 - c. Multiply the percent of the total material passing the number sixty sieve by six-tenths. Add the results obtained from paragraphs "a", "b", and "c" of this subsection to obtain the fineness factor.

2. Multiply the fineness factor obtained by using the method set forth in subsection 1 of this section by the percent of calcium carbonate equivalent in the agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime to obtain the percent of ECCE.

3. The number of pounds of ECCE per ton of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall be determined by multiplying two thousand pounds by the percent of ECCE determined as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

201.6 Samples — how obtained.

Samples of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime within the meaning of this chapter for analyzing the number of pounds of ECCE shall be obtained by taking such sample from the manufacturer's or producer's production belt as the material is being produced.

Sampling of stockpiles shall be made only when there is a stockpile having no certification of ECCE, as herein provided. Samples shall be taken at locations where there are permanent fixed plants once each calendar month during the months in which agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime is being manufactured or produced. Samples shall be taken at locations where there is no permanent fixed plant once during the first week that a portable plant is at a location and manufacturing or producing agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, and once each week thereafter during the period that the portable plant is at the location and manufacturing or producing agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime until a total of five representative samples have been accumulated and submitted for analysis, after which a sample shall be obtained and tested once each calendar month during the months in which agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime is being manufactured or produced. Samples from production belts shall be taken by the manufacturer or producer in the presence of a person or persons appointed by the secretary of agriculture. Samples from stockpiles, where stockpile sampling is authorized in this section, shall be taken by a person or persons appointed by the secretary of agriculture. The manufacturer or producer of agricultural lime, limestone or aglime shall notify the secretary of agriculture or person or persons appointed by the secretary of the manufacture or production of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime so that samples may be taken in compliance with this section.

201.8 Certification.

The secretary of agriculture shall, upon receipt of the analysis provided in section 201.7 certify the number of pounds of ECCE, using the method provided in section 201.5, to the manufacturer or producer from whom the sample was obtained by written notice and forwarded by United States mail. The effective date of the certification shall be on a Monday but not less than seven days from date of mailing and the date of mailing shall not be counted as one of the seven days.

Each certification of ECCE shall be based on the average of a maximum of five analyses obtained from five samples. Each new analysis received shall be added to the previous five analyses and the oldest analysis shall be omitted. Less than five analyses shall be averaged on the basis of the actual number of analyses. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a manufacturer or producer from having a certification on separate stockpiles of agricultural lime, limestone or aglime, provided that such separate stockpiles shall be separated from any other stockpile and such separate stockpiles shall have been sampled as provided in this chapter.

Any person who shall sell, offer, or expose for sale or who shall ship, transport, or deliver agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall affix, or cause to be affixed, to every bill of lading, scale ticket, ticket, delivery receipt or other instrument of sale, shipping or delivery, plainly thereon in the English language, the certification of the secretary of agriculture of the number of pounds of ECCE per ton in the agricultural lime, limestone or aglime, and the name, brand, or trademark under which the agricultural lime, limestone or aglime is sold, the name of the manufacturer, producer or shipper, and the location of the principal office of the manufacturer, producer or shipper. The certification shall be in the following form:

“Iowa Secretary of Agriculture Certified _____ pounds ECCE per ton.”

The pounds of ECCE certified by the secretary of agriculture for the agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime shall be inserted in the space provided.

In case the secretary of agriculture shall adopt the certification of number of pounds of ECCE of the ASCS, the following form will effect full compliance with this section:

“ASCS certified _____ pounds ECCE per ton.”

Whoever sells, offers for sale, or exposes for sale or distribution any bulk agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime without complying with the provisions of this chapter, or permits any certification to accompany or be printed or stamped on any bill of lading, scale ticket, ticket, or delivery receipt or other instrument of sale, shipping or delivery, stating that the agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime contains a different number of pounds of ECCE than certified as provided in this chapter, or who shall adulterate any agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime with foreign mineral matter or other foreign substances, or who shall adulterate the same with any substance injurious to the growth of plants, or make any false report, shall be deemed guilty of a simple misdemeanor. The secretary of agriculture may revoke the license of any person so convicted.

In all litigation arising from the purchase, sale, or disposal of any agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, in which the composition of the same may be involved, a certified copy of the official analysis shall be accepted as prima-facie evidence of the composition of such agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime. The possession of agricultural lime, limestone, or aglime, in any building, room, railroad equipment, store, storeroom, warehouse, truck, or other place within this state, except by a person who has the same for the person’s private use, without complying with the provisions of this chapter relative to agricultural lime, shall be prima-facie evidence of keeping the same for the purpose of selling or disposal.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of agriculture or the secretary’s deputized representative to bring prosecution for all violations under the provisions of this chapter. Action may be commenced by the attorney general when requested to do so by the secretary. A person authorized by law to prosecute a case under the provisions of this chapter shall not be required to advance or secure costs therein. If the defendant is acquitted or discharged from custody, or if the defendant is convicted and committed in default of the payment of fine and costs, such costs shall be certified under oath by the court to the county auditor who shall, when verified, issue a warrant on the county treasurer payable to the person or persons entitled thereto. 203A.9 What deemed adulterated.

A drug or device shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. (a) If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance; or (b) if it has been produced, prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have been contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health; or (c) if it is a drug and its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health; or (d) if it is a drug and it bears or contains, for the purposes of coloring only, a coal-tar color other than one from a batch certified under the authority of the federal Act.

2. If it purports to be or is represented as a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, and its strength differs from, or its quality or purity falls below, the standard set forth in such compendium. Such determination as to strength, quality, or purity shall be made in accordance with the tests or methods of assay set forth in such compendium, or in the absence of or inadequacy of such tests or methods of assay, those prescribed under authority of the federal Act. No drug defined in an official compendium shall be deemed to be adulterated under this paragraph because it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity thereof set forth in such compendium if its difference in strength, quality, or purity from such standard is plainly stated on its label. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States it will be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

3. If it is not subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section and its strength differs from, or its purity or quality falls below, that which it purports or is represented to possess.

4. If it is a drug and any substance has been (a) mixed or packed therewith so as to reduce its quality or strength; or (b) substituted wholly or in part therefor.

203A.10 What deemed misbranded.

A drug or device shall be deemed to be misbranded:

1. If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular.

2. If in package form unless it bears a label containing (a) the name and place of business of the manufacturer and if different, the name and place of the packer or distributor; and (b) an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count; provided, that under clause "a" of this subsection reasonable variations shall be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages shall be established, by regulations prescribed by the board. Any drug subject to and in compliance with section 203A.19 shall be deemed in compliance with clause "a" of this subsection.

3. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

4. If it is for use by humans and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, codeine, heroin, marijuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substance, which derivative has been by the board after investigation, found to be, and by regulations under this chapter, designated as, habit forming, unless its label bears the name and quantity or proportion of such substance or derivative and in juxtaposition therewith the statement "Warning — May be habit forming."

5. If it is a drug and is not designated solely by a name recognized in an official compendium unless its label bears (a) the common or usual name of the drug, if such there be; and (b) in case it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the common or usual name of each active ingredient, including the kind and quantity or proportion of any alcohol, and also including, whether active or not, the name and quantity or proportion of any bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilid, acetphenetidin, amidopyrine, antipyrine, atropine, hyoscyne, hyoscyamine, arsenic, digitalis and digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, thyroid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances, contained therein; provided, that to the extent that compliance with the requirements of clause "a" of this subsection is impracticable, exemptions shall be established by regulations promulgated by the board.

6. Unless its labeling bears (a) adequate directions for use; and (b) such adequate warnings against use in those pathological conditions or by children where its use may be dangerous to health, or against unsafe dosage or methods or duration of administration or application in such manner and form, as are necessary for the protection of users; provided, that where any requirement of clause "a" of this subsection, applied to any drug or device, is not necessary for the protection of the public health, the board shall promulgate regulations exempting such drug from such requirements.

7. If it purports to be a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, unless it is packaged and labeled as prescribed therein; provided, that the method of packing may be modified with the consent of the board. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

8. If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health. No such regulation shall be established for any drug recognized in an official compendium until the board shall have informed the appropriate body charged with the revision of such compendium of the need for such packaging or labeling requirements and such body shall have failed within a reasonable time to prescribe such requirements.

9. (a) If it is a drug and its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading; or (b) if it is an imitation of another drug; or (c) if it is offered for sale under the name of another drug.

10. If it is dangerous to health when used in the dosage, or with the frequency or duration prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling thereof.

11. If (a) it is a drug sold at retail and contains any quantity of aminopyrine, barbituric acid, pituitary, thyroid, or their derivatives, or (b) it is a drug or device sold at retail and its label bears a statement that it is to be dispensed or sold only by or on the prescription of a doctor, dentist or veterinarian; unless it is sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian who is licensed by law to administer such drug or device, and its label bears the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

12. A drug sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian (except a drug sold in the course of the conduct of a business of selling drugs pursuant to diagnosis by mail) shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if:

a. Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and

b. Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

The application shall be accompanied by such samples of such drug and of the articles used as components thereof as the board may require, specimens of the labeling proposed to be used for such drug, and a fee of fifty dollars.

2. An application provided for in subsection 1 part "b" shall become effective on the sixtieth day after the filing thereof, except that if the board finds after due notice to the applicant and giving the applicant an opportunity for a hearing, that the drug is not safe for use under the conditions prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the proposed labeling thereof, it shall, prior to the effective date of the application, issue an order refusing to permit the application to become effective.

3. This section shall not apply:

a. To a drug intended solely for investigational use by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to investigate the safety in drugs, provided the drug is plainly labeled "For investigational use only"; or 204.201 Duty to recommend changes in schedules.

1. The board shall administer the regulatory provisions of this chapter. Annually, within thirty days after the convening of each regular session of the general assembly, the board shall recommend to the general assembly any deletions from, or revisions in the schedules of substances, enumerated in sections 204.204, 204.206, 204.208, 204.210 or 204.212, which it deems necessary or advisable. In making a recommendation to the general assembly regarding a substance, the board shall consider the following:

- a. The actual or relative potential for abuse;
- b. The scientific evidence of its pharmacological effect, if known;
- c. State of current scientific knowledge regarding the substance;
- d. The history and current pattern of abuse;
- e. The scope, duration, and significance of abuse;
- f. The risk to the public health;
- g. The potential of the substance to produce psychic or physiological dependence liability; and
- h. Whether the substance is an immediate precursor of a substance already controlled under this division.

2. After considering the above factors, the board shall make a recommendation to the general assembly, specifying the change which should be made in existing schedules, if it finds that the potential for abuse or lack thereof of the substance is not properly reflected by the existing schedules.

3. If the board designates a substance as an immediate precursor, substances which are precursors of the controlled precursor shall not be subject to control solely because they are precursors of the controlled precursor. Such designations shall be made pursuant to the procedures of chapter 17A.

4. If any new substance is designated as a controlled substance under federal law and notice of the designation is given to the board, the board shall similarly designate as controlled the new substance under this chapter after the expiration of thirty days from publication in the Federal Register of a final order designating a new substance as a controlled substance, unless within that thirty-day period the board objects to the new designation. In that case the board shall publish the reasons for objection and afford all interested parties an opportunity to be heard. At the conclusion of the hearing the board shall announce its decision. Upon publication of objection to a new substance being designated as a controlled substance under this chapter by the board, control under this chapter is stayed until the board publishes its decision. If a substance is designated as controlled by the board under this paragraph the control shall be temporary and if within sixty days after the next regular session of the general assembly convenes it has not made the corresponding changes in this chapter, the temporary designation of control of the substance by the board shall be nullified.

204.202 Controlled substances — listed regardless of name.

The controlled substances listed in the schedules in sections 204.204, 204.206, 204.208, 204.210 and 204.212 are included by whatever official name, common or usual name, chemical name, or trade name is designated.

Every person who manufactures, distributes, or dispenses any controlled substance within this state or who proposes to engage in the manufacture, distribution, or dispensing of any controlled substance within this state, shall obtain annually a registration issued by the board in accordance with its rules.

2. Persons registered by the board under this chapter to manufacture, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with controlled substances may possess, manufacture, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with those substances to the extent authorized by their registration and in conformity with the other provisions of this division.

3. The following persons need not register and may lawfully possess controlled substances under this chapter:

The board shall register an applicant to manufacture or distribute controlled substances included in sections 204.204, 204.206, 204.208, 204.210 and 204.212 unless it determines that the issuance of that registration would be inconsistent with the public interest. In determining the public interest, the board shall consider all of the following factors:

- a. Maintenance of effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into other than legitimate medical, scientific, or industrial channels.
- b. Compliance with applicable state and local law.
- c. Any convictions of the applicant under any federal and state laws relating to any controlled substance.
- d. Past experience in the manufacture or distribution of controlled substances, and the existence in the applicant's establishment of effective controls against diversion.
- e. Furnishing by the applicant of false or fraudulent material in any application filed under this chapter.
- f. Suspension or revocation of the applicant's federal registration to manufacture, distribute, or dispense controlled substances as authorized by federal law.

2. Registration under subsection 1 of this section does not entitle a registrant to manufacture and distribute controlled substances in schedule I or II other than those specified in the registration.

3. Practitioners shall be registered to dispense any controlled substances or to conduct research with controlled substances in schedules II through V if they are authorized to dispense or conduct research under the law of this state. The board need not require separate registration under this division for practitioners engaging in research with nonnarcotic controlled substances in schedules II through V where the registrant is already registered under this division in another capacity. Practitioners registered under federal law to conduct research with schedule I substances may conduct research in schedule I substances within this state upon furnishing the board evidence of the federal registration.

4. Compliance by manufacturers and distributors with the provisions of the federal law respecting registration, excluding fees, entitles them to be registered under this chapter.

204.304 Revocation and suspension of registration.

- b. Has had the registrant's federal registration suspended or revoked to manufacture, distribute, or dispense controlled substances; or
- c. Has been convicted of a public offense under any state or federal law relating to any controlled substance. For the purpose of this section only, a conviction shall include a plea of guilty, a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court which forfeiture has not been vacated, or a finding of guilt in a criminal action even though the entry of the judgment or sentence has been withheld and the individual placed on probation.

2. The board may limit revocation or suspension of a registration to the particular controlled substance with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension exist.

3. If the board suspends or revokes a registration, all controlled substances owned or possessed by the registrant at the time of suspension or the effective date of the revocation order may be placed under seal. No disposition may be made of substances under seal until the time for taking an appeal has elapsed or until all appeals have been concluded unless a court, upon application, orders the sale of perishable substances and the deposit of the proceeds of the sale with the court. Upon a revocation order becoming final, all such controlled substances may be forfeited to the state.

4. The board shall promptly notify the bureau and the department of all orders suspending or revoking registration and all forfeitures of controlled substances.

204.305 Order to show cause.

1. Before denying, suspending or revoking a registration, or refusing a renewal of registration, the board shall serve upon the applicant or registrant an order to show cause why registration should not be denied, revoked, or suspended, or why the renewal should not be refused. The order to show cause shall contain a statement of the basis therefor and shall call upon the applicant or registrant to appear before the board at a time and place not less than thirty days after the date of service of the order, but in the case of a denial or renewal of registration the show cause order shall be served not later than thirty days before the expiration of the registration. These proceedings shall be conducted without regard to any criminal prosecution or other proceeding. Proceedings to refuse renewal of registration shall not abate the existing registration which shall remain in effect pending the outcome of the administrative hearing.

2. The board, without an order to show cause, may suspend any registration simultaneously with the institution of proceedings under section 204.304, or where renewal of registration is refused, if it finds that there is an imminent danger to the public health or safety which warrants this action. The suspension shall continue in effect until the conclusion of the proceedings, including judicial review thereof, under the provisions of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, unless sooner withdrawn by the board or dissolved by the order of the district court or an appellate court.

Every such record shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of the transaction recorded. Records of controlled substances lost, destroyed or stolen, shall contain a detailed list of the kind and quantity of such drugs and the date of the discovery of such loss, destruction, or theft.

No person shall distribute complimentary packages of controlled substances, to a practitioner unless that person prepares and leaves with the practitioner a specific written list of the items so distributed. The several charges shall be set out in separate counts and each accused person shall be convicted or acquitted upon each count by separate verdict. Each accused person shall thereafter be sentenced upon each verdict of guilty. The court may consider such separate verdicts of guilty returned at the same time as one offense for the purpose of sentencing as provided in this chapter. The court may grant a severance and separate trial to any accused person jointly charged or indicted if it appears that substantial injustice would result to such accused person unless a separate trial was granted.

204.409 Conditional discharge, commitment for treatment, probation, parole.

1. Whenever a person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this chapter or an offense under a state or federal statute relating to narcotic drugs or cocaine, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled substance under section 204.401, subsection 3, or is sentenced pursuant to section 204.410, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place the accused on probation upon terms and conditions as it requires. When a person is placed on probation under this subsection, the person's appearance bond may be discharged at the discretion of the court. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against the person. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime, including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions under section 204.410. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

2. Whenever the court finds that a person who is charged with a violation of section 204.401 and who consents thereto, or who has entered a plea of guilty to or been found guilty of a violation of that section, is addicted to, dependent upon, or a chronic abuser of any controlled substance and that such person will be aided by proper medical treatment and rehabilitative services, it may order that the person be committed as an in-patient or out-patient to a facility licensed by the Iowa department of public health for medical treatment and rehabilitative services. A person committed under this subsection who is not possessed of sufficient income or estate to enable the person to make payment of the costs of such treatment in whole or in part shall be considered a state patient and the costs of treatment shall be paid as provided in section 125.44. The determination of ability to pay shall be made by the court. The court shall require the patient, or the patient's parent, guardian, or custodian to complete under oath a detailed financial statement. The court may enter appropriate orders requiring the patient or those legally liable for the patient's support to reimburse the state with the costs, or any part thereof. In order to obtain the most effective results from such medical treatment and rehabilitative services, the court may commit the person to the custody of a public or private agency or any other responsible person and impose other conditions upon the commitment as is necessary to insure compliance with the court's order and to insure that the person will not, during the period of treatment and rehabilitation, again violate a provision of this chapter. If it is established thereafter to the satisfaction of the court that the person has again violated a provision of this chapter, the person may be returned to custody or sentenced upon conviction as provided by law. The public or private agency or responsible person to whom the accused person was committed by the court shall immediately report to the court when the person has received maximum benefit from the program or has recovered from addiction, dependency, or tendency to chronically abuse any controlled substance. The person shall then be returned to the court for disposition of the case. If the person has been charged or indicted, but not convicted, such charge shall proceed to trial or final disposition. If the person has been convicted or is thereafter convicted, the court shall sentence the person as provided by law but may remit all or any part of the sentence and place the person on probation upon terms and conditions as the court may prescribe.

An accommodation offense may be proved as an included offense under a charge of delivering or possessing with the intent to deliver marijuana in violation of section 204.401, subsection 1. The department is primarily responsible for the enforcement of this chapter, and all other laws and regulations of this state, relating to controlled or counterfeit substances, or simulated or imitation controlled substances*, except that the board is primarily responsible for making accountability audits of the supply and inventory of controlled substances in the possession of pharmacists, doctors, hospitals, and health care facilities as defined in section 135C.1, subsection 8, as well as in the possession of any and all other individuals or institutions authorized to have possession of any controlled substances, and is also primarily responsible for any other duties in respect to controlled substances as specifically delegated to the board by law. An officer or employee of the board may, when so directed or authorized by the board:

1. Execute and serve search warrants, administrative inspection warrants, subpoenas, and summonses issued under the authority of this state.

204.502 Administrative inspections and warrants.

1. Issuance and execution of administrative inspection warrants shall be as follows:

a. A district judge or district associate judge, within the court's jurisdiction, and upon proper oath or affirmation showing probable cause, may issue warrants for the purpose of conducting administrative inspections under this chapter or a related rule or under chapter 204A. The warrant may also permit seizures of property appropriate to the inspections. For purposes of the issuance of administrative inspection warrants, probable cause exists upon showing a valid public interest in the effective enforcement of the statute or related rules, sufficient to justify administrative inspection of the area, premises, building or conveyance in the circumstances specified in the application for the warrant.

b. A warrant shall issue only upon sworn testimony of an officer or employee of the board duly designated and having knowledge of the facts alleged, before the judicial officer, establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. If the judicial officer is satisfied that grounds for the application exist or that there is probable cause to believe they exist, the officer shall issue a warrant identifying the area, premises, building, or conveyance to be inspected, the purpose of the inspection, and, if appropriate, the type of property to be inspected, if any.

The warrant shall:

(1) State the grounds for its issuance and the name of each person whose testimony has been taken in support thereof.

(2) Be directed to a person authorized by section 204.501 to execute it.

(3) Command the person to whom it is directed to inspect the area, premises, building, or conveyance identified for the purpose specified and, if appropriate, direct the seizure of the property specified.

(4) Identify the item or types of property to be seized, if any.

(5) Direct that it be served during normal business hours, if appropriate, and designate the judge to whom it shall be returned.

c. A warrant issued pursuant to this section must be executed and returned within ten days after its date unless, upon a showing of a need for additional time, the court so instructs otherwise in the warrant. If property is seized pursuant to a warrant, the person executing the warrant shall give to the person from whom the property is seized, or the person in charge of the premises from which the property is seized, a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property seized or shall leave the copy and receipt at the place from which the property is seized. The return of the warrant shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property seized. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person executing the warrant and of the person from whose possession or premises the property was seized, if they are present, or in the presence of at least one credible person other than the person executing the warrant. A copy of the inventory shall be delivered to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was seized the applicant for the warrant.

d. The judicial officer who has issued a warrant under this section shall require that there be attached to the warrant a copy of the return, and of all papers filed in connection with the return, and shall file them with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the inspection was made.

2. The department may make administrative inspections of controlled premises in accordance with the following provisions:

a. For purposes of this section only, "controlled premises" means:

(1) Places where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this chapter are required to keep records; and

b. Whenever authorized by an administrative inspection warrant issued pursuant to subsection 1 of this section an officer or employee of the board, upon presenting the warrant and appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, has the right to enter controlled premises for the purpose of conducting an administrative inspection.

c. Whenever authorized by an administrative inspection warrant, an officer or employee of the board has the right:

(1) To inspect and copy records required by this chapter to be kept;

(2) To inspect, within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, controlled premises and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished material, containers and labeling found therein, and, except as provided in paragraph "e" of this subsection, all other things therein, including records, files, papers, processes, controls, and facilities bearing on violation of this chapter; and

(3) To inventory any stock of any controlled substance therein and obtain samples of any such substance.

d. This section shall not be construed to prevent the inspection without a warrant of books and records pursuant to a subpoena issued in accordance with section 622.65, nor shall this section be construed to prevent entries and administrative inspections, including seizures of property, without a warrant:

(1) With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises;

(2) In situations presenting imminent danger to health or safety;

(3) In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the mobility of the conveyance makes it impracticable to obtain a warrant;

(4) In any other exceptional or emergency circumstance where time or opportunity to apply for a warrant is lacking; and

(5) In all other situations where a warrant is not constitutionally required.

e. Except when the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises so consents in writing, no inspection authorized by this section shall extend to financial data; sales data, other than shipment data; or pricing data.

To this end, they may jointly:

a. Arrange for the exchange of information between governmental officials concerning the use and abuse of controlled substances.

b. Co-ordinate and co-operate in training programs on controlled substance law enforcement at the local and state levels.

c. Co-operate with the bureau by establishing a centralized unit which will accept, catalogue, file, and collect statistics, including records of drug dependent persons and other controlled substance law offenders within the state, and make such information available for federal, state and local law enforcement purposes; except that they shall not furnish the name or identity of a patient or research subject whose identity could not be obtained under subsection 3.

d. Conduct programs of eradication aimed at destroying wild or illicit growth of plant species from which controlled substances may be extracted.

2. Results, information, and evidence received from the bureau relating to the regulatory functions of this chapter, including results of inspections conducted by that agency may be relied upon and acted upon by the board or the department in the exercise of their regulatory functions under this chapter.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the court having jurisdiction shall order such controlled substances forfeited and destroyed. A record of the place where the controlled substances were seized, of the kinds and quantities of controlled substances so destroyed, and of the time, place, and manner of destruction, shall be kept, and a return under oath, reporting said destruction, shall be made to the court and to the bureau by the officer who destroys them.

2. Upon written application by the board, the court by whom the forfeiture of controlled substances has been decreed may order the delivery of any of them, except controlled substances listed in schedule I, to the board for distribution or destruction, as provided by this section.

