

633.675 Cause for termination.

1. A guardianship or a conservatorship shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- a. If the protected person is a minor, when the protected person reaches full age.
- b. The death of the protected person.
- c. Upon determination by the court that the conservatorship or guardianship is no longer necessary for any other reason.

2. The court shall terminate a guardianship if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the basis for appointing a guardian pursuant to section 633.552 has not been established.

3. The court shall terminate a conservatorship if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the basis for appointing a conservator pursuant to section 633.553 or 633.554 is not satisfied.

4. The court shall terminate a conservatorship if it finds by clear and convincing evidence all of the following:

- a. The value of the protected person's property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.
- b. That continued administration of the conservatorship is not in the best interest of the protected person.
- c. That a reasonable alternative exists under section 633.678 for managing the protected person's assets.

5. The standard of proof and the burden of proof to be applied in a termination proceeding shall be the same as set forth in section 633.551, subsection 2.
