

A BILL

FOR AN ACT ADDITIONAL TO AND AMENDATORY OF CHAPTER ONE (1) OF TITLE ELEVEN (XI) OF THE CODE, AND THE LAW AS IT APPEARS IN CHAPTER ONE (1) TITLE ELEVEN (XI) OF THE SUPPLEMENT TO THE CODE AND CHAPTER SEVENTY-SEVEN (77) OF THE ACTS OF THE THIRTIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY, RELATIVE TO THE STATE MILITARY FORCE AND IOWA NATIONAL GUARD.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Section 1. That the law as it appears in section one (1) of chapter seventy-seven (77) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby amended by adding the following after the “,” following the word “state” in the third line thereof: “as organized and officered unless otherwise directed in such requisition.”

Sec. 2. That the law as it appears in section two (2) of chapter seventy-seven (77) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby amended by striking therefrom all of said section preceding and including the word “service” in the third line thereof, and substituting the following therefor: “All enlistments shall be for three years except that enlistments made within ninety days from date of discharge from Guard, United States Army, or the organized and disciplined militia of any state, shall be considered continuous service in the Guard.”

Sec. 3. That the law as it appears in section twenty-one hundred seventy-four (2174) of the Supplement to the Code, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows: “The staff of the commander-in-chief shall consist of an adjutant-general who shall be chief of staff and acting quarter-master general, an assistant adjutant-general, a quarter-master general, who shall also act as commissary general, a surgeon-general, a judge-advocate general a general inspector of small arms practice, a chief of engineers, a chief signal officer, and seven aids; all of whom shall have served honorably in the regular or volunteer service of the United States, or for not less than one year in the Guard. The adjutant-general and assistant adjutant general shall be appointed and commissioned by the commander-in-chief, and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and commissioned. The other officers above enumerated may at the discretion of the commander-in-chief be appointed and commissioned by him or detailed for such service from the active membership of the guard, or their duties may be performed by United States Army officers regularly or specially detailed,

14 for service with the guard or in the State, by the war department. The adjutant-general shall 15 have the rank of brigadier-general, and the assistant adjutant-general that of colonel. All 16 other officers above enumerated, if appointed and commissioned to such offices, shall have the 17 rank of colonel, and if detailed from the active membership of the guard, shall retain their 18 rank in the guard and shall not be relieved from their regular duties by reason of such detail.
19 United States Army officers, regularly or specially detailed for service with the Guard or in 20 the State, may be assigned positions on the staff with their rank in the United States service 21 or such higher rank, not above that of colonel, as the commander-in-chief may designate.

Sec. 4. That the law as it appears in section three (3) of chapter seventy-seven, (77) of the 2 acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto,
3 the following:

4 "The assistant adjutant-general shall be on duty with the adjutant-general, and shall perform 5 such duties under the direction of the adjutant-general as the commander-in-chief may 6 prescribe, and in the absence of the adjutant-general, shall perform the duties of that officer 7 as acting adjutant-general."

Sec. 5. That the law as it appears in section four (4) of chapter seventy-seven, (77) of the 2 acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to
3 read as follows:

4 "When requisition shall be made on the Governor of Iowa by the President of the United 5 States for troops, and during the time the Iowa troops are in the service of the United States
6 under call of the President, the salary of the adjutant-general shall be increased so that he 7 shall receive in full compensation for his services, pay and allowances equal to that of a 8 brigadier-general of the United States Army."

Sec. 6. That the law as it appears in section five (5) of chapter seventy-seven, (77) of the 2 acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to
3 read as follows:

4 "The regimental staff shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor upon recom-
5 medation of the regimental commander, and shall consist of one major surgeon and two 6 assistant surgeons or as many as may be required for volunteer regiments in the United States
7 army, who shall receive the approval of the Surgeon General as to their professional 8 qualifications before being commissioned, an adjutant, a quarter-master, a commissary, a 9 chaplain, and also for each battalion one adjutant and one quarter-master commissary officer,
10 each of which officers shall have the same rank as corresponding officers in the United States
11 army. The chaplains shall have the right of promotion as provided for in the regulations 12 of the United States army. One inspector of small arms practice may be detailed by the 13 commanding officer of each regiment from the officers of his command. The commander of 14 each regiment shall appoint by warrant from the enlisted men of his regiment, a non-

15 commissioned staff, consisting of a regimental sergeant major, a sergeant major for each 16 batallion, a quarter-master sergeant, a commissary sergeant, two color sergeants, two mounted
17 orderlies with rank of sergeant and four orderlies not mounted, with rank of corporal, the State
18 to furnish mounts. The commissions of regimental staff officers shall expire when the officer 19 nominating them, or his successor, shall make new nominations for their respective offices, 20 and such nominations shall be confirmed by the commander-in-chief. Each regimental 21 commander, subject to the approval of the commander-in-chief, may cause to be enlisted 22 and organized a band, composed of one chief musician, one principal musician, one drum 23 major, four sergeants, eight corporals, one cook and not more than sixteen privates. The 24 enlisted men of the medical department for each regiment shall consist of a first class sergeant,
25 two sergeants, one cook and twelve to fifteen privates, two-thirds of whom may be privates
26 of the first class. The members of such bands and hospital detachments except as otherwise 27 provided, shall be subject to the same regulations and receive the same compensation as other 28 enlisted men of like grade. The regimental commander shall appoint the non-commissioned 29 officers of the band, and upon the recommendation of the company commanders and surgeons, 30 shall appoint the non-commissioned officers of each company and hospital detachments and 31 issue warrants to the persons so appointed."