3. Upon application by any hospital within this state, not operated for private gain, the board may in its discretion deliver any controlled substances that have come into its custody by authority of this section to the applicant for medicinal use. The board may from time to time deliver excess stocks of controlled substances to the bureau for disposition, or may destroy the excess controlled substances.

4. The proof of entitlement to any exemption or exception by the person claiming its benefit shall be a valid defense.

2. The absence of proof that a person is the duly authorized holder of an appropriate registration or order form issued under this chapter creates a rebuttable presumption that the person is not the holder of such registration or form.

[82 Acts, ch 1147, §5]

1. The person in control of the substance expressly or impliedly represents that the substance has the effect of a controlled substance.
2. The person in control of the substance expressly or impliedly represents that the substance because of its nature or appearance can be sold or delivered as a controlled substance or as a substitute for a controlled substance.

The term "plant growth regulator" means any substance or mixture of substances intended, through physiological action, for accelerating or retarding the rate of growth or rate of maturation, or for otherwise altering the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the produce thereof, but shall not include substances to the extent that they are intended as plant nutrients, trace elements, nutritional chemicals, plant inoculants, and soil amendments.

4. The term "ingredient statement" means either:

a. A statement of the name and percentage by weight of each active ingredient, together with the total percentage of the inert ingredients, in the pesticide.

b. When the pesticide contains arsenic in any form, the ingredient statement shall also include percentages of total and water soluble arsenic, each calculated as elemental arsenic.

5. The term "active ingredient" means:

a. In the case of a pesticide other than a plant growth regulator, defoliant or desiccant, an ingredient which will prevent, destroy, repel, or mitigate insects, nematodes, fungi, rodents, weeds, or other pests.

b. In the case of a plant growth regulator, an ingredient which, through physiological action, will accelerate or retard the rate of growth or rate of maturation or otherwise alter the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the produce thereof.

c. In the case of a defoliant, an ingredient which will cause the leaves or foliage to drop from a plant.

d. In the case of a desiccant, an ingredient which will artificially accelerate the drying of plant tissue.

206.3 Examination and orders.

The examination of pesticides and those products to which pesticides have been applied for the content of pesticide residues shall be made under the direction of the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, for the purpose of determining whether they comply with the requirements of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter. If it shall appear from such examination that a pesticide fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, contemplates instituting criminal proceedings against any person, the secretary or representative shall cause notice to be given to such person. Any person so notified shall be given an opportunity to present the person's views, either orally or in writing, with regard to such contemplated proceedings and if thereafter in the opinion of the secretary, or authorized representative, it shall appear that the provisions of the chapter have been violated by such person, then the secretary or authorized representative may refer the facts to the county attorney for the county in which the violation shall have occurred with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the secretary or representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of proceedings in minor violations of the chapter whenever the secretary or representative believes that the public interests will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

1. The secretary may classify or subclassify certifications or licenses to be issued under this chapter. Each classification shall be subject to separate testing procedures and requirements. However, no person shall be required to pay an additional license fee if such person desires to be licensed in one or all of the license classifications provided for by the secretary under the authority of this section.

2. The secretary in promulgating rules under this chapter shall prescribe standards for the certification of applicators of pesticides. In determining these standards the secretary shall take into consideration standards of the United States environmental protection agency and is authorized to adopt by rule these standards.

206.5 Certification requirements.

No person shall apply any restricted use pesticide without first complying with the certification requirements of this chapter and such other restrictions as determined by the secretary or being under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

The secretary shall adopt, by rule, requirements for the examination, re-examination and certification of applicants and set a fee of not more than ten dollars for the certification program of commercial applicators and not more than five dollars for the certification program of private applicators.

The secretary may adopt rules for the training of applicators in co-operation with the co-operative extension service at Iowa State University of science and technology.

The secretary shall not require applicants for certification as private applicators to take and pass a written test, if the applicant instead shows proof that the applicant has attended an informational course of instruction approved by the secretary. The secretary shall provide for temporary certification for emergency purchases of restricted use products by requiring the purchaser to sign an affidavit, at the point of purchase, that the purchaser has read and understands the information on the label of the restricted use product being purchased.

The secretary shall require an annual license fee of not more than twenty-five dollars for each license. Application for a license shall be made in writing to the department on a designated form obtained from the department. Each application for a license shall contain information regarding the applicant's qualifications and proposed operations, license classification or classifications for which the applicant is applying.

A person who applies pesticides by use of an aircraft and who is licensed as an aerial commercial applicator in another state shall apply pesticides in Iowa only under the direct supervision of a person holding a valid Iowa aerial commercial applicator's license. The supervising aerial commercial applicator is jointly liable with the person who is licensed as an aerial commercial applicator in another state for damages. The supervising applicator shall immediately notify the secretary of the commencement and of the termination of service provided by the supervised applicator. However, a person licensed in another state as an aerial commercial applicator may operate independently if the person acquires an aerial commercial applicator license from the secretary, posts bond in an amount to be determined by the secretary, and registers with the department of transportation. The person is liable for damages.

2. Nonresident applicator. Any nonresident applying for a license under this chapter to operate in the state shall file a written power of attorney designating the secretary of state as the agent of such nonresident upon whom service of process may be had in the event of any suit against said nonresident person, and such power of attorney shall be so prepared and in such form as to render effective the jurisdiction of the courts of this state over such nonresident applicants. A nonresident who has a duly appointed resident agent upon whom process may be served as provided by law shall not be required to designate the secretary of state as such agent. The secretary of state shall be allowed such fees as provided by law for designating resident agents. The secretary shall be furnished with a copy of such designation of the secretary of state or of a resident agent, such copy to be certified by the secretary of state.

3. Examination for commercial applicator license. The secretary shall not issue a commercial applicator license until the individual engaged in or managing the pesticide application business is qualified by passing an examination to demonstrate to the secretary the individual's knowledge of how to apply pesticides under the classifications the individual has applied for, and the individual's knowledge of the nature and effect of pesticides the individual may apply under such classifications. The applicant successfully completing this examination requirement shall be a licensed commercial applicator.

4. Renewal of applicant's license. The secretary shall renew any applicant's license under the classifications for which such applicant is licensed, provided that a program of training of all personnel who apply pesticides has been established and maintained by the licensee. Such a program may include attending training sessions such as co-operative extension short courses or industry trade association training seminars.

5. Issue commercial applicator license. If the secretary finds the applicant qualified to apply pesticides in the classifications for which the applicant has applied and if the applicant files the bonds or insurance required under section 206.13, and if the applicant applying for a license to engage in aerial application of pesticides has met all of the requirements of the federal aviation administration, the department of transportation, and any other applicable federal or state laws or regulations to operate the equipment described in the application, the secretary shall issue a commercial applicator license limited to the classifications for which the applicant is qualified, which shall expire at the end of the calendar year of issue unless it has been revoked or suspended prior thereto by the secretary for cause. The secretary may limit the license of the applicant to the use of certain pesticides, or to certain areas, or to certain types of equipment if the applicant is only so qualified. If a license is not issued as applied for, the secretary shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons.

a. All state agencies, counties, municipal corporations, and any other governmental agency shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted thereunder concerning the application of pesticides.

b. Public applicators for agencies listed in this subsection shall be subject to examinations as provided for in this section, however, the secretary shall issue a limited license without a fee to such public applicator who has qualified for such license. The public applicator license shall be valid only when such applicator is acting as an applicator applying or supervising the application of pesticides used by such entities. Government research personnel shall be exempt from this licensing requirement when applying pesticides only to experimental plots. Individuals licensed pursuant to this section shall be licensed public applicators.

c. Such agencies and municipal corporations shall be subject to legal recourse by any person damaged by such application of any pesticide, and such action may be brought in the county where the damage or some part thereof occurred.

In determining these standards, the secretary shall take into consideration the standards of the United States environmental protection agency.

3. Reasons for not qualifying. If the secretary does not qualify the applicator under this section the secretary shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons therefor.

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to act in the capacity of a pesticide dealer, or advertise as, or assume to act as a pesticide dealer at any time without first having obtained a license from the secretary which shall expire at the end of the calendar year of issue. A license shall be required for each location or outlet located within this state from which such pesticides are distributed. Any manufacturer, registrant, or distributor who has no pesticide dealer outlet licensed within this state and who distributes such pesticides directly into this state shall obtain a pesticide dealer license for the manufacturer's, registrant's, or distributor's principal out-of-state location or outlet.

2. Application for a license shall be accompanied by a twenty-five dollar annual license fee for the primary business location and an additional five dollar annual license fee for each other location or outlet within the state, and shall be on a form prescribed by the secretary and shall include the full name of the person applying for such license.

3. Provisions of this section shall not apply to a pesticide applicator who sells pesticides as an integral part of the applicator's pesticide application service, or any federal, state, county or municipal agency which provides pesticides only for its own programs.

206.9 Co-operative agreements.

The secretary may co-operate, receive grants-in-aid and enter into agreements with any agency of the federal government, of this state or its subdivisions, or with any agency of another state, or trade associations to obtain assistance in the implementation of this chapter and to:

206.10 License renewals — delinquent fee.

If the application for renewal of any license provided for in this chapter is not filed prior to the first of January in any year, a delinquent fee of twenty-five percent shall be assessed and added to the original fee and shall be paid by the applicant before the renewal license shall be issued. A delinquent fee shall not apply if the applicant furnishes an affidavit certifying that the applicant has not applied pesticides after the expiration of the applicant's license. All licenses issued under this chapter shall expire December 31 each year.

206.12 Registration.

1. Every pesticide which is distributed, sold or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce between points within the state through any point outside this state shall be registered with the department of agriculture and land stewardship. All registration of products shall expire on the thirty-first day of December following date of issuance, unless such registration shall be renewed annually, in which event expiration date shall be extended for each year of renewal registration, or until otherwise terminated; provided that:

a. For the purpose of this chapter, fertilizers in mixed fertilizer-pesticide formulations shall be considered as inert ingredients.

b. Within the discretion of the secretary, or the secretary's authorized representative, a change in the labeling or formulae of a pesticide may be made within the current period of registration, without requiring a reregistration of the product, provided the name of the item is not changed.

2. The registrant shall file with the department a statement containing:

a. The name and address of the registrant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if other than the registrant.

b. The name of the pesticide.

c. An ingredient statement in which the accepted common name and percentage by weight of each active ingredient is listed as well as the percentage of inert ingredients in the pesticides.

d. A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the pesticide and a statement of all claims made and to be made for it including directions for use.

e. A full description of the tests made and results thereof upon which the claims are based, if requested by the secretary. In the case of renewal or reregistration, a statement may be required only with respect to information which is different from that furnished when the pesticide was registered or last reregistered.

3. The registrant, before selling or offering for sale any pesticide in this state, shall register each brand and grade of such pesticide with the secretary upon forms furnished by the secretary, and, for the purpose of defraying expenses connected with the enforcement of this chapter, the secretary shall set the registration fee annually at no more than twenty dollars for each and every brand and grade to be offered for sale in this state. The fees collected shall be deposited in the treasury to the credit of the pesticide fund to be used only for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

4. The secretary, whenever the secretary deems it necessary in the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of the complete formula of any pesticide. If it appears to the secretary that the composition of the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it and if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted comply with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary shall register the article.

5. If it does not appear to the secretary that the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it or if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the article, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with this chapter so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, registration is not required in the case of a pesticide shipped from one plant within this state to another plant within this state operated by the same person.

206.13 Surety bond or insurance required of commercial applicator.

The secretary shall not issue a commercial applicator's license as required in section 206.6 until the applicant has furnished evidence of financial responsibility with the secretary consisting either of a surety bond or a liability insurance policy or certification thereof. Such surety bond or liability insurance policy shall provide coverage to pay on behalf of the insured all sums which the insured shall become legally obligated to pay as damages as a result of the pesticide operations of the applicant. However, the surety bond or liability insurance policy will not apply to damages or injury which are either expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. Any such liability insurance policy shall be subject to the insurer's policy provisions filed with and approved by the commissioner of insurance. The surety bond or liability insurance policy submitted as evidence of financial responsibility need not apply to damages or injury to agricultural crops, plants, or land being worked upon by the applicant.

The amount of the surety bond or liability insurance as provided for in this section shall be not less than fifty thousand dollars for property damage and public liability insurance, each separately. Such surety bond or liability insurance shall be maintained at not less than that sum at all times during the licensed period. The secretary shall be notified ten days prior to any reduction at the request of the applicant or cancellation of such surety bond or liability insurance by the surety or insurer. The total and aggregate of the surety and insurer for all claims shall be limited to the face of the bond or liability insurance policy.

206.14 Reports of pesticide accidents, incidents or loss.

1. The secretary may by rule require the reporting of significant pesticide accidents or incidents to a designated state agency.

2. Any person claiming damages from a pesticide application shall have filed with the secretary on a form prescribed by the secretary a written statement claiming that the person has been damaged.

a. This report shall have been filed within sixty days after the alleged date that damages occurred. If a growing crop is alleged to have been damaged, the report must be filed prior to the time that twenty-five percent of the crop has been harvested. Such statement shall contain, but shall not be limited to the name of the person allegedly responsible for the application of said pesticide, the name of the owner or lessee of the land on which the crop is grown and for which damage is alleged to have occurred, and the date on which the alleged damage occurred.

b. The secretary shall prepare a form to be furnished to persons to be used in such cases and such form shall contain such other requirements as the secretary may deem proper. The secretary shall, upon receipt of such statement, notify the licensee and the owner or lessee of the land or other person who may be charged with the responsibility of the damages claimed, and furnish copies of such statements as may be requested. The secretary shall inspect damages whenever possible and when the secretary determines that the complaint has sufficient merit the secretary shall make such information available to the person claiming damage and to the person who is alleged to have caused the damage.

3. The filing of such a report or failure to give notice shall not preclude recovery in an action for damages and shall not affect the limitations of actions set forth in chapter 614. Nothing herein shall prohibit an action for damages for bodily injury or death to any person.

a. The filing of such report or the failure to file such a report shall not be a violation of this chapter. However, if the person failing to file such report is the only one injured from such use or application of a pesticide by others, the secretary may, when in the public interest, refuse to hold a hearing for the denial, suspension or revocation of a license or permit issued under this chapter until such report is filed.

b. Where damage is alleged to have occurred, the claimant shall permit the secretary, the licensee and the licensee's representatives, such as surety or insurer, to observe within reasonable hours the lands or nontarget organism alleged to have been damaged in order that such damage may be examined. Failure of the claimant to permit such observation and examination of the damaged lands shall automatically bar the claim against the licensee.

4. The secretary shall require, by rule, that veterinarians licensed and practicing veterinary medicine in the state promptly report to the department a case of domestic livestock poisoning or suspected poisoning by agricultural chemicals.

[C73, §206.13, 455B.102; C75, 77, §206.14, 455B.102; C79, §206.14, 455B.132; C81, §206.14]

The secretary shall require commercial applicators and certified commercial applicators to maintain records with respect to application of pesticides. Such relevant information as the secretary may deem necessary may be specified by regulation. Such records shall be kept for a period of three years from the date of the application of the pesticide to which such records refer, and the secretary shall, upon request in writing, be furnished with a copy of such records forthwith.

Any pesticide or device that is distributed, sold, or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state shall be liable to be proceeded against in any district court in any county of the state where it may be found and seized for confiscation by condemnation.

a. In the case of a pesticide:

(1) If it is adulterated or misbranded.

(2) If it has not been registered under the provisions of section 206.12.

(3) If it fails to bear on its label the information required by this chapter.

(4) If it is a white powder pesticide and is not colored as required under this chapter.

b. In the case of a device, if it is misbranded.

2. If the article is condemned, it shall, after entry of decree, be disposed of by destruction or sale as the court may direct and the proceeds if such article is sold, less legal costs, shall be paid to the state treasurer; provided, that the article shall not be sold contrary to the provisions of this chapter; and, provided further, that upon payment of costs and execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that the article shall not be disposed of unlawfully, the court may direct that said article be delivered to the owner thereof for relabeling or reprocessing as the case may be.

3. When a decree of condemnation is entered against the article, court costs and fees and storage and other proper expenses shall be awarded against the person, if any, intervening as claimant of the article.

4. When the secretary has reasonable cause to believe a pesticide or device is being distributed, stored, transported, or used in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any of the prescribed rules under this chapter, the secretary may issue and serve a written "stop sale, use, or removal" order upon the owner or custodian of any such pesticide or device. If the owner or custodian is not available for service of the order, the secretary may attach the order to the pesticide or device and notify the registrant. The pesticide or device shall not be sold, used, or removed until the provisions of this chapter have been complied with and the pesticide or device has been released in writing under conditions specified by the secretary or the violation has been otherwise disposed of as provided in this chapter by a court of competent jurisdiction.

2. No article shall be deemed in violation of this chapter when intended solely for export to a foreign country, and when prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, all the provisions of this chapter shall apply.

3. The provisions of section 206.6 relating to licenses and requirements for their issuance shall not apply to any farmer applying pesticides for the farmer or with ground equipment or manually for the farmer's neighbors; provided, that:

218.58 Construction, repair, and improvement projects — emergencies — rules.

The department shall work with the department of general services to accomplish the following responsibilities:

1. The department shall prepare and submit to the director of the department of management, as provided in section 8.23, a multiyear construction program including estimates of the expenditure requirements for the construction, repair, or improvement of buildings, grounds, or equipment at the institutions listed in section 218.1.

2. The commissioner shall have plans and specifications prepared by the department of general services for authorized construction, repair, or improvement projects costing over twenty-five thousand dollars. An appropriation for a project shall not be expended until the department of general services has adopted plans and specifications and has completed a detailed estimate of the cost of the project, prepared under the supervision of a registered architect or registered professional engineer. Plans and specifications shall not be adopted and a project shall not proceed if the project would require an expenditure of money in excess of the appropriation.

3. The department of general services shall let all contracts under chapter 18 for authorized construction, repair, or improvement of departmental buildings, grounds, or equipment.

4. If the commissioner and the director of the department of general services determine that emergency repairs or improvements estimated to cost more than twenty-five thousand dollars are necessary to assure the continued operation of a departmental institution, the requirements of subsections 2 and 3 for preparation of plans and specifications and competitive procurement procedures are waived. A determination of necessity for waiver by the commissioner and the director of the department of general services shall be in writing and shall be entered in the project record for emergency repairs or improvements. Emergency repairs or improvements shall be accomplished using plans and specifications and competitive procurement procedures to the greatest extent possible, considering the necessity for rapid completion of the project. A waiver of the requirements of subsections 2 and 3 does not authorize an expenditure in excess of an amount otherwise authorized for the repair or improvement.

5. A claim for payment relating to a project shall be itemized on a voucher form pursuant to section 421.40, certified by the claimant and the architect or engineer in charge, and audited and approved by the department of general services. Upon approval by the department of general services, the voucher shall be forwarded to the director of revenue and finance, who shall draw a warrant to be paid by the treasurer of state from funds appropriated for the project. A partial payment made before completion of the project does not constitute final acceptance of the work or a waiver of any defect in the work.

6. Subject to the prior approval of the director in control of a departmental institution, minor projects costing five thousand dollars or less may be authorized and completed by the executive head of the institution through the use of day labor. A contract is not required if a minor project is to be completed with the use of resident labor.

INTERSTATE MENTAL HEALTH COMPACT

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted. 218A.2 Administrator. 218A.3 Supplementary agreements.	218A.4 Payments. 218A.5 Consultation. 218A.6 Distribution of compact.

218A.1 Mental health compact enacted.

The interstate compact on mental health is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that the proper and expeditious treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient can be facilitated by co-operative action, to the benefit of the patients, their families, and society as a whole. Further, the party states find that the necessity of and desirability for furnishing such care and treatment bears no primary relation to the residence or citizenship of the patient but that, on the contrary, the controlling factors of community safety and humanitarianism require that facilities and services be made available for all who are in need of them. Consequently, it is the purpose of this compact and of the party states to provide the necessary legal basis for the institutionalization or other appropriate care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient under a system that recognizes the paramount importance of patient welfare and to establish the responsibilities of the party states in terms of such welfare.

ARTICLE II

As used in this compact:

a. "Sending state" shall mean a party state from which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or from which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

b. "Receiving state" shall mean a party state to which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or to which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

c. "Institution" shall mean any hospital or other facility maintained by a party state or political subdivision thereof for the care and treatment of mental illness or mental deficiency.

d. "Patient" shall mean any person subject to or eligible as determined by the laws of the sending state, for institutionalization or other care, treatment, or supervision pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

e. "After-care" shall mean care, treatment and services provided a patient, as defined herein, on convalescent status or conditional release.

f. "Mental illness" shall mean mental disease to such extent that a person so afflicted requires care and treatment for the person's own welfare, or the welfare of others, or of the community.

g. "Mental deficiency" shall mean mental deficiency as defined by appropriate clinical authorities to such extent that a person so afflicted is incapable of managing the person and the person's affairs, but shall not include mental illness as defined herein.

h. "State" shall mean any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III

a. Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency, the person shall be eligible for care and treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of the person's residence, settlement or citizenship qualifications.

b. The provisions of paragraph "a" of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, any patient may be transferred to an institution in another state whenever there are factors based upon clinical determinations indicating that the care and treatment of said patient would be facilitated or improved thereby. Any such institutionalization may be for the entire period of care and treatment or for any portion or portions thereof. The factors referred to in this paragraph shall include the patient's full record with due regard for the location of the patient's family, character of the illness and probable duration thereof, and such other factors as shall be considered appropriate.

c. No state shall be obliged to receive any patient pursuant to the provisions of paragraph "b" of this article unless the sending state has given advance notice of its intention to send the patient; furnished all available medical and other pertinent records concerning the patient; given the qualified medical or other appropriate clinical authorities of the receiving state an opportunity to examine the patient if said authorities so wish; and unless the receiving state shall agree to accept the patient.

d. In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients, an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that the interstate patient would be taken if the interstate patient were a local patient.

e. Pursuant to this compact, the determination as to the suitable place of institutionalization for a patient may be reviewed at any time and such further transfer of the patient may be made as seems likely to be in the best interest of the patient.

ARTICLE IV

a. Whenever, pursuant to the laws of the state in which a patient is physically present, it shall be determined that the patient should receive after-care or supervision, such care or supervision may be provided in a receiving state. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state shall have reason to believe that after-care in another state would be in the best interest of the patient and would not jeopardize the public safety, they shall request the appropriate authorities in the receiving state to investigate the desirability of affording the patient such after-care in said receiving state, and such investigation shall be made with all reasonable speed. The request for investigation shall be accompanied by complete information concerning the patient's intended place of residence and the identity of the person in whose charge it is proposed to place the patient, the complete medical history of the patient, and such other documents as may be pertinent.

b. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state and the appropriate authorities in the receiving state find that the best interest of the patient would be served thereby, and if the public safety would not be jeopardized thereby, the patient may receive after-care or supervision in the receiving state.

c. In supervising, treating, or caring for a patient on after-care pursuant to the terms of this article, a receiving state shall employ the same standards of visitation, examination, care, and treatment that it employs for similar local patients.

ARTICLE V

Whenever a dangerous or potentially dangerous patient escapes from an institution in any party state, that state shall promptly notify all appropriate authorities within and without the jurisdiction of the escape in a manner reasonably calculated to facilitate the speedy apprehension of the escapee. Immediately upon the apprehension and identification of any such dangerous or potentially dangerous patient, the patient shall be detained in the state where found pending disposition in accordance with law.

ARTICLE VI

The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the patient, shall be permitted to transport any patient being moved pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE VII

a. No person shall be deemed a patient of more than one institution at any given time. Completion of transfer of any patient to an institution in a receiving state shall have the effect of making the person a patient of the institution in the receiving state.

b. The sending state shall pay all costs of and incidental to the transportation of any patient pursuant to this compact, but any two or more party states may, by making a specific agreement for that purpose, arrange for a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

c. No provision of this compact shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationships among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

d. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to any provision of this compact.

e. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to invalidate any reciprocal agreement between a party state and a nonparty state relating to institutionalization, care or treatment of the mentally ill or mentally deficient, or any statutory authority pursuant to which such agreements may be made.

