BIKEWAYS AND WALKWAYS

[Prior to 6/3/87, Transportation Department[820]—(06.A) Ch 2]
Rescinded IAB 3/29/95, effective 5/3/95.

CHAPTER 128

CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

761—128.1(321) Route of travel for overweight axles to or from a construction project. A vehicle that exceeds the legal maximum axle weight shall not be permitted to travel on any part of the interstate highway system. If the route of travel does not include any part of the interstate system, a contractor transporting raw material from a highway construction project or from a designated borrow site to a highway construction project over primary roads may exceed by 10 percent the legal maximum axle weight as specified in Iowa Code section 321.463.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code section 321.463.