Sec. 7. That the law as it appears in section nine (9) of chapter seventy-seven (77) of the 2 acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, be and the same is hereby amended by striking there-3 from the words "not less than three nor more than ten days" after the word "drill" in the 4 fourth line thereof, and by further striking out the words "not exceeding ten days in any 5 one year for any member, except members of the general staff and those detailed upon staff 6 duty or such other duties as the exigences of the service require" after the word "order" in 7 the ninth line thereof.

Sec. 8. That section twenty-one hundred eighty-nine (1289) of the Code be and the same is 2 hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. That section twenty-one hundred and ninety (2190) of the Code be and the same is 2 hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

3 "All officers to whom shall be issued, or who shall be accountable, for arms, equipment, 4 uniforms and any other State or United States property for military uses, or who shall have 5 the control, custody or disbursement of funds as provided for in this chapter, shall before the 6 delivery to them of such arms, equipment, uniforms and other State or United States pro-
7 perty, and the receipt of such funds, be required to execute and deliver to the adjutant-gen-
8 eral a bond therefor, with securities to be approved by the Governor and payable to the State, 9 in such amount as may be fixed by the commonder-in-chief, conditioned according to law, for 10 the proper care, use and return in good order, wear, use and unavoidable loss and damage
11 excepted, of all such State and United States property, and the proper and faithful dis-

12 bursement and accounting of all funds coming into the hands of such officer; upon the viola-13 tion of any of the conditions of such bond, action thereon shall be brought by the adjutant-14 general upon behalf of the state of Iowa, and any recovery thereon shall be credited to the 15 Guard funds of the State. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general of the State to 16 prosecute all actions upon such bonds.”

Sec. 10. That section twenty-one hundred ninety-one (2191) of the Code, be and the same
2 is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

3 “The commander-in-chief shall require such inspections of the different organizations of the 4 Guard, and such schools of instruction for officers and enlisted men, as he may deem proper
5 and necessary. The inspections shall be made by United States Army officers, either on regu-
6 lar or special detail with the Guard or in the State, where such officers are available for that 7 purpose, and if made by other officers, the commander-in-chief shall fix their compensation 8 therefor in the orders for such inspectors.”

Sec. 11. That section twenty-one hundred and ninety-two (2192) of the Code be and the 2 same is hereby amended by striking out the word “or” after the word “certificate” in the sec-3 ond line and inserting in lieu thereof the word “of”.

2 hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

3 “The adjutant-general shall procure from the available funds at his disposal, service badges
4 for members of the Guard, as follows:

5 For five years honorable service, a “silver badge” suspended from a silver bar, and for each 6 additional five years of honorable service including twenty years, a “silver bar” with number 7 of years service enameled thereon; said bars to be attached, in their order, to the lower edge
8 of the badge. For twenty-five years or more honorable service, a “gold badge” suspended 9 from a gold bar, the design and selection of the badges and bars as above provided for, to be 10 made by a committee of officers designated by the commander-in-chief. Service badges shall 11 be the absolute property of those to whom they are awarded.”

Sec. 13. The commander-in-chief may designate the location of four regimental rifle 2 ranges, and the expenditure of the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be 3 necessary, is hereby allowed for the acquisition and construction thereof, such sums to be 4 expended under the direction of such officer or board of officers as the commander-in-chief
5 may direct, and the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00), or so much thereof as may be nec-
6 essary, shall be allowed annually for expenditure in like manner for the rental and mainten-7 ance of each of said ranges, and the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) annually, for 8 each company, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be allowed upon such conditions
9 as the commander-in-chief may prescribe for the procurement, construction and maintenance 10 of company rifle ranges.”

1 Sec. 14. That the law as it appears in section twenty-two hundred and three (2203) of the 2 Supplement to the Code, be repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

3 "There shall be allowed annually for postage, stationery, clerk hire and office incidentals, to 4 each regimental headquarters, each company commander, and each regimental band, the sum
5 of one hundred dollars ($100.00); and for like purposes to the following staff officers, surgeon
6 general, general inspector small arms practice, and regimental inspector of small arms prac-7 tice, ten dollars ($10.00) to be paid in semi-annual payments."