ARTICLE VIII

a. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to abridge, diminish, or in any way impair the rights, duties, and responsibilities of any patient's guardian on the guardian's own behalf or in respect of any patient for whom the guardian may serve, except that where the transfer of any patient to another jurisdiction makes advisable the appointment of a supplemental or substitute guardian, any court of competent jurisdiction in the receiving state may make such supplemental or substitute appointment and the court which appointed the previous guardian shall upon being duly advised of the new appointment, and upon the satisfactory completion of such accounting and other acts as such court may by law require, relieve the previous guardian of power and responsibility to whatever extent shall be appropriate in the circumstances; provided, however, that in the case of any patient having settlement in the sending state, the court of competent jurisdiction in the sending state shall have the sole discretion to relieve a guardian appointed by it or continue the guardian's power and responsibility, whichever it shall deem advisable. The court in the receiving state may, in its discretion, confirm or reappoint the person or persons previously serving as guardian in the sending state in lieu of making a supplemental or substitute appointment.

b. The term “guardian” as used in paragraph “a” of this article shall include any guardian, trustee, legal committee, conservator, or other person or agency however denominated who is charged by law with power to act for or responsibility for the person or property of a patient.

ARTICLE IX

a. No provision of this compact except article V shall apply to any person institutionalized while under sentence in a penal or correctional institution or while subject to trial on a criminal charge, or whose institutionalization is due to the commission of an offense for which, in the absence of mental illness or mental deficiency, said person would be subject to incarceration in a penal or correctional institution.

b. To every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no patient shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup, but such patient shall, with all expedition, be taken to a suitable institutional facility for mental illness or mental deficiency.

ARTICLE X

a. Each party state shall appoint a “compact administrator” who, on behalf of the compact administrator’s state, shall act as general co-ordinator of activities under the compact in the administrator’s state and who shall receive copies of all reports, correspondence, and other documents relating to any patient processed under the compact by the administrator’s state either in the capacity of sending or receiving state. The compact administrator or the administrator’s duly designated representative shall be the official with whom other party states shall deal in any matter relating to the compact or any patient processed thereunder.

b. The compact administrators of the respective party states shall have power to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XI

The duly constituted administrative authorities of any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements for the provision of any service or facility or for the maintenance of any institution on a joint or co-operative basis whenever the states concerned shall find that such agreements will improve services, facilities, or institutional care and treatment in the fields of mental illness or mental deficiency. No such supplementary agreement shall be construed so as to relieve any party state of any obligation which it otherwise would have under other provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XII

This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states legally joining therein.

ARTICLE XIII

a. A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. Such withdrawal shall take effect one year after notice thereof has been communicated officially and in writing to the governors and compact administrators of all other party states. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not change the status of any patient who has been sent to said state or sent out of said state pursuant to the provisions of the compact.

b. Withdrawal from any agreement permitted by article VII “b” as to costs or from any supplementary agreement made pursuant to article XI shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

220.2 Establishment of authority — title guaranty division.

1. The Iowa finance authority is established, and constituted a public instrumentality and agency of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions, to undertake programs which assist in attainment of adequate housing for low or moderate income families, elderly families, and families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, and to undertake the Iowa homesteading program and the small business loan program. The powers of the authority are vested in and shall be exercised by a board of nine members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. No more than five members shall belong to the same political party. As far as possible the governor shall include within the membership persons who represent community and housing development industries, housing finance industries, the real estate sales industry, elderly families, minorities, lower income families, very low income families, handicapped and disabled families, average taxpayers, local government, and any other person specially interested in community housing.

A title guaranty division is created within the authority. The powers of the division as relating to the issuance of title guaranties shall be vested in and exercised by a division board of five members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The membership of the board shall include an attorney, an abstractor, a real estate broker, a representative of a mortgage-lender and a representative of the housing development industry. The executive director of the authority shall appoint a director of the title guaranty division who shall be an attorney and shall serve as an ex officio member of the board. The appointment of and compensation for the division director shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 19A.

a. Members of the board of the division shall be appointed by the governor for staggered terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. A person shall not serve on the division board while serving on the authority board. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member of the division board may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or for other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing.

b. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum. An affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the division.

c. Members of the board are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

d. Members of the board and the director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

e. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chair of the board or on written request of two members.

f. Members shall elect a chair and vice chair annually and other officers as they determine. The director shall serve as secretary to the board.

g. The net earnings of the division, beyond that necessary for reserves, backing, guaranties issued or to otherwise implement the public purposes and programs authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state and are subject to subsection 8.

2. Members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for staggered terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member of the authority may be removed from office by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty or other just cause, after notice and hearing, unless the notice and hearing is expressly waived in writing.

3. Five members of the authority constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members is necessary for any substantive action taken by the authority. The majority shall not include any member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member of a conflict of interest shall be conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the authority.

4. Members of the authority are entitled to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent in performance of duties as members, and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties as members.

5. Members of the authority and the executive director shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

6. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or whenever two members so request.

7. Members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually, and other officers as they determine, but the executive director shall serve as secretary to the authority.

8. The net earnings of the authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of its notes, bonds or other obligations, or to implement the public purposes and programs herein authorized, shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, title to all property owned by the authority, including any such net earnings of the authority, shall vest in the state. The state reserves the right at any time to alter, amend, repeal, or otherwise change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the authority, including the power to terminate the authority, except that no law shall ever be passed impairing the obligation of any contract or contracts entered into by the authority to the extent that any such law would contravene article I, section 21 of the Constitution of the state of Iowa or article I, section 10 of the Constitution of the United States.

220.3 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious shortage of safe and sanitary residential housing available to low or moderate income families.

4. This shortage is conducive to disease, crime, environmental decline and poverty and impairs the economic value of large areas, which are characterized by depreciated values, impaired investments, and reduced capacity to pay taxes and are a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the state.

5. These conditions result in a loss in population and further deterioration, accompanied by added costs to communities for creation of new public facilities and services elsewhere.

6. One major cause of this condition has been recurrent shortages of funds in private channels.

7. These shortages have contributed to reductions in construction of new residential units, and have made the sale and purchase of existing residential units a virtual impossibility in many parts of the state.

8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise have not in the past corrected these conditions.

9. A stable supply of adequate funds for residential financing is required to encourage new housing and the rehabilitation of existing housing in an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the problems described in this section.

10. It is necessary to create a state finance authority to encourage the investment of private capital and stimulate the construction and rehabilitation of adequate housing through the use of public financing.

11. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted.

12. The interest costs paid by group homes of fifteen beds or less licensed as health care facilities or child foster care facilities for facility acquisition and indirectly reimbursed by the department of human services through payments for patients at those facilities who are recipients of medical assistance or state supplementary assistance are severe drains on the state's budget. A reduction in these costs obtained through financing with tax-exempt revenue bonds would clearly be in the public interest.

13. There is a need in areas of the state for new construction of certain group homes of fifteen beds or less licensed as health care facilities or child foster care facilities to provide adequate housing and care for elderly and handicapped Iowans and to provide adequate housing and foster care for children.

14. The abstract-attorney's title opinion system promotes land title stability for determining the marketability of land titles and is a public purpose. A public purpose will be served by providing, as an adjunct to the abstract-attorney's title opinion system, a low cost mechanism to provide for additional guaranties of real property titles in Iowa. The title guaranties will facilitate mortgage lenders' participation in the secondary market and add to the integrity of the land-title transfer system in the state.

220.4 Guiding principles.

In the performance of its duties and implementation of its powers, and in the selection of specific programs and projects to receive its assistance, the authority shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The authority shall not become an owner of real property, except on a temporary basis where necessary in order to implement its programs, protect its investments by means of foreclosure or other means, or to facilitate transfer of real property for the use of low or moderate income families.

2. The authority shall function in co-operation with local governmental units and local or regional housing agencies, and in fulfillment of local or regional housing plans, and to that end shall provide technical assistance to local governmental units and local or regional agencies in need of that assistance.

3. A local contributing effort shall be required of each project assisted by the authority. As used in this subsection, "project" includes one or more programs authorized under the provisions of this chapter. The local contribution may be provided by local governmental units or by local or regional agencies, public or private. Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, the percentage and type of local contribution shall be determined by the authority, and may include, but should not be limited to, cash match, land contribution, tax abatement, or ancillary facilities. The authority shall encourage ingenuity and creativity in local effort.

4. The authority shall encourage units of local government and local and regional housing agencies to use federal revenue-sharing funds for programs which increase or improve the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families.

5. The authority shall encourage co-operative housing efforts at the local level, both with respect to the co-operation of public bodies with private enterprise and civic groups, and with respect to the formation of regional or multicounty units engaged in housing.

6. Wherever practicable, the authority shall give preference to the following types of programs:

a. Those which treat housing problems in the context of the total needs of individuals and communities, recognizing that individuals may have other problems and needs closely related to their need for adequate housing, and that the development of isolated housing units without regard for neighborhood and community development tends to create undesirable consequences.

b. Those which promote home ownership by families of low or moderate income, recognizing the need for educational counseling programs in family financial management and home maintenance in order to achieve this goal.

c. Those which involve the rehabilitation and conservation of existing housing units, and the preservation of existing neighborhoods and communities.

d. Those designed to serve elderly families, families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, lower income families or very low income families.

7. The authority shall encourage the protection, restoration and rehabilitation of historic properties, and the preservation of other properties of special value for architectural or esthetic reasons. As used in this subsection, "historic properties" means landmarks, landmark sites, or districts which are significant in the history, architecture, archaeology or culture of this state, its communities, or the nation.

8. The authority shall exercise diligence and care in selection of projects to receive its assistance, and shall apply customary and acceptable business and lending standards in selection and subsequent implementation of such projects.

220.5 General powers.

The authority has all of the general powers needed to carry out its purposes and duties, and exercise its specific powers, including but not limited to the power to:

1. Issue its negotiable bonds and notes as provided in sections 220.26 to 220.30 in order to finance its programs.

2. Sue and be sued in its own name.

3. Have and alter a corporate seal.

4. Make and alter bylaws for its management consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

5. Make and execute agreements, contracts and other instruments, with any public or private entity. All political subdivisions, public housing agencies, other public agencies and state departments and agencies may enter into contracts and otherwise co-operate with the authority.

6. Acquire, hold, improve, mortgage, lease and dispose of real and personal property, including, but not limited to, the power to sell at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any such property, mortgage loan, or other obligation held by it.

7. Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its operations and property interests.

8. Fix and collect fees and charges for its services.

9. Subject to an agreement with bondholders or noteholders, invest or deposit moneys of the authority in a manner determined by the authority, notwithstanding chapter 452 or 453.

10. Accept appropriations, gifts, grants, loans, or other aid from public or private entities. A record of all gifts or grants, stating the type, amount and donor, shall be clearly set out in the authority's annual report along with the record of other receipts.

11. Provide technical assistance and counseling related to the authority's purposes, to public and private entities.

12. In co-operation with other local, state or federal governmental agencies, conduct research studies, develop estimates of unmet housing needs, and gather and compile data useful to facilitate decision making.

13. Co-operate in development of, and initiate housing demonstration projects.

14. Contract with architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, housing construction and finance experts, and other advisors. However, the authority may enter into contracts or agreements for such services with local, state or federal governmental agencies.

15. Through the title guaranty division, make and issue title guaranties on Iowa real property in a form acceptable to the secondary market, to fix and collect the charges for the guaranties and to procure reinsurance against any loss in connection with the guaranties.

16. Make, alter and repeal rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and subject to chapter 17A.

The executive director shall be selected primarily for administrative ability and knowledge in the field, without regard to political affiliation. The executive director shall not, directly or indirectly, exert influence to induce any other officers or employees of the state to adopt a political view, or to favor a political candidate for office.

2. The executive director shall advise the authority on matters relating to housing and housing finance, carry out all directives from the authority, and hire and supervise the authority's staff pursuant to its directions and under the provisions of chapter 19A, except that principal administrative assistants with responsibilities in housing development, accounting, mortgage loan processing, and investment portfolio management shall be exempt.

3. The executive director, as secretary of the authority, shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of its minute book and seal. The executive director shall have authority to cause to be made copies of all minutes and other records and documents of the authority and to give certificates under the seal of the authority to the effect that such copies are true copies and all persons dealing with the authority may rely upon such certificates.

The authority shall require all mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by it to agree that they will not designate certain areas as unsuitable for the making of mortgage loans because of the prevailing income, racial, ethnic or other characteristics of the inhabitants of the area. This subsection is intended to prohibit all mortgage lenders who participate in authority programs from engaging in the practice commonly known as "redlining".

5. The authority may require mortgage lenders who participate in programs financed or otherwise assisted by the authority to take affirmative action to make mortgage loans in areas with a higher than average concentration of lower-income families or members of racial or ethnic minorities.

7. As a condition of a property improvement loan or mortgage loan, the authority may, upon reasonable notice, during construction or rehabilitation of the housing and during its operation:

1. The Iowa homesteading program is established under the supervision of the authority to alleviate problems of slums and blighted areas, to provide for rehabilitation of deteriorating housing, and to provide the opportunity to rehabilitate and occupy such housing, to low and moderate income families, all of which are deemed to be public purposes. The authority may establish homesteading projects in any part of the state, subject to approval of the local governing body; and, in co-operation with suitable local agencies, the authority may provide financial and technical assistance to housing sponsors for the establishment and implementation of homesteading projects which meet the requirements of this chapter, and the authority may co-operate with similar local projects to provide housing.

2. Homesteading projects which meet the requirements of this chapter may be designated by the authority as Iowa homesteading projects. The conditional and absolute conveyance of fee simple title to real property, to a homesteading applicant, shall result in the inclusion of such real property in a designated Iowa homesteading project. The result of such designation shall be the cancellation of back taxes, penalties, interest and costs of the real property pursuant to sections 446.39 and 569.8, notwithstanding any other financial, technical or principal involvement in the property by the authority.

3. The authority may provide property improvement or mortgage loans to facilitate designated Iowa homesteading projects. Such loans may be for the purpose of financing acquisition, improvement or rehabilitation of housing included in a designated homesteading project. Such loans shall be made only upon property for which a conditional conveyance will be granted. The interest rates, security requirements and other terms of such loans shall be established by the authority and shall be as low as practical considering market conditions.

a. The housing sponsor of the designated homesteading project shall agree to:

(1) Approval of homesteading applicants on a first-in-time is first-in-right basis, unless probability of success with a subsequent applicant is substantially higher. In cases of two or more applicants for a single property, priority may be given to a resident of the city or county where the property is located, or to the applicant with the lowest income who is otherwise qualified.

(2) Assistance to approved applicants in seeking and obtaining counseling and financial assistance from appropriate sources during homesteading, and for a period of three years after the date of absolute conveyance.

(3) Conditional conveyance of unoccupied residential property to the applicant with or without any substantial consideration, which consideration may include the value of work performed by the applicant in rehabilitating the property during the period of the conditional conveyance.

(4) Arrangement of local supervision and administration of the designated homesteading project, including announced quarterly inspections of homesteads during rehabilitation.

(5) Revocation of the conditional conveyance, at option of the authority, upon any material breach of the agreement between the housing sponsor and the authority.

(6) Repossession of property, subject to authority approval and upon proper notice and hearing unless waived in writing by the homesteading applicant, for unreasonable failure to complete rehabilitation as agreed upon at the time of conditional conveyance.

(7) Absolute conveyance of fee simple title to the applicant, upon satisfactory completion of rehabilitation and arrangement of mortgage financing from the authority or other institutions, as appropriate.

b. An approved applicant for a designated homesteading project shall:

(1) Agree to rehabilitate the property to meet applicable building or housing code standards within a two-year period after conditional conveyance. However, the two-year period may be extended for just cause.

(2) Agree to live in and occupy the homesteading property for five continuous years from the date of conditional conveyance. Such agreement may be waived by mutual agreement of the authority, the housing sponsor, and the applicant.

c. The authority may:

(1) Encourage homesteading sponsors and participating political subdivisions to co-ordinate approaches to neighborhood and area wide improvement through upgrading the public services and facilities through a designated Iowa homesteading project.

(2) Recommend legislation to provide appropriate exemptions from real property tax laws for properties included in a designated homesteading project.

220.15 Housing assistance for very low income and lower income families.

1. The authority shall participate in the housing assistance payments program under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 1401 et seq., title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 201 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). The purpose of participation is to enable the authority to obtain, on behalf of the state of Iowa, set-asides of contract authorization reserved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for public housing agencies, to enter into annual contributions contracts, to otherwise expedite use of the program through the use of state housing finance funds, and to encourage new construction and substantial rehabilitation of housing suitable for assistance under the program. Assistance may be provided for existing housing units made available by owners for the program, as well as for newly constructed housing units. Maximum rents shall be established by the authority in conformity with federal law.

2. To establish maximum eligibility for set-asides the authority shall:

a. Develop and implement procedures which will to the fullest possible extent compliment the allocation system of the United States department of housing and urban development.

b. Evaluate statewide and local housing needs and develop a program to provide housing in areas of most critical need, within its allocation of set-aside contract authority.

c. Comply with all documentation and application requirements of the federal law.

3. The authority shall co-operate to the fullest extent possible with local housing agencies for implementation of the housing assistance payments program. The agency may enter into agreements with local housing agencies, housing cooperatives, or other public or private entities for commitment of housing assistance upon completion of an approved proposal, and may subsequently execute with such entities housing assistance payments contracts.

4. Permanent financing for units to be subsidized under the housing assistance payments program may be provided by the authority, directly or indirectly, by the proceeds from the sale of bonds and notes as provided in this Act, or by other moneys available to the authority, by appropriations or otherwise.

5. The authority shall, when appropriate, take necessary steps to co-operate with the United States department of agriculture in implementation of sections 517 and 521 of the Housing Act of 1949, sections 1487 and 1490a, title 42, United States Code, as amended by section 514 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383). The purpose of such programs is to extend to rural areas the provisions of housing assistance payments programs.

6. The authority shall, when appropriate, take necessary steps to participate in the programs of federal assistance to state housing finance agencies for expanding the supply of housing available to low or moderate income families, as provided in section 802 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383).

7. The authority may participate in other programs under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383), and in other federal programs designed to increase the supply of adequate housing for low or moderate income families and may recommend appropriate legislation to the general assembly where further legislation is needed to accomplish such participation. However, failure of the authority to participate in the federal programs set out in this section does not invalidate any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority.

1. The authority may establish and administer through local public or private agencies an eighteen month demonstration program of rent supplements designed for very low income and lower income families, to provide for payment of a maximum of the difference between twenty-five percent of an eligible family's income and the fair market rental of a unit of housing, as established by the authority. Eligibility of a housing unit for participation in the demonstration rent supplement program is subject to approval by the authority based on compliance with the definition of adequate housing in this chapter, and agreement by the owner to comply with authority rules pertaining to equal housing opportunity, maintenance, occupancy, and other authority policies. The authority shall, by rule, establish criteria for participation in the demonstration project, based upon the provisions of this section and section 220.4, including but not limited to the selection of target groups, determined by geographical location or special needs, to receive the benefits of the program under the demonstration project. It shall then receive applications for participation in the demonstration project from agencies or organizations described in subsection 2, prepare a detailed plan for the total demonstration project including a statement of funding needs, and submit the plan to the general assembly with its budget request.

2. A governing body of a city or county, a public housing agency, or a private, nonprofit organization which provides or wishes to provide housing to lower income families, is eligible to apply for participation in the rent supplement program. Funds available for the rent supplement program, whether from appropriations or from other sources, shall be made available by the authority to cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations on a one-to-one matching basis with funds supplied by the cities, counties, public housing agencies, or private, nonprofit organizations that participate.

220.17 Emergency housing fund.

The authority may make grants and temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, for the following purposes:

1. To defray the local contribution requirement for housing sponsors who apply for rent supplement assistance as provided in section 220.16 and who, in the judgment of the authority, would not be able to provide the local contribution without undue hardship.

2. To defray temporary housing costs that result from displacement by natural or other disaster, if the disaster has been proclaimed by the governor.

3. To defray a portion of the expense required to develop and initiate housing which deals creatively with the housing problems of low or moderate income families, elderly families, and families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled.

220.18 Special housing assistance.

1. The authority may make temporary loans at interest rates and terms as determined by the authority, to defray development costs for housing for low or moderate income families provided by housing sponsors. A "development cost" loan shall be repaid in full by the borrower concurrent with obtaining a construction loan, unless the authority extends the period for repayment, but the period for repayment shall not be extended beyond the date of obtaining a mortgage loan on the housing. As used in this section, "development costs" means the costs approved by the authority as appropriate expenditures which may be incurred by builders and developers prior to commitment and initial advance of the proceeds of a construction loan or a mortgage loan, including but not limited to:

a. Payments for options to purchase properties on the proposed housing site, deposits on contracts of purchase, or, with approval of the authority, payments for the purchasing of such properties.

b. Legal and organizational expenses including payment of attorney fees, project manager, clerical and other staff salaries, office rent and other incidental expenses.

c. Payment of fees for preliminary feasibility studies and advances for planning, engineering and architectural work.

d. Expenses for tenant surveys and market analysis.

e. Necessary application and other fees.

2. The authority may make or participate in the making of property improvement loans or mortgage loans for rehabilitation or preservation of existing dwellings for the use of low or moderate income families, elderly families or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled. A rehabilitation or preservation loan may be for the estimated cost of the rehabilitation work to be done, for the purpose of refinancing an existing mortgage loan, for the purpose of doing the rehabilitation work, or for the purpose of acquiring housing in which rehabilitation work is to be done. The rehabilitation or preservation loan shall not exceed, with all other existing indebtedness of the property, the estimated market value of the property as determined by the authority, after the rehabilitation or preservation is completed, and the term of a loan shall not exceed the estimated useful life of the property as determined by the authority, after rehabilitation or preservation. The proposed rehabilitation or preservation shall assure that the property will not contain any substantial violation of applicable housing codes. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be made only when the authority determines that the proposed mortgagor is unable to obtain the necessary financing from nongovernmental sources upon terms and conditions which the proposed mortgagor reasonably could be expected to fulfill. A rehabilitation or preservation loan under this subsection may be provided only within an area of a city for which an authorized city agency submits a satisfactory affirmative neighborhood preservation program, or in other areas within or outside of cities where the authority determines that rehabilitation or preservation is economically sound and a program of neighborhood preservation is appropriate. The following criteria, along with others reasonably related to the purposes of this chapter, which may be determined by the authority, shall be considered in determining whether an affirmative neighborhood preservation program is satisfactory:

a. The degree of blight, decay or deterioration of housing or the imminent threat of blight, decay or deterioration of housing within the area.

b. The degree to which financing for repairs, remodeling or rehabilitation of housing within the area is available.

c. The proportion of residential structures within the area which are owner-occupied.

d. The degree to which the financial resources of proposed occupants of the housing, including resources available to them under this chapter or other federal, state, and local laws and programs, provide reasonable assurances of the economic feasibility of the financing of rehabilitation or preservation.

e. The expressed commitment of the city to provide a concentrated effort to enforce the applicable housing codes within the area.

f. The expressed commitment of the city to provide capital improvements and other city services so as to stabilize, improve and restore the neighborhood.

The fund notes of each issue shall be dated, shall mature at such times not exceeding ten years from their dates, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at prices and under terms and conditions as determined by the authority. The authority shall determine the form and manner of execution of the fund notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denominations and the places of payment of principal and interest, which may be any financial institution within or without the state or any agent, including the lender. If any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on fund notes or coupons shall cease to be that officer before the delivery of the notes or coupons, the signature or facsimile shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if the officer had remained in office until delivery. The fund notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the authority determines, and provision may be made for the registration of coupon fund notes as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the conversion into coupon fund notes of any fund notes registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of registered and coupon fund notes. Fund notes shall bear interest at rates as determined by the authority and may be sold in a manner, either at public or private sale, and for a price as the authority determines to be best to effectuate the purposes of the housing assistance fund. The proceeds of fund notes shall be used solely for the purposes for which issued and shall be disbursed in a manner and under restrictions as provided in this section and in the resolution of the authority providing for their issuance. The authority may provide for the replacement of fund notes which become mutilated or are destroyed or lost.

220.20 Loans to mortgage lenders.

1. The authority may make, and contract to make, loans to mortgage lenders on terms and conditions as it determines which are reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment and to implementing the purposes of this chapter, and subject to this section, and all mortgage lenders are authorized to borrow from the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of each loan to a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender, within a reasonable period after receipt of the loan proceeds as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have entered into written commitments to make, and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall have disbursed the loan proceeds in new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the loan. New mortgage loans shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rules which are reasonably related to implementing the purposes of this chapter.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender to which the authority has made a loan, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section, and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of a loan to a national banking association or a federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require, as a condition of a loan to a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

5. The authority shall require that each mortgage lender receiving a loan pursuant to this section shall issue and deliver to the authority an evidence of its indebtedness to the authority which shall constitute a general obligation of the mortgage lender and shall bear a date, mature at a time, be subject to prepayment, and contain other provisions consistent with this section and reasonably related to protecting the security of the authority's investment, as the authority determines.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, the interest rate and other terms of loans to mortgage lenders made from the proceeds of an issue of bonds or notes of the authority shall be at least sufficient to assure the payment of the bonds or notes and the interest on them as they become due.

