GENERAL PROVISIONS

1 Sec. 61. The governing board of any state department, institution,
2 or agency, or, if there be no governing board, the head of any depart-
3 ment, institution or agency, in the interest of economy and efficiency,
4 may, with the written consent and approval of the governor and di-
5 rector of the budget, first obtained, at any time during the biennium,
6 partially or wholly use its unexpended appropriations for purposes

7 properly within the scope of such department, institution or agency.

1 Sec. 62. Nothing in this act shall be construed to require the audi-
2 tor of state to keep a separate account for each specific item in an 3 appropriation made to any department, but such account may be kept 4 in an aggregate amount of the appropriation.

1 Sec. 63. No state department, institution, or agency receiving ap-
2 propriations under the provisions of this act shall expend funds or 3 approve claims in excess of its appropriations, except as otherwise
4 provided in this act. If the expenditures of any state department,
5 institution, or agency, shall in any other manner exceed the amounts 6 of its appropriation, the members of the governing board of any such 7 state department, institution or agency who shall have voted for such 8 excessive expenditures, or, if there be no governing board, the head of 9 any such state department, institution or agency making excessive
10 expenditure or approving excessive claims shall be personally liable 11 for the full amount of the unauthorized deficit thus created.

12 When the appropriation of any department, institution or agency is 13 insufficient to properly meet the legitimate expense of such depart-
14 ment, institution or agency of the state, the governor, with the ap-15 proval of the director of the budget, is authorized to transfer from any 16 other department, institutiton or agency of the state having an appro-17 priation in excess of its necessity, sufficient funds to meet that 18 deficiency.

1 Sec. 64. No obligation of any kind, whatsoever, shall be incurred or 2 created subsequent to June 30, 1933, against any appropriation made
3 by this act, unles otherwise specifically provided by law, and, on June

4 30, 1933, it shall be the duty of the head of each department, board or 5 commission, receiving appropriations under the provisions of this act, 6 to file with the auditor of state a list of all expenditures for which 7 warrants have not been drawn.

1 Sec. 65. Except where otherwise specifically provided by law, all
2 appropriations made by this act, remaining unexpended or unobli-
3 gated, at the close of business on December 31, 1933, shall revert to 4 and become a part of the general fund in the state treasury.

1 Sec. 66. All salaries provided for by this act are in lieu of all exist-
2 ing statutory salaries, for the positions provided herein, and shall be 3 payable in equal monthly or semi-monthly installments, and shall be 4 in full compensation for all services except as otherwise expressly 5 provided.

6 In all cases the amount of the salary or per diem which has been 7 fixed by the various appropriations, shall be considered the maximum 8 amount available for the respective position and it shall be the duty of 9 the heads of the various departments to use discretion in the matter
10 of compensating employees, within the limits provided by this act.

11 The employees provided for in this Act are granted one week's vaca-12 tion after one year's steady employment and two weeks vacation after 13 two or more years employment, with pay. Leave of absence of thirty 14 days is granted to employees on account of sickness or injury, accu-15 mulative for three consecutive years, with pay at the discretion of 16 the heads of departments.

17 Any person while traveling on state business, driving
18 his own car, may charge for same at the rate of not to exceed seven

19 cents (7c) per mile for use of said car, regardless of the number of 20 passengers carried. All citations in the code regarding automobile 21 transportation are hereby repealed.

1 Sec. 67. All clerks, janitors and other employees provided for by 2 this act, shall be under the control of the head of the department and 3 may, by him, be temporarily assigned to such other work or duties
4 within the department as he shall direct and shall be subject to dis-
5 missal by him.

1 Sec. 68. For the office of the Auditor of State there is hereby set
2 aside from the collection of taxes on gasoline, the sum of Two thousand 3 five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) annually, for use in employing suffi-
4 cient help in writing gas tax refund warrants.

1 Sec. 69. For the office of the Industrial Commissioner there is
2 hereby set aside from the Primary Road fund the sum of Fifteen
3 Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) annually, for use in paying all claims of 4 employees of the State Highway Commission who are injured or killed
5 while on duty, as provided for in Chapter 70 of the code.

1 Sec. 70. There is hereby set aside from the Primary Road Fund the 2 sum of Twenty Five Thousand dollars ($25,000.00) annually, for the 3 purpose of covering all costs of litigation arising from or pertaining to 4 Primary Roads.

1 Sec. 71. Any provisions of the laws of this state in conflict with 2 this act are hereby repealed.

1 Sec. 72. BIENNIAL STATE LEVY. The amount of revenue for 2 general state purposes is hereby designated and fixed by the General
3 Assembly as the sum of Ten Million five hundred forty one thousand

4 three hundred forty six dollars ($10,541,346.00) to be provided by the 5 levy of 1931, and the sum of Ten million five hundred forty one thou-
6 sand three hundred forty six dollars ($10,541,346.00) to be provided
7 by the levy of 1932, said levies to be made as provided for in Sections
8 Seven thousand one hundred eighty-two, (7182) and Seven thousand 9 one hundred eighty three (7183) of the Code, and as amended by 10 Chapter 205, Section 33, Acts of the 43rd G. A.
