4 suspended or revoked, shall immediately extend the period of such 5 first suspension or revocation for an additional like period.

1 Sec. 26. Optional suspensions. The department may
2 immediately suspend the license of any person without hearing and
3 without receiving a record of conviction of such person of crime

• 6 the conviction of which mandatory revocation of license is 7 provided.

8 b. That such person has, by reckless or unlawful

2 is hereby authorized to suspend or revoke the license of any

5 committed in this state, would be grounds for the suspension or
6 revocation of the license of an operator or chauffeur.

1 Sec. 30. Limit on suspension. The department shall
2 not suspend a license for a period of more than one year and upon

3 suspending or revoking any license shall require that such license

5 operation of a motor vehicle exists in any court in this state
6 against the applicant, unless the payment of such judgment has 7 been guaranteed by a duly executed stay bond or by a super-
8 cedeeas bond on appeal, or by other adequate security.

1 Sec. 32. Subsequently discovered or rendered judgment.
2 If after a license has been issued, the department discovers that

4 revoke such license until such time as said judgment is satisfied
5 or payment thereof secured as aforesaid.

1 Sec. 33. Appeal. Any person denied a license or whose 2 license has been revoked by the department except where such

8 notice to the department, and thereupon to take testimony and

9 examine into the facts of the case and to determine whether the 10 petitioner is entitled to a license or is subject to revocation
11 of license under the provisions of this chapter. The hearing
12 shall be as in equity and the decision of the court shall be final.

1 Sec. 34. New license—conditions. Any person whose

1 Sec. 26. Optional suspensions. The department may

2 immediately suspend the license of any person without hearing and
3 without receiving a record of conviction of such person of crime
4 whenever the department has reason to believe:

5 a. That such person has committed any offense for 6 the conviction of which mandatory revocation of license is 7 provided.

8 b. That such person has, by reckless or unlawful

6 vehicle upon a highway when his right to operate has been suspended 7 or revoked by the department shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

1 Sec. 28. Foreign convictions—effect. The department
2 is hereby authorized to suspend or revoke the license of any

3 resident of this state upon receiving notice of the conviction

5 committed in this state, would be grounds for the suspension or
6 revocation of the license of an operator or chauffeur.

1 Sec. 29. Limit on suspension. The department shall
2 not suspend a license for a period of more than one year and upon
3 suspending or revoking any license shall require that such license

5 operation of a motor vehicle exists in any court in this state
6 against the applicant, unless the payment of such judgment has

4 revoke such license until such time as said judgment is satisfied
5 or payment thereof secured as aforesaid.

1 Sec. 32. Appeal. Any person denied a license or whose
2 license has been revoked by the department except where such

3 revocation is mandatory shall have the right to file a petition 4 within thirty days thereafter for a hearing in the matter in the 5 district court in the county wherein such person shall reside,
6 and such court is hereby vested with jurisdiction and it shall be 7 its duty to set the matter for hearing upon ten days' written 8 notice to the department, and thereupon to take testimony and
9 examine into the facts of the case and to determine whether the 10 petitioner is entitled to a license or is subject to revocation
11 of license under the provisions of this chapter. The hearing
12 shall be as in equity and the decision of the court shall be final.

17 or fictitious address in any application for an operator's or 18 chauffeur's license, or any renewal or duplicate thereof, or 19 knowingly to make a false statement or knowingly to conceal a 20 material fact or otherwise commit a fraud in any such application.

1 Sec. 35. Aiding violation. It shall be unlawful for