7. The authority shall require that loans to mortgage lenders are additionally secured as to payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of and lien upon collateral security by special escrow funds or other forms of guarantee and in such amounts and forms as the authority shall by resolution determine to be necessary to assure the payment of the loans and the interest thereon as they become due. Collateral security shall consist of direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, the United States or one of its agencies, obligations satisfactory to the authority which are issued by other federal agencies, direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed by a state or a political subdivision of a state, or investment quality obligations approved by the authority.

8. The authority may require that collateral for loans be deposited with a bank, trust company or other financial institution acceptable to the authority located in this state and designated by the authority as custodian. In the absence of such a requirement, each mortgage lender shall enter into an agreement with the authority containing provisions as the authority deems necessary to adequately identify and maintain the collateral, service the collateral, and require the mortgage lender to hold the collateral as an agent for the authority and be accountable to the authority as the trustee of an express trust for the application and disposition of the collateral and the income from it. The authority may also establish additional requirements as it deems necessary with respect to the pledging, assigning, setting aside, or holding of collateral and the making of substitutions for it or additions to it and the disposition of income and receipts from it.

9. The authority may require as a condition of loans to mortgage lenders, any representations and warranties it determines are necessary to secure the loans and carry out the purposes of this section.

However, the total purchase price for all mortgage loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the mortgage loans purchased. Mortgage lenders are authorized to sell mortgage loans to the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules of the authority.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from mortgage lenders that the mortgage lenders, within a reasonable period after receipt of the purchase price as the authority prescribes by rule, shall enter into written commitments to loan and, within a reasonable period thereafter as the authority prescribes by rule, shall loan an amount equal to the entire purchase price of the mortgage loans, on new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families or certify that mortgage loans purchased are mortgage loans made to low or moderate income families. New mortgage loans to be made by mortgage lenders shall have terms and conditions as the authority prescribes by rule. The authority may make a commitment to purchase mortgage loans from mortgage lenders in advance of the time such loans are made by mortgage lenders. The authority shall require as a condition of such commitment that mortgage lenders certify in writing that all mortgage loans represented by the commitment will be made to low or moderate income families, and that other authority specifications will be complied with.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each mortgage lender from which the authority has purchased mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the authority of the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families as required by this section and in that connection may, through its members, employees or agents, inspect the books and records of a mortgage lender.

4. Compliance by a mortgage lender with the terms of its agreement with the authority with respect to the making of new mortgage loans to low or moderate income families may be enforced by decree of any district court of this state. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of mortgage loans from any national banking association or federally chartered savings and loan association, the consent of the association to the jurisdiction of courts of this state over any such proceeding. The authority may also require as a condition of the authority's purchase of mortgage loans from a mortgage lender, agreement by the mortgage lender to the payment of penalties to the authority for violation by the mortgage lender of its agreement with the authority, and the penalties shall be recoverable at the suit of the authority.

a. The unpaid principal balance of the mortgage loan and the interest rate on it have been accurately stated to the authority.

b. The amount of the unpaid principal balance is justly due and owing.

c. The mortgage lender has no notice of the existence of any counterclaim, offset or defense asserted by the mortgagor or the mortgagor's successor in interest.

d. The mortgage loan is evidenced by a bond or promissory note and a mortgage which has been properly recorded with the appropriate public official.

e. The mortgage constitutes a valid first lien on the real property described to the authority subject only to real property taxes not yet due, installments of assessments not yet due, and easements and restrictions of record which do not adversely affect, to a material degree, the use or value of the real property or improvements on it.

f. The mortgagor is not now in default in the payment of any installment of principal or interest, escrow funds, real property taxes or otherwise in the performance of obligations under the mortgage documents and has not to the knowledge of the mortgage lender been in default in the performance of any obligation under the mortgage for a period of longer than sixty days during the life of the mortgage.

g. The improvements to the mortgaged real property are covered by a valid and subsisting policy of insurance issued by a company authorized to issue such policies in this state and providing fire and extended coverage in amounts as the authority prescribes by rule.

h. The mortgage loan meets the prevailing investment quality standards for mortgage loans in this state.

6. A mortgage lender is liable to the authority for damages suffered by the authority by reason of the untruth of a representation or the breach of a warranty and, in the event that a representation proves to be untrue when made or in the event of a breach of warranty, the mortgage lender shall, at the option of the authority, repurchase the mortgage loan for the original purchase price adjusted for amounts subsequently paid on it, as the authority determines.

7. The authority shall require the recording of an assignment of a mortgage loan purchased by it from a mortgage lender and shall not be required to notify the mortgagor of its purchase of the mortgage loan. The authority shall not be required to inspect or take possession of the mortgage documents if the mortgage lender from which the mortgage loan is purchased by the authority enters into a contract to service the mortgage loan and account to the authority for it.

8. If a provision of this section is inconsistent with another provision of law of this state governing mortgage lenders, the provision of this section controls for the purposes of this section.

220.24 Certification of amortization periods.

Before the authority provides money, either directly or indirectly, for any mortgage loan including property improvement loans authorized under 220.37, it must obtain the certificate of a competent appraiser to the effect that the economic lifespan of the property on which the mortgage loan or property improvement loan is to be made is in excess of the period of amortization of the mortgage loan or property improvement loan. If an appraiser is used for the purpose of this section or for valuation of property for which the authority will provide money, either directly or indirectly, the authority shall give preference to the use of a local appraiser.

220.26 Bonds and notes.

1. The authority may issue its negotiable bonds and notes in principal amounts as, in the opinion of the authority, are necessary to provide sufficient funds for achievement of its corporate purposes, the payment of interest on its bonds and notes, the establishment of reserves to secure its bonds and notes, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and powers. The bonds and notes shall be deemed to be investment securities and negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code.

2. Bonds and notes issued by the authority are payable solely and only out of the moneys, assets, or revenues of the authority, and as provided in the agreement with bondholders or noteholders pledging any particular moneys, assets or revenues. Bonds or notes are not an obligation of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitations, but are special obligations of the authority payable solely and only from the sources provided in this chapter, and the authority may not pledge the credit or taxing power of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority, or make its debts payable out of any moneys except those of the authority.

3. Bonds and notes must be authorized by a resolution of the authority. However, a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to negotiate and fix the details of an issue of bonds or notes by an appropriate certificate of the authorized officer.

4. Bonds shall:

a. State the date and series of the issue, be consecutively numbered, and state on their face that they are payable both as to principal and interest solely out of the assets of the authority and do not constitute an indebtedness of this state or any political subdivision of this state other than the authority within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limit.

b. Be either registered, registered as to principal only, or in coupon form, issued in denominations as the authority prescribes, fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this state, signed on behalf of the authority with the manual or facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, attested by the manual or facsimile signature of the secretary, have impressed or imprinted thereon the seal of the authority or a facsimile of it, and the coupons attached shall be signed with the facsimile signature of the chairperson or vice chairperson, be payable as to interest at rates and at times as the authority determines, be payable as to principal at times over a period not to exceed fifty years from the date of issuance, at places, and with reserved rights of prior redemption, as the authority prescribes, be sold at prices, at public or private sale, and in a manner as the authority prescribes, and the authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it deems necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and sale, and be issued under and subject to the terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal, redemption premiums, if any, interest and other terms, conditions, covenants and protective provisions safeguarding payment, not inconsistent with this chapter, as are found to be necessary by the authority for the most advantageous sale, which may include, but are not limited to, covenants with the holders of the bonds as to:

(1) Pledging or creating a lien, to the extent provided by the resolution, on moneys or property of the authority or moneys held in trust or otherwise by others to secure the payment of the bonds.

(2) Providing for the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of or due to the authority.

(3) The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation or disposition of them.

(4) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of an issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied.

(5) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds and on the refunding of outstanding or other bonds.

(6) The procedure by which the terms of a contract with the holders of bonds may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which consent may be given.

(7) The creation of special funds into which moneys of the authority may be deposited.

(8) Vesting in a trustee properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority determines, which may include the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed for the holders of any issue of bonds pursuant to section 220.28, in which event the provisions of that section authorizing appointment of a trustee by the holders of bonds shall not apply, or limiting or abrogating the right of the holders of bonds to appoint a trustee under that section, or limiting the rights, duties and powers of the trustee.

(9) Defining the acts or omissions which constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority and providing for the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds in the event of a default. However, rights and remedies shall be consistent with the laws of this state and other provisions of this chapter.

(10) Any other matters which affect the security and protection of the bonds and the rights of the holders.

5. The authority may issue its bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds or notes of the authority then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premiums thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the outstanding bonds or notes. Until the proceeds of bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes are applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding bonds or notes or the redemption of outstanding bonds or notes, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and be invested and reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The interest, income and profits earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds or notes to be refunded by purchase, retirement or redemption. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of proceeds and interest earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds shall be issued and secured and subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

6. The authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew them from time to time but the maximum maturity of the notes, including renewals, shall not exceed ten years from the date of issue of the original notes. Notes are payable from any available moneys of the authority not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of the authority in anticipation of which the notes were issued. Notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. Notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds, and notes and the resolution authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection, which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Notes may be sold at public or private sale. In case of default on its notes or violation of any obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided in this chapter for bondholders. Notes shall be as fully negotiable as bonds of the authority.

7. A copy of each pledge agreement by or to the authority, including without limitation each bond resolution, indenture of trust or similar agreement, or any revisions or supplements to it shall be filed with the secretary of state and no further filing or other action under sections 554.9101 to 554.9507, article 9 of the uniform commercial code, or any other law of the state shall be required to perfect the security interest in the collateral or any additions to it or substitutions for it, and the lien and trust so created shall be binding from and after the time made against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the pledgor.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing its bonds, notes or other obligations shall be liable personally on the bonds, notes, or other obligations or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

9. The authority may make or participate in the making of loans to housing sponsors to provide interim construction financing for the construction or rehabilitation of adequate housing for low or moderate income persons or families, elderly persons or families, and persons or families which include one or more persons who are handicapped or disabled, and of non-institutional residential care facilities. An interim construction loan may be made under this section only if the loan is the subject of a commitment from an agency or instrumentality of the United States government or from the authority, to provide long-term financing for the mortgage loan and interim construction advances made under the interim construction loan will be insured or guaranteed by an agency or instrumentality of the United States government.

220.27 Reserve funds and appropriations.

1. The authority may create and establish one or more special funds, to be known as "bond reserve funds", and shall pay into each bond reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of the fund, any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing their issuance, and any other moneys which may be available to the authority for the purpose of the fund from any other sources. All moneys held in a bond reserve fund, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments of any redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be withdrawn from it at any time in an amount that will reduce the amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement established for the fund, as provided in this section, except for the purpose of making, with respect to bonds secured in whole or in part by the fund, payment when due of principal, interest, redemption premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve fund due to the investment of it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund requirement for it.

3. The authority shall not at any time issue bonds, secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the authority at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued or from other sources an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund will not be less than the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve fund requirement" means, as of any particular date of computation, an amount of money, as provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing the bonds with respect to which the fund is established, equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds of the authority secured in whole or in part by the fund.

4. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of its corporate purposes, provision is made in subsection 1 for the accumulation in each bond reserve fund of an amount equal to the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. In order further to assure maintenance of the bond reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July first of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor the chairperson's certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve fund to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable bond reserve fund.

5. All amounts paid over to the authority by the state pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute and be accounted for as advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority theretofore or thereafter issued, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes or obligations of the authority, the bond reserve fund and operating expenses.

6. The authority shall cause to be delivered to the legislative fiscal committee within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year its annual report certified by an independent certified public accountant (who may be the accountant or a member of the firm of accountants who regularly audits the books and accounts of the authority) selected by the authority. In the event that the principal amount of any bonds or notes deposited in a bond reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal or interest thereby reducing the amount of that fund to less than the bond reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall thereafter take steps to restore such bond reserve to the bond reserve fund requirement for that fund from any amounts available, other than principal of a bond issue, which are not pledged to the payment of other bonds or notes.

220.28 Remedies of bondholders and noteholders.

1. If the authority defaults in the payment of principal or interest on an issue of bonds or notes after they become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and the default continues for a period of thirty days, or if the authority fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or defaults in an agreement made with the holders of an issue of bonds or notes, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of bonds or notes of the issue then outstanding, by instrument filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located, and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of the bonds or notes for the purposes provided in this section.

2. The authority or any trustee appointed under the indenture under which the bonds are issued may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding shall:

a. Enforce all rights of the bondholders or noteholders, including the right to require the authority to carry out its agreements with the holders and to perform its duties under this chapter.

b. Bring suit upon the bonds or notes.

c. By action require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders.

d. By action enjoin any acts or things which are unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders.

e. Declare all the bonds or notes due and payable and if all defaults are made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the aggregate principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then outstanding, annul the declaration and its consequences.

The bondholders or noteholders, to the extent provided in the resolution by which the bonds or notes were issued or in their agreement with the authority, may enforce any of the remedies in paragraphs "a" to "e" or the remedies provided in those agreements for and on their own behalf.

3. The trustee shall also have and possess all powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of functions specifically set forth or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. Before declaring the principal of bonds or notes due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority and to the attorney general of the state.

5. The district court has jurisdiction of any action by the trustee on behalf of bondholders or noteholders. The venue of the action shall be in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

Units of local government shall have authority to enact ordinances in relation to locally originated, sponsored, and funded urban homesteading programs which, upon approval by the authority, can modify building and housing code requirements to the extent and for the purpose enumerated in section 220.14, subsection 3, paragraph "b".

220.30 Bonds and notes as legal investments.

Bonds and notes of the authority are securities in which public officers, state departments and agencies, political subdivisions, insurance companies, and other persons carrying on an insurance business, banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, administrators, executors, guardians, conservators, trustees and other fiduciaries, and other persons authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of this state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also securities which may be deposited with and may be received by public officers, state departments and agencies, and political subdivisions, for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is authorized.

220.31 Moneys of the authority.

1. Moneys of the authority from whatever source derived, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be paid to the authority and shall be deposited in a bank or other financial institution designated by the authority. The moneys shall be withdrawn on the order of the person authorized by the authority. Deposits shall, if required by the authority, be secured in the manner determined by the authority. The auditor of state and the auditor's legally authorized representatives may periodically examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing, and the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for the examination.

2. The authority may contract with holders of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, security, investment, and payment of moneys of the authority, of moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes, and to carry out the contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of the moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and banks and trust companies may give security for the deposits.

3. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders or noteholders and to the approval of the director of revenue and finance, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

4. The authority shall submit to the governor, the auditor of state, and the state comptroller, within thirty days of its receipt by the authority, a copy of the report of every external examination of the books and accounts of the authority other than copies of the reports of examinations made by the auditor of state.

220.35 Conflicts of interest.

1. If a member or employee other than the executive director of the authority has an interest, either direct or indirect, in a contract to which the authority is, or is to be, a party, or in a mortgage lender requesting a loan from, or offering to sell mortgage loans to, the authority, the interest shall be disclosed to the authority in writing and shall be set forth in the minutes of the authority. The member or employee having the interest shall not participate in action by the authority with respect to that contract or mortgage lender.

A violation of a provision of this subsection is misconduct in office under section 721.2. However, a resolution of the authority is not invalid because of a vote cast by a member in violation of this subsection unless the vote was decisive in the passage of the resolution.

For the purposes of this subsection, "action of the authority with respect to that contract or mortgage lender" means only an action directly affecting a separate contract or mortgage lender, and does not include an action which benefits the general public or which affects all or a substantial portion of the contracts or mortgage lenders included in a program of the authority.

2. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the right of a member, officer or employee of the authority to acquire an interest in bonds or notes of the authority or to limit the right of a member or employee other than the executive director to have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be, deposited or which is, or is to be, acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party.

3. The executive director shall not have an interest in a bank or other financial institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be, deposited or which is, or is to be, acting as trustee or paying agent under a trust indenture to which the authority is a party. The executive director shall not receive, in addition to fixed salary or compensation, any money or valuable thing, either directly or indirectly, or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale of property, or loan, made by the authority, nor shall the executive director be pecuniarily interested, either as principal, coprincipal, agent or beneficiary, either directly or indirectly, or through any substantial interest in any other corporation or business unit, in any such purchase, sale or loan.

220.36 Exemption from competitive bid laws.

The authority and all contracts made by it in carrying out its public and essential governmental functions under sections 220.12 to 220.16, 220.18, 220.20 and 220.21, shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of all laws of the state which provide for competitive bids in connection with such contracts.

220.37 Solar system loans.

[C81, §220.37]

220.38 Limitation on loans.

1. The borrower must occupy the property as the borrower's primary residence.

2. Only individuals who meet the principal requirements for an original mortgagor are eligible to assume a mortgage loan issued under this chapter.

220.39 New construction and housing rehabilitation requirements.

If demand exists for new construction financing, as evidenced by timely filed and executed application commitment agreements, the authority shall ensure that up to twenty-five percent of the proceeds from sales of obligations of the authority are made available to finance newly constructed housing units. The authority shall also provide that up to an additional twenty-five percent of the proceeds from the sale of obligations of the authority may be made available to finance newly constructed housing units at the request of parties submitting timely filed and executed application commitment agreements. The authority may limit the period during which requests for the additional twenty-five percent of the proceeds may be made and may charge the requesting parties fees in amounts equal to the authority's cost of making the additional twenty-five percent of the proceeds available to finance newly constructed housing units. Failure to comply with this requirement does not invalidate any obligations of the authority, but in the event of noncompliance with this requirement, the authority shall make a special report to the governor and to the general assembly as to the reasons for noncompliance.

If the authority determines that sufficient demand exists for housing rehabilitation financing, it shall endeavor to issue obligations to finance that demand. If the authority finds it is unable to issue obligations to meet that demand, it shall file, within six months of the date of the determination that a demand exists, a full report with the governor, secretary of the senate, and chief clerk of the house of representatives explaining the demand and the reason it was not possible to satisfy that demand.

shall not revert to the general fund and interest on the moneys in the fund shall be retained as part of the fund and not accrue to the general fund.

A person with which the moneys are deposited shall act as trustee of the moneys and shall hold and apply the moneys for the purposes specified in this chapter subject to limitations specified in this chapter and in the bond resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations.

220.45 Qualified mortgage bonds — allocation of state ceiling.

For purposes of this section, "Internal Revenue Code of 1954" means the same as defined in section 422.3, "state ceiling" means the same as defined in section 103A(g)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and "qualified mortgage bonds" means the same as defined in section 103A(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Pursuant to section 103A(g) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount of the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds is allocated to the authority. The authority may provide pursuant to subsection 1 for reallocation of an amount, not in excess of fifty percent of the state ceiling, among other governmental units in the state having authority to issue qualified mortgage bonds.

1. An allocation to a governmental unit shall not exceed the amount which the governmental unit has shown can reasonably be anticipated to be fully utilized during that calendar year. In considering a request for allocation, the authority shall consider the following factors:

a. The number of requests received and expected to be received from other governmental units for the calendar year and the volume of bonds represented by those requests.

b. The population of the governmental unit making the request.

c. The volume of bonds issued or to be issued by the authority in the calendar year the proceeds of which will be allocated to the same geographical area.

d. The amount of bond proceeds to be targeted to areas of chronic economic distress as defined in section 103A(k) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

e. The economies of a bond issue of a larger or smaller size.

f. Allocations made under this section in the same or previous calendar years to the governmental unit.

h. The probability that a governmental unit will be able to use the funds allocated within a reasonable period of time.

i. Other factors and considerations the authority deems necessary or appropriate.

a. That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b. That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority, may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreement or any other security instrument securing the debt obligation of the housing sponsor.

c. That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreement or security instrument on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee and if there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the agreement or instrument, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained in the agreement or instrument.

d. That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced and any collateral sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law and a trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured thereby may become a purchaser if it is the highest bidder.

e. Other terms and conditions.

3. The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes that the principal and interest shall be limited obligations payable solely out of the revenues derived from the debt obligation, collateral, or other security furnished by or on behalf of the housing sponsor, and that the principal and interest does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or a charge against its general credit or general fund.

4. The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 220.28, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued pursuant to and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent that they are inconsistent with this section.

a. A viable small business community is essential to the continuing welfare of Iowans who depend on small business for employment.

b. Iowa small business must continue to expand and develop if they are to remain competitive in state and local markets.

c. Small business expansion and development is dependent upon the availability of financing for expansion and development at interest rates which small businesses may reasonably pay.

d. Private financing for small businesses at low interest rates is unavailable to assist small business expansion and development. The Iowa small business loan program is necessary to encourage the investment of private capital in small business expansion and development through the use of public financing as provided in this section and sections 220.62 to 220.65.

2. The purposes of the small business loan program are:

a. To promote the business prosperity and economic welfare of Iowa and Iowans.

b. To assist, through loans, investments, and other transactions, the location of new small business and industry in the state.

c. To assist through loans, investments, and other transactions, existing small business and industry in the state.

The authority may purchase, and make advance commitments to purchase, residential mortgage loans from mortgage lenders at prices and upon terms and conditions it determines subject to this section. However, the total purchase price for all residential mortgage loans which the authority commits to purchase from a mortgage lender at any one time shall not exceed the total of the unpaid principal balances of the residential mortgage loans purchased. The amount of mortgage-backed securities sold shall not exceed principal of the mortgages retained by the authority as security.

3. The authority may require as a condition of purchase of a residential mortgage loan from a mortgage lender that the mortgage lender represent and warrant to the authority that:

a. The unpaid principal balance of the residential mortgage loan and the interest rate on it have been accurately stated to the authority.

b. The amount of the unpaid principal balance is justly due and owing.

f. PROGRAM

220.81 Residential mortgage interest reduction program.

1. The authority shall initiate a residential mortgage interest reduction program to reduce the interest costs on groups of mortgage loans. The authority shall use the money specially appropriated to operate this program, and the authority may use moneys declared to be surplus as provided in section 220.10, subsection 1, or moneys obtained from grants, gifts, bequests, contributions, and other uncommitted funds to operate this program.

2. Each mortgage loan included in this program shall be for the purpose of acquiring a single-family dwelling to be occupied by the owner of that dwelling, or a two-family dwelling where the owner will occupy one of the units. The authority shall adopt rules establishing the maximum purchase prices for both single-family dwellings and two-family dwellings in order to be included in a particular group of mortgages. These maximum purchase prices shall not exceed the maximum prices established by section 103A, Internal Revenue Code of 1954. These rules shall only apply to mortgages financed from the sale of tax-exempt bonds.

3. The interest reduction established by the authority for a group of loans shall meet the requirements of this subsection. The interest rate of a loan shall be reduced for a period not to exceed five years. The interest rate of a loan during the first year shall be reduced by not less than three percent and not more than five percent. The amount of the reduction in the interest rate of the loan in each subsequent year of the reduction period, if there are any subsequent years, shall be equal to the percent reduction in the first year multiplied times a fraction which has as its denominator the total number of years of the interest reduction period and has as its numerator the number of years remaining in the interest reduction period at the beginning of the subsequent year. For purposes of this subsection the first year of the interest reduction period starts on the date the loan is closed and ends eleven months after the date of the first monthly payment.

4. The authority shall implement this program by allocating a specified amount of money to reduce the interest rate on some or all of the mortgage loans purchased. The authority shall pay for the interest reduction on a group of loans to mortgage lenders, mortgage purchasers, or investors at the same time that it purchases that group of loans. For each bond issue using this program the authority shall establish the interest rate reductions it will purchase, the amount the authority will pay for the interest rate reductions, and the method of determining which of the eligible loans will be reduced.

220.83 Recapture of interest reduction payment.

1. A mortgagor shall repay the authority the lesser of the amount of interest reduction payment actually paid by the authority on behalf of the mortgagor or fifty percent of the net appreciation of the property. The term "net appreciation of the property" as used in this section means an increase in the value of the property over the purchase price less the reasonable costs of sale and the reasonable costs of improvements made to the property.

2. Repayment shall be made when any of the following occur:

a. The mortgagor sells or otherwise transfers the property. However, repayment is not required if the transfer is to the surviving spouse of the mortgagor upon the mortgagor's death.

b. The mortgagor rents the property for more than twelve months.

c. The mortgagor requests the authority to release the lien on the property.

d. The mortgage lender files a court action to foreclose on the mortgage. However, the authority may abate payment pending the outcome of the foreclosure action.

1. The authority through the title guaranty division shall initiate and operate a program in which the division shall offer guaranties of real property titles in this state. The terms, conditions and form of the guaranty contract shall be forms approved by the division board. The division shall fix a charge for the guaranty in an amount sufficient to permit the program to operate on a self-sustaining basis, including payment of administrative costs and the maintenance of an adequate reserve against claims under the title guaranty program. A title guaranty fund is created in the office of the treasurer of state. Funds collected under this program shall be placed in the title guaranty fund and are available to pay all claims, necessary reserves and all administrative costs of the title guaranty program. Moneys in the fund shall not revert to the general fund and interest on the moneys in the fund shall be retained as a part of the fund and shall not accrue to the general fund. If the authority board in consultation with the division board determines that there are surplus funds in the title guaranty fund after providing for adequate reserves and operating expenses of the division, the surplus funds shall be transferred to the commitment costs fund created pursuant to section 220.40.

2. A title guaranty issued under this program is an obligation of the division only and claims are payable solely and only out of the moneys, assets and revenues of the title guaranty fund and are not an indebtedness or liability of the state. The state is not liable on the guaranties.

3. With the approval of the authority board the division and its board shall consult with the insurance division of the department of commerce in developing a guaranty contract acceptable to the secondary market and developing any other feature of the program with which the insurance division may have special expertise. The insurance division shall establish the amount for a loss reserve fund. Except as provided in this subsection, the title guaranty program is not subject to the jurisdiction of or regulation by the insurance division or the commissioner of insurance.

4. Each participating mortgage lender, attorney and abstractor shall pay an annual participation fee to be eligible to participate in the title guaranty program. The fee shall be set by the division, subject to the approval of the authority.

5. The participation of abstractors, attorneys and lenders shall be in accordance with rules established by the division and adopted by the authority pursuant to chapter 17A. Each participant shall at all times maintain liability coverage in amounts approved by the division. Upon payment of a claim by the division, the division shall be subrogated to the rights of the claimant against all persons relating to the claim.

6. Prior to the issuance of a title guaranty, the division shall require evidence that an abstract of title to the property in question has been brought up-to-date and certified by a participating abstractor in a form approved by division rules and a title opinion issued by a participating attorney in the form approved in the rules stating the attorney's opinion as to the title. The division shall require evidence of the abstract being brought up-to-date and the abstractor shall retain evidence of the abstract as determined by the board.

7. The attorney rendering a title opinion shall be authorized to issue a title guaranty certificate subject to the rules of the authority. A person or mortgage lender participating in the title guaranty program shall not charge or receive any portion of the charge for the guaranty as a result of their participation in the title guaranty program.

8. A participating mortgage lender shall notify the division when the mortgage covered by a title guaranty has been satisfied of record.

9. The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A that are necessary for the implementation of the title guaranty program as established by the division and that have been approved by the authority.

IOWA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOND BANK PROGRAM

220.101 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares that:

1. Economic development and expansion of business, industry, and farming in the state is dependent upon the availability of financing of the development and expansion at affordable interest rates.

2. Private financing at low interest rates for small business under the Iowa finance authority small business loan program, for beginning farmers under the agricultural development authority beginning farmer loan program or soil conservation loan program, and for commercial, industrial, and other business enterprises pursuant to chapter 419 is severely limited because of the unattractiveness of tax exempt financing to financial institutions in the state.

3. The pooling of private financing enhances the marketability of the obligations involved and increases access to other state, regional, and national credit markets.

4. The creation of an Iowa economic development bond bank program will make the pooling of private financing available to small businesses, farmers, agricultural landowners and operators, and commercial, industrial, and other business enterprises at favorable interest rates with reduced marketing costs.

5. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, or granted.

220.102 Establishment of bond bank program — bonds and notes — projects.

The authority shall assist the development and expansion of family farming, soil conservation, housing, and business in the state through the establishment of the Iowa economic development bond bank program. The authority may issue its bonds or notes, or series of bonds or notes for the purpose of defraying the cost of one or more projects and make secured and unsecured loans for the acquisition and construction of projects on terms the authority determines. For purposes of this section, projects shall include any of the following:

1. A project defined in section 220.1, subsection 26, for which loans may be made by the authority pursuant to the small business loan program.

2. The acquisition of agricultural land and improvements and depreciable agricultural property by beginning farmers for the implementation of permanent soil and water conservation practices and the acquisition of conservation farm equipment, or any other purpose for which loans may be made by the Iowa agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175.

3. A project defined in section 419.1, subsection 2, for which bonds or notes may be issued by a city or a county.

220.103 Iowa economic development bond bank program — specific powers.

In carrying out the Iowa economic development bond bank program, the authority may do any of the following:

1. Make secured and unsecured loans for both the acquisition and the construction of projects on terms the authority determines. Any loan made with respect to any project for which a loan may be made pursuant to chapter 175 shall be made only upon the request and with the consent of the agricultural development authority. The loans may be made to any person or entity including, but not limited to, a city, a county, and the agricultural development authority for projects approved by the Iowa finance authority. The Iowa finance authority may take any action which is reasonable and lawful to protect its security and to avoid losses from its loans.

2. Acquire, hold, and mortgage personal property and real estate and interests in real estate to be used as a project.

3. Purchase, construct, improve, furnish, equip, lease, option, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of one or more projects under the terms the authority determines. However, in the lease, sale, or loan agreement relating to a project, the authority shall provide for adequate maintenance of the project.

4. Grant a mortgage, lien, pledge, assignment, or other encumbrance on one or more projects, revenues, or reserve or other funds established in connection with obligations, or with respect to a lease, sale, or loan relating to one or more projects, or a guaranty or insurance agreement relating to one or more projects, or a secured or unsecured interest of the authority in one or more projects or parts of one or more projects.

5. Provide that the interest on obligations may vary in accordance with a base or formula authorized by the authority.

6. Contract for the acquisition, construction, or both of one or more projects or parts of one or more projects and for the leasing, subleasing, sale, or other disposition of one or more projects in a manner determined by the authority.

1. The authority may enter into loan agreements with one or more borrowers to finance in whole or in part the acquisition of one or more projects by construction or purchase. The repayment obligation of the borrower or borrowers may be unsecured, secured by a mortgage or security agreement, or secured by other security as the authority deems advisable. The repayment obligation may be evidenced by one or more notes of the borrower or borrowers. The loan agreements may contain terms and conditions the authority deems advisable.

2. The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the projects set forth in section 220.94 and may enter into one or more lending agreements or purchase agreements with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority may enter into agreements to provide for any of the following:

a. That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority.

b. That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreements or any other security instruments securing the debt obligations of the borrower or borrowers.

c. That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreements or security instruments on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee. If there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the loan agreements or security instruments, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the loan agreement or security instrument.

d. That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or if there is a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced. Collateral may be sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law. A trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured by the mortgage or security agreement may become a purchaser if the trustee or holder is the highest bidder.

e. Other terms and conditions as deemed necessary or appropriate by the authority.

220.105 Security for bonds — reserve funds — validity of pledge — nonliability — irrevocable contracts.

1. The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds or notes for the Iowa economic development bond bank program that the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds or notes are payable exclusively from any of the following:

a. The income and receipts or other money derived from the projects financed with the proceeds of the bonds or notes.

b. The income and receipts or other money derived from designated projects whether or not the projects are financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the bonds or notes.

c. The authority's income and receipts of other assets generally, or a designated part or parts of them.

2. For the purpose of securing one or more issues of its bonds or notes, the authority may establish one or more special funds, called "capital reserve funds". The authority may pay into the capital reserve funds the proceeds of the sale of its bonds or notes and other money which may be made available to the authority from other sources for the purposes of the capital reserve funds. Except as provided in this section, money in a capital reserve fund shall be used only as required for any of the following:

a. The payment of the principal of and interest on bonds or notes or of the sinking fund payments with respect to those bonds or notes.

b. The purchase or redemption of the bonds or notes.

c. The payment of a redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds or notes are redeemed before maturity.

However, money in a capital reserve fund shall not be withdrawn if the withdrawal would reduce the amount in the capital reserve fund to less than the capital reserve fund requirement, except for the purpose of making payment, when due, of principal, interest, redemption premiums on the bonds or notes, and making sinking fund payments when other money pledged to the payment of the bonds or notes is not available for the payments. Income or interest earned by, or increment to, a capital reserve fund from the investment of all or part of the fund may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority if the transfer does not reduce the amount of the capital reserve fund below the capital reserve fund requirement.

3. If the authority decides to issue bonds or notes secured by a capital reserve fund, the bonds or notes shall not be issued if the amount in the capital reserve fund is less than the capital reserve fund requirement, unless at the time of issuance of the bonds or notes the authority deposits in the capital reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds or notes to be issued or from other sources, an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund, is not less than the capital reserve fund requirement.

4. In computing the amount of a capital reserve fund for the purpose of this section, securities in which all or a portion of the fund is invested shall be valued by a reasonable method established by the authority by resolution. Valuation shall include the amount of interest earned or accrued as of the date of valuation.

5. In this section, "capital reserve fund requirement" means the amount required to be on deposit in the capital reserve fund as of the date of computation as determined by resolution of the authority.

6. To assure maintenance of the capital reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July 1 of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor the chairperson's certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable capital reserve fund.

7. All amounts paid to the authority by the state pursuant to this section shall be considered advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority that have previously been issued or will be issued, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes, or obligations of the authority, the capital reserve fund, and operating expenses.

8. If any amount deposited in a capital reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal, premium, or interest on the bonds or notes or sinking fund payments with respect to bonds or notes thus reducing the amount of that fund to less than the capital reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall take steps to restore the capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund from any amounts designated as being available for such purpose.

9. The authority may establish reserve funds, other than capital reserve funds, to secure one or more issues of its bonds or notes. The authority may deposit in a reserve fund established under this subsection the proceeds of the sale of its bonds or notes and other money which is made available from any other source. The authority may allow a reserve fund established under this subsection to be depleted without complying with subsection 6 or subsection 8.

10. It is the intention of the general assembly that a pledge made in respect of bonds or notes shall be valid and binding from the time the pledge is made, that the money or property so pledged and received after the pledge by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery or further act, and that the lien of the pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority whether or not the parties have notice of the lien. Neither the resolution, trust agreement, nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created needs to be recorded or filed under the Iowa uniform commercial code to be valid, binding, or effective against the parties.

11. Neither the members of the authority nor a person executing the bonds or notes are liable personally on the bonds or notes or are subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds or notes.

12. The bonds or notes issued by the authority are not an indebtedness or other liability of the state or of a political subdivision of the state, except the authority, and are payable solely from the income and receipts or other funds or property of the authority which are designated in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes as being available as security for bonds or notes. The authority shall not pledge the faith or credit of the state or of a political subdivision of the state, except the authority, to the payment of a bond or note. The issuance of a bond or note by the authority does not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the state or a political subdivision of the state to apply money from, or levy or pledge any form of taxation whatever to the payment of the bond or note.

13. The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of bonds or notes issued under the Iowa economic development bond bank program, that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of a contract made by the authority with respect to the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds and notes, together with the interest on them including interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state, as it refers to holders of bonds or notes of the authority, in a contract with the holders.

1. As used in this section:

a. "Small business" means any enterprise which is located in this state, which is operated for profit and under a single management, and which has either fewer than twenty employees or an annual gross income of less than three million dollars computed as the average of the three preceding fiscal years. This definition does not apply to any program or activity for which a definition for small business is provided for the program or activity by federal law or regulation or other state law.

b. "Targeted small business" means a small business, as defined in paragraph "a", which small business is fifty-one percent or more owned, operated, and actively managed by one or more women or minority persons. As used in this subsection, "minority person" means an individual who is a Black, Hispanic, Asian or Pacific Islander, or American Indian or Alaskan native.

2. The authority, in consultation with the director of the department of economic development, shall establish, contingent upon the availability of funds authorized for the program, a targeted small business loan guarantee program, to provide for guarantees with respect to loans made to beginning and existing targeted small businesses. The program shall provide guarantees not to exceed seventy-five percent for loans made by qualified lenders. The authority shall establish a loan reserve account from funds provided for this program, from which any default on a guaranteed loan under this section shall be paid. In administering the program the authority shall not guarantee loan values in excess of the amount credited to the reserve account and only moneys set aside in the loan reserve account may be used for the payment of a default.

3. All moneys designated for the targeted small business loan guarantee program shall be credited to the loan reserve account. The authority shall also establish an administrative account from which the operating costs of the program shall be paid. The authority may transfer moneys between the reserve and the administrative accounts. The authority shall determine what is the actuarially sound reserve requirement for the amount of guaranteed loans outstanding.

4. A default is not eligible for payment until the lender has satisfied all administrative and legal remedies for settlement of the loan and the loan has been reduced to judgment by the lender. After the default has been reduced to judgment and the guarantee paid from the loan reserve account, the authority, on behalf of the state, is entitled to an assignment of the judgment. The attorney general shall take all appropriate action to enforce the judgment or may enter into an agreement with the lender to provide for enforcement. Upon collection of the amount guaranteed, any excess collected shall be paid to the lender.

5. The director of the department of economic development, in conjunction with the director of the department of management, may organize one or more advisory groups composed of representatives of women, minority persons, the business and financial community, and others interested in the loan guarantee program to serve on a volunteer basis in advising the authority concerning the implementation of this section. The authority shall consult with the director of the department of economic development and the director of the department of management to determine whether targeted small businesses which have expressed an interest in doing business with agencies of state government under the provisions of sections 73.15 through 73.21 should be considered for application for guarantees under this section.

6. The authority may require an applicant for a loan guarantee under this section to consult with a designated small business assistance program as described in section 15.108, subsection 7, paragraph "c", subparagraph (3), prior to approval of the loan guarantee.

7. The authority shall adopt rules as necessary for the administration of the loan guarantee program under this section. Rules and guidelines adopted pursuant to this section are subject to review and approval by the director of the department of management.

8. The general assembly is not obligated to appropriate any moneys to pay for any defaults or to appropriate any moneys to be credited to the loan reserve account. The loan guarantee program does not obligate the state except to the extent provided in this section, and the authority in administering the program shall not give or lend the credit of the state of Iowa.

The fact of death with the time, place, and alleged cause shall be entered upon the docket of the court. The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the admission of a patient to such institutions may request an investigation by the county medical examiner in the event of the death of the patient. 222.13 Voluntary admissions.

The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for any person believed to be mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter may on behalf of such person request the county board of supervisors or their designated agent to apply to the superintendent of any state hospital-school for the voluntary admission of such person either as an inpatient or an outpatient of the hospital-school. After determining the legal settlement of such person as provided by this chapter, the board of supervisors shall, on forms prescribed by the state director, apply to the superintendent of the hospital-school in the district for the admission of such person to the hospital-school. An application for admission to a special unit of any person believed to be in need of any of the services provided by the special unit under section 222.88 may be made in the same manner, upon request of the parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the handicapped person. The superintendent shall accept the application providing a preadmission diagnostic evaluation confirms or establishes the need for admission, except that no application may be accepted if the institution does not have adequate facilities available or if the acceptance will result in an overcrowded condition.

If the hospital-school has no appropriate program for the treatment of such persons, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the placement of the persons in any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of human services, which offers appropriate services for such persons.

Upon applying for admission of a person to a hospital-school, or a special unit, the board of supervisors shall make a full investigation into the financial circumstances of that person and those liable for that person's support under section 222.78, to determine whether or not any of them are able to pay the expenses arising out of the admission of the person to a hospital-school or special treatment unit. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are presently unable to pay such expenses, they shall direct that the expenses be paid by the county. The board may review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally responsible for that person are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges so incurred during the period beginning on the date of the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the board again changes its finding. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are able to pay the expenses, they shall direct that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78, and the county auditor shall be responsible for the collection thereof.

222.14 Care by county pending admission.

If the institution is unable to receive a patient, the superintendent shall notify the county board of supervisors of the county from which the application in behalf of the prospective patient was made of the time when such person may be received. Until such time as the patient is able to be received by the institution, or when application has been made for admission to a public or private facility as provided in section 222.13 and the application is pending, the care of said person shall be provided as arranged by the county board of supervisors.

The parent, guardian, or any other person responsible for the voluntary admission of any person to a hospital-school or a special unit may, upon ten days' notice, obtain the discharge of such person by giving to the superintendent of the institution and the county board of supervisors of the county from which such person was admitted written notice of the desire for such discharge.

222.16 Petition for adjudication of retardation.

A petition for the adjudication of the mental retardation of a person within the meaning of this chapter may, with the permission of the court be filed without fee against such person with the clerk of the district court of the county or city in which such alleged mentally retarded person resides or is found. The petition may be filed by any relative of such person, by a guardian, or by any reputable citizen of the county of such residence or of such place of finding.

1. Commit the person to any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the commissioner of the department of human services. If the person has not been examined by a commission as appointed in section 222.28, the court shall, prior to issuing an order of commitment, appoint such a commission to examine the person for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the commission shall recommend that such order be issued and the private institution to which the person is to be committed shall advise the court that it is willing to receive the person.

2. Commit the person to the state hospital-school designated by the director to serve the county in which the hearing is being held, or to a special unit. The court shall prior to issuing an order of commitment request that a diagnostic evaluation of the person be made by the superintendent of the hospital-school or the special unit, or the superintendent's qualified designee. The evaluation shall be conducted at a place as the superintendent may direct. The cost of the evaluation shall be defrayed by the county of legal settlement unless otherwise ordered by the court. The cost may be equal to but shall not exceed the actual cost of the evaluation. Persons referred by a court to a hospital-school or the special unit for diagnostic evaluation shall be considered as outpatients of the institution. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the superintendent of the institution recommends that the order be issued, and advises the court that adequate facilities for the care of the person are available.

The court shall examine the report of the county attorney filed pursuant to section 222.13, and if the report shows that neither the person nor those liable for the person's support under section 222.78 are presently able to pay the charges rising out of the person's care in the hospital-school, or special treatment unit, shall enter an order stating that finding and directing that the charges be paid by the person's county of residence. The court may, upon request of the board of supervisors, review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital-school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the court finds upon review that the person or those legally responsible for the person are presently able to pay the expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges incurred during the period beginning on the date of the board's request for the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the court again changes its finding. If the court finds that the person, or those liable for the person's support, are able to pay the charges, the court shall enter an order directing that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222.78.

222.59 Superintendent may return patient.

1. The superintendent of a hospital-school or a special unit may, on application of the parent or guardian, return a patient to the parent or guardian. The superintendent in co-operation with other social agencies under the supervision of the Iowa department of human services may arrange for the patient to be placed at an appropriate health care facility licensed under chapter 135C or at some other appropriate facility, which may include a foster home or group home, either under an arrangement which involves full-time responsibility for the patient by such facility, or as part of an arrangement under which the patient is to participate in one or more educational, developmental or employment programs conducted by other responsible persons, agencies or facilities. Such return or placement may be made at any time, even though the patient was committed by a court, upon recommendation of the professional staff of the hospital-school or special unit that the patient is unlikely to benefit from further treatment, training, instruction, or care at the institution or is likely to improve the patient's life status in an alternate facility.

2. In planning for the placement of a patient outside the hospital-school or special unit, it shall be the superintendent's responsibility to arrange for representation of the patient's interest by the patient's parent or legal guardian. If the patient has no living parent and no legal guardian other than the department or one of its officers or employees, the superintendent shall request some person who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and habilitation of the mentally retarded, and who is not an officer or employee of the department nor of any agency or facility which is a party to the arrangement for placement of the patient, to act as the patient's advocate. The superintendent may request some such person to serve as advocate for a patient who has no legal guardian if either or both of the patient's parents are living but are deemed unlikely to or have shown themselves unable to represent the patient's interest effectively due to physical or mental infirmity, residence outside the state at such a distance as to make their effective participation unfeasible, or lack of interest demonstrated by refusal to participate in planning for the patient's placement or by failure to respond within thirty days to a letter sent by restricted certified mail to the last known address of the parent or parents.

3. Each proposed placement shall be reported to the state director, who may approve, modify, alter, or rescind the action if deemed necessary. In so doing, the superintendent of the hospital-school or special unit involved shall certify in writing to the state director that there has been compliance with subsection 2 and that the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is or is not satisfied with the proposed placement, as the case may be. In the latter case, the state director shall afford the parent, guardian or advocate an opportunity to explain objections to the proposed placement and, if the state director decides to approve the proposed placement despite such objection, shall advise the parent, guardian or advocate of the right to appeal the decision pursuant to subsection 4.

4. If a proposed placement of a patient from a hospital-school or special unit which is not satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is approved by the state director; or a proposed placement which is satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is modified, altered or rescinded by the state director, the parent, guardian or advocate may appeal to the department of human services, within thirty days after notification to the parent, guardian or advocate of the proposed placement. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing, conducted by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee who shall act as an impartial arbiter of fact and law. In such hearing the parent, guardian or advocate shall have the opportunity to confront witnesses, to have access to hospital records, to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to be represented by counsel. The standard for such fair hearing shall be to provide "that placement which inures to the best interest of the patient." Judicial review of actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed by the petitioner in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision. In the district court hearings, the parent, guardian or advocate has the right to be represented by counsel. The court shall, in all cases where the interests of the patient conflict with that of parent, guardian or advocate, appoint counsel as guardian ad litem for the patient. Notwithstanding the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, where a petition is filed for judicial review of a proposed placement, the proposed placement shall be stayed pending the outcome of said review proceeding.

5. Placement of a patient outside of a hospital-school or special unit under this section shall not relieve the Iowa department of human services of continuing responsibility for the welfare of the patient, except in cases of discharge under section 222.15 or 222.43. Unless such a discharge has occurred, the department shall provide for review of each placement arrangement made under this section at least once each year, or not more often than once each six months upon the written request of the patient's parent, guardian or advocate, with a view to ascertaining whether such arrangements continue to satisfactorily meet the patient's current needs.

6. The proposed return or placement of a patient outside a hospital-school or special unit shall be reported to the board of supervisors of the patient's county of legal settlement. The county board may not change a placement or program arranged and approved under this section if state funds are being made available to the county which the county may by law use to pay a portion of the cost of care of the patient so placed, however the board may at any time propose an alternative placement or program to the state director. No such alternative placement or program shall be carried out without the prior written approval of the state director, which shall be granted only after evaluation in the same manner as provided by this section for initial placements from a hospital-school or special unit.

7. When a patient committed by a court is to be returned to the parent or guardian, or placed out from a hospital-school or a special unit as otherwise provided in this section, notice shall be sent to the clerk of the court which committed the patient, and to the board of supervisors of both the patient's county of legal settlement and the county to which the patient is to be released, thirty days prior to the time the patient leaves the hospital-school or special unit.

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the board of supervisors or the court to the county auditor of the county of legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county whereupon it shall be conclusively presumed that the patient has a legal settlement in said county unless the county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the board of supervisors or the court giving such notice, dispute said legal settlement.

2. If the state director finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court is not correct, the state director shall order the person transferred to a state hospital-school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state.

The actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the state director from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The action shall be brought to determine such legal settlement, except that such action shall in no case be filed in a county in which the district court or a judge thereof originally made the disputed finding. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that the dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the county of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of settlement may be in the alternative. If the court so finds, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all necessary and legal expenses arising from said admission or commitment and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due.

The department shall certify the amount of the charges to the director of revenue and finance and notify the counties of the billing charges.

a. The superintendent shall compute the average daily patient charge for a hospital-school or special unit for services provided in the following fiscal year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the expenditures of the hospital-school or special unit for the immediately preceding calendar year, by adjusting the expenditures by a percentage not to exceed the percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the immediately preceding calendar year, and by dividing the adjusted expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the immediately preceding calendar year.

2. The superintendent shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the billings to each county for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the preceding calendar quarter. The county billings shall be based on the average daily patient charge and outpatient treatment charges computed pursuant to subsection 1, and the number of inpatient days and outpatient treatment service units chargeable to the county. The county billing for a patient shall be reduced by an amount received for the patient's care from any source other than state appropriated funds.

3. The superintendent shall compute in January the actual per-patient-per-day cost for each hospital-school or special unit for the immediately preceding calendar year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the actual expenditures of the hospital-school or special unit for the calendar year and by dividing the total actual expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the calendar year.

4. The department shall certify to the director of revenue and finance and the counties by February 1 the actual per-patient-per-day costs, as computed pursuant to subsection 3, and the actual costs owed by each county for the immediately preceding calendar year for patients chargeable to the county. If the actual costs owed by the county are greater than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall bill the county for the difference with the billing for the quarter ending June 30. If the actual costs owed by the county are less than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall credit the county for the difference starting with the billing for the quarter ending June 30.

The state director shall establish the scale for this purpose but the scale shall not exceed the standards for personal allowances established by the state division under the aid to dependent children program. Provided further that the father or mother of such person shall not be liable for the support of such person after such person attains the age of eighteen years and that the father or mother shall incur liability only during any period when the father or mother either individually or jointly receive a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which they would be liable to make an income tax payment to this state. 225C.1 Findings and purpose.

The general assembly finds that community-based care, provided in many parts of the state by highly autonomous community mental health and mental retardation service providers working cooperatively with state mental health and mental retardation facilities, is meeting most mental health and mental retardation service needs of those Iowans to whom this care is available. However, the general assembly recognizes that heavy reliance on property tax funding for mental health and mental retardation services has restricted uniform availability of this care. Consequently, greater efforts should be made to assure close coordination and continuity of care for those persons receiving publicly supported mental health and mental retardation services in Iowa. It is the purpose of this chapter to continue and to strengthen the mental health and mental retardation services now available in the state of Iowa, to make these services conveniently available to all persons in this state upon a reasonably uniform financial basis, and to assure the continued high quality of these services.

225C.3 Division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities — state mental health authority.

1. The division is designated the state mental health authority as defined in 42 U.S.C. sec. 201(m) (1976) for the purpose of directing the benefits of the National Mental Health Act, 42 U.S.C. sec. 201 et seq. This designation does not preclude the board of regents from authorizing or directing any institution under its jurisdiction to carry out educational, prevention and research activities in the areas of mental health and mental retardation. The division may contract with the board of regents or any institution under the board's jurisdiction to perform any of these functions.

225C.7 State community mental health and mental retardation services fund established.

1. A state community mental health and mental retardation services fund is established in the office of the treasurer of state, which shall consist of the amounts appropriated to the fund by the general assembly for each fiscal year. Before completion of the department's budget estimate as required by section 8.23, the department shall determine and include in the estimate the amount which should be appropriated to the fund for the forthcoming fiscal period in order to implement the purpose stated in section 225C.1.

2. The state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for each fiscal year shall be divided into two parts, the general allocation and the special allocation. The general allocation is equal to eighty percent and the special allocation is equal to twenty percent of the total appropriation.

A county is entitled to receive annually from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund a share computed by a formula prescribed pursuant to section 225C.9, subject to the requirements of section 225C.10. As soon after July 1 of each year as reasonably possible, the director shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the amount to which a county is entitled from the general allocation and the director of revenue and finance shall issue warrants in the amounts certified, drawn upon the general allocation in favor of the respective counties. A county shall place the money so received in the county mental health and institutions fund, and shall expend it in the same fiscal year in which it is received and only for the purposes authorized by section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g".

If a county has not established or is not affiliated with a community mental health center under chapter 230A, the county shall expend a portion of the money received from the general allocation to contract with a community mental health center to provide mental health services to the county's residents. If such a contractual relationship is unworkable or undesirable, the commission may waive the expenditure requirement. However, if the commission waives the requirement, the commission shall address the specific concerns of the county and shall attempt to facilitate the provision of mental health services to the county's residents through an affiliation agreement or other means.

225C.9 Formula for distribution of general allocation.

1. The general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be distributed to ensure that each county participates in the distribution of the funds, to recognize past efforts made by individual counties to support state institutional and community-based services for mentally ill and mentally retarded persons, and to recognize both individual counties as entities and the distribution of the state population across counties.

2. In distributing the general allocation, each county shall receive an amount equal to the sum of the following two factors:

a. Fifty percent of the general allocation divided by a factor of ninety-nine.

b. Fifty percent of the general allocation multiplied by a factor equal to that county's proportionate share of the total state population.

[S81, §225C.8; 81 Acts, ch 78, §9, 20]

225C.10 Requirements of counties receiving general allocation money.

1. A county is entitled to receive money from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund in any fiscal year in an amount determined by section 225C.9, if that county:

a. Raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services, in the preceding fiscal year, an amount of money at least equal to the amount so raised and expended for those purposes during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980.

(1) With reference to the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount levied and expended by the county under section 331.425, subsection 13, as the subsection read at the time that levy was made, adjusted by a procedure prescribed by rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the director, to exclude expenditures other than mental health and mental retardation expenditures which the county made in that fiscal year from the proceeds of that levy.

(2) With reference to a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1981, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount of money expended by the county from the county mental health and institutions fund for the purposes authorized by section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g", exclusive of state money received from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund and of any third party reimbursement to the county.

(3) A county shall, as soon as reasonably possible after January 1, 1982, begin preparations to adopt and shall by January 1, 1984, implement an accounting and financial reporting procedure for recording expenditures for mental health and mental retardation services, in conformity with rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the director and a committee representing appropriate county officials. It is the intent of this subparagraph that the Seventieth General Assembly, at its 1984 Session, reconsider the requirements of paragraph "a" of this subsection with a view to possible adjustments to more precisely measure each county's financial effort in support of mental health and mental retardation services.

b. Submits or joins other counties in submitting, prior to October 15 of each year, an application for a share of the general allocation for the succeeding fiscal year which is in conformity with subsection 2.

2. An application may be filed by a county or jointly by two or more counties. The application shall consist of:

a. An annual plan to improve or maintain availability and accessibility of comprehensive services to residents of the county or counties, which is found by the director to be in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The annual plan is in substantial compliance with those requirements if it:

(1) Indicates that the services for which the county or counties intend to use general allocation money are comprehensive services or other services mandated or authorized by law, and are offered by accredited or licensed providers where accreditation or licensure standards are applicable.

(2) Demonstrates the availability and accessibility of comprehensive services by establishing or maintaining formal agreements for purchase of services or grant relationships with providers of services, and by extending eligibility for those services to all residents of the county or counties who are unable to assume the full cost of their care.

(3) Demonstrates effective implementation of an annual plan submitted by the county or counties under this subsection for the preceding fiscal year.

b. Evidence that each county is in compliance with subsection 1, paragraph "a".

3. Each application shall be for a period of at least one year and shall be acted upon as soon as reasonably possible by the director, who shall notify the applicant county or counties of the action on the application no later than December 1 of the year in which the application is submitted. Money from the general allocation shall be disbursed on a quarterly basis to the counties entitled to the money under section 225C.9 and this section. Counties receiving the money shall submit quarterly financial and plan status reports in the manner prescribed by the director.

4. A county shall return to the treasurer of state, no later than September 30 of each year, for placement in the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund, an amount equal to the amount by which expenditures by the county under section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g" during the fiscal year ending the preceding June 30 were less than the total of that county's share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for that preceding fiscal year.

The special allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be used by the director to administer grants-in-aid, awarded by the commission, to counties, combinations of counties, or their designees to provide to persons in a particular county or area one or more new or expanded community-based mental health or mental retardation services, or to continue those new or expanded services in a subsequent year, in furtherance of the purpose stated in section 225C.1. A grant may be made on terms providing for its use by the county or other grantee over a period of time greater than one year, but the entire grant shall be made from money available in the special allocation for the fiscal year during which the grant is made, and the director shall not obligate funds which the director anticipates will be appropriated in any future fiscal year. Each grant shall be made on terms and conditions agreed to by the director and the grantee. In awarding grants, priority shall be given to proposed projects that enhance deinstitutionalization and provide accessible comprehensive services to geographical areas of the state which do not have those services or which have experienced reductions in those services due to the elimination of programs no longer funded. A proposed project which will offer services other than comprehensive services may be considered for a special allocation grant if the relevancy of the project to the needs of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commission.

1. A county which pays, from county funds budgeted under section 331.425, subsection 13, paragraphs "d" and "g", the cost of care and treatment of a mentally ill person who is admitted pursuant to a preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C.14 to 225C.17 for treatment as an inpatient of a hospital facility, other than a state mental health institute, which has a designated mental health program and is a hospital accredited by the accreditation program for hospital facilities of the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals, is entitled to reimbursement from the state for a portion of the daily cost so incurred by the county. However, a county is not entitled to reimbursement for a cost incurred in connection with the hospitalization of a person who is eligible for medical assistance under chapter 249A, or who is entitled to have care or treatment paid for by any other third party payor, or who is admitted for preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C.14 to 225C.17. The amount of reimbursement for the cost of treatment of a local inpatient to which a county is entitled, on a per-patient-per-day basis, is an amount equal to twenty percent of the average of the state mental health institutes' individual average daily patient costs in the most recent calendar quarter for the program in which the local inpatient would have been served if the patient had been admitted to a state mental health institute.

2. A county may claim reimbursement by filing with the director a claim in a form prescribed by the director by rule. Claims may be filed on a quarterly basis, and when received shall be verified as soon as reasonably possible by the director. The director shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the amount to which each county claiming reimbursement is entitled, and the director of revenue and finance shall issue warrants to the respective counties drawn upon funds appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose of this section. A county shall place funds received under this section in the county mental health and institutions fund. If the appropriation for a fiscal year is insufficient to pay all claims arising under this section, the director of revenue and finance shall prorate the funds appropriated for that year among the claimant counties so that an equal proportion of each county's claim is paid in each quarter for which proration is necessary.

The director may enter into agreements under which a facility or portion of a facility administered by the director is leased to a department or division of state government, a county or group of counties, or a private nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 504A. A lease executed under this section shall require that the lessee use the leased premises to deliver either comprehensive services or other services normally delivered by the lessee.

1. Except in cases of medical emergency, a person shall be admitted to a state mental health institute as an inpatient only after a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by a community mental health center or by an alternative diagnostic facility has confirmed that the admission is appropriate to the person's mental health needs, and that no suitable alternative method of providing the needed services in a less restrictive setting or in or nearer to the person's home community is currently available. The policy established by this section shall be implemented in the manner and to the extent prescribed by sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17. However, notwithstanding the mandatory language requiring preliminary diagnostic evaluations in this section and sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17, preliminary diagnostic evaluations shall not be required until the fiscal year for which the general assembly has appropriated moneys to the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund under section 225C.7.

2. As used in this section and sections 225C.15, 225C.16 and 225C.17, the term "medical emergency" means a situation in which a prospective patient is received at a state mental health institute in a condition which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer, or that officer's physician designee, requires the immediate admission of the person notwithstanding the policy stated in subsection 1.

The board of supervisors of a county shall, no later than July 1, 1982, require that the policy stated in section 225C.14 be followed with respect to admission of persons from that county to a state mental health institute. A community mental health center which is supported, directly or in affiliation with other counties, by that county shall perform the preliminary diagnostic evaluations for that county, unless the performance of the evaluations is not covered by the agreement entered into by the county and the center under section 230A.12, and the center's director certifies to the board of supervisors that the center does not have the capacity to perform the evaluations, in which case the board of supervisors shall proceed under section 225C.17.

1. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute, or that officer's physician designee, shall advise a person residing in that county who applies for voluntary admission, or a person applying for the voluntary admission of another person who resides in that county, in accordance with section 229.41, that the board of supervisors has implemented the policy stated in section 225C.14, and shall advise that a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of the prospective patient be sought from the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility, if that has not already been done. This subsection does not apply when voluntary admission is sought in accordance with section 229.41 under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency.

2. The clerk of the district court in that county shall refer a person applying for authorization for voluntary admission, or for authorization for voluntary admission of another person, in accordance with section 229.42, to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility for the preliminary diagnostic evaluation unless the applicant furnishes a written statement from that center or facility which indicates that the evaluation has been performed and that the person's admission to a state mental health institute is appropriate. This subsection does not apply when authorization for voluntary admission is sought under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency.

3. Judges of the district court in that county or the judicial hospitalization referee appointed for that county shall so far as possible arrange for a physician on the staff of or designated by the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility to perform a prehearing examination of a respondent required under section 229.8, subsection 3, paragraph "b".

4. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute shall promptly submit to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility a report of the voluntary admission of a patient under the medical emergency clauses of subsections 1 and 2. The report shall explain the nature of the emergency which necessitated the admission of the patient without a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by the center or alternative facility.

If a county is not served by a community mental health center having the capacity to perform the required preliminary diagnostic evaluations, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the evaluations to be performed by an alternative diagnostic facility for the period until the county is served by a community mental health center with the capacity to provide that service. An alternative diagnostic facility may be the outpatient service of a state mental health institute or any other mental health facility or service able to furnish the requisite professional skills to properly perform a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of a person whose admission to a state mental health institute is being sought or considered on either a voluntary or an involuntary basis.

225C.18 County mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board.

1. A county board of supervisors, independently or in conjunction with one or more other county boards of supervisors, shall either establish a county or joint county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board or constitute the board or the joint boards of supervisors as the ex officio county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board. If a separate county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board is established, it shall be composed of persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health and mental retardation services and its size shall be determined by the board or joint boards of supervisors. One or more county supervisors may be named to serve on a separate county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board. If the board or joint boards of supervisors serve ex officio as the county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board, it shall establish an advisory board composed of persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health and mental retardation services, and who are not governmental officials, to advise the co-ordinating board with respect to the co-ordinating board's functions under subsection 2.

2. A county or joint county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board shall:

a. Develop a plan for the provision of mental health and mental retardation services in the county or counties represented by the membership of the board, consistent with the state mental health and mental retardation plans; however, the plan shall only be valid if approved by the county board or boards of supervisors.

b. Distribute, after a county assessment of needed services and available resources, no more than sixty percent of the county's or counties' share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services funds for either mental health or mental retardation services.

c. Prepare an annual fiscal accounting of the use of state moneys appropriated through the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for use in the respective counties.

d. Nominate potential recipients of grant money made available from or through the director for development of mental health or mental retardation services.

225C.19 Community, supervised apartment living arrangements.

1. As used in this section, "community, supervised apartment living arrangement" means the provision of a residence in a noninstitutional setting to mentally ill, mentally retarded, or developmentally disabled adults who are capable of living semi-independently but require minimal supervision.

2. The department shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A establishing minimum standards for the programming of community, supervised apartment living arrangements. The department shall approve annually all community, supervised apartment living arrangements which meet the minimum standards.

3. Approved community, supervised apartment living arrangements may receive funding from the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund, federal and state social services block grant funds, and other appropriate funding sources, consistent with state legislation and federal regulations. 2. A copy of the written report prescribed by subsection 1 shall be furnished to the county board of supervisors, to the county mental health and mental retardation co-ordinating board or to its advisory board if the county board of supervisors constitutes ex officio the co-ordinating board, to the administrator of the county care facility inspected and to its care review committee, and to the department of elder affairs.

When recommending standards under this section, the director shall designate an advisory committee representing administrators of county care facilities, county co-ordinating boards, and county care facility care review committees to assist in the establishment of standards.

An individual or an individual's legal representative shall be informed that mental health information relating to the individual may be disclosed to employees or agents of or for the same mental health facility if and to the extent necessary to facilitate the provision of professional services to the individual.

2. If an individual eighteen years of age or older or an individual's legal representative has received a written notification that a fee is due a mental health professional or a mental health facility and has failed to arrange for payment of the fee within a reasonable time after the notification, the mental health professional or mental health facility may disclose administrative information necessary for the collection of the fee to a person or agency providing collection services.

If a civil action is filed for the collection of the fee, additional mental health information shall not be disclosed in the litigation, except to the extent necessary to respond to a motion of the individual or the individual's legal representative for greater specificity or to dispute a defense or counterclaim.

3. A mental health professional or an employee of or agent for a mental health facility may disclose mental health information if necessary for the purpose of conducting scientific research, management audits, or program evaluations of the mental health professional or mental health facility, to persons who have demonstrated and provided written assurances of their ability to ensure compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The persons shall not identify, directly or indirectly, an individual in any report of the research, audits, or evaluations, or otherwise disclose individual identities in any manner.

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Mental illness" means every type of mental disease or mental disorder, except that it does not refer to mental retardation as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5, or to insanity, diminished responsibility, or mental incompetency as the terms are defined and used in the Iowa criminal code or in the rules of criminal procedure, Iowa court rules, 2d ed.

2. "Seriously mentally impaired" or "serious mental impairment" describes the condition of a person who is afflicted with mental illness and because of that illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment, and who:

a. Is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if allowed to remain at liberty without treatment; or

b. Is likely to inflict serious emotional injury on members of the person's family or others who lack reasonable opportunity to avoid contact with the afflicted person if the afflicted person is allowed to remain at liberty without treatment.

3. “Serious emotional injury” is an injury which does not necessarily exhibit any physical characteristics, but which can be recognized and diagnosed by a licensed physician or other qualified mental health professional and which can be causally connected with the act or omission of a person who is, or is alleged to be, mentally ill.

4. “Respondent” means any person against whom an application has been filed under section 229.6, but who has not been finally ordered committed for full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital.

5. “Patient” means a person who has been hospitalized or ordered hospitalized to receive treatment pursuant to section 229.14.

6. “Licensed physician” means an individual licensed under the provisions of chapter 148, 150 or 150A to practice medicine and surgery, osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery.

7. “Qualified mental health professional” means an individual experienced in the study and treatment of mental disorders in the capacity of:

- a. A psychologist certified under chapter 154B; or
- b. A registered nurse licensed under chapter 152;

c. A social worker who holds a master’s degree in social work awarded by an accredited college or university.

8. “Public hospital” means:

- a. A state mental health institute established by chapter 226; or
- b. The state psychiatric hospital established by chapter 225; or
- c. Any other publicly supported hospital or institution, or part of such hospital or institution, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill, except the Iowa medical and classification center established by chapter 246.

9. “Private hospital” means any hospital or institution not directly supported by public funds, or a part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill.

10. “Hospital” means either a public hospital or a private hospital.

11. “Chief medical officer” means the medical director in charge of any public hospital, or any private hospital, or that individual’s physician-designee.

Nothing in this chapter shall negate the authority otherwise reposed by law in the respective superintendents of each of the state hospitals for the mentally ill, established by chapter 226, to make decisions regarding the appropriateness of admissions or discharges of patients of that hospital, however it is the intent of this chapter that if the superintendent is not a licensed physician the superintendent shall be guided in these decisions by the chief medical officer of that hospital.

12. “Clerk” means the clerk of the district court.

13. “Director” or “state director” means the director of that division of the department of human services having jurisdiction of the state mental health institutes, or that director’s designee.

14. “Chemotherapy” means treatment of an individual by use of a drug or substance which cannot legally be delivered or administered to the ultimate user without a physician’s prescription or medical order.

1. An application for admission to a public or private hospital for observation, diagnosis, care and treatment as a voluntary patient may be made by any person who is mentally ill or has symptoms of mental illness. In the case of a minor, the parent, guardian or custodian may make application for admission of the minor as a voluntary patient. Upon receipt of an application for voluntary admission of a minor, the chief medical officer shall provide separate prescreening interviews and consultations with the parent, guardian or custodian and the minor to assess the family environment and the appropriateness of the application for admission. If the chief medical officer of the hospital to which application is made determines that the admission is appropriate but the minor objects to the admission, the parent, guardian or custodian must petition the juvenile court for approval of the admission before the minor is actually admitted. The juvenile court shall determine whether the admission is in the best interest of the minor and is consistent with the minor’s rights.

2. Upon receiving an application for admission as a voluntary patient, made pursuant to subsection 1:

a. The chief medical officer of a public hospital shall receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought, subject in cases other than medical emergencies to availability of suitable accommodations and to the provisions of sections 229.41 and 229.42.

b. The chief medical officer of a private hospital may receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought.

229.3 Discharge of voluntary patients.

Any voluntary patient who has recovered, or whose hospitalization the chief medical officer of the hospital determines is no longer advisable, shall be discharged. Any voluntary patient may be discharged if to do so would in the judgment of the chief medical officer contribute to the most effective use of the hospital in the care and treatment of that patient and of other mentally ill persons.

229.4 Right to release on application.

A voluntary patient who requests release or whose release is requested, in writing, by the patient’s legal guardian, parent, spouse or adult next-of-kin shall be released from the hospital forthwith, except that:

1. If the patient was admitted on the patient’s own application and the request for release is made by some other person, release may be conditioned upon the agreement of the patient.

2. If the patient is a minor who was admitted on the application of the patient's parent, guardian or custodian pursuant to section 229.2, subsection 1, the patient's release prior to becoming eighteen years of age may be conditioned upon the consent of the parent, guardian or custodian, or upon the approval of the juvenile court if the admission was approved by the juvenile court; and

3. If the chief medical officer of the hospital, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk of the district court for the county in which the hospital is located is open and which follows the submission of the written request for release of the patient, files with that clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the release may be postponed for the period of time the court determines is necessary to permit commencement of judicial procedure for involuntary hospitalization. That period of time may not exceed five days, exclusive of days on which the clerk's office is not open unless the period of time is extended by order of a district court judge for good cause shown. Until disposition of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the patient, if one is timely filed, the chief medical officer may detain the patient in the hospital and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the patient's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the patient which is likely to result in physical injury to the patient or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the patient without the patient's consent.

229.5 Departure without notice.

If a voluntary patient departs from the hospital without notice, and in the opinion of the chief medical officer the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the chief medical officer may file an application for involuntary hospitalization of the departed voluntary patient, and request that an order for immediate custody be entered by the court pursuant to section 229.11.

[C77, 79, 81, §229.5]

229.6 Application for order of involuntary hospitalization.

Proceedings for the involuntary hospitalization of an individual may be commenced by any interested person by filing a verified application with the clerk of the district court of the county where the respondent is presently located, or which is the respondent's place of residence. The clerk, or the clerk's designee, shall assist the applicant in completing the application. The application shall:

1. State the applicant's belief that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired.
2. State any other pertinent facts.
3. Be accompanied by:
 - a. A written statement of a licensed physician in support of the application; or
 - b. One or more supporting affidavits otherwise corroborating the application; or
 - c. Corroborative information obtained and reduced to writing by the clerk or the clerk's designee, but only when circumstances make it infeasible to comply with, or when the clerk considers it appropriate to supplement the information supplied pursuant to, either paragraph "a" or paragraph "b" of this subsection.

229.7 Service of notice upon respondent.

Upon the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the clerk shall docket the case and immediately notify a district court judge who shall review the application and accompanying documentation. If the application is adequate as to form, the judge may set a time and place for a hearing on the application, if feasible, but the hearing shall not be held less than forty-eight hours after notice to the respondent unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement. The judge shall direct the clerk to send copies of the application and supporting documentation, together with a notice informing the respondent of the procedures required by this chapter, to the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy for immediate service upon the respondent. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, service of the application, documentation and notice upon the respondent shall be made at the time the respondent is taken into custody.

As soon as practicable after the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the court shall:

1. Determine whether the respondent has an attorney who is able and willing to represent the respondent in the hospitalization proceeding, and if not, whether the respondent is financially able to employ an attorney and capable of meaningfully assisting in selecting one. In accordance with those determinations, the court shall if necessary allow the respondent to select, or shall assign to the respondent, an attorney. If the respondent is financially unable to pay an attorney, the attorney shall be compensated in substantially the manner provided by section 815.7, except that if the county has a public defender the court may designate the public defender or an attorney on the public defender's staff to act as the respondent's attorney.

2. Cause copies of the application and supporting documentation to be sent to the county attorney or the county attorney's attorney-designate for review.

3. Issue a written order which shall:
 - a. If not previously done, set a time and place for a hospitalization hearing, which shall be at the earliest practicable time not less than forty-eight hours after notice to the respondent, unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement; and
 - b. Order an examination of the respondent, prior to the hearing, by one or more licensed physicians who shall submit a written report on the examination to the court as required by section 229.10.

229.9 Respondent's attorney informed.

The court shall direct the clerk to furnish at once to the respondent's attorney copies of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the respondent and the supporting documentation, and of the court's order issued pursuant to section 229.8, subsection 3. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229.11, the attorney shall also be advised of that fact. The respondent's attorney shall represent the respondent at all stages of the proceedings, and shall attend the hospitalization hearing.

1. An examination of the respondent shall be conducted by one or more licensed physicians, as required by the court's order, within a reasonable time. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229.11, subsection 2, the examination shall be conducted within twenty-four hours. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229.11, subsection 1 or 3, the examination shall be conducted within forty-eight hours. If the respondent so desires, the respondent shall be entitled to a separate examination by a licensed physician of the respondent's own choice. The reasonable cost of such separate examination shall, if the respondent lacks sufficient funds to pay the cost, be paid from county funds upon order of the court.

Any licensed physician conducting an examination pursuant to this section may consult with or request the participation in the examination of any qualified mental health professional, and may include with or attach to the written report of the examination any findings or observations by any qualified mental health professional who has been so consulted or has so participated in the examination.

If the respondent is not taken into custody under section 229.11, but the court is subsequently informed that the respondent has declined to be examined by the licensed physician or physicians pursuant to the court order, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is necessary to facilitate the examination of the respondent by the licensed physician or physicians.

2. A written report of the examination by the court-designated physician or physicians shall be filed with the clerk prior to the time set for hearing. A written report of any examination by a physician chosen by the respondent may be similarly filed. The clerk shall immediately:

a. Cause the report or reports to be shown to the judge who issued the order; and

b. Cause the respondent's attorney to receive a copy of the report of the court-designated physician or physicians.

3. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the individual is not seriously mentally impaired, the court may without taking further action terminate the proceeding and dismiss the application on its own motion and without notice.

4. If the report of the court-designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired, the court shall schedule a hearing on the application as soon as possible. The hearing shall be held not more than forty-eight hours after the report is filed, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless an extension for good cause is requested by the respondent, or as soon thereafter as possible if the court considers that sufficient grounds exist for delaying the hearing.

If the applicant requests that the respondent be taken into immediate custody and the judge, upon reviewing the application and accompanying documentation, finds probable cause to believe that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and is likely to injure the respondent or other persons if allowed to remain at liberty, the judge may enter a written order directing that the respondent be taken into immediate custody by the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy and be detained until the hospitalization hearing, which shall be held no more than five days after the date of the order, except that if the fifth day after the date of the order is a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday, the hearing may be held on the next succeeding business day. The judge may order the respondent detained for the period of time until the hearing is held, and no longer, in accordance with subsection 1 if possible, and if not then in accordance with subsection 2 or, only if neither of these alternatives are available, in accordance with subsection 3. Detention may be:

1. In the custody of a relative, friend or other suitable person who is willing to accept responsibility for supervision of the respondent, and the respondent may be placed under such reasonable restrictions as the judge may order including, but not limited to, restrictions on or a prohibition of any expenditure, encumbrance or disposition of the respondent's funds or property; or

2. In a suitable hospital the chief medical officer of which shall be informed of the reasons why immediate custody has been ordered and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the respondent's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the respondent which is likely to result in physical injury to the respondent or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the respondent without the respondent's consent; or

3. In a public or private facility in the community which is suitably equipped and staffed for the purpose, provided that detention in a jail or other facility intended for confinement of those accused or convicted of crime may not be ordered except in cases of actual emergency when no other secure facility is accessible and then only for a period of not more than twenty-four hours and under close supervision.

1. At the hospitalization hearing, evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be presented by the county attorney. During the hearing the applicant and the respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify and to present and cross-examine witnesses, and the court may receive the testimony of any other interested person. The respondent has the right to be present at the hearing. If the respondent exercises that right and has been medicated within twelve hours, or such longer period of time as the court may designate, prior to the beginning of the hearing or an adjourned session thereof, the judge shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication upon convening of the hearing.

2. All persons not necessary for the conduct of the proceeding shall be excluded, except that the court may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the proceeding. Upon motion of the county attorney, the judge may exclude the respondent from the hearing during the testimony of any particular witness if the judge determines that that witness' testimony is likely to cause the respondent severe emotional trauma.

3. The respondent's welfare shall be paramount and the hearing shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure, but consistent therewith the issue shall be tried as a civil matter. Such discovery as is permitted under the Iowa rules of civil procedure shall be available to the respondent. The court shall receive all relevant and material evidence which may be offered and need not be bound by the rules of evidence. There shall be a presumption in favor of the respondent, and the burden of evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be upon the applicant. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has not been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall deny the application and terminate the proceeding.

4. If the respondent is not taken into custody under section 229.11, but the court subsequently finds good cause to believe that the respondent is about to depart from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is authorized by section 229.11 and is necessary to insure that the respondent will not depart from the jurisdiction of the court without the court's approval until the proceeding relative to the respondent has been concluded.

If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall order the respondent placed in a hospital or other suitable facility as expeditiously as possible for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment. The court shall furnish to the hospital or facility at the time the respondent arrives there a written finding of fact setting forth the evidence on which the finding is based. The chief medical officer of the hospital or facility shall report to the court no more than fifteen days after the individual is admitted to the hospital or facility, making a recommendation for disposition of the matter. An extension of time may be granted for not to exceed seven days upon a showing of cause. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent's attorney, who may contest the need for an extension of time if one is requested. Extension of time shall be granted upon request unless the request is contested, in which case the court shall make such inquiry as it deems appropriate and may either order the respondent's release from the hospital or facility or grant extension of time for psychiatric evaluation.

229.14 Chief medical officer's report.

The chief medical officer's report to the court on the psychiatric evaluation of the respondent shall be made not later than the expiration of the time specified in section 229.13. At least two copies of the report shall be filed with the clerk, who shall dispose of them in the manner prescribed by section 229.10, subsection 2. The report shall state one of the four following alternative findings:

1. That the respondent does not, as of the date of the report, require further treatment for serious mental impairment. If the report so states, the court shall order the respondent's immediate release from involuntary hospitalization and terminate the proceedings.

2. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and is considered likely to benefit from treatment. If the report so states, the court may order the respondent's continued hospitalization for appropriate treatment.

3. That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of treatment, but does not require full-time hospitalization. If the report so states it shall include the chief medical officer's recommendation for treatment of the respondent on an outpatient or other appropriate basis, and the court may enter an order directing the respondent to submit to the recommended treatment. The order shall provide that if the respondent fails or refuses to submit to treatment as directed by the court's order, the court may order that the respondent be taken into immediate custody as provided by section 229.11 and, following notice and hearing held in accordance with the procedures of section 229.12, may order the respondent treated as a patient requiring full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital until such time as the chief medical officer reports that the respondent does not require further treatment for serious mental impairment or has indicated the respondent is willing to submit to treatment on another basis as ordered by the court.

4. The respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody and care, but is unlikely to benefit from further treatment in a hospital. If the report so states, the chief medical officer shall recommend an alternative placement for the respondent and the court may order the respondent's transfer to the recommended placement. If the court or the respondent's attorney consider the placement inappropriate, an alternative placement may be arranged upon consultation with the chief medical officer and approval of the court.

229.15 Periodic reports required.

1. Not more than thirty days after entry of an order for continued hospitalization of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 2, and thereafter at successive intervals of not more than sixty days continuing so long as involuntary hospitalization of the patient continues, the chief medical officer of the hospital shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall be submitted in the manner required by section 229.14, shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will be required to remain at the hospital. The chief medical officer may at any time report to the court a finding as stated in section 229.14, subsection 4, and the court shall act thereon as required by that section.

2. Not more than sixty days after the entry of a court order for treatment of a patient under section 229.14, subsection 3, and thereafter at successive intervals as ordered by the court but not to exceed ninety days so long as that court order remains in effect, the medical director of the facility treating the patient shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will require treatment by the facility. If at any time the patient without good cause fails or refuses to submit to treatment as ordered by the court, the medical director shall at once so notify the court, which shall order the patient hospitalized as provided by section 229.14, subsection 3, unless the court finds that the failure or refusal was with good cause and that the patient is willing to receive treatment as provided in the court's order, or in a revised order if the court sees fit to enter one. If at any time the medical director reports to the court that in the director's opinion the patient requires full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and the patient is willing to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital for these purposes, the court may enter an order approving hospitalization for appropriate treatment upon consultation with the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the patient is to be hospitalized. If the patient is unwilling to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital, the procedure for determining involuntary hospitalization, as set out in section 229.14, subsection 3, shall be followed.

3. When a patient has been placed in a facility other than a hospital pursuant to section 229.14, subsection 4, a report on the patient's condition and prognosis shall be made to the court which so placed the patient, at least once every six months, unless the court authorizes annual reports. A report shall be submitted within fifteen days after the facility in which the patient has been placed is evaluated as required by section 227.2, subsection 4. The court may in its discretion waive the requirement of an additional report between the annual evaluations. If the director exercises the authority to remove residents from a county care facility or other county or private institution under section 227.6, the director shall promptly notify each court which placed in that facility any resident so removed.

4. When in the opinion of the chief medical officer the best interest of a patient would be served by a convalescent or limited leave or by transfer to a different hospital for continued full-time custody, care and treatment, the chief medical officer may authorize the leave or arrange and complete the transfer but shall promptly report the leave or transfer to the court. The patient's attorney or advocate may request a hearing on a transfer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to add to or restrict the authority otherwise provided by law for transfer of patients or residents among various state institutions administered by the department of human services.

5. Upon receipt of any report required or authorized by this section the court shall furnish a copy to the patient's attorney, or alternatively to the advocate appointed as required by section 229.19. The court shall examine the report and take the action thereon which it deems appropriate. Should the court fail to receive any report required by this section or section 229.14 at the time the report is due, the court shall investigate the reason for the failure to report and take whatever action may be necessary in the matter.

229.16 Discharge and termination of proceeding.

When in the opinion of the chief medical officer a patient who is hospitalized under subsection 2, or is receiving treatment under subsection 3, or is in full-time care and custody under subsection 4 of section 229.14 no longer requires treatment or care for serious mental impairment, the chief medical officer shall tentatively discharge the patient and immediately report that fact to the court which ordered the patient's hospitalization or care and custody. The court shall thereupon issue an order confirming the patient's discharge from the hospital or from care and custody, as the case may be, and shall terminate the proceedings pursuant to which the order was issued. Copies of the order shall be sent by certified mail to the hospital and the patient.

229.17 Status of respondent during appeal.

Where a respondent appeals to the supreme court from a finding that the contention the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained, and the respondent was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229.11 or has been hospitalized for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229.13 before the court is informed of intent to appeal its finding, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229.11 notwithstanding, or shall remain in the hospital subject to compliance by the hospital with sections 229.13 to 229.16, as the case may be, unless the supreme court orders otherwise.

229.18 Status of respondent if hospitalization is delayed.

When the court directs that a respondent who was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229.11 be placed in a hospital for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229.13, and no suitable hospital can immediately admit the respondent, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229.11 notwithstanding, until a suitable hospital can admit the respondent. The court shall take appropriate steps to expedite the admission of the respondent to a suitable hospital at the earliest

The district court in each county shall appoint an individual who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and rehabilitation of the mentally ill, and who is not an officer or employee of the department of human services nor of any agency or facility providing care or treatment to the mentally ill, to act as advocate representing the interests of all patients involuntarily hospitalized by that court, in any matter relating to the patients' hospitalization or treatment under section 229.14 or 229.15. The advocate's responsibility with respect to any patient shall begin at whatever time the attorney employed or appointed to represent that patient as respondent in hospitalization proceedings, conducted under sections 229.6 to 229.13, reports to the court that the attorney's services are no longer required and requests the court's approval to withdraw as counsel for that patient. However, if the patient is found to be seriously mentally impaired at the hospitalization hearing, the attorney representing the patient shall automatically be relieved of responsibility in the case and an advocate shall be appointed at the conclusion of the hearing unless the attorney indicates an intent to continue the attorney's services and the court so directs. If the court directs the attorney to remain on the case the attorney shall assume all the duties of an advocate. The clerk shall furnish the advocate with a copy of the court's order approving the withdrawal and shall inform the patient of the name of the patient's advocate. With regard to each patient whose interests the advocate is required to represent pursuant to this section, the advocate's duties shall include all of the following:

1. To review each report submitted pursuant to sections 229.14 and 229.15.

2. If the advocate is not an attorney, to advise the court at any time it appears that the services of an attorney are required to properly safeguard the patient's interests.

3. To make the advocate readily accessible to communications from the patient and to originate communications with the patient within five days of the patient's commitment.

4. To visit the patient within fifteen days of the patient's commitment and periodically thereafter.

5. To communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25.

6. To file with the court quarterly reports, and additional reports as the advocate feels necessary or as required by the court, in a form prescribed by the court. The reports shall state what actions the advocate has taken with respect to each patient and the amount of time spent.

The hospital or facility to which a patient is committed shall grant all reasonable requests of the advocate to visit the patient, to communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25. An advocate shall not disseminate information from a patient's medical records to any other person unless done for official purposes in connection with the advocate's duties pursuant to this chapter or when required by law.

The court shall from time to time prescribe reasonable compensation for the services of the advocate. The compensation shall be based upon the reports filed by the advocate with the court. The advocate's compensation shall be paid on order of the court by the county in which the court is located. The advocate is an employee of the state for purposes of chapter 25A.

1. The judges in each judicial district shall meet and determine, individually for each county in the district, whether one or more district judges or magistrates will be sufficiently accessible in that county to make it feasible for them to perform at all times the duties prescribed by sections 229.7 to 229.19 and section 229.22 and by sections 125.75 to 125.94. If the judges find that accessibility of district court judges or magistrates in any county is not sufficient for this purpose, the chief judge of the district shall appoint in that county a judicial hospitalization referee. The judges in any district may at any time review their determination, previously made under this subsection with respect to any county in the district, and pursuant to that review may authorize appointment of a judicial hospitalization referee, or abolish the office, in that county.

2. The judicial hospitalization referee shall be an attorney, licensed to practice law in this state, who shall be chosen with consideration to any training, experience, interest, or combination of those factors, which are pertinent to the duties of the office. The referee shall hold office at the pleasure of and receive compensation at a rate fixed by the chief judge of the district. If the referee expects to be absent from the county for any significant length of time, the referee shall inform the chief judge who may appoint a temporary substitute judicial hospitalization referee having the qualifications set forth in this subsection.

3. When an application for involuntary hospitalization under this chapter or an application for involuntary commitment or treatment of substance abusers under sections 125.75 to 125.94 is filed with the clerk of the district court in any county for which a judicial hospitalization referee has been appointed, and no district judge is accessible in the county, the clerk shall immediately notify the referee in the manner required by section 229.7 or section 125.77. The referee shall discharge all of the duties imposed upon judges of the district court or magistrates by sections 229.7 to 229.19 or sections 125.75 to 125.94 in the proceeding so initiated. If an emergency hospitalization proceeding is initiated under section 229.22 a judicial hospitalization referee may perform the duties imposed upon a magistrate by that section.

4. Any respondent with respect to whom the judicial hospitalization referee has found the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired or a substance abuser sustained by clear and convincing evidence presented at a hearing held under section 229.12 or section 125.82, may appeal from the referee's finding to a judge of the district court by giving the clerk notice in writing, within seven days after the referee's finding is made, that an appeal therefrom is taken. The appeal may be signed by the respondent or by the respondent's next friend, guardian or attorney. When so appealed, the matter shall stand for trial de novo. Upon appeal, the court shall schedule a hospitalization or commitment hearing before a district judge at the earliest practicable time.

5. If the appellant is in custody under the jurisdiction of the district court at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody unless an order that the appellant be taken into immediate custody has previously been issued under section 229.11 or section 125.81, in which case the appellant shall be detained as provided in that section until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge. If the appellant is in the custody of a hospital or facility at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody pending disposition of the appeal unless the chief medical officer, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk is open and which follows service of the notice of appeal, files with the clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the appellant is seriously mentally ill or a substance abuser. In that case, the appellant shall remain in custody of the hospital or facility until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district court.

6. The hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge shall be held, and the judge's finding shall be made and an appropriate order entered, as prescribed by sections 229.12 and 229.13 or sections 125.82 and 125.83. If the judge orders the appellant hospitalized or committed for a complete psychiatric or substance abuse evaluation, jurisdiction of the matter shall revert to the judicial hospitalization referee.

229.22 Hospitalization — emergency procedure.

1. The procedure prescribed by this section shall not be used unless it appears that a person should be immediately detained due to serious mental impairment, but that person cannot be immediately detained by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 and 229.11 because there is no means of immediate access to the district court.

2. In the circumstances described in subsection 1, any peace officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is mentally ill, and because of that illness is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may without a warrant take or cause that person to be taken to the nearest available facility as defined in section 229.11, subsections 2 and 3. A person believed mentally ill, and likely to injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may be delivered to a hospital by someone other than a peace officer. Upon delivery of the person believed mentally ill to the hospital, the chief medical officer may order treatment of that person, including chemotherapy, but only to the extent necessary to preserve the person's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The peace officer who took the person into custody, or other party who brought the person to the hospital, shall describe the circumstances of the matter to the chief medical officer. If the chief medical officer finds that there is reason to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired, and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, the chief medical officer shall at once communicate with the nearest available magistrate as defined in section 801.4, subsection 6. The magistrate shall immediately proceed to the facility where the person is detained, except that if the chief medical officer's communication with the magistrate occurs between the hours of midnight and the next succeeding seven o'clock a.m. and the magistrate deems it appropriate under the circumstances described by the chief medical officer, the magistrate may delay going to the facility and in that case shall give the chief medical officer verbal instructions either directing that the person be released forthwith or authorizing the person's continued detention at that facility. In the latter case, the magistrate shall:

a. By the close of business on the next working day, file with the clerk a written report stating the substance of the information on the basis of which the person's continued detention was ordered; and

b. Arrive at the facility where the person is being detained not later than eight o'clock a.m. of the same day on which the chief medical officer's notification occurs.

3. Upon arrival at the hospital, the magistrate shall at once review the matter. Unless convinced upon initial inquiry that there are no grounds for further detention of the person, the magistrate shall in the manner prescribed by section 229.8, subsection 1 insure that the person has or is provided legal counsel at the earliest practicable time, and shall arrange for the counsel to be present, if practicable, before proceeding further under this section. If the magistrate finds upon review of the report prepared by the chief medical officer under subsection 2 of this section, and of such other information or evidence as the magistrate deems pertinent, that there is probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not detained, the magistrate shall enter a written order for the person to be detained in custody and, if the facility where the person is at that time is not an appropriate hospital, transported to an appropriate hospital. The magistrate's order shall state the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody or otherwise brought to a hospital and the grounds supporting the finding of probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained. The order shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county where it is anticipated that an application will be filed under section 229.6, and a certified copy of the order shall be delivered to the chief medical officer of the hospital where the person is detained, at the earliest practicable time.

4. The chief medical officer of the hospital shall examine and may detain and care for the person taken into custody under the magistrate's order for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours from the time such order is dated, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless the order is sooner dismissed by a magistrate. The hospital may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the person's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to the person's self or others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the person without the person's consent. The person shall be discharged from the hospital and released from custody not later than the expiration of that period, unless an application for the person's involuntary hospitalization is sooner filed with the clerk pursuant to section 229.6. The detention of any person by the procedure and not in excess of the period of time prescribed by this section shall not render the peace officer, physician or hospital so detaining that person liable in a criminal or civil action for false arrest or false imprisonment if the peace officer, physician or hospital had reasonable grounds to believe the person so detained was mentally ill and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained.

5. The cost of hospitalization at a public hospital of a person detained temporarily by the procedure prescribed in this section shall be paid in the same way as if the person had been admitted to the hospital by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 to 229.13.

229.23 Rights and privileges of hospitalized persons.

Every person who is hospitalized or detained under this chapter shall have the right to:

1. Prompt evaluation, emergency psychiatric services, and care and treatment as indicated by sound medical practice.

2. The right to refuse treatment by shock therapy or chemotherapy, unless the use of these treatment modalities is specifically consented to by the patient's next of kin or guardian. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall not apply during any period of custody authorized by section 229.4, subsection 3, section 229.11 or section 229.22, but this exception shall extend only to chemotherapy treatment which is, in the chief medical officer's judgment, necessary to preserve the patient's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall also not apply during any period of custody authorized by the court pursuant to section 229.13 or 229.14. In any other situation in which, in the chief medical officer's judgment, chemotherapy is appropriate for the patient but the patient refuses to consent thereto and there is no next of kin or guardian to give consent, the chief medical officer may request an order authorizing treatment of the patient by chemotherapy from the district court which ordered the patient's hospitalization.

3. In addition to protection of the person's constitutional rights, enjoyment of other legal, medical, religious, social, political, personal and working rights and privileges which the person would enjoy if the person were not so hospitalized or detained, so far as is possible consistent with effective treatment of that person and of the other patients of the hospital. If the patient's rights are restricted, the physician's direction to that effect shall be noted on the patient's record. The department of human services shall, in accordance with chapter 17A establish rules setting forth the specific rights and privileges to which persons so hospitalized or detained are entitled under this section, and the exceptions provided by section 17A.2, subsection 7, paragraphs "a" and "k", shall not be applicable to the rules so established. The patient or the patient's next of kin or friend shall be advised of these rules and be provided a written copy upon the patient's admission to or arrival at the hospital.

1. All papers and records pertaining to any involuntary hospitalization or application for involuntary hospitalization of any person under this chapter, whether part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the department of human services, are subject to inspection only upon an order of the court for good cause shown. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a hospital from complying with the requirements of this chapter and of chapter 230 relative to financial responsibility for the cost of care and treatment provided a patient in that hospital, nor from properly billing any responsible relative or third-party payer for such care and treatment.

2. If authorized in writing by a person who has been the subject of any proceeding or report under sections 229.6 to 229.13 or section 229.22, or by the parent or guardian of that person, information regarding that person which is confidential under subsection 1 may be released to any designated person.

229.25 Medical records to be confidential — exceptions.

The records maintained by a hospital or other facility relating to the examination, custody, care and treatment of any person in that hospital or facility pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential, except that the chief medical officer shall release appropriate information under any of the following circumstances:

1. The information is requested by a licensed physician, attorney or advocate who provides the chief medical officer with a written waiver signed by the person about whom the information is sought.

2. The information is sought by a court order.

3. The person who is hospitalized or that person's guardian, if the person is a minor or is not legally competent to do so, signs an informed consent to release information. Each signed consent shall designate specifically the person or agency to whom the information is to be sent, and the information may be sent only to that person or agency.

Such records may be released by the chief medical officer when requested for the purpose of research into the causes, incidence, nature and treatment of mental illness, however information shall not be provided in a way that discloses patients' names or which otherwise discloses any patient's identity.

When the chief medical officer deems it to be in the best interest of the patient and the spouse to do so, the chief medical officer may release appropriate information during a consultation which the hospital or facility shall arrange with the spouse of a voluntary or involuntary patient, if requested by a spouse.

1. Hospitalization of a person under this chapter, either voluntarily or involuntarily, does not constitute a finding of nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person so hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose including but not limited to any circumstances to which sections 447.7, 472.15, 545.402, subsection 5, paragraph "b", 545.705, 595.3, 597.6, 598.29, 614.8, 614.19, 614.22, 614.24, 614.27, 622.6, 633.244, and 675.21 are applicable.

2. The applicant may, in initiating a petition for involuntary hospitalization of a person under section 229.6 or at any subsequent time prior to conclusion of the involuntary hospitalization proceeding, also petition the court for a finding that the person is incompetent by reason of mental illness. The test of competence for the purpose of this section shall be whether the person possesses sufficient mind to understand in a reasonable manner the nature and effect of the act in which the person is engaged; the fact that a person is mentally ill and in need of treatment for that illness but because of the illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment does not necessarily mean that that person is incapable of transacting business on any subject.

3. A hearing limited to the question of the person's competence and conducted in substantially the manner prescribed in sections 633.552 to 633.556 shall be held when:

a. The court is petitioned or proposes upon its own motion to find incompetent by reason of mental illness a person whose involuntary hospitalization has been ordered under section 229.13 or 229.14, and who contends that the person is not incompetent; or

b. A person previously found incompetent by reason of mental illness under subsection 2 petitions the court for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent and, after notice to the applicant who initiated the petition for hospitalization of the person and to any other party as directed by the court, an objection is filed with the court. The court may order a hearing on its own motion before acting on a petition filed under this paragraph. A petition by a person for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent may be filed at any time without regard to whether the person is at that time hospitalized for treatment of mental illness.

4. Upon petitioning the court for a finding that a respondent is incompetent by reason of mental illness, the applicant may also request the court to appoint a conservator for the respondent. The court may appoint a temporary conservator as provided by section 633.573, or may defer a decision on the appointment of a conservator until a report is received under section 229.13 if the respondent is hospitalized for evaluation pursuant to that section.

5. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude use of any other procedure authorized by law for declaring any person legally incompetent for reasons which may include mental illness, without regard to whether that person is or has been hospitalized for treatment of mental illness.

When a court finds that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained or proposes to order continued hospitalization of any person, or an alternative placement, under section 229.14, subsection 2 or 4, and the court is furnished evidence that the respondent or patient is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government and that the facility is willing to receive the respondent or patient, the court may so order. The respondent or patient, when so hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government within or outside of this state, shall be subject to the rules of the veterans administration or other agency, but shall not thereby lose any procedural rights afforded the respondent or patient by this chapter. The chief officer of the facility shall have, with respect to the person so hospitalized or placed, the same powers and duties as the chief medical officer of a hospital in this state would have in regard to submission of reports to the court, retention of custody, transfer, convalescent leave or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the court to maintain surveillance of the person's treatment and care, and at any time to inquire into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody.

Upon receipt of a certificate stating that any person involuntarily hospitalized under this chapter is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government which is willing to receive the person without charge to the state of Iowa or any county in the state, the chief medical officer may transfer the person to that facility. Upon so doing, the chief medical officer shall notify the court which ordered the person's hospitalization in the same manner as would be required in the case of a transfer under section 229.15, subsection 4, and the person transferred shall be entitled to the same rights as the person would have under that subsection. No person shall be transferred under this section who is confined pursuant to conviction of a public offense or whose hospitalization was ordered upon contention of incompetence to stand trial by reason of mental illness, without prior approval of the court which ordered that person's hospitalization.

A judgment or order of hospitalization or commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia, under which any person is hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, shall have the same force and effect with respect to that person while the person is in this state as the judgment or order would have if the person were in the jurisdiction of the court which issued it. That court shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so hospitalized or placed for the purpose of inquiring into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody, as do courts in this state under section 229.28. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the state or district in which is situated the court which issued the judgment or order as regards authority of the chief officer of any facility, operated in this state by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, to retain custody, transfer, place on convalescent leave or discharge the person so hospitalized or committed.

229.31 Commission of inquiry.

A sworn complaint, alleging that a named person is not seriously mentally impaired and is unjustly deprived of liberty in any hospital in the state, may be filed by any person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such named person is so confined, or of the county in which such named person has a legal settlement, and thereupon a judge of said court shall appoint a commission of not more than three persons to inquire into the truth of said allegations. One of said commissioners shall be a physician and if additional commissioners are appointed, one of such commissioners shall be a lawyer.

229.39 Status of persons hospitalized under former law.

1. Each person admitted or committed to a hospital for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 who remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976 shall be considered to have been hospitalized under this chapter, and its provisions shall apply to each such person on and after the effective date of this section, except as otherwise provided by subsection 3.

2. Hospitalization of a person for treatment of mental illness, either voluntary or involuntary, on or before December 31, 1975 does not constitute a finding nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose, including but not limited to the circumstances enumerated in section 229.27, subsection 1. This subsection does not invalidate any specific declaration of incompetence of a person hospitalized if the declaration was made pursuant to a separate procedure authorized by law for that purpose, and did not result automatically from the person's hospitalization.

3. Where a person was hospitalized involuntarily for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 and remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976, but was subsequently discharged prior to July 1, 1978, this section shall not be construed to require:

a. The filing after July 1, 1978 of any report relative to that person's status which would have been required to be filed prior to said date if that person had initially been hospitalized under this chapter as amended by Acts of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly, 1975 Session, chapter 139, sections 1 to 30.

b. That legal proceedings be taken under this chapter, as so amended, to clarify the status of the person so hospitalized, unless that person or the district court considers such proceedings necessary in a particular case to appropriately conclude the matter.

If a person wishing to make application for voluntary admission to a mental hospital established by chapter 226 is unable to pay the costs of hospitalization or those responsible for such person are unable to pay such costs, application for authorization of voluntary admission must be made to any clerk of the district court before application for admission is made to the hospital. After determining the county of legal settlement the said clerk shall, on forms provided by the state director, authorize such person's admission to a mental health hospital as a voluntary case. The clerk shall at once provide a duplicate copy of the form to the county board of supervisors. The costs of the hospitalization shall be paid by the county of legal settlement to the director of revenue and finance and credited to the general fund of the state, providing the mental health hospital rendering the services has certified to the county auditor of the responsible county the amount chargeable thereto and has sent a duplicate statement of such charges to the director of revenue and finance.

All the provisions of chapter 230 shall apply to such voluntary patients so far as is applicable.

The provisions of this section and of section 229.41 shall apply to all voluntary inpatients or outpatients either away from or at the institution heretofore or hereafter receiving mental health services.

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from superintendent, the director of revenue and finance shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

The state director shall have the power to place patients of mental health institutes who have no county of legal settlement; who are nonresidents; or whose legal settlement is unknown, on convalescent leave to a private sponsor or in any health care facility licensed under chapter 135C, when in the opinion of the state

230.1 Liability of county and state.

The necessary and legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, admission, commitment, and support of a mentally ill person admitted or committed to a state hospital shall be paid:

1. By the county in which such person has a legal settlement, or
2. By the state when such person has no legal settlement in this state, or when such settlement is unknown.

The legal settlement of any person found mentally ill who is a patient of any state institution shall be that existing at the time of admission thereto.

230.2 Finding of legal settlement.

The district court shall, when a person is ordered placed in a hospital for psychiatric examination and appropriate treatment, or as soon thereafter as it obtains the proper information, determine and enter of record whether the legal settlement of said person is:

1. In the county from which the person was placed in the hospital;
2. In some other county of the state;
3. In some foreign state or country; or
4. Unknown.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.2]

If such legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state, the court shall, as soon as said determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital to which said patient is admitted or committed, and thereupon said superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of such patient, to the county so certified until said settlement shall be otherwise determined as hereinafter provided.

[C73, §1417; C97, §2281; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3583; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §230.3]

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the court to the county auditor of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall within sixty days give notice in writing to the court that the county disputes the finding of legal settlement.

If such legal settlement is found by the court to be in some foreign state or country, or unknown, it shall immediately notify the state director of such finding and furnish the state director with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement, and shall in its order issued pursuant to section 229.13 direct that the patient be hospitalized at the appropriate state hospital for the mentally ill.

The state director shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of said patient and proceed as follows:

1. If the state director finds that the decision of the court as to legal settlement is correct, the state director shall cause said patient either to be transferred to a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, or to be transferred, with approval of the court as required by this Act* to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the state director finds that the decision of the court is not correct, the state director shall order said patient to be maintained at a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, and shall at once inform the court of such finding and request that the court's order be modified accordingly.

Upon determining that a patient in a state hospital who has been involuntarily hospitalized under this Act* or admitted voluntarily at public expense was not a resident of this state at the time of the involuntary hospitalization or admission, the state director may cause that patient to be conveyed to the patient's place of residence. However, a transfer under this section may be made only if the patient's condition so permits and other reasons do not render the transfer inadvisable. If the patient was involuntarily hospitalized, prior approval of the transfer must be obtained from the court which ordered the patient hospitalized.

The transfer to state hospitals or to the places of their legal settlement of mentally ill persons who have no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made according to the directions of the state director, and when practicable by employees of state hospitals, and the actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the state director, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the mentally ill as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the state director finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of admission or commitment, in a county of this state, said state director shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases.

All legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, and admission or commitment of a person to a state hospital for the mentally ill under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall, in the first instance, be paid by the county of admission or commitment. The county of such legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such payments, with interest.

Costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, and investigation of a person who has been admitted or committed to a state hospital, veterans administration hospital or other agency of the United States government, for the mentally ill and who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, including cost of commitment, if any, shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county which has paid them, and approved by the state director.

When a dispute arises between different counties or between the state director and a county as to the legal settlement of a person admitted or committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill, the attorney general, at the request of the state director, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity.

The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of the admission or commitment, was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness, and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due.

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of admission or commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said mentally ill person shall be maintained in the hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final.

A mentally ill person and a person legally liable for the person's support remain liable for the support of the mentally ill person as provided in this section. Persons legally liable for the support of a mentally ill person include the spouse of the mentally ill person, any person bound by contract for support of the mentally ill person, and, with respect to mentally ill persons under eighteen years of age only, the father and mother of the mentally ill person. The county auditor, subject to the direction of the board of supervisors, shall enforce the obligation created in this section as to all sums advanced by the county. The liability to the county incurred by a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support under this section is limited to an amount equal to one hundred percent of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute for one hundred twenty days of hospitalization. This limit of liability may be reached by payment of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person subsequent to a single admission or multiple admissions to a state mental health institute or, if the person is not discharged as cured, subsequent to a single transfer or multiple transfers to a county care facility pursuant to section 227.11. After reaching this limit of liability, a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support is liable to the county for the care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute or, if transferred but not discharged as cured, at a county care facility in an amount not in excess of the average minimum cost of the maintenance of a physically and mentally healthy individual residing in the individual's own home, which standard shall be established and may from time to time be revised by the department of human services. A lien imposed by section 230.25 shall not exceed the amount of the liability which may be incurred under this section on account of any mentally ill person.

A substance abuser is legally liable for the total amount of the cost of providing care, maintenance, and treatment for the substance abuser while a voluntary or committed patient. When a portion of the cost is paid by a county, the substance abuser is legally liable to the county for the amount paid. The substance abuser shall assign any claim for reimbursement under any contract of indemnity, by insurance or otherwise, providing for the abuser's care, maintenance, and treatment in a state hospital to the state. Any payments received by the state from or on behalf of a substance abuser shall be in part credited to the county in proportion to the share of the costs paid by the county. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost or any portion of the care and treatment of any mentally ill person or substance abuser as established by the department of human services.

In actions to enforce the liability imposed by section 230.15, the certificate from the superintendent to the county auditor stating the sums charged in such cases, shall be presumptively correct.

The board of supervisors is hereby empowered to compromise any and all liabilities to the county, created by this chapter, when such compromise is deemed to be for the best interests of the county.

230.20 Billing of patient charges — computation of actual costs — cost settlement.

1. The superintendent of each mental health institute shall compute by February 1 the average daily patient charges and other service charges for which each county will be billed for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. The department shall certify the amount of the charges to the director of revenue and finance and notify the counties of the billing charges.

a. The superintendent shall separately compute by program the average daily patient charge for a mental health institute for services provided in the following fiscal year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the expenditures of the program for the immediately preceding calendar year, by adjusting the expenditures by a percentage not to exceed the percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the immediately preceding calendar year, and by dividing the adjusted expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided in the program during the immediately preceding calendar year. However, the superintendent shall not include the following in the computation of the average daily patient charge:

(1) The costs of food, lodging, and other maintenance provided to persons not patients of the hospital.

(2) The costs of certain direct medical services identified in administrative rule, which may include but need not be limited to X-ray, laboratory, and dental services.

(3) The costs of outpatient and state placement services.

b. The department shall compute the direct medical services, outpatient, and state placement services charges, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, on the basis of the actual cost of the services provided during the immediately preceding calendar year. The direct medical services, outpatient, and state placement services shall be billed directly against the patient who received the services.

2. The superintendent shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the billings to each county for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the preceding calendar quarter. The county billings shall be based on the average daily patient charge and other service charges computed pursuant to subsection 1, and the number of inpatient days and other service units chargeable to the county.

3. The superintendent shall compute in January the actual per-patient-per-day cost for each mental health institute for the immediately preceding calendar year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the actual expenditures of the mental health institute for the calendar year and by dividing the total actual expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the calendar year.

4. The department shall certify to the director of revenue and finance and the counties by February 1 the actual per-patient-per-day costs, as computed pursuant to subsection 3, and the actual costs owed by each county for the immediately preceding calendar year for patients chargeable to the county. If the actual costs owed by the county are greater than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall bill the county for the difference with the billing for the quarter ending June 30. If the actual costs owed by the county are less than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall credit the county for the difference starting with the billing for the quarter ending June 30.

5. An individual statement shall be prepared for a patient on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the patient leaves the mental health institute, and a general statement shall be prepared at least quarterly for each county to which charges are made under this section. Except as otherwise required by sections 125.33 and 125.34 the general statement shall list the name of each patient chargeable to that county who was served by the mental health institute during the preceding month or calendar quarter and the amount due on account of each patient, and the county shall be billed for eighty percent of the stated charge for each patient specified in this subsection. The statement prepared for each county shall be certified by the department to the director of revenue and finance and a duplicate statement shall be mailed to the auditor of that county.

6. All or any reasonable portion of the charges incurred for services provided to a patient, to the most recent date for which the charges have been computed, may be paid at any time by the patient or by any other person on the patient's behalf. Any payment so made, and any federal financial assistance received pursuant to Title XVIII or XIX of the federal Social Security Act for services rendered to a patient, shall be credited against the patient's account and, if the charges so paid have previously been billed to a county, reflected in the mental health institute's next general statement to that county.

1. Upon receipt from the county auditor of the list of names furnished pursuant to section 230.21, the board of supervisors shall make an investigation to determine the ability of each person whose name appears on the list, and also the ability of any person liable under section 230.15 for the support of that person, to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization. If the board finds that neither the hospitalized person nor any person legally liable for the person's support is able to pay those expenses, they shall direct the county auditor not to index the names of any of those persons as would otherwise be required by section 230.26. However the board may review its finding with respect to any person at any subsequent time at which another list is furnished by the auditor upon which that person's name appears. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally liable for the person's support are presently able to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization, that finding shall apply only to charges stated upon the certificate from which the list was drawn up and any subsequent charges similarly certified, unless and until the board again changes its finding.

2. All liens created under section 230.25, as that section appeared in the Code of 1975 and prior editions of the Code, are abolished effective January 1, 1977, except as otherwise provided by subsection 1. The board of supervisors of each county shall, as soon as practicable after July 1, 1976, review all liens resulting from the operation of said section 230.25, Code 1975, and make a determination as to the ability of the person against whom the lien exists to pay the charges represented by the lien, and if they find that the person is able to pay those charges they shall direct the county attorney of that county to take immediate action to enforce the lien. If action is commenced under this section on any lien prior to the effective date of the abolition thereof, that lien shall not be abolished but shall continue until the action is completed. The board of supervisors shall release any such lien when the charge on which the lien is based is fully paid or is compromised and settled by the board in such manner as its members deem to be in the best interest of the county, or when the estate affected by the lien has been probated and the proceeds allowable have been applied on the lien.

230A.1 Establishment and support of community mental health centers.

A county or affiliated counties, by action of the board or boards of supervisors, with approval of the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, may establish a community mental health center under this chapter to serve the county or counties. In establishing the community mental health center, the board of supervisors of each county involved may make a single non-recurring expenditure, in an amount determined by the board. This section does not limit the authority of the board or boards of supervisors of any county or group of counties to continue to expend money to support operation of the center, and to form agreements with the board of supervisors of any additional county for that county to join in supporting and receiving services from or through the center.

230A.2 Services offered.

A community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A.1 may offer to residents of the county or counties it serves any or all of the mental health services defined by the mental health and mental retardation commission in the state mental health plan.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A.2; 82 Acts, ch 1117, §3]

230A.3 Forms of organization.

1. Direct establishment of the center by the county or counties supporting it and administration of the center by an elected board of trustees, pursuant to sections 230A.4 to 230A.11.
2. Establishment of the center by a nonprofit corporation providing services to the county or counties on the basis of an agreement with the board or boards of supervisors, pursuant to sections 230A.12 and 230A.13.

230A.4 Trustees — qualifications — manner of selection.

When the board or boards of supervisors of a county or affiliated counties decides to directly establish a community mental health center under this chapter, the supervisors, acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties, shall appoint a board of community mental health center trustees to serve until the next succeeding general election. The board of trustees shall consist of at least seven members each of whom shall be a resident of the county or one of the counties served by the center. An employee of the center is not eligible for the office of community mental health center trustee. At the first general election following establishment of the center, all members of the board of trustees shall be elected. They shall assume office on the second day of the following January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday, and shall at once divide themselves by lot into three classes of as nearly equal size as possible. The first class shall serve for terms of two years, the second class for terms of four years, and the third class for terms of six years. Thereafter, a member shall be elected to the board of trustees for a term of six years at each general election to succeed each member whose term will expire in the following year.

230A.5 Election of trustees.

The election of community mental health center trustees shall take place at the general election on ballots which shall not reflect a nominee's political affiliation. Nomination shall be made by petition in accordance with chapter 45. The petition form shall be furnished by the county commissioner of elections, signed by eligible electors of the county or affiliated counties equal in number to one percent of the vote cast therein for president of the United States or governor, as the case may be, in the last previous general election, and shall be filed with the county commissioner of elections at least fifty-five days prior to the date of the general election. A plurality shall be sufficient to elect community mental health center trustees, and no primary election for that office shall be held.

230A.6 Vacancies.

Vacancies on the community mental health center board of trustees shall be filled by appointment in accordance with sections 69.11 and 69.12, by the remaining trustees, except that if the offices of more than half of the members of the board are vacant at any one time the vacancies shall be filled by the board of supervisors or boards of supervisors acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties. The office of any trustee who is absent from four consecutive regular board meetings, without prior excuse, may be declared vacant by the board of trustees and filled in accordance with this section.

230A.7 Organization — meetings — quorum.

The members of the board of community mental health center trustees shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office within ten days after their appointment or prior to the beginning of the term to which they were elected, as the case may be. At the initial meeting following appointment of a board of trustees or of a majority of the members of a board, and at the first meeting in January after each biennial general election, the board shall organize by election of one of the trustees as chairperson, one as secretary and one as treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall each file with the chairperson a surety bond in a penal sum set by the board of trustees and with sureties approved by the board for the use and benefit of the center, the reasonable cost of which shall be paid from the operating funds of the center. No other members of the board shall be required to post bond. The board shall meet at least once each month. One half plus one of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

3. The secretary shall draw warrants on the funds of the center, which shall be countersigned by the chairperson of the board of trustees, after claims are certified by the board.

4. The secretary shall file with the board of trustees, on or before the tenth day of each month, a complete statement of all receipts and disbursements from the center's funds during the preceding month and the balance remaining on hand at the close of the month.

1. The treasurer of the community mental health center shall receive the funds made available to the center by the county or counties it serves, and any other funds which may be made available to the center, and shall disburse the center's funds upon warrants drawn as required by section 230A.8, subsection 3.

2. The treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements and shall register all orders drawn and reported to the treasurer by the secretary, showing the number, date, to whom drawn, the purpose and amount.

3. At intervals specified by the county board of supervisors, not less often than once each ninety days, the county treasurer of each county served by the center shall notify the chairperson of the center's board of trustees of all amounts due the center from the county which have not previously been paid over to the treasurer of the center. The chairperson shall then file a claim for payment as specified in sections 331.504, subsection 7, 331.506 and 331.554. Section 331.504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, the claims shall not include information which in any manner identifies an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at the center.

The board of directors of each community mental health center which is organized as a nonprofit corporation shall prepare an annual budget for the center and, when satisfied with the budget, submit it to the auditor or auditors of the county or affiliated counties served by the center, at the time and in the manner prescribed by chapter 24. The budget shall be subject to review by and approval of the board of supervisors of the county which is served by the center or, in the case of a center serving affiliated counties, by the board of supervisors of each county, acting separately, to the extent the budget is to be financed by taxes levied by that county or by funds allocated to that county by the state which the county may by law use to help support the center.

Release of information which would identify an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at a community mental health center shall not be made a condition of support of that center by any county under this section. Section 331.504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, a community mental health center shall not be required to file a claim which would in any manner identify such an individual, if the center's budget has been approved by the county board under this section and the center is in compliance with section 230A.16, subsection 3.

230A.16 Establishment of standards.

The director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall recommend and the mental health and mental retardation commission shall adopt standards for community mental health centers and comprehensive community mental health programs, with the overall objective of ensuring that each center and each affiliate providing services under contract with a center furnishes high quality mental health services within a framework of accountability to the community it serves. The standards shall be in substantial conformity with those of the psychiatric committee of the joint committee on accreditation of hospitals and other recognized national standards for evaluation of psychiatric facilities unless in the judgment of the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, with approval of the mental health and mental retardation commission, there are sound reasons for departing from such standards. When recommending standards under this section, the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall designate an advisory committee representing boards of directors and professional staff of community mental health centers to assist in the formulation or revision of standards. At least a simple majority of the members of the advisory committee shall be lay representatives of community mental health center boards of directors. At least one member of the advisory committee shall be a member of a county board of supervisors. The standards recommended under this section shall include requirements that each community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A.1 shall:

1. Maintain and make available to the public a written statement of the services it offers to residents of the county or counties it serves, and employ or contract for services with affiliates employing specified minimum numbers of professional personnel possessing specified appropriate credentials to assure that the services offered are furnished in a manner consistent with currently accepted professional standards in the field of mental health.

2. Unless it is governed by a board of trustees elected or selected under sections 230A.5 and 230A.6, be governed by a board of directors which adequately represents interested professions, consumers of the center's services, socioeconomic, cultural, and age groups, and various geographical areas in the county or counties served by the center.

3. Arrange for the financial condition and transactions of the community mental health center to be audited once each year by the auditor of state. However, in lieu of an audit by state accountants, the local governing body of a community mental health center organized under this chapter may contract with or employ certified public accountants to conduct the audit, pursuant to the applicable terms and conditions prescribed by sections 11.18 and 11.19 and audit format prescribed by the auditor of state. Copies of each audit shall be furnished by the accountant to the director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, and the board of supervisors supporting the audited community mental health center.

4. Adopt and implement procedural rules ensuring that no member of the center's board of directors, or board of trustees receives from the center information which identifies or is intended to permit the members of the board to identify any person who is a client of that center.

230A.17 Review and evaluation.

The director of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities may review and evaluate any community mental health center upon the recommendation of the mental health and mental retardation commission, and shall do so upon the written request of the center's board of directors, its chief medical or administrative officer, or the board of supervisors of any county from which the center receives public funds. The cost of the review shall be paid by the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities.

230A.18 Report of review and evaluation.

Upon completion of a review made pursuant to section 230A.17, the review shall be submitted to the board of directors and chief medical or administrative officer of the center. If the review concludes that the center fails to meet any of the standards established pursuant to section 230A.16, subsection 1, and that the response of the center to this finding is unsatisfactory, these conclusions shall be reported to the mental health and mental retardation commission which may forward the conclusions to the board of directors of the center and request an appropriate response within thirty days. If no response is received within thirty days, or if the response is unsatisfactory, the commission may call this fact to the attention of the board of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, and in doing so shall indicate what corrective steps have been recommended to the center's board of directors.

1. During the pendency of an action under this chapter, a party to the action is estopped from litigating concurrently the custody, guardianship, or placement of a child who is the subject of the action, in a court other than the juvenile court. A district judge, district associate judge, magistrate, or judicial hospitalization referee, upon notice of the pendency of an action under this chapter, shall not issue an order, finding, or decision relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action, under any law, including but not limited to chapter 598, 598A, or 633.

2. The juvenile court with jurisdiction of the pending action under this chapter, however, may, upon the request of a party to the action or on its own motion, authorize the party to litigate concurrently in another court a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action. Before authorizing a party to litigate a specific issue in another court, the juvenile court shall give all parties to the action an opportunity to be heard on the proposed authorization. The juvenile court may request but shall not require another court to exercise jurisdiction and adjudicate a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child.

DIVISION II

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY PROCEEDINGS

PART 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

232.8 Jurisdiction.

1. The juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning a child who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act unless otherwise provided by law, and has exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning an adult who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act prior to having become an adult, provided that the taking of that person into custody for the alleged act or the filing of a delinquency petition alleging the commission of the act occurs within the time periods and under the conditions specified in chapter 802.

The juvenile court has jurisdiction over such an adult for one year beyond the last date upon which jurisdiction over the adult attaches under this subsection.

Violations by a child of provisions of chapter 106, 106A, 109, 109A, 110, 110A, 110B, 111, 321, or 321G which would be simple misdemeanors if committed by an adult, violations of county or municipal curfew or traffic ordinances, and violations by a child of the provisions of section 123.47, are excluded from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and shall be prosecuted as simple misdemeanors as provided by law. The court may advise appropriate juvenile authorities and may refer violations of section 123.47 to the juvenile court when there is reason to believe that the child regularly abuses alcohol and may be in need of treatment. The court shall notify the parents or legal guardians of a child that appears before it for a violation of section 123.47.

2. A case involving a person charged in a court other than the juvenile court with the commission of a public offense not exempted by law from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and who is within the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall immediately be transferred to the juvenile court. The transferring court shall order a transfer and shall forward the transfer order together with all papers, documents and a transcript of all testimony filed or admitted into evidence in connection with the case to the clerk of the juvenile court. The jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall attach immediately upon the signing of an order of transfer. From the time of transfer, the custody, shelter care and detention of the person alleged to have committed a delinquent act shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the case shall be processed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
